

Jesus Christ, the Good Samaritan, came to bind up the sinners's wounds. (Luke 10:25-37). Jesus Christ tells believers to help new Christians grow. "Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee." (v.35). This book helps you do this.

THE WAY TO GOD and HEAVEN

1. We have sinned by breaking God's laws, the 10 commandments. We have been selfish, putting ourselves first, taking God's good gifts of creation without thanking Him as Provider. We have broken the chief commandment of not loving God with all our heart, soul, mind and strength. We have not loved others as we love ourselves. This is sin. We are all big sinners compared to God.
2. God's Law demands that we receive penalty for our sin in hell forever. This is bad news. God loves us and is offering everybody the free gift of eternal life which we get through from Jesus Christ.
3. Jesus Christ, who is God the Son, came to earth, lived a sinless life, and at the age of 33 died on the cross to take the full punishment due for everybody's past, present and future sins. Having received the full penalty of our sins, He died, was buried and rose from the dead three days later.
4. If you believe the Jesus Christ is:
 - a) God the Son.
 - b) Died for your sins in your place; and
 - c) Rose again bodily from the dead, Then Receive or ask Jesus Christ to be your Saviour from sin,
Then God will forgive all your sins and give you eternal life immediately.

Question: Will you receive Jesus Christ as your Saviour? If yes, then tell this to God right now:

"Almighty God, I know that I have sinned against you. I believe that Jesus Christ died on the cross to pay the penalty for my sins to be my Saviour. I now receive you, Lord Jesus Christ, as my Saviour and my God. I now call on you, Lord Jesus, to save me from my sins, take me to heaven when I die, and give me the gift of eternal life right now. I now open the door of my heart and life for You, Lord Jesus, to come in to be my Saviour, my Friend and my God forever. In Jesus Christ's name, I pray. Amen."

ANSWERS

by Keith Piper

A Series of Follow Up Bible Studies On Life's Key Questions

Are you “ABLE TO TEACH OTHERS ALSO”?

“And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.” II Timothy 2:2.

Website: www.keithpiper.org

“ANSWERS - A Series of Follow Up Bible Studies On Life’s Key Questions”.

Copyright© 1995 by Keith Piper. 2nd Edition 1997. 3rd Edition 1999. 4th Edition 2003. 5th Edition 2007. 6th Edition 2009 (6). 7th Edition 2014 (4) 8th Edition 2016 (4). 9th Edition 2018 (5). ISBN: 0 949047 35 X

The artwork on the cover depicts Jesus Christ’s Parables of The Sower (Matthew 13:3-9,18-23) and of The Wheat and Tares (Matthew 13:24-30,36-43). These parables teach our need to sow more seed of the gospel and sound Bible doctrine (Titus 1:9; 2:1) throughout the world, so that all believers may become “established in the faith” (Acts 16:5) and become “able to teach others also” (2 Timothy 2:2). It teaches the need for more “good ground” type churches which help believers to bear more fruit. It teaches that the enemy is at work sowing false doctrines through his children and by catching away from people’s minds some of God’s Word which is not understood.

The purpose of this book is to help people better understand God’s Word, to identify and reject false doctrines, and to help Christians to multiply disciples by teaching others also.

The front and back cover illustrations are two of 258 Merian copper-plate engravings by Matthaus Merian, which were included in a 1630 edition of Martin Luther’s German Bible. In 1630, an unknown artist painted the engravings. The engraver Matthaus Merian, was born in Basle, Switzerland on September 22, 1593, as the son of an affluent town councillor, Walther Merian. Matthaus lived, married and worked in Frankfurt until his death on June 19, 1650 aged 57 years.

All Scripture quoted is from the King James Version unless otherwise noted.

Acknowledgements: To the Lord Jesus Christ, Who is the central theme of the Bible, History, the Universe, Eternity and our lives. This book aims to “preach among the gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ” (Ephesians 3:8), to glorify God and to win the world to Christ.

How to obtain copies of this book: Email: piperkeith@vahoo.com.au.

Write to Keith Piper at PO Box 188, Cherrybrook, NSW, Australia, 2126.

Phone: 61-2-98754321; 61-414-106-279 (International), 02-98754321 (in Australia).

Website: www.keithpiper.org Other books by K. Piper: “Established in the Faith” (96 pages).

“Understanding”, “Questions” (96 pages), “Jesus Christ’s Life in Pictures”

“Bible College Assignment Questions” (100 pages); “Serious Omissions in the NIV Bible” (137 p).

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Proofs of Christ, the Bible and God

1.	Proof of Christ and the Bible.....	1
2.	Fulfilled Prophecy as Proof of the Bible	2
3.	Science as Proof of the Bible	13
4.	Proofs of the Existence of God	18
5.	Reasons for the Bible, Heaven, Resurrection, Deity, Creation, Baptism.....	20

General Bible Studies

6.	Heaven	24
7.	Hell	27
8.	Rewards	32
9.	The Feasts of Jehovah	35
10.	Historical Background of the Old Testament	36
11.	Bible Maps.....	38
12.	Miscellaneous Charts and Tables.....	42
13.	Some Challenging Thoughts	49
14.	The Parables of Jesus	59
15.	Events in the Life of Christ and Harmony of the Gospels.....	66
16.	Angels	73

Soul Winning

17.	How to Lead a Person to Christ	93
18.	Soul Winning Test Questions.....	98
19.	Advantages of using the Stop Tract in Soul Winning.....	102
20.	Missionary Strategy and Duty Statement	103
21.	Why Christians should do Soul Winning	105
22.	Stop Tracts in English, Chinese, Tagalog, Kiswahili.....	110
23.	Correct Mental Attitudes in Soul Winning.....	123
24.	What God Gives us when we Receive Christ as our Saviour	124
25.	Does a Person have to Call on Christ to be Saved?.....	125
26.	A Christian Should.....	132
27.	Tests of a Person's Salvation	133
28.	Answers to Common Objections Met in Soul Winning	134
29.	Hindrances to Successful Soul Winning	136
30.	Door Knocking.....	137

Church Issues

31.	What an Independent Baptist Church Stands for.....	138
32.	Statement of Faith of Liberty Baptist Church (Independent)	141
33.	Reasons for Coming to Church	147
34.	Baptism	148
35.	Friendship	152
36.	How to Start an Independent Baptist Church	157
37.	The Lord's Supper	158
38.	Why the Church Exists	159
39.	Ushers' Duties.....	161
40.	Pastors' Ethics	162
41.	Things Dead or Lukewarm Churches Won't Teach You	163
42.	Valuable Things a Good Church Produces	164
43.	Things a Good Church is Compared to	164
44.	Don't Attend a Counterfeit Church.....	168
45.	How to Have Genuine Revival.....	169

Second Coming of Jesus Christ

46.	47 Signs of Christ's Return	171
47.	The Second Coming of Jesus Christ to Earth	184
48.	7 Dispensations	188
49.	The Rapture	190
50.	The Judgment Seat of Christ	192
51.	Judgments of the Tribulation.....	194
52.	The Russian and Muslim Invasion of Israel	195
53.	The Millennium or Rule of Christ on Earth – What will it be like?	208
54.	Christ will Personally Appear on Earth.....	212
55.	Daniel's 70 Week Prophecy.....	214
56.	9 Charts.....	226

Discipleship

57.	Discipleship by Multiplication	234
58.	How to Run a Discipleship Seminar	244
59.	Challenging Questions to Motivate Christians	245
60.	Qualities You Need to Make Disciples	246
61.	Bible College Curriculum	250
62.	What all Christians Must Know	251
63.	What it Means to Surrender 100% to Jesus Christ	284

Christian Living

64.	The Christian Life Portrayed in Israel's Journey.....	285
65.	Be Filled with the Spirit	286
66.	Prayer: Communicating with God.....	291
67.	Grow in Grace.....	299
68.	Tools to Conquer Worry, Fear, Depression.....	304
69.	ABCs of Life's Foundations	307
70.	Great Christians' Inspiring Lives. The Challenge of Missionaries.....	309
71.	What is Love?	321
72.	Guidance: How to Find the Will of God	324
73.	Twelve Tongue Tamers.....	326
74.	49 Character Qualities.....	327
75.	God's Faithfulness in Trials and Testings	331
76.	Eighteen Devices Satan Uses Against Us	334
77.	Nine Issues that Concern Young People	337
78.	Barriers to Obedience.....	344
79.	Stairway to Hell	345
80.	How to be Wise.....	350
81.	How to Have Joy.....	352
82.	How to Increase our Faith	355
83.	How to Understand Adversity.....	358
84.	Stable Homes Produce Happy Children	362
85.	Scripture Swords for Personal Battles	368
86.	Bible Keys for a Happy Marriage	369
87.	Reasons to Obey God.....	370
88.	Principles of Spiritual Growth.....	375
89.	Fourteen Mystery Doctrines of the New Testament.....	382
90.	Tithing.....	384

False Doctrines Refuted

91.	Good Works or Keeping the Law does not Save us.....	387
92.	Evolution: Evidence of Creation in 6 Days	391
93.	Loss of Salvation: Jesus Christ Keeps us Saved Forever	433
94.	A Closer Study of Passages Used to Teach Loss of Salvation	437
95.	Humanism: Wrong Values Taught in School, Media and Society	451
96.	Baptismal Regeneration	455
97.	Soul Sleep: Error of Soul Sleep	462
98.	‘Christian’ Rock Music: What’s Wrong with ‘Christian’ Rock Music?	467
99.	Charismatic Movement: Old Testament Background of Tongues	476
100.	Why Prophecy, Tongues and Knowledge Ceased in the First Century	482
101.	Errors of the Charismatic Movement	501
102.	I Corinthians 12.....	520
103.	27 Reasons Why Christians Should Not Seek Tongues	539
104.	Modern Bible Versions: Serious Omissions in the NIV Bible	544
105.	Questions to ask Modern Bible Version Users	568
106.	New Evangelical Errors: Separation from New Evangelical Errors	570
107.	Calvinism: Table of Contents. 38 Questions to Ask Calvinists	604, 607
	Refuting 5 Point Calvinism	609
108.	Summary and Review.....	679
109.	Replacement Theology: God has not Cast Away His People Israel	697

False Religions

110.	Roman Catholic Church	707
111.	Seventh Day Adventism: Errors of SDAs	735
112.	Why it is Right for Christians to Meet on Sunday, not Saturday.....	737
113.	Seventh Day Adventism Refuted	745
114.	Mormonism: Errors of Mormonism.....	793
115.	120 OT Passages Referring to Jehovah, Quoted and Applied to Christ in the NT	811
116.	What You Will Not Be Told At the Door by Jehovah’s Witnesses	821
117.	Jehovah’s Witnesses and the Watchtower.....	822
118.	Judaism: 10 Proofs that Jesus Christ is the Messiah	948
119.	Islam: Jesus Greater than Mohammed.....	951
120.	Main Quotes in the Koran	953
121.	Main Topics in the Koran	973
122.	Why Nobody should Become a Muslim	993
123.	Islam—A Case of Mistaken Identity	994

148 Important Sermons

124.	Principles of Bible Interpretation	1039
125.	How to Prepare Sermons and Messages.....	1052
126.	Earth, Heaven and Hell	1054
127.	Six Responses to the Spiritual War	1055
128.	T.R.A.S.H. – Errors of the Charismatic Movement	1056
129.	Four Calls for Personal Soul Winning.....	1057
130.	Things the Lord Knows About Us	1057
131.	Things to do in Your Youth	1058
132.	When to Keep Your Mouth Shut.....	1059
133.	Six Little Words.....	1061
134.	Stages in Physical Creation Illustrating Stages in Salvation	1062
135.	What is Your Life?.....	1064
136.	How Can we Glorify God?.....	1065
137.	Symbols of God’s Word.....	1066
138.	What Sort of Mind Have You?	1068

139.	What is Legalism?.....	1071
140.	The Remembrance of the Lord Jesus	1074
141.	I Stir up Your Pure Minds by Way of Remembrance	1076
142.	Love Not the World	1077
143.	Debtor to the Past, Present and Future	1079
144.	I Am Ready	1081
145.	The Way of the Soul Winner.....	1083
146.	Behold I Have Graven Thee Upon the Palms of My Hands.....	1084
147.	God Brings Prosperity out of Adversity	1085
148.	Joseph: a Type of Christ.....	1086
149.	Christ: a Prophet Like Unto Moses	1087
150.	How to Get a Concern for Winning Lost People to Christ	1088
151.	5 Questionable Issues.....	1089
152.	Things God Has Given Us	1091
153.	How a Person is Like a Mule/Ass	1092
154.	Things to Learn	1093
155.	The Ways of an Angry Man	1095
156.	Philip and the Ethiopian Eunuch.....	1096
157.	Fathers: Train up Your Children	1100
158.	Three Kinds of Christians: Gaius, Diotrefes, Demetrius	1103
159.	Good Things We Should Seek	1104
160.	Stephen.....	1105
161.	Priscilla and Aquilla – Model Christian Workers.....	1106
162.	Seven Bible Valleys	1107
163.	The Lord Is My Shepherd	1109
164.	What a Spiritual Man Does	1110
165.	Son, Go Work Today in My Vineyard	1111
166.	The Fear of God.....	1115
167.	We Ought to.....	1117
168.	Making Right Choices.....	1119
169.	The Two Resurrections	1121
170.	Three Trees Israel is Like.....	1122
171.	Purity.....	1123
172.	Take Heed or Ignore?.....	1124
173.	Take or Neglect?	1124
174.	The Ten Gates of Jerusalem	1125
175.	Ten Names and Their Meanings	1127
176.	The Nature of God: What is God Like?	1129
177.	The Lord’s Prayer	1131
178.	Daily Dozen	1134
179.	The Precious Blood of Christ.....	1135
180.	Temptation	1137
181.	What Sin Does to Us	1138
182.	Satan: The Accuser of the Brethren	1139
183.	What Pleases God	1140
184.	The Snare of the Fowler	1142
185.	Four Wise Little Preachers.....	1145
186.	Simple Things of the Christian Life	1145
187.	Are You a Comforter?	1146
188.	Behold My Hands	1147
189.	Ask Now the Beasts and They Shall Teach Thee.....	1148
190.	God is Able to	1149

191.	How Will God Summarize Your Life?	1150
192.	People Christ Commended.....	1150
193.	Things That Deceive People	1151
194.	Twelve Things a Pastor Must Do.....	1151
195.	How We Should Treat God’s Word.....	1152
196.	Reasons for Reading God’s Word.....	1152
197.	Satan’s Priority for the Christian is to Destroy Him.....	1153
198.	20 Objectives to Raise Godly Children	1153
199.	Four Things We Should Know About Hell	1154
200.	What Kinds of Hands do you Have?	1154
201.	‘Let Us’ in Hebrews	1154
202.	How to Become a Mature Person.....	1155
203.	Are You Increasing?	1156
204.	Four Great Mistakes in the Book of Job.....	1156
205.	Motives for Serving Christ.....	1157
206.	The Glory of the Christian Life.....	1157
207.	Things Jesus Christ will Give to Overcoming Believers	1157
208.	How to Encourage Yourself.....	1158
209.	Those Who Wrongly Separated Fellowship.....	1158
210.	Ten Visions of Christ	1158
211.	Where There is No Vision, the People Perish	1158
212.	Baptism	1159
213.	Who is Able to Stand Before Envy?	1159
214.	Invitations of Christ	1160
215.	Revival Formula Under King Hezekiah	1160
216.	How to Destroy Your Life	1160
217.	Andrew – the Introducer	1160
218.	What are the Marks of a Good Christian?	1161
219.	Bible Characters Who Did Not Appreciate Their Privileges.....	1161
220.	What are You Looking at?.....	1161
221.	What Shall Be the End of These Things?.....	1162
222.	What Profit is it that we have Kept His Ordinance?.....	1162
223.	Are You Warring a Good Warfare?	1162
224.	The True Prophet Micaiah	1163
225.	Seven Giants David Conquered	1163
226.	Great Things of the Christian Life	1163
227.	Finish Your Life’s Work.....	1163
228.	Things Jesus Taught in 40 Days from His Resurrection to His Ascension	1164
229.	False Things	1164
230.	Truths for Labourers in God’s Work.....	1164
231.	What Will Ye do in the Day of Visitation?	1165
232.	What do You Lack?	1165
233.	Responses of Believers towards Satan	1165
234.	How to Treat Yourself	1166
235.	Why Jesus Christ Came into the World	1166
236.	Profitable Things.....	1167
237.	Sound Things	1167
238.	What Treasures are You Seeking?	1167
239.	How Believers May Lose Their Sight.....	1167
240.	The Work of God is Great in a Local Church because.....	1168
241.	How Should We Live?	1168
242.	Fire in the Bible.....	1168

243.	Six Rich Men	1168
244.	What Do We Need to be Taught?	1169
245.	What are God’s Teachers?	1169
246.	Different People’s Responses to Christ’s First Coming	1169
247.	The Power of Example	1170
248.	How are We To Grow?	1170
249.	God of the Second Chance	1171
250.	Things We Must Prove.....	1171
251.	What Do We Rejoice in the Lord About?	1171
252.	How the Christian Race is Like the Olympic Games	1172
253.	Things to do First	1173
254.	Vain Things.....	1173
255.	How the Spiritual War is Like a Military War	1173
256.	Our Heavenly Father as the Ideal Father.....	1175
257.	What are You Full of?.....	1177
258.	The Greatest Statement Ever Made.....	1177
259.	Benefits of Homeschooling: Why Do State School Teens Rebel?	1178
260.	The Gospel in the Stars	1182
261.	Riches From The Rent	1194
262.	Jewish Marriage Customs Show The Events of Christ’s Return	1196
263.	Ecclesiastes: Solomon’s Search For Meaning in Life	1198
264.	Jesus Christ’s 7 Sayings on the Cross	1201
265.	Samson.....	1204
266.	Seven Names of God.....	1206
267.	Tempting God Ten Times	1216
268.	The Good Samaritan – What Sin Does To Us.....	1219
269.	The 12 Sons of Jacob	1223
270.	The Resurrection of Jesus Christ.....	1226
271.	The Secret to Real Happiness.....	1246
272.	Evidence of Jesus Christ’s Death, Resurrection and 3 Hours Darkness.....	1247
273.	First Century Writers Quote Every New Testament book (except 3 John)	1255
274.	The Trinity of the Godhead seen in Nature.....	1256
275.	11 Old Testament Prophets Teach that Jesus Christ is Jehovah God 16 times	1257

How To Use This Book. This book is written to help Christians better understand and teach God’s Word to a world that is ignorant of God’s ways. It may be used in the following situations:

1. As a source of Sermons and Mid-week Bible studies for preachers.
2. For Sunday School lessons and follow-up Bible studies with new Christians.
3. For Bible College curriculum. To encourage Pastors to start Bible Colleges in their Churches.
4. For people to read chapters of interest to them. To give to those enquiring about Christianity.
5. To explain difficult Bible passages. To refute false religions and false doctrines.
6. To give to new Christians so they can catch up on Bible truths that normally take years to learn.
7. To assist Pastors and workers to spread Bible Doctrines more widely and quickly.
8. To start more Churches and Bible Colleges in Africa, China, Europe, America, Australia and Asia.
9. To rapidly multiply disciples world-wide, by equipping Christians with a tool to “teach others also”.
10. To rescue Christians from errors such as Charismatics, Calvinism, New Evangelicalism, Evolution and Modern Versions. To prevent church splits over false doctrines.
11. To provide a “Pastor/Bible Teacher” in written form to Churches and Christians without a Pastor.

“Speak thou the things that become sound doctrine”. (Titus 2:1). “Set in order the things that are wanting”. Titus 1:5
“Continued steadfastly in the Apostles’ doctrine.” (Acts 2:42). “Preach the Word ... Reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine, for the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine”. (2 Timothy 4:2,3).
May all who read this book say with John, “I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth” (3 John 4) and to understand Jesus Christ’s words, “Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free.” (John 8:33).

How to obtain copies of this book: Email: piperkeith@yahoo.com.au. www.keithpiper.org
Write to Keith Piper at PO Box 188, Cherrybrook, NSW, Australia, 2126. Phone: 61-2-98754321 (Int)

1. PROOF OF CHRIST AND THE BIBLE

Every religion in the world says that they are right and other religions are wrong. How do we know which one is right? Most people have asked this question at some time. Just because you are born into a certain religion does not prove that religion to be the right one, even though you may want it to be. The rightness of any religion is determined by the credentials of its founder and by the evidence of divine inspiration of its textbook. Try to put aside any previously held ideas as we study the unique credentials of Jesus Christ and of the Bible. Ask yourself if any other religions match these claims.

Let us summarise the credentials of Christ and the Bible as follows:

1. Jesus Christ claimed to be God, the Truth and the only Way to eternal life because:

- i) Many details of His life were predicted in the Old Testament, many years before his birth.
- ii) He did many supernatural miracles during His three year ministry, showing his power to:
 - raise the dead
 - still storms
 - correctly predict the future
 - cast out demons from people
 - heal the sick
- iii) He rose from the dead after three days, never to die again. Nobody else has ever done this. This shows that those people who have Jesus Christ as their Saviour will rise from the dead also. He was seen by hundreds of people daily after His resurrection (I Corinthians 15:5-8).
- iv) He solves the sin problem by dying on the cross as our substitute to pay the penalty for our sins. Other religions say “be good, do your best, keep the rules, and you might make it, but you can never be sure, so keep trying hard”. Christ says, “Receive me as your Saviour, and I give to you eternal life, and you shall never perish” (John 10:28), because I have taken the punishment due for your sins. You may know that you have eternal life (1 John 5:13).
- v) Jesus Christ claimed to be God and had the credentials to prove it.
- vi) Jesus Christ's life when scrutinised shows Him to be sinless as He claimed. No other religious founder claimed to be God or to be sinless. Other religions just have nice teachings.

2. The Bible is the Word of God for these reasons:

- i) Its Unity.
- ii) Scientific accuracy.
- iii) Archaeology
- iv) Fulfilled prophecies.
- v) Jesus Christ called it the Word of God (John 10:35; Mark 7:13; Luke 8:11 “seed is the..”).
- vi) It has infinitely superior teachings over any other book.
 - The Bible has in it nothing but truth, while all other books have truth mixed with error, like jewels mixed with mud
 - The Bible contains all truth. Every proven moral truth is found in the Bible.
 - The Bible contains more truth than all other books put together.
- vii) Its victory over attack, and its survival for over 2000 years.
- viii) The character of those who accept and those who reject the Bible.
 - The people best acquainted with God, and who live the most unselfish, moral lives, say that the Bible is God's book.
 - The people least acquainted with God, and who live more for self, say that the Bible is not God's word. Who will you believe? The stronghold of the Bible is the pure, unselfish happy home. The stronghold of unbelief is the pub, brothel, and the casino.
- ix) The influence of the Bible to save, purify, gladden, beautify and lift men's lives up to God. The Bible has transformed millions of the worst sinners into humble, loving, unselfish, and caring saints.
- x) The inexhaustible depth of the Bible. Most man-written books can be thoroughly understood and mastered in one or two readings. You can read the Bible over 100 times and still discover new, fresh, exciting and amazing truths. It comes from the mind of God.

PROOF OF THE BIBLE TO BE THE WORD OF GOD.

Let us examine proof of the Bible from the viewpoints of unity, science, archaeology and prophecy. Our faith and understanding of God's Word can be greatly increased by studying Bible proofs available to us. This helps us to defend the faith and give good reasons to those who ask us why we believe in Christ and the Bible. (I Peter 3:15).

1. UNITY

The Bible was given by God to 40 writers, over a period of 1600 years, in 66 books. It contains history, prophecy, science, law, doctrine, morality, origins and human biographies, yet never do we see even the slightest disagreement between the writers on any subject. If you ask 40 of your friends to discuss their opinions on the past, the future, morality, origins, law, philosophy, etc. you will find a very great disagreement and difference of opinion. The Bible, however, agrees 100% on every subject it discusses, giving strong proof that it comes from the mind of God.

2. FULFILLED PROPHECY as proof of the Bible.

PROPHECY FULFILLED OF NATIONS, CITIES and INDIVIDUALS.

Aim: To study Bible prophecies as proof of God authoring the Bible.

Introduction: "Show the things that are to come hereafter that we may know that ye are gods..." Isaiah 41:23.

Here God challenges all other religions claiming to be the truth to prove that they are from God by predicting the future. Nobody can correctly predict the future on every guess. The Bible is the only book in the world that correctly predicts the future hundreds of times, without making any mistakes. No other book does this. The Buddhist, Hindu, Muslim writings contain no cases of clearly fulfilled prophecies. This proves that they are not from God. Any man can write a book with moral teachings. Only God can write a book that always correctly foretells the future, as the Bible does.

Four tests to prove that a prophecy is from God:

i) His message had to be according to God and His Word.

"If they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them." Isaiah 8:20.

ii) His prediction must come true. "If the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the Lord has not spoken .." Deuteronomy 18:22.

iii) Was the prophecy far enough before the predicted event to exclude chances of human guesswork?

iv) Is the prediction ambiguous, vague or capable of several explanations?

What is the significance of predictive prophecy?

i) It proves God's existence, as the mind behind the Bible.

ii) It proves that the Bible is God's inspired word, without error.

iii) It proves that Jesus Christ is God, whom the Old Testament predicts.

iv) It proves all other Bible doctrines to be true, giving us a strong foundation to base our life on.

The true prophet presents a message of conviction and repentance, calling the people to obedience and righteousness.

Consider the following examples of fulfilled Bible prophecies under the headings of Nations, Cities and Individuals.

I. NATIONS.

Consider the following 44 correct predictions concerning Israel, Edom, Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, Rome and Egypt as proof of God authoring the Bible.

1. ISRAEL.

Date Prophecy Made	Date Prophecy Fulfilled	Prophecy
2000 BC	1948 AD	Israel would become a great nation . "I will make of thee a great nation." Genesis 12:1-3.
992 BC	975 BC	Israel would split into 10 tribes and 2 tribes . "I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give 10 tribes to thee (Jeroboam)". I Kings 11:31.
607 BC	536 BC	Israel would be captive in Babylon for 70 years . Jer. 25:11-14. "These nations shall serve the King of Babylon seventy years."
1451 BC	70 AD	Israel would be scattered among the nations of the world. "The Lord shall scatter thee from one end of the earth to the other." Deuteronomy 28:64. This was fulfilled in 70 AD when Titus the Roman General destroyed Jerusalem, killing one million Jews, and taking 100,000 Israelites as slaves.
1451 BC	100 AD	Israel would become a byword among all nations . "Thou shalt become an astonishment, a proverb, and a byword, among all nations where the Lord shall lead thee." Deuteronomy 28:37. People refer to someone who holds his money tightly as a Jew.
1451 BC	70 AD 1939 AD	Israel would be persecuted among the nations . Hitler killed six million Jews in World War II. "Thy life shall hang in doubt before thee, and thou shalt fear day and night, and shalt have none assurance of thy life." Deuteronomy 28:66.
1491 BC 607 BC	2004 AD	Israel would not be completely destroyed , but retain her identity. "I will not destroy them utterly...." Leviticus 26:44. "I will not make a full end of thee". Jeremiah 46:28.
712 BC	33 AD	Israel would reject her Messiah . "He was despised and rejected of men; we esteemed him not." Isaiah 53:3.
538 BC	33 AD	Israel would kill her Messiah . "...shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself." Daniel 9:26.
538 BC	70 AD	Israel's city of Jerusalem and the Temple will be destroyed just after Israel rejects her Messiah. "The people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary." Daniel 9:26.
587 BC	1948 AD	Israel would return to Palestine in the latter years just before Christ's Second Coming. Ezekiel 37:11-14; 38:1-39:29. "I will gather you out of all countries, and bring you into your own land. Then will I sprinkle clean water on you " Ezekiel 36:24,25.
714 BC	1967 AD	Israel will be militarily superior to Egypt . "The land of Judah shall be a terror to the land of Egypt." Isaiah 19:17.

2. EDOM and its capital city, Petra.

Esau, Jacob's brother founded Edom in 1800 BC (Genesis 36:8). 350 years later in 1450 BC Edom refused to help Israel pass through her land (Numbers 20). Edom delighted in persecuting Israel. Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Joel, Amos and Obadiah condemned Edom. Petra was Edom's strongly fortified capital built into a rock cliff, accessible only by a very narrow entrance. This made them feel invincible. Mohammed captured Petra in 636 AD. It then became desolate. These events are prophesied for Edom.

Date	Prophecy
------	----------

713 BC	Edom to become a desolation . "Thorns shall come up in her palaces" Isaiah 34:13
--------	---

713 BC	Wild animals will inhabit Edom. "It shall be a habitation of dragons" Is.34:13-15
--------	--

713 BC	Commerce will cease in Edom 'None shall pass through it for ever.' Isaiah 34:10
--------	--

600 BC	Spectators will be astounded in Petra. "Edom shall be a desolation: every one that goes by it shall be astonished." Jeremiah 49:17.
--------	--

600 BC	Never to be populated again. "No man shall abide there." Jeremiah 49:18.
--------	---

590 BC	Israel would conquer Edom. "I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel." Ezekiel 25:14. This seemed a crazy prediction because Israel was then captive in Babylon, yet 400 years later Judas Maccabeus invaded and killed thousands of Edomites.
--------	--

587 BC	Edom to have a bloody history . "Blood shall pursue thee." Ezekiel 35:6.
--------	---

590 BC	Edom to become desolate as far as the city of Teman . "I will make it desolate from Teman." Ezekiel 25:13.
--------	--

The Great High Place at Petra

3. BABYLON

Babylon was the capital of the ancient world. It was a centre of trade, learning and culture. Babylon had four walls each 14 miles long, covering 196 square miles, surrounded by a 30 foot wide moat. The walls were 311 feet high, 87 feet wide, with 100 gates of solid brass. 250 watchtowers extended 100 feet higher than the walls. While the Babylonians were holding a drunken feast, Cyrus the Persian had diverted the Euphrates river away from its course underneath the walls of Babylon, and marched his troops along the dry riverbed. He then took the city in 536 BC.

Xerxes later plundered Babylon, as did Alexander the Great's troops. Trajan the Roman Emperor visited Babylon in 116 AD describing it as "mounds and legends of mounds." Layard writes of Babylon: "No Arab tents, no sheepfolds, and overrun by desert animals." Consider the following fulfilled prophecies concerning Babylon:

- i) These prophecies were given in 713 BC: Babylon will be like Sodom and Gomorrah. "Babylon shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah." Isaiah 13:19.
- ii) The Medes and Persians would conquer Babylon (536 BC). Isaiah 13:17; 45:1-4.
- iii) Babylon shall never be inhabited. Isaiah 13:20.
- iv) Arab tents will not be pitched there. Isaiah 13:20.
- v) Sheepfolds will not be there. Isaiah 13:20.
- vi) Desert creatures will infest the ruins. Isaiah 13:21.
- vii) Babylon will be covered with swamps of water. Isaiah 14:23.

Part of Babylon today lies under silt and under the water table.

4. MEDO-PERSIA. Daniel 8:1-8, 20-22. These prophecies were given in 553BC. God tells Daniel of a series of battles that would occur 220 years later between Medo-Persia and Greece. Alexander the Great of Greece, pictured by a He-goat with a great horn (Alexander himself) severely crushes Darius III army of Medo-Persia (pictured by a ram with two horns). This occurred in three battles: Granicus (334BC), Issus (333BC) and Guagamela (331BC) which took place beside a river.
- "The ram having two horns are the kings of Media and Persia." Daniel 8:20.
- "The rough goat is the king of Grecia, and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king." (Alexander). Daniel 8:21.
- Notice the following aspects of this prophecy:
- The Ram (Medio-Persia) pushes west, north, south. Daniel 8:4.
This prediction defines the area of influence of Medo-Persia from 536-330BC.
 - One horn (Persia) was higher or stronger than the other (Medes). Daniel 8:3.
History proved Persia to be the stronger partner in the alliance.
 - The He-goat (Greece) came from the West. Daniel 8:5.
Greece is west of Medo-Persia.
 - The He-goat (Greece) crushed the Ram (Medo-Persia).
"He smote the ram, and brake his two horns." Daniel 8:6,7.
 - The battle took place at a river. "He came to the ram which had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river ..." Daniel 8:6.
5. GREECE. Daniel 8:8,21,22.
- These events were prophesied in 553BC and fulfilled in 331BC, 222 years later.
- Notice these further accurate predictions:
- Alexander, after conquering Medo-Persia, went on to conquer all the ancient world across to India.
"The he-goat waxed very great." Daniel 8:8,22.
 - Alexander, at the age of 32 drank himself to death at the peak of his strength.
"When he was strong, the great horn was broken." Daniel 8:22.
 - After Alexander's death, the Greek empire was divided into four smaller powers, each ruled by one of his Generals.
"Now that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in his power." Daniel 8:8,22.
The four empires into which Alexander's empire was divided were Greece, Asia Minor, Syria and Egypt.
 - Alexander's kingdom was not given to his children but to his generals.
"A mighty king shall stand up.....his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided to the four winds of heaven, and not to his posterity..." Daniel 11:3,4.
6. ROME . Daniel 2:40,41.
- "The fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron it shall break in pieces and bruise the kingdom shall be divided." Daniel 2:40,41.
- Notice the following prophecies about Rome:
- Rome, the fourth kingdom was as strong as iron. Rome ruled from England to Babylon, bringing peace, roads and strong government like an iron rule.
 - Rome was the Empire ruling when Jesus Christ the Messiah first came,
"shall Messiah be cut off.....and the people (Romans)....." Daniel 9:26.
 - Rome destroyed Jerusalem and the Jewish Temple in 70AD.
".....shall Messiah be cut off..... and the people (Romans) of the prince that shall come (Antichrist) shall destroy the city (Jerusalem) and the sanctuary (Temple)." Daniel 9:26.
 - Rome was divided in 395AD into the Western Empire ruled by Rome, and the Eastern Empire ruled by Byzantine (or Constantinople), pictured by the two legs of the image in Daniel 2. "The kingdom shall be divided." Daniel 2:41.

7. EGYPT. Ezekiel 29:1-15.

God promised that he would punish Pharaoh of Egypt because he claimed to be a god and to have created the Nile river. "Thus saith the Lord God: Behold I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt which hath said: 'My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself.'" Ezekiel 29:2,9.

Notice these predictions that God made concerning Egypt

- i) Egypt would not be inhabited for 40 years but would be desolate.
"I will make Egypt utterly waste and desolate from the tower of Syene to the border of Ethiopia Neither shall it be inhabited forty years." Ezekiel 29:10-12. This prediction was made in 588 BC. In 579 BC, Nebuchadnezzar conquered Egypt then deported the Egyptians to other nations from 576 BC until they returned in 536 BC.
- ii) Egyptians would return to Egypt after 40 years. "Egypt...shall be desolate forty years." 12
"Neither shall it be inhabited forty years." v.11.
"At the end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the people where they were scattered & will cause them to return to the land of Pathros (South Egypt)" Ezekiel 29:13,14
- iii) Egypt will be a base kingdom: "they shall be there a base kingdom." (Ezekiel 29:14) Egypt has been a base kingdom ever since 536 BC.
- iv) Egypt will be afraid of Israel. This is true today ever since Israel defeated Egypt in the six-day war in 1967. "The land of Judah shall be a terror to Egypt." Isaiah 19:17.

II. CITIES. Four main cities have 30 detailed prophetic predictions given about them:

1. TYRE. Destruction of TYRE was foretold in Ezekiel 26:1-14 in 590 BC.

Ezekiel 26 contains six prophecies for Tyre that have been fulfilled. If Ezekiel had looked at Tyre in his day and made these predictions in human wisdom, there would have been only one chance in 75,000,000 of them all coming true.

- i) Nebuchadnezzar will destroy the mainland city of Tyre. 26:7-11. "I will bring upon Tyrus Nebuchadnezzar King of Babylon." (27:7). This was prophesied in 590 BC. Nebuchadnezzar laid siege to Tyre four years after the prophecy was made. After a 13 year siege (586-573 BC), Nebuchadnezzar broke the gates down. He found the city empty. The people had fled to a 140 acre island 800 metres off the coast & fortified a city there. The mainland city was destroyed in 573 BC as foretold, but the island city of Tyre still remained.

- ii) "I will cause many nations to come against thee.....as waves." Ezekiel 26:3. Invaders who attacked Tyre were Nebuchadnezzar, Alexander, Moslems and Crusaders.
- iii) "I will scrape her dust from her like the top of a rock." 26:4.
When island Tyre refused to submit to Alexander, he demolished the old city on the mainland. He scraped the debris of the old city off the ground, pushing it into the water. He thus built a causeway 60 metres wide by 800 metres long out to the island of Tyre, where he laid siege to it, conquered it, and destroyed the island city in 332 BC, fulfilling a 258 year old prophecy. The causeway still remains and old Tyre is as flat as a rock.
- iv) Fishermen today spread their nets over the site." Ezekiel 26:5,14.
Fishermen today dry their nets on the rocks of old mainland Tyre.
- v) "They shall throw the city debris into the water." When Alexander's engineers built the causeway, they laid the stone, timber and dust remains of old Tyre into the water. Ezek. 26:12.
- vi) The city will never be rebuilt. "Thou shalt be built no more." 26:14. Old Tyre has been bare for 2500 years, even though 10 million gallons of fresh water supply the site daily. It has not been rebuilt. Recently, the modern city up the coast began to spread threatening to build on top of old abandoned Tyre. So in 2006, UNESCO placed a "Heritage Alert" on old Tyre. No one lives there today, just as God said.

2. JERUSALEM

Jesus Christ made the following predictions about Jerusalem:

- i) Not one stone of Herod's temple would be left standing on another. "There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down." Matthew 24:1,2. The Roman army finally in September 70 AD stormed the walls of Jerusalem through the Antonia fortress. According to Josephus, they killed one million Jews and took 100,000 Jews captive as slaves. A soldier dropped a torch in the Temple setting it on fire. This melted the gold in the Temple, which flowed into the cracks in the Temple foundations. The Romans dug up the Temple's foundations thus destroying the Temple. The Roman soldiers fulfilled Christ's prophecy of not one stone of the Temple being left standing on another.
- ii) Jerusalem would be surrounded by armies in a siege. "When ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh." Luke 21:20.
- iii) The only way of safety was to flee Jerusalem when you see the armies.
"Then let them which are in Judea flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out, and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto." Luke 21:21. The Roman army surrounded Jerusalem for five days and its troops battered at the walls. Had not Luke in 53AD recorded Jesus' warning to leave Jerusalem when armies surrounded it? How could they escape if armies were all around the walls? Josephus the historian writes that "The Roman army retired from the city, without any reason in the world." Josephus continues: "The Jews were greatly encouraged by this, but many of the most eminent Jews then left the city." Hegessippus, another historian tells us that those leaving were Christians who knew Christ's command to flee in Luke 21:20,21. This proves that Luke wrote well before 66AD when the Roman army first came.
- iv) Many Jews in Jerusalem would be killed by the sword. Luke 21:24. "And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations".
- v) Many Jews would be led away captive into all nations. Luke 21:24.
- vi) In the starvation of the siege women ate their children.
"He shall besiege thee thou shalt eat the fruit of thine own body, the flesh of thy sons and of thy daughters in the siege." Deuteronomy 28:52,57.
- vii) Jerusalem would be under Gentile control until Christ returns. "Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled." Luke 21:24. This occurred 40 years after it was predicted, when Titus the Roman General conquered Jerusalem in 70AD. Jerusalem has been under Gentile (non Jewish) control since 70AD as prophesied by Jesus Christ.
- viii) Jerusalem shall be plowed as a field. In 135AD the Jews rebelled against Rome again. Hadrian the Roman General, in a three-and-a-half year war killed 580,000 Jews and ran a plough over Jerusalem, thus fulfilling Micah's prophecy written in 730BC. "Therefore shall Zion for your sakes be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps." Micah 3:12.
- ix) Jews will return to Jerusalem in the end days. We all know that the Jews occupy part of Jerusalem and Israel today since 1948. "I will gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land." (Ezekiel 36:24). God predicts that Jerusalem in the end days, being occupied by Jews, will be invaded by all nation's armies. Jesus Christ will then return to rescue the Jews, defeat the invading armies, and rule on earth in peace for 1000 years. "I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle" Zechariah 14:1-4.
- x) Jerusalem's East Gate will be Shut. Today if you visit Jerusalem's East Gate, you will notice that it is completely bricked up. Jesus Christ, Who is the God of Israel, entered it on a donkey on His way to be crucified. Ezekiel wrote: "Then he brought me back the way of the gate of the outward sanctuary which looketh toward the east and it was shut. Then the LORD (Jehovah the Father) said unto me: 'this gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it; because the LORD (Jehovah the Son), the God of Israel, hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut." Ezekiel 44:1,2.

xi) Jerusalem will be a burdensome stone for all people.

"In that day I will make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people." (Zechariah 12:3).

This prophecy has been fulfilled today because the Palestinian Muslim Arab conflict with Israel over Jerusalem is a very difficult problem to solve.

3. JERICHO.

Predicted in Joshua 6:26 (1451BC), and fulfilled in I Kings 16:34 (925BC). After the destruction of Jericho in Joshua's time, 1451BC, Joshua makes an amazing threefold prophecy about Jericho: "Cursed be the man that builds this city Jericho: he shall lay the foundation thereof in his firstborn, and in his youngest son shall he set up the gates of it." Joshua 6:26.

i) Jericho would be rebuilt by a man with at least two sons.

ii) The builder's oldest son would die when the city foundations were laid.

iii) The builder's youngest son would die when the city and its gates were finished.

I Kings 16:34 records that this prophecy was fulfilled in Hiel the Bethelite. No one would intend to fulfil this prophecy.

"In his (Ahab's) days did Hiel the Bethelite build Jericho: he laid the foundation in Abiram his firstborn, and set up the gates in his youngest son Segub according to the Word of the Lord which he spake by Joshua."

Unger writes: "The rebuilding of Jericho is confirmed by archaeological diggings there are no occupational levels from Joshua's time to Ahab's era, when small ruins from the 10th century BC point to Hiel's rebuilding the site." [Ungers Bible Handbook, p.220]

4. NINEVEH.

Predicted in Nahum (713BC) and fulfilled in 614BC.

God spared wicked Nineveh in 862BC at Jonah's preaching. At this time, archaeology reveals a change occurred from worshipping many gods to worshipping one god, called Nebo, the son in the Babylonian trinity.

Nineveh's wall was 100 feet tall, 50 feet thick, with 15 gates and 1200 towers each 200 feet high. Nineveh was 60 miles in circumference, with a 150 foot wide moat around it. Nahum in 3:8 writes just after Thebes (No) in Egypt was destroyed by King Ashurbanipal of Assyria in 663BC. Nineveh was destroyed in 612BC with ease after a three month siege. It fell like "first ripe figs falling if shaken." (3:12). Three times Nahum predicts that Nineveh will be destroyed with a flood:

1:8 "overrunning flood"

2:6 "gates of rivers"

2:8 "like a pool of water".

In 613BC the Assyrian army was away fighting Babylon, when heavy rains swelled the Euphrates River, flooding part of Nineveh and casting down four kilometres of wall length.

The King, believing an ancient prophecy of the river becoming their enemy, panicked and ordered he and his palace to be burned down. Babylonians, Medes and Scythians attacked through this four kilometre gap, thus conquering Nineveh in 612BC. Twelve predictions about the destruction of Nineveh are given in Nahum 1-3.

Nahum's Prophecies

1. The Assyrian fortresses around Nineveh would be easily captured. 3:12.
2. The besieged Ninevites would prepare bricks and mortar for emergency defence walls. 3:14.
3. The city gates would be destroyed. 3:13

Historical Fulfilments

- Babylonian records state that the fortified towns around Nineveh began to fall in 614BC.
- To the south of the gate, the moat is still filled with stone and mud bricks from the walls, heaped up when they were breached.
- The main attack came on the north-west gate

- | | |
|---|--|
| 4. In the final hours of the attack, the Ninevites would be drunk. 1:10; 3:11 | Siculus (20BC) wrote: "The Assyrian king gave much wine to his soldiers. Deserters told this to the enemy, who attacked that night." |
| 5. Ninevites would be destroyed by a flood . 1:8; 2:6,8. | Diodorus: "In the third year of the siege heavy rains caused the river to flood part of the city and break part of the walls." |
| 6. Nineveh would be destroyed by fire . 1:10; 2:13; 3:15,13 | The temple was burned as seen by a two inch layer of ash. |
| 7. Many Ninevites would be massacred. 3:3. | So many were killed that the flowing stream became blood red for miles. |
| 8. Plundering would follow the overthrow of Nineveh. 2:9-10. | They carried off much spoil, beyond counting. |
| 9. Its people would try to escape. 2:8. | King Sardanapalus sent away his three sons and two daughters. |
| 10. Ninevite officers would weaken and flee. 3:17. | The Assyrian army deserted the King (Babylonian Chronicle). |
| 11. Nineveh's idols would be destroyed. 1:14. | The Ishtar goddess lay headless in Nineveh's ruins. |
| 12. Nineveh would never be rebuilt . 1:9,14. | Many cities were rebuilt, eg. Jerusalem, but not Nineveh. |

III. INDIVIDUALS.

The Bible makes detailed predictions about five main individuals. Two are mentioned by name: Josiah was predicted 350 years before he lived, and Cyrus King of Persia was predicted 175 years before he lived. How can such detailed predictions be made? God wrote the Bible, is the only possible answer.

1. JOSIAH, King of Judah was prophesied by name in 975BC by an unnamed man of God in I Kings 13:1-3 that he would burn idolatrous priests' bones on the altar at Bethel. "Behold, a child shall be born unto the house of David, Josiah by name; and upon thee (the altar) shall he offer the priests of the high places that burn incense upon thee, and men's bones shall be burnt upon thee." Those idolatrous priests burned incense on the same altar under evil King Jeroboam I of Israel.

350 years later in 624BC Josiah, a King of Judah, while cleansing Israel of pagan practices, broke down the altar and high place of King Jeroboam at Bethel. "Josiah turned himself, he spied the sepulchres that were in the mount, and sent, and took the bones out of the sepulchres, and burned them upon the altar and polluted it, according to the Word of the Lord, which the man of God proclaimed." II Kings 23:15,16.

The two main predictions here are that:

- i) Josiah's name is given 350 years before the event. I Kings 13:2.
- ii) Josiah's action of burning the false prophets' bones is given.

Question: What is the probability of guessing these 2 prophecies? How did the Bible know them?

2. CYRUS, King of Persia, was predicted by name and action in Isaiah 44:28-45:4 in 712BC, that he would conquer Babylon. "That saith of Cyrus. He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure: even saying to Jerusalem, thou shalt be built, and to the Temple, thy foundation shall be laid." Isaiah 44:28. "Thus saith the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have holden, to subdue nations before him to open before him the two-leaved gates: and the gates shall not be shut." Isaiah 45:1.

Notice the following prophecies that have been fulfilled about Cyrus:

- i) Cyrus of Persia is named as the man who would conquer Babylon. Isaiah 45:1. This prophecy was made 176 years before the event occurred.
- ii) The two leaved gates of Babylon shall not be shut. According to Heroditus (1:191), the double gates of Babylon were carelessly left open during the night of revelry when the city was taken.
- iii) Cyrus gave permission for Jerusalem to be rebuilt and for the Temple foundation to be laid. II Chronicles 36:22,23; Ezra 1:1-4.
- iv) "I will give thee the treasures of darkness and the hidden riches of secret places." 45:3. God gave Cyrus possession of the treasures of darkness, which was the wealth of conquered nations. Valuables taken from nations were hidden in dark, secretly concealed, subterranean vaults. These prophecies given in 712BC were fulfilled in 536BC, 176 years later.

Question: What is the probability of guessing the exact name "Cyrus" of the man who would conquer Babylon?

Answer: It could not be guessed. This proves that the Bible is the Word of the all-knowing, all-powerful Creator/God.

3. ALEXANDER THE GREAT. Daniel 8:1-8, 20-22 and 11:1-4.

Although Daniel does not mention Alexander by name, he is clearly referred to in Daniel 8:21 as "the great horn that is between the He-goat's eyes is the first king," (Alexander). Alexander crushed the Persians at the Battle of Issus in 333BC. Josephus the historian who lived from 37 to 100AD, states that when Alexander approached Jerusalem to conquer it, he was met at the gates by Jaddua the High Priest who showed him in Daniel 8:1-8, 20-22 that he as the first king of the Greek empire, would conquer the Persians. This was prophesied in 553BC, and was fulfilled in 333BC, 220 years later. Alexander was so impressed at this prophecy of a Greek conquering the Persians, that he worshipped the God of the Bible, offered sacrifices to God and spared Jerusalem.

Note: Unbelieving critics who won't accept the Bible predicting the future, say that Daniel was written around 200BC which would make it after the events, as history not prophecy. This is clearly disproven by Josephus quoting Jaddua who quotes Daniel 8:1-8,20-22 to Alexander in 340BC. This proves that Daniel was written well before 340BC and is truly predictive prophecy of the supernatural God. (Antiquities of the Jews, Josephus, Book XI, Chap.8, p.244).

4. JOHN THE BAPTIST.

"The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, prepare ye the way of Jehovah, make straight in the desert a highway for our God." Isaiah 40:3. John the Baptist is the one referred to here who prepared the way of Jesus Christ who is Jehovah God. This prophecy was made in 712BC and fulfilled around 30AD.

5. JESUS CHRIST FORETOLD IN THE OLD TESTAMENT.

So much is predicted about Jesus Christ in the Old Testament that we can only give here a brief summary. We know that the Bible is the Word of God because it predicts so many details of Jesus Christ's life. Consider the following prophecies on the next two pages:

Conclusion:

If we assign a probability of guessing each of these predictions correctly, we see that from a human viewpoint it is impossible to predict these events as the Bible has. Not one prediction failed. All are correctly fulfilled. This proves that the Bible is not humanly authored, but authored by God who ALONE knows the future.

PROPHECY	OT REFERENCE	NT REFERENCE
1. Born of a virgin	Isaiah 7:14	Matthew 1:18,24,25
2. Tribe of Judah	Genesis 49:10	Luke 3:23,33
3. House of David	Jeremiah 23:5	Luke 3:23
4. Born at Bethlehem	Micah 5:1,2	Matthew 2:1
5. Visited by wise men with gifts.	Isaiah 60:3,6,9	Matthew 2:1-12
6. Given Gold and Incense .	Isaiah 60:6	Matthew 2:11
7. Would be in Egypt for a time.	Hosea 11:1	Matthew 2:13-15
8. Infants killed at His birthplace.	Jeremiah 31:15	Matthew 2:16-18
9. Preceded by messenger (John the Baptist)	Isaiah 40:3	Matthew 3:1-3
10. Ministry to begin in Galilee	Isaiah 9:1	Matthew 4:12-18
11. Suddenly come to His Temple	Malachi 3:1;Psalm 69:9	John 2:13-21
12. Perform Miracles	Isaiah 35:5,6	Matthew 9:35
13. Teacher of Parables	Psalm 78:2	Matthew 13:34,35
14. Heal many.	Isaiah 42:7,16	Matthew 8:16,17;15:30
15. His miracles not believed .	Isaiah 53:1	John 12:37
16. Enter Jerusalem's East Gate . Later shut.	Ezekiel 44:1,2.	Mark 11:1-11.
17. Enter Jerusalem on a donkey	Zechariah 9:9	Matthew 21:6-11
18. Betrayed by a friend	Psalm 41:9	Matthew 10:4; 26:48
19. Sold for 30 pieces of silver	Zechariah 11:12	Matthew 26:15
20. Money to be thrown on the Temple Floor	Zechariah 11:13	Matthew 27:5
21. Money used to buy a potter's field	Zechariah 11:13	Matthew 27:7
22. Forsaken by His disciples	Zechariah 13:7	Matthew 26:56
23. False witnesses accuse Him	Psalm 35:11	Matthew 26:59,60
24. Silent before His accusers	Isaiah 53:7	Matthew 27:12
25. Beaten , scourged and spat on.	Isaiah 50:6	Matthew 26:67
26. Crucified with thieves	Isaiah 53:12	Matthew 27:38
27. Mocked by onlookers.	Psalm 22:7,8; 109:25	Matthew 27:39-43.
28. Hands and feet pierced	Psalm 22:16	Luke 23:33
29. His side pierced	Zechariah 12:10	John 19:34
30. Prayed for His enemies.	Isaiah 53:12.	Luke 23:34.
31. Gall and vinegar offered Him to drink	Psalm 69:21	Matthew 27:34,48
32. Garments parted and lots cast	Psalm 22:18	John 19:23,24
33. No bones broken	Psalm 34:20	John 19:33
34. His forsaken cry	Psalm 22:1	Matthew 27:46
35. Darkness over land from midday	Amos 8:9	Matthew 27:45
36. Buried in rich man's tomb	Isaiah 53:9	Matthew 27:57-60
37. In grave 3 days and 3 nights .	Jonah 1:17	Matthew 12:38-40
38. Rise from the dead	Psalm 16:10	Matt 28:6; Acts 2:31
39. Ascend to Heaven	Psalm 68:18	Acts 1:9
40. Rejected by His own nation, Israel.	Isaiah 53:3	Mark 8:31; Luke 17:25
41. Gentile Nations to believe on Him	Isaiah 60:3	Acts 13:47,48
42. Messiah offer Himself as Prince to Israel 173,880 days after 10pm March 4, 444 BC	Daniel 9:25	Luke 19:37-44
43. Messiah comes and is cut off (dies).	Daniel 9:26	John 19:33-35
44. Jerusalem, Temple destroyed after J death	Daniel 9:26	by Titus in 70 AD
45. Jews to lose power to pass death sentence 23 years before the trial of Christ.	Genesis 49:10	11 AD (Josephus, Antiquities, 17:13:1-5)

1. Born of a virgin. Isaiah 7:14; Genesis 3:15. "A virgin shall conceive, and bear a son".
2. Tribe of Judah. Genesis 49:10. "The sceptre shall not depart from Judah..till Shiloh"
3. House of David. Jeremiah 23:5. "I will raise unto David a righteous Branch,and a King"
4. Born at Bethlehem. Micah 5:2. "Thou, Bethlehem..Judah, yet out of thee shall come.."
5. Visited by wise men with gifts. Isaiah 60:3,6,9. "Gentiles shall come...and kings".
6. Given Gold and Incense. Isaiah 60:6 "They shall bring gold and incense".
7. Would be in Egypt for a time. Hosea 11:1. "called my son out of Egypt".
8. Infants killed at His birthplace. Jeremiah 31:15. "Rachel weeping for her children".
9. Preceded by a messenger (John the Baptist). Isaiah 40:3. "Prepare ye the way of the Lord".
10. Ministry to begin in Galilee. Isaiah 9:1. "Zebulun, & Naphtali.. have seen a great light"
11. Suddenly come to His Temple. Malachi 3:1 "Lord whom ye seek shall suddenly come"
12. Perform miracles. Isaiah 35:5,6. "blind,..deaf,..lame,..dumb sing".
13. Teach parables. Psalm 78:2. "I will open my mouth in a parable,.."
14. Heal many. Isaiah 42:7,16; Matthew 8:16,17. "To open the blind eyes.."
15. His miracles not believed. Isaiah 53:1. "Who hath believed our report?"
16. Enter Jerusalem's East Gate. Later shut. Ezekiel 44:2 "Lord, the God of Israel hath entered"
17. Enter Jerusalem on a donkey. Zechariah 9:9. "thy King cometh...riding upon an ass."
18. Betrayed by a friend. Psalm 69:9 "Mine own familiar friend,... hath lifted up his heel"
19. Sold for 30 pieces of silver. Zechariah 11:12. 'they weighed for my price 30 pieces of silver'
20. Money thrown on the Temple floor. Zechariah 11:13. "cast them...in the house of the Lord"
21. Money then used to buy a potter's field. Zechariah 11:13. "cast them to the potter.."
22. Forsaken by His disciples. Zechariah 13:7. "Smite the Shepherd, & sheep shall be scattered"
23. False witnesses accuse Him. Psalm 35:11. "False witnesses did rise up:"
24. Silent before His accusers. Isaiah 53:7. "He was oppressed,.., yet he opened not his mouth."
25. Be scourged and spat on. Isaiah 50:6. "I hid not my face from shame and spitting."
26. Crucified between two thieves. Isaiah 53:9. "He made his grave with the wicked.."
27. Mocked by onlookers. Psalm 22:7,8 "He trusted on the Lord that he would deliver him"
28. Hands and feet pierced. Psalm 22:16. "they pierced my hands and my feet".
29. His side pierced. Zechariah 12:10. "they shall look upon me whom they have pierced".
30. Prayed for His enemies. Isaiah 53:12 "He made intercession for the transgressors."
31. Given vinegar to drink. Psalm 69:21. "in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink."
32. Garments gambled for. Psalm 22:18. "They part my garments among them, cast lots on my.."
33. No bones broken. Psalm 34:20. "He keepeth all his bones: not one of them is broken."
34. His forsaken cry. Psalm 22:1. "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?"
35. Darkness over the land from noon. Amos 8:9. "I will darken the earth in the clear day."
36. Buried in a rich man's tomb. Isaiah 53:9. "His grave ... with the rich in his death."
37. In grave 3 days and 3 nights. Jonah 1:17 "Jonah was in the belly of the fish 3 days & 3 night"
38. Raised from the dead. Psalm 16:10. "thou wilt not..suffer thine Holy One to see corruption"
39. Ascend to heaven. Psalm 68:18. "Thou hast ascended on high.."
40. Rejected by His own nation, Israel. Isaiah 53:3 'He is..rejected of men.We esteemed him not'
41. Gentile Nations believe on him. Isaiah 60:3. "Gentiles shall come to thy light."
42. Messiah would offer Himself as Prince to Israel 173,880 days after 10pm 4 March, 444BC. Daniel 9:25; Luke 19:41-44. "From the going forth of the commandment to restore & build Jerusalem to Messiah the Prince shall be 69 weeks. 1 wk=7yr x 360days
43. Messiah comes and is killed. Daniel 9:26. "shall Messiah be cut off.."
44. Jerusalem and Temple are destroyed (fulfilled in 70AD). "people..destroy city & sanctuary".
45. Jews to lose power to pass the death sentence 23 years before the trial of Christ. Genesis 49:10. "The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come;" This was confirmed by Josephus describing the Romans taking this power away from the Jews in 11AD. (Josephus, Antiquities, 17:13:1-5)

3. SCIENCE AS PROOF OF THE BIBLE

Whenever the Bible makes a scientific statement, it is always proven correct after man has discovered all the relevant facts. In the Library of the Louvre in Paris there are 3.5 miles of obsolete science books on the shelves. In 1861 the French Academy of Science published a list of 51 "scientific facts" which supposedly contradicted the Bible. Today all 51 of these "facts" are unacceptable to modern scientists. Do other religious books contain scientifically accurate information? Consider the Vedas, the Hindu Scriptures of India, in the following quote. This shows them to be very unscientific, hence disproving Eastern religions and modern New Age thinking which are based on the Vedas.

"The moon is 50,000 leagues higher than the sun (?), and shines by its own light (?); night is caused by the sun's setting behind a huge mountain (?) several thousand feet high, located in the centre of the earth (?), that this world, flat (?) and triangular (?) is composed of 7 states (?) - one of honey, another of sugar, a third of butter, and still another of wine, (?) and the whole mass is borne on the heads of countless elephants (?) which in shaking produce earthquakes."

As you can see, there are at least nine clear scientific errors in this short passage of the Vedas. The Bible on the other hand contains no scientific errors in its 66 books.

Key: The Bible contains scientific information that was not known by man at the time of writing. In many cases it was only discovered recently.

Question: How did the Bible possess knowledge not yet discovered by man?

Answer: God authored the Bible, and revealed information not yet known to man, so that the world would know that the Bible is God's Word, coming from a mind much greater than man's.

Question: Why did no other religious book reveal new scientific information?

Answer: Because other religious books are man made, are limited by man's then current state of knowledge, and have not come from the all-knowing Creator, but are counterfeits seeking to claim authority over us. Hence we reject them.

What examples of scientific facts revealed in the Bible, were unknown to man at the time of writing?

1. The Earth Hangs in Space.

"He hangs the earth upon nothing." Job 26:7 stated 1500BC.

Until modern times "experts" believed ideas such as the earth sat on four elephants, who stood on a giant turtle, who swam in the ocean. Man could not imagine how the earth could hang in space on nothing. Yet this is what happens due to gravitational attraction between the earth and the sun, giving the appearance that the earth hangs on nothing.

2. Earth at any time is part day-time and part night.

When the moment of Christ's second coming to earth is discussed in Luke 17:31-36, Christ's return interrupts people sleeping at night on one part of the earth, and interrupts others in the daytime grinding at the mill or working in the field. How did Jesus Christ know that the earth at any point of time is half dark and half light? Because He is the all-knowing God. "...in the day when the Son of Man is revealed. (v.30). In that day ... he that is in the field. (v.31). In that night there shall be two in one bed, one shall be taken, the other left. (v.34). Two women shall be grinding together; one shall be taken, and the other left (v.35). Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left." (v.36).

3. Cloud Balancing. "Dost thou know the balancing of the clouds?" Job 37:16.

Clouds are floating in the air, balanced by two forces: gravity pulling them downwards, and warm air pushing them upwards. How did Job know about this in 1500 BC? God told him.

4. Telephone Communication.

"Canst thou send lightnings, that they may go, and say unto thee, here we are?" Job 38:35. When we dial a telephone number, an electric current (lightnings or electricity as we know it) moves through a wire to our friend's telephone, which rings a bell. He answers it and says "Hello, it's here." We then both have a conversation over long distance. The telephone works exactly as Job 38:35 says, yet man did not invent it until 1876. God revealed the telephone to Job in 1520BC, 3400 years before AG Bell invented it.

5. Very Great Number of Stars.

"As the host of heaven cannot be numbered." Jeremiah 33:22 in 590 BC.

"He (God) telleth the number of stars; he calleth them all by their names." Psalm 147:4.

Ptolemy in 150AD dogmatically said that 1056 stars existed.

Scientists now estimate that there are around $10^{11} \times 10^{11} = 10^{22}$ stars, and this is only a guess.

6. The Height of Stars.

"Behold the height of the stars, how high they are." Job 22:12.

Man did not realise how high and far the stars are until Bessel in 1838 measured the distances of stars using the parallax method. Alpha Centauri, earth's nearest star is 4×10^{13} kms (40,000 billion kms) away. It would take you 10 million years to get there if you could travel there in your motor car at 100 km per hour.

7. Pleiades Constellation is a Bound cluster, not breaking up.

"Canst thou bind the sweet influences (cluster) of Pleiades?" Job 38:31.

In 1520 BC, God said that the Pleiades star cluster is bound together in a highly stable group.

Today using high powered telescopes, this has been shown to be true. It is a bound cluster of about 500 stars, 50 light years across and 410 light years away from earth.

The individual stars cannot overcome the "chains" of gravity and allow them to break away from the cluster. The cluster is not expanding, nor breaking up, but is bound together. This situation is very uncommon as the reverse is usually true of all open or galactic clusters. Also, photographs reveal that some of it's stars are veiled in a faint transparent blue haze of gas and dust, which beautifully reflect the glory of the stars in the cluster with their various colours. The cluster is indeed "sweet" in colour as God said in Job 38:31.

Question: How did the Bible know these two details which are not observable to the naked eye?

Answer: The all-knowing God Who created the stars, authored the Bible.

8. Orion's Bands are loosed.

"Canst thou loose the bands of Orion?" Job 38:31

The constellation of Orion is a star system that is steadily expanding outwards. The gravitational "bands" holding the constellation together have indeed been loosed, just as God told Job. Orion is 350 light years across and 1600 light years from earth. This expansion is not observable to the naked eye.

Question: How could the Bible tell the difference between two star systems in 1600 BC, Pleiades being bound and Orion being loosed?

Answer: God authored the Bible. "Canst thou bind the sweet influences (cluster) of Pleiades or loose the bands of Orion?" Job 38:31. God can and has done it.

9. Spherical Earth.

"It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth." Isaiah 40:22.

"..when he set a compass upon the face of the depth." Proverbs 8:27.

Circle ²³²⁹ = Compass ²³²⁹ in Hebrew is "Khoog" = to describe a circle, or circuit, meaning the horizon which is circular.

In 712 BC, when Isaiah wrote this, people thought that the earth was flat, and that you could sail over the edge of it and fall off. Columbus and Magellan proved that the earth was circular by sailing around it in a circle from East to West and then returning to the point of departure.

Question: How did the Bible know that the earth was spherical?

Answer: God wrote it.

10. Treasures of the Snow.

"Hast thou entered into the treasures of the snow?" Job 38:22.

Snow crystals are invisible to the naked eye, but under a microscope every snow crystal is different. No two snow crystals are the same. They are all beautiful 6-sided patterns, just like exquisite treasures. How did the Bible know this 3300 years before the microscope was invented? God wrote it.

11. All Mankind came from One Woman.

"Adam called his wife's name Eve: because she was the mother of all living." Genesis 3:20. DNA is found in every cell, in both the nucleus and the mitochondrion (energy station). Mitochondrial DNA is always and only inherited from the mother. Analysis of this DNA in humans from all over the world shows unmistakably that all humans have inherited it from one woman. This research was done by Wilson, Cann, and Stoneking from the University of California, Berkeley. (Creation Ex Nihilo, Vol.12, No.2, March 1990).

12. The Bloodstream Carries Life.

"The life of the flesh is in the blood." Leviticus 17:11.

From 400 BC to 1900 AD, a procedure called "blood letting" was popular. Sick people had blood drained from their bloodstream as a supposed therapeutic measure. It was responsible for killing millions of people, such as George Washington. People thought that blood carried disease instead of life. By draining the blood, the patient died of blood loss. Now we give blood to some sick patients. The Bible was right again.

13. Diseases Caused by Pigs.

"And the swine...is unclean to you. Of their flesh shall ye not eat and their carcass shall ye not touch". Leviticus 11:7,8.

Forbidding to eat pigs was because of:

- lack of refrigeration, and
- roasting pork over an open flame does not destroy the parasites.

Parasites are obtained by handling fresh pork.

Some diseases are caused by eating pork that is not properly cooked. For example, Trichinosis larvae attach to the intestine when eaten. They then bore through the intestine into the blood stream, and the larvae are carried to all parts of the body. They develop and grow in a person's striated muscle.

Pork Tapeworm may feed off the intestine and grow to 12 foot long. It may be fatal in 10-20 years.

God, by forbidding people to eat or touch pork, shows His care for us.

Question: How did the Bible know about the dangers of pork in 1500 BC?

Answer: God wrote the Bible.

14. Leprosy to be Quarantined.

"he (the leper) shall dwelt alone; outside the camp shall his habitation be. Thou shalt burn that wherein the plague is by fire." Leviticus 13:46,57. Moses laid down the rules to recognise and to quarantine the infected leper as contagious, lest other people catch leprosy.

15. Sanitation.

"Thou shalt have a place outside the camp when you will ease yourself, you shall dig (with a paddle) and shall turn back and cover that which cometh from thee." Deuteronomy 23:12,13.

Up until 1800 AD, human excrement was dumped onto the unpaved, filthy streets. Powerful stenches gripped villages and cities. Flies bred in the filth, spreading intestinal diseases that killed millions of people. Such deaths by diseases like typhoid, cholera and dysentery could have been avoided if they had obeyed the Bible.

Question: How did the Bible know this, when man couldn't understand it until 1800?

Answer: God wrote the Bible.

Moses never learned this information from Egypt, because Egypt's standard medical textbook was the "Papyrus Ebers." It contained quack cures like "lizards blood, pigs teeth, stinking fat and meat, pig's ear wax, excreta from humans, dogs, flies, cats, etc.!" Moses never referred to these false cures in his writings.

16. Hands and Clothes Washing.

Until 1900 AD, many hospital patients died due to infections caused by doctors not washing their hands or clothing after contact with infectious patients. The Bible required repeated washing in running water with time allowed for drying and exposure to the sun to kill the bacteria.

17. Fountains Under the Sea. "Hast thou entered into the springs of the sea?" Job 38:16.

"When he strengthened the fountains of the deep." Proverbs 8:28.

There are at least 10,000 known underwater volcanoes, adding 430 million tons of extra water to the oceans each year. Question: How did the Bible know what took place on the deep ocean floor? God wrote it.

18. The Water Cycle.

"All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full; unto the place from where the rivers come, there they return again." Ecclesiastes 1:7.

Rain falls on the coast, runs down the rivers into the oceans, evaporates into clouds, and is blown back to land. It then rains, thus repeating what is known as the water cycle.

19. The Sun is the Source of the Earth's Wind Systems.

"By what way is the light parted, which scatters the east wind upon the earth?" Job 38:24.

Wind is caused by the uneven heating of the air around the earth by the sun. The sun also heats the surface of the earth unevenly. Air above hot areas (such as land) expands and rises. Air from cooler areas then flows in to take the place of heated air. This is called circulation.

20. Light can be Parted or Dispersed into a Rainbow Spectrum.

"By what way is the light parted (Heb.2505)?" Job 38:24. "Parted" in Hebrew is "chalaq" which means "separated".

White light can be separated into 7 colours of the spectrum which are red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo and violet. This was not understood until experiments with light were performed in the 1600's.

Note: Light is like Jesus Christ: "I am the light of the world." John 9:5. As light has seven colours, so Christ has the seven spirits of God. See Isaiah 11:1,2.

21. Winds blow in Circuits.

"The wind goes toward the south, and turns about unto the north, it whirls about continually and the wind turns again according to his circuits." Ecclesiastes 1:6.

At the equator, the sun heats the air causing it to rise. In the upper atmosphere this air flows away from the equator. When the air returns to the earth's surface, it flows across the surface. This moving surface air produces the six belts of prevailing winds around the earth.

22. Winds have Weight and hence Air Pressure.

"To make the weight for the winds." Job 28:25.

Galileo in 1600 AD noted that a suction pump would not raise water more than 34 feet. Torricelli suggested that if air could support a column of water 34 feet high, then air should support a column of mercury about 2.5 feet high, because mercury is 13 times as heavy as water. Torricelli made a mercury barometer and proved that air has pressure and hence weight as the Bible says. God revealed that air has weight 3200 years earlier.

23. Sea Paths or Ocean Currents.

"Whatsoever passes through the paths of the sea". Psalm 8:8. "Paths" in Hebrew means "customary roads." Matthew Maury is the father of Oceanography. A statue of him exists in Virginia with charts of the sea in one hand and a Bible in the other. Until Maury's work there were no charts of sailing lanes. One day during a temporary illness, his son read from Psalm 8:8. Maury stopped him, asking him to read it again. Maury then said: "It is enough. If the Word of God says that there are paths in the sea, they must be there, and I am going to find them." Within a few years he had charted the sea lanes and ocean currents. Question: How did the Bible know about sea paths or ocean currents? Answer: God wrote it.

24. Shadows are caused by the earth turning on its axis with respect to the sun.

"Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning." James 1:17. This shows knowledge of a spherical earth turning on its axis when written in 45AD. This was unknown until Copernicus in 1543 wrote that every planet, including earth, revolves around the sun, and that the earth spun upon its axis once a day.

25. Laws of Physics control matter, energy and motion.

God asked Job: "Knowest thou the ordinances (laws) of heaven?" Job 38:33. Ordinances are physical laws that govern the movement of heavenly bodies, stars, planets, comets, meteors etc. Examples include:

- i) Kepler's laws of equal areas of orbits
- ii) Solar Physics
- iii) Newton's law of universal gravitation
- iv) Quantum mechanics
- v) Newton's three laws of motion
- vi) Radioactive decay
- vii) The first and second laws of thermodynamics
- viii) Sub atomic particle laws
- ix) Laws governing blackholes, quasars, pulsars

The more that man learns about science, the more he realises that there is to learn.

Question: How did the Bible know that science operates on laws in 1500 BC? Answer: God wrote it

26. The First Law of Thermodynamics states that no new matter or energy is being created in the known universe; it is only being interconverted from one form to another.

"On the seventh day God ended his work which He had made." Genesis 2:2.

27. The Second Law of Thermodynamics states that the disorder of the universe is increasing. Systems are running from a high to a low state of energy.

"They (the earth and heavens) all shall wax old as doth a garment. And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail." Hebrews 1:11,12. Scientists admit that with all the energy that the sun burns up, it must become cold one day in the distant future. The same must happen to all stars. This is called the "heat death of the universe." Without solar heat, life on earth could not exist. Jesus Christ will create a new, perfect universe after the millennium.

28. Can a Whale swallow Jonah

"Now the Lord had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights." Jonah 1:17. Many people use this as their reason for doubting the Bible's truthfulness. How can a fish swallow a man?

Several cases in modern times have been reported of a whale swallowing a man who survived. One is reported by Francis Fox in "Sixty-three years of Engineering" p.298-300 and confirmed by two scientists, one being M. DeParville, the scientific editor of "Journal Des Debats" in Paris.

In February 1891, the whaling ship, "Star of the East" was near the Falkland Islands, where they sighted a large sperm whale. Two boats were sent out after the whale. One boat harpooned the whale, but the whale upset the other boat, drowning one man and the other sailor James Bartley, disappearing without a trace. After the whale was killed and cut open two days later, James Bartley was found unconscious and doubled up inside the whale. He had lost his senses through fright and not through lack of air. His skin was bleached white from stomach acid. He fully recovered. If a man can survive two days in a whale in 1891, surely Jonah could have survived three days in a great fish in 862 BC.

29. The Universe consists of Space, Mass and Time as stated in Genesis 1:1

"In the beginning (time) God created the heaven (space) and the earth (mass)."

Each has 3 components showing the Trinity as Creator of time (past, present, future), space (length, breadth, height), and mass (solid, liquid, gas). Only the Bible states God as creating time.

30. Space is stretched as seen by the movement of galaxies, and the earth has foundations of core, mantle and crust. "And forgettest the LORD thy maker, that hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth." (Isaiah 51:13).

CONCLUSION:

The Bible not only includes that which is scientifically correct, but also totally avoids that which is scientific nonsense as found in the books of many other religions. The ancient Egyptians believed that the world was hatched from a great cosmic egg which had wings.

Because the Bible avoids scientific nonsense, and because the Bible contains scientific information that was not known until recently, we conclude that the all-knowing Creator God authored the Bible. This is a strong argument for our complete confidence in the Bible's truth & reliability on every other issue of life.

4. PROOFS OF THE EXISTENCE OF GOD

The Bible never attempts to prove the existence of God, but simply declares His existence as a settled fact. The Bible commences: “In the beginning God.....” Genesis 1:1.

Belief in God’s existence is fundamental to life, otherwise man is not accountable to anybody.

Belief in God’s existence is a pre-requisite to being saved by faith in Christ.

“He that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.” Hebrews 11:6. “The fool hath said in his heart, there is no God”. Psalm 53:1.

Consider these proofs or arguments for God’s existence:

1. CAUSE AND EFFECT (Cosmological)

Every effect has a cause. The cause is greater than the effect.

“For every house is built by some man; but he that built all things is God”. Hebrews 3:4.

The world and the universe are here. This raises the question: “How did it all come into existence?”

We know of nothing in this world that has no cause. Thus we must recognise that there is a cause behind this world and the universe.

If the pieces of a watch were shaken up in a can forever, they would never produce a working watch by accident. The fact of a watch’s existence demands that there was a watchmaker who made the watch. Hence there must be an intelligent First Cause (God).

2. DESIGN PROVES THE EXISTENCE OF A DESIGNER (Teleological)

Not only does the world and universe exist (with a cause), but it also has a perfect design and purpose. Everything has a purpose. For example, every part of your body has a useful purpose.

Order and useful arrangement imply that the Cause has intelligence and purpose.

The intelligence, purpose and harmony in the universe prove the existence of a master architect.

“The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament showeth his handiwork”. Psalm 19:1.

God’s purpose, design, harmony and intelligence is seen in:

i) The earth is the right distance from the sun to provide a life sustaining climate on earth.

ii) The moon is the right distance from earth to provide tides at a proper level.

iii) Without a moon, we would have no light at night.

iv) Every plant, animal and bacteria has a useful purpose.

v) Every part of your body is in the right place (eg: eyes, nose, ears), is the right size and shape (eg: thumb, fingers), and works perfectly to achieve a useful purpose.

vi) Flowers are colourful. Trees provide oxygen, shade, and timber for building and heating, they prevent soil erosion, and they support many life forms.

How can these be explained? A benevolent Designer has given us all of these blessings because He loves and cares for us. Do you love and care for Him?

viii) The human body functions so perfectly in every way.

“I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made”. Psalm 139:14.

3. The UNIQUENESS and INTELLIGENCE OF MAN (Anthropological)

Man is vastly superior to animals, because of his intelligence, his engineering skill, his moral awareness and his awareness of God and eternity.

“So God created man in his own image”. Genesis 1:27.

4. MAN’S UNIVERSAL INTUITIVE BELIEF IN GOD (Ontological)

Man everywhere is born with an intuitive belief in God. This manifests itself in a desire to worship God. If man does not find the true God, he worships a God of his own making. Belief in God is intuitive. It is not the result of cultural conditioning.

5. THE MORAL ARGUMENT (Conscience)

Man everywhere has a moral awareness of right and wrong. He feels responsible to do what is right, and to avoid what is wrong.

Question: Where did this sense of moral justice come from?

If man is only a bunch of chemicals, why does he have a sense of moral obligation?

Do chemicals have morality?

Answer: The Bible states that moral awareness is God given. Such innate moral standards cannot be due to evolution from unintelligent matter. Romans 2:14,15 states that Gentiles who don't know the 10 Commandments have an inner, moral witness placed there by God. When a man violates his conscience he feels guilt and a fear of punishment. Man's moral awareness can be traced back to the moral values of his Creator. Man's conscience witnesses to the existence of a supreme Law-Giver and Judge who built this sense of right and wrong into man.

6. THE BIOLOGICAL ARGUMENT

Only life can produce life. The theory of spontaneous generation of life has been proven false by science. (Louis Pasteur 1870). Unintelligent matter cannot produce intelligent life. The eternal, intelligent life source is God. "For with thee is the fountain of life". Psalm 36:9.

7. THE HISTORICAL ARGUMENT

Human history points to the unseen Hand of God. God controls, guides and governs the affairs of nations. Examples of God intervening in history are:

- i) When Hitler and Napoleon invaded Russia, winter came early, and was so severe that it led to their defeat. Job 38:22,23.
- ii) When Hitler had crippled England's airforce, he could have easily invaded and conquered Britain. But he delayed and was distracted to bombing English cities. He lost his moment of opportunity due to the prayer answering God.
- iii) When the Spanish Armada set out to invade England in 1588 with 130 ships, God sent a devastating storm which was timed perfectly to destroy most of the ships. God spared England for Protestantism, publishing of the King James Bible in 1611, and sending gospel preaching missionaries all over the world.
- iv) The allies and the United States developed the atomic bomb before Hitler in World War II.
- v) Roman peace had removed pirates from the seas allowing Paul and early missionaries to plant churches all over the world.
- vi) In 1453 the Moslems captured Constantinople. Just before it fell, all the precious New Testament manuscripts had been taken to Europe where printing had just been invented in 1440 by Gutenberg. Hence God preserved the New Testament manuscripts from Islamic destruction, and to be printed 10 years after printing was invented.
- vii) La Perouse was a French explorer who sailed into Botany Bay only 6 days after Arthur Phillip arrived there with the First Fleet. God wanted England to colonise Australia rather than France.
- viii) Men blasphemed God in 1912 by saying that "Not even God could sink the Titanic ocean liner." God judged their sin by sinking the Titanic on its maiden voyage from England to New York on April 15, 1912 when it struck an iceberg.

8. THE CHRISTOLOGICAL ARGUMENT

We cannot explain the Christ of history without the existence of God. Christ's life is affirmed by the Bible and by secular literature. Christ's virgin birth, sinless life, miracles, teachings, prophecies fulfilled at His death, His bodily resurrection and ascension can only be explained by God's existence. "Never man spake like this man". John 7:46.

How Christ transforms lives for good, and continues to answer prayers is proof of God's existence. Millions of Christians world wide know Christ as God personally.

9. THE BIBLICAL ARGUMENT

Man could not have authored the Bible. We know that the Bible is authored by God because it foretells the future with 100% accuracy everytime. No other book in the world has 100% fulfilled prophecy. This shows that it comes from the mind of God. Man would not write a book about how his God whom he loves and worships gets crucified. Man would teach that we get to God by our good works. The Bible is accurate from Science, Archaeology, Prophecy, Unity and Morality.

10. MILLIONS OF PEOPLE KNOW GOD PERSONALLY THROUGH JESUS CHRIST

Jesus Christ has answered millions of people's prayers and transformed millions of lives from misery, sin and despair to love, joy, peace, hope and victory. Do not be like the fool who says that there is no God. Receive Jesus Christ as your God and Saviour from sin today. Then you too will know God personally.

5. REASONS FOR BIBLE, HEAVEN, RESURRECTION, DEITY, CREATION and BAPTISM.

What Key Questions Need We Be Able To Answer?

Question 1: How do we know the Bible is God's Word?

1. Fulfilled prophecy regarding nations, Christ, individuals and second coming.
2. Archaeology - No archaeology discoveries contradict the Bible.
3. Science - The Bible contains scientific facts that were not known when the Bible was written.
4. Unity of the Bible written by 40 men over 1600 years agree without any contradiction.
5. It contains all truth and no error.
6. Bible principles for living all work when applied.
7. The Bible when printed, delivered man from the dark ages and brought blessing to the world. It freed men from superstitions.

Question 2: Why Creation Is Right and Evolution Is Wrong.

1. God said "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. So GOD CREATED MAN in his own image..." Genesis 1:27.
2. JESUS said that God created man:
"From the beginning of creation God made them male and female." Mark 10:6.
"For in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created unto this time, neither shall be." Mark 13:19.
3. SUDDEN APPEARANCE of complex life in early Cambrian fossil layers.
4. MAN'S RECORDED HISTORY only goes back to about 3,000 BC, the first dynasty of Egypt and China, agreeing with the Bible's flood date of 2418 BC.
5. SECOND LAW OF THERMODYNAMICS says that systems go from order to disorder, yet evolution contradicts this by claiming systems go from "disorder to order".
6. DATING METHODS are greatly in error, giving an apparent age greater than the true age. This is due to unproven assumptions in the dating methods.
7. 220 EVIDENCES for a young earth of about 6,000 years old.
8. ABSENCE OF TRANSITIONAL fossil forms between species as predicted by evolution.
9. Misplaced fossils. For example:
 - i) Human shoe print on trilobite fossil.
 - ii) Cave painting of brontosaurus in Zimbabwe.
 - iii) Polystrate tree trunks over many strata layers.
 - iv) Human and Dinosaur footprints in Turkmenia.
10. No beneficial mutations have given a new species.
There is no way to change the number of chromosomes in all the cells of an organism to change it to another species. For example, man has 46 chromosomes in every cell.
11. Complexity of sexual reproduction and eyes, can't be explained by evolution's random processes.
12. Bad social effects of evolution
 - a) "Survival of the fittest" of evolution justifies cunning, deceit, cruelty, animal behaviour and massacres, instead of God's law of love and service.
 - b) Militarism of Germany starting World War I and World War II came from them applying evolution to encourage survival of the "fittest" nation Germany. This allowed the massacre of 6 million Jews and the destruction of other countries. This was just an evolutionary conflict.
 - c) Spread of atheism.
 - d) Spread of Communism and the arms race.
 - e) Spread of immorality and divorce. People acting like animals is just evolutionary behaviour.
 - f) No idea of right or wrong because there is no authority of God to be accountable to.
 - g) Abortion. Evolutionists say, "Don't worry, the fetus is only in the fish stage."

Question 3: How do we know that Jesus rose from the dead?

1. Jesus after He rose, said that he had flesh and bones. Luke 24:39.
2. The empty tomb & the ordered grave clothes when the disciples examined the tomb. Mark 16:6
3. Christ ate food with His disciples after He rose. Luke 24:41-45.
4. People recognised Him after His resurrection, even the nail prints. John 20:25.
5. Christ predicted that He would rise bodily. John 2:19,22.
6. The mass psychological change of the disciples from being cowards at Christ's death, to become bold preachers after the resurrection. How else can this mass psychological change be explained?
7. Over 500 people saw Christ after He had risen from the dead over a 40 day period (I Cor 15:6). So convinced were they that they were willing to die as martyrs than to deny Christ's resurrection. Would you die for an event that you were not sure about? These witnesses have a high credibility having given the world it's highest moral code.
8. The change from Saturday to Sunday as the main day of worship (I Cor 16:1,2). The Sabbath being so important to the Jews would not have been dropped by the Jews except for an immensely important event, the resurrection of Jesus Christ.
9. The church's existence can only be explained by the miracle of Christ's resurrection.
10. Angels in the tomb declared that He had risen from the dead as He said. Luke 24:6-8.
11. Women who met Christ on this morning held Christ's feet. Matthew 28:9.

Question 4: Why do we believe that we are going to heaven?

1. Jesus told us of heaven and how to get there through Him (John 14:1-6).
2. The Old Testament tells us of heaven as the land that is very far off. (Isaiah 33:17).
3. We have the Holy Spirit indwelling us, telling us of heaven.
4. We have the promises of God's Word. 'absent from the body, be present with the Lord' 2Cor 5:8
5. Testimony of Godly people dying and going to heaven, such as Stephen (Acts 7:55,56).

Question 5: Why do we believe that Jesus is God?

1. Jesus claimed to be God. "if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins." John 8:24.
"I AM" is a name for "God", because;
 - i) To God, no event is beyond Him in the future, and no event is out of His control in past.
 - ii) Only God is the eternal "I AM" in Exodus 3:14,15. "I AM" is God's name forever.
 - iii) The Jews rightly concluded that Jesus was claiming to be God in John 8:58,59.
 - iv) The Septuagint translates Exodus 3:14 as "I AM" not as in the NWT (JW) version.
2. The Old Testament says that JESUS IS GOD. "For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given:...and his name shall be called...The mighty God, The everlasting Father." Isaiah 9:6.
3. Jesus Christ has the CREDENTIALS OF GOD.
 - i) He ROSE from the dead.
 - ii) He DID MANY MIRACLES showing His power over nature.
 - stilling storms, casting out demons, healing the blind, the lame and raising Lazarus.
 - iii) He PROPHESIED THE FUTURE correctly. Eg: Rome destroying Jerusalem (70 AD).
 - iv) He entered Jerusalem to proclaim himself King 173,880 days after 10pm March 4, 444 BC. This was the exact day (Sunday 29 March 33AD) that Daniel prophesied in Daniel 9:24-26.
 - v) He solves the sin problem by dying as our substitute, thus satisfying the law's demands.
4. The Bible Declares that Jesus Christ is God in these places:
 - i) "The Word was God". John 1:1.
 - ii) Thomas called Him "My Lord and my God". John 20:28.
 - iii) "The glorious appearing of our Great God and Saviour Jesus Christ". Titus 2:13.
 - iv) "God was manifest in the flesh". 1 Timothy 3:16.
 - v) "In Him dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead bodily". Colossians 2:9.
 - vi) "But unto the Son, he saith, 'Thy Throne, O God, is forever and ever'." Hebrews 1:8.
 - vii) "There are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one." 1 John 5:7.
5. The Old Testament predicted 45 details of Jesus Christ's life. 45 examples are on page 12-13:

Jesus Christ and the Bible make the following 8 prophecies about Jerusalem.

1. Not one stone in Herod's Temple would be left standing upon another. Matthew 24:1,2.
2. Jerusalem would be surrounded by armies in a siege. Luke 21:20.
3. The only way of safety was to flee Jerusalem when you see the armies. Luke 21:21.
4. Many Jews in Jerusalem would be killed by the sword. Luke 21:24.
5. Many Jews would be led away captive into all nations. Luke 21:24.
6. Women would eat their children because of starvation in the siege. Deuteronomy 28:52,57.
7. Jerusalem would be under Gentile control until Christ returns. Luke 21:24.
8. Jerusalem shall be plowed as a field. Micah 3:12. This was fulfilled by Hadrian in 135AD.

Conclusion: If we assign a probability of guessing each of these 53 prophecies correctly, it is impossible to predict these events as the Bible has. No prophecy failed. All are correctly fulfilled. This proves that the Bible is not authored by man, but by God who ALONE knows the future.

6. Josephus the Jewish /Roman Historian who lived from 37 to 100 AD, wrote that people then regarded Jesus Christ as God ("if it be lawful to call him a man.")

"Now, there was about this time, Jesus, a wise man, if it be lawful to call him a man, for he was a doer of wonderful works, - a teacher of such men as receive the truth with pleasure. He drew over to him both many of the Jews, and many of the Gentiles. He was (the) Christ; and when Pilate, at the suggestion of the principal men amongst us, had condemned him to the cross, those that loved him at the first did not forsake him, for he appeared to them alive again the third day, as the divine prophets had foretold these and ten thousand other wonderful things concerning him; and the tribe of Christians, so named from him, are not extinct at this day." (Josephus' "Antiquities of the Jews", p.379).

This confirms the Bible's account of Jesus Christ's: i) Historical existence. ii) Deity. iii) Miracles. iv) Teacher. v) Pharisees suggesting that Pilate kill Jesus. vi) Resurrection after three days. vii) Fulfilled Old Testament prophecies. viii) Followers known as the Christian Church.

Question 6: Why we should believe in Baptism by immersion.

1. 'Baptizo' in Greek always means "immersion", never sprinkle. Sprinkle is "rantizo" in Greek.
2. Everyone baptized in the New Testament was a saved adult who could say "I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God." Acts 8:37.
3. Only immersion pictures the death of Jesus Christ for our sins, burial of our old sinful ways, and us rising to a new life with Jesus Christ.
4. Only baptism by immersion is the answer of a good conscience towards God. 1 Peter 3:21.
5. Jesus was baptized by immersion, and so should we. Mark 1:9-11. The Catholic Church changed it.
6. Immersion was the method of baptism up to 300 AD as recorded by the Church Fathers.

WHY SHOULD WE GIVE A REASON? 1. Not to be ashamed before men. (II Timothy 2:15).

2. To be approved by God.
3. To deliver people for error, sin and false doctrine.
4. To teach answers to Christians.
5. To strengthen our faith.

HOW SHOULD WE ANSWER? With meekness and fear, means with modesty and gentleness.

Questions may sometimes be asked in an insulting manner. Don't retort in anger or in a revengeful manner, but in a calm and gentle spirit, stating the reason for our hope. Let us give clear, intelligent and factual answers to establish the truth of God's Word satisfactorily in people's minds.

"But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear." 1 Peter 3:15.

CONCLUSION: The probability of only eight prophecies about Jesus Christ coming true by guesswork is 1 chance in 100,000,000,000,000,000. What about the rest? Since the Bible is right in predicting the future, we conclude that: a) Jesus Christ is the only way to God.

b) The Bible is 100% accurate on issues that we have no normal knowledge on (such as the future). It therefore qualifies for our trust in it as God's only Word to man.

c) It is therefore the right foundation for our thinking and our life. We conclude that,

THE BIBLE = TRUTH = REALITY = OUR LIFE'S FOUNDATION.

6. HEAVEN

In Colossians 3:2 we are told to: "Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth."

Too many people and Christians are so earthly-minded that they are of no heavenly good.

Jesus told us to "lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven." Matthew 6:20.

In view of the difficulties of this world and of the treasures of heaven, we do well to focus constantly on heaven.

- Aim:
1. To show us what great things await us in heaven.
 2. To comfort us concerning those who have gone to heaven.
 3. To motivate us to tell people how they may get to heaven.

1. THE BIBLE TEACHES US THAT THERE ARE THREE HEAVENS

The first heaven is earth's atmosphere, "the heaven gave rain". James 5:18.

The second heaven is outer space, "the stars shall fall from heaven". Matthew 24:29.

The third heaven is the throne of God, "New Jerusalem which cometh down out of heaven from my God." Revelation 3:12.

Paul says in II Corinthians 12:2-4, "I knew a man in Christ...caught up to the third heaven."

2. NAMES OF HEAVEN

- i) "Thine eyes shall behold the king in his beauty: they shall behold the land that is very far off." Isaiah 33:17.
- ii) "Ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance." Hebrews 10:34.
- iii) "The city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem." Hebrews 12:22.
- iv) "Receive the promise of eternal inheritance." Hebrews 9:15.
- v) "In my Father's house are many mansions:...I go to prepare a place for you." John 14:2.
- vi) "Far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory." II Corinthians 4:17.
- vii) "Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven." Matthew 6:20.
- viii) "...a better...heavenly country...for he hath prepared for them a city." Hebrews 11:16
- ix) "He was caught up into paradise." II Corinthians 12:4.

3. WHEN WE DIE WHERE DO WE GO?

- i) At death, the spirits and souls of believers go immediately to heaven, and the body "sleeps" in the earth until Christ's second coming when we will be caught up to rejoin our spirits and souls.
"To be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord." II Corinthians 5:8.
"Them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him." I Thessalonians 4:14.
"For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven." Colossians 1:5.
"But ye are come unto Mt Zion, the heavenly Jerusalem." Hebrews 12:22.
"But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly." Hebrews 11:16.
"Knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance" Heb. 10:34
"To an inheritance.....reserved in heaven for you." I Peter 1:4.
"I heard a great voice of much people in heaven." Revelation 19:1.
"Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven." Matthew 6:20.
"Where I am (heaven), there shall also my servant be." John 12:26.
"I go and prepare a place for you.....that where I am (heaven), there ye may be also" John 14:3
"We know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved (physical death), we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens." II Corinthians 5:1.
- ii) At Christ's return to earth in glory, believers will return to earth with Christ.
"The Lord my God shall come, and all the saints with thee." Zechariah 14:5.
- iii) After the 1000 years of Christ's rule on earth, God will destroy this first earth with fire. He will create a new heavens, new earth and a new Jerusalem city which will be 1500 miles wide, 1500 miles long and 1500 miles high.
This is where our home with God will be forever. Revelation 21:1-3.

4. DESCRIPTION OF HEAVEN

- i) Heaven is where God's Throne is. "Our Father which art in heaven." Matthew 6:9.
- ii) It is a sinless Holy Place.

"He will hear him from his holy heaven." Revelation 21:27; Psalm 20:6.

- iii) Beautiful and clean. "The street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass." Revelation 21:21.
- iv) River of Life and tree of life. Revelation 22:1,2.
- v) Angels reside there. "The voice of many angels about the throne in heaven." Revelation 5:11
- vi) Father, Son and Holy Spirit reside there. "They shall see his face." Revelation 22:4.
- vii) Place of reward. "Rejoice and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven." Matthew 5:12; Revelation 22:12.
- viii) Place of separation from the wicked. I Corinthians 6:9-11; Galatians 5:19-21; Rev.22:14,15
- ix) Believers reside there. "...an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens." 2 Cor. 5:1.
- x) We return to the days of our youth, in resurrected, youthful and immortal bodies. Job 33:25. "This mortal must put on immortality." I Corinthians 15:53.
- xi) Place of joy and happiness.
"Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." Isaiah 35:10; Matthew 25:21.
- xii) All good earthly gifts come from God in heaven.
"A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven." John 3:27.
"Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights..." James 1:17.
Question: Do you acknowledge God as having given you everything good?
- xiii) God assigns angels in heaven to each child who is born in order to bring that person to hear the gospel, so that they will receive Christ as Saviour and have eternal life. Matthew 18:10.
- xiv) God's Word which we have in our hands is settled forever in heaven. It is heavenly and without error. We can confidently build our life on it.
"For ever, O Lord, thy word is settled in heaven." Psalm 119:89.
- xv) The permanence of our heavenly possessions comfort us when we lose our earthly possessions. Hebrews 10:34.
- xvi) An inheritance reserved in heaven for you, that fadeth not away. I Peter 1:4,5.
- xvii) Saved people from every kindred, tongue, people and nation will be there. Revelation 5:9.
We will be reunited with saved friends and relatives, children who have died, Jesus Christ and angels.
- xviii) We shall have a glorified body like Christ. "We shall be like him." I John 3:2. This is Christ likeness. Our new bodies will not be subject to the laws of gravity, time or ageing. John 20:19
- xix) Heaven is eternal. "an eternal inheritance." Hebrews 9:15.
- xx) A place of memory. Question: Will we know one another in heaven? Yes, David will meet his son. II Samuel 12:22,23. We shall sit down with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven. Matthew 8:11.
- xxi) Satisfaction of all our needs. Revelation 7:16,17.
- xxii) Sharing in Christ's glory. "When Christ who is our life shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory". Colossians 3:4.

5. ACTIVITIES IN HEAVEN:

- i) Intimate fellowship with God for all eternity. "They shall see his face." Revelation 22:4. "That where I am there ye may be also." John 14:3.
- ii) Rest from hard labour.
"They may rest from their labours." Revelation 22:4.
One of the results of sin was the curse of toil and the sweat of hard work.
When we arrive in heaven, we will continue to work, but the agony of labour will be gone.
- iii) Exciting service. "His servants shall serve Him." Revelation 22:3.
"He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much." Luke 16:10.
- iv) Ruling. "We shall reign on the earth." Revelation 5:10.
"Because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities." Luke 19:17. "If we suffer, we shall also reign with him. II Timothy 2:12.

- v) Worship. "The 24 elders.....worship him that lives forever and ever." Revelation 4:9-11.
"The Father seeketh such to worship him." John 4:23. We will be so amazed with the greatness of God, heaven and eternity that we will respond in worship.
- vi) Singing. "They sung a new song, saying, "Thou art worthy." Revelation 5:9.
"The ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy shall be upon their heads." Isaiah 35:10.
- vii) Eating. "To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna". Revelation 2:17.
- viii) Marriage supper of the lamb. "Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the lamb." Revelation 19:9.

6. THINGS ABSENT FROM HEAVEN. The "no-mores" in heaven are:

- i) "No more sea." Revelation 21:1.
- ii) "The first heaven and the first earth were passed away." Revelation 21:1.
- iii) No more tears. Revelation 21:4.
- iv) No more death.
- v) No more sorrow.
- vi) No more crying.
- vii) No more pain.
- viii) No more sun or moon. Revelation 21:23.
- ix) No temple for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it." Revelation 21:22
- x) No more insecurity. "The gates of it shall not be shut at all by day" Revelation 21:25.
- xi) "No night there." Revelation 21:25.
- xii) No sin will enter. "There shall in no wise enter into it anything that defiles, or works abomination, or makes a lie..." Revelation 21:27.
- xiii) No more sickness. "Leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations." Revelation 22:2
- xv) "No candle or light of the sun, for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign forever and ever." Revelation 7:16.
- xvi) No more thirst, hunger or heat. Revelation 7:16.
- xvii) No one who adds or takes away from the Bible. Revelation 22:18,19.
- xviii) Outside are dogs, sorcerers, whoremongers, murderers, idolaters, and liars. Revelation 22:15

7. WHAT WILL BE THERE?

- i) Behold I make ALL THINGS NEW. Revelation 21:5.
This means that everything will be new. It will be a new universe.
- ii) "He that overcometh shall inherit ALL THINGS." Revelation 21:7.
- iii) "The Kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it." Revelation 21:24.
This means that there will be a new population on the new earth who will worship the Lord.
- iv) Mansions. "In my Father's house are many mansions." John 14:2.

Question: How may we enter heaven?

We must humble ourselves as little children, and ask Christ to be our Saviour. Matthew 18:1-6 "Thou would have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water". John 4:10.
Are you really sure of going to heaven?
Are you really living for Christ and for eternity?
Are you working to get lost people saved and into heaven?

7. HELL

In the New Testament, 162 passages speak about unrepentant people going to hell, and 70 of these were described by Jesus, as he warned people to avoid it.

When the unsaved die, they go immediately to hell. Later, at the end of Christ's 1,000 year reign on earth, the unsaved will leave hell, receive their resurrected bodies, go to the Great White Throne Judgment and will then be cast into the Lake of Fire, where they remain forever (Revelation 20:11-15).

I. FOUR BIBLE WORDS THAT DESCRIBE HELL:

1. GEHENNA¹⁰⁶⁷ referred to the continually burning rubbish dump on the south west side of Jerusalem, known as the valley of the sons of Hinnom (or Tophet). Jesus used the word "Gehenna" to describe the place of everlasting punishment because hell is a place of filth and stink, a place of smoke and pain, a place of everlasting fire and suffering. This garbage dump was likened to hell. It is used as a name for the place of everlasting punishment of the lost. It occurs twelve times in the New Testament. It is the ultimate hell of fire. It is the same as the lake of fire. (Revelation 20:14,15).

Matthew 5:22 "whosoever shall say, "Thou fool", shall be in danger of hell fire" (gehenna of the fire).

Matthew 5:29 "And if thy right eye offend thee ... and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell" (gehenna).

Matthew 5:30 "And if thy right hand offend thee ... and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell" (gehenna).

Matthew 10:28 "...fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell" (gehenna).

Matthew 18:9 "And if thine eye offend thee, ... rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire" (gehenna).

Matthew 23:15 "Pharisees, ... ye make him twofold more the child of hell (gehenna) than yourselves."

Matthew 23:33 "Ye serpents,... how can ye escape the damnation of hell?" (gehenna).

Mark 9:43 "And if thy hand offend thee, ... two hands to go into hell (gehenna), into the fire that never shall be quenched."

Mark 9:45 "And if thy foot offend thee, ... two feet to be cast into hell (gehenna), into the fire that never shall be quenched."

Mark 9:47 "And if thine eye offend thee, ... two eyes to be cast into hell fire" (gehenna of fire).

Luke 12:5 "Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell" (gehenna).

James 3:6 "the tongue is ... set on fire of hell" (set on fire by gehenna).

2. HADES⁸⁶ is the intermediate state between death and the ultimate hell (gehenna), the Lake of Fire.

It is where unsaved departed spirits reside. Luke 16:23. Hades never denotes the physical grave, nor is it the permanent region of the lost. Hades occurs 10 times in the New Testament, and Sheol, the Old Testament equivalent occurs 59 times. Hades is associated with privation, detention and just punishment of the unsaved dead.

Matthew 11:23 "Thou, Capernaum...shalt be brought down to hell" (hades).

Luke 10:15 Hades here expresses Capernaum's absolute overthrow, from pride to humiliation.

Matthew 16:18 "The gates of hell (hades) shall not prevail against it" (the churches' attack).

Luke 16:19-31 "And in hell (hades) he lifted up his eyes, being in torments⁹³¹ (punishment)" v.23.

Hades here has two compartments, close to each other, yet different.

Acts 2:27 "Thou wilt not leave my soul in hell (hades)."

Acts 2:31 "That his (Christ's) soul was not left in hell (hades)."

Christ here descended into the underworld of the departed (Ephesians 4:9,10), to take the believers in it (eg: thief on the cross) up to heaven. Believers now go to heaven at death, while unbelievers still go to hades at death, a place of punishment.

Revelation 1:18 "I (Christ) ... have the keys of hell (hades) and of death."

Revelation 6:8 "a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and hell (hades) followed with him." Hades here is personified as the temporary destiny of the unsaved.

Revelation 20:13 "death and hell (hades) delivered up the dead which were in them."

Revelation 20:14 "death and hell (hades) were cast into the lake of fire."

Note: Fire is used 27 times in the New Testament to describe the after-death punishment of unbelievers and of demons.

2 Thessalonians 1:8 "In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ."

Matthew 13:42, 50 "And shall cast them into a furnace of fire."

Matthew 5:22; 18:9; Mark 9:43,45,47 "cast into fire unquenchable, hell fire."

Isaiah 66:24 "... look upon the carcasses of the men that have transgressed against me, for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched." Mark 9:44,46,48.

Isaiah 33:14 "Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire?
Who among us shall dwell with the everlasting burnings?"

Matthew 18:8 "Two hands or two feet be cast into everlasting fire."

Matthew 25:41 "Depart from me ye cursed into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels."

Jude 7 "Sodom and Gomorrha ... an example suffering the vengeance of eternal fire."
(Literally: of fire eternal, the penalty undergoing).

Revelation 19:20 "Beast, .. false prophet, ... and them that worshipped his image. These were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone."

Revelation 20:10 "the devil ... shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever" (for the ages of the ages).

Revelation 20:14,15 and Rev. 21:8 "death and hell were cast into the lake of fire."

Revelation 14:10,11 "tormented with fire and brimstone ... the smoke of their torment ascends up for ever and ever (for ages of ages), and they have no rest (respite) day nor night..."

3. SHEOL⁷⁵⁸⁵ is hades of the Old Testament. In Hebrew, it means the depth, abyss, pit, world of the dead, underworld. It occurs 66 times in the Old Testament (grave 31 times, hell 30 times, pit 3 times). As all Old Testament people went to the grave, the souls of some will receive punishment in sheol.

Numbers 16:30 "Korah, Dathan and Abiram went down into the pit."

Psalms 9:17 "The wicked shall be turned into hell (sheol)."

4. TARTARUS⁵⁰²⁰ is the deepest abyss of Hades; a place where evil angels are imprisoned in torment, awaiting judgment and everlasting punishment.

2 Peter 2:4 is its only reference in the Bible.

"If God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell (tartarus), and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment."

II. WHAT IS HELL (GEHENNA and HADES) LIKE?

1. UNQUENCHABLE FIRE: "He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire." Matthew 3:12.

Hell "fire" is real "fire" because the same Greek word (pur) for fire is used for both.

"It rained fire and brimstone..." Matthew 17:15 and Luke 17:29.

The rich man in hades said: "I am tormented in this flame." Luke 16:24.

2. MEMORY AND REGRET. Abraham said to the rich man in hades "remember" in Luke 16:25. Lost people will remember their sins and the times that they rejected the Holy Spirit convicting them of their sins and their need for Jesus Christ to be their Saviour. They will remember how Christians told them the plan of salvation.

3. THIRST. The rich man in hell begged Abraham to "send Lazarus that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue" (Luke 16:24), yet this was refused. Imagine going without water for one day, let alone for eternity without water.

Jesus Christ offers in John 7:37, "If any man thirst, let him come unto me and drink."

- 4. SEPARATION. People in hell will experience a “great gulf” (Luke 16:26) between them and God. They took all the good things of life for granted when they were on earth. They will be forever separated from all the good gifts of God. Many unbelievers joke that “I won’t be lonely in hell, as all my friends will be there.” Friendship means nothing under everlasting torment.
- 5. INJUSTICE AND FILTHINESS OF SIN are in hell. Revelation 22:11. “He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy let him be filthy still.” No one likes people treating them unjustly, nor do people like being abused in a filthy manner. The unsaved will experience these conditions forever in hell.
- 6. HOPELESSNESS FOR ALL ETERNITY. Hell is the everlasting dwelling place of the unsaved. Sooner or later they will realise that they are in hell to stay there forever, with no escape. In Luke 16:26, Abraham told the rich man in hell: “They which would pass from here to you cannot; neither can they pass to us.”
- 7. STINK OF SULPHUR. “But the fearful, and unbelieving, and abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone (sulphur); which is the second death.” Revelation 21:8.
- 8. EYESIGHT, HEARING, TOUCH, TASTE AND SMELL are senses that people possess in hell. The rich man in Luke 16:19-31 could “see” Abraham, “hear” his voice, “touch” the flames, desire to “taste” water, and “smell” the sulphur. Revelation 21:8.
- 9. THE DEVIL and DEMON ANGELS will accompany the Christ rejecters forever.
- 10. UNSATISFIED DESIRES. Both of the rich man’s requests were denied in Luke 16:19-31. He requested a drop of water to cool his tongue, and for Lazarus to return to tell his five unsaved brothers how to be saved and avoid hell. Both requests were denied. How many times a day do you want something and get it? In hell, no one ever gets what they want.
- 11. PLACE OF WORMS. “Where their worm dieth not...” Mark 9:44,46,48.
Worm means maggot. If the maggots do not die, and the people own the maggots, then neither do the people die or get annihilated in hell.
- 12. TORMENT and PUNISHMENT. “In hell, he lift up his eyes being in torments.” Luke 16:23.
- 13. SHAME and HATRED. “Many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.” Daniel 12:2. People suffering in hell will get a resurrection body. They will be judged, and sent to the lake of fire in shame at their sins. They will experience everlasting contempt, hating their situation forever.
- 14. DEGREES OF PUNISHMENT IN HELL. “It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of judgement, than for that city.” Mark 6:11.
Those who reject Christ most often, will receive greater punishment. Matthew 10:15.
- 15. WEEPING, WAILING, GNASHING OF TEETH. “So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth and sever the wicked from among the just, and shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.” Matthew 8:12 and 13:49,50. People who today are arrogant, proud Christ-rejecters will be wailing and gnashing their teeth in hell.
- 16. HADES IS IN THE EARTH. Amos 9:2 “though they dig into hell ...”, Isaiah 14:9 “hell from beneath”, Ephesians 4:9 “descended into lower parts of earth”,
Numbers 16:33 “they went down alive into the pit”,
Psalm 63:9 “those that seek my soul, to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth.”
- 17. HELL IS ORIGINALLY PREPARED FOR THE DEVIL AND HIS ANGELS
“Depart from me, ye cursed into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels.” Matthew 25:41.
How does one get to hell? By neglecting to receive Christ as Saviour.
Hebrews 2:3 “How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation?”

How does one avoid hell? By receiving Christ as their Saviour. John 1:12.

Christians should work harder to rescue people from hell, and seek to build their church to better achieve this task, both at home and overseas.

Question 1: Does “hell” mean “grave” where good and bad must go?

Answer: No, because in Luke 16:19-31 both men went to the grave, but the soul of Lazarus was comforted, and the soul of the rich man was tormented.

Question 2: How can a loving God send people to hell?

Answer: People send themselves to hell by rejecting Christ. God is loving in sending Christ to die for our sins, but God is just in punishing sin.

III. JESUS' STORY OF THE RICH MAN AND LAZARUS in Luke 16:19-31.

An unbelieving rich man who had abundant material possessions and food in this life, died and went to hell. A believing poor man named Lazarus who had nothing in this life but sickness and poverty, died and was carried by the angels into the comfort of paradise. The suffering rich man in hell made two requests of Abraham in paradise:

i) To send Lazarus to put one drop of water on his tongue to relieve his suffering. The rich man, who refused to show mercy to Lazarus in need, now begged that Lazarus might show mercy to him in his need (v.24). The rich man declares the greatness of his torment saying: “I am in torment (agony) in this fire (or flame).” v.24.

Lesson: Material things have only temporary, not eternal value. Luke 16:25.

Abraham responded by calling him “son”. This means that he was a son of Abraham by flesh, not by faith. The rich man trusted his wealth and his physical descent from Abraham for his salvation. Christ showed that neither reason was sufficient for salvation. At death, one's eternal destiny is settled. “Between us and you there is a great gulf fixed” (v.26). The rich man could remember his false confidence in wealth, and his wrong devotion to it. This story refutes “soul-sleep”, because the rich man and Lazarus were conscious, one enjoying comfort, and the other suffering torment.

Note: Hades had two sections: paradise and hell punishment. Jesus emptied the paradise section when He rose from the dead and took the Old Testament believers’ souls to heaven. Eph. 4:8-10; John 20:17. “Torment” is used four times and means sorrow and grief.

Abraham gave two reasons why Lazarus could not comfort the rich man:

- a) The rich man had received his reward (Matthew 6:2,5,16), and he had left God out of his life.
- b) The great gulf separated them.

ii) To send Lazarus back to warn his five brothers. Luke 16:27-31.

The rich man did not say: “I'm glad my brothers will come here, we'll have a wonderful time together.” People sometimes say: “I want to go to hell. All my friends will be there.”

Answer: There is no friendship in hell. Hell is a place of torment and loneliness.

Lesson: People in hell have a concern for the lost, but they cannot do anything about it, BUT WE CAN! What are you doing?

v.29-31: Abraham said that the only thing that could prevent his five brothers from coming to hell was: Hearing the Word of God, and responding to it by faith in Christ as Saviour.

A man named Lazarus did come back from the dead, and some of the Pharisees wanted to kill him (John 11:43-57; 12:10).

God had spoken many times to the rich man while on earth:

1. God permitted him to have riches, but not attributing his riches to God's goodness, he did not repent. “The goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance.” Romans 2:4-5.
2. Lazarus would have witnessed to him, but his pride rejected Lazarus' message.
3. Old Testament scriptures spoke to him.
4. Lazarus dying first, should have reminded him how he would also die. In hell he was still self-centred, praying for his comfort and for the safety of his family. He was not concerned about other lost sinners. C.S. Lewis says: “The safest road to hell is the gradual one - the gentle slope, soft underfoot, without sudden turnings, without milestones, without signposts.”

Lessons from the rich man and Lazarus:

1. The souls of men do not die with their bodies.
2. The souls of men are conscious after death, not asleep until resurrected.
3. The righteous at death are taken immediately to a place of happiness and the wicked are sent to a place of misery and torment.
4. Wealth does not protect us from death.
5. We should not envy the rich, as riches can blind us to the reality of eternity.
6. We should seek a better inheritance than this life can give.
7. The sufferings of the wicked in hell will be indescribably great of torment, burning flame, and insatiable thirst, forever.
8. Hell is a place of suffering beyond the grave. If not, this story has no meaning.
9. There will never be any escape from hell. The gulf is fixed.
10. God warns us to prepare for death through:
 - His Word.
 - His Holy Spirit pleading with sinners.
 - His servants.
 - His goodness leading us to repentance.
 - Pleadings of friends.
 - Heaven.

If all that would not move sinners, then what would? He threatens hell.

11. God will give us nothing more to warn us. No dead man will return to tell us what he has seen. If he did, no one would believe him. If you will not hear Christ or the Bible, there is nothing you will hear. You will never be persuaded, and you will never escape the place of torment.
12. We see the amazing folly of those wanting to go to hell. They have been deceived.

IV. THE IMPLICATIONS OF HELL FOR US TODAY

1. Soul winning is important. When people get angry at a preacher preaching on soul winning, they are doing the devil's work.
2. We need to become fishers of men. Matthew 4:19.
3. If we are busy pulling souls out of the fire, we will not waste our time fighting other Christians. We will seek to maintain unity in our church.
4. We see our Church as of great importance in rescuing people from hell. Rescuing people from hell is a major purpose of churches.
5. Hell focuses our attention on eternity, taking our attention off petty present things like latest worldly fashions which pale into insignificance in the light of lost people going to an eternal hell.
6. Hell makes us train workers to be soul winners.
7. It gives us a love for people to win to Christ and to train in the Bible.
8. It makes us use our time wisely so that all we do helps in some way to rescue people from hell.
9. Hell makes us mission minded so that we try to win lost people to Christ overseas. For example, Roman Catholics in Africa grew from 52 million in 1980 to 92 million in 1993.
10. Hell and eternal judgment is the sixth principle of the Doctrine of Christ, so it must be emphasised in our doctrinal teaching. "the foundation ofeternal judgment." Hebrews 6:1,2.
11. Hell will give us a better testimony as Christians. If we sin, people will go to hell.
12. Hell will stop us backsliding because we will realise that our job is important to accomplish in rescuing people from hell. "For what shall it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and lose his own soul?" Mark 8:36. What is your answer to this question?

Conclusion

Are you really saved?

Have you received Jesus Christ as your Saviour, trusting Him alone to save you, not your religion or your good works?

If you are saved, then what are you doing to tell people how Jesus Christ can save them from hell?

8. REWARDS

God's Word teaches us that salvation is a free gift given to us by God. We do not work for it (Ephesians 2:8,9,10), we just receive it, and it becomes ours. Once we have received it, we cannot lose it. (John 10:28).

Question: Does this mean that I can go out and sin, now that I'm saved, without any bad consequences?

Answer: No, because: a) God will discipline us now, and we will be sorry.
b) We will lose our rewards later on in heaven.

I. STATEMENTS OF REWARDS IN HEAVEN

- "And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be". Revelation 22:12.
- "And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not to men; knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ. But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done". Colossians 3:23-25.
- "For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad". II Corinthians 5:10.
- "Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord". Ephesians 6:8.
- "I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus". Philippians 3:14.
- "Moses... had respect unto the recompense of the reward". Hebrews 11:26.
- "Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven..". Matthew 6:19,20.
- "To have an abundant entrance into the everlasting kingdom". II Peter 1:11.
- "So then everyone of us shall give account of himself to God". Romans 14:12.

Christ will come to judge the works of believers and to distribute rewards. The believer will not be judged with regard to his sins (John 5:24). Christ received that judgment on our behalf on the cross (II Corinthians 5:21) and we will not again be called to account for them at Christ's return. During this life, however the believer is disciplined for the sins that he commits (Hebrews 12:7-11). But when Christ returns, believers will be judged as to how well we have used the talents (Matthew 25:14-30), the pounds (Luke 19:11-27), and the opportunities (Matthew 20:1-16) that God has entrusted to us. Salvation is a free gift of God (Romans 6:23) and comes from the grace of God (Ephesians 2:8). When James says that we are saved by works (James 2:24), he means by faith that produces works (2:22,26). Paul says that while we are saved by grace, we are saved to do good works (Ephesians 2:8-10). The Lord has given believers an opportunity to lay up treasures in heaven (Matthew 6.20), and so to have an abundant entrance into God's everlasting kingdom (II Peter 1:11).

II. FOR WHAT WILL WE BE REWARDED IN HEAVEN?

- (1) Faithfulness to God and to his work in using our talents, pounds and opportunities will be rewarded. If we sow sparingly, we reap sparingly. If we sow bountifully, we reap bountifully. "It is required in stewards that a man be found faithful." I Corinthians 4:2.
- (2) Reaping the harvest of souls for Jesus Christ. "He that reapeth receives wages". John 4:35-37.
- (3) Patiently enduring suffering and affliction brings heavenly rewards. "Our light affliction which is but for a moment, works for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory." II Corinthians 4:17.
- (4) They that turn many to righteousness will shine as the stars forever and ever. Daniel 12:3.
- (5) In keeping of them (God's commandments) there is a great reward. Psalm 19:11.
- (6) When we are persecuted for righteousness sake. Matthew 5.10.
When people revile you and say all manner of evil against you falsely for Jesus Christ's sake. Rejoice and be exceeding glad, for great is your reward in heaven. Matthew 5:10-12.
- (7) Giving money secretly. Matthew 6:4.

- (8) Praying secretly. Matthew 6:6.
- (9) Fasting secretly. Matthew 6:18.
- (10) Hospitality. Receiving, helping or welcoming a prophet or a righteous man. Matthew 10:41. If you receive or help a prophet or righteous man, you get a prophet or righteous man's reward.
- (11) If you give a cup of cold water to a disciple, you will not lose your reward. Matthew 10:42. God notices all the little acts of kindness that we do, and promises to reward us for each of them.
- (12) If people hate you, and separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and shall cast out your name as evil for the Son of man's sake. Rejoice, and leap for joy, for your reward is great in heaven. Luke 6:22,23.
- (13) Your reward shall be great if you do as in: Luke 6:27-31,35.
- Love your enemies.
 - Do good to them that hate you.
 - Bless them that curse you.
 - Pray for them that spitefully use you.
 - To him that smites thee on the cheek, offer the other.
 - If he takes your cloak, offer your coat.
 - Give to every one that asks thee.
 - Of him that takes away thy goods, ask them not again.
 - Do to men as ye would have them do to you.
 - Lend, hoping for nothing again. As sufferers in an evil world, we will be rewarded for endurance. "If we suffer with him, we shall also reign with him". II Timothy 2:12.
- (14) If we plant the gospel and water it in people's lives. "He that plants (Paul) and he that waters (Apollos) are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour". I Corinthians 3:8.
- (15) If we have eternal values. If we build on the foundation of Christ, by using gold, silver, precious stone type works of eternal value. I Corinthians 3:11-15. If our work abides, we will receive a reward. 3:14. If any man's life work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss, but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire. v.15. The quality of our life's work will be rewarded at the Judgment Seat of Christ.
- (16) If I preach the gospel willingly, I have a reward. I Corinthians 9:16,17.
- (17) Meekness in serving Christ. Blessed are the meek for they shall inherit the earth. (Matthew 5:5) The reward is real estate ownership in the Millennium.
- (18) Cast not away your confidence which hath great recompense of reward. Hebrews 10:35.
- (19) How we treat other believers. "God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have showed to His name in that ye have ministered to the saints and do minister". Hebrews 6:10.
- (20) How we exercise our Pastoral ministry to others. "Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you". Hebrews 13:17.
- (21) How we use our God-given abilities. "Thou hast been faithful over a very little, have thou authority over ten cities". Luke 19:17.
- (22) How we use our money. "Charge them that are rich in this world. that they be ready to distribute...." I Timothy 6:17-19. "Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come". 2 Cor 9:6,7
- (23) How much we suffer for Jesus Christ. "For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, works for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory". II Corinthian 4:17; Romans 8:18; I Peter 4:12,13; II Timothy 2:12.
- (24) How we run the race that God has chosen for us. "So run that ye may obtain". I Corinthian 9:24
- (25) How well we control sin. "Every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible crown." I Cor. 9:25-27.
- (26) How we react to temptation. "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life". Revelation 2:10.

- (27) How much we love the Lord's appearing. "Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love His appearing". II Timothy 4:8.
- (28) How faithful we are to the Word of God, and to feed the flock of God. "Feed the flock of God ... When the Chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fades not away". I Peter 5:2-4.
- (29) Doing everything heartily, as unto the Lord. "Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ." Colossians 3:23,24.

III . WHAT WILL OUR REWARDS BE ?

The Christians' reward is sometimes mentioned as a "prize" (I Corinthians 9:24), and sometimes as a "crown" (I Corinthians 9:25). Five Crowns may be won:

- (1) Incorruptible crown - for those who discipline the body, as an athlete to achieve great things for God. I Corinthians 9:25-27.
- (2) Rejoicing - for those who win people to Christ. I Thessalonians 2:19,20.
- (3) Life - for those who love Christ enough to endure temptation. James 1:12; Revelation 2:10.
- (4) Righteousness - for those who love Christ's second coming. II Timothy 4:8.
- (5) Glory - for pastors and teachers who faithfully feed the flock of God. I Peter 5:2-4.

Other rewards available are :

- (1) Our Lord's approval - "Well done thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things." Matthew 25:21.
- (2) Ruler over many things. "If we suffer with him, we shall reign with him." II Timothy 2:12. "They shall reign for ever and ever." Revelation 22:5.
- (3) Authority over 10 cities, 5 cities etc. "Thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over 10 cities." Luke 19:17.
- (4) Inherit all things. "He that overcometh shall inherit all things". Revelation 21:7.
We may sit with Christ in His Throne. Revelation 3:21.
He has made us unto our God Kings and priests:and we shall reign on the earth. Revelation 5:10
- (5) His servants shall Serve Him. "They shall see his face". Revelation 22:3,4.

IV. HOW MAY WE LOSE OUR REWARDS ?

Is it possible for someone who has earned certain rewards to lose them through sinful living? These verses imply "yes":

- (1) By Backsliding, not holding fast which thou hast. "Hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown". Revelation 3:11.
- (2) By following Deceivers. "For many deceivers are entered into the world". II John 7.
- (3) By not looking to ourselves, to check our behaviour. "Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward". II John 8.
- (4) By Worshipping angels. "Let no man beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, and not holding the Head...". Colossians 2:18.
- (5) By not expecting Christ's return. "Say in his heart: My lord delays his coming". Matt. 24:48.
- (6) By doing wrong. "He that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done" Col.3:25
- (7) By not abiding in Christ. Faithfulness in our service here to Christ will result in privileged service in eternity. Our works from salvation to the grave will be on display as a painting, so that all believers and angels can see the results of our life's work for Christ. "And now, little children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before Him at His coming". I John 2:28.

Question: Will you have confidence or be ashamed at Christ's coming?

9. — THE FEASTS OF JEHOVAH —

Leviticus 23

COMPLETED

NEW TESTA-MENT

The Lord's Death
Communion of Saints
The Lord's Resurrection

The Lord
in Heaven,
Seated at
The Right Hand of GOD

TO COME
Christ
Coming to
The Saints

CHRIST THE SUN OF RIGHTNESS

HEAVENLY Kingdom

ETERNITY
THE SABBATH

ETERNITY

THE EIGHTH DAY

THE MILLENNIUM EARTHLY

The Jews Repent

The Saints
Caught up to Their Land
Jews Return

The Present
Interval

← SEVENTH MONTH →

4th, 5th & 6th
MONTH

3rd MONTH

← FIRST MONTH →

Old Testament
Eating the Passover
and Blood

Eating the Passover

The Sheaf of Firstfruits

The Two Loaves

Israel
Scattered

Blowing the Trumpets

The Blood of Atonement

Dwelling
in Booths

Used by permission 'Bible Light Publishers' Hong Kong.

HISTORICAL BACKGROUND

10. HISTORICAL BACKGROUND OF THE OLD TESTAMENT

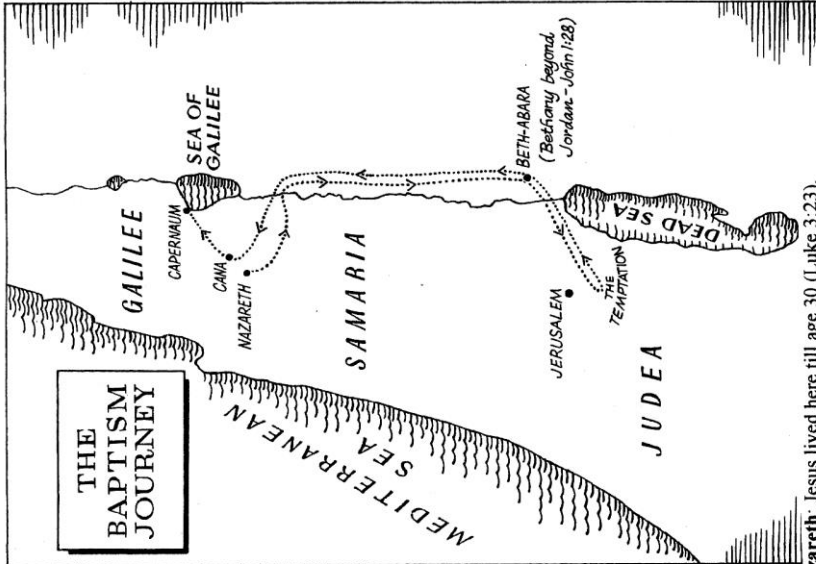

UND TO THE OLD TESTAMENT.

© 1983 J.ECOB

11. MAPS OF JESUS CHRIST and PAUL

1. Tyre and Sidon: Jesus healed a Greek girl. (Mark 7:24-30).
2. Decapolis: Jesus healed a stammering deaf man. (Mark 7:31-37).
3. Jesus fed 4000 people. (Mark 8:1-10).
4. Bethsaida: Jesus healed a blind man. (Mark 8:22-26).
5. Caesarea Philippi Road: Peter confessed who Jesus was. (Mark 8:27-30).
6. Mt. Hermon: The Transfiguration. (Mark 9:2-8).
7. Foot of Mt. Hermon: Healed boy with dumb & deaf spirit. (Mark 9:14-29).

- Nazareth: Jesus lived here till age 30 (Luke 3:23).
- Bethabara: Jesus baptised (Matthew 3:13-17).
- Wilderness: Jesus tempted for 40 days. (Matthew 4:1-11; Luke 4:1-13).
- Galilee: After the temptation, Jesus returned through Bethabara to Galilee.
- Capernaum: Jesus chose 12 disciples (Matt. 4:18-22; John 1:43-51; Luke 6:12-16).
- Cana: Jesus did his first miracle at a wedding, turning water to wine (John 2:1-11).
- Nazareth: Jesus preached and rejected from synagogue (Luke 4:16-30). Jesus casts out demon (Mark 1:21-28), heals Peter's mother in law (Mark 1:29-31), and forgives and heals a paralyzed man let down through a roof (Mark 2:1-12).

JESUS' MINISTRY AROUND SEA OF GALILEE

- Jerusalem: Jesus met Nicodemus, a Pharisee. (John 3:1-21).
- Sychar: Spoke to Samaritan woman at Jacob's well. (John 4:1-26).
- Cana: Healed Centurion's son from Capernaum. (John 4:46-53).
- 1. Nain: Jesus raised widow's son to life at funeral. (Luke 7:11-17).
- 2. Pharisee's house: Repentant woman anoints Jesus' feet. (Luke 7:36-50).
- 3. Sea of Galilee: Jesus calms a storm. (Luke 8:22-25).
- 4. Gadarenes: Legion of demons cast out of man into pigs. (Luke 8:26-33).
- 5. Capernaum: Jesus raises Jairus' daughter. (Luke 8:40-56).
- 6. Capernaum: Jesus heals woman with issue of blood. (Luke 8:43-48).

Jesus Christ's Last Supper, Arrest, Trials, and Crucifixion.

- Jesus' Last Journey to Jerusalem:
- Jericho: Jesus heals a blind man. (Luke 18:35-43).
- Jericho: Zaccheus repents and Jesus saves him. (Luke 19:1-10).
- Bethany: Two disciples bring a colt to Jesus. (Luke 19:28-35).
- Bethany: Jesus' triumphal entry as Messiah the Prince. (19:36-44).
- Jesus cleanses the temple of money changers & animal sellers. (v.45-48).
- 1. The Last Supper in an upper room. (Luke 22:7-23).
- 2. The Garden of Gethsemane prayer, betrayal and arrest. (Luke 22:39-53).
- 3. Jesus mocked before Caiaphas the High Priest. (22:54-62; Matt 26:57-75).
- 4. Jesus before the Sanhedrin (70 scribes, Pharisees, elders). (Luke 22:66-71).
- 5. Jesus before Pilate. (Luke 23:1-6).
- 6. Jesus mocked before Herod and sent to Pilate. (Luke 23:7-12).
- 7. Jesus before Pilate, scourged & sentenced to die. Luke 23:13-25; John 18:28-19:16).
- Calvary: Jesus crucified with two thieves. (Luke 23:26-56).
- Jesus buried and rose from the dead 3 days later. (Luke 24:1-12).
- Jesus appeared 40 days to over 500 believers. (Luke 24:13-50).
- Bethany: Jesus ascended from Mt of Olives to heaven. (Luke 24:50-53; Acts 1:1-12).

First Missionary Journey (Acts 13:1-14:28).

Antioch in Syria: Saul, Barnabas, Mark sent on a church planting journey (13:1-3).
Seleucia seaport 16 miles from Antioch. Sailed to Cyprus, Barnabas' home. (4:36).
Salamis on east coast of Cyprus. Preached in Jewish synagogues (13:5).
Paphos (100 miles SW). Elymas the sorcerer was blinded for trying to turn Sergius Paulus, the Roman Proconsul from Christ. Paul took the lead from here. (13:6-12).
Perga: John Mark left and returned to Jerusalem (13:3).
Antioch in Pisidia: Paul preached in their synagogue. Next Sabbath, envious Jews contradicted, blasphemed, persecuted & expelled them from the city. (13:14-50).
Icönium: Many Jews/Greeks believed. Paul & Barnabas expelled (13:51-14:5).
Lystra: Paul healed a cripple. Jews from Antioch and Icönium stoned Paul (19).
Derbe: Paul and Barnabas preached the gospel and taught many (14:20,21).
Lystra, Icönium, Antioch: Paul and Barnabas retraced their steps exhorting the disciples (21,22) and ordained elders in every church (14:23).
Perga: Paul preached there (25).
Attalia: Paul sailed to Antioch in Syria (26).
Antioch in Syria: Paul & Barnabas told sending church all God did. (14:26-28).

Second Missionary Journey (Acts 15:36-18:22).

Antioch in Syria: Paul and Silas leave to visit the churches Paul started (15:36-41) strengthening churches in Syria and Cilicia.
Derbe, Lystra, Icönium, Antioch: Timothy, a young man, joined up. (16:1-5).
Phrygia, Galatia, Mysia: The Holy Spirit forbade them preaching in Asia. (16:6-8).
Troas: Paul's vision of a man of Macedonia praying. "Come over into Macedonia, and help us." (v.9). The "we" section commences with Luke joining the team.
Samothracia and Neapolis (v.11).
Philippi (16:12) chief city of Macedonia. Lydia saved and baptized (16:14,15). Paul and Silas beaten and imprisoned for casting demons out of a girl (16:16-24). Philippian jailer and household saved and baptized (16:25-40).
Amphipolis and Apollonia passed through (17:1).
Thessalonica: (17:1) Paul preached in synagogue for 3 sabbaths despite Jewish riots. Berea: (17:10) Paul preached in synagogue. Many believed. Thessalonian Jews opposed them. Paul left for Athens. Silas and Timothy remained there. (17:10-14).
Athens: (17:15) Paul disputed & preached on Mars Hill. Some believed (17:15-34).
Corinth: (18:1) Paul found Aquila, Priscilla. He persuaded Jews/Greeks in synagogue. Silas/Timothy rejoin Paul. Crispus believed. Paul taught here for 18 months. (18:1-17).
Ephesus: (18:19) Paul reasoned with Jews in synagogue. Set sail for Syria (18:19-21).
Caesarea: (18:22) Paul landed here, greeted the church. Travelled north to Antioch.

PAUL'S THIRD MISSIONARY JOURNEY

Acts 18:23-21:17

Third Missionary Journey (Acts 18:23-21:17).

Antioch in Syria: Paul departed from Antioch (18:23).
Derbe, Lystra, Iconium, Antioch: Paul revisited, strengthened these churches (18:23).
Ephesus: (18:24-) Apollos met and instructed (18:24-28). John's disciples believe on Christ (19:1-12). Paul preached in synagogue for 3 months. Vagabond Jews (19:11-20). Silversmith riot (19:23-41). I and II Corinthians written during 2-year stay.
Macedonia: (20:1) Paul sailed for Macedonia. Encouraged churches. (Romans written).
Greece: (20:2) Stayed 3 months, then headed home, passing through Macedonia.
Philippi: (20:6) Stayed here several days, then sailed for Troas.
Troas: (20:6-12) Before Paul left Troas, he preached in upper room. Eutychus fell out.
Assos, Mitylene, Samos, Trogylium, Miletus: (20:13-15).
Miletus: (20:15-38) Paul sent for the Ephesian elders and preached to them (20:17-38).
Coos, Rhodes, Patara, Cyprus: (21:1-3).
Tyre: (21:4-7) Stayed 7 days.
Ptolemais: (21:7) Greeted the believers and stayed one day.
Caesarea: (21:7-14) Stayed Philip. Agabus prophesied Paul's binding at Jerusalem.
Jerusalem: (21:15-40) Paul reported to the Jerusalem church elders. Paul arrested.

PAUL'S VOYAGE TO ROME

Acts 27-28

Paul's Voyage to Rome (Acts 27-28).

Caesarea: (23:23-35) Paul taken from Jerusalem to Caesarea by 470 soldiers.
Sidon: (27:1-3) Ship stopped here. Julius (centurion) allowed Paul to visit his friends.
Myra: (27:5-6) Ship terminated here. They boarded another ship sailing to Italy.
Fair Havens, Island of Crete: (27:8-44) Paul warned voyage would end in disaster.
Malta: (28:1-) Shipwrecked on Malta. After 3 months, they left in another ship.
Syracuse: on Sicily (28:12). They stayed for 3 days.
Rhegium was the first port on Italy's mainland. They stayed one day (28:13).
Puticoli: (28:13,14). Paul was permitted to stay 7 days with some Christians.
Rome: (28:15-31) Paul stayed for 2 years, preached, sent letters. Executed by Nero.

12. MISCELLANEOUS CHARTS and TABLES

Genealogy From Adam to the Exodus

→ THE TABERNACLE

A FIGURE A SHADOW

HEB. 9:8, 9 & 24

HEB. 10:1

EXAMPLES OF PATTERN

HEB. 8:5

I COR. 10:1

COVERINGS & CURTAINS

EX. 28:1-14

THE ARK OF THE COVENANT
EX. 25:10-22 - HEB. 9:4

BARS
EX. 26:28-29

MANASSEH
EPHRAIM BENJAMIN

Holy of Holies

Holy Place

NAPHTALI

DAN

ASHER

CAD BOARDS
EX. 26:15-26

INNER VAIL
EX. 26:31-33 - HEB. 10:20
MATT. 27:50, 51

GOLDEN CANDLESTICK
EX. 25:31-40 - HEB. 9:2 - JN. 1:9 - REV. 1:12-20

REUBEN

SIMEON

ALTAR OF INCENSE
EX. 30:1-10 - REV. 8:3, 4
PSA. 141:2

TABLE OF SHEWBREAD
EX. 25:23-30 - MATT. 12:3, 4
JOHN 6:33-35

PILLARS
EX. 26:37 - ISA. 9:8

LAVER
EX. 30:18-21 - EX. 38:8
JOHN 15:3 JAM. 2:23, 24

BRAZEN ALTAR OF BURNT OFFERING
EX. 27:1-9 - JOHN 1:29
EPH. 5:2 - HEB. 10:12
HEB. 9:28

THE GATE - EX. 27:16
'I AM THE WAY' JOHN 14:6
ACTS 4:12

ISSACHAR

JUDAH

ZEBULUN

These 200 Omissions are in the Greek Textus

Griesbach, Lachmann, Tischendorf, Tregelles, Alford, Wordsworth, Westcott and Hort; in foot-notes omissions in our modern Bibles. Words omitted, in brackets, parentheses, or italics are counted as not occur in your Bible and be surprised. Interlinear Greek Textus Receptus. . . . Postpaid $11.95

MATTHEW

- 1:25 - (FIRSTBORN) is out. Speaking of the Lord Jesus.
5:44 - (BLESS THEM THAT CURSE YOU) is out.
6:13 - (KINGDOM, POWER, GLORY) is out.
6:27 - (STATURE) is changed to span of life.
6:33 - (OF GOD) is out. Referring to the kingdom-
8:29 - (JESUS) is out. As Son of God.
9:13 - (TO REPENTANCE) is out. Calling sinners-
12:35 - (OF THE HEART) is out. Good treasure-
12:47 - (VERSE IS OUT) About Christ's mother.
13:51 - (JESUS SAID UNTO THEM and LORD) is out.
15:8 - (DRAWETH UNTO ME WITH THEIR MOUTH) is out.
16:3 - (O YE HYPOCRITES) is out.
16:20 - (JESUS) is out.
17:21 - (VERSE IS OUT) About prayer and fasting.
18:11 - (VERSE IS OUT) Tells Jesus came to save.
19:9 - (LAST 11 WORDS ARE OUT) About adultery.
19:17 - (GOD) is out. None good but (God)
20:7 - (WHATSOEVER IS RIGHT RECEIVE) is out.
20:16 - (MANY BE CALLED BUT FEW CHOSEN) is out.
20:22 - (BAPTIZED WITH CHRIST'S BAPTISM) is out.
21:44 - (VERSE IS OUT) About Christ the stone.
23:14 - (VERSE IS OUT) Woe Scribes and hypocrites.
25:13 - (WHEREIN THE SON OF MAN COMETH) is out.
27:35 - (FULFILLED SPOKEN BY THE PROPHET) is out.
27:54 - (THE SON OF GOD) is a son of God.
28:2 - (FROM THE DOOR) is out.
28:9 - (THEY WENT TO TELL HIS DISCIPLES) is out.

MARK

- 1:1 - (SON OF GOD) is out in Williams, Goodspeed, Panin, Nestle, New World, Westcott & Hort.
1:14 - (OF THE KINGDOM) is out. Jesus gospel-
1:31 - (IMMEDIATELY) is out. The fever left-
2:17 - (TO REPENTANCE) is out. Call sinners-
6:11 - (MORE TOLERABLE FOR SODOM & GOMORRHA) is out.
6:16 - (FROM THE DEAD) is out. John is risen-
6:33 - (HIM) is changed to them.
7:8 - (WASHING OF POTS AND CUPS) is out.
7:16 - (VERSE IS OUT) About having an ear to hear.
9:24 - (LORD) is out. A believer called Him Lord.
9:42 - (N ME) is out. Little ones that believe-
9:44 - (VERSE IS OUT) About fire not quenched.
9:46 - (VERSE IS OUT) Where worn dieth not.
9:49 - (EVERY SACRIFICE SHALL BE SALTED) is out.
0:21 - (TAKE UP THE CROSS) is out. Jesus said-
0:24 - (FOR THEM THAT TRUST IN RICHES) is out.
11:10 - (IN THE NAME OF THE LORD) is out.
11:26 - (VERSE IS OUT) If ye do not forgive, etc.
13:14 - (SPOKEN BY DANIEL THE PROPHET) is out.
13:33 - (AND PRAY) is out, or in italics.
14:68 - (AND THE COCK CREW) is out.
15:28 - (VERSE IS OUT) Scripture was fulfilled, etc.
15:39 - (THE SON OF GOD) is a son of God.
16:9-20 (12 VERSES ARE OUT) in some Bibles.

LUKE

- 1:28 - (BLESSED ART THOU AMONG WOMEN) is out.
2:33 - (JOSEPH) is changed to father.
2:43 - (JOSEPH AND HIS MOTHER) is changed to parents.
4:4 - (BUT BY EVERY WORD OF GOD) is out.
4:8 - (GET THEE BEHIND ME SATAN) is out.
4:41 - (THE CHRIST) is out. The Son of God.
6:48 - (FOUNDED UPON A ROCK) is well built.
7:31 - (AND THE LORD SAID) is out.
9:54 - (EVEN AS ELLIAH DID) is out.

LUKE Continued

- 9:55 - (YE KNOW NOT WHAT MANNER OF SPIRIT) is out.
9:56 - (SON OF MAN IS COME TO SAVE LIVES) is out.
11:2-4 - (MUCH IS OMITTED FROM THE LORD'S PRAYER)
11:29 - (THE PROPHET) is out. About Jonah.
17:36 - (VERSE IS OUT) One taken, another left.
21:4 - (CAST IN UNTO THE OFFERINGS OF GOD) is out.
22:20 - (VERSE IS OUT) Out in NEB, and RSV.
22:31 - (AND THE LORD SAID) is out.
22:64 - (THEY STRUCK HIM ON THE FACE) is out.
23:17 - (WHOLE VERSE IS OUT) in many Bibles.
23:38 - (LETTERS OF GREEK, LATIN, HEBREW) is out.
23:42 - (LORD) is out. Remember me, etc.
23:45 - (SUN WAS ECLIPSED) in Moffatt and NEB.
24:3 - (OF THE LORD JESUS) is out.
24:6 - (HE IS NOT HERE, BUT IS RISEN) is out.
24:12 - (VERSE IS OUT) Peter's testimony.
24:40 - (VERSE IS OUT) Christ showed them hands, feet.
24:49 - (OF JERUSALEM) is out.
24:51 - (CARRIED UP INTO HEAVEN) is out.

JOHN

- 1:14 - (BEGOTTEN) is out in 1:18, 3:16, 3:18.
1:27 - (PREFERRED BEFORE ME) is out. Jesus is-
3:13 - (WHICH IS IN HEAVEN) is out.
3:15 - (SHOULD NOT PERISH) is out.
4:42 - (THE CHRIST) is out.
5:3 - (WAITING FOR MOVING OF THE WATER) is out.
5:4 - (VERSE IS OUT) Pool of Bethesda.
6:47 - (ON ME) is out. He that believes-
6:69 - (THAT CHRIST THE SON) is out.
7:53 - (TO 8:11) is out, in brackets or italics.
8:16 - (FATHER) is out. Changed to He.
9:35 - (SON OF GOD) is out. Is Son of Man.
11:41 - (WHERE THE DEAD WAS LAID) is out.
16:16 - (BECAUSE I GO TO THE FATHER) is out.
17:12 - (IN THE WORLD) is out.
20:29 - (THOMAS) is out.

ACTS

- 2:30 - (ACCORDING TO FLESH RAISE UP CHRIST) is out.
7:30 - (OF THE LORD) is out. An angel-
7:37 - (HIM SHALL YE HEAR) is out. Christ-
8:37 - (VERSE IS OUT) or in brackets, or italics.
9:5-6 - (MUCH IS OMITTED) Concerning God's will.
10:6 - (WHAT THOU OUGHTEST TO DO) More is out.
15:18 - (KNOWN UNTO GOD HIS WORKS) More is out.
16:31 - (CHRIST) is out.
17:26 - (BLOOD) is out.
20:25 - (OF GOD) is out. The kingdom-
20:32 - (BRETHREN) is out.
23:9 - (LET US NOT FIGHT AGAINST GOD) is out.
24:6-8 - (MUCH IS OMITTED) or in brackets or italics.
24:15 - (OF THE DEAD) is out. Resurrection-
28:16 - (HALF OF VERSE IS OUT) in italics or brackets.
28:29 - (VERSE IS OUT) in italics or brackets.

ROMANS

- 1:16 - (OF CHRIST) is out or in italics, brackets.
1:29 - (FORNICATION) is out.
5:2 - (BY FAITH) out in Moffatt, RSV, and NEB.
8:1 - (LAST 10 WORDS ARE OUT) or in italics.
9:28 - (IN RIGHTEOUSNESS) is out.
10:15 - (OF PEACE) is out. Gospel of-
10:17 - (OF GOD) is out. Christ is substituted.
11:6 - (LAST 18 WORDS ARE OMITTED)

Receptus from which the King James Bible Came and translations, have changed the Greek Textus Receptus in about 6,000 places. This is why we have so many authentic according to BRAIN-WASHED modern scholarship. With a red pencil, mark all these omissions which

ROMANS Continued

- 13:9 - (SHALL NOT BEAR FALSE WITNESS) is out.
14:6 - (15 WORDS ARE OUT) Regarding the day.
14:21 - (OFFENDED, MADE WEAK) is out.
15:29 - (OF THE GOSPEL) is out.
16:24 - (WHOLE VERSE IS OUT) in italics or brackets.

1 CORINTHIANS

- 1:14 - (I THANK GOD) is out in many Bibles.
5:7 - (FOR US) is out. Christ sacrificed—
6:20 - (LAST 7 WORDS ARE OUT) Your spirit, etc.
7:5 - (FASTING) is out. Joined with prayer.
7:39 - (BY THE LAW) is out. The wife is bound—
10:28 - (THE EARTH IS THE LORD'S) is out, and more.
11:24 - (TAKE EAT) is out. This is my body—
11:29 - (LORD'S) is out, referring to the body.
15:47 - (THE LORD) is out. Lord from heaven.
16:22 - (JESUS CHRIST) is out.
16:23 - (CHRIST) is out.

2 CORINTHIANS

- 4:6 - (JESUS) is out.
4:10 - (THE LORD) is out.
5:18 - (JESUS) is out, or in italics.
11:31 - (CHRIST) is out, or in italics.

GALATIANS

- 1:15 - (GOD) is out.
3:1 - (THAT YE SHOULD NOT OBEY TRUTH) is out.
3:17 - (IN CHRIST) is out.
4:7 - (THROUGH CHRIST) is out.
6:15 - (IN CHRIST JESUS) is out.
6:17 - (LORD) is out.

EPHESIANS

- 3:9 - (BY JESUS CHRIST) is out. God created—
3:14 - (OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST) is out.
5:30 - (OF HIS FLESH AND OF HIS BONES) is out.
6:1 - (IN THE LORD) is out. Obey parents—
6:10 - (MY BRETHREN) is out.

PHILIPPIANS

- 3:16 - (LET US MIND THE SAME THING) is out.

COLOSSIANS

- 1:2 - (THE LORD JESUS CHRIST) is out.
1:14 - (THROUGH HIS BLOOD) is out, or in italics.
1:28 - (JESUS) is out.
2:11 - (OF THE SINS OF) is out.
3:6 - (SONS OF DISOBEDIENCE) is out.

1 THESSALONIANS

- 1:1 - (FROM GOD OUR FATHER AND LORD JESUS) is out.
2:19 - (CHRIST) is out.
3:11 - (CHRIST) is out, or in italics.
3:13 - (CHRIST) is out, or in italics.

2 THESSALONIANS

- 1:8 - (CHRIST) is out, or in italics.

1 TIMOTHY

- 1:17 - (WISE) is out. The only wise God.
2:7 - (IN CHRIST) is out, or in italics.
3:16 - (GOD) is out. Manifest in the flesh.
4:12 - (IN SPIRIT) is out.
6:5 - (FROM SUCH WITHDRAW THYSELF) is out.

2 TIMOTHY

- 1:11 - (OF THE GENTILES) is out.
4:1 - (LORD) is out.
4:22 - (JESUS CHRIST) is out, or in italics.

TITUS

- 1:4 - (THE LORD) is out, or in italics.

PHILEMON

- 1:6 - (JESUS) is out.
1:12 - (RECEIVE HIM) is out.

HEBREWS

- 1:3 - (BY HIMSELF) is out. Purged our sins—
2:7 - (SET HIM OVER THE WORKS OF THY HANDS) is out.
3:1 - (CHRIST) is out.
7:21 - (AFTER ORDER OF MELCHISEDEC) is out.
10:30 - (SAITH THE LORD) is out.
10:34 - (IN HEAVEN) is out.
11:11 - (WAS DELIVERED OF A CHILD) is out. Sarah—

JAMES

- 5:16 - (FAULTS) is changed to sins. (Wrong Greek text.)

1 PETER

- 1:22 - (THROUGH THE SPIRIT) is out.
4:1 - (FOR US) is out. Christ suffered—
4:14 - (LAST 15 WORDS ARE OUT) or in italics.
5:10 - (JESUS) is out, or in italics.
5:11 - (GLORY AND DOMINION) is out of some Bibles.

2 PETER

- 2:17 - (FOREVER) is out, or in italics.
3:9 - (US IS CHANGED TO YOU) Destroys meaning.

1 JOHN

- 1:7 - (CHRIST) is out.
2:7 - (FROM THE BEGINNING) is out.
4:3 - (CHRIST IS COME IN THE FLESH) is out.
4:9 - (BEGOTTEN) is out in some versions.
4:19 - (HIM) is out, or in italics. We love—
5:7-8 (MANY WORDS ARE OUT OR CHANGED)
5:13 - (LAST 13 WORDS ARE OUT)

JUDE

- 1:25 - (WISE) is out. Referring to God.

REVELATION

- 1:8 - (THE BEGINNING AND THE END) is out.
1:11 - (TEN WORDS ARE OUT) Alpha and Omega, etc.
2:13 - (THY WORKS) is out.
5:14 - (HIM THAT LIVETH FOREVER AND EVER) is out.
6:1 - (AND SEE) is out in 3, 5, 7 also.
8:13 - (ANGEL IS EAGLE) Greek text says "angel."
11:17 - (AND ART TO COME) is out.
12:12 - (INHABITERS OF) is out. The earth.
12:17 - (CHRIST) is out.
14:5 - (BEFORE THE THRONE OF GOD) is out.
16:17 - (OF HEAVEN) is out.
20:9 - (GOD OUT OF) is out. Fire came from—
20:12 - (GOD IS CHANGED TO THRONE)
21:24 - (OF THEM WHICH ARE SAVED) is out. Nations—

THE NEW INTERNATIONAL VERSION OMITTS THE LORD JESUS CHRIST.

In the New International Version, references to "Lord" are omitted 39 times, "Jesus" 87 times and "Christ" 52 times.

These passages are shown below. The word's in bold are also omitted from the NIV.

Matthew	13:51	They say unto him, Yea, LORD
	28:6	Come, see the place where the LORD lay.
Mark	9:24	and said with tears, LORD I believe ;
	11:10	that cometh in the name of the LORD .
Luke	7:31	the LORD said, Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation ?
	9:57	a certain man said unto him, LORD I will follow thee. .
	17:6	the LORD said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed. .
	22:31	the LORD said, Simon, Simon, behold.. .
	23:42	Jesus, LORD remember me
John	4:1	When therefore the LORD knew how the Pharisees
	6:34	LORD evermore give us this bread .
	8:11	She said, No man, LORD .
	9:36	Who is he, LORD that I might believe on him ?
Acts	7:30	an angel of the LORD in a flame of fire in a bush.
	7:37	A prophet shall the LORD your God raise up. .
	9:5	the LORD said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.
	9:6	and he trembling and astonished said, LORD what wilt thou have me to do? and the LORD said unto him...
	10:48	he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the LORD .
	22:16	calling on the name of the LORD
Romans	1:3	Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our LORD
	6:11	but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our LORD
	14:6	and he that regardeth not the day, to the LORD he doth not regard it .
	16:24	The grace of our LORD Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen
I Corinthians	10:28	for the earth is the LORD 's and the fullness thereof.
	15:47	the second man is the LORD from heaven.

II Corinthians	4 :10	in the body the dying of the LORD Jesus.
Galatians	6:17	I bear in my body the marks of the LORD Jesus.
Ephesians	3:14	I bow my knees unto the Father of our LORD Jesus Christ.
Colossians	1:2	from God our Father and the LORD Jesus Christ.
I Thessalonians	1:1	from God our Father, and the LORD Jesus Christ.
I Timothy	1:1	and LORD Jesus Christ .
	5:21	I charge thee before God, and the LORD Jesus Christ
II Timothy	4:1	I charge thee therefore before God, and the LORD Jesus Christ.
Titus	1:4	Grace, mercy and peace, from God the Father and the LORD Jesus Christ our Saviour .
Hebrews	10:30	I will recompense, saith the LORD .
II John	3	from God the Father, and from the LORD Jesus Christ.
Jude	4	denying the only Lord God, and our LORD Jesus Christ.
Revelations	16.5	Thou art righteous, O LORD
	19:1	power, unto the LORD our God.

In John 20:13, Mary was weeping and the angel said, "woman why weapest thou?" She replied, "because they have TAKEN AWAY MY LORD." How much more would she weep today, if she was to look at the modern translations, which delete the LORD 39 times. We should weep also.

References to "CHRIST" are omitted 52 times, as in these examples:

Matthew	23:8	one is your Master, even CHRIST
Luke	4:41	devils came out....saying, thou are CHRIST the Son of God.
John	4:42	this is indeed the CHRIST the Saviour of the world.
	6:69	we believe and are sure that thou art that CHRIST the Son of the living God.
Acts	2:30	he would raise up CHRIST to sit on his throne.
	4:26	against the Lord, and against his CHRIST
	8:37	I believe that Jesus CHRIST is the Son of God.
	9:20	he preached CHRIST in the synagogues.
	15:11	through the grace of our Lord Jesus CHRIST we shall be saved..
	16:31	Believe on the Lord Jesus CHRIST and thou shalt be saved.
	19:4	that is, on CHRIST Jesus.
	20:21	faith toward our Lord Jesus CHRIST .
Romans	1:3	Concerning his Son Jesus CHRIST our Lord.
	1:16	I am not ashamed of the gospel of CHRIST
	14:10	We shall all stand before the judgment seat of CHRIST .
	16:20	The grace of our Lord Jesus CHRIST be with you.
	16:24	The grace of our Lord Jesus CHRIST be with you all.

- I Corinthians 5:4 In the name of our Lord Jesus CHRIST
 5:4 with the power of our Lord Jesus CHRIST
 9:1 have I not seen Jesus CHRIST our Lord.
 10:9 Neither let us tempt CHRIST
 16:22 If any man love not the Lord Jesus CHRIST let him be Anathema.
 16:23 The grace of our Lord Jesus CHRIST be with you.
- II Corinthians 11:31 The God and Father of our Lord Jesus CHRIST
- Galatians 3:17 confirmed before of God in CHRIST
 4:7 an heir of God through CHRIST
 6:15 for in CHRIST Jesus neither circumcision.
- Ephesians 3:9 who created all things by Jesus CHRIST
 3:14 Father of our Lord Jesus CHRIST
- Philippians 4:13 I can do all things through CHRIST which strengtheneth me.
- Colossians 1:2 from God our Father and the Lord Jesus CHRIST
 3:13 even as CHRIST forgave you,
 I Thessalonians 1:1 from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus CHRIST
 2:19 even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus CHRIST at his coming?
 3:11 and our Lord Jesus CHRIST direct our way unto you.
 3:13 at the coming of our Lord Jesus CHRIST with all his saints.
- II Thessalonians 1:8 that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus CHRIST
 1:12 That the name of our Lord Jesus CHRIST may be glorified in you,
 2:2 That the day of CHRIST is at hand.
- I Timothy 2:7 I speak the truth in CHRIST and lie not;
- II Timothy 2:19 Let every one that nameth the name of CHRIST depart from iniquity.
 4:22 The Lord Jesus CHRIST be with thy spirit.
- Hebrews 3:1 Consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, CHRIST Jesus.
- I John 1:7 the blood of Jesus CHRIST his son, cleanseth us from all sin.
 4:3 every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus CHRIST is come in the flesh, is... .
- II John 9 He that abideth in the doctrine of CHRIST he hath...
- Revelations 1:9 patience of Jesus CHRIST...and for the testimony of Jesus CHRIST
 12:17 have the testimony of Jesus CHRIST
 22:21 The grace of our Lord Jesus CHRIST be with you all. Amen
- I Corinthians 15:23 they that are CHRIST'S at his coming.
- II Corinthians 10:7 as he is CHRIST'S, even so are we Christ's.

13. SOME CHALLENGING THOUGHTS

A WONDERFUL BRIDGE.

THE ONLY BRIDGE THAT SPANS THIS CHASM

CHRIST OR SATAN?

"BEHOLD I STAND AT THE DOOR AND KNOCK."

RETROSPECT.

"Thou shalt remember all the way which the Lord thy God led thee."—Deuteronomy 8: 2.

REST FOR THE WEARY.

LIVING WATER.

The man in the picture represents a class of person who seem much concerned about what they do not believe. When spoken to about their soul's salvation they meet us with, "I do not believe the world was made in six days"; "I do not believe the story of Jonah and the whale"; "I do not believe in hell fire," etc. Such persons are burdened with the useless negatives of faith, and may well be asked to cast these away and have, instead, the positive belief in Jesus Christ, and "drink of the fountain of life."

HEAVEN OR HELL? AND THE WAY TO GET THERE.

NOTHING BUT LEAVES.

When the life can be symbolised as a Figtree bearing "nothing but leaves", the devil is in occupation of man's soul. But Satan and all his works must be evicted when Christ comes to dwell there.

THE LOST OPPORTUNITY.

THE LOOM OF LIFE.

Hardin is My Father glorified, that ye have shared much fruit.

God is not ungrateful to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have showed toward His Name. John 15: 17

THE LOOM OF LIFE
 HE IS USING LABOR, REASON, THOUGHTS & WORDS TO WEAVE GOOD DEEDS, AND THE RECORDING ANGEL NOTES IN THE BOOK OF LIFE

"The years' of man are the looms of God
 (They are passing us one by one),
 And therein we are weaving always,
 Till the mystical work is done.
 And when the task is ended,
 And the web is turned and shown,
 Shall we hear the voice of the Master Saying to us, "Well done"?"

CURSE OF MEROZ. Judges 5:23

Are you a backer, or a slacker?

PROSPECT.

A NEW YEAR'S ADDRESS.

The Two Plans—Which is Yours for the New Year?

"Thy plans, O Lord, are better far
Than all our best contrivings are.
The future days we cannot see
Are all, we know, ordained by Thee;
And we have but to take Thy hand
And go the way that Thou hast planned."

IN HIS STEPS OR WHAT WOULD JESUS DO?

Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that we should follow His steps...

BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST AND THOU SHALT BE SAVED.

ACTS 16

Thy Word is a lamp in my feet, and a light in my path.

PSALM 119

The light of a good man are instructed by the Lord, and he rejoiceth in His way.

PSALM 119: 105

"FOLLOW ME"

MATTHEW 23: 21

"Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example that we should follow His steps."—1 Pet. 2: 21.

MAMMON.

"I know . . . thy poverty, but thou art rich" (Rev. 2: 9).
 "Having nothing, yet possessing all things" (2 Cor. 6: 10).

The artist responsible for the illustration on the left has given us a speaking picture of the end of a man whose life has been spent in making and hoarding up riches. His opportunities, symbolised by the wreck, are gone for ever; to him Faith, Hope and Love are dead, and he is about to drift—a lost soul—on the ocean of eternity. The inset in the upper left-hand corner seems to tell us the reason why—the world and its pleasures have so filled his life that he did not see and prepare for the endless existence beyond the grave.

THE MISSION OF THE CHURCH

1

THE SAVIOUR'S COMMAND

Matt. 28:19

2

THE SPIRIT'S CONDUCT

3

THE SINNER'S CRY

Acts 16:9

THE THREE ELEMENTS OF A MISSIONARY CALL

Used by Permission.

IT OUTWEIGHS EVERY OTHER CONSIDERATION

Have not I commanded thee? Be strong; and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.

Joshua 1:9

NO MORE !

In my Father's house are many mansions, where I go, that I may remain, and I will come and take you with me, that you may remain with me, and I will be with you, and you shall be with me, and we will be one.

This is not your rest—Mark 6:10.
 O pray, where is thy victory?
 (John 16:7, 8, 9)

Of my Father's house on high,
 Home of my soul I long afar,
 At times, to faith's forenoon day,
 Thy golden gates appear!

"IN THE VALLEY OF THE SHADOW."

First Pilgrim: "We are nearing our journey's end.
 Alas! how gloomy the prospect!"
 Second Pilgrim: "Surely you are shortsighted, my brother, for to me it seems most glorious."

14. THE PARABLES OF JESUS CHRIST

Bible Reading: Matthew 13:1-52.

Aim: To understand the background and meaning of Jesus' Parables, and apply them to serving Christ.

Introduction: The word "parable" comes from the Greek word "parabolè", made up from the verb "ballo" (to throw, lay or place) and the prefix "para" (meaning alongside of). A parable explains an unclear idea by laying it alongside of a clear idea to help interested listeners to better understand it. The known clarifies the unknown, making it more interesting, easier to remember, and easier to apply to life. The word parable occurs 48 times in the first three gospels, and twice in Hebrews 9:9 and 11:19. A parable is an earthly story with a heavenly meaning.

I. WHY DID JESUS TEACH IN PARABLES?

About one-third of Jesus' teachings as recorded in the Gospels was in Parables.

The disciples asked Jesus in Matthew 13:10 "Why speakest unto them in Parables?" Four reasons are:

1. To reveal truth to genuine seekers, but to hide truth from those with hard hearts, to minimise the severity of their judgment. Matthew 13:10-17. The same sun that melts the ice, hardens the clay. The same message that awakens some, will harden another. Jesus' reason for speaking in parables contained a prophecy from Isaiah 6:9-10. This important prophecy refers to the spiritual deterioration of Israel, and occurs 5 times in the New Testament (Matt. 13:14-15, Mark 4:12; Luke 8:10; John 12:39,40; Acts 28:26,27). The Jews would hear God's word but not understand it and see Jesus' powerful miracles but not understand them as proof of His Messiahship. Their dull hearts would make them spiritually blind and deaf, and the result would be judgment in 70 AD. The disciples saw and believed. The Jewish leaders saw and rejected, so God gave them no more light.

2. A second reason Jesus used parables is given in Matthew 13:34,35:

"That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world". This was to fulfill Asaph's prophecy in Psalm 78:2 "I will open my mouth in a parable: I will utter dark sayings of old".

Jesus' parables opened secrets, mysteries, or new truths hidden since the foundation of the world.

3. Many of the parables explained the time period between Christ's rejection and His return. Both the disciples and ourselves need to understand this period as we set out to evangelize the world.

4. Many parables were answers to some problem or opposition. For example:

- The Pharisees criticised Jesus for eating with sinners, so He told them the parables of a lost sheep, a lost coin, and a lost son.
- The disciples thought they were very successful because of the big crowds, so Jesus replied with the parable of a sower who saw 75% of his seed become fruitless.
- The Pharisees claimed Jesus was in league with the devil, so He told the parable of a strong man guarding his goods being overcome by a stronger man.
- The disciples asked "Lord, teach us to pray", so Jesus told the parable of the persistent friend.

The parables are mirrors and windows. As mirrors they help us see our faults.

As windows they help us understand life and God's plans for this world.

II. HOW SHOULD WE INTERPRET PARABLES?

1. Christ's interpretation of parables is the key to how we interpret other parables (Matt 13:18-23; 36-43)

2. Look for the main truth the parable teaches.

3. Not every detail of a parable means something unless the context demands it. Sometimes, symbols have different meanings in different parables. For example, in the parable of the sower, the seed represents the word of God, and the soil represents the human heart. But in the parable of the wheat and tares, the good seed represents the children of the kingdom, and the field represents the world.

4. Parables were given to illustrate doctrine, not to teach doctrine. Don't try to prove a doctrine only on the basis of a parable. Parables are windows of a house, not its foundation. For example, to try to teach salvation by good works from the parable of the sheep and goats (Matthew 25:31-46) ignores the prophetic context and would contradict clear doctrines taught elsewhere.

5. Other passages of scripture may define some detail of a parable. For example, in the parable of the treasure hid in a field, Exodus 19:5 and Psalm 135:4 define God's peculiar treasure to be Israel.
6. Jesus stated that the parables concern the "kingdom of heaven" (Matthew 13:11), of which we know the following:
 - i) It is found only in Matthew's gospel and is mentioned 32 times.
 - ii) Its character is described in the 12 kingdom of Heaven parables in Matthew 13:1-50; 18:23-25; 20:1-16; 22:1-14; 25:1-30.
 - iii) Its time is limited from the First to the Second Coming of Christ.
 - iv) Its sphere is limited to Christendom.
 - v) It contains a mixture of good & evil, Wheat & Tares, good & bad fish, wise & foolish virgins.

III. THE POSTPONEMENT of CHRIST'S EARTHLY 1000 YEAR KINGDOM OF ISRAEL

At the time of Jesus' birth, there was a widespread expectation that Messiah's coming was near, maybe because some understood the Daniel 9:24-27 "70 week" prophecy that Messiah would come 173,880 days after March 5, 444 BC. This made the due date for Messiah's coming to be March 30, 33 AD. Hence Simeon and Anna waited in the Temple for Christ as the "Consolation of Israel" (Luke 2:25-38). The Kingdom of Heaven is named since it was given from heaven by God the Father (Daniel 7:13,14). Jesus' message was the same as John the Baptist's: "Repent, for the Kingdom of heaven is at hand". Matthew 3:2; 4:17. They both called for Israel to nationally repent.

The Messianic kingdom cannot be set up until Israel as a nation repents. (Zechariah 12:10).

Jesus preached the "gospel of the kingdom" in Matthew 4:23 and the same "gospel of the kingdom" will be preached in the Tribulation that Christ's coming is near. (Matthew 24:14). When Jesus rode into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday to offer Himself as King to the Jews in fulfillment of Zechariah 9:9, He accepted the "Hosannahs" of the multitude, thus acknowledging His right to Kingship over an earthly kingdom. Sadly, the Pharisees in the crowd that day said to Jesus, "Master, rebuke thy disciples" (Matthew 19:39), thus rejecting Christ's offer as King over the Messianic Kingdom. Christ's Kingdom was thus postponed and the church, which is the mystery form of the Kingdom of heaven was introduced at the day of Pentecost. It is the subject of Christendom being a mixture of saved and imitators that is discussed in some parables.

Question 1: What would have happened if the Jews as a nation had repented and accepted Jesus Christ as their King and Messiah? Would Christ's earthly Kingdom have been set up?

Answer: Certainly, but not necessarily straight away because Jesus had to die for the sins of the world as Saviour before He could assume His rule as King. This would have been achieved by the Roman government crucifying Jesus as a usurper. With Jesus' resurrection and ascension, Daniel's 69th week would have ended and the 70th week begun without a break. At the close of the 70th week, Jesus would have returned to set up His 1000 year earthly Kingdom.

Question 2: What about the church? How could it be formed if there was no break between the 69th and 70th week? Doesn't Ephesians 1:4 state that it was God's eternal purpose to form the church?

Answer: Yes. God foreknew that Israel would reject Christ's offer of the kingdom, yet His offer was still genuine. After Christ's resurrection, the disciples asked Him:

"Lord wilt thou at this time restore again the Kingdom to Israel?"

Jesus replied: "It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in His own power". (Acts 1:6). Jesus' answer is that He was not going to tell them if the Messiah's earthly 1000 year kingdom was to come then or later. Why? Because it depended on Israel's response to Christ's offer as proclaimed by the Apostles. Peter's second sermon states that if the nation repented, then Jesus Christ would return and establish His earthly kingdom:

"Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord; and he shall send Jesus Christ." (Acts 3:19:20). This offer of the Kingdom is in a transition period within the church age. Acts is a transition book where God gives the Jewish nation a chance to repent, they fail, and so God temporarily sets Israel aside and instead works through the church. Hence, the King having been rejected, it was impossible to set up the Kingdom at that time, so the Kingdom took on another form known as the “Mystery Form” as described in the Matthew 13 “Kingdom of Heaven Parables”, which describe the character of the period from Christ’s Ascension to the Rapture of the Church.

IV. DOCTRINE of the KINGDOM OF HEAVEN BASED ON CHRIST’S PARABLES.

1. Christ’s Offer of the Kingdom.

- a) Because of Old Testament promises, Israel expected a literal kingdom ruled by the Messiah. Christ spoke the parable of not putting a new patch on an old garment, and of not putting new wine in old wineskins (Luke 5:36-39) to show that He did not intend to build on Pharisaism, but came to set up a new and different Kingdom.
- b) The Good Shepherd and His sheep parable (John 10:1-18) was spoken because of the Pharisees who rejected Jesus Christ as Messiah, to show that His own would recognize Him, leave Pharisaism’s bondage and enter the freedom of Christ’s Kingdom.
- c) The lost sheep, lost coin and lost son parable (Luke 15:1-32) was spoken to correct the Pharisees wrong view that God hated sinners and rejoiced in a sinners’ death because the sinner was then removed from God’s presence forever. They reasoned that one’s goal in life should be to produce enough good works to enter heaven. These 3 parables show the great search by the owners and joy when found. These show God’s great love for sinners to return to God.
- d) The blind leading the blind (Luke 6:39) warns against following the Pharisees described as spiritually blind shepherds trying to lead spiritually blind followers.
- e) The King preparing a wedding banquet for his son (Matthew 22:1-14) taught that Christ was inviting that generation to the Kingdom. Since the wedding banquet pictured Christ’s millennial kingdom, this parable teaches Christ’s offer of the Kingdom to the Jews.
- f) The narrow way to life that few find, and the broad way to destruction that many travel (Matthew 7:13,14) warned against the danger of rejecting Christ’s invitation just given.
- g) The wise man building his house on the rock and surviving the storm, pictured those hearing and doing Christ’s teachings who enter the Kingdom by trusting Christ. The foolish man building his house on the sand that collapsed in the storm pictured those rejecting Christ’s words, accepting the Pharisees doctrine, and being excluded from the Kingdom (Matt 7:24-27).

2. Israel’s Rejection of Christ’s offers is seen in these parables:

- a) The Physician who was called on to heal himself (Luke 4:23) pictured Israel rejecting Christ, calling Him a sinner needing to deal with his own sins before He could offer salvation to others.
- b) The Wedding banquet (Matth 22:1-14) showed the offer and rejection of the Kingdom by the guests (Israel) who were busy with their personal pursuits. The Great Banquet (Luke 14:16-24) showed the invited guests (Israel) ignoring the banquet by making excuses not to come.
- c) The landowner who planted a vineyard (Matthew 21:33-44) taught that the servants (Old Testament prophets) were beaten, stoned and killed by Israel when they were sent to collect the harvest (spiritual fruit). The landowner then sent his son (Christ) to collect the harvest, but the tenants (Israel) killed him. This pictured Israel rejecting the Kingdom and crucifying Christ.

3. Christ Postpones the Kingdom.

The unconditional Abrahamic covenant (Genesis 12:1-3; 13:14:17; 15:18-20; 17:4-8) promised that Abraham’s physical descendants would dwell in the land forever. The unconditional Davidic covenant (II Samuel 7:16) promised that one of David’s descendants would rule on David’s Throne forever. Because Israel rejected Christ’s offer, David’s Kingdom was not cancelled but postponed.

- a) Christ spoke the parable of 10 pounds (Luke 19:11-27) to teach that His Kingdom offer was being withdrawn and postponed. Christ was the nobleman who went into a far country to receive a Kingdom and to return to rule (v.12). Hence, Israel’s rejection of Christ did not stop His right to rule.
- b) The watching porter (Mark 13:34-37) spoke of Christ’s postponement of and absence from the Kingdom for a long time period, and our watchfulness in His absence.

c) The householder who planted a vineyard parable (Matt. 21:33-46) taught that the Kingdom would be taken from first century Israel and given to the nation Israel at Christ's return. (v.43).

4. First Century Israel Judged.

In the cleansed house parable (Matthew 12:43-45), Christ pictured Israel as having experienced a cleansing ministry by John the Baptist. That cleansing was not permanent, because the unclean spirit that left the house of Israel returned with 7 other more wicked spirits, so that the final state of that house of Israel was worse because of their rejection of Christ than before John the Baptist's ministry. "Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation". (v.45).

5. The New Mystery Form of the Kingdom. Because Israel rejected Christ's offer of the Messianic Kingdom, the offer was withdrawn, postponed and substituted with judgment by the Romans in 70 AD. The mystery form of the Kingdom known as the Church age was then introduced.

Many of the parables revealed the character of the Church age, such as:

- i) The Sower (Matthew 13:3-23). The church age would be characterised by sowing the seed of the Word of God (Luke 8:12) throughout the world by Jesus and his followers, met by varying responses depending on the attitude of the hearers.
- ii) The Wheat and Tares (Matthew 13:24-30). In the Church age Satan will try to defeat God's program by sowing weeds (darnel) among the good seed. Satan's seed will imitate and closely resemble God's seed. Only at harvest can both kinds be distinguished. Christians who sow the word of God in the church age may expect Satan's opposition to spreading Christ's gospel.
- iii) The seed growing by itself (Mark 4:26-29). As physical seed germinates and grows because of life in the seed, so the mystery form of the Kingdom will grow because of life-giving power in the seed of the word of God sown in people's hearts.
- iv) The mustard seed (Matthew 13:31,32). The mystery form of the Kingdom would begin insignificantly but grow to great size. The Church age began with 11 disciples and grew to millions of people in Christendom.
- v) The leaven (Matthew 13:33-35). When the Church age began, evil (leaven) would be present which would spread throughout Christendom to permeate the whole system by Christ's return.
- vi) The Hidden treasure and the Pearl (Matt. 13:44-46). Christ's plan in this Church age is to die on the cross, to purchase a treasure (Israel) and a Pearl (the church) out of the field (the world).
- vii) The Dragnet (Matthew 13:47-50). During the Church age the gospel will go out like a dragnet, catching two kinds of fish, good and bad, useful and useless. At the end of the tribulation the angels will cast the wicked into a furnace of fire, and allow the righteous into the millennium.

6. Warnings to Prepare for Christ's Millennial Kingdom.

In Matthew 24:3 the disciples asked Jesus "what shall be the sign of thy coming and of the end of the world?" Jesus listed many signs that would be fulfilled in the 7 year tribulation (Matthew 24:4-26). Some (16) are: Deception (v.4,11,24), False Christs (v.5), Wars (v.6), famines, pestilences and earthquakes (v.7), persecution (v.9), disloyalty (v.10), false prophets (v.11), little love (v.12), worldwide gospel preaching (v.14), Jewish temple in Jerusalem, (v.15), great trouble (v.21,22), false prophets showing great signs and wonders (v.24) sun and moon darkened (v.29), the fig tree of Israel budding (v.32-34). These signs will be given to unsaved Israel to warn them that the Kingdom is being offered again and of Messiah's soon arrival.

- a) The budding Fig tree parable (Matthew 24:32-34) picturing Israel's nationhood warns that Christ's coming is near, at the doors. Question: How should we respond to these signs?
- b) The watching doorkeeper parable (Mark 13:33-37) teaches watchfulness and faithfulness in serving Jesus, because we don't know when Christ will return.
- c) The watching homeowner parable (Matt. 24:42-44) teaches us to watch and be prepared. As thieves come when unexpected, so Christ's return at the rapture will be at an unexpected time.
- d) The wise and evil servants parable (Matthew 24:45-51) teaches Christians to be faithful to our Bible teaching ministry in view of Christ's return. A faithful and wise servant will fulfil his Bible teaching work, but a foolish and evil servant will neglect his Bible teaching ministry and will live for himself and his fleshly lusts. He will be severely rebuked by Christ at His return and be deprived of the joys of Christ's Kingdom. We must watch & be ready for Christ's return.

7. Three Judgments Before the Millennium.

This age will end in judgment, details of which are given in Matthew 25.

a) The wise and foolish virgins (Matthew 25:1-13): Judgment on living Israel.

After Christ returns to earth (Matthew 24:30), angels will regather living Israel from all over the earth (v.31), back to the land promised to Abraham (Genesis 12:7).

Deuteronomy 30:1-10 teaches that Israel's entry to the Millennium kingdom blessings depended on repentance and receiving Christ as their Messiah and Saviour. Hence no unsaved Jew or Gentile will enter the Millennium (Ezekiel 20:38).

The wise and foolish virgins parable states that Israelites living at the time of Christ's return will be judged to see which Jews are prepared to enter the Kingdom (by possessing the Holy Spirit) and which Jews are not prepared to enter the Kingdom (by being unsaved).

The virgins in an Oriental wedding refer to guests at the banquet (Jews).

The bride is the Church (Rev. 19:7,8; 21:9; II Cor. 11:2; Eph. 5:23-32) who appears on earth with the Bridegroom who is Jesus Christ. Hence living Israelites (10 virgins) will be brought back to the land for a judgment to see who is prepared to enter Messiah's Millennial Kingdom (5 wise virgins) and who is not prepared and will therefore be excluded (5 foolish virgins).

b) The sheep and the goats (Matthew 25:31-46): Judgment on living Gentiles.

"When the Son of man shall come in His glory....before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them as a shepherd divides his sheep from the goats." (v.31,32).

The sheep will enter the Millennium because of how they treated Christ and helped His brothers in the tribulation. Their works prove the genuineness of their saving faith, because no one is saved by works. "Brothers" (Matthew 25:40) refers to persecuted Israelites as a whole in the tribulation, or to the persecuted 144,000 Israelite preachers (Revelation 7). Hence, the goats on the left will not have faith, and will not have produced works of helping persecuted Israelites. Sheep will enter and goats will be excluded from the Kingdom. Hence in 2 judgments the whole world will be judged to see who qualifies for entry into Christ's millennial Kingdom.

c) 5,2,1 Talents (Matthew 25:14-30): Judgment to Reward Believers' Faithfulness.

A master travelling to a far country delivered his goods to his servants, and in his absence required them to trade these goods for a profitable return. When the master returned, these servants were called to give account of their success in trading. Those found faithful were allowed to enter the joy of their Lord and were made ruler over many things (v.21,23). On the other hand, the one servant who through fear, hid his master's talent in the earth, returned the talent with a nil profit. Because he was unfaithful he was excluded from the Kingdom, lost the talent, and was denied rule in the millennium. Those who are faithful and prepared will enter the Kingdom and will be made ruler over many things, with great authority. Christ predicted this judgment to occur just before the millennium in Matthew 24:40,41 when he said:

"Then shall two be in the field: the one shall be taken (away in judgment), and the other left (to enter Christ's millennial Kingdom). Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken (away in judgment), and the other left (to enter Christ's Kingdom)".

8. Life in Christ's Mystery Form and Millennial Kingdom. Many parables were given to teach the disciples what the King expects of His subjects who will live in the Kingdom.

i) Obedience - Two sons. (Matthew 21:28-32). Obedience is a test of sonship. A man asked his 2 sons to work in his vineyard. The first son refused, but later on obeyed (picturing tax collectors and prostitutes). The second son agreed to work, but never showed up (picturing the Pharisees).

Question: Which son did the Father's will? The first son did.

Despised people like tax collectors and prostitutes were entering the Kingdom of God instead of Pharisees and religious leaders who did not repent and believe. What a shock!

ii) Love - Two Debtors (Luke 7:41-50).

During Christ's earthly ministry, He showed compassion on the poor, sick, sorrowing, outcasts and sinners. This compassion will be required to be shown by His people in the Kingdom. This parable was spoken in the house of a Pharisee who objected to an ex-prostitute showing love and devotion to Christ. Christ replied how a creditor forgave the debts of a large debtor (pictured the the ex-prostitute) and a small debtor (pictured by Simon the Pharisee). Who would love the creditor more? Obviously the debtor who had been forgiven the most would love the most. Hence more love for Christ will be shown by those who are forgiven more. Also, Christ always accepts love from forgiven sinners.

The Good Samaritan (Luke 10:27,30-37). Mercy (love in action) is to be shown to anyone in need, whose needs we can meet. Christ commanded the lawyer to show mercy as the Samaritan did. Those in Christ's Kingdom must show love to God and man because God has forgiven us.

iii) Prayer will play a key role in life in the Kingdom.

a) The basis of prayer is the merit of Christ's atoning blood.

The Pharisee and Tax Collector parable (Luke 18:9-14) shows how to approach God in prayer. The Pharisee by telling God about his righteousness, incorrectly approached God on the basis of his good works. God rejected his prayer. The Tax Collector, by seeing no merit in himself, claimed the blood of Christ saying, "God be merciful to me a sinner". He thus went home justified before God (Luke 18:14).

b) Persistence in Prayer: The Persistent widow (Luke 18:1-8).

Christ taught that we must persist in prayer to be answered. Even a hard hearted, indifferent judge, though unmoved by the justice of a widows request, can be moved by her persistence. The Persistent friend at midnight (Luke 11:5-13). A man had a visitor arrive, and not having bread to feed him, went to his neighbour at midnight to ask for 3 loaves. The neighbour being in bed would've had to disturb his whole family to give his neighbour the 3 loaves, so was unwilling to assist.

Lesson: "Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity (persistence) he will rise and give him as many as he needeth." (Luke 11:8). Jesus concluded: "Ask and it shall be given you; seek and ye shall find; knock and it shall be opened unto you". (Luke 11:9).

This parable defines intercessory prayer: The man asking the sleeping neighbour was not the one in need, but was representing another person who was in need.

Definition: An intercessor represents the needy person to the one who can meet that need. Intercessory prayer is totally unselfish, because it is concerned for others needs, not one's own needs. Hence, unselfish intercessory prayer will characterise Kingdom life.

iv) The Right use of wealth.

The Pharisees regarded wealth as a sure sign of God's blessing and proof that the person was righteous and certain of entering heaven. Christ used parables to correct this wrong thinking:

a) The wise use of present opportunities: The unjust steward (Luke 16:1-13).

A righteous person will act wisely, knowing that he must give account to God of his stewardship in the future. He will not misuse his money selfishly thinking only of the present. When the steward wasted his master's goods, he lost his job, so he wisely used his present position to secure his future by reducing the amount owed by his master's debtors, so they would give him accommodation. Christ commended him, not for his dishonesty, but for wisely using present opportunities for future gain.

Christ applied this truth to our use of wealth in v.8-13. If we are not faithful in handling worldly wealth now, who will entrust us with true riches later in eternity?

Hence people will wisely use material possessions in the Kingdom.

b) Material possessions are temporary. The Rich man and Lazarus (Luke 16:19-31). The rich man who died left all his wealth behind, yet his soul continued to exist in hell without his wealth. This rich man believed the Pharisees' doctrine that wealth was a sign of God's favour. Jesus teaches here that:

* Your wealth cannot save you.

* The beggar was saved because he trusted God for salvation, not because of his poverty.

* Poverty is not necessarily a sign of God's displeasure or punishment for sin.

* Poverty is no barrier to gaining true eternal riches.

- c) The Result of selfishness and covetousness. The Rich fool (Luke 12:16-21) parable shows that one's use of wealth will reveal if he is righteous or unrighteous. This man, already wealthy, found his riches greatly increased by an abundant harvest. This increased wealth gave him an opportunity to show his love for God and fellow man by sharing his wealth with needy people. He refused to do this and instead stored them up for his own use. This wrong use of wealth showed that he was unrighteous. Christ taught that we must rightly use our wealth now for other's salvation, for earthly wealth to benefit us in the next life.
- v) Faithfulness. The Faithful and Wise Steward. Luke 12:42-48.
This parable teaches that "privilege brings responsibility now and accountability to God later". If we are given authority and we misuse it, then we will lose it.
"It is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful." (I Corinthians 4:2).
Faithfulness to our privileges and responsibilities will characterize Kingdom life.
- vi) Humility. Seats at the Wedding Feast. Luke 14:7-11.
We must take a lower seat as a sign of humility, not seeking the best seats for ourselves. Let the host honour him that deserves it. Don't honour yourself, let others honour you instead. In the Beattitudes (Matt5:3-12), Christ described righteous people who will be citizens in His Kingdom.

THE PARABLES OF JESUS CHRIST.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1. The Two Houses | Matthew 7:24-27 (Luke 6:47-49). |
| 2. The New Cloth and New Wineskins | Matthew 9:16-17. |
| 3. The Sower | Matthew 13:5-8 (Mark 4:3-8; Luke 8:5-8). |
| 4. The Weeds | Matthew 13:24-30. |
| 5. The Mustard Seed | Matthew 13:31-32 (Mark 4:30-32; Luke 13:18-19) |
| 6. The Yeast | Matthew 13:33 (Luke 13:20-21). |
| 7. The Hidden Treasure | Matthew 13:44. |
| 8. The Pearl of Great Price | Matthew 13:45-46 |
| 9. The Fishing Net | Matthew 13:47-50. |
| 10. The Unforgiving Servant | Matthew 18:23-35. |
| 11. The Workers in the Vineyard | Matthew 20:1-16. |
| 12. The Two Sons | Matthew 21:28-32. |
| 13. The Wicked Vinegrowers | Matthew 21:33-46 (Mark 12:1-12; Luke 20:9-19). |
| 14. The Marriage of the King's Son | Matthew 22:1-14. |
| 15. The Two Servants | Matthew 24:45-51. |
| 16. The 10 Virgins | Matthew 25:1-13. |
| 17. The Talents | Matthew 25:14-30. |
| 18. The Seed Growing Secretly | Mark 4:26-29. |
| 19. The Doorkeeper | Mark 13:34-37. |
| 20. The Rude Children | Luke 7:31-35. |
| 21. The Two Debtors | Luke 7:41-43. |
| 22. The Good Samaritan | Luke 10:25-37. |
| 23. The Friend at Midnight | Luke 11:5-8. |
| 24. The Rich Fool | Luke 12:16-21. |
| 25. The Barren Fig Tree | Luke 13:6-9. |
| 26. The Great Supper | Luke 14:15-24. |
| 27. The Unfinished Tower and the King's Rash War | Luke 14:28-33. |
| 28. The Lost Sheep | Matthew 18:12-14 (Luke 15:4-7). |
| 29. The Lost Coin | Luke 15:8-10. |
| 30. The Prodigal Son | Luke 15:11-32. |
| 31. The Shrewd Manager | Luke 16:1-9. |
| 32. The Servant's Reward | Luke 17:7-10. |
| 33. The Unjust Judge | Luke 18:1-8. |
| 34. The Pharisee and the Taxgatherer | Luke 18:9-14. |
| 35. The Pounds | Luke 19:1-27. |

15. EVENTS IN THE LIFE OF CHRIST and HARMONY OF THE GOSPELS

	MATT	MARK	LUKE	JOHN
Introduction: A. The Source of Knowledge. B. The Pre-existence of God.			1:1-4	1:1-18
I. INTRODUCTION of the King.
A. Arrival of the King.	1:1-17		3:23-38
1. His Ancestry.
2. His Advent.
a) Annunciation of John's Birth to Zechariah.			1:5-25
b) Annunciation of Jesus' Birth to Mary.			1:26-38
c) Arrival of Mary in Judea to visit Elizabeth.			1:39-45
d) Anthem of Mary.			1:46-56
e) Advent of John the Baptist.			1:57-80
f) Announcement of Jesus' Birth to Joseph.	1:18-25
g) Advent of Jesus Christ.			2:1-7
h) Announcement to the Shepherds.			2:8-20
3. His Infancy and Childhood.
a) His Circumcision at Bethlehem.			2:21
b) His Presentation in the Temple.			2:22-38
c) His Infancy - in Bethlehem, the wise men.	2:1-12
- in Egypt, to flee Herod.	2:13-18
- in Nazareth.	2:19-23		2:39
d) His Boyhood - His Growth.			2:40
- His Visit to Jerusalem.			2:41-50
- His Development.			2:51-52
B. Ambassador of the King.
1. Message to John.		1:1	3:1-2
2. Message from John.	3:1-6	1:2-6	3:3-6
3. Explanation from John.	3:7-10		3:7-14
4. Promise by John.	3:11-12	1:7-8	3:15-18
C. Approval of the King.
1. At His Baptism.	3:13-17	1:9-11	3:21-23
2. Through His Temptation in Judean Desert.	4:1-11	1:12-13	4:1-13
3. By His Herald - John to the Leaders.				1:19-28
- John testifying to Christ.				1:29-34
II. AUTHENTICATION of the King.
A. Acceptance of His Person.
1. Belief by the First Disciples.				1:35-51
2. Belief Through the First Miracle.				2:1-11
3. Sojourn in Capernaum.				2:12
4. Possession of the Temple, expelling traders.				2:13-22
5. Acceptance in Judea, talking to Nicodemus.				2:23-52

	MATT	MARK	LUKE	JOHN
6. Witness of John.	4:12	1:14	3:19-21 4:14	4:1-4
7. Withdrawl from Judea to Galilee.
8. Acceptance in Samaria, woman at well.				4:5-42
9. Acceptance in Galilee.				4:43-45
B. Authority of the King.
1. Christ's authority to preach.	4:17	1:15	4:14-15
2. Christ's authority over disease.				4:46-54
3. Christ's rejection in Nazareth.			4:16-30
4. Christ's residence in Capernaum.	4:13-16
5. Christ's authority over nature.	4:18-22	1:16-20	5:1-11
6. Christ's authority over demons.		1:21-28	4:31-37
7. Christ's authority over sickness.	8:14-17	1:29-34	4:38-41
8. Christ's authority to preach.	4:23-25	1:35-39	4:42-44
9. Christ's authority over defilement.	8:2-4	1:40-45	5:12-16
10. Christ's authority to forgive sins.	9:1-8	2:1-12	5:17-26
11. Christ's authority over men.	9:9-13	2:13-17	5:27-32
12. Christ's authority over tradition.	9:14-17	2:18-22	5:33-39
13. Christ's authority over the Sabbath.
- through healing a paralytic.				5:1-47
- through controversy over grain.	12:1-8	2:23-28	6:1-5
- healing withered hand.	12:9-14	3:1-6	6:6-11
14. Christ's authority to heal.	12:15-21	3:7-12
15. Commissioning the Twelve.	10:2-4	3:13-19	6:12-16
16. Christ's authority to interpret the Law.	5:1-7:29		6:17-42
a) The Subjects of the Kingdom.		5:1-16		6:17-26
- their character.		5:3-12		6:20-26
- their influence.		5:13-16
b) Relation of the King to the Law.
- the Fulfiller.		5:17-20
- Rejection of Traditional Law.		5:21-48
1. Murder.		5:21-26
2. Adultery.		5:27-30
3. Divorce.		5:31-32
4. Oaths.		5:33-37
5. Retaliation.		5:38-42
6. Love.		5:43-48		6:27-36
- Rejecting of Pharisaic Practices.		6:1-7:6		6:37-42
1. Almsgiving.		6:1-4
2. Prayer.		6:5-15
c) Instruction to those entering the Kingdom.	7:7-29
- Prayer.		7:7-11
- True Righteousness.		7:12		6:31-45
- The Way to Heaven.		7:13-14
- Warning to False Teachers.		7:15-23
- Two Foundations.	7:24-8:1		6:46-49
17. Recognition of Christ's authority.	8:5-13		7:1-10

	MATT	MARK	LUKE	JOHN
18. Recognition of Christ's authority in Nain.			7:11-17
19. Witness of the Twelve.	9:35-11:1	6:6-13	9:1-6
III. CONTROVERSY over the King.
A. Rejection of John the Baptist.	11:2-19		17:18-35
B. Curse of the Cities of Galilee.	11:20-30
1. Condemnation for unbelief.	11:20-24
2. Explanation of unbelief.	11:25-27
3. Invitation to belief.	11:28-30
C. Reception by a sinner.			7:36-50
D. Witness to the King.			8:1-3
E. The Leaders Rejection of Christ.	12:22-37	3:20-30
F. The Leaders Request for a sign.	12:38-45
G. Christ rejects the Nation.	12:46-50	3:31-35	8:19-21
H. Revelation in view of rejection.
1. The Course of the Kingdom in this age.	13:1-53	4:1-34	8:4-18
a) Parable of Sower and Soils.	13:1-9	4:1-9	8:4-8
b) Purpose of Parables.	13:10-17	4:10-12	8:9-10
c) Parable of Sower and Soils Interpreted.	13:18-23	4:13-20	8:11-15
d) Parable of the Lamp.		4:21-25	8:16-18
e) Parable of the Weeds.	13:24-30
f) Parable of the Growing Seed.		4:26-29
g) Parable of the Mustard Seed.	13:31-32	4:30-32
h) Parable of Yeast Mixed in Flour.	13:33-35
i) Parable of Weeds Explained.	13:36-43
j) Parable of the Hidden Treasure and Pearl.	13:44-46
k) Parable of the Dragnet.	13:47-50
l) Parable of the House Owner.	13:51-52
m) Conclusion.	13:53	4:33-34
2. Jesus' Power over Nature.	8:18-27	4:35-41	8:22-25
3. Jesus' Power over Demons.	8:28-34	5:1-20	8:26-39
4. Jesus' Power over Disease and Death.	9:18-26	5:21-43	8:40-56
5. Jesus' Power over Blindness.	9:27-34
I. Rejection in Nazareth.	13:54-58	6:1-6
J. Death of John the Baptist.	14:1-12	6:14-29	9:7-9
IV. INSTRUCTION of the Twelve.
A. Feeding the 5,000.	14:13-21	6:30-44	9:10-17	6:1-13
B. Rejection of an offer to make Him King.	14:22-23	6:45-46		6:14-15
C. Instruction through the Storm.	14:24-33	6:47-52		6:16-21
D. Reception in Gennesaret.	14:34-36	6:53-56
E. Instruction on the Bread of Life.				6:22-71
F. Instruction on Defilement.	15:1-20	7:1-23		7:1
G. Reception in Tyre and Sidon.	15:21-28	7:24-30
H. Reception in Decapolis.	15:29-38	7:31-8:9
I. Rejection in Magdala.	16:1-4	8:9-12

	MATT	MARK	LUKE	JOHN
J. Warning against Rejection.	16:5-12	8:13-26
K. Confession of Peter.	16:13-20	8:27-30	9:18-21
L. Instruction on His Death.	16:21	8:31-33	9:22
M. Instruction on Discipleship.	16:22-28	8:34-9:1	9:23-27
N. Revelation of the Kingdom.	17:1-8	9:2-8	9:28-36
O. Instruction on Elijah.	17:9-13	9:9-13
P. Instruction on Dependence.	17:14-21	9:14-29	9:37-43
Q. Extra Instruction on His Death.	17:22-23	9:30-32	9:43-45
R. Instruction on Sonship.	17:24-27
S. Instruction on Humility.	18:1-5	9:33-37	9:46-48
T. Instruction on Pride.	18:6-14	9:38-50	9:49-50
U. Instruction on Forgiveness.	18:15-35
V. Instruction on Discipleship.	8:19-22		9:57-62
W. Challenge by His Brothers.				7:2-9
X. Journey to Jerusalem.			9:51-56	7:10
V. OPPOSITION to the King.
A. Conflict at the Feast of Tabernacles.				7:11-52
1. Christ's Authority Questioned.				7:11-15
2. Christ's Explanation.				7:16-24
3. Christ's Person Questioned.				7:25-27
4. Christ's Explanation.				7:28-30
5. Response.				7:31-36
6. Christ's Invitation.				7:37-52
B. Conflict over the Law.				7:53-8:11
C. Conflict over the Light.				8:12-20
D. Conflict over Christ's Person.				8:21-59
E. Conflict over Healing a Blind Man.				9:1-41
F. Conflict over the Shepherd.				10:1-21
G. Witness of the 70 sent out.			10:1-24
H. Conflict over the Question of Eternal Life.			10:25-37
I. An Example of Fellowship.			10:38-42
J. Instruction In Prayer.			11:1-13
K. Conflict over Healing a Dumb Man.			11:14-36
L. Conflict over Pharisaic Ritualism.			11:37-54
M. Instructing the Disciples.
1. Hypocrisy.			12:1-12
2. Covetousness.			12:13-34
3. Watchfulness.			12:35-41
4. Faithfulness.			12:42-48
5. The Effect of Jesus' Coming.			12:49-53
6. The Signs of the Times.			12:54-59
7. Repentance.			13:1-9
8. Israel's Need.			13:10-17
9. The Kingdom Program.			13:18-21
N. Conflict at the Feast of Dedication.				10:22-39

	MATT	MARK	LUKE	JOHN
VI. PREPARATION of the DISCIPLES by the King.
A. Withdrawl from Judea.				10:40-42
B. Instruction on Entering the Kingdom.			13:22-35
C. Instruction in a Pharisee's House.			14:1-24
D. Instruction on Discipleship.			14:25-35
E. Instruction on God's Attitude to Sinners.			15:1-32
1. Parable of the Lost Sheep.			15:1-7
2. Parable of the Lost Coin.			15:8-10
3. Parable of the Lost Son.			15:11-32
F. Instruction on Wealth.			16:1-31
G. Instruction on Forgiveness.			17:1-6
H. Instruction on Service.			17:7-10
I. Instruction on Lazarus.				11:1-54
1. Miracle of Restoration.				11:1-44
2. Conflict over the Miracle.				11:45-54
J. Instruction on Thankfulness.			17:11-19
K. Instruction on Christ's Coming.			17:20-37
L. Instruction on Prayer.			18:1-14
M. Instruction on Divorce.	19:1-12
N. Instruction on Entering the Kingdom.	19:13-15	10:13-16	18:15-17
O. Instruction on Eternal Life.	19:16-30	10:17-31	18:18-30
P. Instruction on Christ's Death.	20:17-28	10:32-45	18:31-34
Q. Instruction on Israel's Need.	20:29-34	10:46-52	18:35-43
R. Instruction on the Kingdom Program.			19:1-28
1. A lesson in Personal Faith.			19:1-10
2. Instruction on the Postponed Kingdom.			19:11-28
VII. OFFICIAL PRESENTATION of the King.
A. Arrival in Bethany.				11:55-57
B. Triumphal Entry to Jerusalem.	21:1-11	11:1-11	19:29-44	12:12-19
C. Authority of the King.	21:12-19	11:12-18	19:45-48
D. Invitations by the King.				12:20-50
E. Proof of the King's Authority.	21:20-22	11:19-25	21:37-38
F. The King's Authority Challenged.
1. By the Priests and Elders.	21:23-46	11:27-33	20:1-19
2. By the Pharisees and Herodians.	22:15-22	12:13-17	20:20-26
3. By the Sadducees.	22:23-33	12:18-27	20:27-40
4. By the Pharisees.	22:34-40	12:28-34
G. Challenge by the King.	22:41-46	12:35-37	20:41-44
H. Judgment by the King.	23:1-39	12:38-40	20:45-47
I. Instruction at the Treasury.		12:41-44	21:1-4
VIII. PREPARATION for the DEATH of the King.
A. Predictions by Christ.
1. The Question.	24:1-3	13:1-4	21:5-7
2. The Tribulation.	24:4-26	13:5-23	21:8-26
a) The First Half.	24:4-8	13:5-8	21:8-11

	MATT	MARK	LUKE	JOHN
b) The Second Half.	24:9-14	13:9-13	21:12-19
c) Repetition and Exploration.	24:15-26	13:14-23	21:20-26
3. The Second Advent.	24:27-30	13:24-27	21:27-28
4. The Regathering of Israel.	24:31
5. Parenthetical Exhortations.	24:32-51	13:28-37	21:29-36
a) The Fig Tree.	24:32-44	13:28-37	21:29-36
b) The Faithful Servant.	24:45-51
6. Judgment on Israel.	25:1-30
a) The Ten Virgins.	25:1-13
b) 5 Talents.	25:14-30
7. Judgments on Gentiles.	25:31-46
B. Preparation for Christ's Death.
1. Prediction of His Death.	26:1-2	14:1	22:1
2. Plan of the Rulers.	26:3-5	14:1-2	22:2
3. Pouring of the Ointment.	26:6-13	14:3-9		12:2-8
4. Promise to Bethany.	26:14-16	14:10-11	22:3-6
5. Preparation of the Passover.	26:17-19	14:12-16	22:7-13
6. Passover Observance.	26:20	14:17	22:14-30
7. Provision of an Example.				13:1-20
8. Prediction of Judas' Betrayal.	26:21-25	14:18-21	22:21-23	13:21-30
9. Prediction of Peter's Denial.	26:31-35	14:27-31	22:31-38	13:37-38
10. Provision of a Memorial Supper.	26:26-30	14:22-26	22:17-20
C. Precepts by Christ.
1. Prologue.				13:31-35
2. Problems.				13:36
3. Promises.				14:25-31
4. Instruction on their Present Experience.
a) Fruit bearing.				15:1-17
b) Foe of the Disciples.				15:18-27
5. Instruction on the Future.
a) Ministry of the Holy Spirit.				16:5-15
b) Result of the Resurrection.				16:16-28
c) Conclusion.				16:29-33
D. Prayer by Christ for Believers.
1. His Prayer for Himself.				17:1-5
2. His Prayer for His Disciples.				17:6-19
3. His Prayer for the Family of Believers.				17:20-26
E. Prayer in the Garden.	26:36-46	14:32-42	22:39-46	18:1
IX. REJECTION of the King.
A. The Arrest.	26:47-56	14:43-52	22:47-53	18:1-12
B. The Religious Trial.
1. Examination before Annas.				18:12-23
2. Examination before Caiaphas.	26:57-68	14:53-65	22:63-65	18:24
3. The Denial by Peter.	26:58-75	14:54-72	22:54-62	18:15-27
4. Condemnation by the Sanhedrin.	27:1	15:1	22:66-71
5. Death of Judas.	27:3-10

	MATT	MARK	LUKE	JOHN
C. The Civil Trial.
1. Trial before Pilate.	27:2-14	15:1-5	23:1-5	18:28-38
2. Trial before Herod.			23:6-12
3. Trial before Pilate.	27:15-26	15:6-15	23:13-25	18:39-40
4. Mockery and Scourging.	27:27-30	15:16-19		19:2-3
D. Procession to Calvary.	27:31-34	15:20-23	23:26-33	19:16-17
E. The Crucifixion.
1. First Three Hours.	27:35-44	15:24-32	23:34-43	19:18-27
2. Second Three Hours.	27:45-50	15:33-37	23:44-46	19:28-30
3. Accompanying Signs.	27:51-56	15:38-41	23:45-49
F. The Burial of Christ.	27:57-61	15:42-47	23:50-56	19:31-42
G. The Sealing of the Tomb.	27:62-66
X. The RESURRECTION of the King.
A. Preparation by the Women.	28:1	16:1
B. Opening of the Tomb.	28:2-4
C. Visit of the Women.	28:5-8	16:2-8	24:1-8	20:1
D. Report to the Disciples by the Women.			24:9-12	20:2-10
E. Appearance to Mary Magdalene.		16:9-11		20:11-18
F. Appearance to the Women.	28:9-10
G. Report of the Guard.	28:11-15
H. Appearance to Two on Emmaus Road.		16:12-13	24:13-32
I. Report of the Two to the Disciples.			24:33-35
J. Appearance to the Ten.		16:14	24:36-43	20:19-25
K. Appearance to the Eleven.				20:26-31
L. Appearance to 7 Disciples.				21:1-25
M. Commission to the Disciples.	28:16-20	16:15-18
N. Final Commission.			24:44-49
O. Ascension of Christ.		16:19-20	24:50-53

16. ANGELS

Bible Reading: 2 Kings 6:8-17 and Hebrews 1:14.

Aim: To be encouraged from God's teaching about His angels ministering to us.

Introduction:

Is there intelligent life apart from man in the universe? Yes. Are they friend or foe? They are both. Is their civilisation older than ours? It is. Will we ever communicate with them? Some people have already. Who are these extraterrestrials? They are angels.

The Word "angel" occurs 273 times in Scripture. (108 times in Old Testament, 165 times in New Testament). In the Greek New Testament it is "angelos", in the Hebrew Old Testament it is "mal'ak", both meaning messenger. Sometimes it means "human messenger", but mostly it means "heavenly messenger". It basically means "one who is sent".

In Biblical appearances, angels always manifest themselves as males, never as women or children (except maybe in Zechariah 5:9 where they seem to appear as women angels). They always appear youthful, like the angel at Christ's tomb (Mark 16:5).

Moses and the tabernacle craftsmen knew what winged cherubim angels look like, because they made two cherubim of gold on the ark of the covenant (Exodus 37:6-9), as did Solomon (1 Kings 6:23-32).

The winged, human faced bulls of Assyria and Babylon may have resembled cherubim guarding Eden.

Balaam's donkey saw the angel but Balaam did not. (Numbers 22:31). They have selective visibility.

The main tasks of angels are to:

1. Deliver messages from God to man (Daniel 9:21-23).
2. Encouraging and ministering to people's needs (1 Kings 19:1-8).
3. Opposing the work of Satan and demons (Daniel 10:20).

Benefits of studying the doctrine of angels are:

1. They constantly watch our lives (Daniel 4:17). Hence we will improve our conduct.
2. They protect us, hence we understand God's care for us (Hebrews 1:7).
3. As we see their great strength and authority as they humbly perform small tasks, we learn to serve God with humility also.
4. As God created many holy, powerful angels who worship Him, so we are encouraged to worship God (Revelation 22:8,9).
5. Understanding the angelic conflict helps us to be more committed to winning the spiritual war for people's souls.
6. As God opposes and judges wicked angels, so He will oppose and judge us if we fall into sin.
7. Much evil in this world is from evil angels. This helps us to understand human affairs.
8. We will be more cautious to watch for the deception of evil angels.
9. As angels deliver us from danger, so we can trust our lives to God who sends them (Hebrews 1:14)
10. As angels are completely devoted to God and ready to serve Him, so should we follow their example. Their unceasing service should motivate us to be more devoted in our service to God.

I. EXISTENCE OF ANGELS.

Jesus, Paul and most great Bible characters taught their existence. In Matthew 4:11, angels ministered to Christ after His wilderness temptation. The word "angel" first occurs in Genesis 16:7, where the angel of the Lord ministered to Hagar after Sarah had mistreated her (1913 BC). The existence of angels is tied to the reliability of the testimony of Christ and the Bible.

II. ORIGIN OF ANGELS.

Angels, like man, were created by a special act of God. They were not formerly men, nor did they evolve, but were created as angels, and do not procreate (Matthew 22:28-30). They are called "sons of God" (Job 1:6; 2:1) because they are directly created by God.

"All the sons of God" shouted with joy at the creation of the earth (Job 38:4-7). This shows that God created angels before He created the earth.

“Praise ye him, all his angels.....for he commanded, and they were created.” Psalm 148:2,5.
 Jesus Christ created them all (John 1:1-3, Colossians 1:16). The purpose of their creation was to glorify and worship Jesus Christ (Colossians 1:16; Hebrews 1:6; Revelation 4:11).

III. THE FALL OF ANGELS.

1. The Fact of their Fall. All angels were created sinless, but Lucifer who wanted to be like the Most High (Isaiah 14:12-17, Note his five “I wills”) through pride led a rebellion of angels against God. Ezekiel 28:15-17 describes Satan’s fall. Some angels are evil (Psalm 78:49; Matthew 25:41; Revelation 9:11; 12:7-9). This is because they left their own principality and proper habitation (Jude 6) and sinned (2 Peter 2:4).

2. The Time of their Fall. Their fall occurred before the fall of man.

3. The Cause of their Fall. They were created perfect with all affections of their heart directed to God Question: How could such a being turn away from God?

Answer: Their fall was due to their deliberate, self-determined revolt against God. They chose self and their interests in preference to God and His interests.

Question: What motive caused their revolt?

Answer: Undue ambition and the desire to surpass God, along with great prosperity, beauty, selfishness, pride, discontentment with what they had, and craving to get all that everyone else had. The cause of Satan’s fall, was the cause of the fall of other evil angels.

IV. THE RESULT OF THEIR FALL.

- a) All of them lost their original holiness and became corrupt in nature and conduct (Matthew 10:1).
- b) Some were cast down to hell (Tartarus) & are held there in chains until judgment day (2 Peter 2:4).
- c) Some are left free to oppose the work of good angels (Revelation 12:7-9; Daniel 10:12,13,20,21).
- d) The ground was cursed because of Adam’s sin (Genesis 3:17-19), and creation is groaning because of the Fall (Romans 8:19-22).
- e) They will be cast to the earth in the middle of the seven year tribulation (Revelation 12:8,9), then into the pit for 1,000 years. Then following their judgment (1 Corinthians 6:3), they will be cast into the Lake of Fire (Matthew 25:41; 2 Peter 2:4; Jude 6).

“And the angels which kept not their first estate but left their own habitation, He hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.” (Jude 6).

A. Classification of Angels

B. Number of Angels.

“to an innumerable company of angels”. (Hebrews 12:22).

“And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands.” (Revelation 5:11).

The number of angels is innumerable, 200 million is just an initial estimate of what John could see around God’s throne. Hence angels constitute an exceedingly large number which cannot be counted. There is no increase or decrease in their number because they neither reproduce nor die.

C. Fact of their Organisation.

God is the Author of order and organisation, not of confusion (1 Corinthians 14:33). Both human and angelic societies are organised.

Angelic organisation is seen as follows:

i) “There was a day when the sons of God (angels) came to present themselves before the Lord.” Job 1:6 and 2:1. There are stated assemblies among God’s angels when they meet to praise God and report their service to Him. They, as well as us, are accountable to God. At these meetings God discusses the conduct of Christians on earth with the angels, as seen in the case of Job, where God testifies of Job as a “perfect and upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil.” (Job 1:8).

ii) “I saw the Lord sitting on His throne, and all the host of heaven standing by Him.... And the Lord said, who shall persuade Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And there came forth a spirit, and stood before the Lord,and said, I will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.” (1 Kings 22:19-23).

Again God discusses with the angels how to bring about the death of evil King Ahab in battle. God even uses evil angels to achieve His plans in both believers and unbelievers lives.

iii) Angels gathered in order to witness the creation of the world. “Who laid the corner stone (of earth): when the morning stars (angels) sang together, and all the sons of God (angels) shouted for joy?” (Job 38:7,8).

iv) Jesus Christ is the captain of the host (army) of the Lord. Joshua then worshipped Him as God. (Joshua 5:13-15). God’s armies are organised for war. Jesus Christ is their Captain, and Michael the Archangel under Jesus Christ. In the middle of the 7 year tribulation Michael and his angels fight and expel Satan and his angels from heaven, destroying their place (Topos⁵¹¹⁷ = territory, location, place), casting them to earth to suffer defeat and imprisonment in the pit 3½ years later.(Rev.12:7-10)

Demons loosed from the pit in the tribulation show organisation by having a king over them named Abaddon (destroyer) or Apollyon (Revelation 9:11). Thus Satan’s armies are well organised.

- v) Organisation levels amongst angels are seen in eight titles given to them:
- ∇ Principalities⁽⁷⁴⁶⁾ are princes or chiefs among angels (Ephesians 1:21; 3:10; Colossians 2:10), or among demons (1 Corinthians 15:24; Ephesians 6:12; Colossians 2:15).
 - ∇ Powers⁽¹⁸⁴⁹⁾ or Authorities (Gk: Exousia¹⁸⁴⁹) (1 Peter 3:22).
 - ∇ Dominions (Gk: Kuriotes ²⁹⁶³) = lord or mighty one, an order of angels (Eph. 1:21; Col. 1:16).
 - ∇ Angels
 - ∇ Rulers of the darkness of this world (Gk: Kosmokrator ²⁸⁸⁸) meaning “holders of this world, or Lord of the world.” This is used of Satan and his angels (John 12:31; 2 Corinthians 4:4).
 - ∇ Spiritual wickedness in high places, or wicked spirits. (Ephesians 6:12).
 - ∇ Thrones (Gk: Thronos ²³⁶²) referring to heavenly Kings, with a seat of power (Colossian 1:16).

Romans 8:38 Principalities Powers Angels	Ephesians 1:21 Principality Power Might Dominion	Ephesians 3:10 Principalities Powers in heavenlies	Ephesians 6:12 Principalities Powers Rulers of the darkness of this world Spiritual wickedness in high places
---	--	---	--

Colossians 1:16 Thrones Principalities Powers Dominions	Colossians 2:10 Christ is the Head of Principalities and Powers	Colossians 2:15 Christ spoiled Principalities and Powers	1 Peter 3:22 Angels, authorities and powers being made subject unto Him.
---	--	---	--

God has organised the good angels, and Satan has organised the evil angels.

Application: Angels are organised, and demons are organised, yet Christians individually and in groups, often feel no need to be organised, especially in fighting evil, in winning souls, and in teaching the Bible. Believers often feel they can “go it alone”, have no need of church, or expect victory without any prior, organised preparation and discipline. Believers often miss the best because they don’t plan their good works and evangelistic activities.

D. Ranking of Angels.

Within classes of angels there seems to be various ranks appointed by God. Different angels are created for different purposes, just as God has gifted different believers for different tasks.

The angels may be classified as follows:

- i) Governmental Rulers - Thrones (based on order of listing - Principalities implying rank) - Authorities
- Powers
- Rulers of the darkness of this world
(The rule of angels is often manifest through earthly rulers.) Daniel 10:13,21; 12:1; Ephesians 6:12.
- Wicked spirits
- Angels
- ii) Cherubim - Defend God’s holiness against human pride.
- iii) Seraphim - Give unceasing worship, and have a ministry of purification.
- iv) Living creatures
- v) Individual angels - Michael, Gabriel, Lucifer
- vi) Specially designated angels - Are known by the service they render
 - Angels of judgment - Gen.19:13; 2 Sam. 24:16; 2 Kings 19:35; Ezek 9:1,5,7; Ps.78:49
 - The Watchers - Daniel 4:13,23
 - Angel of the abyss - Revelation 9:1
 - Angel over fire - Revelation 14:18
 - Angel of the waters - Revelation 16:5

V. APPEARANCE OF ANGELS

What do angels generally appear as?

1. Young men. “And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment: and they were amazed.” (Mark 16:5).
2. Lightning. “His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow.” (Matthew 28:3).
3. Shining garments. “Behold, two men stood by them in shining garments.” (Luke 24:4).
4. Face like the sun. “I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud; and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire.” (Revelation 10:1).
5. Clothed in pure and white linen, and
6. Their breasts girded with golden girdles. (Revelation 15:6).

Because of angels’ splendour and great glory, we can understand why unsaved (Colossians 2:18) and believers (Rev 19:10;22:8,9) have attempted to worship them, and why God stops us from seeing them.

VI. NAMES OF GOOD ANGELS

A. Michael the Archangel. His name means “who is like God?” It teaches the incomparableness of God and devotion to God’s will. He contrasts with Satan’s pride who declared “I will be like the Most High.” (Isaiah 14:14).

Michael is mentioned five times in the Bible, always warring against Satan’s forces:

1. He helps a lesser ranked angel break free from the evil angel Prince of Persia to answer Daniel’s prayer: “But, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me;” Daniel 10:13,21.
“There is none that holdeth (supports) with me in these things, but Michael your prince.” 10:21.

We see here that:

- a) Michael is one of the chief princes, which implies that there may be other archangels.
 - b) Michael is Israel's prince guardian angel, assigned to Israel.
 - c) Satan assigns evil angels to increase the evil and corruption in a nation, as in the case of the evil angel called the Prince of Persia (a Principality), who is assigned to Persia.
 - d) "I remained there with the Kings of Persia" (10:13) shows angelic "thrones" referred to as the "Kings of Persia".
2. Michael will stand up to protect Israel in the future 7 year Tribulation, as their guardian angel: "At that time shall Michael stand up, the great Prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble...." (Daniel 12:1).
3. People hear Michael's voice shout out at the coming of Jesus Christ to catch up believers at the rapture in 1 Thessaloninas 4:16.
"For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first." (I Thessalonians 4:16).

Question: Why does Michael shout at the rapture?

Answer: Because Israel comes back into God's prophetic program with the 70th week commencing, leaving only 7 years until Christ sets up His Kingdom on earth. This is cause enough to shout for joy.

4. Michael disputes with Satan about the body of Moses.
"Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, the Lord rebuke thee." Jude 9. In this situation, and in spite of Michael's power and greatness, not even he dare bring a railing accusation against Satan, but falling back in dependence upon God, he declares, "The Lord rebuke thee."

We cannot rebuke Satan, but only say to him, as Michael did, 'The Lord rebuke thee' Zech3:1,2
"He showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the Lord, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him.

²And the LORD (first person) said unto Satan (second person), the LORD (third person) rebuke thee, O Satan:..."

We see the Trinity mentioned here, that is, the first person of the JHVH Godhead rebuking Satan in the name of another member of the JHVH Godhead.

5. Michael and his angels fight against and defeat Satan and his angels, destroying their place in the heavens, and casting them into the earth. (Revelation 12:7-12). This occurs in the middle of the seven year tribulation, causing rejoicing among those angels and departed saints who dwell in the heavens.

This should comfort us knowing that God's angels are more powerful than Satan's angels, and that ultimate victory is God's and the Christians. Not only does Michael overcome Satan in the heavens, but Christians on earth will overcome Satan in three ways:

- i) By the blood of the Lamb.
- ii) By the word of their testimony.
- iii) By loving not their lives unto death.

Lesson: The problem with Christians today is that they love their lives on earth with all its luxuries that they don't make any sacrifices to achieve anything for God and in winning of souls to Christ.

Conclusion: Michael's activities are always seen in connection with warfare with Satan, and with the resurrection of the body. If one so great as Michael, the chief angel of God's angelic armies, does not rely on his own strength in opposing Satan but respects his evil power, how much more must we rely upon God. (Ephesians 6:10-12; 2 Peter 2:11).

B. GABRIEL. His name means "the mighty one". He is never called an archangel. As Michael's job is to war against Satan's armies, Gabriel's job is always as a messenger, revealer and interpreter of God's purposes concerning Israel and the Messiah to the prophets of Israel. He appears four times in Scripture, as follows:

1. Gabriel appeared as a man to Daniel with the task “Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision.” (Daniel 8:15,16). This sets in place the role of Gabriel to interpret God’s Word to the prophets of Israel. This is an example of the first mention principle in Scripture. This vision in Daniel 8:15-27 interprets the future Medo-Persian empire, the Greek empire, Alexander the Great and his four successors, and Antichrist’s activities at the time of the end.
2. The man Gabriel, in answer to Daniel’s prayer, flew swiftly, and informed Daniel saying “I am now come forth to give thee skill and understanding” (Daniel 9:21,22). He interpreted the 70 week prophecy to Daniel concerning the time of Messiah’s first coming, and some events of Christ’s second coming. (Daniel 9:20-27).
3. Gabriel predicts the birth of John the Baptist to Zacharias (Luke 1:10-20). As the people prayed, Gabriel appeared to Zacharias to declare “thy prayer is heard” (1:13). He describes himself as “I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent ... to shew thee these glad tidings” (1:19).
4. Gabriel predicts the birth of Jesus Christ and His ministry as King on David’s throne to Mary before Jesus was conceived. (Luke 1:26-38).

Conclusion: a) Gabriel, as one who is swift to reveal and interpret God’s message concerning Christ and Israel. So should we follow his example to be swift to carry God’s message of Christ to the lost. Gabriel is seen in association with the Holy Spirit’s ministry of interpreting God’s Word.

b) Michael is seen in association with Jesus Christ at the rapture (1 Thessalonians 4:16), and in fighting Satan, which Jesus does at His glorious appearing.

c) Lucifer’s sin of pride was to desire to be like the Most High.

Hence these three angels have some association with the three persons of the Godhead.

C. CHERUBIM. (Cherub singular) are heavenly beings of the highest order, created with incredible power and beauty.

1. Description. During Ezekiel’s captivity in Babylon, he received a vision of God’s glory involving four living creatures (Ezekiel 1:1-28).

a) Each has four faces, being that of a man, lion, ox and eagle.

“They four had the face of a man, and the face of a lion on the right side: of an ox on the left side,and of an eagle.” Ezekiel 1:10.

“Every one had four faces; the first face was the face of a cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle”. Ezekiel 10:14.

By comparing these two passages, we see that a cherub has the face of an ox.

b) “I knew that they were the cherubims. Every one had four faces apiece, and every one had four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings. Ezekiel 10:20,21

c) “The sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf’s foot.” Ezekiel 1:7.

d) “The noise of their wings, was like the noise of great waters, as the voice of the Almighty.” Ezekiel 1:24.

e) A man (Christ) sat on a sapphire throne high over their heads. Ezekiel 1:26.

f) “The living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.” Ezek. 1:14

g) “Their whole body, backs, hands, wings and wheels were full of eyes round about” Ezek 10:12

2. Scriptural occurrences.

i) Cherubim first appear at the gate of the garden of Eden after man was expelled (Genesis 3:24). They guarded the way to the tree of life lest sinful man should eat of it and live forever in an unredeemable state (Genesis 3:22). They teach us that sin and paradise are incompatible. Sinful man cannot approach God without the righteousness of Christ.

Statues of winged bulls and lions with human faces guarded the entrances of temples and palaces of ancient Babylon and Assyria. These nations were near the garden of Eden.

ii) Golden images of cherubim facing each other appear on the mercy seat of the Tabernacle (Exodus 25:17-22). God said “There I will meet with thee, and I will commune with thee from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubims.” (Exodus 25:22).

They are hence called “cherubims of glory” shadowing the mercy seat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.” Hebrews 9:5. They guarded the holiness of God against sinful man breaking God’s law. When they saw the blood on the mercy seat, judgment was stayed.

- iii) They appear as tapestry on the curtain of the tabernacle, separating unholy people from God’s presence in the Holy of Holies (Exodus 26:1).
- iv) “Hezekiah prayed before the Lord, and said, O Lord God of Israel, which dwellest between the cherubims,” (2 Kings 19:15).
- v) Solomon in his temple “set the cherubims within the inner house and he overlaid the cherubims with gold. He carved all the walls of the house ... with cherubims, palm trees and open flowers.” (1 Kings 6:21-29).
- vi) Ezekiel while captive in Babylon received visions of the glory of God with four living creatures (1:1-28) later identified as cherubim (10:4,18-22).
- vii) The Millennial temple will have cherubim carved on its inside walls:
“From the ground unto above the door were cherubims and palm trees made, and on the wall of the temple.” (Ezekiel 41:20).
- viii) John sees four living creatures very similar to cherubim in heaven in Revelation 4:6-8 “in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts full of eyes before and behind. And the first beast was like a lion, ... and the second beast like a calves, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.”

3. Purpose and Duties of Cherubim

Cherubim are never called angels because they are not messengers in their duties. They never carry instructions from God to men.

- i) Their purpose is to proclaim and protect God’s glory, presence and holiness.
- ii) They are never sent from God’s presence but are confined to God’s throne. They designate the place of God’s presence, as in the Garden of Eden, the Tabernacle, and in Solomon’s temple.

The Shekinah glory represents God who is dwelling between the cherubims:

“Thou that dwest between the cherubims, shine forth.” Psalm 80:1.

“The Lord reigneth: let the people tremble: he sitteth between the cherubims.” Psalm 99:1

- iii) They show the unapproachableness of God.
- iv) They show God’s glory.
- v) They show God’s intervention in human affairs in Ezekiel 1.
- vi) Above the mercy seat they show how God can meet sinful man on the basis of blood sacrifice, and through a God given priesthood. These pointed to Christ as our only blood sacrifice to atone for our sins and as our great High Priest.
They also teach the grace of God that provides salvation for man and access to God through Jesus Christ’s blood sacrifice.

D. SERAPHIM. Or “burning ones” are only mentioned in Isaiah 6:2,6.

Cherubim are under God’s throne. “Above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne...” (Ezekiel 1:26).

‘This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel. they were the cherubims’ Ezek.10:20

The Seraphim stand above God’s throne.

“...a throne....above it stood the seraphims” (Isaiah 6:1,2), their name meaning “burning ones” speaking of their consuming devotion to God.

“Above it stood the seraphims: each one had 6 wings; with two he covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he did fly.”

The symbolism is clear: “with two (wings) they cover their faces” shows that even the most exalted spirits cannot bear the full vision of God’s glory.

“with two (wings) they cover their feet” - shows their reverence, their hesitancy to tread uninvited upon holy ground.

“with two (wings) they did fly” - shows their swiftness to obey God’s commands.

They cried to each other “Holy, Holy, Holy, is Yahweh of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory.” (Isaiah 6:3).

Their duties are to lead heaven in the worship of God’s holiness, and to purify God’s servants for true worship and service. Hence they are concerned with worship and holiness, whereas cherubim are concerned with justice and might.

Application: They show that a sinner must be cleansed of sin before he can stand before God and serve Him (as in Isaiah’s case). Isaiah’s lips, now cleansed (by the hot coal) are now ready to speak God’s message to men (Isaiah 6:8,9).

E. GUARDIAN ANGELS.

“Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, that in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.” (Matthew 18:10).

The holy angels minister to the saints (Hebrews 1:14):

1. Through giving assistance, protection and deliverance (Lot in Genesis 19:11);
“He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.” (Psalm 91:11);
“Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, Abed-nego who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants that trusted in Him.” (Daniel 3:28);
“The angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors (for the apostles).” (Acts 5:19);
“Then said they, It is his (Peter’s) angel.” (Acts 12:15).
2. Through giving encouragement. “There stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am saying, Fear not, Paul...” (Acts 27:23,24).
3. Through watching over and representing believers in heaven. “The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.” (Psalm 34:7).
4. Through bringing people that they are assigned to, to hear the gospel, receive Christ as Saviour, and to serve God in this life. (Matthew 18:10).

When a person gets saved, their angels rejoice in heaven that the person they are assigned to has been saved. When we preach the gospel and lead people to Christ, we are cooperating with God and with holy angels who are assigned to the new believer from birth.

F. GENERAL NAMES OF ANGELS.

1. Angel is a supernatural, heavenly being who serves God’s purposes.
2. Ministering spirits. “Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?” (Hebrews 1:14).
“Who maketh his angels spirits; his ministers a flaming fire.” (Psalm 104:4).
They minister for God in spiritual service.
3. Host shows God’s angels as His army. Angels are called upon to bless the Lord.
“Bless ye the Lord, all ye his hosts; ye ministers of his that do his pleasure.” (Psalm 103:20,21)
“Hosts” shows God’s heavenly army as a military force to accomplish His will and to fight His battles. God’s name, Yahweh of hosts, shows God as Commander in Chief of a great heavenly army. (Psalm 89:8).
4. Chariots of fire protected Elisha and his servant from the Syrian army. “Behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha.” (II Kings 6:16,17). Four chariots which executed God’s military judgments on nations around Israel are seen in Zechariah 6:1-8. Elijah was caught up to heaven in a chariot of fire in 2 Kings 2:11.
5. Watchers denote angels as spectators of people and events of earth. God uses them to control and judge the world governments.
“Behold, a watcher and an holy one came down from heaven. ... This matter is by the decree of the watchers ... to the intent that the living may know that the Most High ruleth in the Kingdom of men.” (Daniel 4:13,17).
On four occasions angels are said to be observing:
 - a) Angels rejoice with God when one sinner repents (Luke 15:10).

- b) “Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of Man confess before the angels of God: but he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God.” (Luke 12:8,9). They watch us confessing or denying Christ publicly.
- c) All of Christ’s life on earth was “seen of angels”. (1 Timothy 3:16).
- d) Angels watch the Beast worshippers being tormented forever. (Revelation 14:10,11).
6. Sons of God (Job 1:6; 2:1; 38:7; Genesis 6:2,4) is used of angels. The Hebrew is “bene elohim”, meaning in contrast with man, angels belong to the class of Elohim (God) speaking of their might. In Job 1 and 2, they assemble before God, serve Him and answer to God.
7. Sons of the mighty. (bene elim).
 “Who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the Lord?” (Psalm 89:6).
 This describes the great strength of angels.
 “Give unto the LORD, O ye mighty...glory and strength.” (Psalm 29:1).
 “Bless the LORD, ye his angels, that excel in strength...” (Psalm 103:20).
Note: Often the expression “son(s) of” describes a class of persons. For example:
 a) sons of the prophets (2 Kings 2:3,5,7,15; 6:1) refer to a class known as prophets.
 b) sons of belial (1 Samuel 2:12; 25:17,25) means a class of lawless or worthless persons.
 c) sons of Asaph (Nehemiah 11:22) refer to a class of singers founded by Asaph.
 d) sons of Levi (Nehemiah 12:23; Malachi 3:3 “He shall purify the sons of Levi”) refers to the priestly class descended from Levi.
 e) sons of Arcturus (Job 38:22) refers to a class of stars belonging to the brightest star in the constellation Bootes. “Canst thou guide Arcturus with his sons?”
 f) Jesus Christ as the only begotten Son of God means that He is uniquely of the class of God.
8. Gods (Elohim⁴³⁰ in Hebrew), sometimes applies to angels, though Elohim mostly refers to God.
 “Thou hast made him (man) a little lower than the angels (elohim).” Psalm 8:5.
 “Give unto the LORD, O ye mighty (Hebrew “El” meaning angels)...glory.” Psalm 29:1.
 “Worship him, all ye gods (Elohim⁴³⁰ or angels)”. Psalm 97:7; 138:1.
 “Elohim” is used of angels as of God because they are like God as spirit beings.
 The same word is used of man. “I have said, Ye are gods (Elohim⁴³⁰) and all of you are children of the most High.” It is used in Psalm 82:6 and in John 10:33,34 by Jesus. It means “magistrates” here because of the dignity and honour of their office is applied to man.
9. Flaming Fire (Psalm 104:4 and Hebrews 12:29) reveals their holiness and zeal for God.
10. Princes or Principalities. These are angels that are princes over certain nations. Satan is the prince of this world (John 12:31; 14:30; 16:11), having demon princes over the nations (Daniel 10:13,20,21; 12:1).
11. Stars, used of angels, denotes their heavenly nature and dwelling place. (Job 38:7). Both angels and stars are called “the host of heaven”. (Psalm 33:6; Nehemiah 9:6; “They fought from heaven; the stars in their courses fought against Sisera.” Judges 5:20.). Note that astrology is connected with demon worship through the term “stars”, or “host of heaven”: “they burned incense unto Baal, to the sun, to the moon, to the planets, and to all the host of heaven.” 2 Kings 23:5; Jeremiah 19:13;
 “God gave them up to worship the host of heaven.” Acts 7:42.
 Satan is described in his rebellion against God as a “great red dragon and his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth.” Revelation 12:3,4.
 “I saw a star fall from heaven to the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit.” Revelation 9:1.
 Stars then symbolise angels. Astrology and worship of the stars is condemned in Deuteronomy 18:10-14 as being connected with demonism. (Jeremiah 10:2; 2 Kings 23:5; 2 Chronicles 33:3; Isaiah 47:13).
12. Angel of light. “Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.” (2 Corinthians 11:14).

VII. NATURE OR CHARACTER OF GOOD ANGELS.

A. The nature of angels is as follows:

1. Created beings. Revelation 4:11; “He commanded and they were created.” Psalm 148:5.
2. Spirit beings. Hebrews 1:14; Psalm 104:4. They are not limited to the physical realm.
3. Immortal. “Neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels.” Luke 20:34-36
4. A company of beings, not a race. “An innumerable company of angels.” Hebrews 12:22.
5. Innumerable. They are innumerable from man’s viewpoint. Only God knows their number.
6. Higher than man. “Thou madest him (man) a little lower than the angels.” Hebrews 2:7.
7. Invisible. “visible and invisible” Col. 1:16. At times they can become visible to human eyes.
8. Intelligence. They have greater knowledge than man but are not omniscient (Matthew 24:36). They have continued to learn since their creation (Eph. 3:10). They learn more of the wisdom of God by studying churches and Christians. Their learning capacity has not been corrupted by sin as has man’s. They do not have to study the past, because they have experienced it.
9. Strength. Paul calls them “mighty angels” (2 Thessalonians 1:7).
One angel killed 185,000 Assyrian soldiers in a night (Isaiah 37:36).
We should pray “God help me to be strong to do your work.”
“His angels, that excel in strength, that do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word.” Psalm 103:20.
One angel killed 70,000 Israelites due to David’s sin. 2 Samuel 24:15,16.
One angel rolled away a four ton stone from Christ’s tomb.
10. Personality. This is proven because they have intelligence (Matthew 8:29; Daniel 9:23; 10:21; 1 Peter 1:12), emotions (Luke 2:13; James 2:19; Revelation 12:17), and wills (Luke 8:28-31; 2 Timothy 2:26; Jude 6). These are the three necessary features of personality. The Holy Spirit shows these qualities, proving He is a person, not an active force as JW’s claim. They can render intelligent worship to God.
They are held responsible for the quality of their service and for their moral choices.
11. They neither marry nor die. Matthew 22:30; Luke 20:35,36.
12. Angels eat food. “Man did eat angels’ food.” Psalms 78:25
13. Angels dwell in the heavens. John 1:51; Ephesians 3:10.
14. Believers shall judge angels. 1 Corinthians 6:3.
15. They are not bound by natural laws, because they are spirits:
 - they can enter locked prisons (Acts 12:7).
 - open prison doors (Acts 5:19).
 - ascend in a flame of fire (Judges 13:19,20).
 - travel great distances very quickly, faster than the speed of light.An angel apologised to Daniel for taking 21 days to travel from heaven to earth. Dan. 10:12,13
16. Force of appearance. Mary, Zacharias and the shepherds were greatly afraid at their sighting. The Roman soldiers at Christ’s tomb trembled for fear and became as dead men (Matt. 28:4).
17. Angels observe human activities.

B. The character of good angels is as follows:

1. Holy. Mark 8:38; Revelation 14:10. They are sinless and are unable to fall.
2. Meek. 2 Peter 2:11; Jude 9. Their character resembles the meekness of God. They are humble in contrast to the pride of fallen angels.
3. They worship God. Hebrews 1:6; Revelation 22:9. Good angels never accept worship from man, though fallen angels seek to be worshipped.
4. They obey God immediately and unquestioningly. (1 Peter 3:22).
“ye ministers of his that do his pleasure.” (Psalm 103:20,21).
5. Their knowledge is limited, but has increased over time, particularly as they study God’s workings on earth. (1 Peter 1:12).
6. Stronger than man (2 Peter 2:11);

“Angels are greater in power and in might” (Revelation 18:1,21); “a mighty angel” (2 Thessalonians 1:7); one angel killed 185,000 Assyrian soldiers in one night, and rescued King Hezekiah and Jerusalem (2 Kings 19:35).

7. Patience. Numbers 22:22-35 shows the angel gently resisting Balaam going to curse Israel.
8. Joy. They rejoice at the creation of earth (Job 38:7) & rejoice over people being saved. Luke 15:10
9. They are clothed in white linen, bright as light. No darkness is in them. (Revelation 15:6).

VIII. THE WORK AND MINISTRY OF GOOD ANGELS.

They minister to worship God in heaven, and to serve man on earth.

A. They minister to God in:

1. Worship and praise. In Isaiah 6:3 and Revelation 4:6-11 they worship God for His holiness, worthiness, creation and omnipotence.
2. Service to God and men. Since “angel” means “messenger”, they carry God’s messages to men such as Manoah, Zacharias (Luke 1:19), Mary (Luke 1:26-33), & the shepherds at Christ’s birth.
3. Governing the universe.
In Psalm 103:19,20 God’s rule is associated with the service of angels:
 - in controlling nature, such as winds (Revelation 7:1), the seas (Revelation 16:3), the sun’s heat (Revelation 16:8,9).
 - in controlling nations. Behind the scenes, good angels oppose Satan & his angels. Dan.10:13,21
Evil angels may influence governments to oppose the gospel and Christians. For our needs we have the armour of God (Eph. 6:10-13) and the angels of God (2 Kings 6:17; Heb. 1:14).
4. Protecting believers. They may harass our enemies (Psalm 35:4,5,6) and deliver us from their wicked works (Psalm 34:7; Psalm 63:9; Hebrews 1:14).
5. Execute God’s judgments, as in the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah (Genesis 9:1-13), plaguing Egypt (Psalm 78:43,49), destroying Egypt’s firstborn (Exodus 12:13,23), chastening Israel by killing 70,000 Israelites (1 Chronicles 21:15-18), killing 185,000 Assyrian soldiers (2 Kings 19:35), and Michael and his angels will judge Satan and his angels (Revelation 12:7-9).

B. They minister to Christ in:

1. Predicting His birth to Mary, assuring her that her child would be the God-man and Saviour. Luke 1:26-28.
2. Announcing His birth to shepherds. Luke 2:8-15.
3. Protecting Him as a baby from Herod by warning His parents to flee to Egypt, then return to Nazareth after Herod’s death. Matthew 2:13-21.
4. Strengthening Christ during His earthly trials in the wilderness. After this trial “angels came and ministered unto Him.” Matthew 4:11.
In Gethsemane when He faced the full wrath of God for our sins, an angel came to strengthen Him. Luke 22:43.
5. Defended Christ at His request. When He was taken prisoner, He could have called 12 legions of angels to rescue Him, but He willingly went to the cross to pay for our sins. Matthew 26:53.
6. Announced His resurrection. An angel rolled away the stone from Christ’s tomb to let people in, and later announced Christ’s resurrection to those coming to the tomb. Matthew 28:6; Luke 24:5-8
7. Angels are subject to Him in heaven now. “Angels, authorities and powers being made subject unto him.” 1 Peter 3:22.
8. Angels rejoice when God saves a repentant sinner. Luke 15:10.
9. Angels now worship the God-man in heaven. Revelation 5:11,12.
10. Angels predicted Christ’s bodily return in the clouds. Acts 1:11.
11. Angels accompany Christ when He returns in glory. Matthew 25:31.
12. Angels worship Christ when He returns. Hebrews 1:6.
13. Angels gather the saved and wicked at Christ’s return. Matt. 13:39-43; 24:31; 2 Thess. 1:7-10.

C. Angels are present at the beginning of new dispensations or at great events.

1. At Creation, “the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy.” Job 38:7

2. At the giving of the Law, at Mount Sinai, God used angels to deliver the Law to Moses, as seen from:
 - i) Galatians 3:19 “the law was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator.”
The Law came from angels to Moses the mediator, then to the people.
 - ii) Acts 7:38,53 “Who have received the law by the disposition of angels and have not kept it.”
 - iii) Hebrews 2:2 “For if the word spoken by angels was steadfast....”
God’s giving of the law through angels explains the Jews high regard for angels. It explains why Hebrews 1 and 2 shows the superiority of Christ over angels, and why Christ replaced the Mosaic law.
3. At Christ’s birth, resurrection, ascension and return.
4. They minister to believers. As God loves us, so angels are also interested in us, as seen in Daniel 10:11, “O Daniel, a man greatly beloved.”
Their ministry shows God’s love and care for us, in these forms:
 - a) Revealing God’s will and word to men. Much of the books of Daniel and Revelation were given through angels.
 - b) Guiding and directing people to win others to Christ.
An angel directed Philip to go south from Samaria to the Gaza desert to win the Ethiopian eunuch to Christ. (Acts 8:26). Notice that the angel gave the general direction, but the Holy Spirit pointed out the exact person (Acts 8:29).
An angel directed Cornelius to send for Peter who would tell him how to be saved. (Acts 10:1-8; 11:13,14). Notice again that the Holy Spirit gave Peter specific instructions (Acts 10:19; 11:12).
 - c) Providing physical needs such as food and water. For example:
 - i) To Hagar and Ishmael in the desert (Genesis 21:17-20).
 - ii) God providing manna known as angels food to Israel in the wilderness. Psalm 78:23-25
 - iii) When Elijah had fled from Jezebel and had lay down to die, an angel awoke him and provided him with “a cake baked on the coals, and a cruse of water.” (1 Kings 19:5-7).
 - iv) Angels ministered to Christ after His 40 days fasting and His temptation by Satan in the wilderness. (Matthew 4:11).
 - d) Protecting or guarding believers from physical danger:
 - i) God sent an angel to shut the lions’ mouths when Daniel was thrown into the lions’ den. (Daniel 6:20-23).
 - ii) God sent an angelic army to surround and protect Elisha and his servant at Dothan from the Syrian army. Elisha said “Fear not: for they that be with us (angels) are more than they that be with them.” (2 Kings 6:16-17).
 - iii) God sent an angel to kill 185,000 Assyrians who were laying siege to Jerusalem. Isaiah 36,37.
 - e) Delivering believers from harm:
 - i) When the Jewish leaders imprisoned the apostles, an angel opened the doors, led them out and told them to keep preaching. (Acts 5:17-20).
 - ii) Peter was delivered from prison by an angel causing his chains to fall off, opening the prison doors and leading him out. (Acts 12:5-10).
 - iii) God delivers from harm, by sealing the 144,000 Israelite witnesses in the Tribulation so they are preserved to complete their job of preaching the Gospel to the world.
 - f) Strengthening and encouraging believers to continue preaching and serving God:
 - i) After setting the apostles free from prison, an angel encouraged them to continue preaching. (Acts 5:19-20).
 - ii) An angel appeared to Paul at sea in a storm predicting that he would be preserved from death at sea so he could preach at Rome. (Acts 27:23-25).
 - g) Sent in answer to prayer:
 - i) Daniel prayed for Israel’s restoration to the land and an angel came to instruct him and answer his prayer. (Daniel 9:20-24).

- ii) Daniel prayed and fasted, so God sent an angel to give him the detailed history of the next 300 years. (Daniel 10:10-12).
 - iii) When Herod imprisoned Peter, the church prayed for his release without ceasing, and God sent an angel to deliver him. (Acts 12:1-17).
- h) Carrying believers to heaven:
 Angels carried Lazarus' spirit to paradise at death (Luke 16:22).
 Michael disputed with Satan over Moses' body (Jude 9).
 Scripture shows that the Holy Spirit's and angels' ministry differs as follows:

Angels

1. External and physical.
2. Minister for us.
3. Guard our bodies and pathway.
4. May be agents to answer prayer.

Holy Spirit

1. Internal and Spiritual.
2. Minister in us.
3. Guards our spirits and guides us the right way.
4. The Prompter and Director of our prayers (Romans 8:26,27).

- i) Angels observe believers. Angels learn and develop from observing the work of God and men on earth in this church age. Luke 12:8,9; 1 Corinthians 4:9, 11:10;
 "I charge thee before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels....do nothing by partiality." 1 Timothy 5:21.
- j) Angels execute judgment on unbelievers and nations. For example:
 Herod was eaten of worms (Acts 12:23), and Sodomites were blinded and destroyed (Genesis 19:13,11).
- k) Future work of angels. They will gather the elect when Christ returns. (Matthew 24:31). They will separate the saved from the lost at Christ's coming. (Matthew 13:39,49,50).

Question: What do they observe?

- i) Salvation. They aim to learn more about God as they observe the operation of salvation in people. "of which salvation the prophets have inquired and searched diligently which things the angels desire to look into." 1 Peter 1:10-12.
 As angels learn and develop, they can worship and serve God with more understanding and devotion.
- ii) Worship. Angels observe worship in a local church, looking for evidence of woman's subjection to man. "For this cause ought the woman to have power on her head because of the angels." 1 Corinthians 11:1-10. A woman's long hair (v.15) or head covering evidenced her submissive condition of heart, as she worshipped God. (v.3).
- iii) Work and witness. Angels observe the ministry of each believer in any local church. Paul charges Timothy before God and the holy angels to administer his church impartially, "I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality." (1 Timothy 5:21).
 Paul describes the Apostles and all believers as a public spectacle involved in a life and death struggle with Satan over the souls of men. God, Satan, man, good and evil angels, watched the Apostles and believers fighting daily for the souls of men. "We are made a spectacle unto the world, to angels, and to men." (1 Corinthians 4:9).
 When a sinner understands the gospel and repents, the angels rejoice from their "grandstand" in heaven. (Luke 15:10). Angels will hear Christ confessing or denying people who confessed or denied Him on earth before men (Luke 12:8,9); Angels will witness the rewarding of believers. (Matthew 16:27). The fact that angels observe us should cause us to walk soberly in dedication, dependence on Christ, and in dignity.

IX. ACTIVITY AND WORK OF EVIL ANGELS (DEMONS)

Under Satan's control are a great number of evil spirit beings known as demons, authorities, principalities, powers, rulers of darkness, etc..

These are symbolised in Scripture by:

1. Fowls of the air. (Matthew 13:4,19).
2. Unclean and hateful birds in a cage. (Revelation 18:1-3).
3. Unclean frogs (Revelation 16:13,14).
4. Locusts from the bottomless pit. (Revelation 9:1-10).

The activity of demonic spirits is summarised as, "The thief cometh to steal, and to kill, and to destroy." (John 10:10).

These spirits attack mankind spiritually, mentally, emotionally, physically and morally. Examples of this are:

1. They oppose God's servants by "taking away the word sown." Matthew 13:19.
2. They hinder the Gospel: "but Satan hindered us". 1 Thessalonians 2:18.
3. They take people captive: "who are taken captive by him". 2 Timothy 2:26.
4. They blind unbelievers' minds. 2 Corinthians 4:4.
5. They sow tares (children of the devil) among wheat (believers in a local church), to destroy its outreach. Matthew 13:39.
6. They seduce people to believe error so as to stop them achieving God's plan for their lives. They seek to lead astray, tempt, corrupt, and to cause people to be obsessed with false ideas. 1 Timothy 4:1; Mark 13:22; 1 John 2:26.
7. They trouble people as in the case of Saul (1 Samuel 16:14).
The Hebrew word for "trouble" means "to terrify, to make fearful or afraid."
It means agitation of mind, perplexing and uneasiness.
8. They oppress people: "healing all that were oppressed of the devil." Acts 10:38.
"Oppress" means to "overburden in body or mind."
9. They vex people, meaning "to suffer at the hands of another, to harass, to mob, to experience pain" (Acts 5:16; Luke 6:18); "Vexed with unclean spirits".
"My daughter is grievously vexed with a devil." (Matthew 15:22).
10. They bind people: "whom Satan hath bound these 18 years." Luke 13:16.
This means "to tie up, confine, to fasten by binding cords around".
11. They deceive people: This is a sign of Christ's return. Matthew 24:4,5,11,24.
12. They possess people. They occupy, own and indwell a person, sometimes causing lunacy, blindness, and dumbness. Matthew 4:24.
13. They buffet people, meaning "to hit with blow after blow, to punch, to slap, and to fight against." 2 Corinthians 12:7.
14. They resist people, meaning they "stand up against, to act as an adversary, and to oppose." Zechariah 3:1-3.
15. They torment people (Revelation 9:1-11; 16:13-14).
16. They wrestle against us (Ephesians 6:12), seeking to pin us to the ground so we achieve nothing for God, or to throw us out of the ring or race of life for people's souls.

Question: What do we have to oppose them and to defend ourselves?

Answer: The Lord has given the believer mighty spiritual weapons to defeat the attacks of Satan:

1. The Word of God. Satan's power to deceive is due to people's ignorance of God's Word. God's people are often destroyed for lack of knowledge (Hosea 4:6). Jesus used the Word of God when He said "it is written" to defeat Satan (Matthew 4:1-10).
2. The Whole Armour of God. Ephesians 6:10-18. Truth, righteousness, gospel of peace, shield of faith, helmet of salvation, sword of the Spirit, praying and watching.
3. Jesus Christ living in us. At salvation, Jesus Christ, the Father and the Holy Spirit indwell the Christian. Greater is He that is in you than he that is in the world. (1 John 4:4).
4. The Filling and Power of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit filled believer has the power to withstand, fight and conquer all the power of the enemy.

“If I cast out devils by the Spirit of God.”

“First bind the strong man, and then he will spoil his goods.” Matthew 12:28,29.

5. Fellow believers in a local church. “Nevertheless, God that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus.” 2 Corinthians 7:6.
A reason for coming to church is for comfort, as believers use spiritual gifts to help each other.
6. Good angels ministering to us.
7. The Name of Jesus Christ. Acts 16:18.
8. The Blood of Jesus Christ cleansing us from sin. Revelation 12:11.

X. JESUS CHRIST’S SUPERIORITY TO ANGELS.

The Book of Hebrews in showing Christ’s perfection and superiority to the Old Testament system and persons, begins by showing Christ’s superiority to angels, who were highly esteemed by the Jews.

In Hebrews 1:2,3 Christ is given a seven-fold exalted position as:

1. Heir of all things (2). As the Son of God He is possessor or Lord of all things. All things are His “All things that the Father hath are mine.” (John 16:15; 17:10).
An heir is one who acquires anything. The title “heir” denotes His rank and dignity.
2. By whom also he made the worlds. v.2. (eternity, the universe).
Christ is the agent of creation, the Creator Himself. John 1:3,10; Colossians 1:16; Ephesians 3:9; 1 Corinthians 8:6.
3. Who being the brightness of His glory. v.3.
Brightness means radiated splendour. The rays of the sun are its “brightness”, or that by which the sun is seen and known. The sun itself we do not see; the beams which flow from it we do see. Hence, if God the Father be represented as the Sun (“The Lord God is a sun..” Psalm 84:11; Malachi 4:2), then Christ is the radiance of the sun. He is that by which we perceive or know God. “Neither knoweth any man the Father save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal Him.” (Matthew 11:27). As the sun’s rays are of the same substance as the sun, so is Christ of the same substance (full Deity) as God the Father.
“Glorify” means praise, applause, honour, dignity, splendour, dazzling light, excellence and perfection of God as resembling a bright light. This word is applied to:
 - the sun and stars. (1 Corinthians 15:40,41).
 - to the light Paul saw on the Damascus road. (Acts 22:11).
 - the shining of Moses face. (2 Corinthians 3:7).
 - the celestial light surrounding the angels. (Revelation 18:1).
 - to glorified saints (Luke 9:31,32).
 - to the dazzling splendour or majesty of God enthroned. (2 Thessalonians 1:9).
4. The express image of his person. v.3.
“Express image” means a character stamped. Christ is the exact resemblance of the Father, as an image is of the stamp. “Who is the image of the invisible God.” Colossians 1:15.
5. Upholding all things by the Word of His power. v.3.
Christ upholds or sustains the universe by His powerful word or command.
Proof that Christ is God omnipotent:
 - God spake, and it was done. (Psalms 33:9).
 - Jesus commanded the waves and winds, and they were still. (Matthew 8:26,27).
 - Jesus spoke to diseases and they departed, to the dead and they arose.
6. He had by Himself purged our sins.
By Himself = not by blood of bulls and lambs, but by his own blood.
Purged = purified, expiated (John 15:2)
= having made purification for our sins.
Cleansing us from all sin is why Christ came (1 John 1:7). Having done this:
7. He sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on High, His work of redemption being finished.

In Hebrews 1:4-14 we find seven Old Testament quotations, all of which prove the superiority of Christ to the angels. They are:

1. Christ has a more excellent name, “my Son” than the angels. 1:4,5.

This is quoted from Psalm 2:7, “The Lord hath said unto me, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.” Paul pinpointed the day of this begetting as the resurrection of Jesus Christ in Acts 13:33, “God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second Psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.” “Begotten” refers to the “Huios” (Son) entering the offices of Prophet, Priest and King. The name “sons of God” is applied to Christians (John 1:12; I John 3:1,2) and to angels (Genesis 6:2,4; Job 1:6; 2:1), but the argument here is that the name “my son” has never been given to any angel in particular.

From eternity past, Jesus Christ was God the Son.

At His incarnation, He humbled Himself to become a man.

In His resurrection He glorified His humanity, receiving back the eternal glory He had veiled.

2. Christ has a better relationship as the Son of David (1:5). This is quoted from 2 Samuel 7:14 “I will be his Father, and he shall be my son.” This promise was given to David to have a permanent heir/descendant to sit on His throne, to comfort David, after God forbid him from building the Temple. The immediate application was to David’s son, Solomon, whom God would love and discipline as a son (Psalm 89:27). The ultimate application is to Jesus Christ as the greater than Solomon, and the fulfiller of the Davidic Covenant.
3. Christ receives worship of all angels. 1:6. “Let all the angels of God worship Him.” God commanded all the angels to worship Christ, which proves that Jesus Christ is God. None of God’s angels would worship a mere creature, or heaven would be full of idolaters. Jesus Christ is not Michael the archangel, because Michael must worship Jesus as well. We only worship God, never a creature. “Worship him, all ye gods (angels).” Psalm 97:7.
4. Christ is served by angels. 1:7. “And of the angels he saith, Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.” This is quoted from Psalm 104:4. Angels often served Christ when He was on earth. (Matthew 4:11; Luke 22:43). Angels obey God’s will as the wind (spirits) and lightning (flame of fire), while the Son is Lord of all.
5. Christ is called “God enthroned”. 1:8. This is quoted from Psalm 45:6,7:
“But unto the Son he saith, thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever...”

Christ’s deity is proven here by Him owning the throne, and by Him being called “God”.

- i) Angels minister before the throne, they do not sit on the throne.

Psalm 110 teaches that Jesus Christ is now enthroned in glory, but not yet enthroned on earth. Both God and the Lamb own the one throne in heaven.”

“...proceeding out of the throne (of God and of the Lamb).” Revelation 22:1.

“but the throne (of God and of the Lamb) shall be in it.” Revelation 22:3.

- ii) The Father here calls the Son “God”, proving Jesus Christ’s Deity.

6. Christ is the Eternal Creator of all things. 1:10,11,12.

“And, Thou Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thy hands. They shall perish but thou remainest...”

This is quoted from Psalm 102:25-27 being addressed to JHVH.

Here in Hebrews 1:10-12, the writer applies it to Christ, hence calling Christ JHVH God. The angels did not lay the foundation of the earth, only Jesus Christ as God did that. He will one day fold up and change the old creation into a new universe. Everything around us changes, but Jesus Christ never changes, He is the same yesterday, today, and forever (Hebrews 13:8).

7. Christ as King of Kings sits on the Father’s right hand (1:13,14), the place of honour. This quotes Psalm 110:1. Christ applies this passage to Himself in Matthew 22:43,44.

Peter applies it to Christ in Acts 2:34,35 “until I make thine enemies thy footstool,” means to reduce Christ’s enemies to entire subjection. Ancient warriors stood on the necks of conquered kings as a sign of complete triumph over them.

Conclusion: No angel can lay claim to any of the above attributes of Christ. Christ is fully God and fully man. Angels serve Christ and us who are saved.

XI. SATAN'S TACTICS.

“Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.” 2 Corinthians 2:11.

Aim: To war a good warfare we must know our enemy's devices and put on the whole armour of God to defeat Satan's devices.

1. THE NAMES OF SATAN

- a) The Anointed cherub who covers. Ezekiel 28:14,16. Before he fell, he was a high ranking guardian for God. “Anointed” means that he had a special position.
- b) The Prince of this world. John 12:31; 16:11. Satan rules a world of unsaved men and fallen angels.
- c) The Prince of the power of the air. Ephesians 2:2.
- d) The Prince of demons, Beelzebub. Matthew 12:24; Luke 11:15.
- e) The god of this world. 2 Corinthians 4:4. His job is to blind the minds of unbelievers, lest they be saved.
- f) Lucifer. Isaiah 14:12, son of the morning.
- g) Satan means adversary or opposer. Zechariah 3:1; Revelation 12:9. He opposes God, His program and His people. This name occurs 52 times in the Bible.
- h) The Devil (35 times used). Luke 4:2,13; Revelation 12:9 means slanderer, one who trips up. He utters maliciously false reports that injure another's reputation. He seeks to slander God, Christ and believers.
- i) The Old Serpent, identifies his crafty deception, as with Eve. Revelation 12:9; Genesis 3:1,14
- j) The Great Dragon. Revelation 12:3,7,9 portrays him as a terrifying, destructive beast seeking the total devastation of Christians.
- k) The Evil one. John 17:15; 1 John 5:18. The Greek noun “ho poneros” shows Satan to be intrinsically wicked and corrupt, who seeks to corrupt others. The Greek article “ho” shows Satan to be a specific person, not just evil as a concept. Christ prayed to keep believers from the power of the evil one (John 17:15) in which the whole world lies (1 John 5:18).
- l) Destroyer. Revelation 9:11. Satan destroys physical and spiritual life.
- m) Deceiver. Revelation 12:9; 20:3. He continuously deceives the whole world, until Christ returns to defeat him. Too many Christians are ignorant of the “wiles of the devil”. Eph. 6:11.
- n) The spirit that now works in the children of disobedience. Ephesians 2:2.
- o) Murderer. John 8:44.
- p) Liar. John 8:44.
 - He abode not in the truth.
 - There is no truth in him.
 - It is his nature to lie.
 - He is a liar and the father of lies.

2. SATAN'S ACTIVITY AND TACTICS

Satan opposes and attacks God, nations, unbelievers and Christians.

a) GOD:

- i) Satan opposes God's person. Since Satan desired to be like the Most High, so his power and activities are directed against God. His attack on Adam was really an attack on God's character and control (Genesis 3:1-5). Satan induced Cain to murder Abel, a man of God (1 John 3:12). God is love and promotes love, whereas Satan is hateful and promotes hate (1 John 3:7-15). God is life & creates life, whereas Satan seeks to bring death (Hebrews 2:14).
- ii) Satan opposes God's program:
 1. He introduces counterfeit lying philosophies. He may deny God's existence or control of affairs (Psalm 14). To explain the universe, he substitutes evolution for creation, human progress for the need of divine salvation. He substitutes atheism, agnosticism and relativism for God's truth.
 2. He introduces counterfeit lying religions. Here we find:

- False ministers, Satan's ministers who transform themselves into angels of light (2 Corinthians 11:13-15). Satan may gain control of theological colleges or churches through a board of deacons or a disobedient preacher. He seeks to control and destroy a church's work for God.
 - False doctrines, which he spreads through demons "doctrines of devils" (1 Timothy 4:1-3), who teach righteousness by works.
 - False Christs. (1 John 2:18,22; 4:3).
 - False followers. Matthew 13:38,39. These profess to believe in Christ, but are Satan's counterfeits. These will sow discord among the brethren. Proverbs 6:19.
- b) NATIONS: He deceives the nations, leading them astray from God's truth. At Christ's return, Satan will be bound for 1,000 years "that he should deceive the nations no more." (Revelation 20:3). Upon his release he will go out to deceive the nations again. (Revelation 20:7,8-10). "The devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire..." (Revelation 20:10). He is the "god of this world", including unsaved men and evil angels. (2 Corinthians 4:4). He offered the nations to Christ in the wilderness temptation. Christ did not dispute Satan's right to make this offer, but Christ refused Satan's quick way of obtaining rule of the earth. (Matthew 4:8-10). Satan influences nations to oppose Israel and Christians (Daniel 10:13,20; "but Satan hindered us" 1 Thess. 2:18), and the spread of the gospel. During the tribulation, he will control the world through the Antichrist.
- c) UNBELIEVERS: Satan prevents people from accepting God's truth by:
- i) Snatching away the gospel (Luke 8:12). Some people who hear the gospel are prevented from understanding it, lest they believe it and are saved.
 - ii) Blinding people's minds to the gospel (2 Corinthians 4:3,4). He puts a barrier in people's minds to understanding the gospel. Perishing sinners hence think that the gospel sounds foolish and irrelevant (1 Corinthians 1:18).
 - iii) Building false religions (1 Timothy 4:1-3). He uses men who preach lies of salvation by human works, or he persuades men that there is no need of salvation, only progress.
 - iv) Promoting a false lifestyle (Ephesians 2:1-4) "In time past ye walked according to the course of this world....fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind". The philosophy of the age or "course of this world" is self-centred and self-promoting. It is based on pleasure, possessions and position. "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world...." (1 John 2:15-17). Satan energises the "sons of disobedience" to follow the world. Unbelievers being satisfied with the things of this world and materialism are kept from desiring a relationship with the living God.
- d) SATAN'S OPPOSITION TO CHRISTIANS: He seeks to defeat believers in their personal life and service to Christ. The wise Christian will be aware of Satan's tactics and guard against them (2 Corinthians 2:11), some of which are:
- i) Warring against Christians. What appears to be human opposition may really be Satan's attacks. We are not wrestling against "flesh and blood", but against spiritual forces of wickedness in high places (heavens). We must put on the whole armour of God to counter these attacks. Ephesians 6:10-18.
 - ii) Accusing and slandering Christians. Revelation 12:10. As the "devil" means slanderer, so he accuses us before God for our sins and imperfections. He slanders one believer against another, causing break in fellowship due to imagined wrongs of another believer. This is done to get believers out of good, soul-winning, missionary-minded churches, and hence to weaken the gospel outreach in the world. He also works on Christians with untaught consciences to engulf them in continual guilt and fear in order to cause them to hate the preacher for preaching against sin, when all they need to do is to confess and forsake their sins to remove their guilt.
 - iii) Planting doubts. Satan seeks to get us to:
 - Doubt God's goodness.
 - Doubt God's Word.

- Doubt God's concern for us.
 - He emphasises God's restrictions as unjust (Genesis 3:1).
 - He claims that God's warnings and Word are untrue. (3:4).
 - He claims God's interests as selfish, and limiting to man's development. (3:5).
- Hence, he maligns God's character and challenges God's authority.

iv) Tempting us to sin:

- a) To lie (Acts 5:3). Satan is the father of lies, and he tempts others to lie. To lie is to tell a falsehood in whole or in part for personal gain, and to the loss and hurt of another.
 - b) To sex sins. (1 Corinthians 7:5; 6:13-20). Satan presents a philosophy of the priority of bodily satisfaction. Fornication, adultery, homosexuality or masturbation comes from a preoccupation with bodily needs. These are based on false self-gratification. God has provided marriage for the normal expression of sexual needs.
 - c) To occupation with this world. (1 John 2:15-17; 5:19). The world is Satan's system built on self-promotion. Its philosophy and practice are anti-God. Satan seeks to influence and defeat us through "the lusts of the flesh" (pleasures), "the lusts of the eyes" (possessions), and the boastful "pride of life" (self-promotion). These attitudes affect all of us to some extent, knowingly or unknowingly. Some, such as Demas (2 Timothy 4:10) have fallen for it.
- v) To relying on human strength and wisdom. (1 Chronicles 21:1-8). Satan tempted David to have confidence in the number of His soldiers, and Peter to resist Jesus on the basis of his human wisdom. He moved the Corinthians to judge Paul's message and ministry according to human wisdom as being foolish and weak (1 Corinthians 1:18-25). Satan tries to get us to rely on our strength and wisdom because he can easily defeat what is purely human, since it is not based on God's word or power.
 - vi) To pride in spiritual matters. (1 Timothy 3:6). Satan attacks church leaders in order to destroy congregations. Hence Paul urged novices not to be pastors, lest being lifted up in pride, they fall. Any spiritual ability carries with it the danger of self-satisfaction and self-confidence which gives Satan an opportunity.
 - vii) To discouragement. (1 Peter 5:6-10). Satan would have us occupied with our difficulties and overcome with our cares. Peter tells us to cast all our cares upon Christ, for He cares for us. He then tells us to beware of Satan walking about as a roaring lion seeking to devour us. (1 Peter 5:7-8). Persecution, rejection, lack of appreciation, physical and spiritual difficulties may lead us to discouragement, despair and to defeat.
- viii) Persecution. (Revelation 2:10).
- ix) Preventing service (1 Thessalonians 2:18). Satan once thwarted Paul from coming to help the Thessalonians.
- x) Infiltrating local churches through:
- a) false teachers – we must test all things by God's Word.
 - b) false disciples - Satan sows evil seed.
- xi) Promoting division. Strife and anger give the devil a chance to promote division (Ephesians 4:26,27).
- xii) Counterfeiting. When Satan said, "I will be like God," he meant that he wanted to be worshipped as God. Thus he set up a rival religion, a complete imitation of all that God does, as seen in this list of counterfeits:
- Satan has a throne (Revelation 2:13).
 - Satan has doctrines of devils (1 Timothy 4:1).
 - Satan has a synagogue (Revelation 2:9 and 3:9).
 - Satan has a cup of devils and a communion table of devils (1 Corinthians 10:21).
 - Satan has a counterfeit fellowship with devils (1 Corinthians 10:20).
 - Satan transforms himself into an angel of light (2 Corinthians 11:14).
 - Satan has ministers that appear as ministers of righteousness (2 Corinthians 11:15).
 - Satan has false apostles (2 Corinthians 11:13), and false prophets (2 Peter 2:1).

- Satan has a Kingdom (Matthew 12:26).
- Satan does counterfeit miracles, signs and wonders (Revelation 16:14).
- Satan has a harlot church, Mystery Babylon to counterfeit the bride of Christ. (Rev. 17:5).
- Satan and his demons seek to be worshipped (1 Corinthians 10:20; Matthew 4:8-10; Revelation 9:20).
- Satan counterfeits the Holy Trinity, with his unholy trinity of Satan, Antichrist and the False Prophet.
- Satan wants to live in human bodies as the Holy Spirit does (John 13:27; 1 Cor. 6:19).
- Satan seals his followers with a name in their forehead which is the counterfeit of God's Name on His peoples' forehead. (Revelation 13:16 with 7:1-3).
- Satan counterfeits believers baptism by immersion with infant sprinkling.

XII. HOW MAY A DEMONICALLY OPPRESSED PERSON RECEIVE DELIVERANCE?

He must:

1. Receive Christ as Saviour. In Christ there is the position and power for deliverance.
2. Confessing sins to God. A person must judge his personal involvement in occult practices as rebellion against God and as the sin of siding with Satan. (1 John 1:9). They must confess family occult sins even back to grandparents. Daniel 9:4-6; Nehemiah 1:5-6.
3. Remove occult objects, books, music, images.
 Godly King Asa "took away the altars of the strange gods, and the high places, and broke down the images, and cut down the groves: and commanded Judah to seek the Lord God, and do the law and commandments....the Kingdom was quiet before him." (2 Chronicles 14:4,5).
 Ephesian converts destroyed their occult books (Acts 19:17-20). Many occult objects have a demon invoked curse on them, and open the door for Satan's influence. Occult friendships should be broken because they will try to pull you back.
4. Submit to God, resist the devil and he will flee from you (James 4:7). Christ promises forgiveness and deliverance to those who call upon His name for deliverance from the occult. Be confident about our position and authority in Christ. Ask: "Lord, what wilt thou have me to do?"
5. Cultivate your Christian life and gospel presentation. Get busy serving God. The devil finds great opportunity to tempt us if we are doing nothing for God. David gave into temptation when he should have been on the battlefield. (2 Samuel 11:1,2). We must be filled with the Holy Spirit daily. How? By:
 - a) Studying the Word of God daily brings growth and defence against Satan. (1 Peter 2:2)
 - b) Prayer achieves God's purposes as we ask and receive.
 - c) Christian fellowship at church brings encouragement and stability as we learn of God, praise God and encourage each other.
 - d) Sharing the gospel with the unsaved will strengthen our faith and knowledge, as well as actively warring against Satan. Unselfish dedication to God's work will assist in Satan's defeat, as we "love not our lives unto the death." (Revelation 12:11).
 - e) We must put on the whole armour of God (Ephesians 6:10,18). When we do these things, we will resist Satan in God's power and take his strongholds in people's lives (2 Corinthians 10:3,4).

People may enter Satan's occult bondage by family heredity, personal experience, or transference from an occultic person.

17. HOW TO LEAD A PERSON TO CHRIST

Five stages to be mastered are:

- I. Starting the conversation
- II. Verses to share and questions to ask
- III. How to challenge a person to receive Christ as their Saviour
- IV. Giving assurance of salvation.
- V. Getting the first follow-up appointment.

Use these questions by going through the "STOP" tract.

Ask for an appointment where you can go through this "STOP" tract without interruption.

I. STARTING THE CONVERSATION. HOW?

Question 1: Say: "This is for you." Hand the STOP tract to them and when they take it, say, "This explains how you can be sure of going to heaven, have eternal life and know God personally. Have you thought much about God before?"

Question 2: One question please: If you were to die tonight (or sometime) do you know 100% for sure if you would go to heaven? (No). If 'Yes' ask 'Why?' If they say 'I'm good' say 'God has different way'
Question 3: Would you like to be 100% sure of going to heaven? (Yes).

Question 4: This paper shows from the Bible how to be 100% sure of going to heaven. After they read the front page, say, "If you look inside you'll see it makes 4 points."

II. VERSES TO SHARE AND QUESTIONS TO ASK.

1. ALL HAVE SINNED (Sin causes problems for us and others)

Question 1: Would you be so kind as to read the first heading and verse underneath please? Draw line.

Question 2: What do you think is the main idea in this verse? (All have sinned). Ask him to circle 'sin'

Question 3: What does sin mean? (Breaking God's laws). These pictures explain what sin is.

Picture 1: This man is running away from God. He cares nothing about God or others. He only cares about himself. He is selfish. Do you know any selfish people? (Yes). We are all a bit selfish aren't we? Sin is selfishness, going our own way, putting ourselves first. Breaking the chief and second commandments of not loving God and our neighbour (Matt 22:38,39) makes us great sinners.

Picture 2: Sin separates us from God. A fight puts a wall between 2 friends. Our sins offend others so they avoid us. Our sins offend God, so sin separates us from God. We are sinners in 2 ways:

i) We are sinners by nature, having inherited a sin nature from Adam. ii) We are sinners by choice.

Picture 3: Imagine a scale of 0-100% perfection, God is 100% perfect, but we, compared with God, are about 0% perfect. Compared with some people we are "good", but compared with God's perfection we are all big sinners. Sin is falling short of God's standard of perfection.

Picture 4: Sin is breaking the Ten Commandments. Number 1 says "No other Gods", yet how often have we all put something or ourselves ahead of God, like money, sport, pleasure, self? If you think you've broken this, put a circle around 1. [continue this with each commandment up to number ten].

2 says 'no images or lucky charms.' Have you every had an idol or lucky charm? If 'yes' circle 2.

3: Have you ever used God's Name as a swear word, like "O my God" or "I swear to God"? Circle 3.

4: God gave Sabbath to Jews & Sunday to Christians. Ever missed church on Sunday? (yes). Circle 4.

5: Honour you mum & dad? Ever had a conflict with your mum or dad? (yes). Put circle around 5.

6: Don't murder. Ever killed someone? (No). Ever hated someone? (1 John 3:15). Hate=murder in mind

7: No adultery. Jesus said adultery is having sex thoughts to a woman he's not married to (Mt5:28).

8: Don't steal. Ever stolen something or borrowed & not returned? (yes). Put a circle around 8.

9: Don't tell lies. Ever told a lie? (yes). Put a circle around 9.

10: Don't covet. Ever wanted something you should not have? (yes). Put a circle around 10.

Question 4: Under the pictures it says "We are all great sinners compared with the Holiness of God?"

Do you agree that you, me and everybody in the world is a big sinner compared with God?

(Yes). If "Yes", put a tick (✓) on the left of this line please. Do you agree that sin creates problems?

Question 5: Do you want the God of the Bible, to be your God? If "Yes", put a tick (✓) on the left.

Quest 6: Do you want to finish with sin and come to be friends with God? If "Yes" tick the left.

2. PUNISHMENT ON SIN IS DEATH.

Question 1: Would you be so kind as to read the second heading and the 2 verses underneath please?

Question 2: We've just seen that we are all big sinners compared to God. (Put bracket next to the verse)

What is the consequence of sin? The wages of sin is death. Put a circle around death please. This means that because we have all sinned by breaking God's laws, we are all heading to death.

Question 3: What is death? 2 deaths: First death is when our body dies. The second death is worse.

Question 4: What is the second death in the last verse? (Lake of Fire). Put circle around lake of fire. This means that because we have all sinned, the law of God says that we are all heading to death, hell & the Lake of Fire. This is bad news. Nobody wants to go to the lake of fire as the penalty for our sins.

Question 5: Why did God make the lake of fire? Remember that Satan was once an angel in heaven who led a rebellion against God. He wanted to take over the universe. He broke the laws of God. God made the lake of fire as a punishment for Satan and his angels. (Draw 2 arrows from Law to Lake of Fire. Write Satan & 'us' next to each). We humans have also broken the law of God. The law must be applied equally to all law-breakers. For example, if I rob the bank, I go to jail. If you rob the bank, you go to jail. Satan broke the law, Satan is going to the lake of fire. We humans have broken the law, so the law says we should go to the lake of fire. This is bad news. God understands that there is a difference between Satan and humans. What is it? Answer: Satan chose to get a sin nature, but we humans were born with a sin nature that we inherited from Adam. We did not choose to get a sin nature. So God made a way out of the lake of fire for people, but not for Satan. What is this way out? Can you read the second part of Romans 6:23 please?

Question 6: What is a "gift?" (free present, take it or leave it, receive it or reject it). Circle around gift.

Question 7: What is "eternal life?" (going to heaven when we die, knowing God now as a good friend.

Question 8: Who do we get eternal life through? (Jesus Christ our Lord). Put circle around Jesus Christ

Question 9: Can you please read Ephesians 2:8,9? Put a line next to this in the margin. From this verse Question 10: What is the wrong way to get eternal life? Answer: "Not of works." Circle this.

We don't get it through our good works, or any religion, but only through Jesus Christ. Good works never cancel bad works. If I rob the bank & go to jail, being good to the prison officer won't get me out of jail. Here we have a "tug of war". The law of God is pulling us to the lake of fire. The justice of God is pulling us to the lake of fire. But the love of God wants us to go to heaven. What is the solution?

3. JESUS CHRIST TOOK ALL OUR PUNISHMENT

Question 1: Would you be so kind as to read the 3rd heading & the verse under it please? Draw line.

Question 2: What do you think is the main idea in this verse? (Christ died for us). Put circle over this.

Question 3: What does this mean? Explain the sketch:

Think back 2000 years ago to when Jesus Christ was dying on the cross (draw cross). God knew about everybody who ever lived from the start to the end of the human race (draw a time line from start to end). God knew about you and me living now in 1995 (draw 2 lines). God knew about every sin that I did from the day I was born till the day I will die. God knew about every sin that you would do from the day you were born to the day you will die. God knew about everybody's sins who ever lived in the past and God knew about everybody's sins who would ever live in the future (draw many lines before and after 1995). When Jesus was dying on the cross, God took all the sins off you, me and everybody who ever lived past, present and future, transferring all those sins off us, and placing them on to Jesus Christ. God regarded Jesus as the sinner and God the Father made Jesus Christ take the full punishment on the cross in about 6 hours for all our sins, instead of us being punished forever in the lake of fire. (draw a circle around the timeline and draw an arrow on to Christ and an arrow into the lake of fire).

"The Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all". Isaiah 53:6. Draw bracket around this verse.

Jesus became the SAVIOUR (sin-bearer, saving agent, substitute) of all people, taking the full punishment for all of our sins on the cross instead of us being punished forever for our sins in the lake of fire. He became the "SAVIOUR of all people". Jesus is now "AVAILABLE to be our SAVIOUR". Draw circles around "Saviour" and "available". Jesus is now the Saviour of all people. He is ready and available to be your Saviour, if you want Him to be. So right now, all your, mine and everybody's past, present and future sins have been paid for by Jesus Christ on the cross.

Note: People have estimated that 100 billion people have lived in recorded history (write 100 billion). Can you imagine how you would feel being punished forever for your sins in the lake of fire? Multiply that punishment that you would have gone through by 100 billion people's punishment? Can you imagine all that punishment being squeezed onto one man, Jesus Christ, in about 6 hours? That's what Jesus Christ went through on the cross for you and for me. Jesus said, "It is finished" saying that every sin that you, me and everybody ever did, Jesus Christ has been punished for them in full on the cross. The door into heaven is open for all people to enter. How may we enter heaven? Point 4 tells us how:

4. a) BELIEVE that Jesus Christ
- is GOD the SON (100% God and 100% man)
 - DIED FOR OUR SINS, IN OUR PLACE
 - ROSE AGAIN BODILY from the DEAD, then
- b) RECEIVE JESUS CHRIST as their SAVIOUR.

Question 1: Would you be so kind as to read Point 4 please? Put a bracket around the left of the box.

Explanation: Have you heard that we must believe in Christ to enter Heaven? What does this mean?

Answer: Believe has 2 parts. We must believe 3 things in our mind, then act on them by doing part 4b.

Question 2: Do you believe that Jesus Christ is 100% God and 100% man? (Yes). Put a tick next to it.

Question 3: Do you believe that Jesus Christ died on the cross in our place being punished for all of our past, present and future sins to become our Saviour? (Yes). Draw a tick next to it.

Question 4: Do you believe that Jesus Christ rose from the dead bodily after 3 days & is alive today? (If yes, put a tick). This means you are now 90% into heaven. All you need to do now is to tell God that you now receive Jesus Christ as your Saviour. This means that you now accept Christ's Blood-Sacrifice on the cross as the full payment for your sins, trusting Christ alone to save you, not your good works or any religion. Then we are given free forgiveness and eternal life right now.

Explanation of 3 Pictures: It's like God offers us all a pardon, which is Jesus Christ as our Saviour.

When we receive Christ as our Saviour (now point to the second picture), all of our sins & guilt fall off us, & (point to the third picture) Jesus Christ has taken the full punishment for our sins on our behalf.

He reads bottom line. We can be sure of this because of promises God has given us to claim in the Bible Back page: These 3 verses each have a condition that we must claim and a promise that God gives us.

• John 1:12 Question 1: Would you read the top verse please? Draw a bracket around this verse.

Question 2: What must we do in first part of this verse? (receive Christ as our Saviour). Circle receive

Question 3: What do we then become in second part of this verse? (sons of God). Circle sons of God

Explanation: This means we get born into God's family. God becomes our Heavenly Father. We become His sons. We then call God "Dear Heavenly Father". We are "Born Again." You know how you were born into your parent's family? (yes). That was your first birthday. When you receive Christ as your Saviour you get born again into God's family. You get a second birthday. Would it be nice to be a son of God?

• Romans 10:13 Question 1: Would you be so kind as to read the middle verse please? Draw bracket.

Question 2: What must we do in the first part of the verse? (Call on Jesus Christ to save us). Circle call Question 3: When we call on Christ to save us, what happens to us? (we shall be saved). Circle saved.

Question 4: Saved from what? (Lake of Fire). Ask him to draw a circle around 'lake of fire'.

Question 5: If this person dies 50 years later, where would they go to? (heaven).

Question 6: Why? (Because they called on Christ to save them and He saved them.)

• I John 5: 12,13 Question 1: Would you be so kind as to read the third verse, please? Draw bracket.

Question 2: If a person has the Son by receiving Christ as Saviour, what do they have? (eternal life).

Question 3: If a person has not got the Son as Saviour, what is true? (They don't have eternal life)

Question 4: Is it possible to know for sure that we have eternal life?(yes). Please circle Son, life, know.

III. HOW TO CHALLENGE A PERSON TO RECEIVE CHRIST AS SAVIOUR.

Do you see the 2-ways picture? This shows that there are 2 ways in life: the way of death leading to hell and the way of life leading to heaven. We are all born on the way of death leading to hell due to sin, but when we receive Christ as our Saviour, we pass from death to life and from hell to heaven.

Question 1: You may as: "How may we receive Jesus Christ as our Saviour?" Answer: We must claim the promises in the top three verses. If we receive Christ as Saviour, we become sons of God. If we call on Christ to save us, we shall be saved. If we receive the Son as our Saviour, we are given eternal life.

Question 2: These promises are summarised in the prayer at the bottom of the page. Would you be so kind as to read it quietly to yourself to see if it makes sense? Draw a bracket on the left side of this.

Question 3: Does it make sense? (yes).

Question 4: Does this prayer express what you honestly want God to do? (yes).

Question 5: God is in this room now. He hears all we say & think. If you tell this to God & mean it, then God will hear you, Jesus Christ will save you, give you eternal life & you'll become a son of God. Because this makes sense, says what you want God to do and Jesus is here, would you like to tell this to God right now? To make it easy, we could pray this to God together, a few words at a time after me. Would that be OK? (yes). (He prays the prayer at the bottom of the page, a phrase at a time, after you).

IV. HOW TO GIVE ASSURANCE OF SALVATION

• Romans 10:13 Question 1: Would you be so kind as to read the second top verse please.

Question 2: Just then, did you call on Christ to save you from your sins and the lake of fire, take you to heaven when you die, and give you the gift of eternal life? (yes).

Question 3: Were you honest? (yes).

Question 4: Then, what does God say that you are now? (saved).

Question 5: Saved from what? (sins and the lake of fire).

Question 6: If you died now, where would you go? (Heaven).

Question 7: Why? (because I called on Christ to save me and God says I'm saved).

Question 8: If we call on Christ to save us, would he say yes or no? Yes. "Him that comes to me..."

• John 1:12 Question 1: Would you read the top verse please?

Question 2: Just then, did you receive Jesus Christ as your Saviour? (yes)

Question 3: What does God say that you are now? (A son of God). You are now in God's Family. God is now your Heavenly Father and you are His son. You may now call God, "Dear Heavenly Father." This is called being "BORN AGAIN." Today is your second birthday.

Question 4: Would you like to write today's date under the prayer? (They sign and date tract & keep it).

• 1 John 5: 12,13 Question 1: Would you be so kind as to read the third verse please?

Question 2: Did you receive Jesus Christ the Son as your Saviour? (yes)

Question 3: Since you now have the Son, what do you also have? (eternal life)

Question 4: If you died tonight, where would you go? (Heaven)

Question 5: Why? (because you have Christ as your Saviour)

Question 6: Can you know for sure that you have eternal life? (yes)

Question 7: Why? (Because God says, "that ye may know that ye have eternal life).

• John 5:24 Question 1: Would you please read the verse next to the diagram?

Question 2: What 3 things do you now have?(eternal life, no condemnation, passed from death to life).

• John 10:28 Question 1: Is it possible to lose eternal life?

Question 2: Would you read John 10:28 please?

Question 3: What does "never perish" mean? (never lose eternal life. We can, however lose rewards).

Question 1: Romans 10:9 is a test to prove you are truly saved. 2 conditions are true if you are saved.

Firstly, you have already told me that you believe God raised Christ from the dead. True? (yes).

Secondly, you have not yet had a chance to confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus. This means that if you can tell just one person, "I have received the Lord Jesus Christ as my Saviour" it means you are truly saved. Would you like to tell me or a friend that you have received Christ as your Saviour? (yes) Ask him to tell you or someone else now. Shake hands with him & say, "Welcome into God's family".

Question 2: God knows all about you and me, but we don't know all about God. How can we learn more about God? By reading the Bible daily, starting at John or Matthew, coming to church, praying.

Question 3: Who do you know that you would like to see saved? When can we meet them to tell them?

V. HOW TO GET THE FIRST BIBLE STUDY?

Question 1: Give him "Established in the Faith". Ask: Which of these subjects in front interest you?"

Question 2: Would it be possible for us to meet together sometime in the next few days to look at them? (yes).

Question 3: When would suit you? Get his name, phone number and date. Visit him. 96

TRINITY = "ONE GOD" with "3 PARTS" or 3 "PERSONS" = FATHER, SON AND HOLY SPIRIT

Matthew 28:19 ...baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

1 MAN

1 GOD

JESUS CHRIST IS THE ONLY BEGOTTEN (MONOGENES) SON (HUIOS) OF GOD.

1. In the Greek language there are two words for Son.

- a) TEKNON is a boy from parents.
- TEKNON is never used to describe Jesus as Son of God.
- b) HUIOS means "same nature as."

Example: Son of peace has the nature of peace.

2. ONLY BEGOTTEN in Greek is MONOGENES.

- a) MONO means "one and the same".
 - b) GENES means "genetics, same in every detail".
- So Jesus Christ has the same nature as God, and is the same as GOD in every detail. So Jesus Christ is fully God.

Question 1. What is the difference between a man and a pig?

Answer: A man has a body, soul, and spirit. A pig has a body and soul, but no spirit.

Question 2. When you are asleep in bed and the alarm rings, your Soul tells your body to get up and go to work. Your body says "No" but your Soul says I am boss, get up.

18. SOUL WINNING TEST QUESTIONS

1. State 5 fishing places (places to meet unsaved people):
 - a).....
 - b)
 - c)
 - d)
 - e)
2. Give 5 questions to ask to start a Soul Winning conversation:
 - a)
 - b)
 - c)
 - d)
 - e)
3. Give 4 stages in leading a person to Christ:
 - a)
 - b)
 - c)
 - d)
4. A. Explain ‘all have sinned’ according to the tract to someone.
Get that person to sign that you have done it correctly:
Signature:.....
- B. Give 4 questions to ask under Point 1:
 - a)
 - b)
 - c)
 - d)
5. A. Explain ‘punishment on sin is death’ to someone.
Get that person to sign that you have done it.
Signature:.....
- B. Give 6 questions to ask under Point 2:
 - a)
 - b)
 - c)
 - d)
 - e)
 - f)
6. A. Give 3 questions to ask under point 3,
“JESUS TOOK ALL OUR PUNISHMENT”:
Q1:
- Q2:
- Q3:
- B. Explain “Christ died for us” to someone, drawing the sketch.
Get that person to sign that you have done it correctly.
Memorize this explanation word for word.
Signature:.....

7. A. Explain to someone what it means to “believe in or on Christ” using 4 questions:

- Q1:
- Q2:
- Q3:
- Q4:

8. A. Ask 3 questions of John 1:12.

- Q1:
- Q2:
- Q3:

Write out the explanation that follows:

.....

.....

.....

B. Ask 6 questions of Romans 10:13.

- Q1:
- Q2:
- Q3:
- Q4:
- Q5:
- Q6:

C. Ask 4 questions of I John 5:12,13.

- Q1:
- Q2:
- Q3:
- Q4:

9. Explain the “TWO-WAYS” Diagram to someone.

Get that person to sign that you have done it correctly:

Signature:

10. Give 5 questions used to challenge a person to receive Christ as Saviour.

- Q1:
- Q2:
- Q3:
- Q4:
- Q5:

Get that person to sign that you have done it correctly.

Signature:

11. Give 8 questions to ask of Romans 10:13 to give a person assurance of salvation:

- Q1:
- Q2:
- Q3:
- Q4:
- Q5:
- Q6:
- Q7:
- Q8:

12. Give 4 questions to ask of John 1:12 to give assurance of salvation:
 Q1:
 Q2:
 Q3:
 Q4:
13. Give 7 questions to ask of I John 5:12,13 to give assurance of salvation:
 Q1:
 Q2:
 Q3:
 Q4:
 Q5:
 Q6:
 Q7:
14. Give 2 questions to ask of John 5:24 to give assurance of salvation:
 Q1:
 Q2:
15. Give 3 questions to ask of John 10:28 that help reinforce the security of the believer:
 Q1:
 Q2:
 Q3:
16. In Romans 10:9, what 2 conditions will be true if he is genuinely saved:
 Test 1:
 Test 2:
17. What 2 things do you give him after he is saved?
 a)
 b)
18. What 5 pieces of information do you ask him for after he is saved?
 a)
 b)
 c)
 d)
 e)
19. What 10 things should you tell a new Christian after he is saved?
 a)
 b)
 c) d) e) f) g) h) i)
 g)

20. How will you get him to come to church?

- a)
- b)

21. Name 10 lessons you may teach him in follow-up Bible studies:

- a)
- b)
- c)
- d)
- e)
- f)
- g)
- h)
- i)
- j)

The whole assessment is worth 100 marks, the above being worth 50. To obtain the remaining 50 marks for this subject, use the above approach with 10 people, either through door-knocking, open air or somewhere else. Bring one person to church. Try this approach. It contains the Word of God. It really works.

IF NOT A MISSIONARY SOON A "MISSING-ARY"

19. ADVANTAGES of using the ‘STOP’ TRACT in SOUL WINNING Problem: Why is the world not yet won to Christ?

Why are Christians fearful of evangelizing?

Answer: It is because most Christians do not know how to share the Gospel clearly with an unbeliever. The sad fact is that 80% of Christians have never led anyone to Christ.

The average Christian does not know:

- a) How to start a conversation with an unbeliever in an unembarrassing way, nor does he know:
- b) What verses to use to share the gospel, nor the logical order of the verses, nor the questions to ask to keep the person’s interest, nor does he know:
- c) How to challenge a person to receive Christ as Saviour, nor does he know:
- d) How to give assurance of salvation to a new convert.
- e) As well, he is scared of rejection, so he keeps quiet.

Because of these problems in a Christian’s mind, he, being fearful of rejection and failure, never even bothers to attempt to share the gospel and so he remains spiritually unfruitful, never seeing anyone saved, and justifies this lack of fruit by saying things like:

- a) I don’t have the gift of evangelizing, that others have.
- b) It’s not up to us to share the gospel, it is the work of the Holy Spirit.
- c) I do other things well like teaching the Bible, etc.
- d) Don’t make me feel guilty by telling me that I should share the gospel.

Sharing the gospel by using the STOP tract is a presentation that any average Christian can learn to use successfully.

The only reason you will not see results from this pamphlet is if you don’t try to use it. Soul winning is like anything else in life. It must be learned.

Do you find these reasons for using the STOP tract convincing enough for you to use it regularly to share the Gospel?

1. People can understand the gospel better with a visual aid.
2. Getting them to read Roman road verses keeps them concentrating on the plan of salvation more than by you just telling them.
3. When you ask them to tell you what a verse means, it is their interpretation and they consider their interpretation to be right. They will never argue with their interpretation.
4. People will always remain interested as long as they are doing the talking.
You thus keep their concentration on the gospel message.
5. A good conversation must be a two-way dialogue, not just you doing all the talking.
6. When you ask questions you know by their answers if they understand the gospel message.
7. The STOP pamphlet keeps you on a logical path.
If they side-track you, you can always bring them back to the Gospel.
8. If they don’t get saved then, they may get saved later at home.
9. New Christians can easily lead people to Christ because they don’t need to memorise verses. The verses are all written out. They just need to be able to read and ask others to read verses.
10. The new Christian can easily memorise Romans 10:13 to get assurance of salvation.
11. They can record their spiritual birthday.
12. They can instantly get security of salvation by reading John 10:28.
13. It is a proven workable method when followed correctly.
14. It contains all the key verses on salvation and omits the non essential verses.
15. It stops you from talking too much and too long.
16. It is the cheapest tract available (2 cents a copy. You may print it copyright free.)
17. It leads easily to follow up of the new Christian by using the Answers Book.
18. Several pictures describe each concept. For example:
 - 4 pictures describe “all have sinned”
 - 3 pictures describe “penalty of sin”
 - 1 picture describes “Christ paid penalty”
 - 3 pictures describe “how to receive Christ as Saviour”
 - 1 picture describes “passing from death to life”

19. It has BIG PRINT so that old people with bad eyesight can read it.
20. Thirteen pictures make it interesting to read.
Ten key Scripture verses hit the mark.
21. The STOP tract is meant to be gone through and explained to people to lead them to Christ, not just given out.
22. It is available in twenty languages.
23. Everyone gets used to using the one tract.
This removes the confusion of using various tracts.
One good workable tract is better than 100 unfamiliar tracts.
24. It takes the fear out of starting a soul winning conversation. It's as easy as giving out a tract.
Give it to a person as a conversation starter:
Say, "This pamphlet explains how to be sure of going to heaven. If you died sometime do you know 100% for sure that you would go to heaven?" Would you like to be sure? This shows how.
25. This approach has been tested, tried and shown to work thousands of times over 30 years of soul winning.
Every bug has been ironed out of it.
26. It is short, simple, not complicated, and easy to use.
27. Instructions on how to use it are in THE "ANSWERS" BOOK, chapter 17.
28. It takes the pressure off you starting the conversation because the tract becomes the unbeliever's focus of attention, not you.
29. It takes the pressure off you not knowing what to say as the tract tells you what to say.
30. Multiplication of souls saved, soul winners trained, disciples and soul-winning pastors accelerates more quickly if everyone gets used to using the same tract, as well as training others in the use of the one tract.

20. MISSIONARY STRATEGY and DUTY STATEMENT

This is the mission strategy and duty statement that Liberty Baptist Church (LBC) requires of missionaries and pastors it sends out to a foreign mission field. LBC intends to have field representatives to visit and encourage affiliated pastors and churches. Our missionaries' duties are to:

1. Meet key national Independent Baptist pastors in foreign countries.
2. Give a copy of our LBC Statement of Faith to every pastor to see if they can agree to work with us on the basis of full agreement with our doctrine and outreach strategy.
3. Translate and print STOP tracts and "Established in the Faith" books, train pastors, showing workers how to use them properly. Distribute them to many local churches free of charge.
 - a) Find loyal, godly Baptist Pastors in some country. Email "Established in the Faith" book to them.
 - b) Ask him to find a good Christian printer to quote the cost to print 3000-5000 copies of this book.
 - c) Email the pdf of this book to the printer with printing instructions. Ask him to send you a draft.
 - d) If the draft copy is 100% correct, send 50% of the cost to your Christian friend to give to printer.
 - e) Ask your Christian friend to visit the printer to check the master and the early printing.
 - f) Pay the final 50% on completion. Ask your friend to give these to all his churches.
 - g) He should teach them how to use this book, explaining the charts and How to use Stop tract.
 - h) He should ask these pastors which other churches may want 50 copies of this book.
 - i) Take more copies of Stop tract and this book to these other churches. Teach them how to use it.
4. Conduct a pastors school to teach pastors, workers, and students:
 - a) how to use the STOP tract to do soul winning;
 - b) LBC Bible Doctrine and Statement of Faith;
 - c) answers to major false doctrines in their area;
 - d) how to disciple their people, and get their people discipling by multiplication;
 - e) how to use the ANSWERS book as a teaching tool; and
 - f) how pastors can become self supporting.
5. Visit existing churches to teach soul winning, to distribute STOP tracts, and start soul winning outreach programs.

6. Visit new churches willing to affiliate with LBC to assist them with tracts, Bibles, etc.
7. Endeavour to start a Bible College to be taught and administered by national workers.
8. If LBC sends and supports a missionary, he must be 100% loyal to and under the authority of LBC and not under the authority of any other religious organisation.
If he is not willing to work according to these strategy guidelines, he disqualifies himself from LBC support. If he changes his doctrinal position after going to the mission field, his support is to be cut off after 2 unheeded warnings.
9. LBC members shall review annually the activities, efficiency, and appropriate level of financial support of each missionary.
10. The missionary must present the gospel in one session with unsaved people and not spread the one gospel presentation over months or years. Every effort must be made to make the gospel his first message to unsaved people. He must challenge unsaved people to receive Christ as Saviour after each gospel presentation. Sharing the gospel to unsaved people must take precedence over teaching other Scripture unless the other Scripture is used as a brief background to the gospel message. He must not delay giving the gospel to unsaved people lest they die and go to hell.
11. He shall conduct individual and group discipleship Bible studies in churches.
12. He shall coordinate nationals to start other Independent Baptist churches of the LBC doctrine.
13. The missionary must only use tracts approved by LBC.
14. The "Jesus" video shall be used where possible in outreach to other areas.
15. He shall challenge believers to be baptised as soon as possible after salvation in the local Independent Baptist church.
16. He must present the gospel using the STOP tract at least once every week.
17. The missionary must sign that if he stops doing or believing these things that he shall tell us so we can assess if his support is to be continued or not. He shall be asked to show evidence of his missionary activities to substantiate his adherence to LBC doctrine.
18. He shall keep a missionary journal including - daily narrative, summary of events, living conditions, new needs; statistics, name and number saved and baptised; date of Bible seminars; contacts, resources available (eg. clinics, transport); financial records; interesting events (eg. chief getting saved, new areas of opportunity).
19. Each national church shall be independent and Baptist in doctrine, solely responsible for their own decisions. There shall not be an external hierarchy telling local churches what to do. LBC shall act in an advisory capacity to the local church and supporting the local church by providing tracts, workers handbooks, Bibles and other doctrinally sound material.
In return, LBC fellowship expects local churches to:
 - a) fellowship in harmony with other churches in the fellowship;
 - b) use STOP tracts (or other LBC approved tracts) to rapidly spread the gospel to their people.
 - c) seek to train new pastors in LBC Bible Colleges, not in other Colleges unless LBC approved.
 - d) be loyal to other LBC churches; and not to sow discord among the brethren. (Prov. 6:16-19).
20. He shall communicate with LBC at least every 3 months to give an update on the mission work and to advise of any activities in his mission area that may influence or restrict him in conducting his mission work. These activities could be political, military, social, environmental or religious. He must inform LBC immediately of any activities that place his ministry or health at risk.
21. He shall provide accurate and reliable records of all expenditure.
22. He shall keep records in a book of the names of people saved to assist him in their follow up, to see them baptised and regular in church attendance. This record could be extended to include the names of potential converts.
23. Members of LBC may designate special offerings to specific needs such as printing of tracts, Bibles, buildings, books, national pastors' support.
24. Missionaries sent and supported by LBC must have a proven track record of leading people to Christ in Australia using our soul winning approach. Each national church should contribute to another country's LBC church missions project.

21. WHY CHRISTIANS SHOULD DO SOUL-WINNING?

Bible Reading: 2 Corinthians 5:3-21; Proverbs 11:30

I. WHAT IS SOUL-WINNING?

Soul Winning is starting a conversation with an unsaved person, and sharing God's plan of Salvation with him, from the Bible, so that he clearly understands HOW he may receive Christ as his Saviour, and have eternal life. It is leading a person to Christ.

II. WHY SHOULD WE DO SOUL-WINNING?

These reasons must be firmly grounded in our minds, and we must teach them to every person that we disciple as soon as possible.

1. God commands us to. "Go and preach the gospel to every creature". Mark 16:15.
2. That is why Christ came. "The Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost" Luke 19:10
3. We must ALL appear before the Judgment Seat of Christ to receive REWARDS for faithfully serving Christ. II Corinthians 5:10.
4. Because of HELL - "knowing the terror of the Lord, we persuade men". II Corinthians 5:11. Hell is HOT, Heaven is SWEET, and JESUS SAVES". See Luke 16:19-31; Mark 9:42-48.
5. THE LOVE OF CHRIST Compels us. II Corinthians 5:14.
6. People are BLESSED by being saved, and by becoming a new creature. II Corinthians. 5:17.
7. God has given us the MINISTRY (Job) of Reconciliation. II Corinthians 5:18.
This job is to bring God and man together.
8. We are AMBASSADORS for CHRIST. II Corinthians 5:20.
9. So Christ will say to us: "Well done thou good and faithful servant." Matthew 25:21.
10. Soul - Winners are the BEST Christians. Matthew 4:19.
11. Soul - Winners will shine as the stars forever. Daniel 12:3.
12. So that we won't be ashamed before Christ. 1 John 2:28.
13. There is a great need, but few labourers (Soul winners). Matthew 9:36-38.
14. JESUS was a soul - winner. John 4; Luke 19:10.
15. Not to have BLOODY HANDS. Ezekiel 3:17,18.
16. We have very little time to do soul-winning (John 9:4). We can't do S.W. in heaven, only on Earth.
17. Soul - Winning and Disciple - making is the only hope to save Australia from sin, judgment and bad government. Ezekiel 22:30.
18. We'll PERISH without a VISION of Soul Winning and Disciple Making. Proverbs 29:18.
19. Soul - Winning glorifies Christ. When people get saved, they praise God.
20. Soul - Winners are WISER, know the Bible BETTER, and have LESS FEAR.
21. GIVE (the Gospel), and it shall be given unto you. Luke 6:38.
Look after God's interests and He'll look after yours.
22. To plant and build Soul-Winning churches all over the world.
23. To HURT SATAN and to make heaven rejoice. Luke 15:3-7.
24. It's a PRIVILEGE that angels don't have. Acts 10:3-8.
25. Those you win to Christ will thank you in heaven, and love you always.
26. God gives greater opportunities for service (in this life and the next) to those who are faithful in little things such as Soul-Winning. Matthew 25:21.
27. It's great to see God use you.
28. If we don't win them to Christ, the world or cults will win them for Satan.
29. "WOE is unto me if I preach NOT the gospel". 1 Corinthians 9:16; Luke 12:47.
30. Soul-Winning is the most exciting way to spend your life.
31. You set a MULTIPLICATION CHAIN going that may have millions of people in it. 2 Timothy 2:2
32. JESUS is COMING SOON!!
33. Soul-Winning increases your love for people and for God.
34. Example of Christians in the past e.g. martyrs. Revelation 17:6.
35. It is the BEST WAY to MAKE FRIENDS.

36. It makes you HAPPY and brings UNITY in your church.
37. You may win a great person to Christ.
38. Today, with modern technology such as international air transport, a missionary can fly to the mission field overseas in 24 hours. He can link up with national workers in third world countries to train them, and provide them with tracts, Bibles, books and medical clinics to win thousands of spiritually hungry people to Christ. He can be vaccinated against malaria and other tropical diseases that killed thousands of missionaries last century. We can print and distribute vast quantities of literature to win and train millions of people for Christ and Bible truth.
39. The wealth that we have in the West can be used to multiply the gospel and to build many churches in the Third World.
40. Developing countries are very open and hungry for the Gospel. We should take advantage of these open doors in Africa, India, China, Philippines, Eastern Europe, and South American countries to saturate these countries with literature, the gospel and true Bible doctrine.
41. Our life's goal should be great usefulness to God by doing Soul-Winning.
42. You may die tomorrow and have no more chances to do Soul-Winning.
43. You may be surprised by the prosperity that will come to you by Soul-Winning. Ecclesiasties 11:6.

Bad Consequences of Churches that Quit Soul-Winning.

I. Personal Consequences.

1. You are making a conscious decision to deliberately disobey God. (Matthew 28:18-20; Mark 16:15). Those who don't do SW because they are ignorant, are less blameworthy than those who know how to do it and don't do it. Stopping SW is not ignorance, but a deliberate decision to disobey God.
2. When you deliberately disobey God by quitting SW, your heart will become cold, hard, guilty and indifferent to the needs of others. (Zechariah 7:8-13). God wanted Israel to show His love to the world, but Israel stopped their ears. So God stopped His ears to their cry when they fell under God's judgment.
3. You Grieve the Holy Spirit, by quitting SW. (Ephesians 4:30). We are not programmed to carry guilt. We have three choices when faced with guilt: a) Confess it to God, b) Transfer the guilt to others by blaming them, c) Close your ears to the Holy Spirit's voice and sear your conscience.
4. You lose the sense of God's presence in your life, you become unstable and double minded with one foot in the world and one foot in church.

II. Ministry Consequences.

5. You are no longer a part of God's great program: "repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations,..." (Luke 24:46). When we fall in line with God's program, we become a SW church. (Christ came to seek and to save that which was lost. Luke 19:10). Christ passed His program onto all churches today. The centre of a church is SW or it will be something else, such as music, drama, etc.. If you go SW, everything else comes together, such as Bible study, follow up, more young men training to be preachers, prayer, zeal, rebuking sin, hating worldliness and false religion, etc.
6. Those who quit SW become critical of soul winners, soul winning, running buses, standards, holy living, and accuse us of legalism. They quit soul winning, so they attack soul winners. The mark of spirituality is: a) Not a big crowd. You can get a crowd by carnal methods, b) Not a lot of money, but c) Changed lives.

III. Community Consequences.

7. No Lighthouse in the community. People need to know that someone still believes the Bible and its standards of holiness. When you quit SW, there's no true prophet in your community.
8. Old Landmarks get removed. We must show the community how far they have moved from the Bible.
9. World missions will die as non-SW churches lose their vision.
10. Our children won't know how to win the lost, so they depart from SW and Bible standards. We can't pass on to the next generation what we don't know.

Conclusion: Remember the consequences of turning back.

Watch Youtube explanation: "STOP Tract – How to be sure of heaven (part 1,2)"

STOP!

And think "Where will you spend eternity"?

THE GIFT OF GOD IS ETERNAL LIFE!

HAVE YOU RECEIVED IT?

Jesus Christ said, "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." Matthew 11:28

"Seek ye the LORD while He may be found, call ye upon Him while He is near: Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man (forsake) his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and He will have mercy upon him; and (let him return) to our God, for He will abundantly pardon." Isaiah 55:6,7

HOW can we be SURE of having ETERNAL LIFE?
We must KNOW 4 things:

1. ALL HAVE SINNED

"For ALL HAVE SINNED, and come short of the glory of God."

Romans 3:23

Sin is:

Putting self first

Separation from God

Coming short of God's perfect standard

1. No other Gods
2. No graven images
3. Don't take God's name in vain
4. Keep Sabbath day Holy
5. Honour your father and mother

6. Don't murder
7. Don't commit adultery
8. Don't steal
9. Don't bear false witness
10. Don't covet

Sin is disobeying God's Law - the Bible

• We are all GREAT SINNERS compared with the HOLINESS OF GOD.

Q1: Do you want the God of the Bible to be your God?

Q2: Do you want to turn from sin and come to God? (Repentance)

2. PUNISHMENT ON SIN IS DEATH

"For the wages of sin is DEATH; but the GIFT OF GOD is ETERNAL LIFE through Jesus Christ our Lord."

Romans 6:23

"And DEATH and HELL were cast into the LAKE OF FIRE. This is the SECOND DEATH."

Revelation 20:14

Explanation: Because we have all sinned, God's Law says that we are all heading to death, and to the Lake of Fire. This is bad news. Neither you nor I want to go to the Lake of Fire. Is there a way out? Yes! God is offering us the free gift of eternal life which we get through Jesus Christ, not through good works or any religion.

...Death is:

When our body dies.

"By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God: NOT OF WORKS lest any man should boast." Ephesians 2:8,9

A gift is a free present, just take it or leave it. Eternal life means to know God personally now, and to go to Heaven when you die.

Therefore, the LAW of God says we should go to the Lake of Fire, but the LOVE of God wants us to go to Heaven.

Notice how God has provided free forgiveness and eternal life.

3. JESUS TOOK ALL OUR PUNISHMENT

"But God commendeth his LOVE toward us, in that while we were yet sinners,
CHRIST DIED FOR US." Romans 5:8

Love of God

Jesus is the SAVIOUR of ALL PEOPLE.
-- He is now AVAILABLE to be YOUR SAVIOUR.

Notice: God took all our past, present and future sins OFF US, and placed them ON CHRIST.

"we have turned everyone to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all." Isaiah 53:6

Law of God

Jesus took the FULL PUNISHMENT for ALL our sins on the cross, instead of us being punished forever in the Lake of Fire. "he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities." Isaiah 53:5

Christ is now the SAVIOUR (sin-bearer) of ALL people.
The DOOR into Heaven is now open for ALL people to enter.
But HOW may we enter Heaven?
Those who:

4. (a) BELIEVE that JESUS CHRIST

- is GOD the SON (100% God and 100% Man)
- DIED FOR OUR SINS, IN OUR PLACE
- ROSE AGAIN BODILY from the DEAD, then

(b) RECEIVE JESUS CHRIST as their SAVIOUR

are given FREE FORGIVENESS and ETERNAL LIFE right now.

This means that you now accept Christ's Blood-sacrifice on the cross as the full payment for your sins, trusting Jesus Christ alone to save you, not your good works or any religion.

We can be SURE of this because of these promises God has given us to claim in the Bible:

Question: In these verses, what must we do and what will we become?

“But as many as RECEIVED him, to them gave he power to become the SONS OF GOD”.

John 1:12

“For whosoever shall CALL upon the name of the Lord SHALL BE SAVED.”
Romans 10:13

“He that has the SON has LIFE; and he that has NOT the SON OF GOD has NOT LIFE.
...that ye may KNOW that ye have ETERNAL LIFE...”

I John 5:12,13

Jesus said,
“Verily, verily I say unto you,
he that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, has everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation, but is passed from death unto life.”

John 5:24

The choice is yours: Claim the gift of eternal life now, by receiving Jesus Christ as your Saviour, telling God something like this:

- Almighty God, I have sinned against You in thought, word and deed. I'm sorry for this and I want Jesus Christ to forgive all my sins.
- I now receive you, Lord Jesus Christ, as my Saviour and my God, and I now call on you Lord Jesus, to
 - save me from my sins and the Lake of Fire,
 - take me to Heaven when I die, and
 - give me the gift of eternal life right now.
- I now open the door of my heart and life for you, Lord Jesus, to come in to be my Saviour, my Friend and my God, forever in Jesus' name. Amen

Signed: Date:

Jesus said, “I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish.” John 10:28

Q1: Did you call on Jesus Christ to save you from your sins? Were you honest? In Romans 10:13 what does God say you are now? What are you saved from? If you died now, where would you go? Why? Now that you are saved, do you think it is possible to lose eternal life?

See John 10:28 (above). What does “never perish” mean?

“If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.” Romans 10:9

Q2: How can you get to know God better? Study your Bible daily (1 Peter 2:2); talk to God; attend a Bible teaching Church (Hebrews 10:24,25); tell others how Christ can save them; get baptised (Acts 10:47,48); tell someone you are saved (Romans 10:9) and live obediently for Christ.

If you decided to receive Jesus Christ as your Saviour, please phone or write to us at the address below, so we can send you literature to help you to know Jesus Christ better.

LIBERTY BAPTIST CHURCH, PO Box 188, Cherrybrook NSW 2126. Ph (02) 9875 4321.

Senior Citizens Centre, Cnr North Rocks Rd and Farnell Ave, North Rocks, Sundays at 9:30 am & 6pm.

www.keithpiper.org and www.libertybaptistchurch.org.au

Search Youtube for “STOP Tract – How to be sure of heaven (part 1.2)”

请停一停！

想一想：你会在哪里度过永生！

上帝所赐的
永生
你已有了吗???

耶稣说：“凡劳苦担重担的人可以到我这里来，我就使你们得安息”
(马太福音 11：28)

“当趁耶和华可寻找的时候寻找他，相近的时候求告他。恶人当离弃自己的道路；不义的人当除掉自己的意念。归向耶和华，耶和华就必怜恤他；当归向我们的神，因为神必广行赦免。(以赛亚书 55：6，7)

如何确定自己有永生？请听四件很重要的事。

第一，世人都犯了罪

“因为世人都犯了罪，亏缺了神的荣耀”（罗马书 3：23）

罪是。。。

*偏行己路

*与圣活的神隔离

*达不到神的标准

- 神的圣洁比较之下。我们都是大罪人。

- 你要圣经中的神成为你的神吗？

- 你(今天)可愿意解决这罪的问题以致能与神和好？

1. 不可有别的神
2. 不可雕刻偶像
3. 不可妄称耶和華的名
4. 当守安息日
5. 当孝敬父母

6. 不可杀人
7. 不可奸淫
8. 不可偷盗
9. 不可作假见证
10. 不可贪恋

*触犯神的律例-圣经

第二，罪的刑法 - 死

“因为罪的工价乃是死，唯有神的恩赐，在我们的主基督耶稣里，乃是永生。”（罗马书 6：23）

“死亡和阴间也被扔在火湖里。这火湖就是第二次的死”
(启示录 20：14)

解释：因为我们都有罪，神的法律说到我们会引向死亡，和火湖这是个不幸的消息，你和我都不想进火湖，那有没有出路呢？答案是有的。神提供我们免费的礼物—永生。这只能通过耶稣基督，不是只是靠做好事和其它宗教。

“你们得救是本乎恩，也因着信，这并不是出于自己，乃是神所赐的。不是出于行为，免得有人自夸。”

(以弗所书 2：8-9)

这份礼物是免费，我们只需要拿或不拿。永生意味着现在个人去了解神，和死后去天堂，因此神的法律说到我们应该去火湖，但神的爱向我们去天堂。注意到神提供我们免费的原谅和求生。

第三，耶稣代替我们死

“唯有基督在我们还作罪人的时候为我们死。神的爱就在此向我们显明了。”
(罗马书 5: 8)

耶稣现在就能成为你的救主。

耶稣是每一个人的救主。

他赦免了每一个人。。。从前的罪。现在的罪，未来的罪。

我们都如羊走迷；各人偏行己路；耶和華使我们众人的罪孽都归在他身上。” 以赛亚书 53: 6

注意：神已经除去我们一切的罪。他让基督身体来担当罪的后果。死，成了我们的代罪羔羊，免去我们原本要在火湖里所受的惩罚。

哪知他为我们的过犯受害，为我们的罪孽压伤。
以赛亚书 53: 5

天国的门是开着的，可是人要如何进去呢？

第四，(一) 相信耶稣基督：

- 是神的儿子。
- 为我们(罪人)而死。
- 身体从死里复活。

(二) 接受耶稣基督为个人救主。

如果你作这个决定，你的罪即及时得了赦免，且有永生。

现在被给予免费的宽恕和永恒的生命。意思是现在你接受基督血的牺牲在十字架上。像你付罪的债，只有通过基督去拯救你，不是通过做好事或是你的宗教。

我能如此确定，因为我们能领取神在

圣经中的应许：

“凡接待他的，就是信他名的人，他就赐他们权柄，作神的儿子。”
(约翰福音 1: 12)

“因为凡求告主名的，就必得救。”(罗马书 10: 13)

“人有了神的儿子就有生命。没有神的儿子就没有生命。我将这些话写给你们信奉神儿子之名的人，要叫你们知道自己有永生。”
(约翰一书 5: 12-13)

你选择了什么？

耶稣说：

“我实实在在地告诉你们那听我话，又信差我来者的，就有永生，不至于定罪，是已经出死入生了。”

(约翰福音 5: 24)

要接受基督为救主来领取永生的恩惠，你只须告诉神：

“全能的神：

- 我过去曾背逆你，在思想，言语及行为上犯罪，深感惭愧，我需要耶稣基督赦免我一切的罪。
- 现在我接受你—主耶稣基督作我的救主，我的神。现我求告主耶稣：
 - 求我脱离罪恶及火湖之苦。
 - 当我死后，带我进入天堂。
 - 即时赐给我永生。
- 此刻，我打开心门，让耶稣进来作我的救赎主，生命的主宰，我的良友及我的神，直到永永远远。奉主耶稣的名祷告。阿们”

姓名：..... 日期：.....

“耶稣说：我又赐给他们永生他们永不灭亡。。(约翰福音：10：28)

问题

- 1: 你有没有呼叫耶稣基督从你的罪去拯救你？你是否忠诚？
- 2: 在罗马书10: 13神正在和你说什么呢？
- 3: 你从什么中得救呢？
- 4: 若你现在死了，你会到哪里呢？为什么？
- 5: 现在被拯救了，你会不会认为你可能失去永生？看约翰福音28，不会“灭亡”是什么意思？
- 6: 你怎样去更好地了解神？每天学习圣经（彼得书 2: 2）；

和神谈话：参加圣经学习的教堂（希伯来书 10: 24, 25）；

告诉别人基督会怎样拯救他们；洗礼，（使徒行传10: 47, 48）；

告诉别人你已被拯救了（罗马书10: 9）和随从基督。

www.keithpiper.org
www.youtube.com

Answers Course Lesson 7

நில்லுங்கள் !

நின்று சிந்தியுங்கள்.

“உங்கள் நித்தியத்தை எங்கே செலவழிப்பீர்கள்”?

தேவனுடைய கிருபை வரமோ
நித்திய ஜீவன்

நீங்கள் அதை பெற்றுக்
கொண்டிருக்கிறீர்களா?

இயேசு கிறிஸ்து சொன்னார் : “வருத்தப்பட்டு பாரம் சுமக்கிறவர்களே நீங்கள் எல்லாரும் என்னிடத்தில் வாருங்கள் நான் உங்களுக்கு இளைப்பாறுதல் தருவேன்,” மத்தேயு 11:28.

கர்த்தரைக் கண்டடையத்தக்க சமயத்தில் அவரைத் தேடுங்கள், அவர் சமீபமாயிருக்கையில் அவரை நோக்கிக் கூப்பிடுங்கள். துன்மார்க்கன் தன் வழியையும், அக்கிரமக்காரன் தன் நினைவுகளையும்விட்டு கர்த்தரிடத்தில் திரும்பக்கூடவன்; அவர் அவன்மேல் மனதுருகுவார்; நம்முடைய தேவனிடத்திற்கே திரும்பக்கூடவன்; அவர் மன்னிக்கிறதற்குத் தயை பெருத்திருக்கிறார், ஏசாயா 55:6,7.

நாம் நித்திய ஜீவனை பெற்றுக்கொள்ள முடியும் என்னும் நிச்சத்தை எப்படி பெற்றுக்கொள்ள முடியும்?

அதற்கு 4 காரியங்களை நாம் கண்டிப்பாக அறிந்திருக்கவேண்டும்:

1. நாம் அனைவரும் பாவிகள்

“எல்லோரும் பாவம் செய்து தேவ

மகிமையற்றவர்களானார்கள்.” ரோமர் 3 : 23

சுயத்தை முதலிடத்தில் வைத்தல்

தேவனைவிட்டு பிரிவு

தேவனுடைய பூரண நிலைக்கு குறைவுபட்ட நிலை

1. வேறே தேவர்கள் இல்லை.
2. விக்கிர வணக்கம் கூடாது.
3. தேவனுடைய நாமத்தை விண்ணிலே வழங்கக்கூடாது.
4. ஓய்வு நாளை பரிசுத்தமாக ஆசரிக்க வேண்டும்.
5. பெற்றோரை கண்படுத்த வேண்டும்.

6. கொலைசெய்யாதிருப்பாயாக.
7. விபச்சாரம்செய்யாதிருப்பாயாக.
8. களவு செய்யாதிருப்பாயாக.
9. பொய்சாட்சி சொல்லாதிருப்பாயாக.
10. இச்சியாதிருப்பாயாக.

நியாயப்பிரமாணத்தை (பரிசுத்த வேதாகமம்) மீறவது பாவமாகும்.

தேவனுடைய பரிசுத்தத்தோடு ஒப்பிடும்போது நாம் அனைவரும் பாவிகள்.

கேள்வி 1 : பரிசுத்த வேதாகமத்தின் தேவன், உங்களுக்கும் தேனாயிருக்க விரும்புகிறீர்களா?

கேள்வி 2 : பாவத்திலிருந்து விலகி தேவனை நோக்கி வர விரும்புகிறீர்களா? (மனந்திரும்புதல்)

2. பாவத்தின் சம்பளம் மரணம்

“பாவத்தின் சம்பளம் மரணம்; தேவனுடைய கிருபை வரமோ நம்முடைய சுர்த்ராகிய இயேசுகிறிஸ்துவினால் உண்டான நித்திய ஜீவன்.” ரோமர் 6 : 23

அப்பொழுது மரணமும் பாதாளமும் அக்கினிக்கூலிலே தள்ளப்பட்டன இது இரண்டாம் மரணம். வெளி.20:14

விளக்கம்: நாம் அனைவரும் பாவம் செய்திருக்கிறபடியால் தேவனுடைய நியாயப்பிரமாணம் சொல்லுகிறபடி நாம் அனைவரும் மரணம் அடைந்து பின்பு அக்கினிக் கடலில் சென்றடைவோம். இது ஒரு கெட்ட செய்தியாகும். விரும்புவார்களா? இல்லவே இல்லை.

அப்படியானால் இந்த அக்கினிக் கடலுக்குத் தப்ப ஏதாகிலும் வழி உள்ளதா?ஆம்! இயேசுக் கிறிஸ்துவின் வழியாக தேவன் நமக்கு நித்திய ஜீவனை இலவசமாக தர விரும்புகிறார். அதை நமது மதத்தின் மூலமாகவோ, நற்கிரியைகளின் மூலமாகவோ நாம் பெற்றுக்கொள்ள முடியாது.

கிருபையினாலே விசுவாசத்தைக் கொண்டு இரட்சிக்கப்பட்டீர்கள்; இது உங்களால் உண்டானதல்ல, இது தேவனுடைய ஈவு, எபேசியர் 2:8,9. ஒருவரும் பெருமை பாராட்டாதபடிக்கு இது கிரியைகளினால் உண்டானதல்ல.

இலவசமாகக் கிடைப்பதே பரிசு என்றழைக்கப்படுகிறது. அதை நாம் நமக்குச் சொந்தமாக எடுத்துச் செல்லமுடியும். நித்திய ஜீவன் என்றால் தேவனை தனிப்பட்ட முறையில் அறிந்து மரணம் வரும்போது பரலோகத்திற்குச் செல்வதாகும்.

ஆகவே, தேவனுடைய நீதி சொல்கிறது நாம் அக்கினிக் கடலுக்குச் செல்ல வேண்டும். தேவனுடைய அன்பு நாம் பரலோகத்திற்குச் செல்ல விரும்புகிறது. தேவன் நமக்கு இலவசமாக மன்னிப்பையும் நித்திய ஜீவனையும் எப்படி அளித்துள்ளார் என்பதைக் கவனியுங்கள்.

அதுவே மரணம் எனப்படுகிறது

3. இயேசு நமது எல்லா தண்டனையையும் ஏற்றுக்கொண்டார்

நாம் பாவிகளாயிருக்கையில் கிறிஸ்து நமக்காக மரித்ததினால் தேவன் நம்மேல் வைத்த தமது அன்பை விளங்கப் பண்ணுகிறார். ரோமர் 5:8

இயேசு கிறிஸ்து அனைத்து மக்களுக்கும் இரட்சகர். அவர் இப்பொழுது உங்களுக்கும் இரட்சகராக இருக்க ஆயத்தமாயிருக்கிறார்.

கவனிக்க : தேவன் நமது கடந்தகால, நிகழ்கால எதிர்கால பாவங்களை நம்மிலிருந்து எடுத்துவிட்டு அதை இயேசு கிறிஸ்துவின்மேல் வைத்துவிட்டார்.

நாமெல்லாரும் அவனவன் தன்தன் வழியிலே போனோம் கர்த்தரோ நம்மெல்லாருடைய அக்கிரமத்தையும் அவர்மேல் விழப்பண்ணினார். ஏசாய 53:6

நித்திய நித்திய காலமாக நாம் அக்கிரமிக் கடலிலே தண்டனை பெற்றுவிடக்கூடாது என்பதற்காக நம்மெல்லாருடைய பாவங்களையும் தன்மேல் எடுத்துக்கொண்டார்.

நம்முடைய மீறுதல்களினிமித்தம் அவர் காயப்பட்டு நம்முடைய அக்கிரமங்களினிமித்தம் அவர் நொறுக்கப்பட்டார். ஏசாயா 53:5

இப்பொழுது இயேசுகிறிஸ்து எல்லா மனிதருக்கும் இரட்சகர் (பாவ பரிசாரம்). எனவே, பரலோகத்தின் வாசல் இப்பொழுது எல்லாரும் பிரவேசிக்கும் வகையில் திறந்திருக்கிறது. ஆனால் நாம் எப்படி அதற்குள் செல்லமுடியும்?

4. (a) எவ்வெல்லாம் இயேசுக் கிறிஸ்துவை

- தேவகுமாரன்
- நமக்கும் பதிலாக அவர் நமது பாவங்களுக்காக மரித்தார்
- மரணத்திலிருந்து தமது மாம்ச சரீரத்தோடு உயிர்தெழுந்தார் என விசுவாசித்து

(b) அவரை நனது சொந்த இரட்சகராக ஏற்றுக்கொள்கிறார்களோ

அவர்களுக்கு இவ்வசமான பாவ மன்னிப்பும் நித்திய ஜீவனும் இப்பொழுதே கிடைக்கும். அதாவது, நீங்கள் இப்பொழுது இயேசு கிறிஸ்து நமது பாவங்களுக்கு முழு விலையாக சிவ்வையின்மேல் செய்த இரத்த தியாகத்தை ஏற்றுக்கொண்டு அவர் ஒருவேரே நம்மை இரட்சிக்கமுடியும் மற்றபடி, மதங்களோ, நற்கிரியைகளோ இரட்சிப்பதில்லை என்பதை நம்புகிறீர்கள்.

பரிசுத்த வேதாகமத்தில் தேவன் இவ்வாக்குறுதிகளை கொடுத்துள்ளபடியால் நாம் இதன்மேல் மிகுந்த நிச்சயத்தோடு இருக்கமுடியும்.

கேள்வி : கீழ்க்காணும் நாம் எப்படியாக இருப்போம்? நாம் என்ன செய்யவேண்டும்?

அவரை ஏற்றுகொண்டவர்கள் எத்தனை பேர்களோ அத்தனை பேர்களும் தேவனுடைய பிள்ளைகளாகும்படி அவர்களுக்கு அதிகாரம் கொடுத்தார். யோவான் 1:12

ஆதலால் கர்த்தருடைய நாமத்தை தொழுதுகொள்ளுகிற எவனும் இரட்சிக்கப்படுவான். ரோமர் 10:13

குமாரனை உடையவன் ஜீவனை உடையவன், தேவனுடைய குமாரன் இல்லாதவன் ஜீவன் இல்லாதவன். உங்களுக்கு நித்திய ஜீவன் உண்டு என்று நீங்கள் அறியவேண்டும். 1 யோவான் 5:12,13

இயேசு சொன்னார் :

என் வசனத்தைக் கேட்டு, என்னை அனுப்பினவரை விசுவாசிக்கிறவனுக்கு நித்திய ஜீவன் உண்டு; அவன் ஆக்கினைத் தீர்ப்புக்குட்படாமல், மரணத்தை விட்டு நீங்கி ஜீவனுக்குட்பட்டிருக்கிறான் என்று மெய்யாகவே மெய்யாகவே உங்களுக்கு சொல்லுகிறேன். யோவான் 5:24

இயேசுக் கிறிஸ்துவை உங்கள் இரட்சகராக ஏற்றுக்கொண்டு நித்திய ஜீவனை பெற கீழ்க்காணும் ஜெபத்தை செய்வது உங்களது விருப்பத்தைப் பொறுத்தது.

- சர்வ வல்லமையுள்ள தேவனே, நான் உமக்கு விரோதமாக என் சிந்தனையினால் வார்த்தையினால், செயலினால் தவறு செய்திருக்கிறேன்; நான் அதற்காக வருந்துகிறேன். எனது எல்லா பாவங்களும் மன்னிக்கப்பட விரும்புகிறேன்.
- இப்பொழுதே என் இருதய சுதலைத் திறந்து கர்த்தராகிய இயேசுகிறிஸ்துவை எனது சொந்த இரட்சகராக ஏற்றுக்கொள்கிறேன். இயேசுவின் நாமத்தில் பிதாவே, ஆமென்.

கையொப்பம் :

தேதி :

இயேசு சொன்னார்: “நான் அவைகளுக்கு நித்திய ஜீவனை கொடுக்கிறேன்; அவைகள் ஒருக்காலும் கெட்டுப் போவதில்லை”. யோவான் 10:28

கேள்வி 1 : உங்கள் பாவங்களிலிருந்து இயேசுக் கிறிஸ்து உங்களை இரட்சிக்க உண்மையாகவே நீங்கள் அவரை அழைத்தீர்களா?

ரோமர் 10:13-ன் படி நாம் இப்பொழுது இரட்சிக்கப்பட்டிருக்கிறோம். இனி நமக்கு மரணம் வருமென்றால் நாம் எங்கே போவோம்? நித்திய வாழ்வை நாம் இழக்க முடியுமா? யோவான் 10:28 கூறுகிறபடி நாம் அழிந்துபோவதில்லை.

“கர்த்தராகிய இயேசுவை நீ உன் வாயினாலே அறிக்கையிட்டு தேவன் அவரை மரித்தோரிலிருந்து எழுப்பினாரென்று உன் இருதயத்திலே விசுவாசித்தால் இரட்சிக்கப்படுவாய்” ரோமர் 10:9

கேள்வி 2 : நாம் எப்படி தேவனை இன்னும் நன்றாக அறிந்துகொள்ள முடியும்?

தினமும் வேதம் வாசிக்க வேண்டும் (1 பேதுரு 2:2); தேவனோடு பேச வேண்டும் (ஜெபம்); சத்தியத்தை பிரசங்கிக்கும் சபைக்கு செல்லவேண்டும் (எபிரேயர் 10:24,25); ஞானஸ்நானம் பெறவேண்டும் (அப்போஸ்தலர் நடபடிகள் 10:47,48); நீ இயேசு கிறிஸ்துவை ஏற்றுக்கொண்டாய் என்பதை பிறருக்கு அறிவிக்க வேண்டும் (ரோமர் 10:9); மேலும் இயேசு கிறிஸ்துவுக்கு கீழ்ப்படிந்து வாழ வேண்டும்.

இயேசு கிறிஸ்துவை உங்கள் சொந்த இரட்சகராக ஏற்றுக்கொள்ள தீர்மானித்திருப்பீர்களானால் தயவுசெய்து எங்கள் முகவரிக்குக் கடிதம் எழுதுங்கள். நீங்கள் இன்னும் இயேசுகிறிஸ்துவை அறிந்துகொள்ள வேறு சுவீசேஷ பிரதிகளை நாங்கள் உங்களுக்கு அனுப்புவோம்.

MOUNT OLIVE BAPTIST FOUNDATION

P.O. Box-5, Tiruvattar - 629177, Kanyakumari District, Tamil Nadu, India

E-mail: newhope@vsnl.net

HINTO!

At isipin “Saan ka mananatili sa kabilang buhay?”

ANG KALOOB NG
DIOS AY
BUHAY NA WALANG HANGGAN!

ITO BA AY TINANGGAP MO NA?

Sinabi ni Cristo Jesus, “Magsiparito, sa akin, kayong lahat na nangapapagal at nangabibigatang lubha, at kayo’y aking papagpapahingahin.” Mateo 11:28

“Inyong hanapin ang Panginoon samantalang siya’y masusumpungan, magsitawag kayo sa kaniya samantalang siya’y malapit: Lisanin ng masama ang kanyang lakad, at ng liko ang kaniyang mga pagiisip; at manumbalik siya sa Panginoon, at kaaawaan niya siya; at sa aming Dios, sapagkat siya’y magpapatawad ng sagana.” Isaias 55:6,7

Paano tayo makatitiyak na mayroon tayong buhay na walang hanggan? May apat (4) na bagay na kailangan nating alamin:

- 1) Walang ibang Dios
- 2) Walang sasambahing imahan
- 3) Huwag gamitin ang ngalan ng Dios ng walang kabuluhan
- 4) Panatilihin banal ang araw ng Pangiling
- 5) Igalang ang iyong ama at Ina

- 6) Huwag papatay
- 7) Huwag makiklapid
- 8) Huwag magnanakaw
- 9) Huwag magpapatang
- 10) Huwag maghahangad sa pag-aari ng iba

1. ANG LAHAT AY NANGAGKASALA

“Sapagka’t ang lahat ay nangagkasala nga, at hindi nangakaabot sa kaluwalhatian ng Dios;” Roma 3:23

Ang kasalanan ay ito:

Inilalagay ang sarili muna

Pagkakahiwalay sa Dios

Kinapos sa pamantayan ng Dios

Lahat tayo ay ganap na makasalanan kung ihahambing sa kabanalan ng DIOS. Tanong Blg. 1: Nais mo bang ang DIOS ng Biblia ay maging iyong DIOS? Tanong Blg. 2: Nais mo bang wakasan ang iyong relasyon sa kasalanan at magkaroon ng bagong relasyon sa DIOS? (Pagsisisi)

2. KABAYARAN NG KASALANAN AY KAMATAYAN

“Sapagka’t ang kabayaran ng KASALANAN ay KAMATAYAN; datapwa’t ang kaloob na walang bayad ng DIOS ay BUHAY na WALANG HANGGAN kay CRISTO JESUS na Panginoon natin. Roma 6:23

“At ang kamatayan at ang Hades ay ibinulid sa dagatdagatang apoy. Ito ang ikalawang kamatayan, sa makatuwid ay ang dagatdagatang apoy.” Apo.20:14

...Kamatayan ay:

Paliwanag: Sapagka’t ang lahat ay nangagkasala nga, ang kautusan ng DIOS ay nag-sasabi na tayong lahat ay patungo sa kamatayan at sa dagatdagatang apoy. Ito ay masamang balita.

Kahit ikaw man o ako ay hindi nagnanais na mabulid sa impiyerno.

Mayroon bang paraan upang ako’y hindi mapapunta sa impiyerno? Opo!

Inaalok tayo ng DIOS ng buhay na walang hanggan. Wala itong kabayaran sapagkat natatamo ito sa pamamagitan lamang ni Jesus at hindi sa mabuting gawa o relihion “Sapagka’t sa biyaya kayo’y nangaligtas sa pamamagitan ng pananampalataya; at ito’y hindi sa inyong sarili, ito’y kaloob ng DIOS; hindi sa pamamagitan ng mga gawa, upang ang sinuman ay huwag magmapuri.” Efeso 2:8,9

Ang regalo ay walang bayad na kaloob, puede mong tanggapin o tanggihan. Ang buhay na walang hanggan ay nangangahulugan na personal mong kilalanin ang DIOS ngayon, at ikaw ay tutungo sa langit kapag ikaw ay namatay.

Sinasabi sa Banal na Langit na tayo ay dapat mapunta sa impiyerno subalit ang pag-ibig ng DIOS ay nagnanais na tayo ay mapasalangit.

Pansinin kung paano ang DIOS ay nagkaloob ng walang bayad na kapatawaran o buhay na walang hanggan.

Kapag yumao na ang katawan

ANG PANINIBAGONG BUHAY GAYA NG BAGONG PAHINA AY HINDI MAKAKABURA NG NAKARAANG KASALANAN

3. TINANGGAP NI JESUS ANG LAHAT NG ATING KAPARUSAHAN

“Datapwa’t ipinagtatagubilin ng DIOS ang kanyang pag-ibig sa atin, na nang tayo’y mga makasalanan pa, si CRISTO AY NAMATAY DAHIL SA ATIN”

Roma 5:8

Si JESUS ang TAGAPAGLIGTAS ng LAHAT ng TAO.
Siya ngayon ay NAKALAAN upang maging TAGAPAGLIGTAS MO.

TANDAAN: Inalis ng Dios ang lahat ng ating nakalipas, kasalukuyan at hinaharap na mga kasalanan, at inilagay iyon kay Cristo Jesus.

“...tayo ay tumungo bawa’t isa sa kanyang sariling daan; at ipinasan sa kaniya ng Panginoon ang kasamaan nating lahat. Isaias 53:6

Inako ni Jesus sa krus ang BUONG KAPARUSAHAN ng ating mga kasalanan. Sa halip na tayo ang maparusahan ng walang hanggan sa DAGATDAGATANG APOY.

“Nguni’t siya’y nasugatan dahil sa ating mga pagsalangsang, siya’y nabugbog dahil sa ating mga kasamaan...” Isaias 53:5

Si Jesus ang tagapagligtas ng lahat. Ang pintuan ng langit ay bukas ngayon para sa lahat subali’t paano tayo makapapasok sa langit? Sila lamang na:

4. (a) SUMAMPALATAYA NA SI KRISTO AY

- DIOS Anak
- Namatay para sa ating mga kasalanan
- nabuhay muli matapos mamatay

(b) TUMANGGAP KAY KRISTO BILANG KANYANG SARILING TAGAPAGLIGTAS.

Sila ay makatatanggap ng KAPATAWARAN at BUHAY NA WALANG HANGGAN ngayon din. Ang ibig sabihin nito ay tanggapin mo ngayon ang dugong-handog ni Kristo bilang kabayaran ng iyong kasalanan, pagtiwalaang tanging si Kristo lamang and magliligtas sa iyo, hindi ang iyong mabubuting gawa o ano mang relihion.

Tayo ay nakatitiyak dahilan sa kanyang mga pangako.

Tayo ay pinagkalooban ng DIOS mula sa Biblia ng mga bagay na maaari nating panghawakan.

TANONG: Sa mga talatang ito, ano ang dapat gawin at anong bunga kapag ginawa natin ito??
“Datapwa’t ang lahat ng sa kanya’y NAGSITANGGAP, ay pinagkalooban niya sila ng karapatang maging mga ANAK NG DIOS, sa makatuwid baga’y ang mga nagsisisampalataya sa kanyang pangalan.”

Juan 1:12

“Sapagka’t ang lahat na NAGSISITAWAG sa pangalan ng Panginoon ay MANGALILIGTAS.”

Roma 10:13

“Ang kinaroroonan ng ANAK any kinaroroonan ng BUHAY; ang HINDI kinaroroonan ng ANAK NG DIOS ay hindi kinaroroonan ng BUHAY. . . . upang inyong MAALAMAN na kayo’y mayroong BUHAY NA WALANG HANGGAN.” I Juan 5:12,13

Sinabi ni JESUS:

“Katotohanan, katotohanan sinasabi ko sa inyo, ang dumirinig ng aking salita, at sumasampalataya sa kaniya na nagsugo sa akin, ay may buhay na walang hanggan, at hindi mapapasok sa paghatol, kundi lumipat na sa kabuhayan mula sa kamatayan.”

Juan 5:24

Ang pagpili ay nasa iyo: Tanggapin mo ang KALOOB na buhay na walang hanggan sa pamamagitan ng pagtanggap kay Cristo JESUS bilang sariling TAGAPAGLIGTAS. Manalangin ka ng ganito:

- Makapangyarihang DIOS, ako po ay nagkasala sa isip, salita at sa gawa. Patawarin po ninyo ako, Panginoon ko.
- Tinatanggap kita Panginoong JESUS bilang aking DIOS at Tagapagligtas, at ngayon Panginoong JESUS nais ko pong:
 - iligtas mo ako sa aking mga kasalanan at sa impiyerno,
 - dalhin mo po ako sa langit kapag ako ay namatay, at
 - ipagkaloob mo po sa akin ang buhay na walang hanggan ngayon din.
- Binubuksan ko ngayon ang pinto ng aking puso at buhay para sa iyo Panginoong JESUS. Tinatanggap kita bilang Tagapagligtas, Kaibigan at DIOS sa aking buhay, sa pangalan ni JESUS. Amen

Lagda:Petsa:.....

“At sila’y binibigyan ko ng walang hanggang buhay; at kailan ma’y hindi sila malilipol.” Juan 10:28

Q1. Nanalangin ka ba kay Cristo Jesus ng taos sa puso na iligtas ka sa iyong kasalanan? In Roma 10:13 Ano ang sabi ng Dios patungkol sa iyo ngayon? Saan ka ligtas ngayon? Kung ikaw ay mamatay ngayon, saan ka pupunta? Bakit? Sa ngayon na ligtas ka na,puede pa bang mawala ang iyong buhay na walang hanggan?

Basahin mo ang Juan 10:28(sa itaas). Ano ang ibig sabihin ng “kailan ma’y hindi sila malilipol”?

“Sapagka’t kung ipahahayag mo ng iyong bibig si Jesus na Panginoon, at sasampalataya ka sa iyong puso na binuhay siyang maguli ng Dios sa mga patay ay maliligtas ka.” Roma 10:9

Q2. Paano mo mas lalong malalaman ang ating Panginoon? Pag-aralan mo ang iyong Biblia araw-araw(1Pedro 2:2);Kausapin mo ang Panginoon. Dumalo sa simbahan na ang itinuturo ay ang Biblia(Hebreo10:24,25);Ipamalita sa ibang tao kung paano sila mailligtas ni Jesus sa kanilang kasalanan;magpabautismo(Mga Gawa 10:47,48) sabihin sa tao na ligtas ka na(Roma 10:9) at mamuhay ng may pag sunod kay Cristo Jesus.

www.keithpiper.org

23. CORRECT MENTAL ATTITUDES IN SOUL WINNING. Get a real burden.

Bible Reading: “Follow Me and I Will Make You Fishers Of Men.” Matthew 4:19; Psalm 126.

1. Be a good listener. This tells you where people are at.
2. Ask questions that require them to think and to talk about themselves. Get them talking. Ask questions based on what they say. Ask “Why?”
3. Do not fear what people will say. II Timothy 1:7.
4. Learn by experimenting with people as to how they react to what you say.
5. Be happy and not over serious. Use humour appropriately.
6. Pray the following points before you go: a) Cleanse me from sin, b) Fill me with your Holy Spirit, c) Satan to be bound, d) Give me words to say, e) Guide me to hungry hearted people.
7. Diagnose people’s spiritual condition to see if they are saved or lost.
Ask: If you died tonight are you 100% sure of going to heaven? Would you like to be sure?
8. Perservere with people:
 - a) To get the first soul winning appointment,
 - b) To get the first follow up appointment,
 - c) To get them to come to Church,
 - d) To keep them coming to Church,
 - e) Become their friend in their problems.
9.
 - a) If you can’t lead them to Christ, ask others in the Church to try. Don’t just forget them.
 - b) Introduce them to other Christians in the Church to follow them up.
10. Give them literature after they are saved: a) Bible, b) “STOP” tract, c) This book. d) Follow up.
11. Make a time each week to: a) Follow them up in Bible study, and answer their questions.
b) To go soul winning, or talk to someone in an appointment.
12. Be filled with the Holy Spirit in the morning through prayer and Bible study. LISTEN TO GOD.
13. Ask younger and other Christians if they have someone that they want to see saved. If so, make an appointment to go and see them.
14. PRINCIPLE I: The more people you talk to, the more people will be saved, the more you learn
PRINCIPLE II: Ask for an appointment where & when you can sit down undisturbed for an hour PRINCIPLE III: Try to lead husband and wife to Christ together.
PRINCIPLE IV: Recognise that one partner may grow faster than the other.
PRINCIPLE V: If one time slot is unsuitable, then choose another.
PRINCIPLE VI: It can be very hard to lead a group to Christ. Talk with those who are interested.
PRINCIPLE VII: Be friendly with everyone you meet. You may be able to talk to them later on.
PRINCIPLE VIII: Nothing ventured, nothing gained!!!! The worst thing people can say is NO.
15. Excuses of Christians not wanting to witness to people are:
 - a) I may lose my friends. Answer: God will give you better saved friends.
 - b) I do not know enough yet to say anything. Answer: You learn by doing, so go out and try.
 - c) I’ll just be a good example and people will ask me how to be saved .
Answer: NO! Many people are “good”. God says to GO (Mark 16:15).
 - d) I don’t want to be pushy, or ram it down his throat. Answer: You throw out the bait, see if he is interested, then take the conversation to the gospel or make an appointment.
16. Do not say irrelevant things. Only say things that will share the gospel or make an appointment.
17. Be a good appointment getter and a good appointment keeper.
18. Work well and co-operate with other Christians in the church, to win their friends & your friends.
19. Notice people who are spiritually hungry.
20. With everything people say, think of ways to turn it to the gospel introduction.
21. Think that some relative or friend, may be praying for a person to be saved that you meet.
22. WRONG ATTITUDE: I will not lead him to Christ in case he makes a false profession. Answer: Encourage him to receive Christ. If he is honest and understands the gospel, Christ will save him.
23. When they are saved, ask them who they know that they would like to see saved and going to heaven? Go and visit them.

24. WHAT DOES GOD GIVE US WHEN WE RECEIVE CHRIST AS OUR SAVIOUR ?

1. We become sons of God. “But as many received Him to them He gave power to become the sons of God.” John 1:12. This means....
 2. We get born again. “Except a man be born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God.” John 3:3. “Ye must be born again.” John 3:7. We were born many years ago physically into our parent’s family. When we receive Christ as our Saviour, we are adopted or born into God’s family as His sons, with full rights to all the privileges of being in God’s family (Romans 8:15).
 3. We are saved from the penalty of sin, which is hell, and the Lake of Fire.
We are saved from the power of sin as we yield obediently to Christ’s Word.
We are saved from the presence of sin when we get to heaven. “For whosoever...” Romans 10:13
 4. We get eternal life, living with God forever. “He that has the Son, has life.” I John 5:12.
 5. We are reconciled to God by the death of Christ. Romans 5:10. God has removed the barrier of sin, producing peace between God and us.
 6. “We are justified by faith in Jesus Christ as our Saviour.” Romans 5:1.
This means that we are declared righteous, pardoned and all our sins are removed.
We are entitled to all of God’s promised blessings. It is just as if we had never sinned.
 7. We are 100% acceptable to God because of Jesus Christ. We do not need to perform perfectly in order to win God’s acceptance. “He has made us acceptable in the beloved (Christ).” Eph. 1:6.
 8. “We are forgiven all trespasses.” Colossians 2:13. Forgiveness is the legal act of God where He removes all the charges held against a sinner because Christ has made proper payment for his sins.
 9. We are redeemed. This means that we are bought by Christ out of the slave market of sin, set free from sin’s bondage, we now belong to Christ, and we are Christ’s servants to do God’s will. We are not to live a life of selfish ease, but to be useful to God’s purposes.
“...ye are not your own. For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God’s.” I Corinthians 6:19,20.
 10. We are indwelt and led by the Holy Spirit. God’s Spirit now lives in us permanently. We must not disobey His leading. “If any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of His.” Romans 8:9. “For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.” Romans 8:14.
 11. We will receive a new, young resurrected body that will never die. Romans 8:11.
“His flesh shall be fresher than a child’s: he shall return to the days of his youth.” Job 33:25.
“This mortal must put on immortality.” I Corinthians 15:53.
 12. We are new creatures with a new Divine nature.
“If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature....all things are become new.” II Corinthians 5:17.
 13. God gives us many exceeding great and precious promises in the Bible for us to claim to guide and help us in life. By these we become partakers of the Divine nature. II Peter 1:4.
 14. God has given us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that has called us to glory (in heaven) and virtue (now). II Peter 1:3.
 15. Being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Romans 5:1.
“Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you.” John 14:27. “Peace of God.” Philippians 4:7.
 16. We are servants of God. “Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ.” Romans 1:1.
“...being made free from sin, and become servants to God.” Romans 6:22.
 17. We are ambassadors for Christ. II Corinthians 5:20. We are God’s representatives on earth with God’s message of salvation to mankind.
 18. We are given many Christian brothers and sisters to help and care for us.
“A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another as I have loved you.” John 13:43
 19. We have a home and mansion in heaven. II Corinthians 5:1,8.
“In my Father’s house are many mansions....I go to prepare a place for you.” John 14:2.
 20. We are now friends of God. “I have called you friends”. John 15:15.
“Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.” John 15:14.
 21. We can lay up for ourselves treasures in heaven which we cannot lose. Matthew 7:20.
- Our response to God giving us so many good things now and in eternity is to love Him and obey Him.
“If ye love me, keep my commandments.” John 14:15.

25. DOES A PERSON HAVE TO CALL ON CHRIST TO BE SAVED?

Bible Reading: Job 33:23-30.

Aim: To prove that we must not just believe in our mind the facts of the Gospel, but that a person must call on Christ to be saved.

Introduction:

One big difference between a Fundamental church and a liberal/apostate/Roman Catholic/Modernist church is on how a person appropriates salvation.

In a Fundamental church, a sinner is presented with the facts of the gospel and challenged to call/receive/ask/pray/claim (as a lost sinner) on Jesus Christ to save him. In a liberal church, a sinner may be presented with some facts of the gospel, but he is rarely challenged to call on Christ to save him. It is rarely made clear to him that if he takes the gift of eternal life in Christ, then it will become his for certain, and for ever.

Story Illustration: Why Wilson was hanged.

In 1829 George Wilson, in Pennsylvania, was sentenced to be hanged by a United States Court for robbing the mails and for murder. President Andrew Jackson pardoned him, but this was refused, and Wilson insisted that it was not a pardon unless he accepted it. That was a point of law never before raised, and the President called the Supreme Court to decide.

Chief Justice John Marshall gave the following decision: "A pardon is a paper, the value of which depends upon its acceptance by the person implicated. It is hardly to be supposed that one under sentence of death would refuse to accept a pardon, but if it is refused, it is no pardon. George Wilson must be hanged!" And he was hanged.

Provisionally the gospel of Christ which is the power of God unto salvation is for every one irrespective of what he may be or what he may have done. Potentially, it is only to "every one that believeth." - Sunday School Times.

1. ERRORS REGARDING SALVATION

What are some wrong terms that people use in challenging people to appropriate salvation?

1. Give your heart to Jesus. This is wrong because this is spoken to a saved person, a son of God. "My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways." Proverbs 23:26.
2. Invite Jesus into your heart. This is wrong because it does not specify what you want Christ to do. What do you want Christ to do in your heart? Help you? Do good works? No! It must be to save you from sin by Christ's work on the cross.
3. Commit your life to Christ. This is wrong because it carries the thought of dedicating your life to obey Christ and hoping to get salvation in return for good works that you promise to do.
4. Believe in God or Christ. This is not clear, but is ambiguous. What must we believe about God or Christ? In their existence? No. Even if you believe that Christ paid for all your sins on the cross, this is not salvation because many people believe this to be true, but do not want salvation or do not want to give up their sins. One must want salvation and ask for it.
5. Accept Christ. This is not clear because: "What are we accepting Christ to do for us?" It must be to save us or to be our Saviour from sin.
6. Trust in God. To do what? Must be to save me from sin.
7. Have faith in God. To do what? Must be to save me from sin.

2. SCRIPTURES PROVING THAT WE MUST CALL ON CHRIST TO BE SAVED

Let us challenge people to call on Christ to save them, as these scriptures command us to:

1. Romans 10:13 "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." "To call on the Lord means to pray in faith for salvation." "Bible Knowledge Commentary", Walvoord and Zuck P.481. Joel 2:32 and Acts 2:21 contain the same verse.
2. Jeremiah 29:12,13 "Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you. And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart. And I will be found of you, saith the Lord." v.14.

3. Isaiah 55:6,7 “Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near: Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy on him; and to our God for he will abundantly pardon.”
The wicked are commanded to seek and call upon the Lord for salvation.
The gospel invitation defined involves four things:
i) Seeking (desiring, inquiring after) the Lord while He may be found. v.6.
ii) Calling upon Him while He is near.
iii) Repentance - the wicked being willing to forsake (or abandon) his evil way of life, and the unrighteous man forsaking his wrong thoughts.
iv) Faith - returning to the Lord, receiving God’s salvation, mercies and pardon.
4. Jonah 3:4-10 The greatest revival ever, took place when Jonah preached to the Ninevites and they were all saved. We see the following steps in their salvation:
i) The people of Nineveh believed God. v.5.
ii) Cry mightily unto God. v.8.
iii) Let them turn every one from his evil way. v.8.
Result: God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.
5. Jeremiah 10:25 Unbelievers are described as those that “call not on thy name”. Therefore, believers are those who “call on God’s name”. “Pour out thy fury upon the heathen that know thee not, and upon the families that call not on thy name”.
6. Zechariah 13:9 Another great revival is when the nation of Israel is saved at Christ’s second coming. Notice how they get saved; by CALLING on the name of the Lord:
“I will bring the third part through the fire, ... they shall CALL on my name, and I will hear them: I will say, It is my people: and they shall say, the Lord is my God.”
Lesson: When we call on the name of the Lord to save us, He hears us, and we are then saved; just as Israel will be.
7. Job 33:23-30 shows several things that are necessary for a person to be saved:
i) An interpreter or gospel preacher. v.23.
ii) A ransom, or One who has paid for our sins, Jesus Christ. v.24.
iii) He shall pray unto God... v.26.
iv) If any say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not. v.27.
Results:
a) He will be delivered from going to the pit. v.24,28,30.
b) His flesh shall be fresher than a child’s; he shall return to the days of his youth. (Resurrection body). v.25.
c) He will see God’s face with joy. v.26.
d) He will render unto man God’s righteousness. v.26
e) His life shall see the light. v.28.
8. John 4:10,15,26 Jesus tells the woman at the well, that there are three steps to salvation in v.10, these being: “If thou knewest:
a) the gift of God
b) who it is that saith to thee, “Give me to drink.”
c) Thou would have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.”
Condition c) In v.15 she asks Christ for living water: “Sir, give me this water.
Condition b) In v.25,26 she knows/believes who is speaking to her: “Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he (Messiah).”
She is then saved because she understands who Christ is, and she has asked for Christ to “give me this water.”
9. “And in all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.” Matt.21:22.
This states that believing is tied in closely with “asking in prayer.”
If you believe God can do something for you, you ask Him for it in prayer.

If you believe Christ can save your soul, you will ask Him in prayer to save your soul. Ye have not because ye ask not.” James 4:2

Question: Why are people not saved?

Answer: Because they ask not.

This means that if you ask Christ for salvation, believing, you’ll get salvation. A person must acknowledge to God their need of salvation. This is asking God to save them.

“Therefore I say unto you, what things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.” Mark 11:24.

This expresses dependence upon the Lord, as we pray to God, humbly requesting as an inferior from a superior. Here, belief and prayer are linked.

10. Notice these clear New Testament examples of people who were saved by calling on Christ to save them:

i) Bartimaeus Mark 10:46-52

Step 1: “He began to CRY OUT, and say, Jesus thou Son of David, have mercy on me.” v.47. He called out for Christ to save him.

Step 2: “He, casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jesus.” v.50 He responds to Jesus’ command for him to be called. Jesus calls him. Casting away his garment pictures the sinner wanting to cast away his sin in repentance.

Step 3: He says “Lord, that I might receive my sight.”

The sinner must ask Jesus to save him, in reply to Jesus’ question.

“What wilt thou that I should do unto thee?” Jesus asks this question to every sinner. To be saved we must answer “I want to be saved.”

Step 4: Bartimaeus is saved from sin by faith and also receives his sight. Jesus said “Go thy way; thy faith hath made thee whole.” v.52. Bartimaeus’ faith involved:

1. Crying out
2. Casting away his garment (repentance)
3. Acknowledging Jesus to be Lord God (Deity)
4. Telling Jesus exactly what he wanted (calling on Christ to save him).

Step 5: “Immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way. v.52. After we receive the blessing of salvation, we must follow Jesus also.

ii) The Publican Luke 18:9-14

Theme: Salvation is not obtained by trusting in our own righteousness.

Step 1: “Two men went up to the Temple to pray; a Pharisee and a Publican.” v.10. Salvation is not in going to church.

Salvation is not in a wrong kind of prayer in trusting our good works.

Step 2: The Publican said “God be merciful to me a sinner.” v.13.

He called upon the name of the Lord in his distress at his sin to save him. We must see our sins as distressing to us and hurtful to God. His sins distressed him as seen by his four statements:

- a) He stood afar off.
- b) He would not so much as lift up his eyes to heaven.
- c) He smote upon his breast, realising the sinfulness of his heart.
- d) He called upon the name of the Lord to save him, saying: “God be merciful to me a sinner.” v.13.

Calling upon the name of the Lord to save us is a heartfelt response at distress of our sin: “In my distress I called upon the Lord, . . . he heard my voice.” Psalm 18:6.

Psalm 118:5 “I called upon the Lord in distress: the Lord answered me..”

Step 3: “This man (the Publican) went down to his house justified rather than the other (Pharisee):.. for he that humbles himself shall be exalted.” v.14.

If we are distressed at our sin, not trusting our good works, but call upon the name of the Lord Jesus Christ to save us, we are justified ie. made right in God’s eyes. This is true salvation.

iii) Zacchaeus. Luke 19:1-10

Step 1: “He sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the press.” v.3 To be saved we must seek to see Jesus, seek to know who Jesus is - God and Saviour (John 6:36, 40). seek to overcome obstacles to get to Jesus eg. Zacchaeus’ shortness.

Step 2: After climbing a tree to get a closer look at Jesus, Jesus responded to him by saying: “Zacchaeus, make haste, and come down; for today I must abide at thy house.” v.5 To be saved we must - come down from our high position, humbling ourselves.

- accept Jesus’ offer inviting Jesus to come to stay at our house/life.

Step 3: “He made haste, and came down, and received Him joyfully.” v.6

To be saved we must make haste, immediately respond to Jesus Christ’s offer of salvation.

- come down, humbling ourselves from whatever high position we think we hold in life.

- receive Christ as our Saviour from sin joyfully into our life to take up residence with us.

Step 4: “Zacchaeus stood and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken anything from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold.” v.8

Zacchaeus was so distressed by his sin, and so much wanting Christ to be his Saviour that he wanted to be completely right with God and man. He offered to make restoration to anyone he had wronged. This showed the sincerity of his repentance.

Step 5: “Jesus said unto him, this day is salvation come to this house, forasmuch as he also is a son of Abraham.” v.9

Note: - Salvation comes in a day, not over many years of good works.

- Salvation comes when we seek Christ, come down from our high position receive Christ joyfully as our Saviour.

- Salvation’s result is to want to do the right thing by God and man.

iv) A Dying Thief. Luke 23:39-43

Step 1: He rebuked the unrepentant thief’s wrong selfish attitude to Christ. To be saved we must be willing to take a stand for Jesus Christ, even if it means going against the crowd.

Step 2: He said: “Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation? And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds.” v.40,41.

To be saved we must

- fear God

- be aware of our own sinfulness

- be aware that we are worthy of God’s judgement.

Step 3: “But this man hath done nothing amiss.” v.41 To be saved we must

- recognise Jesus Christ’s sinlessness.

Step 4: “He said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.” v.42

To be saved we must

- recognise that Jesus is God, the “Lord”.

- call on Jesus to save us: “Lord remember me when you come into your kingdom.”

- recognise that Jesus is our only Mediator to get us to heaven, not Mary, not saints, not Buddha, not any other religious figure, not good works, only Jesus Christ can save us. I Tim 2:5

Notice: He also believed that Jesus was the King of the Jews, and that Jesus would come to earth again as King of the earth.

Step 5: Jesus assures him of his salvation: “Today, shalt thou be with me in paradise.” v.43.

When we call on Jesus to save us, He saves us and keeps us saved, so that whenever we die we are promised to be with Jesus in paradise. For believers this means that on death, we go instantly to heaven to be in God’s presence. Question: Are you really saved? If not, then call on Christ to save you today as these four men did 2,000 years ago.

11. Notice six very clear steps in the process of salvation in Romans 10:12-15.

1. A person is SENT

2. That person PREACHES the Gospel

3. People HEAR the Gospel

4. People BELIEVE the facts of the Gospel (Believe in Him)

5. People CALL on the name of the Lord to save them

6. People are then SAVED.

Notice in v.12 “the same Lord over all is rich unto all that CALL upon him.”

Note: We only experience the riches of Christ’s salvation when we call on him to save us.

12. Objection: But isn’t believing in Christ just enough?

Answer:

- a) If we believe in Christ, we will call on Christ to save us, or at the very least acknowledge to Christ our desire, or our need for Christ to save us from our sin.
- b) Romans 10:10 links “BELIEF” and “CALLING”.
Belief comes first, then is followed simultaneously/immediately by calling: “with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.” Rom. 10:10
We learn here that:
- A confession of Christ is as indispensable to salvation as believing. Jesus affirms this in Matthew 10:32, Luke 12: 8,9.
 - There can be no true salvation where we are not willing to confess the Lord Jesus. “No man can say that Jesus is the Lord but by the Holy Ghost.” 1 Corinthians 12:3
- c) Romans 10:9 links “confessing with your mouth the Lord Jesus” with “believing in your heart that God has raised him from the dead.”
“Confess” here means: to express our agreement with what God holds to be true. It is a public open declaration as seen by “with thy mouth”, regarding our sin, our lost estate, our need of the Saviour. We confess that Jesus is our Lord, that He has a right to rule over our soul eg. Paul in Acts 9:6 “Lord, what wilt thou have me to do?”
“Believe in your heart” means that the external confession corresponds with the internal feelings.
- d) “Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.” Romans 10:11.
If we have true belief in Christ as Saviour, we will not be ashamed to declare it.
- e) Acts 26:27 “King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest. Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian.”
We learn that: Agrippa believed that Jesus was the fulfillment of the prophets’ message. Believing the facts is not enough to save a person. One must receive Jesus Christ as our Saviour.
13. Other scriptures teaching that we must call on Christ to be saved:
- i) “I will call upon the Lord, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from my enemies (eg. satan, sin, hell)” Psalm 18:3.
 - ii) “Save Lord: let the king hear us when we call.” Psalm 20:9.
 - iii) “Call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.” Psalm 50:15. The Lord’s method of delivering (saving) us from trouble is for us to call on Him to save us. So it is that by calling on the Lord, He will save us from hell.
 - iv) “As for me, I will call upon God; and the Lord shall save me.” Psalm 55:16.
 - v) “Quicken us, and we will call upon thy name. Turn us again O Lord God of hosts, cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.” Psalm 80:18, 19.
 - vi) “For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive; and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee.” v.5
“In the day of trouble I will call upon thee: for thou wilt answer me.” v.7. Psalm 86:5,7.
 - vii) “He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble, I will deliver him and honour him.” Psalm 91:15.
 - viii) “Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among them that call upon his name; they called upon the Lord, and he answered them.” Psalm 99:6.
 - ix) “in the day when I call answer me speedily.” Psalm 102:2.
 - x) “O give thanks unto the Lord; call upon his name.” Psalm 105:1.
 - xi) “I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord” Psalm 116:13.
 - xii) “The Lord is near unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth.. he also will hear their cry, and will save them.” Psalm 145:18,19.

- xiii) “Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation. And in that day shall ye say, Praise the Lord, call upon his name...” Isaiah 12:3,4.
- xiv) “Then shalt thou call, and the Lord shall answer.” Isaiah 58:9.
- xv) “Before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking I will hear.” Isaiah 65:24.
- xvi) “Call unto me, and I will answer thee” Jeremiah 33:3.
- xvii) “Here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on thy name. Acts 9:14. All who are saved are described as those who “call on thy name.”
- xviii) “With all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.” 1 Corinthians 1:2.
- xix) “Follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.” 2 Timothy 2:22

Believers are described again as people who “call on the Lord.” We are saved by calling on the Lord, and we continue in total dependence upon God to call on the Lord for all our needs.

- xx) In my distress I called upon the Lord, and cried to my God: he did hear my voice out of his temple, and my cry did enter into his ears. 2 Samuel 22:7.

If we are truly convicted of our sins, and of our need of Jesus Christ to be our Saviour, then we will call on Christ to save us. Being distressed by our sins, our normal response is to immediately call on Christ to save us.

In John 6:28-34, Jesus tells us that to work the works of God, we must believe on Christ. The people’s response is to say “Lord, evermore give us this bread” v.34, that is to say “we want it, we now ask for it, we now receive it.”

Jesus replies: “Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.” v.37

“everyone which seeth²³³⁴ the Son, and believeth⁴¹⁰⁰ on him, may have everlasting life:”v40 seeth²³³⁴ in Greek means to look at, to comprehend, recognise,acknowledge. Therefore we must see (recognise who Christ is) and believe on him (receive, call, ask, come, take, confess Christ as Saviour) to be saved.

3. DEFINITIONS ASSOCIATED WITH SALVATION.

1. REPENT: to change the mind, to regret. Acts 2:38.
2. CONVERT: (1378 in Strong’s Concordance) = to turn.
= to turn from self and sin and receive Christ as Saviour. “Except ye be converted and become as little children ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.” Matthew 18:3.
“Repent and turn to God (convert) and do works meet for repentance.” Acts 26:20.
3. BELIEVE: (pisteuo in Greek), have faith, to trust
“Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved.” Acts 16:31.

Question: What does “believe” mean for salvation?

Answer: Believe is a SUMMARY word.

It summarises a number of things that we must believe in order to be saved. If one is missing, a person is not saved.

a) Belief has FACTS to rest upon

Believe is a summary statement that assumes an understanding of other scriptures pertinent to salvation. “Believe” implies that the person believes, or is firmly persuaded that:

1. He is a sinner.
2. He is heading to hell.
3. His good works can’t save him.
4. Christ died as his Substitute/Saviour/Sin bearer on the cross to be punished for his sin in the sinners place.
5. He is willing to turn from sin, and turn to God.
6. Jesus Christ is 100% God and 100% man.
7. Christ rose bodily from the dead.
8. We must receive, call, ask, come, take or confess Christ as Saviour.

- b) Belief involves deciding either for or against Jesus Christ and his offer of salvation: “But the gift of God is eternal life..” Romans 6:23.

c) Believe can be used with different prepositions.

i) Believe in (“en” in Greek) in John 3:16 means “to confide in someone.”

ii) Believe on (“epi” in Greek) in Acts 16:31 means “laying hold on the object of faith.” Therefore, one needs to “confide in Christ” or “lay hold on Christ” or “call on Christ to save”, in order to have salvation.

d) Believe in the New Testament uses other words interchangeably:

i) Receive: “But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name”. John 1:12. (Acts 2:21

ii) Call upon: “For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.” Rom.10:13;

iii) Ask: “thou would have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.” John 4:10.

iv) Come: “Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.” John 6:37.

“let him that is athirst come. Revelation 22:17.

v) Take: “whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.” Revelation 22:17.

vi) Confess: “If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.” Romans 10:9.

“For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.” Romans 10:10. Charles Ryrie in “So Great Salvation” well says:

Key: “The person who receives, or calls upon, or asks, or comes, or takes, or confesses, this person believes.”

Question: Isn’t it just enough to tell people to believe in or on Christ?

Answer: No, because, most people think that “believe” means “mental assent to the facts of the Gospel” or “just believing that God or Christ exists.” This is not Bible belief for salvation. They must understand the Bible facts of the Gospel before they can believe.

The Old Testament, not the New Testament, uses the word “look” in the context of being saved in Isaiah 45:22, “Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth.”

This reminds us of saving belief (John 3:14,15), and of the snake bitten Jews in the wilderness looking at the brass serpent on a pole (Numbers 21:5-9) to be healed of snake bite. This is a picture of the new birth. This is still an individual communicating his desire to Christ to be saved. It is a non-verbal call in the mind to God for salvation.

4. BAD EFFECTS OF THIS DOCTRINE OF “NOT CALLING”.

1. It eliminates human responsibility, and emphasises exclusively divine sovereignty.

2. Christians therefore never tell a sinner to call on Christ to save them and people rarely ever get saved (using this approach), and Christians stop being soul winners.

3. Christians never start discipling people, because they never lead anyone to Christ.

4. It sets up division between Christians.

Some people believe the following false or misleading statements:

a) “A person does not need to pray in order to be saved.”

Answer: This is false. A person must communicate to God his desire for Christ to save him, be it verbally or mentally. Surely this is prayer. See the four men saved in section 2.

b) “Salvation in Christ is received through faith alone & is not dependant on any action of man.”

Answer: This statement is false. Believe, faith, trust are all summary words that summarise the eight concepts of salvation discussed previously. If a person believes these eight things, he is saved, he believes, he has faith in Christ, and he trusts Christ for salvation. Notice that salvation is appropriated when a person believes the eight things and responds in one of these six ways by either receiving, calling on, asking, coming, taking, or confessing Christ as Saviour. Surely this is an action of man, by which he appropriates salvation. However, none of these are good works, which the Bible clearly says cannot save us. Ephesians 2:8,9. An action is not a work.

5. OLD TESTAMENT PICTURES OF SALVATION

These show that people were not saved by just believing the facts of the Gospel.” They had to appropriate God’s way of escape by taking the action God commanded them to. For example:

1. God offered animal skins to Adam and Eve

When they accepted these, it showed that they were accepting the blood sacrifice of an innocent animal dying in their place. This pictured Christ’s perfect future sacrifice that they were trusting in.

2. Abel offered a blood sacrifice to God which was accepted

Cain’s vegetable bloodless sacrifice was rejected.

3. Noah’s Ark is a picture of Christ saving and keeping us saved. Noah and his family had to enter the Ark to be saved. Those who refused to enter the Ark were drowned.

4. Israelites in Egypt on the Passover night had to kill a spotless lamb and apply its blood on the doorposts and lintel of their house, or their firstborn would have died. Just believing that a lamb’s blood applied would save them was not enough. They had to apply the blood. So must we by calling on Christ to save us.

5. Snake bitten Israelites in the wilderness had to move outside their tents to look at the brass serpent on a pole. Then they were healed upon looking. John 3:14. It wasn’t enough to believe that looking would heal. They had to act by looking. So we are saved by calling on Christ to save us.

6. Naaman the Syrian leper was told to dip seven times in the Jordan river to be healed of leprosy. Only when he believed it and dipped himself did he get cured of leprosy.

All these people had to believe, then appropriate in order to be saved. If we believe in Christ, we will appropriate Christ by calling on Him to save us, or receive Christ as our Saviour etc.

Question: Have you received Jesus Christ as your Saviour?

Question: Are you sharing the Gospel daily and challenging people to receive Christ as their Saviour?

26. A CHRISTIAN SHOULD (among others)

1. Walk in the Lord. Colossians 2:6
2. Meditate upon the Word of God. Psalm 119:97; 1 Timothy 4:15
3. Wait upon the Lord. Isaiah 40:31
4. Seek the Lord for guidance. Proverbs 3:5,6
5. Always seek God’s will and fulfil it. Romans 12:2
6. Be not fearful. 1 Timothy 1:7; Ephesians 6:10
7. Be vigilant and sober. 1 Peter 5:8
8. Resist the devil. James 4:7
9. Be faithful in servng God. Keep the faith. 1 Timothy 4:7
10. Be a faithful steward. 1 Corinthians 4:2
11. Maintain good works. Titus 3:8; Matthew 5:16
12. Glorify the Lord in everything. 1 Corinthians 6:20
13. Be an example of the believers. 1 Timothy 4:12
14. Avoid disputes. Philippians 2:14; 2 Timothy 2:23; Titus 3:9; 1 Timothy 6:5
15. Abstain from all appearance of evil. 1 Thessalonians 5:22
16. Refrain from closeness with the opposite sex. 2 Timothy 2:22; Proverbs 7:5
17. Be filled with the Spirit. Ephesians 5:18
18. Be filled with the love of Christ. Romans 5:5
19. Love Christ as the First Love. Revelation 2:4; Luke 14:26
20. Live for Christ daily. Philippians 1:21
21. Be kind to others. Romans 12:10; Colossians 3:12
22. Forgiving others, even enemies. Matthew 5:44
23. Confess all sins and be cleansed. 1 John 1:9
24. Maintain a good family. 1 Timothy 3:3,4; 5:8
25. Love Christ’s appearing. 2 Timothy 4:8
26. Be not slothful in business. Romans 12:11 by Jacob Chelli, President of the Berean Baptist Bible College, Bangalore, India.

27. TESTS OF A PERSON'S SALVATION

Aim: To discern whether to counsel a person to be saved or to believe that he is already saved.

Problem: With many people we meet it is very hard to tell if they are saved. Jesus predicted this in His parable of the wheat and the tares. Matthew 13:24-30,36-43. You can discern by their fruits whether or not they are saved. Matthew 7:15-20.

What are some ways of testing to see if a person is really saved?

1. LOVE THE BRETHREN (A desire for Church)

“Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.” 1 John 4:7; 1 John 2:9-11; 1 John 3:14-19.

2. DISLIKE FOR SIN

This results in a true believer overcoming the world by faith in Christ. ‘For whatsoever is born of God overcomes the world:& this is the victory that overcomes the world, even our faith.’ 1John 5:4

3. LISTENING TO TEACHING and ADVICE OF GODLY CHRISTIANS

"We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error." 1 John 4:6.

If a person is rebellious to Christians over an important issue and refuses to hear (or heed) them, then we are to count him as a heathen. Matthew 18:15-17.

4. CONFESS THAT JESUS IS THE SON OF GOD TO OTHERS with your mouth ‘Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.’ 1 John 4:2,3,15.

“If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.” Romans 10:9.

5. KEEP HIS COMMANDMENTS

“And he that keepeth His commandments dwelleth in him, and He in him.” 1 John 3:24a; 2:3-6.

6. POSSESSING THE HOLY SPIRIT

“And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.” 1 John 3:24; 4:13

7. JESUS CHRIST IS PRECIOUS TO YOU

“Unto you therefore which believe he is precious.” 1 Peter 2:7a.

Is Jesus Christ precious to you? If He is, you can't take His name in vain.

8. GOOD WORKS characterise our life after salvation. James 2:14-26.

9. GOD DISCIPLINES A TRUE BELIEVER WHEN HE SINS. Hebrews 12:5-11.

10. IF YOU HAVE CHRIST (the SON) YOU HAVE LIFE. 1 John 5:11-13.

CONCLUSION

Just because a person professes to be a Christian, it doesn't mean that he is really saved. Matthew 7:21-23
If someone has honestly received Jesus Christ as his Saviour from sin, understanding that Jesus is 100% God and 100% man, he is saved. These fruits confirm that he is saved. Some people claim to be Christians, but are not sure of going to heaven, have not understood the gospel, are lost & going to hell.

28. ANSWERS TO COMMON OBJECTIONS MET IN SOUL WINNING

Bible Reading: 1 Peter 3:15

Aim: To give Christians answers to objections met in soul winning so we can win more souls to Christ.

Introduction: Many people with whom we share the gospel have genuine questions they want answered which hinder them receiving Christ. By providing clear, simple answers to these questions, many more people may get saved. Notice three things about these people:

- 1) Don't spend all your time answering objections or arguing.
- 2) Briefly answer objections. Bring the conversation back to the gospel immediately. Satan may put questions in their minds, to sidetrack you from preaching the gospel. Don't fall into this trap.
- 3) Check if they are sincere and open to the truth.

Answers to common objections are:

1. What about those who have never heard the gospel, such as people in Africa?

Doesn't this mean God is unjust in sending people to hell if they have never heard?

- a) In Titus 2:11 God says that they have heard enough about God that if they follow it up they will get saved through Christ. 'The grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men.'
Question: How much do you know about ancient heathen individuals secret thought life? (Nothing)
- b) In Romans 1:18-21 God says that He has shown them His eternal power and Godhead through creation, so they are without excuse.
- c) In Revelation 5:9 people from 'every kindred, tongue, people and nation' that ever existed will be in heaven, singing that 'Christ was slain and has redeemed us to God by thy blood.'
- d) In Acts 17:27, God says of pagans that 'they should seek after the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and FIND HIM, though he be not far from everyone of us.'
This means that if pagans seek God, they will find Him. Helen Keller was born blind, deaf,&dumb. When she got saved, she said that she always knew God was there, but didn't know His Name.
- e) Jeremiah 29:13 says that if people seek God with all their heart, they will find Him.
'Ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart.'

2. Is Christ the only way to God? What about other religions?

- a) John 14:6 Jesus said 'I am the way, the truth & the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me'
- b) Acts 4:12 'Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.'
- c) 1 Timothy 2:5 'For there is one God,&one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus'
Question: Why is Jesus Christ the only way to God?
- a) He lived a sinless life. (John 8:46).
- b) He was God, and had the credentials to prove it. (John 8:24; 5:18,23).
- c) He solves the sin problem, by paying for our sin on the cross. (Isaiah 53:6).
- d) He rose from the dead. (Luke 24:39-43).
- e) The Old Testament prophets predicted details of His life. (Isaiah 9:6; Micah 5:2; Psalm 22:16).
- f) Jesus predicted the future correctly (Matthew 24:1-34).

Only Jesus Christ deals with the sin problem by paying the penalty for our sins on the cross, which God's law required. No other religion solves the sin problem; they only tell us to do good works and hope for the best, without any certainty of eternal life. Christ promises us eternal life if we receive Him as our Saviour. Who else has Christ's credentials?

3. Won't a good life get me to heaven? I'm a good person.

You may be good compared to men, but not compared to God. Scripture states good works don't save.

- a) Isaiah 64:6 'all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags.'
- b) Ephesians 2:8,9,10 'By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works lest any man should boast.'
- c) Titus 3:5 'Not by works of righteousness which we have done'.
Salvation is gift. (Romans 6:23; John 4:10; II Corinthians 9:15).

Question: If salvation is by good works, how good do you have to be?

Question: If salvation is by good works, then why did Christ have to die on the cross? Who saves man?

4. Isn't the Bible full of errors?

Name one! 'The words of the Lord are pure words . . . thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever'. (Psalm 12:6,7).

Question: Whom did Cain marry? Answer: His sister: 'he begat sons and daughters.' Genesis 5:4.

The right attitude about apparent contradictions is to shelve what you don't know until you learn more.

We know the Bible is the faultless Word of God, because:

Jesus Christ said it was God's Word, proven by Jesus Christ rising from the dead; and Jesus Christ accurately predicted the future.

5. Why does God allow suffering? Why do the innocent suffer if God is loving?

'Wherefore, as by one man (Adam) sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned.' (Romans 5:12).

- a) When man rebelled against God and sided with Satan, he brought the consequences on himself. The nature of sin is that it spreads and affects others.
- b) God allows:
 - i) The lost to suffer – to make them aware of the shortness of time and lengthiness of eternity; as well as to shake complacent Christ-rejecting sinners out of their proud self dependence, causing them to look to God and hence be saved. It is better to suffer a while on earth and be saved, than to be well off on earth and suffer in hell for ever.
 - ii) Believers to suffer as discipline or to make us more like Christ. (Romans 8:28,29).
- c) The correct attitude to suffering is that because we don't know all the facts, we should not judge God, since our knowledge is so small. Job suffered, not knowing all the facts, but he honoured God in his trials. God blessed him later with twice as much after his suffering was over.
- d) God has prepared to stop suffering later in heaven.
- e) God can turn suffering into great blessing for many. 'For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the Lord, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end.' Jeremiah 29:11

6. What about all the hypocrites in the church?

- a) You are responsible to God for yourself, so don't judge others. 'So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God'. (Romans 14:12).
- b) Don't compare yourself with others, or with the worst, but with Christ. We are all sinners. 'For we dare not . . . compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they . . . comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.' (2 Corinthians 10:12).
- c) Some of the hypocrites in the church are proud and trust their good works for salvation, while despising others, like the Pharisees whom Christ condemned.
- d) Churches are made of people who know they are sinners and who know they need God.
- e) If you have a standard and don't keep it, then you are a hypocrite as well. You aren't perfect. Fix your own sins first before you condemn others. (Matthew 7:3,4,5).

7. What about Science opposing and disproving the Bible, eg: Evolution.

- a) True science which is based on observable facts, supports the Bible. Evolution is not observable.
- b) 'Avoid . . . oppositions of science falsely so called.' (1 Timothy 6:20).
- c) Science is learning&changing as man thinks up new theories. The Bible is God's revelation to man.
- d) The history of science is full of discarded theories. The Bible has not needed to be revised, but contains many scientific facts unknown when written, but proven true later by modern science. The Bible has a better record of being proven right than has science.
- e) Evolution is wrong because:
 - i) mutations never produce a new species of animal life;
 - ii) uniformitarianism is proven wrong by Noah's Flood;
 - iii) Transitional fossils between species are non-existent;
 - iv) Dating methods of rocks are in error, disagreeing with one another
- v) How does evolution explain how sex & reproductive systems evolved?

8. How can miracles be possible?

- a) Ask: 'If God exists, would miracles be too hard for Him?'
- b) 'For with God nothing shall be impossible.' (Luke 1:37).

9. Some people think that God does not exist.

- a) 'In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.' (Genesis 1:1). Creation's intelligent complex life forms prove there is a Creator God.
- b) God's existence is 'clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made . . . so that they are without excuse.' (Romans 1:19,20).
- c) 'The fool hath said in his heart, there is no God.' (Psalm 14:1).
Atheism is an excuse to hide behind sin. The atheist thinks, 'If there is no God, then there is no judgment, then I can sin (do what I want) and get away with it.'
- d) Atheism claims to know everything, even all that does not exist.

Questions to ask Atheists:

- i) What percent of the total knowledge of the universe do you possess? (nil or small).
- ii) Is it possible for God to exist outside your sphere of knowledge? (Yes).
Therefore, because you are not infinite in knowledge, you can't say God does not exist, can you?
- e) Jesus Christ's prophecies, life, miracles, death and resurrection prove God's existence.
- f) Ask: Are you open to find out if God exists or not? Or do you have a closed mind?
- g) Ultimate proof of God lies in knowing God personally.
- h) Jesus said that God exists. This is proven by Jesus rising from the dead. This proves God exists.
- i) Conversation between an atheist and a Christian: Atheist said, 'God is dead'.
Christian replied, 'That's strange. I spoke to Him 5 minutes ago and He wasn't even sick.'

10. I don't need a crutch. I'm OK!

Everyone has a sin problem with God. Some realise it, others do not. You have broken God's laws, and the penalty awaits you. Your need is to come to Christ for forgiveness, not a psychological crutch. You may be OK now, but you can't cope with hell forever.

29. HINDRANCES TO SUCCESSFUL SOUL-WINNING

Bible Reading: Romans 10:1-15.

Aim: To re-motivate us to the seriousness of soul winning. What things hinder Christians from being successful soul winners?

1. Getting sidetracked to something else: eg. making money (Matthew 13:22), not following Jesus (Matthew 4:19), losing your vision of eternity (Proverbs 29:18).
2. Not praying 'Ye have not because ye ask not.' James 4:2. We must pray to become better soul winners. Some results of prayerlessness are laziness, no zeal, and no love for souls.
3. Not following the Roman Road plan. Romans 3:23; 6:23; 5:8; 10:13. Use the STOP Tract!
 - a) When Christians don't use it they fail as soul-winners.
 - b) They then conclude that they don't have the gift of soul winning.
 - c) They then give up on soul winning.
4. Not following up those contacted. Be friendly, spend time with new and young Christians to encourage them. Don't fear failure or rejection. Have a home Bible study with them.
5. Not doing soul winning wholeheartedly. Have a special time to do soul winning each week eg. Sunday 3-5pm. "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might." Ecclesiastes 9:10. Not sowing means not reaping. Ecclesiastes 11:1-4.
6. Fear of what people will think. Proverbs 29:25. The worst that can happen is that the person may not want to see you again. This frees you to go see someone else.
7. Sin in your life. II Peter 2:19. Sin brings us into bondage, and hinders the Holy Spirit from powerfully working through us. Confess sin to God continually.
8. Not loving God or people enough. "the love of Christ constraineth us." II Corinthians 5:14.

Conclusion: If you know someone you want to tell the gospel to, let me know, and we'll go together so you can learn from the preacher how to do soul winning. Ask God to give you a burden for soul winning. This is why we exist as a church.

30. DOOR-KNOCKING

'Go out into the highways & hedges, & compel them to come in, that my house may be filled' Luke 14:23
'And daily in the temple, & in every house, they ceased not to teach & preach Jesus Christ.' Acts 5:42
Everyone in the church over five years of age should be encouraged to come door-knocking for the purpose of sharing God's plan of salvation with all people who will listen. Follow this advice:

- 1) Meet at a central and comfortable location for prayer and planning.
- 2) Give literature to all who come:
 - a) STOP tracts, Mailbox club lesson 1, John's gospel for new converts, RC tract, Answers book.
 - b) Book to record names, addresses, phone numbers of keen people; NH= not home. Neg=negative
- 3) Pair up so that an experienced person goes with one who is less experienced.
- 4) Pray around the group before going, asking God for:
 - Hungry hearted people prepared by God
 - Love for sinners
 - The right words to speak
 - Fill you with the Holy Spirit
 - To bind Satan's forces from interfering while talking to people
 - People to be saved that day and to come to church
- 5) Allocate pairs to do one street at a time. Pastor or planner should have an area map where he records which streets have been covered and new streets needing visiting.
- 6) If people get saved, ask them for a home Bible study the following week.
- 7) Be polite, not aggressive. Leave if they ask you to. Remember you are looking for the people that God has prepared for you to speak with. Spiritually hungry people are the ones to spend time with.
- 8) When you meet people at the door, say: 'Good afternoon. I'm dropping by to leave this with you. This explains how you can know God personally and be sure of going to heaven.'

Q: Have you thought much about God before?

Q: May I ask a question please?

Q: If you died tonight, do you know 100% for sure that you'd go to heaven?

Q: Would you like to be sure of going to heaven?

Q: (If 'yes', ask:) This pamphlet shows from the Bible how we can be sure of going to heaven. May we look at it please?(If they say 'no', then say:) If you wish, you may prefer to read it in your own time. You'll find that it makes four points:

- 1) All of us have sinned and broken God's laws. I think you'd agree with that.
- 2) Because we've all sinned, there is a penalty on sin which is death and hell, to which we are all heading. This is bad news. None of want to go to hell, do we? The good news is that God offers each of us the gift of eternal life which we get through Jesus Christ, not through our good works or any religion.
- 3) Jesus Christ took the full punishment on the cross for our sins. Instead of us being punished in hell forever, Jesus had our sins taken off us and placed on Him, thus dying as our Saviour, sin-bearer and substitute. He is now available to be your Saviour if you want Him to be.
- 4) How may we enter heaven? We must believe that:
 - a) Jesus Christ is God the Son;
 - b) Jesus Christ died in our place as our Saviour;
 - c) Jesus Christ rose again bodily from the dead, then
 - d) Receive Jesus Christ as your Saviour, etc.
- 5) On the back page we see 3 promises: If we Receive Christ as our Saviour we become a son of God, if we call on Christ to save us we will be saved, and if we have the Son we have life.
- 6) These promises are summarised in the prayer at the bottom of the page. Would you be so kind as to read it to see if it makes sense. Does it make sense? (Yes). Does it express what you honestly want God to do? If yes, would you like to tell this to God after me?
- 7) Follow-up and visit those who are interested and whom you lead to Christ. Invite them to church and for a follow-up Bible study. Give them "Established in the Faith" book. Ask: "Which of these subjects interest you?" Ask: "Would it be possible for us to get together some time to look at them?" (yes). "When would suit you?" Phone them and regularly visit good contacts.

31. WHAT AN INDEPENDENT BAPTIST CHURCH STANDS FOR

Bible Reading: Matthew 16:5-12

Aim: To make it clear as to what an Independent Baptist Church is and what it stands for, so that we can have strong convictions as to the truth of our position. To beware of the leaven of false doctrine.

Introduction

To many people an Independent Baptist church is something new. To those people in denominations, they find the concept of each church being independent and accountable only to God as difficult to understand. Yet this is precisely the New Testament pattern.

Jesus, in Matthew 16:5-12, compares false doctrine to leaven (ie: yeast), something which permeates the whole batch. Jesus tells his disciples in v.6 to TAKE HEED and BEWARE of the leaven of the Pharisees and the Sadducees.

Jesus explains this leaven in v.11,12 to be their false doctrine. Today, much false doctrine exists in Christendom, and we must be very careful to check every idea with the Bible.

Independent churches that baptised believers by immersion were the norm up to 300 AD. They paralleled the Eastern Orthodox and Roman churches. They predated the Reformation. It is not new, nor novel. It lays claim to a long, and glorious heritage. It has been a persecuted church.

Today there are millions of Independent Baptist churches all over the world in China, India, Africa, North and South America, Asia and Europe. They meet in buildings, houses, or in open air in poor countries.

What makes an Independent Baptist church so distinct? An Independent Baptist church is a:

- 1. SELF GOVERNING CHURCH with no external hierarchy. All churches in the New Testament were independent, autonomous, self governing, responsible only to God, not to the commands of some man made hierarchy. The leading of the Lord is sought on all matters and this independence of a man-made hierarchy actually increases our dependence on the Lord. In Revelation 2,3 each church is accountable to Jesus Christ, not to an external, man-made hierarchy.
- 2. BIBLE CENTRED CHURCH
An Independent Baptist Church is a Bible believing, teaching and obeying church. The Bible is central in every service, because God “has magnified his Word above all his name.” Psalm 138:2. The Bible is the verbally inspired Word of God, without error and is the standard by which all behaviour and beliefs are judged. 2 Timothy 3:16,17 and 2:15.
- 3. KING JAMES VERSION of the Bible is used, and not modern versions because of their many omissions and errors. This is because they were translated from mainly two corrupted manuscripts namely Codex Vaticanus and Codex Sinaiticus. Omissions in modern versions include:
Matthew 17:21; 18:11 and 23:14
Mark 7:16; 9:44, 46; 11:26 and 15:28
Luke 17:36 and 23:17
John 5:4
Acts 8:37; 15:34; 24:7 and 28:29
Romans 16:24
Verses changed, left out partly, or cast doubt on are: Mark 16:9-20; 1 Timothy 3:16; 1 John 5:7,8 and John 3:13; 1 Corinthians 15:47.
We believe in 100% inspiration and preservation of the whole Bible to today as in the King James Version which is translated from the vast majority of NT manuscripts (Psalms 12:6,7).
- 4. ACCURATELY INTERPRETING THE BIBLE
The Bible has only one correct interpretation. This means it is not of any private interpretation (2 Peter 1:20). Rules for correct interpretation are applied such as grammar, context, history, cross-references, word meanings, and whether a passage is literal or figurative speech.

- 5. BELIEVERS BAPTISM BY IMMERSION, not infant sprinkling.
 Baptism means to dip or immerse and pictures the Gospel of Christ's death, burial and resurrection. Baptism is for adult believers, not for infant unbelievers (Acts 8:37, Mark 1:9-11).
 by: Immersion, not sprinkling (Matthew 28:19, 20).
 to: Obey Christ, not to get saved.
 by: a Bible-believing Church, not a false church.
 "Sprinkling" in Greek is "rantizo"; Immersion is "baptizo". The early church immersed believers, but never sprinkled them. Sprinkling was a pagan practice introduced later. Baptism by immersion after salvation shows that a person wishes to obey God's Word rather than men.
- 6. SOUL WINNING and MISSIONARY MINDED
 An Independent Baptist church takes the Great Commission seriously as we are accountable to Christ to be fishers of men (Matthew 4:19, Matthew 28:19,20). We do not just witness, but we seek to explain the Gospel clearly to lost people, challenging them to receive Jesus Christ as their Saviour from sin. We also see the need to preach the Gospel in regions beyond, and the starting of Independent Baptist churches all over the world.
 We believe that men are eternally damned to hell without Christ as their Saviour, and it is our responsibility to spread the Gospel to all the world.
- 7. PREMILLENNIAL, LITERAL INTERPRETATION OF PROPHECY
 An Independent Baptist Church looks for the blessed hope of believers being caught up to heaven at the return of Christ to the air (Titus 2:13 and 1 Thessalonians 4:16,17) and to the glorious appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ to rule on the earth for 1,000 years. Prophecy is to be taught and taken literally except where the passage uses figurative language. 1,000 years rule of Christ is literally 1,000 years. We look for the catching away of believers, seven year tribulation, glorious return of Christ to earth, 1,000 year rule of Christ, new heavens, new earth, and new Jerusalem. Since about 25% of the Bible is prophetic, we dare not ignore it.
- 8. CREATION BY GOD IN SIX LITERAL DAYS
 An Independent Baptist Church believes that when God says He created the heaven and earth in six literal days, He means exactly what He says. (Exodus 20:11). God did not use the unscientific theory of evolution to create life. We resist the modernist trend to believe evolution. We choose to believe God as Creator rather than man's vain philosophy and deceit of evolution, which is woefully lacking real evidence.
- 9. PURITY OF LIFE. SEPARATION FROM WORLDLINESS AND SIN. A COMMITMENT TO HOLINESS, GOD AND TRUTH.
 "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world." 1 John 2:15,16.
 2 Corinthians 6:14 - 7:1 tells us to "come out from, be separate from, and touch not the unclean thing, and to perfect holiness in fear of God."
 Jesus warned His disciples (Matthew 7:15-23), as did Paul warn the Ephesian elders (Acts 20:28-30), against grievous wolves who would come in sheep's clothing. Jude 3,4 warned against those who would creep in unawares and for us to earnestly contend for the faith (doctrine). 2 Peter 2:1 warns against false teachers in the church. We are to "flee fornication" and all ungodliness. The Independent Baptist Church stands apart from apostasy (1 Timothy 4:1,2). We do not fellowship with churches which teach false doctrine (Hebrews 6:1,2) or tolerate unbelieving religious leaders (Romans 16:17,18).
- 10. NOT FIVE POINT CALVINIST (not TULIP doctrine)
 We do not believe that God chooses one person to be saved before birth and another person to be damned. This is not the just God of the Bible. God makes salvation 100% available freely to all mankind, and God holds man 100% responsible to receive Christ as Saviour. Man is totally depraved, but can still call on Christ to save him. God chooses people not unconditionally, but on the condition of Christ's blood sacrifice being claimed for oneself. Salvation is not limited to those who would be saved, but Christ tasted death for every/all men (Hebrews 2:9).

God's grace to be saved is not irresistible but resistible (Acts 7:51; 1 Peter 1:4,5). Saints do not persevere in salvation, but Christ keeps us saved forever.

11. REVEREND MELODIOUS WORSHIP, NOT ROCK MUSIC

"Rock music has always been the devil's music." D. Bowie.

Ephesians 5:19 "Making melody ... to the Lord."

It is wrong to bring rock music into the church. Don't use worldly music to worship God.

Don't use worldly music to reach the world for Christ.

12. AVOID PAGAN PRACTICES like infant baptism, black robes, rosary beads, statues, Mary worship, holy water, confession to priest, and confirmation.

13. NOT TONGUES SPEAKING, SLAYING IN SPIRIT, or NEW REVELATIONS

1 Corinthians 13:11 "When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things."

1 Corinthians 14:22 "Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not ..."

1 Corinthians 14:15 "I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also..."

The tongues gift was a temporary sign to warn unbelieving Jews to repent or God would judge them. They failed to repent, so God used Titus, the Roman General, to destroy Jerusalem in 70 AD. Hence, the tongues gift is no longer relevant after 70 AD. Praying in tongues is wrong because we must understand what we are praying for. (1 Corinthians 14:15).

"Slaying in the Spirit" is not endorsed for Christians in the Bible. It was a warning of coming judgment on Israel in 712 BC, "they might go, and fall backward, be broken, and snared, and taken." Isaiah 28:13. Therefore don't do it. New revelations from God are not necessary because the Bible is our only and complete revelation from God for this age (2 Timothy 3:16,17).

14. HELL

An Independent Baptist Church teaches the reality of a literal burning hell of fire that Christ rejecters send themselves to after death. Jesus Christ warned people against going to hell many times, such as:

"Depart from me ye cursed into everlasting fire prepared for the devil and his angels."

"These shall go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into life eternal." Matthew 25:41,46.

"Into hell where their worm dies not, and the fire is not quenched." Mark 9:44,46.

Some people may not like hearing about hell, but we must tell people all the relevant facts. Hell is relevant to unbelievers.

CONCLUSION

An Independent Baptist Church is more concerned about pleasing and obeying God, than about pleasing men. The Word of God will judge us at the last day (John 12:48). We won't have to give account of our lives to men, but to God (Romans 14:12). It is very important WHAT we believe.

Matthew 5:19 "Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called THE LEAST in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall DO and TEACH them, the same shall be called GREAT in the kingdom of heaven."

Question: Do you want to be called "the least" or "great" in God's kingdom?

Therefore, get involved in doing God's work in an Independent Baptist Church. If you are in a church that does not hold to these important truths or holds false doctrines GET OUT OF IT NOW. You will never reform it by staying in it. God says: "What fellowship has righteousness with unrighteousness? Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord." 2 Cor. 6:14,17; Rev. 18:4,5.

Question: Will you be like many chief rulers who believed on Christ, yet were afraid of being put out of the synagogue because "they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God."? John 12:42,43.

32. STATEMENT OF FAITH of LIBERTY BAPTIST CHURCH (Independent).

"..... where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty." 2 Corinthians 3:17.

I. NAME.

The church shall be known as Liberty Baptist Church (Independent).

II. GOALS AND OBJECTIVES.

The purpose and programme of this church is to obey the Great Commission of Jesus Christ. (Matthew 28:19-20). The practice by Pastors and people of soul-winning, discipleship, baptism, Bible teaching, fellowship and edification of the church are the reasons for this church's existence.

The church's aim is to show forth Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour in all things.

Excessive administration will be avoided as will any social or secular activity that tends to divert the church from its God given responsibilities. The financial and physical resources of this church are to be constantly focused on fulfilling the Great Commission.

III. COVENANT (Mutual Agreement).

As members of Liberty Baptist church we accept the following agreement.

Having been led by the Holy Spirit to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Saviour, and upon our public profession of our faith in Him, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, we do now most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another as one body in Christ.

We promise that we will watch over and counsel one another in the spirit of brotherly love (Galatians 6:1,2), that we will remember one another in our prayers (James 5:16), and that we will help one another in sickness and in distress.

We further agree, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to walk together in Christian love (John 15:12); to strive for the growth of this church in grace, knowledge, holiness and comfort of Christ (II Peter 3:18); to promote its prosperity and spirituality; to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline and doctrines; to give it a sacred preeminence over all institutions of human origin (Ephesians 5:26,27); and to contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the church, the relief of the poor (James 1:27), and the spread of the Gospel through all nations.

We further covenant to maintain family and private devotions (Deuteronomy 6:4-25); to educate our children in the Word of God; to seek the salvation of our family and acquaintances; to live carefully in this present world (II Timothy 2:22-26; Titus 2:12); to be just in our dealings, faithful in our responsibilities, and exemplary in our behaviour (I Timothy 4:12); to avoid all gossip, backbiting and excessive anger (Titus 2:6-8); to abstain from everything that will cause our brother to stumble (Romans 14:13; 15:3), or that will bring reproach upon the cause of Christ (I Thessalonians 5:22); and to strive to grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour, that amidst evil and good report we will humbly and earnestly seek to live to the honour and glory of Him who loved us and gave himself for us (I Corinthians 10:31-11:1; Philippians 2:3,4,14-16,20,21).

We also agree that when we remove from this place we will, as soon as possible, unite with some other church where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God's Word (Hebrews 10:24,25).

IV. DOCTRINAL STATEMENT.

Members of this church shall hold as an essential part of their profession of faith the following evangelical doctrines:

1. The Scriptures.

We believe that the Holy Bible is God's infallible, inerrant Word, supernaturally and verbally inspired in totality, through holy men of old, such that the actual words were God's words without error or contradiction. The Bible therefore is, and shall remain to the end of the age, the only complete and final revelation of the will of God to men (II Timothy 3:16,17); the true basis of Christian union and the supreme and only standard by which all human conduct, creeds and opinions should be tried. The Word of God has been preserved in the vast majority of the manuscripts from which the Authorized Version (King James Version) has been translated.

- a) By "the Holy Bible" we mean that collection of sixty-six books, from Genesis to Revelation, which, as originally written and preserved to today does not only contain and convey the Word of God, but IS the very Word of God.
- b) By "Inspiration" we mean that the books of the Bible were written by holy men of old, as they were moved by the Holy Spirit, in such a definite way that their writings were supernaturally and verbally inspired and free from all error and omission as no other writings have ever been or ever will be inspired (II Peter 1:19-21; II Timothy 3:16; Matthew 24:35; Rev. 22:18,19).

2. The True God.

We believe that there is only one living and true God, the Creator and Supreme Ruler of heaven and earth; perfectly holy, worthy of all possible honour, confidence and love, who is the Upholder, Redeemer and Saviour of mankind. In the unity of the Godhead, there are three persons, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, equal in every Divine perfection and executing distinct but harmonious offices in the great work of redemption. (Matthew 28:19; I Peter 1:2; II Corinthians 13:14)

3. The Deity of Jesus Christ.

Jesus Christ is the second person of the Godhead. He is co-existent, co-equal and co-eternal with God the Father of whose person and glory He is the exact expression. This absolute deity of Jesus Christ is indissolubly combined with His perfect humanity in one Person. He is the one and only Mediator between God and man. (I Timothy 2:5; John 20:28; I Timothy 3:16; Philippians 2:6; Colossians 2:9,15-19; Hebrews 1:2,3; John 1:1-4).

4. The Holy Spirit.

We believe that the Holy Spirit is a Divine Person, equal with God the Father and God the Son, and of the same nature. The Holy Spirit was active in the creation (Genesis 1:2); in relation to the unbelieving world He restrains the evil one until God's purpose is fulfilled (II Thessalonians 2:6, 7). He convicts the world of sin, of righteousness and of judgment (John 16:8-11). He bears witness to the truth of the Gospel in preaching and testimony. He seeks to glorify Christ in all things (John 16:14,15). He is the agent in the new birth (John 3:3-8). He seals, endues with power, guides into all truth (John 16:13), teaches, witnesses to our salvation (I John 3:24), sanctifies and helps the believer.

The gifts of the Holy Spirit are given to the church for mutual edification (Ephesians 4:7-16). The temporary, miraculous sign gifts (for example, tongues, interpretation of tongues, miracles, apostleship, prophecy, knowledge and healing), were intended to be transitional and foundational. These ceased when Israel finally rejected the gospel (I Cor. 13:8-13; 14:21,22; Mark 16:17-20).

5. Creation.

We believe in the Genesis account of creation, and that it is to be accepted literally, and not allegorically or figuratively. Man was created directly in God's own image (Genesis 1:26,27), and after His own likeness. Man's creation was not a matter of evolution (atheistic or theistic) by change of species by developments through periods of time from lower to higher forms, but that all life was made directly by God, and God's established law was that they should bring forth only "after their kind".

6. Fall of Man.

We believe that man was created in innocence under the law of God, but by voluntary transgression fell from his sinless and happy state (Genesis 3:1-24) in consequence of which, all mankind are now sinners (Romans 5:12) by nature and by choice, therefore being under just condemnation without defence or excuse (Romans 1:18-20).

7. Virgin Birth.

We believe that Jesus Christ was begotten of the Holy Ghost in a miraculous manner, born of Mary, a virgin, as no other man was ever born or can ever be born of a woman. Mary is not an object of worship or prayer, but just a chosen vessel (Luke 1:46,47). Jesus Christ is both the Son of God and God the Son (Genesis 3:15; Isaiah 7:14; Luke 1:26-38; Matthew 1:23).

8. Salvation.

a) The Purposes of God.

Election and predestination are according to God's fore-knowledge of man's response to the conviction of the Spirit of God. (I Peter 1:2). All men are called to salvation, convicted of sin and enlightened. They therefore are able to exercise faith in Christ. It is God's desire that all men without exception should be saved (II Peter 3:9), though He knows beforehand that many will reject His free offer of mercy.

People are not predestined or ordained to believe, but those who of their own free will, exercise faith in Christ, in God's fore-knowledge, are appointed to eternal and heavenly blessing and they are eternally secure from the moment of conversion (Romans 8:29; I Timothy 2:4-6; Ezekiel 18:23)

b) Christ's Atonement for the Sin of Mankind.

The sinner is able to be redeemed from the guilt, penalty and power of sin through the sacrificial death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. In His death, Christ is the sinners' representative and substitute (II Corinthians 5:21). Something happened to Christ, and because it happened to Christ it need not happen to us. i.e. Because Christ died for our sins, we need not die for them if we accept His sacrifice. The sinner is reconciled to God and justified, not by human merit, but by Divine grace and by faith alone in what Christ has done (Ephesians 2:8,9,10). This atonement is sufficient for the whole world (Hebrews 2:9), but efficient only for those who personally believe in Christ as their Saviour.

Christ honoured God's law by His sinless obedience (Hebrews 4:15), and by His death made a full atonement for our sins (Colossians 2:14-17). His atonement consisted not in setting us an example by his death as a martyr, but was the voluntary substitution of Himself in the sinner's place, the just dying for the unjust, Christ the Lord, bearing our sins in His own body on the tree. Having risen from the dead for our justification (Romans 4:25), He is now enthroned in heaven (Heb 1:8), and in His perfection is in every way qualified to be a suitable (Hebrew 7:25), compassionate (I Peter 5:7), and a completely sufficient Saviour (I John 2:2).

c) Freedom of Salvation.

We believe that the blessings of Salvation are made free to all by the Gospel of Christ (Rom 1:16), that it is the duty of all to accept salvation freely, being sorry for their sins and having an obedient faith (Acts 2:37). Nothing holds back the Salvation of the greatest sinner on earth (John 6:37), except his own desire to sin (John 3:19,20), and his willing refusal of the Gospel (Acts 13:46). This refusal puts a man in a very great judgment (Rev 14:11; Matt 25:46). Repentance is a sincere and thorough changing of the mind and disposition in regard to sin, involving a sense of personal guilt and helplessness, apprehension of God's mercy, a strong desire to escape or be saved from sin, and a desire to abandon it.

d) Repentance and Faith.

We believe that repentance and faith are solemn duties (Luke 13:3), and also graces that cannot be separated (Hebrews 6:1), worked in our souls by the Spirit of God (John 16:8). Therefore, being deeply convicted of our guilt (Luke 5:8), danger (Jude 23), and helplessness (Luke 23:42), and of the only way of salvation being through Jesus Christ (John 14:6; Romans 10:9), we turn to God with true sorrow (Romans 10:10), confession and asking for mercy (Luke 18:13); at the same time heartily receiving the Lord Jesus Christ and openly confessing Him as our only and all-sufficient Saviour (Hebrews 10:10,12,14).

Faith is produced by the Word of God (Romans 10:17), showing our need, stating the promises, and conditions, and pointing out the blessings of salvation. Saving faith begins with intellectual belief of the Word of God, that Christ is available as our Saviour. Prayer is the means to faith, where we claim the promise of Christ as Saviour. Having done this we are then saved by faith in Jesus Christ.

e) Regeneration.

We believe that to be saved, sinners must be regenerated or born again (John 3:3), (a change of state). Regeneration means getting a new mind (I Corinthians 2:15,16), a new nature (II Peter 1:4), and becoming a new creature (II Corinthians 5:17; Ephesians 4:24). A new governing power has come into the regenerated man's life by which he is enabled to become holy in experience. All this is done in a way above our understanding by the power of the Holy Spirit, working with God's Truth (I Peter 1:23). The results of regeneration can be seen in our lives in the fruit of the Spirit, and in newness of life (Romans 6:4).

f) Justification is the judicial act of God whereby those who put faith in Christ as Saviour are declared righteous in God's eyes, and free from guilt and punishment due for their sin. (In effect, it is just as if I've never sinned). It is a change of position before God (Romans 5:1,2). We have acceptance with God on account of Christ's righteousness (II Corinthians 5:21). Justification includes the forgiveness of sin (Romans 4:7,8), and the imputation of the righteousness of Christ (Romans 4:20-25). It brings us into peace and favour with God (Romans 4:20-25).

g) Sanctification.

Sanctification is living a life separated from a sinful world and dedicated to God.

Each believer is free from sin's guilt, but daily needs deliverance from sin's power. The Old Man (the Old Human Spirit which has produced a habit pattern or way of life in the soul, Romans 6:6), has been crucified, but the principle of sin still operates in the believer's members (Romans 7:17), and will continue to do so until the redemption of the body at the coming of Christ for His Saints. Victory over sinful tendencies is the privilege of every believer, by the Holy Spirit's control and filling. Victory is appropriated by faith (Romans 6:6; 7:21-25; 8:2).

Sanctification is the way by which we are made to share God's Holiness (Hebrews 10:10,14). It is a progressive process (Psalm 119:9), commencing when one is born again (II Corinthians 5:17), and is carried on in the heart of the believer, by the Holy Spirit (John 16:13-15), through the Word of God (Colossians 3:16), self-examination (I Corinthians 11:31), self-denial (Luke 9:23), watchfulness (Revelation 16:15; Matthew 24:42,44,46), and prayer (Luke 18:1).

h) Security of the Believer.

We believe that once a person has been born again into the family of God by faith in Jesus Christ as Saviour, it is impossible for him to lose his salvation. He is kept saved by the power of God unto eternal salvation. (I Peter 1:4, 5; John 10:28).

9. Church.

The Church is the body of Christ composed of true believers in the Lord Jesus Christ. She has her visible form in the local assembly which is responsible for fulfilling the Great Commission (Matthew 28:19,20), ministry and mutual fellowship. The church is built on the foundation of the apostles (New Testament) and the prophets (Old Testament). (Ephesians 2:19-22). Evangelists, pastors and teachers are given in our time to teach and lead (Ephesians 4:11-13). Jesus Christ is the only Head and Founder (Matthew 16:18) of the Church by which all the saved are directed as members of His body (Ephesians 4:15; 5:23). The gifts of the Spirit are given to the church for her edification (Ephesians 4:12).

10. Offices.

The only offices in a true Church are Pastors (also called Bishops, I Timothy 3:1, Elders and Overseers), and Deacons (servants), who are appointed by the church for spiritual leadership and service. These are to be fit men as in I Timothy 3:1-12; Titus 1:5-9; I Peter 5:1-4; and Acts 6:1-8.

11. Ordinances of Baptism and the Lord's Supper.

a) We believe that Scriptural Baptism is the immersion of a believer in water (Acts 2:41; John 3:23; Mark 1:9-11), in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:19). It is a public declaration of a person's faith in Jesus Christ as their Saviour, symbolizing the believer's identification with Christ in His death, burial, and resurrection as the means of salvation, with its effect in our death to sin, burial of our Old Man, and resurrection to a new way of life. (Romans 6:1-6; Acts 8:38).

- b) The Lord's Table is to be a constant reminder of the sufferings of Christ, His broken body and precious blood by which salvation is purchased and heaven opened. (Acts 20:28). The elements of the supper are unleavened bread and the fruit of the vine (Matthew 26:26-29). In the Lord's Supper the believer remembers the Lord Jesus Christ till He comes again (I Corinthians 11:26). The taking of the elements does not impart forgiveness, but should be an occasion for solemn self-examination, and putting right any division which may occur within the Body of Christ. All true believers of the Lord Jesus are invited to the Table. This ordinance shall be observed on a regular and frequent basis (I Corinthians 11:23-29).

12. The Resurrection of the Dead.

Christ arose bodily "the third day according to the Scriptures" (I Corinthians 15:4); that He ascended "to the right hand of the throne of God", and that He alone is our "merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God".

After death, the bodies of men return to dust, but their spirits and souls return immediately to God (Ecclesiastes 3:21), the righteous to be with Him in heaven (II Corinthians 5:8), and the unrighteous to be reserved for the judgment (Hebrews 9:27). There will be two resurrections, the saved will be resurrected at the first resurrection (I Thess 4:13-18; Revelation 20:4-6; Matthew 27:51-54), and the unsaved at the second resurrection. (Rev 20:11-15; Acts 24:15; I Cor 15:1-58).

13. The Return of the Lord Jesus Christ.

We believe in and accept the Sacred Scriptures upon these subjects at their face and full value.

At the end of this age, according to His promise (John 14:3), Jesus Christ will return personally and visibly in His glory to the earth (Mark 8:38). The full consummation of the Kingdom awaits His return. He will appear in the air (I Thessalonians 4:16,17), and He will bring His saints with Him (I Thessalonians 4:13). "The dead in Christ shall rise first", and the living saints "shall be changed in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye." The time of this event is known by no man (Matthew 24:44). Following this event will be a time of very great trouble on the earth called the Tribulation (Matthew 24:21,22). This Tribulation will see the death of many on the earth and only those who have Jesus Christ as Saviour have any hope of being delivered from this great trouble. (I Thessalonians 5:9). Christ will therefore come initially to the air as the Heavenly Bridegroom to receive His Church before the Tribulation, and later come as King of Kings after the Great Tribulation when He will judge the nations and reign over all the earth for 1,000 years. (Revelation 20:1-7; Matthew 24:3-31; 25:31-34).

14. The Righteous and the Wicked

We believe that there is a basic and important difference between the righteous and the wicked (Matthew 25:31-33). Only those who through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ as Saviour are justified, and are therefore truly righteous in God's sight (Romans 3:24-26). This is because the believer's sins have been judged in Christ and at the first resurrection, believers receive rewards for faithful service. (II Corinthians 5:10; I Corinthians 3:11-15; Romans 14:10; Revelation 22:12). All others, being unbelievers, are under the wrath of God (John 3:36), and immediately upon death enter the literal fire and torment of hell (Luke 16:19-31). They remain there until the end of the 1,000 year rule of Christ, where they are resurrected bodily to stand before the Great White Throne to be judged according to their works. They will then all be consigned to a literal lake of fire where they will suffer everlasting punishment. (Revelation 20:11-15; 14:10,11).

15. Satan.

Satan is a created angelic being, who was once holy, enjoyed heavenly honours, but through pride and rebellious ambition to be like the Almighty, fell and drew after him a host of angels who now make up the demon hordes. He is now the evil prince of the power of the air, the unholy god of this world, man's great tempter, the enemy of the Godhead, the accuser of the saints, the author of all false religions, the chief power behind the present apostasy, the force behind the Antichrist and the chief of all the powers of darkness. He is destined to final defeat at the hands of God the Son, and to the punishment of an everlasting justice in the lake of fire, a place prepared for him and his angels. (Matthew 25:41; Ezekiel 28:1-19; Revelation 12:4; 20:10).

16. Civil Government.

We believe that civil government is of divine appointment (Romans 13:1-7) for the interest and good order of human society. Rulers are to be prayed for (I Timothy 2:1-3), conscientiously honoured (Matthew 22:21), and obeyed (Matthew 17:24-27; Romans 3:31) except in matters clearly opposed to the will of Almighty God (Acts 4:19), who is the only True King and Lord of Heaven and Earth (Revelation 19:16).

17. Missions.

We believe that the command to give the Gospel to the World is clear and unmistakable and that this commission is given to the churches. (Acts 1:8; 13:1-5).

Having read the Statement of Faith of Liberty Baptist Church (Independent) and finding myself in agreement with the doctrines, principles and practices contained herein, I hereby apply for membership of this church and agree to conscientiously work towards the achieving of its goals as stated above.

Signed:.....

Date:.....

The Cost, Curse and Cure of Adultery

“Whoso committeth adultery with a woman lacketh understanding: he that doeth it destroyeth his own soul. A wound and dishonour shall he get: and his reproach shall not be wiped away.” Proverbs 6:32-35

“Thou shalt not commit adultery.” Exodus 20:14.

(Matthew 5:28

“Whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her has committed adultery with her already in his heart.”

Challenge: When tempted to commit adultery, consider these consequences for you and for others:

1. God: Grieving the Lord who redeemed me.

2. Jesus Christ: At the Judgment Seat of Christ having to look Jesus in the face and give account.

3. Spouse: Inflicting untold hurt on your best friend and loyal wife, losing (her) respect and trust.

4. Children: Hurting your children, destroying your example and credibility and nullifying your efforts to teach them to obey God. There is a high chance that they will follow your sinful example.

5. Your Family: Causing shame to your extended family.

6. Yourself: a) Creating unforgettable guilt. God can forgive you, but you may not forgive yourself.

b) Creating memories and flashbacks that may plague future relationships with your wife.

c) Possibly catching sexually transmitted diseases (such as chlamydia, gonorrhoea, syphilis, herpes, AIDS), infecting your spouse, resulting in infertility, death or birth defects in your children.

d) Regret and loneliness if your adulterous partner leaves you, losing both your wife and your lover.

e) Losing possible rewards in heaven (II John 8; I John 2:28; Rev 3:11).

f) God will discipline you in some ways on earth (I Thess 4:3-8).

7. Ministry: Wasting years of ministry training by losing your testimony & credibility to teach Bible.

8. Your Teachers: Wasting the years of hard work that others have invested in training you to teach.

9. Christian Community: Undermining the good example & hard work of other Christians in your area

10. Satan: Bringing great pleasure to Satan and to the enemies of Christ (II Samuel 12:14).

11. Your Disciples: Causing shame and pain to your friends, your converts and those you’ve disciple.

12. The Woman: Causing her possible pregnancy, personal and financial costs and a lifelong reminder.

13. The Woman’s Husband and Children: Hatred, resentment & loathing at breaking up their family.

Conclusion: Think through these consequences of adultery before and if you face this temptation.

Adultery is too expensive and not worth it. “Be sure your sin will find you out.” Numbers 32:23.

Prevention is the key. There is no cure to these consequences. “Resist the devil & he will flee from you”

33. REASONS FOR COMING TO CHURCH

If you are: i) not coming to God's house regularly, or ii) not seeking to build it, then

Consider these reasons why you should fully direct your energies to build this and other local churches:

1. God commands us to meet together to consider one another and to PROVOKE one another to love and to good works. "And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much more, as ye see the day approaching." Hebrews 10:24,25.
2. To rescue people from HELL. "And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments.....and said,..... I am tormented in this flame." Luke 16:23,24.
3. By coming to church, you TEACH YOUR CHILDREN that God's House is important.
By not coming to church, you teach your children to forsake God, God's House, God's people and God's work. You also teach them that the things of God do not matter. Deuteronomy 6:4,9.
4. Coming to church is an unselfish thing that we do: i) To put ourselves out to help others,
ii) To glorify God,
iii) To extend God's kingdom. Matthew 6:33.
5. You will never be fruitful 100 fold by avoiding church. Do you want to be fruitful? Matt. 13:23.
6. If you know what is right and don't do it, God will count you as unfaithful. Luke 12:42-48.
7. It proves our love for God and for others. II Corinthians 8:8.
8. If Christ gave eternal life to us, we should give our time and life for God and others. II Cor. 8:9.
9. Not to suffer loss of rewards in eternity. I Corinthians 3:10-15.
10. Coming to church proves our salvation, because we show our love for the brethren. I John 3:14-16
11. Jesus went to God's house weekly. Luke 4:16.
12. To learn obedience. If we obey God by attending church, we'll obey God in big things. Luk 16:10-21
13. To become a Bible Teacher. Hebrews 5:12.
14. To be great in God's eyes like Moses who: i) Refused worldly honour, v.24
ii) Chose to suffer affliction with the people of God,
iii) Did not pursue the pleasures of sin for a season,
iv) He had respect for the recompense of God's eternal reward. (Hebrews 11:24-27).
15. We are being watched by so great a cloud of witness of angels and departed believers. Heb. 12:1.
16. To be a labourer in God's harvest. Matthew 9:36-38.
To reap and receive eternal wages and gather fruit unto eternal life. John 4:34-38.
17. a) To multiply our talents. Matthew 25:19-21.
b) For God to say "Well done thou good and faithful servant."
c) To become ruler over many things. Matthew 24:44-45.
18. To lay up treasures in Heaven. Matthew 6:19.
19. The Lord is coming soon. I John 2:28; Romans 14:12. We will all have to give account of our life and actions to God. We will be either confident or ashamed. Revelation 3:11.
20. If you reject the Holy Spirit's promptings on big things like church, you'll never hear God's promptings on important smaller things.
21. The preacher's message at church is often exactly what you need to hear from God.
22. To get re-motivated and inspired to serve God.
23. To set up a lighthouse for the truth of Christ and salvation to the community. Matthew 5:16.
24. So you can notice and encourage any new or struggling people.
25. So you can get the advice of Godly Christians regarding problems you may have.
26. So you can help fight and pull in the spiritual battle for souls. Ephesians 6:11-19.
27. So you can learn soul winning. Matthew 4:19.
28. So you honour the Lord with your tithes and support and send out missionaries. Malachi 3:7-12.
29. You get your next instructions from God at church.
30. It is the first base to spiritual growth.
31. Building this church is a key to multiplying other churches.
32. It gives you self discipline to learn more.

34. BAPTISM

Aim: To be convinced about believers' baptism by immersion.

To encourage believers to get baptised as soon as possible after salvation.

The conditions of Bible baptism are:

- a) Right candidate - believer. Acts 8:35-39.
- b) Right motive - obedience to Christ. Matthew 28:18-20.
- c) Right method - immersion. Mark 1:9-11.
- d) Right authority - local church. Acts 2:41,47.

Baptism pictures:

- a) The Gospel of Christ's death, burial and resurrection that I am trusting in to pay for my sins, as I go down in, under and come up out of water.
- b) Death to my old way of life, burial of my old man & his habits, & rising to a new life with Christ.

We should get baptised because:

- a) Christ was baptised by immersion. Mark 1:9-11.
- b) We can completely obey Christ here.
- c) It greatly helps us take a confident stand publicly for Christ.
- d) It helps our unsaved family and friends to understand the gospel.
- e) It is the answer of a good conscience toward God, meaning that our conscience is eased. 1 Pet.3:21

1. MEANING OF BAPTISM.^{908, 911}

- a) baptizo = to whelm, make fully wet, dip, cover wholly with a fluid.
It never means sprinkle (Greek = rantizo⁴⁴⁷²), nor does it mean pour (Greek=ekcheo¹⁶³²).
- b) Baptism means "identification" with a person, a group, a message, or an event. For example, John's baptism associated his followers with his message of righteousness.
 - i) For James and John to be baptised with Christ's baptism meant to be associated with Christ's suffering (Mark 10:38-39).
 - ii) To be baptised with the Spirit associates one with the body of Christ (I Corinthians 12:13) and with the new life in Christ (Romans 6:1-10).
 - iii) To be baptised unto Moses (I Corinthians 10:2) involved identification under his leadership in bringing the Israelites out of Egypt.
 - iv) To be baptised for the dead (I Corinthians 15:29) means to be identified with the Christian group and take the place of a believer who had died.
 - v) Christian baptism (by immersion in water, after salvation) means identification with the message of the gospel, the person of Christ the Saviour, and with the group of believers and their beliefs.
- c) Baptism signifies repentance and forgiveness of sins (in Acts 2:38, "for" here means "because of"). Forgiveness has already been received at salvation.
- d) Water Baptism signifies Spirit Baptism, when the Holy Spirit indwells us at salvation. I Corinthians 12:13.
- e) Baptism means obeying Christ's command to be baptised. Matthew 28:18-20.
- f) Baptism means separation from sin by death.
"For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God." Colossians 3:3.
- g) Baptism means to identify with a local church. I Corinthians 12:13.

2. IMPORTANCE OF BAPTISM.

Baptism is not part of the Gospel. "For Christ sent me not to baptise, but to preach the gospel" (I Corinthians 1:17) and does not save us from hell. Baptism is very important as a step of obedience after salvation. Some people who hold to infant sprinkling as the correct baptism, when confronted with the Biblical facts of immersion baptism, defend their position by saying that baptism is not an important doctrine. However, the Bible emphasizes baptism's importance as follows:

- a) Christ was baptised (Mark 1:9-11; Matthew 3:13-17). Note that Jesus came up out of the water showing that He was in, under the water. He was baptised to fulfil all righteousness meaning that it was an example for us to follow to live righteously. (I Peter 2:21).
- b) Christ approved of his disciple's baptising. John 4:1,2.
- c) Christ commanded that people be baptised in this age. (Matthew 28:19,20). This applies to the apostles and to all believers in the church age, as seen in Christ promising His presence with us all to the end of the age.
- d) The early church gave an important place to baptism as seen in these cases: Acts 2:38,41 (Pentecost); 8:12,13 (Simon); 8:36-38 (Eunuch); 9:18 (Paul); 10:47,48 (Cornelius' household); 16:15,33 (Lydia and Philippian jailer); 18:8 (Crispus and the Corinthians); 19:5 (John's disciples were rebaptised).
The early church never thought of a believer remaining unbaptised.
- e) The New Testament uses baptism to picture important theological truths. For example, Romans 6:1-10 shows our union with Christ in his death, burial and resurrection. "For as many of you as have been baptised into Christ have put on Christ" (Galatians 3:27). This verse shows our putting on Christ.
I Peter 3:21 shows that baptism saves us from a bad conscience.
- f) Hebrews 6:1,2 states that the doctrine of Baptisms is a foundation principle of the Doctrine of Christ. It is as important as repentance, faith, resurrection and judgment.
- g) It proves that we wish to obey Christ and the Bible rather than men.

3. THE METHOD OF BAPTISM: IMMERSION, POURING or SPRINKLING?

- a) Baptism in the Greek is "Baptizo" which undoubtedly means immersion, never sprinkling "rantizo", or pouring "ekcheo".
- b) In Mark 1:10, Jesus came "up out of the water" showing that we too should be baptised by immersion.
In Acts 8:38,39, the Eunuch came "up out of the water" showing that he had to have been "in under the water".
- c) Only immersion pictures the meaning of baptism, which is death to my old way of life, burial of my old man with his habits, and rising to a new life with Christ. Romans 6:1-4.
- d) "Pouring", not "sprinkling", was the first exception to immersion and was allowed in the case of sickness. This was called "Christian baptism." Cyprian (250 AD) was the first to approve of sprinkling. Even non-immersionists admit that immersion was the only baptism of the first and second century churches.

Objections: Infant sprinklers think that there MAY have been babies in the Philippian jailer's household in Acts 16:30-34. Yet they forget to read v.34 which says "believing in God with ALL HIS HOUSE". Since all his household believed, no babies were present. They must all have been of a believing age and therefore qualifying for believer's baptism by immersion.

4. THE CANDIDATE FOR BAPTISM.

Question: Should believer's ONLY or babies of believing parents be baptized?

Answer: "What doth hinder me to be baptized?"

I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God" (Acts 8:36,37). This is the condition of baptism, yet how can a baby believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God? He cannot. Therefore it is wrong to baptise a baby.

Objection: The circumcision argument.

"Colossians 2:11,12 links circumcision and baptism. Since babies were circumcised under the Old Covenant, shouldn't they be baptised under the New Covenant?"

Answer:

- a) This circumcision is the Holy Spirit circumcising the heart at salvation, because it is made "without hands." Colossians 2:11.
- b) Circumcision shows membership in the Old Covenant, but does not show personal faith. Circumcision initiated people into a theocracy which did have unbelievers in it. However, baptism initiated people into a believing community, entry into which is gained by personal faith.
- c) The Biblical order is always believe first and then be baptised as seen in Acts 10:44-48 (Cornelius' household) and 16:14,15 (Lydia).
- d) All who believed in the house were baptised. Acts 16:33,34. This excludes babies from being baptised.

5. THE MOTIVE FOR BAPTISM.

- a) To obey Christ's command in Matthew 28:18-20. Here we can completely obey Christ.
- b) Christ was baptised by immersion (Mark 1:9-11). We should follow Christ's example. I Peter 2:21.
- c) To publicly show our personal faith in Christ. Believers baptism is the believer's decision. Infant baptism is the parent's decision, thus robbing the individual of the chance to publicly express his faith in Christ by baptism.
- d) It helps unsaved family and friends to understand the gospel in picture form. It can lead to their salvation.
- e) It is the answer of a good conscience towards God. I Peter 3:21.
Our conscience is eased by obeying Christ.

6. EXAMPLES OF BAPTISM.

All these (except Jesus) were saved and baptised.

- i) Jesus. Matthew 3:13-16.
- ii) 3000 Believers at Pentecost. Acts 2:41.
- iii) Samaritans. Acts 8:9-12.
- iv) Simon. Acts 8:13.
- v) Ethiopian Eunuch. Acts 8:36-39.
- vi) Paul. Acts 9:18.
- vii) Cornelius, family and friends. Acts 10:44-48.
- viii) Lydia and her household. Acts 16:14,15.
- ix) Philippian jailer and his household. Acts 16:30-34.
- x) Corinthians and Crispus' household. Acts 18:8.
- xi) John's disciples were rebaptised. Acts 19:1-5.
- xii) Crispus and Gaius. I Corinthians 1:14.
- xiii) Stephanas' household. I Corinthians 1:16.

Roman Soldier's Oath

Early Christians called baptism a "sacramentum", which in Latin means a soldier's oath of absolute devotion and obedience to his general.

There are 6 baptisms mentioned in the Gospels:

- i) John the Baptist's was a national baptism to show Israel's reception of John's message. Mark 1:4.
- ii) Jesus' baptism. This was immersion in water by John (Matthew 3:15) and with the Holy Spirit by the Father. Matthew 3:16.
- iii) Baptism of sin upon Christ at Calvary. Matthew 20:22.
- iv) Baptism of the Holy Spirit on believers at Pentecost. Matthew 3:11.
- v) Baptism of fire of God's wrath on sinners during the Tribulation. Matthew 3:12.
- vi) Baptism of believers in water. Matthew 28:19.

Question: Why was Christ baptized when He never sinned?

- i) To identify Himself with John the Baptist. John 1:31-34.
- ii) To identify Himself with Israel. John 1:11.
- iii) To identify Himself with sinner. "He was numbered with the transgressors". Isaiah 53:12.
- iv) To identify Himself with the offices of Prophet, Priest and King, because all three were anointed in the Old Testament.
- v) To fulfil all righteousness (Matthew 3:15). Jesus was picturing His work of death, burial and resurrection in making righteousness available to all.
- vi) To set us an example to be baptized. If it was good enough for Christ to be baptized by immersion, then it should be good enough for us. Baptism is an act where we humble ourselves to do things God's way (immersion) instead of man's way (sprinkling). Satan always counterfeits God's way. Infant sprinkling is Satan's counterfeit to believers' baptism.

Question: Will you be baptized God's way or by Satan's counterfeit way?

Conclusion:

All believers were baptized immediately after they believed. If you were baptized before salvation, you just went in a dry sinner and came out a wet sinner. This does not qualify as baptism. If you have been saved and not yet baptized, you are disobeying Christ's command. Please tell your pastor today that you wish to be baptized by immersion.

Baptizing The Cheque Book.

Pastor R.E.Neighbour was in the baptismal pool with a railway engineer. The pastor was ready to proceed with the baptismal service. "Wait!" whispered the engineer; "I forgot something. I want to return to the robing room, and get my cheque book and let you baptize it with me!". Oh, that more of our cheque books were "baptised". Oh, that more of God's children were taking with seriousness their financial responsibilities to God's work!

35. FRIENDSHIP

Theme: Building a church through Friendship. What sort of friend are you?

Bible reading: Proverbs 27:1-27.

Aim: For us to be the type of friends to others that Jesus Christ is a friend to us.

Introduction:

One of the greatest blessings that God offers us is the gift of His friendship, love and acceptance.

"Henceforth I call you not servants...but I have called you friends..." John 15:15.

If we are to be Christ like, we should show this same friendship of Christ to others.

Question: Why are some people unsuccessful at winning people to Christ?

Answer: One reason may be that they are not willing to be friends to those that they share Christ with. For any church to grow, quality friendships must be shown.

Notice these verses about friendship:

1. To him that is afflicted, pity should be showed from his friend. Job 6:14.
2. Yea, mine own familiar friend in whom I trusted, which did eat of my bread, hath lifted up his heel against me. Psalms 41:9.
A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity. Proverbs 17:17.
4. A man that hath friends must show himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother. Proverbs 18:24.
5. Every man is a friend to him that giveth gifts. Proverbs 19:6.
6. Faithful are the wounds of a friend. Proverbs 27:6.
7. Thine own friend, and thy father's friend forsake not. Proverbs 27:10.
8. Iron sharpeneth iron; so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend. Proverbs 27:17.
9. Jesus ... a friend of publicans and sinners. Matthew 11:19.
10. Jesus to Judas at his betrayal: "Friend, wherefore art thou come?" Matthew 26:50.
11. Make no friendship with an angry man, lest thou learn his ways and get a snare to thy soul. Proverbs 22:24.
12. Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him for righteousness, and he was called the friend of God. James 2:23.
13. Know ye not that friendship of the world is enmity with God. James 4:4.
14. Our friends salute thee. Greet the friends by name. III John 14.

1. WHAT IS A FRIEND?

A friend is a trusted confidante to whom I am mutually drawn as a companion and ally, whose love for me is not dependent on my performance, and whose influence draws me closer to God.

2. THREE LEVELS OF FRIENDSHIP.

- a) Casual friends or acquaintances. These are people that you know of.
- b) Close personal friends.
- c) Intimate best friends. Those few with whom we share our deepest feelings (maybe 3 or 4 people).

3. EIGHT CHARACTERISTICS OF A GOOD FRIEND.

- a) Loyal: Most men will proclaim every one his own goodness, but a faithful man who can find? Proverbs 20:6.
Loyalty means:
 - i) Defending my friend, especially in hard times. "At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me.....Notwithstanding, the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me." II Timothy 4:16,17.
 - ii) Supporting your friend in difficulty and in prosperity.
"A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity." Proverbs 17:17.
- b) Deep Sharing: This consists of:
 - i) Listening "Let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, and slow to wrath." James 1:19.
Listening means that we open our ears, and alert our minds to words and meanings. We listen instead of talking.

Too often we listen only to decide when it is our turn to talk. Don't dominate the conversation. We need to listen to:

- what is said (the words),
- the message conveyed (the ideas),
- its meaning (what is behind ideas and thoughts),
- the message behind the words (real or hidden meanings).

ii) Speaking the right amount in the right way.

"A wholesome tongue is a tree of life." Proverbs 15:4.

"A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver." Proverbs 25:11.

iii) Accepting the other person just as they are. "We are accepted in the Beloved." Eph 1:6

iv) Understanding the other person. For the Lord giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding. Proverbs 2:6.

If we really care for our friends, we will seek to understand them.

- c) Fun to be with. Do things together, such as: Tennis, hiking, holidays, common interests.
- d) Stimulating. We should stimulate and encourage our friends to spiritual development and to personal growth. Help them to solve their problems, ask non-threatening questions and propose some new activities.

"Let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works; not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together..." Hebrews 10:24,25.

- e) Encouraging. Share Scriptures, pray together and lift their loads. Encouraging others can keep them from sin.

"But exhort one another daily ... lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin." Hebrews 3:13.

- f) Self-sacrificing. "Greater love has no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends." John 15:13.

A true friend gives sacrificially to meet another's needs. Self-sacrifice instead of selfishness measures the depth of friendship.

"Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others." Philippians 2:4.

- g) Agape Love. Giving expecting nothing in return. Say: "I love you."

Ask God to give you an honest love for your friends.

- h) Spiritually Challenging. Friends drive us toward God, or away from God.

Question: Do you stimulate others to a closer walk with God?

Do you pray together?

Do you share common spiritual concerns?

"He that walketh with wise men shall be wise." Proverbs 13:20.

Note: TIME and EFFORT builds these qualities into a friendship.

4. WHY WE NEED FRIENDS.

Eight Benefits of Close Friends:

eg. David and Jonathan; Paul was a teacher and friend to Timothy.

- a. Emotional encouragement. A good friend builds us up by letting us know that he accepts us and loves us.
- b. Help in trouble. "A brother is born for adversity." Proverbs 17:17.
- c. Personal stability. Friends and family keep us from rash decisions and from self-centred wanderings. Attend church.
- d. Spiritual help and counsel, will help us to speak the truth in love.
- e. Freedom of expression, to speak openly and freely without fear of being condemned.
- f. Protection from loneliness and isolation.
- g. Love and acceptance. We need to be loved for who we are.
- h. Opportunities to give ourselves to others. We benefit by giving friendship.

5.

WHY WE AVOID INITIATING FRIENDSHIPS.

- a) Fear of rejection. Whenever we attempt to start a friendship that is ignored, we feel wounded and unworthy. Rejection hurts and causes us to build up a defence against trying again. If we hide behind a defensive wall, we deny ourselves the pleasure and joy of future friendships. Continue soul winning. You will be rejected, but you will make many friends.
- b) Shyness secludes a person from meaningful friendships. How?
By avoiding social contacts.
By fearing self revelation.
Effects of shyness:
 - i) Loneliness.
 - ii) More doubts about self-worth
 - iii) Acute anxiety, and depression.Two antidotes to shyness:
 - i) Realise that God has created everyone with valuable qualities.
 - ii) We have a responsibility to God to give our lives to others.
- c) Our prejudices. We seek friends who are similar to ourselves to associate with and often reject the intrusion of someone different. Notice how Jesus mixed with all sorts of people, such as tax collectors, fishermen and zealots. We gravitate to people of similar:
 - age. - intellectual development.
 - interests. - spiritual background.
- d) Poor self-image. Many people are lonely because they feel that no one could be interested in them. Lack of confidence may be due to:
 - i) Critical, negative parents.
 - ii) Rejection by friends.
 - iii) False thinking patterns.
 - iv) Unfair comparisons with others.How to overcome loneliness:
 - i) Recognise that God has created each of us as a unique person.
 - ii) We do have something valuable to contribute to the life of others.

6.

HOW TO MAKE FRIENDS.

- a. Create opportunities to meet people. Use small talk about the other person to lead to a more meaningful discussion.
- b. Take the first step. Make one new acquaintance each week. Friendships need a starting point: a smile, a greeting, a kind word, an interested question.
- c. Be yourself. Honestly be ourselves and under the control of Jesus Christ.
- d. Allow time for a friendship to ripen.
- e. Take risks. To begin a friendship we must risk time, embarrassment, rejection, and social situations.
- f. Create a sociable environment. Be willing to invite new people to your home and to social activities. Small gatherings, such as meals, outings, Bible study etc, provide a good climate for new friendships.
- g. Look for common interests. Eg: Children, age, jobs. Be a learner and show interest in their interests. Listen and learn. Six rules to help people to like you are:
 - i. Become genuinely interested in other people.
 - ii. Smile.
 - iii. A man's name is the sweetest sound to him.
 - iv. Be a good listener. Encourage others to talk about themselves.
 - v. Talk in terms of the other person's interests.
 - vi. Make the other person feel genuinely important.

For example, welcome them to church and introduce them to others. Matthew 7:12 says: "Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them."

7. HOW TO MAKE LASTING CHRISTIAN FRIENDS.

Key: As both friends draw closer to God, they also grow closer to each other.

a) Provoke each others spiritual growth.

"Provoke one another to love and to good works." Hebrews 10:24,25.

Stir up people's thinking processes by asking questions and by teaching. II Peter 3:1.

b) Prayer lifts us up together into God's presence, and draws us closer to each other.

c) Accountability. A Christian friend has the right to hold us responsible for our actions that may be wrong. "Faithful are the wounds of a friend." Proverbs 27:6.

d) Encouragement or Exhortation.

Say to people: "I love you"; "I appreciate you"; "You're doing a good job."

Fathers should encourage their children. Pastors and people should encourage each other.

Encouragement can take several forms:

i. Appreciation for action.

ii. Sympathy in distress or sorrow.

iii. Support to accomplish something.

iv. Thanks for favours.

v. Personal presence in time of need. "Exhort one another daily." Hebrews 3:13.

Exhortation is a spiritual gift. Romans 12:8.

e) Helping and serving. Be sensitive to your friend's needs.

f) Have fun together. Do things together, go places together.

g) Teamwork in the spiritual battle. Friendships are best maintained in the midst of the spiritual battle. Go soul-winning together. The dependability of a friend must be fostered.

8. HINDRANCES TO FRIENDSHIP.

a) Failure to recognise our need of friendship. We then substitute acquaintances for friends.

b) A lifestyle that's too busy. Do things together, like Bible study and shopping.

c) Intolerance for the habits, activities, personalities and practices of others. Give friends space to be themselves.

d) Selfishness is taking, but friendship is giving.

e) Criticism. Friendship cannot grow in the uncomfortable, depressing atmosphere of criticism. What is criticism? Criticism stems from a poor self image, an angry spirit, faulty comparisons and misunderstandings.

f) Insensitivity to others needs. Some people bypass or ignore signals that reveal if a friend is depressed, tired, troubled, fearful or irritated.

"Rejoice with them that rejoice, weep with them that weep." Romans 12:15.

g) Envy is wanting what is not rightfully ours. Jealousy is wanting what is rightfully ours.

"Who is able to stand before envy?" Proverbs 27:4. Envy reveals a possessive attitude and an unwillingness to share the friendship with anyone else. Envy occurs where:

i) one friend achieves success, or

ii) one friend begins to spend time with another person.

h) Unrealistic expectations. Don't be easily disappointed in friends. No one is perfect.

i) Betraying confidences and gossiping destroys trust which friendships are based on.

9. HOW TO IMPROVE YOUR MARRIAGE FRIENDSHIP.

- a. Review the past, discussing problems that affect you today without defensiveness or criticism. Listen carefully to learn about your spouse and yourself.
- b. Set aside time to talk. Have a good free-flowing meaningful conversation every day.
- c. Renew your lifetime commitment to each other.
- d. Do fun things together, for example, go out for a meal regularly.
- e. Think of ways that you can help your spouse reach their personal goals.
- f. Be the spouse God wants you to be. Read Ephesians 5:1-33. Fulfil your God-given role in your marriage. Pray daily for and with your spouse.
- g. Read the Bible together, and pray together daily.
- h. Guard against divisive influences, such as selfishness, or too many one-sided decisions, or excluding your spouse from activities.
Monitor the daily health of your marriage.
- i. Remain an interesting person who is enjoyable to be near.
- j. Keep respect and courtesy at the core of your marriage.
Be courteous. I Peter 3:8. Refuse to take each other for granted.
- k. Constantly tell your spouse "I love you.", etc.

10. HOW TO RESTORE A BROKEN FRIENDSHIP.

- a) Determine what is the source of conflict. Hebrews 12:14-15.
We cannot live in harmony when problems exist.
We need to know where these problems come from:
 - Have I spoken harshly or unjustly to a friend?
 - Have I neglected contact because of a rushed schedule?
 - Do I avoid friends if they are in trouble or sinning?Key: Too often we are willing to settle for an easy stand off, rather than to press through the painful process of honest confrontation and resolution.

- b) Initiate restoration. Matthew 5:23,24; 18:15.
Question: Have you hurt someone, or has someone hurt you?
Answer: You are responsible for restoring the friendship.
Peace can come when we confront and heal broken friendships.
- c) Fix problems quickly. Restoration of friendship is easiest when the offence is still recent. If hurts accumulate, restoration becomes harder.
- d) Go in an attitude of humility.
 - i) Discover why the conflict occurred.
 - ii) Find a time to talk privately with your friend without time constraints.
 - iii) Decide beforehand to accept all responsibility for the quarrel that is your fault.
 - iv) Listen to the words and meanings carefully.
 - v) Ask for forgiveness without placing blame.
- e) Allow time to heal. It takes time for trust and confidence to rebuild.
- f) Pray for full recovery of the relationship, and for your attitudes.

CONCLUSION.

What sort of friend are you?

Only as we are Christlike in our friendships, and as we become closer friends to Christ will a really great church be built for His glory. Are you prepared to pay the price to be a good friend?

36. HOW TO START AN INDEPENDENT BAPTIST CHURCH

1. Select a pastor who is Biblically qualified and who agrees with the Statement of Faith (chapter 32). He must also know what an Independent Baptist church stands for.
2. Select a meeting hall available on Sundays 9:30am- 11:00am, 1.00-5.00pm and 6.00pm - 8.00pm.
3. Start with outreach by: a) inviting Christians you know who are not going to church.
b) Door knocking to lead people to Christ and inviting them to attend your church.
c) Having a home Bible study with people individually for one hour a week in their home.
4. Keep a list of all contacts. Telephone them regularly (Saturday) and visit them weekly or when possible, especially if they have ill health. Love them and meet their needs.
5. Print or get “STOP” tracts for soul winning outreach and visitation for your people to use.
6. Make an order of service as follows: a) Opening song. b) Opening prayer. c) Song service-4 songs, d) Bible reading. e) Announcements. f) Special item in song or a testimony. G) Bible Reading. g) Offering. h) Sermon/message/preaching. i) Invitation/Closing song. j) Closing prayer. k) Tea, cake.
7. Have the Lord’s Supper and a fellowship lunch and on the first Sunday morning of each month.
8. Hold a soul-winning seminar, using the information in chapters 17-19,22,23,29,30.
9. Hold a Discipleship Seminar using chapters in this book you consider needful.
10. Have a home, mid-week Bible study and prayer meeting on Wednesday at 7.30 pm.
11. Allocate different areas for pairs or groups of people to doorknock.
a) Give them an exercise book to record names, addresses and phone numbers of contacts.
b) Then say at the door: “I’m dropping by to leave this pamphlet with you”. (Give ‘Stop’ tract.)
“This tells you how you can know God, be sure of going to heaven and have eternal life.”
“Have you ever thought much about God?” “One question if I may ask please: If you died tonight, do you know 100% for sure if you’d go to heaven?” “Would you like to be sure?”
(Yes). “Well, this pamphlet summarizes four Bible truths showing how to be sure of going to heaven.” “If you look on the inside, the first truth is that ‘All have sinned’.. as in Chapter 17.
12. When people get saved, baptize them after church on Sunday. Hand them a baptism certificate.
13. Those who wish to become a member of your church with voting rights, may do so by being saved, baptized and by signing the Liberty Baptist Church Statement of Faith.
14. Support the Pastor financially through the weekly offerings. “The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruit.” II Timothy 2:6. Pastor must be able to spend all his time working to build this church. If he is not full-time, he will not be able to help the church grow.
15. Get a Youth Pastor to start Bible study groups for teens during the week and take them soul winning.
16. Have a church dinner every six months.
17. Support a church planting pastor who fits the missionary strategy and the duty statement of Chapter 20. Send him out to start an Independent Baptist church where God calls him, supporting him initially so that, as his church grows, it can soon support him full time.
18. Pastor, write all your sermons in note books or on your PC. Keep records of them for later use.
19. Pastor and people MUST go soul winning every week.
20. Appoint a treasurer and have two or more signatories to the bank account.
21. From your offerings, purchase quantities of ANSWERS books for your people. Make Answers books available free to your people to help disciple new people to spread sound Bible doctrine. Buy KJV Bibles to give away to new converts and Old Schofield KJV Bibles for people to buy.
22. Purchase song books, eg “Soul Stirring Songs and Hymns” by John Rice.
23. Start a Sunday School for pre-schoolers and primary children, starting mid-way through the morning service when the preaching starts or before church starts.
24. Teach Scripture classes in government schools. Teach from “Established in the Faith” books.
25. Use Mail Box Club to follow-up children aged 8-14. Use King of Kings comics for teens.
26. Useful Commentaries: Willmington’s Guide to the Bible, Barnes NT Commentary, The Bible Knowledge Commentary by Walvoord & Zuck, The Bible Exposition Commentary–NT, Vol I, II by W Weirsbe, Answers.
27. Pastor’s sermon outline: Title, Bible Reading, Aim of Message, Introduction (pose problem), Body of Sermon (several main points), Conclusion and Challenge.

37. THE LORD'S SUPPER

Bible Reading: Matthew 26:20-30; I Corinthians 11:23-34.

Memory Verse: I Corinthians 11:24-26, "And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me...."

Aim: To understand the meaning and purpose of the Lord's Supper. To remember Christ's sufferings.

1. Purpose of the Lord's Supper.

- i) Obedience to Christ's command: "this do in remembrance of me." (I Corinthians 11:24).
- ii) Commemoration: To remember Christ. (I Corinthians 11:25). We should remember Jesus Christ's incarnation, birth, baptism, ministry, transfiguration, temptation, miracles, teachings, sufferings, Gethsemane, trials, mockings, scourgings, death, burial, resurrection, ascension and second coming.
- iii) Proclamation: To show forth the Lord's death. (I Corinthians 11:26). The gospel is proclaimed in an object lesson. The broken bread pictures Christ's broken body. The grape juice (unfermented) pictures Christ's blood shed for the remission of sins. We don't partake to get forgiveness of sins.
- iv) Examination: v.28 commands us to examine ourselves before eating and drinking the Supper. We are to judge our hearts and lives, and confess any known sin to God. (v.31). Psalm 139:23.
- v) Anticipation: To show our belief in Christ's return. "...till he come." (I Corinthians 11:26). We partake with glad thoughts of Christ's soon return.

2. Participants: Who may partake of the Lord's Supper?

- i) Only those who have received Christ as Saviour and are baptised.
- ii) Only those who have confessed their sins and are in fellowship with God. I John 1:9.

3. Requirements: Self Examination is essential before the Lord's Supper. I Cor 11:28; Psalm 139:23,24

- i) Who do we examine? Ourselves only. "But let a man examine himself..." (v.28).
- ii) Why must we examine ourselves? – it is a Bible command, (v.28).
-- to eat unworthily brings judgment, weakness, sickness and early death. (v.29-31).
- iii) How do we examine ourselves? Ask: -- Am I really saved? (II Corinthians 13:5).
-- Is there any unconfessed sin in my life? Such as self pity, pride, laziness, impurity, covetousness, disobedience, worldliness, lust, lack of Bible reading, prayer, soul winning.
-- Do I genuinely repent of my sins? -- Do I obey Christ's commands?
-- Do I love God and other believers? Have I forgiven those who've sinned against me?

4. Elements: of the Lord's Supper are unleavened bread and unfermented grape juice being the symbols of Christ's body and blood. "and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup." v.28.

5. Results: -

- i) the believer is cleansed, as he examines himself and confesses any known sin. (I John 1:9).
- ii) the believer is strengthened by fellowship with Christ and with believers.
- iii) the believer is edified (built up) as he meditates on Christ's death and return.

6. Procedure: First have a moment of personal prayer for each person to confess his sins to God. Then:

1. Invite two men to the front and hand the bread to them.
2. Pastor says: "For I have received of the Lord that which I also delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread: and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take eat,...." I Corinthians 11:23-24.
3. Pastor asks one of these men to pray for the remembrance of Christ's broken body.
4. Ushers hand out the bread. Hold on to the bread until all have received it.
5. Pastor says: "And when He had given thanks, he brake it and said, take eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me." I Corinthians 11:24. People eat bread now.
6. Pastor says: "After the same manner also he took the cup...." I Corinthians 11:25.
7. Pastor asks the other person to pray for the remembrance of Christ's shed blood.
8. Ushers hand out the grape juice.
9. Pastor says: 'After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.' (v.25).
All drink grape juice now. After a moment of quiet prayer, ask people to turn to our Closing song:
10. Sing "Amazing Grace" or another suitable song as the Closing song. Close in prayer.

38. WHY THE CHURCH EXISTS

Bible Reading: Matthew 28:18-20; Ephesians 4:11-16.

Aim: The main purpose for the church's existence is to evangelise the world and build up believers.

Introduction: Many people who attend churches wonder what is the purpose of the local church.

Some people ask, 'Why go to church?' 'Why go to this particular church instead of another?'

Question: Why did Jesus Christ institute the church?

Answer: Jesus said, 'I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.'

(Matthew 16:18). This tells us that local churches are to attack the gates of hell, and take captive hell's prisoners. Let us study several reasons for the church's existence:

1. To preach the Gospel and make disciples (teach) of all nations.

God wants us to evangelise the world with the blessed message of eternal life through Jesus Christ.

The Great Commission is stated five times by Jesus Christ in the following passages:

- a) Matthew 28:18-20 'Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptising them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.'
- b) Mark 16:15 'Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature'.
- c) Luke 24:47 'And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.'
- d) John 20:21,23 'As my Father hath sent me, even so send I you . . . Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.'
- e) Acts 1:8 'But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost parts of the earth.'

The main reason God leaves His church in the world, is to save people from hell by preaching the gospel. Gordon G Johnson writes: 'One day Dr Wilfred Grenfell, medical missionary to Labrador, was guest at a dinner in London, together with a number of socially prominent British men and women. During the course of the dinner the lady seated next to him turned and said, "Is it true, Dr Grenfell, that you are a Missionary?" Dr Grenfell looked at her for a moment before replying. Then he said, "Is it true, madam, that you are not?"' (My Church, p 88).

2. To edify believers

Edify means to build up believers in their spiritual life. Edify (3618, 3619) comes from the word 'to construct, or to be a house-builder.' Edification is the purpose for which a church exists as a gathered community. Most of the New Testament was written for the edification of believers. These letters were sent to churches to be read and studied for their spiritual growth and development.

The following verses teach us about edification:

- a) I Corinthians 14:26, 'Let all things be done unto edifying.' Every believer should seek to build up each other, rather than to pull each other down.
- b) I Thessalonians 5:11, 'Wherefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do.' Strive to build up each other, and to establish each other in Bible truths.
- c) II Peter 3:18, 'But grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ'. Christlike character may be cultivated as much as one wishes to possess. Growth in grace may begin as a grain of mustard seed, and will increase as it is cultivated. To know Jesus Christ means to possess correct views of His person as fully God and fully man, His character, teachings & work.
- d) Jude 20, 'But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost.' We should establish ourselves most firmly in sound doctrine and in fulfilling our Christian duties such as prayer.
- e) Ephesians 4:11-16, Apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers were given to:
 - i) Perfect the saints;
 - ii) Fulfil the work of the ministry;
 - iii) Edify the body of Christ (v.12,16).

Their job is to build up believers in knowledge, in truth and in godliness.

3. To glorify God: ‘That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him . . .’ (II Thessalonians 1:12). How do we glorify God? Through our:
- i) Praise and prayer. ‘Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me.’ (Psalm 50:23; Hebrews 13:15).
 - ii) Fruitbearing. ‘Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit: so shall ye be my disciples.’ (John 15:8).
 - iii) Believing and obeying God’s Word. ‘He (Abraham) staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; and being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform.’ (Romans 4:20,21).
 - iv) Preaching the Gospel. ‘Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified . . .’ (II Thessalonians 3:1).
 - v) Suffering. ‘If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the Spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you.’ (I Peter 4:14,16).
 - vi) Preaching God’s Word and serving. ‘If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ.’ (I Peter 4:11).
 - vii) Giving. ‘But to do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.’ (Hebrews 13:16). To communicate is to share what you have with others.
4. To baptize believers. ‘Baptising them in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost.’ Matt.28:19. God commands churches to baptise, and believers to be baptised after salvation.
5. To teach believers God’s Ways.
 ‘Commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.’ (II Timothy 2:2).
 ‘The servant of the Lord must . . . be apt to teach.’ (II Timothy 2:24).
 ‘These things command and teach.’ (I Timothy 4:11).
 In the church ‘. . . that by my voice I might teach others also.’ (I Corinthians 14:19).
 ‘For when for the time ye ought to be teachers . . .’ (Hebrews 5:12).
 ‘Daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ.’ Act 5:42
 God wants us to pass our Bible knowledge on to others.
6. To provide fellowship for believers.
 ‘They continued steadfastly in the apostles’ doctrine and fellowship . . .’ (Acts 2:42).
 ‘James, Cephas and John gave to me and Barnabus the right hands of fellowship.’ (Galatians 2:9).
 Fellowship (koinonia=2842) means “partnership, social participation, communication, contribution and distribution.” God designed people for fellowship, not for isolation. God has put in the human heart the desire to know and be known, to love and be loved. This is best achieved in a local church.
- a) The basis of Christian fellowship – the person of Christ (I John 1:3).
 - b) The nature of Christian fellowship – sharing doctrine and goods (Acts 2:44-47).
 - c) The danger of losing Christian fellowship by sin (I Corinthians 10:16,21).
 - d) The responsibilities of Christian fellowship are to:
 - i) Bear one another’s burdens;
 - ii) Gently restore one another (Galatians 6:1);
 - iii) Comfort and exhort one another;
 - iv) Edify one another;
 - v) Pray for one another;
 - vi) Forgive one another;
 - vii) Rebuke sin in each other. (Ephesians 5:11).
7. To provoke each other to love and good works.
 ‘And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together as the manner of some is . . .’ (Hebrews 10:24,25).
 ‘As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith’. (Galatians 6:10).
 By coming to church, we can do good to those attending. We can provoke them to do good works and to show love to others. If we forsake church, we can’t encourage any fellow believers, and we are saying that we don’t care about them.

8. To act as a restraining and enlightening influence in this world.

‘Ye are the salt of the earth . . . Ye are the light of the world.’ (Matthew 5:13-16).

If we work together in church we can have a bigger impact on the world for Christ.

9. To prepare rulers for the future millennial kingdom.

‘If we suffer, we shall also reign with him . . .’ (II Timothy 2:12).

‘Well done, thou good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.’ (Matthew 25:21,23).

Conclusion: The task of a local church is to make as many people like Jesus Christ in the time God has given us. God the Father so greatly loves God the Son, that He desires to populate the universe in eternity with people like Jesus Christ. (I John 3:2). He wants to start the work in repentant sinners now.

Challenge: Are you working with God in this church to achieve this goal to your greatest ability?

Your service to Christ now will have a great effect in eternity.

Therefore, let us win the lost, make disciples and edify one another in a good church.

39. USHERS DUTIES

A Pastor should appoint a head usher and assistant ushers to ensure the smooth running of the weekly church services. James 2:1-4 describes a church usher who favoured a rich man and discriminated against a poor man. This is what an usher should not do. Ushers’ duties should be as follows:

- 1) Be given a key to open up the church;
- 2) Be at church at least 30 minutes before the starting time of the service.
- 3) They should turn on the lights, the heaters, the public address system and open windows.
- 4) They should be dressed neatly with a collar, tie and coat (unless you’re in a very hot land).
- 5) They should give a songbook, bulletin or visitors card (and pen) to all who enter.
- 6) They should smile and warmly welcome everyone by name who enters by saying something like: ‘I’m so happy to see you. How are you today? We hope you enjoy our service’.
- 7) Introduce new people or shy people to those you think will befriend them.
- 8) If there are not many seats left, ask, ‘May I lead you to a suitable seat?’
- 9) Encourage people to sit closer to the front before they fill up the back rows.
- 10) Help people with babies to find a suitable seat.
- 11) Delegate people to do jobs that need doing, eg: car park attendant, lady to manage babies/creche.
- 12) Be alert to minimize any noise or disturbances and to help people in any need.
- 13) Be alert to pastor’s instructions to hand out any papers.
- 14) Be alert to come forward to take up the offering.
- 15) Come into the service and enjoy the singing, preaching, etc.
- 16) Open songbooks for latecomers at the song being sung.
- 17) Collect filled-out visitors cards off people as they leave the service
- 18) Count the offering after the service, or appoint someone to count it, approved by the pastor. This may be the deacons or treasurer’s job. Have a 4 week roster of 4 x 2 people.
- 19) Inform the Pastor of newcomers or of any special need.
- 20) Allocate good soul-winners to lead interested newcomers to Christ.
- 21) Look for people without a friend and ensure that someone is talking with them at all times.
- 22) Build and maintain a warm, happy, Godly atmosphere in the service.
- 23) Return songbooks to cupboard after the service. Delegate children to collect songbooks off seats.
- 24) Pick up any rubbish or papers that are on the floor.
- 25) After everyone has gone home, close windows and lock doors.
- 26) Prepare the hall for the evening service.
- 27) Appoint a person to take your place if you will be absent any Sunday. Appoint trainee ushers.
- 28) Remind people on canteen roster to put out morning tea and clean up after morning tea.
- 29) Pray before the service.
- 30) Place a full glass of drinking water at the pulpit for the preacher.
- 31) Prepare (or appoint someone to prepare) the Lord’s Supper when required.
- 32) Only tell a complaint to the person themselves. If you tell another, they’ll tell that person.

40. PASTOR'S ETHICS

'Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners (Greek: Ethos)'. I Corinthians 15:33.

Manners = Ethos in Greek = Ethics = proper Christian behaviour to God's people.

Nobody can destroy you but you. People can lead you to self-destruct.

You can put yourself in a spiritual position for God to reward you. Slander destroys ethics.

1. Don't visit people of another church. Do you want other pastors stealing your people?

Do unto others as you'd have them do to you. There is a God in heaven Who can build your church.

Don't build your church on proseletysing. Build it on soul winning.

People will be loyal to you if you are loyal to your pastor. 'What you sow you reap.' Galatians 6:7.

2. I won't make an appointment with a member of another church without a letter from their Pastor.

I'm not going to be unethical. There's a God of justice in heaven who can reward you for your ethics or discipline you for your greedy lack of ethics. You'll be blessed if you are blessable.

God can send people your way. Do you want other pastors chasing your people?

3. I will not hire someone from another church unless I have permission from his Pastor to talk with him.

When an Assistant Pastor or a member leave a church and complain about how bad the pastor was, you assume the Pastor was hard to work for. You often wrongly assume the fight was the Pastor's fault. The sports world is more ethical than some pastors.

You should stick with the preacher and think the preacher is right. (I Timothy 5:19).

4. I will not hire a worker without a good reference from his former employer.

Most employers will trust the former employer more than you do. Get a reference for everybody you employ. This stops difficult workers from wrecking your church.

5. I will cut ties when I leave a church. If you phone your old people they'll compare Pastors.

6. I will not talk to a prospective Bible College student at another church if they have a Bible College of their own. The pastor may want him to attend their Bible College.

7. I will treat my predecessor ethically.

This will get God's blessings. If you take over an existing church you get your predecessor's buildings and people. Never criticize the previous pastor. Many of your people still want to love the previous pastor. I don't have to be on people's number one love list.

If they want to love others more than me, that's OK, as long as they love me a bit.

Church growth depends more on a pastor's ethics than on outreach programmes.

I do not require others to treat me with perfect ethics because I want to be right with God.

You cannot be right with God and wrong with His people.

You better keep your heart right and your relations with the people right.

'Be not deceived evil communication corrupts good manners.' I Corinthians 15:33.

Preachers should try to get right with each other. People should try to reconcile with each other.

The future of your ministry depends more on your ethics and manners than on your oratory.

What he did to me is between him and God and it can't effect my ministry, but what I do to him can affect my ministry. If other pastors visit my members, I don't get upset about it.

If you love someone and they leave you, can you turn the tap of love off? 'Love never faileth'.

Love people who leave your church. They helped build this church with their tithes and work.

There's more to the ministry than preaching and being against Hollywood and Rock music.

'Love your enemies, Bless them that curse you; Do good to them that hate you.' Matthew 5:44.

You are likely to have a long and happy ministry if you try to be ethical, love your people and your enemies. Your future in the ministry depends on your ethical behaviour to others..

41. Things Dead Churches Won't Teach You. (Revelation 3:1-22).

Aim: To identify and to reject error. To rescue people from error. To appreciate sound doctrines in a fundamental church. To leave churches that teach error, or not teaching these truths.

Question: What will dead, modernist, lukewarm churches rarely teach?

- 1) Salvation. That you can be saved today by calling on Christ to save you. (Romans 10:13).
- 2) Soul winning. How to win people to Christ. How to train soul winners. (Proverbs 11:30).
- 3) Separation from error and false doctrines. (Romans 16:17).
- 4) Need to rebuke error and not to tolerate it. (Ephesians 5:11; II Timothy 4:1-3).
- 5) New Evangelical and Ecumenical errors will destroy your life's work for Christ. (II John 8-11).
- 6) Calvinist errors. (II Peter 3:9 'God is not willing that any should perish.')
- 7) Evolution's errors. God created a young earth in 6 days 6000 years ago. (Exodus 20:11).
- 8) Charismatic errors summarized by T.R.A.S.H.. (I Corinthians 14:21-25).
- 9) Modern Bible Version errors and the inerrancy of Scripture. (Psalm 12:6,7).
- 10) Infant Sprinkling and Confirmation errors. (Acts 8:37).
- 11) Roman Catholic errors. (Revelation 17).
- 12) Muslim errors. (I John 2:22).
- 13) Rock Music errors. (Ephesians 5:19; Ecclesiastes 7:5).
- 14) Soul Sleep error.
- 15) Rewards and crowns are available to believers in heaven. (Revelation 22:12).
- 16) Judgment Seat of Christ. (II Corinthians 5:10; I Corinthians 3:10-15).
- 17) 70 Week Prophecy and 7 Year Tribulation (Daniel 9:24-27; Matthew 24:21,22).
- 18) Rapture (I Thessalonians 4:16,17); Millennium (Revelation 20).
- 19) Book of Revelation simply and clearly explained.
- 20) Seven Dispensations that world history consists of.
- 21) Future conversion of Israel. (Romans 11:1,2,25-27).
- 22) The Lake of Fire and literal hell fire for Christ rejecters. (Rev. 20:14,15; Mark 9:44,46,48).
- 23) Personal devil who opposes and seeks to destroy us. (I Peter 5:8).
- 24) Security of the believer. (John 10:28; I Peter 1:4,5).
- 25) Importance of printing and distributing Gospel tracts and books.
- 26) Preaching against sin, rebuking error. (II Timothy 4:2-4).
- 27) Fornication and sodomy are sins. (I Thessalonians 4:3-8).
- 28) Spiritual warfare over people's souls. (Ephesians 6:10-18).
- 29) Importance of sound doctrine and rightly dividing the word of truth. (II Timothy 2:15).
- 30) Cessation of miraculous, personal gifts of prophecy, tongues, knowledge, miracles, apostle, prophet and healing gifts in the first Century. (I Corinthians 13:8-15).
- 31) Reality of all the Bible's miracles.
- 32) Dinosaurs lived from Creation to the Flood, and were destroyed in the Flood. (Job 40,41).
- 33) Training preachers and church planters. (Acts 13:5).
- 34) Door-to-door soul-winning. (Acts 5:42).
- 35) What is the Gospel? (I Corinthians 15:1-4).
- 36) Abstaining from alcohol (Proverbs 20:1), pornography, touching women (I Cor. 7:1,2), etc..
- 37) Young ladies dress modestly. (I Timothy 2:9).
- 38) No female pastors, preachers or deacons. (I Timothy 3:2).
- 39) Long hair on men is wrong. (II Corinthians 11:14).
- 40) Church run by pastoral authority. (Hebrews 13:7,17,24). See "apostles and elders" in Acts.
- 41) Home Schooling using ACE curriculum. Evil influence of State schools. (Proverbs 19:27).
- 42) Child raising principles and child discipline. (Proverbs 22:6).
- 43) Separate from bad peer groups. (Psalm 1:1-3).

42. Valuable Things a Good Church Produces.

Bible Reading: Luke 13:6-9.

Aim: To show that the job of a church & its people is to produce spiritual fruit. What is that fruit?

Introduction: Many Christians don't appreciate the Church in general or a good church in particular. Many people don't see or understand the valuable things that a sound church produces. When we see what this church produces, we will support it more as we help produce the fruit God expects. Two examples of God removing an unfruitful steward of His Word are:

- 1) Jesus came to Israel for three years, looking for spiritual fruit but found none (Luke 13:6-9). Jesus said to cut down the tree of Israel if it didn't bear fruit. This reminds us of Jesus removing the candlestick of an unfruitful church, like that at Ephesus. (Revelation 2:5).
- 2) Because Israel failed to bear spiritual fruit, God took away the light of the Gospel testimony from Israel, and gave it to local churches. (Matthew 21:33-46, especially v.41,43).

Question: What Fruit Does a Good Church Produce?

- 1) Souls saved; peace and joy of going to heaven. (John 15:16 'that your fruit should remain.')
- 2) Soul winners produced. (Matthew 4:19 'Follow me and I will make you fishers of men.')
- 3) Preachers trained and sent out to pastor and plant churches. (Acts 8:4-8).
- 4) New churches started in Australia and overseas.
- 5) Thousands of lives rescued from sin, confusion, loneliness, fear & false doctrine (II Cor 5:17).
- 6) Bible Truths and convictions taught and established in many people's minds. (I Peter 2:9).
- 7) Godly marriage partners are trained and found in church. (Ephesians 5:21-25).
- 8) Tools developed to help win souls & train disciples, eg STOP tracts, Answers book, pamphlets.
- 9) It helps us avoid shipwrecking our faith on the rocks of false doctrines. It rightly divides God's Word so we clearly know what God wants of us in all issues of life. (II Timothy 2:15).
- 10) It links us with a worldwide network of strong Christians, churches, and useful resources.
- 11) It is a refuge from the evils of the world.
- 12) It provides Godly role models for young people. (I Timothy 4:12).
- 13) It sets high moral standards of love, self-sacrifice and Bible truths that we seek to achieve.
- 14) It provides a happy, peaceful, spiritual environment where Godly Christians comfort, strengthen, encourage and train each other. (James 3:17,18).
- 15) It encourages other Christians to keep on serving God. It gives answers to life's problems.

43. Things a Good Church is Compared To.

Commitment to a good soul winning church is essential if we are to:

- a) Win the world to Christ, and
- b) Enjoy the benefits of a local church.

These symbols to which God likens a local church, show much about our purposes in serving God:

- 1) A Building: 'Ye are God's building' (I Corinthians 3:9; Ephesians 2:19-22; I Timothy 3:15; Hebrews 3:6; 10:21).
 - a) We are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets. This means there are no more apostles and prophets today because they are in the foundation and not in the superstructure.
 - b) Jesus Christ is the chief cornerstone on which the whole building holds together. Eph 2:20,21.
 - c) We are fitly framed together.
 - d) We are to grow to a holy temple.
 - e) The Holy Spirit builds us together as a habitation of God. (v.22).
 - f) We are as living stones built as a spiritual house to offer spiritual sacrifices to God. I Peter 2:5
- 2) A Farm, Field or Husbandry 'Ye are God's Husbandry.' (I Corinthians 3:9).
'He that receiveth seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit ... some 100 fold, some 60, some 30.' (Matthew 13:23, 8).

Question: What is the good ground that the seed is planted in?

Answer: A local church with true doctrine and practice (no weeds) will produce much fruit in a believer's life. We are born to reproduce and to be fruitful. We will never bear much fruit unless we get seriously involved in a good local church.

- 3) A Temple: ‘Know ye not that ye are the Temple of God.’ (I Corinthians 3:16; II Cor. 6:16). Solomon’s temple is a type of the local church, as follows:
- i) Both are built with gold (I Kings 6:20-32; I Peter 1:7; 2:5). Christians face many trials.
 - ii) As in Solomon’s temple there were many windows to lighten it (I Kings 6:4), so a local church should enlighten people with the light of the gospel and heavenly truths for life.
 - iii) As both Jews (Solomon) and Gentiles (Hiram King of Tyre) were involved in constructing Solomon’s temple (I Kings 5:1-12), so local churches are made up of Jews and Gentiles. (Ephesians 3:6).
 - iv) As the glory of the Lord filled Solomon’s temple (I Kings 8:10,11), so the Holy Spirit of God indwells and fills believers. (I Corinthians 3:16; Ephesians 5:18).
 - v) As Cherubim guardian angels were carved in the walls and doors of Solomon’s temple (I Kings 6:23-32), so angels observe the local church and are involved in ministering to it. (I Corinthians 4:9; 11:10; I Peter 1:10-12; Luke 15:10; I Timothy 5:21).
 - vi) As Solomon’s temple was viciously attacked by literal Babylonians (II Kings 25:9), so local churches have been viciously persecuted by the Roman Catholic system known as Mystery Babylon. (Revelation 17:5,6).
 - vii) As Solomon’s temple and Jerusalem’s wall were rebuilt in troublesome times (Daniel 9:25), so local churches are built in troublesome times, facing much opposition from enemies. (Acts 8:4; 14:22).
 - viii) As Solomon’s temple and Jerusalem’s wall were rebuilt by using a sword and trowel (Nehemiah 4:16-18), so local churches are built by defeating false doctrines with the sword of the Spirit (Ephesians 6:17) and by teaching God’s Word correctly (trowel).
 - ix) As the rebuilders of Solomon’s temple and Jerusalem’s wall were looked on as poor, weak and contemptible persons (Nehemiah 4:2), so people who build local churches are seen by the world in the same way.
 - x) As rebuilders of Solomon’s temple and Jerusalem’s wall had to remove much rubbish (Nehemiah 4:2,10), so building local churches involves removing much Popish rubbish, worldly rubbish and tradition rubbish. (I Peter 1:18; Colossians 2:8).
 - xi) As the ‘nobles put not their necks to the work of the Lord’ (Nehemiah 3:5) in rebuilding Solomon’s temple and Jerusalem’s wall, so it is often true today that many wealthy, socially important Christians do very little to build up local churches. (I Cor. 1:26-29).
- 4) The Pillar and Ground of the Truth: ‘the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.’ (I Timothy 3:15). A local church is like a pillar because:
- i) It preaches and promotes stability of Doctrine.
 - ii) Local churches support the truth of God’s Word.
 - iii) Many other institutions in society depend on Bible truths taught by local churches, such as our legal system; democratic government (Romans 13:1-6); missionary activity; good literature; Bible Colleges; Christian school system; soul winning; Sunday schools, welfare, art, health, science, military, commerce, etc.
- 5) An Olive Tree: ‘thou being a wild olive tree, wert grafted in among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree.’ (Romans 11:17).
- i) Local churches like an olive tree’s leaves should be always green. Greenness means life and sap in the branches. ‘Her leaf shall be green ... neither shall cease from yielding fruit.’ (Jeremiah 17:8). ‘His leaf also shall not wither.’ (Psalm 1:3; 92:12-14).
 - ii) Local churches, like olive trees, should greatly abound with fruit. ‘that bringeth forth his fruit in his season.’ (Psalm 1:3). (John 4:36; 12:24; 15:2,8,16; Romans 7:4; I Corinthians 9:7; Philippians 1:22; 4:17; Colossians 1:10).
 - iii) Olive oil was used to fuel lamps to shed light and to dispel darkness (Matthew 25:3,4). So must local churches shed the Gospel light to a sin-darkened world. (2 Corinthians 4:4,6).
 - iv) As an olive branch is a symbol of peace (Genesis 8:11), so a local church should be a place where the peace of God prevails (Romans 5:1) & the Gospel of peace is sent out. Ephesians 6:15.

- 6) A Golden Candlestick: ‘the seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches.’ (Revelation 1:20).
- i) Local churches must shine forth the light of God’s Word, Christ’s salvation, and Godly example to a sin-darkened world. “Let your light so shine before men..” (Matthew 5:16) “Walk as children of light.” (Ephesians 5:8).
 - ii) Golden candlesticks are very valuable and precious, so local churches are very precious to God.
 - iii) As removing a candlestick brings darkness, so God may remove a church due to its apostasy and leaving its first love. (Revelation 2:4,5).
- 7) A Merchant Ship: ‘which hope we have as an anchor of the soul.’ (Hebrews 6:19).
- i) As a merchant ship brings merchandise from a far country, so do good churches bring spiritual blessings from heaven, of eternal life (II John 5:12,13); peace of God (Romans 5:1); comfort of the Holy Ghost (Acts 9:31); fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22,23); wisdom from above (James 3:17); Godly lifestyle – ‘our conversation is in heaven’ (Philippians 3:20); reports of a better country. (Hebrews 11:16); etc.
 - ii) As a sailing ship sails sweetly along under a favourable wind, so do local churches progress under the favourable wind of the Holy Spirit – The wind bloweth where it listeth.’ (John 3:8); ‘There came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind.’ (Acts 2:2). The Holy Spirit is represented by a wind. Sailing ships need wind to progress.
 - iii) As a ship navigates by a compass, so local churches find true direction, doctrine and guidance from God’s Word.
 - iv) As merchant ships cast nets into the sea to catch fish, so local churches cast out the Gospel net as fishnet of men to catch men for Christ. (Matthew 4:19).
 - v) As some ships are tossed about in all directions by stormy winds, so some churches and Christians may be tossed to and fro with every wind of doctrine (Eph. 4:14) & persecution.
 - vi) In stormy winds, every person tries to save the ship from sinking. So, when trouble, persecution, heresy or fighting hits a local church, all members should pray to God and work wisely for the church’s and their own safety. They must not try to destroy it.
 - vii) As a ship’s direction is determined by its rudder, so a church’s direction is determined by how its people use their tongues. (James 3:4,5).
 - viii) As a ship without an anchor is in danger of being destroyed on rocks, so a local church which doesn’t rightly divide the word of truth (II Timothy 2:15) and doesn’t set its hope in God’s Word (Hebrews 6:19) is in danger of making shipwreck of its faith (I Timothy 1:19) on the rocks of false doctrines.
 - ix) As merchant ships greatly enrich those cities and countries to which they belong, by bringing rare and excellent merchandise, so local churches, by bringing treasures from heaven, greatly enrich poor sinners, cities and nations with treasures of truth, peace, pardon and heavenly blessings. ‘She is like the merchants’ ships; she bringeth her food from far’ (Proverbs 31:14). So is a good church like an ideal woman, the bride of Christ.
 - x) As merchant ships need a skilful pilot to prevent shipwreck, so local churches must let Jesus Christ the ‘captain of their salvation’ navigate and guide them through the dangers of this world (Hebrews 2:10), to avoid smashing on the rocks of false doctrines, errors, human inventions and heresies.
- 8) A Flock: ‘Feed the flock of God.’ (Acts 20:28).
- i) As sheep need feeding, so do Christians in a church need to be fed the Word of God.’ (Acts 20:28).
 - ii) As sheep are clean, tame and gentle, so this is God’s will for Christians.
 - iii) As sheep may go astray, so may Christians. (Psalm 119:176).
 - iv) As sheep have many enemies, so do Christians have many adversaries. (Romans 8:36).
- 9) A Body: ‘For we being many are one bread, and one body.’ (I Corinthians 10:17). ‘For by one Spirit are we all baptised into one body.’ (I Corinth. 12:13). ‘For the edifying of the body of Christ.’ (Ephesians 4:12; 2:16). ‘He is the head of the body, the church.’ (Coloss.1:18,24).

- i) As every natural body has a head, so Christ is the head of the church. (Col.1:18; Eph. 1:22)
 - ii) As a natural body has many members (I Corinthians 12:14,20), so a church consists of many believers called members of His body: ‘We are the Body of Christ, and members in particular.’ (I Corinthians 12:27).
 - iii) In a natural body, members differ in strength, honour and use, such as arms, legs, fingers, hands, eyes, ears, kidney, heart, liver, etc. so churches have members each differing in honour and use, such as pastors, teachers, evangelists, helpers, givers, etc.
 - iv) In a natural body, if one member suffers, all members suffer with it. So in a church, when one saint suffers, all sympathise and suffer with him. (I Corinthians 12:26).
 - v) In a natural body, all members take care of each member. So in a church, every believer should seek the welfare and take care of all other members. (I Corinthians 12:25).
 - vi) As all members in a natural body receive direction and nourishment from the head, so do all members in a church receive direction and nourishment from Jesus Christ. (Colossians 2:18,19).
 - vii) As a natural body increases in strength, size and beauty, so a church increases in strength, size and glory and she reproduces other churches. (Ephesians 4:15,16).
- 10) An Inn: ‘And brought him to an Inn.’ (Luke 10:34). See Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37).
- i) As an Inn provides rest and security to travellers as they journey from one city or country to another, so a church provides for believers’ needs as they travel through the wilderness of earth to heaven.
 - ii) As an Inn has an Innkeeper who helps and cares for guests, so in a church there are pastors and workers who receive, welcome and help all poor sinners who enter.
 - iii) As an Inn provides convenient food for travellers, so a church refreshes the souls of all pilgrims entering with the sincere milk of the Word of God, or strong meat as needed. (Hebrews 5:12-14; I Peter 2:2).
 - iv) As an Inn is not a permanent dwelling place but a traveller only stays for a night and is gone, so a church is not a permanent residence. We are here for a short time (a night) we have no continuing city, but we rest here a while on our journey to heaven. Hebrews 13:14
- 11) A Family or Household: ‘Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named’ Eph 3:15. ‘ye are no more strangers & foreigners, but fellow citizens...of the household of God.’ Eph 2:19 ‘As we have opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.’ (Galatians 6:10).
- i) In a Family there are people of different ages, strength and tasks, so there are in a church babies, young men, fathers, grandfathers, teachers, rulers, and servants. (I John 2:12:14).
 - ii) The head of a Family cares for and provides for all in it. (I Timothy 5:8). So Christ supplies all our needs (Philippians 4:19; Matthew 6:25-30).
 - iii) As there is order and discipline in a Family, so there is order and discipline in a church. (Hebrews 12:5-11).
 - iv) As a Family has commitment, love, sharing and close relationships, so a church should show the same qualities.
- 12) A Chaste Virgin: ‘I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.’ (II Corinthians 11:2).
- i) As the Jewish High Priest could marry only a virgin (Leviticus 21:10-15), so Jesus Christ our Great High Priest will marry His virgin, the church.
 - ii) As a virgin is kept pure from fornication, so the church and every Christian should be kept pure from idolatry, love of the world, and anti-Christian worship.
 - iii) As a virgin, engaged to a husband, longs for the wedding day, so the church longs for the return of the Bridegroom, when Christ will take her to Himself. ‘The marriage of the Lamb is come.’ (Revelation 19:7,8).
 - iv) As an engaged virgin is greatly loved by her husband, so Christ greatly loves His Bride the church. (Ephesians 5:25).

- 13) A Bride or a Wife: ‘As the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in everything.’ (Ephesians 5:24).
- i) As a wife has made a covenant to be married to a husband, so the church and every true Christian has made a covenant to be married to Jesus Christ. (Romans 7:1-4).
 - ii) As a wife and husband give themselves wholly to each other, so do Christ and every true Christian give themselves wholly to each other. ‘They gave themselves to the Lord’ 2 Cor 8:5
 - iii) As a wife renounces all other men, so all true Christians must renounce sin, self and justification by the law to keep themselves faithful to Christ. (Romans 7:4). (Eph 5:24,33)
 - iv) As a wife obeys & reverences her husband, so churches should obey & reverence Christ.
 - v) As a wife has legal right to her husband’s estate, so Christians will inherit much of Christ’s possessions in eternity. (Revelation 21:7; Ephesians 1:11,14,18; I Peter 1:4).
 - vi) As a wife strives to please her husband (I Corinthians 7:34), so churches and all true Christians strive to please Christ. (Colossians 1:10).
 - vii) As a wife is in close communion with her husband (Matthew 19:6; Eph. 5:31), so the church and all true Christians are brought into a close relationship with Christ: ‘Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.’ Matt. 25:40.
 - viii) As a wife is troubled when she has offended her husband, so all true Christians are grieved when they have offended Christ. (Song of Solomon 5:6).
 - ix) As a wife knows her husband’s mind and secrets, so does the church have the mind of Christ and secrets that are hid from the world. (Psalm 25:14; I Corinthians 2:16).
 - x) As a wife bears children to her husband and cares for them, so the church is to bear spiritual children for Christ and care, feed and nourish them.
 - xi) As a wife married to a King has servants, so the church married to Christ has angels ‘ministering to them that are heirs of salvation.’ (Hebrews 1:14).

14) A House: ‘But Christ over his own house: whose house are we.’ (Hebrews 3:6).

- i) As a house is built on a sure foundation, so the church is built on the only sure foundation of Christ. ‘Other foundation can no man lay than...Jesus Christ.’ (I Cor 3:11). ‘Upon this rock I will build my church.’ (Matthew 16:18).
- ii) As a house is built by a wise masterbuilder (I Corinthians 3:10), so we need to take heed how we build local churches on the foundation of Christ: ‘Another buildeth thereon ... let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.’ (I Corinthians 3:10).
- iii) As a house may be built of gold, silver, precious stones, or wood, hay and stubble, so a local church (or individual Christian) may build with quality materials of suffering for Christ, Bible wisdom and soul winning, or of worthless things such as rock music, man’s wisdom, false doctrines and entertainment.’ (I Corinthians 3:12-15).
- iv) As a house is built for a family to dwell in, so a church is built for Christ and His family to dwell in. (Ephesians 2:19).
- v) As a house is a place of security to defend from dangers, so is a local church a place of security from evil, worldliness and false doctrines.
- vi) As a house has a way and a door leading into it, so a local church has a way and door of Christ leading into it’: ‘I am the way....’ (John 14:6). ‘I am the door.’ (John 10:9).
- vii) As a house is a place of prayer, Bible reading and family instruction, so is a church a place of prayer, Bible preaching, family instruction and service.

44. Don’t Attend a Counterfeit Church. Some marks of a counterfeit church are:

- 1) Counterfeit Gospel – salvation by works. II Corinthians 11:4; Galatians 1:6-9; 3:10.
- 2) Counterfeit Jesus Christ – Mormon Jesus, JW Jesus, RC Jesus is not the Bible Jesus (II Cor. 11:4).
- 3) Counterfeit Baptism – Sprinkling of babies or adults. (Acts 8:37; Mark 1:9-11).
- 4) Counterfeit Preachers – Non Soul Winners (II Tim. 4:5), Bible Correcters (Jer. 36:23; Rev. 22:19).
- 5) Counterfeit Doctrines – of devils. (I Timothy 4:1).
- 6) Counterfeit Filling of the Holy Spirit – tongues, Toronto ‘blessing’, animal noises. (II Cor. 11:4).
- 7) Counterfeit Bibles – Modern Versions which omit about 2% of the NT. (Revelation 22:18,19).
- 8) Counterfeit Titles – Father, Pope, Reverend. (Revelation 17:3; Psalm 111:9).

45. HOW TO HAVE GENUINE REVIVAL (II Chronicles 29-31).

A number of ingredients are necessary to maintain genuine revival. Major Bible revivals were:

- 1) Hezekiah's revival. (II Chronicles 29-31).
- 2) Jonah's revival at Nineveh. (Jonah 3).
- 3) Jerusalem revival. (Acts 1-12).
- 4) Paul's revivals in his three missionary journeys. (Acts 13-28)

I. Hezekiah's Revival: How Hezekiah promoted revival in II Chronicles 29-31.

- 1) Mothers must train their children in God's ways from infancy. (29:1).
- 2) Honour and repair God's House. (29:3).
- 3) Train preachers, Bible teachers, priests and Levites. (29:4-19).
- 4) Remove filthiness out of the Holy place. (29:5,16-19; 30:14; 31:1; Romans 12:1,2).
- 5) Make a covenant to surrender to serve God in soul winning & disciple making. (9:10,11).
- 6) Gather the rulers to honour the House of the Lord. (29:20).
- 7) Restore private and public prayer. (29:11; 30:27).
- 8) Restore public worship, singing and thanksgiving. (29:20-36).
- 9) Restore visitation by mail and door-knocking. (30:1-13,6).
- 10) Humble ourselves to God. (30:11; 7:14).
- 11) Restore Bible teaching by levites (30:22). Answers books may help.
- 12) Encourage preachers by paying them full salaries. (31:4).
- 13) Restore tithing (31:5-12): 'The Lord hath blessed his people.' (31:10).
- 14) Promote good, right, truth and holiness. (31:18,20).
- 15) Seek God wholeheartedly and do God's work wholeheartedly. (31:21).

II. Paul's Revivals. How did Paul promote revivals in Acts 13-28?

- 1) Churches to send out church planting, soul winning, Bible teaching missionaries. (13:1-3)
- 2) Select trainee missionaries to go with them (Mark in Acts 13:5; Timothy in Acts 16:1-4)
- 3) Preach to people who desire to hear the Word of God. (13:7).
- 4) Rebuke error when you meet it. (13:8-11).
- 5) Look for God-conscious people to preach to. (13:14-16).
- 6) Tell people to turn from vanities to the Living God. (14:15).
- 7) Teach many people God's Word. (14:21,22; 15:35).
- 8) Train and ordain pastors in every church started. (14:23).
- 9) Report back to sending church to encourage people & recruit more missionaries. 14:27,28
- 10) Refute false doctrines properly. (15:1-).
- 11) Revisit churches started to encourage them. (15:36-).
- 12) Establish churches in the faith. (16:4,5).
- 13) Baptise converts immediately. (16:14,15; 16:30-34).
- 14) Reason with people from the Scriptures on the proof of Jesus Christ's death, resurrection and Messiahship. (17:1-4; 17:10-12; 18:4,5; 19:26).
- 15) Preach at every opportunity. (17:15-17).
- 16) Train promising Christians, eg: Apollos (18:24-28).
- 17) Train orphan Christians, eg: John's disciples (19:1-7).
- 18) Separate the disciples from error and false doctrines. (19:8-10).
- 19) Get believers to burn evil objects from their unsaved days. (19:11-20).
- 20) Spend blocks of quality time teaching disciples in each area. Two years at Ephesus (19:10); three months in Greece (20:1-3); a long time at Antioch (14:26-28).
- 21) Train the Pastors in a pastors school or conference. (20:17-35).
- 22) Write Bible messages to churches to edify and equip them to serve God better (28:30,31)

III. A Modern Revival: First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana, USA, and Hyles-Anderson Bible College are the closest modern-day examples I have seen which apply these revival principles. I wholeheartedly recommend Hyles-Anderson Bible College to any young man or woman considering Bible College, for the following reasons:

- 1) Their intense evangelistic atmosphere. All faculty and students are required to go soul winning weekly and bring these converts to the First Baptist Church on their buses. Over 10,000 new converts were baptised each year since 1996 after each Sunday service.

- 2) Their Biblically-sound Fundamental Doctrinal emphasis:
They believe in a literal hell with fire and brimstone.
They stand for the King James Bible as the only inerrant English Bible.
They stand for the local New Testament Church as the only true church.
They believe in redemption through the blood of Christ, salvation by grace through faith alone, and the premillennial Second Coming of Jesus Christ. (Acts 2:42).
- 3) Their Separatist Position: Absolutely no drinking, smoking or dancing is allowed.
No student may attend Hollywood movies, play cards or participate in questionable amusements. They do not fellowship with liberals, the world or apostasy. (Romans 16:17)
- 4) Their High Moral Standards and Old-fashioned Discipline: Young ladies are not allowed to leave Campus unchaperoned. Young men and young ladies may not date alone in cars. Absolutely no hand-holding or other intimacies are allowed between the sexes. There are date nights with bus transportation and adequate chaperones provided by the College. Student insubordination is absolutely forbidden. (I Corinthians 7:1).
- 5) Their Modest Dress Code: Skirts above the knees are not allowed. Men must wear neckties to class and have short haircuts. Young ladies may not wear shorts or slacks.
- 6) Their Emphasis on Manners, Courtesy and Culture: They oppose pagan humanism of many Colleges. They teach courtesy, proper manners, Christian grace and refinement of how young people should conduct themselves to glorify Jesus Christ. (I Peter 3:8).
- 7) The Practical: They blend the best scholarship with the best practical teaching possible. Young preachers are taught how to start soul-winning churches, how to build church buildings, how to borrow money from lending institutions, how to raise money and adopt a budget, and how to organise, operate and perpetuate a New Testament Church. Every student who has left our church to study at Hyles-Anderson College has returned far more trained, mature, equipped and loyal to Christ and to our church than when they left. They increased in love, fellowship and appreciation to me as their sending Pastor.
- 8) Their Local Church Emphasis: God's program for service today is in the local New Testament Church. They are committed to training preachers who will build Bible-believing, fundamental, separated, soul-winning churches. They also aim to train pastors, evangelists, song leaders, youth workers, bus directors, missionaries, Christian school teachers and administrators, who can enter the ministry upon graduation.
- 9) Their strong three-fold emphasis on:
 - a) The students' spiritual life and personal walk with Jesus Christ. Every teacher is a dedicated Christian and consistent soul-winner.
 - b) The strong academic curriculum teaches how to reach the masses, and what to teach and preach to those reached.
 - c) The practical 'how to do it' side of church ministries which have worked in First Baptist Church when applied elsewhere.
- 10) Proven Results in First Baptist Church which has:
 - a) A church membership of over 100,000 believers.
 - b) Over 10,000 baptisms per year for the last 5 years.
 - c) Over 1,000 pastors and missionaries trained, now serving in USA and overseas.
 - d) Over 1,000,000 people in Chicago claim to have been saved through First Baptist's ministry and have walked the aisle to confess Jesus Christ publicly as their Saviour.
 - e) Their Annual Pastors School every March since 1967 attracts about 10,000 pastors and workers to train, motivate and reinvigorate them to win the world for Christ.
 - f) Over 2,200 full-time students attend Hyles Anderson College. Campus accommodation
 - g) Visitors are greatly impressed with their Christian love, warmth, commitment, zeal & manners shown to each other & to visitors. All is done very well & professionally.

I recommend people training at Hyles Anderson College. Order an application packet from:
Admissions Dept; Hyles Anderson College, 8400 Burr Street, Crown Point, Indiana, USA, 46307.
Phone: 1-219-365-4031 or Fax: 1-219-365-2029. Why not visit Pastor's School in March 18-21?

46. 47 SIGNS OF CHRIST'S RETURN FULFILLED SINCE 1940

Question: How do we know the Bible is true?

Question: How do we know that Jesus Christ is the only true way to God and heaven?

Answer: Because the Bible is the only book in the world that accurately predicts the future.

Anybody can write a religious book and claim that it is from God. But no man can predict the future in great detail with 100% accuracy as the Bible does.

The Bible contains hundreds of clear prophecies about Jesus Christ's first coming, every one of which came true.

The Bible also contains hundreds of clear prophecies about events surrounding Jesus Christ's second coming. Many of these prophecies have been fulfilled since 1940.

This leads us to conclude that Jesus Christ's second coming may be close.

God challenges all religions to prove that they are from God, by predicting future events:

“Show the things that are to come hereafter (in the future), that we may know that ye are gods.” Isaiah 41:23.

If a religion cannot accurately predict the future, then it is not from God, but is false, man-made, and must be rejected.

Challenge: Consider how the Bible has successfully predicted these 20th Century events:

1. Travel will increase. “seal the book, to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, knowledge shall be increased.” Daniel 12:4. The time of the end will see an increase in the number of people travelling to and fro around the world. With the invention of airplanes, cars, trains and ocean liners, cheap world-wide travel is possible for most people. These inventions are unique to the 20th Century. Before 1900 few people traveled outside their country.

2. Knowledge shall increase in the time of the end:

“Seal the book to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.” (Daniel 12:4). The time of the end will see a great increase in knowledge.

The 20th Century has seen an enormous increase in man's knowledge because of so many scientific and technological advances. 20th Century inventions confirming this include: electricity, electronics, computers, nuclear energy, space travel, satellite communications, telephone, internet, TV, jet travel, medical advances, radio and space telescopes, military technology, ‘smart’ bombs, many new chemical compounds, drugs to treat most diseases, motor cars, iphone, GPS, credit card, calculator, printing press, radio, ATM, fridge, robots, TV, trains, light globe, etc.

3. World population shall greatly increase. “The number of the army was...200 million.” Rev 9:16. This army will come from beyond the Euphrates River, possibly China, and will kill one third of mankind. Only 20th Century China has the ability to raise an army of 200 million soldiers. As of the year 2018, China's population is about 1.39 billion people. Never before could any nation raise an army this size

4. False religions will increase. When Jesus was asked ‘What shall be the sign of thy coming?’ He replied: “Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.” (Matthew 24:3-5).

Here, we see that the first sign Jesus spoke of was religious deception by false Christs.

Today we have so many false religions and religious deception that this prophecy has clearly been fulfilled. It is estimated that over 3000 cults exist in the world today. All these have a book other than the Bible as sole authority, a gospel of good works rather than Jesus Christ for salvation, and a founder other than Jesus Christ. Mormons put Jesus' name in their title.

5. Evil shall increase. “In the last days, perilous times shall come.” 2 Timothy 3:1-5.

God says, “I will punish the world for their evil.” (Isaiah 13:11).

“The LORD cometh out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity.” (Isaiah 26:21).

Examples of modern wickedness include: witchcraft; murder of unborn babies; same-sex marriage; widespread drug addiction; violent movies; internet and magazine pornography; terrorist bombings; hostage taking; blowing up passenger planes; schoolyard massacres; genocide of Pol Pot killing 2 million people in Cambodia; Stalin starving 30 million Ukrainians in WWII; Communist persecution of minorities over 70 years; Hitler gasing 6 million Jews in WWII slave camps; widespread political bribery and corruption.

Moral conditions today match those predicted in the last days in 2 Timothy 3:1-5.

“This know also that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be:

- a) Lovers of their own selves (self-centred)
- b) Covetous (greed for money and power is everywhere)
- c) Boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents
- d) Unthankful – to God and others for blessings
- e) Unholy – people loving sin and caring little about God
- f) Without natural affection – abortion is against a mother’s natural love for her baby
- g) Trucebreakers, false accusers
- h) Incontinent – lacking sexual control
- i) Fierce – terrorists and brutal dictators
- j) Heady – given to intoxication by alcohol or drugs
- k) Lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God – people prefer TV, sport, vacations, entertainment, rather than God, the Bible and Church.

God says of these. “From such TURN AWAY.”

6. Missiles with “tails like serpents (rocket exhaust) & heads that hurt (explosive heads).” Rev 9:17-19

These are some of the weapons used by the 200 million man army coming from the East described in Revelation 9:17-19 as having “tails like serpents (rocket exhaust) and heads that hurt (explosive warheads).” Rockets and missiles are a basic weapon of modern warfare.

They were only developed in WWII. How was this known in 96 AD?

Examples include: a) The US “MX” ICBM each contains 10 nuclear warheads.

b) Each of 30 US Trident submarines is 170 metres long, and carries 24 Trident missiles, each tipped with up to 17 nuclear warheads. This gives a total of up to 408 nuclear missiles per sub, enough to destroy more than 100 major cities in one blow

7. Nuclear weapons of mass destruction shall be invented.

Before Christ returns, man will discover the power to destroy the earth. One reason that Christ returns is to stop man destroying the earth.

“And should destroy them which destroy the earth” (Revelation 11:18).

“For then shall be great tribulation . . . and except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved.” (Matthew 24:21,22).

“I will shew wonders in the heavens & in the earth, blood, fire & pillars of smoke.” Joel 2:30.

“the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.” Isaiah 24:6.

Up until 1945, man could not destroy the earth with weapons such as guns, spears & swords. Since 1945, with the invention of atomic and hydrogen bombs, entire cities can be destroyed in minutes. Scientists estimate that a major nuclear war could kill over 500 million people initially, but another 4,000 million people could starve to death in the next year due to nuclear winter. This would be caused by smoke from nuclear fires preventing sunlight from reaching the ground. Farming could stop and worldwide famine could result. Nuclear winter could also devastate the earth’s ozone layer, permitting more harmful UV radiation to enter the earth. (World Book Encyclopedia)

8. Global government, economy and internet. “He causes all...to receive a mark in their right hand or in their foreheads, that no man might buy or sell save he that had the mark, name or number of the beast. His number is 666.” Revelation 13:16-18.

To cause “ALL” people to receive this mark in order to buy and sell, requires a global government, a global electronic fund transfer computer system accessed by a microchip, and a global economy. The only missing part is a global government to enforce this implanted microchip fund transfer system.

9. Artificial intelligence (AI). “He had power to give life to the image of the beast, that it should speak.” Rev. 13:15. AI software understands human speech and speaks. It includes computer science, linguistics, etc. This includes robots that communicate with people.

10. Electronic fund transfer at point of sale (EFTPOS) shall be invented.

Today, using your credit card you can purchase goods at most shops by inserting your card into a machine that electronically transfers money from your account to the shop's account as payment for goods purchased. The Bible predicts that a time will come when people will receive a mark or a number known as "666" implanted in their right hand or forehead, as the method of buying and selling. This number "666" may well be an 18 digit bank account number contained in a smart electronic chip implanted under the skin, which specifies every person's bank account in the world.

This system is already available today and is known as "implantable biochip technology". It is used to identify dogs and other animals. Some people are already receiving microchips in their right hands for identification purposes.

How did the Bible know this in 96AD? Revelation 13:16-18 states that:

"He causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand or in their foreheads. And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, of the number of his name . . . the number of the beast . . . is 666."

11. Implantable Biochips.

12. Satellite TV.

This is described in Revelation 11:8-10 when people all over the world see the two witnesses' dead bodies lying in the streets of Jerusalem for 3½ days.

"They of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three and a half days...." (Revelation 11:9). This is possible today by satellite TV and internet TV.

13. Europe will unite as a world power as the European Union (EU). 5 world empires are Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, Rome and Revived Rome (EU). Daniel 2:19-49.

After Babylon conquered Israel in 606 BC, the "times of the Gentiles" began. God told the prophet Daniel that 4 great world empires would rise and fall before God's Kingdom would be set up on earth. These four empires are Babylon (606-536 BC), Medo-Persia (536-330 BC), Greece (330-67 BC), Rome (67 BC -) and a final European power that would be like and rise from the earlier Roman Empire. The vision of these empires looked like a statue of a man. The vision is explained in Daniel 2:19-49 and represented as follows:

When the European Union becomes a world power, Jesus Christ will return and set up His Kingdom on earth.

“in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed.” (Daniel 2:40-44).

A similar verse states that when Israel is built up as a world power, Jesus Christ, who is God the Son, will appear in His glory:

“When the LORD shall build up Zion, he shall appear in his glory.” (Psalm 102:16).

This European Union will, under a future President, known as the Antichrist, confirm a seven-year treaty with Israel. America’s pro-Jewish position is pushing Palestinians towards Europe as a preferred peace broker. Western European nations have united under the Treaty of Rome (1957-58) thus setting up the European Economic Community (EEC). The Maastricht Treaty (1993) transformed the EEC into the European Union (EU) creating European citizenship, with economic and monetary union. The Amsterdam Treaty (1997) integrated Central and Eastern Europe into the EU. The EU includes 28 countries as of 2018. These are: Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Croatia, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Italy, Ireland, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, the Netherlands, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Spain, Slovakia, Slovenia, Sweden and the United Kingdom. This gives a modern Revived Roman Empire as predicted in the Bible (Daniel 2:19-49).

Today, the European Union has a:

- a) European Parliament, of 766 members from 28 countries, represent 503 million Europeans
 - b) European currency, the Euro as of 1st January 1999.
 - c) European army, known as NATO, with a membership of 28 European countries.
 - d) European President appointed by secret ballot of members of the Parliament.
- Only the 20th century has seen all of Europe unite since 450 AD.

14. EU Muslim migrants: “they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another.” Daniel 2:43. Due to the displacement of refugees from the Syrian war, many Muslims have migrated to Europe in search of a better life. Many poverty-stricken Muslims from North African countries have migrated to Europe to access Europe’s social welfare system. These Muslim migrants believe and live by the Quran’s commands to commit Jihad against “infidel” Europeans as their ticket into paradise. As of 2018, there are about 30 million Muslims in Europe, about 6% of the population. These Muslims refuse to assimilate into European, Western, Christian values. Instead, many live in Muslim “no-go” zones where they enforce Sharia Islamic laws and reject European culture. It is very clear that these Muslim immigrants “mingle themselves with the seed of men (Europeans) but shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.” Daniel 2:43. Their Islamic culture is as weak as clay, due to their god “Allah” being Satan who “weakens the nations.” (Isaiah 14:12). Islam will never assimilate with Christianity, because the Quran does not understand how Jesus is the Son of God (Q 6:101) or part of the Trinity.

15. Common sins of today are prophesied: “Neither repented they of their murders (abortion), sorceries(drugs), fornication, thefts.” Revelation 9:21.

After the 200 million man army kills 33% of mankind, the following is said of the people who survive this nightmare:

“Neither repented they of their murders (abortions and violence), nor of their sorceries (drugs), nor of their fornication (sex outside marriage), nor of their thefts (stealing).”

a) Today, the murder of millions of unborn babies (abortion) has been legalized in most countries. Percentage of abortions per 1000 women aged 15-39 are: Australia (17%), UK (20%), US (20%), Canada (19%), China (26%), Cuba (46%), Greenland (85%), Israel (14%), South Korea (19%), Russia (37%), Sweden (25%), France (20%), Germany (9%). Source: www.johnstonsarchive.net/policy/abortion.

b) Today, millions of people are taking drugs for pleasure and anti-depressants. Anti-depressants have over 2000 bad recorded side-effects. (youtube: Marketing of madness.)

c) Today, fornication or sex outside marriage is very common. Fornication also includes homosexuality. Same-sex marriage is legalized in many countries. God strongly disapproves of these sins. “abstain from fornication....the Lord is the avenger of all such.” 1 Thess. 4:3-8.

d) Today, thefts, stealing or financial corruption is everywhere. Theft is seen in excessive government taxation, crooked builders, retirement fund managers charging fees for no service and scam marketers.

16. Most churches are lukewarm, rich & increased with goods, don’t know they are blind. “Because thou art lukewarm and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth. Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked (17).” Revelation 3:14-19.

Modern Christendom is accurately predicted as being

a) lukewarm, neither cold nor hot spiritually,

b) rich and increased with goods,

c) not knowing that it is wretched, miserable, poor, blind and naked, that is, blind to itsspiritual poverty. (Revelation 3:14-19), and

d) asleep: “While the bridegroom (Christ) tarried, they all slumbered and slept.” (Matthew 25:5). This well describes most sleepy 20th Century churches where very few preachers tell people about the signs of Christ’s return being fulfilled daily, the events of Christ’s return, or how to be saved from hell. Many clergy prefer to entertain people with rock music, dancing girls, flashing lights and telling people what they want to hear, rather than warn them to reject and separate from false doctrine. Many churches are not preaching sound Bible doctrine or winning souls to Christ. Many preachers are too scared to warn people about hell, God's judgment, or the tribulation to come on earth, in case they offend people. The current ecumenical movement of churches with false doctrines joining together will lead to a one-world religion that God describes as "the great whore" in Revelation 17.

17. Most Christians are asleep, ignore hell, tribulation: "While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept." Matthew 25:5.

Most churches and Christians know nothing about the signs of Jesus' second coming being fulfilled all around the world. Most churches don't lead people to Christ or disciple new Christians. They ignore hell, the 7 year tribulation and the Judgment Seat of Christ. They focus on money, pleasures and entertainment.

18. Scoffers in last days deny Bible prophecy (Amillennialism), Noah's flood (3:5), teach evolution (3:4). 2 Peter 3:3-8.

"Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts" 2 Peter 3:3.

a) Today, so many people believe and teach evolution, that they hate, reject and scoff at the Bible's teaching of God creating earth and the universe in 6 days, about 6000 years ago.

b) They scoff at and ignore the evidence for Noah's Flood in 2418BC.

c) So many churches scoff at and deny the clear Bible teachings of a literal rapture, 1000 year millennial rule of Christ on earth. They ignore Israel's return to their land as a fulfilment of Bible prophecies (Ezekiel 36:24). They believe "replacement theology" that the church has replaced Israel and that Israel has no future in God's plans.

19. More persecution of Christians.

"I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God". Revelation 20:4.

"I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held:" Rev 6:9. As Islamic influence expands, groups like ISIS and Boko Haram believe that they must practise the Quran's commands for "Muslims should strike off the heads of unbelievers in the battlefield and massacre them." (Q47:4). Many Christians in the Middle East, Nigeria and Egypt are being killed for their Christian faith.

20. Many Iranian refugees:

"There shall be no nation where the outcasts of Elam (Iran) shall not come" Jeremiah 49:36. With the Islamic regime coming to power in Iran in 1979, their ruthless violence, torture, imprisonment and killing of anyone deemed to be "un-Islamic" has forced millions of Iranians to flee Iran to every other country. The Ayatollah's have unknowingly fulfilled this Bible prophecy.

21. Iran will have an evil, anti-Christian government until Jesus returns.

"I will set my throne in Elam and will destroy from thence the king (Ayatollah) and the princes (Mullah's, Basij, Separ, Etalat), saith the LORD." Jeremiah 49:38. This evil Iranian government has spread terror, violence and oppression all over the Middle East against Jews, Christians and Sunni Muslims through Hamas, Hezbollah and Houthi rebels.

22. China's Belt and ROAD initiative (BRI) is a play for global power. Australian, 12May17 "the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared," Revelation 16:12.

China as the Kings of the East (Revelation 16:12) are predicted to cross a dried up Euphrates River, possibly to take the Middle East oil fields to fill the power vacuum created after the Russian/Muslim armies are destroyed (Revelation 9:13-16).

This army will number 200 million men and will kill one third of mankind: “the number of the horsemen were 200 million (v 16); . . . and out of their mouths issued fire, and smoke and brimstone (v 17). By these three was the third part of men killed.” (Revelation 9:16-18).

Today, China is an economic power seeking more control of other nations through this “Belt and Road initiative” where they access Middle Eastern markets. It is promoted as economic, but it has military implications. China is also seeking to control many poorer nations by loans with strings attached (debt traps). China has little or no oil reserves of its own and would be tempted to go to war to secure what oil remains amongst a threatened and dwindling world supply.

23. The Hindering influence of the Holy Spirit in American Christians voting for Trump in the 2016 US elections, stopped the One World, Globalist, Antichrist agenda of the Democrats from getting into government in the White House. Today, many left-wing, atheist, globalists want to break down the independence of nation-states and make them support a world government. Donald Trump won the US Presidency due to Evangelical Christians voting for his Christian policies of anti-abortion, Christian judges, permitting church involvement in elections, anti-Islam, pro-Christian, pro-Israel, pro America and anti-globalism. When the Christians are taken out of the world at the rapture, the left-wing, globalists will take power and instal the antichrist and his one-world government. He will make his 7 year covenant with Isael and start the 7 year tribulation period.

“For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth (hinders) will let (hinder), until he (Holy Spirit in Christians) be taken out of the way (at rapture of church). Then shall that Wicked be revealed..” 2 Thessalonians 2:7.

“he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: that no man might buy or sell save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.....666.” Revelation 13:16-18.

24. Jews returned to their land to form the state of Israel in 1948.

“I will gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land.” Ezekiel 36:24.

“I will open your graves,.... and bring you into the land of Israel.” Ezekiel 37:12.

“When the Lord shall build up Zion, he shall appear in his glory.” Psalm 102:16.

God has re-established the nation of Israel in their ancient homeland in the latter days.

The 20th Century has seen the return of many Jews to the ancient land of Israel from all parts of the world, resulting in the re-establishment of the modern state of Israel, and its entry to the United Nations in May 1948. As of the year 2000AD there are about 6 million Jews in Israel. God states through the prophet Ezekiel that Jews will return to their land in a condition of unbelief in Jesus Christ as their Messiah, but will later change their minds to receive Jesus Christ as their Saviour and Messiah when He returns to rescue them from the Antichrist’s invading armies. The prophet Daniel (in Daniel 9:26) states that Israel’s Messiah at His first coming would be killed (“cut off”), then the Jewish temple and the city of Jerusalem would be destroyed (70AD). This proves Jesus Christ to be Israel’s Messiah.

25. Israel has been “brought back to their land from the sword” (Ezekiel 38:8) of 6 million Holocaust deaths by Nazi Germany. This states that Jews would be killed on a large scale just before they started returning to their land as a nation on 14 May 1948.

26. 1 million Jews left Russia for Israel from 1990-2000.

“I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth;” Isaiah 43:6.

With the collapse of USSR and the Russian economy, many Russian Jews have left the financial hardships of Russia for a new life in modern, free, and prosperous Israel.

This fulfils another Bible prophecy where God says:

“Fear not; for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the east (Yemen, Arabia) and gather thee from the west (Europe, USA, Britain): I will say to the north (Russia) “Give up”; and to the south (Ethiopia) “Keep not back”: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth.” (Isaiah 43:5,6).

Since Israel’s founding as a nation in May 1948, God has regathered many Jews from the East (Yemen, Arabia, Iraq, Iran), from the West (Europe since the WWII holocaust, Britain, USA), from the North (Russia and Eastern Europe), and from the South (Ethiopian Jews known as Falashas, and South Africa).

27. Israel shall be militarily superior to Egypt.

“The land of Judah shall be a terror unto Egypt, every one that maketh mention thereof shall Be afraid in himself.” (Isaiah 19:17).

How has this prophecy been fulfilled? On four occasions Egypt declared war against Israel, and in each war Israel quickly and convincingly smashed the Egyptian military.

i) War of Independence: 29 November 1947-24 February 1949.

ii) The Sinai War: 29 October -5 November 1956.

iii) The Six Day War: 5-10 June 1967.

iv) The Yom Kippur War: 6-25 October 1973.

28. Egypt will be a base kingdom (Ezekiel 29:14,15). Today, Egyptian population is 20% illiterate, 12% unemployed, Islamic, unstable, lost 4 wars against Israel, is struggling with Islamic terrorists, anti-Christian, and depends on foreign aid..

29. Israel shall rebuild the waste cities and inhabit them.

“the cities shall be inhabited, and the wastes shall be built.” (Ezekiel 36:10,11).

“I will settle you after your old estates.” (Ezekiel 36:10).

“I will multiply men among you, all the house of Israel, even all of it: and the cities shall be inhabited, and the wastes shall be builded.” (Ezekiel 36:11).

“Today, all throughout Israel there is a massive building program of houses to accommodate 70,000 new Jewish immigrants per year”. The Jerusalem Post, 2 May 1998:

“Israel will triple its built-up space by 2020 as it races past every other developed country in Its rate of population growth.” This has been fulfilled in the last 20 years.

30. Israel shall be tilled, planted and fruitful agriculturally.

“Behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye shall be tilled and sown.” Ezekiel 36:9

“I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field. . . “ (Ezekiel 36:30).

“The desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all that passed by.”

“They shall say, this land that was desolate is become like the Garden of Eden.” (Ezekiel 36:34,35).

“The desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose.” (Isaiah 35:1).

Today if you visit Israel, you will notice rose bushes everywhere, fruit trees, eucalypt trees and much tilled land cultivated as farms.

31. Muslims want Jerusalem:

“I will make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people.” Zechariah 12:3.

Muslims want control of Jerusalem because they think that Mohammad dreamed that he went from there to heaven on a horse. So all the Muslim majority countries vote against Israel in the UN for this reason. Biblically ignorant Western countries seek to pacify Muslims by voting against Israel to preserve their trade benefits with Muslim nations.

32. UN resolutions condemn Israel:

“Every tongue that shall arise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn’ Isaiah 54:17.

The first part of this prophecy has been fulfilled by many nations in the United Nations Council meetings arising to speak words of judgment and condemnation against Israel for defending the land that God has given her. Many nations in the UN have consistently voted against Israel. The only nations that vote in favor of Israel are the USA and some small Pacific Islands. From 2006-2016, the UN Human Rights Council, passed 68 out of 135 resolutions against Israel. From 2012-2015, the UN General Assembly passed 83 out of 97 resolutions against Israel. UNESCO adopts about 10 resolutions a year against Israel.

The second part of this verse will be fulfilled in the Millennium after Christ returns, when Israel, as the chief nation on earth, will condemn those nations that voted against her.

“The nations shall see and be confounded at all their might.” (Micah 7:16) .

“The nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted.” (Isaiah 60:12).

33. Muslims hate Israel:

“You had a perpetual hatred and shed the blood of the children of Israel.” Ezekiel 35:5.

This Muslim hatred of Israel is due to Muslims belief in the Quran’s and Hadith’s anti-Jewish statements, such as “People of the book are the vilest of all creatures” (Q 98:6).

Muslims in Gaza and the West Bank teach their children from kindergarden to hate Jews and kill Jews to take the land of Israel.

34. God calls Yassar Arafat, Abbas, the Palestinians and nations that claim Israel’s high places (Jerusalem, Hebron, Golan, West Bank) as “ours” as “the enemy.”

At a Fatah rally on 25 June 2000, Arafat made threats of a renewed uprising, shouting, “Palestine is ours, ours, ours ! We have a few weeks left ahead of us and at the end of it we Will declare statehood . . . with its capital Jerusalem.” (ICEJ News 26 June 2000).

Ezekiel prophesied 2600 years ago that Israel’s neighbors would say these very words which Arafat said in June 2000:

“Thus saith the LORD God; Because the enemy hath said against you, Aha, even the ancient high places are ours in possession (v 2); that ye might be a possession unto the residue of the heathen, and ye are taken up in the lips of talkers . . . (v 3) which have appointed my land into their possession . . . with despiteful minds (v 5). Surely the heathen that are about you shall bear their shame.” (v 7). (Ezekiel 36:2,3,7). Notice several prophecies that have recently come true within this prophecy:

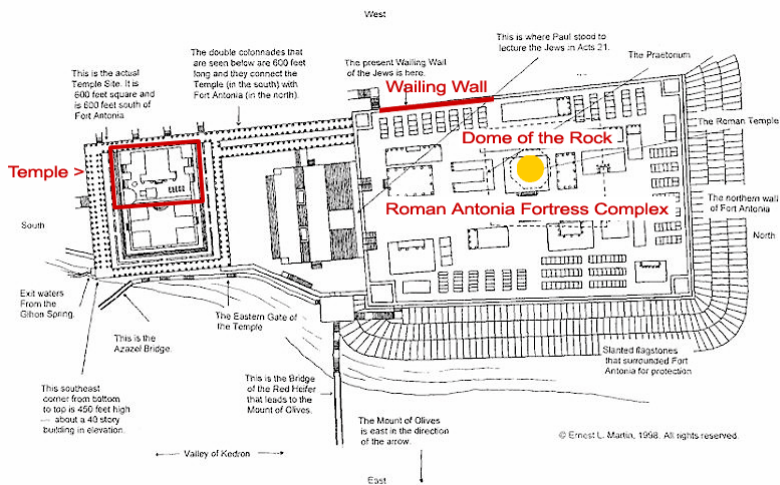

- a) The ancient high places of Israel are Jerusalem, Hebron, Bethlehem, Nazareth, Golan Heights, all of which are claimed by Arafat as belonging to the Palestinians or Syria. (v 2).
- b) The phrase “lips of talkers” describes how the Palestinians seek to gain control of these ancient high places by “negotiation” and by the “peace process” where they claim control over this land in exchange for peace (v3). “I will gather all nations who have parted my land.” Joel 3:2.
- c) The phrase “with despiteful minds” perfectly describes the malice, cruelty and anger that Palestinians have for Israel as seen in the exploding car bombs, car ramming and in educating Palestinian school children to hate Israel.
- d) The phrase “appointed my land into their possession” describes how Israel has been pressured by Clinton, Bush, Obama, Arafat and Abbas to give up land that God says belongs to Israel.

35. Muslims aim to “wipe Israel off the map”: “Let us cut them off from being a nation.” Psalm 83:4-18

This is regularly stated by the leaders of Iran, Gaza, PLO and ISIS saying “Death to Israel.”

36. Jewish Temple will be built in Jerusalem (holy city). “Rise and measure the temple of God” Revelation 11:1,2. The Temple Institute in Israel has advanced preparation to rebuild the temple. They have bred red heifers to sacrifice, trained the priesthood and built the vessels and furnishings for the temple. See “The Temple Institute” on youtube.

37. Mosque of Omar occupies “the court which is outside the temple...is given to the Gentiles.” Revelation 11:2. Today, the Muslim mosque of Omar occupies the same place that was the courtyard of Solomon’s and Herod’s temples in Jerusalem. Truly, this place is “given to the Gentiles” as prophesied. The Muslim Waqf, in Jordan, has administrative control of the Temple Mount. Herod’s Temple had restricted temple courts being that of priests, Israelites, women, and the gentiles.

38. Israel would lose control of Jerusalem “until the times of the gentiles be fulfilled.”

Luke 21:24. This prophecy of Jesus in 33AD has been fulfilled from the destruction of Jerusalem in 70AD until today, where Muslims control many parts of Jerusalem, such as the Mosque of Omar, Al Aksar mosque, Tomb of the Patriarchs, West Bank, etc.

39. Russia (Magog), Iran, Turkey (Togarmah), Libya will attack Israel from the mountains of Israel. Many Muslim nations shall oppose Israel.

The prophet Ezekiel predicted that in the latter years, a group of nations would invade the regathered nation of Israel. Russian and Iranian militaries are now present on the mountains of Israel, being in south Syria near the Golan Heights. These invading nations are stated in Ezekiel 38:5,6 as being:

- a) Persia, which today includes Iran and Iraq.
- b) Ethiopia, today including Ethiopia and Sudan.
- c) Libya
- d) Togarmah, which today is known as Turkey.

Each of these six nations today is strongly Muslim and anti-Israel. The Bible predicts that they will be led by Russia in their invasion of Israel, and that God will destroy these Muslim armies on the mountains of Israel by a great earthquake (38:19,20), by them fighting each other (38:21), by pestilence (maybe biological weapons v.22), by an overflowing rain (maybe a mudslide v.22), by great hailstones, and by fire and brimstone (maybe the same means that God used to destroy Sodom and Gomorrah).

It is interesting that these Muslim nations are all strongly allied to each other in their hatred of Israel. Many are already calling for a Jihad (holy war) against Israel. They surely will get a Jihad, but will be destroyed in the process, thus discovering that God is against Islam.

“Thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal. I will turn thee back, and leave but the sixth part of thee (five-sixths or 83% of the invading armies will be destroyed). (Ezekiel 39:1,2). Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou and all thy bands, and the people that are with thee (v.4) . . . Thou shalt fall upon the open field; for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.” (Ezekiel 39:1,2,4,5).

Israel will take seven years to burn the weapons (39:9), and will take seven months to bury all the dead army (39:11-14), so great will be the destruction.

40. They seek “to take a spoil (asset)”. Ezekiel 38:12. This spoil may be Israel’s Leviathan oil and gas fields.

41. Saudi Arabia (Sheba and Dedan), USA (merchants of Tarshish), Britain protest this invasion, but will not intervene militarily to support Israel.

“Sheba and Dedan (Saudi Arabia), and the merchants of Tarshish (Britain and USA), with all the young lions (British Commonwealth countries) thereof, shall say unto thee, Art thou come to take a great spoil? (Ezekiel 38:13). Thou shalt come up against my people of Israel, as a cloud to cover the land; it shall be in the latter days.” (Ezekiel 38:16).

Notice that these nations today are militarily aligned with each other into two camps as God prophesied 2600 years ago. Saudi Arabia has closer ties with Israel against their enemy Iran. These events all happen AFTER Israel is back in their land, just as we see today.

This shows that we are now living in the latter days, and just before Jesus Christ’s return.

42. The “Two-State Solution” pushed by the UN triggers the Antichrist’s and world armies invasion of Israel at the Battle of Armageddon at the end of the 7 year tribulation, where he only takes half of Jerusalem. Why does Antichrist only take “half” of Jerusalem?

Because today, the “Middle East peace process proposes a “2-state solution” where the Muslim Palestinians have a State in the West Bank with their capital being east Jerusalem and Israel having a state with its capital being west Jerusalem.

Israel will never agree to give up their control of Jerusalem to the PLO, so the Antichrist leads the world's armies to impose this "2-State solution" by force on Israel.

"I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city." Zechariah 14:2.

Jesus returns and judges the nations for scattering Israel and "parted my land." Joel 3:2.

43. Passenger air travel brings rich US Jews to Israel. "Who are these that fly as... doves?" Isaiah 60:8,9. Passenger airplanes would be invented before Jesus Christ returns.

At the beginning of Christ's rule on earth, Israelites from all over the world will be regathered to the land of Israel. The prophet Isaiah asked who they were whom he saw flying as a cloud, like doves to their lofts or windows.

This is a clear reference to modern passenger jumbo jet air travel.

"Who are these that fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows? . . . the ships of Tarshish (USA) first, to bring thy sons from far, their silver and their gold with them unto the name of the LORD thy God, and to His Holy One of Israel, because he hath glorified thee (Israel)." (Isaiah 60:8,9) .

Today there are about 7 million Jews in New York, USA. Many of these Jews are very wealthy. New York could be said to be the financial capital of the world because of the New York Stock Exchange in Wall Street.

This prophecy contains several interesting prophetic details:

- a) Today, air transport is by Jumbo jets, many of which are painted white like doves, and shaped like doves. By 1950, jet passenger planes were making daily non-stop flights across the Atlantic Ocean.
- b) Today, many Jews live in the USA (Tarshish), which is far away from Israel.
- c) Today, many American Jews are wealthy, as seen from them bringing their silver and gold with them back to Israel.

44. When Jesus returns, to him shall be given the gold (oil?) of Sheba (Saudi Arabia). Ps72:15 What is the "gold" of Saudi Arabia? It sounds like a reference to the Arabian oil fields.

45. Leaders of USA, Saudi Arabia, island nations bring gifts to Jesus when He returns.

"The kings of Tarshish (USA) and of the isles (UK, Australia, NZ, Philippines) shall bring presents; the kings of Sheba and Seba (Arabia) shall offer gifts." Psalm 72:10.

46. Jerusalem's East Gate will be shut as it is today: "This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened." Ezekiel 44:1,2.

Today if you visit Jerusalem's East Gate or Golden Gate, you will notice that it is completely bricked up so that nobody may enter it. Jesus Christ, who is the God of Israel, entered it on a donkey on His way to be crucified. The prophet Ezekiel foretold:

"Then he brought me back the way of the gate of the outward sanctuary which looks toward the east and it was shut. Then the LORD (Jehovah the Father) said unto me: This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it; because the LORD (Jehovah the Son), the God of Israel, hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut." Ezekiel 44:1,2.

Ottoman Sultan Suleiman the Magnificent walled it up in 1541, fulfilling Bible prophecy.

47. This gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness to all nations; then shall the end come. Matthew 24:14. Satellite TV, radio, internet, ex-Muslims do this.

Conclusion: We must teach all nations how to be saved, how to live by the Bible and the signs of Jesus Christ's second coming being fulfilled today.

47. THE SECOND COMING OF JESUS CHRIST TO EARTH

AIM: 1. To summarise Bible teaching on the Second coming.

2. To motivate Christians to fervently serve Christ in view of Christ's return at any time and our accountability to Him.

A. FACT OF CHRIST'S RETURN

Jesus promised it (John 14:1-3).

Angels promised it (Acts 1:8-11).

B. WHEN WILL CHRIST RETURN

No human or angel knows the day or the hour of the rapture (Matthew 24:36).

We can, however, observe some signs in the world today indicating that Christ's return may be near:

C. SIGNS OF CHRIST'S RETURN

1. Return of the Jews to the land of Israel (Ezekiel 37:1-14,21-28; Matthew 24:32,33; Joel 1:6,7).
2. Rise of Russia, Iran and Turkey as anti-Israel powers (Ezekiel 38-39).
3. Rise of 10-nation revived Roman Empire in Europe (Daniel 2:40-44; 7:7-28, Revelations 13).
4. Ability of man to destroy the earth (Revelations 11:18).
5. Increase in travel and knowledge in the time of the end. (Daniel 12:4).
6. Ecumenical movement including the World Council of Churches and Rome leading to a One-World religious system called "Mystery Babylon" in Revelations 17 and 18.
7. One world money system (Revelations 13:16-18).

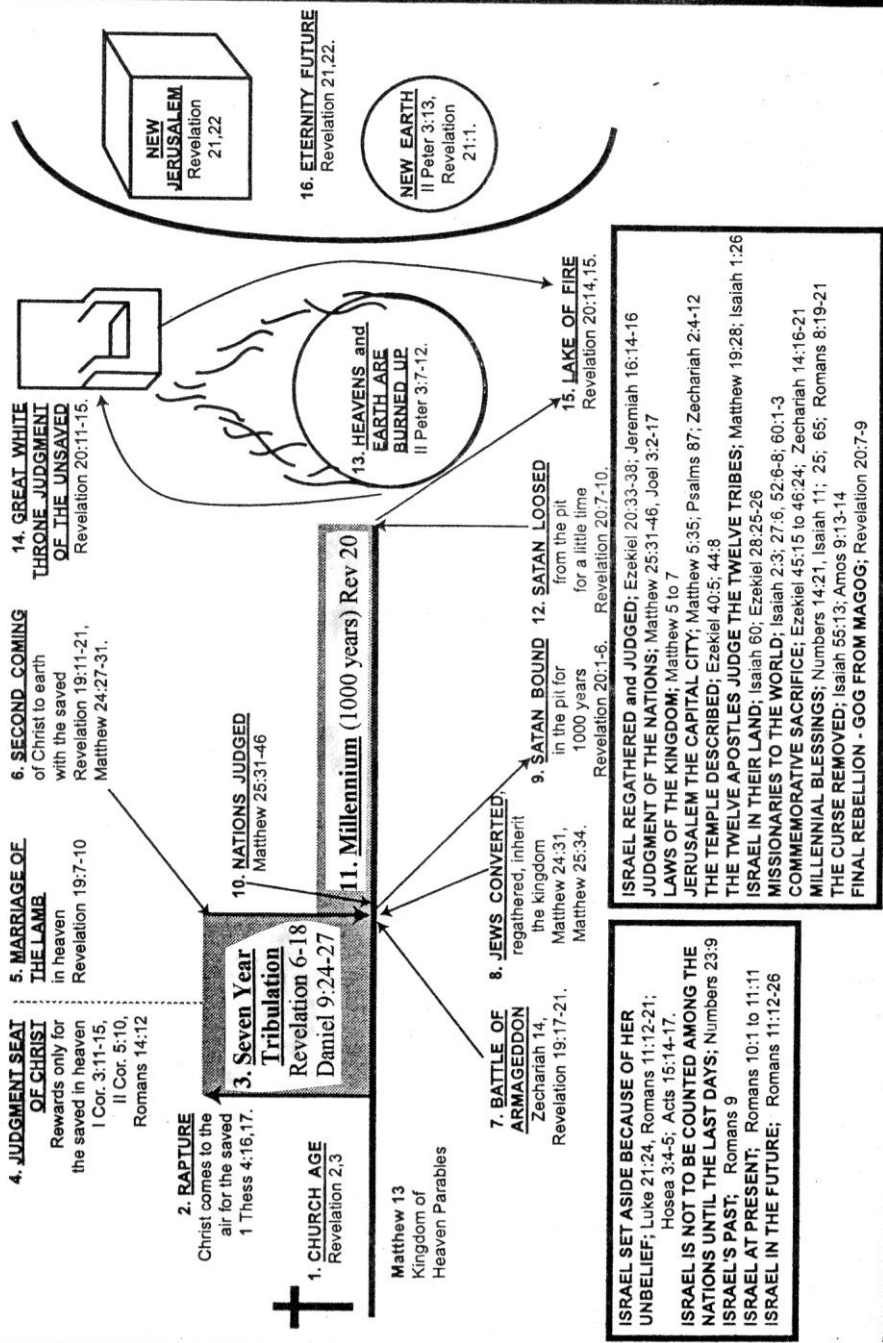

D. WHY STUDY CHRIST'S SECOND COMING?

1. About one quarter of the Bible refers to it.
2. Christ taught it. (Matthew 24-25)
3. It increases our desire to serve God in winning souls and making disciples, because Jesus may come today, requiring us to give account of our life to Him. (1 John 2:28; Matthew 24:42-44).
4. God blesses those who read the prophecy of Revelation. (Revelation 1:3).
5. It tells of ultimate victory for Christ and the believer, and his forces. This is why Satan doesn't want us to study and teach it.
6. It encourages us in our trials that the spiritual war will soon be over, guaranteeing us peace forevermore.

E. WHAT ARE THE ORDER OF EVENTS IN GOD'S PROGRAM?

WHAT ARE THE ORDER OF EVENTS IN GOD'S PROGRAM?

1. THE CHURCH AGE from the Apostles (Ephesians 4:7-12) to the Rapture.
The 7 Churches of Revelation 2 and 3 describe:
 - a) Church periods that this age is divided into.
 - b) Churches existing in John's time.
 - c) The spiritual condition of any church at any time.
 - d) The spiritual condition of any believer at any time. When Jesus begins a parable with: "The Kingdom of heaven is like unto..." He is describing what the Church age or the outward form of Christendom will be like from Pentecost to the Rapture.
2. RAPTURE is the catching away of all dead and living believers from earth to heaven.
This occurs when Christ comes to the air (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18; 1 Corinthians 15:51-54; 11 Thessalonians 2:1-12; Revelation 3:10; 4:1-2). This event ends the Church age.
Then commences the 7 year Tribulation with the Antichrist signing his 7 year covenant with Israel. The Rapture is the "blessed hope" of Titus 2:13 that believers are waiting for. Believers will be raptured before the Tribulation period, and will not pass through any of it because:
 1. We are looking for Christ to come (Titus 2:13). We are not looking for the Antichrist to confirm the covenant with Israel. (Daniel 9:27).
 2. Christ's coming is called a "blessed hope" and the Tribulation is not a blessed hope to look forward to going through.
 3. "God hath not appointed us to wrath . . ." (1 Thessalonians 5:9).
 4. The Church and John are raptured at Revelation 4:1,2 which is before the start of the Tribulation. (Revelation 6:1).
 5. The Tribulation is likened to Noah's Flood and the Judgment on Sodom and Gomorrah where God spared the righteous. (Matthew 24:37).
 6. God will keep the Philadelphian Church from (out of) the Tribulation period (Rev 3:10).
 7. If we are to be raptured midway or at the end of the Tribulation, we would know the day of Christ's return, which no man knows. (Matthew 24:35).
 8. 24 elders in Rev. 4:4 have "on their heads crowns of gold", only possible for resurrected bodies.
3. THE 7 YEAR TRIBULATION is the greatest time of trouble that Jews or the world have ever seen. It is:
 - a) Divided into 7 seals, 7 trumpets and 7 vials (bowl) judgments.
 - b) Described in Revelation 6-18.
 - c) Stated in Matthew 24:21-22 and Daniel 12:1.
 - d) Ruled by the Antichrist (II Thessalonians 2:3-12; Revelation 13; Daniel 7:19-27) from the 10 nation Revived Roman Empire in Europe.
 - e) Lasts for 7 years. Daniel 9:27 (1 week means 1 group of seven years, each with 360 days). In Matthew 24:21 the second half of the Tribulation is called the Great Tribulation. Revelation 11:1-3 states that it lasts 3 1/2 years, 42 months or 1260 days. It commences with the Antichrist placing the abomination of desolation in the rebuilt Temple at Jerusalem (Matthew 24:15 and Daniel 9:27) and the Antichrist persecuting the Jews.
4. JUDGMENT SEAT OF CHRIST occurs after believers are raptured. It takes place in heaven during the first half of the 7 year Tribulation period. The quality of a believer's works after salvation are examined. He either receives rewards or suffers loss of rewards.
Are you living for Christ and eternity or for self and this life only? What does Christ think of you? What rewards or treasures have you laid up for yourself in heaven? (Matthew 6:19-21).
5. MARRIAGE OF THE LAMB (Revelation 19:7-10).
The Church is known as the Bride of Christ (Ephesians 5:23-33).
The marriage and marriage supper between Christ and all raptured saints occurs in heaven before Christ and His saints return to the earth for the Battle of Armageddon.
6. SECOND COMING OF CHRIST TO EARTH
 - a) He comes with the saved. (Zechariah 14:5).
 - b) He comes with lightning speed. (Matthew 24:27-31).
 - c) He comes 2520 days (2 x 1260 days) after Antichrist signs his covenant with Israel. Dan 9:27.

7. BATTLE OF ARMAGEDDON (Revelation 19:17-21; Zechariah 14:1-15).
 - a) At the end of the 7 year Tribulation, the Antichrist and armies of all nations gather around Israel to destroy Jews and to take Jerusalem. (Revelation 16:12-16).
 - b) Christ and all the saved then return from heaven (Revelation 19:11-16).
Christ defeats the armies of Antichrist instantly at the plain of Megiddo (Revelation 14:14-20). The geography is like a winepress, and blood flows three feet deep for 200 miles.
 - c) After victory at Megiddo and Bozrah (Isaiah 63:1-6) Christ comes and stands on the Mount of Olives, which splits east-west (Zechariah 14:4). He then enters Jerusalem through the now closed East-Gate (Ezekiel 43:1,2).
 - d) Christ will then be King over all the earth and the people that attacked Jerusalem will be plagued by what seems to be nuclear explosions, which will dissolve their flesh (Zechariah 14:12-15; Isaiah 24:5-6).
8. JEWES ARE CONVERTED
 - a) After being rescued by Christ following Armageddon, Jews notice the wounds in Christ's hands and realise that their ancestors crucified their long-awaited Messiah. (Zechariah 13:6).
 - b) This causes repentance and mourning, resulting in the Jewish people being saved by calling on Christ to be their Saviour. (Zechariah 12:10 and 13:9).
 - c) Jews all over the earth are then regathered into Israel. (Isaiah 11:11; 43:5-7; 60:8,9; Matt 24:31).
9. SATAN IS BOUND in the pit for 1000 years along with his angels. (Revelation 20:1-3).
10. THE NATIONS OF THE WORLD ARE JUDGED according to how they treated God's people during the Tribulation. The righteous (sheep) enter the Millennium, and the others (goats) enter everlasting fire. (Matthew 25:31-46).
11. THE MILLENNIUM or 1000 year reign of Christ starts when Christ returns to the earth.
What will this period be like?
 - a) Christ will regather all Jews to Israel (Isaiah 43:5-7).
 - b) Jerusalem will be the world capital, from where Christ rules the earth in person (Isaiah 2:1-4)
 - c) The Jews will become missionaries to the Gentiles (Isaiah 27:6; 61:6; Psalm 67:2).
 - d) Christ builds the Millennial Temple (Zechariah 6:12-15).
 - e) Animal creation will be changed (Isaiah 11:6-9 and 65:25).
 - f) Humans will live much longer (Isaiah 65:20-22; Zechariah 8:4), as long as trees, possibly 1000 years as before the Flood.
 - g) Peace and prosperity will characterise Christ's rule (Isaiah 2:4) as will universal knowledge of the Lord and private ownership (Micah 4:1-4).
12. SATAN IS LOOSED from his prison after the 1000 years and deceives the unsaved of the nations to invade Jerusalem. Fire from God devours them and Satan is then cast into the lake of fire forever (Revelation 20:7-10).
13. THE HEAVEN AND EARTH ARE THEN BURNT UP WITH FERVENT (NUCLEAR LIKE) HEAT (11 Peter 3:7-12).
14. THE GREAT WHITE THRONE JUDGMENT of the unsaved occurs where all the unsaved people are taken from hell and given immortal, resurrected bodies. This is the second resurrection or tare judgment. (Matthew 13:24-30,36-43).
They are then judged according to their works. Since the works that they have trusted in to gain God's acceptance fall short of Christ's perfect works, they are all cast alive into the.....
15. LAKE OF FIRE where they are tormented forever (Revelation 20:11-15).
16. ETERNITY then commences with a new heaven and new earth, as well as the New Jerusalem (1500 miles long, broad and high) coming down from God as the residence of the church (us) forever. (Revelation 21:22).

SATAN'S PATH
ISA. 14:12-15

JOB 1:7

EPH. 2:2

THIS MAP SHOWS GOD'S "PLAN OF THE AGES" 2 Peter 1:20-21
FROM : ETERNITY PAST TO ETERNITY FUTURE God's Holy Word

This map shows God's "Plan of the ages" from Eternity Past to Eternity Future as recorded in His inspired written word (II Pet. 1:20,21).

There are 7 dispensations in the outworking of God's overall eternal purpose (Eph. 1:9,10). In each man is given a specific test or responsibility; each ends in failure and this brings judgment. The overall revelation of the dispensational tests show that man is utterly sinful and lost (Rom. 3:10,23).

Salvation in every dispensation is by the GRACE OF GOD (un-deserved, un-earned gift) and is received BY FAITH. Some examples are Abel, Heb. 11:4; Enoch, 5:6; Noah, 7; Abraham, 8-19; Moses, 23-29. See also Eph. 2:8,9; Rom. 6:23.

We are now living in #6. Grace or Church age. This dispensation will end with the return of Christ. He will first return in the clouds to resurrect the DEAD IN CHRIST, to change the LIVING IN CHRIST and RAPTURE or receive them up together to Himself (John 14:1-3; I Thes. 4:16,17). This event MAY BE SOON—notice the regathering of Israel—SUDDEN (I Cor. 15:52); and a SEPARATION of the saved (born-again, in Christ; John 3:6,7; Rom. 8:1,9) from the unsaved. THOSE WHO REJECT CHRIST TO THE RAPTURE OR THEIR DEATH WILL NOT HAVE ANOTHER OPPORTUNITY (II Thes. 2:10-12; John 14:6)! Then after the 7 year Tribulation Judgment, Christ will return to the earth IN HIS GLORY with His saints to establish the 1,000 year Kingdom on the earth (Matt. 24:29,30; Rev. 19:11-20:6; Jude 14,15).

48. 7 DISPENSATIONS

The Tribulation will be God's wrath on this Christ rejecting world and men will beg the mountains to fall on them to hide them (Rev. 6:12-17). There will be wars and AT LEAST 1/2 THE WORLD'S POPULATION WILL BE KILLED (Rev. 6:4,8; 9:15-18)! Men will be scorched with fire, there will be great earthquakes and 100 pound hail. Cities will fall and every island and mountain will disappear. AFTER THE RAPTURE (Rev. 3:10; 16:8, 9, 18-21).

The White Throne will be God's final judgment on all who have rejected His GRACE, BY FAITH salvation. They will be resurrected from all ages, judged, then cast into the Lake of Fire forever (Rev. 20:11-15).

NOW TWO QUESTIONS :

- #1. If the Rapture comes today, will you be taken?
- #2. Would you like to KNOW you will be with Christ? IF SO, PLEASE FILL OUT THE QUIZ ON THE BACK...

49. THE RAPTURE - Jesus Christ's Second Coming for the Church.

Bible Reading: 1 Thess 4:13-18; John 14:2,3; 1 Cor 15:51-53; Titus 2:13; Rev.3:10; 4:1,2; Isaiah26:19

Aim: To comfort and motivate one another with the truth of Christ's return to take us to heaven.

Introduction: Jesus Christ's return will be in two stages. One for His bride the Church, known as the "catching away" or "rapture". (1 Thess. 4:13-18). The rapture will be followed by a seven year period known as the Tribulation. This will begin with the Antichrist from Europe making a treaty with Israel and breaking it after three-and-a-half years. The last three-and-a-half years of the Antichrist's reign will be the Great Tribulation spoken of by Christ in Matthew 24:21. This will be followed by the second stage of Christ returning to earth with believers to rule the world in righteousness. Zech 14:1-5; Jude 14

Definition: The term "rapture" comes from the Latin word for "caught up" in I Thessalonians 4:17.

Before the seven year tribulation, Christ will descend from heaven, and catch up the Church to heaven to be with Himself. The Tribulation will then be unleashed on an unbelieving world.

The Scriptures teaching the "catching away" are as follows:

- a) I Thessalonians 4:16-18: "For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: & so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words."
- b) John 14: 2,3: Jesus said: "I go to prepare a place for you (v.2). And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself: that where I am, there ye may be also."
- c) I Corinth 15:51-53: "We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and...must put on immortality."

d) Titus 2:13: "Looking for that blessed hope (rapture), and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ." Rev 3:10; Rom 8:23; 13:11; Phil 3:20,21; 1 Thess 1:10; 5:9; 2 Thess 2:1

e) Revelation 4:1,2: John experienced the rapture: "After this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me: which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter...and immediately....in heaven."

We may summarise the main events of the rapture from I Thessalonians 4:6-17, as follows:

- i) One day, Jesus Christ will descend from heaven and we will hear a shout, a voice and a trumpet.
- ii) All dead believer's bodies will be resurrected to rejoin their spirits and souls in the air.
- iii) All living believers will receive resurrection bodies, and be caught up to meet the Lord in the air.
- iv) We will receive immortal, resurrection bodies, a place Christ has prepared for us in heaven, comfort forever in the presence of Christ, and rewards promised in 2 Corinthians 5:10.

The rapture is called a comfort and a blessed hope. Notice several things about the rapture.

1. Rapidity of the Rapture = Immediately (I Corinthians 15:51,52).

"we shall all be changed in a moment (Grk: atomos 823), in the twinkling (Gk: rhipe 4493) of an eye."

The speed with which the rapture will occur is described by these two Greek words which mean:

a) "atomos" = without a cut, indivisible. This is the word from which "atom" is derived, meaning "that which cannot be divided." When referring to time it means "an indivisibly small instant of time; a point of time which cannot be divided." It means "immediately."

b) "rhipe" = a quick motion, such as a fling or toss. A blink, wink, jerk, or twinkle of an eye. The least duration of time. People will not have time to call on Christ for salvation, or to do what they planned. Believers must serve Christ now so that we won't be ashamed at His coming. (I John 2:28).

2. Reason For The Rapture = To keep the Church out of the Tribulation.

The Church will be caught out of the world to be kept from the 7 year Tribulation period. The rapture will be as unexpected as a thief in the night. (I Thess.5:2-4). "God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation (deliverance from the tribulation wrath) by our Lord Jesus Christ." I Thes 5:9. Christ said to the faithful, Bible-loving Philadelphia church, "Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from (Greek: 'ek' = out of) the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them which dwell upon the earth." (Revelation 3:10).

Christ will spare His bride from going through the wars, famines, Antichrist's persecutions, earthquakes, and other judgments that will come on an unbelieving world.

The purpose of the Tribulation is to bring Israel and unbelieving nations to repentance (Rev. 9:18-21).

In Revelation 6:8, 25% of the world's population are killed.

In Revelation 9:18, 33% of the rest are killed. This leaves only 50% of the world's population alive.

3. Requirement to be Raptured

Only those who have been saved by calling on Christ to save them from their sins, will be raptured.

"The dead in Christ shall rise first." (I Thessalonians 4:16).

"we (all living believers) which are alive and remain shall be caught up..." (v.17).

Q: Are you trusting Jesus Christ to save you, or your good works to gain God's acceptance?

Some people in this room may be left behind if Jesus Christ returned today.

Q: Would you be taken to be with Christ, or would you be left behind to enter the 7 year Tribulation?

Can you imagine what it would be like to be left behind?

a) You phone your Christian friends, and they are nowhere to be found.

b) The newspapers and television report millions of missing people.

c) Many driverless cars will have crashed on the roadside.

d) People will panic about their missing family and friends. They will demand an explanation. Was it the rapture predicted in the Bible? Antichrist will offer a false yet plausible explanation that many will believe (2 Thess. 2:8-12), maybe that UFOs took Christians who were resisting the new world order.

Q: Will you be saved and taken, or lost and left behind? Receive Jesus Christ as your Saviour today.

4. Rewards after the Rapture.

Following the rapture, all Christians will appear before the Judgment Seat of Christ (2 Cor. 5:10; Romans 14:10,12; 1 Cor. 3:10-15) to receive rewards according to the quality of our service to Christ after salvation. Some Christians will suffer loss of rewards that they could have earned. (1 Cor. 3:15).

"every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour." (I Corinthians 3:8).

Q: Will you win rewards, or will you lose rewards?

5. Revelation of the Sons of God.

When Christ appears, we shall be just like Him, even though we may now appear unattractive and unimportant. We will have a glorious, immortal body just like Jesus Christ has now.

"Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not appear what we shall be; but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is." 1 John 3:2.

"For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God." Romans 8:18,19.

God has predestined every believer to be conformed to the image and likeness of Christ. (Romans 8:29)

6. Our Response to the Rapture.

"Every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself (sanctification), even as he is pure." 1 John 3:3.

Question: How should we now live? If we knew we'd be "caught up" next year, we should:

a) Live pleasing to God by reading and studying the Bible, and praying daily.

b) Learn How to win people to Christ so they'll be caught up to heaven and won't go through the Tribulation. Pastors should conduct a soul-winning training session this week. We want to rejoice with people in heaven who we have led to Christ on earth. We only have a short time to do soul-winning.

We are in a war for eternal souls now. Don't be lazy, but get busy rescuing people from hell. After the rapture you'll have no chance to pluck people from hell. You'll never see your unsaved family and friends again. You can rest forever in eternity, but now is the time to win souls to Christ.

a) Confess and forsake any known sins. 1 John 1:9.

b) Dedicate your life wholeheartedly and completely to winning souls and serving Jesus Christ.

7. "Be ye also Ready, for in such an hour as ye think not, the Son of Man cometh." (Matthew 24:44).

"Redeeming the time, because the days are evil." Ephesians 5:16.

Conclusion: Are you ready to face Christ? Are you saved? Are you winning souls daily or weekly?

Is there any known sin in your life that you need to confess and forsake? Do so today.

50. The JUDGMENT SEAT OF CHRIST: How It Will Change Our Behaviour

Bible Reading: II Corinthians 5:10; Romans 14:10-12; I Corinthians 3:10-15; Colossians 3:23-25.

Aim: To let the Judgment Seat of Christ change our behaviour now.

Introduction: One day after the Rapture, every Christian must give an account to God of the way he has lived since his salvation. Our Christian lives will be “on display” (made manifest). This will determine not our salvation, but the amount of rewards we will receive when we get to heaven. “Lay not up for yourselves treasures on earth...but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven.” Matthew 6:19,20.

The Judgment Seat of Christ will be a place of:

1) Review – of our life from salvation to death.

It will show if we have lived for Christ and others, or for self.

Question: When Jesus returns, will I have a grudge against a friend?

Question: Will I have left my love for Jesus Christ, the Bible, souls, or the local church?

Question: If Christ came today, how many of the 19 commands in I Thessalonians 5:1,11-22 would I be obeying? “And now, little children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.” (I John 2:28). It is as if God gives us a block of land (foundation of salvation in Christ-3:11) in heaven, but we build the house (12) by our work after salvation.

2) Reward

The Judgment Seat of Christ in Greek is “Bematos tou Xristou” (II Cor. 5:10) known as the Bema Seat.

i) The Meaning of the Bema Judgment: It was a raised platform in the middle of an Olympic arena where the judge sat. After the contests were over, the winners would assemble before the Bema seat to receive their rewards from the judge. It was not a condemning seat, but a reward seat. Losing the race didn’t mean execution, it only meant no reward. The Christian life is a race, and the divine umpire is watching every contestant. After the Church age has finished at the rapture, Christ will gather every Christian before the Bema Seat to examine our life’s work and to give the proper rewards to each.

ii) The Fact of the Bema Judgment.

“For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.” 2 Corinthians 5:10.

iii) The Purpose of the Bema Judgment.

- not to determine whether one enters heaven.

- not to punish believers for sins committed before or after salvation.

(See Psalm 103:10-12; Isaiah 38:17; 44:22; Micah 7:19; Hebrews 8:12).

- to give account to Jesus Christ of how we used our abilities, opportunities and responsibilities from the moment of our salvation. Hence:

a) In the past, God dealt with us sinners. (Ephesians 2:1-3; Romans 5:6-8).

b) In the present, God deals with us as sons. (Romans 8:14; I John 3:1,2; Hebrews 12:5-11).

c) In the future, God will deal with us (at the Bema Seat) as stewards. (I Corinthians 3:11-15).

iv) The material to be tested at the Bema Judgment.

At salvation, Christ becomes our foundation. (I Corinthians 3:11).

After salvation, we must build on this foundation. (I Corinthians 3:12-15).

God classifies believers works into 2 groups:

a) Those of indestructible and eternal value described as:

- gold = the trial of our faith (I Peter 1:7).

- silver = wisdom gained, favour with God (Proverbs 2:4; 3:14; 8:10; 22:1; Malachi 3:3).

- precious stones = souls won to Christ (Malachi 3:16,17).

b) Those destructible and useless activities of no eternal value are described as wood, hay and stubble. (I Corinthians 3:12-15).

Question: For what actions will we be rewarded at the Bema Judgment Seat of Christ?

1) How well we treasure other believers. Hebrews 6:10; Matthew 10:41,42.

2) How well we submit to authority and exercise authority over others. Hebrews 13:17; James 3:1.

3) How well we use our God-given abilities. I Peter 4:10; Luke 19:11-26; Matthew 25:14-29.

4) How well we use our money. I Timothy 6:17-19; I Corinthians 9:6,7.

- 5) How much we suffer for Jesus. Matthew 5:11,12; 10:29,30; I Peter 4:12,13; 2 Cor. 4:17; Rom. 8:18.
- 6) How well we use our time. Ephesians 5:16; Colossians 4:5; I Peter 1:17.
- 7) How well we run the particular race God chooses for us. Philippians 2:16; 31:13,14; I Cor. 9:24.
- 8) How well we control the old nature. I Corinthians 9:25-27.
- 9) How many people we witness to and win for Christ. Proverbs 11:30; I Thess. 2:19,20; Daniel 12:3.
- 10) How well we react to trials and temptations. James 1:2,3; Revelations 2:10.
- 11) How much we love the doctrine of Christ's return. II Timothy 4:8.
- 12) How faithful we are to God's Word and to feeding the flock of God. I Peter 5:2-4.

v) The Results of the Bema judgment:

- a) Some will receive rewards (I Cor 3:14). 5 crowns may be abilities we enjoy to glorify Christ. p266
- b) Some will suffer loss. (I Cor. 3:15).

vi) What determines whether we receive a reward?

a) QUALITY: "of what sort it is." (I Cor. 3:11-15 esp. v.13).

Would you prefer a handful of gold or a truckload of hay?

b) MOTIVE: Jesus may ask "Why did you serve Me?" To be seen of men (Matthew 6:1,2,5) or for:

- Love for Christ. II Cor. 5:14,15.

- Love for others. II Cor .5:11.

- Our works are to be judged. II Cor. 5:10.

c) We will be rewarded for WHAT WE ATTEMPTED. Matthew 25:21.

Did you invite anyone to church? Did you tell anyone how to be saved?

God calls us to be obedient and faithful.

3) Re-evaluation = to calculate the value of my life's effort again. Many things that seem big and important to us now, will seem small and worthless in heaven.

eg: The widow who gave 2 mites (2 x ¼ cents) gave more than the rich men.

"for unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required." Luke 12:48.

You are talented. God expects you to use your talents, not waste them.

4) Recognition = Many nobodies on earth now, will be somebodies in heaven.

Many somebodies on earth now, with be nobodies in heaven.

The rich man and the beggar Lazarus were reversed in status in eternity.

5) Regret of a life misspent and of opportunities wasted. If you don't abide in Christ you'll be ashamed.

"Now little children, abide in him: that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence and not be ashamed. I John 2:28. "Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward." 2 John 8. "Hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown."

Revelation 3:11.

The worldly minded, lazy, selfish Christian at the Judgment Seat of Christ will be very regretful.

6) Rejoicing of great rewards received by some. I Thessalonians 2:19,20.

"For the Son of man shall come in the glory of His Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works." Matthew 16:27.

"Behold I come quickly; and my reward is with me to give every man according as his work shall be."

Revelation 22:12.

Challenge:

a) Christian: Have you been living for Christ? Have you got sin or resentment in your life that you'd be ashamed of if you saw Christ today? Raise your hand if you need to get right with God?

b) Lost: Maybe you're not sure you are saved. You're not sure you'd go to heaven. You're not sure you know Christ as your Saviour and Friend. You will have no reward except hell, because the wages of sin is death. If you'd like to be saved, raise your hand and come out in the invitation so you can see how you may be saved.

I Corinthians 3:14-17 has 3 kinds of builders:

i) The wise builder (3:14): the studying, soul winning, Spirit-filled Christian. "If any mans work abide"

ii) The worldly builder (3:15): the carnal Christian "If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss"

iii) The wicked builder (3:17):the unsaved. "If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy Question: To which group do you belong?

Judgements of the Great Tribulation

51.

The Seven Seals

1st Seal	White horse - rider has bow, crown given to him - went out conquering to conquer.	Antichrist
2nd Seal	Fiery red horse - rider given power to take peace from earth - given great sword to kill one another.	Conflict on Earth
3rd Seal	Black horse - rider has pair of scales in hand. Wheat and barley measured out in return for money - warning not to harm oil and wine.	Scarcity on Earth
4th Seal	Pale horse - rider's name - Death. Hades followed. Given power to kill 1/4 of earth with sword, hunger, death and beasts.	Widespread Death
5th Seal	Cry of martyred souls under altar wanting revenge - must wait till fellow servants and brethren, also martyred.	Persecution
6th Seal	Great earthquake - sun blackened, bloodlike moon, falling stars - sky recedes as scroll - mountains and islands move. People hide in caves, rocks and mountains.	Cosmic Disturbances

7th Seal	Silence in heaven - 1/2 hour. Fire thrown to earth - noises, thunderings, lightnings, earthquake	The Seven Trumpets
----------	--	---------------------------

1st Trumpet	Hail and fire mingled with blood thrown to earth. 1/3 trees burned, all grass burned.	Vegetation Struck
2nd Trumpet	Something like great mountain of fire thrown into sea (meteor?). 1/3 sea - blood, 1/3 living creatures in sea died and 1/3 of ships destroyed.	Seas Struck
3rd Trumpet	Great burning star like torch fell on 1/3 rivers and springs. Poisons 1/3 of waters with wormwood - many die from bitter waters.	Waters Struck
4th Trumpet	1/3 sun darkened, 1/3 moon darkened, 1/3 stars darkened, 1/3 day and 1/3 night did not shine.	Heavens Struck
5th Trumpet	Bottomless pit opened - smoke darkens sun and air - locusts (demons) given power like scorpions - harm men without seal of God on foreheads - 5 months torment - then death.	Demons Torment Mankind
6th Trumpet	Four angels bound at River Euphrates released to kill 1/3 mankind - Satan's army of 200 million - 1/3 mankind killed by fire, smoke and brimstone.	Satan's 200 million army kills 1/3 Mankind

1st Woe
2nd Woe

7th Trumpet	The Seven Thunders Sealed Up
-------------	-------------------------------------	--

7th Trumpet	Kingdom proclaimed - temple in heaven opened - ark of covenant seen - lightnings, noises, thunderings, earthquake, great hail.	The Seven Bowls (Vials)
1st Bowl	Poured out on earth, foul and loathsome sore on those with mark of beast and those who worshipped his image.	Malignant Sores
2nd Bowl	Poured out on sea - became like blood of dead men - every living creature in sea died.	Sea Turns to Blood
3rd Bowl	Poured out on rivers and springs - became blood.	Waters Turn to Blood
4th Bowl	Poured out on sun - men scorched with fire.	Men are Scorched
5th Bowl	Poured out on Beast's throne - kingdom became full of darkness - gnawed their tongues because of pain.	Darkness and Pain
6th Bowl	River Euphrates dries up - way of kings of east prepared. Unclean spirits like frogs from mouth of dragon, beast and false prophet work signs to gather kings to Armageddon.	Euphrates Dried Up
7th Bowl	Poured out into air - great earthquake. Great city - 3 parts, cities of nations fall, Babylon judged, islands flee away, mountains disappear, great hail stones each weighing talent.	Earth Utterly Shaken

3rd Woe

52. THE RUSSIAN and MUSLIM INVASION of ISRAEL

Bible Reading: Ezekiel 36, 37, 38, 39.

Aim: To see how current events are leading to the invasion by Russia and Muslim nations of Israel.

Introduction.

The Prophecies in Ezekiel 36-39 have much to say about the world today.

The following benefits come from such a study:

1. It shows the future destruction of Russian military might.
2. It shows that God is against the Muslim religion and Muslim nations by God destroying their armies when they invade Israel.
3. It shows that God has a great future for Israel by protecting her in this invasion.
4. It proves the Bible to be true as it correctly predicts many aspects of modern world politics.
5. It contains a very likely reference to Britain and the United States in Bible prophecy.
6. The destruction of Russia and Muslim nations opens the way for Europe under the Antichrist to become the major world power in the Tribulation period.

Background:

One of the greatest proofs of the Bible is the survival of the Jew since Abraham's time 4000 years ago. In spite of attempts to destroy them by Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Rome and Hitler they continue to survive. After 1900 years of wandering among the nations, they are back in their own land as a nation since 1948. Israel today is the focal point for world interest and peace. It is the centre of political, industrial and Muslim conflict as the world's industries are so dependent on Middle Eastern oil supplies.

I. EZEKIEL 35: PROPHECY AGAINST MOUNT SEIR.

Question: Why did God devote a second prophecy to Edom (cf. 25:12-14), and why was it placed in the section on Israel's restoration?

Answer: Most likely Edom was listed here to represent God's judgment on all nations who oppose Israel. Edom was a type of all Israel's future enemies. The Edomites, who lived south of the Dead Sea "had a perpetual hatred, and shed the blood of the children of Israel" (v.5) when the Israelites fled the Babylonians at Jerusalem's fall in 586 BC. Edom will be the scene of frightful bloodshed at the battle of Armageddon, when Israel's enemies will be purged out at Christ's second coming. "Who is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah?..." Isaiah 63:1-6. Edom's sin was her hatred of Israel, just like the Muslim nations hate Israel today. When God restores Israel at the start of the Millennium, He will judge all nations of the world based on their treatment of Israel. (Matthew 25:31-46). Ezekiel 35 divides into 3 sections, each ending with the promise "thou shalt know that I am the Lord," v.5,9,15, each section being 35:1-4; 5-9; and 10-15.

II. EZEKIEL 36: RESTORING ISRAEL TO HER LAND.

In Ezekiel 36:1, Ezekiel prophesies to the "mountains of Israel". These mountains are highest at Hebron and Jerusalem. These are the two locations that the PLO is seeking to take off Israel in 1996 as part of the 'peace' process. God's reply to the PLO and to other nations trying to get Israel to give up Jerusalem and Hebron is as follows:

"Because the enemy hath said against you, Aha, even the ancient high places (Jerusalem, Hebron) are ours in possession....v.2

Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the heathen (nations e.g. PLO, USA), and against all Idumea, which have appointed my land to their possession...v.5

Surely the heathen that are about you (Israel), they shall bear their shame". v.7

i) Punishing Israel's enemies. (1-7). Edom again represents all nations that would harm Israel.

God promised with an uplifted hand of a solemn oath (v.7), to punish Israel's enemies for their sin in hounding, slandering (v.3), plundering (v.4,5), rejoicing over and hating Israel, and appropriating His land for themselves (v.5).

ii) Restoring Israel's land. (v.8-12). God states that:

"I am for you, I will turn unto you, ye shall be tilled and sown, I will multiply men upon you...the cities shall be inhabited, and the wastes shall be builded. (v.9,10).

I will settle you after your old estates, and will do better unto you than at your beginnings" v.11

I will cause men (Israel) to walk upon you,...they shall possess thee.” v.12

- iii) God will remove Israel’s reproach. (v.13-15). The mockery and humiliation that Israel has been forced to endure (v.3-6) will cease, as she is restored to prestige as God’s chosen people.
- iv) God’s chastening of Israel. (v.16-23). When Israel dwelt in their own land, they defiled it by their sins (v.16,17). God judged them for their murders and idolatry (v.18), and scattered them amongst heathen countries. v.19.

There they profaned God’s holy name (v.20), but God had pity on them (v.21). God will sanctify His name, so the nations may know that “I am the LORD.” (v.23).

- v) 9 Steps in Israel’s regathering. (v.24-38):

1. I will gather you out of all countries, and bring you into your own land. (v.24).
2. I will sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean.

God will forgive and cleanse Israel of all her filthiness and idolatry (v.25).

3. I will give you a new heart and a new spirit, taking away your stoney heart (v.26). This was the new birth that Jesus mentioned in John 3:3,5,10 that Nicodemus should have known about as one of Israel’s master teachers. (Jeremiah 31:33,34 Ezekiel 11:19; 18:31).
4. I will put my Holy Spirit within you. (v.27). This will enable Israel to walk in God’s ways.
5. Ye shall dwell in the land in peace, prosperity and agricultural fruitfulness. (v.28-30).
6. Ye shall remember your own evil ways,...and shall loathe yourselves for your sins and abominations. (v.31).
7. “Not for your sakes do I this” means that God will restore them for Christ’s sacrifice sake, not for their works (v.32).
8. Israel’s conversion will bring a great city renewal, and reclamation of desert regions (v.33,34) to be like the Garden of Eden (v.35).
9. When Israel prays to God, He will increase them like a flock of sheep.
“I will yet for this be inquired of by the house of Israel.” (v.37,38).

III. EZEKIEL 37: ISRAEL’S NATIONAL RESURRECTION.

The Vision of the Valley of Dry Bones

This vision shows the national and spiritual restoration of Israel back to the land, as promised in chapter 36. Israel was “dead” as a nation, deprived of her land, her king and her temple. She had been divided and scattered among the nations over the last 1900 years, so that restoration and unification seemed impossible. Hence God gave two signs (37:1-14 and v.15-28) to illustrate the future restoration of Israel to the land in the last days. They are:

A. The Valley of Dry Bones. v.1-14.

The hand of the Lord carried Ezekiel in the Spirit and set him down in the midst of a valley full of very many, very dry bones. God asks Ezekiel in v.3 “Can these bones Live?” He replied “O Lord God, Thou knowest”, realizing that humanly speaking it was impossible, yet it was possible for God. God told Ezekiel to prophesy to the dry bones. As he did, he observed 3 stages in new life:

- i) Skeleton stage: “Bones came together, bone to his bone”. v.7.

This corresponds to events in 1897 AD where Theodore Hertzl called the first Zionist Congress to reclaim Palestine as a national home for the Jews.

Also, in 1917 AD, General Allenby captured Jerusalem off the Turks. The Balfour Declaration was passed by the British Government promising Palestine as a national home for the Jews. This was in appreciation of Chaim Weizman’s invention of an improved method of making explosives, thus giving Britain a greater fire power advantage in World War I.

- ii) Sinews, flesh and skin came on the skeletons: This corresponds to the establishment of Israel as a nation in Palestine in 1948, by a United Nations mandate. When Britain moved out in 1948, Egypt, Iraq, Syria, Lebanon and Saudi Arabia attacked Israel. Israel won this war, increasing her territory from 5000 square miles to 8,000 square miles.

On June 5, 1967, President Nasser of Egypt, with 185,000 troops from Egypt, Iraq, Syria, Jordan and Saudi Arabia declared war on Israel. Immediately, the Israeli air force destroyed 400 Russian built, Arab war planes on the ground in one day. Israel captured Jerusalem and the Golan Heights in what became known as the Six Day War.

On October 6, 1973, the Yom Kippur War began when the Arabs attacked Israel on the Jewish Day of Atonement holiday, with much modern Russian weaponry. Israel suffered greatly but finally won, capturing vast quantities of Russian arms. In 1990, Russia permitted 750,000 Jews to emigrate to Israel.

iii) Breath stage: “Breath came into them, and they lived, and they stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army”. v.10.

The word “slain” in “Breathe upon these slain” (v.9), means that over history the Jews were “killed, murdered and butchered”, as they were persecuted. This breath stage corresponds to national restored Israel receiving the Holy Spirit as promised in Israel’s New Covenant (36:24-28). This occurs after Armageddon when Christ returns to rescue them from destruction by the Antichrist. This prophecy will be ultimately fulfilled when Christ regathers believing Israelites to Israel in the Millennium. See Jeremiah 31:31-34.

Question: What do these dry bones represent?

Answer: “These bones are the whole house of Israel. v.11.

Explanation: “Behold they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts”. v.11.

- “We are cut off” means “it’s all over for us”. Their outlook was grimly hopeless as represented by the long unburied, sun bleached dry bones in a valley.
- The valley symbolizes Israel’s depressed, persecuted, humiliated, low condition while scattered among the nations.

God’s purposes of restoring Israel:

1. To show Israel that their future is more glorious than ever, and that it is not all over for Israel.
2. To show that Israel is still “My people”. Twice God addresses Israel as “O my people” v.12,13.
3. To settle Israel in her ancient homeland as a regenerated nation, which embraces 4 events:

a) Bringing the Israelite people out from the nations.

“I will open your graves and cause you to come out from your graves”. v.12.

Graves represent Israel’s place of non-existence among the nations.

They are dead nationally and spiritually, like the prodigal son.

b) Israel will be brought into the land. “I will bring you into the land of Israel”. v.12.

This happens gradually over a period of time, as follows:

YEAR	1870	1900	1914	1948	1955	1960	1965	1970	1978	1991	1996
ISRAEL’S POP.	10,000	40,000	80,000	758,000	1,600,000	1,900,000	2,300,000	2,500,000	3,200,000	4,600,000	5,000,000

c) Israel’s spiritual rebirth at Christ return. (Zechariah 12:10-13:9).

“I shall put my Spirit in you, and ye shall live” v.14. The word “live” in v.3,5,6,9,10 means to “live spiritually”. (Ezekiel 36:24-28; Joel 2:28,29; Jeremiah 31:31-34; John 3:3,4).

d) Israel will be settled securely and permanently in the land. “I shall place you in your own land”. v.14. “Place” (‘nuah’ in Hebrew) means “cause you to rest, settle down, remain in security and quietness”.

B. The Sign of Two Sticks v.15-28.

i) The Sign Given. 37:15-17. Ezekiel was told to take 2 sticks and write Judah on one stick, and Ephraim on the other, then to join them together into one stick.

After Solomon died in 931 BC, the nation of Israel split into the Northern kingdom of 10 tribes known as Israel or Ephraim (Hosea 5:3,5) and into the Southern kingdom of 2 tribes known as Judah, being its larger tribe. Assyria took Israel into captivity in 722 BC, and Babylon took Judah captive in 606, 597 and 586 BC.

Note: Mormons wrongly claim that the 2 sticks represent the Bible (the stick of Judah) and the Book of Mormon (the stick of Joseph or Ephraim).

This wrong idea ignores the clear interpretation in v.18-28. It tries to impose a foreign meaning on the context of the sticks. Where is Mormonism mentioned here? Nowhere!

- ii) The Sign Explained. 37:18-28. The uniting of the 2 sticks pictured God restoring His people Israel to the land and reuniting them as a single nation in the land. When united, Israel will be led by King David himself (34:23,24) ruling under Jesus Christ as King of Kings.

8 Results of Israel's Restoration to the land:

1. The nation will be united as 12 tribes. v.21,22; Ezekiel 34:23,24.
2. David will be resurrected to be their King under Christ.
3. Israel will be cleansed of idolatry and all other sins. v.23.
4. Redeemed Israel will possess the land given by God to Jacob. Genesis 28:12-17.
5. God will make a new, everlasting covenant of peace with them. v.26a.
6. God will multiply & prosper them, placing them securely & permanently in the land.v25
7. God will set His sanctuary in the midst of them forever. God's sanctuary will be the literal millennial temple. (Ezekiel 40:1-31; 44:31).
8. God's tabernacle will be with them. v.27. God's dwelling place, like the pillar of cloud and fire in the wilderness, will be a token of God's presence on every house in Jerusalem to defend them. (Isaiah 4:5,6).

IV. EZEKIEL 38: RUSSIA, IRAN, ETHIOPIA, LIBYA, GOMER AND TOGARMAH (TURKEY) INVADE ISRAEL.

Introduction: Ezekiel 38 and 39 describe Russia's last bid for world conquest, and are in the context of prophecies of Israel's restoration to the land (Ezekiel 36,37). Although Israel is militarily superior to her Arab neighbours, the possibility of a Russian attack has been her constant fear.

This battle is part of a series of battles that take place in the 7 year tribulation, just before Christ's visible return. Notice several phases of events here:

- i) A political leader known as Antichrist will head up a 10 nation European confederacy, that will confirm a 7 year peace covenant with Israel (Daniel 9:27). This explains the strange statement in Ezekiel 38:11 of Israel "dwelling safely", something that has never happened in 2000 years of Israel's history. This would locate the time of Russia's invasion as being around day 1000 of the 7 year tribulation period.
- ii) By Russia and her Muslim allies suffering a disastrous defeat, this changes the world political situation and balance of power so greatly, that the Antichrist can easily become a world dictator by the middle of the 7 year tribulation.
- iii) The Great Tribulation (the last 3½ years) will see another world war (Daniel 11:40-45; Rev. 16:12-16). This will occur just before Christ's second coming. It can be pictured as follows:

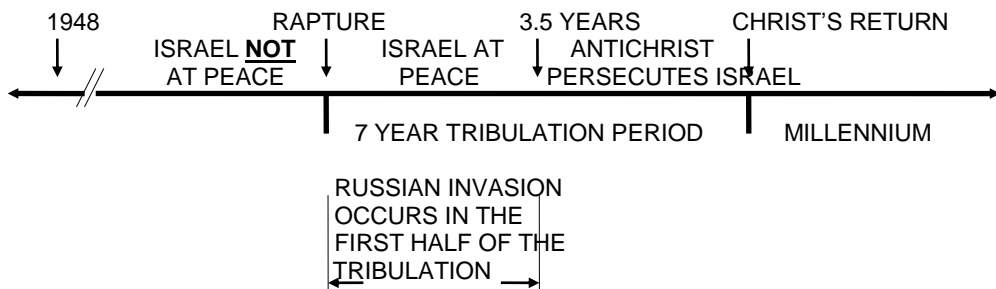

Ezekiel 38, 39 reveals a future invasion of Israel by the armies of Russia, Iran, Ethiopia, Sudan, Libya, Turkey and Gomer. These invaders will be decisively destroyed. A search of history finds no such battle or outcome. Prophecies not yet fulfilled, will be fulfilled just as literally as previously fulfilled prophecies.

1. The TIME of this invasion.

When will this invasion occur? Several time indicators point to this battle occurring before the middle of the 7 year tribulation. These are:

- i) When Russia, Iran, Ethiopia, Sudan, Libya and Turkey are all united against Israel. 38:1-6. Today Fundamentalist Muslim governments are in control of all these countries except Russia. Because Russia has lost her east European allies to Europe, she is now looking to Iran to forge economic alliances.
- ii) “In the latter years thou shalt come into the land...that is gathered out of many people”. v.3. Today for the first time in 1900 years, Israel has become a nation in the land having been gathered out of many people. (This was not the case when Israel returned from Babylon in 536 BC as Babylon was only one nation to return from). This regathering from many nations only happens in the latter years, just before Jesus Christ’s return. Hence, from 1948 onwards is the latter years.
- iii) “It shall be in the latter days”. v.16.
- iv) “They shall dwell safely all of them”. v.8,11. Since 1948, Israel have never dwelt safely in the land. The only time that they dwell safely is in the first half of the 7 year tribulation period, when Israel enjoys the peace covenant confirmed by the Antichrist European ruler. (Daniel 9:27).
- v) Israel at this time is called “a land of unwalled villages” v.11. This is the situation today worldwide, because walls are no defense against enemy missiles or heavy firepower. Before 1500 AD city walls were necessary, but today they are useless. Hence Ezekiel 38,39 describe events after 1500 AD.
- vi) Sheba and Dedan (Saudi Arabia), the Merchants of Tarshish (USA), and the young Lions (British Commonwealth countries) protest to the invasion in v.13. Today the US Sixth Fleet is permanently stationed in the Persian Gulf to protect it’s oil supply line from Saudi Arabia. The US and Saudia Arabian alliance repelled Iraq in the Gulf War of 1991. This western alliance is in place today.

Since there will be no warfare in the millennium (Isaiah 2:1-4; Micah 4:3,4), this invasion cannot take place after Christ returns to earth. It cannot occur after the middle of the tribulation, because the Antichrist then begins his persecution of Israel.

The invasion cannot occur after the middle of the Tribulation because the Antichrist then begins his persecution of Israel. Israel will not dwell safely then. Hence Israel only feels safe and secure in the first half of the Tribulation under the Antichrist’s peace covenant.

2. REASON FOR the INVASION.

One reason for the Russian/Muslim invasion of Israel is “to take a spoil” (mentioned 3 times in 38:12,13) or a “great spoil”. What might this spoil be? Some have suggested that it may be Israel’s offshore Leviathan, Tamar and Dalit gas and oilfields. Leviathan contains about 622 billion cubic metres (or 21.9 trillion cubic feet) of gas. As per the US Geological Survey (USGS) estimates, the entire Leviathan Basin holds a mean approximation of 1.7 billion barrels of recoverable oil (600 million barrels of oil beneath the gas layer) and a mean of 122 trillion cubic feet of recoverable gas. Saudi Arabia has 250 trillion cubic feet of gas reserves and 268 billion barrels of oil reserves. According to BP’s Statistical Review of World Energy, global oil reserves at the end of 2012 were 1.7 trillion barrels. Given that the world consumes about 86 million barrels of crude oil per day, some may conclude we’ll run out of oil in 55 years, or sooner if we increase consumption. Feb 1, 2014.

The Leviathan Natural Gas Field was discovered in December 2010. The discovery is located about 130 km west of Haifa, Israel. “And of Asher he said, *Let Asher be blessed with children; let him be acceptable to his brethren, and let him dip his foot in oil.” (Deut 33:24). Leviathan is opposite Asher.

Russian President Vladimir Putin and Israeli PM Benjamin Netanyahu agreed to allow major concessions for Gazprom to develop the Leviathan reserves. (Australian newspaper, 19 October 2015).

Oil is a finite resource and when it is used up there will be no more. During World War II, it was America’s supply of oil and Japan’s lack of it that determined the outcome of the war.

When the US realized in 1943 that it would eventually run out of oil, negotiations focused on securing supplies from Saudi Arabia and the Persian Gulf states (Sheba and Dedan).

If ever the Arab Gulf States needed the US, it was in 1990 when the Iraqi army moved into Kuwait and threatened Saudi Arabia. Because of the US success in Operation Desert Storm, the US consolidated its position as protector and partner of the Arab Gulf States (Sheba and Dedan) who control much of the world’s oil resources. Today we see Russia, Iran, Libya, Ethiopia, Sudan and Turkey associating together. At the same time we also see the Merchants of Tarshish (England and the USA) allying with Saudi Arabia (Sheba and Dedan) as prophesied in Ezekiel 38. Oil has played a major part in the providence of God, in bringing the oil rich Arab states together with the USA in preparation for their final role in the last days before Christ’s return.

3. IDENTITY of the INVADERS.

“Son of man, set thy face against God, the land of Magog, the chief (Rosh) prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him, (v.2), And say, thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief (Rosh) prince of Meshech and Tubal:..... (v.3).

Persia (Iran), Ethiopia, and Libya with them: all of them with shield and helmet:Gomer, and all his bands; the house of Togarmah of the north quarters, and all his bands and many people with thee. Thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts.” v.6,15.

Note: An alternative rendering of v.1,2 is “prince of Rosh, Meshech and Tubal”.

Should the Hebrew word for “chief”, (Rosh) be taken as an adjective (chief prince) or as a proper noun (prince of Rosh)? Both are possible and acceptable.

The invaders named are:

1. Gog (the leader) from Magog, who is the prince of Rosh, Meshech and Tubal. v.2,3.
2. Persia (Iran). v.5.
3. Ethiopia (Ethiopia and Sudan). v.5.
4. Libya. v.5.
5. Gomer. v.6.
6. Togarmah (Turkey). v.5.

Let us trace each of these nations identity:

1. The leader will be Gog, from Magog, the prince of Rosh, Meshech and Tubal. What country is represented by Magog, Rosh, Meshech and Tubal? Russia!

- a) Jerome, a prominent church leader (345-420 AD) stated that Magog was located north of the Caucasus mountains, near the Caspian Sea. “Gog and Magog”, with the Scythians, who lived near the Black Sea from the Caucasus to the Danube. (A.R. Millard, “Scythians”, International Standard Bible Encyclopedia 1988, 4, 365).
- c) The Caucasus mountains of Russia mean “Gogs fort”. (L. Bauman, Russian Events in the light of Bible Prophecy, p. 23-25, D. Pentecost, “Things to Come”, p.327).
- d) Gesenius, the famous 19th century Hebrew lexicographer says of:
 - Magog⁴⁰³¹ - “a great and powerful people inhabiting the extreme recesses of the north, who are at some time to invade the Holy land. Ezekiel 38,39. Greeks called them Scythians”. p.447.
 - Rosh⁷²²⁰ - proper noun of a northern nation undoubtedly the Russians,....and described by an Arabic writer Ibn Fossilan of 10th century, as dwelling on the river Volga. (p.752). So, Rosh can be a proper noun. Genesis 46:21 states Rosh as one of the sons of Benjamin.
 - Meshech⁴⁹⁰² - proper Moschi, a barbarous people inhabiting the Moshian mountains.
 - Tubal⁸⁴²² - proper noun, the Tibareni, a nation of Asia Minor, dwelling by the Euxine Sea, west of the Mosch.
- e) Geographical proof: Ezekiel states in 3 passages (38:6,15; 39:2) that this invading nation comes from the “uttermost part of the north” (as the Hebrew renders it). Moscow is directly north of Jerusalem, on the same longitude, as can be seen on a map.
- f) Linguistic proof: J. Walvoord in “The Nations in Prophecy,” p.107, 108 states that “Rosh may be the root of modern Russia....Meshech is similar sounding to Moscow, and Tubal is similar sounding to the Russian Province of Tobolsk.”
The American Standard Version translates it as “the prince of Rosh”.
- g) The 7 sons of Japheth were Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech and Tiras. These settled into areas which became known as:
 - Gomer in Cappadocia, possibly Germany.
 - Magog, Tubal and Meshech in Russia.
 - Javan in Greece.
 - Madai in Media.
 - Tiras near Greece. (Genesis 10:1,2).

The Table of the Descendants in Genesis chapter 10 shows where Noah’s descendants settled.

2. Persia (Iran). This is a fundamentalist Islamic state that sponsors terrorism.
3. Ethiopia. This includes modern Sudan, an Islamic Fundamental state that severely persecutes Christians in the South.
4. Libya. A fundamentalist Islamic state under Colonel Qaddafi that sponsors terrorism against Israel and the West.
5. Gomer¹⁵⁸⁶ - his descendants may have spread to modern Germany.
6. Togarmah⁸⁴²⁵ - occupies the area of modern Turkey, which has recently become a fundamentalist Muslim state.

Four of the six invaders are fundamentalist Muslim states, that hate Israel.

A fundamentalist Muslim is one who believes strongly in the Koran and the Islam religion. The move back to these basic beliefs was triggered by the defeat of the Ottoman Empire in 1922.

When Israel defeated the Egyptian army in 1948 and 1949, in the Sinai war in 1956, in the Six day war in 1967, and in the Yom Kippur War in 1973, each of these defeats was seen as the Muslim god, Allah, judging Islamic countries because of their lukewarmness, by allowing Israel to be victorious over them. From 1973, fundamentalist Muslims became much more militant. In 1979, President Sadat of Egypt commenced peace talks with Israel. In 1982 Sadat arrested about 2000 militant Islamic fundamentalists, he purged the army of 200 militant Islamic officers, and he forced the registration of 40,000 mosques in Egypt. He was soon assassinated by four Islamic soldiers.

At the same time in Iran, the Shah was forced to flee the country and the Ayatollah Khomeini became the leader and spokesman for the Islamic government. In 1979 he taught that the world was in the last stage of world history, and because Allah had predestined Muslims to take the world for Allah, they had to be 100% committed to Allah.

He taught that Israel was a satanic vehicle permitted by God to oppose Islam because of the lukewarmness of the Muslim masses. He taught that unless Israel was defeated and Jerusalem liberated, they could not move onto world victory.

This Islamic revolution has swept much of the world and has started Islamic terrorist groups such as Hamas in Gaza, Jihad in Israel, Hezbollah in Lebanon and other groups elsewhere such as in Sudan. All of these groups believe that they must take the world by force and terror, starting with Israel.

There is a revolution in the Islamic world. Islam believes it must remove corrupt and ineffective Islamic governments and install fundamentalist ones. This has led to much unrest in the Middle East and Africa, especially in Algeria, Morocco, Tunisia and Lebanon. In Iran, Libya, Ethiopia and Sudan strong Islamic governments have come to power.

The INVASION predicted in Ezekiel 38 and 39 will be a combined Muslim confederacy led by Russia. Today we see Iran (Persia) leading a Muslim revival determined to destroy Israel. Iran has military, nuclear, space and economic agreements with Russia. Sudan has come under a Muslim government and is closely aligned with Iran. Iran has sent 30,000 Muslim “missionaries” to Sudan to take all of Africa for Islam. Libya is armed by and economically tied to Russia. In 1995 Libya and Russia signed a $1.5 billion agreement to build infrastructure projects, and Russia has defended Libya against US accusations that Libya is manufacturing chemical weapons. Turkey now has a fundamentalist Muslim government. Turkey has signed a $23 billion contract with Iran for a natural gas supply. Russia’s political and economic alignment with southern Muslim nations is the prelude to a military mobilization against Israel.

We know from Ezekiel 38,39 and Revelation, that Islam will not control the world, but will be destroyed by God when Islamic nations and Russia attack Israel. God will use these Islamic nations to bring Israel to repentance, and bring glory to the God of the Bible. Islam’s defeat will prove to Muslims that their religion is not of God, and that the true God is the God of Israel.

The present unsolved Middle East peace accord between Israel and the Arabs will culminate in the Antichrist’s 7 year peace covenant with Israel. Israel’s Prime Minister Mr. Netanyahu has rejected the creation of an independent Palestinian state. He will not hand back the Golan Heights to Syria. He has taken discussions on Jerusalem off the agenda. He will expand, not remove, Jewish settlements on the West bank. All these things will make peace with the Arabs difficult to achieve, and will open the door for the Antichrist as the European ruler to enter the scene as a man of peace who will provide a solution to the Arab/Israeli peace problem. Israel will then dwell safely for 3½ years under his “protection”. However, before he comes to power and makes his 7 year peace covenant with Israel, Jesus Christ will have returned to the air to catch away all dead and living believers to heaven as foretold in 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 and in 1 Cor. 15:51-53. Let us be about our Heavenly Father’s business because the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ draws near.

4. The EVENTS of the INVASION.

In Ezekiel 38:3 God says “I am against thee O Gog”.

Question 1: Why would God be against Russia?

- Answer:
- 1) Russia has for many years persecuted the Jews and supplied military equipment to the Arabs to wage war against Israel.
 - 2) The old Soviet Union has taught Atheism, has blasphemed God, has persecuted millions of Christians, and has threatened many nations with nuclear destruction.

In Ezekiel 38:4 Gog or Russia is compared to a wild beast running out of control, whom the Lord will turn around, put hooks into his jaws (2 Kings 19:28), and bring him and his vast army to their destruction on the mountains of Israel.

Question 2: Why does this army ride horses when no armies today ride horses, but use tanks?

Answer: Several answers may be possible:

- a) Russia’s economy may be so broken that their oil production cannot completely fuel a large army.
- b) The world oil supplies may have run so low that Russia may have run out of oil and may see the remaining Middle East oil as the door to world control.
- c) Horses may include and picture all kinds of modern military transport.

Ezekiel 38:5, 6. In addition to Iran, Ethiopia, Sudan, Libya, Gomer and Turkey, many other people or nations will participate in the invasion as well.

Ezekiel 38:7. “be thou a guard⁴⁹²⁹ unto them”. “Guard” here means a commander or ruler, one to whom reverence is due, one who is observed as a leader by the other armies.

Ezekiel 38:8. This verse describes the time of the invasion as:

- i) Many days after 587 BC. This was not fulfilled before 1996 AD.
- ii) In the latter years thou shalt come into the land that is brought back from the sword. Jews have been greatly persecuted and killed over the last 1900 years, but have now returned to Israel.
- iii) Israelites have been gathered out of many people to return to the land this century.
- iv) Israel will dwel safely all of them. Not in 2000 years has this happened. It will only happen by their 7 year peace covenant with Antichrist. Today Israel is armed and living in fear of its neighbours.
- iv) The land has been a ruined waste since 70 AD when Jerusalem fell to the Romans (Ezekiel 38:9). The invasion will be like a storm⁷⁷²² (to rush over, tempest, devastation, destruction) and a cloud⁶⁰⁵¹ (a thunder cloud covering the land) as the armies advance over land to Israel.

Ezekiel 38:10,11,12. Russia and her allies will think an evil thought, plan or plot against Israel. Russia will notice Israel’s geographical, economic and political importance. Israel’s new cities not having walls, bars or gates present an amazing prophetic detail of today as the end time, when ancient walls and gates will have been made obsolete by modern weapons of war. Israel dwelling safely and at rest is due to the Antichrist’s peace covenant guaranteeing Israel’s security. The invaders will covet regathered Israel’s silver, gold, cattle and goods, as well as Israel’s strategic position.

Ezekiel 38:13. Sheba and Dedan (Saudi Arabia), and the merchants of Tarshish (England, America), with all the young lions thereof (Canada, Australia, New Zealand, British Commonwealth countries) shall protest against this invasion, but will not intervene militarily.

Question 3: Who are these protesters?

- a) Sheba and Dedan (Isaiah 21:13; Jeremiah 25:23,24) are in Saudi Arabia today.
- b) Merchants of Tarshish⁸⁵⁴⁹. Jonah took a ship from Joppa to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the Lord (1:3). The furthest place known was Spain. This land was rich in silver (Jeremiah 10:9), iron, tin and lead (Ezekiel 27:12). These metals are found in Tartessus in Spain, which attracted the Phoenicians who founded colonies in Sardinia in Spain, where we find Phoenician monumental inscriptions in the 9th Century BC bearing the name Tarshish.

Columbus requested financial assistance of Ferdinand and Isabella of Spain to fund his expedition to the Americas in 1492. The result was that South America was colonized by Spain and Portugal, while North America was colonized by England and France.

- God’s judgments in the Tribulation will be against the ships of Tarshish. Isaiah 2:16.
- “The Day of the Lord is.....upon all the ships of Tarshish. Revelation 8:9 states that the second trumpet judgment in the Tribulation will result in one third of the ships being destroyed: “a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea...and the third part of the ships were destroyed”. Revelation 8:8,9.
- Early in the millennium, airplanes and the ships of Tarshish will bring Jews back to Israel: “Who are these that fly as a cloud...?”
- “Surely the isles shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring thy sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, unto the name of the Lord thy God.” Isaiah 60:8,9.
- America has about 7 million Jews, and she assists America’s wealthy, converted Jews to return to the land of Israel to take up their role as the Messiah’s servants.

Hence Tarshish seems to represent a maritime power such as Spain, the United States and England.

- c) The young Lions: England’s national symbol is the lion. Hence the young lions may represent the nations that England colonized such as Canada, Australia, New Zealand, and other British Commonwealth countries. You would expect these nations to protest against Russia’s invasion of Israel, but to not intervene militarily due to the fear of nuclear war.

Ezekiel 38:14. Russia will know that Israel dwells safely under the military protection of Europe under the Antichrist. Hence, Russia's invasion of the Middle East may have a secondary purpose of challenging Europe's power and alliance with Israel.

Ezekiel 38:15. Russia comes out of the north parts, literally the "farthest extremities and recesses of the north parts" (3411). Moscow and Leningrad are some of the northern most major cities on earth. "All of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army".

Russian military today is indeed a mighty army.

Ezekiel 38:16. The invasion of Israel will come from all sides. From the north will come Russia; Turkey and Iran from the east, Sudan and Ethiopia from the south, and Libya from the west. They will advance as a cloud to cover the land. This enormous army will overrun all obstacles just as a cloud sailing across the sky.

"It shall be in the latter days." This comforts us living today as we see these events lining up that we are now living in the latter days just before Christ's second coming.

A result of this invasion will be that the nations will be so shocked by the outcome of this invasion that they will know that God has intervened in protecting Israel. By God destroying the invaders, God will show His holiness and power to all the nations. Israel will be delivered and God will be glorified.

Ezekiel 38:17. When Gog from Russia invades Israel, God asks him the question in v.17. The words "he" and "old time" indicates that this question is asked in the future when the invasion takes place. This will be a question that many people in the world at the time will ask.

"Are you the one prophesied in Ezekiel 38,39 that would invade Israel in the latter days? Is this the fulfillment of a Bible prophecy?" Maybe God the Holy Spirit will put this question in people's minds who will know this prophecy at that time. God asks the question if Gog is the one whom the prophets (plural) of Israel have prophesied in old time about.

Question 4: What other prophets have discussed Russia's invasion?

Answer: 1) Daniel 11:40 mentions "At the time of the end shall the King of the south (Ethiopia and Sudan) push at him (the Antichrist): and the King of the north (Russia) shall come against him (Antichrist) like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow (like a cloud, Ezekiel 38:16) and pass over."

Because of the Antichrist's peace covenant with Israel, a Russian attack on Israel will be seen as an attack on the Antichrist's European empire. The events that catapult the Antichrist to world rule commence with the King of the South (Ethiopia, Sudan, but not Egypt because the land of Egypt shall not escape v.42) pushing at him (the Antichrist's ally Israel). Then the king of the north (Russia) will come against him (Antichrist as protector of Israel) like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen (Ezek. 38:4,15), and with many ships (the Russian naval fleet in the Black Sea and Mediterranean Sea). v.40,41 - Russia will enter into the glorious land (Israel). Ammon (Jordan) will escape Russia's hand.

v.42 - the land of Egypt shall not escape.

v.43 - Russia will control Egypt's gold and silver treasures. The Libyans and Ethiopians shall be at his steps (in his company, allied with Russia, as stated in Ezekiel 38:5).

v.44a "But tidings out of the east (China) and north (Antichrist's armies mobilizing against him) shall trouble him:". At this point the Russian leader will hear the disturbing news that the armies of the Antichrist, coming from north of Egypt, and the eastern armies coming from China and Japan (Kings of the east, Rev 16:12) are mobilizing to challenge Russia's bold move of aggression.

v.44 - "therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many (of Israel)". As a result, Russia will set out in a great rage to destroy many people of Israel.

v.45 - "He shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas (Mediterranean and Dead Seas) in the glorious holy mountain (Jerusalem)." The Russian ruler Gog is described as pitching his tents between the Seas and at Jerusalem.

"yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him."

The destruction of Russian military might will destroy the balance of power in the first half of the Tribulation. The Antichrist's European empire, will suddenly be propelled to a position of world dominance with the demise of Russia, so that people will ask: "Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?" Revelation 13:4.

- 2) Zechariah 12:1-4 mentions “Jerusalem as a burdensome stone for all people: all (such as Russia) that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces....”.

5. THE DEFEAT OF GOG’S ARMY.

Ezekiel 38:18. When Russia attacks Israel in her demon-inspired plan to thwart God’s plan for Israel, God’s fury, jealousy, and fiery hot anger will be aroused.

God will bring about a series of disasters to destroy the invading armies:

- i) 38:19,20. First, there will be a great earthquake in the land of Israel. This earthquake will affect fish, birds, beasts and all ground creatures.
- All men that are on the face of the earth shall shake at my presence.
 - Mountains shall be thrown down, steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground. This may be the great earthquake described in Revelation 6:12,14 “every mountain and island were moved out of their places.”
- ii) 38:21. This great earthquake interrupts Gog’s invasion plans, spreading fear and confusion through the ranks of his forces, just the same effect as described in Revelation 6:15-18. In the pandemonium, communication between the four invading armies will break down. The confusion will result in the armies fighting each other, “every man’s sword shall be against his brother.”
- iii) 38:22. A third judgment brought on the army will be plague and bloodshed. This may be caused by them using chemical weapons against each other, or it may be what God used against Sennacherib of Assyria (Isaiah 37:36). “I will plead against him with pestilence and blood.”
- iv) A fourth judgment God rains upon these armies will be an overflowing rain, great hailstones, fire & brimstone. The rain will combine with dirt and debris from the earthquake to produce massive mud slides and floods which will destroy, demobilize and sweep away Gog’s military equipment. Great hailstones will pelt the survivors, killing many (Joshua 10:11; Revelation 16:21). The earthquake may reactivate volcanoes to spew out burning sulfur and hot ash, (as occurred with Sodom and Gommorah in Genesis 19:24), thus destroying the invading army.

The result is in Ezekiel 38:23. i) God will magnify and sanctify Himself.

ii) I will be known in the eyes of many nations. iii) They shall know that I am the LORD.

6. FOURTEEN RESULTS OF GOG’S DEFEAT. Ezekiel 39:1-29.

Ezekiel 39 amplifies chapter 38 giving more details of the invasion’s aftermath:

1. 39:1,2 - I will turn thee back and leave one-sixth of the. v.2.
2. 39:3 - I will disarm you.
3. 39:4,5 - You will fall upon the mountains of Israel, you and all your bands and people with you. v.4. You will fall upon the open field. v.5.
4. 39:4b - I will give you to the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field to be devoured. v.4b.
5. 39:6 - I will send a fire on Magog (Russia), and among them that dwell carelessly in the isles.

Question 1: Who are those that dwell carelessly in the Isles?

Answer: The Isles refer to the farthest reaches of the known world (Ezekiel 26:15,18; 27:3,15,35). The Isles may refer to island nations such as England, North and South America and Australia. People in these countries certainly are given over to pleasure seeking, material comforts and luxuries. These people do dwell carelessly. They don’t care much about God or suffering humanity, only about themselves getting more money, holidays, entertainment and pleasure.

Question 2: What is meant by God sending a fire on Magog and island dwellers?

Answer: Perhaps as Tarshish (US, Great Britain) challenges the Russian/Muslim invasion, there would be a nuclear shoot-out, where Russia and the United States fire nuclear tipped warheads at each other in an effort to destroy the other first. This is called “MAD” meaning “mutually assured destruction”. This would leave the USA and Russia crippled, resulting in Europe and the Antichrist being in control of the Middle East and its oil resources. Deprived of oil, the Kings of the East (China and Japan) would then have no alternative but to amass a vast army to cross the Euphrates river to occupy and control the Middle East oil fields as predicted in Revelation 16:12-16. This will bring all nations to the Battle of Armageddon in order to control the remaining world’s oil supplies.

“I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle.” Zechariah 14:2.

Note: Joel tells us that the remnants of the Russian army will retreat deep into Russia:

“I will remove far off from you the northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, (possibly Siberia), with his face toward the east sea (possibly the Caspian Sea), and his hinder part toward the utmost sea (possibly the Arctic Sea), and his stink shall come up....” Joel 2:20.

6. Israel’s Repentance. Ezekiel 39:7.

“I will make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel.

I will not let them pollute my holy name any more.

The heathen shall know that I am the Lord, the Holy one in Israel”.

Through all this God will teach Israel that He is Holy & will not be profaned by their sins any more.

7. 39:9,10 - The Israelites shall burn the weapons for 7 years so that they need not cut wood from the field or forests. This shows the completeness of Gog’s defeat. The plunderers will be utterly plundered. Israel will burn Gog’s weapons in the Tribulation period and into the Millennium.

8. 39:11-16 - The Israelites shall be burying Gog’s army for 7 months.

i) The smell of dead corpses will be so bad that passengers will stop their noses. v.11.

ii) Gog’s multitude will be buried on the east side of the Dead Sea in the valley of Hamon-gog, (meaning hordes of Gog) in Jordan, on the highway from Syria to Egypt via Petra. v.11.

iii) All the Israelites will help in burying the dead, v.13. Burial specialists will search the land for 7 months to bury corpses and to cleanse the land. v.14. Passengers (or travelers), on seeing a bone, will set up a marker sign next to it for the buriers to bury it.

iv) The burial operation will be so vast that a town will be set up in the valley at the gravesites to accommodate those workers cleansing the land. It will be named “Hamonah”, meaning “the multitude or horde”, to commemorate the victory over Gog, and will be the headquarters of the burial operation. v.16.

9. 39:17-20 - An invitation is given to every bird and beast to come to God’s sacrifice on the mountains of Israel to eat the flesh and drink the blood of mighty men, of princes of the earth, of all men of war, and of horses, who have come to invade Israel. This feast occurs before the soldiers are buried.

10. 39:21 - The nations will see God’s glory. v.21.

“I will set my glory among the heathen.” “Glory” is used 16 times in Ezekiel (1:28; 3:12,23; 8:4; 9:3; 10:4,18,19; 11:22,23; 39:21; 43:2,4,5; 44:4), and in each instance it refers to the shekinah glory cloud, just the same cloud that led Israel through the wilderness. This same shekinah glory cloud will be set among the nations of the world in the millennium for all to see. (Isaiah 66:18).

“All the heathen (nations) shall see my judgment that I have executed...”

Question: How will all nations see God’s destruction of the Russian and Muslim armies?

By satellite/cable television news broadcasts.

11. 39:22 - “Israel shall know that I am the Lord their God from that day forward.”

Israel will turn back to God. God’s dramatic, shocking defeat of Gog will force Israel to acknowledge God’s power. Many Jews will be saved through this.

12. 39:23,24 - The nations shall know that Israel went into captivity for their sins. It was not God’s failure, but it was due to Israel’s uncleanness and transgressions that God had to judge them.

13. 39:25-28 - Early in the millennium, God will regather the whole house of Israel out of their enemies lands (v.27) into the land of Israel. None will be left among the nations (v.28). It will be compulsory for all Jews to return to the land of Israel under Jesus Christ. (Isaiah 60:8,9; 66:20).

14. 39:29 - Verses 25-29 look ahead to early in the millennium when God will restore Israel to the land and when God will pour out His Holy Spirit on the house of Israel when He returns at Armageddon to rescue them from the Antichrist. (Zechariah 12:10).

Conclusion: Let us be ready for Christ’s return to catch us away. Let us watch current events as signs pointing to the nearness of the catching away of believers. Let us win many souls to Christ and teach God’s word all over the world before Christ returns. The Muslim religion is wrong in its stand against Israel, Jesus Christ and the Gospel. God will show His wrath against the Muslim nations when He destroys their armies as they invade Israel. This is a great proof of Islam being wrong, because Islam believes Ezekiel to be a true prophet of God. It is Ezekiel that prophecies Russia’s and Islam’s destruction. Muslims must leave Islam today and receive Jesus Christ as their Saviour and God. 207

53. THE MILLENNIUM or RULE OF CHRIST ON EARTH: WHAT IT WILL BE LIKE

Bible Reading: Isaiah 11:6-9; 65:19-25; 66:15-24; Micah 4:1-6. Zech. 14:1-9,12,16-21; Rev. 20:1-10.

Aim: To see what Christ's rule on earth will be like. To be encouraged by God's plans for this earth. To be motivated to serve Christ while we have time.

Introduction:

The Millennium is Christ's 1000 year rule on earth, in person, after His return. The key events are:

1. The seven year Tribulation ends with Antichrist's armies attacking Israel.
2. Christ returns to defeat Antichrist's armies.
3. Jews are converted on seeing Jesus Christ's wounds.
4. Jesus Christ enters Jerusalem to proclaim His Kingdom.
5. Satan and his demons are bound in the pit.
6. Sheep and goat nations are judged. Matthew 25:31-46.
7. Nature and world conditions are restored.
8. Peace prevails on earth. (Isaiah 2:4).
9. At the end of 1000 years, Satan is released from the pit, and deceives the nations to attack Jerusalem. They do so but are destroyed.
10. The earth is then destroyed by fire.
11. Unsaved people are resurrected, judged and cast into the lake of fire with Satan and his demons.
12. God makes a new heaven, a new earth, and a new Jerusalem.

I. We will study the Millennium as regards to:

1. JESUS CHRIST

Christ's feet shall stand on the Mount of Olives. After winning Armageddon, He will then sit on the Throne of David. Zechariah 14:1-9,12-21. "Yea, all kings shall fall down before Him." Ps 72:11. Three things will characterise His kingdom: a) Universal peace. Isaiah 2:4;
b) Universal righteousness. Jeremiah 23:5,6;
c) Speedy judgment on sin. Zech. 14:17-19; Psalm 2:8,9.

2. CHURCH will reign with Christ over the Gentile world.

"The Lord my God shall come, and all the saints with thee." Zechariah 14:5.

"Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world?" I Corinthians 6:2.

"If we suffer, we shall also reign with Him." 1 Timothy 2:12.

"Thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities." Luke 19:17.

"I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them." Revelation 20:4,6.

"To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne." Revelation 3:21.

3. ISRAEL. Notice 6 things:

a) Israel is to be regathered - initially in unbelief. Ezekiel 37:1-6; 39:22; 36:24; Isaiah 11:11. The 1948 founding of Israel is the forerunner to Israel's final regathering.

b) Israel will repent and be converted. Zechariah 12:8,9,10; 13:6,8,9; "So all Israel shall be saved." Romans 11:15,25,26.

c) The Temple and its worship will be restored. Isaiah 66:20-24; "I will set my sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore." Ezekiel 37:26,28. The Old Testament sacrifices were typical and pointed to Christ. The Millennial sacrifices will be memorial and point back to Christ.

d) Israel will be divided east/west among the 12 tribes. Ezekiel 47,48.

e) Israel will have judges. Isaiah 1:26; Matthew 19:28.

f) Israel will evangelize the Gentiles who are born in the millennium. Isaiah 61:6; 66:19; Zech. 8:21-23; "Israel shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the earth with fruit." Isaiah 27:6.

4. NATIONS will be judged for their sin. Isaiah 24:1,5,6,19-23; 26:9,21.

The sheep nations will inherit the kingdom. Nations will come weekly to worship at Jerusalem.

5. SATAN and his demons will be bound in the abyss for 1000 years. Rev. 20:1-3,7-10; Matth 8:29.

6. NATURE will be regenerated, and the social order will be set right.

a) The nature of ferocious animals will be changed. Isaiah 11:6-9; Romans 8:19-22.

b) Great topographical changes will occur. Zechariah 14:4,5,8.

- c) Rain and soil fertility will be restored. Joel 2:22-27; Isaiah 35:1; Amos 9:13-15.
- d) Crop failure will be for those refusing to worship at Jerusalem. Zechariah 14:17-19.
- e) Human life will be prolonged, as before the flood. Isaiah 65:20-24.
- f) Sickness will decrease.

7. CONDITIONS IN GENERAL

- a) Great joy and happiness. Isaiah 35:10.
- b) Physical healing will come to many. Isaiah 35:5,6.
- c) Great material prosperity and security. Micah 4:4,5; Isaiah 65:21.
- d) Earth will be full of the knowledge of the Lord. Isaiah 11:9.
- e) No more wars. Isaiah 2:4; Micah 4:3.
- f) Man's headship in creation will be restored.

II. The Error of Amillennialism was born out of Roman Catholic theology that:

- 1) Augustine taught that the Kingdom is the church which is reigning on earth now.
- 2) Augustine taught that the millennium is to be interpreted spiritually as fulfilled in the church.
- 3) Augustine taught that the binding of Satan occurred during Christ's earthly ministry (Luke 10:18)
- 4) Augustine taught that the first resurrection is the new birth of a believer. (John 5:25).
- 5) Augustine believed in a literal 1000 year millennium between Christ's first and second comings. Since Christ did not return around 1000AD, modern Amillennialists think that 1000 years is a symbolic reference to the time between Christ's first and second comings.

III. Titles of the Millennium

- 1) The world to come "unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come" Hebrews 2:5.
- 2) The Kingdom of heaven "theirs is the kingdom of heaven" Matt 5:10; "Thy kingdom come" 6:10.
- 3) The Kingdom of God (Luke 19:11 "they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear").
- 4) The Kingdom of Christ (Revelation 11:15 "the kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord and of his Christ").
- 5) The Regeneration (Matthew 19:28 "in the regeneration when the Son of Man shall sit in the throne of his glory"). "Regeneration" occurs here and in Titus 3:5 concerning the new birth. It means "re-creation." The Millennium will be to the earth what salvation is to the sinner.
- 6) Times of Refreshing (Acts 3:19,20 "When the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord; And he shall send Jesus Christ.")
- 7) Times of Restitution "Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things" Acts 3:21.
- 8) Dispensation of the Fullness of Times (Eph. 1:10 "he might gather together in one all things in Christ").

IV. Purpose of the Millennium

- 1) To Reward believers. "For the Son of Man shall come in the glory of His Father with his angels and then he shall reward every man according to his works." (Matthew 16:27).
- 2) To Fulfil the Lord's Prayer. "Thy Kingdom come." (Matthew 6:9-13; Luke 11:1-4).
- 3) To Deliver Creation from the Bondage of Corruption. (Romans 8:19-22).
- 4) To Fulfil three Old Testament Covenants:
 - a) Abrahamic Covenant promising that Israel would become a mighty nation (Genesis 12:1-3) and that Israel would own the land forever (Genesis 17:7,8).
 - b) Davidic Covenant that from David would come an everlasting throne (2 Samuel 7:12,13) an everlasting Kingdom (2 Chronicles 13:5), and an everlasting King (Luke 1:31-33).
 - c) New Covenant that God would forgive Israel's iniquity (Jeremiah 31:31-34), give Israelites new hearts and use Israel to teach the Gentiles (Isaiah 42:6,7; Hebrew 8:8-13).
- 5) To prove that despite man's environment or heredity, unregenerate man will fail as seen by his rebelling against Christ's perfect rule at the end of the 1000 years. (Revelation 20:7-10).
- 6) To Glorify believers. "If we suffer, we shall also reign with him." (2 Timothy 2:12).
 "For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us." (Romans 8:18).

V. Millennial Temple Sacrifices will be reinstated.

“The Levites...shall slay the burnt-offerings and the sacrifice for the people (v.11).

They shall eat the meat-offering, and the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering.” (Ezekiel 44:11,29).

“This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespass-offering and the sin-offering, where they shall bake the meat-offering.” (Ezekiel 46:20).

“All they that sacrifice shall come and take of them and seeth therein.” (Zechariah 14:21).

Q: Why the need for animal blood sacrifices in the Millennium? Wouldn't this mean a retrogression in God's program? Doesn't Hebrews 9 and 10 say that blood sacrifices ended with Christ's death?

“Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.” (Hebrews 10:18).

Answer: These animal blood sacrifices will be reinstated as:

- a) A reminder of the need of the new birth based on Christ's blood sacrifice on the cross for our sins.
- b) An object lesson of the costliness of salvation.
- c) An example of the awfulness of sin.
- d) An illustration of the holiness of God.

During the millennium, millions of children will be born and raised in an age that will know no sin, sorrow, suffering, war, sickness, fear, Satan, hatred, jail or drugs. In spite of their perfect environment, these children will still need the new birth. Animal blood sacrifices will illustrate an object lesson teaching them the above four truths to remind them of their need to be saved.

VI. Early Christians who believed in a literal 1000 year Millennium.

Amillennialists such as Philip Mauro attack Premillennialism by denying any historical evidence of Premillennialism before Schofield:

“if it had been possible to produce from the copious writings of the “Church Fathers” any proof that the doctrine concerning the Kingdom of God taught by the Schofield Bible and by certain Bible schools of our day was ever held by Christians, real or nominal, in times past, it would have been produced long ago.” (The Gospel of the Kingdom, Mauro, p.104).

Answer: Well Mr. Mauro, here is your Premillennial proof. It's a pity you never bothered to check.

- 1) Justin Martyr (110-165AD): “But I and others, who are right-minded Christians on all points are assured that there will be a resurrection of the dead, and a thousand years in Jerusalem, which will then be built, adorned and enlarged as Ezekiel, Isaiah and others declare.” (Vol. 1, p.239).
- 2) Papias (70-155AD): “There will be a millennium after the resurrection from the dead, when the personal reign of Christ will be established on this earth”. (Vol. 1, p.154).
- 3) Tertullian (145-220AD): “We do confess that a Kingdom is promised to us upon the earth...it will be after the resurrection for a thousand years in the divinely-built city of Jerusalem...After its thousand years are over,...there will ensue the destruction of the world...” (Vol. 3, p.342,343).
- 4) Commodianus (240AD):
“For then after a thousand years they are delivered over to Gehenna.” (Vol. 4, p.211).
“according to God's command, living again in the world for a thousand years...they who make God of no account when the thousandth year is finished shall perish by fire.” (Vol. 4, p.218).
- 5) Lactantius (260-330AD): “the dead will rise again,...when again restored to life, they may reign with God a thousand years.” (Vol.7, p.218).
“that righteous King and Conqueror will institute a great judgment on earth respecting the living and the dead,...and will build the holy city, and this Kingdom of the righteous shall be for a thousand years. But when the thousand years shall be fulfilled, and the prince of the demons loosed, the nations will rebel against the righteous.” (Vol.7, p.254).
- 6) Victorinus (died 304AD): “I do not think the reign of a thousand years is eternal,...they cease to reign when the thousand years are finished.” (Vol.7, p.359).

VII. What led to a decline in Premillennial beliefs?

- 1) When Constantine (272-337AD) united church and state, the church received wealth and worldly honours. To hope for a coming King and an earthly Kingdom would have been extremely displeasing to Constantine. This worldly patronage of the church diminished the hope of a soon coming Christ.
- 2) The Rise of the Alexandrian School. Origen openly attacked Premillennialism (Chiliasm) and introduced the allegorical method of interpretation where he interpreted millennium passages spiritually and not literally. Dionysius of Alexandria, Origen's disciple continued his teachings.
- 3) Augustine (354-430AD), bishop of Hippo taught that "The first resurrection is the rising of dead souls into spiritual life beginning with Christ's ministry, from which the millennium dates; the devil is bound and expelled from the hearts of Christ's disciples; the reign of the saints is their personal victory over sin and the devil; the beast is this wicked world and his image is hypocrisy; the millennium will end in 650AD, ending history's 6000 years, and introducing the rise of Antichrist." This nonsense was rejected by people such as the Waldensians, the Paulicians, William Tyndale (1480-1536), Nicholas Ridley, Hugh Latimer (1555 died), the Huguenots in France, Anabaptists, Moravians, John Wesley and many others who adopted a literal interpretation of prophetic scriptures.

VIII. Doctrinal Errors of Amillennialism:

- 1) Amillennial spiritualising of scripture tacitly denies the verbal, plenary, inspiration of scripture.
- 2) Amillennials ignore the exact meaning of words such as "a thousand years".
If God inspired the words of scripture, then we must accept their common meaning.
- 3) Amillennials ignore the near and remote context of scriptures which demand a premillennial interpretation. Every scripture must be interpreted in conformity with all other parts of scripture.
- 4) Amillennialists have not yet produced an outlined system of Amillennialism that they all agree on.
- 5) Amillennials accept a literal interpretation for most of the Bible, but in eschatology they resort to spiritualization. They hence use 2 different and contradictory principles of interpretation.
- 6) Amillennials allegorical or spiritualising methods of interpretation did not spring from piety, but from Origen (185-254AD), who borrowed it from the heathen theories of Plato.
- 7) It is sometimes correct to say that Israel typifies the church as premillennials rightly do, but it is wrong for amillennials to teach that Israel is the church. Figurative language does not negate literal interpretation.
- 8) Fulfilled prophecy forms the pattern in interpreting unfulfilled prophecy. Since fulfilled prophecy has come true literally, so will unfulfilled prophecy come true literally.
- 9) Amillennials using allegorical interpretation of prophecy disagree with and discredit each other.
- 10) Amillennial, allegorical interpretation favours modernism. It is almost impossible to find a Premillennial Modernist, but most modernist protestantism is amillennial. Hence, amillennial allegorism is a step towards modernism.
- 11) Amillennial allegorism leaves large portions of Scripture unexplained. It cannot explain many scriptures, such as Zechariah 14, Ezekiel 37-39. All prophetic scriptures are easily explained by the premillennial literal interpretation approach.
- 12) Amillennialism fails to understand Daniel's 70 Week Prophecy (Daniel 9:24-27). If these 490 years were fulfilled literally, so will the future 1000 year millennium be fulfilled literally.

IX. Bible Verses Teaching the 1000 year Rule of Christ on Earth.

- "He laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil & Satan, & bound him 1000 years (2) "that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled." Rev 20:3.
- "they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years." Rev 20:4.
- The rest of the dead lived not again until the 1000 years were finished. This is the first resurrection. 20:5
- "They shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years." Rev 20:6.
- "When the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison." Rev 20:7.
- "After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight." Hosea 6:2. See 2 Peter 3:8.

54. JESUS CHRIST WILL PERSONALLY APPEAR ON EARTH

Many groups deny that Jesus Christ will literally appear on earth in person to rule for 1000 years. These groups include Jehovah's Witnesses, Seventh Day Adventists, and some Amillennials. The devil does not like the idea of Christ returning to rule on earth in person because it means that Satan will lose control of the earth and be imprisoned in the pit for 1000 years.

What Bible passages clearly state that Jesus Christ will literally return to land on earth in person to rule?

1. JESUS CHRIST'S BODY WILL BE ON EARTH.

If parts of Christ's body are on earth, then Christ must literally be on earth, as seen in these passages:

1. His feet will be on earth.
"His feet shall stand in that day upon the Mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east." Zechariah 14:4.
2. His hands will be on earth.
"One shall say unto Him, what are these wounds in thine hands? Then He shall answer, those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends." Zechariah 13:6.
3. His garments will be on earth.
"Who is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? This that is glorious in His apparel, travelling in the greatness of His strength?....I have trodden the winepress alone;..... their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments." Isaiah 63:1-3.
The blood of antichrist's soldiers will be sprinkled on Christ's garments when He returns to rescue Israel.
4. He shall sit and rule on His throne.
"He (the BRANCH) shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon His throne." Zech. 6:13.
5. His voice shall be heard at Jerusalem.
"The Lord shall utter His voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the Lord will be the strength of the children of Israel." Joel 3:16.
"He shall speak peace unto the heathen: and His dominion shall be from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth." Zechariah 9:10.
6. Jerusalem shall be called "The Lord is there".
"The name of the city from that day shall be The Lord is there." Ezekiel 48:35.
7. He will tread or walk on the earth.
"For, behold, the Lord cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread upon the high places of the earth." Micah 1:3.
8. He will stand at the latter day upon the earth.
"For I know that my redeemer (Christ) liveth, and that He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth." Job 19:25.

2. JESUS CHRIST WILL BE SEEN IN PERSON ON EARTH.

If people will see Christ after His return with their physical eyes then He has to be physically present on earth. Titus 2:13 states clearly "the glorious appearing of the great God."

1. "They (the house of David and inhabitants of Jerusalem) shall look upon me whom they have pierced....." Zechariah 12:10.
2. "Behold he cometh with clouds, and every eye shall see him....." Revelation 1:7.
3. "They (all the tribes of earth) shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory." Matthew 24:27-31, v.30.
4. "When the Lord shall build up Zion (Israel), he shall appear in his glory." Psalm 102:16.
5. "The Lord shall be seen over them. The Lord of hosts shall defend them (Israel)." Zechariah 9:14-15.

3. JESUS CHRIST IS TO BE PERSONALLY IN THE MIDST OF ISRAEL.

If Christ dwells at Jerusalem, is in Jerusalem, and is in the midst of Israel, then He is personally present on earth after His second coming.

1. "The Lord shall reign over them IN Mount Zion from henceforth, even for ever." Micah 4:7
2. "I will cleanse their (Israel's) blood.....for the Lord dwelleth IN Zion." Joel 3:21.
3. "Ye shall know that I am IN the midst of Israel." Joel 2:27.
4. "So shall ye know that I am the Lord your God dwelling IN Zion, my holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem be holy....." Joel 3:17.
5. "The Lord of hosts shall reign IN Mount Zion, and IN Jerusalem, and before his ancients gloriously." Isaiah 24:23.
6. "The King of Israel, even the Lord, is IN the midst of thee: thou shalt not see evil anymore. The Lord thy God IN the midst of thee is mighty." Zephaniah 3:15,17.
7. "Many nations shall be joined to the Lord in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell IN the midst of thee....." Zechariah 2:11.
8. "Thus saith the Lord; I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell IN the midst of Jerusalem:..." Zechariah 8:3.
9. "Yea, many people and strong nations shall come to seek the Lord of hosts IN Jerusalem." Zechariah 8:22.
10. "Yet have I set my King upon my holy hill of Zion." Psalm 2:6.

4. JESUS CHRIST DOES CERTAIN ACTIONS WHICH COULD ONLY BE DONE IF HE WAS PHYSICALLY PRESENT ON EARTH.

1. All the saints shall come with Christ back to earth.
"The Lord my God shall come, and all the saints with thee." Zechariah 14:5.
2. Christ shall fight against antichrist's armies.
"Then shall the Lord go forth and fight against these nations, as when he fought in the day of battle." Zechariah 14:3.
3. All nations will worship Christ at Jerusalem.
"Every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem, shall go up from year to year to worship the King, the Lord of hosts, and to keep the feast of Tabernacles." Zechariah 14:16.
"Yea, all kings shall fall down before him: all nations shall serve him." Psalm 72:11.
4. Christ will judge the peoples of earth.
"The Lord cometh to judge the earth: with righteousness shall he judge the world, and the people with equity." Psalm 98:9.
"When the Son of man shall come in His glory, and all the holy angels with Him, then shall He sit upon the throne of His glory:
And before Him shall be gathered all nations:and he shall separate them one from another"
Matthew 25:31-32.
"He shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people...." Isaiah 2:4.
5. Christ will teach the nations His ways.
"Many people shall say, come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways." Isaiah 2:3.

Conclusion: "Your God will come with vengeance." Isaiah 35:4.

"This same Jesus which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven." Acts 1:9-11.

55. Daniel's "70 Week" Prophecy.

Bible Reading: Daniel 9:24-27.

Aim: To understand the Seventy Week Prophecy as a proof of Divine inspiration of the Bible, and as the key to unlocking all Bible prophecies of Christ's Second Coming.

Introduction:

God's program would be finished in seventy heptads, or seventy sevens of years. The KJV calls heptads "weeks". History interprets this as 70 x 7 prophetic years = 490 years.

"Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people (Israel) and upon thy holy city (Jerusalem)". (v.24).

Today, people think in terms of tens (e.g. decades). Daniel's people thought in terms of sevens (heptads).

For example:

a) Seven days in one week.

b) Every seventh year was a sabbath rest year (Leviticus 25:1-7).

c) Seven 'sevens' = 7 x 7 = 49 years brought Israel to the year of Jubilee (Leviticus 25:8-12).

d) 70 x 7 years is a span of 490 years.

After the 490 years have finished for Israel and Jerusalem, God will have completed six things.

(1) WHAT DO EACH OF THESE SIX THINGS MEAN?

1. To finish the transgression, of Israel after 490 years. Israel's sin of disobedience will be brought to an end at Christ's second coming, when she repents and receives Christ as her Saviour and Messiah.

Christ's work on the cross has made possible His future 'finishing' of Israel's transgression.

2. God will make an end of sins.

Christ would be punished for Israel's and the world's sins on the cross. At Christ's second coming He will remove Israel's sins (Ezekiel 37:23; Romans 11:20).

3. God will make reconciliation for iniquity.

Reconciliation = atone = to cover, to expiate. God's final atonement for Israel's sin (iniquity) is when she repents at Christ's second coming, as atonement provision has been made at the cross.

4. God, being satisfied with Christ's death, will bring in everlasting righteousness.

God will establish a 1000 year kingdom characterised by righteousness (Isaiah 60:21; Jeremiah 23:5-6).

5. God will seal up the vision and prophecy.

All God's promises for Israel will come to pass in the millennial kingdom. Until they are fulfilled, prophecies are unsealed. When fulfilled, they are sealed (Hebrew (2856) - closed up, make an end).

6. God will anoint the most Holy.

This refers to the consecration of the millennial Temple that Christ builds (Ezekiel 43:1-5, Zechariah 6:12,13), not by literal oil, but by the presence of the Shekinah glory cloud. The Tabernacle, altar, and all the holy vessels were anointed with oil (Exodus 29:36; 30:26-28).

The anointing of the most holy is not a reference to Christ's anointing. Rather the 'most holy' in the Hebrew are technical words that are always translated in the Old Testament by the phrase 'the Holy of Holies.'

(2) IMPORTANCE OF THE SEVENTY WEEK PROPHECY

The Daniel 9:24-27 prophecy is important because:

1. It proves the truth of the Bible. Because the first 69 weeks finished exactly as predicted to the very day (173,880 days after 10pm March 4, 444 BC to 3pm Sunday March 29, 33 AD), this is an unanswerable argument for the Divine inspiration of the Bible. Only the all-knowing God could predict the very day that Messiah would ride into Jerusalem to present Himself as the Prince of Israel.

2. It shatters the critics' arguments who reject the early date of the book of Daniel of 540 BC and place it about 150 BC, seeking to deny the clear predictions of Daniel 11 that were fulfilled from 330 BC to 167 BC. The critics are troubled by these predictive prophecies in Daniel 11 because this proves the Divine authorship of the Bible.

Question: If Daniel was written in 150 BC as the critics claim, how did it correctly prophecy the date of Christ's entry to Jerusalem as 29 March, 33 AD?

3. It disproves the allegorical Amillennial theory of interpreting prophecy, and proves the Premillennial position of Christ returning to earth for literal Israel at the end of a literal seven year tribulation, described in Revelation 6-19. If the first 69 weeks are literally 173,880 days, so the future 7 year tribulation (1 week) will be literally 2520 days (360 x 7).

4. It is the time key to understand all New Testament prophecy. Revelation 11:2-3; 12:6,14; and 13:5 describe a future 3 1/2 year period (1260 days, or 42 weeks) being the last half of the seven year tribulation, which equates to the last half of the 70th week (Daniel 9:27).

(3) BACKGROUND

While Daniel was captive in Babylon from 605-537 BC, as he was praying for Israel and confessing their sin, the angel Gabriel came to give him the 70 week prophecy. Daniel knew that the 70 year captivity predicted by Jeremiah in Jeremiah 25:11,12 was nearing completion, so he asked about Israel's imminent return to their land. Gabriel's message was that Israel's ultimate return to the land would not be after the 70 year Babylonian captivity, but after the 70 week period stated in Daniel 9:24-27.

(4) MAIN FEATURES OF THE 70 WEEK PROPHECY

1. It deals with Daniel's people (Israel) and city (Jerusalem). 'Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people, and upon thy holy city...' Daniel 9:24.
2. Two different princes are mentioned:
 - a) Messiah the Prince, and
 - b) The prince that shall come (v.26).
3. The time period is 70 weeks, made up of 7 weeks + 62 weeks + 1 week (v.25,27).
4. It starts with 'the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem.' (v.25).
5. The end of the 69 weeks will be marked by the appearance of Messiah as the Prince of Israel. (v.25).
6. After the 69 weeks, two predictions are that:
 - a) Messiah the Prince will be 'cut off', and
 - b) Jerusalem will be destroyed by the people of another prince coming in the future. (v.26).
7. The 70th week begins with a covenant being made between the 'prince that shall come' and the Jewish nation for a period of 1 week (v.27).
8. In the midst of this 70th week, the coming prince will (1) break this treaty, (2) cause the Jewish sacrifices to cease, and (3) will greatly persecute the Jews to the end of the 70th week (v.27).
9. Great blessings for Israel will come when the 70 weeks are fully completed (v.24).

(5) MEANING OF THE SEVENTY WEEKS.

'Week' in Hebrew means 'a period of seven' or 'heptad'. It is used 20 times in the Old Testament as follows:

1. 3 times it means 'a unit of seven' days (Ezekiel 45:21, Daniel 10:2,3).
2. 6 times it means 'normal 7-day week' (Genesis 29:27,28; Leviticus 12:5; Deuteronomy 16:9; Jeremiah 5:24).
3. 5 times it means the 'Feast of Weeks' (Exodus 34:22; Numbers 28:26; Deut. 16:10,16; II Chronicles 8:13).
4. 6 times it means a 'unit of seven' without reference to days (Daniel 9:24-27). In Daniel 9:24-27, '1 week' refers to a 'unit of 7 years'. Hence Daniel is discussing 70 'units of seven years' or 490 years.

We know this because:

1. In the context, Daniel had been thinking in years, and in multiples of 70 years. 'The number of years....seventy years in the desolation of Jerusalem.' Daniel 9:1,2.
2. Each year of Babylonian captivity represented one 7-year cycle of past history where Israel had not observed the seventh year rest. Thus the context is years, not days. The 70 year captivity was due to Israel violating 70 sabbatical years over a 490 year period in the past. Now Daniel predicted 70 units of seven years decreed for another 490 years into Israel's future.
3. It is impossible to fit the events discussed in 9:24-27 into 490 days, or 490 weeks (regardless of any starting point), only 490 years. Jerusalem could not be rebuilt & destroyed in 490 days (1 yr 3 months) or 490 weeks (9yr).
4. In 9:27, the covenant that will be confirmed for one 'unit of seven' will be broken in the middle. If 'weeks' means 'units of 7 years', this means that the covenant would be broken at the 3 1/2 year point. This fits perfectly well with the 'time, times and half a time' in Daniel 7:25; 12:7; Rev. 12:14, the 1260 days (Rev. 12:6; 11:3) and the 42 months (Rev. 11:2).
5. The Hebrew word for 'weeks' means years in the Mishnah (Baba Metzia ix. 10; Sanhedrin v1).

Note: According to the false 'Day-Year' theory used by SDAs and JW's, they would have us believe that the first 69 1/2 weeks equal 486 1/2 years (490 - 3 1/2 years). But the last 1/2 week they claim equals 1260 years. This is contradictory and inconsistent. The last 1/2 week must also be literally 1260 days (Rev. 12:6), if the first 69 weeks were 173,880 days, as proven by history.

Question: If these 70 'weeks' consist of 490 years, what is the length of the year?

Answer: Our year is 365.24219879 days. The prophetic year of scripture is 360 days (12 months of 30 days each), as seen from:

- i) History: The Flood lasted from the 17th day of the 2nd month (Genesis 7:11) to the 17th day of the 7th month (Genesis 8:4). This is 5 months. Genesis 7:24 and 8:3 gives this same period as being 150 days. This gives 30 days in each month, or 360 days in each year.

ii) Prophecy:

Daniel 9:27 describes the Roman prince persecuting the Jews for 3 1/2 years.

Daniel 7:25 describes this Roman prince persecuting the Jews for 'a time, and times, and half a time' (3.5 years).

Revelation 13:4-7 describes this same ruler persecuting the Jews for 42 months (i.e. 3 1/2 years).

Revelation 12:13,14 describes this persecution as lasting 'a time, and times, and half a time' (i.e. 3 1/2 years).

Revelation 12:6 describes this persecution of the Jews as lasting 1260 days (i.e. 3 1/2 years).

Hence we have 3 1/2 years stated as being 1260 days or 42 months.

Hence the length of the prophetic year in the 70 week prophecy is 360 days (1260 days/ 3.5 years = 360 days/yr).

(6) WHEN DID THE 70 WEEKS BEGIN?

"Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince, shall be seven weeks, and sixty-two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times." 9:25.

Daniel shows the starting point of the 70 week prophecy to be the issuing of the command to restore and build Jerusalem, where the street and the wall will be built in troublous times.

Notice 3 things about Jerusalem's rebuilding:

1) "Restore and build" means to restore Jerusalem completely to its former state.

2) "Street and wall" mean a complete restoration.

3) Rebuilding the city would be in troublesome times. Can we locate this commandment and fix its date accurately?

(7) WHICH COMMAND IS REFERRED TO?

The 70 "sevens" would begin with the going forth of the commandment to restore and build Jerusalem. This decree was the fourth of four decrees issued by Persian rulers to the Jews. The decree we want concerns rebuilding the city of Jerusalem, not the house of God or the Temple.

1. Cyrus' decree on October 29, 539 BC was to rebuild the temple, not the city.

'In the first year of Cyrus king of Persia... he made a proclamation... saying... "All the kingdoms of the earth hath the Lord God of heaven given me; and he hath charged me to build him an house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Who is there among you of all his people? The Lord his God be with him, and let him go up.'" II Chron. 36:22,23; Ezra 1:1-4, 5:13,17.

This decree concerned the return of Jewish captives, and rebuilding the temple. It said nothing about a complete restoration of the city.

Keil (p.365), Leupold (p.417-26) and E.J. Young falsely conclude that this decree marks the start of the 70 weeks.

E.J. Young in 'The Prophecy of Daniel: A Commentary', p202, states:

"This edict [of Cyrus], furthermore, was issued in fulfilment of the prophecy of Jeremiah, and it speaks expressly of going to Jerusalem and building there the temple- the first and most important step in rebuilding the city. In this connection also one should consider the prophecies of Isaiah 44:28 in which Cyrus is described as 'saying to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be built; and to the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid'. Likewise Isaiah 45:13 declares of Cyrus, 'he shall build my city, and he shall let go my captives.' Lastly, it should be noted that the book of Ezra pictures Jerusalem as an existing city (c.f. Ezra 4:12, 9:9)".

It cannot be denied that this was the year in which the effects of the going forth of a word began to appear in history.

Answer: This may seem convincing, but there are 3 problems with this view:

a) Cyrus' decree in Ezra 1:1-4 refers to the rebuilding of the temple and not to the city. We agree that there were inhabitants, and a city was built in Cyrus' time as predicted in Isaiah 44:28 and 45:13. It was not a city that could defend itself as described in Daniel 9:25. Young quotes two passages to support his view:

Ezra 4:12,13,16 is a letter to the king from Ezra's enemies. They emphasised rebuilding the city, but Ezra was rebuilding the temple in reality.

Ezra 9:9 'to set up the house of our God, and to repair the desolations thereof, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.'

This was written in 457 BC, and refers to Artaxerxes reign (464-423 BC), and not to Cyrus' reign.

Also, the Hebrew word for 'wall' is a fence used to surround a vineyard, and not a military defensive wall.

The only other mention of walls in Ezra are the temple walls (Ezra 5:3,8,9), not city walls.

Hence, neither of the passages is in the context of Cyrus' decree, nor do they refer to building a defensive wall.

b) We must differentiate between starting to rebuild a city (Cyrus' decree) and restoring a city to its former state (Artaxerxes' decree in Nehemiah). For example, Japan rebuilt itself after WWII, but that is quite different from restoring it to its pre-WWII military state.

c) If we wrongly accept the 70 weeks as beginning with Cyrus' decree (539 BC), then Messiah the Prince should have arrived in 63 BC (i.e. after 69 weeks = 69 x 7 x {360/365.25} of our years, which is 476 years later.

539 BC plus 476 yrs gives 63 BC.

2. Darius I decree in 512 BC

This decree confirmed Cyrus' decree to rebuild the house of God. Tatnai, Governor of Judah, questioned the Jews' right to rebuild the temple (Ezra 5:3-17). Darius searched out Cyrus' decree, and then issued a decree himself in 512 BC confirming Cyrus' original decree (Ezra 6:1-12).

"Then Darius the king made a decree... "Let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God." (Ezra 6:1,7).

"This house was finished in the sixth year of Darius." (6:15).

Hence Darius' decree is not the starting date of the 70 weeks because:

- a) It specifically refers to the temple, and not to the city.
- b) It was not a new decree, but only confirmed Cyrus' decree.

3. Artaxerxes Longimanus' decree to Ezra in 457 BC

This decree concerns finances for animal sacrifices at the temple.

"I (Artaxerxes King of Persia) make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel... which are minded of their own free will to go up to Jerusalem, go with thee... carry the silver and gold... let it be diligently done for the house of the God of heaven, to beautify the house of the Lord at Jerusalem." Ezra 7:11, 13, 15, 23 and 27.

Each of these first 3 decrees concerns building the Temple/ House of God at Jerusalem, not the city. Since an unwallled city was no threat to a military power, a temple could be built with no threat to the Persian government. This decree encouraged more Jews to return to Jerusalem, and it helped the temple worship. Some claim that this decree (457 BC) was the starting point of the 70 week prophecy, and that the end of the 69 weeks was 27 AD (marking the start of Christ's ministry). They claim the middle of the 70th week to be Christ's crucifixion in 30 AD. They claim 33 AD to be the end of the 70th week marked by Stephen's death, and Paul's conversion. (Their calculation is 457 BC + 490 of our years = 33 AD). This is wrong because they have ignored the 360 day prophetic year, and failed to deduct 1 year in going from 1 BC to 1 AD.

This theory is wrong because:

- i) This decree says nothing about rebuilding the city, but only discusses temple worship.
- ii) To have the 69 weeks end at the start of Christ's ministry in 27 AD is wrong, because:
 - The cutting off of the Messiah (Daniel 9:26) cannot describe the descent of the Holy Spirit on Christ at the start of His ministry, and
 - Christ began His ministry in 29 AD, not 27 AD (see H.W. Hoehner, p.29-44).
- iii) What does 'confirming the covenant' mean in Daniel 9:27? If it refers to Christ, what covenant did Christ confirm at the start of His ministry, and how did Christ break the covenant at His crucifixion? It does not fit the facts.
- iv) To say that the middle of the 70th week refers to Christ's crucifixion in 30 AD is wrong because:
 - The sacrifices did not cease at Christ's crucifixion, and
 - 33 AD is the correct date of Christ's crucifixion, not 30 AD.
- v) To say that the 70 weeks ended in 33 AD with Stephen's death and Paul's conversion is pure guesswork. Daniel 9:27 and Acts 8,9 never even imply this.

Hence Artaxerxes' decree to Ezra in 457 BC cannot be the start of the 70 week prophecy.

4. Artaxerxes Longimanus' decree to Nehemiah at 10pm March 4, 444 BC, in Nehemiah 2:1-8.

At this date, Artaxerxes granted the Jews permission to rebuild Jerusalem's city walls.

King: "For what dost thou make request?" Nehemiah 2:4.

Nehemiah: "That thou would send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build it." (Nehemiah 2:5).

"A letter unto Asaph... for the wall of the city... And the king granted me, according to the good hand of my God upon me." (Nehemiah 2:8).

This decree is the one prophesied by Daniel (9:25) that starts the 70 week prophecy, for these reasons:

- i) This clearly refers to the restoration of the city (2:3,5) and of the city gates and walls (2:3,8).
- ii) King Artaxerxes wrote a letter to Asaph to supply materials to rebuild the walls (2:3,8).
- iii) No later decrees were given by Persian kings to rebuild Jerusalem.
- iv) The book of Nehemiah and Ezra 4:7-23 teach that the walls were restored in distressing circumstances, as predicted by Daniel (Daniel 9:25).
- v) The walls were broken down (Nehemiah 2:13), and the gates were burned (Nehemiah 2:17) when Nehemiah visited Jerusalem. No earlier decree had restored the city walls and gates.

(8) WHAT DATE WAS THE DECREE?

Nehemiah 1:1 states that Nehemiah heard of Jerusalem's broken walls and burned gates (1:3) in the month of Chisleu (November/December) in Artaxerxes' twentieth year.

Then later in Artaxerxes' 20th year in the month Nisan (March/April), Nehemiah was granted permission to restore the city and to build its walls (2:1) (Why was March after November in the same year?)

Because Nehemiah used a year starting at Tishri, which started at September.

Question: What year did Artaxerxes' rule begin?

Answer: Artaxerxes came to the throne when his father died on December 17, 465 BC ('The Fifth Century Jewish Calendar at Elephantine', S.H. Horn and L.H. Weed, Journal of Near Eastern studies, XIII (Jan. 1954), p 4, 20, 9).

Artaxerxes' first year of reign would be Nisan 464 to Nisan 463, since the Persian year started at Nisan (March).

Therefore, Artaxerxes' 20th year would be 445 BC. The report to Nehemiah (1:1) occurred in Chisleu (Nov./Dec.) 445 BC. The decree of Artaxerxes (2:1) occurred in Nisan (March/April) 444 BC. See the following chart.

Nehemiah 2:1 does not specify which day of Nisan the decree was given.

The crescent of the new moon would have appeared at about 10pm on Nisan 1, 444 BC (March 4), late enough to be missed. On March 5, 444 BC the new moon crescent would have been visible early to all. Since no day is given in Nisan in the Bible, Jewish custom would understand the day to be the first day of a visible new moon crescent, March 5, 444 BC, which was the date of the decree. To be exact, the starting time of the decree was 10pm 4 March 444BC.

(9) WHEN DID THE 69 WEEKS END?

The 7 weeks and the 62 weeks are continuous, making a total of 69 weeks between Artaxerxes' decree to restore Jerusalem, and the coming of Messiah the Prince. (See 'Chronological Aspects of the Life of Christ' by H.W. Hoehner, p129-131).

"After 62 weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself..." Daniel 9:26.

In Christ's first coming, He would not receive His kingdom promised in the Old Testament.

Therefore the 69 weeks (7+62) would end with Christ's entry to Jerusalem on 3pm Sunday March 29, 33 AD, then Christ would be killed on Friday 3 April 33AD.

Christ died on Friday, Nisan 14 in 33 AD (Friday April 3, 33 AD in a Julian Calendar), according to H.W. Hoehner, in his excellent book 'Chronological Aspects of the Life of Christ'.

A prophetic year is 360 days in length, because:

- i) Ancient countries of India, Persia, Babylon, Assyria, Egypt, Mava, Israel, Arabia and China, all had 12 months of 30 days each, thus giving a 360 day year.
- ii) The 70th week of 7 years (Daniel 9:27) will be broken in the middle, making 1260 days, or 42 months, or 3 1/2 years (Revelation 11:2,3; 12:6; 13:5). This gives a 30 day month, or a 360 day year.
- iii) The 5 months of Flood waters (Genesis 7:11 and 8:4) are equated to 150 days (Genesis 7:24 and 8:3). This gives a 30 day month or 360 day year.

Having found that 1) The "weeks" are groups of 7 years,

2) The length of the prophetic year is 360 days, and

3) The 70 weeks began on 10pm March 4, 444 BC, we may calculate the date of Christ's triumphal entry.

4) Number of days in 69 weeks = 69 x 7yrs x 360 days = 173,880 days.

5) Number of years from 10pm March 4, 444 BC to March 29, 33 AD = 444 + 33 - 1 = 476 years.

(Note: subtract 1 year, because only 1 year expired from 1 BC to 1 AD).

Number of days from March 4 (Artaxerxes' decree) to March 29 (Christ entering Jerusalem on donkey) = 25 days.

Question: How many days from March 4, 444 BC (Artaxerxes' decree) to March 29, 33 AD (the day Christ entered Jerusalem on a donkey to proclaim Himself king)?

Answer: Number of days in 476 years = 476 years x 365.24219879 days/yr = 173,855.28662404 days = 173,855 days, 6 hours, 52 minutes, 44 seconds.

Number of days from March 4 to March 29 = 25 days.

Therefore, the total number of days = 173,855 + 25 = 173,880 days.

This proves that the 173,880 days predicted in the 69 weeks between Artaxerxes' decree and the Coming of Messiah the Prince, equals the same number of days that actually elapsed from March 4, 444 BC to March 29, 33 AD, the day of Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem, known as Palm Sunday.

The 483 Years in the Jewish and Gregorian Calendars.

Jewish Calendar (360 days per year)

$(7 \times 7) + (62 \times 7)$ years = 483 years

$$\begin{array}{r} 483 \text{ years} \\ \times 360 \text{ days} \\ \hline 173,880 \text{ days} \end{array}$$

Gregorian Calendar (365 days a year)

444 B.C. to A.D. 33 = 476 years*

$$\begin{array}{r} 476 \text{ years} \\ \times 365 \text{ days} \\ \hline 173,740 \text{ days} \\ + 116 \text{ days in leap years}^{} \\ + 24 \text{ days (March 4- 29)} \\ \hline 173,880 \text{ days} \end{array}$$

* Since only one year expired between 1 B.C. and A.D. 1, the total is 476 years, not 477 years.

 A total of 476 years divided by four (a leap year every four years) gives 119 additional days. But three days must be subtracted from 119 because centennial years are not leap years, though every 400th year is a leap year.

(10) NEW TESTAMENT VERIFICATION OF THIS DAY

March 29, 33 AD is therefore definitely fixed as the end of the 69 weeks, and the date of Christ's triumphal entry to Jerusalem on a 'foal of an ass' to offer Himself as Messiah the Prince and King of Israel.

Christ knew that this was the day predicted in Daniel 9:25, from His words in Luke 19:28-44, especially verse 42 "this thy day" and verse 44 "because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation."

"And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and wept over it, saying, "If thou had known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! But now they are hid from thine eyes... they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation." Luke 19:41,42,44.

Notice these details taking place on Sunday, March 29, 33 AD:

1. Jesus, knowing that this was the last day of the 69th week, sends his disciples to find a "colt the foal of an ass" upon which He would ride as King into Jerusalem. This fulfilled the prophecy in Zechariah 9:9 given in 487BC: "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold thy King cometh unto thee: he is just and having salvation; lowly and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass."
2. The whole multitude of the disciples, understanding the meaning, shouted "Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the LORD." (Psalm 118:22-26).
3. Jesus now commends the disciples' shouts, and rebukes the Pharisees' protest, saying: "If these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out." v.40.
4. Because Jesus foreknew that the Pharisees and Jerusalem would reject Him as King and Messiah, Jesus wept over the city, saying: "If thou had known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace!" Luke 19:42.

Question: What day was Jesus referring to?

Answer: Israel's day on which their Messiah the Prince would present himself as King to Israel, exactly 173,880 days after 10pm March 4, 444 BC.

Question: What were "the things which belong unto thy peace"?

Answer: The same 6 things mentioned in Daniel 9:24. But now for a time these things are to be hid from Israel's eyes, their enemies the Romans will conquer them, destroying their city Jerusalem and Temple. This happened in 70 AD. Why? 'Because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.' Luke 19:44.

The exact fulfilment of this prophecy proves the accuracy of Daniel, the inspiration of the Bible, and the truth of Jesus Christ as Saviour & Messiah. Only God can predict to the very day 'things that are not yet done.' Isa 46:10. So the 173,880 days finished the very day that Christ entered Jerusalem on a colt to offer Himself as Messiah the Prince to Israel, which was Sunday, Nisan 9 (March 29), 33 AD. Only 5 days later on Friday, Nisan 14 (April 3), 33 AD, Jesus was cut off, or crucified.

March 4, What day and year was 173,880 days after March 4, 444 B.C.?

444 BC

BC 444 443	442	441	440	430	425	19 years
425		415		405	400	25 years
400		390		380	375	25 years
375		365		355	350	25 years
350		340		330	325	25 years
325		315		305	300	25 years
300		290		280	275	25 years
275		265		255	250	25 years
250		240		230	225	25 years
225		215		205	200	25 years
200		190		180	175	25 years
175		165		155	150	25 years
150		140		130	125	25 years
125		115		105	100	25 years
100		90		80	75	25 years
75		65		55	50	25 years
50		40		30	25	25 years
25		15		5	4 3 2 1 1 AD	25 years
1 A.D		11 A.D		21 A.D	26 AD	25 years
26	27	28	29	30	31	32	33	7 years
469	470	471	472	473	474	475	476	476 years

Messiah came March 29, 33AD

- Artaxerxes' command to restore and build Jerusalem March 4, 444 B.C.
- Coming of Messiah the Prince after 69 weeks = $69 \times 7 \times 360$ days = 173,880 days
- Number of Gregorian ("our") years = 173,880 days or 476.06766 our years
365.2422 days/yr
- 476 years after March 4, 444 B.C. = 33 A.D according to chart above
- Number of days from March 4 to Messiah the Prince's coming = 0.06766 of a year x 365.2422 days/year = 24.7 days.
- Therefore Messiah came on 10pm 4 March + 24.7 days = 3pm Sunday 29 March, 33AD

(11) WHY THE GAP BETWEEN THE 69TH AND 70TH WEEK?

March 4, 444 BC

Nisan 1 of Artaxerxes' 20th Year
Nehemiah 2:1-8

March 29, 33 AD

Triumphal Entry on Nisan 9, 33 AD
Luke 19:28-40

Verification

444 BC to 33 AD = 476 years

476 years x 365.24219879 days = 173,855 days
+ days between March 4 & 29 = 25 days
173,880 days

Rationale for 360-Day Years:

1/2 week Daniel 9:27
Time, times and 1/2 time Dan. 7:25, 12:7.
Rev. 12:14.
1,260 days Rev. 12:6, 11:3.
42 months Rev. 11:2, 13:5.
Thus 42 months = 1,260 days = time, times and 1/2 a time
= 1/2 week = 3.5 years.
Therefore, 1 month = 30 days, 1 Year = 360 days.

* Messiah cut off after 69 weeks April 3, 33 AD

a) Some people hold to the Continuous view, that the 69th week continues immediately onto the 70th week without any gap or break. Obviously, if this view is correct, the 70th week is past, having ended early in the book of Acts. They believe that Christ appeared as Messiah the Prince at John's Baptism, and that Christ died in the middle of the 70th week, after 3 1/2 years of ministry.

JW's, SDAs, Christadelphians etc. change the 1260 days of the second half of the 70th week into 1260 years.

This view is clearly false because the first 69 weeks amounted to 483 years, yet how can 1 week be 1260 years?

b) The Gap view includes a great parenthesis of time after the 69th week. This gap is the church age.

Then later, after the rapture of the church, the 70th week commences. Hence the 70th week of 7 years is still future.

Amillennialists ask 'What right do we have to break the 70th week off the 69th week?'

Amillennialists teach that:

a) Christ's First Coming ministry was in the 70th week,

b) There was no interval between the 69th and 70th week,

c) The 6 actions predicted in Daniel 9:24 are being fulfilled today in the church.

This amillennial view is false because it ignores the facts that:

a) v.26 says that Christ is cut off after the '7 and 62 sevens', not in the 70th 'seven'.

b) Christ's earthly ministry was 3 1/2 years in length, not 7 years.

c) God's 6 actions in Daniel 9:24 pertain to Daniel's people (Israel) and His 'Holy City' (Jerusalem), not the church.

Consider these reasons for a GAP between the 69th and 70th week:

1. To view the 6 actions in Daniel 9:24 as being fulfilled at Christ's first coming is impossible. Was everlasting righteousness brought in then? Not at all.

These only refer to Israel, as the context states, and none of these have happened to Israel as yet.

Paul sees Israel's conversion as in the future, as seen by these statements in Romans 11:25-27.

a) Blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles be come in. Romans 11:25,

b) The Deliverer shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob v26, c) This is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins. v27.

The 'most holy' to be anointed is always the 'Holy of Holies' in Hebrew, never does it refer to Christ.

2. The Messiah was 'cut off' or crucified AFTER the 69th week, and not during the 70th week as the passage would have stated had it been the case. See v.27 where the sacrifices are to be stopped 'in the midst of the week'.

3. An unseen time gap is common in Old Testament prophecy, such as:

a) Isaiah 9:6 'Unto us a child is born... and the government shall be upon his shoulder..'

Between these 2 events are at least 2000 years of time.

b) Zechariah 9:9,10 'Thy King cometh upon a colt, he shall speak peace unto the heathen, his dominion shall be from sea to sea.'

Between these 2 predictions are at least 2000 years of time.

c) Isaiah 61:1,2 is an example approved by Christ: 'To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord (first coming) and the day of vengeance of our God (Second coming).'

Jesus in Luke 4:16-21 read this in a Nazareth synagogue, stopping at the comma after "acceptable year of the Lord", stating that "This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears". Why did Jesus stop in the middle of a sentence? Because the next part, "the day of vengeance of our God" has not yet been fulfilled after 1970 years.

Therefore Jesus laid down the principle of the "Gap interpretation".

4. Time gaps are quite acceptable to the Oriental mind, which are little concerned with a continuous chronology.

Orientalers are more interested in the next important event, not in the time which might intervene. The Bible is an Oriental book, humanly speaking. Old Testament prophets often saw events predicted as mountain tops, without knowing the ground between them. We Anglo-Saxons have a passion for a continuous chronology that the Orientals do not possess.

5. The person who confirms the covenant in Daniel 9:27 cannot refer to Christ because:

a) The nearest antecedent is 'the prince that shall come' v.26.

b) At no time in Christ's earthly ministry did He confirm an already existing covenant.

c) If Christ did confirm a covenant at His first coming, when did He break it? Would Christ break a covenant that He has made? Therefore the covenant-confirmer is not Christ, but the 'prince that shall come' (Antichrist).

6. Christ's death did not cause the animal sacrifices and oblation to cease immediately, as v.27 demands.

The Jews continued to sacrifice animals until Jerusalem's destruction in 70 AD, which was 37 years later, well after the Amillennials 3.5 years expired.

7. The person in Daniel 9:27 correlates very well with the wicked person in 7:25, and the Antichrist in Rev. 12,13.

The Antichrist has not yet appeared and been judged as described in Daniel 9:27 and Revelation 19.

8. The events of Daniel 9:27b refer to the last half of the 70th week. These fit well into the last 3 1/2 years of the Tribulation described in Revelation 6-19, which is yet future.

9. The abomination of desolation has not yet happened. In Matthew 24:15, Jesus said that it would occur after His earthly ministry. It would start the great tribulation (the last 3 1/2 years), which would be followed immediately by Christ's second coming in glory. Christ did not return in 70 AD. The book of Revelation (written in 96AD) speaks of Jerusalem's destruction as yet future (Rev. 11:1,2 and 16:19), and not as something fulfilled in the past in 70AD.
10. A time gap is demanded by the historical fulfilment of Messiah being cut off and Jerusalem being destroyed in v.26, which take place after the 69th week and before the 70th week in v.27. This was 37 years after Christ's death in 33 AD. By the Amillennials' theory, the 70 weeks should have finished 3 1/2 years later, by 37 AD. The historical fulfilment of Jerusalem's destruction in 70 AD demand a gap of at least 37 years.
11. If the 70 weeks are continuous, as Amillennials believe, then the 70th week must have ended by 7 years after Christ's crucifixion, or sometime early in the book of Acts.
Why does the history of the book of Acts contain nothing that corresponds with Daniel 9:27?
Where in Acts are the Jewish transgressions finished, or the end made of the Jews' sins? Nowhere! Instead, Israel's sins increase to Acts 28 where Paul turns to the Gentiles.
12. A time gap after the 69th week is the most natural reading of the passage. It also fits well with all other Bible passages on prophecy. Christ's future second coming is in the 70th week.

(12) FOUR DANGERS THAT RECOGNISING THIS GAP PROTECTS US FROM.

1. The efforts to connect the 69th week with the 70th week has led many scholars to confusion, despair and frustration in their attempts to find a historical fulfilment of Daniel 9:27. Their great error was their failure to see the great time interval between the 69th and 70th weeks.
2. This gap principle of Bible interpretation explains the whole of our present church age. It is passed over by the prophets with comparative silence.
3. By understanding that the 70th week is future, we will be saved from the Amillennial error that God is finished with Israel. "70 weeks are determined upon thy people" (9:24), said the angel to Daniel.
If the last week is yet future, there is still a place for national Israel in God's plan.
4. This unknown time gap before the 70th week makes it utterly impossible to set a date for Christ's second coming. Every date setting scheme for Christ's return requires a continuous prophetic chronology covering the present age. Without this, date-setters are helpless. Hence no man knows which day Christ will return.

(13) WHAT THIS PROPHECY TEACHES US OF THIS PRESENT AGE.

- i) "The end thereof shall be with a flood." (9:26). This flood will be a tsunami flood caused by the greatest earthquake ever, described in Rev 16:18-20.
- ii) "Unto the end of this church age, war and desolations are determined" is a literal translation of Daniel 9:26b. True, the last 2000 years have been characterised by continuous wars all over earth.
- iii) God is in control over the events of this sinful age.

(14) TWO PRINCES: MESSIAH the JEWISH PRINCE and ANTICHRIST the ROMAN PRINCE. 9:26,27

- a) Christ: "From the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto Messiah the Prince shall be 7 weeks and 62 weeks." (v.26).
- b) Antichrist: "After 62 weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary;
And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation (end of 7 year tribulation), and that determined (Antichrist's punishment) shall be poured upon the desolate (or desolator, Antichrist)." Daniel 9:26,27.

5. The prince that shall come (antichrist) confirms a 7 year covenant with Israel.
6. Antichrist breaks this covenant after 3 1/2 years or 1260 days, by causing Jewish sacrifices to cease. He then persecutes Israel.
7. Christ returns in person at the end of 70th week to destroy the European Antichrist and to rescue and save Israel.
8. Christ sets up His 1000 year Kingdom of peace on earth. This present church age is the interval between the 69th and 70th week. This was predicted by Christ in Matthew 16:18 "I will build my church." In this gap, Israel was set aside temporarily, which Christ prophesied in Matthew 21:43,

“The Kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.”

Note: 2 different princes are “Messiah the Prince” and “the prince that shall come.” They cannot both be Christ because it is ‘the people of the prince that shall come’ who destroy Jerusalem after Christ’s crucifixion in 33 AD. Jerusalem was destroyed by Roman people, not by Jewish people. Hence the ‘prince that shall come’ cannot be the Jewish Messiah, but must be a future leader of the Roman Empire.

This future Roman prince is:

1. The little horn- Daniel 7:8. (Daniel 7:20.
2. That horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows-
3. The king of fierce countenance- Daniel 8:23.
4. The wilful king- Daniel 11:36.
5. The man of sin- II Thessalonians 2:3.
6. The beast out of the sea- Revelation 13:1.
7. The antichrist- I John 2:18.

Question: In Dan. 9:27 who does the ‘he’ refer back to? (“He shall confirm the covenant with many for one week”).

Answer: “He” refers back to the “prince that shall come” because:

1. This is the antecedent.
2. “He” will make a covenant with the Jews for 7 years. There is absolutely nothing recorded in Christ’s earthly ministry that remotely resembles a 7 year covenant. Produce evidence from history to show where it begun and when it ended. Such evidence cannot be found.
3. The theory that “Christ made this covenant when He started His earthly ministry, and that by His death He caused the Jewish sacrifices to cease”, breaks down because:
 - a) There is no reference in the Gospels to such a covenant.
 - b) The death of Christ did not stop Jewish sacrifices. They continued until Jerusalem’s destruction in 70 AD.
 - c) According to this theory, Christ died “in the midst of the week”, the sacrifices should have ceased then immediately. But they did not.
4. To insist that Messiah made the 7 year covenant, puts the 70th week in the past (from 30-37 AD) immediately following the 69th week. This is wrong because Christ in Matthew 24:15 states that the 70th week is still future.
5. The maker of this 7 year covenant cannot be Christ, because His covenants with Jews and Christians are everlasting (Psalm 89:30-37), not limited to 7 years.

Therefore the Roman prince, or antichrist, makes the 7 year covenant with the Jews. Christ foretold this in John 5:43. “If another (antichrist) shall come in his own name, him ye will receive” (as your Messiah) John 5:43.

Question: What does it mean “Messiah shall be cut off; but not for himself”?

Answer: i) “Cut off” means executing the death penalty on a criminal. This is a prediction of Christ’s crucifixion.

- ii) “But not for himself” means that He would at this time have nothing for Himself, since Israel rejected Christ, the kingdom that He offered could not be instituted at that time. Hence Christ did not receive the royal glory as King on David’s throne over Israel. This prophecy predicted:
 - Christ’s offer of Himself to Israel as her Messiah,
 - Israel as a nation rejecting Christ as her Messiah, and
 - Christ’s crucifixion.

9:26b. Four events that will happen in the gap period of the church age are mentioned:

- 1) Messiah would be cut off. This happened on April 3, 33 AD.
- 2) The people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city & the sanctuary (Temple). This happened in 70AD.
- 3) The end of the gap period will see a unification of Europe as we have the EU of today, the antichrist’s empire.
- 4) Wars and desolations are determined to happen all through the gap period of the church age.

The generation that rejected the Messiah would be judged by the people of the ruler to come, destroying the city (Jerusalem) which contained the sanctuary (Temple). The ruler to come is that final head of the Roman Empire, the little horn of Daniel 7:8.

It is important to understand that the PEOPLE of the ruler, NOT the RULER HIMSELF, will destroy Jerusalem. This proves 2 points:

- 1) The future Antichrist prince will come from a last days Roman empire, since his people are the Romans who destroyed Jerusalem in 70 AD, and
- 2) The future prince is not Messiah the prince, because Christ’s people are the Jews. Antichrist’s people are Romans.

When Israel’s leaders rejected Christ by attributing His power to Beelzebub, the prince of demons (Matt. 12:24), Christ said that this sin if persisted in would find no forgiveness (Matthew 12:31-32). Jesus also warned that the Gentiles would destroy Jerusalem (Luke 21:24), that Jerusalem would be desolate (Matthew 23:38), and that its destruction would be so complete that not one stone would be left on another (Matt. 24:2). This destruction came in 70 AD at the hands of Titus who killed, according to Josephus, about 1 million Jews and took about 100,000 Jews captive as slaves. Israel’s sufferings would continue until the end of the 70 weeks at Christ’s second coming.

(15) EVENTS OF THE 70TH WEEK

1. Rapture of the church occurs. The 70th week lasts from Antichrist's covenant to Christ's glorious return.

The 70th week is future because Christ places the abomination of desolation of the 70th week just before His glorious return (Matthew 24:15-30).

The true church must first be caught up to heaven, then the 70th week can start. In II Thessalonians 2:1-9, esp. v.6-8, "And now ye know what withholdeth (Holy Spirit in the church) that he (antichrist) might be revealed in his time... only he (Holy Spirit in believers) who now letteth (restrains) will let (restrain), until he (Holy Spirit in the church) be taken out of the way. And then shall that Wicked (antichrist) be revealed..."

Since the restraining power is the true church indwelt by the Holy Spirit, it is clear that the coming Roman prince cannot be revealed as long as the true church remains on earth. Once the church is caught away to heaven, the Roman prince is revealed when he confirms his 7 year covenant with the Jewish people. This starts the 70th week. The 70th week will end at Christ's glorious return because:

- i) The Messiah brings to Israel the blessings of Daniel 9:24.
- ii) Christ, on returning, destroys the Antichrist's great power.

2. The 70th week provides the exact time framework for the events of Revelation 6-19.

The only time information given in Revelation 6-19 is:

- i) 42 months (11:2; 13:3),
- ii) 1260 days (11:3; 12:6),
- iii) A time, and times, and half a time (12:14).

Each of these specify 3.5 prophetic years of 360 days each. These passages have three schools of interpretation:

- i) Some regard all prophetic numbers as symbolic, and therefore meaningless for chronology.
- ii) Some hold the unbiblical "year-day" theory. These regard the 69 weeks as 173,880 literal days, but then change their interpretation so that the last 1260 days become 1260 years. Let us be consistent. If the first 173,880 days are days, so the last 1260 days must also be days.
- iii) Some, correctly, have understood that the 3 1/2 years are exactly one-half of 7 years. The 70th week is divided into 2 halves.

This is the key to the interpretation of the books of Revelation and Daniel.

The key passage is Revelation 11:2,3 thus:

"But the court which is without (outside) the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city (Jerusalem) shall they tread under foot 42 months."

And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy 1260 days, clothed in sackcloth."

Notice 2 important things here:

- i) Since the 42 months of verse 2 is a 3 1/2 year period during which Gentile powers tread under foot Jerusalem, this must refer to the LAST HALF of the 70th week, because it is in the middle of the 70th week that the Roman prince stops the Jewish sacrifices and becomes their persecutor (Daniel 9:27).
- ii) It is also clear that the 1260 days of verse 3 is a 3 1/2 year period that must refer to the FIRST HALF of the 70th week, because the 2 witnesses testify during this period, and they cannot be killed until the Roman prince reaches the height of his power in the middle of the week, when it is "given to him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them." (Revelation 11:7 and 13:7).

Therefore we have the entire 70th week events as:

1. 70th week begins in Revelation 6:1,2 with the revelation of the Roman prince. (Day 1).
2. Rising power of the Roman prince. } (Days
3. Testimony of the 2 witnesses. } 1-1260).
4. Killing of the 2 witnesses, and } (Day
5. 7th angel sounding (Rev. 11:1-15). } 1260).
6. Roman prince's absolute world control. } (Days
7. Roman prince terribly persecutes Israel. } 1260- 2520).
8. 70th week ends in Rev. 19:11-21 with the revelation of the Lord Jesus Christ. (Day 2520).

3. The 70th week begins with the Roman prince making a firm covenant with Israel. Daniel 9:27.

One thing involved in this covenant will be the re-establishing of the Jewish sacrifices in a rebuild temple in Jerusalem.. The present Middle-east peace talks may lead to an agreement for Europe to guarantee Israel's protection and a Temple in return for peace.

4. In the middle of the 70th week, the Roman prince will reverse his friendly attitude to the Jews and “cause the sacrifice and oblation to cease.” Daniel 9:27.

Today’s world involves “power politics”, where force has taken the place of morality, where treaties are made and often broken. The Roman prince will only honor a “god of forces.” Daniel 11:38.

Why will the Roman prince break his treaty with Israel?

- i) Being the devil’s man, he will hate Israel.
- ii) After using Israel’s wealth and influence to reach the top of world power, having no further need for them, he will persecute them. As the Jew will pay dearly for her treaty with the Roman beast, so will the great harlot (apostate church) pay dearly for her ride (Rev. 17:16) in seeking to advance her cause along with Antichrist.
- iii) From II Thessalonians 2:4 and Revelation 13:8-15, he will take his seat in the temple of God in Jerusalem, and demand to be worshipped as God. To the Jew, this will be the “abomination of desolation” (Matthew 24:13), and many will refuse to worship him. This refusal will be the antichrist’s pretext for breaking the treaty and causing the Jewish temple sacrifices to cease. His treaty with the “many” (9:27) means that some Jews will reject the treaty. The 2 witnesses will denounce this treaty throughout their ministry.

5. The breaking of the covenant will start great desolations for the Jewish people.

This trouble lasts from the middle to the end of the 70th week (3 1/2 years). This is exactly the time specified in:

- i) Daniel 7:25, during which the antichrist “shall wear out the saints of the most high” for a “time, times and dividing of a time”.
- ii) Rev. 13:5-7, when the antichrist “shall make war with the saints...and overcome them”, for 42 months.
- iii) Rev. 11:2, during which the Gentiles shall tread down Jerusalem for 42 months.
- iv) Rev. 12:6,14, where the woman (Israel) will be protected by God for 1260 days (v.6) and “a time, times and half a time.” (v.14).

Hence all these prophecies fit together perfectly: the same persecutor, the same nation being persecuted, and exactly the same length of time of persecution. This refutes converting the 1260 days into 1260 years. This is the “time of Jacob’s trouble.” (Jeremiah 30:7).

6. The end of this 7 years will conclude the 70 week prophecy and usher in the blessings of Daniel 9:24.

Remember, all these blessings refer to the Jewish people and the city of Jerusalem. This is the context.

- 1,2. It is Jewish transgression and sin that is brought to an end (1,2). No more after the 70th week will Israel rebel against God and her Messiah.
3. To “make reconciliation for iniquity” does not refer to Christ’s death, but refers to God reconciling Israel unto Himself at Christ’s glorious appearing on the basis of His sacrifice on Calvary.
4. To “seal up the vision and prophecy”, means not that all prophecies will be fulfilled, but that the fountain of prophecy will be sealed because, with Christ personally on earth, His word will go forth directly, and no longer through prophets.
5. To “anoint the most holy” refers to consecrating the millennial temple as a place of worship and prayer for all nations at the start of the Millennium, by the personal presence of Christ there.

Conclusion:

The covenant in Daniel 9:27 could not have been made or confirmed by Christ at His first coming, as Amillennials teach, because:

- a) Christ’s ministry did not last 7 years,
- b) Christ’s death did not stop the Jewish sacrifices and offerings,
- c) Christ did not set up the abomination that causes desolation (Matthew 24:15).

Amillennials suggest that Christ confirmed (in the sense of fulfilling) the Abrahamic covenant, but the Gospels nowhere indicate Christ did that at His first coming.

Since the events in the 69 weeks were fulfilled literally in 173,880 days (v.24-26), the 70th week must likewise be fulfilled literally in 2520 days. A correct understanding of this 70 week prophecy will refute the false ideas of:

- a) Amillennials, who spiritualize prophecy, reject any future for national Israel, and reject a literal future 7 year tribulation and future 1000 year rule of Christ on earth.
 - b) Seventh Day Adventists, who accept a literal 173,880 days for the first 69 weeks, but falsely think that 2520 years make up the last 1 week.
 - c) Jehovah’s Witnesses, who mistakenly use the 70th week prophecy to predict the date of Christ’s second coming. The 70th week prophecy, correctly understood, forms the basis of the pre-millennial, literal interpretation of prophecy based on mathematically accurately fulfilled prophecies.
- Let us strongly uphold the pre-millennial faith in a time of apostasy and unbelief in churches today.

56. Second Coming Charts

“The Times of the Gentiles”

“Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles is fulfilled”
 Luke 21:24

The "70 Weeks Prophecy" of Daniel 9:24-27

Start Date:

10pm 4th March 444 BC
Decree of Artaxerxes I (Ardeshr 464-424 BC)
to Rebuild Jerusalem.
Nehemiah 2:1-8

516 B.C.
Temple finished

536 B.C. Decree of Cyrus to rebuild the Temple

70 years
Babylonian captivity
Jer 25:11.

Capture of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar
in 606 BC

70 weeks (sevens) = 490 years

3pm 29 March 33 AD

69 weeks = 483 years

62 weeks = 434 years

Birth of Christ
17 June, 2 BC

7 weeks = 49 years
The city built in troubulous times.

69 x 7 = 483 prophetic years
483 x 360 = 173,880 days

From 4 March 444 BC to Sun 29 March 33 AD

EXACT!

173,880 days = 476.06766 years
365.2422 days/yr

1 week = 7 years

Approx 2,000 years
church age a mystery, hid, not revealed in past ages. Eph 3: 8-10

Church Age

Messiah cut off on 2:52 pm Friday,
3 April 33 AD

70 AD
Romans destroy the city & sanctuary

	Full Moon 33 AD
Jan	4 10:15
Feb	3 04:22
Mar	4 22:21
Apr	3 14:52 P
May	3 04:55

Luke 19:42.

"Messiah the Prince"

Finish Date:

"to finish the transgression, to make an end of sins, make reconciliation for iniquity, bring in everlasting righteousness, seal up the vision and prophecy, and anoint the most Holy (place)." 9:24.

In the midst of the week, (1260th day) the Roman prince (Antichrist) breaks his covenant with Israel, and sets up the abomination in the Jerusalem temple that makes it desolate. Daniel 9:27; Matt 24:15; Revelation 13:14,15.

Great Tribulation

1000 year

Kingdom

of Jesus Christ ruling on earth.
Rev 20; Hosea 6:2

THE EPOCHS AND DISPENSATIONS OF SCRIPTURE.

The HEAVEN or HEAVENLIES.

Creation
DELUGE.
Unrestrained
Selfwill of Man.

Deluge
CALL OF ABRAHAM.
Public Governmental
Dealing of God.

Call of Abraham
EXODUS.
Covenant
with Mosaic
Tabernacle.

Exodus
CAPTIVITY.
Law and Kings
Government with Saul.

Captivity
BIRTH OF CHRIST.
Hebrew subjective to
Daniel II and VII.

Resurrection and Ascension of Christ.
Ephesus. Rev. 1. 1.
Smyrna. Rev. 1. 11.
Pergamos. Rev. 2. 13.
Thyatira. Rev. 2. 18.
Sardis. Rev. 3. 1.
Philadelphia. Rev. 3. 14.
Laodicea. Rev. 3. 17.

Great Dragon.
The Lord comes with his Saints.
Captured out from Heaven.

MILLENNIUM.
ISRAEL RESTORED
Kingdom of Righteousness
OF HEAVEN.

The Great White Throne Judgment of the Living and the Dead.

THE EARTH.

CREATION OF THE WORLD. Gen. I.
1. Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden.
2. Fall of Man, promise of a deliverer.
3. Cain and Abel.
4. Cain's descendants.
5. Noah's descendants in the time of Noah.
6. Increase of wickedness.
7. Building of the Ark.
8. Deluge.

THE DELUGE OR FLOOD. Gen. VII. VIII.
1. Restoration of the Earth.
2. Covenant with Noah.
3. Noah's prophecy.
4. Building of the Tower of Babel.
5. Noah's descendants through Shem to Abraham.

CALL OF ABRAHAM. Gen. XII. XIII.
1. History of Abraham.
2. History of Isaac.
3. History of Jacob.
4. History of Joseph.
5. Oppression of Israelites in Egypt.
6. Birth and early life of Moses.
7. The ten plagues of Egypt.
8. Institution of the Passover.

EXODUS OF ISRAELITES. Ex. I. XII.
1. Deliverance of Israel from the land of Egypt.
2. History of Israel from Moses and Aaron.
3. History of Moses and Aaron.
4. Government of Joshua.
5. Conquest of Canaan.
6. History of Israel from the time of the Judges to the time of the Kings.

CAPTIVITY OF JEWS. 1 Kings. VI. XVII.
1. Captivity of Israel to the Babylonians.
2. History and dream of Nebuchadnezzar.
3. History of Daniel.
4. Return of the Jews from Babylon.
5. History of the Jews from the time of the Kings to the time of the Captivity.
6. History of the Jews from the time of the Captivity to the time of the Birth of Christ.

BIRTH OF CHRIST. Matt. I.
1. Birth and ministry of Christ.
2. Crucifixion.
3. Resurrection and ascension of Christ.
4. The story and acts of the apostles and early saints.
5. The Church and Christianization of the world.

Removal of the Church.
THE DAY OF TRIBULATION
AND OF JUDGMENT.
1. These IV. 1-3.
2. Dan. 7. 1-13.
3. Rev. 12. 1-17.
4. Rev. 13. 1-18.
5. Rev. 14. 1-20.
6. Rev. 15. 1-17.
7. Rev. 16. 1-21.
8. Rev. 17. 1-18.
9. Rev. 18. 1-24.
10. Rev. 19. 1-21.
11. Rev. 20. 1-6.
12. Rev. 20. 7-10.
13. Rev. 21. 1-3.
14. Rev. 22. 1-5.

Christ comes with his Saints to judge the nations. Rev. XIX.
1. Satan bound and cast into the bottomless pit.
2. The saints shall be with Christ.
3. The earth shall be full of the Lord, on the waters over the sea.
4. The saints shall be with Christ.
5. The earth shall be full of the Lord, on the waters over the sea.
6. The saints shall be with Christ.
7. The earth shall be full of the Lord, on the waters over the sea.

Satan loosed.
THE LAST APOSTASY AND REBELLION.
1. Rev. 19. 17-20.
2. Rev. 20. 7-10.
3. Rev. 21. 1-3.
4. Rev. 22. 1-5.

"THE PRINCE OF THE POWER OF THE AIR." Eph. II. 2.

"Jesus Christ came down from Heaven." John 6. 33.

Resurrection and Ascension of Christ. Luke 24. 46.

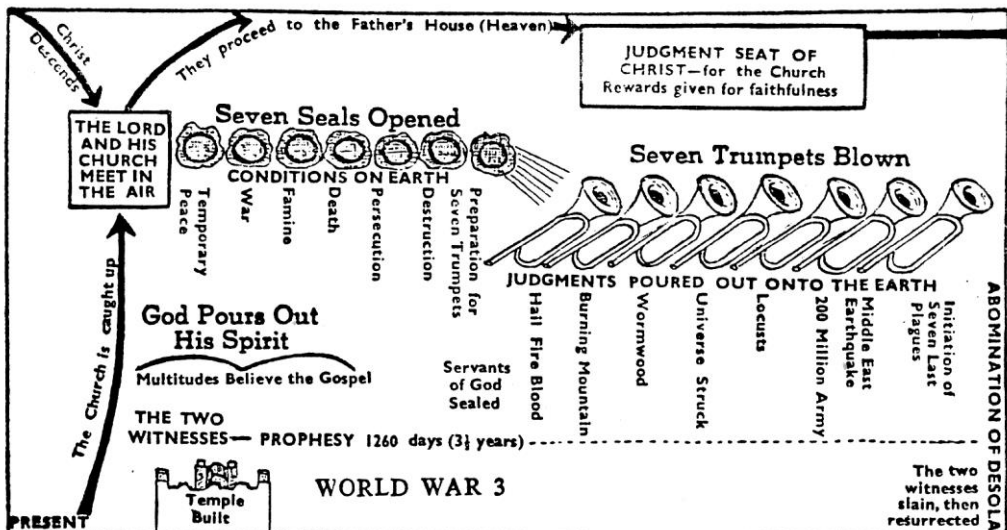

Saints caught up to meet the Lord in the air. 1 Cor. 15. 51.

The Lord comes with his Saints. Rev. 19. 14.

A New Heaven and Earth, that God may be all in all. 1 Cor. XV. 28.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ

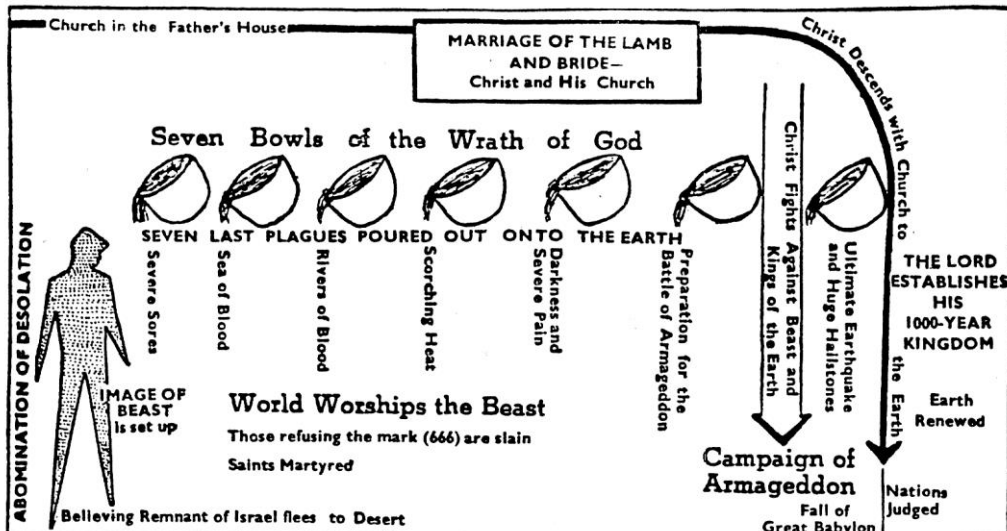

THE FIRST 3 1/2 YEARS OF TRIBULATION

The Beast Ascends
 as Man of Peace makes covenant with Israel

CONSOLIDATES POWER— Enters Holy Land

Beast sits in Temple
 — Breaks Covenant — claims to be God

THE SECOND 3 1/2 YEARS—THE GREAT TRIBULATION

Beast Reigns Over the Whole World

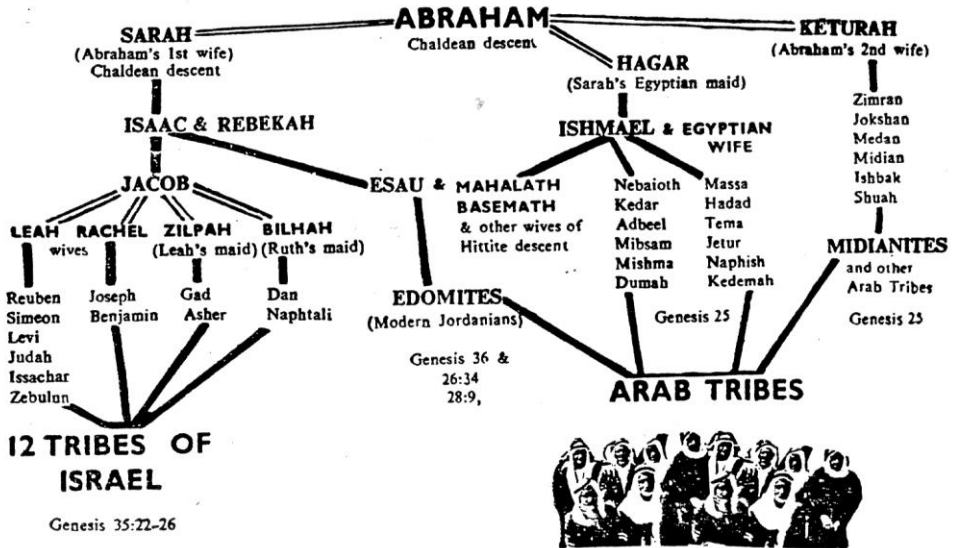

World Church Destroyed

KINGDOM ERA →

Beast & False Prophet cast into the Lake of Fire

Satan Bound 1000 Years

Beginnings of the Jewish and Arab Races

THE BEAST KINGDOMS OF THIS WORLD to be replaced by the Kingdom of Messiah

"The seven heads are seven mountains and seven kings." (Rev. 17:9-10)

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
	ASSYRIA	EGYPT	BABYLON	MEDO-PERSIA	GREECE	ROME	EUROPE	WORLD	MESSIANIC
				2 kingdoms combined	became 4 kingdoms	on seven mountains	ten nations	ten regions
			68 years	205 years	270 years	132 years	3 1/2	3 1/2	1000 years
Beginning of Babylon the Harlot Religion at Babel		Daniel 2 - GOLD head		SILVER chest	BRONZE body	IRON legs	IRON feet	CLAY & toes	The STONE cut without hands becomes a great mountain and fills the whole earth
Nimrod & Semiramis		Daniel 8 -		RAM	GOAT		HORN
		Daniel 7	LION with eagle wings	BEAR	LEOPARD	BEAST with iron teeth	10 HORNS and little horn	BEAST with seven become eight heads	Daniel 2:35
		Daniel 9		69 sevens (483 years)	(CHURCH)		1 'seven' (7 years)

THE SEVEN CHURCHES OF REVELATION

	EPHESUS The Apostolic Church Rev 1:1-7 30-100 1st Century Early Church	SMYRNA Persecuted Church Rev 2:8-11 100-312 Persecuted by pagan Rome	PERGAMOS The Indulged Church Rev 2:12-17 312-606 Union of Church and State (Constantine)	THYATIRA The Pagan Church Rev 2:18-29 606-Tribulation Development of Church of Rome	SARDIS The Dead Church Rev 3:1-6 606-Tribulation Protestant Reformation	PHILADELPHIA The Church Christ Loved Rev 3:7-13 1750-Rapture Great Evangelical Awakening	LAODICEA The Lukewarm Church Rev 3:14-22 1900-Tribulation Apostasy of Last Days
The Revelation of Jesus Christ (Character of Christ)	SOVEREIGN LORD (2:1) Holding 7 stars walking in midst Good works, labour, patience, faithful to truth, hated deeds of Nicolaitans	RISEN LORD (2:8) First and Last Dead and Now Alive Works, tribulation, poverty, suffering (10 days)	WARRING LORD (2:12-17) He that hath a sharp sword. Works, Held fast my name. Has not denied my faith – martyr.	JUDGING LORD (2:18) Eyes like a flame of fire. Feet like brass Works, Love, service, faith, patience.	OMNISCIENT LORD (3:1) Seven spirits Seven stars Works, A name that thou livest	AUTHORITATIVE LORD (3:7) Holy, true, key of David. Opens and shuts Works, Missions, a little strength, kept my word, not denied my name.	DIVINE LORD (3:14) Amen, faithful and true witness. The beginner of Creation
Commendation I know thy ...	Thou has left thy first love		False teaching of Balaam and Nicolaitans (2:14,15)	Thou allowedest the false prophetess Jezebel to teach: idolatry; compromise; immorality.	Dead (spiritually)		Thou art lukewarm, increased with goods, rich but blind spiritually. Wretched, miserable, poor, blind, naked.
Condemnation	Remember from where thou art fallen, repent, repeat first works.	Fear not, be faithful unto death	Repent (2:16)	Hold fast (2:22,25)	Watch, strengthen the things that remain, remember, repent, hold fast. (3:2,3)	Hold fast (3:11)	Buy gold tried by fire and white raiment. Anoint thine eyes. Be zealous and repent (3:18,19)
Counsel. I counsel thee	Removal (2:5)	War (2:16)	Death (2:23)	Will I give millennial rulership over the nations. The morning star (2:26-28)	Invasion (3:3)	Separation (3:16)
Caution	Eat of the tree of life (2:7)	Will I give hidden manna, white stone, new name (2:17)	Will I give millennial rulership over the nations. The morning star (2:26-28)	White raiment, I will not blot out his name out of the Book of Life. I will confess his name before Father and angels (3:5)	I will make him a pillar in the temple, new name. Kept from the hour of temptation coming on the whole world [Great Tribulation] (3:10,12)	I will grant to sit with me in my throne. (3:21)
Challenge Promise to overcomers. To him that overcometh...

57. DISCIPLESHIP BY MULTIPLICATION

One of the greatest problems in the churches today is the lack of follow up teaching given to new Christians. It is one thing to know the Bible, which many Christians know very well, but it is another thing to be able to teach it to new Christians, which few Christians ever do at all.

Churches need to see the importance of and get involved in following up new Christians. This will solve the following problems that hinder church growth:

1. The Pastor has a great burden of soul winning and Bible teaching. He can't do it all by himself. The work can be shared by others if they are well taught on how to win and teach others.
2. Many church members have never led anyone to Christ. This can be solved by following them up and by teaching them how to share the gospel by using the "Stop" tract.
3. Many church members do not know how to answer the cults and other false doctrines.
4. Many people come to church, but never get established in growing spiritually, then drop out.
5. Many people come to church, but never make close friends, so they leave and go elsewhere. Somebody helping them to grow would solve this problem.
6. Many church members are bored and doing nothing to serve God. They could easily arrange for a weekly Bible study to help a new Christian to grow.
7. Some church people get taken away by cults and false doctrines thus leaving the church believing error. The aim should be for everyone in a church being trained to:
 - i) grow spiritually themselves,
 - ii) win people to Christ regularly,
 - iii) teach others, establishing newer Christians in Basic Bible doctrines, so that they can grow to win and train others.

When this occurs, strong church growth in numbers and quality will take place.

This is summarised in:

- i) Hebrews 5:12 "For when for the time ye ought to be teachers."
- ii) II Timothy 2:2 "And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men who shall be able to teach others also."

Question: What do we learn about follow-up from these two verses?

1. Hebrews 5:12 states that all believers ought to be able to teach others, either one-to-one, in small groups, or to large groups.
2. In II Timothy 2:2 there are 4 human links needing to be in place for successful follow up to occur.
 - i) Paul. Paul taught a group of many witnesses, as a local church.
 - ii) Timothy. Timothy had to pass on what Paul committed to him to faithful men.
 - iii) Faithful men. Faithful men had to teach others also.
 - iv) Others. Others had to find faithful men to teach, who would pass these truths onto others.
3. If each person in this network faithfully teaches others also, the Christian population in a country will multiply rapidly. If each person commits himself to train one other person each year, then the number of believers can double each year according to the following table:

Year	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
you	2	4	8	16	32	64	128	256	512	1024
Year	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20
you	2000	4000	8000	16000	32,000	64,000	128,000	1/4 m	1/2 m	1 million
Year	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30
you	2mil	4mil	8mil	16mil	32 m	64 m	128 m	256m	512 m	1 billion

4. If a famous evangelist won 10,000 people to Christ every day, after 30 years there would be 109 million people saved, which is only one-tenth of the multiplication network.

5. Why is the world not yet won to Christ? Because very few Christians bother to commit themselves to new Christians to properly train them to win and train others in a multiplying network. They give in to sin and laziness. They do not commit themselves to teaching others properly.
6. Discipleship by multiplication in the context of a local church is God's method of growth as seen in human population growth from Adam and Eve in 4074 BC to 6,000 million people alive today.
7. If you train just 1 person every year for 20 years, you personally will have trained only 20 people, but your network will have won and trained 1 million people in that 20 year period.
8. A Pastor should begin by teaching to a group of people the contents of this follow up book at least one night each week. Then these people should teach this material to faithful men, who will teach others also.
9. You must invest time teaching faithful men. Not every one will prove to be faithful. People must be faithful to : 1) God, 2) The Bible 3) His Church, 4) To coming to training meetings weekly, 5) to regularly meeting with his faithful man, 6) to teaching others in the network.

1. DESCRIPTION OF MULTIPLYING DISCIPLES.

Year 1: You i) win one person to Christ, and
 ii) train him to win people to Christ.
 iii) train him in the follow up material in this book.
 iv) Impart a vision to him to train and equip new Christians to win and teach others also.

Year 2: At the beginning of year 2, both you and your disciple win one and train one by repeating the 4 steps of year 1. (4 trained workers are at the end of year 2).

Year 3: At the beginning of year 3, each of the 4 win one and train one by repeating the 4 steps of year 1. (8 trained workers now).

Year 4: At the beginning of year 4, each of the 8 win one and train one by repeating the 4 steps of year 1. (16 trained workers now).

So the process continues as people train other new Christians in the contents of this book.

2. RESULTS OF YOU ADOPTING THIS FOLLOW UP MINISTRY.

- i) If you and your network win one and train one every year for 33 years, the world will be won to Christ in 33 years.
- ii) Each decade, the number of people in your network multiplies by 1000. (ie. year 1, 2 people; year 10, 1000 people; year 20, 1 million people; year 30, 1,000 million people).
- iii) Multiplication is not very impressive until about the eighth or ninth year, where you have about 256 or 512 people in your network or Church.
- iv) This multiplying chain reaction often goes faster if your disciple brings their spouse or friend to be trained in your group at the same time.
- v) Everything depends on you thoroughly teaching your man so that he can win and teach others. The network breaks down if your man quits or can't inspire and teach those 3 generations from him.

You → 1st Generation → 2nd Generation → 3rd Generation
 (Paul) (Timothy) (faithful men) (others)

Addition (just winning but not teaching them) looks more impressive initially, but fails dismally in the long term as the drop-out rate begins to break down the network by laziness, false doctrines and lack of training.

Schematically the network looks like this:

		Luke
		Tychicus (Colossians 4:7)
		Trophimus		Ephesus Church (2 Timothy 1:3)
Paul	→	Timothy	→	Faithful men	→	Others
		Titus
		Priscilla and Aquilla

3. DEFINITION OF FOLLOW UP.

- i) Follow up is grounding a new believer in the basics of the Christian life and service so that he can win and train others.
- ii) Follow up involves developing a friendship relationship and teaching them Bible and ministry skills.
- iii) Follow up is best done by a mature Christian assuming a one-to-one friendship with a new Christian or orphan Christian to aid his growth.
- iv) Complete definition of follow up:
Follow up is the process by which a Christian in the local church, with a life worth emulating, commits himself for an extended period of time to a few teachable Christians in order to guide their growth to spiritual maturity.
This is done by teaching Bible truths, Christian character and teaching them to reproduce themselves in a third spiritual generation.
- v) A Disciple is a Christian who is growing in Christ-like character by learning and applying the basics taught in this book.
A Discipler (or Teacher) is a Christian who is regularly leading people to Christ, and teaching them the contents of this book in personal follow up.
A Multiplier (or Pastor) is a disciplined, equipped Christian worker who is continually winning and teaching his spiritual children to reproduce themselves in the third generation.
- vi) Multiplication follow up is third generation teaching.

4. WHAT IS THE VALUE OF TEACHING OR DISCIPLING OTHERS?

Why is it so important that every Christian get involved in teaching (or discipling) others?

- i) The value of teaching to Jesus Christ.
Jesus Christ spent three and a half years teaching His twelve disciples all that He wanted them to know, so that when He was gone, they would carry on teaching others. He invested quality time in 12 men who would spread God's Word all over the world. His last words to His disciples were: "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you....." Matthew 28:19,20.
- ii) The value of teaching to the Disciple.
 - a) Discipling increases the disciples growth rate. It encourages them when they are depressed. It teaches them Biblical principles to help develop Godly habits.
 - b) Discipling stops wrong behavioural patterns in the disciple. He needs loving, gentle correction to stop wrong patterns of living. Spiritual victory comes sooner, as problems are prevented or nipped in the bud.
 - c) Discipling protects the disciple from Satan. Spiritual resistance against Satan comes by putting on the whole armour of God and becoming strong in God's Word.
"Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand." Ephesians 6:15.
 - d) Discipling provides the disciple with a personal friend. He needs new Christian friends to replace his old ungodly friends who will try to pull him back into the world.
 - e) Discipling provides the disciple with counsel. Without a counsellor he might make wrong decisions or get involved in wrong activities.

iii) The Value of Discipling to the Discipler.

- a) Discipling brings joy to the discipler when you see them grow and get victory. "I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth." III John 4.
"For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at His coming." I Thessalonians 2:19,20.
- b) Discipling purifies the discipler's life. We mature as we minister the Word of God to people. My weak areas become apparent as I begin to disciple others.
- c) Discipling develops ministerial skills. The discipler learns how to teach and counsel his disciple. We learn how to guide someone into a ministry, how to inspire people to service, and how to preach and teach.
- d) Discipling provides an outlet for the discipler. By passing on what you learn, you stay fresh. The Sea of Galilee abounds with life because it takes in and gives out. The Dead Sea is lifeless because it takes in and never gives out.

iv) The Value of Discipling to the Local Church.

It strengthens each church by developing Godly leaders. It increases the number attending each Sunday as you have trained people to follow up new contacts and visitors. It plugs the leaks. It stops a church from dying because it gets everybody working towards a common goal. It brings more people to Christ as you train more soul winners. Some of your trained workers will go out to start other churches.

v) The Value of Discipling to the World.

- a) If Christians become disciplers, some will be missionaries to start churches overseas.
- b) It will help reach the world for Christ as our people get a world vision. "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel." Mark 16:15.

Ask Yourself: What am I doing that will have an impact on this world for Christ? What am I doing that will have eternal consequences? What is eternal?

- a) GOD. "The eternal God is thy refuge". Deuteronomy 33:27.
- b) The Word of God. "The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand forever". Isaiah 40:8.
- c) People. "the gift of God is eternal life....." Romans 6:23.

Will you invest your life in the things of this world which will shortly pass away, or will you invest your life in the eternal souls of people in rescuing them from hell so that they can enjoy heaven forever? Would you put your money in a company that was soon to go bankrupt? Nothing should motivate us more than to see people's eternal souls rescued from everlasting hell by the eternal Word of God.

5. FACTORS AFFECTING FOLLOW UP.

What factors must we practice to ensure effective follow up of those people that we see saved.

i) Relationship.

- a) The discipler must be in a right relationship with the Lord because he will be transferring his life's convictions to the disciple. "So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us." I Thessalonians 2:8.
- b) The discipler must cultivate a spiritual and close, trusting friendship relationship with the person being disciplined. "But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children." I Thessalonians 2:7.

ii) Commitment of time and energy.

Ask yourself: Do I believe in the importance of follow up? Am I willing to spend the time necessary to develop disciples? Am I willing to rethink my present activities and stop those that are not a priority? Our priorities should be rearranged so that we spend time with the Lord, time with our family, time each week going soul winning, and time each week in personal follow up of new Christians or Christians who are new to our church who may not hold right Bible beliefs yet.

iii) Concentration on a few at a time.

Effective follow up will never happen if you attempt to work with too many people at one time. For multiplication to take place, your disciples need to become well trained and spiritually mature. Aim to work thoroughly with a few faithful and trustworthy people at a time who will reproduce themselves by winning and teaching others. Share the load by getting others to do follow up as well in a team situation in your local church. Don't let the many urgent needs around you pressure you into not concentrating on a few. Christ disciplined the twelve by concentrating on them in order to create the leadership necessary to adequately promote the growth of the early church.

iv) Duration.

Follow up may take one year or more per person. It will take time for the results of a multiplication ministry to become obvious to bystanders. Christ poured three years into the twelve apostles. During the last six months, He spent nearly all of His time with them. This insured massive multiplication of the early church over the next twenty-five years, yet there were only five hundred followers at His death.

If there was a better way, Christ would have used it. It takes multiplication three to five years to become obvious. Many Pastors and Christians are spiritually short sighted. They don't notice or appreciate the groundwork laid for a ministry over the years.

Get a vision for spending time with people to ensure quality follow up and multiplication. "A little one shall become a thousand and a small one a strong nation: I the Lord will hasten it in his time." Isaiah 60:22.

v) Teaching and Training.

Follow up = Teaching doctrine
+ Training in soul winning and personal Bible Study
+ Spiritual growth.

To do effective follow up and produce multipliers, your Timothy/disciple needs to be properly trained to start the process and to continue the process. Training needs to be easily transferred. How? By teaching the contents of this follow up book to all those who you lead to Christ. A new believer needs to join a sound, fundamental, soul winning, Bible teaching church that stands strongly for the truths contained in the Bible.

A lukewarm church will produce lukewarm Christians.

vi) Environment.

A new Christian's growth is dependent on the spiritual environment (church) that he places himself in. The degree of soul-winning and Bible teaching zeal of his church will control his spiritual vitality. A lukewarm, cold, Bible denying, liberal church or church with false doctrines can destroy his growth because that church denies Bible truths such as:

- i) Importance of Bible study and correctly interpreting Scripture.
- ii) Need to win people to Christ.
- iii) Filling of the Holy Spirit.
- iv) Loving fellow believers in truth. The Word of God is truth.
- v) Fruit of the Spirit needing to be exhibited always.

6. QUALITIES ESSENTIAL TO SEE EFFECTIVE PERSONAL FOLLOW UP.

Personal Follow up is imparting our own souls. I Thessalonians 2:8.

Factor 1: Be Open and Involved.

Allow yourself to become involved with another person. This is threatening because they may reject you. It is time consuming to build lives. Follow up is not just giving information, but helping people to apply what is taught.

View a new Christian how God does, as a new creature in Christ with potential to win many to Christ (2 Corinthians 5:16,17). Don't be discouraged by his temporary lack of progress. He must know that you are there, that you really care, and that you are available and open to talk with and help him anytime. Confront people with their problems and help them to solve them. Share Bible solutions to all of his problems and questions. 238

Factor 2: Believe in the Importance of Follow Up.

This must be a lifelong conviction. This will determine the degree of your effectiveness. You are sure to encounter problems in following people up, but you must not give up this habit of follow up. We must continue in the face of problems. If your disciple drops out, go find someone else to disciple. Claim the promise of I Corinthians 15:58 that your labour is not in vain in the Lord. You are not wasting your time. He may come back later when he finds that sin doesn't help him.

Factor 3: Desire to be Used.

Question: Can you honestly say to God that you desire Him to use you?

Isaiah, after seeing how utterly sinful he was before God, was then in the right frame of mind to respond in full surrender to God's call on his life. "Here am I; send me." Isaiah 6:8.

Paul desired to be used to help the church at Rome "For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established." Romans 1:11-13.

Our attitude should be: "Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be filled." Matthew 5:6.

How can we show our desire to be used? Our words of commitment must be followed by actions. "But be ye doers of the Word, and not hearers only deceiving your own selves." James 1:22.

- a) Get as much training as possible in soul-winning, follow up and understanding Bible doctrine.
- b) Be consistent in outreach "in season and out of season." II Timothy 4:2.

Factor 4: Be Available.

God can use anyone, in spite of his limitations, as long as he is available.

- a) Jeremiah, after God's call found many excuses why he couldn't do what God wanted:
 - i) I cannot speak.
 - ii) I am a child. Jeremiah 1:6.
 - iii) He was untrained.
 - iv) He was afraid. Jeremiah 1:8.

God's answer is in Jeremiah 1:7,8,9.

- i) Say Not, I am a child.
- ii) Thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee.
- iii) Whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak.
- iv) Be not afraid of their faces.
- v) I am with thee to deliver thee.
- vi) Behold I have put my words in thy mouth.

Jeremiah's excuses were a cover for his unavailability. Jeremiah became available when he saw that God could overcome his limitations.

- b) Moses at the burning bush is the best example of man's excuses and God's responses. Exodus 3:1-4:13. God calls Moses in Exodus 3:7-10 to bring Israel out of Egypt.
 - i) Moses first excuse: "Who am I?" (3:11). Problem of insignificance. He considered himself to be just an average person and not cut out for such a big job. This was a faulty argument because: He was trained in Pharaoh's palace, and God's response: "Certainly I will be with thee." (3:12).
God + an obedient yielded Christian = a majority.
A Christian is never a normal nobody. God being with you makes you an important somebody. Paul said, "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me." Philippians.4:13

- ii) Moses second excuse: "What is His name?" (3:13). Problem of authority. Many people feel that they have no authority to challenge people to be saved, to live for Christ, or to teach others in personal follow up.
God's response. "I AM hath sent me unto you." 3:14.
 "For when for the time ye ought to be teachers." Hebrews 5:12.
 Jesus said "All power (authority) is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and lo I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen." Matthew 28:18,19,20.
 You have the authority to win people to Christ, and to teach believers in follow up because God gave it to you. When you use God's Word, empowered by His Holy Spirit, you are under His authority when you preach the gospel and teach the Bible.
- iii) Moses third excuse : "They will not believe me." 4:1.
 Problem of lack of credibility. Who would believe Moses?
God's response: God gave Moses a rod which changed to a serpent, a hand that could change to become leprous, and ten plagues proving God's power over Egypt's false gods.
 God has given us the Sword of the Spirit, the Word of God, and a changed life to prove His power.
- iv) Moses fourth excuse: "I am not eloquent." 4:10. Problem of inability to speak well.
God's response: "Who hath made man's mouth? Go, and I will be with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say." Our natural limitations are not a problem for God, but serve to reveal God's power all the more.
- v) Moses' fifth excuse: "Send someone else." 4:13. Problem of unwillingness.
 This was Moses' last excuse that caused God to use someone else, Aaron. If we are unwilling to go, then God will use another person to do the work and you will lose out on earthly blessings and heavenly rewards.
 Moses was unwilling to be a speaker, so God used Aaron as Moses' mouthpiece. Hence unwillingness is the only limitation stopping God from using you.

Factor 5: Consistent Godly life.

If you hide secret sins, sooner or later they will be seen by people. Demonstration of a Christlike life is a very important factor in developing people. If you are Christlike, then your people find it easier to be Christlike. You will reproduce yourself. You will lead or mislead.

"Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ." I Corinthians 11:1.

"Be thou an example of the believers in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity." I Timothy 4:12.

False teaching is like canker or gangrene. (II Timothy 2:16,17).

When your disciple is mature, he will be like his teacher. (Luke 6:40).

Factor 6: Growing in Christ.

Continue to grow in your relationship with Christ. You'll never take anyone past where you've reached in your personal growth in Christ.

"I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus." Philippians 3:12-14.

Paul strove to grow more like Christ even near his death. If we are yielded to Christ and strong in the Word of God, we will be effective and fruitful in the Lord's service.

Factor 7: Overcome rebellion and bitterness.

If you can't accept yourself, you'll be afraid that others won't accept you either. This fear prevents you from being open and honest with people. Examples include:

- i) We are unwilling to accept ourselves as God made us.
- ii) We rebel against the parents that God gave us.
- iii) We rebel against our financial position. We get resentful towards God for our "raw deal" and become bitter.

We should understand God's promises in:

- i) Romans 8:28, "We know that all things work together for good to them that love God."
- ii) Philippians 4:11, "I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content."
- iii) I Thessalonians 5:18, "In everything give thanks"

Conclusion: Follow up = communicating our life by example + teaching Bible truths.

7. HOW PAUL DISCIPLED THE THESSALONIAN BELIEVERS.

Paul described how he taught them by showing them 15 qualities in I Thessalonians 2:1-20. We should demonstrate these qualities also:

1. v.2 Bold in God to speak the Gospel with much contention.
2. v.3 Exhortation was not of deceit, uncleanness or guile.
3. v.4 Spoke not as men-pleasers but as God pleasers.
4. v.5 We didn't use flattering words, nor a cloak of covetousness.
5. v.6 We didn't seek glory of men.
6. v.7 We were gentle as a nurse.
7. v.8 We were affectionately desirous and were willing to impart the Gospel of God and our own souls.
8. v.9 Remember our labour and travail night and day.
9. v.10 Remember how holily, justly and unblameably we behaved.
10. v.11 We exhorted, comforted and charged everyone of you as a father doth his children.
11. v.13 We thank God continually, because ye received the Word as from God.
12. v.14 They became Church members.
13. v.14 They were willing to suffer.
14. v.17 We endeavoured greatly to see your face.
15. v.19, 20 Paul's attitude: Ye are our hope, joy, glory, crown of rejoicing at the Second Coming.

8. GOALS OF FOLLOW UP.

We should teach new believers to know and apply:

1. Assurance of salvation. Romans 10:13.
2. Security of the Believer. John 10:28.
3. God accepts you because of Christ. Ephesians 1:6.
4. Confess all known sin to God immediately. I John 1:9.
5. Tell someone that you are saved. Romans 10:9.
6. Record your spiritual birthday. John 3:3.
7. Put Christ first. Romans 12:1,2.
8. Daily Bible reading and study. I Peter 2:2.
9. Daily Prayer. I Thessalonians 5:17.
10. Commitment to a sound local church. Hebrews 10:24,25.
11. Soul winning at every chance. Matthew 4:19; Proverbs 11:30.
12. Guidance. Proverbs 3:5,6.

Teach the chapters in this book each week in personal or group follow up.

9. MARKS OF A DISCIPLE.

Christian discipleship is an all out commitment to Jesus Christ as Lord of our lives. Nothing less than unconditional surrender is a fitting love response to the sacrifice of Calvary.

"When I survey the wondrous cross
On which the Prince of Glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.
Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were an offering far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all." Isaac Watts.

Discipleship is our opportunity to tap the infinite resources of God. It is our chance to give our lives to something truly great, rather than to mediocrity. Christ confronts us with a choice: the path of discipleship or the path of mediocrity. Many start off well, but choose mediocrity later in life. They are not stayers. Will you drop out?

Why people don't want to make Jesus Lord:

1. Christ may ask us to do something that we don't want to do.

Answer: Who knows best, God or us? Psalm 84:11.

2. We think that we know what is best for us.

3. We are not sure that God has our best interests at heart.

Answer: God could make life unbearable for us if He wanted to. Jeremiah 29:11.

Let us now check our lives with these marks of discipleship:

1. Supreme love for Christ. Luke 14:26.

"Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment." Matthew 22:37,38.

"If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple." Luke 14:26.

Hate: This means that our love for Christ must be so great that our great love for family members and for ourselves, in comparison, would seem like hatred.

Many Christians choose to live a mediocre Christian life because they love themselves more than Christ. A disciple puts Christ first, and separates himself from sin, worldliness, and false doctrine. Ask yourself: "Is God first in all areas of my life?" A Christian should hate sin because it offends God and creates many problems for us and others.

A disciple seeks to live a godly, pure life. Old habits may cling to us, but the Holy Spirit can give us victory.

"For sin shall not have dominion over you." Romans 6:14.

"Teaching us that denying ungodliness and worldly lusts." Titus 2:12.

2. Deny himself. Luke 9:23.

When self is denied the throne of our life, Jesus may take the throne. The result is a demonstration of the fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22,23) by an attractive relationship with Christ and fellowmen. This shows itself in a desire to win people to Christ, Christlike character, stability and Christian maturity. Say: "Lord, what would thou have me to do?"

3. Take up your cross daily. Luke 9:23 and 14:27.

"If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross daily and follow me."

The cross is an instrument of death. We must die to our wishes, reckoning ourself dead to sin and alive to God. Yield our members as instruments of righteousness. Know. Reckon. Yield. Romans 6:11-13.

"I am crucified with Christ." Galatians 2:20.

"I die daily." I Corinthians 15:31. Dead men have no rights.

4. Follow Christ. Luke 9:23.

"Come after me." Luke 14:27.

Christ's life was one of complete obedience to His Heavenly Father. A disciple must also live in complete submission to God. Jesus constantly called people to "Follow me". A disciple shows a burden for soul-winning he gives his testimony of salvation well, and presents the Gospel regularly and clearly.

"Follow me and I will make you fishers of men." Matthew 4:19.

A disciple is a learner. He is teachable, open to instruction, rebuke and encouragement from his leaders and fellow believers.

"A wise son heareth his father's instruction." Proverbs 13:1.

5. Forsakes all that he has. Luke 14:33.

"So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple." Luke 14:33.

This is the most difficult and unpopular of all the terms of discipleship. What does this mean? This does not mean to give away all that you have, but to use all that you have and are to further the gospel, glorify Christ and to build your church. A disciple gives regularly to his church (tithe) and gives offerings above the tithe to prove his love (II Cor 8:8). The tithe is the obedience gift. The offering is the love gift.

6. Love and Continue in the Word of God. John 8:31.

"Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, if ye continue in my Word, then are ye my disciples indeed." John 8:31.

A disciple has a consistent daily Bible study and prayer time, seeking God's face and communicating with Christ. "I lift up my soul unto thee." Psalm 143:8.

Do you hunger for and regularly take in God's Word? A disciple shows faithfulness to teach the Word. He takes time to hear, read, study, memorize and meditate on the Bible, applying it to his life.

7. Love other Christians. John 13:34,35.

"A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another." John 13: 34,35.

We show our love to other Christians by:

- i) Practicing the 15 qualities of love in 1 Corinthians 13:4-7, such as patience, kindness, humility and showing an unconditional concern for others.
- ii) A disciple is actively involved in a sound, Bible-believing church. Hebrews 10:24,25.
- iii) A disciple shows a servant heart by helping others.

"the house of Stephanus...have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints". I Cor 16:15
Leaders are leaders because they are the greatest servants of others. The way up is down.

Challenge: Do you meet these conditions of discipleship? Are you a true disciple of Jesus Christ? What impact on the world will you leave behind after you've died?

How many people will have been saved and become disciples through your ministry at your life's end?

Yield yourself today to be a true disciple of Christ all your life. Seek to multiply disciples by personal follow up and by teaching them in your church.

Question 1: Ask a new Christian or orphan Christian: Which chapters in "Established in the Faith" book interest you?

Question 2: Would it be possible for us to get together sometime in the next few days to look at them?

Question 3: Ask "When would suit you?" Then keep that appointment every week, and use the Bible studies in this book as the basis of your Bible studies.

58. RUNNING A DISCIPLESHIP SEMINAR (Hints for church growth and strengthening).

Two problems in church work are:

1. How to get people to come to church, and 2. How to keep them growing in sound doctrine.

People come to church from two sources:

1. Those that your church members lead to Christ. These new converts are babes in Christ and generally know very little about the Bible or what fundamental doctrines your church holds to.

2. People who join your church from other churches. These people may already be saved and believe some of the things that a fundamental church stands for. They may also bring with them some false doctrines. If you don't quickly re-teach these people, they will quickly re-teach your people and your church will drift from sound doctrines and you will lose some members.

A Pastor may not have time to re-teach all these people everything he wants to on a one-to-one basis.

Often, new Christians will drift away if they are not quickly taught in Bible doctrines to the point where they can really begin to grow.

Also, children of your members need to be grounded in the doctrines of your church. Sometimes, them just coming to one or two meetings a week will not be enough to quickly ground them.

How do we solve this problem of the need to rapidly teach these new members in the key doctrines?

A DISCIPLESHIP SEMINAR can be a very helpful thing. What does this involve?

1. Type up a pamphlet/flyer stating some subjects to be taught, date, time and place of the seminar. It is good to make it on a Saturday from 10 am to 6 pm, at the church, a hall, or the pastor's house.

2. Provide lunch from 12 - 1 pm, and afternoon tea from 3 pm - 3.30 pm.

Session 1 is from 10 am - 12 noon; session 2 is from 1 pm - 3 pm; session 3 is from 3.30 pm - 6 pm.

During these 3 sessions you can cover perhaps 15 - 20 different subjects.

3. You should invite all those new attendees at your church who need to know what you stand for. You may door knock to invite people to a BIBLE UNDERSTANDING SEMINAR.

4. What is to be taught? As a pastor you are very busy and may not have the time to prepare all the notes for all the subjects that should be taught.

Even if you have prepared the notes, they need typing and you must photocopy a set of notes for each person who attends. You may have over 20 people attending. This means a lot of photocopying cost.

A solution to this problem is the studies in "ANSWERS" by Keith Piper. This book has been put together over 28 years of pastoral work in personal discipleship in local independent Baptist churches.

It contains most of the subjects that you would want to teach your people in a local church setting.

What do you teach? You will find simple, comprehensive Bible studies on each subject in this book.

Select what chapter topics you think you need to teach to your people on the Saturday seminar. You may have 2 or 3 seminars on consecutive Saturdays or over a Christmas holiday period on a longer list of subjects if you wish. The chapters that you may select studies from are in the Table of Contents.

5. Provide a copy of the "ANSWERS" book to each person who attends the seminar so that they can follow along with you as you teach. They will want a permanent record of the studies that you teach. Set them chapters to read in their own time. Who do they know that want to read some chapters?

An added benefit to your church is that you can get more people in your church doing discipleship and follow up as they learn to run seminars in their own homes using this material. Having these studies will stop them from teaching false doctrines.

6. Pass a sheet of paper around during your church services to see who wishes to attend the seminar. This will allow you to order the right amount of food and books.

7. Make a list of people to invite. Phone them 2 weeks before the seminar to invite them and remind them to come. You will have great fun and fellowship as your people spend a day studying God's Word.

8. Have a seminar every 3 months. "ANSWERS" books may be obtained by phoning Keith Piper on 61-2-9875-4321 or writing to him at PO Box 188, Cherrybrook, NSW, 2126, AUSTRALIA. Please attempt one of these seminars. You will find that your church will grow in understanding God's Word, in unity and in fellowship as you set a lot of these doctrines straight in your people's minds. They will then be able to teach others also and multiply a network of disciples all over the world.

59. CHALLENGING QUESTIONS TO MOTIVATE CHRISTIANS

These questions may be used to challenge and motivate lukewarm Christians into becoming dedicated, serious minded, committed disciples of Jesus Christ. These questions may help new Christians get eternal values, instead of just earthly values, and also to help them grow to take their place as workers and teachers in local churches worldwide. "It is more blessed to give than to receive." Acts 20:35.

"Neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy." Acts 20:24.

Ask: "What are you doing in this life for Jesus Christ?" What topics and questions should we ask them?

1. HELL. "I am tormented in this flame." Luke 16:24.

- Do you believe in a literal hell that unsaved people go to after death?
- Has God given you the responsibility to rescue people from hell?
- What is the best strategy you can use to achieve this life goal? Use Stop tract & multiply disciples.

2. WORLD. "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel." Mark 16:15.

- Do you want to see the world won to Christ?
- How can you best achieve this? (by multiplying disciples through local churches).
- Have you heard of Discipleship by Multiplication?
- Do you understand how it works?
- Do you want to be part of a worldwide network of multiplying disciples?
- Can you see your life's potential in multiplying millions of disciples for Jesus Christ?

3. DISCIPLE. "If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed." John 8:31.

- What is a disciple of Jesus Christ? (Luke 9:23-26; Mark 8:32-38; Matthew 16:22-28).
- Are you a disciple of Jesus Christ? What kind of disciple are you?
- Do you want to be a disciple and a disciple-maker for Jesus Christ? (John 8:31).
- Are you willing to continue in Christ's Word, count the cost and pay the price to become one?

4. JUDGMENT. "We must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ." 2 Corinthians 5:10.

- Do you believe that you will have to give account to God as to how you used your abilities and talents at the Judgment Seat of Christ? (2 Corinthians 5:10 and Romans 14:12).
- Have you used your life to maximum usefulness for Jesus Christ and in leading people to Christ?
- If your life was judged today, would you have any regrets at wasting your life by not serving God?
- Would you be ashamed if you wasted your life for God? (1 John 2:28).
- How can you best use your talents and abilities for God and getting people into heaven? Do these:
 - learn to share the gospel easily and clearly using the "STOP" tract.
 - support and help other Christians to win the lost.
 - buy gospel tracts and Established in the Faith books for third world countries to equip churches to win their countries to Christ.
 - make disciples yourself.
 - learn the Bible and grow in knowledge in a soul winning, Bible teaching church. Teach the Bible.

5. LIFE GOAL. "Where there is no vision, the people perish." Proverbs 29:18.

- What is your life's goal? (soul winning, Bible teaching, church planting).
- How can you best achieve this goal? (work in a church team with overseas pastors).
- What things last forever that we can invest our lives in? (Word of God and people).
- Why invest your life in things of this world which will all pass away, when you can invest your life in things of eternity which will never pass away?

"He is no fool who gives what he cannot keep, to gain what he cannot lose".

"Only one life, 'twill soon be past. Only what's done for Christ will last".

Jesus says, "I died for you. What have you done for me?"

"Expect great things from God. Attempt great things for God". William Carey.

"I look upon this world as a wrecked ship. God has given me a lifeboat and said to me, 'Moody, save all you can.' " D.L.Moody. "Evangelization of the world in this generation." Moody's motto.

6. ETERNAL VALUES. "Every man's work shall be made manifest." 1 Corinthians 3:13.

- Do you have eternal values?
- How much treasure have you laid up for yourself in heaven? (Matthew 6:20).
- Why not do something really great for God and step out from the mooing herd?
- What will you be remembered for in 100 years from now?

7. SHARE THE GOSPEL. "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." Matthew 4:19.

- a) Do you know how to lead a person to Christ easily and clearly? Would you like to learn?
- b) How will you explain to Christ if you've done nothing to win people to Christ?
- c) Do you want to invest your life in things of eternal value?
- d) When can we meet for a discipleship Bible study?
- e) Will you come to church this Sunday?
- f) Will you come soul winning or door knocking with me this week?

"Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth." Colossians 3:2.

"Lift up your eyes, look on the fields for they are white already to harvest." John 4:35.

"Go into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage." Matthew 22:9.

"Whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee." Luke 10:35. (Luke 16:11.

"If therefore ye have not been faithful in unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?"

"Moreover, it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful." 1 Cor. 4:2.

"If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss." 1 Cor. 3:15. (1 John 2:28.

"Abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming."

60. QUALITIES YOU NEED TO MAKE DISCIPLES

Bible Reading: 2 Timothy 2:1-26.

Aim: To make us the most effective disciple makers possible and show us the areas lacking in our disciple making ministry.

Introduction:

Many people train at Bible College and yet fail when they seek to have an effective people ministry later on. We are all convinced that:

- i) people without Christ go to hell, and
- ii) the Great Commission is important to us today.

Yet how can we have an effective, fruitful ministry for Christ? I wish to share some things that are big in my life as I seek to make disciples of people for Jesus Christ. We need:

1. LOVE for God, the Bible and people.

"The greatest of these is charity (God's agape love)". 1 Corinthians 13:13.

"The love of Christ constrains us". 2 Corinthians 5:14.

"Love one another with a pure heart fervently". 1 Peter 1:22.

"They shall prosper that love thee (Jerusalem)". Psalm 122:6.

"I will love thee O Lord, my strength". Psalm 18:1.

"I have loved the habitation of thy house". Psalm 26:8.

"A friend loveth at all times". Proverbs 17:17.

We need love for Christ, believers, the house of God, lost people and the Bible because our patience is going to be tried. We will be hurt, insulted, rejected and misunderstood.

2. ZEAL "The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up." John 2:17.

Christ was zealous for the honour of God's name, that all people hold it highly. We should have an intense desire to build a church for God's glory. Are you obsessed with zeal to get people saved and built up, to make disciples to present to Jesus Christ as trophies of grace? Are you zealous against the cults who push lies about God and deceive people into hell? You get zeal as you stay close to God. Zeal can stop you backsliding into laziness.

3. PERSEVERANCE AND DETERMINATION

"And let us not be weary in well doing, for in due season we shall reap if we faint not." Gal. 6:9
Here God promises us success if we persevere.

"Therefore my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord." 1 Corinthians 15:58

"They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing bringing his sheaves with him." Psalm 126:5,6

Never give up because you never know what great person you may win to Christ. Just think of what success God has given you so far as an encouragement.

4. STUDY AND KNOW THE BIBLE

If you delight in the law of the Lord and meditate in it day and night, whatever you do will prosper. (eg: discipling) Psalm 1:2,3.

"Study to show thyself approved unto God." 2 Timothy 2:15.

"Take..... the sword of the Spirit which is the word of God." Ephesians 6:17.

"Thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name." Psalm 138:2.

If you don't know the Bible then:

- i) you can't disciple people.
- ii) you can't refute Jehovah's Witnesses, Mormons, Catholics, etc.
- iii) you can't stay on fire, keen and motivated.

5. BE A SOUL-WINNER, DO DOOR KNOCKING

"He that winneth souls is wise". Proverbs 11:30.

"I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house." Luke 16:27.

When you door-knock you may tell people: "Excuse me, someone you know has asked for me to come to your house to tell you something very important on how to go to heaven and avoid what he is going through." See Luke 16:27.

"Daily in the Temple and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ. Acts 5:42

"They that turn many to righteousness shall shine as the stars forever and ever". Daniel 12:3.

Soul winning results in:

- i) you staying keen.
- ii) the church growing.
- iii) people spending forever in heaven.

Are you a soul winner?

6. BE COURAGEOUS AND FEARLESS

"The fear of man bringeth a snare". Proverbs 29:25.

"We ought to obey God rather than man". Acts 5:29.

"God hath not given us the spirit of fear". 2 Timothy 1:7.

"The battle is the Lord's". 1 Samuel 17:47.

"Come and let us go over to the garrison of these uncircumcised: it may be that the Lord will work for us: for there is no restraint to the Lord to save by many or by few". 1 Samuel 14:6. (Jonathan's idea was, let's give it a go, you never know what good may happen).

"We may boldly say: The Lord is my helper: I will not fear what man shall do unto me". Hebrews 13:6.

Discipline yourself to go doorknocking every week and don't fear what people will say to you. If they reject you, go find someone else.

7. BE A BIBLE TEACHER

You build a church on three things: soul winning, prayer and Bible teaching.

Paul tells Timothy to "Preach the Word". 2 Timothy 4:2.

Jesus tells Peter to "Feed my sheep". John 21:16.

"They continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine". Acts 2:42.

"Paul and Barnabus continued in Antioch teaching and preaching the word of the Lord". Acts 15:35

There is a need for:

- i) expository and topical teaching.
- ii) apply it to their lives.
- iii) use illustrations.
- iv) buy helpful books to feed the flock.
- v) set up a Bible college in your church.

People want to hear God's Word and what it says about how they should live.

8. PLAN FOR GROWTH

Never be content unless new people are getting saved and coming to church each week. If your church doesn't grow it will die. Plan to double every one or two years. Get as many people in your church as possible working in a ministry. People grow as they are personally discipled and have their questions answered. Have a vision of reaching 100, 500, 1000 or more and plan how to get there.

9. CHURCH PLANTING

Set your long term goal as winning Australia for Christ by starting Bible teaching, soul winning churches in every Australian town. Everywhere Paul went on his first, second and third missionary journeys his goal was to set up churches in each city to propagate the Gospel after his death. Follow the example of some US churches with 5,000 people attending weekly. Give your life to it.

10. FIGHT THE DEVIL

We are in a very intense spiritual warfare over the souls of men. Satan's forces will attack you in many different ways. Look to Jesus in all these attacks. Some attacks will be:

- i) false doctrine causing you to separate from Godly men.
- ii) Pastors and other Christian workers will offend you.
- iii) you can get sidetracked chasing money in a job and not doing soul winning, disciple making and church planting.
- iv) beware of adultery and fornication.
- v) laziness.
- vi) running away from problems. Make sure that you face people with problems.
- vii) Pride: people want to be number one.

11. PRAY MUCH

Prayer is where we defeat the forces of Satan that keep people in bondage. Prayer keeps us close to God. We protect our people by a hedge of prayer. Prayer fills us with the Holy Spirit. Prayer reveals to us the will of God. Prayer focuses the power of God through our life. Prayer makes you strong and courageous in God's work.

12. LINK IN WITH STRONG BELIEVERS

Realize that you can't do it all by yourself. Have people that will encourage you in the Lord. Other strong believers will give you new ideas that you are not aware of. Paul did his missionary work in a team.

13. GOOD MARRIAGE

1 Timothy 3:4,5,11. Rule your own house well. Your children must be in subjection. Wives must be grave, sober and faithful. Spend quality time daily with your wife and children so that you will stay close to them. If they go off the rails into rebellion, you ought not to be a pastor. Get your wife doing a ladies ministry. Give your children reasons why they believe. Your marriage will be a pattern of other marriages in the church. Don't take your wife for granted, but love her.

14. LEADERSHIP

We lead by means of:

- i) humility.
- ii) being a servant.
- iii) training your workers.
- iv) creating an atmosphere of excitement in serving God.
- v) lead by example: to get them to jump one inch, you must jump one foot.
- vi) spending time with people especially when they have problems.
- vii) wisdom is the principal thing. Proverbs 4:7.

15. INITIATIVE

Don't be lazy. Get up and do things for God. William Carey said,

"Expect great things from God. Attempt great things for God."

"Lord thy pound hath gained 10 pounds". Luke 19:16.

If one thing doesn't work, try something else. Use your God-given brains. Ask God for new ideas to win more people to Christ. Have faith to try things. If we are faithful on earth now, we will have authority over 10 cities later. If you want a great ministry some day, be a reliable servant in little things now.

16. BE ENTHUSIASTIC and EXCITED

Angels rejoice when people get saved. When you win a person to Christ, you have made a friend forever. Be happy about having good Christian friends.

17. CULTIVATE A DEEP RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD

Get to know God really well through: the Word of God, suffering, prayer, obedience and working with people in soul winning and disciple making.

18. MAKE SURE YOU PRACTICE WHAT YOU PREACH

Otherwise people will call you a hypocrite. "A bishop must be blameless". 1 Timothy 3:2.

You must be 100% honest and approachable.

19. STAY IN ONE AREA FOR A LONG TIME

Be patient to build a strong foundation over a long period of time. Some pastors have problems in one church so they run away to another church to escape. This kills the compounding effect of their past years in the church.

20. CONQUER REJECTION

"Yea and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution". 2 Timothy 3:12.

"Therefore, endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ". 2 Timothy 2:3.

Don't let people who reject you turn you away from your life's goal and ministry. Don't take rejection personally. They are rejecting Christ, not you.

21. IMPART A VISION OF MULTIPLICATION

2 Timothy 2:2. Paul taught Timothy who taught faithful men, who taught others. If you and they win and train one person per year to win and train another person each, you will double each year. In 10 years you will have 1000 people saved. In 20 years you will have 1,000,000 people saved. In 30 years you will have one billion people saved. Teach this to all those that you disciple.

22. CONCENTRATE ON THOSE WHO ARE REALLY INTERESTED

See if they become interested after a few home Bible studies. Don't waste time on people who don't care. "Commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also." 2 Timothy 2:2.

23. BE A GOOD LISTENER

"Let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak and slow to wrath". James 1:19.

24. START A BIBLE COLLEGE

Start a Bible College in your church to train workers and pastors to go and start more churches. Teach the material in this book.

25. HAVE A SENSE OF HUMOUR

This is a release for pressure. "A merry heart doeth good like a medicine." Proverbs 17:22.

CONCLUSION:

Are you really determined by God's grace to make disciples? Spend time with a new convert for 6 – 8 weeks studying this material.

61. BIBLE COLLEGE CURRICULUM

- 1) Genesis (p.1162,1086,1087,1127); Pentateuch (p.35,1055), The Tabernacle (p.43)
- 2) Psalms - Outline of Each Psalm (p.1109,1163,1182).
- 3) Old Testament Bible History; Chronology of the OT (p.36,37,42); Bible Customs (p.1196).
- 4) Job (p.1153,1156), Proverbs (p.1145), Ecclesiastes (p.1198), Song of Solomon
- 5) Major Prophets: Isaiah, Jeremiah, Lamentations, Daniel, Ezekiel (p.195,214,226-232).
- 6) Minor Prophets:
- 7) Gospels: Matthew, Mark, Luke, John, Life of Christ. (p.38,87-93,1074,1164,1166,1092,1194).
- 8) Acts and Life of Paul (p.40,41,1083,1096,1105,1106)
- 9) Epistles: Romans to Jude (p.286,321,382,1079-1082,1103,1154,1155,1157,1172,1173)
- 10) Revelation and Prophecy (p.171-233,1121,1122,1125,1127,1196).
- 11) Soul-winning, Door-knocking (p.93-137,1057,1083,1088), Building Sunday School; Bus Ministry
- 12) Preaching and Sermon Outlines (p.1052-1200)
- 13) Cults: Roman Catholics (p.707-734), Mormons (p.793-810), SDAs (p.735-792), Islam (p.951-1038)
- 14) Jehovah's Witnesses and Trinity (p.811-947)
- 15) Apologetics (p.1-23,134-135)
- 16) Pastoral Ethics (p.162); Marriages (p.341-343), Funerals, Lord's Supper (p.158)
- 17) Missions (p.103,309-320)
- 18) Church History (p.309-320)
- 19) Errors of Charismatic Movement (p.476-543,1056)
- 20) Why Reject Modern Bible Versions (p.544-569)
- 21) Theology
- 22) How to Plant a Church (p.138-170,234-249,1168)
- 23) Christian Living (p.285-386)
- 24) Counselling: Depression (p.304-306), Marriage (p.362-369,1059,1106)
- 25) How to Run Ladies Meetings; Pastor's Wife
- 26) Basic Greek
- 27) New Evangelical Errors (p.570-603).
- 28) Angels (p.73-92)
- 29) Parables (p.59-65)
- 30) Prayer (p.291-298,1131)
- 31) 49 Character Qualities (p.327-330)
- 32) Teen Work (p.337-351,370-381,1058,1059,1077,1089,1093,1100,1123,1142,1151-1153,1155,1178)
- 33) Principles of Bible Interpretation (p.1039-1053)
- 34) Scripture Memory (p.307-308,326)
- 35) Discipleship (p.234-284)
- 36) Ecclesiology: Doctrine of the Church (p.138-170, 273,274,281-282,1168)
- 37) The Godly Woman (p.272,337-344,1123)
- 38) Romans (p.1079-1082,1122)
- 39) I and II Corinthians (p.321,482,520-538)
- 40) Doctrine of Salvation - Soteriology (p.124-133,387-390,433-450,455,604-696,1062)
- 41) Church Administration and Leadership
- 42) WORK REPORT of hours spent weekly in soul-winning and Follow-up Bible Study
- 43) Church music and soul-stirring songs (p.467-475)
- 44) Home Schooling (p.451-454,1178-1181).
- 45) Spiritual Growth (p.284,286,291,299,324,327,334,355,370,375-381,570-603,1059,1068,1093, 1100,1110,1111,1119,1124,1134,1137,1138,1140,1150,1152,1155,1157,1162,1166,1168-1172).

62. WHAT ALL CHRISTIANS MUST KNOW

BIBLE WISDOM FOR LIFE.

Now that you have received Jesus Christ as your Saviour, you are a son of God (John 1:12), and a new creature: "old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." (II Cor. 5:17). God wants us to live differently from the world and to please Him. You will find many enemies seeking to stop your growth in Christ. Will you drop out of serving God, or will you grow to experience the best that God has for you?

Here are some key Bible truths that will help you grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

1. LOVE and OBEY JESUS CHRIST, and GOD WILL BLESS YOU.

"them that honour me, I will honour." I Samuel 2:30.

2. OBEY GOD in DIFFICULT TIMES.

"Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely for my sake.

Rejoice and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you." Matthew 5:10,12.

It may be easy to obey God in good times, but God permits trials to develop character qualities for our good and other's good. Even our family may persecute us.

3. ALL THINGS WORK TOGETHER FOR GOOD TO THEM THAT LOVE GOD.

If we continue obeying and trusting God in all of life's situations, then God promises to turn even the worst events to our good. This requires patience. Romans 8:28.

4. BE PATIENT for GOD TO BRING HIS PLANS TO PASS.

"For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise." Hebrews 10:36. God wants to cure us of anger and impatience. Let's learn to trust God.

5. READ and STUDY the BIBLE EVERY DAY.

The Bible gives us wisdom, strength, love, joy, peace, faith, hope, victory over worry, and God's answers to all of life's problems. The Bible is God's textbook for our life.

"Great peace have they which love thy law, and nothing shall offend them." Psalm 119:165.

"As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby." I Peter 2:2.

"Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee." Psalm 119:11.

Learning and obeying the Bible prevents problems.

6. PRAY TO GOD DAILY.

Friends grow closer if they communicate daily. So it is with God. If we start the day in prayer and Bible study, thanking God, confessing sin, asking for others needs and our needs, then we will draw closer to God and He will draw near to us. "Pray without ceasing." I Thess. 5:17

"The effectual, fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much." James 5:16.

7. STOP REBELLING AGAINST GOD.

All your life you may have been pleasing yourself. Now is the time to put God first, others second, and yourself last. This is how to have real joy.

Jesus first

Others second

Yourself last.

"Rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft." I Samuel 15:23.

Are you rebelling or are you submitting to God and the Bible?

"The rebellious dwell in a dry land." Psalm 68:6.

8. YE ARE NOT YOUR OWN.

For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. I Corinthians 6:19,20. Our life's goal should be to glorify God by doing HIS will. We must say "NO" to sin, selfishness, pride, anger, and the devil's lies.

9. LOVE GOD with ALL your HEART, SOUL, MIND, and STRENGTH. LOVE the BIBLE.

LOVE Christians and LOST PEOPLE. Matthew 22:37,38.

10. COME TO CHURCH EVERY SUNDAY.

Do all you can to help it grow. Encourage others there.

"I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord". Psalm 122:1.

"Let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together as the manner of some is..." Hebrews 10:24,25.

"...the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth." I Timothy 3:15.

11. HUMBLE YOURSELVES therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time. I Peter 5:6. Avoid pride. Stay humble to God, the Bible & others. Benefits of humility: "Before honour is humility." Proverbs 15:33.

"By humility and fear of the Lord are riches, honour and life." Proverbs 22:4.

12. SUBMIT YOURSELVES to the PASTOR/ELDER. I Peter 5:5.

A Pastor/Shepherd's job is to feed and protect the sheep from wolves, from false doctrines and from deception. God has placed Pastors in a "rule over you" authority position, not to hurt you, but to protect you. Notice the words "our authority" in II Corinthians 10:8. If you submit to them you are protected. If you rebel you suffer. "Let the elders that rule well." I Timothy 5:17.

Five responsibilities to spiritual authority in a local church:

1. Remember them which have the rule over you...whose faith follow.
2. Obeys them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves; for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account that they may do it with joy and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you. Hebrews 13:7,17.
3. Greet them that have the rule over you, and all the saints. Hebrews 13:24.
4. Know (appreciate, respect) them which labour among you and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you. I Thessalonians 5:12.
5. Esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. Be at peace among yourselves. 5:13

13. DON'T WORRY, but TRUST AND OBEY GOD.

"Casting all your care upon him; for He careth for you." I Peter 5:7.

"Be careful for nothing; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus." Philippians 4:6,7.

"Take no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof." Matthew 6:34.

14. AVOID SIN.

Remember, sin brings you trouble, and obedience brings you God's blessings.

"My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not." I John 2:1.

15. CONTINUED SIN BRINGS DISCIPLINE.

If believers continue in sin without repenting, God will discipline us through trouble or suffering.

The benefits of God's discipline in Hebrews 12:5-11 are:

- i) We give God reverence. (v.9).
- ii) We profit by attaining holiness. (v.10).
- iii) We yield the peaceable fruit of righteousness. (v.11).
"Before I was afflicted, I went astray." Psalm 119:67.

- 16. BE WATCHFUL FOR THE DEVIL'S ATTACKS.
 "Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour. Whom resist steadfast in the faith (by Bible doctrine)." I Peter 5:8,9.
- 17. SOUL WINNING. Seek to win people to receive Jesus Christ as Saviour.
 "Follow me and I will make you fishers of men." Matthew 4:19.
 "He that winneth souls is wise." Proverbs 11:30.
- 18. ASSURANCE OF SALVATION. Be sure you are saved based on Bible promises.
 "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." Romans 10:13.
 "He that has the Son has life.....That ye may know that ye have eternal life." I John 5:12,13.
- 19. JESUS CHRIST KEEPS US SAVED FOREVER.
 "I give unto them eternal life, and they shall never perish." John 10:28.
 "To an inheritance incorruptible, undefiled, that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you. Who are kept by the power of God, through faith unto salvation..." I Peter 1:4,5.
 Jesus Christ is 100% responsible for saving us. Jesus Christ is 100% responsible for keeping us saved.
- 20. MEMORIZE BIBLE VERSES, then whatever you do shall prosper.
 "Thy word have I hid in my heart, that I might not sin against thee." Psalm 119:11.
 "This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success." Joshua 1:8.
- 21. CONFESS SIN TO GOD IMMEDIATELY.
 "If we confess our sins he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." I John 1:9.
 To confess ("homologeo" in Greek) sin means to call sin what God calls it. "He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy." Proverb 28:13
 If we don't confess our sins to God, we are out of fellowship with God and become miserable, self centred and depressed.
- 22. TELL SOMEONE THAT YOU HAVE RECEIVED JESUS CHRIST AS SAVIOUR.
 Say: "I HAVE received the Lord Jesus Christ as my Saviour."
 "If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord JESUS, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved." Romans 10:9.
- 23. GET BAPTIZED, after salvation, by full immersion in water, in a local Bible teaching church to obey Christ's command in Matthew 28:19,20.
 "Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you."
- 24. TRUST GOD with your life to do the right and best things for you, always.
 Proverbs 3:5,6 shows that God will guide us if we do 3 things:
 1. "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and
 2. lean not unto thine own understanding.
 3. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."
- 25. REWARDS. Revelation 22:12.
 God promises rewards for us in heaven according to our works for Christ in this life. "Behold I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be."
- 26. INVITE A FRIEND TO CHURCH, and invite a friend to meet a soul-winner who will share the gospel with him. "Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled." Luke 14:23. This verse tells us to do door knocking, and to look for people who are wanting to be saved.

27. GOD ACCEPTS US 100% AS WE ARE, because we have accepted Christ as our Saviour. “he hath made us accepted in the Beloved”. Ephesians 1:6.
We can accept ourselves because God accepts us.
God does not accept our sinful behaviour, but chastens us.
28. LOVE NOT THE WORLD, neither the things that are in the world. “The world passes away and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth forever.” I John 2:15,17.
Don’t love worldly things such as rock music, bad magazines, bad books and movies, drugs, alcohol, fornication, false religions, horoscopes, palm reading, gambling, etc.
These will pull you away from God and your life will be of no use to God. “Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.” Ephesians 5:11.
29. RESIST TEMPTATION.
The devil lies to us that if we sin, we will be happier.
God says: “Be sure your sin will find you out.” Numbers 32:23.
This means that if we sin the following things will happen:
- i) God will be displeased.
 - ii) We will be found out some time.
 - iii) We will feel guilty.
 - iv) We will experience the bad consequences or punishment.
 - v) Our children will be likely to follow our sinful example.
 - vi) When our spouse or friends find out, they will no longer trust us.
 - vii) We will live in fear of being caught.
 - viii) Every sin you give into, reinforces a bad habit pattern. This makes it easier to sin again.
- “There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man, but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.” I Corinthians 10:13.
So when you are tempted, look for the way to escape.
30. SEEK WISDOM.
Definition: Wisdom is the insight into the true nature of things. It is the ability to discern actions and their results. Pray to God daily for wisdom.
“If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God.....and it shall be given him.” James 1:5.
“The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is understanding.” Proverbs 9:10.
“Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: Exalt her and she shall promote thee, she shall bring thee to honour....” Proverbs 4:7,8.
31. PROVISION.
God promises to supply our needs if we put Him first.
“But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.” Matthew 6:33.
32. AVOID WRONG FRIENDS, such as the ungodly, sinners and scornful.
“Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.” Psalm 1:1.
Ask God for godly friends who love Jesus Christ. Seek to study, understand, learn, apply, memorize and meditate on the Bible. Then whatever you do will prosper.
“But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and nightwhatsoever he doeth shall prosper.” Psalm 1:2,3.
“My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.” Proverbs 1:10.
“...he shall be holden with the cords of his sins.” Proverbs 5:22.
“Make no friendship with an angry man....Lest thou learn his ways, and get a snare to thy soul.” Proverbs 22:24,25.

33. BE PATIENT, and WAIT UPON THE LORD.

We live in an age when everybody wants everything now. Patience builds character. It detaches us from materialism, anger, covetousness, and selfishness. Patience helps us to trust the Lord.
“Wait on the Lord, be of good courage, he shall strengthen thine heart.” Psalm 27:14; James 1:2-4

34. When things GO WRONG, don't panic but trust God to bring good out of evil.

“And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God....” Romans 8:28.

35. JESUS Christ is RETURNING again to catch up the living and the dead believers to heaven, giving us resurrection bodies. Then He will bring us back with Him 7 years later to land on earth, taking it over as King of Kings, and Lord of Lords.

“For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.” I Thessalonians 4:16,17.

36. DON'T FIGHT WITH YOUR FAMILY.

“He that troubleth his own house shall inherit the wind.” Proverbs 11:29.

The Lord promises to protect us as we stay fearing God.

“The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him and delivereth them.” Ps. 34:7.

“Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the Lord delivereth him out of them all.” Ps. 34:19.

“Hast thou not made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side?” Job 1:10.

Satan could not get past the hedge of protection that God had put around Job and all his possessions. Satan had to get God's permission to attack Job.

37. The Lord is GOOD. Definition of good: all the qualities of an ideal person.

“O taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.” Psalm 34:8.

“O how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee.” Psalm 31:19.

Since God is good to us, we should be good to God and man.

38. GOD CREATED the HEAVEN and the EARTH in SIX LITERAL 24-HOUR DAYS.

“In six days the Lord made the heaven and the earth...” Exodus 20:11.

“In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.” Genesis 1:1.

“...from the beginning of the creation which God created....” Mark 13:19.

“From the beginning of the creation God made them male and female.” Mark 10:6.

Evolution is wrong because:

- i) Sudden appearance of life in Cambrian strata (supposedly 500 million years old) shows an early unevolved complexity.
- ii) Man's recorded history only goes back to about 3000 BC.
- iii) 220 dating methods indicate a young earth of about 6,000 years old.
- iv) We find no transitional fossil forms in the fossil layers between one species and another.
- v) Misplaced fossils - for example, a shoe print on a trilobite.
- vi) Brontosaurus cave paintings in Zimbabwe. This means that man and dinosaurs co-existed.
- vii) No beneficial mutations causing a new species have been found.
- viii) Complexity of the human body shows an intelligent Designer.(eg:babies made in 9 months)
- ix) Second Law of Thermodynamics is opposed to Evolution.
- x) Bad social effects of evolution. For example, no morality means no accountability.

39. WIN YOUR COUNTRY TO CHRIST, and BLESSINGS will follow.

“Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord...” Psalm 33:12.

“Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.” Proverbs 14:34.

“When thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind: And thou shalt be blessed...” Luke 14:13,14.

- 40. GIVE THANKS always to God and to others. I Thessalonians 5:18.
 “In everything give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you
- 41. DON’T YOKE UP with UNBELIEVERS in MARRIAGE or in BUSINESS PARTNERSHIPS (2 Corinthians 6:14-20). They please themselves. They don’t care about God.
- 42. The TONGUE.
 Avoid bad speech, slander, lies, swearing, etc.
 “Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile.” Psalm 34:13.
 “A soft answer turneth away wrath; but grievous words stir up anger.” Proverbs 15:1.
 “...let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath.” James 1:19.
 “The tongue....is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.” James 3:8.
- 43. GUIDANCE.
 God promises to guide us in the right way all our life.
 “The steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord..” Psalm 37:23.
 “Thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it....” Isaiah 30:21.
 “The Lord shall guide thee continually...” Isaiah 58:11.
 “I will instruct thee, and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye.” Psalm 32:8.
- 44. BE TRUTHFUL ALWAYS.
 Telling lies makes people distrust you.
 “Thou desirest truth in the inward parts.” Psalm 51:6.
 “Lying lips are an abomination to the Lord: but they that deal truly are his delight.” Proverbs 12:22.
 “A righteous man hateth lying.” Proverbs 13:5.
 “Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another.” Ephesians 4:25.
- 45. Get ETERNAL VALUES.
 Many people just live for this life and money, never thinking that at death they must leave it all behind. A person with eternal values lives for Jesus Christ, winning people to Christ, and laying up treasures in heaven. Matthew 6:20.
 “So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.” Romans 14:12.
 “The world passes away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth forever.” I John 2:17.
 If we live for this life only, we will lose rewards in heaven.
- 46. Aim to be PERFECT, SINLESS, HOLY.
 “Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace.” Psalm 37:37.
 “Be ye holy; for I am holy.” I Peter 1:16.
 “Let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.” II Corinthians 7:1.
 Never tolerate any sin ever in your life.
 “Holiness becometh thine house, O Lord, forever.” Psalm 93:5.
 “All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, reproof, correction that the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works.” 2 Tim. 3:16,17.
 If you never do anything wrong, but always seek to please God, you will never have regrets or self-inflicted trouble.
 Jesus said, and so should we: “I do always those things that please him.” John 8:29.
- 47. DON’T BACKSLIDE. ‘The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways.’ Proverb 14:14
 Don’t neglect daily prayer and Bible study, church or soul-winning. People backslide when they become filled with their own ways, and depart from God’s ways. Such people become very selfish. God soon disciplines them.

48. WORSHIP GOD.

Worship means to acknowledge God's worth. "O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the Lord our maker." Psalm 95:6.

"O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness." Psalm 96:9.

"...true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth." John 4:23,24.

We must worship God daily in family devotions and weekly in church. We worship God by praise, obedience, thanks, Bible study, church involvement, Gospel preaching, tithing, prayer etc.

49. DON'T COMPLAIN.

Often, the more that people have, the more they complain. Think of all the good things that God has given us. Don't focus on what we haven't yet got. "that there be no complaining in our streets." Psalm 144:14.

"These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts." Jude 16.

50. HOW TO HAVE FAVOUR and a GOOD REPUTATION.

"Let not mercy and truth forsake thee.....

So shalt thou find favour and good understanding in the sight of God and man." Proverbs 3:3,4

"Mercy and truth preserve the king." Proverbs 20:28.

i) Show mercy to people by helping them in need.

ii) Always be truthful to people. Don't be deceitful.

Then God and man will show you favour and good understanding.

51. BE TEACHABLE. ACCEPT REPROOF IN A HUMBLE MANNER.

When someone rebukes you, don't reject him, but think if what he says is true. Learn from it, and be corrected.

"Poverty and shame shall be to him that refuseth instruction: but he that regardeth reproof shall be honoured." Proverbs 13:18.

"Rebuke a wise man, and he will be yet wiser." Proverbs 9:8,9.

"Open rebuke is better than secret love." Proverbs 27:5.

52. SPEAK GOOD, ENCOURAGING WORDS TO PEOPLE.

So many difficult and discouraging things happen to people, that we need to encourage, help and strengthen people with kind words. Encourage people at church. "Heaviness in the heart of a man maketh it stoop: but a good word maketh it glad." Proverbs 12:25.

"Let everyone of us please his neighbour for his good to edification." Romans 15:2.

Barnabus means the "son of consolation." Acts 4:36; 9:27.

53. DON'T BE LAZY

Work hard for God and use your time efficiently to lay up treasures in heaven. Time is a very precious asset.

"Redeeming the time, because the days are evil." Ephesians 5:16.

"Go to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways and be wise:she gathers her food in the harvest." Proverbs 6:6-11.

"...the soul of the diligent shall be made fat." Proverbs 13:4.

"His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant...Take therefore the talent from him, and give it to him who has 10 talents." Matthew 25:26,28.

If we don't use our God given abilities, we will lose them. We don't have much time because life is short and Jesus will return soon.

54. A GOOD NAME IS VERY VALUABLE.

"A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches." Proverbs 22:1.

Sin gives you a bad name, and obeying God gives you a good name, before God and men.

Many believing chief rulers "loved the praise of men more than the praise of God." John 12:43.

55. DON'T BE PROUD.

“Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.” I Corinthians 8:1.

One of the greatest failures of young Christians is that as they gain some knowledge, they become proud, break fellowship with their pastor and leave their church which taught them everything they know spiritually. They usually justify their leaving by looking hard for the smallest faults in the pastor or people in their church. They accuse them of legalism, etc., when the real problem is pride and rebellion inside them.

They should try to build the church that they were saved in, rather than expecting people to wait on them. Young Christians from age 17-30 are mostly prone to this. They forget all the good things that people have done for them. Ingratitude, fault-finding, and a critical spirit describes this person.

“Pride goeth before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.” Proverbs 16:18.

“A man’s pride shall bring him low.” Proverbs 29:23.

Many people who leave one church in pride, will leave the next church as well.

They think that they are running away from their problems. The problems are inside them, and they carry their sins in their baggage to plague them at the next place.

56. BE FRIENDLY and YOU WILL HAVE FRIENDS.

Don’t sit back waiting for people to befriend you. Instead, you must go to people to make friends with them. Be friendly and speak to new people at church.

“A man that hath friends must show himself friendly.” Proverbs 18:24.

“Thine own friend, and thy father’s friend, forsake not.” Proverbs 27:10.

Be loyal and committed to godly Christian friends and to church.

57. CHOOSE WISE, GODLY Christians AS YOUR BEST FRIENDS.

“He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.” Proverbs 13:20.

“Go from the presence of a foolish man, when thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge.” Proverbs 14:7.

“Fools make a mock at sin.” Proverbs 14:9.

Only choose friends of those people who will make you a better Christian. Avoid those who will pull you down. We are like our friends, or we are becoming like them. You should meet wise, godly people at church.

58. DON'T LOOK AT or DRINK ALCOHOL.

Alcohol destroys millions of lives and marriages each year.

Companies produce and sell alcohol to make money, yet it costs the community more money than taxes raised. It is a deadly poison.

“Look not thou upon the wine when it is red....At the last it biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an adder. Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall utter perverse things. They have stricken me...,they have beaten me and I felt it not. I will seek it yet again.” Proverbs 23:31-35.

Notice the above five troubles that people get from alcohol. God warns us to reject alcohol..

“Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.” Proverbs 20:1. The wine that Jesus drank was non-alcoholic because it was made by adding water to a concentrate made by heating the water out of fresh grape juice (wine). This prevented fermentation. If you drink alcohol in moderation, you encourage others to drink also.

59. DON'T TAKE DRUGS eg: Marijuana, heroin, cigarettes, etc.

People mostly take drugs because their bad friends ask them to, or to experience something new, or to cope with life’s pressures.

“A fool has no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself.” Proverbs 18:2.

60. BE FILLED WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT DAILY.

How? By studying God's Word, praying, obeying God, confessing sin, etc.

"Be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit." Ephesians 5:18.

Don't be filled with self, fear or the world, but with Christ, the Holy Spirit, the Word of God and the things of God.

61. STOP LISTENING TO WRONG INFORMATION, such as evolution, immorality, pornography, rebellion, feminism, false religions, occult, astrology, rock music, complaining, self-pity, lies, Bible denying philosophy, wrong theology.

"Cease my son, to hear the instruction that causeth thee to err from the words of knowledge." Proverbs 19:27.

"The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God." Psalm 14:1.

62. PRAISE GOD continually.

This will focus our attention on God's goodness.

"By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name." Hebrews 13:15.

"Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me." Psalm 50:23.

"Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men." Psalm 107:8.

"Seven times a day do I praise thee." Psalm 119:164.

63. BE CONSTANTLY FAITHFUL.

Be faithful to God, to a good church, and to God's work all your life.

"Moreover, it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful." I Corinthians 4:2.

"Most men will proclaim every one his own goodness: but a faithful man who can find?" Proverbs 20:6.

"Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint." Proverbs 25:19.

An unfaithful man cannot be relied upon. Don't be unfaithful. If we are faithful in the small things, we'll be faithful in the big things.

"He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much." Luke 16:10.

Will Christ say to you: "Well done thou good and faithful servant?" Matthew 25:21.

64. TRAIN CHILDREN IN GOD'S WAYS.

This is done by the Word of God, and by being a godly example to them. If you don't train them correctly, they will learn wrong values from the world, school, TV, peers, etc., thus breaking your heart and bringing shame to you. "Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old, he will not depart from it." Proverbs 22:6.

"Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child; but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him." Proverbs 22:15.

"Thou shalt beat him with the rod, and shalt deliver his soul from HELL." Proverbs 23:14.

We must teach our children to live by the Bible as the right guide to living. We must discipline our children with a rod, breaking their rebellious spirit to get them to obey their parents and God before they reach age of 5 Years.

"The rod and reproof give wisdom: but a child left to himself brings his mother to shame." Proverbs 29:15.

We train children by kind instruction, the rod and by much love.

65. PRAY FOR A WISE AND GODLY WIFE OR HUSBAND.

"A prudent wife is from the Lord." Proverbs 19:14.

Most people marry someone like themselves. If you are a person of wisdom, godliness, and character, you should seek to marry someone just the same.

66. YOUNG LADIES, be a VIRTUOUS WOMAN FOR GOD.

“Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies. A woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised.” Proverbs 31:10-31.

Don't be a rebellious feminist. Seek to marry a godly husband who will be a good helper in God's work, and who will help you to raise up the next generation to be godly. God's will for young ladies is found in I Timothy 5:14,

“I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion for the adversary to speak reproachfully.”

67. FLEE FORNICATION and ADULTERY.

“Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is outside the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body.” I Corinthians 6:18.

“Whoso committeth adultery with a woman lacketh understanding: he that doeth it destroyeth his own soul.” Proverbs 6:32.

“Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.” Hebrews 13:4.

Be content to wait until marriage. Sex before marriage acts like a wedge.

When a couple live together before marriage, the man has what he wants, but the girl wants the security of marriage. She pesters him to get married.

He says, “We can't afford it now, wait until later.”

She gets angry. He resents an angry, insecure woman.

They fight. Then they split up. At age 30, they must start again to find someone suitable. It happens all the time.

68. BE GODLY IN YOUR YOUTH.

“Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not...” Ecclesiastes 12:1.

If you are godly in your youth, you establish a habit of godliness, thus making it easier to be godly all your life. Prepare yourself by Bible study, prayer and soul-winning to be a servant of God or a missionary. Have a personal sense of destiny. “Who knows whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?” Esther 4:14.

69. The LOVE OF MONEY is the ROOT OF ALL EVIL.

Money is a good servant to further the Lord's work, to help others and to purchase our needs, but it becomes a tyrannical master that can enslave our minds and rob us of time, peace, and happy relationships when we place too high a value on it. We cannot take money with us when we die, so we should be more concerned with laying up treasures in heaven. Proverbs 23:5 says that “riches certainly make themselves wings and fly away...”

God entrusts us with money to use for His purposes.

70. LAY UP TREASURES IN HEAVEN. Matthew 6:19-21.

“Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.” Colossians 3:2.

What do you love the most, earthly or heavenly things? Heavenly things last forever and are ours to keep. Earthly things are lent to us by God for a time to use for God. Jesus told about a rich fool who died and went to hell, leaving all his material possessions behind. “God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided? So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.” Luke 12:20,21.

We can lay up treasures in heaven by winning people to Christ, living by Bible truths, and by building churches. We will then be welcomed by those people into “everlasting habitations” (Luke 16:9). We will have an “abundant entrance into Christ's everlasting kingdom.” 2 Peter 1:11

Question: Are you rich toward God? Are you laying up treasures in heaven?

71. BE COURAGEOUS FOR GOD.

“The righteous are bold as a lion.” Proverbs 28:1.

“Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might.” Ecclesiastes 9:10.

Attempt great things for God. Expect great things from God.

72. IDENTIFY DANGEROUS SITUATIONS and AVOID THEM.

“A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hides himself; but the simple pass on and are punished.” Proverbs 27:12.

73. DON'T GIVE UP SERVING GOD

because people's eternal destiny is at stake. We need to rescue people from going to hell.

“Let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.” Galatians 6:9

“A just man falleth seven times, and rises up again.” Proverbs 24:16

“If thou faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is small....shall not he render to every man according to his works?” Proverbs 24:10-12.

Keep serving God in the one place all your life because you will build up a wide range of contacts. You will have a strong home base church to reach the world. Trouble is sure to come and the devil wants you to quit, but don't.

“Therefore, my beloved brethern, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.” I Corinthians 15:58. Claim this promise when you feel like giving up. Something good may be just around the corner. If you give up, you'll miss all the good future blessings. Remember and appreciate the good past blessings. If you quit, you'll discourage others so they may quit. God will be displeased. If you persevere, you'll encourage others to persevere. God's work will then progress.

74. WHERE THERE IS NO VISION, the PEOPLE PERISH. Proverbs 29:18.

Have a vision of the great plans and opportunities that God has for your life. Attempt great things for God. You only get one chance at this life to win souls for Christ. Don't waste your life by living for self and sin, but fully yield and surrender your WILL to follow God's plans for your life to win and teach people for Christ.

Telling people how to be saved is something that we cannot do in heaven. Get a vision of winning many people to Christ, and starting many churches all over the world. Otherwise, you'll perish by getting sidetracked into something useless for God and of no eternal value.

75. DON'T HARDEN YOUR HEART AGAINST GOD and YOUR PASTOR.

“He that hardens his heart shall fall into mischief.” Proverbs 28:14.

“He that being often reprov'd, hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.” Proverbs 29:1.

Many teens and adults learn some Bible, then they think that they know it all. They proudly despise and reject older and wiser Christians and their Pastor. They harden their hearts against God, then they fall into deep sin, sorrow and discipline. Don't you be one of these.

76. DON'T LEAVE the PLACE OF SPIRITUAL BLESSING: A GOOD CHURCH.

Abraham went to Bethel (House of God), the place of blessing. (Genesis 12:7-13:4). When a famine came, he went down to Egypt (v.11), a type of the world. While in Egypt, Pharaoh wanted to take Abraham's wife Sarai, except the Lord plagued Pharaoh's house. Pharaoh then rebuked Abraham for lying that Sarai was his sister. Then Abraham returned to Bethel.

Lesson: The devil will always try to get you to leave a good church (Bethel) against the pastor's advice. He will tempt you to go somewhere else, so that he can get you away from spiritual blessings. Be content, stay where you are, even if you feel you are going through a famine as Abraham did. Learn to be committed to your church. If you leave, something much worse than a famine can happen, and often does. For example, marrying a wrong person, getting into a church teaching error, etc. Jacob went to Egypt in a famine, and put 2 million descendants into bondage.

77. DON'T BE LIKE CHILDREN

Tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine. Unbiblical religious people will lie in wait to deceive you by fraud, and by cunning craftiness of false doctrines. Ephesians 4:14.

78. BEWARE OF WOLVES IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING.

One of Satan's first and favourite attacks on young Christians is to deceive and confuse them by religious wolves.

a) Jesus warned against wolves: "Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits." Matthew 7:15,16.

b) Paul warned against wolves: "For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them. Therefore, watch & remember" Act 20:29-31

Stay loyal to the pastor and people who led you to Christ. Wolves will criticize the pastor to you to seduce you away from the under-shepherd.

79. BE LOYAL

When godly people help you, be loyal to them, your church, your pastor, God, your parents, and to the work of God. Don't be like a grasshopper, hopping from church to church. Be stable, committed and loyal. Remember the good that godly people have done to you. "Whoso rewardeth evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house." Proverbs 17:13.

80. WHAT YOU SOW, YOU WILL SURELY REAP.

"Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting." Galatians 6:7,8.

When you are tempted to sin, or to reject a Godly person, remember that when you sin against someone, then someone else will do a similar sin against you. For example, David murdered Uriah and committed adultery with Bathsheba. He reaped the bad consequences of four of his sons being murdered, his daughter being raped, and his wives being sexually violated. If you sow good, you reap good. If you sow evil, you will reap evil.

81. The purpose of life is USEFULNESS to God and others.

So many people are bored in life because they are living for themselves. These are selfish people. The aim of life is usefulness, not pleasure. Self discipline is necessary to achieve things for Christ in this life. Most young people think that the purpose of life is to live for pleasure, themselves and entertainment. Young people must quickly learn self discipline to study the Bible, to win souls to Christ, to do follow up, to resist temptation and to be committed to church as it seeks to win the world for Christ. "It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth." Lam. 3:27.

82. GOD IS ABLE TO DO EXCEEDING ABUNDANTLY ABOVE ALL THAT WE ASK or THINK. Ephesians 3:20.

When concerned, let us persevere serving God, because when we give God complete control of our lives, God can do exceeding, abundantly above all that we ask or think. Have faith to step out and do things for God. He will pleasantly surprise you by the great end results.

83. CHILDREN OBEY YOUR PARENTS in the Lord, because:

- i) It is right,
- ii) That it may be well with thee,
- iii) That you may live long on the earth. Ephesians 6:1-3.

84. SUBMITTING YOURSELVES ONE TO ANOTHER, in the fear of the Lord. Ephesians 5:21

This is the key to a happy marriage:

- i) Wives duty: Wives submit yourselves unto your own husbands as unto the Lord. Eph. 5:22.
- ii) Husbands duty: Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church and gave himself for it. Ephesians 5:25.

85. PUT ON THE WHOLE ARMOUR OF GOD, that you may be able to stand against the devil's devices. We are in an intense spiritual warfare between God's kingdom and Satan's kingdom over the souls of men going to heaven or hell. We must stand and put on the armour of:

- i) Truth around our waist,
- ii) Righteousness as our breastplate,
- iii) Gospel of peace on our feet,
- iv) Shield of faith to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked,
- v) Salvation assurance as a helmet,
- vi) Word of God as the sword of the Spirit,
- vii) Praying always,
- viii) Watching for all saints. Ephesians 6:10-18.

Many people get saved, but through disobedience and carelessness they don't put on the whole armour of God. They soon become defeated, and waste their lives for God.

86. HOW TO HAVE VICTORY OVER SIN and TEMPTATION.

- 1) Know that our old man (old nature) is crucified with Christ. Romans 6:6.
- 2) Reckon ourselves to be dead to sin, but alive to God.
- 3) Yield our members as servants to righteousness unto holiness. Romans 6:19.
- 4) Resist the devil and he will flee from you. James 4:7.

87. COMFORT.

"We know that all things work together for good to them that love God..." Romans 8:28.

"If God be for us, who can be against us?" Romans 8:31.

"I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory that shall be revealed in us." Romans 8:18.

"He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?" Romans 8:32.

Nothing "shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord." Romans 8:39.

88. SIX STEPS TO PEOPLE GETTING SAVED are:

1. one is SENT,
2. one PREACHES the gospel,
3. people HEAR,
4. people BELIEVE,
5. people CALL on the name of the Lord to save them,
6. people are SAVED. Romans 10:13-15.

"How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace."

"Faith cometh by hearing and hearing by the word of God." Romans 10:17

89. GIVE JESUS CHRIST FULL CONTROL of YOUR LIFE.

"Present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service." Romans 12:1.

"My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways." Proverbs 23:26.

Put Jesus Christ in the driver's seat of your life, letting him take you where He wishes.

90. RENEW and TRANSFORM your MIND by the WORD of GOD.

"Be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God." Romans 12:2.

All your life up until salvation, you may have taken in worldly, wrong values. Be willing to let the Bible transform your mind by saturating your thinking with God's thoughts. Reject all wrong thinking. Find and fulfil God's will for your life by letting the Bible transform your mind.

91. USE YOUR SPIRITUAL GIFTS, that Christ gave you at salvation to build up your church.

The 11 permanent gifts are:

1. Evangelist (Ephesians 4:11) - ability to lead sinners to Christ, and teach and motivate Christians to share the Gospel.
2. Pastor/Teacher (Ephesians 4:11) - preach, teach, feed and lead Christians.
3. Teachers (I Corinthians 12:28) - ability to communicate and clarify Bible doctrines.
4. Helps or ministering (I Corinthians 12:28; Romans 12:7) - giving practical assistance.
5. Rule or governments (I Corinthians 12:28; Romans 12:8) - organize, administer, and promote people or projects with diligence.
6. Mercy (Romans 12:8) - helping sick or suffering people in a cheerful manner.
7. Exhortation (Romans 12:8) - ability to give challenging, encouraging words. Stay for exhortation after the church service.
8. Giving (Romans 12:8) - ability to accumulate and give large sums of money to further God's work. Give simply.
9. Wisdom (I Corinthians 12:8) - ability to rightly apply human and divine knowledge.
10. Spirit Discernment (I Corinthians 12:10) - ability to distinguish between demonic, human and divine works.
11. Faith (I Corinthians 12:9) - ability to believe and expect great things from God.

The 7 temporary gifts ceased in the first century. These are Apostles, prophecy, miracles, healing, knowledge, tongues, and interpretation of tongues. "Confirming the word with signs following." Mark 16:20. Once the N.T. word was confirmed by signs, then sign gifts were no longer needed.

92. WE MUST ALL APPEAR before the JUDGMENT SEAT OF CHRIST. Romans 14:10; 2 Corinthians 5:10. "So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God." Romans 14:12. Believers will either be rewarded if our life's work for Christ abides to eternity, or we will suffer loss if we don't serve Christ. I Corinthians 3:11-15.

"...every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour." I Corinthians 3:8.

"And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men; Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ. But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons." Colossians 3:23-25.

93. UNREPENTED SIN SPREADS THROUGH A CHURCH, like leaven (yeast), then God judges the sin.

"Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump..." I Corinthians 5:6,7.

Many churches are destroyed by tolerating sin. God hates sin and so must we.

Don't keep company or eat meals with anyone that is called a brother if he continues unrepenting in the sins of: i) fornication ii) covetous iii) idolater iv) railer (cursing, abusive), v) drunkard vi) extortioner.

"Do not ye judge them that are within (the church)? But them that are outside God judges. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person." I Corinthians 5:11-13.

94. MEN HAVE SHORT HAIR. Don't follow worldly fashions.

"Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him? But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her." I Corinthians 11:14,15.

Men must look different to women. Demons in Revelation 9:8 have long hair.

95. The WILDERNESS GENERATION that sinned teaches us that:

- i) we should not lust after evil things,
- ii) neither be idolaters,
- iii) neither let us commit fornication,
- iv) neither let us tempt Christ,
- v) neither murmur ye. I Corinthians 10:1-12.

96. LIVE the FAITH-REST LIFE.

The wilderness generation failed to enter the promised land because they refused to believe God's promises.

"Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.....the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it. For we which have believed do enter into rest....Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest...." Hebrews 4:1,2,3,11.

When faced with difficulties we can either trust God, or blame God. We should rest in God's promises for victory, knowing that God is in control.

97. PREACH the GOSPEL.

"Woe is unto me if I preach not the Gospel." I Corinthians 9:16.

"Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." Matthew 4:19.

"....preach the gospel in the regions beyond you..." II Corinthians 10:16.

If we don't preach the gospel, people will go to hell.

98. GOD PERMITS HERESIES in churches, to see who is approved and who is disapproved.

Those who stand up for the truth are approved by God. Those who believe the false doctrine are disapproved by God. Whenever a conflict arises in your church it is a test to see if you have the courage to take the side of truth.

"For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you." I Corinthians 11:19.

99. EACH LOCAL CHURCH is like a BODY, that needs each member to work together to pull their load, so that the Lord's work gets done. Therefore, let us co-operate, loyally maintaining unity in our church work. I Corinthians 12:12-27

100. LORD'S SUPPER GUIDELINES. I Corinthians 11:23-34.

1. The bread (unleavened) reminds us of Christ's body that was broken for us. v.24.
2. The grapejuice (non-alcoholic) reminds us of Christ's blood shed for our sins. v.25.
3. We do it in remembrance of Jesus Christ. v.25.
4. It shows the Lord's death till He come. v.26.
5. We must first examine ourselves, then confess any sin before taking the Lord's supper.v.28.
6. We must judge our sins, or God will judge us with sickness or death. v.29-34.

101. 4 COMMANDS IN I Corinthians 10:31-33.

- i) "whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God." v.31.
- ii) "Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the Church of God." v.32.
- iii) "....not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved." v.33.
- iv) "Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ." 11:1.

102. 8 REGULATIONS FOR THE GIFT OF TONGUES:

Tongues are:

- i) A sign, not for believers, but to unbelievers. I Corinthians 14:22.
 - ii) God promised to use tongues to warn the Jews to repent. v.21.
 - iii) Gentiles, unbelievers, and those unlearned in the Old Testament think you are mad if you speak in tongues. 14:23.
 - iv) Only 2 or 3 should speak in tongues in the church in the first century. 14:27.
 - v) They should speak by course, meaning one after the other. 14:27.
 - vi) Let one interpret, otherwise keep quiet. 14:27,28.
 - vii) Women should not speak in tongues in church. 14:34.
 - viii) Don't pray in tongues, because "understanding is unfruitful." 14:14,15.
 - ix) A childish gift, only for the childhood days of the church before it left Judaism in 70AD.13:11
- Since the Jews ignored the tongues warning to repent, God judged them by the Roman army destroying Jerusalem in 70 AD. Tongues then ceased, and are not applicable today.

- 103. NOW ABIDETH FAITH, HOPE and CHARITY, THESE THREE. I Corinthians 13:13. Faith, hope and love are permanent in the Church Age. Prophecy, tongues and knowledge (of God's will before the full Bible was completed) were temporary gifts in the church age, each passing away in the first century. Any people giving "new revelations" not contained in the Bible are false prophets giving false prophecies. Revelation 22:18.
- 104. The GOSPEL that Paul preached is that:
- i) Christ died for our sins,
 - ii) Christ was buried,
 - iii) Christ rose again the third day. I Corinthians 15:1-4.
- 105. TAKE EVERY OPPORTUNITY TO SERVE GOD.
 "For a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries." I Cor. 16:9.
- 106. REJECT SATAN'S DEVICES and RESIST the DEVIL.
- i) "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices." II Corinthians 2:11.
 - ii) Submit yourselves to God. eg. church, Bible study and prayer.
 - iii) "Resist the devil and he will flee from you.
 - iv) Draw near to God, and He will draw near to you." James 4:7,8; I Peter 5:8,9.
 Use these 4 tactics to defeat Satan's attacks on us. See p.334.
- 107. WHEN BELIEVERS DIE, we ENTER HEAVEN.
 "We are confident and willing....to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord" (in heaven). II Corinthians 5:8.
 "Them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with Him." I Thessalonians 4:14.
 "For I am in a straight betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and TO BE WITH CHRIST..."
 Philippians 1:23.
 "Wherefore, seeing we also are surrounded by so great a cloud of WITNESSES." Hebrews 12:1.
 Dead believer's souls in heaven witness our life on earth, not in soul sleep.
 "...the heavenly Jerusalem....to the SPIRITS of just men made perfect." Hebrews 12:22,23.
 "I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God..." Revelation 6:9.
 "To an inheritance, incorruptible, undefiled..... reserved in heaven for you." I Peter 1:4.
 "The LORD my God shall come, and all the saints with thee." Zechariah 14:5. Come from where?
 Use these verses with Jehovah's Witnesses, SDA's and Christadelphians.
- 108. REASONS FOR SERVING GOD and WINNING SOULS.
1. We labour, that,....we may be accepted of him. II Corinthians 5:9.
 2. We must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. 5:10.
 3. Knowing the terror of the Lord, we persuade men. 5:11.
 4. The love of Christ constrains us. 5:14.
 5. He died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them and rose again. 5:15.
 6. People become new creatures in Christ. 5:17.
 7. God has given us the ministry and word of reconciliation. 5:18,19.
 8. We are ambassadors for Christ. 5:20.
- 109. FIVE CROWNS for FAITHFUL BELIEVERS.
1. Incorruptible crown – for those who master the old nature. I Corinthians 9:25-27.
 2. Crown of Rejoicing – for those who win people to Christ. I Thessalonians 2:19,20.
 3. Crown of Life – for those who endure temptation. James 1:12; Revelation 2:10.
 4. Crown of Righteousness -for those who love Christ's appearing (rapture). II Timothy 4:8.
 5. Crown of Glory - for faithful pastors. I Peter 5:2-4.

110. DO NOT MARRY AN UNBELIEVER.

“Be not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship has righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion has light with darkness? II Corinthians 6:14.

Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you. II Corinthians 6:17. Don’t mix with worldly things, or enter a long term business partnership with unbelievers or marry an unbeliever. Don’t work with Christians in outreach who don’t hold the doctrine of Christ. Hebrews 6:1,2.

111. SEEK PEACE IN YOUR CHURCH.

“I fear lest, when I come,....there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings (pride), tumults, ...uncleanness, fornication, lasciviousness.” II Corinthians 12:20. If Christians in a church fight each other, they will not be winning people to Christ. Christians who quit soul-winning and quit fighting the devil, often fight each other.

112. BEWARE of those coming to you preaching.

1. Another Jesus whom we have not preached,
2. If ye receive another Spirit, which ye have not received,
3. Another Gospel, which ye have not accepted. II Corinthians 11:4.

Beware of “false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness.” II Corinthians 11:13-15.

“If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.” Galatians 1:9.

113. DON’T BE MEN PLEASERS, but be a GOD PLEASER.

“If I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.” Galatians 1:10.

“We ought to obey God rather than men.” Acts 5:29.

They (chief rulers who believed), because of the Pharisees did not confess Jesus, lest they should be put out of the synagogue: For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.” John 12:42,43. Always do what is right in God’s eyes.

114. WE ARE NOT SAVED BY OUR GOOD WORKS.....

or in keeping the Law, or by baptism, or by sacraments, etc, but by FAITH in CHRIST as SAVIOUR. “Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ...not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.”

Galatians 2:16. Good works never cancel bad works.

“If righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.” Galatians 2:21.

“For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast. For we are his workmanship created in Christ Jesus unto GOOD WORKS’ Ephesians 2:8,9,10. The law sees what we do wrong. It does not care what we do right.

115. WALK IN THE SPIRIT, and ye shall not fulfil the lusts of the flesh. Galatians 5:16.

This means to be continually filled with the Holy Spirit. Ephesians 5:18.

- The works of the flesh are:
Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellingsthey which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.
- But the fruit of the Spirit is:
Love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance. Galatians 5:19-23.

116. WALK WORTHY. Ephesians 4:1-6:24. How?

1. Lowliness, meekness, longsuffering, forbearing one another in love, keep the unity of the Spirit. 4:2,3.
2. Evangelists, Pastors/teachers use your gifts to:
 - a) Perfect the saints.
 - b) Do the work of the ministry.
 - c) Edify the body of Christ. 4:11-13.
3. Don't be like children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine. 4:14.
4. Speak the truth in love, that you may grow up... 4:15.
5. Walk not as other Gentiles walk in their vain mind, having darkened understanding, ignorant, blind hearts, being past feeling, given to lasciviousness (continuous evil thoughts), uncleanness, greediness. 4:17-19.
6. Put off the former conversation of the old man. 4:22.
7. Be renewed in the spirit of your mind. 4:23.
8. Put on the new man, created in righteousness and holiness. 4:24.
9. Put away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour. 4:25.
10. Be angry and sin not. 4:26.
11. Don't give place to the devil. 4:27.
12. Steal no more, but labour to give to needy people. 4:28.
13. Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but speak good edifying words. 4:29.
14. Grieve not the Holy Spirit of God. 4:30.
15. Put away all bitterness, wrath, anger, clamour, evil speaking and malice. 4:31.
16. Be kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you. 4:32.
17. Be followers of God. 5:1.
18. Walk in love. 5:2.
19. Let not fornication, uncleanness, covetousness, filthiness, foolish talking, jesting be once named among you. 5:3,4.
20. Walk as children of light. 5:8.
21. Prove what is acceptable to the Lord. 5:10.
22. Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. 5:11.
23. Walk circumspectly (cautious, prudent, discreet) wisely. 5:15.
24. Redeeming the time, because the days are evil. 5:16.
25. Understand what the will of the Lord is. 5:17.
26. Be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit. 5:18.
27. Sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs in melody to the Lord. 5:19.
28. Giving thanks always for all things unto God. 5:20.
29. Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God. 5:21.
30. Wives submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as to the Lord. 5:22.
31. Husbands love your wives, even as Christ loved the church, and gave himself for it. 5:25.
32. Children obey your parents in the Lord. 6:1.
33. Fathers provoke not your children to wrath. 6:4.
34. Servants obey your masters, ... as unto Christ. 6:5.
35. Masters forbear threatening. 6:9.
36. Be strong in the Lord. 6:10.
37. Put on the whole armour of God, to stand against the wiles of the devil. 6:11
38. Pray always. 6:18.
39. Watch with all perseverance and supplication for all saints. 6:18.

117. DON'T COMMIT SUICIDE.

“To abide in the flesh is more needful for you.” Philippians 1:24.

God has given us the gift of life. We must use our life for Christ and others. We must win souls to Christ and teach Christians. It is the Devil's voice telling you to suicide. Reject his words.

Suicide is very selfish. Care about serving God and helping others. Most problems are short lived. If you wait a while, the problem tempting you to suicide will soon be forgotten. If you suicide, you will miss all the good things in the future.

118. EXPECT SUFFERING.

“For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake.” Philippians 1:29.

“We must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.” Acts 14:22.

“Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.” II Timothy 3:12.

“That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed thereunto.” I Thessalonians 3:3.

119. DON'T BE SELFISH, but CARING and HELPING OTHERS. Philippians 2:20,21,4.

“I have no man likeminded, who will naturally care for your state.” v.20.

“For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.” v.21.

Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.” v.4.

Selfish people complain, find faults and think little of others. If we are selfish, other believers have to work harder, “to supply your lack of service toward me.” Philippians 2:30.

120. FORGET THE BAD PAST EVENTS. You can't change them.

“This one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize...” Philippians 3:13,14.

Many psychiatrists try to delve back into your past to make you relive or resolve past bad situations. This is wrong. Learn lessons from past mistakes and sins, don't dwell on them, but press toward and work for the future prize in heaven.

121. REJOICE IN THE LORD ALWAYS. Philippians 4:4.

Look on the bright side. Be an optimistic, rejoicing Christian.

122. THINK ON EIGHT KINDS OF THINGS.

Whatsoever things are true, honest, just, pure, lovely, good report, virtue, and praise, think on these things.” Philippians 4:8.

Don't look at bad movies, bad books, or anything against these 8 values.

123. BE CONTENT with what God sends your way. Philippians 4:11,12,13,19.

“Godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. And having food and clothing let us be therewith content. They that will be rich fall into temptation, and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts....For the love of money is the root of all evil.....But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.” I Timothy 6:6-11.

- “Not that I speak in respect to want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content. v.11.
- I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: everywhere and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. v.12.
- I can do all things through Christ which strengthens me.” v.13.
- My God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.” v.19.

124. CHRIST DEFEATED ALL SATAN'S ANGELS and POWERS at his death and resurrection. Let us not fear the devil, but fear God.

“Having spoiled principalities and powers.” Colossians 2:15.

125. DON'T TOLERATE EVIL and SIN, but REBUKE IT.

“Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus.” Colossians 1:28.

Of all errors, toleration is the most dangerous and will damn many people to hell. Other errors only overturn one truth, but by toleration of sin and false doctrine, way is made to overturn all the truths in scripture. “Warn them that are unruly.” I Thessalonians 5:14.

Toleration sets up all errors opposite to truth. People who tolerate errors, will not tolerate believers who are intolerant of errors. They think we are narrow-minded or legalist. This sin of toleration becomes the open door to all false doctrines.

126. BEWARE.

- 1 Lest thou forget the Lord, which brought thee...out of bondage. Deuteronomy 6:12.
- 2 Beware that thou forget not the Lord thy God, in not keeping his commandments... Deuteronomy 8:11.
3. Beware of the Lord disciplining us. “Smite a scorner, and the simple will beware.” Proverbs 19:25.
4. Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Matthew 7:15.
5. Beware of men: for they will deliver you up to councils. Matthew 10:17.
6. Beware of the leaven of false doctrine. Matthew 16:12.
7. Beware of the scribes, which love to go in long clothing,.....loveth the chief seats,.....which devour widow’s houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater damnation.” Mark 12:38-40.
8. Beware of covetousness: for a man’s life consists not in the abundance of things which he possesses. Luke 12:15.
9. Beware of dogs (outside) beware of evil workers (inside), beware of the concision (legalism). Philippians 3:2.
10. Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men (Roman Catholic Church), after the rudiments of the world,and not after Christ.Coloss2:8

127. FULFIL YOUR MINISTRY.

“And say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it.” Colossians 4:17. We all have been given a ministry that God wants us to fulfil.

We must not be lazy, sidetracked, fall into sin or give up. Fulfil God’s plans for your life. Start doing something for God today. Don’t waste your life on things of no eternal value. Have a sense of destiny, of the importance of your life for eternity, for souls and for Jesus Christ .

128. 14 CHARACTERISTICS of a DISCIPLE - MAKER. I Thessalonians 2.

1. We were bold to speak the Gospel, with much contention. v.2.
- 2 Our exhortation was not of deceit, uncleanness or guile. v.3.
- 3 We speak; not as pleasing men, but pleasing God. v.4.
- 4 We never used flattering words, nor a cloke of covetousness. v.5.
5. We never sought glory of men. v.6.
6. We were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherishes her children. v.7.
7. We affectionately desired you, imparting to you our own souls. v.8.
- 8 We laboured and travailed night and day, so as not to charge you. v.9.
- 9 We behaved ourselves to believers holy, justly and unblameably. v.10.
10. We exhorted, comforted and charged every one of you, as a father does his children, that ye would walk worthy of God. v.11.
11. We thank God that ye received the Word of God as God’s Word. v.13.
12. Ye became followers of the churches of God in Judea. v.14.
13. We endeavoured to see your face with great desire. v.17.
14. Ye are our hope, glory, joy, our crown of rejoicing at Christ’s coming. v.19.

129. FIVE BENEFITS OF SUFFERING.

“ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen.” I Thessalonians 2:14.

1. It proves the reality of our faith. It weeds out mere professors. I Peter 1:7.
2. It enables us to comfort and encourage others who are going through trials. 2 Corinthian 1:4
3. It develops character eg: patience. Romans 5:3.
4. It makes us more zealous in spreading the Gospel. Acts 8:3,4.
5. It helps remove the dross from our lives. Job 23:10.
6. It proves our love for Christ, as we patiently endure suffering.

130. SEVEN EVENTS OF the RAPTURE I Thessalonians 4:13-18.

1. Them also which sleep in Jesus will God (the Son) bring with Him. 4:14.
Christ who is God will bring dead believers spirits and souls with Him.
2. The Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet of God. 4:16.
3. The dead in Christ shall rise first. 4:16.
4. We which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds. 4:17.
5. We will meet the Lord in the air. 4:17.
6. So shall we ever be with the Lord. 4:17.
7. Comfort one another with these words. 4:18.

131. WE ARE MADE UP OF SPIRIT, SOUL and BODY. I Thessalonians 5:23.

132. ANTICHRIST SHALL COME after BELIEVERS are CAUGHT UP. II Thess. 2:1-12.

133. MEN, GET A JOB, DON'T BE LAZY: “If any would not work, neither should he eat.” 2 Thess. 3:10.

134. EXHORTATIONS. I Thessalonians 5:11-26.

- | | |
|-------------------------------|---|
| 1. Comfort yourselves | 11. Rejoice evermore |
| 2. Edify one another | 12. Pray without ceasing |
| 3. Esteem Pastors very highly | 13. In everything give thanks |
| 4. Be at peace | 14. Quench not the Spirit |
| 5. Warn the unruly | 15. Despise not prophesyings |
| 6. Comfort the feebleminded | 16. Prove all things |
| 7. Support the weak | 17. Hold fast to that which is good |
| 8. Be patient to all men | 18. Abstain from all appearance of evil |
| 9. Don't render evil for evil | 19. Brethren, pray for us |
| 10. Ever follow what is good | 20. Greet all the brethren. |

135. WITHDRAW YOURSELVES FROM EVERY BROTHER walking DISORDERLY, who walks not after the traditions received from the apostles. II Thessalonians 3:6.

“If any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.” 3:14.

“Mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned;& avoid them. By good words & fair speeches they deceive the hearts of the simple” Rom.16:17-18

“Cast out the scorner, and contention shall go out; yea strife and reproach shall cease.” Prov. 22:10
“....an abomination unto him,....he that soweth discord among the brethren.” Proverbs 6:19.

136. FAITHFUL SAYINGS.

1. Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. I Timothy 1:15.
2. If any man desire the office of a bishop, he desires a good work. 3:1
3. Bodily exercise profits little, but godliness is profitable to all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. 4:9.
4. If we be dead with him, we shall also live with him. If we suffer with him, we shall also reign with him. If we deny him, he also will deny us. If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself. II Timothy 2:11-13.
5. They which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. Titus 3:8.

137. INSTRUCTIONS FOR WOMEN.

1. Women adorn themselves in modest clothing, with reverence and sobriety. I Timothy 2:9.
2. I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence. 12
Women must not teach men in spiritual things, nor be pastors because:
 - i) Adam was first formed. 2:13
 - ii) Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression. 2:14.
3. I will that the younger women: I Timothy 5:14.
 - i) Marry.
 - ii) Bear children.
 - iii) Guide the house.
 - iv) Give no occasion for the enemy to speak reproachfully.
4. She shall be saved from a purposeless life by childbearing if she continues in faith, charity, holiness, sobriety. I Timothy 2:15.
5. Aged women be holy, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teach young women to:
 - i) be sober.
 - ii) love their husbands.
 - iii) love their children.
 - iv) be discreet.
 - v) be chaste.
 - vi) keepers at home (“keep” means “to guard”)
 - vii) good.
 - viii) obedient to their own husbands. Titus 2:3-5.
6. Be in subjection to your own husbands. I Peter 3:1.
Have chaste conversation (pure life), and fear (reverence). v.2.
7. Have a meek and quiet spirit, of great price in God’s sight. Christian wives should not think of outer attire as the source of genuine beauty. I Peter 3:3-6.
8. Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but to be under obedience...It is a shame for women to speak in the church. I Cor. 14:34,35.
9. Help men in Christian work: ‘Women which laboured with me in the gospel.’ Phillipian 4:3

138. INSTRUCTIONS FOR MEN. Genesis 18:19.

1. God will have all men to be saved, and come to the knowledge of the truth. I Timothy 2:4.
2. I will that men pray everywhere, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting. 2:8.
3. Rebuke not an elder, but entreat him as a father. 5:1.
4. If any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he has denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel. 5:8.
5. Be an example of believers in word, conversation, charity, spirit, faith, purity. 4:12.
6. Give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. 4:13.
7. Meditate upon these things, give thyself wholly to them, that thy profiting may appear to all. 4:15.
8. Take heed to thyself, and to doctrine. Continue in them. 4:16.
9. Thou, man of God, flee these things (love of money), but follow righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. 6:11.
10. Fight the good fight of faith. War a good warfare. 6:12.
11. Avoid oppositions of science falsely so called. 6:20.
12. Aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience. Titus 2:2.
13. Young men be -sober minded, -a pattern of good works in all things, -uncorrupt doctrine, -grave, -sincere, -sound speech that cannot be condemned, so no one has any evil to say about you. Titus 2:6-8.
14. So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. Ephesians 5:28.
15. Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong. I Corinthians 16:13.
16. Ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. I Peter 5:5.

17. Young men, when you know some Bible, you are still a novice. You may be lifted up with pride, then you may fall into condemnation of the devil. I Timothy 3:6.
Many young men get proud, think they are smarter than their pastor and older Christians, then leave church, then fall, then backslide, often into deep sin. Beware of pride.

139. QUALIFICATIONS FOR A PASTOR/BISHOP/ELDER.

If you want to be a Pastor you must meet these qualifications:

I Timothy 3:1-7.

1. Blameless.
2. Husband of one wife.
3. Vigilant.
4. Sober.
5. Good behaviour.
6. Given to hospitality.
7. Apt to teach.
8. Not given to wine.
9. No striker.
10. Not greedy of money.
11. Patient.
12. Not a brawler.
13. Not covetous.
14. Ruling well his own house.
15. Having his children in subjection
16. Not a novice.
17. He must have a good report of outsiders
18. Let elders that rule well have double honour. I Timothy 5:17.
19. Labour in the word and doctrine.
20. Given continually to prayer and ministry of the word. Acts 6:4.
21. Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear. I Timothy 5:20.
22. Do nothing by partiality. Don't prefer one before another. I Timothy 5:21.
23. Lay hands suddenly on no man, (don't ordain men without proper investigation).
If they sin, you become a partaker of their sins. Keep thyself pure. I Timothy 5:22.
24. Put people in remembrance of words of faith and good doctrine. I Timothy 4:6.
25. Exercise thyself unto godliness. I Timothy 4:7.
26. Withdraw yourself from false teachers. I Timothy 6:3-6.
27. Able by sound doctrine to exhort and convince gainsayers. Titus 1:9.
28. Be a teacher: speak the things which become sound doctrine. Titus 2:1.
29. Speak, exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Titus 2:15.
30. Remind people to be subject to powers, to obey magistrates, be ready to every good work, speak evil of no man, be no brawlers, gentle, show all meekness to all men. Titus 3:1,2.
31. Preach the word. II Timothy 4:2-7.
32. Be instant in season, out of season.
33. Reprove.
34. Rebuke.
35. Exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine.
36. Endure afflictions.
37. Do the work of an evangelist.
38. Make full proof of thy ministry.
39. Fight the good fight of faith, finish your course, keep the faith.
40. Feed the flock of God means to feed, care, lead, guide and protect. I Peter 5:1-3.
41. Take the oversight (episkopos means "bishop rule") not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre (corrupt money), but of a ready mind.
42. Don't be a lord over God's heritage.
43. Be examples to the flock.

Titus 1:5-9.

1. Blameless.
2. Husband of one wife.
3. Watch in all things. II Timothy 4:5.
4. Sober.
5. Not soon angry.
6. Lover of hospitality.
7. Holding fast the faithful word.
8. Not given to wine.
9. No striker.
10. Not given to money.
13. Not self-willed (arrogant).
14. Having faithful children not accused of riot or unruly.
15. Lover of good men.
16. Just.
17. Holy.

140. QUALIFICATION OF DEACONS. I Timothy 3:8-10.

If a man does not meet all of these qualifications he should not apply to be a deacon, nor should a pastor appoint him as a deacon. He will cause problems.

Who ordains new pastors? Existing pastors. Titus 1:5.

Who appoints deacons? The existing pastor, because the deacon's job is to be a servant to the pastor, and the pastor must feel that he can work with his deacons.

A deacon has no ruling authority in a New Testament Church.

A pastor does have authority.

A pastor may dismiss a deacon at anytime if the deacon fails to meet these qualifications:

1. Grave.
2. Not double-tongued (that is, saying something to one person, and denying it to another).
3. Not given to much wine.
4. Not greedy of money.
5. Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. This means having sound doctrine and a good pure life.
6. Let them first be proved.
7. Let them use the office of a deacon (that is, do the work).
8. Being found blameless.
9. Honest.
10. Full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom. Acts. 6:3.
11. Husband of one wife. I Timothy 3:12.
12. Rule their children and their own houses well.
13. Deacon's wives must be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things. I Timothy 3:11.

If a deacon thinks that he no longer meets these qualifications he should resign as a deacon.

Sins of Deacons: 1) Wanting to take over the church. In order to do so they must remove the Pastor. They try to do this by slandering him to the people so they will take the deacon's side.

2) Weak, disloyal deacons sometimes take the side of wolves who lead a rebellion against the Pastor. When the Pastor stands his ground, they leave the church, often joining a liberal, apostate, non soul winning, dead, social church. They will try to take as many simple, ungrateful people with them who forget all the good the Pastor has done for them.

3) Slandering the Pastor to the Youth group, and taking the youth group off to start a church.

If a deacon wants to start a church, do so with the soul winning Pastor's permission and blessing.

4) Allowing people to play deacon off against the Pastor. Taking people's side against the pastor without bringing the matter to the Pastor. (Hebrews 13:7,17,24.

5) Thinking he has authority, when no Scripture gives him any authority. Pastor has the authority.

141. SIGNS OF FALSE TEACHERS - AVOID THEM.

Some shall depart from the faith or sound doctrine:

1. Giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils.
2. Speaking lies in hypocrisy.
3. Having their conscience seared with a hot iron.
4. Forbidding to marry.
5. Commanding to abstain from meats. I Timothy 4:1-5.
6. Consent not to the words of the Lord Jesus Christ and godly doctrine.
7. Speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them. Acts 20:30.
8. A man that is an heretic after the first and second admonition reject. Titus 3:10.
9. Hardened hearts: "Today if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts." Hebrews 3:7.
10. They don't hold the Doctrine of Christ. Hebrews 6:1,2.
11. They stumble at Christ "the rock of offence", His Deity, being disobedient. I Peter 2:8.
12. They privily (quietly) bring in damnable heresies. II Peter 2:1.
13. Many shall follow their pernicious ways. II Peter 2:2.
14. The way of truth is evil spoken of. II Peter 2:2.
15. They speak evil of things they understand not. II Peter 2:12.

16. They beguile unstable souls. They seduce unwary, unsteadfast souls. II Peter 2:14.
17. They wrest, twist, distort scriptures that are hard to understand. II Peter 3:16.
18. They confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. II John 7.
19. They despise dominion (authority). Jude 8.
20. They are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts. Jude 16.
21. They separate themselves from brethren and from truth. Jude 19.
22. They have not the Holy Spirit. Jude 19.

142. TEN PICTURES OF AN IDEAL CHRISTIAN. II Timothy 2:1-26.

1. Son (2:1). Be strong in grace.
2. Steward (2:2). In the New Testament a steward was entrusted with the profitable running of his master's estate. We must pass on Bible doctrine to faithful men who shall be able to teach others also. Paul taught Timothy, who taught faithful men, who taught others.
3. Soldier (2:3,4).
 - i) Endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.
 - ii) Don't get entangled with worldly affairs.
 - iii) Please Christ who has chosen us to be a soldier.
4. Athlete (2:5).
 - i) We must strive for masteries and rewards.
 - ii) We must strive lawfully, live by the rules, then we are crowned in heaven.
5. Farmer (2:6,7).
 - i) We must labour hard to sow.
 - ii) We will then enjoy reaping the fruits.
6. Teacher (2:11-14).
Put people in remembrance that:
 - i) To die with Christ is to live for Christ. (2:11).
 - ii) To suffer for Christ now is to reign with Christ later. (2:12).
7. Study to be a Skilled Workman (2:15,16,17).
As a student we must:
 - i) Study the Word of God to be an approved workman to God.
 - ii) be "unashamed before men."
8. Vessel. Vessel of gold or silver, prepared for honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, prepared for every good work. (2:20,21).
9. Follower (2:22,23).
 - i) Follow righteousness, faith, charity and peace.
 - ii) Flee youthful lusts.
 - iii) Avoid foolish and unlearned questions.
10. Servants (2:24-26).
 - i) Be gentle to all men.
 - ii) Apt to teach, patient.
 - iii) Instructing meekly those opposing themselves.

143. WHAT PEOPLE WILL BE LIKE IN THE LAST DAYS. II Timothy 3

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|--|
| 1. Lovers of their own selves. | 12. Unholy. |
| 2. Covetous (Advertising industry). | 13. Without natural affection (abortion). |
| 3. Boasters. | 14. Trucebreakers |
| 4. Proud. | 15. False accusers. |
| 5. Blasphemers (speak evil of God). | 16. Incontinent (lacking sex control). |
| 6. Disobedient to parents. | 17. Highminded |
| 7. Fierce. | 18. Lovers of pleasures more than God. |
| 8. Despisers of those that are good. | 19. Having a form of godliness, but denying the power. |
| 9. Traitors. | 20. Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of truth. |
| 10. Heady (apt to intoxicate). | |
| 11. Unthankful | |

“Evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving & being deceived.” 2 Tim. 3:1-7,13

Our response to these sins is seen in II Timothy 3:9-16.

1. Remember, they shall proceed no further. Their folly shall be manifest unto all men. 3:9.
2. The Lord shall deliver us from all trouble. 3:11
3. Follow Paul’s life example:
 - i) Doctrine. vi) Charity.
 - ii) Manner of life. vii) Patience.
 - iii) Purpose. viii) Persecutions.
 - iv) Faith. ix) Afflictions. 3:10,11.
 - v) Longsuffering.
4. All that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. 3:12.
5. Continue in what you’ve learned and been assured of. 3:14.
6. Hold to verbal inspiration of scripture, which is useful for:
 - i) Doctrine - authoritative teaching.
 - ii) Reproof - pointing out error.
 - iii) Correction - getting us back on track.
 - iv) Instruction in righteousness - keeping us on track. 3:15-17.

144. SEVEN TYPES OF CHRISTIANS II Timothy 4:9-20.

- 1 Demas - has forsaken me having loved this present world. 4:10.
2. Luke - is with me. 4:11.
3. Mark - is profitable to me for the ministry. 4:11.
4. Tychicus - I have sent to Ephesus (obedient worker). 4:12.
5. Alexander the coppersmith - did me much evil, he greatly withstood our words. 4:14.
6. Trophimus - I have left at Miletum sick. 4:20.
7. Jesus Christ - stood with me and strengthened me. 4:17.

145. THREE CHARACTERS IN III JOHN.

- i) GAIUS - walks in the truth. He does faithfully whatever he does. 3,5.
- ii) DIOTREPHES - loves to have the pre-eminence. He receives us not. 9,10.
- iii) DEMETRIUS - has a good report of all men, and of the truth itself. 12.

146. SODOMY IS A SIN, AN ABOMINATION, HATEFUL TO GOD.

- i) Sodom and Gomorra....giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire. Jude 7.
- ii) God gave them up to vile affections. Romans 1:26-29.

For even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: (v.26)
Likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that fitting punishment of their error. (v.27)
They did not like to retain God in their knowledge. God gave them over to a reprobate mind. (v.29).
- iii) Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God?...nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind. I Corinthians 6:9.
- iv) Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination. (Leviticus 18:22). the land itself vomits out her inhabitants. Leviticus 18:25.
- v) If a man also lie with mankind, as he lies with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death.... Leviticus 20:13.
- vi) There shall be no whore of the daughters of Israel, nor a sodomite of the sons of Israel.....these are abomination unto the Lord thy God. Deuteronomy 23:17,18.

147. DON'T GET A TATTOO on your flesh. Leviticus 19:28.

Ye shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor print any marks on you: I am the Lord.

148. DON'T LOOK AT the NAKEDNESS of a WOMAN.

Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of a woman....it is wickedness. Leviticus 18:17.

This forbids looking at nude women in books, magazines, videos, clubs, or anywhere outside your marriage partner.

149. DON'T CONSULT FAMILIAR SPIRITS or HOROSCOPES.

i) A man or woman that has a familiar spirit, or that is a wizard, shall surely be put to death. Leviticus 20:27.

ii) The soul that turns after people that have familiar spirits, and after wizards, to go a whoring after them, I will even set my face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people. Leviticus 20:6.

iii) There shall not be found among you any one that:

1. makes his son or daughter to pass through the fire.

2. uses divination - prophecy by interpreting omens.

3. observer of times - attempt to tell the future by observing signs, eg: bird movements, etc

4. enchanter - to cast a spell over. Bind people by magical mutterings.

5. witch - use of magic, sorcery, attempt to control people or events by power given by evil spirits.

6. charmer - objects having occult power, protect by magic.

7. consulter with familiar spirits - one who supposedly consults with the dead, but really communicates with demons.

8. wizard - one who professes to practice magic.

9. necromancer - attempting to contact the dead to get advice or manipulation or see the future. For all that do these things are an abomination to the Lord. Deuteronomy 18:9-14.

iv) When they shall say unto you, seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep and mutter: should not a people seek unto their God? Isaiah 8:19.

Manasseh.....worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them.....provoked the Lord to anger. II Chronicles 33:3,6.

v) Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; Jeremiah 10:2.

vi) Take good heed.....lest you lift up your eyes unto heaven, and when you see the sun, the moon, the stars, even all the host of heaven, and should be driven to worship them, and serve them. Deuteronomy 4:19.

150. DON'T CHEAT.

i) Swear unto me here by God that thou wilt not deal falsely with me. Genesis 21:23.

ii) Ye shall not steal, neither deal falsely, neither lie one to another. Leviticus 19:11.

iii) The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death. Proverbs 21:6. What you sow, you will reap. If you cheat people, then people will cheat you, and your children will become cheats, suffering the consequences also.

iv) That which is gone out of thy lips thou shalt keep and perform. Deuteronomy 23:23.

151. CHRISTIAN DUTY.

i) What doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God. Micah 6:8.

ii) Now, Israel, what doth the Lord thy God require of thee, but to fear the Lord thy God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve the Lord thy God with all thy heart and all thy soul, to keep the commandments of the Lord, and his statutes. Deuteronomy 10:12,13.

iii) Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. The second is..Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Matthew 22:37-39.

- iv) True worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship Him. John 4:23.
- v) Seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church. I Corinthians 14:12

152. CONSCIENCE

Having always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men. Acts 24:16.

153. DRESS to HONOUR the LORD.

- 1) The woman shall not wear that which pertains to a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment: for all that do so are abomination unto the Lord. Deuteronomy 22:5.
- 2) Women.....adorn themselves with modest apparel, with shamefacedness (reverence) and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array. I Timothy 2:9.

154. DON'T BACKSLIDE.

- i) I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast LEFT thy first love. Revelation 2:4.
- ii) Then Jesus said unto the twelve, will ye also go away? John 6:67.
- iii) The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways. Proverbs 14:14.
- iv) No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God. Luke 9:62.
- v) Return, ye backsliding children, and I will heal thy backslidings. Jeremiah 3:22.

155. DON'T BE A FOOL. 40 Foolish Philosophies:

- 1) Because thou hast relied on the king of Syria, and not relied on the Lord thy God....thou hast done foolishly. II Chronicles 16:7.
- 2) The fool hath said in his heart, there is no God. Psalms 14:1.
- 3) Fools because of their transgression, and....iniquities are afflicted. Psalms 107:17.
- 4) Fools despise wisdom and instruction. Proverbs 1:7.
- 5) The prosperity of fools shall destroy them. Proverbs 1:32.
- 6) "A foolish woman...calleth passengers...her guests are in the depths of hell." Prov 9:13,15,18
Don't go to prostitutes. "He that goeth after her....as a fool to the correction of the stocks."
Proverbs 7:22.
- 7) He that hideth hatred with lying lips, and that utters a slander, is a fool. Proverbs 10:18.
- 8) It is as sport to a fool to do mischief. Proverbs 10:23.
- 9) The way of a fool is right in his own eyes. Proverbs 12:15.
- 10) The heart of fools proclaims foolishness. Proverbs 12:23.
Reject teachers who teach false doctrines against the Bible.
The mouth of fools poureth out foolishness. Proverbs 15:2. (JW's)
The mouth of fools feedeth on foolishness. Proverbs 15:14.
This refers to those who go to false churches to feed on false doctrine.
- 11) It is abomination to fools to depart from evil. Proverbs 13:19.
- 12) He that walketh with wise men shall be wise, but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.
Proverbs 13:20.
- 13) Go from the presence of a fool, when thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge.
Proverbs 14:7.
- 14) Fools make a mock at sin. Proverbs 14:9.
- 15) A wise man feareth and departeth from evil: but the fool rageth and is confident. Prov. 14:16.
- 16) He that is soon angry dealeth foolishly. Proverbs 14:17.
- 17) He that is hasty of spirit exalteth folly. Proverbs 14:29.
- 18) A fool despises his father's instruction. Proverbs 15:5.
- 19) The eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth. Proverbs 17:24.
- 20) A fool hath no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself. Proverbs 18:2
- 21) A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his soul. Proverbs 18:7.
- 22) He that answers a matter before he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him. Proverbs 18:13.

- 23) Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child; but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him. Proverbs 22:15.
- 24) A foolish man spendeth it up. Proverbs 21:20.
Don't spend all your money, but save some for later and for God's work of teaching others.
- 25) Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him. Proverbs 26:4.
- 26) As a dog returneth to his vomit, so a fool returns to his folly. Proverbs 26:11.
- 27) Though thou should bray a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestle, yet will not his foolishness depart from him. Proverbs 27:22.
- 28) He that trusts in his own heart, is a fool. Proverbs 28:26.
- 29) A fool utters all his mind. Proverbs 29:11.
- 30) The heart of fools is in the house of mirth (laughter). Fools seek only entertainment. Ecclesiastes 7:4.
- 31) It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools. Eccles 7:5
This means that it is better to go to church to hear wise rebuking of sin, than to stay at home or go to a rock concert to listen to rock music.
- 32) As the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool. Ecclesiastes 7:6.
- 33) Anger resteth in the bosom of fools. Ecclesiastes 7:9.
- 34) A fool also is full of words. Ecclesiastes 10:14.
- 35) Every one that hears these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand. Matthew 7:26.
- 36) God said unto him, "Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?
So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God. Luke 12:20,21.
- 37) Oh fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken. Luke 24:25.
- 38) Wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. eg. evolution, false ideas, etc. I Cor. 3:19.
- 39) Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? Are ye so foolish?
Foolish people say that salvation is by works of the law. Galatians 3:2-3.
- 40) Walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise. Redeeming the time for the days are evil. Ephesians 5:15,16.

156. DO UNTO OTHERS.

All things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them; for this is the law and the prophets. Matthew 7:12.

157. DON'T BE A GOSSIP.

- i) He that repeats a matter separates very friends. Proverbs 17:9.
- ii) A talebearer revealeth secrets: but he that is of a faithful spirit concealeth the matter. (11:13)
- iii) The words of a talebearer are as wounds..... Proverbs 18:8.
- iv) Where there is no talebearer the strife ceaseth. Proverbs 26:20.
- v) Every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment. Matthew 12:36.
- vi) He that keepeth his mouth keepeth his life: but he that openeth wide his lips shall have destruction. Proverbs 18:3.
- vii) Curse not the rich in thy bedchamber: for a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter. Ecclesiastes 10:20.

158. DON'T BE GREEDY.

- i) He that is greedy of gain troubleth his own house. Proverbs 15:27.
- ii) He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase. Ecclesiastes 5:10.
- iii) They are greedy dogs which can never have enough. Isaiah 56:11.
- iv) What is a man profited, if he gain the whole world, and lose his own soul. Matthew 16:26.
- v) The love of money is the root of all evil. I Timothy 6:10.

159. HOW TO BE HAPPY.

- i) Happy is the man whom God correcteth: therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty. Job 5:17.
- ii) As arrows are in the hand of a mighty man; so are children of the youth. Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them. Psalm 127:4,5.
- iii) Blessed is every one that feareth the Lord: that walketh in his ways....happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee. Psalm 128:1,2.
- iv) Happy is that people whose God is the Lord. Psalm 144:15.
- v) Happy is the man that finds wisdom, and..that gets understanding. Proverbs 3:13.
- vi) He that hath mercy on the poor, happy is he. Proverbs 14:21.
- vii) Whoso trusteth in the Lord, happy is he. Proverbs 16:20.
- viii) Happy is the man that feareth alway. Proverbs 28:14.
- ix) Where there is no vision the people perish, but he that keepeth the law, happy is he. Proverbs 29:18.
- x) If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them. John 13:17.
- xi) Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth. Romans 14:22.
- xii) Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord: that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy. James 5:11
- xiii) If ye suffer for righteousness sake, happy are ye. If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye. I Peter 3:14; I Peter 4:14.

160. LEARN TO HATE SIN.

Sin destroys people's lives, bringing untold misery to millions. We must hate sin, but love the sinner. Let us rebuke sin.

Ye that love the Lord, hate evil. Psalm 97:10.

I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes: (eg: Television)

I hate the work of them that turn aside..... Psalm 101:3.

Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way. Psalm 119:104.

I hate vain thoughts: but thy law do I love. Psalm 119:113.

I hate and abhor lying: but thy law do I love. Psalm 119:163.

These six things doth the Lord hate: yea, seven are an abomination to him:

1. a proud look
2. a lying tongue
3. hands that shed innocent blood, eg: abortion.
4. a heart that devises wicked imaginations, eg: bad movies.
5. feet that be swift in running to mischief, eg: drug sellers.
6. a false witness that speaks lies, eg: gossips, slanderers.
7. he that soweth discord among the brethren. Proverbs 6:16-19.

God hates people who bear false witness and sow discord. The fear of the Lord is to hate evil: pride, arrogancy, the evil way, and the froward (wicked) mouth, do I hate. Proverbs 8:13.

So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate. Rev. 2:15.

Nicolaitanes is "conquering the laity", a priestly heirarchy as in the Roman Catholic church.

161. THE HEART.

The heart is the central part of man where his affections lie. So much is said about the heart that the reader should study it from Strong's Concordance.

- i) Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart. Deuteronomy 6:5.
- ii) The Lord hath sought him a man after his own heart. I Samuel 13:14.
- iii) Man looks on the outward appearance, but the Lord looks on the heart. I Samuel 16:7.
- iv) Keep thy heart with all diligence, for out of it are the issues of life. Proverbs 4:23.
- v) As he thinketh in his heart, so is he. Proverbs 23:7.

- vi) He that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief. Proverbs 28:14.
- vii) The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? Jerem7:9
- viii) For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies; these are the things which defile a man. Matthew 15:19,20.
- ix) For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. Romans 10:10.
- x) Let us draw near with a true heart. Hebrews 10:22.
- xi) See that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently. 1 Peter 1:22.

162. USE OPPORTUNITIES TO SERVE GOD in your CHURCH.

- i) Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest. John 4:35.
- ii) As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith. Galatians 6:10.
- iii) Cast thy bread upon the waters: for thou shalt find it after many days. Ecclesiastes 11:1.
Give a portion to seven, and also to eight: for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth. Ecclesiastes 11:2.
He that observeth the wind will not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap. Ecclesiastes 11:4.
In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand: for thou knowest not which shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good. Ecclesiastes 11:6.
- iv) Now is the accepted time; behold now is the day of salvation. II Corinthians 6:2.
We only get 70 or 80 years to serve God. Let us use every day as an opportunity to lay up treasures in heaven.
Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy Lord. Matthew 25:21.

163. STAY AT ONE CHURCH.

In the United States, the largest and most effective churches have Pastors and Pastoral team workers who have been in the one church for an average of 25 years. In the last 2 centuries, 79% of U.S. Pastors would stay in the one church all their life. Those who changed churches were frowned upon.

Many pastors and people leave their church because they disagree with something the Pastor said or does. The Pastor is mostly right, more so than young Christians.

Yet many young Christians think that they know more than their Pastor. When they go to another church they often have a problem in that church, so they leave and go elsewhere. They have taken their problems with them.

They make a habit of running away from problems, rather than working through them. Consider these reasons to commit yourself to one church all your life:

1. Strong, stable churches have strong, stable and committed Pastors and people.
2. Staff turnover in a business is costly in lost production, so it is with people changing churches.
3. If you change churches for no good reason you encourage other people to leave the church. It is a domino effect as other people leave, following your example. You serve Satan's purposes by weakening your church.
4. Things are rarely as good elsewhere. When you join another church, you don't always see all the problems in the new church. You discover them after 6 months. Then what will you do? Will you leave again?
5. It will take you 12 months to get to know everybody in the second church as well as you know everybody in the first church.
6. If you want to change churches to have a better ministry, look at the ministry opportunities in the first church. There are often greater ministry opportunities here that you haven't yet recognized. There are many new people in the first church for you to follow up.

7. The temptation to change churches mostly happens to people in the 20 to 30 year age group. These people have been saved, grown and learned enough to be zealous, but haven't learned enough to appreciate the value of their first church, Pastor and people.
8. If you leave, you lose your support group. You have to build trust again in the second church.
9. Your wife and children have established friendships in your first church, so why uproot and destabilize them by going elsewhere.
10. If you leave church number 2, the first Pastor won't know, so he won't be in a position to help you. You are then likely to backslide into deep sin, and to drop out of church altogether.
11. Satan wants to get you out of the first church's protection, and away from the protection of your Pastor/Shepherd. You may be like a wandering sheep who thinks he knows better than the shepherd.
12. If you leave the first church, you throw more weight on other church members as you drop your responsibilities and go elsewhere.
eg: If you let go of the rope in a tug-of war, the rest of your team has to pull harder, and may lose. You leaving a church, often tilts the scale against God's work in a spiritual war.
13. There are at the time of writing no really big Independent Baptist churches in Australia, because people keep leaving them to go elsewhere.
14. Disloyalty and lack of commitment in society spills over into the churches. Most churches have a very big turnover rate of uncommitted people. eg: 40% of church attenders leave every 2 years. Is it any wonder that churches fold up, Pastor's give up, and our country is going to the devil. Don't quit, but be loyal to your Church.

164. DON'T LISTEN TO ROCK MUSIC.

Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your hearts to the Lord. Ephesians 5:19. Watch the video: "Rock and Roll: a search for God".

Rock music is not melody. Rock music is not praise to the Lord.

5 main themes of rock music are: sex, drugs, rebellion, false religions, devils.

"The Lord JEHOVAH is my strength and my song." Isaiah 12:2.

"It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools." Eccles. 7:5.

165. INSTRUCTIONS FOR GOVERNMENT.

What does the Bible teach about how to govern a country? The world's most stable countries have a constitution full of Bible principles. Rulers must ask: "What does God think of this law?"

1. He that ruleth over man must be just, ruling in the fear of God. II Samuel 23:3.
2. Rulers must not be a terror to good works. Rulers must be a terror to evil works. Rom. 13:3.
3. Thou shalt provide out of all the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness; place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, hundreds, fifties, tens. Ex 18:21
4. Rulers should praise those who do good. "...do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same." Romans 13:3.
5. Rulers are the ministers or servants of God.
6. Rulers must promote that which is good, not evil.
"he is the minister of God to thee for good." Romans 13:4.
7. Rulers must execute criminals guilty of murder.
"...whosoever sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed." Genesis 9:6.
"If I be an offender, or have committed anything worthy of death, I refuse not to die" Act 25:11
"For blood defileth the land: and the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed it." Numbers 35:33.
8. Rulers must suitably punish evildoers.
"he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil." Rom. 13:4.
9. Rulers must charge taxes, tribute, custom and duty. "For this cause pay ye tribute also.....render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear for whom fear; honour for whom honour." Romans 13:6,7.
The people must pay taxes, and show fear and honour to politicians, judges, policemen, etc.

10. Be kind to the people, please them, and speak good words to them.
 “If thou be kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be thy servants forever.” II Chronicles 10:7.
11. Rulers must show mercy and truth. Proverbs 16:6.
 “Let not mercy and truth forsake thee,so shalt thou find favour and good understanding in the sight of God and man.” Proverbs 3:3,4.
 If a ruler shows mercy to people, upholds truth, shuns and fights corruption, God and man will favour him and show good understanding to him.
12. Rulers must raise the people’s living standards. “In the multitude of people is the king’s honour: but in the want of people is the destruction of the prince.” Proverbs 14:28.
13. Rulers must not oppress the poor, but help the poor. Daniel 4:27.
 “He that oppresses the poor reproaches his Maker.” Proverbs 14:31.
14. Rulers must promote righteousness, by passing godly laws, not sinful laws. Proverbs 16:12.
 “Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.” Proverbs 14:34.
 Governments must not pass laws favouring abortion, homosexuality or occult activities.
 “Thou shalt not lie with mankind as with womankind: it is an abomination....the land itself vomits out her inhabitants.” Leviticus 18:22,25.
15. A King, President or Prime Minister must write a copy of the Law, read it, learn it, and keep it all his days. He must not be lifted up in his pride.” Deuteronomy 17:18-20.
16. Rulers must have good, godly advisers. “Without counsel purposes are disappointed: but in the multitude of counsellors they are established.” Proverbs 15:22.
17. Rulers must first of all please the Lord, then peace comes. “When a man’s ways please the Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.” Proverbs 16:7.
18. Rulers must give righteous, right speeches.
 “Righteous lips are the delight of kings; and they love him that speaketh right.” Prov 16:13.
19. Rulers must be strong, wise and godly.
 “Be thou strong, and show thyself a man, and keep the charge of the Lord thy God to walk in His ways....that thou may prosper in all that thou do.” I Kings 2:2,3.
20. Rulers must pray to God for a wise and understanding heart to discern and judge between good and bad. I Kings 3:9.

166. PRECIOUS THINGS.

What should we really give our life to that is precious to God?

1. “The redemption of their soul is precious.” Psalm 49:8. Soul-winning.
2. “Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints.” Psalm 116:15. Martyrs.
3. “He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed.” Psalm 126:6. Sowing the gospel.
4. “How good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity! It is like the precious ointment....blessing.” Psalm 133:1,2,3. Believers who are united in the truth.
5. “She (wisdom) is more precious than rubies.” Proverbs 3:15. Wisdom.
6. “The lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.” Proverbs 20:15. Knowledge.
7. “A good name is better than precious ointment.” Ecclesiastes 7:1. A good name.
8. “Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones (souls won to Christ),” I Corinthians 3:12.
9. “That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perishes, though it be tried with fire.” I Peter 1:7. Trials and suffering.
10. “Redeemed...with the precious blood of Christ.” I Peter 1:18, 19. Christ’s blood.
11. “Behold, I lay in Zion a chief cornerstone, elect and precious.” I Peter 2:6.
12. “Unto you therefore which believe he is precious.” I Peter 2:7. Jesus Christ.
13. “To them that have obtained like precious faith.” II Peter 1:1. Doctrine.
14. “Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises.” II Peter 1:4.

63. WHAT IT MEANS TO SURRENDER 100% TO JESUS CHRIST

Bible Reading: "I beseech you therefore brethren by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world; but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, acceptable and perfect will of God." Romans 12:1,2.

If we are to have a great impact on the world for Christ, we must be seriously committed to studying God's Word, learning soul winning by doing it, working hard following up new converts and thinking hard how to serve God more effectively. Apply these principles of surrender to your own life:

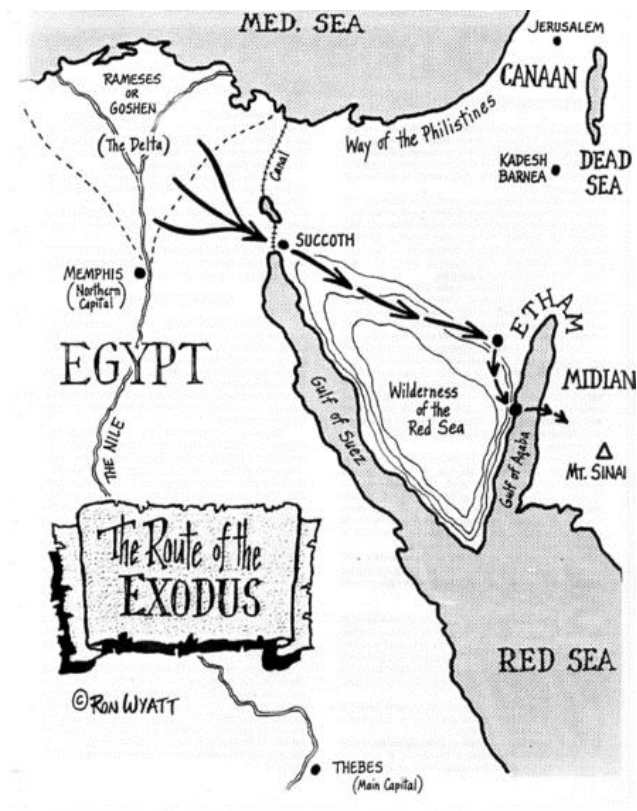

1. Pray daily, using a prayer list (confess, thank, other's needs, my needs).
2. Read, study, and memorize the Bible daily.
3. Tell someone that you have surrendered 100% to Jesus Christ.
4. Ask God to fill you with his Holy Spirit daily.
5. Take opportunities to hand out tracts and ask people, If you were to die tonight, would you be 100% sure of going to heaven?
6. Take opportunities to teach or preach.
7. Ask God to open doors for greater service.
8. Take opportunities to have Bible studies with others.
9. Pray 1 Chronicles 4:10, Matthew 9:38, Isaiah 6:8.
10. Decide on a time to come to a fundamental, soul-winning, Independent Baptist Bible college.
11. Challenge people to be saved and fully surrendered to God.
12. Love and choose the most Godly people to be your close friends.
13. Learn as much as you can about serving God as fast as you can.
14. Keep saying "Yes" to God and opportunities to serve God.
15. Ask God for someone to lead to Christ and teach the Bible to each week.
16. Ask God for the courage and boldness to do God's will.
17. Give me a hatred for sin, and a love for holiness and righteousness.
18. Give me eternal values.
19. Give out tracts to as many people as possible.
20. Ask God to make me a powerful, Spirit-filled, Bible teacher and soul-winner.
21. Ask God for more ideas to win souls and to serve God better.
22. Make me loyal to this church.
23. Keep me humble and make me wise. Give me wisdom.

Lord Jesus Christ, I _____ completely surrender myself to Your perfect will - body, soul and spirit - for now and all eternity for You to do whatever you choose with my life. I am no longer my own property, but Jesus Christ's. I now choose to make only those decisions that will fully glorify God Almighty and that will bring people to Christ, and will teach Your Word. I yield myself to daily prayer and to the serious study of Your Word, and to the winning of souls to Christ, and to planting churches here and anywhere in the world that You may choose. Equip me and prepare me now for Your perfect plan for my life. Make me a hard worker for You. Fill me with Your Holy Spirit daily. Give me a hatred for sin and a love for Jesus Christ and true holiness. Make me a bold servant of Yours. Help me to hear and obey Your voice always. I totally renounce the Devil and all his works. Give me a great love for God, the Bible, and people, and to have eternal values, now and always.

Signed: _____ Date: _____

Witnessed by: _____

64. THE CHRISTIAN LIFE PORTRAYED IN ISRAEL'S JOURNEY

1. Bondage in Egypt, pictures our bondage to the devil. Acts 7:6.
2. Deliverance by the Passover blood, pictures Christ our Passover. I Corinthians 5:7; Exodus 12:13.
3. Leadership of the cloud, pictures the leadership of the Holy Spirit. Exodus 13: 21, 22; 1 Corinthians 10:1.
4. Baptism in the sea, pictures water baptism. I Corinthians 10:2.
5. Marah and Elim, picture bitter experiences in the Christian life followed by spiritually refreshing and uplifting blessings leading to righteousness after suffering. Exodus 15:22-27.
6. The church in the wilderness, pictures joining a local church after salvation. Acts 7:38; Hebrews 4:1,2,11.
7. Victorious leadership of Joshua, pictures entering into the faith-rest life of victory in Christ's resurrection life. Hebrews 4:1-13.

LESSONS: I Corinthians 10:1-18.

- | | |
|------------------------------|---|
| 1. Don't lust. | 5. Don't murmur or complain. |
| 2. No idols. | 6. Let Israel be an example of not to lust. |
| 3. Don't commit fornication. | 7. Don't be proud. |
| 4. Don't tempt Christ. | 8. Temptation has a way of escape. |

65. BE FILLED WITH THE SPIRIT

Ephesians 5:18.

What is the meaning and the conditions of being filled with the Holy Spirit?

The filling of the Holy Spirit is the source of all vital spiritual experience in life.

Every day can be a day of victory through the power of the Holy Spirit.

When you received Jesus Christ as your Saviour, the Holy Spirit came to live in you.

The Holy Spirit makes it possible for every Christian to live a fulfilled, joyful life.

I. FACTS ABOUT THE HOLY SPIRIT.

The Holy Spirit is God. II Corinthians 3:17. "The Lord is that Spirit."

The Holy Spirit is a person. Revelation 2:7. "Hear what the Spirit saith." John 16:8. See p.929,930.

The Holy Spirit gives us power to live the Christian life. Galatians 5:22,23.

The Holy Spirit gives us power to witness for Christ. Acts 1:8.

The Holy Spirit is more powerful than any other Spirit. I John 4:1-4.

The Holy Spirit is called "the Comforter." John 16:7.

The Holy Spirit authored the Bible. II Peter 1:21.

The Holy Spirit holds back and limits Satan's full power. II Thessalonians 2:7-14.

The Holy Spirit convicts people of sin, of righteousness, and of judgment. John 16:8-11.

The Holy Spirit builds local churches.

The Holy Spirit led, anointed, empowered and raised Jesus Christ. Romans 8:11.

The Holy Spirit has five ministries in believers' lives:

1. He regenerates us. John 3:5, "Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit,..."
2. He baptizes us. I Corinthians 12:13. "By one Spirit are we all baptized into one body."
3. He indwells us. I Corinthians 3:16. "Know ye not that...the Spirit of God dwelleth in you."
4. He seals us. II Corinthians 1:22. "sealed us, and given us the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts."
5. He fills us. Ephesians 5:18. "be filled with the Spirit."

The Holy Spirit does these things in our lives:

1. Prays for us. Romans 8:26. "the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be"
2. Guides us. Romans 8:14. "For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God."
3. Teaches us. I John 2:27. "the same anointing teacheth you of all things..."
4. Empowers us for soul winning. Acts 1:8. "Ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come..."
5. Imparts the love of Christ to us & through us. Romans 5:5 "love of God is shed abroad in our hearts"
6. Gives us liberty. II Corinthians 3:17. "where the Spirit of the Lord is there is liberty."
7. Conforms us to the image of Christ. II Corinthians 3:18. "changed into the same image by the Spirit"
8. Strengthens our new nature. Ephesians 3:16. "strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man."
9. Reveals Bible truths to us. I Corinthians 2:10. "God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit."
10. Assures us of salvation and service. Romans 8:16. "The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit."
11. Fills our mouth with appropriate things. Mark 13:11. "it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Ghost."
12. The Holy Spirit gives gifts to individual believers:

Seven temporary gifts that ceased by 96 AD:

- | | | | |
|--------------|---------------|-------------------------------|-------------|
| 1. Apostles. | 2. Prophets. | 3. Miracles. | 4. Healing. |
| 5. Tongues. | 6. Knowledge. | 7. Interpretation of tongues. | |

Eleven permanent gifts:

- | | | |
|--------------------|---------------------------|--------------|
| 1. Wisdom. | 2. Discerning of Spirits. | 3. Giving. |
| 4. Exhortation. | 5. Ministering. | 6. Mercy. |
| 7. Administration. | 8. Faith. | 9. Teaching. |
| 10. Evangelism. | 11. Pastor/Teacher. | |
13. The Holy Spirit gives us the fruit of:
1. Souls being saved: "Gather fruit unto life eternal". John 4:35,36.
 2. Christlikeness: "The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance." Galatians 5:22,23.

I. THREE TYPES OF PEOPLE.

1. UNSAVED person without Christ:

- Jesus is outside his life.
- Self is on the throne.
- This person is under the judgment of God.

2. SPIRIT-FILLED Christian:

- Jesus lives within this person.
- Christ is on the throne, and Christ controls this person's life.
- This Christian now lives to serve Christ.

3. SELF-CENTRED Christian - Carnal (I Corinthians 3:1-3):

- Jesus Christ is still his Saviour and is in his life.
- Self is on the throne, controlling his life.
- The Holy Spirit does not have full control of his life.

The self-centred Christian cares more about pleasing himself, than about pleasing God. He is like a baby who wants his own way.

Symptoms of the self-centred Christian are:

Often he:

- does not fully trust God.
- has sinful thoughts.
- disobeys God's Word.
- has little interest in the Bible.
- has a poor prayer life.
- does not help others come to Christ.

He may:

- feel guilty.
- be discouraged and depressed.
- be jealous.
- judge others harshly.
- worry.
- be angry.

Question: Which kind of person are you like?

III. FILLING OF THE HOLY SPIRIT contrasted with spiritual maturity.

Christians are encouraged to "grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ". 2Peter3:18

This is gradual growth over time to spiritual maturity.

However, any Christian may be filled with the Holy Spirit by meeting the conditions.

A newborn believer may be filled with the Holy Spirit, but immature.

A mature believer may lack the fullness of the Holy Spirit.

Only Christians YIELDED TO GOD are filled with the Holy Spirit.

Here the Holy Spirit works in people in entire freedom from hindrance.

Filling of the Holy Spirit means that the Holy Spirit has more of us.

It does not mean that "we have more of the Holy Spirit", because we get all of the Holy Spirit at salvation.

Old Testament filling of the Holy Spirit was temporary for a special purpose.

New Testament filling of the Holy Spirit is the universal experience of all yielded believers.

IV. THE COMMAND TO BE FILLED WITH THE SPIRIT.

"Be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit". Ephesians 5:18.

"Be filled" is 'plerousthe' in the Greek language. It's tense indicates a continuous command to keep being filled with the Holy Spirit.

- Filling of the Holy Spirit is a moment by moment relationship, that may be hindered by sin.
- Baptism of the Holy Spirit, in I Corinthians 12:13, is in the "aorist" tense, meaning an action which takes place once and for all.

Regeneration, indwelling, sealing, and baptism of the Holy Spirit are accomplished once and for all at the time of salvation.

Filling (“PLEROO”) of the Holy Spirit is like:

1. Water filling a glass.
2. Wind filling a sail and therefore carrying a ship along. To be filled with the Holy Spirit is to be moved along in our Christian life by God Himself, as writers of the Bible were “moved along by the Holy Spirit”.
3. Salt permeating meat to flavour and preserve it. God wants the Holy Spirit to permeate our lives so that all we say, think and do reflects God’s presence.
4. Total control. For example, a person filled with sorrow (John 16:6) is no longer under his control, but is totally under the control of sorrow.

The same is true for one who is filled with fear (Luke 6:11), filled with faith (Acts 6:5) or Satan (Acts 5:3). He is no longer under his own control, but is under the total control of that which dominates him. Being filled with the Holy Spirit detaches us from the desires, standards, aims and fears of the world.

Being filled with the Holy Spirit makes all else that is NOT God’s will of secondary importance.

V. HOW TO BE FILLED WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT.

If you want God’s Spirit to direct your life and give you power to live:

1. You must WANT the Holy Spirit to fill you.

“Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness.” Matthew 5:6.

2. CONFESS YOUR SINS. Agree with God that you have sinned. Thank God for forgiving you because of Christ’s death for you. Turn away from your sins and choose to obey God. I John 1:9.

3. GIVE THE THRONE of your LIFE to JESUS CHRIST.

“Yield yourselves to God.” Romans 6:13.

To live the Spirit filled life, you must be willing to let Jesus Christ control everything you do, e.g. your money, free time, work and relationships with family and friends.

4. We are filled with the Holy Spirit by FAITH as we ASK FOR IT IN PRAYER.

Tell God now: “Lord Jesus, I have been controlling my life.

I agree with you that this is sin.

Please take control of my life, as I yield to you.

I want to obey you. Thank you for forgiving me.

I now trust you to fill me with your Holy Spirit.

Thank you for filling me as you promised.”

5. STAY FILLED. Every time you take control of your life through sin, disobeying God in thought, word or action, breathe spiritually:

i) EXHALE- Confess your sin to God (I John 1:9). Thank God for forgiveness. Turn from the sin.

ii) INHALE- Ask Jesus Christ to again take the throne of your life (Yield- Romans 6:13). Trust the Holy Spirit to fill you again. Remember the command of Ephesians 5:18, and the promise of I John 5:14,15. Note: Breathe spiritually every time the Holy Spirit shows you sin and you will have a joyful and victorious life that honours God. Let the Holy Spirit keep controlling your life.

6. FILL OURSELVES WITH GOD’S WORD.

“Let the Word of Christ dwell in you richly.” Colossians 3:16.

God’s thoughts then become our thoughts. Ephesians 5:18,19.

7. QUENCH NOT the SPIRIT. I Thessalonians 5:19.

Don’t suppress, stifle, resist or oppose the Holy Spirit’s will.

Don’t say “No” to the Holy Spirit.

When the Holy Spirit leads us to do something, don’t pour water on (i.e. quench) the Holy Spirit. Be yielded to the will of God as the rule of our life. Quench means refusal to follow the evident leading of the Holy Spirit.

Yieldedness to the Holy Spirit includes:

a) Submission to the plain teaching of the Word of God.

b) Obedience to the guidance of the Holy Spirit, e.g. soul-winning, Bible reading, prayer.

c) Acceptance by faith of the acts of God, e.g. suffering. Luke 22:42.

8. GRIEVE NOT the SPIRIT. Ephesians 4:30.

The presence of sin in any form grieves the Holy Spirit and involves:

- i) Quenching the Holy Spirit: refusing to follow the Holy Spirit's leading; resisting Holy Spirit's will
- ii) Loss of fellowship with God.
- iii) Loss of the fruit of the Spirit.

Spiritual darkness then descends on the person.

The Christian is given time for self-judgment and confession of sin. If we neglect this opportunity and persist in sin, God intervenes and chastens the Christian by trials.

9. WALK IN THE SPIRIT, and ye shall not fulfill the lusts of the flesh. Galatians 5:16.

This means to walk daily by the power and presence of the Holy Spirit, who dwells within. It involves:

1. Reckon ourselves dead to sin and the sin nature.

Christ's death not only atones for the guilt of sin, but Christ's death also has power to deliver us from the bondage of sin. HOW?

- As we know our old man dead with Christ (Romans 6:6).
 - As we reckon ourselves dead to sin's habit pattern left from the old man, and reckon ourselves alive to Christ (Romans 6:11).
 - As we yield ourselves to God, as those that are alive from the dead (living in resurrection power), and yield our members as instruments of righteousness unto God (Romans 6:13).
2. Love each other as Christ loves us. John 13:34.
 3. Every thought must be brought to the obedience of Christ. II Corinthians 10:5.
 4. We must be longsuffering towards all. I Thessalonians 5:14.
 5. Always follow that which is good. I Thessalonians 5:14,15.
 6. Comfort and edify each other. I Thessalonians 5:11.
 7. Know them (appreciate and respect Pastors) who work to the point of weariness... and be esteeming them most highly with a divine and self-sacrificial love because of their work. I Thessalonians 5:12,13.
 8. Be at peace among yourselves. 5:13.
 9. Warn them that are unruly (i.e. soldiers who desert). 5:14.
 10. Don't render evil for evil to any man, but always follow good. 5:15.
 11. Rejoice evermore. 5:16.
 12. Pray without ceasing. 5:17.
 13. In everything give thanks. 5:18.
 14. Quench not the Spirit, i.e. stop stifling and suppressing the Spirit. 5:19.
 15. Despise not prophesyings, i.e. don't get restless during preaching. 5:20.
 16. Prove (test) all things. 5:21.
 17. Hold fast that which is good. 5:21.
 18. Abstain from all appearance of evil. 5:22.
 19. Pray for us, and each other. 5:25.
 20. Greet all the brethren. 5:26.

Question: Is it wrong to preach that we must DO, WORK or STRIVE?

Answer: No. We "do" as we "yield" constantly to Christ. "Do all things..." Philippians 2:13,14. "Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death...to supply your lack of service". Philipp. 2:30. "So have I strived to preach the Gospel." Romans 15:20. "Strive for masteries." II Timothy 2:5.

Question: What if I don't feel like going soul-winning and feel condemned and guilty?

Answer: If we think something should be done, check if it is God's will for me at the time, e.g. to sleep, or phone people, or go soul-winning, or Bible Study.

I may not feel like doing God's will. (This is sin and disobedience).

I must confess it to God and regain fellowship.

I then claim the filling of the Holy Spirit.

I then go and do God's will in the power of the Holy Spirit by yielding to God.

VI. RESULTS OF BEING FILLED WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT.

As you continue growing in Jesus Christ, God will continue to change your life.

As you let the Holy Spirit lead and control your life every day:

1. Your life will show the fruit of the Spirit more and more. Galatians 5:22,23.
2. Your prayers will be more effective. James 5:16.
3. Your understanding of the Bible will increase. II Timothy 3:16,17.
The teaching of the Holy Spirit warns us against error.
4. You will have greater power to witness. Acts 1:8.
5. You will have God's power to defeat temptation and sin, and to live a life of victory. I Cor. 10:13.
6. You will be guided to apply Bible truths to life's problems. You'll have less self-inflicted trouble.
7. You will worship God in praise and thanksgiving, which is the fruit of a life lived in fellowship with God.

CONCLUSION:

A Christian can only live a Spirit-filled life by faith.

Are you filled with the Holy Spirit?

The following picture used by kind permission from Paul Friederichsen from books called God's Word Made Plain, God's Way Made Easy, God's Truth Made Easy, God's Relief for Burdens, Prophecy Unveiled and Like Them That Dream.

66. PRAYER: COMMUNICATING WITH GOD

"Open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it". Psalm 81:10.

Aim: To convince us of the value and effectiveness of prayer.
To receive what we need through prayer.
To pray daily in the morning.

Introduction:

"Power belongeth unto God." Psalm 62:11. God has many things for us that we can have for the asking.
"Ask, and ye shall receive" Matthew 7:7,11.

The poverty and powerlessness of the average Christian is explained in James 4:2,

"Ye have not because ye ask not." This means that our asking actually has an effect on events.

"The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much." James 5:16.

Prayer is one of the hardest things to do. Why? Because we don't always see instant results. It may seem like a waste of time. It is an act of FAITH, which we cannot perform in the strength of the flesh.

Definition:

Prayer is asking specific things from God and receiving them. Prayer is worship addressed to the Father, in the name of Jesus Christ, and in the power of the Holy Spirit. Prayer is having two-way fellowship with God. It's not just talking TO God, but WITH God.

God promises to hear our prayers, as He promises in Psalm 102:17.

"He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and not despise their prayer."

Question: Why do so many Christians achieve nothing for God, never see any miracles, seem depressed, bored and get nothing out of their spiritual life?

Answer: Because they rarely pray or read the Bible.

We need to: a) see the value of daily morning prayer to ourselves and others, and
b) discipline ourselves to pray daily.

I. HOW PRAYER BENEFITS OURSELVES AND OTHERS.

Objection 1: The sceptic may ask: "Does daily prayer achieve anything?"

Answer: God says that it does and people's experience proves that it does.

If we were really convinced that we really received whatever we prayed for, we would pray more seriously and more often.

Objection 2: Some may say: "I'm OK, I don't need anything".

Answer : Don't you see any needs of others to pray for? Attempt some work for God, seeking to win people to Christ and teach God's Word. Then you'll have much to pray for.

What direct benefits does prayer bring us?

1. Fullness of Joy. "Ask and ye shall receive that your joy may be full." John 16:24.
We get what we ask for, and we get fullness of joy. If we don't pray, we are full of self and problems. Prayer fills us with the Holy Spirit and with joy.
2. We build ourselves and others up by prayer.
"Building up yourselves in your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost." Jude 20.
3. Prayer brings relief from burdens. 'Casting all your care upon him, for he cares for you.' I Peter 5:7
4. Prayer develops a humble and right attitude in us. It keeps us from becoming proud. God then exalts us in due time. "Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God that he may exalt you in due time." I Peter 5:6.
5. Prayer makes us sober and alert to Satan's devices.
"Be sober, be vigilant : because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion walketh about seeking whom he may devour." I Peter 5:8.
6. "The Peace of God which passes all understanding shall keep our hearts and minds through Christ Jesus", when we fulfil the conditions of:

- i) Be careful for nothing. (don't worry about anything).
 - ii) Pray for every need.
 - iii) Thank God for all his goodness. Philippians 4:6,7.
7. Prayer will HEAL OUR LAND from trouble (II Chronicles 7:13,14) if God's people
- i) Humble themselves.
 - ii) Pray.
 - iii) Seek God's face.
 - iv) Turn from their wicked ways.
- Then God promises to:
- i) Hear from heaven,
 - ii) Forgive our sin,
 - iii) Heal our land.
8. Prayer summons strong angelic forces into the spiritual battle on our side to achieve things required and to give us victory (Daniel 10:12-14). This prayer gave Daniel knowledge of the future history of Israel (Daniel 11).
Therefore, prayer gives us:
- i) power in the spiritual, angelic realm, and
 - ii) knowledge as to what to do.
9. We receive what we ask God for in Matthew 21:18-22 if we fulfil the conditions of v.22 of:
- i) Asking in prayer, and
 - ii) believing God's will to be done.
10. Prayer and fasting can cast powerful demons out of people. Mark 9:24-29.
11. If we draw near to God in prayer, God will draw near to us.
"Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you." James 4:8.
12. Humility and exaltation. "Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he will lift you up."
James 4:10. Prayer results in humbling us which results in God lifting us up.
13. Prayer relieves affliction and can cure sickness. James 5:13-15.
14. Prayer can turn the rain off and on. James 5:17,18.
15. God shows us new great and mighty things through prayer. Jeremiah 33:3.
16. Prayer strengthens us to resist temptation.
"Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation." Matthew 26:41.
17. Prayer defeats Satan. "I have prayed for thee that thy faith fail not." Luke 22:31,32.
18. Prayer saves any sinner. "God be merciful to me a sinner." Luke 18:13.
"For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." Romans 10:13.
"thou would have asked him, and he would have given thee living water." John 4:10.
19. Prayer restores backsliders. James 5:16,19,20.
20. Prayer sends forth labourers. Matthew 9:36-38.
21. Prayer has power to give us WISDOM. James 1:5.
"If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God....it shall be given him."
We can have God's wisdom for every decision in life. God doesn't want us to grope in darkness or in our own foolishness. He greatly desires us to know His way and is willing to make it known upon our asking. Oh the joy of knowing and walking in God's ways. We can have all this for the asking.
22. Prayer reveals our true condition of weakness, selfishness, sinfulness and powerlessness, Eg:

- i) Isaiah was brought face to face with God. He saw himself as God saw him and he cried out: "Woe is me for I am undone: because I am a man of unclean lips." (Isaiah 6:5). Then a life of power began for Isaiah and God sent him forth to do a mighty work for the Lord. Isaiah 6:8,9.
- ii) Moses met God at the burning bush. He was then emptied of his former self confidence and saw his utter unfitness for the Lord's work. Then the Lord sent him out as a mighty man of power. Exodus 3:10-22. Compare this with Exodus 2:11-15.
- iii) Job, after meeting God cried, "I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes." Then the Lord turned the captivity of Job, he received power to intercede for his friends and he bore abundant fruit. (Job 42:5,6,10,12).
- iv) David prayed in Psalm 139:23,24 "Search me, O God; and know my heart: try me and know my thoughts. And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting" If we pray this to God, He will search us and reveal "SELF" to us as God sees it. This brings a consequent utter emptying of self, and room will be made for the incoming power of God.
23. Prayer has power to cleans our hearts from sin, and prevent us from sinning. Psalm 19:12,13; I John 1:9. The Holy Spirit works in our lives in answer to our prayers. In Luke 22:40 the disciples slept when they should have prayed. Christ prayed and triumphed gloriously in his greatest hour of need. We must prepare ourselves for temptation by meeting it with prayer. Many of us are led into defeat and denial of Christ, as Peter was, by sleeping when we ought to be praying.
24. Prayer has power to govern our tongues. "The tongue can no man tame." James 3:8. God can and will tame our tongue in answer to believing prayer. Pray: "Set a watch, O Lord before my mouth; keep the door of my lips." Psalm 141:3.
25. Prayer has power to OPEN OUR EYES to BEHOLD WONDROUS THINGS OUT OF GOD'S WORD. Psalm 119:18. When we look to God to interpret the Bible in earnest, believing prayer,
- difficulties vanish,
 - obscure passages become as clear as day,
 - old familiar passages show new meaning.
- The soul-winning man of prayer can best understand the Bible.
26. Prayer brings the FILLING and POWER of the Holy Spirit into our lives to make us like Christ and to serve Him. Proverbs 1:23. When we turn at God's reproof in prayer, He pours out His Spirit to us and makes known His Words to us. "I bow my knees that I might be strengthened with might by the Holy Spirit." We have little power of the Holy Spirit in our life and service because we spend so little time in thought and in prayer. Every precious spiritual blessing is given by God in answer to true prayer.
27. Prayer has power to bring SALVATION TO OTHERS. Prayer avails for the salvation of others where every other effort fails. Paul, an enemy of the early church was saved by earnest prayer. Many are led to Christ after some other person has been praying for them. Prayer will bring blessings upon a church. Prayer will settle quarrels. Prayer will resolve misunderstandings. Prayer will root out heresy, and Prayer will bring revival from God. Genuine revivals are brought down by prayer. We need people to devote themselves to calling upon God till He visits this land with a mighty outpouring of His Holy Spirit. Prayer will bring wisdom and power to Gospel Ministers. Paul was a great worker for God, yet he so deeply felt the need of the prayers of God's people, that he asked for them from every church to which he wrote, except the backslidden Galatian church. "They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength." Isaiah 40:31.

True prayer takes TIME and THOUGHT, but it is the great timesaver. If we are to know the fullness of power of the Holy Spirit, we must be men and women of prayer.

"Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit for all saints." Ephesians 6:18.

To pray "in the Spirit" is to pray in the name of Christ; it is to pray consistently with God's nature and will. It is not praying in tongues as Charismatics think about Romans 8:26,27 because these groanings cannot be uttered, yet tongues are uttered. The Holy Spirit prays with our spirit. To pray rightly is to pray as the Holy Spirit prays, to join our petitions with His petitions and our will with the Holy Spirit's will. It is to line up our will, mind and desires with the Holy Spirit's will, mind and desires.

2. WHAT SHOULD WE PRAY FOR?

God commands us to pray for many things. To stop our thoughts from wandering in prayer, a list of these divine prayer requests may be made:

- a) ADORATION. The Lord's or Disciples' prayer should be taught to everybody from a child.

"Our Father which art in heaven

Hallowed be Thy Name

Thy Kingdom come

Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

Give us day by day our daily bread

Forgive us our sins, for we also forgive everyone that is indebted to us.

Lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever. Amen." Matthew 6:9-15.

- b) CONFESSION. "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness". I John 1:9.

Lord, I forgive those who have wronged me.

Lord, I confess my sins of _____.

- c) THANKS and PRAISE. "In everything give thanks." I Thessalonians 5:18.

Thank you Lord for my family _____ my Church, my Pastor _____

my friends _____

for supplying my needs of food, clothing, shelter, for a free country to serve you, for the Bible, for fellow workers, for a job, health, for Your love.

- d) SUPPLICATION (humbly asking).

a) Others Needs (Ephesians 3:14-16).

Help my spouse and I to be the best example of Christian marriage to everybody and to be greatly used to serve You. Help us to have a really great impact on this world for Christ.

1. Give Pastor _____ encouragement, wisdom and strength to guide and teach the church the best way. Hebrews 13:17,18.

Give these missionaries Pastors hearts, make them preach the gospel of Christ to many people, let them do the work of an evangelist, see many saved, many disciples and many churches started. Give them many good, faithful workers to help them. Keep Satan bound and out of Churches, Bible Colleges and out of all ministries. Let the Word of God have free course and be glorified. Let us and them be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men. II Thessalonians 3:1.

List the missionaries names:

2. Pray for people in your church.

3. For kings, Prime Ministers, Presidents and for all in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.
Prime Minister: _____,
Premier: _____, I Timothy 2:1,2.
4. For all men to be saved, and come to the knowledge of the truth. I Timothy 2:4.
5. Lord "The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few.
I pray therefore the Lord of the harvest, that you will send forth labourers into the harvest."
Matthew 9:36 -38. "Here I am, send me." Isaiah 6:8.
6. Lord I pray for the peace of Jerusalem. Psalm 122:6. Even so come, Lord Jesus. Rev. 22:20.
7. I pray for those who despitefully use me and persecute me. Matthew 5:44.

b) My Needs.

1. Lord, I need You to give me your wisdom to:
 - decide right in all situations.
 - guide your people in right and wise decisions.
 - win souls continually and bring them to church.
 - defeat Satan's temptations.
 - teach many Christians, so they can teach others also.
 - build churches in Australia and overseas.
 - study and know Your Word very well.
 - visit and do soul winning.
 - organise many new churches like Paul.
 - be powerfully effective in prayer and understanding prayer.
 - teach my wife and children to be powerful servants of God. James 1:5.
2. "The Lord God of your fathers make me 1,000 times as many as I am and bless me as you have promised me." Deuteronomy 1:11.
3. "Oh that you would bless me indeed and enlarge my coast, and that thine hand might be with me, and that thou would keep me from evil that it may not grieve me. And God granted him (Jabez) that which he requested." I Chronicles 4:10.
4. Lord give me many mighty men and women as went with David and Saul. I Samuel 10:26.
"Give me a band of men and women whose hearts you have touched to fulfil all your will."
5. Lord, "make me a man after your own heart, who shall fulfil all your will." Acts 13:22.
6. Let us see our spiritual poverty, to stay humble all our days, and to tremble at Your Word.
"But to this man will I look, even to him that is poor, and of a contrite spirit and trembles at my word." Isaiah 66:2.
7. Lord, we pray for you to revive our hearts and bring a revival to Australia:
Lord we, a) Humble ourselves now, b) Pray to You,
c) Seek Your face, d) Turn from our wicked ways.
Please Lord, a) Hear from heaven, b) Forgive our sin c) Heal our land.
Revive me, our church and Australia. II Chronicles 7:14.
8. Lord relieve the suffering of believers being persecuted for their faith in You. Hebrews 13:3

9. Lord, let us be:
 - a) Filled with the knowledge of Your will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding.
 - b) Walking worthy of the Lord.
 - c) Be fruitful in every good work.
 - d) Increasing in the knowledge of God.
 - e) Strengthened with all might ... to all patience and long suffering with joy. Col. 1:9-12.
 - f) Thankful to You.
10. Lord, we pray that:
 - a) You would count us worthy of this calling.
 - b) Fulfil all the good pleasure of your goodness.
 - c) Fulfil the work of faith with power.
 - d) The name of Christ might be glorified in us. II Thessalonians 1:11,12.
11. Lord, we pray that:
 - a) Our love may abound more and more in all judgment.
 - b) We may approve things that are excellent.
 - c) We may be sincere and without offence until the day of Christ.
 - d) We may be filled with the fruits of righteousness. Philippians 1:9-11.
12. Lord, turn all Muslim, Hindu, Roman Catholic people to be truly saved by faith in Christ.
13. Lord give us greater ability to spread your Gospel all over the world.
14. Lord fill me with your Holy Spirit today and produce the fruit of the Spirit in me today.
15. Judge and remove all those who preach a false Gospel.
16. Let our church grow and our ministry win many to Christ. Give our work for you good success. Strengthen us in times of trouble. Pour out your mercy and grace upon us.
17. Lord give us _____ souls saved this year, and _____ disciplined this year. Let us see _____ Christians become soul winners this year.
18. "Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me." Psalm 51:10. Keep me possessing the joy of my salvation. Let me be disciplined and efficient in my time and service to you. Don't let me put things off. Give me a field that I can fully exploit for you. Through us, raise up people who are WHOLEHEARTED, SINGLE MINDED and with a FIGHTING SPIRIT.

Lord teach me to praise, thank and trust you in all things. Prepare me Lord for what you have prepared for me. Make me a hard worker for you in soul winning. Make me a fisher of men. Bring us to walk worthy of you Lord in all things. Show us successful ways of quickly starting and building churches in Australia and overseas. Keep me from making serious mistakes. Help our church to grow to 10,000 in attendance.

3. WHERE TO PRAY.

- a) Everywhere.
- b) In our bedroom. Matthew 6:6.
- c) In church. "Two men went up to the Temple to pray." Luke 18:10.

4. WHEN TO PRAY.

- a) Daily. "Be merciful unto me for I cry unto thee daily." Psalm 86:3.
- b) Evening, morning and noon, will I pray and cry aloud and he shall hear my voice. Psalm 55:17; Daniel prayed 3 times a day. Daniel 6:10.
- c) Morning. "My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O Lord." Psalm 5:3.
- d) Always. "Pray without ceasing" IThess5:17; Men ought always to pray & not to faint. Luke18:1
- e) Mealtimes. John 6:11.

5. DIRECTION OF PRAYER.

- a) Pray - TO the Father "Our Father which art in heaven."
- IN THE NAME OF JESUS "Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name." John 16:24.
- THROUGH the Holy Spirit. Romans 8:15,16,26,27.
- b) We pray to Jesus as Stephen did at his death.
"Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." Acts 7:59; I Corinthians 1:2.
- c) We must not pray to Mary or to dead believers. "There shall not be found among you any one that is a necromancer." (one who contacts the dead). Deuteronomy 18:11.

6. REASONS FOR PRAYER.

- a) God commands us to. I Timothy 2:8; I Thessalonians 5:17.
- b) Christ's example. I Peter 2:21-23.
- c) Early churches' example. Acts 2:42.
- d) It is God's chosen method for:
 - Defeating the devil. Luke 22:31,32.
 - Saving the sinner. Luke 18:13.
 - Restoring the backslider. James 5:16.
 - Strengthening the saint. Jude 20.
 - Sending out labourers. Matthew 9:38.
 - Curing the sick. James 5:13-15.
 - Achieving the impossible. James 5:17,18.
 - Receiving good things. Psalm 102:17.
 - Getting wisdom. James 1:5.
 - Getting peace. Philippians 4:6,7.
 - Keeping us from sin. Matthew 26:41.
 - Glorifying God's name. Revelation 5:8.
 - Revealing the will of God. Luke 11:9,10.
- e) It is our Christian duty.
- f) Because God hears and answers our prayers.
- g) Because we gain access to God's throne. Hebrews 4:16.
- h) Paul's example.
- i) We are blessed by God and filled with His Holy Spirit by prayer.
- j) We achieve much more than by not praying.
- k) It is a cure for depression, fear, worry and trouble.

7. HINDRANCES TO PRAYER.

If your prayer life seems difficult, it may be because of one of these reasons. See which reasons apply to you and confess the cause to God.

- a) Asking amiss or wrongly to serve our selfish lusts. James 4:1-3.
- b) Loving the world. James 4:4.
- c) Pride. James 4:6; Job 35:12,13.
- d) Unconfessed sin. James 4:8; Proverbs 28:13; Psalms 66:18.
- e) Not considering God's will in your plans. James 4:13-15.
- f) Marital discord. I Peter 3:7. Every husband must honour his wife.
- g) Laziness, not bothering to ask. James 4:2.
- h) Lack of Faith. Not seeing the importance of prayer. Doubting if prayer will change things. Not seeing prayer as a means of being blessed. Doubt, unbelief. James 1:5,6.
- i) Not keeping God's commandments and not doing those things that are pleasing in God's sight. I John 3:22.
- j) Insincerity. Matthew 6:5; Deuteronomy 4:29.
- k) Robbing God. Malachi 3:8-10.
- l) Refusing to submit to Bible teaching. Zechariah 7:12,13; Proverbs 28:9.
- m) Refusing to forgive or to be forgiven. Matthew 6:12,14,15.

- n) Refusing to help the poor and needy. Proverbs 21:13.
- o) Satanic activity. God, for a short time may allow satanic interference to block the believer's prayer line, to test and to purify us. Daniel 10:10-13.
- p) Disobedience. Micah 3:4; Deuteronomy 3:26.
- q) Not abiding in Christ. John 15:7.
- r) Sleepiness hinders prayer. Matthew 26:40-44.
- s) Giving up, losing heart. Luke 18:1.
- t) Vain repetition. Matthew 6:7.
- u) Praying contrary to God's will. I John 5:14.
- v) Wickedness hinders prayer. Proverbs 15:8,29.

8. QUALIFICATIONS OF PRAYER. Prayer should be:

- a) Humble. Psalms 10:17. "Thou hast heard the desire of the humble."
- b) Bold. Hebrews 4:15,16. "come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy,..."
- c) In Faith. Hebrews 11:6; James 1:6,7. "without faith it is impossible to please him."
- d) Sincere. Psalm 145:18."The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him,...in truth."
- e) Simple. Matthew 6:7. "Use not vain repetitions."
- f) Persistent. Luke 18:1-7. "men ought always to pray, and not to faint."
- g) Definite. Psalm 27:4. Too often our prayers are so vague and indefinite, that they are meaningless, and provide no basis for divine action. eg. "Lord save that soul nearest to hell."
- h) Biblical, in accord with the Word of God. I John 5:14,15. "Ask any thing according to his will."

9. EXAMPLES OF ANSWERED PRAYERS.

We are greatly encouraged by those who persevered in prayer and received great results.

- a) The apostles gave themselves to prayer and to the ministry of the Word. Acts 6:2-4.
- b) Cornelius gave money and prayed. Acts 10:1-6,31,44. An angel tells Cornelius that his prayers have been heard and that he should go to Peter to see how to be saved.
- c) The Jerusalem church prayed for God to deliver Peter from jail. Peter was released. Acts 12:5-16
- d) Israel prayed to be delivered from slavery in Egypt and God raised up Moses to deliver them. Exodus 3:1-8.
- e) Hezekiah and Isaiah prayed for God to spare Jerusalem from the Assyrian king's army. That night the angel of the Lord went out and killed 185,000 Assyrian soldiers. Isaiah 36,37.
- f) Hannah who was barren, asked God for baby Samuel and bore 7 children. I Samuel 1:1-28.
- g) Abraham's servant prayed for a bride for Isaac and found Rebekkah. Genesis 24:12-14.
- h) Elisha prayed to open his servant's eyes to see the Lord's army surrounding the city. He saw the mountain full of horses and chariots of fire. II Kings 6:13-23.

Conclusion. Let us be convinced of the value of prayer and pray specifically, fervently, persistently and daily as we live and work for Jesus Christ.

67. GROW IN GRACE

“But grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.” II Peter 3:18.

Aim: To give some general instructions to young Christians as to how to grow in grace, be strong in the Lord and to avoid backsliding.

Introduction:

To grow as a Christian one must:

- a) Methodically - Study and obey the Bible, Pray, Obey God, attend Church, and Do Soul Winning.
- b) Cultivate Spiritual Graces and a quality Christlike lifestyle.

Let us see some things that the Holy Spirit wants to cultivate in our lives and check if we are listening to Him and acting on His voice.

I. “GROWING IN GRACE” DEFINED

Grace is used in two senses: a) in GOD - it is undeserved favour.

b) in MEN - it is holiness.

Therefore, to grow in grace is to grow in holiness, to be more like God, to govern our conduct more and more by the same principles that God does.

God wants to glorify Himself and to fill the Universe with holiness and happiness.

Growing in grace is not gradually giving up sin. We must, at salvation, give up sin instantly and wholly.

II. HOW TO GROW IN GRACE

- 1) Be saved and love Jesus Christ with all your heart, soul, mind and strength. (Matthew 22:35-40).
- 2) Repent of all known sin.
- 3) Make a full surrender and consecration to God of everything we are, have, desire and love.
- 4) An intense desire to learn more of God’s Ways through the Holy Spirit’s leading.
- 5) Keep up with our convictions of duty and with our growing knowledge of God’s will. (John 14:15).
- 6) An increasing and confident faith in God’s character so that we’ll trust him in the dark as well as in the light, whether we understand why or why not He deals such with us. (John 10:27 like sheep).
- 7) A deeper personal acquaintance with Christ. (John 14:21).
Christ has promised to manifest himself personally to those who love and obey him.
- 8) Watch against besetting sins such as levity (foolishness). Hebrews 12:1.
If you yield to temptation once, its easier to yield again.
- 9) Censoriousness. - Young Christians begin full of zeal and are soon amazed at the coldness and apathy of many churches and Christians. They are likely to say critical things against them.
Be careful about what you say to and about other Christians, even though it may be true.
- 10) Pride - thinking that you are greater than other people.
“Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.” I Corinthians 10:12.
- 11) Anger and Temper with workmates, neighbours, the government or events.
“Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, clamour and evil speaking be put away...” Ephesians. 4:31.
- 12) Selfishness - don’t act from selfish motives. Think of what God wants first, then put others second.
- 13) Sloth and Laziness - How many young Christians stop and decline by laziness, as if there was no work to do. Proverbs 6:6-11.
- 14) Envy - If you see others going ahead of you in prosperity, in influence, in talents and in the Lord’s work, examine your feelings and see if it pleases you. If the sight gives you pain, beware!
- 15) Impure Thoughts. Make a covenant with your eyes, ears and all your senses, or they’ll prove to be the inlet of temptation and sin. If you find yourself in danger, turn your thoughts away instantly and think of something else, such as Scripture, people’s needs, or Christ’s example.
- 16) Maintain great firmness of purpose and decision of character to be undeviating in the performance of secret duties (prayer and Bible study) and in obeying the truth no matter what others may say or think (I Corinthians 15:58).
- 17) Meekness is patience under injuries. When you are reviled, learn not to revile again. If persecuted, don’t threaten back. I Peter 2:21-23.

III. PROOF OF GROWTH IN GRACE

What will a Christian be like when he is growing in grace?

- 1) He does things, less because he feels like it, and more because it is right.
For example, “I don’t feel like praying” - do it anyhow; “I don’t feel like church” - do it anyhow.
- 2) More love to God resulting in a growing veneration for all the commands of God.
“Lord what will thou have me to do?” Acts 9:6.
“The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom.” Proverbs 9:10.
- 3) More love to men. As young Christians grow in Godliness, they feel more and more a desire that all the world should be converted to God. They have more heart-breaking agony at the dreadful state of men in their sins. I Samuel 17:45-47.
- 4) They have greater humility and self abasement. James 4:10; I Peter 5:5,6; Isaiah 66:2.
- 5) An increased abhorrence of sin, feeling less disposed to compromise with sin.
“Ye that love the Lord hate evil.” Psalm 97:10.
- 6) Less love for the world. I John 2:15,17.
He seeks wealth and honour only to glorify God, and of doing good to men.
He is less desirous of worldly company and carnal conversation. He will love to read the most spiritual books and will love the company and conversation of the most spiritual Christians.
He will love attending the most pungent, and searching spiritual preaching.
- 7) An increased delight in fellowship with saints. I John 3:14.
- 8) He finds it more easy to exercise a forgiving spirit and to pray for his enemies. He easily gets over injuries. “Be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ’s sake hath forgiven you.” Ephesians 4:32.
- 9) He becomes more ready to bestow property, being willing to give all that is in his power to extend Christ’s Kingdom. Luke 6:38.
- 10) His time, talents, property and life itself have value only in relation to Christ’s kingdom and eternity. Matthew 6:19-21. He lives by eternal values.
- 11) He is more willing to confess faults to men. Matthew 5:23,24.
- 12) He regards less and less either the good or bad opinions of men and is less influenced by what “other people say” and popular opinion.
- 13) He will expect frequent and agonising conflicts with Satan.
Spiritual Christians are doing Satan a great injury and therefore he sets himself against them.
“Be strong in the Lord and in the power of His Might.” Ephesians 6:10.
- 14) A growing peacefulness under sudden and crushing disasters.
“Love, joy, peace” Galatians 5:22. “He is our peace”. Ephesians 2:14.
- 15) A growing realization and confidence in the wisdom, goodness and providence of God.
He develops a state of mind that sees God’s hand in everything. Romans 8:28.
- 16) A growing jealousy for:-
 - a) the honour of God.
 - b) the purity and honour of His Church.
 - c) the rights of God and all men. “Is there not a cause?” 1 Samuel 17:29.

IV. EVIDENCES OF BACKSLIDING

How do you detect backsliding in yourself or another?

1. Being wary of giving money or time to promote the kingdom of Christ.
2. Stops coming to church.
3. Reluctant to converse on spiritual matters. Young Christians delight to discuss spiritual issues.
If you leave your first love, watch out.
4. Less interest in private and public prayer, Bible reading and drawing nearer to God.
5. More delight in public meetings than in secret communion with God.
6. If you find yourself growing very much critical and afraid of the measures that good men pursue (and that God blesses) for promoting revivals, you are backsliding.
For example, people (Christians?) come here and say that we are too pushy, yet they never, ever lead a person to Christ. They are usually backsliders from a backslidden church.

V. HOW TO ESCAPE FROM BACKSLIDING

Backsliding is very hard to recover from because you resist what other Christians say and you avoid meeting with other Christians. The solution to recover from backsliding is:

1. ADMIT that you are backsliding.
2. APPLY and take God's REMEDY for your sin.
3. FIND your CAUSE of backsliding and give it up. God will hold you at arms-length and will frown upon you when you pray unless you search out & remove the cause of backsliding. Give up your idols.
4. Apply to the Lord Jesus Christ for PARDON and peace with God, as a guilty sinner. Confess your sins fully, forsake them, return to God, and He will have mercy on you. He will heal your backslidings & will remember your iniquities no more. Backsliding is why revivals cease.

VI. SOME THINGS WHICH SHOULD BE TAUGHT TO YOUNG CHRISTIANS

Aim: To know how to help and teach young Christians. "Feed my lambs." John 21:15.

Introduction: Why do Christians backslide? Because they aren't being fed or taught Bible doctrine and are not applying it to their lives. What ought to be taught?

TOPICS:

1. Basics such as "What all Christians must know". p.251.
2. Soul Winning - How to lead people to Christ. p.93
3. Apologetics - Answers to common objections met in Soul Winning. p.134.
4. How we know the Bible is true. p.1-18.
5. Second Coming of Christ. p.184.
6. Fundamentals of Bible Doctrine. p.141.

GENERAL PRINCIPLES.

1. Attending Church is Raising a Standard against the Devil.

"When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord shall raise up a standard against him." Isaiah 59:19.

Today as the tide of evil increases, there is a greater than ever need for God's people to pull together by joining a sound church immediately they are saved. DON'T WAIT!

"Let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works:

Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another and so much the more as ye see the day approaching." Hebrews 10:24,25.

If you set out in your Christian life by waiting, most likely you will always be waiting and never do anything to much purpose. Never wait when God has pointed out your duty.

"The church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth". 1 Timothy 3:15.

Usually a young Christian's character through life is moulded according to how they are dealt with when first converted. When they are first brought in, their minds are soft and tender, and easily yield to the truth. They may then be taught easily. If you don't disciple them immediately, they'll be harder to disciple later on.

2. However dull your feelings may be, if duty calls, DO IT.

Distinguish between emotion and principle in your Christian thinking.

Do it because it is right. Don't wait until you feel like it.

KNOW, RECKON, and YIELD your members to God. Romans 6:6,11,13.

3. Teach them to cultivate a tender conscience. 1 Timothy 1:5,19. Don't resist your conscience.

When they see a "Thus saith the Lord", they'll be always ready to obey it, come what may.

4. "YE ARE NOT YOUR OWN". 1 Corinthians 6:19,20. Know that all your time, property, influence, faculties, body and soul belong to God. When you submitted to God, you made a full surrender of all to Him. If you don't do this, don't call yourself a Christian, because the very idea of a Christian is to renounce self, and become entirely consecrated to God.

"Purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works." Titus 2:14.

5. Pray without ceasing. 1 Thessalonians 5:17.

Keep a watch over your minds and be all the time in a prayerful spirit. Pray always or you'll get far from God. When your conscience presses you, go to Christ, confess your sin fully, and pour your heart out to God. The Holy Spirit will lead you in prayer and the dark clouds of guilt will go away.

6. Don't adopt a false standard in your Christian life. Don't keep older Christians as a standard of holy living, but always look at Christ as your model. "Looking unto Jesus." Hebrews 12:2. Aim at being HOLY and don't be satisfied until you are as perfect as God.
7. Don't aim at comfort, but at usefulness in your Christian life. Don't spend your time in seeking to be happy or on a spiritual high, but spend time in agonizing prayer for sinners and in pulling people out of the fire. Consider how the apostles travailed for souls and laboured in weariness, painfulness and in death to save sinners. Don't calculate on a life of joy and triumph. You may be called on to go through fiery trials.
 - a) Seek to go forward and be useful, not happy;
 - b) Talk about duty, not comfort;
 - c) Talk about triumph, not flights of joy;
 - d) Seek for righteousness, not entertainment; and
 - e) Seek how to know the will of God and do it. You'll be happy enough in heaven.
8. You must learn to say NO to wrong activities of old friends. If you go with them once, it will be easier to go with them again, then you'll start to backslide. Learn to resist the beginnings of temptation. "Be sober, be vigilant because your adversary the devil as a roaring lion" I Peter 5:8,9.
9. Be Strictly Honest. "Let us walk honest, as in the day." Roman 13:13. Be straight in everything, so that God's pure eyes can see that your mind is perfectly upright. "Whatsoever things are honest." Phillippians 4:8. "Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles, that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation." I Peter 2:12.
10. Christianity is not high flights of feeling, but obedience to God from the heart, and voluntary submission to his will.
11. Christianity is SELF DENIAL. Mark 8:34-37; Matthew 16:27.
 - a) Christ exercised Self Denial to save sinners.
 - b) The Father exercised Self Denial in giving His Son and in sparing us.
 - c) The Holy Spirit exercises Self Denial in striving with unholy men to bring us to God.
 - d) Angels exercise Self Denial in watching over the world.
 - e) The Apostles exercised Self Denial in planting Christianity among many nations.Is it too much for us to exercise self-denial daily for Christ, the gospel and to build this church?
12. Be temperate (self controlled) in all things.
13. Show just as much Christianity, holiness and sincerity in all your daily activities as on Sunday.
14. Aim at being perfect.
Live entirely for God and obey all His Commandments. Sin should be the exception to our lives. Be as holy as God, and seek not to sin at all. "Be ye holy, for I am holy." I Peter 1:16.
15. Exhibit your light to the world or it will go out.
God won't go to the trouble of keeping a light burning that is hidden. You'll backslide. God may put you on the shelf. (1 Corinthians 9:27). "Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." Matthew 5:16.
16. They should be taught HOW to win souls for Christ. Live for this as the great purpose of life. The reason why we are left in the world is to pull sinners out of the fire. If you don't do this you are better off dead. Teach this immediately they are saved. "Woe is unto me, if I preach not the Gospel." 1 Corinthians 9:16.

VII. SOME EVILS OF DEFECTIVE INSTRUCTION

1. If not fully taught, they'll never be fully grounded in right principles.
2. If rightly taught, they'll take the right side on all great issues that come to the church. You can depend on them and the church will be stronger.
3. If they are not well taught, they will inevitably backslide and disgrace Christ.

VIII. HOW YOUNG CHRISTIANS SHOULD BE TREATED BY THE CHURCH

1. Older Christians ought to greatly help and teach younger Christians. If you don't teach them, they'll never grow.
2. Put young Christians to work in the church. Keep them looking to God. We are saved to serve.
3. They should be watched over by the church and warned of their dangers.
Young Christians don't know the dangers that surround them, such as:
 - a) the devices of Satan.
 - b) the temptations of the world.
 - c) the power of their own passions and faults.If not properly watched and warned, they will run right into danger.
4. Be tender in reproofing them. Don't be severe. They are easily thrown down. They are like a child starting to walk.

CONCLUSION and CHALLENGE

1. If churches had properly trained young Christians, the world would have been converted long ago.
2. They should be trained to work for Christ, just as carefully as young soldiers are trained for war.
3. Train young Christians to be intelligent, single hearted, self-denying, working Christians.
Train them: - how to pray,
 - how to talk to people about their souls,
 - how to win souls to Christ, and
 - how to disciple people.
4. If you want to get involved training someone, let me know.
Pray now surrendering yourself to God concerning all these issues.

68. TOOLS TO CONQUER WORRY, FEAR and DEPRESSION

Bible Reading: Psalm 34, 37 and 139.

Introduction: We all go through trouble and suffering in this life, yet we can control our reaction to it and gain victory. "With God, nothing shall be impossible." Luke 1:37.

God can cure our worries and depression only if we come to Him for comfort. The Bible is the book of comfort for us.

Question 1: Why do people get discouraged, depressed and worried?

Answer: By letting circumstances and events produce fear in their mind, rather than by keeping their minds fixed on the Lord. Isaiah 26:3 promises:

"Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on Thee: because he trusteth in thee."

Question 2: What TOOLS can we use from the Bible to relieve worry?

TOOL 1: GET RIGHT WITH GOD and MAN.

If my fear or worry are due to sins that I have committed, confess it to God, and make it right with the one wronged. "Be ye kind one to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake has forgiven you." Ephesians 4:32.

TOOL 2: DRAW NEAR TO GOD.

"Draw near to God and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands ye sinners. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He shall LIFT you up." James 4:8,10.

As we draw near to God, He lifts us up. I Peter 5:5-10.

TOOL 3: CAST ALL YOUR CARE UPON HIM.

"Casting all your care upon Him for he careth for you." I Peter 5:7.

"Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and He shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved." Psalm 55:22.

TOOL 4: LEARN TO TRUST IN THE LORD'S GOODNESS.

Learn to Trust in the Lord's goodness and power to always do what is right for us.

"What time I am afraid, I will trust in thee." Psalm 56:3.

"It is better to trust in the Lord than to put confidence in man." Psalm 118:8.

"My God shall supply all your need." Philippians 4:19.

"Trust ye not in a friend, put not confidence in a guide." Micah 7:5.

"Whoso trusts in the Lord, happy is he." Proverbs 16:20.

"Trust in the Lord with all thine heart....." Proverbs 3:5,6.

TOOL 5: THANK THE LORD FOR PAST BLESSINGS.

Thank the Lord for past blessings and use this to build your trust that your current problem will be solved. "It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises to thy name." Psalm 92:1.

"Enter his gates with thanksgiving and into his courts with praise....be thankful to him and bless his name." Psalm 100:4. "In everything give thanks..." I Thessalonians 5:18.

TOOL 6: MEMORIZE BIBLE VERSES THAT APPLY TO YOUR SITUATION and OF GOD'S GOODNESS.

"But his delight is in the law of the Lord and in his law doth he meditate day and night. He shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water whatsoever he doeth shall prosper." Psalm 1:2,3.

"...written for our learning that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope." Romans 15:4.

"Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." Mat4:4.

TOOL 7: KEEP AWAY FROM UNGODLY, ANGRY, AGGRESSIVE, FOOLISH PEOPLE.

"Make no friendship with an angry man, lest thou learn his ways and get a snare to thy soul." Pro22:24

Most problems in life are caused by mixing with wicked or foolish people. Psalm 1:1-3.

TOOL 8: CONTROL WHAT YOU THINK ABOUT.

Only think about good things, not bad things. "As he thinks in his heart, so is he." Proverbs 23:7.
If you think about good things, you'll be happy. If you think about bad things, you'll be depressed.
"Whatsoever things are true honest just pure lovely.....good report..... virtue any praise, think on these things. Those things, which ye have both learned, and received and heard, and seen in me do: and the God of peace shall be with you." Philipians 4:8,9.

TOOL 9: LEARN TO WAIT PATIENTLY ON THE LORD.

Learn to wait patiently on the Lord and not fret because of evildoers.
"Fret not thyself because of evildoers." Psalm 37:1.
"Delight thyself also in the Lord....He shall give thee the desires of thy heart. Commit thy way unto the Lord.....Rest in the Lord and wait patiently for Him." Psalm 37:4,5,7.
"My soul wait thou only upon God, for my expectation is from Him." Psalm 62:5.
"They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength." Isaiah 40:30-31.

TOOL 10: PRAY TO GOD IN TIMES OF SORROW.

Who do we seek counsel from in sorrow? It should be the Lord. Learn to pray effectively and fervently.
"Be careful for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving let your requests be made unto God." Philipians 4:6,7.
"Ask and it shall be given you; seek and ye shall find, knock and it shall be opened unto you." Matt 7:7
"They cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses." Psalm 107:13.
"If ye abide in me and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will and it shall be done unto you." John 15:7. "Pray one for another, that ye may be healed." James 5:16.
"The Lord turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends." Job 42:10.

TOOL 11: EXPECT TROUBLE IN LIFE.

Then you won't get surprised when trouble comes. "In the world ye shall have tribulation." John 16:33.
"We must through much tribulation enter into the Kingdom of God." Acts 14:22.
"Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the Lord delivers him from them all." Psalm 34:19.
"We are troubled on every side yet not distressed...." II Corinthians 4:8.
"Our light affliction which is but for a moment, works for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory." II Corinthians 4:17. "Let not your heart be troubled." John 14:1.

TOOL 12: BEWARE OF BELIEVING WRONG DOCTRINES or WRONG IDEAS.

Develop consistency, stability, faithfulness, commitment and reliability. "Be not carried about with strange doctrines. It is a good thing that the heart be established with grace." Hebrews 13:9.
"Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit..and not after Christ." Coloss. 2:8.

TOOL 13: FIX YOUR MIND ON HEAVEN, THE KINGDOM OF GOD and ON CHRIST'S SECOND COMING.

"I will come again and receive you unto myself...." John 14:3.
"Set your affection on things above and not on things on earth." Colossians 3:2. (Matthew 6:33.
"Seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you."
"When Christ who is our life shall appear, then shall ye appear with him in glory." Colossians 3:4.

TOOL 14: LIVE ONE DAY AT A TIME.

Don't bring yesterday's problems forward to worry about today. Don't bring tomorrow's problems back to worry about today. "Take no thought for tomorrow: for tomorrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof." Matthew 6:34.

TOOL 15: FORGET THE PAST.

Forget the past, you can't change it, and let God take care of the future. "Forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forth unto those things are before (ahead)..." Philipians 3:13.
"We wept when we remembered Zion." Psalm 137:1. "Thou shalt forget all thy misery." Job 11:16.
"God has made me to forget.....all my toil, and my father's house." Genesis 41:51.

TOOL 16: BE FILLED WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT. Ephesians 5:18.

"The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance." Galatians 5:22,23. Be filled with the Holy Spirit, not filled with Self.

TOOL 17: THINK ON GOD'S PROVISION and GOODNESS TO US.

"There has not failed one word of his good promise" I Kings 8:56.

"I will never leave thee nor forsake thee" Heb 13:5. "The goodness of God endures continually." Ps52:1

"The earth is full of the goodness of the Lord" Ps 33:5.

"No good thing will He withhold from them that walk uprightly." Psalm 84:11.

TOOL 18: BE GUIDED BY GOD and AVOID SIN.

"He that follows me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life." John 8:12.

"Thine ears shall hear a word behind thee saying, this is the way, walk ye in it...." Isaiah 30:21.

TOOL 19: LEARN THE PRINCIPLES OF HAPPINESS.

"Whoso trusts in the Lord, happy is he." Prov.16:20.

"A merry heart doeth good like medicine." Prov 17:22.

"Rejoice in the Lord always." Philippians 4:4 Happiness is a choice. When persecuted for Christ:

"Rejoice and be exceeding glad for great is your reward in heaven." Matthew 5:12.

TOOL 20: HAVE A LIFE GOAL of USEFULNESS TO GOD.

It is better to serve God and win souls to Christ, than to be happy. Be God-centred and others-centred, not self centred. "He that finds his life shall lose it: and he that loses his life for my sake shall find it." Matthew 10:39. "I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do." John 17:4.

"Come unto me all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me.....ye shall find rest for your souls." Matthew 11:28,29.

"Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature." Mark 16:15.

TOOL 21: GIVE TO GOD and TO OTHERS.

"Give and it shall be given unto you..... " Luke 6:38. "Ye have robbed me.....in tithes and offerings.

Ye are cursed with a curse Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse that there may be meat in my house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you a blessing that there shall not be room enough to receive it." Malachi 3:8-12.

TOOL 22: GOD WILL NOT LET YOU BE TEMPTED ABOVE that YE ARE ABLE TO BEAR

"God will make a way to escape the temptation, that ye may be able to bear it." I Corinthians 10:13.

Look for the way to escape. Others have experienced the same temptations & found God to be faithful.

TOOL 23: FULFIL YOUR GOD-GIVEN ROLE IN LIFE.

"The aged women teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children, to be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands. Young men....be sober minded, pattern of good works, in doctrine, showing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity, sound speech." Titus 2:3-8. "I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house" I Tim 5:14

TOOL 24: LEARN WISDOM from THE BIBLE.

"Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom." Proverbs 4:7.

"The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the holy is understanding." Proverbs 9:10. Wisdom will study the Bible to find answers to life's questions, and will obey the Bible even when it is difficult. By applying God's wisdom, we prevent bad things from happening to us and to our family. Preventing a problem is better than curing a problem.

TOOL 25: HONOUR GOD in ALL THINGS and GOD WILL HONOUR YOU.

".....them that honour me, I will honour." I Samuel 2:30. "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you." Matthew 6:33.

Conclusion: When we feel depressed or worried, don't panic or fear, but trust the Lord, review these 24 tools and claim Romans 8:28. "We know that all things (even bad things) work together for good to them that love God.....". Do you love God? Then prove it by using these 25 TOOLS as part of your life and you will have victory over your worries, fears and depression.

69. ABC'S OF LIFE'S FOUNDATIONS

The Scriptures counsel new Christians to desire the sincere milk of the Word of God.

“As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that you may grow thereby, If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious;” I Peter 2:2,3.

Christian parents need to help their children learn simple Bible verses that can be put into action in their lives so they will accept the Lord early in life and grow strong spiritually. These verses are arranged alphabetically so children can learn the alphabet while they are learning important verses. The following are verses of doctrine and action. Help your children to apply these verses in everyday situations. People who have been saved later in life still need to learn these character-forming verses.

A. Ask, and it shall be given you. Luke 11:9;

All have sinned, and come short of the glory of God. Romans 3:23;

Abstain from all appearance of evil. I Thessalonians 5:22.

B. Be ye kind one to another. Ephesians 4:32; Be of good cheer. Acts 23:11;

Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved. Acts 16:31;

Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love. Romans 12:10;

Be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only. James 1:22.

C. Children obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. Ephesians 6:1;

Commit thy way unto the Lord. Psalms 37:5; Cease from anger. Psalms 37:8;

Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith the Lord. Isaiah 40:1.

D. Do all things without murmurings and disputings. Philippians 2:14;

Depart from evil and do good. Psalms 34:14;

Deceit is in the heart of them that imagine evil. Psalms 37:4;

The desire accomplished is sweet to the soul. Proverbs 13:19.

E. Even a child is known by his doings. Proverbs 20:11;

The eyes of the Lord are in every place beholding the evil and the good. Proverbs 15:3;

Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above. James 1:17.

F. Fret not thyself. Psalms 37:1; Fear not, for I am with thee. Isaiah 43:5;

For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son. John 3:16;

For by grace are ye saved through faith. Ephesians 2:8.

G. God loveth a cheerful giver. II Corinthians 9:7b;

A good man showeth favour and lendeth. Psalms 112:5a;

A good word maketh it (the heart) glad. Proverbs 12:25b;

Go from the presence a foolish man. Proverbs 14:7a;

Good is the word of the Lord. Isaiah 39:8.

H. Hear ye children, the instruction of a father. Proverbs 4:1;

Honour the Lord with thy substance. Proverbs 3:9;

Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings. Proverbs 4:10;

He that gathereth in summer is a wise son. Proverbs 10:5;

Here am I, send me. Isaiah 6:8b;

Honour thy father and thy mother. Ephesians 6:2.

I. In everything give thanks. I Thessalonians 5:18;

In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. Genesis 1:1;

If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them. John 13:17;

I can do all things through Christ which strengthens me. Philippians 4:13;

I will not fear what man shall do to me. Hebrews 13:6b;

If any man lack wisdom, let him ask of God. James 1:5;

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins. I John 1:9.

K. Keep thy tongue from evil. Psalms 34:13; Keep thee far from a false matter. Exodus 23:7;

Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins. Psalms 19:13a;

Keep thy heart with all diligence. Proverbs 4:23;

Keep thy commandments and live. Proverbs 7:2;

Keep in memory what I preached unto you. I Cor. 15:2. Keep the unity of the Spirit. Ephesians 4:3.

- L. Love one another. I John 3:11b; Love your enemies. Luke 6:27b.
 Lying lips are an abomination to the Lord. Proverbs 12:22;
 Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven. Matthew 6:20;
 Lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him. I Corinthians 16:2b;
 Let all your things be done with charity. I Corinthians 16:14;
 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth. Ephesians 4:29.
 Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, clamour, evil speaking be put away from you. Ephesians 4:31.
- M. Make a joyful noise unto the Lord. Psalms 100:1;
 My son, keep thy father's commandments. Proverbs 6:20;
 A merry heart doeth good like medicine. Proverbs 17:22;
 A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance. Proverbs 15:13;
 My God shall supply all your need. Philippians 4:19;
- N. Neither shalt thou profane the name of God. Leviticus 18:21;
 Neither murmur ye. I Corinthians 10:10;
 If any would not work, neither should he eat. II Thessalonians 3:8,10b.
- O. Overcome evil with good. Romans 12:21b;
 To obey is better than sacrifice. I Samuel 15:22b;
 Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people. Jeremiah 7:23;
 Owe no man anything. Romans 13:8; Obey them that have the rule over you. Hebrews 13:17.
- P. Pray one for another. James 5:16b; Pleasant words are as an honeycomb. Proverbs 16:24;
 Pray without ceasing. I Thessalonians 5:17; Preach the word. II Timothy 4:2a.
- Q. Quench not the spirit. I Thessalonians 5:19; Quicken me according to thy word. Psalms 119:154;
 Quit you like men, be strong. I Corinthians 16:13b-14.
- R. Rest in the Lord. Psalms 37:7; Rejoice with them that do rejoice. Romans 12:15;
 Recompense to no man evil for evil. Romans 12:17;
 Redeeming the time, because the days are evil. Ephesians 5:16.
- S. Seven times a day do I praise thee. Psalms 119:164;
 Sing unto the Lord, all the earth. I Chronicles 16:23;
 A soft answer turneth away wrath. Proverbs 15:1;
 Speak every man truth with his neighbour. Ephesians 4:25b;
 Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs. Ephesians 5:19;
 Study to be quiet. I Thessalonians 4:11a;
 Study to show thyself approved unto God. II Timothy 2:15.
- T. Trust in the Lord with all thine heart. Proverbs 3:5;
 To every thing there is a season. Ecclesiastes 3:1; Think on these things. Philippians 4:8b-9a.
- U. Use hospitality. I Peter 4:9;
 Understanding is a well-spring of life unto him that hath it. Proverbs 16:22a
- V. Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord. Romans 12:19;
 Vanity of vanities, saith the preacher; all is vanity. Ecclesiastes 12:8; (John 3:3b).
 Verily, verily, I say unto thee. Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.
- W. Whatsoever ye do, do it heartily as to the Lord. Colossians 3:23;
 Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might. Ecclesiastes 9:10;
 Wait on the Lord and keep his way. Psalms 37:34;
 Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation. Matthew 26:41;
 We are labourers together with God. I Corinthians 3:9;
 Work with your own hands. I Thessalonians 4:11b.
- X. eXalt the Lord, our God. Psalms 99:9.
- Y. Ye are the light of the world. Matthew 5:14. Yet will I not forget thee. Isaiah 49:15b.
 Yield yourselves unto the Lord. II Chronicles 30:8b;
- Z. Zacchaeus, make haste. Luke 19:5.

70. GREAT CHRISTIANS INSPIRING LIVES

Bible Reading: Hebrews 11:32 - 12:2.

Aim: Do something great for God.

Introduction:

We all love inspiring, encouraging, true stories. The Bible is full of many people's life's stories who had a great impact on their country, generation and world for Christ. The exciting thing is that you and I can have a great impact on the world for Christ. We need to exercise our faith to pray and trust God to do great things through our lives, as we work together to win, baptize and teach people for Christ. Hebrews chapter eleven describes many people's lives of faith who did great things for God in freeing people from sin's bondage.

These are the "so great a cloud of witnesses" that are watching you and me today from heaven. Having run their race and finished their course, having passed the baton onto us today, they are cheering us on in the heavenly grandstands to best use our opportunities and talents to win this world to Christ.

The last 2000 years contain many Christians lives that can greatly inspire us. Let us consider some of their life's stories, so that we might be encouraged to attempt and to complete great things for God.

We will meet these people in heaven, so it's good to be encouraged by their lives now.

1. POLYCARP. 150 AD. "Be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee a crown of life". Rev. 2:10 Polycarp was the last one to be taught personally by the Apostle John. Since there were no images of gods in early Churches, the heathens concluded that Christians did not believe in the existence of the gods, so they accused Christians of being atheists.

Polycarp was arrested and brought to an arena in Smyrna before a great multitude and urged to renounce Christians by saying "away with the atheists". He instead, pointed to the crowd and said "Away with the atheists."

The proconsul said "Deny Christ and I will release you." Polycarp said "86 years have I served Him, and He has never done me wrong. How can I blaspheme Him, my King, who has saved me? I am a Christian." The crowd called for him to be burned, and he was burned at the stake without ropes."

2. PETER WALDO. 1176 AD.

He was a rich merchant of Lyons, France who sold all his goods and gave money to the poor. He believed that the Bible was the only rule of faith and practice. He and his followers went about two by two preaching. They memorized large parts of Scripture.

They did not believe in purgatory or in masses. They believed that prayers said "in a house, to be just as effective as in a church. They grew so numerous that the Roman Catholic church's very existence was threatened. The Dominican and Franciscan Catholic orders were started to oppose the Waldenses, but they failed. Then the Roman Catholic church started the Inquisition to try them for heresy and kill them. In Southern France, there were too many Waldenses for the Inquisition to kill, so the Roman Catholic Church organized armies to march into Southern France to kill them. For 20 years blood flowed like water. The Waldenses fled to the high valleys of the alps and survive today. John 16:1-3.

3. JOHN WYCLIFFE. 1320-1384.

John Wycliffe was born in England in 1320 and became an Oxford University Professor. In 1376 he began to rebuke the wealthy, corrupt clergy. He declared the Bible to be the only rule of faith, not the Church. He translated the Bible into English from Latin so that all could read it. He called the Pope the "Antichrist." He and his followers (Lollards) spread Bibles and his teachings all over England. A law was passed to burn his followers as heretics. Thousands were martyred, but Lollardism continued to the Reformation. Wycliffe died in peace in 1384.

29 years after his death, Catholic clergy dug up his bones and burned them for heresy. Why? Because Wycliffe opposed mendicant friars selling indulgences, and the doctrine of transubstantiation. The Catholic church opposed translating the Bible into English.

"The Lord gave the Word: great was the company of those that published it." Psalm 68:11.

"Oh that my words were now written! Oh that they were printed in a book!... That they were graven with an iron pen and lead in the rock forever." Job 19:23,24.

4. JOHN HUSS. 1369-1414.

John Huss was born in 1369 in Czechoslovakia. He could see the Biblical truth of Wycliffe's teachings. Huss began to preach strongly against Catholic clergy corruption. The Waldenses and the common people heartily welcomed Huss' teachings and he won almost all Bohemia to Christ. Huss taught that:

- 1) The Church consists of all people who are saved.
- 2) Christ is Head of the Church, not Popes or Cardinals.

The great Schism in the Roman Catholic church was happening at this time, having 2 Popes, John XXIII at Avignon and Gregory XII in Rome. Pope John promised indulgences to all those who would help him fight Pope Gregory. Huss condemned the selling of indulgences as contrary to the Bible. Pope John XXIII then excommunicated Huss. Huss declared it null and void.

In 1414 Emperor Sigismund invited Huss to attend a Council, promising him safe conduct. Huss accepted. Pope John XXIII then put Huss in prison for heresy.

Huss, the Bohemians and the Emperor protested his arrest, but the Pope said it was alright to deceive and betray heretics, because heretics have no rights.

After 8 months in prison, Huss was cursed, degraded and burned at the stake. A Catholic army invaded Bohemia to kill Huss' followers. War raged for many years. When the Reformation began in Germany, Bohemia still opposed Roman Catholicism. "Others were tortured, not accepting deliverance that they might obtain a better resurrection. Others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea of bonds and imprisonment. All these obtained a good report through faith." Hebrews 11:35,36,39.

Is Their Religion Enough?

People who should know better, tell me that the heathen are better off as they are, that their own religions satisfy them and meet their needs. Is that true? If so, then most certainly we should let them alone. But are they happy as they are?

a) I am thinking now of that Mohammedan in Algeria who slashed his head again and again with a large knife, until the blood flowed freely, then took newspapers and plastered them on top of his head; finally taking out a match and striking it, he set fire to the papers, hair, and blood. Can you imagine the agony? Why the self-inflicted torture? Because of his religion. He was laying up merit in heaven. Mohammedanism taught him to afflict himself, and he was doing it with a vengeance. Would you exchange places with him? Would you accept his Mohammedanism and give him your Christianity? Which religion would you prefer? Do you think Mohammedanism brought him peace and comfort and happiness; or the very opposite? I leave you to answer.

b) I am thinking of the Africans before Christianity, who killed their twin babies, believing them to be demon-possessed. If God should give you twins would you be willing to have them murdered? You would have to if you lived in Africa, for your religion would compel you to destroy them.

c) I am thinking of the Hindu widows of India, who because of their religion, have to lie down beside their husbands when they have died and allow themselves to be bound and burned alive. Thousands of them have gone into eternity screaming in agony, as they slowly burned to death. Would you exchange your religion for theirs? Do you think it brings them any pleasure, or any enjoyment? Yet you tell me to leave them alone, that they are better off as they are. What a callous philosophy!

d) I am thinking, too, of the pagans in Africa, who, when a chief dies, leaves orders for his widows-thirty, sixty, or a hundred of them to be thrown into the grave with him and bury them alive. Is that a pleasant prospect? Would you be satisfied with such a religion?

Until you, my friend, are willing to accept these religions with their consequences, and their abominable practices for yourself, you ought to be ashamed to say that the heathen are better off as they are. Their religions are religions of fear. They know nothing of peace and love. They have no hope.

Jesus Christ alone offers them life, abundant life and that which satisfies the heart.

Dr. J. Oswald Smith, The Sunday School Times.

5. MARTIN LUTHER. November 10, 1483.

He studied Law, but gave it up to become a priest. Luther visited Rome and was deeply shocked by Church corruption and evil. He deeply wanted salvation. So he tried to earn salvation by fleeing from the world and by doing good works. He couldn't find salvation in good works, so he studied the Bible more thoroughly. In 1512 he noticed Romans 1:17 "The just shall live by faith". He paused, he pondered, then joy unspeakable flooded his heart as he realized that he could be justified in God's sight by faith in Jesus Christ as his Saviour, without the works of the law.

His burden of sin rolled away. Up until now he had tried to earn salvation by his good works, but he had never been able to feel that he had done enough good works to take away his sins. God showed him that we are not saved by works, but by faith in Jesus Christ.

Tetzel had earlier greatly angered Luther by selling indulgences to people in market places of towns, saying: "As a coin in you pop, a soul from purgatory doth hop."

Now that Luther was saved he could see many errors and abuses in the Roman Catholic Church. Luther saw Tetzel deceiving people for eternity, so Luther wrote his 95 Theses against indulgences and nailed it on the Church door at Wittenburg on 31 October 1517. People came that day to see the Church's 5000 relics, but they read the 95 Theses and realised that they were true. These 95 Theses were printed in their own languages and sent all over Europe in 4 weeks. This almost stopped the sale of Indulgences. Luther defended his 95 Theses to the Pope.

Indulgence sales brought the Pope an immense income. Luther loosened the priests' hold on the people, because the Pope said that without mass, penance, confession and indulgences there was no salvation.

Fundamental Reformation teachings were that:

1. Early Church Writers showed that salvation is by preaching and receiving the Gospel.
2. All believers are priests who have direct access to God. We do not need a Roman Catholic priest to get to God.
3. A Church is a community of believers, not a heirarchy of officials.
4. The Bible, not church tradition, is the final rule of faith and morals.

The Pope summoned Luther to Rome to burn him as a heretic. Luther's powerful friend Frederick, Elector of Saxony vetoed this. Dr. Eck wrote an article against Luther, so Luther wrote 12 theses against Eck, showing that Rome's authority over other churches was based on forged documents. This greatly attacked the Pope's authority, so Eck challenged Luther to a debate at Leipzig. Eck got Luther to admit that some of Huss' ideas were right. This meant that Luther had sided with a condemned heretic. The Pope later excommunicated Luther with a Bull. Luther replied with a tract: "Against the Execrable Bull of Antichrist." Luther had read Valla's thesis which proved beyond the possibility of contradiction that the "Donation of Constantine" was a forgery. This enraged Luther to call the Pope an Antichrist.

The Pope got young Emperor Charles to judge Luther. Luther said: "I cannot recant unless proved wrong by Holy Scripture. My conscience is bound to the Word of God. Here I stand."

THE REFORMATION.

The Reformation reformed the church, but it also reformed many nations political, economic, social and cultural life.

On Luther's return from the Leipzig debate with Dr Eck, five men kidnapped him and hid him in the Wartburg Castle at the orders of Frederick the Wise for 10 months. During this time he translated the Bible from Latin to German, the language of the people. Step by step many important changes took place to make a vast difference between Catholic and Protestant.

1. The papacy was rejected.
2. The distinction between clergy and laity was rejected. Hebrews 4:16 teaches that all believers are priests having direct access to God.
3. There are no sacraments (not 7), but only two ordinances being Baptism and the Lord's Supper.
4. The sacraments are not needed for salvation. This was a big load off people's backs.
5. Praying to Mary and to the saints was done away with.
6. Worship of images was done away with.

7. Veneration of relics was done away with.
8. Pilgrimages to Rome and Jerusalem are not necessary.
9. Religious processions are not necessary.
10. Holy Water is not needed.
11. Outward asceticism, (going without to an extreme) is not needed.
12. Entering a monastery to retreat from the world are not not needed.
13. Prayers for the dead are not needed.
14. Belief in Purgatory is wrong.
15. Transubstantiation is wrong. The idea where the bread and wine are changed to the body and blood of Christ.

Luther added these extra changes.

1. The State should be above the church.
2. He translated the Bible to German. Church services were held in German, not Latin.
3. He established schools everywhere to ground children in Bible doctrine.
4. He wrote a new hymn book. The song "A mighty fortress is our God", was written by Luther.
5. He said that the Roman Catholic Church had left the New Testament Church's teachings.
6. In 1525, Luther married Catherine Von Bora, an ex-nun. He showed that priestly celibacy was not necessary. Titus 1:5,6.

6. ZWINGLI.

In Switzerland, Zwingli reformed the church. In 1518 he attacked the sale of indulgences, removed statues, abolished the mass, altars, relics, processions and transubstantiation. He said that in the Lord's Supper, the bread and grape juice symbolized Christ's body and blood. He died in battle in 1531.

7. CALVIN.

Calvin reformed the church in France. He was born in 1509. He studied logic, the early Christian writings, Bible and Law. Calvin fled Roman Catholic persecution and taught small groups in secret places. A new torture was invented to lift the victim in and out of the fire, instead of burning him all at once. Calvin fled to Basel, Switzerland where he studied and wrote "Calvin's Institutes." He sent it to King Frances I of France to show that Christians as firm Bible believers, deserved better treatment. Calvin went to Geneva where Farel enlisted his help in Switzerland. All of Norway, Sweden and Denmark embraced Lutheranism. Calvin translated the Bible into French. Both Luther and Calvin believed that Christians should be thoroughly grounded in Bible doctrine, and that salvation was by faith in Christ alone. He wrote a catechism.

Calvin's motto was "My heart for thy cause I offer thee, Lord, promptly and sincerely."

8. ANABAPTISTS.

Baptists existed since John the Baptist, Christ and the Apostles. Anabaptists were so called because they rebaptised people who had been sprinkled as babies. Anabaptists believed in:

1. The Fatherhood of God.
2. The Deity of Christ.
3. The Church as a body of converted believers, not a state church.
4. The Bible as God's authoritative word.
5. The Second coming of Christ.
6. Christ's commandments of love, holiness, self denial, humility and peace.
7. Passionate missionary concern to win lost people to eternal life in Christ.
8. Infant baptism was wrong, believers immersion was right.

They soon spread through Switzerland, Austria, South Germany, Bohemia, and Holland. Because of baptism by immersion, Roman Catholic, Lutherans, Calvinists and Zwinglians relentlessly persecuted the Anabaptists.

9. JOHN KNOX. 1514-72. "The righteous are bold as a lion." Proverbs 28:1.

John Knox reformed the church in Scotland. Scotland had a weak King fighting with Scottish lords, corrupt clergy, great poverty and universities of a low standard. Several young Scotsman went to Luther's Wittenburg University and returned to Scotland to spread Luther's doctrines. John Knox was ordained a Roman Catholic Priest. He was captured when the French invaded St Andrews and he worked as a galley slave. Knox helped Archbishop Cranmer of England write the 42 Articles for the church of Ireland. Knox after visiting Calvin returned to Scotland and preached against the Mass. In 1555 Knox urged Queen Mary to favour the Gospel. Being a strong Catholic she sentenced him to death, but Knox had fled the country, so she burned an image of him instead. Knox and his friends pledged to further "the most blessed Word of God and his congregation." After Knox returned to Scotland, the Reformation swept ahead rapidly. His preaching was powerful, direct, vigorous and plain. He used wit and cutting satire. Of his preaching they said: "Others lop off the branches, but Knox strikes at the root."

In the pulpit he was so energetic, he seemed to pound it to pieces and fly out of it. His preaching was like a spark in a gunpowder keg. People smashed images and statues. In 1560 the Scottish Parliament changed the countries religion from Catholicism to Protestantism. The Pope's and Priest's authority was abolished and the Mass was forbidden. Maintenance of the true religion was declared to be the prime duty of Government. Their order of service had: prayer, Bible reading, offering, sermon and singing. The Reformation was preserved unintentionally by Catholic Mary Queen of Scots by her immoral life, the burning of Protestants at the stake and her other unwise actions. These caused the leaders and people to turn to Protestantism. Knox died in 1572.

10. THOMAS CRANMER. 1489-1556.

Cranmer was the first Protestant Archbishop of Canterbury. The English Reformation passed through four stages.

- 1) Henry VIII (1509-1547),
- 2) Edward VI (1547-1553),
- 3) Mary (1553-1558),
- 4) Elizabeth I (1558-1603).

In 1525 Tyndale translated the Bible into English while being greatly persecuted.

In 1536 Tyndale was martyred near Brussels.

- 1) Henry VIII applied to the Pope for a divorce from Catherine to marry Ann Boleyn. The Pope did not reply, so Henry passed a law declaring himself to be the head of the Church of England. If anyone opposed this, they'd be killed. Catholic Thomas More who had burned many Lutherans at the stake, opposed this and was beheaded. Galatians 6:7 says that what you sow, you reap.

Henry took land away from the monasteries and gave the estates to his loyal friends. Henry rejected relics such as Malcus' ear, stones that stoned Peter, a crucifix that could turn its head, roll its eyes, move its lips and foam at the mouth and shed tears. A mechanical device was found inside it, which priests manipulated in order to deceive the people.

- 2) Edward VI came to the throne at age 9 years. He favoured the Reformation. That same year (1547) Parliament passed a law stating that:
 - 1) All people could partake of bread and grape juice.
 - 2) Images should be removed from churches.
 - 3) Celibacy of priests and nuns was done away with.
 - 4) The Prayer book dropped prayers for the dead.
 - 5) They adopted the 39 articles. Then Edward died of Tuberculosis.

- 3) Bloody Mary (1553-58) a strong Catholic came to the throne and reversed all the Reformation work of Edward. In 1555 she burned 75 Christians at the stake, including Hugh Latimer and Nicholas Ridley. Her next victim was Cranmer, Archbishop of Canterbury, appointed by Henry as the first Protestant Archbishop.

After Henry VIII death, Cranmer was the main moving force behind the Reformation in England. The Pope excommunicated Cranmer in 1555. Cranmer weakened and was pressured to sign a statement denying Protestantism. Mary then decided to kill him in 1556. Just before he was to die, he renounced his denial, and once more strongly declared his Protestant faith. The hand which signed the denial, he held in the flames until it was burned to a crisp. He then was burned as a martyr and a hero. Mary died in 1558 having burned over 300 people to death.

4) Elizabeth I (1558-1603) was Mary's sister. Mary's persecutions were aimed at destroying Protestantism, but it greatly aroused anti-Roman Catholic anger. In 1559 Parliament rejected all Papal authority over England.

* At this time, the eight Protestant countries were England, Germany, Switzerland, Holland, Scotland, Denmark, Norway, and Sweden.

* Now Rome formulated a creed at the Council of Trent of 1545-63.

* Emperor Charles V wanted to destroy Protestantism in its early days, but God raised up the Muslim Turks to attack Charles and a French war which distracted him from attacking Protestantism.

Catholicism was revitalized by 3 new weapons:

1) The Index, a list of banned books.

2) The Inquisition to try, torture and kill Protestants.

3) The Jesuit's job was to win countries back to Catholicism. They won back most of Poland, Austria, Ireland, Belgium, Bavaria and parts of South Germany.

11. FRENCH HUGUENOTS. 1562-1629. French Protestants.

France, like Germany was divided between Protestants and Catholics. The Huguenots were a strong, prosperous, intelligent, nobility class, but they were a minority.

Civil war broke out between Catholics and Protestants in 1562. In 1570 a brief peace was made. Catholic extremists alarmed Catherine de Medici with reports that Huguenots were plotting to take the throne. Catherine convinced Charles IX of this and they plotted to massacre all Huguenots.

All leading Huguenots were invited to the wedding of Henry and Margaret in Paris. On August 24, 1572 which was St. Bartholomew's day, bells were rung to signal the massacre to begin. Over ten thousand Huguenots were killed that day. Most French Huguenots fled to the new world (America) or other countries.

* Protestants were burned at the stake as heretics in Italy, Spain, France, England, Scotland, but most in Holland (18,000). Phillip II of Spain tortured, burned, drowned and buried alive many Protestants. Spain and Holland fought each other in a bloody 18 year war. England supported Holland until Holland won a peace in 1609.

* Phillip II of Spain formed an enormous fleet called the Spanish Armada of 130 ships, 180 priests and 30,000 men to conquer England. God defeated the Armada by sending a terrible storm which destroyed most of the ships. 5 years later, Phillip sent 100 ships to conquer England for Rome. God sent a gale destroying most of his ships.

"Praise the Lord...stormy wind fulfilling His Word." Psalm 148:7,8.

* The Thirty Year War (1618-48). Rome and Catholics attacked Germany to destroy Protestantism. When things looked hopeless for the Protestants, King Gustavus Adolphus of Sweden brought his armies in to win the war for the Protestants. Peace came in 1648. The German population was reduced from 15 million to 5 million in the 30 Years War.

There have been no major boundary changes since the treaty of Westphalia in 1648 between Protestants and Catholics. "I saw the woman drunk with the blood of saints." Revelation 17:5,6.

12. OLIVER CROMWELL.

Cromwell led English independent Christians in a war against Charles I who had persecuted Puritans after Elizabeth's death. Cromwell's 21,000 cavalry went into battle singing psalms. When not fighting they studied the Bible, prayed and sang hymns. They were never defeated. The King surrendered and was beheaded in 1649.

13. WILLIAM OF ORANGE.

In 1685, James II, a strong Catholic, came to the English throne, aiming to restore England to Catholicism. James II plotted with Louis XIV of France to attack England. The English in their distress appealed to William III of Orange (Holland) to help them. William with his army crossed the sea in 1688 and drove out James II. William and Mary were then crowned King and Queen of England. As a result of William's bravery he saved England, Holland and America for Protestantism and liberty against Catholicism. There were no more Protestant/Catholic wars after 1689.

14. COUNT VON ZINZENDORF.

He was born in Czechoslovakia, in 1700. As a child he saw a picture of Christ on the cross saying: "This I did for you. What do you do for me?" This made a great impression on him and his entire life was controlled by a love for Jesus and a burning desire to win souls for Christ. When aged 10 years old, he started a club to promote personal holiness and the evangelization of the world.

When aged 15 he and his classmates promised on every occasion to confess Christ and to seek the conversion of men. He bought a large area of land near Dresden. In 1722 he gave Christian David permission to let the Pietists come and live on his estates. He devoted his life to reorganize this group of 300 people to win the world to Christ. Where they lived was called Herrnhut, meaning the Lord's lodge. They were later called Moravians. Zinzendorf looked on the members of the Moravian church as soldiers of Christ who were to go to all the world to conquer it for Christ.

The Moravians were the first Protestant body to take seriously the Great Commission. They established missions in Africa, Asia, Greenland, Lapland, to the American Indians and home mission work. There are 70,000 Moravians today in United States. They had an impact on other denominations to soul winning, entirely beyond proportion to their small number. They first lit the torch of Protestant missionary zeal. "Go and preach the Gospel to every creature." Mark 16:15.

A Moravian asked Wesley if he knew Christ. This triggered Wesley's desire to be saved.

CONCLUSION:

Will you be like the Moravians?

Will you stand up for Christ like Protestants in Europe?

Will you deny Christ as Cranmer did only to feel shame afterwards?

Will you seek to win Countries for Christ like Knox?

70b. THE CHALLENGE OF MISSIONS

Bible Reading: Revelation 3:7-13.

Aim: To challenge us with opportunities that exist to be soul winners and Bible teaching missionaries.

Introduction: What will you do with your God-given life? Each of us are faced with many opportunities to serve God, yet we often don't notice them. We can be greatly inspired by stories of missionaries in the Bible. These became the basis for missionaries over the last 2000 years. We have the Great Commission of Christ in Matthew 28:18-20. God calls all of us to be a missionary either at home or overseas.

a) If you are a young man, pray and ask God if he wants you to be an overseas or home missionary. Then get prepared by learning Soul Winning and Bible teaching here and now. You say "I need a job to earn money." Then get a trade or source of income while you are preparing for missionary work. Trust God to supply your needs. He won't let you down. He hasn't let anyone else down yet.

b) Mothers: Train, equip and encourage your children to be missionaries. If I had 100 children, I'd want them all to be missionaries here or overseas. God had one Son and He made him a missionary.

c) Men: God may be calling you to train to be a missionary somewhere one day. Your life isn't finished when you retire from your secular job. Aim to retire early so that you can be a missionary until you die.

d) Young ladies: Train to be a Soul Winning, Bible teaching missionary. Marry a man with same goals.

1) The Philadelphian church in Revelation 2 was a missionary church that God gave an open door.

3:8. Today, God has given us open doors all over the world.

2) They had a little strength. So do we. God uses those with a little strength. Rev 3:8.

3) They kept Christ's Word. Avoid modern Bible versions that omit much of God's Word.

4) People hated this church, because Christ says that he will make their enemies worship before their feet, and to know that I have loved thee. That Christ loved this church is what mattered. Rev 3:9.

5) This church will be kept out of the Tribulation. Why? Because they kept God's Word. Rev 3:10.

6) This church had a crown reward in heaven. Rev 3:11.

7) Overcomers in this church will become a pillar in God's heavenly temple. Rev 3:12.

8) "He shall go no more out" means no more rejection as you get in soul winning, visitation and persecution. I go soul winning/door knocking each week so that I won't get scared of doing it.

9) I will write on him my new name and the city New Jerusalem's name. Rev 3:12.

Note: This Philadelphian Church is represented by the church from around 1700 to the Second coming who hold the truth of God's Word out to a lost world.

Let us look at some well-known missionaries of this period and be encouraged to follow their example.

15. DAVID BRAINERD. 1718-1747. To American Indians.

Brainerd was born in Connecticut, USA. He was saved in 1739 and entered Yale College to study for the ministry. He was expelled from Yale for criticizing a tutor and for attending a revival meeting forbidden by the rector. He was later appointed missionary to the American Indians and ordained in 1744. That year his health was poor and he saw little success among the Indians. But on 3 January 1745 he prayed and fasted all day for God to pour out his Holy Spirit on his work. The Lord laid John 7:37 on his mind: "If any man thirst let him come unto me and drink."

He preached this verse continually among the Indians. A key breakthrough occurred that year when his interpreter Moses Tautamy and his wife received Christ as Saviour and asked for baptism. Moses was a constant drinker and often had been drunk while interpreting.

After being saved, the change in Moses was dramatic. He interpreted differently and would often continue on preaching after David Brainerd stopped, exhorting the Indians to come to Christ.

Wherever David Brainerd went, revival broke out and many received Christ as their Saviour all that year. In 1747 tuberculosis compelled him to abandon his work. He went to Jonathan Edwards house and became engaged to his daughter, but died in October 1747. Jonathan Edwards later published his work and it inspired many to follow his work among the Indians. Missionaries such as William Carey, Henry Martyn and others were inspired by him.

16. WILLIAM CAREY. 1761-1834.

He was called the "Father of Modern Missions." His vision was to take the gospel to the entire world. He was saved at age 18 in a shoemaker's shop where he worked. He mastered 5 languages. He was ordained by the Particular Baptists in 1787 and began to urge that worldwide missions be undertaken. An older Calvinist preacher rebuked him for this, saying, "When God is ready to convert the heathen, he will do so without your help or mine."

One of Carey's famous quotes was: "Expect great things from God. Attempt great things for God."

In 1792, the Particular Baptist missionary society was formed. They sent Carey to India as their first missionary. Carey took a job as a manager of an Indigo plantation to pay for the work. He founded 26 churches, 126 schools (with 10,000 students enrolled), translated the Bible into 44 languages, produced dictionaries, organised India's first medical mission, savings bank, Bible College and newspaper. He performed many agriculture experiments. He helped eradicate suttee (the practice of burning a widow when her husband died). He formed India's first printing company, paper mill and steam engine. He baptised his first Hindu convert in 1800. He inspired the formation of the:

London missionary society in 1795, Netherlands missionary society in 1797,

American missionary society in 1810, and the American Baptist Missionary Union in 1814.

He sparked the entire Christian World to carry out the Great Commission.

17. JOHN WESLEY. 1703-1791. Founded Methodism.

Born in Epworth, England, the 15th child of Susanna and Samuel Wesley, a non-conformist pastor. At age 6 the house burned down and he was rescued from death. He saw himself as "a firebrand plucked out of the burning." They started the "Holy Club" at Oxford University and were called Methodists, meaning one that lives according to the method laid down in the Bible. He valued a "clean heart, a single eye, a soul full of God." John and Charles sailed to Georgia, America to convert the Indians, but failed miserably.

On the way home, the ship almost sank and he saw how 26 Moravians sang and trusted God, showing no fear of death. Spangenburg asked Wesley, "Do you know Jesus Christ?" Wesley did not know Christ yet. Wesley found no peace with God, because he sought it not by faith in Christ, but by the works of the Law. "I went to America to convert the Indians, but who shall convert me?" In England, they met Peter Bohler, a Moravian who taught a faith of complete surrender, instant conversion and joy in believing.

Wesley while reading Luther's preface to his Romans Commentary regarding the change which God works in us through faith in Christ, then trusted Christ alone for salvation, and received assurance that his sins were taken away and saved.

He believed that one should be able to tell the exact circumstances, time and place of their conversion.

Wesley's life spanned the entire 1700's. England was in a contest with France for world supremacy.

England then laid the foundation of her empire in India, North America, Australia, South Africa and Africa. England then became an industrial manufacturing power. Most preachers did nothing for Christ, and morals were low at the time.

In 1739 George Whitfield, an Anglican minister began preaching outdoors to Bristol miners. He invited Wesley to join him. Wesley then began 50 years of outdoor preaching in England, Scotland and Wales. The Anglican church closed its doors to Wesley. "I look upon the world as my parish," he said.

He gathered those who were saved into "Societies". He issued society tickets to be renewed quarterly to weed out people of false conversion. Each society was divided into classes of 12 members, who paid one penny weekly to pay off the property.

He divided areas into circuits where travelling preachers spent 8 weeks in one place.

Charles Wesley wrote thousands of Christian songs. John Wesley urged his lay preachers to study at home and he published many cheap, short, plain books for Christians, which made him wealthy, yet he gave it all away. He worked with Wilberforce to abolish slavery.

On ordaining his own preachers, he broke from the Church of England. They forbade him to preach in their churches. So he first preached on his father's tombstone to a large crowd.

He believed that people accepted Christ of their own free will. He was not a Calvinist as was Whitfield. He breathed new life into many other churches. Those influenced by him were John Newton, William Wilberforce who helped stop slavery, John Howard who reformed bad prison conditions, and Robert Raikes the father of Sunday Schools.

He preached his last outdoor sermon in 1790 on Isaiah 55:6 "Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near."

He died on March 2, 1791 and memorial services were held throughout England, Wales, Scotland and Ireland. It is said that he stopped the French Revolution from spreading to England.

18. HUDSON TAYLOR. 1832-1905.

He founded the China Inland Mission. Born into a Methodist family, his parents and grandparents had entertained John Wesley in their home. His father had a deep concern for China. At age 5, he wanted to become a missionary to China. He was home-schooled because of his ill health. In 1849, he was saved at age 17 while reading a tract on the finished work of Christ in his father's study. That year he offered his life to Christ for full time missionary service. The Lord called him to China. He began to prepare his life to go to China. He learned the Mandarin language, Medicine and Theology. He learned to depend on God for everything. One day he was out visiting the poor, when a man asked him to come and pray for his wife. In the house, he found that it was full of starving children, a sick mother and her baby near death.

He gave the last coin he had to buy medicine and food for the family resulting in the mother's life being saved. Later that day a package of money arrived unexpectedly for him. In 1853, he set sail for China. No one met him on arrival. He travelled inland, which was dangerous but he preached the gospel, and handed out tracts and gospels to many people. He dressed as the Chinese do, winning him great respect. In 1858, he married Maria Dyer. In 1859, he took over the London Missionary Hospital in Ningpo. By 1860, the work was growing, but the labourers were few. He had to return to England to recover his health. Here he recruited many more missionaries who went with him to China. He founded the China Inland Mission. The work soon spread over much of China. His wife and son died in 1870. He remarried in 1872. More workers came to China from 1876-78. He died in 1905.

What so greatly influenced Hudson Taylor to become a spiritual giant for God?

1) A Spiritual Home. His father was an evangelist and his mother a woman of prayer. His father began to pray for China two years before Hudson was born. The family always honoured Christ, the Bible and prayer.

2) A definite call from God. Today, teenagers are not expected to get serious about God's will for their lives. Hudson dared to seek God's will for his life.

"I asked God to give me some work to do for Him, because Christ had done so much for me."

God then convinced him to become a missionary to China.

3) God prepared him at home to sacrifice and serve.

He trusted God to meet all his needs, he did away with all material comforts, he exercised, lived on a plain diet, he economized and learned how to do without. He therefore had extra funds to share with others.

4) A love for all God's people and a desire for wide usefulness. He prayed, "Lord give me wide usefulness."

5) He depended wholly on the Lord. He discovered the secret of the exchanged life in Galatians 2:20. Three Scriptures were the key to his life:

1) Mark 11:22 "Have faith in God." He sought the will of God through prayer and Bible study. He then committed the matter to God, and trusted God to work.

2) I Samuel 7:12 "Ebenezer....hitherto hath the Lord helped us."

3) Genesis 22:14 "Jehovah Jireh....the Lord will provide." The Lord will see to it.

CONCLUSION:

Will you surrender to be somebody for God? Will you trust God with your future as a missionary? Surrender today for God's purposes to be achieved in your life.

70c. FAMOUS MISSIONARIES LIVES

Bible Reading: Ezekiel 3:16-21; Romans 10:14,15.

Aim: To be challenged by the lives of missionaries to win people to Christ through missions.

Introduction:

One thing common in all greatly used people of God is that they had very little material resources, but they were strong in faith and set out to serve God not knowing how God would work things out.

Missionaries encountered many obstacles such as:

- 1) People they spoke to were suspicious of another culture.
- 2) Local superstitions.
- 3) Dislike of foreigners.
- 4) They wanted to cling to the religion of their fathers.
- 5) Modernist missionaries and cults giving a false Gospel.

19. HENRY MARTYN

He topped mathematics at Cambridge University and said "I was surprised to find that I had grasped a shadow." He obeyed God's call to India in 1806. He translated the Bible into Hindustani and Persian. His journals and letters appeared in 1837. These motivated many young men to missionary work. He died of illness at age 31.

20. ADONIRAM JUDSON 1788-1850.

He was an American missionary who sailed to India in 1812. He adopted Baptist views on board ship and severed his Congregational ties. In 1814, he went to Burma. He mastered the Burmese language and learned Buddhism so that he could interact with the people. He translated the Bible, made a dictionary and wrote many tracts. He trained evangelists and pastors informally.

He was unwillingly caught up in the British Burmese War. He was imprisoned, bound with 5 pairs of fetters and suffered fever, heat and hunger. He miraculously survived. He baptized his first convert after 6 years. His first two wives died. He later died at sea.

21. JOHN GEDDIE 1815-1872 New Hebrides.

He encouraged his Presbyterian Church in Canada to send a missionary to the New Hebrides but no one volunteered. So he went himself in 1847. He learnt the language, translated the Bible and other books and Bible study aids. "When he landed in New Hebrides there were no Christians. When he left in 1872 there were no heathens." Praise God.

22. JOHAN KRAPE 1810-1881.

He established a mission in Mombasa 1844 (Kenya) to reach 8 million Gallas people. His wife and newborn child died of fever. He studied languages and explored East Africa. He translated a Swahili New Testament, grammar and dictionary.

23. ROBERT LAWS 1851-1934.

This Scottish missionary established missions in Malawi and Tanzania. When he left in 1927 there were over 700 primary schools, a 60,000 member Christian community, 13 ordained African Pastors. He aimed for a Bible reading, self extending and self supporting evangelizing church with national leaders.

24. ERIC LIDDELL 1902-1945.

He was born in China of missionary parents, but educated in England. He represented Scotland in International Rugby. In the 1924 Paris Olympics he disqualified himself from the 100 metres heat because it was held on a Sunday. He went on to win a gold medal in the 400 metres race. A note of 1 Samuel 2:30 was slipped into his hand which read: "Them that honour me, I will honour." He went to China as a missionary and died of a brain tumour in a Japanese concentration camp in 1942.

25. D. L. MOODY 1837-1899.

Moody was an independent, non denominational evangelist. He was saved as a shoe salesman and started the YMCA for evangelizing youth. His independent stance greatly influenced later American Fundamentalism. From 1873-75, he and Sankey (his song leader) held a crusade in England with immense success. He returned to the US as a national hero and was invited everywhere to preach. His message was as simple as 3R's:

RUIN by sin

REDEMPTION by Christ

REGENERATION by the Holy Spirit.

He majored on saving souls. He said: "I look upon this world as a wrecked vessel. God has given me a lifeboat and said to me, Moody save all you can."

He believed: Get people saved first, then all else will be added later. He promoted Dispensational Premillennialism. Torrey and Schofield were his associates. He took over and renamed "Moody Bible Institute" to train gopmen to do soul winning. He started the Student Volunteer Movement in 1886. His motto was "evangelization of the world in this generation."

26. GEORGE MULLER 1805-98.

He was born in Russia and became a British citizen. He was saved in 1825 at a home prayer meeting. He set out to train to be a missionary to the Jews, but ill health led him to Pastor Ebenezer Chapel which grew from 18 to 227 in 3 years. He believed and taught that God would supply material needs by believing prayer alone. He founded a Bible institution to spread Bible truths. He copied Franke faith orphanage in Germany for Bristol. He eventually housed, educated and trained 2000 children in 5 houses at Bristol. At age 70 he set out with his wife on a worldwide mission lasting 17 years. He blessed many by testifying to the prayer answering God. A well known incident was how at his orphanage, he thanked God for food, with nothing on the table. Then came a knock on the door with bread coming from a bakery from a broken down cart.

27. R. A. TORREY 1856-1928.

In 1889, Moody asked Torrey to head up Moody Bible Institute. From 1894-1906 he pastored Chicago's Moody Memorial church. From 1902-06 he did mass evangelism with Charles Alexander in Australia, New Zealand, India, China, Japan, Germany, Britain and Canada. In one tour of England he saw over 70,000 people saved in 4 years. He wrote many books against liberalism & how to serve God.

28. BOB JONES 1883-1968.

He was a famous evangelist and founded Bob Jones University, South Carolina. Bob Jones opposed the worldliness of Christians. He opposed the atheist drift in educational institutions. He upheld Bob Jones University doctrine and moral standards. Billy Graham trained here.

29. CHARLES FINNEY 1792-1875.

He was the father of modern revivalism. He studied law in 1818, being saved in 1821 and ordained in 1824. He was against Calvinism. An estimated 1 million people were saved in his revivals in New York, Philadelphia, Boston and the United States. He stressed the ability of people to repent.

30. MARY SLESSOR 1848-1915.

She was born in Scotland. She received a meagre education. She became a Sunday School teacher and a mission helper. In 1876, she was sent to Calabar, West Africa, which was uncontrolled by any colonial power. It was divided into warring tribes. It was ruled by witchcraft and barbarous customs such as killing twins at birth. She was in constant danger all her life. Slessor won the confidence of tribal chiefs and peoples by her fearlessness and dedication, medical and language skills and sense of humour. She opened Africa to the gospel and to trade. She opposed slavery. From 1903 she opened up new territory to the north and west. She died at age 66, worn out by service to Africa.

71. WHAT IS LOVE?

Bible Reading: I Corinthians 13:4-7.

Rebuke: By seeking the ‘showier’ gifts, you are not exhibiting love. I Cor.13 describes true love. Paul now lists fifteen qualities of true love in action. Each is a verb, and focuses on what true love does or does not do. Paul is trying to change their habits by measuring their lives against fifteen qualities of true love in action. This is a portrait of Jesus Christ, whose name is not mentioned in I Corinthians 13, but who is described as the personification of love.

1. Love is PATIENT (longsuffering 13:4).

It is the ability to be inconvenienced or taken advantage of by a person over time, yet not be upset or angry. Patience never retaliates, never takes revenge for being hurt, and refuses to pay back evil for evil (Romans 12:17). If God is so patient with rebellious men, ought not we be patient with each other? Jesus prayed while dying on the cross: “Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do.”

2. Love is KIND (13:4).

Just as patience will take anything from others, kindness will give anything to others. It means to be serving, gracious, useful, generous and showing goodwill. A Christian husband, wife and children must be kind and helpful to each other. Paul challenged the Corinthians to show kindness by repenting of their selfish, jealous, proud, childish attitudes and to humbly use their gifts to edify others.

3. Love ENVIES NOT (13:4).

Here begins eight descriptions of what love is not. Don’t confuse jealousy with envy. Jealousy is wanting what is rightfully yours, such as your spouse. God is a jealous God. Envy is wanting what is not rightfully yours. Envy comes in two ways:

- I want what someone else has, for example, a better boat, etc.
- Wanting evil for someone else that you don’t like.

Examples include:

- Eve was envious of God’s greater knowledge, to which Satan successfully appealed.
- Cain was envious of Abel’s better sacrifice.
- Joseph’s brothers, being full of envy, sold him as a slave.
- Babylonian officials, being envious of Daniel, threw him into a lion’s den.
- Pharisees crucified Jesus for envy.

“Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous; but who is able to stand before envy?” Proverbs 27:4.

A loving person is never envious, but is glad at the success of others, even if it disadvantages them. Eg: Jonathan still loved David when David was more popular and likely to take Jonathan’s throne.

4. Love DOES NOT BRAG (vaunts not itself, 13:4), or boast.

When a loving person succeeds, he does not boast of it or talk conceitedly. Love does not parade its achievements. Bragging is the other side of envy. Envy wants what others have, while bragging tries to make others envious of what we have.

Envy pulls others down, bragging brings us up. We dislike bragging in others, yet we brag ourselves.

The Corinthian believers were spiritual braggers, constantly seeking the spotlight of public attention. They wanted the showier gifts. They all wanted to talk at once, especially when speaking ecstatically. Most of their tongues-speaking was counterfeited, yet they bragged about it, as many Charismatics today. They cared nothing for Church harmony, order or edification, only for flaunting themselves.

“How is it then, brethren? When ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying.” I Cor. 14:26.

Each did his own thing, as publicly as possible, to draw attention to himself, while disregarding what others were doing.

5. Love is NOT ARROGANT (is not puffed up, 13:4).

The Corinthians believers thought that they had arrived at perfection. None of us have any reason to boast because every good gift comes from God. They were arrogant & proud about their spiritual gifts. John the Baptist said of Christ, “He must increase, but I must decrease.” John 3:30.

“pride, arrogancy, and the evil way, and the froward (bragging, arrogant) mouth, do I hate.” Prov. 8:13. Pride and arrogance bred strife, filling their church. Arrogance is big-headed, love is big-hearted.

6. Love does NOT BEHAVE ITSELF UNSEEMLY (13:5) or RUDELY.

The loveless person is impolite, bad mannered, crude, careless of people's feelings or sensitivities. When the Corinthians came to the love feast, they were greedy to eat first and became drunken (11:21). During worship services, each one tried to outdo the other in speaking in tongues, each speaking at once. Many Christians have forfeited the privilege of sharing the gospel by being rude to an unbeliever who offends them. The rude messenger can become a barrier to the gospel.

In Charismatic churches, women are "slain in the Spirit," sprawled on the floor, while altar workers cover their thighs and underwear with rugs to minimize their indecent exposure. The Holy Spirit would not endorse indecent exposure in God's people. "Love does not behave itself unseemly." (13:5). God is not the author of confusion (14:33), nor of indecent behaviour. This slaying is not of the Holy Spirit.

7. Love SEEKS NOT HER OWN (not selfish, 13:5).

An English tombstone reads:

"Here lies a miser who lived for himself, and cared for nothing but gathering wealth. Now where he is or how he fares, nobody knows and nobody cares."

In contrast, a plain tombstone in St. Paul's Cathedral reads:

"Sacred to the memory of General Charles Gordon, who at all times and everywhere gave his strength to the weak, his substance to the poor, his sympathy to the suffering, his heart to God."

"Love seeks not her own" is probably the key to everything. Fallen sinful human nature wants to have its own way. Adam and Eve rejected God's way so that they could seek their own way. Self replaced God. Love is not preoccupied with its own things, but with the interests of others. Philippians 2:4.

The Corinthian believers were examples of what loving Christians should not be. They were extremely selfish. They did not share their food at love feasts. They sued each other in courts. They wanted what they thought were the "best" spiritual gifts for themselves. They should have used their spiritual gifts for the benefit of others, but instead they used them to make themselves feel good, building up themselves. Jesus, however, is our perfect model, living his life for others, never seeking his own welfare, but always the welfare of others.

8. Love is NOT EASILY PROVOKED (13:5).

Provoke means to arouse to anger. Love guards against being irritated, upset or angered by things said or done against it. Paul does not include righteous indignation here. Jesus was righteously angry with how the Pharisees mistreated the weak and opposed the Word of God, and how they made His Father's house into a den of thieves. (Matthew 21:11,12,13). But when Jesus was personally abused, He did not become angry. Paul and Christ were only angered by things that angered God. Paul did not become angry or easily provoked at those who beat him, jailed him or lied about him. Love never reacts in retaliation or revenge. The person who wants his own way is easily provoked. When everyone seeks his own rights, everyone grabs, no one gives and everyone loses. Love considers nothing its right, but everything its obligation. Telling our spouses that we love them is false if we continually get upset and angry at what they say and do. Telling our children that we love them is false if we often yell at them for doing things that irritate us. Love that seeks the welfare of others is the only cure for self-centredness.

9. Love THINKS NO EVIL (13:5) (not keeping record of wrongs suffered).

Keeping record of things done against us is a sure way to our and others unhappiness. "Thinks no evil" in Greek, is "logizomai" meaning "take into account," a book-keeping term for keeping a permanent record. When God pardons those who receive Christ as Saviour, He keeps no more record of their sins. "Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute (take into account) sin." Romans 4:8.

Love forgives, keeping no books, because it holds no resentment or grudges. If God so completely and permanently erases the record of our many sins against Him, how much more should we forgive and forget the much lesser wrongs done against us?

10. Love DOES NOT REJOICE IN INIQUITY (13:6) (sin).

Love never gets satisfaction from sin, whether ours or others. Doing wrong is bad, bragging about sin is worse. To rejoice in sin is to make wrong appear right. "Woe to them that call evil good, and good evil: that put darkness for light, and light for darkness...." Isaiah 5:20.

This is turning God's truth upside down. Many magazines, books and TV programs glorify sin and rejoice in unrighteousness. They teach that anything goes and that everyone sets their own standards of right and wrong. They say "Right is doing what you want." Sometimes rejoicing in iniquity takes the form of hoping that someone will fall into sin or trouble. Rejoicing in sin is wrong because:

- a) We are delighting in what offends and grieves God. When we enjoy sin, we prove our lack of love for God. Gossip reveals others sins and hurts them. Gossip is gloating over others shortcomings and sins. Gossip that is true is still gossip. A person is never helped by spreading the news of his sin.
- b) It produces harmful consequences to the sinner. He is out of fellowship with God.

11. Love REJOICES IN THE TRUTH (13:6) (The Word of God).

Righteousness is based on God's truth. Love rejoices in Bible truth and in sound doctrine. Love cannot tolerate wrong doctrine. What people believe, affects their well-being now, their eternal destiny and their understanding of God's will. Love will not compromise the truth, because it is unkind to mislead people by our failure to stand up for the truth. Love, truth and righteousness are connected. Love looks for the good, hopes for the good and emphasizes the good. Love rejoices in people living the truth.

12. Love BEARS (covers, supports, protects) ALL THINGS. (13:7).

The four qualities in 13:7 are hyperbole, the "all things" are exaggerations to make a point. Love rejects envy, bragging, arrogance, rudeness, selfishness, easy provocation, evil thoughts and sin. "All things" means all things acceptable to God's will. "Bear" means to cover, support and protect others from exposure, ridicule or harm. "Love covereth all sins." Proverbs 10:12. We measure our love for a person by how quick we are to cover his faults. For example, when one of our children does something wrong, we cover his faults by saying "He's a good boy, he didn't mean it." When someone we don't like does wrong, we say "That's typical of him." Love does not justify sin or compromise with error, but love warns, corrects, encourages, rebukes and disciplines. Love does not expose readily or broadcast wrongs. Note: Love feels the pain of those it loves and helps them carry the burden or hurt. True love is willing to bear the consequences of the sin of those it loves. "He was bruised for our iniquities." Isaiah 53:5. "Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ." Galatians 6:2.

Fallen human nature has a perverse pleasure in exposing other's faults and failures.

13. Love BELIEVES ALL THINGS (13:7), not gullibly, but only on the basis of facts.

Love is not suspicious or cynical. Love believes all things in two ways:

- a) It believes in the best outcome for the wrongdoer, that the wrong will be confessed, forgiven, and restored to fellowship.
- b) If there is a doubt about a person's guilt or motivation, love will always conclude the most favourable possibility. Love will consider an accused person innocent until proven guilty. When a person fails, let us help them come good. For example:
 - i) Job's friends gave him no benefit of the doubt, because they had no true love for him. They were ready to believe the worst about him.
 - ii) The Scribes and Pharisees showed lovelessness by seeing the worst in others.

When Jesus forgave and healed the paralyzed man (Mark 2:1-12), the Pharisees accused him of blasphemy. Hatred believes the worst, love believes the best.

14. Love HOPES all things (13:7).

Even when a friend disappoints us, love still hopes. Failure is never final where God's grace is operating. For example, God would not take Israel's failure as final. Jesus would not take Peter's failure as final, and Paul would not take the Corinthian's failure as final. Bible promises give hope to encourage our prayers. We all hope that a rebellious child, a wayward spouse, an erring believer will be restored. Love refuses to take failure as final. "And now abideth faith, hope and charity..." (13:13).

15. Love ENDURES all things (13:7).

To endure ("Hupomeno" in Greek) was a military term used of an army holding a vital position at all costs. Every hardship and suffering was to be endured to hold on. Love holds fast to those it loves. Love endures all things at all costs. Love commits to others in good and bad times, for better or for worse.

Conclusion: Let us develop these qualities of love by developing our relationship with Christ.

Let us be givers to God and others and not just takers.

72. GUIDANCE: HOW TO FIND the WILL OF GOD

Bible Reading: I Thessalonians 5:12-23.

Aim: As Christians, we must renounce our will and be committed to doing God's will all our life. A problem every Christian faces is how to find God's will in daily decision making. Jesus Christ always fulfilled God's will for His life. "I have finished the work which thou gave me to do." John 17:4 "I come to do thy will, O God." Hebrews 10:7.

As Jesus was assigned a specific task to perform on earth, so each Christian is also assigned a special task. It is our responsibility to find and obey God's plan for our life.

I. GOD HAS A PLAN FOR EACH LIFE.

1. This plan is suited to our talents, personalities, needs, potential and environment. "For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them." Ephesians 2:10.
2. There is a different plan for each one of us. Paul said, "I have finished my course." II Timothy 4:7. "Let us run with patience the race that is set before us." Hebrews 12:1. "The God of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou should know His will." Acts 22:14. God wanted Paul (and us) to know God's particular will for our lives. "I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way that thou shalt go: I will guide thee with my eye." Psalm 32:8.
3. God's plan is very detailed, step by step. "The steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord." Psalm 37:23. God doesn't always reveal the distant future, but He leads us step by step, day by day.
4. God's plan is continuous. "The Lord shall guide thee continually." Isaiah 58:11.
5. God's plan is definite and specific. "Thine ears shall hear a word behind thee saying, this is the way, walk ye in it." (Isaiah 30:21). The Lord guides us by His Holy Spirit through His Word.
6. God wants us to enquire about His plan and its daily details. "Cause me to know the way wherein I should walk." Psalm 143:8.
7. The will of God for you is always good, acceptable and perfect. "That ye may prove what is that good, acceptable and perfect will of God." Romans 12:2.

II. GOD'S PLAN CAN BE MISSED.

Sadly, it is possible for us to miss God's plan by seeking our own selfish, stubborn ways and plans. "O that thou had hearkened to my commandments, then had thy peace been as a river." Isaiah 48:18

III. GOD'S PLAN ALWAYS INCLUDES CERTAIN FEATURES.

1. Sanctification and separation from sin unto holiness. "For this is the will of God, even your sanctification." I Thessalonians 4:3. God is holy and He wills us to be holy.
2. Supplication, prayer and thanksgiving. "Pray without ceasing." I Thessalonians 5:17.
3. Be Spirit filled. "Quench not the spirit." I Thessalonians 5:19.
4. Be submissive to the Word of God. "Despise not prophesyings." I Thessalonians 5:20.
5. Be saying thanks. "In everything give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you." I Thessalonians 5:18.
6. Be sexually pure. "This is the will of God.....that ye should abstain from fornication." I Thessalonians 4:3.
7. Be sober. "Let us.....be sober." I Thessalonians 5:8.
8. Be serene. "Comfort one another." I Thessalonians 4:18. "Be at peace among yourselves." I Thessalonians 5:13.
9. Be suffering. "We told you before that we should suffer tribulation." I Thessalonians 3:3,4.
10. Be surrendered. "That ye should walk worthy of God." I Thessalonians 2:12.
11. Be well doing. "For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men." I Peter 2:15.
12. Be saved. "Not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance." II Peter 3:9.

IV. METHODS OF GUIDANCE.

Question: How do we find God's will for our life in any situation?

How does God reveal His will to the seeking individual? God's methods are:

1. The Bible. Ask: "What Bible verses relate to this question that I need to apply?" Saturate yourself with the Word of God so that God can bring relevant verses to your mind. God's will is never contrary to the Bible.
2. Circumstances - open or closed doors. God, by circumstances, closes one door and opens another. "A great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries." I Corinthians 16:9. "I have set before thee an open door." Rev. 3:8. Nothing happens to Christians by accident. Each item is planned by God. We accept circumstances as guideposts in His leading. In driving, red lights are equally valuable as green lights. When we get a stop sign, we must wait patiently for God to guide us.
3. Prayer. "Ye have not because ye ask not." James 4:2.
 - i) Don't worry: be careful for nothing.
 - ii) Pray about everything: by prayer and supplication.
 - iii) Be thankful for past and present blessings: with thanksgiving.
 - iv) Let your requests be made known unto God.
 - v) Results: the peace of God that passes all understanding shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Philippians 4:6,7.
4. Peace of God must be sought before acting. How do we get the peace of God?
 - a) Be filled with the Spirit then you'll exhibit the fruit of the Spirit of love, joy, peace. Gal. 5:22.
 - b) Occupation with Christ. "He is our peace." Ephesians 2:14.
 - c) Endeavour to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. Ephesians 4:3.
 - d) Be crucified to the world, and glory in the cross. "God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world. As many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them and mercy." Galatians 6:14-16.
 - e) Preach the Gospel of peace. "Feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace." Eph. 6:15
 - f) Prayer brings the peace of God that passes understanding. Philippians 4:6,7.
 - g) Think on things that are true, honest, just, pure, lovely, good report, virtue and praise....the God of peace shall be with you. Philippians 4:8,9.
 - h) Be content. "I have learned in whatsoever state I am therewith to be content." Philippians 4:11.
 - i) Put on mercy, kindness, humility, meekness, longsuffering, forbearing and forgiving one another. Put on charity. Be thankful. Let the peace of God rule in your hearts. Coloss. 3:12-15.
 - j) Esteem the pastor very highly in love for his work's sake. Be at peace among yourselves. I Thessalonians 5:13. If church members all submit to the pastor, as the pastor walks with the Lord, you'll have peace in your church.
 - k) Live peacefully with all men. Romans 12:18.
 - l) Don't have fights with people. Revelation 6:4.
5. Good Advisors - "In the multitude of counsellors there is safety." Proverbs 11:14.

V. QUESTIONS TO ASK TO DISCOVER GOD'S WILL.

Q1: Will it hinder my service to God? Is it a weight? "Lay aside every weight..." Hebrews 12:1.

Q2: Does it advance God's plans for my life?

Q3: Am I yoking up with unbelievers? II Cor. 6:14-18. Unbeliever's goals are to make money for themselves. Your goal is to serve God. Don't ever enter a business partnership or marriage with an unbeliever! You will lose and have a fight.

Q4: Am I listening to the advice of the ungodly or unbelievers? Psalm 1:1.

Q5: Is someone telling me a lie? Can I trust them? How do I know? How well do I know them? Are they experienced over many years in their field?

Q6: What future problems will this action lead to? (eg. who can stop my project, extort money or charge me excessively if a problem arises?).

Q7: How much will it cost EXACTLY? Are there any hidden costs or extras?

- Q8: Why must I decide now? Wait up to one week after gaining all the facts to make your decision if it will bind you, so that you can reflect, get more information and ask more people. Keep your options open. Try to make the deal less binding rather than more binding.
- Q9: Is this decision going to bind me in some way to other people who can hurt me? eg. they may get me over a barrel and extort money out of me, or do evil things to me.
- Q10: Are people putting pressure on me to decide quickly to their advantage? Why?
- Q11: Is it the voice of my desires, or is it what God wants me to do?
- Q12: What other options exist?
- Q13: Have I discussed this with three other expert advisors?
- Q14: If in doubt, DON'T!!!! Wait on God. You might find a better opportunity shortly.

73. TWELVE “TONGUE TAMERS”

If we memorize these verses and use them to control our tongue, then we will have victory over the consequences of bad words. Ask the Lord to set a guard over our tongue so that we only say things that are pleasing to Him.

1. “He that keepeth his mouth keepeth his life; but he that openeth wide his lips shall have destruction.” Proverbs 13:3.
2. “Seest thou a man that is hasty in his words? there is more hope of a fool than of him.” Prov. 29:20
3. “He that answereth a matter before he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him.” Proverbs 18:13.
4. “Every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.” Matthew 12:36.
5. “Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.” Ephesians 4:29.
6. “A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth: and a word spoken in due season, how good is it!” Proverbs 15:23.
7. “Whose keepeth his mouth and his tongue keepeth his soul from troubles.” Proverbs 21:23.
8. “A soft answer turneth away wrath: but grievous words stir up anger....A wholesome tongue is a tree of life: but perverseness therein is a breach in the spirit.” Proverbs 15:1,4.
9. “Even a fool, when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise: and he that shutteth his lips is esteemed a man of understanding.” Proverbs 17:28.
10. “The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.” Proverbs 18:8.
11. “For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile.” I Peter 3:10.
12. “If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man’s religion is vain.” James 1:26.

74. 49 CHARACTER QUALITIES

Copyright 1982, Institute in Basic Life Principles. Used by permission.

QUALITY	DEFINITIONS
1. ALERTNESS vs. Unawareness	Being aware of the physical and spiritual events taking place around me so that I can have the right responses to them. (See Mark 14:38.)
2. ATTENTIVENESS vs. Unconcern	Showing the worth of a person by giving undivided attention to his words and emotions. (See Hebrews 2:1.)
3. AVAILABILITY vs. Self-centeredness	Adjusting my personal responsibilities around the needs of those whom I am serving. (See Philippians 2:20-21.)
4. BOLDNESS vs. Fearfulness	Confidence that what I have to say or do is true and right and just in the sight of God. (See Acts 4:29.)
5. CAUTIOUSNESS vs. Rashness	Knowing how important right timing is in accomplishing right actions. (See Proverbs 19:2.)
6. COMPASSION vs. Indifference	Investing whatever is necessary to heal the hurts of others. (See I John 3:17.)
7. CONTENTMENT vs. Covetousness	Realizing God has provided everything I need for my present happiness. (See I Timothy 6:8.)
8. CREATIVITY vs. Under-achievement	Applying God's wisdom and practical insights to a need or task. (See Romans 12:2.)
9. DECISIVENESS vs. Double-mindedness	The ability to finalize difficult decisions based on the will and ways of God. (See James 1:5.)
10. DEFERENCE vs. Rudeness	Limiting my freedom to speak and act in order not to offend the tastes of others. (See Romans 14:21.)
11. DEPENDABILITY vs. Inconsistency	Fulfilling what I consented to do even if it means unexpected sacrifice. (See Psalm 15:4.)
12. DETERMINATION vs. Faint-heartedness	Purposing to accomplish God's goals in God's time regardless of the opposition. (See II Timothy 4:7-8.)

QUALITY

DEFINITIONS

- | | |
|--|---|
| 13. DILIGENCE
vs.
Slothfulness | Visualizing each task as a special assignment from the Lord and using all my energies to accomplish it.
(See Colossians 3:23.) |
| 14. DISCERNMENT
vs.
Judgment | The God given ability to understand why things happen to others and to me.
(See I Samuel 16:7.) |
| 15. DISCRETION
vs.
Simple-mindedness | The ability to avoid words, actions, and attitudes which could result in undesirable consequences.
(See Proverbs 22:3.) |
| 16. ENDURANCE
vs.
Giving up | The inward strength to withstand stress to accomplish God's best.
(See Galatians 6:9.) |
| 17. ENTHUSIASM
vs.
Apathy | Expressing with my spirit the joy of my soul.
(See I Thessalonians 5:16-19.) |
| 18. FAITH
vs.
Presumption | Visualizing what God intends to do in a given situation and acting in harmony with it. (See Hebrews 11:1.) |
| 19. FLEXIBILITY
vs.
Resistance | Not setting my affections on ideas or plans which could be changed by God or by others. (See Colossians 3:2.) |
| 20. FORGIVENESS
vs.
Rejection | Cleaning the record of those who have wronged me and allowing God to love them through me. (See Ephesians 4:32.) |
| 21. GENEROSITY
vs.
Stinginess | Realizing that all I have belongs to God and using it for His purposes.
(See II Corinthians 9:6.) |
| 22. GENTLENESS
vs.
Harshness | Showing personal care and concern in meeting the needs of others.
(See I Thessalonians 2:7.) |
| 23. GRATEFULNESS
vs.
Unthankfulness | Making known to God and others in what ways they have benefited my life.
(See I Corinthians 4:7.) |
| 24. HOSPITALITY
vs.
Loneliness | Cheerfully sharing food, shelter, and spiritual refreshment with those whom God brings into my life.
(See Hebrews 13:2.) |

QUALITY

DEFINITIONS

25. HUMILITY
vs.
Pride
Seeing the contrast between God's holiness and my sinfulness. (See James 4:6.) 26. INITIATIVE
vs.
Unresponsiveness
Recognizing and doing what needs to be done before I am asked to do it. (See Romans 12:21.)
27. JOYFULNESS
vs.
Self-pity
The result of knowing that God is perfecting His life in others through me. (See Proverbs 15:13.)
28. JUSTICE
vs.
Fairness
Personal responsibility to God's unchanging laws. (See Micah 6:8.)
29. LOVE
vs.
Selfishness
Giving to others basic needs without having personal reward as my motive. (See I Corinthians 13:3.)
30. LOYALTY
vs.
Unfaithfulness
Using difficult times to demonstrate my commitment to God and to those whom He has called me to serve. (See John 15:13.)
31. MEEKNESS
vs.
Anger
Yielding my personal rights and expectations to God. (See Psalm 62:5.)
32. OBEDIENCE
vs.
Willfulness
Fulfilling instructions so that God and the one I am serving will be fully satisfied. (See II Corinthians 10:5.)
33. ORDERLINESS
vs.
Disorganization
Arranging my life and surroundings so that God has maximum freedom to achieve His goals through me. (See I Corinthians 14:40.)
34. PATIENCE
vs.
Restlessness
Accepting a difficult situation from God without giving Him a deadline to remove it. (See Romans 5:3-4.)
35. PERSUASIVENESS
vs.
Contentiousness
Using words which cause the listener's spirit to confirm that he is hearing truth. (See II Timothy 2:24.)
36. PUNCTUALITY
vs.
Tardiness
Showing respect for other people and the limited time that God has given to them. (See Ecclesiastes 3:1.)

QUALITY

DEFINITIONS

37. RESOURCEFULNESS
vs.
Wastefulness
38. RESPONSIBILITY
vs.
Unreliability
39. REVERENCE
vs.
Disrespect
40. SECURITY
vs.
Anxiety
41. SELF-CONTROL
vs.
Self-indulgence
42. SENSITIVITY
vs.
Callousness
43. SINCERITY
vs.
Hypocrisy
44. THRIFTINESS
vs.
Extravagance
45. THOROUGHNESS
vs.
Incompleteness
46. TOLERANCE
vs.
Prejudice
47. TRUTHFULNESS
vs.
Deception
48. WISDOM
vs.
Natural Inclinations
49. VIRTUE
vs.
Impurity
- Wise use of that which others would normally overlook or discard. (See Luke 16:10.)
- Knowing and doing what both God and others are expecting from me. (See Romans 14:12.)
- Awareness of how God is working through the people and events in my life to produce the character of Christ in me. (See Proverbs 23:17-18.)
- Structuring my life around what is eternal and cannot be destroyed or taken away. (See John 6:27.)
- Instant obedience to the initial promptings of God's Spirit. (See Galatians 5:24-25.)
- Knowing by the prompting of God's Spirit what words and actions will benefit the lives of others. (See Romans 12:15.)
- Eagerness to do what is right with transparent motives. (See I Peter 1:22.)
- Not letting myself or others spend that which is not necessary. (See Luke 16:11.)
- Realizing that each of our tasks will be reviewed and rewarded by God. (See Proverbs 18:15.)
- Viewing every person as a valuable individual whom God created and loves. (See Philippians 2:2.)
- Earning future trust by accurately reporting past facts. (See Ephesians 4:25.)
- Seeing and responding to life's situations from God's frame of reference. (See Proverbs 9:10.)
- The influence God is having on others through my life regardless of my past failures. (See II Peter 1:3.)

75. GOD'S FAITHFULNESS IN TRIALS AND TESTINGS

Bible Reading: Job 23:1-17; Philippians 4:6,7.

Aim: To increase our faith in God and His Word, so that we have peace in all situations of life.

Introduction:

Peace means "knowing what to do whatever comes. It is knowing that every situation and every area of our lives are in God's competent hands."

Peace means that God cannot fail. If we sin against God, we are missing God's best; but as we humbly seek God's will and obey it, we have God's promise that "all things work together for good to them that love God." Romans 8:28.

As we go through the trials and testings of life, let us comfort one another with these promises of God:

1. GOD KNOWS ALL THAT ENTERS OUR LIVES.

"He knoweth the way that I take: when he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold." Job 23:10.

"I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy: for thou hast considered my trouble; thou hast known my soul in adversities." Psalm 31:7.

"The Lord is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; and he knows them that trust in Him." Nahum 1:7
God loves us in spite of what we are, and in spite of our sins.

"O LORD thou hast searched me, and known me. Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off. Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways. For there is not a word in my tongue, but lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether. Thou has beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me." Psalm 139:1-5.

God knows our needs long before we do. He is never surprised. Problems are allowed into our life by God for our good and for His glory.

"That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed thereunto. For verily, when we were with you we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know." I Thessalonians 3:3,4.

2. GOD CARES.

God tells us that He cares for us in every trial and sorrow. "God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble, therefore will we not fear." Psalm 46:1,2.

"Cast thy burden upon the Lord and he shall sustain thee: He shall never suffer the righteous to be moved." Psalm 55:22.

"Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me;.....my yoke is easy and my burden is light." Matthew 11:28-30.

"Casting all your care upon Him, for He careth for you." I Peter 5:7.

3. GOD IS ABLE.

People may know and care, but only God is able. How able is God? "Call unto me and I will answer thee and show thee great and mighty things that thou knowest not." Jeremiah 33:3.

"He will be our guide even unto death." Psalm 48:14.

"Call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee and thou shalt glorify me." Psalm 50:15.

"Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us." Ephesians 3:20.

"God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work." II Corinthians 9:6-11.

4. GOD HAS A PURPOSE.

God has never done anything without a purpose.

Question: What are some of God's purposes for allowing trials and testings to enter our lives?

Answer:

- a) To draw us to Christ as Saviour. As long as things run smoothly most adults are complacent and see no need for Christ.

- b) To prove His sufficiency. When we give our problems to God, we get what God can do. "Give us help from trouble; for vain is the help of man. Through God we shall do valiantly: for He it is that shall tread down our enemies." Psalm 108:12,13.
 "Thus saith the LORD; Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD. For he shall be like the heath in the desert, and shall not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, in a salt land and not inhabited. Blessed is the man that trusteth in the LORD, and whose hope the LORD is. For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit. The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked; who can know it?
 I the LORD search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings." Jeremiah 17:5-10.
 God allows adversity that we might be aware of our need for Him.
- c) For God and His glory. "We know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose." Romans 8:28.
 We must praise God when shattering things come into our lives because God is going to teach us something of His greatness.
- d) To draw us to God's Word and to Prayer. "The LORD God is a sun and shield: the LORD will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly." Psalm 84:11.

Question: When testings come, where do we turn for help?

Answer: God's Word.

Question: When do we mean business most in prayer?

Answer: When the pressure is great and the heart is heavy. Jesus Christ is far more precious when we've been through trials, and watched Him deliver us as we trust Him.

"I walked a mile with pleasure,
 She chatted all the way,
 But not a thing I learned from her,
 For all she had to say.

I walked a mile with sorrow,
 And not a word said she,
 But oh, the things I learned from her,
 When sorrow walked with me."

Question: When have you learned the most?

Answer: When sorrows came.

Question: How are we going to know that we have a God who is faithful?

Answer: By going through testings.

Question: How did Daniel know that he had a God who shut lion's mouths?

Answer: By experiencing the trial of it, and seeing God give the victory.

We need to know this
 We need to say with authority
 "God will bring you through.
 I tested Him and He brought me through.
 I'm convinced He can bring you through."

Question: Why did Job go through all that trouble?

Answer: To be an example for our learning. "For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope." Romans 15:4.

Trials are to teach us that we might be convinced of the kind of God we have.

e) Chastening. "For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth." Hebrews 12:6.

God corrects and trains us.

The results of chastening are:

- i) We give God reverence. "Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?" Hebrews 12:9.
- ii) Our profit. So we become holy. "For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure: but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness." Hebrews 12:10.
- iii) Peace and righteousness. "Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous; nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby." Hebrews 12:11.

Unless God puts His finger on some matter needing correcting, we need not assume that some suffering is chastening. God allows problems even when we are in the middle of His will.

f) To minister to others.

Question: How does God prepare us to minister to others?

Answer: "Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort; Who comforteth us in all our tribulation that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God." II Corinthians 1:3,4.

Where are you going to get comfort from: God or man? Comfort means to strengthen others with the same strength that strengthens us in our need.

Note: If you point people to anyone but Christ, you haven't properly comforted them. God comforts us, not just to make us comfortable, but to make us comforters. The same hand that puts us in the oven controls the heat and the timing also. Sometimes God wants to bring us to yield to Him and allow Him to have His way.

Then the sooner we submit to God, the sooner the trial can be removed.

CONCLUSION:

Being convinced that God knows, God cares, God is able, and that God has a purpose; how do I apply this to my need? HOW?

Don't just pray about it, but give the problem to the Lord.

"Casting all your care upon Him, for He careth for you." I Peter 5:7.

All events are permitted by God.

Realize that:

- a) God has a perfect plan for my life.
- b) As I allow Christ to takeover my life, He's going to bring me through hard places and sunny places.
- c) In either case I'm going to thank Him.

God told Paul, "My grace is sufficient for you."

Paul's conclusion in all suffering was:

"Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content. I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me." Philippians 4:11-13.

Job, Elijah, Paul and others learned that God is sufficient in our testings.

Sometimes we must be brought to a place where Christ is all we have so that we might discover that Christ is all we need. Have you reached this point?

76. EIGHTEEN DEVICES SATAN USES AGAINST US

Bible Reading: II Corinthians 2:1-7.

Aim: To know and to reject the main devices that Satan uses against us.

Introduction:

"Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices." II Corinthians 2:11.
To grasp victory, we must know the strong points or devices that Satan uses against us.
Notice the 18 Deadly Devices of Satan.

1. DISAPPOINTMENT

We have all been disappointed by not getting what we wanted at times. But to the knowledgeable Christian, ALL disappointments are God's appointments and must be viewed as such, lest Satan gain the advantage. To be disappointed is to forget Romans 8:28 "We know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose."

2. DISCOURAGEMENT

Discouragement is the second stage. Disappointment leads to discouragement.

"Fear not, neither be discouraged...our brethren have discouraged our heart." Deuteronomy 1:21,28.

3. DESPAIR

Despair is the third stage of disappointment and discouragement. Unless checked, it can destroy your Christian life. To despair is to forget II Corinthians 4:8,

"We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair."

To despair is to forget that God is working in our lives.

4. DOUBT

Satan attacked Eve in the Garden of Eden with doubt, by getting her to doubt God's Word. "He said unto the woman, yea, hath God said, ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?" Genesis 3:1.

To doubt is to forget to PRAY and to forget I Timothy 2:8,

"I will therefore that men pray everywhere, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting."

5. DISBELIEF

Disbelief is the final form of doubt. Genesis 3:4,5. To disbelieve is to forget Hebrews 3:12. "Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God"

6. DISTRACTION

One can be side-tracked from God's perfect will by family or job. The real enemy of the BEST is not the WORST, but the GOOD. To be distracted is to forget Matthew 14:30, "But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me."

7. DOUBLE MINDEDNESS

A "double minded" man in Greek means to be "double souled." To be double minded is to forget James 1:8 and 4:8, "A double minded man is unstable in all his ways." "Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded." Matthew 6:24; Ephesians 4:14; I John 2:15-17.

8. DISHONESTY

We can be dishonest by:

a) lying or cheating,

b) holding back certain facts, or

c) being less than we should be as pastors, parents or workers which is to cheat our people and children.

It is estimated that over $500 million is raised each year by false "faith healers" who cannot do what they claim. To be dishonest is to forget 2 Corinthians 4:2, "But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the Word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God." Dishonesty comes by fear or by greed.

9. DECEIT

"With all deceivableness of unrighteousness." II Thessalonians 2:8-12.

"For we are not as many, which corrupt the Word of God." II Corinthians 2:17.

"Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not; but have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God." II Corinthians 4:1,2.

"For many deceivers are entered into the world." II John 1:7.

To be deceived is to forget Jeremiah 17:9,

"The heart is deceitful above all things and desperately wicked: who can know it?"

10. DULLNESS

Dullness means sleepiness to the things of God. The readers of Hebrews suffered dullness. They needed sound Bible teachers to bring them to their senses. Because they were dull, they could not be used by God. He states why: "For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat." Hebrews 5:12-14.

This dullness was also infecting the church of Corinth. Listen to Paul's stern admonition to them: "And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ. I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able. For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men?" I Corinthians 3:1-3.

To suffer dullness is to forget Hebrews 5:11, "Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing."

11. DEADNESS

Deadness means unchecked dullness. Don't be dead like the Sardis Church, "I know thy works, that thou has a name that thou livest, and are dead." Revelation 3:1.

12. DEFAME

How often are Christians guilty of criticizing or belittling other believers. If we have something against a believer, tell him to his face. To defame someone is to forget Psalm 101:5, "Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off: him that hath an high look and a proud heart will not I suffer."

13. DISCORD

Far more Bible believing churches have been split over discord than doctrine. Some trouble-maker begins his or her deadly gossip in a local church, raising questions and doubts in the minds of people, doubts that otherwise would have never been entertained. How effectively Satan uses this tool, and how painful it will be at the BEMA judgment seat of Christ for the carnal sowers of discord. To sow discord is to forget Proverbs 6:16-19, "These six things doth the Lord hate: yea, seven are an abomination unto him: A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood, an heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in running to mischief, a false witness that speaketh lies, and he that soweth discord among brethren."

14. DEFILEMENT

Defilement with the things of the world. God insists upon clean vessels. A believer who defiles himself with the things of this world can never be fully used by God, regardless of his education, ability, energy or experience. To become defiled is to forget I Corinthians 3:16,17, "Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are."

15. DISCONTENT

One of Satan's favourite lies is to tell people that things will be better if they go elsewhere. For example, if they:

- a) change marriage partners,
- b) change churches.

Some people are always complaining. God says: "Be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee." Hebrews 13:5.

"Having food and raiment let us be therewith content." I Timothy 6:8.

"I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content." Philippians 4:11.

16. DELAY

Delay is used to, (a) postpone salvation; and (b) postpone service to God.

"I made haste and delayed not to keep thy commandments." Psalm 119:60.

17. DISOBEDIENCE

There are two famous men in the Bible named Saul.

- a) Both were from the tribe of Benjamin (I Samuel 9:2; Philippians 3:5).
- b) One was tall and impressive; the other short and unimpressive.
- c) OT Saul began as God's friend and ended up as God's enemy.
NT Saul started as God's enemy but ended up as God's friend.
- d) OT Saul went to the witch of Endor in his hour of death.

NT Saul turned to the Word of God in his hour of death.

What made the difference between these two men?

The Old Testament Saul was disobedient; the New Testament Saul was obedient.

"And Samuel said, Hath the Lord as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the Lord? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams. For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because thou hast rejected the word of the Lord, he hath also rejected thee from being king." I Samuel 15:22,23.

To disobey is to forget Romans 6:14-18, "For sin shall not have dominion over you. Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness."

18. DEBT

"The rich ruleth over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender." Proverbs 22:7.

"Owe no man anything, but to love one another." Romans 13:8.

When we borrow money, we make ourselves vulnerable to many evils such as:

- a) Losing our job and being unable to pay the interest.
- b) Dishonest or incompetent business partners may steal or waste our money.
- c) The market price falling in what we are investing in so that we can't pay back the bank. As a result, the bank will take your house or other securities.
- d) Local councils or governments changing the laws to make your investment unprofitable, so that you can't sell the product for what you expected.
- e) Dishonest tradesman or builders who can threaten you by stopping a building project unless you pay whatever they ask. You can't get rid of them because no other builder wants to take on responsibility for another builder's possible mistakes.
- f) You can be tempted to be dishonest with money to bail yourself out.

Hence, great risks are associated with borrowing money. We should avoid debt because the devil can enslave us into working long hours to pay off bank interest and debt, so we have no time or energy left to serve the Lord.

Conclusion: Be sober, be vigilant. Don't be destroyed by Satan's devices.

77. NINE ISSUES THAT CONCERN YOUNG PEOPLE

Bible Reading: Proverbs 1:1-33.

Aim: To give Biblical answers to problems experienced by young people.

Introduction: Youth is a time when our values and future faith are being set. Some of peoples biggest mistakes are made in their youth that can badly affect the rest of their life.

Question: What issues are of most concern to young people?

Answer:

1. Whether you are accepted by the peer group.
2. Trusting God with your future in full surrender to Jesus Christ.
3. What career to choose?
4. What church to choose?
5. How to get on well with parents?
6. Choosing a boyfriend or girlfriend or spouse?
7. How to handle money wisely.
8. How to court Biblically, and reject sex before marriage?
9. How to cure boredom?

What does God's Word say about each of these questions?

1. PEER GROUP ACCEPTANCE.

Let these issues be your guidelines.

a) Reject and avoid an ungodly peer group. Psalm 1:1-6.

It is much better to have no friends than to have bad friends who will lead you astray. If you want Godly friends, pray to God and find them at Church. Friends need not be exactly your own age. We should relate well to people of all ages. If you have no or few friends your own age, make friends of older, mature Christians who will be able to teach you wisdom beyond your years. Remember, Jesus Christ is the best friend who sticks closer than a brother. Try to win people to Christ, teach them the Bible in a personal Bible study and you will have more friends than you can handle.

b) If you are naturally shy, then read the chapter on friendship, p.152.

He that hath friends must show himself friendly. Proverbs 18:24.

Be friendly and interested in others and they will be friendly and interested in you.

c) Remember that when you leave school, you may rarely ever see most of your classmates and peer group again. They go their way and you go your way on leaving school. So why be so concerned with earning their approval when they will probably never see you again, nor care enough about you to contact you later? Whether the peer group accepts you or not, is not important.

We ought to obey God, rather than men. Acts 5:29.

They loved the praise of men more than the praise of God. John 12:43.

Many cowardly Pharisees who believed on Jesus were too scared to confess Jesus openly for fear of being rejected by their fellow Pharisees. Don't you be a coward. When the bad peer group want you to sin by smoking, drinking alcohol, taking drugs, going to the bad movies, going to an unbiblical church, committing immorality or looking at bad magazines, just have nothing to do with them. Go find some better, Christian friends. Aim to be popular with God, as it is He that we will all have to give account of our lives to. Romans 14:12.

Key: If the bad group want you to do bad things with them today, they will do bad things TO YOU later on. If they are bad to God or others, they will be bad to you later.

2. TRUSTING GOD WITH YOUR FUTURE.

Many times when we are challenged to obey God, we think that we can't obey God because we may lose something. For example:

I can't come to church, because I have too much study.

I can't pray or read my Bible, because I'm too busy.

I can't say "no" to the bad crowd, because they may reject me.

Key: Whenever we can't see the future, it is an opportunity to trust God and to obey His Word, knowing that He will work things out for our best.

Question: Can you trust God to do the right thing by you? Can you trust God enough to even go through some suffering now while you do right, knowing that God is using suffering to teach you some important lessons that you will need later?

It is good that a man bear the yoke in his youth. Lamentations 3:27.

God wants to build character in us and sometimes suffering is the only way to do it. Sometimes we must use the lesson to delay immediate gratification in order to receive something better later on. For example, if you delay sex until marriage, you'll have more trust with your spouse. Study God's promises to us about His love, goodwill and provision, then we can be confident that He will guide us properly and do the right things for us in the future.

"Seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you." Matthew 6:33. Memorize it and believe it.

3. WHAT CAREER DO I CHOOSE?

First, we must be absolutely committed to doing God's will for our life. God wants to use us to tell people how to be saved and to teach them the Bible. This should be our priority goal in life. We should aim to be a missionary. We should ask God if He wants us to be a missionary in Australia or overseas. If God wants you to receive some career training, ask Him what that might be and where you should study. It is clearly God's will that you MUST NOT study a course that is humanistic and anti-God in its course content. For example, you would not study social work at Sydney University because of its anti-Bible values.

"Learn not the way of the heathen." Jeremiah 10:2.

"Cease, my son, from hearing the instruction that causes to err from the words of knowledge." Proverbs 19:27.

If a lecturer teaches evolution, don't believe him on this subject.

Consider becoming self-employed, because greater freedom comes to serve God when you are your own boss. Aim to earn enough money to meet your own needs. Whatever God gives extra, give it to God's work to start fundamental, soul winning churches here and overseas. No matter what career you follow, you should consider BIBLE COLLEGE TRAINING either part-time or full-time so that you can properly understand and teach the Bible. Do not attend a non soul winning Bible College, or a para-church Bible College, or one that is not under your Pastor's authority, or one that teaches from a Modern Bible Version. Bible Colleges are the most dangerous places for you to get proud, backslide, hate your Pastor, leave your church, destroy your faith, and to apostatize. BEWARE!!!! Every Hebrew King had to write out a copy of the Bible in order to learn how to rule well. Deuteronomy 17:18-20. If the Bible is good enough for a King to learn, it's good enough for us to learn. Your life's goal should be to win or help win as many people to Christ as possible, to teach the Bible and to start many churches all over the world. This is the only thing that will last as having eternal value that we can invest our lives in.

4. WHAT CHURCH DO I CHOOSE?

A church must be an "ecclesia" meaning "called out of the world." If a church tries to be like the world to win the world, it is not a Biblical church. A true church must hold to the six principles of the doctrine of Christ in Hebrews 6:1,2 which are:

- a) Repentance from dead works - the prerequisite to salvation is that a sinner must forsake ALL hope in any works of his own as being able to earn salvation, such as baptism, good works, church attendance, etc. Ephesians 2:8-10.
- b) Faith towards God - salvation is by grace (God's undeserved favour), through faith in Christ (believing and claiming God's promises in the Bible), not of ourselves, but is a GIFT of God. It must be received, not earned. The act of receiving Christ as Saviour is the act of faith.
- c) Baptisms - of the Holy Spirit at salvation (1 Corinthians 12:13). and in water after salvation. Acts 10:47,48.
- d) Laying on of Hands - setting apart of men for a ministry. Acts 13:1-3.

e) Resurrection of the dead - Second Coming teaching must be premillennial, literal and visible return of Christ to the earth, along with the bodily resurrection of the just and the unjust.

f) Eternal Judgment - the unsaved upon dying go to a literal hell fire where they remain in torment (Luke 16:19-31) until the end of Christ's 1,000 year reign on the earth (Revelation 20:1-7). They are then resurrected, judged according to their works, and cast into a literal, never-ending, tormenting Lake of Fire (Revelation 20:10-15) prepared for the devil and his angels (Matthew 25:41,46).

II John 9,10,11 states that if anyone has not the doctrine of Christ, he has not God. Some churches do not hold to these teachings. We should not attend a church that breaks one of these six doctrines.

Some churches hold the following wrong doctrines:

- a) Some think that baptism makes a baby a child of God. See the extract from the Anglican Prayer Book Catechism. "...in my baptism; wherein I was made a member of Christ, the child of God, and an inheritor of the kingdom of heaven." John 1:12 refutes this heresy.
- b) Some baptize babies. Nowhere in the Bible do we see a baby being immersed.
- c) Some sprinkle babies and call it baptism, yet baptism in Greek clearly means "to immerse".
- d) Confirmation at age 7 or 14 by a minister laying hands on a person's head. Where is confirmation mentioned in the Bible? It arose because the false doctrine of infant baptism led to the false doctrine of confirmation.
- e) Some churches are Amillennial meaning that they don't teach prophecy or the second coming of Christ, not believing that Christ will return to earth to rule for 1,000 years of peace (Revelation 20). 25% of the Bible is prophecy of Christ's premillennial second coming before the 1,000 years. To reject this is to reject 25% of the Bible. How can you fellowship with a group that rejects 25% of the Bible?
- f) Some churches have ministers who wear BLACK ROBES. Where is this in the Bible? It is a carry over from the Roman Catholic Church, which received it from paganism.
- g) The High Anglican Church is 95% Roman Catholic.
- h) Some churches think it is all right to ordain women as Pastors. Yet Paul forbids this in I Timothy 2:12. "I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence." The male Pastor has authority in the church, not a lady.
- i) Many churches do not maintain high standards of behaviour. They allow a wide range of false beliefs and wrong doctrines in order to keep a large crowd attending. They are afraid to preach too hard against sin, error and false doctrines in case people leave their church, yet God wants us to be a holy church that is separated from error.
- j) Many churches tolerate the false charismatic doctrines of tongues, slaying in the spirit, false healings and false prophecies, etc.
- k) Many churches promote modern versions of the Bible which take verses out of God's Word. This doesn't seem to worry them, yet Christ states in Luke 8:12, "Then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word". The NIV removes 2% of the New Testament (2886 Gk words). Most don't notice or care.
- l) Many churches confuse the gospel of salvation by saying that people don't have to call on Christ for salvation. See John 4:10; Romans 10:13; Isaiah 55:6,7; Jeremiah 29:12,13.
- m) Some churches are Modernist, meaning that they deny the miracles in the Bible. Some Bible Colleges have lecturers who deny the Bible's miracles and think that the Bible is not the 100% inspired Word of God. They say that the Bible has mistakes and thus place themselves as a higher authority than the Bible. Some Baptist and Uniting Churches are plagued with these errors.
- n) Some churches, wishing to win young people, play rock music in their churches and have dances. Love not the world. Avoid worldly churches.
- o) Many churches are not fervently soul winning. If you got saved in an Independent Baptist Church, be loyal enough to stay where you got saved. Don't go off to another church that doesn't hold these values, hoping to find a girlfriend or boyfriend, or greener grass on the other side of the fence. Be content to stay where you are and work through any problems that you may have. Many people think they are running away from their problems, yet they are carrying their problems with them and unpacking them at their next stopover.

Question: What is wrong with Charismatic Churches?

1. Tongues - which are not for today. See the chapter explaining this. p.476-543.
2. False healing - they say "Come and be healed." If you don't get healed it's your fault because you haven't got enough faith. Yet dead Lazarus had no faith to be healed when dead. False advertising is lying.
3. Slaying people in the spirit – This is not in the Bible.
4. Word of prophecy - where some person comes and tells you a message supposedly from God to you. It's very hard to argue with God. This is his way of putting himself in an elevated position so that you find it hard to argue with God. He has privileged information that normal mortals don't have. Many of these "prophecies" prove to be wrong.
5. Modern versions of the Bible - because of their thousands of omissions. p.544-569.
6. Weak on standards and separation from evil. They'll join up with Roman Catholics any day of the week, as long as the priest speaks in tongues.

5. HOW TO GET ON WELL WITH PARENTS.

We have a problem today called the generation gap. Why? How did this develop?

Answer: It developed through the public school system, where children rebel against their parent's values and follow peer pressure to adopt their peers values in order to remain popular. Young people so much want to be accepted by their friends, or not to appear foolish in front of their peers that they will do almost anything to gain peer acceptance. When parents protest, they are called old fashioned and teens rebel even more.

Solution:

1. Teens must decide to please God first and not worry if their peers like them or not.
2. Young people must trust God to provide Godly friends
3. Young people must at all costs reject and avoid ungodly and bad friends from influencing them. See Psalm 1:1-6.
4. Young people must obtain their ideas and values from the Bible as they study it daily.
5. Children, Obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. Ephesians 6:1; Colossians 3:20.
"Honour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise; that it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth." Ephesians 6:1-3.

Three reasons are given why children should obey their parents:

1. This is right.
2. That it may be well with thee.
3. That thou may live long on the earth.

Young people, if you can submit to your parents and have a happy relationship with them, it is very likely that you will easily be able to submit to your spouse and have a happy marriage relationship.

Young men, if you want a good wife, watch how a young lady treats her father, because she'll treat you the same way.

Young ladies, if you want a good husband, watch how a young man treats his mother, because he'll treat you the same way.

Remember, young people, God's unchangeable law:

"Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap." Gal. 6:7.
If you rebel against your parents now, your children or someone close to you will rebel against you later and break your heart. You may sin and get forgiveness from God, but you face two other problems:

- 1) People may not forgive you or trust you after you're sinned.
- 2) You may still have trouble with bad consequences years later for your sins, such as those people in jail, those who are addicted to drugs.

The world teaches rebellion and the Bible teaches obedience. When we obey God, parents and pastors, we are safe, because we are protected within their wall of authority. When a person rebels, he goes outside the wall of protection. He may feel freedom for a while, but the downside is that he is now in great danger to the many enemies that await him to destroy him such as drugs, AIDS, crime or false ideas that ruin people's lives. So, how can you get on well with your parents?

- a) Obey them. When parents see that you obey them, they see that they can trust you, so they begin to relax the rules and give you more freedom, knowing that you are maturing in wisdom and are less likely to do silly things and ruin your life.
- b) Respect them. They are probably 30 years older than you which means that they have 30 years more experience than you. Because they love you and have given birth to you, have given you everything you have, done everything for you, fed, clothed and schooled you, you should respect, love and honour them in return.
- c) Love them, because they love you. It is right that we should love those who love us. Be thankful.
- d) Communicate politely with them. Many parents protest because their children spend so much time with their friends (or screen) that they never talk in depth with their parents. This causes parents to insist that their children stay at home. You must sit down and have a good talk with your mum and dad daily or weekly, just so that they know what you are doing.
- e) Help them around the house. This prepares you to manage your own house later. They have a big job cooking, ironing, paying bills and looking after you. So ask them what you can do to help.
- f) Thank them for what they've done for you such as cooking meals, ironing, working, etc. This helps you to develop a thankful attitude all through your life, especially to your future spouse. Then your children will be thankful and appreciative to you later.
- g) See God speaking through their advice. God gave you your parents to mould your character. God can use any faults that you think your parents have to teach you lessons for life. For example, if your father is easily angry, you learn not to be angry. God can reveal His will to you through your parent's advice.

6. CHOOSING A BOYFRIEND OR GIRLFRIEND OR SPOUSE.

Make a list of what you want in a spouse. They must be:

1. Saved.
2. Committed and dedicated to winning people to Christ and teaching the Bible.
3. Sound in doctrine and loyal to a fundamental, Biblical church.
4. Love and respect their parents.
5. Dress modestly.
6. Respect their pastor.
7. Not soon angry. "Make no friendship with an angry man, lest thou learn his ways and get a snare to thy soul." Proverbs 22:24.
8. Patient.
9. Wise, loving the Bible, loving God and wanting to serve God.
10. Hard worker, not lazy and not silly.

Do not let physical attraction blind you to the lack of other important qualities. Remember, you marry their brains as well as their bodies. When you are married, their problems become your problems. So marry a Godly person who will help lift your problems, not add to your problems. If you fight and argue a lot before you marry, you are sure to fight and argue a lot more after you are married. So marry someone that you don't fight and argue with.

Build the spiritual side of your relationship first as you both serve God together and study Bible issues together. Then develop mental communication and understanding as you get to know each other without interference of the physical side racing ahead.

Lastly, after you are married the physical, sexual side can have freedom to develop. Warning: if you allow the physical side to develop during courtship, it tends to hinder the growth of the spiritual and communication aspects, which so often leads to breaking up or divorce later.

7. HOW TO HANDLE MONEY WISELY

Money can be a good servant, or a very bad master. Money can bring great freedom to spread the Gospel, or money can be a great tyrant that enslaves you and hinders your work for the Lord. The love of money is the root of all evil. 1 Timothy 6:10.

Money is a gift from God, whereby God tests our stewardship, entrusting it to us to use to win people to Christ here and overseas.

Here are some key lessons to learn about money:

- a) Honour God with it by giving God 10% of your income and He will bless you in many different ways. Malachi 3:7-10; Luke 6:38; Leviticus 27:30,32.
- b) God entrusts some people with large sums of money for the purpose of spreading the Gospel all over the world. Should God entrust you with large sums of money, always remember that God has given it to you to use for His purposes.
"It is he that giveth thee power to get wealth." Deuteronomy 8:18.
You will have to give account to God in heaven as to how you have used this money to win people to Christ and build churches all over the world. If God can trust you with small amounts of money, He may trust you with large sums of money later. Luke 16:9-13.
- c) After giving 10% of your income to God, regularly and weekly, save another 10% for later, like the ant that saves food for later. Proverbs 30:25.
- d) Be willing to get a job and work hard, but never work on Sunday, except for a very good reason. Aim to attend two church services on Sunday. Don't let working for money keep you out of church. Ask God for a job that does not require working on Sunday. Exodus 20:8-11.
- e) Don't put a great percentage of your money into depreciating assets like cars.
- f) Aim to be independent financially and self-supporting so that you can retire from secular work early and serve the Lord as a full-time occupation.

8. HOW TO COURT BIBLICALLY, and WHY REJECT SEX BEFORE MARRIAGE

The movies and peers have greatly influenced the pursuit of immorality and having a physical relationship during courtship. We have to reject this as CONTRARY to God's ways in the Bible. God says: "It is GOOD for a man NOT TO TOUCH a woman. But to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife...." 1 Corinthians 7:1,2.

"Treat the younger women as sisters, with ALL PURITY." 1 Timothy 5:2.

"This is the will of God... that ye should abstain from fornication... that no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because the Lord is the avenger of all such ... For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness...." 1 Thessalonians 4:3-8.

Fornicating is defrauding or robbing the girl's future husband of a pure bride (v.6). If you steal a girl's moral purity, God will take revenge on you for it with undesirable consequences. How?

God has many ways of disciplining disobedient humans.

If you don't like these moral standards, you are despising God. (v.8).

Keys to Biblical Courtship:

1. Pray for God to lead you to the girl of His choosing.
2. Go out in groups to minimize temptation.
3. Pray before each time you see her so that you will conduct yourself in a Christ-honouring manner.
4. Don't touch the girl, or you are likely to start the physical slide into fornication.
5. Develop good spiritual and mental communication.
6. Get home early.
7. Serve the Lord together, trying to win people to Christ and to teach the Bible together.
8. Be cheerful and filled with the Holy Spirit.

Why Reject Sex Before Marriage?

Within marriage, sex increases the commitment that binds two people together. Sex outside marriage has the opposite effect, becoming a wedge, a stumbling block, a hindrance to the development of mature love, very often breaking up the friendship altogether. Why does this happen?

1. Sex before marriage prevents other aspects of the relationship from developing.

Anybody can learn to kiss, but not everybody can learn to communicate meaningfully. Physical attraction is insufficient glue to build or maintain a lasting relationship. The qualities that hold a relationship together are trust, honesty, respect, openness, deep friendship and spiritual intimacy which take time and effort to develop. When you focus on the sexual/physical side, you short circuit building these qualities and you end up with a poor foundation, without the spiritual communication developing first.

2. Sex injects fear and guilt into the relationship.

“Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.” Hebrews 13:4.

Guilt comes because premarital sex violates our God-given conscience. Fear comes because the male gets the privilege of sex without the responsibility of commitment in marriage. The female fears that he may leave her. She pesters him to get married. Since it may cost $10,000 to get married (reception, ring, honeymoon, hire cars, dresses, hire suits etc), the male says that he cannot afford to get married right now so that she must wait till some indefinite time in the future. This is a subtle form of rejection. She worries and fears that he may never get around to marriage. She feels insecure, so she pesters him more to get married. He finally gets so sick of her nagging him that when he meets another likeable lady he finds an easy reason to leave lady number one. Then the family court enters the picture and there may be a splitting of his and her assets into 1/3 for him, 1/3 for her, and 1/3 for the lawyer. If there are any children, he must pay $200 per week maintenance for his ex-partner to support the children and rent. This is how pre-marital sex can lead to financial hardship. Very often when couples live together without marrying they break up around age thirty and the girl finds that she has "missed the boat" and is unlikely to get married.

3. Sex lays a foundation of distrust and lack of respect.

She thinks that if he has sex with me outside of marriage, he may later on leave me to have sex with someone else if the opportunity presents itself. Mature love is based on the security of exclusivity and permanence of the relationship. If two people stay morally pure before marriage, each person feels a greater degree of security, trust and respect.

4. Sex causes you to compare one person with previous partners.

5. Sex deceives you into thinking that you are in love.

It is such an emotional thing that it can convince you that you are in love while overlooking other important factors that later on, when logic prevails, may make you dislike the person. Sex love can cause you to overlook his laziness, violence, drug addiction, lying, unfaithfulness, etc, all of which are a recipe for a disastrous relationship.

6. The facts are against you:

- a) Pre-marital sex tends to break up couples before marriage takes place.
- b) Those who have pre-marital sex are more likely to have their marriages end in divorce. For example, practising Christians' divorce rate is 1 in 1500, yet the community divorce rate is 700 in 1500. This is 700 times worse.
- c) Persons who had pre-marital sex are more likely to have extramarital affairs as well.
- d) Having pre-marital sex may fool you into marrying a person who is not right for you. Sex can blind you to a person's faults.

9. HOW TO CURE BOREDOM

- a) Get busy serving God. Teach a Sunday school class, run a Bible study, learn how to share the Gospel better and attend a doctrinally sound Bible College.
- b) Study the Bible and pray daily.
- c) Help your parents around the home and talk to them.
- d) Ring people to invite them to church.
- e) Pick people up and bring them to church.
- f) Study the Bible deeply, so that you really understand it well.
- g) Go out to share the Gospel weekly.

You think up a few more. Aim to prepare yourself for the Lord's work.

78. BARRIERS TO OBEDIENCE

Bible Reading: 1 Samuel 15:1-35.

Key: Faith is tested in the life of a Christian when obedience seems hard. After we are saved, faith and works are very closely linked. All disobedience is due to lack of faith.

WHEN IS OBEDIENCE HARD?

1. Sacrifice: Obedience is hard, when you think you'll lose out in some way. For example, Abraham sacrificed Isaac, his only son, at God's command. Sacrifice was a barrier to obedience, but faith overcame the barrier. Examples for us today are things like:

Purity in dating. It is a sacrifice not to touch, but I Corinthians 7:1 says "It is good for a man not to touch a woman."

Tithing. It is a sacrifice to tithe 1/10 of our income to God, thinking that we can't afford it because we have too many bills. People don't tithe because they have not the faith to trust God to bless them for giving. "Give and it shall be given you...." Luke 6:38.

When Israel did not keep the Sabbath for 490 years, God got all His Sabbaths at once in the 70 year captivity. God also can and will get His tithes, even if we don't tithe. "All the tithe...is the Lord's." Leviticus 27:30.

2. Reason: Obedience is hard when obedience seems unreasonable.

"For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts." Isaiah 55:8,9.

"Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him and he shall direct thy paths." Proverbs 3:5,6.

"There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death." Prov. 14:12

"And be not conformed to this world, but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God." Romans 12:2.

3. Peer Pressure: Obedience is hard when obedience means doing something that nobody else is doing or not doing something that everybody else is doing. For example, Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego stood against the peer pressure of not bowing down to an image. They did this by faith. When a minority opposes a majority, peer pressure becomes an obstacle.

We all like to be liked and therefore so many Christians compromise in order to be liked by the peer group. It takes someone with character to stand against the crowd. The majority is usually wrong.

"Broad is the way that leads to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat." Matthew 7:13.

4. Suffering: "When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth." Acts 7:54.

God wanted Stephen to preach the Gospel to the Jewish leaders. Stephen had to preach conviction of sin while he had the opportunity. This message made them very angry.

Now someone may have advised Stephen to cut his message so that he didn't offend anyone, but then no one would have been convicted of sin and Saul may not have been saved. Stephen could have said, "Now let's cool it, I didn't mean to offend you." Stephen looked at God through the circumstance of suffering and he obeyed God. Faith overcame suffering as a barrier to obedience.

For example, the Reformers were burned at the stake rather than compromise with Roman Catholic error. "We ought to obey God rather than men." Acts 5:29.

God gave Jeremiah a promise for his faith to grasp. "I have made thee this day a defenced city, and an iron pillar, and brazen walls against the whole land they shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee; for I am with thee, saith the Lord, to deliver thee." Jeremiah 1:18,19.

For every barrier you face, there are promises that we can grasp to climb the wall. Faith grasps the promise-handles on the wall. "If we suffer with him, we shall reign with him." God proved faithful to Noah, Daniel, Jeremiah, the Reformers.....God's faithfulness helps us overcome barriers to obedience.

79. STAIRWAY TO HELL

Bible Reading: Revelation 9:13-21.

Aim: To warn teens and parents of Satan's tactics to destroy young people. To show parents how to rescue or prevent children from going to Satan.

Introduction:

Many parents have rebellious children and ask, "Where did I go wrong?"

Answer: You didn't realize that Satan was after your child and you didn't know how to rescue him God's way. Satan destroys people's lives using basically the same plan. God says that we are in a spiritual warfare (Ephesians 6:12). Teen, Satan is aiming at your eternal destruction. He's counting on you being stupid enough not to know what he's up to. There's only one reason why anyone would willingly stay on the stairway to hell - they've been tricked, eg: the idea that "I want to go to hell".

1. WHY CAN'T PARENTS AND TEENS GET ALONG?

Teens say, "Lay off me. You don't understand me. Why don't you leave me alone?" Then follows - yelling, screaming, doors slamming, tempers flaring and red faces. There are two types of parents:

- a) Parents who are totally unfit to raise children, eg: Those parents guilty of incest, kids hooked on drugs through their parents, children physically beaten, children put onto the streets for prostitution.
- b) Parents who really do care. Satan makes teens think that their parents don't care about them when they really do. Satan is doing all he can to destroy your parent - teen relationships.

2. STEPS TO HELL.

STEP 1: BREAKING UP THE PARENT - TEEN RELATIONSHIP.

"Honour thy father and thy mother..." (Exodus 20:12). When parents see their teens going the wrong way, they try to warn them. To stop the young person from listening to their warnings, Satan convinces the teen that the parents just don't understand or care for them. Once Satan has you believing that lie, he can keep you on his deadly path. You will ignore your parents' warnings and stumble further, convinced that you are doing the right thing. Cutting off communication is the first step. Your death and entry to hell are the last. Teens, please realize that when thoughts enter your mind like:

- a) "My parents don't care about me", or
- b) "They don't want me to have any fun", these are not your thoughts, they are lies from demons.
- c) "I want to do my own thing" – you are really doing Satan's thing.

Teen, you take your first step onto the devil's stairway when you let Satan ruin your relationship with your parents. "Children, obey your parents in the Lord." (Ephesians 6:1-3).

"My son, hear the instruction of thy father and forsake not the law of thy mother." Proverbs 1:8.

Teens, if your relationship with your parents is in bad shape, it's because Satan is at work. Go to your parents, ask their forgiveness for your wrong attitude and make things right with them.

STEP 2: GETTING YOU TO REJECT GOD.

To persuade you to reject God's warnings and open you up for destruction, the devil has another convincing lie. He plants the thought in your mind:

"Don't listen to God. He doesn't want you to have any fun."

STEP 3: REBELLION.

The themes of rock groups are REBELLION, SEX, DRUGS, FALSE RELIGION and DEMONS. For example, rock music encourages rebellion against parents, law, school and society.

A teen who submits to any kind of authority today is treated like a weirdo. It isn't cool to obey others. Their reasons are "I'm old enough to decide for myself "or" I got to do what I feel is right." When you rebel against authority, you are disobeying the instructions that God gave to protect you from Satan and demons. "Rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft." 1 Samuel 15:23.

Rebellion against God is just as bad as Satan worship.

"Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron; Because they rebelled against the words of God." Psalm 107:10,11.

God's commands of obedience are for your protection, not to stop you having fun. Movies and TV push rebellion, except rebellion against rock music. They say "Don't let anyone tell you what to do. You have your rights. It's your life". Satanists love rebellious teens. Rebellion always leads to ruin.

STORY.

Tim swallowed that lie at age 9 and grew more rebellious as he grew older. For a while he thought he had it made - total freedom. His life then began to fall apart. He was expelled from school and kicked out of home. He hated his boss telling him what to do. As a result, he couldn't keep a job. Getting cold and hungry, he turned to homosexual prostitution. His dreams turned to nightmares. He lived in slimy, rat-infested, run down holes. A never-ending parade of lust-filled perverts poured through his room, each vile experience leaving him feeling sicker and dirtier than the one before. The last time I heard from him, he was still walking the streets of a major city as a homosexual prostitute, dressed as a female. He said he was afraid that he had AIDS and wished he could die. His life was ruined. He rebelled and did what he wanted. But it didn't turn out the way he thought it would. It never does when you listen to the devil's lies.

STEP 4: PEER PRESSURE.

"My life really took a nosedive when I started hanging around with the wrong crowd." Satan will use bad friends to get and keep you on the stairway to hell. What your friends are today, you will be tomorrow.

- a) Hang around with the drug crowd and you'll be taking drugs before you know it.
- b) Become friends with thieves and you'll soon be stealing.

"My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not." Proverbs 1:10,15,16; Psalm 1:1,6; Proverbs 4:14,15; Teens and adults are hopeless followers (like sheep) searching frantically for someone to lead them. Satan will provide leadership for you by using your peers who have swallowed his lies to suck you down also. Peer pressure is the glue that holds Satan's plan together.

Everyone wants to be liked, accepted and popular. No-one likes to be laughed at, or to be an outsider or rejected. Some teens will do anything to belong. Watch a teen inhale their first cigarette. They choke, turn blue, get sick and vomit sometimes, but, to impress their friends, they keep at it. Watch a teen first drinking booze. It tastes terrible. He wants to spit it out. "But what will my friends think?" He drinks one, two, three beers, feeling miserable. Next day he tells his friends what a great time he had last night. Everyone was jealous. If only they knew the truth.

FOUND OUT A LITTLE TOO LATE.

Denise wanted to be accepted. Her parents were wealthy and she had everything except a rich and handsome boyfriend. She couldn't adequately impress her friends without one. When a potential "Mr Wonderful" came along, she couldn't bear the thought of letting him get away. "Anything to keep him", she thought. Before she knew it, she was pregnant. Things were not going the way she had planned. They never do when you buy Satan's goods. Her mum pressured her to have an abortion. Since she didn't want to be "tied down" with a baby and give up her "fun", she did.

When she awoke after the abortion, she began weeping uncontrollably. All at once it hit her like an exploding atomic bomb. She had taken the devil's bait. She realized she had been gravely deceived and knew she had murdered a precious and innocent little life, her own baby. She found out what Satan was up to, but it was a few minutes too late. Her little baby was already in a garbage bag and on it's way to the dumpster. The devil was laughing happily that he had snuffed out another young life.

I MUST IMPRESS MY FRIENDS.

Tom had a problem. He wanted to have friends. He watched some kids at school who were really "cool." They seemed to be having a lot of fun and everybody wanted to be part of their group. Tom heard that to be accepted by that group, you had to smoke, so he started smoking. Then he heard you had to drink, so he did that too. Next he learned to be really "cool", you had to run away from home. He did that too. Then, to really impress them, he began smoking pot. The "cool" kids responded and soon he was one of the "cool" one's too. He was "Mister Popular." Now that he had a reputation, he had to keep it. More powerful drugs, dealing drugs and crime followed. Everybody was very impressed. He was extra cool. Little did Tom or any of his friends realise that Satan was using peer pressure to destroy another young life. When Tom died of a drug overdose, the devil had the last laugh. Tom wasn't cool. He was a fool. Peer pressure had killed another one.

Teenager, if Satan has got you hanging with the wrong crowd today, he will use peer pressure tomorrow to drag you down his stairway to hell.

STEP 5: DECEPTION - "IT LOOKS FUN".

Whenever Satan sets the trap for you, he will always make it look like fun in the beginning. Many teens are in Satanism because it looks like fun. The first step is fun. The last step will leave you screaming forever.

A former heroin addict was asked how he ever got himself to drive a needle into his arm and risk his entire life. He told me it wasn't like that when he started. In the beginning it was fun. He smoked pot and had a great time. The problem was that the fun soon ended and misery took its place. Once he was addicted he'd do anything to get high. It wasn't for fun anymore. Now it was survival.

An ACDC song states that: "Satan's gonna get you, gonna drag you to hell, no one's putting up a fight, you get into evil, you're a friend of mine, I'm gonna take you to hell, gonna get ya, Satan's got ya, Hells Bells." A boy who read porn who molested an 8 year old girl, said that he didn't want to hurt her, but something came over him that he couldn't control. Afterwards he hated himself and wanted to die.

Question: Why couldn't he just stop if he didn't want to do it anymore?

Why can't teens stop taking drugs and heroin when they know that they may die?

Why can't boys leave the homosexual scene?

Answer: Everyone of Satan's teasers (drugs, rock music, immoral sex, etc) were designed to open people up so that demons could be placed in them and eventually control them.

The devil will use rebellion, peer pressure and deception to prime you, then he'll apply one of his tried and tested tools to get his demons inside you. The stairway to hell now gets painful and you start to pay. These fun things you used to enjoy are now a cruel master.

STEP 6: ROCK MUSIC.

If you love rock music, the devil's claws are already firmly wrapped around your neck. The longer you listen to it, the tighter his grip gets. Almost every teen on the stairway to hell is addicted to rock music. Rock stars are sold-out servants of Satan, preaching to get you to hell. Only a grossly deceived person would idolize and worship people who are leading them to hell.

Ozzy Osborne: "Will he (demon) escape my soul, or will he live in me?"

Iron Maiden (song called "Number of the Beast"): "I'll possess your body and I'll make you burn."

Grim Reaper (song called "See you in Hell"): "I will take you to the very gates of hell."

Ozzy Osborne (song called "Nativity in Black"): "Now I have you with me under my power...You'll see who I am, my name is Lucifer, please take my hand."

KISS (song called "God of Thunder") says those who are enslaved by his music are under a satanic spell that will destroy their souls.

The purpose of rock music is to get demons inside you to destroy you and to drive you to hell.

ACDC admit that demons live in them, "Tearin' me apart, got the devil in me." One rock song is the actual oath of allegiance to Satan that is recited when a person becomes a satanist. Every time a person sings those lyrics, they are renewing their total allegiance to Satan.

Led Zeppelin: "The devil mocks their every step."

Lust: "The devil wants to stick you, wants your body, wants your spirit."

Backmasking: When played backwards, "In league with Satan" says "Satan, raised in hell, I'm gonna burn your soul."

Grim Reaper: "See you in hell."

Bonn Scott of ACDC died shortly after he sang, "I'm on the highway to hell."

DON'T TOUCH MY MUSIC.

If you want to prove that teenagers that are hooked on rock music are demon infested, just try to take their rock music away from them. Many things will cause a teenager's blood to boil, but mess with their music, and you have a war on your hands. Why? Because now you've got their demons riled up. When that happens, look out. There's no telling what the demons will drive them to do.

A 13 year old mother from Osaka, was so "obsessed" (another word for "possessed") with the satanic Heavy Metal rockers, Iron Maiden, that she sold her newborn twin baby girls to buy tickets to an up and coming Iron Maiden concert. The newspaper reported that when she was arrested, she was wearing a baseball cap and T-shirt displaying the rock band's eerie, 'Satanic like' logo. The article also said that her "belief in Iron Maiden is so strong, she threatened to kill herself unless she was allowed to wear her hat." Is there any question that demons controlled this young girl?

STEP 7: DRUGS.

An anti-drug slogan is "Just say no to drugs." People just can't, because by taking drugs they have opened a doorway for demons to enter their body.

Revelation 9:20,21 speaks of people worshipping devils and refusing to repent of sorcery (drug taking) "During a horrible experience with LSD, I had a shocking introduction to the spiritual realities of life. The devil was inside of me and quite systematically taking control of my will. As I resisted the ever increasing pressure within me to take my control away.....a voice inside of me kept saying, "This time I will have you fully! "I was completely terrified! Somehow I knew that this was Satan." The demons that entered this young man through his LSD "trips" began talking to him. This is not uncommon. Many drug abusers hear voices, but most don't know that they are the voices of demons. Hard core Satanism is on the rise, and experts are continually finding drug abuse directly linked to this growing demon possession problem.

New Agers view drugs as a way to draft soldiers into the New Age army. Drugs are tools to get demons inside young people. Drugs then transform them into blind servants of Satan. Everybody who is on heavy drugs started on marijuana. Demons don't let people quit drugs. People will steal, go into prostitution, and do anything to get drugs. Many people kill themselves while high on drugs, because that is what demons drive them to do.

STEP 8: DUNGEONS AND DRAGONS.

Purpose of D and D: When a player begins worshipping a new deity (Satan) in the game and asking help of characters (demons) in the game, they are doing exactly what out and out Satan worshippers are doing. They just don't realize it.

You say, "I don't believe D and D has anything to do with Satan and religion."

Page 25 of Deities and Demigods says: "Serving a deity is a significant part of D and D, and all players should have a patron god."

A 16 year old D and D player shot himself just hours after a D and D curse was placed on him.

STEP 9: ILLICIT SEX.

Illicit sex causes problems:

- Risk of AIDS, herpes, VD.
- Unwanted pregnancies.
- Abortions.
- Emotional problems.
- Fights with parents.

People think that God is mean, old fashioned and a kill joy who hates sex and punishes anyone who dares enjoy it. People think that Satan is in favour of sex. This is false. God ordained sex: "Marriage is honourable in all and the bed undefiled." Hebrews 13:4.

God created sex only for married couples: Galatians 5:19,21; Revelation 21:8; I Cor. 6:9-10,16,18;

"He that doeth it (commit adultery) destroyeth his own soul." Proverbs 5:3-5,8,11; 6:32; II Peter 2:19.

Homosexuality is forbidden in the Bible in Leviticus 20:13 and Romans 1:24-28,32.

God gave the minds and bodies of homosexuals to the control of demons, resulting in a reprobate mind. Once sexual demons enter your body they will never be satisfied. They will drag you to disgusting lows that you never thought you'd sink to.

STEP 10: SUICIDE.

One boy suicided because he had pimples. Another boy suicided because his girlfriend broke up with him. Rock groups sing of suicide. The MASH theme song is "Suicide is Painless."

STEP 11: HELL.

This is the final and irreversible step: Matthew 8:12; II Thessalonians 1:8,9.

"Satan....deceiveth the whole world." Revelation 20:10; Revelation 12:9.

Jesus Christ is your only hope of salvation. Renounce rock music, drugs and all other steps on the stairway to hell.

SOLUTION: "Let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God." II Corinthians 7:1.

Right Steps:

1. Receive Jesus Christ as your Saviour.
2. Cleanse your house spiritually by burning rock records and other bad things.
3. Read God's Word, "Thy Word is Truth." John 17:17.
4. Talk to God. Pray without ceasing.
5. Make new Christian friends.

Don't get fooled again by:

1. Wrong Christians.
2. Wrong churches.
3. False teachers and preachers.
4. False Christian music.

"Know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God?" James 4:4.

8 PRINCIPLES FOR MUM AND DAD

1. Set a Godly example.
2. Live a consistent life. If it's wrong today, then it's wrong tomorrow.
3. Communicate with your children.
4. Provide spiritual training (Deuteronomy 6:6,7). Pray with them. Read the Bible with them.
5. Love your children.
6. Discipline them (Proverbs 13:24).
7. Be honest. Don't tell lies to teens.
8. Home School your children using the ACE Curriculum. Don't give them to an ungodly state school to train. "Learn not the way of the heathen." This will separate your children from ungodly peers.

I remember a mum and dad who told me their 14 year old son blasted rock music on his stereo while locked in his room in the basement. They hated it and knew it was wrong, but said that there was nothing they could do about it because he kept his door locked. They were both totally shocked when I suggested they get a sledge hammer, smash the door down, then take the hammer to smash his stereo and records.

Parents, stop letting your kids run your home. Rise up and take the leadership position that God commands you to take. The Bible says that if you will not discipline your children, then you don't really love them. You hate them:

"He that spareth his rod hateth his son: but he that loveth him chasteneth (disciplines) him betimes (early)." Proverbs 13:24.

Note: Parents, if you suspect that your children are being influenced for wrong in the school they attend, then pull them out and home school them using the internationally acclaimed, tried and tested Accelerated Christian Education program. This has proven successful in rescuing thousands of children from bad peers, teachers who promote error and from fear of ridicule and bullying. They will definitely receive a much higher quality academic education. Obey this command of God:

"Cease, my son, to hear the instruction that causeth to err from the words of knowledge." Prov 19:27.

80. HOW TO BE WISE

Aim: To make us wise in all our dealings with God and man.

Bible Reading: Proverbs 4:1-27; 8:1-9,18.

Introduction: People can learn wisdom in three ways:

- a) From the Bible - this is the best way.
- b) From other people's mistakes - a good way.
- c) From their own mistakes - the worst way.

A great problem existing today is that:

- many people lack wisdom.
- this leads to situations being handled badly.
- this leads to conflict.
- this leads to broken relationships.
- this leads to loss of productivity and loss of happiness.

What is the solution? Get wisdom from an early age, from church, parents, the Bible and from other's mistakes. "Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child; but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him." Proverbs 22:15. We all start out foolish. We all must learn wisdom.

There are five crowns in Proverbs:

- a) Wisdom (4:9) gives a crown of glory.
- b) Virtuous Woman (12:4) is a crown to her husband.
- c) Riches (14:24) is the crown of the wise.
- d) Hoary (grey) head (16:31) is the crown of glory.
- e) Grandchildren (17:6) are the crown of old men.

1. FACTS ABOUT WISDOM

- a) Definition: Intelligent, sensible, judicious, using facts and reason carefully and correctly, skilful to judge, insight into problems, knowledge and love of the will of God. Handling life and it's problems from the Bible's point of view; moral insight. Skill in the affairs of life, sound judgment, good sense, prudent with others and knows how to regulate circumstances.
- b) "Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom; and with all thy getting get understanding." Proverbs 4:7.
- c) "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom." Proverbs 9:10. Reverencing God is where wisdom starts.
- d) "Wisdom is better than rubies." Proverbs 8:11. It is very valuable and important to have wisdom, because if you have wisdom, you can achieve many other useful things.
- e) "The wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy." James 3:17.
- f) Four things are exceeding wise in Proverbs 30:24-28.
 - i) Ants - they prepare their meat in the summer. Plan Ahead.
 - ii) Conies - they make their houses in the rocks. Shelter from enemies.
 - iii) Locusts - they go forth by bands. Strength is in Organisation and in Numbers.
 - iv) Spiders - they are found in King's palaces. Get to the top. Get eternal life.

2. HOW TO GET WISDOM

- a) Come to Jesus for salvation. "In whom (Christ) are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge." Colossians 2:3.
- b) Fear God - respect God and be afraid of sin and its consequences.
"The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom." Proverbs 9:10.
- c) Read the Bible - "From a child thou has known the holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation." II Timothy 3:15.
- d) Ask God for wisdom - "If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God." James 1:5.
"For the Lord giveth wisdom." Proverbs 2:6.

- e) Be righteous - "He layeth up sound wisdom for the righteous." Proverbs 2:7.
- f) The rod and reproof give wisdom; but a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame." Proverbs 29:15.
- g) Seek understanding- "Wisdom rests in the heart of him that has understanding." Prov14:33

3. WHAT A WISE PERSON DOES

- a) Is keen to learn. "A wise man will hear and increase learning." Proverbs 1:5.
"Wise men lay up knowledge." Proverbs 10:14. Be keen to learn, open to God teaching us, study, learn from other's mistakes and from circumstances.
- b) Listen to Wise Men and Avoid Fools. "Hear the words of the wise." Proverbs 22:17.
"A wise son hears his father's instruction." Proverbs 13:1.
"He that walketh with wise men shall be wise, but a companion of fools shall be destroyed." Proverbs 13:20. Listen to your father, mix with wise men and avoid fools.
- c) Be humble - "With the lowly is wisdom." Proverbs 11:2. Don't think that you are too great to help people and mix with people. Be a servant, putting yourself out to help people.
- d) Know what to say and when to say it - "He that hath knowledge spareth his words. Even a fool, when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise." Proverbs 17:27,28.
"He that refraineth his lips is wise." Proverbs 10:19.
"There is.....a time to keep silence and a time to speak." Ecclesiastes. 3:7.
Think before you speak. It can be very humbling to take back wrong words.
- e) Be a Soul winner - live for eternity. "He that winneth souls is wise." Proverbs 11:30.
A wise man looks at people and life from an eternal viewpoint. He invests for heaven. He lays up treasure (people) in heaven. Let us rescue people from hell.
- f) Be a teacher - "The lips of wise men disperse knowledge." Proverbs 15:7.
Pass on God's truths to others. "Righteousness exalteth a nation." Proverbs 14:34.
The more people who know God, the better any nation is.
- g) Be a peacemaker - "Wise men turn away wrath." Proverbs 29:8.
"A wise man will pacify (anger)." Proverbs 16:14.
Live peaceably with all men, try to keep friendships.
- h) See the consequences of events - "A prudent man forseeth the evil and hideth himself but the simple pass on and are punished." Proverbs 22:3.
Many Jews fled Europe to the U.S. before World War II broke out when they saw Hitler's anti-Jewish policies. Many Jews stayed in Europe, ignored the signs and died in gas chambers. How well do you see the consequences of your actions on you and on your children? This is a reason to live righteously and wisely.
- i) Be an achiever - "Through wisdom is an house builded." Wisdom achieves things.
"A wise man is strong." Proverbs 24:5. He is unlikely to fall in time of trouble.
"By wise counsel thou shalt make thy war; in the multitude of counsellors there is safety."
Proverbs 24:6. Wisdom wins a war, in particular the spiritual war with Satan.
- j) Wise men get rewarded - "The wise shall inherit glory." Proverbs 3:35 and 24:14.
- k) Wise men don't touch alcohol - "Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging; and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise." Proverbs 20:1. Alcohol destroys wisdom.
- l) Wisdom shows in your face - "A man's wisdom maketh his face to shine." Ecclesiastes 8:1
- k) A Godly wife is wise and kind - She opens her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness." Proverbs 31:26.
- l) Wise men often become rich - "The crown of the wise is their riches." Proverbs 14:24.

CONCLUSION

Much more is spoken of wisdom in Proverbs. Read it, search it and do it. You will then become a wise person, you'll have a happy life and your children and grandchildren will be wise, happy and blessed. Wisdom starts at salvation. It is grown in an environment of humility, where we avoid wrong companions, admit our sins, learn from our mistakes and pick ourselves up to carry on pleasing God.

81. HOW TO HAVE JOY

“Yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory.” I Peter 1:8.

Aim: To know how to experience joy unspeakable.

Introduction: Many people today are unhappy and without joy. It seems that the more things that people have, the more they want, the more unhappy they are, and the less joy they have. Satan will always try to rob us of joy by getting us to sin. He offers us a swap: sin and reap a perceived benefit, which will cost us our joy and peace. Yet some people with very little material things have great joy. Why? Because joy is not based on having material goods.

Joy is inner contentment, calm delight, cheerfulness and gladness.

This joy that we receive at salvation is described as “unspeakable” (412) which means unutterable and inexpressible. It is so wonderful that it cannot be described fully. The next verse (v.9) describes heaven, so this joy that we have continues to heaven. We rejoice with so great joy that words cannot describe it (now), and this joy is full of glory (later when we get to heaven). This joy is only available to believers in Jesus Christ, so the obvious first step is to receive Jesus Christ as your Saviour.

Question: How can we experience this joy unspeakable?

Answer: We experience this joy as we do or think on the following:

1. STAY IN GOD’S PRESENCE

“Thou wilt show me the path of life: in thy presence is fullness of joy, at thy right hand there are pleasures forevermore.” Psalm 16:11.

Joy is found by: a) following the path of life that God sets out for us, and

b) staying close to God in His presence, then we experience fullness of joy, pleasures forevermore and sweet fellowship with the Lord.

“Unto God my exceeding joy.” Psalm 43:4. “I will joy in the God of my salvation.” Habakkuk 3:18.

When we draw close to God, we experience the exceeding joy of His Person. Habakkuk 3:17,18,19. Even in economic hardship we can rejoice in the Lord. Inner joy and peace does not depend on outward prosperity. Joy comes from staying close to the God of my salvation.

2. HEAVEN

“He shall see his face with joy.” Job 33:26. “Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.” Matthew 25:21,23.

“I will make thee ruler over many things” is a joyful prospect.

As we think of seeing Christ’s face in heaven, this thought fills us with joy now and joy later in heaven. We will experience great joy when we enter heaven if we have been faithful to Christ on earth. Faithful service now brings great rewards later.

Christ is able to present us faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy. Jude 24.

3. FAITHFULLY ENDURING TRIALS

“Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.” Psalm 30:5.

When we go through life’s trials, the key is to stay in close fellowship with the Lord. When the trial passes, then joy comes to us as we experience the victory.

“Count it all joy when ye fall into diverse temptations.” James 1:2,3,4.

This is because testings produce patience, so that we become complete and entire, wanting nothing. We become joyful when we come through trials, victorious in the strength of the Lord.

4. STAY MORALLY UPRIGHT, AVOID SIN

“Shout for joy all ye that are upright in heart.” Psalm 32:11.

If we are upright morally in our heart, this is a cause for joy. To have joy, be morally upright and forsake sin, because sin robs us of joy.

“Restore unto me the joy of my salvation.” Psalm 51:12.

It is right to avoid sin and to keep our joy. When we sin, we lose our joy as David did through adultery and murder. We must then confess our sin to God and make things right with others, then God can restore unto us the joy of our salvation. Remember, sin robs us of joy, so let’s avoid sin and stay upright as the way to keeping our joy.

5. GOD PLANS TO PROSPER US

“Let them shout for joy and be glad.....Let the Lord be magnified, which hath pleasure in the prosperity of his servant.” Psalm 35:27.

As we serve God obediently, it is a cause for joy to remember that God plans to prosper our hard work for Christ. We all like to prosper in the work that God has called us to do. When we go through difficult times, it is good to know that God will prosper our work for Him. This causes us joy.

“Your labour is not in vain in the Lord.” 1 Corinthians 15:58.

6. HOUSE OF GOD

“I went with them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept holyday.” Psalm 42:4.

If we want joy we should come to church, the house of God on Sunday so that we can be taught God’s Word, to enjoy the fellowship of believers and to rest on God’s Holyday. There is joy in God’s house when believers are of one mind in the Word of God and as we praise God in joyful singing.

7. UNITY

(Philippians 2:2

“Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.”

There can be no joy in any church unless there is unity of mind and belief. If an entire church all believe the same Bible truths, are of one accord, of one mind, all loving the same things, then there is peace, joy and direction in a church. A church divided against itself cannot stand. Those of different major beliefs should either believe what the church believes, or get out and find another church that believes as they do. Don’t hinder the work of a good church.

True unity can only be based on truth. Then joy can prevail.

8. SOUL WINNING when people are saved.

a) “They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.” Psalm 126:5.

When we go out and share the gospel with tears of concern over people’s lost condition, then God promises that we shall reap in joy as people get saved. There is joy in seeing people saved.

b) “My brethren, dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown.” Philippians 4:1.

“What is our hope or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming? For ye are our glory and joy.” 1 Thessalonians 2:19,20.

Those Paul led to Christ were his joy, hope, glory and crown. Leading souls to Christ brings us joy.

c) “There is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repents.” Luke 15:10.

We should share in the angel’s joy by trying to lead people to Christ. Events on earth can make heaven rejoice. This proves that those in heaven know much of what happens on earth. Let us be soul winners so as to make heaven’s angels rejoice and share in their joy.

9. KEEP CHRIST’S COMMANDMENTS

“If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love. These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.” John 15:10,11.

If we keep Christ’s commandments, Christ’s joy will be in us and our joy will be full. Those who rebel against God’s commands, lose Christ’s joy. Thus rebels look angry. Obeying God brings joy.

10. CONVERTS WALKING IN TRUTH

“I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth.” III John 4.

When we lead people to Christ, it is our greatest joy to see them walk in truth, in true Bible doctrine, taking their place serving the Lord in a sound Bible teaching Church. It is a grief to see new Christians going back to their old ways or following false doctrines. How do new converts walk in truth? By being taught God’s Word properly as they sit under a sound Bible teacher.

11. PRAYER

When we ask in Jesus Christ’s name, we receive, and our joy will be full. John 16:24.

If you are unhappy, check and see if you have had a good prayer time that morning.

Prayer brings joy. No prayer brings no joy.

12. REVIVAL

“The people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake....and there was great joy in that city.” Acts 8:4-8. When the Samaritans turned to the Lord, there was great joy in their city.

13. SUCCESS IN MISSIONS

“Paul and Barnabas declared the conversion of the gentiles; and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.” Acts 15:3.

We can have great joy by supporting soul winning missionaries. When they report multitudes turning to Christ, we experience great joy with them as we have shared prayerfully and financially in their work. Their blessing becomes our blessing.

14. FINISH YOUR LIFE'S WORK

“That I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry.....” Acts 20:24.

If we finish our life's race with joy without being disqualified, we have joy on entering heaven, not having given in to the devil. We must finish the work that God has given us to do on earth.

We lose our joy if we disgrace Christ by sin and drop out of the ministry.

15. A HAPPY MARRIAGE brings joy

“Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity.” Ecclesiastes 9:9.

If we succeed in our career, but fail in our marriage, we lose our joy and have great misery. Men must constantly court and love their wives in order to maintain a happy marriage. Men, watch for the danger signals in your marriage and fix the problems before it's too late.

16. FILLING OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

“With joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation.” Isaiah 12:3.

“Out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive.” John 7:37.

We can be constantly filled with the Holy Spirit as we take in the water of the Word (Eph. 5:26) from the wells of salvation. As we are filled with the Holy Spirit, we bring forth the fruit of the Spirit of love, joy peace,.....(Galatians 5:22,23).

17. THE WORD OF GOD

“Thy words were found and I did eat them: and thy Word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of my heart.” Jeremiah 15:16. When we read and seriously meditate on God's Word, applying it to our life and obeying it, we experience great joy and rejoicing. Great joy comes from obeying God's Word.

18. THINKING OF THE FUTURE MILLENNIUM

“The joy of the whole earth, is Mount Zion...” Psalms 48:2.

When we think about when Christ will return to the earth in person to judge righteously and put down all evil, we are excited to see the joy that the whole earth will experience as Christ rules as King from Jerusalem over a regenerated earth.

“Everlasting joy upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.” Isaiah 35:10.

When feeling down, think of the future joy that you'll experience when you come to Jerusalem in the Millennium weekly and monthly (Isaiah 66:23), along with everybody on earth, to receive Bible teaching from Christ in a joyful, festival atmosphere.

19. CHRIST'S FIRST and SECOND COMINGS

Wise men rejoiced with exceeding great joy as they saw the star over the stable. Matthew 2:10.

So do we rejoice as we see Christ's coming drawing closer. Angels brought the shepherds good tidings of great joy to all people. We experience the joy of Christ's birth at Christmas. Luke 2:10.

CONCLUSION: Joy comes by doing things God's way. Sorrow comes to by doing things man's way. Follow these principles and you will have real joy and purpose in life. Remember the sorrow that Israel experienced because they disobeyed God and did not serve Him joyfully. Deuteronomy 28:47.

82. HOW TO INCREASE OUR FAITH

Bible Reading: Hebrews 11.

Aim: To apply these principles to increase our faith, and to step out to attempt great things for God.

Introduction: We are saved by faith in Christ as Saviour when, believing that He paid in full for all our sins and wants to save us. We then call on Christ to be our Saviour. Romans 10:13; John 1:12. As believers, we must continue to walk in faith day by day. “We walk by faith, not by sight.” 2 Cor 5:7.

QUESTION 1: What do we have faith in?

ANSWER: We have faith in God’s promises in the Bible that they are true and reliable. God can be counted on to do what is best and right for me, according to the goodness of His character and His loving purposes for me. “Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?” Genesis 18:25.

QUESTION 2: How important is it to walk by faith?

ANSWER: “But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he that cometh to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him.” Hebrews 11:6. “For by it the elders obtained a good report.” Hebrews 11:2.

QUESTION 3: How will having faith or trust in God affect my life?”

A:

1. I will not worry, but live in victory.
2. I will attempt more service for God.
3. I will pray more, expecting answers from God.
4. I will sin less, knowing that sin is due to mistrusting God’s power to solve my problems.
5. I will wait patiently for God to work out His plans in my life, as I focus on serving Him.
6. I will tell more people about Christ, believing that God’s Word will not return void, but will accomplish that which He purposes (Isaiah 55:11). “A little faith will bring your soul to heaven. A great faith will bring heaven to your soul.”

I. DEFINITION OF FAITH

“Now faith is the substance (assurance) of things hoped (expected) for, the evidence (conviction) of things not seen.” Hebrews 11:1.

It is a confident assurance that God will do what is right and best for us in what we hope and pray for.

II. BIBLE EXAMPLES OF GREAT FAITH

1. Noah prepared an ark to the saving of his house, even though he had never seen rain. Hebrews 11:7
2. Abraham left Ur at God’s command, not knowing where he went. Hebrews 11:8. Abraham by faith, when he was tried, offered up Isaac....accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead.” Hebrews 11:17-19.
3. Joseph kept himself from adultery with Potiphar’s wife. Joseph stayed faithful to God in the dungeon jail with no knowledge as to whether he would ever be released.
4. i) Moses refused to be called the son of Pharaoh’s daughter.
ii) Moses chose to suffer affliction with the people of God, rather than enjoying the pleasures of sin for a season.
iii) Moses esteemed the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompense of the reward. 11:26.
iv) Moses by faith forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the King.
v) Moses endured, as seeing Him who is invisible.
vi) Moses by faith kept the Passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the first born should touch them.” Hebrews 11:28.
5. Joshua: By faith the walls of Jericho fell down after they were compassed about seven days. 11:30
6. Rahab received the spies with peace, risking her life. 11:31.
7. Gideon with God and 300 men defeated 135,000 Midianites. Judges 6:1 - 8:10.
8. David by faith faced Goliath, killing him with one stone. 1 Samuel 17.
9. Elijah prayed for God to withhold rain for 3½ years, then prayed for rain. James 5:17,18.
10. Job endured suffering, yet he sinned not with his mouth, nor charged God foolishly. Job 1:22; 2:10.

11. Hezekiah by faith promoted a revival. II Kings 18.
12. Nehemiah by faith returned to Jerusalem to rebuild its walls. He faced great danger and opposition.
13. Isaiah, Jeremiah and Ezekiel preached God's message to the Jews who persecuted them.
14. Daniel prayed to God daily knowing that he would be thrown to the lions. "He was faithful." Dn 6:3
15. Four friends of a palsied man let him down through the roof to Jesus to be healed. Mark 2:5.
16. Paul and early Christians started churches all over the world in the face of much opposition.

III. ILLUSTRATIONS OF FAITH

1. When Hudson Taylor, the famous missionary, first went to China, it was in a sailing vessel. Very close to the shore of some cannibal's islands the ship was becalmed and it was slowly drifting shoreward unable to move. The savages were eagerly anticipating a feast.

The captain came to Mr. Taylor and besought him to pray for the help of God. "I will," said Taylor. "provided you set your sails to catch the breeze." The captain declined to make himself a laughing stock by unfurling in a dead calm. Taylor said. "I will not undertake to pray for the vessel unless you will prepare the sails." The captain agreed to Taylor's request.

While engaged in prayer, there was a knock at the door of his stateroom. "Who is there?" The captain's voice responded. "Are you still praying for wind?" "Yes." "Well," said the captain. "you'd better stop praying, for we have more wind than we can manage."

2. This story is told by the captain of a ship on which George Muller of Bristol was travelling. During his life he received more than 1,000,000 pounds from the Lord, without advertising. Every penny came as an answer to prayer.

"We had George Muller of Bristol on board" said the captain. "I had been on the bridge for twenty-four hours and never left it and George Muller came to me and said, 'Captain, I have come to tell you I must be in Quebec on Saturday afternoon.'" 'It is impossible,' I said.

"Then very well, if your ship cannot take me, God will find some other way. I have never broken an engagement in fifty-seven years; let us go down into the chart room and pray."

"I looked at that man of God and thought to myself, 'What lunatic asylum can that man have come from, for I never heard of such a thing as this?'" "Mr. Muller, do you know how dense this fog is?"

No, he replied, my eye is not on the density of the fog, but on the living God who controls every circumstance of my life. He knelt down and he prayed one of the most simple prayers. When he had finished, I was going to pray, but he put his hand on my shoulder and told me not to pray. As you do not believe He will answer, and as I believe that He has, there is no need whatever for you to pray about it.

I looked at him and George Muller said, "Captain, I have known my Lord for fifty-seven years and there has never been a single day when I have failed to get an audience with the King. Get up, Captain and open the door and you will find the fog has gone. I got up and the fog indeed was gone and on that Saturday afternoon George Muller kept his promised engagement. Sunday School Times.

IV. BARRIERS TO FAITH

1. Sacrifice: When you think you'll lose out in some way.
2. Reason: When God's commands seem unreasonable.
3. Peer Pressure: When obedience means going against the crowd.
4. Suffering: When obedience is likely to bring you suffering.

V. HOW TO INCREASE OUR FAITH

1. Hearing the Word of God.

"Faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God." Romans 10:17.

As we hear God's Word at church, study it privately, and believe God's promises to be true, our faith will increase. We must hear, read, study, memorize and meditate on God's Word.

2. Remember God's Past Answers to Prayer.

David strengthened his faith before he fought Goliath by remembering how God delivered him from the paw of the lion and the bear. I Samuel 17:31-37.

Notice Saul's lack of faith, compared with David's great faith. God's past victories encourage us to attempt great things for God today and to trust God in the future.

3. Obey God in What you Know Already.

"He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much." Luke 16:10.

If you don't do faithfully the little jobs that God has given you to do today, you won't do faithfully the bigger jobs that God may ask of you later in life.

4. Ask God for Great Things Daily.

You will receive what you ask for if you ask in Jesus' Name, according to His will. John 16:24 says "Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full."

Ask in faith for wisdom, nothing doubting. James 1:5-7.

Ask God to give you a mighty impact on the world for Christ.

5. Listen to the Holy Spirit's Leading.

Philip did this in Acts 8:26-31, resulting in the Ethiopian eunuch being saved.

As we listen to the Holy Spirit's leading, we become more used of God, others are blessed, God is glorified, and we are encouraged to attempt more things for God.

6. By Meditating on God's Goodness of Character in the Bible.

Notice how God loves us. He wants to bless us and lead us in the right way. Psalm 34:4-10,17-22.

Psalm 37:8 says: "O taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him."

"We know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose." Romans 8:28.

7. By Trusting in the Lord rather than Fearing.

"What time I am afraid, I will trust in thee." Psalm 56:3.

"The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away: blessed be the name of the Lord." Job 1:21.

Job continued to trust God even though he lost his wealth, health and children.

8. Read how God answered missionaries prayers in the past.

9. Develop a Thankful Attitude, thanking God for all things, knowing that God is working out His perfect will in our lives. "In everything give thanks." I Thessalonians 5:18.

10. Study facts proving Creation, Fulfilled Bible Prophecies, & proofs of the Bible from Science and Archaeology. These will convince us of God's Word being true and of God's care for us.

11. Tackle Giants Courageously in the Lord's strength. Joshua 1:5-9.

12. Have a Humble Spirit seeing my natural poverty and need of God. God will look to such a man.

"But to this man will I look, even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, & trembles at my word." Isaiah 66:2

13. Attempt New Things for God to reach more people for Christ and to teach God's Word.

14. Be content if you are unmarried, using your time to serve God. God will provide a spouse if He wills in His own time. "Godliness with contentment is great gain." I Timothy 6:6.

15. Learn to Wait upon the Lord for Him to provide our needs.

"I waited patiently for the Lord; and he inclined unto me and heard my cry." Psalm 40:1.

16. Tithe, developing our faith in God's ability to provide. Malachi 3:7-12.

As we give money to God's work above what we think we can afford, God continues to abundantly provide our needs. We then have faith to give more.

17. Be a Clean Vessel, and God will use you more. II Timothy 2:20,21.

"Abstain from fleshly lusts which war against the soul." I Peter 2:11.

18. Be Filled with the Holy Spirit daily. Be aware of God's presence doing great things in our life.

19. Study to Learn Soul Winning and Follow Up by doing it. As people get saved and come to church through our outreach, our faith will increase.

CONCLUSION: Will you increase in faith? Will you apply these principles today?

"A coloured church congregation had met to pray for rain to release a long dry spell. The preacher looked severely at his flock and said: "Brothers and Sisters, you'll know why we is here. Now what I wants to know is-where is you' umbrellas?""

Will you attempt something in faith for God today, believing that God will bless your efforts, or will you have no faith, and attempt nothing for God?

83. HOW TO UNDERSTAND ADVERSITY

Bible Reading: Hebrews 12:1-15.

Aim: To understand God's purposes for adversity.

Key 1: Our first response to adversity should not be to try to remove it, but to allow adversity to reveal our true weakness.

Introduction: Adversity can be our greatest motivation for spiritual growth or our deadliest means of discouragement. The difference depends on us understanding God's purposes in adversity.

What does adversity do for us? What does God achieve through adversity?

1. Adversity is God's Way of Getting Our Attention.

The cares of the world can choke out the Word of God and drown out the voice of the Holy Spirit. While we are busy with our plans, goals, projects and friendships, God patiently reminds us in Jeremiah 35:14, "I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but ye hearkened not unto us."

When adversity comes, we are suddenly faced with problems and pressures that are too big for us to resolve. Our inward response should be, "Unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul. O my God, I trust in thee: let me not be ashamed, let not my enemies triumph over me." Psalm 25:1,2.

As adversity continues and our human strength is drained, Christ's invitation becomes more attractive, "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

Matthew 11:28. God's ultimate purpose in getting our attention is to conform us to the image of Christ. Because of this, all adversity works together for our good (Romans 8:28,29). Through it we learn of Christ, who is meek and lowly. His burden is light.

2. Adversity is our Assurance that God Loves Us.

"For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth." Hebrews 12:6,7,10,11.

Three results of chastening: 1. We give God reverence. 12:9.

2. Our profit, to be partakers of God's holiness. 12:10.

3. It yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness. 12:11.

When we recognise God's love in adversity, we can:

i) Lift up the hands which hang down and the feeble knees. v.12.

This means to get back serving God with our hands and legs.

ii) Make straight paths for your feet. v.13.

This means to get back on the path of righteousness. "He leadeth me." Psalm 23:3.

iii) Follow peace and holiness with all men. v.14.

This means that right relationships are restored with men and God.

iv) Avoid failing of the grace of God or bitterness will follow. v.15.

Failing of the grace of God means that one can not respond with the grace of God, but with envy, bitterness, nervousness, then carnality.

3. Adversity is God's Call for Self Examination.

"If we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged. But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord." 1 Corinthians 11:31,32.

God requires that we search out, confess and forsake every sin.

"He that covereth his sins shall not prosper." Proverbs 28:13.

God established the Lord's Table as the time and place for self-examination. If this is neglected, God may give physical adversity as a further motivation for self examination. 1 Cor. 11:28-30.

-If things are not going well for us, the reason may be that we dishonoured our parents "Honour thy father and mother....that it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth." Ephesians 6:2,5.

-If it seems that evil will not depart from our household, it may be because we have rewarded evil to those who did good to us, "Whoso rewardeth evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house." Proverbs 17:13.

4. Adversity is God's Way of Conquering Our Pride.

- The adversity of contention reveals pride. "Only by pride cometh contention." Proverbs 13:10.
- The adversity of destruction is the result of pride in a person.
"Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall." Proverbs 16:18.
- The adversity of shame is God's means of humbling us.
"When pride cometh, then cometh shame: but with the lowly is wisdom." Proverbs 11:2.
"A man's pride shall bring him low." Proverbs 29:23.
"Whoso exalts himself shall be abased and he that humbles himself shall be exalted." Luke 14:11
"God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace to the humble." James 4:6,7.

5. Adversity is a Reminder of Our Weakness. 2 Corinthians 12:7-10.

When all is going well, we are tempted to think that we don't need God. If we have a thorn in the flesh (v.7), Christ's grace is sufficient (v.9) and we learn to glory in our unchangeable features (v.9). We then experience the power of Christ upon us (v.9). When I am weak, then am I strong (v.10). I take pleasure in infirmities (weaknesses), reproaches and necessities (v.10).

6. Adversity Motivates us to Cry Out To God.

God responds to the cry of His children when we are in adversity.

"The righteous cry, and the Lord hears, and delivers them out of all their troubles." Psalm 34:17.

We should cry out in the right ways:

1. Cry out to God with our voice.

"I cried unto the Lord with my voice, and he heard me out of his holy hill." Psalm 3:4.

2. Cry out to God in humility. "He forgetteth not the cry of the humble." Psalm 9:12 .

Key 2: Our second response to adversity should be: Not to focus on outward circumstances, but to realize that we are dealing with unseen spiritual powers.

7. Adversity is Evidence of Spiritual Warfare.

Note: If we do not recognize when adversity is spiritual warfare, we will be overwhelmed and tempted to give up. When adversity takes the form of confusion, suspicion, division and anger, then spiritual warfare is on. Paul encouraged Christians to be strong, courageous and prepared to be good soldiers.

8. Adversity is God's Method of Purifying our Faith. This leads to Patience.

"But without faith it is impossible to please Him." Hebrews 11:6.

FAITH may need to be tested in the fires of adversity. "the trial of your faith." 1 Peter 1:6,7.
Faith is essential for living the Christian life.

Why? Because the ways of God are opposite to the natural inclinations of man.

Adversity may come from: 1. Those who mock God's principles, or
2. Because we violate God's principles.

In either case, adversity will strengthen our faith. PATIENCE comes from adversity.

"Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience." James 1:3.

With this kind of faith and patience, we can obtain the promises of God.

"Followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises." Hebrews 6:12.

9. Adversity Increases our Hatred for Evil.

When God exposes secret sin, He allows others to see it's devastating consequences, such as:

Islamic terrorist bombings, Saddam Hussein; Homosexuality, AIDS; Fornication, Divorce; childhood lying, President Nixon's Lies. In this way, the simple (ignorant) are warned not to be fooled by Satan focusing our eyes on "the pleasures of sin which last for a season." Hebrew 11:25
God will not be mocked with our sin. Galatians 6:7,8.

Our hatred of evil should increase as we realize how:

1. Sin (as a thief) robs us of our potential for achieving & enjoying what God had planned for us;
2. Our sins damage the lives of those whom we love. We don't hate evil because we don't realize its final cost. Sin brings death. Adam and Eve did not realize the cost of their sin to all mankind.

10. Adversity reminds us to Pray for our Authorities.

God teaches us that a quiet and peaceable life is related to intercessory prayer for those in authority over us. 1 Timothy 2:1,2.

Note: Those who are in positions of responsibility provide spiritual protection for those under their care, such as parents and pastors. When there are failures in the life of a leader, the “umbrella of protection” develops “leaks”. Satan is given greater freedom to defeat those who are under that authority. Therefore it is important in order to be a good leader to submit to authority yourself. Even a little leak in a roof can let in a great deal of water. Spiritual leaders are judged by a higher standard. James 3:1. When we experience temptations, so do church leaders. They need our prayers.

11. Adversity is a Signal to Re-evaluate our Priorities.

Wrong priorities may result in much painful adversity, not only for us, but also for those who are affected by our lives.

Type 1: When we fail to spend proper time with the Lord in memorizing His Word, meditating and praying, we rob others of spiritual encouragement and direction. Instead, we become vulnerable to transgression. Psalm 107:17,19.
God saves us out of our distress with His Word. Psalm 107:20.

Type 2: When we try to do more than God intended us to do.
“Six days shalt thou labour and do all thy work.” Exodus 20:9.

12. Adversity is God’s way of Testing Our Work.

Every spiritual house that is built must be tested to prove that it is founded on truth. “rain descended (to test the roof), the floods came (to test the foundation), the winds blew (to test the structure), & beat upon that house, and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock.” Matt 7:24-27
“The fire shall try every man’s work of what sort it is.” 1 Corinthians 3:13-15.

13. Adversity is God’s way of Testing our Friendships.

It will reveal which friends are concerned about getting.

It will reveal which friends are concerned about giving.

“A true friend loveth at all times and a brother is born for adversity.” Proverbs 17:17.

For example, the Good Samaritan’s commitment to his neighbour, who had fallen among thieves, continued until the man’s needs were met. Luke 10:30-37.

Contrasting example: The Prodigal Son while spending money, had many friends, but when his money ran out and hardship came, all his friends then left. On the other hand, Jonathan was loyal to David in bad times.

Key 3: Our third response to adversity should be:

Not to live for Christ in our own efforts, but to realize that Christ must live in us through the power and filling of the Holy Spirit as we yield to Him.

14. Adversity is God’s Call to Identify with Christ.

Adversity causes us to want more of Christ’s power in our lives. Galatians 2:20.

Paul suffered the loss of all things to win more people to Christ and to experience the power of Christ’s resurrection. God’s power becomes a reality to us from Romans 6,7,8.

-Romans 6. We learn to know that we are crucified with Christ. We learn how to reckon ourselves dead to sin and alive to God. We learn how to yield ourselves to God and our members as instruments of righteousness to God. (Romans 6:6,11,13).

-Romans 7. We discover a new problem. We are still overcome by the demands of the Law. We try to live according to God’s principles, but we can’t do it. We learn that our death in Christ also caused us to die to the Law, so that we are free to be controlled by God’s Spirit in order to bring forth spiritual fruit. (Romans 7:1-6).

-Romans 8. We learn our source of power over sin. This is the indwelling Holy Spirit of God based on our position in Christ. As we walk in God’s Spirit rather than in our own flesh, God is able to fulfil the righteousness of the Law in us. (Romans 8:2-4).

15. Adversity is Motivation for Open Accountability to God and Others.

Aim to be blameless as we will be accountable to God. God's key to life, peace, wisdom and achievement is a moment-by-moment awareness of our accountability for all our words, thoughts, actions, attitudes and motives. This awareness is the fear of the Lord. It is the beginning of wisdom. When we lose our continual awareness of God, we think and act as if God did not exist. God responds by allowing adversity into our life. Judges 2:20-22.

16. Adversity Prepares us to Comfort Others. 2 Corinthians 1:3-5; 2 Corinthians 4:8-10.

Irritations are God's way of increasing our sensitivity to the needs of others, increasing our opportunities to serve God, and developing inward qualities. When God achieves His purposes through an irritation, He is then free to remove that irritation from our lives.

CONCLUSION: How do you respond to adversity? Will adversity make you better or bitter?

If we continually retreat from adversity, we force God to raise up new irritations or to set aside His best plan for our lives. Permanent irritations have a permanent benefit in our development and ministry.

84. STABLE HOMES PRODUCE HAPPY CHILDREN

(or Seven Ways to Have a Happy Marriage)

Bible Reading: Mark 10:6-9; Ephesians 4:18-33.

Aim: To identify, memorize and apply 7 Keys for a strong and happy marriage and secure children. A preacher, before marrying a couple, once said, "I'd rather have a funeral than a wedding. When you bury someone it stays done." He was a deeply concerned man. He had seen so many marriage break-ups. He asked, "Are these people committed to make it work - no matter what?"

Note: Divorce has reached epidemic stages in the US and Australia. It has happened during our lifetime, for example:

In 1900	1 in 100 marriages ended in divorce.
In 1960	14 in 100 marriages ended in divorce.
In 1987	40-50 in 100 marriages ended in divorce.

Divorce has tripled since 1900.

In an article, Too Many Divorces, Too Soon, noted anthropologist, Margaret Mead, showed how selfishness and growing irresponsibility destroys half of all marriages - and many of the children they produce. Writing in the February 1974 Redbook magazine, she said:

"In our generation divorce has become a part of the American way of life.....We no longer deeply believe that two people who have made the choice to marry should necessarily try to weather the storms that shake any vital, intimate relationship. Instead, more and more, our answer to a difficulty in marriage is: try it again with someone else."

All too often the motivation for changing marriage partners in such circumstances is the hope of finding someone who will please me - do things my way - meet my standards. If both husband and wife have this selfish, immature "me-first" attitude, someone is certain to be sadly disappointed.

The arrival of a child often triggers the crisis. Immature young couples who have not really learned how to give themselves to "living for the other" cannot cope with the pressure a baby creates.

Margaret Mead writes:

"Unprepared for parenthood, two young people who have become very close may see the new baby as an interloper. Or, if they are already restless, the baby may become just one more obstacle to pleasure and freedom. The mother is permanently stuck at home. The father is almost equally confined, or goes out alone. There is no money now for pleasure and almost nowhere the young couple can go for amusement with the baby. Then our current relief that a speedy divorce is the way out of the dilemma begins to take effect..... each accuses the other of things they both fear and long for. These being freedom from responsibility, a chance to get away, longing for better opportunities in life and a way out of their unhealthy situation."

Couples who separate end up with deep hurts. When there are children (and there are millions), they suffer the most. In addition to the millions who actually separate, many couples share a house and children but do not actually have a real home and marriage. Children from such families suffer in many of the same ways that children do whose parents actually separate. All these tragedies do not have to happen. They can be prevented. Learning and applying seven basic concepts will enable any couple to build a happy, stable and secure home - a home which cannot be destroyed. These are:

1. The Bible is God's rulebook and instruction manual for marriage.
2. Marriage is a permanent, unbreakable union.
3. Marriage cannot be a 50-50 proposition. Each partner must fulfil his or her own responsibilities 100% whether their partner does or not.
4. Both the husband and wife must recognize that they have distinctive personal needs which can be truly satisfied without guilt only in the marriage relationship.
5. At the same time both partners must be committed to recognizing and meeting their partner's needs which while different from their own are just as real and deeply felt.
6. All differences must be resolved God's way.
7. Recognize that a stable marriage must be based on trust and that a person can be trusted only as he or she is willing to trust the other completely.

Let us look at and apply these seven concepts in order to have good marriages ourselves, be able to teach others and prevent problems for them.

1. FOLLOW GOD'S INSTRUCTIONS IN THE BIBLE.

God thought up and instituted marriage. Marriages fail when people try to live together by their own rules rather than by God's rules. The tragic results are:

- a) Homes break up.
- b) Lives get shattered.
- c) Loyalties of children become divided.
- d) Children get bruises that hurt them all their lives.
- e) Dreams of the bride and groom become nightmares.

All because a couple ignores the Bible.

When a family regularly attend church together, the divorce rate is 1 in 50 (2%).

When both partners have received Christ as Saviour and faithfully follow God's guidelines for life and marriage, the divorce rate is 1 in 1525. Therefore, a Godly Christian has a 700 times better chance of success in marriage than has an unbeliever. WHY?

Because, by obeying God's instructions in the Bible, we can succeed. By ignoring God's way, tragedy results.

Principle: For success in any area in life, read and follow the instructions.

Therefore, to improve your chances 700-fold:

- a) Receive Jesus Christ as your Saviour now.
- b) Get baptised, testifying that your old life and way of doing things died with Christ and is finished, and that you have been raised to a new way of life to do things God's way.
- c) Commit yourself personally to doing right.
- d) Read your Bible and pray every day with your partner and family.
- e) Be active in and attend every service in a Christ-centred, Bible-believing church, WHETHER IT IS CONVENIENT OR NOT. You will hear God's principles for living explained. You will be challenged to apply them.
- f) Look for opportunities to serve the Lord together. This will make you others-centred. Stable marriages are successful marriages.

2. REAFFIRM YOUR MARRIAGE AS A PERMANENT COMMITMENT and AN UNBREAKABLE UNION.

In the marriage vows, you promised "for better or for worse . . . till death do us part." This is Bible-based. Today, people see this merely as a ritual, but God says, "What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder." Matthew 19:6. Because people take their commitment very lightly, many marriages break up for immature and silly reasons. Then the unresolved problems, hurts and conflicts from the first marriage often prevent a second marriage from being really successful. God wants to bless your marriage and use you to bless each other, your children and others.

Challenge: To give stability to your marriage and security to your spouse, commit yourself now to stay married forever, no matter what. Then, tell the children of this commitment if old enough to understand, as it will give them security when they see their friends parents divorcing. It will also build their foundations in the attitude that their marriage is forever as well.

3. MARRIAGE IS NOT A 50/50 PROPOSITION.

(Each partner must fulfil his/her responsibilities 100%, whether the other partner does or not!)

Vows, if taken seriously, can keep a marriage together, but vows will not build a happy home. A home which is both secure and happy must be built on a real understanding of what makes a marriage successful. The slogan "marriage is a 50-50 proposition" is heard frequently. It sounds logical. However, the logic behind it can destroy many marriages. The basis of a 50-50 marriage is, "If you will do your part, I will do mine." It leads to tragedy because there are times in every marriage when someone fails. In a 50-50 marriage, this causes the other partner to step back & refuse to do his 50%. Then the battle rages.

The 50-50 marriage is not God's way. The husband and wife who start marriage on a 50-50 basis will always be checking to see if the partner is fulfilling his or her 50%. When one partner falls short, bitterness results in the other. The partner who feels cheated will withhold some of his 50% in an attempt to even the score. Things get worse. Even 90%-10% marriages will not work. The partner who is willing to give 90% will have a tendency to check to see if the partner is really fulfilling his or her 10%.

God's way in marriage is 100% - 100%. Each partner is expected to give his or her 100% even if the other partner fails completely. If only one partner in the marriage faithfully gives his 100%, the home cannot be destroyed. God uses right actions and attitudes of the faithful one to straighten out and restore the failing partner.

God's instructions for the 100% - 100% marriage are found in Ephesians 5:18-33. Different instructions and responsibilities are assigned to both husband and wife:

Wife:

- a) Submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. (Note that it does not add "if he does right and fulfils his responsibilities.")
- b) A wife should not nag, complain, lecture or teach her husband. She will win him to Christ by her behaviour. I Peter 3:1. When a man fails to be what he should be in marriage, God deals with him. Too often, the man does not hear the Lord or feel the Lord's pressure because he hears his wife too much and feels her pressure too much.

Husband:

- a) Head of the home. This does not mean that the wife is inferior, as seen from I Corinthians 11:3, "The head of Christ is God." Being under authority is not a position of inferiority. Jesus is God and is equal with the Father in all ways, yet in coming to earth as a man and dying for us, He submitted Himself to His Father in all things.

(Note: In submitting to His Father, He did not become inferior. He did all things because His Father wanted it. He loved His Father. Submission is not a mark of inferiority.)

- b) Love your wife enough to die for her. God, after telling wives to submit, severely limits the man's right to do anything that he pleases. God takes away man's right to use his authority irresponsibly by telling him, "Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it." Christ loves us as in Romans 5:8, "But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us."

Seeing Christ's love transform our hearts, brings us to love Him. So too a husband's patient, long-suffering love will finally win the wife's heart and change her behaviour. Christ does not cleanse and perfect us by beating on us. He uses His Word. God has no 50/50 marriage arrangements. Each partner is called upon to fulfil his/her own 100%, even if the other does nothing. God is not calling us to a life-long martyrdom, but will use these qualities to change the partner.

- c) Be filled with the Holy Spirit and be not drunk with wine (Eph. 5:18). As we are constantly filled with God's power and love, we can be the husband and wife He calls us to be.

What if we have not been giving 100%?

- a) Confess these failings to the Lord in detail.
- b) Ask your spouse for forgiveness for failing to be the spouse that God wants.
- c) Start submitting sweetly and lovingly.

4. RECOGNIZE THAT EACH HAS DISTINCTIVE PERSONAL NEEDS.

These needs can be truly satisfied without guilt only in the marriage relationship. Meet each other's needs. If you do not, then the security and stability of your home will be endangered. Both husband and wife have different but real needs.

Question 1: What is one big reason for marriage break-ups?

- A: When someone else outside the marriage begins to meet the emotional needs of the other. When this happens, the spouse is drawn almost irresistibly to the outsider. Then comes divorce.

Many fine people get caught in this trap without realizing why. They do not understand that the strong attraction they feel for someone other than their partner is just the result of the other person meeting an emotional need which should be fulfilled by the marriage partner. When two people are meeting one another's basic emotional needs there is a strong and growing desire for a complete physical relationship. Recognizing our basic emotional need and seeing that it can be fulfilled without guilt only within the marriage relationship is a vital protection against tragedy.

Question 2: What are these basic emotional needs of the husband and wife?

A: God tells husbands and wives how to meet each others needs. "Let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself, and the wife see that she reverence her husband." Ephesian 5:33

Question 3: What does a wife need?

- A:
- a) Love.
 - b) To hear that she is loved.
 - c) To receive regular evidence and reassurance of her husband's love, such as the thrill of little gifts, remembering important dates and events, and tokens of love.
 - d) Security, protection, home maintenance, etc.

Question 4: What does a husband need?

- A:
- a) To be respected and revered.
 - b) To know that his wife really thinks that he is the greatest.
 - c) To be assured of her respect, especially when he fails in some way.
 - d) To know that his wife is dependent on him, just as the church is dependent on Christ.

When the husband and wife do not recognize and work to meet the needs of their partners, grave dangers result. For example, a man who on the job is competent in accomplishing his assignments, and is polite, courteous and appreciative of the help of others, will find a woman respecting him (especially if she works for him). Because the woman is meeting his need for respect, he will be drawn to her. He will start desiring to meet her needs.

Soon he will compare the respect of the woman on the job with the nagging of his wife. The woman at the office or in the plant does not know that he does not take out the garbage and leaves his dirty socks or underwear on the bathroom floor. The woman on the job will not point out his failings (particularly if he is her boss) as his wife does. The woman on the job is in danger also. She does not realize that this very competent, appreciative man at work has all the shortcomings of her own husband. In the casual relationship at work (or wherever) these two people do not have to share unpaid bills, sick children, the need for a new washer, a second car, etc. Without realizing it, they soon find themselves meeting one another's basic needs. The man at work will be supplying the attention and kindness the woman needs. She will be giving the man the respect that he desires. Where two people are meeting these very basic needs for love and respect, the desire for a complete physical relationship becomes overpowering. Soon there is another broken marriage. It is happening all the time.

Recognizing your own basic need for reverence and respect (men) or love and attention (women) is an important safeguard against slipping into a relationship where these needs are met outside of marriage.

5. MAKE IT YOUR LIFE'S GOAL TO MEET YOUR SPOUSE'S NEEDS.

Their needs are just as real and deeply felt as yours. Husbands cannot know from their own experience how much wives need to be loved. They cannot really understand how wives need regular assurance and evidence of that love. Wives, from their own experience, cannot comprehend how their husbands need reverence and respect. The only way a husband or wife will ever come to realize that their partner has a real and deeply felt need, is to recognize his or her own personal needs.

The Husband. By seeing and admitting how much he needs respect and reverence from his wife, the husband is then able and prepared to understand that his wife also has a real, but deeply felt need.

The Wife. The only way a wife can really experience, feel or share the great need her husband has to be revered and respected, is to recognize her own deep hunger for love and the assurance of it.

When they see their own need, they are prepared to realize that a partner's need, while different, is just as deep and real.

Lesson: Recognizing our own emotional needs and seeing that our partner also has needs which are just as real and deeply felt as ours, will bring us a willingness to give ourselves to meeting the needs of our partner. As we do so, God will see to it that the partner begins to meet our needs.

The key to blessings in marriage is: Make it your life's goal to meet the needs of your partner.

In doing so, you will see your own needs met by God. "Give, and it shall be given unto you." Luke 6:38. This verse reminds people of money, but the principle goes much deeper than money.

God implies that we will get much more than we give. This principle applies in every area of life:

If we give LOVE.....	we will get LOVE.
If we give HELP.....	we will get HELP.
If we give ENCOURAGEMENT...	we will get ENCOURAGEMENT.
If we give A SMILE.....	we will get A SMILE.
If we give HATE.....	we will get HATE.

Therefore, when we give ourselves to meeting the needs of others, we will find others meeting our needs. This is especially true in marriage, and also true in Christian work, soul winning and disciple-making. Therefore, when both partners satisfy the other's needs, they become more and more important to each other, every part of the relationship blossoms and becomes fruitful. Problems which brought division will now bring husband and wife closer together. The physical relationship in marriage becomes completely fulfilling. Once other basic needs are met, then a life-long commitment can be made to satisfy the other's longings.

6. RESOLVE DIFFERENCES GOD'S WAY.

Eight Downward Steps Toward Divorce:

1. Long before a man or woman "puts away" his or her partner in divorce, there is always a "putting away" of the person from real companionship, communication and oneness.
2. When real closeness and union in marriage is broken, they are forced into a subtle form of adultery. This means that they seek to have their needs for companionship, meaningful conversation, oneness, attention and respect fulfilled by someone other than their marriage partner. This is "adultery" - diluting of marriage. Adultery has a broader meaning than just illicit sex outside marriage. God described Israel's worship of false gods and seeking help from them as adultery. Adultery (in a broad sense) = seeking to have one's needs met and fulfilled other than through the God-ordained channels method.

Therefore if a man "puts away" his wife from real oneness with himself and she seeks a substitute in soap operas, books, materialism, a job, or other things, he has forced her into a form of adultery. This type of "adultery" always precedes the actual illicit physical union outside marriage.

Such "putting away"..... the breaking of real oneness and communication in marriage....results from unresolved differences, unhealed hurts and unforgiven offences. Often the differences are very small. If they are not resolved, however, they will destroy real communication and oneness in marriage. The couple may continue sharing a house, smiling at each other and having a physical relationship (although it will not really satisfy). However, the real union is ended. Because some hurt has not been healed, one partner "puts away" the other from the very centre of his life and existence. The "putting away" is done when one partner's expectations are dashed again and again.

3. To avoid further hurts, the offended partner withdraws and erects a wall of protection.
4. The hurt person may seek to "get even". This hurts, offends or irritates the other person.
5. He or she then erects a barrier or wall also.
6. Even if divorce does not result (and it does not, in many cases), the marriage relationship becomes a stiff, cold, formal one, without real life, love or meaningful communication.
7. The partners no longer meet one another's needs.
8. Adultery (physical or emotional) results, as empty people seek fulfilment outside marriage.

What is the solution to this problem? God recognized the danger. It can happen in marriage or in any relationship between people. In two places in the Gospel of Matthew, the Lord Jesus gives procedures and assigns responsibilities through which all wrongs and hurts can be healed. In Matthew 18:15 the Lord says: "Moreover if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother."

Going to the person who has offended with a proper attitude is the key to seeing differences resolved. The proper way to approach a person who has offended is to go quietly and say “I need to ask your forgiveness. I got very upset with you because of.....It was wrong for me to react in this way. Will you forgive me?” In 99 cases out of 100, the other person will grant forgiveness and seek forgiveness for their own wrongdoing. The offender may or may not acknowledge his own wrongdoing immediately. Give God time to work on him, once you have confessed your own wrong attitudes or reactions. Taking the blame in this way, without looking at the wrongs of the other party, is God’s way of reconciliation. The Lord Jesus, in seeking to restore fellowship between God and man, took upon Himself everything which separated us from God. He took all of man’s sin and shame and guilt. Once He took our sin, we were made free to come back to Him. Our union with Him was renewed. He is our pattern.

In Ephesians 4:32 we are told to forgive one another as He forgives us, “And be ye kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ’s sake hath forgiven you?”

How did the Lord forgive?

Christ has done no wrong. Yet He took all of our guilt, blame, shame and punishment. For this reason we were freed to be one with Him again. We should be willing to do the same for others . . . and particularly for our marriage partner. When we truly forgive, we must put ourselves in the place where we can be hurt again. This is what the Lord Jesus commanded in the Sermon on the Mount. He said that instead of getting even (an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth) we should turn the other cheek (expose ourselves to getting hurt again). We have the same obligation when we realize that someone (including our husband or wife) feels wronged by us. God says that if we realize (or sense) that we have offended someone, we should go and get it settled. The surest way to settle any difference is by using God’s way of reconciliation. If we ask God, He will show us our fault.

Once forgiveness is granted, the foundation is laid for restoring communication and an openness in marriage. Without it, little differences and hurts erect high walls between two people who are supposed to be one. In effect, one or both partners “puts away” the other. Even if no divorce results (immediately or long term), one of two things happen. The home may become an ‘armed camp’ or, where there are few ‘open battles’, the relationship becomes a distant, formal one without the real oneness and blessings which marriage should produce. To avoid this tragedy, marriage partners should really commit themselves to resolving differences in God’s way, rather than just “getting over them”.

7. TRUST ONE ANOTHER COMPLETELY.

A stable marriage must be based on trust. A person can be trusted as he or she can trust the other completely. There must be trust to forgive and to go on when the other person has failed.

The alternatives to trust are (a) jealousy, (b) suspicion, or (c) protective walls built to hide behind.

We can give our partner unconditional trust only if we can trust the Lord to keep him right, and straighten him out if he fails. Husband and wife must commit themselves to earning the trust of their partner. This trust is commanded and demanded by the Word of God.

- a) Husbands must be able to trust their wives. Of woman, God says, “Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies. The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her.” Proverbs 31:10,11.
- b) Wives must also be able to trust their husbands. Only by trusting, can a woman obey the Word of God which says, “Wives submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.” Eph. 5:22.

Trusting God or our spouse can’t be based on feelings or what is likely to happen.

Trust is the result of a decision which we act upon.

CONCLUSION: Accepting and consistently applying these seven basic prerequisites will build stable, secure homes. Husbands and wives should study and memorize the foundational concepts for a stable marriage. Whenever one partner or the other senses that differences are developing in the home, prayerfully checking the list will show the cause. By faithfully following this practice, either partner in the marriage can be used of God to build a stable, secure home which cannot be destroyed.

Excerpts from “Growing Up God’s Way” by John A Stormer.

85. SCRIPTURE SWORDS FOR PERSONAL BATTLES

If neglected, the battlefields listed below may give way to enemy strongholds (see Ephesians 4:26-27 and 2 Corinthians 10:3-5). When tempted in these areas quote these scriptures to gain victory.

Each sword will force the enemy to make a speedy retreat.

ANGER: “Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath. Neither give place to the devil.” Ephesians 4:26-27.

ANXIETY: “Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you.” Matthew 6:33-34.

BITTERNESS: “Love your enemies... pray for them which despitefully use you.” Luke 6:27-28.

BURN-OUT: “Come unto me, all ye that labour & are heavy laden, & I will give you rest” Mat 11:28-30

COMPLAINING: “Do all things without murmuring and disputing, that ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world.” Philippians 2:14-15.

CONFUSION: “Shew me thy ways, O Lord, teach me thy paths... for thou art the God of my salvation, on thee do I wait all the day.” Psalm 25:4-5.

CRITICAL SPIRIT: “Be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ’s sake hath forgiven you.” Ephesians. 4:32.

DISCONTENTMENT: “For I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content...both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.” Philippians 4:11-13.

DISCOURAGEMENT: “Fear thou not, for I am with thee; be not dismayed, for I am thy God; I will strengthen thee, yea, I will help thee, yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.”

DOUBT: “Lord, I believe; help thou my unbelief.” Mark 9:24. (Isaiah 41:10.

ENVY: “Charity (love of Jesus) suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not...” I Corinthians 13:4.

FEAR: “Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.” Joshua 1:9.

GOSSIP: “Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another.” Romans 14:19.

MATERIALISM: “Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal.” Matthew 6:19,20.

GUILT or CONVICTION: “If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.” I John 1:9.

GUILT FEELINGS (when you have already confessed): “There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.” Romans 8:1.

IMPATIENCE: “Thou art my God. My times are in thy hand.” Psalm 31:14-15.

FEELINGS OF INADEQUACY: Hear God say: “My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness.” 2 Corinthians 12:9.

LAZINESS: “Whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men.” Colossians 3:23.

LONELINESS: “When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee... when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned... for I am the Lord thy God.. since thou wast precious in my sight, thou hast been honourable, and I have loved thee.” Isaiah 43:2-4.

LYING: “Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour.” Ephesians 4:25.

PRIDE: “Whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.” Matthew 23:12. (Proverbs 3:5.

RATIONALIZING: “Trust in the Lord with all thine heart:and lean not unto thine own understanding”

REBELLION: “Father... not my will, but thine, be done.” Luke 22:42.

RESENTMENT: “(Charity) seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil.” I Cor. 13:5

RESTLESSNESS: “Be still, and know that I am God.” Psalm 46:10.

SELF-CENTREDNESS: “Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.” Philippians 2:3.

SELF-PITY: “Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow in his steps: Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth: Who when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not: but committed himself to him that judges righteously.”

1 Peter 2:21-23.

WORRY: “The Lord is my shepherd: I shall not want (lack).” Psalm 23:1.

86. BIBLE KEYS FOR A HAPPY MARRIAGE

With so many broken marriages, we must know and apply the Bible’s principles for a happy marriage in Ephesians 5:21-33. These principles can only be applied by Spirit-filled Christians because marriage is a spiritual institution. What are these principles?

1. SUBMIT YOURSELVES ONE TO ANOTHER. Ephesians 5:21.

Both husband and wife must submit to meet each other's needs above their own.

Each has special needs. Only as we fulfil each other's needs can peace and happiness prevail.

2. EACH SUBMIT TO GOD. Ephesians 5:21. "Submitting yourselves.....in the fear of God."

Both marriage partners must live by God's ways in the Bible. If one or both partners disobey Bible principles, problems are certain, which lead to frustration and possible divorce.

3. WIVES SUBMIT TO YOUR HUSBANDS as you submit to God. Eph. 5:22; 1 Peter 3:1-6.

Don't shatter your husband's ego or self respect, but hold him in high regard, helping him to achieve his goals as a help-meet. Genesis 2:18. God can change his heart if he is wrong. Proverbs 21:1. Wives submit to your own husband's in everything. (Ephesians 5:24).

4. UNDERSTAND that the earthly marriage of a wife submitting to her husband is a PICTURE of the Heavenly Marriage of the Church submitting to Christ as her Head. Ephesians 5:23.

Aim to have a marriage as good as Christ and the Church.

5. BOTH MUST BE SAVED. They must have received Christ as their Saviour.

“He is the Saviour of the body.” Ephesians 5:23. Both must agree to live by Bible principles.

6. Wives must have a MEEK and QUIET SPIRIT which is in God's sight of great price. 1 Pet 3:4

7. Husbands DWELL WITH YOUR WIVES according to KNOWLEDGE, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel. 1 Peter 3:7. Husband, realize that your wife is more vulnerable emotionally. Protect her from emotional stress and discomfort.

8. PRAY TOGETHER. "That your prayers be not hindered." 1 Peter 3:7.

9. BE OF ONE MIND, be compassionate, be loving, be pitiful, BE COURTEOUS.

Don't render evil for evil, but bless when your spouse hurts you. 1 Peter 3:8,9.

10. HUSBANDS LOVE YOUR WIFE. How much? Ephesians 5:25. As Christ loved the Church and gave Himself for it. How much did Christ love the Church? Christ died for the Church.

Husband's should be willing to die for their wife, to meet her needs, even to live for her daily.

11. HUSBANDS SEEK TO:

a) Keep your wife holy (sanctify her),

b) Keep her spiritually clean by the Word of God, as you read it together,

c) Make you and your wife without blemish (perfect in character). (Ephesians 5:27).

12. HUSBANDS love your wives as you love and look after your own body (5:28). If you love your wife and treat her right, she will love you and treat you right, and you will feel better. If you hurt and criticize your wife, she will hurt you. If you love your wife, you are loving yourself.

13. HUSBANDS NOURISH and CHERISH your wife and meet her needs as much as Christ meets the Church's needs. Ephesians 5:29. Nourish (1625) means “to rear up to maturity.”

Cherish (2282) means “to warm, to brood, to foster.”

14. WE MUST WORK TOGETHER as bones in a body or as a team.

"For we are members of his body, of his flesh, of his bones." Ephesians 5:30.

15. LEAVE YOUR FATHER AND MOTHER when you get married. Don't let parents-in-law interfere. Don't live with your parents. Maintain good friendship with your parents. Ephes. 5:31

16. Husbands CLEAVE to your wife as one flesh. Ephesians 5:33.

Achieve oneness spiritually, mentally, emotionally and physically.

17. Wife, REVERENCE your husband.

Husband, LOVE your wife as yourself. Ephesians 5:33.

87. REASONS TO OBEY GOD

We live in an age of rebellion where many people care little about God, seek their own pleasure and ignore God. Many Christians are lukewarm. They are glad to be saved and going to heaven, but they don't care much about obeying and serving God. They are too busy having a good time, and living for themselves than to care about living for Christ and rescuing people from hell.

In order to be saved we must see ourselves as big sinners who have lived for self, wronged God and have broken the chief commandment of Matthew 22:37,38 of not loving God with all our heart, soul, mind and strength, and not loving our neighbour as ourselves.

When some Christians are asked to come to church they say: "You are always pushing me to come to church." A truly born again child of God with a new nature should find it a joy to come to church to fellowship with believers and to learn more of the Bible.

We should not ask, "How little can I do for God?", but we should ask: "How much can I do for God?" We should find it a joy to serve God. Consider these reasons to obey God:

1. God created us.

God allows us to live in His wonderful world of beauty that He has created for our enjoyment. To not obey God is to not acknowledge His goodness in giving us all these things richly to enjoy. It is selfish and very ungrateful to take all from God and give Him nothing or little in return. "Remember now thy creator" Eccles 12:1.

2. God has goodwill towards us.

God wants good things for us, "The goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance." Romans 2:4.

3. God knows what is best for us.

God's ways are better than our ways. God is much wiser and smarter than we will ever be. Often our wishes are based on wrong information.

"I am the Lord thy God which teacheth thee to profit, which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go. O that thou had harkened to my commandments! then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea." Isaiah 48:17,18.

4. If we obey God today, then God will open up exciting new opportunities for us later.

"He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much." Luke 16:10.

Every time we are challenged to obey God, we should view it as a test permitted by God. If we obey God we pass the test and blessing follows. For example, the Abrahamic covenant was given after Abraham passed the faith test in Genesis 13:5-18.

5. If we disobey God in any issue, we fail the test and loss results.

For example, Lot chose the best land for himself near Sodom, but he inherited trouble when he was captured by Amraphel in a war. He later lost everything in the destruction of Sodom. Genesis 14,19.

6. If we disobey God, our children will follow our example and disobey God also.

For example, Lot lost his reputation and testimony before his two daughters and sons-in-law when he asked them to flee from Sodom. "But he seemed as one that mocked unto his sons in law." Gen 19:14.

Lot's two daughters so disrespected his lack of standards that they made him drunk and committed incest with him.

On the other hand Abraham obeyed God and his son Isaac obeyed God, following his father's good example.

7. If we obey God, our children and grandchildren will be likely to obey God also.

This will bring blessing to our following generations. For example, Abraham was greatly respected for his obedience to God by many generations of people to come.

8. If we obey God, we will be greatly respected by God and Godly people for years to come.

People will remember us with great respect and they will be encouraged to obey God as well. "The memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot." Proverbs 10:7.

9. One act of disobedience leads to more disobedience

This is how bad habits are formed. The devil says "one sin won't hurt." This is a lie, because it is harder to do right after a sequence of giving in to sin. Many people fall into deep sin and trouble after giving in to a lot of small temptations.

10. If we obey god, then God will deliver us from trouble.

“The righteous is delivered out of trouble.” Proverbs 11:8.

11. If we obey God, we will prolong our days.

We all like to live a long and happy life. “Ye shall walk in all the ways which the Lord your God hath commanded you, that ye may live, and that it may be well with you, and that ye may prolong your days in the land which ye shall possess.” Deuteronomy 5:33.

12. Obeying God brings blessings.

“Them that honour me, I will honour.” I Samuel 2:30.

Our obedience will bless us and our children:

“O that there were such an heart in them, that they would fear me, and keep all my commandments always, that it might be well with them, and with their children forever.” Deuteronomy 5:29.

“Behold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse; a blessing if you obey the commandments of the Lord your God and a curse if ye will not obey the commandments of the Lord your God.” Deut. 11:26-28. Israel’s history proves that obedience brings blessing, and disobedience brings trouble.

13. Disobeying God brings discipline, trouble, problems.

“My son, despise not thou the chastening (discipline) of the Lord.” Hebrews 12:5.

If we remember that sin will bring God’s discipline upon us, we will fear God, knowing that He watches everything we do, approving or disapproving of our actions. God is powerful enough to permit trouble to come to us if we sin. Therefore we are strongly motivated not to sin.

14. Disobeying God stops our prayers from being answered.

“If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me.” Psalm 66:18.

“ . . . that your prayers be not hindered.” I Peter 3:7.

15. Obeying God proves our love for him.

“If ye love me, keep my commandments.” John 14:15. All Christians claim to love God, but we prove our love for Him by obeying Him in difficult situations and in temptations. James 1:12.

16. God owns us now that we are saved.

We should live to please Christ who died for us. “Ye are not your own. For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God’s.” I Corinthians 6:19,20.

We are redeemed by Christ’s blood. This means that we are now bought back to Christ as our owner from the slave market of sin. “Why call ye me, Lord, Lord, & do not the things which I say.” Luke 6:46.

17. So Christ will say to us “Well done thou good and faithful servant.” Matthew 25:21.

If we obey Christ now, He will say “Well done” to us in front of all the believers and angels of all history. If we have disobeyed God on earth we will be ashamed later on in heaven.

18. So as to not be ashamed before Christ in heaven.

“And now, little children, abide in him; that, when He shall appear, we may have confidence and not be ashamed before Him at His coming.” I John 2:28.

Some believers will be ashamed at Christ’s coming because of a wasted life of sin and selfishness. Other believers will have confidence, joy, glory and rewards at Christ’s return, because they used their time wisely for Christ and eternity, resulting in many people being saved.

19. Our obedience now, proves that God can trust us with great, exciting opportunities after Christ returns.

“Thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.” Matthew 25:21. Disobedience now will rob us of chances to enjoy heaven to the fullest. In heaven we will suffer loss of rewards for unfaithfulness now. (I Corinthians 3:15).

20. We will have to give account of our life to Christ.

“So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.” Romans 14:12.

How will you explain to God why you disobeyed Him? How will this make you feel?

“For he that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men.” Romans 14:18.

Will you happily explain to Christ how your talents brought ten talents? Will you “occupy till I come?” or will you hide God’s talents in the earth, wasting what opportunities God has entrusted you with?

21. We obey God so that we will not be wasters of time and talents.

“He that is slothful in his work is brother to him that is a great waster.” Proverbs 18:9.

“Remember how short my time is.” Psalm 89:47.

The prodigal son “wasted his substance with riotous living.” Luke 15:13.

To waste our time, talents and money on selfish affairs is so wrong when we see how the fields are white unto harvest, how souls are going to hell, and how so many poor people overseas are wanting the gospel. Time is one of our most valuable possessions. We must use it to win people to Christ and to teach God’s Word all over the world.

22. By obeying God, we conquer selfishness and develop a Christlike character.

“Give and it shall be given to you.” Luke 6:38.

People who are selfish are difficult to live with. Selfishness is a mark of immaturity. We must become givers, not takers. The more we give, the more we get. To be unselfish is one of the first lessons that we must learn in God’s school. When we obey God, we deny ourself, we take up our cross (death to self), and follow Christ (Mark 8:34). Selfish people seeking to “save their lives shall lose it. But whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel’s, shall save it.” Mark 8:35.

23. We obey God in order to thwart Satan’s planned destruction of our life.

“Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour.” I Peter 5:8.

Satan is in the business of ruining people’s lives by getting them to depart from God, and to go their own way. We should watch, obey God and stay close to Christ lest we fall into Satan’s traps set to ruin our usefulness to God and our happiness. Satan wants, at all costs, to stop people getting saved. He does this chiefly by stopping Christians from growing and becoming dedicated soul winners and Bible teachers. Learn to look at life from an eternal viewpoint and to see yourself as playing a key role in changing people’s eternal destiny from hell to heaven. If you let Satan defeat you, this means that thousands of people will go to hell. See your life as playing an important, pivotal role in God’s plans. You must not desert God’s team.

24. We obey God in order to rescue people from hell.

If you fulfil God’s plans for your life, you can have a ministry that multiplies millions of disciples for Christ all over the world. These people will love you now and thank you forever in heaven for your obedience to preaching the gospel.

25. Obeying God brings eternal rewards in heaven. See Chapter 8 on Rewards.

26. To set a good example to others.

We teach by our lips and by our life.

“Your zeal hath provoked very many.” II Corinthians 9:2.

We either encourage people to serve God or we discourage people as they follow our example. Godly Hebrew kings encouraged the people to be Godly. Wicked Hebrew kings encouraged the people to be wicked and ungodly. We either bless or stumble others by our example. Let us be the best examples for others that Christ wants us to be.

27. To follow the example of great Christians in the past.

When we remember how the Apostles and many faithful Christians made great sacrifices in the past to advance the cause of Christ, we are motivated to follow their example to win our generation to Christ. In heaven we will meet those Christians and we will be asked: “What did you do for Christ in the spiritual war?” When we think of how many people were martyred for Christ, many of us will be greatly ashamed because of how little we did for Christ, when we had so many wonderful opportunities that others never had.

28. To win our country for Christ.

If we obey God, then our country and other countries can be won for Christ. If we disobey God by being lazy or sinning, then the cults and false religions will spread their lies to win our country for the devil. There is a constant spiritual war going on for the souls of men. We must never give up, but continue in the war for the souls of men. A strong church of obedient Christians will have a mighty impact on the world for Christ. A weak, small church of lukewarm, disobedient, lazy, sidetracked Christians will have little or no impact on winning the world for Christ. What an exciting goal to give your life to. Will you give Jesus Christ your best?

29. We are being watched from heaven by departed Christians who are cheering us on in the war for men's souls.

As in a relay, the past generation of Christians have passed the baton to us for winning our generation to Christ. Today we live at a time where the world's population is larger than it has ever been. We have a great opportunity to win more people to Christ than any previous generation. Believers in heaven are excited by our opportunities today. They are cheering us on to obey God and to win and train more people for Christ.

"Wherefore, seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight (hindrance or distraction), and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus . . ." Hebrews 12:1,2.

Will you serve God all the more as you read of the cheering in the heavenly grandstands for us to run our race well? Will you be a winner or a loser in God's race of life?

30. You'll be happiest obeying God.

"If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them." John 13:17.

"Where there is no vision the people perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he." Proverbs 29:18.

"Behold we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful and of tender mercy." James 5:11.

The aim of life is not to be happy, but to be useful for God. When we are useful for God and accomplish His plans for us, then happiness comes as a by-product. As we make others happy, then we become happy, especially when we see them finding the joy of eternal life in Christ. Those who are constantly seeking happiness for themselves do not always find it. "He that loses his life shall find it." We find happiness and purpose in life as we lose our life in obeying and doing God's will, and in helping others find Jesus Christ.

31. God beseeches or begs us to obey Him.

"I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God." Romans 12:1,2.

It is only reasonable that we present our bodies to God as a living sacrifice, completely burning in zeal to achieve God's good, acceptable and perfect will. Why do people not obey God? Because they want to be conformed to this world. This world will pass away, and only what's done for Christ will last.

"Only one life, it will soon be past. Only what's done for Christ will last."

"He that doeth the will of God, abideth forever."

We will be able to obey God if we study the Bible, allowing it to transform us and renew our minds away from the worldly thought patterns of our past. We need to see life from God's viewpoint, not from a worldly, humanistic, selfish, false viewpoint.

32. We obey God because of his greatness as God.

An employee who doesn't obey his boss gets fired. "A son honoureth his father, and a servant his master: if then I be a father, where is mine honour? And if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the Lord of Hosts unto you, O priests, that despise my name. And ye say, how have we despised thy name?"

a) Ye offer polluted bread upon mine altar. v.7. How many Christians today offer God their leftover time, their least effort, their least interest and their lowest enthusiasm?

b) Ye offer the blind for sacrifice. v.8. How many Christians give God what they don't want or need, such as 20 cents in the offering. They are blind to the spiritual war.

c) Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? v.10. How many Christians don't serve God unless they get paid. They don't serve God because they don't get paid for it. We should serve God without considering money.

d) Ye said also, Behold, what a weariness it is. v.13. How many Christians say how they can't be bothered serving God. They consider it too hard. "I am a great King, saith the Lord of hosts." v.14. Malachi 1:6,7,8,10,13,14. We must honour God above all earthly authorities because of the great God, King, Creator and Master that He is. He is God of the universe and we must honour and obey Him as such. It is serious to disobey the God of the universe.

33. Rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft.

When Saul disobeyed God in sparing evil King Agag, God described Saul's disobedience as follows:

1. He is turned back from following me. I Samuel 15:11.
2. To obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken is better than the fat of rams. I Samuel 15:22.
3. Rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft.
4. Stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry.
5. Because you have rejected the Word of the Lord, He hath also rejected thee from being king. v.23. Sometimes when we disobey God, God rejects us or sets us aside from being used to achieve His best plan for us. We get second best or set aside completely. This is called being disapproved, or tested and found unacceptable.
6. The Lord hath rent the Kingdom of Israel from thee this day, and hath given it to a neighbour of thine that is better than you. v.28.

When we rebel, God may set us aside and use someone else to do the great work planned for us. When we disobey God, it is as serious a sin as witchcraft. We must repent of all disobedience.

34. We obey God so as to keep God's protective hedge in place. This ensures our safety.

When we obey God as Job did, who was "a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil", God places a hedge around us to protect us from Satan's attacks.

Satan said to God, "Hast thou not made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side?" Job 1:8-10.

If we rebel against God, He may discipline us by removing the protective hedge to allow Satan to attack us. This may be what Paul meant when he said, "To deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus." I Corinthians 5:5.

"Of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme." I Timothy 1:20.

Hence, a strong motivation to obey God is the thought of losing God's protection, and being delivered to Satan to beat us up.

35. Obeying God brings us victory over sin and temptation.

"This is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith." I John 5:4.

If we exercise faith in God's promises, then we will overcome worldly temptations and we will walk in victory over sin. See I Corinthians 10:13.

36. Obedience pleases God.

Our goal should be to please God in everything. We do this by walking in faith and obedience to God.

"But without faith it is impossible to please him." Hebrews 11:6.

Jesus said: "I do always those things that please Him." John 8:29.

Paul said, "Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved." I Corinthians 10:33.

"If I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ." Galatians 1:10.

"No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier." II Timothy 2:4.

"Enoch . . . had this testimony that he pleased God." Hebrews 11:5. Do you please God in everything?

37. Disobeying God Grieves the Holy Spirit.

"Grieve not the Holy Spirit of God." Ephesians 4:30.

It is a sin not to be filled with the Holy Spirit. Ephesians 5:18.

38. If we obey God, we more easily receive God's guidance.

God opens the windows of understanding God's will when we tithe. (Malachi 3:10).

39. To Gain Peace Of Mind.

"Great peace have they which love thy law, and nothing shall offend them." Psalm 119:165.

People will do anything to get peace of mind and freedom from guilt and fear. Sin brings guilt and fear. Obeying God prevents sin, guilt and fear. We have peace knowing that we are in God's will whatever the outcome may be.

40. Obeying God makes us Christlike in character.

It produces character qualities such as humility, wisdom, patience, kindness and all the fruit of the Spirit. Galatians 5:22,23. It makes us more aware of our faults, more ready to admit any blame, and much easier to get along with others. We should constantly check our behaviour to see if we are obeying God.

41. Disobeying God Is Sin. “Be Sure Your Sin Will Find You Out.” Numbers 32:23.

A law of the universe is “What you sow, you reap.” Galatians 6:7.

If we sin against God or man, be it by committing a sin, or by neglecting to do what is right, it will have an adverse affect on us. Hence, we avoid sin because we want to avoid the bad consequences that will come back on us. We need to develop a regular habit of always obeying God on every issue, every day. Then we will experience the joy and blessings that come from obeying God.

88. PRINCIPLES OF SPIRITUAL GROWTH

Aim: To identify and apply Bible principles that will promote personal spiritual growth.

Introduction:

How does one maintain their spiritual vitality in a world that opposes spiritual things so strongly? How do we help others to maintain strong spiritual growth, strength, balance and good spiritual sense?

Sometimes we learn so much that we forget to tie together all the important Bible teachings. What are these basic key truths? (Note: these are not in order of importance).

1. Sacrifice for God and for others.

This stops us from being selfish. Let Christ live in us controlling our behaviour and our decisions.

"present your bodies a living sacrifice..." Romans 12:1.

Put yourself out to help others and promote the cause of Christ on earth. Matthew 7:24-28.

"Neither will I offer burnt offerings (sacrifice) unto the Lord my God of that which doth cost me nothing." II Samuel 24:24.

Notice how the early apostles and early Christians made great sacrifices to plant churches all over the world. How about you? What ministry/service are you doing?

The world is full of selfish people, whose main goal in life is to accumulate wealth and material things for themselves.

God gave Christ to die for us; let us give our lives and time to build God's work all over the world. "Give and it shall be given unto you." Luke 6:38. Sacrificing proves our love for God and for others. God will not forget our work & labour of love in ministering to the saints. He will reward our service now and later.

2. Obey God whether you feel like it or not.

Many Christians destroy their lives through disobedience.

Our whole society teaches us to rebel against authority from our earliest age. School's teach rebellion, as do TV, rock music, universities, radio, undisciplined homes, permissive child philosophies, newspapers, books and magazines.

Question: Will you be a disobedient rebel against God, or will you be protected by submitting to God's authority figures, such as Pastors, God's Word, parents, police and your conscience? Suffering teaches us to obey God.

"Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which He suffered." Hebrews 5:8.

"The Lord our God will we serve, and his voice will we obey." Joshua 24:24.

"Bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ." 2 Corinthians 10:5.

"To obey is better than sacrifice... for rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry." 1 Samuel 15:22,23.

Look up these verses on obedience: Nehemiah 9:16,17; Job 36:11,12; Isaiah 1:19,20; Acts 5:29; II Thessalonians 1:8 and 3:14.

"Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves." Hebrews 13:17.

"ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you." Romans 6:17.

Question: How does the devil get you away from a good church?

Answer: A common method is to get you to believe evil about the Pastor. The devil uses people to spread lies about the Pastor so that you will disrespect him. You then leave the church and rarely ever serve God obediently in a church again. The Pastor is placed there to protect people from wolves and false doctrines. For wolves to attack a believer they must entice him away from the Pastor/Shepherd. You will enjoy great safety in obeying your Godly Pastor who is true to the Word of God. He cares for you more than you think. Millions of Christians have made shipwreck of their faith by disobeying their Pastors. He knows more than you think.

If every Christian disobeyed God and their Pastor, God's work would go nowhere and fall apart quickly. A church must function like an army in obedience to authority. A Pastor is a Bishop which means a military commander. We must obey, because people's eternal souls are heading to hell and need to be rescued.

Matthew 7:24-27 teaches that if we hear Christ's sayings and DO them, we will be wise people whose lives will withstand the trouble and difficulties that come. Those who DISOBEY Christ's sayings will find that they may succeed for a little while, but when the storms of life come, their lives will fall apart with great ruin. Obedience is a matter of the will choosing God's ways.

"yield yourselves unto God." Romans 6:13.

"The churches walked in the fear of the Lord." Acts 9:31.

"let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and the spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God." II Corinthians 7:1.

"Pass the time of your sojourning here in fear." I Peter 1:17.

3. Fear God.

The Greek word for fear is "phobou" meaning "reverence, respect, honour, a deep and reverent sense of accountability to God. "So then everyone of us shall give account of himself to God." Romans 14:12.

Disobedience comes from pride and arrogance in thinking that we know better than God, pastors, parents, police, etc. It is rebellion, like witchcraft. Rebellion is Satan's problem. When you disobey God, you follow in the same steps as Satan. If you disobey your authority figures, your children will follow your example and disobey your wishes. Galatians 6:7.

"Be not deceived, God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap."

Believers should fear God's displeasure at sin. We should follow JESUS' example of obedience:

"I do always those things that please Him." John 8:29.

"Children, obey your parents in all things." Colossians 3:20.

"Enoch...had this testimony that he pleased God." Hebrews 11:5.

Obeying God is an act of faith, because often we think that if we obey God we will miss out on some immediate pleasure. Yet God promises that if we obey Him, He will exalt us in due time. Obedience and faith is choosing God's will instead of our will. It means being prepared to accept loss in order to please God. The obedient Christian is later on pleasantly surprised to learn that God "is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think." Ephesians 3:20.

God can bless you more for your obedience than what you can arrange for yourself by ignoring God.

"Them that honour me, I WILL HONOUR." I Samuel 2:30.

"No good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly." Psalm 84:11.

We must not listen to the World, our faithless, unbelieving peers, nor to our fears, nor to the devil, nor to our own understanding, but to the Word of God as our guide. This is called "walking by faith" and this is the only way that we can please God.

"But without faith it is impossible to please God...(we) must believe that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him". Hebrews 11:6.

All through our life we will be tested to see if we will obey God in faith, or take what appears to be a "short cut" against God's Word and thus sin. Which will you choose?

"No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affair of this life; that he may please him who has chosen him to be a soldier." II Timothy 2:4. (I Corinthians 10:1-11 (v.10).

"Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured and were destroyed of the destroyer."

"If a man have long hair it is a shame unto him." I Corinthians 11:14.

4. Duty.

Duty is a decision of the will to do what is commanded. We are under the law of liberty, and "the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death." Romans 8:2.

Many Christians have an elastic conscience, like King Saul, who was told to kill the Amalekites. He disobeyed God and as a result he lost the kingdom. Obey God at all costs. To obey is an act of faith. I John 2:28 says that some Christians will be ashamed in heaven because of a life of disobedience to Christ. We should feel guilty and convicted if we disobey God.

"If ye love me, keep my commandments." John 14:15.

Sometimes God may take away the joy of reading the Bible, of prayer, of church, of soul winning etc, so that we'll do them not because we feel like it, but because it is right. "we have done that which is our duty to do." Luke 17:7-10.

Duty is an act of love. Duty does things well, but LOVE does things beautifully.

The Christian race is like a marathon. We need commitment and determination as well as love for God and others in order to obey God's calling.

So many lazy Christians give up and drop out of serving God. I don't want to waste my opportunities. I want my life to count for Jesus Christ so that people will be in heaven through my life's work and so that God will say to me, "...well done thou good and faithful servant."

Will Christ say this to you, or will you be ashamed at His coming because of selfish disobedience?

5. Overlook other Christians faults.

Overlook other Christians faults as much as possible.

"As much as lieth in you live peaceably with all men." Romans 12:18.

If necessary, tell them of their faults so as to help them overcome them.

"above all things have fervent charity among yourselves, for charity shall cover the multitude of sins."

I Peter 4:8. Proverbs 10:12; Proverbs 12:16; 17:9.

Where they can't be overlooked, then confront the person in love according to Matthew 18.

6. Obey God whether you feel like it or not.

Say "Yes" to God and "No" to self. I Corinthians 9:23-27; Acts 5:32; 5:29.

We are in a race and we discipline our bodies to do God's will as an athlete for:

- a) the gospel's sake. I Corinthians 9:23.
- b) to save some. I Corinthians 9:22.
- c) to receive the prize. I Corinthians 9:24.
- d) to not become a castaway. I Corinthians 9:27.

7. Maintain the Basics daily of:

- a) Bible reading.
- b) prayer.
- c) confess sin to God.
- d) look for soul winning opportunities.
- e) be filled with the Holy Spirit and show the fruit of the Spirit.

8. If you have a problem tell the Pastor or another Christian.

Cultivate close, Godly friends. The Pastor can't read your mind. James 5:16. Don't keep problems to yourself because someone else has already gone through that problem and surely has some answers that will help you to get victory.

9. Help another Christian to grow.

Get a Timothy. Seek to teach what you learn to other people. Don't just take it all in. Your Christian life becomes more exciting when you get a Timothy that you are discipling. Who are you discipling this year? Find someone you can thoroughly pour your life into properly. Hebrews 5:11-14. Becoming a teacher of the Word is a big step to becoming a strong meat Christian. In Acts 9:20-29 Barnabus and other disciples helped get Paul started in his Christian life. In 2 Timothy 2:2, Paul helped Timothy get started. Who are you helping to get started?

10. Read Good Books, Especially The Bible.

Paul knew the helpful value of good books that teach Bible truths. 2 Timothy 4:13. A good Christian book is often just a sermon in print. By continually reading good books we:

- a) keep our mind on good things.
- b) we learn much faster.
- c) we can teach the Bible better.
- d) we can tap into others knowledge and experience.

11. Trust God's Love, Wisdom and Goodness in all circumstances of life, especially the bad, to be working out His best plan for us as He guides us in life. If we lose trust in God, then we will become very bitter and cynical. This is a problem with many older people. Proverbs 3:5,6; Job 12:15; Psalm 37:25,28; Romans 8:28; Matthew 6:23; Romans 8:32. Believe that God is teaching us and working out His plans in our lives for our and others good, eg: Joseph in Genesis 50:20. Trust God that He knows what He is doing. Ask God to show us how to solve our problems. Keep obeying God joyfully.

12. Realize that we are in a very intense Spiritual Warfare.

We are to fight to win the souls of mankind for Christ. We fight wrong ideas with the truth of the Bible. 2 Corinthians 10:3-5; Ephesians 6:10-18. When you understand that life and the history of the world is a battle and war between the forces of God and the forces of Satan, you can more readily see how you fit in and why world events happen, such as WW I and WW II. Satan and demons oppose your work for God, but God has given you:

- a) the armour of God to put on.
- b) the Holy Spirit indwelling you.
- c) angels to assist you.
- d) fellow Christians to encourage, teach and help you.

We are fighting wrong ideas that take control of people's mind and turn them from the truth of God, eg:

- a) evolution.
- b) lawlessness. The idea that I can make up my own rules.
- c) atheism.
- d) false religions.

13. Be Grateful to God and others. 1 Thessalonians 5:18.

If we are constantly saying thanks to God and to others, we develop humility, as we realize our dependence on God for all that we have. It kills pride. It gives us a happy joyful spirit as we constantly live a life of excitement and rejoicing in the many good things that happen to us that we are focusing on. It teaches us not to focus on bad things, but only the good. This is a big secret in living a life of victory. Philippians 4:8.

14. Be Humble.

Jesus first, others second, yourself last. This takes your mind off self. This then gives us mental stability and strength.

“Better it is to be of a humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud.” Prov 16:19

“I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.” Isaiah 57:15.

“Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven...Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.” Matthew 5:3,5.

“Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof.” Matthew 8:8.

“Whosoever shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.” Matthew 18:4.

“Whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that humbles himself shall be exalted.” Matthew 23:12.

“I say... to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think.” Romans 12:3.

“Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.” Romans 12:16.

“God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.” James 4:6.

If you want peace in yourself, with God and man, be humble.

If you want to be a good father to children, be humble.

If you want to be great, be humble.

If you want people to follow you, be humble.

If you want people to like you, be humble.

If you want God to uplift you, be humble.

If you want your wife to love you, be humble and seek to provide her needs. The way up is down.

15. Tithe.

Abram paid tithes to Melchizedek. Jacob paid tithes. The Israelites paid tithes to the Levites. Tithing is giving a tenth of your income to God's work in the local church. This is beneficial for several reasons:

- a) God will give you a blessing. Malachi 3:7-12.
- b) God will plug up waste and loss.
- c) People will see that you are blessed of God.
- d) You will get back the same measure that you give. Luke 6:38.
- e) They that preach the gospel should live of the gospel. Therefore the gospel goes out more.
- f) Christ endorsed tithing by the Pharisees. Luke 11:42.
- g) It is our way of acknowledging that all we have comes from God. John 3:27.
- h) It is designed to increase our faith as God blesses us more than we can give back to Him.

16. Get Baptized as soon as possible.

The conditions of Bible baptism are:

- a) Right candidate - believer. Acts 8:35-39.
- b) Right motive - obedience to Christ. Matthew 28:18-20.
- c) Right method – immersion. Mark 1:9-11.
- d) Right authority - local church. Acts 2:41,47.

Baptism pictures:

- a) Christ's death, burial and resurrection that I am trusting in to pay for my sins, as I go down in, under and up out of water.
- b) My death to my old way of life, burial of my old man with his habits, and rising to a new walk with Christ.

We should get baptized because:

- a) Christ was baptized by immersion. Mark 1:9-11.
- b) We can completely obey Christ here.
- c) It greatly helps us to take a confident stand publicly for Christ.
- d) It helps unsaved friends and family to understand the gospel.
- e) It is the answer of a good conscience toward God. I Peter 3:21. Our conscience is eased.

17. Ask Questions about the Bible and think Bible Doctrines through carefully.

Be a student of the Bible. II Timothy 2:15. Find out what the Bible is saying and work out how to apply it in every life situation. Ask questions of the Bible because:

- a) It helps you understand the Bible better.
- b) You can defend it better.
- c) Questions open up new concepts.
- d) It's wrong to accept every idea unquestioningly. We must check it with the Bible, because we may be believing something false. People believe false doctrines when they accept ideas without checking the Bible. "Prove all things." I Thessalonians 5:21.
- e) You will find the Bible to be true and without error. This will increase your faith.
- f) You'll teach the Bible better.

Be like the Bereans who searched the scriptures daily to see if Paul's teachings were so. Acts 17:11.

18. Attend two Church Services per week and one Teaching Study.

With one service per week you will mark time or backslide, but with two services per week you will grow. Develop a hunger for God's Word and God's house. Matthew 5:6; Psalm 19:7-11; Jeremiah 15:16

- a) The pastor generally spends so much time preparing suitable, helpful, practical teaching that we will miss some very important ideas if we miss one service.
- b) It makes us loyal to God's work and to each other.
- c) We learn things that we can teach to other people.
- d) It makes us disciplined and dedicated to God.

19. Learn as much as you can, as fast as you can.

This will allow you to be more useful in getting more people saved earlier in life. When you learn things, find someone that you can teach them to. Collect good messages in a notebook. This helps you to stay enthusiastic for Christ. Ask: What do I believe and why do I believe it?

20. Hell.

Problem: All unsaved people at death will go to hell fire, then to the Lake of Fire forever. What is hell like:

- a) Hell and worms forever. Mark 9:42-48.
- b) Torment, flame, separation, loneliness, bad memories. Luke 16:19-31.
- c) Weeping, wailing and gnashing of teeth. Matthew 13:41,42.
- d) Chains of darkness forever. II Peter 2:4.
- e) The Lake of Fire forever. Revelation 20:14,15.

If we love people, we will warn them about hell so that they see Christ as the answer, repent and receive Christ as Saviour.

Question: How can so few people win so many to Christ and eternal life and heaven in a short time?

Answer: By multiplying disciples who win people to Christ and train their disciples. 2 Timothy 2:2.

21. Get a World Vision of Multiplication, Missions and Winning the World to Christ.

Christ gave us all the Great Commission of Matthew 28:18-20 of:

- a) Teaching all nations about salvation in Christ.
- b) Baptize people when they are saved.
- c) Teach them to observe all things Jesus commands us in the Bible.

As one person can't go overseas and be in Australia as well, we send MISSIONARIES overseas and to other parts of Australia to plant Bible believing churches which seek to win people to Christ in their area. These churches may start other churches elsewhere. Our aim is to get as many people saved and trained in the fastest way, so they can win and train as many believers as fast as possible. This is called multiplication of disciples. 2 Timothy 2:2. See Discipleship by Multiplication chapter 57, p.234.

22. Keep Soul Winning as your Main Priority.

If you do, this will help keep you from error.

Problem: So many Christians get sidetracked and involved in things that don't help win people to Christ. Luke 19:10; Acts 4:12; Proverbs 11:30.

Ask yourself in everything you do, "How does this action lead to people getting saved?" This is the main reason why God left us on earth. It is to get people saved from the fires of eternal hell. Your efforts to lead people to Christ determines where they will spend the next infinite years. We can't win people to Christ in heaven, only on earth. If you stop soul winning you'll have less joy and may backslide. Speak to at least one person each day about Christ or give a tract out each day or go visiting once a week. If you don't know how to win souls, read chapter 17, p.93.

23. Get Eternal Values now.

Everyone of us is born with earthly values as being important, such as go to school, get a good job, earn lots of money, go on holidays, enjoy life, get married, look out for your own interests, etc. These are good in themselves but they don't lay up treasures in heaven. In Matthew 6:19-21, Jesus tells us not to lay up treasures on earth because we can't keep them permanently and forever, but to lay up treasures in heaven because we can never lose them. What are you really living your life for? What are your life's goals? Luke 12:16-21; Revelation 22:12; II John 8; II Corinthians 5:10. After getting saved, we must get eternal values, such as living for Christ and for eternity, not just for the present.

24. Take Every Opportunity to Serve God

This will develop your spiritual gifts. Don't make up excuses such as: "I can't do that." You'll never know Christ's enabling power if you don't attempt things for God. Give it a go. You may succeed.

- a) There are many people who could win many people to Christ if they only knocked on some doors and spoke to people.
- b) Many Christians could teach a Bible study if they asked new Christians for a weekly study.
- c) Many people at Bible College could start a church if they went out and worked at it.
- d) We would have more of God's blessings if we asked Him. "Ye have not because ye ask not." Matthew 25:14-30; Luke 12:42-48; Luke 19:11-27.

Principle: Use what you have got and you will get more. If you don't use it you'll lose it. John 6:1-14; Genesis 12:1-5; Exodus 3:1-14; I Samuel 14:6.

Hudson Taylor went to China and started the China Inland Mission. This mission later on had over 1000 missionaries in China, yet people opposed him and told him he was unsuitable and couldn't do it. "Expect great things from God. Attempt great things for God."

25. Make Best Christians your Best Friends.

If a person will be a bad influence on you or pull you down, then don't be close friends with them. Psalms 1:1-6; Proverbs 22:24; 27:17. Seek to win them to Christ, but don't let them win you to error.

26. Love God with All your Heart, Soul, Mind, Strength and Love your Neighbour as Yourself.

What are we told to love and to love not?

Love: God, Psalms 18:1; Thy Salvation, Psalms 40:16; Thy Law, Psalm 119:97;

Thy Commandments, Psalm 119:127; Wisdom, Proverbs 4:6; Judgment, Isaiah 61:8; Good, Amos 5:15; Mercy, Micah 6:8; Truth and Peace, Zechariah 8:19; Your Enemies, Matthew 5:44; One Another, John 13:35; Husbands love your wives, Ephesians 5:25; His appearing, II Timothy 4:8; Wives love your husbands and children, Titus 2:4; Let brotherly love continue, Hebrews 13:1.

Love not or hate: Evil, Psalm 97:10; Vain thoughts, Psalm 119:113; Lying, Psalm 119:163; Sleep, Proverbs 20:13; Robbery, Isaiah 61:8; False Oaths, Zechariah 8:17; Money, I Timothy 6:10.

If we love things other than God, we will become bitter and selfish.

27. Don't Be Lukewarm, Be Zealous, Hot, Keen, Not Half-Hearted.

God hates lukewarmness more than being cold. Revelation 3:15-17. Don't leave your first love, Revelation 2:4; Eccles. 9:10, 10:18; Proverbs 22:29; Proverbs 12:24; Proverbs 24:30-34; 6:6-11.

28. Have a very High View of the Local Church.

Do all you can to build it. Be a church planter and builder. Matthew 16:18; Acts 2:47; Eph. 5:25; Psalms 133:1; Ephesians 1:22, 23; Hebrews 10:24, 25; Mark 16:15.

The Local Church, by soul winning and multiplying and training disciples is the way to turn the world to Christ. If you or I desert the church, then God's work slows down, sin grows faster and more people have wrecked lives and go to hell. Let us plant churches everywhere before Christ returns.

29. Faithfulness. Revelation 2:10; James 1:12.

A crown of life is awarded to those that: a) Are faithful unto death,

b) Endure temptations,

c) Love God. I Corinthians 15:58; Galatians 6:9.

Aim: For us to be faithful to God's ways all of our life.

What is Faithfulness? Faithfulness is a continuous, steady, uninterrupted, reliable performance in life with all its responsibilities, without boasting about it.

Who should we be faithful to? God, the Bible's Commands, our spouse, our church, our friends, our employer, our employees, lost people in bringing them to the gospel, training Christians to reach the world for Christ, and in praying for people. I Samuel 12:23.

Faithfulness is my behaving to God and others just as how God behaves towards me.

Lamentations 3:23; Hebrews 13:5; Psalm 40:10; Psalms 89:1; 119:75,90.

Faithfulness is God and others being able to rely on us. Six reasons for faithfulness are:

a) It is rare in man. Proverbs 20:6.

b) It is reflected in Christ. Hebrews 3:1,2.

c) It is the result of living by faith in God's promises in the Bible. Acts 6:5,8.

d) It is required of stewards. I Corinthians 4:2.

e) It is rewarded by a crown of life. Revelation 2:10; Commendation by Christ, Matthew 25:21,23; cities in the kingdom, Luke 19:17,19; and reigning with Christ. Revelation 17:14.

f) We are solemnly warned against failing to be faithful. II Peter 3:17,18.

The Realm of Faithfulness. Where should we be faithful?

a) To support the local church. Hebrews 10:23-25; Luke 4:16. Christ was faithful in attending the synagogue every Sabbath and attending every Passover even at death. Acts 2:41,42.

b) In the basics: Feeding on God's Word, spiritual growth, holy living, fellowship with the Father and Son, warring against Satan, the world and the flesh, giving, following Christ.

c) In stewardship.

d) In service.

When you do all these, you are no longer a spiritual babe, but you are becoming a spiritual adult.

Conclusion: Will God say to you, "Well done thou good and faithful servant?" Matthew 25:21,23.

89. 14 MYSTERY DOCTRINES OF THE NEW TESTAMENT

Mystery: A truth hidden up to this point, but now revealed.

DOCTRINAL:

1. Mystery of the FAITH. I Timothy 3:9.
Those things most surely believed among us. Luke 1:1.
The Doctrine of Christ. II John 9; Hebrews 6:1,2.
The Apostle's Doctrines. Acts 2:42.
2. Mystery of the GOSPEL. Ephesians 6:19; Romans 16:25.
Christ died shedding His blood on the cross, to pay for our sins, was buried and rose again.
Christ offers forgiveness and justification to those who believe and call on Christ to save them.
3. Mystery of CHRIST. Ephesians 3:1-12. v.6.
Jew and Gentile are brought into one body, the church.
The distinction has been removed by Christ and we are made fellow heirs of the promises.
4. Mystery of the BRIDE. Ephesians 5:21-33, v.31,32 and Revelation 21:9.
As a husband and wife become one flesh, so the church becomes one flesh with Christ.
The church is the Bride and Christ is the Bridegroom.
5. Mystery of the 7 STARS and 7 CHURCHES. Revelation 1:20.
 - a) 7 Stars: Represent preachers bringing God's message to God's people.
 - b) 7 Churches: Predict the state of Christendom during each of the 7 different time periods from the Apostles to the Rapture.
6. Mystery of GODLINESS. I Timothy 3:16.
The secret of living a Godly life is occupying ourselves with Jesus Christ as seen here:
 - a) God was manifest in the flesh, means that Christ, as God, came as a man.
 - b) Justified in the Spirit, at His Baptism (Mark 1:9-11), Transfiguration and Resurrection. (I Peter 3:18, Romans 8:11).
 - c) Seen of Angels. Christ is the Head of all principalities and powers. Colossians 2:10.
Angels were present at Christ's birth, at His 40 days fasting in the wilderness, at Gethsemane, at His Resurrection and at His Ascension.
 - d) Preached unto the Gentiles, means many Christians missionary labours.
 - e) Believed on in the world, means people who are saved.
 - f) Received up to glory, means His Ascension.

DISPENSATIONAL:

7. Mystery of the KINGDOM OF HEAVEN. Matthew 13.
In the Church age, Christendom will include genuinely saved people and false imitators, as shown by these 12 parables of the:
 - a) Sower
 - b) Wheat and Tares
 - c) Mustard seed
 - d) Leaven
 - e) Hid treasure
 - f) Pearl
 - g) Drag net
 - h) Unmerciful servant
 - i) Vineyard labourers
 - j) Marriage feast
 - k) 10 Virgins
 - l) Talents.

8. Mystery of ISRAEL'S BLINDNESS. Romans 11:25.
This is the temporary setting aside of Israel in the Church Age.
9. Mystery of the RAPTURE OF THE CHURCH. I Corinthians 15:51.
This is the coming of Christ to the air, prior to His visible appearing, to remove a select company of His people to Heaven, before judgment falls on an ungodly world. This is a truth never mentioned in the Old Testament. This is taught in John 14:1-3; I Thessalonians 4:13-16; Philippians 3:20-21; I Corinthians 15:51-58.
10. Mystery of GOD'S WILL. Ephesians 1:9,10.
God's purpose for man and the universe is that all things shall be headed up in Jesus Christ, and that through Jesus Christ blessing shall be brought to all things in Heaven and on Earth.
11. Mystery of GOD. Revelation 10:7.
This is why God has restrained so long for thousands of years in love and patience before judging man for his wickedness. Why has God allowed evil men to continue in wickedness and seeming to get away with it?
It is to allow men time to repent.

DEVOTIONAL:

12. Mystery of the INDWELLING CHRIST. Colossians 1:24-29.
God desires to dwell with and among His people, and in us.
"Christ in you, the hope of glory" is the secret of holy living, of power and joy in service. God dwelt with man in Eden, in the Tabernacle (Exodus 25:8); in the New Jerusalem (Revelation 21:3); the Holy Spirit indwelling believers (John 14:16-17,23), during Christ's life & ministry.
 - a) The secret of bearing fruit is found in John 15:4, "Abide in me."
 - b) The secret of sanctification, is found in Romans 6:1-19, "Know, reckon, yield."
 - c) Result: Christ governs my thoughts, actions and words.
Self will is expelled. I will have constant, intimate communion with Christ as my friend.

DIABOLICAL:

13. Mystery of INIQUITY. II Thessalonians 2:1-17, v.7. This means that:
 - a) Apostasy in doctrine will increase towards the end of the age.
 - b) Development of the deification of man (humanism).
 - c) Deception of those who deliberately reject the Gospel.
14. Mystery of BABYLON THE GREAT. Revelation 17 and 18. Note 17:18.
This is an evil, false religious system, with its capital at Rome, operating in the Church Age.

90. TITHING

Bible Reading: Malachi 3:8-12.

Aim: To give 10% of our income to God's work in a local church as a conviction and rule of life.

Introduction: Do we believe that all that we have is given to us by God?

"A man can receive nothing except it be given him from heaven." (John 3:27).

"Ye are not your own...For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's." (I Corinthians 6:19,20).

"they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again." (II Corinthians 5:15). Jesus said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.' (Acts 20:35). Christians who experience the love of Christ and the goodness of God giving us all good things richly to enjoy, will want to give to others to see the Gospel of Christ accepted by people all over the world. Jesus Christ has left us with a work to do of winning, baptizing and teaching all people for Christ. This is to be done by the sacrificial giving of God's people. We are to give our time, our energies, our finances and all we can to further the salvation of sinners.

I. COMMANDS TO TITHE

- 1) "all the tithe of the land . . . is the Lord's; it is holy unto the Lord." (Leviticus 27:30).
- 2) "thou shalt truly tithe all the increase of thy seed, that the field bringeth forth year by year." (Deuteronomy 14:22).
- 3) "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse that there may be meat in mine house." Malachi 3:10.
- 4) "Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy and faith: these OUGHT YE TO HAVE DONE, and not to leave the other undone." (Matthew 23:23).
- 5) "Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar? EVEN SO hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the Gospel should live of the Gospel." (I Corinthians 9:13,14).

Lesson: As Old Testament Levites lived off the tithes of the people, EVEN SO today should pastors live off the tithes of God's people. Hence, tithing is also a New Testament principle. Grace will motivate us to give more than what the law required. Tithing was practised before the Law as seen from Abram and Jacob who tithed before the law was given.

II. EXAMPLES OF TITHING

If these Godly believers gave a tenth of their income to God, then surely we should follow their example to advance the cause of Christ:

- 1) Abram paid tithes to Melchizedek, priest of the Most High God:
"He (Abram) gave him (Melchizedek) tithes of all." (Genesis 14:20).
- 2) Jacob vowed a vow, saying: "If God shall be with me....of all that thou shalt give me I will surely give the tenth unto thee." (Genesis 28:20-22).
- 3) People in Hezekiah's Revival (2 Chron31:5-12) "the tithe of all things brought they in abundantly (v.5). They also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep (v.6). Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the Lord, we have had enough to eat, and have left plenty, for the Lord hath blessed his people". (v.10). 'brought in the offerings and tithes & the dedicated things faithfully.'" v.12.
- 4) People in Nehemiah's Revival (Nehemiah 13:10-12).

"I perceived that the portions of the LEVITES had not been given them:

for the Levites and the singers, that did the work were fled everyone to his field (v.10).

Then contended I with the rulers, and said, "Why is the house of God forsaken?" (v.11).

Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn and the new wine and the oil unto the treasuries." v.12.

Lesson: Because the Levites and singers had not been paid (due to people not tithing), the Levites had to return to work in their fields to earn a living. When Nehemiah asked 'Why is the house of God forsaken?' people repented and brought their tithes into the house of God. This is like churches today.

- 5) Backsliders in Malachi's time (Malachi 3:8-12).

"Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings. (v.8) Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation. (v.9).

Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse (a local church), that there may be meat in mine house (so that a local church has the funds to do God's work in sending out the Gospel effectively), and prove me now herewith saith the Lord of hosts if:

- (1) I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it (v.10), and
- (2) I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes (v.11), and
- (3) All nations shall call you blessed (v.12).

This is spoken to Israel. It also applies to Christians serving God in a local church today.

- 6) The Corinthian and Galatian churches gave money in the Sunday collection as God had prospered them, so as to avoid a sudden gathering when Paul arrived. (I Corinthians 16:1,2).
- 7) The Churches of Macedonia gave beyond their power. (II Corinthians 8:1-9:15).

III. HOW ARE WE TO GIVE TO THE LORD?

- 1) Systematically: I Corinthians 16:1,2. Give tithes and offerings weekly.
"Upon the first day of the week (Sunday) let every one of you lay by him in store."
- 2) Individually: I Corinthians 16:2 "Let every one of you lay by him in store."
Not just the father, but the wife and children should tithe what they receive.
- 3) Proportionally: I Corinthians 16:2 "as God hath prospered him." The tithe did not belong to the person but to God. Under grace, being motivated by love, we should give more than the tithe.
- 4) Cheerfully: II Corinthians 9:7 "not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver."
We should count it a great privilege and joy to give something back to Christ who gave His all for us.
- 5) Give as Christ gave: II Corinthians 8:9 "though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich."
- 6) Sacrificially: (a) They gave out of their deep poverty (v.2). II Corinthians 8:2,3.
(b) They gave beyond their power (v.3).
(c) They first gave themselves to the Lord and unto us (v.5).

The widow gave 2 mites which was all her living. God measures gifts by how much we have left, not by how much we give. God sees the heart of the giver rather than the size of the gift. Let us give to Christ out of a loving heart.

- 7) Secretly: Matthew 6:1-4 "Do not your alms before men, to be seen of them." (v.1).
- 8) Persistently: II Corinthians 8:10,12. Make a decision how much to give and stick to it.
"Now therefore perform the doing of it." (v.11). Don't put off giving.
- 9) Bountifully: "He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully." II Corinthians 9:6.
- 10) Purposefully: "Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give." (II Cor. 9:7).

IV. WHY SHOULD WE GIVE TO GOD?

- 1) Because we love Christ. (II Corinthians 5:14-17).
- 2) It is important that God's work gets done, that souls get saved, that God's Word gets taught to people all over the world, that labourers are sent out, lives transformed, churches started. (Mark 16:15).
- 3) God promises to reward us openly if we give to Him secretly. (Matthew 6:1-4).
- 4) If we give to God, He gives more grace and blessings to us. (II Corinthians 8:1).
- 5) Giving to God brings joy to us. ('the abundance of their joy.' II Corinthians 8:2).
- 6) Giving beyond our power increases our faith as God provides supernaturally. (II Cor. 8:3).
- 7) Giving to other churches produces fellowship with those churches that we give to. (II Cor. 8:4).
- 8) Giving proves the sincerity of our love. (II Corinthians 8:8,24).
- 9) We give to follow Christ's example of giving. (II Corinthians 8:9).
- 10) To produce an equality between rich and poor believers. (II Corinthians 8:14,15).
- 11) To show our earnest care for fellow believers. (II Corinthians 8:16) eg: Titus.
- 12) Our zeal in giving will provoke many others to give also. (II Corinthians 9:2).
- 13) If we sow (give) bountifully, we'll reap bountifully;
If we sow (give) sparingly, we'll reap sparingly. (II Corinthians 9:6).
- 14) Give not grudgingly, or of necessity, for God loves a cheerful giver. (II Corinthians 9:7).

- 15) “God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things may abound to every good work.” (II Corinthians 9:8).
- 16) “He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth forever.” (2 Cor 9:9). The results of giving will have an everlasting effect, testifying forever to our righteousness.
- 17) If we give, God will multiply our seed sown and will increase the fruits of our righteousness. (2 Corinthians 9:10). God will enable us to give more later and we will see more people saved.
- 18) God will enrich us in every thing to all bountifulness. (II Corinthians 9:11).
- 19) Giving will cause many people to thank and glorify God. (II Corinthians 9:11,12,13).
- 20) We will be the means of answering other people’s prayers. (II Corinthians 9:14).
- 21) If we are stingy, God can blow on our wealth so that we lose it like as if we put our money into a bag with holes. (Haggai 1:6-11).

V. HOW A CHURCH SHOULD ALLOCATE ITS TITHES and OFFERINGS.

- 1) “The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits.” II Timothy 2:6.
The husbandman is a farmer and Paul applies this to a pastor who pastors a church, preaches the Gospel, teaches the Bible and shepherds church members. If a pastor does these, he should be paid FIRST before any other bills are paid. Why? Because:
 - a) “Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn.” (I Timothy 5:18; I Corinthians 9:9,10).
 - b) “He that ploweth should plow in hope; and he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope.” (I Corinthians 9:10). This means that a preacher must be financially rewarded for his work, so that he doesn’t give up hope of surviving in the ministry because of no pay.
 - c) “The labourer is worthy of his reward.” (I Timothy 5:18).
 - d) “Who goes a warfare any time at his own charges?” (I Corinthians 9:10). Soldiers don’t have to work at another job to pay for their tanks, guns and bullets. Their government pays them to go to war.
 - e) Every man who plants a vineyard is permitted to eat his own fruit. (I Corinthians 9:7).
 - f) Every man who shepherds & feeds a flock of animals is allowed to eat of the flock’s milk. ICor9:7 “He (Hezekiah) commanded the people that dwelt in Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might be encouraged in the law of the Lord.” II Chronicles 31:4. If we don’t pay preachers properly, new preachers will find it harder to get started in the ministry. This results in fewer churches being started, more churches without pastors, more pastors dropping out to get other jobs, less people getting saved, and more wickedness in society. It is very important to adequately pay pastors.
- 2) A church must pay the rental on its meeting hall. Paul would have had to rent the School of Tyrannus for the two years that he taught in it daily. Acts 19:9.
- 3) A church must pay a printer to print ‘STOP’ tracts as a major priority so that its members can have tools to win people to Christ more easily. “Multiply your seed sown.” II Corinthians 10:10.
- 4) A church should then prayerfully consider supporting some soul-winning missionary to start a church in its own city or state. “In all Judea” (Acts 1:8). A church should have a strategy to train its members to become pastors who can plant churches in their main cities and outlying areas. They can then support each other to start more churches.
- 5) A church should use some funds to start or grow fundamental churches in other countries. This may take the form of giving money to:
 - Print foreign language STOP tracts; See www.keithpiper.org
 - Ship or print 5000 “Established in the Faith” and “Answers” books overseas;
 - Help pay pastors in poorer countries, especially church planting pastors.
 - Start Bible colleges under a church’s authority;
 - Start and equip malaria clinics or medical clinics;
 - Buy land and build churches on the overseas mission field.
- 6) A church should buy: a) Inexpensive Bibles to give away to new Christians;
 - b) Schofield Bibles to those who are serious;
 - c) Mailbox Club lessons to train new Christians;
 - d) Answers books to train its people and to do outreach.

Conclusion: Start tithing this Sunday to your local soul winning church.

91. GOOD WORKS or KEEPING THE LAW DOES NOT SAVE US

There are basically only two religions in the world today. These represent two different ideas as to how we gain acceptance with God and how we get into heaven. One is right. The other is wrong. These are:

I. GOOD WORKS. The idea that if I am good enough, then God will accept me into heaven (wrong)

The problems with this view are that:

1. How good do I have to be? Where is the cut off point that determines entry to heaven?
2. If I can get into heaven by my good works, then why did Christ die? They make it a useless waste.
3. How do you judge how much salvation each good work buys you?
4. If we have to earn our salvation, there is always that feeling of guilt, because maybe we haven't done enough good works to earn salvation.
5. If we are hoping to be saved by our good works, then we could lose our salvation by not keeping up the good works. This leads to uncertainty. We can never be sure of going to heaven as long as we trust in our good works.
6. Trusting in our good works leads to fear of missing heaven.
7. It leads to a wrong comparison. People say "I am a good person." They are comparing themselves with sinful man. We should compare ourselves with God. Then we appear as big sinners.
8. If we could be saved by our good works then, we could boast. (Ephesians 2:9). Do you think God would devise a system of salvation that allowed man to boast?
9. It causes some people to give up trying to be good, so they sin as much as they want.
10. Does "man save man" or does "God save man"?
11. It leads to a religion of self denial to earn salvation. God has given us richly in all things to enjoy.

Religious man likes to think that his good works can save him because:

1. It keeps people under the control of religious leaders, because people fear that if they stop coming to church, they will go to hell.
2. People like to feel that they have worked for their salvation and that they deserve it. They think "I earn everything else in life by hard work, why not my salvation?"
3. Man likes to make the rules himself, and does not like God telling him what to do. Sinful man does not want God to get the glory for saving him.

99% of the world's religions are religions of good works to earn salvation. Examples include: Roman Catholicism, Islam, Jehovah's Witnesses, Mormons and Hinduism to name a few.

II. FAITH IN JESUS CHRIST AS MY SIN PAYMENT. (The right way).

This begins with the idea that I am a sinner, that I have broken God's laws, and that compared to God I am not a good person, but a self centred sinner.

God's laws that I have broken condemns me to hell. The good news is that Jesus Christ on the cross had all my sins laid on him, so that Jesus Christ took the full punishment for all my past, present and future sins that I deserved in hell forever. He thus became the Saviour of all people. We are now responsible to receive or call on Christ to be our Saviour from sin. When we do this Christ saves us and gives us the free gift of eternal life.

The benefits of Christ saving us instead of our works saving us are:

1. We can be 100% sure of going to heaven because Christ is 100% responsible for saving us and for keeping us saved.
2. We can concentrate on serving God in joy, rather than in fear of trying to earn our entrance ticket to heaven.
3. We know that we will meet our saved loved ones in heaven.
4. We rest in God's acceptance of us because of Christ.
5. It releases us from the bondage of fear of trusting a man made organization to get us into heaven.
6. It leads us to develop a loving relationship with Christ as our Saviour, Friend and God, rather than Mary.
7. It leads us to base our beliefs for living on the Bible, not on some man made organization.

Let us study some Bible passages teaching that "good works don't save us".

1. Knowing that a man is:
 - a) not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ;
 - b) even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law;
 - c) for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. Galatians 2:16.
2. If righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain. Galatians 2:21.
3. Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? Galatians 3:2.
4. Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness. Galatians 3:6.
5. Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. Gal. 3:7.
6. The scripture foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith. Galatians 3:8.
7. So then, they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham. Galatians 3:9.
8. For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse. Galatians 3:10.
9. For it is written, Cursed is everyone that continues not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. Galatians 3:10.
10. But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident. Galatians 3:11.
11. The just shall live by faith. Galatians 3:11.
12. Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us. Galatians 3:13.
13. That we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. Galatians 3:14.
14. If there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law. This teaches that no law gave eternal life. Galatians 3:21.
15. The scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe. Galatians 3:22.
16. But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up into the faith which should afterwards be revealed. Galatians 3:23.

This means that we were shut up in the prison of the law until salvation by faith in Christ came.
17. The law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. Galatians 3:24.
18. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. Galatians 3:25.

We are not under the schoolmaster of the Mosaic Law, but the new law of Christ.
19. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. Galatians 3:26.
20. Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law? Galatians 4:21.
21. If ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing. Galatians 5:2.

This means that if you are trusting your circumcision to save you, or your good works, or your baptism, or your sacraments, or your church to save you, then Christ has not saved you. You are still lost and going to hell.
22. I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. Galatian 5:3
This means that if you trust your works to save you, then you can only be saved by always keeping all the whole law, which no one can do. Therefore, those trusting their works are heading to hell.
23. Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law. Galatians 5:4.
24. the hope of righteousness by faith. Galatians 5:5.
25. For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing nor uncircumcision: but faith which worketh by love. Galatians 6:15; 5:6.
26. In whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise. Ephesian 1:13
27. For by grace are ye saved through faith;
 - i) and that not of yourselves;
 - ii) it is the gift of God;
 - iii) not of works, lest any man should boast. Ephesians 2:8,9.

Four times we are told here that we are not saved by works, but by faith.

Question: Where then do good works come in?

Answer: Good works come after salvation to show our gratitude to God in love for saving us.

"For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them." Ephesians 2:10.

28. That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith. Ephesians 3:17.
29. And be found in Christ, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is of the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith. Philippians 3:9.
30. Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost. Titus 3:5.
31. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. Romans 3:20.
32. The righteousness of God without the law is manifested. Romans 3:21. (Romans 3:22.
33. The righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe.
34. Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus.
...a propitiation (forgiveness and favour) through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins. Romans 3:24,25.
35. Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? NO: but by the law of faith. Rom 3:27
36. Therefore, we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law. Roman 3:28.
37. One God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith. Rom 3:30
Question: Does salvation by faith and not by works mean that we can go out and sin as we wish?
A: Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law. Roman 3:31
The law is now written on the believer's heart, so that we obey the law of the Spirit of life from an inward motivation. Example: From 1788-1901, Australia was under British laws. After Federation in 1901, Australia is under a different legal system.
38. If Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God. Romans 4:2.
39. Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. Romans 4:3.
40. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Romans 4:5.
41. David also describes the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputes righteousness without works. Romans 4:6.
42. Faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness. How was it then reckoned?
When he was in uncircumcision. Romans 4:9,10.
Note: Abraham was saved by faith before he was circumcised. This teaches us that we are saved by faith before baptism, good works, sacraments or any human work.
43. Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Rom 5:1
Note: Peace with God comes by faith in Christ, not by good works.
44. The Gentiles have attained to righteousness which is of faith. But Israel has not attained to righteousness. Why? Because they sought it not by faith, butby the works of the law. Romans 9:30-32.
45. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace. Romans 11:6.
Note: If you think you are saved by your own works, then you miss God's grace.
46. Who hath saved us not according to our works. 11 Timothy 1:9.
47. Q: What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?
A: Jesus this is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent. John 6:28,29.
48. i) He said to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace. Luke 7:50.
ii) When he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee. Luke 5:20.
iii) Purifying their hearts by faith. Acts 15:9.
iv) That they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them that are sanctified by faith that is in me. Acts 26:18.

v) Jesus said unto him (Bartimaeus), Receive thy sight: thy faith hath saved thee. Luke 18:42.

vi) Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace. Mark 5:34.

vii) To a repentant leper: "thy faith hath made thee whole." Luke 17:19.

49. To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name, whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. Acts 10:43.

50. By him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. Acts 13:39.

Note: If the law of Moses could not justify anybody, how can keeping the laws of the Catholic Church, Jehovah's Witness, Mormon, Baptism, sacraments, or good works justify you?

OBJECTION: Question: "Doesn't James 2:14-26 teach that works save us?" Ans: No, because:

1. James in 2:10,11 says that even if we have kept the whole law always showing good works every day, except in one act of sin, we are guilty of breaking all the law. "For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all."
2. Wherever you have true believers, you have counterfeit believers. Eg: Neither the priest or the Levite who had religious training, helped the dying man. Matthew 7:21; Luke 10:25-37
3. A poor believer, hungry and without proper clothing entered a church. A person with dead faith saw the visitor in need, yet did nothing to meet his needs. He just said a few pious words: "Depart in peace; be ye warmed and filled". James 2:1-5,16.

Note: Each of these four people had dead faith. Each would defend the idea that he had faith, yet neither demonstrated that faith in loving works.

To help a needy person is an expression of love, and faith works by love. Galatians 5:6.

The question in James 2:14: "Can faith save him?" is alternatively translated: "Can that kind of faith save him?" What kind of faith? The faith that is never shown by practical works. The answer is "NO". Any declaration of faith that does not result in a changed life and good works is a false declaration. That kind of faith is dead faith.

"Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone." James 2:17.

True saving faith always produces works. God sees our faith in Christ as Saviour, then he saves us. Man cannot see faith. Man can only see our works as the fruit of salvation.

Faith is the Godward condition of salvation.

Works is the manward evidence of salvation.

James illustrates his point with two Old Testament characters:

1. Abraham. "Was not Abraham our Father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?" James 2:21.
 - a) Abraham was justified before God by age 85. "He believed in the Lord; and he counted it to him for righteousness." Genesis 15:6; 16:16.
 - b) Abraham was justified before man by age 137, when he offered up Isaac upon the altar. Genesis 22:1-14.
2. Rahab. "Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?" James 2:25.
 - a) Rahab was justified before God (salvation) when she confessed with her mouth Jehovah to be God.

"For the LORD your God, he is God in heaven above, & in earth beneath." Joshua 2:11,1-14
 - b) Rahab was justified before man (service) when she received and sent the messengers out another way. "Then she let them down by a cord through the window." Joshua 2:15,16.

Conclusion:

1. Forsake trusting your works to save you, and receive Jesus Christ as your Saviour from sin today.
2. Leave any church that teaches a gospel of good works for salvation. God's curse is on such a church or religion. "If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed." Galatians 1:6-9.

92. EVIDENCE FOR CREATION in 6 DAYS in 4074 BC

Bible Reading: Genesis 1

Aim: To prove from the Bible, science and archaeology that evolution is wrong and creation is right. Sixteen Bible passages say that God created life on earth:

1. "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth". Genesis 1:1.
2. "So God created man in his own image, ... male and female". Genesis 1:27.
3. "The Lord said, I will destroy man whom I have created ..." Genesis 6:7.
4. "The day that God created man upon the earth". Deuteronomy 4:32.
5. "Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these things, that bringeth out their host by number: he calleth them all by names by the greatness of his might" Isaiah 40:26.
6. "Hast thou not known? Hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? There is no searching of his understanding." Isai 40:28
7. "I have created him (humans) for my glory". Isaiah 43:7.
8. "I have made the earth, and created man upon it". Isaiah 45:12.
9. "Hath not one God created us?" Malachi 2:10.
10. "For in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of creation, which God created unto this time". Mark 13:19.
11. "But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female." Mark 10:6.
12. "For by him were all things created, that are in heaven and earth....." Colossians 1:16.
13. "For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse." Rom 1:20
14. "Who changed the truth of God (creation) into a lie (evolution), and worshipped and served the creature (himself) more than the Creator (God), who is blessed for ever. Amen." Rom 1:25.
15. "God, who created all things by Jesus Christ." Ephesians 3:9.
16. "For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and are in earth....all things were created by him and for him." Colossians 1:16.
17. "Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou has created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created." Revelation 4:11.
18. "Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not" Eccles. 12:1.

Aim: God created man by intelligent design in 6 days 6000 years ago. Man did not evolve by unintelligent random processes over millions of years. We are accountable to God as our Creator. Most schools teach that evolution is right.

What scientific evidence is there for creation by God in 6 days 6000 years ago?

1. EVIDENCE FOR A YOUNG EARTH.

For evolution to be remotely possible, many millions of years are needed. If it can be shown that the earth is young (about 6000 years old), and not millions of years old (as required by evolution), then evolution would not have enough time to happen. Consider these examples pointing to a young earth:

I. EVIDENCE FROM STARS

1. Galaxy star clusters (spirals with billions of stars) move so rapidly that they would not stay together if the universe were very old.

2. Large Stars. Some stars are so large that they radiate energy 10,000 to 1 million times more rapidly than our sun. They could not have contained enough hydrogen to radiate this fast for millions of years, because their initial mass would have been too big. These O and B class stars, and P Cygni stars could not continue atomic fusion longer than 50,000 to 300,000 years.

3. Abundant Hydrogen in stars. Hydrogen in stars is continually being converted into Helium. Hydrogen cannot be made from other elements. Fred Hoyle states that, if the universe were as old as Big Bang theorists think, then there would be little hydrogen left, as it would be converted to Helium by now. Spectra from stars reveal abundant hydrogen in stars. This implies a young universe.

II. EVIDENCE FROM OUR SOLAR SYSTEM

4. Solar shrinking. Since 1836, over 100 different observers at the Greenwich Observatory and US Naval Observatory have measured the sun's diameter to shrink at 0.1% per century or 5 feet per hour. At this rate, 50,000 years ago the sun would have been so large as to boil earth's oceans, making life on earth impossible. 100,000 years ago our sun would have been twice as large.

5. Rare Solar Neutrinos. In 1968 it was discovered that our sun emits hardly any neutrinos. This lack of solar neutrinos irrefutably points to a recently created sun. (A neutrino is an uncharged particle of no or very little mass, travelling at the speed of light, and is produced in the sun when protons and electrons react to form neutrons.)

6. Comets elliptically orbit the sun and are thought to be as old as the sun. As comets orbit the sun, they lose some of their water and gases from the sun's heat, gravity and tail formation. The tail consists of material driven away from its head by solar energy.

Some comets regularly seen in the 19th Century have broken up and vanished, or plunged into the sun. All comets should self-destruct in a short time, less than 10,000 years. There should be no comets left.

Evolution cannot explain comets in an old solar system. Comets are young objects created in a young solar system.

7. Solar Wind. As the sun's radiation flows outward, it applies an outward force on very small particles orbiting the sun. All particles smaller than 100,000th of a centimetre should have long ago been 'blown out' of our solar system if it were billions of years old. Yet satellite studies show that these small particles are abundant and still orbiting the sun. This implies a young solar system.

8. Solar Drag. (Poynting-Robertson Effect). Small and medium size rocks circling the sun are gradually drawn into the sun by gravity. The sun acts like a giant vacuum cleaner, sweeping up about 100,000 tons of micrometeoroids each day. Each particle absorbs and re-radiates energy from the sun, causing them to slow down and fall into the sun. At today's rate, our sun would have sucked in most solar dust particles larger than 100,000th of a centimetre in less than 10,000 years, and all of it within 50,000 years. Yet the abundance of these particles, with no known source of replenishment, points to a young solar system.

III. EVIDENCE FROM OTHER PLANETS

9. Meteoroids bombarding Saturn's rings would have destroyed them in less than 10,000 years. (W T Brown, In the Beginning, p 18).

10. Solid Ammonia in Saturn's rings, with a higher vapour pressure than ice, could not survive long without vaporising into space. Young rings imply a young Saturn.

11. Jupiter's Moons. If they evolved, they should be physically alike, having the same amount of volcanoes and impact craters, but this is not so. Evolution claims that all planets were molten 5 billion years ago and volcanic activity stopped 4 billion years ago as they cooled. The moons Ganymede and Callisto have no volcanoes and many impact craters. Europa has no volcanoes and no impact craters. Io has 7 active volcanoes and no impact craters. Titan has volcanoes.

12. Jupiter, Uranus and Neptune (4) have rings, which could not survive 4 billion years. Jupiter's intense magnetic field radiation would sweep out its rings. (Bradford Smith, a Voyager Scientist).

13. Venus' high temperature and little erosion, imply a young age for Venus. If Venus was 4 billion years old, its dense atmosphere should have worn away its craters.

14. Mars has little erosion and some water. Mars has many sharp edged craters and volcanoes, as well as month-long dust storms. Several thousand years of this weather would have seriously eroded these edges and its strong colour differences. Powerful solar UV radiation would have long ago broken down the small amount of water, releasing the oxygen into the atmosphere and hydrogen into space.

Evolution predicts no surface water and much atmospheric oxygen, but measurements show the opposite being some surface water and very little atmospheric oxygen.

IV. EVIDENCE FROM OUR MOON

15. Lunar Gases. Argon 36 and Krypton 84 inert gases on the moon came from the sun as solar wind. Based on today's solar wind intensity, today's amount of these gases would occur in under 10,000 years.

16. Lunar Recession. Due to tidal friction, the moon is moving away from earth at about 4 cm per year (1 ½ inches). At this rate, 5 billion years ago the moon would have been 200,000 Km closer.

17. Lunar quakes, lava flows and gas emissions show that the moon is not a cold, dead body. It is still adjusting to inner stresses and is not yet in thermal equilibrium. If it were 5 billion years old, it would not show such thermal activity.

18. Lunar Isotopes. Short-lived Uranium 236 and Thorium 230 were found in moon rocks. If the moon were 5 billion years old, these isotopes would long ago have decayed to lead. But instead they are relatively abundant in moon rocks. Thorium 230 has a halflife of 75,400 years, and Uranium 236 of 23 million years.

19. Moon dust comes from meteorite dust and from solar radiation breaking surface rocks to dust at a rate of 3/10,000ths of an inch per year. The one-eighth of an inch of moon dust implies a young moon, not a 5 billion year old moon.

V. EVIDENCE FROM EARTH'S ATMOSPHERE

20. Atmospheric Helium comes from radioactive decay of Uranium and Thorium as they emit alpha particles (Helium nuclei), as well as alpha particles from the sun. Although hydrogen can escape earth's atmosphere, Helium cannot.

$$\begin{aligned} \text{Years to reach present Helium level} &= \frac{\text{Present mass of Helium}}{\text{Rate of Helium formation each year}} \\ &= \frac{3,500,000,000,000,000 \text{ kilograms Helium } (3.5 \times 10^{15})}{300,000,000,000 \text{ kilograms Helium formed p.a. } (3.5 \times 10^{11})} \\ &= 11,600 \text{ years to reach present levels.} \end{aligned}$$

If earth was 4 billion years old, there would be 400,000 times more Helium in the atmosphere. Where is it? This date of 11,600 years is closer to the Biblical age of earth of 6,000 years.

VI. EVIDENCE FROM METEORITES

21. Meteorite Dust. 20 million meteors enter earth's atmosphere every 24 hours. These add 25 tons weight to earth each day. Meteorite mass added to the earth in 4 billion years

$$\begin{aligned} &= 25 \text{ tons} \times 365 \times 4,000,000,000 \text{ tons} \\ &= 36,500,000,000,000 \text{ tons added.} \end{aligned}$$

Surface area of earth = 196,800,000 square miles.

$$\begin{aligned} \text{Mass of meteorite dust per square mile} &= \frac{36,500,000,000,000 \text{ tons}}{196,800,000 \text{ sq miles}} \\ &= 186,000 \text{ tons per sq mile} \end{aligned}$$

Where is all this meteorite dust? It is not there. This implies a young earth.

22. Meteorite Craters only occur on the earth's surface, never being found in the rock strata. If earth were 5 billion years old, we would find many meteorite craters in the sedimentary rock strata, but we don't. Thus all meteorites which have struck the earth, have hit it in the last 5000 years.

23. Meteorites and Tektite Showers are only found at or close to the earth's surface, never in the deeper sedimentary rock strata. If earth were ancient, many would be found all through the geological column. 'No meteorites have ever been found in the geological column' (Fred Whipple, 'Comets' in The New Astronomy, p 207). This points to a young earth with sedimentary strata deposited recently and quickly.

VII. EVIDENCE FROM THE GLOBE

24. Earth's Magnetic Field is decaying exponentially, according to measurements over 170 years.

Authority	Year	Magnetic Moment (amp/m ²) x 10 ²²
Gauss	1835	8.558
Adams	1845	8.488
Adams	1880	8.363
Vestine	1905	8.291
Dyson-Furner	1922	8.165
USC & GS	1945	8.066
Leaton	1965	8.013

This points to a half-life of 1,400 years. On this basis, Earth's magnetic field 7,000 years ago would have been 32 times stronger than it is today. 20,000 years ago it would have dissolved the earth. 1 million years ago it would have had greater magnetism (10215 Tesla) than all objects in the universe. It would appear that the earth could not be more than 6,000 to 7,000 years old. In 1979 NASA launched a satellite Magsat' to measure earth's magnetic field. The overall intensity of earth's field was found to be declining at a rate of 26 nanoteslas per year, with a half-life of just 830 years. Extrapolation shows that the field strength should reach zero in 1,200 years. (Creation Research Quarterly, June 1981, p 40). "In the next two millenia, if the present rate of decay is sustained, the dipole moment of the (earth's magnetic) field should reach zero." (Scientific American, December 1989). Since a past stronger magnetic field deflected more cosmic rays, this would have changed the rate of Carbon-14 production in the past, giving wrong Carbon-14 dates.

VIII. EVIDENCE FROM BENEATH EARTH'S SURFACE

25. Oil Well Pressure. When oil drillers first penetrate oil wells, oil gushes out because the oil and gas are under great pressure from surrounding rocks. Sedimentary rocks surrounding the oil wells are porous. Studies of these show that the oil would seep out before 100,000 years, but this has not happened. This great oil pressure argues strongly against millions of years age for oil wells, and implies an age for oil of around 10,000 years. Oil, coal and gas were formed during the Great Flood 4,400 years ago (in 2418BC).

26. Lack of Anciently Destroyed Oil Reservoirs. If earth were very old, we would find empty oil reservoirs, where all the oil had leaked out, leaving only residues which would show in drilling cores. Such locations are never found, thus showing that all the world's oil reserves were formed recently.

27. Earth's Molten Interior. Deep within the earth, the rocks are molten. The earth is slowly cooling from the surface inwards according to Stefan's Law of Radiation. Lord Kelvin in 1889 calculated that the earth could not be billions of years old because of earth's known rate of cooling, the existing temperature gradient in the earth, and the assumption that the earth could not have been hotter than "white hot" initially. "Popular Lectures and Addresses" (London: MacMillan, 1889, p.415).

If earth were billions of years old, it would have cooled far more than it now has, even if we assume a radioactively generated heating mechanism. (W T Brown, In the Beginning, p 17).

28. Zircon/Lead Ratios. Radiogenic lead slowly leaks out of Zircon crystals at normal temperatures, but leaks out more rapidly as the temperature increases. Careful study of zircon crystals from core samples 15,000 feet deep at 313 degrees centigrade in New Mexico show that almost no radiogenic lead had leaked from that super-heated zircon. This strongly points to a young earth.

29. Radiohaloes shorten geologic ages of millions of years to a few thousand years.

Radiohaloes are colour rings around microscopic radioactive minerals in rock crystals.

"Squashed" Polonium-210 radiohaloes indicate that Jurassic, Triassic and Eocene formations in the Colorado Plateau were deposited within months of one another, not from 225-255 million years apart, as evolution claims.

"Orphan" Polonium-218 radiohaloes, having no evidence of their mother elements, imply either instant creation, or drastic changes in radioactive decay rates.

IX. EVIDENCE FROM EARTH'S SURFACE

30. Topsoil accumulation. The average topsoil depth worldwide is 8 inches. Allowing for losses due to erosion, calculations show that it takes 300 to 1,000 years to accumulate one inch of topsoil. On this basis the earth would be about 6,000 to 8,000 years old.

31. Niagara Falls erosion is about 7 feet per year. From their first mapping in 1678 to 1842, the water wore away the top of the falls at a rate of 7 feet per year. Since the gorge is 7 miles long, the age of the Falls = $\frac{7 \text{ miles} \times 5280 \text{ feet/mile}}{7 \text{ feet per year}}$ = 5,280 years (approximately)

7 feet per year

This is close to the time of Noah's Flood 4,400 years ago, especially since the Falls would have eroded faster just after the Flood. For other large waterfalls, the cut distances and rates of erosion agree well with the Falls' origin 4,400 years ago.

X. EVIDENCE FROM THE OCEANS

32. Coral Growth rates accurately measured under favourable growth conditions, show that no known coral formation is older than 3,500 years (A Roth, 'Coral Reef Growth', Origins, Vol 6, No.2, 1979,p88)

33. Sea ooze. As fish and ocean plants die, they fall to the bottom and form an ooze, or very soft mud on the ocean floor at a rate of one inch every 1,000-5,000 years.

Measuring the depth of this ooze indicates a young earth.

34. Ocean Concentrations of elements from rivers and springs. If we assume, as evolutionists must, that the oceans were 100% freshwater (0% mineral content) at the beginning of earth's history, and knowing today's amount of each element in the oceans, we may calculate how long each element took to reach today's concentration level. Of the 51 main elements in sea water, 20 could have accumulated to today's level in 1,000 years; 9 other elements in 10,000 years, and 8 others in 100,000 years.

For example, Lead (2,000 years); Silicon (8,000 years); Vanadium (10,000 years); Cobalt and Nickel (18,000 years); Caesium (40,000 years); Bismuth (45,000 years); Mercury (42,000 years); Copper (50,000 years); Tin (100,000 years); Sodium (260 million years). Sodium gives the longest accumulation time, so by this method, earth could be no older than 260 million years.

35. Ocean sediment. There is not enough sediment on the sea floors for earth to be 5 billion years old. Rivers add about 28 billion tons of sediment to the oceans each year.

If this had occurred for 1 billion years, the continents would have eroded away many times. There would be a layer of sediment on the ocean floor at least 60 miles thick.

However, the average depth of sediment on the ocean floor is about 800 metres, and the continents have not eroded once yet. The Tasman Sea off Australia is not part of a subduction zone of ocean floor being pushed deep into the earth. Subduction zones could not dispose of 10% of incoming sediment. Hence, sea floors seem young.

36. Juvenile water coming out of volcanoes has never been in the oceans before. About 1 cubic mile of water is added yearly. 340,000,000 cubic miles of water are on earth's surface.

Question: How many years would it take to accumulate 340 million cubic miles of water?

Answer: 340 million years. This implies that there were no oceans 340 million years ago, the supposed age of fishes. So how could life have evolved in the oceans 2,000 million years ago if there were no oceans then? (Source: H. Morris, Scientific Creationism, p.156).

37. Delta Filling. The Mississippi river dumps about 300 million cubic metres of sediment into the Gulf of Mexico each year. If this river were millions of years old, the Gulf would have been filled long ago. Since the delta grows about 250 feet per year, it's age calculates to about 4000 years, very close to the Flood 4,400 years ago. Source: B.Allen, Geologic Age of Mississippi, CRS Vol. 9, p.96-114.

XI. EVIDENCE FROM LIVING THINGS

38. Tree Rings. The oldest living things are Bristlecone pines growing in Eastern Nevada, aged about 4,600 years old (sometimes producing 2 growth rings per year, so their age would be less), and Sequoia Gigantea in the Sierra Nevada Mountains, which are never older than about 4,000 years. These giant redwoods have no known enemies, and never have any dead trees among them. Unless man cuts them down, they never seem to die. 17 Bristlecone pines are dated about 4,000 years old. Since the Flood occurred about 2,418 BC, this implies that:

a) all the pre-Flood Sequoias and Bristlecones were wiped out by the Flood, and

b) there is no record of any living tree older than the Flood.

Question: If evolution were true, why do we find none of these trees dated 15,000 years or older?

Answer: Because evolution is false. These old trees were planted just after the Flood in 2418 BC.

With regard to fossil tree rings, the author has been unable to find any documented instances of fossil trees having more than about 1500 rings. This is significant since we are told that God (literally) made the Earth, and all that is in it 1656 years before Noah's Flood.

39. Dinosaur DNA is so rare that the first sample was discovered in 1995. DNA decomposes soon after the specimen dies. There is no known way for DNA to survive for 70 million years.

Cracking the dinosaur DNA

BEIJING: A professor from Beijing University has extracted DNA from a 70-million-year-old dinosaur egg, the People's Daily said yesterday. After one year's work, Professor Zhang Yun, helped by fellow professors at Beijing University, succeeded in extracting DNA from the egg, the newspaper said. The DNA was extracted without contamination of modern bacteria and Professor Zhang was carrying out research to determine whether the DNA was contaminated by prehistoric germs, the newspaper said. — Reuter

SMH 18 Feb 95

SYDNEY MORNING HERALD - 18 FEBRUARY, 1995

XII. EVIDENCE FROM ANCIENT CIVILIZATIONS

40. Man's Recorded History.

If man has lived on earth for 1 million years, why do we only find human records going back to about 3500 BC? This cuneiform tablet is the oldest human writing from Sumeria. When human records first appear, they show man to be highly developed with a sophisticated civilisation. This agrees better with a creation date of 4074 BC than with evolution's 1 million year history of man. Why did man do nothing for 1 million years? Because he has only been here for 6,000 years.

41. Bible Records. The Bible is valid history and should not be dismissed. It consistently verifies authentic archaeological research. If the Bible's post Flood dates have been confirmed as accurate by cross checking them with Assyrian, Babylonian, Egyptian and solar eclipse records, then surely the same accuracy must apply to Biblical dates from Creation (4074 BC) to the Flood (2418 BC) in Genesis 1-10.

42. Astronomical Records. Because of the rarity of solar eclipses at any given location, and because astronomers can date every solar eclipse going back thousands of years, when an ancient tablet or manuscript mentions a solar eclipse, we can accurately date that record, and other events associated with it in other countries. Before 2250 BC, we have no records of any solar eclipse being seen by man. "The earliest Chinese date which can be assigned with any probability is 2250 BC, based on an astronomical reference in the Book of History". (Ralph Linten, The Tree of Culture (1955), p 520).

43. Writing. The oldest writing is a Sumerian pictograph written on clay tablets dated about 3500 BC.

44. Pyramids. Do evolutionists expect us to believe that man sat around for 1 million years doing nothing, building nothing, showing no signs of intelligence or engineering, then suddenly design and build highly technical pyramids in Egypt, the oldest being the step Pyramid for King Zoser in about 2600 BC? This date closely matches the Biblical Flood date of 2418 BC. This confirms Bible chronology better than evolutionary speculation and guesswork.

Conclusion: The evidence for creation dating is clear and scientific, being confirmed from many scientific disciplines and archaeological records.

2. REFUTING THE GEOLOGICAL COLUMN TIMETABLE

The geological column is one of the most popular evidences used to demonstrate evolution. It seeks to prove evolution of life from simple to complex forms over 2 billion years. The chart below is supposed to represent the history of life in fossil format. Nowhere in earth do we find the complete sequence of fossils or strata as shown in this chart. The only real evidence for this chart is on paper and in some geologists minds.

ERA	PERIOD	EPOCH	RECORDS OF DISTINCTIVE LIFE	MILLIONS OF YEARS AGO
CENOZOIC	QUATERNARY	RECENT
		PLEISTOCENE	EARLY MAN-----	2+
		PLIOCENE	LARGE CARNIVORES-----	10
	TERTIARY	MIOCENE	WHALES, APES, GRAZERS-----	27
		OLIGOCENE	LARGE BROWSING ANIMALS-----	38
		Eocene	RISE OF FLOWERING PLANTS-----	55
PALEOCENE		FIRST PLACENTAL MAMMALS-----	70
MESOZOIC	CRETACEOUS	DINOSAURS EXTINCT MODERN FLORAS-----	130
	JURASSIC	DINOSAURS ZENITH PRIMITIVE BIRDS FIRST SMALL MAMMALS-----	180
	TRIASSIC	APPEARANCE OF DINOSAURS-----	225
PALEOZOIC	PERMIAN	CONIFERS ABUNDANT REPTILES DEVELOPED-----	260
	CARBONIFEROUS:	PENNSYLVANIAN	FIRST REPTILES COAL FORESTS-----	300
		MISSISSIPPIAN	SHARKS ABUNDANT-----	340
	DEVONIAN	RISE OF AMPHIBIANS FISHES ABUNDANT-----	405
	SILURIAN	EARLIEST LAND PLANTS AND ANIMALS-----	435
	ORDOVICIAN	FIRST PRIMITIVE FISHES-----	480
	CAMBRIAN	ALL SUBKINGDOMS OF INVERT- EBRATE ANIMALS TRILOBITES BRACHIOPODS-----	570
PROTEROZOIC ARCHEOZOIC	PRECAMBRIAN	NO INDISPUTABLE FOSSILS-----	570 TO 1,500+

Question: How do evolutionists/geologists construct this time scale?

Answer: They start with the assumption that "since life is here, life has evolved". Any simple fossil is dated early, and any complex fossil is dated later.

Question: How are ages assigned to rock strata?

- A. 1. They approximate ages by spreading fossils over the total time assumed for their evolution.
 2. Radioactive datings and age estimates based on strata thicknesses assign more specific ages. Strata thicknesses are dated on the assumption that rock strata were laid down in the past at the same rate as today, about one foot every 5000 years.
 A worldwide Flood of Noah's kind would disprove this assumption. Most organisms on dying are not fossilised because they rot bacterially or are eaten by scavengers. For example, consider the millions of North American bison killed by Buffalo Bill and others. Where are their fossils? Nowhere, because they were not suddenly buried by a catastrophe, but were eaten by scavengers, or rotted, decayed and dissipated. Dust and leaves falling over a carcass will not preserve it.

Evolutionists follow this faulty circular reasoning:

1. Assume evolution.
2. Datings that fit are accepted, those datings not fitting are rejected.
3. Arrange rock strata on a chart so organisms progress from simple to complex.
4. Contradictions to "Correct" order are explained away.

3. FOSSILS and ARTEFACTS of Early Man that Contradict Evolutionary Succession.

- 1) Guadeloupe Woman was discovered in 1812 in the Caribbean island of Guadeloupe, in a 1 mile long limestone formation that evolutionists date as 28 million years old. This is a full 25 million years earlier than when man is supposed to have appeared on earth. When this 2 ton limestone block containing Guadeloupe woman was first exhibited in the British Museum in 1812 it was shown as proof of the Genesis Flood. In 1881 it was transferred to the museum's basement.
- 2) Calaveras skull found mineralised in 1876. It was found 130 feet below ground in the Sierra Nevada mountains of California. The skull was authenticated by a physician as equivalent to a modern man and certified by an evolutionist (J.D. Whitney, Chief of the California Geological Survey) as having been found in Pliocene Stratum (supposedly 2-5 million years old). This disproves evolutionary dating of rock strata and of ancient man.
- 3) Castinedolo skull found in Castinedolo, Italy is perfectly human and found in Pliocene strata (supposedly 2-5 million years old).
- 4) Two Moab skeletons were found in Cretaceous rock (at Moab, Utah) supposedly dated as 70-135 million years old. The University of Utah Anthropologist, J.P. Marwitt certified them as definitely Homo Sapiens. (Creation Res. Soc. Qtly, Sept 1973, p.110). Technicians at the University of Arizona dated the skeletons by the nitrogen retention test as under 5000 years old. F.A. Barnes in "The Case of the Bones in Stone" in "Desert" 38 (Feb. 1975, p.36) describes two 100 million year old human skeletons, buried under 15 feet of rock which was bulldozed off. Their bones were still together at the joints, and stained green by copper salts from the surrounding rocks. In turn, the surrounding rocks were stained by the organics from the bodies. Evolution dates this rock and hence this human skeleton at 97 million years before humans supposedly appeared.
- 5) Freiberg skull found in brown coal in 1842, displayed in the Mining Academy in Freiberg (Saxony). (Otto Stutzer, Geology of Coal, (1940), p.271).
- 6) Gold Chain in Coal. In 1891, Mrs S.W. Culp in Morrisville, Illinois, dropped and broke a chunk of coal to find embedded in it a 10 inch, 8 carat gold chain. Since evolutionists claim that coal was deposited in the Carboniferous period (300 million years ago), and man supposedly appeared 3 million years ago, they have the problem of a man-made gold chain dated 300 million years before man appeared on earth.

Question: How can a man made article exist before man appeared?

Answer: Evolution never happened, man is recently created 6000 years ago, the Geological Column and radiometric dating methods are wrong. (Morrisville, Illinois Times, June 11, 1891).

- 7) Iron Pot in Coal. Professor W. Rusch has reported an iron pot encased in coal dated by evolutionary standards at 300 million years old. (Creation Research Quarterly (March, 1971) p.201). The pictured affidavit reads as follows:

Sulphur Springs, Arkansas, November 27, 1948.

While I was working in the Municipal Electric Plant in Thomas, Okla. in 1912, I came upon a solid chunk of coal which was too large to use. I broke it with a sledge hammer. This iron pot fell from the center, leaving the impression or mold of the pot in the piece of coal. Jim Stall (an employee of the company) witnessed the breaking of the coal, and saw the pot fall out. I traced the source of the coal, and found that it came from the Wilburton, Oklahoma Mines.

Frank J. Kenwood

Sworn to before me, in Sulphur Springs, Arkansas this 27th day of November, 1948.

Julia L (?)

- 8) Child's Spoon. In 1937, Mrs Myrna Burdeck and her mother found a child's spoon in soft Pennsylvania coal. (Creation Research Quarterly, June 1976, p.74).
- 9) Metal Bowl. An intricately carved metal bowl was blasted out of solid pudding stone. (Scientific American, June 5, 1852).

10) Bell Shaped Silver Vessel. Workmen blasting near Dorchester, Massachusetts in 1851, found a bell shaped metal vessel with inlaid silver floral designs embedded in solid rock. (Scientific American, June 1851).

11) Iron Nails.

a) Sir David Brewster found an iron nail in Cretaceous rock (65-144 million years ago) in the Kingoodie Quarry, North Britain in 1845. The last inch of the nail was embedded in the stone. (David Brewster, Report of meeting of the British Association for the Advancement of Science, Vol. 14).

b) Hiram Witt while searching for gold in California 1851, dropped and broke a piece of quartz to find an iron nail with a perfect head inside. (The London Times, 1851).

12) The Nampa Image is a baked clay figure obtained from a well being bored in 1889 at Nampa, Idaho. It was pumped from rocks 300 feet deep under a “Tertiary” lava sheet (12 million years old.) The problem for evolutionists is how can a man made clay figure 12 million years old (supposedly) have been laid down before man evolved 3 million years ago (supposedly)?

Source: American Geologist, F. Wright, 23 (1899), p.267.

13) Human and Dinosaur Footprints in the same rock strata:

i) Glen Rose, Texas (40 miles south-west of Dallas) at the Paluxy River contains hundreds of Human footprints both normal and giant size, along side trails of large three-toed dinosaur and Brontosaurus footprints in early Cretaceous limestone dated 120 million years old. Both man and dinosaur are apparently running. These prints were first noticed after a 1908 flood when the Paluxy river rose 27 feet.

Clifford Burdick, a mining geologist and Ronald Bird, a paleontologist with the American Museum of Natural History carefully examined and reported on the footprints in “Natural History”, May 1939, p.255 and in “The Naturalist”, Spring 1957.

In 1938, Bird Transported some of the Brontosaurus tracks to the American Museum of Natural History in New York City.

Human footprints have been found in layers below that of the dinosaur footprints.

Over 100 human footprint trails have been studied in the Paluxy River area.

These refute evolution’s long ages and show that both man and dinosaur lived at the same time.

ii) Turkmenia. Notice this report in the Sydney Morning Herald, 21 Nov. 1983, “A report from the Soviet news agency, Tass, says that about 1500 tracks made by dinosaurs have been found in Turkmenia – but among those prints are those resembling the footprints of a man. According to Professor Amanniyazov, director of Turkmenia’s Institute of Geology: “If further analysis proves that the prints have been left by anthropoids, the history of mankind will be extended to 150 million, not 5 million years.””

Why did Professor Amanniyazov assume dinosaur extinction 150 million years ago as absolutely certainty? Why did he not consider the alternative position of dinosaurs living with man recently? The fact that dinosaur and human footprints have been found in the same rock strata proves that man and dinosaurs lived at the same time.

This is a great problem to evolutionists who believe that dinosaurs became extinct 70 million years ago. Evolutionists claim that dinosaurs died out 67 million years before man appeared.

These footprints prove that:

a) Man and dinosaur lived at the same time, and

b) The evolutionary geological column is completely wrong in its dating of rocks.

The evidence for these tracks being genuine are:

i) The tracks of man and dinosaur are widely distributed from Turkestan to Texas.

ii) The tracks are mostly exposed by bulldozers or erosion.

iii) Two Palaeontologists have pronounced them genuine:

- Dr. Camp of the University of California, and

- Dr. G. Westcott of Ypsilanti, Michigan.

- iv) The associated dinosaur tracks are accepted as valid.
- v) Some prints have ridges of mud pushed up around them.
- vi) Upon sawing through the footprints, the rock particles underneath are more compressed than particles surrounding the prints.

Source: "Scientific American", A.G. Ingalls: "The Carboniferous Mystery" 162 (1940), page 14.
See R.L. Wysong "The Creation-Evolution Controversy", p.373.

iii) Trilobites in Shoeprint. In June 1968, William Meister unearthed a fossil shoeprint in the "Wheeler Mid-Cambrian" strata at Antelope Springs, Utah. Trilobites were embedded in both heel and toe. The shoeprint measured 10.25 inches long by 3.5 inches wide, belonging to a right foot which had stepped on several trilobites. Seven other shoe tracks were found in the area precluding this as a quirk. Man and trilobite living together would disprove 500 million years of the geological column. ("Why Not Creation?" M.Cook, Grand Rapids, Baker, 1970, p.185-193).

iv) Arizona tracks near Tuba City in the Glen Canyon group, which is late Triassic to early Jurassic strata, dated by evolutionists from 100-175 million years ago. Over 60 human tracks were mapped and photographed, some with shoes, some barefooted, some standing still, others walking. At least 300 tridactyl dinosaur tracks have been found in the same strata. (Creation Research Quarterly, Sep, Dec, 1989).

v) Nevada tracks. Miners digging in a coal seam in Fisher Canyon, Pershing County, Nevada, found a shoeprint so clear that traces of sewed thread are visible. The coal it was found in has an evolutionary date of 15 million years, long before man "evolved".

(Source: Andrew Tomas, "We Are Not The First", 1971, p.24).

vi) Nicaragua tracks. Human footprints were found near Lake Managua, Nicaragua, 16-24 feet beneath the surface, under 11 strata of rock. Mastodon bones and other fossils have been found in strata above the human footprints. Other human footprints have been found in South America; New Harmony, Indiana; St. Louis, Missouri; Herculaneum, Missouri; Kingston, New York; Berea, Kentucky; Carson City, Nevada. (Source: Creation Res. Soc. Qtly, March 1971, p. 205).

14) Hammer in "300 million year old" Limestone in London, Texas.

This hammer is obviously man made. The problem here for evolutionists is that this artefact shows that man lived at the same time as when limestone was deposited.

Source: "Creation or Evolution" G. Rehn.

15) Dinosaur Pictographs.

Pictures of dinosaur, ibex and other creatures have been found on the walls of the Havasupai Canyon by S. Hubbard, Honorary Curator of Archaeology of the Oakland Museum in the late 1800's. Does this show man and dinosaur living at the same time?

Source: "Arizona Highways". E. Scoyen, 27 July 1951 p.36-39.

16) Sculptures of Extinct Birds.

Jose Diaz Bolio, a Mexican archaeologist discovered ancient Mayan sculptures of a bird like an Archaeopteryx. This would create a 130 million year discrepancy between Archaeopteryx extinction and man's first appearance. Archaeopteryx and man should never have met if evolution is true. Source: Science Digest, "Serpent Bird of the Mayans" 64 (Nov. 1968).

17) Five Toed Llama Etchings on Pottery. Evolution claims 5 toed Llamas were extinct 30 million years ago. Source: R.L. Wysong, p.378.

18) Pollen in Pre-Cambrian Strata. Pollen from Angiosperm and Gymnosperm trees (woody plants supposedly 260 million years old have been found in Pre Cambrian Hakati shale in the Grand Canyon (supposedly 570 million years old). The problem here for evolutionists is conifer pollen existing 300 million years before it appeared on earth. Some spores are stained with red oxide from surrounding rocks, thus proving that the spores are not from present day contamination.

Source: Nature, R. Stainforth, 210 (1966) p.292.

4. FLOOD EVIDENCE

Creationists state that all geological history can be explained by creation and a worldwide flood in the last 6000 years. Consider the following evidence for this:

1. Pre-Cambrian void, then abundant, complex Cambrian fossils

Pre-Cambrian rocks are the pre-Flood basement.

Post-Cambrian rocks are the post-Flood fossil rich strata. Earliest Cambrian rocks (supposedly 500 million years old) contain highly complex, diversified animal fossils which suddenly appeared.

Question: How could this complex range of fauna evolve so suddenly and quickly?

This was as unexplainable to Darwin as it is to Evolutionists today.

Answer: Creationists easily explain this as the pre-Flood, post-Flood demarcation.

The "2 billion year" geological column used to support the evolution of life, is actually a record of the destruction of life by the worldwide flood.

The geological column is a record of life's departure, not of life's coming.

The geological column represents 2 or 3 months deposition not 2 billion years, as this chart shows:

Evolution Model		Creation-Flood Model
PRESENT thousands	PRESENT	NO SIGNIFICANT FOSSILIZATION OR SEDIMENTATION	thousands
GEOMETRICALLY billions	FLOOD	AQUEOUS BURIAL OF BILLIONS OF LIVING FORMS--FOSSILS VAST EROSION AND SEDIMENTATION	months
PRECAMBRIAN billions	PREFLOOD	CRYSTALLINE BASEMENT ROCKS: PREFLOOD ROCKS MINUS THOSE REMOVED BY THE FLOOD	thousands

2. Fossilisation. The existence of billions of plant and animal fossils preserved in the earth's crust speaks of a flood catastrophe. The fossil record is not "incomplete" as evolutionists argue, (incomplete only because it does not contain the links they need to prove evolution), but is quantitatively huge, with a greater variety of species than are alive today.

Consider these fossil examples supporting the worldwide flood:

- i) Coal and Oil Reserves even in polar regions can only be explained by the catastrophic burial of billions of plants and animals. Coal (fossil plants) were deposited by a water catastrophe, not by slow accumulation in swamps. Fossil trees extend through several layers of coal.
- ii) Mammoths by the millions cover about 14% of the earth's surface from Siberia to Alaska, frozen so rapidly that their flesh is edible today.
- iii) Fossil Dinosaur Bones.
 - in Dinosaur National monument Utah contain over 300 different kinds of dinosaurs.
 - in Geisseltal Germany, we find remains of 6000 fossil vertebrates.
- iv) Closed Clams. We find millions of fossil closed clams in a 3 foot stratum in Texas. Clams do not live packed together like this. Clam shells will open unless buried before death.
- v) Billions of fossilised fish, contorted in agony over 10,000 square miles, with 1000 fish in one square metre are found in England.
- vi) Millions of fossil trilobites rolled into defensive balls, and although marine, are found 7000 feet high on mountains.
- vii) 800 billion fossils of amphibians, reptiles and fish covering 200,000 square miles in the Karoo formation of South Africa.

- viii) Rain drops, ripple marks, worm trails, animal tracks, droppings, insect wing detail and feathers are fossilised.
- ix) Sharks flattened to $\frac{1}{4}$ inch thick with the tail still upright suggest sudden catastrophic burial.
- x) Rhinoceroses, camels, pigs, etc. make up 9,000 fossil animals in one hill at Agate Springs, Nebraska.
- xi) A 14 foot Porthus fish has swallowed a 6 foot Gillicus fish, with no signs of digestion.
- xii) A Perch swallowing a Herring is caught in the action by very quick burial at fossil lake Wyoming. (Fig.)

Was deposition slow or rapid?

Question: Where is one example of fossilisation occurring on a scale today equivalent to the magnitude of fossil graveyards worldwide? Creationists insist that: “Fossilisation is unnatural, abnormal, catastrophic, quick and the exception. When we see worldwide fossilisation, and noting that water is required for fossilisation to occur, then we are pointed to Noah’s flood. The geological column does not record the coming of life, but the going and demise of life.”

The scientific community is aware of this, but they ignore it and shelve it to keep faith in uniformitarian evolution.

3. Polystrate Trees. Crossing several rock strata are trees preserved as well at their tops as at their bottoms. These fossil trees bridge an evolutionary imagined time span of millions of years, that would preclude their “in place” growth and fossilisation.

Question: Was this tree standing unweathered for millions of years while strata was slowly deposited all around it?

Answer: No! The sediment and tree were moved into place at the same time.

This fossil tree spans 20 feet of strata at Tennessee. Slow deposition of rock (uniformity) would not allow a tree to be fossilised before it would rot and fall over.

4. Simple to Complex by Flood Fossil Sorting.

We observe a general sorting of fossils from simple, spherical, dense sea creatures to less dense, irregular shaped, complex creatures higher up.

- a) Evolutionists interpret this to mean that simple creatures lower down evolved to complex creatures higher up over time.
- b) Creationists match these observations with the sorting effect produced by Noah’s Flood, as follows:
 - i) Initial effects of the Flood would be to trap smaller, simple, spherical, dense sea creatures like trilobites in sediment.
 - ii) Then plants and trees, being immobile, would be swept off the earth and deposited, becoming coal of today.
 - iii) Amphibians, living close to the water’s edge and being relatively slow moving would be deposited next.
 - iv) Reptiles and Dinosaurs living further inland and being relatively slow moving (eg. brontosaurus) would be trapped next.
 - v) Land mammals and birds being faster-moving and living further inland would be next deposited (eg. lions).
 - vi) Finally, man, being more intelligent at fleeing to higher ground would be the last ones overcome by the Flood, and therefore appear on top of the rock strata. The final effect would be simple organisms lower in the sediment to complex organisms higher up in the sediment, although contradictions to this order would be expected due to randomness of the flood action. This is precisely what we see as predicted by Noah’s Flood.

PERIOD	ANIMALS	PLANTS
PRESENT	RADIOLARIA FORAMINIFERA HYDROZEA CYCLODEA ECHINOIDEA GASTROPODA INSECTA ARACHNIDA AMPHIBIA REPTILIA AVES	ALGAE MOSSES PSYLOPHYTES EQUISETACEAE FILICAE CYCADALES BENNETTITALES Gymnosperms Angiosperms Dicotyledones
PLIOCENE MIOCENE
OLIGOCENE Eocene
PALEOCENE
CRETACEOUS JURASSIC
TRIASSIC PERMIAN CARBONIFEROUS
DEVONIAN
SILURIAN
ORDOVICIAN CAMBRIAN

Fossil Record

The above vertical lines depict the existence of fossil forms of each of the major groups of plants and animals as they exist in the various geological strata. There is a noted absence of interconnecting forms (evolutionary tree branches), and the fossils appear "suddenly" at the Cambrian. (From W. Harland: THE FOSSIL RECORD)

Flood Fossil Order

A flood would create, in general, a fossil order from simple to complex due to hydrodynamic selectivity, ecological zonation, and attempts to flee to higher elevations. A flood might also explain the frequent contradictions to this general order.

Fossil human and dinosaur footprints along the Paluxy River in Glen Rose, Texas. This shows that man and dinosaurs lived at the same time.

Squashed Trilobites

This shoe impression, showing heels, has trilobites squashed in the toe and heel. Actually, there is only one imprint that has split in half like a book. The arrow points to the trilobite in the heel. (Courtesy C. Burdick)

- HOUSE (ORDERED EFFECT) DEMANDS A COMPETENT CAUSE-- INTELLIGENCE
- COMPUTER SYSTEM (MORE DEMANDS A COMPETENT CAUSE-- MORE INTELLIGENCE)
- LIFE (A VASTLY ORDERED DEMANDS A COMPETENT CAUSE-- VAST INTELLIGENCE)
- CHAOS AND DEGRADATION DEMANDS A COMPETENT CAUSE-- NATURAL, MINDLESS SPONTANEOUS PROCESSES

Bones in 100 Million Year Old Rock. This is one of two skeletons found in rock that is age-dated at 100 million years old. Note articulations. (F. Barnes, Moab, Utah)

Thus we have the conundrum: If oxygen were in the primitive atmosphere, life could not have arisen because the chemical precursors would have been destroyed through oxidation; if oxygen were not in the primitive atmosphere, then neither would have been ozone, and if ozone were not present to shield the chemical precursors of life from ultraviolet light, life could not have arisen. The evolutionist is in the position of "not being able to live with it, and not being able to live without it!"

Atmospheric Puzzle

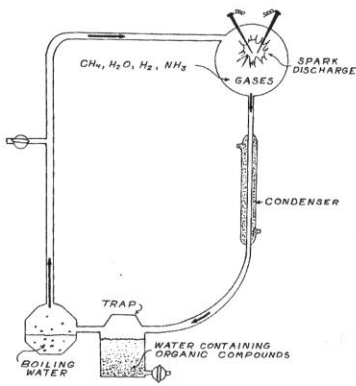

(Photo by C. L. Burdick)

CONTEMPORANEOUS FOOTPRINTS OF MAN AND DINOSAUR.

ie tracks were both cut from the Paluxy River Bed near Glen Rose, Texas, in osedly Cretaceous strata, plainly disproving the evolutionist's contention that the saurs were extinct some 70 million years before man "evolved."

Canopy Implications
 These two drawings depict hypothetical atmospheric conditions before and after the flood. In pre-flood times the water canopy would be and after the flood, the earth from short-wave radiation; (2) trap long-wave radiation near the earth; (3) thicken the ozone canopy due to the entrapment of ozone-destroying long-wave radiation under the canopy; (4) level temperatures--greenhouse effect; (5) high longevity due to decreased mutations. With the loss of the canopy after the flood we would expect (bottom): (1) ozone buildup on earth; (2) increased short-wave radiation on earth; (3) temperature differentials yielding winds, rain, freezing and baking; (4) a drop in longevity due to increased ozone, radiation and mutations.

Spark Discharge Apparatus

In the Miller-Urey apparatus, the gases, methane, water, hydrogen and ammonia are subjected to spark discharges. These gases were supposedly the major gases of the primitive earth's atmosphere. The spark discharges are suggested to simulate lightning bolts. The products of the spark move into a trap as it is believed the early organic chemicals would have fallen into the oceans.

CRITERION	SIMILAR	DISSIMILAR
EYE ANATOMY	MAN-OCTUPUS
HEART ANATOMY	MAN-PIG
PRONATOR QUADRATUS	MAN-JAPANESE SALAMANDER
FLAGELLUM	MAN-RODENT
ACETYLCHOLINE
HISTAMINE	MAN-PLANT
BLOOD SPECIFIC
GRAVITY	MAN-FROG	MAN-MONKEY
RED BLOOD CELL
CONCENTRATION	MAN-FISH	MAN-SHEEP
HEMOGLOBIN	MAN-ROOT NODULES
ABO AND RH BLOOD
FACTORS		MOTHER-CHILD
CALCIUM-PHOSPHORUS
CARBONATE	MAN-TURTLE	DOG-CAT
CYTOCHROME C	MAN-SUNFLOWER	MOLD-SUNFLOWER
	MAN-BULLFROG	RATTLESNAKE-FROG

Similarity Contradictions

There are many similarities that can be used to support proposed evolutionary relationships. However, the argument from similarity cannot be consistently applied since some similarities and dissimilarities contradict evolutionary relationships.

	HAN TRANSGRESSES	DIVINE DESTRUCTION	FAVORED FAMILY	ARK PROVIDED	WATER DESTRUCTION	HUMAN SEED SAVED	ANIMAL SEED SAVED	UNIVERSAL DESTRUCTION	LANDING ON MOUNTAIN	BIRDS SENT OUT	SURVIVORS WORSHIP	DIVINE FAVOR ON SAVED
ASSYRIO-BABYLONIA (A)	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
ASSYRIO-BABYLONIA (B)	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
PERSIA (A)	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
PERSIA (B)	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
SYRIA	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
ASIA MINOR	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
GREECE	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
EGYPT	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
ITALY	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
LITHUANIA	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
WALES	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
SCANDINAVIA (A)	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
SCANDINAVIA (B)	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
LAPLAND	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
RUSSIA	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
CHINA	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
INDIA (A)	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
INDIA (B)	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
ALASKA	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
ESQUIMAUX(CANADA)	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
THLINKUT (A)	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
THLINKUT (B)	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
CREE	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
CHEROKEE(C. S.)	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
MANDAN	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
LENNI LENAPE	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
TAKOBI	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
PAPAGO(CHEIKO)	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
NICHOGAN	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
TOLTECS	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
AZTECS	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
NICARAGUA	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
PERU	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
BRAZIL	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
LEWARD ISLANDS	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
FUJI ISLANDS (A)	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
FUJI ISLANDS (B)	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
ANDAMAN ISLAND	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
HAWAII	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
SUMATRA	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X

Fossil Graveyards: The Agate Springs, Nebraska fossil Graveyard contains about 9000 fossil animals in one hill (Rhinoceroses, camels, pigs, etc appear here).

SCIENTIFIC DISCIPLINES ESTABLISHED BY BIBLE-BELIEVING SCIENTISTS

Flood Legend Features
The above chart depicts principle ideas from flood traditions of some cultures around the world that hold non-Biblical accounts. The 'X's' represent either partial or full representation of Biblical features. (Modified from B. Nelson, (Ref. 22) p. 189)

Fossil perch preserved in the act of swallowing a herring. Found in Eocene varves of Fossil Lake Wyoming. Rapid burial must have occurred to preserve this act.

Niagara Falls today showing part of the 7 mile gorge that has, until recently, been cut at about 4 to 5 feet a year. Dotted lines show the position of the Falls at the time of Lyell's visit in 1841. (Ontario Ministry of Tourism and Recreation). 405

Discipline	Scientist
Antiseptic Surgery	● Joseph Lister (1827-1912)
Bacteriology	● Louis Pasteur (1822-1895)
Calculus	● Isaac Newton (1642-1727)
Chemistry	● Robert Boyle (1627-1691)
Comparative Anatomy	● Georges Cuvier (1769-1832)
Computer Science	● Charles Babbage (1792-1871)
Dimensional Analysis	● Lord Rayleigh (1842-1919)
Dynamics	● Isaac Newton (1642-1727)
Electronics	● John Ambrose Fleming (1849-1945)
Electrodynamics	● James Clerk Maxwell (1831-1879)
Electromagnetics	● Michael Faraday (1791-1867)
Energetics	● Lord Kelvin (1824-1907)
Entomology of Living Insects	● Henri Fabre (1823-1915)
Field Theory	● Michael Faraday (1791-1867)
Fluid Mechanics	● George Stokes (1819-1903)
Galactic Astronomy	● William Herschel (1738-1822)
Gas Dynamics	● Robert Boyle (1627-1691)
Genetics	● Gregor Mendel (1822-1884)
Glacial Geology	● Louis Agassiz (1807-1873)
Gynecology	● James Simpson (1811-1870)
Hydraulics	● Leonardo da Vinci (1452-1519)
Hydrography	● Matthew Maury (1806-1873)
Hydrostatics	● Blaise Pascal (1623-1662)
Ichthyology	● Louis Agassiz (1807-1873)
Isotopic Chemistry	● William Ramsay (1852-1916)
Natural History	● John Ray (1627-1705)
Non-Euclidean Geometry	● Bernhard Riemann (1826-1866)
Oceanography	● Matthew Maury (1806-1873)
Optical Mineralogy	● David Brewster (1781-1868)
Palentology	● John Woodward (1665-1728)
Pathology	● Rudolph Virchow (1821-1902)
Physical Astronomy	● Johann Kepler (1571-1630)
Reversible Thermodynamics	● James Joule (1818-1889)
Statistical Thermodynamics	● James Clerk Maxwell (1831-1879)
Stratigraphy	● Nicholas Steno (1631-1686)
Systematic Biology	● Carolus Linnaeus (1707-1778)
Thermodynamics	● Lord Kelvin (1824-1907)
Thermokinetics	● Humphrey Davy (1778-1829)
Vertebrate Paleontology	● Georges Cuvier (1769-1832)

The smaller six-foot ingested fish, Gillicus, shows no Sign of digestion by the larger 14 footfish, Portheus. Was burial rapid or slow?

CREATION - EVOLUTION EVIDENCE

1. BIOCHEMICAL STEREOSPECIFICITY
2. PROTEIN AND DNA PROBABILITIES
3. DNA AND INFORMATION SCIENCE
4. EFFECT OF MUTATIONS
5. GENETIC AND FOSSIL FIXITY
6. LACK OF TRANSITIONS
7. REVERSION TO TYPE
8. BIOCHEMICAL BIAS
9. COMPLEX ORGANS AND RELATIONSHIPS
10. SELFISH NATURAL SELECTION VS SELFLESS REPRODUCTION
11. MASS ACTION VS AQUEOUS SYNTHESIS
12. SECOND LAW OF THERMODYNAMICS
13. NEED FOR INTELLIGENT MANEUVERINGS IN EXPERIMENTS
14. REDUCTIONISM
15. LAW OF BIOGENESIS
16. EFFECT OF TIME
17. LIFE VERIFIED TO ONLY ABOUT 3000 BC
18. FOSSILS LOOK LIKE MODERN FORMS
19. PRE-CAMBRIAN VOID
20. FIRST LAW OF THERMODYNAMICS
21. EFFECT CANNOT BE GREATER THAN CAUSE
22. PRESENT-DAY UNIFORMITY
23. FOSSIL GRAVEYARDS SUGGESTING CATASTROPHY ETC. . . .

1. Glycine
2. D-Alanine
3. D-Valine
4. D-Leucine
5. D-Isoleucine
6. D-Serine
7. D-Threonine
8. D-Cysteine
9. D-Cystine
10. D-Methionine
11. D-Glutamic Acid
12. D-Aspartic Acid
13. D-Lysine
14. D-Arginine
15. D-Histidine
16. D-Phenylalanine
17. D-Tyrosine
18. D-Tryptophan
19. D-Proline
20. D-Hydroxyproline

- L-Alanine
- L-Valine
- L-Leucine
- L-Isoleucine
- L-Serine
- L-Threonine
- L-Cysteine
- L-Cystine
- L-Methionine
- L-Glutamic Acid
- L-Aspartic Acid
- L-Lysine
- L-Arginine
- L-Histidine
- L-Phenylalanine
- L-Tyrosine
- L-Tryptophan
- L-Proline
- L-Hydroxyproline

CREATION:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

EVOLUTION:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

There are about 20 different amino acids. Each amino acid, except glycine, can exist in both D and L stereoisomer forms. Did all these form by chance and fit together perfectly in DNA?

To decide between evolution and creation, we list the evidence supporting each model. We accept the model with the greatest evidence, and reject the model contradicted by the data.

The hammer pictured above was found in limestone rock dated by evolutionists at 300 million years old. It was found near London, Texas. The hammer is man made. What does this prove? It proves that man lived when limestone was laid down. Was it 300 million years ago? No. It was laid down in the Flood.

A palaeontological expedition to Mongolia in 1971, discovered the fossilized remains of two dinosaurs locked in mortal combat. They were buried in this position when they both perished in a sudden watery catastrophe. That both creatures died while fighting was confirmed by the clawed hands of Velociraptor – a meat eating dinosaur – were still grasping the armoured skull of a plant-eating Protoceratops. Even the claws on one foot of Velociraptor were positioned on top of the other animal's skull to gain better leverage to attack its victim. The huge, powerful beak of Protoceratops had buried itself within the soft underbelly of Velociraptor.

Odd, lumpy universe disturbs cosmologists

The universe is out of shape. It should be symmetrical and smooth with an occasional wrinkle, but a new portrait reveals unsightly bulges which have cosmologists scratching their heads. "It looks like God made the universe and then dropped it", cosmologist Paul Davies said of the image or "map". Specifically, the lopsided shape doesn't fit with the idea that the universe expanded abruptly and symmetrically in the instant after the big bang, 13.7 billion years ago. The troublesome map was produced by a team led by University of Pennsylvania astrophysicist Max Tegmark. They created it using data collected by the Wilkinson Microwave Anisotropy Probe, launched in 2001. But what's going on has Professor Tegmark baffled: "It's very bizarre" he said. Weekend Australian, March 8,9, 2003.

5. Flood Traditions. Every ancient culture has a Flood tradition. A survey of 120 tribes in North, South and Central America found every one to have a flood tradition. A post-Flood population would carry Flood ideas with them as they scattered across the world. Flood accounts of isolated groups would change over time, but the basic ideas of a universal Flood, safety in a ship, with few people surviving would survive. Noah's ark would have been almost impossible to capsize, having a length to width ratio of 6 to 1 (ie. 300:50 cubits).

Consider these Flood traditions, so similar to the Bible:

a) Babylon: Berosus (300 BC) tells of the archives of the temple of Marduk:

Xisuthros, a king, was warned by one of the gods to build a ship, and take into it his friends and relatives and all different kinds of animals, with all necessary food. Whereupon he built an immense ship, which was stranded in Armenia. Upon subsidence of the Flood, he sent out birds; the third time, they returned not. He came out, built an altar, and sacrificed.

b) Egyptians had a legend that the gods at one time purified the earth by a great Flood, from which only a few shepherds escaped.

c) Greek tradition: Deucalion, warned that the gods were going to bring a flood upon the earth, for its great wickedness, built an ark, which rested on Mount Parnassus. A dove was sent out twice.

d) Hindu tradition: Manu, warned, built a ship, in which he alone escaped from a Deluge which destroyed all creatures.

e) Chinese tradition: Fa-He, founder of Chinese civilization, is represented as having escaped from a Flood sent because man had rebelled against heaven. He and his wife, 3 sons and 3 daughters were spared.

f) England: Druids had a legend that the world had been re-peopled from a righteous patriarch who had been saved in a strong ship from a Flood sent to destroy man for his wickedness.

g) Polynesians have stories of a Flood from which 8 people escaped.

h) Mexicans: One man, his wife and children, were saved in a ship from a worldwide Flood.

i) Peruvians: One man and one woman were saved in a box that floated on the flood waters.

j) American Indians: Various legends, in which 1, 3 or 8 persons were saved in a boat above the waters on a high mountain.

k) Greenland: The earth once tilted over, and all men were drowned, except one man and one woman, who re-peopled the earth. (International Standard Bible Encyclopaedia). Calculations show that Noah's Ark only needed to be half-full to carry pairs of all kinds of land animals and food.

l) The Epic of Gilgamesh: George Smith of the British museum found in tablets from the library of King Assurbanipal at Nineveh, Flood accounts very similar to the Bible's. These accounts were copied from tablets of the First Dynasty of Ur (2200 BC), which when later found contained expressions such as: "the age before the Flood". Gilgamesh, living about 200 years after the Flood, tells how he visited Noah on the island of Utnapishtim, who tells the story of the Flood and his escape, as follows:

"The assembly of the gods decided to send a Deluge. They said, On the sinner let his sin rest. O man of Shuruppak, build a ship, save your life. Construct it with six stories, each with seven parts. Smear it with bitumen inside and outside. Launch it upon the ocean. Take into the ship seed of life of every kind. I built it. With all that I had I loaded it, with silver, gold, and all living things that I had. I embarked upon the ship with my family and kindred. I closed the door. The appointed time arrived. I observed the appearance of the day. It was terrible. All light was turned to darkness. The rains poured down. The storm raged like a battle charge on mankind. The boat trembled. The gods wept. I looked out upon the sea. All mankind was turned to clay, like logs floating about. The tempest ceased. The flood was over. The ship grounded on Mt. Zazir. On the seventh day I sent out a dove; it returned. I sent out a swallow; it returned. I sent out a raven; it alighted, it waded about; it croaked; it did not return. I disembarked. I appointed a sacrifice. The gods smelled the sweet savour. They said, Let it be done no more."

5. EFFECTS OF THE FLOOD

It is impossible to understand anthropology and geology without understanding the effects of the Flood. Evolution is based on uniformitarianism. Creation explains geological features on the basis of Flood catastrophism. Evolutionary uniformitarianists declare that all geological features were caused by gentle processes and natural forces that are operating today.

Uniformitarianists find difficulty in explaining the causes of:

- 1) mountain building
- 2) geosynclines
- 3) petroleum
- 4) coal measures
- 5) glaciation
- 6) world wide warm climates especially at the poles.
- 7) mineral deposits
- 8) peneplains (mountains flattened by erosion)
- 9) saline deposits, nor can they explain the nature of
- 10) overthrusting
- 11) vast volcanic terrains
- 12) continental uplift processes
- 13) metamorphism
- 14) granitization
- 15) extinction of whole faunas.

Evolutionary Uniformitarianists have difficulty explaining the cause of:

- 1) Immense fossil graveyards. 75% of land is covered by sedimentary rocks which contain many billions of fossils of plants and animals that died suddenly. Yet fossilization does not normally occur today, because it requires sudden death, immediate burial and great pressure. This is exactly what happened in the Flood. Fossil deposits like the 800 billion vertebrate fossils in the Karro Beds off Africa are not forming today. Immense fossil beds such as dinosaur graveyards in the Gobi Desert, Agate Springs Quarry in Nebraska, the Rockies, Black Hills, Sicilian hippopotamus beds, etc, being thrown together in disorderly masses can only be explained by a worldwide Flood. As with many animals, dinosaurs gathered together in times of danger. The rising floodwaters finally overtook and buried them in “dinosaur graveyards”. In the Dinosaur National Monument in Utah and Colorado, over 300 dinosaurs have been excavated.
- 2) Dinosaur Extinction. Most species are already extinct. What caused all the dinosaurs to become extinct so quickly? The worldwide Flood explains this perfectly.
- 3) No Transitional forms between species in the past or today. If evolution was true, we’d expect millions of transitional fossils, but we find none. Why? Because evolution never happened. Each twig on the imaginary plant and animal “family trees” is a distinct plant or animal type, with no intermediate life forms to connect the twigs. There are no branches, no trunk, only twigs. The rest of the tree is imaginary.
- 4) PreCambrian Void of Fossils. Beneath Cambrian strata, we find no fossils at all because the Pre-cambrian void was the Pre-Flood basement rocks. This is astonishing & disappointing to evolutionists.
- 5) Sudden Explosion of Life in Cambrian Strata. The lowest stratum with fossils is called “Cambrian”, having at least 1500 species of complex invertebrates, all marine of which 60% are trilobites and 30% are brachiopods. Why did so much complex life suddenly appear? Answer: They didn’t evolve, but being the slowest moving creatures, they were buried first in the rising flood waters.
- 6) Fossil Placement is from slow moving creatures in the lowest strata to faster moving creatures in higher strata, and not from simple to complex creatures. This, along with many misplaced fossils show that the Creation/Flood model better explains fossil placement.
- 7) Polystrate Fossil Trees extending vertically through up to 20 feet of multiple rock strata. These trees were quickly covered by the strata, otherwise each tree would have decomposed while waiting 100,000 years for strata to form around it. From top to bottom, these trees sometimes span “millions of years” of strata. Obviously, both the trees and sediments around them were deposited at the same time. The Flood easily explains this, but evolutionary uniformitarianism cannot possibly explain it. In May 1980, the explosion of Mount St. Helens filled Spirit Lake with vertically floating logs due to the weight of their roots. In the Flood, as vertically floating logs washed into an area, they were covered rapidly by sediment, thus forming polystrate fossil trees.

8) Coal and Oil Formation. Most geologists agree that coal came from ancient plants and oil came from ancient marine animals. Neither coal nor oil is being formed naturally today. No coal or oil is found in Pleistocene (ice-age) deposits, but instead was quickly laid down during the Flood. “Petroleum occurs in rocks of all ages from the Cambrian to the Pliocene, but no petroleum has been formed naturally since the Pliocene.” (Ben B. Cox, Bulletin of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists, May 1946, p.647).

Question: Why did no petroleum form after the Pliocene era?

This is a mystery to evolutionary geologists, but it is no problem to Flood geology.

Answer: From the beginning of the Cambrian to the end of the Pliocene was when the Flood produced all the oil and coal reserves. Because of Flood conditions, other things were also deposited in those coal strata, such as boulders, fossil trees, and shale and sandstone strata in between coal deposits.

9) Overthrusts. Evolution requires that strata with fish fossils (of “older evolutionary age”) will be underneath strata with land animal fossils (of “younger evolutionary ages”). Instead, we find examples of what evolutionists call “overthrusts” with “older fossil bearing strata” on top of “younger fossil bearing strata”. Evolution is totally baffled by this reversal of strata sequence.

Question: How can the Swiss Matterhorn and North American Appalachians rest on top of what evolutionists think is younger strata?

Answer: The Flood turbulence explains this easily as follows:

At some point, some land animals and plants (evolutionary younger) were covered by Flood-borne sediments. Then, during the Flood, waters with fish (evolutionary older) were carried in from some distant location and deposited in a pile of sediment above the land creatures.

10) Worldwide Flood Legends.

Races and tribes from all over the world have traditions about a great Flood that covered all the earth.

a) One survey of 120 tribal groups in North, Central and South America revealed Flood traditions in each group. (International Standard Bible Encyclopedia, Vol. 2, p.822).

b) Another survey of ancient literature lists 41 nations with Flood legends, including:

Assyria, Babylon, Alaska, Asia Minor, Aztecs, Brazil, Cherokee, China, Egypt, Eskimo, Fiji, Greece, Hawaii, India, Italy, Lithuania, Nicaragua, Mexico, Persia, Peru, Russia, Scandinavia, Sumatra, Syria, Wales, etc. (“The Deluge Story in Stone”, B. Nelson (1968)).

c) Sir James G. Frazer in “Folklore in the O.T.” (1919), Vol. 1, p.146-330) lists 143 ancient Flood records, including: 11 from ancient Greece, 6 from Europe, 29 from Persia and India, 31 from Australia, Southeast Asia and the Pacific, 63 from North, Central and South America and 3 from Africa. (“Symposium on Creation IV, (1972), p.36-38, Donald W. Patten).

11) Chinese language characters record ancient Biblical Flood and Creation details, such as:

a) Boat in Chinese, combines the words vessel and eight (Genesis 7:7,13; 8:13).

b) Rebellion and Confusion in Chinese, combine the words tongue and walking, reminding us of the scattering of mankind at the Tower of Babel (Genesis 11:4-9).

c) Devil in Chinese, combines the words man, garden and private, reminding us of the temptation of man in the garden of Eden (Genesis 3:1-7). (‘God’s Promise to the Chinese’, Nelson, Chock, Broadberry, 1997).

II. PRE FLOOD CONDITIONS

12) Warmer climate. “And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters. God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were UNDER the firmament (ocean) from the waters which were ABOVE the firmament (water vapour canopy).” Genesis 1:6,7

The firmament separated the water canopy above the earth from the ocean below on the earth.

A great pre-flood water canopy would imply several things, much of which is scientifically verifiable:

a) Greenhouse Effect world-wide. The water canopy would have captured long-wave radiation (heat) to heat the earth. Similarly, the dense clouds of Venus give it an even temperature. We have pole to pole evidence that the pre-flood world was subtropical. Under the ice caps we find palm leaves, fruit trees, vast subtropical forests, tropical marine creatures, and coal beds, all explained by a pre-flood water canopy. Fossil-bearing rocks from all “ages” were laid down during a warm climate worldwide, with none of today’s climate zones.

b) Arctic fossils are similar to those of low latitudes. (W.J. Miller, An Introduction to Historical Geology (1952), p. 116).

c) Large coal deposits are found in Antarctica, proving that it once had a warm climate with much vegetation and large trees.

d) In Alaska and the Arctic Circle have been found fossilized mangroves, palm trees, a 90 foot high plum tree with green leaves and ripe fruit, mammoths, sabre tooth tigers, etc.

13) Lower Sea Levels. In the past, the ocean basins filled up with water, as seen by extinct volcanoes hundreds of feet under today’s sea level with their tops flattened off (seamounts). What caused them? Answer: Volcanic activity began before the Flood ended. These volcanoes in the ocean basin had their summits eroded away by storm and wave action as sea levels reached their summits. The oceans kept filling and rising, and the horizontal tops became submerged.

14) Coral Atolls are also explained by rising Flood sea levels. Coral only grows within 200 feet of the ocean surface, yet the remains of earlier coral are found much deeper in the ocean. As oceans neared their present level, coral atolls were built above seamounts.

15) Similarities between plants and trees in Brazil and West Africa imply that the South Atlantic did not exist as a broad ocean before the Flood.

III. POST FLOOD EFFECTS

16) Submarine Canyons are found just where our major rivers enter the oceans. Many of these V-shaped canyons are extensions of major rivers, such as the Amazon Canyon, the Hudson Canyon, the Ganges Canyon, the Indus Canyon and the Congo Canyon. What forces could gouge out canyons that are sometimes 15,000 feet below sea level? These canyons could only have formed if the ocean level was then lower, and was gradually filled by floodwaters pouring from the skies through these rivers, then the ocean floors sank.

17) Underwater River Channels on the ocean floor. Modern sounding equipment has revealed many river beds extending from the continents on the ocean floors, e.g. the Congo river runs 145 miles under the Atlantic ocean, the Hudson river has dug a channel 90-300 miles under the Atlantic Ocean.

18) Large River Gorges with small streams. In the past, these rivers carried a far greater volume of water, as seen by the many large boulders left in these gorges. Evolutionists think a little stream cut through solid rock over millions of years to produce these gorges.

These rocks were not hard rock when first laid down by the flood, but soft mud and loose sand. The gorge was created by great quantities of this soft mud being washed away by enormous volumes of floodwaters receding in the few years after the Flood.

19) Sedimentary rock strata worldwide were all laid down during and after the Flood by its immense wave and storm erosion.

20) Mountain Building. There were no high mountains before the Flood. “all the high hills, that were under the whole heaven, were covered. Fifteen cubits upward did the waters prevail; and the mountains were covered. And all flesh died.” (Genesis 7:14-21).

Mountain building includes the production of our present folded and volcanic mountains and ranges, as well as raising of continental masses and sinking of ocean basins.

On the basis of fossil evidence, most scientists believe that most of our mountain ranges uplifted during the Pleistocene or late Pliocene periods (both of which occurred shortly after the flood). E.g. Alps, Andes and Himalayas mountains rose and sea basins sank. Water flowed into these basins, and under its great weight they sank even further.

Rock strata being water-logged and pliable folded up, down, sideways or was overturned, giving rise to our present great, non volcanic mountain ranges. Most of the floodwaters (now in the oceans) came from underground, not from the skies (Genesis 7:11). This up-swelling of water in giant geysers caused violent upheavals underground. The ground became folded, crunched and twisted as it adapted to the huge forces unleashed, leading to continents rising and seafloors sinking.

21) Vulcanism. Flood water coming from underground, most likely would have been accompanied by volcanic eruptions. The volcanic ash shooting up into the water canopy would have provided the dust necessary to condense the water canopy into rain drops, thus causing the 40 days of rain.

Genesis 7:11 gives this as the order of events: “the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened”.

Vast volcanic action would produce huge lava flows. This would explain the origin of today’s Indian Deccan Plateau containing volcanic rock two miles deep, as well as the Igneous American Columbian plateau in NW USA covering 200,000 square miles and averaging 3000 feet deep.

When water came out of the ground, rocks shifted to fill these gaps, leaving huge cracks down which water flowed and contacted molten magna. The release of so much water from deep underground caused immense low and high pressures within the earth. Rocks shifted to fill these gaps, leaving huge cracks down which water flowed, hitting the molten rock.

This caused exploding jets of lava to pour out of the earth’s surface, producing thousands of volcanoes. For example, in 1883, the volcanic island of Krakatoa developed a sideways crack, through which seawater poured, flowing down the main vent hole. This caused the explosion which was heard 4800 kilometres away, produced tidal waves 130 feet high and drowned 36,000 people on nearby islands. It caused a worldwide temperature drop lasting 5 years. There are thousands of extinct volcanoes at Pleistocene (Flood) levels worldwide.

Oozing lava built India’s Deccan Plateau which in some places is 3 km deep. No ancient volcanic lava beds are ever found below the Cambrian level, because the Cambrian marks the beginning of the Flood. Volcanic action occurred during and after the Flood as seen from pillow lavas formed when lava ejects from underwater volcanoes. Pillow lava is the most abundant volcanic rock on earth.

22) Ice Age. There are over 10,000 extinct land and underwater volcanoes worldwide. During the Flood they poured out so much smoke that they darkened the sky, resulting in rapid cooling of the earth. These pollutants would have remained 16-50 km high for many years, triggering the Ice Age. A four-fold increase in atmospheric dust could decrease average surface temperature by 3 derees C. Rapid cooling caused by thousands of volcanic explosions during and after the Flood, brought on the Ice Age.

23) Animals frozen at the Poles implies catastrophe, not uniformitarianism. In Siberia and Alaska, millions of mammoths and other animals have been snap-frozen in ice in some areas, and deposited in watery graves in other areas. These mammoths died suddenly, in intense cold and in great numbers. Death came so quickly that the swallowed vegetation is yet undigested in their stomachs and mouths. The Bereskova Mammoth of Siberia had edible flesh. Its stomach contained 30 pounds of undigested subtropical vegetation, and its mouth was full of partly chewed food. The time between death and freezing can be determined accurately by the extent of water separation within the cell. Water begins to separate within the cell at death, and ceases to separate at freezing. The small extent of separated water indicates that they were rapidly frozen at temperatures below –150 F.

Question: What dropped the mammoths so quickly with such unearthly cold?

Answer: Frozen food experts say that these mammoths must have been frozen at well below –150F. Sled dogs have been in Arctic blizzards under –80F for days without freezing.

Even the centre of these mammoths were snap frozen and undecomposed. These cold temperatures exist in Jupiter’s satellites Callisto, Ganymede, Io and Europa, as well as in Saturn’s icy rings, crust and satellites, along with Uranus and Neptune. If icy particles nearing –200F were deposited on earth from such a cosmic visitor, this could produce a great icy avalanche of supercooled ice that would immediately asphyxiate these animals, freezing their lungs solid. They would drop immediately followed by death and freezing within minutes. Wrangel, the explorer, observed on Bear Island (Medvizhi Ostrova) that the soil consisted of only sand, ice and so many mammoth bones that this seemed to be the chief substance on the island. Ice is conically stacked in places at 15,000 feet deep in the Arctic and 10,000 feet deep at Byrd Station in Antarctica. The Catastrophism model suggests that:

a) the ice was transported across the solar system in a comet-like orbit to the Earth-moon region.

b) the second phase was a deflection of the cold, icy particles by earth's Van Allen radiation belts. These electrically charged particles of ice were redirected over the magnetic polar regions, reducing their velocity, causing them to descend over a vast magnetic polar area and concentrate in different locations during their descents, thus forming the centres or nodes of the ice mass and the snap freezing of all living things in the area. The effect of this was to:

- i) completely condense the pre-flood water vapour canopy that allowed tropical climates at the poles.
- ii) increase the earth's inclination from perpendicular to 23 ½ degrees.
- iii) ultimately raise sea levels by 350 ft to 450 ft.
- iv) flood the continental shelves.
- v) cause orogenic uplift in the Pacific rim and Himalayas.
- vi) cause a bleeding of lava, forming new basalt plateaus on several continents.
- vii) cause a rash of over 10,000 new volcanoes which further reduced temperatures worldwide.
- viii) cause glacial scouring.
- ix) increase ocean salinity due to increased rainfall and water running off continents and rivers.
- x) Bury billions of animals and trillions of plants, many being preserved today as fossils.
- xi) cause early human civilization to develop in glacier free areas such as Egypt, Mesopotamia, India and China. As the Ice Age retreated, civilization spread further.
- xii) Make human survivors and their early generations very catastrophe-minded.
- xiii) Ice sheets moved southward down the continents causing the Ice Age and glaciation.
- xiv) Reduced human longevity. See graph.

24. Glaciation. There is abundant evidence that northern Asia, all of Canada, and about 25% of USA were once covered by glacial ice. These were caused by:

- a) The darkening of the skies by volcanic dust,
- b) The loss of earth's thermal blanket, the water vapour canopy, which gave the pre Flood world a greenhouse effect. These glaciers scoured solid granite and left dumps of sediments and boulders at their sides and ends.

25. Sudden Warming. After the Flood, volcanic activity declined, the volcanic dust settled back to earth, and much of the earth warmed up again, causing a rather rapid receding of the glacial sheets. Sudden warming quickly increased the melting of ice, draining of glacial lakes, and water runoff through rivers and deltas into the oceans.

26. Radiation, Size, Longevity. The pre-Flood water canopy and great ozone canopy would have greatly shielded the earth from short-wave (high frequency) gamma, x-rays, and UV radiation. (This would have invalidated C-14 production and hence C-14 dating before the flood). These harmful rays cause mutations, and ageing. If these rays were largely kept out, we would expect greater health, lifespan and possibly size of pre-flood creatures. Some pre-Flood insects had 2 foot wing spans. Some birds had 30 foot wing spans. Some dinosaurs weighed 50 tons. Some humans had feet 20 inches long. Today we are seeing larger squids in some areas due to higher carbon dioxide levels associated with global warming.

Conclusion: The facts taken as a whole point to a worldwide Flood and not to long ages of sedimentary strata production and evolution through transitional species.

The Chinese ideographs prior to the simplification of the written language in 1948, showing how the symbols were combined to form the specific word "Ark" in the context of the Genesis Flood. (Kang and Nelson 1979)

6. ASSUMPTIONS IN RADIODATING.

Evolutionists rely heavily on radiometric dating to give them the billions of years required for evolution to have any chance of happening. Major radiodating methods are:

i) Uranium – Thorium – Lead dating, based on the decay of Uranium and Thorium into Radium, Helium and Lead.

ii) Rubidium – Strontium dating based on the decay of Rubidium to Strontium.

iii) Potassium – Argon dating based on the decay of Potassium into Argon and Calcium.

These dating methods are only accurate if certain assumptions always apply to every specimen tested, these assumptions being:

i) Each system must be closed from any contamination of the parent or daughter products, from water, chemicals, changing radiation from space or rock pressure.

ii) In the beginning there were no daughter products in the sample, only elements at the top of the radioactive chain were present. For example, all the U238 had no lead 206 in it; and no lead 206 existed anywhere else.

At creation, all things were created with the appearance of age. Radioactive minerals would be partially decayed on the first day. How far decayed? No one knows.

Evolutionists think that Polonium only occurred as a daughter product of Uranium decay, yet Robert Gentry's studies show that Polonium 218 was in granite when it was created in solid form.

It is impossible to know what was initially in any given sample of radioactive mineral.

iii) The decay rate must have always been the same, and never have changed.

The decay rate of any radioactive mineral can be altered:

a) If the mineral is hit by high energy particles from space (such as cosmic rays, neutrons, etc)

b) If there is, for a time, a nearby radioactive mineral emitting radiation.

c) If physical pressure is applied to the radioactive mineral.

d) If certain chemicals contact it.

iv) If any changes occurred in the past in earth's atmospheric protecting blanket. Cosmic rays, photons, high energy mesons, etc. enter our atmosphere continually, some travelling up to 100 metres underground and 1400 metres underwater. If our atmosphere was more heavily water saturated than today, it would produce a major change in radioactive minerals decay rates. Before the Flood, there was much more water in the air.

v) The Van Allen radiation belt encircling the earth about 450 miles above us is intensely radioactive. It emits 3000-4000 times as much radiation as cosmic rays entering the earth.

Any change in the Van Allen belt would greatly affect the decay rate of radioactive minerals. But we know little about this belt or whether it has changed in the past, since it was only discovered in 1959.

vi) John Joly of Trinity College, Dublin found evidence that the long half-life minerals have varied in their decay rate in the past. This would invalidate all possibilities of age calculation by radioactive methods. (A.F. Kovarik, Bulletin 80, National Research Council, June 1931, p. 107).

Why we cannot trust Uranium – Thorium – Lead Dating Methods.

3 types of U/Th dating are:

a) Uranium 238 decays to Lead 206, with a half-life of 4.5 billion years.

b) Uranium 235 decays to Lead 207, with a half-life of 0.7 billion years.

c) Thorium 232 decays to Lead 208, with a half-life of 14.1 billion years.

1) Contamination: Lead could be mixed in with the Uranium or Thorium (Faul, Nuclear Geology, 1954)

2) Leaching: Some of the Uranium and its daughter products could have leached out. Lead can be leached out by weak acid solutions.

3) Neutron capture: Lead 207 (thought to have been formed only by decaying Uranium 235), could have been formed from Lead 206 by capturing free neutrons from neighbouring rocks. Also Lead 208 (thought of as forming only by Thorium 232 decay) could have been formed by capturing free neutrons from Lead 207. Lead 208 could have formed by capturing free neutrons from Lead 207. Cooke extensively checked this, and discovered that almost all radiogenic lead in the earth's crust could have been produced by neutron capture instead of by Uranium or Thorium decay. This alone totally invalidates Uranium and Thorium dating methods.

4) Intense heat damages radiodating clock settings.

Evolutionists think the earth was originally molten, yet molten rocks produce wild variations in radioactive materials clock settings.

Question: “Why do the radioactive ages of lava beds, laid down within a few weeks of each other, differ by millions of years?” (Electromagnetics and the Appearance of Age, Glen R. Morton).

Why we cannot trust Potassium Argon dating:

Radioactive potassium decays into calcium and argon gas.

1) Argon gas has been found to quickly leave the mineral, escaping into other rocks and the atmosphere. (G.W. Wetherill, Science, Sep. 20, 1957, p.545).

2) Potassium can be leached out of rocks.

Rancitelli and Fisher found that 60% of potassium can be leached out of an iron meteorite by distilled water in 4.5 hours. (Planetary Science Abstracts, 1967, p.167).

Heavy rainfall transfers potassium from one location to another.

It is unbelievable – but true – that potassium-argon dating is a key dating method used to date sea floor spreading from ocean bottom basalt lava.

Key: Submerged volcanic rocks, produced by lava flows in 1800-1801 off the coast of Hawaii near Hualalai were dated using potassium-argon dating to range from 160 million years to 2960 million years (Science, Oct.11, 1968; Journal of Geophysical Research, July 15, 1968).

Note: Just one major catastrophe – such as a worldwide Flood would have ruined the usefulness of all our radiodating methods because of:

i) Massive contamination problems as water, chemicals and radioactive substances moved from one place to another.

ii) Major Radioactive rate changing activities (such as atmospheric, magnetic and radioactivity changes) would have reset the radiodating clocks.

iii) Redistributing of rock pressure above radiogenic rocks would have reset their clocks.

iv) Reversals of the earth’s magnetic core was caused by shock waves from surface events such as earthquakes, volcanoes, giant geysers, seafloor shrinking, and massive mountain building.

Note: H.C. Dudley, in laboratory tests, changed the decay rates of 14 different radioisotopes by varying the pressure, temperature, magnetic field strength, stress, etc.

(H.C. Dudley, “Radioactivity Re-examined”, Chemical and Engineering News, April 7, 1975, p2).

All these forces operated during and after the Flood. They would have dramatically affected rocks radioactive clocks, thus invalidating all radiometric dating methods used today.

7. REFUTING EVOLUTIONARY EVIDENCE

Many High School and University Biology textbooks continue to give evidences of evolution which have been disproved years ago. Examples include:

1. False Transitional Forms. There are no examples of any species changing to another species, but evolutionists claim 6 examples hoping that people will be ignorant enough of scientific discoveries to believe evolution’s claims. Remember that changes within a species is not evolution.

a) The Horse Series. Evolutionists have selected a variety of different sized animals, arranged them from small to large, and called them a “horse” series. A leading evolutionist says: “The uniform continuous transformation of Hyracotherium (Eohippus) into Equus, so dear to the hearts of generations of textbook writers, never happened in nature.”

(G.G Simpson, Life of the Past, (1953), p. 119). Note these problems with the “Horse Series”:

i) The number of rib bones does not agree with the sequence. The 4 toed Hyracotherium has 18 pairs of ribs, the next creature has 19 pairs, the next has 15 pairs, and Equus has 18 pairs of ribs.

ii) Never found in consecutive strata. Nowhere in the world are the horse series fossils found in successive strata.

iii) Recent fossils below earlier fossils. In South America, the “more recent” one-toed animal is found below the “more ancient” three-toed creature.

- iv) Evolutionists call a badger a horse. The first horse (Hyracotherium or Eohippus) is like our modern rock badger (hyrax) now living in Africa, with a suction cap on its feet to climb trees.
- v) There are over 20 different fossil horse sequences in different museums worldwide.
- vi) You could show the same size increase by comparing small to large dogs, which we know do not show transitional forms across species.
- b) Archaeopteryx is a bird, not a transitional form between a reptile and a bird.
Archaeopteryx occurs in only 2 clear fossils found in 1861 and 1877 in Solnhofen quarry, Germany in Jurassic limestone (supposedly 150 million years). 2 possibilities about Archaeopteryx are:
- A) It is a bird, not a transitional half reptile, half bird, because:
- i) Scientists declared it a bird at the International Archaeopteryx Conference in Eichstatt, Germany in 1982, and not a reptile or half reptile/half-bird, and not the ancestor of modern birds.
 - ii) How could reptile scales turn into feathers? Evolutionists cannot explain how this could happen.
 - iii) Bones like a bird. It had thin, hollow wing and leg bones as a bird.
 - iv) Not earlier than birds. It does not predate birds because other bird fossils have been found in the same Jurassic strata as archaeopteryx.
 - v) It has modern bird feathers. (Science 203 (1979), p. 1020, A. Feduccia and H.B. Tordoff).
 - vi) It has no intermediate feathers from scales to feathers, nor have these ever been found.
 - vii) It has well developed wings designed for flight, with asymmetric feathers. Flying birds have more feather on one side of the shaft than non flying emus, ostriches, etc.
 - viii) No prior transitional forms from reptile to archaeopteryx. It has fully developed bird wing bones and flight feathers.
 - ix) Other birds had teeth as well as Archaeopteryx. (P.Moody, Intro. to Evolution (1970), p.196-197)
 - x) Modern birds below it. 2 crow sized birds were discovered in the Triassic Dockum Formation in Texas, which according to evolution, would be 75 million years older than Archaeopteryx. (Nature, 322, Aug.21, 1986, p. 677; Science, 253, July 5, 1991).
- B) Archaeopteryx may be a hoax. In 1985 some of the leading scientists in England (Fred Hoyle, R.S. Watkins, N.C. Wickramasinghe, J. Watkins, R. Rabilizirov and L.M. Spencer) declared Archaeopteryx to be a carefully contrived hoax (British Journal of Photography, March-June 1985) because of slab mismatch, cement blobs being left on the fossil during the feather etching process, and the feather markings had been carefully imprinted on the fossil by an unknown hand.
- c) Domestic Animals like dogs and pigeons. Scientists acknowledge that all dogs descended from a common dog ancestor and that all dogs are still dogs. All biologists classify dogs as being in the same species, yet there are far greater differences among dogs than there are among Darwin's finches. There are many sub-species of domestic animals such as dogs, cats, cattle, sheep, pigeons and chickens due to selective breeding. Man cannot cross-breed different species, including apes. Pigeon fanciers have bred many colour variations of pigeons, but all these pigeons can still interbreed and are still pigeons. All pigeons are sub-species of the basic species type known as the rock dove.
- d) Flies and Bacteria resistant to DDT are claimed to be evolutionary changes by "natural selection" (really "natural variation"). Some flies have become resistant to DDT, and some bacteria have become resistant to antibiotics. But here again, the flies are still flies, and the bacteria are still bacteria. No species change occurred. When DDT is stopped, soon the various strains return.
- e) Peppered Moths in England are the most often discussed evolutionary "proofs" of natural selection. If this is the best example of evolution, then surely evolutionists have no case. There can be light and dark peppered moths, but they are still peppered moths. They are just variations within a species (Biston Betularia). This is not evolution, but simply a change in the ratio of black and white moths within a stable species. No new species results. "Since it begins and ends with peppered moths and no new species is formed, it is quite irrelevant as evidence for evolution". (On Call, July 2, 1973, p.9).
- Note: Variation within a species is not evolution.
- When Harrison Matthews wrote the introduction for the 1971 edition of Darwin's "Origin of Species", he denied evolution in several respects, especially of the peppered moth:

“The (peppered moth) experiments beautifully demonstrate natural selection – or survival of the fittest – in action, but they do not show evolution in progress, for however the populations may alter in their content of light, intermediate, or dark forms, all the moths remain from beginning to end (Biston betularia).” (page xi).

Anyhow peppered moths do not normally land on the sides of trees.

Evolutionary photos were made of dead moths pasted onto the sides of trees.

f) Galapagos Finches. The DNA gene pool within a given true species can be broad enough to produce hybrids, varieties or sub-species. This is why Darwin’s finches on Galapagos Island, can produce bills of different length. When Darwin visited the Galapagos Islands, 600 miles from the South American mainland, he found several different finches, which had developed some different habits and diet. Little crossbreeding between these 14 finch varieties occurred. Yet they were still all finches (Geospizinae). These finches had blown in from South America, adapted to their environment, and produced several sub-species. Darwin was certain that this showed cross-species evolution (change into new species). But they were still finches. This was his main evidence of evolution that he brought back to England. Darwin, knowing nothing about genetics and the DNA boundary to changes across basic types, imagined a new species had occurred. In reality they were sub-species of single parent species that in the past, had reached the island from South America, yet Darwin called them different species, and therefore claimed them to be a proof of evolution.

2. Comparative Anatomy or Similar Structures.

A major problem for evolutionists is that evolution is not occurring now, and the fossil record shows that it has not occurred in the past. Similarities in plants and animals show that:

a) A single Designer made creatures with similar designs, because of the purpose they must fulfil.

b) Not because they are related or evolved from each other, eg.

i) Similar designs of big spoons, little spoons and ladles do not prove they evolved from each other, but that they were designed to fulfil a similar purpose.

ii) Similar designs of automobiles such as Ford, Toyota, Nissan, BMW do not prove they evolved from each other but that they were all designed to travel along roads, be sat in, carry engines & luggage.

Key: Similarities only show that we have the same Creator.

Evolutionists use these examples of similar structures to prove evolution.

i) Xylem: “Ferns, conifers and flowering plants all have vascular tissue, including conducting vessels (xylem) which transport water throughout the plant. This suggests that these plant groups had a common ancestor”. (High School Biology textbook, K. Mudie, J.Brotherton).

Answer: This similarity arises because it is the best way for these types of plants to grow, so the Designer used this basic pattern for nearly all trees. Plants do not have the intelligence to decide how they shall be structured.

ii) Pentadactyl limb: This is the “5-boned” arm and leg found on most land vertebrates.

Evolutionists think that they inherited this from aquatic ancestors, lobe-finned fish.

Question: Why would all vertebrate arms and legs have a pentadactyl limb?

Answer: Because it is the best design. There is no better way to design a simpler limb with such a wide range of movement. The same Designer made them all.

iii) Aortic arches: All blood flowing out of the heart first flows up through the aortic arch, then branches into 4 main arteries to produce 5 aortic arch patterns. If evolution were true, then all animals in each of these 5 aortic arch types would be closely related to each other, but this is not the case as is seen from animals in each group, such as:

- Animals with the first type of aortic arch are: horse, goat, donkey, zebra, cow, sheep, pig, deer.
- Animals with the second type of aortic arch are: whale, mole, shrew; porpoise, hedgehog.
- Animals with the third type of aortic arch are: skunk, bear, kangaroo, rat, raccoon, dog, possum, squirrel, beaver, mouse, wombat, porcupine, cat, weasel.
- Those with the fourth type of aortic arch are: dugong, some bats, sea cows, platypus, echidna, man.
- Animals with the fifth type of aortic arch are: walrus and African elephants.

Question: Do these show any coherent evolution? No.

Question: Does this prove that humans evolved from echidnas? No.

iv) Other similarities which disprove evolution:

- The eye of man and octopus are very similar.
- The heart of man and pig are very similar.
- The concentration of red blood cells of man and fish are very similar.
- The specific gravity of blood of man and frog are very similar.
- The structure of hemoglobin of man and root nodules are very similar.
- The cytochrome C in the cell of man, sunflower and bullfrog are very similar.

v) Blood Serum test for antibodies is used to support evolution but other inconclusive tests are ignored. Blood serum tests of man and animals give varying percentages of precipitation. Kangaroo is 0%, and man is 100%. According to this evolutionary “proof”, man descended from apes, which descended from sheep, which descended from deer, which descended from horses, which descended from kangaroos, which descended from nothing.

vi) DNA count in relation to size. Surely the DNA count of various creatures will increase in relation to their size. Consider these examples:

Colon bacteria 0.0047; yeast 0.07; snail 0.67; sea urchin 0.90; chicken/duck 1.3; carp 1.6; green turtle 2.6; cattle 2.8; man 3.2; toad 3.7; frog 7.5; lungfish 50; amphibian 84.

Man is not at the top of the list as evolution would require.

Note: By calling an impossibility “evolution”, does not make it possible.

3. Comparative Embryology (Haeckel’s Theory of Recapitulation).

Definition: “Comparative Embryology is the study of different animals’ embryos, looking for similarities that suggest a common ancestry. All chordates have embryonic gill pouches.

Only in fish and amphibian embryos do these develop into gills. Why do human embryos possess gill pouches? Evolutionists think that we inherited them from an aquatic ancestor”.

(High School Biology Textbook K. Mudie, J. Brotherton, p.278, (2000)).

i.e: Human embryos are said to repeat or “recapitulate” various stages of their ancestors evolution, such as “gill slits” representing the fish stage, the “yoke sac” representing the lizard/reptile stage.

Answer: a) The human embryos “yoke sac” makes the blood until bones develop to make blood, whereas a bird “yoke sac” is the food source a chick lives on until it hatches. Human and bird “yoke sacs” have completely different functions. They only look alike.

b) The human embryos “3 small folds” are not gills or slits implying human evolution from fishes, but the upper fold will develop into the middle ear canals, the middle fold will become the parathyroids, and the bottom fold will become the thymus gland.

c) The human embryos “tail” is not a tail implying human evolution from reptiles, but the forming spine from which muscles attach. Yes, it is true that we were once small round things, but this does not prove we evolved from marbles or ball-bearings.

Comparative embryology just looks at the outside appearance instead of finding the real reason these structures are there. Ernest Haeckel in 1866 first championed this false idea calling it the “Law of Recapitulation” or “Biogenetic Law”. Haeckel in 1868 and 1874 published fraudulent charts to prove his “law”. Haeckel had drafting ability, and he carefully redesigned embryo pictures so they would look alike. Haeckel faked human embryos to look like a dog embryo, when they are quite different.

The following scientists exposed Haeckel’s frauds:

i) Wilhelm His, a German embryologist and father of modern embryology, exposed Haeckel’s hoax in a detailed 1874 paper (Unsere Korperform), concluding that Haeckel was dishonest and discredited.

ii) F. Keibel, professor of anatomy at Freiburg University (1915), said, “it clearly appears that Haeckel has in many cases freely invented embryos or reproduced illustrations in a substantially changed form”.

iii) At Jena, 5 professors at Haeckel’s University charged him with fraud. He was convicted by a university court.

- iv) His deceit was thoroughly exposed in a book by J. Assmuth and Ernest Hull, entitled “Haeckel’s Frauds and Forgeries” (1915). They quoted 19 leading authorities of the day opposing Haeckel.
- v) In 1997, Dr. Michael Richardson, an embryologist at St. George’s Medical School in London, assembled a scientific team that photographed the growing embryos of 39 different embryo species. In a 1997 interview in the London Times, Richardson said this about Haeckel: “This is one of the worst cases of scientific fraud. It is shocking to find that somebody one thought was a great scientist was deliberately misleading. He copied a human embryo, pretending that the salamander, pig and all the others looked the same at the same stage of development. They don’t.....these are fakes.” (Michael Richardson, quoted in “An Embryonic Liar”, The London Times, August 11, 1997, p.14). In spite of such full disclosure, Haeckel’s “biogenetic law” and fraudulent drawings continue to be printed in school textbooks to today, deceiving millions of teens. Embryonic similarities point to a single Creator, not to a common ancestor.
- vi) In 1921, Professor Walter Garstang in a famous paper destroyed Haeckel’s unsound theory of recapitulation. Those educational institutions that continue to teach comparative embryology are not educational institutions, but are institutions for miseducation.

4. Chemicals of Life formed on Primitive Earth.

Evolutionists have tried to guess what chemical conditions on a primitive earth would spontaneously generate life from non-life.

In 1953, at the University of Chicago, Miller and Urey mixed ammonia, hydrogen, methane and water vapour to simulate earth’s early atmosphere. After one week of subjecting this to electrical discharges they found that some amino acids had formed. Later if Hydrogen Cyanide was added, more amino acids formed.

Question: Does this prove evolution of amino acids to living creatures?

Answer: No, for these reasons:

- 1) Evolution is teaching spontaneous generation, a Dark Ages error that life came from non-life, which was refuted over 140 years ago by Louis Pasteur (1860). Evolutionists change the name to “biopoiesis” so students won’t suspect anything.
- 2) Urey and Miller only produced dead chemicals, not life. Just because amino acids are in living things, does not make them living.
- 3) There are over 2000 complex enzymes required for a living organism, yet not one of these could have been formed on earth in 20 billion years. (Fred Hoyle, New Scientist, 19 Nov. 1981). Urey and Miller only produced a few small amino acids, and no enzymes.
- 4) If by remote chance a living creature was formed, it had to have all its parts working perfectly on day one of its existence, or it would have died and killed any evolutionary process. Its reproductive organs would have to have been working perfectly.
- 5) It would have had to find a mate who by chance had also evolved that same day with all its parts also working perfectly on Day one of its existence, including reproductive organs.
- 6) Both living creatures would have wanted to reproduce and their offspring would have had to have both the ability and desire to reproduce.
- 7) Urey and Miller’s amino acids were formed in million dollar, well-equipped laboratories, by highly intelligent, skilled staff using purified chemicals, not in an impure, oxygen rich, seashore environment.
- 8) The Law of Mass Action (that chemical reactions move from high to low concentration), would have water hydrolysis any proteins formed, back to the original amino acids, which would then break down to separate chemicals. A research team, at Barlian University in Israel, said that this complication would make synthesizing only one protein totally impossible at one chance in 10¹⁵⁷. They concluded that no proteins were ever produced by chance on earth.
- 9) Not just a few, but hundreds of thousands of amino acids would have to exist long enough and know how to form themselves into correct sequences of complex DNA and proteins.
- 10) Chemical compounds in living creatures were meant to be inside them, not outside them where they would be quickly destroyed.

11) Without water loss, proteins cannot form in water. Lab technicians do not use seawater or freshwater to prepare dead amino acids.

12) It is well known that chemicals of life will decompose if oxygen is in the air. Oxidation causes these amino acids to break down to individual chemicals again.

“With oxygen in the air, the first amino acid would never have gotten started: without oxygen, it would have been wiped out by cosmic rays.”

(Francis Hitching, The Neck of the Giraffe) (1982), p.65). Because oxygen will break down amino acids, evolutionists are forced into deciding that earth’s primitive environment had no oxygen, (called a “reducing atmosphere”), and that later on, oxygen entered the atmosphere so that life could breathe.

A “reducing atmosphere” could have had carbon dioxide, methane, hydrogen, ammonia and nitrogen. An “oxidizing atmosphere” such as now exists, has carbon dioxide, water, nitrogen and oxygen.

Here are some reasons against a primitive reducing atmosphere:

- i) If life evolved in a reducing atmosphere, it would immediately die from lack of oxygen. Plants would die from lack of CO₂. No chlorophyll or food would be produced.
- ii) Oxidized iron (ferric oxide) occurs in early rocks, proving the atmosphere had oxygen back then.
- iii) No ozone layer. With no atmospheric oxygen (O₂), there would be no ozone (O₃) either, which would allow solar UV light to destroy any life that may be formed.
- iv) Deadly Peroxides. A reducing atmosphere would produce peroxides through photolysis of water, which would kill any evolving life. (Abelson, “Some Aspects of Paleobiochemistry” in “Annals of NY Academy of Science”, 69, 1957, p.275).
- v) Water means oxygen. There is much oxygen in water and in the atmosphere. Electricity will dissociate water to oxygen and hydrogen. This disproves the origin of life by evolution. (R.T. Brinkman, “Dissociation of Water Vapour & Evolution of Oxygen in the Terrestrial Atmosphere”. Journal of Geophysical Research, 74, 1969, p.5366).

Do evolutionists think that ancient earth had no water?

Conclusion: Evolution by spontaneous generation of life from chemicals could not occur with oxygen or without oxygen.

13) There is more to a living organism than chemical compounds, proteins and fatty acids in a typical animal. There are thousands of very complicated, very different enzymes which scientists do not know how to produce. There are also massive DNA and other coding problems which no scientist has ever synthesized.

14) One minute after an animal dies, it still has all its chemicals, proteins, fatty acids, DNA & codes, but it no longer has life. Scientists cannot produce life. How do they expect rock & seawater to do so?

15) Amino acids do not occur naturally in rich enough concentrations. For example, phosphorus is needed to form DNA, and nitrogen is needed to form amino acids, but phosphorus and nitrogen concentrations are too low in nature.

16) Even if evolution could produce an animal, it would need a living food source made just as rapidly.

17) Most evolutionists do not understand how complex life really is. How could all these features happen by accident, when intelligent scientists cannot reproduce them by design in laboratories?

i) Q1: Have you ever tried to synthesize in a lab just one complex molecule found in an average tree? The tree makes large quantities of it in hours, at room temperature and pressure, but intelligent scientists using high temperature and pressure cannot make some tree molecules in 1 year.

ii) For evolution to succeed, the total organic and cellular complexity of a species had to be invented by chance - and it had to do it fast-within seconds, or the creature would immediately die.

iii) A cell has a nucleus, which contains chromosomes, which contains genes, which contain DNA, which contains the genome (or gene pool of all a species traits). A human adult contains about 100,000 billion cells. DNA contains phosphate, deoxyribose and 4 types of bases called adenine, guanine, thymine and cytosine. The number and order of these bases are unique for each species. DNA divides at about 1000 base pairs per second. DNA is a massive databank, with indexes, electrical polarity, and instructions when and where to switch between cellular processes.

Q2: What is the mathematical possibility of just one DNA molecule forming by chance?

Answer: An average protein may include 300 amino acids. The DNA gene controlling this has about 1000 nucleotides. There are 4 kinds of nucleotides in a DNA chain. A DNA chain of 1000 links could exist in 4^{1000} different forms (10^{600} forms).

Q3: How could random action produce the right combination out of 10^{600} possibilities for "error"? In addition, proteins, enzymes, fats, carbohydrates, etc would have to instantly form at the same time in an organism – and then be endowed with life. Without life, none of these raw materials, even if arranged in correct order, would function. Then this “evolved animal” would need food, air, water, reproductive organs and a mate to propagate life.

Consider this example: Each haemoglobin molecule contains protein with the correct sequence of 574 left-handed (L) amino acids. In living tissues, the L form of amino acids is found. In lab synthesis, equal amounts of left handed (L) and right handed (D) forms of amino acids are formed. There is no way to synthesize the L form in a laboratory by itself.

18) Enzyme systems do not work in the body, until they are all there. Did all enzymes of an organism evolve at once? No way!

19) Before advanced computers were developed in the 1970s, evolutionists could glibly say, “Given enough time and enough chance, living creatures could form from seawater and lightning.” Today, computer scientists program into computers all the factors involved in evolving life and conclude that regardless of how much time was allotted for the processes, evolution could not produce life forms.

The probability of forming 124 specifically sequenced proteins of 400 amino acids each is 1 chance in $10^{64,489}$ ie: 1 with 64,489 zeros after it. Hence it is impossible to randomly form proteins, DNA, amino acids or cells.

8. DID HUMANS EVOLVE FROM APE-LIKE ANCESTORS?

Evolution’s gift to mankind is the lie that we are just animals, only slightly removed from apes, with no moral standards, no laws worth obeying, no future, no hope & no God to comfort us in sorrow or death. From first grade of school, children are taught that we evolved from cavemen, their “proof” being supposed half-man/half-ape remains.

Question: Is it true that these skeletal remains have been found? Is man really related to apes?

Answer: a) Man’s DNA is different from apes and monkeys.

b) Man’s number of vertebrae are different from apes and monkeys.

c) Man’s cranial (brain) capacity is very different from apes. Compare orang-utans and chimpanzees (275-500cc), gorillas (340-752cc), with man (1100-1700cc).

d) Man walks habitually upright. Great apes do not.

Question: If man is the same as 1 million years ago, why did he only leave writings, buildings and artefacts since 3000 BC?

Key: Early civilizations were advanced, but occasionally, groups would migrate to new areas and for a time live in “stone age cultures” until they could build cities. Cavemen wandered from warm to colder climates and chose to live in caves for a time before building homes in their new land.

Diodorus Siculus (in 60 BC) wrote of primitive people living in caves along the shores of the Red Sea. That both advanced civilizations and primitive cave cultures lived at the same time, does not prove human evolution from another species. This coexistence of advanced & primitive peoples occurs today.

Question: Were these bones belonging to human ancestors via evolution? Consider the following:

1) Neanderthals. In 1856, workers blasted a cave in the Neander Valley, near Dusseldorf, Germany to discover limb bones, pelvis, ribs & skullcap inside. Virchow, a German anatomist, said that the bones were those of modern men afflicted with rickets and arthritis, because of bowed legs caused by lack of sunlight.

a) Neanderthals apparently lived at a time when there was not as much sunlight. The Ice Age came due to volcanic dust pollution worldwide which reduced sunlight. European weather at the time was cold enough to force people to stay in caves so they received even less sunlight.

b) In 1973, H. Israel showed that modern humans living to extreme age develop Neanderthal features such as heavy eyebrow ridges and an elongated cranial vault (1600cc). There is definite evidence that they were several hundred years old. This correlates well with Bible records in Genesis 11 of long human lifespans from the Flood to Moses. (Arphaxad lived 438 years, Salah 433, Eber 464, Peleg 239, Reu 239, Serug 230, Nahor 148, Terah 205, Abram 175).

c) In 1908 a Neanderthal skeleton was found in Poland, buried in a suit of chain armour not yet fully rusted. (“Neanderthal in Armour”, Nature. April 23, 1908, p. 587).

d) They had well developed art, culture and religion. Most scientists agree that Neanderthals were just humans who lived in caves for a time. School textbooks have not yet caught up with this.

2) Cro-Magnon Man. Some Cro-Magnon skeletons have been found since 1868 in France in a cave. Some were over 6 feet tall, with slightly larger cranial volume than humans today. Some were artists. They kept astronomy records. They were normal humans, not apes, nor transitions from ape to man.

Q1: Why is it that each time, only one specimen is found? Why not hundreds? If these are our ancestors, there should be millions of such specimens.

Q2: Why are only small pieces of bone found for each specimen – never a complete skeleton? The less that is found, the easier it is to make unfounded extrapolated claims for it.

Q3: If these bones are supposed to be “1 million years old”, why did they not decay in damp Europe, Kenya and China? How could million year old bones possibly be found in damp earth?

3) Java Man. Found by Eugene Dubois in 1891 consisted of a skullcap, a femur 50 feet away and 3 teeth some distance away. Dubois assumed that:

a) All these bones were from the same individual, b) They were 1 million years old, c) So he told people it was “half human/half ape”, and called it “Pithecanthropus erectus” (erect ape man). Humans were found buried nearby. The small skullcap portion could fit a human or a gorilla. Most scientists think it was a human skull portion, but school textbooks still cite it as about 500,000 years old.

4) Pittdown Man, found in 1912, fooled the scientific world for 40 years until 1953 when Weiner and Oakley showed it to be a hoax. Someone had put an ape jaw with a human skull, filed the teeth and stained them to appear as an ancient matching set.

5) Australopithecus, and Ramapithecus is the name given to some ape bones found in Africa.

They are all apes. Oxnard and Zuckerman concluded that Australopithecus is an ape, not human, nor a transition between the two. “Lucy” (an Australopithecus) found in Ethiopia in 1975 had a chimp-sized skull (450cc) and “was surprisingly short-legged”. (Time, 7 Nov.1979, p.68).

6) Nutcracker Man (Zinjanthropus) was found in 1959 by Lois Leakey in Olduvai Gorge, East Africa. Its jaw was much larger than its skull. This was probably another case of mismatched skull parts. Its skull was ape-like. Because tools were found nearby, Leakey decided it was halfhuman.

A human skeleton was found above it in 1913. In 1961, its skull was dated by the inaccurate Potassium-Argon method at 1.75 million years. In 1968, the same skull was dated by the more accurate Carbon-14 method at 10,100 years. Eventually Leakey conceded that it was just another ape skull.

7) Peking Man was found in 1927-1936 in a Peking garbage dump with thousands of animal bones. These human bones totalled 14 skulls, 11 jawbones, 147 teeth and a couple of small arm bone and femur fragments along with stone tools. These were human bones with smaller brain capacity (1000cc, which some people have today). They had prominent Neanderthal brow ridges, which some people have today. The openings of the skull bases had been widened and smashed, as if someone had wanted to scoop out the brains. No pelvis or ribs were found. All the skulls disappeared during WWII in 1941. In the 1950s, Ernst Mayr renamed them as Homo Erectus and grouped them with Java Man.

Conclusion: All these bones look only like ape bones or human bones, but never transitional forms.

9. THE MAN - ANIMAL GAP

Evolutionists say that man is just another animal because we have evolved from other animals.

The Bible says that man is specially created in the image of God to have dominion over the animals.

Little is discussed about the differences between man and animals. Consider these differences:

1. Only man can benefit from accumulated knowledge passed on to the next generation as history.

2. Only man is religious.

3. Only man has an innate sense of morality, of right and wrong, of violated conscience.

4. Only man makes and uses fire and tools.
5. Only man produces art.
6. Men sing, apes don't.
7. Only man communicates abstract thoughts in sentences, writes, invents and composes.
8. Only man conceptualises eternity.
9. Only man surrounds death with ceremony and funerals.

ANTE-DILUVIAN AND POST-DILUVIAN PATRIARCHS

10. Man is unique physically, biochemically, neurologically, posturally with an upright heel-toe walk. How could these have evolved? Man is so far above animals that he could not have evolved from them. This graph shows how human lifespans dropped from about 900 years before the Flood to today's lifespans after the Flood, as depicted in Genesis chapters 5,11.

10. WAS ANCIENT MAN PRIMITIVE as EVOLUTION CLAIMS?

Evolution pictures modern man as very smart, and ancient man as an unintelligent primitive animal-like creature. This is flattering to the ego of modern man and makes evolutionists proudly feel that they are at the top of an advancing evolutionary chain. But is this true?

Was ancient man unintelligent? Evolution incorrectly pictures ancient man as an ape-like creature called Australopithecus, Cro-Magnon, Neanderthal, Homo Habilis, Homo Erectus etc. who did nothing significant for 3 million years, then around 2500 BC suddenly began to build cities and be civilised. Maybe man never was around for 3 million years if he left nothing behind to show for it. Archaeology shows ancient man as very intelligent, even able to do things that we cannot do today.

Question: Why the sudden explosion of intelligence and culture around 2500BC?

A. Because this represented early post-Flood civilisation. The pre-flood civilisation was destroyed in Noah's Flood of 2418 BC, according to Bible chronology.

Question: What about cavemen?

A. Primitive tribes of men have existed in the past just as they do today. They were not the first humans, but degenerate off-shoots of mainline human culture.

Job 30:5-8 discusses cavemen: "They were driven forth from among men.....To dwell in the cliffs of the valleys, in caves of the earth and in the rocks." Many ancient civilisations peaked in culture, but were destroyed after violence, gross immorality, human sacrifice (abortion) and demonism (occult) appeared.

Question: Where did Cain get his wife?

A. He married one of his sisters. "Adam ...he begat sons and daughters". (Genesis 5:4).

The law forbidding marrying a sibling was not given until Moses in 1500 BC.

Question: How intelligent and capable was ancient man?

A "Nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do". (Genesis 11:6).

Question: What artefacts did he leave to show his intelligence?

1. Metallurgy. "Tubal-cain, an instructor of every artificer in brass and iron". Genesis 4:22.

At the foot of Mount Ararat in Turkey, Russians have found hundreds of ancient ruined smelting furnaces for bronze, copper, tin. Source: K. Megertchian, Bible Science Newsletter, Feb 1978, page 3.

Some metal Egyptian artefacts of 2000BC have been electroplated with gold.

Source: 'Ancient Electroplating', 1933 Annual Log, Scientific American Publishing Co, New York, p.85

2. Corrosion Resistant Chinese Sword

Metal swords buried for 2200 years in a Chinese Emperor's Tomb had been treated with a preservative that had prevented any corrosion. These swords were alloys of tin, copper, magnesium, nickel, cobalt and 10 other elements. Source: National Geographic, April, 1978.

3. Diamond Tipped Iron Cutting Tools

"The sin of Judah is written with the pen of iron, and with the point of a diamond". Jeremiah 17:1 (601 BC). 20th Century industry was not the first to discover diamond cutting tools.

4. Printing a Book using Iron or Lead Letters

"Oh that my words were now written! Oh that they were printed in a book!

That they were graven with an iron pen and lead in the rock forever." (Job 19:23,24).

Sceptics once doubted Moses' (1500 BC) ability to write. Here we see Job (maybe 2000 BC) thinking of printing a book using iron or lead letters, which is what we use today.

The evolutionary idea that ancient earthlings were too primitive to develop technology on their own, gave rise to Erik von Daniken's book "Chariots of the gods" where he suggests that superior aliens brought this technology to earthmen from outer space.

Solomon tells us that there is nothing new under the sun. "There is no new thing under the sun. Is there anything whereof it may be said, See, this is new? it hath been already of old time, which was before us. There is no remembrance of former things...." (Ecclesiastes 1:9-11).

He is saying that our new inventions have already existed in ancient times, and that we have forgotten them. Job said a similar thing: "For inquire, I pray thee, of the former age...." (Job 8:8).

Long lifespans allow for greater knowledge. Job 12:12 says:

"With the ancient is wisdom; and in length of days is understanding".

How much science, technology, commerce and industry could develop if people like Einstein, Getty, Isaac Newton, and Da Vinci, lived for 900 years?

If the Flood occurred in 2418 BC, this date compares well with man's oldest civilised records going back to about 3500 BC. These ancient civilisations appear in an advanced state, without any trace of primitive generations leading up to them. This contradicts evolution.

5. The Great Pyramid of Cheops. This is one of the oldest buildings on earth. Imagine the engineering technology required to mine and transport such heavy stones (2 million x 21/2 tons each block), as well as have no movement in the foundation over 4000 years.

6. Pyramid of the Sun, near Mexico City is 216 feet high. Its base is 720 feet x 760 feet (Cheops is 750 x 750 feet). Some think that there may be 100,000 pyramids in Mexico.

7. Mayan solar year.

The ancient Mayans of Central America calculated a solar year to be 365.2420 days long. Only recently have astronomers calculated it to be 365.2422 days.

Source: National Geographic, December 1975, v.148:6, P.783.

8. The Piri Reis Map of 1513.

This map was copied from more ancient maps going back to before Christ. The curious thing about this map is that it outlines the actual land coastline of Antarctica. Today the south pole ice pack permanently covers the Antarctic coastline so that the land coastline is not visible. Only in 1953 by modern technical methods was Antarctica's land coastline charted. How could they chart the coastline in 1513? Source: Ancient Man: A Handbook of Puzzling Artefacts. W.R. Corliss p.88.

9. Phoenician Language Stone in West Virginia USA.

This stone found in 1838, had Phoenician writing inscribed on it used in Spain before Christ. How did it get to the USA? Source: "America B.C." Barry Fell, Simon and Schuster, N.Y. 1976 p.21.

10. Ancient Polynesians had colonised every habitable island in the Pacific Ocean by 30 AD.

They knew how to navigate by the stars and by ocean currents. Modern man had only discovered these navigation techniques recently. These Polynesians had methodically covered over 15 million square miles of open sea. Source: National Geographic, "Polynesians", December 1974.

11. Easter Island.

The early Polynesians who settled Easter Island carved over 600 smoothly sculptured heads out of iron hard volcanic rock, some weighing 90 tons. Most are 12 to 15 feet high, one being 40 feet tall. How were they carved and moved several miles from their quarry? What was their purpose as they look over treeless plains? “World’s Last Mysteries”, Readers Digest, 1967, p.94.

12. Ancient Ceramic Battery. in the Baghdad Museum. This ceramic jar contains a copper cylinder suspended in the jar. This copper cylinder had an iron core inserted in it. When grape juice was put in the jar containing the copper cylinder and iron core, it produced an electric current of 1.5 volts. Ancient people used electricity because electroplated relics have been found dating back to 2400 BC, just after the Flood. “Electric Batteries of 2000 Years Ago”, H. Schwalb, Science Digest, V.41, p.17, April 1957.

13. Solomon’s 3 Year Ship Voyages. I Kings 10:22 in 1000 BC. Solomon joined with King Hiram of Phoenicia to send ships on 3 year voyages to bring imports from distant lands. Where did they go to? Was it Africa, America, or India? If the Polynesians mastered the Pacific ocean by 30 AD, why couldn’t the Phoenicians cross the Atlantic, which was a shorter distance?

14. Ziggurat at Ur, Iraq (2100 BC). The tower of Babel built just after the Flood was a Ziggurat.

15. Giant Stones of Tiahuanaco in Bolivia.

In Bolivia, high in the Andes mountains at 13,000 feet, are the ruins of Tiahuanaco, containing massive stone stairways built seemingly to accommodate a race of large people. Some walls are 16 feet x 26 feet x 1 foot thick. Other stones weigh from 10 tons to 100 tons each. The stones were quarried and moved from 60 miles away without wheels or roads. How did they do it?

Natives in the time of the Spanish conquistadors state that: “The great stones one sees at Tiahuanaco were carried through the air to the sound of a trumpet”. Source: “The Worlds Last Mysteries,” p.138

16. 2000 Ton stone at Baalbek, Lebanon.

70 foot high columns at Baalbek dating from Roman times were quarried in Egypt, moved across the Mediterranean Sea, then over mountainous regions to Baalbek. The foundation stones are much larger. One stone measuring 14 feet x 16 feet x 66 feet, weighs about 2000 tons. Even with modern equipment we could not move it. Source: National Geographic, April, 1985.

17. 6000 Terracotta Statues of China’s First Emperor.

These statues of soldiers and horses cover 500 acres dating back to 200 BC. Every soldiers’ face has a different expression. Imagine the kilns needed to fire thousands of life sized horses.

This emperor, Chin Shih Huang Ti, codified China’s laws, standardised Chinese writing, and built canals and public roads. Source: National Geographic, April 1978.

18. Perfectly Preserved Woman for 2100 Years.

A Chinese noblewoman was perfectly preserved wrapped in 20 layers of fine silk. Her skin is still pliable, her hair was still firmly rooted in her scalp, and X-rays can identify her last meal eaten and internal organs. How did they halt natural decay processes immediately, and for so long? Printed cloth was also discovered in her burial chamber; not painted, but printed. Gutenberg simply re-discovered printing in 1450. Source: National Geographic, May 1974.

19. Glass lens from ancient Egypt was also discovered.

20. Wooden carving of an aeroplane with a vertical tail fin, and streamlined wing design was tested and found to be aerodynamically ideal for mechanised flight. Ancient people may have used flying machines. Source: “Ancient man: A Handbook of Puzzling Artefacts”. W.R.Corriss, Vol.5, p.88, 1972.

11. SCIENTIFIC DEVELOPMENTS UNKNOWN TO DARWIN, that Refute Evolution.

Had Darwin foreseen the coming scientific developments, he would have seen his theory to be in error. These include:

1. Gregor Mendel had not yet established or published his work on the laws of heredity and genetics, showing that characteristics passed from parent to offspring according to precise mathematical ratios. They do not derive by chance random processes in what Darwin called “blending inheritance.”
2. First law of Thermodynamics stating that energy can neither be created or destroyed, was only just being developed by Joule and Lord Kelvin. This showed that the universe could not have created itself.
3. Second law of Thermodynamics states that the universe is degenerating to more disorder. This shows that things do not of themselves become more organised with time, as evolution requires.
4. Louis Pasteur was just beginning his famous experiments showing that all life comes from life, never from non-life.
5. Mathematical laws of probability, showing that the chances of life occurring by chance are effectively zero, had not yet been applied to the theory of evolution.
6. Molecular biology, showing that the cell is so enormously complex (like the entire city of Sydney), that it could not possibly have formed by chance, had not yet commenced as a science.
7. The Fossil record had not yet been studied sufficiently for palaeontologists to be able to say, as they now do, that intermediate links between species do not exist.

Any one of these concepts or laws, if known to Darwin and the world in 1859 would have been enough to destroy Darwin’s evolution theory.

These 6 counter evidences show that evolution could not have taken place, while the fossil record shows that evolution did not take place.

Today, many scientists modify evolution in any way they can to get around the proofs against it.

Question: Why is evolution still popular?

Answer: Because of what the alternative involves. If the Biblical account of Creation is true, then man has sinned against God, and there will be a Day of Judgment for sinful man for rejecting Christ as Saviour and Creator. Acts 17:31 says: “He (God) hath appointed a day, in which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man (Christ) whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.”

12. BAD EFFECTS OF EVOLUTION

Human conduct is modelled on the philosophy that is accepted at the time.

Few people realise the evil far reaching social effects of the Evolution theory.

1) A New Code of Ethics. Evolution claims that people are just animals, so there is no right, no wrong, no morality, just the law of the jungle that the fittest, most ruthless, aggressive animals survive. So by evolutionary reasoning, humans may behave ruthlessly or aggressively, or any way they please. It has given society a new code of ethics of survival of the fittest, might is right and the law of the jungle, which replaces God’s law of love and service. Evolution claims that whatever enables the individual to survive is right and good for the individual and society, be it cunning or cruelty, cowardice or deceit.

Huxley believed that it was cunning and ruthlessness (violence) that enabled man to evolve from the beasts. The law of the jungle directs human progress, he thought.

This twisted thinking has resulted in the increase of youth crime today. Evolution is the greatest curse in today’s education system. This supposed beastly nature of man leads to people behaving worse than animals, broken homes, increased divorce, increase in crime and violence, all resulting from the acceptance and practice of evolution. Jesus Christ on the other hand said: “By love serve one another”.

2) Spread of Atheism among the educated masses. Evolution is atheistic, anti-Christian and anti-Bible. Evolution and Christianity are totally incompatible opposites. If evolution be true, then the Fall of Man is false, sin is necessary to survive, Christ's death and salvation are not needed. Millions of young people have lost their faith in God by studying Evolution theory. Huxley said: "Evolution, if consistently accepted, makes it impossible to believe the Bible". Evolution leads a person to a state of defiance against God as Creator and Saviour. If evolution was true, then the Christian faith is a mass of error. Sin is not evil, it is only the method evolution uses to progress. Nietzsche said: "Neither crime, cruelty, sexuality, nor intoxication need be matters of shame or repentance". To him, Christian morality was the chief obstacle preventing the emergence of a superman. Some foolish clergy endorse evolution through ignorance.

3) On Western Culture. Darwinism unleashed a moral holocaust on the world, teaching a most vicious set of moral principles that man is an animal and that the most successful animals are those that are the first to attack and destroy. Darwinism broke man's link with God and set him adrift in a purposeless cosmos, altering how men viewed themselves, from morally accountable creations of God to vicious animals accountable to nobody. Evolution provides no uplifting standards, values or morality. Darwinism is brutalising mankind today, by giving scientific sanction to bloodthirsty selfish desires. Evolution has entered every sphere of behaviour, such as business, science, education and government. The Satanist, Anton La Vey, said that Satan gave him the message that, "We are only animals, and we should do as we please". This is evolution's message. In order to make atheists of everyone, Julian Huxley taught that the schools must be controlled by evolutionists. Evolution is the greatest curse in our education system. Evolution is the social basis for intensified war, immorality, divorce and criminality, which has brought anguish to millions.

4) Marxism and Communism. Karl Marx who wrote "Das Capital", the basis of Communism, saw Darwinism as a scientific basis for his theory of social progress. Marx wrote to Engels on 16 Jan. 1861, "Darwin's book is very important and serves me as a basis in natural selection for the class struggle in history." (C. Zirkle, "Evolution, Marxism Biology and the Social Scene", 1959 p.88).

Marx wished to dedicate his book "Das Capital" to Darwin, but Darwin politely declined the offer. Yeroslavsky, a friend of Joseph Stalin wrote of him:

"Comrad Stalin began to read Darwin and became an atheist". (Landmarks in the Life of Stalin, 1940, p.8). Stalin killed millions of his own countrymen in World War II by confiscating the Ukrainian's food. Evolution is a founding principle of communism. Communists oppose and persecute Christians. Both Lenin and Stalin were ardent evolutionists, as are the Chinese Communists.

5) World Wars I and II, Militarism is based on evolution. Nietzsche, the German militarist and Haeckel helped lay the evolutionary foundations for German militarism which led to WWI and WWII. Inspired by Darwin's writings, they pioneered Nazi violence. While Lenin and Marx applied evolution to the class struggle for supremacy, Haeckel and Nietzsche applied evolution to permit Germany as the "super race" to conquer inferior races. Hitler's book titled "Mein Kampf" (1925) meaning "My Struggle", was taken from Haeckel's German translation of Darwin's phrase, "the struggle for existence". Nietzsche, the German militarist extended Darwin's principle of "survival of the fittest" to inspire his nation, as the "fittest nation" to subjugate the world by war.

Hitler applied evolution, claiming that his German race with its superior intellect and Aryan blood was best fitted to survive and control the world. He said: "The whole of nature is a continuous struggle between strength and weakness, an eternal victory of the strong over the weak". This false theory led to his and Germany's shameful defeat in 1945, thus showing the world that his philosophy was a lie, and proved the truthfulness of God's Word:

"The race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong". Ecclesiastes 9:11.

Jesus said: "The meek (not the aggressive) shall inherit the earth". Matthew 5:5.

Evolution influenced Hitler's views on the master race, genocide and human breeding experiments.

(R. Clark, "Darwin, Before and After", 1948, p.115). "Mussolini's attitude was completely dominated by evolution. In public utterances, he repeatedly used the Darwinian catchwords while he mocked at perpetual peace, lest it hinder the evolutionary process." (R. Clark, p.115).

6) Racism. The full title of Darwin's 1859 book is: "On the Origin of Species by Means of Natural Selection, or the Preservation of Favoured Races in the Struggle for Life". Leading racists have been evolutionists. Darwin and Thomas Huxley were both evolutionists and racists: "Looking to the world at no very distant date, what an endless number of the lower races will have been eliminated by the higher civilized races throughout the world".

(Charles Darwin, Life and Letters, p.318). In the 1910's, the war was against nations; in the 1930s and 1940s, the war was against races, and in the 1970's onward, the war has been against the unborn.

"Whites are higher up the evolutionary scale than blacks" is a false claim of some evolutionary thinkers.

7) Abortion and Crime. Evolutionist abortionists say to women considering an abortion: "Don't worry, the foetus is only in the fish stage". They rarely say how abortion increases breast cancer. According to evolution, there is no right, no wrong, no God, no devil, only evolution which makes all things right. Murder, lawlessness, robbery, abortion, lying, cheating, hedonism and exploitation is acceptable to evolution. By offering evolution in place of God as a cause of history, Darwin removed the theological basis of the moral code of Christendom.

13. DARWIN'S MYSTERY ILLNESS

Darwin called his book "The Origin of Species" published on November 24, 1859, "my accursed book." He thought of himself as a Devil's chaplain. His son Francis recalled him saying, "I never gave up Christianity until I was forty years of age."

In the year before publication he was rarely able to write for more than 20 minutes at a time without stomach pains. He finished the proof in between fits of vomiting. He said to his friend J.D. Hooker 10 days before the proofs were bound:

"I have been very bad lately; one leg has swelled like elephantiasis, eyes almost closed up, and covered with a rash and fiery boils. It was like living in hell. In 1864 he wrote to Hooker: "I suppose few human beings had vomited so often during the last 5 months." He lived in self doubt, fearing that he had devoted his life to a fantasy. He was too sick to attend his book launch, or to attend the debate between Thomas Huxley and Bishop Samuel Wilberforce at Oxford on June 30, 1860, or to attend the awarding of his Copley medal in 1864.

Darwin knew that his idea would destroy the faith of millions of people in God as their Creator. But what if he was wrong? How could he accept the responsibility of what effect his theory of "no accountability to God" would have on others? Symptoms of his illness included vomiting, headache, giddiness, twitching muscles and spots before the eyes. This is an anxiety-caused psychoneurosis.

14. WHY DO EVOLUTIONISTS HOLD SO STRONGLY to Theory so Lacking in Evidence?

1) Some don't like being responsible to God judging them for their sins.

2) Sexual freedom. "We objected to the morality because it interfered with our sexual freedom".

Aldous Huxley, "Confessions of a Professed Atheist", Perspectives on the News, Vol.3 June 1966, p.19

3) A Way to hide from God. "Darwinism removed the whole idea of God as the Creator of organisms from the sphere of rational discussion." (Julian Huxley).

4) It will help destroy religion.

15. Carbon-14 Dating Assumptions

Willard Libby (1908-1980) at the University of Chicago discovered the Carbon-14 dating method in 1946 to date remains of plants and animals. It is summarised as follows:

1) Cosmic rays enter earth's atmosphere and transform normal carbon (C-12) to the radioactive carbon isotope (C-14) with a half-life of 5730 years.

2) Carbon-14 atom combines with oxygen in the atmosphere, to form carbon dioxide, with C-14 in it.

3) Plants and trees absorb this carbon dioxide to make sugar by photosynthesis.

4) Animals and humans eat plants and absorb carbon dioxide. Some carbon dioxide contains carbon-14. The ratio of normal carbon-12 to radioactive carbon-14 in the air and in living things is constant until it's death when it stops taking in new carbon.

5) After death the carbon-14 decays with a half life of 5730 years while the amount of carbon-12 remains constant in the sample. By measuring the ratio of carbon-12 to carbon-14 in the sample and comparing it with the ratio in the living organism, the age of a formerly living thing may be estimated. Note: “Fewer than 50 percent of the radiocarbon dates from geological and archaeological samples in north eastern North America have been adopted as “acceptable” by investigators.” (J.Ogden, “The Use and Abuse of Radiocarbon” in the Annals of New York Academy of Science, Vol. 288, 1977, p.167-173).

Assumptions and Errors in Radiocarbon dating:

1. Atmospheric Carbon: For the past several million years, earth’s atmosphere is assumed to have had the same amount of atmospheric carbon that it now has.

Answer: We know atmospheric conditions were different in ancient times, but we do not know to what degree this would invalidate ancient dates determined by C-14 analyses.

2. Cosmic rays have reached earth in the same amount as that now.

Answer: Less cosmic rays would have entered earth’s atmosphere before the Flood due to the earth’s stronger magnetic field then and due to the water vapour canopy. This would have resulted in less C-14 forming before the Flood than is being formed now, thus giving the appearance of greater age of pre-flood plant and animal specimens.

3. Magnetic Field Strength is assumed to be constant. This assumption is false, because earth’s magnetic field strength is decaying with a half-life of 1400 years. A stronger magnetic field before the Flood would lessen the cosmic rays entering earth, lessen the amount of C-14 being formed, and give C-14 dates older than the true age.

4. Amount of Carbon-14 at death is assumed to be known. Answer: How can we know exactly how much C-14 an organism possessed at death? No one can know this for sure.

5. Water vapour canopy. If earth was warmer or contained more water in the atmosphere (caused by a water canopy, surrounding earth), then less C-14 would be produced, thus giving C-14 dates of pre-flood organisms older than their true age.

6. Volcanic activity during and after the Flood would have blocked out much cosmic rays, thus reducing the amount of C-14 being formed. Post-Flood organisms would have received less C-14 than those today, thus making those animals and civilizations appear to be much older by C-14 dating methods than their true age. With the passing of time, C-14 levels would have increased until about 1000BC, where they would have been close to today’s levels. Key: This is why radiocarbon dates back to 600BC correlate better with historically proven dates over the last 2600 years. Discrepancies still exist since 600BC. Prior to 600BC, dates given by radiocarbon analysis begin lengthening out greatly.

7. Loss of Carbon-14 from a specimen by the flood, rainfalls, oceans and below ground moisture will invalidate its C-14 age. If there is less Carbon-12, there’ll be less C-14 in a specimen.

8. Sunspot effect on C-14 production.

i) From 1100-1240AD there was high sunspot activity (cool spots) giving less C-14 production.

ii) From 1420-1530AD and from 1639-1720AD there was low sunspot activity, no aurora seen, an increase in solar wind, and higher C-14 production.

9. Libby’s Carbon-14 Discrepancy. Libby found a serious discrepancy at a certain point in past history that indicated his assumed build up of atmospheric C-14 was inaccurate. (“Evolution or Degeneration?”, H.R Seigler, 1972, p.80-81). Seigler suggests that the catastrophic effects of the Flood would explain this discrepancy along with the vast water canopy shielding earth from C-14 buildup. Before 1600BC radiodating tends to go wild. The Flood (2418BC) and abnormal post-Flood conditions explain this.

10. Carbon-14 Data points to the Flood. Millions of plants and animals died during the Flood. We would expect that C-14 dating should produce many specimens that died at about the same time.

In 1970, R. Whitelaw of Virginia Polytechnic Institute carefully compiled 25,000 C-14 dates from the research literature, of people, animals and vegetation. He charted his results which showed that deaths peaked at about 4500 years ago (about 2500BC).

This agrees well with the Bible’s date for the Flood as 2418BC. 15,000 out of 25,000 C-14 dates peaked around 2500BC. (R. Whitelaw, CRS Quarterly, 7. (1970):56).

11. Amino Acid Dating by Decomposition. Traces of amino acid still exist all through the fossil strata. This means that no fossils are millions of years old as evolution requires.

16. Big Bang Baloney- EVIDENCE DISPROVING THE BIG BANG THEORY

Did the Universe begin with a super explosion of a small mass 10 billion years ago?

Briefly, the following problems are observed in our solar system that defy the Big Bang explanation:

1. Uranus and Venus rotate in the opposite direction to the other planets.
2. Some planets have eccentric or tilted orbits.
3. Some planet's satellite moons move in retrograde (backwards) motion.
4. Our moon has a lower density than earth. If it was thrown out from earth, it's density would be more.
5. The sun's angular momentum is $1/2000$ th of the planets.

This small angular momentum makes it unlikely that the planets could be thrown out of the sun.

Source: "Unlocking the Mysteries of Creation". D.R. Peterson, p.45.

Big Bang theory says that a large quantity of nothing condensed by gravity into a single tiny spot and then exploded outward into hydrogen and helium to eventually form stars, galaxies, planets and moons.

Question: What is wrong with this theory? A lot!

1. Nothingness cannot pack together.
2. There would be no ignition to explode a speck of nothingness.
3. The theoretical explosion would fall back on itself giving a theoretical black hole. R L St.Peter, 1974.
4. There is not enough anti-matter in the universe. A Big Bang would produce equal amounts of matter and anti-matter, but only small amounts of antimatter exists. (Asimov's New Guide to Science, p.343).
5. The anti-matter from the Big Bang would have destroyed all the regular matter.
6. There is no way to unite all the outward rushing particles from the central explosion, because they would keep getting farther apart over time travelled. (See Novotny's research).
7. The particles would maintain the same speed and direction forever, with no way for them to begin circling each other as gas clouds. Linear motion would not change to angular momentum.
8. Neither hydrogen or helium in outer space would clump together, because gases on earth push apart, but never clump together. Gas clouds in space expand, and don't contract to form anything.
9. Careful analysis has revealed that there is not enough matter in gas clouds to produce stars.
10. If the Big Bang theory were true, instead of a universe of evenly mixed stars and galaxies, there would only be an outer rim of fast moving matter.
11. There is not enough matter in the universe to explain the origin of matter and stars. The universe is 100 times less dense than the Big Bang theory requires. Where is this "missing mass"? This too little matter could not form stars.
12. The Big Bang would only produce hydrogen and helium, not the other 90 elements.
13. The nuclear gaps at atomic mass 5 and 8 make it impossible for hydrogen and helium to produce any heavier elements, because neither a proton or neutron can be attached to a helium nucleus of mass 4. If it were not for this important "helium mass 4 gap", the sun would radiate uranium towards earth. There is no stable atom of atomic mass 5 or 8. So a hydrogen fusion reaction (bomb) combines hydrogen to form deuterium, which doubles to form Helium 4 and stops there. Hence a hydrogen explosion (even in a star), does not cross mass 5 gap (E.g. H=1.008; Deuterium=2.016; He=4.006; Lithium=6.939; Beryllium=9.012; Boron=10.811, etc.).
14. There are no first-generation stars (containing only hydrogen and helium) in the sky, which supposedly exploded to give second-generation stars, as the Big Bang theory requires.
15. Random explosions do not produce intricate orbits of suns, binary stars, galaxies, star clusters, planets and moons.
16. There are not enough supernova explosions to produce the heavier elements. We can see stars up to 15 billion light years away, but why are we not seeing many stellar explosions far out in space? Because the Big Bang theory is wrong. The stars are doing fine.
17. The most distant stars, which evolutionists date to the time of the Big Bang, are not exploding, and yet contain heavier elements.
18. According to the Big Bang theory, older stars should have more heavy elements because they are continually making them. But all stars, from 'young' to 'old', have similar amounts of heavy elements
19. Why do some stars spin backward to other stars? The Big Bang theory can't explain this.

20. Why do stars turn? Why do galaxies rotate? Why do planets orbit stars?

Why do binary stars circle one another? How could super fast straight line motion from a Big Bang change to rotating and orbiting motion with angular momentum?

21. Why is the universe so “lumpy” with galaxies grouped into galaxy clusters, which are grouped into larger super clusters?

22. Evolutionists claim that background radiation in space is the best evidence that the Big Bang occurred as the last remnant of a Big Bang explosion. This is wrong because: a) It is too smooth.

b) It comes from all directions except one direction being the Big Bang source.

c) The radiation is too weak to fit the theory. (Fred Hoyle).

d) It lacks the required 2.7K black body spectrum required for the Big Bang theory.

e) The spectrum should be a much hotter 100 K black body spectrum than its 2.73K spectrum.

Instead, this background radiation is what we’d expect from the billions of stars in the universe.

23. According to Big Bang theory, the further we look out into space, the further back into time we see.

This means that the furthest stars and galaxies should be the youngest.

Yet research shows that furthest away stars are just like those nearby.

24. If Big Bang theory were true, all stars would be moving in the same direction, but stars, clusters and galaxies are moving in various directions opposite to one another.

25. Every star is redshifted to some extent. The further a star or galaxy is from us, the more its light is shifted. Big Bang theory concludes that this proves that the universe is expanding outward from the source of the Big Bang. They base this on the hypothesis that the “speed theory” of redshift is the only cause of the redshift. (If light is travelling towards us, the wavelength is compressed or blueshifted. If it is moving away from us, the wavelength is stretched out or redshifted). Other explanations for redshift:

a) Gravitational redshift. In 1915, Einstein predicted that gravity could bend light and thus cause a redshift. This was later proven correct. As light travels towards us from distant stars, it passes other stars, which slightly slows the beam, causing its spectrum to be shifted towards the red.

b) Second-order Doppler shift: A light source moving at right angles to an observer will always be redshifted. This would be explained by the universe moving slowly in a vast circle around a centre.

c) Energy loss redshift: Light waves may lose energy as they travel across long distances.

Big Bang theory maintains that the speed redshift is the only cause of the redshift, so they can say that the universe is expanding outwards as a result of the Big Bang.

Speed redshift is not the only cause of redshift because:

a) Nearly all stars and galaxies are redshifted. If Big Bang theory really occurred, the universe would be rushing out from where the explosion occurred, not away from earth.

If there was a Big Bang we could locate its origin by measuring redshifts.

b) The closest stars and galaxies are the least redshifted. The further away a star is, the more would gravitational and energy loss redshifts slow it.

c) Quasars strongly disprove the speed theory of redshift. Some quasars have redshifts of 300% which equals speeds over 90% of the speed of light. Some quasars have redshifts of 400%.

Three quasars, according to the speed theory are moving faster than the speed of light.

One quasar appears to be moving 8 times faster than light, which is impossible.

26. Most binary stars circling one another are different composition. Big Bang theory can’t explain this.

27. Stars within globular clusters ought to be all crashing into one another if any nonthinking force brought them together, but they are not.

28. Stars never get closer than 3.5 light years apart. Would randomness produce this? No.

29. Stellar evolution is non-observable. Stars are not evolving in space. Plants and animals are not evolving on earth.

30. The sun would have to spin extremely fast to hurl off planets and moons, yet it rotates very slowly.

31. Big Bang theory cannot explain where stars, planets and moons originated, nor how they arrived at their present precise, intricate orbits. How could every moon be located at the precise distance to keep it from flying into or away from its planet, from a Big Bang explosion?

32. Uranus and Venus rotate backward compared to all the other planets. The other 7 rotate forward.

33. One third of the 60 moons rotate opposite to the rotational direction of their planets. Why?

34. Our planets and moons are so strikingly different that they could not have originated from the same Big Bang source. “If you look at all the planets and the 60 or so satellites (moons), it’s very hard to find two that are the same.” (Ross Taylor of ANU Canberra, in “The Solar Systems New Diversity”, Richard Kerr, Science 265, 2 Sep 1994, p.1360).

35. The chemical makeup of Earth’s moon and Earth are distinctly different, implying that the moon formed under different conditions.

36. Nearly all of Saturn’s 17 moons are extremely different. It has 3 sets of moons sharing the same orbit. Some moons travel clockwise, others travel anti-clockwise. The surface of Iapetus is 5 times darker on one side than the other. Hyperion is potato shaped.

Enceladus has an extremely smooth surface, whereas other moons are much rougher.

Why? Titan’s atmosphere is thicker than earth’s. How could all these moons originate by chance?

Elemental Forces of the Universe.

37. Gravity Force is perfectly balanced. a) If gravity were stronger, smaller stars could not form.

b) If gravity were weaker, bigger stars could not form, no heavy elements could exist, only dwarf stars would exist, which would radiate light too feebly to support life.

38. Proton/Neutron mass ratio

The neutron mass can only exceed the proton mass by twice the electron’s mass (About 1 part per 1000).

a) If the proton to neutron mass ratio were less, atoms would fly apart.

b) If the proton to neutron mass ratio were greater, atoms would crush together, quickly decaying into a neutron, positron and neutrino, thus destroying hydrogen, the main element in the universe.

The Master Designer planned that the proton’s mass would be slightly smaller than a neutron’s mass, otherwise the universe would collapse. If protons decayed, the universe would collapse.

39. Photon mass to Barvon mass ratio.

If this ratio were higher, stars and galaxies could not hold together by gravitational attraction.

40. Nuclear force holds an atom together.

a) If it were smaller, there would only be hydrogen and no heavier elements.

b) If it were larger, there would be no hydrogen but only heavier elements.

With no hydrogen there would be no stable stars, and no life.

c) If it were 1% weaker or stronger, carbon could not exist, nor could life exist.

d) If it were 2% stronger, protons could not exist.

41. Electromagnetic Force in an atom binds negative charged electrons to a positively charged nucleus

a) If it were smaller or larger, no chemical bonds could form.

b) If the electron charge were 3 times larger, no element could exist other than hydrogen.

c) If the electron charge were one-third as large, all neutral atoms would be destroyed by the lowest heat-such as is found in outer space.

Conclusion: It would be impossible for evolution to produce the correct balance of these forces.

They were planned. These 4 basic forces (gravitational, electromagnetic, weak and strong nuclear forces) differ so greatly in strength, that the strongest is 10⁴⁰ times stronger than the weakest of them.

Yet Big Bang theory mathematics requires that all basic forces had to be the same strength before and just after the Big Bang Explosion occurred. Evolutionists cannot claim that these precise, delicate balances of forces occurred by “natural selection”, or “mutations”, for we are here dealing with the basic properties of matter. There is no room for gradual “evolving”. The proton-neutron mass ratio has always been the same. It will not change. It began just right. There was no second chance. This applies to all the other forces and balances in elemental matter and the laws of physics governing them.

If you open a typical science book on astronomy, you will find theories about the origin of the universe and stars stated with great certainty to the public.

By 1970, so much scientific data had repudiated the basic aspects of various cosmologies, that in April 1972, the top minds in stellar physics, chemistry and astronomy gathered at the Nice Symposium to resolve:

a) How did the first cloud break apart and change into stars?

b) How did the gas clouds whirl to form stellar objects to solve the angular momentum problem?

c) How did the gas push itself into solids?

d) How did the planets, with their present properties and solar distances form?

If you attend such a closed-door conference, you will find worried men, desperate theories, scientific facts condemning these theories, a lack of alternative explanations, an atmosphere of hopeless despair in the face of unproven ideas, and no solutions or scientific experiments to alleviate the situation.

Key: The problem is that evolutionists do not want the public to know that scientists cannot figure out how galaxies, stars and planets originated.

17. SCIENTISTS SPEAK AGAINST EVOLUTION

1) "In spite of nearly a century of work & discussion there is still no unanimity regarding the details of the means of evolution". R. Goldschmidt, "Evolution viewed by one Geneticist", "American Scientist, Vol. 409, Jan 1952, p.84

2) "Evolution is baseless and quite incredible". (Ambrose Flemming, President of British Association for Advancement of Science). Darwinism is a belief in the meaninglessness of existence.

3) "Today our duty is to destroy the myths of evolution. Some refuse to acknowledge the inadequacies and falsity of their beliefs". (Pierre-Paul Grasse).

4) "Scientists who go about teaching that evolution is a fact of life are great con men, and the story they are telling may be the greatest hoax ever." (T.N. Tahnisian, Physiologist for the Atomic Energy Commission, quoted in Fresno Bee, 20 Aug. 1959).

5) "The naked truth and human nature travel in opposite directions. We have no reliable evidence as to the evolutionary sequence of invertebrate phyla". (John Bonner, American Scientist, June 1961, p.240).

6) "Throughout the past century there has always existed a significant minority of first-rate biologists who have never accepted the validity of Darwinian claims." M.Denton, "A Theory in Crisis", 1986, p327.

7) "When men cling to an outworn theory with no supporting evidence, the problem is within the mind." (Norman Macbeth, Darwin Retried, (1971), p.77).

8) "The German zoologist, Berhard Rensch (1959) provided a long list of leading authorities who have been inclined to the view that macroevolution (changes across species) cannot be explained in terms of microevolutionary processes (changes within species), or any other currently known mechanisms.

These dissenters cannot be dismissed as cranks, creationists or vitalists, for among their ranks are many first-rate biologists." (Michael Denton: A Theory in Crisis (1985), p. 86).

9) "Science positively demands creation". Kelvin. 10) "The theory of evolution is a scientific mistake." (Louis Agassiz, Harvard Univ. Professor, 'Evolution or Creation' (1986) p.139 by H. Enoch).

11) "Evolution not only conveys no knowledge but it seems to convey anti-knowledge." (Colin Patterson, Address at the American Museum of Natural History, 5 Nov. 1981).

12) "That a theory (of evolution) so vague, so insufficiently verifiablehas become a dogma can only be explained on sociological (not scientific) grounds." G.R.Taylor, Great Evolution Mystery, 1983, p.232-3 We need to stop letting this sacred cow (of evolution) walk through our halls of science.

Key: Scientists are disadvantaged by holding to evolution, because they try to make everything fit the theory of evolution, and ignore the mass of evidence which does not fit evolution.

13) "Evolutionism is a fairy tale for grown ups. It is useless." (Bounoure, La Monde et La Vie (Oct. 1983), Director of Research at the National Centre of Scientific Research in France).

14) Darwin in his later days became aware of the lack of real evidence for his evolutionary speculation and wrote: "As by this theory, innumerable transitional forms must have existed, why do we not find them embedded in the crust of the earth? Why is not all nature in confusion instead of being, as we see them, well-defined species?" (H. Enoch, Evolution or Creation (1968), p. 139).

Conclusion: Reject evolution as an unproven, unscientific, dangerous lie. Questions for evolutionists:

Q1: How does evolution occur? Answer: By beneficial mutations giving rise to a new species.

Q2: Give some examples of beneficial mutations that have given a new species? I can't, there are none.

Q3: Then why do you believe a theory when there are no examples of it happening?

Q4: If evolution has not been proven since 1859, why do you believe it and trust it?

Q5: Did man sit around and do nothing for one million years, leaving no records, artifacts or buildings, then suddenly, around 2,500 BC build the pyramids?

Note: Evolution by random processes cannot occur due to the lack of "information" which is needed to direct unintelligent systems! A computer cannot run without software. God put intelligence into life.

Source: "The Evolution Cruncher", Vance Ferrell, 2001. evolution-facts.org Phone 931-692-5777.

93. JESUS CHRIST KEEPS US SAVED FOREVER

Bible Reading: John 10:22 -30.

Aim: To prove from the Bible that when Jesus Christ saves us, He keeps us saved forever. We cannot lose Christ's salvation.

Introduction: Many religions that teach works for salvation, also teach that we can lose salvation. This follows logically because if we are saved partly or wholly by our works, then we can fail to keep up the good works and hence lose salvation. The truth is that if we call on Christ to save us, and He saves us, then He keeps us saved forever. The following scriptures show this:

1. "I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish." John 10:28.
 - This is an unconditional guarantee.
 - Eternal life means saved for eternity.
 - What does "never perish" mean?
2. "Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ." Philippians 1:6.
 - Christ will perform His work in us to the Second Coming.
3. "The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD... Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: for the LORD upholdeth him with his hand ... The LORD .. forsaketh not his saints; they are preserved for ever." Psalms 37:23-28.
 - Four times God tells us that He keeps us saved.
4. "For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord." Romans 8:38,39.
 - For a born again believer to be lost, he must somehow be separated from the love of God, and become an object of God's wrath. Paul says that this is impossible.
5. "Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them." Hebrews 7:25.

"to the uttermost" means "forever."
6. "By his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us." Hebrews 9:12.
 - Redemption means to buy back by paying a price. Since we have an eternal redemption, we are redeemed for all eternity.
7. "... receive the promise of eternal inheritance." Hebrews 9:15.
 - Our inheritance is for eternity.
 - Our eternal inheritance is promised by God.
8. "And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly." 1 Corinthians 15:49.
 - "Shall" means that it is a certainty that we will bear the heavenly image.
9. "To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time." 1 Peter 1:4,5.
 - Six times God tells us that we are secure forever.
 - "Fadeth not away" means perpetual.
10. "I am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day." 2 Timothy 1:12.
 - Paul had committed the keeping of his soul to Christ. He was sure that Christ would keep him saved to his heavenly kingdom.

11. "The Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom..." 2 Timothy 4:18.
 - The Lord will deliver us and preserve us.
12. "Who shall also confirm you unto the END, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful ..." 1 Corinthians 1:8,9.
13. "When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory." Colossians 3:4.
 - Ye shall appear with Christ in glory, no if's or but's.
14. "This is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life." 1 John 2:25.
 "In hope of eternal life which God, that cannot lie, promised.." Titus 1:2.
 - God has promised eternal life to us, and He cannot lie.
15. "Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out." John 6:37
 - If we come to Jesus Christ for salvation, He will not cast us out of salvation.
16. "If our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens." 2 Cor. 5:1.
 - We know that if our body dies, we go to heaven for eternity.
17. "And this is the record, that God has given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.
 "He that has the Son has life ... that ye may KNOW that ye have eternal life." 1 John 5:11,12,13.
 - God has recorded that we may know that we have eternal life in Christ.
18. "Whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life."
 "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.
 "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life ..." John 3:15, 16, 36.
 - Twice God says that we will not perish.
 - Three times God says that we have eternal life.
19. "There is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repents." Luke 15:10.
 - If we could lose salvation, angels would not rejoice at salvation, but when we enter heaven.
 - If we could lose salvation, we could not know for sure, as 1 John 5:13 says we can
20. "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works lest any man should boast." Ephesians 2: 8, 9.
 - God is very zealous for us to know that God alone is responsible for man's salvation.
 Every argument against the eternal security of the believer is based on the human element. As God definitely excludes all human element in salvation, every one of these arguments is thereby ruled out.
21. "Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed ..." Romans 4:16.
 - Eternal life is promised,
 - it is sure,
 - it is to all believers.

Question: If we receive salvation by faith and not by the works of the law (good works), then why is it necessary to keep the law (to keep up good works) in order to keep salvation?

22. "Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God." Ephesians 2:19.
- All who truly know Christ as their Saviour, are already "citizens" of heaven, enrolled and registered in heaven.
23. Six times God says that we can KNOW that we have eternal life:
- i) "that believe in the name of the Son of God; that ye may KNOW that ye have eternal life." 1 John 5:13.
 - ii) "now are we the sons of God,... we KNOW that, when he shall appear we shall be like him." 1 John 3:2.
 - iii) "we KNOW that ... we have ... an house eternal in the heavens." 2 Corinthians 5:1.
 - iv) "KNOWING that he which raised up the Lord Jesus, shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you." 2 Corinthians 4:14.
 - v) "Do ye not KNOW that the saints shall judge the world?
KNOW ye not that we SHALL judge angels? 1 Corinthians 6:2,3.
 - vi) "be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye KNOW that your labour is not in vain in the Lord." 1 Corinthians 15:58.
- If we lead a person to Christ, then they lost salvation, our labour would be a waste of time, in vain. However, it is not in vain, because God keeps them saved, even if they backslide.
24. "I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee." Hebrews 13:5.
25. "For by one offering He hath perfected forever them that are sanctified." Hebrews 10:14.
26. Eleven things that "SHALL BE", prove that Christ keeps us saved. There is no question about whether or not certain things will be so. It is plainly stated that they "SHALL BE".
- i) "Then shall ye also appear with him in glory." Colossians 3:4.
 - ii) "Being now justified by His blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him." Romans 5:9.
 - iii) "They which receive the gift of righteousness shall reign in life." Romans 5:17.
 - iv) "He that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies." Romans 8:11.
 - v) "The glory which shall be revealed in us." Romans 8:18.
 - vi) "Who shall also confirm you unto the end." 1 Corinthians 1:8.
 - vii) "We shall also bear the image of the heavenly." 1 Corinthians 15:49.
Written to those at Corinth and "in every place." 1 Corinthians 1:2.
 - viii) We shall all be changed." 1 Corinthians 15:51.
 - ix) "Shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you." 2 Corinthians 4:14.
 - x) "When he shall appear, we shall be like Him ..." 1 John 3:2.
 - xi) "We shall judge angels." 1 Corinthians 6:3.
27. "The gifts and calling of God are without repentance." Romans 11:29.
- Eternal life is a gift from God. Romans 6:23.
 - Holy Spirit is a gift from God. 1 Thessalonians 4:8.
 - Righteousness is a gift from God. Romans 5:17.
- God will not take back His gifts.
28. Sin is not charged against us.
- "Their sins and iniquities will I remember no more." Hebrews 10:17.
- "God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto Himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them." 2 Corinthians 5:19.

29. Chastening proves salvation's permanency.
 Chastening is a corrective discipline to purify our life, like "child training".
 God chastens us now in this life, in love when we sin to return us to His will.
 "My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him.
 For whom the Lord loveth, he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth. If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the Father chasteneth not? But if ye be without chastisement, whereof ALL are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons." Hebrews 12:5-8.
- Three results of chastening in Hebrews 12:9-11 are:
 - i) we give God reverence;
 - ii) for our profit - we learn holiness;
 - iii) yielding the peaceable fruit of righteousness.
 - Two methods of chastening in I Corinthians 11:29,30 are: i) sickness; and ii) death.
 "When we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world." 1 Corinthians 11:31,32.
30. Our destiny is to be conformed to the image of His Son, not to be lost.
 "For whom he did foreknow, He also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of His Son .. called ... justified ... glorified." Romans 8:29,30.
31. We are indwelt and sealed by the Holy Spirit unto the day of redemption.
 "Grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption."
 Ephesians 4:30.
 "I will pray the Father, and He shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever; even the Spirit of truth." John 14:16.
 Question: Did Jesus promise that the Holy Spirit will abide with them until they became lost?
 NO! Forever.
32. Christ is our Advocate and Intercessor.
 Question: If sin in a believer's life will cause him to be condemned, then for what purpose is Christ our Advocate or Intercessor?
 "Christ who also maketh intercession for us." Romans 8:34.
 "He ever liveth to make intercession for us." Hebrews 7:25.
 "If any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous." 1 John 2:1.
33. Our union with Christ, means we are in Christ.
- i) Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular." I Corinthians 12:27.
 Question: Will Christ permit his body to be dismembered? No.
 - ii) Our sin was counted as Christ's, now we have Christ's righteousness.
 "He hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him." 2 Corinthians 5:21.
 - iii) "If children, then heirs, ... joint heirs with Christ." Romans 8:17.
 Because I am "in Christ", my eternal future is linked to Christ's as a joint heir.
 If Christ can be lost, so can I.

Conclusion

Security, not fear, produces Godly living. Romans 12:12; 1 Corinthians 6:15.
 Loss of salvation is never threatened.

94. A CLOSER STUDY OF PASSAGES THAT SOME USE TO TEACH LOSS OF SALVATION

Some Bible passages may appear on the surface to teach that a saved person may be lost. However, on closer study they perfectly harmonize with the overwhelming weight of Scripture which teaches the security of the believer.

The basic principle of Bible study and interpretation is that the Bible is one great, harmonious presentation of truth, and that each part agrees with every other part. If an apparent meaning contradicts the vast body of Scripture, then we must seek another meaning.

Question: Why do people misunderstand verses of this kind?

Answer:

1. Some verses concern chastening of believers.
2. Some are taken out of context.
3. Some refer to unbelievers.

Note: You must not throw out 1,000 clear verses on security of the believer and hold on to two or three unclear verses that require deeper study that on the surface seem to teach loss of salvation.

Let us consider answers to these passages:

1. Ezekiel 3:20; 18:4 and 33:13,18 teaches about physical death as a punishment for the sin of Israelites under the Law dispensation, not loss of salvation.

a) “Again, When a righteous man doth turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumblingblock before him, he shall die; because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered: but his blood will I require at thine hand.” (Ezekiel 3:20).

b) “Behold, all souls are Mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is Mine: the soul that sinneth, it shall die.” (Ezekiel 18:4).

c) “When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousness’ shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it.” (Ezekiel 33:13).

d) “When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even die thereby.” (Ezekiel 33:18).

- a) Ezekiel 3:20. “he shall die in his sin”. If a righteous person had left the path of righteousness, he was in danger of physical death. This does not refer to a person losing salvation. The one who obeyed God’s Law was to be protected during the approaching Babylonian judgment, but those who broke the Law could expect death.

- b) Ezekiel 18:4 “The soul that sinneth, it shall die.” Check the context: A proverb in Israel was “The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are set on edge.” Ezekiel 18:2. This meant that people thought that they were suffering, not because of their sins, but because of their parent’s sins. They were blaming God for punishing them unjustly. God saw that this false proverb had to be refuted. It is true that the effects of sin are serious and long lasting, but God does not punish innocent children for the parent’s sins. In blaming others, they were denying their own guilt, and charging God with injustice. God replies: “The soul that sinneth, it shall die.” (18:4), meaning that those who are guilty will receive their own deserved punishment; in some cases “death.”

- c,d) Ezekiel 33:13,18 is Ezekiel’s second commissioning as a watchman with a different message (587 BC). “for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it”. It was still an individual accountability and responsibility, but the message’s thrust was on God’s restoration of Israel. His first commissioning in 3:1-21 in 595 BC was a ministry of judgments, which was now completed.

Conclusion: These passages are not referring to spiritual death of a righteous man losing salvation, but to a righteous man who turns to sin, and his sins bringing the punishment of physical death upon him.

2. “But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.” (Matthew 24:13).
Some say that we must endure to keep ourselves saved until we die, or we will lose salvation. The Bible never says that salvation from the penalty of sin is by enduring. It is by believing on Christ, not by our works. Believers in the seven year Tribulation period must endure the Antichrist’s persecution until the seven years are finished. It is not referring to the spiritual salvation of a believer’s soul, but refers to people being rescued by Christ returning to defeat the Antichrist.
3. “And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment: And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless. Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away and cast him into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.” (Matthew 22:11-13).
This parable is about a king who prepared a wedding (marriage feast) for his son (Matthew 22:1-4).
1. Marriage feast = the Millennial age, beginning when Christ returns to earth.
2. Man without a wedding garment = someone not clothed in Christ’s righteousness, and is therefore unsaved.
3. Outer darkness = he is cast into darkness outside Christ’s kingdom. At the beginning of Christ’s 1,000 year kingdom, all who are not saved are taken from the earth in judgment as represented by this man. (Matthew 13:41,49; 3:12; 25:30, 41-46; 24:37-41).
4. Five wise and five foolish virgins
“And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut. Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us. But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not” (Matthew 25:10-12).
Some say the five foolish virgins who took no oil represent Christians who have lost their salvation. Not so!
1. Marriage feast = the 1,000 year kingdom age of Christ on earth.
2. Five wise virgins = those saved.
3. Five foolish virgins = unsaved people, because:
a) They took no oil. Oil is a symbol of the Holy Spirit.
“If any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of His.” Romans 8:9.
b) The Lord says: “I know you not.” See Matthew 7:21-23.
5. Parable of three servants
“And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.” (Matthew 25:30).
The earthly kingdom set up by Christ will be a place of light and blessing. To be cast into “outer darkness” means to be cast out of the kingdom into the darkness of death outside. The word “servant” does not always refer to believers. All men are responsible to serve God. eg: rulers are the ministers of God (Romans 13:4), as are ungodly kings (Jeremiah 25:9). The servant cast into outer darkness represents an unbeliever who is on the earth at the time of Christ’s return who is taken from the earth in judgment.
6. “Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness.” (2 Peter 3:17).
It does not say “fall from your salvation”, but from “your own stedfastness.” “Stedfastness” in Greek means: “firm condition of mind.” A person may be saved, but be unstedfast in his mind. It is not discussing loss of salvation, but losing one’s mental convictions on various issues.
7. “Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.” (1 Corinthians 10:12).
The context here is a warning to Christians about the possibility of falling into sin or backsliding. It does not teach that a believer may fall out of salvation.

8. The Vine

"I am the true vine, and My Father is the husbandman. Every branch in Me that beareth not fruit He taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, He purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit. Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you. Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in Me. I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in Me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without Me ye can do nothing. If a man abide not in Me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered: and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and, they are burned." (John 15:1-6).

This passage is an illustration and the problem is that it is possible to stretch an illustration far beyond its intended meaning.

- a) Abiding in the vine = a Christian abiding or remaining in close, unbroken fellowship with Christ. Fruit is produced.
- b) Abiding not in the vine = broken fellowship with Christ and fruitlessness.

This refers not to our "standing" before God of salvation, but to our "state" of not living in close fellowship with Christ. We are faced with three problems in this passage:

- 1) "He taketh away" (15:2), means that those believers who do not bear fruit are taken away or lifted up out of their place. Taketh away = lifted up from the ground. The Father reserves the right to remove an unfruitful believer to heaven. This is maximum discipline of physical death. Fruitful branches are purged or pruned to bear more fruit. Therefore, both fruitful and unfruitful branches are under the immediate care of the Father (the Husbandman).

Purging means to cleanse a branch from filth and impurity by washing off insects, parasites and moss. The washing is by the Word of God. (15:3).

- 2) "He is cast forth as a branch, and is withered." (15:6).

If a believer does not abide in Christ, he is out of fellowship with Christ, his public testimony is rejected by men, and his spiritual vitality is diminished or withered. He is like the castaway in 1 Corinthians 9:27 who is disapproved but not lost. All backsliders have a withered, reduced spiritual vitality.

- 3) "Men gather them, and cast them into the fire, they are burned." (15:6)

Notice the plural pronouns "them" and "they". It is not "men gather him, and cast him into the fire, and he is burned", as it would have been if it referred to losing salvation or to a professor. The "them" and "they" are what issues from the one who has been cast forth as a branch - dead works: wood, hay, stubble, which will be burned at the Judgment Seat of Christ, as 1 Corinthians 3:15 tells us: "If any man's work shall be burned (the same word as in John 15:6), he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved, yet so as by fire."

Key: Hence "them" and "they" refer to the believers dead works which are burned up at the Judgment Seat of Christ.

9. "Let that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father. And this is the promise that He hath promised us, even eternal life." (1 John 2:24-25).

If believers resist the lies of antichrists, and let the Bible truth that they had heard from the beginning "abide" in them, they would continue to abide in unbroken fellowship with God the Father and God the Son. "That" refers to Bible doctrine, which, if it remains in us will keep us in unbroken, close fellowship with the Son and the Father.

10. "What is meant by "overcometh"?"

"He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death." (Revelation 2:11). See Revelation 2:7,17,26; 3:5,12,21 where "overcometh" is used in a similar way.

Some feel that this verse means that a believer must do good works, or not do certain sins in order to “overcome” or he will lose his salvation. “Overcomes” is explained in 1 John 5:4,5.

“For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?” “He that overcometh”, then, is every born-again believer. These verses in Revelation 2 and 3 are really verses of security, for the things promised to “overcomers” are for all believers.

11. “He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment: and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before My Father, and before His angels.” (Revelation 3:5).

Some think that this verse implies that God may blot some people's names out of the book of life. The verse says nothing about blotting out any name, but it is a promise that God will not blot out the name of him “that overcometh”. According to 1 John 5:4,5 “He that overcometh is “he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God.” This is a verse of assurance to all believers that we are eternally secure. “Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.” John 6:37.

12. “If any man’s work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.” (1 Corinthians 3:15).

This passage refers to the Judgment Seat of Christ, for Christians only. Christian’s works are judged. Some receive rewards (1 Corinthians 3:14). Some suffer loss of reward (3:15), but all believers are saved.

13. “Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.” (Revelation 2:10).

Some people think that those who are faithful unto death will receive eternal life. This verse does not say eternal life, it says “crown of life”, which is one of the rewards given to Christians at the Judgment Seat of Christ. It is given to those who endure temptation, and hence prove their love for Christ. (James 1:12).

14. “Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.” (Rev. 3:11)

Crown does not refer to eternal life, but to a reward given to Christians for faithful service. They may lose rewards if they don't hold fast to sound Bible doctrine, and fall into deception, sin, and false doctrine.

15. “But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord’s body.” (1 Corinthians 11:28-29).

Damnation seems to imply eternal punishment in hell. “Judgment” is an alternative word, as seen from v.30,31,32. “For this cause many are weak and sickly, ... many sleep.” Judgment here is God “chastening” His own. It does not discuss loss of salvation.

16. “Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.” (1 Timothy 5:12).

Damnation again means “judgment” taking place in this life, not in eternity in hell, as seen by “having”, which is present tense, not future in hell. Wuest paraphrases it: “incurring (the reproachful) judgment (of their fellow Christians) because they have nullified their first faith.” The passage is about younger Christian widows who vow not to remarry, but change their mind and marry again, and may therefore incur the judgment of others for breaking their vow.

17. “For Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world, and is departed unto Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia.” (2 Timothy 4:10).

Demas was saved, but a backslidden fellow worker of Paul’s. Colossians 4:14, Philemon 24. There is no mention here of losing salvation. All too often, the pleasures of this world lure Christians to forsake the work of Christ, and to become unfruitful.

18. “If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it.” (1 John 5:16).
 Some sins are not punished by a believer being quickly put to death by God. Sometimes a Christian may sin so seriously that God judges that sin with swift physical death, eg: Ananias and Sapphira. We don’t need to pray for it. Loss of salvation is not being discussed here.
19. “But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.” (1 Corinthians 9:27).
Castaway means disapproved (Greek is “adokimos”). It means that by sin and disobedience, a believer is put on the shelf and is of no use to God. (Like an athlete left off the team). “Dokimos”, in Greek means “approved”, and is used in Romans 14:18; 16:10; 1 Corinthians 11:19; 2 Corinthians 10:18; James 1:12 and 2 Timothy 2:15.
20. “Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage. Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing. For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law.” (Galatians 5:1-3).
 The “yoke of bondage” is not a lost condition, but a condition of being under the law, of attempting to keep the law as a necessity for salvation. If the Galatians were to put themselves under the law, and submit to the rite of circumcision, they would deprive themselves of the effects of the ministry of the risen Christ. Hence “Christ shall profit you nothing.”
21. “Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace.” (Galatians 5:4).
“Fallen from grace”, does not mean loss of salvation, but by insisting on works to remain saved, they have put themselves in a position under the law where grace is unable to continue working. Galatian’s theme is not salvation from the penalty of sin, but an appeal to live in the liberty of grace, instead of law bondage. This teaching by Judaizers deprived these Galatian Christians of their dependence on the Holy Spirit’s work of grace in their lives. This is what is meant by “fallen from grace.”
 The context is the sanctifying work of the Holy Spirit, not salvation. The cure is to: “walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lusts of the flesh.” Galatians 5:16. Galatians 5:22,23 describes the result of walking in the Spirit, which is to exhibit the Fruit of the Spirit.
Key: These Galatian Christians had fallen from grace in the sense that they had deprived themselves of the Holy Spirit’s ministry of giving them daily grace for daily living. (2 Corinthians 12:9).
22. “Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip. For if the word spoken by angels was stedfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward; How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard Him.” (Hebrews 2:1-3).
 We cannot neglect our salvation until it is ours. This is speaking of Christians who neglect their salvation. A man may be married and neglect his wife, but she is still his wife. Christians do not lose their salvation by neglecting it, but they do lose their joy and fellowship with the Lord. They are also chastened in this life by God (“receive a just recompense of reward.”)
23. “Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.” (Hebrews 3:12).
 This verse is written to Christians (“brethren”) as a warning against backsliding. We must guard against a sinful, unbelieving heart, as shown by the wilderness generation, whose heart turned away from God. The preventative remedy is to “exhort one another daily ... lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.” Hebrews 3:13. No loss of salvation is meant.

24. “Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into His rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.” (Hebrews 4:1).

Israel at Kadesh-Barnea failed to enter the “rest” of the land of Canaan because of their unbelief in God’s promises to safely bring them into the land.

- Many Christians today wander spiritually, not knowing the faith-rest life of blessings that is rightfully theirs by believing the Bible’s promises for joyful living. They fail to possess the blessings already theirs (Ephesians 1:3) because of unbelief.

25. “For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost. (5) And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come, (6) If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put Him to an open shame. (7) For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God (8). But that which beareth thorns and briars is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.” (Hebrews 6:4-8).

This is a warning to Christians that unless they go on to spiritual maturity, God may not let them. They will not lose their salvation, but they will lose the blessings and rewards that could have been theirs if they had claimed them. They will become unfruitful and produce works fit only to be burned.

Notice the context in which this passage is found.

In Chapter 3 of Hebrews we have an illustration of the Children of Israel hardening their hearts and refusing to enter the promised land (Canaan) because of unbelief. God had promised to give them the land and to drive out the inhabitants from before them, but they refused to believe Him. Because of this, God would not let them enter the land even when they desired to do so and they wandered for forty years until their “carcasses fell in the wilderness”. Hebrew 3:17

In Chapter 4 the writer of Hebrews shows that there is a “rest” for believers, but that some may not enter into that rest because of unbelief. The land of Canaan is an illustration of that rest. Canaan does not illustrate Heaven, for even though it was a place of victory it was still a place of conflict. It illustrates for the believer that place of spiritual maturity where there is victory, blessing and rest.

In Chapter 5, the writer of Hebrews points out to the believers that they need to grow up spiritually. There are many things that he would like to say to them but he cannot because they are still babes in Christ. This thought is continued into Chapter 6 where he says in verse 1 that they should leave the basic things of the “doctrine of Christ” (the milk) and go on to “perfection” (spiritual maturity). In verse 3 he says, “And this we will do, if God permit.” There is, evidently, the possibility that God will not permit some to go on to spiritual maturity. Then follows the awful warning of verses 4-8.

Lance B. Latham writes: “The repentance that can no longer be effected is toward their perfection! These Christians, ‘dull of hearing’, ‘milk’ Christians, and ‘babes’ need this fearful warning - just as we need it today. There comes a time, in God’s infinite knowledge and wisdom, when they cannot go on to perfection. ‘It is impossible - to renew them again unto repentance’ (not justification).”

God did not abandon the Israelites when He refused to let them enter Canaan but continued to watch over them and care for them. He continued to feed them with manna and to deliver them from their enemies. God will not abandon His own today even though He refuses them the blessings that could have been theirs if they had gone on to spiritual maturity. Notice that those to which this passage refers:

1. “were once enlightened.” (v.4). Enlightened (φωτισω) is translated “illuminated” in Hebrew 10:32, where it refers to all believers. See Eph.1:18 “your understanding being enlightened.”
2. They “have tasted of the heavenly gift.” This goes beyond the idea of just sampling salvation or coming to the threshold of salvation without really believing. The Greek word translated “tasted” in Hebrews 6:4,5 (γευομοκ) is the same word used in Hebrews 2:9 where it says concerning Jesus, “That He should taste death for every man.” Did Jesus just sample death or did He enter thoroughly into it? The latter for certain. The same word is translated “eat” in Acts 10:10; 20:11; 23:14. The word may also be translated “experience”. “They have experienced the heavenly gift.” “They have experienced the good Word of God, and the powers of the world to come.” See Matthew 16:28.
3. They “were made partakers of the Holy Ghost.” Partakers is used in:
 - i) Hebrews 3:1 “partakers of the heavenly calling.”
 - ii) Hebrews 3:14 “partakers of Christ.”
 - iii) Hebrews 12:8 “chastisement, whereof all are partakers.”
 “If any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of His.” Romans 8:9.
4. They “have tasted the powers of the world to come.” 6:5.
 This implies that there had been at least some fruit in their lives due to the Holy Spirit working. Verse 6 does not state from what the believer is falling away. Therefore this must be determined by the context. The writer is speaking of going on to perfection (spiritual maturity) in verses 1 to 3 and this is evidently still the subject here (the “for” at the beginning of verse 4 ties the passages together). They are falling away from going on to spiritual maturity. The cares of this world are choking their fruitfulness.
5. “It is impossible ... to renew them again unto repentance.” 6:6.
 The word “repentance” is used, not salvation. Repentance means a “change of mind.”
 - i) When the unsaved repent, they change their mind about the person and work of Christ.
 - ii) When the saved repent of their misdeeds, restoration results, not fresh justification. When a believer fails to repent, he fails to receive the restoration of fellowship he needs, God will judge him now (1 Corinthians 11:31-32), and he will lose rewards at the Judgment Seat of Christ. (2 Corinthians 5:10).

There is evidently a point in the life of a Christian, who repeatedly refuses to go on to spiritual maturity, at which God will no longer allow him to go on to spiritual maturity even though the Christian desires to do so, a point at which God will no longer allow him to have the blessings that could have been his if he had only fully believed. He is still the Lord’s own. He will watch over him, but he cannot enter into the rest illustrated by Canaan.

In Hebrews 12:16-17 Esau is given as an example of one who did not value his birthright and sold it for a morsel of meat (food). Because of this he lost out on the blessing that could have been his and “found no place of repentance, though he sought it ... with tears.” Some Christians today do not really value their spiritual birthright and as a result of worldliness lose out on the blessings that could have been theirs, and though they later seek it, they find “no place of repentance.”

In Hebrews 6:7-8 the writer uses the earth (soil) that “bringeth forth herbs” as an illustration of a Christian whose life is fruitful. The writer uses the earth (soil) which “beareth thorns and briars” to illustrate a Christian whose life is unfruitful, but bears only that which is worthless. This is similar to the two kinds of ground in the parable of the Sower (Matthew 13:1-23; Mark 4:1-25; Luke 8:4-15). The good ground brought forth much fruit (Matthew 13:23) but the ground with the thorns, was unfruitful because of the “care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches.” (Matthew 13:22).

6. “They crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.” 6:6. Those who renounce their Christian faith are taking a step that amounts to a fresh public rejection of Christ. They are agreeing with Jesus’ enemies that He deserved to die on the cross. Backslidden Jewish believers going back to Judaism are particularly referred to here. They have a deeply hardened heart against all efforts to win them back, not to Christian conversion, but to Christian commitment.
7. “That which bears thorns and briars is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.” 6:8.

Question 1: What bears thorns and briars? Answer: The soil.

The soil (believer) is not destroyed by fire, but the unwanted thorns and briars are.

Question 2: What is to be burned? Answer: Thorns and briars.

“Rejected” is “adokimos” in Greek, and means castaway (1 Corinthians 9:27) or disapproved or loss of rewards in heaven. Every Christian’s works will be tried by fire (1 Corinthians 3:13). If his works are burned up, he loses rewards. If his works remain, he is rewarded.

John 15:6 speaks of useless works of believers being burned:

“men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.”

In Hebrews 6:9 the writer does not believe that his readers have gone as far as those in 6:4-6. He is persuaded better things of them, and things that accompany salvation.

Conclusion:

Hebrews 6:4-8 was written to Jews at a time when many, due to persecution, were giving up the Christian faith, and returning to the old Jewish faith. It was also written to Jews when Temple worship was still going on. Judaism in effect crucified Christ again by their continued sacrifices. These Jewish believers who were going back to Judaism were crucifying Christ afresh. It says nothing about loss of salvation.

26. “For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins. But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.” (Hebrews 10:26,27).

The warning here is against defection from the faith. Most sin is deliberate, but the writer here is influenced by the Old Testament teaching about sins of presumption (Numbers 15:29-31) which lay outside the sacrificial provisions of the Law. Apostasy from the faith is such a wilful act that for those who commit it, no sacrifice for sins is left.

Key: If the sacrifice of Christ should be renounced, there remained no other available sacrifice which could shield an apostate from God’s judgment by raging fire.

Hebrews 10:28-31. If defiance of the inferior Mosaic covenant brought such punishment, the punishment for defying the superior New Covenant would be much greater.

- To tread under foot the Son of God, and
 - to count the sanctifying blood of the covenant an unholy (common) thing, and
 - to insult the Spirit of grace who wooed him to Christ, this kind of spiritual rebellion calls for a much worse punishment than the death penalty under the Mosaic Law. The writer was not thinking of hell. Many forms of divine punishment are much worse than immediate death:
1. Jeremiah said “The punishment ... of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom that was overthrown in a moment.” Lamentations 4:6.
 2. “They that be slain with the sword are better than they that be slain with hunger ... the hands of the pitiful women have sodden their own children...” Lamentations 4:9,10.
 3. King Saul’s last days were burdened with such mental and emotional trouble that death by suicide was a release. Don’t regard this punishment as an idle threat. God has claimed the right to take vengeance and to judge His people. Hebrews 10:30.

27. “Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompense of reward.” (Hebrews 10:35). A Christian may lose his confidence, without losing salvation.

28. "Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, My soul shall have no pleasure in him." (Hebrews 10:38).

If a Christian draws back (backslides) he will be chastened by the Lord in His displeasure. This verse does not say that he is lost, as v.39 proves: "But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the soul."

God may be displeased with believers, but this does not mean or say that salvation is lost.

29. "And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book." (Revelation 22:19).

Question: Does a person who gets his part taken from the book of life lose his salvation? Not so. Consider the following:

What is the book of life?

1. Exodus 32:32-35 "Yet now, if thou wilt forgive their sin -; and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book which thou hast written. And the Lord said unto Moses, Whosoever hath sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book."
2. Psalm 56:8 "... put thou my tears into thy bottle: are they not in thy book?"
3. Psalm 69:28 "Let them be blotted out of the book of the living, and not be written with the righteous."
4. Psalm 139:16 "In thy book all my members are written."
5. Daniel 12:1 "... there shall be a time of trouble, ... at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book."
6. Malachi 3:16 "Then they that feared the Lord spake often one to another: and the Lord hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the Lord, and that thought upon his name."
7. Philippians 4:3 "My fellowlabourers, whose names are in the book of life."
8. Revelation 3:5 "He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name..."
9. Revelation 13:8 "All that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world."
10. Revelation 17:8 "They that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they beheld the beast."
11. Revelation 20:12 "another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works."
12. Revelation 20:15 "And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire."
13. Revelation 21:27 "They which are written in the Lamb's book of life (shall enter the New Jerusalem.)"
14. Revelation 22:19. "And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book."

Note: 1. We never read of names being entered into the book of life during a person's life.

- a) For believers today, our names are in the Book of Life. Philippians 4:3.
 - b) Believer's names are written in heaven. Luke 10:20.
 - c) As the church of the firstborn, our names are written in heaven. Hebrews 12:23.
 - d) Tribulation overcomer's names are written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world. Revelation 17:8.
2. Names may be blotted out of the Book of Life.
 - a) Moses prayed, "blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book." Exodus 32:32.
 - b) "Let them be blotted out of the book of the living..." Psalms 69:28.
 - c) Sardis overcomers names will not be blotted out. Revelation 3:5.

Therefore, many names (if not everybody's names) are in the Book of Life originally, but names are eventually blotted out for a final rejection of Christ and His Word, from which Christ can see no repentance. There is no reference to believer's names being written in the book at the moment of conversion.

3. These names in the Book of life will be confessed by the Lord before His Father. "Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father.." Matthew 10:32; Luke 12:8.

Conclusion: Revelation 22:19 assumes that a true child of God will not tamper with the Scriptures. Revelation 3:5 says that a believer's name will not be blotted out because of his faith in Christ, which all overcomer's have (1 John 5:4,5). Some have seen the Book of Life, not as the roll of those who are saved, but a list of those for whom Christ died, that is, all humanity who ever had physical life. As they come to maturity, they have the responsibility of receiving or rejecting Christ. Those who reject Christ find their names blotted out of the Book of Life. Those who accept Christ as Saviour are confirmed permanently in the Book of Life. This viewpoint is to be preferred.

30. "Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not highminded, but fear: For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest He also spare not thee." (Romans 11:20-21). Read all of Romans 11.

Question: Who is this spoken to? "take heed lest He also spare not thee."

Answer: Romans 11:13 reads "For I speak to you Gentiles." The natural branches are the Jews, broken off because of unbelief (11:20). Through the Jews fall, salvation is offered to the Gentiles (11:12). The warning here is to the Gentiles, not to individual believers that they will be cast out. In the millennium, Gentiledom will be cut off, as was Israel, and Israel will be restored to it's former place as the channel of God's blessings to earth.

31. "Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent." (Revelation 2:5).

This warning of removing thy candlestick is to the local church at Ephesus (1:20), not to an individual Christian. When churches become lazy and compromising, and allow unbelievers to control it, they lose their candlestick and cease to be one of God's churches.

32. "I will spue thee out of my mouth." (Revelation 3:16).

This warning is to the lukewarm Laodicean church, not to any individual believer. Rev. 3:20 is an invitation to individuals. Eternal security does not apply to local churches, only to individuals.

33. "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain." (1 Corinthians 15:1-2).

Nowhere in the Bible is anyone said to be saved from hell by keeping anything in their memory. Salvation from the penalty of sin is an already accomplished fact for the believer, not a process now going on. However, each day the believer is being saved from the power of sin, as a continuing process in his life. How? By keeping Bible preaching in his memory.

- 1 Corinthians 15:1 is the past tense of salvation "which they had received" (Greek: aorist, active, past, indicative) in which they stand. This shows that they were already saved from the penalty of sin.
- 1 Corinthians 15:2 is the present tense of salvation "By which also ye are saved" (literally: are being saved daily; Greek: present, passive, indicative - indicating action now going on). They are "being saved" from the power of sin, they are growing in grace, maturing as Christians, if they were keeping in memory (holding fast) what Paul preached to them.
- "Unless ye have believed in vain" means unless your belief was "unreal" - unless they had never really been saved.

34. “Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.” (Philippians 2:12). This command is in the present tense of salvation, being saved from the power of sin in their daily lives, growing in grace, growing in Christlikeness, in sanctification. “Work out your own salvation” is urging Christians to mature spiritually. There is no hint here of an unsaved person doing good works to earn salvation because:
1. Those addressed were already saved: “my beloved”.
 2. The Bible clearly teaches that nobody is saved by works. When Paul was with them, he taught, inspired, and encouraged them to grow in grace. Now in Paul’s absence they were responsible to grow in grace. They have justification. Paul speaks about their sanctification. Carry your growth to Christlikeness. 1 John 3:3 commands each believer to “purify himself”. “Work out your own salvation” means to cultivate a field that you already own. “Work out” means to “put into practice in their daily living.” They were not told to work for their salvation, but to work out their salvation. It means to work out the details of your salvation, applying it to daily living.
35. “Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in so doing thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee.” (1 Timothy 4:16). Again, salvation here is in the present tense. This is not talking about salvation from the penalty of sin (past), but of salvation from the power of sin (present). Timothy was already saved, but continuing in sound doctrine would save him and others from false doctrine, unbelief and error. Hence “save thyself” means to save yourself from false doctrine and carnality.
36. “While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me have I kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; ...” (John 17:12). Some say that this verse shows that Judas was once saved, but that he lost his salvation. Answer: Jesus says that He kept those that the Father had given Him. “This is the Father’s will ... that of all which He hath given me I should lose nothing..” John 6:39. “...of them which thou gavest me have I lost none.” John 18:9. Judas was never given by the Father to Jesus. “Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray Him.” John 6:64. “Have I not chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil? He spake of Judas Iscariot ...for he it was that should betray him...” John 6:70,71. Judas was chosen as one of the twelve, not chosen to be saved. In John 17:12, Judas is not listed as an exception to those that Jesus had kept, but in contrast to those that He kept. None of those that the Father gave to Jesus was lost, but Judas was lost. “That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship; from which Judas by transgression fell...” Acts 1:25. Judas fell from an official position of ministry and apostleship, he did not fall from salvation, because he was never saved.
37. “From that time many of His disciples (followers) went back, and walked no more with Him.” (John 6:66). Even a true believer may backslide and walk out of fellowship with the Lord. Loss of fellowship is not loss of salvation.
38. “Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called...” (1 Timothy 6:12). “Lay hold on eternal life,” means that Paul wanted Timothy to experience more of what eternal life is about in his daily life. Seek and seize the crown of victory as eagerly as competitors at the Greek games sought the winner’s prize.

39. “Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.” (1 Timothy 6:19).

Rich people need to use their riches to win people to eternal life in Christ in heaven. They must not live only for this life, but live for eternity, laying hold of the issues of eternal life. Use what God has given you for eternal blessings and the salvation of others.

40. “Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord.” (Heb 12:14)

We who believe already have holiness.

“Ye are a chosen generation, a holy nation ...” 1 Peter 2:9.

Hebrews 2:14 tells us to “follow holiness.” This means that we should seek, through yielding to the Holy Spirit, to cultivate true holiness in our daily lives. We should seek to cultivate that which is already true of us in our eternal standing before God. Since no sin can stand in God’s presence, Christians will be sinless when we see the Lord (1 John 3:2). In view of this, let us pursue holiness here and now.

41. “Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God: lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled.” (Hebrews 12:15).

After we have been saved by grace, grace continues to work, teaching us to live “soberly, righteously and godly.” Titus 2:11,12. Some believers can be so controlled by sin and envy, that they can no longer respond to some people with the grace of God, but with envy, bitterness, anger and nervousness. They react in carnality, not in grace. They have failed of the grace of God. They, by bitterness, cut themselves off from the grace of God operating in their lives. They constantly act ungraciously.

42. “To present you holy and unblameable²⁹⁹ and unreproveable⁴¹⁰ in His sight: if ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard ...” Colossians 1:22,23.

Some say that salvation is ours only IF we continue in the faith. Here “IF”(1489) means “that which is taken for granted.”

Answer 1: v.22,23. We will be presented holy, unblameable, and unreproveable in his sight: IF (or since, or it is taken for granted):

a) ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and

b) be not moved away from the hope of the Gospel.

It is taken for granted that these two conditions will be fulfilled, “IF” means certainty. This passage is not looking to the future, but speaks of the Christian’s present condition as a test of the reality of his salvation.

Answer 2: If we continue in the faith (sound Bible doctrine) we will be presented, holy, unblameable, and unreproveable in his sight at the Judgment Seat of Christ. We will be approved, we will have confidence, and not be ashamed at his coming if we abide in Christ (1 John 2:28), and continue in the faith of sound doctrine (Colossians 1:22,23). If we don’t abide or continue in the faith, we will be disapproved, ashamed and lose rewards at Christ’s coming. The subject is rewards, not loss of salvation.

43. “But Christ as a Son over His own house; whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end.” (Hebrews 3:6).

Some say that this verse teaches loss of salvation if we do not hold fast our confidence firm to the end. This is false because:

Answer: The writer in Hebrews 3:5 speaks of Moses being faithful in all his house (the Tabernacle). The writer uses the word “we”, to include himself in the scope of this admonition. Moses’ house was a sphere of priestly activities v.5. Christ’s house v.6, is not the body of Christ, of all believers. In 3:12 the writer warns us against “an evil heart of unbelief in departing from the living God. Should any believer do this, they would forfeit their robes in the Son’s priestly house, which is only maintained by holding firmly to their Christian profession. The writer did not mean loss of salvation. The writer was thinking in priestly terms. As long as the readers held firmly to their Christian commitment, they also functioned within Christ's priestly system. Just as a Levite could withdraw from participating in Moses' tabernacle, so too may a true Christian withdraw from his priestly role as a servant of Christ. Therefore, Christians (as some Levites did) could withdraw from their priestly service to God over God's house.

44. "Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him; Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins." (James 5:19-20).

The sinning one here is a believer who has gone astray from the path of truth or has backslidden. To patiently go after such a person and to turn him again to obey the Lord is to save him from physical death, of God's discipline, and will hide, or cover or prevent a multitude of sins. He is preserved from going into more sin, by being restored.

45. "Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron; Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth." (1 Timothy 4:1-3).

These people spoken of here have departed from the faith of their fathers. There is no reference here to departing from personal faith. "The" before faith, means "Faith as that body of doctrine which Christians believe", not faith as an action. These people never believed.

46. "For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning. For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them." (2 Peter 2:20,21).

Here it speaks of "knowledge" of Christ, but it does not say that they have received Christ. Knowledge is not enough to save a person. One must appropriate that knowledge to himself and accept Christ's payment for sin. When these teachers or their victims reject the knowledge about Jesus Christ, their end is deeper corruption (entanglement), and a more severe degree of punishment. For example, many children have been raised in a Christian home, been taught the knowledge of Christ from infancy, and been religious, attending church regularly. They have escaped much of the outward pollution of the world. But if they reject Christ as Saviour, and go into sin, they will be worse off than if they had never known about the way of righteousness. Peter chose dogs and pigs (lowest animals v.22) to describe people who knew the truth and turned away from it. A dog pictures a false teacher. A pig pictures the natural unsaved man who may look cleansed outwardly but still loves the mud (the things of the world), and as soon as the restraint is off, he will go back to the filth in which he once lived. "But it is happened unto them according to the proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire."(2 Peter 2:22). The dog and the pig were never saved.

47. "From which some having swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling." (1 Timothy 1:6).
This refers to Christians who have been lead astray by false teachers into fruitlessness (vain jangling). "Vain jangling" (3150) means "senseless, mischievous, vain talking" which well describes believers who have swallowed false doctrine, and talk about it to others, trying to persuade others of their false views.

48. "Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck: Of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme." (1 Timothy 1:19-20). It is possible to be shipwrecked and live.

- Holding faith means faithfulness to the Christian cause, as a soldier. He should steadfastly believe true doctrine.

- Good conscience means to honestly follow what is right.

Men make shipwreck of their faith by not keeping a good conscience. Men shipwreck their faith because they wish to indulge in sin. To remain faithful demands moral purity.

Sins and departing from true doctrine will shipwreck a man's faith. Delivering a person to satan, is to allow satan to bring physical suffering to disobedient Christians. Many Christians who put away faith (doctrines) by believing false doctrine, are still saved.

49. "And their word will eat as doth a canker: of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus; Who concerning the truth have erred, saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some." (2 Timothy 2:17-18).

Hymenaeus and Philetus taught false doctrine. A Christian may believe and teach some false doctrines. The Lord will chasten him, but it does not say that he will lose his salvation. "Overthrow the faith" means to depart from true doctrine.

50. "Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you." 2 Corinthians 6:17.

"Wherefore" means "since you are a peculiar people, and God dwells among you", come out from idolaters and unbelievers.

"Come out" (Isaiah 52:11) where Jews are called to leave their exile in Babylon with its idols.

"Be separate" from all worldly corrupting influences.

"Touch not the unclean thing" means to be pure from idolatry etc.

"I will receive you" means "I will enjoy fellowship with you."

"I will be a father unto you" means God will protect us as a father protects His children if we forsake idolatry.

Obedience brings God's fatherly protection. Disobedience brings self inflicted suffering.

Some think that this verse says that God will only receive those who come out and be separate.

This appeal for a separated life is based on the previous verse (v.16 "Ye are the temple of the living God). Therefore v.7 is an appeal to holy living based on the security of the believer that we are the temple of God. There is no threatened loss of salvation. God promises "I will receive you." There is no "if" condition here.

51. "If we suffer, we shall also reign with Him: IF we deny Him, He will also deny us." (2 Tim 2:12).

Some say that this verse means that if we deny that we know Him, then He will deny that He knows us and we will be lost. Answer: The word "deny" here means "to withhold".

If we deny Him (withhold from Christ) our service, or our fellowship, He will deny us (withhold from us) the blessings, joy and fellowship that could have been ours.

It cannot mean loss of salvation because Paul uses "we" including himself and Timothy. He never thought that he could lose salvation. What else could it mean?

The context in v.12 is suffering. Some Christians suffered with Christ. They will reign with Christ in the millennium. Some Christians deny Christ during suffering or in their lives. Deny means "not willing to suffer for Christ" and "failing to confess Christ." Peter denied Christ but he did not lose his salvation. Christ rebuked him for denying Him.

At the Judgment Seat of Christ, the Lord will deal with our failures and successes. If we deny Christ now, Christ will deny us blessings, rewards & heavenly privileges in front of the holy angels.

- "Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I also confess before my father which is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven." Matthew 10:32,33.

- "He that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God." Luke 12:9.

- "Whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels." Mark 8:38.

We will be held accountable for our unfaithfulness by denying us some earthly joy and some heavenly privileges.

95. WRONG VALUES TAUGHT IN SCHOOL, MEDIA AND SOCIETY (9 ERRORS OF HUMANISM)

Bible Reading: Psalm 1; Acts 20:31.

Aim: To expose errors in society and to warn parents of what their children may be learning at school.

Introduction: We all agree that much error is taught in schools, media and society.

What is it? How can we help our children recognize it and reject it as false? If your teenager listens to heavy rock music, grows his hair long, smokes cigarettes, takes drugs, rebels against God's and your authority, you can be sure that they learnt it from school and peers.

If we don't warn our children of error, they are very prone to be deceived by it and we will lose our children as they depart from our convictions, God's values and from service to God.

The Public school actively teaches the religion of humanism.

Question: What is humanism?

Answer: Humanists believe that men, not God determine values and that these values are based on prevailing circumstances. Humanists enthusiastically seek to remake the world in man's image.

NOTE: Nobody thinks without making assumptions. Those assumptions are a person's religion.

Humanists speak very dogmatically as if they are right.

In the name of church/state separation, humanists have largely removed from school textbooks all Bible doctrines and replaced their own humanist doctrines.

What are some main false humanist views that state schools teach that are anti-Biblical that we must guard children against?

1. EVOLUTION: That man gradually emerged by chance from lower life forms over millions of years.

Humanists believe that man invents truth and invents his own value system.

However, since men originate from God, then truth and values must come from God.

"So God created man in his own image." Genesis 1:27a.

"Know ye that the Lord He is God. It is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves." Psalm 100:3.

2. SELF AUTHORITY: The belief that man is his own authority & is not accountable to a higher power. This "self-sufficiency" generates self interest, self-gratification, self-indulgence and self-righteousness (ie: I am right, who are you to tell me what to do?)

Each individual is told to define his own values and order his own conduct.

Humanism as Found In Public School Textbooks:

"Think of a situation that would probably result in a difference of opinion between yourself and your parents. How would you defend your position? With what arguments would your parents counter? Write a dialogue between your parents and yourself." SE-189, col.2. par.2, Psychology For Living. McGraw-Hill Webster Div., c. 1983, Grade 5 Health.

These violate Biblical Principles:

"Woe unto them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight!" Isaiah 5:23

(See Jeremiah 17:9; 1 Corinthians 2:14).

"To obey is better than sacrifice. For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry." 1 Samuel 15:22,23.

"Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right." Ephesians 6:1.

3. SITUATION ETHICS. The belief that there are no absolute rules to live by .

Thus man becomes the final authority for his actions, depending on circumstances.

This assumes that man may define different moral codes to fit different circumstances.

Therefore, there are no rules, no right or wrong, no guidelines, and people can do what they want.

Humanism as Found In Public School Textbooks:

a) "There are exceptions to almost all moral laws, depending on the situation. What is wrong in one instance may be right in another. Most children learn that it is wrong to lie. But later they learn that it is tactless, if not actually wrong, not to lie under certain circumstances...."

SE-45, col.2, par.1, lines 5-11, Inquiries In Sociology, Allyn & Bacon, c. 1978. HS Psychology.

b) "Lesson 3: Values And Culture. What Are Values?"

It is important to work hard.....You should tell the truth at all times.....Stealing is bad.....Let each pupil decide for himself how he feels about each....Emphasise that this is not a test, and that there are no 'right' or 'wrong' answers.....". SE-10-11, TE-11, col.3, par. 2, Man and Society, Silver Burdett, 1972. Grade 5 Social Studies.

These Violate Biblical Principles: The Ten Commandments. Exodus 20:1-17.

"Be not deceived: God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth, that he shall also reap." Gal. 6:7.

"So shall I keep thy law continually for ever and ever. I will walk at liberty; for I seek thy precepts." Psalm 119:44-45.

"Woe to them that call evil good and good evil: that put darkness for light, and light for darkness, that put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter. Woe to them that are wise in their own eyes." Isaiah 5:20,21.

4. SEXUAL PERMISSIVENESS: The belief that all forms of sexual expression are acceptable e.g. sex before marriage, homosexuality, adultery, etc. They believe that school sex education is necessary, provided it is taught without Biblical morals.

Since they believe in evolution, then right and wrong don't exist. Hence they think that any sex is OK.

They say that homosexuality is just an alternative lifestyle. God says homosexuality is an abomination.

They say abortion is alright. God says it is murder.

They say free sex is alright. God says it is fornication and He will judge them for it.

They say sexually transmitted diseases can be cured. Wrong: Herpes, AIDS, Hepatitis can't be cured.

Humanism as Found In Public School Textbooks:

"Adolescent petting is an important opportunity to learn sexual responses and to gratify sexual and emotional desires without a more serious commitment." SE-161 picture caption, Life and Health, Random House, c. 1980, Grade 9-10 Health.

"Rarely is any physical harm done to the child by molesters and exhibitionists.." SE-234, col. 2.

"A person with variant sexual interests is not necessarily bad, sick, or mentally ill." SE-218,col.1.

"Venereal disease can be easily treated...." SE-103, col. 1. par. 2, lines 6-7.

"Delbert and Sally are living together while they are in college. They do not expect to marry... they feel that living together provides each other with love, affection and support." SE-278, col. 1, par. 2, Person To Person, Bennett, c. 1981 HS Homemaking.

"Divorce is considered an acceptable way of solving a problem." SE-109. par 3.

"Others have a 'til love do us part' attitude towards marriage. They see marriage as a short term goal. They seem to expect that someday their love will come to an end. They plan to end their marriage at the same time." SE-102, par.1, Homemaking Skills For Everyday Living, Goodheart-Wilcox Co., c. 1981, Grade 6-8 Homemaking.

These Violate Biblical Principles:

"When lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin when it is finished, bringeth forth death." James 1:15.

"Whoso causeth the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he shall fall himself into his own pit." Proverbs 28:10. (See also Galatians. 6:8; Leviticus. 18:22-30).

Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge." Hebrews 13:4.

5. ANTI-BIBLICAL BIAS.

Humanism rejects the Bible as our sole authority and teaches children that it is not important to know the Bible. The Bible is relegated to a place of no importance.

This idea assumes that man is the source of all truth and value systems.

Humanism as Found In Public Schools Textbooks:

"Anthropologists studying human customs, religious practices, ritualism, and the priestcraft came to the conclusion that men created their own religious beliefs so that their beliefs answered their special needs. (The God of the Judeo-Christian tradition was a god worshipped by a desert folk. Heaven was high above the desert, cool and pleasant).

The Eskimos...reversed the concept...To the anthropologists religions were functional, they served man's needs, and they were clearly man created." SE-541, col. 1 and 2, Perspectives In United States History, Field, c. 1972, High School American History.

These Violate Biblical Principles:

"The fool hath said in his heart, there is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good." Psalm 14:1 (see also Isaiah 55:8,9 and II Corinthians 4:3,4).

"Them that honour me, I will honour." 1 Samuel. 2:30.

Humanism in schools includes:

1. Science teaching says that creation is wrong, and man evolved.
2. English teaching says that the Bible is not the best literature to study. That written by man is better.
3. History starts with Napoleon in 1800, and the Battle of Hastings in 1066, not with Creation, Israel, Jesus Christ, or the Reformation.
4. Geography explains the world, ignoring the Flood.
5. Personal development ignores Salvation, prayer and Bible character.
6. Ancient History ignores Creation, Flood, Abraham, Israel and Moses.
7. Art is abstract and meaningless, not Biblical in content.
8. Music is Rock music, not melody to worship God.

6. ANTI-FREE ENTERPRISE.

The belief is that government ownership or control of the economy should replace private ownership of property and the free market economy.

This economic collectivism is known as 'Big brother movement', 'Cradle to the grave welfare', Socialism.

Humanism as Found In Public Schools Textbooks:

a) "Conclude the activity by pointing out that this breakdown in public morality revealed the need for greater government supervision."

TG-3, col. 2, par. 4, A History Of The U.S. From 1877, Holt, c. 1979, HS Sociology.

b) "Learning Check.To Discuss: Some people feel that the government should pay every family in the United States a minimum amount every year if they do not earn that amount by working. Would you support such an idea? If so, how much should this amount be? If not, why not? SE-407, Civics Government and Citizenship, Allyn & Bacon, 1993, Grade 8, Civil Government. c) "Communist governments provide many benefits for their workers...The governments also provide for health care, long vacations, and old age income. Personal incomes tend to be low...But expenses are also low. Most people in Eastern Europe can meet their daily needs without much difficulty. SE-325, col. 1, World Geography, Follett, 1980. HS World Geography.

d) "Communist Countries... All wealth is shared among the people according to their needs..." SE-318, col. 2, World Geography, Follett, c. 1983, HS World Geography.

These Violate Biblical Principles:

"He becometh poor that dealeth with a slack hand: but the hand of the diligent maketh rich." Prov. 10:4. "They shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree." Micah 4:4.

Question: Why does Satan hate free enterprise?

Answer: Because it provides wealth to send missionaries, to print Gospel tracts, and to build churches. Therefore, satan's aim is to make everybody poor, so that no money goes for Gospel preaching.

7. ONE WORLD GOVERNMENT. The belief that World govt. should replace national governments.

Question: Why does Satan want this?

Answer: It would bring in the Antichrist and it can pass laws that would stop the spread of the Gospel. It can more easily persecute and control Christians.

Humanism as Found In Public School Textbooks:

a) "Go where you may and search where you will...search out every wrong... Then you will agree with me that, for revolting barbarity and shameless hypocrisy, America has no rival."

SE-88, Many Peoples, One Nation, Random House, c. 1973, Grade 5 American History.

b) "Write a constitution for a world government..." SE-451, col. 2, par.2 American Citizenship, The Way We Govern, Addison-Wesley, c.1979, HS Civil Government.

c) "Many people think a stronger UN or a new international organisation is needed if we and the other people of the world are to move safely into the 21st century. Only a stronger world body, they argue can meet tomorrows challenges..."

SE-785, American Citizenship Program, Scholastic, c.1977, Holy Spirit Civil Government.

These Violate Biblical Principles:

"So the Lord scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth"...Genesis 11:6,7,8,9.

"He causeth all, small and great, rich and poor to receive a mark..." Revelation. 13:16-18.

8. DEATH EDUCATION. The belief that there is no hope of existence beyond the grave, no heaven or hell. Euthanasia and suicide are viable options.

Drugs are sold and used as a slow killer. Suicide is a theme of Rock music. Children are never challenged to think about heaven and hell. Death is stated as the end of it all and we can't know what lies ahead. It is implied that heaven and hell are not important issues to consider and plan for.

"When you are dead, you are dead" is the philosophy. No sense of God judging man's sin is mentioned.

Humanism as Found In Public School Textbooks:

The Experience Of Dying. The individual experiences a cosmic consciousness, characterised by a sense of unity with other people, nature and the universe; a feeling of being outside time and space; and extra ordinary feeling of contentment and ecstasy." SE-530, col. 2, lines 12-17, Life and Death, Random house, c. 1980, Grade 9-10 Health.

These Violate Biblical Principles: "I am tormented in this flame." Luke 16:24.

"There shall be both a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and the unjust." Acts. 24:15b.

"He that sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul: all they that hate me love death." Proverbs 8:36.

"Hell...where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched." Mark 9:44,46,48.

"Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven." Matthew 6:20.

9. A DISTORTED REALISM. The belief that all children should be exposed to a widespread of viewpoints such as bad language, immorality & perversions as acceptable modes of 'self expressions'. We should protect our children from evil, not teach them evil. "Be simple concerning evil."

"The truth shall set you free." Children need a clear guide to right and wrong as the devil, in order to destroy them and send them to hell, must break down their conscience and God's value system.

Lesson: BIBLE TRUTH = Reality; Anything else = Deception.

Humanism as Found In Public School Textbooks:

a) "Talking About Your Own Ideas. 1. Most people think that cheating is wrong, even if is to only get a penny, which is what Shan did. Do you think there is ever a time when it might be right? Tell when it is. Tell why you think it is right."

SE-76 Communicating, The Health English Series, D.C. Health,1973 Grade 3,Language &Grammar

b) "The moralistic value system remained firm in the rural areas and the small towns of America until World War II...since WWII, rural and small town America began to pass into history. Today urban America, with a changing set of values is taking over. "Protestant evangelists continue to crisscross the land, attempting to revitalise the old religion, the old culture. They preach the old values, the old standards, the old time religion. But now they represent a waning culture."

SE-514 Perspectives In United States History, Field, c. 1972, HS American History.

These Violate Biblical Principles:

"Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners." I Corinthians 15:33.

"Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers." Ephesians 4:29. (Ephesians 5:11-12; Philippians 4:8).

Conclusion:

"Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them." Ephesian 5:10-14

Teach your children to watch for and reject these wrong values, & to learn scriptures that oppose them.

The best answer is to Home-school them yourself through Accelerated Christian Education (ACE).

96. BAPTISMAL REGENERATION

Question: Does baptism save a person from hell?

Answer: No, for the following reasons:

Baptism is not a part of the gospel. To include baptism in the gospel is to add a work to Christ's work on the cross. It means that if we must be baptised in order to be saved, then Christ's work on the cross was not good enough to pay for our sins. Those groups who believe in baptismal regeneration (the error that baptism saves us from hell) include:

- The Boston Movement International Churches of Christ.
- The Old Anglican Church Prayer Book, page 289. "my Baptism; wherein I was made a member of Christ, the child of God, and an inheritor of the kingdom of heaven."
- Roman Catholic Church as one of the sacraments.

I. THE GOSPEL.

The gospel that saves us is defined in I Corinthians 15:1-4. It contains no hint of baptism as part of it. "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; by which also ye are saved how that

- i) Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;
- ii) And that he was buried,
- iii) And that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures.

II. FAITH IN CHRIST SAVES US, NOT BAPTISM.

It is never said that baptism saves us from hell, but many times the Bible says that faith or belief in Christ saves us. Consider these 16 examples:

- i) The woman who anointed Jesus' feet with ointment: "He said to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace." Luke 7:50.
- ii) The repentant leper: "Thy faith hath saved thee." Luke 17:19.
- iii) Blind Bartimaeus: "Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight; thy faith hath saved thee." Luke 18:42.
- iv) Woman who touched Jesus: "Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace." Mark 5:34.
- v) Palsied man let down through a roof: "When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, son, thy sins be forgiven thee." Luke 5:20; Mark 2:5.
- vi) Jews and Gentiles: "Put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith." Acts 15:9.
- vii) "We believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they." Acts 15:11.
- viii) "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." Acts 10:43.
- ix) "By him all that believe are justified from all things, from which they could not be justified by the law of Moses." Acts 13:39.
- x) "That they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them that are sanctified by faith that is in me." Acts 26:18.
- xi) "This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." John 6:29.
Note: 50 verses in chapter 91 showing that "works do not save us."
- xii) KEY PASSAGE: Acts 10:43-48 teaches we are Saved first, baptised later:

If baptismal regeneration is right, then we should see people baptised first, then saved later, or saved and baptised simultaneously. We never see this. We do see many times people being saved first, then being baptised. Notice the first Gentile convert in the Church age, Cornelius and his household in Acts 10:43-48.

The order of events in Acts 10:43-48 are:

- Hear: a) Peter preaches that through Christ’s name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. v.43.
- Saved: b) Cornelius’ household was saved, as seen by:
 “the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the Word.... on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost.” v.44,45.
 “they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God.” v.46.
 “which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we.” v.47.
Four times the Bible says that they were saved.
- Baptised: c) Cornelius’ household was baptised straight away AFTER they were saved.
 “Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptised which HAVE RECEIVED (past tense) the Holy Ghost as well as we?” v.47.
 “And he commanded them to be baptised in the name of the Lord.” v.48.
- Two verses prove that they were saved first, then baptised afterwards.
- Conclusion: The New Testament pattern is:

SAVED first, then BAPTISED later

This disproves Baptismal Regeneration, and shows that Baptism does not save us.

- xiii) The Blood of Christ saves us, not water.
 “In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins.” Colossians 1:14.
- xiv) Believers in heaven sing of salvation by Christ’s blood, not by water baptism:
 “They sung a new song, saying ... thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood ...” Revelation 5:9.
- xv) Believers overcome satan, not by water baptism, but “they overcame him by the blood of the lamb, and by the word of their testimony...” Revelation 12:11.
- xvi) Paul did not teach a different plan of salvation in Acts 22:16 than he taught the Philippian jailer in Acts 16:31.
 “Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.”

III. MISUNDERSTOOD VERSES that seem to TEACH BAPTISMAL REGENERATION.

If water baptism saves us, then everybody who believed on Christ and died without the chance to be baptised are doomed to hell forever, just because no water was available.

Those who died as babies, or those saved on their deathbed, or those saved on the battlefield then killed would not have eternal life according to this false doctrine.

How do Baptismal Regenerationists arrive at this doctrine?

1. 1 Peter 3:21 “Baptism doth also now save us ...”
 Let us quote the full verse: “The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ.”
 Notice the following about this verse:
 - a) Baptism saves US. Question: Who is the “us”?
Answer: “Us” is believers, those already born again, including Peter and his readers in the churches.
 - b) Question: How does baptism save believers in Christ?
Answer: Baptism saves us from having a bad conscience toward God, not from sins or from hell. When a believer is told that he must get baptised, he is faced with a choice. If I get baptised, I have a good conscience toward God, knowing that I have obeyed what God has commanded me.
 If I don’t get baptised, I have a bad conscience toward God, knowing that I have disobeyed what God has commanded me. Therefore, getting baptised saves a believer from a bad conscience toward God. Baptism is truly the “answer of a good conscience toward God.”

2. John 3:5 “Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God.”

Baptismal Regenerationists think that “born of water” means salvation by baptism. Yet this contradicts all other salvation scriptures which we cannot possibly throw out.

Question: What does “born of water” mean?

Answer: Just as there are two parents required for physical birth, so there are two parents required for spiritual birth: the Spirit of God and the Word of God. The Spirit of God takes the Word of God, and when the sinner believes, He imparts eternal life.

The following verses show that “born of water” means born of the Word of God:

- a) James 1:18 “Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth ...”
- b) 1 Peter 1:23 “Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the Word of God ...”
- c) John 15:3 “Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.”
- d) Ephesians 5:26 “That he (Christ) might sanctify and cleanse it (the church) with the washing of water by the word.”
The Word of God (symbolized by water) washes away our sins.
- e) Psalm 19:7 “The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul.”
God’s Word saves our souls.

The Bible is called “the sword of the Spirit.” Ephesians 6:17.

The following verses link the Spirit, or the Word, or the washing of the new birth:

- a) 1 Corinthians 6:11 “But ye are washed, ... sanctified, ... justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.”
The Lord Jesus is the Word, who, along with the Holy Spirit, saves us.
 - b) Titus 3:5 “he saved us, by the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Ghost”
 - c) John 6:63,68: “It is the Spirit that quickeneth; ... the words that I speak unto you, they are Spirit, and they are life ... Thou hast the words of eternal life.”
3. Acts 2:38 “Then Peter said unto them, repent, and be baptised every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ FOR the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.”

Baptismal Regenerationists understand this verse to teach that repentance and baptism lead to forgiveness of sins. When the Jewish crowd asked what they should do, Peter said to repent (change their minds about Jesus Christ) and be baptised (give clear public proof of that change).

Question: What does it mean: “be baptised ... for the remission of sins?” Does it mean that baptism remits sins, or saves us from sin?

Answer: No! It means baptism “because of” the forgiveness of sins that had already taken place earlier at repentance.

“FOR” in Greek is “EIS” meaning:

- “because of”,
- “on the basis of”, or
- “on account of”, something.

For example,

1. “I am taking a tablet for a headache that I got in the past” means that I am taking a tablet “because of” a headache. This is the meaning of “for” (Greek: eis) in Acts 2:38. It does not mean that “I am taking a tablet to give me a headache in the future” as the baptismal regenerationist’s think “for” means in Acts 2:38.
2. “Ned Kelly is wanted for robbery”, can have two meanings, either:
 - i) Ned Kelly is wanted “because of” a robbery that he has committed in the past, or
 - ii) Ned Kelly is wanted “to help commit” a robbery in the future.

The Greek word “EIS” in Acts 2:38 is the first meaning in each of the above two examples. It is used to mean “because of” in these references:

1. Matthew 3:11 “I indeed ²baptise you with water unto (EIS = because of) ¹repentance (in the past).
2. Matthew 10:41 “He that ²receives a prophet in (EIS = because of) the ¹name of a prophet.”
3. Matthew 12:41 “They ²repented at (EIS = because of) the ¹preaching of Jonah.”
4. Mark 1:4 “Preach the ²baptism of repentance for (EIS=because of) the ¹remission of sins.”
5. Acts 7:53 “Who have ²received the law by (EIS=because of) the ¹disposition of angels
6. Acts 2:38 “Repent, and be ²baptised ... for (EIS = because of) the ¹remission of sins.”

[¹ means the first action, ² means the following action.]

Therefore in Acts 2:38 we should understand it to mean: “be baptised because of the remission of sins.” These Jews were to be baptised as a public witness that their sins had been forgiven. Peter did not suggest that baptism is necessary for the forgiveness of sins. Rather, he was calling for members of that generation which were guilty of having crucified Christ to separate themselves from a generation under the judgment of God. That separation was to be publicly signified through baptism. The baptism that they were challenged to submit to, signified that the people had received the forgiveness of sins.

Question 1: If baptism is essential for salvation, why did Peter say nothing about baptism as a condition for salvation in his 3 other sermons in Acts 3:12-26; 5:29-32; 10:34-43?

Question 2: If baptism is essential for salvation, why did Cornelius’ household receive the Holy Spirit (and hence salvation) before they were baptised? This clearly disproves the baptism regeneration position.

Question 3: Why does the same writer Luke say that repentance results in remission of sins without baptism in Luke 24:47 “that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations...”

“Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.” Acts 5:31.

Conclusion: Acts 2:38 means:

1. Repent and you will be saved,
2. At salvation you get the Holy Ghost,
3. Then be baptised because your sins have been remitted.

4. Acts 22:16 “And now why tarriest thou? Arise and be baptised, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord.”

This verse of Ananias speaking to Paul has four segments:

- i) Arise (which is a participle, meaning “arising”).
- ii) Be baptized (a command to Paul).
- iii) Wash away your sins (a command meaning: “You Paul, wash away your sins”)
- iv) Calling on the name of the Lord. (“Calling on” is not a present participle, but is an aorist (point in time) participle also translated “having called on” or “since you called upon.” This means “having previously called on the name of the Lord.”

Question 1: Does Acts 22:16 teach that water baptism washes away sins, and that we are saved by water baptism?

Answer: No. This question can be answered by asking two other questions.

Question 2: When was Paul saved? On the Damascus Road (which proves baptism does not save) or at Judas’ house with Ananias?

Answer: Several reasons indicate that he was saved on the road to Damascus:

- i) Ananias called him “Brother Saul” in Acts 22:13 and 9:17.
1 Corinthians 5:11 says that “brother” means “a believer.” “If any man that is called a brother.” Saul was called a brother.

- ii) The Gospel was presented to Saul on the Damascus road directly by Christ, not later by Ananias. Galatians 1:11,12, “the gospel which was preached of me is not after man. For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.” Paul says here that Ananias did not preach the gospel to him, but Jesus Christ did. Paul would not have rejected Christ’s gospel message on the Damascus Road.
- iii) Paul had already submitted in faith to Christ by calling Him “Lord” in Acts 22:10 “What shall I do Lord?” and in Acts 9:6 “Lord, what wilt thou have me to do?” “No man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.” 1 Corinthians 12:3.
- iv) Paul was filled with the Spirit BEFORE his baptism in water in Acts 9:17,18. “Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou might receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Ghost. And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received his sight therewith, and arose, and was baptised.”
- v) Revelation 1:5 and 7:14 both state that the Blood of Christ washes away sins, not water, as far as God is concerned, “unto him that loved us, & washed us from our sins in his own blood.” Revelation 1:5 “washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.” Revelation 7:14

Question 3: What do the words “wash away thy sins” mean?

Do they teach that water baptism brings salvation?

Answer: No. Because Paul was already cleansed spiritually. Water baptism is an outward picture expressing God’s inner work of washing away sin. “But ye are washed, ... but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.” 1 Corinthians 6:11.

Note: In 1 Corinthians 6:11 the washing refers to the inward cleansing of the heart by the Holy Spirit as seen by the use of the Greek: “apelousasthe” meaning “you were and are washed”, instead of the Greek: “ebaptisthete” meaning “you were baptised”.

The complete N.T. Word Study Dictionary by S. Zodhiates, p.232.

“He saved us by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost.” Titus 3:5.

Question 4: Why did Ananias use the words “wash away thy sins”?

Answer: Paul by killing Christians, had a bad conscience, bad memories and bad regrets. Baptism for Paul was truly “the answer of a good conscience toward God” (I Peter 3:21), showing to men that he had finished with the old life, and was truly forgiven and saved by Christ as a new creature. Ananias is saying to Saul: “show to men that your sins have been washed away.”

- 5. Mark 16:16 “He that believeth and is baptised shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned.”

A superficial reading of Mark 16:16 may suggest that sinners must be baptised to be saved. “He that believeth and is baptised shall be saved” is not the same as saying that “baptism is necessary for salvation”.

Question: What does it mean? What does baptism save us from?

Believing in Christ saves us from our sins and from hell (John 3:16).

Being baptised saves us from having a bad conscience toward God. (I Peter 3:21).

To teach that baptism saved us from hell would injure hundreds of verses teaching us that salvation is by faith in Christ alone and not by our works. We must not throw out hundreds of verses in order to force one verse to fit.

The last part of verse 16 omits baptism, saying that condemnation to hell comes only from refusal to believe, not from a failure to be baptised.

Note: John 3:18 is a similar verse that clarifies Mark 16:16.

“He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.”

This verse proves that:

- i) The person who believes in Christ is not condemned, whether or not he has been baptised.
- ii) A person is condemned, “because he has not believed”, even if he has been baptised and attends church, etc.

Note: Baptismal Regenerationists try to get around the many scriptures saying that “he who believes in Christ is saved”, by saying that “faith includes baptism.” That is to say, if one believes in Christ he will be baptised, and they say that “faith is not complete until one is baptised.” This is false because:

- i) Mark 16:16. Belief and Baptism are separated as two different things.

“He that believeth and is baptised.”

If believing included baptism, then Jesus would not have added the word “baptism”.

- ii) Acts 2:38. Repentance and Baptism are separated as two different things.

“Repent and be baptised.”

If repentance included baptism, then Peter would not have added the word “be baptised”

It is never stated in the Bible that if one believes or repents, then he will be baptised.

Note: People can be saved from things other than hell, such as from:

- i) Antichrist’s persecutions (Matthew 24:13),
- ii) Physical death (Matthew 24:22; Acts 27:20,31),
- iii) Suffering (Matthew 27:42),
- iv) A purposeless life by childbearing (I Timothy 2:15),
- v) Drowning in the Flood (I Peter 3:20),
- vi) Slavery in Egypt (Jude 5).

- 6. Galatians 3:27 “As many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.”

Does “baptized into Christ” mean water or spirit baptism? Check the context:

“That we might be justified by faith.” Galatians 3:24.

“But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.” v.25.

“For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.” v.26.

“For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.” v.27.

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free ...: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.” v.28.

Because it is clear that v.24,25,26 and 28 all refer to justification by faith, then v.27, “baptized into Christ”, must refer to the Holy Spirit baptism at salvation, and not to water baptism. The context demands it.

“For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.” 1 Corinthians 12:13.

Four reasons that Galatians 3:27 must be Spirit baptism:

- i) 1 Corinthians 12:13 clearly refers to Spirit baptism, placing us all in the body of Christ at salvation.
 - ii) Both 1 Corinthians 12:13 and Galatians 3:28 say that in Spirit baptism, there is neither Jew nor Greek, neither bond nor free.
 - iii) Galatians 3:27 says that being baptised into Christ is putting on Christ, referring to a change of garments. The believer has put off the dirty garments of sin (Isaiah 64:6), and by faith, received the robes of Christ’s righteousness (Colossians 3:8-15).
 - iv) The context of Galatians 3:24,25,26 and 28 are all Spirit baptism of salvation by faith, not by water baptism, which appears nowhere in the context.
- Therefore, faith in Jesus Christ as Saviour baptises us into Christ, not water baptism.

7. Colossians 2:12. Is this Spirit or water baptism?

“Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead.” This is Spirit baptism because:

- i) It is through faith. It is the operation of God. It was the power of God that changed us, not the power of water.
- ii) v.11 compares salvation to the “circumcision made without hands.” This is an act of God at a time in the past. If it was made “without hands” then it was spiritually wrought, not wrought by man.
- iii) The effect of this was “the putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by circumcision of Christ.” v.11. It is not by water baptism.
- iv) v.13: “And you,... hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses.” This can only come by faith in Christ, which results in Spirit baptism.

Conclusion: Baptism here refers to the Baptism of the Holy Spirit by Jesus Christ at salvation, and not to water baptism.

8. Romans 6:1-5

The literal meaning of New Testament baptism is “to dip, to immerse.”

The figurative meaning of New Testament baptism is “to be identified with.”

For example, in 1 Corinthians 10:1-2 the Jewish nation was “baptised unto Moses” when it went through the Red Sea. There was no water involved in this baptism, because they went over on dry land. Here, the nation was identified with Moses, and baptism here means “identification with.”

In Romans 6:1-5, Paul had both the literal and figurative meanings in mind, because he used the reader’s experience of water baptism to remind them of their identification with Christ through the baptism of the Holy Spirit.

To be “baptised into Jesus Christ” (Romans 6:3) is the same as “For by one Spirit are we all baptised into one body” (1 Corinthians 12:13), which is Baptism of the Holy Spirit at salvation. Paul is not saying that their immersion in water put them “into Christ”, but that water immersion was a picture of what the Holy Spirit did at our salvation, identifying us with Christ in His death, burial and resurrection.

“Baptised into his death” means that every believer has a new relationship to sin. We are “dead to sin.” “I am crucified with Christ” (Galatians 2:20). We now walk in newness of life and in the power of Christ’s resurrection, because we share His life.

Too many Christians are “betweeners.” They live between Egypt and Canaan, saved but are never satisfied; or they live between Good Friday and Easter, believing in the cross, but not entering into the power of Christ’s resurrection life.

Conclusion:

Water baptism does not save us from damnation because:

- i) The blood of Christ saves us. Revelation 1:5; 7:14.
- ii) Baptism is not part of the gospel.
“For Christ sent me not to baptise, but to preach the gospel...” 1 Corinthians 1:17.
“The gospel of Christ is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth” Romans 1:16. Not “to every one that is baptised.”
- iii) Baptism is mentioned 80 times in the New Testament. Paul uses it only 16 times:
 - a) 11 refer to water baptism. 6 out of 11 times he uses it in I Corinthians 1:13-17 to explain that Christ sent him not to baptise.
 - b) Paul refers to water baptism only twice in his letters (I Corinthians 15:29).
 - c) Paul emphasizes Spirit baptism (in Romans 6:3; 1 Corinthians 10:2; 12:13; Galatians 3:27; Colossians 2:12) more than water baptism. Paul’s small usage of baptism proves that it does not bring salvation.
- iv) Salvation by water baptism takes away from the sufficiency of Christ’s sacrifice for our sins. Leave any church today that teaches the error of Baptismal Regeneration of infants or adults.

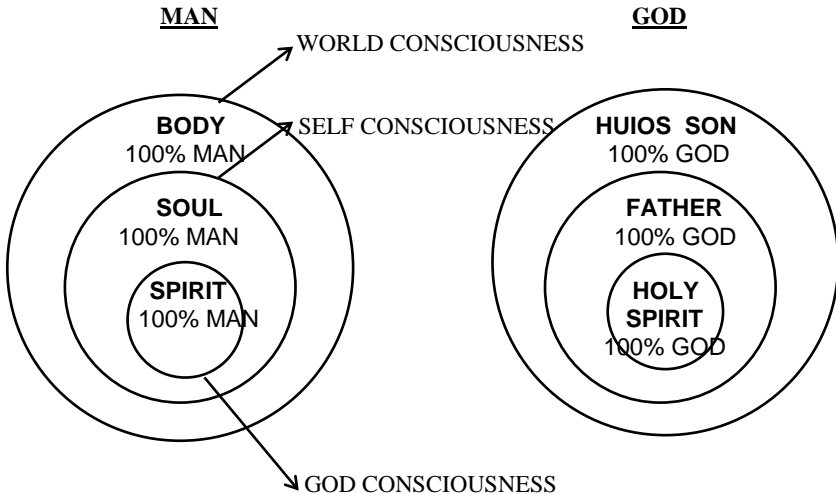

97. THE ERROR OF SOUL SLEEP

Question: Where does man's spirit go after death?

Answer: The spirit and soul of a saved person go to heaven. The spirit of a lost person goes to hell. This happens immediately at death. The soul does not go to sleep, nor does it lose consciousness. The body sleeps in the grave, but the soul remains conscious, either in heaven or in hell.

MAN'S MAKEUP IS BODY, SOUL and SPIRIT because:

1. Man's being consists of body, soul and spirit.
 "... I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ." 1 Thessalonians 5:23.
2. "The Word of God ... piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow." Hebrews 4:12.
 This shows man's nature to be trichotomous: soul, spirit, body.
3. Paul discusses three kinds of men as natural (following body impulses), carnal (following soul impulses) and spiritual (following spiritual leading of the Holy Spirit). 1 Corinthians 2:14-3:4.
4. "The Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground (body), and breathed into his nostrils the breath (spirit) of life; and man became a living soul (soul)". Genesis 2:7.
 It is not said that man became spirit and soul; but rather, that God inbreathed spirit, and man became a living soul. God's life took possession of clay, and as a result man had a soul.
5. God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness ... so God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him..." Genesis 1:26,27.
 As God has a spirit, soul and body, so man has a spirit, soul and body, made in God's image. As God is a Trinity, so is man a Trichotomous being. For example:

- i) We have a spirit who is 100% human. God has a Spirit called the Holy Spirit who is 100% God.
- ii) We have a body that is 100% human. God has something like a body called the Son who is 100% God.
- iii) We have a soul that that is 100% human that tells our body what to do. God has something like a soul called the Father who is 100% God who tells the Son (Grk: Huios, same nature Son) what to do. This explains how Jesus as God, obeys His Father, in the same way that our body obeys our mind's directives. Jesus Christ submits to the Father, and our body submits to our mind.
 Jesus Christ is still as 100% God as His Father, and our body is still as 100% human as our mind.

WHAT HAPPENS TO US AFTER DEATH? At death, the soul and spirit leave the body.

1. Unbelievers.

In the Old Testament, the spirit and soul of an unbeliever went immediately to the torment of hell, which is inside the earth. Notice these verses showing that people are conscious in hell, and that hell is inside the earth.

1. The sorrows of hell compassed me about. Psalm 18:5. Note: Hell has sorrows.
2. The pains of hell got hold of me. Psalm 116:3. Note: Hell has pains.
3. The wicked shall be turned into hell. Psalm 9:17. Note: Hell is for the wicked.
4. It is as high as heaven ... deeper than hell. Job 11:8. Note: Hell is deep in the earth.
5. A fire ... shall burn to the lowest hell. Deuteronomy 32:22. Note: Hell has fire.
6. Hell and destruction are never full. Proverbs 27:20. Note: Hell is like destruction.
7. Thou shalt beat him with the rod, and shalt deliver his soul from hell. Proverbs 23:14.
8. Hell from beneath ... stirs up the dead for thee. All they shall speak and say unto thee, art thou become weak as we? Isaiah 14:9,10.
People's souls in hell can stir, speak and say, proving that soul sleep of unbelievers is false.
9. Unto the nether (lower) parts of the earth, with them that go down into the pit. Ezekiel 32:18. Note: The pit and hell are in the lower parts of the earth.
10. The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of hell. Ezekiel 32:21. Note: People in hell can speak, showing that they are not asleep.
11. The Zidonians which are gone down with the slain ... Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be comforted, even Pharaoh and all his army slain by the sword. Ezekiel 32:30,31. Note: Pharaoh, after being killed in battle is comforted in hell by seeing the Zidonians, who have also been killed in battle, enter hell with him. People can see in hell, have comforting thoughts of other people suffering and thus, are not sleeping.
12. The rich man in Hell, could see, hear, taste, touch. Four times it says that he is tormented. "And in hell he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeing Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom (v.23). And he cried and said, father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame (v.24). But Abraham said, ...now he (Lazarus) is comforted, and thou art tormented (v.25). Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house: For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment." (v.28). Luke 16:19-31.

2. Old Testament Believers.

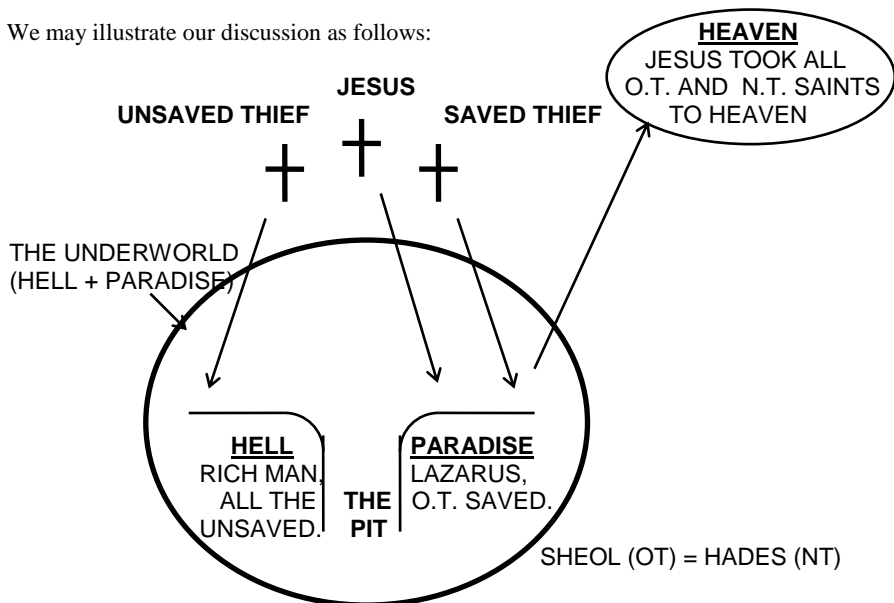

In the Old Testament, the spirit and soul of a believer went immediately to the comfort of paradise in the lower parts of the earth.

- a) "Now he (Lazarus) is comforted." Luke 16:25.
- b) "Jesus said to him, verily I say unto thee, today shalt thou be with me in paradise." Luke 23:43
Note: The Jehovah Witness translation of this verse is utterly childish. Jesus is supposed to have said, "verily I say unto thee today". Well of course he said it today. When else would he be saying it? Yesterday? "I say" is present tense.
- c) Samuel's spirit came up out of the earth after his death to tell Saul that tomorrow Saul, Jonathan and his other sons would be killed in battle, and would be with Samuel in paradise. "the woman said to Saul, I saw gods ascending out of the earth....What form is he of? And she said, an old man cometh up:and he is covered with a mantle. Samuel said to Saul,Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me up?..tomorrow shalt thou and thy sons be with me." 1 Samuel 28:12-19
Note: Samuel was resting in paradise in the earth, and resented Saul disturbing him by bringing him up. Samuel was not asleep, just resting; not in soul sleep, but conscious.
- d) When Jesus died, he descended into the lower parts of the earth, and after preaching to spirits in prison (1 Peter 3:19), he led all Old Testament believers out of paradise (inside the earth) and up to heaven. "when he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive ... (now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?)" Ephesians 4:8,9.

“By which also he went and preached unto the spirits in prison.” 1 Peter 3:19.

Jesus would not waste his time preaching to spirits imprisoned in the underworld if they were sleeping and could not hear him. You only preach to those who are conscious.

We may illustrate our discussion as follows:

3. New Testament Believers.

In the New Testament, the spirit and soul of believers go immediately upon dying to heaven. We know this because of these reasons:

- a) To depart and to be with Christ in heaven is far better.
 "For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and TO BE WITH CHRIST; which is far better." Philippians 1:23.
 Paul desired to depart his body by dying, so that he could be with Christ IN HEAVEN, which is far better than staying on the earth.
 It is far better to go to soul consciousness with Christ in heaven.
- b) When we are absent from the body, we are present with the Lord in heaven.
 "... knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord: we are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord." 2 Corinthians 5:6,8.
 When we are out of our body (death), we are present with the Lord. Where is the Lord now? In heaven. Therefore, a believer's spirit and soul go to heaven on dying.
- c) Departed Believers watch us from heaven.
 "Wherefore, seeing we also are surrounded by so great a cloud of WITNESSES, let us lay aside every weight ..." Hebrews 12:1.
 We are told to run with patience the race that is set before us, because we are being watched from heaven by all the spirits and souls of dead believers, some of whom are stated in Hebrews 11. It is like spectators in a grandstand watching athletes run their races.
- d) Spirits of just men made perfect are now in heaven.
 "But ye are come unto ... the heavenly Jerusalem ... to the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the SPIRITS of just men made perfect." Hebrews 12:23,24. This clearly tells us that when believers die, their spirits go to heaven immediately.

- e) Christ at His Second Coming brings departed believers' souls with Him to the air.
 1 Thessalonians 4:14 tells us that the spirits of believers who have died, are waiting in heaven until the day when Jesus Christ will bring their spirits and souls with Him at the second coming in the air to be rejoined with their resurrected bodies. "... them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him." Their dead bodies, buried in the grave will be resurrected to rejoin their spirits and souls which Christ will bring with him from heaven. Christ bringing their spirits and souls, shows that they are with Christ in heaven after death awaiting the resurrection.
- f) Souls of departed believers are in heaven crying out for revenge.
 After the rapture (catching away of believers to heaven) many people get saved in the seven year tribulation. Many of these are killed by the Antichrist. Do their souls go to soul-sleep in the grave? No! Their souls are seen under the altar in heaven:
 "I saw under the altar the SOULS of them that were slain for the word of God ... they cried with a loud voice, saying ..." Revelation 6:9,10.
 These souls of dead believers are in heaven. They can cry out with a loud voice. They have memory of their death on earth, crying for revenge. They are not unconscious or soul-sleeping in the grave.

* For 12 other verses that show believers go to heaven, see page 24.

Objection: Some verses come close to saying that the dead are unconscious eg. Psalm 30:9; 115:17; 146:4; Ecclesiastes 9:10; Isaiah 38:18,19. These say that a dead body can't praise God, but the soul is still alive. How do we understand these verses in the light of the vast majority of verses that teach that human souls are conscious after death?

1. "What profit is there in my blood, when I go down to the pit? Shall the dust praise thee? Shall it declare thy truth?" Psalm 30:9.
Answer: The Old Testament saints had a gloomy view of death. Death to them was seen as an interruption in their communion with God, even for believers. They saw death as a continuation of existence (Isaiah 14:9-11), but on terms which robbed it of all that deserves to be called life. David shared the common view, and he uses it as part of his appeal to God.
2. "The dead praise not the Lord, neither any that go down into silence. But we will bless the Lord." Psalm 115:17.
Answer: Jesus had not yet brought life and immortality to light through the Gospel. "But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the Gospel." 2 Timothy 1:10.
 Believers now have eternal life and an immortal soul. The Holy Spirit used Old Testament believers' limited understanding of the afterlife to urge them to praise God while they could.
3. Question: What about Psalm 146:4, "His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts (Heb: "esh-tonah" 6250) perish."?
Answer: When a person dies, his earthly plans, ambitions and thoughts perish with him. After death, we cannot contribute anything to fulfil our earthly ambitions. "Thoughts" in Hebrew mean "polished, sleek, plans formed in the mind." "His thoughts perish" means that his ambitions perish. "Eshtonah" (Heb: 6250) from "ashath"(6245) is only ever used of "thoughts" here in Psalm 146:4. "Thoughts" most commonly used in the Old Testament is "machashabah" (Heb: 4284), a different Hebrew word to that word used in Psalm 146:4.
 - "Thoughts that perish" are the wicked man's plans and purposes which come to naught at his death. The thoughts which go to the grave are his vain projects. eg: the thoughts of the rich fool of building bigger barns and of many years of ease and prosperity. All his selfish, worldly schemes, perished in that same night. (Luke 12:16-21).
 - Moses & Elias lived after death to talk with Christ on the Mount Transfiguration. Luke 9:30,31
 - Luke 20:38 "He is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all live unto him."
 - Colossians 3:2 The New Testament tells believers to "set your affections on things above." This means that we go to heaven at death.

4. Question: What about Ecclesiastes 9:5,6,10?

Answer: These are written from the standpoint of knowledge "under the sun", from the viewpoint of natural man who lives without thoughts for God. This restates the philosophy of unbelievers that "when you're dead, you're dead".

"...the dead know not anything ..." Ecclesiastes 9:5.

Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished." Ecclesiastes 9:6.

"There is no work, no device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave where thou goest." Ecclesiastes 9:10.

"For the grave cannot praise thee, death cannot celebrate thee: they that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth." Isaiah 38:18.

The term "sleep", when applied to death, refers to death of the body only. After the resurrection of Christ, believers went into the presence of Christ at their death.

CONCLUSION.

The "Soul-Sleep" error is held by Seventh Day Adventists, Jehovah Witnesses, and Christadelphians. Use these Scriptures to refute this error.

98. WHAT'S WRONG WITH "CHRISTIAN" ROCK MUSIC?

Bible Reading: Numbers 21:1-9

Aim: To examine "Christian" rock music compared with godliness, worship of Christ and the Bible.

Introduction:

The main reason that churches introduce rock bands into their services is in the hope that if they can be as close to the world as possible, the unsaved won't see too much difference, they will better "relate" to young people and hence have a better chance of winning them to Christ. However, God says:

"Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him." 1 John 2:15.

"Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? Whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God." James 4:4.

Strong words indeed that God speaks to churches that seek to imitate the world and worldly methods to reach people for Christ. God calls them the "enemy of God" and the "love of the Father is not in him."

God and Samuel strongly protested Israel's desire to "have a king over us: that we may also be like the nations." 1 Samuel 8:19,20.

Bringing rock music into a church is the same sin of desiring to be like the nations.

Christians should "be not conformed to this world" (Romans 12:2), but be people separated from worldly practices and separated to be holy like God.

As Bible believing Christians, we must rebuke error when we see it.

"I charge thee before God and the Lord Jesus Christ .. Preach the Word; be instant in season, out of season (when it is unpopular); reprove (Gk:1651 = tell a fault, convince, convict), rebuke (Gk:2008 = forbid, straightly charge), exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine." II Timothy 4:2.

"Nor faint when thou art rebuked of him." Hebrews 12:5.

"All Scripture.....is profitable for doctrine, for reproof ¹⁶⁵⁰, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect." I Timothy 3:16.

I. QUESTION: WHAT IS WRONG WITH WORLDLY, NON CHRISTIAN ROCK MUSIC?

- Answer:
1. It has ungodly themes of rebellion, drugs, sex, and demons.
 2. It's musicians set an ungodly lifestyle example of deep sin.
 3. David Bowie rock star says: "Rock music has always been the devil's music."
Little Richard says: "I believe this kind of music is demonic."
 4. Rock music contains many clear back masked and subliminal messages.

II. QUESTION: WHAT'S WRONG WITH CHRISTIAN ROCK MUSIC?

Reason 1. Very little CCM (Contemporary Christian Music) encourages heart searching or reproof.

Amy Grant's "Raining on the inside" ends with "WOW, You know I'm just getting really excited."

Compare this shallow message with the famous song: "Am I a soldier of the cross?"

Reason 2. Does the song Exalt Christ? or emphasise man?

e.g. Does it emphasise the singer's loneliness, the believer's needs, his feelings or does it glorify Christ? Compare it with the famous hymns: "Holy, Holy, Holy," or "O Worship the King."

Reason 3. Does the song lose the sense of God's majesty, solemnity, and reverence?

Reason 4. C-Rock teaches teens to sneer at traditional church music as boring, and to rebel against their parents and their church as being out of touch with their worldly music tastes.

This shows contempt for the richest wealth of Bible music ever created.

Four tests for good church music are:

- i) Music should uplift the church, not mock or criticise it.
- ii) Music should carry Bible messages, not anti Bible message
- iii) Music should bring more glory to God, than to the performer.
- iv) Music should feed the spirit more than the old flesh.

Classic Christian hymns don't feed the flesh, they show it rotten to the core.

Compare these songs:

Rock on - Stryper

"Come on everybody/put your hands above your head/Today we're screamin'/Cause tomorrow you might be dead/The earth is shakin', and the clouds are rolled away/Come on everybody/Get ready for the Judgment Day/Rock on, Got my feet on the ground/Got my eyes on Heaven/Rock on"

My Saviour's Love

"I stand amazed in the presence of Jesus the Nazarene/
And wonder how He could love me/A sinner condemned, unclean....."

Compare that piercing Bible truth to this C-Rock wisdom, by CCM star Charlie Peacock:

Big Man's Hat

"I used to have a big man's thoughts/In a young man's world/You got to have big man's thoughts/To make a big man's girl/And when I finally made that girl, she did not have a clue/That I would break her like a matchstick/That I could turn young love into the third world war...."

Reason 5: C-Rock departs from normal music.

Answer: Seidel, a concert pianist and 25 year Christian music expert states that:

"True godly music, will be composed of three elements - all in perfect balance with each other. They are: MELODY, HARMONY, and RHYTHM.

Rock "music" has no melody - only fragments of melody endlessly repeated. Since there is no true melody, there is no real harmony. There is only rhythm, and rhythm in and of itself is not music."

C-rock ends with a crash or long fade-out, with no resolution.

Reason 6: C-rock copies the world.

John 15:18 "If the world hates you, ye know it hated me..."

C-rock devotees feel secure in saying that there is no Scripture saying "Thou shalt not listen to Christian rock".

Answer: There is no verse that says "Don't beat your wife" either.

They desire to "Let me keep sinning."

Consider these verses against C-rock:

- i) I John 2:15,16 "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him."
C-rock looks like the world, and is worldly. When C-rock stars wear skin tight spandex, teased long hair, use smoke bombs, and strobe lights, this is the lust of the eyes, the lust of the flesh, and the pride of life.
If you can't see this as being worldly, you are in deep bondage to the flesh.
- ii) James 4:4 "...whosoever will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God."
CCM stars look and act like the world.
CCM music and lyrics are like the world.
Kim Boyce: "Sounds a lot like Madonna." Gospel Music Today (1980).
Barren Cross: "They have the sound and intensity of Iron Maiden."
Amy Grant: "Lyrically, the only difference between Amy Grant's love songs and Olivia Newton John's, is that often Amy Grant's pronouns come with capital letters."
Stryper: "Outward trappings of ... Iron Maiden and Judas Priest."
Therefore C-rock stars learned from worldly, secular rock stars years ago.
- iii) Ecclesiastes 7:5 "It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, thanthe song of fools."

Objection: Fans say "That's just the music, the lyrics are the real difference."

Answer: Let's do an experiment. Which song is Christian and which is secular?

BURN IN HELL

"Take a good look in your heart/Tell me, what you see?/ It's black and it's dark/
Now is that how you want it to be?/
It's up to you, what you do will decide your own fate/Make your choice now, for tomorrow may be far too late/And then you'll burn in Hell/Oh burn in Hell/
You're gonna burn in Hell..."

Fiery judgment against sin: Twisted Sister.

The heathen produce more Biblical lyrics than so called Christian rock music.

SILENCE SCREAMS

"The folly in our passions/
The prisons of desire/ The foolishness of bigots/Tinder for the fire/In bitterness and exile/
As foolish as it seems/ In the coldest, darkest spirit/Silence screams/Silence screams/ The echoes roar/Silence screams forevermore.."

Resurrection band: "Christian"

- iv) I Corinthians 10:20 "I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils."
C-rock contains demon messages backmasked praising Satan.
- v) II Corinthians 6:14 "What fellowship has righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion has light with darkness?"
- vi) Ephesians 5:11 "Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness but rather reprove them. For it is a shame (sin → guilt → shame) even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret."
C-rock fellowships with worldly darkness.

Reason 7. C-rock doesn't preach conviction of sin.

Wayne Watson: "I won't write a song that says "You better get right with God .. it makes people feel defensive."

That "defensiveness" is called Holy Spirit Conviction and no one gets saved without it. John 6:44 and 16:7-11.

Jesus Christ preached against sin: "Except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish." Luke 13:5. Why are they scared of preaching against sin? Because they're afraid of "turning people off", offending cash customers and losing record sales.

We should separate from worldly, compromising rock music. Why? Because:

"As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance." I Peter 1:14.

Christ, Paul, the Apostles and martyrs turned some people off and were killed for it. We all must choose to stand for Christ or for Satan.

Reason 8: C-rockers are Ignorant of Satan's game to COUNTERFEIT moves of God.

Answer: To be blind to this, is not to know the enemy. II Corinthians 11:12-15.

"The god of this world has blinded the minds of them which believe not." 2 Corinthians 4:3-4

What are C-rock fans ignorant of:

- i) Motive of money. If there's a dollar to be made, you can bet someone will slap the label "Christian" on it and open up a whole new market.
- ii) Backmasking and subliminal messages:
Why does Satan backmask? To gain MIND CONTROL.

The alcohol, tobacco and retail industries spend millions of dollars yearly on subliminal programming. Shops use it to fight shoplifting.

"Enchantment is a form of spell casting primarily involving mind control. Enchanters dispatch or assign wicked spirits to objects and places for whatever purpose the spell calls for...Enchantment controls the mind and is one of the most powerful spells that can be cast on a person...." David Meyer ex-occultist.

Jimi Hendrix revealed the conspiracy of subliminals 20 years ago.

ROCKING FOR JESUS

Under this chapter heading, Jeff Godwin reports on CHRISTIAN ROCK. He says that "Christian rock" is a contradiction in terms. "How can Christ be unequally yoked with the perverse paganism of Rock?" He cites the group STRYPER as being the forerunner of a new trend in Christian music - Heavy Metal Christian Rock. The music on STRYPER's albums was no different to W.A.S.P. or AC-DC. Only the words were positive praise to the King, WHEN you could hear them, that is.

Godwin maintains that Satan is the King of Rock, and that he does not stop at the door of the Gospel Record store. Rather, Satan is now mounting a strategic offensive against Christians, utilising willing, zealous believers to propagate the beat, the style and the hidden messages amongst young Christians.

Question: Some Christian Rockers argue that Rock music doesn't have to be satanic. If the lyrics are about Christ and salvation, it can be a legitimate form by which young people in a world of rock music can be won for Christ.

Answer: We are not talking here about lively gospel music. We're talking about ROCK! We are not talking about beat or even drums. We're talking about ROCK beat and style.

While some Christian Rockers may be seeking to win souls in the rock world, some Christian rockers are actually introducing young people to Rock music.

Can these young people be expected to maintain a preference for the "Christian" variety? Why not enjoy "worldly" rock also?

Or if some young people are won to Christ through Rock, are they then to be nurtured through Rock? Jeff Godwin comments: "There's one very simple test for Christians to use to determine what is and what is not godly music: Could you play that music as part of the Sunday morning worship service without offending God? I don't care if it's rock, Christian Rock, Country or contemporary: if the music can't fit comfortably into Sunday morning worship, then it is not worth playing at all.

If such music cannot be used to praise the King, then why are you listening to it?"

Reason 9. Biblical precepts against Christian Rock music:

Firstly, God is concerned with the seed that produces the fruit. All seed produces of its own kind. Out of which womb was Rock music born? Was it born in the womb of Spirit-filled or unsaved musicians?

Secondly, God will not accept a blemished sacrifice! (Malachi 1:8-13). Every Christian concert or record should be an offering to the Lord. Is Rock music an acceptable offering to God?

"I've noticed", he says, "that musicians at Christian concerts seldom perform rock just before the message and invitation. It is not conducive to conviction of any kind because it is of another spirit. If it is of God, why not use it before the invitation? Why not a ripping rock segment just before the sermonette? It is reserved for the entertainment part of concerts, to the accompanying of fleshly whistles, shouting and grooving. It doesn't inspire them to kneel and pray, or even to bow their heads and worship. There is not one ounce of conviction in it - God refuses to touch it. What it does is turn audiences on to a fleshly display of jumping on seats, jiving and dancing in anything but a spiritual manner."

Thirdly, God has His prescribed boundaries for worship. (Malachi 1:12).

Fourthly, God is looking for overcomers who will search out the old paths and find the right way. (Jeremiah 6:16).

Fifthly, God will not tolerate the uncircumcised of heart in His house. (Ezekiel 44:7-13).

Sixthly, there can be no worship if the name of Baalim be on our lips. "God is saying, "My true worshippers will never again speak of, let alone do those things that represent the old life and former idols." Hosea 2:17.

Finally, it all comes down to our love for Christ, "If any man love the world, or the things that are in the world, the love of the Father is not in him". (1 John 2:15).

If we are going to line up with God, we need to stand up against rock, help pray it down, and refuse to support any Christian performer, group or station who continues pushing it.

Heavy-metal rock music can trap people, especially teenagers" into dabbling in disgraceful Satanic practices. For example, we denounce Rock star Ozzy Osborne's tune SUICIDE SOLUTION:

"Wine is fine but whiskey's quicker
Suicide is slow with liquor
Suicide is the only way out,
Don't you know what it's really about?"

Former Beatle John Lennon was shot to death in December 1980. "His "Double Fantasy" album had been in record stores for weeks. The song "Kiss, Kiss, Kiss", from that album, contains a backmask that Yoko Ono sang, which says, "WE SHOT JOHN LENNON."

If a demon didn't leave that little calling card, who did? How did Yoko Ono's human spirit KNOW, much less SAY, "We Shot John Lennon," long before the murder happened? Mark David Chapman (Lennon's killer) admitted that demonic spirits gave him the strength to carry out the execution.

There's only one answer. That backmasked message on Lennon's record didn't come from a human spirit, it came from a demon's throat!

So how do these messages GET into the music? It's really very easy. The demons just talk while their Rock and CCM dupes sing. Demons are well able to speak out loud, as Mark 1:23-25 makes very clear.

Reason 10. APPEARANCE OF C-ROCK STARS

"A proud look" Proverbs 6:16-17. Pride is one of seven abominations to God.

"Nor effeminate shall inherit the Kingdom of God." I Corinthians 6:9

"The lofty looks of man shall be humbled". Isaiah 2:11,12.

"The show of their countenance doth witness against them". Isaiah 3:9

BLOODGOOD

"The show of their countenance doth witness against them; and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not. Woe unto their soul! for they have rewarded evil unto themselves." Isaiah 3:9

SAINT

"An high look, and a proud heart, and the plowing of the wicked, is sin."

Proverbs 21:4
HOLY SOLDIER

"The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, and the Lord alone shall be exalted in that day. For the day of the Lord of hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up; and he shall be brought low:"

Isaiah 2:11,12

MESSIAH PROPHET BAND

"These six things doth the Lord hate: yea, seven are an abomination unto him: A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood,"

Proverbs 6:16,17

Best description of CCM: "If you want to reach a broad Christian audience, minister and sell records,

1. Adopting popular secular music styles brings success.
2. Write your own music.
3. Follow the popular style.
4. Add Christian lyrics.
5. Send it out to the Christian market. That's CCM."

"Doth not even nature itself teach you, that if a man have long hair, it is a shame to him?" 1 Cor. 11:14. Long, womanly hair on men is a shame. Long hair symbolises rebellion. Men grew long hair in the 60's to rebel against the rules. Lipstick and earrings on men, and rock rebellion is the root of effeminate men. Jesus offended people because he told them the truth.

C-Rock stars offend people because they are disgusting. They violate Bible truth and common decency. Galatians 5:19-21 lists 17 works of the flesh. Match these with a C-rock concert:

- | | |
|-------------------------------|---------------------------|
| 1. Uncleaness, bondage | 1. Leather, chains, studs |
| 2. Shameful, unnatural | 2. Womanish hair on men |
| 3. Fornication, adultery | 3. Harlotry in women |
| 4. Lasciviousness, revellings | 4. Party time atmosphere |
| 5. Idolatry | 5. Jewellery, logos |

Reason 11. SUBMISSION VS. REBELLION

The real battle is not about a musical generation gap, it's about SUBMISSION vs. REBELLION. Submission is the hallmark of the Christian life. Without it, all you have is counterfeit spirituality. To resist the devil, you must first be submitted to God (James 4:7). Since C-Rock fans aren't truly submitted, they'll never be able to resist Satan, no matter how often they sing "To Hell With the Devil" (by Stryper).

The classic hymns so despised by youth today were all about SUBMISSION. That's why carnal Christians want no part of them.

Songs like: "Washed In The Blood," "Haven of Rest", "Jesus Paid It All", "To God Be The Glory", "Lord, I'm Coming Home", "Victory in Jesus", "Have Thine Own Way, Lord", "When I Survey The Wondrous Cross", "Take My Life and Let It Be", "I Surrender All", "Jesus Is All The World To Me".

These are all songs of SUBMISSION. Here's a lyrical example from just one of them:

"Have thine own way, Lord/Have thine own way/Thou art the potter/I am the clay/Mold me and make me/After Thy will/while I am waiting/Yielded and still..."

Now read these C-rock lyrics to see the difference between submission and rebellion:

ROCK THOSE BLUES AWAY - Bride

"I don't need nobody to ease my aching mind.

Don't need nobody complaining all the time.

I need to roll those blues, rock those blues away ...

Let me tell you honey, what I need.

I need a smooth playing guitar in my hand.

Listen to the rhythm of my band."

The 2000's will see a very intense war for the souls of youth. It's getting hotter by the day.

The carnal C-Rock supporting church has already made deals with the Antichrist system. And they will cut many more deals in the years to come.

It's tough to stand against the worldly, compromising, liberal tide, but it must be done.

Reason 12. EXCUSES USED TO JUSTIFY C-ROCK

Lie 1: They're going to listen to Rock anyway. This is a better alternative.

Answer: This is a LIE. Not every new convert is a Rock addict, but you can make a new convert a Rock addict by feeding him C-Rock.

When people get saved from drugs, crime, alcohol and turn fully to Christ, they reject these along with the Rock music that came with these things.

A better alternative? NO WAY!

C-Rock looks the same, sounds the same and produces the same fruit of rebellion.

C-Rock teaches kids to hate authority.

Lie 2: "We have to use C-rock because it is the music kids relate to today."

Answer: 11 Corinthians 6:14-18 tells us to be separate from every ungodly work.

"Touch not the unclean thing". v.15.

C-rock says "Touch it all you want to."

It is the gospel that relates, convicts and saves people, not Rock music, or any other ungodly trick.

The Holy Spirit's blessing is on God's Word, not on pagan noise.

Lie 3: God created music. Everything God created is good, so Rock music must be good and godly too.
Answer: The day Lucifer fell, music fell also. Music once used to worship Almighty God has been corrupted. Lucifer uses that music to get worship for himself, because he craved it.

Lie 4: Music is the universal language teens understand. We use C-Rock music to speak their language
Answer: The Holy Spirit has spoke to people for 6000 years without Rock music. C-Rock noise drowns out the Holy Spirit's voice. The Pastor, not kids are supposed to run the church. Give teens Soul-Winning, and they won't want Rock music.

Lie 5: Kids won't stay in a stuffy church. They need excitement or we'll lose them.
Answer: Give them the excitement of full surrender to Jesus Christ and Soul Winning as a goal in life, not selfish Rock music entertainment. We are not here to be entertained but to win a lost world to Christ Lie 6: No one can live under those kind of rules. It's too hard and legalistic.

Answer: How harsh of God to ask us to obey Him. Jesus was willing to obey the Father to die for our sins. In Isaiah 30:10, Israel wanted to hear smooth things. (11 Timothy 4:3. "For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but will heap to themselves teachers. C-rock is a tool of Satan because it blocks the path to self-denial, purity, holiness, separation and total devotion to the Lord Jesus Christ.

Lie 7: Times have changed. The old ways don't work anymore. We should update.
Answer: The old ways you are tossing away are God's ways. They worked well for 6000 years. When we pray and clearly preach the Gospel, the Holy Spirit convicts and draws lost sinners to repentance and faith in Christ.
"Thus saith the Lord,...ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein." Jeremiah 6:16.

Lie 8: Kids get saved through C-Rock.
Answer: "Abstain from fleshly lusts which war against the soul." I Peter 2:11.
Teens don't get saved from worldliness by C-Rock. Doing things man's way brings a mixture of good and bad results. Often the bad destroy much good. Doing things God's way brings only good results.

Lie 9: Satan's lie in C-rock is "Music is neutral."
Answer: Neutral music does not drive away demons, but David's music did drive away King Saul's demons. (I Samuel 16:14-23). Therefore, forsake C-rock and stop quenching the Holy Spirit.

Lie 10: "Only the words matter."
Answer: If you take Jesus Christ or the Bible out of the music, it's no more Christian than worldly rock music. Christian music by definition is about Jesus Christ, not about dope, abortion, starvation or self-esteem. Ephesians 5:19 says that we are "Singing and making melody .. to the Lord", not to people.

Lie 11: Keith Green says: "I have never ONCE seen a case where music was the direct cause of sin or wickedness in a person's life." Keith Green says: "no music is intrinsically evil."
Answer: Rock music produces a fleshly, sensual response regardless of the words used. Rhythm causes a bodily response. Rock music is predominately rhythm which produces a bodily response that is greater than it should be for Christians.

Lie 12: Christian rock music rhythm doesn't hurt anybody.
Answer: The rhythm (not the words) of rock music caused brain damage to laboratory animals ("Jarring Music Takes Toll On Mice" Richard Lipkin, Insight, April 1988, p.58), and killed laboratory plants ("The Secret Power Of Music" David Tame, 1984, Destiny Books, p.144-5). It's backbeats & breakbeats swamp, consume & dominate the listener. It's high pitched human and electronic screams give musical chaos. True music has loud and soft intensity. Rock music's intensity is as loud as possible (100db), for as long as possible. In I Kings 19:11,12 the Lord was not in the strong wind, nor in the earthquake, nor in the fire, but in "a still, small voice." Not like rock music.

Lie 13: In order to reach the lost, we must pre evangelize with Christian rock music.

C-Rockers say "Jesus Christ rocks."

Answer: C-rock confuses, pollutes and deceives the next generation of the body of Christ.

C-rock makes a vulgar image of God, glorifies self, and makes God in man's own rebellious image.

Lead singer, Bono Hewson of U2: "Bono dislikes the label "born-again Christian" - and he doesn't go to church either. He said, "I'm a very, very bad advertisement for God ..." CCM Magazine Nov' 88.

"The combination of sound, rhythm, colour and movement can be used to attract demonic spirits into people." - Alistair Crowley.

Lie 14: There's nothing wrong with rock bands in a church.

Answer: i) "They (the priests) have put no difference between the holy and profane, neither have they showed a difference between the unclean and the clean." Ezekiel 22:26.

There's supposed to be a difference between holy and profane (godless), clean and unclean, but Christian-rock tries to erase that line.

ii) Numbers 21:1-9 applies to C-rock. God's people loathed God's provision of manna. The things of God weren't good enough for them. They wanted the things they had when they were back in bondage in Egypt. Today, for some Christians, old fashioned, traditional Christian music isn't good enough any more. Some believers long for the same old garbage that they had back in their unsaved, "bondage to sin" days.

iii) "Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them." Eph.5:11. "Come out from among them and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing" II Corinthians 6:17. There is much filthiness, vulgar lyrics and immodest dress in Rock music.

Conclusion:

Parents, if you've been wondering where all that rebellion in your kids has been coming from lately, then check this review of CCM "brides", "Live to die":

"This release is chock full of straight ahead, full throttle grinding and pounding. It's the type of sound your parents will hate". CCM Magazine Sept. 1988.

This is compromise with the world. This clearly breaks the fifth commandment.

Three clear facts of C-rock are: 1. It's not based on the Bible,

2. It is opposed to the Bible,

3. It wants nothing to do with the Bible.

III. Bible verses against C-Rock

1. Romans 12:2 i) Be not conformed to this world.

Christian-Rock music people try to be as much like the world as possible.

ii) Be ye transformed. Your life is supposed to change when you get saved. Christianity isn't supposed to change itself to suit you. No change in life, means no salvation.

iii) By the renewing of your mind. Once saved, your mind should do a complete turn around. You should see this trash music for what it is.

2. I Peter 4:3,4 Once you are saved, old friends will think it strange that you no longer run with them to the old worldly junk.

3. Ecclesiastes 7:5 "It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools."

4. Romans 16:17 "Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them."

5. Ephesians 5:11 "Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them"

6. Hosea 7:8-10 "He hath mixed himself among the people." Did Israelites win the pagan Canaanites to the Lord when they mixed with their ways? NO. The opposite occurred. Israelites became pagans.

Lessons: 1. C-Rock breeds rebellion.

2. The Word of God is all the relating that anyone needs.

3. When real repentance hits, everything changes.

4. When people repent, Satan gets mad.

5. There's more to Christian Rock than meets the eye.

Russian Church Leaders Request U.S. Christians to Stop Sending Rock Music

The head of the Unregistered Union of Baptist Churches in Russia and an elder of the same group have sent an 'Urgent Message to the Churches of America from the Persecuted Church in Russia.'

The letter, from Peter Peters and Vasilij Ryzhuk, was printed in 'Christian Info News,' a monthly Christian newspaper from British Columbia, Canada:

“For 30 years we have suffered intense persecution, and now freedom is bringing another great harm to our churches. This damage is coming from the Christians in America who are sending rock music and evangelists accompanied by rock bands.

Our young people do not attend these meetings because we have all committed not to participate in secular entertainment.

This is a great burden on our hearts. Many come with Bible in hand and rock music. We are embarrassed by this image of Christianity. We do not know what words to use in urging that this be stopped. We abhor all Christian rock music coming to our country.

Rock music has nothing in common with ministry or service to God. We are very, very against Christian Americans bringing to our country this false image of "ministry" to God. We need spiritual bread; please give us true bread, not false cakes. It is true that rock music attracts people to the church, but not to Godly living.

We were in prison for 15 years and 11 years for Christ's sake. We were not allowed to have Christian music, but rock music was used as a weapon against us day and night to destroy our souls. We could only resist with much prayer and fasting.

Now, we have a time of more openness, and we are no longer taken to prison. However, now it is Christians from America who damage our souls. We do not allow this music in our church, but they rent big stadiums and infect teenagers and adults with their rock music.

We, the leadership and congregations of the Unregistered Union of Baptist Churches, the former Persecuted Church, have made an agreement not to allow rock music in our church. We urge you to join with us and we advise you to remove rock music from America.

Do not desecrate our teenagers with it. Even the unbelievers recognise it is unholy music and they cannot understand how American Christians can be so much like the world. We can give you the conclusion that after Russian unbelievers have attended the rock concerts where Christ's Word was preached, the people were very disappointed and disillusioned with Christianity.

We call this music from hell. We urge all Americans to stop giving money for the organisation of such concerts in Russia. We want only traditional Christian music in our churches. This is the unanimous decision of all our leaders.”

God and Samuel strongly protested Israel's desire to “have a king over us: that we may also be like all the nations.” I Samuel 8:19,20.

Bringing rock music into a church is the same sin of desiring to be like the nations.

Christians should “be not conformed to this world” (Romans 12:2), but be people separated from worldly practices and separated to be holy like God.

The main reason that churches introduce rock bands into their services is in the hope that if they can be as close to the world as possible, they will better “relate” to young people and hence have a better chance of winning them to Christ. However, God says:

“Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.” I John 2:15.

“Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? Whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.” James 4:4.

Strong words indeed that God speaks to churches that seek to imitate the world and worldly methods to reach people for Christ. God calls them the “enemy of God” and the “love of the Father is not in him.”

99. THE OLD TESTAMENT BACKGROUND OF TONGUES

Tongues were given: 1. To warn unbelieving Jews to repent because of judgment to come.

2. To confirm the New Testament Word as from God by signs. Mark 16:17-20.

3. To confirm the Apostles as God's true messengers.

I. TO WARN UNBELIEVING JEWS. "In the law it is written, with men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people (Jews); and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord. Wherefore, tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not." 1 Cor. 14:21,22. Isaiah, in 712 BC (Isaiah 28:11), had in simple Hebrew, warned the Jews to repent from their sinful ways. They rejected his plain message in Hebrew, and so God said that He would speak to them in the tongues of foreigners, such as the Assyrians, to see if this would cause them to repent. Paul quotes this to show that the main purpose of tongues in the first century was to authenticate the new message of Christ to unbelieving Jews in order to bring them to repent of their sins.

This is seen in the following instances:

1. The Jews who had come to Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost were from 16 areas of the ancient world each speaking their own language or dialect. They each heard the apostles speaking the wonderful works of God in their own dialects. This message convicted them of their sin of crucifying Christ, bringing 3,000 of them to true repentance (Acts 2).
2. The gift of tongues to Cornelius' household was to convince the Jewish Christians that God would save believing Gentiles. Here the Jews had believed on Christ, but disbelieved that God would save the Gentiles as He had only saved Jews up until then.
3. Tongues in the church at Corinth was a sign to unbelieving Jews.
 - a) The Corinthian church was closely observed by Jews, because Paul started it in the Jewish synagogue (Acts 18:1-5).
 - b) The unbelieving Jews put Paul out of the synagogue, so Paul's missionary team went to win Gentiles (18:6), by moving the new church to Justus' house which was joined to the synagogue next door (18:7). The unbelieving Jews watched the church closely since it met right next door.
 - c) Soon "Crispus the chief ruler of the synagogue believed on the Lord with all his house." Acts 18:8
 - d) Sosthenes was chosen as the new chief ruler of the synagogue to replace Crispus. Sosthenes was soon saved, because Paul writes in 1 Corinthians 1:1, "Paul....and Sosthenes our brother." Hence, the Corinthian church was started in the synagogue, it met next door to the synagogue, and it had two ex-chief rulers of the synagogue as it's members! Certainly the unsaved Jewish community at Corinth carefully watched the Corinthian church. God gave the gift of tongues, the gift intended as a sign to unbelieving Jews, to this church thereby proving that the gospel of Christ was to be received by the Jews. Tongues were never given as a sign to Gentiles. The Gentiles had no dispensational hurdle of Mosaic legalism to jump over to come to Christ.
4. Tongues as a warning to Jews can be seen from Old Testament events, summarised by:
 - a) God has a message for the people.
 - b) The people refuse to listen to God.
 - c) God causes tongues to be heard as a sign of judgment to come.
 - d) Dispersion follows.

Event 1: Tower of Babel. Genesis 11.

Foreign tongues first appear in Genesis 11:1 "The whole earth was of one language, and of one speech"

1. God has a message for the people: After the Flood, God said:
"Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the earth." Genesis 9:1.
2. The people refuse to listen to God: They built a great tower,
"....Lest we be scattered abroad over the face of the whole earth." Genesis 11:4.
3. God caused tongues to be heard as a sign of judgment. God said, "Come, let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another's speech." Genesis 11:7.
4. Dispersion followed, "So the Lord scattered them abroad from there upon the face of all the earth." Genesis 11:8.

Event 2: Disobedient Israel. Deuteronomy 28.

God promised Israel blessings if they obeyed God's Law, and cursings if they broke God's Law.

1. God has a message for the people:
"If thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to observe and to do all His commandments.....all these blessings shall come upon thee....." Deuteronomy 28:1.
2. The people refuse to listen to God.
"If thou wilt not hearken.....all these curses shall come upon thee." Deuteronomy 28:15.
3. God causes tongues to be heard as a sign of judgment: One curse that God promised was a foreign conquering nation speaking strange tongues.
"The Lord shall bring a nation against thee from far.....as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand." Deuteronomy 28:49.
4. Dispersion follows: "The Lord shall scatter thee among all people....." Deuteronomy 28:64,65.
This happened to Israel in 721 BC, Judah in 606 BC, and Israel in 70 AD.

Event 3: Babylonian tongues heard by disobedient Judah in 606 BC. Jeremiah 3-5.

1. God has a message for the people:
"Return ye backsliding children, and I will heal your backslidings." Jeremiah 3:22.
2. The people refuse to listen to God: "thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction....they have refused to return." Jeremiah 5:3.
3. God caused tongues to be heard as a sign of judgment. If Israel would not heed Jeremiah's warnings, then God would speak to them by strange tongues and swords of an invading nation.
"Lo, I will bring a nation upon you from far.....a mighty nation,.....a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say." Jeremiah 5:15.
4. Dispersion follows: "As ye have forsaken Me, and served strange gods in your land, so shall ye serve strangers in a land that is not yours." Jeremiah 5:19.

Event 4: Assyrian tongues heard by disobedient Israel in 721 BC. Isaiah 28.

When Paul discusses the purpose of tongues in 1 Corinthians 14:21- 22, he quotes Isaiah 28:11 to show that tongues were given as a sign of judgment to unbelieving Israel: ".to them that believe not." 14:22. Sophisticated Israelites were sick of Isaiah's rebukes that sin was rampant, judgment was coming, and a return to God was the only answer.

In Isaiah 28:9,10 they claimed that he was teaching them like newly weaned babies, "line upon line....". Your repetitious teaching is fit for infants, they said. They rejected God's message, messenger, and teaching methods. God responded to their scoffing by imitating their mockery (Isaiah 28:9,10), and promising unintelligible language of a foreign conqueror: "For with stammering lips and another tongue will he speak to this people." Isaiah 28:11. God first spoke to them through Isaiah's clear and simple message, which they ignored. Now God will speak in judgment to them through stammering, lisping, Assyrian lips and another tongue. The Assyrian language sounded much less cultivated than Hebrew. Assyrian only had 3 vowels: a, i, u. Israel would hear Assyrian harsh, foreign tongues as they invaded and destroyed many Israelite towns in 721-720 BC under Sennacherib. Note the same pattern:

- a) God has a message for the people: "Woe to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim. To whom he said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest." Isaiah 28:1,12.
- b) The people refuse to listen to God: "yet they would not hear." Isaiah 28:12.
- c) God caused tongues to be heard as a sign of judgment:
"For with stammering lips and another tongue will he speak to this people." Isaiah 28:11.
- d) Dispersion follows: "that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken (captive)." Isaiah 28:13.

Note: To Israel, foreign tongues was a sign of God's judgment and curse upon them. Likewise the absence of foreign tongues was a sign that Israel was under the blessing of God. In the millennium, God promises Israel in Isaiah 33:19 that ".....thou shalt not see a fierce people, a people of a deeper speech than thou canst perceive; of a stammering tongue, that thou canst not understand."

Event 5: New Testament tongues to Israel 33-70 AD.

Israel did not learn from the tongues warnings that led to the Assyrian and Babylonian captivities in 721 and 606 BC. So God again warned them by Christians speaking in tongues from 33-70 AD to warn them to repent or God would judge them. This happened by Titus the Roman general destroying Jerusalem in 70 AD. We see the same pattern:

1. God has a message for the people: "Come unto me.....and I will give you rest." Matthew 11:28.
"We do hear them speak in our tongues.(v.11). Peter said unto them, Repent(v39)."Acts 2:11,38,39.
2. The people refuse to listen to God:
"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not." Matthew 23:37.
3. God causes tongues to be heard as a sign of judgment.
 - a) Christ warned Israel of soon coming judgment, "Behold, your house is left unto you desolate.....Verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down." Matthew 23:38; 24:2.
 - b) God caused foreign tongues to be spoken and heard as a sign of judgment to unbelieving Israel in Acts 2,10,19; I Corinthians 12-14. When God caused believers to speak in tongues, the Jews understood the message. Tongues were a sign gift to unbelieving, Christ-rejecting Israel. "Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them (Christians) that believe, but to them (Jews) that believe not." I Corinthians 14:22.
4. Dispersion follows: Jesus Christ correctly foretold this in Luke 21:20-24. "And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh (v.20). They shall be led away captive into all nations....." (v.24). This happened in 70 AD when Titus the Roman general destroyed Jerusalem, killing 1 million Jews and taking 100,000 captive as slaves.

Question: When did tongues cease?

Answer: If foreign tongues were really a sign of coming judgment on Israel, then once this judgment had come (in 70 AD), the tongues sign gift would no longer be necessary. The Biblical gift of tongues had ceased by 70 AD. The last historical mention of tongues is in 1 Corinthians, written in 59 AD. Tongues served their purpose and tongues ceased as God said,"tongues shall cease."1 Corinthians 13:8.

II. TO CONFIRM THE WORD WITH SIGNS (Mark 16:17-20).

"And these signs shall follow them that believe;

- sign 1.in my name shall cast out devils;
- sign 2.they shall speak with new tongues;
- sign 3.they shall take up serpents; and
- sign 4.if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them;
- sign 5.they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover .

And they (Apostles) went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them and confirming the Word with signs following. Amen." Mark 16:17-20.

The New Testament, being a new revelation, needed to be confirmed that it was from God. This was done by miraculous signs of the Apostles, one of which was tongues. If the five signs above were fulfilled in the Apostle's lifetime, then Mark 16:17-20 is satisfactorily fulfilled. It does not say that these five signs would always happen to all believers. Verse 20 tells us that God kept His promises of verse 17,18. Charismatics assume that verse 17 and 18 mean that all believers will always speak in tongues and do these signs. This is wrong because:

1. I Corinthians 12:30 asks, "do all speak with tongues?" This is a rhetorical question implying "No."
2. 2 Corinthians 12:12: "Truly the signs OF AN APOSTLE were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds." These were signs belonging to the apostles, not to every believer. "Were wrought", being in the past tense, means that these sign gifts had ceased.
3. Acts 2:43: "Many wonders and signs were done by the Apostles."
4. Acts 4:33 "And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus."
Question:Who had great power to bear witness of the resurrection?The apostles, not every believer.

5. Acts 5:12-16 "And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people (v.12)..and believers were the more added to the Lord (v.14)...insomuch that they (believers) brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them...they were healed every one." (v.16). Notice: a) Signs and wonders were done by the apostle's hands, not by every believer. (v.12). b) Believers brought sick people to Peter to heal, because they could not heal them themselves. c) Every one was healed. No one does this today. Charismatics are wrong to claim the gift of healing for today. Since apostolic healing has ceased, so have the other four signs, tongues included.
6. Acts 14:3 "and granted signs and wonders to be done by their (Paul and Barnabus) hands."
7. Acts 15:12 "gave audience to Paul and Barnabus, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them."
8. Acts 19:11: "God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul."
9. Romans 15:19 "Through mighty signs and wonders,...I have fully preached the gospel of Christ."
10. Hebrews 2:3-4 show that signs, wonders, miracles, and some gifts of the Holy Ghost were restricted only to the apostles (those who heard Christ), & were not available to future generations of Christians: "How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which:
 - a) at the first began to be spoken by the Lord (Christ),
 - b) and was confirmed unto us by them (apostles) that heard him (Christ), (v.4) God also bearing them (the apostles) witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to His own will."

Notice here that in:

Verse 4: God bore the apostles witness with signs, wonders, miracles and gifts. God did not bear witness to the next generation of Christians with signs, etc, only to the apostles.

Verse 3: The apostles confirmed Christ's salvation message to the next generation, because the apostles heard Christ speak during His three year ministry. The next generation never confirmed Christ's message with signs etc.

Question: When did God bear the apostles witness with signs, etc.?

Answer: "At the first," not always.

All the Greek verbs used in Hebrews 2:3-4 are in the aorist tense, indicating a completed fact which can never be repeated.

Peter refers to this early time element of signs, miracles, tongues, etc, in Acts 11:15, where he describes the tongues speaking gift in Cornelius' household, not as a regular happening, occurring time after time since Pentecost, but as similar to the tongues gift last poured out at Pentecost. "As I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, as on us at the beginning." When? "AT THE BEGINNING." Hence, signs were to "follow" for a time, not to accompany believers for all time.

11. Hebrews 6:5 "And have tasted the good Word of God, and the powers of the world to come." These apostles' miracles are described as "powers of the world to come", meaning Christ's future millennial Kingdom, not powers of this present Church Age. Therefore, many signs, wonders and miracles performed in the first century will be regular events in the millennium, but not until then.
12. Acts 28:8,9 "Paul...healed him. Others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed."

III. TO CONFIRM THE APOSTLES AS GOD'S TRUE MESSENGERS.

Hebrews 2:3,4. "God also bearing them (the Apostles) witness, both with signs, and wonders and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghost..."

Thus, tongues, signs and miracles authenticated the apostles' authority. God did the same for Moses, Elijah, Elisha, Christ, etc. as their miracles confirmed that they were from God (Christ is God).

When Jesus Christ commanded the apostles to "preach the gospel to every creature" (Mark 16:15), He knew that the apostles would have to go to the Gentiles. This would meet with much Jewish racial opposition. Hence, Christ gave them miraculous sign gifts that they would perform in order to confirm and authenticate the gospel message as being from God. This tongues gift seen at Cornelius' household convinced the Jewish Jerusalem Council to send the gospel to the Gentiles. Acts 11:15-18.

IV. THE EARLY CHURCH WRITERS UP TO 320AD SAY THAT TONGUES CEASED IN THE FIRST CENTURY.

A good way to check any doctrine is to see what the early Christian writers, many of whom were taught personally by the apostles, said about it. Their comments reveal practices of the early Christian church. There is overwhelming evidence from history that tongues did cease in the first century, because:

1. No mention of tongues can be found in any of Paul's later epistles, only in 1 Corinthians, one of the earliest letters written. Romans, being a thorough doctrinal study, never mentions tongues. Ephesians 4-6 when discussing how to walk worthy, never mentions tongues. When discussing qualifications of pastors and deacons in 1 Timothy 3 and Titus 1, Paul never mentions tongues as a necessary gift. Tongues are only mentioned in Mark 16 (33AD), Acts 2,10, 19 (33, 41, 54 AD respectively) and 1 Corinthians (59 AD) in a rebuking, correcting, restricting manner. He is not endorsing it, but limiting its wrong use.
2. Chrysostom, a preacher in 347-407 AD, in discussing tongues in 1 Corinthians states: "This whole place is very obscure, but the obscurity is produced by our ignorance of the facts referred to and by their cessation, being such as then used to occur, but now no longer take place." [Homilies, XXIX, 1]
3. Augustine around 410 AD stated that tongues was a sign adapted only to Biblical times.
4. Clement of Rome in 96 AD wrote to the church at Corinth to correct the same problems that Paul corrected. Clement mentioned every problem except tongues. Why? Because tongues had ceased.
5. Origen (185-254 AD) in all his voluminous writings gives no hint that tongues or other sign gifts were a normal occurrence in his day.
6. Others, like Ignatius of Antioch who wrote to Ephesus, Justin Martyr (100-167 AD), Irenaeus (130-195 AD) bishop of Lyons, never mention tongues.
7. Tertullian (155-202 AD) describes it as an apostolic occurrence, not as a phenomena of his time.
8. Montanus (150 AD) who was regarded as a heretic because his prophecies went unfulfilled, and claimed to be a successor to the apostles, spoke in tongues. Polycarp and Papias who were disciples of John spoke against Montanus as a heretic.

The table below shows that tongues in the Book of Acts only occurred when Jews were present.

JERUSALEM ACTS 2	SAMARIA ACTS 8	CAESAREA ACTS 10	CORINTH ACTS 18	EPHESUS ACTS 19
TONGUES JEWS	NO TONGUES NO JEWS	TONGUES JEWS	TONGUES JEWS	TONGUES JEWS
3000 devout unbelieving Jews at Jerusalem needing to hear tongues as a sign of judgment.	No Jews would live at Samaria due to racial hatred.	Peter and six Jewish Christians not believing that Gentiles could be saved.	Many unbelieving Jews living at Corinth needing to hear tongues as a sign of judgment.	Many unbelieving Jews living at Ephesus needing to hear tongues as a sign of judgment.
1. Apostles spoke in tongues. 2. 3000 people saved. 3. 3000 people baptised. NOTE: 3000 people did not speak in tongues.	1. Samaritans believed. 2. They were baptised. 3. Peter and John laid hands on them. 4. They received the Holy Spirit. NOTE: Samaritans did not speak in tongues. NOTE: Phillip did not lay hands on Samaritans, because only an Apostle could impart the Holy Spirit by laying on hands.	1. Cornelius believed. 2. Holy Spirit fell on him. 3. He spoke in tongues . 4. He was baptised . NOTE: They spoke in tongues to convince the Jewish Christians that Gentiles could be saved, and that God was no longer working only through the Jews.		1. John's disciples believed. 2. They were baptised 3. Paul laid hands on them. 4. The Holy Spirit came on them. 5. They spoke in tongues . NOTE: Tongues warned the Jewish Community at Ephesus of coming judgment. It also identified John's disciples with the Apostles and with Pentecost.

V. QUESTIONS TO ASK CHARISMATICS PROVING TONGUES TO BE UNBIBLICAL

- Q1: Did you speak in tongues because someone asked you to, or did tongues come to you without you seeking it, and without anyone suggesting you to do it, as in the New Testament?
- Q2: When you were asked to speak in tongues, did you say “No, wait until I have thoroughly and completely studied and understood every verse on the subject?”
- Q3: Do you use your tongue as a warning to Jews to repent?
- Q4: Do you always have your tongue correctly interpreted? “Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret.” I Corinthians 14:13.
- Q5: Do you speak in tongues to edify yourself or to edify the church?
“Seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.” I Corinthians 14:12.
- Q6: Do women speak in tongues aloud in your church?
“Let your women keep silent in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak....for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.” I Corinthians 14:34,35.
- Q7: Do two or at the most three speak in “tongues” at your meetings? I Corinthians 14:27.
- Q8: Do your “tongues” speakers speak in turn after being interpreted, or do they all speak at the same time?
- Q9: Which spirit gave you your tongue? If you think it is the Holy Spirit, can you prove it? How?
- Q10: Did you receive your tongue when someone told you to relax, be passive, blank out your mind, and let anything come out? or
- Q11: Were you strongly refusing anything which satan might send you? Did you constantly pray for God to keep you from everything not of Him when people challenged you to speak in tongues?
- Q12: Does your tongue ever get out of control, or does it take over your prayer time?
- Q13: What do you learn more about God through your tongue?
- Q14: Do people in your church suppress their tongues if there is no genuine interpreter present?
“But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church...” I Corinthians 14:28.
- Q15: Can you find one Biblical example of a woman speaking in tongues?
- Q16: What does I Corinthians 13:11 have to do with the subject of tongues, prophecy and knowledge?
“When I became a man, I put away childish things.”
- Q17: Who are tongues intended for, and who are tongues not intended for? I Corinthians 14:22.
“Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not:”
- Q18: Why were there no tongues in Samaria in Acts 8?
- Q19: Why did Phillip not lay hands on the Samaritans to impart the Holy Ghost?
- Q20: Why could Peter and John impart the Holy Ghost by laying on of hands, but not Phillip?
- Q21: Was Phillip a bad Christian? (No. It was a gift that only the Apostles had.)
- Q22: Some Charismatics claim that Joel 2:28-32 teaches that today’s tongues are a sign of Christ’s second Coming. What does the Bible say?
- Answer: “Afterward” in Joel 2:28 pinpoints the time of the Spirit’s outpouring in this passage. It is after Jesus Christ has returned at His glorious appearing, that is, His second coming. The context of Joel 2 does not allow us to link this outpouring of the Spirit to events before Christ returns. This refutes the thought that today’s tongues are a “sign of Christ’s second coming.”
- Conclusion: The gift of tongues is NOT for today.

100. WHY PROPHECY, TONGUES and KNOWLEDGE GIFTS CEASED IN THE FIRST CENTURY AD.

Bible Reading: I Corinthians 13:8-13.

Aim: To show that tongues ceased in 70 AD with the destruction of Jerusalem. To show that prophecy and knowledge gifts ceased in 96 AD with the completion of the New Testament.

Introduction: If these three gifts ceased in the first century, then the modern tongues movement is not of God and should be rejected as unbiblical. The following exegesis of I Corinthians 13:8-13, is intended as a springboard to understand how the entire Bible teaching on this subject fits together to show that the purpose of tongues was a warning to Israel, and hence, ceased by 70 AD. It will be shown that prophecy and knowledge gifts were God's temporary means of revelation to the early Church until the completed New Testament had been given. Today, God speaks through His Word, not through some person claiming to give a prophecy from God.

I. TEMPORARY GIFTS of PROPHECY, TONGUES and KNOWLEDGE contrasted with PERMANENT FAITH, HOPE and CHARITY for the CHURCH AGE. 1 Corinthians 13:8-13.

13:8. "Charity never faileth; but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail (Greek: Katargethesontai); whether there be tongues, they shall cease³⁹⁷³ (Greek: pausontai), whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away" (Greek: Katargethesetai).

Question 1: When does CHARITY (Agape love) stop? Answer: "Charity never faileth" (v.8). This means that love will continue on forever. It is the only one of the 6 phenomena discussed here that continues forever. This means that faith, hope, prophecy, tongues and knowledge all stop, but when?

a) I Corinthians 13:13 tells us "And now abideth faith, hope and charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity."

We learn here that faith, hope and charity continue all through the church age.

b) This means that prophecy, tongues and knowledge are not said to continue all through the Church age, but cease sometime before the second coming (rapture) of Christ.

Question 2: When does FAITH stop?

Answer: When Christ returns at the rapture to catch the church up to heaven.

• II Corinthians 5:7 "For we walk by faith, not by sight."

When we get to heaven we will see what we had faith in, so that faith will give way to sight.

• I Peter 1:9 "Receiving the end⁵⁰⁵⁶ (Greek: telos) of your faith, even the salvation of your souls." This tells us that faith will end when we get to heaven, thus enjoying salvation or deliverance from the presence of sin. "Telos" means "end, result, termination, ultimate fate, completion in respect to time, or fulfilment."

• Hebrews 12:2: "Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher⁵⁰⁴⁷(teleiotes) of our faith."

Jesus Christ finishes our faith when He returns for us at His second coming, and we "reach our goal" ("teleiotes" in Greek) of heaven with our resurrected, glorified bodies.

Hence faith ends for all church age believers at the second coming of Christ.

Question 3: When does HOPE stop?

Answer: When we get what we are hoping for in heaven. For example, if you are married, you are not hoping to get married because you then possess what you hoped for. Believers are hoping for Christ's second coming (Titus 2:13), and the resurrection of the dead (Acts 23:6). When we have what we hope for, then hope finishes. "Looking for that blessed hope and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ." Titus 2:13.

"...of the hope and resurrection of the dead am I called in question." Acts 23:6 and Acts 26:6.

"...hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?" Romans 8:24.

Hope will only remain until we see Christ and receive our resurrection bodies at His second coming.

Hence hope is valid only until the second coming.

Knowing that love continues forever ("charity never faileth") we can draw the following graph:

Key: Hence faith will be lost in sight; hope will be lost in reality; and love continues for all eternity.
 “And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.” I Corinth. 13:13.
 Because only faith, hope and charity are abiding throughout the church age, these three alone, then prophecy, tongues and knowledge must cease sometime INSIDE the church age. The time these (and the other temporary gifts) ceased had to have been before the completion of the New Testament.

Question 4: When do PROPHECY and KNOWLEDGE gifts cease?

Answer: “Whether there be prophecies, they shall fail (Greek (2673): Katargethesontai);..... whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away (Greek (2673): Katargethesetai).”

Meaning: “Katargeo” means to render inoperative, to make inactive, to be done away, to supercede, put an end to. With Paul it always denotes a complete cessation, not a temporary or partial ceasing. Every occurrence of “Katargeo” in I Cor. 13:8,10 is in the passive voice, indicating that something shall make prophecy and knowledge inactive.

Question 5: What are prophecy and knowledge?

1. The gift of prophecy in the apostolic church was speaking new revelation from God, to instruct and edify. Prophecy has a secondary meaning of forthtelling God’s Word to teach and comfort the Church. This is Bible teaching of today. Teaching replaced first century prophecy. A person knew, then prophesied. They were twin gifts.
2. The gift of knowledge in the apostolic Church was the ability to understand and know the mind and will of God. It was revealed truth, not learned. It is seeing as the Holy Spirit sees. It was used to teach believers certain doctrines which had not as yet been written as part of the New Testament.eg:

Peter knew who Jesus really was. Matthew 16:17.

Agabus knew and then prophesied about Paul being bound at Jerusalem. Acts 21:10-12.

Paul knew the demonised damsel’s message to be false. Acts 16:18.

Such knowledge, like prophecy, was as authoritative as the scriptures in the early church.

Each of these gifts can refer to either:

- a) an action - the exercising of the gifts in the church where he prophesies or gives a word of knowledge.
 - b) content - in Matthew 13:14,15 Christ quotes what Isaiah said 750 years earlier, which was now part of Scripture. When prophecy or knowledge became codified as scripture, they stood alone, no longer as the “act” of prophecy and knowledge, but as the “content” of prophecy and knowledge, now become written scripture.
3. The gift of tongues (or unlearned languages), was similar yet inferior to prophecy and knowledge in that the tongues speaker needed to be translated. Paul said in I Corinthians 14:18,19 “Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.”
 Speaking in a tongue and having it translated only allows the speaker to say half as much in a given time, as could a prophecy or word of knowledge in the common tongue. Tongues were cumbersome verbage. Prophecy, tongues and knowledge form the subject of I Corinthian 13:8-13. Something is going to happen to each of them. None of them are to abide during the Church age, as will faith, hope and love. They are transient gifts.

13:8 “Whether there be tongues, they shall cease ³⁹⁷³” (Greek (3973): pausontai).

Here “pausontai is used in an absolute sense, to cease, to come to an end.”

[“The Complete N.T. Word Study Dictionary”, S. Zhodiatas, p.1132.]

“Pausontai” is in the middle voice, indicative mood, meaning that the action of ceasing will come from within, rather than from outside.

“Cease” means that tongues would fulfil their function (of warning Jews of coming Judgment), and render themselves obsolete, unneeded, ended. Literally it means “tongues shall make themselves to cease, or automatically cease of themselves.” [A.T. Robertson Vol.IV, p.179.]

13:9 “For we know in part, and we prophecy in part.” Since v.9 omits tongues, it would appear that tongues would cease before the removal of prophecy and knowledge. “In part” defines quantity, and the word “perfect” meaning “complete” is the opposite to “in part.”

Knowledge of doctrine in the pre-canon period of the Church Age was fragmentary. The 14 mystery doctrines of this dispensation had not yet been completely given in New Testament Scripture. They could only teach from the Old Testament and by direct revelation from God via prophecy and knowledge. They knew in part, and consequently, they prophesied in part.

13:10 “But when that which is perfect (Greek: “teleion” meaning complete) is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.” (Greek: “Katargetheseta” meaning to render inoperative).

Prophecy and knowledge, both being “in part”, will be done away with when the perfect shall come.

Question 6: When does the PERFECT come?

- a) If it is the second coming of Christ, then prophecy, tongues and knowledge are allowable today.
- b) If it is the completed New Testament Scriptures of 96 AD then prophecy, tongues and knowledge have all ceased in the first century and are not for today.

Question 7: To answer Question 6, we must ask another question: What is ‘that which is perfect?’

Answer: Several opinions are:

1. Jesus Christ at His second coming.
2. The perfected state of the believer at Christ’s return.
3. After the millennium in the new heaven and new earth.
4. The completed New Testament Scriptures.

II. 12 REASONS WHY THE “PERFECT” IN V.10 REFERS TO THE COMPLETED NEW TESTAMENT SCRIPTURES:

1. “When that (Greek: To Teleion) which is perfect is come.”
The pronoun “THAT” in Greek, describing the perfect, is neuter.
Christ however is masculine, not neuter, so “that which is perfect” cannot refer to Christ or His return. The Bible is neuter. This fits the context perfectly.
2. “Perfect” in Greek means “complete, finished”. The N.T. by 96 AD was completed and finished as God’s revelation for this Church age. The completed N.T. canon of Scripture would serve the same purpose that prophecy, tongues, knowledge, apostleship, healing, miracles and other temporary spiritual gifts had once performed. Christ is never called the complete or finished one.
3. “Perfect” cannot mean Christ’s return, because Christ’s second coming is foreign to the context of I Corinthians 12,13,14 being mentioned nowhere in these 3 chapters. The subject of I Corinthians 12,13,14 is spiritual gifts to the church in the church age. To extend prophecy, tongues and knowledge into the millenium or after the millenium is to miss the focus and context of the passage.
4. James 1:25 describes the perfect as the Bible, the perfect law of liberty.
The meaning of “perfect” in scripture can be determined by it’s use in other passages of scripture. “Teleion”, the “perfect” or “completed” was already in the New Testament when Paul wrote. James had already referred to the Word of God as the “perfect law of liberty” in James 1:25.
“But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.” James 1:22.

“But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.” James 1:25.

“Perfect” in James 1:25 in Greek is “teleion” the same as “perfect” in 1 Corinthians 13:10. In James 1:25 “perfect” clearly refers to the soon to be completed Bible, and this must be the same meaning in I Corinthians 13:10.

In James 1:22-25 the perfect law of liberty is the Bible.

Therefore, in I Corinthians 13:10 the perfect is the Bible.

Key Question: If James 1:22-25 says, Perfect (v.25) = Mirror (v.23,24) = Bible (v.22,23,25) then what is “perfect” in I Corinthians 13:8-13, Perfect (v.10) = Mirror (v.12) = ?

5. James 1:23 and 1 Corinthians 13:12 both describe the Bible as a mirror/glass that we see our reflection in.

“For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass.” James 1:23.

“For now we see through a glass darkly; but then the perfect, completed Bible has come) face to face.” 1 Corinthians 13:12.

As we look into a mirror to see the true physical condition of our face, so we look into the Bible as a mirror to see the true spiritual condition of our heart and life.

Some people look into a mirror and forget their physical appearance.

Some people look into the Bible mirror and forget their spiritual appearance.

Therefore, GLASS MIRROR = PERFECT = the WORD OF GOD.

Therefore, 1 Corinthians 13:12 describes the “perfect” as a glass mirror, just as James 1:23 does.

6. 2 Corinthians 3:18 also shows the glass, and hence the perfect to be the Word of God, which transforms us.

“But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.”

The mirror/glass is a symbol of the Word of God. (James 1:22,25).

As we look into God’s Word and we see Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit transforms us into the very image of Jesus Christ. “We all” means all believers, seeing in the Bible/glass, the glory of the Lord. “Open face” means that we can hide nothing from God; We must be open and honest with Him.

We can be conformed to the image of Jesus Christ (“He also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of His Son....”. Romans 8:29) and go from glory to glory, by the Holy Spirit changing us as we saturate ourselves in the Word of God.

“are changed (Greek: metamorphoumetha) into the same image from glory to glory.”

The Greek word “changed” gives us the word “metamorphosis” which describes the process of an insect changing from an ugly worm into a mature beautiful butterfly. The changes come from within. So it is when we meditate on God’s Word and in it see Jesus Christ, then the Holy Spirit transforms us into the image of Jesus Christ.

In the Bible we see the glory of Christ and are changed into His image.

13:12. “For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part;....”

In I Corinthians 13:12, only a few New Testament books were completed. The glory of the Lord revealed in the word was not complete. First century believers could neither see Christ, nor themselves, in the full light of God’s revelation. They could only see darkly or dimly. However with the completion of Scripture, not only would the glory of Christ be revealed in greater fullness, but so would the believer’s own reflection become clearer. Why? Because the believer after 96 AD has more Scripture to transform him into Christ’s image. The “perfect” is the opposite of that which is “in part.” Paul viewed his own writings as Scripture (1 Thessalonians 2:13). He knew that new revelation was being given and that one day it would cease. In the same way that God had completed the Old Testament, God would also complete the New Testament. Paul’s use of the phrases “we know in part and we prophesy in part” (13:9) show that he is dealing with a partially completed Bible that was being added to by the Apostle’s revelations from God.

7. The Second Coming is never called “perfect” in the New Testament, but the Bible is called the perfect law of liberty in James 1:25. ‘The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul.’ Psalm 19:7
8. The completed New Testament fulfilled the same job as did the temporary gifts of prophecy and knowledge. Once prophecy and knowledge were codified (written down) as the New Testament, then prophecy and knowledge ceased. ie. New revelation of prophecy and knowledge ceased when the full N.T. revelation for this age was completed.
9. Christ’s second coming is neither complete nor morally perfect. In the millennium, the sinner will die 100 years old (Isaiah 65:20). The millennium ends with satan’s release from the pit and some nations rebelling to attack Christ at Jerusalem. This is not a perfect or complete situation at all.
10. Faith and Hope finish at the second coming (13:13).

Therefore, prophecy, knowledge and tongues, each not abiding during the church age, must end well before faith and hope ends (compare 1 Corinthians 13:8 with 1 Corinthians 13:13).

Prophecy, knowledge and tongues end well before the second coming.

Prophecy and knowledge end by the coming of the perfect, completed Word of God in 96 AD.

Tongues ended by 70 AD, with Titus destroying Jerusalem and the judgment predicted coming on the Jews for rejecting Christ’s gospel. You don’t warn people after the punishment has fallen.

11. The completed Bible is able to make believers complete by giving us all things that pertain to life and godliness. (II Peter 1:3,4). We don’t need new revelation.

“According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory (in heaven) and virtue (now on earth). Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises (in the perfect Bible) that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature (changed from glory to glory).” II Peter 1:3,4.

This is obtained through:

- 1) the knowledge of Christ found in the Bible, and
- 2) by claiming the exceeding great and precious promises in the Bible.

Everything that we need today for life and Godliness to make us mature, completely equipped Christians is found in the Bible. Hence, the Bible is appropriately called the “complete Completer” for us today, the exact meaning of “teleion” in I Corinthians 13:10.

12. The completed Bible (all Scripture) can make the man of God “perfect” (Greek: “artios”⁷³⁹) meaning “complete, sufficient, completely qualified; a synonym of “teleion”, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.” II Timothy 3:16,17.

Here again, “all Scripture” making the man of God perfect, supports “perfect” in I Corinthians 13:10 as meaning the Bible, and not the second coming of Christ. Therefore, when the perfected, completed Bible comes, then the “in part” prophecy and knowledge shall be done away. This happened in 96AD when John finished writing Revelation 22:21.

Question 8: Why is tongues not mentioned in I Corinthians 13:9,10 as being done away with by the perfect?

Answer: It is because tongues had already ceased in 70 AD with the destruction of Jerusalem, being the judgment on the Jews that tongues pointed to (I Corinthians 14:21,22). After 70 AD, there was no more purpose for tongues, so the tongues gift ceased forever by 70 AD. Tongues were not in existence to be done away with by “the perfect.” Tongues had ceased 26 years earlier.

Those who think that the “perfect” is Christ’s return and reject it as meaning the completed New Testament Scripture, do so because:

1. They have not studied every word, phrase, or verse of I Corinthians 13 in its context, or
2. They are mentally influenced by someone with leaning towards Pentecostalism, or
3. They are influenced by some interdenominational teacher whose decision about this scripture is non-committal so as to retain his popularity with both charismatic and non charismatic groups.
4. No scripture is ever produced in proof that the Holy Spirit did not mean the complete N. Testament. If knowledge ended at Christ’s return, and if knowledge meant normal knowledge, then all Christians would be imbeciles in heaven.

Note: It is not good to say that God spoke to you and told you to do something, because if you are wrong, you lose your credibility. Instead, say “I felt led or burdened by the Lord to.....”.

13:11 ‘When I was a child, I spake as a child (tongues), I understood as a child (knowledge), I thought as a child (prophecy is verbalised thoughts): but when I became a man, I put away childish things.’

Question 9: What have childish things got to do with temporary gifts of prophecy, tongues and knowledge?

Answer: Paul is comparing a human advancing from childhood to adulthood, with the church passing from infancy in the first century marked by prophecy, tongues and knowledge gifts, to maturity marked by believers depending on the Bible, faith, hope and charity from 96 AD to the rapture. By 96 AD the childish gifts of prophecy, tongues and knowledge had ceased, and church manhood had been reached. So Paul used 2 illustrations to show the passing of prophecy, tongues and knowledge, and the permanence of the completed Bible, along with faith, hope and charity for the church age:

a) A person growing from childhood to adulthood and putting away the childish temporary things of prophecy, tongues and knowledge in I Corinthians 13:11.

Paul is here saying to the Corinthian believers “put away the childish things of prophecy, tongues, and knowledge, because manhood will soon be reached.”

In the first century, a boy was recognised as a mature man when he got married, left his parents home and established his own home.

In the first century, Judaism was regarded as the parent religion, where Christianity (the child) resided. The early Christians enjoyed the protection of Judaism as an officially recognised religion. Christianity seemed like another Jewish sect.

Sulpicius Severus in discussing Titus’ destruction of Jerusalem in 70 AD, states that:

“Titus formed the deliberate purpose to destroy Christianity and Judaism in one blow, believing that if the Jewish root were torn up the Christian branch would soon perish”. [F. Farrar “The Early Days of Christianity” p.326.]

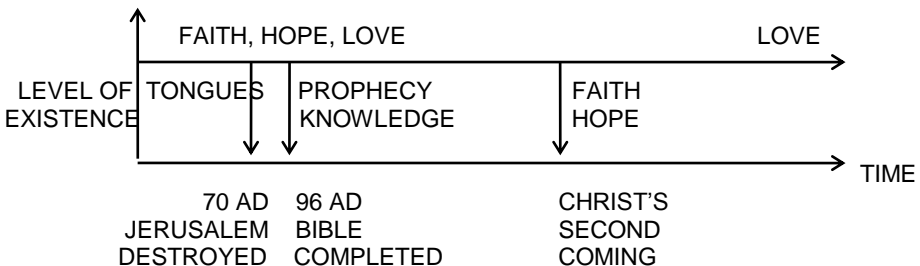

Judaism was the parent/home religion and Christianity was the child religion. But with the destruction of Jerusalem in 70 AD, the church moved out of its childhood home. It became a separate, independent, distinct religion, able to grow without the Jewish temple and without the protective umbrella of the Jewish religious system. Christianity had left the Jewish parents home and had reached manhood. It had left childhood behind.

This was another reason for putting away the childish things of tongues.

In Revelation 22:18,19 God finished prophecy and knowledge revelations by giving us the completed Bible with a warning against new prophecies. There would be no more partial revelations given by prophecies or knowledge. They had forever been superseded by a completed Bible.

Tongues ceased in 70 AD, prophecy and knowledge ceased in 96 AD. This graph summarizes it:

When Paul wrote I Corinthians 12,13,14 around 55AD, the infant church was still a child in its childhood home. Tongues still had a purpose. No one then was to forbid speaking in tongues. However, after Jerusalem's destruction in 70AD genuine tongues ceased, never to be heard again from the lips of the matured church (13:11).

With manhood reached by 96AD, heralded by complete/perfect knowledge in the Bible ("understanding" in 13:11) and complete/perfect prophecy codified in the Bible ("thought" in 13:11), childish things of prophecy, tongues and knowledge were forever put away. To revert to these would be a tragedy, a breakdown in manhood, and a pathetic regression to infancy. Tongues are not for the church today, because they ceased in 70 AD. Church history agrees with this. C.L. Rogers analyses the writings of Irenaeus, Tertullian, Origen, Chrysostom, Justin Martyr from 100-400 AD from every area of the Roman Empire and states that: "the miraculous gifts of the first century died out and were no longer needed to establish Christianity." (p.143).

Language is the verbalising of one's thoughts and denotes one's level of understanding. Tongues in the early church, were thus like infancy childish language to a man.

When we hear a baby speaking childish language, we think it is cute and normal. However, when a full grown man reverts to baby talk because of some mental breakdown, we think it is a pathetic disability, horrible and to be pitied. This is because men are expected to have "put away childish things." What is normal in infancy is abnormal in adulthood.

So, also for the Church to revert to tongues, is to revert to babyhood. Paul at that early date (55AD) is telling the Corinthians to recognise tongues as a passing phenomena. The time was fast approaching when they would have to grow up, put away their tongues babytalk and become full grown men, living by faith, hope and love as taught in the perfect/completed Bible.

b) Looking into a mirror of the Bible to see one's true spiritual condition.

"For now (55AD) we see through a glass (mirror) darkly; but then (96AD) face to face: now (55AD) I know in part; but then (96AD) shall I know even as also I am known." I Corinthians 13:12. An expanded explanation of this would be:

"For now (55AD) we see (prophecy as a temporary gift) through a mirror (a partly given New Testament) darkly (a blurred image, partial revelation by prophecy and an incomplete New Testament); but then (96AD when the full New Testament is given) face to face (we see ourselves clearly in the completed New Testament, as we see our true physical condition in a perfectly reflecting mirror): now (55AD at the time of writing) I know (I have the temporary gift of knowledge) in part (only part of the New Testament was given, along with the gift of knowledge only gave a partial view of God's full New Testament revelation due to be completed by 96AD); but then (96AD when the full New Testament would be given) shall I know (I will have the full New Testament revelation intended by God to equip me for the ministry, for a holy life, and for godliness (II Peter 1:3,4) even as also I am known."

With the completion of Scripture, there was a completion of the portrait of Christ that reflected His glory. What was "dim or dark" at the writing of I Corinthians 13:12 (at 55AD) became clear at the completion of scripture in 96AD, so that believers could see the Lord and their own changing likeness to Him "face to face."

In 13:12 Paul compares the New Testament Church without a complete New Testament to a person looking into a polished metal mirror giving a blurred reflection. All they had was the partial revelation of prophecy, tongues and knowledge to tide the church over until they received the full New Testament in 96AD. This only gave them an imperfect understanding of divine truths, like a blurred mirror reflection.

"But then face to face" refers to the time when the full New Testament would be available to allow accurate and full understanding of spiritual truths for this age.

- "Then shall I know even as also I am known."

- When the full, complete finished New Testament is available for personal study (96 AD) then shall I know the necessary spiritual truths for living a godly life in the church age now as well as God knows and reveals my true spiritual condition through His Word, the completed Bible.

This is not talking about knowing Christ face to face in heaven or knowing as much as God knows, because this would require us to have the infinite knowledge of God in heaven. We will never be as all knowing (omniscient) as God.

Literally: “Then shall I know (God’s mind about every situation of life), even also as I am known (by God about every situation and problem that I may encounter in life).”

That is, the Bible has the answer to every situation of life. How true.

13:13. “And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three, but the greatest of these is charity.”

At the time of writing (55 AD), only faith, hope and charity were continuing during the church age to the rapture. “These three” emphasises that it is only faith, hope and charity that will abide. Prophecy, tongues and knowledge are excluded as not abiding, and hence ceased in the church age by 96 AD.

Today, we have the apostles and prophets with us only in the sense that we have their New Testament writings which are still their prophecies. They laid and finished the New Testament foundation. Ephesians 4:11 lists three of the gifts that will be with us until Christ’s return: evangelists, pastors and teachers. For these three types of men, there are 3 qualities to be displayed: faith, hope and love, as shown in I Thessalonians 1:3 “Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope....”

Faith, Hope and Charity as Triplets elsewhere:

Another key proof that prophecy, tongues and knowledge are finished by 96 AD, and are not for today is that we often see faith, hope and charity mentioned as triplets being all that we need for a God-pleasing Christian life. Note the absence of prophecy, tongues and knowledge in these passages, showing that they are not needed today.

1. I Corinthians 13:13 “And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three.”
2. Galatians 5:5,6 “...the hope of righteousness by faith. ...faith which worketh by love.”
3. Ephesians 1:15,18 “I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and of the love unto all the saints,...that ye may know the hope of his calling...”
4. Colossians 1:4,5 “Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints, for the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth (perfect Bible) of the gospel.”
5. I Thessalonians 1:3 “Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.”
6. I Thessalonians 5:8 “But let us who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for an helmet, the hope of salvation.”
7. I Timothy 1:1,2,5 “Lord Jesus Christ which is our hope; unto Timothy, my own son in the faith: Now the end of the commandments is charity out of a pure heart...”
8. I Peter 1:21,22 “that your faith and hope might be in God. Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth (perfect Bible) through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love..”

Conclusion: All we need is FAITH, HOPE and LOVE to live pleasing to God. Eight times it is repeated. You don’t need a prophecy, tongue or word of knowledge. They are not mentioned. So drop prophecy, tongues and knowledge, and build up ourselves in faith, hope and love.

II. FURTHER QUESTIONS.

Question 10: Why would God allow Dedicated Christians to experience the sign and revelatory gifts if they are not from Him?

Many evangelical churches have lapsed into cold, lifeless formalism. They may be doctrinally right, but they have lost their fervent love and zeal for God. If a charismatic church has a high regard for the Bible, prayer, soul winning zeal and a willingness to attempt great things for God, then this fills a void left by dead Churches. Among these good things there resides a deceiving cancer that undermines the good that is being done. This cancer is the matter of new revelations from God of tongues, prophecy, words of knowledge, visions or dreams.

Neil Babcox, a former charismatic pastor left the charismatic church because of this issue. He says, "When a prophet said "Thus saith the Lord", he meant that the very Word of God was being proclaimed with infallibility, purity and divine authority. The prophecies that I had spoken and heard others speak paled and diminished to the point of nothingness compare with the Bible.

Ezekiel protested, "Thus saith the Lord God, "Woe unto the foolish prophets, that follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing!" Ezekiel 13:3.

Isn't that what we were - "prophets who had seen nothing?"

When the genuine prophets of God spoke, they spoke with certainty regarding every word. This finds no parallel today. The Bible's prophets knew with 100% certainty that they were speaking the very words of God.

"The spirit entered into me when he spake unto me, and set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me." Ezekiel 2:2.

Many who prophesy and claim to speak new revelations from God today know in their own hearts that they don't have the certainty of the Bible prophets, yet they continue to speak "new" revelations.

"Then the Lord said unto me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name: I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart." Jeremiah 14:14.

"I have heard what the prophets said, that prophesy lies in my name....they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart. ...I will even punish that man and his house." Jeremiah 23:25,26,34.

"they ...have spoken lying words in my name, which I have not commanded them." Jeremiah 29:23.

"Because Shemaiah hath prophesied unto you, and I sent him not, I will punish Shemaiah." Jer.29:31,32

"The prophets prophesy falsely, ...and my people love to have it so..." Jeremiah 5:31.

It is serious error to claim to speak new revelation from God, given the deception of Mormon prophecy. This emphasis on new revelation undermines the authority of Scripture. Dave Hunt rebukes the positive and possibility thinking of Paul Yonggi Cho and Robert Schuller with their occultish visualisation techniques, temptation to power and deification of man which is invading the church.

Charismatics teach that a proper understanding of Scripture does not come through correct interpretation, but through revelation (only to certain leaders), and that these new revelations supplement the Bible, and that these must be accepted as a "great move of God."

- Charismatics often say: "...we have revelation knowledge as God continues to speak to His people." This sounds really spiritual, but it is adding to Scripture. Because the Scriptures are perfect, we cannot add to them.
- John Wimber states: "rational control (of the mind) must be forfeited for tongues speaking to occur, for ecstatic worship, for messages from God to be received directly into the mind, and for miraculous healings to happen."
- Charismatics Kenneth Copeland and Kenneth Hagin's heresies were exposed in "The Agony of Deceit." Kenneth Copeland claimed that Jesus spoke new revelation to him, saying: "Jesus did not come to earth as God, but only as a man; Jesus never claimed to be God during his earthly ministry."
- John White, a famous author, claims that Jesus Christ personally appeared to him on three occasions to give new revelation that would become part of Scripture.

Question 11: Why would God allow dedicated Christians to experience and give in to influences that are not from Him?

Answer: Every moment of his life, the Christian must battle spiritually with the world, the flesh and the devil. This is part of the maturing process. All believers are tempted with pride, worry, fear, sin and disobedience. Does God allow believers to sin? Yes, of course.

“Blessed is the man that endureth temptation, for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.” James 1:12.

The Lord allows us to test every experience by Scripture, or to go by our feelings. God will allow us to be tempted in all forms. This includes the temptation to depart from Scripture by believing false revelations. Signs and wonders can have sources other than God (Deuteronomy 13:1-5; II Thessalonians 2:9,10; Revelation 13:13,14; Matthew 24:24).

Jesus warns four times of deception at the end of the Church age in Matthew 24.

If a Christian swaps the sword of the Spirit, and takes up feelings or human reasoning, he opens himself up to satan’s deception.

Many Christians in dead churches know very little scripture. In daily struggles with sin and temptation, believers are most vulnerable to the attraction of false instant spirituality. Rather than live by the Word of God for victory, one may seek the apparent short cut of tongues, prophecy, power evangelism, healing, etc as the answer to his problems.

Charismatic leaders who criticise Bible teachers who urge careful study of the Bible, are hence criticising the legitimate spiritual gift of teaching. They urge charismatics to follow them without questioning their interpretation. They oppose non-charismatics by asking: “Who did God use, the educated Pharisees or the simple apostles?” They thus forget II Timothy 2:15,

“Study to show thyself approved unto God...rightly dividing the word of truth.”

Along the way we all have difficult times, as seen by Elijah under the Juniper tree (I Kings 19:4,5), David fleeing from Saul, Paul’s beatings, etc. Don’t seek a quick fix to gain instant spirituality. The devil offered Jesus a short cut to earth’s kingdoms by avoiding the cross. The devil will offer us many short cuts seeming to easily solve our problems. We must stick to the basics: study the Word, pray, confess sin, yield to Christ, abide in Christ, and take up the cross daily. These require work, watching and warfare. Don’t swap the Word of God for an experience.

The main damaging side effect of charismaticism is the welcoming and accepting of heretics, apostates, nominal Christians and Roman Catholics into the Church. A person can pray to Mary, then speak in tongues, thus being accepted into many charismatic fellowships. Charismatics emphasise unity at the expense of doctrine.

Question 12: Why would God allow dedicated Christians to continue in error and deception to their hurt or spiritual detriment?

Answer: I Kings 13 reveals that even a dedicated and fearless prophet of God must suffer the consequences when he chooses deception over the clear revelation of God.

An unnamed man of God (v.1) was sent to Bethel “by the Word of the Lord” to prophesy against King Jeroboam and his idolatry (v.1-3). When the King tried to arrest the prophet, the King’s hand withered (v.4,5). He begged the man of God to intercede to God to restore his hand. (v.6). The man of God showed mercy, prayed to God and Jeroboam’s hand was restored. Then King Jeroboam offered him a reward (v.7) but the man of God refused (v.3-10).

Why? He refused to stop for food because the clear revelation of God forbid him from receiving food or drink or retracing his steps (v.9). So far he had walked in complete obedience to the Word of God. He had passed the tests of:

1. Fear because he had boldly carried out his job of proclaiming God’s Word to the King.
2. Compassion/Mercy. He had not allowed the King’s threats to dry up his mercy. He willingly, lovingly prayed for Jeroboam’s hand to be restored without revenge.
3. The test of faithfulness to God over human favour had been overcome, because he turned down the King’s offer of hospitality and reward .
4. The test of deception, was the final test which he sadly failed.

Why? God had clearly told him not to receive hospitality, but he rejected the clear revelation of the Word of God for a new revelation, and it cost him his life.

There was an old prophet living nearby who heard about his faithful stand. The old prophet had lived in compromise at Bethel and invited the man of God home to dine with him (v.11-15).

The man of God refused saying that he was under strict orders from God not to eat, drink or retrace his steps (v.16.17). The old prophet replied in v.18,

“I am a prophet also as thou art; and an angel spake unto me by the word of the Lord, saying, bring him back with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drink water. But he lied unto him.”

Why did he lie? We are not told.

a) Maybe he was envious at seeing a true prophet faithfully discharge his duties, when he had lived in compromise.

b) Maybe he resented the man of God and had a convicted conscience.

The old prophet claimed a new revelation from God. The man of God had to decide:

a) Would he accept at face value the new revelation, or

b) Would he continue to cling to God’s previous revelation?

Sadly, the once fearless and faithful prophet succumbed to deception. God allowed this to happen to a dedicated man of God. Why? Because in our pilgrimage on earth, there will always be the choice to follow the clear teaching of God’s Word, or to replace it with the shallow promises, prophecies and deceptions of man.

The man of God retraced his steps back to the home of the old prophet and ate with him (v.19). Over the meal, the old prophet revealed that because the man of God had disobeyed the Word of God, he would die (v.20-22).

And that is exactly what happened (v.23-26) because a lion slew him in the way.

From this we see that if God allowed a dedicated prophet of God to choose between the clear teaching of the Lord and deception, surely the Lord will let us have this choice today. Many Christians suffer poor spiritual lives because they give up the Word of God, and embrace teachers who prophesy or give new revelations of their own spirit.

Question 13: But why doesn’t God step in and chasten His children to woo them back to obedience? (Hebrews 12).

Answer: The Holy Spirit and the Word of God continually call the believer to faithfulness and obedience (Phil. 2:12,13). Deception and impoverishment are the bitter fruits of turning away from the Word of God. Sometimes God will allow His children to remain deceived as a chastisement until they turn again in submission to the Word of God. Their salvation in Christ is secure through Christ’s blood sacrifice. They may serve the Lord faithfully in other areas and even be used successfully by God, but they will miss God’s best blessings on earth and they will lose rewards in heaven.

God will allow believers to choose whether to glorify Christ through submission and obeying scripture or to rebel. For dedicated servants of God who put aside the clear revelation of God and embrace new revelations, in this life they will be deceived and impoverished, and in the next life they will suffer loss of rewards at the judgment seat of Christ (II Corinthians 5:10).

Examples of charismatic deception are tongues, false healings, new revelations, words of knowledge spoken about other people, slaying in the “spirit”, “Toronto” experience, etc. Consider two examples:

Slaying People in the Spirit is a Charismatic invention whereby hands are laid on a person’s head and they lose consciousness, causing them to fall backwards onto the floor. THIS IS NOT IN THE BIBLE, so forget it. Laying hands on people is well known in the occult as a means of transferring demons. It is more likely demonically influenced and all the more reason why we should avoid this movement.

Surrender of Mind and Emotions to Group Pressure. On entering a Charismatic meeting, we meet many people dancing, throwing arms in the air, speaking in tongues, on an emotional high and appearing very happy. The average Christian realises that he is not always like this, nor is the church from which he has come (which is made to appear dead and lifeless in comparison). He and his church are made to feel inferior and below what God expects. He has always had thoughts that his Christian life hasn’t always been as good as it ought to have been. He immediately concludes that these people have a one-shot-sure-fire-answer to spirituality when they ask him if he has been baptised in the Holy Spirit or spoken in tongues. If he is not careful, he will assume that these people are right, without studying the Bible or without praying the issue through. He may then agree to speak in tongues (gibberish), which makes the Charismatics very happy. He feels much love, acceptance and unity as a result, all because of an experience that he has had. He then begins his Christian life by making his experience the authority on which he determines spiritual truth, and not the Bible. He then defends his decision logically by saying what wonderful love and unity these people have and “power” (false albeit). He asks, “how can they be wrong when they show such qualities?”

Why do charismatics succeed so much?

- i) Because most churches are DEAD and show no spiritual life, no one ever gets saved and nothing miraculous ever happens.
- ii) The Bible teaching on this issue is not taught.
- iii) People equate emotional show and bubblyness with spirituality.
- iv) Everyone would like an instant formula for spiritual success in the Christian life. Tongues is easy.
- v) People are lazy. They find it easier to believe what they are told, especially by “happy, persuasive people”, than to study and search the Bible for themselves.
- vi) It looks as if all churches are uniting by tongues speaking and this is, on the surface seen to be a good thing, yet it ignores Bible doctrine. People are told to hold hands, form a circle, and this show of “love” causes many well-meaning Christians to sacrifice dearly held essential Bible truths for which our ancestors died, and to unite with error. This is just what Rome wants to bring us all back to the “Mother of Harlots” and form the Super-church of Revelation 17, which will be destroyed by the antichrist that she brings to power.

Question 14: If sign and revelatory gifts are not for today, and are not from God, why do they produce apparently good effects in believers lives?

Step 1. Many Charismatics claim to be enriched by speaking in tongues, making prophecies, words of knowledge, casting out demons and sign gifts, etc. They may have a greater interest in the Bible, prayer and witnessing. How could such positive results not be from God?

Step 2. Any military strategist knows that an enemy will often give up ground in order to gain a greater victory (Israel defeated Ai with this tactic. Joshua 8:15-21). Satan is not afraid of prayer, Bible study or bold witness that is contrary to the Word of God, especially when it promotes error and advances his own kingdom. Satan does strongly oppose genuine prayer, Bible study and gospel preaching when it is done Biblically and in the filling of the Holy Spirit. Satan is happy to pull back opposition to Bible study, prayer and witness, if he can woo the believer away from Bible decision-making and into experiential decision-making (which is Satan’s greater sought-after victory).

Step 3. If a believer moves into experiential decision making, Satan can withdraw his opposition to Bible study, prayer and witness. The believer then attributes his advancement in prayer, Bible study and witness to his new tongues experience. This serves to lure the believer deeper into his experiential decision making, and hence further away from 100% Bible authority only. Hence, by giving some ground, Satan leads believers into greater deception. The believer thus more strongly clings to non Biblical experiences.

Step 4. The believer who accepts sign and revelatory gifts is replacing Biblical authority with experiential authorities. Interpretation of verses becomes heavily weighted towards vindicating his experiences.

Step 5. People are genuinely saved, they in turn accept the signs and wonders message, and the deception grows. The basis for Christian fellowship is no longer the Bible, but a common experience such as tongues. That is why Roman Catholics, liberal protestants, some evangelicals and heretics unite in ecumenical charismatic fellowship. Tongues causes divisions in churches, just as it did at the Tower of Babel.

Many Charismatics are not completely sure that their prophecies are from the Lord. Many are troubled at healings that relapse. Many Charismatics say that they are Spirit-filled yet live inconsistent lives.

Satan’s contest in Eden was to steal Adam’s loyalty away from the Word of God (“Yea, hath God said?”) and for him to live independent of God and His Word.

Question 15: Do Christians know when they are being mislead?

Answer: No, not always. In Matthew 16:21-23, Peter in expressing his love for Christ, was deceived by Satan in trying to stop Christ from going to the cross. Jesus looked past Peter's love and saw Satan leading Peter away from the revealed will of God. Note:

- 1) With the heart one receives or trusts Christ for salvation.
- 2) With the will one obeys Christ.
- 3) With the mind one abides in Christ.

Heart means: Intellect, will, affections, loyalties. Will means: Action, commitment.

- Many Christians spend hours in Christian bookshops looking for a book to give them the secret of victorious living. If they can't find the power of God in a book, they will seek it in an experience.
- The goal of the Christian life is to remain Spirit filled, to find the will of God and do it.

Question 16: Are there any Biblical examples of Satan giving up spiritual ground in order to gain spiritual advantages?

Answer:

- 1) Satan offered Christ the world's kingdoms in exchange for Christ's worship. Matthew 4:8-10.
- 2) The demonized damsel proclaimed that Paul's team were servants of the Most High God who showed the way of salvation. Acts 16:16-18. Why? So the gospel would be associated with the occult. Many churches have changed from being a lighthouse to a weather vane. Instead of lighting the way in the darkness, many churches merely turn with whatever fashion or worldly wind blows at the time. Our Lord Jesus Christ is to take pre-eminence in all things. The Holy Spirit's job is to reveal and exalt Jesus Christ. The problem of powerless Christians is due to believers failing to surrender totally to the lordship of Jesus Christ.

Living the Christian life is described by: "Warfare", "fight", "run the race", "yield not", "work out", and "press towards." The Christian life is a disciplined life of constant vigilance and taking up the cross daily. There are no short cuts to instant spirituality.

Roman Catholic charismatics have greater zeal for Mary, Mass, the Papacy, and praying to saints etc. If Satan can achieve this, he will stop opposing Charismatic churches so that apparent growth occurs.

Question 17: If the sign and revelatory gifts today are not from God, why are Charismatic churches the fastest growing churches in the world?

Answer:

1. Much Charismatic growth is by attracting Christians from other churches. Because many Charismatic churches place little emphasis on sound doctrine, this breeds an atmosphere of acceptance, which assists numerical growth. If you never rebuke sin, have worldly attractions, and give people everything they want, you'll see growth, but you won't please God. Charismaticism weakens churches that are committed to the fundamentals of the faith, while it energises ecumenical liberal, worldly churches.
2. Numerical growth does not equal God's stamp of approval. Mormons, Jehovah Witnesses and cults can boast amazing growth statistics, yet their beliefs are very unbiblical. What about growth of Charismatic churches that hold to the fundamentals of the faith? Jesus' parables of the wheat and tares (Matthew 13:24-30; 36-43), mustard seed (13:31,32), and the leaven (13:33) all predict outward growth in Christendom, but this growth would be accompanied by growth in evil influences (leaven, birds) from within. Numerical growth does not mean that God approves all a church's doctrines. Numerical growth, even by true conversions can occur amidst false doctrine. eg. The Corinthian church grew rapidly, even though it had many false doctrines and sins. Many churches claim to be evangelical, but challenge them on:
 - 1) The 100% inerrancy of Scripture.
 - 2) The historical, literal accuracy of Genesis 1-11.
 - 3) The factual nature of Jonah being swallowed by a whale.
 - 4) The scientific accuracy of a literal 6 day creation week, and they prove to disbelieve the Bible.

Christ prayed that the Father would sanctify believers through His Word (John 17:17), before he prayed that believers would be one (John 17:21).

If we loudly profess to believe every Bible truth, except where the world and devil are at the moment attacking, we are denying Christ and proving disloyal. Today's battle against the Bible takes the form of an invasion of new revelations. This is why Rome can happily endorse the Charismatic movement because Rome also has her new revelations that are contrary to the Bible. We must be sound in belief, sound in a Godly life, and sound in servicing Christ.

III. 20 REASONS THAT TONGUES CEASED IN THE FIRST CENTURY.

1. Tongues were a sign of judgment against Jewish unbelief as a nation.

With the destruction of Jerusalem in 70 AD, God's judgment on Israel had been executed, and the tongues gift as a sign of coming judgment on Israel was no longer needed. I Corinthians 14:22 says, "Wherefore, tongues are for a sign NOT to them that believe, but to them that believe not."

"In the law it is written, with men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people (Jews); and yet for all that (all the tongues) will they (Jews) not hear me (warning ignored), saith the Lord." I Corinthians 14:21.

Tongues here were clearly a warning to the Jews that they ignored.

Paul quotes I Corinthians 14:21 from:

- i) Deuteronomy 28:49 where God warns of judgment coming from "a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand."
- ii) Jeremiah 5:15 "Lo I will bring a nation upon you from afar...a nation whose language thou knowest not..." (612 BC). Hence, Babylonian tongues warned Jews of coming judgment.
- iii) Isaiah 28:11,12 "With another tongue will he speak to this people." (712 BC). Here, Assyrian tongues warned the Jews of coming judgment.
- iv) Isaiah 33:19 "Thou shalt not see a fierce people, a people of a deeper speech than thou canst perceive: of a stammering tongue that thou canst not understand."

Here the absence of foreign tongues will be a sign that Israel is under God's blessing. Paul applies the Jewish unbelief of Isaiah 28:11,12 from 712 BC to the first century Jewish unbelief. "This people", "they", and "them that believe not" all refers to Jews. There were many Jews at Corinth who did not believe (Acts 18). Hence, tongues were a sign of future judgment to the Jews.

2. There are 3 major outbreaks of miracles in Scripture:

- i) Moses and Joshua (1441-1370 BC) of about 71 years duration.
- ii) Elijah and Elisha (870-785 BC) of about 85 years duration.
- iii) Christ and the Apostles (28-70 AD) of about 42 years duration.

Continuous miracles in the Bible are the exception, and do not occur always, but in three periods. The miraculous gift of tongues occurred from 30 to 70 AD.

3. Tongues belonged to the infant days of the church.

"But when I became a man, I put away childish things." I Corinthians 13:11.

Tongues (along with prophecy and knowledge) would cease when the church became mature. The childhood days of the church ended, when Israel as a nation was judged. Then there was no longer any need for a sign to authenticate the apostles' message (Mark 16:17-20) which started the church. Nor was there need for a sign against the extinct Jewish nation.

The gifts of tongues, miracles, healing, etc had stopped by 70 AD, but of course God still performs miracles and heals as He chooses today in answer to prayer. Since some foundational gifts were temporary. Tongues, a lesser miraculous gift, was temporary also.

4. Tongues authenticated the apostles' message as from God.

"And they (apostles) went forth, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the Word with signs (tongues, healing, exorcism etc.) following. Amen." Mark 16:20. Today the need for tongues has ceased. God has authenticated the apostles and the New Testament that they penned. This proves the temporary nature of tongues.

5. Hebrews 6:5 shows that the only other age of miracles will be the Millennium described as “the powers of the age to come.”

Q. What are the powers?

A. The word rendered “powers” is “dunamis” (1411) in Greek, which is the usual New Testament word for miracles. These people had tasted, experienced or witnessed the apostles’ miracles.

Q. What is the “age to come”?

A. A common Hebrew expression for the millennium where the Messiah will rule as King on earth.

Q. Why therefore are miracles referred to as “powers of the age to come”?

A. Because they would not characterise the church age (which Hebrews 6:5 was quoted in), but the millennial Kingdom age to come.

6. Hebrews 2:3,4 shows miracles (such as tongues) to be in the past tense, and not continuously being experienced by the Hebrew Christians of 64 AD.

“How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation which:

- 1) At the first began to be spoken by the Lord (in Jesus’ 3 year ministry) and
- 2) was (past tense) confirmed (same as Mark 16:20) unto us (second generation Christians) by them (apostles and first generation Christians) that heard him (Jesus Christ),
- 3) God also bearing them (the apostles, not us or every generation of Christians) witness, both with signs (eg: tongues, miracles, healings, etc) and wonders, and with divers miracles (miracles belonged to the apostles, not to every Christian. II Corinthians 12:12), and gifts of the Holy Ghost (eg. the temporary miraculous gifts), according to His own will.”
 - a) Notice the phrase “at the first”. This gives the time element which governs all these signs, miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghost.
 - b) All Greek verbs in Hebrews 2:3,4 are in the aojist tense indicating a past completed act which can never be repeated.

7. This is also seen in Acts 11:15, where Peter describes tongues at Cornelius household, not as a regular occurrence weekly in every church, but only something that happened last time at Pentecost (Acts 2) “as on us at the beginning.”

8. The Process of Elimination shows tongues to be not for believers of today.

Tongues primary purpose was to warn unbelieving Jews to repent, or God would judge them.

They refused to repent, so God judged them in 70 AD, thus making tongues as a warning to the Jews no longer necessary. I Corinthians 14:22 is a key verse which says:

“Tongues are a sign, NOT to THEM that BELIEVE, but to them that BELIEVE NOT...”

Tongues are a sign for one of three types of people. Which one?

- a) NOT FOR BELIEVERS. 14:22. This means that tongues have no purpose for believers. For Christians to speak in tongues is not valid.
- b) NOT FOR GENTILE UNBELIEVERS. 14:23. Those unlearned in the Old Testament meaning of tongues, or unbelievers, “will they not say that ye are mad?” This describes unsaved Gentiles. Tongues are not for this group because the history of Assyrian and Babylonian tongues as a warning of a judgment to Israel meant nothing to them.
- c) JEWISH UNBELIEVERS. 14:21. “In the law (Isaiah 28:11; Jeremiah 5:15 and Deuteronomy 28:49) it is written, with men of other tongues (Assyrian, Babylonian, Roman) and other lips will I speak unto this people (Jews); and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.”

9. Tongues had ceased by 70 AD because their use is only mentioned in the earlier New Testament books, such as Mark 16 (57 AD), Acts (54 AD), I Corinthians (55 AD).

In all the latter books, tongues are never mentioned.

Why? Because they never happened after 70 AD and were of no relevance to any churches thereafter.

Tongues are never commanded in any New Testament book for believers to practice.

I Corinthians 12,13,14 rebukes the Corinthians wrong use of tongues. It is not endorsing tongues to be practised. Charismatics think that the key to spirituality is tongues, a phenomena that is not mentioned in 24 out of 27 New Testament books.

Why are tongues ABSENT from II Corinthians to Revelation? If tongues were so necessary, you would definitely see them in the rest of the New Testament.

The book of Romans, which is well known as the most complete summary of Christian doctrine and practice in the Bible, does not once mention tongues. Why not? Because tongues, by the time Romans was written (60 AD) was almost finished as a gift and would be of no relevance in the Church age after 70 AD when God judged Jerusalem.

Think about it, if tongues were important, God would have mentioned them at least once in Romans, or II Corinthians, or Galatians, or at least in one letter to a church in a positive context.

10. The gift of tongues was never endorsed or practised by early church leaders.

Clement of Rome in 95 AD wrote a letter to the Corinthian church rebuking every problem that Paul rebuked except tongues. Why did he not mention tongues or miracles?

Justin Martyr (160 AD) visited many churches but never once mentions tongues, not even in his lists of spiritual gifts.

Origen (250AD) in his voluminous writings never mentions tongues, but argues against Celsus that the sign gifts of the apostles' age were temporary and were not exercised by Christians in the 3rd Century.

Chrysostom (347-407 AD) commented on the I Corinthians passage: "This whole place is very obscure: but the obscurity is produced by our ignorance of the facts referred to and by their cessation, being such as then used to occur, but now no longer take place." [Homilies, XXIX, 1].

Augustine (354-430 AD) said in speaking of Acts 2:4, "In the earliest times, the Holy Ghost fell upon them that believed: and they spake with tongues....these were signs adapted to the time. For there behooved to be that betokening of the Holy Spirit...that thing was done for a betokening and it passed away."

11. "Now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three..." I Corinthians 13:13.

Now (55AD) abides (continues) faith, hope, charity, these three" (not "these six prophecy, tongues, knowledge"). Since faith and hope finish at Christ's return, then prophecy, tongues and knowledge had to have finished by 96 AD because they were not abiding, but declining in 55AD.

12. Recorder Test (Independent interpreters) Disproves Interpretation of Tongues.

If no one passes the Interpretation test, then neither does anyone possess the genuine gift of tongues.

This scientific test will disprove anyone's claim to have the gift of "Interpretation of tongues."

Assemble one person who claims to have the gift of tongues, and another two people who claim to have the gift of interpreting tongues, keeping both groups separate.

Let the first person speak in tongues, while you record him speaking.

Then bring the first interpreter into the room to hear the recorded tongue replayed.

Record his interpretation of the tongue.

Then bring the second interpreter into the room to hear the same tongue replayed.

Record his interpretation of the same tongue. You will find that the second interpretation will disagree with the first person's interpretation.

Why is this? It is because no one today has the first century supernatural gift of interpretation of tongues, this gift having passed away by 70 AD.

It follows therefore, that if the interpretation gift is found to be NON-GENUINE, then the tongues gift is also NON-GENUINE.

Notice that when someone speaks gibberish, claiming that he is speaking in an unknown tongue, he is, by deception, taking advantage of the fact that his hearers do not know every language in the universe.

The hearer, who is caught off guard, finds it hard to state that this gibberish is not a language.

So let us turn the tables and ask if his two interpreter friends can interpret any tongue in agreement.

Note: A variation on this test is to get up in a Charismatic meeting, speak something in a foreign language that you know the meaning of, and then ask for it to be correctly interpreted, e.g. quote the Lord's prayer in Latvian. You will find that the interpretation given, will be nothing like the true meaning of what you said. You may then expose them publicly as deceivers and as being deceived.

13. Ephesians 4.5,6 describe thoroughly the Walk and Service of a Spirit-filled believer. Nowhere in this key passage is speaking in tongues mentioned.

Conclusion: "Walking worthy" does not include tongues.

14. Phonetics Test. Every language must have hundreds of different syllables to express the wide range of ideas in a society. Charismatic tongues only have less than 12 syllables repeated constantly. This is typical of gibberish that comes from a mind that is not expressing thoughts, but from a tongue out of control from the mind. Note: 4 syllables are, for example, seen in "Cha/ris/ma/tic". This shows that tongues are not real languages, but are just sounds made up on the spot at random.

15. Majoring on tongues REVERSES the order of importance of spiritual gifts.

In I Corinthians 12:28, God lists tongues as the least important of 8 gifts.

In I Corinthians 12:31, God tells the church to seek the "best" gifts.(ie:give more emphasis to teaching)

God gives gifts to believers "as HE will" (12:11), not as we insist.

Charismatics tell people to pray long and hard for the gift of tongues.

We are not to deliberately choose and insist on having the least gift and exalt it above the others. Why not place greater emphasis on the gifts of pastor-teacher, evangelists, helps, government, giving etc.? It is because these gifts involve hard work, but tongues (gibberish) is easy.

16. The context of I Corinthians is rebuking 13 errors, such as tongues. It is not recommending tongues. The Corinthian church was filled with problems that Paul corrects in this book, such as:

1. They were following their favourite human leaders causing divisions. 1:11-14.

2. " " favouring human wisdom. 1:18-2:13.

3. " " carnal, living for self, not being controlled by the Spirit. 2:14-3:7.

4. " " forgetting the future Judgment Seat of Christ. 3:8-23.

5. " " proud, thinking of themselves more highly than they ought. 4:1-21.

6. " " failing to discipline, by tolerating a fornicator. 5:1-13.

7. " " taking fellow believers to court. 6:1-20.

8. " " confused about marriage. 7:1-40.

9. " " confused about liberty thinking it meant licence to do anything,even stumbling others. 8,9,10

10. " " confused about clothing, long hair on men and the Lord's Supper. 11.

11. " " confused about spiritual gifts, especially tongues. 12-14.

12. " " confused about the resurrection. 15.

13. " " confused about the collection. 16.

As we can see the Corinthian church was deep in error and false doctrine. It was the only church that emphasized tongues as today's Charismatics do. Charismatics therefore place themselves in very bad company. Charismatics fail to understand that Paul is not endorsing tongues, but is rebuking the wrong use of tongues and is strongly regulating tongues contrary to today's Charismatics. The Corinthian church was the worst church for Charismatics to follow as an example.

17. They fail the "Easy to be entreated" test.

It is amazing how tongues speakers often become very angry, intolerant, irritable, impatient, nervous, very dogmatic, and extremely touchy when anything is said which disapproves of or corrects their idea of speaking in tongues.

"The wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, easy to be entreated..." James 3:17.

"The works of the flesh...are wrath, strife..." Galatians 5:19,20.

"Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God." Hebrews 12:15.

18. The First Mention Principle of Tongues is in the Context of Judgment.

This is a well-established principle for correctly interpreting Scripture. It states that:

When any subject, word, expression or idea is first mentioned in the Bible, this shows God thinking on that subject, and is a guide to how we should understand this subject in the rest of the Bible. Example: The first mention of Babylon, Babel, and languages is in Genesis 11:1-9 where God confused man's languages so that they did not understand one another's speech. "The Lord scattered mankind abroad upon the face of all the earth." Man has remained divided by different languages ever since. Hence tongues are associated with division and confusion (the meaning of Babel), ever since the Tower of Babel; not with the blessing of God, but with the judgment of God.

"Thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues." Psalm 31:20.

19. PRAYING IN TONGUES is WRONG because UNDERSTANDING is ABSENT.

"For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful. What is it then? I will pray with the spirit and I will pray with the UNDERSTANDING also." I Cor. 14:14,15.

Paul is saying here that if you pray in tongues, your spirit might be trying to express something, but your MIND (or understanding) has no idea what is being said. This is wrong behaviour, Paul says. For prayer to be genuine, we must pray with our spirit and with our understanding.

Praying in tongues fails the test of understanding. The mind and voice are disconnected.

Many Charismatics will try to justify praying in tongues by quoting Romans 8:26.

"...the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which CANNOT BE UTTERED".

This verse is not talking about praying in tongues because tongues are uttered vocal sounds.

The Holy Spirit speaks our thoughts to the Father with groanings which cannot be uttered by us, yet prayer tongues are uttered by people.

20. Mark 16:11-20 (especially v.17) shows that the signs that were to follow them that believe related to a brief period, not longer than that covered by the book of Acts, and described in v.19,20

"And these signs shall follow (3877) them (apostles because the context of v.11-14 shows unbelieving apostles four times) that believe;they shall speak with new tongues." v.17.

This refutes the Charismatic idea that everybody who believes all through the Church age should speak in tongues, lay hands on the sick and they shall recover, etc., because this belief only refers to the unbelieving apostles in v.11-14 who refused to believe in Christ's resurrection (v.11,12,14).

This continues as part of Christ's rebuke to the apostles for "their unbelief and hardness of heart." v.14.

IV. 7 REASONS WHY "THEM THAT BELIEVE" REFERS ONLY TO THE APOSTLES.

If we fail to read the entire context of Mark 16:9-20 we may get the impression that the v.17,18 sign gifts apply to all believers during all the church age.

There is good evidence that "them that believe" refers to only the apostles. Why?

Reason 1: Context is the Apostles' Unbelief in Christ's Resurrection.

In Mark 16:14, Jesus rebukes the apostles for their unbelief in His resurrection.

In v.11-14, four times the apostles' unbelief is mentioned as Jesus addressed the apostles:

v.11 "They (apostles), when they had heard that he was alivebelieved not."

v.13 ".....neither believed they them."

v.14 "He.....upbraided them (apostles) with their unbelief and hardness of heart."

v.14 "because they (apostles) believed not them which had seen him after he was risen."

After this rebuke Jesus gives the apostles the Great Commission in v.15,16. Once the commission is given, Jesus returns to his immediate audience of the eleven apostles when He says in v.17,18 "These signs shall follow them that believe" (ie. those of you eleven apostles who believe in my resurrection).

In my name :

1. they shall they cast out devils.
2. they shall speak with new tongues.
3. they shall take up serpents.
4. if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them.
5. they shall lay hands on the sick and they shall recover.

Reason 2: Practical experience shows that promises 3,4,5 are not true for every believer today. In spite of continued failures to heal, Charismatics still think that these 5 promises are for all believers today. The obvious problem with this interpretation is that it does not deal with everything mentioned in the text.

a) No Charismatic can always fulfil the 5th promise. It says that they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover. This means 100% recovery all the time. No one can heal every sick person today, as the apostles could in Acts 5:12-16.

“By the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people.....they (believers) brought forth the sick into the streets.....and they were healed every one.” v.16.

John Wimber, a famous Charismatic laid hands on 250 Down’s Syndrome children with no cures.

Reinhard Boncke tried to heal over 200 Kenyans at Kisumu in Kenya without any success.

b) “If they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them.”

“If” means accidentally. The problem here is that many good Christians have become sick or died by poisoning. Have you as a believer ever vomited?

c) “They shall take up serpents.”

We ask a Charismatic to take up a deadly snake. He replies by saying: “No, that would be tempting God.” Yet in the first century this was a sign that the apostles did (shall do) to prove the Word of God and their authority. Some believers today have died in trying this. This shows that this is not for today.

Reason 3: AORIST tense of “believe” in Mark 16:17 refers to those who did believe in the past, not who will believe in the future.

“These signs shall follow them that believe.” The Greek word for believe here is “pisteusasín” which is an aoíst participle referring to those who did believe in the past.”

[S. Zodhiates, “Complete New Testament Word Study Dictionary,” p.1107],

“not those who would believe in the future.”

[S. Zodhiates, “Hebrew-Greek Key Word Study Bible,” p.1223].

The aorist tense refers to a past action at a point in time, not an event that recurs again into the future, as it would be if it was true of all believers.

Reason 4: Belief (Gk: pisteusasín in Mark 16:17) does not refer to saving belief. In John 3:16 and 5:24 saving belief is “pisteuwn”, a different word ending. Hence, “belief” in Mark 16:17 refers not to all future believers, but to the apostles believing in Christ’s resurrection at a point in time, once for all time.

Reason 5: “Do All speak With tongues?” 1 Corinthians 12:30 requires the answer “No, not all believers have the gift of speaking with tongues.”

Reason 6: The Purpose of these signs was to confirm the Word of God spoken and written by the apostles, as Mark 16:20 says.

“And they (apostles) went forth, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them (apostles), and confirming the Word with signs (eg. tongues) following.”

Once the Word of God (the New Testament) had been confirmed by the apostle’s signs, then further signs were not needed. The signs had done their job of proving the New Testament as being from God. When the Bible was completed, then miraculous apostolic confirming signs were no longer needed.

Reason 7: Mark 16:20 continues the context to mean apostles.

This tells what happened to the apostles after they changed from unbelief in Christ’s resurrection, to believing it and preaching it everywhere with signs following.

Hence, in v.20, the context is still only the apostles doing signs, not every believer doing signs.

Conclusion: Either all five signs are valid for today or none are valid today. They only refer to first century apostles.

101. ERRORS OF THE CHARISMATIC MOVEMENT

Introduction: Some practices of the Charismatic Movement are not according to Scripture. These are:

1. Speaking in Tongues
2. New Revelations
3. Ecumenical Movement towards Rome
4. Slaying in the Spirit
5. Healing

Question: Why do people become interested in the Charismatic movement or Pentecostalism?

Answer: Because of worldliness, lack of vital, inspired ministry and spiritual deadness.

Don't become backslidden, cold or lazy for God, but be on-fire for God, souls and the Bible.

The main Charismatic/Pentecostal doctrine is that: "speaking in tongues is the initial evidence of the baptism of the Holy Spirit." They claim that one who has not spoken in tongues does not have the same power for service as one who has.

If we show that tongues are not for today, we have disproved the Charismatic Movement.

A fundamental law of life is that the Word of God must always govern our experiences. Tongues has divided the Christian world this century. The question is not "are tongues genuine?", but it is "are tongues Biblical?" When experience contradicts the Bible, then the Bible always takes precedence. Why? Because we can misinterpret our experience or have false experiences.

Let us examine tongues as follows:

1. Reasons why Biblical tongues are real languages and not Charismatic gibberish.

- a) Tongues could be interpreted, gibberish cannot.
- b) The Greek word "glossa" in the New Testament used for tongues means real languages.
- c) In Acts 2:6,8 those Jews at Pentecost heard God's message spoken in their own language or dialect. "Every man heard them speak in his own language." v.6,8,11.
- d) The same word "glossa" is used for tongues in Acts as in I Corinthians 12-14.
- e) "Glossa" is plural meaning many languages. Gibberish is singular as it is non-classifiable into more than one type of gibberish.
- f) 1 Cor.14:21 states that tongues were a foreign language given as a sign to unbelieving Israel.

2. Reasons for spiritual gifts.

Why are spiritual gifts given?

- a) To glorify Christ, not to glorify the Holy Spirit. "He shall glorify me." John 16:14.
- b) To edify others, not to edify self. "Seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church." 1Cor.14:12. Paul rebukes them for their wrong use of tongues in 1 Corinthians 14:4 "He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself."
- c) To equip the church (Ephesians 4:12) for the work of the ministry.

3. Reasons for Tongues (see chapter 99 for a discussion of this).

Tongues were given to:

- a) Warn unbelieving Jews. (I Corinthians 14:21).
- b) Confirm the word with signs. Mark 16:17-20.
- c) Confirm the Apostles as God's true messengers.

I. PASSAGES MISUNDERSTOOD BY CHARISMATICS.

1. ACTS 2. TONGUES AT PENTECOST.

Pentecost means "fiftieth" because it was held 50 days after the feast of Firstfruits (Leviticus 23:15-22). The Jewish calendar in Leviticus 23 is an outline of Christ's work.

Passover pictures Christ's death as the Lamb of God (1 Cor. 5:7).

Next Firstfruits pictures Christ's resurrection (1 Cor. 15:20-23).
Sunday (Day 1)

Day 50 Pentecost pictures the formation of the church.

Passover came, then the Sabbath, then followed the Feast of Firstfruits which was always on the first day of the week (Sunday).

- Jesus rose from the dead on the Feast of Firstfruits (Sunday) and "became the firstfruits of them that slept." (1 Corinthians 15:20).
- Pentecost occurred 50 days after the Feasts of Firstfruits, which was the day that Christ rose from the dead (Leviticus 23:15,16). This was also a Sunday.
- Christians meet on Sunday, the first day of the week, because:
 1. On the Feast of Firstfruits (Sunday): → 1. Christ rose from the dead, and
 2. On the day of Pentecost (Sunday): → 2. the Holy Spirit indwelt believers, and
 3. On the day of Pentecost (Sunday): → 3. the Church formed.
- On the Feast of Firstfruits, the priest waved a sheaf of grain before the Lord.
- On Pentecost, the priest presented two loaves of bread. Why? Because at Pentecost the church formed, which in this age is made up of Jewish and Gentile believers united in one body (1 Cor. 10:17). Leaven (yeast) in the loaves (Lev.23:17) indicates the presence of sin in the church on earth.
- Pentecost, like Calvary, was a once-for-all event that will not be repeated. The Holy Spirit who came at Pentecost permanently indwells believers (John 14:16,17).
- Wind, fire and tongues accompanied the coming of the Holy Spirit.
- The filling of the Spirit gives believers power for witness and service (Acts 1:8). God never commands us to be baptised with the Spirit, because this happens at salvation when we receive Christ as Saviour. God does command us to be filled with the Spirit (Eph. 5:18) for power to serve Him. At Pentecost the Christians were baptised with the Spirit (Acts 2:18,38) and were filled with the Spirit (Acts 2:4). After that, they experienced many fillings with the Spirit (Acts 4:8,31; 9:17; 13:9,52; 6:3; 7:55; 11:24).

Question 1: Did only the 12 apostles speak in tongues at Pentecost or did all 120 speak in tongues?

Answer: The evidence supports only the 12 apostles speaking in tongues:

1. "They" in Acts 2:1 refers back to the "apostles" in 1:26.
2. The apostles only are addressed in Acts 1:1-13. Before Pentecost, only the apostles were promised that "ye shall be baptised with the Holy Ghost not many days hence." (Acts 1:5). "Ye" here only refers to the apostles.
3. "them" and "they" in Acts 2:3,4 on whom tongues fell refer to the apostles.
4. "every man heard them speak in his own language." (Acts 2:6).
The crowd heard them (the apostles) speak in tongues.

5. "Are not all these which speak Galileans?" Acts 2:7. Those who spoke in tongues were Galileans, not men of Judah. Even an angel called them "men of Galilee." (1:11).
6. When the men of Judea accused "these men" (2:13) of drunkenness, the group that responded were, "Peter.....with the eleven." (2:14), that is, the apostles.
7. Tongues was one of the sign gifts given to the apostles.
 "Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds." 2 Corinthians 12:12.

Note: There is no record that the 3,000 people saved at Pentecost spoke in tongues, yet they all received the Holy Spirit when they were saved. (Acts 2:38).

No woman in Acts 2 is said to have spoken in tongues.

Historical background.

Question 2: Who were the devout Jews from every nation under heaven in Acts 2:5-12?

Answer: After Alexander the Great had conquered Tyre (332BC), he came to conquer Jerusalem. To his surprise, Jaddua, the High Priest, followed by the priests and people of Jerusalem came out to welcome him. Jaddua showed Alexander how he was prophesied in Daniel 8:1-8, 20-22 as the first king of Greece who would conquer the Persians whom Alexander despised. So impressed was Alexander with these Jews that he appointed them as administrators of his far flung empire, as far as India. These Jews became prominent leaders in their communities. It was descendants of these Jews who had flocked to Jerusalem for the feasts of Passover, Firstfruits and Pentecost that Peter spoke to in Acts 2:5, "And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven." The Greek word "Katoikeo" (2730) used here for "dwelling" means to have a fixed and permanent habitation, in contrast to "paroikeo" meaning a temporary resident. This refers to many wealthy foreign Jews who had a permanent residence in Jerusalem for the convenience of being near the temple. They were pilgrims visiting Jerusalem. These men came from India, Africa, Asia Minor etc. Because they had been living in other countries for over 300 years, they no longer spoke Hebrew. They were devout men, religious Jews, observing Jewish rituals, but like Nicodemus, were not yet born again. These visitors on the day of Pentecost heard the wind and came to investigate it. They were amazed to hear simple, uneducated Galileans suddenly speaking perfectly at least 16 languages from where these pilgrims came. Few people outside Parthia spoke or understood Parthia's guttural language.

The Medes came from high, wild, rugged plateaux beyond Assyria. To their utter surprise they heard their languages being clearly spoken at Jerusalem. Elamites came from east of Babylon. Pontus is now southern Russia. Arabians boasted many dialects. Each person on that day heard "the wonderful works of God" (the content of the Gospel) in his own language. (Acts 2:11).

Question 3: "What meaneth this?" Acts 2:12.

Answer: If the spectators had known Isaiah 28:11 they would have interpreted this to be a red alert danger signal of judgment soon to come. Peter presented the gospel, and concluded it with an invitation for them to be saved in Acts 2:39,40. "For the promise is unto you, and to your children (Jewish residents of Israel), and to all that are afar off (Jews of the dispersion), even as many as the Lord our God shall call. And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation." Jews were now being evangelised in Gentile languages.

Note: First century Jews warned fellow Jews of judgment soon to come, and of the plan of salvation as the only escape. Tongues continued until Jerusalem fell in 70AD.

Key: Wherever Jews lived throughout the first century world, the same means of evangelism was followed. Some believer who possessed the gift of tongues witnessed to them in the language of where they lived. Once God judged and scattered the Jews in 70AD, there was no further need for tongues. Consequently, the gift of tongues was withdrawn permanently. Hence "tongues were a sign not to believers, but to (Jewish) unbelievers!!" I Corinthians 14:22.

Acts 2:14-21. Peter explains the Holy Spirit's coming.

At Pentecost, no interpreter was needed since every man heard the message in his own native dialect. Peter denied the accusation of drunkenness by saying that it was only 9am and orthodox Jews did not eat or drink before 9am on a Sabbath or holy day (v.15). On the day of Pentecost, Peter quoted Joel 2:28-32 in conjunction with the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. His introductory words, "But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel" (Acts 2:16), may seem to indicate that he considered Joel's prophecy as being completely fulfilled then. However it is apparent that the events of the day, though extraordinary, did not completely fulfil Joel's prophecy. The day of Pentecost events were only a partial fulfilment of Joel's prophecy. Joel's prophecy will be ultimately fulfilled just after the Tribulation when Christ returns to rescue Israel. The wonders in heaven and in earth (Acts 2:19,20) clearly did not occur on the day of Pentecost or on any other day in church history.

Notice the events of Joel 2:28-32 and Acts 2:17-21 as follows:

- v.28 1. Afterward (in the last days (Acts)), I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh;
2. Your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, (gender);
3. Your old men shall dream dreams, (age);
4. Your young men shall see visions, (age);
- v.29 5. Upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my Spirit, and they shall prophesy, (Social class);
- v.30 6. I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.
- v.31 7. The sun shall be turned into darkness,
8. The moon into blood, before the great and terrible day of the Lord come.
- v.32 9. It shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be delivered.
10. In Mount Zion, and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance for the remnant as the Lord hath said.

Explanation of Joel 2:28-32.

The Lord announced that "the great and terrible day of the Lord" (v.31) would see God "pour out my Spirit upon all flesh." The context shows that the "all flesh" refers more specifically to all inhabitants of Judah. Why? Because:

- a) the fourfold use of "your" (v.28) 'your sons and your daughters...your old men...your young men'
b) Ezekiel 39:29 is a parallel passage: "...I have poured out my Spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord God."
c) Zechariah 12:10 is a parallel passage: "I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced."

This pouring out of God's Spirit would be true regardless of gender, age or social class. Joel 2:30,31
The great and terrible day of the Lord will be preceded by wonders and signs of impending judgment (2:10 - "the sun and the moon shall be dark" and 3:15).

- Blood, fire, and pillars of smoke suggest the effects of warfare, possibly nuclear warfare.
- The sun turning to darkness occurs in Revelation 6:12 and 16:10.
- The moon turning to blood occurs in Revelation 6:12 "there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood; and the stars of heaven fell..."
- Though these events will signal doom for God's enemies, God's people should interpret them as the precursors of their deliverance.

a) Matthew 24:29. "Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken; Then shall appear the sign of the Son of Man..."

b) Mark 13:24-27. "After that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light..."

c) Luke 21:25-28. "There shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars..."

Joel 2:32. At this time of judgment, whosoever (of the Jews) shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be delivered. "Whosoever" refers to repentant Jews, as seen in Zechariah 13:9, "they shall call on my name, and I will hear them: I will say, It is my people:"

Note: In Acts 2:16-21, Peter does not say that this is the fulfilment of Joel's prophecy, because the signs and wonders predicted had not occurred at Pentecost. Joel's prophecy concerns Israel before Christ's glorious appearing. Peter saw in Joel's prophecy an application to the church. Peter was saying: "This is that same Holy Spirit that Joel wrote about. He is here!" "This is that", means the Holy Spirit's coming, not the events of Joel's prophecy as they will come later. Pentecost was a sample of what Joel predicted.

Peter did not declare Pentecost as the complete fulfilment of Joel 2:28-32, but only as an illustration, a partial fulfilment, and a similar situation. Therefore, the supernatural signs that the multitude witnessed at Pentecost were the results of the Holy Spirit coming, yet only a glimmer of the future. Key: "Afterward" in Joel 2:28 pin-points the time of the Spirit's outpouring in this passage. It is after Jesus Christ has returned at His glorious appearing. The context of Joel 2 does not allow us to link this outpouring of the Spirit to events before Christ returns. This refutes the thought that today's tongues are a sign of Christ's second coming. Tongues at Pentecost prepared the way for Peter's message of salvation which brought 3,000 people to Christ that day. Charismatics often use Joel 2:28-32 to support the continuance of tongues today, as they quote Joel 2:23,24 of "the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month. And the floors shall be full of wheat..." The former rain, they say, is supposed to be the initial outpouring of the Spirit in Acts 2, and the latter rain is claimed to be today's Charismatic Movement.

The context clearly speaks of literal rain giving abundant crops. Spiritualising it, the former rain would mean the riches of David's and Solomon's kingdom, and latter rain would refer to even greater blessing of Christ's kingdom after His second coming.

Conclusion:

- a) Tongues at Pentecost were real languages understood by visitors to Jerusalem.
- b) Baptism of the Holy Spirit occurs at salvation. It is not to be sought, nor are tongues an evidence of this baptism.
- c) Tongues was a warning to unbelieving Jews to repent.
- d) Tongues was an evidence of the Holy Spirit coming to form the New Testament church, and to miraculously authenticate Peter's message of salvation.

2. THE CHARISMATIC DOCTRINE OF SUBSEQUENCE.

Acts is a book of transition, changes and history.

Changes happen in almost every chapter, such as:

- a) The Old Covenant fades out, and the New Covenant enters. Even Paul was caught in changes as seen by his Jewish vows (Acts 24:18 and 21:26) showing his tie to the Old Covenant.
- b) Acts passes from synagogue to church,
- c) Acts passes from law to grace,
- d) Acts passes from Old Testament saints to New Testament saints,
- e) Acts passes from Jewish believers, to the church made up of Jew and Gentile believers combined.

The only teachings in Acts that are normal for the church age are those that are doctrinally confirmed elsewhere in the New Testament letters to the churches.

Charismatics and Pentecostals take a different approach: They build their theology on the miracles of Acts 2,8,10,19 and on a misunderstanding of I Corinthians 12,13,14. (This is really a rebuke and criticism of tongues, not approval). Historical transition begins at Acts 2:4, the core point of all Charismatic teaching: "And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance."

Doctrine of subsequence defined: Charismatics teach that at conversion a Christian receives the Holy Spirit in a limited way. Later on, in a subsequent experience the Christian receives the "fullness" of the Spirit, by being baptised with, in or of the Spirit. This experience is accompanied by speaking in tongues, new spiritual motivation, and sometimes miracles. They teach that the Baptism of Holy Spirit:

1. Is usually distinct from and subsequent to (after) the new birth.
2. Is evidenced initially by the sign of speaking in tongues.
3. It must be earnestly sought.

Question 1: Which passages do Charismatics use to teach subsequence?

Answer:

1. I Corinthians 12:13 cannot be used because it says that the Holy Spirit baptises every believer into the body of Christ at salvation. No tongues are mentioned, nor are we commanded to seek the Baptism. The gospels and epistles don't show subsequence.
2. Acts 2 and 8. Believers received the Spirit after salvation, an element of subsequence.
3. Acts 10. At Cornelius' household, believers were baptised in the Spirit at salvation. No subsequence.
4. Acts 19. John's disciples at Ephesus were baptised in the Spirit at salvation. No subsequence.
 - Believers spoke in tongues in Acts 2,10,19, but not in Acts 8 at Samaria.
 - Believers did not seek earnestly for the baptism in any of Acts 2,8,10,19.
 - None of Acts 2,8,10,19 ever commands tongues for anybody else.

Question 2: Charismatics claim that the disciples had the Holy Spirit long before Pentecost, because they were already saved and because of John 20:21-22, their proof passage.

Answer: To this we say "yes" the disciples were saved before Pentecost as seen from:

- a) Luke 10:20 "rejoice because your names are written in heaven," to the 70 sent out by Christ.
- b) John 15:3 Jesus to his disciples "Now ye are clean through the Word which I have spoken to you." but "No" they did not yet have the indwelling Holy Spirit because they were still pre-Pentecost.

Question 3: If tongues are necessary, why did none of the 5,000 who believed and received the Holy Spirit in Acts 2-4, also speak in tongues?

Answer: Because tongues are not an evidence of Baptism of the Holy Spirit. For something to be normal for everybody, it must happen to everyone. And it did not happen to everybody.

Consider that of all the 16 salvation events described in Acts, only 2 groups spoke in tongues:

1. Acts 2.....	3,000 at Pentecost.....	no tongues
2. Acts 3, 4.....	5,000 at the Beautiful gate.....	no tongues
3. Acts 5:14.....	Multitudes saved.....	no tongues
4. Acts 8:17.....	Samaritan believers.....	no tongues
5. Acts 8:37-39.....	Ethiopian eunuch.....	no tongues
6. Acts 9.....	Saul on Damascus road.....	no tongues
7. Acts 10:46.....	Cornelius' household.....	tongues
8. Acts 11:19-24.....	Greeks saved at Antioch.....	no tongues
9. Acts 16:14, 15.....	Lydia.....	no tongues
10. Acts 16:16-19.....	Demonised damsel.....	no tongues
11. Acts 16:25-34.....	Philippian jailer and his household.....	no tongues
12. Acts 17:1-4.....	Thessalonian believers.....	no tongues
13. Acts 17:10-12.....	Berean believers.....	no tongues
14. Acts 17:15-34.....	Athenian believers.....	no tongues
15. Acts 18:8.....	Crispus and Corinthians at salvation.....	no tongues
16. Acts 19:1-12.....	12 disciples of John at Ephesus.....	tongues
17. Acts 19:18-20.....	Ephesian believers.....	no tongues
18. Acts 28:23,24.....	Roman believers.....	no tongues

Question 4: John 20:21,22, "he breathed on them, and saith unto them, receive ye the Holy Ghost"

Charismatics think that after the resurrection, the eleven disciples received the Holy Spirit in the upper room, but that they later on received the Baptism of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost which then gave them their real power.

Answer: This view is wrong because:

- 1) John 20:22 was not a permanent indwelling of the Holy Spirit, but just a temporary filling of the Holy Spirit to supply their spiritual needs up to Pentecost, just like many Old Testament saints had for a short time. e.g. Samson, John the Baptist (Luke 1:15), Elizabeth (Luke 1:41), Zacharias (Luke 1:61) and Simeon (Luke 2:25).

These gospel passages were not intended to be the norm for today. This filling of the Holy Spirit must not be confused with the Baptism of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, Caesarea and Ephesus (Acts 2:1-13; 11:15-18; 19:1-7). It may have been just a pledge or promise that would be fulfilled at Pentecost. Chrysostom (345-407 AD) and others held this view. John 20:26,27 shows the disciples still fearful behind shut doors, and faithless, eight days later.

- 2) John 7:39 "But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on Him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified."

This refutes the Charismatic idea that the disciples had the permanent indwelling Holy Spirit in John 20:22. They did not have the permanent indwelling Holy Spirit because Jesus had not yet ascended, nor was He yet glorified in heaven. The Holy Spirit would not come until after Jesus had ascended to heaven to receive the glory He had with the Father before the world began (John 17:1-5)

- 3) John 16:7 ".....if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you." Jesus ascended to heaven, then 10 days later, the Holy Spirit came at Pentecost.

- 4) Acts 1:8 "But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me...."

This teaches that in Acts 1:8 the Holy Spirit had not yet come upon the disciples. They were still waiting for the Holy Spirit to come on them. Here, receiving power to witness, came at the same time as they received the Holy Spirit. If the Holy Spirit had come on them in John 20:22, they would not have been waiting, nor would they be powerless.

- 5) Acts 1:4 "they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, ye have heard of me."

This promise was made in John 14:16, "I will pray the Father, and He shall give you another Comforter, that He may abide with you forever."

Here they were still waiting for the Holy Spirit. All these events occurred in a period of transition. The disciples believed in Christ and were Old Testament saints, but they never knew the full experience of the indwelling Holy Spirit until Pentecost. In the upper room there is no evidence that they were seeking or asking for the Holy Spirit, nor anywhere else in the New Testament.

Christ had promised the Holy Spirit would come, they were just waiting for "not many days hence."

Acts 1:5. No one asked for the Holy Spirit in Acts 2, 8, 10, 19 or anywhere in any letter to any New Testament church. Why? Because the Holy Spirit always indwells a person at the point of salvation. Romans 8:9 "If any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his." How can a believer have Christ, but not have the Holy Spirit? You can't separate the Godhead. "Ye are complete in Him." Colossians 2:10. If we have Christ as Saviour, we are complete; we do not need a second blessing, nor a baptism of the Holy Spirit because we already have it at salvation.

In Acts 2:2,3 Christians were first baptised by the Holy Spirit.

In Acts 2:4 they were then filled with the Holy Spirit, and the apostles spoke in tongues.

Tongues purpose was to:

1. Be a sign of soon coming judgment to warn unbelieving Jews to repent.
2. Authenticate the apostles as God's messengers and their message as being from God.

Charismatics claim that Acts 2 should happen to everyone. If so, why do we never see a rushing mighty wind, and cloven tongues of fire on people? The Charismatic Movement has decided to use tongues, and then looks for verses to back up their practice. Reject this error as unbiblical.

3. ACTS 8:4-19. SAMARITAN SUBSEQUENCE

“When they believed Philip, they were baptised.” v.12.

The apostles at Jerusalem sent Peter and John, “who when they were come down, prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Ghost (for as yet he was fallen on none of them...) (v.16)

Then they laid hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost.” Acts 8:12-17.

Charismatics use this passage to support two errors:

a) Doctrine of Subsequence: The Samaritans received Christ and are baptised, followed by a time gap. Then they received the Holy Spirit.

b) Slaying in the Spirit: They lay hands on a person’s head, for them to “receive the Holy Spirit”, the person falls over backwards, and they have supposedly received the Holy Spirit.

Question 1: If the Holy Spirit can be given by laying on of hands, then why didn’t Philip lay hands on them, and save Peter and John the long journey?

Answer: God wanted the Samaritans to link their receiving of the Holy Spirit with the apostles and the Jerusalem Church.

Question 2: Why was there a delay in the Samaritans receiving the Holy Spirit after believing?

Answer: 1) Background: Much hatred existed between Jews and Samaritans. If the Samaritans had received the Holy Spirit at the moment they believed, the terrible rift between Jews and Samaritans could have continued into the Christian church, as permanent disunity. Pentecost was made up of Jewish believers. If the Samaritans had started their own Christian group, the age-old rivalries could have continued.

2) God wanted the Samaritans to understand the authenticating power and authority of the apostles, as channels of divine truth. The time gap was there to show the Samaritans that they were under apostolic authority.

3) It showed the Jewish Christians that the Samaritans were in the same Church, had the same Christ, the same salvation, the same Holy Spirit, and the same acceptance by God.

4) Grammatical reason, in Acts 8:16:

“For as yet he was fallen upon none of them.” The Greek word for ‘as yet’ is ‘OUDEPO’. Some lexicographers note that this word means that something that should have happened hasn’t happened yet. It was like saying that the Samaritans were saved, but for some strange reason, what should have happened (the Holy Spirit coming) had not occurred. ‘OUDEPO’ implies that the Holy Spirit should have come immediately.

This was not a Samaritan Pentecost, but a step of growth for the Church. God wanted everyone to know that there were not two churches, but only one. God wanted to reverse the hatred barriers right at the start. God wanted to establish the apostles’ authority outside Jewish society.

Question 3: Why is there no mention of tongues at Samaria?

Answer: It is because there were no unbelieving Jews present. Jews would not live at Samaria, because they hated the Samaritans greatly.

5) This phenomena of believers not receiving the Holy Spirit until Peter came and laid hands on them, was never repeated anywhere in the New Testament. It was a transitional period.

Hence it is wrong to conclude that receiving the Holy Spirit is a work subsequent to salvation, and that it requires the laying on of hands. Philip could not do it. Hence we cannot impart the Holy Spirit by laying on of hands.

If there was a rift between Samaritans and Jews, there was an almost unbridgable gulf between Gentiles and Jews. A Jew would not enter a Gentile's house.

Peter and six Jewish brethren (v.11-12), went to Caesarea. Peter preached the gospel to Cornelius, a Roman Centurion, and to his household.

"While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Spirit fell on them which heard the word. And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured the gift of the Holy Ghost. For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God." Acts 10:44-46.

Many Charismatics falsely conclude from this that anyone who gets saved must speak in tongues, as proof of salvation.

Question 1: Why did Cornelius' household speak in tongues (languages)?

Answer: Because there were Jewish Christians present who did not believe that the Spirit of God was for the Gentiles. Hence, this agrees well with 1 Corinthians 14:22 that tongues were a sign to Jews that believed not. Peter and his six Jewish friends were all astonished.

Question 2: Why were they all astonished?

Answer: Because the Holy Spirit fell upon a Gentile. Yet it happened here, and these Gentiles were speaking in tongues.

Question 3: How did these seven Jews know that these Gentiles had received the Holy Spirit?

Answer: "For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God." Acts 10:46.

The fact that the Apostles understood the Gentiles' tongues to be magnifying God indicated that the tongues were a known language to the Apostles. They knew the same gift of the Holy Spirit was given, because it was accompanied by the same sign, tongues, of Acts 10. The same tongues of Acts 10 were just like the tongues of Acts 2, as seen from these references.

"On the Gentiles also." Acts 10:45.

"To have received the Holy Spirit as well as we." Acts 10:45.

"The Gentiles also." Acts 11:1.

"The Holy Spirit fell on them, as on us at the beginning." Acts 11:15.

"God gave the like gift, as he did unto us." Acts 11:17.

"God also, to the Gentiles, granted repentance." Acts 11:18.

The Jews could no longer claim spiritual superiority over the Gentiles, only equality. (Ephesians 3:6 and Colossians 3:11).

• Charismatics should note two things:

a) There is no gap between belief in Christ and receiving the Holy Spirit. There is no subsequence here.

b) Tongues are mainly a judgment sign to unbelieving Israel (I Corinthians 14:21-22). God also used tongues to convince unbelieving Christian Jews that the Gentiles could receive the Holy Spirit, and that they ought to be welcomed as equals into the Church. Without tongues, the apostles would not have been convinced that the Gentiles could be saved.

Note: Acts 11:15 "As I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, as on us at the beginning."

The outpouring of the Holy Spirit at Cornelius' house occurred eight years after Pentecost, yet Peter could not point to any continuous flow of tongues among the churches, when he explained to the Jerusalem church leaders what had happened to the Gentiles. After eight years, Peter still had to say "As on us at the beginning", not "as on all the churches regularly". Here is a case where the absence of tongues speaks volumes. If speaking in tongues was a normal experience in churches, Peter would not have had to reach back to Pentecost to cite a similar example.

5. ACTS 19:1-6. JOHN'S DISCIPLES AT EPHEBUS.

NO SUBSEQUENCE.

Two Charismatic claims are made in this passage:

A) That speaking in tongues is the initial evidence of the Holy Spirit baptism.

B) That laying on of hands imparts the Holy Spirit to someone.

This is used to support "slaying in the Spirit."

Both of these claims can be shown to be false, in that tongues and laying on of the apostles' hands were for the following reasons, which are found in this passage:

A) Tongues were necessary to warn the many Jews in Ephesus that God's program had changed, and that the Jews needed to receive Christ as Saviour. Many Jews lived at Ephesus, as seen by:

- i) Twelve disciples of John the Baptist were Jewish. (19:3).
- ii) Paul spoke boldly to the Jews in the synagogue for three months, who hardened themselves, believed not, and spoke evil of that way. (19:8-9).
- iii) Paul separated his disciples to the school of Tyrranus for two years, so that all Jews and Greeks in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus. (19:9-10).
- iv) Vagabond exorcist Jews in 19:13 try to imitate Paul's casting out of demons in 19:12.
- v) Seven sons of Sceva, the Jewish Chief Priest, also tried to imitate Paul's casting out of demons, in order to establish their own authority as equal to Paul's, and hence to counter Paul's message. The demonised man leapt on them, and overcame them, so they fled out naked and wounded. (19:14-16).
- vi) This was known to all the Jews and Greeks at Ephesus. (19:17).
- vii) Alexander (v.33) was a Jew (1 Timothy 1:20; 2 Tim. 4:14). Therefore, Paul's authority, as a messenger of God to be believed, and Paul's message of Christ, to be received, was proven to all the Jews by signs of tongues (v.6), miracles (v.11), and casting out of demons (v.12-20).
- viii) Apollos, an eloquent Jew came to Ephesus and mightily convinced the Jews publicly that Jesus was Christ. (Acts 18:1-28).

Because of the many Jews at Ephesus, eight groups being mentioned, tongues spoken by John's twelve disciples was very much in keeping with its stated purpose in I Corinthians 14:21,22 as being a warning sign to unbelieving Jews at Ephesus to repent. This was the main reason why God gave tongues to these twelve men.

KEY: On every occasion that tongues were given, there were unbelieving Jews that needed tongues as a sign to convince them of something.

Acts 2: Unbelieving devout Jews at Pentecost heard the Apostles speak in tongues warning them to repent.

Acts 10: Cornelius' household at Caesarea spoke in tongues to warn unbelieving Christian Jews (Peter) that the Gentiles had received the Holy Spirit and should be welcomed into the church on an equal footing with Jews.

Acts 19:1-33: John's twelve disciples spoke in tongues at Ephesus to warn fellow unbelieving Jews to repent and believe Christ's gospel preached by Paul.

Acts 18:1-17 and I Corinthians 12,13,14: In Acts 18, Jews are mentioned 6 times at Corinth. Hence the tongues of I Corinthians 12,13,14 were within the correct context of warning the many Jews at Corinth to repent.

None of these men were seeking the gift of tongues.

Tongues at Ephesus were a sign to Jews at Ephesus (and elsewhere) that salvation was now only possible by faith in Christ. Note:

- a) Faith in Christ yet to come could no longer suffice, since Christ had arrived and purchased salvation on the cross.
- b) Knowledge only of John's baptism (Acts 19:2) could no longer suffice.
- c) Mosaic legalism, having performed its purpose, must be abandoned.

B) Charismatic error that laying on of hands imparts the Holy Spirit

This passage may seem to teach that salvation occurs and then the Holy Spirit is received after or subsequent to salvation, because of Acts 19:2,6.

“He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed?” 19:2.

“And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues and prophesied.” 19:6.

If this error is not corrected by studying the context of Acts 18:24-19:7 of Apollos knowing only the baptism of John, another error is believed of making tongues a sign of receiving the Holy Spirit. Acts 2,8,10 shows that Acts 19 does not teach a second experience with tongues as evidence of such an experience.

These 12 disciples of John and Apollos mentioned here were not New Testament believers (Christians), but only disciples of John the Baptist. Like their teacher Apollos, they only knew John's baptism, and knew nothing of Holy Spirit baptism. (18:25 and 19:3).

Question 1: "Since ye believed" what? (19:2).

Answer: These 12 disciples were Old Testament believers still living in the superseded Old Testament age, similar to Jesus' disciples before Pentecost and to Old Testament saints.

They were baptised by John in water "unto (because of) remission of sins" (Matthew 3:11) yet to come in Christ.

They believed in Christ to come, but this belief did not impart the baptism, indwelling, sealing, and filling of the Holy Spirit. They did not have the New Testament salvation provided by Christ's death. They were like many Jews living in the transition period between the Mosaic age and the Church age. They still performed and trusted Mosaic ceremonies for salvation, while looking forward to Christ (Acts 15:1,5). These 12 Ephesian disciples, (like modern Charismatics) did not lack faith, but they lacked correct doctrine for faith to take hold of.

Paul's discussion with them was as follows:

John's disciples: "We are believers."

Paul: "Have ye received the Holy Spirit since ye believed?" v.2. (Paul knew that if they had've believed in Christ after Pentecost, they would have received the Holy Spirit).

John's disciples: "We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost." v.2.

Paul: "Unto what then were ye baptized?" v.3.

John's disciples: "unto John's baptism." v.3

(Note: Paul here realised that their missing link was information about Christ, not information about the baptism of the Holy Spirit. So Paul preached Christ Jesus to them, not the Holy Spirit).

Paul: John baptised with the baptism of repentance, saying that they should believe on Jesus Christ who was to come after John.

John's disciples: They believed.

They were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

Paul laid his hands on them.

The Holy Ghost came on them.

They spoke with tongues and prophesied.

Question 2: Why did Paul lay hands on them?

Answer: To show them that as Jews, they were no longer to follow John the Baptist's teachings, but they were to follow Christ's teachings as taught by the Apostles.

Paul laying hands on them imparted the Holy Spirit to them.

This would have strongly established the Apostle's authority to them.

Question 3: Why were they given tongues?

Answer: To connect them with Pentecost.

To show them that they were now part of the church with every other believer in Christ.

To warn other Jews at Ephesus to receive Christ, and that the Apostle's message was of God.

Note Acts 19:11,12, "God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul."

Many Jews were convinced by the tongues and miracles that established Paul's authority as a messenger of God, and with the message of God.

Seva the Chief Priest's seven sons tried to duplicate Paul's miracles of casting out evil spirits. This was done in order to neutralize Paul's authority to stop Jews leaving the synagogue for Christ. The demonized man beat them up. This led to many more Jews and Greeks coming to Christ. (19:11-20). Note: The anointing of the Holy Spirit is the initial act of indwelling of the Holy Spirit as seen from Luke 4:18; Acts 4:27; 10:38; 2 Corinthians 1:21; I John 2:20,27. "Anoint" means to apply.

Question 4: Why was there a short time delay in them receiving the Holy Spirit after believing Paul's message?

Answer: A similar time delay occurred with the Samaritan believers in Acts 8 for the same reason. Receiving the Holy Spirit by Paul laying his hands on them identified the Ephesian disciples with the Christian church established since Pentecost under the Apostle's authority. In Acts 8, no believers spoke in tongues because there were no unbelieving Jews in Samaria that needed the warning to repent. Jews hated Samaritans and would not live in Samaria. Tongues at Ephesus connected this work with God's work at Jerusalem. God's program was no longer centred in Israel. The casting away of Israel in God's judgment was now underway.

Acts is not a norm for the church age, but a narrative of the transition period:

1. From Synagogue to church,
 2. From law to grace,
 3. From Old Testament saints to New Testament Christians,
 4. From mainly a Jewish body of believers to the body of Christ, with neither Jew nor Gentile.
- Once the transition between the old and new covenants had been accomplished, with the Holy Spirit poured out, the Holy Spirit was then available to all who believed in Christ at the time of belief. This is how God works today.

Peter was present in Acts 2,8,10. There must be one church, as Jesus prayed in John 17:20-21, not a Jewish church, a Samaritan church, and a Gentile church.

Jewish witnesses heard tongues spoken by Gentile converts in Acts 10, by John's disciples in Acts 19, and the Jewish witnesses Peter and John verified the Samaritans' conversion in Acts 8.

Paul wrote about the Holy Spirit many times, but he never stated that the normal Christian experience is the same as what people experienced in Acts 2,8,10,19.

Paul was saved in Acts 9, and gave his salvation testimony in Acts 22,24,26, yet never does he say that he spoke in tongues at his salvation.

The experience of the apostles is found in the transitional book of Acts, while the teaching of the apostles is in the epistles, which are our guide for today. In no New Testament epistle is there any teaching of a second blessing after salvation which is evidenced by speaking in tongues.

Michael Green in "I believe in the Holy Spirit" says: "The Charismatics were always out for power. Paul's reply was to boast not of his power but of his weakness through which alone the power of Christ can shine". When I am weak, then am I strong. The power of a Christian comes from the patient enduring of suffering, reviling, hardship and of thorns in the flesh.

6. DOES LUKE 11:13 TEACH THAT WE MUST ASK GOD FOR THE HOLY SPIRIT? NO

"If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him."

This was a valid request for the disciples up until the end of Christ's earthly ministry just as with some Old Testament saints who received a temporary filling for a task.

At the end of Christ's earthly ministry, he said: "I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever." (John 14:16).

The disciples were now not to receive the Holy Spirit in answer to their own petition, but in answer to Christ's petition. Hence today the Holy Spirit is given to all who believe, because of Christ's prayer, without the individual asking for it. When we receive Christ as our Saviour, we immediately receive the Holy Spirit also. (Romans 8:9,14,16). Believers today are not to pray for the Holy Spirit because this prayer of the disciples (for the Holy Spirit) was answered at Pentecost.

Charismatic's Careless Handling of Scripture.

Charismatics use these verses to keep people from questioning the movement.

7. THE SIN AGAINST THE HOLY SPIRIT. Matthew 12:22-32.

When you oppose a Charismatic, they often become very angry, and reply with scriptures that are misinterpreted and misapplied.

They claim that if you criticize tongues or Charismatic doctrine, you are doing what the Pharisees did who opposed Jesus in attributing Jesus' work to Satan. They accuse you of coming close to committing the unpardonable sin of blasphemy against the Holy Spirit.

Question: What does Matthew 12:22-32 really teach?

Answer: Jesus had just healed a man possessed with a devil causing blindness and dumbness. The obvious meaning of this miracle was that Jesus was the Messiah. The Pharisees, however, not wanting to believe in Jesus, attributed His miracles done by the Holy Spirit to Satan.

This blasphemy against the Holy Spirit can only be committed when one observes Christ physically on earth doing miracles. Since Christ is not physically on earth today, it is impossible to commit this sin of blasphemy against the Holy Spirit, that is, the sin of attributing the works of Christ to Satan.

Note: a) This sin was an historical event.

b) It can only be applied to one who rejects the work of the Holy Spirit in presenting Christ's salvation.

c) It can never be used in challenging a Charismatic viewpoint.

8. JESUS CHRIST THE SAME YESTERDAY, and TODAY, and FOREVER. Hebrews 13:8.

Charismatics use this verse to teach that: What happened "yesterday" during Christ's earthly ministry and during the apostle's lifetime, is happening now. They use this to claim that: tongues are for today, new revelations happen now, healings continue, & miracles of first century magnitude still happen now. Does the Charismatic interpretation of this verse stand up to hermeneutic principles?

Literally, Hebrews 13:8 means: Jesus Christ is unchanging yesterday, today and forever. This is true of Christ's nature or essence. But it is wrong historically, which disproves their claim. Why should "yesterday" only go as far back as Jesus' earthly ministry?

Note these problems with their position:

a) Jesus never spoke in tongues during His earthly ministry.

b) As far as "forever" is concerned, none of the gifts are forever. I Corinthians 13:8-13 clearly states that the gifts of prophecy, tongues and knowledge will not endure forever.

c) Do we still offer lambs as blood sacrifices? No, because while Jesus Christ is the same forever, God's methods of operation change throughout history.

d) Do we still walk about naked as Adam and Eve did in Eden before the Fall? No, because God's method of operation was different then. So with tongues. Charismatics force a meaning into Hebrews 13:8 that is not there in order to justify their belief that tongues, miracles, healing and prophecies are happening today just as they did in the first century.

9. THE PROMISES OF POWER IN MARK 16:17,18

"And these signs shall follow them that believe;

In my name shall they ¹cast out devils;

²they shall speak with new tongues;

³they shall take up serpents; and

⁴if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them;

⁵they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover."

Charismatics claim that today, these signs follow the preaching of the gospel where it is preached in the Holy Spirit's power and faith. These four "shalls" were deliberate proofs that the apostles performed to publically demonstrate their authority, yet nobody can do these at will today successfully.

This is shown to be false because of our previous discussion on Mark 16:11-20 (p.499-500).

10. WILL BELIEVERS DO THE SAME and GREATER WORKS THAN CHRIST'S MIRACLES AS JOHN 14:12 SEEMS TO SAY?

“Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.”

Jesus' miracles were:

- a) Creation - turning water into wine.
- b) Healing the lame, lepers, blind and deaf.
- c) Casting out demons.
- d) Control of nature - stilling storms, walking on water, cursing the figtree, multiplying loaves.
- e) Raising the dead.

Question: Are there any documented cases of ordinary believers since 96AD doing the above miracles to the same degree as Jesus? No, never. No one comes close to Jesus' miracles. John 14:12 means that Jesus referred to the total ministry of believers preaching the gospel after Pentecost.

The greater works applied initially to the apostles that Jesus was speaking to. They were given power to perform special miracles as credentials of their office (Romans 15:18,19; Hebrews 2:3,4). For example, Peter preached one sermon and 3000 people were saved in one day. This may have been more than were saved in Jesus' entire three year ministry.

While Jesus' earthly ministry was confined to Palestine, the gospel in the church age would go to the ends of the earth.

These are the greater works that believers would do.

Believers works are greater in scope of influence and in number, but not greater in quality.

11. QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Question 1: What is the evidence of being filled with the Holy Spirit? Is it speaking in tongues?

Answer: This evidence of being filled with the Holy Spirit is:

- a) Exhibiting the fruit of the Spirit in Galatians 5:22,23 of “love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness and temperance.”
- b) Walking worthy of the Lord as described in Ephesians 4,5,6. We are filled with the Spirit as we exhibit these 40 qualities.

Tongues are not the evidence of being filled with the Holy Spirit because:

- a) All believers did not speak in tongues (I Corinthians 12:30).
- b) The Holy Spirit distributes gifts as He wills (I Corinthians 12:7-11).

Question 2: What about miracles being done by Stephen (Acts 6:8), Philip (Acts 8:5-8), Barnabas (Acts 14:3), the seventy (Luke 10:1,9,17,19), or in Mark 9:38-41?

Answer: Sign gifts authenticated the apostles and their appointed representatives. Stephen and Philip belonged to the seven appointed by the apostles in Acts 6:1-7 by the laying on of hands (v.6). Paul and Barnabas had hands laid on them as commanded by the Holy Spirit to go on Paul's first missionary journey. (Acts 13:1-3).

The seventy that Jesus sent out did not have the office of apostle, but were “sent ones” to proclaim Christ's Kingdom as Christ personally directed His program on earth. Both the seventy and the man casting out demons were before the church age started, and does not establish a precedent to be done by all church age believers.

Question 3: Does 1 Corinthians 1:7 include miracle workers in the Corinthian church other than the apostles?

Answer: “so that ye come behind in no spiritual gift.”

“In no gift” means “in no favour, or gracious endowment.” The word used here (Charisma) does not necessarily refer to miraculous endowments, but includes all the kindnesses of God towards them in producing peace of mind, humility, steadfastness, etc. Paul is saying that they possessed, in rich abundance, all those endowments which were bestowed on Christians. This does not teach that non apostles did miracles.

Question 4: Why would God allow error in Charismatic meetings where the Holy Spirit was blessing?

Answer: We must not assume that because God is blessing a church, then all aspects of that church please Him. Many Charismatics assume that because people are being saved in Charismatic churches, and large numbers attend, then all aspects of Charismatic doctrine and practice are God approved. In Revelation 2 and 3, the churches at Ephesus, Pergamos, Thyatira and Sardis each had good and bad aspects. Hence we must not think that because a church looks good in some areas, then all aspects of that church are good. Many people have been saved in churches with false doctrine.

Note: Satan's attacks are most pronounced in churches seeking to uphold sound Bible doctrine, who win souls to Christ, who seek to live holy lives, who expose Satan's lies, and who attack Satan's Kingdom.

Satan would not attack but help to build churches that teach error and promote Satan's Kingdom, such as JW's, Mormons, New Agers, etc.

Question 5: Do people have the genuine gift and power to "slay people in the Spirit?"

Answer: This has no Biblical basis whatsoever.

Any appeals to Daniel (Daniel 8:16-27), Peter, James and John on the Mount of Transfiguration (Matthew 17:1-7), John on Patmos (Revelation 1:17), Ezekiel (Ezekiel 2:1-3), or the multitude coming to arrest Jesus in Gethsemane (John 18:1-6), will not do, because in each case these people fell to the ground because of direct contact with God or an angel of God.

People instead fall on their face, (not on their back) and worship God, not become unconscious.

"and so falling down on his face he will worship God." I Corinthians 14:25.

This slaying in the spirit (falling backwards) is mentioned in Isaiah 28:11-13 where Israel was warned to repent after hearing other tongues (v.11), "yet they would not hear" (v.12) so God judged them by them "falling backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken." (v.13). Hence, people falling backward is a sign of God's judgment on those who refuse to hear God's warnings. This is a strong warning against the evil of Charismatic slaying in the spirit.

Question 6: How does the Holy Spirit lead us if not through revelations, visions, dreams & prophecies?

Answer: 1) "Thy Word (Bible) is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path." Psalm 119:105. God may use a passage of Scripture personally applied to our situation.

2) Circumstances.

3) Open and closed doors.

4) Wisdom of pastors. Some believers are bad advisors. God speaks to us through the Bible as we apply it to each situation. Avoid the advice of fools, ignorant and wicked people.

Leadings, impressions, hunches etc. are not always reliable because we may have overlooked some facts which lead us to a wrong impression. So, get all the facts, match them with Scriptures and make the choice based on whether a situation is in line with Bible truth, or against Bible truth. The Holy Spirit will then give you peace as you act according to the Bible.

Question 7: Isn't it a good thing for the Charismatic Movement to unite with Roman Catholics if they are winning Catholics to Christ?

Answer: The end never justifies the means. God calls us to be separate from sin and false doctrine. The Charismatic Movement has the approval of the Roman Catholic church who established the "Catholic Charismatic Renewal Office" in 1972.

The Charismatic Movement will bring about unprecedented ecumenical unity, which will lay the foundation of and usher in the worldwide harlot church of Revelation 17, Mystery Babylon the Great, the Mother of Harlots and abominations of the earth. This church will bear the name of Christ, but give loyalty to the Antichrist who will be able to perform signs and wonders (Revelation 13:3,13,14,15).

Popularity has slain more prophets of God than persecution ever did. In Christianity today, whatever is popular, whatever is accepted, whatever brings good feelings, whatever brings unity, all become the accepted norm for the church.

Luther said: "Unity without truth is treason." Truth is being set aside in the name of unity. Darkness and light are mixing and embracing.

In John 17:17-21, Jesus first prayed that we would be sanctified by the truth of God's Word, (v.17), then He prayed for unity (v.21) based on truth. The basis for unity is always the truth of God's Word.

Question 8: Why should we question the source of prophecies and knowledge if they come true?

Answer: The test of a true prophet is 100% accuracy. We should consider all a "prophet's" predictions to see if every one always comes true. If he correctly predicts 99 times and one time he is wrong, then he is a false prophet (Deuteronomy 18:22). Also his prophecy must agree with all of Scripture. Demons have access to much information and can make correct predictions to win people over.

Question 9: Why do we have to go into such intricate and complicated studies to know the answers on these Charismatic issues? Why can't we just accept the Scriptures at their first surface interpretation?

Answer: The Bible has shallow parts and deep parts. Even Peter said that some of the Bible was hard to understand (2 Peter 3:14-16). Hence we need to study the Bible carefully and thoroughly (2 Timothy 2:15). The problem with the Corinthian church was that they were content with immaturity. Hence they could not understand other spiritual truths (I Corinthians 3:2,3). The Lord has given Bible teachers who must study the Bible to rightly divide it, so that Christians will not be tossed to and fro with every wind of doctrine.

Question 10: Are you saying that it is impossible to cast out demons today because of Mark 16:17-20?

Answer: No. Nobody today has the gift of casting out demons (a type of healing). Demons are cast out today because of the prayers of Christians (James 5:14-16) and by the power of the Lord Jesus, not because someone has the gift of exorcism.

Question 11: How do you explain that some people seem genuinely healed at Charismatic meetings?

Answer: When John Wimber visited Sydney in March 1990. At his meetings he invited people to come for healing of disorders such as:

- a) Bad backs and necks.
- b) Problems with left big toe.
- c) Nervous disorders.
- d) Unequal leg lengths.
- e) Breathing problems.
- f) Barrenness.

These conditions are not in the same league as Jesus' and the Apostle's healing the blind, lame, deaf, raising the dead, curing the insane, etc.

When John Wimber was asked if he had success in healing Down's Syndrome children, (a genetic disease which cannot be healed by psychosomatic factors), he replied that he had prayed over more than 200 such children, but he admitted that not one child had been healed. This shows the Charismatic healing Movement to be false.

In the Indonesian revivals it was claimed that God raised people from the dead. The trouble was that the locals had different definitions for death. If a person was unconscious they deemed him as dead.

Question 12: Doesn't Joel 2:28-32 say that before Christ returns men and women will prophesy, etc.?

Answer: No, it doesn't. Read Joel 2:27 which tells us that after Christ has returned in glory, Israel gets saved; then read Joel 2:28 which says afterwards (i.e. after Christ's return) your sons and daughters shall prophesy. This happens in the Millennium, not in the church age.

12. COUNTERFEIT ECUMENICAL UNITY OF TODAY'S TONGUES

When tongues appears in fundamental and evangelical churches, strife and division result. Yet when tongues occur in liberal churches where doctrine is not important, then unity results. The Charismatic Movement produces a counterfeit unity.

- a) Instead of Christ being the centre, they give the Holy Spirit central attention. Jesus said of the Holy Spirit, "He shall not speak of Himself. He shall glorify me." John 16:13,14.
- b) Instead of the Bible being the basis, their experience becomes the way of knowing God's will. "If they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them." Isaiah 8:20.

Old liberalism and new Pentecostalism have joined and denominational barriers began to fall.

- 1) An Assembly of God Pastor refers to an Episcopal priest who has recently received the Charismatic spirit baptism and ministry “power”, yet still does not believe in Christ’s virgin birth or resurrection. The Assembly of God Pastor well asks: “I can’t understand why God would give all that power to a fellow so far out on the liberal left.”
- 2) Pentecostal Christadelphians deny Christ’s deity, His pre-existence, and personality of the Holy Spirit, yet they speak in tongues. It does not matter what a person believes doctrinally, as long as he speaks in tongues as evidence of the “baptism of the Holy Spirit.”

Question 13:How can this experience be available to anyone regardless of how heretical are his views?

- 3) Rome took in the Charismatic Movement, when in 1975 Pope Paul VI blessed a gathering of Catholic Charismatics. Both Rome and the Charismatic Movement hold to similar positions on the Bible in that they both allow new revelations from God beyond the Bible.

Roman Catholic priest Edward O’Connor of Notre Dame writes in “The Pentecostal Movement in the Catholic Church”, p.23,28,32 that:

“Although they derive from Protestant backgrounds, the Pentecostal churches are not typically Protestant in their beliefs, attitudes or practices. p. 23.

Catholics who have accepted Pentecostal spirituality have found it to be fully in harmony with their traditional faith and life. p.28.

It cannot be assumed that the Pentecostal Movement represents an incursion of Protestant influence.” p.32.

O’Connor says that Catholic Charismatics have been brought back to Penance, devotion to Mary, and devotion to the Real Presence in the Eucharist, through their “baptism in the Holy Spirit.”

The Charismatic Movement does nothing to unsettle Roman Catholic faith or traditions.

The Catholic “spider” is about to welcome the Charismatic “fly” into its parlour.

Charismatics may have been “slain”, but not “in the Spirit”.

13. TRIBULATION APPROACH TO TONGUES

Tongues at best is a learned gibberish; at worst it is caused by demon possession as in occult tongues.

The devil uses tongues to:

- a) distract from the real issue in salvation, which is faith in Christ as Saviour.
- b) distort spirituality, as people think that tongues produces spirituality.

In Corinth, tongues had nothing to do with spirituality, but were associated with carnality.

Satan counterfeits Christ as the Head of the church, with the Antichrist to be the head of ecumenism.

In 2 Thessalonians 2:8,9 the Antichrist’s coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders. The antichrist will have a false gift of miracles, healings and tongues.

Some illnesses can be demon induced, and cures can be achieved by Satan removing the demons from people in order to deceive the world. Hence the Satanic counterfeit of tongues and healing will confuse the lost and hinder them from receiving the gospel. They will reject the truth, hence 2 Thess. 2:11 says, “And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion that they should believe a lie.” As a person consistently rejects truth, his heart is hardened, and he is incapable of discerning truth from error, and chooses error. eg. Pharaoh, Jews, Mormons, etc.

“When they (religious leaders of the day) shall say unto you, seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep and mutter: should not a people seek unto their God.” Isaiah 8:19.

The Hebrew word for “familiar spirits” is “OB” and in the Greek Septuagint is “EGGASTRIMUTHOS”, both words meaning ventriloquist demons, fallen angels who control the vocal chords of their hosts. “Peep” means a high falsetto voice. o “mutter” means a deep hollow voice.

The best documented modern case of this is Helene Smith in Switzerland who spoke in an ancient language of India. At first, many thought that she had the gift of tongues. However, her “gift” proved to be a clear case of demon possession, because when the demon left her (Luke 11:24,28), she had no recollection of what had happened.

In 1 Kings 22:22, a wicked spirit appears in heaven, offering to fulfil a mission as a lying spirit in the mouth of false prophets on earth. Hence, a lying spirit can impersonate the Holy Spirit. Modern spirit-baptisms with tongues and healings are often due to demons impersonating the Holy Spirit.

Question: How will Satan successfully deceive the world into worshipping him?

Answer: By the Satanic healing of the Antichrist in Revelation 13:3,4,12-15, and by the miraculous gift of tongues that Satan gives to the Image (v.15).

Hence, Satanic healing and tongues will become a worldwide delusion as the Antichrist draws near.

In Matthew 24:4,5,23-26, “For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall show great signs and wonders, insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.”

Question: How will they deceive?

Answer: By signs and wonders.

Question: What will they be trying to make people believe?

Answer: That whenever they do these signs and wonders, it is the Holy Spirit manifesting His power.

Refuse to go and see what is going on.

Some Pentecostal preachers intentionally use hypnosis to temporarily heal people and to suggest to them to speak in tongues.

eg. An American Pentecostal “evangelist” and “healer” named Valdez, offered Franquin the hypnotist $100,000 a year tax-free to be a Pentecostal evangelist and healer. Franquin refused. This was reported in the Sydney Daily Telegraph newspaper, Jan. 26, 1956.

14. HYPNOTIC IMITATION OF TONGUES AND HEALING.

Many Charismatic preachers are religious hypnotists.

Any good hypnotist can make his subject speak in tongues, or feel that he is healed of some illness (only to relapse later), or by a touch putting the poor victim into a trance (Charismatics call this “slaying in the spirit.”)

A Charismatic preacher can hypnotize people if the following conditions are met:

- a) The person must be convinced of the hypnotist’s ability,
- b) The person must be a willing subject,
- c) Repetitive, rhythmic music, as occurs in many Charismatic rock music bands.
- d) The person must be expecting something to happen (e.g.: to be healed, or to speak in tongues, or be slain in the spirit).

Most people can apply hypnotic suggestions if they knew how. When a preacher has unknowingly produced the necessary mental condition in a susceptible person, things happen which may deceive the preacher into thinking that he has some special gift of the Holy Spirit. When others think that he has this gift, they are ready to be the next victims.

Hypnotists admit that it is very simple to give a person a headache, toothache, shorten a limb, remove pain, pass a needle through a man’s hand painlessly, impart the “gift” of tongues, make a person feel and think that he is healed. (This is always a temporary healing just as Charismatic healings are). Religious hypnotists go on deceiving others, calling it the “Baptism of the Holy Spirit.”

Our body is like a prison to keep our spirit in, but it is also like a fortress to keep out the corruption of demon spirits. Normally our mind and body repels demonic attacks. But if we allow our mental fence to be broken down by surrendering control of our mind to another person or spirit or to group pressure (as in blanking your mind to speak in tongues, or allowing yourself to be slain in the spirit, or healed) then we are exposed to demonic attack. The victim is unable to restore the fence in his own power. He must re-submit to being only guided by the Bible, not by some religious hypnotist. The sad end of such a victim is that often, morality drops, Bible truth is rejected and error is embraced, spirituality wanes, tongues takes greater control, and mental breakdowns often occur.

Enoch Coppin, who was a hypnotist in his unsaved days had practised many hypnotic healings, the giving and taking away of bodily afflictions and speaking in tongues, insists that their source is the demonic forces of Satan.

15. MENTAL SUSCEPTIBILITY and SURRENDER OF THE WILL.

Once a person has been made mentally susceptible by:

- a) Wrongly applied, falsely interpreted scriptures (as in all cults),
- b) Listen to exciting testimonies of healings, tongues, and wonderful spiritual experiences, the door into his mind is open for Pentecostal seducing demons to enter, who impersonate the Holy Spirit.

Many Charismatic healers imply that someone in the audience has a very sinful sex problem. Many people have a temptation to sexual sin. This is used to make the person feel inferior, as a second rate Christian in need of so-called “Holy Spirit Baptism”. This is a commonly used trick to make people’s minds susceptible to think that they need tongues, healing, slaying, etc. as a solution to their problem. This is a high pressure selling technique. Many Charismatic healers trick people to believing that they are healers by claiming to make a person’s legs equal in length, when they were equal in the first place.

Example 1: Two old ladies on crutches came to the front of a Charismatic service to be healed. After the laying on of hands they were hypnotically convinced that God had healed them. On the way out they both fell down the steps breaking their hips. Friends then sent for the Charismatic healer to heal them, but he refused to come, nor did he visit them in hospital.

Example 2: A young man claimed to be healed from sinus. When asked how he felt, he replied, “I am healed, but I still have the symptoms.” He was surely deceived.

Question: What is the Charismatic spirit baptism?

Answer: The human being has two nervous systems, the voluntary in the brain, and involuntary which controls involuntary actions such as heart muscle contraction, breathing, etc. Normally the voluntary system is in control, but in the so-called spirit-baptism when one speaks in tongues, he by-passes his brain, allowing the subconscious mind to become active. Hence tongues comes from the involuntary nervous system as gibberish which is disconnected from the conscious commands of the brain. Hence, control of one’s life is given to the subconscious involuntary nervous system, when real control should be given to the mind controlled by the Bible as it directs the voluntary conscious mind, and as it consciously weighs every decision in accordance with Scripture to be right or wrong.

Question: Is healing in the atonement? Charismatics claim that healing is in Christ’s atonement for sin, as a benefit available to all believers today. If this was true, then no Christian should ever be sick or die. Physical healing has been secured by Christ’s atonement but we only get it at Christ’s return when we receive our resurrection bodies, not now in the Church age.

“with his stripes we are healed.” Isaiah 53:5; “by whose stripes ye were healed.” 1 Peter 2:24 Peter tells believers that the healing we have is “past tense”, a spiritual healing received at salvation. We do not have complete physical healing today because:

- 1) Healing left Paul. “Trophimus have I left at Miletum sick.” 2 Timothy 4:20. Paul couldn’t heal him.
- 2) “Epaphroditus ... was sick nigh unto death.” Philippians 2:25-27.

Why did Paul let him get so bad? Why didn’t Paul heal him straight away? Why didn’t Epaphroditus heal himself, if every believer can do it? Did he not have enough faith? Paul never criticized him for lack of faith. His raising to health was an act of divine mercy, not an atonement right.

- 3) “Use a little wine for thy stomach’s sake and thine often infirmities (sicknesses)”. 1 Timothy 5:23. This would have been madness if Paul could heal Timothy. Why didn’t Timothy heal his own stomach and other often sicknesses by laying on of hands as Charismatics do? Why use wine? Did Timothy lack the faith to be healed?

- 4) “Luke the beloved physician.” Colossians 4:14.

Luke would not have continued as a physician if he (along with all believers) could heal at will.

- 5) “Is any sick among you? Let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him...” James 5:14-15. Why didn’t the sick man heal himself if healing is in the atonement? The “prayer of faith,” not the “gift of healing” shall save the sick. The sick believer was to call for the church elders, not the healer, or the person of great faith.

- 6) “I will glory in my infirmities (weaknesses, sicknesses)..” 2 Corinthians 12:9,10.

- 7) “The creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption.” Romans 8:21.

102. FIRST CORINTHIANS 12.

I. BACKGROUND OF THE CHURCH AT CORINTH.

Corinth was a city of commerce, culture, religion and vice. Strategically located it became a trade centre for merchants from East and West. As its wealth increased so did its need for banks provided by pagan temples which people thought would never be robbed. As people lost respect for the gods, they robbed the temples. Jews provided a better banking service, so Jews became wealthy at Corinth. Corinth was the capital of the province of Achaia, a city of 700,000 people in Paul's day. Its population was Greek, Roman and Jewish.

Paul, Silas and Timothy started the church at Corinth in Acts 18 in 54AD. Many unbelieving, intolerant, bigoted Jews living in Corinth was the reason why tongues were so greatly used here. Paul spent two years teaching, preaching and organising the church. Paul wrote 1 Corinthians in 59 AD after his three year stay at Ephesus. (Acts 19).

II. PROBLEMS IN THE CORINTHIAN CHURCH.

Although they were "sanctified in Christ" (1 Corinthians 1:2), "enriched by Christ in all utterance and knowledge" (1 Corinthians 1:5), and "they came behind in no spiritual gift" (1:7), all was not well in the Corinthian church.

i) It was not a spiritual church, but a carnal church.

ii) Division (1:10; 11:18,19) and contentions (1:11). They followed human leaders (1 Cor. 1:12-15). Wherever tongues enters a church strong division will occur.

The only tongues speaking church in the New Testament epistles was a carnal, divided church. Paul's answer to divisions is to preach the gospel (1:17).

iii) Selfishness. They were carnal, babes in Christ (3:1). They were suing each other in court (6:6-8), they were misusing their Christian liberties (8:9-11), they were eating selfishly at their love feasts (11:20-22), and they were using the gifts for self-edification (1 Corinthians 12-14) just as many of today's Charismatics do.

iv) Criticism. They thought that they had spiritually outgrown Paul (4:3). In 2 Corinthians 10:10 they said of Paul that "his speech is contemptible." Paul here describes the situation as "some are puffed up." (1 Corinthians 4:6,18-20).

v) Toleration of evil in the church. There was fornication (5:1,2) and they failed to separate from evil (5:7, 11-13).

vi) Heresy in the church-usually accompanies evil. Some doubted the resurrection (1 Corinthians 15). Paul established the church at Corinth during his second missionary journey (Acts 18), spending 18 months there, then he left. Other pastors came, then many problems arose, such as rebellion against Paul's apostolic authority, etc. They perverted almost every aspect of their lives. They brought problems from paganism into the church. They misunderstood the Holy Spirit and equated His work with pagan ecstatic activity of the Acropolis temple, with its 1000 prostitute priestesses. The mystery Babylon religion of Corinth aimed to get its devotees into a semiconscious ecstatic hypnotic spell to contact their deities. Their mind would go into neutral and their emotions would take over. This made them feel very good. Many Charismatics today get into a similar state, attribute it to the Holy Spirit and conclude: "I felt so good, it must be of God." "Slaying in the Spirit" is a form of hypnosis and sometimes it is demonic. In 1 Corinthians 12:2, Paul says that they used to worship in the same way as pagans do in ecstatic demon religions. They were bringing these same old patterns into the church and letting demons invade their worship services. They could not distinguish between the acts of Satan and the work of the Holy Spirit.

Does the New Testament teach that when a Christian goes out of control, falls into a trance, and faints that it is of God? No. People only counterfeit what is valuable. Satan was busy counterfeiting spiritual gifts at Corinth, as well as today. In accepting the counterfeit, we forfeit the genuine.

III. THE NATURE AND PURPOSE OF GIFTS.

The Corinthians' self-indulgent spirit discussed in their sins of chapters 1-11, manifested itself also in spiritual gifts, thus producing selfishness, disunity, and chaos.

Do tongues turn a person inward to self concern and selfish interests, or does it open him up to others and their needs? Paul compares a church to a body, a family, an army, a temple, and a bride. The Corinthian church were like children with toys, instead of adults with valuable tools.

12:1 - "I would not have you ignorant." Though the Corinthians possessed spiritual gifts, they were ignorant of their nature, purpose and rules of use.

12:2 - "Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led."

Paul reminds them of their past idol worshipping days, where they were carried away, led away or swept away in ecstasy, emotional hysteria, falling on the ground, and babbling in ecstatic speech, as Plato and Virgil record.

Paul is saying, "that is how it was when you were idolaters, but it should not be so now. Being swept away is not a sign of spirituality, but of your pagan days."

The Charismatic Movement today emphasizes "being carried away" or "slain in the spirit." The Holy Spirit does not produce what idolatrous worship produces. This practice is not in the New Testament, but is a worldwide occult experience. Paul here warns against false manifestations of spiritual gifts.

Note: In 1 Samuel 19:18-24, Saul has been trying to kill David. Saul sends three messengers after David, but the Spirit of God takes over them, restraining them from taking David (v.20), and causing them to prophesy. Finally Saul comes after David. The Spirit of God comes on Saul causing him to prophesy all day and all night, take off his clothes and lie down naked. This was God's judgment on him, to stop him from killing David. To suggest this is normal, desirable behaviour for all Christians today is absurd, it is not in the New Testament, and is ignoring the context. Such behaviour never happened to approved men of God.

Sadly, the modern Charismatic movement is ignorant of accurate knowledge of God's Word on tongues and other spiritual gifts. Paul's illustration in v.2 gently and firmly implies that demonic deception behind idols (1 Corinthians 10:20) can still harm the believer who enters the spiritual realm in ignorance of God's Word.

12:3 - "Wherefore, I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God, calleth Jesus accursed: and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost."

Paul here warns the Corinthians and by application, the Charismatics today, that it is possible for Christians ("you" addressed) to speak by the Spirit of God or by another spirit. Some Corinthians became so confused, and their worship so paganized and frenzied, that they even allowed the Lord to be cursed in their meeting. Those who were saying "Jesus is accursed" claimed to be speaking by the Spirit of God. The Corinthians were warned of evil spirits who sought to creep in among them, pretending to be the Spirit of God. They too could give manifestations imitating the Holy Spirit's work. Before their conversion they had been led along blindly by the demon powers of these evil spirits, and had not gained sufficient maturity to be able to discern what was of the Holy Spirit and what was demon imitation, so they were given a way to test the spirits.

This tells us that evil spirits are still able to give manifestations of what seems like the Holy Spirit.

To truly say that Jesus is the Lord implies deity, as Lord implies sovereign authority. Old Testament Jews regarded Jehovah as too sacred to pronounce, so they used "Lord." When Polycarp was told to say "Caesar is Lord" (meaning God), he said "Jesus is Lord" (meaning God) instead.

"No man can say Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost." Jesus said that the Holy Spirit would not speak of himself, but would always speak of and promote the Lord Jesus Christ.

"Howbeit when he the spirit of truth is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of Himself;He shall glorify Me." John 16:13,14.

The Holy Spirit is never the author of a statement like this:

"Now that you have received Christ you have salvation, but you need to receive the Holy Spirit to be a complete Christian."

This wrong statement says that Christ begins the work of salvation, but that the Holy Spirit completes it. "that in all things He might have the pre-eminence." Colossians 1:18.

Gardiner summarizes 1 Corinthians 12:1-3 as follows:

- i) God intends Christians to be concerned with the total of spiritual life, not just the spiritual gifts.
- ii) God does not want us to be ignorant of the purpose of spiritual gifts.
- iii) When the Holy Spirit controls a Christian, he is not carried away or out of control as idolaters were.
- iv) The Holy Spirit does not exalt Himself, but exalts Christ as Lord.

12:4 "Now there are diversities (varieties) of gifts, but the same Spirit."

Charisma (gifts) are divine abilities for believers to speak or serve in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Spiritual gifts are not natural talents or skills. God gives believers varieties of supernatural spiritual gifts just as players on a team have varieties of positions.

Two types of gifts are: Speaking gifts and serving gifts.

"If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; .. if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God gives." 1 Peter 4:11.

A believer's gifts can be an overlapping combination of different amounts of several gifts, for example, 40% evangelism, 60% teacher. We may be strong in one gift, but not as strong in another gift.

12:5 "Now there are differences (varieties) of administrations, but the same Lord."

Differences of administrations = varieties of ministries.

Even Christians with the same basic gift, may manifest that gift in many different ways.

E.g. One teacher may specialize in teaching children, while another teacher may specialize with adults.

One evangelist may be able to powerfully address large crowds, while another evangelist's strength may be in one-to-one evangelism.

Every gift is a help or service gift, never given for self-edification. A gift exercised in private is a perverted gift. God gives his gifts to us, but to use for others. If we are personally blessed by using our gifts, then that blessing is the by-product, not the purpose of gifts.

"As every man has received the gift, even so minister (use) the same to one another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God." 1 Peter 4:10.

God lends us his gifts for us to use for other's benefits and for God's glory.

12:6 Varieties of results.

"There are diversities (varieties) of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all."

• Operations (1755) = the results energized by God's grace.

Both the bestowing and the empowering of gifts are God's domain. God gives us power to use spiritual gifts. We should not all expect to see the same results, but different results of our gifts. Every gift is as spiritual and important as any other. We should aim to discover, to faithfully use, and be grateful for the gift the Lord has given us. No other believer can take our place in God's work. God has given no one else exactly the same gift or ministry as you. If we do not use our gifts or fulfil our ministry it will not be fulfilled. We see the Trinity in verses 4,5,6. "The same Spirit...the same Lord,...the same God."

12:7 "But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal."

• Manifestation (5321) = to make visible. The work of the Holy Spirit is given to profit or visibly benefit individuals and the church as a whole. If we fail to use our gifts, we hinder others in using their gifts, and we cripple our own ministry.

Four profitable benefits result from using our gifts:

1. Christians benefit as individuals.
2. Churches grow in quality and quantity.
3. New spiritual leaders are raised up.
4. Unity, joy, love and fellowship blossom in a church.

Gifts are for the good of the whole church, not for the individual enjoyment. The Corinthians were using their gifts selfishly to promote themselves, and not to prosper the church.

12:8-11 Eighteen Gifts.

Question: Why are gifts given?

Answer: To build churches by glorifying Christ, to edify others, to equip the church, & to arm soldiers.

1 Cor. 12:8-10	1 Cor. 12:28-30	Romans 12:6-8	Ephesians 4:11
Prophecy	Prophets	Apostles Prophets	Apostles Prophets Evangelists Pastor/Teacher
Wisdom Knowledge Faith Healing Miracles Discerning spirits Tongues Interpreting tongues	Teachers Healing Miracles Tongues Interpreting tongues Helps Government	Teachers Ruling Ministry Exhortation Giving Mercy

1. APOSTLE.

Apostolic requirements were:

- a) Must have seen the resurrected Christ. Acts 1:22; 1 Corinthians 9:1.
- b) Commissioned directly by Christ. Acts 26:15-18; Mark 3:13-19; Luke 6:13-16.
- c) Accredited by miracles. 2 Corinthians 12:12.

Apostle means “one sent forth with orders.”

Two kinds of Apostles are:

- a) Twelve Apostles of the Lamb. (The office). Luke 6:13; 22:29,30; Revelation 21:14.
- b) Apostles of the churches. Barnabas (Acts 14:14), Andronicus and Junia (Romans 16:7); Paul, Silvanus, Timothy (1 Thessalonians 2:6); Epaphraditus is “your messenger” (apostolos in Greek) Philippians 2:25; unnamed brethren as messengers of the churches. (2 Cor. 8:23).

The work of an Apostle was to:

- a) Lay the foundation of the church. Ephesians 2:20.
- b) Confirming (authenticating) the word preached, before the Bible was completed by the signs of apostles. 2 Corinthians 12:12; Hebrews 2:3,4.
- c) Oversight that Philip’s work at Samaria, and that Paul’s work amongst the Gentiles were according to sound doctrine. Acts 8:14 and 15:1-29.

Miracles of Apostles. “Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.” 2 Corinthians 12:12.

Apostles could heal “all manner of sickness...Go to the House of Israel.” Matthew 10:1,5-8.

The Apostles’ miracles authenticated the gospel message, the messengers, struck terror in the minds of opponents, and established Christianity. Also notice in Hebrews 2:3-4 how confirming signs refer to Christ’s and the apostle’s ministry.

In Romans 15:18-19, Paul says that the Holy Spirit “wrought by me...through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God.”

There are no Apostles today. Having fulfilled their function, they passed off the scene. Since no one today can be an eyewitness of the resurrected Christ, and since the church foundation has been laid, there can be no apostles today (Revelation 2:2). The office ceased.

When people claim to be apostles today, it is because they are trying to usurp a pastor’s authority.

2. PROPHET means "one who proclaims the will of God, one to whom & through whom God speaks."
- Sometimes it was predictive - Agabus predicted a famine (Acts 11:27,28), and sufferings for Paul (Acts 21:10-14).
 - Speaking the mind of God under immediate divine inspiration and revelation eg: instruct, warn.
Note: Direct inspiration distinguished prophecy from teaching. Before the completion of the scriptures, the prophets were the inspired revelators of God's teaching to the churches. They told the churches what to do, believe and teach. They spoke to edify, exhort & to comfort. 1 Cor.14:3.
 Prophets: i) gave special revelation from God, and ii) their message had the authority of God.
 - The Passing of Prophets and Prophecy. Their purpose was to span the gap between the Old Testament and New Testament, and to establish the church upon a firm foundation of Biblical truth (Ephesians 2:20).

2nd-21st Centuries	All Christians	Superstructure
1st Century	Apostles and Prophets	Foundation
 - The church in Ephesians 2:20 is like a building with a foundation laid in the first century by Christ, apostles and prophets, and a superstructure being built after the first century. Once a superstructure is being built, you don't relay the foundation. The gifts of apostle and prophet passed away during the foundation period of the church. Montanus the heretic in 150 AD claimed that he was an apostle and prophet with new revelations, equal to or above the Bible. The early Christians responded by vowing that nothing could be added to scripture. New revelations of Joseph Smith, Christian Science, Ellen White and JW's are false prophecies. Scripture is now complete. "We have also a more sure word of prophecy." 2 Peter 1:19.
 - A secondary meaning of prophet is the pastor/teacher of today proclaiming the revealed truth of first century apostles and prophets. First century prophecy revealed new truth to mankind. Teachers have taken the place of the prophets.

3. WORD OF WISDOM.

"to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom." 1 Corinthians 12:8.

Distinguish firstly between the gift of wisdom that only some had in the first century, and the quality of wisdom which is available to all Christians who ask in faith. James 1:5.

- Definition: an immediate grasp of the secret plans and purposes of God. It is direct intuition of the humanly unknowable mysteries of God. This wisdom became Scripture.
- Examples of the gift of word of wisdom:
 - James used the gift of wisdom at the Jerusalem council in Acts 15:13-18 to reveal God's purpose for the Gentiles, so clearly that there was "one accord" v.25, and "it seemed good to the Holy Ghost and to us." v.28.
 - Paul had the gift of wisdom, allowing him to know intuitively God's purposes, as stated by Peter: "Even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you." 2 Peter 3:15,16.
 "O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God." Romans 11:33-36.
 "Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth." 1 Corinthians 2:13.
 - Peter's confession: "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God" (Matthew 16:16). Jesus replied "...flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my father which is in heaven." No man told Peter who Jesus really was, but God gave him the gift of the word of wisdom.
 - Jesus promised wisdom to his disciples when they would be taken to courts for Christ's testimony: "Settle it before in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer: For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist." Luke 21:14,15.

5. Stephen speaking to the council who “were not able to resist the wisdom and Spirit by which he spake.” Acts 6:10. Stephen spoke from God by a revelatory wisdom that amazed his opponents.
6. Peter and John, when called before the council to explain their preaching “through Jesus the resurrection of the dead”, displayed this gift of wisdom that Christ promised, confounding the educated councillors at the spiritual depth and perception of their answers. “Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.” Acts 4:13.

c) When did wisdom pass away?

When the Bible was complete, there remained no more need for the gift of wisdom, although the quality of wisdom is available to all who ask for it in faith. (James 1:5).

The Bible is now our source of wisdom. Doesn't the Bible tell us to pray for wisdom (James 1:5)? "If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally,...and it shall be given him." The gift of wisdom was not given to all men, but the quality of wisdom can be.

4. WORD OF KNOWLEDGE. 1 Corinthians 12:8.

a) Definition: The ability to know and understand the mind and will of God. Knowledge is seeing as the Holy Ghost sees. It was not learned knowledge, but revealed truth.

b) Examples of knowledge:

- i) Elisha knew supernaturally about his servant Gehazi's greedy scheme to get money from Naaman. (2 Kings 5:20-27). (2 Kings 6:8-12.
- ii) Elisha knew supernaturally of Syrian King Benhadad's war plans against Israel.
- iii) Peter knew that Ananias kept back part of the price of the land. Acts 5:3,4.(Acts 27:21-24
- iv) Paul knew from God that his ship would be wrecked, but that all would survive to land.

c) It is not natural knowledge acquired by study.

During the Reformation scholars like Erasmus, Luther and others saved the world from the grip of Roman Catholicism. If they had given in to laziness, or relied on some word of knowledge to come to them, they would have achieved very little.

God tells us to: “Study to shew thyself approved unto God.” 2 Timothy 2:15.

d) Is the word of knowledge available for us today?

“Whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.” 1 Corinthians 13:8.

Knowledge will vanish away, make idle, be inoperative, rendered of no effect after it's temporary use was fulfilled by 96 AD. Hence, intuitive knowledge is not available today.

e) When did knowledge vanish away?

“When that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part (knowledge and prophecy) shall be done away.” 1 Corinthians 13:10. The “perfect” is the completed New Testament by 96 AD.

5. DISCERNING OF SPIRITS.

a) Definition: Judgment by evidence whether spirits are evil or of God.

The danger of false prophets required this gift to recognize the truth or falsity of their utterances. Because the prophet spoke by revelation, false prophets were inevitable. Paul told his converts not to despise prophesying, but to prove all things. (1 Thessalonians 5:20).

b) Examples of spirit discernment:

1. Peter clearly discerned Simon the sorcerer to be false, when Philip could not. (Acts 8:18-23).
2. Paul who had the gift of discernment saw clearly into the very soul of the false prophet Elymas who was seeking to stop the conversion of Sergius Paulus. (Acts 13:9-11).

As the New Testament had not yet been completed, there was no written word to appeal to except the Old Testament. The New Testament's completion in 96 AD made this gift of discernment obsolete, as we can now check every statement with the Bible.

Today we need discernment, but this is based upon knowing the Bible. Hebrews 5:11-14 states that, “by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.”

6. HEALING. “To another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit.” 1 Cor. 12:9. There are different kinds of healings for different kinds of sicknesses. We can be sick in our body, mind, or spirit.

a) Errors about the gifts of healing:

i) Healing is in the atonement. "with his stripes we are healed." Isaiah 53:5.

This predicts Christ healing people's souls of sin. If healing is in the atonement, why does any Christian ever die? We are not promised freedom from sickness or disease until after the resurrection. “For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now. And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.” Romans 8:22,23.

This redemption is at Christ's second coming, “Who shall change our vile body.” Phil. 3:21.

ii) All sickness is due to sin - False.

Some sickness is due to sin, eg. 1 Corinthians 11:30-32.

Many other reasons for sickness are:

a) Satanic in origin (eg. Job, the woman healed in Luke 13:11-26).

b) Burden of serving God (eg. Epaphroditus in Philippians 2:25-30).

c) From God to deepen our spiritual life (eg. Paul in 2 Corinthians 12:7-10).

d) God's glory (John 9:1-3).

If all sickness was the result of sin, then Job's comforters would all have been right (Job 2:4,5; 4:7,8), and once the sin was confessed, he could claim relief from the illness.

iii) God always wills to heal - False.

If the sick person does not get healed, they claim it is due to sin in his life or lack of faith.

Trophimus was left at Miletum sick (2 Timothy 4:20), Timothy needed to take a little wine for his stomach's sake (1 Timothy 5:23), Paul's thorn in the flesh (2 Corinthians 12:7-9), Jesus only healed one man at the pool of Bethesda (John 5:1-9), though many lay there sick.

c) Gifts of healing in the first century, and God's general healing today.

God often healed in answer to prayer. Examples include:

- Abimelech was healed in answer to Abraham's prayer (Genesis 20:7).

- Miriam was healed by God when Moses prayed for her (Numbers 12:14).

- Hezekiah was healed by God in answer to his prayer (Isaiah 38:4,5).

The Apostles could exercise gifts of healing at will, without faith or expectancy in the person being healed. Examples include:

- Peter healing the lame man at the temple gate (Acts 3:11).

- By the hands of the apostles...they were healed every one (Acts 5:12-16).

- Philip exercised gifts of healing at Samaria (Acts 8:5-7).

- Paul at Ephesus “God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul.” (Acts 19:11,12).

- Paul healed Eutychus at Troas (Acts 20:6-12).

This class of men who had gifts of healing at will, ceased in the first century.

Who can heal 100% of sicknesses today? No one.

d) Gifts of healing were a sign.

i) “These signs shall follow them that believe,...they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover....the Lord working with them (Apostles), and confirming the word with signs following.” (Mark 16:17,18,20).

These are clearly sign gifts. These signs were tokens, or marks of divine authority and power, to authenticate the Apostles and the New Testament as from God.

ii) “Jesus....a man approved of God among you by miracles, and wonders, and signs..” (Acts 2:22 and John 20:30,31). Jesus' signs proved his claims about himself to be true.

iii) “Was confirmed unto us by them (apostles) that heard him (Christ); God also bearing them (apostles) witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his will.” (Hebrews 2:3,4.)

Gifts of healing were God's signature on the truth of the Gospel.

iv) Paul uses signs as a proof of his own apostolic ministry:

“Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.” (2 Corinthians 12:12).

Therefore, gifts of healing were a sign to authenticate the message, the New Testament as the word of God, and the messengers (apostles) in the founding days of Christianity.

e) Gifts of healing were Temporary

i) When the word of God was completed (Greek “teleion”), and codified, the purpose for the gifts of healing was fulfilled and the sign gifts were no longer needed. Now the basis for belief is faith in the Bible's promises, not by sight of healing miracles, etc...In this post-apostolic age of grace, we are to “walk by faith, not by sight.” (2 Corinthians 5:7).

ii) Note: “the manna ceased on the morrow after they had eaten of the old corn of the land; neither had the children of Israel manna anymore...” (Joshua 5:11,12).

The miracle of manna in the wilderness was no longer needed because Israel ate the fruit of the land from then on. So it is with us today. The miraculous sign gifts are no longer needed, because we have the written word of God to base all decisions on today. Since the purpose for gifts of healing are ended, the gifts of healing are withdrawn.

f) We see this withdrawal of healing gifts develop progressively in Paul's life. There was a time when God wrought special miracles by Paul's hands “so that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and evil spirits went out from them.” (Acts 19:12).

Question: Why, later on, could Paul or Timothy not heal Timothy's stomach?(1 Timothy 5:23). Why could Paul, Epaphroditus, or any of his workers not heal Epaphroditus? (Philippian 2:25).

Why? Because, as the New Testament was progressively completed, so also were the temporary gifts of healing progressively withdrawn.

g) Peter healed at will in Acts 3:1-9, Acts 5:12-16, Acts 9:36-42, yet modern "healers" can do nothing like the apostles.

h) Dr. Nolen wrote the book, “Healing: A doctor in search for a miracle” after investigating worldwide claims of Charismatic healings like Kathryn Kuhlman’s and others, he states: “I have been unable to find any such miracle worker.”

Claims of healing are cheap. Proof of healing is scarce. Don’t be deceived by unsubstantiated Charismatic claims. Some claimed healings are due to hypnotism, and the power of suggestion related to the autonomic nervous system. Kuhlman had trained herself to deny, emotionally and intellectually, anything that might threaten the validity of her ministry. If you see a genuine healing today, it is an individual act of God, not due to a somebody with ‘gifts of healing.’

i) What about claimed healings today?

a) They may be due to hypnotism. Some healings can happen through hypnotherapy and the surrendered mind of the seeker.

Let no one claim that these are the greater works than those of Christ (John 14:12). Two old ladies who were crippled in wheelchairs came out the front in a healing service to be healed. They got out of their wheelchairs after being told that they were healed. After the meeting they both fell down the steps breaking their hips. The “healer” never came near them then nor did he visit them in hospital later.

b) Often no real healings take place, in a miraculous sense. How do false healers succeed and continue to operate? It is because 85% of all sick people get better by medicine or by natural means. To the other 15% they can say: “You don't have enough faith to be healed”, or “you are tolerating some sin.” Sometimes people who are supposed to be healed stop taking medicine and die.

c) Some cures are Satanic. If Satan can blind a person 18 years with a spirit of infirmity (Luke 13:10-16), surely Satan could undo this sickness if it would cause many to be deceived into accepting a false gospel and going to hell.

d) Some are real healings by God today but the gifts of healing were temporary, passing away in the first century, as the Bible became completed.

7. MIRACLES.

“To another the working of miracles.” (1 Corinthians 12:10).

Miracles, healings and tongues all belong to the sign gifts of the infant first century church. The Book of Acts and Church history show that these gifts ended by 96 AD. They were the credentials of the apostles and their message. (2 Corinthians 12:12).

a) Many Christians want miracles to convince unbelievers to be saved, but Abraham in Luke 16:29-31 says that they will not be persuaded even though one rose from the dead.

b) Miracles can be “lying wonders” (2 Thessalonians 2:9), or they can be mistakenly interpreted, e.g. Matthew 12:24; Acts 16:16.

c) Definition: The gift of miracles is the operation of God’s power in a believer’s life, giving him inherent ability to perform supernatural works. E.g.: Elisha’s axe head floating in 2 Kings 6.

A miracle can be described as a power, sign or wonder.

Miracles called “signs” authenticated the divine mission of the doer.

Miracles called “wonders” produce astonishment in the beholder.

Miracles called “mighty deeds” were supernatural.

All 3 are mentioned in:

i) Acts 2:22 referring to Christ’s miracles, wonders and signs;

ii) 2 Corinthians 12:12 referring to Paul’s apostolic signs, wonders, and mighty deeds;

iii) 2 Thessalonians 2:4 referring to Antichrist’s power, signs and lying wonders;

iv) Hebrews 2:4 referring to the Apostles’ signs, wonders, divers miracles, gifts of Holy Spirit.

d) Large periods of Bible history are without miracles. For example: Abraham, David, Solomon, Daniel, and John the Baptist did not perform miracles. Miracles are found in three periods of Bible history:

Explained as:

i) Moses: God authenticated Moses as God’s deliverer to convince Israel & Pharaoh. Ex4:1-5;7:3

Joshua: “as I was with Moses, so will I be with thee.” Joshua 1:5.

Joshua’s miracles at Jericho, Jordan and elsewhere authenticated Joshua’s leadership.

ii) Elijah: God authenticated Elijah’s message and God’s authority as Baal worship peaked, and as Jezebel sought to destroy the Levitical priesthood. Elijah’s miracles on Mt. Carmel of calling fire down from heaven had six authenticating purposes as seen by six “thats” in 1 Kings 18:36-37.

Elisha: Did 16 miracles to maintain God’s authority in Israel.

iii) Christ: God became man. This was proven by Christ’s signs, wonders and miracles. Acts 2:22; John 20:30,31.

Apostles: Signs confirmed their work, word and authority.

Key: In each of these three periods of miracles, two things occurred:

1) New revelation came, needing to be verified;

2) A man or men of God whose credentials as bearers of that revelation, needed to be verified.

Miracles never broke out before the messenger and his revelation arrived, but only afterward.

Therefore, on this basis, we should not expect miracles before the next great epoch of human history (i.e.: Christ’s Second Coming), but only afterwards.

e) Purpose of Miracles in Scripture. Why did God perform miracles in Bible times? 3 reasons:

i) To introduce new revelation (ie. to verify a new message as from God).

Miracles are only found at great points of spiritual history, to verify additions to scripture.

1) Moses: Miracles introduced this era. Moses introduced the Law, Tabernacle, sacrifices, and priesthood. The Pentateuch is written to codify God's new revelations to Israel.

2) Elijah and Elisha: Revived the prophetic era in an age of drastic spiritual decline.

God gave miracles to draw Israel back to the institution of prophecy. Judaism was built on the law and prophets. (Matthew 22:40).

3) Christ and the Apostles: The entire New Testament hangs on Christ and the apostles, whose miracles authenticated the new revelation of the New Testament.

ii) To authenticate the messengers as being from God.

Moses (Exodus 4:1-8) and Joshua (Joshua 3:7), then Elijah (1 Kings 17:24) and Elisha (2 Kings 2:15), then Christ (John 10:25) and the Apostles (2 Cor. 12:12) were attested as authentic by the miracles that God performed by them.

Miracles were God's testimony that those bringing in the new revelations (additions to Scripture) were indeed God's genuine official representatives, and not counterfeits, such as Joseph Smith, the founder of Mormonism, or Mohammed the founder of Islam.

"Believe me for the very works' sake." John 14:11.

Lack of miracles by modern cults show them to be false.

iii) To instruct the observers.

In each period the miracles had an impact on those who saw them:

1) Moses: Pharaoh (and the world) were taught the powerlessness of Egypt's gods, and the reality and power of Jehovah (Exodus 5:2; 9:27, 28; 10:16,17), when each miracle plague defeated an Egyptian god. Lesson: "Let my people go."

2) Elijah: Ahab, Jezebel and Israel were taught the powerlessness of Baal worship, and the need to turn to Jehovah (1 Kings 18:36-39), when the 450 prophets of Baal failed the fire test and were killed.

3) Christ: Taught His disciples and Israel, by His miracles that He was Israel's Messiah and God. (Matthew 8:26).

4) Apostles: Their miracles taught Israel and the church to honour and believe their authority (Acts 5:11-13), to accept the offer of salvation, the Kingdom, and the church.

f) The Passing of Miracles in Scripture.

i) Gifts of miracles in the first century, and general miracles today.

Those with the gift of miracles could perform any miracle any day at will ("the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets." 1 Corinthians 14:32). The gift has fulfilled its purpose and is gone. God still works miracles today in response to faith.

ii) When the purpose of miracles was fulfilled, the gift ended.

Until the Bible was completed, God often used miracles to authenticate a man's ministry and message as from God. Once the Bible was completed, the same need did not exist. This age is not an age of miraculous signs, but of spiritual power to convert sinners, and to build up believers. A gift of miracles implies a continued ability to do miracles again and again. No one has this gift today. The signs in Mark 16:17,18 are illustrated in Acts, the purpose being that of confirming the word (as from God) with signs following.

Question: Do people today raise the dead, call fire from heaven, walk on water, multiply loaves, fishes, oil, etc.? No. Never.

Answer: These were authenticating signs, and God has proven the reliability of the messengers and the message. Hence there is no longer any need for signs or miracles. The miraculous proofs of the gospel in Hebrews 2:3,4 are all in the past tense.

Today, the test of a man's authority is not his ability to work miracles. His authority comes from how faithfully he adheres to the Word of God. O.T. and N.T. miracles never lasted more than 70 years. N.T. miracles covered the lifetime of Christ and the Apostles, and then they ceased. They were done once, that they might be believed always.

iii) The seeking of miracles is not a sign of spirituality.

Jesus Christ says: “an evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign.” Matthew 12:39. Rather than glorifying God, sign-seeking detracts from faith in the Bible alone.

Charismatics try to prove the Bible by “miraculous” external evidence. When the miracles don’t come, or are proven false, does this disprove the Bible? No way, yet this is the logical conclusion to where the Charismatic signs movement leads us.

iv) Miracles are not the ultimate proof of truth.

Jesus emphasized this in Matthew 7:21-23, when supposed miracle workers are cast into hell. The Bible warns us in 2 Thessalonians 2:8-12 of a rise in the miraculous as a means of satanic deception in the last days. Not all miracle power in the Bible originates with God.

Note: Revelation 13:13-15 “He doeth great wonders, so that he makes fire come down from heaven.” Scripture alone keeps us from the serpent’s bite, and the deceiver’s snare.

8. TONGUES. “divers kinds of tongues.” (1 Corinthians 12:10).

a) What is meant by tongues?

Tongues are human languages that are understandable and known.

i) 3 Bible words for tongues:

- 1) Glossa refers to the organ of the body, eg. Acts 2:3 “cloven tongues of fire” and language knowable in common conversation.
- 2) Dialektos = the language or dialect of a country or district. Visitors to Jerusalem heard their own dialect (Acts 1:19; 2:8).
- 3) Heteroglossa = tongue of a different language (1 Corinthians 14:21). All three may be unknown to the speaker, but known to the hearer. It is an unlearned language, a gift of the Holy Spirit.

ii) Tongues at Jerusalem at Pentecost.

“Glossa” is used in Acts 2:4,11 and “dialektos” in Acts 2:6, 8.

In Acts 2:1-11 note that:

- languages spoken were known;
- no interpretation was needed;
- they were so well spoken that the dialect was correct.

iii) Tongues at Caesarea (Cornelius in Acts 10:46) and Ephesus (19:6).

“Glossa” is used in Acts 10:46 and 19:6 denoting a knowable, translatable, human language just as in Acts 2. It was no different from Pentecost. Note “the like gift,” Acts 11:17.

iv) Tongues at Corinth.

“Glossa” is used 21 times to describe tongues at Corinth.

“Heteroglossa” is used only once in 1 Corinthians 14:21 to describe the actual language of Assyrian foreign invaders (Isaiah 28:11,12). None of tongues were gibberish (as is today in the Charismatic Movement), but were definite, translatable, human languages.

v) Is the Baptism in Holy Spirit the same as speaking in tongues? No!

Charismatic Kenneth Hagin wrongly says: “Speaking in tongues is always manifested when people are baptized in the Holy Ghost.”

Pentecostalist Donald Gee wrongly says: “The distinctive doctrine of the Pentecostal churches is that speaking with tongues is the “initial evidence” of the Baptism in the Holy Spirit.”

Question: What is the “Baptism in the Holy Ghost” according to the Bible?

Answer: a) It is an historic event predicted by Christ in Matthew 3:13, Mark 1:8, Luke 3:16, John 1:33 and Acts 1:4,5.

- 1) It is an historic event occurring on the day of Pentecost. Acts 11:15-17 and 1 Cor. 12:13.
- 2) Paul points back to Pentecost, the day the Holy Spirit came to indwell all believers. When somebody is saved today he is baptised in the Holy Spirit. “For by one Spirit are we all baptised into one body, ... and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.” I Corinthians 12:13.

It is a definite act in the past in which every believer has participated at the moment of salvation. It does not occur after salvation, but at salvation.

vi) The Bible asks a series of questions in 1 Corinthians 12:30.

“Do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?”

Key: The answer to these is obviously “No.” “All” do not speak with tongues, yet “all” have been baptised in the Holy Spirit (1 Corinthians 12:13). Therefore Baptism in the Holy Spirit is not initially evidenced by the gift of tongues, nor is it involved at all.

vii) Tongues were given to a select band of first century believers.

The Bible never urges believers to pray for the gift of tongues.

b) Regulation of the gift of tongues. What rules does Paul impose?

i) Tongues are inferior. Tongues comes at the end of gift lists in 1 Cor 12:8-10 and 12:28-30.

ii) No more than 2 or 3 people were permitted to speak in tongues at church.

“If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.” 1 Corinthians 14:27.

This limits the number who may speak in tongues in the church meeting. It insured against the danger of having an inferior gift monopolize the limited time.

iii) They must speak one at a time, not all together. “and that by course”.

iv) Tongues must be interpreted. “let one interpret.” I Corinthians 14:27.

“Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret.” 14:13.

v) If there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church. v.28.

Tongues were to be planned. One had to first check to see if an interpreter was present. Then they had to limit tongues to three, and they had to decide who was going to speak first, second and third. It was not just unplanned as it happens today.

If he could keep silence, tongues could be easily controlled by the speaker.

Without an interpreter tongues were useless to the church. He was to speak to himself and to God. How could he himself be edified if he did not know what he was saying? (1 Cor. 14:2,14). God could understand him in his own language, so why speak in tongues?

vi) Only men could speak in tongues, not women.

“If any man speak in an unknown tongue.” 1 Corinthians 14:27.

“Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak” (I Corinthians 14:34). This forbids tongues by women in the assembly.

Question: But doesn't 1 Corinthians 11:5 contradict this verse:

“any woman who prays or prophesies with her head unveiled dishonoureth her head.”

Answer: This would be women praying with, prophesying, proclaiming or teaching to ladies or children, but not to men. (I Timothy 2:12).

vii) Only use tongues when unbelieving Jews were present.

Since tongues were a warning sign of judgment to come on unbelieving Jews as 1 Cor. 14:21,22 states, then unbelieving Jews should be present for this gift to be used, so as not to create chaos (14:23) by Gentile unbelievers thinking you are mad. Because of this, their use was limited. Only when unbelieving Jews were present were tongues to be used.

viii) Tongues must edify others, not yourself.

“...greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.” 1 Corinthians 14:5.

“Now brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?” 1 Corinthians 14:6.

“Seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.” 1 Corinthians 14:12.

“let all things be done unto edifying.” 1 Corinthians 14:26.

Edifying is the theme of 1 Corinthians 14. Whatever is done must edify others.

“He that speaketh in an unknown tongue, edifieth himself.” 1 Corinthians 14:4.

Note: The irony is clear. Selfishness edifies self, selflessness edifies others. If tongues do not edify others, they should not be used. This verse is a criticism of the Corinthians wrong use of uninterpreted tongues, yet Charismatics use it to allow tongues in private.

- ix) Let all things be done decently and in order. 1 Corinthians 14:40.

In their unconverted days, these Corinthians were “Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols.” 1 Corinthians 12:2.

They had been heathen idol worshippers out of control in emotional hysteria as a sign of being in touch with their gods. Now they were to wait their turn, only one speak at a time, and no more than three speak in tongues in one meeting.

- x) Forbid not to speak in tongues. 1 Corinthians 14:39.

Tongues speakers point to this verse as their badge of freedom that no one should forbid tongues. Many non-tongues speakers are confused by this verse, so they permit tongues.

Answer: Place this verse in the first century context when tongues were given. When the purpose for tongues was still valid, one must not forbid the right use of tongues.

Today we can forbid to speak in tongues because:

- 1) Most tongues today are gibberish, and not real languages
- 2) Most tongues today are not the right use, and not true to these rules.
- 3) Since the purpose of tongues has been fulfilled of warning unbelieving Jews to repent (70AD), then we can forbid what is an unbiblical, obsolete gift.

In the time of Paul’s letter being written (57AD), tongues were still needed and practised. The day of their demise had not yet come.

Note: Today, we should forbid tongues as an unbiblical practice.

- c) Reason for the gift of tongues.

Very few people are willing to study the Bible to discover the purpose for tongues. Most speak in tongues today because someone asks them to.

There is only one primary Bible reason for tongues:

TO WARN FIRST CENTURY UNBELIEVING JEWS OF JUDGMENT TO COME
--

14:20 “...Be not children in understanding, ...but in understanding be men.”

When the Corinthians truly understood the reason for tongues, they would move from childhood to adulthood in their understanding, and from the selfishness of childhood to the selflessness of manhood.

“With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord” (1 Corinthians 14:21) is God’s warning sign to unbelieving Jews of Isaiah’s day as it is quoted from Isaiah 28:11,12.

Paul quotes this verse (1 Corinthians 14:22) as a warning of God to unbelieving Jews of the first century, “Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not...”

Note: “Wherefore” links what Paul says in v.21 with the conclusion of v.22, which is the reason or purpose for tongues to warn Jews who believe not, of impending judgment.

If this is the reason for tongues, it should be verified in Acts, and it is in the following ways:

- a) Acts 2:1-13. According to v.5 the people to whom languages were spoken at Pentecost were unbelieving Jews from other countries as seen from v.22,23, and by their cry of v.37. “What shall we do?” Thus, as Isaiah predicted, God spoke to “this people” through men using other languages, and the tongues were heard in their “own dialect wherein they were born.” (v.8).

- b) Acts 8:1-18. Question: Why were there no tongues spoken when the Samaritans received the Holy Ghost by Peter and John laying hands on them?

Answer: Because there were no Jews present at Samaria. Jews hated Samaritans and would not be caught dead living at Samaria.

Question: Why could Philip not impart the Holy Spirit by laying on of hands?

Answer: Because he was not an apostle, and God wanted the Samaritan believers to be associated with the apostles. This shows that if Philip could not impart the Holy Spirit by laying on of hands, nor can we do it today. This refutes “slaying in the spirit.”

c) Acts 10:44-48.

Question: Why did Cornelius' household, who were Gentiles, speak in tongues when they were not Jews.

Answer: Unbelieving Jews were present, who still thought that God only dealt with Jews alone and not with Gentiles. These Jews and Jews at Jerusalem needed convincing that God's dealings were shifting from unbelieving Judaism which was under impending judgment to include Gentiles in the church. "Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life." Acts 11:18.

Hence tongues spoken by Cornelius' household convinced the Jews of God accepting Gentiles into the church.

d) Acts 19:1-9. John the Baptist's twelve disciples at Ephesus were saved, baptised, Paul laid hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, then they spoke with tongues.

--Tongues warned the large Jewish community at Ephesus of judgment to come.

--Tongues also identified John's disciples at Ephesus with Pentecost and the Apostles.

e) Acts 18 and 1 Corinthians 12-14. Tongues as a warning to Jews of coming judgment was relevant for the large Jewish community at Corinth who understood them (i.e.: as at Pentecost). Because Gentiles were present at the Corinthian church who did not understand the languages, the tongues had to be interpreted lest they say "that ye are mad." (v.23). Thus when no interpreter was present, there was to be no speaking in tongues. Hence the primary purpose of tongues was God warning the Jews to repent and believe or be judged.

The following chart summarizes the occurrences of tongues with Jews:

(See Answers book, Chapter 99, page 480)

9. INTERPRETATION OF TONGUES. 1 Corinthians 12:10,30; 14:5,13,26,27,28.

a) Definition:

1) It is not the learned ability to translate from one language to another.

2) It is the supernatural ability to translate the meaning of the tongues speaker, who was using a language unknown to the people in the church assembly.

3) In 1 Corinthians 12:10 and 14:26 the Greek word is "hermeneia" meaning "to explain, or interpret" the words spoken in a tongue.

4) In 1 Corinthians 12:30 and 14:6,13,27,28 the Greek word has "dia" (through) at the start of the word, which adds intensity, meaning "to interpret fully, to explain thoroughly."

b) The Purpose of Interpretation is to edify the church.

Tongues of themselves do not edify, unless interpreted. The tongues gift was incomplete without interpretation, which allowed people to understand what was said.

c) Paul regulates tongues: If no Interpreter is present, then no tongues are to be spoken.

At Pentecost there was no need for tongues to be interpreted, since these people heard what was spoken directly in their own language.

In Corinth the situation was different. Tongues did not occur in the open air, but in the church assembly. The gift of interpretation of tongues was very important to Gentiles in the assembly.

"If there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church." 1 Corinthians 14:28.

The interpreter avoided the charge of madness (v.23), and fulfilled the need for edification (v.26).

Interpreters were well known, and tongues could be avoided if the interpreter was absent.

c) When did Interpretation of tongues cease? Interpreting ceased when tongues ceased in 70AD, when its purpose was fulfilled. Both gifts ceased together. W. Criswell records this:

A seminary graduate who had majored in Hebrew attended a tongues-meeting in California: In the midst of the meeting he stood up and quoted by memory the first Psalm in the original language. After he had finished, the interpreter arose and solemnly, piously made known in plain English what the brother had spoken in an unknown tongue. The interpreter made it an utterance, Spirit-inspired, about women prophesying in church. When the seminarian made known what he had done and what he had said, pandemonium broke loose. (7:219).

When people insist in using gifts which the Bible says are obsolete, much confusion can arise.

IV. BAPTISM IN THE HOLY SPIRIT.

12:13 What the Baptism in the Holy Spirit is, and what the Baptism in the Holy Spirit is not.

What the Baptism with the Holy Spirit is NOT:

- i) It is NOT a repeat experience. 1 Corinthians 12:3.
At conversion we are baptized into the body of Christ, once and for all time.
- ii) It is NOT a subsequent experience to salvation.
- iii) It is NOT the same as the filling of the Holy Spirit.

What the Baptism of the Holy Spirit IS:

- i) New Testament Baptism in the Holy Spirit is a one-off event.
New Testament filling of the Holy Spirit is continuous. There are many fillings of the Holy Spirit, but only one Baptism of the Holy Spirit at salvation.
- ii) Baptism with the Holy Spirit is never commanded in the New Testament, but the filling with the Holy Spirit is commanded in Ephesians 5:18. “Be filled with the Spirit.” “Filled” is in the imperative mood of command. “Baptism of the Holy Spirit” is never found in New Testament.
We are never told to seek, tarry or pray for the Baptism with the Holy Spirit.
- iii) The Baptism is positional, the filling is the experimental inflow of Divine power, affecting how we live, how we witness, and all we do for Christ.
- iv) It is NOT for some believers only, but for all believers.

I Corinthians 12:13 says that ALL members of the Corinthian church who were saved were baptized with the Holy Spirit, though ALL did NOT speak with tongues.

- v) It is NOT an answer to agonizing prayer.

Many believe in “tarrying for the Holy Spirit”, quoting Christ’s words to His disciples in Luke 24:49, “And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high.”

This verse was for the disciples in pre-Pentecost days, as was Acts 1:4,5.

John 7:39 explains this time period as “the Holy Ghost was not yet given.” These instructions were specifically for the disciples (Acts 1:13-15) during the 10 days between the ascension of Christ, and the descending of the promised Holy Spirit.

To one lady who had just returned from a tarrying meeting, Harry Ironside said: “You are 10,000 miles too far away, and 1900 years too late.”

Tarrying was for 10 days before Pentecost, at Jerusalem in 33 AD.

- vi) What the Baptism with the Holy Spirit IS.

It is mentioned only seven times in the New Testament.

“He shall baptise you with the Holy Ghost.” Matthew 3:11; Mark 1:8; Luke 3:16.

“Ye shall be baptised with the Holy Ghost.” Acts 1:5.

“Ye shall be baptised with the Holy Ghost.” Acts 11:16.

“So many of us as were baptised into Jesus Christ, were baptised into His death.” Romans 6:3.

“For as many of you as have been baptised into Christ have put on Christ.” Galatians 3:27.

“For by one Spirit are we all baptised into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.” 1 Corinthians 12:13.

1. It is baptism in the Holy Spirit.

Baptism marks an initial experience. We are immersed in the Holy Spirit as we are immersed in water. “by (Greek: en) one Spirit...”. “En” is Greek for “in”.

2. It is the work of Jesus Christ.

In Spirit baptism, the element is the Holy Spirit (as water is the element in water baptism), but the baptiser is Jesus Christ (Matthew 3:11, “He shall baptise you with the Holy Spirit.”)

The Holy Spirit does not do the baptising. Christ is the Baptiser, who baptises us into His body with the Holy Spirit. Thus the baptism with the Holy Spirit, whether we are referring to Pentecost, or to the application of Pentecost to the newly regenerated soul at conversion, is the work of Christ Himself.

3. It is tied to the local church.

Question: What body are we baptised into in 1 Corinthians 12:13?

Answer: “Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.” 1 Corinthians 12:27.

Fundamental to Spirit baptism is membership in a local “body of Christ”. To emphasize the baptism while at the same time downgrading membership in a local church is a contradiction in terms.

Charismatic prayer groups where Spirit baptism is sought, by-pass the authority of the local church, and the Word of God. Charismatics claim that when one receives the baptism he will speak in tongues as the initial evidence of Spirit baptism.

The gifts named in Mark 16:17,18 are associated with belief in Christ, not with Spirit baptism as a second experience.

Charismatic teachers all agree that you need the Spirit baptism, but they are not agreed on how you get it. eg. Some suggest prayer, obedience, repentance, sinlessness, yielding, tarrying, faith, etc. They talk much about the rest of this gift. Charismatic writer Robert Dalton expresses the effort required to receive this free gift of grace of Spirit baptism, “This experience ... is for all who desire it and are willing to pay the price.”

If you pay the price to get a gift, it is not a free gift!

When a Charismatic asks us: “Have you had the baptism OF the Holy Spirit?” our first answer can be, “There is no such thing as the baptism OF the Holy Spirit. If you mean the baptism WITH the Holy Spirit, yes I have, and so has every other Christian.” The baptism OF the Holy Spirit appears nowhere in Scripture, as the Holy Spirit does not do the baptizing, it is Christ doing it. Spiritual immersion, not water immersion is the subject of 1 Corinthians 12:13, Romans 6:3-5, and Galatians 3:27.

When Charismatics insist that there is a second experience to be called the baptism OF the Holy Spirit, they are actually redefining the doctrine of salvation. They are saying that salvation doesn't really give us everything that we think it gave us, that we are still lacking, that we need something more.

Nowhere in the Bible are Christians commanded to seek, or to receive the Holy Spirit or to be baptized “by” or “of” the Spirit.

The Bible doesn't tell us how to get the baptism of the Holy Spirit, but it tells us that we already have been baptized in the Spirit when we believed.

“And ye are complete in Him...” Colossians 2:10.

“His divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him that hath called us to glory and virtue.” 2 Peter 1:3.

Since we are “complete in Christ”, and “we have been given all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of Christ”, there is no point in seeking what is already ours.

The Bible never teaches us to get with a group of people who can teach us how to speak in tongues. All we need to do is yield to the Holy Spirit, who is already there, then we will have the Spirit's power.

As Saviour, Christ baptizes with the Holy Spirit, and as Judge, He baptizes with fire. The baptism with fire is the judgment of hell, burning the chaff with unquenchable fire (Matthew 3:11). It is not the Holy Spirit's baptism, but Christ's baptism with the Holy Spirit that places us into the body of Christ when we receive Christ as Saviour. All believers have this. We must not seek, or ask for that which we already possess. At salvation we are baptized in the Holy Spirit, as well as being sealed, indwelt, filled and regenerated.

Key: A person cannot enjoy what he has if he is forever seeking a non-existent second blessing.

What is lacking is people's full obedience, full trust and full submission, not Christ's full salvation, indwelling or second blessing.

V. BELIEVERS WHO THOUGHT that they were SUPERIOR and OTHERS INFERIOR.

12:14-16: “For the body is not one member, (eg. tongue) but many.”

The Tongues Movement, by saying that all believers should speak in tongues, says that the entire body should be a tongue (or have a tongue in it), which is false. Verse 14 refutes this by saying that the body is not one member (tongue), but many members, each with their own, but different function.

The Corinthian church was divided where it should have been united (eg. each following different leaders, whereas they all should have one leader, Christ). They tried to be uniform, in all seeking to have the showy gifts like tongues, where they should have been diverse in each being content to use their own God given gifts.

Many were unhappy and discontent with their gifts, envying someone else’s gifts.

The foot or ear represented believers who had developed an inferiority complex, perhaps because they had “behind-the-scenes” gifts like helps or mercy, etc. They felt inferior and useless because they were not given gifts like brothers Hand and Eye with the gift of tongues or interpretation of tongues.

Apparently, brothers Hand and Eye, being proud of their gifts, approached brothers Foot and Ear one day saying: “Unless you two can speak in tongues as we do, you are not spiritual; you will never make it in the Christian life. Quite possibly, you are not even saved.”

In great distress, brother Foot tried hard to become a Hand, and brother Ear tried hard to become an Eye. They may have prayed, fasted, and tarried, but to their dismay, each remained a Foot and an Ear. Once a foot, always a foot. Once an ear, always an ear. Why? Because this was the gift the Holy Spirit chose to give them. It could not be changed by human effort.

12:17 “If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing.” Common sense should have told them, that as a church, they could get the job done better by each performing different ministries. If everyone spoke in tongues who would do the teaching? The church would become grotesque if it consisted of only one gift. Gifts can only function properly when you are filled with the Holy Spirit.

12:18,19 “But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.” And if they were all one member, where were the body?”

God allocates gifts to each believer as God sees fit.

By being discontent and wanting gifts that they did not have, the Corinthians insulted God’s wisdom and goodness by saying that God had made a mistake.

By Charismatics saying that all must speak in tongues, they are contradicting God’s giving of gifts as He sees fit.

For the body to perform all its functions, many different parts must all work together. So it is in a church. If most of a church is inactive, the active members must do work for which they are not equipped.

There are two main reasons why some Christians never become involved in ministry:

- i) 12:15-17. Some (like Foot and Ear) feel that they have no gifts or abilities that are worthwhile, so they rest and let others do all the work. These have an inferiority complex, saying: “They don’t need me.”
- ii) 12:18-21. Others feel that they are so highly qualified that they do not really need the help of others to perform their ministry. These are the believers described in v.21, and counselled in v.22-31. Their attitude is, “I don’t need them.”

12:21 “The eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.” (v.21).

God has made all of His creation interdependent, and so He has made members of a church interdependent. Several prominent and gifted members carried on their ministries as if they were self-sufficient. They disdained the less significant members.

12:22 “Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:”

Weaker, more feeble members of the body are necessary, such as heart, lungs, kidneys, etc.

These members are hidden, performing their work in secret, not being seen publicly, and are necessary to our survival. If we lose a prominent part like an arm or leg or eye, we can still live. But if we lose our heart, lung, or kidneys we will quickly die. The less noticed parts (internal organs) seem to be weaker than the rest of the body such as limbs (external organs).

The hidden, weaker, internal organs are more necessary to our survival. Therefore, internal organs are more closely protected by the skeleton. They are more vulnerable, more necessary to our survival, and are therefore given more protection. You can live without legs, but you can't live without lungs.

Application and lesson: The most important ministries in a church always include some that are not obvious, such as prayer warriors providing spiritual power, or behind-the-scenes helpers. The Corinthian church failed to appreciate those having behind-the-scenes gifts. They magnified the showy gifts such as prophecy, tongues, healing, which is just what the Charismatic Movement does today.

12:23 "And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness."

"Less honourable" refers to private parts of the body such as thighs, waist, abdomen, buttocks, and chest. On these we bestow honour, meaning that we put attractive clothing on these parts, compared to the more presentable parts such as face and hands which need no clothing.

"Uncomely" (Greek, "aschemon") means shameful, indecent, unpresentable or private parts needing to be covered. When people treat their uncomely parts with care and modesty, they come to have more abundant comeliness.

Application: A well known Christian with a prominent gift (like a face or hand), ought not to seek great honour for himself, but he should seek to help the well-being of those with less obvious gifts. Specially gifted Christians in leadership or prominence, should not look down on those with less noticeable gifts, but should care for and protect them, and "comfort the feeble-minded (fainthearted), support the weak, be patient toward all men." 1 Thessalonians 5:14.

12:24 "For our comely parts have no need," means that the more beautiful parts of the body need no special help.

Application: Those believers with more noticeable and attractive gifts are the comely members who have no need of encouragement and protection. Honour comes to them naturally (as the face), and that honour they should share with members whose gifts are less attractive. Spiritual greatness is determined by the spirit of servanthood, not by high position.

"God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked." God rewards people according to our attitudes as well as to how we use our gifts.

12:25 "That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another."

God wants to avoid schism (or division) in the body, by everybody giving mutual support and encouragement. In ours and in God's eyes, every believer should be regarded as highly important. God wants every church member to have the same care for each other. We should care just as much for the rough new convert and each Sunday school teacher as the Pastor.

12:26 "And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it."

The one who suffers is consoled, and the one who is honoured is rejoiced with. Only strong mutual love and concern can prevent or heal division and maintain unity in a church. There ought to be no envy, rivalry, competition, resentment, superiority or inferiority, only true Christian love.

12:27 "Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular."

Paul reminded them that as a group they were the body of Christ, as well as individually they were part of Christ's body. They were one in Christ and should be united with each other.

12:28 "God hath set some in the church, first (1) apostles, secondarily (2) prophets, thirdly (3) teachers, after that (4) miracles, then (5) gifts of healings, (6) helps, (7) governments, (8) diversities of tongues."

There is a priority list of gifts, some having more significance than others. Numbering the gifts shows that the gifts are listed in order of importance. Apostles and prophets are mentioned first and second because the church is built on them. (Ephesians 2:20). Tongues are last showing their least importance.

12:29,30 "Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles? Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?"

Note:

- 1) Each question strongly implies the answer “No”, not all speak with tongues, etc. Charismatics contradict this verse when they say that all should speak with tongues.
- 2) “All” is mentioned seven times, and in each case the Greek word “pautes” which is the masculine gender is used. This means that only men had the office of apostle, prophet and teacher. Only men, and not women worked miracles, had gifts of healing, only men spoke with tongues and only men interpreted. The feminine of “all” is “pasai” in Greek used in Matthew 27:5,7 “then all (pasai) those virgins.”
- 3) Only men spoke in tongues as seen in 1 Corinthians 14:27. “If any man speak in a tongue... if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself and to God.”
- 4) “Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak ... for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.” 1 Corinthians 14:34,35.

Charismatic women do not obey these verses, and their menfolk encourage their disobedience.

12:31 “But covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet show I unto you a more excellent way.” Paul was commanding the church as a whole to appreciate those people with the best gifts, because most of them appreciated wrongly the least gifts. Paul was saying, “appreciate the apostles, prophets, teachers. Desire to have people in your assembly using these gifts.”

Question: Some think that he is saying that if you haven’t got certain gifts, then seek them.

Answer: This cannot be right because it contradicts the many statements that God is the One who distributes gifts, not man. eg. I Corinthians 12:8,11,18,28.

Then Paul shows us the more excellent way of love.

Covet = “zeloo” in Greek which means “to be ardently devoted to.”

It is in the second person plural, and is therefore addressed to the entire church. Paul is saying: “Whenever you meet, you should always desire that the best spiritual gifts be used (ie. teaching) but not tongues, which was the least gift. Since tongues was the lowest and least desirable gift, they were never to covet tongues. In the light of these clear Bible passages, it is inconceivable that 21st Century Christians should seek to obtain a gift that no longer exists, and one that was inferior even while it was operational.

(for exposition of 1 Corinthians 13, see “Answers” Chapter 71, p.321 and Chapter 100, p.482)

103. 27 REASONS WHY CHRISTIANS SHOULD NEITHER SEEK NOR DESIRE TONGUES.

The Charismatic Movement contends that:

- i) The New Testament gift of tongues should be sought and spoken by ALL Christians today. They seek to revive all gifts, but none are given so great importance as tongues.
- ii) The tongues gift is the true Biblical sign of the "Baptism in the Spirit."
- iii) Those receiving tongues receive a second blessing after salvation, enabling them to live more sanctified, powerful and joyful witnessing lives.
- iv) The tongues movement is claimed to be the "latter rain" revival foretold in Joel 2:23.

We must test all religious movements on the basis of:

- a) Their doctrines. 2 Timothy 4:2,3
- b) Their fruits. Matthew 7:15,16

Their spirits or powers behind a movement. "Test the spirits." 1 John 4:1-4..

Note the following reasons why tongues are not needed for Christians today:

1. Tongues were classed as one of the lowest gifts.

In 1 Corinthians 12:28 tongues are mentioned last in a list of 8 gifts. These are ranked in order of importance because we have "first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues."

God gives the gifts "according to his own will," not according to our seeking.

"Gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will." Hebrews 2:4.

1 Corinthians 12:8-11 lists 9 gifts, the last being tongues and interpretation of tongues:

"For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; to another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gift of healing by the same spirit,.... But all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will."

Note: Tongues were spoken on 3 occasions in Acts (2:4; 10:46; 19:6), but on none of these occasions are the recipients seeking, waiting or expecting to speak in tongues. At Pentecost, only the Apostles (12) spoke in tongues, but all who were saved (3000) received the Holy Spirit (2:38,39).

a) "Covet earnestly the best gifts" (12:31); tongues are not the best gifts, but one of the least gifts. (14:1).

b) Spiritual gifts could be desired (14:1) but not claimed in faith as a birthright. There is no command to seek them.

3. Most modern tongues are a learned behaviour.

People are told to blank out their mind and say whatever comes out; then go home and practice it. This is foreign to the New Testament.

4. Tongues speakers may be deceived.

Because a person speaks unintelligible sounds, it is not proof that he has the N.T. gift of tongues. Few Charismatics are prepared to examine tongues. We must "prove all things" (1 Thess. 5:21). How do you prove that tongues are genuine languages? In 1 Corinthians 14:27-29, Paul discusses wrong tongues which are not interpreted in the church, and wrong prophecy, thus teaching that others need to judge a prophecy. Tongues have been spoken by heathen religions, Mormons, etc..

5. Tongues were a sign of God's wrath, displeasure and judgment on unbelieving Israel, never a sign of His blessing and approval on Christians.

"Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not" 1 Cor. 14:22

a) Acts 10:44-47; 11:16-18. Tongues used by Cornelius' household was a sign to unbelieving Peter and unbelieving Jewish Christians, that Gentiles were to be received into the family of God. In Acts 11:15 the phrase "as on us at the beginning" means that tongues had not been spoken since Pentecost which was 10 years earlier.

b) "Forbid not to speak in tongues" (1 Corinthians 14:39) was always on the understanding that tongues was a valid sign to warn Jewish unbelievers, until judgment came in 70AD. You don't warn people after judgment has come.

- c) In meetings where there were no unbelieving Jews, all teaching, praying etc. was to be in the language of those present (1 Corinthians 14:23-28). 1 Corinthians 14:19 states that in the church, 5 words understood are better than 10,000 words in tongues that are not understood.
- d) Israel wanted signs, but the church must live by faith. "An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign." (Matthew 12:39).
- e) The Corinthians were using tongues as a mark of spirituality, for personal gratification, and to gain attention. Paul rebukes this childish, selfish practice.

6. Tongues is one of several temporary gifts.

- i) Apostles. "are built upon the foundation of the apostles"
- ii) Prophets. "...and prophets." Ephesians 2:20.
Neither they nor the Lord appointed any successors to their office. "12 apostles of the Lamb." (Revelation 21:14). There are no Apostles or prophets alive today.
- iii) Knowledge. This was intuitive, revealed knowledge of doctrine before the Bible was completed. A completed, perfect Bible ended this gift along with prophecy in 96AD. 1 Corinthians 13:8-13. Today we must study to gain Bible knowledge. 2 Timothy 2:15. (1 Corinthians 14:21,22).
- iv) Tongues. With the setting aside of Israel in 70 AD, tongues and other sign gifts ceased.
- v) Interpretation of tongues - ceased in 70 AD when tongues ceased.
- iv) Gifts of healing. Paul lost this gift, as he could not heal Epaphroditus in 64AD (Phil. 2:26,27), Timothy's stomach in 65AD (1 Timothy 5:23) nor Trophimus in 66AD (2 Timothy 4:20). In Acts 5:12-16, Peter healed every one in 33 AD.
- vii) Gift of miracles -no one can do miracles today at their will as could the first century apostles.
- viii) Discerning of spirits - no one today has this gift because discernment comes through Bible knowledge of strong meat, full age Christians who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil (Hebrews 5:14). No one today would claim infallible judgment always in every issue of life, which is what this gift demands (1 Corinthians 12:10).

7. Historically, tongues ceased after 63-70 AD.

Tongues were withdrawn when Israel deliberately rejected the apostles testimony of Christ, as seen in Acts 28:22-28 where Paul pronounces God's judgment on Israel (63AD). Judgment fell in 70AD. In all New Testament epistles written after this pronouncement in 63AD (Romans; Ephesians; Philippians; Colossians; 1 & 2 Timothy; Titus; Philemon; Hebrews; 1&2 Peter; John; 1,2 & 3 John; Jude and Revelation) there is no mention of tongues. Why? Because with the setting aside of Israel, and the confirming of the word of God, sign gifts were no longer necessary. These facts of the gospel and the apostles message of the Bible having been established, confirmed, and authenticated for all time, it is now an act of unbelief to seek for signs today. Early church writers such as Polycarp, Papias, Cyprian, Chrysostom, Augustine, Origen, Clement of Rome, Justin Martyr etc. never mentioned tongues. Why? Because they had been withdrawn. Chrysostom says: "tongues....used to occur, but now no longer take place."

8. Modern tongues & Charismatic Movement is not another Pentecost or "latter rain" Joel 2:23

Joel's prophecy discusses Israel's restoration to their land in the Millennium. When this happens, and not before, the Holy Spirit will be poured out on all flesh. What happened at Pentecost was only an illustration, a small sample of what will happen in the Millennium. At Pentecost, there were no signs in the sun, moon etc, thus indicating that Joel's prophecy is to be fulfilled in the future Millennium. Joel said nothing about tongues being a sign of renewal. This age will end in apostasy and departure from the Faith, not in Joel's revival. KEY: "Afterward" in Joel 2:28 means that the Spirit will be poured on all flesh after Christ's second coming, and not before.

9. Tongues is not a sign of the Baptism in the Holy Spirit.

"For by one Spirit are we all baptised into one body." 1 Corinthians 12:13.

- i) All believers have the Holy Spirit Baptism.
"If any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his." Romans 8:9.
- ii) All believers have the Holy Spirit, but few believers spoke in tongues.
If we have received Jesus Christ as Saviour, we also have the Holy Spirit in us, because we cannot separate members of the Godhead.

10. Tongues were never intended to edify the speaker himself or the church.

- i) "He that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort" I Cor 14:3
"For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted." 1 Cor14:31
The edification, exhortation, learning and comfort of the local church was always the responsibility of the one who prophesied (gave instruction in an understandable language).
- ii) "He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself," (1 Corinthians 14:4) does not teach that personal holiness is found in tongues speaking. On the contrary it describes the Corinthians selfishness who used tongues for personal pleasure and public display. Tongues speaking in a church does not instruct, edify, warn or strengthen believers. Holiness through tongues will always be shallow because it is based on feelings, not on Biblical edification.
- iii) Of all the tongues spoken today, new prophecies, new revelations and visions, not one iota of truth have been added to the inspired scriptures.

11. Tongues were never intended for prayer, praise or worship of God.

"For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him; howbeit in the Spirit he speaketh mysteries." 1 Corinthians 14:2.

God does not need to be spoken to in a foreign language. This verse teaches that the Corinthians were using the gift of tongues out of place. Tongues were meant to be spoken to men, that is to JEWS. A person praying or singing in tongues simply spoke "mysteries" in his own spirit. He received no real benefit, the hearers were not helped, and God was not glorified. Prayer and praise must be with understanding in the common language. "What is it then? I will pray with the Spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also.....Else.....how shall.....the unlearned say Amen at thy giving of thanks?" 1 Corinthians 14:15,16.

This is not two different kinds of prayer, but two conditions of all prayer, praying in the leading of the Holy Spirit and with an understanding mind. If understanding is not present, hearers cannot say "Amen" to your prayer.

12. Tongues is not a sign of salvation.

Assurance of salvation comes from faith in God's Bible promises, not from any feelings of tongues.

13. Tongues is not a condition of keeping us saved.

Pentecostalism, as a movement, does not believe in the eternal security of the believer who trusts in Christ alone for salvation. Many Charismatics think that their future preservation depends on continuing in the Charismatic experience. Many fear of grieving the Spirit and losing the power, and hence losing salvation. Some Charismatics do believe in the security of a believer in Christ.

14. Tongues are not a means of attaining holiness.

The nine fruit of the Spirit in Galatians 5:22,23 have no relation to tongues. The Corinthians came behind in no gift (1 Corinthians 1:7), yet Paul called them carnal and babes (1 Corinthians 3:1). True spirituality is not determined by one's experience, gift or feelings, but by inner godly character (e.g. 1 Peter 3:4, "a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price", for ladies.). It is right to be happy, joyful and to praise the Lord, but valuable character is better seen in times of testing, persecution, misunderstanding and suffering.

15. All spiritual gifts should exalt Christ, not the Holy Spirit.

Many Charismatics exalt the Holy Spirit above Christ. The Holy Spirit seeks to exalt Christ (John 15:26; 16:14). Hence the mark of a Spirit filled believer is that in life and speech, he glorifies Christ. (1 Corinthians 12:3).

"Christ shall be magnified in my body." Philippians 1:20; 3:8.

All gifts are given so that we may grow to the "fullness of Christ." Ephesians 4:13.

Charismatics use the earthly, human title "Jesus", as did demons. No disciple ever addressed the Lord as "Jesus", but as Lord, Christ or Master, or Lord Jesus Christ. Let us give Christ His full honour as the Lord Jesus Christ.

16. All gifts were given to produce church unity and harmony.

All gifts were given that there be no schism in the body (1 Corinthians 12:25). Truth unites, error divides. The continual search for tongues, healing, prophecy, gifts etc., has split many churches, broken friendships and divided homes. The Charismatic Movement claims a new kind of unity not based on Bible doctrine, but on having the tongues experience. One can be a "spirit-filled" tongues speaker and believe almost anything. Many Christians who a few years ago opposed the heretical World Council of Churches, now cheerfully unite with Catholic Charismatic renewal, hence compromising essential Bible truths.

17. Tongues and all spiritual gifts were to promote order and peace.

"God is not the author of confusion but of peace." 1 Corinthians 14:33.

"Let all things be done decently and in order." 1 Corinthians 14:40.

Church services should have one person speaking or praying at a time. In today's Charismatic meetings, there is much unrestrained noise, singing, clapping, shouting, tongues and dancing.

18. No Christian should surrender control of his mind and will.

Paul insisted that tongues and prophecy speakers should retain control of their mind and understanding:

"If there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church." 1 Corinthians 14:28.

"The spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets." 1 Corinthians 14:32.

Famous Charismatic leader, Oral Roberts, instructs tongues speakers as follows:

"We have to by-pass our mind and make it inactive for the moment. The mind slips into the background when we are praying in tongues and remains in a state of neutrality." ["Baptism With The Holy Spirit," 1966, p. 42.]

New Age occult seminars similarly tell people to blank out their minds to yield control to some higher force, which in reality is to demons.

The New Testament never asks us to lay aside our sound mind, our self-control, our judgment or our reason, but to exercise these faculties in accordance with God's Word. Charismatics are told to overcome their inhibitions by by-passing their minds. People are brainwashed in cults like Jehovah's Witnesses, Mormons and the Charismatic Movement by surrendering their minds and wills to the group or leader. The danger for a believer who submits his mind without resistance to outside influences to receive tongues, is:

a) He opens himself up to psychic and demonic deception and control.

b) He can place himself beyond the protection of the Holy Spirit, by asking for things contrary to God's will.

19. The last days will experience much deception, signs, lying wonders and more demon activity

Satan has always opposed believers and God's work. Satan opposes us as an angel of light (2 Cor. 11:14). The Corinthian believers were open to Satanic deception of another Jesus, another spirit, and another gospel (11:4) as Satan's ministers come as ministers of righteousness (11:15).

"There shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall show great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect." (Matthew 24:24).

In Old Testament times God permitted false prophets to work miracles in order to test His people.

Two tests of false prophets are:

a) If he performs signs to turn you away from the Lord. (Deuteronomy 13:1-5).

b) If he speaks in the name of the Lord, but the prophecy does not come to pass. (Deut.18:20-22).

Isaiah 8:19 describes familiar spirits that "peep and mutter", like tongues.

Israel rejected the Word of God for more sensational dealings with the spirit world.

Many see the Charismatic Movement as a Satanic deception permitted by God to test Christendom, and to pave the way for the Antichrist and the one world united Babylon religion of the last days.

"Even him (Antichrist) whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, and with all deceivableness....." 2 Thessalonians 2: 9,10.

"Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me ye that work iniquity." (Matthew 7:22,23).

- 20. Charismatics confuse Baptism in the Spirit (a once only experience at salvation -1 Cor. 12:13) with the filling of the Spirit (a continual daily experience for service obtained by confessing sin, prayer, and yielding to Christ. (Ephesians 5:18).
- 21. Doctrinal compromise.
Ministers who deny fundamental Bible truths such as the virgin birth, verbal inspiration, creation, etc. are often warmly welcomed and accepted if they claim a Charismatic experience. Charismatics warmly accept Roman Catholic priests and people who continue to seek salvation through the sacraments, who still pray to Mary, and still celebrate the mass. Doctrinal errors are ignored to keep Charismatic unity.
- 22. Most Charismatics are not diligent students of Scripture.
One can remain comfortable in his false beliefs as long as he refuses to face Biblical evidence to the contrary. One Australian Charismatic pastor could not find the book of Daniel in his Bible. He had to look up the table of contents. He thought Daniel was near Exodus.
- 23. Emphasis on Experience.
Personal experience is a great enemy of truth. When confronted with a mass of Biblical evidence, most Charismatics typically reply: "I know I am right. I have experienced tongues or healing myself. I have seen a prophet make correct predictions. I have seen people healed. The Bible teachings must have another explanation."
Tongues is mostly a learned behaviour. If you blank out your mind, anyone can say gibberish. Most healings are temporary and are achieved by hypnotherapy. What about the false predictions? These make him a false prophet. Studies show that most Charismatic healings revert back to the illness. Hypnotise a person, tell them they feel better, and they will feel better, for a time, but later they revert back to the illness.
- 24. New Revelations.
Charismatics continually claim to receive extra-Biblical revelations from God by tongues, prophecy, visions and dreams. Cults and Catholicism also claim revelations outside the Bible.
- 25. Damage to the local church.
Many Charismatics use a local church as a base for propaganda purposes to invite people to a home Bible study and prayer group governed by self-appointed spiritual leaders who instruct in tongues and try to heal people. A local church seems too confined, compared with many people from many churches coming together for a Charismatic rally.
- 26. Laxity and moral danger.
Some Charismatics think that they have "arrived" spiritually. They often lack motivation to press on further. The goal has been attained. Time for relaxation has come. Such carelessness explains much worldliness, sin and a rock music party atmosphere among Charismatics. Some receive "revelations" to divorce their spouse and remarry another person. Truth and reason then take a back seat.
- 27. Move back to Rome.
The Charismatic Movement reversed the decline of the Ecumenical Movement from 1960. It is not a threat to Rome. Both emphasise emotionalism, miracles, healing, and the lack of final Bible authority. Charismaticism is not true Protestantism because it is not solely based on the Bible.

104. SERIOUS OMISSIONS IN THE NIV BIBLE

Introduction. Is God able to preserve His word to today?

Did Christians from 350 AD to 1881 AD not have the correct Word of God, until the Westcott and Hort heretics “saved the day” for God, the Bible, Christians and the world? Is God in control of Bible preservation or not? If God can give us His infallible word in the first century, is He unable to preserve it for Christians up to the 20th century?

By the year 500 AD, the NT manuscript text chosen by the wealthy upper classes who could afford to ignore the expense, was without exception of the Byzantine/KJV text type. Why?

These parchments being stained with purple and written in silver or gold, tell us that these wealthy, upper class Christians, who had greater knowledge of, and access to the true NT text, clearly preferred the Byzantine KJV text over the Alexandrian papyri. They would have known of the Alexandrian texts as corrupt, and hence rejected them. This is a strong argument for KJV readings. See “The Text of the New Testament” by Kurt Aland, p.77.

1. “Ye shall not ADD unto the WORD which I command you, neither shall ye DIMINISH ought from it,…” Deuteronomy 4:2.
2. “Satan cometh immediately and TAKETH AWAY THE WORD…” Mark 4:15.
3. Jesus said: “Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.” Matthew 5:18.
4. “If any man TAKE AWAY from the WORDS of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city.” Revelation 22:19.

I. KEY CHANGES TO DISCUSS INITIALLY.

1. The NIV in Luke 11:2-4 omits key parts of the LORD’S PRAYER.

The devil would not want us to pray these omitted words.

Matthew 6:9-13 in both KJV and NIV includes these omitted words in the Lord’s Prayer.

NIV, NASB, et al	Luke 11:2-4	KJV
OMIT Father OMIT , hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, OMIT . Give us each day our daily bread. Forgive us our sins for we also forgive everyone who sins against us. And lead us not into temptation OMIT .		Our Father which art in heaven hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven so in earth. Give us day by day our daily bread And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive everyone that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

- a) Which “FATHER”? New Agers pray to another father which is not in heaven, but is the “god of this world”. “Ye are of your father the devil”. John 8:44.
Satan likes being called “Father” because he wants to be like the Most High.
- b) “OUR” must be removed because it opposes the New Age idea of the “universal fatherhood of God”. They think God is the Father of all people. They object to God being the Father only of Christians (John 1:12).
- c) “WHICH ART IN HEAVEN” identifies the Father to be worshipped as God in heaven and not the devil.
- d) “THY WILL BE DONE, AS IN HEAVEN, SO IN EARTH”.
The devil does not want us to pray that God’s will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Hence it is omitted.
- e) “DELIVER US FROM EVIL”. The devil doesn’t want us to pray for God to deliver us from evil but rather he wants evil to come to us. Evil is too black and white. The devil doesn’t want us to think about good and evil, heaven and hell. Hence he removes them from the Luke 11:2-4 Lord’s Prayer in modern versions.

2. The NIV, in Isaiah 14:12, BLASPHEMES CHRIST by putting Him in the place of Lucifer the devil?

NIV	Isaiah 14:12	KJV
How you have fallen from heaven, O MORNING STAR,		How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which did weaken the nations. v.12 Thou hast said in thine heart.... I will be like the most High. v.14
But you are brought down to the GRAVE.		Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell. (v.15)

“Lucifer” (KJV) becomes “Morning Star” (NIV).

But JESUS Christ calls Himself “the bright and morning star” in Revelation 22:16.

So the NIV by inserting “morning star” in Isaiah 14:12,

- a) Removes all mention of Lucifer as the devil’s personal name from Scripture.
- b) Blasphemes Christ by accusing Him as the One who weakens the nations. v.12
- c) Denies Christ’s deity by stating that Christ wanted to be like the most High. v.14
- d) Blasphemes Christ by predicting that He will be brought down to hell. v.15
- e) They change “hell” to “grave”, thus removing the warning against hell. v.15
- f) Blasphemes Christ by saying that He has fallen from heaven. v.12.

Note: “MORNING STAR” (NIV) is a wrong translation because:

- a) “STAR” (3556 Kokab) appears nowhere in Isaiah 14:12.
- b) “MORNING” (7837 shachar) appears only once in v.12, (son of the morning), not twice as NIV claims.
- c) “LUCIFER” (1966 heylel) comes from the root word “to shine” (1984 halal), and means “shining one” or “bright one”.
- d) The Septuagint translates it as:
“How has Lucifer, that rose in the morning, fallen from heaven”.

3. NIV in Micah 5:2 says Christ has an ORIGIN, wrongly making Him a CREATED being.

NIV	Micah 5:2	KJV
whose origins are from of old, from ancient times.		whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting.

Note: This is a sickening heresy for NIV to say that Christ had an origin. It makes Christ a creature, and not God. "Goings forth" in KJV means that Christ always existed.

"Of old" (qedmah in Hebrew, 6924) means eternal, everlasting and is used of Jehovah in Habakkuk 1:12, "Art thou not from everlasting, O Jehovah my God, mine Holy One?" "from everlasting" (olam in Hebrew, 5769) means eternity, always, time out of mind.

4. NIV omits "FORNICATION" from the sins listed with sodomy in Romans 1:29.

NIV	Romans 1:29	KJV
They have become filled with every kind of wickedness,	_____	Being filled with all unrighteousness
OMIT	_____	fornication,
Evil	_____	wickedness,
Greed	_____	covetousness,
Depravity	_____	maliciousness,
They are full of envy	_____	full of envy,
Murder	_____	murder,
Strife	_____	debate,
Deceit	_____	deceit,
Malice	_____	malignity,
They are gossips	_____	whisperers.

Note: The word "fornication" has been completely removed from NIV and replaced with "sexual immorality" which allows the individual to define it.

5. NIV comes from a WRONG SPIRIT because it fails the test of not being able to confess that "Jesus Christ is come in the flesh." I John 4:3.

NIV	I John 4:3	KJV
But every spirit that does not acknowledge Jesus OMIT is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist.		And every spirit that confesseth not that "Jesus Christ is come in the flesh " is not of God, and this is that spirit of antichrist.

This is an amazing test for the NIV to fail, because it proves that the NIV comes from a spirit that is not from God. The NIV cannot confess here that "Jesus Christ is come in the flesh". John says that NIV has the spirit of antichrist, as seen by its many omissions of Christ's names, titles and attributes.

To merely confess "Jesus", is not passing this test, because Paul warns us of people coming and preaching "another Jesus". Which Jesus are they confessing?

They may be confessing a different Jesus - "If he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached..." (II Corinthians 11:4).

II. THE NIV DOWNGRADES JESUS CHRIST.

1. The NIV changes Matthew 5:22 to teach that CHRIST SINNED.

NIV	Matthew 5:22	KJV
Anyone who is angry with his brother OMIT will be subject to judgment.		That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment.

Because Jesus showed righteous anger in Mark 3:5, the NIV makes Christ a sinner subject to judgment. If Christ is a sinner, He cannot be our Saviour.

Bible critics love the NIV here because they claim Christ to be a sinner due to His anger in overthrowing the money changers' tables (John 2:15), and how He looked on the religious leaders with anger at them rebuking Him for healing on the Sabbath in Mark 3:5.

This is another contradiction in modern versions.
The KJV is consistent and without contradictions.

2. NIV denies Jesus' VIRGIN BIRTH in Luke 2:33 by stating that Joseph was Jesus' father. This denies that God was His Father. If Joseph was Jesus's father, then Jesus inherited a sin nature and He would be unable to save us. What a worry if the NIV is true!

NIV	Luke 2:33	KJV
The child's father and mother.		Joseph and his mother marvelled.

3. The NIV denies Christ WORSHIP in 6 out of 12 passages.

NIV (4352)		KJV (4352)
a man with leprosy came and knelt .	Matt. 8:2	there came a leper and worshipped him, a ruler came and knelt before him	9:18	there came a certain ruler and worshipped him.
Woman came and knelt before him.	15:25	Then came she and worshipped him
Servant fell on his knees before OMIT him. (NKJV omits worshipped)	18:26	The servant fell down and worshipped him.
Mother of Zebedee's sons kneeling down . (NKJV omits worship)	20:20	the mother of Zebedee's children worshipping him, he ran and fell on his knees	Mark 5:6	he ran and worshipped him.

Jesus Christ is God because He is worshipped.

"Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and Him only shalt thou serve." Matthew 4:10.

"Let all the angels of God worship him." Hebrews 1:6.

12 times in the New Testament, Jesus is worshipped (Greek: proskuneo 4352), yet the NIV and NASV change worship ⁴³⁵² (KJV) to kneel (NIV) or bow down (NASV).

Question: What is the difference?

Kneel or bow down is a position of the body, whereas worship is an attitude of the spirit.

Worship in Greek is "proskuneo" ⁴³⁵². Bow is "kampto, klino, or tithemi", and is used only in a mocking manner by Christ's executioners. For example:

"and bowing (tithentes) their knees worshipped (prosekunoun) him." Mark 15:19.

The other 6 times that the NIV translates “proskuneo” as “worship are: Matthew 2:11; 14:33; 28:9,17; Luke 24:52; and John 9:38. Why is the NIV inconsistent?

The NIV therefore detracts from Christ’s Deity.

4. The NIV in Ephesians 3:9 removes Christ from being CREATOR.

NIV	Ephesians 3:9	KJV
God, who created all things OMIT		God, who created all things by Jesus Christ.

5. The NIV lowers Christ from being God’s SON and CHILD, to merely God’s SERVANT. All believers are God’s servants.

NIV		KJV
has glorified his servant Jesus.	Acts 3:13	hath glorified his Son Jesus raised up his servant OMIT	Acts 3:26	raised up his Son Jesus.
holy servant Jesus	Acts 4:27	holy child Jesus.
holy servant Jesus	Acts 4:30	holy child Jesus.

6. NIV removes Christ from being our SOURCE OF STRENGTH in Philippians 4:13. New Agers see Philippians 4:13 as a “fill in the blank” deity.

NIV	Philippians 4:13	KJV
I can do everything through him who gives me strength.		I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.

7. The NIV denies that we have been made an HEIR OF GOD through Christ.

NIV	Galatians 4:7	KJV
Since you are a son, God has made you also an heir OMIT		If a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

8. The NIV denies that Christ came to SAVE LOST SINNERS in Matthew 18:11.

NIV	Matthew 18:11	KJV
OMIT		For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.

Why would Westcott and Hort reject Matthew 18:11? Because:

- i) they elevated Sinaiticus and Vaticanus to be the authority over all other manuscripts.
- ii) they add “interpolated either from Luke 19:10 or from an independent source, written or oral” with no historical or manuscript support. Some gullible people believe them. The critical text footnote lists 44 manuscripts with it and 20 without.

9. The NIV changes John 16:16 to deny CHRIST’S ASCENSION

NIV	John 16:16	KJV
In a little while you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me... OMIT		A little while and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father Note: This is in all uncials, all cursives, all versions, Nonnas (3 rd Century), Chrysostom, Cyril (4 th Century)

10. The NIV denies Jesus Christ's DEITY in I Corinthians 15:47.

NIV	I Corinthians 15:47	KJV
the second man is OMIT from heaven.	the second man is THE LORD from heaven.

This verse is a very clear proof that Jesus Christ is God.

Who is "the Lord from heaven"? Only God is the Lord from heaven. Jesus Christ is God.

The NIV follows the Westcott and Hort, and Vaticanus lie and deletes it.

The KJV reading, "the Lord" is supported by the following manuscript evidence:

Uncials: Codex Alexandrinus (400 AD), K, P,

Minuscules: 81,104,181,326,330,436,451,614,629,1241,1739,1877,1881,1962,1984,1985,2127,2492,2495.

All the Lectionaries quoting I Corinthians 15:47.

Ancient versions: Syriac Peshitta (170 AD), Syriac Palestinian (420 AD), Gothic version (341 AD), Syriac Harklensis (616 AD), Armenian (400 AD).

Early writers: Origen, Basil, Chrysostom, Maximinus, Cyril, Euthalius, Theodoret, Cosmas, John of Damascus.

Also, doctrinally, no man has ever originated from heaven, because God dwells in light which no man can approach unto (I Timothy 6:16), and all men originate from earth. Even Christ's humanity originated from earth. However, Christ's deity came from heaven.

11. NIV denies Jesus' OMNIPRESENCE and hence denies Jesus' DEITY in John 3:13.

NIV	John 3:13	KJV
No one has ever gone into heaven except the one who came from heaven the Son of man OMIT .	And no man hath ascended up to heaven but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

Q1: How can Jesus talk to Nicodemus at Jerusalem and be in heaven at the same time?

Answer: Only God can be in 2 places at once, so John 3:13 shows that Jesus is God.

Hence the NIV coming from corrupt Vaticanus and Westcott and Hort, omits this proof passage of Jesus Christ's Deity.

Q2: Why does the footnote not tell us that the clause omitted "which is in heaven", is contained in all manuscripts in the world, except 5 of bad character?

It is found in all the Latin versions and all the Syriac versions, the Coptic, Ethiopic, Georgian and Armenian versions (10 versions), and by 38 church fathers.

995 manuscripts have it, with 5 omitting it (Burgon).

The NIV, by omitting this phrase, and not informing the reader of the great mass of manuscript evidence for its inclusion, serves to perplex the weak, unsettle the doubting, and to mislead the ill-informed. We retain this phrase because:

i) It is quoted by manuscripts from every area of ancient Christendom, ii) It is more ancient (by 200 years) than the manuscript evidence for omitting it.

iii) It is quoted by more manuscripts, in the proportion of 99 for to 1 against it.

iv) It is quoted by highly respected writers. Origen, Didymus, Epiphanius, Cyril, Athanasius, Ambrose, Hippolytus 200 AD (vol. 5, p.225), Novatian 220 AD (vol 5. p.622) and Jerome, all quote and recognise the words in dispute.

Some early writers (Origen, and Jerome) sometimes end the verse at "Son of man" because they are emphasizing the first part of the verse. "The Revision Revised," J. Burgon, p.133

12. The NIV denies Jesus Christ's DEITY in I Timothy 3:16

NIV	I Timothy 3:16	KJV
HE appeared in a body.		GOD was manifest in the flesh

This change from "God" (KJV) to "He" (NIV) sabotages the verse most strongly proving that Jesus Christ is 100% God. (Westminster Confession, Section 8, par.2).

John Burgon in "The Revision Revised", p.485-497, shows that "God" (theos) is the correct reading because:

1) "Theos" (God) is the reading in 300 Greek manuscripts containing I Timothy 3:16. Only 5 late manuscripts (9th, 12th, 13th Century) omit "God". The Uncials, Aleph, A and C have been altered so that either "God" or "who" can be deduced. (see point 5).

2) All the Lectonaries from the 4th Century onwards read "Theos" (God).

3) Early Church writers quote "Theos" meaning "God" as follows:

First Century: Ignatius (90 AD) in 3 places, Barnabus (90 AD).

Second Century: Hippolytus (190 AD) in 2 places in the second century.

Third Century: Thaumaturgus (270 AD), Dionysius of Alexandria (264 AD), the work "Constitutiones Apostolicae" (250 AD).

Fourth Century: Didymus of Alexandria (309 AD), Basil the Great (355 AD), Gregory of Nazianzus (355 AD) in 2 places, Gregory of Nyssa (370 AD), Diodorus (370), Chrysostom (380 AD) in 3 places.

Fifth Century: Codex Alexandrinus, (420 AD) Cyril of Alexandria (410 AD) in 2 places, Theodoret of Syria (420 AD) in 4 places, Athanasius' appendix (430 AD), Euthalius (458 AD), Macedonius II (496 AD).

Sixth Century: Severus of Antioch (512 AD), etc.

4) Ancient versions showing "God" are:

The Latin version (195 AD), Syriac Peshito version (170 AD), Harklean version (616 AD), Gothic version (341 AD), Ethiopic version (450 AD), Georgian version (550 AD), Slavonic Version (840 AD).

5) Greek grammar rule forbids "os" meaning "who" because:

"mystery" being a neuter noun (in Greek), cannot be followed by masculine pronoun (os) - "who". (p.426 Burgon).

Also, the few (6) manuscripts which have "who" (os) in the place of "God", do not have a complete sentence without the subject "God".

"Who was manifest in the flesh" makes no sense.

Also, logically, there would be no mystery in a man being manifested in the flesh.

The NIV, to avoid having a clause with no subject, arbitrarily drops the word "who" and invents a new word "He", which is not found in any Greek manuscript.

6) The uncials Aleph, A & C have been altered so that either "God" or "who" can be deduced. Although the middle stroke that distinguishes "God" from "who" has been retouched, the fine original stroke is discernible at each end of the fuller stroke of the corrector. (os) is the abbreviation of God in the manuscripts.

See Wetstein in 1716, quoted in "True or False", D.O. Fuller, p.33.

13. The NIV denies the TRINITY and DEITY of CHRIST in I John 5:7,8. This is called “The Johannine Comma”.

NIV	I John 5:7,8	KJV
For there are three that testify OMIT OMIT OMIT OMIT the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and the three are in agreement.		For there are three that (oi=masc) bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one. And there are three that bear record in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood and these (oi=masc) three agree in one”.

I John 5:7,8 is omitted by all modern versions. It is called the “famous Trinitarian Proof text”. Modernists claim that this passage ought not to be in the Bible, because it is not in most Greek manuscripts. Only 6 Greek manuscripts before the 7th Century omit v.7,8. (14 manuscripts before the 9th Century).

Background: Erasmus omitted it from his first edition of the printed Greek N.T. (1516), because it occurred in the Latin Vulgate and not in any Greek manuscript. To quieten the outcry that followed, he agreed to restore it if one Greek manuscript could be found containing it. Two Greek manuscripts, Codex 61 and 629 were presented, so Erasmus included it in his 1522 edition. Since these manuscripts are late (15th and 16th centuries) some think the readings are corrupt. What do we answer?

What early manuscript evidence exists for I John 5:7,8?

i) Early church writers:

- Cyprian 200-258 AD. “The Lord says, ‘I and the Father are one;’ and again it is written of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, ‘And these three are one’.”
If Cyprian quotes I John 5:7 from his Bible in 200-258 AD, it must be a valid reading. His Bible was copied from an older manuscript containing this verse. Cyprian lived only 100 years after John wrote the book of I John. Cyprian would have had access to the original manuscript to check.
- Priscillian 350 AD, a Spanish bishop quotes I John 5:7,8.
- Idacius Clarus 360 AD, who opposed Priscillian quotes it.
- Varimadum 380 AD.
- Cassiodorus 485 AD.
- Cassian 435 AD.
- Victor Vita 489 AD.
- Jerome 450 AD.
- Fulgentius 533 AD.
- Ps. Vigilius 484 AD.
- Ansbert 660 AD.

ii) Early Bible Versions: Old Syriac 170 AD.

- Old Latin 200 AD, in North Africa and Italy.
- Italic 4th and 5th century. – Italic - Monacensis 7th century.
- Italic - Speculum 9th century.
- Latin Vulgate 4th, 5th century.

iii) Greek minuscule manuscripts: (UBS Greek NT, p.824; History of Debate over I John 5:7,8,p268).

- 221 in the 10th century.(variant). – 636 in the 15th century. (margin).
- 88 in the 12th century.(margin). – 61 in the 16th century.(Codex Montfortianus)
- 629 in the 14th century.(Ottobanianus) – 918 in the 16th century. (an Escorial ms).
- 429 in the 14th century (margin). – 2318 (a Bucharest manuscript).

iv) Early writings: Liber Apologeticus 350 AD. Council of Carthage 415 AD.

v) The heavenly and earthly witnesses in I John 1:9 confirm the existence of the heavenly and earthly witnesses in I John 5:7,8.

“If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater.” I John 5:9.

vi) There are 5 Greek papyri dated to the third century with curious gaps in I John 5:7,8 vii) Greek grammar rules demand its presence. NIV has mismatched genders in v. 7,8.

Question 1: If the NIV is right in omitting the Johannine comma, then why do we have a masculine Greek article (oi) in v.7 (oi marturoentes = that bear record in heaven) wrongly agreeing with three neuter nouns (Spirit, water and blood) in v.8?

Spirit, water and blood are all neuter Greek nouns with neuter Greek articles, which would dictate a neuter Greek article in v.7, (if the Johannine comma was never in the original), but we have masculine articles (oi) in v.7,8. Why?

Question 2: What is it that causes the masculine Greek article (oi) in v.7 and (oi) in v.8?

Answer: It is the two masculine nouns (Father and Word) of the Johannine comma in v.7. These control the gender of the article connected with them to be a masculine article (oi) which is what we have.

Hence the problem is solved if the Johannine comma is part of the Greek text.

Therefore, the NIV and NWT have wrong Greek grammar by omitting the Johannine comma, as seen by them having a masculine article in verse 7 wrongly agreeing with three neuter nouns (Spirit, water and blood) in verse 8.

Question 3: Why would the Johannine Comma be absent from some Greek manuscripts, but present in the Latin manuscripts?

Firstly, because of a similar ending in v.7 and v.8, a scribe may have been distracted in v.7, but when resuming his copying, his eye fell on v.8 from where he continued copying, thus accidentally omitting the Johannine Comma.

Copies of this would have multiplied the mistake.

Secondly, between 220-270 AD, the heresy that Greek Christians were fighting was not Arianism (denying Christ’s deity) as this had not yet arisen, but Sabellianism (named after Sabellius) which taught that the Father, Son and Holy Spirit were identical, and that God the Father died on the cross when Christ died on the cross. The statement in the Johannine comma that “these three are one” seemed to support the Sabellian heresy that the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are identical. If, during the course of this controversy, manuscripts were discovered which had accidentally lost the Johannine Comma as described above, it is easy to see how the orthodox party would consider these mutilated manuscripts to be the true text. In the Greek speaking east, where the struggle against Sabellianism was most intense, the Johannine comma came to be unanimously rejected.

However, in the Latin manuscripts of Africa and Spain, where the influence of Sabellianism was not so great, the Johannine Comma was retained. This explains why the Johannine comma is strongly represented in the Latin manuscripts, and why we should retain it today. Source: “KJV defended”. E.F. Hills, p.204-208.

14. The NIV denies Jesus Christ’s RESURRECTION BODY in Ephesians 5:30.

NIV	Ephesians 5:30	KJV
For we are members of his body OMIT		For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

The NIV caters to the New Age movement which allows for an afterlife of the soul or spirit, but does not believe in a bodily resurrection.

NIV	Acts 2:30	KJV
But he was a prophet, and knew that God had promised him on oath that he would place one of his descendants OMIT on his throne.		Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne.

This omission by NIV removes the fleshly, bodily resurrection of Christ.

15. Each of these 4 NIV alterations detracts from Christ's RIGHT TO JUDGE.

NIV		KJV
We will all stand before God's judgment seat. (According to NIV, God is the judge, not Christ).	Romans 14:10	We shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ .
That the day of the Lord	II Thess. 2:2	that the day of Christ is at hand.
We should not test the Lord	I Cor. 10:9	Neither let us tempt Christ .
To seat one of his descendants upon his throne.	Acts 2:30	He would raise up Christ to sit on his throne.

16. The NIV removes "LORD" 39 times, "CHRIST" 52 times, and "JESUS" 87 times from the KJV New Testament. This is 178 removals of our Saviour's name.

It is very important to give Jesus Christ His rightful position as "Lord".

- i) "God hath made that same Jesus whom ye have crucified both Lord and Christ." Acts 2:36
- ii) "That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified." II Thessalonians 1:4,12.
- iii) "If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus...thou shalt be saved." Rom 10:9
"No man can say that Jesus is the Lord but by the Holy Ghost." I Corinthians 12:3.
- iv) "Certain men crept in unawares....ungodly men....denying the only Lord God and our Lord Jesus Christ". Jude 4.
- v) "There shall be false teachers among you...even denying the Lord..." II Peter 2:1.

Lord used in conjunction with Jesus Christ proves His eternal Deity and pre-existence. "Lord" connects Jesus Christ of the New Testament, with "LORD" of the Old Testament. Jehovah, Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit are alone given this title. II Corinthians 3:17.

17. NIV doesn't want Christ to be SET OVER the works of creation in Hebrews 2:7.

NIV	KJV
You have made him a little lower than the angels, You crowned him with glory and honour, OMIT	Thou madest him a little lower than the angels, thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands

Having a kingdom without Christ as King is the vision of Amillennialists, and New Age millennialists. They do not want Christ's Kingdom to come.

III. THE NIV CHANGES SALVATION VERSES.

1. The NIV in Mark 10:24 says it is HARD TO ENTER the kingdom of God.

NIV	Mark 10:24	KJV
Children, how hard it is OMIT to enter the kingdom of God.		Children, how hard it is for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God.

It is very hard to enter the kingdom if you have to work to enter.

For those who trust their riches, they feel so secure that they don't need Christ.

It is easy to enter the kingdom if you humble yourself and call on Christ to save you.

A rich person will find it very hard to humble himself and call on Christ to save him.

2. The NIV omits CHRIST'S BLOOD in Colossians 1:14.

NIV	Colossians 1:14	KJV
In whom we have redemption OMIT the forgiveness of sins.		In whom we have redemption through his blood even the forgiveness of sins.

We all know that salvation is by the shed blood of Christ.

“without the shedding of blood is no remission.” Hebrews 9:22.

Maybe the devil wants “the blood” out of the Bible, because believers overcome the devil by “the blood of the Lamb.” Revelation 12:11.

3. NIV teaches UNIVERSALISM (ie. that everybody is or will be saved).

NIV (God is in all = pantheism)	KJV (God is in Christians)
One God and Father...in OMIT all.	Eph. 4:6	One God and Father...in you all.
The nations OMIT will walk by its light.	Rev. 21:24	The nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it:

4. NIV teaches here that SALVATION IS A PROCESS that one grows in.

NIV	I Peter 2:2	KJV
Like newborn babes, crave pure spiritual milk OMIT so that by it you may grow up in your salvation.		As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word that ye may grow thereby.

We “grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ” (II Peter 3:18), and “your faith groweth exceedingly” (II Thessalonians 1:3), but never does the Scripture say that we “grow up in our salvation”. This is because the UBS Greek text adds words “eis soterion” (in salvation), which are not in KJV/Textus Receptus. All Scripture teaches that salvation is an event occurring at one instant of time. A baby doesn't grow up in his birth, but in his new life. The NIV, by translating the Greek word “logikon” as “spiritual” instead of “the word”, points people away from the Word of God as the method of growth.

5. NIV teaches PROCESS Theology. Bible salvation is being born again in an instant.

NIV		KJV
who are turning to God	Acts 15:19	are turned to God.
to us who are being saved	I Cor 1:18	us which are saved.
those who are being saved	II Cor 2:15	in them that are saved.
you, because the darkness is passing	I John 2:8	you: because the darkness is past .

6. Consider these 8 NIV omissions which ALTER DETAILS OF THE GOSPEL.

Question: In John 6:47, what must a person believe to have eternal life?

KJV says we must believe on Christ, but NIV omits this.

NIV		KJV
He who believes OMIT has everlasting life.	John 6:47	He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.
blessing of OMIT Christ	Rom 15:29	blessing of the gospel of Christ
In preaching the gospel I may offer it OMIT free of charge, and so not make use of my rights in preaching it .	I Cor 9:18	When I preach the gospel I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, I abuse not my power in the gospel .
you, because the darkness is passing	I John 2:8	you: because the darkness is past .
OMIT neither circumcision...	Gal. 6:15	For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth anything,
You also were included in Christ	Eph. 1:13	In whom ye also trusted ,
Redemption of those who are God's OMIT possession.	Eph. 1:14	redemption of the purchased possession
OMIT This is my body which is OMIT for you.	I Cor. 11:24	Take eat , this is my body, which is broken for you:

7. The NIV MINIMIZES OUR NEED TO BE SAVED.

The New Age movement says there's nothing to be saved from.

NIV		KJV
OMIT	Matt. 18:11	For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost .
OMIT	Luke 9:55,56	For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them .
The nations OMIT will walk by its light.	Rev. 21:24	The nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it.

8. NIV omits a key verse showing that salvation cannot be partly by works and partly by grace. It is impossible to mix grace and works, for one cancels the other. Salvation is free.

NIV		Romans 11:6b		KJV
OMIT		But if it be of works then it is no more grace : otherwise work is no more work.

9. The NIV MINIMISES MAN'S SIN.

NIV		KJV
though the Lord makes his life a guilt offering.	Isaiah 53:10	When thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin.
Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed OMIT	I Cor. 5:7	Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us
Christ suffered OMIT in his body	I Peter 4:1	Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh for the sins the people had committed in ignorance	Heb. 9:7	for the errors of the people (not in Greek) experts in the law rejected Gods purpose for themselves	Luke 7:30	Lawyers rejected the counsel of God against themselves.

10. NIV in Romans 1:16 is ashamed of the gospel of Christ because it omits “of Christ.”

NIV	Romans 1:16	KJV
I am not ashamed of the Gospel OMIT , because...		For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ: for...

Which gospel is the NIV talking about?

Paul warns us about many other false gospels in II Corinthians 11:4, (“another gospel”) but only the “gospel of Christ” is the true Gospel.

“If any man preach any other gospel unto you.....let him be accursed.” Galatians 1:9.

IV. CHANGES THAT DIMINISH GODLINESS.

1. The NIV goes easy and vague on sodomites or HOMOSEXUALS in the following 5 verses, replacing it with “male shrine prostitutes”, an obsolete archaic profession.

One can be a practising homosexual, but not a male shrine prostitute or a homosexual offender. This removes any Bible criticism or warning against homosexuality.

The NIV’s Dr. Virginia Mollencott says:

“My lesbianism has always been a part of me”. Episcopal Witness, June 1991.

NIV		KJV
not a shrine prostitute	Deut. 23:17	nor a sodomite
He expelled the male shrine prostitutes	I Kings 15:12	took away the sodomites.
He rid the land of the rest of the male shrine prostitutes	I Kings 22:46	the remnant of the sodomites , he took out
The male shrine prostitutes	II Kings 23:7	the houses of the sodomites
Nor male prostitutes nor homosexual offenders	I Cor. 6:9	not effeminate , nor abusers of themselves with mankind

The NIV editors aided the AIDS epidemic by silencing God’s warnings against sodomy.

2. The NIV omits “TAKE UP THE CROSS” in Mark 10:21.

NIV	Mark 10:21	KJV
Then come, OMIT follow me		and come, take up the cross , and follow me

New Christianity has put down their cross, not liking death to self (Galatians 2:20). They choose a “crown”, not a “cross”; “Happy” not “holy”; “easy” not “right”; and “now” not “later”.

The temptation to skip the cross, and capture the crown was presented to Christ by Satan in the wilderness. (Matthew 4, Luke 4).

For Jesus and Christians, the cross comes first, then the crown comes later in heaven.

“If we suffer with him; we shall reign with him”. II Timothy 2:12.

The devil doesn’t want us to fight him, but to take it easy.

3. The NIV adds “WITHOUT PASSING JUDGMENT” to Romans 14:1, which opens the door for all kinds of sin entering a church.

NIV	Romans 14:1	KJV
Accept him whose faith is weak, without passing judgment on disputable matters	Him that is weak in the faith receive ye, but not to doubtful disputations

In this verse, the NIV and the New Age movement say don’t judge anyone.

The NIV tones down sin in this verse so as not to offend anyone or condemn sinners. Many people today want a Bible that shows no act as sinful.

KJV means: “don’t receive him if he is going to dispute over doubtful issues”.

NIV here means the opposite: “Accept him, don’t judge him, no matter what he believes”.

The NIV here means when you have a dispute, don’t judge anyone.

4. NIV omits “DON’T BEAR FALSE WITNESS” in Romans 13:9.

NIV	Romans 13:9	KJV
The Commandments Do not commit adultery, Do not murder, Do not steal OMIT Do not covet	For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet

Question: Why did they drop the 8th commandment from Romans 13:9?

Question: Isn’t changing or omitting from God’s Word a form of “bearing false witness”?

There are many man-made doctrines, such as celibacy, mass, purgatory, penance, prayers to Mary and Saints, infant sprinkling, confirmation, penance, idolatry, indulgences, gospel of works, confessional, inquisition etc, which bear false witness of God’s will.

5. NIV omits the command to PARTAKE WORTHILY in the Lord’s Supper.

NIV	I Corinthians 11:29	KJV
For anyone who eats and drinks OMIT without recognizing the body of the Lord eats and drinks judgment on himself.	For he that eateth and drinketh UNWORTHILY eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord’s body.

Roman Catholicism teaches that participating in the Mass is essential to gain salvation. The NIV in I Cor. 11:29 omits the word “unworthily”. Why? The word “unworthily” in the KJV means that we need to be right with God (saved and sin confessed) BEFORE we take the Lord’s Supper or God will chasten us.

On the other hand, Roman Catholic doctrine of Communion says:

1. Confess sin to a priest first, then
2. Come to Mass to get salvation and worthiness to God AFTER the mass.

Catholic trusting the Mass for salvation, means that “eating Christ’s flesh” makes us worthy to God, yet the KJV “unworthily” means that we must be worthy BEFORE the Lords Supper. I Corinthians 11:28 says that we must examine ourselves and v.31 says that we must first judge ourselves in order to then partake in the Lord’s Supper worthily.

The United Bible Society NT Critical apparatus Greek text gives over 53 manuscripts which contain “unworthily”, and only 14 that omit “unworthily”, a ratio of 4:1.

6. The NIV omits or minimises references to BIBLE STUDY in the following verses.

NIV		KJV
Man shall not live on bread alone OMIT	Luke 4:4	Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God
Be diligent (Devil doesn’t want us to study the Bible)	I Tim. 4:15	Meditate upon these things: (Gk 3191 – to consider, weigh, ponder over something, so as to be able to perform well. Equal to meditate.) S Zodhiates
Do your best to present yourself (Devil doesn’t want us to study the Bible)	II Tim 2:15	Study to show thyself approved
Be shepherds (only Christ is stated as our Shepherd)	Acts 20:28	Feed the church of God (means: feed them Bible doctrine).
The word of God is living and active (A butterfly is active, but not powerful)	Heb. 4:12	The word of God is quick and powerful

The devil doesn’t want us to study, meditate, feed people, live by or have confidence in the power of God’s Word the Bible. We thus see the devil’s influence in the NIV.

7. The NIV omits “FASTING” 5 times, and weakens our PRAYER LIFE 3 times.

NIV		KJV
OMIT	Matthew 17:21	This kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting.
This kind can come out only by prayer. OMIT	Mark 9:29	This kind can come forth by nothing but by prayer and fasting
in hunger	II Cor 6:5	in fastings
devote yourselves to OMIT prayer	I Cor 7:5	give yourselves to fasting and prayer
Four days ago I was OMIT praying	Acts 10:30	Four days ago I was fasting and prayed pray OMIT that	Luke 21:36	pray always that in prayer OMIT	Acts 1:14	in prayer and supplication
the OMIT prayer	James 5:16	the effectual fervent prayer

8. The NIV has removed HONESTY 13 times, replacing it with vaguer words.

Do you think that the KJV might produce more honest Christians than modern versions?

The word “honesty” is not a part of the New Age vocabulary.

NIV		KJV
those with a noble and good heart	Luke 8:15	they, which in an honest and good heart
choose seven men from among you who are known to be OMIT full of the OMIT Spirit	Acts 6:3	Look ye out among you seven men of honest report , full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom,
Be careful to do what is right in the eyes of everybody.	Rom 12:17	Provide things honest in the sight of all men.
OMIT	Rom 13:9	Thou shalt not bear false witness.
Let us behave decently ,	Rom 13:13	Let us walk honestly ,
Rather, we have renounced secret and shameful ways	II Cor. 4:2	But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty .
Taking pains to do what is right whatever is noble ,	II Cor. 8:21	Providing for honest things,
So that your daily life may win the respect of outsiders,	Phil. 4:8	Whatsoever things are honest , in all godliness and holiness	I Thes 4:12	That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, desire to live honourably in	I Tim. 2:2	life in all godliness and honesty live such good lives	Heb. 13:18	in all things willing to live honestly .
found them false	I Peter 2:12	Having your conversation honest who turn aside to false gods	Rev. 2:2	hast found them liars
they have been led astray by false gods	Psalm 40:4	such as turn aside to lies
	Amos 2:4	their lies caused them to err.

16 times the NIV avoids using the strong words of “honest, deceit, lies”, in every case using a vague, watered down alternative. The KJV does not lie.

“Surely they are my people, children that will not lie: so he was their Saviour” Isaiah 63:8

9. The NIV changes “RIGHTEOUSNESS” (KJV) to “PROSPERITY”.

“Men shall be....covetous” II Timothy 3:1,2.

NIV		KJV
with me are...wealth and prosperity .	Prov. 8:18	with me are...riches and righteousness .
finds life, prosperity and honour.	Prov.21:21	findeth life, righteousness and honour.
OMIT	Rom. 9:28	cut it short in righteousness.

There is a big difference between being prosperous and being righteous.

One can be prosperous, but not righteous.

The Laodicean church was “rich and increased with goods, but....wretched, miserable, poor” Revelation 3:17,18.

10. The NIV tells us to take PRIDE in ourselves, or to BOAST, whereas God resists the proud (James 4:6; I Peter 5:5). The New Age movement calls for extra self esteem.

“The Bible never urges self acceptance, self love, self confidence, self esteem nor any other selfisms popular today. The seductive gospel of self-esteem is now preached by prominent pastors”. D. Hunt.

“God resisteth the proud”. (James 4:6; I Peter 5:5). “The pride of life” (I John 2:16).

“being lifted up with pride, he fall into the condemnation of the devil”. I Timothy 3:6.

“pride goeth before destruction”. Proverbs 16:18.

Notice how the NIV changes “rejoicing” (Greek: kauchaomai) to “pride or boasting” (Gk: huperephanos). The word for “pride or boast” (Gk: huperephanos) is not in these verses.

NIV		KJV
Now this is our boast .	I Cor. 1:12	For our rejoicing is this you can boast of us just as	II Cor. 1:14	we are your rejoicing
we will boast of you to take pride in us	II Cor. 5:12	to glory on our behalf
I take great pride in you.	II Cor. 7:4	great is my glorving of you
Then he can take pride in himself	Gal. 6:4	then shall he have rejoicing brother...ought to take pride	James 1:9	brother of low degree rejoice
the rich should take pride in his low position, (note: “should take pride” is not in any Greek ms)	James 1:10	But the rich, in that he is made low

The NIV promotes self esteem by removing meekness 31 times (KJV) to 4 times (NIV).

11. The NIV changes “WORD” to “MESSAGE”. “Words” are accurate, but a “message” allows for less accuracy and some error. Dynamic Equivalence Theory is false.

NIV attacks inerrancy of Bible		KJV “the Word”
OMIT	Acts 10:37	That word tell the people the full message	Acts 5:20	to the people all the words ⁴⁴⁸⁷
who heard the message ...	Acts 4:4	them which heard the word ³⁰⁵⁶
These are not the sayings	John 10:21	These are not the words ⁴⁴⁸⁷ of him because you say so	Luke 5:5	at thy word ⁴⁴⁸⁷ I will let down the net catch Jesus in something he said	Luke 20:20	take hold of his words ³⁰⁵⁶
his message had authority.	Luke 4:32	for his word was with power ³⁰⁵⁶
the message of the Lord	II Thess3:1	the word ³⁰⁴⁶ of the Lord...free course

Greek: Rhema (4487) = to utter definite words; logos (3056) = word spoken as the expression of intelligence. S. Zodhiates

It is well known that the devil hates the word of God, hence we see “the word” replaced with something else in new versions.

NIV translators do not believe that the Bible is the 100% inspired Word of God.

The infallible Word of God becomes merely a message for a period of time (age).

The NIV is a deliberate attempt to destroy the doctrine of verbal inspiration of the Bible.

“If any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life and out of the holy city.....” Revelation 22:19.

God considers every word to be important. Words are the building blocks of any message.

To change the words is to change the message.

The Bible is “God’s message” and not his words, contends Linton. He believes the Bible is “the wrong side of a beautiful embroidery. The picture is still there, but knotted, blurry - not beautiful, not perfect.” He calls Christians “amusingly uninformed”, who “presume the Holy Spirit dictated the actual words of the text of the original writers”.

“The NIV: Making of a Contemporary Translation” p.17-19, 34, 111, 117.

“For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law.” Matthew 5:18. (A “jot” is the smallest letter and a tittle is the smallest ornament placed on a letter.)

Spurgeon rejected Westcott and Hort’s changed Revised Version as a “TRICK to play”, as “belittling inspiration and inerrancy” and as a “loss of infallibility.”

From C.H. Spurgeon’s ‘Final Manifesto’ given to his students at his Baptist College, April 1891.

“It is sadly common among ministers to add a word or subtract a word from the passage, or in some way debase the language of sacred writ....Our reverence for the Great Author of Scripture should forbid all mauling of His Words...

No alteration of Scripture can by any possibility be an improvement...Today it is still the self-same mighty Word of God that it was in the hands of our Lord Jesus...

If this Book be not infallible, where shall we find infallibility? We have given up the Pope, for he has blundered often and terribly, but we shall set up instead of him a horde of little popelings, fresh from college....Are these correctors of Scripture infallible? Is it certain that our Bibles are not right, but that the critics must be so?...But where shall infallibility be found? ‘The depth saith, It is not in me’ yet those who have no depth at all would have us imagine that it is in them; or else by perpetual change they hope to hit upon it!”

All possibility of certainty is transferred from the spiritual man to a class of persons whose scholarship is pretentious, but who do not even pretend to spirituality. We shall gradually be so bedoubted and becriticized that only a few of the most profound will know what is the Bible and what is not, and they will dictate to all the rest of us. I have no more faith in their mercy than their accuracy....They will rob us of all that we hold most dear, and glory in the cruel deed. This same ‘reign of terror’ we will not endure, for we still believe that God reveals Himself rather to babes than to the wise and prudent....We do not despise learning, but we will never say of culture or criticism, ‘These be thy gods, O Israel.’”
Do you see WHY men would lower the degree of inspiration in Holy Writ, and would fain reduce us to be supplanted ...whenever a man begins to lower your view of inspiration, it is because he has a trick to play, which is not easily performed in the light....To these who belittle inspiration and inerrancy we will give place by subjection, no, not for an hour!”

(This was proclaimed 10 years AFTER the Revised Version was published in 1881, engineered and dominated by Westcott & Hort whose Greek Text theory (“the oldest is the best”) has proven to be the worst imaginable).

12. The NIV in these verses discourages Christians from SEEKING TO BE PERFECT or complete. The NIV here waters down perfection. (The omitted parts of Matt. 5:44 are hard to do).

NIV		KJV
So that the man of God may be OMIT , thoroughly equipped for every good work.	II Tim. 3:17	That the man of God may be perfect , thoroughly furnished unto all good works.
.....who are loved by God.	Jude 1who are sanctified by God
Love your enemies OMIT OMIT and pray for those who OMIT persecute you.	Matt. 5:44	Love your enemies bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you.

13. The NIV in these verses encourages FIERCENESS by these omissions and changes. “Men shall be ... fierce” II Timothy 3:2.

NIV		KJV
OMIT	Matt. 5:44	do good to them that hate you.
OMIT	Mark 11:26	But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses.
envy OMIT	Gal. 5:21	envyings murders *
Don't extort money.	Luke 3:14	Do violence to no man,
not lovers of the good.	II Tim. 3:3	despisers of those that are good one who loves what is good.	Titus 1:8	a lover of good men.

* “Neither repented they of their murders”. Revelation 9:21 (in the Tribulation).

14. The NIV in these verses changes “BLASPHEMY” (KJV) to “SLANDER”. Blasphemy means “speaking evil of God, claiming the attributes of God”.

NIV		KJV
Out of the heart comes slander	Matthew 15:19	Out of the heart proceed.. blasphemies
slander	Mark 7:22	blasphemy
rid yourselves of... slander	Col. 3:8	put off... blasphemy
People will be..... abusive	II Tim. 3:2	Men shall be... blasphemers
no one will malign the word of God.	Titus 2:5	the word of God be not blasphemed.
They said many other insulting things to him	Luke 22:65	Many other things blasphemously they spake against him.
who are slandering	James 2:7	Do they not blaspheme that worthy....
became abusive	Acts 18:6	opposed themselves and blasphemed
I know the slander	Rev 2:9	I know the blasphemy of them to slander his name	Rev 13:6	to blaspheme his name

Slander is speaking evil of men. Blasphemy is speaking evil of God.

Blaspheme (or a derivative) occurs 58 times in KJV and 39 times in NIV.

15. The NIV in these verses DISHONOURS GOD.

NIV		KJV
the only OMIT God.	I Tim 1:17	the only wise God.
Grace, OMIT and peace from God	Titus 1:4	Grace, mercy and peace from God
I was angry with.....	Heb. 3:10	I was grieved with that generation (Ps 95:10)

The NIV in Titus 1:4 and Hebrews 3:10 shows God to be unmerciful and angry,

The KJV here glorifies God showing Him as merciful and grieved at sin, yet loving the sinner.

16. The NIV glosses over or COVERS UP the evil in mankind.

The NIV and champions of self-esteem portray man as lovable and attractive.

The KJV shows man as a disobedient, wicked, vile, envious, superstitious, weak, ignorant transgressor. Notice how the NIV paints a better picture of man:

NIV		KJV
OMIT	Luke 22:64	they struck him on the face
OMIT	Luke 22:68	nor let me go
OMIT	Luke 11:54	that they might accuse him
OMIT	Matt. 15:8	This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth
OMIT	Mark 15:28	And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, "And he was numbered with the transgressors ".
The wrath of God is coming OMIT	Col. 3:6	the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience.
You are very religious.	Acts 17:22	ye are too superstitious.
our lowly bodies.	Phil. 3:21	our vile body
My conscience is clear.	I Cor. 4:4	I know nothing of myself.
we speak as men approved of God.	I Thess. 2:4	We were allowed of God
OMIT ...He will punish those who do not know God.	II Thess. 1:8	In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God
the whole world is under the control of the wicked one.	I John 5:19	the whole world lieth in wickedness
Woe to the OMIT earth.	Rev. 12:12	Woe to the inhabiters of the earth.

17. NIV omits "HOLY" nine times, where the word is in the Greek Received Text.

	NIV		KJV
ANGELS	All the OMIT angels	Matt. 25:31	all the holy angels with him
HOLY SPIRIT	OMIT Spirit had not been given	John 7:39	Holy Ghost was not yet given the OMIT Spirit was	Acts 8:18	The Holy Ghost was given
	The OMIT Spirit	I Cor. 2:13	The Holy Ghost teacheth
DEACONS	Choose seven men from among you OMIT full of the Spirit	Acts 6:3	Look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost
WIDOWS	OMIT	I Cor. 7:34	That she may be holy
BRETHREN	OMIT	I Thess 5:27	All the holy brethren
SCRIPTURE WRITERS	OMIT	II Peter 1:21	Holy men of God spake
This lowers divine inspiration by denying the holiness of those whom God used to write Scripture.
PROPHETS	The spirits of the prophets	Rev. 22.6	Of the holy prophets
Satan doesn't want angels, deacons, widows, brethren, Scripture writers or prophets to be holy.

V. NIV CHANGES WHICH SUPPORT CATHOLIC IDEAS

By changing some verses which are contrary to Catholic ideas, the NIV becomes more attractive to Catholics therefore opening up the market to Catholics. It also promotes the ecumenical movement, making it easier for Protestants and Catholics to work together.

1. Acts 8:37 disproves Catholic INFANT BAPTISM. NIV omits this verse.

NIV	Acts 8:37	KJV
OMIT	And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God

Roman Catholicism sprinkles water on babies and calls it baptism.

Acts 8:37 strongly and clearly disproves this Catholic practice.

The NIV omits Acts 8:37, because the Eunuch having just been saved, and wishing to be baptised states the condition for correct Bible baptism to take place as being.

“I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God”.

Question: Can a new born baby believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God? No, never!

Hence Acts 8:37 presents a real problem to Roman Catholic infant sprinklers, because it disallows babies from being baptised because babies CANNOT satisfy the condition of believing that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

Manuscripts that contain Acts 8:37 are Minuscles, 33, 104, 629, 630, 945, 1739, 1877.

Early church writers: Irenaeus (202 AD), Tertullian (220 AD), Cyprian (258 AD), Ambrosiaster (350 AD), Pacian (392 AD), Ambrose (397 AD), Augustine (430 AD).

Ancient versions: Harklean Syriac (4th cent), Armenian (5th C), Georgian (5th C), Italic (9th C), Old Latin (5th C), E uncial (6th C), Lectionary 59, etc.

By omitting Acts 8:37, infant sprinkling is not rebuked.

2. Having IDOLS is pagan. NIV omits this warning.

NIV	I Corinthians 10:28	KJV
But if anyone says to you, this has been offered in sacrifice OMIT then do not eat it.	But if any man say unto you, this is offered in sacrifice UNTO IDOLS , eat not.
NIV	II Samuel 5:21	KJV
The Philistines abandoned their idols there, and David and his men CARRIED THEM OFF.	There they left their images, and David and his men BURNED THEM.

Roman Catholicism does not like being criticised for its many statues, images or idols, placed in their churches. It would be better if they removed idols from their system, rather than from God’s Word. The Greek word for “sacrifice unto idols” is “eidolothuton”¹⁴⁹⁴ which is made of “eidolon”¹⁴⁹⁷ (idol) and “thuo”²³⁸⁰ (sacrifice).

UBS critical apparatus quotes 29 manuscripts with “unto idols”. Even Sinaiticus has it.

3. Luke 1:28 shows that Mary is just one AMONG WOMEN. The NIV omits this.

NIV	Luke 1:28	KJV
OMIT	Blessed art thou among women

Roman Catholicism's "immaculate conception" of Mary teaches that she, being without sin, is above women, but Luke 1:28 teaches that she is only one among women.

4. The NIV in John 1:42 hides the meaning of PETER BEING A STONE.

NIV	John1:42	KJV
You will be called Cephas (which being translated is Peter)		Thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, a stone.

Roman Catholicism regards Peter as the Rock, so the NIV rendering of John 1:42 hides the meaning of Peter being only a stone and not the rock as Catholics want him to be. You can't build a church on a stone. Christ is the Rock (I Cor10:4) that the church is built on, not Peter.

5. The NIV in I Peter 1:18 omits Peter's rebuke of HUMAN TRADITION.

NIV	I Peter 1:18	KJV
from the empty way of life handed down to you OMIT from you forefathers.		from your vain conversation received by tradition from you fathers

Roman Catholicism elevates church tradition to be more important than Bible doctrine. They don't like St. Peter criticising tradition. Omitting "tradition" from this verse would no doubt please Catholics by allowing them to keep their unbiblical church traditions.

6. Roman Catholicism over the last 1700 years has TORTURED OR BURNED at the stake anybody who rejected Roman Catholic dogma.

In Luke 9:51-56, the Samaritans did not receive Jesus on His way to Jerusalem.

James and John asked Jesus permission to "command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did"? (Luke 9:54).

In verses 55,56 Jesus' reply is left out from the NIV, a full 26 words stolen from the text.

NIV	Luke 9:54-56	KJV
54 When the disciples James & John saw this, they asked, "Lord, do you want us to call fire down from heaven to destroy them? OMIT		54 And when his disciples James & John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did?
55 But Jesus turned and rebuked them, OMIT OMIT OMIT OMIT		55 But he turned and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what spirit ye are of.
56 and they went to another village.		56 For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

Question: Would Rome want these words removed?

Answer: Yes, because this passage in the KJV clearly teaches that it is wrong for us to burn with fire, torture, or destroy men's lives who reject the Gospel. During the Inquisition, the Roman Catholic church from 1100-1800 AD burned, tortured and destroyed 68 million peoples lives. For example, Bloody Mary from 1550-57 burned over 300 people at the stake. This verse strongly rebukes the Roman Catholic Inquisition murders. Some Roman Catholic influence would like this verse cut out of the Catholic NIV. At least 48 manuscripts contain these verses, while only 29 manuscripts omit them.

7. NIV changes I Cor 9:27 to teach Catholic "self-flagellation (self-beating).

NIV	I Corinthians 9:27	KJV
I beat my body		I keep under my body

8. NIV in Rev 17:6 does not remind Catholics of their MARTYRING CHRISTIANS.

NIV	Revelation 17:6	KJV
I saw that the woman was drunk with . . . the blood of those who bore testimony to Jesus		I saw the woman drunken . . . with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus

Although the NIV translation in this verse is equally accurate as the KJV, the removal of the word “martyrs” hides the Roman Catholic history of martyring Christians.

9. “Firstborn” in Matthew 1:25 shows that Mary had OTHER CHILDREN.

NIV	Matthew 1:25	KJV
gave birth to a OMIT son.		brought forth her firstborn son.

Roman Catholicism’s “perpetual virginity” of Mary is disproved if Jesus is not Mary’s only Son. The KJV however includes the word “firstborn” in this verse to show that she had other children as well. This is confirmed in Matt 13:55-56, Mark 6:3 & John 19:26-27.

10. NIV by omitting Matthew 23:14 allows some religious leaders to DEVOUR WIDOWS’ HOUSES.

NIV	Matthew 23:14	KJV
OMIT		Woe unto you scribes, and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows’ houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.

Roman Catholicism believes that prayers for the dead can deliver them from purgatory.

The NIV omits this verse with the footnote: “Some manuscripts insert verse 14”.

The UBS critical apparatus lists 50 manuscripts with v.14, and only 19 that omit v.14.

Who would want verse 14 removed?

Question: Who would make supposed “long prayers” for a widow to get her property?

Answer: The context is a religious leader calling himself “Father” in Matthew 23:9.

Originally, we know that Christ spoke these words against the Pharisees, but we can see that this rebuke applies to any religious leader who is guilty of the same practice. The Roman Catholic church tells a widow when her husband dies that he has gone into the fires of purgatory to pay for his sins. The priest offers to say prayers for his speedy release from purgatory if the widow pays money to the priest. The widow normally has just enough spare cash to live on, and can’t afford to pay the priest. Hence, the priest says:

“Sell your house and give me the money to pray him out of purgatory”.

She being a loyal Catholic does so. Hence the priest devours widows’ houses.

Roman Catholic priests who take advantage of widows in the same manner as the Pharisees, will receive greater punishment in hell. Hence, by omitting Matthew 23:14, the NIV removes any charge against the Roman Catholic priesthood. “If people don’t like a verse, can they just chop it out?”

11. The NIV by changing I Corinthians 7:1 justifies Roman Catholic priestly celibacy.

NIV	I Corinthians 7:1	KJV
It is good for a man not to marry.		It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

A man is permitted to touch his wife, but not touch a single woman or another man's wife.

This change justifies Catholic priest celibacy, the cause of much priestly sexual abuse.

This dispels the myth that NIV just modernises the English without changing the meaning.

12. The NIV here changes “FAULTS” to “SINS” which allows confession of sins to a priest.

NIV	James 5:16	KJV
Confess your sins (hamartias) to each other, so that ye may be healed		Confess your faults (paraptomata) one to another . . . that ye may be healed.

Catholicism strongly controls her people through the Confession of sins to a priest, who then commands the sinner to do acts of penance in order to gain forgiveness or absolution of sins. This turns the sinner from confessing sins to Christ to confessing sins to a priest. Roman Catholicism changes the Greek word to “hamartias” to justify the confessional.

Question: You ask, “What is the manuscript evidence for “hamartias” in the NIV”?

Answer: None! Not one Greek manuscript in the world has “hamartias” (sins). All have “paraptomata” (faults) as in the KJV/Textus Receptus.

The evidence for sins (hamartias) is not listed in the “United Bible Society” 3rd edition of the Greek N.T. In the footnotes you will find Aleph,B,A etc, listed every time they appear in James 5:11-20, but they are not cited for James 5:16. Why?

Because “Tas hamartias” (sins) is a Roman Catholic addition to the Greek text, adopted by the NIV, RSV etc to promote the Ecumenical movement.

13. NIV adds “with the PRIESTLY DUTY” to Romans 15:16 with no manuscript support.

NIV	Romans 15:16	KJV
To be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles, with the priestly duty of proclaiming the gospel of God.		That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering ²⁴¹⁸ the gospel of God.

Roman Catholicism wishing to elevate their priesthood system, quietly adds the priesthood to Paul’s ministry (see “The Complete NT Word Study Dictionary”), thus stating that if Paul had a priestly duty as an intermediary between God and man, it is therefore all right for Rome to have her priests as intermediaries between God and man. The NIV in this verse can be seen to wrongly endorse the Catholic priesthood.

Zodhiates states that “ministering” (2418) means “to be employed in a sacred office”.

The verb “ministering” means that Paul was willing to make sacrifices to spread the gospel of Christ. It does not mean sacrificing animals or re-sacrificing Christ as claimed in the mass (Hebrews 10:12,26 - “No more sacrifice for sins”).

14. NIV here removes the warning against “VAIN REPETITIONS” prayers eg Hail Mary

NIV	Matthew 6:7	KJV
When you pray, do not keep on babbling like the pagans		When ye pray, use not vain repetitions , as the heathen do.

Roman Catholicism instructs people to pray the rosary consisting of 15 “Our Fathers”, 15 “Glory be’s”, and 150 “Hail Mary’s” addressed to Mary as follows: “Hail Mary, full of grace...pray for us sinners”. The rosary has TEN times as many prayers addressed to Mary (150) as are addressed to God the Father (15), with NONE addressed to Christ.

It exalts Mary TEN times more than God. This is clearly a vain repetition of prayers, thinking that God will be more likely to hear them for their much speaking.

A Catholic praying “Hail Mary” 20 times would be convicted by the KJV warning against “vain repetitions”, but he would not be convicted by the NIV “keep on babbling”.

105. QUESTIONS TO ASK MODERN BIBLE VERSION USERS

1. a) Which Bible version do you use? (NIV).
 - b) I use the KJV because of how the NIV handles Matthew 17:21. (What's it say?)
 - c) Do you have your NIV handy? Look up Matthew 17:21.
 - d) Look up Matthew 18:11; 23:14; Mark 7:16; 9:44,46; 11:26; 15:28; Luke 17:36; 23:17; John 5:4; Acts 8:37; 15:34, 24:7; 28:29; Romans 16:24.
 - e) Is it all right to take verses out of the Bible? How many words can you take out of the Bible for it to be a sin? Would a good man add words or a bad man take out words?
 - f) We know these verses are in the Bible because Tatian in his Diatessaron quotes every one of these gospel verses in 150 AD. He had access to the original autographs to copy these verses from. Even Codex Sinaiticus quotes Luke 23:17.
Irenaeus (120-202AD, Vol 1, p.433) & Cyprian (200-258AD, Vol 5, p.545) quote Acts 8:37.
2. Would God use unbelievers and heretics like Westcott and Hort to correct the Bible that has been used for 1500 years? NIV is based on W&H's mainly Vaticanus text.
3. Has God preserved His Word to today as Jesus promised in Matthew 5:18 "one jot or tittle shall in no wise pass from the law until all be fulfilled."
4. The United Bible Society (3rd edition) NT Greek text has omitted 2544 Greek words. (2886 if you count Mark 16:9-20 and John 7:53-8:11), from the Received text (KJV). The Received Text by Robert Stephanus (1550AD) has 140,488 Greek NT words. The Nestle-Aland 26th edition and UBS 3rd edition has 137,602 Greek NT words, 2886 less. This is 2.1% of the Greek NT words removed & never to be read in modern versions.
5. Why were Codex Vaticanus and Codex Sinaiticus (on which NIV is based) not copied and distributed if they are supposed to be the "oldest and best manuscripts"?
Answer: Because Christians recognized their many corrupt readings, it became impossible to "sell" them. Nobody bought them. They were not copied or distributed.
6. Why are Codex Vaticanus & Codex Sinaiticus in such good condition after 1500 years?
Answer: Because nobody used them having so many corrupt readings. If they were recognized as the true text, somebody would have paid good money for them, used them regularly and worn them out. You can always sell a good manuscript, but you can't sell a bad manuscript, except to a fool or someone who doesn't know what the true text is such as Westcott & Hort, Griesbach, Tregelles, Tischendorf and modern scholars.
7. How do you explain the Majority Text's 98% domination of the manuscripts?
Answer: They had to be good copies of the originals, as recognised by Christians since 96 AD. This dominance worried Westcott and Hort, so they guessed that around 250AD Lucian made a revision of the NT text from an assumed original Vaticanus type text to a Byzantine type KJV text. If this really happened, why is there no record of it in history, and why was there no protest against it? A protest would surely have happened. Answer: Because it is a figment of W&H's imagination. They made up this lie to support their theory. It has no historical basis or support.
8. If Codex Vaticanus and Codex Sinaiticus are the true text and so accurate, why do they disagree between themselves 3061 times in the gospels alone?
9. Would you trust men like Westcott & Hort to correct the Bible if you knew that they did not believe in ① Bible infallibility, ② New Testament miracles, ③ Creation, ④ Literal devil, ⑤ Heaven, ⑥ Second coming, ⑦ Christ's substitutionary death, ⑧ inviting people to receive Christ as Saviour, ⑨ Traditional theology?

Would you trust Westcott & Hort to correct the Bible if you knew that they:

1) decided between variant readings on the basis of their "inner consciousness"?
2) believed in Mary worship; 3) in sacrament devotion; 4) in baptismal regeneration; 5) purgatory; 6) private prayers for the dead; 7) Communism; 8) in contacting demons & working in "the Ghostly Guild?" See their biographies by their sons (Hort 2:248).

10. Would the devil be interested in corrupting the New Testament text? Yes certainly, because this was Satan's first temptation "Yea, hath God said?" (Gen. 3:1), in getting Eve to doubt God's Word. Yet W&H and modern version editors never consider this possibility. They treat the NT just like any ancient document.
11. Would you expect to find the true New Testament text in Alexandria in Egypt where God continually warns believers to avoid? No! Yet this is where Vaticanus and Sinaiticus are supposed to have originated.
12. Why did Westcott and Hort and modern version editors reject and ignore the 98% of Byzantine/KJV text manuscripts in favour of 2% of the manuscripts which show great disagreement with each other and many corrupt and variant readings?
13. The cornerstone of Hort's theory was that readings characteristic of the Received text are never found in quotations of Christian writers before 350 AD. He said "before that date we find Alexandrian and Western readings, but never Syrian". Hort's statement is proven wrong by:
- a) Tatian's Diatessaron (150 AD) ALWAYS gives the KJV reading for any Gospel verse that the NIV CHANGES.
- b) The Syriac Peshitta version (170 AD) agrees with the KJV text and disproves W&H's theory of Alexandrian manuscripts being close to the original.
- c) The Gothic version (341 AD) was produced by Ulfilas "little wolf", a missionary bishop to the Goths, and was circulating before Vaticanus or Sinaiticus were written in 350AD. According to Kenyon, Aland (p.210) and all the evidence, it was translated from the early Byzantine KJV text manuscripts.
- d) Modern version advocates only list 13 out of 96 papyri, 9 out of 299 uncials, and 22 out of 2812 minuscules supporting the Alexandrian text. This means that 86% of papyri, 96% of Uncials and 99% of minuscules show a Byzantine text.
14. If Egypt is the right place to find the correct New Testament text, then why do the main Egyptian papyri show the greatest degree of corruption of any manuscripts? For example, why do papyri p66, p45 and p75 have the following mistakes? Colwell Ernest, Scribal Habits in Early Papyri. The Bible in Modern Scholarship. J.P.Hyatt. New York: Abingdon Press, 1963. p.370-389

	p66	p45	p75
Careless Readings	216	20	57
Singular Readings	482	275	257
Nonsense Readings	200	28	64
Leaps Forward	54	16	27
Leaps Backward	22	2	10

The Holy Spirit refused to send a single original autograph to Egypt, so what would Egypt know about the original correct readings? Very little!

15. Why did God cut off the power of speech from modern version editors such as Kenneth Taylor (Living Bible 1972), Philip Schaff (ASV 1892), Tregelles (New Greek Text 1857-72), Westcott (New Greek Text & RV 1870), J.B.Philips (1961), Wilkins (NASV)? Isaiah 8:19,20; Luke 11:14.

16. If anyone says "Byzantine (KJV) readings are inferior to Alexandrian", say "Prove it".

106. SEPARATION FROM NEW EVANGELICAL ERRORS

Aim: To show that the Bible commands believers to separate from errors such as are in the New Evangelical movement in order to preserve the holiness and effectiveness of local churches.

We must warn believers to reject and separate from these errors.

Bible Reading:

- a) “Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which you have learned; and AVOID them.” Romans 16:17.
What are we commanded to do about disobedient brethren? AVOID THEM! That is separation.
- b) “Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye WITHDRAW yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received from us.” II Thessalonians 3:6
- c) “Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord. And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather REPROVE them.” Ephesians 5:10,11.
- d) “I (Paul) withstood him (Peter) to the face because he was to be blamed.” Galatians 2:11-13.
- e) “If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness; he is proud,...FROM SUCH WITHDRAW THYSELF.” I Timothy 6:3-5.

Introduction: “Speaking the truth in love” (Ephesians 4:15) is how we should approach people who hold wrong doctrinal positions. Many of us who hold true doctrines previously believed some false doctrines. We wanted people to tell us the truth in a kind way. We are all on a learning curve and we must be patient and loving to those who believe error. “The servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient, in meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth.” 2 Timothy 2:24,25.
This chapter teaches that:

- a) Pastors should not affiliate their churches with other churches or groups that believe false doctrines.
- b) Individual believers should not join or support churches that teach false doctrines.
If you do, you will help them spread their errors and God will hold you accountable.
- c) God’s work will grow faster if we separate from churches teaching error and support a church that teaches true doctrines. If we join up with churches teaching error, numbers initially may appear larger, but multiplication of quality disciples will not take place and future growth will be of poorer quality.
- d) We should reprove (point out the errors of) those who believe false doctrines so they may escape satan’s snare, bear fruit for Christ, and stop spreading error. Ephesians 5:11.

The New Evangelical disobeys God’s command to separate from apostasy.

God says, “Come out.” New Evangelism says, “No, we will remain in a group with false doctrines, we will infiltrate it, we will associate with it, we will dialogue with it.”

If this be correct, then we have no defence against error.

Illustration 1: At the end of WWII my father, along with many fellow soldiers were told at the New Guinea airport to board one of two aeroplanes to fly them back to Australia. While in the air, my father noticed that the other plane had changed course by a very small angle and was becoming further away until it passed out of sight. After several hours of flying, the plane on which my father was travelling safely landed at the Australian airport. The other plane which had drifted slightly off course was never seen again. It crashed in the sea, killing all those men on board.

What started as a small change in direction, later on resulted in the plane being hundreds of miles off course, running out of fuel and many men’s death.

So it is with the New Evangelical movement which started in 1948 by Harold Ockenga who wanted to work with those having false doctrines. Today it has culminated in many false doctrines invading mainstream churches, so that many once-strong soul-winning fundamental churches have been polluted by error and worldliness, leading to splits and the death of a strong Bible-based testimony.

Illustration 2: Everybody has a fence around their home or farm, because it defines the borders of their property. If all boundary fences were torn down, things would go on fairly well for the generation who knew where the fences used to be. However, future generations, who never knew where the fence used to be, would have trouble and constant fights over what was the right boundary.

“Remove not the ancient landmark.” Proverbs 22:28.

New Evangelicalism’s founding fathers (Harold Ockenga and Billy Graham) tore down the fences and today’s generation can’t even remember where they were.

We need to rebuild the fences, so that our churches know right from wrong, and are protected from the creeping influence of false doctrines. We pastors and workers must impress on our people the principles of separation from error.

Question 1: Is separation from error really that important?

What if we don’t preach or train our people to separate from error?

Answer: Then II John 8 will result: “Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought; but that we receive a full reward.”

If we fail to practise Biblical separation from error:

- 1) We will lose our life’s work, that is strong Bible preaching fundamental churches; and
- 2) We will lose our heavenly rewards.

Question 2: Do we have to rebuke believers who hold error?

Can’t we just keep quiet and love them?

Answer: When the apostle Peter defected in doctrine and practice by refusing to eat with Gentile believers fearing those of the circumcision, Paul said:

“I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.” (Galatians 2:11-13). The sad result of Peter’s weakness and compromise with error was that other Jews, as well as Barnabas followed his example. If Paul had not had the courage to publicly rebuke Peter, then Peter’s error may have split the church for the next 2000 years. If we condone error by our silence, we aid its spreading. We must reprove believers who hold to error: “And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.” (Ephesians 5:11).

It is wrong to treat apostate churches as if they are the same as fundamental churches. Some things, such as disagreements in politics, marriage and business, may be solved by compromise. On the other hand, there are some truths and convictions which cannot be compromised. Martin Luther refused to renounce his writings and said to his opponents: “Here I stand, I can do no other.”

Athanasius, who successfully argued the complete deity of Christ against the Aryans who denied it, was warned by a colleague: “The whole world is against you.”

Athanasius replied, “Then I am against the whole world.”

He would not compromise on so crucial a matter.

Two areas in which we are to separate are:

- 1) Personal separation from the works of the flesh and yield to the filling of the Holy Spirit;
- 2) Separation as a church from disobedient brethren (I Corinthians 5:5-13), apostate churches and denominations holding or endorsing false doctrines (II John 7-11).

Separation is the doctrine which stands at the cross-roads between Fundamentalism and New Evangelicalism. Why? “Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?” (I Corinthians 5:6).

I. WOLVES IN SHEEPS’ CLOTHING: THE FUNDAMENTALIST-MODERNIST CONTROVERSY

Jesus warned us to: “Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.” (Matthew 7:15).

Paul warned “that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.” (Acts 20:29).

Wolves looking like sheep will creep in (Jude 4) with subtlety and stealth, to infiltrate churches, and hence would greatly impede the progress of the gospel. This is one of Satan’s chief devices.

Poison from Europe (1600-1900). Unbelieving scholars in England and Europe, such as Voltaire, Rousseau, Kant, Darwin and the Jesuits, taught philosophies which undermined Biblical Christianity and led to the great apostasy which overwhelmed many churches.

For example, Evolution arose to try to explain away God's existence as Creator.

German philosophers, such as Hegel, tried to remove religious thought from being absolute to being tentative. Out of this came the movement known as modernism, now referred to as theological liberalism, the key beliefs being:

- 1) A rejection of Biblical inspiration and inerrancy.
- 2) A tolerance of all views within the religious community.
- 3) An emphasis on the superiority of human experience over the revealed word of God (Schleiermacher).
- 4) A denial of the absolute Deity of Christ.
- 5) Emphasising the dignity and goodness of man.
- 6) Rejecting the sinfulness of man and rejecting the necessity of the new birth.
- 7) Origin of all things by evolution rather than by creation.
- 8) Rejection of supernatural intervention of God in history, eg: miracles, resurrection, providence,...
- 9) Emphasis on the social gospel, that the main mission of the church is to correct social ills. They say that sin is socially caused by a bad environment and salvation involves correcting social problems. Established denominations and theological colleges took in these liberal views, claiming that because times have changed since Christ and that for Christianity to be successful, the gospel must change also. They claimed that the Gospel message must be changed to suit modern man. Because liberals gained control of decision making in denominations, they were able to quickly spread their doctrines, so that I Timothy 4:1 was fulfilled: "Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils."

1. LIBERALISM CHALLENGED

God raised many warriors to defend the historic Christian faith, such as Schofield, and W.B.Riley who published "the Fundamentals" in 1910, in which great Christian scholars wrote articles on the inspiration of Scripture, resurrection of Christ, virgin birth of Christ, His blood atonement, etc. People believing these truths became known as Fundamentalists.

In 1919, some fundamentalist leaders formed the World Christian Fundamentalist Association, with W.B.Riley as its first president.

Tremendous controversies took place as fundamentalists struggled to expose and oppose Bible-denying modernists who were sapping the life from churches.

J.Gresham Machen led the protest in the US Presbyterian Church against rising liberalism. The result was that Bible believing professors left Princeton Seminary to form another seminary. Many Baptist churches left the liberal Northern Baptist Convention to join the General Association of Regular Baptists (GARB).

J.Frank Norris challenged the apostasy in the Southern Baptist Convention, as did other men in Congregational and Methodist churches. Those men were ridiculed in the media, but they were true to Christ and His Word. They could say: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." (II Timothy 4:7).

The Christian life is truly a fight. These men were fighting Fundamentalists.

2. DEVELOPING THE ART OF FENCE SITTING

The 1920s and 1930s saw many great battles between fundamentalism and modernism. The future of churches, colleges, seminaries and mission boards was at stake. Many Bible believers had poured their lives into churches and didn't want them to fall into the hands of the enemies of truth.

As the battle went on, some became weary of it, and did not want to be "fighting fundamentalists." They thought it was time for a new approach, and out of this came "New Evangelicalism."

SIX FACTORS THAT CAUSED A RISE IN NEW EVANGELICALISM

1. A reaction against perceived negativism of some fundamentalists.

Early New Evangelical leaders greatly emphasised the claim that Fundamentalists were too much “against” and not enough “for.” Their plea was “let’s be positive and not negative.” This is not Biblical. Scripture is both positive and negative. It is for some things and against others. We must strive for that same balance.

2. A desire to be accepted by the scholarly world.

Many young Fundamentalist scholars were viewed as deficient intellectually because they believed the Bible, so they adjusted their views to please the intellectual unbelieving leaders of the day. Paul had people facing the same temptation.

“Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.” (Colossians 2:8).

The desire to be intellectually respectable in the eyes of a Godless world, has ruined many a promising scholar. Why do believers think they need the support of unbelievers to do God’s work?

3. The influence of training in liberal unbelieving colleges. A man generally reflects the philosophy of the schools he trained in. Many young Fundamentalist scholars studied in liberal colleges under unbelieving lecturers. They considered it a broadening experience and as a result many made shipwreck of their faith.

What some people feel is their mind broadening is only their conscience stretching.

“Cease my son, to hear the instruction that causeth to err from the words of knowledge.” (Proverbs 19:27).

4. The spirit of the age where dogmatism was becoming a hated concept.

There was a call for openness to tolerate and accept many false viewpoints.

5. Criticism that Fundamentalists lacked a concern for social action. This resulted in New Evangelicals following a social gospel. The New Testament church did not organise social programs to alleviate suffering in the unsaved world. This is the task of government.

The New Testament church did, however, meet the social needs of believers. (Acts 4:32-37).

James 2:15 exhorts us to show our faith by helping fellow believers who are destitute of daily food.

6. A growing ecumenical spirit which viewed Fundamentalists as too separatist.

The ecumenical movement of “let’s get together” gained momentum in the 1950s and 60s.

Evangelicals were influenced to welcome those holding to error. They forgot II John 10,11:

“If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.”

They rejected the term “fundamental” in favour of the term “evangelical”.

The founding of Fuller Theological Seminary in California in 1947 as the first and leading New Evangelical college was a major milestone of the evangelical left wing. 1957 saw Billy Graham conduct his first ecumenical crusade in New York City.

3. LOOKING AT NEW EVANGELICALISM THROUGH SCRIPTURE

Accommodation is not taught in the New Testament. We are not to trim God’s message or method to win a hearing for the message. We must not seek to conform God’s Word to man’s desires. We must not be “conformed to this world.” (Romans 12:2).

Some think that an ecumenical spirit is brotherly and kind, and that love is more important than doctrine, appealing to John 17:11 where Jesus prayed that “they may be one.” They criticise fundamentalists who oppose the ecumenical movement with the charge of “sowing discord among the brethren” or continuing the “sin of division.”

Answer: Jesus’ prayer for all believers to be one has already been answered. Since we are all baptised by the Holy Spirit into the body of Christ (Galatians 3:27; I Corinthians 12:13), “we are all one in Christ Jesus” (Galatians 3:28) having spiritual unity in the bride of Christ. It is not talking about organisational unity.

New Evangelicals' Unwillingness To Separate From Churches Holding False Doctrine.

Fundamentalists believe in complete separation from all churches or fellowships which tolerate false doctrine, unbelief or compromise with error. New Evangelicals on the other hand believe "let us compromise doctrinal matters for the sake of evangelism."

Question: Why do some people not obey the Biblical command in II Corinthians 6:14-18 to break fellowship with those who promote unbiblical positions?

Answer:

1. Taking a stand against unbelief can be costly.

If pastors left a denomination with false doctrines, they would lose many friends and their retirement money. For some this is too great a price to pay.

2. One's prestige and influence in denominational leadership would be lost if he separated to become an independent pastor. Are influence, respect and position more important than obeying God?

Wasn't Noah a preacher of righteousness who was only supported by seven people?

Didn't Jeremiah get abused and imprisoned for rebuking the sinners of his day?

Didn't Paul get beaten, hated and jailed for preaching against the Jews' view of Jesus?

Didn't John the Baptist get imprisoned and beheaded for rebuking Herod's sins?

Didn't Jesus rebuke the Pharisees, Sadducees and scribes, not fearing the consequences or seeking their acceptance?

Many New Evangelicals today honour Spurgeon, but few of them would have stood with him when he rebuked the Baptist Union for its apostasy and was excommunicated as a result.

3. New Evangelicals have a different concept of the purpose of the church from the Fundamentalists.

Fundamentalists view the church as "Donatist," which regards holiness and doctrine as more important than unity in local churches.

New Evangelicals view the church as "Augustinian," which regards unity as more important than holiness and doctrine. If a church has holiness and sound doctrine, it will have true unity, which leads to quality outreach.

If a church has external unity, but internal doctrinal divisions, then the "leaven will soon leaven the whole lump" (Galatians 5:9) and will hinder quality outreach.

4. New Evangelicals see the church's mission to penetrate the world with Christian values.

Fundamentalists see the role of the church to win the world to Christ and to disciple them

(Matthew 28:18-20). Satan will remain the political and religious head of this world's system until Christ returns to defeat him. (II Corinthians 4:3-5).

"For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord . . ." (II Corinthians 4:5).

We don't preach ourselves as the agent of social change, but we preach Jesus Christ as the Saviour of the world. The early church never tried to reform social culture.

The Holy Spirit today is moving among the nations "to take out of them a people for his name" (Acts 15:14), not to Christianise the nations.

New Evangelicals try to be good guys by avoiding controversial subjects. This dulls the cutting edge of Christianity. We must guard against civility and courtesy breeding timid preachers. The contemporary worldly attitude is against all absolutes, dogmatism and exclusiveness. This thinking has crept into the churches, so that now many churches defend homosexuality, evolution, abortion, feminism. How did these churches degenerate so far? By twisting the Word of God to the latest intellectual fashions of the world.

New Evangelicals have a burning desire to be accepted and recognised by the world, when the world despises the Word of God and has no intention of becoming Christian. This is pitiful and treasonous.

Question: What happens when people compromise sound doctrine?

Answer: Churches and Bible Colleges deteriorate spiritually.

Preachers seeking to be civil, de-emphasise the Bible's more offensive subjects such as accusations of heresy, sin, immorality, paganism, God's judgment, hell and intolerance of error. Did Jesus, Paul, and Peter seek to adjust their message to their worldly, unsaved hearers? No! Paul did not use flattering words (I Thessalonians 2:5).

4. NEW EVANGELICALS SEEK TO CAPTURE THEOLOGICAL COLLEGES

Generally a preacher is the product of the theological college he attended.

New Evangelicals, in order to spread their errors, had to capture theological colleges and seminaries, and thus mould the coming generation of leaders. Institutions that became New Evangelical were Wheaton College, Fuller Theological Seminary, Westminster Seminary, Talbot Seminary, etc. Each of these undermined the authority of Scripture, & denied the inerrancy & preservation of the Word of God.

The demise of Fuller Theological Seminary is a warning to all those who seek to change direction.

How did this happen?

- 1) Fuller Seminary started with the goal of changing the direction and image of fundamentalism to seek to rescue the apostate denominations.
- 2) Its few Fundamentalist lecturers protested its change of direction.
- 3) Fundamentalists more and more began to reject the Seminary.
- 4) Faculty members conflicted over Biblical inspiration and inerrancy.
- 5) This led to the conservative faculty members resigning.
- 6) The Seminary then changed its doctrinal statement to accommodate those who denied Biblical inerrancy.

Lesson: Initial compromise grows with time. Vigilance, struggle, rebuking error and a certain militancy are required if we are to defend the “faith once delivered to the saints.”

Sadly, Bernard Ramm who as a young Fundamentalist wrote the helpful book “Protestant Biblical Interpretation”, later on, in order to be academically acceptable, drifted to the point where he defended the theology of Karl Barth who denied the inerrancy of Scripture and other key doctrines.

To propagate thoughts required the printed page. New Evangelicals were quick to publish books which were filled with footnotes and quotes of liberal and Bible-denying writers, but were noticeably lacking in references to the writings of solid Biblical Fundamentalists. Why? They were trying to be modern and academically acceptable. They loved the praise of men more than the praise of God (John 12:43).

5. NEW EVANGELICALS INFILTRATE PARA-CHURCH ORGANISATIONS such as Bill Bright’s Campus Crusade, Inter-Varsity Fellowship, Navigators, New Tribes Mission and World Vision

- a) Campus Crusaders are taught not to use “Christian jargon” such as repent, converted, blood of Christ, hell, sin, saved, apostate and baptism. They are not under the authority of any local church.
- b) Navigators rarely mention baptism, premillennial eschatology, or pastoral authority. Nor do they rebuke the errors of Calvinism, modern versions or infant sprinkling, in case they offend some of their members who believe such lies.
- c) New Tribes Mission’s aim is to entice promising Christians away from being under the authority of their local church, to being under the authority of the New Tribes Mission denomination. They then tell the prospective missionary to ask local churches for money to pay their way to work overseas as a New Tribes missionary. When overseas, he is told that he must not ask a sinner to pray to ask Jesus Christ to be his Saviour (Firm Foundations, page 14). He must not present the Gospel until the natives have gone through a 2-5 year Old and New Testament Bible course called “Firm Foundations.” (Brown Gold, September 1995). Most natives don’t stick out the 2-5 year course and hence never get a clear Gospel presentation.

The Apostles Peter and Paul never taught a 2-year Old Testament course to unbelievers, because “they receive not the things of the Spirit of God” (and would have no spiritual discernment before conversion), but he preached the Gospel immediately to them, and then challenged them to call on Christ to save them.

Question: How should we evaluate New Evangelicalism in the light of Scripture?

Answer:

- 1) Accommodating God’s Word to win a hearing is not taught in Scripture.

We are not to trim God’s message or methods, nor are we to seek to conform God’s Word to suit man’s desires. “Be not conformed to this world.” (Romans 12:2).

- 2) While an ecumenical unity may seem brotherly and kind, it is contrary to God’s Word.
- a) Ecumenists claim that love is more important than doctrine, appealing to John 17:11 where Jesus prayed that “they may be one.” They criticise Christians who oppose the ecumenical movement, accusing them of not obeying this command, and of promoting the “sin of division.” This prayer (“to be one”) has already been answered by believers being one in the body of Christ. “Ye are all one in Christ Jesus” (Galatians 3:28; I Corinthians 12:13). Jesus is not talking about organisational unity under the authority of the Pope or the World Council of Churches, but about spiritual unity under the authority of Jesus Christ. Paul warns against seeking organisational unity at the expense of doctrinal compromise in Romans 16:17: “Mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned and AVOID THEM.”
- b) Ecumenists accuse Fundamentalists of “sowing discord among the brethren” (Proverbs 6:19), yet ecumenists are the ones guilty of sowing discord among the brethren by joining up with “false witnesses that speak lies” (Proverbs 6:19) in the form of Catholics, Charismatics, infant sprinklers, Bible deniers, ordainers of homosexual priests, etc, all of whom speak the lies of unbiblical doctrines. Fundamentalists haven’t moved; it’s the liberals who have moved.
- 3) Bible believing Christians reject the Charismatic influence in New Evangelicalism. New Evangelical founders were not charismatic, but they insisted that we should accept Charismatic doctrines as a viable option, rather than denounce them as error. This gave the Charismatic error a new-found respectability. Charismatics are dead wrong in their views of the Holy Spirit slaying people onto the floor, giving new revelations that don’t come true, speaking in gibberish that is claimed as tongues, and healing people who remain ill.

We vehemently reject Charismatic theology and practice as contrary to Scripture and as one of the greatest deceptions to hit the churches in 2000 years.

Some Christians think that to rebuke Charismatic error is unloving, divisive and confrontational. We are doing just what Paul commands in Titus 1:13,

“Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith.”

It is not loving God or man to allow error to be freely propagated.

“Ye that love the Lord, hate evil.” (Psalm 97:10).

“Speak thou the things which become sound doctrine.” (Titus 2:1).

“I hate every false way.” (Psalm 119:104).

“I hate and abhor lying, but thy law do I love.” (Psalm 119:163).

“The fear of the Lord is to hate evil.” (Proverbs 8:13).

We are against lying, evil and false doctrines. Aren’t you?

New Evangelicalism has done great harm. It has weakened the Biblical foundations of many churches, by teaching them to accept and tolerate error and to work with those who hold false doctrines.

Billy Graham has been the chief promoter of this erroneous approach.

6. THE HISTORY OF and HERESIES ENDORSED BY BILLY GRAHAM

The New Evangelical movement grew due to the practice of “ecumenical evangelism” where churches of widely differing doctrines joined together to evangelise the lost.

Bible believing Christians have always been concerned about evangelising the world. Salvation by faith in Christ alone started the Reformation against Roman Catholicism’s false gospel of salvation by sacraments.

Tragically, it was their interest in evangelism that caused many evangelicals to adopt a new method of evangelism (known as ecumenical crusades) which was contrary to God’s Word.

Billy Graham’s ecumenical evangelistic crusades seemed so successful.

Who would ever be so unspiritual as to challenge an evangelist or his evangelism?

Billy Graham popularised the principles of New Evangelism.

In his early days, Billy Graham was a student at Bob Jones University and a great admirer of its founder. For a while, Graham preached in crusades sponsored by fundamental churches, and appeared to be a Fundamentalist.

But something happened to change Graham from being a Fundamentalist to become the leader of New Evangelicalism. Some of Graham's actions began to alarm fundamentalist leaders. These included:

- 1) He publicly endorsed the Revised Standard Version of the Bible in his Pittsburgh Crusade before it had been released for examination. The RSV had been produced by unbelieving scholars under the control of the apostate National Council of Churches.
- 2) In Graham's Japanese Crusade, he appeared on the same platform as unbelieving liberals of the "Kyodan" (like the apostate National Council of Churches). This caused great confusion because many missionaries had publicly opposed the apostate Kyodan, yet Graham endorsed it.
- 3) In his British Crusades, converts were advised to return to the Church of England with its so many Romish practices such as infant sprinkling, etc.
- 4) In his Scottish Crusade, he rejected the title "Fundamentalist", believing it to show narrowness and bigotry.
- 5) In a letter to Tom Malone, defending his policy of co-operating with liberal unbelievers, he claimed that the doctrinal differences were not that serious.
"They differ from us on the inspiration of the Bible and on theories of the atonement." (Sword of Lord, 17 May 1957, p 11). These surely are very key issues!
- 6) John R Rice wrote to Graham asking him, as a member of the Co-operating Board of "Sword of the Lord" magazine, if he could in good conscience continue to sign its doctrinal statement. It read:
"An Independent Christian Weekly, standing for the Verbal Inspiration of the Bible, the Deity of Christ, His Blood Atonement, Salvation by faith, New Testament soul-winning, and the Pre-Millennial Return of Christ. Opposes Modernism, Worldliness, and Formalism."
Graham in replying, stated that he did not believe he could any longer agree to this doctrinal statement and submitted his resignation from the Board.
- 7) In 1951 some Fundamentalist pastors in New York City invited Graham to preach at their Crusade. He replied that he would not come unless every Protestant church in the area was invited and had representatives on the various campaign committees. The Fundamentalist pastors insisted that each church sign a fundamentalist doctrinal statement, to which Graham approved. However, some of the Executive Committee rejected this doctrinal statement and hence resigned. Graham then wrote a letter to the Committee insisting that "the Committee unanimously endorse the program of an ecumenical spirit to be exhibited throughout the campaign" and should "present an ecumenical spirit of love toward those of all stripes."
(Source: Billy Graham's letter to Executive Committee, New York Crusade, 1951).
Graham shortly thereafter rejected their invitation.
- 8) In 1957, Graham accepted a crusade invitation to New York City by the Protestant Council of Churches. Blatant left-wing unbelieving liberals were present, such as Henry Van Dusen, President of Union Theological Seminary in New York, whom Graham praised as a great religious leader.
(Source: US News and World Report, 27 Sept. 1957, p.25).
- 9) In 1961, Graham said the following about infant sprinkling:
"I still have some personal problems in this matter of infant baptism, but, all of my children, with the exception of the youngest, were baptized as infants...I do believe that something happens at the baptism of an infant. We cannot fully understand the mysteries of God, but I believe a miracle can happen in these children so that they are regenerated, that is, made Christian, through infant baptism." (W.Bockelman, "A Lutheran Looks at Billy Graham", Lutheran Standard, 10 Oct 1961).
- 10) Graham endorsed Gerald Kennedy as chairman of his 1963 Los Angeles Crusade. Kennedy in "God's Good News", p.125, wrote: "I believe the testimony of the New Testament, taken as a whole, is against the doctrine of the deity of Jesus although I think it bears overwhelming witness to the divinity of Jesus." John 8:24 declares Kennedy to be unsaved. How can an unbeliever be qualified to lead an evangelistic crusade? What does this say about Billy Graham's judgment and theology?
- 11) In Graham's Uruguay Crusade of 1963, he endorsed the crusade's vice president as the pastor of the First Methodist Church of Montevideo, who openly held evolutionary views and believed that the god of the Buddhists was the same as the Biblical God. (Baptist Bible Tribune, 8 March 1963).

- 12) In 1967, Graham received the degree of Doctorate of Humane Letters from the Roman Catholic Belmont Abbey College in North Carolina, a school which teaches prayer to Mary and popery. Graham said that he “knew of no greater honour than to be presented with this degree.” He also said that “the gospel that built this school and the gospel that brings me here tonight is still the way to salvation.” (The Gastonian Gazette, 22 Nov., 1967). How confusing! Everyone knows that Roman Catholicism preaches a different gospel to Protestants, except Billy Graham! God curses Rome’s false gospel. (Galatians 1:6-9).
- 13) In September 8-13, 1969, Graham sponsored at his headquarters in Minneapolis, Minnesota, the US Congress on Evangelism, where 92 denominations were represented. Two Roman Catholics appeared on the program. Also, Ralph Abernathy, president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference said:
 “We are all sons and daughters of the most high Lord - we are all brothers. Take the Gospel of Jesus Christ into the alleys and byways. Tell all of God’s children, “you are somebody; you are all worth something; you are God’s children”.”
 (Source: Merle Hull, “US Congress on Evangelism,” Baptist Bulletin, Nov. 1969, p.11).
 What a heretic! He obviously doesn’t believe John 1:12 or Galatians 3:26: “Ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.”
 If everyone is already a child of God, why have a Congress on Evangelism?
 Did Graham rebuke Abernathy? Not likely.
- 14) Catholic Support: Regarding the Crusade in Manila, Philippines in 1977, Graham commented: “We have received marvellous support from the Catholic Church.” (Christianity Today, 31 Dec. 1977, p.37). No wonder Rome supported Graham when he sent his converts back to fill Catholic church pews, and because he gave Roman Catholicism much-needed respectability in Protestant eyes. Billy Graham hence split Protestant opposition to Roman Catholicism. Just what Satan wants.
- 15) Praises religious freedom in Communist Hungary. In the 1977 Budapest Crusade, he praised the religious freedom he found. He said nothing in defence of those Christians in Communist jails for their faith.
- 16) Gave credibility to Charismatics. Graham has given credibility to the Charismatic movement. He said: “By and large, it has been a positive force in the lives of many people”.
 (Source: Christianity Today, 17 July 1991, p.23). But is it Biblical? No!
- 17) Not speaking up for Russian imprisoned Christians. In 1982, while he was preaching in the Moscow Baptist Church, a young lady unfurled a banner which read: “We have more than 150 prisoners for the work of the Gospel.” Graham ignored it and later said that in the US, people are imprisoned for creating disturbances. What a discouragement Graham was to the thousands of courageous Christians in Soviet concentration camps because of their loyalty to Jesus Christ and the Gospel. What a blow to them to hear that the world’s leading evangelist declared that there was religious freedom in Russia. Why did Graham say nothing to defend them? God tells us: “Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them.....” (Hebrews 13:3). Graham forgot them. Time Magazine said, “Yet, throughout the week, Graham seemed oblivious to the precarious role of religion in a country that endorses atheism and outlaws public evangelism. The (registered) Baptists who heard Graham’s Gospel can hold worship services, but they cannot preach the Word of God in public or bring up their children with religious instruction.”
 (Source: Time, M.S.Evans, “The Brainwashing of Billy Graham,” 5 June 1982, p.7).
 The unregistered Baptist leaders were sent to concentration camps, while their churches had to meet in secret. Graham should have shown more courage. For the sake of open doors, he compromised again. M.S.Evans of Time was correct when he said, “Graham’s trip was a mindless, stunning propaganda triumph for the Soviets.”
 The early Apostles who were imprisoned said, “We ought to obey God rather than men.” (Acts 5:29). Did Graham denounce the apostate practices of the Russian Orthodox Church? No. He did not rebuke them as Jeremiah would have. Jesus rebuked the “scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites” (Mat 23:13-14). Graham instead made positive smooth statements that would soothe but not convict.

7. EFFECTS OF BILLY GRAHAM'S COMPROMISING WITH ERROR

Billy Graham's toleration of false doctrines and unwillingness to offend are now accepted by many evangelicals. He said, "in the proclamation of the Gospel there is flexibility of fellowship."

(Source: Open letter from Billy Graham, "Separation of Fellowship").

Never does Graham rebuke the apostasy of the World Council of Churches (WCC) or the NCC. The Bible commands faithful preachers of God to openly combat teachers of error: "Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fearwithout preferring one before another." (I Timothy 5:20,21).

"reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long-suffering and doctrine." (II Timothy 4:2).

"rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith." (Titus 1:13).

"rebuke with all authority." (Titus 2:15).

(I Timothy 1:20).

Paul was bold enough to identify by name Hymenaeus and Alexander who made shipwreck of the faith John, the Apostle of love, wrote against Diotrophes, the proud dictator & condemned his action. ³John 9. When God commissioned Jeremiah, He told him to "root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant." (Jeremiah 1:10).

Here are four negatives and two positives to be accomplished before we can have revival.

KEY: Error must be demolished. Thorn-infested ground must be cleared before we can progress in building truth and having revival. Destruction of wrong must precede building the right.

Due to the efforts of Billy Graham, many feel that apostasy and false doctrines are not the enemies our forefathers saw them to be. Today, Billy tells us that liberals are not so bad. This idea came from Graham's crusades, where unbelievers and fundamentalists mixed readily.

Doubtless, Graham has done much to build the ecumenical church and to give it prestige. The gap between unbelieving liberals and Fundamentalism is unbridgable. On one side is the true church, the Bride of Christ, and on the other is the Harlot Church of Revelation chapter 17. These cannot be joined.

Graham tells impressionable young church leaders to put away your doctrinal differences as not important. But God says that doctrine is important as seen in these 20 passages: (Acts 2:42.

"They continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, in breaking of bread, in prayers."

"Ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine." (Acts 5:28).

"Ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you." (Romans 6:17).

"Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned, and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ.....and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple." (Romans 16:17,18).

"that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine." (I Timothy 1:3).

"if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine." (I Timothy 1:10).

"a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine." (I Tim 4:6).

"give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine." (I Timothy 4:13).

"Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself (from error), and them that hear thee." (I Timothy 4:16).

"Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the Word and doctrine." (I Timothy 5:17).

"If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness, from such withdraw thyself." (I Tim.6:3-5)

"But thou hast fully known my doctrine." (II Timothy 3:10).

"All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine." (II Timothy 3:16).

"Reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long-suffering and doctrine."

For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine;" (II Timothy 4:2,3).

"Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers." (Titus 1:9).

"But speak thou the things which become sound doctrine;" (Titus 2:1).

"In doctrine showing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity." (Titus 2:7).

"That they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things." (Titus 2:10).

"Be not carried about with diverse and strange doctrines;" (Hebrews 13:9).

II. ERRORS OF NEW EVANGELICALISM TO AVOID

How do you recognize a New Evangelical church?

How do you tell if a church is slipping into the errors of New Evangelicalism?

If you see the following errors in a church, you can be sure that you are dealing with a church which has succumbed to New Evangelical errors. In most cases they are not aware that these errors spring from New Evangelicalism. In each case they have accepted these false doctrines without asking the question, "Is it Biblical?" Consider these errors:

1. Disbelief in the Inerrancy of Scripture

New Evangelicals say that "yes the Bible is inspired, but it is not inerrant." What they mean by this is that they consider the Bible to be inspired and/or infallible, but they think it contains errors in "non-crucial" areas such as geography, history and numerology, but that it is still reliable (infallible) when it comes to major doctrines.

What caused them to retreat from "inerrancy"?

- a) It was their belief that evolution is true and hence they felt that the Genesis Creation in six days seemed unscientific.
- b) The introduction of the erroneous Westcott and Hort new Greek text of the New Testament. This sought to put away the Received Text of the New Testament on which the KJV is based (representing over 98% of the New Testament manuscripts). They replaced it with a Greek text based on the corrupt Vaticanus and Sinaiticus manuscripts (on which most modern Bible versions are based).

Many New Evangelicals are Charismatics who do not need an inerrant Bible because they claim to have inerrant gifts of prophecy as God communicates to them outside of the Bible. They do not see the Bible as God's Final Revelation for this age. Charismatics thus betray an ignorance of I Corinthians 13:8-13; 14:21-23 and of historic, orthodox Christianity. When the age of the apostles ceased, so did prophecy, tongues, knowledge and other sign gifts cease. (See page 482-500).

2. Modern Bible Versions

