New Evangelicals do not have an inerrant Bible when they use and promote modern Bible versions which omit thousands of words. A church which uses modern versions, reveals an unawareness of these omissions. Churches that use modern versions reveal a knowing or unknowing preference for a corrupt minority text which changes with every new edition. Modern versions attack the doctrines of inerrancy and preservation of Scripture. The NIV's Greek NT omits 2886 Greek words. This is a serious problem.

3. Toleration of Error

Evangelicals want to be accepted by everybody. Sin is rarely rebuked. Rare is a call for repentance. The attitude is, "Let's not offend anyone by rebuking their false doctrines." God says, "Speaking the truth in love." (Ephesians 4:15). New Evangelicals are afraid to speak the truth to those holding error. They just want to be nice and say nothing that might offend. The tolerant, nice, cowardly, inoffensive approach avoids mentioning the Gospel's potentially convicting aspects such as:

- a) an ingrained, inherited sinful nature;
- b) sinful conduct such as fornication, adultery, sodomy, lying, etc.
- c) unbelievers being "punished with everlasting destruction" in hell. (II Thessalonians 1:8,9);
- d) declaring all non-Biblical religions as false;
- e) charging heretics with heresy. (The word "heresy" has vanished from inter-religious dialogue);
- f) publicly rebuking the errors of Roman Catholicism.

Notice how the Bible speaks the truth:

- a) Jesus wasn't nice to the Pharisees when he said, "Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites." (Matthew 23:14). The NIV omits this verse.
- b) Stephen rebuked the entire Sanhedrin: "Ye stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost." (Acts 7:51).
- c) Paul rebuked Peter: "I withstood him (Peter) to the face, because he was to be blamed." (Gal 2:11). Paul rebuked those preaching a false gospel, saying "let him be accursed." (Galatians 1:9).

d) Peter rebuked Simon's heresy: "Thy money perish with thee." (Acts 8:20).

Early Christians did not seek to make everyone happy and comfortable as do modern New Evangelicals. They spoke the truth in love, but clearly and forcefully.

Their attitude was: "If I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ." (Galatians 1:10).

4. Non-confronting Accommodation.

This is seeking to adapt the Word of God to conform to modern ideas.

Question: Why has this happened?

Answer: Many modern New Evangelicals have become embarrassed to be seen holding ideas that are rejected by the unbelieving world, eg: Six-day creation; KJV; not-so-modern hymns; inerrant Bible, etc. They dislike being sneered at by unbelievers. Early New Evangelicals disliked being isolated in society. They wanted their articles and books to be recognized and published by respectable companies, and to be regarded as authentic scholars. They wanted to make the "faith of our fathers" acceptable to the ungodly world. This is pride of intellect. God says, "Be not conformed to this world" (Rom 12:2). "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world." (I John 2:15-17).

"Because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you." (John 15:19).

We all love people to admire us, but this must not be at the expense of God's disapproval.

New Evangelicals do not want to be confronters, but want to build bridges with unbelieving liberals.

This compromise on small matters, leads to compromise on larger matters.

5. Evangelical Feminism

Radical feminism since 1970, has been accepted by a spiritually blind, unsaved world as well as by New Evangelicals. Evangelical feminists believe that most theology has been written out of a male's experience of God. They believe that the Bible does not teach what it has been assumed to teach about the subordinate role of women in the church and society. They claim that Paul is wrong when he demands a submissive role of women to their husbands. They think that orthodox theology was thought up by males and reflects a masculine bias. They believe that ordination of women is desirable.

Question: How is it that none of the great Bible teachers in the last 2000 years have discovered these new "truths" such as female ordination?

Answer: It is because feminism has become popular in the world and hence some New Evangelicals want to bring this worldly teaching into the church.

The rise of Evangelical feminism coincides with the rise of worldly feminism.

I Timothy 2:9-15 and Ephesians 5:21-33 teach that women should submit to their own husbands, and that they ought not to teach men, nor usurp authority over men.

The Bible does not teach that women are inferior to men, but that a woman is a helper suitable for a man (Genesis 2:18), not as the NKJV says, "comparable to man." Christian women must display a "meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price." (I Peter 3:4). Saved women are to be "discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands." (Titus 2:5).

"I will therefore that the younger woman marry, bear children, guide the house,..." (I Timothy 5:14).

6. Less Emphasis on Doctrine

The teaching of sound doctrine is less popular today. New Evangelicals consider doctrine to be:

- 1) too divisive;
- 2) not practical enough, and
- 3) not helping to promote evangelical unity.

New Evangelicals seek to restructure preaching from a God-centred, doctrinal approach to a man-centred approach. New Evangelicals seek to minimise doctrine by pointing us to emphasise other things, such as:

- 1) Loving Jesus. A charismatic pastor once said, "What we need to do is just forget all this doctrine stuff, and just love Jesus." This sounds really spiritual, but once we seek to answer the question "Who is Jesus?", we have entered the realm of doctrine.
- 2) Cultivating the Inner Life. One cannot have spiritual growth without "growing in grace, and in the knowledge (doctrine) of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ." (II Peter 3:18). "Knowledge" involves an increasing grasp of doctrinal truth.

- 3) Loving Others. To them this means a toleration of error and accepting of all who call themselves evangelicals. This weak attitude allowed charismatic teachings to spread through many churches unopposed. Many Christian leaders, such as Charles Swindoll, will say things like, “I am not a charismatic personally, but the charismatic movement has done a lot of good and we ought not to condemn it. We should love the brethren.” So, in the name of “love”, all manner of false teaching is condoned. The NIV teaches this toleration of error by its mistranslation of Romans 14:1, reversing the KJV’s “not to doubtful disputations” to, “Accept him whose faith is weak, without passing judgment on disputable matters.” Luther wisely rebukes this error in This We Believe, p.76: “Doctrine is not ours but God’s....Therefore we may not yield or change even one tittle of it. Accursed be the love which is preserved to the detriment of doctrine.....If doctrine becomes wobbly in one part, it must necessarily become wobbly altogether. When that happens, love cannot help us.”

Charismatics say, “‘Spirit baptism’ unites, and other doctrinal differences can be overlooked.”

Paul never downplayed doctrine while pretending to practise love. He commanded sound doctrine to be taught. See 20 scriptures showing the importance of doctrine.

“Give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.” (I Timothy 4:13).

7. Contemporary Christian Music, so loved by New Evangelicals today, is witness to the theological deterioration in the church. Shallow theology leads to people accepting shallow Christian music. God-centred doctrinal songs have been replaced by man-centred, experiential songs. Loud worldly rock music has been brought into churches, with a “Christian” label and a few Christian words thrown in.

New Evangelicals claim that “you can’t reach the young people unless you employ their trendy music styles.” Pastors and church leaders felt they had to compete with worldly rock music to attract teens.

What happened to the power of the Gospel of Christ to convert sinners (Romans 1:16)?

They made God a commodity for self-gratification.

CCM fits with the self-centred culture of today where people focus on “meeting their needs.” Christian music must be firmly anchored in theology taught in the Bible. “I will sing with the understanding also.” (I Corinthians 14:15). Much CCM is upbeat, shallow and suitable for dancing, but not suitable for serious God-centred thought.

8. Psychology replacing Solid Bible Teaching.

Many New Evangelicals do not desire doctrinal instruction from the Word of God, but rather discussions on “how to” meet life’s problems. They aim for psychological wholeness more than doctrinal correctness. One well-known New Evangelical Baptist Union pastor, in a message, declared that he had hypnotised a criminal to discover childhood problems that caused his unlawful adult behaviour. Did Paul hypnotise his converts? God’s answer to the troubled soul is “Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee.” (Isaiah 26:3).

“Great peace have they which love thy law; and nothing shall offend them.” (Psalm 119:165).

Solid Bible preaching is becoming less popular, and is being replaced by pulpit psychology.

9. Theological Colleges that Poison Students’ Minds.

New Evangelicalism was thought up by professors of some evangelical theological colleges. They twisted the thinking of many impressionable youngsters. Many Bible Colleges that were built by old-time fundamentalists fell prey to New Evangelicalism. How did this happen?

- 1) Many purportedly Christian colleges and seminaries are far more interested in employing lecturers with prestigious academic credentials, than in employing soul-winning lecturers with sound doctrinal commitment.
- 2) Those doctrinally unsound lecturers teach their errors to their students who often end up being more doctrinally unsound than their lecturers.
- 3) The students take up their lecturers’ anti-Christian world views and teach them to their church members. This often results in church splits or in multiplying apostate churches.

Paul in 2 Timothy 2:2 was very concerned that sound doctrine be passed from generation to generation. Timothy, in turn, had to ensure that sound doctrines were preserved intact & passed on by his disciples.

Along with deterioration in doctrinal convictions came a deterioration in standards of conduct in the colleges. Many Bible Colleges provide a “smorgasbord” education where the lecturer gives the students all viewpoints and the students are free to choose whatever view they like. Colleges adopt this view for monetary reasons because they wish to draw students (and hence their fees) from as many churches of varying doctrines as possible in order to keep the College doors open. For example, they will teach various views of baptism, prophecy, spiritual gifts, human origins, etc, without saying which view is right or wrong, for fear of losing some students or supporting churches.

Often, high standards of conduct have been criticised as “legalism”, so some colleges scrap all the rules in order to cultivate “maturity” in the students. In reality, scrapping rules cultivates immaturity, lack of discipline, and a rebellious attitude toward authority.

10. Acceptance of Evolution or Theistic Evolution

Many New Evangelicals reject the literal six-day Creation 6000 years ago. They try to reconcile Biblical truth with evolutionary ideas. A student at a New Evangelical Baptist Union College asked me what were the differences between his Baptist Union and my Independent Baptist position. My 1st reply was that we believed in a literal 6-day creation 6000 years ago. His stunned response was, “Really?” Evolutionists seek to explain the universe without the agency of God. New Evangelicals were embarrassed that Creation was looked down upon by some scientists, so they sought ways to harmonise the views of unbelieving scientists with the Bible. Many New Evangelicals say that the first eleven chapters of Genesis teach theological truth, but not scientific truth. But surely one category of truth will never contradict another category of truth.

We reject evolution as “science falsely so called” (I Timothy 6:20), because it is based on unprovable assumptions. No man can observe the origin of life in the past. True science deals with what can be observed. Evolutionary scientists are willingly ignorant of, and have deliberately rejected Creation by God and Noah’s worldwide flood. (II Peter 3:15).

11. The Social Gospel

This means changing the Gospel from “salvation from sin and hell” to “salvation from social ills.” They misinterpret the leaven parable (Matthew 13:33) to claim that the church should be “leaven for society”, whereas leaven is always a symbol of evil. (Matthew 16:6,12). The Gospel is defined in I Corinthians 15:1-4 and this does not include any social action. Due to the churches’ evangelistic efforts, many social ills are lessened. Neither Christ nor the Apostles endeavoured to rid unconverted society of its ills. James 2:15-17, Romans 15:26 and Acts 11:27-30 each show a Biblical precedent for believers to help other believers who are “naked” or “destitute of daily food” or in life-threatening situations, but not for the world in general. Our main thrust must be to win souls, baptise and teach God’s Word to all nations. Fundamentalists who major on soul-winning have done more to relieve human suffering as a secondary emphasis, than have many liberals done by a primary social gospel emphasis. Fundamentalists, by soul winning, have started more malaria clinics, Christian schools, deaf ministries, prison ministries, and rescue missions, than have New Evangelicals by a primary social gospel emphasis. Many Fundamentalists have greatly helped sinners by leading them to eternal life in Christ. They then become better citizens after salvation, who then are well-equipped to help others.

12. Refusal to Preach Against Roman Catholic Errors.

The Roman Catholic church teaches the false doctrines of salvation by infant sprinkling, good works needed to enter heaven, repetition of Christ’s sacrifice in every mass, the impossibility of knowing that one is going to heaven, the need to venerate Mary, confirmation, and many other heresies. In spite of this, many New Evangelicals follow Billy Graham’s lead in not rebuking Catholic errors. For example: Example 1: The Baptist Union Theological College in Sydney, along with the Executive Committee of the Baptist Union of NSW, without the knowledge of the majority of NSW Baptists, incorporated “The Sydney College of Divinity” on 15 September 1983. This comprised six (6) member institutions as follows:

Member Institutions	Denomination
Baptist Theological College	Baptist
Catholic Institute of Sydney	Roman Catholic
Churches of Christ Theological College	Churches of Christ
St Paul's National Seminary	Roman Catholic
Union Theological Institute	Roman Catholic
United Theological College	Uniting Church

The Chairman of the Sydney College of Divinity's Council was a Catholic priest (J. P. Hill).

The Articles of Association state that one of the powers and duties of the SCD's Academic Board is "facilitating the exchange of lecturers between institutions, and the undertaking of courses by students in Member Institutions other than the institution in which the students are enrolled." (Section 44, Subsection (X), p 12). The SCD had its first graduation of students on 7 June 1985 at 8 pm in Pitt Street Uniting Church, Sydney. That evening, 30 RCs, one Church of Christ, and 10 Uniting Church students received their degrees.

(Source: "Triumph or Tragedy?" J O Hogg, Stanmore Baptist Church, NSW, September 1985).

Question: How could any Baptist lecturer preach against Roman Catholic errors when he has already agreed to work with Roman Catholic priests in the SCD?

Example 2: When Billy Graham preached in Roman Catholic churches in Poland, he was warmly welcomed by their leaders.

Example 3: Cuthbert Allen, the Executive Vice President of Belmont Abbey College, Belmont, North Carolina, USA (the Roman Catholic school that bestowed an honorary doctorate on Billy Graham), said of the evangelist:

"I would state that he could bring Catholics and Protestants together in a healthy ecumenical spirit. Billy Graham is preaching a moral and evangelical theology most acceptable to Catholics." (Letter to Julius Taylor).

Billy Graham continues to populate Catholic churches with his converts, rather than calling them away from idols and false doctrines, and into true New Testament churches.

A confused Catholic (in the 1960s) wrote to Billy Graham, expressing his concern about errors in the Catholic church. Graham responded in the Chattanooga Free Press: "Above all don't pull out of the church! Stay in, stay close to the Lord, and use these experiences as an opportunity to help your church be what God intends and what the world needs." (M Watt, "Mission England: Is it Scriptural", Bible League Quarterly, Jan-March 1984, p 36).

Question: How can Billy Graham, as a Gospel evangelist, Biblically justify telling a believer in Christ to remain in an apostate church which denies the very truths that he is trying to preach? If one who is seeking to lead people into the light cannot distinguish light from darkness, how confused will be his leadership! How terrible an example he is to suggest that all the Protestant world should follow his lead! "Woe to them that call evil good, and good evil, that put darkness for light, and light for darkness." (Isaiah 5:20).

Example 4: Notice what Japheth Peres testified after his conversion at age 14 at Billy Graham's New York Crusade. Having told the counsellor that he was a Catholic, Billy instructed the converts to go back to the church from which they had come:

"Since Billy Graham sent me to the Catholic Church, I was under the impression that it was the right church..... What did I gain from the Billy Graham Crusade? I gained about a year and a half of darkness and ignorance of the Bible, because Billy Graham sent me to the Catholic Church." (Baptist Examiner, 16 May 1964, p.1).

13. Ecumenical Co-operation and the World Council of Churches.

New Evangelicals aimed to infiltrate the apostate denominations with bright young Bible-believers who would "turn things around." Billy Graham helped to popularise the "infiltration" approach, and many young evangelicals followed him with their own ecumenical evangelistic crusades by working with a variety of unbelievers. Young New Evangelicals promoted co-operation with the apostate World Council of Churches (WCC). Evangelicals should not assist or be in the WCC. The WCC is a wicked, pro-Communist, anti-God organisation which true Christians should avoid and expose, because of the following errors:

- 1) The WCC donates money given by its member churches to guerrilla organisations and Peoples Liberation armies controlled by Communists to buy guns to murder people in its fight against racism. “Ecumenical Press Service”, 9 September 1971, lists WCC grants to these Communist revolutionary organisations:

People’s Movement for the Liberation of Angola	$ 25,000
The Revolutionary Government of Angola in Exile	$ 7,500
South West African People’s Organisation	$25,000
Zimbabwe Liberation Movement, Rhodesia	$10,000
Mozambique Institute of Frelimo	$20,000
Malcolm X Liberation University	$ 7,500
Bolivian Project in Aid of Indian Liberation	$12,500

- 2) “The WCC does nothing to assist black Christians of Southern Sudan, for years slaughtered by the troops of the Muslim Government at Khartoum.

In 1967, Baptists in Soviet Russia appealed to the WCC for aid, sending proof that more than 200 Baptists were in Soviet prison camps due to deliberate persecution. The WCC has done nothing to intervene in favour of these Christians.” (Christian Beacon, 15 July 1971, p.8).

- 3) Invitation to Rome: At Uppsala in 1968 the WCC issued an open invitation to the Roman Catholic Church to join it. (Courier Mail, 20 July 1968).

- 4) Denial of Bible Doctrine and Authority: The WCC Control Committee, meeting in Addis Ababa (Ethiopia) in January 1971 stated:

“Because Christians cannot claim to have monopoly of truth, we need to meet men of other faiths . . .” (S J Samartha, Christian Beacon, 28 January 1971, p.8).

This contradicts Christ’s exclusive claim, “I am the way, the truth and the life, no man cometh unto the Father but by me.” (John 14:6).

Also, Henry Van Dusan, a top WCC leader, officially sponsored the building of a Temple of Understanding in Washington DC, representing the “six rays of hope” - Islam, Judaism, Hinduism, Confucianism, Buddhism and Christianity. (Christian Beacon, 25 July 1968, p.1).

- 5) Humanist and Social Gospel

- 6) The Revised Standard Version was produced under the auspices of the National Council of Churches (NCC) in the USA. The RSV changed many texts on the deity and virgin birth of Christ. The RSV opened the door to a flood of other Bible perversions. The US Congressional Record (March 3, 1960, p. 3981) stated that of the 95 people who translated the RSV, 25 had records of support for Communist causes. In the RSV preface they say of the Bible: “It is a record of God’s dealing with men.” They should have said: “It is the record.....” This change takes away from the Bible being the unique Word of God.

- 7) Redefining Missions. WCC mission policy is summarised by G.A.Taylor in the Presbyterian Journal (10 February 1960):

“The radical theologian does not believe that anyone is actually “outside.” All are inside.....The churches’ task is no longer to go outside” and bring lost sheep in.” (Source: The Coming World Church, p. 38, Back to the Bible Broadcast).

Because of this attitude, traditional missionary activity has suffered a sharp decline in WCC associated bodies as a whole.

- 8) Sexual Permissiveness. Dr William Cole prepared a pamphlet for the WCC, entitled, “Called to Responsible Freedom: The Meaning of Sex in the Christian Life” for singles, where he writes: “You have got to make up your own mind what your standards of conduct are going to be. There just aren’t any rules; you do whatever strikes your fancy.”

Here the WCC blatantly opposes God’s Biblical standards of morality, by endorsing fornication. God has given us His rules, yet Cole says there are none. God’s rule is no sex outside marriage.

Conclusion: Get out of your church if it is a part of the WCC.

14. Co-operation with Charismatics

New Evangelicals accepted fellowship with Pentecostals. Later, the Charismatic movement became assimilated into the New Evangelical movement. The Charismatic movement changed evangelicalism to become more experiential, so that experience became more important than doctrine.

New Evangelical churches, while not always charismatic themselves, work with Charismatics and refuse to speak against them. The compromising Charles Swindoll summarizes this attitude in defending his concept of grace: "I'm not a charismatic. However, I don't feel it is my calling to shoot great volleys of theological artillery at my charismatic brothers and sisters. Who knows how much good they have done? The church I pastor is not a charismatic church.....but that does not mean that we break fellowship with individuals who are more of that persuasion, or that we take pot-shots at them." (The Grace Awakening, C Swindoll, p 188). His trumpet gives an uncertain sound.

Question: Are Charismatic teachings Biblical?

Answer: If yes, then we should all adopt them. If no, then we must oppose them. The issue is not whether the charismatic Christians are nice people, but whether the Bible teaches that the gift of tongues and other charismatic sign gifts are still operative for the church today? If they are not for today, then faithful Bible teachers must speak up against false charismatic doctrines being spread abroad and infecting many people.

Paul constantly refuted false doctrines, as he told Timothy to "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves." (II Timothy 2:25). Because Charismatics are wrong on sign gifts, then those who better understand Scripture should tell them they are wrong, show them why, and seek to win them to a more Biblical position. It is not a mark of Christian love and grace to quietly ignore errors that are spreading.

15. Tolerating Various Views on Christ's Return and Being Committed to None.

New Evangelicals tolerate various false views on eschatology (Christ's return), such as Postmillennialism and Amillennialism. Up until the 1950s, most fundamentalists, taking a literal view of prophecy were Premillennialists. This is clearly the correct view by taking Revelation 19,20,21 at literal chronological face value.

One New Evangelical theology professor, when asked what scheme of theology he taught, said, "I teach them all and, when I get to the end of the course, the students don't know what I believe." He felt that this was very clever, yet Jesus, on the other hand, "Taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes." (Matthew 7:29).

Christ spoke plainly and with authority; not as the scribes who quoted what many scholars were thinking. The scribes avoided dogmatism on disputed or controversial points, while Christ fearlessly spoke the truth.

16. Departing from Dispensationalism as being too negative a view of human failure at the end of each age.

New Evangelicals disliked Dispensationalism, because it offered too pessimistic a view of world and church history. Dispensationalism taught that there would be a growing apostasy in the churches, for which there was no remedy but separation.

"When the Son of Man cometh, shall He find faith on the earth?" (Luke 18:8).

New Evangelicals were not separatist, and hence resisted these dispensational conclusions.

New Evangelicals opposed the view of the church as a refuge in a ruined culture.

17. Scholarship

New Evangelicals desired to be accepted by the unsaved scholarly world. Budding New Evangelical scholars disliked the scholarly world of unbelievers and modernists, rejecting their own works. You would surely expect unconverted teachers of error to reject fundamentalist scholars who are loyal to the inerrancy of Scripture and are intellectually submitted to the authority of God's Word. The Word of God, through Jeremiah, was certainly a scholarly work, having been produced by the Holy Spirit, yet it was rejected and cut to ribbons by the king's knife. (Jeremiah 36:23-24).

Bible truth is always foolishness to the unbeliever, especially to the educated unbeliever: "For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness . . ." (I Corinthians 1:18). "The world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe." v.21.

Paul did not attempt to proclaim God's Word in the enticing words of man's wisdom, but in the power of the Holy Spirit. (I Corinthians 2:4).

New Evangelicals view Fundamentalists as anti-intellectual, because Fundamentalists were rightly suspicious of colleges who were opposed to Bible truth. The intellectual world is mostly under Satan's control. Fundamentalists see the intellectual ungodly world as: "Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart." (Ephesians 4:18).

Many of those who seek intellectual respectability and acceptance have become the church's worst enemies. If an ungodly intellectual does not accept the proof of the Bible as divinely inspired on the basis of its fulfilled prophecies, they are intellectually dishonest and God's people should not bother trying to please them.

We must submit our minds to God and His Word, "bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ." (II Corinthians 10:5). God has given us minds to be used for His glory, so we must "gird up the loins of your mind." (I Peter 1:13).

We must study God's Word to show ourselves approved unto God (II Timothy 2:15), not study the works of heretics and unbelievers in order to please them.

18. Meaningful Conversation with Liberal Theologians

The New Evangelical problem here is that they do not recognize theological liberals as lost souls, groping in spiritual darkness. "wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest: to whom the mist of darkness is reserved forever." (II Peter 2:17).

Many New Evangelicals view unbelieving false teachers (liberals) as misguided but well-meaning Christians who need our love and fellowship. These liberals are blatantly rebelling against God and the authority of His Word.

God tells us: "from such turn away." (II Timothy 3:5).

"A man that is an heretic, after the first and second admonition, reject." (Titus 3:10).

New Evangelicals are not heeding these warnings.

New Evangelicals say, "Let us compromise doctrinal matters for the sake of evangelism."

God says "No". "From such turn away." (II Timothy 3:5).

19. Dislike for Publicly Criticising the Theology of Other Evangelicals

Church marketing supporters say that, to build successful growing churches, we must not criticise the views of fellow believers.

For example, it is unpopular to criticize Charismatic theology.

New Evangelicals have erected a large umbrella where a great range of churches of various convictions can feel comfortable in their error. The church growth movement advises their followers to downplay "denominational distinctives" which appear divisive, such as the method of baptism, charismatic teachings, views of eschatology, eternal security, Bible versions, and church organisation.

20. Antagonism Towards Fundamentalists

One Fundamentalist preacher observed that New Evangelicals are always preaching love toward liberals, unbelievers and heretics with their many false doctrines, but that they hate the Fundamentalists with a passion. Why? Because Fundamentalists tell them where they depart from Scripture.

Most Christians are totally unaware of the profoundly disturbing and deteriorating changes that have occurred in evangelicalism over the last 50 years.

Fundamentalists are accused of being such things as "Legalists" - because we have high standards of Biblical behaviour. A legalist is one who adds works to faith for salvation, something no true Fundamentalist would ever do. They accuse Fundamentalists of burdening God's people with ridiculous and impossible rules which stunt their spiritual growth. Rules are to protect God's people from the devil's traps, not to restrict our fun. Paul says "Warn them that are unruly." I Thess. 5:14. Many people are attracted to New Evangelical churches because they carry chips on their shoulders against the Fundamentalist churches in which they were raised.

21. Ecumenical Evangelism

The effect of Billy Graham's ecumenical evangelistic crusades was to develop a pragmatic attitude which said, "Whatever tactics result in the salvation of souls, are acceptable." Whenever someone challenged this ecumenical philosophy, its defenders often replied, "But people are being saved! How can you be against soul winning?"

Hence was encouraged the unbiblical practice of uniting liberals and Bible believers in the cause of evangelism. Many have blindly followed this practice.

Billy Graham's practice of ecumenical evangelism can be likened to a fruitgrower hiring someone to go and pick the fruit in his orchard. The fruitpicker bulldozes down every tree in the orchard, then picks the fruit off the branches, and proudly hands the fruit to the orchard owner. Sure he picked the fruit, but he ruined the harvest for years to come. Billy Graham picked the fruit of souls, but by uniting liberals, evangelicals and Roman Catholics he broke down the walls separating truth from error, so that few know or will speak up against error for years to come.

This same principle governs those who would tell us how to build churches. They recommend loud rock music in God's sanctuaries, because "It fills our churches and reaches people." As yeast puffs up bread, so the leaven of false doctrine often quickly inflates a church in size. Don't mistake this for God-sanctioned growth. It is not striving lawfully.

Billy Graham's policy of sending new converts to liberal churches has been defended by some Baptists who think that it helps to evangelise members of the apostate churches.

Question 1: How can Baptists who profess to believe in regenerate church membership, defend the practice of sending new converts to churches which do not practise regenerate church membership, but whose membership is based on unsaved babies being sprinkled with water?

Answer: A believer does not join a church in order to evangelise its members. One joins a church to:

- a) worship God with other true believers;
- b) be taught correct Bible doctrines, and
- c) go out and evangelise the lost.

Question 2: If Billy Graham is not a liberal, why do liberals support his crusades?

Answer:

- a) Because Graham does not rebuke and expose their errors as the old time evangelists did, but he applauds and honours them as worthy spiritual guides;
- b) Because Graham fills the liberals' churches for them with his new converts.

The British liberal, Leslie Weatherhead, said: "I do not personally agree with some of Billy Graham's theology.....but Billy Graham is helping to fill our churches for us. We can teach people theology when we have got someone to teach."

He is saying, "My liberal theology is so empty of power that it can't fill churches, so we have to rely on evangelical theology that does fill churches. Billy Graham can fill my church with new converts, then I'll poison them with my false doctrines."

Shame on you Billy Graham, shame for sending sheep (new converts) to the wolves!

This compromising of Graham's has spread everywhere. His attitude is, "Do anything to get crowds and fill the churches." God says, "Yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully." (II Timothy 2:5). We must build churches according to God's rules, lawfully.

Seven Bible Principles that Disprove Ecumenical Evangelism

1) We must not fellowship with liberals in order to win them to Christ.

This means don't co-operate with liberals in a religious context to achieve spiritual results. Just being nice to liberals won't save them, only the Gospel will (Romans 1:16). God is more concerned about preserving the holiness and purity of His church, than He is about results. Holiness involves separation from evil and error. Paul commands us to turn away from those who have a form of godliness, but who deny the power (of the Gospel and the Bible). (II Timothy 3:5). The Graham plan denies that we should turn away from error, but seeks to join with them to do God's work.

Billy Graham defends himself as follows:

“The stress of the New Testament is upon fellowship rather than separation. The call is not so much to come out, as to come together.” (“Fellowship and Separation”, Decision, August 1961, p.14).

Answer: New Testament fellowship is always among born again believers, not between believers and unbelievers. Many religious leaders that Graham fellowships with are committed unbelievers. But Graham persists in spreading the myth that they are Christians with different views on some matters.

2) We must not honour false teachers as true Christian leaders.

When Graham first launched his ecumenical 1957 New York Crusade, he described the sponsoring committee as “Godly men who are seeking to reach New York’s population with the testimony of the risen Christ.” (Source: Herald of His Coming, 28 November 1956, p.8).

One Committee member was James Bonnell who did not even believe in the bodily resurrection of Christ. (Source: Supplementary Statement of James Bennett, 1954).

How can one promote the “testimony of the risen Christ” when one does not even believe in the “risen Christ”? Paul called false teachers who denied the faith “men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith.” (II Timothy 3:8). Paul would never have had them lead his evangelistic campaigns. They are lost souls needing to be saved.

3) We must not disobey the Scriptures in order to win souls for Christ.

Many New Evangelicals feel that they can disobey Bible principles to get people saved.

Their attitude is that the end (salvation of souls) justifies the means (co-operation with unbelievers).

Note: The main business of Christians is not to win souls. The main business of Christians is to do the will of God. But we must win souls within the context of Biblical principles.

Example: King Saul lost the kingdom because he justified disobeying God’s command to destroy the Amalekites’ animals, so that he could obey God’s other command about the required animal sacrifices. (I Samuel 15:2,3).

Saul disobeyed God by substituting a good thing in place of the best thing, namely total obedience to God. Samuel’s rebuke applies to us today: “Hath the Lord as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the Lord? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams. For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry.” (I Samuel 15:22,23). Billy Graham and his followers have justified their disobeying God’s commands against working with apostates, with the excuse that they are winning souls to Christ. This thinking is against the principle stated by Samuel, that:

“sacrifices were good, only when done according to the will of God.

But sacrifices done contrary to God’s will were not acceptable.”

Key: So it is with evangelism. The Bible commands both evangelism and obedience to God.

We cannot evangelise in a way that disobeys God.

4) We must not disobey the Scriptures with the excuse that we are showing God’s love.

Many New Evangelicals have a wrong definition of love.

They say that: “The badge of discipleship is not orthodoxy (sound doctrine), but love.” They claim that Fundamentalists are harsh, separatist, and abrasive, while they themselves are loving. Their wrong definition of love says: “Overlook false doctrines and embrace almost everyone who claims to be a Christian. Don’t criticise or condemn, just go along for the sake of peace.”

Jesus tells us that love and obedience walk together:

a) “If ye love me, keep my commandments.” (John 14:15).

b) “He that hath my commandments and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me.” (John 14:21).

c) “If a man love me, he will keep my words.” (John 14:23).

God warns us to “have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.” (Eph. 5:11). Preachers of false doctrines spread works of darkness because they keep people in spiritual darkness. To fellowship with them is to disobey Ephesians 5:11 and is unloving to God.

5) We must not seek to please false teachers in order to preach the Gospel to their people.

One of Billy Graham’s main defences is that many people from liberal churches hear the Gospel because their pastors and churches co-operate in the crusades.

This “end justifies the means” methodology was not that of the early apostles when Paul, Peter and Stephen preached against the Judaizers.

“If I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.” (Galatians 1:10).

Men pleasers, such as Billy Graham, do not rebuke those preaching a false gospel such as salvation by infant sprinkling. Men may approve, but God does not.

Key: Billy Graham’s sending his converts to churches holding false doctrines helps these false churches to grow in error by providing them with labourers to spread their errors. These labourers would be spreading truth if they were sent to sound churches.

6) We must not Condone False Doctrine as if it were of Little Importance.

The Roman Catholic Church teaches many heresies contrary to the Word of God, yet Billy Graham condones and encourages Catholic leaders to work with his crusades.

Charismatics teach false doctrines, such as new revelations, false healings, gibberish disguised as tongues, thinking that sign gifts are still operable today. Billy Graham endorses them as reliable Christians. John, the Apostle of love, was not only concerned about showing love to God and man, but also about rejecting error. He said: “Try the spirits whether they be of God.” (I John 4:1). “The spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.” (I John 4:6).

“He that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.” (II John 11).

Billy Graham rejects God’s Word in order to expand his empire. Resist this temptation.

7) Sound doctrine is more important than fellowship. True fellowship is based on sound doctrine.

Doctrine has fallen on hard times. Many Christians consider key doctrines as unimportant issues, preferring to seek a false unity with unbelievers.

Question: What was the first thing that the Jerusalem church continued steadfastly in?

“the Apostles’ doctrine, fellowship, in breaking of bread, and in prayers.” (Acts 2:42).

Paul charged Titus to “speak thou the things that become sound doctrine.” (Titus 2:1).

Sound doctrine is doctrine that is not contaminated with error.

Conclusion: Ecumenical evangelism is contrary to God’s program and principles. It is an attempt to unite that which should not be united. “Can two walk together except they be agreed?” (Amos 3:3).

“What fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what fellowship hath light with darkness?” (II Corinthians 6:14).

God has separated light from darkness; truth from error; and no-one, not even in the cause of evangelism, should try to take down those divinely erected barriers.

22. Loose Standards

New Evangelicals advocate a more permissive, freer moral lifestyle than has been commonly accepted among Godly Christians. Traditionally, Godly Christians regarded as wrong such things as smoking, drinking alcohol, dancing, theatre going, gambling, petting and pre-marital sex. Many New Evangelicals, however, reacting against what they consider excessive legalism, have allowed such practices. If we take a stand against these issues, we are called legalists. Paul speaks of the ‘truth which is after godliness.’ (Titus 1:1). Truth leads to Godliness. There is a powerful and vital connection between one’s theology (truth) and one’s lifestyle (Godliness). Compromise in theological areas has led to compromise in lifestyles as well.

23. Marketing the Church to Give the Unsaved Community What They Want

Some churches try to find what the community wants and they then adjust their ministry to the community’s demands. The Apostles never surveyed the pagans in order to see what kind of church to build, as has Bill Hybels of Willow Creek Community Church. They followed God’s pattern, not the pagans’ self-centred demands.

Question: What do spiritually blind, rebellious unbelievers know about the proper nature of a church? Nothing. The kind of church desired by the average unbeliever may be the opposite to what the New Testament requires:

- The unsaved person wants a church that will make him feel good, but God wants a church that will make the person feel the heavy guilt of his sins so that he will repent.
- The unsaved person likes contemporary rock music, but God likes music that exalts Jesus Christ.
- The unsaved person wants a church with few standards or requirements, but God wants a church that calls people to selfless, sacrificial service. God does not invite the unsaved to critique His Church because they are “haters of God,...proud,...and without understanding.” (Romans 1:30-31).

God's will for the local church's message, methods, and organisation is revealed in the New Testament. These revelations are not open to debate or correction by those with no spiritual discernment. Many churches downplay the importance of commitment and obedience, achieving growth by compromising their convictions. "Woe to them that go down to Egypt for help." (Isaiah 31:1). God rebuked Israel for leaning on the arm of the flesh instead of on the arm of the Lord. Many churches today fall into the same trap.

Many pastors preach man-centred sermons and not God-centred sermons, thinking that God-centred sermons are not practical enough. This is a serious error that strikes at the heart of Biblical theology.

Question: Is the Bible a God-centred book or a man-centred book? Was God's main purpose in revealing Himself to man, to bring honour to Himself, or to bring comfort to man? We must challenge people to salvation and to discipleship.

Question: Pastors, are you building a church that is honouring to God and is according to the Bible? Pastors must take care how they build, as I Corinthians 3:5-17 describes how to build a church. All pastors and church planters must give account to God for what kind of church they built. "The fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is." (I Cor. 3:13). The quality of each church will be tested and pastors will be rewarded according to the quality of the church ("of what sort it is") and not necessarily quantity (numerical size). The "marketing concept" of giving unbelievers what they want, is not found in Scripture. The Apostles and early Christians simply preached the Gospel in the filling of the Spirit and God "added to the church daily such as should be saved." (Acts 2:47).

24. Church Entertainment

Jesus said, "Feed my sheep", not "entertain my goats." We live in an entertainment mad world where television has taught people to expect a thrill a minute. Many today believe that church meetings should entertain unbelievers, so that Christ is more palatable to them. The New Testament reveals an absence of entertainment in church worship and evangelism. They emphasised what people need, not what they want. Early Christians met to worship, pray, fellowship, be edified, and evangelise.

Many 20th Century Christians have become God's demanding little brats whose emotions must be entertained with amusing programs and the best the world has to offer. The Wall Street Journal, 13 May 1991, describes the program of the Second Baptist Church of Houston, Texas, as "a Broadway-style show with a religious message. They offer as much activities and entertainment as they do religion. In the place of hymns, teenagers sway and clap at "Solid Rock"™.

Biblically speaking, New Testament churches were marked by the Apostles' doctrine, fellowship, breaking of bread, prayers (Acts 2:42), preaching (Acts 20:9), singing (Ephesians 5:19), giving (I Corinthians 16:2), baptizing (I Corinthians 1:14-16), observing the Lord's Table (I Corinthians 11:20-34), and encouraging one another (Acts 14:22). The church's ministry is to be spiritual and instructive, not a sports or entertainment club.

Note: Some churches' growth is not always a result of evangelising the lost, but by rearranging the saints, playing musical churches, with people moving around to more exciting and larger churches.

Question: What has led to the rise in consumer religion and worldly church growth schemes?

- 1) The break-up of the monopoly of large denominations on religious life.
- 2) The glorification of success.
- 3) The vast commercialisation of our culture.
- 4) The effort of Christians to influence and imitate the culture.
- 5) The abandonment of God-centred theology in favour of an expedient, man-centred theology.

Question: What is wrong with the worldly church growth movement?

- 1) It uses worldly methods which give only short-term results.
- 2) Principles of business are revered more than doctrine.
- 3) They are not separated from those holding false doctrine. In order to gain more numbers, they will join up with Charismatics and with others holding to error.
- 4) They seek to make people feel comfortable with themselves by non-threatening messages, so that they accept Christianity as an affirming influence.
- 5) It defines success mainly by numbers of people attending.

25. Forsaking Preaching for Sharing

New Evangelicalism has had a bad effect on authoritative preaching, replacing strong preaching with “sharing ideas”, and “observations.” This is humanism in preaching. Modernists consider negative preaching to be a cardinal sin. They want the hearers to feel comfortable about themselves. Strong preaching, like a torchlight searched out the sins in people’s lives, causing them to repent and forsake them. An example of wrong modernist preaching is how Robert Schuller of Crystal Cathedral learned from Norman Vincent Peale that we should avoid making people feel guilty (by rebuking sin), but rather make them feel good about themselves, and tell them how to succeed in life. This will draw quite a crowd.

Much New Evangelical preaching today is centred on psychological themes such as: meeting a person’s emotional needs; helping individuals achieve self-esteem; child rearing; solving relationship problems; how to do this or that, etc.

They will be less inclined to preach on sin, holiness, doctrine, premillennial prophecy, separation from error, soul winning, missions, etc.

The Bible was written to reveal the thoughts of God and to direct man away from himself and towards the Lord. Many preachers today emphasise “my needs” rather than focusing us on God’s person expounded from Scripture.

When “preaching” is changed to “sharing”, one’s attention is immediately diverted from God’s revelation to man’s perception. Older style preaching used words such as “ought”, “should” and “must”, but today many people don’t want God telling them what to do.

They just want God and preachers to help them solve their practical problems.

For centuries, Christians have found the answers to life’s deepest problems by applying great Biblical truths about God and His works. Preachers, declaring the mind and purpose of God from Scripture, have met human needs as people submitted to God and to His Word.

Preachers must first begin with an exposition of what God says, then make application of it to man’s personal needs.

One of the chief errors of New Evangelicals is their tendency to magnify experience over knowledge, so that experience judges knowledge, and sound teaching is neglected. Charismatics have led the way in this thinking and have sought to influence evangelicalism to be more experience based.

This is why so-called “Christian rock music” is popular, because many people want to “feel” something rather than “learn” something. New Evangelical preachers rarely tell people what is wrong with the Catholic church, or 5-point Calvinism, or infant sprinkling, or charismatic errors, or Amillennialism. That would be too negative, confrontational and divisive. There are far too many “trumpets giving uncertain sounds” (I Corinthians 14:8) in pulpits today. How then can believers prepare themselves to do battle when they don’t know who or what is the enemy?

If someone is teaching error, a pastor or teacher should speak words of correction to them. Strong religious convictions are not popular today. Let us not be conformed to this world, but let us present our bodies as a living sacrifice to do and speak God’s will and words. (Romans 12:1,2).

Hence, New Evangelical preaching can be summarised as follows:

- i) Neglecting to warn against false doctrine;
- ii) occupation with psychology;
- iii) “sharing ideas” instead of authoritative doctrinal preaching;
- iv) preaching on issues, instead of reasoned Bible exposition;
- v) preaching what people want (man-centred), instead of what they need (God-centred);
- vi) retreat from dogmatism of “thus saith the Lord”.

Question: What are Biblical guidelines for preaching?

- 1) A preacher must be fully committed to the inspiration and inerrancy of the Bible. Much weak preaching is due to weak commitment to Biblical inerrancy. If a preacher doubts the Bible’s inerrancy, he won’t be able to preach it with authority and power.
- 2) A preacher must preach expositively as stated in Nehemiah 8:8:
“So they read in the book of the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading.”

Hence the three elements of expository preaching are:

- a) What does the passage say? Read it and give its background.
- b) What does the passage mean? Correctly interpret it by applying rules of grammar, context, history and theology.
- c) What does it tell me to do? Apply it so people can live it and obey it.

Benefits of expository preaching are:

- a) It holds the preacher to the text, emphasising the inspiration of God's Word;
 - b) It keeps the preacher from getting side-tracked into error;
 - c) It helps the preacher to cover many subjects within the passage, rather than him concentrating on his favourite subjects;
 - d) It produces spiritual maturity and depth of Christian living in the congregation if consistently practised over a long period of time.
Those who would preach like Jesus did, must be definite, clear, decisive and settled, as a herald (Greek: kerox (preacher) in II Timothy 1:11) conveyed the official messages of kings, princes, magistrates and military commanders (Thayers Lexicon).
- 3) A preacher must boldly preach against error: "Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine." 2 Timothy 4:2.
Jesus, Paul, Peter, Isaiah, Jeremiah and other preachers all rebuked the errors of the day. God is opposed to preachers who "speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the Lord." (Jeremiah 23:16).
They are "prophets of the deceit of their own heart." (Jeremiah 23:26). Many modern New Evangelicals would not rebuke error as Isaiah said of Israel: "Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters." (Isaiah 1:4).

Note: Our aim is to "speak the truth in love" (Ephesians 4:15). Some preachers in their zeal to take a stand, become mean, rude, nasty, insulting and arrogant in their pulpit ministry, harp on petty issues, and fail to feed the flock of God. God is entirely against arrogance such as this. Only a Spirit-filled preacher who loves God, the Bible and people can display this right balance. Because of the lack of sound doctrinal preaching (Titus 1:9) many believers are weak and tossed to and fro with every wind of doctrine.

Warning to Pastors: Before you approve any Bible college for your church members, ask the College who the lecturers are and from where did they receive their theological training. Don't let your people attend a college where its lecturers studied at New Evangelical colleges. They will poison your students minds and turn them against you and what you believe.

A good minister of Jesus Christ will nourish up his people in the words of faith and good doctrine. (I Timothy 4:6). Pastors, are you doing this properly?

26. Failure To Discipline False Teachers

Many Baptist churches and unions of churches continue to honour and give equal recognition to pastors who teach blatant errors. A Sydney Baptist Union church was quite happy to tolerate two of its pastors who publicly stated their belief in evolution. Such men ought to be put out of the pastorate, because they are calling Jesus a liar in Mark 10:6 when He declared that humans were created by God, "But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female." God says in Romans 16:17 to "avoid them" and not to honour them as good Bible teachers.

Many denominations give equal recognition and honour to all pastors alike, regardless of their theological views. This is wrong to honour false teachers.

27. Acceptance and Fellowship with Para-church Organisations

Almost every para-church organisation has been infiltrated by New Evangelical errors. How can this be? Because of money and their need to draw students or workers from as wide a belief system as possible. Because they are not a church, they don't have people who give weekly offerings, so they must entice people from churches to come and work with them. This weakens local churches because such people are no longer under the authority of a local church, but are under the authority of a non-church organisation. Para-church organisations, in widening their net to gain supporters, must go easy on error, in case they offend their supporters who hold false doctrines.

Consider the following example: Two New Tribes Mission families were being supported financially by a local church to go to the mission field. After a few years it became known that they were not presenting the Gospel until after a 2-5 year Bible course, nor were they challenging sinners to pray to God to call on Christ to save them (Romans 10:13; Acts 2:21). When their supporting church pastor corrected them and told them to submit to their sending church's authority on these matters, they both refused and resigned from their local church in favour of staying loyal to the New Tribes Mission denomination.

Hence, it is a foolish waste of time, money and effort for a sound local church to support people who are not loyal to nor under the authority of the supporting or sending churches.

Another bad effect of supporting para-church workers who are not fully loyal to your local church is that when you cut their support (because you discover that they are teaching error) this may lead to a split in your church when some people oppose you cutting the support of such "nice" people.

The attitude of para-church organisations is, "The local church can do the hard work of winning the lost to Christ, then spend several years training them, then as soon as the convert is strong enough to be a worker to put something back into the church that helped him, the para-church group entices him to come and work with them. Their attitude is "You have minimal future in your church; come to us and we'll help you do something really big for God.""

Para-church groups do not have pastors, deacons, Lord's Supper, baptisms, a long term church membership, weekly offerings, independence of each local group, nor do they have doctrinal correctness (especially they are weak on or never mention the local church).

Note: Ask para-church organisations the question: "Which local church's authority are you under?" They will reply, "None, just our para-church headquarters." They hence are working outside of Jesus Christ's plan when He said, "I will build my church." (Matthew 16:18). Para-church groups always believe in the false Roman Catholic idea of the universal church. This is wrong because:

- a) The universal church has never met and will not meet until after the rapture.
- b) How can you have an assembly that has never assembled?
- c) Most Bible references of "ekklesia" are to local assemblies. A few refer to the church as an institution (like the family). None refer to the universal church (except Hebrews 12:23 which takes place in heaven. This is the only place where the universal church meets).
- d) Although para-church groups believe in the universal church, they always ask local churches for money to finance their activities.

Conclusion: Avoid New Evangelical errors and expose them in your preaching, otherwise you will lose your people to New Evangelical churches or to para church organisations. Notice four downward steps in compromise:

1. Toleration of error;
2. Co-operation with error;
3. Contamination by error;
4. Capitulation to error.

Which step are you and your church at today?

New evangelical philosophy has infected much of Christendom, that so very few Christians see the dangerous consequences. The downward path is best illustrated by the following. Where are you on this slide?

The Christian recognises the error

He tolerates the error

He excuses the error

He defends the error

He condones the error

He embraces the error.

Questions To Ask Pastors Or People To See How New Evangelical They Are:

Q1: Do you believe that the Bible today is without errors?

Q2: Do you believe in six-day creation 6000 years ago, rather than evolution?

Q3: Does your Pastor preach against the errors of the Roman Catholic Church?

Q4: Does your Pastor and church use only the King James Version Bible (or a foreign language equivalent based on the received text)?

Q5: Does your Pastor believe and preach premillennial truths?

Q6: Does your Pastor preach against Charismatic errors?

Q7: Does your denomination or church forbid ordination of female pastors?

Q8: Does your church support overseas mission soul winning, church planting projects?

Q9: Does your church reject and keep separate from the World Council of Churches?

Q10: Does your Pastor refuse to fellowship with those holding false doctrines?

Q11: Does your church or Pastor baptise adults by full immersion, rather than by sprinkling water on babies?

Q12: Does your church refuse to join evangelistic crusades with other churches which believe error?

Q13: Does your church forbid rock music bands?

Q14: Does your Pastor preach separation from worldliness, Charismatics and other errors?

Q15: Does your church have a weekly soul winning visitation program?

Q16: Does the Pastor regularly lead people to Christ?

Q17: Does your local church possess and own the church property title deeds (rather than the denomination having them?) If the denomination owns them they can put you out at any time they please. They control your local church. This is wrong.

Q18: Did the theological college where your pastor was trained, teach the above truths?

Q19: Does the theological college recommended by your pastor for students to attend, teach the above truths?

Q20: Is this college loyal to and in full doctrinal agreement with your local church?

Answers: The above questions should all have been answered with a YES, in order to be Biblically sound. Any NO answers indicate areas of New Evangelical error.

What did your church score out of a possible 20 correct answers?

III. BIBLE RULES ABOUT SEPARATION FOR ALL CHRISTIANS

RULE 1: The Bible forbids us to fellowship with unbelief (Ephesians 5:11a).

“And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.”

II John 7-11 states that Christian fellowship should not be extended to religious unbelievers and apostates. “If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed.”

Many people in John’s day called themselves Christians but did not hold the doctrine of Christ as set forth in Hebrews 6:1,2, (this being: repentance from dead works to be saved; faith towards Christ (who is God) for salvation; baptism with the Holy Spirit at salvation, and baptism in water after salvation; laying on of hands to set men apart for a ministry; resurrection of the dead; and eternal judgment in the lake of fire).

The Bible tells us to have nothing to do with those who don’t hold the doctrine of Christ.

“Whosoever transgresseth and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God.” (II John 9).

This is a very serious statement showing how important God sees this matter.

Definition of Apostasy: A “falling away”, a “defection from truth” in Greek (646). Apostasy means a departure from spiritual truth by individuals, churches or organisations which once possessed the truth.

The first two areas of apostasy are:

1. Departure from the inerrancy and inspiration of the Bible.
2. Disbelieving the Deity of Christ.

RULE 2: The Bible Commands us to Reprove Apostasy (Ephesians 5:11b).

One thing that irritates and upsets apostasy is the criticism of apostasy.

“Why be negative?” “Why criticise apostasy?” “Why not just be positive?”

Because Ephesians 5:11 says: “And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.” The Greek word for “reprove” means “to oppose”, “to show to be guilty.”

We are to separate from apostasy, and then to expose it.

Unbiblical apostasy always masquerades in respectable garments such as:

It claims to be spreading Christian love;

It claims to eliminate prejudice (eg: WCC fighting racism);

It claims to bring people together in unity;

It claims to be crusading for peace;

It claims to be cleaning up man’s environment (by a social gospel).

It never unveils itself as hateful, ugly unbelief with a veneer of humanistic good works. God has given us the job of unveiling it and exposing it as error.

The spirit of today is “don’t be negative”, but God commands us to reprove apostasy.

If you knew the bridge was washed out, your first responsibility is to avoid driving into the ravine, and your second responsibility is to warn others to avoid the danger.

RULE 3: The Bible commands us to purge unbelief if we can.

The Corinthian Church had a clear case of immorality. Most of the church was moral, but they had ignored one man’s fornication, which corrupted their fellowship. If we tolerate immorality or unbelief, it will usually build a sympathetic following.

Note: God did not command the Corinthians believers to leave the church in order to separate from the man. Instead, He commanded the believers to purge the church of the unrepentant man.

I Corinthians 5:1,2,6,7 describes the situation: “It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you . . . ye have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from you . . . Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? Purge out therefore the old leaven.”

Key: Church discipline is God’s provision for keeping a church pure morally and pure doctrinally.

Question: Why do we have apostate churches and denominations today?

Answer: Because church discipline is rarely practised.

Result: Unbelief flooded into the theological colleges, flowed into the pulpits and trickled into the pews. Churches and denominations failed to stem the tide by failing to purge unbelief and false doctrine. The failure to practise Biblical discipline will always lead to the need for separation from such churches or denominations.

Example: When Robert Ketcham could not purge the modernism out of the Pittsburgh Baptist Association, he became a separatist.

Question Can you clean up your apostate church?

Answer: The Bible commands us to purge unbelief. But this is no longer possible in 95% of apostate churches. No person can possibly clean up the National Council of Churches. Its theological colleges are apostate, its denominational hierarchy is apostate, and its connections are apostate. Fortunately, the sincere believer who seeks to purge the apostasy, will usually be put out by the apostasy and will end up a separatist.

RULE 4: God commands Believers not to be yoked together in Spiritual Endeavour with Unbelievers, (II Corinthians 6:14-18).

“Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? and what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God, as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.” (II Corinthians 6:14-18).

“Thou shalt not plow with an ox and an ass together.” (Deuteronomy 22:10).

The yoke was an instrument that joined two animals together in an endeavour. An ox is a reliable, hard-working, strong animal that is a willing worker. He well pictures a believer. An ass is a stubborn, unreliable animal that is difficult to work with, and uncooperative, who often wants to go his own way. He well pictures an unbeliever. God forbids both animals ploughing together. God also forbids believers and unbelievers allying together. This is because the unbeliever is not submissive to God’s rules, but he makes his own rules as he sees fit, to the detriment of the believer.

You may be yoked with an unbeliever to produce a report at work, or to build your boundary fence, but you must not yoke with an unbeliever in any spiritual endeavour, even a money-making spiritual endeavour.

This passage (II Cor. 6:14-18) talks about righteousness, light, faith and the temple of God. These are spiritual or religious things. “Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers.” (v.14).

“Come out from among them and be ye separate.” (v.17). Biblical separation is God’s preventative medicine to protect us from the cancer of apostasy. “Separation is to the whole ministry of the Word of God and the service of Jesus Christ what sterilisation and sanitation are to surgery.” (Paul Jackson).

Objection: Some sincere believer may say, “I am the only testimony in this apostate church.”

Human reason says to you, “I must stay, for if I leave, there will be no witness left in this church.”

Answer: Notice that your human reason is opposite to God’s clear command in II Corinthians 6:14-18. God says, “Come out from among them and be ye separate.”

If the lump is already leavened with error, you’ll never change it. Nobody ever has in all of Christian history. You remaining in an apostate church encourages it to spread error.

Objection: But if I leave a secure, well-paid position in an apostate denomination, who will pay my salary to support my family?

Answer: God will. Trust Him as He promised: “Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing: and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.” (II Corinthians 6:17,18).

Separation from Disobedient brethren.

The non-separatist Dallas Theological Seminary desired to cease reproving apostasy. This characterises the decline of every fundamentalist group because it tolerates and gives respectability to error, which then spreads through the group.

Question: Is it ever right to separate from individual believers? Answer: (See Rule 5).

RULE 5: The Bible Commands us to Separate from Disobedient Brethren.

Question 1: What is Biblical Fundamentalism?

Answer: “Biblical Fundamentalism is the militant belief and proclamation of the basic doctrines of Christianity. This leads to Biblically separating from those who reject them.”

(Source: “Axioms of Separation”, John Ashbrook, Mentor, Ohio).

Note: There are three keys to this definition:

(a) Militant belief - these basic doctrines are held as strong convictions;

(b) Proclamation - these doctrines are not only believed, but taught to congregations and preached to the lost;

(c) Separation - a man is not a true fundamentalist unless he practises separation where necessary.

Question 2: What is New Evangelicalism?

Answer: Harold Ockenga, its founder and First President of Fuller Theological Seminary, defines it: “New Evangelicalism was born in 1948 in connection with a convocation address which I gave in the Civic Auditorium in Pasadena. While reaffirming the theological view of fundamentalism, this address repudiated its ecclesiology and its social theory. The ringing call for a repudiation of separatism and the summons to social involvement received a hearty response from many evangelicalsIt differed from fundamentalism in its repudiation of separation and its determination to engage itself in the theological dialogue of the day.”

This tells us that New Evangelicalism differs from Fundamentalism in three ways:

- (1) It repudiates separation;
- (2) It summons Christians to social involvement with the world. This traces back to the modernist Social Gospel.
- (3) It shows a determination to engage in theological dialogue with liberals and unbelievers.

It says, "We will not come out from apostates, but we will sit down and talk with them."

Key: "Separation from apostasy" is the fork in the road between fundamentalism and new evangelicalism.

- a) Fundamentalism says "Be not unequally yoked", "Come out from among them", "Be ye separate", "Touch not the unclean thing", "Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness."
- b) New Evangelicals say, "stay in", "associate", "infiltrate" and "dialogue" with error.

Question: Which set of words is Biblical? Clearly the first.

Biblically, New Evangelicalism seems easily defeated, but overwhelmingly it has won the hearts of the "Christian Public."

Many Fundamental Colleges, publishers and churches of the 1940s are now mostly New Evangelical.

New Evangelicalism has captured the mass of professing Christians with:

- (1) its appeal to man's intellect;
- (2) its offer of a non-controversial road;
- (3) its adjustment to the world's lifestyle, and
- (4) its use of the rich and famous.

Objection: Some say, "We should not separate from other believers, because we will all be together in heaven."

Answer: The difference between heaven and now is that in heaven we'll see sin as God sees it, and there will be repentance where we have been in error. When repentance takes place in heaven, there will be no trouble being together in heaven. But if that same repentance were to take place on earth right now, we'd maintain fellowship on earth.

The one who divides the body of Christ is not the Fundamentalist who insists on obeying the Bible, but the New Evangelical who insists on fellowshipping out of bounds with those in error.

Note these five key commands in Scripture:

- (1) "let him be unto thee as a heathen man and a publican." (Matthew 16:18).
- (2) "Not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, covetous, idolater, railer, drunkard, extortioner." (I Corinthians 5:11).
- (3) "If any man teach otherwise . . . from such withdraw thyself." (I Timothy 6:3-5).
- (4) "withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly." (II Thessalonians 3:6).
- (5) "Mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned and avoid them." (Romans 16:17).

Question: What is God's command about disobedient brethren?

Answer: Avoid them, withdraw yourselves from them, not to keep company, let him be as a heathen. In other words, separation.

RULE 6: God's Work done in God's Way Produces only Good Results.

God's Work done in Man's Way Produces Good and Bad Results.

Religious magazines constantly tell us about the good done by New Evangelicalism.

We read about thousands of decisions at Billy Graham's or Luis Palau's latest ecumenical crusade. Is New Evangelicalism now the official channel of God's blessing? Three observations need to be made:

- (1) God never calls us to judge obedience by results.

God never commanded us to co-operate with apostasy and then evaluate the results. God says, "Come out . . . and be separate . . . touch not the unclean thing."

- (2) If something is to be measured by results, we must evaluate all the results.

Question: What are other results of New Evangelical compromise?

- i) When New Evangelicals breach the Biblical principle of separation, the line between belief and unbelief is obscured. For example, before Billy Graham's 1957 New York Crusade, the religious people of New York clearly knew which churches were fundamental Bible believing and which were not. After the crusade, that line was erased. People were then not sure which were sound churches. Erasing that line was not good, but evil.
- ii) Because unbelieving churches co-operated with the Crusade, they now have Billy Graham's stamp of approval, and hence are now recognized as true churches. This results in spiritually hungry Christians being turned back into these modernistic churches. They starved in these churches before their conversion, and they have been pointed back to these churches to starve some more after their conversion, when they could be winning souls and bearing much fruit in a sound church. Pointing Christians to churches with error is not good, but evil.
- iii) Spiritual babes are left on the doorsteps of unbelieving churches.
Do you believe in abandoning babies on doorsteps to starve? Then how can you defend Billy Graham openly returning new converts to blind Catholic churches or apostate Protestant churches to be fed false doctrine? That is not good, but is evil.
- iv) People are weaned from service in their local churches. Who wants to sing in a volunteer choir of 10 when they have sung with 2500 under a world famous director? Your local church of 100 looks very small compared with 50,000 at a crusade meeting. The New Testament emphasizes the local church, not the ecumenical crusade. Where is an ecumenical crusade in the New Testament?
- v) Pointing new Christians to churches with error kills multiplication of soul-winning Christians and aids multiplication of error. It stops these new believers from becoming strong soul-winners and it stops them from becoming multipliers of disciples. This is a most serious failure because we never see what might have been.

(3) Results alone do not mean that something is the will of God. For example, in Numbers 20, when Moses angrily struck the rock in order to fetch water, he had great results of God opening the rock to supply water that quenched the thirst of millions of people. However, because Moses disobeyed God's command to "speak to the Rock" (not strike the rock as he did), God forbade Moses entering the promised land. The good results did not justify the wrong way in which the thing was done. Great loss resulted.

In navigation, a small deviation in course would lead a ship hundreds of miles from its intended destination. In 1948, when Harold Ockenga set a new course for New Evangelicalism, he did not intend to make much of a course correction. He just intended to reject separation, add social involvement and win over some liberals. But this small deviation has sent many people to unite with apostasy.

It has multiplied apostasy rather than multiplying soul-winners and true disciples.

Satan is always inviting fundamentalists to co-operate, join, associate, stay in and dialogue with error.

Key: We must separate from disobedient brethren who continue in toleration of unbelief. Why should we endorse believers who bring leaven into our churches, and break down the fences between truth and error by their endorsing of men who hold false doctrines?

Henry Crowell, who built the Quaker Oats Company, sums it up well:

"Workers and leaders must be intolerant of unbelievers in church office. Faith must not support men in authority who, though they themselves are Bible believers, are tolerant of others in positions of trust and authority who do not so believe. The battle against the leaven was being lost in Christendom today because of tolerance toward believers who were tolerant toward unbelievers."

Key: One ability every Christian needs is the ability to say "NO" to error.

Satan is building his ugly one-world-church.

He aims to attach every church to this ecumenical monstrosity.

a) He started with the World Council of Churches.

b) To this he has tied in the Roman Catholic Church.

c) Also the Charismatic churches have been attached with the cement of the false tongues experience.

If a Catholic priest speaks in tongues, Charismatics call him brother.

- d) He has added New Evangelical churches with the cement of toleration of error.
- e) Now he is adding heathen religions using the trick of praying for world peace.
- f) The devil is applying pressure for your church to join this hideous ecumenical harlot. The only thing that will stop churches from being swept into Satan's counterfeit church is our ability to say 'NO'. Four rules on this are:

RULE 7: Don't Affiliate Your Church with any Church, Mission, Movement or Evangelistic Effort Which Does not Fully Believe the Inerrant Bible.

Beware of the "Good Cause Syndrome." Many groups will want your church to join them in promoting a good cause, such as opposition to pornography, abortion, communism, racism, etc. These are good causes that you may agree with, but, if you join up, it will ally you with Catholic priests, apostates and Charismatics.

Question: Why not join apostates to support a good cause?

Answer:

- 1) These groups want your support, but they don't want your Gospel or doctrines;
- 2) Compromise ties your tongue so that you cannot rebuke their errors;
- 3) You will teach your people not to rebuke error but to tolerate it for any reason.

Example 1: In II Chronicles 18, Godless Ahab trapped Godly Jehoshaphat with the "good cause" trick. The Syrians held the border town of Ramoth-gilead. For the safety of both Israel and Judah, that town needed to be taken. On the basis of that good cause, Jehoshaphat joined with Ahab. Jehoshaphat could see that Ahab's false prophets were not men of God. When Micaiah, a true prophet, spoke God's words, Jehoshaphat was so bound up by compromise that he stood with Ahab instead of with godly Micaiah and he almost got killed in the battle. When King Jehoshaphat returned home to Jerusalem, God sent Jehu the prophet to rebuke the king: "Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the Lord? therefore is wrath upon thee from the Lord." (II Chronicles 19:2). Jehoshaphat said "Yes" when he should have said "No" to Ahab.

Example 2: In Ezra 4:1-4, when Zerubbabel was building the temple of God, their adversaries offered to help them. Building the temple was a good cause and help was needed. The adversaries claimed to worship God in some sense, but Zerubbabel correctly saw that they did not fully believe the Bible, so he declined their offer.

"Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded the temple unto the Lord God of Israel; then they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of the fathers, and said unto them, Let us build with you; for we seek your God, as ye do; and we do sacrifice unto him since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assur, which brought us up hither. But Zerubbabel and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said unto them, Ye have nothing to do with us to build an house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the Lord God of Israel, as King Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us. Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building."

Zerubbabel's "No" caused his enemies to trouble him, but it kept God's hand of blessing on the work. If you contract with an unsaved builder (who doesn't care about the gospel) to build your church, he can stop the job for any reason, demand extra money, sue you in court and send you bankrupt from interest and legal fees. No other builder will be willing to complete the job for fear of them being sued at a later date for the first builder's possible defective workmanship.

Note: "Evangelism is the soft underbelly of fundamentalism."

The line which has trapped more fundamental pastors into ecumenical evangelism is: "Brother, this is for the cause of souls." Don't allow any cause, even evangelism, to get you to disobey God's commands

Note: You can be for or against a cause without joining anything.

You don't need to join a society to fight abortion. If you are uncertain about any invitation, say, "Let me think about it for a while." That will let you check it with the Bible and by prayer.

Key: Keep your church pure, so God can use you and it.

RULE 8: Do not Affiliate Your Church with Any Church, Mission, Movement or Evangelistic Effort which does not Practise Biblical Separation.

Missions and other groups will come to your church, seeking your monetary support. Some groups will seem to have good policies, but they will not declare themselves to be separatists. Actively reproofing apostasy is a part of Biblical separation. If a group will not reprove false doctrine, it will lead to the assembling of a mixed multitude.

Example 1: Church growth seminars, counselling seminars, etc will draw their people from a wide range of churches. They will not separate from apostasy or false doctrines. The fundamentalist at such a meeting will be seated next to Catholics, Charismatics or apostates. Why does that crowd feel comfortable together?

Because it has been quietly agreed that for the sake of their work, they will not reprove error or apostasy, and that Ephesians 5:11 will not be practised.

Example 2: Groups which preach indiscriminately in fundamental, modernistic and charismatic churches are saying to the whole community that: “Fundamental churches and modernistic churches are about the same . . . they support the same things.” Examples include moral majority, Christian political parties.

Question: Why should we not join groups such as Moral Majority or Promise Keepers?

Answer: Because they will not practise Biblical separation.

Every fundamentalist knows that we are a minority. You can't practise Biblical separation and build a majority. The world's way is always to win with a majority.

Think. Can you think of any place in Scripture where God used a majority? Truth is usually in the minority in this evil world. The battles in Scripture were always won by an obedient minority (so God would get the glory, not man), and not by a diverse majority.

RULE 9: You Cannot Preserve a Position Without Crusading for it.

Some fundamentalists want to take a stand quietly, without being offensive. They do not want to talk much about apostasy and separation. They do not want to be outspoken fundamentalists in the front line of the battle. “Be positive” is their watchword.

Trying to take a stand, while remaining all positive, is the half-way house between Fundamentalism and New Evangelicalism.

Not being outspoken always leads to the weaker position, not the stronger one.

Many churches have become New Evangelical while trying to be silent fundamentalists. Groups such as Billy Graham, Christianity Today, Fuller Seminary, Wheaton College, National Association of Evangelicals, and many Christian bookshops, have made a massive blitz to sell the Christian world on New Evangelicalism.

Fundamentalism met this blitz with a great silence. Many Bible believing churches were stolen by vocal New Evangelicalism. Early fundamentalists were fighters, and namers of names: “Tell (Herod) that fox.” (Luke 13:32). They identified liberals. They quoted their false doctrines. They reproofed their apostasy.

New Evangelicals criticised fundamentalists for being too unkind to liberals, saying it was wrong to name names. (But Jesus often did. Check it!) Under pressure of this criticism, many of the fighting tigers of Fundamentalism have turned into the pussy cats of quiet Fundamentalism. Many a quiet Fundamentalist now purrs on the hearth of New Evangelicalism.

The last 40 years show that you can't preserve a position without crusading for it.

RULE 10: When in Doubt, Don't Join.

Every Christian ought to be a member of a Bible believing church. If there are none in your neighbourhood, you should start one. If you don't have perfect peace about joining some church or group, don't join. You'll never have to apologise for what you don't join. Ask the 20 test questions to see if the church or group passes every area of Bible truth before you decide to join it.

RULE 11: What Separation is Not.

Separation is not the Answer to Every Disagreement Between Brethren.

The traits God uses to make separatists strong (eg: reproving error) must be controlled, or separation can turn to fragmentation. Notice 3 areas where separation is not the answer:

- (1) Personal Disagreement. Believers should not separate over personal differences. The answer is face-to-face talking, confession, forgiveness, prayer and forgetting according to Matthew 18:15-19. If pastors and people will settle their problems Biblically, they can have a long and fruitful ministry in the one church. Some pastors and people who can't resolve their problems, change churches every few years. Both the offender and the offended have an equal obligation to find one another and get things right.
- (2) Be patient with other believers as we all learn by making mistakes.
Don't separate from believers for every mistake or differing decision they make. If a man dogmatically holds to error, it is time to separate. Please remember that we have all held wrong beliefs in the past which we would not hold today. We are all learning and growing. Show love to those who may not have come as far as you have on some issues, and help them to see the truth on these issues.
"In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth." (II Timothy 2:25).
- (3) Difference in standards. Some churches have minor differences in standards that do not contradict any Biblical principles. We should love and fellowship with them, in spite of these minor differences.

Conclusion: When we obey the Bible, we enjoy victory. New Evangelicalism takes God's Word and mixes it with human reason and modern culture.

The enemies of the Gospel today are actively seeking the support of the Lord's people. These doctrine-free, false prophets of ecumenicalism invite us to co-operate, share pulpits, join campaigns, support good causes and reach communities with them.

The New Evangelicals have heeded their siren songs and gone over to dialogue.

The Fundamentalist, as the prophet of old, must see them as the devil's invitations.

Faithful pastors have never dialogued with wolves.

Note: If we cease speaking against error, this will cut us off from the fellowship of strong Christians who are fighting for the truth.

The unnamed prophet of I Kings 13:18 believed a lie because the lie came from a friend.

I Kings 13 has three characters in it:

King Jeroboam (representing the liberal apostate crowd of today), the unnamed prophet (representing the Fundamentalists of today), and the old backslidden compromising prophet (representing New Evangelicalism who have decided to ignore and disobey God's command to separate from error).

Question: Would a brother lie to us?

Answer: Yes, many believers who intend to follow some unbiblical conduct say to us: "We have prayed about this and we know the Spirit of the Lord led us to join this ecumenical crusade, etc."

How do we know this is a lie? Rule 12 is the answer.

RULE 12: The Spirit of God has never led any Christian Contrary to the Word of God.

The New Evangelical comes to us as a brother, but his philosophy of ministry ignores God's commands such as: "avoid them", "withdraw yourselves", "be ye separate."

When he tells us that the Spirit of God has led him in this New Evangelical direction, he is lying because the Spirit of God has never led one Christian contrary to God's Word.

Key: The most dangerous deviation is the one closest to your own position. New Evangelicalism sprang out of Fundamentalism. Jerry Falwell has swallowed the lie of New Evangelicalism by deciding that there is really no difference between fundamentalist and new evangelicals. This has led many to follow his path into compromise with error.

Question: Is it right to speak approving words about disobedient brethren from your pulpit?

Is it right to allow the cream of your young people to be educated in New Evangelical Theological colleges and to be used in their enterprises? No.

Question: Why was God so severe on the young prophet, but did not discipline the old prophet for lying and causing the young prophet's downfall? Answer: (See Rule 13).

RULE 13: God is most Severe on those whom he is Using at the Moment.

God was not using the old prophet, but the young prophet was God's man of the hour, being used so greatly against Jeroboam. God had to treat his disobedience very seriously.

The Bible believing, separated, fundamental church is God's instrument for today, but sadly, we are seeing some decline:

- a) Some fundamental churches are becoming more New Evangelical.
- b) Many fundamentalist meetings have less protest against error.
- c) Many fundamentalists are more tolerant of New Evangelical speakers.
- d) Some Fundamentalist's desire for souls and growth have opened the door to New Evangelical methods.
- e) Some Fundamentalist's music has more New Evangelical notes.
- f) Many Fundamentalists have adopted the silent stand and allowed vocal New Evangelicals to spread its message unrebuked.

God does not have to use Fundamentalists. If we forsake His truth, God can leave us lying in the middle of the road between the lion and the ass.

When Ockenga led the way in dialoguing with apostates and religious unbelievers, he led the movement away from the Word of God. You can't dialogue with religious unbelievers and open the Bible to say, "Thus saith the Lord". New Evangelicals took their movement away from allegiance to the Bible. Fundamentalists can put their finger on a Bible text and say, "This is it. God said it, that settles it". You can't say this if you work with liberals.

Many pastors have failed to impress these 13 principles on their people.

Question: What do we lose if we do not practise these Biblical principles of separation?

Answer: John's answer in 2 John 8 is that we lose our life's work, "those things which we have wrought." "Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought; but that we receive a full reward." Many great fundamental churches have not taught their people these principles and they have now become New Evangelical churches overcome by much error, and are well on their way to reuniting with apostasy from which they once separated. Teaching and practising these 13 principles is the only way to keep from losing your life's work in this generation or the next. If the fences are allowed to be torn down, the next generation will not know where they should be. Let us re-dig the wells of truth that have been filled in by New Evangelicals. Gen 26:17-25. 107. CALVINISM: TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. TOTAL DEPRAVITY. Ephesians 2:1 “dead in trespasses and sins”. (p.611,613).

Q: Does man have free will to receive Christ, and to do good? (p.610,613).

Calvinist inability to receive Christ is based on:

- i) John 1:13 “nor of the will of man, but of God.” (Ans: “as many as..” John 1:12). (p.614).
- ii) Romans 9:16 “not of him that willeth, but of God” (Ans: John 5:40; Romans 6:17; Luke 15:24).
- iii) John 8:43,44 “ye cannot hear my word.” (Ans: Luke 15:24; Luke 16:23-28). (p.615).

Refuting Calvinists’ “Proof Texts” for Total Depravity

- i) Someone who “cannot” do something:
 - John 8:43 “ye cannot hear my word.” (John 8:44,45,46,24). (p.615).
 - John 14:17 “the world cannot receive.” (p.615).
 - Romans 8:8,7 “in the flesh cannot please God.” (I Corinthians 1:21 preaching to save). (p.615).
- ii) Someone’s “inability” but with a reason given for it:
 - John 6:44 “except the Father draw him.” (Ans: John 6:45; 12:32; 1:9; 16:7-11). (p.615,616).
 - John 6:65 “except it were given unto him of the Father.” (p.615,616).
 - John 12:39-40 “they could not believe, ... He hath hardened their heart.” (John 12:37,39; Matthew 12:15; Acts 28:27). (p.615; 631-632).

- iii) Romans 3:11 “none that seeketh after God” (Ans: Acts 10:2; Isaiah 45:19; 55:6; Psalm 10:4) p.616.
I Corinthians 2:14 “natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God.” Ans: Eph.1:13.

Two Kinds of Scriptures that Overthrow Total Depravity Inability:

- i) Scriptures containing a command to believe: Acts 17:30; Isaiah 45:22; Mark 1:15; Matthew 11:28; I John 3:23; John 7:37; Revelation 22:17; Isaiah 45:19. (p.618).
- ii) Scriptures implying the possibility that a man can believe: John 5:40; I Thess. 2:16. (p.618).

2. UNCONDITIONAL ELECTION. (p.618-643)

Q1: Are men elected to salvation or not? (Calvinists confuse election and predestination with salvation).

Q2: What does the Bible say about God’s decrees? (Ans:None involve salvation: Isaiah 10:1). (p.619).

Q3: What is the problem with Calvinists’ view of God’s sovereignty? (Ans: They exalt it above His other attributes). (p.620).

Q4: Has God from eternity past foreordained all things that happen? (Ans:Herod’s massacre).(p.620)

Q5: Does God foreordain the time of one’s death? (Ans: Isaiah 38:5; Ecclesiastes 7:17; Psalm 55:23).

Q6: Does God foreordain sin? (Ans: Jeremiah 19:3-5). (p.621).

Q7: Why does God bring evil on people and places? (Ans: Because of their sins). (p.621).

God Has Not Foreordained Everything In One All-Encompassing Decree Because:

- 1) God says so: “neither came it into my mind” (Jeremiah 19:5). (p.621).
- 2) God’s Holy nature would not allow Him to be the author of sin. (p.621).
- 3) God permits something when He is said to do it, eg: Satan provoking David. (p.622).
- 4) Man’s responsibility is destroyed if God has predestined all things. (p.622).
- 5) Man’s free will is destroyed if God has predestined all things. (p.622).
- See 10 examples of man’s free will in Scripture refuting God foreordaining all.
- 6) Prayer changed things for Moses (Deut. 9:18-29); Hezekiah (II Kings 20:1-6); Righteous men
- 7) Calvinists’ Admissions that it seems “unscriptural, absurd, impious”. (N L Rice). (p.622).
- 8) Calvinists’ Rejections. (p.622).
- 9) Other False Philosophies are same as Calvinism, eg: Islam. (p.623).
- 10) Semantics, accepted word meanings, eg: “Whosoever” disprove it. (p.623).
- 11) Contingency verses showing the possibility of an event happening disprove it, eg: Matthew 11:21; John 5:30; I Thessalonians 2:16. (p.623). (eg: Luke 10:31; Deut. 22:6).
- 12) Chance disproves it. Some things happen by chance, not by foreordained decrees, (p.623)
- 13) Common Sense disproves it. If all was foreordained, nobody could avoid carrying out God’s decree.

Unconditional Election Blasphemes God’s Character in 4 Ways. (p.624).

Bible teaches Election to 6 Things. (p.625,626).

Three Systems of Calvinism: Supralapsarianism, Infralapsarianism, Sublapsarianism.(p.628,629).

Refuting Unconditional Election to Reprobation “proof” texts (Jeremiah 6:30). (p.629).

- i) Proverbs 16:4 “The Lord hath made the wicked for the day of evil”. (Psalm 76:10).
- ii) I Thessalonians 5:9 “God hath not appointed us to wrath ...” (p.630).
- iii) I Peter 2:8 “stumble at the word ... being disobedient ... as they were appointed”.
- iv) II Peter 2:12 “made to be taken and destroyed ... in their own corruption”. (p.631).
- v) II Peter 2:17 “mist of darkness is reserved forever”. (Jude 13). (p.631).
- vi) Jude 4 “who were before of old ordained to this condemnation”. (p.631).
- vii) Isaiah 6:9,10 “blinded their eyes, hardened their hearts”. (p.631).
- viii) Romans 9:13 “Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated”. (p.632).
- ix) Romans 9:18 “Pharaoh ... whom he will he hardeneth”. (p.633).
- x) Romans 9:22 “... the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction”. (p.633).
- xi) Jeremiah 18:1-10 Potter = God; Clay = Israel; Marring of clay = Israel’s disobedience; God remaking clay = discipline. (p.633).

Refuting Unconditional Election to Salvation “proof” texts: (p.633).

1. God’s People.

- i) Acts 18:10 “I have much people in this city”. (p.634).
- ii) Revelation 13:8; 17:8 Book of Life. (p.634).
- iii) John 10:14-16, 26 God’s Sheep. (p.634).

2. Given to Salvation.

- iv) John 6:37; 6:39; 17:2; 17:6 Given to the Son. (p.634).

3. Ordained to Salvation.

- v) Acts 13:48 “as many as were ordained to eternal life” (p.635).

4. Chosen to salvation.

- i) Matthew 22:14 and 20:16 (p.635).
- ii) John 15:16 “ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you”.
- iii) Acts 9:15; 22:14 “He is a chosen vessel ...” (p.635).
- iv) Galatians 1:15,16 “God separated me from my mother’s womb”
- v) I Peter 2:9 “Ye are a chosen generation.” (Exodus 19:6).(p.636)
- vi) Psalm 65:4 “Blessed is the man whom thou chooseth..” (p.636)
- vii) James 2:5 “Hath not God chosen the poor of this world”(p.636)
- viii) 2 Thess 2:13 “God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation”
I Peter 1:2 “Elect according to the foreknowledge of God” (p.637)
- ix) Eph. 1:4 “he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world”
- x) 2 Tim 1:9 “grace...given us in Christ Jesus before the world began”
- xi) Jeremiah 31:3 “I have loved thee with an everlasting love” (p637)

5. Elected to Salvation. (p.638).

- i) Jesus is called “elect.” How is Jesus Christ “elect” when He never sinned? (value, worth).
- ii) Angels are called “elect” in I Timothy 5:21 “I charge thee before...the elect angels” (p.638).
- iii) Israel is still called “elect” in the New Testament: (p.638).
 - a) Matthew 24:22,24,31 “but for the elect’s sake those days shall be shortened.” (p.639).
 - b) II Timothy 2:10 “I endure all things for the elect’s sake ... may obtain salvation.”
 - c) Luke 18:7,8 “Shall not God avenge his own elect ...” (p.639).
 - d) Romans 9:11,12 “purpose of God ... election ... the elder shall serve the younger”.
 - e) Romans 11:28 “As touching the election, they are beloved ...” (p.639).
 - f) Romans 11:5,7 “the election of grace, ... the election hath obtained it”. (p.639).
- iv) Church is called “elect” nine (9) times in the New Testament: (p.640).
 - a) I Peter 5:13 “The church at Babylon, elected together with you ...” (p.640).
 - b) I Thessalonians 1:4 “knowing brethren, your election of God.” (Acts 16:9,10). (p.640).
 - c) II Peter 1:10 “brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure.” (p.640).
- v) Christians are called “elect” 6 times in the New Testament: (p.640).
 - a) Romans 8:33 “who shall lay anything to the charge of God’s elect?” (p.640).
 - b) Colossians 3:12 “Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved ...” (p.640).
 - c) Titus 1:1 “Paul, a servant of God ... according to the faith of God’s elect.” (p.640).
 - d) I Peter 1:2 “Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father ...” (p.640).
 - e) II John 1 “The elder unto the elect lady, and her children.” (p.640).
 - f) II John 13 “The children of thy elect sister greet thee.” (p.640).

Believers are described as elect, holy, justified, beloved and having faith.

Calvinists read unconditional election into every verse discussing election. (p.641).

- i) I Peter 1:2 “Elect according to the foreknowledge of God”.
- ii) Romans 8:29,30
- iii) Ephesians 1:4,5 “chosen us in him before the foundation of the world.”
- iv) II Thessalonians 2:13 “God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation.”
- v) Acts 13:48 “as many as were ordained to eternal life.”
- vi) Romans 9,10,11

What does the Bible say we are predestined to? (p.642).

- i) Ephesians 1:5 “Son-placing” in heaven.
- ii) Ephesians 1:11,12 Praise His glory.
- iii) Romans 8:29,30 Conformed to the image of Christ in heaven.

Six Bad Conclusions about Unconditional Election. (p.643).

- i) Non-elect are predestined to hell.
- ii) Fatalism – Nothing we do makes any difference.
- iii) Shaky Assurance of Salvation based on decrees, not on Bible promises.
- iv) Missions and Evangelism change no-one’s destiny.
- v) Confusing, unbiblical terminology.
- vi) Makes vain all preaching, holiness, comfort, zeal and Scriptures.

3. LIMITED ATONEMENT (p.644).

Question: Did God intend to save all men, or not? (p.644). Four Point Calvinism. (p.645).

Calvinists’ 5 arguments for Limited Atonement. (p.646).

Two Old Testament examples proving the Atonement and its Application are different. (p.646).

- i) Passover lamb’s blood was efficacious only after applied to the doorpost. (p.646).
- ii) Snake-bitten Israelites in the wilderness had to look at a brass serpent on a pole. Numb 21:5-9 Calvinist argument 3 refuted – Christ died for Old Testament saints. (Hebrews 9:15). (p.647).
- Calvinist argument 4 refuted – Romans 5:17 says Christ’s gift must be received. (p.647).
- Calvinists inconsistently define MAN, ALL MEN, ALL in:
 - i) Romans 5:15 “offence of one MANY be dead ... gift hath abounded to MANY”. (p.647).
 - ii) Romans 5:18 “judgment came on ALL MEN ... free gift came on ALL MEN”. (p.647).
 - iii) Isaiah 53:6 “ALL we like sheep ... iniquity of us all.” (p.647).

Calvinist argument 5 refuted – John 3:18 “he that believeth not is condemned”. (p.647).

Christ died for “the WORLD”, “ALL MEN”, and “ALL”: (p.647).

- I. Christ died for “the WORLD”, eg: John 12:19 “The world is gone after him.” (p.648).
 - i) In John, the word “world” occurs 89 times but never means “elect”. (p.648).
 - ii) John 1:29 “Behold the lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of world.” (p.648).
 - iii) John 6:33 “and giveth life unto the world”. (p.648).
 - iv) John 3:16 “For God so loved the world..that whosoever believeth in him should not perish.”
 - v) John 4:42 “This is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world.” (p.648).
 - vi) John 6:51 “my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.” (p.648).
 - vii) In Paul’s letters, the word “world” occurs 69 times, but never means “elect”. (p.649).
 - viii) 2 Corinthians 5:19 “God.. reconciling the world unto himself, ... committed to us.” (p.649)
 - ix) Galatians 1:4 “Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world.”
Key: Paul differentiates between “us” believers and the “world”. (p.649).
 - x) In I John, the word “world” occurs 23 times and never means “elect”. (p.649).
 - xi) I John 2:2 “he is the propitiation for our sins..not for ours only,but also for the sins of the whole world”
 - xii) I John 4:14 “The Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.” (p.648-650).
 - xiii) I John 5:19 “We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies in wickedness.” (p.650)
- Calvinist Objection: John 11:49-52. Are the “children of God” the church or Israel? (p.650). (Deuteronomy 14:1; Psalm 82:6; Isaiah 43:6; John 7:35).
- II. Christ died for ALL MEN, eg: Matthew 10:22 “hated of all men.” (p.651).

- i) Isaiah 53:6 “All” means the same in both places. (p.651).
- ii) II Corinthians 5:14,15 “elect” are “us” and “we”, so three “alls” mean “all men”. (p.651).
- iii) I Timothy 2:1-6 Three “alls” don’t mean “elect”, because “elect” is “we”. (p.651).
- iv) I Timothy 4:10 “Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.” (p.652).
This contrast between “all men” and “those that believe” occurs in four places:
 - Galatian 6:10 “do good unto all men, especially to them who are of the household of faith.”
 - Romans 3:22 “the righteousness of God...unto all (100%) and upon all them that believe.”
 - Titus 2:11,12 “the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared unto all men (100% of men), teaching us (the “elect”) that, denying ungodliness...”
- v) Hebrews 2:9 “that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.” (p.652).

III. Christ Died for a Particular Group: His People, Sheep, Church of God, Many. (p.653).

- i) Many: Matthew 20:28 “Son of man came ... to give his life a ransom for many.” (p.653).
Matthew 26:28 “This is my blood ... shed for many for the remission of sins.”
Hebrews 9:28 “Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many.”
(Ans: Romans 5:15,19. Did Adam’s fall affect all or only some of his descendants?)
- ii) His People: Matthew 1:21 “He shall save his people from their sins.” (p.653).
(Ans: Matthew 2:6; Luke 1:68 “His people” = Israel)
- iii) Sheep: John 10:15 “I lay down my life for the sheep.” (p.653).
(Ans: Matthew 10:6; 15:24 “lost sheep of the house of Israel.” Sheep = Israel).

Other Groups Christ Died for that Prove Unlimited Atonement

- i) Those Christ died for who will ultimately go to hell. (II Peter 2:1). (p.654).
- ii) Those Christ died for that describe everybody, all mankind: (p.654).
 - Luke 19:10 “Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.”
Are all lost or only the elect lost?
 - Romans 5:6 “Christ died for the ungodly.” Are all ungodly, or only elect ungodly?
 - Galatians 4:5 “To redeem them that were under the law.” Are all under the law?
 - I Timothy 1:15 “Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.” Are all sinners?
 - I Peter 3:18 “Christ also has once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust.” Are all unjust?
- iii) Christ died for His friends. “that a man lay down his life for his friends.” (John 15:13).
(Ans: Judas was one of Christ’s friends: Matthew 26:50). (p.654).
- iv) Christ died for “whosoever believeth” may claim Christ’s atonement. (p.654).
 - Acts 10:43 “whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.”
 - Romans 10:11 “whosoever believeth in him shall not be ashamed.”
 - Romans 10:13 “whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.”
 - I John 5:1 “whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God.”
 - Revelation 22:17 “whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.”

QUESTIONS TO ASK CALVINISTS.

- Q1: How many of the 5 points of Calvinism do you believe?
- Q2: Does man have free will to receive or reject Christ as Saviour? (Revelation 22:17). (p.613).
- Q3: If man has no free will, and the non-elect cannot believe, how can non-elect people be held responsible for what they cannot do? (p.614).
- Q4: Why do men not seek God? Is it Total Depravity? No, it is pride. (Psalm 10:4). (p.617; Q5).
- Q5: Is a man responsible for what he is unable to do? Yes and No. It depends on why he is unable. 618,Q8
- Q6: Would God offer salvation to men, knowing that they couldn’t receive it? Are God’s offers genuine? (Isaiah 45:19). (p.618; Q10).
- Q7: Are some men elected to salvation or are they not? (p.619; Q1).
(Answer: No. Calvinists confuse election and predestination with salvation).

- Q8: Does God foreordain sin, suffering, the Fall, and all things? No. (p.619;Q2).
- Q9: Show me where God decrees some people's election or predestination to salvation or hell in the Bible? (Ans: There is no such eternal decree of God in Scripture. Isaiah 10:1)(p.619-620;Q3)
- Q10: If predestination is a secret decree of God, how come Calvinists know so much about it? Deut 29:29
- Q11: What is wrong with Calvinists' view of God's sovereignty? (p.620;Q5).
(Ans: It means arbitrariness, and is exalted above His holiness, mercy and other attributes) Q10
- Q12: Did God eternally decree Herod's massacre of children under 2 years of age? Sodomy? Rape?
- Q13: Why does God bring evil on people or places? (Jeremiah 19:3-5). (p.621;Q14).
(Answer: Because of their sins, not by any arbitrary decree).
- Q14: How could God decree and foreordain sin if it never came into His mind?(Jer 19:5) (p.621;Q15)
- Q15: Do you know 13 reasons why God has not foreordained all things? (p.621-623).
- Q16: Do you know 8 reasons why man has free will? (p.622;Q17).
- Q17: Does anything happen by chance? Jesus and Moses say so (Luke 10:31; Deut 22:6) (p.623;Q19) (Response to Calvinist accusing you of being Arminian or Pelagian: You: "I believe some things that Arminius, Pelagius and Calvin believed. I reject some things that they believed.")
- Q18: What are 4 bad effects of Unconditional Election? (p.624).
- Q19: Is God just in electing some and passing by the rest? No. (p.629; Q25).
(Answer: The Calvinist god is like the priest and levite who "passed by" the half-dead man. (Luke 10:30-32). Did Jesus recommend their behaviour? No. Then neither does God behave this way. Jesus commands us to "Go and do thou likewise". (Luke 10:37), as the Good Samaritan did. Does Jesus practise what He preaches? Surely.
- Q20: Has God made two groups of men as elect and non-elect? (p.633).
(Ans: No, because "he fashioneth their hearts alike". Psalm 33:13-15).
- Q21: When are people put "in Christ", from eternity past or when saved? (Romans 16:7). (p.636).
- Q22: Can the "elect" be "dead in sin" and yet be "in Christ" at the same time?
- Q23: Have the "elect" ever been in danger of going to hell? (Calv. say No) p637,8,Q38. (I Peter 2:6. p.638
- Q24: What does it mean to say Jesus Christ was "elect" in Isaiah 42:1? Does this apply to Christians?
- Q25: Is Israel still called "elect" in NT? Yes. (p.638-640).
- Q26: Why would Paul endure stonings, beatings, shipwreck for the "elect" if they were sure to be saved? (II Timothy 2:10). Do you? (p.639).
- Q27: In II Peter 1:10 what is the significance of calling coming before election? "Make your calling and election sure".(It destroys Calvinism, as Calvinists think that election comes before calling). (p.640)
- Q28: In II Peter 1:10, how could man make sure what God has already made sure?
(Answer: Calling and election relate to service). (p.640).
- Q29: What is the true meaning of NT election from I Peter 2:9; Exodus 19:6; Deuteronomy 14:2?
(Answer: NT election is of the church as a body. As the nation of Israel was corporately elected as a body, so also was the church corporately elected as a body.) (p.641).
- Q30: Is your pay packet predestined? (If yes, why go to work?)
Are souls predestined to heaven? (If yes, why don't you work to win them?)
- Q31: Show me one NT verse teaching that some are predestined to heaven? (Ephesians 1:5 adoption of children = son placing in heaven). See Romans 8:23. (p.642).
- Q32: Do dead babies go to heaven or hell? (p.643; Q47).
- Q33: Do you want all people to be saved? (Yes). Does the devil want all people to be saved? (No)
Does God want all people to be saved? Calvinists say No. Are you more merciful and loving than God?
- Q34: What two OT examples refute Limited Atonement by showing that the Atonement and its Application are to be distinguished? (Passover lamb, and brass serpent on a pole). (p.646).
- Q35: Do the first "many", "all men" and "all" mean the same as the last "many", "all men" and "all" in Romans 5:15; 5:18; Isaiah 53:6? (p.647). (p.652.
- Q36: Which 4 verses contrast "all men" with "elect"? (2 Tim 4:10; Gal. 6:10; Romans 3:22; Titus 2:11,12)
- Q37: What 4 groups did Christ die for, that prove unlimited atonement?
(Ans: Those who will go to hell, everybody, Jesus' friends, and whosoever believeth).
- Q38: How does a Calvinist know if he is saved or not? (By Perseverance or Promises). (p.655;Q14).

107. REFUTING 5-POINT CALVINISM (TULIP)

“My wrath is kindled against thee...for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right.” Job 42:7.
Calvinism or Reformed doctrine was completely expressed by the Swiss reformer John Calvin (1509-64). It is noted for its emphasis on Predestination and the Sovereignty of God.
Martin Luther’s views on the sovereignty of God were similar to Calvin’s as seen by his tract on “The Bondage of the Will” which spoke strongly of Total Depravity.

After the Reformation, a reaction against Calvinism arose and in Holland, Jacob Arminius (1560-1609) taught a greater emphasis on free will. His 5 theses were condemned by the Synod of Dort (1618) which formulated the 5 points of Calvinism remembered by the acronym TULIP, standing for: Total Depravity of man, Unconditional Election, Limited Atonement, Irresistible Grace, and Perseverance of the saints.

Question: Is Calvinism Biblical? Does God want some to be saved, or all to be saved?

“God our Saviour; who will have all men to be saved...

The man Christ Jesus; who gave himself a ransom for all...” I Timothy 2:3-6.

“The Lord...is not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.” 2 Peter 3:9.

Five point Calvinists teach that:

- God does NOT want all to be saved.
- Christ did NOT give himself a ransom for all.
- God does NOT love all the world.
- God wants most people to go to hell.
- God created most people to send them to hell, as a means of glorifying Himself.

The Effect of five point Calvinism is that it:

- Presents God as unjust.
- Presents Christ as a liar and a false advertiser.
- Changes the doctrines of God, man, the Gospel, prayer and evangelism.
- Presents the God of love as a monster.
- Is a teaching that produces atheists.
- Has no remedy for sin for some people.

Once a person accepts that Total Depravity means “Total Inability”, they must accept ULIP.

If man is not able to call on Christ to save him, then God must elect people unconditionally if anyone is to be saved.

Calvinists start with a wrong understanding of man’s nature as having a will bound to his sin nature. They must then adjust the gospel facts to fit their theory.

The TULIP error seeks support from Scripture, but takes these verses out of context.

Question: What are the Errors of 5- point Calvinism?

1. TOTAL DEPRAVITY of man, or TOTAL INABILITY of man.

(A false view of the nature of man leads to 3 other false views about God).

By Total Depravity of man, Calvinists mean “Total Inability of man” to believe or call on Christ to save him. Calvinists mean that sinners cannot come to Jesus Christ to receive Him as Saviour, unless they are foreordained or predestined to come to Christ.

Answer: a) We agree that man is totally depraved in the sense that he is “born in sin.” (Psalm 51:5); “he goes astray as soon as he is born.” (Psalm 58:3); “in my flesh, dwelleth no good thing” Roman7:18.

b) We agree that man does not initiate any move to God and salvation on his own.

“there is none that seeketh after God.” (Romans 3:11; Psalm 14:2,3).

c) We strongly disagree with “Total Inability of man.”

The Bible never hints that people are lost because they have no ability to come to Christ.

Jesus said to unsaved Jews, “Ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.” John 5:40.

Here Jesus states that lost sinners have the will to come to Jesus for salvation if they so choose.

If nobody has the ability to come to Christ, Jesus would have said, “ye cannot come unto me.”

Jesus wept over Jerusalem saying that he would have gathered them for salvation, but they would not be gathered.

“O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, . . . how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as an hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not.” (Matthew 23:37).

Not that they “could not”, but that they “would not.” Jesus laid the responsibility for them not being saved squarely on their own rejection of Christ. Jesus did not say that they were unable to come, but that they were unwilling to come. Their unwillingness to come was the cause of their damnation, not God’s failure to elect them as Calvinists say.

d) Jesus in Revelation 22:17 invites all people to exercise their free will to come to Him for salvation. “And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.” Revelation 22:17.

“If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.” John 7:37.

If Jesus invited people to come, knowing that some were unable to come, he would have been guilty of falsely advertising something that he knew they were unable to take.

e) Question 1: Objection: Calvinists claim that John 6:44 proves man’s inability to come to Christ:

“No man can come to me except the Father which hath sent me draw him.” (Read John 6:45).

Answer: It is true that no sinner can come to Christ unless drawn by the Holy Spirit.

We believe, however that Christ, through His Holy Spirit, draws every man sufficiently to Himself, to enlighten every man as much as is necessary for that individual to make a decision of his own free will. Jesus states that from the cross of Christ issues a drawing power that all men experience.

“And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.” John 12:32.

All men are drawn to Christ, in 4 ways, but not all men will receive Christ as their Saviour.

a) Christ: The Bible teaches that all men receive light from Christ, enabling them to come to Christ:

“That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.” John 1:9.

b) Creation: God calls every sinner to Himself through the witness of Creation, so that they are without excuse if they reject Christ. “The invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen; . . . so that they are without excuse.” Romans 1:19,20.

c) Conscience: God calls sinners through the convicting voice of their Conscience, even when they have not heard God’s Word. “their conscience also bearing witness.” Romans 2:11-15, 16.

d) Bible: God calls sinners through the Bible: “The entrance of thy words giveth light.” Psalm 119:130. Hence, everyone who has ever been born, has been given light by Christ, by Creation, by their Conscience, and by the Bible (Canon of Scripture). To this light they are capable of responding, and are accountable to God if they reject Christ.

Hence Total Inability of man to come to Christ is a false doctrine without Biblical support.

Question 2: Does man have a free will?

Answer: Total depravity is not so much a statement that man is a sinner in need of salvation (true), BUT a statement on the interaction of the will, heart, and mind.

Question 3: Is man’s will governed and in bondage to his sinful heart and mind, as Calvinists claim?

Answer: Since man’s heart and mind are corrupt, Calvinists claim that the will is incapable of choosing any good at all. Is this true? No, because of these examples:

i) Fallen angels were created perfect. If their wills were governed by their sinless hearts and minds, then they were incapable of sin. Yet the fact that they willed to sin proves that one’s will is not governed by our heart and mind.

ii) Man was created sinless. If Adam and Eve’s will were governed by their sinless heart and mind, then it would have been impossible for man to sin.

That Satan, fallen angels and man have sinned, proves that our will can act independent and contrary to our heart and mind, to decide to do evil. Hence our will is not governed by our heart and mind.

iii) We often make hard decisions of our will contrary to our heart (feelings) and mind (reasoning). For example, we say ‘This goes against my better judgment, but I’ll do it for you.’ If our will is not governed by our heart and mind, then we do have the power of choice, and we can choose to come to Christ.

Question 4: What if man does not have a free will? What a mockery it makes of Christ’s offer of salvation: “Whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.” Revelation 22:17.

Question 5: Would a loving God hold out the water of eternal life to thirsty souls if He knew they could not take it?

This would constitute false advertising and common deceit. God is not dishonest !!!!!

If God asks honest behaviour of us, He will act honestly to mankind. Calling God dishonest is evil.

Question 6: The “Total depravity” idea declares that all men are totally incapable of any good deed or righteous act. Is this true? Can an unsaved sinner be kind, honest, caring etc.?

Yes. A lost sinner can do righteous acts:

“Not by works of righteousness that we have done...” Titus 3:5.

Good deeds do not earn merit for salvation, nor can they cancel the guilt and penalty of sin.

Question 7: Calvinists quote Ephesians 2:1, that we “were dead in trespasses and sins.” How dead is dead? Calvinists say “as dead as a corpse” so that man cannot hear the call of God. To resolve this problem, Calvinists must change the order of the process of salvation as follows: If natural man is so dead that he cannot hear the call of God to salvation, then before he can hear the gospel invitation, he must be given life. This act of giving life must therefore take place before the sinner can hear or respond to God. It is a decision by God in God’s Sovereign Will to impart faith to selected sinners.”

The Biblical order of salvation events are:

- i) God strives with sinners, convicting them by the Holy Spirit of their sin. (Genesis 6:3).
- ii) Man repents of his sin, and receives Christ to be his all sufficient Saviour. (John 1:12).
- iii) God gives the gift of eternal life. (Romans 6:23).
- iv) The Holy Spirit enters a person the moment he calls on Christ to be his Saviour. (Romans 10:13).

The Calvinist order of salvation events are:

- i) God selects certain sinners to be the object of His grace.
- ii) God does a work of grace on the sinner, enabling him to be no longer dead and unresponsive, but capable of a true response to God.
- iii) God gives faith as a gift to the selected sinner.
- iv) The sinner then believes and is saved.

Calvinists misunderstand Ephesians 2:8 to suggest that the gift of God is faith, and not eternal life.

“For by grace are ye saved through faith (Greek: pistis, feminine noun); and that (Greek: touto, neuter pronoun) not of yourselves: it is the gift of God...”

Question 8: What is the gift of God? Is it salvation or faith? It is salvation because:

- a) Romans 6:23 says it is eternal life, not faith. “The gift of God is eternal life.”
- b) In Ephesians 2:8 the Greek word “that” is neuter. This shows us that “that” which is not of yourselves” cannot be referring to faith which is feminine, but to something which is neuter, such as salvation and eternal life.

Question 9: In what sense is man dead in trespasses and sin?

- a) By separation from God. Adam and Eve were separated from God after the fall, but they still heard God’s voice in the conversation in Genesis 3:8-24:

“And they heard the voice of the LORD God walking in the garden.” Genesis 3:8.

Even murderers unregenerate Cain could hear the voice of God in Genesis 4:6-15.

- b) By his wayward life, as the prodigal son was separated from his father:

“For this my son was dead, and is alive again.” Luke 15:24.

- c) Not annihilation, because the dead in hell can still speak (Ezekiel 32:20,21; Luke 16:19-31).

Hence, unsaved man is dead in sin, but sinners have the ability to respond. In the grace of God, provision has been made for his cleansing and quickening the moment he looks to Christ and cries “Lord, save me!” (Luke 23:42 and Isaiah 45:22).

Question 10: Is faith a work? If the sinner believes before being saved, isn’t he doing something to get salvation? Does believing in Christ constitute works? No, because:

“Therefore it is of faith, that it may be by grace.” Romans 4:16.

“And if by grace, then is it no more of works.” Romans 11:6.

“This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.” John 6:29.

Hence faith is not a work a sinner does to merit salvation.

TOTAL DEPRAVITY (Completely Crooked) = TOTAL INABILITY

When a Calvinist says he believes in Total Depravity, he is giving you a smoke screen to cover what he really believes. He believes that “man is unable to repent and believe the Gospel as God commands him”.

Important: Total Depravity is the foundation of Calvinism.

The 3 key parts are: Total Depravity, Unconditional Election, Irresistible Grace. T necessitates U and I. If all men are unable to repent and believe the Gospel, then it logically follows that if anyone is to be saved then God must first determine who they are by electing some to salvation (Unconditional Election) and then “irresistably” overcome their “inability” (by Irresistible Grace).

So, if Total Depravity (Inability) is true, then there is nothing anybody can do except claim Lamentations 3:26 as their life verse,

“It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the Lord.”

If Total Depravity is true, all one can do is hope that he is the subject of Unconditional Election, and if he is, then quietly wait for God to save him by Irresistible Grace.

The Calvinist, by recognizing that most Christians believe in man’s depravity and sinfulness, gains adherents to his position by focusing on Total Depravity instead of its supposed result, Total Inability. Calvinists then insist if we deny their doctrine of Total Depravity, then we must believe in some form of salvation by works, and thus weakening the doctrines of sin and the Fall.

Because of Adam’s fall, unsaved man has imputed sin (Rom. 5:12-19), natural sin (Eph. 2:3), personal sin (Rom.3:23), physical death (I Cor.15:21), spiritual death (Eph.2:1), and eternal death (Rev. 20:14-15). He is dead: “And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins.” Ephesians 2:1. The Bible says the following about man’s sinfulness:

i) This spiritual death began before birth:

“Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.” Psalm 51:5.

ii) This spiritual death is present at birth:

“The wicked are estranged from the womb: they go astray as soon as they be born, speaking lies” Ps58:3

iii) This spiritual death is manifest in youth:

“The imagination of man’s heart is evil from his youth.” Genesis 8:21.

iv) This human depravity is universal: “All have sinned and come short of the glory of God.” Rom. 3:23

v) Inside, man is a dark pit of sin and wickedness:

“That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man. For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness.” Mark 7:20-23.

vi) These come from the heart because the heart is corrupt: “The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?” Jeremiah 17:9; Ecclesiastes 8:11.

vii) It is not man’s wicked deeds that make him depraved, but his depraved heart is the cause of his wicked deeds. Man’s best unregenerate efforts are not good enough.

“Every man at his best state is altogether vanity.” Psalm 39:5.

“But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags.” Isaiah 64:6.

viii) Because of man’s depraved heart, everything man does is tainted with sin:

“An high look, and a proud heart, and the plowing of the wicked is sin.” Proverbs 21:4.

“The sacrifice of the wicked is abomination.” Proverbs 21:27.

ix) The true tendency of man’s depraved nature is a constant increase in the habits and practice of wickedness, unless restrained by God’s grace: “Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.” Ecclesiastes 8:11.

Scripture describes unsaved man as ungodly (Romans 5:6), children of disobedience (Colossians 3:6), children of wrath (Ephesians 2:3), servants of sin (Romans 6:20), abominable and filthy (Job 15:15), foolish, disobedient, deceived (Titus 3:3), sheep gone astray (Isaiah 53:6), a troubled sea whose waters cast up mire and dirt (Isaiah 57:20), mouth full of bitterness and cursing (Romans 3:14), no fear of God before their eyes (Romans 3:18), blinded by Satan (2 Corinthians 4:4), his thoughts are vanity (Psalm 94:11), and as speaking perverse things (Acts 20:30).

Two ideas as to how a man can be saved are:

- a) Bible: “Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.” (Acts 16:31).
- b) TULIP Calvinism: The sinner hopes he is one of the elect and then waits for God to save him if he is. (Lamentations 3:26).

Key Question: Does man have the free will to receive or reject Jesus Christ as his Saviour?

Answer: Total Depravity insists that man does not have a free will to receive Christ as his Saviour, nor indeed to do any good at all. Calvinists believe that man’s will is in bondage to his sinful nature, and may only choose between the greater and lesser evils. They base this on their understanding of the premise that man is “dead in trespasses and sins.” Ephesians 2:1.

To convince skeptics that the Calvinist doctrine of free will is correct, he first invents a caricature of “uncaused choice” of the Arminian position. He then uses the “guilt by association” argument to associate their opponents with Catholics, Arminians, Finneyites and Pelagians (the idea that man did not have a natural tendency towards sin. The Bible teaches the opposite in Romans 3:9-18).

4 things wrong with the Calvinist error that the natural man can only act according to his nature are:

- i) Saved man: If an unsaved man is like a “corrupt tree” (Matt. 7:17) that can only produce rotten fruit, then a saved man must be like a “good tree” (Matt. 7:17) that can only produce “good fruit.”

Question: Does a saved man always produce good fruit? No.

Does a man stop sinning when he is saved? No. Do some Christians produce bad fruit? Absolutely!

- ii) One would think that man’s “total inability” would be rectified by salvation since all Calvinists claim the natural man had “inability” and the saved man had “ability.” But Paul still acknowledged his “inability” after his salvation: “For that which I do I allow not: for what I would, that do I not...” Romans 7:15. This is true of all Christians: “For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit...so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.” Galatians 5:17. So even the elect have “inability.”

- iii) After the fall, unsaved man lost his living spirit, but gained a conscience- a knowledge of good and evil (Genesis 2:25 and 3:7). Conscience explains why depraved man does not always express the full evil of his sin nature. A false view of man’s nature after the fall leads to the false Calvinist teaching that man is unable to act contrary to his nature.

- iv) Man has ability in the state of depravity, as seen from:

- a) A sinner who has never heard the gospel has “ability” because of his conscience:

“For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law ...their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts the meanwhile accusing or else excusing one another.” Romans 2:14,15.

This accusing and excusing proves that the fallen conscience still faces the choice between doing good or evil.

- b) Jesus stated a principle that appeals to man’s free will: “If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.” John 7:17.

Whenever the heart is right, God gives the ability to know God’s truth.

- c) Many Scriptures show that unsaved men do have the ability to do good.

- “A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children’s children...” Proverbs 13:22.

- “But glory, honour and peace to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile.” Romans 2:10.

- “Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.” 1 Peter 2:18.

- “If ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.” Luke 6:33.

- God stated that the wicked could do good: “God came to Laban the Syrian in a dream by night, and said unto him, Take heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad.” Gen 31:24

- Jesus said that good deeds may be done with a wicked heart:

“If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children...” Matthew 7:11.

A deed can be good no matter what the motive.

Question: If unsaved men can do good, how do the above Scriptures fit with other Scriptures saying that no one does any good? (Ecclesiastes 7:20; Romans 3:12).

Answer: Total Depravity does not mean that there is no good in man, but that there is no good in man that can earn his salvation.

Man sins because of his own desire, not because his will can only follow his nature. (Romans 6:16).

“Every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.” James 1:14.

Several steps occur when any man sins:

1) Presentation, 2) Illumination as to whether it is right or wrong, 3) Debate, 4) Decision, 5) Action.

Key: The unsaved man sins because he yields to his depraved nature and chooses to sin, not because he is unable to do good.

When faced with such clear evidence of man’s free will, the Calvinist retreats and admits that man has free will, but not pertaining to his acceptance of salvation. If we dispute this Calvinist claim they accuse us of denying salvation by grace and endorsing works for salvation or of making man his own saviour.

Question: If man cannot believe, then how can he be held responsible for what he cannot do?

The Calvinist idea that man cannot accept Jesus Christ of his own free will, is based on 2 pillars:

i) John 1:13 “were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God”

The 2 phrases “nor of the will of man” (John 1:13) and “it is not of him that willeth” (Romans 9:16), are applied by Calvinists to the will of man to receive Jesus Christ. ie: that man does not have a free will when it comes to salvation. Calvinists have taken the phrase “received him” out of John 1:12 and substituted it for “born” in v.13, giving:

“which received him, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.”

John 1:13 gives the source of the new birth, not the reason why men receive Christ.

a) The source of the new birth is not of blood, not physical generation, inheritance or natural descent.

b) The source of the new birth is not of the will of flesh, not reformation, self-development or self-effort.

c) The source of the new birth is not of the will of man, not relatives, preachers or priests.

d) The source of the new birth is “of God”, not of man.

Question: Why does God give anyone the new birth?

Answer: God gives the new birth to “as many as received him.” v.12.

Conclusion: The new birth is God’s work, but receiving Christ is man’s responsibility.

ii) “So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that showeth mercy.” (Romans 9:16). Calvinists apply the phrase “not of him that willeth” to claim that man does not have the will to receive Christ and salvation.

The Bible shows that man has the ability to respond to the gospel while in a state of depravity:

- “But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you.” (Romans 6:17).

The reason men don’t receive Christ is not because they have the inability, but because they will not:

“Ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.” John 5:40.

By comparing a lost sinner to a dead man, a baby, and a creature, Calvinists attempt to prove that man has inability to repent and believe the gospel.

a) Dead man: “You hath he quickened who were dead in trespasses and sins.” (Ephesians 2:1).

All Calvinists compare Total Depravity to a physically dead man or to Lazarus (John 11:43,44), saying “A corpse does not cry out for help.” This may be true of physically dead men, but spiritually dead people are still biologically active and alive, able to walk, talk and fulfil desires. A spiritually dead man can lift up his eyes, see, speak, pray, hear, reason, and feel torment (Luke 16: 23-28). A true analogy showing how a sinner is “dead in trespasses and sins” (Ephesians 2:1) is the prodigal son who “was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found.” (Luke 15:24).

b) Baby: “Except a man be born again he cannot see the Kingdom of God.” (John 3:3).

Some Calvinists liken regeneration to the birth of a baby to prove Total Depravity. Physical birth brings into the world a personality which had no existence before conception, but one who is regenerated did have a complete living personality before he was born again.

Question: Is a baby responsible for any of its actions before it is born? NO! Then neither would an unsaved man be responsible for any of his actions, if the analogy were true.

c) Creature: Calvinists analogize that just as any creature cannot cause its own creation, neither can any individual make himself a new creature in Christ. This analogy is false because regeneration is not creating a person with no prior existence, but is the renewing and restoring of a person whom sin had unfitted for communion with God.

All these 3 analogies break down because of responsibility:

Question: Is an uncreated creature responsible for anything? No.

Is an unregenerate sinner responsible for anything? Yes.

Refuting 3 Types of Calvinist “Proof Texts” for Total Depravity

Calvinists assume that these cannot do something because of Total Depravity, which is Total Inability.

i) Someone who “cannot” do something”

- John 8:43 “Why do ye not understand my speech? Even because ye cannot hear my word.”

- John 14:17 “Even the Spirit of truth: whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not,”

- Romans 8:8 “So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.”

Question 1: Who does John 8:43 refer to? “ye cannot hear my word.”

Answer: Not all mankind, but unbelieving Jews. They could not hear Christ’s word. Why?

- not because they were unregenerate (Acts 26:18),

- not because they were of their father the devil (John 8:43);

- not because they were “not of God” (John 8:47), BUT

- because they did the lusts of their father (John 8:44), and

- because they did not believe Christ when he told them the truth (John 8:45,46).

Their inability was not foreordained, but conditional on believing that Jesus was I AM. (John 8:24).

Question 2: In John 14:17 what does the phrase mean, “whom the world cannot receive”?

Answer: The world cannot receive the Holy Spirit’s enlightening, not because they are non-elect or have total inability, but because “it seeth him not, nor knows him,” meaning because they judge by their physical senses. They walk by sight, not by faith. What they cannot see, hear, taste or feel, makes no impression on them. Because they cannot see the Holy Spirit operating, they conclude that His influence is delusive. Hence they cannot receive Him.

Question 3: In Romans 8:7,8 what does the phrase mean “Because the carnal mind is enmity against God...They that are in the flesh cannot please God.”

Calvinists say that “enmity against God” is total depravity, and “cannot please God” is total inability.

Answer: This means that unsaved man cannot do anything good enough to please God to merit or earn his own salvation. The flesh cannot be reformed, improved, trained or changed unless God changes it. The passage is not saying that because of this “inability,” a person cannot receive Christ.

God is pleased when sinners receive the Gospel:

“it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.” 1 Corinthians 1:21.

ii) Someone’s “inability” but with a reason given for it:

- John 6:44 “No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him.”

- John 6:65 “No man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.”

- John 12:39-40 “Therefore they could not believe, because Esaias said again, He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, not understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.”

Question 4: What does John 6:44 mean: “No man can come to me except the Father draw him”? and “No man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.” John 6:65.

John 6:44 is the main Calvinist proof text for Irresistable Grace. John 6:44 is a major Calvinist proof text for Total Depravity, because it gives a reason for the sinner’s inability to come to Christ as being the lack of an “irresistable effectual call” by God the Father. Calvinists teach that the “drawing” in John 6:44 is Irresistable Grace. By misapplying v.44 to salvation in this Church age, Calvinists claim that, if God draws all men, then all men will be saved. Therefore, they conclude that God only draws the “elect”, those whom He has given to the Son (John 6:37).

Answer: This “drawing” is amplified by 2 verses in the context:

a) “It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man, therefore, that hath heard and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.” (John 6:45).

b) The other is John 6:65. “No man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father”

In support of Christ’s statement in 6:44, Jesus appeals to Isaiah 54:13 by quoting it in John 6:45,

“And all thy children shall be taught of the LORD; and great shall be the peace of thy children.”

(Isaiah 54:13). This verse refers to restored Israel in the Millennium as the entire chapter shows, not to the “elect” in the church age. The ones given to Christ are Jewish disciples during Christ’s public ministry, not “elect” in the Church age. Doctrinally, these verses are still before Calvary.

The New Testament has not yet been instituted (Matthew 26:28) and the Holy Spirit has not yet been given (John 7:39). Hence the Calvinist error in John 6:44 is two-fold:

a) They misapply John 6:44 from its correct context as being in Christ’s earthly ministry to Israel, to a doctrinal statement on Salvation in the Church age.

b) They make the drawing of God irresistible and equate it with Salvation. Acts 7:51 shows God’s grace is resistable. “ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye.”

Note: That John 6:44 is a pre-crucifixion passage directly referring to God’s true elect (the Jews), can be seen by the change taking place at the end of Christ’s public ministry after the Jews rejected Him. “And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.” (John 12:32).

Key: Calvinists don’t understand that in John 6:44 it is the Father who draws people to Christ during His 3 year ministry, but in John 12:32 it is Christ who draws all men to Himself after Calvary. Not only did Christ’s death refer to more than the “elect,” but His birth did also:

“That was the true light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.” (John 1:9).

Note: Instead of the Father drawing men during Christ’s 3 year ministry, the lifting up of Christ on the cross is followed by the Holy Spirit’s work in the Church age of “When he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment.” (John 16:7-11).

The Holy Spirit will “reprove the WORLD of sin,” not just reprove the “elect.”

John 12:39-40 “Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again, He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their hearts; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.”

Calvinists claim that the reason why some “could not believe” was because God “blinded their eyes”, calling it Unconditional Election to Reprobation (Predestination to hell). This will be explained later. Calvinists often appeal to another 2 verses to teach Total Depravity.

iii) Romans 3:11 “There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.”

Calvinists correctly grant the initiative to God in saving sinners. John 3:16; Romans 5:8; I John 4:19. But to conclude from this that a sinner cannot believe the Gospel when confronted with it, is wrong.

Answer: There are 3 errors of Calvinists in using this phrase to teach Total Depravity.

1) The intent of the passage is not to teach man’s inability;

2) Nothing is said about people not being able to seek God;

3) Seeking God is different from believing the Gospel.

Firstly, Calvinists forget that Paul in establishing the universal guilt of Jews and Gentiles in Romans 3, quotes from the Old Testament for the purpose of giving weight to his arguments.

He is not charging every member of humanity with every sin.

He is not teaching the inability of unsaved people to receive Christ. eg: Cornelius, an unregenerate sinner (Acts 11:14), was a ‘just man, and one that feareth God, and of good report.’ (Acts 10:22).

He was a “devout man, and one that feareth God with all his house.” (Acts 10:2).

Secondly, nothing is said in this phrase, verse or context about anyone not being able to seek God, although this is how every Calvinist reads it. The Bible commands men to seek God in these verses:

- “Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near.” (Isaiah 55:6).

- “Seek ye me, and ye shall live.” (Amos 5:4).

- “Seek ye the Lord, all ye meek of the earth.” (Zephaniah 2:3).

- God set the bounds of the nations so “that they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him.” (Acts 17:26,27).

- “Seek the Lord and his strength, seek his face continually.” (I Chronicles 16:11).
- Those who seek God will find Him: “Ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me, with all your heart.” (Jeremiah 29:13).
- God “is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.” (Hebrews 11:6).
- “Blessed are they that....seek him with the whole heart.” (Psalm 119:2). (2 Chronicles 12:14).
- It is evil not to seek God: “he did evil, because he prepared not his heart to seek the Lord.”
- “They entered into a covenant to seek the Lord God . . . Whosoever would not seek the Lord God of Israel should be put to death.” (II Chronicles 15:12,13).
- These commands to seek God are not in vain: “I said not unto the seed of Jacob, seek ye me in vain.” (Isaiah 45:19).

Note: This does not mean that a man who has rejected God will be able to find Him whenever he desires: “Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me.” (Proverbs 1:28).

Finally, seeking God is not the same thing as believing the Gospel. Seeking God is not enough, eg: A Jew who seeks God by keeping the Old Testament Commandments is just as lost as Gentiles who don’t seek God. Salvation is never obtained by seeking God, but by receiving Christ as your Saviour: “If ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.” (John 8:24). “no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.” (John 14:6).

Key Question 5: If the reason men don’t seek God is not because they are Totally Depraved, then what is it?

Answer: The reason men don’t seek God is simple: “The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, will not seek after God: God is not in all his thoughts.” (Psalm 10:4).

iv) I Corinthians 2:14 “But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.”

Calvin concluded from this verse that “faith is not something that depends on our decision, but it is something given by God.” (Commentaries, Vol 9, p 62).

Calvinists, teach Total Inability read this verse as: “But the natural man receiveth not Jesus Christ: for he is foolishness unto him: neither can he receive him, because he is spiritually discerned”.

Question 6: How do we reply to Calvinists on this verse?

Answer: The context is clearly things, not Jesus Christ.

Key: Receiving spiritual things and receiving Jesus Christ are two different things. “Things” are discussed in every verse in I Corinthians 2:9-15. The context refers to believers knowing spiritual things. God gives the Holy Spirit to his sons, so that they may have spiritual understanding. Calvinists wish us to believe that, because the natural man cannot understand spiritual things, he cannot receive Jesus Christ. This verse teaches that the natural, unsaved man cannot discern the truth, beauty, wisdom, value and excellence of divine things, because he does not yet have the indwelling Holy Spirit. If he received Christ as Saviour, he would then have the Holy Spirit and would then be able to know and discern spiritual things. It does not teach that he is unable ever to receive Christ, due to Total Inability or Election to Reprobation. “In whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise.” (Ephesians 1:13).

Conclusion: None of these 3 types of Scriptures, which Calvinists use to prove Total Depravity, ever mention man’s depravity. Calvinists who use these verses to prove Total Depravity are dishonest because Calvinists really mean Total Inability.

Conclusion: Reply to Total Inability.

Total Depravity is the foundation of Calvinism, and necessitates the other 4 points:

T: If all men are unable to repent and believe the Gospel, then it logically follows that,

U: If anybody is to be saved, God must first determine who they are (Unconditional Election), then

I: Irresistably overcome their “inability” (Irresistable Grace) so they can repent & believe the Gospel.

If Total Depravity is true, there is nothing anyone can do except hope that he is unconditionally elected, and if he is, then quietly wait for God to save him by Irresistable grace. (Lamentations 3:26)

But if Total Inability is false, so is ULIP.

Question 7: Why do Calvinists so persistently hold to Total Inability?

Answer: Calvinists believe that, if a man has the ability to respond to the Gospel, then this somehow robs God of his glory in saving sinners. While believing Total Inability, Calvinists strongly believe that man is fully responsible for what he cannot do. “Man’s total incapacity does not absolve him from full responsibility.” (Custance, p. 117,118).

Question 8: Is a man responsible for what he is unable to do?

Answer: Yes and No. It depends on why he has inability. eg: A man under the influence of drugs is accountable for his actions only if he knowingly and wilfully put himself in that state (he took drugs). But a man under the influence of drugs is not accountable if he did not knowingly and wilfully put himself in such a state (he was drugged).

Question 9: Are infants and the retarded responsible to God, even though they lack natural ability?

Answer: No, says Pink (Son of God, p.154), yet Calvinists maintain that non-elect sinners are responsible to God, even though they have Total Inability.

Key Principle that overthrows Total Depravity/Inability is: A man can be condemned for his ignorance or his unwillingness, but never for his inability to do what God has commanded him to do.

There are 2 kinds of Scriptures that overthrow Total Depravity/Inability:

i) Scriptures containing a command to believe:

- “Look unto me and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth.” (Isaiah 45:22).
- “repent ye, and believe the Gospel.” (Mark 1:15).
- “God . . . now commandeth all men everywhere to repent.” (Acts 17:30).
- “This is his commandment, that we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.” (I John 3:23).
- “Whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.” (Revelation 22:17).
- “Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.” (Matthew 11:28).
- “If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.” (John 7:37).

Question 10: If Total Depravity/Inability is true, then is God mocking His Creation here?

Would God offer salvation to a man, knowing that the man could never even will to receive it? No! The God of the Bible is not the god of Calvinism. God guarantees His offers are genuine:

“I said not unto the seed of Jacob, seek ye me in vain: I the Lord speak righteousness. I declare things that are right.” (Isaiah 45:19). Erasmus used this argument against Luther in their debate over free will, saying, “If it is not in the power of every man to keep what is commanded, all the promises, threats, reproofs, blessings, curses and precepts are of necessity useless.”

Desiderius Erasmus quoted in Luther. p 171.

ii) Scriptures that imply the possibility that a man can believe:

- “Ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.” (John 5:40).
 - “Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved.” (I Thessalonians 2:16).
- These verses do not mean that a man will always believe, but they do show that this possibility exists. If there exists even the slightest possibility that a man could believe (as seen by the word “might”), then the doctrine of Total Depravity/Inability is destroyed, because there are no possibilities in TULIP Calvinism.

2. UNCONDITIONAL ELECTION

If Total Inability be admitted, then Unconditional Election follows by the most inescapable logic, because if anybody is to be saved and if man cannot choose Christ, then God must choose those who shall be the objects of His grace.

Election and predestination are Bible terms, but we object to Calvinists’ perversion of these terms. ELECT = Select or choose. PREDESTINE = Determine beforehand.

Question: Who or what is elected?

Why were they elected?

What are they elected to?

Calvinist Definition of Unconditional Election:

“By the decree of God, for the manifestation of His own glory, some men and angels are predestined unto everlasting life, and others are foreordained to everlasting death.”

(Westminster Confession of Faith, III:3).

It is a sovereign, eternal decree where God chooses who is going to be saved and who is going to be lost. This second point of TULIP is the main teaching and decides if one is to be classed as a Calvinist.

Question 1: Are men elected to salvation or are they not? This is the issue.

Key Basic Error of Calvinism is: Confusing election and predestination with salvation.

If one denies Unconditional Election, Calvinists accuse us of:

- “The reason we are prone to disbelieve this doctrine is that we are not humble enough.” (Rose p.19).
- “By making election conditional upon something that man does, even if what he does is simply to repent and believe the Gospel, God’s grace is seriously compromised.” (Storms, Chosen for Life p.55)
- “The bottom line is, if you deny election, you deny salvation by grace. To reject election is to reject salvation by grace and promote salvation by works.” (Carl Marton, Does the Bible Teach Election? The Berean Baptist Banner, Jan 5 1995, p.19).

Double predestination means predestining some to salvation and others to damnation.

Well-known Calvinists are Louis Berkhof, A W Pink, Spurgeon, and Boettner.

Philosophical concepts in the Decree of Unconditional Election are:

- i) Unconditional Election was by a sovereign, eternal decree. It is eternal and singular, meaning: It is one decree for one purpose with many events.
- ii) Sovereignty of God, meaning that God is in sovereign control of every detail of history. The Calvinists, Talbot and Crampton, say: “The sovereignty of God is foundational to Christianity. It is the most basic principle of Calvinism.” (p.14).
- iii) This singular, eternal, sovereign decree is also said to be all-encompassing.
ie: God by His decree has foreordained everything that ever happens in time.

Question 2: Does God really foreordain all things? Calvinists think so.

Answer: Check the Westminster Shorter Catechism:

“The decrees of God are His eternal purpose, according to the counsel of his will, whereby, for His own glory, He hath foreordained whatsoever comes to pass.”

Calvinists insist that God foreordained the Fall of man into sin, along with all the suffering.

(See Boettner, Predestination, p.234, and Pink, Sovereignty, p.147).

Calvinists also insist that God foreordained every other sin. “It is even Biblical to say that God has foreordained sin.” (Palmer p.82).

i) Question 3: What does the Bible say about decrees?

Answer: The Bible uses the word “decree” in reference to God on 8 out of 56 occasions, and in reference to man 48 out of 56 times. It is used more of man than of God. Those making decrees were: Cyrus (Ezra 5:13); Darius (Ezra 6:1); Artaxerxes (Ezra 7:21); Nebuchadnezzar (Daniel 3:10); Esther (Esther 9:32); Caesars (Luke 2:1; Acts 17:7); Apostles (Acts 16:4).

The decrees of God in the Bible concern: the rain (Job 28:26); the sea (Job 38:10); Jesus Christ (Psalm 2:7); the heavens (Psalm 148:6); a consumption (Isaiah 10:22); the sand (Jeremiah 5:22); and Nebuchadnezzar (Daniel 4:24). Notice the following about God’s decrees:

- a) There are 7 decrees of God.
- b) None of these decrees are said to be eternal.
- c) No decrees involve election or predestination, yet Calvinists consider predestination a divine decree.

Question 4: Which Scripture says this? None. There is no such thing as God’s eternal decree of predestination or election. Calvinists then say it is one of God’s secret decrees. Calvinist’s motto is Deuteronomy 29:29 “The secret things belong unto the Lord our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law.” Since God’s ways are not our ways, nor His thoughts our thoughts (Isaiah 55:8,9), Unconditional Election is called a secret counsel of God that can’t be understood. If predestination is a secret decree, how is it that the Calvinists know so much about it? To the Calvinists’ invented decrees, God says: “Woe unto them that decree unrighteous decrees.” (Isaiah 10:1).

ii) The Sovereignty of God is the exercise of His supremacy (definition).

God is the one and only Supreme Being. "But our God is in the heavens: he hath done whatsoever he hath pleased." (Psalm 115:3; See Psalm 47:2; Daniel 4:35). While "Sovereignty of God" sounds Biblical, Calvinists misinterpret it to take precedence over His other attributes.

Question 5: What is the problem with Calvinists' view of God's sovereignty?

Answer: The problem is that Saddam Hussein, Hitler, Stalin, Mao and the Popes were sovereign.

Key: When a Calvinist discusses God's sovereignty, he means arbitrariness, thus presenting a god who could change, by-pass or ignore his own laws because of his so-called sovereignty. So, by this arbitrary capriciousness, God could damn to hell men yet uncreated, for no other reason than His sovereign pleasure. The Bible paints a different picture of God than this Calvinist nonsense. God's first and foremost attribute is absolute holiness. (Psalm 145:17; Isaiah 6:3; Exodus 15:11). "His name is Holy" (Psalm 33:21; Ps. 47:8). The most wicked, vile, bloody dictator could be sovereign yet unholy.

Because God is holy, he exercises his sovereignty only in ways consistent with his holiness.

Key: The Calvinists' error is to exalt God's sovereignty above all his other attributes.

iii) Question 6: Calvinists think that God's eternal, sovereign decree is all-encompassing, meaning that God, by his decree has foreordained everything that ever occurs in time. Is this view right or wrong?

Answer: We agree that God has a right to guide (Psalm 73:24), direct (Proverbs 3:6), lead (Psalm 139:24), restrain (Psalm 76:10) and harden (Exodus 14:17); but God's influence is different to God foreordaining every thought and action of man.

Key: Calvinists' error is as follows: God's influence, direction, control and permission are different to God's election, predestination, foreordination and decrees. God knows what man will do in the future without God foreordaining it. (Isaiah 42:9; 46:10).

Major Question 7: Has God from eternity past foreordained all things that come to pass?

Question 8: If the Lord directs the steps of a man, is this not proof that he is being controlled or governed by God? "A man's heart deviseth his way: but the Lord directeth his steps." (Proverbs 16:9,1,33). "The King's heart is in the hand of the Lord, as the rivers of water: he turneth it whithersoever he will." (Proverbs 21:1). Calvinists think that God has foreordained every thought, word, deed and motive of all people in history.

Note: When Calvinists see the words "preparations", "answers" (Proverbs 16:1), "steps" (Prov. 16:4), "goings" (Prov. 20:24), "judgments" (Prov. 29:26), they see this as proof that God has foreordained all things. "The preparations of the heart in man, and the answer of the tongue, is from the Lord." Prov 16:1

Question 9: Does God foreordain the following answers, steps, goings and judgments?

- What if a man prepared (Prov.16:1) to commit murder & rape? Did God foreordain this? Of course not
- What if a man's answer (Proverbs 16:1) was blasphemous and filthy?
- Was the answer of Ananias and Sapphira (Acts 5:25) from the Lord?
- What about the steps (Proverbs 16:9) of a man as he steals or viciously beats innocent victims?
- What about a man's goings (Proverbs 20:24) into a pub or brothel?
- What if a man judged (Proverbs 29:26) that sodomy and incest were OK? Did God ordain these? No! That God does not foreordain these events contradicts and disproves the Calvinists' claim of God's all-encompassing, eternal, sovereign decree. Paul asks: "Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid." (Romans 9:14).

Question 10: Did God eternally decree Herod to massacre all the children under 2 years old? (Matthew 2:16). No, but God foreknew Herod would do it. (Jeremiah 31:15). Did God foreordain the wickedness of Ahab (I Kings 21:1-13) and Manasseh (II Chronicles 33:9)? No!

Note: Calvinists' error in Proverbs is to read "foreordained" into expressions speaking of God's control and influence, such as "of the Lord", "from the Lord", "directeth" and "turneth".

Question 11: Does God foreordain the time of one's death, as Calvinists think Job 14:5 ("Seeing his days are determined") and Ecclesiastes 3:2 ("a time to die") teach?

Answer: No, because:

- God was going to kill Hezekiah, but added 15 years to his life. (Isaiah 38:5).

ii) Calvinists take general statements about mankind and make them into individual decrees for each person. All men do not always die at exactly 70 or 80 years (Psalm 90:10). Some men “shall not live out half their days” (Psalm 55:23), and some die before their appointed time.

(“Why shouldest thou die before thy time?” Ecclesiastes 7:17).

iii) Calvinists contradict their belief that God has predetermined the day of their death by using medical advances to preserve and extend their lifespan.

Question 12: Calvinists use the crucifixion of Christ as proof that God has foreordained every act of man. Is this true? “Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain.” (Acts 2:23).

“to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done.” (Acts 4:27,28).

Answer: If the Jews addressed in Acts were just carrying out God’s decree, then they wouldn’t be declared responsible. They would be declared obedient. The Bible affirms their responsibility by accusing them of crucifying Christ (Acts 2:36; 4:10), delivering up, denying, killing him (Acts 3:13-15), slaying and hanging him (Acts 5:30; 10:39), as well as betraying and murdering him (Acts 7:52). Jesus said: “And truly the Son of Man goeth as it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed.” (Luke 22:22). Although Jesus Christ had to be betrayed and crucified, no one man was foreordained to do it. Jesus said about the betrayer: “Good were it for that man if he had never been born.” (Mark 14:21). If Judas had not been born, then someone else would have done it. No-one is ever foreordained to commit any sin.

Question 13: Does God foreordain sin as Calvinists claim? Some philosophers think that the existence of evil makes it unreasonable to believe in God. The Scottish philosopher David Hume (1711-1776) said of God and evil: “Is God willing to prevent evil, but not able? Then he is impotent. Is God able to prevent evil but not willing? Then he is malevolent.”

Answer: The Christian answer to the fact that God is all-knowing, all-powerful, and wholly good, yet evil exists, is that philosophers have not considered that God uses evil to punish evildoers and to discipline rebellious Christians. There is a big difference between evil on one hand, and sin and wickedness on the other. Because God is holy, he cannot sin or commit wickedness. God often brings evil upon individuals, such as Absalom (II Samuel 17:14), Jeroboam (I Kings 14:10), Ahab (I Kings 21:21) and Nebuchadnezzar Daniel 4:28-33), as well as nations, such as Israel (Nehemiah 13:18; Daniel 9:14) and Jerusalem (Ezekiel 14:22) as punishment for their evil actions. “I make peace, and create evil: I the Lord do all these things.” (Isaiah 45:7). Here, God refutes Cyrus’ Zoroastrian idea of a good god and a bad god. ‘Shall there be evil in the city, and the Lord hath not done it?’ (Amos 3:6). God permits evil.

Question 14: Why does God bring evil on people or places? (Jeremiah 19:3-5).

Answer: Because of the people’s sins. It is not because of an arbitrary, sovereign, eternal decree. God brings evil to punish man’s sin. God said “Behold I will bring evil upon this placeBecause they have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it unto other gods, . . . and have filled this place with the blood of innocents; They have built also the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings unto Baal, which I commanded not, nor spake it, neither came it into my mind.” (Jeremiah 19:3-5).

Notice: i) God brought evil because of the people’s sins.

ii) God expressly stated that he didn’t decree their sins: “Which I commanded not, nor spake it, neither came it into my mind.” (Jeremiah 19:5).

Question 15: How could God decree and foreordain their sin if it never came into his mind?

Question 16: Why does sin take place? Because of the depravity of man, something Calvinists forget except when trying to prove man’s inability to respond to the Gospel.

God Has Not Foreordained Everything In One All-Encompassing Decree Because:

1) God says so: How could God decree and foreordain man’s sin if it never came into his mind? “commanded not, nor spake it, neither came it into my mind.” (Jeremiah 19:5).

2) God’s holy nature would not allow him to be the author of sin. God would never command a man to repent, then fix it so he couldn’t repent in order to damn him. But this is exactly what TULIP Calvinism teaches.

3) God's permission: Often God is said to do something when in fact He only permitted it to be done. For example:

- Satan provoked David to number Israel (I Chron. 21:1), but God was said to do it. (2 Samuel 24:1)
- Satan was the cause of Job's trouble (Job 1:12; 2:7), but Job (1:21), the writer of Job (42:11) and Satan himself (1:11; 2:5) attributed it to God. God lifted the hedge, permitting Satan's attacks.

4) Man's responsibility is destroyed if God has predestined all things. The Calvinist Jay Adams sees the problem: "The doctrines of divine sovereignty, embracing predestination, election, etc. are often dismissed as foolish and dangerous teachings, that if accepted and believed, would destroy evangelism, human initiative and responsibility." (Grand Demonstration, p.67).

5) Man's Free Will is destroyed if God predestined all things. Sovereignty means that God controls all things including our wills. Free will means that our wills are not controlled by God. This is a clear contradiction.

Question 17: How can a person be a free and responsible agent if his actions have been foreordained from eternity?

We reject this Calvinist error by discussing examples of man's free will in Scripture:

i) Freewill offerings (16 times in OT) teach that after a person had made all the offerings prescribed by the Mosaic law, he might out of gratitude for God's grace, give something additional.

"Ye shall offer at your own will a male without blemish," Leviticus 22:19.

The phrase "at your own will" teaches that he had the free will to give it or not to give it.

ii) Freewill journey to Jerusalem teaches that man has freewill: "I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel, and of his priests and Levites, in my realm, which are minded of their own freewill to go up to Jerusalem, go with thee." (Ezra 7:13).

iii) Adam and Eve had free will: "of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat" Genesis 2:16.

iv) The people and governors of Israel "willingly offered themselves" (Judges 5:2,9) to defeat Sisera.

v) David encouraged Solomon to serve God "with a willing mind." (I Chronicles 28:9).

vi) During Nehemiah's time, some people "willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem." (Nehemiah 11:2).

vii) New Testament Prayer promises are based on each believer's free will: "If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you." (John 15:7).

viii) Paul preached willingly: "For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me." (I Corinthians 9:17).

Free will is both a Bible doctrine and used in the Bible, but unconditional election, sovereign grace, sovereignty of God and God's eternal decree are not.

6) Prayer proves that God has not predestined all things.

Question 18: Does prayer change things? Most Christians think so.

i) It did for Moses when in response to Moses' prayer God changed His mind about destroying Israel and Aaron (Deuteronomy 9:18-29).

ii) It did for Hezekiah when God extended his life by 15 years in response to his prayer. 2 Kings 20:1-6

iii) It did for Elijah when he prayed for no rain, and then later for rain (James 5:17,18).

iv) It does for righteous men: "The effectual, fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much." James 5:16. Calvinists insist that prayer doesn't change things. Calvinists think that if God has already fixed everything, then who are we to infringe upon His sovereignty and request a change?

The Calvinist Joseph Wilson says: "Since predestination is true, it follows, as night follows day, that prayer does not change things." (Baptist Examiner, June 8, 1991, p.8).

7) Calvinist's Admissions reject the idea that God has foreordained everything by an all-encompassing decree. N.L.Rice (p.9) states that divine foreordination seems "unscriptural, absurd, and impious."

8) Calvinist's Rejections. G.C.Berkouwer wonders how theologians can "at the same time speak of God as the all-causing One, and not say that He is the cause of human sin." (Baker, p.8)

9) Other Philosophies which teach “what will be will be” are no different to Calvinism.

i) When a philosopher believes “what will be will be” it is called determinism.

ii) When a stoic believes “what will be will be,” it is called fate.

iii) When a Muslim believes “what will be will be,” it is called fatalism.

iv) When a Calvinist believes “what will be will be,” it is called predestination, and claims it alone is a Bible doctrine.

10) Semantics or accepted meaning of words. The word “whosoever” clearly disproves any all-encompassing decree. “Whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.” Rev. 22:17.

11) Contingency verses showing the possibility of an event happening proves there is no such thing as God foreordaining everything by an all-encompassing decree.

There are many things in the Bible that are not fixed such as:

- if Christ’s works had been done in Tyre and Sidon they would have repented (Matthew 11:21).

- many of God’s promises to Jews were conditional such as Deuteronomy 5:33; 6:1-3; 11:16-17.

- “ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.” John 5:30.

- “Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved.” I Thessalonians 2:16.

12) Chance is a reason that God did not foreordain everything by an all-encompassing decree.

Question 19: Does anything happen by chance? According to the Bible it does.

“And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.” Luke 10:31.

“If a bird’s nest chance to be before thee in the way in any tree,...” Deuteronomy 22:6.

This doesn’t mean that God doesn’t know what is going to happen, or has no control over His creation, but it does mean that there is no all-encompassing decree of predestination.

13) Common Sense rejects any foreordained all-encompassing decree. If “What will be will be” was true, then nobody could avoid carrying out God’s sovereign, eternal, foreordained decree.

Question 20: Did the man who cut his concubine into 12 pieces and sent her parts throughout Israel (Judges 19:29) do so by God’s sovereign, eternal decree? No!

Question 21: Did the people who burned their children in the fire to Molech, or have sex with animals (Leviticus 18:21-24) do so by the determinate counsel of God’s decree? No!

Erasmus well described this wicked error of absolute predestination in “Luther’s Discourse on Free will,” p.11,12 as follows:

“Let us assume the truth of what Wycliffe has taught and Luther has asserted, namely that everything we do happens not on account of our free will, but out of sheer necessity. What can be more useless than to publish this paradox to the world? Secondly, let us assume that it is true, as Augustine has written somewhere, that God causes both good and evil in us and that he rewards us for his good works wrought in us and punishes us for the evil deeds done in us. What a loophole the publications of this opinion would open to godlessness among innumerable people. In particular: mankind is lazy, indolent, malicious and in addition, incorrigibly prone to every impious outrage. How many weak ones would continue in their perpetual and laborious battle against their own flesh? What wicked fellow would henceforth try to better his conduct? Who could love with all his heart a God who fires a hell with eternal pain, in order to punish there poor mankind for his own evil deeds, as if God enjoyed human distress?”

Question 22: If God doesn’t decree all the sin and wickedness in the world, then why does it happen?

Answer: Because God permits it, but “permit” and “decree” are totally different concepts.

Our responsibility is to “resist the devil, and he will flee from you.” James 4:7 and I Peter 5:9.

UNCONDITIONAL ELECTION Blasphemes God's Character in 4 Ways.

2 Peter 3:9, 1 Peter 1:2, 1 Timothy 2:4, 2 Thessalonians 2:13, John 1:7; 3:17.

I) Definition: "God's choice of certain individuals unto salvation before the foundation of the world rested solely on His own sovereign will. (False). His choice of certain sinners was not based on any foreseen response or obedience on their part, such as faith or repentance. (F). On the contrary God gives faith and repentance to each individual whom He selected. (F). Those whom God sovereignly elected, He brings through the power of the Spirit to a willing acceptance of Christ. (F). Thus, God's choice of the sinner, not the sinner's choice of Christ, is the ultimate cause of salvation." (F)

Note: Every sentence in the above definition contains error. This definition says that some people are elected to heaven, while others are elected to hell and can do nothing about it.

It is wholly God's part and without any human condition.

Calvin in his book entitled "Institutes", Book III, Chapter 23 states it as follows:

"Not all men are created with a similar destiny. Eternal life is foreordained for some, and eternal damnation for others. Every man therefore, being created for one or the other of these ends, we say, he is predestined either to life or to death."

II) This wicked and foolish teaching of unconditional election is both unbiblical and blasphemous of God's character in these ways:

a) It makes Christ a liar when he invites "whosoever will" to come to Him for salvation, if He knows that some are non-elect and therefore impossible for them to come and be saved. This false theory attacks the honesty of Christ when He invites people to be saved if He has already foreordained them to hell, all along never intending to save them.

It portrays Christ as a liar when He said to some Jews, "Ye will not come to me that ye might have life" (John 5:40) if He knew that they could not come to Him.

Calvinists claim that "whosoever will" (in Rev. 22:17), "any man" (John 7:37; 2 Peter 3:9), "all" (1 Timothy 2:3-6, 2 Peter 3:9), and "world" (John 3:16) do not mean what all dictionaries say they mean. It is Calvinists who are lying, not Jesus Christ.

b) It opposes God's love and justice.

A Calvinist's understanding of "God so loved the world" (John 3:16) is that "God so loved the elect." The god of the Calvinist hates sinners. This is not the God of the Bible.

According to 5 point Calvinism, God:

- ~ hates a non-elect baby before he is born,
- ~ hates a non-elect baby when he is born,
- ~ hates a non-elect person in his infancy,
- ~ hates a non-elect person in his childhood,
- ~ hates a non-elect person in his youth,
- ~ hates a non-elect person in his adulthood,
- ~ hates a non-elect person in his death, then throws him into hell.

This is not the God of the Bible. What a contrast this is to the God of the Bible who WEPT (Luke 19:41) over "non-elect" sinners in Jerusalem who would soon crucify Him:

"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!" Matthew 23:37.

What a contrast 5-point Calvinism is to the Saviour who said to the "non-elect" rich young ruler: "Jesus beholding him loved him." (Mark 10:21). Yes, God loves sinners.

c) It opposes Evangelism.

It follows logically that if God in eternity past unconditionally elected some people to be saved and others to be damned, then nothing you or I do will change these people's destinies. So why should we bother getting rejected by people in the process of evangelism?

Why should we get excited, zealous, and hard-working in evangelism if nothing we do will change the final outcome?

d) It makes God a respecter of persons in choosing some and rejecting others.

This makes Peter and God's Word a liar in Acts 10:34, "God is no respecter of persons."

Unconditional election is a teaching which makes atheists and blasphemes the God of the Bible. It is an arbitrary blind selection, with no discernable or explainable reason for His partiality to the few. If man is totally depraved in the sense that he cannot hear God speaking to him, then how else can he be saved except by “unconditional election”?

The deceitful human heart of the 5-point Calvinist then has to quote some scriptures out of context in order to support his unbiblical system.

We must ask 3 questions to discover the Biblical position on election:

Question 1: Does the Bible teach election? (Yes).

Question 2: Is election unconditional? (No). It is based on God’s foreknowledge. 1 Peter 1:2.

Question 3: What is the purpose of election?

a) To be conformed to the image of Christ (Romans 8:28) in heaven.

b) To be holy and without blame before Him in love, on earth now (Ephesians 1:4,5).

III) True Definition Of Election

The Bible never teaches that some are unconditionally elected to go to heaven or to hell.

The Bible teaches election (not unconditional election):

a) According to God’s foreknowledge of which individuals will obey the gospel and trust Christ’s blood sacrifice to pay for their sins, as 1 Peter 1:2 says: “Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit (God’s part), unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ (Man’s part).” 1 Peter 1:2.

Key: God foreknows who will be saved, but does not foreordain who will be saved.

b) According to both Divine Sovereignty and human responsibility, as seen in 1 Peter 1:2

1 Peter 1:2 “through sanctification of the Spirit (God’s part) and obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ” (Man’s part).

2 Thess. 2:13 “God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit (God’s part), and belief of the truth (man’s part).” Note v.14 that God calls sinners by Christians preaching the gospel, “he called you by our gospel, to obtain glory...”

c) Not to salvation, but to the Method of salvation:

Question 23: What is the method of salvation?

Answer: It is by receiving Christ as Saviour, as seen by the expressions “by Christ”, and “in Christ” on 12 occasions in Ephesians 1:1 (in Christ), 3 (in Christ), 4 (in him), 5 (by Jesus Christ), 6 (in the beloved), 7 (in whom), 10 (in Christ, in him), 11 (in whom), 12 (in Christ), 13 (in Christ, in whom). God elects, chooses and predestines that all who get saved will be saved by, through or in Jesus Christ. (Ephesians 1:4,5).

“he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world that we should be holy.” Ephesians 1:4.

“Having predestined us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ.” Ephesians 1:5.

The condition or method of salvation is ‘in Christ.’ This proves conditional election.

If Paul had omitted “in Christ”, we would have unconditional election, but he didn’t.

d) Not to salvation, but to Service.

Just as some Christians may resist God’s call to service, so some unbelievers may resist God’s call to salvation.

The fact that God chooses or elects believers to service is seen in these verses:

i) “Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, THAT ye should go and bring forth fruit, and THAT your fruit should remain...” John 15:16.

Here God chooses and ordains that every believer should bear fruit of souls won to Christ, because this fruit remains.

Calvinists love to quote the first part of this verse but not quote the second part. The verse says nothing about being chosen for heaven or hell, but that the disciples and every Christian are chosen to be soul winners by bearing the fruit of souls won to Christ.

ii) “he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel.” Acts 9:15.

God chose Paul to the service of preaching Christ’s name to the Gentiles, kings and Israel.

iii) “that the purpose of God according to election might stand... It was said unto her, the elder (Esau) shall serve the younger (Jacob).” Romans 9:11,12.

Here God chose before Esau and Jacob were born that the elder son Esau would serve the younger son Jacob. Nothing is said here about their salvation.

iv) “Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ... knowing brethren beloved, your election of God.” 1 Thessalonians 1:3,4.

After discussing the Thessalonian believers’ work, labour and patience (all words of service), he reminds them of their election of God in the same context as their service. God elected them to serve Him and others.

v) “Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall.” 2 Peter 1:10.

Here, after Peter tells his readers to give all diligence to add to our faith, virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, godliness, brotherly kindness and charity (vs.5-7), he says that if we do these things, we shall make our election sure and we shall never fall. The phrase “doing these things” in the context of election means that God elects us to serve Him by cultivating these qualities.

vi) “Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil? He spake of Judas Iscariot.” John6:70,71

Here, Jesus states that He chose the 12 disciples to serve Him as disciples. All Calvinists agree that Judas was unsaved, and all Calvinists believe in security of the believer. Hence this proves that Jesus was discussing how He chose Judas as part of the twelve for service. Jesus says nothing here about choosing Judas for heaven.

e) Not to salvation, but to Godly living.

God chooses and elects every Christian to holiness and Godliness in this life.

God predestines that every Christian will be conformed to the image of Christ in heaven. Romans 8:29.

i) “he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, THAT we should be holy and without blame before him in love.” Ephesians 1:4.

ii) “Having predestinated us... to the praise of the glory of his grace...” Ephesians 1:5,6.

iii) “The God of our fathers hath chosen thee, THAT thou shouldst know his will, and see that Just One, and shouldst hear the voice of his mouth.” Acts 22:14. God chose Paul to know God’s will for his life. God chooses that we should know His will for our lives.

iv) “But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people: THAT ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.” 1 Peter 2:9. Here God chooses us to praise him by our life.

v) “I have chosen you out of the world.” John 15:19.

Here Christ chooses us to come out of the worldly way of living of unbelievers. The Greek word for church is “ekklesia” meaning “called out of the world to live for God.”

vi) “But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and

God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; and God hath chosen the base things of the world, yea and the things which are not to bring to nought the things that are: THAT no flesh should glory in his presence.” 1 Corinthians 1:27-29.

Here God chooses foolish, weak and base things of this world to bring to nought the things that are, so that no flesh should glory in God’s presence.

vii) “For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son...”

Romans 8:29. Here God foreknew who would receive Christ as Saviour, and those people he predestinated to be conformed to the image of Christ in heaven.

f) Of Israel, not to salvation, but to Serve God, bring Christ into the world, preserve the Scriptures, and proclaim to the world the truth of One Almighty Creator God.

- “As concerning the gospel, they (Israel) are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the Father’s sakes.” Romans 11:28.

- “at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.” Romans 11:5,7.

Those of Israel who became Christians, did so because of faith and God’s foreknowledge. (1 Peter 1:2).

IV. Statements Of God's Conditional Election

That God elects people to salvation based on certain conditions is seen in these verses:

1. Foreknowledge of God. "Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father." 1 Peter 1:2.
2. Sanctification of the Spirit and Belief of the truth. "God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth." 2 Thessalonians 2:13.
3. In Christ: "He hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world,..."

Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ..." Ephesians 1:4,5.

Hence, unconditional election is seen to be false. Election is conditional upon God foreknowing which sinners will believe in Christ as Saviour.

V. Statements That God Wants All Sinners To Be Saved

The Calvinist who believes in unconditional election believes that God wants some to be saved (the elect), and wants other sinners to go to hell (the non-elect).

This can be shown to be false if we can find Scriptures showing that God wants all sinners to be saved.

1. "The Lord is...longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance." 2 Peter 3:9. "Will" (1014) means decree, determine, intend, minded, disposed.

This states that God does not decree that any be lost.

Question 24: If God elects some to be saved and others to go to hell, how is 2 Peter 3:9 explained?

2. "Who will have all men to be saved, and to come to the knowledge of the truth." 1 Timothy 2:4.

VI. The Order Of Events In Salvation. Calvinists differ from the Bible on this.

The Bible clearly describes the order of events in salvation from God's viewpoint in Romans 8:29,30, and from man's viewpoint in Romans 10:13-15. What are they?

1. From God's viewpoint. Romans 8:29,30

- i) God foreknew all who would receive Christ as Saviour. (v.29).
- ii) God predestinated all these to be conformed to the image of Christ. (v. 29).
- iii) God called them and others through the preaching of the gospel (v.30). "Whereunto he called you by our gospel to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ." 2 Thessalonians 2:14.
- iv) God justified them when they put their faith in Jesus Christ as Saviour. (v.30). "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ." Romans 5:1.
- v) God will glorify them in heaven (v.30). This is God's ultimate purpose. (Ephesians 5:27; Philippians 3:21; Hebrews 2:10; Col. 3:4). The resurrected and glorified Lord Jesus Christ will become the Head of a new race of humanity, purified from all contact with sin, and prepared to live eternally in Christ's presence. (1 Corinthians 15:42-49).

Hyper-Calvinists arrange God's decrees as follows:

- a) Decree to save some and reprobate the rest.
- b) Decree to create those who will be saved and those who will be reprobated.
- c) Decree to permit (or secure) the fall of both groups.
- d) Decree to provide salvation only for the elect.

2. From Man's viewpoint. Romans 10:13-15.

- a) God and the local church send a preacher. (v.15).
- b) The preacher preaches the gospel to lost sinners. (v.15).
- c) Lost sinners hear and understand (Matthew 13:19) the gospel.
- d) Lost sinners believe in Christ as the gospel is explained. (v.14).
- e) Lost sinners call on Christ to save them. (v.14).
- f) Lost sinners are then saved by Christ. (v.13).

Wuest states reluctantly: "It is only fair that the author inform the reader that Greek scholars, Vincent, Denny, Robertson and Alford all translate "proginosko" as "foreknowledge" and understand it to refer to the "Prescience" of God. As Vincent puts it, "Not to the idea of pre-election."

Therefore "proginosko" always means to "KNOW BEFORE." God wants all to be saved. He knows that, no matter how much He strives, some will resist His gracious entreaty and harden their hearts. Sinners will be lost, not because God willed it, but because they rejected God's call.

There are 3 Systems of Calvinism:

Supralapsarianism	Infralapsarianism	Sublapsarianism

1) Supralapsarianism: Arminius believed that the supralapsarian doctrine of predestination was: “repugnant to the nature of God, repugnant to the justice of God, repugnant to the goodness of God, contrary to the nature of man, diametrically opposed to the act of creation, at open hostility with the nature of eternal life, opposed to the nature of eternal death, inconsistent with the nature and properties of sin, repugnant to the nature of divine grace, injurious to the glory of God, highly dishonourable to Jesus Christ our Saviour, hurtful to the salvation of men, and in open hostility to the ministry of the Gospel.” “Works of Arminius,” Vol.1, p.623-633.

King James I of England who sent delegates to the Synod of Dort, recorded his hatred of this system, as quoted in the “Works of Arminius”, Vol.1, p.213. “This doctrine is so horrible, that I am persuaded, if there were a council of unclean spirits assembled in hell, and their prince the devil were to put the question either to all of them in general, or to each in particular, to learn their opinion about the most likely means of stirring up the hatred of men against God their Maker; nothing could be invented by them that would be more efficacious for this purpose, or that could put a greater affront upon God’s love for mankind, than that famous decree of the late Synod, and the decision of that detestable formulary, by which the far greater part of the human race are condemned to hell for no other reason, than the mere will of God, without any regard to sin; the necessity of sinning, as well as that of being damned, being fastened on them by that great nail of the decree before-mentioned.”

Note: Calvinists divert their opponents criticism by pitting Arminianism against hyper-Calvinism, and then take plain Calvinism as a mediating position. This makes Calvinism appear orthodox. Calvin believed the following about predestination:

“We call predestination God’s eternal decree, by which He compacted with himself what he willed to become of each man. For all are not created in equal condition; rather eternal life is foreordained for some, eternal damnation for others. Therefore, as any man has been created to one or the other of these ends, we speak of him as predestined to life or death.” Institutes p.926 (III.xxi.5).

A.W. Pink said: “I am a strong supra-lapsarian.” Letters of A.W. Pink. p.74,75.

Pink’s book “The Sovereignty of God” was first published in 1918 of 2000 copies.

Of this book, Arno Gaebelein (1861-1945) wrote: “Mr Pink used to be a contributor to our magazine. His articles on Gleanings on Genesis are good, and we had them printed in book form. But when he began to teach his frightful doctrines which make the God of Love a monster, we broke fellowship with him. The book you have read is totally unscriptural. It is akin to blasphemy. It presents God as a Being of injustice and maligns His holy character. The book denies that our blessed Lord died for the ungodly. According to Pink’s perversions He died for the elect only. You are not the only one who has been led into darkness by this book. Whoever the publisher is, and whoever stands behind the circulation of such a monstrous thing has a grave responsibility. It is just this kind of teaching which makes atheists.” Quoted in “Divine Sovereignty,” Fisk, p.24.

Because Pink's views were deemed so radical, the Banner of Truth Trust 1961 Edition of "The Sovereignty of God" removed the chapter on reprobation. The Dutch Reformed people are the chief propagators of supralapsarianism, surviving today in the Protestant Reformed church, their premier theologian being Herman Hoeksema. Supralapsarianism teaches that God decreed the damnation of men and created them explicitly for that purpose.

2) Infralapsarianism was devised to avoid making God the author of sin, and to make Calvinism more acceptable. None of the decrees have changed, only their supposed order.

Both supralapsarians and infralapsarians believe in double predestination - to election and reprobation. The Westminster Confession of Faith, Chapter III, reads:

"By the decree of God, for the manifestation of his glory, some men and angels are predestined unto everlasting life; and others foreordained to everlasting death."

3) Sublapsarianism = 4 point Calvinism.

Sublapsarians seek to get around the repulsive implications of reprobation.

The Bible says of these decrees: "Woe unto them that decree unrighteous decrees." Isaiah 10:1.

The contradictory, confusing nature of Calvinist decrees of God exclude them as coming from God, because God is not "the author of confusion." I Corinthians 14:33.

Question 25: What is wrong with these Calvinist theories seeking to relate sin and the fall to election and reprobation?

Answer: i) SupraL makes God the author of sin and directly responsible for damning billions of souls.

ii) The fall of Adam effected the reprobation of all men, not just a certain class:

"for as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive." I Corinthians 15:22.

iii) Calvinist statements like that of Warfield: "The marvel of marvels is not that God, in His infinite love, has not elected all of this guilty race to be saved, but that he has elected any;" are negated when we remember that they are built on the false premise of Total Depravity.

iv) The real issue is whether God would be just in electing some and passing by the rest.

According to the Bible, He wouldn't be just.

- The god of the Calvinist is like the priest and Levite who "passed by" the half dead man in the parable of the good Samaritan (Luke 10:30-32). Did Jesus recommend their behaviour? No! Then neither does God behave this way.

- Worse still, God would be like the thieves who "stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him and departed, leaving him half dead." (Luke 10:30). For Calvinists to say that God came back after "leaving man half-dead," "had compassion on him, and went to him, and bound up his wounds" (Luke 10:33-34), and that he should be praised for his mercy and grace, is absurd.

Jesus commands us to "Go and do thou likewise" (Luke 10:37), as the good Samaritan did who went to help the man. (v.34).

Question: Does Jesus practice what He preaches? Surely! Avoid the Calvinist philosophy sidetracks of:

a) Presbyterian route from Calvin to Hodge to Warfield,

b) Reformed route from Calvin to Kuyper to Berkhof, and

c) Baptist route from Calvin to Gill to Spurgeon.

Note: Calvinist theologians constantly praise each other while overlooking each other's shortcomings.

For example, Warfield, Machen and Boettner each did not insist on a literal 6 day creation. Hoeksema, John Murray and Spurgeon each smoked tobacco.

REPROBATION

Calvinists agree that God has elected some to salvation and others to reprobation.

Question 26: What does reprobate mean? What is a reprobate?

Answer: In the Bible, a reprobate is someone who is disapproved and therefore rejected.

A probe is an examination, probate is the proving of a will, and probation is a proving period.

The prefix "re" means to "do something again."

Hence, to re-probate something is to prove it again. Hence, a reprobate is someone or something that is disapproved and stands rejected to be tried again.

Note: "Reprobate" occurs 4 times in the Bible and "reprobates" occur 3 times.

Reprobate is defined in Jeremiah 6:30, “Reprobate silver shall men call them, because the Lord hath rejected them.” They were reprobate because they were rejected.

Question 27: Why were they rejected?

Answer: Not because of a sovereign eternal decree, but because they said “We will not walk therein” (Jeremiah 6:16), and “We will not hearken.” (Jeremiah 6:17).

3 out of 6 New Testament occurrences of reprobate(s) are:

i) “Even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind.” (Romans 1:28). A person is reprobate because of something they do.

ii) “Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith.” (II Timothy 3:8).

iii) “They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.” (Titus 1:16).

Notice that they are reprobate “to every good work.”

Note: When their profession is put to the test on a good work, they fail the test.

God did not make them reprobate, but they made themselves reprobate because of something they did. There is nothing implying that a reprobate is in a permanent, irreversible condition.

Calvinists take any verse dealing with judgment or condemnation and read reprobation into it.

Question 28: Why did God want Israel to destroy the Canaanite nations?

Answer: Because of their sins of incest (Leviticus 18:6), adultery (Leviticus 18:20), human sacrifice (Lev.18:21), homosexuality (Lev.18:22), and bestiality (Lev.18:23). Nothing was decided in eternity past. All was conditional. Romans 9 is the Calvinist’s “haven of reprobation,” just as Proverbs is the Calvinists’ “haven of divine foreordination.”

Question 29: How do we explain Proverbs 16:4, another pillar of Calvinist reprobation?

i) “The Lord hath made all things for himself: yea, even the wicked for the day of evil.”

Answer: This verse discusses the use God makes of his creation, not the decisions he makes for them. Calvinists think that God made certain men wicked to fulfil the “counsel of his own will.” (Eph.1:11). Since God does all his pleasure (Isaiah 46:10), and has no pleasure in the death of the wicked (Ezekiel 33:11), then he could not have created a man wicked to show his power by damning him.

Note: God has made all men the same in the sense of “He fashioneth their hearts alike” Psalm 33:13-15

Key: Although God does not make a man wicked, he makes the wicked serve his own glory and purposes. “Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee...” (Psalm 76:10).

Question 30: Explain 2 NT cases where Calvinists use the word “appointed” to endorse “reprobation.”

ii) The promise to Christians that “God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ.” (I Thessalonians 5:9).

Pink writes, “to say that God ‘hath not appointed us to wrath’ clearly implies that there are some whom He has appointed to wrath.” (Sovereignty of God, p.85).

Wilson thinks that “appointed” refers to God’s decree, “wrath” means hell, and “salvation” means eternal life.” (The Baptist Examiner, 2 Feb 1991, p.1).

Answer: The Calvinists’ errors of equating “wrath” with hell, and “salvation” with heaven, are due to failing to notice the context, where “wrath” refers to the 7 year Tribulation period, and “salvation” means “deliverance” from the Tribulation.

Proof of this is from, a) the context “then sudden destruction cometh upon them.” (I Thess. 5:3), and “The great day of his wrath is come.” (Rev. 6:17). Rev. 6-19 is a time of God’s wrath on the world.

b) The time of this “wrath” of I Thessalonians 5:9 is future.

iii) Calvinists use “appointed” in I Peter 2:8 to support “reprobation.”

“And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed.” (I Peter 2:8). Pink says that “Some have been appointed (same Greek word as I Thess. 5:9) unto disobedience.” (Sovereignty of God, p.98,99).

Answer: The disobedience is defined in the context as unbelief (I Peter 2:7), just as obedience is defined as belief in Romans 10:16. The reason a person is appointed to destruction (Proverbs 31:8) is because they “believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.” (2 Thessalonians 2:12).

Key: God appoints to destruction all those who reject Christ, stumbling at the rock of offence.

Eg: God sends strong delusion to damn Tribulation sinners who believed not the truth. 2 Thess.2:11,12.

iv) In 2 Peter 2:12, Calvinists use the word “made” to support reprobation:

“But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption.” (2 Peter 2:12).

Pink implies that these “false prophets” and “false teachers” (2 Peter 2:1) have been foreordained “to be taken and destroyed” before the foundation of the world.

Answer: a) The text says nothing about “why” or “when” these men were “made to be taken and destroyed.” Calvinists presume this was an eternal decree.

b) In both 2 Peter 2:12 (perish in their own corruption) and Jude 10 (“as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves”), the corruption was their own doing. God never makes a man in a reprobate condition. Men are always reprobate because they’ve done something to earn it, as the next verse makes clear: “and shall receive the reward of unrighteousness.” (2 Peter 2:13).

A reward is something they earn. God “destroyed them that believed not.” (Jude 5).

v) Calvinists claim that these people have been reserved to condemnation by a sovereign, eternal decree: 2 Peter 2:17 “These are wells without water,..to whom the mist of darkness is reserved forever.”

Jude 13 “Raging waves of the sea,... to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness forever.”

Question 31: Who is reserved?

Answer: False prophets and false teachers who deny the Lord (2 Peter 2:1), ungodly (Jude 15), angels that sinned (2 Peter 2:4; Jude 6), unjust (2 Peter 2:9), wicked (2 Peter 2:7), etc.

They were reserved in their lives after they committed wicked actions and because of their sins.

vi) Jude 4 “For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained (4270) to this condemnation. ungodly men, turning the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.” Calvinists like Pink think that these men were ordained of old to condemnation before the foundation of the world by a sovereign, eternal decree.

Question 1: When were they ordained?

Answer: During Enoch’s ministry. “Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these saying: Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.” Jude 14,15.

Question 2: Why were they ordained to condemnation?

Answer: Because of their ungodly deeds.

Question 3: How were they ordained?

Answer: By Enoch.

Question 4: What does ordained mean?

Answer: Ordained (4270) = prographo (Gk) = to write previously, to announce. They were announced by Enoch, not foreordained by a sovereign, eternal decree before the foundation of the world.

vii) Isaiah 6:9,10 is used by Calvinists to claim that some have the inability to believe because God has blinded their eyes by reprobation (election to damnation) proving that God hardens people.

“And he said, Go, and tell this people. Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not. Make the heart of the people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed.” (Isaiah 6:9,10).

Answer: This prophecy is mentioned 5 times in the New Testament (Matthew 13:14,15; Mark 4:12; Luke 8:10; John 12:39-40; Acts 28:25-27).

Notice: a) Twice we are told to whom this passage refers: “this people,” which is the nation of Israel.

b) Israel shutting their eyes was not an act in eternity past. It took place after they were born. They were not created with their eyes shut, but were God’s elect people.

c) Of this passage’s 5 N.T. occurrences, 2 are clearly not used to teach reprobation because the people closed their own eyes: “their eyes they have closed.” (Matthew 13:14,15; Acts 28:25-27).

Question 32: Why were they blinded? Why did God harden their hearts?

Answer: Pink answers correctly: “these whose eyes God blinded and whose heart He hardened, were men who had deliberately scorned the Light and rejected the testimony of God’s own Son.” (Sovereignty of God, p.124), and,

“In consequence of their rejection of Christ, the nation as a whole was judicially blinded of God, that is, they were left to the darkness and hardness of their own evil hearts. But it is most important to mark the order of these two statements:

In John 12:37, they did not believe;

Here in John 12:39 they could not believe...

They would not believe; in consequence, God gave them up, and now they could not believe...

The fault was entirely theirs, and now they must suffer the just consequences of their wickedness...

This was God’s response to the wicked treatment that Israel had meted out to His beloved Son.

They had refused the light, now darkness shall be their dreadful portion.” (Pink “John,” p. 689, 690).

Key: These passages teach the judicial hardening of a nation; not the sovereign hardening of individuals

d) To further prove this, notice where this prophecy appears:

- in the gospels when the Jews rejected Christ, and the mystery form of the kingdom appears.

- in John’s gospel when the Jews rejected Christ, and he finished his public dealings with them.

- in Acts 28 when the Jews rejected the risen Christ, and God turned to the Gentiles for the Church Age.

- in Isaiah 6, it introduces the Tribulation, where the Jews accept a false Christ.

Hence, it doesn’t teach personal reprobation, but national hardening.

viii) – x) All Calvinists use 3 passages in Romans 9:13,18,21 to prove election and reprobation.

Romans 9 is their “haven of reprobation.” Romans 9-11 is a parenthesis where the Jew is considered nationally. Israel was an elect nation, as seen from these passages:

“For the Lord hath chosen Jacob unto himself, and Israel...” Psalm 135:4.

“Thy servant is in the midst of thy people which thou hast chosen.” 1 Kings 3:8.

“For Jacob my servant’s sake, and Israel mine elect...” Isaiah 45:4.

Question 33: How could God reject those whom he had elected? (Romans 11:1).

What about the faithfulness of God and His Word?

Romans 9 discusses the problem:

Calvinists 3 pillars of reprobation in Romans 9 are:

i) “Esau have I hated.” (Romans 9:13),

ii) “whom he will he hardeneth.” (Romans 9:18),

iii) “vessels of wrath fitted to destruction.” (Romans 9:22).

viii) Romans 9:13 the Calvinist Hoeksema writes: “The predestination of Jacob and Esau is a personal election and reprobation unto salvation and eternal desolation respectively.” (Good Pleasure, p.24).

Answer: “The purpose of God according to election” (Romans 9:11) had nothing to do with individual salvation or reprobation at all. It concerned the Messianic line from Abraham to Isaac to Jacob to Jesus Christ. It was an election not to salvation, but to service, national preference and theocratic privileges.

Genesis 25:23 states that “Two nations are in thy womb and two manner of people shall be separated from thy bowels; and the one people shall be stronger than the other people; and the elder shall serve the younger.” (Genesis 25:23).

Romans 9:13 is quoted from Malachi 1:1-3 which was written 1400 years later:

“yet I loved Jacob and I hated Esau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste.”

In Genesis we have a prophetic statement looking forward.

In Malachi we have an historical statement looking backward.

Even Calvin admits that this refers to Jacob’s and Esau’s posterity. (Institutes, p.930 (III. xxi. 7)).

Calvinists claim that Jacob and Esau were not only types of their posterity, but types of all men.

This is false because:

a) God didn’t hate Esau in eternity past. He only hated him nationally after seeing his sins for 1400 years

b) Jesus loved the rich young ruler who rejected him. (Mark 10:22).

These references in Romans 9 refer to election to the Messianic line, rather than to personal eternal salvation. Romans 9:8 teaches that the Messianic line would be continued through Isaac, not Ishmael.

ix) Romans 9:17,18 “For the Scripture saith unto Pharaoh,... Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.”

The Calvinist Herman Hoeksema writes: “Pharaoh was sovereignly hated from eternity, even as was Esau.” (Good Pleasure, p.46).

If we prove that God did not reprobate Pharaoh from eternity, then we have proved that God reprobates no man from eternity. Pharaoh was raised up to show God’s power, not to be damned to hell by a sovereign, eternal decree. The purpose of raising Pharaoh up from sickness was:

- a) That God might prove to Israel that He was the Lord who delivered them. (Ex. 6:6,7; 10:1,2; 13:14-16)
- b) To show Pharaoh that Jehovah was the only true God. (Exodus 9:14).
- c) To show the Egyptians that Jehovah was the Lord. (Exodus 7:5; 14:4,18).
- d) That God’s name would be declared throughout the whole earth. (Exodus 9:16).

x) Romans 9:22 Calvinists refer to the “vessels of wrath fitted to destruction” as the reprobate.

Pink writes regarding these “vessels of wrath”: “He fits the non-elect unto destruction by his foreordaining decrees.” (Sovereignty of God, p.96).

Answer: The potter and the clay was a common OT illustration. (Isaiah 29:16; 45:9; 64:8; Jer. 18:1-6), yet it never referred to anyone’s salvation. Israel was the clay. Vessels are made empty, and bring honour or dishonour according to what is put in them. God doesn’t make anyone honourable or dishonourable. The individual determines what kind of vessel he will be:

“If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour,... prepared unto every good work.” (2 Timothy 2:20,21).

xi) Jeremiah 18:1-10 compares Israel with clay, God as the potter, the marring of the clay (v.4) was evil disobedience in Israel (v.10), and God making it again refers to God’s discipline of Israel.

Verse 9,10 discuss God’s change of plans from good to evil for nations who do evil.

Calvinists miss the context by thinking this passage teaches individual reprobation of people in eternity past by a sovereign decree. Israel as the vessels of wrath, fitted themselves to destruction because they “stumbled at that stumblingstone” (Romans 9:32), were “guilty of the blood of Christ” (Matthew 27:25), and were “enemies of the gospel” (Romans 11:28).

Just as Israel was shown mercy in Pharaoh’s day (Romans 9:15-18) yet became vessels of wrath in Romans 9:21, so individual Jews who rejected Christ could become “vessels of mercy” if they accepted Christ. (1 Timothy 1:13,16).

Key note: All men are “vessels of wrath” (Ephesians 2:3), but God will have mercy on all who receive Christ (Romans 11:30-32; 1 Peter 2:10). The Calvinist error in Romans 9 is in reading sovereign personal election and reprobation into a passage teaching national election of Israel to service and God disciplining Israel for their sins.

Conclusion: When a man is reserved, appointed or ordained to condemnation, it is always because of something evil he did, not by an eternal decree of reprobation.

Refuting 7 Kinds of Unconditional Election to Salvation “Proof” Texts

The fallacy of Calvinist Unconditional Election is that they teach that mankind is divided into 2 groups: the “elect” and the “reprobate.” However, the truth is that God has made all men the same because:

“The Lordhe beholdeth all the sons of men....he fashioneth their hearts alike,” Psalm 33:13-15.

Hence, i) there is no such thing as God’s one, eternal, sovereign, all-encompassing decree, and

ii) there is no such thing as “the elect” or “reprobate.”

Scripture proves that salvation is not limited to “the elect.”

- “If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.” (John 7:37).

- “To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.” (Acts 10:43).

- “whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.” (Romans 9:33).

- “he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.” (1 Peter 2:6).

- “Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God.” (1 John 5:1).

- “Whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.” (Revelation 22:17).

Question 34: How do Calvinists get around these clear verses on free will?

Answer: They either ignore them, deny them or lie about their existence, by saying things like: “The saving grace of God, changing the heart of the sinner precedes the will to come to Christ.” (Hoeksema, “Whosoever Will” p.24).

Chafer says “It is misleading to assert...that whosoever God wills may come.” (Theology, vol.6, p.252).

Note: The above verses teach that “whosoever himself wills”, not “whosoever God wills.”

Question 35: Does God have a predetermined number of elect people waiting to be saved by Irresistible Grace, as Calvinists claim?

Answer: Consider the Bible’s reply to Calvinist’s “proof texts:”

1. God’s People:

i) “I have much people in this city.” (Acts 18:10).

Calvinists think this verse teaches that God has a predetermined number of unsaved people in Corinth waiting to be saved by Irresistible Grace. The standard Calvinist interpretation is:

- “Being assured that God had chosen many to salvation, Paul set out to reap the harvest.”

[David Nettleton (GARBC President) “Chosen to Salvation”, RBP, 1983, p.161].

- Before Paul and the gospel ever got to Corinth, the Lord had much people there by virtue of God’s election of many in that city.” (D. Englesma, Hyper-Calvinism, p.57).

Answer: That the Lord had “much people” in Corinth there is no doubt, but who were they?

They were NOT unsaved elect, because unsaved people are never spoken of as God’s people. The Bible describes unsaved people as “children of disobedience” (Eph.2:2), “children of wrath” (Eph2:3).

Key: The “much people” are defined in v.1-9 as:

a) Aquila and Priscilla (v.2),

b) Jews and Greeks that Paul persuaded in the synagogue (v.4),

c) Silas and Timotheus (v.5),

d) Justus (v.7),

e) Crispus and all his family (v.8),

f) Many Corinthians who heard, believed and were baptized (v.8).

ii) Book of Life. Are the elect’s names written in the Lamb’s Book of Life, and the non-elect’s names not written there? “And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.” (Revelation 13:8).

“...they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world...” (Revelation 17:8).

Answer: Everybody’s name is written in the Lamb’s book of life at birth. When they willfully reject Christ their names are blotted out of the book of life. (Revelation 3:5; 22:19).

iii) God’s Sheep: Are God’s sheep the “elect”? (John 10:14-16, 26).

Calvinists like Pink think that the “elect” are “sheep” before they are born. (Satisfaction, p.251,252).

Answer: 2 problems with this are:

a) If the “elect” are sheep before they believe, then they already have eternal life. (John 10:28).

If sheep were never goats, then this contradicts the truth that all are born “dead in trespasses and sins.” (Ephesians 2:1).

b) Who are the sheep? The sheep are Israel according to Micaiah (I Kings 22:17), Asaph (Psalm 74:1; 78:52; 79:13), David (Psalm 119:176), Isaiah (Isaiah 53:6), Jeremiah (Jer. 23:1; 50:6,17), Ezekiel (34:6,11,12) and Jesus Christ (Matthew 10:6; 15:24).

“Go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.” (Matthew 10:6).

When Christ came, his sheep, like Simeon (Luke 2:25), Anna (Luke 2:36-38), Zacharias and Elisabeth (Luke 1:5, 6), the shepherds (Luke 2:8-20), and the disciples (John 1:40-49), knew him (John 10:14), followed him (John 10:27), and received eternal life (John 10:28).

2. Given to Salvation.

Question 36: Does God the Father give “the elect” to God the Son?

(John 6:37).

“All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.”

“And this is the Father’s will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.” (John 6:39).

Calvinists presume that “only those whom the Father gives to Christ can come to him.” (Palmer, p.27).

Answer: i) That this will of the Father was not a sovereign, eternal decree is clear because one of those given to Christ was a devil (John 6:70), who was lost (John 17:12). Believers cannot become lost, so this does not refer to all believers.

“that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.” (John 17:2). John 17:6,9,11,12,24. Calvinists connect these verses to John 6:37 and presume that the word “give” proves that God the Father by Unconditional Election gave the “elect” to God the Son before the foundation of the world so He could make a Limited Atonement for them.

ii) John 6:37 reads that the Father gives to Christ those who believe, as v.45 teaches:

“Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh to me.”

iii) John 17:6 says that Jesus manifested His ‘name unto the men which thou gave me out of the world’

Answer: - Christ hasn’t manifested His name to anyone since then.

- These given to Christ were men. Are all women lost? No!

iv) “thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.” (John 17:6).

Have all Christians kept God’s Word? No. Hence this doesn’t refer to all Christians.

v) Christ personally gave them the Father’s words. (John 17:8,14). We have the Bible, but Christ didn’t personally give it to us.

Conclusion: Yes, a definite group was given to Christ during His earthly ministry, and not before the foundation of the world. The ones given by the Father to the Son were the little flock of Jewish disciples, known as apostles, and his sheep. (John 10:27,29).

3. Ordained to Salvation. All Calvinists use Acts 13:48 to support the claim that every saved person was “ordained to eternal life” before the foundation of the world by a sovereign, eternal decree.

Answer: The word “ordain” never refers in the Bible to an unconditional, sovereign, eternal decree:

i) Judas was ‘ordained’ with the other 11 disciples (Mark 3:14), yet he turned out to be a devil. Jn 6:70

ii) God did not accept the sacrifices of priests who were ordained after Calvary (Heb. 5:1; 10:10-14).

iii) God has ordained that all pastors who preach the Gospel should live of the Gospel (I Corinthians 9:14), but not all do so;

iv) Do all Christians practise good works, even though “God has before ordained that we should walk in them?” (Ephesians 2:10).

Note: Acts 13:48 says “ordained” not “fore-ordained.”

4. Chosen to Salvation. Any verse mentioning the word “chosen” or “choose” is a ripe candidate to support Calvinism. It doesn’t matter if salvation is not the context. So then to a Calvinist, if someone is “chosen,” he always reads it as unconditionally, sovereignly, eternally elected to salvation.

i) Matthew 20:16; 22:14 “For many be called, but few chosen.” (Matthew 22:14).

a) Calvinists after “chosen” add the words “to salvation”, which is nowhere in the context.

b) Both passages concern “the Kingdom of heaven” (Matthew 20:1; 22:2), not heaven or salvation.

c) Both passages are parables, not doctrinal statements on salvation.

d) Matthew 20:1-16 concerns labourers, whereas salvation is a gift (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8).

e) In Matthew 22:14 the ones chosen, are chosen because they accepted the invitation (Matthew 22:9), and had the prescribed wedding garment (Matthew 22:11).

f) The ones chosen were “bid to the marriage” (Matthew 22:9), not fore-ordained to go.

g) The ones chosen were “good and bad” (Matthew 22:10), not just the “elect”;

h) The ones chosen responded to a general invitation (Matthew 22:9).

ii) John 15:16. Christ chooses his disciples to bear fruit, not to be saved.

The error of Calvinists twisting this verse is seen by comparing John 6:70, “Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil,” with Mark 3:13-14 which says, “He ordained twelve, that they should be with him.” By reading Unconditional Election into these verses, we end up with a sovereignly elected, irresistably called, ordained devil. (John 6:70).

iii) Acts 9:15. “He (Paul) is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles.” (Acts 9:15). “The God of our fathers has chosen thee, that thou shouldst know his will and see that Just One, and shouldst hear the voice of his mouth.” (Acts 22:14).

The Calvinist, Custance, said that Ananias knew Saul was elect: “Ananias knew that the unsaved man to whom he was called to minister the Gospel was numbered among God’s elect.” (p.283).

Answer: Paul was a chosen vessel. However, Paul was already saved when he went to Ananias. He was not chosen to salvation, but he was chosen to “bear the Lord’s name” (Acts 9:15); to know God’s will (Acts 22:14); to see Christ & hear his voice (Acts 22:14); to be a minister & witness (Acts 26:16); to open the Gentiles eyes & turn them from Satan to God (Acts 26:18). Calvinists ignore the context.

iv) Galatians 1:15,16 is used by Calvinists to teach Unconditional Election: “But it pleased God, who separated me from my mother’s womb, and called me by his grace to reveal his Son in me.” That Galatians 1:15,16 and Jeremiah 1:5 do not teach Unconditional Election of prophets from eternity past, is seen by these truths:

- a) Paul’s election was not to “salvation and life”, but to “office and service”.
- b) Election is supposed to be eternal, but these verses teach that it is only from their mothers’ wombs. This overthrows Unconditional Election from eternity past;
- c) Paul was separated on another occasion. It was not to salvation, but to go on his first missionary journey (Acts 13:2) after he was saved: “Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work...”
- d) Paul classified himself as the “chief of sinners” (I Timothy 1:15), not as someone who had an eternal union with Christ.

v) I Peter 2:9 is used to support Unconditional Election:

“But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.”

Answer:

- a) It is not said when this choosing took place, why it took place, or what they were chosen for;
- b) It is clear that individuals are not the subject, but the church as a collective body is in view.

vi) Psalm 65:4 “Blessed is the man whom thou chooses, and causes to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts: we shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple.”

Answer: a) This verse speaks of God’s courts, God’s house, and God’s temple, not about salvation.

- b) The time of choosing is not mentioned;
- c) New Testament salvation is not even remotely connected with the verse.

vii) James 2:5 “Hath not God chosen the poor of this world, rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?”

Answer: Is every welfare recipient one of the “elect” and “chosen to salvation”? No! It just means that generally speaking, poor people are more receptive to the gospel than rich people.

viii) II Thessalonians 2:13 “God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth.”

Answer: The Thessalonians were chosen from the beginning of what? The phrase “from the beginning” according to Calvinists means eternity past, but from the Bible it means when we are saved as seen from Romans 16:7. Paul stated that Andronicus and Junia were in Christ before him. This contradicts the Calvinist view that all the elect were in Christ from eternity past.

Key: “Salute Andronicus and Junia, my kinsmen and my fellowprisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me.” (Romans 16:7).

Key: Hence, in Calvinism the “elect” are all put in Christ at the same time (eternity past), but in the Bible no one is put in Christ until he is saved. In II Thessalonians 2:13, Calvinists have transported the phrase “from the beginning” back to “before the foundation of the world” to line up with their theology. The Bible defines the phrase “from the beginning” as being the time Paul departed from Macedonia and came to Thessalonica: “Now ye Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the Gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only. For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my necessity.” (Philippians 4:15,16).

Hence Paul defines the “beginning of the gospel” as when he left the city of Philippi to begin his departure from the province of Macedonia. Thessalonica is in Macedonia. Hence God chose that the Thessalonians would hear the gospel from the beginning of Paul’s departure from Philippi (II Thess. 2:13) to get the gospel preached to them when the Lord gave Paul the Macedonian call in Acts 16:10. Notice that God chose the Thessalonians to salvation not by a sovereign decree in eternity past, but “through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth,” which choosing and belief took place in 53 AD (Acts 16:9,10 and 17:1-4). The conditions for God saving the Thessalonians are stated as sanctification of the Spirit and belief/obedience in the truth of Christ's blood sacrifice in both II Thessalonians 2:13 and I Peter 1:2. See Spiros Zhodiatas, NT Word Study Dictionary:

Note: a) The Greek phrase for "from the beginning" is "ἀπ ἀρχῆ" (ap' arche), which is different from the phrase "from eternity", "ἀπ αἰωνος" (ap aionos) as in Acts 15:18 ("known from eternity" ("ἀπ αἰωνος") are to God all his works"). Hence God did not choose the Thessalonians from eternity past, but from the beginning of when Paul left Philippi.

b) Calvinists err presuming that "from the beginning" means from before the beginning of the world, by changing "from the beginning" to "before the foundation of the world", hoping nobody will notice.

c) Greek authority S. Zhodiatas writes of this verse: "With a preposition preceding: apo (575), from, ap' arches (746), from the beginning: (B) Of any particular thing eg: of the gospel dispensation, or of Christian experience meaning from the first (Luke 1:2; John 15:27; Acts 26:4; II Thessalonians 2:13; I John 1:1; 2:7,13,14,24; 3:11; II John 5,6). (Complete New Testament Word Study Dictionary p.261). The same expression occurs in Acts 26:4, "My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first" ("ἀπ ἀρχῆς") among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews."

This is clearly not referring to eternity past, nor do most occurrences of this phrase ("ἀπ ἀρχῆς").

ix) Ephesians 1:4 is the twin Calvinist proof text of II Thessalonians 2:13 used to teach Unconditional Election to salvation in eternity past: "According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love." (Ephesians 1:4).

Answer: a) Election is neither mentioned here nor anywhere in Ephesians.

b) The choosing is "that we should be holy and without blame", not that we should be saved or "in Christ." This may be why Calvinists mostly quote only the first half of this verse.

c) The correct interpretation is seen by noting the connection of "according as" at the start of v.4, with "in heavenly places" at the end of v.3. "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ:

According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love". (Ephesians 1:3,4).

Note: The choosing had nothing to do with salvation, but concerned our position in Christ.

Once a man gets "in Christ" he gets in on the choosing.

Key: God chose that whoever was in Christ would be blessed "with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places," and be "holy and without blame before him in love." Calvinists err in thinking that v.4 teaches how we get in Christ.

x) 2 Timothy 1:9 "Who hath saved us, & called us with an holy calling not according to our works, but according to his own purpose & grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began."

Question 37: When did God give us saving grace?

In eternity past (Calvinist position), or when we got "in Christ" (Bible)? The Calvinist Baker (p.102) says, "Paul declared clearly that the elect had been given grace before they ever existed."

Answer: Grace was not physically given to any man "before the world began", because there were no men around to give it to. Grace was "given to us in Christ Jesus."

Key: God deposited grace in Christ before the world began. It was only given to us when we got "in Christ." This grace "is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ." 2 Tim 1:10.

xi) An even greater error of Calvinism is to unite the phrases "in him" (Ephesians 1:4) and "in Christ Jesus" (II Timothy 1:9), with "before the foundation of the world" (Ephesians 1:4) and "before the world began" (II Timothy 1:9), to teach that the "elect" were "in Christ" before the world began.

This teaching of the "eternal union" of "the elect" with Christ is also based on Jeremiah 31:3, "The LORD hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love: therefore with lovingkindness have I drawn thee." (Jeremiah 31:3). Calvinists use this verse to teach Irresistable Grace, and because of this "eternal union", God eternally loved the elect. The result of an "eternal union" & an "eternal love" is an "unregenerate, elect sheep" that is considered a child of God.

Question 38: If the 'elect' were always children of God, could they have ever been children of the devil?

Answer: According to Ephesians 2:1-3 and 12, the "elect" were "children of wrath" (Ephesians 2:3), and "without God" (Eph 2:12) and not children of God. The problem Calvinists create for themselves is that, before the “elect” got “in Adam” (I Corinthians 15:22) they already had a relationship with Christ. This means that, according to Calvinism:

- The Fall didn't affect the elect. It was only the means of reprobating the “non-elect”;
- This Fall that wasn't a fall, allows Calvinists like Pink to claim that one can be dead “in sin” and yet be “in Christ” at the same time. (Exodus, p 19);
- None of the elect have ever been in danger of going to hell;
- “before God, His people are justified from eternity: and he beholds them forever as perfectly righteous in Christ.” (Hoeksema, Grace, p.73).

Answer: This is a complete overthrow of the Gospel. How could the elect ever be lost? The Bible refutes this Calvinist nonsense by teaching that the Fall affected all men equally: “Wherefore, as by one man sin entered the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned” (Romans 5:12). “For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.” I Cor 15:22.

Note: No-one was ever “in Christ” until his salvation: “Salute Andronicus and Junia, my kinsmen, and my fellowprisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me.” (Romans 16:7). In Calvinism, the “elect” are all put in Christ at the same time, in eternity past.

In the Bible, no-one is put in Christ until he is saved.

5. Elected to Salvation

None of the Calvinist proof texts for Unconditional Election contain any form of the word “election”. You would expect verses containing a form of the word election would strongly teach this doctrine.

Bible uses of election are:

- Jesus Christ. When the word “elect” is applied to Christ, it emphasises His value and worth, not His selection to salvation: “Behold my servant, whom I uphold; mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth,” (Isaiah 42:1; Matthew 12:18).
“Wherefore also it is contained in the Scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious; and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.” (I Peter 2:6; Isaiah 28:16).
- Angels. “I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, & the elect angels, that thou observe these things without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality” I Timothy 5:21.
The Westminster Confession of Faith teaches the election and reprobation of men and angels: “By the decree of God, for the manifestation of his glory some men and angels are predestined unto everlasting life; and others foreordained to everlasting death.” (III, 3).
Pink writes: “God in the past made a selection among the hosts of heaven, choosing some to be vessels of honour, and others to be vessels of dishonour. Those whom He chose unto His favour, stood steadfast and remained in subjection to His will. The rest fell when Satan revolted, for upon his apostasy he dragged down with himself one-third of the angels. (Revelation 12:4).
Concerning them we read, “God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness” (II Peter 2:4). Those who belong to the election of grace are “the holy angels”: holy as the consequence of their election, and not elected because they were holy, for election antedated their creation.” (Pink, Election, p.37).
Answer: a) No angel was ever said to be elected before the foundation of the world by a sovereign, eternal decree. Some angels have already fallen (Genesis 6:2), and are captive in chains of darkness of hell to be judged at a later day (II Peter 2:4; Jude 6) by their replacements (I Corinthians 6:3) the sons of God by faith in Christ (I John 3:2).
Key: God chose the angels that didn't fall, hence they are called “elect angels.” The election of angels parallels that of Christ. They are appraised or assessed as elect and holy, not selected to be holy. (Matthew 25:31).
b) “Elect” cannot refer to holy angels because they never fell to be elected back to holiness.
c) Revelation 12:4 takes place in the future Tribulation, not before Genesis 1:1.
- Israel is said to be God's elect (Isaiah 45:4; 65:9,22). God chose Israel to be a peculiar people above all nations (Deuteronomy 14:2). This was a pure case of Unconditional Election of a nation, not of individuals. God did not choose each individual Jew to be elect. They were either
 - born into it by being a descendant of Jacob, or
 - chose of their own free will to be one of the “elect”, like the proselyte Ruth (Ruth 1:16).

The salvation and damnation of individuals was not the purpose of their election, as seen from Romans 9 where many members of the nation of Israel were reprobate.

Key: This election was because of their birth, not individual, not to do with salvation, and not by a sovereign, eternal decree. The national election of Israel is seen in the New Testament. Contrary to Amillennial and Post-millennial Calvinists, God is not finished with His elect nation Israel (Romans 11:1,25-27). Failing to recognize that Israel is still called the “elect” in the New Testament, has caused much misinterpretation of Scripture, such as:

a) Matthew 24:22,24,31 “And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect’s sake those days shall be shortened.” The context of Matthew 24 is the future Tribulation (v.21,29) called the “time of Jacob’s trouble” (Jeremiah 30:7). Those addressed are not “elect sinners” waiting to be saved by Irresistible Grace, but Jewish saints. The context of Matthew 24:13 has nothing to do with the salvation of anyone in the Church age, but here, as throughout this entire Olivet Discourse, the elect is Israel.

b) II Timothy 2:10 is another case of Israel as an elect nation being mistaken for the church. “Therefore I endure all things for the elect’s sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.” Calvinists think the elect here are “God’s people” who were elected before the foundation of the world.

Answer: This passage refers to elect Israelites, not unsaved “elected” Gentiles.

If the “elect” were elected before the foundation of the world by an unconditional, efficacious, sovereign, irresistible, eternal decree, then they could never miss salvation, whether Paul preached it or not. To believe that Paul strove (Romans 15:20) and laboured in the gospel (Philippians 4:3), enduring beatings (II Timothy 2:10), stonings, imprisonments, shipwreck, perils, pain, hunger and cold (II Corinthians 11:23-27) for the sake of the “elect” who would certainly be saved, is the most foolish excuse ever offered to support Unconditional Election. Paul longed to see his fellow Jews saved (Romans 9:1-3; 10:1-3; 11:12-14), but not by Unconditional Election.

c) Luke 18:7,8 “And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him.?”

Question 39: Who are these elect? When, why and how they were elected is not mentioned.

Answer: There is no basis in this verse to teach Unconditional Election.

- Historically, God’s own elect are Jews, as seen from other gospel references;

- Spiritually, the elect may apply to anyone saved in any time;

- Doctrinally, the elect are likely to be suffering saints in the Tribulation (Revelation 6:9-10, the martyred saints crying out to God for revenge). The verse concerns prayer (Luke 18:1), not a sovereign, eternal, decree.

d) Romans 9:11 “For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth.”

Answer: Paul argues that there is an Israel within Israel (Romans 9:6). The “purpose of God according to election” has nothing to do with individual salvation or reprobation, but concerns the election of national preference of the Messianic line through Abraham, Isaac, Jacob to Jesus Christ

e) Romans 11:28 “As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers’ sake.” This refers to the whole of the nation Israel and has nothing to do with salvation.

f) Romans 11:5,7 “Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.....What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded.” (Romans 11:5,7). Calvinists see Unconditional Election to salvation here because these verses concern only a portion of Israel.

Answer: The Romans 9-11 parenthesis considers the problem of how God could reject the nation of Israel whom He had elected. Personal election and reprobation of all individual humans is not even remotely discussed. The “even so” of Romans 11:5 links it to v.4. Hence, the “remnant according to the election of grace” (v.5) corresponds to the seven thousand men reserved to God who had not bowed the knee to the image of Baal. (v.4). Calvinists focus on the word “reserved.”

Question 40: Why were these 7,000 men reserved to God? Was it because of God’s decree of Unconditional Election?

Answer: Not at all. They were reserved because they hadn't bowed to Baal's image.

As there was a remnant in Elijah's days, so now there is a remnant.

Question 41: What was it that Israel sought after? (Romans 9:31; 10:3).

Answer: Their own righteousness of keeping the law.

Question 42: Why did most of Israel fail to obtain God's righteousness?

Answer: "They sought it not by faith." (Romans 9:32-3). Only the remnant of Israel who sought righteousness by faith participated in the "election of grace." The remnant obtained salvation because they received Christ, not because they were unconditionally elected to be overcome by Irresistible Grace. The blinding of those who did not partake in the "election of grace" (Romans 11:5) was because they sought it by works. That part of Israel which "hath not obtained that which he seeketh for" (Romans 11:7) did not fail because they were hardened, they were hardened because they failed. Works nullify both faith (Romans 4:5) and grace (Romans 11:6).

Their blindness was national in scope and temporary in nature (Romans 11:25).

"Reprobate" Israel will one day become "elect" Israel.

iv) Church.

Calvinists claim "There is only one way that leads to salvation and that is the way of God's election." (Berkouwer, p.74).

Answer: The nine New Testament occurrences of "elect" are never connected with any decree of God – sovereign, eternal or otherwise.

a) I Peter 5:13 "The church that is at Babylon, elected together with you saluteth you; and so does Marcus my son." Notice that no individual is said to be elected, and nothing is said about when, how or why anyone was elected.

b) I Thessalonians 1:4 "Knowing brethren beloved, your election of God." Notice that there is no mention of the time of this election, no eternal decree, no reason given, and no method of this election. Instead, it refers to how the Thessalonians received the gospel by God electing Paul to go to Macedonia. (Thessalonica is in Macedonia).

c) II Peter 1:10 "Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall."

Key: This verse destroys TULIP Calvinism because calling comes first, then election follows after. Pink panicked at this verse by saying it is "sheer blasphemy" if you disagree with his reading Unconditional Election into II Peter 1:10 (Election, p.137), because all his life he taught that election comes first, then calling later. "Effectual calling is the consequence of election" (Election, Pink, p.138).

Question 43: How could anyone "give diligence" to make sure a supposedly irresistible, sovereign, eternal decree that was sure to happen any way?

No-one could make it sure because God already made it sure. The Calvinist Custance correctly makes the calling and election relate to service, not salvation. (Custance, p. 249).

d) The word "elect" is applied to Christians 6 times. None of these verses says that election is a decree of God, none says it is eternal, none says it is unconditional, and none says that it results in salvation. The word "elect" in these verses is simply a title for New Testament Christians, showing our value, worth, appraisal and assessment. Thus the use of "elect" parallels the election of Jesus Christ and the angels. "Who shall lay anything to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifies" Romans 8:33. "Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering." (Colossians 3:12).

"Paul, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowledging of the truth which is after godliness." (Titus 1:1).

"Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ." (I Peter 1:2).

"The elder unto the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that have known the truth." (II John 1).

"The children of thy elect sister greet thee. Amen." (II John 13).

Answer: Calvinists want us to believe that because the word “elect” occurs in the New Testament, their doctrine of an eternal, sovereign, irresistible, unconditional election must be Biblical.

They want us to read this into the text. These verses show that no-one is elect until they are saved. Believers are described as elect, justified, holy, beloved and having faith.

None of these descriptions are true of believers from eternity past.

Question 44: How do Calvinists build a case for eternal, unconditional election?

Answer: They go elsewhere to get this teaching, then read it back into every verse where election is found. They follow this sequence of verses:

- 1) Calvinists start at I Peter 1:2 since salvation is mentioned in the same verse as election. Calvinists like Pink change foreknowledge here to fore-ordination (Sovereignty, p. 57,58). Acts 2:23 forces Calvinists to treat foreknowledge as foreknowledge and not fore-ordination, because foreknowledge follows the “determinate counsel” of God. Some Calvinists avoid I Peter 1:2 because it does not say that election took place before the foundation of the world. Because foreknowledge is mentioned, they connect this verse to:
- 2) Romans 8:29, 30 “For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son.” Now that “predestination” is introduced, they link this with:
- 3) Ephesians 1:4,5 because v.5 contains the word “predestinate” and v.4 mentions the terms “chosen” and “before the foundation of the world.”
- 4) II Thessalonians 2:13 is quoted: “God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation”, while they fail to quote the rest of the verse which teaches both the divine initiative and human response in salvation “through sanctification of the spirit, and belief of the truth”. For support they turn to:
- 5) Acts 13:48 “as many as were ordained to eternal life believed”, without checking either the Greek meaning of ‘ordained’ or when this ordaining took place. They finally appeal to:
- 6) Romans 9,10,11 and a few other verses to teach election to reprobation.

True Meaning of Election = Corporate Election of the Church, not Individual Election to salvation.

When Peter describes New Testament believers, he quotes from the Old Testament and hence reveals the true meaning of New Testament election:

“But ye are a ¹chosen generation, a ²royal priesthood, an ³holy nation, a ⁴peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who has called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.” I Peter 2:9. This fourfold description of the New Testament church is quoted from God’s fourfold description of Old Testament Israel: “And ye shall be unto me a ²kingdom of priests, and a ³holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.” (Exodus 19:6).

“For thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God, and the LORD hath chosen thee to be a ⁴peculiar people unto himself, above all the nations that are upon the earth.” (Deuteronomy 14:2).

Key: Calvinists have completely missed and overlooked the fact that, as the nation of Israel was corporately elect as a body, so also was the Church elected as a body. (Ephesian 1:22,23; Col.1:18). Rather than see the truth of corporate election, the Amillennial and Postmillennial Calvinists think that God has permanently rejected Israel and so they get all of Israel’s blessings, but none of their curses.

Key: Calvinists completely miss the significance of Christians being described in this fourfold manner. Forster and Marston rightly say: “The prime point is that the election of the church is a corporate rather than an individual thing. It is not that individuals are in the church because they are elect, it is rather that they are elect because they are in the church.” (p.137).

William Klein similarly concluded: “In the old covenant, a person entered the chosen nation of Israel through natural birth. In the new covenant, a person enters the chosen body, the church, through the new birth. To exercise faith in Christ, is to enter into his body and become one of the “chosen ones.”” (Klein, p 265). Hence, New Testament election is of the body and includes individual men only in association with the body. Election has nothing to do with how any man gets into the body.

Our election of the New Testament church is typified by God’s election of Israel in three ways:

- a) As national election of Israel included only those “in Jacob”, so to get into New Testament election one must be “in Christ.”
- b) As Old Testament Individuals were only elect according to their relationship to the nation of Israel, so New Testament individuals are elect only according to their relationship with Christ.

- c) Key: As God did not choose each individual Jew to be one of the elect, so God does not choose each individual Christian to be one of the elect – they are born into it. No unsaved man was ever elected to anything. The basic error of Calvinism is to confuse election with salvation.

In summary, the same five principles about Israel's election also apply to the Church's election:

1. Individuals are elect only according to their relationship to the elect one (Jacob or Christ);
2. God did not choose any individual;
3. The elect are only elect because of their birth (natural birth into Old Testament Israel, or new birth into the New Testament church);
4. Their election had nothing to do with salvation, but with service;
5. Their election was not by a sovereign, eternal decree.

6. Predestined to Salvation?

Predestine only occurs 4 times in NT. The context always determines what the person is predestined to.

Question 45: Does the Biblical use of predestination match the Calvinists' definition?

Answer: No. The Westminster Confession defines predestination as: "By the decree of God, for the manifestation of his own glory, some men and angels are predestinated unto everlasting life, and others foreordained to everlasting death." (III, 3).

Question 46: What does the Bible say we are predestined to? Answer:

- a) Son-placing in heaven: "Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children (Greek: huiothesia = son placing) by Jesus Christ unto himself, according to the good pleasure of his will." Ephesians 1:5.
- b) Praise his glory: "In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will: That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ." (Ephesians 1:11,12).
- c) Conformed to the image of his Son in heaven: "For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called, and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified." (Romans 8:29,30).

Notice how these verses refute the Calvinist position:

- a) Predestination is never called a decree of God;
- b) Predestination is never said to take place before the foundation of the world;
- c) No-one is said to be predestined to salvation;
- d) No-one is said to be predestined to hell, condemnation, judgment or everlasting death;
- e) None of these verses mention predestination of angels.

Conclusion: Hence, what the Bible says about predestination is irreconcilable with what Calvinists say about it. Predestination only concerns our destiny as Christians.

Note: Three Scriptures overthrow Calvinistic foreknowledge, that God had an eternal love for the elect:

- a) "But Jesus did not commit himself unto them because he knew all men." (John 2:24). Hence Christ "knew all men", not just the "elect".
- b) Christ did not know the "elect" until their conversion: "Howbeit then, when ye knew not God, ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods. But now, after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly elements, whereinto ye desire again to be in bondage?" (Galatians 4:8,9). Hence, God could not have had an eternal, loving relationship with the "elect" if He never knew them before their conversion.
- c) God foreknew the whole nation of Israel, but this didn't guarantee the salvation of anyone in the nation. "I say then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew." (Romans 11:1,2). All Calvinists agree that "his people" means national Israel, but in v.2 God foreknew these people, yet not all Israelites were saved. Hence, foreknowledge here has nothing to do with foreordination to salvation. Believers are predestined by God to be conformed to the image of His Son (Romans 8:29). "And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly;" (I Corinthians 15:49; I John 3:2).

Conclusion: No unsaved man was predestined to anything.

Calvinists' basic error is to confuse election and predestination with salvation.

Note: It is only by constructing an order of salvation events to match the TULIP theology, that Calvinists can appeal to the predestination verses in Romans.

Elect Infants: If God unconditionally determines the eternal destiny of every member of the human race, then this includes infants, because all men, whether “elect” or “reprobate”, first have to be born as infants. The problem for Calvinists is, what happens when an infant dies? Does he go to heaven or hell?

Question 47: Are children who die in infancy counted among the “elect”?

Key: The obvious implication of Unconditional Election is that a dead infant is equally likely to be “elect” or “reprobate”. The most consistent Calvinist was Augustine, who held to the damnation of “non-elect” and non-baptized infants (Webb, p. 312,313; Schaff History, Vol. 8, p.556). Zwingli was the only Reformer who believed in unconditional, universal salvation for all infants by Christ’s death. When it comes to unambiguously stating that all infants who die are saved, most Calvinists hesitate.

Note: The uncertain, wavering attitude of Calvinists on the salvation of infants is a far cry from their dogmatic assertions about the reprobation of adult “non-elect”.

Key: If Calvinists teach that all dead infants go to heaven, then this overthrows their whole system of Unconditional Election and Covenant theology. If Calvinists teach that non-elect dead infants go to hellfire forever, then this attacks the justice, mercy and love of God, as well as grossly offending normal human nature. Hence, Calvinists as a rule insist that all children who die in infancy are part of the “elect”. They thus refute their own error of Unconditional Election.

Most Calvinists teach that infant “baptism” (sprinkling) replaces circumcision. Hoeksema, Dogmatics, p.694 The Calvinist Baptist Spurgeon strongly disagrees, saying: “A human and carnal invention, an addition to the Word of God, and therefore wicked and injurious.” (Spurgeon, Infant Salvation, p.3). Reformed Calvinists who quote Spurgeon in an attempt to convince Baptists to become Calvinists, suddenly cease appealing to Spurgeon when the subject of baptism comes up.

Conclusions about Unconditional Election: The doctrine of election, which Calvinists identify with Unconditional Election, is only as Calvinists think “prominently revealed in God’s Word” because Calvinists have read it into every possible passage.

- a) The other side of the “elect” being predestined to salvation before the foundation of the world, is that God has predestined the “reprobate” to damnation before the foundation of the world. This is unbiblical and abhorrent to the nature of God and man. Calvinists see election and reprobation as the twin branches of predestination.
- b) In commenting on John 17 which Calvinists use to teach Unconditional Election, Martin Lloyd-Jones (1899-1981) shows Calvinists’ belief in fatalism and reprobation: “My friend, if you are a Christian, do you know that you were the object of God’s interest and concern before the foundation of the world? All these things have been worked out in eternity, before time, so you must always remember that nothing can happen in time which will make the slightest difference.” (Saved in Eternity, p.16). The best an unbeliever can do is to hope he is one of the elect. Lam 3:26.
- c) Shaky assurance of salvation: Unconditional Election forces a Calvinist to seek assurance of salvation in a mysterious, sovereign, eternal decree of predestination, instead of the clear statements in the Bible. The Calvinist Coppes writes: “Predestination is the fount of assurance of salvation and God’s answer to doubt.” (p.25).
- d) Missions and Evangelism: If it be true, as Calvinists assert such as Zanchius that “the number of the elect, and also of the reprobate, is so fixed and determinate that neither can be augmented or diminished.” (p.92) and Storms: “But eventually, if they are elect, in God’s appointed time they will believe.” (Chosen for Life, p.105), then what possible difference could it make whether one sent or withheld missionaries?
- e) Confusing mass of Terminology: Wesley said, “Call it . . . Election, Preterition, Predestination or Reprobation, it comes in the end to the same thing: By virtue of an eternal, unchangeable, irresistible decree of God, one part of mankind is infallibly saved, and the rest are infallibly damned; it being impossible that any of the elect should be damned, or that any of the non-elect should be saved. But if this be so, then is all preaching vain.” (John Wesley, quoted in Sell, p.73).

- f) Practical results of Unconditional Election: Wesley charged it with:
- making all preaching vain;
 - tending to destroy holiness (Why try if all is predestined?);
 - tending to destroy the comfort of religion (Where lies any comfort if all is predestined?);
 - tending to destroy zeal for good works, yea
 - tending to destroy the whole Christian revelation by involving it in fatal contradictions. (Why command us to obey if our obedience or disobedience is predetermined?)

3. LIMITED ATONEMENT

The first 4 points of TULIP Calvinism involve the prefixing of a qualifying term to a Biblical doctrine:

- a) Depravity of man is a Biblical doctrine, but Total Depravity is not;
- b) Election is Biblical, but Unconditional Election is not.
- c) Atonement of Christ is Biblical, but Limited Atonement is not.
- d) Grace is Biblical (170x) but Irresistible Grace is not.

Limited Atonement is the most objectionable part of Calvinism. It adds insult to injury, the injury being Unconditional Election, for if some are not elected to salvation, then what does it matter whether Christ died for them or not? The non-elect couldn't possibly be saved, whether Christ died for them or not. Due to Limited Atonement's non-essential and objectionable nature, it is rejected by many Baptists and others who hold to Unconditional Election. Limited Atonement is connected with Unconditional Election. These 2 doctrines stand or fall together. We cannot logically accept one and reject the other. Total Depravity demands that God must elect and irresistibly save any who will ever be saved. Limited Atonement is so objectionable because it is so blatantly anti-Biblical. Limited Atonement is called by other names to de-stigmatize its implications, such as "particular redemption, effective redemption, limited redemption."

Definition of Limited Atonement: "The Lord Jesus, by his perfect obedience, and sacrifice of himself . . . purchased, not only reconciliation, but an everlasting inheritance in the kingdom of heaven, for all those whom the father hath given unto him." (Westminster Confession, VII:5).

Simple Definition: "Christ shed his blood and made an atonement only for the sins of the elect."

The theory behind Limited Atonement is that Christ's blood was shed for the "elect" because God did not want anyone else to be saved.

Question 1: Calvinists ask why others were not elected. Their answer is that God wanted them to go to hell. It is a waste of time to discuss Limited Atonement with a Calvinist, because, if Christ died 1000 deaths for the "non-elect" they would still go to hell.

Key Question 2: Did God intend to save all men, or did He not? (Sexton, p 15).

Calvinists' Accusations Against their Opponents:

1. If you reject T, U or L you are accused of being an Arminian. "It is simply Arminian to teach that Christ died for all men." (Hoeksema, Limited Atonement, p 49). Once they call you an Arminian, they then accuse you of believing in works for salvation, or being Arian, Pelagian or Socinian. This trick is known as "guilt by association." Clark, a Calvinist, says: "Though no one accuses Arminians of being Catholics, the two agree . . . that while Christ's sacrifice was necessary for salvation, it is not sufficient. Man must add some meritorious work of his own." (Gordon H Clark, The Atonement, p.140).

Boettner, a Calvinist, says: "The Arminian theory that God is anxiously trying to convert sinners but not able to exert more than persuasive power without doing violence to their natures, is much the same as the old Persian view that there were two principles of good and evil at war with each other, neither of which was able to overcome the other." (Boettner, Predestination, p.218).

Question: Do we reject the Trinity & Incarnation because Catholics & Arminians believe them?No

2. Calvinists accuse believers in Unlimited Atonement of "believing that salvation is partly our own doing . . . that we are not fully delivered from sin by the grace of God alone," (Rose, p.30) and that "they must be ready to bear the weight of their own guilt, ready to atone for their sins the best way they can."

3. Boettner accuses his opponents of disparaging God: “If Christ’s death was intended to save all men, then we must say that God was either unable or unwilling to carry out his plans.” (Boettner, Predestination, p.155).
Answer: Does God have the right to set forth the terms and conditions of how one appropriates salvation? Yes.
4. Calvinists claim that if Christ made a Limited Atonement, then some of his blood was wasted.
Answer: This accusation has no Biblical support and is false.
5. Calvinists misrepresent their opponents by saying that: “Arminians have long accused Calvinists of limiting the power of the atonement.” (Talbot and Crampton, p.37).
Answer: Calvinists don’t limit the atonement’s power, but its extent.
6. Calvinists teach that Unlimited Atonement robs God of His glory: “Only Calvinism with its effective atonement limits man’s power and exalts God’s power and glory.” (Coppes, p.49).

Four Point Calvinism

The reason a four-point Calvinist opposes Limited Atonement is to divert attention away from the fact that he still believes in Unconditional Election, which predestines the reprobate to hell with no chance of salvation. By focusing his opponents’ attention on an extreme position that he does not believe, the four-point Calvinist appears to take the middle ground and appear orthodox.

The belief of 5-point Calvinists is that God provides salvation for the elect that the elect might be saved.

The belief of 4-point Calvinists is that God provides salvation for all men that the elect might be saved.

So what is the difference? If only the “elect” will be saved, it doesn’t matter who Christ died for.

Hence Limited Atonement is of no importance to the TULIP system.

The four-point position is inconsistent because, “Why should Jesus bear the sins of men, whom God’s decree has predestined to hell and have no chance of forgiveness?”

The Atonement

The true nature of the Atonement is “substitution”, where Christ became a sin bearer and curse bearer, not only on behalf of others, but in the place of others (II Corinthians 5:21; Galatians 3:13).

Christ’s death as a penal substitution presupposes that God’s holiness and justice demand man’s sins be punished. (I Timothy 1:15). God could not just forgive the sinner, but the sinner can only be forgiven on the ground of Another bearing his punishment. Christ did this voluntarily (John 10:17,18), completely (John 19:30), once for all (Hebrews 10:10), and by one offering (Hebrews 10:14) that God ‘might be just and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus. (Roman 3:26). The grace of God is any move of God toward man. The New Testament only mentions the word “atonement” once: “We also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.” (Rom 5:11). Old Testament Atonements just covered sin. Christ’s New Testament Atonement includes:

- a) Sacrifice: God’s provision where sin might be covered and the liability of wrath and curse removed (I Corinthians 5:7; Ephesians 5:2; Hebrews 7:27; 10:10,12).
- b) Ransom: The securing of release from bondage by paying a price. To be redeemed is to be delivered by paying a ransom. Christ, in His sacrificial death, was our substitute, thus redeeming us (Matthew 20:28; Colossians 1:14; I Timothy 2:6; Titus 2:14; Hebrews 9:12; I Peter 1:18,19).
- c) Expiation: Christ’s ransom sacrifice was an expiation in that it removed the guilt of sin by cancelling it and purging it out. (John 1:29; Hebrews 1:3; 9:14; 9:26).
- d) Propitiation: means to placate, pacify, appease and conciliate. These presuppose the wrath and displeasure of God at our sin. Hence, Liberals and Modernists dislike the idea of propitiation. Propitiation removes the judicial displeasure of God. It is turning away (or opposing) the wrath of a righteous God against sin, by accepting Christ’s death as a satisfactory substitute. (Romans 3:25; I John 2:2; 4:10).
- e) Reconciliation: The propitiatory sacrifice of Christ is the cause for reconciliation (Romans 5:10; II Corinthians 5:18,19; Ephesians 2:16; Colossians 1:20,21; Hebrews 2:17).

Hence, to reject Limited Atonement is not to reject Biblical Atonement. We agree with Calvinists on the NATURE of the Atonement, but disagree on the EXTENT of the Atonement.

Calvinist's 5 Main Arguments for Limited Atonement

- i) A universal atonement demands a universal salvation (most common). Calvinists believe that, if the atonement was unlimited in scope, then it would result in the universal salvation of all mankind.
- ii) Double Jeopardy: If Christ has paid for a persons's sins, then legally speaking it would be double jeopardy (double punishment) for him to be judged for those sins and sent to hell. Hence, since all men are not saved, Christ could not have died for all men. No man can be held accountable for a debt that has already been paid on his behalf. For God to have laid the sins of all men on Christ, would mean that the sins of the lost would be punished twice, once on Christ, and again on them. That would be unjust. So, God would be unjust to condemn any man to hell for whom Christ died.
- iii) A universal atonement doesn't actually save anyone. "Christ's death in itself did not actually secure or guarantee salvation for anyone." (Steale and Thomas, p.39).
- iv) The relationship between Adam and Christ. Because the sin of Adam was the ground of all men's condemnation, so the righteousness of Christ secured the salvation of those He died for.
- v) The sin of unbelief. If Christ died for all the sins of all men, why are not all men freed from the punishment of all their sins? Because of their sin of unbelief. Since this unbelief is a sin, Christ was punished for this sin as well.

Answer: These Calvinist false conclusions about the Atonement are based on the false premise that the Atonement and its application is the same thing. That is, Calvinists confuse the provision of a Saviour with the applying of salvation. Note these Calvinists' false statements:

- a) "What does redemption mean? It does not mean redeemability, that we are placed in a redeemable position. It means that Christ purchased & procured redemption." (John Murray, Redemption, p63)
- b) "From the moment that satisfaction has been made, that debt is forever removed." (Hoeksema, Limited Atonement, p 50,51).
- c) "To say that everything turns on the sinner's acceptance, is to affirm that Christ did nothing more for those who are saved than He did for those who are lost. It is not faith which gives Divine efficacy to the blood; it was the blood which efficaciously purchased faith" Pink, Satisfaction, p264

So what the Calvinists are saying is that the "elect" were actually saved, redeemed, reconciled and justified by and at the instant of the Atonement.

Answer: Then how is it that the "elect" were born "dead in trespasses and sins" (Eph 2:1)? and how could men who were saved, redeemed, reconciled and justified be 'by nature children of wrath'? Eph.2:1 If Calvinists object to this conclusion, then the only other alternative is Unlimited Atonement.

Old Testament Example proving that the Atonement and its Application are to be distinguished.

The blood of the slain Passover lamb (Exodus 12:6,21) became efficacious only after it was applied to the doorposts as per God's instructions (Exodus 12:7,22). When the Lord went through the land of Egypt, He only passed over the houses where the blood was applied, not just where the lamb was slain.

Key: The death of the lamb saved no one: the blood had to be applied. It is obvious that the Bible differentiates between the universal provision and the individual application of Christ's Atonement.

The work of Christ is complete but conditional.

The Calvinist Boettner contradicts Limited Atonement:

"The nature of a ransom is such that when paid and accepted it automatically frees the persons for whom it was intended." (Boettner, Predestination, p.155). Likewise Christ's Atonement must be made and accepted. There is a universal provision of Christ's death (Hebrews 2:9), as well as an individual application of Christ's death (John 1:12; Romans 10:13). Christ's Atonement does not result in anyone's salvation until it is applied.

Key 1: The answer to Calvinists' five arguments for Limited Atonement is that they fail to distinguish between the universal provision and the need for an individual application of the Atonement.

Key 2: The Calvinists's argument (1) about a universal atonement demanding a universal salvation disappears when we realize that the so-called "elect" did not exist when Christ died on the cross. Calvinist argument (2) of "double jeopardy" has the alternative that all those for whom Christ died are automatically saved at the cross before they were born. Those unbelievers judged at the Great White Throne Judgment are judged not for their sins, but according to their works that they trusted in to see if they measure up to Christ's perfect works. (Revelation 20:12,13).

The Calvinist argument (3), that a universal atonement doesn't save anyone, is wrong because:

- a) They imply that, because it did not save anyone at the time it was made, it is impossible to save anyone in the future;
- b) Even if no man ever availed himself of a universal atonement in the Church age, the Calvinist would have to admit that Christ made an effectual atonement for Old Testament saints: "And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance." (Hebrews 9:15).

The Calvinist argument (4), concerning the analogy between Adam and Christ, is refuted by understanding that, although Adam's sin was both universal and unrefuseable, Christ's free gift (Romans 5:16,18) must be received (Romans 5:17).

- a) In Romans 5:15, although Calvinists correctly interpret the "many" in the first part of v.15 as "all", they change the "all men" in the last part of v.18 into "many", and restrict the "all men" in v.18b and the "many" in v.15b to only the "elect". "But not as the offence, so also is the free gift, for if through the offence of one many be dead (many = "all" Calvinists agree), much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, has abounded unto many." (Many = "all", but Calvinists being inconsistent restrict this "many" to only the "elect"). Rom 5:15
- b) Romans 5:18 "Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men (all men = everyone, Calvinists agree) to condemnation, even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men (all men = everyone, unlimited atonement, Calvinists disagree being inconsistent) unto justification of life."
- c) Verse 19 explains: "For as by one man's disobedience many (many = all) were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many (many = all who receive it) be made righteous." Romans 5:19. The future tense shows that the benefits of Christ's work apply only to those who receive it.
- d) This is confirmed by "For as in Adam all die (all = everybody) even so in Christ shall all be made alive." (I Corinthians 15:22). Although the sin of Adam was the ground of all men's condemnation, they are excused if they get "in Christ." Calvinists go astray here because all men are in Adam by descent as sinners, and all men "in Christ" are by faith "children of God". Everything depends on being "in Christ". (Ephesians 1:4).
- e) Isaiah 53:6 "All (all = everybody, Calvinists agree) have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us "all" (all = everybody = unlimited atonement, Calvinists disagree inconsistently)..

Calvinist argument (5) of the "sin of unbelief" has two clear inconsistencies in their reasoning:

- a) Why does God demand that men believe if Christ died for and thereby removed the sin of unbelief? If "he that believeth not is condemned already" (John 3:18), and if this sin of unbelief is expiated and God is propitiated, then no one whom Christ died for could be held responsible for unbelief. They would already be saved.
- b) If Christ did not die for certain men (as Calvinists claim), then those people cannot be condemned for unbelief. If Christ did not die for a man, then there is no Gospel for him to reject or believe. The Holy Spirit will "reprove the world of sin . . . because they believe not on me." (John 16:8,9).

Refuting Calvinists' Proof Texts for Limited Atonement

Calvinists use 3 types of Scriptures in trying to prove Limited Atonement:

- 1) Christ died for the world. } These clearly refute Limited Atonement, so Calvinists redefine
- 2) Christ died for all men. } "world" and "all men" to defend their position.
- 3) Christ died for a particular group.

The biggest problem with limited atonement is found in Scriptures teaching Christ died "for all", or for the "whole world". The Calvinist Sproul adds: "The world for whom Christ died cannot mean the entire human family. It must mean the universality of the elect (people from every tribe and nation)". (Sproul, Chosen by God, p 207).

1. Passages showing that CHRIST DIED for THE WORLD.

These verses occur in John's gospel, Paul's letters, and in I John. Although Calvinists confuse "the world" with "the elect", the Bible clearly teaches Christ's unlimited atonement for the whole world:

A. JOHN's Gospel

- a) John 1:29 "Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world". The Calvinist Gunn twists this, saying: "Christ will take away the sin of the world . . . at His Second Coming" (Gunn, p.18). This is false because in the millennium "the sinner being an hundred years old shall be accursed" (Isaiah 62:20 and Revelation 20:7-10).
- b) John 6:33 "The bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, & giveth life unto the world". The Calvinist John Owen twists this to teach that "he saves all the people of God (not Jews only), all over the world". (Owen, p.342).
- c) John 3:16 "For God so loved the world, that He gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life".
The Calvinist Pink twists this verse, saying: "The world in John 3:16 must refer to the world of God's people. "Must," we say, for there is no other alternative solution". (Pink, Sovereignty, p204). The Presbyterian Dabney writes: "Make "the world" which Christ loved, to mean "the elect world", and we reach the absurdity, that some of the elect may not believe, and hence perish". (Dabney, Theology, p.525).
- d) John 4:42 "this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world."
- e) John 6:51 "the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world."
- f) II Corinthians 5:19 "To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, . . ."
- g) I John 2:2 "He is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world."
- h) I John 4:14 "the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world."

So everything hinges on the meaning of the word "world". Calvinists quickly point out that "world" is used in different senses, such as hyperbolic phrases like: "behold, the world is gone after him" (John 12:19) to prove that the world only means the "elect". We agree that "world" is used in different senses. We dispute Calvinists' claim that "the world" ever signifies the so-called "elect".

FACT: The word "world" occurs 89 times in John's Gospel and, although it is used in different senses, it never refers to the "elect". Consider these examples where "world" could never mean the "elect":

- 1) The world (elect?) knew him not. (John 1:10).
- 2) The world (elect?) hates Christ. (John 7:7).
- 3) The world (elect?) consists of unsaved Jews. (8:23).
- 4) The world's (elect's) prince is Satan. (12:31; 14:30; 16:11).
- 5) The world (elect?) seeth me no more. (14:19).
- 6) The world (elect?) cannot receive the Holy Spirit. (14:17).
- 7) The world (elect?) hates the disciples. (15:18,19; 17:14).
- 8) In the world (elect?) ye shall have tribulation. (16:33).
- 9) The world (elect?) did not know the Father. (17:25).
- 10) Christ's Kingdom is not of this world. (elect?) (18:36).

Hoeksema inadvertently admits that "when our Lord announces Himself as the light of the world, it is evident that He speaks of the world of men, of the entire human race". (Whosoever Will, p 86).

Hence the world never denotes the "elect", and the world is clearly condemned by God.

The world in John 3:16 could not be the "elect" because:

- 1) What is true in the time of Moses (everyone that is bitten, when he looketh upon it shall live (Numbers 21:8) is certainly true in the time of Christ ("whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life" (John 3:16).
Hence, just as the cure for being bitten was believing what God said and doing it (Numbers 21:8), so the cure for sin was obtained by believing what God said and doing it (John 3:15).
- 2) In Calvinism, the so-called "elect" have never been in danger of perishing and never can be.
- 3) John 3:19 defines the world as "men": "And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil."

B. PAUL'S LETTERS: "To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation" 2 Cor 5:19

Question 3: Calvinists use II Corinthians 5:19 to teach that not all men (without exception) have been reconciled, but that God has been reconciling His people ("elect") from the world one by one. II Corinthians 5:19 teaches that there is a "world" which is reconciled to God. Who are they? The "elect", say Calvinists.

Answer:

- a) Who is identified as the "world"? The "world" occurs 69 times in Paul's letters and is used in several different senses, but never refers to the "elect". Consider these examples:
- 1) The world (elect?) by wisdom knew not God. (I Corinthians 1:21).
 - 2) Not the wisdom of this world (elect?). (I Corinthians 2:6). World is disparaged.
 - 3) The princes of this world (elect?) . . . crucified the Lord of glory. (I Corinthians 2:8).
 - 4) We have received, not the spirit of the world. (elect?) (I Corinthians 2:12).
 - 5) The saints shall judge the world. (elect?) (II Corinthians 4:4).
 - 6) Satan is the god of this world. (elect?) (II Corinthians 4:4).
 - 7) Deliver us from this present evil world. (elect?) (Galatians 1:4).
 - 8) In bondage under the elements of the world. (elect?) (Galatians 4:3).
 - 9) Christians shine as lights in the world. (elect?) (Philippians 2:13).
 - 10) The rudiments of the world (elect?) are warned against. (Colossians 2:20).
- b) What is the nature of reconciliation in II Corinthians 5:19? The Bible distinguishes between the universal provision of atonement and the individual application of the atonement. The context of II Corinthians 5:19 shows this is also true of reconciliation.
- 1) Galatians 1:4 Paul contrasts "us" with the "world": "Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world . . ."
 - 2) The "elect" could not have been reconciled at the cross (God "not imputing their trespasses unto them"- II Corinthians 5:19) because they did not exist then.
 - 3) The "elect" could not have been personally reconciled at the cross, because they were still in their sins until they were saved. ("If Christ be not raised...ye are yet in your sins." I Cor 15:17).
 - 4) If the "elect" were actually reconciled at the cross (as Calvinists say), then what is Paul doing with a ministry of reconciliation? (II Corinthians 5:18).
 - 5) In II Corinthians 5:20, Paul is beseeching unsaved people to be reconciled to God ("we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God".) Obviously, unsaved people were not reconciled at the cross, but at salvation. Paul did not believe in Limited Atonement.
 - 6) The two aspects of reconciliation are seen in Colossians 1:20,21 "And having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven. And you, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled."
- On the cross, Christ laid the foundation for reconciliation between God and man. He did what He could to secure it. Christ executed a plan that, if properly appropriated by man, the blood of His cross was fitted to secure entire reconciliation between heaven and earth. The offended party (God) sought to be reconciled. God turned His face towards mankind. Hence, the world in II Corinthians 5:19 means the human race generally, without distinction of nation, age or rank. The whole world was alienated from God, and He sought to have it reconciled. When one receives Christ, he is reconciled to God.

C. I JOHN 2:2 and 4:14 clearly state that Christ died for the world, as an unlimited atonement. 2:2 "he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world." 4:14 "And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world." Calvinists admit that I John 2:2 is a problem to them: "On the surface this text seems to demolish limited atonement". (Sproul, Grace Unknown, p.176).

Pink gives the standard Calvinist position on I John 2:2: "When John says, "He is the propitiation for our sins", he can only mean for the sins of Jewish believers. When John added, "Not for ours only, but also for the whole world,” he signified that Christ was the propitiation for the sins of Gentile believers too, for, as previously shown, “the world” is a term contrasted with Israel.’ (Sovereignty, p.259). Pink adds that ‘to insist that the “whole world” in I John 2:2 signifies the entire human race is to undermine the very foundations of our faith”. (Sovereignty of God, p.260).

Answer: It is very strange how Reformed Calvinists, who are so anti-dispensational and who minimize any distinction between Israel and the Church, suddenly become dispensationalists when trying to explain away the unlimited atonement in I John 2:2.

Question 4: Is this catholic (universal) epistle (I John) addressed only to Jews or to the churches?

Answer:

- 1) “These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God;” (I John 5:13).
- 2) The “our” in I John 2:2 cannot be limited to just the Jews. This group referred to as “our” has “fellowship” with the Father, and with His Son Jesus Christ (I John 1:3), and has “an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous”. (I John 2:1). John makes no Jew-Gentile distinction here whatsoever. In Christ there is no Jew or Gentile. “There is neither Jew nor Greek . . . for ye are all one in Christ Jesus”. (Galatians 3:28).
- 3) The words Jew and Gentile do not even occur in I John.
- 4) In I John, the word “world” occurs 23 times and never refers to the so-called “elect”.
 - i) We are commanded to “love not the world” (elect?). (I John 2:15).
 - ii) The world (elect?) is full of lust. (2:16).
 - iii) The world (elect?) will pass away. (2:17).
 - iv) The world (elect?) knows neither Christ nor the Christian. (3:1).
 - v) The “spirit of antichrist” is in the world. (elect?) (4:3).
 - vi) Believers overcame the world. (elect?) (5:4).
 - vii) In I John 5:19, John contrasts Christians with the world as two separate groups: “We know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness”. John uses the term “whole world” twice in I John (2:2; 5:19) and neither case refers to “elect Gentiles”. Hence Christ is the propitiation for the sins of John, the believers he wrote to, and for the sins of the whole world.

Question 5: Is John 11:49-52 a parallel proof passage as Pink claims? “If the reader really desires to know the meaning of I John 2:2 let him compare John 11:51,52 . . . it is a strictly parallel passage”. (Satisfaction, p 263; Sovereignty, p 259).

“Caiaphas, being the high priest . . . said . . . it is expedient for us that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not . . . he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation; and not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad”. (John 11:49-52).

Pink makes the “children of God” the Church: “Is it not remarkable that the members of the church are here called “children of God”, even before Christ died, and therefore before He commenced to build His church! The vast majority of them had not then been born, yet were they regarded as “children of God”; children of God because they had been chosen in Christ before the foundation of the world”.

(Pink, Sovereignty, p. 66).

Answer: But is it not more remarkable how wrong TULIP Calvinism is?

- i) If Christ died for the whole Jewish nation as prophesied by Caiaphas, then, according to Calvinist Limited Atonement, all Jews would have to be saved.
- ii) The phrase “children of God” (except in referring to Israel, Deut.14:1; John 11:52) never refers to members of the church, until they are saved. “For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus”. (Galatians 3:26). Before salvation, the “elect” were “children of wrath” (Ephesians 2:3) and “children of disobedience.” (Colossians 3:6).
- iii) If a man was already a New Testament child of God, why would he need an atonement?
- iv) Question 6: Who were the “children of God that were scattered abroad”, mentioned in John 11:52? Are they Israel or are they future elect Christians? Answer: They are Israel because:
 - 1) John meant only the Jews who were dispersed among all nations since Rome conquered Judea. . . These are called the “dispersed” (“to the 12 tribes which are scattered abroad,” James 1:1; “will he go to the dispersed among the Gentiles?” John 7:35).

- 2) The term “children of God” was an ancient title of the Jewish people, as seen in:
- “Ye are the children of the LORD your God: ye shall not cut yourselves.” Deuteronomy 14:1.
 - “I have said,..... all of you are children of the most High.” (Psalm 82:6).
 - “I will say,bring my sons from far,and my daughters from the ends of the earth” (Isaiah 43:6)
- 3) The meaning is: “Christ was to die, not only for the then inhabitants of Judea, but for all the Jewish race scattered abroad. This would result in all Jews being gathered from dispersion abroad into one body. Paul prophesied that this would occur after Christ’s second coming (Romans 11:1-32).
- John interprets Caiaphas’ prophecy that Christ would die for the Jewish nation, as well as for the Jews “scattered abroad”. (v.52). Hence John 11:49-52 does not interpret I John 2:2.

2. Passages showing that Christ DIED for ALL MEN

As with the word “world”, Calvinists point out that the word “all” is used in different senses, such as hyperbolic phrases like “hated of all men” (Matthew 10:22) to teach that “all” only means the “elect”.

Answer:

- 1) These are normal accepted cases of hyperbole, meaning “an exaggerated statement not meant to be taken literally” (Oxford Dictionary). Other examples of hyperbole that Calvinists use to distract people from the unlimited atonement meaning of “all men” are:
- “all men seek for thee.” (Mark 1:37).
 - “all men did marvel.” (Mark 5:20).
 - “Woe unto you when all men shall speak well of you.” (Luke 6:26).
 - “Ye shall be hated of all men for my name”’s sake.” (Luke 21:17).
 - “Thou shalt be his witness unto all men.” (Acts 22:15).
 - “Your obedience is come abroad unto all men.” (Romans 16:19).
 - “Prayers ... be made for all men.” (I Timothy 2:1).

- 2) We agree that “all” is used in different senses. We disagree with Calvinist claims that “all” ever means the so-called “elect.” The Bible clearly teaches that Christ’s Atonement was for all men.

- i) Isaiah 53:6 “All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned everyone to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all”..

The last “all” is just as extensive as the first “all” and “everyone”. Calvinists agree that all men have gone astray, but disagree that all men’s iniquities have been laid on Christ. Let us be consistent: “all” means the same in both places. The context defines “all” as “everyone”. If words have any meaning, then “all” those who went astray (100% of mankind) had their iniquity laid on Christ.

Question 7: Have all men gone astray or only some of them? All!

Note: If Calvinists want to get dispensational and say that Isaiah was only referring to Jews (Isaiah 53:8), then they still have the same problem, that the sins of every Jew was borne by Christ (an unlimited atonement for Israel).

- ii) II Corinthians 5:14,15 “For the love of Christ constraineth us (“elect”); because we (“elect”) thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead. And that he died for all, that they which live (are saved) should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again”. Calvinists limit “all” to the “elect”.

Answer: The “all” in v.14 means “all men” as seen by:

- a) The “elect” are already represented in v.14 by “us” and “we”.
 - b) Calvinists’ mistake is assuming that all for whom Christ died will live.
 - c) After the restrictive “us” and “we” in v.14, “all” is used 3 times in a universal, unlimited sense.
 - d) The restrictive phrase “that they which live” (v.15) implies that not everyone of the “all” for whom Christ died, lives. Dabney recognised this: “If we make the all for whom Christ died, mean only the elect, it implies that of those elect that Christ died for, only a part will live to Christ”. (Theology p.525).
- iii) I Timothy 2:1-6 “I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers ... be made for all men, for kings, and for all that are in authority; they we (elect) may lead..., for this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour; who will have all men to be saved, and to come to the knowledge of the truth. the man Christ Jesus; who gave himself a ransom for all".

Since Calvinists confuse universal provision and the individual application of the Atonement, they maintain that "a ransom for all" should be limited to "a ransom for the elect" because the "elect" are the only ones who get saved. Custance thinks it means "all sorts of men." Custance p.162

Answer: Five reasons why "a ransom for all" does not refer to "a ransom for the elect":

a) The mediator is between "God and men", not "God and the elect".

b) The "all men" of v.1,4 do not refer to just classes of men, because classes of men are given in v.2. There would be no point doing this, if it had already been done in v.1.

c) The "all that are in authority" of v.2 already make up a class, and hence would be meaningless if Calvinists consistently interpret the "all" of v.2 as they did in v.1.

d) If Paul wanted to say all "classes of men" he could have done so:

"to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease." (Matthew 10:1).

"For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea," (James 3:7)

e) Calvinists attempting to make the "all" (v.6) and "all men" (v.4) refer to all classes of men, does not solve their problem. God desires their salvation (v.4) and gave Himself a ransom for them (v.6). The "we" (v.2) are the "elect", not the "all men" (v.1,3,6).

iv) I Timothy 4:10 "For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe."

This irrefutably proves unlimited atonement by giving the biblical definition of "all men". The phrase "all men" (100% of mankind) is contrasted with "those that believe" (the "elect"). Hence the "all men" couldn't be "all sorts of elect men" as Calvinists want it to be in I Timothy 2:1-6.

This contrast between "all men" (100% of mankind) & "those that believe" ("elect") occurs 4 times:

a) I Timothy 4:10 "Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe."

b) Galatians 6:10 "Let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith."

c) Romans 3:22 "Even the righteousness of God, which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all (100% of mankind) and upon all them that believe (the "elect"): for there is no difference."

d) Titus 2:11,12 "For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared unto all men (100% of mankind), teaching us (the "elect") that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world."

v) Hebrews 2:9 "But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour, that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man". Calvinists change Scripture when it doesn't agree with TULIP. Boettner gives the standard Calvinist interpretation: "The original Greek, does not use the word "man" here at all but simply says, "for every"." (Predestination, p.288).

Answer:

(a) Boettner takes advantage of most people's lack of knowledge of simple Greek grammar, and shows his ignorance as well. Like any other adjective, demonstrative, participle or prepositional phrase, the word "every" is used substantively. This means that the word "every" is used by itself without a noun because the noun "man" is so commonly and obviously understood to be meant. Examples include:

Luke 6:30 "Give to every (Greek: παντι) (man) that asketh thee."

Romans 12:3 "to every (Greek: παντι) (man) that is among you."

I Peter 3:15 "be ready to give an answer to every (Greek: παντι) (man)"

Revelation 22:18 "I testify unto every (Greek: παντι) (man) that heareth"

Hebrews 2:9 "should taste death for every (Greek: παντι) (man)."

Question 8: Is Boettner supported by any Greek grammarian? Not Henry Alford (1810-1871). Not Kenneth Wuest (1893-1961). Not A T Robertson (1863-1934).

Pink violates every Greek grammar and text in the world and alters "every man" to "every son", inventing a reading to support limited atonement that occurs in no New Testament manuscript anywhere in the world. If God wanted to teach limited atonement here, he could have added the word “son” (Greek: υιος).

See Hebrews 12:6 “scourgeth every son (Greek: παντι υιον) whom he receiveth.”

- (b) The starting thought is “What is man?” (Hebrews 2:6) not “what are the elect?” Calvinists fail to note that the context changes from the general (v.9) discussing man in general, to the particular (v.10). The importance of “every man” is that it is even stronger than “all men”. As Alford writes, “Why “every man” rather than “all men”. We may safely say, that the singular (every man) brings out far more strongly than the plural (all men) would, the applicability of Christ’s death to each individual man.” (Alford, Vol. 4, p.1459).

3. Passages showing that CHRIST DIED for a PARTICULAR GROUP.

Calvinists, when faced with such a mountain of evidence for unlimited atonement, retreat to Scriptures discussing Christ dying for a particular group, hoping this will disprove unlimited atonement. In these passages, Calvinists insist that Christ died for a particular group (the “elect”) to the exclusion of all mankind. Calvinists presume that if Christ died for a particular group (the “elect”), then he died for no one else. Consider these examples:

- a) His People: Calvinists identify the “many” that Christ died for as God’s people.

Matthew 1:21 “And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.” All Calvinists presume that “his people” here are “the elect”, all whom the Father has “given” him. (Pink, Sovereignty, p 65).

What Scriptures prove this? They don’t give any.

Question 9: Who are “his people”?

Answer: The nation Israel, because,

- i) “the world knew him not. He came unto his own (Israel), and his own received him not.” (John 1:10,11). Question: Are the “world” and “his own,” the same as the “elect”?

Answer: No, because they neither knew him, nor received him.

- ii) “A Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.” (Matthew 2:6).

- iii) “Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed his people.” Lk 1:68

- b) Sheep: “I lay down my life for the sheep.” (John 10:15).

In John 10:15 the “sheep” are the same as “his people”, the nation Israel:

Key: If Christ died for all of Israel & some were lost, then Christ made an unlimited atonement.

- c) Church of God: “Feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood.” Acts 20:28 “Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ loved the church, and gave himself for it”. Ephesians 5:25.

- d) Many: In Matthew 20:28 “The Son of man came. to give his life a ransom for many.” “For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins” (Matthew 26:28). “Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many.” (Hebrews 9:28).

Every TULIP Calvinist who has ever lived, presumes that “many” means “elect”.

“Many: Notice, this verse does not say that he gave his life a ransom for all, but for many.” (Boettner, Predestination, p.155). “The name “sheep” is synonymous with “elect”, for such are “sheep” before they believed, yea, before they are born”. (Pink, Satisfaction, p.251-2).

Notice that the word “many” sometimes means “all”:

Romans 5:15 “For if through the offence of one, many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many.”

Romans 5:19 “For as by one man’s disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.”

Question 10: Did Adam’s fall affect all or only some of his descendants? (Ans: All). “Many” is used because it better contrasts with “one”. So “many” does not prove Limited Atonement.

Calvinists’ claim that Christ only died for a particular group is proven false because:

- i) The Bible never states that Christ died only for these groups to the exclusion of all others.
ii) These groups are not all one and the same. Israel is not the church (I Corinthians 10:32).
iii) Key: Using this same false Calvinist reasoning, one could conclude that Christ died: - only for Paul. . . . “who loved me, and gave himself for me”. (Galatians 2:20), or

- only for John and those he wrote to, “he laid down his life for us (I John 3:16), or
- only for Paul and Titus, “who gave himself for us” (Titus 2:14), or
- only for weak believers, “the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died.” (I Cor 8:11).

Calvinists’ err by confusing universal provision and individual application of the atonement.

iv) There are other groups mentioned in Scripture for whom Christ died that Calvinists don’t want to discuss, because they prove unlimited atonement:

a) Those that Christ died for who will ultimately go to hell:

“But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.” (II Peter 2:1).

Not only is Jesus Christ the Saviour (I Timothy 4:10) and Redeemer (I Timothy 2:6) for the world, but he bought the false prophets and false teachers. (II Peter 2:1).

Question 11: Calvinists claim that “Lord” here refers to God the Father and not Christ, because the Greek word for Lord (despotes) is not the usual word for “Lord”.

Answer: If it is God the Father spoken of in II Peter 2:1 it makes no difference, because Paul told the Ephesian elders to “Feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood.” (Acts 20:28). (The same Greek word is used of God in Luke 2:29; Acts 4:24; Revelation 6:10; and of Christ in 2 Timothy 2:21).

Question 12: Some Calvinists change “bought” to “delivered” or “created”.

Answer: The same word “bought” is used in I Cor. 6:20: “For ye are bought with a price.”

b) Those groups Christ died for that describe everybody, all mankind:

“For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost”. (Luke 19:10). All of us!

“For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.” Roman 5:6

“To redeem them that were under the law.” (Galatians 4:5). Are we all born under the law?

“Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.” (I Timothy 1:15). Are we all born sinners?

“For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust.” (I Peter 3:18). All unjust!

Answer: The reason Calvinists never mention these verses is because, if Christ died for and came to save the lost, the ungodly, those under the law, sinners, and the unjust, then he made an unlimited atonement, for that is the condition of all men, not just the “elect”.

Are only the “elect” lost? (No.) Are only the “elect” ungodly? (No.) Are only the “elect” under the law? (No.) Are only the “elect” sinners? (No.) Therefore, Jesus Christ is “the Saviour of the world” (John 4:42; I John 4:14), of all men, whether all men accept him or not.

c) Christ died for his friends: “Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.” (John 15:13).

Question 13: Who are Christ’s friends?

Answer: Judas was one of Christ’s friends, yet Judas was not “elect”.”

“And Jesus said unto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come?” Then came they, and laid hands on Jesus, and took him”. (Matthew 26:50).

Problem: Calvinists read Limited Atonement into every conceivable verse, for example:

“The Lord redeemeth the soul of his servants.” (Psalm 34:22).

The Calvinist Jimmie Davis makes “servants” to be “none other than the elect”.

d) “Whosoever” verses proving that Christ’s atonement was for all men.

These verses teach that “whosoever believeth” may claim Christ’s atonement and be saved.

-”through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins”. Acts 10:43.

-”gospel of Christ...is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth.” (Romans 1:16).

-”Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.” (Romans 10:11).

-”For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.” (Romans 10:13).

-”Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God”. (I John 5:1).

-”And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.” (Revelation 22:17).

Key: There are no “whosoever” with a doctrine of Limited Atonement.

Calvin's Rejection of Limited Atonement

Calvin is thought by some to have modified his doctrine of Limited Atonement as he became older and wiser, until he finally reached the conclusion of an unlimited atonement.

(James Richards, Lectures on mental Philosophy and Theology, New York, M W Dodd, 1846, p 308).

Others claim that it was Beza and other followers of Calvin who developed the doctrine of Limited Atonement. Beza was Calvin's successor and chief theologian of the Reformed Church after Calvin.

Note: Article 31 of the Church of England's 39 Articles adopted shortly before Calvin's death, states that, "The offering of Christ once made is the perfect redemption, propitiation, and satisfaction for all the sins of the whole world." (Schaff, Creeds, Vol 3, p 507).

Consider Calvin's comments on these verses:

- a) "gave his life a ransom for many" (Matthew 20:28) - "Paul is not talking of a part of mankind, but of the whole human race." (Calvin, Commentaries, Vol 2, p 273).
- b) "shed for many for the remission of sins" (Matthew 26:28) - "The word "many" does not mean a part of the world only, but the whole human race." (Commentaries, Vol 3, p 139).
- c) "bear the sins of many" (Heb 9:28) - "He says many meaning all, as in Romans 5:15" (Vol 12, p.131).
- d) "taketh away the sin of the world". (John 1:29) - "When he says the sin of the world he extends this kindness indiscriminately to the whole human race." (Vol 4, p 32).

The Other Side of Limited Atonement

Calvinists insist that the reason Christ's blood was shed only for the "elect," is because God did not want any others to be saved.

The Calvinist Culance says: "Limited Atonement tends to weaken the incentive to evangelism".

(Steele & Thomas, p.38). John Murray laments: "It is frequently objected that this doctrine is inconsistent with the full and free offer of Christ in the Gospel." (Culance, p.286).

Key: If no offer can be made to the "non-elect", and the "elect" are sure to be saved, all preaching is not only vain and useless, but an absolute, total and complete waste of time.

The Calvinist Culance says: "We ought not to use such a misleading appeal as "Christ died for you" because we cannot apply this to any man indiscriminately unless we know he is to be counted among the elect, a knowledge which we cannot have with certainty". (Steele and Thomas, p.38).

In Calvinism, election does not guarantee anyone's salvation unless Christ dies for them. Calvinists cannot tell someone that Christ died for him unless he is "elect", which Calvinists never know for sure.

Question 14: How does a Calvinist know if anyone is saved or not?

Answer: The Calvinist answer is if they persevere in holiness in their profession of faith to the end.

Conclusion: The Calvinist debate about Limited Atonement is a smoke screen to conceal the true nature of Calvinism which says that God by a sovereign, eternal decree of Unconditional Election has consigned billions of people to hell before their birth. To make it certain, God has given them

Total Depravity so that they will be unable to receive Irresistible Grace, which will not even be offered to them, since Christ did not make a Limited Atonement for them.

Reply: God's Word is not bound by the philosophical speculations of Limited Atonement. 2 Tim 2:9.

Conclusion:

i) Calvinists, in order to believe and preach limited atonement, must rewrite both the Dictionary and the Bible, so that:

- a) "world" doesn't really mean "world",
- b) "all" doesn't really mean "all",
- c) "whosoever" doesn't really mean "whosoever".

ii) Calvinists who believe limited atonement, cannot tell people that Christ died for "their" sins, or "our" sins, because they don't know if the unsaved hearers are elect. Yet Paul did tell the Corinthians this in 1 Cor. 15:3. Instead, they preach a false gospel saying that "Christ died for His people's sins."

iii) If 5-point Calvinists want to limit the atonement to only the elect, then to be consistent, they must also limit the death which passed from Adam to the human race to many, and not all, as Romans 5:18, "Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life."

This teaches that the free gift of eternal life is available to all mankind, not just to the elect.

Paul's passionate drive for souls was based on the fact that "Christ died for all." 2 Corinthians 5:13-15.

4. IRRESISTABLE GRACE (The Efficacious call of the Spirit).

Definition: God's grace, when presented by the Holy Spirit, is such that it is impossible for the sinner to resist or refuse.

Calvinists claim that in addition to a general call to salvation which is made to everyone who hears the gospel, the Holy Spirit efficaciously calls the elect that inevitably brings them to salvation. Calvinists claim that God's grace is invincible, never failing to result in the salvation of those it is extended to.

Answer: There is no such thing in the Bible as "irresistable grace." Never in the Bible do we find the word "irresistable" connected with the word "grace". It is the vain philosophy and imagination of John Calvin and his followers.

Grace means "God's unmerited favour". Grace is an attitude, not a power. God does not force people to be saved with an imaginary "irresistable grace."

I. Scriptures refuting "Irresistable Grace"

Can a sinner resist God's grace when presented by the Holy Spirit? These verses say "YES":

i) "Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost; as your fathers did, so do ye." Acts 7:51.

Stephen declares that the Holy Spirit was exerting a drawing power on the Sanhedrin, but they resisted God's saving grace. They and their fathers opposed the message brought by Moses, the prophets, Christ, the apostles and by Stephen. This refutes "irresistable grace". People can resist the Holy Spirit. The term "stiffnecked" also refutes the Calvinist's "irresistable grace". It is a farming term describing stubborn oxen that would not submit to be yoked. Stephen applied it to the Sanhedrin who resisted God's efforts to save them.

ii) "And the Lord said, My Spirit shall not always strive with man,..." Genesis 6:3.

God's Spirit strove with sinners before the Flood, but only 8 were saved. All the rest resisted God successfully. This proves that people can resist God's striving with them for salvation.

Question: Why would God strive with sinners whom He has not chosen to be saved?

The whole idea of God "giving people up" would be meaningless if there had not been prior strivings.

iii) God the Holy Spirit strives with all men.

"When he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness and of judgment." John 16:8.

iv) When sinners continually resist God's saving grace, there comes a time when God "gives them up". In Romans 1:24,26,28 three times it is said that "God gave them up".

The whole concept of "giving people up" would be meaningless if there had been no prior strivings.

v) Jesus said sincerely with tears (not generally) that He would have gathered them, but they would not.

The Jews at Jerusalem resisted Christ's efforts to gather them together, as seen by the phrase, "how often would I have gathered thy children together... and ye would not." Matthew 23:37.

vi) If Christians can resist God's grace in sanctification, so can unbelievers resist God's grace in salvation: "Quench not the Spirit." 1 Thessalonians 5:19. "Grieve not the Spirit." Ephesians 4:30.

vii) Proverbs 29:1 shows that men do resist and reject God.

"He that being often reproved hardens his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy."

God often strives with and reproves some people, until after they have continually hardened their neck, God suddenly destroys them. This shows that man can resist God's saving grace.

viii) Jesus said to the Jews, "Ye will not come to me, that ye might have life." John 5:40.

Here Jesus clearly teaches us that men can and do resist God by refusing to come to Him.

If "irresistible grace" was true, Jesus would have said "Ye cannot come to me". "Ye will not" means that:

a) God wants all "non-elect" to be saved, thus refuting unconditional election, and

b) Sinners can resist God's grace, thus refuting irresistible grace.

ix) Question: Why would God strive with sinners whom He hasn't chosen to be saved?

"Their eyes have they closed." Matthew 13:15. They resisted God's saving grace by closing their eyes.

x) Men are condemned not because they are un-elect, but because they resisted God's saving grace, and because they loved darkness rather than light.

"And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil." John 3:19.

Conclusion: People do resist the Holy Ghost. Some do refuse to come to Christ.
Some do harden their necks. Some do refuse when God calls.
This means that those who rejected Christ, could have received Him.
God offers salvation to all who want it, but doesn't force it on those who don't want it.

II. Results of the “Irresistible Grace” Error.

1. Hopelessness: Many people are hopelessly lost if TULIP is true.

If you are not pre-selected to salvation, this means that:

- a) You cannot ask Christ to save you, because you haven't got a free will. (T)
- b) You cannot get elected, because that decision was made before creation. (U)
- c) Even if you wanted to be saved, you couldn't, because the Limited Atonement theory says that Jesus did not die for your sins. (L)
- d) If you are un-elect, you never get any “irresistible grace” to save you. (I)

2. One wrong assumption leads to wrong conclusions.

All of this nonsense comes from one basic false assumption, which is that man has no free will.

Key: The Bible plainly teaches and everywhere assumes that mankind (saved or lost) has the power of choice even though he is sinful and powerless to save himself. Man would not be responsible for his actions if he had no choice. Follow how this wrong assumption leads to wrong conclusions:

- a) Total Depravity denies that man has a free will.
- b) Unconditional Election teaches that, because man does not have a free will (being dead), he cannot choose Christ. Hence, if any are to be saved, God must predestine some to be saved and some to be damned. (This can be the only explanation as to why some are lost, following false assumption a).
- c) Limited Atonement logically follows because it would be unreasonable to expect God to lay the sins of non-elect people on Jesus if He had no intention of saving them.
- d) Irresistible Grace

~ If man has no free will to choose Christ (unless preselected), and

~ If God unconditionally elects some to be saved and others to be damned (if anyone was to be saved), and

~ If Jesus bore the sins only of the preselected ones, how could anybody resist God's determination to save them? They couldn't resist God! Hence if you have no free will, and you are elect, then you can't resist getting saved, right? No! Wrong! Dead wrong! All because of a wrong first assumption.

Bible Truth: God foreknows who will choose Christ to be their Saviour. When people receive Christ, they are part of the elect body, the church. God predestines them to glory. God wants all men to be saved and has provided sufficient redemption for all men to be saved. This includes: free will, a condition of election, and unlimited atonement. If men go to hell, it is because they rejected Christ. “He that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.” John 3:17-19,36

3. Inventing a General Call and an Effectual Call to Salvation.

After accepting Irresistible Grace, Calvinists must then invent two calls (a General and an Effectual call) to explain why some get saved and others don't in response to Christ's many invitations to salvation. Calvinists support “Irresistible Grace” by claiming that there are 2 calls:

- a) A General Call (or insincere call) of God to sinners. This invitation goes out to the whole world inviting them to receive Christ. This call is rejected by the non-elect. It is not intended to bring sinners to repentance, but to leave sinners without excuse. They cannot say that they were not invited to be saved. Therefore, they have to say that they rejected God's invitation. The general call is not effectual to produce salvation.
- b) An Effectual Call (sincere call) is the call that God gives to the elect. It does not go to the un-elect, but is reserved for those especially chosen to salvation. Calvinists claim support from these verses:
 - i) General Call: “For many are called, but few are chosen. Matthew 22:14.
“Come unto me all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.” Matthew 11:28.
This general call to sinners is designed to shift the blame for their damnation from God to them. There is no possibility that this general call can result in salvation.
 - ii) Effectual Call: “We know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.” Romans 8:28.

4. This theory makes God out to be a hypocrite, dishonest, and a liar, who has a “sincere call” and an “insincere call”. In the general call, He insincerely invites everybody to come for salvation, but He doesn’t really mean it. What an insult against Christ that He would invite sinners to Himself, promising them salvation if they came, yet having no intention of giving them the effectual call that enables them to respond. This is BLATANT DISHONESTY. It is like offering lollies to a crippled child, knowing that he could not reach out and receive it. “God’s blessings are God’s enablings.”

If God commands all men everywhere to repent (Act17:30), then it must be possible for all men to repent.

There is no more serious charge against God than to infer that God is LYING when He invites millions of lost souls to be saved. “It was impossible for God to lie.” Hebrews 6:18.

“he (the devil) is a liar, and the father of it.” John 8:44.

To attribute dishonesty to God is to identify God with Satan. This is a very serious error. Let Calvinists acknowledge their blasphemous error and seek the pardon of God for their sins. (Leviticus 4:22,28,35 discusses a sin offering made for the sins of ignorance).

III. Verses Calvinists Use To Support “Irresistible Grace.”

1. John 1:13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

Question: Doesn’t John 1:13 say that we are born again NOT by the will of man, but by God’s unconditional election?

Answer: What does the will of blood, flesh and man mean?

a) “Not of blood”: Jews prided themselves in being descendants of Abraham. (Matthew 3:9).

They saw this as a sign of God’s favour. Here this error is corrected. It is not because men are descended from pious parents such as Abraham, that they are entitled to God’s favour.

b) “Nor of the will of the flesh”: Not by the natural human desire for children, not by natural generation, not the result of the husband’s will.

c) “Nor of the will of man”: Not to the will of man in adopting a child.

Hence, we become children of God, not by our descent from illustrious parents like Abraham, not by our natural birth, and not by being adopted by a pious man.

d) “but of God”: God produces the change and confers the privilege of being called His children.

A person receives Christ as Saviour, but the work of the Holy Spirit is “the cause” of regeneration.

2. a) Matthew 22:14 “For many are called, but few are chosen.”

Question: Doesn’t this say that God only chooses a few to be saved, and that they experience irresistible grace, and that everyone gets a general call, but only a few get an effectual call?

Answer: No. It just teaches that the great mass of people in the time of Christ, who had been called, had rejected the mercy of God in Christ, so God didn’t choose them.

When the King who made the marriage feast for his son greeted the guests, he noticed a man without a wedding garment. In anger, the King rebuked him, asking him to explain his situation. The man was speechless, so the King ordered him to be bound hand and foot, taken away, and cast into outer darkness. Then he said, “For many are called, but few are chosen.”

In Christ’s day, wedding garments were provided by the host for the wedding guests. This man’s lack of a wedding garment was inexcusable, and his speechlessness indicated his realization of the fact.

A garment had been provided for him by the King, but he had refused or neglected to wear it.

Christ placed the responsibility for the man’s lack of a wedding garment, squarely on the man himself.

His lack of reply indicated his guilt. This in no way pictures “irresistible grace”, nor does it teach a “general” and “effectual” call. It pictures unlimited atonement because of:

i) The custom was for the host to provide wedding garments.

ii) His speechlessness & lack of excuse indicates his guilt & personal responsibility, not the King’s fault.

b) Matthew 20:16 “For many be called, but few are chosen.”

The parable of the householder hiring labourers to work in his vineyard, has nothing to do with anyone’s election to salvation, but it relates to service and rewards. It means that among the multitudes of Christians called to serve God, God chooses some to a short period of labour but to great usefulness, while this does not injure others who serve God longer but have less useful, less widespread and less rewarded ministries. Christ calls many to service, but few are chosen to big ministries. God chooses some for higher stations in churches, with superior talents, gifts and wider usefulness. Their life's work may be shorter, but Christ has a right to choose to honour them in this way. Christ chooses some to be more useful than others, without regard to their length of service. Christ will reward them accordingly.

3. Acts 13:48 “And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed.”

Question: Calvinists claim that this verse teaches:

- i) Unconditional election of God ordaining some people to eternal life.
- ii) A Limited number only are “ordained to eternal life.”
- iii) This “ordination of God” is not to service or external privileges, but to eternal life.
- iv) Irresistible grace, as seen from the words “as many as” meaning that all who are ordained by God to eternal life will most certainly believe.

Answer: This text has been most pitifully misunderstood. Calvinists presume it to mean that those in the assembly who were foreordained, or predestined by God's decree to eternal life, believed under the influence of that decree.

We must be careful to study what a word means before we attempt to fix its meaning.

In Greek, “ordained” here is “tetagmenoi” coming from the verb “tasso” (5021) meaning to: “appoint, arrange in military order, to determine, to order, to place in a certain rank or order, to dispose.”

i) Notice how these authorities explain this passage:

- a) “It does not properly refer to an eternal decree, or directly to the doctrine of election; ...but it refers to their being THEN (not in eternity past decreed) disposed to embrace eternal life. They were then inclined by an influence from outside themselves, or so disposed as to embrace eternal life. It refers not to an eternal decree, but that then there was such an influence as to dispose them, or incline them, to lay hold on salvation. That this was done by the influence of the Holy Spirit, is clear from all parts of the New Testament. (Titus 3:5,6; John 1:13). It was not a disposition or arrangement originating with themselves, but with God... The meaning may be expressed in few words:- who were disposed, and in good earnest determined, to embrace eternal life, by the operation of grace on their hearts.”
“Albert Barnes Commentary on the New Testament in One Volume”. p.464.
- b) “Whatever “tetagmenoi” may mean, which is the word the KJV translates “ordained,” it includes no idea of preordination or predestination of any kind. The verb “tasso” signifies to “place, set, order, appoint, dispose”; hence it has been considered here as implying the disposition or readiness of mind of several persons in the congregation, such as religious proselytes mentioned in v.43, who possessed the reverse of the disposition of those Jews who spake against those things, contradicting and blaspheming, v.45.
Though the word in this place has been variously translated, yet, of all the meanings ever put on it, none agrees worse with its nature and known signification than that which represents it as intending those who were predestined to eternal life; this is no meaning of the term and should never be applied to it.” Adam Clarke’s Commentary on the Bible’ p.995.
- c) “Ordained: This is the perfect passive participle of the verb “tasso”, which was used primarily in the military sense: “draw up in order, arrange in place, assign, appoint, order.” R.J. Knowling comments: “There is no countenance here for the absolute decree of the Calvinists, since v.46 had already shown that the Jews had acted through their own choice, “but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn unto the Gentiles.” He then says: “The Jews as a nation had been ordained to eternal life- but they had rejected this election. But those who believed among the Gentiles were equally ordained by God to eternal life, and it was in accordance with His divine appointment that the Apostles had turned to them.”
“Word Meanings in the New Testament”, Ralph Earle.
- d) “There is no evidence that Luke had in mind an absolutum decretum of personal salvation. Certainly the Spirit of God does move upon the human heart to which some respond, as here, while others push him away.” ‘Word Pictures in the NT.’ A.T. Robertson, Vol. III. p.200.

ii) Notice some other Greek words which were not used:

a) “DIATASSO” is a strengthened form of “TASSO”, frequently denotes to arrange, appoint, prescribe (eg. of what was appointed for tax collectors to collect, Luke 3:13; as God appointed Moses to make the tabernacle, Acts 7:44; what Paul ordained in all the churches about marriage, 1 Cor. 7:17; what the Lord ordained regarding the support of preachers, 1 Cor. 9:14). These show “Tasso” is not irresistible.

b) “PROTASSO” is to “appoint before”, as “pro” means “before”. God “hath determined the times before appointed”, and the bounds of their habitation.” (Acts 17:26) of the nations. “Vines Expository Dictionary of NT Words” p. 70,71. This word “protasso” is NOT used in Acts 13:48. If it had been used, it would have presented a stronger case for “foreordination.” It’s absence is fatal to the Calvinist’s claim of unconditional election.

c) “PROORIZO” = “To predestine, decree beforehand” is not used.

iii) The word “TASSO” is used 8 times in the New Testament., with meanings as follows:

a) To command or designate: “Into a mountain where Jesus had appointed them.” Matthew 28:16. Before Jesus’ death, he previously appointed or commanded them to meet him on a mountain.

They could have disobeyed. There is no idea of irresistible compulsion. Jesus told Paul to “go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all the things which are appointed for thee to do.” Act22:10. The Jews at Rome “appointed Paul a day” to visit his house to hear him preach about Jesus. Acts 28:23

b) To institute or appoint: “The powers that be are ordained of God.” Romans 13:1.

c) To determine, take counsel, resolve: “they determined that Paul and Barnabus...should go up to Jerusalem about this question.” Acts 15:2.

d) To subject to the authority of another: “For I also am a man set under authority.” Luke 7:8.

The centurion was appointed or designated, as a soldier, to be under the authority of another.

e) To addict to, devote to: “They have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints.” 1 Cor. 16:15.

The meaning of “TASSO” is thus:

I) “TASSO” is never used to denote an internal disposition or inclination arising from one’s own self. It does not mean that they disposed themselves to embrace eternal life.

II) “TASSO” means ordering, disposing or arranging from the outside, from some source other than himself. As a soldier, who is arranged, classified, disposed or inclined by the will of his superior officer.

III) Key: “TASSO” in Acts 13:48 means that the Gentiles were THEN disposed, and in good earnest determined, to embrace eternal life, by the Holy Spirit influencing their hearts. It does NOT refer to an eternal decree of election, but they then experienced and submitted to a drawing power of the Holy Spirit to salvation.

5. PERSEVERANCE OF THE SAINTS (POTS)

“Perseverance of the saints” is ambiguous and obscure. As POTS was originally formulated and interpreted, it is opposed to eternal security. POTS is not essential to Calvinism. Some Calvinists, recognising the Arminian implications of “perseverance”, change it to “preservation”.

If all Calvinists defined POTS as Rose does, we would have no argument with them on the fifth point.

“The doctrine declares that once God has begun the work of salvation in any person, He will persevere therein to the end and will never let any of His own be lost.” (Rose, p.49).

However, most Calvinists do not emphasize this. They say that it is the believer who perseveres outwardly in the faith, as shown in these 3 quotes: “This doctrine teaches that those who truly come to saving faith in Christ will persevere in the faith.” (Gunn, p.24).

“We may entertain the faith of our security in Christ only as we persevere in faith and holiness to the end.” (John Murray, Redemption, p.155).

“They whom God hath accepted in the Beloved, effectually called, and sanctified by his Spirit, can neither totally nor finally fall away from the state of grace, but shall certainly persevere to the end, and be eternally saved.” (Westminster Confession of Faith, XVII:1).

In spite of Calvinists’ attempts to connect them, God’s preserving in salvation is not the same thing as the saints persevering outwardly in the faith.

Six Conclusions from Calvinists' Definition of Perseverance of the Saints

i) The saints will persevere in the faith.

ii) Only those who persevere in the faith are true Christians.

iii) Those who do not persevere in the faith are lost, no matter what they once professed. "Those who persevere not in faith and holiness, love and obedience, will surely perish." (Pink, Eternal Security, p.28). Since all Christians do not always persevere in perfect obedience, Calvinists are faced with a problem.

iv) The solution to Christians not persevering is that real Christians will return to the faith before death.

v) When faced with the problem that some Christians never return to the faith, Calvinists conclude that such were never saved in the first place.

vi) Calvinists' definition of perseverance is that POTS is different from eternal security.

Key: Because eternal security is so often equated with POTS, Calvinists often coerce Christians into accepting all the 5 points of Calvinism, by capitalizing on their opponents' belief in eternal security.

This is done by implying that a rejection of election and predestination (as taught by Calvinists) is a rejection of eternal security. The Calvinist, Mason, says: "If unconditional election is false, then the doctrine of "once in grace, always in grace" is false." (Mason, p 32).

"If the doctrine of election is false, then this doctrine (POTS) is false too, but if the doctrine of election is true, then this doctrine (POTS) necessarily follows." (Palmer, p 69).

Many who believe eternal security think they are Calvinists because they equate it with perseverance of the saints.

Arminianism

Calvinists insist that there are only two tenable schemes among true Christians: Calvinism and Arminianism. According to Calvinists, anything contrary to Calvinism is Arminianism.

Key: This arbitrary division of men into Calvinist or Arminian is the strength of the Calvinistic system. Calvinists make such shocking statements about Arminianism that no one would dare claim to be an Arminian. If there are only two theological systems, then most men who desire to appear orthodox would claim to be a Calvinist.

Calvinists further misrepresent their opponents by using the "guilt of association" argument, by classifying Arminians with everything that is unorthodox or heretical. Calvinists then attempt to denigrate Arminianism by implying that Arminians believe in salvation by works. Calvinists think that only in Calvinism can we find the teaching of salvation by grace, so they charge any non-Calvinist with believing in salvation by works. This accusation is often enough to convert one to Calvinism.

Key: When everything contrary to Calvinism is labelled Arminian, and Arminianism is presented in the worst possible light, many know they are not Arminian and take the name of Calvinist by default.

Note:

i) Arminianism is not an acceptable alternative to Calvinism.

Calvinists think that if one rejects Calvinism, then he is an Arminian. To this we strongly object.

ii) Calvinists have a false view of eternal security. Their perseverance view is the same as Arminians.

a) R L Shank (an Arminian): "There is no saving faith apart from obedience." (Life in the Son, R L Shank, 2nd Ed, p 219, Westcott Publishers, Springfield).

b) "There is no valid assurance of election and final salvation for any man, apart from deliberate perseverance in faith." (Shank, p 293).

c) A W Pink (Calvinist): "Reader, if there is a reserve in your obedience, you are on the way to hell." (Practical Christianity, p.16).

d) "Holiness in this life is such a part of our "salvation" that it is a necessary means to make us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in heavenly light." (Pink, Sanctification, p.28).

Hence Calvinists have the same thinking on perseverance as Arminians.

Calvinists confuse God's preservation of the believer with the believer's perseverance in the faith, thus making salvation possible only with a holy life without any blemish. Hence, the other side of POTS is Arminianism, which is a works-based salvation, and not by faith alone. "not of works, lest any man should boast." (Ephesians 2:9). "Not by works of righteousness which we have done ..." (Titus 3:5).

For a Calvinist to teach otherwise, is to teach another gospel (Galatians 1:6).

Key: Contrary to salvation through perseverance (as taught by Calvinists), the Bible presents salvation by one thing – believing.

“This one word “believe” represents all a sinner can do and must do to be saved.” (LS Chafer, Salvation, p32) God saves those who believe (John 3:16; 6:47; Acts 16:31; Romans 10:9). Those who refuse to believe are lost (John 3:18; 3:36; 8:24). Calvinists require that believers must persevere in good works as a condition of salvation. This is another gospel. Hence, Calvinists are Arminians regarding the fifth point. Calvinists and Arminians both wrongly presume that:

a) The “castaway” in I Corinthians 9:24-27 has lost his salvation;

b) “He that endureth to the end, the same shall be saved.” (Matthew 10:22). Calvinists think this means that one’s salvation is only sure by enduring to the end of one’s life. This passage, in fact, has nothing to do with anyone’s salvation in the Church age, but teaches that if Tribulation saints endure the Antichrist’s persecutions until the end of the 7 year Tribulation, then they will be saved/delivered from this persecution by Christ’s return.

c) “Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself (from carnality, not hell), and them that hear thee.” (I Timothy 4:16).

Calvin writes of this: “Pastors ... own salvation and that of their people depends on their serious and earnest devotion to their office.” (Calvin, Commentaries, Vol 10, p 248). Calvinists and Arminians presume that the word “salvation” always refers to salvation from hell. Salvation from hell is not meant in II Corinthians 1:6; I Timothy 2:15; Luke 1:71; Acts 27:31.

Curtis Hutson wrote: “The eternal security of the believer does not depend on his perseverance.” (p.16). The Calvinist E K Garrett calls Hutson an “Arminian Baptist Evangelist.”

Calvinists call any opponent an Arminian, no matter what they believe.

Note: The New Testament clearly teaches that Christians may not persevere. It is possible to:

- 1) Depart from the faith (I Timothy 4:1).
- 2) Err from the faith (I Timothy 6:10).
- 3) Err concerning the faith (I Timothy 6:20).
- 4) Deny the faith (I Timothy 5:8).
- 5) Make shipwreck of the faith (I Timothy 1:19).
- 6) Cast off one’s first faith (I Timothy 5:12).
- 7) Swerve from the faith (I Timothy 1:6).
- 8) Not continue in the faith (Colossians 1:23).
- 9) Fall from their own steadfastness (II Peter 3:17).
- 10) Become barren and unfruitful (II Peter 1:8).
- 11) Deny Christ (II Timothy 2:12).
- 12) Be ashamed when Christ returns (I John 2:28).

Bible characters that did not persevere include:

1) The Corinthian fornicator who was delivered to Satan (I Cor. 5:5) and later restored (2 Cor. 2:6-8).

2) Hymenaeus and Alexander were also delivered to Satan (I Timothy 1:20).

3) Demas forsook Paul having loved this present world (II Timothy 4:10).

4) Mark deserted Paul (Act 13:13), yet Paul later said, ‘He is profitable to me for the ministry.’ 2Tim4:11

5) “Just” Lot (II Peter 2:7), “righteous” Lot (II Peter 2:8) last seen drunk in a cave committing incest with his two daughters (Genesis 19:33,36).

Question: Did Lot persevere in the faith? No. A righteous man can turn from his righteousness and never turn back (‘When the righteous turns away from his righteousness & commit iniquity’ Ezek18:24). The Bible exhorts believers to persevere, and practise good works, but never in order to keep salvation.

a) “Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord.” (I Corinthians 15:58).

b) “Keep yourselves in the love of God.” (Jude 1:21).

c) “Be not conformed to this world, but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind.” (Romans 12:2). These and other Scriptures have no meaning if all Christians are sure to automatically persevere. See Ephesians 2:10; Colossians 1:10; Titus 3:8; Hebrews 10:24.

Question: Why do some Christians not persevere? (Matthew 26:41.)

a) “Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.”

b) “For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.” (Romans 7:18).

Key: The error of Calvinists and Arminians is in discounting the Judgment Seat of Christ (Romans 14:10; I Corinthians 3:13-15; II Corinthians 5:10) where crowns are given. (I Corinthians 9:25; I Thessalonians 2:19; II Timothy 4:8; James 1:12; I Peter 5:4).

Compare salvation and rewards:

a) Salvation is offered to the lost (John 3:18); rewards are offered to the saved (I Corinthians 3:14).

b) Salvation is a free gift (Ephesians 2:8); rewards are earned by our works (I Corinthians 9:25).

c) Salvation is a present possession (John 5:24); rewards are a future possibility (II Timothy 4:8).

Key: Christians are given many instructions on how to live, but never on how to maintain or persevere in salvation: “Abstain from all appearance of evil.” (I Thessalonians 5:22);

See I Corinthians 10:31; Colossians 3:17; Philippians 4:8.

Question: What can happen to Christians in this life if they fail to persevere?

Answer: They may lose their joy; assurance of salvation; close fellowship with the Father, Christ and believers; rewards; and physical life, but they cannot lose their salvation.

Lordship Salvation: The Calvinist teaching of Perseverance of the Saints has recently surfaced among modern Fundamentalists and Evangelicals as “Lordship Salvation”, which is “front loading” the Gospel by requiring works of submission and obedience as conditions for salvation. (Dillow, p.10).

The real issue here is whether a sinner must make Christ the Lord of his life at the time he believes on Christ for salvation. Lordship advocate, Otis, writes: “Friend, if Jesus Christ isn’t the Lord of your life, then you are yet lost in your sins.” (Otis, p.7).

Notable propagators of Lordship Salvation are A W Pink, J I Packer and John MacArthur. MacArthur’s Calvinism is seen from his using terms like “sovereign grace” and “perseverance of the saints”.

Errors of Lordship Salvation are:

1) Their denial that there can be a carnal Christian.

Answer: Paul referred to the Corinthian brethren as carnal: “And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ.” (I Corinthians 3:1).

2) Their denial that a believer has two natures which conflict: “For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.” (Galatians 5:17). This states the possibility of Christians not “walking in the Spirit” which is not practising the Lordship of Christ. “So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.” (Romans 7:25).

3) They blur the distinction between a believer’s standing and state:

Answer: Standing is, “He hath made us accepted in the beloved.” (Ephesians 1:6) and

State is: “Wherefore we labour, that whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.”

(II Corinthians 5:9). (See also Romans 5:1 and Philippians 4:7).

Standing concerns what I am as God sees me through Christ’s work.

State concerns my actual condition of soul.

4) They accuse their opponents of “easy believism” or believing in “cheap grace.”

Answer: In the Bible, grace is not only cheap, it is free, otherwise it would not be grace.

“But not as the offence, so also is the free gift... much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, ... hath abounded unto many.” (Romans 5:15).

Question: What do we reply to the charge of “Easy believism”?

Answer: Are Calvinists advocating “hard believism”? What is “hard believism”? How hard is belief?

The Bible nowhere presents believing on Christ for salvation as something hard to do. (Except in the NIV’s false and foolish rendering of Mark 10:24). In fact, believing is the only thing one can do to claim salvation: “But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.” (Romans 4:5).

It might be hard to admit that one is a sinner heading to hell, or hard to admit that trusting in religion or good works won’t save us, but once these are conceded, believing on Christ for salvation is easy.

Salvation is pictured as being as easy as calling on Christ to save (Romans 10:13); looking (Isaiah 45:22); asking (John 4:10); coming (Matthew 11:28); receiving (John 1:12); eating (John 6:51); drinking (John 7:37); trusting (Ephesians 1:13), and taking (Revelation 22:17).

Claiming salvation is easy, since Christ has done all the work on the cross. We can add nothing to it.

Forsaking the Bible's plan of salvation is the only way that believing on Christ can be made difficult

5) They confuse salvation and discipleship. Salvation is obtained in an instant. Discipleship is an on-going process. Salvation costs us nothing. Discipleship costs us everything. (Luke 14:26,27).

That discipleship is not salvation, is seen from these Scriptures:

- a) Some were disciples first and then Christians later: "his disciples believed on him" John 2:11.
- b) Judas was a disciple, but not saved (John 12:4).
- c) Joseph of Arimathea was a secret disciple for fear of the Jews (John 19:38), yet still saved.
- d) If discipleship is salvation, then Christ's disciples lost their salvation when they lost their discipleship, because "all the disciples forsook him and fled." (Matthew 26:56).

6) They fail to understand that there are 3 aspects of sanctification.

This error leads to lordship salvation and perfectionism.

- a) Positional sanctification: "ye are washed, but ye are sanctified,... by the Spirit." (I Cor. 6:11). "We are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all." (Heb.10:10). God sees us sanctified positionally in Christ.
- b) Progressive sanctification: "Sanctify them through thy truth." (John 17:17). "For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication." (I Thess. 4:3). As we gain victory over temptation, we are progressively sanctified.
- c) Future sanctification "who shall change our vile body." (Philippians 13:21). "When he shall appear, we shall be like him." (I John 3:2). (future sanctification). "Every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself (progressive sanctification), even as he is pure (positional sanctification by justification)." (I John 3:3). The sanctification necessary for the salvation of any Christian has already been attained by Christ's sacrifice. (Hebrews 10:10).

7) They have a distorted view of faith and repentance. Repentance is basically a change of mind about Christ, myself as a sinner, and the inability of my works to save me. Paul preached repentance as being different from turning to God and doing works: "that they should repent, and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance." (Acts 26:20). Calvinists and Lordship salvationists wrongly define repentance as turning from sin, changing one's life, remorse, etc. Key: The obvious question is: How much must one turn from sin to be saved, when nobody can ever totally turn from sin? This brings us to works for salvation.

8) They rely on modern Bible versions to prove Lordship salvation. Compare KJV (correct) with: Colossians 2:6 KJV: "As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him." New International: "So then, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, so continue to live in him" Good News Bible: "Since ye have accepted Christ Jesus as Lord, live in union with him." Instead of reading "the Lord" (KJV), many modern versions change it to "as Lord" or "is Lord".

Romans 10:9

Authorised Version (KJV): "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus,"

New International Version: "That if you confess with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord".

Good News Bible: "If you declare with your lips, "Jesus is Lord", ..."

II Corinthians 4:5

Authorised Version (KJV): "We preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; ..."

New International Version: "For we do not preach ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, ..."

Good News Bible: "For it is not ourselves that we preach; we preach Jesus Christ as Lord."

9) They don't precisely define what Lordship salvation really is.

Otis writes: "Obedience to God's commandments is submission to Christ's Lordship." (p. 21).

"Submitting to Christ's Lordship is the constant obedience to God's commandment." (p.25).

Answer: If this is true, then no Calvinist ever submitted to the Lordship of Christ. To walk as Christ walked is to really submit to his Lordship. This means sinless perfection which is impossible before heaven. God demands absolute perfection at all times. Anything less is a rejection of Christ's Lordship. No Lordship salvation advocate says that a man must live absolutely sinless to be a genuine believer. But how much lordship is required to be one of God's 'elect'? Does smoking (as Spurgeon did) disqualify one from practising lordship? What about drinking alcohol, lying, coveting, pride, anger, bad thoughts? Calvinists reply that it is the habitual practice of these that prove one is lost.

Question: But how does one define "habitual practice"?

Question: What if someone surrendered to quitting all these the moment he was saved, but was unable to continually achieve it always? Is his salvation now questionable?

Key: The real problem is that Lordship salvation teachers have set up their own standards to measure a person's salvation. If these standards are not met, they conclude he is not saved. Only if the person meets their standards do they consider him saved. "The gospel of Christ is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth" (Romans 1:16) not to every one who surrenders to the Lordship of Christ.

10) The difference between salvation and lordship is seen in Paul's different instructions to unsaved and saved men:

To the unsaved: "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved." (Acts 16:31).

To the saved: "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service." Rom 12:1. No unsaved man could ever meet the demands for always 100% surrendering to Christ's lordship. The Calvinist John Robbins calls John MacArthur a semi-Arminian because of his book 'The Gospel According to Jesus.' "MacArthur's book is very confused and dangerous. It does not present the Gospel according to Jesus, but another gospel, which is not the gospel at all, and similar to that of the Roman Church." (p.1,4).

Lordship salvation is dangerous because it gives:

- a) a false assurance of salvation to those trusting their works to save them;
- b) assurance of salvation based on our works, rather than a trust in Christ's finished work on the cross.

Preservation by God or Perseverance by us?

If salvation is all of grace and entirely the work of God, it could never depend on whether a man persevered. Perseverance implies persistence, continuance and effort by us, and is a work of man.

- 1) a) The word "persevere" is used only once in the Bible, about prayer (Eph.6:18), not salvation.
b) The word "preserve" is used 5 times in relation to salvation: (II Timothy 4:18).
"The Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom"
"to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Christ Jesus, and called." (Jude 1).
"The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, & even for evermore." Ps 121:8
"The Lord ... forsaketh not his saints; they are preserved forever." (Psalm 37:28).
"Your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ." (I Thessalonians 5:23).

2) Christians are united with Christ ("in Christ"). The solution is to get out of Adam and into Jesus Christ: "For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive." (I Corinthians 15:22).

- Believers are: ~ "joined unto the Lord." (I Corinthians 6:17);
~ "members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones." (Ephesians 5:30);
~ "partakers of the divine nature" (II Peter 1:4);
~ "crucified with Christ" (Galatians 2:20);
~ "quickened with Christ" (Ephesians 2:5);
~ "risen with Christ" (Colossians 3:1);
~ "alive with Christ" (Colossians 3:3-4);
~ "seated together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus." (Ephesians 2:6).

This union with Christ is the central truth in salvation, and is pictured as a:

- i) Foundation and its building (Ephesians 2:20-22);
- ii) Vine and its branches (John 15:5);
- iii) Husband and his wife (Ephesians 5:23,30-32);

- iv) Body and its members (I Corinthians 12:12);
- v) Shepherd and his sheep (John 10:14);
- vi) Adam and his descendants (I Corinthians 15:22).

- 3) Question: Is salvation an instantaneous act of God, or is it a process that depends on man's perseverance? Both Calvinism and Arminianism teach the latter.
- 4) Believers are preserved because of Biblical predestination that we are “predestinated to be conformed to the image of his Son.” (Romans 8:29). This is one of the greatest promises and surest proofs of eternal security. ~”we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.” (I Cor. 15:49). ~”who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body.” Phil 3:21. ~”we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him.” (I John 3:2).
Predestination is a Biblical doctrine, but Calvinists have misapplied it.
- 5) “If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself.” (II Timothy 2:13). Both Calvinists and Arminians teach that a man must continue believing throughout his life in order to be saved. (MacArthur, Gospel According to Jesus, p 172; Shank, Life in the Son, p 55,60). Both hastily refer to II Timothy 2:12 “If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us.” (II Timothy 2:12). This verse refers to Christ’s denying some believers the reward of millennial rulership if they deny him now.
The next verse destroys Calvinist and Arminian perseverance: “If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself.” (II Timothy 2:13). Our preservation depends on Christ’s faithfulness, not on our perseverance. Christ would have to deny himself and his promises, if we lost His salvation, because we are in him (Philippians 1:1), no man can pluck us out of his hand (John 10:28), and we are part of his hand (Ephesians 5:30).

Calvinists make perseverance depend on something man does. “Perseverance of the saints” is a result of Reformation concern that “justification by faith” would produce moral laxity in the church, so they teach that only those who persevere are truly saved.

Bad results of Perseverance of the Saints:

- 1) Lack of Bible teaching on: a) The Judgment Seat of Christ;
b) God disciplining backslidden believers in this life;
c) Gain or loss of heavenly rewards.

These subjects are rarely taught in churches that believe in works or perseverance for salvation.

- 2) Calvinists’ error is in equating preservation by God, with perseverance of the saints. God knows who is saved: “Man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart.” I Sam 16:7.
- 3) “Perseverance of the saints” contains a false view of assurance of salvation, because it makes salvation depend on election, and not on receiving Jesus Christ as Saviour.

Conclusion: Calvinism, according to John Wesley, “represents our Lord as a hypocrite, a deceiver of the people, a man void of common sincerity, as mocking his helpless creatures by offering what He never intends to give, by saying one thing and meaning another.” (Schaff, History, Vol. 8, p.566). One’s view of election determines one’s method of evangelism. In Calvinism, there is no need for any evangelist at all, because the “elect” are sure to be saved by “irresistable grace” whether we preach the gospel or not. Refuting this, Paul warns, “Woe is unto me if I preach not the gospel.” (I Cor. 9:16). It is sure that the more consistently a man practices his Calvinism, the less evangelistic he becomes. When all else fails, Calvinists appeal to Charles Spurgeon’s ministry as proof that one can be both evangelistic and Calvinistic. Spurgeon’s successful, large church was not due to his Calvinism, but was because he inconsistently practiced his Calvinism.

Custance alleges that “when we depart from Calvinism with its emphasis on God’s sovereign grace and man’s helplessness, we constitute ourselves as sowers, germinators, and with the power to give life.” Paul departed from Calvinism: “my son Onesimus, whom I have begotten in my bonds.” Philemon 10. “(I) might save some of them.” (Romans 11:14). “that I might by all means save some.” (I Cor. 9:22). “in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.” (I Cor. 4:15).

4 KEY DEFINITIONS: Adoption, Predestination, Foreknowledge, Election.

Many people wrongly embrace Calvinism because:

- i) They fail to correctly define these four terms, and
- ii) They fail to study and understand all the scriptures discussing each term.

1. ADOPTION (Gk: huiothesia = son-placed = getting our resurrected, glorified bodies in heaven 5206). Four scriptures discussing “adoption” are:

- i) Present adoption for our soul: “ye have received the spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God.” Rom. 8:15,16.
- ii) Future adoption of our body: “For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now. And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, ...waiting for the adoption, the redemption of the body.” Romans 8:23.
- iii) Future adoption of our body: “to redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. And because ye are sons, ...” Galatians 4:5,6.
- iv) Future adoption of our body: “Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children (Gk: sons) by Jesus Christ to himself...” Ephesians 1:5.

Definition: “Adoption” in the NT is “son placed”, not “son made.”

It comes from the Greek word “huiothesia” (5206), which is made up of two words, “huios” (a son, 5207), and “theso” (future tense of “to place” (5087)).

I. The Meaning of Adoption (huiothesia). See Ephesians 1:5.

Adoption is an act where God sets a goal, or placed a certain destination and position for the believer. That goal is:

- i) To receive a sinless resurrection body (Romans 8:23),
- ii) To be fully conformed to the image of Christ in heaven (Romans 8:29), and
- iii) To be introduced to the universe as fully glorified sons of God (I John 3:2).

Adoption in the NT does NOT mean “adopting a child born of other parents.”

Calvinists think that adoption means “son made”, which would prove from Ephesians 1:5 that we are predestinated to become saved. Since adoption means “son placed” in heaven, this refutes the Calvinist view of predestinated to be saved, and proves that we are predestined to be conformed to the image of Christ. (Romans 8:29).

The difference between being “son made” and “son placed” is as follows:

- i) You are “son made” or made a son of God the moment you receive Christ as Saviour. As a son, God has provided some privileges and benefits that we will only receive in the future, when we get our resurrection body at Christ’s return.
- ii) No one has been “son-placed” (adopted) yet. One time you will be. You belong to Christ now, just as much as you ever will be. But you have not yet arrived at the goal which God has predestinated you to become which is Adoption (or son placing).

Question: What is the background meaning and origin of being “son -placed”?

In the early days of the Roman Empire, when a boy was born into his family, he was cared for by his parents until he was 21 years of age. At age 21, they took their child and placed him in the marketplace before the public. This was his “son placing” event. From that time on he could sign his own legal documents, and possessed the full legal authority of a man.

Note: This act at the market place did not make him a son. He was made a son when he was born into his parent’s family. At age 21 he was “son placed”.

Translation problem: The KJV translators could find no equivalent English word for “huiothesia”, this act of “son placing” at age 21, because “son placing” does not occur in our society. So the KJV translators used the word “Adoption” as the only word to express God’s transaction of placing a certain destination, position, inheritance and full legal status for the believer. Hence the translators have Paul using “adoption” in the NT to mean “son placed.”

We can now see how Ephesians 1:5 does NOT teach that God predestines us to be saved, but that God predestines us to be “son placed” after Christ’s return.

“Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children (Greek is “sons” in “huiothesia”) by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will.” Ephesians 1:5.

II. The Time of Adoption (huiiothesia = son placing). Romans 8:23.

Question: When will this “son placing” adoption take place?

i) When our groaning, travailing bodies get redeemed when Christ returns.

“For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, . . . waiting for the adoption, to wit the redemption of the body.” Romans 8:23.

The firstfruits in a believer’s life are pardon, forgiveness, service, fellowship, acceptance, security, sanctification, etc. Notice that adoption is not mentioned here among the firstfruits of the Spirit. We should have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groaning within ourselves & waiting for something to take place.

Question: What are we waiting for? The Adoption.

Question: When will it take place? At the redemption of our bodies when Christ returns. (Romans 8:23). We now have redeemed souls in unredeemed bodies. Many teach that the new birth and adoption mean the same thing. This is not the teaching of God’s Word. The new birth took place when we received Christ as Saviour, and became a child of God. Adoption will occur when we receive our glorified body. “That in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus.” Ephesians 2:7.

Question: When will believers experience the riches of his grace and kindness?

Answer: After we are “son placed” in heaven in the ages to come. Christ came not only to save us from the penalty and power of our sins, but He came that we might be “son placed.” The angels of heaven will gaze at us with an unbelievable amazement when they see the wonderful grace of the Lord Jesus in “son placing” saved sinners.

ii) We may not be much like Jesus now, but some day every believer will be like Him. “Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.” I John 3:1,2.

This is the real purpose of God, to have many sons who would be like His Son.

Thus we define Adoption as “God setting a goal for each believer to be son placed in heaven.”

This is what God predestines us to be, and our adoption is therefore certain.

III. The Present Manifestation of Adoption. Romans 8:15.

“For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.” Romans 8:15.

These believers in Rome in addition to receiving Christ as Saviour, had at the same time also received the Spirit of adoption, known as the Holy Spirit. As a believer, we have not yet been adopted, but we do have the Spirit of adoption. We are:

- i) Now under God’s protection and care,
- ii) We relate to God as children by obeying him,
- iii) We call upon him as “Father” in loving confidence.

The “Bible Knowledge Commentary” states: “Because of present sufferings (Romans 8:18) believers, like creation, groan inwardly (Romans 8:22) as they wait eagerly for their adoption as sons, which is identified as the redemption of their bodies. The word “adoption” (huiiothesia) means “placing as a son”, and describes a believer’s legal relationship to God.

In one sense each believer has already received the adoption, because he has “received the Spirit of adoption” (Romans 8:15) and is a son of God (Galatians 4:6,7). At the same time, as Romans 8:23 states, believers still anticipate their adoption in its completeness, which is said to be the redemption of their bodies (Romans 8:23). This is called the “manifestation of the sons of God” (Romans 8:19), and the “glorious liberty of the children of God” (Romans 8:21). It will occur at the rapture of the church when believers will be raised and transformed with glorious bodies. Paul called that day the “day of redemption.” (Ephesians 4:30). Walvoord and Zuck. p.472,473.

IV. The Participants in Adoption – “we.” Galatians 4:5.

“To redeem them that were under the law, that WE might receive the adoption of sons. And because ye are sons. . .” Galatians. 4:5,6.

Question 1: Who looked forward to the adoption of sons?

Answer: “We.” This means that Paul and the Galatians both did. Only those who are “son made” will be “son placed.”

Question 2: Why did Jesus Christ come?

Answer: a) To redeem them (everybody) that were under the penalty of the law.
b) That we might receive the adoption of sons.

Comments by Other Authorities.

i) “Adoption: What is that to which God has foreordained us? The answer is: adoption. The Greek word is “hiothesia”, which occurs in Romans 8:15,23; 9:4; Galatians 4:5, and Ephesians 1:5. Literally the term means “a placing as a son.” “Adoption of children” (KJV, Eph. 1:5) is literally “adoption as sons.” We become children of God by the new birth; we become sons of God by adoption. The latter is a legal term. Adoption was not a Jewish custom, but a Roman one.” “Word Meanings in NT.” R.Earle, p289

ii) “Waiting for the adoption (Romans 8:23): Waiting for the full blessings of the adoption. Christians have the spirit of adoption when they are converted (Romans 8:15), but they have not yet been admitted to the full privileges of their adoption into the family of God. The fullness of their adoption is their complete admission to the privileges of the sons of God. It is the completion of our being received into the family of God. “The redemption of the body”. The complete recovery of the body from death and corruption. The particular and striking act of the adoption..will be the raising up of the body from the grave, and rendering it immortal and eternally blessed. The particular effects of the adoption in this world are on the soul.

The completion of it will be seen particularly in the body; and thus the entire man will be admitted into the favour of God, restored from all his sins, and all the evil consequences of the fall. In the presence of an assembled universe he will be acknowledged as a son of God. This elevated privilege gives to Christianity its high value.” Barnes Notes on the NT. p 608.

2. PREDESTINATION (Gk: “proorizo” = to determine or to decree beforehand. 4309).

It comes from 2 Greek words, “pro” (before, 4253) and “horizo” (to determine, 3724).

Let us study the 6 times it occurs in the NT (Acts 4:28; Romans 8:29,30; 1 Cor. 2:7; Ephesians 1:5,11.)

The peace of Christendom has been disrupted due to many people misunderstanding this word.

I. Definition: “Adoption” is an act where God sets a goal (son placing) for each believer.

“Predestination” is an act where God makes that goal (of son placing) certain for each believer.

Note: “Predestination” is made up of 2 words, “pre” meaning “beforehand”, and “destination” meaning the “climax, end, farthest extent.” It has nothing to do with anything in between.

Illustration: By paying a train fare beforehand, the railway promises to deliver you to your destination.

II. The Purpose of Predestination.

Question 1: What are we predestined to become?

Answer: i) The Adoption of sons, or “son placing” us in heaven.

“Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children (sons) by Jesus Christ himself, according to the good pleasure of his will.” Ephesians 1:5.

ii) Conforming us to the image of Christ:

“And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to His purpose.” (What is God’s purpose?)

“For whom He did foreknow, He also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of His Son, so that he might be the firstborn among many brethren.” Romans 8:28,29.

(Note: “Firstborn” (4416 Gk: “prototokos” means “pre-eminent, first, ruler”, not “firstcreated”).

iii) Becoming like Jesus Christ:

“Beloved, now are we the sons of God (“son born”), and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.” 1 John 3:2.

III. The Time of Our Conforming to the Image of Christ.

Question 2: When will we be conformed to the image of Christ?

Answer: When our body is redeemed (Romans 8:23) in heaven. That is the time of our adoption.

“We ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption (Gk: hiothesia (5206) = son placing), to wit, the redemption of our body.” Romans 8:23.

IV. The Church in Ephesians.

- a) In Ephesians 1-3, we have the church as God sees her, accepted (v.6), redeemed, forgiven (v.7), an inheritance (1:11), sealed with the Holy Spirit (1:13), enlightened in understanding, hope of his calling, riches of glory, great power (1:18,19), Head of the church (1:22), quickened (2:1,5), raised and seated in heavenly places (2:6), his workmanship (2:10), near to God (2:13), broken partition (2:14), abolished enmity of the 10 commandments (2:15), reconciled (2:16), access to the Father (2:18), fellow citizens, household of God (2:19), built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ chief cornerstone (2:20), holy temple (2:21), habitation of God (2:22), Jews and Gentiles fellowheirs (3:6), demonstrating the wisdom of God to principalities and powers in heaven (3:10), boldness and access with confidence (3:12), family of God (3:15), inner strength (3:16), Christ in our hearts, rooted and grounded in love (3:17), filled with the fulness of God, knowing the love of Christ (3:19).
- b) In Ephesians 4,5,6, we see the Church as God desires the world to see her, in her walk and work (Note 40 elements to walk worthy from 4:1. See Answers, p.268).
- c) In Ephesians 1:4,5 God decided before the foundation of the world that He would have a church with its foundation "in Christ", and that it would be a holy, blameless, and loving church. The words "us" and "we" in Ephesians refer to the church as Christ's body.
- d) God does not predestine individuals to heaven or hell. The only individual God predestines is Christ, and it is to suffering and to glory: "the Spirit of Christ...testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow." 1 Peter 1:11.
It is blasphemy to say that God predestines individuals to hell.

V. NT Occurrences of "Predestination." (proorizo (4309) = determine beforehand).

- a) Acts 4:28 "For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done."
Herod and Pilate crucifying Jesus was predetermined or foreordained by God.
- b) "For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of His Son... Whom he did predestinate, them he also called..." Romans 8:29,30.
- c) "but we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery,..which God ordained before the world unto our glory." 1 Cor. 2:7. We proclaim God's wise plan of salvation. It's purpose was for our glory and benefit.
- d) "Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself..." (v.5)
"being predestinated according to the purpose of him..." (v.11). Ephesians 1:5,11.

3. FOREKNOWLEDGE (proginosko (4267) = to know beforehand).

This comes from 2 Greek words, "pro" (before, 4253), and "ginosko" (to know, 1097).

"For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son" 1Pet 1:2

I. Definition: Foreknowledge is a divine attribute, where God sees all things in the present tense. There is no past or future with God. God is "I AM", eternally present tense. Neither time nor space restrict God, since He created both (2 Peter 3:8).

Because God foreknows all things, it doesn't mean that He foreordains or causes them.

II. Scriptures Teaching God's Foreknowledge

- i) Psalm 139:1-8 "Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar of...and art acquainted with all my ways. (v.3)...thou knowest it altogether (v.4)."
God knew David, his thoughts, his whole life conduct, at all times and in all places.
- ii) John 8:55,58 Jesus said: "I know him (my Father)", and "Before Abraham was, I am."
Jesus knew all things that existed before him in the present tense.

4. ELECTION (Greek: ekloge (1589) = to choose, select).

Election in Romans 9: "God's Election of Israel."

9:1 "I say the truth in Christ, I lie not."

Paul here makes one of the most solemn oaths possible. He makes a 3-fold appeal to:

- i) Christ as the searcher of hearts, that he tells the truth.
- ii) His Conscience was totally clear in this matter.
- iii) The Holy Ghost bore him witness that what he said was true.

This oath in the Name of the Messiah shows that it is right on solemn occasions to appeal to Christ for the sincerity of our motives, and for the truth of our words.

Christ Who is present everywhere with all believers (as God) searches our hearts to detect insincerity, hypocrisy and perjury.

9:2 “That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.”

Paul moved from the joy of thinking about Christ in Romans 8, to the sorrow and burden of unsaved Israel in Romans 9. Whenever Paul thought on Israel’s rejection of Christ, it gave him great grief.

9:3 “For I could wish that myself were accursed (Greek: anathema) from Christ for my brethren my kinsmen according to the flesh.”

Question: What does this mean?

Answer: The word “accursed” (Greek: anathema) means anything devoted to destruction, complete ruin, subject to a curse (I Kings 20:42). (Compare “anathema” = curse, with “anathēma” = suffering). It does not denote eternal death. Paul is saying: “I am willing to be destroyed, devoted to death, suffer the bitterest evils, to forego all pleasure, to endure any privation, suffering & toil if it resulted in saving the nation Israel.” Moses had this attitude (Exodus 32:32). Paul was willing to be so greatly devoted to Christ and to suffer and die if by that means he could save Israel. This is an example to Christians that we should be willing to endure pain, privation, toil and death if this resulted in others getting saved.

9:4,5 “(i) Who are Israelites; (ii) to whom pertaineth the adoption , and (iii) the glory, and (iv) the covenants, and (v) the giving of the law , and (vi) the service of God, and (vii) the promises; (viii) whose are the fathers, and (ix) of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen.”

Background: Romans 9 discusses Israel’s past election.

Romans 10 discusses Israel’s present rejection.

Romans 11 discusses Israel’s future restoration to favour.

In Romans 9, Paul shows how Israel’s past history magnifies the character and attributes of God, those being His faithfulness (v.1-13), righteousness (v.14-18), justice (v.19-29) and grace (v.30-33).

In Romans 9:4,5 Paul mentions 9 historical benefits of Israel:

i) Who are Israelites: They were descended from Israel (formerly Jacob) meaning “prince of God” (Genesis 32:26-32). The name “Israelites” conveyed their very high dignity as a royal nation as being princes of the Most High God.

ii) The Adoption: God adopted the nation Israel into His family.

“Israel is my son, even my firstborn.” (Exodus 4:22).

“I am a father to Israel.” (Jeremiah 31:9).

“When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my son out of Egypt.” (Hosea 11:1).

“The LORD thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself...” (Deuteronomy 7:6).

This adoption took place when God made a covenant with them at Mount Horeb.

iii) The Glory: The shekinah glory cloud was the manifestation of God’s very presence among them.

It appeared as the pillar of cloud and fire as they left Egypt (Exodus 13:21).

It appeared between the cherubim in the Ark of the Covenant in the Tabernacle (Exodus 25:22 and 40:34), and in Solomon’s Temple (1Kings 8:10,11; Isaiah 6:1-5).

The glory Moses beheld on Mt. Sinai came to dwell with Israel (Exodus 24:16,17; Isaiah 6:1-5).

No other nation was ever thus favoured.

iv) The Covenants given to Abraham (Genesis 15:18), Moses and David (II Samuel 7:12-16).

The Covenants included the Abrahamic (Genesis 12:1-3; 15:1-7; 17:1-8), the Mosaic (Exodus 20,21), the Davidic (2 Samuel 7:10-16; 1 Chronicles 17:7-15; Psalm 89:27-37), and the New Covenant

v) The Giving of the Law on Mt. Sinai to govern Israel’s political, social and religious life (Exodus 20; Deuteronomy 5:1-33). It was the foundation of all true legal codes ever since.

vi) The Service: The ceremonies and sacrifices in the temple teaching the sinfulness of sin and the holiness of God.

vii) The Promises include the land of Canaan, the Messiah’s blessings, and His coming 1000 year kingdom on earth.

viii) Whose are the fathers: some of the greatest men that ever lived were Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph, Moses, Joshua, Samuel and David.

ix) And of whom as concerning the flesh came Christ who is over all (Most High) God blessed forever. Amen.

Question: Does Romans 9:5b refer to God or to Christ?

If it refers to Christ, it would clearly prove His Deity as reading “Christ who is over all God blessed forever. Amen.” There were no commas in the early NT Greek manuscripts. The placing of commas, full stops and question marks were inserted by the translators’ opinion. Does Romans 9:5b equate Christ with God? We say it does refer to Christ as God because:

i) The KJV, ASV, NASV, NIV put a comma before “who”. This endorses the Deity of Christ.

KJV: “of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever.”

NIV: “from them is traced the human ancestry of Christ, who is God over all, forever praised”.

This reading is supported by most church fathers.

ii) The RV, RSV, NEB, GNB, NWT place a full stop after “Christ”.

Thus they don’t equate Christ with God. They merely make the end of the verse a benediction to God.

GNV: “Christ, as a human being, belongs to their race. May God, who rules over all, be praised forever

NWT: “from whom Christ (sprang) according to the flesh: God, who is over all, (be) blessed forever.”

Answer: We endorse i) for these reasons:

i) The antithesis implied between the 2 clauses in the verse, favours this view. Paul has just stated that Christ (as to his human nature) was an Israelite, and now states that according to His higher nature, is the supreme, Most High God, or “God over all.” These are a matching contrast, an appropriate antithesis, and are complementary to each other.

For a similar example see Romans 1:3,4 “Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh, And declared to be the Son of God with power according to the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead.”

Here Christ is said to be according to His human nature, the Son of David, but according to His Divine nature declared to be the Son of God.

ii) Romans 9:5b makes 3 statements about Christ.

He is Lord over all, He is God by nature, and He will be praised and blessed forever.

Paul’s salvation experience and scripture study forced him to redefine his Jewish monotheism to include Christ within the category of Deity.

iii) The relative pronoun “who” must agree with its nearest antecedent, which is “Christ.” This link proves Christ is the Supreme God. There is grammatical agreement between the noun “Christ” (ὁ Χριστός) and the participle “who is” (ὁ ὢν).

iv) Context: The blessing to Christ best suits the context. It is a natural climax to the list of special privileges enjoyed by the Jews. It would be very unnatural to suddenly change the subject, and break out in blessing to God.

v) Word Order: Those who deny that Romans 9:5b teaches the Deity of Christ, must make the word “blessed” (Gk: eulogatos) refer to God the Father as a Doxology to Him. Examples:

- The Revised Version (1880) reads: “...according to the flesh, is the Christ. God who is over all be blessed forever. Amen.”

- The Good News Version reads: “May God, who rules over all, be praised forever! Amen.”

- The New World Translation reads: “flesh: God, who is over all, [be] blessed forever. Amen.”

They are faced with a major difficulty, as follows:

Whenever “blessed” (Gk: “eulogatos”) occurs in an independent doxology, “eulogatos” always precedes the name of “God” (Θεός = theos) (eg: “εὐλογητός ὁ Θεός” as in 2 Cor.1:3; Eph.1:3;

1 Pet.1:3. But in Romans 9:5, “eulogatos” follows the name of God: “Θεός εὐλογητός”.

The word order of doxologies is never “God blessed” or “God be blessed” as in Romans 9:5.

(In doxologies to God or Christ, the word “blessed” (“eulogatos”) always occurs first. This is not the case in Romans 9:5).

Hence Romans 9:5 cannot be a doxology to God, but must be taken as a declaration of who is blessed, that being Christ as God. This potent argument is conclusive in itself.

vi) Absence of the article before “blessed.” Because “εὐλογητος” (“blessed”) is not preceded by the article in Romans 9:5, the meaning cannot be “the blessed God”, which would require a different reading “(ὁ) Θεος ὁ εὐλογητος.” See “Jesus as God.” Murray J. Harris. p.161.

vii) “over all” is equivalent to “Most High, supreme.” We may read Romans 9:5b as: “as concerning the flesh came Christ who is Most High God blessed forever. Amen.”

The same words occur in Ephesians 4:6, “One God, who is above all.” (ἐπὶ πάντων).

This passage, therefore, shows that Christ is God in the highest sense of the word.

Since Jesus Christ is God over all, and blessed forever, how profound should be our reverence, how complete our obedience, and how joyful should be our confidence in Him.

viii) The expression “Christ who is over all (things) God blessed forever. Amen,” is expressly acknowledged to refer to Christ by 60 well known early church writers, these being: Irenaeus, Hippolytus (3 places), Origen, Malchion, 6 Bishops at the Council of Antioch (269 AD), ps. Dionysius Alex (2 places), the Apostolic Constitutions, Athanasius (6 places), Basil (2), Didymus (5), Gregory of Nyssen (5), Epiphanius (5), Theodorus Mops, Methodius, Eustathius, Eulogius (2), Caesarius (3), Theophilus Alex (2), Nestorius, Theodotus of Ancyra, Proclus (2), Severianus Bishop of Gabala, Chrysostom (8), Cyril of Alexandria (15 times), Paulus Bishop of Emesa, Theodoret (12 times), Gennadius, Severus, Amphilochius, Gelasius Cyz., Anastasius of Antioch, Leontius Byz (3), Maximus, J. Damascene (3), Tertullian (2), Cyprian, Novatian (2), Ambrose (5), Palladius the Arian at the Council of Aquileia, Hilary (7), Jerome (2), Augustine (30 times), Victorinus, the Breviarum (2), Marius Mercator, Cassian (2), Alcimius Avit, Fulgentius (2), Leo Bishop of Rome (2), Fernandus (2), Facundus, plus 6 ancient writers. All these see in Romans 9:5 a glorious assertion of the eternal Godhead of Christ. “The Revision Revised,” John Burgon, p. 210-214.

ix) If the theme of Romans 9:1-4 is Israel’s unbelief, it would be very appropriate to end the paragraph by referring to the exalted status and nature of Israel’s rejected Messiah. It would be totally inappropriate to conclude with a joyful praise to God in the context of Israel’s rejection of Christ.

x) Since Paul elsewhere taught that Jesus shares the full names, nature, attributes and functions of God, we should not be surprised to see Paul here referring to Jesus as God.

xi) The phrase “blessed forever” was usually added by Jewish writers after mentioning God’s name as an expression of reverence.

I Chronicles 16:36 “Blessed be the Lord God of Israel for ever and ever.”

I Chronicles 23:13 “to minister unto him, and to bless his name for ever and ever.”

I Chronicles 29:10 “Blessed be thou, Lord God of Israel our Father, for ever and ever.”

Nehemiah 9:5 “Stand up and bless the Lord your God for ever and ever.”

Psalms 72:19 “Blessed be his glorious name for ever.”

Psalms 145:1 “I will bless thy name for ever and ever.”

Daniel 2:20 “Daniel said: Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever.”

Romans 1:25 “the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.”

Conclusion: As opposed to the indignity and rejection perpetrated on Jesus by His fellow Israelites, the Messiah, Jesus Christ, is in reality exalted over the whole universe, He is fully God by nature, and is eternally the object of worship.

9:6 “Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect.”

In spite of these 9 privileges, Israel failed by rejecting and crucifying their Messiah.

Question: Does Israel’s failure mean that God’s word has failed? (Or taken none effect). No.

Question: What is the “word of God” here?

Answer: The “word of God” means anything that God has spoken, and here it refers to the promises to Abraham regarding the salvation of Israel. These include

“I will establish my covenant between me and thee and thy seed after thee in their generations for an everlasting covenant.” (Genesis 17:7);

“But my covenant will I establish with Isaac.” (Genesis 17:21); (Gen.17:19.

“I will establish my covenant with him (Isaac) for an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him.”

“For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel.” (Romans 9:6)

All the natural descendants of the patriarch Israel (Jacob) are not the true people of God.

Here Paul distinguishes between the natural seed and the spiritual seed of Abraham.

Romans 2:28,29 “For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly...But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly.”

9:7 “Neither because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, in Isaac shall thy seed be called.” Natural descent from Abraham does not secure the promised inheritance. The seed, or natural descendants of Abraham, are not all true spiritual children. But, in Galatians 3:7 we see “They which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.” Israelites cannot conclude that because they are Abraham’s natural descendants, that they are all the children in whom the promised inheritance will be fulfilled.

“but in Isaac shall thy seed be called.” (Romans 9:7b and Genesis 21:12).

God chose Isaac as the son through whom the line of Christ and the covenant promises to Abraham would come. “But my covenant will I establish with Isaac.” (Genesis 17:21).

This has nothing to do with God choosing Isaac to be saved and Ishmael to be damned, because in Genesis 21:13 God assured Abraham that Ishmael would have a future because he too was Abraham’s offspring. “And also of the son of the bondwoman will I make a nation, because he is thy seed.” 21:13.

9:8 “That is they which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.”

a) The children of God are not those who descend from Abraham’s loins, nor those who are circumcised as Abraham was (children of the flesh). This opposed the popular Jewish thinking that being an Israelite entitled them to the covenant blessings and to being children of God.

b) Who are the children of the promise? Galatians 4:22-31 is a parallel passage:

“If ye be Christ’s, then are ye Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise.” (Galatians 3:29);

“Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise.” (Galatians 4:28).

Believers are the children of the promise in the same sense as Isaac was. The main idea is that the birth of Isaac was supernatural (when Sarah was age 90, humanly impossible, promised 10 years earlier), so believers in Christ are the children of God by virtue of a supernatural, spiritual birth (John 3:6-8), and heirs of the promise made to Abraham.

Hence Isaac was born because of a promise, and was also heir of the promised blessings.

“But he (Ishmael) who was of the bondwoman (Hagar) was born after the flesh (Abraham’s will): but he (Isaac) of the freewoman (Sarah) was by promise (v.23).

Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants: the one from the mount Sinai (Mosaic covenant of Law), which gendereth to bondage (of the Law, 10 Commandments), which is Agar (v.24). But Jerusalem which is above (New Covenant of Christ by faith from heaven – Rev.21:2) is free, which is the mother of us all (v.26).

Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are children of promise (v.28).

So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free.” (v.31). (Galatians 4:23-31).

9:9 “For this is the word of promise, At this time will I come, and Sarah shall have a son.”

This is the promise made to Abraham in Genesis 18:10,14 and 21:1,2.

“At the time appointed I will return unto thee, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son.”

(Genesis 18:14). This promise was fulfilled one year later in Genesis 21:1,2: “And the LORD visited Sarah as he had said and the LORD did unto Sarah as he had spoken. And Sarah conceived, and bare Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him.”

Meaning: God here assured Abraham that the promise would come through Isaac, not Ishmael.

“At this time” means “at the exact time promised, the prediction will be fulfilled.”

Note: God comes or visits whenever He especially manifests His presence or power in answering prayer. Luke 1:68; 19:44; Ezekiel 38:8; 1 Peter 2:12; John 14:23.

9:10 “And not only this; but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac;

9:11 (For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth;)”

9:12 It was said unto her, the elder shall serve the younger.

9:13 As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.”

Calvinist argument 1: Calvinists claim that this passage teaches that God chooses (elects) both to
1) national privileges of Isaac and Jacob to be in the line of promise (we agree), as well as to
2) the personal salvation of individuals to eternal life, such as Isaac and Jacob and the personal damnation to hell of individuals such as Ishmael, Esau and others (we strongly disagree).

Answer: Paul is only explaining the basis of Israel’s national election to be in the line of God’s promises to Abraham. This passage is to be taken in a national sense, not a personal sense because:

i) v.4-6 explain nine national blessings of Israel. In spite of these blessings, Israel failed by rejecting and crucifying Christ. Does this mean that God’s Word had failed? (taken none effect v.6)? No.

ii) The whole context of Romans 9,10,11 refers to Israel’s past choice as the nation of Abraham’s blessings (9), present rejection of Christ (10), and future restoration as the nation of God in the millennium (11).

iii) “The elder (Esau) shall serve the younger (Jacob).” Romans 9:12. Personally Jacob never did exercise any power over Esau, nor was Esau ever subject to (or serve) Jacob. Jacob was subject to Esau and was greatly afraid of him. (Genesis 32:8; 33:3). But nationally this was true.

iv) Jacob personally acknowledged Esau to be his lord (“Let my lord pass over before his servant” Genesis 33:14), and himself to be his servant (“Thy servant Jacob” Genesis 32:4; “The children which God hath graciously given thy servant.” Genesis 33:5).

v) Neither Esau, Jacob or their descendants are given here as examples of personal damnation from eternity, because many, if not most of Jacob’s descendants were wicked and rejected by God. Some descendants of Esau were saved.

vi) The nation of Esau (Edom) did serve and was inferior to the nation of Jacob (Israel) as seen by their future history. The nation of Edom was subject to Israel under David. Edom was finally subjected under the Maccabees. Edom’s history was outside the privileges and spiritual blessings of Israel.

vii) “The purpose of God according to election might stand, ... it was said unto her “The elder shall serve the younger.” v.11,12. This clearly refers to election to service of Esau’s nation to Jacob’s nation. The purpose of God’s election was for Esau’s descendants to serve Jacob’s descendants.

viii) The context of Romans 9:12 “The elder shall serve the younger” is from God’s prophecy to Rebekah in Genesis 25:23 where He said “Two nations are in thy womb, and two manner of people shall be separated from thy bowels; and the one people shall be stronger than the other people; and the elder shall serve the younger.” This declaration refers not to Esau and Jacob personally, but to their posterity, their descendants as 2 nations.

Notice that a) God says nothing about the salvation of Jacob or Esau, but only that “one people shall be stronger; ... and the elder shall serve the younger.” Genesis 25:23 shows that Romans 9:12 refers to the national posterity of Esau (Edomites) and not to Esau as an individual.

The national descendants of Esau would be subject to the descendants of Jacob. Jacob was to have the priority, the promised land the promises and the honour of being God’s chosen people.

b) God here refers to the babies as “two nations.”

ix) Romans 9:13 “Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.”

Two problems need to be resolved about this verse:

a) These words are not referring to God loving and saving Jacob personally, and hating and damning Esau personally, but refer to each of their nations. God did not say this before they were born.

God hated Esau’s descendants because of their idolatry, continued wickedness and persecution of Israel. (See Obadiah). These words are quoted from Malachi 1:2,3 which were spoken 1400 years after their birth. They refer to God loving the nation Israel, and loving less the nation of Edom: “I have loved you, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us? Was not Esau Jacob’s brother? Saith the LORD: yet I loved Jacob, and I hated Esau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste...”

b) The word “hate” means “to love less, to regard and treat with less favour.”

It was common among Hebrews to use the terms “love” and “hate” in a comparative sense where “love” implied strong positive attachment, and “hate” meant not positive hatred, but merely less love, or withholding affection. Examples of this are:

~Genesis 29:33 “Leah said, Because the LORD hath heard that I was hated (by Jacob)...”

~Proverbs 13:24 “He that spareth his rod hateth his son; but he that loveth him chasteneth him betimes”

~Matthew 6:24 “No man can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other...”

~Luke 14:26 “If any man come to me, and hate not his father and mother, and wife, children, brethren, sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple.”

~John 12:25 “He that loveth his life shall lose it; he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.”

Conclusion:

a) Paul and Malachi are not discussing the persons of Jacob or Esau, but their national descendants.

b) God’s love to Jacob, or God’s hatred to Esau did not determine their eternal destiny to heaven or hell

c) There is no Biblical or rational basis for the foolish Calvinist idea of unconditional election.

d) God does not hate sinners. God loves sinners as John 3:16 makes clear. The statement concerns national election to service, not individual election to salvation.

Calvinist argument 2: Calvinists claim that because Romans 9:11 says that God’s election of Jacob and Esau took place before their birth and apart from their works, then these two ideas prove that God unconditionally and personally elects some to salvation and others to damnation, before their birth.

Answer 2: This Calvinist argument can be simply resolved by remembering that this entire passage discusses God’s national election of Isaac and Jacob to inherit the promises and blessings made to Abraham. It does not mention individual election to salvation anywhere in the passage. To think so is adding to scripture and is the sin of presumption. God’s election of Israel was not based on a) natural descent (9:6-10) or b) human merit (9:11-13). All the passage states is that God had a separate plan for Isaac, Ishmael, Jacob and Esau. In eternity past, God chose each to serve God in a certain way and to fulfil God’s plan for their lives. Their salvation or damnation is not in the text. So God has a different plan for each believer’s life ever since. God has a different task for Paul, Peter, John, you and me. The purpose of God according to election was for life service and not for eternal salvation. Notice that in each case God chose the second born child to inherit the promises to Abraham, and bypassed the eldest son. This brings us to define the Biblical doctrine of Election.

ELECTION (Greek: ekloge (1589) = to choose, select).

Definition: Election is a Divine choice, where God (for reasons known only to Himself), in the blessing of mankind, sets aside the firsts, & chooses the seconds. (“For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth), It was said unto her, The elder shall serve the younger.” Romans 9:11,12.

Question: What is the purpose of God according to election? (v.11).

Answer: Service: “The elder shall serve the younger.” (v.12).

The firstborn serves the younger. The greater shall serve the lesser. God sets to one side the elder or the first, and chooses the younger or the second through whom the blessing would come.

Question: What Biblical examples do we find of God setting aside the first and choosing the second?

i) Ishmael (Abraham’s firstborn) was set aside, and Isaac (Abraham’s secondborn) was chosen.

ii) Esau (Isaac’s firstborn) was set aside, and Jacob (Isaac’s second born) was chosen.

iii) Reuben (Jacob’s firstborn) was set aside, and Judah (Jacob’s fourth born) was chosen for the line of Christ to continue through. (1 Chronicles 5:1,2).

iv) Manasseh (Joseph’s firstborn) was set aside, and Ephraim (Joseph’s secondborn) was chosen by Jacob and God for the promised blessing. “his younger brother shall be greater than he,... and he set Ephraim before Manasseh.” Genesis 48:17-20.

v) Saul (Israel’s first king) was set aside, and David (Israel’s second king) was chosen by God for the line of Christ, Kings and blessing to continue through. (1 Samuel 15:23,28; 2 Samuel 7:1-17).

vi) Eliab (Jesse’s first born) was set aside, and David (Jesse’s last born, or eighth) was chosen to be king of Israel. (1 Samuel 16:1-13).

vii) Adam (the first man) was set aside, and Jesus Christ (the second man) was chosen to be the head of the human race. (1 Corinthians 15:47).

viii) The first heaven and earth will be burned and set aside, and the second heaven and earth will be created to last forever. (Revelation 21:1,2).

ix) Our first corruptible body will be set aside, & replaced by an immortal resurrection body. 1 Cor 15:35

- x) The Mosaic Covenant was set aside, and the New Covenant of Christ was chosen to replace it. “For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.” Heb. 7:6,7,13.
- xi) The Ten Commandments of Moses have been set aside (Eph. 2:15; 2 Cor. 3:7, 11; Heb. 8:13-9:4; Gal. 4:24, 25), and the New Testament Law of Christ was chosen to replace it. (Romans 8:2).
- xii) The Sabbath (the Mosaic day of worship) was set aside, and Sunday (the N.T. day of worship) was chosen to replace it. (1 Cor. 16:1,2; Acts 20:7).
- xiii) The OT offerings were set aside. Christ’s perfect offering on the cross was chosen to replace them. Election is not God choosing some to be saved and others to be damned. To believe this would limit the work of Christ on the cross, and would label God as a respecter of persons.

9:14 “What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid.” What do we conclude?

Question: Does God choosing Isaac and Jacob, whilst not choosing Ishmael and Esau to inherit the promises, privileges and blessings show God to be unjust or unrighteous?

Answer: By no means, because, whatever God does is right. He may dispense His blessings to whoever He chooses, for whatever reasons He chooses. We don’t know all the facts as God does, so we are in no position to charge God with unrighteousness (injustice) or to tell Him what to do. Each of us must best use our talents to honour God and further His kingdom. God has given every one of us unique and exciting opportunities to serve Him. We should not charge God with unrighteousness because God may have given someone else a different or apparently better ministry, talents or position.

Calvinist argument 3:

9:15 “He saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.” Calvinists here cannot resist the temptation to read personal salvation into another verse teaching national election to earthly privileges. Calvinists jump to the conclusion that mercy and compassion are limited to personal salvation. They read this verse as “I will save whom I will (the elect) and I will damn whom I will (the non-elect).” God says no such nonsense.

Question: On whom will God have mercy? Only the elect? No.

Answer: Romans 11:32 tells who are the objects of God’s mercy.

“For God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon ALL.”

How many people are the objects and beneficiaries of God’s mercy? The text clearly says that God has mercy upon ALL people. God not only has mercy on a few, but His mercy is bestowed on all men.

Question: What is the significance of Exodus 33:19 from which Romans 9:15 is quoted?

Answer: As God showed His mercy to Moses by making all His goodness pass before him, as well as proclaiming the name of JHVH before him, so God made it clear that no act of grace or mercy was merited by man. Mercy comes from God because God is essentially good, gracious, and merciful. It is God’s will and pleasure to bless man and to be merciful to him. God will bestow mercy on all men in whatever way He sees fit. This verse does not say that God will only have mercy on a predetermined number of people. It states that it is God who shows mercy and grace. It is God-given, not man-given.

Calvinist argument 4:

9:16 “So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.”

Calvinists again introduce personal salvation into a context discussing God’s election of individuals into the national privileges of promises to Abraham.

Answer: All this verse teaches is that God is the original cause of showing mercy to us in allocating our role of service to Christ in this life. “So then” links this back to v.15. The making or continuing of any people as the people of God is determined by the mercy of God, and not by the will or efforts of men.

Calvinist argument 5:

9:17 “For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.”

9:18 “Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.”

Calvinists make two claims to support their position here:

- God raised up (or called into existence) Pharaoh to declare God’s name through all the earth, all along intending to damn him to hell as non-elect. They claim he was unconditionally elected to hell. 17.
- God hardened Pharaoh from the beginning as part of God’s predestined plan to use him, then send him to hell as non-elect. (v.18).

Answer: a) 9:17 Question: What does “raised up” mean? Does it mean:

~ I have called Pharaoh into existence, and raised up Pharaoh as King? or

~ To preserve alive, to raise Pharaoh from sickness of boils, to cause Pharaoh to continue at his post?

This second idea is correct because Hiphil verbs mean the continuance of a thing.

Hence, Hiphil of “to live” means to “preserve alive.” (Genesis 6:19,20; 19:19).

Romans 9:17 is quoted from Exodus 9:16 “for this cause have I raised thee up, for to shew in thee my power.” “Raised thee up” means “I have sustained or supported thee.” That is, I have kept thee from death, I have strengthened Pharaoh by healing his boils which were “upon all the Egyptians” (Ex. 9:11-16). I have restored you to health by removing your boils, and by postponing your destruction to a later day, so that I may demonstrate my power in your final overthrow so that all mankind may learn that I am the righteous Judge of all the earth.

“That I might shew my power in thee” means that God’s power (Romans 9:22) was demonstrated to all the earth by the mighty miracles He performed in defeating Pharaoh’s military as He freed the Israelites from under Pharaoh’s hand. Other nations heard about it and were awed at God’s might (Exodus 15:14-16; Joshua 2:10,11; 9:9; 1 Sam. 4:8 (300 years later)). God kept Pharaoh in circumstances which were fitted to develop his true character and to accomplish some great purposes by his existence & conduct.

b) Question: Does God hardening Pharaoh’s heart prove unconditional election of Pharaoh to hell? NO Answer: Whom does God harden? Those who purposely harden themselves against God. God showed mercy on Pharaoh even while Pharaoh hardened his heart.

Question: Who hardened Pharaoh’s heart? Was it Pharaoh himself or God who hardened his heart?

BOTH. In Hebrew, of the 20 passages discussing Pharaoh’s hardening, exactly 10 ascribe it to Pharaoh himself and 10 ascribe it to God. Although in the KJV only the word “harden” is used, yet in the Hebrew 3 different words are used. (See “Old Testament Bible History,” A.Edersheim, Vol.1, p.59,60).

- i) Exodus 7:3 qashah (7185) = to make hard or insensible.
- ii) Exodus 10:1 kabad (3513) = to make heavy, or unimpressible.
- iii) Exodus 14:4 chazaq (2388) = to make firm, stiff, immovable.

Before the 10 plagues, when Aaron converted the rod to a serpent, Pharaoh hardened his heart himself. (7:13,14). After each of the first 5 plagues (7:22; 8:15, 19, 32; 9:7) Pharaoh hardened his heart himself. After the sixth plague (9:12) for the first time do we read that “the Lord made firm the heart of the Pharaoh.” After the seventh plague (9:34), we read that Pharaoh made heavy his heart.

After the eighth plague God hardened his heart (10:1). 1 Sam 6:6 Egyptians & Pharaoh hardened their hearts.

Pharaoh hardening himself

Ex. 7:13	Firm
7:14	Heavy
7:22	Firm (1 st plague)
8:15	Heavy (2 nd plague)
8:19	Firm (3 rd plague)
8:32	Heavy (4 th plague)
9:7	Heavy (5 th plague)
9:34	Heavy (7 th plague)
9:35	Firm
13:15	Hard

God hardening Pharaoh

Ex. 4:21	(God informed Moses before the
7:3	contest of the outcome). Insensible
9:12	(6 th plague)
10:1	(8 th plague) Unimpressible
10:20
10:27
11:10
14:4	Immovable
14:8

God, by declaring His Word and revealing His power, gave Pharaoh opportunity to repent, but instead, Pharaoh resisted and hardened his heart. The fault lay not with God, but with Pharaoh. The same sunlight that melts the ice, also hardens the clay. The outcome depends on what is inside the person. God was not unrighteous in His dealings with Pharaoh because He gave him many opportunities to repent. Pharaoh made a determined choice of evil, from which neither warning nor judgment would turn him away. Thus he hardened his own heart. (Exodus 8:15).

God bestows his mercy and blessings on one part of mankind (OT Jews and NT Gentiles), while He suffers another part (Egyptians of Moses’ day and Jews during the Church age) to harden themselves in sin, until God judges them or brings them to repentance. Paul says nothing here about eternal life or hell. He never says or implies that God has created man (or Pharaoh) for the purpose of damnation.

108. CALVINISM – Summary and Review

TOTAL DEPRAVITY

Q1: Does man have the free will to receive or reject Jesus Christ as Saviour?

Calvinist TD insists that man does not have a free will to receive Christ, nor do any good at all.

Calvinists believe man's will is in bondage to his sinful nature, basing this on the premise that "man is dead in trespasses and sins." (Ephesians 2:1).

Q2: What is wrong with this Calvinist error that the natural man can only act according to his nature?

1) Paul still acknowledged his "inabilities" after salvation: "That which I do I allow not: for what I would, that do I not." (Romans 7:15). "For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit ... so that ye cannot do the things that ye would." (Galatians 5:17). Paul acted contrary to his new nature.

2) Unsaved man lost his living spirit, but gained a conscience enabling him not to fully express the evil of his sin nature.

3) Depraved man has ability because of conscience, as seen from:

a) Romans 2:14 "When the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law ... their conscience also bearing witness ..."

b) John 7:17 "If any man will do his will ..." Jesus said that man has free will.

c) Many scriptures show that unsaved men have the ability to do good.

"A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children." (Proverbs 13:22).

"Whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely." Matth 7:11; Luke 6:33; I Peter 2:18.

Key: The unsaved man sins because he yields to his depraved nature and chooses to sin, not because he is unable to do good.

Q3: If man cannot believe, then how can he be held responsible for what he cannot do? He cannot be held responsible!

Key: Calvinists base their idea that man cannot receive Christ of his own free will on two pillars:

1) John 1:13 "which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God." This gives the source of the new birth, not the reason why men receive Christ.

The source of the new birth is:

- not of blood, not physical generation, inheritance, or natural descent;

- not of the will of flesh, not reformation or self-effort;

- not of the will of man, not relatives, preachers or priests;

- The source of the new birth is of God, not of man.

Q4: Why does God give the new birth to people?

Answer: God gives the new birth to "as many as received him." John 1:12 .

2) Romans 9:16 "So then, it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy." Calvinists claim that man does not have the will to receive Christ and salvation.

Answer: Man does have the ability to receive Christ, while in a state of depravity.

"If ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine." (Romans 6:17).

"Ye will not come to me, that ye might have life." (John 5:40).

"Whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely." (Revelation 22:7).

Key: The reason men don't receive Christ is because they will not, not because they are unable.

Q5: Key: All Calvinists compare TD to a physically dead man or to Lazarus. (John 11:43,44), saying "A corpse does not call out for help." "You hath he quickened who were dead in trespasses and sins."

Answer: It is true that a physically dead man does not call out for help, but spiritually dead people are different, being still biologically active and alive, able to walk, talk and fulfil desires.

- A spiritually dead man can lift up his eyes, see, speak, pray, hear, reason & feel torment. Luke 16:23-28

- A true analogy of spiritual death, is how the prodigal son who "was dead, and is alive again; he was lost and is found." (Luke 15:24).

Key: This Calvinist analogy of a corpse not calling out for help breaks down because of responsibility.

Q6: Is a dead corpse responsible for anything? NO.

Is a lost sinner responsible for anything? YES.

Refuting Calvinists' Proof Texts for Total Depravity

1) Someone who "cannot do something."

a. John 8:43 "Why do ye not understand my speech? Even because ye cannot hear my word"

Question: To whom does this refer?

Answer: Not all mankind, but unbelieving Jews. Why could they not hear Christ's words?

- because they did the lusts of their father the devil. (John 8:44).

- because they did not believe Christ when He told them the truth. (John 8:45,46).

- because they did not believe that Christ was I AM. (John 8:24).

b. John 14:17 "Even the Spirit of truth: whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him...."

Question: What does it mean "whom the world cannot receive"?

Answer: Because "it seeth him not, nor knows him." This means that they judge by their physical senses. What they cannot see, hear, taste or feel makes no impression on them. Because they cannot see the Holy Spirit operating, they don't receive His testimony about Christ.

c. Romans 8:8,7 "Because the carnal mind is enmity against God ... they that are in the flesh cannot please God." Calvinists say "enmity against God" is Total Depravity, and "cannot please God" is Total Inability.

Answer: The minding of the things of the flesh (v.5) leads to hatred of God Himself, because He is opposed to it. The supreme regard to the flesh is opposed to God's law, is hostile to God, is utterly irreconcilable with God's law, and can never be made to harmonize with it, just as adultery cannot be chastity, and falsehood cannot be truth.

The passage says nothing about whether man has an ability to obey God's law or to love God.

2) Someone's "Inability" but with a reason given for it:

a. John 6:44 "No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him."

Calvinists say this "drawing" is Irresistible Grace. Calvinists say "No man can come to me" is Total Depravity because of the lack of an "irresistible effectual call" by God the Father.

Calvinist error: By misapplying v.44 to Salvation in the Church Age, Calvinists conclude that, if God draws all men, then all men will be saved. Hence they conclude that God only draws the "elect", those whom He has given to the Son. (John 6:37).

Answer: Jesus explains the Father's drawing in v.44 by v.45: "They shall all be taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh to me." This is quoted from Isaiah 54:13 discussing restored Israel in the Millennium, not "elect" in the Church Age.

Key: Calvinists don't understand that in John 6:44 it is the Father who draws people to Christ during His 3 year ministry, but in John 12:32 it is Christ who draws all men to Himself after Calvary, along with the Holy Spirit's reproving work in the Church Age in John 16:7-11.

John 12:32 "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me."

John 16:7-11 "When he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment." Hence the Holy Spirit will reprove the world of sin, not just the "elect."

John 1:9 "That was the true light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world."

Key: Calvinists' error in John 6:44 is to:

i) misapply it from Christ's three-year ministry to Israel, to a doctrinal statement on salvation in the Church Age.

ii) make the Father's drawing irresistible and equate it with salvation in the Church Age. (Acts 7:51 shows God's Grace is resistable).

b. John 6:65 "No man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father."

(Same answer as John 6:44 above).

- c. John 12:39-40. See Isaiah 6:9,10. Calvinists use these verses to claim that some have the inability to believe because God has blinded their eyes by reprobation, proving that God hardens people. “Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again, He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.” (John 12:39-40).
Answer: This prophecy in Isaiah 6:9,10 is mentioned 5 times in the New Testament. (Matthew 13:14,15; Mark 4:52; Luke 8:10; John 12:39-40; Acts 28:25-27).
- i. These passages all refer to “this people”, which is the nation Israel (Act 28:26,27; Mat 13:15)
 - ii. Of these 5 NT occurrences, 2 cannot teach reprobation because the people closed their own eyes: “their eyes they have closed.” (Matthew 13:15; Acts 28:27).
 - iii. Israel shutting their eyes took place after they were born, not in eternity past.
 - iv. Note the order of events: John 12:37 “they believed not on him”, then v.39 “they could not believe.” They would not believe, so God gave them up, and now they could not believe.
Key: These passages teach the judicial hardening of a nation, not the sovereign hardening of individuals.
 - v. As further proof, notice where this prophecy appears:
 - in the Gospels, when the Jews rejected Christ and the mystery form of the Kingdom;
 - in John’s Gospel when the Jews rejected Christ and He finished his public dealings;
 - in Acts 28 when the Jews rejected Christ, and God turned to the Gentiles in the Church Age;
 - in Isaiah 6 it introduces the Tribulation when the Jews will accept a false Christ.
- d. Romans 3:11 “There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.”
- i. Paul is not teaching the inability of unsaved people to receive Christ, eg: Unregenerate Cornelius was a “devout man, and one that feareth God with all his house.” (Acts 10:2).
 - ii. Paul is not saying that people are unable to seek God. The Bible commands men to seek God (11 times): “Seek ye the Lord while he may be found ...” (Isaiah 55:6).
 The commands to seek God are not in vain:
 “I said not unto the seed of Jacob, seek ye me in vain.” (Isaiah 45:19).
 - iii. Seeking God is different from believing the Gospel, eg: A Jew who seeks God by keeping the Old Testament Law is just as lost as Gentiles who don’t seek God.
Question: If Total Depravity is not the reason men don’t seek God, then what is it?
Answer: Pride. Psalm 10:4 “The wicked, through the pride of his countenance will not seek after God.”
- e. I Corinthians 2:14 “But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.” Calvinists conclude here that faith is given by God, and is not our decision.
Answer: Receiving spiritual things and receiving Jesus Christ are two different things. The natural, unsaved man cannot discern the truth, beauty, wisdom, value and excellence of divine things, because he does not yet have the indwelling Holy Spirit. If he received Christ as his Saviour, he would then have the Holy Spirit, and would then be able to know and discern spiritual things. It doesn’t teach that he is unable ever to receive Christ, due to Total Inability or Election to hell.
Question: Is a man responsible for what he cannot do?
Answer: Yes and No. It depends on why he is unable. For example:
 A drugged man is accountable for his actions, only if he wilfully took drugs.
 A drugged man is not accountable for his actions, if he did not wilfully drug himself.
Key: Two kinds of Scriptures overthrow Total Depravity/Inability:
- a) Scriptures commanding people to believe:
 - “Look unto me and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth.” (Isaiah 45:22)
 - “Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden.” (Matthew 11:28)
 - “God ... now commandeth all men everywhere to repent.” (Acts 17:30).

Question: If Total Inability is true, is God mocking His creation by offering salvation to men, knowing that men could never take it? In Isaiah 45:19 God guarantees His offers are genuine: “I said not ... seek ye me in vain: I the Lord speak righteousness, I declare things that are right.” Erasmus said to Luther: “If it is not in the power of every man to keep what God commands, all God’s promises, threats, reproofs, blessings, curses and precepts are useless.”

b) Scriptures implying the possibility that a man can believe:

- “Ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.” (John 5:40).

- “Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved.” (I Thessalonians 2:16).

These verses show that if we preach to Gentiles, the possibility exists that some might be saved.

Key: If there exists the slightest possibility that a man could believe (as seen by “might”) then Total Inability is destroyed, because there are no possibilities in TULIP Calvinism.

UNCONDITIONAL ELECTION

Q1: Does God elect some men to salvation or not? (Key Issue).

Key Error of Calvinism: Calvinists confuse election and predestination with salvation.

Q2: Does God foreordain all things? Eg: the Fall, all sin, all suffering? Does God foreordain rape, murder, blasphemy, sodomy, incest, bestiality, burning babies, dismembering a concubine, Herod massacring two-year-olds? NO.

Q3: Why does God bring evil upon a people?

1) Because of their sins, not because of an arbitrary decree.

2) God didn’t decree their sins: “Which I commanded not nor spake it, neither came it into my mind.” (Jeremiah 19:5).

3) God’s holiness would not allow Him to author sin. God would never command a man to repent, then fix it so he couldn’t repent, in order to damn him.

Q4: Which Scripture calls predestination a Divine decree? NONE.

1) Of God’s 7 Decrees, none are eternal, or involve election or predestination. (Isaiah 10:1).

2) To Calvinists’ invented decrees, God says. “Woe unto them that decree unrighteous decrees.”

Key 1: Calvinists’ error is to exalt God’s sovereignty (arbitrariness) above all His other attributes, such as His holiness and justice.

Key 2: Calvinists’ error is to confuse God’s influence, direction, control and permission with God’s election, predestination, foreordination and decrees. God foreknows without foreordaining.

Key 3: Calvinists’ error is to read “foreordained” into statements discussing God’s control & influence.

Q5: Does God change His mind? YES.

1) God was going to kill Hezekiah, but changed His mind to add 15 years to his life. (Isaiah 38:5).

2) God repented of the evil He planned for Nineveh, because they turned from their evil. (Jonah 3:10).

3) Calvinists contradict their belief that God predestines our lifespan, by using medical advances to lengthen their lifespans. Some men “shall not live out half their days.” (Psalm 55:23).

“Why shouldst thou die before thy time?” (Ecclesiastes 7:17).

Q6: How could God decree and foreordain burning babies if it never came into His mind? Jerem. 19:5.

Q7: Why does sin take place? Because God foreordained it? NO, but because of:

1) Man’s depravity

2) God punishes people’s sins: “Behold, I will bring evil upon this place ... because they have forsaken me ...” (Jeremiah 19:3-5).

3) God clearly stated that He didn’t decree their sins: “Which I commanded not nor spake it” Jer 19:5

4) God permits it. Permit and decree are different concepts. Our responsibility is to “resist the devil and he will flee from you.” (James 4:7).

Q8: If predestination is a secret decree of God, how is it that Calvinists know so much about it? (Deuteronomy 29:29 “The secret things ...”)

Key: Ten examples of man’s free will in Scripture refute the Calvinist error that man’s actions have been foreordained from eternity past:

- 1) Free will offerings (16 in OT) show that after a person had made all the offerings prescribed by the Mosaic Law, he might out of gratitude to God give something extra: “Ye shall offer at your own will a male without blemish.” (Leviticus 22:19). The phrase “at your own will” teaches that he had the free will to give it or not give it.
- 2) Free will Journey to Jerusalem teaches that a man has free will: “I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel ... which are minded of their own free will to go up to Jerusalem, go with thee.” (Ezra 7:13).
- 3) Adam and Eve had free will: “of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat.” (Genesis 2:16).
- 4) The people and governors of Israel “willingly offered themselves” to defeat Sisera (Judges 5:2,9).
- 5) David encouraged Solomon to serve God with a “willing mind.” (I Chronicles 28:9).
- 6) In Nehemiah’s time some people “willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem” Neh. 11:2.
- 7) NT prayer promises are based on believers’ free will: “If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.” (John 15:7).
- 8) Paul preached willingly: “For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.” (I Corinthians 9:17).
- 9) Salvation is received by taking it of our own free will: “Whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.” (Revelation 22:17).
- 10) David exercised his free will when he praised God: “Accept, I beseech thee, the freewill-offerings of my mouth, O Lord ...” (Psalm 119:108).

Q9: Does prayer change things?

A: YES. Prayer proves that God has not predestined all things:

- 1) Moses’ prayer changed God’s mind about destroying Israel and Aaron. (Deuteronomy 9:18-29).
- 2) Hezekiah’s prayer changed God’s mind to lengthen his life by 15 years. (II Kings 20:1-6).
- 3) Elijah prayed for no rain, then later for rain. (James 5:17,18).
- 4) A righteous man’s effectual, fervent prayer availeth much. (James 5:16).

Key: God doesn’t foreordain all things because of:

- 1) Contingency verses showing the possibility of an event happening.
There are many things in Scripture that are not fixed or predestined:
 - a) If Christ’s works had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented. (Matt. 11:21).
 - b) “How often would I have gathered thy children together ... and ye would not.” (Luke 13:34).
 - c) “ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.” (John 5:30).
 - d) “Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved.” (I Thessalonians 2:16).
 - e) Many of God’s promises to Israel were conditional. (Deuteronomy 5:33; 6:23).
- 2) Chance disproves God’s foreordaining things. Does anything happen by chance? According to the Bible, some things do. “And by chance there came down a certain priest that way...” (Luke 10:31). “If a bird’s nest chance to be before thee in the way ...” (Deuteronomy 22:6).
This doesn’t mean that God doesn’t know what is going to happen, or has no control over His creation, but it does mean that there is no all-encompassing decree of predestination.
- 3) Common Sense rejects any foreordained all-encompassing decree. If “What will be, will be” were true, then nobody could avoid carrying out God’s eternal, sovereign, foreordained decree.

Q10: Would God be just in electing some and passing by the rest?

Answer: Did Jesus recommend the behaviour of the priest and levite who passed by the half-dead man in the Good Samaritan story? (Luke 10:30-34). NO. Jesus commands us to “go and do thou likewise” (Luke 10:37) as the Good Samaritan helped the man. Does Jesus practise what he preaches? Surely.

Key: Calvinists divert their opponents’ criticism by pitting Arminianism against Hyper-Calvinism, and then take Calvinism as a mediating position.

Note: Romans 9 is the Calvinists’ “haven of reprobation”, just as Proverbs is the Calvinists’ “haven of divine foreordination”.

Q11: How do we answer these verses which Calvinists use to teach God electing someone to hell?

- 1) Proverbs 16:4 “The Lord hath made all things for himself.. even the wicked for the day of evil.”

Answer: This teaches the use God makes of His creation, not the decisions He makes for them.

- Since God does all his pleasure (Isaiah 46:10) and has no pleasure in the death of the wicked (Ezekiel 33:11), then He could not have created a man wicked just to show His power by damning him.
- God has made all men the same in the sense of: “He fashioneth their hearts alike”.Psa 33:13-15
- God makes the wicked serve his own glory and purposes. “Surely, the wrath of man shall praise thee.” (Psalm 76:10).

2) II Thessalonians 5:9 “God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ.” Calvinists think this teaches that God has appointed some to wrath.

Answer:

- a) “Wrath” = 7 year Tribulation, not hell.
- b) “Salvation” = deliverance from the 7 year Tribulation by the rapture.
- c) “Appointed” = God’s will for Christians to be raptured, not God’s decree to save the “elect”.
- d) “The great day of his wrath is come” (Revelation 6:17) is the Tribulation (Revelation 6-19).
- e) The context of I Thessalonians 5:3 is “sudden destruction cometh upon them”.

3) I Peter 2:8 “And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient; whereunto also they were appointed.”

Calvinists think “some have been appointed (same word as I Thess. 5:9) unto disobedience”.

Answer: God appoints to destruction all those who reject Christ, stumbling at the rock of offence. (See Proverbs 31:8 “all such as are appointed to destruction.” The disobedience is defined in the context as unbelief (I Peter 2:7), just as obedience is defined as belief in Romans 10:16 (“they have not all obeyed the Gospel”).

4) II Peter 2:12 “But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption.”

Calvinists think that these “false prophets” and “false teachers” (II Peter 2:1) have been foreordained “to be taken and destroyed” before the foundation of the world.

Answer: In both II Peter 2:12 (“perish in their own corruption”) and Jude 10 (“as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves”) the corruption was their own doing. God never makes a man in a reprobate condition. Men are always reprobate because they’ve done something to earn it, as the next verse makes clear: “and shall receive the reward of unrighteousness.” (II Peter 2:13). A reward is something they earn. God “destroyed them that believe not.” (Jude 5).

5) II Peter 2:17 “to whom the mist of darkness is reserved forever.”

Jude 13 “to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness forever.”

Calvinists claim these people have been reserved for condemnation by a sovereign, eternal decree.

Q: Who is reserved?

Answer: False prophets and false teachers who deny the Lord (II Peter 2:1); ungodly (Jude 15); angels that sinned (II Peter 2:4; Jude 6); unjust (II Peter 2:9); wicked (II Peter 2:7), etc.

They were reserved in their lives after they committed wicked actions and because of their sins.

6) Jude 4 “For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained (Greek prographo – 4270) to this condemnation, ungodly men, ... denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.” Calvinists think these men were ordained of old to condemnation before the foundation of the world by a sovereign, eternal decree.

Answer:

Q1: When were they ordained?

Answer: During Enoch’s ministry. “Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these saying: Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.” (Jude 14,15).

Q2: Why were they ordained to condemnation? Answer: Because of their ungodly deeds.

Q3: How were they ordained? Answer: By Enoch.

Q4: What does “ordained” mean? Answer: Ordained (4270) = prographo (Greek) = to write previously, to announce. They were announced by Enoch, not foreordained by a sovereign, eternal decree from before the foundation of the world.

- 7) Isaiah 6:9,10 = Matthew 13:14,15. Calvinists think that some have inability to believe because God has blinded their eyes by reprobation, and hardened their hearts.

Answer:

- a) “This people” = the nation Israel.
b) “Their eyes they have closed” (Math 13:15; Acts 28:27). They deliberately closed their eyes.
c) In John 12:37 they did not believe. In John 12:39 they could not believe.
d) These 5 passages describe the judicial hardening of a nation not the sovereign hardening of individuals.
- 8) Romans 9:13 “Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.” Calvinists think Jacob was personally elected to salvation, and Esau was personally elected to eternal desolation (hell).

Answer:

- a) The purpose of God according to election (Romans 9:11) concerns service: “The elder shall serve the younger.” (Roman 9:12). This teaches national preference, not election to salvation.
b) Genesis 25:23 “Two nations are in thy womb ... the elder shall serve the younger.”
c) Romans 9:13 is quoted from Malachi 1:1-3, written 1400 years later:
“Yet I loved Jacob, and I hated Esau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste.”
In Genesis we have a prophetic statement looking forward.
In Malachi we have a historical statement looking backward.
d) Calvin admits that this refers to Jacob’s and Esau’s posterity (Institutes, p 930, III, xxi,7).
e) God didn’t hate Esau personally in eternity past. God hated him nationally after seeing his sins for 1400 years.
f) Jesus loved the rich young ruler who rejected him. (Mark 10:22).
- 9) Romans 9:18 “Pharaoh ... whom he will he hardeneth.”

Q: Were Pharaoh and Esau sovereignly hated from eternity? NO, because:

Answer:

- a) God raised up Pharaoh from sickness of boils (Exodus 9:11-16) not into existence.
b) Q: When does God harden a persons heart? From eternity or after he hardens his own heart? Pharaoh hardened himself first. (Exodus 8:15,32; 9:34) “Pharaoh hardened his heart.”
God reinforced Pharaoh’s decision by hardening him later.
- 10) Romans 9:22 “God...endured with much longsuffering, the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction.”

Q: Does God fit the non-elect to destruction by His foreordaining decrees?

Answer: No, because:

- a) The potter and the clay was a common Old Testament illustration (Isaiah 29:16; 45:9; 64:8; Jeremiah 18:1-6) yet it never referred to anyone’s salvation.
b) Jeremiah 18:1-10: Israel = clay; God = Potter; Marring of clay = Israel’s disobedience; God making clay again = God’s change of plans from good to evil discipline of Israel.
c) The individual determines what kind of vessel he will be. II Timothy 2:20,21 says, “If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, ... prepared unto every good work.” Vessels are made empty. God doesn’t make anyone honourable or dishonourable.
d) Israel as the vessels of wrath, fitted themselves to destruction, because they “stumbled at that stumblingstone” (Romans 9:32), were “guilty of the blood of Christ” (Matthew 27:25) and were “enemies of the Gospel.” (Romans 11:28).
e) Key: All men are “vessels of wrath” (Eph. 2:3), but God will have mercy on all who receive Christ. (Romans 11:32 “Have mercy on all”; and I Peter 2:10 “but now obtained mercy.”)
f) Calvinist error in Romans 9 is in reading sovereign personal election and reprobation, into a passage teaching national election of Israel to service, and God disciplining Israel for their sins.
g) Conclusion: When a man is reserved, appointed, ordained or fitted to destruction, it is always because of something evil he did, not by an eternal decree of reprobation.

SEVEN KINDS OF UNCONDITIONAL ELECTION “PROOF” TEXTS

Key: The fallacy of Unconditional Election is that they divide mankind into two groups: the “elect” and the “reprobate”.

Answer:

- 1) God has made all men the same because of Psalm 33:13-15: “He beholdeth all the sons of men ... he fashioneth their hearts alike”. Hence, there is no such thing as the “elect” or “reprobate”.
- 2) There is no such thing as God’s one, eternal, sovereign, all encompassing decree.
- 3) Salvation is not limited to the “elect”:
 - John 7:37 “If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.”
 - Acts 10:43 “whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.”
 - Romans 9:33 “whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.”
 - I John 5:1 “Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God.”
 - Revelation 22:17 “Whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.”

- 1) God’s People – Acts 18:10 “I have much people in this city.”

Q: Did God have a predetermined number of unsaved people in Corinth waiting to be saved by Irresistable Grace? NO, because:

- a) They were not unsaved elect, because unsaved people are never spoken of as God’s people, but as “children of disobedience.” (Ephesians 2:2).
- b) The “much people” are defined in v.1-9 as Aquila and Priscilla (v.2); Jews and Greeks (v.4); Silas and Timothy (v.5); Justus (v.7); Crispus (v.8); and many Corinthians who heard, believed and were baptized (v.8).

- 2) Book of Life – Revelation 13:8 and 17:8

Q: Are the names of the “elect” written in the Lamb’s Book of Life, and those of the “non-elect” not written there? “Whose names are not written in the book of life of the lamb slain from the foundation of the world.” (Revelation 13:8).

Answer: Everybody’s name is written in the Book of Life at birth. When they wilfully reject Christ, their names are blotted out of the Book of Life. (Revelation 3:5; 22:19).

- 3) God’s Sheep – John 10:14-16,26

Q: Are God’s sheep the “elect” before they are born?

Answer:

- a) If the elect are sheep before they believe, they already have eternal life, were never goats and contradicts the truth that all are born “dead in trespasses and sins.” (Ephesians 2:1).
- b) Q: Who are the sheep? Answer: Israel according to Jesus (Matthew 10:6; 15:24); Micaiah (I Kings 22:17); David (Psalm 79:13; 95:7); Jeremiah (Jeremiah 23:1; 50:6,17); and Ezekiel. “Go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.” (Matthew 10:6).
- c) When Christ came, his sheep like Simeon, Anna, Zacharias, Elizabeth, the Shepherds and the disciples, knew Him, followed Him and received eternal life.

- 4) Given to Salvation.

Q: Does the Father give the “elect” to the Son?

John 6:37 “All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh ...”

John 6:39 “Of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing ...”

John 17:2 “He should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.”

John 17:6 “Thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.” (v. 9,11,12,24).

Calvinists presume that only those whom the Father gives to Christ can come to Him.

Answer: This was not a sovereign, eternal decree for all believers, because:

- a) One of those given to Christ was a devil (John 6:70) who was lost (John 17:12).
- b) John 6:37,45 The Father gave to Christ those who believe (v.45).
“Every man that hath heard and learned of the Father, cometh to me.”
- c) John 17:6. Christ manifested His name unto the “men which thou gavest me”.

- Christ hasn't manifested His name to anyone since then.
- Those given to Christ were men. Are all women lost? NO.
- Have all Christians kept God's Word? NO. "They have kept thy word." (John 17:6).
- d) John 17:8,14. Christ personally gave them the Father's Words. We have the Bible, but Christ didn't personally give them to us.
- e) Conclusion: Those the Father gave to the Son during His earthly ministry were the little flock of Jewish disciples, known as apostles, and his sheep. (John 10:27,29).

5) Ordained to Salvation

Acts 13:48 "And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed."

Calvinists think this teaches U,L,I and that every saved person was "ordained to eternal life" before the foundation of the world by a sovereign, eternal decree.

Answer:

- a) "Ordained" (Greek: tetagmenoi, a form of *tasso*⁵⁰²¹) means that the Gentiles were THEN disposed, and determined to embrace eternal life, by the Holy Spirit influencing their hearts. It does not refer to an eternal decree of election, but that they then experienced and submitted to the drawing power of the Holy Spirit to salvation. (See Barnes, Adam Clarke, A T Robertson, Ralph Earle, and many others).
- b) The Greek root word is tasso (appoint, incline, dispose), not proorizo (predestine, decree beforehand), not protasso (appoint before) and not diatasso (a strengthened form of tasso).
- c) The word "ordain" is never used in Scripture to describe an unconditional, sovereign, eternal decree, eg: Judas was "ordained" with the other 11 disciples (Mark 3:14), yet he turned out to be a devil (John 6:70).
- d) Acts 13:48 says "ordained", not "foreordained".

6) Chosen to Salvation – Matthew 20:16 and 22:14

Calvinists after "chosen", add "to salvation". If Calvinists see "chosen" or "choose", they always read it as unconditionally, sovereignly, eternally elected to salvation.

- i) Matthew 22:14 "For many be called, but few chosen."

Q: Doesn't this say that God only chooses a few to be saved, that they experience irresistible grace, and that everyone gets a general call, but only a few get an effectual call?

Answer:

- a) NO. It teaches that the great mass of people in the time of Christ who had been called, had rejected the mercy of God in Christ, so God didn't choose them. A garment had been provided for this man by the King, but he had refused or neglected to wear it. This man's lack of a wedding garment was inexcusable, as proven by his speechlessness.
- b) This pictures unlimited atonement because:
 - the custom was for the host to provide wedding garments.
 - his speechlessness and lack of excuse prove his guilt and personal responsibility, not the King's fault.
- c) The ones chosen were "bid to the marriage" (Matthew 22:9), not fore-ordained to go. They were chosen because they accepted the invitation.
- ii) Matthew 20:16 The parable of the householder hiring vineyard labourers relates to service and rewards, not election to salvation. Christ calls many to service, but few are chosen to big ministries. Christ calls some to be more useful than others, without regard to their length of service. Christ will reward them accordingly. Matthew 20:16 concerns labourers, but salvation is a gift (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8).
- iii) John 15:16 "Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit .." Christ chooses his disciples to bear fruit, not to be saved. Calvinists' error here is seen from John 6:70, "Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil", and Mark 3:13-14 "He ordained twelve, that they should be with him." By reading Unconditional Election into these verses, we get a sovereignly elected, irresistibly called, ordained devil.

- iv) Acts 9:15 “He (Paul) is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles.”
Acts 22:14 “The God of our Fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldst know His will, and see that Just One, and hear the voice of his mouth.”
 Paul was not chosen to salvation, but he was chosen - to bear the Lord’s name (Acts 9:15);
 - to know God’s will (Acts 22:14);
 - to see Christ and hear his voice (Acts 22:14);
 - to be a minister and a witness (Acts 26:16);
 - to open the Gentiles’ eyes and turn them to God (Acts 26:18). Calvinists miss the context.
- v) Galatians 1:15,16 “God who separated me from my mother’s womb.”
 a) Un.El. is supposed to be from eternity, but these verses say it is from their mother’s womb.
 b) Paul was separated on another occasion (Acts 13:2).
- vi) I Peter 2:9 “But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you ...”
 a) It is not said when or why this choosing took place.
 b) This fourfold description of NT church is quoted from God’s fourfold description of OT Israel. Exodus 19:6 “Ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, an holy nation. . . to the children of Israel.” Deut. 14:2 “the Lord hath chosen thee to be a peculiar people unto himself, above all the nations.”
Key: Calvinists have completely missed and overlooked the fact that as the nation of Israel was corporately elected as a body, so also was the church corporately elected as a body. (Ephesians 1:22,23; Colossians 1:18). The election of the church is a corporate matter rather than an individual thing. It is not that individuals are in the church because they are elect. It is rather that individuals are elect because they are in the church.
Individuals are not the subject here, but the church, as a collective body is.
Key: As God did not choose each individual Jew to be one of the elect, so God does not choose each individual Christian to be one of the elect – Christians are born into it. No unsaved man was ever elected to anything.
Key: The basic error of Calvinism is to think election is to salvation.
- vii) Psalm 65:4 “Blessed is the man whom thou chooseth . . . that he may dwelt in thy courts . . . of thy house, even of thy holy temple.”
 a) This discusses God’s courts, God’s house, God’s temple, not salvation.
 b) The time of choosing and NT salvation are not discussed.
- viii) James 2:5 “Hath not God chosen the poor of this world, rich in faith, heirs of the kingdom..”
Answer: Is every welfare recipient “elect” and “chosen to salvation”?
 It means that the poor are more receptive to the gospel than the rich.
- ix) II Thessalonians 2:13 “God hath from the beginning (Gk: ap arche) chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth.”
 a) “from the beginning” (ap arche as in Acts 26:4) is different from “from eternity” (ap aionos as in Acts 15:18) as God did not choose the Thessalonians from eternity past, but from the beginning of when Paul left Philippi. “Now ye Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the Gospel, when I departed from Macedonia . . .” (Philippians 4:15,16). Paul defines “the beginning of the gospel” as when he left Philippi to begin his departure from the province of Macedonia. God chose that the Thessalonians would hear the gospel from the beginning of Paul’s departure from Philippi (II Thessalonians 2:13), when Christ gave Paul the Macedonian call in Acts 16:10 and 17:1-4 in 53 AD, and not by a sovereign decree in eternity past.
 b) The conditions of God saving the Thessalonians are “sanctification of the Spirit (God’s part) and belief/obedience of the truth of Christ (man’s part).”
x) I Peter 1:2 is a similar passage: “Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ.”
 c) Calvinists err saying that “from the beginning” means “from before the beginning of the world”
 d) In Calvinism the “elect” are all put in Christ in eternity past, but in the Bible no-one is put in Christ until he is saved. “Salute Andronicus & Junia..who also were in Christ before me.” Rom16:7

- xi) Ephesians 1:4. Calvinists use Ephesians 1:4 and II Thessalonians 2:13 to teach Unconditional Election to salvation in eternity past. “According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love.” (Eph 1:4).
 - a) We are chosen not to be saved, but to be holy and without blame.
 - b) Key: God chose that whoever was in Christ would be “blessed with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places” (v.3) and be “holy and without blame before him in love.”
- xii) II Timothy 1:9 “Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began.”

Q: When did God give us saving grace? In eternity past (Calvinism) or when we got “in Christ” (Bible)?

Answer: Grace was not physically given to any man “before the world began”, because there were no men around to give it to. Grace was “given to us in Christ Jesus”.

Key: God deposited grace in Christ before the world began, but it was only given to us when we got “in Christ”.

- xiii) Jeremiah 31:3 “Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love; therefore with lovingkindness have I drawn thee”. The error of the “eternal union” of the “elect” with Christ is based on uniting the phrases “in him” (Ephesians 1:4) and “in Christ Jesus” (II Timothy 1:9) with “before the foundation of the world” (Ephesians 1:4) and “before the world began” (II Timothy 1:9) to teach that the “elect” were in Christ before the world began.

Answer:

- a) The problem Calvinists create for themselves is that, before “the elect” got “in Adam” (I Cor. 15:22) they already had a relationship with Christ. This means that according to Calvinism:
 - The Fall didn’t affect the elect;
 - One can be “dead in sin” and yet be “in Christ” at the same time;
 - No elect have ever been in danger of going to hell;
 - Before God, His people are justified from eternity past.
- b) This nonsense is a complete overthrow of the gospel, meaning that the elect were never lost.
Key: The Fall affected all men equally: “death passed upon all men”. (Romans 5:12).
- c) No-one was ever “in Christ” until his salvation. “Salute Andronicus and Junia, ... who were in Christ before me”. (Romans 16:7).
- d) If the elect were always children of God, they could never have been “children of the devil” or “children of wrath”. (Ephesians 2:3).

Conclusion: In Calvinism, the elect are all put in Christ at the same time, in eternity past.

In the Bible, no-one is put in Christ until he is saved.

- xiv) I Timothy 5:21 “I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels.”
 - a) “Elect” cannot refer to holy angels, because they never fell to be elected back to holiness.”
 - b) God chose the angels that didn’t fall. Hence they are called or appraised as “elect angels.”

Question: How is Jesus Christ Elect when He never sinned?

Answer: When “elect” is applied to Christ, it shows His value & worth, not His selection to salvation.

Isaiah 42:1 “Behold my servant, whom I uphold; mine elect ...” (Matthew 12:18).

I Peter 2:6 “Behold I lay in Sion a chief Corner stone, elect, precious.” (Isaiah 28:16).

ISRAEL is still called “ELECT” in the New Testament.

1. Matthew 24:22,24,31 “but for the elect’s sake those days shall be shortened.” (v.22).
“if it were possible they shall deceive the very elect.” (v.24). “they shall gather his elect from the four winds”. (v.31). Those addressed are not “elect sinners” waiting to be saved by Irresistible Grace, but Jewish saints in the future 7 year Tribulation. (v.21,29).
2. II Timothy 2:10 “I endure all things for the elect’s sakes, that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus ...” This refers to elect Israelites, not unsaved “elected” Gentiles. If the elect were elected before the foundation of the world, they could never miss salvation, whether Paul preached it or not. To believe that Paul strove, laboured, endured beatings, stonings, jail, shipwreck, pain, hunger and cold, for the elect who would certainly be saved, is nonsense.

3. Luke 18:7,8 “Shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them.”

Q: Who are these elect? When, why, and how they were elected is not said. The elect are likely to be suffering saints in the Tribulation, crying out to God for revenge. (Revelation 6:9,10). This verse concerns prayer (Luke 18:1), not a sovereign, eternal decree.

4. Romans 9:11,12 “that the purpose of God according to election might stand, ... it was said unto her, The elder shall serve the younger. The purpose of God according to election is service, not salvation or reprobation. It concerns the election of the Messianic line to come through Abraham, Isaac and Jacob to Jesus Christ.
5. Romans 11:28 “As touching the election, they are beloved.” This refers to the corporate election of the whole nation Israel, and has nothing to do with salvation.
6. Romans 11:5,7 “at this present time there is a remnant according to the election of grace. (v.5). Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded”. (v.7). Calvinists see Unconditional Election to salvation here because these verses concern only a portion of Israel.

Answer: The “remnant according to the election of grace” (v.5) refers to the 7000 men reserved to God who had not bowed the knee to the image of Baal (v.4).

Question: Why were these 7000 men reserved to God?

Answer: Because they had not bowed to Baal, not because of a decree of Unconditional Election. Only the remnant of Israel who sought righteousness by faith participated in the “election of grace”

The CHURCH is called “ELECT” nine (9) times in the New Testament.

These have nothing to do with any decree of God:

1. I Peter 5:13 “The church that is at Babylon, electd together with you saluteth you.”
Answer: The church at Babylon as a body is elected. No individual is said to be elected. Nothing is said about when, how or why anyone was elected.
2. I Thessalonians 1:4 “Kowing brethren beloved, your election of God.”
Answer: No mention of when, why, or how of this election; no eternal decree. It refers to how the Thessalonians received the Gospel by God electing Paul to go to Macedonia. (Acts 16:9,10).
3. II Peter 1:10 “Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall.”
Key: This verse destroys TULIP Calvinism because calling comes first, then election after. Pink panicked at this verse because all his life he taught the opposite, that election comes first, and calling later.
Question: How could anyone “give diligence” to make sure a supposedly irresistible, sovereign, eternal decree that was already sure to happen?
Key: This calling and election relate to service, not to salvation.
4. The word “elect” is applied to Christians 6 times. None say that this election is a decree of God; none say it is eternal; none say it is unconditional, and none say it results in salvation. The word “elect” here is just a title for NT Christians, showing our value, worth, appraisal and assessment. This is the same use of “elect” as applied to Jesus Christ and angels:
Romans 8:33 “Who shall lay anything to the charge of God’s elect?”
Colossians 3:12 “Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved...”
Titus 1:1 “Paul, a servant of God ... according to the faith of God’s elect”.
I Peter 1:2 “Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through ...”.
II John 1 “The elder unto the elect lady, and her children”.
II John 13 “The children of thy elect sister greet thee”.
Key: Whenever Calvinists see “elect”, they read into the text their doctrine of an eternal, sovereign, irresistible, unconditional election to salvation. The above verses show that no-one is elect until they are saved. Believers are described as elect, holy, justified, beloved and having faith. None of those are true of believers from eternity past.

Question: How do Calvinists build a case for eternal, unconditional election?

Answer: They read it into every verse where election is found, and follow these verses:

- a) I Peter 1:2 since salvation is mentioned with election, and change foreknowledge to fore-ordination.
- b) Romans 8:29,30 They link predestination here with
- c) Ephesians 1:4,5 containing “predestinate”, “chosen” & “before the foundation of the world”.
- d) II Thessalonians 2:13 “God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation”, while not quoting the rest of the verse showing two parts to salvation.
- e) Acts 13:48 “as many as were ordained to eternal life believed”, without checking the Greek meaning of “ordained”, or when this ordaining took place.
- f) Romans 9,10,11 to teach election to hell.

Question: Predestination What does the Bible say we are predestined to?

- 1) Son-placing in heaven (Ephesians 1:5), “Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children” (Greek: huiiothesia = son-placing).
- 2) Praise His glory (Ephesians 1:11,12).
- 3) Conformed to the image of His Son in heaven (Romans 8:29,30).

Key: a) Predestination is never called a decree of God or takes place before the foundation of the world.
b) No-one is said to be predestined to salvation or to hell.

Question: Do non-elect dead infants go to hell?

False Conclusions of Unconditional Election:

- 1) God has predestined the “non-elect” to hell before the foundation of the world.
- 2) Fatalism: Nothing can happen in time which will make the slightest difference.
- 3) Shaky Assurance of Salvation in mysterious eternal decree of election, instead of in Bible promises
- 4) Missions and evangelism: If the number of elect and reprobate are fixed, what difference could it make to send or to withhold missionaries, or to go soul winning?
- 5) Confusing Terminology.
- 6) Making all preaching vain, destroys holiness, destroys religious comfort, destroys zeal for good works, destroys Christian revelation by fatal contradictions.

Question: Did God intend to save all men, or did He not?

LIMITED ATONEMENT

Calvinists’ 5 Arguments for Limited Atonement

- 1) A universal atonement demands a universal salvation.
- 2) Double jeopardy – if God laid all man’s sins on Christ, the lost would be punished twice for their sins: once on Christ, and a second time in hell.
- 3) Universal atonement doesn’t actually save anyone.
- 4) Adam’s sin brought condemnation to all. Christ’s righteousness only secured the salvation of those He died for.
- 5) The sin of unbelief.

Answer to each: These false conclusions are based on the false premise that Christ’s Atonement and its Application are the same thing.

Calvinists confuse the Provision of a Saviour with our Applying of Salvation.

Calvinists say that the “elect” were actually saved, redeemed, reconciled and justified at the instant of the Atonement.

Question: Then how is it that the “elect” were born “dead in trespasses and sins”? (Ephesians 2:1), and were by nature “children of wrath”? (Eph. 2:1). If Calvinists object to this conclusion, the only alternative is unlimited atonement.

Old Testament Examples proving the Atonement and its Application are Different:

- 1) The blood of the Passover Lamb became efficacious only after it was applied to the doorposts as God instructed (Exodus 12:6-22).

Key 1: The death of the lamb saved no-one. The blood had to be applied. Christ's death is complete but conditional. Universal provision (Hebrews 2:9) and individual application (John 1:12; Romans 10:13) of Christ's atonement are two different things.

Key 2: The answer to Calvinists' 5 arguments for Limited Atonement is that they fail to distinguish between Christ's universal provision and the need for individual application of the atonement.

Key 3: Calvinist argument (1) about a universal atonement demanding a universal salvation disappears when we see that the "elect" did not exist when Christ died on the cross.

Q: How can the elect be saved before they were born?

Those who were snake bitten in the wilderness had to leave their tent and deliberately look at the brass serpent on a pole to be healed. Setting up the brass serpent saved no-one. They had to individually apply its healing power by looking. Those who didn't apply it, died (Numbers 21:5-9). Jesus endorsed this need for individual application in John 3:14,15.

Calvinist Argument 3 Refuted: If nobody after 33 AD availed themselves of Christ's universal atonement, Christ's atonement was effectual for Old Testament saints:

"And for this cause he is the mediator of the New Testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance." (Hebrews 9:15).

Calvinist Argument 4 Refuted: Although Adam's sin was universal and unrefuseable, Romans 5:17 states that Christ's gift must be received: "they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life ..."

Key: A major blunder of Calvinists is to inconsistently redefine Many, All men and All in Romans 5:15,18 and Isaiah 53:6.

1) Romans 5:15 "For if through the offence of one MANY be dead (Calvinists agree "many" = all), much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace ... hath abounded unto MANY".

Calvinists say that the first "many" = "all", but the second "many" = "not all" but only the "elect".

2) Romans 5:18 "As by the offence of one, judgment came upon ALL MEN to condemnation (Calvinists agree that "all men" = all); even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon ALL MEN unto justification of life". Calvinists contradict themselves, saying that the first "all men" = "all", but the second "all men" = "not all" but "elect". Note the phrase "even so".

1) Isaiah 53:6 "All we (any) like sheep have gone astray (Calvinists agree that "all" = "all"); we have turned every one to his own way (Calvinists agree "everyone" = "all"); and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all". (Calvinists want this "all" to mean "not all", but "the elect"). Calvinists third contradiction, says that the first "all" = "all", but the last "all" = "not all".

Conclusion: The second many, all men and all must be interpreted as the first many, all men and all to prove unlimited atonement in Romans 5:15,18 and Isaiah 53:6.

Calvinist Argument 5 Refuted: Why does God demand that men believe, if Christ died for and removed the sin of unbelief as Calvinists claim? "he that believeth not is condemned already". John 3:18

Christ dying for "all men", "all", and "the world" refute Limited Atonement Calvinists redefine "world" and "all men" to defend Limited Atonement:

I. CHRIST DIED FOR THE WORLD

Calvinists quote "the world is gone after him" (John 12:19) (an example of hyperbole or exaggeration) to prove that "world" doesn't always mean "all men", but only the "elect".

Answer:

1) In John's Gospel the word "world" occurs 89 times, but never refers to the "elect". (eg: "The world hates Christ" in John 7:7).

2) John 1:29 "Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world."

3) John 6:33 "The bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, & giveth life unto the world."

2) John 3:16 "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

Note: If "world" here means "elect", some of the "elect" may not believe, and hence perish.

3) John 4:42 "This is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world."

4) John 6:51 "My flesh, which I will give for the life of the world."

- 5) In Paul's letters, the word "world" occurs 69 times, and is used in several different senses, but never refers to the "elect".
- 6) Paul differentiates between "us" believers and the "world" in:
 - a) Galatians 1:4 "Who gave himself for our sins that he might deliver us from this present evil world."
 - b) II Corinthians 5:19 "God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation".
The "elect" could not have been reconciled at the cross, because:
 - i) They did not exist then; ii) They were still in their sins until salvation.
 - iii) Paul in 60 AD is still beseeching lost people to be reconciled to God.
- 9) I John 2:2 states that Christ died for the world as an unlimited atonement: "he is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world". This demolishes limited atonement. Calvinists think "our sins" refers to Jewish believers, and "world" means "Gentile unbelievers". This is wrong because:
 - a) I John is addressed to "you that believe on the name of the Son of God". (I John 5:13).
 - b) "Our" in I John 2:2 has fellowship with the Father and His Son Jesus Christ (I John 2:1).
 - c) "Our" has "an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous." (I John 2:1).
 - d) The words Jew and Gentile do not occur in I John. John makes no such distinction here.
 - e) In I John the word "world" occurs 23 times, and never refers to the "elect" (eg, "love not the world/elect"?) (I John 2:15).
 - f) John contrasts Christians and the world as two groups:
"We know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness." (I John 5:19).
Hence Christ is the propitiation of John's sins; the sins of the believers he wrote to, and the sins of the whole world.
- 10) I John 4:4 "The Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world."

Calvinist Objection: Is John 11:49-52 a parallel passage to I John 2:2?

"Caiaphas, being the high priest ... said ... that Jesus should die for that nation; and not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad." (John 11:49-52).

Question: Who are the "children of God"? Calvinists think they are the church who were chosen by God before the foundation of the world.

Answer: "Children of God" here refers to all the Jewish race scattered abroad being gathered from dispersion abroad into one body, after Christ's second coming. Why Israel? Because:

1. The term "children of God" was an ancient title for Israelites:
 - "Ye are the children of the Lord your God." (Deuteronomy 14:1).
 - "all of you are children of the Most High." (Psalm 82:6).
 - "I will say..bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth." Isaiah 43:6
2. John meant only Jews who were dispersed among all nations since Rome conquered Judea. These are called the dispersed in:
 - "to the 12 tribes which are scattered abroad." (James 1:1).
 - "will he go unto the dispersed among the Gentiles?" (John 7:35).
3. The meaning is: "Christ would die, not only for the then inhabitants of Judea, but for all the Jewish race scattered abroad. This would result in all Jews being gathered from dispersion abroad into one body, after Christ's second coming.
4. Question: If Christ died for the whole Jewish nation as prophesied by Caiaphas, then according to Limited Atonement, all Jews would have to be saved.
5. The phrase "children of God" never refers to members of the church until they are saved:
"For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus" (Galatians 3:26). Before salvation, the "elect" were "children of wrath" (Eph. 2:3) and "children of disobedience" (Coloss. 3:6).
6. Question: If a person was a child of God, why would he need an atonement?

II. CHRIST DIED FOR ALL MEN

Calvinists say that “all” doesn’t mean “all” but only “elect” as seen by “hated of all men”. Matt 10:22.

Answer:

1. This is hyperbole, meaning “an exaggerated statement not meant to be taken literally”.
 2. We agree that “all” is used in different senses, but we disagree that “all” ever means “elect”.
- Christ’s atonement was for all men, as seen from:

1. Isaiah 53:6 “All we like sheep have gone astray: we have turned everyone to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all”. The last “all” is just as extensive as the first “all”, and “everyone”. “All” means the same in both places. The context defines “all” as “everyone”. Question: Have all men gone astray, or have only some of them? ALL HAVE!
2. II Corinthians 5:14,15 “For the love of Christ constraineth us (“elect”) because we (“elect”) thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead. And that he died for all, that they which live (saved people) should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again”.

Calvinists limit “all” to the “elect”, but “all” here means “all men” as seen by:

- a) The “elect” are already mentioned as “us” and “we”, so the 3 “alls” must mean all men.
 - b) After the restrictive “us” & “we” in v.14, “all” is used 3 times in a universal, unlimited way
 - c) The restrictive phrase “that they which live” (v.15) implies that not everyone of the “all” for whom Christ died, lives.
3. II Timothy 2:1-6 “I exhort...that...prayers be made for all men, for Kings,...for all that are in authority; that we (“elect”) may lead...God our Saviour; who will have all men to be saved, ... the man Christ Jesus; who gave himself a ransom for all”.

Ransom for “all” does not mean a “ransom for the elect” because:

- a. Three “alls” do not mean “elect”, because the “elect” is described by “we”.
 - b. The mediator is between “God and men”, not between “God and the elect”.
4. I Timothy 4:10 “living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe”.
- Key: This contrast between “all men” and “those that believe” occurs in 4 places:
- a. I Timothy 4:10 “Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.”
 - b. Galatians 6:10 “Let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.”
 - c. Romans 3:22 “Even the righteousness of God, which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all (100% of mankind) and upon all them that believe” (the ‘elect’).
 - d. Titus 2:11,12 “For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared unto all men (100% of mankind), teaching us (the “elect”) that, denying ungodliness ...”
5. Hebrews 2:9 “he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.”

Calvinist Objection: “The original Greek here does not use the word “man” but says, “for every”.

Answer:

- a. Calvinists take advantage of most people’s ignorance of Greek grammar. Like any adjective, demonstrative, participle, or prepositional phrase, the word “every” is used substantively, ie: “every” is used by itself because the noun “man” is so commonly and obviously understood to be meant, for example:
 - Luke 6:30 “Give to every (man) that asketh thee.”
 - Romans 12:3 “To every (man) that is among you.”
 - I Peter 3:15 “Be ready to give an answer to every (man).”
 - Revelation 22:18 “I testify unto every (man) that heareth.”
- b. The singular (every man) brings out far more strongly than the plural (all men) would, the applicability of Christ’s death to each individual man.
- c. The starting thought is “what is man?” (Hebrews 2:6), not “what are the elect?”

III. CHRIST DIED FOR HIS PEOPLE, SHEEP, CHURCH OF GOD, MANY

Calvinists presume that, if Christ died for a particular group (the “elect”), then He died for no-one else, hoping this proves limited atonement. Consider these examples:

1. Many: “The Son of Man came ... to give his life a ransom for many.” (Matthew 20:28).
“This is my blood ... which is shed for many for the remission of sins.” (Matthew 26:28).
“Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many.” (Hebrews 9:28).

Calvinist Objection: “Christ did not give His life a ransom for all, but for many”.
Every Calvinist presumes “many” = “elect”.

Ans: “Many” is used because it better contrasts with “one”. “Many” sometimes means “all”:
“the offence of one many be dead...the gift hath abounded unto many”. (Romans 5:15).
“As by one man’s disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous”. (Romans 5:19).

Question: Did Adam’s fall affect all or only some of his descendants? ALL.

2. His People: Calvinists presume that “his people” here are the “elect”, eg: “He shall save his people from their sins.” (Matthew 1:21).

Question: Who are “his people”? Answer: ISRAEL.

- “A Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.” (Matthew 2:6).

- ”Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed his people.” Luke 1:68

3. Sheep: “I lay down my life for the sheep.” (Israel). (John 10:15).

Question: Who are the “sheep”? Answer: ISRAEL, because:

“Go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.” (Matthew 10:6).

“I am not sent but to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.” (Matthew 15:24).

Key: If Christ died for all Israel, & some were lost, this proves Christ’s atonement was unlimited.

Conclusion: Calvinists claim that Christ only died for a particular group is proven false because:

a) The Bible never states that Christ died only for these groups to the exclusion of all others.

b) These groups are not the same, that is, Israel is not the church.

c) Using this same false Calvinist reasoning, one could conclude that Christ died:

- only for Paul, “who loved me, and gave himself for me.” (Galatians 2:20).

- only for weak believers: “the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died.” I Corinthians 8:11.

Key: There are other groups in Scripture for whom Christ died that Calvinists don’t want to discuss, because they prove unlimited atonement.

4. Those Christ died for who will ultimately go to Hell. “But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.” (II Peter 2:1).

Not only is Jesus Christ the Saviour (I Timothy 4:15) and Redeemer (I Timothy 2:6) of the world, but he bought the false prophets and false teachers, paying for their sins as well.

Despotes (Gk: “Lord”) in 2 Peter 2:1 is used of Christ in 2 Tim. 2:21 “meet for the master’s use.”

Key: The same word “bought” is used elsewhere of Christ: “Ye are bought with a price” I Cor6:20

5. Those groups Christ died for that describe everybody, all mankind.

- Luke 19:10 “The Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.”

Are all lost? YES. Are only the “elect” lost? NO.

- Romans 5:6 “Christ died for the ungodly.”

Are all ungodly? YES. Are only the “elect” ungodly? NO, all are.

- Galatians 4:5 “To redeem them that were under the law.”

Are all under the law? YES. Are only the “elect” under the law? NO.

- I Timothy 1:15 “Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.”

Are we all born sinners? YES. Are only the “elect” sinners? NO.

- I Peter 3:18 “Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust.”

Are all unjust? YES. Are only the “elect” unjust? NO.

Key: If Christ died for the lost, the ungodly, those under the law, sinners, and the unjust, then He made an unlimited atonement, for that is the condition of all men, not just the elect.

6. Christ died for His Friends. “Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.” (John 15:13). Question: Who are Christ’s friends? Answer: Judas was one of Christ’s friends, yet Judas was non-elect. “Jesus said unto him, Friend..” (Matthew 26:50).
7. Christ died for “whosoever believeth” may claim Christ’s atonement and be saved, proving “unlimited atonement”. -Acts 10:43 “Whosoever believeth in him shall not be ashamed.”
- Romans 1:16 “Gospel of Christ is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth”
 - Romans 10:11 “whosoever believeth in him shall not be ashamed.”
 - Romans 10:13 “whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.”
 - I John 5:1 “whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God.”
 - Revelation 22:17 “whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.”
- Key: There are no “whosoever wills” in Limited Atonement.
Key: Calvin rejected Limited Atonement as seen in 4 quotes.
Key: If no offer can be made to the “non-elect”, and the elect are sure to be saved, then all preaching is not only vain and useless, but an absolute, total and complete waste of time.

Conclusion: The Calvinist debate about Limited Atonement is a smokescreen to conceal the true nature of Calvinism, which says that God by a sovereign, eternal decree of Unconditional Election has consigned billions of people to hell before their birth. To make it certain, God has given them Total Depravity so that they will be unable to receive Irresistable Grace, which will not even be offered to them, since Christ did not make a Limited Atonement for them.

PERSEVERANCE OF THE SAINTS. Question: How do Calvinists know if they are saved?

Answer: Only if they persevere in holiness to the end, not by Bible promises.

God’s preserving in salvation is not the same thing as the saints persevering outwardly in the faith.

Key: POTS is not the same as eternal security. Calvinists view on POTS is the same as Arminians.

Key: Contrary to salvation by perseverance (Calvinism), the Bible teaches salvation by believing.

Key: Calvinists and Arminians both wrongly presume that:

- a) The castaway in 1 Corinthians 9:24-27 lost his salvation.
- b) “He that endureth to the end shall be saved” (Matthew 10:22;24:13) says that one’s salvation is only sure by enduring to the end of one’s life.
- c) “continue in them for thou shalt save thyself and them that hear thee.” (1 Timothy 4:16).

Key: Calvinists call any opponent an Arminian, no matter what they believe.

Key: Because eternal security is so often equated with POTS, Calvinists coerce Christians who believe in eternal security into accepting all five points of Calvinism. This is done by implying that a rejection of election and predestination (as taught by Calvinists) is a rejection of eternal security.

Key: The NT teaches that some Christians may not persevere, but:

1. Become barren and unfruitful (2 Peter 1:8),
2. Be ashamed when Christ returns (1 John 2:28),
3. Hymaneus and Alexander who were delivered to Satan (1 Timothy 1:20),
4. Demas forsook Paul having loved this present world (2 Timothy 4:10),
5. Just Lot (2 Peter 2:7), righteous Lot (2 Peter 2:8), last seen drunk in a cave committing incest with his two daughters (Genesis 19:33,36). Did Lot persevere in faith? No.
6. A righteous man can turn from his righteousness and never return back. “When the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity.” (Ezekiel 18:24).

Key: Scriptures exhorting believers to persevere and practise good works, (not to keep salvation) have no meaning if all Christians are sure to persevere;

- a) Jude 1:21 “Keep yourselves in the love of God.” b) 1 Cor. 15:58; c) Romans 12:1,2.

Q: Is salvation an instantaneous act of God, or is it a process that depends on man’s perseverance? Both Calvinism and Arminianism teach the latter.

Key: POTS is a result of Reformation concern that “justification by faith” would produce moral laxity in the church, so they teach that only those who persevere are truly saved.

Conclusion: Bad results of POTS: a) Lack of Bible teaching on the Judgment Seat of Christ and gain or loss of heavenly rewards. b) POTS contains a false view of assurance of salvation, because it makes salvation depend upon election and not on receiving Christ as Saviour. (We must go SW)

109. GOD HAS NOT CAST AWAY HIS PEOPLE ISRAEL. Romans 11:1,2

Many groups in Christendom think that God has permanently cast away Israel, and that Israel has no part in any of God's plans for the future. Whenever they see a passage on Israel, they read it as applying to the church. They think that the church has inherited all the Old Testament promises to Israel, but none of the curses on Israel for disobedience. When Israel became a nation in May 1948, they see no relevance for modern day Israel in the events surrounding the second coming of Christ. They ignore Ezekiel 36:24.

However, even a casual study of eschatology (second coming of Christ) will reveal that Israel is closely connected to the events of Christ's return.

Groups denying any future for Israel include Seventh Day Adventists, Jehovah's Witnesses, Mormons, Roman Catholics, Muslims and Amillennarians (including many Anglicans, Presbyterians, Baptists, Uniting and Congregational churches) as well as Calvinists. These groups regard themselves as the God favoured remnant (Rev. 12:17) taking the place of Israel, as "prophesied" by their false prophets.

The Thomson Chain Reference Bible mistakenly applies references concerning Israel to the Church.

It overlooks the Ethnic Division principle of interpreting Scripture where God gives three ethnic divisions of mankind as Jew, Gentile and Church.

"Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God." 1 Cor. 10:32.

This means that to correctly understand any Scripture, we must first ask "To whom is this passage referring? Is it spoken to or about Jews, or Gentiles or the Church?"

Let a passage referring to Jews, teach what it says about Jews, without putting a foreign meaning on it.

There are more than 130 clear Bible passages which teach that Jesus Christ will return in person to rescue and convert the nation of Israel, and to rule on the earth from Jerusalem as King of the Jews, with Israel being the chief nation on earth.

Ask if the following 211 verses teach that Israel has a future in God's plans, in these 107 passages.

1. PAUL TEACHES ISRAEL'S FUTURE CONVERSION. Romans 11

- i) Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. v.1
- ii) God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. v.2
- iii) Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid. v.11
- iv) If their fall be the riches of the world, how much more their fullness? v.12
- v) If the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead? (a resurrection of believers). v.15
- vi) How much more shall these (Jews), which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree? v.24
- vii) Blindness IN PART is happened to Israel, UNTIL the fullness of the Gentiles be come in (Rapture). v.25
- viii) And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Zion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob. v.26
- ix) For this is my covenant with them (Israel) when I shall take away their sins. v.27
- x) As concerning the gospel, they (Jews) are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election (of Israel), they are beloved for the fathers' sakes (patriarchs). v.28

2. JESUS CHRIST TAUGHT ISRAEL'S FUTURE CONVERSION.

- i) Ye (Israel) shall not see me henceforth, TILL ye shall say, Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord. Matthew 23:37-39.
- ii) Now learn a parable of the fig tree (national Israel as in Joel 1:6-7); When his branch is yet tender and putteth forth leaves, (Israel becoming a nation in 1948) ye know that summer (Christ's return) is near. Matthew 24:32.
- iii) Christ shall rule my people Israel (in the Millennium). Matthew 2:6.
- iv) Christ promised judgment on this wicked generation, not on Israel's future generations forever.

-The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation and shall condemn it. 41

-The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it. 42

-Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation. Matthew 12:41,42,45.

-All these things shall come upon this generation. Matthew 23:36.

- v) Jesus prophesied that future Israel will receive the Antichrist as their Messiah.
“I am come in my Father’s name, and ye receive me not (as Messiah): if another shall come in his own name (Antichrist), him ye will receive.” John 5:43.
- vi) Jesus prophesied that His disciples, in the regeneration (millennium) will judge the 12 tribes of Israel.
“Ye which have followed me (the disciples), in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of His glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.” Matthew 19:28.

3. MOSES said that GOD WILL NOT FORSAKE or DESTROY ISRAEL, or FORGET THE COVENANT OF THY FATHERS.

When thou (Israel) art in tribulation, and all these things are come upon thee, even in the latter days, if thou turn to the Lord thy God, and shalt be obedient unto his voice: (For the Lord thy God is a merciful God) he will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers which he swore unto them. Deuteronomy 4:30-31.

4. The PALESTINIAN COVENANT PROMISES 7 THINGS FOR ISRAEL in Deut. 30:1-10.

- i) Dispersion for disobedience. v.1 “Thou shalt call them to mind among all the nations, where the Lord thy God hath driven thee.”
- ii) Future repentance of Israel while in dispersion. v.2
- iii) The return of the Lord. v.3 “The Lord thy God will turn thy captivity, and have compassion on thee, and will return and gather thee from all the nations . . .”
- iv) Restoration to the land. v.5 “The Lord thy God will bring thee into the land which thy Father’s possessed, and thou shalt possess it: and he will do thee good . . .”
- v) National conversion. v.6 “The Lord thy God will circumcize thine heart, and the heart of thy seed, to love the Lord thy God with all thine heart and soul. . .”
- vi) Judgment of Israel’s oppressors. v.7 “The Lord thy God will put all these curses upon thine enemies. . .”
- vii) National prosperity. v.9 “The Lord thy God will make thee plenteous in every work of thine hand.”

5. MOSES PROPHESED a FUTURE TROUBLE for ISRAEL and a GOOD LATTER END.

- i) Evil will befall you in the latter days (Tribulation). Deuteronomy 31:29.
- ii) O that they were wise, that they understood this, that they would consider their latter end! How should one chase a thousand. . . Deuteronomy 32:29,30.

6. The DAVIDIC COVENANT is UNBREAKABLE. “My Covenant Will I Not Break”. Ps 89:34

I will not lie unto David. v.35

His seed shall endure forever, and his throne as the sun before me. v.36

It shall be established forever. v.37

The seed of David is the nation Israel who will endure forever.

Some say that God has broken His covenant with David (Israel) because of Israel’s disobedience. However, Psalm 89:34 clearly states that God will not break His covenant with David, nor with His seed Israel.

7. ISAIAH TAUGHT ISRAEL’S REGATHERING TO THE LAND, THEIR CONVERSION and that GOD WOULD NOT FORGET THEM.

- 1. Isaiah 2:1-4 states-in the last days Judah, Jerusalem and the Lord’s house will be exalted:
 - i) All nations shall flow unto it.
 - ii) Many people will say, Let us go to the house of the God of Jacob.

- iii) He will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths.
 - iv) Out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.
 - v) He shall judge among the nations.
 - vi) Christ shall rebuke many people.
 - vii) They shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks.
 - viii) Nation shall not lift up sword against nation.
 - ix) Neither shall they learn war anymore.
O house of Jacob, come let us walk in the light of the Lord.
2. In that day, the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the house of Jacob....shall stay upon the Lord, the Holy One of Israel, in truth. Isaiah 10:20.
The remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, unto the mighty God. v.21.
 3. Israel's remnant will be regathered a second time. The Lord shall set His hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria, Egypt, Ethiopia, Iraq, and from the islands of the sea. Isaiah 11:11-12.
He (Christ) shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth.
 4. God will choose Jacob and Israel, and set them in their own land. Isaiah 14:1.
 5. The land of Judah shall be a terror unto Egypt. This prophecy is fulfilled today because Israel's military has defeated Egypt in every war since 1948. Isaiah 19:17.
 6. Egypt, Assyria and Israel will become God's people. The Lord of Hosts shall bless, saying, Blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel mine inheritance. Isaiah 19:25.
 7. The Lord shall reign in Mount Zion, and in Jerusalem, and before his ancients gloriously. Isaiah 24:23.
 8. Israel shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit. Isaiah 27:6.
 9. Ye shall be gathered one by one, O ye children of Israel . . . and shall worship the Lord in the holy mount at Jerusalem. Isaiah 27:12-13.
 10. The light of the sun shall be sevenfold . . . in the day that the Lord bindeth up the breach of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound. Isaiah 30:26.
 11. As birds flying, so will the Lord of hosts defend Jerusalem; defending also he will deliver it; and passing over He will preserve it. Isaiah 31:5.
Jews dwelling at Jerusalem will be defended, delivered and preserved by Jesus Christ at His return to earth.
 12. O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten of me. Isaiah 44:21.
 13. God promises that: "I will not forget Israel."
"But Zion said, The Lord hath forsaken me, and my Lord hath forgotten me.
Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? Yea, they may forget, yet I will not forget thee." Isaiah 49:14-15.
 14. God will comfort and redeem Jerusalem.
"Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the Lord hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem." Isaiah 52:9.
This will happen when Christ returns to rescue Jews at Jerusalem from the Antichrist. They will be comforted and redeemed.
 15. God has only temporarily forsaken Israel. Isaiah 54:7,8,10.
For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies will I gather thee. v.7.
In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the Lord thy Redeemer. v.8.
My kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed. v.10.
 16. God's covenant with Zion and Jacob is forever.

The Redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the Lord. This is my covenant with them, . . . saith the Lord, from henceforth and forever. Isaiah 59:20-21.

17. Wealthy Jews from overseas will return by air and sea to Israel at the start of the Millennium.

Who are these that fly as a cloud? v.8.

Surely the isles shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring thy sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, unto the name of the Lord thy God, and to the Holy One of Israel, because he hath glorified thee. v.9.

The sons of strangers shall build up thy walls, and their kings shall minister unto thee: for in my wrath I smote thee, but in my favour have I had mercy on thee. v.10.

The nation and Kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted (by drought). Isaiah 60:8,9,10,12.

At the start of the millennium, Jews will return to Israel by aeroplane (v.8) and by ship (v.9) from the isles, maybe from England, the United States and South Africa where there are many wealthy Jews, bringing their silver and gold with them. The Lord will glorify Israel after His return. Gentiles will help rebuild Jerusalem (v.10). God's favour will rest on Israel (v.10). Zechariah 14:16-19 describe how Israel's enemies will be destroyed in the millennium, under Christ's rule. (v.12).

18. Jerusalem shalt be called, Sought out, A city not forsaken. Isaiah 62:12.

19. Israel's return to the land in 1948 will be so quick, that it will be like a woman giving birth before labour pains. Isaiah 66:8-20.

Shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children. v.8.

Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all ye that love her.

Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river. . . v.10,12.

As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem. v.13.

They (Gentiles) shall bring all your brethren (Jews) for an offering unto the Lord out of all nations . . . to Jerusalem. v.20.

20. The Jewish nation (seed) and their name shall remain forever.

For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the Lord, so shall your seed and your name remain. Isaiah 66:22.

8. JEREMIAH TAUGHT THAT ISRAEL AS A NATION WOULD BE SAVED, REGATHERED and BLESSED WITH AN EVERLASTING COVENANT WITH GOD.

1. God will regather Judah and Israel from the land of the north (Russia) to the land of Israel. Jeremiah 3:17-18.

At the time (millennium) shall they call Jerusalem the throne of the Lord; and all nations shall be gathered unto it, to the name of the Lord, to Jerusalem: neither shall they (Jews) walk anymore after the imagination of their evil heart. v.17.

In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I have given for an inheritance unto your fathers. v.18.

2. God will regather, save, feed, protect and provide for Israel.

I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries where I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; they shall be fruitful and increase. v.3.

I will set up shepherds over them which shall feed them: and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the Lord. v.4.

In his days (Christ's 1000 year rule) Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely. 6 The Lord liveth, which brought Israel out of the north country, and from all countries where I had driven them, they shall dwell in their own land. v.8. Jeremiah 23:3-8.

3. Israel will be saved out of the Tribulation to serve God.
 It is the time of Jacob's trouble, but he shall be saved out of it. v.7.
 I will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him. v.8.
 They shall serve the Lord their God, and David their King, whom I will raise up unto them. v.9.
 O Israel, I will save thee from afar . . . and Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest, and be quiet, and none shall make him afraid. v.10.
 For I am with thee, saith the Lord, to save thee . . . yet will I not make a full end of thee: but I will correct thee in measure. v.11.
 I will punish all that oppress them. v.20.
Ye shall be my people, and I will be your God. v.22. Jeremiah 30:7-22.
4. God will regather, build, plant and make a new covenant with Israel and Judah.
 Jeremiah 31:10,28,31,36,37.
 He that scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him. v.10.
 I will watch over them (Israel), to build, and to plant. v.28.
 Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah. v.31.
 If those ordinances (sun and moon) depart from before me saith the Lord, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me forever. v.36.
 If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, saith the Lord. v.37.
5. God will regather Israel as His people, save them, bless them, and make an everlasting covenant with them. Jeremiah 32:37-42.
 I will gather them out of all countries . . .
 I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely. v.37.
 They shall be my people, and I will be their God. v.38.
 I will give them one heart, and one way, that they may fear me forever. v.39.
 I will make an everlasting covenant with them . . . they shall not depart from me. v.40.
 I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly. v.41
 As I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so I will bring upon them all the good that I have promised them. v.42.
 Ten promises here show that God has a great future for Israel, in Jeremiah 32:37-42.
6. God will save Israel and Judah, they will dwell safely, and the Davidic covenant is as permanent as day and night. Jeremiah 33:14-22.
 I will perform that good thing which I have promised unto the house of Israel and to the house of Judah. v.14.
 In those days, and at that time, I will cause the Branch of righteousness (Christ) to grow up unto David; he shall execute judgment and righteousness in the land. v.15.
 In those days shall Judah be saved and Jerusalem shall dwell safely. v.16.
 If ye can break my covenant of the day and my covenant of the night.... v.20.
 Then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne. v.21.
 As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured: so will I multiply the seed of David my servant . . . v.22.
7. I will not make a full end of thee (Israel), but correct thee in measure; Jeremiah 46:28.
8. Jacob and Israel (the rod of his inheritance). Thou art my battle axe and weapons of war: for with thee will I break in pieces the nations, and with thee will I destroy Kingdoms. Jeremiah 51:19,20.
 This will only be fulfilled at Christ's return.

9. EZEKIEL PREDICTED A REMNANT OF ISRAEL WOULD BE SAVED IN THE LATTER DAYS.

1. Yet will I leave a remnant that ye may have some that shall escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered through the countries. Ezekiel 6:8.
2. Israel to be regathered and be saved. Ezekiel 11:17,19,20.
I will even gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel. v.17.
I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh. v.19.
They shall be my people, and I will be their God. v.20.
3. That the house of Israel may go no more astray from me, neither be polluted any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people and I may be their God. Ezekiel 14:11.
4. I will remember my covenant with thee in the days of thy youth, and I will establish unto thee an everlasting covenant. Ezekiel 16:60.
Then thou shalt remember thy ways and be ashamed. v.61.
5. I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant: Ezekiel 20:37,38,42,43.
I will purge out from among you the rebels. v.38.
Ye shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel. v.42.
There shall ye remember your ways . . . and loathe yourselves. v.43.
Israel will be disciplined, purged, saved, regathered and repent.
6. God will regather and save Israel to dwell safely. Ezekiel 28:25,26.
When I shall have gathered the house of Israel from the people among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the heathen, then shall they dwell in their land that I have given to Jacob. v.25.
They shall dwell safely . . . they shall dwell with confidence, when I have executed judgments upon all those that despise them round about them; and they shall know that I am the Lord their God. v.26.
These events have never happened before. They can only refer to a future regathering and blessing of Israel.
7. I will gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land. Ezekiel 34:13,24,25,28.
I the Lord will be their God and my servant David a prince among them. v.24.
I will make with them a covenant of peace. v.25.
They shall dwell safely and none shall make them afraid. v.28.
8. I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land. v.24.
Then I will sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean. v.25.
A new heart will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you. 26.
I will put my spirit within you. v.27.
Ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers: Ye shall be my people and I will be your God. v.28.
I will save you from all your uncleanness. v.29.
I will yet for this be enquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them. v.37.
Ezekiel 36:24,25,26,27,28,29,37.
9. The valley of dry bones. Ezekiel 37:11,12,14,21-27.
These bones are the whole house of Israel. v.11.
Behold, O my people, I will open your graves and bring you into the land of Israel. v.12.
I shall put my Spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land; then shall ye know that I the Lord have spoken it, and performed it. v.14.

I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen...and bring them into their own land. v.21.

I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel. v.22.

I will save them out of all their dwelling places, where they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so they shall be my people, and I will be their God. v.23.

David my servant shall be king over them. v.24.

They shall dwell in the land that I have given to Jacob. v.25.

I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them.

I will set my sanctuary in the midst of them forevermore. v.26.

My tabernacle also shall be with them: yea, I will be their God, and they shall be my people. v.27.

10. Russia will invade regathered Israel in the latter days. Ezekiel 38:8-16.

In the latter years thou shalt come into the land that is brought back from the sword, and is gathered out of many people, against the mountains of Israel, . . . it is brought forth out of the nations, and they shall dwell safely all of them. v.8.

In that day when my people of Israel dwelleth safely. v.14.

Thou shalt come up against my people of Israel. . . it shall be in the latter days. v.16.

11. Israel in the land will be saved after Russia's defeat. Ezekiel 39:7-29.

I will make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel.

I will not let them pollute my holy name any more.

The heathen shall know that I am the Lord, the Holy One in Israel. v.7.

They that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall set on fire, and burn the weapons . . . seven years. v.9.

The house of Israel shall know that I am the Lord their God from that day and forward.v.22

The heathen shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity. v.23.

I will have mercy upon the whole house of Israel. v.25.

I have poured out my Spirit upon the house of Israel. v.29.

12. The Shekinah glory cloud will fill the Millennial Temple.

The glory of the God of Israel came into the house by the way of the east. Ezekiel 43:2,4,5.

13. Levites shall serve in the Millennial Temple. Ezekiel 44:10,11.

The Levites that are gone away far from me, when Israel went astray . . . yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having charge at the gates of the house they shall slay the burnt offering.

14. The rest of the land shall they give to the house of Israel according to their tribes. Ezekiel 45:8.

15. The gates of the city shall be after the names of the tribes of Israel. Ezekiel 48:31.

10. DANIEL STATES that the ARCHANGEL MICHAEL STILL REPRESENTS ISRAEL IN the TRIBULATION, and that ISRAEL WILL BE DELIVERED.

At that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy (Daniel's) people (Israel): and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was.....at that time thy people (Israel) shall be delivered. Daniel 12:1.

11. HOSEA TEACHES ISRAEL'S CONVERSION IN THE LATTER DAYS. Hosea 2:18-20,23

1. Israel, the adulterous wife will be restored. 2:14-23.
In that day I will make a covenant for them. v.18.
I will make them to lie down safely. v.18.
I will betroth thee unto me forever . . . in righteousness, in judgment, in loving kindness, in mercies, in faithfulness. v.19,20.
Thou shalt know the Lord. v.20.
I will say to them which were not my people,
“Thou art my people” and they shall say, “Thou art my God”. v.23.
2. The children of Israel shall abide many days (the church age) without a king, without a prince, without a sacrifice, without an image (idols), without an ephod (priesthood), and without teraphim (Divination device). v.4.
Afterward shall the children of Israel return (to the land) and seek the Lord their God, and David their king; and shall fear the Lord and his goodness in the latter days. Hosea 3:4,5. For about 2500 years Israel has not had a king.
After the Church age, Israel will return, seek God and be saved. This has partly happened since 1948.
3. Christ returns to heaven until the Jews seek Him.
I (Jesus Christ) will go and return to my place (heaven at His ascension), till they (Jews) acknowledge their offence (of crucifying Christ), and seek my face: in their affliction (the 7 year Tribulation) they (the Jews) will seek me (Jesus Christ) early. Hosea 5:15.
Jews talking: Come, and let us return unto the Lord: for he hath torn (God's discipline of Israel), and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up. Hosea 6:1.
If Israel died spiritually in 33AD (“desolate” Luke 13:35), after 2000 years is 2033 AD.
After two days (maybe about 2000 years) will he revive us (Israel gets converted at Christ's return): in the third day (maybe from 2033 AD to 3033 AD) he will raise us up (Israel converted nationally), and we shall live in his sight” (for 1000 years). Hosea 6:2.
This agrees well with Israel now returning to the land after 1878 years (1948-70). If Christ returns soon, Israel will be saved & live under Christ's rule for 1000 years (Rev. 20:1-9)
4. Israel will be converted. Hosea 14:4,5,6.
I will heal their backsliding,
I will love them (Israel) freely:
for mine anger is turned away from him (in the Millennium). v.4.
I will be as the dew unto Israel. v.5.
His branches shall spread. v.6.

12. JOEL TEACHES THE CONVERSION OF ISRAEL.

1. Then will the Lord be jealous for his land, and pity his people. Joel 2:18.
I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen. v.19.
I will remove far off from you the northern army (Russia). v.20.
I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten. v.25.
Ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the Lord your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: my people shall never be ashamed. v.27. Joel 2:18,19,20,25,27.
2. I will gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land. Joel 3:2.
Today the nations are parting “my land Israel” amongst the Muslims in exchange for peace. God will judge and punish those nations who pressure Israel to give up parts of her land.
3. The Lord will be the hope of his people, & the strength of the children of Israel. Joel 3:16.
Judah shall dwell forever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation.
I will cleanse their blood that I have not cleansed: ..the Lord dwelleth in Zion. Joel 3:20,21

13. AMOS TEACHES the REGATHERING and BLESSING OF ISRAEL.

1. In that day I will raise up the Tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof; I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old. v.11.
 - That they (Israel) may possess the remnant of Edom, and of all the heathen, which are called by my name. v.12.
 - I will bring again the captivity of my people of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them. v.14.
 - I will plant them upon their land, and they shall no more be pulled up out of their land which I have given them, saith the Lord thy God. v.15. Amos 9:11,12,14,15.

14. MICAH TEACHES THAT ISRAEL WILL BE THE MIGHTIEST NATION IN THE MILLENNIUM.

1. The remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles in the midst of many people as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep: who, if he go through, both treadeth down, and teareth in pieces, and none can deliver. Micah 5:8.
2. The nations shall see and be confounded at all their might: they shall lay their hand upon their mouth. Micah 7:16.
3. He will turn again, he will have compassion on us. Micah 7:19.
4. Thou wilt perform the truth to Jacob, and the mercy to Abraham, which thou hast sworn unto our fathers from the days of old. Micah 7:20.

15. ZEPHANIAH TEACHES THAT ISRAEL WILL BE SAVED

1. The remnant of Israel shall not do iniquity, nor speak lies; neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth . . . none shall make them afraid. 3:13.
2. The King of Israel, the Lord, is in the midst of thee: thou shalt not see evil any more. 3:15.
3. I will get them (Israel) praise and fame in every land where they have been put to shame. 3:19.
4. At that time I will bring you again, even in the time that I gather you. 3:20.

16. ZECHARIAH TEACHES THAT ISRAEL WILL BE RESTORED

1. He that toucheth you (Israel) touches the apple of God's eye. 2:8.
2. The Lord shall inherit Judah his portion in the holy land, and shall choose Jerusalem again. 2:12.
3. The man whose name is THE BRANCH; . . . He shall build the temple of the Lord; he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon his throne. 6:12,13.
4. I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: Jerusalem shall be called a city of truth. 8:3.
5. I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country; I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness. 8:7,8.
6. As ye were a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah and house of Israel; so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing. 8:13.
7. In those days, ten men shall take hold of the skirt of a Jew, saying we will go with you: for we have heard that God is with you. 8:23.
8. The Lord of hosts shall defend them. 9:15.
The Lord their God shall save them in that day. 9:16.
9. I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph . . . they shall be as though I had not cast them off. 10:6.
10. Israel will be converted when Christ returns.
I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all people. 12:2.
I will make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people.
All that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces. 12:3.

In that day shall the Lord defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem. v.8.

I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem. v.9.

I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and supplications: they shall look upon me (Jehovah) whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him v.10. Zechariah 12:2,3,8,9,10.

11. When Antichrist invades Jerusalem, two-thirds of Israel will die.

In all the land, two parts shall be cut off and die, but the third part will be left. v.8.

I will bring the third part through the fire they shall call on my name and I will hear them:

I will say, it is my people:

they shall say, the LORD is my God. Zechariah 13:8,9.

Question for Amillennialists: Will two-thirds of the church be killed? (No).

12. Events of Armageddon. Zechariah 14.

I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle. v.2.

The Lord shall go forth, and fight against those nations. v.3.

His feet shall stand in that day upon the Mount of Olives. v.4.

The Lord my God shall come, and all the saints with thee. v.5.

The Lord shall be King over all the earth. v.9.

Jerusalem shall be safely inhabited. v.11.

This shall be the plague that the Lord will smite all the people that have fought against Jerusalem; Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth. v.12.

Judah shall fight at Jerusalem. v.14. Zechariah 14:2-5,9,11,12,14.

Conclusion:

From the 211 verses above, it is clearly seen that in the context of Christ returning to earth, God still cares for Israel. The Bible teaches unmistakably that Israel will return to the land in a state of unbelief, and while facing destruction from the Antichrist, Christ will return in person to rescue and convert Israel. Hence, in Christ's earthly kingdom, Israel will be the chief nation on earth. So we conclude this study in full agreement with the Apostle Paul who said in Romans 11:2, "God hath not cast away His people which He forenew." To think that God has cast away His people Israel is to disagree with 15 writers of Scripture.

Summary (16 key verses):

Romans 11:1 "God hath not cast away his people" (2,11), "their fullness" (12), "receiving of them" (15), "Blindness in part is happened to Israel, until" (24,25), "they are beloved" (28).

110. THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH

The Roman Catholic Church believes many false doctrines that are contrary to the Bible, and were unknown to the early Church, such as:

1. Human Tradition is Elevated to or above the Word of God. 1545 AD.
2. Wrong Gospel, Wrong Message of Salvation.
3. Confession of Sins to a Priest to Obtain Absolution of Sins.
4. Penance.
5. Priests.
6. Celibacy of Priests and Nuns. 1079 AD.
7. Confirmation.
8. Extreme Unction. 526 AD.
9. Infant Baptism. 370 AD.
10. Transubstantiation. 1215 AD.
11. Adoration of the Host (wafer bread). 1220 AD
12. The Mass. 394 AD.
13. Other Mediators Between God and Man.
14. Prayers to Saints. 375 AD.
15. Purgatory. 593 AD.
16. Papal Infallibility. 1870 AD.
17. Indulgences. 1190 AD.
18. Idolatry = Making Images. 786 AD.
19. Mary Veneration. 431 AD.
20. Catholic Attitudes to the Bible. 1229 AD.
21. Peter as the Rock.
22. 15 Apocrypha Books Added to the Old Testament Bible. 1546 AD.
23. Names of Blasphemy. 350 AD.
24. Rosary Prayer Beads. 1090 AD.
25. Low Moral Standards.
26. Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and Mary.
27. Crossing Oneself. 300 AD.
28. Was Peter the First Pope?
29. Roman Catholic Lies, Immorality, Corruption.
30. The Inquisition, Torture, Massacres, Murders, Wars. 1184 AD.
31. 15 Evidences that the Roman Catholic Church is Mystery Babylon the Great, the Whore of Revelation 17.
32. Who gave us the Bible? God or the Roman Catholic Church?
33. They turn people away from Christ to honour twelve other things.

Conclusion.

The Roman Catholic Church has developed many doctrines which cannot be remotely proven from the Bible. For example, the Assumption of Mary is not in the Bible.

Question: Did God leave important teachings out of the Bible? Is God forgetful?

The Roman Catholic Church cannot clearly and easily show its history before 320 AD, when the Roman Emperor Constantine professed conversion, amalgamated pagans and Christians, and declared himself to be the head or pontif of the Universal (Catholic) Church.

The early Church never had many of the doctrines that the Roman Catholic Church now has. Isaiah 8:20 says: "If they speak not according to this Word, it is because there is no light in them."

Question: What are some errors of the Roman Catholic Church?

ERROR 1: HUMAN TRADITION is elevated to or above the Word of God.

"Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy or vain deceit, after the tradition of man, and not after Christ." Colossians 2:8.

Jesus charged the Pharisees for exalting tradition above the Word of God in the same way that the Roman Catholic Church does:

1. "Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition?" Matthew 15:3.
2. "Ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition. Ye hypocrites." Matt 15:6,7
3. "In vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men." Matthew 15:9.
4. "Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind." Matthew 15:3,6,7,9,14.

I challenge Catholics to test their doctrines by God's Word.

The Church does not give birth to the Word of God, but the Word of God gives birth to the Church.

"Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth." James 1:18; 1 Peter 1:23.

The Word of God saves us, and we become part of a local Church. This has always been the case.

"He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day." John 12:48.

Roman Catholicism quotes Church traditions as the authority as to why they add unbiblical doctrines.

ERROR 2: WRONG GOSPEL, wrong message of salvation.

Roman Catholics, since childhood are taught that to get to heaven one must keep the sacraments, the mass, and do good works. This is different from the Bible's definition of the Gospel.

Question: What is the Gospel?

Answer: "I declare unto you the Gospel ... how that Christ died for our sins ... that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day, according to the scriptures." 1 Corinthians 15:1-4.

The Gospel message saves us: "I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God unto salvation, to every one that believeth." Romans 1:16.

Therefore the Gospel is this: Christ died for our sins, was buried and rose again. We are saved when we believe this message, receiving Christ as our Saviour. This means that we must trust Christ's blood sacrifice on the cross as being the full payment for all our sins.

Paul strongly warns against preaching or believing "another Gospel" in Galatians 1:6-9.

"So say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, LET HIM BE ACCURSED." Galatians 1:9.

Question: What is this OTHER FALSE Gospel?

Answer: Any idea that we can earn salvation by our good works.

1. "Knowing that a man is NOT justified by the WORKS of the law, but by the FAITH of Jesus Christ,
2. Even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the FAITH of Christ, and NOT by the WORKS of the LAW;
3. For by the WORKS of the law shall NO FLESH be justified." Galatians 2:16.

Note that three times we are told that we are not saved by keeping the WORKS of the law.

Other verses that say the same thing are as follows: Ephesians 2:8,9,10. Galatians 3:2,10,11,26; 5:4; Philippians 3:9; Romans 3:20,28; 4:5; 11:6; Titus 3:5.

The Bible says that NO AMOUNT of good works can save us.

Several problems exist for those who trust their works to save them:

1. They never know if they've done enough good works to make it into heaven. They never know for sure if they are going to heaven. The pope doesn't know for sure. So how can he help you to become sure of eternal life.
2. They are saying that Christ's death on the cross was not good enough to save them and it was a waste of time. "If righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain." Galatians 2:21.
3. They are rejecting Christ from being their Saviour.
4. They are grouping themselves with every other false religion whose one thing in common is trusting their own works, or merits, or law-keeping to get them into heaven.

Ephesians 2:8-10 states that we are not saved by our works, but that after we have received Christ as our Saviour, we will show good works. Paul says:

"Not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ." Philippians 3:9.

To teach the all-sufficiency of the saving work of Christ would undermine the entire structure of Catholicism. People are told that if they leave the Roman Catholic Church, they'll surely go to hell. People are kept in bondage of fear of missing salvation if they leave the Roman Catholic Church.

The Catholic "gospel" leaves Christ out. It teaches people that if they perform well enough such things as: attending mass, partaking of sacraments, praying to Mary (saying the "Hail Mary"), confessing sins to a priest, doing good works etc, they may eventually pass through the fires of purgatory after hundreds of years to then enter heaven.

Do you have real salvation in Christ, or are you trusting in keeping Catholic Church rules to save you? Many times I have asked Catholics how they were saved. They reply "That's personal, I don't need to tell you." I say: "Then that proves that you are not saved and that if you died now, you would surely go to hell, because Romans 10:11 says "Whosoever believeth on him SHALL NOT BE ASHAMED." If you were really saved you would be happy to tell me how Jesus saved you.

ERROR 3: CONFESSION OF SINS to a priest to obtain absolution of sins.

Catholic Canon law 870 and 888 state that a priest has power to forgive sins, and confession to a priest at least once a year is necessary unto salvation.

Early church writers such as Chrysostom (350AD), and Basil (350AD) wrote strongly in favour of confessing sins to God only.

The Bible gives these examples of confessing sins to God only:

1. When Simon of Samaria sinned after being baptized, he was told to pray to God for forgiveness. Acts 8:22.
2. The apostles never heard confessions, but said in Acts 10:43 that: "through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins."
3. Peter never forgave the sins of Cornelius. Acts 10:44-48.
4. Paul never forgave the sins of the Philippian jailer. Acts 16:30-34.
5. Only God can forgive sins. "Who can forgive sins but God only." Mark 2:5-11.
6. When Peter sinned by denying Christ, he confessed to God and was forgiven. When Judas sinned by betraying Christ, he confessed to some priests and then committed suicide. Matthew 27:3-5.

Question: What about James 5:16 "Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another that ye may be healed."

Answer: This confession contributes to restoration of health, because the sickness has come on the patient as a punishment for some sins that he committed.

See 1 Corinthians 11:29-31. If we are sick, and are conscious that we have hurt any person, we should make confession to them. The reason is "that ye may be healed." This verse in no way proves that if we confess our sins to a priest, that the priest has power to declare such sins to be forgiven because:

1. This confession is not to be made by a person in health to obtain salvation, but by a sick person that he may be healed.
2. This verse commands mutual confession, meaning that the priest should also confess his sins to the people, "one to another."
3. No mention is made of confession to a priest, or any minister of religion.
4. This confession is for faults where one has injured another. Nothing is said about confessing sins to those we have not injured such as a priest.
5. There is no mention here of absolution, by a priest or by any person.
6. Only He (God) whose law has been violated can pardon or forgive an offence. No third person can forgive a sin between two people.
7. Catholic "auricular confession" is so evil because:
 - it gives so much power to the priesthood to suppose that they can absolve sins.

- it pollutes the mind by keeping impure thoughts in the mind long enough to make confession and to state them in words.
- it gives a man such power over a female to suppose that it is required by religion that all sins passing in her mind should be disclosed to him. The very things that a seducer would like to know are the thoughts of his intended victim. Virtue would be safe nowhere. This practice has greatly corrupted community morals as seen by so many Catholic priests being sued for sexual abuse of women and children.

Question: But doesn't John 20:23 say that a priest has power to forgive sins, "Whosoever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whosoever sins ye retain, they are retained?"

Answer: The meaning is, not that man can forgive sins (because only God can), but that they were to declare on what terms and conditions, to what characters, and to what attitude of mind, God would forgive sins.

God was saying that people might have assurance of forgiveness who would comply with those terms. Those who did not comply should not be forgiven, and their sins should be retained.

Jesus here is giving the apostles (and by extension all Christians) the privilege of announcing heaven's terms on how a person can receive forgiveness of sins. If a person believes in Jesus Christ, then a Christian has the right to announce his forgiveness. If a person rejects Jesus Christ's blood sacrifice on the cross as the full payment for his sins, then a Christian can announce that persons sins are not forgiven.

Jesus Christ is the only mediator between God and man, not a priest, not Mary and not the saints. "There is one God, and one mediator between God and man, the man Christ Jesus." 1 Timothy 2:5.

ERROR 4: PENANCE.

Catholicism believes that a priest has the power to forgive or retain sins and impose penance as a means of testing the genuineness of the person's confession, and of making a satisfaction to God for that sin.

Answer: "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved." Acts 16:31.

"If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." 1 John 1:9.

We only confess our sins to God. No mention is made of penance here or anywhere. No good works that we do by penance will ever satisfy God, but sinners can be accepted and forgiven only on the ground of Christ's sacrifice, through which alone the justice and wrath of God against sin have been satisfied. Romans 3:24-28.

"He is the propitiation for our sins ..." 1 John 2:2.

Penance is performing outward acts such as repeating prayers, like the "Hail Mary" or the "Rosary", as a payment for sin and to satisfy God. Roman Catholicism bases penance on Ezekiel 18:30, Luke 13:5 and Acts 2:38 where they incorrectly translate "repentance" (metanoeo = to turn, repent, to change one's mind) as "penance".

ERROR 5: PRIESTS.

A Roman Catholic priest is one who acts in the place of Christ, supposedly making unbelievers into Christians by "baptizing" them. He claims to convert the bread into Christ's flesh in the mass, and he claims to forgive sins in the confessional.

In the Bible, all ministers are called elders, bishops or pastors, all referring to the one office, but there is no office of "priest". Christ is our Great High Priest, the only mediator between God and man (1 Timothy 2:5), so there is no need for other priests to mediate for us. Peter never called himself a priest, but did call himself a "fellow elder". 1 Peter 5:1.

In Acts, there is no reference anywhere to a sacrificing priesthood. In Revelation 1:6 ("hath made us kings and priests unto God"), and in 1 Peter 2:5,9 ("ye are a holy priesthood", "ye are a royal priesthood"), all believers are priests and have direct access to God through Christ. We don't offer an atoning sacrifice because only Christ did this on the cross. The only sacrifices we offer to God are prayers (Ephesians 6:18), praise and money (Hebrews 13:15,16), and ourselves in service to God (Romans 12:1) This Biblical truth of the priesthood of all believers was rediscovered in the Protestant Reformation of the 1500's. A pastor's real job is to preach the gospel, teach the Word of God and pray, not to hear confession, or change bread to flesh etc. Peter in 1 Peter 5, when he instructed fellow preachers, made no mention of any Roman Catholic priest's practices of today.

ERROR 6: CELIBACY of priests and nuns.

Forbidding priests and nuns to marry was introduced in 1079 and has led to much immorality.

What does the Bible say?

1. "A Bishop must be blameless, the husband of one wife." 1 Timothy 3:2.
2. "Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and Cephas?" 1 Corinthians 9:5.
3. Peter was married, because Jesus healed his mother in law. Matthew 8:14; Luke 4:38.
4. "It is not good that the man should be alone." Genesis 2:18.
5. "To avoid fornication, let EVERY man have his own wife, and let EVERY woman have her own husband." 1 Corinthians 7:2.
6. a) "Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith,
b) giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;
c) Speaking lies in hypocrisy;
d) having their conscience seared with a hot iron;
e) FORBIDDING TO MARRY, and commanding to abstain from meats." 1 Timothy 4:1-3.

Here God describes the Catholic Church's forbidding priests and nuns from marrying.

The Catholic church, in support of celibacy quotes Matthew 19:11,12 and I Corinthians 7:8,32-34.

These passages say it is permissible to be celibate if one so chooses, but it is never to be commanded. Priestly celibacy has caused so much sexual immorality between priests, women and boys, as priests sexually proposition women for fornication and boys for homosexual relations.

ERROR 7: CONFIRMATION.

Catholic Confirmation is supposed to be the conferring of the Holy Spirit by the laying on of hands. One false doctrine leads to another false doctrine. The false unbiblical doctrines of infant sprinkling and salvation by works lead to the false doctrine of Confirmation.

Confirmation of children is not in the Bible. Check it yourself. Laying on of hands is used to set apart men for a ministry:

1. "When they had prayed, they laid their hands on them." (7 men of honest report). Acts 6:6.
2. "When they had fasted and prayed and laid their hands on them, they sent them away." Acts 13:3. They laid hands on Paul and Barnabas as they sent them on their first missionary journey.
3. "Lay hands suddenly on no man." 1 Timothy 5:22. Don't ordain pastors suddenly.
4. "Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery." 1 Timothy 4:14.
5. "doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands ..." Hebrews 6:2.

Nowhere in the New Testament does a preacher lay hands on 8 year old children, who are unsaved.

ERROR 8: EXTREME UNCTION.

This sacrament states that "At the end of life, sin can be totally undone and man is prepared for immediate entrance into everlasting glory." This idea is found NOWHERE in the Bible. This will not get a dying person into heaven. His only hope is to receive Jesus Christ as his own Saviour, trusting Christ's blood sacrifice on the cross as the full payment for all his sin.

Mark 6:13 is the Catholic defence for this error, yet this verse says nothing about dying people, but only about demonized and sick people being healed. When Pope Pius XII died in 1958, his personal physician was dismissed for telling of his frightful and terrifying fear of death and hell.

Question: Since the Pope isn't sure of heaven, how can he help Catholics get to heaven?

Answer: Keeping the sacraments is a net that traps Catholics into believing that they will get to heaven by good works. The sacrament system enslaves a person's mind to the Roman Catholic church from the cradle to the grave.

Nobody was ever saved in the Bible by keeping the sacraments. Catholic children are trapped into the sacrament system around age seven or eight years old, when they have neither the knowledge of the Bible nor the maturity to test it with the Word of God.

Question: How can Catholics escape the trap of the sacraments?

Answer: By calling on Jesus Christ to be their only Saviour and by basing their life on the Bible.

ERROR 9: INFANT "BAPTISM" (370 AD).

The Catholic infant "baptism" is NOT Bible baptism because:

1. Baptism in the New Testament Greek means "immerse, dip, fully whelm" as one may check in Strong's Concordance dictionary. "Baptizo" in Greek means "immerse"; "Rhantizo" (4472) in Greek means "sprinkle." Catholic sprinkling is not Biblical immersion.

2. No baby was ever sprinkled in the Bible. Check it.

Question: "What doth hinder me to be baptized?"

Answer: "If you believe with all your heart you may. I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. Acts 8:36,37. Question: How can a baby believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God?

3. Baptism means nothing unless a person has received Jesus Christ as their Saviour. It is always saved first, then baptized. Never does anyone get baptized in order to be saved. "Baptism is the answer of a good conscience towards God." 1 Peter 3:21.

Question: How can a baby show a good conscience towards God?

Answer: He can't. Baptism is something that each person must decide to do himself to publicly show that he is trusting Christ's death to pay for his sins, burial of the old lifestyle, and resurrection with Christ to a new way of life. Romans 6:1-5. Sprinkling does not picture Christ's death, burial and resurrection.

4. Baptism does not save a person, as the Catholic church claims. Only Christ's blood can cleanse us from sin. If we were saved by baptism, then Christ's death was a waste of time. Galatians 2:21.

5. The repentant thief on the cross was not sprinkled by water, yet he was saved by trusting Christ alone to save Him, not his good works. "... we receive the due reward of our deeds: ...Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom." Jesus said unto him, "Verily I say unto thee, today shalt thou be with me in paradise." Luke 23:41-43.

Notice that he was promised eternal life, being unable to lose it. The Catholic Church says that you can't be sure of eternal life and that you can lose it.

6. Ananias who was not a Catholic priest, but just a layman, baptized Paul (Acts 9:17-19). This shows that baptism by a non-Catholic is valid.

7. Children under the age of accountability go to heaven at death.

"children ... of such is the kingdom of heaven." Matthew 18:1-10; Matthew 19:14.

"I (David) shall go to him, but he shall not return to me." 2 Samuel 12:22, 23.

Question: Doesn't John 3:5 say "Except a man be born of water, and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God?"

Answer: It does not say "born of water baptism", but "born of water." What is meant by water? It is the water of the Word of God, because the Word of God produces conviction of sin and shows a person's need of Christ.

Paul says "With the washing of water by the word." Ephesians 5:26.

Peter says: "being born again, ... by the Word of God." 1 Peter 1:23.

James says: "of his own will begat he us with the Word of truth." James 1:18.

Peter says: "Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost ...?" Acts 10:47.

Cornelius' household here were saved before being baptized, thus proving that baptism does NOT save.

Salvation is appropriated only by calling on Christ to save us. Romans 10:13.

ERROR 10: TRANSUBSTANTIATION (1215 AD).

Definition: The whole substance of the bread and wine is converted into the actual and real entire body and blood of Christ.

Answer: Radbertus first invented this doctrine in the 9th century. Catholics support this by a literal view of Matthew 26:26-29. "Take eat; this is my body. For this is my blood of the new testament which is shed for many for the remission of sins."

Consider these reasons why the bread and wine were symbols of Christ's body and blood, to be partaken in for remembrance purposes only, and that there was no material conversion of the bread to the body, nor of the wine to the blood of Christ.

1. Jesus, after saying "this is my blood" in Matthew 26:28 also said "I will not drink henceforth of this FRUIT OF THIS VINE" in Matthew 26:29, showing that the grapejuice was STILL WINE and had not been changed to blood.

2. Jesus often referred to Himself in symbols. So why see Him as literal in a symbolic context?

John 10:7 "I am the door." Did Jesus mean he was literally wooden? No.

John 14:6 "I am the way." Did Jesus mean he was literally a road? No.

John 15:5 "I am the vine." Did Jesus mean he was literally a tree? No.

John 8:12 "I am the light." Did Jesus mean he was literally a torch or a sun? No.

John 6:48 "I am the bread of life." Did Jesus mean he was literally a loaf of dough? No.

John 6:63 states clearly that Jesus was speaking spiritually, not literally:

"The words that I speak unto you, they are spirit and they are life."

Luke 22:19 states clearly that the Lord's supper is for remembrance purposes: "This do in remembrance of me." This is a metaphor, where one thing is said to be another thing because of it's similarity. A metaphor is a figurative use of terms without indicating their figurative nature, for example, "he shall eat his words".

3. The bread and wine did not become Christ's body and blood because:

a) Christ was still present with them. Christ would have had 2 bodies, one which died on the cross and one which did not.

b) To drink blood was forbidden in Acts 15:20,29 "We write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from BLOOD." In Deuteronomy 12:16 "Only ye shall not eat the blood."

4. The tense of the Greek verbs "EAT" in John 6:50,51,52,53,54,56,57,58 is in the AORIST tense showing a ONCE-FOR-ALL, point action, that is NOT CONTINUAL. The Biblical Lord's supper is to be a repeated event, and therefore has no saving merit. Roman Catholics are commanded to believe in transubstantiation because it was stated at the Council of Trent (11 October 1551) that this doctrine was essential for salvation. They pronounced curses on anyone who would deny it.

Paul the Apostle, in contrast, pronounced a double curse on anyone who preached a gospel different from the all sufficiency of Christ's death, burial and resurrection to save us from our sins. Galatian 1:6-9 puts a double curse on this "other gospel" of transubstantiation for salvation.

5. Before Christ ascended to heaven, He promised to come to us during the Church Age, NOT in the sacrifice of the MASS, but by the Holy Spirit (John 14:16-18 as Comforter): "He shall give you another Comforter ... even the Spirit of truth ... I will not leave you comfortless: I WILL COME TO YOU." Note: Christ will return to earth a second time visibly in glory. This is what is meant by 1 Corinthians 11:26 "For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do show the Lord's death TILL HE COME."

Note: This means that Christ does not come literally and visibly as the wafer in the mass, but to the air as in 1 Thessalonians 4:16,17.

6. At the Council of Constance in 1415 it was agreed to withhold the cup from the congregation lest the wine be spilt. However, this contradicts 1 Corinthians 11:25-29 where ALL Corinthian believers drank of the wine: "Whosoever shall eat this bread and drink this cup unworthily."

v.27. Drinking the cup is mentioned six times in five verses.

Transubstantiation is not a mystery, but an absurdity; not a difficulty but a contradiction.

Question: How then do we eat his flesh and drink his blood?

Answer: Through the WORD OF GOD.

John 6:63 "The words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life."

John 1:14 "The Word was made flesh."

John 5:24 "He that heareth my Word and believeth on him that sent me, has everlasting life."

The scribes who knew Jeremiah 31:31-34, "I will put my law in their inward parts", and Jeremiah 15:16, "Thy words were found and I DID EAT THEM; and thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart", understood the idea of receiving God's Word into one's inner being.

Peter got the message, while others planned to desert Jesus:

"Thou hast the WORDS of eternal life." John 6:68.

"Being born again ... by the WORD of God." 1 Peter 1:23-25.

Peter knew that Jesus was speaking about the WORD of God, and not about literal flesh and blood.

Question: If this doctrine of transubstantiation only arose in the 9th century, and if it is so necessary to Roman Catholic salvation, what happened to those who lived before the 9th century not believing this doctrine? Did they all go to hell?

Question: What about the thief on the cross who repented and never took the wafer? Did he go to hell? No! Jesus said he went to paradise.

ERROR 11: ADORATION OF THE HOST (Wafer Bread)

Catholic doctrine requires Catholics to bow down to and worship the wafer bread as God. "There shall arise false prophets....if it were possible they shall deceive the very elect....wherefore if they shall say unto you,....behold, he is in the SECRET CHAMBERS; BELIEVE IT NOT." Matthew 24:24,26.

The Catholic priest does and says precisely this. He says that the bread is Christ and puts the bread into the monstrance, a secret chamber. Christ says, BELIEVE IT NOT!

ERROR 12: THE MASS (instituted in 394 AD)

Definition: At every mass, Christ is sacrificed again.

Catholic doctrine says: "In the mass, no less than on Calvary, Jesus really offers His life to His heavenly Father."

Question: Must Christ be continually sacrificed in the mass, or was His blood sacrifice on the cross 100% sufficient to pay for all our sins for ever?

Answer: Christ's blood sacrifice on the cross IS 100% SUFFICIENT to pay for our sins, because:

1. In John 19:30 Jesus said, "IT IS FINISHED", which in the Greek is "Tetelestai" meaning "to make an end, to accomplish, to complete something, not merely to end it, but to bring it to perfection or its intended goal." It means that the whole work of salvation, the purpose for which Christ came into the world, has been accomplished on the cross. Nothing more can be added to it. This is why we cannot save ourselves by our good works, or religious rituals, as it is adding to Christ's finished work on the cross.

The mass says that Christ's death on the cross is not good enough to fully pay for all our sins or to save us. The mass says that we get to God apart from Christ's blood sacrifice on the cross.

The mass says that Christ's blood sacrifice on the cross was a waste of time, as Galatians 2:21 states: "if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain."

2. When Christ died, the veil in the Jewish temple was torn from top to bottom (Matthew 27:51). This veil separated the Holy of Holies from the Holy Place. The Holy of Holies was entered into once a year by the High Priest on the day of atonement (Exodus 26:33). The tearing of this veil (60 ft high, 30 ft wide, 1 ft thick) was a type of Christ's human body, torn on the cross. This showed that a "new and living way" was opened for all believers into the very presence of God. No other sacrifice and no other priesthood was needed, just Christ's High Priesthood. "2Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the BLOOD OF JESUS, by a NEW AND LIVING way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, HIS FLESH." Hebrews 10:19,20.

We can now enter into the holiest presence of God without priestly sacrifices.

3. The New covenant which operates now in the Church Age states: "Their sins and iniquities will I remember no more. Now where remission of these is, there is ³"NO MORE OFFERING FOR SIN." Hebrews 10:17,18. The Catholic priest "offering Christ weekly," contradicts this clear statement that there is "NO MORE OFFERING FOR SIN" needed.

4. Christ's sacrifice is clearly stated as ONCE FOR ALL, not to be repeated. "We are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ ⁴ONCE FOR ALL." Hebrews 10:10.

"But this man after he had offered ⁵ONE SACRIFICE FOR SINS FOR EVER, sat down on the right hand of God." Hebrews 10:12.

"By ⁶ONE OFFERING he has perfected FOREVER them that are sanctified." Hebrews 10:14. Not just is Christ's sacrifice the one and only sacrifice for sins forever, but no more offering is needed: "Now where remission of these is, there is ⁷NO MORE OFFERING FOR SIN." Hebrews 10:18.

⁸Nor yet that he should OFFER HIMSELF OFTEN...⁹For then must he OFTEN have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now ¹⁰ONCE in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself." Hebrews 9:25,26.

"So Christ was ¹¹ONCE offered to bear the sins of many." Hebrews 9:28.

"For Christ also has ¹²ONCE suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God." 1 Peter 3:18.

5. Catholic priests performing the "mass resacrifice" is a waste of time and of no value in taking away sins. "Who ¹³needs not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did ¹⁴ONCE, when he offered up himself." Heb. 7:27.

"and every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, WHICH ¹⁵CAN NEVER TAKE AWAY SINS." Hebrews 10:11.

It is only by this one sacrifice of Christ on the cross that people can be saved. The continual sacrifice of the mass is not needed and opposes the Bible.

a) Notice that there are 15 statements that clearly teach the 100% sufficiency of Christ's blood sacrifice on the cross.

b) Each clearly says that Christ's sacrifice is ONCE for all.

c) No more sacrifice is required.

d) Priests sacrifices can never take away sins.

The mass is a sacrifice without blood. Yet the Bible says that "without the shedding of blood there is no remission." (of sin). We do not need to sacrifice Christ again. His sacrifice 2,000 years ago is sufficient.

f) Confession is also called "RECONCILIATION."

Christ alone on the cross "made reconciliation for the sins of the people." Hebrews 2:17.

"God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself." 1 Corinthians 5:19.

"when we were enemies, WE WERE RECONCILED to God by the death of his Son." Roman 5:10.

"God, who HAS RECONCILED us to himself, by JESUS CHRIST." II Corinthians 5:18.

"And you, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet NOW HATH HE RECONCILED." Colossians 1:21.

Notice that the Biblical reconciliation is:

1. Past tense.

2. By Jesus Christ, not by a Catholic priest.

3. We already possess reconciliation, we don't get it at confession.

ERROR 13: OTHER MEDIATORS BETWEEN GOD and MAN.

We have Christ as our Great High Priest who gives us full access to God's throne of grace. We do not need a human priest, nor Mary, nor dead saints to intercede for us. "Seeing then that we HAVE a GREAT HIGH PRIEST....JESUS CHRIST the Son of God....Let us therefore COME BOLDLY unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need." Hebrews 4:14,16.

The Catholic priest, not only makes Christ's death on the cross a waste of time, but he also takes Christ's place as intermediary between man and God, when he says that you can't be saved unless you come to mass performed by him. They call him "Vicar" meaning "in the place of". "For there is one God, and ONE MEDIATOR between God and man, the man Christ Jesus." 1 Timothy 2:5.

Catholicism calls Mary a "Mediatorix".

Jesus is falsely portrayed as being ANGRY with people.

Mary is falsely portrayed as being MERCIFUL, and as Jesus' mother, is seen as uniquely able to pacify Jesus Christ's supposed anger towards people.

The Bible says that there is ONE MEDIATOR who is Jesus Christ and no one else. Jesus Christ is the merciful and faithful High Priest. Because he has suffered earthly temptations, he is well able to comfort us in earthly temptations. Hebrews 2:17,18.

Question: Where does it say that Jesus is angry with Christians?

Answer: Nowhere. "I will be merciful to their unrighteousness." Hebrews 8:12.

ERROR 14: PRAYERS TO SAINTS.

The Bible states that all true believers are "saints".

"To the saints which are at Ephesus." Ephesians 1:1.

"To all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi." Philippians 1:1.

"Praying to saints" is a Catholic device to stop people from praying to God and turns people away from developing a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

Again, this false doctrine teaches that dead saints are more approachable and helpful than Jesus Christ.

Question: Do you see that a constant theme of Catholicism is to turn people away from Jesus Christ?

It turns people instead to Mary, saints, a wafer, a priest, traditions, popes, etc.

Why? What have they got against Jesus Christ? In fact, prayers to saints are:

1. Contrary to the Bible which says "After this manner pray ye: "Our Father". Matthew 6:9.
2. Contacting the dead is forbidden in Deuteronomy 18:10,11.

"There shall not be found among you any one that ... is a necromancer."

A necromancer is one who seeks to contact the dead. Much of what is attributed to saints is false. For example, St Philomena was proclaimed a saint by Leo XII, and Pope Gregory XVI blessed one of her images. Rome later admitted that she never existed and in 1961 struck her off the list of saints.

3. There is no Bible example of praying to saints, nor is there any Bible example of them having power to answer prayer. We pray to God the Father with Jesus as our only intercessor. Once again, "There is one mediator between God and man, the man Christ Jesus." 1 Timothy 2:5.

ERROR 15: PURGATORY.

Purgatory is an imaginary half-way place between heaven and hell, where unforgiven sin is purged away. This is a great evil because:

1. It deceives Catholics into thinking that they may be lukewarm and easily avoid hell.
2. It denies that Christ's blood sacrifice on the cross is sufficient to pay for all of our sins. It says that Christ did not die for all our sins, so we must be punished for them in purgatory.
3. It denies the Biblical doctrine of true salvation in Christ and certainty of eternal life, forcing a person to work for their salvation.

Answer: The Bible states clearly that Christ purged our sins on the cross.

1"When he had by himself PURGED OUR SINS." Hebrews 1:3, and

2"There is therefore now no condemnation to them that are in Christ Jesus." Rom. 8:1;John 5:24

Why didn't the Apostles discuss purgatory?

Did God and the Apostles forget to tell us something important? No. When a believer dies, he is immediately present with Christ. "To be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord."

2 Corinthians 5:8. There is no mention here of having to spend time in purgatory. ⁴ Jesus in Luke 16:19-31 reveals that there is a great gulf between paradise and hell. People cannot pass from one to the other.

Catholics defend purgatory by quoting 2 Maccabees 12:40-46 where a "sin offering" is offered for dead soldiers who had committed the sin of idolatry. This not only contradicts the Bible, but also contradicts Catholic teaching, because idolatry is a mortal sin that would confine a person to hell. The Book of Maccabees has never been regarded as inspired by Jews or Christians.

For the Roman Catholic, purgatory teaching is:

1. A terrifying prospect of entering a place of unspeakable torture. Millions of Catholics live and die in great fear of death, to spend an unknown number of years in purgatory. Christ came to "deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage." Hebrews 2:15. Roman Catholicism is a religion of fear.
 - a) Fear of purgatory.
 - b) Fear of the priest.
 - c) Fear of the confessional.
 - d) Fear of death.
 - e) Fear of the consequences of missing mass.
 - f) Fear of the discipline of penance.
 - g) Fear of the righteous judgment of an angry God.

2. A great money raiser

Suffering in purgatory may be shortened by gifts of money, masses, prayers by the priests, etc.

Question 1: If the Pope or priest, really has the power to shorten or stop the suffering of souls in purgatory, why does he not, if he is a good man, render that service freely and willingly as a service to humanity?

Purgatory is a "gigantic fraud" and a "colossal racket", because it deprives the poor of their last pennies and extorts large funds from the rich in exchange for NOTHING.

Question 2: Mr priest, how do you know when to stop saying masses, or if you've said too many?
How do you know when the person is out of purgatory?

Question 3: Mr priest and pope, when you die, do you know for sure if you'd go to heaven?

Answer: I don't know.

This message of purgatory offers NOTHING to a sad and perishing world.

Problem: The purgatory doctrine represents God as a respecter of persons. Because of money, a rich man can pay more for prayers and masses, than can a poor man. The rich man therefore passes more speedily through purgatory and into heaven than the poor man. The Bible teaches that entrance into heaven is not based on one's wealth, but on one's response to receiving Jesus Christ as Saviour alone. Compare death for a believing Protestant or Baptist which is the joy of promotion to heaven.

ERROR 16: PAPAL INFALLIBILITY (declared in 1870 AD).

Definition: When a pope is speaking in his official position on any issue of faith or morals, he is speaking infallibly, meaning without error.

Answer: The apostles never regarded any man to be infallible. Only the Word of God is regarded as without error.

If Peter was pope, which the Bible says he was not, then he made mistakes as in Galatians 2:11-14 when he was deceived by Judaizers. "But when Peter came to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed."

The following events from history show the error of papal infallibility.

1. Pope John XII, in the "Liber Pontificalis," the Catholic publication discussing the lives of the popes, states that "He spent his entire life in adultery."

2. Popes Innocent III, Gregory XI, Clement IV, Hadrian VI, and Paul IV all disagreed with papal infallibility.
3. Pope Stephen VI (896) had the dead pope Formosus (891-6) tried, questioned, fingers hacked off, dragged through Rome and thrown into the Tiber river.
4. Pope Hadrian II (867) declared civil marriage to be valid, but Pope Pius VII (1800-23) declared it to be invalid.
5. Pope Eugene IV (1431) had Joan of Arc burned alive as a witch, but later Pope Benedict IV in 1919 declared her to be a saint.
6. Pope Pius XI in 1929 endorsed Fascism and called Mussolini "a man sent by God." However, before World War II, he warned people against Mussolini.
7. The Vatican advised the German Catholic Party to vote for Nazi candidates. In 1933, the Vatican and Hitler signed a concordat, where the Catholic church swore allegiance to the Nazi government. Later on Pope Pius XI condemned Hitler.

How can a supposedly infallible man make so many errors of judgment, and even contradict other so-called infallible popes? Surely this disproves papal infallibility to any honest, open-minded person.

ERROR 17: INDULGENCES.

Definition: A person after confessing his sins to a priest, in order to be free from the punishment still due for his sins, requires the church to pray for his rehabilitation. The person must do penance works such as fasting, making pilgrimages, giving money, making prayers or inflicting pain on oneself, as a penalty for sins committed.

Historically, people found it easier to pay money to the Roman Catholic church than to pray for long hours. The Roman Catholic church preferred money because the Pope ran out of cash in building St Peter's Basilica in Rome. So the Roman Catholic church issued the person with an official statement that he had received release from the penalties through the payment of money. This document was called an indulgence. They could be bought for friends and relatives who had died and passed into purgatory, thus shortening the time that they would have to spend there.

Martin Luther objected to Tetzl, a Catholic indulgence seller, who publicly announced to people that if they put a coin in a box, a dead relative's soul would immediately pop out of purgatory. His advertising slogan was: "As the coin in you pop, a soul from purgatory doth hop."

Answer: Obviously, this teaching cannot be found in the Bible. After World War II, the Archbishop of Winnipeg asked mothers who had sons killed in the war, to pay $40 to have masses said on behalf of their sons to guarantee their salvation and entrance to heaven. This practice continues in many parts of the world, and accounts for the great wealth of the Catholic church as seen in the big cathedrals it builds.

Which Bible verses forbid indulgence selling?

1. Jesus warns against this practice in Matthew 23:14, a verse that Catholics have cut out of modern Bible versions. "Woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For ye devour widows houses, and for a pretense make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation." The Pharisees of Jesus' day, as well as Catholic priests of today, tell widows that their dead husband has gone to purgatory. They ask her if she wants him to go to heaven. If yes, she will have to pay the priest to say a mass to pray for his soul to leave purgatory. Widows don't usually have much money, so he tells her to sell her house to pay for it. This is how widows houses are devoured by priests who for a pretense make long prayers.
2. The Israelites were forbidden to give money for the dead. "None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him." Psalms 49:7. No gift of money can save another person. Only the blood of Christ can.
3. Peter says: "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold ... but with the precious blood of Christ." 1 Peter 1:18,19. Nobody is redeemed with indulgence money.
4. Simon the sorcerer offered the apostles money so that anyone that he laid hands on would receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. Peter rebuked him strongly in Acts 8:20-23 saying: "Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the GIFT OF GOD may be purchased with money. Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God. Repent therefore of this thy wickedness." Salvation is the gift of God that each of us must claim freely for ourselves when we call on Christ to be our Saviour. No baptism, eucharist, confessional to a priest, penance, extreme unction, or paying money can save us, only faith in Christ's precious saving blood to pay for our sins.

ERROR 18: IDOLATRY. This is MAKING IMAGES.

The Catholic Council of Trent declares that: "It is lawful to have images in the church and to give honour and worship to them. ... Images are put in churches that they may be worshipped." The Oxford dictionary defines an idol as: "An image used as an object of worship. A person or thing that is the object of excessive devotion." An Idolater is a devoted admirer of idols.

Answer: What does the Bible say about images and idols?

1. Exodus 20:4, 5.

- a) Thou shalt not MAKE unto thee ANY graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth.
- b) Thou shalt not BOW DOWN thyself to them.
- c) Nor SERVE them.

If you make any graven image you've broken this commandment, whether you worship it or not.

Question 1: Do Catholics MAKE graven images? Yes.

Question 2: Do Catholics KNEEL down to statues of Mary or Jesus? Yes.

Question 3: Do Catholics SERVE Mary? Yes, as in "Legion of Mary."

2. Leviticus 26:1.

- a) "You shall make you NO IDOLS nor GRAVEN IMAGE.
- b) Neither rear you up a STANDING IMAGE.
- c) Neither shall ye set up any IMAGE OF STONE in your land to bow down unto it."

Question 4: Do Catholics rear up STANDING IMAGES? Yes.

Question 5: Do Catholics set up any IMAGE OF STONE? Yes.

3. Deuteronomy 4:16.

"Lest ye corrupt yourselves, and MAKE you a GRAVEN IMAGE, the similitude of ANY FIGURE, the likeness of MALE or FEMALE."

Question 6: Do Catholics make graven images of MALE or FEMALE? Yes.
Mary is a female. Jesus and the apostles are males.

4. Deuteronomy 16:22.

"Neither shalt thou SET thee UP ANY IMAGE: which the Lord thy God HATES."

Question 7: Do Catholics SET UP ANY IMAGES? Yes.

Question 8: Does God HATE IMAGES? Yes.

5. 1 Thessalonians 1:9.

"How ye turned to God FROM IDOLS to serve the living and true God."

Question 9: Did the early Christians turn FROM IDOLS? Yes.

6. Deuteronomy 27:15.

"CURSED be the man that MAKES ANY GRAVEN or MOLTEN IMAGE, an abomination unto the Lord, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and putteth it in a secret place."

Question 10: Does God put a curse on any person that makes any image? Yes.

Question 11: Why does God call an image an ABOMINATION? Because He hates it.

7. Isaiah 40:18,19.

"To whom then will ye liken God? or what LIKENESS will ye compare unto him? The workman melteth a graven image"

Note: God has no visible form and we cannot liken him to any material object.

The Catholic answer is that they say that they do not worship images.

God's reply is not to MAKE IMAGES.

8. The early Christians had NO IMAGES.

Early Christian writers such as Irenaeus, Clement, Cyprian, Athanasius and Jerome, wrote strongly AGAINST images, statues and any manner of prayer or veneration regarding them. The Council of Constantinople in 381 AD voted unanimously to remove all images from the churches.

9. The Catholic church removes the second commandment against MAKING graven images from the list of 10 Commandments in Exodus 20:1-17 in their Catechism. This presents them with the problem of only having 9 commandments. They resolve this problem by splitting commandment number 10 into 9 and 10 as follows:

9. You shall not covet your neighbour's wife.

10. You shall not covet your neighbour's goods.

This is seen in the book "A brief summary of the Ten Commandments" by the Daughters of St. Paul, p.12,13:

WHAT ARE THE COMMANDMENTS OF GOD?

The Catholic Catechism

The Commandments of God are these ten:

"I am the Lord your God:

1. You shall not have strange Gods before me.

[omitted]

2. You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain.

3. Remember to keep holy the Lord's day.

4. Honor your father and your mother.

5. You shall not kill.

6. You shall not commit adultery.

7. You shall not steal.

8. You shall not bear false witness

9. You shall not covet your neighbour's wife.

10. You shall not covet your neighbour's goods."

The second Commandment should be "Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image." Exodus 20:4.

Check your Catechism to see if they have left it out.

Question: Why do you think they left it out?

10. Every Catholic institution has images of Mary, Jesus, male and female figures. An example of this are two statues at the French Papal Palace of Avignon, one of Jesus about 10 metres above ground level, and the other is an enormous statue of Mary, much larger, grander and higher up than that of Jesus. This gives greater honour to Mary than to Jesus. It also clearly breaks the second commandment forbidding making images of things in heaven.

Question: Who do we believe, the Word of God or the Catholic Church?

"We ought to obey God, rather than men." Acts 5:29.

ERROR 19: MARY VENERATION.

Here are some of the many errors associated with Mary veneration:

1. Historical connection with Pagan mother and child worship.

Mother and child worship started at the Tower of Babel. Nimrod, King of Babel was killed for his great evil. His wife Semiramis, fearing that she would lose control, devised a plan to maintain the people's loyalty. She and everybody knew about the future birth of a virgin born Messiah/Saviour promised in Genesis 3:15 as the "seed of the woman" who would bruise satan's head. So Semiramis had an illegitimate son, whom she named "Tammuz." She commanded that everyone worship herself and Tammuz as the fulfilment of Genesis 3:15, claiming that her son was supernaturally conceived and was the promised saviour.

When the people at Babel were scattered, they carried this mother and child worship with them wherever they went. This is why we see so much mother and child worship in so many ancient societies.

“They forsook the Lord, and served Baal and Ashtaroth.” Judges 2:13.

When the early Christian church grew through the preaching of Paul and others, no compromise was made with pagan mother and child worship. When the Ephesians were truly converted, they destroyed their idols of the goddess Diana, so that the silversmith craftsmen were going out of business. (Acts 19:24-27). When the Roman Emperor Constantine professed conversion in 320 AD, he commanded that everyone in the Roman Empire become “Christian”. At this time, half the empire were pagan worshippers of mother and child, and the other half professed to be Christian. It is obvious that you cannot pass a law to compel everyone to follow a certain religion, as people have their own free will. A compromise was reached which allowed the pagans to continue their mother and child worship, yet still give the appearance of being Christian. They simply changed their pagan mother and child worship to worship Mary and Jesus. For example, in the following ancient cultures, the mother and child were represented as follows:

	Mother	Son
Babylon	Semiramis	Tammuz
China	Shingmoo
Germany	Hertha	Child
Scandinavia	Disa
Etruscans	Nutria
Greece	Aphrodite or Ceres	Bacchus
Rome	Venus	Jupiter
India	Devaki	Krishna
Asia	Cybele	Deoius
Canaan	Ashtaroth	Baal
Ephesus	Diana
Egypt	Isis	Horus
Phonicians	Lady of the Sea, Astarte

- This resulted in Mary worship becoming an official doctrine of the Roman Church in 431 AD at the Council of Ephesus. Since then, Mary worship has grown, so that Mary is now called the "Mother of God", the "Queen of Heaven", "Madonna", etc.
- Note also that Mary never claimed to be the "Queen of Heaven" as this was a pagan goddess that apostate Israelites made cakes to, thus provoking God to anger. "the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the Queen of Heaven,... that they may provoke me to anger." Jeremiah 7:18 and 44:17,18,19,25.
- In pagan religions, the mother was worshipped as much or more than her son, yet the Bible clearly shows that Christ is to be worshipped and NEVER Mary.

2. The Bible never mentions Mary interceding for us.

Who did the thief on the cross appeal to for salvation? Was it Christ or Mary? Jesus said:

"Come unto ME, all ye that labour and are heavy laden and I will give you rest." Matthew 11:28.

"Him that cometh to me, I will in no wise cast out." John 6:37.

"No man cometh unto the Father, but by ME." John 14:6.

Praying to Mary is a device to turn people away from praying to Christ. Acts 4:12 states that there is no salvation in anyone but Christ. Luke records a woman saying to Jesus about Mary in Luke 11:27,28, "Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked (Mary). But he said, Yea rather, blessed are they that hear the Word of God, and keep it."

As a man, Jesus always said "No!" to Mary's requests. For example, in John 2:3,4,5 Jesus rejected Mary's request for more wine by saying: "Woman, what have I to do with thee?"

Mary then told the servants, "Whatsoever he saith unto you, DO IT."

Jesus did not say "Yes mother, I will do anything you ask."

3. The Immaculate Conception.

Definition: "Mary was born sinless and led a sinless life." She was declared to be "infallible" and this was made official by Pope Pius IX in 1854. He said, "There is no salvation to those who do not believe this dogma."

Answer: Even St Augustine wrote that Mary's flesh was "flesh of sin" and that "Mary springing from Adam, died because of sin." Mary acknowledges that she is a sinner by calling God her Saviour. Only a sinner needs a Saviour.

"My spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour." Luke 1:47.

"For ALL HAVE SINNED and come short of the glory of God." Romans 3:23.

"There is none righteous, no not one." Romans 3:10.

4. Perpetual Virginitv.

Definition: "Mary remained a virgin all her life, never having sex with her husband Joseph and therefore having no other children."

Answer: This idea is found NOWHERE in the Bible. This idea was official dogma in 451 AD. Note these Bible verses disproving this false doctrine:

a) "Joseph took unto him his wife: and knew her not TILL she had brought forth her firstborn son..." (Matthew 1:25). This means that Joseph knew Mary sexually in normal marriage relations after Jesus was born.

b) Jesus' fellow Nazareth townfolk who grew up with him asked: "Is not this the carpenter's son? Is not his mother called Mary? and his brothers, James, Joses, Simon and Judas? And his sisters, are they not all with us?" (Matthew 13:55,56). Jesus here has brothers (adelphos) and sisters (adelphai). Catholicism attempts to explain these away as cousins. This cannot be valid because the Greek word for cousin is "anephios." Mark 6:3 also translates these as "brothers" and "sisters".

c) Jesus had brothers: "Neither did his brethren believe in him." John 7:5.

"These all continued ... with his brethren." Acts 1:14.

Nine times the Bible says that Mary was not a perpetual virgin.

5. The Assumption of Mary.

Definition: "Mary ascended into heaven in a bodily form."

This was made official and "infallible" by Pope Pius XII in 1951.

Answer: This is NOWHERE mentioned in the Bible.

"No man has ascended up to heaven, but ... the Son of man ..." John 3:13.

"Ascended" in the Greek means "go up of one's own power" not taken up as was Elijah & Enoch.

Objection: Doesn't Revelation 12:1-7 describe a woman in heaven clothed with the sun, having the moon under her feet and a crown of 12 stars on her head, giving birth to a man child (Christ), refer to Mary?

Answer: No. Because:

a) Genesis 37:9,10 shows this woman to be the Israelite nation, with the sun representing Jacob, the moon representing his wife Rachel, and the 12 stars representing the 12 tribes of Israel. Christ was born of Israel. The Israelite nation is often referred to as a woman in Isaiah 54:5, "thy Maker is thine husband," and Jeremiah 31:32, "although I was a husband unto them."

b) This woman cannot be Mary, because this woman is on earth during the Tribulation, whereas Mary's spirit is in heaven at that time.

c) This woman is persecuted on earth during this time, yet Mary in heaven cannot be persecuted on earth.

6. False Prophecies and Miracles attributed to Mary.

Many "visions", "miracles" and "prophecies" have been attributed to Mary. For example, the vision attributed to Mary at Fatima in 1917 told three shepherd children to repeat the rosary daily. It called for people to reform their lives and to build a chapel in her honour.

Also, the message at Medjugorje, Yugoslavia, attributed to Mary said that: "God is not looking for great believers, but simply for those who respect their faith and live peacefully. Peace is more important than conversion, fasting, penance or prayer."

Question: Do you believe that every vision a person claims to have is true and from God?

Answer: Satan can give false visions, miracles and prophecies to deceive people away from the gospel of salvation by faith in Christ. "Though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel, let him be accursed." Galatians 1:8.

Notice how these visions turn people's attention AWAY FROM CHRIST to something else, such as, saying the rosary or peace. These visions have three errors in common:

- a) They usually point people to peace and the Catholic church.
- b) They glorify Mary, instead of Jesus.
- c) They contradict and ignore the Bible.

Beware of Satan transforming himself into an angel of light. To avoid being deceived, we must test everything by the Word of God.

Charles Chiniquy, a former priest from Montreal, Canada, who became a Presbyterian minister, tells of the following conversation between himself and his bishop when doubts began to assail him regarding the place given to Mary:

CC: "My lord, who has saved you and me upon the cross?"

He answered, "Jesus Christ."

CC: "And who paid your debt and mine by shedding His blood; was it Mary or Jesus?"

He said: "Jesus Christ."

CC: "Now, my lord, when Jesus and Mary were on earth, who loved the sinner more; was it Mary or Jesus?"

Again he answered that it was Jesus.

CC: "Did any sinner come to Mary on earth to be saved?"

"No."

CC: "Do you remember that any sinner has gone to Jesus to be saved?"

"Yes, many."

CC: "Have they been rebuked?"

"Never."

CC: Do you remember that Jesus ever said to sinners, 'Come to Mary and she will save you?'

"No", he said.

CC: "Do you remember that Jesus has said to poor sinners, 'Come to me?'" "

"Yes, He has said it."

CC: "Has He ever retracted those words?"

"No".

CC: "And who was, then, the more powerful to save sinners?"

"Oh, it was Jesus!"

CC: "Now my lord, since Jesus and Mary are in heaven, can you show me in the Scriptures that Jesus has lost anything of his desire and power to save sinners, or that He has delegated His power to Mary?"

And the bishop answered "No."

CC: "Then, my lord, why do we not go to Him, and to Him alone? Why do we invite poor sinners to come to Mary, when, by your own confession she is nothing compared with Jesus, in power, in mercy, in love, and in compassion for the sinner?"

To that the Bishop could give no answer. (Fifty Years in the Church of Rome, p. 262).

ERROR 20: CATHOLIC ATTITUDES TO THE BIBLE.

1. The Roman Catholic church has a history of burning Bibles.
2. When it could not stop Bibles being printed, it denied anti-catholic scriptures by saying "that's your interpretation", meaning that the Bible has no authority if anyone can interpret it in any manner.
3. They allow Catholics to read the Bible, but teach that it is wrong and sinful to put any interpretation on scriptures that is contrary to Roman Catholic doctrine. In other words, don't think for yourself, you may discover that Catholic doctrine is full of error and contradictions. Just blindly accept everything Rome tells you. Trust Rome.

ERROR 21: PETER AS THE ROCK (Matthew 16:18,19).

The whole structure of the Roman Catholic church is built on the assumption that in Matthew 16:13-19, Christ appointed Peter to be the first pope and so established the papacy. If we destroy the papacy of Peter, the foundation of the papacy is destroyed along with the whole Roman Catholic hierarchy.

"And I say also unto thee, that thou art Peter (Greek: ¹ Petros, ² masculine, ³ a person, ⁴ a large stone, ⁵ a piece or fragment of rock such as a man might throw); and upon this rock

(Greek: ¹ Petra, ² feminine, ³ not a person, but a ⁴ cliff, a mass of projecting immovable rock.)

I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and WHATSOEVER thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and WHATSOEVER thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven."

Catholicism claims several false doctrines from this passage:

- a) Peter is the rock.
- b) Peter is the first pope, with special spiritual supremacy over the church.
- c) This same spiritual authority has always resided in the popes of Rome, as being Peter's successors. (This idea is nowhere mentioned in Scripture).
- d) Christ built his church on Peter. This is contrary to God's Word which says:
"For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ." I Corinthians 3:11.
- e) Christ gave Peter keys to admit into heaven only those who came via the Roman Catholic church.
- f) Those not coming through the Roman church would be bound in sin and unable to enter heaven.

Each of these six claims can be shown to be false as follows:

1. Peter is not the rock, because the 12 disciples, knowing well the Old Testament, recognised the Rock as a description or name for God.

"He is the Rock, His word is perfect."

Deuteronomy 32:4.

"The Lord is my Rock, and my fortress." Psalms 18:2.

"For who is a God save the Lord? Or who is a Rock save our God." Psalm 18:31.

We see here that there is NO OTHER ROCK than God, not even Peter.

Jesus Christ is the foundation rock on which the church is built.

- a) The Old Testament prophets said so. (Isaiah 28:16; Psalm 118:22).
- b) Jesus said so referring to Himself as "the stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner." Matthew 21:42.
- c) Peter said so, stating that Christ is "the stone ... which is become the head of the corner. Neither is there salvation in any other ..." Acts 4:11,12.
- d) Paul said so, stating that "the rock that followed them was Christ." I Corinthians 10:4 and "other foundation can no man lay then that is laid which is Jesus Christ." I Corinthians 3:11.

Catholicism is saying that salvation is not in Christ, but in Peter as the first of a succession of popes. Peter, however, contradicts this wrong idea by saying that, "Christ is the chief corner stone" in 1 Peter 2:4-8.

"To whom coming, as unto a living stone. (v.4).

Behold I lay in Zion a Chief corner stone.he that believeth on him shall not be confounded. v.6. The stone which the builders disallowed is become the head of the corner. (v.7). And a stone of stumbling, & a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient."v.8 Even if we allow Catholicism to believe that Peter is a foundation stone upon which Christ built His church, Catholicism has to admit that other New Testament apostles and Old Testament prophets make up the foundation equally as much as Peter does, because:

- "And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief cornerstone." Ephesians 2:20.
- "And the wall of the city had 12 foundations, and in them the names of the 12 apostles of the lamb." Revelation 21:14.

Peter is given no greater importance than any of the other apostles.

"Thou art Peter (Petros), and upon this rock (Petra) I will build my church." Matthew 16:18.

Answer: In the Greek, the word "Peter" is Petros, a person, masculine, a rock or stone that a man might throw.

In the Greek, the word "Rock" is "Petra", not a person, but a cliff, a mass of projecting, immovable rock. It refers not to Peter, but to Peter's declaration of Christ's deity, "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God." Matthew 16:16.

"PETROS" means a small, moveable stone, but "PETRA" means an immovable foundation, in this case, Peter's statement on Christ's deity, upon which Christ would build His church.

- Christ made two complete, distinct statements:

He said: 1. Thou art Peter, and

2. Upon this rock (change of gender, showing change of subject), I will build my church.

Peter was not characterised by a "PETRA" immovable foundation, as seen in these incidents:

- a) Peter soon tried to stop Jesus going to the cross, so Jesus gave him a stinging rebuke: "Get thee behind me, Satan." (v.23). These are strong words to use against someone who has just been appointed pope.
- b) Peter slept in Gethsemane during Christ's agony.
- c) Christ rebuked Peter for rashly cutting off Malchus' ear.
- d) Peter boasted that he was ready to die for Christ.
- e) Peter then shamefully denied with curses that he knew Christ.
- f) Paul rebuked Peter for error and hypocrisy at Antioch in Galatians 2:11, "But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed."
- g) In Mark 9:33-35, the disciples argued as to who was the greatest among them. Had Jesus already given Peter the chief rank of pope, then Christ would have simply referred to His previous granting of power to Peter. Yet Jesus just said that the greatest shall be last and servant of all.
- h) Augustine and Jerome state that the Rock is Christ, not Peter. Mark's gospel was written by Mark, assisted by Peter, yet neither Mark's gospel or Peter's letters mention this incident. They would surely mention it if we needed to know it.

God is called the "Rock" 34 times in the Old Testament. It was clearly a title of God. Every Jew would be shocked to call a man the "Rock". Therefore "Peter" and "Rock" are translated as two different words, with two different meanings.

Note: In John 1:42, Jesus said, "Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called CEPHAS, which is by interpretation, a STONE." Cephas (2786) is a Syriac surname given to Simon, which is "Petros" in Greek, not "Petra". Peter did not call himself by his Syriac name (Cephas), but by his Greek name (1 Peter 1:1; 2 Peter 1:1). The word for rock (Petra) in Matthew 16:18 is the same word used for the rock fortress at Edom, known as "PETRA." It is 1.4 kilometres long,

226 metres high, 457 metres wide. Jesus did not say that Peter was the PETRA rock fortress, but that Simon was Petros, a piece of rock. Only God is called "a ROCK." Jesus is just saying to Simon, "I will make you a firm and distinguished preacher in building my church."

2. Peter is NOT the first pope, with supremacy over the Church because of these reasons:
 - a) At the Jerusalem council in Acts 15:13-19, the advice of James not Peter was sought and followed. James, not Peter was the spokesman who handed down the decision.
 - b) If Peter was the first pope, he would have had a greater position than the other disciples. When the disciples discussed which of them was the greatest in Mark 9:33-35, Jesus had a great chance to affirm Peter's headship as the first pope, but Jesus simply said that the greatest shall be a servant of all. Thus Jesus showed no special papal leadership to Peter. Nor should we.
3. Peter was given the keys of the kingdom of heaven (Christian profession in the Church Age), only in the sense that it was Peter who opened the door of Gospel preaching opportunity to Israel on the day of Pentecost (Acts 2:38-42), and to the Gentiles in the house of Cornelius (Acts 10:34-46). Peter opened the door, and everybody who received Christ as Saviour went into the Kingdom of God through Christ.

ERROR 22: FIFTEEN APOCRYPHA BOOKS added to the Old Testament Bible in 1546 AD.

Roman Catholicism added these books in order to undermine Protestant belief in the Bible as sole authority. Some apocryphal books seemed to support Catholic dogma. We reject the Apocrypha for these reasons:

Reason 1: The Jews never received these books. They were rejected by both Jews and all Christians up till 400 AD. Jesus never quoted from the Apocrypha.

Reason 2: They have many errors of time, history, geography, as well as contradictions to the Bible. Examples of errors are:

1. Judith falsely states that Nebuchadnezzar reigns over the Assyrians, but he ruled Babylon instead.
2. Judith has Holofernes moving an immense army 300 miles in 3 days (2:21).
3. Tobit could not have witnessed the division of Israel into the Northern and Southern kingdoms in 931 BC (Tobit 1:4), and have been deported 200 years later in 734 BC (Tobit 1:10).
4. Ecclesiasticus 3:3 states that giving money forgives sins, which contradicts the work of Christ on the cross.

Reason 3: Christ and the Apostles in the New Testament quote 260 times from 35 out of 39 Old Testament books, yet they never quote from the Apocrypha.

Reason 4: Josephus in 90 AD listed all the 39 Old Testament books, yet he did not include the Apocrypha. The Catholic church only added them at the Council of Trent to defend the Protestants attack on purgatory, where 2 Maccabees 12:40-45 tells of Judas Maccabeus offering a sacrifice for soldiers who died while guilty of the mortal sin of idolatry.

ERROR 23: NAMES OF BLASPHEMY.

Officials of the Roman Catholic church take names for themselves that are reserved to God, the Lord Jesus Christ such as:

1. Pontifex Maximus is a papal title meaning in Latin, "chief bridge maker" between earth and heaven. However, Jesus Christ is the only One who can claim this title because "no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." (John 14:6). This was a title of Julius Caesar and of the Roman Emperors of paganism, thus showing how modern Roman Catholicism is of pagan origin. Constantine, a politician, in 320 AD, hijacked the church of Rome, taking control of it for himself. Hence, all popes accept the title "Pontifex Maximus" which title belonged to the Roman Emperors from Julius Caesar onwards.
2. Holy Father is a title the pope claims for himself. However, this title occurs only once in the Bible, and used when Jesus addresses His Heavenly Father in John 17:11 in His great prayer before His betrayal, arrest and crucifixion. It is blasphemy for any man to claim this title for himself. It belongs only to God the Father.

3. Father is a title that every Roman Catholic priest claims for himself and expects to be called. Jesus warns in Matthew 23:9, "Call no man your father upon the earth: for one is your father which is in heaven."
Objection: But isn't it wrong to call your earthly parent "father"?
Answer: No, because in Romans 4:1, "Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?" God refers to Abraham as "our father pertaining to the flesh" which is an acceptable usage. Obviously the Roman Catholic priest is not your physical father, but claims to be a spiritual father, which is what God forbids. We ought not to call a priest "father", unless he is your physical parent.
4. Monsignor means "my Lord", and this clearly is a title belonging only to God, the Lord Jesus Christ. This is a name of blasphemy that Romanism takes from God.
5. Reverend is a title of many Roman Catholic priests and Protestant ministers. This is also a title for God in Psalms 111:9, "Holy and Reverend is his name." It is always blasphemy for any man to take to himself a title of God. No preacher in the early church claimed "Reverend" as his title, nor can we today.
 In Revelation 17:3, John saw a whore riding a beast described as "full of names of blasphemy." These five names of blasphemy of the Roman Catholic church link it with the whore called "Mystery Babylon the Great, the Mother of Harlots, and abominations of the earth." Rev. 17:5.
6. "God himself on earth" is a papal title in the New York Catechism.
7. Other Blasphemous titles given to Mary are Queen of Heaven, the Gate of Heaven, our life, Mother of Grace, Mother of Mercy, etc. Heaven has no Queen, only the King. Christ is the Door, the Life etc. For Mary to hear all Catholic prayers she would need to have the omniscient powers of God. This is Blasphemy!

ERROR 24: ROSARY PRAYER BEADS.

Saying the rosary is often assigned to a person after he has been to confession as a penance or as a means of storing up merit in heaven. The rosary may be defined as:

1. A series of prayers, in its long form consisting of:
 - 15 "Our Fathers" (the Lord's prayer, addressed to God the Father).
 - 15 "Glory be's", and
 - 150 "Hail Mary's" addressed to Mary as follows: "Hail Mary, full of grace ...pray for us sinners."
2. A chain of beads for counting the prayers. Note that the rosary has TEN TIMES as many prayers addressed to Mary (150), as are addressed to God the Father (15), with none addressed to Christ. It thus exalts Mary 10 TIMES more than GOD.

Jesus forbids the rosary prayer in Matthew 6:7,8 "But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. Be not ye therefore like unto them."

The Bible teaches that the true believer should pray to God from the heart reverently, thankfully, humbly, thinking of what he is doing, and of God to whom he is speaking. Buddhists and Moslems use a prayer device similar to rosary beads. Reject the rosary.

ERROR 25: LOW MORAL STANDARDS.

The Protestant moral code comes directly from the Bible. Example, "Don't steal" means "Don't steal." The Roman Catholic moral code is mainly based on Catholic Canon law, and only secondarily on the Bible. For example, "Don't steal" means "stealing is alright provided that the value of the thing stolen is not excessive." (Liguori)

The authority of the church as interpreted by the priest is what matters. The Catholic standard of morality is not to stir the conscience to decide right and wrong for itself, but to let the papal church decide what is right and wrong. Drinking liquor and gambling considered as vices by Protestants, are not counted as evil by Romanist's except when indulged to excess.

Loyola, the founder of the Jesuits states that "if anything shall appear white to our eyes which the church has defined as black, we likewise must declare it to be black." This means "DON'T THINK, just accept whatever Rome tells you."

Consider these moral sins perpetrated by Roman Catholicism:

1. Alcoholic Liquor.

"LOOK NOT upon the wine when it is red ... it bites like a serpent." Proverbs 23:31,32.

"Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise." Prov. 20:1.

"Woe unto him that giveth his neighbour drink...and makest him drunken..." Habakkuk 2:15.

Roman Catholic theologian Liguori states that, "It is not a mortal sin to get drunk, unless one loses completely the use of his mental facilities for over one hour." The Protestant cannot force his will and conscience to approve, believe and do what his mind knows to be wrong.

Jack Kennedy is considered a good Catholic, even though he made his millions illegally selling liquor in the prohibition days. This liquor ruined millions of people's lives through domestic violence, road deaths, deformed children of alcoholic parents, etc.

2. Gambling.

Roman Catholicism favours games of chance, especially as they play bingo in church halls. Gambling is an attempt to get something for nothing through the throw of dice, turn of a wheel etc. It is an attempt to live off the greed of others, not by honest toil. Gamblers often end up broke. Bingo familiarizes young people with other forms of gambling, and gives gambling the church stamp of approval. Organised gambling flourishes where the muscleman is boss and where business is done by threats, coercion and corruption, which are common methods used to extract gambling debts. Gambling is addictive to many people. This enslaves whole families into lives of poverty and fear. "Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself." Matthew 19:19.

Gambling wants to take as much as possible from one's neighbour, not love him as ourself.

3. Sexual abuse by priests of children.

The Roman Catholic church has spent hundreds of millions of dollars in compensating the victims of priest's sexual abuse of children. In many cases, these priests have simply been moved to another parish when their crime came to light. If the Roman Catholic church is the mother of holiness, how can this be?

ERROR 26: DEVOTION TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS AND MARY.

This is simply false, having no foundation in the Bible, yet why do Catholics accept this so blindly?

ERROR 27: CROSSING ONESELF.

This is a practice that is not found in the Bible either. Jesus never crossed himself, nor did the apostles, nor should we.

ERROR 28: WAS PETER THE FIRST POPE?

No, because:

1. Peter was married. Popes cannot marry. Jesus healed Peter's mother in law. "When Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw his WIFE'S MOTHER laid, and sick of a fever." Matt 8:14,15
"Have we not power to lead about a sister, a WIFE, as well as Cephas (Peter)?" 1 Corinthians 9:5
2. Peter would not allow men to bow down to him, as he forbid Cornelius in Acts 10:25,26. "Cornelius met him, fell down at this feet, and worshipped him. Peter ... said stand up; I myself am a man." The pope likes men to bow down to him.
3. Peter rejected the "tradition from your fathers," (1 Peter 1:18), yet the Catholic church and popes base their teachings on man's traditions.
4. Peter wore no crown as the pope does.
5. Peter had no wealth as the pope has: "Peter said, silver and gold have I none." Acts 3:6. Peter never ACTED like a pope, never DRESSED like a pope, never SPOKE like a pope, and people never APPROACHED him as a pope.
6. Peter never took to himself the title "PONTIFIX MAXIMUS" as all the popes willingly accept, as seen by the initials P.M. after their names in the Vatican. This was a title of the pagan Roman Emperors from Julius Caesar's time on. It means "Chief Bridge Maker between earth and heaven." This is a name of blasphemy for a man to take, and Peter never saw himself as such. Jesus Christ is the only Bridge Maker between earth and heaven. John 1:51.

ERROR 29: ROMAN CATHOLIC LIES, IMMORALITY and CORRUPTION.

More than 50 popes show themselves to be atheists or unbelievers. The history of the popes records homosexuality, rape, murder, adultery, drunkenness, selling religious offices, etc. This behaviour is hardly fitting a "Holy Father" or "The Vicar of Christ".

Examples include the following:

1. Pope Sergius III (904 - 911) obtained his office by murder. He fathered several illegitimate children by Marozia, who assassinated Pope Leo VI (928 - 929) and put her own teenage son (John XI) as Pope.
2. Pope John XII (955 - 964) is described in the Catholic Encyclopedia as a coarse, immoral man. The Catholic collection of the lives of the Popes, the "Liber Pontificalis" said: "He spent his entire life in adultery." Catholic bishop Luitprand states that "he had no respect for single girls, married woman or widows - they were sure to be defiled by him."
3. Pope Boniface VII (984 - 985), John XII and Leo VIII were described by the Bishop of Orleans as "monsters of guilt, reeking in blood and filth."
4. Pope John XV (985 - 996) split the churches finances among his relatives and was described as "covetous of filthy lucre and corrupt in all his acts."
5. Pope Benedict IX (1033 - 1045) committed murders and adulteries in broad daylight, robbed pilgrims, and was regarded as a hideous criminal. The people drove him out of Rome: The Catholic Encyclopedia says, "He was a disgrace to the chair of Peter."
6. Pope Innocent III (1198 - 1216) promoted the Inquisition, surpassing all his predecessors in killing over one million people.
7. Pope Boniface VIII (1294 - 1303). The Catholic Encyclopedia states "Scarcely any possible crime was omitted - heresy, gross and unnatural immorality, idolatry, magic, simony ... his whole pontificate was one record of evil." Dante visited Rome and described the Vatican as a "sewer of corruption" and assigned Boniface VII, Nicholas III and Clement V to the "lowest parts of hell." He proclaimed to be an atheist and in 1302 issued the "Unum Sanctum" officially declaring the Roman Catholic church as the only true church, outside of which no one can be saved.
8. Pope John XXIII (1410-1415) was accused by 37 clergy witnesses of fornication, adultery, incest, sodomy, simony, theft and murder. It was proved by a legion of witnesses that he had seduced and violated 300 nuns. He kept a harem at Boulogne of 200 girls. He was publicly called the devil incarnate. He has been called the most depraved criminal who ever sat on the papal throne.
9. Pope Pius II (1458 - 1464) fathered many illegitimate children and taught others to do likewise.
10. Pope Paul II (1464 - 1471) maintained a house full of concubines.
11. Pope Sixtus IV (1471 - 1484) financed his wars by selling church offices to the highest bidders.
12. Pope Innocent VII (1484 - 1492) fathered 16 illegitimate children by various women.
13. Pope Alexander VI (1492 - 1503) committed incest with his two sisters and daughter. On 31 October 1501, he conducted the worst ever Vatican sex orgy.
14. Pope Paul III (1534-1549) as a cardinal fathered 3 sons and a daughter. He consulted astrologers.
15. Pope Leo X (1513 - 1521) "was possessed by an insatiable love of pleasure, revelry and carousing." (Catholic Encyclopedia). Luther visited Rome and said: "No one can imagine what sins and infamous actions are committed in Rome." A saying was: "If there is a hell, Rome is built over it."
16. Pope Joan was a female pope whose name was changed to Pope Zacharias. Luther, on visiting Rome reported her statue in a back street. John Huss referred to her in his defence at the Council of Constance and this went unchallenged. She died in childbirth while in a public procession.
17. Pope Eugene IV (1431 - 1447) condemned Joan of Arc to be burned alive as a witch, but Pope Benedict IV (1919) declared her a saint.
18. Pope Stephen VI (896 - 897) brought the dead body of former Pope Formosus (891 - 897) to trial, hacked off his decaying finger and had him dragged through the streets of Rome and thrown into the Tiber river.

19. The "great schism" of 1378 lasted 50 years, where Italian and French popes cursed each other. Is this the same morally pure church that Christ left to preach the gospel? When confronted with such evil papal history, the Catholic church, which claims "infallibility", teaches that "A sinful pope ... remains a member of the church, and ... from whom we may not withdraw obedience." Catholic Encyclopedia Volume 4, page 435.
 Jesus said in Matthew 7:18,20, "A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit ... by their fruits ye shall know them."
20. Pope Alexander III decreed in 1170 that wills had to be made in front of a priest, or excommunication (cutting off from church and sentence to hell) would result.
 The Catholic church has much to be embarrassed about in it's history, as seen from these 20 popes.

ERROR 30: THE INQUISITION TORTURE, MASSACRES, MURDERS AND WARS.

So openly corrupt was the Catholic church, that many noble people left in protest, looking to Jesus Christ for salvation and to the Bible for truth, while rejecting the false claims of the popes. These were called heretics and bitterly opposed and tortured by the Roman Catholic church.

Pope Innocent IV in 1252 approved torture and ordered civil authorities to burn "heretics" in the "Ad exstirpanda" Bull.

This torture was reinforced by Popes Alexander IV, Clement IV, Nicholas IV, Boniface VIII and others from 1254 - 1303.

Roman Catholic documents revealed that they murdered around 68 million protesters from 1100 to 1800 AD when the Inquisition stopped.

The following torture devices were used against protesters:

1. The rack which stretched and dislocated joints.
2. Heavy pincers tore out fingernails.
3. Thumbscrews dislocated fingers.
4. "Spanish boots" crushed legs and feet.
5. The Iron virgin was a hollow metal case with knives inside, which pierced the victim placed in it.
6. Hanging.
7. Eyes gouged out.
8. Molten lead poured into ears and mouth.
9. Being forced to jump off cliffs onto sharp spikes below.
10. 100,000 Albigenses (Protestants) were massacred in one day in 1211, then burned in heaps.
11. Pope Pius IV sent the Italian army to massacre many women and children at Orange in 1562.
12. 10,000 Huguenots (French Protestants) were killed in Paris on St Bartholomew's Day and 75,000 the week after. The Huguenot wars killed 200,000 Protestants.
13. The "30 Years War" in Germany saw the population drop from 15 million to 5 million due to Catholic armies invading and killing 900,000 Protestants.
14. The Spanish Armada was sent to conquer Protestant England by Catholic King Philip of Spain. "Bad weather" destroyed this fleet off the coast of England. The inquisition was ordered by papal decree and confirmed by pope after pope. Why did no pope stop the Inquisition torture? Jesus said "turn the other cheek", "love and forgive our enemies", and "do good to them that despitefully use us". Was the Roman Catholic church acting like Jesus Christ here?
15. Galileo was sent to a dungeon and publicly flogged because he believed that the earth moved around the sun. On 22 June 1663, Galileo had to fall on his knees to escape the cruel death ordered by Pope Urban VIII and sign a retraction "I abjure, curse and detest the error and heresy of the earth moving around the sun ... it is absurd, false and erroneous."
 Truly, the Roman Catholic church is "drunk with the blood of the saints and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus." Revelation 17:6.

Two Roman Catholic devices to muzzle opposition are:

- a) Accusations of "bigotry". A bigot is "one who is obstinately and intolerantly devoted to his own church, party, belief or opinion." Romanists gag opposition by branding their opponents as "BIGOTS". Anyone who opposes Romanism in writing is branded as a "HATE MONGER" or "HATE LITERATURE" distributor, hoping to silence anyone who disagrees with it. "The Jesuits have urged the Catholic church in America to label every criticism of it as "bigotry"." - Christianity Today, October 28, 1957.

When Romanism, Communism and Islam are in the minority, they talk of tolerance and freedom. When they are in the majority, they show very little tolerance or freedom to Protestantism or Democracy. The Roman church shows herself to be the biggest bigot ever. It has been said that:

Rome in the minority is a lamb.

Rome as an equal is a fox.

Rome in the majority is a tiger.

Pope Boniface VIII in 1302 decreed in the "Unam Sanctum", the doctrine of the "two swords": the spiritual sword of the church and the earthly sword of kings which should submit to the Roman Catholic church. Dr de Luca of the University of Rome, was commended by Pope Leo XIII in 1901 by saying: "The Catholic church has the right and duty to kill heretics by fire and sword." This proves that Rome has not changed.

- b) Whenever Rome is refuted by a Bible verse, they reply: "That's just your interpretation", meaning that no one can really interpret the Bible, so leave it up to Rome to be the authority rather than the Bible. It is a device to wrest authority from the Bible to Rome. Ask: "Who interprets it?" A Pope?

ERROR 31: FIFTEEN EVIDENCES that the ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH is MYSTERY BABYLON the GREAT, THE WHORE OF REVELATION 17.

Who is the whore/woman in Revelation 17? God has given us similarities to prove conclusively that she is the Roman Catholic church. What are these similarities of the whore with the church of Rome?

1. The WOMAN which thou sawest is that great CITY, which reigns over the kings of the earth. Revelation 17:18.

Question: Which city reigned over the kings of the earth in the first century?

Answer: Rome, no doubt. The Roman emperors and popes are called "Pontifex Maximus".

2. She is called the "GREAT WHORE" (17:1). A whore is unfaithful to one husband, by having relationships with many suitors. So is the Roman Catholic church, unfaithful to God's Word as seen by her adopting so many false, unbiblical doctrines.
3. "With whom the KINGS OF THE EARTH have committed fornication. (17:2). The Roman Catholic Church has always sought to further her purposes by controlling politicians, kings and governments. She is the state church in so many countries like Spain, Portugal, Italy, Poland, South America and Ireland. She seeks to control governments in every country. In Revelation 17:3, she is sitting on a beast, as a rider sits on a horse controlling it. The early Church kept separate from the State because its task was to win people to Christ, baptize and teach God's Word. The Roman Catholic Church's association with governments is outside God's instructions. God calls her relationship with the kings of the earth, "fornication".
4. "Inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication." 17:2. It is very hard to reason with a drunk person. Alcohol controls his mind so that he cannot see reason. So it is with many Catholics, who are so convinced of Roman Catholic false doctrines, even though the Bible so clearly opposes them. They cannot see the truth of God's Word and salvation. They will not search the Scriptures to see if the Bible's claims are true. Acts 17:11. They are controlled by false doctrines, like alcohol controls a drunkard, so they cannot see Bible truths.
5. She sits on MANY WATERS. (17:1). Rev. 17:15 tells us that "The WATERS which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples and multitudes, and nations and tongues." The Roman Catholic church has an influence in many, if not every nation in the world.
6. She is FULL OF NAMES OF BLASPHEMY. (17:3). Rome claims titles and attributes which belong only to God, such as ¹"Holy Father", ²"Father", ³"Monsignor" = my Lord,

- 4"His Holiness", 5"Pontifex Maximus", 6"Pope" = Father of Christians, 7"Reverend", 8"Filii Vicarii Dei" = in the place of the Son of God.
7. "The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sitteth." (17:9). Rome is well known as being built on seven hills.
 8. The woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour. (17:4). Popes, cardinals and priests dress in scarlet on festival occasions.
 9. Decked with gold and precious stones. (17:4). The Roman church has much gold and wealth.
 10. Having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication. (17:4). Much sexual immorality is committed by priests such as fornication, homosexuality, child molestation etc. This is hateful to God.
 11. "Mystery". (17:5). Much mystery exists in her services. For example, Latin services, converting bread to the body of Christ, how long must people spend in purgatory, etc.
 12. Babylon the Great. (17:5). Roman Catholic mother and child worship was adopted from the ancient mystery religion of Babylon's mother and child worship. As Rome conquered countries, it adopted their religions.
 13. The Mother of Harlots (17:5). Rome has given rise to many other religions, of similar practices.
 14. The woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. (17:6). The Roman church has constantly persecuted, tortured and burned at the stake, any people who disagree with papal control and who try to break away. Eg: John Huss, Savonarolla, etc.
 15. The ten horn nations that the Roman church tries to control, turn on Rome, hate her, strip her wealth, EAT HER FLESH, and burn her with fire. (17:16). Eating her flesh is a clever judgment on a system that claims to eat Christ's flesh daily. As Roman Catholicism claims to eat Christ's flesh, so too will the antichrist eat Roman Catholicism's flesh in the future 7 year Tribulation.

ERROR 32: WHO GAVE US THE BIBLE? GOD OR THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH?

The Roman Catholic Church claims that it gave us the Bible, and that it determined which books should comprise the New Testament and Old Testament.

Their argument is as follows:

"The church existed before a word of the New Testament scriptures was written. After they were written, the church determined the Canon. Therefore the church is the authoritative voice that must be obeyed, for without the church, we would not have the Bible."

"Q.17 Who can determine what books make up the Bible? Just as Christ's infallible church alone can assure us that the Bible is divinely inspired, so the church alone possesses the authority to indicate which books are included in it."

"This is Catholicism", John Walsh (Garden City, NY, Image Books, 1959) p.177.

Is this argument correct? Did the Catholic church produce the Bible, or did it come into existence some other way? Catholicism claims that by its authority we have the Bible, and therefore it alone is the official interpreter of Scripture. If we want to know the true meaning of the Bible, we are told that we must listen to the church that gave us the Bible.

This Catholic church claim is false because:

1. The Catholic Church today with its many man made doctrines is an entirely different system as to the first century church.
2. The Bible nowhere claims that the church gave us the Bible. The Bible came as follows:
From God, to the Apostles and Prophets and then to the Churches.
The Churches submitted to the Apostles and Prophets, who submitted to God. The Bible is an expression of the mind of God. The Bible is authoritative as God.
The Church is not of higher authority than God.
God gave the Bible for the church to submit to, and not for the Bible to submit to the church.
The Apostles and Prophets were part of the church, but even they submitted to the Word of God.
3. Israel was the vehicle through which God gave the Old Testament. When Israel turned from God, God judged them. Because Roman Catholicism has turned from God, God will judge her in the Tribulation.

4. The Old Testament Canon of 39 books of Scripture was established by 400 BC, well before the Roman Catholic church was started, as seen by the Dead Sea Scrolls containing all Old Testament books except Esther.
5. Jesus endorsed the 39 books of Old Testament Scripture as being the authentic Word of God, well before the Roman Catholic church ever came about.
6. The main criterion in determining whether a book should be included in the Canon of Scripture pertained to its author. If the author was a known prophet of God, his works were preserved. This was at the direction of God, not the Catholic Church. No Pope ever said: "Thus saith the Lord." The Old Testament was accepted by the people of God because it was written by the Prophets of God.
Though the people of God were involved in gathering these sacred writings, this never gave the people authority over Scripture or equal to Scripture.
7. By 96 AD, the early church had accepted the 27 New Testament books as canonical, as seen from early church writings. The early church accepted the Scriptures because it believed them to be from God. The early church saw itself as subject to the Bible's authority, not vice versa. The Catholic church maintains that the books comprising the New Testament Canon were determined at the Council of Carthage in 397 AD. THIS IS INCORRECT.
This council simply affirmed and restated what the early churches had always accepted. We must not make the mistake of thinking that the Scriptures received their authority because some council made a public statement of their acceptance. The early churches, pastors, deacons and people all submitted to the Bible as their authority because it came from God.
Though the church existed before the New Testament was written, this does not give the church authority over or equality to the Scriptures. The church must always be subject to the authority of God's written Word.
8. Israel as a nation existed before the Old Testament was written, yet it would be wrong for Israel to claim authority equal to or greater than the Old Testament.
The same must apply today, that no institution (like the church, home or government, even though it is older than the New Testament) can claim authority greater than the New Testament.
9. To support its position, the Catholic church advances the error that the scriptures never claimed to be adequate to meet all our needs, based on John 21:25 "And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written." John here never hints this idea. He just says that God saw fit to give us what He gave us as being able to meet all our spiritual needs.
Paul says the opposite to the Roman Catholic church in 2 Timothy 3:16,17. "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, (not by the Roman Catholic church) and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be PERFECT, (or complete) thoroughly furnished unto ALL good works".
Here the Bible can furnish us to all good works.
Peter says that the Bible is sufficient to meet all of our needs:
"His divine power has given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness." II Peter 1:3.
10. The procedure which God used to gather these books did not give the collecting agency an authority equal to the Scriptures. God gave us the scriptures as our final and only authority in all matters of faith or morals.

ERROR 33: THEY TURN PEOPLE AWAY FROM CHRIST TO 12 OTHER THINGS.

Christians in history who were reproached for the name of Christ, were martyred, glorifying Christ by their death. The Roman Catholic Church, who martyred these Christians for their love and faith in Christ, is described as: "on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified." I Peter 4:14. The Roman Catholic Church speaks evil of Christ as follows:

1. People are turned from trusting Christ alone to save them, to trust in church sacraments and good works to save them.

2. People are turned from trusting Christ's Word, the Bible, to trust Catholic ideas and tradition as the guide to life.
3. People are turned from confessing sins directly to Christ as mediator, to confessing sins to a priest as mediator.
4. People are turned from trusting Christ as the sole sufficient Saviour, to trust a wafer that is said to become Christ.
5. People are turned from praying to Christ, and told to pray to saints.
6. People are turned from trusting Christ for protection, and pointed to trusting statues, medals and images to protect them.
7. People are turned from looking to Christ lovingly welcoming them into heaven, and instead are pointed to fear purgatory at death.
8. People are pointed to pray to Mary as merciful, and are turned away from praying to Christ as harsh, unwelcoming and unapproachable.
9. People are turned away from Christ as the Rock on which the church is based, and are pointed to Peter as the Rock.
10. People are turned away from Christ as the only bridge to heaven, to Popes as pontif (bridge builder) instead. John 14:6.
11. People are pointed away from accepting Christ's promise of forgiveness in I John 1:9, to do works of penance and contrition to regain God's favour instead.
12. People are told to reject Christ speaking to their consciences about Rome's errors and evils, and to trust Catholic doctrines and Papal infallibility instead.

All of this is speaking evil of Christ, His Word and His work.

The Roman Catholic influence in the New International Version has resulted in part of I Peter 4:14 being omitted. Compare the NIV with the King James Version:

NIV.	1 Peter 4:14	King James Version.
If you are insulted for the name of Christ, you are blessed, for the spirit of glory and of God rests on you. ---- OMIT ---- ---- OMIT ----	1 Peter 4:14	If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth on you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

By turning people away from Christ to other things, truly the Catholic Church is speaking evil of Christ. As such, they can be justly called an antichrist.

CONCLUSION.

God says: "COME OUT OF HER, MY PEOPLE, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues." Revelation 18:4.

Religion may make a person feel comfortable and righteous, but God reminds us that "all our righteousness are as filthy rags." Isaiah 64:6. Nicodemus was one of the most religious men in Israel, yet he needed to be born again.

Religion is man's efforts to reach God by good works and sacraments, but salvation is trusting in Christ's blood sacrifice on the cross as the full payment for our sins. You can be religious, yet not saved and still go to hell. Receive Jesus Christ as your Saviour and you'll then become a son of God.

There are seven possible reasons why some people choose to remain in the Roman Catholic church:

1. Lack of knowledge of the Word of God.
2. Fear of rejection by family and friends.
3. Fear of going against ancestors.
4. Fear of becoming a social outcast.
5. Habit.
6. Fear of going to hell.
7. Fear of change to the unknown.

Ask Christ to save you rather than a church. Trust the Bible to guide you rather than a man made system.

111. ERRORS OF SEVENTH DAY ADVENTISM

Many SDA's are trying to gain acceptance as part of the orthodox Bible based Christian community. However, the following points show them not to hold the "faith once delivered to the saints." Jude 3. These false doctrines of Seventh Day Adventism warn people to leave SDA and not to join with SDAs.

1. THE SABBATH.

SDA's insist that we must keep the Sabbath as a day of worship. This is wrong because:

a) The New Testament never commands Christians to worship or meet on the Saturday Sabbath. Instead, Christians meet on the first day of the week, Sunday, in the following Bible passages:

1. 1 Corinthians 16:1,2, to put money in the collection on Sunday. ("no gatherings when I come").
2. Acts 20:7 Paul preached to Christians at Troas whose habit was to meet to break bread on the first day of the week. Paul preached to Jews in a synagogue on Saturday & Christians on Sunday.
3. John 20:19,26 Jesus, after His resurrection met with the disciples on the first day of the week.
4. Romans 14:5,6 Paul, when discussing which day to meet, did not command meeting on the Saturday Sabbath, (as SDAs do). He said "Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind."
5. Colossians 2:16,17 "Let no man judge you in ... holy days or Sabbath days: which are a shadow of things to come."

SDA's judge Christians as disobedient who keep Sunday as a holyday. Paul says that SDA's are wrong to judge Christians for not keeping Saturday as a holyday.

b) SDA's claim that the Roman Catholic church after Constantine in 320 AD changed the day of worship from Saturday to Sunday. This is false, as seen by ten quotes from church writers from 90-300 AD who all say that the practice of Christians everywhere was to meet on Sunday, not the Jewish Saturday Sabbath. SDA's have no early quotes to show early Christians meeting on Saturday.

2. SOUL SLEEP.

SDA's deny that believers at death go to heaven. They say that believers go to soul sleep in the grave until Christ's return. JW's, Christadelphians and other false groups believe this error. See Chapter 97 in this book on "The Error of Soul Sleep". The main verses disproving the soul sleep error are:

1. Philippians 1:23 "I am in a straight betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ".
2. 2 Cor. 5:8 "To be absent from the body (death), and to be present with the Lord." (in heaven).
3. Hebrews 12:1 "We are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses". (The departed believers discussed in Hebrews 11, who now watch us from heaven.)
4. Hebrews 12:23,24 "The heavenly Jerusalem ... the church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven and to the spirits of just men made perfect."
5. 1 Thessalonians 4:14 "Them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him." (Bring, not take).
At Christ's return to raise believers bodies, He brings our spirits & souls from heaven with Him.
6. Revelation 6:9,10 "I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the Word of God."
7. Isaiah 14:9,10 "Hell from beneath...stirs up the dead for thee. All they shall speak and say to thee."
8. Ezekiel 32:21 "The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of hell..."
9. Ezekiel 32:30,31 "The Zidonians which are gone down with the slain ... Pharaoh shall see them and shall be comforted, even Pharaoh and all his army slain by the sword."
10. Luke 16:19-31 The dead rich man and dead Abraham spoke to each other.

3. SDA'S REGARD ELLEN WHITE (1825-1915) AS A PROPHET OR TEACHER.

"I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence." 1 Tim. 2:12. Ellen White claimed to have received more than 2000 "inspired counsels from the Lord" (visions) from 1844 to 1868. ("he hath not seen." Col. 2:18). SDA's err in allowing a woman teacher to instruct them.

4. CHRIST.

Mrs White said: "Christ took upon His sinless nature our sinful nature. Christ took our nature and it's deteriorating condition." (Q.D. p.654-656). According to White and SDA's, Christ acquired a sinful nature. (False). Christ had a sinless human nature. Christ took our sin punishment, not our sin nature.

5. LOSS OF SALVATION.

"Now while our Great High Priest is making atonement for us, we should seek to become perfect in Christ." (ref: The Great Controversy, E.G.White, 1911, p.623).

SDA's teach that though saved by grace, we are kept saved by keeping the Law. This is partial atonement. Therefore, to stay saved according to SDA's, we must continue to keep the Sabbath, the 10 Commandments and pay the tithe. "by whom we have now received the atonement." (Romans 5:11).

6. INVESTIGATIVE JUDGMENT.

Investigative judgment means no assurance of salvation. According to SDA's, beginning on October 22, 1844, Christ entered upon the "judgment phase" of His ministry, whereby He blots out sin. The SDA "Investigative Judgement" doctrine rests on Ellen White's claimed revelation that Christ entered the Holy of Holies not at His ascension, but in 1844 (The Great Controversy, p.362-373).

Hebrews 9:12 contradicts White's theory: "by His own blood he entered (past tense) in once (not in 1844) into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us." Hebrews 9:12,25. 'now once in the end of the world hath he appeared (33AD) to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself'.v26

SDA's teach that Christ transferred the record of believers sins to the heavenly sanctuary, which will be finally cleansed at the conclusion of the Investigative Judgment, their day of atonement.

White says in "Patriarchs and Prophets", p.357 this heresy: "The blood of Christ, while it was to release the repentant sinner from the condemnation of the law, was not to cancel the sin. It would stand on record in the sanctuary until the final atonement." SDAs filter all Scripture through Ellen White's prophecies. Hence SDA's sins are not cancelled or forgiven yet. What a worry. No wonder they have no assurance of salvation until the imaginary Investigative Judgment is finished.

Q: If Christ can create the universe in 6 days, why does He take from 1844 until now to investigate the books? Is Christ a slow reader? These 6 verses show the SDA Investigative Judgment to be false:

"The Lord knoweth them that are His." 2 Timothy 2:19. "I know my sheep." John 10:14.

"cleanse us from all unrighteousness." 1 John 1:9. "he had by himself purged our sins." Hebrews 1:3.

"yet now hath he reconciled..." Colossians 1:21. "having forgiven you all trespasses." Colossians 2:13.

Christ's judgments are after He returns, not before: "When the Son of Man shall come in his glory then shall he sit upon the throne of His glory:& before Him shall be gathered all nations." Mat25:31,32.

Hebrews 4:13 exposes the SDA limitation on Christ's omniscience: "Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do." Since Jesus knows all cases already, why must He investigate?

7. SATAN AS THE SCAPEGOAT FOR OUR SINS.

White says in TGC page 422: "When Christ, by virtue of His own blood, removes the sins of His people from the heavenly sanctuary at the close of His ministration, He will place them upon Satan, who, in the execution of the judgment, must bear the final penalty."

According to SDA's, Satan becomes the scapegoat of Leviticus 16. This lack of clear distinction between the forgiveness of sins at salvation, and the blotting out of sins at some time in the future, makes it impossible for anyone to know, even at death, whether he is saved or not. (Isaiah 44:22).

SDA's are not allowed to experience assurance of salvation, because there would be no pressure for them to keep the Old Testament law and Sabbath as interpreted by Ellen White.

Having the sins of all men laid on Satan, assigns to Satan an indispensable role in the blotting out of sins. This nullifies the all-sufficiency of the finished work of Christ.

8. ANOTHER GOSPEL.

The Investigative Judgment and Scapegoat theories are "another Gospel" that Paul warns us about in Galatians 1:8,9. Paul places a double curse on those preaching a false gospel such as SDA's.

9. THE MARK OF THE BEAST.

SDA's believe that Sunday keeping will be the mark of the Beast of Revelation 13:16-18.

White says: "In the last days, the Sabbath test will be made plain. When this time comes, anyone who does not keep the Sabbath will receive the mark of the Beast and will be kept from heaven." TGC, p449 This is wrongly dividing the word of truth. This shows SDAs careless, deceitful handling of Scripture.

10. SDA'S ARE VERY CONFUSED ON PROPHECY SUBJECTS.

SDA's think that God has finished with Israel. Romans 11:2,25; Hosea 3:4,5 refute this idea. To SDA's, much of Revelation had been fulfilled by 500 AD. They don't understand Daniel's 70 week prophecy, taking the 69 weeks as literally 173,880 days (correct), but taking the last half of the 70th week (3.5 years) as being 1260 years (wrong). (Daniel 9:24-27). Conclusion: Leave the SDA movement today.

112. WHY IT IS RIGHT FOR CHRISTIANS TO MEET ON SUNDAY, NOT SATURDAY, THE JEWISH SABBATH

Seventh Day Adventists accuse Christians of constantly breaking the fourth Commandment to keep the Sabbath (Saturday) holy. Christians meet on the Sunday. Some Christians keep every day holy. Why do we meet on the Sunday, not Saturday? Five main reasons are:

1. Keeping the Saturday Sabbath was the sign of the Mosaic Covenant between God and Jews only (Exodus 31:13,14,16,17).
 - i) "Speak thou also unto the children of Israel, saying, Verily, my sabbaths ye shall keep: for it is a sign between ME and YOU throughout your generations." Exodus 31:13.
 - ii) "Wherefore the children of Israel shall keep the sabbath, to observe the sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual covenant." Exodus 31:16.
 - iii) "It is a sign between ME and the children of Israel forever: for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed." Exodus 31:17.
Also God reiterates this command in Ezekiel 20:12,20.
 - iv) "Moreover also I gave them my sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them." Ezekiel 20:12
 - v) "And hallow my sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between me and you." Ezekiel 20:20.Notice that God says on four occasions that sabbath-keeping is a sign between God and Israel, and that the Sabbath is to be kept throughout their generations, forever.
"Who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth ... the giving of the law..." Romans 9:4.

2. Early Church Writers Before 300 AD Observed Sunday.

They never once say that they observed Saturday. For example, Barnabas (100 AD), Ignatius (107 AD), Justin Martyr (145 AD), Tertullian (180 AD), Victorinus (280 AD), Bardaisan (154 AD), Cyprian (200 AD), Irenaeus (178 AD) all write that Christians met on Sunday. They never refer to Christian's day of worship being the Saturday sabbath. The Edict of Laodicea (320 AD) officially confirmed a long established practice. This is significant because SDA's say that the Catholic church after 320 AD changed Saturday worship to Sunday worship. This theory is nowhere found in any Church Father's writings, but instead Sunday as the Christian day of worship has always been the rule. The early church writers, many of whom were taught by the apostles, refer at least 14 times to Sunday as being the day of meeting together for worship. The SDA Church has never successfully refuted these historical facts.

Church Fathers Observing SUNDAY, not SATURDAY, are:

1. Justin Martyr 100-165 AD (Volume 1, Page 186).
"And on the day called Sunday, all who live in cities or in the country gather together to one place, and the memoirs of the apostles or the writings of the prophets are read ... But Sunday is the day on which we all hold our common assembly, because it is the first day on which God, having wrought a change in the darkness and matter, made the world; and Jesus Christ our Saviour on the same day rose from the dead."
2. Ignatius (110 AD), Bishop of Antioch.
"If then those who walk in the ancient practices attain to newness of hope, no longer observing the Sabbath, but fashioning their lives after the Lord's Day on which our life also arose through Him, that we may be found disciples of Jesus Christ, our only teacher."
3. The Epistle of Barnabas 120-150 AD.
*"Your new moons and your sabbaths I cannot endure". Isaiah 1:13.
"You perceive how He speaks: your present sabbaths are not acceptable to me, but that which I had made in giving rest to all things, I shall make a beginning of the eighth day, that is a beginning of another world. Wherefore also, we keep the eighth day with joyfulness, a day also in which Jesus rose from the dead."*

4. Bardaisan (born 154 AD).
"Wherever we be, all of us are called by the one name of the Messiah, namely Christians and upon one day which is the first day of the week, we assemble ourselves together and on the appointed days we abstain from food."
5. The Teaching of the Apostles 160 AD (Volume 8, Page 668).
"The Apostles further appointed: On the first day of the week let there be service and the reading of the Holy Scriptures, and the oblation: because on the first day of the week our Lord rose from the place of the dead, and on the first day of the week He arose upon the world, and on the first day of the week He ascended up to heaven."
6. Tertullian 150-240 AD (Volume 3, Page 70).
*"The Holy Spirit upbraids the Jews with their holy-days. Your Sabbaths, and new moons, and ceremonies" says He, "My soul hateth." By us, to whom Sabbaths are strange, and the new moons and festivals formerly beloved by God ..."
7. Cyprian, Bishop of Carthage, 200-258 AD.
"The Lord's Day is both the first and the eighth day."
8. Ad Nationes 217 AD (Volume 3, Page 123).
"Others, with greater regard to good manners, it must be confessed, suppose that the sun is the God of the Christians, because it is a well known fact that we pray towards the east, or because we make Sunday a day of festivity."
9. Victorinus 280 AD (Volume 7, Page 342).
"And let the parasceve become a rigorous fast, lest we should appear to observe any Sabbath with the Jews, which Christ Himself, the Lord of the Sabbath, says by His prophets that "His soul hateth;" which Sabbath He in His body abolished, although, nevertheless, He had formerly Himself commanded Moses that circumcision should not pass over the eighth day, which day very frequently happens on the Sabbath, as we read written in the Gospel."
10. Irenaeus, Bishop of Lyons, 155 AD (Volume 8, Page 773).
"The mystery of the Lord's resurrection may not be celebrated any other day than on the Lord's Day."

SDA's try to equate the Sabbath with the Lord's Day by linking Mark 2:28 with Revelation 1:10. They reason that since "the Son of Man is Lord also of the Sabbath" (Mark 2:27,28), when John says that he "was in the Spirit on the Lord's Day" (Revelation 1:10). Jesus was just saying in Mark 2:28 that as Lord of all, He could do as He pleased on the Sabbath Day. Early Christian writers never once say that Saturday was their common day of worship.

3. Early Christians Met on the First Day of the Week, Sunday, in:

- i) "And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow." Acts 20:7.
 Early Christians met on Sunday for their agape love feast, followed by the Lord's Supper.
- ii) "Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye. Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him ..." 1 Corinthians 16:2.
 Early Christians, who met on Sunday, were to give money in the collection. They did not meet on Saturday. This order was also given to the churches of Galatia who met on Sunday.
- iii) "Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled ... Jesus stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you." John 20:19.
 "After eight days again his disciples were within, then came Jesus ..." John 20:26.
 Jesus appeared on the Sunday, as well as the following Sunday that the disciples met.

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday

4. Paul When Discussing Sabbath-Keeping Never Commands Christians to Keep the Sabbath, which He Surely Would Have if it was Meant for Christians.

- i) "One man esteemeth one day above another (Seventh Day Adventists): another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind." Romans 14:5.
"he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it." Romans 14:6.
Note: Paul here had a great chance to say "you must meet on Saturday", but he did not state either day as mandatory. Why did Paul not command sabbath-keeping here? Nor should we.
- ii) "Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the SABBATH DAYS." Colossians 2:16. Jews protested Sunday keeping.
Note: Don't judge people as being wrong because they don't keep the Jewish Sabbath.
- iii) "Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is." Heb. 10:25.
No mention here of the need to keep Sabbath Saturday.

5. Sixteen Times we are told that the MOSAIC LAW is FINISHED for Believers.
KEY: The Mosaic Law (including sabbath) is compared to a dead husband (Rom. 7:1-4), a prison (Gal. 3:23), and a schoolmaster (Gal. 3:24-25).

- Question: SDA's say "But aren't we supposed to keep the Mosaic 10 Commandments laws?"
Answer: We are not under the Mosaic law, but under a different law in the Church Age, "the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus" (Rom.8:2;Gal.6:2) which is an internal Holy Spirit motivated law. Sabbath keeping is never mentioned as part of this law.
- i) "Ye are not under law, but under grace ..." Romans 6:14,15 and Galatians 5:18.
 - ii) "Ye are dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another (ie. to Christ)." Romans 7:1-4.
Note: As a woman is bound by the law to her husband as long as he lives, yet if the husband is dead, she is FREE FROM that LAW (v.2,3). So, Christians are become DEAD TO THE LAW, by the body of Christ, and we are MARRIED TO ANOTHER (Jesus Christ).
The Law is likened to the dead husband. This means that Christians' relationship to the Law has been severed.
 - iii) "Now we are DELIVERED FROM THE LAW, that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve in NEWNESS OF SPIRIT, and not in the oldness of the letter." Romans 7:6.
"Oldness of the letter" of the law is not how we serve. This states that:
 - a) We are delivered from the law,
 - b) the law is dead, which held us,
 - c) we now serve in newness of the Law of the Spirit.
 - iv) "The LAW of the SPIRIT OF LIFE in Christ Jesus has made me FREE from the LAW OF SIN and DEATH." Romans 8:2.
This means that now we have Christ, we have the Holy Spirit, and we operate under a different law, the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus. We are now FREE from the Mosaic law of sin and death.
v.4 The righteousness of the law is possible to be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit (by yielding to the leading of the Spirit daily).
v.9 Ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you.
 - v) "Christ is the END (5056) OF THE LAW for righteousness to every one that believeth." Romans 10:4. Note: "END" (5056) means "termination, completion in respect to time."
"The law as a demanded obligation has come to an end because Jesus has fulfilled its demands and imparted his righteousness to those who believe. Christ has freed believers from its tyranny. The standards of righteousness come to us now not from outside by imposition, but from inside by the Spirit who writes the law upon our hearts.”

— The Complete New Testament Word Study Dictionary, by Spiros Zodhiates. Page 1376.

We are now under a NEW LAW from WITHIN called:

- a) The Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus. Romans 8:2.
 - b) Bear ye one another’s burdens, and so fulfil the Law of Christ.
 - c) Whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty. John 13:34; James 1:25; Galatians 6:2.
 - d) If ye fulfil the royal law. “Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself” ye do well. James 2:8
- vi) In Galatians 3:23-25 Paul describes the law as:
- a) a PRISON. “before faith came, we were KEPT UNDER THE LAW, SHUT UP.” v.23
We were shut up in the prison of the law, until faith in Christ came. Then we were released from the prison of law by Christ, to serve in newness of Spirit.
- vii) b) a SCHOOLMASTER that controlled us until Christ came.
“the LAW was our SCHOOLMASTER (3807 a strict, disciplining slave who led boys from home to school) to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.” v.24
But after that faith is come, we are “NO LONGER under a schoolmaster.” v.25.
Note carefully: The Law brought conviction of sin to bring us to be saved by faith in Christ. Now that we are saved, we are NO LONGER under the Mosaic Law. This means that we are no longer under the Sabbath-keeping Law.
- viii) Colossians 2:14 “Blotting out the handwriting of ORDINANCES (1378) that was against us, ... and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross.”
Ordinances contained the Ten Commandments as Eph. 2:15 and Hebrews 9:1-4 states.
- ix) Ephesians 2:15 “Having ABOLISHED (2673) in his flesh the enmity, even the LAW (3551) of COMMANDMENTS contained in ordinances (1378) ...”
Ordinance (1378) dogma means decree of the Mosaic Law, external precepts.
Law (3551) (“nomos” in Greek) means laws of the Mosaic statutes, including:
a) laws of civil rights and duties, marriage, Levitical priesthood.
b) laws of external religious rites eg. purification, circumcision, sacrifices.
c) laws of hearts and conduct of men.
d) a code or body of laws.
Abolished (2673) (“katargeo” in Greek) means to destroy, cause to cease, do away with, put an end to, a complete cessation. Therefore, Christ completely abolished the Mosaic statutes, code and body of laws, contained in decrees.
Note: Christ ABOLISHED the LAW OF COMMANDMENTS.
- x) Hebrews 9:1-4 “The first covenant had ORDINANCES of divine service....For there was a tabernacle made; the first, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread; which is called the sanctuary....the TABLES OF THE COVENANT.” (See Heb. 8:13).
The first covenant had ordinances which contained the tables of the covenant (10 Comm). Since the first covenant has vanished (Heb.8:13), the ordinances are taken away (Col.2:14), so the 10 Commandments are abolished (Eph.2:15) as they are in first cov. & ordinances.(9:1-4
- xi) “For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a CHANGE ALSO OF THE LAW.” Hebrews 7:12.
Note: The priesthood is changed from Levitical (v.11) to Christ. Therefore the Law of sin and death, is changed to the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ (Romans 8:2).
The Levitical priests received their authority from the Old Testament law, and since the Levitical priesthood has been changed, the Law has been changed. The Mosaic Law made no provision for a priest from Judah (Hebrews 7:14), so the entire system of Old Testament law has been changed and fulfilled in Jesus Christ and has therefore been taken out of the way (“Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us..and took it out of the way” and, “Let no man judge you in..sabbath days.” Colossian 2:14,16). The believer has been set free from the law (Gal.5:1-6),& is dead to the law (Rom. 7:1-4) Objection: But does this mean that I am “free to sin?”

Answer: No. “Free from the law” does not mean “free to sin,” but it means “free to do the will of God.” We obey, not because of outward compulsion, but because of the inward constraint of the love for Christ (2 Corinthians 5:14) doing the will of God from the heart (Ephesians 6:6). The indwelling Holy Spirit enables us to fulfil the “righteousness of the Law” as we yield to him (Romans 8:1-4).

xii) “There is verily a DISANNULLING of the COMMANDMENT going before for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.” Hebrews 7:18.

Note: The Old Testament Law is now DISANNULLED (115) (CANCELLED) by Christ.

xiii) “He TAKETH AWAY the FIRST (Mosaic Covenant with Old Testament law, sabbath-keeping, etc) that he may ESTABLISH the SECOND (the New Testament new covenant of Christ).” Hebrews 10:9.

xiv) “If ye are led of the Spirit, YE are NOT UNDER the LAW.” Galatians 5:18.
A Godly life is not lived under the rules of the Law, but is a life led by the Holy Spirit.

xv) “Certain have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, ye must be circumcised, and KEEP THE LAW: to whom WE GAVE NO SUCH COMMANDMENT” Acts 15:19,20,24.

Note: The Apostles never commanded us to keep the law of the Sabbath day, because we are under the law of the Spirit of life.

Seventh Day Adventists are like Judaisers who trouble people with words and subvert people’s souls, saying, “You must keep the law of the Sabbath day” or you’re not saved.

xvi) “But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones (10 Commandments), was glorious,....which glory was to be done away: (v.7)...For if the ministration of condemnation (10 Commandments) be glory....(v.9) For if that which is done away was glorious (10 Commandments engraven in stones), much more that which remaineth (New Covenant) is glorious (v.11).” (II Corinthians 3:7,9,11).

“Done away” (v.11) is “katargoumenon” (Gk) meaning that the 10 Commandments law has “ceased, put an end to, abolished, done away with”-Barnes).It gave way to the law of Christ.

Question 1: But doesn’t the Law refer to the Ceremonial Law only, and not to the Ten Commandments?

Answer: NO because: a) Romans 7:7 gives us an example of the Law as "Thou shalt not covet" (the tenth commandment).

"What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, Thou shalt not covet."

If it is true that number 10 is dead to us, then it is also true that number 4 is dead to us also.

b) 2 Corinthians 3:7-11(engraven in stones), c) Ephesians 2:15 (commandments), d) Hebrews 9:1-4 (The first covenant had...tables of the covenant; 8:13 ‘ready to vanish’).

Question to Sabbath-keepers:

“Ye shall kindle NO FIRE throughout your habitations UPON THE SABBATH DAY.” Exodus 35:3. Note: Seventh Day Adventists break the Old Testament sabbath by cooking food, burning a gas fire, driving a car with internal combustion etc, on Saturday.

Question to Sabbath-keepers:

Every one of the 10 Commandments, except number four, “Keep the Sabbath day holy” are repeated to be kept by Christians in the New Testament.

We ask, "Why did God see fit to repeat every commandment except number four? Did God forget to repeat number 4, while he took pains to repeat the other nine? Is God forgetful?"

1. 1 Thessalonians 1:9 Ye turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God.
2. Galatians 5:20 Works of flesh are ... idolatry.
3. 1 Timothy 1:20 That they may learn not to blaspheme.
4. [NOT COMMANDED IN THE NEW TESTAMENT]
5. Ephesians 6:1-3 Honour thy father and mother.
6. Galatians 5:21 Works of flesh ... murderers.
7. Galatians 5:19 Works of flesh ... adultery.
8. Ephesians 4:28 Let him that stole, steal no more.
9. Ephesians 4:15 Speaking the truth in love. (Titus 2:3 Not false accusers)...
10. Ephesians 4:25 Putting away lying, speak every man the truth ..
- Ephesians 5:5 Nor covetous man who is an idolater.
- Hebrews 13:5 Let your conversation be without covetousness.

Conclusion:

1. 15 times we are told that the Mosaic Law is finished for believers:
Romans 6:14,15 "ye are not under law."
Romans 7:1-4 "dead to the law .. married to another." (Law is like a dead husband).
Romans 7:6 "we are delivered from the law."
Romans 8:2 "the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death."
Romans 10:4 "Christ is the end of the law ... to every one that believeth."
II Corinthians 3:7,9,11. "written and engraven in stones.....was to be done away."
Galatians 3:2 "we were kept under the law, shut up" (like in prison).
Galatians 3:24,25 "after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster" (law).
Galatians 5:18 "ye are not under the law."
Ephesians 2:15 "Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances;"
Colossians 2:14 "Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us,took it out of the way"
Hebrews 9:1-4,10 "The first covenant had ordinances of divine service, the tables of the covenant."
Hebrews 7:12 "priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law"
Hebrews 7:18 "there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before .."
Hebrews 10:9 "He taketh away the first (Mosaic law), that he may establish the second." (new covenant)
2. There is no reference anywhere by the Ante-Nicene church writers of Christians meeting on the Saturday before 320 AD. Some of these men were taught by the Apostles. Did the Apostles get it wrong? Not likely. The early church writers refer at least ten times to SUNDAY being the day of meeting together for worship.
3. Saturday Sabbath was the sign of the Mosaic Covenant between God and the Jews only. (Exodus 31:13,16,17; Ezekiel 20:12,20).
4. Early Christians met on the first day of the week, Sunday in:
Acts 20:7 "upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, "
1 Corinthians 16:1,2 " upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store.." "
John 20:19,26 "... being the first day of the week, ..".
5. Paul when discussing Sabbath keeping, never commands Christians to keep the Sabbath, which he surely would have done if it was important for Christians as SDA's insist. (Romans 14:5,6; Colossians 2:16,17; Hebrews 10:24,25). Paul's visits to synagogues on Saturdays were just to witness to Jews. He fellowshiped with Christians on Sunday. He never commanded Christians to attend church on Saturday. Keep meeting on Sunday as the early Christians taught.

Verses to Refute Seventh Day Adventism

1. The Ten commandments are part of the Mosaic Covenant, both of which are done away, abolished, and vanished. SDAs believe that the Mosaic Covenant is abolished, but not the 10 Commandments.

Key: These verses show that the 10 Commandments are part of the abolished Mosaic Covenant. Hence the 10 Commandments are also abolished. This is fatal to Seventh Day Adventism.

i) Hebrews 9:1-4 “The first covenant had ORDINANCES ... the tables of the covenant.”

ii) Ephesians 2:15 “Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ORDINANCES (1378).” Note the connection with Col. 2:14.

iii) Colossians 2:14 “Blotting out the handwriting of ORDINANCES (1378) that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross.”

iv) 2 Corinthians 3:7-11 “If the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones was glorious, much more that which remaineth was glorious.” (v.11).

v) Exodus 34:28 “He wrote upon the tables, the words of the covenant, even the ten commandments.”

vi) Deut. 9:9 “When I was gone up into the mount to receive the tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant.”

vii) Deut. 4:13 “He declared unto you his covenant, which he commanded you to perform, even ten commandments; and he wrote them upon two tables of stone.”

viii) 1 Kings 8:9 “There was nothing in the ark save two tables of stone...when the Lord made a covenant with Israel.”

ix) Hebrews 8:13 “A new covenant, he hath made the first old... ready to vanish away.”

2. Verses stating that the Law of Moses is done away:

i) “But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up (as in prison) unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.” Galatians 3:23.

The Law was like a prison which people were shut up in until after faith in Christ came.

ii) “Wherefore the law (Ten commandments) was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we may be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are NO LONGER under a schoolmaster (the ten commandments law).” Galatians 3:24,25.

iii) “He taketh away the first (Mosaic Covenant, including the Law of Moses) that he may establish the second (New covenant, including Law of Christ).” Hebrews 10:9.

iv) “There is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.” Hebrews 7:18.

v) “For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the LAW.” Heb 7:12
As the priesthood is changed from Levitical (v.11) to Christ, so the law of sin and death (10 commandments), is changed to the law of the Spirit of life in Christ.” Romans 8:2; Galatians 6:2.

vi) “Certain have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, ye must be circumcised, and keep the Law: to whom we gave no such commandment.” Acts 15:19,24.

vii) “If ye are led of the Spirit, ye are NOT under the Law.” Galatians 5:18.

viii) “Christ is the end of the Law for righteousness, to every one that believeth.” Romans 10:4.

ix) “Now we are delivered from the Law, that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.” Romans 7:6.

x) “Ye are not under the law, but under grace.” Romans 6:14,15; Galatians 5:18. (Romans 7:1-4.

xi) “Ye are dead to the Law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another (to Christ).”

xii) When did the law finish? When Christ came, as seen by the word “TILL” in Galatians 3:19.

“Wherefore then serveth the Law?” Romans 7:1-4. “It was added because of transgressions, TILL the seed (Christ) should come.” Galatians 3:19.

xiii) Paul said that the sabbath is a shadow of things to come:

“the sabbath days; which are a shadow of things to come.” Colossians 2:16,17.

xiv) “The Law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the Law of sin and death.” Romans 8:2. We now operate under the Law of Christ. We are now free from the Mosaic Law of sin and death.

3. Nobody knew of or heard of the Sabbath until Mount Sinai:

i) “Thou camest down also upon Mount Sinai... And madest known unto them thy holy sabbath by the hand of Moses.” Nehemiah 9:13,14.

ii) It was impossible for the Sabbath law to be practiced before Moses, because God instructed Moses to change the Jewish calendar, making the departure from Egypt “the beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year to you.” (Exodus 12:2). Sabbath observance started from this date.

iii) On this point Moses needed instruction, which he passed on to the people: “This is that which the Lord hath said, Tomorrow is the rest of the holy sabbath unto the Lord (v.23). Eat that today; for today is a sabbath unto the Lord: today ye shall not find it in the field.” Exodus 16:23,25,29,30.

iv) Further instruction was given to Moses and Aaron about the sabbath, because “it was not declared what should be done” to the sabbath breaker who gathered sticks on the sabbath day. Numbers 15:32-36

v) Israelite leaders before Moses did not keep the Sabbath. “The Lord our God made a covenant with us in Horeb (1491BC). The Lord made not this covenant with our fathers, but with us, who are all of us here alive this day.” Deuteronomy 5:2,3. (1451 BC).

Hence Adam, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and Joseph knew nothing about Sabbath keeping.

vi) The Sabbath law came 430 years after the Abrahamic Covenant: “The Law, which was 430 years after Abraham.” Galatians 3:17. This shows that Abraham never knew about the Sabbath law.

vii) No one before the Exodus (Exod 16) ever knew about the Sabbath law: “I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt...I gave them my Sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them.” Ezekiel 20:10,12 viii) The first time something is mentioned, it is introduced with the indefinite article “a” or “an”, but never with the definite article “the”. This shows that the Sabbath was first introduced in Exodus 16:23.

4. The Sabbath was a sign between God and Israel only, not between God and Christians.

i) “Speak thou also unto the children of Israel, saying, Verily my sabbaths ye shall keep: for it is a sign between ME and YOU throughout your generations.” Exodus 31:13.

ii) “Wherefore the children of Israel shall keep the sabbath, to observe the sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual covenant.” Exodus 31:16.

iii) “It is a sign between ME and the children of Israel forever.” Exodus 31:17.

iv) “Moreover also I gave them my sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them.” Ezekiel 20:12.

v) “Hallow my sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between me and you.” Ezekiel 20:20.

5. Early Christians met on Sunday, not Saturday.

Paul taught Christians at church on Sunday,... and disputed with Jews in their synagogues on Saturday.

i) “And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow.” Acts 20:7.

ii) “Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye. Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.” 1 Corinthians 16:1,2.

iii) “Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled...Jesus stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.” (v.19).

“After eight days again his disciples were within, then came Jesus...” John 20:19,26.

Question 1: Did the Jews protest against Christians for worshipping on Sunday? (Yes).

Question 2: Did the Jews protest against the Christians for not keeping the Jewish yearly feasts, new moon, and Sabbath days? (Yes). “Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holy day, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days.” Colossians 2:16.

iv) See 15 church writers before 350 AD who all state that Christians met on Sunday and not Saturday.

6. Some were exempt from Sabbath keeping as a day of rest, priests&boys circumcised on Sabbath.

Instead of the Sabbath being a day of rest for the priests, their work was doubled. (Numbers 28:9,10).

Jesus asked the Jews, “Have ye not read in the Law how that on the Sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless.” (Matthew 12:5). As New Testament priests (1 Peter 2:9), we are exempt from the Sabbath rest, because our whole lives should be dedicated to God as New Testament priests.

113. SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISM REFUTED

1) Three Basic Positions on The Christian Day of Worship

a) Seventh Day Adventist Position

- i) SDAs claim that Christians kept the Sabbath from 33-320AD, but due to the devil, Christians went into apostasy until Ellen White, the SDA prophetess, claimed to have a vision that the Sabbath law was not nailed to the cross. This is against Colossians 2:14.
- ii) In 1844, the first Adventists (known as Millerites) started keeping the Sabbath day. This was because a Seventh Day Baptist convinced his Methodist Minister that the Bible teaches us to keep the Sabbath.
- iii) Only in the 1800's did God, through Ellen White and the SDA Movement, restore by direct revelation the 'truth' that the day of Christian worship should be Saturday.
- iv) SDAs claim that Christians around 140AD borrowed Sunday worship from the pagan religion of Mithraism.
- v) Gradually, SDAs claim Sunday worship replaced Saturday worship.
- vi) SDAs interpret the "Seal of God" to be "Saturday Sabbath keeping". They claim that the mark of the beast is "Sunday Sabbath keeping", not now, but after some presumed future Sunday keeping law is passed.

b) The Bible's Position (the TRUTH)

- i) The 10 Commandments Law (including the requirement to keep the Sabbath day), along with all the laws of Moses, were abolished at the cross. (2 Cor. 3:7-11; Ephesians 2:15).
- ii) God gave the Old Mosaic Covenant at Mt Sinai through Moses, only to the Jews. The 10 Commandments are the foremost representation of this Old Covenant, which was replaced with the New Covenant, called the "Law of Christ" (Rom8:2; Gal 6:2; ICor9:21).
- iii) 100% of the Old Mosaic Covenant was abolished at the cross. (Col. 2:14; Ephes. 2:15).
- iv) No one before Moses (Adam, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Job) ever heard of the Sabbath Law, nor did they ever keep it ("madest known" Nehem 9:13,14; Deut.5:2,3; Eze.20:12).
- v) The very first time anyone was commanded to keep the Sabbath was in Exodus 16:23-30. Genesis 2:2-3 was written by Moses to tell Jews at Sinai WHY they were to keep the Sabbath, NOT to teach WHEN the Sabbath was instituted.
- vi) The universal meeting day of Christians after Christ's resurrection was Sunday, and so it has been to today (Acts 20:7; I Cor. 16:1,2).
- vii) Sunday is not a Christian Sabbath, or a day of rest to be kept.
It is the day God requires all Christians to meet together to worship God (Acts 20:7) and to provoke each other to love and good works. (Hebrews 10:24,25).
- viii) Christians do not keep the 10 Commandments Law of Moses. This does not mean that Christians are free to steal, murder and commit adultery just because the 10 Commandments are abolished. No! Christians are under a new and better law which is the Law of Christ (Galatians 3:24-25; 6:2; I Corinthians 9:20,21; Romans 8:2; Hebrews 7:12) and a new and better covenant (Hebrews 8:6-13).
- ix) We listen to Christ in all things, as our Head, and not to Moses. This is NT Christianity.
1) Paul said, "If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the Lord's Commandments." (I Cor. 14:37).
2) Peter quoted Moses, "A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things ... he shall say unto you" Acts 3:22

c) The General Protestant Position (vulnerable to SDA deception).

Protestants generally claim that the meaning of the Sabbath was transferred to Sunday to commemorate Christ's resurrection. They are doing the right thing (commemorating Christ's resurrection) but for the wrong reason (keeping the 4th Commandment).

- i) When Christians wrongly apply the 4th Commandment as the reason why they worship on Sunday, they are 1) Mistaken; 2) Opening themselves to manipulation by SDAs.

- ii) If a Christian justifies Sunday keeping by quoting the fourth Commandment (“Six days shalt thou labour, . . . but the seventh is the Sabbath”), all that an SDA needs to convert him to become an SDA is a calendar showing that if Saturday is the 7th day Sabbath, then ask, “Why aren’t you keeping it?”

2) 7 Errors in the “27 Fundamental Beliefs of SDAs”

- a) They deny that man has a spirit. “Though created free beings, each person is an indivisible unity of body, mind and soul”. (Clause 7: The Nature of Man).
Bible refutation: “I pray God your whole spirit, and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.” (I Thessalonians 5:23).
Man’s makeup is spirit, soul (mind, emotions, will) and body. Not as SDAs think: “body, mind and soul.” (Soul = mind, emotions, will).
- b) They claim that the “SDA church is the only true remnant church that keep God’s commandments.” “The universal church (WRONG. Because it has not met yet) is composed of all who truly believe in Christ, but in the last days, a time of widespread apostasy, a remnant has been called out to keep the commandments of God (WRONG: No-one fully keeps the Commandments) and the faith of Jesus. This remnant announces the arrival of the judgment hour (WRONG: because SDAs invent an Investigative Judgment, saying it is now occurring in heaven.) This proclamation coincides with the work of judgment in heaven.” (WRONG: because judgment occurs after Christ’s return, not before. See 2 Corinthians 5:10). (Clause 12: The Remnant and Its Mission).
- c) They claim Ellen White had the spiritual gift of prophecy:
“One of the gifts of the Holy Spirit is prophecy.” (WRONG: Prophecy as new revelations from God ceased with the completion of the NT in 96AD. (I Corinthians 13:8-13). “This gift is an identifying mark of the remnant church” (WRONG: No Bible proof), “and was manifested in the ministry of Ellen G White.” (WRONG: She was a false prophet because of her many false prophecies. (Deuteronomy 18:20-22). Joel 2:28,29 is fulfilled AFTER Christ’s 2nd Coming, not before. (Clause 17: The Gift of Prophecy).
- d) They claim that Christians must keep the Jewish Sabbath: “The beneficent Creator, after six days of Creation, rested on the seventh day and instituted the Sabbath for all people” (WRONG: Only as a sign between God and the Jews – Exodus 31:13) “as a memorial of creation. The fourth commandment of God’s unchangeable law.” (WRONG: Many of God’s laws have changed, eg circumcision, animal sacrifices, etc.) “requires the observance of this seventh day Sabbath. . . . The Sabbath is God’s perpetual sign of His eternal covenant between Him and His people” (WRONG: It is not perpetual because it finished when Christ died. It was only between God and the Jews). “Joyful observance of this holy time is from sunset to sunset.” (Clause 19: The Sabbath).
- e) They claim Christ began an Investigative Judgment in 1844.
“In 1844 at the end of the prophetic period of 2300 days (error 1) He entered the second and last phase of His atonement ministry (error 2). It is a work of investigative judgment which is part of the ultimate disposition of all sin (error 3).
The investigative judgment reveals to heavenly intelligences who among the dead are asleep in Christ and therefore, in Him, are deemed worthy (error 4) to have part in the first resurrection. . . . This judgment vindicates the justice of God in saving those who believe in Jesus. It declares that those who have remained loyal to God (error 5) shall receive the Kingdom.” (Clause 23: Christ’s Ministry in the Heavenly Sanctuary).
Error 1 corrected: 2300 days are “days” from 6 September 171BC to 25 December 165 BC (Daniel 8:14) from when Antiochus IV Epiphanes desecrated the Temple up to its cleansing.
Error 2,3 corrected: Christ’s atonement for our sins was fully completed on the cross. (“we have now received the atonement” Romans 5:11). There is no second phase of Christ’s atonement. SDAs say that Christ’s sacrifice is insufficient to fully atone or take away our sins
Error 4 corrected: To say who among the dead are “deemed worthy” to have part in the first resurrection, is to claim works for salvation. 747

Error 5 corrected: To say that only those who remain loyal to God receive the Kingdom, denies Christ's ability to keep us saved. This teaches loss of salvation. Hence NO SDA can be sure of eternal life. God says: "that ye may know that ye have eternal life." (I John 5:13).

f) They claim that nobody now has eternal life. "But God, who alone is immortal, will grant eternal life to His redeemed." (Clause 25: Death and Resurrection).

Error 6 corrected: "He that has the Son, has life." (present tense NOW). (I John 5:12; 2:25).

g) They deny that believers go to heaven at death. They believe in soul sleep: "Until that day, death is an unconscious state for all people." (Clause 25: Death & Resurrection).

Error 7 corrected: "The mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of hell." Ezekiel 32:21.

h) They are very confused about the Millennium: "The millennium is the 1000 year reign of Christ with His saints in heaven." (WRONG: It is on earth, Zechariah 14:1-5; 8-21) between the first and second resurrections. During this time the wicked dead will be judged." (WRONG: the wicked dead will be judged after the 1000 years – Revelation 20:7-15: "And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison. . .") "the earth will be utterly desolate" (WRONG: "the desert shall rejoice & blossom as the rose" (Isaiah 35:1), "without living human inhabitants" (WRONG: "the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left." Isaiah 24:6).

3) Thirteen Official SDA Baptismal Vows

In order to be baptized, SDAs must agree to 13 vows. The ones that are false are:

6. "I accept the 10 Commandments as still binding upon Christians, and it is my purpose by the power of the indwelling Christ, to keep this law, including the 4th Commandment, which requires the observance of the seventh day of the week as the Sabbath of the Lord."

8. "I accept the Biblical teaching of spiritual gifts, and believe that the gift of prophecy is one of the identifying marks of the remnant church."

11. "I know and understand the fundamental Bible principles as taught by the Seventh Day Adventist Church. It is my purpose, by the grace of God, to order my life in harmony with these principles."

13. "I accept that the Seventh Day Adventist Church is the remnant church of Bible prophecy."

4) SDA Statements that Ellen White was God's Inspired Prophet

Before 1980, all SDAs viewed Ellen White as an inspired prophet. In 1980, Walter Rea proved and published that 80-90% of her "inspired writings and visions" were plagiarised or copied from James White who copied them from J N Andrews. Now, modern SDA leaders are watering down their church's stand on White's inspiration, saying: "White's writings are not a replacement of the Bible".

Note that Adventists, Mormons and Jehovah's Witnesses share these qualities:

a) All were born in the 1800s; b) All claimed to have direct inspiration from God at their founding; c) All claimed to have the gift or spirit of prophecy.

Consider these SDA claims that White was God's prophet:

a) Clause 17 of SDA Creed: "This gift (of prophecy) is an identifying mark of the remnant church and was manifested in the ministry of Ellen G White."

As the Lord's messenger, her writings are a continuing and authoritative source of truth which provide for the church comfort, guidance, instruction and correction."

b) Back cover of The Great Controversy, 1975 edition claims that:

"Ellen G White (1827-1915) . . . is considered to have been inspired by God.

Many of her prophecies about world events and the modern day condition of man have already been dramatically fulfilled."

c) In 1876 she wrote: "In ancient times God spoke to men by the mouth of prophets & apostles. In these days He speaks to them by the Testimonies of His Spirit" (ie White's writings). (EGW, Testimonies for the Church, Vol. 4, p. 147-8, Testimony 27:1876).

d) In 1882 she wrote: "If you lessen the confidence of God's people in the testimonies He has sent them, you are rebelling against God as certainly as were Korah, Dathan and Abiram." (EGW, Testimonies for the Church, Vol. 5, p. 66, Testimony 31, 1882). 748

- e) In 1882 she wrote: “When I was in Colorado . . . I wrote many pages to be read at your camp meeting. God was speaking through clay. I am presenting to you what the Lord has presented to me. They are what God has opened before me in vision – the precious rays of light shining from the throne.” (EGW, Selected Messages, Book 1, p 27).

Consider these official SDA statements of inspiration for Ellen G White:

- f) SDA Sabbath School Quarterly, Teachers Edition, p 112, Feb 11, 1978:
“The Bible and the writings of Ellen White are inerrant.”
- g) Official SDA position, in The Advent Review and Herald, 4 Oct 1928:
“Her writings should be received the same as were the messages of the prophets of old. As Samuel was a prophet of Israel for his day; as Jeremiah was a prophet of Israel for the days of captivity; as John the Baptist came as a special messenger of the Lord to prepare the way for Christ’s Coming, so we believe that Mrs White was a prophet to the Church of Christ today.”
- h) Louis Venden quoted on the cassette tape, The Wilson Committee, Rea on Ellen G White:
“I believe that The Desire of Ages (White’s book), for example, is just as high in quality of degree of inspiration as the Gospel according to Luke.”
- i) Kenneth Wood, Editor of Review, as quoted in RH 4 Sept 1980, p15:
“Ellen G White was inspired in the same sense as were the Bible prophets.”
- j) Ron Graybill, Assoc Sec, EGW Estate, in a talk at Southern Missionary College on 27 Sep 80: “The quality of inspiration of Ellen White is equal to that of Bible writers.”
- k) Philip Follett, tape, “What Happened at Glacier View”, PUC, 23 Aug 1980:
“The writings of Ellen White are inspired in the same sense as the Bible is inspired.”
- l) Moving Out, Unit 4, p.115: “Ellen received a second vision in which God called her formally to work for Him as a prophet”.

5) 5 Failed Prophecies of Ellen White

The Bible test of a false prophet is given in Deuteronomy 18:20-22 as follows:

“But the prophet which shall presume to speak a word in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak . . . even that prophet shall die.” (v.20).

Question: If thou say in thine heart, How shall we know the word which the Lord has not spoken?

Answer: “When a prophet speaketh in the name of the Lord, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the Lord hath not spoken, but the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously: thou shalt not be afraid of him.” (v.22).

Some of Ellen White’s many false and failed prophecies showing her to be a false prophet are:

- a) White falsely predicted that some living in 1856 would live to see Christ return:
“I was shown the company present at the Conference.
Said the angel: “Some food for worms, some subjects of the 7 last plagues, some will be alive and remain upon the earth to be translated at the coming of Jesus.”“ Vol. 1, p.131,132, Testimonies for the Church. This statement was made in 1856 and everyone present in that meeting is now dead. None lived to see Christ return. This is clearly a false prophecy. White made no conditions for the fulfilment of this prophecy.
- b) White falsely prophesied that England would declare war on the USA about the time of the Civil War: “This nation will yet be humbled into the dust. England is studying whether . . . to make war on her. When England does declare war, . . . there will be general war.”
Testimonies for the Church, Vol. 1, p.259. This was a false prophecy, England did not declare war on the USA during the Civil War, and the USA was not humbled into the dust.
- c) White falsely prophesied in 1850 that Old Jerusalem would never be built up. In 1850, Bible scholars were teaching about Jews returning to Palestine and the restoration of Jerusalem. White said, “I also saw that Old Jerusalem would never be built up”. Early Writings, p.75 Since Israel’s rebirth in 1948 & the Six Day War of 1967, “Old Jerusalem” has been built up.
- d) White falsely prophesied that the time for salvation for sinners had passed in July 1844:
“The “midnight cry” was finished at the seventh month 1844 (p.43).” Early Writings, p42-45.
- e) White prophesied the world would end in 1843, 1844, 1845, 1851. “the believers explained their mistake and gave reasons why they expected their Lord in 1844.” Early Writings. p.237.

6) 12 UNBIBLICAL STATEMENTS OF ELLEN WHITE:

1) White falsely taught that the Tower of Babel was built before the Flood:

“The Lord first established the system of sacrificial offerings with Adam after his fall, which he taught to his descendants. This system was corrupted before the Flood by those who separated themselves from the faithful followers of God, and engaged in the building of the Tower of Babel.” Spiritual Gifts, Vol. 3, p.301, 1864 edition.

This mistake was later taken out of the 1870 edition of Spirit of Prophecy, Vol. 1, p 266.

2) White falsely taught that we should never say we are saved:

“Those who accept the Saviour, however sincere their conversion, should never be taught to say or to feel that they are saved.” Christ’s Object Lessons, p 155. Yet the Bible says, “He that has the Son has life . . . that ye may know that ye have eternal life.” (I John 5:12,13).

3) White falsely taught that the seal of God is the Sabbath:

“The sign, or seal of God is revealed in the observance of the seventh-day Sabbath.” Testimonies for the Church, Vol. 8, p 117; and TGC p 640.

But the Bible states that it is the indwelling Holy Spirit:

“after ye believed, ye were sealed with that Holy Spirit of promise.” (Ephesians 1:13).

“Grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed.” (Ephesians 4:30).

“God, who hath sealed us, and given us the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.” (II Cor. 1:21,22).

4) White taught that there was only one Herod, who tried Christ and executed James:

“Herod’s heart had grown still harder; and when he heard that Christ had risen, he was not much troubled. He took the life of James.” (Early Writings, p 185,186).

However, Bible scholars and historians have proven that Herod Antipas tried Jesus and that Herod Agrippa I executed James the Apostle.

5) White falsely taught that Satan will bear our sins: “the scapegoat typified Satan, the author of sin, upon whom the sins of the truly penitent will finally be placed.” TGC, p 422.

“As the priest, in removing the sins from the sanctuary, confessed them upon the head of the scape goat, so Christ will place all these sins upon Satan, the originator and instigator of sin.” TGC, 485

“Their sins are transferred to the originator of sin.” Testimonies for the Church, Vol 5, p 475.

The Bible says, “the Lord hath laid on him (Christ) the iniquity of us all.” (Isaiah 53:6).

“Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree.” (I Peter 2:24).

6) White falsely taught that Christ’s Atonement was not finished at the cross:

“instead of coming to the earth at the termination of the 2300 days in 1844, Christ then entered the most holy place of the heavenly sanctuary to perform the closing work of the atonement preparatory to His coming.” TGC, p 422.

But the Bible says: “but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.” (Hebrews 9:26). “we have now received the atonement.” (Romans 5:11).

“after he had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down on the right hand of God.” (Heb.

10:12). Christ said on the cross, “It is finished.” (John 19:30).

7) White falsely taught that we can be sinless:

“Those only who through faith in Christ, obey all of God’s commandments, will reach a condition of sinlessness in which Adam lived before his transgression.” SDA Bible Commentary, Vol.6,1118

“In order to let Jesus into our hearts, we must stop sinning.” Signs of the Times, 3 March 1898.

I John 1:8,10 “If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.”

8) White falsely taught that a Christian’s sins are pardoned, but not yet forgiven or blotted out.

She taught that one’s eternal destiny will be ultimately determined by weighing a believer’s good works and bad works in the Investigative Judgment. (TGC, p 483):

“All who have truly repented of sin, and by faith claimed the blood of Christ as their atoning sacrifice, have had pardon entered against their names in the books of heaven as they have become partakers of the righteousness of Christ, & their characters are found to be in harmony with the law of God, their sins will be blotted out, & they themselves will be accounted worthy of eternal life.”

“The work of the investigative judgment and the blotting out of sin is to be accomplished before the second advent of our Lord.” TGC, p 485.

“In 1844 begin the work of investigation and blotting out of sins.” Christ in His Sanctuary, p122. However, the Bible says: “I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins.” (Isaiah 43:25).

“I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and as a cloud, thy sins.” (Isaiah 44:22).

“If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.” (I John 1:9).

Note: The Investigative Judgment heresy:

- a) Has never been taught by anyone else in history;
- b) Has no Bible support;
- c) Is the excuse for SDA’s existence as a separate church.

Noted SDA historian and theologian, Leroy E Froom, states that this teaching is the SDA church’s only reason for existence:

“Indeed, if there is ¹no actual Sanctuary in heaven, and ²no ministering Great High Priest serving therein; and ³if there is no judgment hour message to herald from God to mankind at this time, then we have no justifiable place in the religious world, no distinctive denominational mission and message, and no excuse for functioning as a separate church entity today.” Movement of Destiny, p 542 (emphasis added). “Any deviation from (the sanctuary truth) strikes at the heart of Adventism, and challenges its very integrity.” p 542.

9) White falsely claimed that in a vision she heard the day and hour of Christ’s return:

“Soon we heard the voice of God like many waters, which gave us the day and hour of Jesus’ Coming.” Early Writings, p 15. Yet the Bible says, “But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no not the angels of heaven, but my Father only.” (Matthew 24:36).

10) White falsely claims that God had to consult others about man’s fall:

She thus suggests that God did not expect it and didn’t know what to do about it.

“The news of man’s fall spread through Heaven – every harp was hushed. . . . A council was held to decide what must be done with the guilty pair.” Spiritual Gifts, Vol. 3, p 44.

11) White falsely claims that Adam kept the Sabbath:

“The Sabbath was observed before the fall. Because Adam and Eve disobeyed God’s command, and ate of the forbidden fruit, they were expelled from Eden; but they observed the Sabbath after their fall.” Spiritual Gifts, Vol. 3, p 52.

12) White falsely claims that angels have a gold card:

“There is perfect order and harmony in the Holy City. All the angels that are commissioned to visit the earth hold a golden card, which they present to angels at the gates of the city as they pass in and out.” Early Writings, p 39.

7) CONTRADICTIONS OF ELLEN WHITE

a) Deity “did” and “did not” sink and die: “Men need to understand that Deity suffered and sank under the agonies of Calvary.” Manuscript 153, 1898 (BC, Vol. 7, p 907).

“The Deity did not sink under the agonizing torture of Calvary.” Manuscript 140, 1903, BC, Vol5, 1129

b) There is consciousness after death, and there is no consciousness after death:

“I saw that some were quickly destroyed, while others suffered longer. They were punished according to the deeds done in the body. Some were many days consuming, and just as long as there was a portion of them unconsumed, all the sense of suffering remained.” Early Writings, p 294.

“Upon the fundamental error of natural immortality, rests the doctrine of consciousness in death – a doctrine, like eternal torment, opposed to the teaching of the Scriptures, to the dictates of reason, and to our feelings of humanity.” TGC, p 545.

8) Challenge to SDAs: Show us one New Testament verse that:

- a) Quotes the fourth Commandment, OR b) Tells Christians to keep the Sabbath holy.

9) SDAS CLAIM SUNDAY KEEPING IS FOLLOWING AN IMAGE OF THE BEAST.

The SDA church's official doctrine is that the Mark of the Beast is received by those who worship on Sunday. Some SDAs don't know the official teaching of their own church.

"False teachings like the immortal soul, Sunday worship, eternal hell fire, etc are all from the Beast. If we choose to worship in a church that follows these teachings, we are simply following an image of the Beast. Because of their wilful decision to follow the Beast, its false teachings and practices, the beast's name is in their forehead and they are lost, having received the Mark of the Beast."

From Prophecy Seminar Lesson 18, "The Mark of the Beast and the Seal of God" from SDA Pastor Leo Schreven's book, Now That's Clear.

Leo Schreven is a certified official evangelist for the SDA church. Now That's Clear is an official textbook of It is Written Prophecy Seminars sponsored by the SDA church.

"The mark of the Beast is the opposite of this – the observance of the first day of the week." Testimonies for the Church, White, Vol.8, p.117.

10) MOST SDAS BREAK THE SABBATH THEY CLAIM TO KEEP.

God commanded that the Sabbath be kept as follows. Do Sabbatarian (and SDAs) keep all these laws?

	1. Sabbath Law Regulations	2. Meaning Today For Sabbatarian
1	No work to be done (Exodus 31:15).	No shift work or Saturday work. No Police, Fire, Ambulance, Hospital workers.
2	Kindle no fire (Exodus 35:3).	No gas heating in winter. No gas cooking. No starting a motor car (internal combustion).
3	Stay in one place (Exodus 16:29). "abide ye every man in his place, let no man go out of his place on the seventh day."	Park the car and stay at home or in the hotel.
4	Gather no sticks for fuel. (Numbers 15:32).	No putting fuel in the car on Saturday.
5	Buy no goods (Nehemiah 10:31). "We would not buy it of them on the Sabbath."	No eating out on Saturday. No buying a Saturday newspaper. No buying petrol on Saturday.
6	Carry no burdens (Jeremiah 17:21:22) "bear no burdens on the Sabbath day."	No gardening or carrying on Saturday.
7	Strangers within their gates forced to keep these regulations. (Exodus 20:10).	Guests within your house forced to keep these regulations.
8	Death to violators. (Ex 31:15; Num. 15:32-36).	Stone to death other SDAs who break Sabbath.

Question: Did God ever relax ANY of these Sabbath day restrictions? NO!

11) SATURDAY (SABBATH) OR SUNDAY? ON WHICH DAY DID EARLY CHRISTIANS WORSHIP?

1. 74AD The Letter of Barnabas (15:6-8): "We keep the eighth day (Sunday) with joyfulness, the day also on which Jesus rose from the dead."
2. 90AD The Didache 14: "Every Lord's Day...gather yourselves together and break bread."
3. 107AD Ignatius: "Those... possessing a new hope, no longer observing the Sabbath, but living in the observance of the Lord's Day."
(Ignatius, Epistle to the Magnesians, Chap 9, Ante-Nicene Fathers, Vol. 1, p 62-63).
4. 150AD Justin: "the Gentiles, who have believed on Him, . . . even although they neither keep the Sabbath, nor are circumcised, nor observe the feasts. Assuredly they shall receive the holy inheritance of God." (Dialogue with Trypho, Ante-Nicene Fathers, Vol. 1, p 267).
 - 150AD Justin: "Sunday is the day on which we hold our common assembly".
(First Apology of Justin, Chap 68).
 - 150AD Justin: "If there was no need of circumcision before Abraham, or of the observance of Sabbaths, of feasts and sacrifices before Moses; no more need is there of them now... after Jesus Christ." (Dialogue with Trypho, Ante-Nicene Fathers, Vol.1, 206)
5. 180AD Acts of Peter: "He (Christ) abolished their Sabbath, fasts and festivals & circumcision." 1.1-2

6. 190AD Clement of Alexandria: commenting on the 10 Commandments and their Christian meaning: “The seventh day is proclaimed a day of rest, preparing by abstention from evil for the Primal day (first day) our true rest.” (Vol. 7, xvi, 138.1.)
7. 200AD Bardaisan (born 154AD):
“On one day, the first of the week, we assemble ourselves together.” (On Fate) 5.
8. 200AD Tertullian: “We solemnize the day after Saturday in contradistinction to those who call this day their Sabbath. As the abolition of carnal circumcision & of the old law has been consummated, so also the observance of the Sabbath is shown to have been temporary.” (Ante-Nicene Fathers, Vol. 3, p 155). “To us Sabbaths are foreign.” (On Idolatry, 14:6).
9. 220AD Origen: “On Sunday none of the actions of the world should be done. Keep yourself free for spiritual things, go to church, listen to the readings and divine homilies, meditate on heavenly things.” (Homil. 23 in Numeros 4, p 12:749).
10. 225AD The Didascalia: “The Apostles further appointed: On the first day of the week let there be service, and the reading of the Holy Scriptures, and the oblation, because on the first day of the week our Lord rose from the dead.” (Didascalia 2).
11. 250AD Cyprian: “The eighth day, that is the first day after the Sabbath, and the Lord’s Day.” (Epistle 58, Section 4).
12. 300AD Victorinus: “Lest we should appear to observe any Sabbath with the Jews . . . which Sabbath he (Christ) in his body abolished.” (The Creation of the World).
13. 300AD Eusebius: “They did not regard circumcision, nor observe the Sabbath; neither do we because such things as these do not belong to Christians.” Ecclesiastical History, Book1, Ch4 “They (early Old Test saints) did not care about circumcision of the body, neither do we (Christians). They did not care about observing Sabbaths, nor do we.” Church History 1:4:8
14. 345AD Athanasius: “The Sabbath was the end of the first creation, and the Lord’s Day was the beginning of the second. He (God) prescribed that they (Jews) should formerly observe the Sabbath as a memorial of the end of the first things, so we honour the Lord’s day as being the memorial of the new creation.” (On Sabbath and Circumcision 3).
15. 350AD Cyril of Jerusalem: “Stand aloof from all observance of Sabbaths.” (Catechetical Lectures 4:37).
16. Encyclopaedia Britannica: “Sunday, first day of the week; in Christianity, the Lord’s Day, the weekly memorial of Jesus Christ’s resurrection from the dead. The practice of Christians gathering together for worship on Sunday dates back to apostolic times, but details of the actual development of the custom are not clear. Before the end of the first Century AD, the author of Revelation gave the first day its name of the “Lord’s Day” (Revelation 1:10). Saint Justin Martyr (c.100 - c.165), philosopher and defender of the Christian faith, in his writings described the Christians gathered together for worship on the Lord’s Day. The gospels or the Old Testament was read, the presiding minister preached a sermon, and the group prayed together and celebrated the Lord’s Supper. The emperor Constantine (d. 337), a convert to Christianity, introduced the first civil legislation concerning Sunday in 321, when he decreed that all work should cease on Sunday, except that farmers could work if necessary. This law, aimed at providing time for worship, was followed later in the same century and in subsequent centuries by further restrictions on Sunday activities.” (15th edition, vol.11, p392)
17. History of the Christian Church: “Celebration of the Lord’s Day in memory of the resurrection of Christ dates undoubtedly from the apostolic age. Nothing short of apostolic precedent can account for the universal religious observance in the churches of the second century. There is no dissenting voice. This custom was confirmed by the earliest post-apostolic writers, such as Barnabus, Ignatius and Justin Martyr.” (Philip Schaff, vol., p201,2 “The first day was already in the apostolic age designated as “the Lord’s Day.” It appears therefore, from the NT itself, that Sunday was observed as a day of worship, and in special commemoration of the Resurrection, whereby the work of redemption was finished. The universal and uncontradicted Sunday observance in the second century can only be explained by the fact that it has its roots in apostolic practice.” (Philip Schaff, vol.1, p478-9).

12) FOUR REAL REASONS WHY SDAS KEEP THE SABBATH

1. SDAs ignore NT verses on Sunday worship. (Acts 20:7; I Corinthians 16:1,2; John 20:19,26; Romans 14:5,6; and Colossians 2:14. They also ignore Exodus 31:13).

2. SDAs must vow Ellen White as a prophet at their baptism. Having done this, Ellen White and the SDA church become their basis for decision making.

Key: The Word of God becomes a secondary authority only as interpreted by White's "prophecies" and the SDA church. Check SDA Baptismal Vows Number 8,11,13.

3. SDAs must vow to follow the official "27 Fundamental Beliefs" of the SDA Church, clause 17 of which says: "The Gift of Prophecy: One of the gifts of the Holy Spirit, is prophecy.

This gift is an identifying mark of the remnant church and was manifested in the ministry of Ellen White. As the Lord's messenger, her writings are a continuing and authoritative source of truth, which provide for the church comfort, guidance, instruction and correction."

4. SDAs believe (without proof) that Ellen White went to heaven to learn that, contrary to the Bible, the Sabbath law was not nailed to the cross.

a) Ellen White wrote under "inspiration" the following:

"The Lord gave me a view of the heavenly sanctuary. . . . Jesus raised the cover of the ark, and I beheld the tables of stone on which the 10 Commandments were written.

I was amazed as I saw the 4th Commandment with a soft halo of light encircling it.

Said the angel: "It is the only one of the ten which defines the living God"."

(Life Sketches of Ellen G White, p 95,96).

b) Also, in Early Writings of Ellen G White, p 33 she records under "inspiration":

"But the fourth, the Sabbath commandment, shone above them all, for the Sabbath was set apart to be kept in honour of God's holy name. The Holy Sabbath looked glorious - halo of glory was all around it. I saw that the Sabbath commandment was not nailed to the cross. If it was, the other nine commandments were, and we are at liberty to break them all as well as to break the fourth. I saw that God had not changed the Sabbath, for he never changes. But the pope had changed it from the seventh day to the first day of the week; for he was to change times and laws."

Conclusion: No matter what the Bible says about the Sabbath being nailed to the cross, SDAs won't believe what the Bible says if it contradicts their "inspired prophet" Ellen G White. SDAs prefer to follow White's vision and the SDA church than the Bible.

13) THE DANGER OF SABBATH KEEPING

"Why do you compel the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?" (Galatians 2:14).

SDAs teach that Saturday should be observed as a holy day unto the Lord.

Let us study what the Bible has to say about this.

The word "Sabbath" means "rest." Under Moses' Law, Israel was required to keep the "seventh day" as the "Sabbath of the Lord" (Deuteronomy 5:13,14). By law, the people were required to rest from their normal labour on this day and consecrate the time to the will of God (Numbers 15:32-36). Death by stoning was the penalty if anybody profaned it.

As important as it was to the Jews, seventh day observance has no present claim on Christians.

Instead, the spirit of the law will be fulfilled in our daily lives as we:

- a) continually rest from our own works; that we might,
- b) consecrate our time to God.

Sabbath day observance was part of the Mosaic Covenant which was "done away with" in Christ.

Notice the following about Sabbath keeping:

1. A Change of the Law. God made two main covenants:

- a) The Mosaic Covenant with the nation Israel;
- b) The Abrahamic Covenant with Abraham (Galatians 3:8,9) but confirmed by Christ as the New Covenant (Romans 15:8).

Because the New Covenant replaced the Mosaic Covenant, "there is made of necessity a change also of the law." (Hebrews 7:12). This change involved both the priesthood and seventh day observance.

SDAs admit that the Mosaic Covenant has been taken away.

“He hath made the first (covenant) old.” (Hebrews 8:13). (correct).

SDAs claim that the Mosaic Covenant excludes the 10 Commandments (false), and that the 4th Commandment is therefore still binding today (false).

SDAs claim that Sabbath keeping is essential to salvation (false).

Note: Paul links the first Mosaic Covenant (Hebrews 9:1) with the 10 Commandments describing them as the tables of the covenant. (Hebrews 9:4).

“Then verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary. For there was a tabernacle made . . . which had the tables of the covenant.” (Hebrews 9:1-4).

The 10 Commandments were the basis of the Mosaic Covenant, which Paul said was “ready to vanish away.” (Hebrews 8:13). This occurred with the Temple’s destruction in 70AD.

Note: Paul’s teaching that the old Mosaic Covenant included the 10 Commandments, is proven by the Law itself: The Lord said unto Moses:

- “I have made a covenant with thee and with Israel (v.27). And he wrote upon the tables the words of the covenant, the ten Commandments.” (Exodus 34:28).
- “He wrote upon the tables the words of the covenant, the 10 Commandments.” Deuteronomy 4:13.

Key: The identification of the “Ten Commandments” with the Mosaic Covenant, which was “done away” (2 Corinthians 3:7,11) in Christ, is fatal to SDA Sabbath keeping.

SDA Objection No.1: They deny this truth by dividing the Mosaic Law into two parts:

- The Ceremonial – which they claim was the Law of Moses and was abolished;
- The Moral – which they claim was the Law of God and still binding.

Answer: The Bible refutes this by using the terms “law of Moses” and “law of God” interchangeably for both the ceremonial and moral parts of the law. For example:

- Ceremonial: “He appointed also the King’s portion of his substance for the burnt offerings, for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written in the Law of the Lord.” (II Chronicles 31:3).
Here ceremonial offerings, Sabbaths and feasts are part of the Law of the Lord.
- Moral: “Be very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the Law of Moses . . . that ye not make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to swear by them, neither serve them, nor bow yourselves unto them.” (Joshua 23:6,7).
Here, serving false gods, which is morally wrong, is part of the Law of Moses.

SDA Objection No.2: SDAs teach that the Law of Moses was written in a book (now abolished), and the Ten Commandments written on stone are still binding.

Answer: Paul refutes this in II Corinthians 3:7-11 by describing the 10 Commandments as being:

- the ministration of death; b) written and engraven in stones, and c) glorious, d) done away.
“But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious,that which is done away (Mosaic Covenant including the 10 Commandments) was glorious, much more that which remaineth (New Covenant in Christ) is glorious.” II Corinthians 3:11.

Here Paul identifies the 10 Commandments (engraven in stones) with the Mosaic Covenant that was “done away in Christ.”

SDA Objection No.3: Why should the Ten Commandments be described as “the ministration of death” if they teach eternal truths? (such as Commandments 1-3 and 5-10).

Answer: It is because they were set before Israel with the words: “Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.” (Galatians 3:10; Deuter. 27:26). In the Mosaic Covenant, there was no hope of eternal life for anybody who broke any of its laws. The “Law of Christ” (I Corinthians 9:21), also called the “perfect law of liberty” (James 2:8-12) (in contrast to the death-dealing Mosaic Covenant of the 10 Commandments) can release us from sin and death, which the Mosaic Covenant never could. The “Law of Christ” reaffirms 9 out of the 10 Commandments and gives new meaning to the fourth.

SDA Objection No.4: Does this mean that all the 10 Commandments are out-of-date, and we can steal, kill and commit adultery as much as we want?

Answer: No. Nine of the Commandments teach eternal truths that Christ and the Apostles endorsed, but the 4th Commandment was never imposed on the churches. These 9 were expanded and transferred into the Law of Christ. Where does the NT tell Christians in the Church Age to observe the Sabbath? Never!

2. When did the Sabbath Law Commence?

SDA Objection No.5: SDAs claim that the Sabbath Law was given before the Law of Moses, and was known and obeyed from Adam, to Noah, to Abraham and to Moses.

We agree that animal sacrifice was given by God before the Law of Moses.

We agree that circumcision was given by God to Abraham. (Genesis 17:9-14).

But SDAs admit that animal sacrifice and circumcision are not binding on us today.

Answer: The Bible student will not find a Sabbath Law given to man before Moses.

a) True, we read in Genesis 2:3 “God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it; because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made”.

These words do not constitute a command for man to observe this day. Remember that Genesis was written by Moses for the Jewish people, AFTER giving them the Law.

Moses included this explanatory note to explain the significance of the Law he had given to Israel.

Speaking of the Sabbath, God declared:

“It is a sign between Me and the children of Israel forever, for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed.” (Exodus 31:17).

b) The evidence shows that it was impossible for the Sabbath law to be practiced before Moses.

God instructed Moses to change the Jewish calendar, making the departure from Egypt

“the beginning of months: it shall be the first month of the year to you.” (Exodus 12:2).

From this new date, commenced the Sabbath day observance.

On this point Moses himself needed instruction, which he passed on to the people.

“This is that which the Lord has said, Tomorrow is the rest of the holy Sabbath unto the Lord (23).

Eat that today; for today is a Sabbath unto the Lord: today ye shall not find it in the field.’ Ex16:25

c) Question to ask SDAs: If the Sabbath law was so well known, why the need of such instruction to Moses and the Israelites? Answer: Because:

i) This was a new law, just then set before Israel for the first time.

Moses said to the people: “See, for that the LORD hath given you the Sabbath, therefore, he giveth you on the sixth day the bread of two days; abide ye every man in his place, let no man go out of his place on the seventh day. So the people rested on the seventh day.” (Exodus 16:29,30).

ii) The Bible plainly declares that God made known “the holy Sabbath . . . by the hand of Moses thy servant” at Mount Sinai: “Thou camest down also upon Mount Sinai . . . and MADEST KNOWN unto them thy holy sabbath . . . by the hand of Moses thy servant.” (Nehemiah 9:13,14).

This passage fixes beyond all doubt the time when the Sabbath was given, or “made known” to man. It was not in Eden, but to Moses on Mount Sinai.

iii) In Numbers 15:32-36 further instruction was given to Moses and Aaron concerning the Sabbath, because “it was not declared what should be done” to the Sabbath breaker who gathered sticks on the Sabbath day. (v.34).

3. The Real Meaning of the Sabbath

The Mosaic Law demanded that on every seventh day, Jews should rest from their labour and devote the day to meditating on the things of God. A true Israelite, however, did not limit his meditation only to the Sabbath day. It was “his delight to meditate in the law of the Lord..day and night” continually (Psalm 1:2). He observed not merely the letter of this law, but the spirit of it. He daily tried to rest from the things of the flesh, and devoted his time to God.

The Sabbath rest was a type, to remind the people of the correct spiritual attitude that should characterize their actions every day. For true Christians, keeping this Sabbath type is not necessary, because in Christ this Sabbath type is done away (2 Corinthians 3:7,11).

Christ gave a spiritual significance to aspects of the Mosaic Law:

- a) Instead of animal sacrifices, he presented Himself as the “Lamb of God” to take away the sin of the world. (John 1:29).
- b) Instead of literal circumcision, He set forth the principle of repudiating the flesh, a circumcision “that is of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter.” (Romans 2:28,29).
- c) Instead of Sabbath keeping, He taught a daily rest from the works of sin, and a daily faith rest and belief in God’s promises. (Hebrews 4:1-11). Christ taught the spiritual significance of the Sabbath when He said, “Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.” Greek: anapauso). (Matthew 11:28).

Greek: “Anapauso” means “Sabbath rest” in the Septuagint.

Christ continuously condemned the Jewish leaders for formalistic Sabbath keeping.

He deliberately allowed His disciples to do what “was not lawful to do upon the Sabbath day”

(Matthew 12:1,2), because He was “Lord even of the Sabbath day.” (Matthew 12:8) and therefore had power to change its observance.

4. Some were Exempt from the Sabbath Law

Jesus showed that some Israelites were exempt from keeping the Sabbath as a day of rest:

- a) For Priests, instead of the Sabbath being a day of rest, their work was doubled (Numbers 28:9,10). Jesus asked the Jews, “Have ye not read in the law, how that on the Sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath, and are blameless.” (Matthew 12:5).

The priests did not observe the Sabbath. It was no rest to them. Their whole life was devoted to the Lord’s service. Christ’s words apply to true Christians today, who also are priests devoted to the Lord’s work. Peter said, “Ye are a... royal priesthood” (I Peter 2:9) to the Christians of his day.

As New Testament priests, we are exempt from the Sabbath rest, because our whole lives should be dedicated to God’s work as NT priests. Those who insist on a rigid Mosaic Law Sabbath keeping, imply that they exclude themselves from Christ’s own priestly class of believers today.

- b) Circumcision. On another occasion, the Lord refuted the Jews’ formal Sabbath keeping, by showing that there were other laws (such as circumcision) that took precedence over the Sabbath. The Law required that on the eighth day, a Jewish boy should be circumcised. Sometimes the eighth day of a boy’s life fell on the Sabbath day. Here then were two laws: one demanding circumcision work, and the other law of the Sabbath, demanding no work.

Question: Which law was to be broken? Which law was more important?

Answer: The circumcision law was more important than the Sabbath law, because unless a boy was circumcised, he could not keep the law as a covenant member.

Jesus said, “Ye on the Sabbath day, circumcise a man that the law should not be broken.” (John 7:22,23). Since circumcision is a greater law than the Sabbath, this forces SDAs to give priority to a ceremonial law (circumcision) which they say is obsolete, over the Sabbath law which they say is moral.

Question: Why did the circumcision law take precedence over the Sabbath law?

Answer: Circumcision was the sign of the Abrahamic Covenant (Genesis 17:10-14) that was confirmed by Christ (Romans 15:8), whereas the Sabbath was the sign of the Mosaic Covenant. As the Abrahamic Covenant, confirmed by Christ, superseded the Mosaic Covenant (Hebrews 8:8), so the Law showed circumcision taking precedence over the Sabbath. One was broken (Sabbath keeping) so that the other might prevail (circumcision). This was the case with the two covenants: the Mosaic Covenant was taken away, so that the Abrahamic / New Covenant might prevail. SDAs must realize that if the Sabbath law is still binding, so also is circumcision. But strangely enough SDAs reject circumcision.

5. How the Sabbath Should be Observed

a) Spiritual circumcision is still as binding on a Christian as spiritual Sabbath keeping.

Paul explained the spiritual meaning of circumcision:

“In whom (Christ) also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ: buried with him in baptism, wherein ye also are risen with him through faith.....” (Colossians 2:11,12).

Here circumcision is spiritual, not the Jewish cutting rite, but in the cutting off the sins of the flesh, and showing Christ’s righteousness in our new life, of which baptism is the first act of obedience.

b) Question: If circumcision has a New Testament spiritual fulfilment, what about the Sabbath?

Answer: Paul showed that the Sabbath was a shadow of something to be revealed in Christ.

“Let no man judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the Sabbath days, which are a shadow of things to come, but the body is of Christ.” (Colossians 2:16,17).

Question: What did the Sabbath shadow reveal or point to?

Answer: “There remaineth therefore a rest (Sabbath meaning in Greek: “Sabbatismos”, not “sabbaton” meaning “sabbath day”) to the people of God. For he that hath entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from His. Let us labour therefore to enter into THAT REST, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.” (Hebrews 4:8-11).

A true follower of Jesus Christ observes the spiritual Sabbath when he daily ceases from his own works and desires. We are exhorted to “labour to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.” This is how we should observe the spiritual Sabbath today. If we live each day as Christ would have us to, believing His promises, each day will be holy to the Lord.

We will enjoy a daily pilgrimage which will be revealed in a denial of the flesh and of service to God.

6. The Danger of Sabbath Keeping

Insisting that we must observe the Sabbath day as Jews did, turns our minds away from the spiritual lessons it was meant to teach us. The first heresy introduced into Christian churches was an attempt to super-impose the Jewish law onto Christianity. These heretics taught that:

a) “Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.” (Acts 15:1,5).

b) “It was needful to command them (Gentiles) to keep the law of Moses.” (Acts 15:5).

This heresy was strongly rejected by the Apostles. They instructed Gentile believers:

“We have heard that certain...have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment.” (Acts 15:24).

The Apostles advised the Gentile believers in Acts 15:29 to:

- abstain from meats offered to idols;
- abstain from blood;
- abstain from things strangled;
- abstain from fornication.

Q: Why did the Apostles say nothing about commanding Gentile believers to observe the Sabbath? 29

Answer: Because the law was “fulfilled” by Christ & the Sabbath, being a part of the Mosaic Law, was done away with. “Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believes.” Rm10:4 “If ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.” (Galatians 5:18).

Note: Paul taught that observance of one day above another was a matter for individual preference:

“One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.” (Romans 14:5).

The Jewish Christians wished to continue observing the Sabbath.

There was no harm in this, so long as:

- They did not try to impose Sabbath restrictions on their fellow Gentile believers; or
- They did not assume that their seventh day observance permitted them to avoid regular meetings established by the Apostles. (Acts 2:42).

It seems that some Jewish Christians were doing this, and elevating the Sabbath above the first day meeting established by Christ. This may have prompted Paul to rebuke the Hebrews to “Forsake not the assembling of yourselves together as the manner of some is.” (Hebrews 10:25).

It was the idea of adding the Mosaic Law with its Sabbath keeping to the Gospel of faith in Christ, that started the Galatian apostasy rebuked by Paul:

“Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years. I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.” (Galatians 4:10,11).

The “days” referred to the Jewish Sabbath, which some Jewish Christians were trying to introduce.

Paul told the Christians at Rome that they were free to set aside a day to God, so long as they didn’t go beyond that by:

- a) Demanding that all Christians should keep the Sabbath or Mosaic Laws, or
 - b) Teaching that Sabbath keeping and Mosaic Law keeping were essential to salvation.
- Paul’s sharp rebuke applies to both first century sabbatarians, and to modern SDAs.

7. The Apostles Met Together on the First Day

First century Christians met on the first day of the week (Sunday), not the 7th day (Saturday):

- a) “Upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread.” Acts 20:7.
- b) “Concerning the collection for the saints . . . upon the first day of the week let every one lay by him in store . . . that there be no gatherings when I come.” (I Corinthians 16:2).

This first day worship is fatal to SDA’s Sabbath worship claim.

First day worship was to commemorate the day that Jesus rose from the grave. (John 20:1).

Question: What did the Apostles do on the seventh day?

Answer: They attended the synagogue to proclaim the risen Christ as Saviour to the Jews:

- a) “They came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day.” Acts 13:14.
- b) “They came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews: And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three Sabbath days reasoned with them.” (Acts 17:1,2).
- c) “Paul came to Corinth, . . . And he reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath. . . .” (Acts 18:1,4).
- d) “Paul . . . came to Ephesus . . . and he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months . . .” (Acts 19:1,8).

Key Question: Since the seventh day was given over to disputing with the Jews in the synagogue, on what day did the Apostles meet with believers for the Lord’s Supper?

Answer: On the first day of the week.

Note: SDAs have completely reversed the Apostles’ custom:

- a) The Apostles used the seventh day rest by Jews to proclaim Christ to them.
On the first day they gathered with believers to remember the Lord and enjoy the Lord’s Supper.
- b) SDAs meet on the seventh day to strengthen each other in their beliefs.
They use the first day to proclaim their message to the world.

SDA Objection:

SDAs claim that Sunday worship came from Roman Catholicism when Constantine, the Roman Emperor, in 328AD passed a law commanding that the first day of the week should be kept as a holy day for all Christians.

Answer: In teaching this, they are either ignorant of history, or prejudice has blinded them to the facts:

- a) Why was there no protest in 328AD to this supposed change by Constantine?
Because Christians had been keeping Sunday ever since the Apostles.
- b) The early church writers (over 15) clearly show that since the Apostles, Christians always and only met on Sunday. For example:
 - i) Ignatius, a disciple of John (100AD): “Those have come to newness of confidence, no longer keeping Sabbaths, but living according to the Lord’s day.”
 - ii) Justin Martyr (140AD): “Sunday is the day on which we all hold our common assembly.”

Hence, Sunday assembling dates back to Apostolic times, and was not instituted by Constantine, but he merely confirmed an existing practice.

8. Does God Change His Laws?

SDA Objection: SDAs claim that God does not change His laws, and that having laid down the Sabbath law, it is still binding today.

Answer: God has changed, removed or given new meaning to many of His laws, such as:

- The law of circumcision has been changed;
 - He commanded animal sacrifices shortly after creation;
 - He commanded yearly worship at the Temple of Jerusalem. (Exodus 34:21-23).
- As these laws have been changed or given a new meaning, so has the Sabbath law.

Conclusion:

- “The law was our schoolmaster to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.” (Galatians 3:24-25).
- Now that Christ has come, “What purpose is the law?”
Answer: “Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, TILL the seed (Christ) should come . . .” (Galatians 3:19).
- Christ having come, has delivered us from the curse of the law (Galatians 3:13), and has brought us under his own glorious law (“not being without law to God, but under the law to Christ.”) (I Corinthians 9:21).
- This “law of Christ” demands of us:
 - “This is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and
 - love one another, as he gave us commandment.” (I John 3:23).

14. BACKGROUND OF HEBREWS 4:

Israel’s Exodus and Unbelief in the Wilderness

Hebrews 4 explains the danger of doubting and disbelieving God’s Word, because of a hard heart that is insensitive to God’s Word and work.

Four spiritual lessons are seen in Israel’s journey to Canaan:

- Israel’s bondage in Egypt illustrates a sinner’s bondage to Satan and to this world.
- Israel’s deliverance from Egypt by the blood of lambs and by God’s power illustrates a sinner being saved from sin by the blood of the “Lamb of God.”
- Israel’s refusal to enter Canaan because they doubted God’s promises (Numbers 13,14) illustrates some Christians missing God’s best because they refuse to walk by faith in God’s promises.
- Israel’s entry to Canaan by crossing the Jordan, illustrates a believer dying to self and the world (Romans 6), and living by God’s promises and claiming spiritual victories and inheritance in Christ (Ephesians 1:3,11,8-23).

Now we can understand what the wilderness wanderings represent.

Key: They illustrate the experiences of believers who will not claim their spiritual inheritance in Christ, who doubt God’s Word, and live in restless unbelief. They don’t enjoy God’s best blessings. They are “out of Egypt”, but not yet “in Canaan”.

The word “rest” is mentioned in Hebrews 3:11,18; 4:1,3-5,8-11.

Two OT rests stated here are: first, the rest of salvation; then secondly the rest of submission.

SDA Objection: SDAs say that “rest” (Greek: sabbatismos) in Hebrew 4:9 means “keeping of a Sabbath” and that this proves we must keep the Saturday Sabbath.

“There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.” (Hebrews 4:9).

Answer: The word “rest” (Greek sabbatismos) in Hebrews 4:9 meaning “keeping of a Sabbath” is different from the Greek word for “Sabbath” being “sabbaton.”

This word “sabbatismos” occurs nowhere else in the New Testament.

“Sabbatismos” differs from the word “Sabbath” or Greek word “sabbaton” as follows:

	“Sabbaton” (Sabbath)	“Sabbatismos” (rest)
1	The time – sabbath day	The keeping or observance of it, the festival
2		It means a resting, heaven, a place of eternal rest with God

Key: “Sabbatismos” cannot mean the seventh day sabbath, because the writer would have used the usual word for “sabbath” which is “sabbaton.” 760

THREE RESTS OF HEBREWS 4

The wilderness wanderings represent the experiences of believers who will not claim their spiritual inheritance in Christ, who doubt God's Word, and who live in restless unbelief.

Hebrews mentions three rests: two in the Old Testament; one in the New Testament:

1. God's Sabbath Rest, when He ceased from His creation activities (Genesis 2:2; Hebrews 4:4).

"God did rest the seventh day from all His works." (Hebrews 4:4). (Salvation rest).

This Sabbath rest is a picture of our rest in Christ through salvation as we cease trusting our works to save us: "For we which have believed do enter into rest." (katapausin) (Hebrews 4:3).

"Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." (anapauso) (Matthew 11:28).

When we come to Christ by faith, we find salvation rest. (Matthew 11:28).

This is "peace with God." (Romans 5:1).

2. Israel's Rest in Canaan (Deuteronomy 12:9, Joshua 21:43-45; Hebrews 3:11). "I was grieved with that generation ..so I swore in my wrath, they shall not enter into my rest." (Hebrews 3:10,11).

This Canaan rest is a picture of our present rest as we claim our inheritance in Christ through faith in God's Word as emphasised in Hebrews 4:11-13. It is living the faith-rest life by believing and resting in the promises in God's Word to handle all situations of life. It is the rest of submission.

"Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest (katapausin) lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief. For the Word of God is . . ." (Hebrews 4:11-13).

The Canaan rest for Israel is a picture of the spiritual rest we find in Christ when we surrender to Him.

When we yield to Christ, learn of Him and obey Him by faith, we enjoy submission rest.

(Matthew 11:29-30).

"Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest (anapausin) unto your souls." (Matthew 11:29,30).

This is the "peace of God" in Philippians 4:6-8 "which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus."

Note: It is by believing in Christ for salvation that we enter into rest. (Hebrews 4:3).

It is by submitting to God in obedience and faith, and by surrendering to His will that God's rest enters into us.

3. The Future Rest: (*sabbatismos*⁴⁵²⁰) that all believers will enjoy with God. (Eternal rest).

"There remaineth, therefore, a rest to the people of God." (Hebrews 4:9).

The Greek word for "rest" here is "sabbatismos", meaning "a keeping of a Sabbath."

This is the only place it occurs in the New Testament.

It is definitely not referring to the weekly Sabbath because this word is "sabbaton" in Greek.

When believers enter heaven, it will be a sharing of God's great eternal Sabbath rest, when all our labours and battles are ended:

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth . . . that they may rest (anapausontai) from their labours; and their works do follow them." (Revelation 14:13).

Hence the "sabbatismos" rest (Hebrews 4:9) is a "Sabbath keeping" used here to indicate the continual Sabbath-rest believers enjoy with the Father and the Son in the New Covenant, in contrast to the weekly Sabbath under the Mosaic Law Covenant.

It is a divine rest that believers enter in their relationship with God on earth and in eternity future.

Key: This is the rest believers will enjoy with God forever when our earthly work is finished.

Therefore, the weekly Sabbath (sabbaton) is a symbol of that eternal rest (sabbatismos) we will enjoy at the completion of God's work and our work.

15. DEBATE BETWEEN A CHRISTIAN AND AN SDA THAT:

“The New Testament teaches that the first day of the week (Sunday) as a day of worship is enforced upon God’s people in the church age.”

Christian 1: Jesus nailed the Old Mosaic Law to the cross (Colossians 2:14). I do not believe that God changed the Sabbath from the seventh day to the first day. Sunday was never a Sabbath. It is simply the day of worship appointed by God for Christians in the Church Age.

Allow me to clarify what the issue is NOT:

- 1) It is not whether Jesus observed the Sabbath. I agree that He did, because He lived under the Old Mosaic Law.
- 2) It is not whether Paul preached on the Sabbath. Showing that someone preached on a particular day does not prove that this is the day that God wants His people to assemble for worship.
- 3) It is not whether Old Testament Jews observed the Sabbath. I agree that they did.
The issue is whether the NT tells us that WE should observe the Sabbath day in this Church Age.
- 4) It is not whether we are under “law” today. I agree that Christians are under God’s law.

Question: But which law are they under?

Answer: I contend that Christians are under Christ’s law, not the law of Moses in any way whatsoever. My first argument in defence of Sunday worship is found in I Corinthians 16:1,2.

Note here that the Corinthians were commanded to give on the “first day of the week”.

The Greek indicates that Paul is saying that they should give on “the first day of every week.”

Question 1: Why would Paul instruct the Corinthians to give offerings on the first day of every week, unless the first day was to be devoted to God?

Question 2: If SDAs could find a Bible verse which says that Christians should take up a collection on the Sabbath day, would they use it as an argument to prove Sabbath day worship? Yes, surely. Would you use this? But Paul tells us to give on Sundays.

Question 3:

- a) Is giving to the church an act of worship? Yes.
- b) Could giving be done on Saturdays? If yes, then:
- c) Why did Paul give specific orders for giving to be done on the “first day of the week”?

(Answer: Because that was the only day the church met, and this proves that Sunday worship was commanded by Paul.)

“Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye. Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.” (I Corinthians 16:1,2).

Notice this Sunday offering command of Paul’s was an “ORDER.”

Paul had also given this same order to all the churches of Galatia (16:1).

Paul said that which he wrote were the “Commandments of God.” (I Corinthians 14:37).

There is only one day on which the NT commands Christians to give offerings, and that is Sunday, “the first day of the week.”

Question 4:

- a) SDAs, do you lay by in store on the first day of every week?
- b) Upon which day of the week do SDAs give to their church?

Answer: According to the SDA Manual, it is done on the seventh day of the week (p.108, 1951 edition).

c) By what authority does the SDA church do this? Is there some passage I have overlooked which commands offerings to be made on the 7th day, Saturday? The SDA church gives offerings on the last day of the week. Paul said to give on the first day of the week.

The SDA church has missed the day of worship by six days.

d) The SDA Manual says that: “The offering is a vital part of the worship hour.” (p 102).

Note: If the offering is a part of worship, and if the offering was on Sunday, then worship also took place on Sunday.

e) Question: Which will you deny: the inspired pen of Paul, or the SDA Manual?

SDA Objection 1: Paul is not discussing a public offering when the church assembled, but he is commanding a laying by in store at home, may be in cookie jars.

Answer: Paul said he wanted them to give, so that there would be no collections when he came. The SDA objection is false, because, if they were storing up their offerings at home, then, when Paul came, the offerings would need to be collected from people's homes.

This would disobey Paul's command. Only if people gave weekly into a central treasury, would it be possible to obey Paul's command of "no gatherings when I come." (I Corinthians 16:2).

Summary of I Corinthians 16:1,2:

- 1) Paul gave 'ORDERS' that a collection should be made on the first day of every week (Sunday).
- 2) Offerings are a part of worship.
- 3) Hence worship must take place on the first day of the week, Sunday not Saturday.

Christian 2: Mr SDA, you may say that Paul commanded this giving at home so that there would be an efficient collection when he arrived.

Question: Did you read what Paul said? Paul ordered them to lay by in store so that there would be NO COLLECTIONS when he came. You are saying that Paul ordered this so that there WOULD be a collection when he came.

If I Corinthians 16:1-3 is instructing them to lay by in store AT HOME, then there would be a collection when Paul came, because the offerings would need to be collected from people's homes. Since Paul wants NO COLLECTIONS when he came, it is obviously talking about an offering into one central treasury on each Sunday. This necessitated that they come together to give their offerings.

Conclusion: This proves that 1st Century Christians met on the first day of the week to give their offerings into one central treasury. Therefore, if giving is worship (as the SDA Manual teaches) and giving took place on Sundays, then meeting to worship took place on Sundays.

(If giving = worship, and giving is on Sundays, then worship was on Sundays).

SDA Objection 2: In "lay by him in store", the word "storing up" (Greek: thesaurizon) refers to people laying money aside "in each individual house until Paul came for it." Answer:

a) Malachi 3:10 proves that "storing up" was by weekly offerings into a central treasury. "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house . . ." "Storehouse" is here defined as 'to store, lay up' (verb) or 'treasure, treasury, storehouse' (noun form) (Theological Wordbook of OT, 1:68). This is an exact parallel to Paul's usage in I Corinthians 16:2.

The Jews of Malachi's time were to store up in one central "treasury" (ie: God's house or temple). This was NOT a storing up at home, but in the temple treasury.

b) II Corinthians 8,9 and I Corinthians 16:1-2 discuss the same collection.

The SDA Church Manual uses II Corinthians 8,9 to prove regular contributions to the church (p 34, 181) which is a "vital part of worship." (p 108).

If II Corinthians 8,9 and I Corinthians 16:1-2 refer to the same offerings, and if 2 Corinthians 8,9 is an act of worship, then the I Corinthians 16:1,2 offering also refers to worship.

This day of worship is ordered to be on Sunday, the first day of the week.

SDA Objection 3: Some SDAs claim that "by him" in "every one of you lay by him" means giving "at home by himself." Let us see what the passage really says:

- 1) "Upon the first day of the week" = Sunday. (Greek: $\mu\epsilon\nu$ = one (3391)).
- 2) "Let every one of you" = giving was the common and universal duty of all believers, be they rich or poor.
- 3) "lay by him" = "by himself" means that each person should decide to give a certain portion of money, when he is at home alone by himself, when he can calmly look at how God has prospered him. Let him decide how much to give, away from the influence of emotional appeals, or group pressure, or for public display, but prayerfully between him & God at home.
- 4) "in store" = each give a designated amount into the common storehouse treasury each Sunday.
- 5) "as God hath prospered him" = according to his wealth.
- 6) "that there be no gatherings when I come" = give this money each Sunday, so it won't need to be collected off them when Paul comes. This proves that they didn't store it up at home, then give when Paul came.

The only way “the first day of the week” could apply to EVERY person in EVERY church would be because Paul knew that Sunday was the day when EVERY person in EVERY church assembled together to worship God. “As I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye.” I Cor 16:1. SDA Objection 4: If Paul promoted Sunday keeping, why was there no controversy or protest between Paul and his Jerusalem brethren over Paul’s abandonment of the Sabbath?

Answer: There was some controversy over the abandonment of the Sabbath by the Jews, as seen in “let no man therefore judge you in..Sabbath days, which are a shadow of things to come.” (Colossians 2:16,17). Paul is saying, “Don’t let people judge you for not keeping Sabbath days, because the Sabbath is a shadow. You have been freed from observing the Mosaic law, now that you are under the law of Christ.

Questions to ask SDAs:

Question 1: If Christians must keep the Sabbath, why do we have no example in the NT where any church ever assembled on the Sabbath for worship? If there is such a case, please show me. You know that the Bible teaches by: a) direct command; b) example; c) implication.

You won’t allow God to teach us by the example of the churches at Troas, Galatia, Jerusalem and Corinth that God endorses Sunday worship (Acts 20:7; I Corinthians 16:1,2; John 20:19,26). You try to put God in a box when you demand a direct statement for Sunday keeping, yet you ignore the example of four churches that met for Sunday worship.

Question 2: If you found a NT passage which read like this: “Upon the seventh day of the week, let every one of you lay by him in store”, would you use this as proof of Sabbath day worship? SDAs would love to find such a passage. Sunday is the only day on which the NT orders the giving of money.

Question 3: Do you give money to the SDA church on Sunday, the first day of the week? No.

Question 4: On which day of the week do SDAs give to their church? Saturday.

Question 5: By what authority does the SDA church give on the 7th day of the week (Saturday)? Paul gave these “orders” to the Galatian churches as well as to the Corinthian church. I Corinthians was written to all Christians (1:2).

Question 6: How can this offering be a collection at people’s homes, when Paul clearly said that he wanted them to give each Sunday, so there would be no collections when he came? If offerings were stored at people’s homes, wouldn’t they need to be collected when Paul came? Wouldn’t this break his command of “no gatherings when I come”?

Question 7: Is giving to the church an act of worship? Yes.

What day did this take place? Sunday.

Then doesn’t this mean that Christians should meet for worship on Sunday as Paul commanded?

Question 8: Why did Paul command them to give on Sundays?

Because that was the day when the first Century churches met for worship.

Christian 3: SDA Objection 5:

Colossians 2:14 states that the Mosaic law was nailed to the cross.

“Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross.” (Colossians 2:14).

SDAs dispute that “ordinances” means “Mosaic commandments.”

Instead, they claim it refers to the “written record of our sins”, because they claim that neither the word “law” nor its concept are found in Colossians.

Answer: The immediate and remote context show that Paul is discussing the Mosaic law in Col. 2:14.

a) The immediate context mentions elements of the Mosaic law such as circumcision and uncircumcision (Colossians 2:11-13). It mentions “festivals”, “new moons”, “Sabbaths” Col.2:16.

- “Let no man judge you in meat or in drink.” Jewish teachers tried to bind Mosaic laws on them.
- “or in respect of an holyday.” Holyday is a Jewish feast or festival. No one had a right to impose Jewish feast observance on Christians, or to condemn them if they did not keep them. They had been delivered from that obligation by Christ’s death.

- “or of the new moon”: on the appearance of the new moon, Israel was required to offer to God 2 bullocks, 1 ram, 7 sheep and 1 meat offering (Numbers 10:10; 28:11-14), as well as the daily sacrifices. The new moon in the beginning of the month Tisri (October) was the beginning of the Jewish Civil year, and was commanded to be observed as a festival. (Leviticus 23:24,25).
 - “or of Sabbath days”. The word “Sabbath” in the OT, is applied not only to the seventh day, but to all the days of holy rest & festivals observed by Jews. This sounds like Law of Moses language.
- b) He says “festivals”, “new moons”, “Sabbaths” (2:16) which are a “shadow of things to come” (2:17). Note: “Shadow” is used two other times in the book of Hebrews, and in each case it refers to the Law of Moses.
- i) Hebrews 8:5 “every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices . . . who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God.”
 - ii) Hebrews 10:1 “For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices make the comers thereunto perfect.” Therefore the immediate context of Colossians 2:14 shows that Paul is discussing the Law of Moses being nailed to the cross.
- c) The remote context shows that Colossians 2:14 speaks of the Law of Moses being nailed to the cross. Ephesians 2:15 states that what was “abolished in his flesh” was the “law of commandments”, which clearly refers to the Law of Moses (Romans 7:8-13). “Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances.” (Ephesians 2:15). Here in Ephesians 2:15 the “Law of Moses commandments’ is referred to as “ordinances”, which is the same word “ordinances” used in Colossians 2:14. “Ordinances” means “decree, edict, law”. The “enmity” means that Jesus Christ by His blood sacrifice has removed the enmity between Jews and Gentiles, as well as between the sinner and God, thus removing all obstacles to reconciliation between God and man.

In Colossians 2:14, Paul discusses both the law and the penalty of the law being nailed to the cross. The theme of this section is that Christians “are “complete” in him. (Colossians 2:10).

Jesus Christ is all that we need to:

- 1) be saved from sin and be justified in God’s sight;
- 2) have wisdom to guide us;
- 3) give us grace to sustain us in trials and to fulfil our duties in life.

People need not go back to the Law of Moses, because Christ has nailed it to the cross. Therefore, why do we allow people to tell us we should observe Jewish festivals, new moons or Sabbaths?

We are no longer under Moses’ laws, but under the law of Christ.

Jesus said in Matthew 5:17,18 “Think not that I am come to destroy the law or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil . . . Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law till all be fulfilled”.

- This means that the Law of Moses would last up until its fulfilment. Christ fulfilled the law of Moses, therefore it has passed away.
- Christianity was not a continuation of Judaism. Jeremiah says, “Behold the days come, saith the Lord, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah: not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt.” (Jeremiah 31:31,32).

Question: Which covenant did God make with Israel when He led them out of Egypt?

Answer: I Kings 8:9 “There was nothing in the ark save the two tables of stone, which Moses put there at Horeb, when the Lord made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt”. The 10 Commandments were part of the Mosaic covenant.

Key: Jeremiah says that the new covenant would be “NOT according” to the Mosaic Covenant. Hebrews 8:7-13 clearly shows that Jeremiah 31:31-34 has been fulfilled in the first century. Hebrews 8:13 says that the Old Mosaic Covenant, which includes the 10 Commandments, were made obsolete. “A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away.” Just as British laws’ control over Australia and USA ceased at Independence, so Moses’ laws control over mankind ceased when Christ fulfilled them on the cross.

16. SABBATARIAN ARGUMENTS REFUTED

1) True Proposition	SDA Argument
10 Commandments are in the old covenant.	10 Commandments are not in the old covenant
The 10 Commandments & the entire old covenant were all abolished when Christ died on the cross.	SDAs say, “The old covenant that was abolished was not the 10 Commandments, and the 10 Commandments are still binding.”

I. The following verses teach the above true proposition:

- a) Hebrews 9:1,4 “Then verily the first covenant had . . . the tables of the covenant”.
- b) Deuteronomy 4:13 “And he declared unto you his covenant, which he commanded you to perform, even ten commandments; and he wrote them upon two tables of stone.”
- c) Deuteronomy 9:9 “When I was gone up into the mount to receive the tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant which the Lord made with you . . .”
- d) I Kings 8:9,21 “There was nothing in the ark save the two tables of stone, which Moses put there at Horeb, when the Lord made a covenant with the children of Israel . . .” (v 9).
“I have set there a place for the ark, wherein is the covenant of the Lord, which he made with our fathers.” (v 21).
- e) II Chronicles 6:11 “in it I have put the ark, wherein is the covenant of the Lord, that he made with the children of Israel.”
- f) Exodus 34:28 “He wrote upon the tables the words of the covenant, the ten commandments.”
Since the 10 Commandments are in the ark, and the covenant is in the ark, this equates the 10 Commandments with the old covenant.

II. The Old Covenant at Sinai included these parts:

- 1) Ark of the covenant: “the tribe of Levi, to bear the ark of the covenant of the Lord.” (Deut. 10:8).
- 2) Tables of the covenant: “to receive the tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant.” Deut.9:9
- 3) Book of the covenant: “keep the passover...as it is written in the book of this covenant.” (II Kings 23:21; Exodus 24:7).
- 4) Curses of the covenant: “according to all the curses of the covenant . . .” (Deuteronomy 29:21).
- 5) Blood of the covenant: “Behold the blood of the covenant, which the Lord hath made with you concerning all these words.” (Exodus 24:8).

These were all abolished at the cross, including the tablets of stone, the Ten Commandments.

III. The Old Covenant that was abolished is called:

- 1) The First Covenant (Hebrews 8:7).
- 2) The Old Testament (II Cor. 3:14) “the old testament; which veil is done away in Christ.”
- 3) The Law (Galatians 3:17) “the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was 430 years after, cannot disannul that it should make the promise of none effect.” This means, the Mosaic law cannot disannul the Abrahamic Covenant.
- 4) The Middle wall of partition. ‘has broken down the middle wall of partition between us’ Eph2:14
- 5) The enmity. “Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments.’ Eph 2:15
- 6) The law of commandments (Ephesians 2:15).
- 7) The handwriting of ordinances (Colossians 2:14) “Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross.”
- 8) The shadow of things to come (Colossians 2:17).
- 9) The yoke of bondage (Galatians 5:1) “be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.”
- 10) The ministration of death (II Corinthians 3:7).
- 11) The ministration of condemnation (II Corinthians 3:9).
- 12) Mount Sinai (Galatians 4:25) “which gendereth to bondage.”
- 13) The Ten Commandments (Exodus 34:28) “the words of the covenant, the ten commandments.”
- 14) The Law of Moses.

- IV. The New Covenant that replaced the Old Covenant is called:
- 1) The New Testament (Mark 14:24) “This is my blood of the new testament.”
 - 2) The Better Covenant (Hebrews 8:6) “he is the mediator of a better covenant.”
 - 3) The New Covenant (Hebrews 8:8) “I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel.”
 - 4) The Second Covenant (Hebrews 8:7) “if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.”
 - 5) The Everlasting Covenant (Hebrews 13:20) “the blood of the everlasting covenant.”
 - 6) The Law of Faith (Romans 3:27) “By what law? Of works? Nay; but by the law of faith.”
 - 7) The Faith (Galatians 3:23) “But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.”
 - 8) A Covenant of Peace (Ezekiel 34:25) “I will make with them a covenant of peace . . .”

2) True Proposition	SDA Argument
Colossians 2:14-16 shows that the weekly Sabbath day is taken away and nailed to the cross.	The Sabbath day in Colossians 2:16 is not the weekly Sabbath day, but the monthly or yearly Sabbaths.

Answer: The Sabbath day in Colossians 2:16 is the weekly Sabbath that was nailed to the cross because I. The “handwriting of ordinances” in Colossians 2:14 refers to the 10 Commandments, including the Sabbath day because “contrary to us” here means the same as “ministration of death” in 2Cor 3:7

Colossians 2:14	II Corinthians 3:7
“Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances (10 Commandments), that was against us, which was contrary to us , and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross.”	“But if the ministration of death , written and graven in stones (10 Commandments) was glorious .”

SDAs have overlooked the fact that the 10 Commandments were called a “ministration of death.”

Question: What is the difference between “contrary to us” and “ministration of death”?

Answer: They mean essentially the same thing: “contrary” in Greek means “an adversary opposed against us.” (5227 in Strong’s Concordance).

II. The Year, Month, Day progression in Colossians 2:16 proves it is a seventh day Sabbath because of similar expressions used elsewhere which also mean seventh day Sabbath, as seen below:

Weekly Sabbath Day in Colossians 2:16 is nailed to the cross
	Yearly	Monthly	Weekly
Colossians 2:16	Holy day	New moon	Sabbath days	“Let no man judge you . . . in respect of an holyday (yearly) or of the new moon or of the Sabbath days .”
Galatians 4:10	Years	Months	Days	“Ye observe days , months & times & years ”
I Chronicles 23:31	Set feasts	New moons	Sabbaths	“to offer all burnt sacrifices..in the Sabbaths , in the new moons , and on the set feasts .”
II Chronicles 31:3	Set feasts	New moons	Sabbaths	“burnt offerings for the Sabbaths , the new moons , and the set feasts . . .”
II Chronicles 2:4	Solemn feasts	New moons	Sabbaths	“for the burnt offerings morning & evening, on the Sabbaths , and on the new moons , and on the solemn feasts of the Lord our God.”
II Chronicles 8:13	Solemn feasts	New moons	Sabbaths	“offering according to the commandment of Moses, on the Sabbaths , and on the new moons , and on the solemn feasts, three times in the year, even in the feast of unleavened bread,..weeks.. tabernacles.”
Nehemiah 10:33	Set feasts	New moons	Sabbaths	“for the continual burnt offering, of the Sabbaths , of the new moons , for the set feasts
Ezekiel 45:17	Feasts	New moons	Sabbaths	“it shall be the prince’s part to give burnt offerings, & meat offerings, & drink offerings, in the feasts , & in the new moons , & in the Sabbaths ”
Hosea 2:11	Feast days	New moons	Sabbaths	‘I will cause all her mirth to cease, her feast days , her new moons , her Sabbaths .’ 767

III. The Greek plural “sabbaton” in Colossians 2:16 refers to the Sabbath, in the same way that the same Greek word “sabbaton” refers to the weekly Sabbath in these other references:

Text	“Sabbaton” plural in Greek
Colossians 2:16	“Let no man judge you in . . . Sabbath days” (sabbaton).
Matthew 28:1	“In the end of the Sabbath (sabbaton), . . .”
Luke 4:16	“he went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day (sabbaton) . . .”
Acts 16:13	“And on the Sabbath (sabbaton) we went out of the city.”
Exodus 20:8 (Septuagint)	“Remember the Sabbath day (sabbaton) . . .”

IV. The lack of the Greek definite article before “Sabbath” in Colossians 2:16 refers to the Sabbath, just as the lack of the Greek definite article in these verses refers to the weekly Sabbath:

Text	Seventh Day Sabbath Lacks Greek Definite Article
Matthew 28:1	“In the end of the Sabbath”
John 5:9	“On the same day was the Sabbath”
John 5:10	“The Jews said, It is the Sabbath day”
John 5:16	“he had done these things on the Sabbath day”

3) True Proposition	SDA Argument
The Sabbath law is not a moral law. The other 9 commandments are moral laws.	The Sabbath law is a moral law because it is in the 10 Commandments.

Answer: The Sabbath law is not a moral law because:

- I. If the Sabbath law is moral, then why were the priests allowed to profane it?

“Have ye not read in the law, how that on the Sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath, and are blameless?” (Matthew 12:5; Numbers 28:9,10).
“on the seventh day, they compassed the city after the same manner seven times.” Joshua 6:15.
This journey around Jericho seven times, was more than a Sabbath day’s journey.
This was commanded by God.
- II. If the Sabbath is moral, then why did God grow weary of them keeping it?
 - God never said he was weary of them “NOT stealing” or “NOT committing adultery.”
 - But God could not bear their keeping the Sabbath:
“the new moons and Sabbaths, the calling of the assemblies, I cannot (endure) away with; it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting. Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth, they are a trouble unto me; I am weary to bear them.” (Isaiah 1:13,14).
This is never said of any moral command anywhere in the Bible!
Think about it. Consider this simple logic:
 - a) God NEVER grows weary of men keeping moral laws;
 - b) God DID grow weary of men keeping the 4th Commandment (Sabbath law);
 - c) Therefore the Sabbath is not a moral law!

III. If the Sabbath law was a moral law intended for all mankind, then why did God NEVER charge the Gentiles with breaking it? God charges the Gentiles many times for breaking all the 9 moral commandments on the tablets of stone (eg: idolatry, baby murder), but NEVER ONCE says anything about them breaking the Sabbath. This proves that the Sabbath is not inherently moral, but just another ceremonial law given ONLY to the Jews.

Sabbatarian Arguments

The Sabbath law is moral because:

1. Violation was punishable by death. (Exodus 31:15; 35:2).

Answer: All the following ceremonial or non-moral infractions brought death.

Hence the Sabbath law is ceremonial as well because:

- 1) Aaron’s sons (Nadab and Abihu) were killed for violating a ceremonial law when offering incense to Jehovah. (Leviticus 10:1-5).

- 2) For disobeying ceremonial commands of any priest “the man that will do presumptuously, and will not hearken to the priest, or unto the judge, even that man shall die.” Deuteronomy 17:12.
- 3) For touching Mount Horeb “whosoever touches the mount shall be surely put to death.” Exod 19:12
- 4) For unauthorized entry by Aaron into the holy place of the tabernacle.
“Speak unto Aaron thy brother, that he come not at all times into the holy place within the veil before the mercy seat, which is upon the ark, that he die not . . .” (Leviticus 16:2).
- 5) For looking into the Ark. “And he smote the men of Bethshemesh, because they had looked into the ark of the Lord . . .” (I Samuel 6:19).
- 6) For not keeping the Sabbath day. “Ye shall keep the Sabbath; for it is holy unto you: every one that defileth it shall surely be put to death.” (Exodus 31:14).

2. The Sabbath law is moral because it was spoken by God personally.

Answer: This is false because God spoke personally on many other issues which are no longer binding on Christians, such as:

- 1) God spoke personally to many such as Adam, Cain, Noah, Abraham, Jacob and Moses regarding burnt offerings, yet these are not binding on Christians today.
- 2) God personally spoke many altar, sacrifice and offering laws to Moses at the same time that He gave the 10 Commandments. (Exodus 20:21-26).
- 3) God spoke personally to Abram about the law of circumcision, yet this is not binding on Christians today. The Bible nowhere teaches that things spoken or written personally by God are binding on all people for all time.

3. The Sabbath is inherently moral and sacred of itself.

Answer: This is false because the Sabbath was sanctified only because God rested on that day, not because it was inherently moral or sacred. The day itself did not make it holy. Resting on it did not make it holy. But God blessing and hallowing it did make it holy. The Sabbath day’s holiness did not come from its own nature. It was no more inherently holy than any other Jewish holy day that God blessed and set apart in the Law of Moses. Since other Jewish holy days that God blessed and set apart, are not binding on Christians, neither is the Sabbath.

4) True Proposition	SDA Argument
10 Commandments and the Sabbath law did not exist before Moses.	10 Commandments existed from the Garden of Eden.

I. Even if the Sabbath was given to Adam, this does not mean Christians must keep it, because God also gave sacrificial offering laws to Adam (after expulsion from Eden).

This SDA argument proves nothing.

II. The 10 Commandments or Sabbath law did not exist before Moses, because of these reasons:

- 1) God revealed or “made known” the Sabbath law and 10 Commandments to Israel at Mount Sinai. He did not remind them:
“Thou made known unto them thy holy Sabbath, and commanded them precepts, statutes and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant.” (Nehemiah 9:13,14). This verse is bad news for SDAs
- 2) Israelite leaders before Moses did not keep the Sabbath.
“The Lord our God made a covenant with us in Horeb. (1491BC).
The Lord made not this covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us, who are all of us here alive this day.” (Deuteronomy 5:2,3). (1451BC).
Adam, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and Joseph knew nothing about Sabbath keeping.
- 3) The Sabbath law came 430 years after the Abrahamic Covenant:
“the law, which was 430 years after (Abraham).” (Galatians 3:17).
This shows that Abraham never knew about the Sabbath law.
- 4) No-one before the Exodus (Exodus 16) ever knew about the Sabbath law.
“I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt . . .
I gave them my Sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them...” (Ezekiel 20:10,12). 769

- 5) The word “Sabbath” is not found in the book of Genesis.
6) The word “Sabbath” is first mentioned in Exodus 16:22-23.

Exodus 16:23-30 indicate that Israel was not used to keeping the Sabbath day before this time. It was a new experience for them:

“And it came to pass, that on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread...and all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses. (v 22). And he said unto them, this is that which the Lord hath said, Tomorrow is the rest of the holy Sabbath unto the Lord: bake that which ye will bake today, and seethe that which ye will seethe; that which remaineth over lay up for you to be kept until the morning.” (Exodus 16:22,23).

Question: If God’s people had kept the Sabbath since Adam, why did Moses here need to tell the rulers that tomorrow was the Sabbath and how they should keep it? Answer: Because the Israelites here were equally unfamiliar with BOTH manna and with the Sabbath.

- 7) Question: SDAs argue that since “Sabbaths” in Ezekiel 20:10-12 (“I gave them my Sabbaths”) is plural it cannot refer to the weekly Sabbath.

Answer: This SDA view is WRONG because:

- a) The weekly Sabbath is plural in Exodus 31:13,17, “Verily my Sabbaths ye shall keep . . . for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, . . .”
- b) Both singular and plural are used for the weekly Sabbath in:
 - Leviticus 19:3 “. . . keep my Sabbaths.”
 - Leviticus 23:38 “beside the Sabbaths of the Lord.”
 - Isaiah 56:2,4 “that keepeth the Sabbaths from polluting it . . . unto the eunuchs that keep my Sabbaths . . .”
 - Matthew 12:5 “on the Sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath, and are blameless?”
 - Matthew 12:10 “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath days?”
 - Acts 17:2 “Paul . . . three Sabbath days reasoned with them.”

III. There is no record or hint that anyone before Exodus Chapter 16 kept the Sabbath.

Question: If God instructed the Patriarchs concerning:

Offerings (Genesis 4:3-4); Altars (Genesis 8:20), Priests (Genesis 8:20), Tithes (Genesis 14:20), Circumcision (Genesis 17:10), Marriage (Genesis 2:24; 34:9), why would He omit mentioning the “important” Sabbath command?

IV. The Sabbath was not a part of God’s eternal law in heaven before creation, because the time that God sanctified it was AFTER the creation week.

Note: God rested on the 7th day, then AFTER His 7th day rest, God sanctified it, not before in heaven. “God rested on the seventh day, God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it.” (Genesis 2:2,3).

a) Genesis was written during the time of Moses, not before. Neither Adam, nor Abraham had the book of Genesis. The Israelites in the wilderness were the first people God told about the Sabbath day. Genesis 2:2 tells us the reason, not the time that God sanctified the Sabbath.

b) An example like this is that Christ was chosen as the sacrificial lamb before the foundation of the world (I Peter 1:20; 2 Tim 1:4), but specific details were not revealed until 4000 years later when Christ was born. The Father set Jesus apart as the sacrifice long before He actually gave Him to die on Calvary

V. The Sabbath would be inappropriate for Adam while in the Garden of Eden, because:

- 1) There was no weariness, sickness, or death in Eden before the Fall.
Hard labour that required rest only existed after Adam sinned, not before (Genesis 3:19).
- 2) The only two commandments that God gave Adam before the Fall were to:
 - a) Dress and keep the Garden (Gen 2:15). b) Not eat of the fruit of the tree of knowledge (Gen 2:16,17)
- 3) “servants and strangers within thy gates” (Exodus 20:10) would make no sense to Adam in Eden regarding the Sabbath, because he had no servants or strangers. So Sabbath was not given to Adam.

VI. The Sabbath was not sanctified on Day 6, but is an example of “Prolepsis”.

Definition: “the representation of something in the future as if it already existed or had occurred.” (Webster’s Dictionary); “assumption that something is done or true before it is so.” (Oxford Dictionary)
When Moses wrote Genesis to Israel, He stated the reason for Jews keeping the Sabbath is in Genesis 2:2,3. This reason was only revealed to the Exodus generation of Israel in 1491BC. Exodus 20:8,11: “Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the seventh day and hallowed it.”

Examples of prolepsis are as follows:

- 1) “Adam called his wife’s name Eve; because she was the mother of all living.” (Genesis 3:20). (This is said before Cain’s birth).
- 2) “Adah bare Jabal. He was the father of such as dwell in tents, and of such as have cattle.” (Genesis 4:20). (This was before he had tents or cattle).
- 3) “His brother’s name was Jubal: he was the father of all such as handle the harp and organ.” (Genesis 4:21). (Those handling harp and organ had not been born at that time).
- 4) “Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.” (Matthew 10:4). (The betrayal did not occur until three years later.)
- 5) “It was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment.” (John 11:1,2). (Mary’s anointing did not take place until later in John 12:3).
- 6) “Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife.” (Genesis 2:24). (There were no fathers or mothers at that time.)

5) True Proposition	SDA Argument
Matthew 5:17,18 is fulfilled by Christ fulfilling the OT prophecies and offerings about the Messiah.	Christ came to fulfil the law, not to destroy it . (Matthew 5:17-18).

Matthew 5:17-18 “Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil. For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.”

Actual Sabbatarian Argument “Because heaven and earth are still here, so God’s laws (meaning the 10 Commandments) are still binding.”

An SDA preacher actually wrote the following about a talk he had with a Christian minister:

“I remember talking to a preacher about this. He was getting more and more angry as we discussed this issue. For some reason this topic conjures up some strange emotions! Must be because some people know they’re not teaching all the truth! I had given over 40 verses establishing God’s law and the preacher clung to his two or three verses trying to say the law was abolished. Then I said, “Okay preacher, I’ll tell you what, stomp your foot on the ground.” As he did I asked “Is the earth still beneath you?” “Yes of course it is,” he replied. “Now look out the window, is the sun shining?” “Yes”, he said. “At night, do the moon and stars still come out?” “Of course they do,” he said. “Then read Matthew 5:17-19. Jesus said till heaven and earth pass away not even a jot or tittle could pass from the law. You just told me heaven and earth were still here so God’s law is still binding!” (Revelation Seminar book).

Answers:

1. Jesus did not say that the “10 Commandments” would endure forever, but that the “Law and the Prophets” would endure forever, as a record that Christ fulfilled their Messianic prophecies.

Question: What does this verse mean?

We must also define the terms “law”, “prophets”, and “fulfil.”

- The Law: To the Jews, this was the first division of the OT, known as the 5 books of Moses.
- The Prophets: This was the second and largest part of the Hebrew Scriptures.
- To fulfil: To fill up or accomplish what was predicted in the Old Testament.

Answer: As Christ was starting His public ministry, He needed to state what He came to do.

By setting up as a teacher in opposition to the Scribes and Pharisees, some might charge Him with intending to destroy their law and abolishing Israel’s customs.

Jesus was saying that He did not come to do away with or destroy the authority of the Old Testament.

- a) The Law of Moses contained many sacrifices, rites and types that spoke of the Messiah's life, person and work. These were fulfilled during Christ's life, ministry, death, burial, resurrection.
- b) The Prophets contained many prophecies of His life and death, which were fulfilled and accomplished during His time on earth. Hence Christ fulfilled the Law by obeying it perfectly, and by fulfilling the Prophets' prophecies of the Messiah.

2. “JOT and TITTLE” indicate much more than the 10 Commandments.

The smallest jot and tittle of the law and prophets refer to the entire OT law, including all the ceremonial laws. According to SDA logic, this verse proves that we must still keep the ceremonial jots and tittles.

Question: Would SDAs want us to keep all the ceremonial laws?

SDA reply: No, because they've all passed away.

You: So have the 10 Commandments been replaced by the law of Christ in the New Covenant.

3. Christ said, “I came to fulfil”; He did not say “I came to perpetuate.”

Questions for SDAs:

- i) Did Jesus come to fulfil the Law of Moses? (They will say “Yes”).
- ii) Was the Law of Moses abolished when Jesus fulfilled it? (They will say “Yes”).
- iii) Did Jesus fulfil the law and the prophets? (Yes).
- iv) Then doesn't this mean that the Mosaic laws have passed away because they have been fulfilled in Jesus Christ?

Note: Christ clearly did change the “Law and the Prophets.”

“For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.” (Hebrews 7:12). (See Galatians 3:23-24).

4. SDA Objection: It is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail. Luk16:17

Answer: None of the law of Moses did fail. Christ fulfilled it 100%.

5. Questions for SDAs:

- i) Why did Jesus come? (To fulfil the law and the prophets).
 - ii) Was Jesus successful in His mission to fulfil the law? (Yes).
 - iii) What happens when Jesus fulfils the law & the prophets? (Only then will the law be destroyed).
6. SDAs argue that “fulfil” (4137 in Strong's) does not mean “end” in Matthew 5:17,18, because “fulfil” does not mean “end” in Matthew 3:15 “thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness”. SDAs say “See! Righteousness did not end when Jesus was baptized.”

Answer: The verses are not parallel to each other. Compare them:

“One jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.” (Matthew 5:18).

Jesus did not say in Matthew 3:15 that: “all righteousness shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.” But He did say that the law would pass when it was fulfilled by using the phrase “TILL all be fulfilled.” The word “TILL” means that the law would pass when it was fulfilled, which occurred by Christ's death, burial, resurrection and ascension.

Note: The word “fulfil” in Matthew 5:18 is used in the same sense in Matthew 24:34.

“This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled.”

6) True Proposition	SDA Argument
The 10 Commandments are only for Israel.	The 10 Commandments are for all mankind forever

I. If the Sabbath law was a moral law intended for all mankind, then:

Question: Why did God NEVER charge the Gentiles with breaking it?

God often charges the Gentiles with breaking all of the 9 moral commandments (eg: Romans 1:29 covet, murder, false witness, haters of God, disobedient to parents), but never once charges them with breaking the Sabbath. Why? This proves the Sabbath law is just another ceremonial law given only to the Jews.

II. How could people living in the Arctic Circle keep the Sabbath from sunset to sunset, when these regions have six months of the year daylight and the next six months of darkness?

(See World Book Encyclopedia under 'Day.')

- III. The very words of the 10 Commandments show that they were meant ONLY for the Jews:
1. God didn't bring my ancestors out of Egyptian bondage. "I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage." Exodus 20:2.
 2. Since the Sabbath is a sign between God and Israel, non-Jews are not required to keep it.
 3. God has not given me the promised land of Canaan. "Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee." Exodus 20:12.

7) True Proposition	SDA Argument
We are now under a different law , the law of Christ.	If the 10 Commandments were abolished, we could murder, steal and commit adultery.

SDA Argument: "If a preacher tells you the law is done away, go to his church, break the 8th commandment and steal his offering. You'll quickly find out that the law is not done away."

Answers:

1. This favourite SDA argument is deceptive and false by implying that if we don't listen to Moses, then there are no other laws to guide us.

Illustration: A country may change its laws over time. Also, as you travel from one country to another, you find yourself living under different laws. For example:

Examples	Obsolete Law	Present Law
Australia	Colonial days living under British laws.	After Independence and Federation (1901) living under Australia's own laws.
USA	Confederation of 1781-87	Constitution of 1787 to today.
Canada	Constitution of 1867-1981	Constitution of 1981 to today.
Bible	Law of Moses/10 Commandments from Mount Sinai to the Cross.	Law of Christ/New Covenant from Cross to 2 nd Coming.

Just because the Mosaic Law is obsolete and abolished, does not mean that we are without law.

We now live under a new and better law, the Law of Christ contained in the New Covenant. (Gal. 6:2).

2. Also, all the moral laws in the 10 Commandments and the Old Covenant are brought over and expanded in the New Covenant Law of Christ.

	The Old Covenant. 10 Commandments. (Done away, nailed to the cross)	The New Covenant. The Law of Christ.
1	No other gods beside me.	Brought forward into New Covenant (I Thess. 1:9). "Ye turned to God from idols to serve the living & true God"
2	No graven images.	Brought forward into New Covenant (Galatians 5:20). "works of flesh . . . idolatory."
3	Don't take God's name in vain.	Brought forward into New Covenant (I Timothy 1:20). "That they may learn not to blaspheme."
4	Six days shall you work, but the 7 th day is the Sabbath.	Still nailed to the cross (Colossians 2:14-17). Never brought forward. No NT command to keep Sabbath.
5	Honour your father and mother.	Brought forward into New Covenant (Ephesians 6:1-3). "Honour thy father and mother."
6	Don't kill.	Brought forward into New Covenant. (Galatians 5:21). "Works of flesh . . . murders."
7	Don't commit adultery.	Brought forward into New Covenant. (Galatians 5:19). "works of flesh . . . adultery."
8	Don't steal.	Brought forward into New Covenant. (Ephesians 4:28). "Let him that stole steal no more, let him work to give ."
9	Don't bear false witness.	Brought forward into New Covenant. (Ephesian 4:25). "Putting away lying, speak every man the truth ."
10	Don't covet.	Brought forward into New Covenant. (Ephesians 5:5). "Nor covetous man who is an idolator."

8) True Proposition	SDA Argument
The Royal law is stated in James 2:8 “Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. ” (Leviticus 19:18).	The Royal law of James 2:8-12 is the 10 Commandments law.

⁸If ye fulfil the royal law according to the Scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

⁹But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convicted of the law as transgressors.

¹⁰For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

¹¹For he that said “Do not commit adultery”, said also “Do not kill”.

Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

¹²So speak ye, and do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.” (James 2:8-12).

Answer:

The Royal law is royal because it is considered the King of Laws, and because it is important among other laws, as a King is prominent among other men. This law should govern human affairs, as a king rules his subjects. We must regard all people as our neighbours and treat them fairly as we ourselves want to be treated. The commandments against adultery and killing were violations of our neighbour’s worth, which supported James’ rebuke of those showing favouritism due to rank, birth or wealth.

v.10: Guilty of the “whole law” means far more than just the 10 Commandments; it means all the law of God, all that God requires, including all NT laws not contained in the 10 Commandments (eg: not suing other Christians, homosexuality, etc). James is saying in v.10 “he is guilty of all”, that one act of disobedience, makes it impossible to be saved by the law. His acts of obedience in other areas will not offset or screen him from the penalty of violating one law.

The “law of liberty” is not the 10 Commandments because the 10 Commandments are called:

a) a “yoke of bondage” or slavery. (Galatians 5:1).

b) “yoke . . . which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear.” (Acts 15:10).

Only SDAs could call the 10 Commandments a “Law of Liberty”, where other NT verses describe them as “a schoolmaster”, a “prison” that shuts people up (Galatians 2:23,24), a yoke of slavery (Galatians 5:1) and an unbearable yoke. (Acts 15:10).

The law of liberty comes from the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus, which makes us free from the law of sin and death (Romans 8:2-4). This liberty comes as we “walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit” by yielding to the Holy Spirit daily. James states that he who habitually feels that he will be judged by a law where he can be and should be free from the bondage of sin, has one of the strongest inducements to lead a holy life. (v.12).

9) True Proposition	SDA Argument
a) Jesus did NOT say, ‘Keep the 10 Commandments.’ b) Jesus’ commandments are NOT Moses’ 10 Commandments.	Jesus said, “ Keep my Commandments. ” (SDAs read this as the 10 Commandments of Moses, especially keep the Saturday Sabbath).

Some verses that SDAs use to teach that we must keep the 10 Commandments are:

1. John 14:15 “If ye love me, keep my commandments.”

2. John 14:21 “He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me.”

3. I John 2:3 “And hereby do we know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.”

4. I John 5:2 “By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God& keep his commandments.”

5. II John 6 “And this is love, that we walk after his commandments.”

6. Rev 12:17“The dragon..went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God

7. Revelation 14:12 “here are they that keep the commandments of God . . .”

Answer:

1. Jesus did NOT say “Keep the 10 Commandments.”

a) He said, “Keep MY commandments”, which far exceed the 10 Commandments.

b) John said, “Keep his commandments”, which are explained in I John 3:23,24.

“This is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another as he gave us commandment.”

c) He said, “Keep the commandments,” which includes the NT commandments, not Moses’ commandments.

2. Jesus' Commandments are NOT Moses' 10 Commandments.

Question: What are Jesus' commandments?

- a) "If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love . . . This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you." (John 15:10-12).
- b) Jesus' commandments are Paul's writings: "If any man think himself to be a prophet or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord." (I Corinthians 14:37).
- c) Jesus' teachings in the Gospels: "Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you." (Matthew 28:20).
- d) The Apostles' commandments: "That ye may be mindful of . . . the commandments of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour." (2 Peter 3:2).

10) True Proposition	SDA Argument
The Sabbath law is never quoted in the NT . Colossians 2:14-16 says it is to be abolished after the cross.	The NT quotes several of the 10 Commandments proving that all 10 are binding today , including the Sabbath.

Key Answer:

The 10 Commandments are discussed in Hebrews 9:1-4 and in II Corinthians 3:2-11.

They are said to be part of the first covenant, which was abolished & replaced by the new covenant.

- a) II Corinthians 3:3,7,11 "Ye are the epistle of Christ . . . written . . . not in tables of stone, but in fleshly tables of the heart." (v.3). "But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious . . . which glory was to be done away," (v.7). "For if that which is done away is glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious."
- b) Hebrews 9:1-4 "Then verily the first covenant had . . . the tables of the covenant." Hebrews 10:9 "He taketh away the first (Mosaic Covenant including the 10 Commandments), that he may establish the second (New Covenant with the Law of Christ)."
- c) Hebrews 8:13 "In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old, is ready to vanish away." (by the destruction of the Temple in 70AD).

11) True Proposition	SDA Argument
The 10 Commandments do not contain the whole duty of man.	The 10 Commandments are God's perfect law. It contains all we need to know about moral living . Man needs nothing else to live perfectly.

Answer:

The 10 Commandments are not perfect and complete, because God has added many other laws not covered by them. The 10 Commandments do not mention the following:

- 1. It does not condemn: (a) drunkenness; (b) pornography; (c) pride; (d) pre-marital sex; (e) homosexuality; (f); obscene language and (g) Christians suing Christians.
- 2. It does not command: (a) forgiveness; (b) repentance; (c) baptism; (d) Lord's Supper; (e) helping the poor; f) thoughts.
- 3. It does not tell us how to enter heaven.
- 4. It does not tell us how to be forgiven of our sins.
- 5. It does not discuss the four important commands of the Apostles in Acts 15:28-29: "For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things; that ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication . . ."

Question: Will you believe Jesus Christ or SDAs on Matthew 22:36-40?

Jesus: "On these two commandments (love God and love your neighbour) hang all the law (10 commandments included) and the prophets." (Matthew 22:36-40).

12) True Proposition	SDA Argument
God's nature does not change, but His Laws and human requirements in different time periods have changed a lot.	God does not change, therefore neither does His Law.

This SDA argument was one of Ellen White's original arguments. White said, "I saw that God had not changed the Sabbath, for he never changes." (Early Writings of EGW, p.3).

Answer: Since God gave the law of animal sacrifices and then abolished it, does this prove that God changes? No. God's laws given to man have changed a lot.

There are three basic periods of earth's history:

(1) Adam to Moses; (2) Moses to Christ; (3) Christ to the 2nd Coming.

God's nature does not change just because His laws have changed in different times of history.

13) True Proposition	SDA Argument
This proves nothing because many other things that God said were holy, have been abolished.	The Sabbath must be kept today because God blessed it, hallowed it and made it holy.

Answer:

1. Other holy days in the Old Covenant have been done away, so has the Sabbath. Some are:
 - a) Passover: "Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread; in the first day there shall be an holy convocation." (Exodus 12:13-16).
 - b) Feast of Trumpets: "In the seventh month, in the first day of the month, shall ye have a Sabbath, a memorial of blowing of trumpets, an holy convocation. Ye shall do no servile work therein." (Lev 23:24,25; Neh 8:1,2,9,11). This says the 1st day of the 7th month is holy.
 - c) Feast of Tabernacles: "The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be a feast of Tabernacles for seven days unto the Lord.³⁴
On the first day shall be an holy convocation... On the eighth day shall be an holy convocation unto you." (Leviticus 23:34,36). The 15th and 22nd were holydays of 7th month.
 - d) Unleavened Bread Feast: "Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread¹⁵ . . . And in the first day there shall be an holy convocation, and in the seventh day there shall be an holy convocation to you¹⁶ . . ." (Exodus 12:15,16,18).
The 14th and 21st days of the 1st month were holy.
 - e) Day of Atonement: "Also on the tenth day of this seventh month there shall be a day of atonement: it shall be an holy convocation unto you²⁷ . . .
It shall be unto you a Sabbath of rest . . ." (Leviticus 23:27,32).
 - f) Weekly Sabbath day: "Wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day & hallowed it." Exo 20:11
2. Some things were more holy than the weekly Sabbath. Each of these have been abolished.
 - i) The most holy place in the tabernacle: "the veil shall divide unto you between the holy place and the most holy." (Exodus 26:33).
 - ii) The most holy altar: "it shall be an altar most holy." (Exodus 29:37).
 - iii) The most holy atonement: "an atonement...it is most holy unto the Lord." (Exodus 30:10).
 - iv) The tabernacle furniture: "the table, the candlestick, . . . the altar of incense, . the altar of burnt offerings, . . . the laver. . . thou shalt thou sanctify them, that they may be most holy." Exod 30:26-39
 - v) The tabernacle perfume: "Take unto thee sweet spices, stacte, onycha, galbanum; with pure frankincense. . . thou shalt make it a perfume. . . it shall be unto you most holy." Exodus 30:34,36
 - vi) The remnant of the meat offering . . . it is a thing most holy of the offerings of the Lord. Lev2:3
 - vii) The most holy house (Solomon's temple): "he made the most holy house." II Chronicles 3:8.
3. If the Sabbath day must be kept because God blessed it, hallowed it, and made it holy, then we must keep these things also because the same is said of them:
 - i) Hallowed tabernacle and holy vessels: (Exodus 40:9).
 - ii) Holy water mixed with floor dust to be drunk by a woman accused of adultery. Number 5:17.
 - iii) Solomon's hallowed temple: "I have hallowed this house." (I Kings 9:3).
"thy holy temple." (Psalm 65:4).
 - iv) Aaronic high priestly order: "shall be hallowed" by sprinkling blood on the garments of Aaron and his sons (Exodus 29:21).
 - v) Holy Levites: "The Levites that taught all Israel, which were holy unto the Lord." 2Chron35:3

- vi) Holy Ark of the Covenant: “put the holy ark in the house. . .” (II Chronicles 35:3).
- vii) Israel’s firstborn hallowed: “I hallowed unto me all the firstborn in Israel both man and beast.” (Numbers 3:13).
- viii) Aaron’s holy garments: “thou shalt make holy garments for Aaron.” (Exodus 28:2).
- ix) High priest’s holy crown: “put the holy crown upon the mitre.” (Exodus 29:6).
- x) Holy flesh of the ram: “the ram of consecration.. they are holy.” (Exodus 29:31-33)
- xi) Holy anointment to make holy oil: “make it an oil of holy anointment . . . it shall be a holy anointing oil.” (Exodus 30:25).
- xii) Holy fruit: “in the fourth year all the fruit thereof shall be holy.” (Leviticus 19:24).

The first time something is mentioned, it is introduced with the indefinite article “a” or “an”, but never introduced with the definite article “the”. This shows that the Sabbath was first introduced in Exodus 16:23, and that nobody before this time kept it.

	First Time Instituted	After it was Instituted
1	Today is a Sabbath. (Exodus 16:25).	The Lord hath given you the Sabbath. (Exodus 16:29).
2	Noah builded an altar. (Genesis 8:20).	Offered burnt offerings on the altar. (Genesis 8:20).
3	This day (passover) shall be unto you for a memorial. (Exodus 12:14).	Kill the passover (Exodus 12:21). “It is the sacrifice of the Lord’s passover.” (Exodus 12:27).
4	Feast of Unleavened bread : “ye shall keep it a feast by an ordinance forever. Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread.” (Exodus 12:14,15).	“Ye shall observe the feast of unleavened bread.” (Exodus 12:17).
5	Day of Atonement : “On the tenth day of this seventh month there shall be a day of atonement”. Leviticus 23:27	‘in the day of atonement shall ye make the trumpet sound.’ (Leviticus 25:9).
6	Feast of Pentecost : “ye shall number 50 days; and ye shall offer a new meat offering unto the Lord.’ Lev23:16	“When the day of Pentecost was fully come.” (Acts 2:1).
7	New Covenant : “Behold the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and Judah .. .” (Hebrews 8:8).	“For this cause he is the mediator of the new testament...” (Hebrews 9:15).
Note: The definite article “the” is never used the first time something is introduced, because “the” is only used after people know about it. The indefinite article “a” is used both before and after something has been instituted.

4. The same arguments used for continuance of the Sabbath can be made for the ceased Passover Feast

	Sabbath and Passover	Passover Reference	True of Sabbath
i)	Both spoken by the Lord.	Exodus 12:1,3.	Yes
ii)	Both “it is the Lords . . .”	Exodus 12:11. “It is the Lord’s Passover”	Yes. (Ex 20:10) “Seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God.”
iii)	Both “a memorial.”	Exodus 12:14	Yes
iv)	Both to be kept forever.	Exodus 12:14	Yes
v)	Death penalty or cut off for violating both.	Exodus 12:12-15	Yes
vi)	Both a “Holy day.”	Exodus 12:16	Yes
vii)	Both “rest days.”	Exodus 12:16	Yes (Exodus 20:10).
viii)	Both connected with deliverance from Egypt.	Exodus 12:17	Yes. (Exodus 20:2).
ix)	Strangers must keep both.	Exodus 12:19	Yes (Exodus 20:10).

14) True Proposition	SDA Argument
The Lord's Day is Sunday . (Revelation 1:10).	SDAs claim the " Lord's Day " is the Sabbath , because Jesus said He was Lord of the Sabbath.

Answer: The Lord's Day is Sunday because:

- i) Jesus rose on Sunday (John 20:1).
- ii) The Holy Spirit came on Pentecost (Acts 2:1) which always falls on a Sunday.
- iii) Christians practiced the Lord's Supper on Sunday (Acts 20:7).
- iv) Early Christians from 30-300AD referred to Sunday as the Lord's Day.
 "I was in the Spirit on the Lord's Day . . ." (Revelation 1:10). "The Lords Day" means a day pertaining to the Lord because we commemorate important events concerning Him.
 If the Jewish Sabbath were intended, then the word "Sabbath" would have been used.
Chrysostom said, "It was called the Lord's Day because the Lord rose from the dead on that day."
Theodoret speaking of the Ebionites says, "They keep the Sabbath according to the Jewish law, and sanctify the Lord's Day in like manner as we do."
- v) Since Revelation was written by John, the observance of Sunday as a day of worship for Christians had Apostolic sanction. John, in accordance with a prevailing custom, had set apart this day in honour of the Lord Jesus.

15) True Proposition	SDA Argument
SDAs completely miss the context of when this happens, to whom this happens and the place . This refers to Jews living in Jerusalem in the middle of the future 7 year Tribulation when the Antichrist begins to persecute them.	Jesus foresaw the Sabbath being kept by Christians in the 20 th Century. "But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the Sabbath day." (Matthew 24:20)

The reason Jesus gave to Jews to pray that Jerusalem would not be destroyed beginning on a Sabbath day, is because the city gates would be closed on the Sabbath day (Nehemiah 13:15-22) and this would hinder them obeying Jesus' instruction to leave the city.

16) True Proposition	SDA Argument
The laws of keeping it must not oppose man's real welfare .	"The Sabbath was made for man , and not man for the Sabbath." (Mark 2:27). Therefore all mankind must keep it.

Answer:

The idea of this passage is not that all mankind must keep the Sabbath. Instead it means that because the Sabbath was created as a day of rest and worship for man's good, then the laws of keeping it must not be interpreted or applied to oppose man's real welfare, as the Pharisees did by attempting to stop Jesus' disciples satisfying their hunger. Man was made first, and then the Sabbath was appointed for his welfare. The Sabbath was not first made, and then the man.

	True Proposition	SDA Argument
1	In the beginning the Word made all things .	In the beginning the Word made all things . John 1:1-3; Colossians 1:16.
2	God did ALL His work in six days. (Genesis 2:1-3; Exodus 20:11).	The Sabbath Day was made for man. (Mark 2:27).
3	The Sabbath day was not made till AFTER God rested on the seventh day. Therefore the Sabbath day is not part of "all things" of the original creation .	Therefore the Sabbath day was made in the beginning . Therefore Adam had to keep it.
4	The Sabbath did NOT exist in the Garden of Eden until AFTER God rested on the 7 th day.
Note: The issue is not when God rested, but when He first commanded man to keep the Sabbath.

17) True Proposition	SDA Argument
If the Sabbath is eternal, then so too are all the other Jewish holidays	The Sabbath is eternal and endures forever , therefore we must keep it today.

1. If the Sabbath is eternal, enduring forever, then so too are all the other Jewish holy days.

Question: Do we keep the following commandments today?

Answer: No. They are only given to Israel.

i) Sabbath Day: “Therefore the children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual covenant.”

It is a sign between me and the children of Israel forever . . .” (Exodus 31:16,17).

ii) Feast of Unleavened Bread: “So shall you observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread. Therefore you shall observe this day throughout your generations as an everlasting ordinance.” Exodus 12:17.

iii) Day of Atonement: “You shall do no work on that same day, for it is the Day of Atonement . .

Any person who does any work on that same day, that person will I destroy from among his people . . . it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations . . .” (Leviticus 23:28-31).

iv) Feast of Tabernacles: “Speak unto the children of Israel saying, the 15th day of the 7th month shall be the feast of Tabernacles ... (v.34).

It shall be a statute forever in your generations.” (v.41). (Leviticus 23:34,41).

v) Feast of Passover: “This day shall be unto you for a memorial . . . ye shall keep it a feast by an ordinance for ever.” (Exodus 12:14).

2. If the Sabbath is eternal and must be kept today, then so must the death penalty for working on the Sabbath. No SDAs enforce or think this valid today. Do SDAs kill Sabbath workers? No.

“Whosoever doeth any work in the Sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death.” (Exodus 31:15).

18) True Proposition	SDA Argument
The present heavens and earth will be completely destroyed and replaced by a new heavens and earth . Therefore the Sabbath will pass if it is a memorial to the first heavens and earth which will pass away.	SDAs claim that since the Sabbath was a memorial to a six day creation , then this proves that the Sabbath will endure forever .

i) “I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.”(Revelation 21:21).

ii) “the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.” (II Peter 3:10).

Note: SDAs love to quote Matthew 5:17-18 to teach that the Sabbath is binding as long as heaven and earth remain. “Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.” From this, SDAs must admit that Sabbath keeping is not forever, because according to their claim, the law and Sabbath keeping will be abolished when the heaven and earth pass away at the end of the 1000 year rule of Christ on earth.

19) True Proposition	SDA Argument
If the Feast of Tabernacles will be kept in the Millennium, then should we keep this feast now? (Zechariah 14:16-19).(No). Then why don't SDAs keep the Feast of Tabernacles now? Because it is not relevant to the Church Age. Neither is Sabbath keeping.	SDAs use Isaiah 66:23 to prove that if the Sabbath will be kept in the Millennium, then we should keep it now.

“It shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another and from one Sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the Lord.” (Isaiah 66:23).

Question: Should we keep new moon feasts now? No! Should we keep the Feast of Tabernacles now? No! Then neither should we keep the Sabbath now either.

20) True Proposition	SDA Argument
How can the Sabbath commandment be more important than what Jesus called the first and great commandment? “Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. On these two commandments hang ALL the LAW (including Sabbath) and the prophets.” (Matthew 22:37,38,40).	The Sabbath is God’s special law above all laws.

- 1) SDAs get this idea from Ellen White, their false prophet who said, contrary to Scripture and Jesus Christ that: “I beheld the Tables of stone on which the 10 Commandments were written. I was amazed as I saw the fourth commandment in the very centre of the 10 precepts with a soft halo of light encircling it. Said the angel, “It is the only one of the 10 which defines the living God who created the heavens and the earth & all things that are therein.” (Life Sketches of Ellen G White,95,96)
- 2) Question 1: Do SDAs really believe that God would make any law more important than the very first commandment to “have no other Gods before me” and “to love God”?
Question 2: Do SDAs really believe that God would make the 4th Commandment glow brighter than the first Commandment?

Question 3: Do you think God would contradict Paul rebuking Sabbath keepers in Galatians 4:10,11 “Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years. I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.” (Galatians 4:10,11).

Paul calls people like Ellen White a false prophet in Colossians 2:18: “Let no man beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he (or she) hath NOT seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind.”

Paul said that White never really saw a vision from God, but that she was lying through pride.

Question 4: Where is the Sabbath elevated above other feast days in Leviticus 23:1-7?

- a) Weekly Sabbath: “Seventh day is . . . a holy convocation.”
- b) Passover: “holy convocation . . . is the Lord’s Passover.”
- c) Feast of Unleavened Bread: “the feast of unleavened bread is . . . a holy convocation.”

21) True Proposition	SDA Argument
The Sabbath is a sign between God & ISRAEL only.	The Sabbath is a sign between God & Christians.

- 1) Sabbath is a sign between God and Israel ONLY because God said:
 - a) “Speak unto the children of Israel, saying: Verily my Sabbaths ye shall keep: for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations.” (Exodus 31:13).
 - b) Sabbath...”it is a sign between me and the children of Israel for ever.” (Exodus 31:16).
 - c) “I gave them my Sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them. . . .” (Ezekiel 20:12).
- 2) Questions: a) Why did God never command any Gentiles to keep the Sabbath in the OT or NT?
 - a) Why do SDAs NOT keep the sign of CIRCUMCISION? (Genesis 17:11).
 (SDA answer: “because it was a sign only to Abraham and the Jews, and not to Christians.”)
 - b) Why do SDAs NOT keep the sign of PASSOVER BLOOD? (Exodus 12:13).
 (SDA answer: “because it was a sign only for Jews in Egypt and not for Christians.”)
 - c) Why should Christians NOT keep the sign of the SABBATH? (Our answer to SDAs: “because it was a sign ONLY for Jews and not for NT Christians in the Church Age.)

Hence, each of circumcision, Passover Blood and Sabbath are signs only between God and the Jews.
- 3) Keeping the Saturday Sabbath was the sign of the Mosaic Covenant between God and Jews only. (Exodus 31:13,14,16,17).
 - a) “Speak thou also unto the children of Israel, saying, Verily my Sabbaths ye shall keep; for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations.” (Exodus 31:13).
 - b) “Wherefore the children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual covenant.” (Exodus 31:16).
 - c) “Moreover also I gave them my Sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them.” (Ezekiel 20:12)

d) “It is a sign between ME and the children of Israel forever: for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed.” (Exodus 31:17).

Also God reiterates this command in Ezekiel 20:12,20.

Notice that God says on five occasions that Sabbath keeping is a sign between God and Israel, and that the Sabbath is to be kept throughout their generations, forever.”

“Who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth . . . the giving of the law.” (Romans 9:4).

22) True Proposition	SDA Argument
See p. 761. The Hebrews 4:9 rest is heaven .	Hebrews 4:9 proves we must keep the weekly Jewish Sabbath: “There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.”

23) True Proposition	SDA Argument
If that is true, then SDAs had better start keeping other Jewish days and rituals mentioned after the cross.	The Sabbath is not nailed to the cross because the Holy Spirit still refers to the Sabbath day after the death of Christ when the New Covenant had replaced the Old Covenant.

Examples of Jewish days kept after the cross are:

- 1) The Day of Pentecost (Acts 2:1).
- 2) The Days of Unleavened Bread (Acts 12:3; 20:6).
- 3) The Days of Purification (Acts 21:26).
- 4) Animal Sacrifices (Acts 21:26).
- 5) Circumcision (Acts 16:3).

24) True Proposition	SDA Argument
Paul says Sabbath is a shadow : “the Sabbath days; which are a shadow of things to come.” (Colossians 2:16,17)	SDAs say the Sabbath was not a shadow because: “The Sabbath was given before the fall of Adam, and cannot be a shadow because all types and shadows were given after the fall.”

There were types before the Fall. See two examples when Adam married Eve:

- 1) Eve was a type of the church;
- 2) Their marriage was a type of the marriage of the Lamb between Christ and the church.

25) True Proposition	SDA Argument
This expression “that they might know that I am the Lord that sanctify them,” is NOT found in the NT, nor is there any NT commandment for Christian believers after Pentecost to keep the Sabbath.	The Sabbath is the way we know God sanctifies us . See Exodus 31:13; Ezekiel 20:12,20: “I gave them my Sabbaths to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the Lord that sanctify them .” (Ezekiel 20:12).

26) True Proposition	SDA Argument
Jesus kept the Passover, every other Jewish Feast day, animal sacrifices, and all the ceremonial laws of Moses. Why don't SDAs keep these as well?	Christ our Example kept the Sabbath.

- 1) SDAs break Jesus' example of keeping the Passover and every other Jewish Feast day. “I will keep the Passover at thy house with my disciples.” (Matthew 26:18).
- 2) SDAs break Jesus' command to keep all the Ceremonial Laws of Moses: “The scribes&Pharisees sit in Moses' seat; All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do,” Matt.23:2,3
- 3) SDAs break Jesus' command to offer animal sacrifices: “Go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded.” (Luke 5:14).

Question to SDAs: Why don't you follow Jesus' commands to:

- i) Keep the Passover, ii) Keep all Moses Ceremonial Laws, iii) Offer animal sacrifices?

Answer: Because Jesus lived under the Old Covenant and Jewish law. “God sent forth His Son, made of a woman, made under the law.” (Galatians 4:4).

Conclusion: This is the reason Christians don't need to keep the Sabbath day, because “after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster (the law).” (Galatians 3:24,25).

27) True Proposition	SDA Argument
They kept this Sabbath day, because they didn't yet understand that ALL of the Law of Moses would be abolished.	The disciples kept the Sabbath, one day after Christ's death: "They returned, and . . . rested the Sabbath day according to the commandment." (Luke 23:56). Sunday keepers say that the Sabbath was abolished when it was nailed to the cross. Here we see the disciples keeping the Sabbath "according to the commandment" after Christ died on the cross.

- 1) We agree that the disciples kept the Sabbath Law according to the 4th Commandment (out of habit), but this proves nothing, because:
 - a) They didn't understand that all the Mosaic Law was abolished from when Christ died.
 - b) They didn't understand Christ's death. (Matthew 16:21,22).
 - c) They didn't understand Christ's crucifixion. (Luke 18:31-34).
 - d) They didn't understand that Christ would rise from the dead. (John 20:9).
 - e) They didn't understand Christ's Second Coming. (John 13:36-37).
 - f) They didn't understand that Christ was going to heaven. (John 14:2-5).
- 2) This is the only time after the cross, that the disciples ever kept the Sabbath day.
Question: Why is there no other clear place in the New Testament where Christians are said to "keep the Sabbath according to the commandment"?
Note: This was the very last Sabbath day that NT Christians ever kept, because the next Sunday, Jesus rose from the dead. Christians now had a basis for meeting on Sunday, namely to celebrate Christ's resurrection from the dead.
- 3) The disciples met together on three Sundays after the resurrection:
 - a) The Sunday of Jesus' resurrection (John 20:19),
 - b) Eight days later, on the Sunday AFTER Jesus' resurrection (John 20:26),
 - c) On Pentecost Sunday, they all met in one place before the Holy Spirit came. (Acts 2:1).

28) True Proposition	SDA Argument
a) Paul preached to unsaved Jews in their synagogues on the Sabbath day, that they needed to be saved. b) Question: Do SDA pastors " keep Sunday " if they preach in a Sunday keeping church on Sunday? (No). Then neither did Paul keep the Sabbath in these verses. c) Question: Does a SDA pastor " keep Monday " if he preaches to Muslims in their mosque on Monday, that they are lost without Christ? (No). d) No NT passage ever speaks of Christians worshipping on the Sabbath day. e) Just because Peter preached on the day of Pentecost , does this mean that all Christians must keep the day of Pentecost? (No). Conclusion: Pentecost and Sabbath days just provided an opportunity to preach to an interested audience.	Paul's preaching on the Sabbath , after the cross, proves we must keep the Sabbath today. (Acts 13:14; 16:12; 17:2; 18:4,11) "And he reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath ." (Acts 18:4).

29) True Proposition	SDA Argument
Ridiculous! If so, then Saturday keeping is worshipping the Roman god Saturn – "SATURN'S day."	Sunday keeping is worshipping the sun – "SUN day"

30) True Proposition	SDA Argument
Just because a Jew kept the Mosaic Law, does not prove that we must keep it, because: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) The law included circumcision (Acts 21:20-24). 2) The Apostles never commanded Christians to keep the law: "have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment." (Acts 15:24). 	Ananias, a Christian, kept the 10 Commandments: "Ananias, a devout man according to the Law , having a good report of all the Jews which dwelt there." (Acts 22:12). So should we keep Sabbath Law today.

31) True Proposition	SDA Argument
1) History and the Bible are 100% against SDAs . 2) There is enormous historical evidence that before Constantine, Christians always met on Sunday, and never met on the Saturday Sabbath. 3) There is no historical evidence that early Christians: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Kept the Sabbath; • Protested a change from Saturday to Sunday worship; • Practised the Lord’s Supper on the Sabbath. 	History shows that the very earliest Christians kept the Sabbath. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Up to 135AD there was no discussion of the Sabbath question. • History shows that Christians began keeping the Sabbath, and gradually started meeting on Sundays about the time of Constantine (320AD).

Challenge: We challenge any SDA to give one quote that any Christians kept the Jewish Sabbath before 320AD. Ten early Christian writers all state clearly that the universal practice of Christians was to meet for worship on Sundays, not on Sabbath days.

	HISTORICAL RECORDS	SDA LIES
1	33-140AD: Universal Sunday meetings “no longer observing the Sabbath, but living in the observance of the Lord’s Day.” (Ignatius, Epistle to the Magnesians , Ante-Nicene Fathers , Vol 1, p 62-63).	Universal Sabbath keeping . No one worshipped on Sunday “for 100 years after Christ, there is no discussion of the Sabbath question.” (Revelation Seminar , Schreven, 1994, Now That’s Clear).
	See page 752-753 , for 15 early church writers from 74-350AD who say the opposite to SDAs.	“Christians kept the Sabbath Commandment up to 135AD.”
	False	“As late as 430AD, historians testify that almost all Christian churches in the world were still keeping the Sabbath .”
2	140-300AD: Universal Sunday meetings .	Gradual shift towards Sunday, but still kept the Sabbath.
3	300-2000AD: Universal Sunday meetings .	Universal Sunday meetings .
4	Conclusion: Christians always kept Sunday. Sunday is not a Christian Sabbath or day of rest, or holy day to be kept. It is a day of Christian worship. When Christians today wrongly apply the 4 th Sabbath Commandment as the reason why they worship on Sunday, they are: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a) mistaken; and b) opening themselves to manipulation by SDAs. 	Christians originally kept the Sabbath, but due to the devil’s influence, Christians went into universal apostasy for 1600 years, until Ellen White, the SDA “prophet” arrived. She thought, contrary to Colossians 2:14, that the Sabbath Law was not nailed to the cross. Only in the 19 th Century did God, through the SDA church, restore, by direct revelation, the truth that the day of Christian worship was Saturday.

32) True Proposition	SDA Argument
There is no documented evidence that Mithraism had a formal Sunday worship service. How could Sunday worship be copied if Mithraism never had Sunday worship?	Christians copied Sunday keeping off the pagan religion of Mithraism.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • “Sun worship” and “worshipping on Sunday” are two very different ideas that SDAs like to mix together to confuse the whole subject. • “The association between the Christian Sunday and the pagan veneration of the sun is not explicit before the time of Eusebius (260-340AD).” (From Sabbath to Sunday, p 261, Samuele Bacchiocchi, SDA historian). 	“Another influence in the early Christian Church was Mithraism, an ancient cult of the sun. This cult came to Rome in the 1 st Century AD and became popular in the 2 nd and 3 rd centuries. The central feature of this cult was the worship of the sun on the first day of the week.” Historians have written concerning the influence of Mithraism on Christianity.” (Now That’s Clear , Leo Schreven, 1994, p 101).

33) True Proposition	SDA Argument
Many early church writers before 340AD all say that Christians met on Sundays from the Apostles	The Pope changed the Sabbath from Saturday to Sunday.
1) If SDAs have any actual historical proof that the Pope changed the Sabbath to Sunday, let them supply it to us and to the world. 2) Just because Catholics claim they changed the Sabbath to Sunday, doesn't prove they did. Question: Do SDAs believe everything that the Roman Catholic Church says? No. 3) SDAs believe the Pope changed the Sabbath because their "inspired prophet" Ellen White said so: "The Pope had changed it from the seventh day to the first day of the week; for he was to change times and laws." (Early Writings of EGW, p.33). On p 65 she said, "The pope has changed the day of rest from the seventh day to the first day." Note: SDAs in the 1990s are refuting what their founding "prophet" White was "told by God in a vision", by claiming that Christians in Rome changed the Sabbath around 135AD not the Pope. Conclusion: This proves once and for all that Ellen White was a false prophet. a) Samuele Bacchiocchi, the Seventh-day Adventist's top scholar wrote in an e-mail message to the Free Catholic Mailing List CATHOLIC@AMERICAN.EDU on 8 Feb 1997 and said: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> I differ from Ellen White, for example, on the origin of Sunday. She teaches that in the first centuries all Christians observed the Sabbath and it was largely through the efforts of Constantine that Sunday keeping was adopted by many Christians in the fourth century. My research shows otherwise. If you read my essay How Did Sunday keeping begin? which summarises my dissertation, you will notice that I place the origin of Sunday keeping by the time of the Emperor Hadrian, in AD135. This proves once and for all time that Ellen G White was a false prophet! b) Note how SDAs have corrected White's vision: "Sunday keeping had its origin in Rome during the reign of the Emperor Hadrian (117-138AD). Hadrian persecuted the Jews in Rome incessantly. In an attempt to separate themselves from the Jews and avoid being persecuted with them, those early Roman Christians began keeping Sunday in addition to the Sabbath." (Now That's Clear, Schreven, p 97, 1994, Revelation Seminar).

34) True Proposition	SDA Argument
Constantine just made a civil decree that because Christians were already meeting on Sunday (since 33AD), that Christians should not work on Sunday.	SDAs claim that Constantine changed the Sabbath to Sunday.

Question: Have SDAs carefully read Constantine's Decree?

"On the venerable day of the sun, let the magistrates and people residing in cities rest, and let all workshops be closed." (Constantine, 7 March 321, Codex Justinianus lib3, tit.12,3; translated in Philip Schaff, History of the Christian Church, Vol 3, p 380, note 1).

- SDAs contradict themselves. Who changed the Sabbath? Was it the Pope, Constantine in 321, or some Christians in Rome in 135AD?
- Constantine is just decreeing that, because Christians were already meeting on Sunday ever since the apostles, that Christians should not work on Sunday. (Hebrews 10:24,25.)
- It is not a sin to work on any day of the week. It is a sin to forsake the assembling of the church.

35) True Proposition	SDA Argument
i) Any Greek dictionary will tell you that "MIA TON SABBATON" means: mia = first; ton = of the; sabbaton (plural) = weeks. ii) If "MIA TON SABBATON" in Acts 20:7 & I Cor. 16:1,2 mean the 7th day (Sabbath day), then it creates a contradiction with Mark 16:1,2.	The "first day of the week" in Acts 20:7 and I Corinthians 16:1,2 are a mistranslation. The Greek says 'MIA TON SABBATON' or 'sabbath day'. So Christians were told to take a collection (I Corinthians 16:1,2) and partake of the Lords Supper (Acts 20:7) on the Sabbath day, not Sunday.

“And when the Sabbath (Greek: Sabbatou = singular, the normal expression for the Sabbath day) was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the Mother of James, and Salome, had brought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him. (v.1).

And very early in the morning of the first day of the week (Greek: Mia ton Sabbaton) they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.” (v. 2).

Key: “Mia ton sabbaton” (v.2) must be different from “Sabbatou” (v 1) meaning “the Sabbath”. You can’t have one Sabbath being over (v.1) being followed by another Sabbath the next day.

iii) “MIA TON SABBATON” is the common Bible expression for Sunday.

iv) When SDAs deny that these texts should read “first day of the week”, it shows that --they know these passages teach first day observance if it is translated “first day, and --they know that Sabbath keeping is refuted if Acts 20:7 proves to be Sunday observance rather than Saturday observance.

36) True Proposition	SDA Argument
Luke, the writer of Acts, uses Roman time, being from midnight to midnight, not Jewish time (sunset to sunset). This can be stated dogmatically because “daylight” (v.11) was the next day (v.7). i) Roman day was from 6 am to 6 pm. ii) Roman night was from 6 pm to 6 am.	SDAs teach that the evening meeting in Acts 20:7 was on a Sabbath day because the Sabbath day lasts from sunset Friday to Sunset Saturday (Jewish time).

Luke uses Roman time, not Jewish time in these 10 cases:

1. Acts 2:15 “These are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the 3rd hour (9 am) of the day”
2. Acts 3:1 Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the 9th hour (3pm)
3. Acts 10:3 “He saw in a vision evidently about the 9th hour of the day (3 pm) . . .”
4. Acts 10:9 “Peter went up upon the housetop to pray about the 6th hour (12 noon) & he became very hungry”
5. Acts 23:23 “Make ready 200 soldiers to go to Caesarea, and 70 horsemen, and 200 spearmen, at the 3rd hour of the night (9 pm).”
6. Luke 23:44 It was about the 6th hour (12 noon), there was a darkness over all the earth until the 9th hour (3pm)
7. Acts 12:18 “As soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter.”
8. Acts 16:35 “And when it was day, the magistrates sent the serjeants, saying, Let those men go.”
9. Acts 20:11 “and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.”
10. Acts 23:12 “And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together . . .”

Conclusion: Hence Acts 20:7 “And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them . . . and continued his speech until midnight”, means that the Thessalonian church met on the first day of the week.

Luke’s method of counting days was NOT Jewish, which measures from sundown to sundown, but Roman, which counted from midnight to midnight. This can be stated dogmatically because “break of day” (v.11) was the next day (v.7).

SDA Objection: This was not a true church meeting for worship.

Answer: It was a true church worship meeting because the Greek word “came together” (v.7) (sunegmenon-4863) means “to gather together, a formal meeting of the disciples”, and is used in this context in Acts 4:31; 11:26; 14:27; 15:6,30; I Cor. 5:4; Hebrews 10:25.

“Break bread” (Greek: “tou klasai arton”) in the Syriac version is to “break the Eucharist”. It was in all likelihood the Agape feast followed by the Lord’s Supper (I Cor.10:16; 11:20,21).

QUESTIONS TO ASK SDAs

Question 1:

- a) Do you believe that Ellen White was a true prophet of God? (p.748). [(Deuteron. 18:20-22) (p.749)
- b) Do you believe that the Bible's test of a false prophet is if their "prophecies" do not come to pass?
- c) Doesn't White's 5 false prophecies below make her a false prophet? (p.749).
- Some living in 1856 would see Christ return.
 - England would declare war on the USA about the time of the Civil War.
 - Old Jerusalem would never be built up.
 - The time for salvation of sinners passed in July 1844.
 - World would end in 1851.

Question 2:

- a) Should a true prophet of God speak in agreement with the Bible? (p.750).
- b) Don't these unbiblical statements of White prove her to be a false prophet? (p.750).
- Was the Tower of Babel built before the Flood? (1) (No).
 - Where does the Bible say that the Seal of God is the Sabbath? (3).
 - Did the same Herod put Jesus on trial and kill James? (4).
 - Will Satan bear our sins, or did Jesus bear our sins? (5). (Isaiah 53:6).
 - Did Christ finish our atoning work on the cross or is He still performing our atoning work in heaven?

Question 3:

- Show me the Investigative Judgment in the Bible? (p.750).
- Have believers' sins been blotted out by Christ or not? (8).
 - Did White know the day and hour of Christ's coming? (9). (p.751).
 - Did God hold a council to decide what should be done with Adam and Eve after the fall? (10).
 - Where does the Bible teach that Adam and Eve kept the Sabbath? (11).
 - Where does the Bible state that angels have a gold card? (12).

Question 4:

- a) Did Deity sink under the agonies of Calvary? (p.751). b) Is there consciousness after death or not?

Question 5:

- a) Show me one NT Scripture that quotes the 4th Commandment? (p.751).
- b) Show me one NT Scripture that tells Christians to keep the Sabbath day holy?
- c) Show me one NT Scripture teaching that Sunday keeping is following an image of the Beast as Leo Schreven and White say? (p.752).

Question 6:

- a) Do you have gas heating? Do you cook on the Sabbath? (Exodus 35:3). (p.752).
- b) Do you stay in one place on the Sabbath or do you travel?
- c) Do you buy any goods on the Sabbath?
- d) Do you stone to death other SDA's who break the Sabbath?
- e) Did God ever relax any of the 8 Sabbath day restrictions on p.752?

Question 7:

On which day did early Christians worship according to the following 14 authorities (p.752): Barnabus (74 AD), Ignatius (107 AD), Didache (90 AD), Justin (150 AD), Clement (190 AD), Bardaisan (154 AD), Tertullian (200 AD), Origen (220 AD), Cyprian (250 AD), The Didascalia (225 AD), Victorinus (300 AD), Eusebius (300 AD), Athanasius (345 AD) and Cyril (350 AD)?

Question 8:

How do you know that White had a true vision from God of the heavenly sanctuary? (p.754). Was it foolish to believe this when you couldn't prove it? (I Thessalonians 5:21).

Question 9:

Did you know Ellen White to be a prophet at your baptism? (Clause 17). (p.754). Had you read all her writings at that time? (No). Then how did you know she was a true prophet? Was it because you believed what some SDA told you? Could he have been lying or misinformed?

Question 10:

Did a Pope change the Sabbath (White), or was it changed in Hadrian's time (135AD)(Bacchiochi)? 754,784

Question 11:

- a) Has the Mosaic Covenant been taken away? (Yes). (p.754-755).
- b) Does the Mosaic Covenant include the 10 Commandments? (SDAs say “no”, we say “YES”).
- c) How do you explain the following Scriptures which clearly state that the Mosaic Covenant DOES contain the 10 Commandments?

Hebrews 9:1,4 “the first covenant had..... the tables of the covenant”; Ephesians 2:15

Exodus 34:28 “he wrote upon the tables the words of the covenant, the ten commandments.”

Deuteronomy 4:13 “He declared unto you his covenant, even ten commandments,...upon tables of stone.

II Corinthians 3:7-11 “if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious... that which was done away (Mosaic Covenant, including the 10 Commandments) was glorious...”

Question 12:

If the Sabbath was so well known to Moses and the Israelites, why did God need to give Moses so many instructions about how to keep it? (p.756).

Question 13:

a) When was the Sabbath given or “made known” to Israel according to Nehemiah 9:13,14? (p.756). In Eden or on Mt. Sinai? “Thou camest down also upon Mt Sinai and madest known unto them thy holy Sabbath.... by the hand of Moses.”

b) What does “made known” mean?

c) What is the significance of the phrase “it was not declared what should be done” to the Sabbath breaker in Numbers 15:32-36? (p.756).

Question 14:

a) Were OT priests exempt from keeping the Sabbath because of their extra workload? (yes). (p.757).

b) Since NT believers are a royal priesthood, aren't we also exempt from keeping the Sabbath?

Question 15:

a) When a boy required circumcision on the Sabbath day, which of these laws were broken, Sabbath law or circumcision law? (Answer: Sabbath law was broken). (p.757).

b) Which of these laws were more important? (Circumcision).

c) Since the more important circumcision law is now obsolete, what does this tell us about the Sabbath law? (Answer: It also is obsolete).

Key Question 16:

Since the Sabbath day was given over to disputing with Jews in the Synagogue, on what day did the Apostles meet with believers for fellowship and preaching? (Sunday). (p.759).

Question 17:

a) If Constantine changed Saturday worship to Sunday worship in 328 AD, why was there no protest to this change? (p.759).

b) What does the record of 15 early church writers before 320 AD who state that Sunday worship was the universal practice, tell you? (p.759, 752).

Question 18:

a) Does God change His laws? (SDA say “no”; Bible says “yes”). (p.760).

b) What about circumcision, animal sacrifice and yearly worship at Jerusalem? Have they been changed? (Yes). Then so has the Sabbath law been changed.

Question 19:

a) To what 2 things is the law compared to in Galatians 3:23-25? (a prison, and a schoolmaster) p.760

b) What does the phrase mean “We are no longer under a schoolmaster?” (Galatians 3:25).

Question 20:

a) When was the law added TILL? (Galatians 3:19 “till the seed should come”). (p.760).

b) Has this happened? (yes). Hence the Mosaic law and Sabbath keeping are obsolete, true?

Question 21:

a) If SDA's could find a verse saying that Christians should take up a collection on the Sabbath day, would they use it to prove Sabbath day worship? (yes). (p.762). Q2.

b) Then what does I Corinthians 16:1,2 tell you on what day the worship of giving took place? Sunday

Question 22:

- a) Is giving to the church an act of worship? (Yes). (p.762). Q3.
- b) Could giving to the church be done on Saturdays? (yes).
- c) Then why did Paul give orders for giving to be done on Sunday, the first day of the week? (Because Sunday was the only day on which the early church met).

Question 23:

- a) Do you SDA's "lav by in store" on the first day of every week? (No). (p.762). Q4.
- b) On which day of the week do SDA's give to their church? (Saturdays).
- c) By what authority do SDA's give on Saturday? Is there some passage I have overlooked which commands offerings to be made on the 7th day Saturday?

SDA church members give money on the last day of the week. Paul said to give on the first day of the week. The SDA church has missed the day of worship by 6 days. If offering is a part of worship, and if the offering was on Sunday, then worship also took place on Sunday.

- d) Which will you deny? Paul or the SDA manual?

Question 24:

If Paul wanted them to store up their offerings at home, then when Paul came, the offerings would need to be collected from people's homes. (p.763).

This would disobey Paul's command of "no gatherings when I come." I Corinthians 16:1,2.

Question 25:

Fill this in: If Giving is worship, and giving took place on Sundays, then worship took place on ____?

Question 26:

According to Malachi 3:10 where did the Jews of Malachi's time store up their weekly offerings, at home, or in the storehouse of the temple treasury? (p.763).

Question 27:

If Paul promoted Sunday keeping, would you expect a protest by some Jewish believers? (Yes). (p.764)
Where is this protest recorded? (Colossians 2:16,17) "let no man judge you in Sabbath days..".

Question 28:

If Christians must keep the Sabbath, why is there NO New Testament example of any church meeting for Sabbath worship? If there is a case please show me now? (p.764). Q1.

Question 29:

- a) Is it valid for God to teach us by example? (Yes). (p.764).
- b) Then why won't you let God teach us Sunday keeping by the example of the churches at Jerusalem, Troas, Galatia and Corinth? John 20:19,26; Acts 20:7; I Corinthians 16:1,2?

Question 30:

- a) If you found a NT passage which said "Upon the seventh day of the week, let every one of you lay by Him in store," would you use it as a proof of Saturday Sabbath worship? (Yes). (p.764). Q2.
- b) Then why don't you accept that this verse clearly teaches Sunday worship?
- c) Do you give money to the SDA church on Sundays, the first day of the week? (No).
- d) By what authority does the SDA church give on Saturday, the 7th day of the week?
- e) If believers stored their offerings at home on the first day of the week (Sunday), how many collections would there be when Paul came? (One (1) collection from each house).
- f) Why do you disobey Paul's order to give on Sunday, the first day of the week?

Question 31:

How do we know that the blotted out "ordinances" in Colossians 2:14 mean that the "10 Commandments" were nailed to the Cross? (p.764).

- i) Ephesians 2:15 says so: "Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances".
- ii) "Shadow" in Hebrews 8:4,5 (law...shadow) and 10:1 (law having a shadow) mean "Law of Moses".
- iii) Colossians 2:16-17 mentions Sabbath days in the same context.

Question 32:

When Christ fulfilled the Law of Moses (Matthew 5:17,18), what happened to it? (It passed away). (p.765)

Question 33:

- a) Does 1 Kings 8:9 say that the 10 Commandments are part of the Mosaic Covenant? (Yes). (p.765).
b) What does Jeremiah 31:31,32 teach about the 10 Commandments if the New Covenant is “NOT according to the Mosaic Covenant” as Jeremiah 31:31,32 states? (p.765).

Question 34:

If the 10 Commandments are part of the Mosaic Covenant, then what does Hebrews 8:13 say about the 10 Commandments? (Both are old and ready to vanish away). (p.765).

Question 35:

What 10 verses teach that the 10 Commandments are part of the Old Mosaic Covenant which has been done away? (p.766).

- 1) Galatians 3:23-25 “The law was our schoolmaster to bring us to Christ... But after that faith is come, we are NO LONGER under a schoolmaster.”
- 2) 2 Corinthians 3:7-11 “If the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, which glory was to be done away: (7)..... For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.” (11).
- 3) Hebrews 8:13 “A new covenant, he hath made the first old... ready to vanish away.”
- 4) Hebrews 9:1-4 “The first covenant had... the tables of the covenant.”
- 5) “Against us” in Colossians 2:14-17 is the same as “enmity” in Ephesians 2:15 “Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments.”
- 6) Nehemiah 9:13,14 “Thou camest down also upon Mt Sinai.... And madest known unto them thy holy Sabbath by the hand of Moses...”
- 7) Exodus 34:28 “He wrote upon the tables, the words of the covenant even the ten Commandments.”
- 8) Deuteronomy 4:13 “And he declared unto you his covenant, which he commanded you to perform, even ten commandments; and he wrote them upon two tables of stone.”
- 9) Deuteronomy 9:9 “When I was gone up into the mount to receive the tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant which the Lord made with you...”
- 10) I Kings 8:9 “There was nothing in the ark save the two tables of stone ... when the Lord made a covenant with the children of Israel.”

SDA ARGUMENTS SUMMARISED and REFUTED.

1) SDA: 10 Commandments are not in the Old Mosaic Covenant. (p.766).

Bible: 10 verses teach that 10 Commandments & Mosaic Covenant were all abolished when Christ died

2) SDA: Sabbath day in Col. 2:16 is not the weekly Sabbath, but monthly or yearly Sabbaths. (p.767).

Bible: Sabbath days in Col. 2:16 is the weekly Sabbath that was nailed to the Cross because:

- i) The “handwriting of ordinances” in Colossians 2:14 is the 10 Commandments since “contrary to us” here means the same as “ministration of death” written and “graven in stones” in 2 Cor. 3:7.
 - ii) The year, month, day sequence in Col. 2:16 proves it to be a weekly Sabbath because the same year, month, day sequence occurs in Galatians 4:10; I Chronicles 23:31; II Chronicles 2:4; 8:13, 31:3; Nehemiah 10:33; Ezekiel 45:17, Hosea 2:11.
 - iii) The Greek plural word “Sabbaton” for Sabbath days is the weekly Sabbath because the same Greek word occurs in Matthew 28:1; Luke 4:16; Acts 16:13; Exodus 20:8 (Septuagint).
- 3) SDA: The Sabbath law is a moral law because it is in the 10 Commandments. (p.768).

Bible: The Sabbath law is not a moral law because:

- i) The priests were allowed to profane it (Matthew 12:5; Numbers 28:9,10).
 - ii) God grew weary of the Jews keeping it (Isaiah 1:13,14).
 - iii) God never charged the Gentiles with breaking it, as He did the other commandments.
- 4) SDA: 10 Commandments and Sabbath existed from the Garden of Eden. (p.769).
- Bible: 10 Commandments and Sabbath law did not exist before Moses because:
- i) God revealed or “made known” the Sabbath law and 10 Commandments to Israel at Mt Sinai, not in Eden. He did not remind them. See Nehemiah 9:13,14, “Thou made known unto them thy holy Sabbath” by the hand of Moses thy servant.”

ii) Israelite leaders before Moses did not keep the Sabbath.

“The Lord made not this covenant with our fathers, but with us...” (Deuteronomy 5:2,3).

iii) Abraham never knew of the Sabbath law because it came 430 years after Abraham:

“the law, which was 430 years after (Abraham).” Galatians 3:17.

iv) No one before the Exodus (Exodus 16) ever knew about the Sabbath law. Exodus 20:10,12,

“I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt. I gave them my Sabbaths.”

v) The Sabbath is first mentioned in Exodus 16:22,23 as a new experience for Israel.

vi) The Sabbath was inappropriate for Adam in Eden because there was no weariness, sickness, death or strangers in Eden before the Fall.

vii) The Sabbath was not sanctified on Day 6 but is an example of Prolepsis, (represents something in the future as if it already existed).

Six examples of Prolepsis are: Genesis 2:24; 3:20; 4:20; 4:21; Matthew 10:4; John 11:1,2.

5) SDA: Christ came to fulfil the law, not to destroy it (Matthew 5:17-18). (p.771).

Bible: i) Christ fulfilled Matt. 5:17-18 by fulfilling OT prophecies and offerings about the Messiah.

ii) “Jot and tittle” refer to the entire OT law, including all the ceremonial laws.

According to SDA logic, this verse proves that we must keep all the ceremonial laws, right? Wrong.

They have passed away. So have the 10 Commandments been replaced by the law of Christ.

iii) Christ said “I came to fulfil”; He did not say “I come to perpetuate.”

None of Moses’ laws failed. Christ fulfilled them 100%.

6) SDA: The 10 Commandments are for all mankind for all time. (p.772).

Bible: The 10 Commandments are only for Israel. Exodus 31:13.

Question: If the Sabbath law was a moral law for all mankind, then why did God never charge the Gentiles with breaking it?

7) SDA: If the 10 Commandments were abolished, we could murder, steal, commit adultery. (p.773)

Bible: i) We are now under a different law, the law of Christ, forbidding these. This implies that if we don’t listen to Moses, there are no other laws to guide us. A country may change it’s law over time.

ii) All the 9 moral laws of the 10 Commandments are brought over and expanded into the New Covenant law of Christ.

8) SDA: The Royal law of James 2:8-12 is the 10 Commandments law. (p.774).

Bible: The Royal law is stated in James 2:8 as “Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.”

9) SDA: Jesus said “Keep my commandments.” John 14:15. SDA read this as 10 commandments. p774

Bible: Jesus did NOT say “Keep the 10 Commandments,” but “Keep my commandments” which far exceed the 10 Commandments. Eg: I John 3:23,24; John 13:34,35.

10) SDA: The NT quotes several of the 10 Commandments proving that all 10 are binding today, including the Sabbath. (p.775).

Bible: i) The Sabbath law is never quoted in the NT. Col.2:14-16 says it was abolished at the Cross ii) The 10 Commandments are stated as being part of the Mosaic Covenant which was abolished and replaced by the new covenant in II Corinthians 3:7-11; Hebrews 8:13; Hebrews 9:1-4.

11) SDA: The 10 Commandments contain all we need to know about perfect moral living.

Man needs nothing else to live perfectly. (p.775).

Bible: The 10 Commandments are not complete, because God has added many other laws not covered by them: eg. drunkenness, pride, fornication, homosexuality, Christians suing Christians, evil thoughts. They do not tell us how to be forgiven or how to enter heaven.

12) SDA: God does not change, therefore neither does His law. (p.776).

Bible: God’s nature does not change, but His laws and human requirements in different time periods have changed a lot. eg. God gave laws on animal sacrifices, then later abolished them. Does this prove that God’s nature changes? No.

13) SDA: The Sabbath must be kept today because God blessed it and made it holy. (p.776).

Bible: This proves nothing because many other things that God said were holy, have been abolished. eg: 7 feasts and 19 other holy things.

14) SDA: The “Lord’s Day” is the Sabbath because Jesus said He was Lord of the Sabbath. (p.778).

Bible: The “Lord’s Day” is Sunday because:

- i) Jesus rose on Sunday.
- ii) The Holy Spirit came on Pentecost (Acts 2:1) which always falls on a Sunday.
- iii) Christians practiced the Lord's Supper on Sunday (Acts 20:7).
- iv) Early Christians (eg. Chrysostom, Theodoret) from 33-300AD called Sunday the Lord's Day.
- v) John called Sunday "the Lord's Day" in the Book of Revelation (1:10).
- If the Lord's Day was Saturday, John would have called it the Sabbath.
- 15) SDA: John foresaw 20th Century Christians keeping the Sabbath day. (Matthew 24:20). (p.778).
Bible: This refers to Jews living in Jerusalem in the middle of the future 7 year Tribulation when the Antichrist begins to persecute them. SDA's miss the context of:
 i) when this happens, ii) to whom this happens, and iii) the place this happens. (p.778).
- 16) SDA: "The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath." (Mark 2:27). (p.778).
 Therefore all mankind must keep it.
Bible: The laws of keeping the Sabbath must not be applied to oppose man's real welfare.
- 17) SDA: The Sabbath is eternal and endures forever, therefore we must keep it today. (p.779).
Bible: If the Sabbath is eternal, then so too are all the other Jewish holidays.
 Do we keep the Jewish Feasts of Unleavened Bread, Atonement, Tabernacles and Passover, all of which are stated as lasting forever? No.
- 18) SDA: Since the Sabbath was a memorial to a 6-day creation, then this proves that the Sabbath will endure forever. (p.779).
Bible: Since the first heavens and earth will pass away at the end of the Millennium, then so will the Sabbath if it is a memorial to the first heavens and earth.
- 19) SDA: Since the Sabbath will be kept in the Millennium (Isaiah 66:23) we must keep it now. p779 Bible: i) Since the Feast of Tabernacles will be kept in the Millennium, should we keep it now? No. Why don't SDA's keep the Feast of Tabernacles now? (Zechariah 14:16-19).
 Because it is not relevant to the Church Age. Neither is Sabbath keeping.
 ii) Should we keep new moon feasts now? No. Then neither should we keep the Sabbath now.
- 20) SDA: The Sabbath is God's special law above all laws. (p.780).
Bible: How can the Sabbath commandment be more important than that which Jesus calls the first and great commandment of loving God and loving your neighbour? (Matthew 22:37-40).
- 21) SDA: The Sabbath is a sign between God and Christians. (p.780).
Bible: The Sabbath is a sign between God and Israel only, because:
 i) Exodus 31:13; 31:16; and Ezekiel 20:12 say so.
 ii) Why did God never command any Gentiles in the OT or NT to keep the Sabbath?
 iii) Why do SDA's not keep the sign of circumcision? (Genesis 17:11).
 Why do SDA's not keep the sign of Passover blood? (Exodus 12:13).
Question: Why should Christians not keep the sign of the Sabbath? (Exodus 31:13,16).
Answer: Because it was a sign ONLY for Jews and not for NT Christians in the Church Age.
 iv) Keeping the Saturday Sabbath was the sign of the Mosaic Covenant between God and Jews only. Exodus 31:13,14,16,17; Romans 9:4.
- 22) SDA: Hebrew 4:9 proves we must keep the weekly Jewish Sabbath. (p.781).
 "There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God."
Bible: Hebrews 4:9 rest (Greek: "Sabbatismos"(4520), not "Sabbaton"(4521)) is "our fellowship rest with the Father and Son in eternity." S. Zodhiates, NT Word Study Dict. p.1268. Rev.14:13.
- 23) SDA: The Sabbath is not nailed to the Cross because the Holy Spirit still refers to the Sabbath day after Christ's death, when the New Covenant had replaced the Old Covenant. (p.781).
Bible: Other Jewish days kept after the cross, yet are not binding on Christians are Pentecost (Acts 2:1); Unleavened Bread (Acts 12:3; 20:6); Purification (Acts 21:26); Animal sacrifices (Acts 21:26); and Circumcision (Acts 16:3).
- 24) SDA: The Sabbath was not a shadow, because the Sabbath was given before the Fall. (p.781).
Bible: The Sabbath is a shadow: "Sabbath days; which are a shadow of things to come." Col 2:16,17
- 25) SDA: The Sabbath is the way we know God sanctifies us. (p.781).
 "I gave them my Sabbaths to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the Lord that sanctify them." Ezekiel 20:12,20; Exodus 31:13.

Bible: This expression “that they might know that I am the Lord that sanctify them” is NOT found in the NT, nor is there any NT commandments for Christians after Pentecost to keep the Sabbath.

26) SDA: Christ our example kept the Sabbath. (p.781).

Bible: Jesus kept the Passover, every Jewish Feast day, animal sacrifices and all the Ceremonial Laws of Moses. Why don't the SDA's keep these as well?

Because “after faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster (the law).” Galatians 4:24,25.

27) SDA: The disciples kept the Sabbath one day after Christ's death, proving that the Sabbath was not abolished when it was nailed to the Cross. (p.782).

Bible: The disciples kept this Sabbath day, because they did not yet understand that ALL of the Mosaic Covenant and Mosaic Laws would be abolished by the New Covenant and the law of Christ. This SDA argument proves nothing, They didn't yet understand Christ's crucifixion, death, resurrection, ascension or second coming. This is the only time after the cross that the disciples ever kept the Sabbath day.

Question: “Why is there no other place in the New Covenant where Christians “kept the Sabbath according to the Commandment”?”

28) SDA: Paul preaching on the Sabbath after the Cross, proves we must keep the Sabbath today.

“He reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath day.” Acts 13:14; 16:12; 17:2; 18:4,11. (p.782).

Bible: Do SDA pastors “keep Sunday” if they preach in a Sunday keeping church on Sunday? No. Then neither did Paul keep the Sabbath in these verses. Pentecost (Acts 2) and Sabbath days just provided an opportunity to preach to an interested audience.

29) SDA: Sunday keeping is worshipping the sun -“SUN” day. (p.782).

Ans: Ridiculous! If so, then Saturday keeping is worshipping the Roman god Saturn, “Saturn's” day.

30) SDA: Ananias, a devout Christian, kept the 10 Commandments: “Ananias, a devout man according to the Law...” Acts 22:12. So should we keep the Sabbath law today. (p.782).

Bible: Just because a Jew kept the Mosaic Law does not prove that we must keep it because:

i) The Mosaic Law included circumcision (Acts 21:20-24) which Christians don't keep.

ii) The Apostles never commanded Christians to keep the Mosaic Law:

“certain ...have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment.” (Acts 15:24).

31) SDA: History shows that the very earliest Christians kept the Sabbath, (p.783) as follows:

i) Up to 135 AD there was no discussion of the Sabbath question.

ii) After 135 AD Christians started meeting on Sundays, or after Constantine (320 AD).

Bible i) History and the Bible are 100% against SDA's.

ii) There is enormous historical evidence (over 15 early writers) that from the Apostles to Constantine, Christians always met on Sunday, and never on the Sabbath.

iii) There is no historical evidence that early Christians:

-Kept the Sabbath.

-Protested a change from Saturday to Sunday worship. (Jews protested it)

-Practised the Lord's supper on the Sabbath.

32) SDA: Christians copied Sunday keeping off the pagan religion of Mithraism. (p.783).

Answer: There is no documented evidence that Mithraism had a formal Sunday worship service.

“Sun worship” and worshipping on Sunday” are completely different ideas that SDA's combine in order to confuse the subject.

33) SDA: The Pope changed the Sabbath from Saturday to Sunday. (p.784).

Answer: i) Which Pope? When did he change it? What proof is there?

ii) Many church writers before 340 AD all say that Christians from the Apostles met on Sunday.

iii) SDA theologian, Bacchiocchi said “I differ from Ellen White on the origin of Sunday keeping...

I place the origin of Sunday keeping by the time of the Emperor Hadrian, 135AD.”

34) SDA: Constantine changed the Sabbath to Sunday. (p.784).

Answer: i) Constantine just made a civil decree that because Christians were already meeting on Sunday (since 33 AD), that Christians should not work on Sunday.

ii) SDA's contradict themselves. Who changed the Sabbath? Was it the Pope, Constantine in 321 AD, or some Christians in Rome in 135 AD?

114. ERRORS OF MORMONISM

“But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.” Galatians 1:8.

Challenge: There are 6 million Mormons in 1995. They hope to double by 2000 AD. There are 16 million in 2017. 30% attendance. We should win them to Christ. Inform enquirers into Mormonism of its heresies.

Background: Joseph Smith, the founder of Mormonism, was born on Dec. 23, 1805 in Vermont, USA. In 1820 (aged 14 years) he allegedly received a vision:

“...I asked the personages (demons?) who stood above me in the light, which of all the sects was right- and which I should join. I was answered that I must join none of them, for they were all wrong; and the personage (demon?) who addressed me said that all their creeds were an abomination in his sight...”. Pearl of Great Price 2:18,19.

He claims a second vision on Sept. 21, 1823 where “a personage (demon?) appeared at my bedside” to inform him of the location of a box containing golden plates buried at Manchester, New York. In 1827, Smith claimed to receive the golden plates upon which the Book of Mormon is alleged to have been written. He claimed to have finished translating the plates on March 26, 1830.

On April 6, 1830, at Fayette, New York, the Mormon church was organised, with 6 members. They then moved to Kirtland (Cleveland), Ohio, publishing the book “Doctrines and Covenants”. Smith was imprisoned in Far West, Missouri, for fighting. After escaping, he and his people fled to Nauvoo, Illinois, where he organised a small army. When a local paper, the “Nauvoo Expositor”, published anti-Mormon material, Smith ordered the press destroyed and the paper burned. This act of destruction led to Smith’s arrest and imprisonment. He was sent to a jail in Carthage, Illinois, with his brother Hyrum. On June 27, 1844, a mob of 200 people stormed the jail, shooting and killing Joseph and Hyrum Smith. The Mormons consider him a martyr.

Brigham Young then took over the leadership. He led the group westward to found Salt Lake City, Utah, on July 24, 1847, which became their headquarters. When Young died in 1877, they had 150,000 members.

I. 6 BASIC ERRORS IN MORMONISM:

Error 1: Walter Martin writes: “With one special revelation, the Mormon church expects its intended converts to accept the unsupported testimony of an undiscerning 14 year old boy, saying that nobody ever preached the gospel of Christ from 96 AD to 1820.”

He did not even know the gospel definition in I Cor. 15:1-4, that “Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures, was buried, and rose again the third day”. This is the gospel. How much discernment and in-depth Bible knowledge did Joseph Smith have at age 14 to allow him to recognise truth from error? No Bible prophet began their ministry at 14.

Error 2: Brigham Young ordered the massacre of 150 non-Mormon immigrants. This became known as the Mountain Meadows massacre. Young ordered Bishop John D. Lee in 1877 to murder a wagon train of helpless immigrants. 20 years later, Lee was tried, convicted and executed for their murder by the U.S. government. In his book “The Confessions of John D. Lee”, Lee confessed his murders, but charged that he was acting on the orders of Brigham Young. This was supported by other lieutenants in the massacre.

Error 3: The bad personal life of Joseph Smith:

- i) Smith and his father regularly dug for treasure, using “peep stones” and “divining rods”.
- ii) Many Mormon people testified to the outright immorality and polygamy of Joseph Smith. These are in the Berrian collection in the New York Public Library.
- iii) “Joseph Smith was known for his habits of exaggeration and untruthfulness”.
(P. Tucker, in “The Origin, Rise and Progress of Mormonism” (1867), quoting duly sworn statements of Smith’s neighbours).

iv) E.D. Howe quoted statements of 62 residents of Palmyra, New York, who knew the Smith family personally. They testify as follows:

“We, the undersigned, have been acquainted with the Smith family... and have no hesitation in saying that we consider them destitute of that moral character which ought to entitle them to the confidence of any community. Both Joseph Snr and Joseph Jnr were considered entirely destitute of moral character, and addicted to vicious habits.” “Mormonism Unveiled”, Zanesville, Ohio, 1834, p.261.

Note: There have been no statements from any reliable and informed source who knew Joseph Smith and his family intimately, to support his character.

The Story of the Book of Mormon.

The Book of Mormon claims to be the history of two ancient civilizations on the American continent.

The first group left the Tower of Babel about 2250 BC, crossing to Europe and sailing to Central America. They were totally destroyed because of “corruption”.

The second group allegedly left Jerusalem around 600 BC, before the Babylonian destruction and captivity. They sailed to Peru. These supposedly were righteous Jews, led by Nephi. The Mormon record claimed that Christ appeared to the Nephites, to preach the gospel to them, to institute baptism, the communion service, the priesthood and other mystical ceremonies. They supposedly later on split into two warring camps, the Nephites and the Lamanites (American Indians). The Lamanites allegedly wiped out the Nephites completely in a battle in Palmyra, New York, in 428 AD. The Lamanites supposedly were cursed with dark skin for their evil deeds.

Joseph Smith in 1827, claimed to dig up golden plates written in “reformed Egyptian hieroglyphics”, and by using Urim and Thummim spectacles, translated them into English in 1830 as the Book of Mormon. No Egyptologist has ever unearthed a “reformed Egyptian” language. It has Roman letters inverted or placed sideways, mixed with Greek and Hebrew letters.

Error 4: How could a language written by people leaving Europe in 600 BC use Roman letters, which were not used widely until 67 BC, when Rome became a world empire?

The Mormons wrongly claim that the “other sheep” of John 10:16 refer to the appearance of Christ to the Nephites. It, however, refers to the Gentiles, who would be saved, joining the saved Jews in the Church, the body of Christ, the one fold, with one Shepherd (Christ).

Error 5: Joseph Smith, in an effort to prove the Book of Mormon, claimed in the “Pearl of Great Price” Section 2, verses 62, 63, 64, that Professor Charles Anthon verified the “reformed Egyptian language.” Smith allegedly quotes Professor Anthon as follows:

“Professor Anthon stated that the translation was correct, more so than any he had before seen translated from the Egyptian. I then showed him those which were not yet translated, and he said that they were Egyptian, Chaldaic, Assyriac and Arabic and he said that they were true characters”.

This later proved to be a total lie, as Professor Anthon wrote in a letter to E.D. Howe, that he never said any such thing. Mormons have never been able to refute this letter or any of Howe’s research. An excerpt from Professor Anthon’s letter of rebuttal is as follows:

New York, N.Y., Feb. 17, 1834

Mr E.D. Howe

Painseville, Ohio

Dear Sir,

... The whole story about my having pronounced the Mormonite inscription to be “reformed Egyptian hieroglyphics” is perfectly false...

Yours respectfully,

Charles Anthon, LL.D. Columbia University.

All reputable linguists who have examined the Mormon evidence have rejected it as mythical.

Error 6: Mormon misunderstanding of the Sticks of Joseph and Judah in Ezekiel 37:15-23.

Mormons claim that the “stick of Judah” refers to the Bible, and the “stick of Ephraim” refers to the Book of Mormon. They claim that the joining of the 2 sticks refers to the union of the Bible and the Book of Mormon as an addition to the Word of God.

Answer: The subject under discussion is not books, but people and nations. It refers to the then divided nation of Israel (587 BC) of the northern and southern kingdoms becoming reunited as one nation in the land, just before and after Christ’s second coming.

“These bones are the whole house of Israel”. Ezekiel 37:11.

The 2 sticks becoming one stick in Ezekiel’s hand represent Judah (2 1/2 tribes) and Israel (9 1/2 tribes) being united in the end days.

“I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen, ... and bring them into their own land: I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel,.....they shall be no more 2 nations.” Ezekiel 37:21,22.

The Mormon view totally ignores the context, hoping no one will read the passage too carefully.

II. MISTAKES IN THE BOOK OF MORMON

1. Nephi wrote in the wrong language.

A pious Jew would never record Scripture in the Egyptian language. He would always only use Hebrew. Nephi, son of Lehi, a devout Jew who had lived in Jerusalem all his life, claimed to record events “in the language of his father (Lehi), which consists of the learning of the Jews and the language of the Egyptians.” I Nephi 1:2.

An apostate Jew might use Egyptian, but a devout Jew, even if he knew Egyptian, would never use it to write a “holy” book. He would only use Hebrew.

Note: A devout Jew would NEVER write God’s sacred name “JHVH” in Egyptian. This would be an unthinkable abomination and sacrilege. Joseph Smith never knew this. “The Lord commanded...” I Nephi 2:2.

2. The Book of Mormon , describing the safe escape of Nephi from Jerusalem, is contradicted by Jeremiah, who said that the ONLY safety lay in surrendering to King Nebuchadnezzar. There was no other safe way of escape.

“If thou wilt assuredly go forth unto the king of Babylon’s princes, then thy soul shall live...

But if thou wilt not go forth to the King of Babylon’s princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and thou shalt not escape out of their hand.” Jeremiah 38:18,19.

The only safety for the people of Jerusalem was to give themselves up to the invading Babylonians. The Book of Mormon is ignorant of Jeremiah 38,39, when it gives the false message in I Nephi 2:2 “The Lord commanded my father, even in a dream, that he should take his family and depart into the wilderness.”

Q: Does God contradict himself? No.

Q: Is Nephi a greater prophet than Jeremiah? No.

3. There are no rivers emptying into the Red Sea.

“... When he had travelled three days in the wilderness, he pitched his tent in a valley by the side of a river of water.... He called the name of the river Laman, and it emptied into the Red Sea; and the valley was in the border near the mouth thereof.” I Nephi 2:4-9.

a) It would have been impossible for an old man (Lehi), women and children to travel the 175 mile journey from Jerusalem to the Red Sea in 3 days.

Q: Could you walk 58 miles per day for 3 days? Travelling 3 miles per hour, you would need to travel for 20 hours each day non-stop for 3 days. This would have been quite impossible.

b) There are no rivers running into the Red Sea along their route, the eastern shore of the Gulf of Aqaba, at this or any other point. This part of the world was well known and well travelled in 600 BC. Had there been a river as Nephi describes, the area would have been one of the best known in the world of its day. It would have supported a large population, as always happened where fresh water was available. The mouth of such a river would have been a well known port city in 600 BC.

- c) These 6 people then cross 1400 miles of the Arabian peninsula, 400 miles being rugged mountains and 1000 miles of desert.
- d) They find a bountiful, fruitful land on the Persian Gulf. Alexander's troops in 330 BC avoided this as desert area.
- e) They then build a ship sufficiently seaworthy to carry them two-thirds around the world in rough seas to the west coast of America, now known as Peru.

4. American Indians are Mongoloids from East Asia, not Semites from Jerusalem as the Book of Mormon claims.

For 200 years before 1820, many philosophers thought that the American Indians were the lost tribes of Israel. The dark skin of the Indians is not caused by their bad morals, as the Book of Mormon claims, but by genetics.

American Indians are Mongoloid, not Jewish, because:

- a) Mongoloids lack face and body hair, (growing at most 3 inches of beard in a lifetime), but Jews have much face and body hair.
- b) Mongoloid hair is coarse, black and straight, but Jewish Semite hair is moderately fine, wavy & brown.
- c) Mongoloids have reddish skin pigmentation, but Jewish Semites have an olive-gray pigmentation.
- d) Mongoloids have prominent cheek bones, not like Semites.
- e) Mongoloids appear slant-eyed, but Semites have deep seated eyes.
- f) Mongoloid babies have a Mongolian spot on their backs. This is a slate-blue round pigment spot that disappears after a few months or years. It is not present on the backs of Jewish or Semite babies. Hence American Indians could not descend from Jews. Mormons must defend their prophet even if they have to close their eyes to do so.

5. The Book of Mormon predicts that the Lamanites (American Indians) would soon change to white skin colour.

"Many generations shall not pass away among them, save they shall be a white and delightsome people." 2 Nephi 30:6.

Dark skinned Mormon Indians have never become lightened due to their holding Mormon doctrines. Indian murals show Indians of 4 skin colours, all living peaceably.

Q: If the light skinned Nephites were wiped out in 421 AD as the Book of Mormon claims, why are both light and dark skinned Indians portrayed in later wall paintings at Bonampak and Chichen-Itza?

6. There is not the slightest resemblance between the Mayan characters, and those supposed to be copied by Smith, as "Reformed Egyptian".

7. The Book of Mormon is wrong on Indian warfare.

It is mostly a book of wars, oppression, slavery, treachery and bloodshed. The writer has an obsession with warfare and killing, with killings starting from Chapter 4. Weapons used from 544 BC to 52 BC (p107-359) are listed as bows and arrows, steel swords, axes, brass and copper breastplates, shields, horses and chariots, and cimeters.

Q: What is wrong with this picture? Almost everything.

The author knew almost nothing about early American life, lack of warfare, and politics. Early Americans from 600 BC to 421 AD had very little interest in war, and had no occasion for war because:

- a) They spent most of their time farming.
- b) They had no great cities of great population as are mentioned in the Book of Mormon.
- c) Mongoloids have a different philosophy of life and war than Europeans and Semites.
- d) Early Americans knew nothing of iron and steel for swords, until the Spaniards came.
- e) Breastplates of brass and copper were unknown then.
- f) Cimeters were curved swords used by Persians, Arabs and Turks, only appearing in 1400 AD).
- g) Arm shields and axes of metal were not yet invented in America.

- h) The earliest metals in America were gold beads dated 600 AD. Copper, bronze and silver came much later, when smelting was invented.
- i) Horses and chariots were not used in America before the Spanish conquest.
- j) The wheel was never used in America before the Europeans came. Roads were pedestrian roads approaching the temples, and were not built in the Book of Mormon period
- k) The sinewed bow and arrow of the American Indians came 600 years later, after 421 AD. They instead used an atlatl, or throwing stick.
- l) Wars of conquest were unknown because the gaining of new territory for occupation was unnecessary, as there was plenty of room for all Indians.

8. No coinage system was ever developed in ancient America.

If the alleged “Nephites” were descended from Jews raised in Jerusalem, their coinage and money values would have survived to the New World. Hence Joseph Smith created a system of coinage for people of the Book of Mormon in America. It seems strange that Smith did not continue using Jewish shekels and talents, but that he devised coins such as senines, seons, shums and limnals of gold.

Unfortunately for Smith, while his guess was logical, it was completely wrong. No system of coinage was ever developed by ancient Americans.

The Mayans who traded had:

- a) No money transactions in their records.
- b) Their coins would have been discovered in their graves and homes.
- c) No coins were found in sacred wells, where so many valuable ornaments and jewels were thrown as offerings to their gods.
- d) All the known Mayan media of exchange have been identified, both of their own land, and also along the ancient trade routes of Mexico, Central America and the Caribbean Sea, but never have they found metallic money.
- e) Columbus was told by a Mayan chieftain in 1502 that all transactions were by barter.
- f) Interregional markets were found at Xicalenco, a market town between Aztec and Mayan populations, where Aztec, Mayan, Toltec, Mixtec and Totocan peoples met. Surely if there had been a coined money system it would have been found here.
- g) Cacao beans came closest to a standardised medium of exchange for uneven barter.
- h) Taxation had no metal coinage, but was a work service.

Question: Why did they have no coinage?

Answer: Because they had no metal until gold was discovered after 600 AD. Gold was used only for ornamentation. Silver was discovered around 900 AD.

There never was an iron age in America before Columbus. In spite of this, Joseph Smith had his ancient Nephites and Lamanites using iron and steel swords. Iron was the scarcest and most valuable metal. Gold was the most plentiful and cheapest metal.

9. Silk and fine linen have never been successfully grown in America.

Joseph Smith has Alma, a judge of the Nephites in 100 BC, stating that his people possessed “an abundance of silk and fine twined linen, and all manner of good homely cloth.” Alma 1:29.

Smith was wrong here because:

- a) Silk was unknown in the Americas until the Europeans came, and that it has never been successfully introduced since then.
- b) Cortez tried to grow silk in Mexico in 1522, but the industry died out 75 years later. Encyclopaedia Britannica, 1959 ed. XX, 664.
- c) James I of England in 1609 tried to introduce silk culture in the American colonies, but failed.
- e) In Alma 17:25-33, Ammon protects King Lamoni’s flocks from attackers. This is wrong because there were no domestic sheep in America before the Spanish came (Morley, The Ancient Maya, p.408). Central America and southern Mexico never have been suitable for raising sheep. Sheep could not thrive in jungle country. Indians wore fabric of rabbit hair, birds’ feathers & Kapok tree. Joseph Smith’s failure to mention these, and his mention of materials totally unknown in any early American period, proves that the Book of Mormon was written by a completely uninformed scribe who knew nothing of life in Ancient America.

10. Impossibility of churches, temples and synagogues in America from 539 BC to 34 AD.

- a) The Book of Mormon mentions “synagogues” at least 12 times. Alma 16:13 speaks of synagogues “built after the manner of the Jews”. They date synagogues from 559 BC to 34 AD. Nephi and his successors in America could have known nothing of synagogues. Why?
Because synagogues were founded after the Temple’s destruction in 586 BC, when Temple worship was an impossibility because Jews were in Babylonian exile. Nephi would never have seen a synagogue in Israel.
- b) II Nephi 5:16 tells us that Nephi built a temple “after the manner of the temple of Solomon”, not more than 20 years after the migrant party landed in America between 588-570 BC. What is wrong with this?
- i) They didn’t have enough workers. In I Kings 5:13-18, Solomon needed 183,300 workers (made up of 70,000 labourers + 80,000 stone quarriers, 3300 supervisors + 30,000 loggers) over 7 1/2 years, to build his temple. Yet Nephi had only about 12 adults, because half the company had apostasized. Five couples could not produce more than 50 children in 20 years. It would have been impossible for Nephi, with 5 men’s help, to construct a building requiring many specialised skills.
- ii) There could be no practical use for it, because the population was so small (about 20). Solomon’s temple served a nation of several million worshippers.
- iii) II Nephi 5:15 says that materials “were in great abundance”.

This contradicts v.16 which says that the materials were “not to be found upon the land”.

“And I, Nephi, did build a temple; ... after the manner of the temple of Solomon, save it were not built of so many precious things; for they were not to be found upon the land...” v.16.

Here Joseph Smith tripped badly, because he has Nephi saying in the previous verse:

“And I did teach my people to build buildings, and to work in all manner of wood, and of iron, and of copper, and of brass, and of steel, and of gold, and of silver, and of precious ores which were in great abundance.” II Nephi 5:15.

Note: At this same time Smith has Nephi making swords of steel, long before the invention of steel anywhere in the world, to arm his soldiers against about 40 of his apostate brother’s people.

11. Mormons falsely equate Jesus Christ with Quetzalcoatl “The Feathered Serpent.”

The problems with this are:

- a) Jesus Christ is never pictured as a serpent. This is Satan’s symbol (Genesis 3:1).
- b) He appeared at least 1000 years after Christ’s birth (1032 AD). This is too late to equate him with the historic Jesus. There is no evidence that Jesus ever came to the American continent after His resurrection. If He did, it would have been widely recorded.

12. Darkness covered the whole earth at Christ’s crucifixion for 3 hours (Matthew 27:45 and Mark 15:33), but the Book of Mormon mistakes it to be 3 days (Helamen 14:20,27).

Many earthquakes with great destruction and loss of life supposedly accompanied Christ’s death, to show God’s displeasure. Mormons claim that this took place in Yucatan in Mexico. This is an area of flat jungle on limestone, which has been free from earthquakes. Ruins here date from 150 AD or later, not before. What is wrong with this passage?

- a) Jesus rebuked James and John for wanting to call down fire from heaven to destroy the scoffing Samaritans.
- b) The inhabitants of America were no greater sinners than the chief priests who demanded Christ’s death. Christ did not curse them, but prayed for their forgiveness.
- c) Calvary was an act of mercy, not of destruction. No one died in the Jerusalem earthquake, nor when the temple veil was torn. So why should many people die in America who were not responsible for Christ’s death? 3 Nephi 8:1-24.
- d) Christ came to save men’s lives, not destroy them. Smith never understood God’s mercy and grace to man at Calvary.

13. The Book of Mormon forgets that glass windows were not invented in 2200 BC at the Tower of Babel. (The first glass vessels were invented around 1500BC in Egypt. The first window glass was invented around 50AD. World Book Encyclopedia).

Jared and others supposedly migrate from Mesopotamia to America when the Tower of Babel was built. For light in their boats, God was supposed to have given them luminous stones.

“For, behold, ye cannot have windows, for they will be dashed in pieces.” Ether 2:23

Smith did not know that the Phoenicians had not yet invented glass.

Amazingly, 50-80 people sailed for 344 days, without any loss of life, or running short of food.

14. Smith thought that Elijah (O.T.) and Elias (N.T. spelling) were different people.

They are the same person. Elijah is the Old Testament name, and Elias is the New Testament name. This is found in “Doctrines and Covenants” Section 109 and 110:11-13, which is devoted to a prayer offered at the dedication of the temple in Kirtland, Ohio, March 27, 1836, where Smith states:

“The Lord appeared, ... Moses appeared before us... Elias appeared... After this vision was closed, another great and glorious vision burst upon us; for Elijah the prophet, who was taken to heaven without tasting death, stood before us.”

Elijah and Elias are the same person. What a blunder! Elijah and Elisha are distinguished correctly in Luke 4:25,26: “Many widows were in Israel in the days of Elias (Elijah)... Many lepers were in Israel in the time of Eliuseus (Elisha) the prophet; and none of them was cleansed saving Naaman the Syrian.”

Once this revelation was presented as the word of God, there was no easy way to correct this mistake.

15. Jesus Christ was born at Bethlehem, not at Jerusalem (Luke 2:4 and Micah 5:2).

“The Son of God cometh upon the face of the earth. And behold, he shall be born of Mary, at Jerusalem.” Alma 7:9,10.

Everyone knows that Jesus was born at Bethlehem, except Joseph Smith and Mormons who wish to defend the indefensible. Luke and Micah got it right, but Smith got it wrong. It is 9Km South of Jerusalem.

16. How can Helaman 12:26, supposedly written in 6 BC, quote John 5:29 which was not yet written until 85 AD? You cannot quote something that is not yet written.

“fulfilling the words which say: They that have done good shall receive everlasting life; and they that have done evil, shall have everlasting damnation.” Helaman 12:26 in 6 BC.

It is obvious that this is a great mistake, proving the Book of Mormon to be a fake, made up by someone who did not know his facts, and who was given to lying. John 5:29 quotes: “And shall come forth: they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.”

Q: Does this verse teach salvation by good works?

Answer: No, because John’s theology forbids this (3:17-21; 6:28,29). It states that those who are truly born again will live a life of good works after salvation. They obey Christ (14:15), they abide in Christ (15:5-7), and they walk in the light (John 8:12). Damnation is because of rejecting Christ (John 3:36).

17. How can parts of the Book of Mormon allegedly written in 570 BC quote Bible passages (word for word) that were not yet written (in 397BC or 1611AD)?

Book of Mormon

i) I Nephi 22:15 (570 BC)
“For the day soon cometh that all the proud and they who do wickedly shall be as stubble, and the day cometh that they must be burned.”

ii) II Nephi 26:9 (545 BC)
“But the Son of righteousness shall appear unto them; and he shall heal them...”

Answer: The Book of Mormon was not written in 570 BC, but was copied from the King James Bible around 1820 AD. The writer misquoted “Son” for “Sun”, a dictation mistake.

18. How can the Book of Mormon, allegedly written around 570 BC, quote word for word from the New Testament of the King James Bible, not written until 1611 AD? (2200 years later).

Book of Mormon

i) I Nephi 4:13 (592 BC)
“That one man should perish than that a nation should dwindle and perish...”

ii) I Nephi 10:8 (570 BC)
“Whose shoe’s latchet I am not worthy to unloose.”

iii) I Nephi 10:9
“He should baptize in Bethabara, beyond Jordan...”

iv) I Nephi 11:22
v) I Nephi 11:27
vi) I Nephi 14:11

KJV

Malachi 4:1 (397 BC)
“For behold, the day cometh that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be as stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up...”

Malachi 4:2 (397 BC)
“But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings...”

KJV

i) John 11:50 (33 AD, 1611 AD)
“That one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.”

ii) John 1:27 (85 AD and 1611 AD)
“Whose shoe’s latchet I am not worthy to unloose.”

iii) John 1:28
“In Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.”

iv) Romans 5:5
v) Luke 3:22
vi) Revelation 17:1,15

Jerald and Sandra Tanner list 400 clear examples in their book “The Case against Mormonism” (Vol. 2, Salt Lake City, 1967, p.87-102) to prove beyond doubt that the author of the Book of Mormon was well acquainted with the King James New Testament of 1611.

vii) At least 17 full chapters of the Book of Isaiah are quoted word for word from the King James Version of 1611, allegedly in 570 BC, 2200 years before the KJV was published. This is a clear case of plagiarism, with no other purpose than adding volume to the book of Mormon without too much effort.

19. The Book of Abraham Fraud

This is found in the Mormon scripture known as “The Pearl of Great Price”. Joseph Smith in 1835 purchased an ancient Egyptian papyrus found in mummy wrapping acquired by Michael H. Chandler. Smith, believing that he had the gift of interpreting ancient Egyptian, claimed that the rolls contained the writings of Abraham himself, signed personally by Abraham.

In 1842, Smith published his translation under the title “The Book of Abraham” in “Times and Seasons”. He claimed that a picture in it was Abraham sitting on Pharaoh’s throne.

These papyri were lost for many years, but they turned up and were presented to the Mormon Church by the Metropolitan Art Museum of New York on November 27, 1967.

When translated, they found that not a single word of Joseph Smith’s translation was correct. The text had nothing to do with Abraham, but described magical spells to open the mouth of the dead to prepare him for his audience with Osiris to be judged. Hence Joseph Smith’s translation of Egyptian is proved false.

20. The Book of Mormon has undergone about 3000 changes from the 1830 edition to the modern edition.

1830 Edition

i) “King Benjamin had a gift from God, whereby he could interpret such engravings.” p.200.

ii) “Behold the virgin which thou seest, is the Mother of God.” p.25.

iii) “..that the Lamb of God is the eternal Father...” p.32.

Modern Edition

i) “King Mosiah had a gift from God, whereby he could interpret such engravings.” p.176, verse 28.

ii) “Behold the virgin whom thou seest is the mother of the Son of God.” I Nephi 11:18.

iii) “..that the Lamb of God is the Son of the Eternal Father...” I Nephi 13:40.

21. Of the 38 cities in the Book of Mormon, leading archaeologists have not found any remains of any of these alleged cities.

The Smithsonian Institute in Washington states:

“There is no correspondence whatever between archaeological sites and cultures as revealed by scientific investigations, and as recorded in the Book of Mormon... Thus far no iron, steel, brass, gold and silver coins, metal, swords, breastplates, arm shields, armour, horses and chariots, or silk have ever been found in pre-colonial archaeological sites.” Kingdom of the Cults, W. Martin, p.162.

22. The testimony of the 3 witnesses which appears at the front of the Book of Mormon (Oliver Cowdery, David Whitmer, and Martin Harris) declares that:

“an angel of God came down from heaven, and he brought and laid before our eyes, that we beheld and saw the plates, and the engraving thereon...”

Martin Harris denied to Professor Anthon that he had actually seen the plates, but that he only saw them “with the eye of faith.”

Note: All three of these witnesses later apostasized from the Mormon faith, and were described by Mormon contemporaries as thieves and counterfeiters.

23. Polygamy is forbidden by God in Jacob 2:27, yet it was practised by Smith and Brigham Young, and permitted by “Doctrines and Covenants”, section 132, v.32,34.

“... hearken to the word of the Lord: For there shall not any man among you have save it be one wife; and concubines he shall have none.” Jacob 2:27.

Conclusion:

Thurlow Weed, who was the editor of the “Rochester Telegram” newspaper, wrote that Smith approached him in 1825, two years before the supposed possession of the golden plates, with a view to publishing the Book of Mormon. At this time he claimed to have the first chapter written.

Question: Why do Mormons continue to circulate the discredited Book of Mormon?

Answer: Joseph Smith, to the Mormons, is the prophet of God, and the Book of Mormon is his symbol. Discredit the Book, and you discredit Joseph Smith. Mormons' authoritative scripture consists of:

- a) The King James Bible "insofar as it is correctly translated".
- b) Doctrine and Covenants.
- c) The Pearl of Great Price.
- d) The Book of Mormon.

Mormons must be willing to face the facts, admit that they have been deceived, and leave the Mormon church. Truth and one's eternal salvation are more important than remaining loyal to a living prophet and to a false church. Mormons, pluck up the courage to honestly seek the truth in the Bible with your mind and not with your feelings. Swallow your pride and come to Jesus Christ alone for salvation, not trusting your baptism or good works or the Mormon religion.

Reject Mormon revelations of:

- a) The acceptance of new scripture. The Bible is able to make "the man of God perfect (complete), thoroughly furnished unto all good works." II Timothy 3:16,17. See II Peter 1:3,4.
- b) Individual, personal, supernatural revelations: "Woe unto the foolish prophets, that follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing." Ezekiel 13:3.
"that prophesy lies in my name....they are the prophets of the deceit of their own heart" Jeremiah 23:25,26.
"they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of naught, and the deceit of their heart." Jeremiah 14:14.

Q: Mormons, when you prophesy, can you prove that you are speaking from God, or does it come from your heart, or from the devil?

Q: If you can make up prophecies, so can everybody. Where does this lead you to? Confusion.

III. FALSE PROPHECIES OF JOSEPH SMITH.

A cultist looks to his leader to decide truth for him. Joseph Smith is the Mormon's only basis of religious authority. They believe that he is a prophet of God.

The only issue which Mormons are not well-prepared to discuss, is the issue of Joseph Smith's claim to be a true prophet of God. This issue is not in their manual.

A Mormon missionary is trained to give a testimony in which he states:

"I testify by the Spirit of God that I know that Joseph Smith was a prophet of God, and that the Book of Mormon is the Word of God."

Q1: How do you know that he was a prophet of God?

Mormon: Because God spoke to him.

Q2: How do you know that God spoke to him?

Mormon: Because he was a prophet of God.

Q3: This is circular reasoning, which is not valid. How do you know that he was a prophet to whom God spoke?

Mormon: I got on my knees and prayed for God to show me if Joseph Smith was His prophet, and if the Book of Mormon was inspired. Now I have a burning feeling in my heart that these things are true."

Q4: You don't determine truth by a burning feeling in your heart, but by the Word of God.

The Bible says, "He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool." Proverbs 28:26.

"The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?" Jeremiah 17:9.

Mormon: What do you feel about the Book of Mormon?

Note: They try to direct you to your feelings in order to keep you from thinking about the issues.

Q5: We can test Joseph Smith's claim to be a prophet of God by testing if his prophecies all came true. Deuteronomy 18:20-22 states that if someone claims to be a prophet of God, but his predictions fail to happen, then this person is a false prophet.

Repeat this logic to the Mormon until he understands it.

Q6: When the prophecies of Joseph Smith are examined, it can be proven that he was a false prophet.

Note: Mormons are not trained to deal with Smith's prophecies. Mormon leaders discourage members from studying his false prophecies. Keep to this subject.

Smith's false prophecies are not mistakes. We all make mistakes, but most of us never claim to be a "prophet of God" who speaks "inspired revelations." Be prepared for the Mormons' "pat answers."

a) Mormon: Smith never made any prophecies.

You: Doctrines and Covenants, and Pearl of Great Price record many of his prophecies.

b) Mormon: Smith was only giving his personal opinion. He wasn't speaking as a prophet.

You: Each prophecy in Doctrines and Covenants is a numbered and dated revelation from God. Smith's predictions begin with "Thus says the Lord", and full inspiration is claimed for each one.

c) Mormon: If Smith was a false prophet, so was Moses. Didn't he predict he would lead Israel into the Promised Land? Yet he died beforehand.

You: Moses never prophesied that he would enter the land.

We aim to convert Mormons to Christ, and to prevent people from becoming Mormons. Therefore, just one false prophecy would reveal Smith to be a false prophet, because God's prophets never give false prophecies. Smith was either a prophet of God, or one of the biggest frauds this world has ever seen.

Consider these 11 false prophecies of Joseph Smith, showing him to be a false prophet:

False Prophecy 1: New York, Albany and Boston have not been destroyed for rejecting the Mormon message.

Doctrines and Covenants 84, p.141,142.

114: "Nevertheless, let the bishop go unto the city of New York, also to the city of Albany, and also to the city of Boston, and warn the people of those cities with the sound of the gospel, with a loud voice, of the desolation and utter abolishment which await them if they do reject these things."

115. "For if they do reject these things the hour of their judgment is near, and their house shall be left unto them desolate."

This false prophecy was given in 1832 that these cities desolation and utter abolishment was near. 187 years have passed and these cities remain unharmed. This makes Joseph Smith a false prophet. Reject him.

False Prophecy 2: The earth did not reel to and fro like a drunken man "not many days" after Dec. 27, 1832.

Doctrines and Covenants 88, p.150:

87: "For not many days hence and the earth shall tremble and reel to and fro as a drunken man: and the sun shall hide his face, and shall refuse to give light; and the moon shall be bathed in blood; and the stars shall become exceeding angry; and shall cast themselves down as a fig that falleth from off a fig tree."

From 1832 to 2019 are 68,300 days. Many days have elapsed since 1832 and these events prophesied by Smith have not yet happened. The phrase "not many days hence" makes Smith a false prophet.

False Prophecy 3: Bloodshed in South Carolina did not lead to Christ's Second Coming (v.12). Christ did not come in 1890, when Smith would have been age 85. (v.15,17)

Doctrines and Covenants 130, p.238.

12. "I prophesy, in the name of the Lord God, that the commencement of the difficulties which will cause much bloodshed previous to the coming of the Son of Man, will be in South Carolina." 15. "Joseph, my son, if thou livest until thou art 85 years old, thou shalt see the face of the Son of Man..."

False prophecy 4: The wicked of this generation were not swept away violently. Nor did the lost tribes of Israel return from the north country down to America.

History of the Church, 1833, p.315.

“And now I am prepared to say by the authority of Jesus Christ that not many years shall pass away before the United States shall present such a scene of bloodshed as has not a parallel in the history of our nation; pestilence, hail, famine, and earthquake will sweep the wicked of this generation from off the face of the land, to open and prepare the way for the return of the lost tribes of Israel from the north country. The people of the Lord, those who have complied with the... ..and flee to Zion, before the overflowing scourge overtake you, for there are those now living upon the earth whose eyes shall not be closed in death until they see all these things, which I have spoken, fulfilled. Remember these things: call upon the Lord while He is near, and seek Him while He may be found, is the exhortation of your unworthy servant.

[Signed] JOSEPH SMITH, JUN.”

Q: Did those living in 1833 see with their own eyes the destruction of the wicked, and the return of the lost tribes of Israel from the North Country? No.

False Prophecy 5: Smith prophesied in 1835 that Christ’s return would be in 56 years. Did Christ return in 1891?

“On the 14th of Feb. 1835, Joseph Smith said that God had revealed to him that the coming of Christ would be within 56 years, which being added to 1835 shows that before 1891 and the 14th of Feb., the Saviour of the world would make his appearance again upon the earth and the winding up scene take place. In connection with this event, was related by my brother Dimick Huntington, the fact that when Joseph and Hyrum Smith submitted in their feelings to consent to give themselves up to the state mob at Nauvoo, Illinois, after they had passed the Mississippi River. Joseph said “If they shed my blood it shall shorten this work 10 years”. That taken from 1891 would reduce the time to 1881, which if the true time within which the Saviour should come must be crowded into 6 years.”

This excerpt is taken from the Journal of O.B. Huntington (Vol. 2, p.129).

What does this false prophecy make Joseph Smith? A false prophet!

Note: When SDA William Miller prophesied that on 3rd April, 1843, Christ would come in glory, and the end of the world would come, what did Joseph Smith accuse Miller of being, when it did not happen?

Joseph Smith says of Miller in History of the Church, 3 April 1843:

“Monday, April 3- Miller’s day of judgment has arrived, but it is too pleasant for false prophets.”

Smith said “I prophesy in the name of the Lord God, and let it be written- the Son of Man will not come in the clouds of heaven till I am 85 years old.”

History of the Church, April 1843, p.336.

False Prophecy 6: Smith prophesied that the lost ten tribes have lived for 2500 years in the Arctic regions. Journal of Discourses, p.68:

“I do not know how much before the ten tribes will come from the north; but after Zion is built in Jackson County, and after the Temple is built upon that spot of ground where the corner stone was laid in 1831; after the glory of God in the form of a cloud by day shall rest upon that Temple, and by night the shining of a flaming fire will fill the whole heavens round about; after every dwelling place upon Mount Zion shall be clothed upon as with a pillar of fire by night, and a cloud by day, about that period of time, the ten tribes will be heard of, away in the north, a great company, as Jeremiah says, coming down from the northern regions, coming to sing in the height of the latter day Zion. Their souls will be as a watered garden, and they will not sorrow any more at all, as they have been doing during the twenty-five hundred long years they have dwelt in the Arctic regions.”

Is there any scientific or archaeological evidence to indicate that the lost ten tribes of Israel have been living in the Arctic for the last 2500 years? No. What does this make Joseph Smith?

False Prophecy 7: England and all nations did not become involved against the United States during the Civil War.

Smith declared in Doctrines and Covenants, section 87, Mormon p.144, v.1-3:

“At the rebellion of South Carolina... the Southern states will call on other nations, even the nation of Great Britain,... and then war shall be poured out upon all nations... slaves shall rise up against their masters... and that the remnants (Indians)... shall vex the Gentiles with a sore vexation.”

Notice five false prophecies given here by Joseph Smith:

- i) England did not become involved in the Civil War or any war against the United States.
- ii) “All nations” were not involved in the Civil War or any war against the United States.
- iii) The slaves did not rise up against their masters.
- iv) The remnants (Indians) were themselves vexed by the Gentiles, being defeated in war and confined to reservations.
- v) Joseph Smith did not possess the house he built at Nauvoo “for ever and ever.” Doctrines and Covenants Section 124,v22,23,59. It was destroyed after Smith’s death & Mormons moved to Utah.

False Prophecy 8: The Moon is not inhabited by 6 foot high men dressing like Quakers.

The Young Woman’s Journal, p.263, 4. O.B.Huntington quotes Smith:

“... to prove Joseph Smith to be a prophet. As far back as 1837, I know that he said the moon was inhabited by men and women the same as this earth... and that they live generally to near the age of 1000 years.

He described the men as averaging near six feet in height, and dressing quite uniformly in something near the Quaker style ... I was told that I should preach the gospel to the inhabitants of the moon.”

Q: Mormon, do you really believe that people like Quakers live on the moon?

“Every star that we see is a world and is inhabited as this world is peopled. The Sun, Moon and stars are inhabited.”
Hyrum Smith, April 27, 1843.

From “George Leub’s Nauvoo Journal”, BYU Studies, Vol. 18, No. 2, Winter 1978.

Brigham Young claimed that the Sun was inhabited:

“So it is with regard to the inhabitants of the Sun. Do you think it is inhabited? I rather think it is. Do you think there is any life there? No question of it, it was not made in vain.”
Journal of Discourses, Vol. XIII, p.271.

False Prophecy 9: Joseph Smith said that a Mormon temple and city would be built in Independence (Zion), Missouri, in his own generation in 1832.

This lot is marked by a plaque. If there is no temple on this temple lot, and the 1832 generation has passed away, what does this make Joseph Smith to be? A false prophet.

v3: “... which city shall be built, beginning at the temple lot, which is appointed by the finger of the Lord, in the western boundaries of the State of Missouri, and dedicated by the Lord of Joseph Smith, Jr. v.4: “which temple shall be reared in this generation.”
Doctrines and Covenants , Section 84, p.135, v.3,4. 805

Q: Is there a Mormon city and temple in Independence, Missouri? No.

Has the 1832 generation passed away? Yes.

Does this make Joseph Smith a false prophet? Yes.

False Prophecy 10: Smith prophesied in 1838 that David Patten would go on a missionary tour with himself and 12 others in 1839.

The only problem with this prophecy is that Patten was shot and killed in October 1838, thus falsifying Smith's prophecy. What does this make Smith? A false prophet.

Doctrines and Covenants, Section 114, p.208.

SECTION 114

“Revelation given to Joseph Smith the Prophet, at Far West, Missouri, April 17, 1838. Directions to David W. Patten- Positions occupied by the unfaithful to be given to others. 1. Verily thus saith the Lord: It is wisdom in my servant David W. Patten, that he settle up all his business as soon as he possibly can, and make a disposition of his merchandise, that he may perform a mission unto me next spring, in company with others, even twelve including myself, to testify of my name and bear glad tidings unto all the world.”

Patten's death is recorded as follows:

“In the pursuit, one of the mob fled from behind a tree, wheeled, and shot Captain Patten, who instantly fell, mortally wounded, having received a large ball in his bowels.”
History of the Church, Oct. 1838, p.171.

Mormons claim that Patten fulfilled Smith's prophecy by being a missionary to the spirit world. This is wrong because Patten was to go with Smith and other human companions. Patten's companions did not go with him to the spirit world that Spring in 1839.

False Prophecy 11: II Nephi 10:7 says that Jews will first believe in Christ, then get restored to the land of Israel.

“When the day cometh that they shall believe in me, that I am Christ, THEN have I covenanted with their fathers that they shall be restored in the flesh, upon the earth, unto the lands of their inheritance.”

This is a false prophecy, because today the Jews are back in their land, but they still do not believe in Jesus Christ.

Conclusion:

Just one false prophecy is enough to identify Joseph Smith as a false prophet. We have seen 11 out of over 60 false prophecies that he made proving that he was not a prophet of God.

Since Smith is a fraud, fake and liar, then the whole Mormon religion is proven to be false.

Q: What should the Mormon do?

Answer: Renounce all Mormon doctrines, baptisms, priesthoods, and relationships. Reject the Book of Mormon, Pearl of Great Price, and Doctrines and Covenants as false. Turn to the Bible alone as the final authority. Once all reliance on Joseph Smith is abandoned, receive and rely totally on Jesus Christ alone for salvation. Deuteronomy 13:1-5 states that false prophets must be put to death. God allows Mormon false doctrines to test people to prove if they love God with all their heart and soul.

See also Deuteronomy 18:20-22, “That prophet shall die”.

IV. FALSE MORMON DEFINITIONS OF BIBLE TERMS.

When Mormons use a Christian term, they reject the Biblical definition of that term, and they substitute a false, non-Christian definition in its place.

Consider these false Mormon redefinitions:

1. Christianity = a false, damnable, apostate religion.
2. God = one of many self-progressing bodily deities. He was formerly a man, a finite creature.
Bible refutation:
 - i) “Before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me.” Isaiah 43:10.
“I am the first, and I am the last, and beside me there is no God. Is there a God beside me? Yea, there is no God; I know not any.” Isaiah 44:6,8.
“I am the Lord, and there is none else, there is no God beside me.” v.5.
“There is none beside me. I am the Lord, and there is none else.” v.6.
“There is no God else beside me;” v.21. Isaiah 45:5,6,21.
 - ii) Mormons teach that each god is evolving:
“For I am the Lord, I change not.” Malachi 3:6.
3. Jesus Christ = a self-progressing deity (Jehovah of Old Testament) and the first spirit child of Elohim and his wife, Mary.

Mormon Jesus.

Biblical Jesus Christ.

- i) A created being,
the brother of Lucifer.
 - ii) Earned his own salvation by good works.
 - iii) One of many gods.
(Exodus 20:3- no other gods).
 - iv) Conceived by physical sex with Mary (Matthew 1:23 a virgin shall be with child).
 - v) A married polygamist.
- i) Uncreated God
(John 1:1,3; Micah 5:2, I Timothy 3:16).
 - ii) Requires no salvation.
(II Corinthians 5:21- “who knew no sin”).
 - iii) Second person of the one Godhead.
 - iv) Conceived by the Holy Spirit overshadowing Mary.
 - v) Unmarried.
4. Holy Ghost = A man with a spiritual body of matter.
“He shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever.. and shall be in you.”
John 14:16,17.
 5. Trinity = Tritheistic. Father, Son and Holy Spirit are 3 separate deities.
“Baptising them in the NAME (not names) of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.”
Matthew 28:19.
 6. The Gospel = Mormon theology.
“I declare unto you the gospel... Christ died for our sins... he was buried, and he rose again the third day.” I Corinthians 15:1-4.
 7. Born again = Water baptism into Mormonism.
“But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God.” John 1:12.
See “Answers” Chapter 96, p.455 entitled “Baptismal Regeneration.”
We are born again by receiving Jesus Christ as our Saviour, without any good works.
 8. Atonement = God’s provision for an individual to earn their true salvation “by obedience to the laws and ordinances of the Gospel.” (Articles of Faith, 3).
“Not of works, lest any man should boast.” Ephesians 2:9.
See “Answers” Chapter 91 entitled “Good Works don’t save us.”
 9. True salvation, eternal life, redemption = Exaltation to Godhead in the highest part of the celestial kingdom is based on individual good works and personal merit. Exaltation involves ruling and sexual procreation of spirit children.
Reply: Satan’s third lie to Eve was “ye shall be as gods.” Genesis 3:5.
Becoming a god appealed to Eve’s pride and also to Mormons’ pride.
We will never become a god, but will always be human, yes glorified humans in heaven.

10. The Fall = A spiritual step upward permitting physical bodies of children to be procreated. This is false, because it was already God's plan for man to reproduce "after their own kind."
11. Heaven = 3 kingdoms of glory. This is false because the 3 heavens are the atmosphere, space and God's throne. II Corinthians 12:2.
12. Hell = generally like purgatory; possibly eternal for a very few such as apostate Mormons. False, because Christ "purged our sins." Hebrews 1:3.
13. The Scriptures = The Book of Mormon, Doctrines and Covenants, the Pearl of Great Price; the King James Bible as far as it is translated correctly. (Articles of Faith, 8).
False, because of mistakes in Book of Mormon, Doctrines and Covenants, the Pearl of Great Price.
Question: How did Mormons reach these false definitions?
Answer: Because they did not rely on the Bible to define its terms. They relied on revelations from the spirit world of demons.

V. QUESTIONS FOR MORMONS:

Q1: How can Joseph Smith be a true prophet of God when he fails the test of a true prophet in Deuteronomy 13:1-5, 18:20-22, by making 11 clear false prophecies?

Q2: What does your conscience and common sense tell you when you understand the 23 mistakes in the Book of Mormon discussed earlier?

Q3: Does it worry you that a supposed perfect Book of Mormon should require many major changes and 3000 minor changes from the original 1830 edition?

Q4: How do you explain the 27,000 words in phrases plagiarised from the King James Bible into the Book of Mormon when the KJV was not written in 570 BC?

Q5: Why has no archaeological evidence ever been found to support the Book of Mormon's alleged cities, persons, silk, coins, metals, wars, weapons, kings or palaces in North or South America?

"The Smithsonian Institute has never used the Book of Mormon in any way as a scientific guide."

This is a quote from a standard Smithsonian letter sent out to Mormon enquirers.

The Bureau of American Ethnology writes: "There is no evidence whatever of any migration from Israel to America, and likewise no evidence that pre-Columbian Indians had any knowledge of Christianity and the Bible."

Prominent Mormon Archaeologist, Thomas Stewart Ferguson, quit the Mormon church, and repudiated Joseph Smith because of the weight of archaeological evidence against Mormonism.

Q6: How do you explain plagiarisms in the Book of Mormon taken from Ethan Smith's "View of the Hebrews (1823), a book that was available to Joseph Smith?

Q7: Why does the Book of Mormon conflict with hundreds of truths in the Bible?

Q8: How can early Mormon prophets deny and contradict modern Mormon prophets, and vice versa?

Q9: Does it worry you that the Book of Mormon was translated by occult means?

Emma Smith, one of Joseph's many wives, confesses:

"I frequently wrote day after day... he sitting with his face buried in his hat, with a stone in it, and dictating hour after hour."

Q10: Why, after 25 years, has the Mormon church never responded or answered to Jerald and Sandra Tanner's research? Write to them at: Utah Lighthouse ministry, Box 1884, Salt Lake City, Utah, 84110.

Q11 Why is it that even the highest Mormons do not know for certain where they are going when they die?

Q12: If you died tonight, do you know 100% for sure if you would go to live with Jesus Christ forever in heaven?

Would you like to be sure? Then read "Answers" Chapter 17 on "How to lead a person to Christ", and receive Jesus Christ as your only Saviour, renouncing all your Mormon beliefs today.

GET OUT OF THE MORMON CHURCH TODAY!

I. MORMON BLASPHEMIES and HERESIES ABOUT GOD

We should reject the Mormon religion for their blasphemous heresies such as:

1. “God the Father is simply a man who achieved godhead.” (History of the Church, Vol 6, p 305).
Bible: God the Father has always been God ‘from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God’ Ps 90:2
2. “God the Father has Eternal wives through whom spirit children have been & continue to be born.” (Mormon Doctrine, 1966, p 516; The Seer, Orson Pratt, p 37, 158).
Bible: God has no wife and stands alone as God: ‘I am God, and there is none like me.’ Isaiah 46:9
3. “Christ, before his earthly ministry, was the first spirit child born to the Heavenly Father and Mother.” (Mormon Doctrine, p 278, 589).
Bible: Christ is the Eternal God, not the product of sexual conception:
“Whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting.” (Micah 5:2).
4. “God the Father in His glorified physical body had sexual intercourse with the virgin Mary that resulted in the conception of the physical Christ.” (Mormon Doctrine, p 547; Journal of Discourses, Vol 1, p 51; Vol 4, p 218).
Bible: The physical Jesus Christ was conceived supernaturally, non-sexually, by the Holy Spirit in the body of the virgin Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).
5. “Satan (Lucifer) was originally the spirit brother of Christ.” (The Gospel through the Ages, p 15).
Bible: Satan was originally a created angel who led a rebellion against God in heaven.
Christ is the Creator: ‘All things were made by him.’ (John 1:3). Satan is a created angel:
“in the day that thou was created,..thou art the anointed cherub.” Ezekiel 28:11-19 especially v13,14
6. “Jesus became a god, equal to the Father, after his death, ascension and exaltation.” (The Gospel through the Ages, 1958, p.21).
Bible: Jesus Christ presented Himself to men as the Eternal God during His earthly ministry:
“he said that God was His Father, making Himself equal with God.” (John 5:18);
“I and my Father are one.” (John 10:30).
7. “God Himself is ever progressing upward in knowledge, wisdom and power.” (Journal of Discourses, Vol 1, p 93; Vol 6, p. 20).
Bible: God already possesses eternal wisdom, knowledge and power, and so never changes:
“Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty” (Rev. 4:8). “his understanding is infinite.” Psalm 147:5.
8. “God the Father has a flesh and bones body.” (Doctrine and Covenants, 13.22).
Bible: God the Father is a Spirit (John 4:24). ‘God is not a man, that he should lie.’ (Numbers 23:19)
9. “The Father, Son, Holy Spirit are 3 distinct gods.” (Teachings of the Prophet Joseph Smith, p 37, 372)
Bible: There is only one God, but 3 distinct persons in the Godhead:
“Baptising them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.’ (Matthew 28:19)
“The Lord our God is one Lord.” (Deut. 6:4).

II. MORMON HERESIES ABOUT SALVATION

1. “Mormon ‘salvation’ comes through a combination of faith, baptism in the church and works.” (Mormon Doctrine, p.669-70; Ensign, Nov. 1982, p.61).
Bible: Bible salvation comes by grace through personal faith in Jesus Christ as Saviour, “not of yourselves it is the gift of God, not of works lest any man should boast.” Ephesians 2:8,9.
2. “The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (Mormons) restored the true gospel to the earth through Joseph Smith, and the true gospel is found only in it today.” (Mormon Doctrine, p 334; Teachings of the Prophet Joseph Smith, p 119).
Bible: a) Christ promised that true churches would never disappear from the earth:
“I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.” (Matthew 16:18);
“Lo I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.” (Matthew 28:20).
b) Paul warned us to reject any gospel other than faith in Christ alone for salvation. Paul warns that “works” based gospels are false and are curled by God: “There be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ (v.7). But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.” (Galatians 1:7,8).

3. “The Gospel includes “all the laws, principles, rites, ordinances, acts, powers, authorities and keys necessary to exalt men in the highest heaven hereafter.”” (Mormon Doctrine, p 331).
Bible: “I declare unto you the gospel. . . that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures; and that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day.” (I Corinthians 15:1-4);
“Knowing that a man in not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ.” (Galatians 2:16). The Gospel does not include laws (Romans 3:19-24), ordinances (Colossians 2:14,17) or works (Titus 3:5-7 “Not by works which we have done . . .”).
4. “Eternal life can only be achieved through obedience to the Mormon church, and having one’s marriage sealed in a temple ceremony by the Mormon priesthood.” (Mormon Doctrine, p 411; Journal of Discourses, Vol 11, p 221).
Bible: “He that has the Son has life, and he that has not the Son of God has not life.” I John 5:12

III. MORMON HERESIES ABOUT MANKIND

1. “Man has the potential of becoming God, just as Christ did; man is king of kings and Lord of Lords in embryo.” (Times and Seasons, August 1, 1844; Journal of Discourses, Vol 10, p 223; History of the Church, Vol 6, p 306; Doctrine and Covenants, 132.20).
Bible: a) God alone is and will be God:
“before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me.” (Isaiah 43:10).
“I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me.” (Isaiah 46:9)
b) Satan’s first lie to mankind was that “ye shall be as gods.” (Genesis 3:5).
It worked against Eve, so Satan uses it through Mormonism today.
2. “Adam’s fall in the Garden of Eden was a fall “upward” that was not sinful, but rather necessary for the propagation of the human race.” (Journal of Discourses, Vol 13, p 145; Vol 10, p 312; Pearl of Great Price, Moses 5:10-12; Doctrines of Salvation, Vol 1, p 114-115).
Bible: a) Adam’s sin in Eden caused spiritual and physical death for all persons (Genesis 3:16-19) “by one man sin entered into the world & death by sin;& so death passed upon all men” Rom 5:12
b) Propagation of the human race was certain without needing the fall:
“God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply...” (Genesis 1:28).
3. “Each person’s essence, his intelligence, has always existed and so was never created. Man is as eternal as God Himself.” (Journal of Discourses, X, p 5; VI, p 6; Doctrine and Covenants, 93.29; The Plan of Salvation (booklet) p 3).
Bible: All men are a creation of God and had no existence before conception. God asked Job, “Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth?” (Job 38:4).
“All my members were written, . . . when as yet there was none of them.” (Psalm 139:16).
4. “Each person’s spiritual body that clothed his intelligence in the pre-existent state was formed by the sexual union of the Father and one of His spirit wives.” (The Seer, Orson Pratt, p 37).
Bible: Man did not pre-exist, and the Father had no wives.

Questions: 1) Did God the Father have sex with Mary to produce Jesus Christ? (I.4) Bible support?

2) Do you think God the Father was once a man who later achieved godhead? (I.1)

3) Do you think God the Father has Eternal wives which procreate spirit children? (I.2) Bible proof?

4) Do you think God is ever progressing upward in knowledge, wisdom and power? (I.7). Bible proof?

5) Do you think Jesus became a god after his ascension? (I.6)? Bible proof?

6) Do you think Satan was originally the spirit brother of Christ? (I.5). Bible Proof?

7) Do you think salvation comes by faith, Mormon baptism & works (II.1) or by faith in Christ alone?

8) What is the true gospel according to I Cor. 15:1-4 (II.3)? Did Mormons restore it or add to it?

9) What does God say about those preaching another gospel in Galatians 1:6-9? Is God’s curse on LDS?

10) How do we get eternal life according to Mormonism? (II.4). How do we get it according to I John 5:12?

11) Does man have the potential to become God? (III.1). What was Satan’s first lie to Eve/mankind? (Genesis 3:5).

Conclusion: Reject and leave the Mormon church today. These blasphemies are from the mind of Satan.

115. 120 Bible passages referring to Jehovah that, in the New Testament are quoted and applied to Christ.

This proves that Jesus Christ is Jehovah God the Son of the New Testament.

Ask: In view of many Old Testament verses referring to Jehovah, which are applied to Jesus Christ in the New Testament, what does this tell you about who Jesus Christ is?

	Scripture Testimony to "JHVH"	Scripture Testimony to Christ
1. Honour each equally	John 5:23 "That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father . He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him."
2. I AM	Exodus 3:13-15 " What is his name? ...Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you this is my name forever. "	John 8:24,58 Jesus said, "if ye believe not that I AM he , ye shall die in your sins" (v.24). Jesus said, "Before Abraham was, I AM. " (v.58).
3. Mighty God	Habakkuk 1:12-13 "O LORD (Jehovah),..... O Mighty God... " Isaiah 10:20,21 & Jeremiah 32:18 "....the Mighty God, Jehovah.... " Psalm 50:1 "....The mighty God, "	Isaiah 9:6 "Unto us a child is born, unto us a Son is given,....His name shall be called The Mighty God. "
4. Throne	Psalm 45:6,7 " Thy throne O God is for ever and ever: the sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre"	Hebrews 1:8 "But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God , is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom."
5. Accepted Worship	Exodus 34:14 "Thou shalt worship no other god. " I Chronicles 16:29 " Worship the LORD (Jehovah) in the beauty of holiness."	Hebrews 1:6 "When he bringeth the firstbegotten into the world, he saith: let all the angels of God worship him (Jesus)." Matthew 28:9 "They came and held him by the feet, & worshipped him."
6. Creator of Heaven and Earth	Psalm 102:24-27 "I said, O my God,.....of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the works of thy hands. "	Hebrews 1:10-12 "And (to the Son), thou Lord (JHVH) in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thy hands. "
7. Creator of mankind	Malachi 2:10 "Hath not one God created us?" Proverbs 16:4 "Jehovah hath made all things FOR himself." Isa 44:24 "I am Jehovah that maketh all things ; that stretcheth forth the heavens alone , that spreads abroad the earth by myself "	Colossians 1:16 "By him (Christ) were all things created that are in heaven, and that are in earth . . . all things were created by him, and for him." John 1:3 " All things were made by him."
8. Shepherd	Psalm 80:1 "Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel . . . thou that dwellest between the cherubims." Genesis 49:24 "The mighty God of Jacob; (from thence is the shepherd , the stone of Israel)." 116. What You Will Not Be Told At The Door By the JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES

The Jehovah's Witness (or Watchtower Bible and tract society) have made the following predictions which appear in their own literature:

1. That Jesus would return by 1874. when Jesus failed to appear, the Witnesses claimed that it was an unseen, spiritual return. (Watchtower, Feb. 1881, p 188).
2. That Jesus would return in 1914 with the Battle of Armageddon ending in October of 1914 (Zion's Watchtower, Jan 15, 1892, p.21-23).
3. That with the end of 1914, what God calls Babylon, and what men call Christendom will pass away. (Thy Kingdom Come, 1895, p.153).
4. When the prophecies of 1914 failed, the new date of 1918 was set for God's wholesale destruction of the church members by the millions. (Finished Mystery, 1917, p.485).
5. With the failure of this prophecy, a new date of 1925 was set. Therefore we may confidently expect that 1925 will mark the return of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob..." (Millions Now Living, 1920, p.89-90).
6. With the expected arrival of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob "any day", a house was built for them in 1930 in San Diego, California and called "Beth Sarim" meaning "House of the Princes". By 1942 it was still "held in trust for the occupancy of those princes on their return". (The New World, 1942, p.104).
7. In 1941 they claimed that the world was nearing the end and facing "the remaining months before Armageddon". (Watchtower, Sep 15, 1941, 288).
8. The fall of 1975 was to mark the beginning of Christ's 1000 year, literal visible reign on earth. (Awake! Oct 8, 1968, p.14).
In March 1968, "there are only about ninety months left before 6000 years of man's existence on earth is completed". (Kingdom Ministry, March 1968, p.4).

What is presented above is not slander, attempted persecution, or a misrepresentation of anyone's position. These are true and factual comments made in official Watchtower publications on the stated pages. Regardless of what you may or may not believe, the FALSE nature of these prophecies should be evident to all but those who choose to deliberately ignore the FACTS. God says:

"But the prophet which shall presume to speak a word in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or that shall speak in the name of other gods, even that prophet shall die. And if thou say in thine heart, how shall we know the word which the LORD hath not spoken? When a prophet speaketh in the name of the LORD, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the LORD hath not spoken, but the prophet hath spoken presumptuously, thou shall not be afraid of him." (Deuteronomy 18:20-22).

A TRUE PROPHET of God will be 100% accurate in his predictions. Truth is not a light that gets brighter with time or an element that gets truer and truer. Truth is truth from the very beginning. The Watchtower Society has yet to make ONE correct prediction. Moral uprightness, sincerity and zeal do not necessarily indicate the presence of TRUTH.

JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES and THE WATCHTOWER ORGANISATION

Introduction:

The Jehovah's Witnesses group was started in the 1870's by Charles Taze Russell, who drew ideas from Seventh Day Adventism and Christadelphianism. The Watchtower magazine was first published in 1879. Through door-to-door proselytising and authoritarian leadership, they have grown to about 3.9 million members by 1991.

From 1970 a million JW's resigned or were disfellowshipped.

The Watchtower Society's Headquarters are at 25 Columbia Heights, Brooklyn, New York. It is ruled by a group of 12 men headed by a president who rules for life with absolute power. These presidents have been:

- Charles Russell (1874-1916)
- Joseph Rutherford (1916-1942)
- Nathan Knorr (1942-1977)
- Fred Franz (1977-1992)
- Milton Henschel (1992-)

Fred Franz's nephew, Raymond Franz, has left the organisation. He wrote the book 'Crisis of Conscience' exposing the group as having:

- 1) Antibiblical teachings
- 2) Given many false prophecies
- 3) Changed its teachings and policies
- 4) Lied and covered up information
- 5) Destroyed many of its members' lives.

1. WHAT ATTRACTS PEOPLE TO JOIN THE WATCHTOWER?

Answer:

- 1) Many people look for answers to life's problems and for divine guidance.
- 2) Many are frightened about the future.
- 3) Many are tired of the lack of moral values in society.
- 4) Many like the dedication and commitment of the JW people.
- 5) Many in mainline churches have never been taught the Bible by their pastors, and they desire to know it better, so they agree to a JW Bible study, which soon gets switched to a Watchtower book study.

2. THREE ASSUMPTIONS FORM THE JW WORLD VIEW

- 1) Divine guidance comes only through the WT Society. This leads JW's to live under a dictatorial, authoritarian organisation that suppresses independent thinking in the name of God. Disagreement with the WT is seen as satanic and disagreeing with God.
- 2) JW's alone have the truth about God. JW's alone claim to be the people of God. They hence feel exclusive, unique and superior.
- 3) JW's are told that every other church in Christendom is false and controlled by Satan. JW's view Christians as a hated enemy.

JW's allow human reason to judge the Word of God. Any Bible teachings, such as the Trinity, hell or the personality of the Holy Spirit, which to them seem "unreasonable", they think that it cannot be true. Just because man can't understand something, doesn't mean that thing is false. For example, scientists had long believed that light was either "waves" or "particles", yet now it has been proven to be both "waves" and "particles". No scientist can explain this fact fully, but it is proven and must be accepted. So it is that the Bible teaches that Jesus Christ is both 100% God and 100% man. We may not understand it or think it reasonable, but we must believe the Scriptures that teach this without changing them.

3. HOW TO HANDLE A JW WITNESSING ENCOUNTER

- 1) Encourage him or her to thoroughly examine their beliefs. “People should examine all the evidence by examining both sides of a matter.” (Awake, 22 October 1973, p.6). Say, “May we examine the Scriptures and test both religious beliefs by the Bible?”
- 2) Speak kindly and respectfully as Paul did to the Athenians.
- 3) Deal thoroughly with one or two issues each meeting. Make another appointment for later. Instead of jumping from verse to verse, slow them down to discuss each passage thoroughly. Ask: What does Jesus being the Son of God mean? How Jesus is God.
- 4) Ask questions to help him discover problems in Watchtower theology for himself, in an unemotional, non-threatening way.
- 5) Undermine WT authority by showing their false prophecies, and how they changed their position on key doctrines.

4. WATCHTOWER ATTRIBUTES OF GOD

- 1) The WT god is not omnipresent. “The Watchtower god is not omnipresent, for he is spoken of as having a location. His throne in heaven.” (Aid to Bible Understanding, p 665)
- 2) The WT god is not omniscient. JWs feel that for God to possess any attribute which they cannot understand is “illogical”, so they deny Him to be omniscient. They say that God does not know all things past, present, future (Watchtower, 15 July 84, p 4,5)
- 3) WT rejects the Trinity because it is incomprehensible. If the JW discards his limited view of God’s nature, the Bible can be taken at face value.

5. THE WATCHTOWER ORGANISATION

JWs believe that God set up the Watchtower Society as His visible representative on earth.

JWs are constantly reminded that people are utterly unable to know the true meaning of Scripture without the Society and its vast literature.

JWs are expected to obey the WT as the voice of God. (Watchtower, 15 June 57, p 370).

The WT says, “We must recognize not only Jehovah God as our Father, but his organisation as our Mother.” (Watchtower, 1 May 57, p 274).

JWs are not to think for themselves to interpret the Bible. They are to submit their minds to the Watchtower (WT). If a JW disobeys WT instructions, they assume that he is “apostate”, and the punishment is “disfellowshipping”, whereby his WT friends are forbidden to talk to him. This fear of disfellowshipping is one of the WT’s most effective means of keeping members obedient to its teachings.

Some of the verses that the Watchtower twists to ensnare people into its organisation are:

1. Isaiah 43:10 – “Witnesses” of Jehovah?

“Ye are my witnesses, saith Jehovah, and my servant whom I have chosen.”

JWs take this verse to mean that they alone are the only group chosen by God on the earth.

The Correct Bible teaching: Isaiah 43:10 refers only to Israel as witnesses of Jehovah.

They were to declare Jehovah as the only true God to pagan nations in the Law Dispensation from 1500 BC to 33 AD.

“Ye” refers to Jews, not Christians today. To apply it to JWs today is twisting Scripture.

Ask: If JWs are the only true witness for God, and JWs only started in the 1870’s, does this mean that God was without a witness in the world for 1800 years? If so, then God didn’t care for people to have His truth for 1800 years. Notice that in the New Testament, believers are witnesses to Jesus Christ who is Jehovah. For example:

- a) “Ye shall be witnesses unto me.” (Acts 1:8). The disciples became Christ’s (not Jehovah’s) witnesses. They were witnesses of Christ’s bodily, physical, literal resurrection, which is a part of the Gospel (I Corinthians 15:1-4). Belief in Christ’s bodily resurrection is a condition of salvation (Romans 10:9), which JW’s deny.
 - b) “This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses.” (Acts 2:32).
 - c) “Whom God hath raised from the dead; whereof we are witnesses.” (Acts 3:15).
 - d) “And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus.” (Acts 4:33).
 - e) “But God raised him from the dead: And he was seen many days of them which came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses unto the people.” Acts 13:30,31
- Ask: According to these verses, were the early Christians witnesses of Jehovah or witnesses of Jesus Christ?

2. Matthew 24:45-47 - Is the Watchtower “God’s Faithful and Discreet Slave”?

Question: Who is this slave/servant?

Answer:

- i) The WT book “The Harp of God”, 1921, p.239 states: “Without a doubt Pastor Russell filled the office.....and was therefore that wise and faithful servant.”
- ii) WT (15 February, 1981, p.19) says it is the WT organisation: “We cannot find the Scriptural guidance we need outside the “faithful and discreet slave” organisation.”
Ask: How do you explain the WT Society’s change of opinion from this slave being Pastor Russell to the WT organisation? They claim that the “evil slave” in v. 48-51 is apostate Christendom.
- iii) The correct Bible teaching: Jesus compares his disciples to servants who have been put in charge of their Master’s household. Each servant could fulfil his task faithfully or unfaithfully. Faithful servants will be rewarded, and unfaithful servants will be punished at the Lord’s return. This passage refers not to any organisation, but individuals who profess to follow Christ, particularly pastors (I Peter 5:2).

Note: If JW’s read Matthew 25:19-23 and think about it, they would see that Jesus mentions MORE THAN ONE faithful and discreet slave (“the Lord of those servants cometh” v.19). Any faithful Christian shepherd is represented by these faithful slaves.

Ask: Since the WT organisation only started in 1874, did God have no true representatives on earth for 1800 years? Did God not care for his people to understand the Bible for 1800 years? Matthew 28:20 teaches, “Lo, I am with you always even to the end of the age.” This teaches that there would always be followers of Jesus on earth up to the end of the age. This proves the Watchtower wrong in claiming to be the faithful and discreet slave.

3. Acts 8:30, 31 - Do we need the Watchtower to explain the Bible?

Watchtower teaching: “Understandest thou what thou readest? And he said, “How can I except some man guide me?”” (Acts 8:30,31).

The Watchtower Magazine, 1 December 1981, p 27, elevates the WT organisation above the Bible. It makes gaining eternal life depend on following the WT Society.

“Unless we are in touch with the (WT).....we will not progress along the road to life, no matter how much Bible reading we do.” (p.27).

JW’s blindly follow the WT Society wherever it leads. They say that mankind needs the WT Organisation in order to understand Scripture, just as the Ethiopian needed Philip to explain Isaiah 53.

Bible Truth: God gives Bible teachers (Ephesian 4:11) and the Holy Spirit to illuminate, but

- 1) there is no Bible support for an infallible organisation whose infallible views must be accepted by everybody;
- 2) Philip preached directly from Scripture, not from any Watchtower literature;
- 3) The Ethiopian did not have to join and submit to an organisation;
- 4) He rejoiced in Christ when his teacher left, without any sense of loss.
- 5) He had no written New Testament to instruct him like we have today.
- 6) No Watchtower organisation literature followed him.

Ask:

- 1) Where in the Bible does it say that people must join and submit to the interpretations of the WT hierarchical organisation?
- 2) Did Philip use WT literature or did he use Scripture alone?
- 3) If Scripture alone was sufficient for Philip and the Ethiopian, isn't Scripture alone sufficient for us?

4. II Peter 1:20, 21 - No "Private Interpretation".

"No prophecy of the Scripture is of any private interpretation." (v.20).

"Private" means "one's own". "Interpretation" means "unloosing".

No Scripture is of "one's own unloosing" from the context. Peter is not forbidding private study and interpretation. Roman Catholics, Jews and Mormons teach that only the "spiritual leaders" may interpret Scripture, and they use this verse in their defence. Since all Scripture is inspired by the Holy Spirit, it must all "hang together" and no one Scripture should be divorced from the others. An individual cannot of "one's own" choosing "unloose" one verse from other verses on the same subject. You can use the Bible to prove almost anything if you unloose or divorce verses from their proper context, which is exactly the approach used by false teachers. No Scripture will contradict another. The only way heretical teachers can prove their heretical doctrines is by "unloosing" verses from their proper context.

Hence Peter's message in v.20 is that no Scripture is of "one's own unloosing" from the near and far context. That is, no verse will contradict any other verse.

Ask:

- 1) Were the Bereans right to test Paul's teachings by Scripture? (Yes) (Acts 17:11).
- 2) Are you willing to test WT teachings in the light of Scripture alone, not disagreeing with other Scriptures?
- 3) If you find WT teachings that go against what Scripture says, what will you do?

5. I Corinthians 1:10. Is the Watchtower right because of its enforced unity of thought?

"I beseech you.....that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment." v.10.

The WT applies this verse in two ways:

- a) They impose the one set of doctrines on Jews, to give a forced agreement and unity, or Jews will be disfellowshipped.
- b) They use this verse to prove that Jews are the only true Christians because they are completely united in mind and judgment. They boast that they are of "one heart and soul" worldwide, which is not true of Christendom's denominations.

The Correct Bible Teaching: It is a myth to think that a group's absolute unity is proof that they are the only true Christians, and that those who do not have unity are unbelievers. Paul wrote I Corinthians 1:10 because the Corinthians were already disunited on 16 issues.

Ask: Does the divisiveness among the Corinthians mean that they were not Christians? (Paul believed they were Christians in I Corinthians 1:2 “Sanctified in Christ Jesus”). I Corinthians 1:10 does not teach that we are to attain unity by submitting to an organisation. Paul said that we must prove or test all things, and not unquestioningly accept what certain teachers say (I Thess. 5:21), as JWs accept WT theology for fear of being disfellowshipped. This is like Nazi Germany saying that everyone must believe and obey the “organisation” or be disfellowshipped from the world (ie. killed). People are held in the WT organisation by the bondage of fear of being disfellowshipped from God’s kingdom.

Ask: Where in I Corinthians 1:10 does it refer to an organisation or say that unity comes by submitting to an organisation? Paul in Romans 14:2-5 allowed difference of opinion, as long as unity was maintained. “One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.”

Ask: Doesn’t Romans 14:5 teach that it is all right for Christians to differ on some religious issues? Hence, Paul was not saying in I Corinthians 1:10 to do away with all diversity, but to remove their unbrotherly, divisive attitude.

The Watchtower commands JWs to:

- i) Not accept or read religious literature of people they meet. (Watchtower, 1 May 1984, p31)
- ii) Not listen to criticisms of the WT organisation (Watchtower, 15 May 1984, p17).
- iii) Not speak words “expressing criticism of the way the appointed elders are handling matters.” (Watchtower, 15 January 1984, p 16).
- iv) “avoid independent thinking” and to “fight against independent thinking”. (Watchtower, 15 January 1983, p22, 27).

The Bible teaches that we are not to be united by lockstep conformity but by love: “put on charity which is the bond...” (Colossians 3:14)

Note: The WT clearly violates a Bible command in Romans 14:5, 6 on the matter of holy days, or holidays (eg. Christmas, Easter, etc). “He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord”. This verse allows individual Christians the right to observe special days which other Christians may choose not to observe. Yet the JW who observes Christmas, Easter, Mothers Day, etc. is immediately tried and disfellowshipped, being cut off from his friends and family.

6. Impressions of the Watchtower Organisation by Ted Dencher.

1. JWs ask people for a Bible study once a week at whatever time is suitable.
 2. Baptized JWs are considered to be ordained ministers.
 3. JWs frown on any effort or ambition to make something of yourself. You must sell yourself completely to the organisation.
 4. How do people become JWs?
 - a) Their big attraction is a universal Armageddon, coming any day now, when all except JWs will be destroyed (annihilated).
 - b) People with little Bible knowledge, believe everything the WT says. Why? You accept the “faithful and wise servant” of Matthew 24:45, 46 as the “servant of Isaiah” 43:10. You are told this “servant” is the Watchtower Society.
- Once you accept this, then you will accept anything they tell you, because of the authority you are led to believe they have over you.
5. JWs teach that all governments are of the devil. This is wrong from Romans 13:1,4 “The powers that be are ordained of God...He is the minister of God to thee for good”.
 6. JWs deride all other religions for thinking that they are going to heaven. (II Cor 5:1-8).

7. JWs refer to all organised religion as the Babylon whore.
8. JWs allow no individual study outside what the WT permits him to have. He could make no conclusions that the Watchtower has not already arrived at. All private thought is discouraged, and the member soon becomes an automaton.
9. JWs accept the WT organisation as their saviour, because they are taught that the WT organisation will be spared through Armageddon, and you MUST be a part of it to escape destruction.
10. JWs love to misapply Isaiah 1:18 “Come now, and let us reason together, saith the Lord.” This lets them apply human reason to all their conclusions. (See Isaiah 55:7-9)
11. Few people seem able to counteract “JW logic”. This makes it seem all the more true.
12. They say that clergy titles are unbiblical, so they call themselves “servants” (John 15:15).
13. People become JWs because they are impressed with their organisation.
14. Most JWs think nothing of the Lord Jesus Christ. To JWs Christ is only a subordinate to God, and a member of the “theocratic organisation.”
15. The WT Society uses JWs to carry out its worldwide literature campaign.
16. The WT organisation is structured as follows:

Each Kingdom Hall has seven overseers and 2 to 20 area study conductors. With all these eyes on you, it is difficult to maintain individuality, so you just give up.

17. Anything coming from the WT Society is taken as truth, regardless of what it is.

Everything from any other source is falsehood, regardless of what it is.

“WT truth” changes from time to time.

18. C T Russell was a Non-Christian sceptic when he began the WT. He searched the Scriptures from a sceptic’s viewpoint. Russell perjured himself in court and proved himself a fraud, claiming he knew Greek when he could not read the Greek alphabet. His formal education ended at age 14. The JW claims to be a scholarly student of the Bible. At best he is a devout student of Watchtower publications.

19. Ted Dencher (ex-JW) said: “I knew I was a sinner. I knew that all these works had not removed a single sin. I was the same sinner as I had always been. I placed all hopes on the organisation. Very rarely were we challenged at the door by people who said that Christ has removed our sins by His shed blood, or we would die in our sins. Our works are unable to remove our sins. You cannot escape the convictions of your own heart.”

20. If a JW leaves and goes to another faith, his JW friends and relatives turn against him in anger, and spread all sorts of stories about him.

21. Most JWs either stay up to 10 years and leave, or stay for life.

22. The WT is very much opposed to the historic Christian faith with its stress on the individual and his relationship to God. In its place they substitute the WT organisation.

23. They oppose churches paying their preachers. They hence ignore I Cor 9:4, 7, 13, 14.

24. When the WT Society changes a doctrine they trick their people by saying that they are constantly trying to improve themselves. Thinking for yourself is outlawed. JWs must always overrule their own thoughts and convictions and give way to the Society’s.

25. Key: Before you can convince a JW that he is wrong, you must first convince him that the Watchtower Society is wrong. He makes every effort to stay in the organisation because he has been led to believe that all those outside it will be doomed to annihilation at Armageddon..

26. They oppose saluting the flag, thinking that the saluter declares that his salvation comes from the nation saluted. This is false because, “Salute all them that have the rule over you, and all the saints.” (Hebrews 13:24). “Then Toi sent Joram his son unto King David, to salute him, and to bless him”. (II Samuel 8:10).

27. JWs believe that there is no salvation outside their organisation (just like the Roman Catholic Church does). They have always criticised the Roman Catholic Church, yet they have copied its organisation pattern.

28. They do not believe that salvation can be obtained in this present life. You must spend all your life working for it. Nor do they believe that salvation can be obtained by Christ’s death, burial and resurrection. They believe that knowledge and works (not salvation) lead to life. They believe Christ gave an opportunity for life to worthy ones. To them salvation is not for unworthy sinners (Abram was saved, Genesis.15:6; Rahab was saved, Joshua 2:11. p.546).

29. Ambition is destroyed. JWs have become deadened to the world they live in. They do not care what happens. He thus becomes a most useless person. He is not allowed to do anything useful for anyone except JWs. He must not vote, nor aid in civil defence, nor sign a petition against liquor or gambling, nor give money to any cause outside the WT. A spouse will often walk off from a mate if the mate does not become a JW.

30. Christmas and Easter are not recognised or celebrated. Why? Because Christ means nothing to them, hence they see no reason for recognising His birth or His death. (The angels, shepherds and wise men celebrated Christ’s birth in Luke 2:8-20).

Jesus Christ is precious to those who believe (I Peter 2:7). JWs would not know the difference if Christ had never come. They could get along just as well without Him. They are still slaves to working for their salvation.

31. Only the 144,000 “spiritual Israelites” go to heaven. The rest are the earthly class.

32. No hell for the wicked. JWs believe the wicked will be annihilated (Ezekiel.32:21,30,31).

33. JWs are not trained to answer the Christ-centred testimony of one who has been born again. They are trained to argue about denominations, but are NOT trained to argue successfully against the Gospel of Christ.

34. JWs purpose is to get people out of churches where they are individuals, and into the WT organisation where they will be automatons. To a JW, to be yourself is “worldliness” and “false religion”.

35. The organisation:

- a) replaces the need for Christ's blood to gain favour with God, in favour of itself.
- b) stands in the place of Jesus Christ as Mediator between God and man.
- c) has become the saviour instead of Christ, who to them is just a fellow creature.
- d) makes the WT authority greater than the Bible, as seen in how they change verses to suit their doctrines.
- e) has pontifical authority. Disputers are cast out as heretics.

36. What is the effect of this on a JW's mind?

- a) He no longer thinks of himself as a God-fearing individual but WT fearing.
- b) All piety and reverence have been removed from belief.
- c) All faith in the individual Christ has gone. It now becomes a matter of conducting business.
- d) It no longer involves worship. It has degenerated to a system of works and rewards.
- e) WT runs like a business. Statistics are kept on everything. They mock everything but the organisation.
- f) They do works to prove themselves faithful and to earn everlasting life. They believe it was the life of Christ, not His death, that really mattered. They think it was Christ's obedient life, not His blood that saves.

37. A person changes thoroughly to become a JW in 6-12 months. How?

- a) Initial house-to-house visiting. The purpose is to get literature into the person's hands so they can read it in their homes and to arouse interest.
- b) Return visits. The purpose is to improve interest and to start a home Bible study.
- c) Home "Bible" Studies for 1 hour. They then attend the theocratic ministry school (speech class) to give short talks before an audience.
- d) Training new ministers door-to-door. 'The secret of success is to start training these new ones from the very earliest. Take them with you as soon as possible. It is the backbone of our ministry'.
- e) Baptism by immersion, not in the name of Father, Son and Holy Spirit, but in nobody's name at all. This makes him a minister and an official JW. It means, "You give up your old life and begin a new life, dedicated (sins and all) to serve Jehovah."

Average conversion takes place in 6-12 months because of persistent follow-up.

38. You must know your Bible and know it well. Challenge them on the Deity of Christ and stick to it as the most important doctrine. Be firm, polite and loving. Hatred will beget hatred.

39. The WT Organisation places much emphasis on class distinctions, eg "the 144,000 anointed heavenly class", the "great crowd earthly class", and the "Queen of Sheba class" of men of good will. This is a fantasy of the governing body of JWs.

6. EIGHT ISSUES JW's ARGUE AGAINST

JW's say that clergy should call themselves "servants" instead of using flattering titles.

JW's forget John 15:15 "Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends."

The close relationship between Christ and the Christian does not exist for the JW, so he sees himself as a slave of the WT organisation. A Christian should give a logical, clear testimony of what Christ has done for him. The main issues JW's argue against are as follows:

1. Arguing against the Trinity. This involves the deity of Christ, and the Holy Spirit's deity and personality.
2. Arguing against Hell. They think hell to be unbiblical, unreasonable, unloving and unjust.
3. Arguing against the soul. They believe the soul is a living physical body. They quote Ezekiel 18:4 "The soul that sinneth, it shall die". This refers to physical death of a person, not spiritual death, as seen from Ezekiel 18:27 "When the wicked man turns away from his wickedness...he shall save his soul alive." Body, soul, spirit (I Thess 5:23).
4. Arguing against Christ's ransom. To JW's, Christ is only a man who gave them a chance to work out their own salvation. They believe Christ only atoned for Adam's disobedience, though not for Adam himself. JW's do not believe that Christ atoned for our personal sins, but only for our disobedience in Adam.
5. Arguing against Christ's visible return. JW's believe that Christ returned invisibly in 1914, thus marking the end of the times of the Gentiles. Then how is it that Jerusalem is still trodden down of the Gentiles? (Luke 21:24), "Every eye shall see Him" (Rev1:7).
6. Arguing against judgment after death. JW's believe that the coming judgment will be the millennium. They are not aware of the four judgments of:
 - a) Christ judged on the cross for our sins; (I Peter 2:24; 3:18).
 - b) The judgment seat of Christ in heaven for believers' rewards; (II Cor.5:10).
 - c) The sheep and goat nations judgment early in the millennium;(Matthew 25:31-46).
 - d) The Great White Throne judgment of unbelievers raised after the 1000 years. (Rev.20:11-15).

They think that "those who meet with God's favourable judgment will be granted everlasting life." (Let God be True, p 292). They believe that they will be judged favourably because of works they performed in this life.

7. Arguing against regeneration and the Holy Spirit. They degrade the Holy Spirit to an "active force" and they put the Watchtower organisation in his place.

"His theocratic organisation.....to help us understand that Word." (Let God be True, p 306).

Their salvation is never sure, so they keep selling books to earn salvation by good works.

8. Arguing against all piety. JW's do not worship God. There is no reverence or awe of God in their hearts. It is forbidden to worship Jesus Christ because to them He is created. In their hymn book "Songs to Jehovah's Praise", they extol the works of the organisation and of individual JW's. No adoring words to God or Christ, just praise to the organisation. JW's will never kneel to pray, nor have any prayer meetings. They will never hold public debates because they realise that no JW can stand up against anyone who knows the Bible really well.

7. JEHOVAH'S NAME or JESUS CHRIST'S NAME.

The Watchtower teaches that God's true Name is Jehovah. They teach that:

“Sometime during the second or third Century CE, the scribes removed the tetragrammaton (JHWH) from both the Septuagint and the Christian Greek Scriptures and replaced it with κυριος (Lord) or θεος (God)”. Reference Edition of NWT, 1984, p 1564.

The Watchtower's Kingdom Interlinear Translation (KIT) proves that Jesus is Jehovah God.

On page 10,11 of the 1985 KIT, under the heading “Restoring the Divine Name, Jehovah” we read: “the evidence (what evidence?) is that the original text of the Christian Greek Scriptures has been tampered with (no proof) . . . Sometime during the second or third centuries CE, the Tetragrammaton (JHVH) was eliminated from the Greek texts by copyists (no proof). Instead of JHVH they substituted the words Kurios (“Lord”) and Theos (“God”)”.

Note: This is a lie. There is no historical or manuscript evidence or evidence of protest to support this claim. Somebody would have protested such a change. No one did. It never happened.

The New World Translation (NWT) is the JW perversion of the Bible made to support their false doctrines. It inserts the name “Jehovah” in the New Testament in the place of God (θεος =theos) or Lord (κυριος =kurios) on 237 occasions, where they believe it refers to God the Father. They often refer to Hebrew translations of the NT to see where this has been done. These are footnoted as J¹ to J²⁷. Their dishonesty and deceit is shown by their failure to translate these words as “Jehovah” when it refers to Christ. (Philippians 2:11; Hebrews 1:10).

JWs say that the proper use of God's “correct” name (Jehovah) is absolutely essential to one's salvation. They quote from their NWT:

“Everyone who calls on the name of Jehovah will be saved.” Romans 10:13 (NWT).

“People will have to know that I am Jehovah.” Ezekiel 39:6 (NWT).

JWs believe that because they are the only group who refer to God by His “true” name, Jehovah, they are the only true followers of God.

Their claim is false for these reasons:

- 1) Jehovah is not a Biblical term. It is a man-made term. The Old Testament has “JHVH” because the original Hebrew only had consonants. Jews feared taking God's name in vain, so when they publicly read JHVH, they would pronounce it “Adonai” (Lord). Later they inserted the vowels from Adonai (a-o-a) into the consonants JHVH to give JAHOVAH, which became Jehovah. Hence, the word Jehovah comes from a consonant-vowel combination from JHVH and Adonai.
- 2) No-one knows for sure the original correct pronunciation of JHVH. Hence we cannot insist on “Jehovah” as being correct.
- 3) Jesus never addressed the Father as Jehovah in the New Testament. If JWs are correct that God must be always called Jehovah, then Jesus was sinning by not calling God “Jehovah”. When the NWT puts Jehovah in Jesus' mouth in the NT, it contradicts all the NT manuscripts which don't have it.

Ask: Since Jesus never in the NT addressed the Father as Jehovah, why should we?

- 4) Jesus and the Apostle Paul tell us to address God as “Father”:
 - a) Jesus taught us to pray to God as “Our Father”, not “Our Jehovah”:
“After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father.....” (Matthew 6:9).
 - b) Jesus addressed God as Father in His own prayers:
“I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth”. (Matthew 11:25).
“O my Father, if it be possible.....” (Matthew 26:39,42).
“He said, Abba, Father.....” (Mark 14:36).

“ I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven.....” (Luke 10:21).

“Saying, Father, if thou be willing.....” (Luke 22:42).

“Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them;.....” (Luke 23:34).

“Father, the hour is come.....” (John 17:1).

c) Paul said, “we cry, Abba, Father.” (Romans 8:15).

d) The Holy Spirit through Paul said, “God hath sent forth the Spirit of His Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father”. (Galatians 4:6).

Here the Holy Spirit of God tells us to call God “Abba, Father”, not “Jehovah”.

Ask: If Jesus, the Holy Spirit and Paul all address God as Father nine times (and never as Jehovah) then shouldn't we call God “Father”?

5) No Ancient NT manuscripts contain the tetragram (JHVH) to translate as Jehovah.

The Church writers before 325 AD only mention Jehovah once in passing. JW's tell us that most Bible versions deceive people because they omit Jehovah as God's Name, so the JW's dishonestly add the word “Jehovah” to the NT text, even though it is not in any NT Greek manuscript, ancient version, papyri or lectionary.

The WT's claim that “Jehovah” as God's name was removed from the NT by superstitious scribes, is a total lie with no supporting historical or manuscript evidence.

6) Whose Name did the early Christians identify themselves with? Was it Jehovah or was it Jesus Christ? Always Jesus Christ, never Jehovah.

Who knows more, the Apostles or modern JW's? Consider these examples:

a) The Apostles never used the name “Jehovah”.

b) The Apostles and first century Christians were never called “Jehovah's Witnesses”. “The disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.” (Acts 11:26).

c) There is no proof that Jesus or his disciples ever pronounced the tetragram JHVH.

JW's claim that when Jesus read from Isaiah 61:1 “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me..” as quoted in Luke 4:18,19, that Jesus pronounced the word “JHVH”.

This is most unlikely. JW's assume that the religious leaders endorsing Christ's “gracious words” in verse 22 was because He uttered the name JHVH?

Historical records in the Mishnah, from Josephus, and from other sources show the Jews were loathe to allow the name JHVH to be used. The Jews would not have tolerated it being used by anyone but the High Priest. Jesus would have read “Adonai”.

7) 120 Bible passages referring to Jehovah, are quoted and applied to Christ in the New Testament (see Chapter 115).

Ask: In view of 120 Bible verses applying “Jehovah” to Christ in the NT, what does this tell you about who Christ is?

8) The New Testament tells us to name the name of Jesus Christ, not the name of Jehovah. Consider these examples:

1. “Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity” (2 Timothy 2:19)

2. “I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ . . .” (I Cor 1:10).

3. “Ye are washed,....sanctified,... justified in the name of the Lord Jesus “ (I Cor 6:11).

4. “Whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus” (Col 3:17)

5. “That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you....” (2 Thess 1:12).

6. “Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves.....” (II Thess. 3:6).

7. “all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours.” (I Corinthians 1:2).

8. “Thou holdest fast my name...” Jesus said to the Pergamos church. (Revelation 2:13). JW’s have not held fast Christ’s name, nor have they called upon Christ’s name, nor do they name the name of Christ, nor is Jesus Christ precious to them, because they do not have saving belief in Him. “Unto you . . . which believe He is precious.” (I Peter 2:7).

Ask: Where does the NT tell us to name the name of Jehovah?

9) The New Testament always lifts up Jesus Christ’s name, not Jehovah’s name. Why? Because Jesus Christ is Jehovah God on earth. Christ is 100% God and 100% man.

Q1: In whose name should we meet together? Matthew 28:19 states:

“Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.”

Q2: Demons were cast out by the authority of whose name? Acts 16:18 states:

“Paul...said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her.”

Q3: In whose name should we preach repentance and forgiveness of sins?

“And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations. And ye are witnesses of these things.” (Luke 24:47,48)

Q4: In whose name are we to believe and receive forgiveness of sins?

“through his name whosoever believes in him shall receive remission of sins.” Acts 10:43

Q5: By whose name, and no other, do we obtain salvation? Acts 4:10,12 says:

“by the name of Jesus Christ ... Neither is there salvation in any other, for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.”

Q6: In whose name should we pray? John 16:23,24; 14:13,14; 15:16 says:

“Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.”

Q7: In whose name is the Holy Spirit sent? John 14:26 states:

“But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name.....”

Q8: In whose name and authority did the disciples heal the sick?

“His name through faith in his name hath made this man strong” (Acts 3:16; 4:30)

Q9: Whose name did Paul say that we are to call upon?

“all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.” (I Cor 1:2)

Q10: Whose name is above every name?

“God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name ... that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord.” (Phil 2:9-11)

Paul’s quote about Christ is from Isaiah 45:22-24 where every knee will bow to Jehovah.

What is true about Jehovah, is also true of Christ, the Lord of all mankind

Q11: According to Acts 1:8, of whom are we to be witnesses?

“Ye shall be witnesses unto me (Jesus)”

Q12: In whose name were believers baptized?

“they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus”. (Acts 8:16; 2:38)

Q13: In whose name were believers designated?

“the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch”. (Acts 11:26)

Q14: In whose name did the apostles speak?

“Commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus” Acts 4:17,18

Q15: In whose name did early Christians suffer? Acts 15:26 says:

“Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.”

“rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name” Acts 5:41;9:16.

Q16: Whose name was Paul to carry?

“Lord said: He is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, kings, and the children of Israel.” (Acts 9:15)

Q17: In whose name did Paul deliver a man to Satan?

“In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ...to deliver such an one to Satan.” I Cor 5:4,5 Q18: In whose name did the apostles teach? Acts 5:28; 8:12 says:

“Did we not straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name?”

10) Why does WT break their own rule (where the OT speaks of Jehovah), that they do not insert Jehovah in the NT, when the quote clearly refers to Christ?

Answer: They do not want Christ to be God, due to their theological bias. Consider three examples:

1) Psalm 102:24,25 (NWT)	Hebrews 1:10 (NWT)
“O my God . . . long ago you laid the foundations of the earth ”	“with reference to the Son : . . . You at the beginning, O Lord laid the foundations of the earth itself . . .” (v 10)

The Psalm unquestionably speaks of Jehovah God laying the foundations of the earth.

The writer of Hebrews applies it to Christ as Jehovah God laying the foundations of the earth.

Yet, if JW's translate “Lord” in the NT as “Jehovah” elsewhere, why don't they translate “Lord” in Hebrews 1:10 as “Jehovah”?

Answer: Because Hebrews 1:10 refers to the Son, and this would make Christ to be Jehovah, which they refuse to accept. The NWT is biased against the Trinity.

2) Isaiah 8:13 (NWT)	I Peter 3:15 (NWT)
“ Jehovah of armies - he is the One whom you should treat as holy . . .”	“But sanctify the Christ as Lord in your hearts . . .”

Peter paraphrases Isaiah 8:13 and applies it directly to Christ, saying that we are to sanctify Christ as Lord (Jehovah) in our hearts. The NWT committee has shown bias in not following their own rules, by refusing to insert “Jehovah” into I Peter 3:15.

The WT Kingdom Interlinear, p 11 of the Foreword (1985 Edition) states their rule:

“How is a modern translator to know when to render the Greek words “κυριος “ or “θεος “ as “Jehovah”? By determining where the inspired Christian writers (NT) have quoted from the Hebrew scriptures (OT). Then he must refer back to the original (Hebrew OT) to locate whether “Jehovah” appears there.”

Even the Kingdom Interlinear footnote (p.1016) shows that 8 modern Hebrew Bibles have “Jehovah God” in I Peter 3:15 reading as “sanctify the Christ as Jehovah God in your hearts”

12*.* Jehovah, J7.8.11-14.16-18.20.22,(23).24; Lord, κABVgSyP. 15* The Christ as Lord, κABC; the Lord God, Textus Receptus; Jehovah God, J7.8.11-14.16.17.24.

The NWT committee could not be consistent with their rule.

3) Joel 2:32 (NWT)	Acts 2:21, 38 (NWT)
“Everyone who calls on the name of Jehovah will get away safe;”	“Everyone who calls on the name of Jehovah (v.21) “Peter said, Repent and be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ .” (v.38)

Peter quotes from Joel 2:32 (spoken of Jehovah) and applies it to Jesus in Acts 2:21 and 38.

Calling on the name of Jehovah for salvation equals repenting and being baptized in the name of Jesus Christ because of the forgiveness of sins.

Conclusion: Jesus shares the nature of His Father and His Name. The absence of JHVH in any NT manuscript demolishes the WT case of introducing the word “Jehovah” into the NT.

Question: If God was so concerned about preserving His covenant name, why did the apostles not preserve it in their writings?

Question: To imply that the name “Jehovah” is the main name of God that we are to use, contradicts the continued NT use of the name “Jesus” on 900 occasions, while the tetragram JHVH is used nowhere in the NT.

Ask: Why does the WT not translate “Jehovah” into Hebrews 1:10, I Peter 3:15 and Philippians 2:11, when the OT passages from which these are quoted refer to JHVH? We are to make the name of the Father known as Jesus emphasized (Matthew 6:9; John 17:26). How do we do it? By recognizing that Jesus Christ was chosen by the Father to embody all the glory and important reputation of that Name.

8. WATCHTOWER’S WRONG BELIEFS.

Wrong Belief of the Watchtower:	Refuted by Scripture:
Christ is God’s Son and is inferior to Him	John 5:23 “honour the Son, as .the Father”.
Christ was the first of God’s creation	Micah 5:2 ‘goings forth ...from everlasting’.
Christ died on a stake, not a cross	John 20:25 “the print of the nails”.
Christ’s human life was paid as a ransom for obedient humans	Hebrews 2:9 “That He by the grace of God should taste death for every man. ”
Christ was raised from the dead as an immortal spirit person	Luke 24:39 “see ...a spirit has not flesh and bones, as ye see me have”.
Christ’s presence (Second Coming) is in spirit	Zech.12:4 “ His feet shall stand in that day on the mount of Olives”.

JWs come to your door for two main reasons:

1. They believe that you will be destroyed in the imminent Battle of Armageddon unless you come to Jehovah’s organisation for salvation. (WT 15.Nov. 81, p.21)
2. They believe that they will not survive Armageddon unless they engage in this door-to-door preaching work under the direction of the Watchtower Organisation.

“They have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.....they being ignorant of God’s righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.” (Romans 10:2,3).

Most JW's are victims of victims, and blind followers of blind leaders. Most have been non-practising Roman Catholics or Protestants who never got saved.

JW's invited them to study the Bible, but soon switched them to a Watchtower book study.

Instead of leading the seeker to God, they led him to the WT organisation.

Notice 15 Watchtower (WT) errors on the following issues:

1. Armageddon - all will be destroyed then, except JW's.
2. Birthdays - no birthday cards or celebrations are allowed.
3. Blood Transfusions - must be refused even if death is likely.
4. True Christianity - vanished after the 12 apostles died. It was restored when Russell started the Watchtower Organisation in the 1870's.
5. Christ Returned - invisibly in 1914, ruling as King on earth through the Watchtower Society. He found them doing the work of the "faithful and wise servant" (Matthew 24:45). He appointed them ruler over all his belongings. All other churches and professed Christians are tools of the devil. Their New World Translation changes references to the second "coming" to "presence". The generation of people who witnessed Christ's invisible return in 1914 will not pass away before Armageddon comes. (Matthew 24:34).
6. Cross - is despised by JW's as a pagan symbol. JW's think that Christ was nailed to a straight upright pole called a stake, without a crossbeam. This is refuted by Thomas in John 20:25 "Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails." Two nails here proves a crossbar was used; one nail would mean a stake. Paul gloried in the Cross. Galat. 6:14
7. Deity - The Father alone is God, and should be addressed as "Jehovah". JW's think that Jesus Christ is not God, but Michael the Archangel in human form. (JW's think that the Holy Spirit is not God, nor a person, but an active force.) They add the word "Jehovah" 237 times to the NWT New Testament with no manuscript support.
8. Disfellowshipping - is the punishment for breaking WT rules. No JW's are allowed to speak to him.
9. Heaven - Only 144,000 people (the "little flock") go to heaven. This number was filled by 1935. Other JW's hope to live on the earth forever. "All the saints with thee." Zech.14:5.
10. Holidays - JW's forbid celebration of Christmas, Easter, Good Friday, New Year's Day, Mothers Day, Fathers Day. "He that regardeth the day, regardeth it to the Lord". Romans 14:5,6.
11. Holy Spirit -JW's say the Holy Spirit is neither God nor a person, but an impersonal active force that God uses to do His will. "knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit." Romans8:27
12. Jesus Christ - JW's say that Jesus Christ is the first-created angel, Michael. No Bible proof.
13. Watchtower Organisation - JW's believe it is the visible agency of the Kingdom of God on earth, ruling all aspects of a JW's life.
14. Resurrection - JW's believe that when Christ died He became non-existent, and that He was raised three days later as a spirit, that is to say, an angel. They deny Christ's bodily resurrection. JW's believe that at Christ's "invisible return in 1914", He then raised dead Christians to spirit life, and that the rest of the human dead will be raised bodily during the 1000 year reign of God's Kingdom. (No Bible support, just a JW invention). Heb13:8
15. Salvation - although giving lip service to salvation by faith in Christ, JW's believe that salvation only comes by full obedience to the WT Society, and by their zealous door-to-door works program. Those JW's who enter the 1000 year paradise must maintain their good works for 1000 years before they can be sealed for life. 'Not of works' Eph. 2:8,9.

9. “DEITY OF CHRIST” VERSES THAT THE NWT CHANGES.

Greek linguists, both Christian and non-Christian, universally reject the NWT as biased and inaccurate. Dr Julius Mantey, one of the world’s leading Greek experts, publicly demanded that the Watchtower Society stop misquoting his Greek Grammar to support the NWT. He said: “I have never read any New Testament so badly translated as the Kingdom Interlinear Translation of the Greek Scriptures. It is a distortion of the NT.” (Vantage Press, 1980, p.136).

Our purpose is to show how the New World Translation mistranslates key verses which for the last 1900 years have been understood as Deity of Christ proof texts.

1. Colossians 1:17

Ask: Why does the NWT insert “OTHER” four times, when it is not in any New Testament Greek manuscript?

Answer: Because they do not want it to appear that Christ is the Creator and that He existed before all things.

The NWT makes it appear that Jesus was created first, and then He was used by Jehovah to create all other things in the Universe. The JW Kingdom Interlinear Translation (KIT), p.880, shows that the Greek word “panta” means “all things” not “all other things”. Here, by adding “other” they change the meaning of the text from Christ being the Creator, to being a created being on a par with all other created things.

πάσης of all	κτίσεως, creation,	16	ὅτι because	ἐν in	αὐτῷ him	16 because by means of him all [other] things were created in the heavens and upon the earth, the things visible and the things invisible, no matter whether they are thrones or lordships or governments or authorities. JW Objection: The WT says that Christ played a junior role in creation since I Cor. 8:6 says that God made the world by or through (Greek “δια” ie: “dia”) Christ.

Answer:

1) This is unacceptable because, while it is true that the Greek word “δια” is used of Christ’s role as Creator (John 1:3, I Corinthians 8:6, Colossians 1:16, Hebrews 1:2), “δια” is also used of God as Creator in Romans 11:36 which states that the universe was created “through” (Greek “δια”) God:

“For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things.”

Hebrews 2:10 also states that the universe was created “through or by” (Greek “δια”) the Father: “by (δ) whom are all things.” 840

“δια” (by/through) used of God/Father/Christ as CREATOR

God	Romans 11:36	For of him, and “ δια ” him, and to him, are all things.
Father	Hebrews 2:10	And “ δια ” whom are all things
Christ	John 1:2,3	The same was in the beginning with God. And all things were made “ δια ” him
	I Corinthians 8:6	One Lord Jesus Christ, “ δια ” whom are all things.
	Colossians 1:15,16	Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature: For “ δια ” him were all things created
	Hebrews 1:2	His Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, “ δια ” whom also he made the worlds.

Ask: Since the Greek word “δια”, is used of both the Father and the Son, how can it be taken to indicate a lesser role for Christ?

2) Isaiah 44:24 states that ONLY God is the Creator:

“I am the LORD that maketh all things; that stretcheth forth the heavens ALONE, that spreadeth abroad the earth by MYSELF”.

Because Jehovah is the maker of all things “alone”, “by myself”, and that Christ is the maker of all things (“All things were made by him”) (John 1:3), this proves that Christ is God Almighty.

3) All things were created FOR Christ (Colossians 1:16), means that Christ is the end for which all things exist. All things are to serve His will and contribute to His glory.

“All things were created BY him and FOR him”. Colossians 1:16.

4) Christ as sole Creator is seen in John 1:3:

“All things were made by him; and without him was not anything made that was made.”

“by whom also he made the worlds.” (Hebrews 1:2,10).

5) Christ is the Preserver of the universe.

He sustains it: “by him all things consist (hold together).” (Colossians 1:17).

6) Christ “is before all things.” (Colossians 1:17). Jesus Christ is the great FIRST cause.

7) Christ “IS before all things.” Were Christ merely pre-existent, we would say that Christ “WAS before all things”. The present tense “IS” indicates eternal, unending existence, just as does “I AM” in John 8:24,58.

2. Philippians 2:9

The NWT (1961 Edition) deceptively adds the word “other” in Philippians 2:9 without parentheses or brackets, where “other” appears in no New Testament manuscript. It has been deliberately added by the WT to change the meaning from Christ having the greatest name, to Christ having the second greatest name other than God. Realising their dishonesty, they bracket “other” in the KIT and NWT 1984 edition as seen below:

	9	διὸ	καὶ	ὁ
		through which	also	the θεὸς	αὐτὸν	ὑπερύψωσεν,	καὶ		9 For he graciously gave	to him the name the over			superior position and τὸ ὄνομα,				kindly gave him the every name,				name that is above every [other] name.

9 For this very reason also God exalted him to a superior position and kindly gave him the name that is above every other name.

Ask: Which do you believe regarding Philippians 2:9 - the WT organisation with no Greek manuscript support, or all the NT manuscripts?

3. Zechariah 12:10 “..they shall look upon me (Jehovah) whom they have pierced,..” Jehovah is speaking in Zechariah 12:1-10 of Christ’s return, Israel’s conversion, and Israel looking on Me (Jehovah) whom they (Israel) have pierced. Jehovah is saying that Israel have pierced Me (Jehovah), yet we all know that Israel have pierced Jesus Christ. Based on the rule of logic that if a = b and b = c then a = c, we must accept that:

Jehovah = Me whom they pierced = Christ.

JWs, not willing to face the obvious fact that Jesus is Jehovah, have deliberately altered the text, and changed the Bible, from ‘Me’ to ‘the One’, with no manuscript support. Hence, in the NWT it is not Jehovah who was pierced but the One (Jesus) who was pierced. They break the connection between Jehovah and Jesus.

Question: What evidence is there for the reading ‘Me’?

i) The Hebrew Masoretic Text reads ‘Me’.

10 And I will pour on the house of David, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the Spirit of grace and of prayers. And they shall look on Me whom they have pierced; and they shall mourn for Him, as one mourns for an only son, and shall be bitter over Him, like the bitterness over the firstborn. *

elect.”¹³ Also in Zechariah: “And they shall look upon me, whom they have pierced.”¹⁴ Also Cyprian quoted from his Bible in 200 AD. Also, ‘Me’ is quoted in the Old Latin version, the Syriac Peshitta, the Aramaic Targums, as well as other early church writers. John’s gospel interprets Zechariah 12:10 as a prophecy of Christ’s death on the cross (John 19:37). Jesus Christ is clearly described as ‘pierced’ in Revelation 1:7.

Ask: Since ‘Me’ identifies Jehovah as Jesus, whom will you believe:

the Hebrew Text, the Septuagint and the early church writers all saying ‘Me’, or the NWT saying ‘the One’ with no manuscript support?

Ask: Why does the NWT go against the manuscripts here?

Ask: According to the manuscripts, who is Jesus in Zechariah 12:10? (Me/Jehovah).

4. Acts 20:28 Why does the NWT add 'Son'?

NWT	Acts 20:28	KJV
To shepherd the congregation of God , which he purchased with the blood of his own [Son]	Feed the church of God , which he has purchased with his own blood .

The NWT, by adding [Son], makes it appear that the church was purchased NOT by God's blood (which would make Jesus equal to God), but by the Son's blood.

Question 1: Who does 'his own blood' in the KJV refer to?

Answer: It can only be God, because God is the antecedent that the pronoun 'his' refers to. This is a universally accepted rule of English grammar.

Question 2: Why does the NWT add the word 'Son' in this verse when 'Son' is not found in any Greek manuscripts in the world? (Due to WT's bias against Christ's deity).

Answer: 'his own blood' found in the KJV teaches that Christ's blood is God's blood. This is a doctrine that proves that Jesus is God. JW's refuse to accept that Jesus is God, so they change this verse to agree with their view of Christ being less than God, by adding the word 'Son'. They thus break the connection between God equalling Christ.

Question 3: What evidence is there for the reading 'with his own blood' (KJV and all other translations)?

i) All Greek manuscripts, all ancient versions and all lectionaries have 'his own blood'. Notice that the Greek word for "Son" (υἱος) is not anywhere in the Greek text:

28 προσέχετε ἑαυτοῖς καὶ παντὶ
 Be you paying attention to selves and to all τῷ ποιμνίῳ, ἐν ᾧ ὑμᾶς τὸ πνεῦμα τὸ

28 Pay attention to yourselves and to all the flock, among which the holy spirit has appointed you overseers, to shepherd the congregation of God,* which he purchased with the blood of his own [Son]."

ii) The early church writer Tertullian quotes it correctly in 200-250 AD.

Ask: Why does the WT organisation add the word 'Son' into the verse, when not one Greek NT manuscript in the world contains 'Son'?

Ask: Do you think it is acceptable to insert words into the Bible that are not found in any NT Greek manuscripts?

Jesus, who is called God, shed His own blood for the flock. Jesus was fully God and fully man. He was always one person. Christ the God-man shed His blood to pay for our sins. In His human nature, Christ knew hunger (Luke 4:2), weariness (John 4:6) and sleepiness (Luke 8:23).

In His divine nature, Christ was omniscient (John 2:24), omnipresent (John 1:48) and omnipotent (John 11; Matthew 28:20).

5. Hebrews 1:8 and Psalm 45:6

KJV (Psalm 45:6)	KJV (Hebrews 1:8)
'Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever....'	'But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God is for ever and ever.....'

'Thy throne, O God' is changed by the JWs to 'God is thy throne'.

The Watchtower alters these verses so that Jesus cannot be called 'God'. They change it to appear that Jesus' authority has its source in Jehovah God, by altering it to 'God is your throne forever'. The KJV shows Jesus is God and the NWT diminishes Jesus to be less than God. Hebrews 1:8 is quoted from Psalm 45:6.

NWT (Psalm 45:6)	NWT (Hebrews 1:8)
'God is your throne to time indefinite, even forever...'	But with reference to the Son: 'God is your throne forever and ever....'

The NWT is wrong because:

- i) NWT reverses the word order in the Greek NT in Hebrews 1:8. 8 But 8 πρὸς δὲ τὸν υἱὸν toward but the Son 'Ο θρόνος σου ὁ θεὸς εἰς τὸν αἰῶνα The throne of you the God into the age τοῦ αἰῶνος, καὶ ἡ ῥάβδος τῆς εὐθύτητος of the age, and the staff of the straightness ῥάβδος τῆς βασιλείας αὐτοῦ. 9 ἠγάπησας staff of the kingdom of him. - ii) The Septuagint, which is the Greek translation of Psalm 45:6 reads, 'Thy throne, O God.....'

6⁵ Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: the sceptre of thy kingdom is a sceptre of righteousness. 7 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity: therefore God, thy God, has anointed thee with the oil of gladness beyond thy fellows.

- iii) The Hebrew of Psalm 45:6 has the vocative of address 'O God'.

'O God' in the Hebrew means that God is being addressed.

You love	7 7626 5703 5767 430 אלהים אלהים אלהים אלהים אלהים scep- a and (is) God O Your of ter :ever forever God O throne
---	---

- iv) The Watchtower interpretation is foreign to the context.

The writer to the Hebrews quotes Psalm 45:6 and applies it to Christ, as God, being superior to the angels. If the purpose of Hebrews 1:8 in the NWT is just to show that Jesus derives His authority from Jehovah God, as the Watchtower says, then Jesus' superiority is not demonstrated in the least. After all, the angels, Moses, the Apostles and every believer derive their authority from Jehovah God.

However, the message of Hebrews 1:8 ('Thy throne, O God is for ever and ever') is that God's throne is Christ's throne - they are one and the same.

That is, all that is God's is also Christ's as John 16:15 says:

'All things that the Father hath are mine.'

This is true of God's throne. Christ owns God's throne as Revelation 22:1 says:

'The throne of God and of the Lamb.'

Christ sits on the throne of God exercising the same authority as the Father.

Ask: Can you see that the NWT interpretation is foreign to the context?

v) The early church writers quote 'Thy throne, O God is forever' from their Bibles from 110-250 AD.

a) Justin Martyr (110-165 AD) in his dialogue with Trypho. Volume 1, p.224 and p.229.

in other words: 'Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever. A sceptre of equity is the sceptre of Thy kingdom: Thou hast loved righteousness

And speaking in other words, which also have been already quoted, [he says]: 'Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of rectitude is the sceptre of Thy kingdom.

b) Tertullian (145-220 AD) defends the doctrine of the Holy Trinity against Praxeas. Vol 3, p.607.

listen to the psalm in which Two are described as God: "Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever; the sceptre of Thy kingdom is a sceptre of righteousness. Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity: therefore God, even Thy God, hath anointed Thee or made Thee His Christ." " Now, since He Tertullian believed, quoted and taught the Trinity as seen in Volume 3, p.606.

Still, in these few quotations the distinction of Persons in the Trinity is clearly set forth. For there is the Spirit Himself who speaks, and the Father to whom He speaks, and the Son of whom He speaks.¹³

This is well before 325 AD that JWs say that the Trinity doctrine was introduced by Rome.

c) Cyprian (200-258 AD). Volume 5, p.518.

Psalm: "Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: the sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of Thy kingdom. Thou hast loved righteousness,

d) Melito (about 140-195 AD) Volume 8, p.761.

The throne of the Lord — angels, or saints, or simply sovereign dominion.⁹ In the Psalm: "Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever."¹⁰

vi) The NWT's 'God is your throne' is clearly a wrong reading because Hebrew parallelism favours 'Thy throne, O God' in Psalm 45:6.

- Notice: verse 3 'Gird thy sword..... O most mighty'.
verse 6 'Thy throne..... O God....'.
verse 10 'Hearken..... O daughter...'.
The NWT's 'God is your throne' is clearly a wrong reading because Hebrew parallelism favours 'Thy throne, O God' in Psalm 45:6.

Ask: In view of Hebrew parallelism, can you see how the Watchtower translation of Hebrews 1:8 ('God is your throne') is wrong?

The writer of Hebrews 1:8 places Jesus on par with God regarding His nature, but subordinate to God regarding to function.

6. Hebrews 1:6

Why did the Watchtower change “worship him” in the 1961 edition of the NWT, to “do obeisance to him” in the 1971 NWT edition?

6 But when he again brings his First-born into the inhabited earth, he says: “And let all God’s angels worship him.”	6 But when he again brings his First-born⁹ into the inhabited earth, he says: “And let all God’s angels^r do obeisance to him.”^s
---	--

The word for “worship” in Greek is “προσκυνεω”⁴³⁵² (“proskuneo”). When one is much inferior, he fell upon his knees and touched his forehead to the ground before his superior, or prostrated himself, throwing kisses to his superior. This is what Greek writers mean by “προσκυνεω”. It means to kiss, like a dog licking his masters hand; to prostrate; to worship. Another Greek word indicating “reverence” or “half-heartedness, non genuine worship” is “σεβομαι”⁴⁵⁷⁶ (“sebomai”) used in:

- i) Matthew 15:9 and Mark 7:7. “...in vain do they worship me”.
- ii) Acts 16:14. “...unconverted Lydia worshipped God”.
- iii) Acts 19:27. “Diana.....whom all Asia and the world worships”.

If Christ is to be revered as a created being, as the Watchtower claims, then “sebomai” would be used. But the NT uses “προσκυνεω” (proskuneo) as worship to God and “προσκυνεω” (proskuneo) as worship to Christ. This shows that Christ is 100% God.

Ask: Why does the NWT translate “προσκυνεω” as “worship” when it applies to God, angels, devils, the antichrist and images, but when “προσκυνεω” is used for worshipping Christ as God, they translate it as “do obeisance”?

Consider these occurrences of “προσκυνεω” meaning “worship” in the New World Translation. The KJV always translates “προσκυνεω” (proskuneo) correctly as “worship”.

It is obvious that the Watchtower wants to avoid every reference to Christ being Jehovah God, so they refuse to translate “προσκυνεω“ as “worship” when it refers to Christ. Notice these problems with the Watchtower “obeisance”:

- i) Ask: Why did the 1961 edition of NWT translate Hebrews 1:6 to say that we should worship Jesus, while the 1971 edition says that we should merely do obeisance to Him?
- ii) If the NWT is correct in saying that Jesus is a created being and is not to be worshipped, then the Father Himself is guilty of committing a horrible sin by commanding all the angels of God (in Hebrews 1:6) to commit a sacrilegious act in worshipping (προσκυνεω) a mere creature.
- iii) If the NWT is correct in saying that Jesus is Michael the Archangel, then why would God command the angels to worship a fellow created angel (in Hebrews 1:6)?
God has clearly stated that worship is to be directed to God alone.
“Thou shalt worship no other god.” Exodus 34:14
“Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God.” Matthew 4:10
- iv) In the New Testament, angels are clearly shown to reject worship.

“I fell at his feet to worship him. He said see thou do it not...worship God.” Rev.19:10; 22:8.

Ask: If angels refused worship when it was offered, why did Christ accept worship 16 times?
By accepting worship, He claimed to be God.

Note: The “προσκυνεω“ worship that the angel refused and told John to give to God, is the same “προσκυνεω“ worship that the Father commands angels to give to Jesus in Hebrews 1:6. Hence, Christ was worshipped with the same kind of “προσκυνεω“ worship given to the Father.

Ask: What does it say about Jesus’ true identity if He receives the same “προσκυνεω“ worship as Jehovah the Father? (Answer: Jesus’ true identity is Jehovah the Son.)

Ask: Is it appropriate to give the Son the same worshipful honour that is given to the Father?

Answer: Yes, says John 5:23 in the NWT, “..that all may honour the Son just as they honour the Father. He that does not honour the Son, does not honour the Father who sent him.”

Ask: Do you give the Son worshipful honour just as you give to the Father?

7. Titus 2:13 Why does WT break the Greek Granville-Sharp Rule here, by adding [the] which occurs in no NT manuscripts.

NWT	Titus 2:13	KJV
“While we wait for the happy hope and glorious manifestation of the great God and of [the] Saviour of us, Christ Jesus.”	“Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ.”

The NWT has mistranslated this verse (by adding [the] to make two persons) in order to deny the deity of Christ, a doctrine they refuse to accept.

By adding “the” in brackets, they deny the fact that Paul unmistakably calls Jesus “Our God and Saviour”. They have made it read as if Paul were speaking of two separate persons here, God and Jesus, rather than one person, Jesus, who is named our “Great God and Saviour”.

i) JW’s violate what Greek grammarians call the Granville-Sharp rule which states that:

“When two singular person nouns (such as “God” and “Saviour”) of the same case (“God” and “Saviour” are of the same case) are connected with “and” (the Greek word is “καί”) and the modifying article “the” (the Greek word “the” is “ὁ”) appears only before the first noun, not before the second noun, then both nouns MUST refer to the same person (in Titus 2:13, Jesus Christ is both God and Saviour).”

In an exhaustive study, C Kuehne found this Granville-Sharp rule to have no exceptions in the entire New Testament.

Key: 'The great God and Saviour' is Jesus Christ. This is agreed to by Greek scholars, B Metzger, J Mantey, K Wuest, A T Robertson and others. They all agree that only one person (Jesus Christ) is described in Titus 2:13 as 'the great God and our Saviour'. 'God and Saviour' refer to the same person, Jesus Christ.

The presence of only one definite article has the effect of binding together the two title 'God' and 'Saviour'.

Ask: In view of what all top Greek scholars say about Titus 2:13, are you willing to consider the possibility that only one person is discussed in this verse, and not two?

Ask: If only one person (Jesus Christ) is discussed in Titus 2:13, then who is Jesus described as in this verse? (Answer: our God and Saviour).

ii) An illustration of this rule applying to the one person is: 'My wife and friend Tania '.

iii) Why does the Watchtower get the Granville-Sharp rule wrong when it applies to Christ (two occasions), and right everywhere else where Christ's Deity is not an issue? Consider these eight examples:

1) Titus 2:13

KJV: of (the great God and our Saviour) Jesus Christ = 1 person (right)

NWT: 'of the great God and of (the) Saviour Jesus Christ' = 2 persons (wrong!)

NWT is WRONG because there is no second article to justify 'the' (Ask: Where is the 2nd article?)

τοῦ μεγάλου θεοῦ καὶ σωτῆρος ἡμῶν Ἰησοῦ χριστοῦ, great God and Saviour of our Jesus Christ;

2) II Peter 1:1

KJV: of (God and our Saviour) Jesus Christ = 1 person (right)

NWT: 'of our God and (the) Saviour Jesus Christ = 2 persons (wrong!)

NWT is WRONG because there is no second article to justify 'the'. (Ask: Where is the 2nd article?)

τοῦ θεοῦ ἡμῶν καὶ σωτῆρος Ἰησοῦ χριστοῦ.
of our God and Saviour Jesus Christ:

3) II Peter 1:11

KJV 'of (our Lord and Saviour) Jesus Christ = 1 person (right)

NWT 'of (our Lord and Saviour) Jesus Christ = 1 person (right) βασιλείαν τοῦ κυρίου ἡμῶν καὶ σωτῆρος Ἰησοῦ χριστοῦ.

kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

4) II Peter 2:20

KJV: 'knowledge of (the Lord and Saviour) Jesus Christ) = 1 person (right) NWT: 'knowledge of (the Lord and Saviour) Jesus Christ) = 1 person (right) ἐπιγνώσει τοῦ κυρίου καὶ σωτῆρος Ἰησοῦ χριστοῦ, knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ,

5) II Peter 3:2

KJV: 'apostles of (the Lord and Saviour) = 1 person (right)

NWT: 'apostles of (the Lord and Saviour) = 1 person (right)

τοῦ κυρίου καὶ σωτῆρος of the Lord and Saviour;

6) II Peter 3:18

KJV: 'knowledge of (our Lord and Saviour) Jesus Christ = 1 person (right)

NWT: 'knowledge of (our Lord and Saviour) Jesus Christ = 1 person (right)

γνώσει τοῦ κυρίου ἡμῶν καὶ σωτῆρος Ἰησοῦ χριστοῦ in [the] knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.
αὐτῷ ἡ δόξα καὶ νῦν καὶ εἰς ἡμέραν αἰῶνος. ἀμήν.
To him [be] glory both now and to [the] day of eternity. Amen.

7) I Peter 1:3

KJV: 'Blessed be (the God and Father) of our Lord Jesus Christ = 1 person (right)

NWT: 'Blessed be (the God and Father) of our Lord Jesus Christ = 1 person (right)

Εὐλογητὸς ὁ θεὸς καὶ πατὴρ τοῦ κυρίου ἡμῶν Ἰησοῦ
Blessed [be] the God and Father of our Lord Jesus

8) Ephesians 1:3

KJV: 'Blessed be (the God and Father) of our Lord Jesus Christ = 1 person (right)

NWT: 'Blessed by (the God and Father) of our Lord Jesus Christ = 1 person (right)

Εὐλογητὸς ὁ θεὸς καὶ πατὴρ τοῦ κυρίου ἡμῶν Ἰησοῦ
Blessed [be] the God and Father of our Lord Jesus

iv) In Titus 2:13, the Greek word for 'appearing' is never used by Paul in the NT of the Father appearing, but is used exclusively of Jesus Christ's appearing. (See II Thess 2:8, I Timothy 6:14, II Timothy 1:10 and 4:1, 8). Indeed, an appearing of the 'invisible God', other than as the visible Christ, would be impossible.

v) A T Robertson, one of the world's chief Greek grammar authorities, states in Word Pictures in the NT, Vol VI, p 147,148 regarding II Peter 1:1:

The O.T. sense of dikaiousunē applied to God (Rom. 1:17) and here to Christ. Of our God and Saviour Jesus Christ (tou theou hēmōn kai sōtēros Iēsou Christou). So the one article (tou) with theou and sōtēros requires precisely as with tu kuriou hēmōn kai sōtēros Iēsou Christou (of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ), one person, not two, in 1:11 as in 2:20; 3:2, 18. So in I Pet. 1:3 we have ho theos kai patēr (the God and Father), one person, not two. The grammar is uniform and inevitable (Robertson, Grammar, p. 786), as even Schmiedel (Winer-Schmiedel, Grammatik, p. 158) admits: "Grammar demands that one person be meant." Moulton (Prol., p. 84) cites papyri examples of like usage of theos for the Roman emperors. See the same idiom in Titus 2:13.

Ask: Who is right, all the Greek experts in the world, or Watchtower translators who did not know Greek well and did not use the Granville-Sharp rule consistently?

8. II Peter 1:1 Why does the WT break the Greek Granville-Sharp rule here by adding [the], which occurs in no Greek manuscripts?

NWT	KJV
“by the righteousness of our God and [the] Saviour Jesus Christ”	“through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ”.

The KJV means that Jesus Christ is “God and our Saviour” as the Granville-Sharp rule demands. The WT does not like this. The NWT changes it to mean that two persons are discussed: “our God” (one person), and secondly “[the] Saviour Jesus Christ” (another person) different from and less than God. They therefore dishonestly break the link that proves that Jesus Christ is God. The Greek has no second article to support the NWT’s inclusion of [the].

Ask: Can you continue in the WT organisation when it shows such gross dishonesty and bias?

9. John 1:1 Is Jesus Christ “a god” or “God”? “και θεος ην ο λογος”

JW New World Translation	KJV and all others
“In [the] beginning the Word was, and the Word was with God , and the Word was a god. ”	“In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. ”

Watchtower Teaching: The NWT translates the first “θεος” in John 1:1 as “God”, and the second “θεος” as “a god”. In the Greek, there is a definite article “the” (“ο”) before the first occurrence of God (ο θεος = the God). However, there is no definite article “the” before the second occurrence of “God”.

WT argues (falsely) that, when a noun has a definite article (like “ο θεος”), it points to an identity or personality, such as the person of Jehovah God. The WT claims (falsely) that the same phrase (“ο θεος”) is never used of Jesus Christ in the NT (Watchtower, 1 July 86, p31). (Note: “ο θεος” is used of Christ in Matthew 1:23, John 20:28 and Hebrews 1:8).

The WT claims (falsely) that when a singular predicate noun has no definite article, and it occurs before a verb (as theos in John 1:1c), then it points to a quality about someone, so that here it says that Jesus (the Word) has a divine quality, but is not God Almighty (KIT, p.1139). They alone translate Jesus as “a god”.

To support this view they quote:

- i) Johannes Greber NT (1937), a spiritist who claimed that spirits helped him translate the NT (Watchtower, 15 September 62, p.554; 15 October 73, p.640). The WT knew he was a spiritist in 1956 (Watchtower, 15 February 1956, p 110, 111), yet they still quoted him.
- ii) Dr Julius Mantey, who refutes their translation saying: “They have forgotten entirely what the (word) order of the sentence indicates that the “λογος” (“logos” or “Word” in English) has the same substance, nature or essence as the Father. To indicate that Jesus was “a god” would need a completely different construction in the Greek. They misquoted me in support of their translation. 99% of Greek scholars and Bible translators in the world disagree with JW’s.”

Bible Teaching: The NWT is wrong in translating John 1:1 as “a god” for these reasons:

- 1. JW’s claim that, because the second “θεος” (theos) has no definite article, we should translate it as “a god”. (Kingdom Interlinear Translation, p 1139). Then why has the NWT JW version broken their rule four times in John 1:6, 12, 13, 18 by translating “θεος” with no article as “God”? They are inconsistent, as seen below:

Verse 1: καὶ θεὸς ἦν ὁ λόγος and God was the Word.

Verse 6: Ἐγένετο ἄνθρωπος ἀπεσταλμένος παρὰ θεοῦ,
 There was a man sent from God,

Verse 12: τέκνα θεοῦ γενέσθαι, children of God to be,

Verse 13: ἐκ θελήματος ἀνδρὸς ἀλλ' ἐκ θεοῦ ἐγεννήθησαν.
 of will of man but of God were born.

Verse 18: 18 θεὸν οὐδεὶς ἑώρακεν πώποτε·
 God no one 'has seen at any time';

If the NWT was consistent, they should translate 'θεος' as 'a god' in these cases too:

v. 6 'There was a man sent from a god.'

v.12 'to them gave he power to become the children of a god.'

v.13 'nor of the will of man, but of a god.'

v.18 'no man hath seen a god at any time.'

This is clearly wrong and ridiculous. Why only in verse one do they refuse to translate 'θεος' as 'God'? Because they don't want Christ to be Jehovah God. The Watchtower's mistranslation of John 1:1 is not supported by any Greek grammar textbook.

Many other verses have 'θεος' + no article, and yet are correctly translated as 'God', such as Matthew 5:9; 6:24; Luke 1:35, 78; 2:40; John 3:2, 21; 9:16, 33; I Corinthians 1:30; 15:10; Philippians 2:11,13; Titus 1:1; Romans 1:17, 18.

2. JW's say that by translating 'θεος' as 'a god', then Christ is a lesser god, a divine person.

Answer: If John had intended this adjectival sense (ie 'the Word was divine'), he had an adjective 'θειος' (theios=godlike²³⁰⁴) available to use as found in II Peter 1:3, 4 ('divine power' and 'divine nature'), if Christ was just a divine lesser god.

Instead, John uses " meaning 'God'.

Spiros Zodhiates, in his book Was Christ God? (p.102), states assertively:

‘It would, therefore, be totally wrong to translate the statement that John makes in John 1:1 as “the Word was divine”. The word which is used in the original Greek is ‘θεος’ (theos) “God”, not ‘θειος’ (theios) “divine”. Jesus Christ did not merely have divine attributes, but He was God in His essence and nature. He was not a man who attained divinity, but God who humbled Himself to take upon Himself human nature in addition to His deity.’

3. Contrary to the Watchtower claim, 'θεος' (God) with the definite article ('ὁ') is used of Jesus Christ in the New Testament:

i) John 20:28.

Θωμᾶς καὶ εἶπεν αὐτῷ, Ὁ κύριός μου καὶ ὁ θεός μου.
Thomas and said to him, My Lord and my God.

ii) Matthew 1:23.

Ἐμμανουήλ, ὃ ἐστὶν μεθερμηνευόμενον, Μεθ' ἡμῶν ὁ θεός.
Emmanuel, which is, being interpreted, With us God.

iii) Hebrews 1:8.

τὸν υἱόν, Ὁ θρόνος σου, ὁ θεός.
the Son, Thy throne, O God,

Hence, the same word 'ὁ θεος' (ho theos) used of the Father is also used of Christ.

4. JW's say that Jesus is 'a god'. Jehovah disagrees with them in Isaiah 44:8 by saying: 'Is there a God beside me? yea, there is no God; I know not any.' (KJV and NWT). Jehovah says that there is no 'a God' beside Him. This shows John 1:1 in the NWT to be wrong. Hence, Jesus cannot be 'a God', so He must be 'the God'.
5. Ancient UNCIAL Greek manuscripts were all written in capital letters, so one could not distinguish between 'God' and 'god', except by the context, and whether the writer believed in one true God or in more than one god.
Ask: Did the Apostle John believe in one true God or more than one true God? Since John believed in one true God, we conclude that Jesus is the one true God in John 1:1.
6. JW's say that Jesus is 'a god' with Jehovah, as seen from 'the Word was with God.' They say that if Christ is 'with' God, He cannot be God.
Answer: 'with' (Greek 'προς') means that Christ was so intimately connected with God, that He is God. 'There are no gods together with me.' (Deut 32:39 NWT)
'There is no god with me.' (Deuteronomy 32:39 KJV)
Hence, Jehovah says that there are no gods with Jehovah, so Christ must be Jehovah God.
7. Every Greek scholar in the world is against the NWT translation of John 1:1 'the word was a god'. Examples include:
M.R.Vincent: 'The λογος (logos) of John is the real personal God'. (Word Studies in Gk N.T. p383)
K.Wuest: 'The Word was as to His essence absolute deity'. (Word Studies in Gk.N.T p 209)
A.T.Robertson: 'the Word was God, of Divine nature; not "a god"'. (Expositors Gk Testmnt, p684)
Spiros Zodhiates: 'In John 1:1, Jesus Christ in His pre-incarnate state is called the Word, presenting as the second person of the Godhead.' (NT Word Study Dictionary, p 935)
W.E.Vine: 'the λογος (logos), the Word, the personal manifestation, not of a part of the divine nature, but of the whole deity.' (Complete Expository Dictionary of NT Words, p683)
8. All other gods are false gods.
Hence, Jesus Christ in John 1:1 must be either the only true God Jehovah or a false god. Which one?
9. Church Writers writing before 325 AD all agree that John 1:1 is 'the Word was God', and that it means that Jesus is fully God and man.
This verse was never disputed before the occultist Greber's NT was published in 1937. Notice 12 Church writers before 325 AD who all quote John 1:1 correctly as 'the Word was God'. Ask: Why do none of them quote it as 'a god'?
- These early Church writers knew Greek as their mother tongue and first language,
 - These men often were quoting from the original autographs.

11. Greek grammar rules out 'a god'.

JWs say that for Jesus to be Jehovah God here, there should be the definite article 'the' (Greek 'ὁ') before God (θεος λογος ὁ). Because 'θεος' does not have the definite article 'ὁ' before it, JWs conclude that 'the word' was indefinite, and means 'a god'.

Answer: A.T. Robertson Greek authority says (A Grammar of Greek NT, p.767):

Nouns in the Predicate: The article is not essential to speech....The word with the article ("ὁ") is then the subject of the sentence, whatever the word order may be. So in John 1:1, "θεος ἦν ὁ λογος", the subject is perfectly clear ("the word" = "ὁ λογος"), and it can only be "the word was God".

Key: Hence the article 'the' (ὁ) points out the subject (ὁ λογος) of the clause, and points out the predicate (θεος) without the article.

If John had written 'ὁ θεος ἦν ὁ λογος' as the JWs would want, then John would be teaching false doctrine of Sabellianism (that Christ is all of God, that God and Christ are interchangeable, that the Father was the one who became incarnate, suffered and died).

Note: If the article is used with both the subject (ie. λογος) and the predicate (ie. θεος), they would then be interchangeable as the subject nouns are in I John 3:4 (ἡ ἀμαρτία ἐστὶν ἡ ἀνομία) then both 'sin is transgression' and 'transgression is sin' are true'.

But in I John 4:16, “ὁ θεὸς ἀγάπη ἐστίν” can only be “God is Love”, not “Love is God” (because the article points out the subject). If the Greek language allowed us to say “Love is God” just as readily as “God is Love” in this verse, then God would not be a person, but just an abstract quality. (see Was Christ God?, Spiros Zodhiates, p.98).

Conclusion: The absence of the definite article “ὁ” before “theos” in John 1:1 is deliberate in order to identify “the Word” as the subject of the sentence and to make it only to read as “the Word was God”. It has nothing to do with Christ being a lesser god as the JW’s claim. Hence, contrary to the NWT and The Emphatic Diaglott, the Greek grammatical construction leaves no doubt whatsoever that “the Word was God” is the only possible rendering of the text.

Colwell’s Rule of Greek grammar clearly states that a predicate nominative (θεὸς = God) NEVER takes a definite article (“ὁ”) when it precedes the verb “was”, as in John 1:1. That is, when two nouns in the nominative case are linked by the verb “to be” (am, is, are, was, were, be, being or been), it may not be clear which is the subject and which is the predicate. Thus, “ὁ θεὸς ἦν ὁ λόγος” could be either “the Word was God” or “God was the Word”. However, for the Greek syntax, the predicate (θεὸς) drops the definite article (“ὁ”) and is placed before the verb. Therefore, “θεὸς ἦν ὁ λόγος” can only be “The Word was God”, as in the KJV. (see The elements of New Testament Greek, J.W. Wenham, p.35)

Notice that since this clause uses a linking verb, both the subject and the predicate are in the nominative case (ie. “ος” ending on the nouns - “λόγος” and “θεός”), so case endings do not identify the subject. Instead, the definite article “the” points out the subject of the clause. Greek uses the definite article “the” to accomplish what the English language does by word order (subject first, verb next, then the object in a sentence). Hence, of the three ways that John could have written John 1:1, only one is correct.

i) ὁ θεὸς ἦν ὁ λόγος FALSE (Not used by John) can mean either “God was the Word” or “the Word was God”. Both the subject and the predicate having the article would have taught Sabellianism, so John didn’t write it this way;

ii) ὁ θεὸς ἦν λόγος FALSE (Not used by John) can mean only “God was the Word”. This would have clearly taught Sabellianism, so John didn’t write it this way either;

iii) θεὸς ἦν ὁ λόγος CORRECT (As used by John) can mean only “The Word was God”.

Conclusion. Translations which render the Greek in this verse as “a god” or “divine” are motivated by theological, not grammatical considerations. The phrase “a god” is particularly objectionable because it makes Christ a lesser god, which is polytheism and contrary to Deuteronomy 32:39. If Christ is “a god”, then He must be either a “true God” or a “false god”. If a “true God”, then we have polytheism. If a “false god”, then He is unworthy of our belief. Of course, the correct translation found in the KJV and most other translations (“the word was God”), presents Christ as the one and only true God, Jehovah. Therefore, He is monotheistic and worthy of our belief. John’s high view of Christ as God begins with John 1:1 and ends his gospel with Thomas addressing Christ as “my Lord and my God” in John 20:28. These and other verses assert the full deity of Christ.

10. John 8:58

NWT	KJV
“Before Abraham came into existence, I have been. ”	“Before Abraham was, I am. ”

Watchtower Teaching: JW's agree that Jesus was pre-existent (“I have been”), but will not agree that Jesus was eternally pre-existent (“I am”). Jesus in John 8:58 claims to be the “I am” of Exodus 3:14, clearly saying He is Jehovah God. They also mistranslate Exodus 3:14:

NWT	KJV
At this God said to Moses: “ I SHALL PROVE TO BE WHAT I SHALL PROVE TO BE. ” And he added: “This is what you are to say to the sons of Israel, “ I SHALL PROVE TO BE has sent me unto you!”“	And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM ; and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, “I AM hath sent me unto you.”

The effect is that the NWT completely hides the connection between Christ in John 8:58 and Jehovah God in Exodus 3:14. The Watchtower aims to keep Jesus from being identified as God Almighty.

Bible Teaching: Does the evidence point to Jesus calling Himself “I AM” and hence claiming to be God, or to “I have been”?

1) Notice in John 8:58 that Jesus calls Himself “ego eimi” in Greek.

“Ego eimi” occurs 134 times in the Greek New Testament.

Ask: Why does the New World Translation correctly translates “ego eimi” 133 times as “I am”, except in John 8:58 where a major doctrine of the deity of Christ is at stake, where they contradict all their other correct translations of “Ego eimi” and translate it as “I have been”?

Question: What does “I AM” mean?

Answer: Jehovah is the eternal self-existent Being, who has always existed. God is beyond the realm of time: “Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.” (Revelation 4:8b).

“I am” in Exodus 3:14 and “Jehovah” in 3:15 are both derivatives of the verb “to be”.

2) Church writers before 325 AD, always quote John 8:58 as ‘I am’:

a) Irenaeus (120-202 AD)
Vol 1, p 478

But the Word of God did not accept of the friendship of Abraham, as though He stood in need of it, for He was perfect from the beginning (“Before Abraham was,” He says, “I am”⁴),

b) Origen (185-254 AD)
Vol 4, p 643

for we believe Himself when He says, “Before Abraham was, I am.”⁸ Again He says, “I am the truth;”⁹

c) Novatian (210-280 AD)
Treatise Concerning the Trinity,
Vol 5, p 624.

but by giving divinity by immortality, He proves Himself to be God by offering divinity, which if He were not God He could not give. If Christ was only man, how did He say, “Before Abraham was, I Am?”

d) Thaumaturgus (205-265 AD)
Vol 6, p 51

the Lord Himself says, “Before Abraham was, I am;”⁴

3) The JW Kingdom Interlinear Translation (1985) reveals that John 8:58 has 'ego eimi' (Greek: εγω εμι), translating it correctly as 'I am'. This contradicts the NWT reading.

λέγω I am saying	ὑμῖν, to you	πρὶν Before	Ἀβραάμ Abraham	γενέσθαι to become	Before Abraham came into existence, I have ἐγώ εἰμί. I am.	59	ἤρασαν They lifted up	οὖν therefore	λίθους stones	been." 59 Therefore they picked up stones

4) Jesus claiming the title "I have been" would not have caused the Jews to stone Him.

(John 8:59). Hebrew law gave five cases where stoning was legal:

- i) Having a familiar spirit. (Leviticus 20:27)
- ii) Blasphemy. (Leviticus 24:10-23)
- iii) False prophets who lead to idolatry. (Deuteronomy 13:5-10)
- iv) Stubborn son. (Deuteronomy 21:18-21)
- v) Adultery and rape. (Deuteronomy 22:21-24; Leviticus 20:10)

Here the Jews' reason for stoning was that Jesus clearly claimed for Himself the title "I am", saying that He was Jehovah God of Exodus 3:14. JWs claim that the Jews attempted to stone Christ because He called them children of the devil (John 8:44). If this is true, then why didn't they attempt to stone him on other occasions when He called them sons of vipers? (Matthew 12:34 and 23:33). Insults were no reason for stoning. Therefore the Jews attempted to stone Jesus for blasphemy because He claimed to be God.

In John 10:31-33 the Jews attempted to stone Jesus for blasphemy for "making thyself God".

Ask: Who knew the Law better, first century Jews or 20th Century JWs?

5) That "I am" means full Deity is clear from John 13:19 where Jesus says that when His predictions come true, the disciples may believe that ego eimi (I AM), that He is Jehovah.

Since Jehovah is the only "I AM" (Exodus 3:14), then the Father and Christ are one in nature, power, eternity and fulness of deity.

6) The NWT translates "ego eimi" correctly as "I am" 49 times out of 50 occurrences in John's Gospel, except in John 8:58. Why? Examples are:

"I am (εγω εμι) the bread of life". (John 6:35,48,51)

"I am (εγω εμι) the light of the world". (John 8:12)

"For if you do not believe that I am (ego eimi) he, you will die in your sins". (John 8:24)

"When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am (ego eimi)" (John 8:28)

"I am (εγω εμι) the door of the sheep". (John 10:7)

"I am (εγω εμι) the good shepherd". (John 10:11,14)

"I am (εγω εμι) the resurrection and the life". (John 11:25)

"I am (εγω εμι) the way and the truth and the life" (John 14:6)

"I am (εγω εμι) the true vine" (John 15:1,5)

"I am (εγω εμι) he . . ." (John 18:5,6,8)

Ask: Since all the "I am" εγω εμι sayings refer to Christ, why does the NWT correctly translate "εγω εμι" as "I am", except in John 8:58 where they change it to "I have been"? Shouldn't there be consistency in translation?

7) The Septuagint Greek translation of the OT translates Exodus 3:14 as 'ego eimi' in Greek and 'I am the BEING' in English. This supports the commonly accepted reading.

14 πρὸς αὐτούς; Καὶ εἶπεν ὁ Θεὸς πρὸς Μωϋσῆν, λέγων, ἐγώ εἰμι ὁ ὢν· καὶ εἶπεν, οὕτως ἐρεῖς τοῖς υἱοῖς Ἰσραὴλ, ὁ ὢν shall I say to them? 14 And God spoke to Moses, saying, I am THE BEING; and he said, Thus shall ye say to the children of Israel, THE BEING has sent me to you.

8) A T Robertson, one of the greatest Greek scholars ever, after translating "εγω εμι" as "I am", said about John 8:58, "Undoubtedly here Jesus claims eternal existence with the absolute phrase of God." (Word Pictures in the NT, Vol. V, p 158, 159). 857

10. IS CHRIST INFERIOR TO THE FATHER?

“Christ is equal to the Father as touching His Godhood and inferior to the Father as touching His manhood”. (The Athanasian Creed)

When JW's claim that Jesus was a lesser deity than the Father, they point to verses such as:

- a) “The Father is greater than I”. (John 14:28).
- b) Jesus referred to the Father as “my God” (John 20:17).
- c) “The head of Christ is God” (I Corinthians 11:3).
- d) Jesus “will be made subject to him who put everything under him, so that God may be all in all”. (I Corinthians 15:28).
- e) Jesus is called God’s “only begotten Son” (John 3:16).
- f) Jesus is called “the firstborn of every creature” (Colossians 1:15).
- g) Jesus is called “the beginning of the creation of God” (Revelation 3:14).

To this we say generally that:

- i Each passage must be examined in its context. Check the Greek meanings of words.
- ii Many WT arguments are based on a bad misunderstanding of the incarnation of Christ who is God taking on human form.
- iii Many passages quoted by JW's view Christ from the point of view of His manhood.

Let us examine some such passages:

1. I Corinthians 11:3 - Is God superior to Christ?

“But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ, and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God”.

Watchtower teaching: JW's say that, because Jehovah is the head of Christ, then Christ cannot be God. They say that since I Corinthians 11:3 was written in 55 AD when Jesus was ascended and glorified, then this superior rank of Jehovah over Jesus applies to their present relationship in heaven. They claim that “Jesus is always presented as a lesser, separate, humble servant of God”. Should you Believe in the Trinity? p.20.

The Bible teaching: I Corinthians 11:3 has to do with patterns of authority, not to do with inferiority or superiority of one person over the other. Paul says that the man is the head of the woman, even though men and women are 100% equal in their essential being.

Biblically, men and women and equal in nature.

They are both 100% human, created in God’s image & one in Christ. I Peter 3:7 “Heirs together”.

Key: Hence, even though men and women are equal in nature, they function within a hierarchy. In the same way, Christ and the Father are 100% equal in their divine being and nature. “I and the Father are one” (John 10:30), even though Jesus functions under the Father’s headship authority. There is no contradiction to say that among the three persons in the Godhead, there is an equality of divine being and nature as well as two members functioning under the Father’s authority.

Christ is 100% God and fully equal to the Father in being and nature, yet Christ is subordinate or submissive to the Father, especially in becoming a man.

Therefore I Corinthians 11:3 does not teach that Jesus is less than God.

Within the Godhead, the Father acts as Head without diminishing the full deity of the Son.

Ask: Are women inferior in nature to men because men exercise headship over women?

Ask: If “no”, then why does the WT teach that the Father’s headship over Christ means that Christ is inferior in nature to the Father?

2. Revelation 3:14 - “The beginning of the creation of God”.

JWs think that this verse means that Jesus is God’s first created being.

They relate this verse to John 1:14 where Jesus is the “only begotten of the Father”.

Answer:

- 1) The word “Beginning” is “Arche” (746) in Greek which has a wide range of meanings, such as:
 - a) “Head” in the “Hebrew, Greek, English Interlinear Bible”.
He is called “the Head” because He is before all things, all things were created by Him and for Him (John 1:1-3, Colossians 1:16-17, Hebrews 1:10).
It refers to Christ as the One who created all things, not to Him as a created being.
 - b) “The Active Cause as in Colossians 1:18, Revelation 1:8, 21:6, 22:13, 3:14.
Christ is called “the beginning” because He is the active cause of creation.
 - c) Rule, power or authority. “...power (arche) of the governor” (Luke 20:20).
It refers to Christ as the “one who begins, the origin, source, creator, or first cause”.
(Spiros Zodhiates, NT Word Study, p.260,261)
 - d) The Originating source through whom God works, not the first of the creatures as held by Arians and Unitarians. (A T Robertson, Word Pictures in NT. Vol 6,p 321).
- 2) The English word “architect” comes from “arche”.
Jesus is the architect of all creation (John 1:3, Colossians 1:16, Hebrews 1:2).
Christ is the source and primary fountainhead of all creation.
- 3) “Arche” is also used of God as “the beginning and the end”. (Rev. 1:8 (not KIT), 21:6, 22:13). The use of “arche” of God Almighty does not mean that God had a created beginning. God is the beginner and first cause of all creation. “Arche” in Revelation 3:14 is used of Christ in the same sense as the beginner and first cause of all creation.

6 καὶ εἶπέν μοι And he said to me Ἔγονον. ἐγὼ τὸ Ἄλφα καὶ τὸ Ὠμέγα, ἡ ἀρχὴ καὶ τὸ τέλος. ἐγὼ ἰ They have occurred. I the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. I	13 ἐγὼ τὸ Ἄλφα καὶ τὸ Ὠμέγα, ὁ πρῶτος καὶ ὁ ἔσχατος, ἡ ἀρχὴ καὶ τὸ τέλος. — 14 Μακάριοι I the Alpha and the Omega, the first (one) and the last (one), the beginning and the end. — Happy
---	---

Ask: Since “Arche” used of God Almighty does not mean that He had a created beginning, why do you insist that when “Arche” is used of Christ that it means He had a created beginning?

- 4) It is almost always used of a ruler or magistrate or principalities. (Romans 8:38; Ephesians 3:10; Colossians 2:15; Luke 20:20; Jude 6.)
The NWT translates the plural of “Arche” as “government officials” in Luke 12:11.
- 5) The English word “archbishop” is one who is in authority or rules over bishops.
This means that Christ has authority or rule over all creation in Revelation 3:14.
- 6) Christ as the “beginner” of creation harmonises with other NT passages about Christ as Creator, such as: Colossians 1:16,17 “by him were all things created”; Hebrews 1:2 “by whom also he made the worlds”; John 1:3 “all things were made by him”. The JWs must add “other” in Colossians 1:16,17 to harmonise those verses.
- 7) Only God is the Creator. “I am the LORD (JHVH) that makes all things; that stretches forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad the earth by myself” (Isaiah 44:24).
Since Christ is the Creator of all things, this proves that Christ is God Almighty, just as the Father is.

Conclusion: “Beginning” in Revelation 3:14 is “Arche” meaning that Christ is the active cause, originating source, architect, beginner; and “ruler” over creation.

3. Proverbs 8:22,23 “I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was”

- a) Proverbs 8 is not talking about Christ being set up or created, as the Watchtower claims. Proverbs 8:1,2 tells us that it is wisdom or understanding which is personified: “Doth not wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice? She standeth.” 8:1,2. Wisdom and understanding are described as “she”, but Christ is “He”.
- b) If this is talking about Christ, then we must also assume that Christ is a woman who cries in the streets (1:20,21), and who lives with someone named Prudence (8:12) in a house with seven pillars (9:1). Wisdom is the theme of Proverbs chapters 1-9. See 8:1.

Ask: Do you believe that Christ is a woman who cries in the streets? (Proverbs 1:20,21).

Ask: Was there a time when God had no wisdom? No. Wisdom is as old and eternal as God.

Ask: Where is Jesus Christ mentioned by name in this passage?

Conclusion: Proverbs 8:22,23 is speaking metaphorically about God’s eternal wisdom and how it was “brought forth” to take part in the creation of the universe (v.24).

4. Colossians 1:15 - “the firstborn (Greek: prototokos 4416) of every creature”.

JWs use this verse to teach that Jesus Christ was created at a point in time as an angel.

They ignore the evidence and insist that the word “firstborn” here means “first created”, “the eldest in Jehovah’s family of sons”.

The Bible teaching:

1) “Firstborn” (Greek: prototokos) does NOT mean “first-created” (Greek: protoktisis).

First-created (Protoktisis) is never used of Christ in NT. Ask: Where is it used of Jesus in NT?

Ask: Why didn’t Paul use the term “first-created” (protoktisis) in Colossians 1:15 if he meant that Christ was the first one created by Jehovah?

2) Ask: What does “firstborn” (Greek: prototokos 4416) mean?

Answer: “Pre-eminent, Ruler, Sovereign, First in rank”.

It is used in other passages which refer to Christ:

i) Romans 8:29 “that he might be the firstborn among many brethren”. “Prototokos” presents Christ as the pre-eminent member of the group (S. Zodhiates NT, p 1249).

ii) Colossians 1:15. “The firstborn of every creature” Christ is the one pre-eminent and supreme ruler over all creation (S Zodhiates NT, p 1250). v.16 “By him were all things created” means that Christ Himself is not part of Creation (John 1:3).

iii) Colossians 1:18 “He (Christ) is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning (arche), the firstborn (prototokos=Ruler) from the dead; that in all things he might have the pre-eminence (proteuon)”.

“Arche” means “first cause” (Revelation 3:14, Colossians 1:18) and is parallel to “prototokos” in Colossians 1:15,18, both asserting Christ’s pre-eminence.

Note: “Proteuon” (pre-eminence) present tense is used only in Colossians 1:18 and indicates not an acquired right to be ruler and pre-eminent, but an inherent right by virtue of His nature. Christ, being the Creator, deserves to have pre-eminence.

iv) Hebrews 1:6 “And again, when he bringeth the firstbegotten (prototokos=Ruler) into the world, he saith “And let all the angels of God worship Him”.

Alternately, translate this as “And when He again brings the firstborn into the world”, refers to Christ’s second coming when Christ as King will be worshipped by the angels. Christ is exalted even above all the angels.

v) Revelation 1:5 “And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the firstbegotten (prototokos=Ruler) of the dead, and the prince (arche = chief) of the the kings of the earth.” Here “prototokos” means that Christ is first of those to be resurrected, and prince (arche) means ruler of earth’s kings at His second coming.

Note: JW’s compare Christ as the firstborn of all creation with the firstborn son of Pharaoh. This is nonsensical, because it is true that Pharaoh parented his son, but it is not true that “all creation” parented Jesus.

3) We must understand what the original speaker or writer intended by the words which he used. The ancient Hebrews used the term “firstborn son” when referring to the pre-eminent son, regardless of whether or not he was the first son born to the parents.

The son with the title “firstborn” had the right of primogeniture which meant that:

- i) He acquired a special blessing (Genesis 27);
- ii) He became heir of a double share of the father’s wealth (Deuteronomy 21:17);
- iii) He replaced his father as the family head. He had authority over his brothers;
- iv) He represented the father in civil and religious matters;
- v) He had some holiness because through him flowed the common blood of the tribe (Genesis 49:3; Deuteronomy 21:17).

Key: The term “firstborn” does not refer to the first one born, but to the pre-eminent one in the family. Notice these examples where the son with the title “firstborn” was not born first:

- (1) David was the last born son of Jesse, yet Psalm 89:27 says of him: “I will make him my firstborn, higher than the kings of the earth”. (v.20 onwards refers to David).
- (2) Ephraim was the second born son of Joseph: “The name of the second called he Ephraim.” (Genesis 41:50-52). Yet “Ephraim is my firstborn” (Jeremiah 31:9). This was because of his pre-eminent position. Manasseh was born first to Joseph, but Ephraim became the firstborn because of his pre-eminence.
- (3) Jacob (Israel) was the second son born to Isaac, after Esau, yet God says of Israel, “Israel is my son, even my firstborn.” (Exodus 4:22). Esau says of himself, “I am Esau thy firstborn”. (Genesis 27:19). Esau means that he was born first and should have the birthright. God means that Israel, though born second, took the pre-eminent position. Hence, in this sense Christ is firstborn because of His pre-eminence, not because He was created first as JW’s think.
- (4) Solomon was born to David later, and the line of the kings came through Solomon, yet Amnon was born first (I Chronicles 3:2).
- (5) Isaac was born 13 years after Ishmael, yet Isaac took the pre-eminent position in the family. (Genesis 17:19).
- (6) Judah was the fourth son born to Jacob (Genesis 29:35), yet Judah received the dominion and line of Christ, even though Reuben being born first forfeited his right of primogeniture due to fornication (Genesis 49:3,4).

4) Firstborn can be rendered metaphorically, not meaning born first. Examples include:

- i) Job 18:13 “the firstborn of death shall devour his strength”. As the firstborn son held the chief place, so Job refers to the chiefest (most deadly) disease that death possessed;
- ii) Isaiah 14:30 “The firstborn of the poor shall feed”, means the poorest of the poor.

Conclusion: Firstborn does not mean born first or created first. Rather, it is a title of first rank, or pre-eminent position. Paul calls Christ the firstborn (prototokos = Ruler).

In the New Testament, Christ is never called the “first created” (protoktisis).

Ask: What does Psalm 89:27 mean by calling David firstborn, when he was the last born son?

Ask: Why didn’t Paul use ‘first created’ (protoktisis) of Christ in Colossians 1:15 if he intended to teach that Christ was the first one created by Jehovah?

5. John 3:16 - “He gave His only begotten Son”.

Watchtower teaching: JW's teach that the term “Son of God” refers to Jesus as a separate created being, just as Isaac was called Abraham’s “only begotten son” (Hebrews 11:17), and that Jesus as “Son of God” was not God Himself. JW's claim that Almighty God is the Father of Jesus in the same sense that Abraham is the father of Isaac. JW's claim that God is the senior, and Jesus is the junior - in time, position, power and knowledge.

The Bible teaching: Isaac was not Abraham’s “only son”. Abraham had begotten a number of other sons, such as Ishmael, Zimram, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak and Shuah (Genesis 25:2). The term “only begotten Son” means that Isaac was Abraham’s unique son. Hence Jesus is “the only begotten Son” in the sense that no-one else is as unique as Jesus. Jesus is alone all that God is. “All things that the Father hath are mine.” (John 16:15). If Christ has all the attributes that the Father has, then Christ is God, because only God has eternity, omniscience, omnipresence and omnipotence.

Question: What did “Son of” mean among the ancients? The idea that the title “Son of God” indicates inferiority to the Father, is based on a faulty conception of what “Son of” meant among the ancients. Though it can mean “offspring of” in some contexts, it also carries the more important meaning: “OF THE ORDER OF” or “the NATURE OF”.

It is used in this way as follows:

- i) “The sons of the prophets” (I Kings 20:35) meant “of the order of the prophets”;
- ii) The “sons of the singers” (Nehemiah 12:28) meant “of the order of the singers”;
- iii) “Of the sons of Asaph” (Nehemiah 11:22) meant “of the order of Asaph”.

Hence, the phrase “Son of God” means “of the order of God” or “nature of God” as a claim to Christ’s undiminished Deity. 2 Greek words for son, “Huios”, same nature; “teknon” boy. Ancient Jews and Orientals used the phrase “son of” to indicate sameness of nature and equality of being. When Jesus claimed to be the Son (Huios, never teknon) of God, His Jewish contemporaries fully understood that He was claiming to be fully equivalent to God. Hence, when Jesus claimed to be the Son (Huios) of God, the Jews said, “We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God”. (John 19:7). “he said that God was his Father, making himself equal with God.” (John 5:18).

Ask: If the phrase “son of” meant sameness of nature and equality of being among the ancients, as historical records clearly show, then what does this tell us about the meaning of the phrase “Son of God”? Answer: Jesus has the same nature as God.

Christ was the Son of God before His human birth:

- i) “For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world . . .” (John 3:17). That Christ, as the Son of God, was sent into the world, implies that He was the Son of God before His incarnation.
- ii) Proverbs 30:4 shows God as the Creator who has a Son:
“What is his name, and what is his son’s name?”
This speaks of God the Father and God the Son in present tense terms in OT times.
- iii) “the form of the fourth is like the Son of God.” (Daniel 3:25).

Nebuchadnezzar threw three men into the fiery furnace, yet he saw the Son of God walking with them in the furnace. The Masoretic Text and Septuagint reads, “Son of God” (singular) not “a son of the gods” as in the JW New World Translation and the NIV.

6. I Corinthians 15:28 “And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.”

Watchtower teaching: JWs cite this passage to teach that Jesus is not equal to the Father and is not God Almighty. (Reasoning from Scriptures, p.410). JWs teach that all people and Jesus are in complete subjection to Jehovah God. They say that, if Christ were God Almighty, then He wouldn't be in subjection to anyone.

The Bible teaching:

1) The word “subject” here does not apply to Christ’s nature or being. It refers to Christ’s voluntary subjection to the Father to work out the plan of salvation to become the God-man, the Redeemer, the Mediator, and to save humanity from hell. To be the ideal role-model as the perfect man, Christ had to obey the Father to redeem humanity.

Objection: JWs emphasize that now in the glorified state, Christ is still in subjection to the Father, implying that Jesus is not God as the Father is.

Answer: This assumes that Jesus did not retain His human nature in heaven. If a JW can understand that Jesus still retains His human nature now in heaven and that his humanity will always be in subjection to the Father, then the JW objection is solved. Christ was raised immortal in the very same human body in which He died (Luke 24:37-39, Acts 2:31) and ascended in that same resurrection body (Acts 1:11). As Mediator between God and man, He possesses a human nature (I Timothy 2:5). Christ returns as the “Son of Man (Matthew 26:64), a title showing His humanity. Because Christ still possesses his human nature, then He is still in submission to the Father, but His Divine nature makes Him equal to the Father Key: On the human side, Jesus is lesser than the Father. On the divine side, Jesus is equal to the Father.

--

2) Apart from Jesus’ humanity, Jesus has always been and always will be in subjection to the Father, because of the hierarchical relationship in the Trinity. Christ has equality of being with the Father, but Christ performs tasks requiring submission or subordination to the Father.

Ask: Do you submit to the police? (Yes). Are you of inferior nature to the police? (No).

Ask: Does your body submit to your mind? (Y). Is your body less human than your mind?

Ask: Is it right for a wife to submit to her husband? (Yes).

Is she therefore of inferior nature to her husband? (No).

So why does WT say that since Christ submits to the Father, He is inferior in nature?

Note: There is no contradiction between an equality of being and a functional subordination among the Persons in the Godhead.

3) I Corinthians 15:28 teaches that, in the plan of salvation, the Son’s role is to mediate between man and God the Father, only until the end of the Millennium. Then, when the task of redeeming man is complete, Christ ceases acting as Mediator, and voluntarily surrenders the Kingdom to the Father. When Christ delivers up the administration of the earthly kingdom to the Father, then the triune God will reign as God and no longer through the man Christ Jesus.

Gabriel’s words are still true in Luke 1:33: “He (Christ) shall reign over the house of Jacob forever: and of his (Christ’s) Kingdom there shall be no end”.

Conclusion: Christ, as man, will hand over the Kingdom to God the Father (I Cor. 15:24), so that Christ, as God, will reign forever with the Father and the Holy Spirit.

“His (Christ’s) dominion is an everlasting dominion”. (Daniel 7:13,14).

7. I Corinthians 8:6 - “One God the Father . . .”

“But to us there is but one God, the Father . . . and one Lord Jesus Christ . . .”

Watchtower teaching: JW's argue that, since there is “one God” (Jehovah) who is distinct from “one Lord” (Jesus Christ), then Jesus cannot be God.

Biblical reasoning: If this WT reasoning is correct, then the same logic leads us to conclude that the Father is not Lord.

Note: If the reference to the Father being the “one God” proves that Jesus is not God, then by the same logic we must conclude that the reference to Jesus Christ as the “one Lord” means that the Father is not Lord. No JW will concede that the Father is not Lord.

You cannot interpret the first part of the verse one way, and the second part of the verse another way. The faulty logic of JW's here is their assumption that the use of a title for one person (the Father) in one context, automatically rules out its application to another person (Jesus Christ) in another context. JW's should consult what all Scripture says about the Father and about Jesus Christ.

- i) The Father is called Lord in Matthew 11:25: “I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth”.
- ii) Jesus Christ is called God in John 20:28: “My Lord and my God”, and in Hebrews 1:8: “Unto the Son he saith: Thy throne O God . . .” etc.

Hence “God” and “Lord” are used interchangeably of the Father and the Son.

Ask: “Can you see that, since Jesus as one Lord does not mean that the Father is not Lord, then by the same logic, the Father as “one God” does not mean that Jesus is not God?”

8. John 20:17 - “My God and Your God”

“I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God.”

Watchtower teaching: The JW book Reasoning from the Scriptures, p.212, says, “To the resurrected Jesus, the Father was God, just as the Father was God to Mary Magdalene.” JW's argue that because Jesus referred to “My father” and “my God”, Jesus cannot be Almighty God Himself.

The Bible teaching: Why did Jesus call the Father “my God”? Does this imply that Jesus is not God? No, not at all. Christ had only a divine nature before the incarnation. After His birth as a man, He took on a human nature. Therefore, it is in Christ's humanity that He acknowledged the Father as “my God”.

Key verse: “Wherefore, in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God.” Hebr. 2:17

Since Christ came as a man and since some of man's proper duties are to worship God, pray to God and address God as “My Father” and “My God”, then it was perfectly correct for Jesus (speaking as a man) to address the Father in prayer and to call Him “My God”.

Question: Why didn't Jesus just say, “I am ascending to our Father and our God?”

Answer: Jesus always carefully distinguished His relationship with the Father from humans' relationship with the Father.

Key: Jesus was God's Son by nature, but Christians are God's sons by adoption. Jesus never spoke of the Father as “Our Father” but as “the Father” or “My Father”. (The Lord's Prayer is how Christians (Our) should pray.)

Ask: “Why did Jesus always say “the Father” or “my Father” but never “our Father”?”

Conclusion: Because Jesus is God's Son by nature, He is truly God.

Because Jesus is also truly a man by nature, He can call the Father “my God”.

9. John 14:28 - "The Father is greater than I".

Watchtower teaching: The JW book Let God be True, 1946, p.110 says that Jehovah is greater than Jesus in his office and person. Jehovah, they say is intrinsically greater than Jesus, and hence Jesus cannot be God Almighty. The JW book Reasoning from the Scriptures, p.410, says, "The fact that Jesus is lesser than Jehovah proves that He cannot be God in the same sense that Jehovah is".

The Bible Teaching: In John 14:28 Jesus is not speaking about His nature or being (Christ had earlier said in John 10:30, "I and the Father are one"), but about His lowly position of incarnation as a man. The Athanasian Creed says that Christ is "equal to the Father as touching His Godhood, and inferior to the Father as touching His manhood". Christ was here contrasting His human humiliation, shame, suffering, rejection, opposition by enemies, and soon crucifixion, with the Father's majesty, glory and worship by the angels in heaven.

Key: Jesus said, "The Father is greater (Greek: meizon) than I", not "The Father is better (Greek: kreitton) than I". "Greater" refers to the Father's greater position (in heaven), not to a greater nature. If the word "better" had been used, this would indicate that the Father had a better nature than Jesus.

- i) The distinction is made clear in Hebrews 1:4 where 'better' (Gk: kreitton) is used to teach Jesus' superiority over the angels in His nature and position.
- ii) This difference between "greater" and "better" is seen in this example:
"The President of a country is greater (Greek: meizon) in position than his people, but as a human being he is not better (Greek: kreitton) in nature than his people".
- iii) Jesus in becoming a man, not only took on a lower position than the Father, but also took on a lower position than the angels. "But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death". (Hebrews 2:9)

Ask: "Do you agree that a President is greater in position but not better in nature than his people?"

Ask: "In view of greater (meaning higher in position) and better (meaning higher in nature), is it not clear that in John 14:28, Jesus is speaking of the Father's temporary higher position and not his higher nature than Jesus?"

Q: How did Christ make Himself of no reputation when He became a man? (Phil. 2:6-9)

1. He veiled His preincarnate glory in order to dwell among men, but never surrendered His deity or divine glory. On Mount Transfiguration He allowed His glory to shine briefly. If Christ had not veiled His glory, mankind would not have been able to look at Him. When John saw His glory on Patmos he said, "I fell at His feet as dead". (Rev. 1:17).
2. He submitted to a voluntary non-use of some of His divine attributes (occasionally) in order to achieve His objectives. He never surrendered His attributes, but He did voluntarily cease using some of them on earth. Jesus showed His divine attributes of:
 - i) omniscience ("He knew all men" John 2:24; 16:30; "Lord thou knowest all things" 21:17.
 - ii) omnipresence (John 3:13 "the Son of man which is in heaven").
As God He was everywhere at once, but as man He chose to walk there.
 - iii) omnipotence (Matthew 28:18 "all power is given unto me".)
3. He condescended to take on the likeness (form, appearance) of man and the form of a servant. (Phil 2:7). His becoming a man involved gaining human attributes (subject to weakness, pain, sorrow and temptation), but not giving up his divine attributes.

Conclusion: "The Father is greater than I" (John 14:28) said Jesus from the vantage point of His incarnation as a man. This verse relates to Christ's voluntary subordination to the Father to accomplish his work on earth. "Greater than" refers to His greater position not his nature.

10. Mark 13:32 “But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no not the angels . . . neither the Son, but the Father”.

Watchtower teaching: JW's say that, because Christ was ignorant of the day of His return, He cannot be Almighty God because God knows all things.

Bible teaching: Christ before His incarnation was one in person and one in nature (100% God). Christ after his incarnation was one in person, but two in nature (100% God and 100% man). He who had always been God the Father, now took on a human nature at his incarnation. The attributes of Christ's human nature and divine nature both belong to His one person.

Thus Christ at the same time had seemingly contradictory qualities, possessing both human nature and divine nature:

He was finite, and yet infinite;

He was weak, and yet omnipotent;

He was increasing in knowledge, and yet omniscient;

He was limited to one place at a time, and yet omnipresent.

In Christ's incarnation, His one person possesses the attributes of both divine and human natures. Whatever is true of either His human nature or divine nature is true of His one person. Christ sometimes operated as a man, and sometimes operated as God, all in the one person. Christ in His human nature knew hunger (Luke 4:2), weariness (John 4:6) and sleepiness (Luke 8:23). Christ in His divine nature was omniscient (John 21:17), omnipresent (John 1:48) and omnipotent (John 11).

Key: At different times, Christ operated under the major influence of one or the other of His two natures. He operated in the human sphere to achieve His purposes in salvation.

Both of Christ's natures operated in many Gospel events:

i) Christ's desire to eat a fig as he approached a fig tree reflected that natural ignorance of the human mind (Matthew 21:19). (ie: in His humanity He did not know from a distance that there was no fruit on the tree). But then He revealed His divine omnipotence by causing the fig tree to wither.

ii) Jesus in His divine omniscience knew that Lazarus had died, so he set off for Bethany (John 11:11). When Jesus arrived, He asked (in His humanness, without exercising His omniscience) where Lazarus had been laid (v 34). Jesus, as the God-man is simultaneously omniscient as God (along with the Father and the Holy Spirit), and yet ignorant of some things as man (along with mankind).

iii) Jesus in Mark 13:32 was speaking from the vantage point of His humanity, as one member of the human race who was not omniscient (not knowing the date of His return). As a man his knowledge was increasing. As God it was infinite. If Jesus was speaking from the vantage point of His divinity, He would not have said the same thing.

Note: In Christ's divine nature, He is just as omniscient as the Father. “He knew what was in man” (John 2:25). “Now are we sure that thou knowest all things” (John 16:30).

“Lord, thou knowest all things” (John 21:17).

“In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge” (Colossians 2:3).

Ask: “Can anyone other than God be omniscient?” (No).

Ask: “Since Christ had both a human and divine nature, and since He used His omniscience often, can you see that Jesus was speaking from His human nature when He said that He didn't know the day or the hour of His return?”

11. Isaiah 9:6 - Is Jesus “a Mighty God” or “Jehovah God”?

“His name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, the Mighty God (410), the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace”.

Watchtower teaching: JW's concede that Jesus is a “mighty God”, but they are adamant that He is not Almighty God as Jehovah is. They think that Christ is one of lesser gods.

Bible teaching: The Bible shows that both Jesus and Jehovah are called “Mighty God”. Jehovah is called “Mighty God” in:

- a) “The remnant of Israel . . . shall stay upon Jehovah, the remnant of Jacob shall return . . . unto the mighty God (410)”. (Isaiah 10:20,21).
- b) “the Great, the Mighty God (410), Jehovah of hosts, is his name.” (Jeremiah 32:18).
- c) “The mighty God, even Jehovah, hath spoken...” (Psalm 50:1).

Because Jehovah and Jesus are both called “Mighty God”, this proves Christ’s equality with God the Father.

Ask: Since Jehovah is called “Mighty God” (Isaiah 10:21) just as Jesus is called “Mighty God” (Isaiah 9:6), doesn’t this mean that the Watchtower is wrong in saying that “Mighty God” means a lesser deity?

Ask: If both Jesus and Jehovah are “Mighty God”, then what does this tell you about Jesus’ divine nature?

Ask: If both Jesus and Jehovah are equally “Mighty God”, then isn’t this two members of the Trinity?

Note: There is only one Mighty God in heaven:

- a) “I am the first and I am the last; beside me there is no God (430).” (Isaiah 44:6b).
 - b) “Is there a God (433) besides Me? Yea, there is no God; I know not any.” (Isaiah 44:8b).
 - c) “I am the LORD (JHVH), and there is none else, there is no God beside me.” Isaiah 45:5
- The NWT translates John 1:1 as “the word was a god”.

Isaiah 44:8b shows this to be false by denying the existence of “a god” other than Jehovah. The phrase “Mighty God” is “Elohim” in Hebrew, meaning “Fullness of power”, portraying Christ as the “powerful Governor of the universe”.

Notice that “Elohim (430)” is also used to describe Jehovah God as:

- i) “The God (430) of the whole earth.” (Isaiah 54:5).
- ii) “The God (430) of all flesh.” (Jeremiah 32:27).
- iii) “I prayed to the God (430) of heaven.” (Nehemiah 2:4).
- iv) “For the Lord (JHVH) your God (430) is God (430) of gods....a great God.” (Deut 10:17).

In Isaiah 40:3, Jesus is called both Jehovah (3068) and Elohim (430) in the same verse:

“Prepare ye the way of the Jehovah, make straight in the desert a highway for our God (430)”.

Mark 1:3 and John 1:23 apply Jehovah here to Jesus.

Question: What is meant by calling Jesus, “Everlasting Father”?

Since Jesus is not the Father, why does Isaiah call Jesus “the Everlasting Father”?

Answer: Jesus considers the Father as someone other than Himself over 200 times in the NT. “Everlasting Father” in Isaiah 9:6 means “Father of eternity”.

“Father of eternity” means “possessor of eternity”. Hence, Christ as “Father of eternity” means that He is an eternal Being. Only God is eternal. This proves that Jesus is 100% God.

12. John 17:3

NWT	John 17:3	KJV
“This means everlasting life, their taking in knowledge (noun) of you the only true God , and of the one whom you sent forth, Jesus Christ”.	John 17:3	“And this is life eternal, that they may know (verb) thee the only true God , and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.”

This is a most commonly used verse by JWs in two ways:

- 1) The NWT changes the Greek “know (verb in KJV) thee” to “take in knowledge (noun) of you”. The JW then offers a “free home Bible study” to take in this so-called knowledge of God. Those who accept the offer are quickly switched from the Bible to a Watchtower booklet. Watchtower facts keep filling their heads as they take in Watchtower knowledge, but they never get to really know Jesus Christ as Saviour and God personally. Real Christianity is entering God’s family and really knowing God through Jesus Christ as Saviour (Galatians 4:5-9; Romans 8:14-16). For example: If you “take in knowledge” about a movie star, it does not mean that you “know” that movie star personally.
- 2) JWs use John 17:3 to deny the deity of Christ. They say that because the Father is called “the only true God”, then Jesus Christ cannot be the true God.
 - a) The context is Jesus as a man praying the great High Priestly prayer to the Father, and as such it was proper for the man Christ Jesus to call the Father “the only true God”. Christ would not have said this if it was spoken from the viewpoint of His deity.
 - b) If Jesus’ reference to the Father as “the only true God” was meant to exclude the Son from deity, then the same principle of interpretation would have to apply to Jude 4 where Jesus Christ is called “our only owner and Lord, Jesus Christ” (NWT). This would have to exclude the Father from Lordship and ownership. No JW (or anyone else) would accept this.

They speak of the Father as “Lord Jehovah”, even though Jude 4 calls Jesus “our only Lord”. The Holy Spirit is also called “Lord” in II Corinthians 3:17, “the Lord is that Spirit”.

Conclusion: The use of the word “only” is not used exclusively of the Father, nor of the Son, nor of the Holy Spirit.

Jesus being called our “only” Lord does not exclude the Father or Holy Spirit being Lord. The Father being called “the only true God” does not exclude the Son or Holy Spirit from deity.

Ask:	αἰώνιος ζωὴ ἵνα γινώσκωσι everlasting life in order that they may be knowing σὲ τὸν μόνον ἀληθινὸν θεὸν καὶ ὃν you the only true God and whom	life. 3 This means everlasting life, their taking in knowledge of you, the only true
-------------	--	---

Q1: According to John 17:3, how many true Gods are there?

JW: Only one: Jehovah the Father

Q2: Right. Now, would you agree that whatever is not true must be false? (JW:Yes)

Q3: Then, if there is only one true God, all other gods must be false gods, right?(JW:Yes)

Q4: Now, according to John 1:1 in the NWT, Jesus is a god. Do you agree with that?(Yes)

Q5: Well then, is Jesus a true God or a false god? (JW: Hmm, I don’t know).

Q6: He can’t be a false god, can He, since that would mean John was guilty of falsely honouring Jesus as a god? Therefore Jesus must be a true God. But Jehovah is the only true God. Therefore Jesus must be Jehovah.

Note: “True” means here “real or genuine” as opposed to false gods and idols.

John 17:3 does not take away from Jesus Christ’s deity, because John establishes it elsewhere (John 1:1; 5:18,23; 8:24,58; 20:28).

13. Psalm 110:1 “The Lord (JHVH³⁰⁶⁸) said to my Lord (Adonai¹³⁶) sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool.”

Watchtower teaching: JW's say that since Jehovah is speaking in this verse and since the “Lord” is a distinct person from Jehovah, then Jesus must not be Jehovah God Almighty. In Matthew 22:41-45 Jesus claims that He Himself is the “Lord” referred to by David in this Psalm. They therefore conclude that Jesus is not Jehovah, but the one Jehovah speaks to.

Bible Teaching: This verse proves the deity of Christ.

Question 1: Christ asks the Pharisees, “Whose Son is he (Christ)?” regarding the deity of the Messiah. (Matthew 22:42)

Answer: The Pharisees reply, “The son of David”. Their answer was correct but incomplete. II Samuel 7:12-16 shows the Messiah to be the human son of David.

Psalm 110:1 shows the human Messiah also to be God (Adonai), a fact that Christ wanted the Pharisees to acknowledge. Christ anticipated the Pharisees’ half-answer.

That’s why Christ then asks a question regarding Psalm 110:1.

Question 2: “The LORD (JHVH 3068) said unto my Lord (Adonai 136), sit thou on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool. If David then call him (Messiah, Christ, Son of David) Lord (Adonai 136), how is he (Adonai=God) his (David’s) son?” Matt 22:44,45

Answer: Here the first person of the Trinity (God the Father) invites the second person of the Trinity (God the Son) to sit at His right hand.

It seems odd that David would call his own son “My Lord” (Adonai, a title used exclusively of God). The Messiah would be David’s son, but He would also be David’s God.

He would be both God and man.

Question 3: Jesus drove the point home to the Pharisees by asking, “If David then call him Lord (Adonai, Deity), how is he his son?” (Matthew 22:45).

Answer: The Pharisees should have replied that “David called his son Lord because He is God as well as man.” They would then be trapped into allowing Christ to be the Messiah, being both man and God. The Pharisees realised their dilemma, so they refused to answer.

Key: Psalm 110:1 proves the undiminished deity of Jesus Christ, because the same word used for “Lord” (Adonai) in Psalm 110:1 of Jesus Christ (Adonai the Son) is also used of the Father (Adonai the Father) many times in Scripture, such as:

- 1) “Three times in the year all thy males shall appear before the Lord (Adonai) God (JHVH 3068)”. (Exodus 23:17).
- 2) “For the Lord (JHVH 3068) your God (Elohim 430) is God (Elohim) of gods, and Lord (Adonai 136) of lords, a great God (El 410), a mighty, and a terrible”(Deuteronomy 10:17)
- 3) “Behold, the ark of the covenant of the Lord (Adonai 136) of all the earth passeth over before you into Jordan”. (Joshua 3:11)
- 4) “And Joshua said, Alas, O Lord (Adonai) God (JHVH)...” (Joshua 7:7)
- 5) “I prayed therefore unto the Lord (JHVH 3068), and said, O Lord (Adonai) God (JHVH 3069), destroy not thy people . . .” (Deuteronomy 9:26)

Other references to Lord (Adonai¹³⁶) God (JHVH) are:

Deuteronomy 3:24; Exodus 34:23; 15:17; 4:10,11; 5:22; Judges 6:22; 13:8; 16:28; II Samuel 7:18,28,29; I Kings 2:26; 8:53; Psalm 68:20; 69:6; 71:5,16; 73:28; 109:21; 141:8; Isaiah 3:15; 28:16; 22:5,12,14,15; 25:8; 40:10; 48:16; 49:22; 50:4; 52:4; 56:8 etc.

Ask: Did you know that “Adonai” (Lord) used of Jesus Christ in Psalm 110:1 is also used of the Father in Exodus 23:17; Deuteronomy 10:17; Joshua 3:11?

Ask: Can you see that Jesus’ statement to the Pharisees in Matthew 22:42-45 was that the Messiah (Christ) would be David’s son as well as David’s God (Adonai)?

Question: Does “Adonai” mean Jehovah God?

Answer: Yes, for these reasons:

- 1) It is linked together with “JHVH” (Exodus 23:17).
- 2) Jehovah calls himself “Adonai” in Isaiah 8:7, “The LORD (JHVH) spake also unto me again saying: . . . Now therefore behold the Lord (Adonai) bringeth up . . .”

3) אֲדֹנָי the Lord; only used of God, Gen. 18:27; 113, 136
Jud. 13:8; Ezr. 10:3; Neh. 1:11, etc., etc. [Chiefly (in the Pentateuch always) where God is submissively and reverently addressed; as in the phrases אֲדֹנָי אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ex. 4:10,13; Jos. 7:8; אֲדֹנָי אֱלֹהֵינוּ Neh. 1:11, comp. Gen. 15:2; 18:30—32; Ex. 34:9, etc. Then also where God is spoken of, 1 K. 13:10; 22:6; 2 K. 7:6; 19:23; Isa. 6:8; 8:7.

(Gesenius’ Hebrew Chaldee Lexicon to the Old Testament, p. 12)

- 4) WE Vine’s Complete Expository Dictionary of OT and NT Words, p. 140 states that ‘Adonai’ applies to God:

When applied to God, ‘ādōn is used in several senses. It signifies His position as the ⁰one who has authority (like a master) over His people to reward the obedient and punish the disobedient: “Ephraim provoked him to anger most bitterly: therefore shall he leave his blood upon him, and his reproach shall his Lord return unto him” (Hos. 12:14). In such contexts God is conceived as a Being who is sovereign ruler and almighty master.² The word is often a title of respect, a term of direct address usually assuming a specific concrete lord-vassal or master-servant relationship (Ps. 8:1).³ In some cases the word appears to be a title suggesting God’s relationship to and position over Israel: “Three times in the year all thy males shall appear before the Lord God” (Exod. 23:17). In such contexts ‘ādōn is a formal divine name and should probably be transliterated if the proper emphasis is to be retained.⁴ In the form ‘ādōnāy the word means “Lord” par excellence or “Lord over all,” even as it sometimes does in the form ‘ādōn (cf. Deut. 10:17, where God is called the “God of gods, and Lord of lords”; Josh. 3:11, where He is called the “Lord of all the earth”). The word ‘ādōnāy appears in Gen. 15:2: “And Abram said, Lord God, what wilt thou give me, seeing I go childless, . . .” This word frequently appears in Psalms (Ps. 68:17; 86:3) and Isaiah (Isa. 29:13; 40:10).

The JW claim that Jesus cannot be God because Jehovah spoke to Him, is faulty because we who are from the finite earthly realm cannot assume that God who is of infinite heavenly realms must fit into our earthly logic patterns with which we are familiar. God’s ways are greatly above our ways. For example, in Genesis 18:1-3 Abraham addressed the three visitors as “Jehovah”. The two who left to visit Sodom, Lot called them “Jehovah” (19:18), yet the one who remained, Abraham continued to address Him as “Jehovah” (18:22,26,27,30,31,32,33).

Note: JWs often mockingly ask the question when Jesus prays to Father: “Does God talk to Himself?” Yes He does, as in Genesis 18:17-19 where God asks Himself a question: “And Jehovah said, Am I keeping covered from Abraham what I am doing?”

Later in v. 22 Jehovah separates.
Hence the Father can talk to the Son, with the Son still being 100% God.

Ask: If you reject the Trinity because you can’t understand it, then how do you explain how a brown cow by eating green grass gives white milk?

14. John 4:23 - Do we worship the Father only? “True worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship Him.”

Watchtower teaching: JW's say that only the Father is to be worshipped, not Jesus who they claim to be a lesser deity.

Bible teaching:

1. Early Watchtower editions say: “to worship Christ in any form cannot be wrong”. (1880).
Ask: Why did early Watchtower magazines say that we should worship Jesus, while later editions say that we should not?
Ask: Were earlier editions of the Watchtower unscriptural?
2. The NWT shows its anti-Christ bias by translating the Greek word for worship “προσκυνεω” (proskuneo) as “worship” when it applies to the Father (21 times), devils (14 times) and angels (2 times), but as “obeisance” when it applies to Christ (16 times).
Ask: What rule of Greek grammar do you use to so inconsistently translate “proskuneo”?
3. When Christ was worshipped as God, He always accepted such worship as appropriate. Jesus accepted worship from:
 - i) Thomas (John 20:28)
 - ii) a leper (Matthew 8:2).
 - iii) a ruler (Matthew 9:18).
 - iv) a Syrophonician woman (Matthew 15:25).
 - v) Mary Magdalene (Matthew 28:9).
 - vi) the disciples (Matthew 28:17).
 - vii) a blind man (John 9:38).
 - viii) God does not rebuke the wise men for worshipping Jesus (Matthew 2:11).
 - ix) God tells all the angels to worship Jesus (Hebrews 1:6).
4. When Paul and Barnabus healed a man at Lystra, the crowd shouted: “The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men”. (Acts 14:11). When Paul and Barnabus saw that the people were preparing to worship them, they immediately and severely rebuked the misconception that they were gods, by forbidding the people worshipping them. By contrast, Jesus never corrected His followers when they bowed down and worshipped Him. Jesus’ accepting worship as appropriate, proves He is God in the flesh. If Jesus was a man or an angel, He should have refused worship, as the angel rebuked John in Rev.22:8,9. A man or angel accepting worship is sin. Only God is to be worshipped. “Thou shalt worship no other God: for the Lord (JHVH) is a jealous God.” (Exodus 34:14).

Consider the following discussion led by a JW:

JW: Whom do you worship as God? What is his name? (You: The Lord or God).

JW: That’s a title. What is God’s name?

You: Jesus. (Saul in Acts 9:5,17 prays to Jesus, asking “Who art thou Lord?” The Lord replies “I am Jesus.” God should know His name.)

JW: Reads John 4:23 and says, “You are not a true worshipper, because you are worshipping the Son. The Bible says here that true worshippers will worship the Father. Do you know the Father’s name?

JW's then present their standard arguments about the name Jehovah.

JW's preaching theme is: Deny the Deity of Christ, and teach that only the Father (Jehovah) must be worshipped. To establish this doctrine they show certain verses, clearly avoiding Isaiah 9:6 (the mighty God), John 1:1 (the word was God), John 8:58,59 (before Abraham was, I am); John 20:28 (My Lord and my God), Colossians 2:9 (in him dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead bodily), Hebrews 1:6 (Let all the angels of God worship him), I Timothy 3:16 (God was manifest in the flesh) all showing the deity and worship of Christ.

You ask JW: While agreeing that the Father should be worshipped, do you respect the Father's wishes in other matters too? (Yes).

Read John 5:23 where the Father requires "that all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father". Do you give worshipful honour to the Son? (No).

Then your worship of the Father is in vain, because the same verse continues: "He that honoureth not the Son, honoureth not the Father which hath sent him".

The words "even as" mean that we must honour both the Father as God, and the Son as God.

Ask: Do you give worshipful honour to the Son as you do to the Father? (No)

Then your worship is in vain and you are not giving worshipful honour to the Father.

15. Mark 10:17,18 "Why callest thou me good? There is none good but one, that is, God."

Watchtower teaching: JWs claim that this verse proves that Jesus is not God, as Jesus said, only God is truly good. They say that Jesus here would not accept the title "God". JWs say, "Jesus was saying that no-one is as good as God, not even Jesus." (Should you Believe in the Trinity, p17)

Bible Teaching: Jesus was saying to the rich young ruler:

"You have given me a title belonging only to God. Do you understand and mean that I am God?" Jesus was not denying that He was God or good.

Jesus was asking him to examine the implications of what he was saying. Jesus asked in effect, "By calling me good, are you saying that I am God?" Jesus did not deny His deity, but His question was a veiled claim to it. Either Jesus was good and God, or a bad man.

Ask: Where in the text does Jesus explicitly say that He is not good?

By asking, "Why do you call me good?" this is not denying Christ's goodness.

Note: Jesus did claim to be good and hence God: 'I am the good shepherd'. (John 10:14) and "There is none good but one, that is God". (Mark 10:18)

16. Hebrews 9:27 In this verse, the Watchtower adds "for all time". Why?

This occurs in no NT manuscripts. The NWT does not even place this phrase in brackets.

This misleads readers to think that it is part of the NT text.

NWT	Hebrews 9:27	KJV
And as it is reserved for men to die once for all time , but after this judgment.	And as it is appointed unto men once to die, after this the judgment.	And as it is appointed unto men once to die, after this the judgment.

The Watchtower organisation believes that unbelievers will be annihilated, with no continued existence in hell. This is why they add "for all time", thus giving the meaning that unbelievers die only once, and are annihilated for all time.

The intended, correct meaning is that men die (physically) once, and that they will be resurrected, judged and sentenced to the everlasting lake of fire (Revelation 20:11-15), with a continued conscious existence forever.

The Watchtower have added, "for all time" to agree with their theological bias on the annihilation of the soul at death. "For all time" is not found in any NT Greek manuscript.

Ask: Is it right to add words that change a text's meaning as the Watchtower has done?

Ask: Where is the Greek expression "for all time" in Hebrews 9:27? Show it to me!

Ask: What are you going to do about it?

872	ὅσον ἀπόκειται τοῖς ἀποθάνειν, μετὰ δὲ τοῦτο κρίσις, how much it is lying off to die,	27 καὶ ἀνά καθ' ἑαυτοῦ And according to himself	καθ' ἑαυτοῦ ἀποθάνειν ὅσον ἀπόκειται τοῖς ἀποθάνειν, μετὰ δὲ τοῦτο κρίσις, as it is reserved for men to die once for all time, but after this a judgment, 28 so also

11. THE TRINITY

Watchtower Teaching: JW arguments against the Trinity are:

- i) If Jesus is God, who ran the universe during the three days that Jesus was dead in the grave? Satan had a great chance to take control.
Answer: Jesus' body died, not His soul or spirit. He along with the Father and the Holy Spirit still ran the universe.
- ii) If Jesus is the immortal God, He could not have died.
Answer: The immortal God, by taking on a mortal body, had His mortal body die.
- iii) Since God is not a God of confusion (I Corinthians 14:33), it is impossible that the Bible would talk of a God who could not be understood by human reason. JWs claim that the Trinity is incomprehensible and unreasonable. "We worship what we know" (John 4:22).
Answer: Man's lack of understanding has never stopped new discoveries. What percent of the total knowledge of the universe do you possess? (about zero percent).
Ask: Could there be something about God that you don't comprehend? (eg: His Trinity?).
- iv) The word "Trinity" is not in the Bible.
Answer: Neither is "Bible", "organisation", "Kingdom Hall", chocolate, motor car, etc. Say to the JW: "By this logic you would agree that Kingdom Halls don't exist either?" This is shallow reasoning designed to throw the Christian off guard.
If it can be proved that the Bible teaches a certain truth, then naming that truth does not make it unbiblical. We should ask: "Is the particular teaching in the Bible?"
- v) The Watchtower has misrepresented the Trinity doctrine in order to make its denial more plausible. They erect a straw man that is easily knocked down.
They call the Trinity a "freakish looking, three headed God" (Let God be True, p 102)
"This doctrine of three Gods in one God . . ." (Studies in Scripture, 1899, Vol 5, p 60,61)
Note: Trinitarians do not believe in "three Gods in one God".
They believe in one God, with three co-equal persons in the one Godhead.

1. Refuting the Watchtower's FALSE Quotes of Early Church Writers

The Watchtower is quite happy to tell lies by inventing statements allegedly made by six Ante-Nicene Church writers who lived before 325 AD.

Page 7 of their publication "Should you believe in the Trinity?" is reproduced on the next page showing the Watchtower's claims that these ancient writers taught that Jesus Christ was not God. These quotes are false and invented by the Watchtower. They are easily refuted by the photocopied excerpts of the 10 volume set of genuine Ante-Nicene church fathers' quotes that prove these early writers strong belief in and defence of the Trinity.

In the Watchtower's false quotes we notice that:

- 1) None of these references are given a source, making them nearly impossible to check.
It is almost certain that the Watchtower has invented these quotes.
- 2) Notice the lie of the central bold quote on page 7: "There is no evidence that any sacred writer even suspected the existence of a [Trinity] within the Godhead".
We refute this Watchtower lie, and prove beyond doubt that both the Trinity and the full deity of Christ were well known and firmly believed as early as 110 AD as seen from the quotes by the Ante-Nicene (before 325 AD) church fathers which follow the Watchtower quote.

T[estament] and other early Christian writings."—Encyclopædia of Religion and Ethics.

"The formulation 'one God in three Persons' was not solidly established, certainly not fully assimilated into Christian life and its profession of faith, prior to the end of the 4th century. . . . Among the Apostolic Fathers, there had been nothing even remotely approaching such a mentality or perspective."—New Catholic Encyclopedia.

What the Ante-Nicene Fathers Taught

THE ante-Nicene Fathers were acknowledged to have been leading religious teachers in the early centuries after Christ's birth. What they taught is of interest.

Justin Martyr, who died about 165 C.E., called the prehuman Jesus a created angel who is "other than the God who made all things." He said that Jesus was inferior to God and "never did anything except what the Creator . . . willed him to do and say."

Irenaeus, who died about 200 C.E., said that the prehuman Jesus had a separate existence from God and was inferior to him. He showed that Jesus is not equal to the "One true and only God," who is "supreme over all, and besides whom there is no other."

Clement of Alexandria, who died about 215 C.E., called God "the uncreated and imperishable and only true God." He said that the Son "is next to the only omnipotent Father" but not equal to him.

Tertullian, who died about 230 C.E., taught

The following quotes are from the 10 Volume set of The Ante-Nicene Fathers, translations of The Writings of the Fathers down to A.D. 325, by editors Alexander Roberts and James Donaldson, American Reprint of the Edinburgh edition, revised and arranged by A C Coxe, published by W.B.Eerdmans, Grand Rapids, Michigan, reprinted in May 1987.

The Watchtower's claim that Constantine and the Council of Nicea introduced the deity of Christ and Trinity doctrines in 325 AD is proven false by these pre-325 AD quotes to the contrary:

i) Justin Martyr (110-165 AD),
Volume I, page 263:
'His Son, being God'

Volume I, page 219

Justin Martyr says:
'Christ existed as God before the ages'

that this Christ existed as God before the ages,|

Volume I, page 264)

Justin Martyr says that 'Christ is Lord and God'.

the supremacy of God. He observed: "The Father is different from the Son (another), as he is greater; as he who begets is different from him who is begotten; he who sends, different from him who is sent." He also said: "There was a time when the Son was not. . . . Before all things, God was alone."

Hippolytus, who died about 235 C.E., said that God is "the one God, the first and the only One, the Maker and Lord of all," who "had nothing co-eval [of equal age] with him But he was One, alone by himself; who, willing it, called into being what had no being before," such as the created prehuman Jesus.

Origen, who died about 250 C.E., said that "the Father and Son are two substances . . . two things as to their essence," and that "compared with the Father, [the Son] is a very small light."

Summing up the historical evidence, Alvan Lamson says in The Church of the First Three Centuries: "The modern popular doctrine of the Trinity . . . derives no support from the language of Justin [Martyr]; and this observation may be extended to all the ante-Nicene Fathers; that is, to all Christian writers for three centuries after the birth of Christ. It is true, they speak of the Father, Son, and . . . holy Spirit, but not as co-equal, not as one numerical essence, not as Three in One, in any sense now admitted by Trinitarians. The very reverse is the fact."

Thus, the testimony of the Bible and of history makes clear that the Trinity was unknown throughout Biblical times and for several centuries thereafter.

"There is no evidence that any sacred writer even suspected the existence of a [Trinity] within the Godhead."—The Triune God ?

CHAP. CXXVI. — THE VARIOUS NAMES OF CHRIST ACCORDING TO BOTH NATURES. IT IS SHOWN THAT HE IS GOD, AND APPEARED TO THE PATRIARCHS.

Therefore neither Abraham, nor Isaac, nor Jacob, nor any other man, saw the Father and ineffable Lord of all, and also of Christ, but [saw] Him who was according to His will His Son, being God, and the Angel because He ministered to His will; whom also it pleased Him to be born man by the Virgin; who also was fire when He conversed with Moses from the bush.

"And that Christ being Lord, and God the Son of God, and appearing formerly in power as Man, and Angel, and in the glory of fire as at the bush, so also was manifested at the judgment executed on Sodom, has been demonstrated fully by what has been said."

ii) Irenaeus (120-202 AD)
Volume I, page 328 not only shows the NWT to be wrong on John 1:1 but also calls Christ 'God'

Very properly, then, did he say, "In the beginning was the Word," for He was in the Son; "and the Word was with God," for He was the beginning; "and the Word was God," of course, for that which is begotten of God is God.

iii) Clement of Alexandria (153-217 AD)
In Volume 2, p 468, written in 193 AD, Clement clearly quotes the Holy Trinity as Father, Son & Holy Spirit.

① I understand nothing else than the Holy Trinity to be meant; for the third is the Holy Spirit, and the Son is the second, by whom all things were made according to the will of the Father.³

page 173

This Word, then, the Christ, the cause of both our being at first (for He was in God) and of our well-being, this very Word has now appeared as man, He alone being both, both God and man—the Author of all blessings to us;

iv) Tertullian (200-250 AD)
Volume 3, page 598

this one only God has also a Son, His Word, who proceeded⁴ from Himself, by whom all things were made, and without whom nothing was made. Him we believe to have been sent by the Father into the Virgin, and to have been born of her—being both Man and God, the Son of Man and the Son of God, and to have been called by the name of Jesus Christ;

page 598

while the mystery of the dispensation⁹ is still guarded, which distributes the Unity into a Trinity,^② placing in their order¹⁰ the three Persons—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost: three, however, not in condition,¹¹ but in degree;¹² not in substance, but in form; not in power, but in aspect;¹³ yet of one substance, and of one condition, and of one power, inasmuch as He is one God, from whom these degrees and forms and aspects are reckoned, under the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.¹⁴

Tertullian against Praxeas, Volume 3, p.606

when all the Scriptures attest the clear existence of, and distinction in, (the Persons of) the Trinity,^③

④ Still, in these few quotations the distinction of Persons in the Trinity is clearly set forth. For there is the Spirit Himself who speaks, and the Father to whom He speaks, and the Son of whom He speaks.¹³

Tertullian correctly quotes John 1:1, saying that Christ is God. (Volume 3, p. 607)

CHAP. XII.—OTHER QUOTATIONS FROM HOLY SCRIPTURE ADDUCED IN PROOF OF THE PLURALITY OF PERSONS IN THE GODHEAD.

Now if He too is God, according to John, (who says,) "The Word was God,"⁸ then you have two Beings—One that commands that the thing be made, and the Other that executes the order and creates.

Tertullian again quotes the Trinity on a fourth occasion. (Vol 4, page 99)

v) Hippolytus (170-236 AD) Volume 5, page 228 mentions the Trinity and quotes John 1:1 correctly.

⑥

vi) Origen (185-254 AD) Volume 4, page 255. Twice he quotes the word 'Trinity', as Father, Son and Holy Spirit

Also on page 258 he quotes the Trinity in 'Origen de Principiis', written in 230 AD.

⑧ which we have manifestly shown to be the case with Christ and the Holy Spirit alone, as undoubtedly with the Father also? For it was proved that there was nothing compound in the nature of the Trinity.

⑨

vii) Thaumaturgus (205-265 AD) Volume 6, pages 42, 45

vii.

⑩

we believe that three persons — namely, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit — are declared to possess the one Godhead: for the one divinity showing itself forth according to nature in the Trinity¹² establishes the oneness of the nature; and thus there is a (divinity that is the) property of the Father, according to the word, "There is one God the Father;"¹¹ and there is a divinity hereditary¹² in the Son, as it is written, "The Word was God;"¹³ and there is a divinity present according to nature in the Spirit — to wit, what subsists as the Spirit of God — according to Paul's statement, "Ye are the temple of God, and the Spirit of God dwelleth in you."¹⁴

⑬

Wherefore the Trinity is to be adored, to be glorified, to be honoured, and to be revered;

For the very Church itself is, properly and principally, the Spirit Himself, in whom is the Trinity of the One Divinity — Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.¹³ and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost."¹⁶ And by this He showed, that whosoever omitted any one of these, failed in glorifying God perfectly. For it is through this Trinity¹⁷ that the Father is glorified. For the Father willed, the Son did, the Spirit manifested. The whole Scriptures, then, proclaim this truth.

This is most clearly pointed out by the Apostle Paul, when demonstrating that the power of the Trinity is one and the same, in the words, "There are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit; there are diversities of administrations, but the same Lord; and there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God who worketh all in all. But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal."² From which it most clearly follows that there is no difference in the Trinity, but that which is called the gift of the Spirit is made known through the Son, and operated by God the Father. "But all these worketh that one and the self-same Spirit, dividing to every one severally as He will."³

8. Having made these declarations regarding the Unity of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, let us return to the order in which we began the discussion.

VIII.

We acknowledge that the Son and the Spirit are consubstantial with the Father, and that the substance of the Trinity is one, — that is, that there is one divinity according to nature, the

⑪

And those who have fellowship with men that reject the consubstantiality as a doctrine foreign to the Scriptures, and speak of any of the persons in the Trinity¹⁵ as created, and separate that person from the one natural divinity, we hold as aliens, and have fellowship with none such.⁵ There is one God the Father, and there is only one divinity. But the Son also is God, as being the true image of the one and only divinity, according to generation and the nature which He has from

⑮

And that the holy Trinity is to be worshipped without either separation or alienation, is taught us by Paul, who says in his Second Epistle to the Corinthians: "The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all."⁹

2. Is the Trinity a Pagan Concept? No! Because:

i) The Babylonians and Assyrians believed in triads of gods, which were three separate gods (polytheism) governing other gods. This is totally different from the Trinity of only one God (monotheism) with three persons within the one Godhead.

ii) Triads of gods pre-date Christianity by about 700 years and were far removed from Israel

iii) Some pagan ideas have some truth in them, such as the pagan Flood legends.

Just because pagans spoke of a concept that remotely resembles a biblical concept, does not mean that Christians stole it from the pagans.

iv) JWs quote Hislop's The Two Babylons to support their case, yet they don't tell us that Hislop believes in the Trinity, as seen from Hislop's quote:

“They all admitted a Trinity, but did they worship the Triune Jehovah?” (p. 90)

- About 80% of the sources that the WT quotes are from Trinitarians. We ask:

“How can the WT disprove the Trinity by quoting sources who believe the Trinity?”

- 15% of their sources are secular works like Encyclopaedia Britannica.

- 5% of WT sources are invalid sources of Biblical truth, eg: sceptics, spiritists, Unitarians.

- The WT always finds some unknown, obscure person to agree with them. They do not examine the credibility of such sources. Most WT sources have no credibility & no authority.

- The WT rarely gives page numbers of its quotes to check the source or context.

v) JWs claim they represent the “faith once delivered to the saints”. They claim that the Trinity idea was introduced in 325 AD. What they don't say is that current WT teachings have no precedent in history. They do not say who were the JWs of the first three centuries or later. No early church “father” represented their beliefs. The WT is historically bankrupt.

vi) The WT, by showing a three-headed god, use the “straw-man effect”, where they misrepresent what Christians believe, and then proceed to “shoot down” this “straw man”. This is seen in five pictures of three-headed gods which are supposed to represent the God of Christendom. (“Should you believe in the Trinity?” p 10).

vii) The WT is happy to misquote sources to prove their point.

Consider page 6 “Should you believe in the Trinity?”, where they misquote the New Encyclopaedia Britannica by failing to give the full relevant quote. They stop the quote at the asterisk *

“The Encyclopaedia Britannica (1976 Edition) correctly states:

“Neither the word Trinity, nor the explicit doctrine as such, appears in the New Testament,”

[*They stop the quote here, ignoring the rest of the article which endorses the Trinity:]

“nor did Jesus and his followers intend to contradict the Shema in the Old Testament: ‘Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is one Lord’ (Deuteronomy 6:4). The earliest Christians, however, had to cope with the implications of the coming of Jesus Christ and of the presence and power of God among them - ie, the Holy Spirit, whose coming we connected with the celebration of Pentecost. The Father, Son, and Holy Spirit were associated in such New Testament passages as the Great Commission: “Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit” (Matthew 28:19); and in the apostolic benediction: “The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all” (2 Cor. 13:14). Thus, the New Testament established the basis for the doctrine of the Trinity. The doctrine developed gradually over several centuries and through many controversies.”

Any early church council disputes were over fine points of Trinity clarification, such as the substance, nature and omnipotence of Father, Son and Holy Spirit, never over whether the Trinity was right or wrong. The truth of the Trinity was always accepted. 877

3. Refuting Watchtowers' wrong application of I Corinthians 14:33

“for God is not the author of confusion, but of peace . . .”

Watchtower Teaching: JW's say that because God is not the author of confusion, the Trinity doctrine cannot be true because it is so unreasonable. How can the Father, Son and Holy Spirit each be God, and yet there be only one God? It doesn't make sense to them.

Bible Teaching: Just because one can't fully understand something, doesn't mean it is false.

i) Finite humans cannot possibly understand everything about the infinite God.

“How unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out.” (Romans 11:33).

“For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord.

As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.” (Isaiah 55:8,9).

ii) Can you fully understand how light can be both a particle of matter and a wave form?

iii) Can you fully understand how God had no beginning? (No). Do you reject the idea? (No).

Ask: Should we reject the Trinity doctrine because we don't fully understand it, when we accept other things about God and the universe which we don't fully understand?

I Corinthians 14:33 means that a church should avoid disharmony in its services by only having two or three prophets speak in a service, and only one at a time.

“Confusion” means “parts of a whole which are at strife with one another”.

“Peace” means “parts of a whole acting in harmony”.

4. Refuting WT's misunderstanding of John 17:3 (See earlier study on page 868).

5. Refuting WT's misunderstanding of Deuteronomy 6:4 and Mark 12:29

“Hear, O Israel, the Lord (JHVH) our God (Elohim) is one Lord (JHVH).” (Deut 6:4).

Watchtower teaching: JW's say that, since God is one, He cannot be Triune at the same time. Why would God speak as one person if He were composed of three persons?

Bible teaching: The ordinary name of God (Elohim) is in the plural form.

“Hear, O, Israel, Jehovah our Elohim, one Jehovah.” Deuteronomy 6:4.

If God had intended to assert a solitary, exclusive type of unity, the expression would have been “Eloah”, not the plural “Elohim”.

It does not say: “Hear, O Israel, Jehovah, our Elohim, one Eloah.”

The use of Elohim (a uniplural noun) means: “there is a real plurality, yet Jehovah is one.”

Ask: Who is Jehovah? Is it the Father alone? Is Jesus Jehovah? Is the Holy Spirit Jehovah?

If we can find verses teaching that Jesus is Jehovah (or God) and the Holy Spirit is Jehovah, then we have proved the Trinity.

i) The Holy Spirit is called Jehovah: “Jehovah is the Spirit”. (2 Corinthians 3:17 NWT).

ii) Jesus Christ is called God, as follows:

(1) “Our Lord Jesus Christ who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, & Lord of lords; who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto.” (I Timothy 6:14-16)

(2) “The Word was God.” (John 1:1).

(3) “of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ.” (Titus 2:13).

(4) “the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ.” (II Peter 1:1).

(5) “if ye believe not that I am, ye shall die in your sins.” (John 8:24).

(6) “Before Abraham was, I am.” (John 8:58).

(7) “God was manifest in the flesh.” (I Timothy 3:16).

(8) “Thomas said unto him, My Lord and My God.” (John 20:28).

(9) “in him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily.” (Colossians 2:9).

(10) “unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God is forever.” (Hebrews 1:8).

- (11) “If you publicly declare . . . that Jesus is Lord.” (KIT: “ha Adon” in Hebrew footnote of Romans 10:9. In the 1961 edition of NWT, p.1453, “ha Adon” = Jehovah).
- (12) “that he (Christ) might be Lord both of the dead and the living.” (Romans 14:9).
In verses 6-11 of NWT “κύριος” (Lord) is translated 7 times as Jehovah, except in v.9. Why?
- (13) “in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.” (I John 5:20).
- (14) “feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood.” (Acts 20:28).

6. Notice how God reveals Himself in stages to man:

- (1) God revealed His Unity as the one and only true God, to refute the nations’ many gods.
- (2) God revealed the Trinity (Jehovah=Father+Son+HS) in the Old Testament in:
 “Jehovah your God is God of gods (the Father), and Lord of lords (the Son).” (Deut.10:17).
 “Thus saith Jehovah the King of Israel (Father), and his redeemer Jehovah of hosts (the Son). Isai44:6.
 “God said “let us make man in our image” Genesis 1:26
 “Jehovah God said, “Behold the man is become as one of us . . .” Genesis 3:22; 11:5,7.
 “Spirit of the LORD spake by me, God of Israel said, the Rock of Israel spake.” 2 Sam23:2,3
 “the Lord saying . . . who will go for us?” Isaiah 6:8.
 “What is his name....and what is his Son’s name.” Proverbs 30:4; 2 Samuel 23:2,3
 “the Lord God (Father), and his Spirit (HS), hath sent me (Jehovah the Son).” Isaiah 48:16
 “LORD...their Saviour,..the angel of his presence saved them..vexed his holv Spirit.” Isaiah 63:7-10.
- (3) God revealed the fullness of the Trinity doctrine in the New Testament:
 Matthew 28:19 “baptizing them in the name (singular name, not plural) of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.”
 I John 5:7 “There are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.”
 Revelation 22:1,3,4 “the throne (of God and of the Lamb) shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him; they shall see his face, and his name shall be in their foreheads.”
Key: God and the Lamb have one throne, one name, one face & one ownership of servants.
 II Corinthians 13:14 “The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost”. There is one God, but three persons within the Godhead.
- (4) Early Christians with a strong Jewish background, who knew Deuteronomy 6:4, continually refer to Jesus as “Lord” and “God” (Romans 10:13, I Thess 5:2, I Peter 2:3; 3:15) They often apply to Jesus many Old Testament texts which refer to Jehovah, such as:
 a) Jesus Christ in Matthew 3:1-3 fulfils Isaiah 40:3 to “Prepare the way of Jehovah” & Elohim.
 b) Jesus Christ’s glory in John 12:41 is Jehovah’s glory in Isaiah 6:1-5.
 c) Jesus Christ’s voice as the sound of many waters in Revelation 1:15 is identical to Jehovah’s voice as the sound of many waters in Ezekiel 43:2.
 d) Jesus Christ being pierced in Rev 1:7 is the same one as Jehovah being pierced in Zech 12:10
 e) Jesus Christ being called on for salvation in Romans 10:13, is the same as Jehovah being called on for salvation in Joel 2:32.
 f) Jesus Christ, the Lamb, is the everlasting light in Revelation 21:23, just as Jehovah “shall be . . . an everlasting light” in Isaiah 60:19,20.
Ask: Do you agree that Trinitarians believe Deuteronomy 6:4 teaches only one true God?
Ask: Do you understand that Trinitarians don’t teach that there are three gods in the Trinity, but that there is only one God with three persons within the one Godhead?
Ask: How do you explain that the early Jewish Christians who believed Deuteronomy 6:4, applied to Jesus many Old Testament texts that were originally written of Jehovah?

12. BIBLE PROOFS OF THE TRINITY

Key: The Father, Son and Holy Spirit are so clearly and consistently linked in Scripture that, assuming that God is not three persons, makes it impossible to understand some passages. Though Jews exalt human reasoning against the Trinity doctrine, saying it is unreasonable, those who submit to God's Word must conclude that it is unreasonable to doubt the Trinity. Consider these scriptures proving the Trinity:

1. Matthew 28:19 The "Name" of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Watchtower teaching: Jews ask, "Does this verse prove the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are equal in substance, power and eternity?" They say, "No, no more than listing three people Tom, Dick and Harry mean that they are three in one." They say that the Trinity doctrine is imposed on the text, not derived from it.

Bible Teaching: The key point is that the word "name" is singular in the Greek NT, thus proving that there is one God, but three distinct persons within the Godhead. This proves the Trinity because Jesus did not say:

- i) "into the names (plural) of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit."
- ii) "into the name of the Father, and into the name of the Son, and into the name of the Holy Spirit", as if we had three separate beings.
- iii) "into the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit" omitting the three articles (the), as if the Father, Son and Holy Spirit might be three designations of a single person.

What He does say is:

"into the name (singular) of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit".

Jesus first teaches the unity of the three by combining them all within a single name.

He then teaches that each is a different person by introducing each of them in turn with the article (tou):

μαθητεύσατε	πάντα	τὰ	ἔθνη,	βαπτίζοντες
make disciples of	all	the	nations,	baptizing
αὐτοὺς	εἰς	τὸ	ὄνομα	τοῦ	πατρὸς them [persons]	into	the	name	of the	Father
καὶ	τοῦ	υἱοῦ	καὶ	τοῦ	ἁγίου
and	of the	Son	and	of the	holy spirit,

and make disciples of people of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the holy spirit,

Ask: Can you see that rules of grammar dictate plurality (the, the, the) within unity (the name), because the word "name" is singular and definite articles (Greek: tou) are placed in front of Father, Son and Holy Spirit?

Other verses showing "three-in-oneness" of the Godhead are:

- i) At the creation of man, "God said, let us make man in our image, after our likeness . ." (Genesis 1:26). "Our image" in v.26 is explained as God's image in v.27. The one true God consists of three persons who are able to confer with one another and carry out their plans together, while still being one God.
- ii) After the Fall, "the Lord (Jehovah) God (Elohim) said, Behold, the man is become as one of us. " (Genesis 3:22). "Us" refers back to LORD (Jehovah), showing plurality within the Jehovah Godhead.
- iii) At the Tower of Babel, "the LORD (Jehovah), said . . let us go down" (Genesis 11:6,7).
- iv) Isaiah "saw the Lord (Adonai) sitting upon a throne (v.1) mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD (Jehovah) of hosts (v.5). I heard the voice of the Lord (Adonai) saying: "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" (Isaiah 6:1,5,8). Here Isaiah sees "Adonai" on the throne, then Isaiah calls Him "Jehovah of hosts" (v.5). Adonai asks, "Who will go for us?" The "us" shows plurality in the Jehovah Godhead. This equivalence of Adonai and Jehovah (both called "us") proves the Trinity Godhead.

2. Genesis 18 and 19. Three men each called Jehovah.

JWs believe that it is impossible for Jehovah God to exist as three persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Yet Genesis 18 and 19 shows Jehovah appearing to Abraham as three men. This shows that even the impossible from a human viewpoint is possible with God. Notice that:

- i) Abraham addresses the three as “Jehovah” (v.3 NWT);
- ii) When two of the three men depart to visit Lot in Sodom, Abraham continues to address the remaining one as “Jehovah” (Genesis 18:22,26,27,30,31,32,33).
- iii) Lot addressed the other two as “Jehovah” (Genesis 19:1,18 NWT).
“Then Lot said to them: “Not that please, Jehovah.” (19:18 NWT)
- iv) “Then Jehovah made it rain sulphur and fire from Jehovah, from the heavens upon Sodom and Gomorra.” (Genesis 19:24)

Notice the mention here of two Jehovahs, one in heaven who sends judgment on Sodom and Gomorra, at the bidding of the other Jehovah on earth.

This gives strong evidence for more than one person in the Godhead. The Jehovah upon earth was one of three persons to visit Abraham, one of whom stays behind to speak further to Abraham and is called Jehovah. (Genesis 21:1 “Jehovah turned his attention to Sarah”). Hence this shows that it is possible for Jehovah to manifest Himself as three-in-one.

3. II Corinthians 3:17 - “Jehovah is the Spirit.” (NWT).

JWs challenge Christians to prove the Trinity in the Bible. This can be done if we find verses teaching that the Holy Spirit is Jehovah God, and the Son is Jehovah God.

2 Corinthians 3:17 teaches this: “Now Jehovah is the Spirit.” What part of “is” don’t you get? How much clearer can it be than this, which states that the Holy Spirit is (=) Jehovah God? This proves the Deity of the Holy Spirit, and the existence of 2 persons in the Godhead.

4. I John 5:7,8 The Johannine Comma, the famous Trinitarian proof text (3 Heavenly witnesses).

NWT	KJV
“For there are three witness bearers, OMIT OMIT OMIT the Spirit, and the water and the blood, and the three are in agreement.”	“For there are three that (oi= masc) bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one. And there are three that bear record in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these (oi= masc) three agree in one.”

Watchtower teaching: JW’s claim that this passage ought not to be in the Bible, because it is not in most Greek manuscripts. It is omitted by most modern Bible versions.

Bible Teaching: Erasmus omitted it from his first edition of the printed Greek NT (1516), because it occurred in the Latin Vulgate and not in any Greek manuscript. To quieten the outcry that followed, he agreed to restore it if it could be found in one Greek manuscript. Two Greek manuscripts, Codex 61 and 629 were found, so Erasmus included it in his 1522 edition. Since these manuscripts are late (14th and 15th Century), some think the readings are corrupt. What do we answer? (See p551-552). 2 witnesses in v.9 imply 2 witnesses in v.7

5. In II Corinthians 13:14, (the Apostolic Benediction) why is there a change in the order of the persons of the Trinity, compared to Matthew 28:19, if not to show that in this Trinity none is before or after the other, and none is greater or less than another?

“The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.” (II Corinthians 13:14).

“Baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.” Matt. 28:19.

30 BIBLE PROOFS OF THE TRINITY:

'Jehovah your God, is a God of Gods and Lord of lords, a great God, a mighty, and a terrible' (Deuteronomy 10:17)

We prove the Trinity because each of them have 30 identical attributes, possessed by no-one else except God.

The Father, Son and Holy Spirit are so closely and consistently linked in Scripture, that, assuming that God is not three Persons (as WT does) makes it impossible to understand many passages. Consider this list of attributes and activities which prove the Trinity of the Godhead:

	Father	Son	Holy Spirit	= Jehovah God
1. Each raises Jesus from the dead	'Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father' (Romans 6:4)	'Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. He spake of the temple of His body'(John 2:19-21)	'Christ . . . being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit' (I Peter 3:18)	'Now the God of peace that brought again from the dead, our Lord Jesus' (Hebrews 13:20)
2. Each created the world	'One God, the Father, of whom are all things' (I Corinthians 8:6)	'One Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things' (I Corinthians 8:6)	'The Spirit of God hath made me' (Job 33:4)	'In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth' (Genesis 1:1)
3. Each saves man	'God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ . . . hath begotten us again' (I Peter 1:3)	'Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law' (Galatians 3:13)	'he saved us, by the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Ghost' (Titus 3:5)	'Whosoever is born of God . . .' (I John 3:9)
4. Each is called God	'God our Father' (I Timothy 1:2)	'a son is given . . . his name shall be called...the mighty God.' (Isaiah 9:6)	'Jehovah is the Spirit' (II Corinthians 3:17)	-
5. Each is eternal	'eternal life, which was with the Father' (I John 1:2)	'whose goings forth have been from of old from everlasting' (Micah 5:2;	'through the eternal Spirit' (Hebrews 9:14)	'the eternal God is thy refuge' (Deuteronomy 33:27)
6. Each is omnipresent	'Where shall I flee from thy presence?' (Psalm 139:7)	'even the Son of Man which is in heaven'. (John 3:13)	'where shall I go from thy Spirit?' (Psalm 139:7)	'Do not I fill heaven and earth?' saith Jehovah' (Jeremiah 23:24)
7. Each knows each other fully	'no man knoweth the Son but the Father' (Matthew 11:27)	'Neither knoweth any man the Father, except the Son' (Matt 11:27)	'The things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God'. (I Cor. 2:11)	-
8. Each are omniscient	'his understanding is infinite' (Psalm 147:5)	'Lord (Jesus Christ), thou knowest all things'. (John 21:17)	'The Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God'. (I Cor. 2:10)	'God knoweth' (I Corinth 11:11)
9. Each is omnipotent	'The Lord God omnipotent reigneth.' Revelation 19:6	'Upholding all things by the word of his power' (Hebrews 1:3) Matt.28:18	'Is the Spirit of the Lord straitened (curtailed, wax short)? (Micah 2:7)	'with God, all things are possible' (Matthew 19:26)
10. Each has a will	'The will of the Father which hath sent me' (John 5:30)	'The Son quickeneth whom he will'. (John 5:21)	'the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will.' (I Cor.12:11	'I come to do thy will, O God' (Hebrews 2:9)
11. Each bears witness in heaven	'There are three that bear record in heaven, the Father,	... the Word, and	... the Holy Ghost' (I John 5:7)	'God is witness' (I Thessalonians 2:5)
12. Each justifies believers	'God, Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus' (Romans 3:23,24)	'Ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus' (I Corinthians 6:11)	'ye are justified . . . by the Spirit of our God' (I Corinthians 6:11)	'It is God that justifieth' (Romans 8:33)
13. Each sanctifies believers	'Sanctified by God the Father' Jude 1	'Sanctified in Christ Jesus' (I Corinthians 1:2)	'Ye are sanctified . . . by the Spirit of our God' I Cor 6:11; Romans 15:16	'The very God of peace sanctify you wholly' (I Thessalonians 5:23)
14. Each gives life'	'In hope of eternal life, which God that cannot lie, promised' (I Titus 1:2)	'The promise of life which is in Christ Jesus'. (II Timothy 1:2)	'Shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting'. (Galatians 6:8)	'Jehovah thy God, . . . He is thy life'. (Deuteronomy 30:20)

15. Believers are baptised in the name of each	'Baptising them in the name of the Father,	... and of the Son,	... and of the Holy Ghost' (Matthew 28:19)	-
16. Each are always with believers	'the love of God ... be with you all' (I Corinthians 13:14)	'The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, be with you all' (II Corinthians 13:14)	'the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all.' (II Corinthians 13:14)
17. Each one directs believers	'God (HS) himself, and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way unto you'. (I Thessalonians 3:11)	'God (HS) himself, and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way unto you'. (I Thessalon 3:11)	'The Spirit of truth, ... he will guide you into all truth'. (John 16:13)	'Trust in Jehovah with all thine heart ... he shall direct thy paths' (Proverbs 3:5-6)
18. Each partakes in election	'Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father' (I Peter 1:2a)	'Elect ... unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ' (I Peter 1:2c)	'Elect ... through sanctification of the Spirit' (I Peter 1:2b)	'Put on therefore, as the elect of God ...' (Colossians 3:12)
19. Each raise believers from the dead	'As the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them' (John 5:21)	'Even so the Son quickeneth whom he will' (John 5:21)	'It is the Spirit that quickeneth'. (John 6:63; Romans 8:11)	'God, who quickeneth the dead' (Romans 4:17; I Corinthians 6:14)
20. Each are involved in the atonement	'How much more shall the blood of Christ, (Hebrews 9:14a)	(SON) who through the eternal Spirit (Hebrews 9:14b)	(FATHER) offered himself without spot to God, (Hebrews 9:14c)	(GOD) purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? 14d
21. Each is Holy	'Holy Father, keep ...' (John 17:11)	'ye denied the Holy One' (Acts 3:14)	'The Holy Ghost this signifying' (Hebrews 9:8)	'Saying, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come'. (Rev 4:8; Isaiah 6:3)
22. Each is True	'he that sent me is true'. (John 7:28; 8:26)	'I am the way, the truth' (John 14:6)	'the Spirit is truth'. (I John 5:6)	'thou hast redeemed me, O Jehovah God of truth' Psalm 31:5
23. Each is a Lawgiver	'I delight in the law of God' (Romans 7:22)	'So fulfil the law of Christ' (Galatians 6:2)	'The law of the Spirit of life ...' (Romans 8:2)	'There is one lawgiver, ...' (James 4:12)
24. Each dwells in believers	'If any man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come into him ...' (John 14:23)	'I (Christ) in you' (John 14:20)	'The Spirit of truth ... shall be in you.' (John 14:17)	'God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them' (II Corinthians 6:16)
25. Each strengthens believers	'my God shall be my strength' (Isaiah 49:5)	'I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me'. (Philippians 4:13)	'to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man' (Ephesians 3:16)	'the Lord Jehovah is my strength and my song'. (Isaiah 12:2; 26:4)
26. Each comforts believers	'The Father shall give you another Comforter'. (John 14:26)	'If any consolations in Christ' (Philippians 2:1)	'The Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost' (John 14:26)	'Jehovah hath comforted his people'. (Isaiah 49:13)
27. Each fills believers with their love	'If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him' I John 2:15	'The love of Christ constraineth us' (II Corinthians 5:14)	'the love of the Spirit' (Romans 15:30)	'the love of Jehovah toward the children of Israel' (Hosea 3:1)
28. Each is good	'there is none good but one, that is, God' (Mark 10:18)	'Good Master' (Mark 10:17)	'Thou gavest also thy good Spirit to instruct them' (Nehemiah 9:20)	'Jehovah is good, ...' (Nahum 1:7; Lamentation 3:25)
29. Each declares his decision to send Jehovah the Son	'Jehovah the Son says: 'Come ye near unto me (Jesus Christ) ... , and now the Lord God (the Father), and his Spirit, hath sent me (Jesus Christ).'	'I am the first, and I am the last, and beside me there is no God' Isaiah 44-6	'I am the good shepherd' (John 10:14)	'Jehovah hath comforted his people'. (Isaiah 48:16)
30. Together they introduce themselves, as King, Redeemer & Spirit	'Thus saith Jehovah the King of Israel, (Isaiah 44-6)	'and his redeemer, Jehovah of hosts; I am the first, and I am the last, and beside me there is no God' Isaiah 44-6	'Thus saith Jehovah that made thee, ... I will pour my spirit upon thy seed ...' (Isaiah 55:2,3)

13. PROOF THAT JESUS CHRIST IS JEHOVAH GOD

The Bible proves the co-equal Deity of Jesus Christ with God the Father by:

- i) Explicit statements that Christ is Jehovah and God.
- ii) Both the Father and the Son have the same attributes, claims and majesty.
- iii) Appearances of Jehovah God the Son to Old Testament saints who worshipped Him.
- iv) New Testament examples of Prayer to Christ.
- v) Father and Son have the same divine offices.

Let us consider each of these proofs:

I. EXPLICIT STATEMENTS THAT CHRIST IS JEHOVAH GOD

1. Isaiah 9:6 - “His name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The Mighty God, “
In Isaiah 9:6 Jesus is called “the mighty God” (Hebrew “El Gibbor” is “God the mighty”). This is the title of Jehovah God in Isaiah 10:21; Jeremiah 32:18; Habakkuk 1:12; Psalm 50:1.
 - a) “Jehovah...The remnant shall returnunto the mighty God”. Isaiah 10:21.
 - b) “the Great, the Mighty God, Jehovah of hosts, is his name,..” Jeremiah 32:18.
 - c) “O Jehovah,...O mighty God, thou hast established them for correction.” Habakkuk 1:12.Are there two mighty Gods? No! That would be polytheism.

Hence Jesus is Jehovah, the Mighty God.

Ask: Since Isaiah was a Jew, and believed in only one God (Jehovah), who did Isaiah understand the Mighty God to be? (obviously Jehovah).

Ask: Then why did Isaiah call Jehovah the Mighty God (in 10:20,21), and also call Christ the Mighty God (in 9:6)?

Ask: Who does this make Christ to be? (clearly Jehovah, the Mighty God.)

Conclusion: There is one God. He is revealed in the OT as Jehovah.

In the NT, He is revealed as Jehovah the Son (part of the Triune Godhead).

Question JWs might ask:

- 1) To whom did Jesus pray on the cross if He was God?
- 2) When Jesus was baptized, whose voice came from heaven, his own voice? No, the Father's.

Answer: JWs have not been able to distinguish between God the Father and God the Son. Therein lies their difficulty. As to how two persons can be equally the one God, and yet be separate is not explained in the Bible, but it is taught. God ought to know who He is. Who are we to argue with God? JW's pride must bend, and their will must bow to Jesus as Jehovah God the Son (Greek: Huios). Tied in with the Deity of Christ is His Saviourhood.

2. Isaiah 44:6 “Thus saith Jehovah the King of Israel (the Father), & his redeemer Jehovah of hosts (Jesus Christ); I am the first, and I am the last; and beside me there is no God.”

- a) Here, two members of the Jehovah Godhead are speaking, each of whom are called Jehovah. b) Jehovah the Father and Jehovah the Son jointly claim the title “I am the first, & I am the last”. Notice that the Lord Jesus Christ calls Himself by this title “I am the first and the last” in Revelation 1:17,18 and in Revelation 2:8.
- c) The first person Jehovah owns the second person Jehovah as seen by the possessive pronoun “his”, describing Jesus Christ as “Jehovah's redeemer” and “Jehovah of hosts”. This proves that two related persons are in the Jehovah Godhead.
- d) The New Testament reveals “Jehovah the Redeemer” to be Jesus Christ in Galatians 3:13 “Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law..”. See also Rev.5:9 and I Peter 1:18.
- e) The NWT rearranges v.6 to make one person, not two persons speaking as Jehovah. They do this by putting “said” between “Jehovah” and “the King of Israel” which has the effect of confusing the reader so we don't know if 'Jehovah' is or isn't 'the King of Israel'.

Notice that: 1) the Hebrew Masoretic text, 2) the Septuagint translate it correctly, but the 3) JW NWT translates it wrong as usual

1) "So says Jehovah, the King of Israel, and his Redeemer, Jehovah of hosts: I am the First and I am the Last; and there is no God except Me. ⁷And

6 כְּהָאָמַר יְהוָה מֶלֶךְ יִשְׂרָאֵל וְיְהוָה his and ,Israel the Jehovah says Thus ,Redeemer of King
יְהוָה צְבָאוֹת אֲנִי רִאשׁוֹן וְאֲנִי אַחֲרֹן וּמִבְּרֵאשִׁית אֲנִי אֱלֹהִים
,God there except and the I and the I :hosts Jehovah no is Me ,last (am) ,first (am) of

2) Septuagint

⁶Thus saith God the King of Israel, and the God of hosts that delivered him; I am the first, and I am hereafter: beside me there is no God.

3) NWT 6 "This is what Jehovah has said, the King of Israel¹ and the Repurchaser of him,¹ Jehovah of armies, 'I am the first and I am the last,^k and besides me there is no God.¹

3. Isaiah 48:12,16 "I am the first, I also am the last" (v.12). This is Jehovah the Son speaking. "Come ye near unto me (Jehovah the Son, Jesus Christ), hear ye this (something important)and now the Lord God (Jehovah the Father), and his Spirit (Jehovah the Holy Spirit), hath sent me (Jehovah the Son)" (v.16).

- a) This describes how God the Father and God the Holy Spirit send Jehovah the Son to earth to redeem mankind. Verse 17 shows the speaker to be Jehovah the Son by the phrase "Thus saith Jehovah, thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; I am Jehovah thy God..." (v.17). Here, Jesus Christ as well as being "thy Redeemer" is also called "the Holy One." Acts 3:14.
- b) This also shows the existence of three persons called "Jehovah" in the Jehovah Godhead. The Lord God and His Spirit send Jehovah the Son who calls Himself "the first and the last".

4. In Zechariah 2:8-11, Jehovah the Son states twice that Jehovah the Father has sent Him to Israel. This proves that there are at least two persons in the Godhead, both called Jehovah. v.8 "For thus saith Jehovah of hosts (the Son) . . ."

v.9 "Ye shall know that Jehovah of hosts (the Father) hath sent me."

v.11 "I (Jehovah the Son) will dwell in the midst of thee, and thou shalt know that Jehovah of hosts (Father) hath sent me unto thee." (Zechariah 2:8-11).

Lesson: Jehovah (the Father) sends Jehovah (the Son). Two persons here are named Jehovah. This clearly proves that Jesus Christ in His pre-incarnate state is fully Jehovah God.

5. In Zechariah 3:2: "Jehovah said unto Satan, Jehovah rebuke thee, O Satan."

Again, one person in the Jehovah Godhead speaks about another person in the Jehovah Godhead. (See Isaiah 48:16 "the Lord God (Father) and his Spirit, hath sent me (Son)"). Rules of Grammar dictate that the sentence be understood as follows:

"Jehovah (the first person=person speaking) said unto Satan (the second person=person spoken to), Jehovah (the third person=person spoken about) rebuke thee."

6. John 1:1 - 'The word was God' (See page 850-855)

a) In John 1:1, the KIT left-hand column states that Jesus is God: 'God was the Word', but in the right-hand column the NWT contradicts the KIT by saying 'the Word was a God'.

1 'Εν ἀρχῇ ἦν ὁ λόγος, καὶ ὁ λόγος ἦν πρὸς τὸν θεόν, καὶ θεὸς ἦν ὁ λόγος. In beginning was the Word, and the Word was toward the God, and god was the Word.	1 In (the) beginning the Word was, and the Word was with God, and the Word was a god.*
---	---

Also, see the Emphatic Diaglott (a JW version) by Benjamin Wilson who was honest enough to translate John 1:1 correctly in the right-hand column as 'the Logos was God'.

b) In John 1:1 we read of Jesus Christ: "the Word was WITH God, and the Word was God". The Watchtower denies that Jesus is fully God, but says that Jesus is a "little God" who is with Jehovah. Does such a "little God" exist with Jehovah? No because:

- Moses and Jehovah contradict the WT by saying in Deuteronomy 32:39: "there is NO GOD WITH me".
- Isaiah and Jehovah also contradict the Watchtower by saying in Isaiah 44:8: "Is there a God beside me? yea, there is no God; I know not any."

Logic: Since Jesus is not a "little God", and He is with God, then He must be true God.

Ask: Who do you believe, Jehovah, Moses, and Isaiah on the one hand, or the Watchtower?

7. John 1:3 and Malachi 2:10. Christ and the Father are the ONE GOD of Creation. In Malachi 2:10 we read, "hath not one God created us?"

Comparing this with the NT, we see this ONE GOD of Creation to be Jesus Christ:

"All things were made by him; and without him was not anything made that was made." John 1:3. "For by him were all things created, . . . all things were created by him and for him." (Colossians 1:16; Hebrews 1:2,10).

Conclusion: Do you agree that this proves that:

If Jesus Christ = Creator of all things by himself, and One God = Creator, then Jesus Christ = the One God.

Ask: Why does the WT add "[other]" five times in Colossians 1:16,17,20 when it is not in any Greek manuscript? Not even the JW KIT has "other" in its Greek text. The WT thinks that, by adding "[other]" it will break the connection that proves Jesus Christ is the One God of Creation.

8. In John 3:13, John states that Jesus Christ is God because He is OMNIPRESENT: "even the Son of man which IS IN HEAVEN". Only God can be in two places at once, on earth talking to Nicodemus and at the same time in heaven. (See p.814).

9. John 4:42 Christ and the Father are the "only Saviour".

In John 4:42, the woman at the well declares of Jesus that "this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world".

In Titus 1:3,4, God and the Lord Jesus Christ are both declared to be "our Saviour": "God our Saviour" (v.3), and "Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour." (Titus 1:4).

Comparing these with Isaiah 43:11 and Hosea 13:4 each of which state that there is NO SAVIOUR BESIDES JEHOVAH, we learn that because Jesus Christ is our Saviour so also He must be Jehovah God.

Since Jehovah God = our only Saviour, and, Since Jesus Christ = our only Saviour, then, Jehovah God = Jesus Christ.

This is true because no-one else other than Jehovah is allowed to be "our Saviour".

"I, even I, am Jehovah; and beside me there is NO SAVIOUR." (Isaiah 43:11).

"I am Jehovah thy God . . . there is NO SAVIOUR beside me." (Hosea 13:4).

Ask: Do you agree that because Jesus and Jehovah are the only Saviour, then Jesus is Jehovah?

10. John 5:18 - “Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he . . . said also that God was his Father, MAKING HIMSELF EQUAL WITH GOD.”

Here Jesus makes himself equal with God. Notice:

- a) This is John’s conclusion, not only the Jews’ conclusion.
- b) Jesus did not correct them, nor deny this as a valid conclusion.

Question: Why did John bother quoting this?

Answer: Because John also believed that Jesus is equal with God, and it supported the theme in John’s Gospel that Jesus is the True God.

11. John 5:23 - “That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.”

To honour the Son even as you honour the Father, means to treat both of them equally as God.

Question: Do you give the Son worshipful honour EVEN AS (KJV) or JUST AS (NWT) you honour Jehovah God the Father? (No).

Ask: Do you honour men or Michael the Archangel even as you honour the Father? (No.) This proves that the Son is not a mere man, nor is he an angel, but is to be honoured as Jehovah God.

Ask: Do you agree that God here commands us to honour Jesus Christ as God the Father?

12. John 6:46 “Not that any man hath seen the Father”.

This begs the question: “Who then did OT saints see that they declared to be God?”

Example:

The man on the throne in Ezekiel 1:26 is identified as the God of Israel in Ezekiel 10:20.

This can only be Jesus Christ who is Jehovah God the Son because “Not that any man hath seen the Father.” John 6:46.

13. John 8:24 “If ye believe not that I am (εγω ειμι “ego eimi”), ye shall die in your sins”

Ask: You don’t want to die in your sins, do you? Then you must believe that Jesus is “I am” (εγω ειμι). Christ, by claiming to be “I am” was claiming to be Jehovah God who designated Himself in this way in Exodus 3:14 and in the Greek Septuagint in Isaiah 43:10,

“Be ye my witnessessaith the Lord God (Jehovah) ...that ye may know, and believe, and understand that I am (εγω ειμι) he.”

Here Christ claims to be the “I am” Jehovah God of Isaiah 43:10,11 & Exodus 3:14 (LXX, KJV).

If people don’t believe that Jesus is fully God, the “I am” of Exodus 3:14, they will die in their sins without forgiveness. Belief that Jesus Christ is fully God is essential for salvation. Hence JW’s are not saved because they do not believe that Jesus is Jehovah God “I am”.

14. John 8:58 - “Before Abraham was, I am.” (See pages 856-857)

“Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am.”

Jesus attests to his full deity here by claiming for Himself the name of God that was revealed to Moses in Exodus 3:14: “God said unto Moses I AM THAT I AM: and he said, thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you.”

The Watchtower wrongly translates John 8:58 as:

“Before Abraham came into existence, I have been”. (NWT).

Jesus did not use the name “EGO EN” (“I was” or “I have been”), but EGO EIMI (I am).

Note: At Jesus’ claim to be “I AM”, the Jews picked up stones to stone Jesus for blasphemy. If Jesus said what the NWT declares He said (“I have been”) then the Jews would not have attempted to stone Him for blasphemy.

Key: The KIT in the left-hand column has ‘ego eimi’ translated correctly as ‘I am’, which contradicts the KIT right-hand column ‘I have been’.

	I	am.

15. John 10:30 – “I and my Father are One. Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him.”

Watchtower teaching: What did Jesus mean when He said this to a group of Jews?

JWs quote John 17:21,22, where Jesus prayed to the Father that the disciples “may all be one . . . that they may be one, even as we are one.” JWs say that, since the same Greek word for “one” (en) is used in both passages, Jesus was not praying for His disciples to become a single entity, nor was He praying that they become a part of the Trinity. Instead, He was praying that they have unity of thought and purpose, just as He and the Father had. (Should you believe in the Trinity? p.24).

Just as Christ and His body members are regarded as one, so are Jehovah and Christ regarded as one. They are all one in agreement, purpose and organisation. (Let God be True, p104).

Bible Teaching: The context of John 10 proves that more is meant by “en” than just unity of purpose or agreement. How do we know this? By the way the Jews responded to Jesus’ claim by picking up stones to stone Him to death. The Jews understood that Jesus was claiming to be fully God, as v.33 states: “For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God.”

Ask: (1) Why would the Jews pick up stones to kill Jesus if all He was affirming was His unity of purpose with the Father?

Ask: (2) Didn’t the Jews already have unity of purpose with the Father?

Ask: (3) If Jesus was just stating His unity of purpose with the Father, then why did the Jews understand His words to claim that He was God? (v.33).

Ask: (4) If (as the WT says), the Jews were mistaken in thinking Christ to be God, why didn’t Jesus correct their misunderstanding? Instead, Jesus endorsed their understanding (v.34-38), as seen by them seeking to take Him again in v.39.

The John 17:21 context is very different, as the Greek word for “one” (en) refers to unity among people tending to be divisive over various issues. That is why Christ prayed for unity among believers.

The way the word “one” is used in John 17:21 does not determine its meaning in John 10:30.

Ask: (5) If the oneness that Christ shares with the Father is identical to the oneness that believers have with Christ, then all believers should be able to insert their names in these verses:

- “I (your name) and the Father are one.” (John 10:30, NWT)

- He who does not honour (your name) does not honour the Father who sent him.” John 5:23.

- “All things that the Father hath are Mine (your name).” (John 16:15).

Ask: (6) Are you willing to insert your name in these verses? Obviously not!

16. John 10:33 “thou being a man, makest thyself God.”

In John 10:33, John records and endorses the Jews’ accusation that Jesus is claiming to be God: “For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself GOD.” v.33.

“Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods?” v.34.

Watchtower Teaching: To this, JW's reply that Jesus was denying being God, claiming to be no more God than the Jews.

Bible Teaching:

v.34 “Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law (Old Testament law in Psalm 82:1,6,7), I said, ye are gods? (Hebrew “gods”= *elohim*⁴³⁰).

v.35 “If he called them (Old Testament Jewish judges or magistrates) gods unto whom the word of God came (Jewish magistrates were entrusted with judging justly).

v.36 “Say ye (Jesus’ listeners) of him (Christ), whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the world, “Thou (Jesus) blasphemest”; because I said, I am the Son of God?”

v.39 Therefore they sought again to take him . . .”.

Jesus’ words, rather than denying His deity, still left the Jews understanding that He was claiming full deity and equality with God because they still sought to arrest him for blasphemy. (v.31-33 and 39).

Explanation: Jesus in v 34 is quoting from Psalm 82:1-6 which says:

v.1 “God standeth in the congregation of the mighty; he judgeth among the gods (*Elohim*⁴³⁰)

v.2 “How long will ye judge unjustly . . .?”

v.6 “I have said, Ye are gods⁴³⁰ and all of you are children of the most High”.

v.7 “But ye shall die like men . . .”

“Ye are gods” is said of magistrates, because of the dignity and honour of their office.

It shows that the word translated “gods” (Elohim) can rightly be applied to men, though rare.

It applied to Moses (Exodus 7:1; 4:16) and to magistrates (Exodus 21:6; 22:8,9) because they were representing God. The meaning is:

If the Scripture applies the word “god” to earthly magistrates, it is right to apply the term to those in office and authority. If applied to magistrates, it cannot therefore be blasphemy to use this word of Jesus Christ the Messiah who is so much more exalted and sanctified by the Father than earthly magistrates.

Note: 1) Jesus did not deny that he meant to apply the term to himself, as seen by His using the expressions “I and my Father are one” v.30; “Son of God” v.36, and “god” v.34.

2) Jesus did not deny that it was properly applied to himself.

3) Jesus did not deny that it implied that he was God.

Key: Jesus stated only that they were inconsistent in applying “Elohim” (god) to human magistrates and not allowing it also to be applied to Jesus Christ as Messiah.

Hence, Jesus said that the Jews were not authorised to charge him with blasphemy for applying “god” to himself, because the law applied “Elohim” (gods) to human judges and because God endorsed Jesus as “Son of God” by His miracles.

17. John 17:5 Christ and Father share the same glory, that Jehovah won’t give to another.

In John 17:5 Jesus said that before the world existed, He had the same glory as the Father:

“And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.” (John 17:5).

Comparing this with Isaiah 42:8 we see that Jehovah will not give his glory to another:

“I am the LORD (Jehovah): that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another”.

Conclusion: Because Jesus shared the same glory with the Father, and because this glory is exclusively Jehovah’s and no one else’s, then this proves that Jesus Christ is Jehovah God.

18. John 20:28 “Thomas answered and said unto him, “My Lord and my God”.”

Thomas addresses Jesus as “My Lord and my God”, thus recognizing Jesus as Jehovah God the Son. Jesus commended Thomas on his belated acknowledgement of Jesus as God.

Watchtower Teaching: JW’s dismiss this verse as a simple record of Thomas’ shock and surprise at seeing the risen Christ. A modern parallel might be “Oh, my God!”

Perhaps Thomas was making an emotional exclamation that was directed to Jehovah God, though spoken to Jesus. (Should you Believe in Trinity, p.29).

Bible Teaching:

- a) If Thomas said, “My Lord and my God” as expressing shock or surprise, then he would have been guilty of blasphemy, and of taking God’s name in vain.
First century Jews regarded any careless use of God’s name as blasphemy.
- b) If Thomas had taken God’s Name in vain, Jesus clearly would have rebuked him for it.
- c) Instead, Jesus commended Thomas for believing that Jesus was both Lord and God. (“Thomas, because thou hast seen me thou hast believed” v.29).
If Jesus was only a man or a god, He should have corrected Thomas’ wrong opinion, but Jesus reinforced Thomas’ conclusion here.
- d) Thomas wasn’t calling Jesus “a god”; he was calling Jesus his Lord and his God.
If Jesus was not Almighty God, He would have corrected Thomas by saying something like, “No, I am just a god, a lesser god. Jehovah is the only true God. You must not put me in Jehovah’s place. Only Jehovah may be called my Lord and my God.” But Jesus said no such nonsense. He commended Thomas for recognizing Him as the true God.
If Thomas said “My Lord and my God” as an emotional exclamation of astonishment, as JW’s think, then Thomas would be talking to himself.
But v.28 states he was talking to Jesus by using the word “him”.

Ask:

- 1) If Thomas was just expressing surprise, wouldn’t this be taking God’s Name in vain?
- 2) If Thomas took God’s Name in vain, don’t you think Jesus would have rebuked him?
- 3) Why do you think that Jesus commended Thomas, instead of rebuking him?
- 4) What did Thomas believe in John 20:28,29? (Answer: That Jesus was Lord and God).
- 5) Thomas here quotes Psalm 35:23 which is used of Jehovah:
“O LORD (Jehovah) . . . my God and my Lord.”
- 6) When a Hebrew says “my God”, he means Jehovah. (Aid to Bible Understanding, p.133,134).
- 7) The JW KIT on John 20:28 is translated as: “The Lord of me and the God of me.”

The JW KIT (1985) calls Jesus in John 20:28 “the God (ὁ θεός) of me”, a title that JW’s reserve only for God. (Theos preceded by the definite article “ὁ”).

19. Acts 20:28 - “Feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood.” (See page 843)

20. Romans 10:9 “Ha Adon” = the True Lord (of Isaiah 1:24):

In Romans 10:9, the right-hand column of KIT says, “if you publicly declare . that Jesus is Lord...you will be saved”. The left-hand column has Kurios translated as “Lord”.

Note: The footnote lists 7 Hebrew New Testaments (J^{12, 13, 14}, J^{16, 17, 18}, J²²) which call Jesus by the title “ha-Adon”, then they state “not Jehovah”.

Whoever wrote this footnote must have forgotten what the NWT (1961 edition appendix said under the heading “Isaiah 1:24 - the true Lord” as follows:

“This is the translation of the Hebrew expression “ha-Adon”, this being the title “Adon” (Lord or Master) preceded by the definite article “ha”. Although there are many lords or masters, this prefixing of the definite article before the title Adon limited the application of the title to JEHOVAH GOD.” (Gesenius Grammar, Section 126, paragraph d, p.404,405).

In the Hebrew OT, “ha-Adon” occurs nine times: Exodus 23:17; 34:23; Isaiah 1:24; 3:1; 10:16,33; 19:4; Micah 4:13; Malachi 3:1 “Suddenly there will come to His temple the true Lord whom you people are seeking”.

This refers to Jesus coming to the temple and casting out the money changers. John 2:13-17.

Conclusion: The KIT contradicts itself by saying that Jesus is “not Jehovah”, then giving a footnote saying that He is Jehovah (ha-Adon) according to the NWT (1961 edition, p.1453).

21. I Corinthians 15:47 - “the second man is the Lord from heaven” (KJV).

In I Corinthians 15:47, Paul states that Jesus Christ is “the LORD from heaven”, not as NWT reads “the second man is from heaven”, because:

- a) No man hath ascended to heaven (John 3:13), and
- b) Before Christ’s conception, He was in heaven and He was not a man.

Watchtower Teaching: “the second man is (OMIT) out of heaven.” (NWT)

The NWT, like other modern versions, is based on the Westcott and Hort Greek Text, which in turn is derived mostly from Codex Vaticanus, a corrupted 4th Century manuscript from Egypt, which is at variance with the Majority of NT readings.

Bible Teaching: The majority of manuscripts read “the Lord”.

Question: Isn’t it coincidental that all modern versions, based on the corrupt Egyptian readings, have one major fact in common: that they omit many Deity of Christ verses?

The KJV “the second man is the Lord from heaven” is a clear proof of Christ being God, as there is only one Lord from Heaven, and He is “Jehovah”.

What manuscript support is there for “the Lord” in I Corinthians 15:47? See UBS Greek NT:

(1) Thirteen early writers known as Church Fathers quote it:

- a) Hippolytus 170-236 AD, Vol. 5, p 167

HIPP. Who else is this than as is shown us by the apostle, “the second man, the Lord from heaven?” ¹⁴

- b) Tertullian 200-250 AD against Marcion, Vol. 3, page 451

In like manner (the heretic) will be refuted also with the word “man.” “The first man is of the earth, earthy; the second man is the Lord from heaven.” ²

Vol.3, page 529

We read in so many words: ¹¹ “The first man is of the earth, earthy; the second man is the Lord from heaven.” ¹²

- c) Victorinus, Vol 7, page 342

Therefore, first, was made the creation; secondly, man, the lord of the human race, as says the apostle. ¹⁹

- d) Basil 379 AD
- e) Chrysostom 407 AD
- f) Maximinus 428 AD
- g) Cyril 444 AD

- i) Theodoret 466 AD
- j) Ps-Athanasius 550 AD
- k) Cosmas 550 AD
- l) John Damascus 749 AD
- m) Origen 254 AD

(2) Six Uncial Greek Manuscripts contain “the Lord”:

- a) Codex Sinaiticus corrected (Aleph)
- b) Codex Alexandrinus (A)
- c) Codices D, K, P, Ψ.

(3) Nineteen Minuscule Greek Manuscripts numbered 81, 104, 181, 326, 330 436, 451, 614, 629, 1241, 1739, 1877, 1881, 1962, 1984, 1985, 2127, 2492, 2495.

(4) Byzantine lectionaries contain the words “the Lord”.

(5) Ancient versions containing “the Lord” are:

- a) Syriac Peshitta
- b) Syriac Harclean
- c) Syriac Palestinian
- d) Gothic
- e) Armenian

Conclusion: 44 ancient witnesses from all over the ancient world testify to Jesus Christ as being “the Lord from heaven”. NWT is wrong here because no man originated from heaven.

22. I Timothy 3:16 - “God was manifest in the flesh.” (KJV). (See page 804).

Paul states that Jesus Christ is “God was manifest in the flesh”.

Watchtower Teaching: “He was made manifest in the flesh” (NWT)

Bible Teaching: “God” is the correct reading, not “He”, because

1. Of the 300 Greek manuscripts containing I Timothy 3:16, only five late cursive manuscripts (9th, 12th, 13th Century) omit “God”. The Uncials, Aleph, A and C have been altered so that either “God” or “who” can be deduced. Codex Alexandrinus “A” (450 AD) quotes “God”. Although the middle stroke which distinguishes “God” from “who” has been retouched, the fine original stroke is discernible at each end of the fuller stroke of the corrector. (Wetstein, 1716, quoted in “True or False” p.33 D.O.Fuller).

2. The following early church writers have “God” (Greek: “theos” for God):

- 1) Ignatius (90 AD) quotes “theos” 3 times
- 2) Barnabus (90 AD)
- 3) Hippolytus (190 AD) quotes “theos” twice
- 4) Dionysius of Alexandria (265 AD)
- 5) Gregory of Nyssa (394 AD), quotes “theos” 22 times
- 6) Gregory of Nazianzus (390 AD) quotes “theos” 2 times.
- 7) Dionysius of Alexandria (265 AD).
- 8) Didymus of Alexandria (398 AD).
- 9) Diodorus of Tarsus (394 AD).
- 10) Chrysostom (407 AD) quotes “theos” 3 times.
- 11) Cyril of Alexandria (444 AD) quotes “theos” 3 times.
- 12) Theodoret (466 AD) quotes “theos” 4 times.
- 13) Severus, bishop of Antioch (512 AD).
- 14) Macedonius (506 AD).
- 15) Euthalius (400 AD).
- 16) Thaumaturgus (270 AD).
- 17) Constitutiones Apostolicae (250 AD).
- 18) John Damascene (730 AD) quotes “theos” twice.
- 19) Epiphanius, Deacon of Catania (787 AD).
- 20) Several ancient scholia.

3. Ancient versions quoting “God” in I Timothy 3:16 are:
 1) Georgian version (500 AD)
 2) Harklean version (616 AD)
 3) Slavonic version (800 AD)
4. All the Byzantine Lectionaries read in assemblies of the faithful from 300 AD onwards.
5. Those few manuscripts which have “who” (os) in the place of “God” (theos), do not have a complete sentence without the subject “God”.
6. A neuter noun “mystery” cannot be followed by the masculine pronoun “who” (os).
7. To avoid having a clause with no subject, the NWT arbitrarily drops the word “who” (os), and invents a new word “He” which is not found in any Greek manuscript.

See “The Revision Revised”, Dean Burgon, p.485-497.

Conclusion:

- 1) “God” (theos) in I Timothy 3:16 is witnessed by exactly 300 Greek manuscripts, by 3 ancient versions, and by 20 early church writers.
 - 2) “Who” (os) in the place of “theos”, is quoted by only 6 manuscripts, by one version, and certainly by no church writers.
 - 3) “o” is quoted by one Greek manuscript (D), by 5 ancient versions & 2 late Greek writers.
- Hence the NWT has no manuscript support for “He”, compared with 323 major witnesses for “God” (“theos”).

Question: Whom would you choose to believe: 323 witnesses for “God” or none for “He”?

23. Titus 2:13 - “the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ.” (See page 847-849)

24. Hebrews 1:6 - “Let all the angels of God worship him.”

Question: Would it be right to give the same worshipful honour to the Son, which is given to the Father (John 5:23)? (See page 846-847).

25. Hebrews 1:8 - “But unto the Son he saith, “Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever”“ (See page 844-845)

26. Hebrews 1:10 - “And Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands. . . . thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.” (v.12)

Verse 10 is the second Old Testament passage applied to the Son, after Hebrews 1:8.

Hebrews 1:10 is quoted from Psalm 102:25,26,27 which is introduced in Psalm 102:1 as a prayer to God as the Creator (“Hear my prayer, O Jehovah”).

In Hebrews 1:10,11,12 the writer applies Psalm 102:25-27 to Christ as Jehovah the Creator. This proves that the Son is Jehovah, who created the heavens and the earth.

Note: In Hebrews 1, Jesus is declared to be God, because He is:

- 1) Creator (v 2,10) “by whom also he made the worlds”;
- 2) The same substance as the Father, just as the Sun’s rays (Alpha, Beta, Gamma rays) are the same substance as the sun) (“the brightness of the Father’s glory” v.3).
- 3) The express (exact) image of the Father’s person (v.3).

- 4) Omnipotent and Omnipresent: “upholding all things by the word of His power.” (v.3).
- 5) Father/Son relationship.
- 6) Worshipped as God (v.6).
- 7) Addressed as God (v.8).
- 8) Has the same Throne as God (v.8).
- 9) Unchangeable and Eternal (v.12).

27. II Peter 1:1 - “the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ.”

(See page 849-850). ”God and our Saviour” refer to Jesus Christ by the Granville Sharp rule.

28. Revelation 1:8 and 22:13 - “The Alpha and Omega.”

Christ and the Father are both called “Alpha and Omega”, “the beginning and the end”, “the first and the last”.

“I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.” (Revelation 22:13)

Jesus here clearly claims to be Jehovah God, because God claims the same titles to Himself in Revelation 21:6; 1:8; Isaiah 44:6 and 48:12.

“Alpha and Omega” to the Jews meant all the intermediate letters, signifying totality or entirety. Hence, when used of God (or Christ), “Alpha and Omega” represents the eternal, Almighty God, who has always existed in the past and who will always exist in the future. For any created being to claim to be the Alpha and Omega would be sheer blasphemy.

Ask: Since Jesus in Revelation 22:13 claims to be the “First and the last”, as well as “Alpha and Omega” - and since Jehovah God in Isaiah 44:6 says: “I am the first, and I am the last, besides me there is no God” - what must we conclude about Jesus Christ’s true identity?

Jesus Christ is God because both are called “Alpha and Omega” and “the beginning and the end”
GOD	=	JESUS CHRIST	= GOD
Revelation 21:5,6,7 “I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end”		Revelation 22:12-16 “I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end.”	Revelation 1:8 “I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end.”
refers to God because: i) I will be his God (v 7) ii) He that sat upon the throne (v 5.)		refers to Jesus Christ because: i) Behold, I come quickly (v 12) ii) I Jesus (v.16) iii) I am the root and offspring of David (v.16) iv) I am the bright and morning star (v.16) v) Watchtower , Oct.1, 1978, p.15, “Jesus.. I am coming quickly.” vi) “the First and the Last” (v.13)	refers to God because: i) v.8 says Jehovah God ii) v.8 says the Almighty Jesus Christ is God because both are called “the first and the last”.
GOD	GOD	=	JESUS CHRIST
Isaiah 48:12 “I am the first. I am the last”	Isaiah 44:6 “I am the first, and I am the last.”		Revelation 2:8 “the First and the Last.”
refers to God because: “My own hand laid the foundation of the earth.” (v 13)	“beside me there is no God. ”		Revelation 1:17,18 “I am the First and the Last.”
		refers to Jesus Christ “who became dead and came to life.”	refers to Jesus Christ because “I am he that liveth and was dead” (v.18)

29. Psalm 103:19 “Jehovah hath prepared his throne in the heavens; and his kingdom ruleth over all,” and Matthew 11:25 “I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth”.
Acts 10:36 “Jesus Christ: (he is Lord of all).”

I Corinthians 2:8 “Had they known it they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.”

I Corinthians 12:3 “No man can say that Jesus is the Lord but by the Holy Ghost.”

I Corinthians 15:47 “the second man is the Lord from heaven.”

II Corinthians 4:5 “We preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord.”

Philippians 2:11 “Every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord”.

Luke 2:11 “For unto you is born this day a Saviour which is Christ the Lord.”

As the Roman Caesars claimed to be God by the title “Caesar is Lord”, so Paul and early Christians stated their belief that Jesus is God by the declaration that “Jesus is Lord”.

As the Father is Lord of all, so is Jesus Christ Lord of all. Hence Jesus Christ is fully God.

30. Jesus and Jehovah own the same throne, servants, face, name, priests, temple and light:

i) Both occupy the same THRONE,

“flowing out from the throne (of God and of the Lamb).” (Revelation 22:1,3).

Yes, God and the Lamb occupy the same throne, not two thrones indicating inequality of rank or nature, but ONE THRONE indicating EQUALITY of rank and nature.

ii) Both own the SERVANTS. (Revelation 22:3).

“the throne (of God and of the Lamb) shall be in it; and HIS SERVANTS shall serve HIM”.

Both Jehovah and Jesus are referred to as “HIS” and “HIM” (singular =one Triune God).

iii) Both have the same FACE.

“they shall see HIS face.” (Revelation 22:4) not “their faces” but “his face”.

iv) Both have the same NAME.

“HIS name shall be in their foreheads.” (Revelation 22:4).

God and the Lamb have the same NAME, not “their names” but “His name”.

v) Both own the first resurrection PRIESTS. (Revelation 20:6).

“they shall be priests (of God and of Christ), and shall reign with HIM a thousand years”.

God and Christ are referred to as HIM (singular), not “they” (not two gods).

vi) Both God and the Lamb are the TEMPLE of the New Jerusalem.

“for (the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb) are the temple of it.” (Revelation 21:22).

God and Christ are the same TEMPLE (singular), not temples (plural).

vii) Both God and the Lamb are the LIGHT of the New Jerusalem.

“for (the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light) thereof.” Revelation 21:23.

God and Christ are the same light source (singular), not lights (plural).

31. Colossians 2:9 “In him (Christ) dwells all the fullness (exhausts the limits) of the Godhead bodily. 32. Micah 5:2 says of Christ: “whose (Christ’s) goings forth have been from of old (Heb: qedmah ⁶⁹²⁴ =eternal), from everlasting (Heb: olam ⁵⁷⁶⁹ =eternity)”. Habakkuk 1:12 uses (qedmah) the same word of Jehovah: “Art thou not from everlasting (Heb: qedmah ⁶⁹²⁴ = eternal) O Jehovah my God.”

33. I John 5:20 “...in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life”.

34. Malachi 3:1 “the Lord (Heb: Ha Adon= God) shall suddenly come to his temple.” Jesus fulfilled this as God coming to His temple in John 2:13-17 and Matthew 21:12,13 “My house..”

Conclusion: JW, has it ever occurred to you that Jesus Christ just might be Jehovah the Son (Huios)? If He is, then what? When justice called for you to be cast into hell forever, mercy answered by putting Jesus of Nazareth to death in your place. If you call on Jehovah the Son, Jesus Christ, to be your Saviour now, He will save you and give you eternal life.

When the Watchtower prophecy of the world ending in 1975 failed, 2000 WT congregations disappeared worldwide and over 1 million people left the organisation.

Why don't you leave the WT today and come to Jesus Christ for salvation?

II. BOTH the FATHER and the SON HAVE the SAME 120 ATTRIBUTES, CLAIMS and MAJESTY.

See page 811 for a list of 120 attributes that are true of both God the Father and God the Son. "I am Jehovah - that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another." (Isaiah 62:8). The glory of these 120 attributes are jointly owned by the Father and the Son, and nobody else. Jesus Christ is Jehovah God, equally with the Father, because both the Father and Son alone have the following attributes:

1. both are to be honoured equally (John 5:23)
2. both are the I AM (Exodus 3:14-15; John 8:24,58)
3. both are the Mighty God (Isaiah 10:20,21; Jer 32:18; Psalm 50:1; Isaiah 9:6; Gen 49:24)
4. both own the same throne (Psalm 45:6,7; Hebrews 1:8; Revelation 22:1,3)
5. both accept worship (Exodus 34:14; I Chronicles 16:29; Hebrews 1:6; Matthew 28:9)
6. both laid the foundation of the earth (Psalm 102:24-27; Isaiah 48:13; Hebrews 1:10-12)
7. One God has created mankind (Mal.2:10; Prov.16:4; Isaiah 44:24; Col 1:16; John 1:3)
8. both are the Shepherd (Psalm 80:1; Gen 49:24; John 10:11; Hebrews 13:20; I Peter 5:4)
9. both are from Everlasting (Psalm 90:2; Habakkuk 1:12; Micah 5:2; Hebrews 7:3).
10. both are the First and Last (Isaiah 44:6; Revelation 1:17,18; Rev. 2:8; See p.54.)
11. both are the Alpha and Omega (Revelation 1:8; 21:5-7; 22:13-16; See p.54)
12. both come and Reward (Isaiah 40:10; 62:11; Revelation 22:12)
13. both are unchangeable (Malachi 3:6; Hebrews 13:8)
14. both have unsearchable riches (Romans 11:33; Ephesians 3:8)
15. both are the Holy One (Isaiah 43:15; Acts 3:14)
16. both are omnipresent and fill all things (Psalm 139:7; Jer. 23:24; Eph. 4:10; John 3:13)
17. both are omniscient (Psalm 147:5; Prov. 14:3; John 21:17; John 16:30; Colossians 2:3)
18. both are omnipotent (Genesis 17:1; Matthew 28:18; Hebrews 1:3)
19. both are eternal (Deuteronomy 33:27; Hebrews 7:3; Micah 5:2)
20. both own the everlasting Kingdom (Psalm 145:13; Daniel 7:14; II Peter 1:11)
21. both are Lord of all (Psalm 103:19; Matthew 11:25; Acts 10:36)
22. both are the only Saviour (Isaiah 43:11; Titus 1:3,4; Philippians 3:20; II Peter 1:1; 3:18; Luke 2:11; Hebrews 5:9; Acts 4:12)
23. both are the Truth (Deuteronomy 32:4; John 14:6)
24. both are sinless (Deuteronomy 32:4; Hebrews 4:15)
25. both are in the beginning (Genesis 1:1; John 1:1)
26. both God and the Son are the Judge (Psalm 82:8; John 5:22), but the Father is not the Judge (John 5:22 "The Father judgeth no man").
27. both are our Hope (Psalm 39:7; I Timothy 1:1)
28. both shelter believers under their wings (Psalm 91:2,4; Matthew 23:37)
29. both are our Redeemer (Psalm 130:7,8; Isaiah 44:6; Galatians 3:13; Titus 2:14)
30. the glory of both was seen by Isaiah (Isaiah 6:3,5; John 12:41)
31. both are the Rock (Deuteronomy 32:3,4,18; Psalm 18:31; I Corinthians 10:4)
32. both are to be looked to for salvation (Isaiah 45:22; John 1:29; John 6:40)
33. to both shall every knee bow and every tongue confess (Isaiah 45:23; Philippians 2:10; Romans 14:10,11)
34. the enemies of both shall perish (Psalm 92:9; Philippians 3:18,19)
35. both send the Holy Spirit (Joel 2:28; John 16:7)
36. to both shall all men come (Psalm 65:2; Isaiah 45:24; John 12:32)
37. both forgive sins (Exodus 34:7; Mark 2:5,7; Colossians 3:13)

38. both blot out sin (Isaiah 43:25; Hebrews 1:3; I John 1:7)
39. both still storms (Psalm 107:29; Matthew 8:26)
40. both own the Holy Spirit (Matthew 10:20; Romans 8:9)
41. both seek the lost (Ezekiel 34:16; Luke 19:10)
42. to both are applied 10 aspects of the Lord's Prayer (Matthew 6:9-13; see page 954)
43. both receive believers to glory (Psalm 73:24; John 14:3)
44. both are our One Master (Malachi 1:6; Matthew 23:8,10)
45. both are served by believers (Deuteronomy 10:20; Colossians 3:24)
46. both lead believers to living waters (Psalm 23:2; Revelation 7:17)
47. both correct believers (Proverbs 3:12; Revelation 3:19)
48. both prepare a place for believers in heaven (Hebrews 11:16; John 14:2)
49. both are all in all (I Corinthians 15:28; Colossians 3:11)
50. both are known by believers (Galatians 4:9; Philippians 3:10; John 17:3)
51. both are cleaved to by believers (Deuteronomy 10:20; John 15:4)
52. both are the light of the world (Psalm 27:1; John 8:12)
53. both are the Light of the New Jerusalem (Isaiah 60:19,20; Revelation 21:23)
54. both give eternal life (Psalm 36:9; John 10:28)
55. both are called "My Lord and my God" (Psalm 35:22,23; John 20:28)
56. both are our Righteousness (Isaiah 45:24; I Corinthians 1:30; Jeremiah 23:5,6)
57. both have the same voice as of many waters (Ezekiel 43:2; Revelation 1:15)
58. both are witnessed to by believers (Isaiah 43:10; Acts 1:8)
59. both own the peace given to believers (Philippians 4:7; John 14:27)
60. both own the gospel (I Thessalonians 2:2; Romans 1:16)
61. both give saving grace (Titus 2:11; Acts 15:11)
62. both are our peace (Judges 6:24; Ephesians 2:14)
63. both are pierced and looked upon (Zechariah 12:10; John 19:37)
64. both sanctify believers (Exodus 31:13; I Corinthians 6:11)
65. both give victory to believers (Psalm 98:1; I Corinthians 15:57)
66. both heal people (Exodus 15:26; Matthew 9:35)
67. both equally own the churches (I Corinthians 15:9; Romans 16:16; I and II Thess. 1:1)
68. both own the Kingdom (Matthew 6:33; Rev. 11:15).
69. both are glorified by the Gentiles (Isaiah 24:15; II Thessalonians 1:12; Matthew 12:21)
70. both own the Day of the Lord (Isaiah 13:6; Philippians 1:6; II Thessalonians 2:2)
71. both give grace to believers (Romans 5:15; Colossians 1:6; II Cor. 8:9; Galatians 6:18)
72. both own the same glory (Romans 5:2; II Corinthians 8:23)
73. both own the same love (John 5:42; II Corinthians 5:14)
74. both own the same Word (Psalm 119:11; I Thessalonians 2:13; Colossians 3:16)
75. both own salvation (Luke 3:6; Jonah 2:9; Acts 4:12; II Timothy 2:10)
76. both were served equally by Paul (Titus 1:1; Romans 1:1); and by James (James 1:1)
77. both own the commandments (I John 5:3; John 14:15)
78. both had their way prepared by John the Baptist (Isaiah 40:3; Mark 1:1-3)
79. both search all hearts (Psalm 139:1; Revelation 2:23)
80. both own the same flock (I Peter 5:2; John 21:15,16)
81. both ascend on high, lead captivity captive, and give gifts to men (Psalm 68:17,18; Ephesians 4:7-10)
82. both are like a Bridegroom (Isaiah 62:5; Mark 2:19,20)

83. both receive the glory of God alone forever and ever (Isaiah 42:8; Galatians 1:4,5; I Peter 5:10,11; II Peter 3:18; Hebrews 13:21; I Peter 4:11; Revelation 1:5,6)
84. both are the source of fruit (Hosea 14:8; John 15:5)
85. both are our source of strength (Psalm 119:28; Philippians 4:13)
86. both give rest for our souls (Jeremiah 6:16; Matthew 11:29)
87. both shall appear at Christ's return (Psalm 102:16; Zechariah 14:3,4,5; Titus 2:13)
88. both will come to earth (Isaiah 40:10; Revelation 22:7,12,20)
89. both are to be trusted in (Jeremiah 17:7; Ephesians 1:12; John 14:1)
90. both are our King (Isaiah 6:5; 33:22; Revelation 17:14; 19:16; I Timothy 6:14,15)
91. both will wound their enemies' heads (Psalm 68:21; 110:6)
92. both take vengeance (Romans 12:19; II Thessalonians 1:7,8)
93. both will be opposed by the Antichrist's armies (Isaiah 34:22; Revelation 19:19)
94. both will fight against the Antichrist's armies at Armageddon (Zechariah 14:3; Revelation 19:11,13,21)
95. both will destroy death (Isaiah 25:8; II Timothy 1:10).
96. both receive the faith of believers (I Thessalonians 1:8; Galatians 3:26)
97. both are our life (Deuteronomy 30:20; Colossians 3:4)
98. both are to be prayed to (Matthew 6:9; Acts 7:59)
99. both raised up Christ (Acts 2:32; John 2:19,21)
100. both own all of the other (John 16:15)
101. both enter the east gate of Jerusalem (Ezekiel 44:1,2; Luke 19:37-45)
102. the man on the throne in Ezekiel 1:26 is identified as the God of Israel in Ezek 10:20
103. both names are placed on the same level in the baptism formula (Matthew 28:19)
104. both fellowship equally with believers (I John 1:3).
105. both comfort believers (Isaiah 66:13; Philippians 2:1).
106. both receive doxologies of worship in heaven (Revelation 5:8-10; 5:11,12; 5:13,14).
107. both jointly send grace and peace to the churches (Romans 1:7).
108. both the love of the Father & love of the Son are an equal privilege given to us (John 14:21)
109. both jointly declare themselves to be Jehovah, "I am the first, & I am the last." Isaiah 44:6
110. both come to his temple, "the Lord shall suddenly come to his temple." Malachi 3:1; Mat 21:13
111. both are the King of Israel (Isaiah 44:6; John 1:49).
112. both can be blasphemed (God-Rom.2:24; HS-Luke 12:10; Christ-Luk22:65; Acts 13:45; 18:5,6; 26:9,11)
113. both are always with all believers (Matthew 28:20; 2 Corinthians 13:14).
114. both are the one lawgiver (God-Rom.7:22; Christ-Gal.6:2; HS-Rom.8:2; James 4:12).
115. both have the same face (Revelation 22:3,4)
116. both have the same Name (Revelation 22:3,4)
117. both own the same servants (Revelation 22:3)
118. both are the Temple of the New Jerusalem (Revelation 21:22)
119. Heavens are the work of thy hands (Psalm 102:24-27; Hebrews 1:10-12)
120. both are called the Ancient of Days. (Daniel 7:9,13,22; Revelation 1:13-15).

Since both Jesus and the Father have these same attributes, both are Jehovah God.

There are not 2 Gods, but One God in 3 persons. One who has these attributes must be God.

The Lord's Prayer is devoted to worshipping the Father. Jesus conceals His personal glory in this prayer as seen by other Scriptures which are just as true of Christ as the Lord's Prayer is of the Father. Notice the Scriptures, said of Christ, that prove we could address the Lord's Prayer to the Son on page 815.

III. APPEARANCE OF JEHOVAH THE SON TO OLD TESTAMENT SAINTS WHO WORSHIPPED HIM.

The One who appears in the form of an angel or man, is, in the immediate context, declared to be God, or Jehovah. Who was this Being? He was not the Father, because no man has seen Him at any time, or can see Him and live (Exodus 33:20; John 6:46; 1:18).

He who appeared was Jehovah God the Son, the Word, as seen in these examples.

Jesus Christ was worshipped on 17 NT occasions, yet we never find Him refusing worship. Notice these pre-incarnate appearances of God the Son being seen and accepting worship.

- i) It was God the Son whom Ezekiel saw and worshipped as a man sitting on the throne (Ezekiel 1:26) who was later identified as the God of Israel (Ezekiel 10:20). "Upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it." (Ezek 1:26,28)
- ii) The elders saw the God of Israel. (Exodus 24:9,10,11). This was God the Son.
- iii) It was God the Son whom Moses worshipped, as the Angel of Jehovah at the bush. "The angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush." (Exodus 3:2). "God called unto him out of the midst of the bush." (Exodus 3:4).
- iv) It was God the Son with whom Jacob wrestled: "I have seen God face to face" Gen32:28,30
- v) It was God the Son whom Joshua worshipped. This worship was accepted by this person known as the Captain of the host of the Lord (Jehovah). (He "did worship" Joshua 5:14).
- vi) It was God the Son whom Manoah (father of Samson) saw, saying, "We shall surely die, because we have seen God." (Judges 13:22)
- vii) Isaiah cried, "Woe is me! for I am undone . . . for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord (Jehovah) of hosts." (Isaiah 6:5). In John 12:41, John says this was God the Son: "These things said Esaias, when he saw his (Christ's) glory, and spake of him."
- viii) It was God the Son who spoke to Hagar (Gen. 16:7-14) "Jehovah that spake unto her" 13.
- ix) "Jehovah went before them" in Exodus 13:21 is said to be "the angel of God which went before" (Exodus 14:19), and led Israel in a pillar of cloud by day & a pillar of fire by night.

IV. NEW TESTAMENT EXAMPLES OF PRAYER TO CHRIST:

The Kingdom Interlinear Translation (KIT) teaches prayer to Jesus.

The Watchtower teaches that prayer should be addressed only to Jehovah God.

"Prayer should be directed only to the Creator, Jehovah." (The Truth That Leads to Eternal Life, 1968, p152)

Consider these prayers directed to Jesus:

i) STEPHEN at his martyrdom, prayed to Jesus saying: "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." (Acts 7:59). Stephen worshipped Christ with his dying breath as very and eternal God.

Ask: Isn't this prayer to Jesus?

ii) The KIT tells us to pray to Jesus:

"if ever anything you should ask me in the name of me this I shall do" (John 14:14, KIT, p483).

Here Jesus invites us to beseech HIM in prayer, and in the authority of His own name.

If a JW should ever pray aloud to Jesus in a Kingdom Hall, he'd be disfellowshipped.

14	ἐάν	τι	αἰτήσητέ	μέ	ἐν	τῷ	Son. 14 If you ask anything in my name, I will do it.
	if ever	anything	you should ask	me	in	the ὄνόματί	μου	τοῦτο	ποιήσω.
name	of me	this	I shall do.

iii) When SAUL was blinded on the way to Damascus, he prayed to Jesus:

"Who art thou LORD? and the Lord said: I AM JESUS . . ." (Acts 9:5).

"and he trembling and astonished said, Lord what would thou have me to do?" (Acts 9:6).

iv) ANANIAS prayed to Jesus before he met Saul: (v.11).

“The Lord said unto him (Ananias), Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul of Tarsus, for behold he prayeth, and hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight” (v 12, 13). “Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem.”

(Note: Here Ananias prays (v.13) to the Lord, who is identified in v.17 as JESUS:

“The Lord, even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight”). Hence, both Saul and Ananias pray to Jesus.

v) All the Christians at DAMASCUS called on Jesus’ name according to Ananias.

“He hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that CALL on thy name.” (v.14).

Ananias is still talking to Jesus in prayer. He states that the Chief Priests are persecuting the Christians for calling on Jesus’ name. The chief priests would not be worried by them calling on the Father’s name, but calling on Jesus’ name made the priests angry.

vi) JESUS rebukes the Jews: “Ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.” (John 5:40).

How were they to come to Christ? By prayer to Him, asking Christ for Life (John 4:10).

vii) “ALL that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.” (I Cor 1:2).

Are not all true believers praying to and worshipping Christ by calling upon His name? Yes! Do we pray to angels or men? No! We only pray to God. Christ, as the omniscient God, hears and understands millions of prayers a second from all over the world.

viii) We are to trust in Christ, as we trust in God. “Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.” (John 14:1). Trusting Christ is prayer to Christ.

ix) “At the name of Jesus every knee should bow . . . that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.” (Philippians 2:10,11).

Ask: Would it be right for all creatures in the universe to bow, adore and exalt a fellow creature? How could bowing to a creature glorify God the Father?

Hence Christ cannot be a creature, but is God the Son.

x) Is it worship of the Father when Peter concludes his prayer to God in I Peter 5:10,11 with the Doxology to the Father: “To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever, Amen?”

Yes, this is adoration and worship to God. Let us be consistent.

This same Doxology is given to the Son in:

--II Peter 3:18 “But grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.”

--I Peter 4:11 “that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.”

--II Timothy 4:18 “The Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.”

--Revelation 1:5,6 “Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood.

And hath made us kings and priests unto God and His Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen”

A T Robertson in “Word Pictures in the NT” Vol 6, p.126 confirms that these refer to Christ, especially I Peter 4:11 as follows:

“To whom
 (dative) is,” that is to Jesus Christ the immediate antecedent, but in Rom. 16:27 and Jude 25 the doxology is to God through Christ. For other doxologies see I Pet. 5:11; II Pet. 3:18; Gal. 1:5; Rom. 9:5; 11:36; Phil. 4:20; Eph. 3:21; I Tim. 1:17; 6:16; II Tim. 4:18; Heb. 13:21; Rev. 1:6; 5:13; 7:12. The others addressed to Christ are II Pet. 3:18; II Tim. 4:18; Rev. 1:6.

4 out of 17 Doxologies are to Christ. The same words are spoken to the Father as to the Son.

xi) In Revelation 5:8-14, first the redeemed fall down and adore the Lamb only (v.8-10).

Secondly, unlimited angels adore the Lamb only (v.11,12).

Thirdly, all creatures in the universe adore the Father and the Lamb. (v.13,14).

xii) God and the Lamb have one Throne, one Face, one Name and we are servants of both.

“proceeding out of the throne (of God and of the Lamb).” (v.1).

“the throne (of God and of the Lamb) shall be in it; his servants shall serve him.” (v.3).

“They shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads.” (Revelation 22:1,3,4).

The word “his” (singular) applied to “God and the Lamb” indicates that both God and the Lamb own the servants, have the same face, have the same name, and own the same throne.

Hence, we see the one and equal supremacy and unity of the Father and the Son.

V. FATHER AND SON HAVE THE SAME DIVINE OFFICES

i) The Son’s name is placed on the same level as the name of the Father in Matthew 28:19.

“Baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.”

Would God allow a created being’s name to be put on the same level as the Father?

Never!

ii) The love of the Father and of the Son is shown as an equal privilege given to us.

“He that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him.” (John 14:21).

iii) Believers fellowship equally with both the Father and the Son.

“Truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.” (I John 1:3).

iv) Eternal life is for believers to know equally both the Father and the Son. “This is life eternal, that they may know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ.” (John 17:3).

v) Paul and James are servants of both God and Christ:

“Paul, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ.” (Titus 1:1).

“James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ.” (James 1:1).

“Paul, an apostle . . . by Jesus Christ, and God the Father.” (Galatians 1:1).

vi) The Father and Son both equally own the church:

“The church . . . in God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.” (I Thess. 1:1; II Thess 1:1).

vii) The Father and Son both equally bestow grace and peace. “Grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.” (II Thessalonians 1:2).

viii) The Father and the Son both love us, console us, and give us hope. (II Thess. 2:16).

Both are co-equal in their power to grant our petitions.

14. CHRIST'S BODILY RESURRECTION "I have power to take it again" Jn 10:18

Watchtower Teaching: "Jesus was raised to life as an invisible spirit. He did not take up again that body in which he had been killed . . ." "Let your Name be sanctified." (p.266). The Watchtower teaches that Jesus' body was disposed of by God.

The NWT mistranslates I Peter 3:18 as "being put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit" to teach merely a spiritual resurrection of Christ.

Bible Teaching: I Peter 3:18 refers to when Christ died. His Spirit went and preached to spirits in prison (v.19,20). After three days, Christ's physical body was raised.

I Peter 3:18 (KJV) correctly reads: 'put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit.' Which Scriptures best teach Christ's bodily resurrection?

1. "They were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit." (v.37) He said unto them, "Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have." (Luke 24:37, 39)

Notice that the resurrected Christ says here that:

(1) He is not a spirit;

(2) His resurrection body has flesh and bones;

(3) His physical hands and feet are proof of His physical resurrection;

Jesus is trying to convince them that He, "I myself" has a permanent physical body which still had the nail scars in His hands and feet. This is opposite to the WT teaching that Christ's body was disposed of and that He became only a spirit. If the WT claim was correct, then Jesus would be deceiving the disciples here in showing them His body.

2. "Then saith he to Thomas, . . . reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing." (John 20:27)

Here Jesus says that He has a physical side that He challenges Thomas to touch.

3. "Neither did his flesh see corruption." - Acts 2:30,31

NWT	KJV
"he would seat one from the fruitage of his loins OMIT OMIT upon his throne, he saw beforehand and spoke concerning the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was he forsaken in Hades, nor did his flesh see corruption. "	"of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne; He seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption. "

Notice the following:

a) God promised David that "according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne." (v.30). This is a bodily resurrection of Christ, not spiritual. The NWT omits this because of its corrupt Westcott-Hort Greek text. Well over 38 manuscripts have it.

b) "neither did his flesh see corruption" (v.31) means that Christ's body did not decay. Why? Because Jesus was raised from the dead in a material, fleshly body.

4. "I will raise it up . . . he spake of the temple of his body." John 2:19-21.

"Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up (v.19). But he spake of the temple of his body." (v.21).

Jesus here promised that He Himself would raise up His own body after three days.

See how Jesus uses the word "body" meaning a bodily resurrection, not a spiritual resurrection.

Ask: How does Jesus define "the temple" in John 2:19-21? Since Jesus said that He would raise His body, doesn't this mean a bodily resurrection would occur?

5. Christ promises to eat of the fruit of the vine in the Kingdom. Only a body can eat.

“I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the Kingdom of God shall come.” Luke 22:18.

Jesus here showed that his resurrected body would be able to eat and drink even in the Kingdom of God. Notice that a non-material spirit cannot eat and drink. Jesus promised the disciples in Luke 22:30 “that ye may eat and drink at my table in my Kingdom.”

Ask: If Jesus expected to become an immaterial spirit, why would He promise the disciples that they would eat and drink with Christ at His table in His Kingdom?

6. Christ ate a broiled fish and a honeycomb in front of them. Luke 24:41,42.

7. “he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies.” Rom. 8:11

As Christ’s body was raised physically from the dead, so shall our mortal bodies be raised.

8. His resurrection body “breathed on them.” John 20:22. A spirit cannot breathe, can it?

9. “His feet shall stand in that day upon the Mount of Olives...” Zechariah 14:4.

A spirit does not have feet. Only a physical body has feet as Jesus has at His second coming.

10. “One shall say unto him, What are these wounds in thine hands?” Zechariah 13:6.

Ask: How can a non-material spirit have wounds in his hands which can be observed?

11. The resurrected, glorified Christ touched John, laying his right hand on him. Rev. 1:17.

Watchtower Objection: JW’s quote I Corinthians 15:44,50 to support their claim that Jesus was raised from the dead as a spirit creature:

a) “It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.” (v.44).

b) “flesh and blood cannot inherit the Kingdom of God.” (v.50). JW’s claim that Jesus must have had a spiritual resurrection, because flesh-and-blood bodies cannot exist in heaven. They claim that mortality and corruption belong to the fleshly body.

Bible Teaching:

a) The Greek word for body, “soma” (4983), always means a material body, an organised whole made up of parts, when used of a person (Zodhiates, NT Word Study,p.1358). The spiritual body in I Cor.15:44 is not an immaterial body, but a supernatural, spirit-dominated body.

It is a body directed by the spirit, as opposed to a body under the dominion of the flesh.

There are no exceptions to Paul using “soma” for a material body.

Paul even refers to a believer as a “spiritual” man who judges all things (I Cor. 2:15), yet Paul did not mean an immaterial invisible man with no physical body.

He meant a spirit-controlled man with a flesh and blood body.

Ask: In I Corinthians 2:15 (“He that is spiritual judgeth all things”), is Paul discussing an invisible spirit creature or a material, flesh-and-blood human? Can you see that being “spiritual” does not demand a non-material body? The same is true in I Corinthians 15:44.

b) Key: In v.50 “flesh and blood” is an idiom meaning that mortal, perishable, earth-bound humans, as we are now, cannot have a place in God’s glorious, heavenly Kingdom.

c) “this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.” 53. Nothing is taken away from us (materialness). Instead immortality is “put on” or added to us

Ask: Don’t the words “put on” mean adding something to humanity (that is immortality), not taking away something from humanity (our material body)?

Conclusion: Since Christ’s resurrected body could eat, drink, breathe (John 20:22), show His hands and feet with scars (Luke 24:40), be touched, and have flesh and bones (Luke 24:39), it is certain that this body was a material body. This is especially true since Jesus corrected the disciples’ misconception that they had seen a spirit (Luke 24:37).

For the JW’s to say that a body is not a body, is their last resort of redefining common words.

15. IS SALVATION BY CHRIST or by WATCHTOWER WORKS?

The difference between salvation by faith and works is that, with faith, God does it, but with works, we try to do it ourselves. JW's often give "lip service" to salvation by grace through faith in Christ. In reality, they believe in works for the Watchtower for salvation. They urge readers to "come to Jehovah's organisation for salvation." (WT, 15 Nov. 1981, p.21).

Watchtower magazine of 15 Aug 1972, p.491 asks JW's to "work hard for the reward of eternal life." Eternal life is a gift (Romans 6:23), never a reward to be earned.

JW's cannot know for sure if they have salvation during this life.

The WT tells JW's that if they fail to serve God "properly" in the millennium, they will be annihilated.

They believe that eternal life becomes theirs, only by serving God till the end of the 1000 years. JW's believe that Jesus' death only wiped out the sin inherited from Adam.

They claim that Christ's atonement allows men to work their way to salvation.

They claim that the "gift" of Christ's ransom sacrifice is free to all, only to give us a chance to work for our salvation.

JW's claim that being born again is only for the 144,000 anointed class.

JW's claim the "other sheep" don't need to be born again, but hope to live forever on paradise earth.

JW's falsely claim six steps to being born again:

- i) Take in accurate knowledge of God. This is a mistranslation of John 17:3 where they change "that they may know (verb) thee (KJV)" to "their taking in knowledge (noun) of you". The unbeliever may have knowledge about God, but only the saved person knows God personally. Jesus will say to unbelievers "I never knew you: depart from me." Mat7:23
- ii) Exercise faith, which they define as belief plus works. (See Eph.2:9 "not of works lest.")
- iii) Repentance from bad works.
- iv) Conversion, which they define as doing works fitting repentance.
- v) Dedication to Jehovah, which they define as dedication to the Watchtower Organisation.
- vi) Baptism, as an outward sign of their dedication (Watchtower, Feb 1, 1982, p.25-29).

For a JW, the above does not ever guarantee them to be born again; it just puts them in line. They think that only 144,000 are born again. Since the 144,000 places were supposedly filled in 1935, most JW's believe they can never be born again.

JW's believe that three classes of people will be saved by good works:

- a) The 144,000 to heaven;
- b) The "other sheep" to earth; and
- c) Non-JW's who have lived good enough lives to earn salvation.

The Pharisees (like the JW's) believed in study and obedience to the Law, but Jesus said that was not enough. They had to come to Jesus as the giver of eternal life. Only by the indwelling Christ can believers do good works. JW's live in fear of dying at Armageddon.

JW's twist five main Scriptures regarding salvation:

1. John 3:3,5,7 - Being Born again

"Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, Verily I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God. Ye must be born again." (John 3:3,7).

Watchtower Teaching: JW's do not believe that they must be born again. If you ask a JW if he has been born again, he will say: "That doesn't apply to me. It's only for the 144,000 anointed ones. I belong to the "great crowd" who will live on the earth under Kingdom rule."

The WT organisation has taught them that: “The “other sheep” do not need any such rebirth, for their goal is life everlasting in the restored earthly paradise.” (WT, 15 Feb 1986, p.14).

Our Biblical Response:

Question 1: When Jesus said, “Unless anyone is born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God.” (John 3:3 NWT), did He allow for any exceptions? (No!).

Question 2: In I John 5:1 (NWT) “Everyone believing that Jesus is the Christ has been born from God”, does the expression “everyone believing” leave any believer out? (No).

Question 3: In Galatians 4:5,6 (NWT) didn’t Christ come so “that we . . . might receive the adoption as sons. Now because you are sons, God has sent forth the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, and it cries out “Abba, Father”.”

Ask: Have you been adopted as a son of God, by receiving the Spirit of Christ into your heart, as shown here? (No)

Question 4: In Romans 8:9 “Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.” Remind the JW that he has admitted that he has not received Christ’s Spirit to dwell in his heart by being born again.

Ask: In the light of Romans 8:8,9 can you reach any other conclusion than that you cannot please God (v.8) and that you do not belong to Christ? Re-read Romans 8:8,9,14-16.

Bible Teaching:

Scripture is clear that the opportunity to become born again is not limited to 144,000 people in the so-called anointed class, but is open to all who believe in Jesus Christ as follows.

a) I John 5:1 “Whosoever (everyone) believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God.” There are no exceptions. Anybody and everybody who believes that Jesus is the Christ is born again.

b) John 3:16 “that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.”

c) I John 4:7 “everyone that loveth is born of God.”

Key: Notice here that God never mentions that the number to be born again is restricted to 144,000 but is unlimited to “whosoever believeth”.

Note: Jesus did not need to be born again because He never sinned (Hebrews 5:15).

Only sinners being dead spiritually need to be born again.

“Ye” in John 3:7 means “everybody” plural. Being born again of the Spirit means that we who were born physically with a dead spirit inherited from Adam, experience a spiritual rebirth by the Holy Spirit giving us new spiritual life. Everyone must be born again.

Paul did not divide believers into two classes, but said:

a) “Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous judge shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto ALL them also that love his appearing.” (II Timothy 4:8).

b) The new birth is not limited to 144,000, but is available to “any man”:
“If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature . . .” (II Corinthians 5:17).

c) Never do we read of a limited number being placed on those who are born again.

“Being born again, not of corruptible seed but of incorruptible, by the word of God.” I Peter 1:23
“everyone that doeth righteousness is born of him.” (I John 2:29).

“whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God . . .” (I John 5:1).

Question: What about you? Have you been born again? You must be born again!

2. Present tense salvation: Matthew 24:13 “But he that shall endure unto the end (of the 7 year Tribulation), the same shall be saved (from the Antichrist’s persecutions).”

The Watchtower Society has convinced JW’s that they are unsaved and that they cannot be saved in this present life. They do not believe that they will have to answer for their sins. The JW book “Make Sure of all Things” on page 332 states: “Salvation to life involves time and is not completed when one becomes a Christian.” They believe that nobody can be sure of salvation until they have continued their good works up to the end of the 1000 years. Their idea is completely false as seen from these scriptures, showing that we now possess a present tense salvation:

- 1) I John 5:12 “He that has the Son, has life.”
- 2) I John 5:13 “that ye may know that ye have eternal life.”
- 3) John 3:36 “He that believeth on the Son has everlasting life.”
- 4) I John 3:2 “Beloved, now are we the sons of God . . .”
- 5) I Corinthians 1:18 “but unto us which are saved . . .”
- 6) II Corinthians 2:15 “in them that are saved . . .”
- 7) Ephesians 2:5,8 “by grace ye are saved;”
- 8) I Thessalonians 1:10 “Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come.”
- 9) II Timothy 1:9 “Who has saved us . . .”
- 10) Titus 3:5 “according to his mercy he saved us.”
- 11) I John 2:12 “I write unto you because your sins are forgiven you for his name’s sake.”
- 12) Romans 8:16 “The Spirit itself bears witness with our spirit that we are the children of God.”

Think: If all the people converted in the apostles’ time up to 100 AD were totalled, they would have taken up the 144,000 places even before the JW’s came on the scene!

3. Romans 10:13 - “Calling on Jehovah”

NWT	KJV
“Everyone who calls on the name of Jehovah will be saved.”	“For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord (Greek: κυριος) shall be saved.”

JW’s quote this verse to claim that the proper use of God’s correct name - “Jehovah” - is essential to obtaining salvation. They explain this as: “Everyone who calls on the name of Jehovah will get away safe.” (Joel 2:32). (Man’s Salvation out of World Distress p.111), meaning get away safe at Armageddon. This is completely redefining salvation from being “salvation from sin” to “salvation from Armageddon”.

Bible Teaching: JW’s have inserted the word “Jehovah” which is not in any NT manuscript.

Question: Why didn’t they translate “Lord” in Philippians 2:11 as “Jehovah”?

Answer: Because it would prove that “Jesus Christ is Jehovah”.

Paul is here quoting Joel 2:32: “calling on the name of Jehovah”, and applying it to Christ. Paul is here equating “calling on Jehovah” with “calling upon Jesus Christ”, hence proving that Christ is Jehovah. The context of Romans 10:4-14 is Jesus Christ, where Jesus’ name is mentioned in v.4,6,7,9,11,12.

Ask: Why isolate v.13 as referring to Jehovah, when every other verse here refers to Jesus Christ? Is not Jesus Christ shown to be Jehovah here?

Also, for Peter, Jesus is the Lord of Joel 2:32 in Acts 2:21.

This proves that Jesus is the Jehovah of Joel 2:32.

The WT magazine (1 May 1978, p.12), says that Romans 10:13 refers to Jesus Christ.

However, the WT magazine (1 Feb 1980, p.61) states that it refers to Jehovah.

Ask: How can the Watchtower reverse its interpretation on this important verse?

4. I Timothy 2:5,6 - No Mediator for the Great Crowd.

“For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; who gave himself a ransom for all.”

Watchtower Teaching: They argue that, because Jesus mediates between God and men, He cannot be viewed as God, since a mediator is separate from those needing mediation. The WT claims that Christ’s ransom sacrifice corresponded exactly to Adam’s life. The WT argues that, if Jesus were a part of the triune Godhead, “the ransom price would have been infinitely higher than what God’s Law required.” (Should you believe in the Trinity?, p.21).

Bible Teaching: The folly of WT reasoning that “for Jesus to be a mediator between God and men, means that He cannot be God”, is seen in that He could not be man either, if the requirement was to be separate from both parties. The truth is that Jesus CAN mediate between God and men because He is both God and man. It was only as a man that Christ could represent humanity and die as a man. As God, however, Christ’s death has infinite value, sufficient to provide redemption for the sins of all people.

Isaiah 43:11 states that it is only God who saves: “I, even I, am the LORD (Jehovah); and beside me there is no Saviour.” This important verse shows that:

a) A claim to be Saviour is a claim to be God; and

b) There is only one Saviour, that is God.

Hence Jesus is God, as seen by the NT calling Him “Saviour” in John 4:42, Titus 2:13, 2 Peter 1:1

Ask: Can you see how that only God is the Saviour (Isaiah 43:11), and that Jesus is the Saviour (Luke 2:11) requires that Jesus be God Almighty?

Ask: Since the WT claims that Christ’s death was only a “corresponding ransom” for Adam, why did God need to send His Son to earth as a man, if all that was required was a perfect human? God could have created a perfect human from scratch.

In the Watchtower magazine, April 1, 1979, a reader’s question asks:

“Is Jesus the mediator only for anointed Christians (the 144,000)?” The WT answered “yes”.

These remaining few are the only ones allowed to partake in the annual communion service. This means that only about 5000 of the 144,000 are alive today (in 1996), who have a mediator. All other JW’s have no mediator. I John 2:2 states that:

“He is the propitiation for our sins: and not for our sins only, but also for the sins of the whole world.”

Ask: Since the WT claims that Jesus is Michael the archangel, how can he be the “MAN” Christ Jesus (I Timothy 2:5)? This verse was written in 65 AD, with Jesus being in heaven, yet the WT claims that Jesus after His death reverted back to being Michael the archangel. Both Jews and JW’s think that they can go to the Father without a mediator.

Ask: If one can get eternal life without Christ as mediator, then who needs Christ, and why did Christ have to die? If Christ only became sin for the 144,000, then the others have no sin bearer, no Saviour, and are still in their sins, in which they must die. What advantage is there in being a JW? (None whatsoever!)

Ask: You may ask them: “If you aren’t sure of eternal life, you have nothing to offer me.”

Hence the imaginary earthly class have no Saviour, no mediator, no intercessor, no access to Jehovah, only eternal damnation.

Conclusion: About 200 times the NT states that salvation is by faith in Christ as Saviour, not by works, as seen in Ephesians 2:8,9; Titus 3:5; Galatians 2:16, etc.

Note: Acts 16:31,34 equate believing in Christ and believing in God as identical acts.

“Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.” (v.31).

“Believing in God with all his house.” (v.34).

16. WATCHTOWER FALSE PROPHECIES

Four principles of dealing with JW's on their false prophecies are as follows:

Principle I - The real problem with JW's is the question of religious authority.

JW's think that the WT has the greatest Hebrew, Greek and Bible scholars, when they have none.

JW's think that all religious questions are solved in Brooklyn, and nowhere else can truth be found. JW's look unquestioningly to the WT, just as medieval Roman Catholics looked to Rome for truth.

To a JW, the Bible has no real authority, except as correctly interpreted by the Watchtower. JW's are trained not to trust themselves or others to interpret the Bible, only the Watchtower. If you silence and refute a JW by Bible arguments, which he cannot answer, he will just contact the Watchtower and they will give him their answers.

Key: As long as a JW trusts the WT organisation, you'll never get anywhere with him. Once a JW's confidence and trust in the WT organisation is shaken, he is more readily brought to salvation.

Principle II - To destroy a JW's blind obedience and submission to the WT, you must show them that the Watchtower is not trustworthy or reliable.

You must prove that the WT is not "God's visible organisation on earth."

Key: He must see that he has been deceived by the Watchtower. Until his confidence in the WT has been destroyed, he is unable to place his confidence or authority in the Bible alone. Until he looks to the Bible alone, there is no real common ground between you and a JW.

Principle III - To destroy a JW's blind allegiance to the WT, we must show from Scripture and Watchtower literature that the Watchtower is a FALSE PROPHET, and hence is unreliable, fraudulent, untrustworthy, and not worthy of his belief, obedience or submission. Tell a JW: "The Watchtower is a false prophet and is trying to deceive you and me. It is condemned by Scripture as a false prophet."

Question: How can we show that the Watchtower is a false prophet?

Step 1: A true prophet of God will give prophecies that will come true 100% of the time (Deuteronomy 18:20-22; Matthew 7:15-20).

A false prophet will give prophecies that fail to come true. The WT claims to be God's inspired prophet who gives prophecies under angelic direction. (WT, 1 April, 1972, p.197-200).

Step 2: Deuteronomy 18:20-22 and Matthew 7:15-20 tell us how to judge if the WT is a true or false prophet.

Step 3: In 100 years of giving prophecies, the WT has a 100% failure rate.

All WT prophecies have been shown to be false by the passage of time.

Step 4: Deuteronomy 18:20-22 and Matthew 7:15-20 prove that the WT is a false prophet and does not speak in Jehovah's name. The Bible therefore commands us not to believe, trust, respect or fear the WT.

Step 5: Just as the WT has given false prophecies, so it has given false doctrines.

The WT has tried to cover up its false prophecies by wilful and deliberate lies and deceit.

Principle IV - It is best to first get the JW to recognize and acknowledge that the WT is a false prophet, then to discuss doctrine and Bible passages.

Let us look at these four steps proving how the WT is a false prophet:

Step 1: Get the JW to agree that the Bible clearly teaches that a true prophet of God gives prophecies coming true 100% of the time, & false prophets give prophecies that don't come true.

Today, there are many “prophets”, all claiming to speak in God’s name.

We must ask the question found in Deuteronomy 18:21:

“If thou say in thine heart, “How shall we know the word which the Lord hath not spoken?””

Question: Has Jehovah given us a test for us to distinguish between true and false prophets?

Moses’ test: Yes, it is Deuteronomy 18:22: “When a prophet speaketh in the name of Jehovah, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which Jehovah hath not spoken; but the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously: thou shalt not be afraid of him.”

Jesus’ test: Matthew 7:15-20 gives the test to distinguish between true and false prophets: “Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits . . . A corrupt tree brings forth evil fruit.” The fruits of the tree are the prophecies of the prophet.

Just as a good tree never bears evil fruit, so a true prophet NEVER gives a false prophecy.

Jesus said, “By their fruits (prophecies) ye shall know them.”

In the JW Awake magazine, October 8, 1968, p.23 they say:

“True, there have been those in times past who predicted an “end to the world”, even announcing a specific date . . . Yet, nothing happened. The “end” did not come. They were guilty of false prophesying. Why? What was missing? Missing from such people were God’s truths and the evidence that He was guiding and using them.”

Hence, a false prophet, even though he spoke in Jehovah’s Name, gave false prophecies (endorsed & published by WT) which failed to come true. Here, the WT admits to being a false prophet.

Step 2: Has the Watchtower ever claimed to be God’s prophet today? Is the WT Society the “faithful and wise servant of Jehovah” proclaiming inspired messages from angels?

Ask the JW to “read aloud the following sentences”, and Ask the JW to “explain what you have just read”. Get him to answer the questions himself.

At Step 2, don’t discuss if WT prophecies have come true.

Get the JW to agree that the WT claims to be God’s prophet before you go to Step 3.

Consider this article in the Watchtower magazine of April, 1, 1972, pages 197 to 200.

The front page is reproduced on the next page to give the context, and to prove to JWs.

This “prophet” was not one man, but was a body of men and women. It was the small group of footstep followers of Jesus Christ, known at that time as International Bible Students.

Today they are known as Jehovah’s Christian witnesses.” (Watchtower, 1 April 1972, p.197).

Ask: Does the Watchtower claim “Jehovah’s Christian Witnesses” are God’s prophet for today?

Step 3: Ask, “Can we agree that the Watchtower “prophet” has given prophecies about events and dates in the future?” (Don’t argue about 1914 here).

Ask “Let us apply Moses’ test and Jesus’ test of a prophet to this modern day prophet.”

1. What date is set for the close of that battle (ie: Armageddon)?

“The date of the close of that “battle” is definitely marked in Scripture as October 1914.

It is already in progress, its beginning dating from October 1874.”

(Zions Watchtower, 15 January 1892, p.1353).

—yet so great is our confidence in the Word of God and in the light of present truth shining upon it, that we could not have doubted its testimony whatever had been the appearances. ◀ The date of the close of that “battle” is definitely marked in Scripture as October, 1914. They shall know that
WAS AMONG THEM'

JEHOVAH GOD is interested in having people know him. Though he is invisible to human eyes, he provides various ways by which they can know his personality. They can know what to expect from him and what he expects of them.

One can come to understand that Jehovah is a God of surpassing wisdom by observing creation. This also reveals the loving care with which he designed things for man's welfare and enjoyment. A second way to know God is through his Word of truth, the Bible. Herein one finds the full expression of Jehovah's purpose toward mankind—why man is on the earth and the blessings that God has in store.

A third way of coming to know Jehovah God is through his representatives. In ancient times he sent prophets as his special messengers. While these men foretold things to come, they also served the people by telling them of God's will for them at that time, often also warning them of dangers and calamities. People today can view the creative works. They have at hand the Bible, but it is little read or understood. So, does Jehovah have a prophet to help them, to warn them of dangers and to declare things to come?

IDENTIFYING THE "PROPHET"

These questions can be answered in the affirmative. Who is this prophet? The clergy of the so-called "Christian" nations hold themselves before the people as being the ones commissioned to speak for God. But, as pointed out in the previous issue of this magazine, they have failed God and failed as proclaimers of his kingdom by approving a man-made political organization, the League of Nations (now the United Nations), as "the political expression of the Kingdom of God on earth."

Ezek. 2:5

However, Jehovah did not let the people of Christendom, as led by the clergy, go without being warned that the League was a counterfeit substitute for the real kingdom of God. He had a "prophet" to warn them. This "prophet" was not one man, but was a body of men and women. It was the small group of footstep followers of Jesus Christ, known at that time as International Bible Students. Today they are known as Jehovah's Christian witnesses. They are still proclaiming a warning, and have been joined and assisted in their commissioned work by hundreds of thousands of persons who have listened to their message with belief.

Of course, it is easy to say that this group acts as a "prophet" of God. It is another thing to prove it. The only way that this can be done is to review the record. What does it show?

During the World War I period this group, the International Bible Students, was very active in preaching the good news of God's kingdom, as their Leader Jesus Christ had set this work before them in his prophecy at Matthew 24:14. They took literally Jesus' words to the Roman governor Pontius Pilate: "My kingdom is no part of this world." (John 18:36) They also took to heart Jesus' words to his fol-

2. Did the Times of the Gentiles end in October 1914?

a) In 1889 the WT said, "we present proofs that the setting up of the kingdom of God has already begun . . . and that "the battle of the great day of God almighty" (Revelation 16:14), which will end in AD 1914 with the complete overthrow of the earth's present rulership, is already commenced." (In their 1915 edition of this same book they changed 'AD 1914' to 'AD 1915'.)

b) On July 15, 1894 they said, "But bear in mind that the end of 1914 is not the date for the beginning, but for the end of the time of trouble." (Reprints, p.1677).

c) In 1904 they said, “The stress of the great time of trouble will be on us soon, somewhere between 1910 and 1912 culminating with the end of the “times of the Gentiles”, October 1914.”
(The New Creation, p.579).

But the year 1914 ended without a single one of these predictions coming true.

d) In Pastor Russell's Sermons (1917, p.676), Charles Taze Russell, founder and first president of the Jehovah's Witnesses, said of World War I, “The present great war in Europe is the beginning of the Armageddon of the Scriptures.”

3. Did God destroy the churches wholesale in 1918?

“Also, in the year 1918, when God destroys the churches wholesale and the church members by millions, it shall be that any that escape shall come to the works of Pastor Russell to learn the meaning of the downfall of “Christianity.”” (Finished Mystery, 1917 edition, p.485).

Question: Why did the 1926 edition change this quote to: “When God begins to destroy the churches?”

4. Did Christ return to Earth in 1874 and set up the Millennium?

“The Millennium began in 1874, with the Return of Christ.” (Studies, Vol 7, p.386).

“After the Second Adventist hopes were disappointed in 1874, Barbour convinced Russell that Christ actually returned invisibly in 1874.” (Studies, Vol 7, p.54).

5. Did Abraham, Isaac and Jacob get resurrected and return to life in 1925?

The Society had a mansion in San Diego named Beth-Sarim (House of Princes) waiting for these resurrected prophets. It was built in 1930. Frederick Franz (the president of the Society) in 1942 wrote a book titled The New World, and it says among other things:

“and hence those faithful men of old may be expected back from the dead any day now. In this expectation the house of San Diego, California, which house has been much publicized with malicious intent by the religious enemy, was built in 1930, and named “Beth-Sarim”, meaning “House of the Princes”. It is now held in trust for the occupancy of those princes on their return.” (The New World page 104). The house was sold a few years later. “The year 1925 is a date definitely and clearly marked in the Scriptures, even more clearly than that of 1914.” (Watchtower 15 July 1924, p.211).

“Some anticipated the work would end in 1925. The Lord did not so state.” (Watchtower 1 August 1926, p 232).

6. How can Revelation 1:7 “Behold he cometh with clouds, and every eye shall see him” fit with this WT quote?

“Surely there is not the slightest room for doubt in the mind of a truly consecrated child of God that the Lord Jesus is present and has been since 1874.” (WT, 1 Jan. 1924, p5).

“We are not to look for Christ to be visible to human eyes when he comes again.” (Watchtower, 15 February 1955, p.102).

7. Did the Battle of Armageddon take place in 1975?

WHY ARE YOU LOOKING FORWARD TO 1975?

→ WHAT about all this talk concerning the year 1975? Lively discussions, some based on speculation, have burst into flame during recent months among serious students of the Bible. Their interest has been kindled by the belief that 1975 will mark the end of 6,000 years of human history since Adam's creation. The nearness of such an important date indeed fires the imagination and presents unlimited possibilities for discussion.

² But wait! How do we know their calculations are correct? What basis is there for saying Adam was created nearly 5,993 years ago? Does the one Book that can be implicitly trusted for its truthful historical accuracy, namely, the Inspired Word of Jehovah, the Holy Bible, give support and credence to such a conclusion?

³ In the marginal references of the Protestant Authorized or King James Version, and in the footnotes of certain editions of the Catholic Douay version, the date of man's creation is said to be 4004 B.C.E. This marginal date, however, is no part of the inspired text of the Holy Scriptures, since it was first suggested more than fifteen centuries after the last Bible writer died, and was not added to any edition of the Bible until 1701 C.E. It is an insertion based upon the conclusions of an Irish prelate, the Anglican Archbishop James Ussher (1581-1656). Ussher's chronology was only one of the many sincere efforts made during the past centuries to determine the time of Adam's creation. A hundred years ago when a count was taken, no less than 140 different timetables had been published by se-

“Are we to assume from this study that the battle of Armageddon will be all over by the autumn of 1975, and the long looked for 1000-year reign of Christ will begin by then? Possibly. It may involve only a difference of weeks or months, not years.” (Watchtower, 15 August 1968, p.499).

“A great crowd of people are confident that great destruction is imminent, which has been a major factor in their decision not to have children.” (WT, 8 Nov. 1974, p.11).

“Reports are heard of brothers selling their homes and property and planning to finish out the rest of their days in this old system in the pioneer service. Certainly this is a fine way to spend the short time remaining before the wicked world’s end.”

(Kingdom Ministry, May 1974, p3)

8. Did the Great Pyramid grow by 41 inches (3457 minus 3416=41) in 10 years (1903-13)?

“the Great Pyramid. seems in a remarkable way to teach, in harmony with all the prophets, an outline of the plan of God, past, present and future.” (Studies, Vol 3, 1903 edition, p.314).

“Then measuring . . . we find it to be 3416 inches, symbolizing 3416 years. . . .

This calculation shows AD 1874 as marking the beginning of the period of trouble. . .

(Studies, Vol 3, 1903 edition, p.342)

“Then measuring . . . we find it to be 3457 inches, symbolizing 3457 years . . .

This calculation shows AD 1915 as marking the beginning of the period of trouble . . .”

(Studies, Vol 3, 1913 edition, p 342)

“Those who have devoted themselves to the pyramid . . . The mind of such was turned away from Jehovah and his Word.” (Watchtower 15 November 1928, p 344)

9. According to the Watchtower ‘prophet’, will man ever reach the moon by rocket?

Man on earth can no more get rid of these demonic “heavens” than man can by airplane or rockets or other means get up above the air envelope which is about our earthly globe and in which man breathes.

This Watchtower false prophecy was printed in ‘The Truth shall make you Free’ p.285 in 1943.

It was proven false on October 4, 1957 when Russia’s Sputnik I escaped earth’s air envelope.

10. Note the Watchtower’s confidence that their false prophecies will come true:

a) 1874: The Day of Vengeance, p.621.

Our Lord, the appointed King, is now present, since October 1874, A. D., according to the testimony of the prophets, to those who have ears to hear it; and the formal inauguration of his kingly office dates from April 1878, A. D. :

INTERNATIONAL BIBLE STUDENTS ASSOCIATION

BROOKLYN, LONDON, MELBOURNE, BARMEN,

ELBERFELD, OREBRO, CHRISTIANIA.

1912

In this chapter we present the Bible evidence proving that the full end of the times of the Gentiles, i. e., the full end of their lease of dominion, will be reached in A. D. 1914; and that that date will be the farthest limit of the rule of imperfect men.

c) 1925: 'Millions Now Living Will Never Die', p.88-89.

They are to be resurrected as perfect men and constitute the princes or rulers in the earth, according to his promise. (Psalm 45:16; Isaiah 32:1; Matthew 8:11) Therefore we may confidently expect that 1925 will mark the return of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and the faithful prophets of old, particularly those named by the Apostle in Hebrews chapter eleven, to the condition of human perfection.

d) 1975: 'Awake', 8 October, 1968, stated that 6000 years of human history would end in autumn 1975. 'Why Human Creation will be Set Free', p.29:

the published timetable resulting from this independent study gives the date of man's creation as 4026 B.C.E.† According to this trustworthy Bible chronology six thousand years from man's creation will end in 1975, and the seventh period of a thousand years of human history will begin in the fall of 1975 C.E.

† So six thousand years of man's existence on earth will soon be up, yes, within this generation.

When Do 6,000 Years End?

How can it be determined when 6,000 years of human history will end?

According to reliable Bible chronology, Adam and Eve were created in 4026 B.C.E.* From the autumn of

4026 B.C.E. to 1 B.C.E. 4,025 years
1 B.C.E. to 1 C.E. 1 year
1 C.E. to 1968 C.E. 1,967 years

Total to autumn 1968 5,993 years

This would leave only seven more years from the autumn of 1968 to complete 6,000 full years of human history. That seven-year period will evidently finish in the autumn of the year 1975.

Step 4 - Ask: Now that you have examined Watchtower prophecies, you can apply the Biblical test to see if the Watchtower is a true or false prophet.

What was supposed to happen, according to the Watchtower, on the following dates: 1874, 1914, 1918, 1925 and 1975?

Question 1: With Judgment Day honesty, we must ask ourselves, "Did any of the above prophecies fail to come about?" The only honest answer is that, "All of them failed to be fulfilled. Every one of them failed. They were all false prophecies."

Question 2: What verdict did Moses and Jesus tell us to pass on the Watchtower?

Answer: The Watchtower is a false prophet (Deuteronomy 18:22). It is not God's organisation, and it does not speak in Jehovah's Name (Deuteronomy 18:20). We should not be afraid of it or respect it. (Deuteronomy 18:22). We must immediately take our stand with Moses and Jesus in rejecting the Watchtower as a false prophet (Matthew 7:15).

Question 3: But, if the Watchtower is a false prophet and cannot be trusted, but must be rejected, to where shall we turn for spiritual guidance?

Answer: Not to any human organisation, but to the Bible, God's Word as our only ultimate authority.

Re-examine everything the Watchtower has taught you. Study the Bible without their books or magazines. Don't let a false prophet tell you what the Bible says. You must study the Bible for yourself.

17. CONTRADICTIONS AND FALSE DOCTRINES OF THE WATCHTOWER:

1. Big Brother thought control of the Watchtower

“An individual must have The Watchtower to understand the Bible.” 1983 Yearbook, p21

“Avoid independent thinking . . . questioning the counsel that is provided by God’s visible organization.” (Watchtower 15 January 1983, p 22).

“Fight against independent thinking.” (Watchtower 15 January 1983, p 27).

“Unless we are in touch with this channel of communication that God is using, we will not progress along the road to life, no matter how much Bible reading we do.”

(Watchtower, 1 December 1981, p 27).

“The Vatican belittles Bible study by claiming it is the only organization authorized and qualified to interpret the Bible.” (Watchtower 1 July 1943, p 201).

“from among the ranks of Jehovah’s people . . . haughty ones . . . say that it is sufficient to read the Bible exclusively, either alone or in small groups at home. But, strangely, through such “Bible reading”, they have reverted right back to apostate doctrines that commentaries by Christendom’s clergy were teaching 100 years ago..”

(Watchtower, 15 August 1981, pp 28-29).

“Meekly go along with the organization. Do not pit human reasoning, sentiment, and personal feelings against the organization.” (Watchtower, 1 February 1952, p 80).

2. Has the Watchtower swallowed the “exclusivism” lie of the Roman Catholic church?

McClintock and Strong’s Cyclopaedia, Volume II, page 386, says:

“As the Roman hierarchy was developed, the clergy came to . . . be recognized as the only priesthood and the essential means of communication between man and God.”

(1000 Years, pp 377-78).

“Is not the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society the one and only channel which the Lord has used in dispensing his truth continually since the beginning of the harvest period?” (Watchtower, 1 April 1919, p 6414).

3. Why did the Watchtower change its view on vaccination and organ transplants?

a) “Vaccination is a direct violation of the everlasting covenant that God made with Noah after the flood.” (Golden Age, 4 February 1931, p 293).

“Vaccinations appear to have caused a marked decrease in diseases” Awake, 22 Aug 65, p20

b) Jehovah’s Witnesses consider all organ transplants to be cannibalism, hence unacceptable.” (Awake, 8 June 1968, p 21).

“Organ transplants are not necessarily cannibalistic.” (Watchtower, 15 March 1980, p 31).

4. Why did the Watchtower change its view on Christmas?

“Don’t quibble about the date; join in with the world and celebrate Christmas.”

(Watchtower, 1 December 1904, p.3468).

“We all need to face up to the fact that Christmas and its music are not from Jehovah, the God of truth. Then what is their source? Satan the Devil.” (Watchtower, 15 Dec.1983,p 7).

5. Why did the Watchtower change its view on the Cross?

“beginning with the issue of October 15, 1931, The Watchtower no longer bore the cross and crown symbol on its cover.” (1975 Yearbook, p 148).

6. Why did the Watchtower change its view on who Jesus and Michael are?

a) “Let all the angels of God worship him” [that must include Michael, the chief angel, hence Michael is not the Son of God.” (Watchtower, November 1879, p 48).

“Michael the great prince’ is none other than Jesus Christ himself. Daniel 12:1.”

(Watchtower 15 December 1984, p 29.)

“Michael in Revelation 12:7 is the pope of Rome.”(Studies, Vol 7, p 188).

b) “Jesus is the Alpha and the Omega, the Almighty, of Revelation 1:8.”

(Studies, Vol 7, p 15).

“Jesus is the Alpha and the Omega of Revelation 21:6”. (Studies, Vol 7, p 318).

7. Why is the Watchtower confused about Romans 10:13, 10:14 and Revelation 22:12?

a) “Romans 10:13 is referring to Jesus.” (Watchtower, 1 May 1978, p 12).

“Romans 10:13 is referring to Jehovah.” (Watchtower, 1 February 1980, p 16).

b) “Romans 10:14 refers to Jesus.” (Watchtower, 1 December 1903, p 3282).

“Romans 10:14-16 refers to Jehovah.” (Watchtower, 1 July 1940, p 200).

c) “Revelation 22:12 is referring to Jehovah.” (Awake, 22 August 1978, p 28)

“Revelation 22:7, 12, 20 is referring to Jesus.” (Watchtower, 1 October 1978, p 15).

8. Why does the Watchtower teach JW’s to tell lies?

“Lying to God’s enemies is not really lying but war strategy.” (WT, 1 June 1960, p352).

9. Why did the Watchtower change its view on military service?

“no command in the Scriptures against military service.” (WT, 1 August 1898, p 2345).

“nothing against our consciences in going into the army.” (WT, 15 April 1903, p 3180).

“Due to conscience, Jehovah’s Witnesses refuse military service.” (WT, 1 Feb 1951, p73)

“Should you defend yourself? A homeowner has the right to inflict hard blows. Jesus’ apostles had at least two swords.” (Watchtower, 8 September 1975, pp 27-28).

10. Why did the Watchtower change its view on worshipping Christ?

“You must worship and bow down to Jehovah’s chief one, namely Jesus Christ.”

(Watchtower, 15 October 1945, p 313).

11. Is salvation in a man-made Watchtower Organisation or in Christ?

“come to Jehovah’s organization for salvation . . .” (Watchtower, 15 Nov 1981, p 21).

12. Is it right for the Watchtower to tell people to defer marriage till lasting peace comes to the earth?

“We can well defer our marriage until lasting peace comes to the earth.” (Children, p366)

“Forbidding to marry is wrong.” (Watchtower, 1 April 1964, p 199).

“Those who forbid marriage have departed from the faith.” (WT, 15 Sept. 1979, p 31).

“Shocking as it is, even some who have been prominent in Jehovah’s organization have succumbed to immoral practices, including homosexuality, wife swapping, and child molesting.” (Watchtower, 1 January 1986, p 13).

13. Would a true prophet of God make false prophecies about World War II?

“The Nazis will destroy the British.” (Fifth Column, p 15).

The new book titled Children will prove useful “in the remaining months before Armageddon.” (Watchtower, 15 September 1941, p 288).

“The end of Nazi Fascist hierarchy will come and will mark the end forever of demon rule.” (Watchtower, 15 December 1941, p 377).

14. Which famous people were expected to live in Beth-Sarim?

“. . . those faithful men of old may be expected back from the dead any day now . . .

In this expectation the house of San Diego, California, which house has been much publicized with malicious intent by the religious enemy, was built, in 1930, and named “Beth-Sarim”, meaning “House of the Princes”. It is now held in trust for the occupancy of those princes on their return.” (New World, p 104).

“Job is to be resurrected shortly with those faithful men and to appear on earth with them.” (New World, p 130).

“The year 1925 came and went. Jesus’ anointed followers were still on earth as a class. The faithful men of old times - Abraham, David and others - had not been resurrected to become princes in the earth (Psalm 45:16). So, as Anna MacDonald recalls:

“1925 was a sad year for many brothers. Some of them were stumbled; their hopes were dashed . Instead of it being considered a “probability”, they read into it that it was a “certainty”, and some prepared for their own loved ones with expectancy of their resurrection”.” (1975 Yearbook, p 146).

15. From 1940-43, the Watchtower made 44 predictions of the immanence of Armageddon. Why did they fail?

Consider these examples:

In September 1940 they said, “The kingdom is here, the king is enthroned. Armageddon is just ahead..The great climax has been reached.” (The Messenger, September 1940,p 6)

They said, “The Final End is Very Near”. (The Watchtower, Sept. 15, 1941 p 276).

“The remaining months before Armageddon . . .” (p 288).

They said, “The time is at hand for Jesus Christ to take possession of all things.”

(The Watchtower, January 15, 1942 p 28).

On May 1, 1942 they said, “Now, with Armageddon immediately before us . . .” (p 139).

On May 1, 1943 they said, “The final end of all things . . . is at hand”.” (p139).

On September 1, 1944 they said, “Armageddon is near at hand.” (p 264).

In 1946, “The disaster of Armageddon . . . is at the door.” (Let God be True 1946, p 194).

In 1950 they said, “The March is on! Where? To the field of Armageddon for the “war of the great day of God the Almighty.”” (This Means Everlasting Life, 1950, p 311).

In 1953 they said, “Armageddon is so near at hand it will strike the generation now living.” (You May Survive Armageddon speech p 11).

In 1955 they said, “It is becoming clear that the war of Armageddon is near its breaking out point”.” (Ibid p 331).

In 1958 they said, “When will Armageddon be fought? . . . It will be very soon”.”

(From Paradise Lost to Paradise Regained, 1958, p 205).

JW leaders in Awake magazine, 8 October, 1968, p 23 admitted that certain persons had falsely predicted the end of the world. They asked why these false prophecies were given. Here they admit that they themselves were false prophets, that they lacked God’s guidance, and were lying:

“True, there have been those in times past who predicted an “end to the world”, even announcing a specific date. The “end” did not come. They were guilty of false prophesying. Why? What was missing? . . . Missing from such people were God’s truths and the evidence that He was guiding and using them.” (Awake, 8 Oct.,1968, p.23).

Note: Deuteronomy 18:20-22 states that false prophets must die.

16. Why did Armageddon fail to come in 1975 as the Watchtower predicted?

In Kingdom Ministry, May 1974, the world's end was said to be "so very near" that JWs were commended who sold "their homes and property" to devote themselves to full-time service in "the short time remaining before the wicked world's end". (p 3). In 1975 they said, "The fulfillment . . . is immediately ahead of us."

(Man's Salvation out of World Distress at Hand, p 312).

In 1975 they said, "Very short must be the time that remains" (Ibid p 349).

1975 came and went, thus discouraging and embarrassing the WT and JWs. Yet from 1976 to today the WT still says Armageddon and the end of the world is very near.

Conclusion: If the WT has been wrong on every prediction, how can anybody trust it?

Question: Why has the WT missed the date of Armageddon every time it predicted it?

The WT has not only lied to people they call "God's enemies", but they have lied to their own people.

After reading these WT false prophecies, and its own admission that it lied, how can the WT be trusted any more?

Ask: Has the Watchtower ever lied, covered up, or changed doctrines and dates?

If God speaks through the WT, then He must change His mind very often.

Consider the following changes in dates, prophecies and doctrines:

1. They changed the beginning of the "time of the end" from 1799 to 1914;
2. They changed the date of the second coming of Christ from 1874 to 1914;
3. They changed the nature of Christ's return from earthly visible to heavenly and invisible;
4. They changed the end of the 6000 years of creation from 1872 to 1975;
5. They changed vaccination from being forbidden to being permitted;
6. They changed the "Faithful and wise servant" from C T Russell to the WT Society;
7. They changed from allowing worship of Jesus to forbidding it;
8. They changed their view of Israel from literal national to spiritual of all believers.

Question: Why so many changes?

Answer: Since the predicted events didn't happen, they covered up their false prophecies to hide the fact that God really hadn't spoken through the Watchtower Society.

Do their false prophecies support their claim of spiritual enlightenment and guidance?

What a joke! The WT Society has mislead millions of people in claiming it is God's sole channel of communication on earth today.

Rutherford believed that God's Holy Spirit had ceased to function as his teacher, and had been replaced by angels who taught him in his mind. (WT, Sept 1, 1930, p.263 & Feb 1, 1935, p.41).

Today the leaders claim that both the Holy Spirit and angels communicate information to them. (WT, March 1, 1972, p.155 and Aug 1, 1987, p.19).

Conclusion: False prophecies lead us to conclude that the Watchtower is receiving its information from demons, rather than from God.

Question: Why, when the WT knew of demon spirits guiding Johannes Greber in 1956, did they still continue quoting him to support their doctrines (for 20 years) until 1976.

"Very plainly the spirits in which ex-priest Greber believes, helped him in his translation."

Watchtower, 15 February 1956, p.110-111.

The WT quotes Greber for support in these cases after 1956: Make Sure. 1965, p 489.

Aids to Bible Understanding, p 1134 and 1669.

Watchtower, Sept 15, 1962, page 554.

Watchtower, Oct 15, 1975, page 640.

Watchtower, April 15, 1976, page 231.

Question: If the Watchtower is God's voice, why did they not know that Greber was an occult spiritist?

The Watchtower condemns itself as a false prophet in "Paradise Rest", p.353:

"Jehovah . . . will put all false prophets to shame by not fulfilling the false prediction."

"A pastor prophesied the end; he was called a false prophet". WT, 15 Oct 1958, p.613.

"Similarly" the "false prophet" is not a person, but is a system or an organisation."

Watchtower, 15 June 1974, p.381.

The Watchtower is setting itself up for another false prophecy as seen in the following quote:

"Before the 1914 generation completely dies out, God's judgment must be executed."

Watchtower, 1 May 1985, p.4.

Beware of Jehovah's false witnesses!

Ask: Do you agree with the Watchtower instruction that when one discovers false prophets, "then the people should no longer trust them as safe guides?"

(May 15, 1930, p.154).

A JW may defend the WT by saying that those prophecies were "mistakes" and that the organisation has learned not to predict when the end of the world will be.

Ask: Read the statement purpose inside the front cover of Awake:

"This magazine builds confidence in the Creator's promise of a peaceful and secure New Order before the generation that saw the events of 1914 pass away."

This is another prophecy!

Conclusion: Rather than fearfully obey the Watchtower, recognize it as a false prophet, leave it, and follow the true prophet, Jesus Christ.

18. FOUR TESTS for the WATCHTOWER to check if it is God's sole channel of communicating His will to man today.

If God speaks only through the Watchtower society, then:

Test 1: The New World Translation must be accurate. But is it? No, see the earlier section.

Test 2: According to Deut. 18:20-22 its prophecies must all come true. But have they? No.

Test 3: Its scholarship should be trustworthy. But is it? No, due to them changing doctrines, dates and interpretations.

Test 4: If they admit to receiving teachings from angels or spirits, which have been proven false, then is their "spirit" source trustworthy? No, it's from demons, because demons lie.

19. THE 144,000 ANOINTED CLASS and OTHER SHEEP

Watchtower Teaching:

They claim that only 144,000 JW's go to heaven, as the "Anointed class". (Rev.7:4; 14:1-3).

They claim that all other JW's are part of God's "other sheep", and will live forever on a paradise earth.

They claim that only the 144,000 are born again as sons of God to share in the heavenly Kingdom. These will have a spiritual existence in heaven, not a physical resurrection, as they claim that "flesh and blood cannot inherit God's Kingdom".

JW's teach that only a few enter this spiritual Kingdom as a "little flock" of believers. Luke 12:32

JW's claim that this 144,000 began with the apostles and was filled in 1935.

The WT teaches that only members of the 144,000 anointed class are:

1) Born again	12) Members of Christ's body
2) Sons of God	13) Members in God's temple
3) Brothers with Christ	14) Members of Abraham's seed
4) Conformed to Christ's image	15) Members of the royal priesthood
5) In union with Christ	16) Justified by faith
6) Heirs with Christ	17) Sanctified
7) Members of the New Covenant	18) Receive glorified bodies
8) Can partake of the Lord's Supper	19) Enjoy life in heaven
9) Baptized into Christ's death	20) Will rule with Christ
10) Baptized in the Holy Spirit	21) Will see Christ and God
11) Members of the church

This list makes most New Testament blessings and privileges irrelevant for most JW's. The WT claims that the 144,000 will rule from heaven over the great crowd on earthly paradise (Rev 7:9), where the earth will remain forever (Ecclesiastes 1:4; Psalm 104:5). The great crowd (Revelation 7:9) is the same as the "other sheep" of John 10:16, who hope to survive Armageddon and enjoy Christ's rule on a perfect earth. Salvation for both classes is by works of witnessing or distributing WT literature door to door. Consider these verses the WT uses and the correct Bible replies:

1. Luke 12:32 - The "Little Flock" as the 144,000 "Anointed class"

Watchtower teaching: "Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the Kingdom." JW's claim that only this group go to heaven. WT teaches that Old Testament saints such as Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and prophets are not part of this "little flock", but are part of the "other sheep" of John 10:16, the "great crowd" of Revelation 7:9.

Bible Teaching:

- 1) The WT interpretation of Luke 12:32 violates the context. Luke 12:22-34 shows Jesus speaking to His disciples on earth in the first century, not to another 144,000 anointed class that might develop from 30 AD to 1935. JW's are reading something into the passage that is not there.
- 2) Elsewhere Jesus referred to His disciples as sheep in His flock:
 - (a) Matthew 10:16 - "I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves."
 - (b) Matthew 26:31 - "I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad." (Spoken to the disciples before His crucifixion.)
 Jesus called His disciples a "little flock" because they were a small, defenceless group that could be easily preyed upon. They need not to worry because Christ would protect them.

Ask: In Luke 12:22, who is Jesus speaking to? (His 12 disciples).
Ask: Where in Luke 12:32 does it say that the little flock is the 144,000 of Revelation 7:14?
Ask: How do you know that the 144,000 was completed in 1935?
- 3) Jesus never once restricted the Kingdom of God or Kingdom of Heaven to 144,000 people.

Ask: Can you think of any verse in the Bible where Jesus limits the citizenship of heaven to 144,000?
- 4) I John 5:1 "Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God." The words "whosoever believeth" are open ended, including everybody who believes, not just 144,000.

Ask: Doesn't the "whosoever" in I John 5:1 include everyone and not just 144,000?
- 5) The Watchtower teaching that Old Testament saints are not part of the heavenly class is wrong, as seen from Hebrews 11:13-16 where Abel, Enoch, Noah and Abraham all sought a heavenly country (v.16), not an earthly one.
- 6) Matthew 8:11 shows Abraham, Isaac and Jacob sitting down in the Kingdom of heaven.

Ask: Who is right here, the Bible or the Watchtower?

2. Revelation 7:4 and 14:1-3 - Are the 144,000 in the “anointed class”?

Watchtower Teaching: The WT claims that the 144,000 are a literal number of people, but that 12,000 people from each of the 12 tribes of Israel are not literally national Israel.

We ask, “Why would 144,000 be literal, but the 12,000 in each tribe be figurative?” WT reply:

- a) There never was a tribe of Joseph in the OT, even though it is mentioned in Rev. 7:4-8;
- b) The tribes of Ephraim and Dan are not included in Revelation 7;
- c) The Levites, not reckoned as an OT tribe, are mentioned as a tribe in Revelation 7.

Bible Teaching:

- 1) Ask: Why does the WT switch interpretation in Revelation 7:4 from literal (144,000 as a precise number of people) to figurative in the last part of the verse where they say the 12,000 do not represent precise numbers of people from each of Israel’s 12 tribes?
- 2) Women are excluded from this group of 144,000 in Revelation 14:4
“These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins.”
Masculine pronouns used show that this group are all men.
- 3) Heaven awaits all who believe in Christ, not just the 144,000. Check these verses:
 1. Philippians 3:20 “For our conversation is in heaven; . . .”
 2. Colossians 3:1 “Seek those things which are above.”
 3. Hebrews 3:1 “Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling.”
 4. Hebrews 12:22 “But ye are come unto Mount Zion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem . . .”
 5. 2 Corinthians 5:1 “We know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved (physical death), we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.”
 6. Colossians 1:5 “For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel.”
 7. Hebrews 11:16 “But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly . . .”
 8. Hebrews 10:34 “Knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.”
 9. I Peter 1:4 “To an inheritance . . . reserved in heaven for you.”
 10. Revelation 19:1 “I heard a great voice of much people in heaven.”
 11. Matthew 6:20 “Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven.”
 12. John 12:26 “. . . where I am (heaven), there shall also my servant be.”
 13. John 14:3 “I go and prepare a place for you. that where I am (heaven), there ye may be also.”

Key: Making a difference between those with an earthly and heavenly destiny has no warrant in the Bible anywhere.

1. God has chosen the poor of this world who are rich in faith to inherit the kingdom, not just the 144,000. “Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the Kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him.” (James 2:5). There is no distinction made here between 2 classes, only the poor of this world, (more than 144,000)
2. All who believe in Christ receive God’s righteousness. “The righteousness of God by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference.” (Romans 3:22).
3. John 10:16 “there shall be one fold (flock), and one shepherd.” - not two folds, one on earth and one in heaven, but ONE FLOCK (NWT).

Ask: How do you reconcile WT teaching of two flocks (WT: one earthly and one heavenly) with John 10:16 which says that all believers will be together in one flock (NWT)?

Question 1: “Are the 12 tribes of Israel in Revelation 7:14 literal or figurative?”

Nowhere else in the Bible are references to the 12 tribes of Israel figurative. They are always a literal, ethnic group.

Ask: Can you see that the WT interpretation of Revelation 7:4 goes against common usage of literal “tribe” and literal “Israel”?

Question 2: Why are the OT tribes of Dan and Ephraim omitted in Revelation 7?

The Old Testament has 20 varying lists of tribes of Israel.

- a) Dan’s tribe was omitted because they were guilty of idolatry, and were largely wiped out (Judges 18:1,30). Dan became one of two centres of idolatry in the Northern Kingdom (I Kings 12:29).
- b) Ephraim is omitted from Revelation 7, while Joseph and Manasseh are included. Why? Ephraim was also involved in idolatry and pagan worship (Judges 17; Hosea 4:17).

Ask:

- 1) What is the Watchtower’s position on idolatry?
- 2) If the tribes of Dan and Ephraim were guilty of idolatry, do you think that these tribes should be listed in Revelation 7 as God’s servants? (No).
- 3) So you agree that there is a good reason for omitting Ephraim and Dan in Revelation 7?
- 4) Can you see that the Watchtower’s figurative interpretation of the 12 tribes is wrong, because it is based on the rightful omission of Dan and Ephraim?

Question 3: Why was the tribe of Levi included in the Revelation 7 list?

In the Old Testament, the tribe of Levi were not part of the 12 tribes because of their priestly separation under the Mosaic Law. Now that their tribe’s priestly functions have ceased with the first coming of Christ, our Great High Priest, there is no further need for their services as priests. Hence there is no reason for keeping them separate from the other tribes any longer. They will be properly included in the tribal listing in Revelation 7 and 14.

Therefore the WT’s view of the 144,000 as a specially anointed class is twisting of scripture.

Note: JW’s insist that the 12,000 from each tribe of Israel are figurative or symbolic.

Question: How is it that the sum of 12 symbolic numbers equals a literal 144,000? How can 12 times a symbolic 12,000 equal a literal 144,000? The total should also be symbolic, according to their reasoning, to be consistent. Their interpretation again gives a contradiction.

3. John 10:16 - The “Other Sheep”

“And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold and one shepherd.”

Watchtower Teaching: JW’s believe in two classes of people: the 144,000 heavenly class, and the “other sheep”, great crowd class who will receive eternal life and live forever on an earthly paradise.

Bible Teaching: The “other sheep” in John 10:16 refers to Gentile believers, as opposed to Jews who are the “lost sheep of Israel”. (Matthew 10:6 and 15:24).

The one flock and one shepherd of John 10:16 agrees with Galatians 3:28 with “neither Jew nor Greek . . . ye are all one in Christ Jesus.”

All believers will dwell together as “one flock” under “one shepherd”.

There will not be one flock of believers in heaven, and one flock of believers on earth.

Ask: How do you reconcile WT teaching of two classes, when the Bible clearly states that God’s people are one in Christ, and are part of “one flock” under “one shepherd”?

4. Revelation 7:9 - The “Great Crowd” as the “Other Sheep”

“After this I beheld, and lo, a great multitude (“great crowd” in NWT), which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb . . .” (Revelation 7:9).

Watchtower Teaching: JWs teach that in 1935 God stopped calling people to a heavenly hope with Christ. They say that in 1935 he began gathering a secondary class of believers, outside the body of Christ, who would live forever on earth in the flesh, as the great crowd of Revelation 7:9-17.

This is one of the WT’s major doctrines, because it is the basis for convincing JWs that:

- 1) They cannot become members of the body of Christ (I Corinthians 12:27).
- 2) They cannot be born again (John 3:3).
- 3) They cannot go to heaven (II Timothy 4:18).
- 4) They cannot be baptized by the Holy Spirit (I Corinthians 12:13).
- 5) They are not entitled to share in the communion loaf and cup (I Corinthians 10:16-17).
- 6) They are not in Christ’s New Covenant (Hebrews 12:24).
- 7) They cannot be fully justified by faith in Christ (Romans 3:26).

Hence the WT uses this “1935 Doctrine” to rob its followers of the NT relationship with God

Ask: Where does the Bible teach that entrance to the Christian congregation would be closed in 1935, with a secondary great crowd being gathered after that? Nowhere!

They can find no Biblical support for the 1935 date.

They refer to Rutherford’s “flash of light” on 31 May 1935 at the Washington JW Convention.

Note: The verses JWs cite actually locate the great crowd as “before the throne and before the Lamb” (Revelation 7:9), “before the throne of God” (7:15), and “in his temple” (7:15), all heavenly locations, rather than on the earth as the WT teaches.

This is similar to the wording of the only other mention of the “great crowd” in Revelation 19:1 “I heard . . . a loud voice of a great crowd in heaven.” (NWT).

Ask: Where is this great crowd? In heaven! Emphasize that the WT has taught them wrongly. Jesus in John 17:20-24 prayed that all His present and future disciples would “be with me where I am” in heaven regardless of whether they were saved before or after 1935.

Consider the following conversation with a JW:

Q1: You: I’ve heard that you believe that you are part of a great crowd who will receive everlasting life on earth, instead of going to heaven. Is that true? Can you show me the Great Crowd in the Bible?

JW: Yes, it is in Revelation 7:9, “look! a great crowd...before the throne and before the Lamb”

Q2: You: But Revelation 7:15 places the great crowd before the throne of God in heaven, doesn’t it? “...they render him sacred service day and night in his temple.” (NWT).

JW: Well, the throne of God is in heaven, but the great crowd is on the earth. All creation stands before the throne of God.

Q3: You: Would you read Rev 19:1 in your Bible to see where it locates the great crowd?

JW: It says, “After these things I heard a loud voice of a great crowd in heaven.”

Q4: You: A great crowd where?

JW: The great crowd is on earth.

Q5: You: Is that what the verse says? Read it again.

JW: It says heaven, but the great crowd is on earth.

Q6: You: How can you say that the great crowd is on earth, when your Bible plainly says “a great crowd in heaven”?

Conclusion:

Ask: Where in the Bible does it say that the great crowd is exempt from heaven?

Ask: Where does it say that the great crowd is relegated to live on earth?

Ask: Since the great crowd serves God in His temple (7:15), where is God's temple located?

Answer: Revelation 11:19 and 14:17 say "the temple which is in heaven":

Ask: According to Revelation 19:1, is the great crowd in heaven or on earth?

19. WATCHTOWER and BIBLE SUFFICIENCY

"All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness; That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works." (II Timothy 3:16,17).

JWs agree with and quote this verse often, but they don't really believe that a man of God is "fully competent and completely equipped" (NWT) unless he has their organisation's books and magazines. To them, the Bible alone is not enough.

What happens if a JW does read the Bible alone, without WT books and magazines?

Note what they say about their ex-members:

"They say that it is sufficient to read the Bible exclusively, either alone or in small groups at home. But strangely, through such "Bible reading", they have reverted right back to the apostate doctrines that commentaries by Christendom's clergy were teaching 100 years ago." (Watchtower, 15 Aug 1981, p 28,29).

So the WT itself admits that JWs who begin reading the Bible alone, stop believing WT doctrines, and return to the doctrines taught in Christian churches.

Question: Whose doctrines then, are the ones that are truly based on the Bible?

Fundamental Christianity's doctrines are Bible based, by the WT's own admission.

20. BIRTHDAYS

JWs who celebrate Birthdays, Christmas, Easter or send Birthday cards, will be disfellowshipped. The WT only admits to two birthdays in the Bible, but three were celebrated. There was Pharaoh's (Genesis 40:20), Herod's (Matthew 14:6) and Jesus Christ's birthday which was celebrated by the angels (Luke 2:10-14).

The WT conveniently omits Christ's birthday because it destroys their point in saying that all birthdays in the Bible were negative. They forbid birthday celebrations because Pharaoh killed the chief baker and Herod killed John the Baptist on their birthdays.

Bible Teaching: We allow birthday celebrations because:

- 1) Jesus Christ's birthday was celebrated by angels, shepherds and wise men. WT doesn't celebrate Christ's birthday, because Jesus is not of supreme importance to them.
- 2) Paul said that observing special days was the individual's own choice (Romans 14:5,6).
- 3) JWs celebrate their wedding anniversaries which celebrates the birth of their marriage.
- 4) Concluding that a particular day is evil, just because something bad happened on that day, is very warped logic. This is "guilt by association".

Genesis 40:20-22 proves only that Pharaoh was evil, not birthdays.

Ask: What is the source of evil in Genesis 40:20-22? Pharaoh or the birthday?

In Job 1:4, Job's sons went and feasted in their houses, every one on his day. This phrase "on his day" most likely referred to each son's birthday. When their birthday arrived, to celebrate it, each invited his brothers and sisters to eat and drink with him. Job 1:1 describes Job as perfect and upright, which God would not say if celebrating birthdays was wrong.

21. IS JESUS “MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL”?

Watchtower Teaching: WT claims that Daniel 10:13,21; 12:1; and I Thess 4:16 teach that:

- 1) Jesus existed as Michael the archangel before his birth to Mary; then
- 2) Jesus gave up his spirit existence as an angel when he entered Mary’s womb to become a human;
- 3) At the resurrection he was recreated as Michael the archangel.

They describe Christ’s progressive existence as angel, then human, then angel.

“Michael, one of the chief princes” (Daniel 10:13). “Michael your prince” (Daniel 10:21).

“Michael the great prince” (Daniel 12:1). JW’s think that Jesus must be Michael because of Michael’s authority over other angels as a chief prince.

The WT teaches that Jesus Christ was Michael the archangel, who was born as a human, died and was raised up as an archangel again. They refer to Jesus Christ as Michael the archangel. (Watchtower, 15 Feb, 1979, p.31).

Bible Teaching:

- 1) Michael is “one of the chief princes” (10:21), but Jesus Christ is the only begotten Son in John 3:16. “Begotten” in Greek is “monogenes” meaning unique, same in every detail. Michael being “one of the chief princes” means that he is just one among a group of chief angels.

Ask: Where is Jesus called a “chief Prince” in the Bible?

Ask: Where is Jesus clearly mentioned in Daniel 10:13?

Ask: Isn’t Jesus as “King of kings and Lord of lords” (Revelation 19:16) much higher in authority than one of a group of chief princes?

- 2) Ask: “To which of the angels did God ever say “thou art my son”?” (Hebrews 1:5).

- 3) The Bible mentions Michael the archangel five times as:

1. “Michael, one of the chief princes” (Daniel 10:13).
2. “Michael, your prince” (Daniel 10:21).
3. “Michael, the great prince” (Daniel 12:1).
4. “Michael the archangel . . . durst not bring against him (the devil) a railing accusation, but said The Lord rebuke thee.” (Jude 9).
5. “Michael and his angels fought against the dragon.” (Revelation 12:7).

Ask: Which of these verses state that Michael is Jesus Christ? None of them.

- 4) The WT claims support from I Thessalonians 4:16 “the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a commanding call, with an archangel’s voice and with God’s trumpet.”NWT

Ask: If using an archangel’s voice makes Jesus an archangel, then having God’s trumpet makes Jesus to be God.

Note: I Thessalonians 4:16 doesn’t explicitly say that Jesus Himself speaks with the voice of the archangel. When Jesus comes from heaven to rapture the church from earth, He will be accompanied by Michael the archangel. It is the archangel’s voice that shouts, not Jesus’ voice. Jesus doesn’t shout, but Michael does shout. This is like what happens at the end of the seven year tribulation, when Jesus returns “from heaven with his mighty angels.” (II Thessalonians 1:7).

If angels accompany Christ at the end of the 7 year tribulation, then clearly Michael will accompany Christ at the rapture before the 7 year tribulation, so Michael cannot be Jesus.

- 5) In Jude 9, Michael did not have the authority to rebuke Satan, but Jesus did have the authority as follows:

Jesus said “Get thee hence, Satan” (Matthew 4:10) and “Get thee behind me, Satan” (Mark 8:33).

- 6) Michael said to Satan, "The Lord rebuke thee", proving that the only one with the authority to rebuke Satan is God. So, Matt. 4:10 proves that Jesus Christ is the Lord God.
Ask: Since Michael could not rebuke Satan in his own authority, but Jesus could and did rebuke Satan, doesn't that mean that Michael and Jesus are different persons?
- 7) All the angels (Michael included) are commanded to worship Christ. (Hebrews 1:6).
- 8) The writer of Hebrews asks several questions about angels and Jesus Christ, which prove them to be different persons:
- i) "Unto which of the angels said he at any time, thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee?" (Hebrews 1:5).
 - ii) "To which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?" (Hebrews 1:13).
 - iii) "Unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come (millennium)." (Hebrews 1:13).
 - iv) "For verily, he took not on him the nature of angels." (Hebrews 2:16).
 - v) Does Michael sustain all things by the word of his power? (See Hebrews 1:3). No!
 - vi) Is it right to honour Michael the archangel just as you honour the Father? (John 5:23).
- 9) Ask: Do good angels refuse worship? (Certainly). When John fell down to worship the angel, the angel rebuked him, saying "See thou do it notworship God". (Rev 22:8,9). The Father commands all the angels (Michael included) to worship Christ (Hebrews 1:6). The "proskuneo" worship that angels refuse to accept but say to give to God, the Father commands this same "proskuneo" worship to be given to the Son. Hence the Son cannot be an angel, but must be God. True Bible students soon discover that Jesus is no mere angel, but God. This lesson must be learnt so they may "honour the Son just as they honour the Father". (John 5:23 NWT).
- 10) Jesus Christ is unchangeable: "Jesus Christ the same, yesterday and today and forever". (Hebrews 13:8). The WT view of Jesus is that He was Michael who changed to become a man, and who at his resurrection changed back to Michael the archangel. The Watchtower Jesus is changeable. They have a false and different Jesus.
- 11) Jesus Christ created all the angels, including the thrones and principalities of which Michael is a chief prince of a principality. "For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers." (Colossians 1:16).

22. WITNESSING TO A JW

- 1) Do work persistently with the JW. Never give up unless they refuse further contact.
- 2) Do try to answer every question they have. If you don't know the answer to a question, say, "That's a good question. I'm not sure what the answer is, but I'll do some research this week to find out the answer. Can we talk about this next week?"
- 3) Do allow the JW to save face. When you think the JW has lost the argument and is deflated, be loving and kind and say, "We can get awfully uptight in these areas if we let ourselves. Let's just forget that you're a JW and I'm a Baptist (or whatever) and let's just think of ourselves as two people who want to know the whole truth. Right?" Disarming the situation in this way will help lower the defensive barriers and create an atmosphere where the JW may want to hear what you have to say.
- 4) Don't lose your patience. He must see that the WT has led him astray.
- 5) Pray for the Holy Spirit to speak to his heart and to fill you.

23. BLOOD TRANSFUSIONS

Watchtower Teaching: The WT forbids blood transfusions because of Genesis 9:4 “But flesh with the life thereof, which is the blood thereof, shall ye not eat”.

The WT teaches that a blood transfusion is the same as eating blood, because it resembles intravenous feeding. This doctrine was invented in 1944.

Bible Teaching and Historical facts:

1) Thousands of JW's and their children have died because they followed this WT error.

Ask: Would you really allow your baby to die because of this WT instruction?

2) Most JW's are unaware that their leaders have a history of making medical prohibitions, then later changing their minds to allow them. Examples include:

(i) Vaccinations were forbidden by the WT from 1931 to 1952. JW's had to refuse vaccinations because the WT taught that “vaccination is a direct violation of the everlasting covenant that God made” (Golden Age, 4 Feb 1931, p 293).

Awake of 22 Aug 1965 admitted that vaccinations have caused a decrease in diseases (p20)

Ask: How did the parents of children who died from not being vaccinated, feel when the WT reversed its view in 1952? How many of these children died needlessly?

(ii) Organ transplants were allowed by the WT up to 1967, but were forbidden in 1967 saying that “organ transplants amounted to cannibalism and are not appropriate for Christians.” (WT, 15 Nov 1967, p 702-4, and Awake 8 June 1968, p 21). Hence all organ transplants were forbidden for 13 years, during which time many JW's died needlessly. Then in 1980, the WT changed its mind to allow them, saying that “organ transplants are not necessarily cannibalistic.” (WT, 15 March 1980, p 31).

(iii) Blood plasma and blood particles were forbidden to be used by JW haemophiliacs (Awake, 22 Feb 1975, p 30). Shortly after, the WT changed its mind to permit certain blood particles to be used, but failed to put it into print for 3 years until 15 June 1978, p.30 (WT). Only those haemophiliacs who phoned WT headquarters from 1975-78 discovered the change. Others were left to suffer and die.

Ask: How long before the WT changes its view on blood transfusions?

Ask: Why does the WT keep changing its mind on medical issues?

Ask: Is it right for an infallible prophet of God organisation (such as the WT claims to be) to keep changing its mind.

(iv) In 1984, they allowed for a bone-marrow transplant. Bone marrow is the very source of blood. However, they would disfellowship you for receiving a blood transfusion.

3) In Genesis 9:4 the context is God forbidding the eating of animal blood (as pagans did), not the transfusion of human blood. A blood transfusion is not intravenous feeding, because the blood so given does not function as food. When one gives a transfusion, it is not a loss of life, but a transference of life from one person to another. It replenishes and saves a life.

Ask: Since blood is not taken in as food to digest, but as life sustaining fluid, is it not clear that transfusion is different from eating?

4) Leviticus 3:17 “You must not eat any fat or any blood at all.” (NWT).

Ask: Why do WT leaders forbid blood transfusions but allow the eating of fat?

Why not forbid both? The WT is not consistently interpreting the Bible.

Leviticus 17:11,12: “For the life of the flesh is in the blood.” Blood transfusion does not function as food, but simply transfers life from one person to another as an act of mercy.

Key: Leviticus 3:17 prohibits eating animal blood, not transfusing human blood.

Ask: Where is loss of salvation mentioned in Acts 15:9,11 for receiving a blood transfusion?

Key: Acts 15:28,29. A blood transfusion uses blood for the same purpose that God intended, as a life-giving agent in the bloodstream. Drinking blood is not God's intended purpose for blood Conclusion: Even though JW's try to forbid blood transfusions with Scripture, their real reason for forbidding it is blind obedience to the WT. If the WT organisation lifted its ban on blood transfusions, JW's would freely accept them if needed.

For the WT to admit they were wrong would cause too great a stir in their ranks.

Therefore any changes must be presented as "new light" in order to make it appear that "Jehovah" is making the changes, rather than a few men on the governing body.

24. THE CROSS

JW's deny that Jesus died on a cross, claiming that Jesus was nailed to a torture stake (an upright pole without any cross beam). In their NWT they translate "cross" as "torture stake".

Definition: Cross in Greek is "stauros" (4716) meaning "a Roman cross consisting of a straight piece of wood erected in the earth, often with a transverse beam fastened across it's top and another piece nearer the bottom on which the crucified persons feet were nailed." (S. Zodhiates, Complete NT Word Study, p.1308). They illustrate Christ's death on a single pole with his arms straight above his head with a single nail pinning his hands to a torture stake.

Question: Did one nail fasten Jesus' hands above his head, or did two nails hold his hands to the opposite ends of a cross beam?

Answer:

1) "But he (Thomas) said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe." (John 20:25). Both the KJV and NWT have plural "nails", one used for each hand, totalling 2 nails.

Ask: If Jesus was crucified on an upright stake, why does John 20:25 say that nails (plural) were used, instead of a single nail?

2) When Jesus spoke of Peter's future crucifixion, He said that Peter's hands would be stretched forth (out) as crucified on a crossbeam and not above his head on a pole. "But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands . . ." (John 21:18,19 NWT).

Ask: From John 21:18,19 how can crucifixion be on a stake if the hands are outstretched?

3) Matthew 27:37 proves a cross crucifixion instead of a stake crucifixion: "And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS." If Jesus had died on a stake, it would have said, "over or above his hands".

Ask: If Jesus was crucified on an upright stake, why does Matthew 27:37 say that a sign was placed above Jesus' head instead of above Jesus' hands?

4) Early WT literature stated that Christ was crucified on a cross. Examples include: Creation, p.265, 336; WT 1 Jan 1891 p.1277; "beginning with its issue of 15 Oct. 1931, the WT no longer bore the cross and crown symbol on its cover" (1975 Yearbook, p.148).

Ask: Does a true prophet of God change position on important topics like this?

5) The WT ignores the facts that:

a) the Greek word "stauros" means a cross as well as a stake, and

b) Romans did execute prisoners on crosses: the horizontal bar was called the "patibulum". Prisoners were made to carry the "patibulum" to their place of execution." (Seneca, De Vita Beata 19:3; Epistola 101:12; Tacitus, Historicae, Vol 4, p 3).

6) WT claims that the cross was not used until after 312 AD as the sign of crucifixion, but the cross has been discovered in excavations of Christian tombs much earlier than 312 AD.

25. HOLY SPIRIT: Is He a PERSON or an ACTIVE FORCE? 2 Cor 3:17

Watchtower Teaching: The WT claims that the HS is neither a person nor God, but an impersonal “active force” to achieve God’s will, like electricity or radio waves.

Bible Teaching: The Holy Spirit is fully God and has personality as He can be blasphemed. The Holy Spirit has the three attributes of personality, those being: mind, emotions and will. An “active force” does not have personal attributes. The WT’s claim of the Holy Spirit being an active force is disproven if the Bible teaches that the Holy Spirit has mind, emotions & will

1. The Holy Spirit has a mind.

- (1) “He that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit.” (Romans 8:27).
The word “mind” means “way of thinking”, something which is only true of a person.
- (2) “The things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.” (I Corinthians 2:11).
Ask: How can the Holy Spirit know the things of God if the Spirit does not have a mind? A force does not know things. To know requires a mind.
- (3) “The Spirit searcheth all things.” (I Corinthians 2:10). The Greek word for “search” means to thoroughly investigate a matter, something only a mind can do.

2. The Holy Spirit has emotions.

- (4) The Holy Spirit loves: “I beseech you..through the love of the Spirit.” (Rom 15:30 NWT)
- (5) “Grieve not the Holy Spirit of God.” (Ephesians 4:30). The Holy Spirit is grieved (made sad) when believers sin. Grief is an emotion that one feels. A force can’t be grieved.

3. The Holy Spirit has a will. He performs personal acts.

- (6) The Holy Spirit distributes spiritual gifts “to every man severally as he will.” (I Cor.12:11). The phrase “he wills” in Greek means “a decision of the will after previous deliberation”. The Holy Spirit chooses which gifts each believer receives. A force has no such will, nor ability to make decisions.
- (7) The Holy Spirit commands: “The Spirit bade me go with them.” (Acts 11:12).
- (8) The Holy Spirit forbids: “forbidden of the Holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia” Act16:6
- (9) The Holy Spirit speaks: “The Spirit said to Philip, Go near.” (Acts 8:29).
“The Holy Ghost said, separate me Barnabus and Saul.” (Acts 13:2).
“The Spirit speaketh expressly”. (I Timothy 4:1).
Ask: How do you explain the WT view of the Holy Spirit being an impersonal force, with the Bible’s teaching that the Holy Spirit has a mind that can know, emotions that can feel love and grief, and a will to make decisions?
- (10) The Holy Spirit testifies: “He shall testify of me.” (John 15:26).
The same Greek word for testify (or bear witness) used here, is also used of:
 - a) The disciples testifying about Christ in John 15:27.
 - b) John the Baptist bearing witness to the truth in John 5:33.
 - c) God the Father bore witness to Cornelius’ (and Gentiles’) conversion by giving them the Holy Spirit. (Acts 15:8).
Just as the disciples, John and God the Father (who are all persons) testified or bore witness, so the Holy Spirit bears witness about Christ. A force cannot bear witness, only a person can. (The Holy Spirit bears witness in heaven and on earth - I John 5:7,8).
- (11) The Holy Spirit intercedes or prays for believers. “The Spirit itself makes intercession for us with groanings.” (Romans 8:26). Just as Jesus Christ (a person) intercedes for believers (Romans 8:34; Hebrews 7:25), so the Holy Spirit (as a person) intercedes (same Greek word) for believers. A force cannot pray for another; only a person can pray.

- (12) The Holy Spirit teaches believers. (“he shall teach you all things.” John 14:26).
- (13) The Holy Spirit hears. “Whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak.” (John 16:13).
- (14) The Holy Spirit shows us things. “he....shall show it unto you.” (John 16:15).
- (15) The Holy Spirit restrains sin. “My Spirit shall not always strive with man.” Genesis 6:3
- (16) The Holy Spirit can be blasphemed. “he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost” Mk3:29
 People cannot be blasphemed. We can only be slandered. Only God can be blasphemed.
 By Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit being blasphemed means we’ve proved the Trinity.
 (a) God the Father can be blasphemed. (Revelation 13:6; 16:9).
 (b) God the Son can be blasphemed. (Luke 22:65).
 “And many other things blasphemously they spake against him”.
 (c) God the Holy Spirit can be blasphemed. (Matthew 12:31).
 “Blasphemy against the Holy Spirit shall not be forgiven unto men.”
- (17) The Holy Spirit can be lied to (Acts 5:3). Ananias and Sapphira lied to the Holy Spirit.
Ask: Have you ever lied to electricity and asked electricity to forgive you?
- (18) The Holy Spirit cries in our hearts, Abba, Father. (Galatians 4:6).
- (19) The Holy Spirit approves some decisions:
 “It seemed good to the Holy Ghost and to us.” (Acts 15:28).
- (20) The Holy Spirit invites people to be saved: “The Spirit & the bride say Come” Rev 22:17
- (21) The Holy Spirit fills us (Ephesians 5:18) just as God may fill us (Ephesians 3:19).
- (22) The Holy Spirit uses personal pronouns to describe Himself: John 15:26; 16:13; (he):
 “The Holy Spirit said, Separate me Barnabus. . .” (Acts 13:2).
 The Holy Spirit considers Himself a person, (“me”), not a personification.

Watchtower Objection:

The main reason the JW's say that the Holy Spirit is an “active force” is because the Greek word for “spirit” (pneuma) is neuter.

Answer: This is faulty reasoning, because 1) the gender of a word relates to the grammatical form of the word, not to its sex or physical gender. Because a word is grammatically neuter does not mean that the object is an “it” or of neuter sex.

(Source: Elements of NT Greek, J W Wenham, 1979, p.8).

For example, in Greek, “children” is a neuter word, “desert” is a feminine word, and 2) In John 15:26 and 16:13, the neuter noun “pneuma” is referred to by the masculine pronoun “ekeinos” (1565 = that one, masculine) recognising the Holy Spirit’s masculine personality. “He (ekeinos) shall testify of me” (15:26); “when he (ekeinos), the Spirit of truth shall come” (16:13). Note: “ekeine” is feminine “that one”, and “ekeino” is neuter).

- (23) The Holy Spirit comforts (Gk: parakletos) believers. John 14:16, 26; 15:26; 16:7. This same Greek word “parakletos” (3875) is used of Christ who has personality in John 14:16 and I John 2:1. “Another Comforter” (Gk: allos parakletos, John 14:16) means “another of the same kind” as Christ, in contrast to “heteros” (2087) meaning “another of a different kind”. As Christ has Deity and Personality, so does the Holy Spirit. To comfort requires empathy, understanding, love, compassion, concern for another’s well-being, all being attributes of personality.

Conclusion: The Holy Spirit is a person because 1) He has mind, emotions, and will. 2) Personal pronouns are used of Him. 3) He performs personal acts. 4) He associates with the Father and Son in the Baptism formula, Apostolic benediction and as Church Administrator (I Cor. 12:4-6). 5) He can be personally mistreated (tempted, lied to, grieved, resisted, insulted and blasphemed). The New Testament clearly shows the Holy Spirit to have a personality and to be God. (“Jehovah is the Spirit.” II Cor. 3:17 NWT).

26. COUNSELLING THOSE WHO LEAVE THE WATCHTOWER

JWs are disfellowshipped for the following reasons:

1. Smoking.
2. Working in defence departments or the military.
3. Being employed by any other religious organisation.
4. Taking a blood transfusion.
5. Saluting the flag.
6. Celebrating birthdays or holidays.
7. Talking to disfellowshipped persons.
8. Disagreeing with any WT doctrines or reading anti-Watchtower literature.

JWs admit that since 1918, they have been teaching a “new gospel not taught in centuries past”, namely the invisible return of Christ and setting up the kingdom in 1914 (WT, 1 May 1981, p.17). They therefore fall under the curse of Galatians 1:8,9 for preaching a false gospel and a false Jesus (II Corinthians 11:4). Those leaving the WT are faced with FEAR of:

- 1) Being an Apostate. If the WT can be shown to be a false religion, then being an apostate from a false religion would please God.

Leaving the WT is not leaving the “doctrine of Christ” (II John 9). Instead, it is seeking to follow Christ who welcomes all who come to Him. (Matthew 11:28-30).

- 2) Fear of losing all their friends through disfellowshipping. It is painful to lose close friends and family members whom you love dearly. Being rejected and unable to speak to your close friends and family members is a strong reason for JWs to stay in the WT. Jesus promises those who leave the WT and follow Jesus will receive a hundredfold now, along with houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, lands and persecution and in the world to come eternal life (Mark 10:28-30). Christ will give you strength to endure this hardship. Ex-JWs can be a real source of comfort.

- 3) Fear of dying at Armageddon. If the JW sees the error of the WT concept of Armageddon and God’s judgment, this will remove the fear of dying at Armageddon. Point him to Christ’s return to catch believers up to heaven before Armageddon. (John 14:1-3; I Thessalonians 4:16-18; I Corinthians 15:51,52; Revelation 3:10). Point him to “no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus (Romans 8:1,2), the security of salvation (John 10:28; I Peter 1:4,5) and the difference between the Judgment Seat of Christ of rewards for believers after the rapture (II Corinthians 5:10; I Corinthians 3:10-15) and the Great White Throne Judgment of unbelievers at the end of the Millennium (Rev. 20:10-15). Get them to understand the Second Coming. (Chapters 34-39,74 of this book).

- 4) Fear of loss of faith in God being the same as loss of faith in the WT organisation. The ex-JW must understand that God does not work through man-made organisations, but deals with people individually and lovingly. Our faith is not in an organisation, but in Jesus Christ Himself. We must have a relationship with God rather than with the WT organisation. It is possible to lose faith in fellow Christians or in a church or in the WT organisation, without losing faith in Christ.

- 5) Fear of Confusion over Doctrine. Up till now the ex-JW has placed their trust in WT writings as truth. They have been forbidden to read other Christian books because they are not part of the WT. (Such books are quoted if it suits the WT’s purpose). The ex-JW must learn what true Bible study is, by studying the Bible verse by verse and book by book. Read the Bible without reading WT publications. Learn to harmonise all the verses on a certain subject. Show above average love to such people.

27. WAR AND SELF-DEFENCE

JWs permit self-defence, but not for going to war. The WT once allowed military service: “There is no command in the Scriptures against military service. It would be quite right to shoot, not to kill.” (Watchtower, 1 Aug 1898, p.231).

“There could be nothing against our conscience in going into the army” (Watchtower, 15 April 1903, p.120). The WT later completely reversed their position:

“It is only due to conscience that (JWs) have objected before draft boards to participating in the armed conflicts and defence programmes of worldly nations.” (WT, 1 Feb, 1951, p73).

JWs allow for self-defence in Awake, 8 Sept 1975, p.27,28.

“One could also defend one’s spiritual brothers and sisters from personal attack if necessary, based on John 15:13” (Watchtower, 1 June 1968, p.347).

JWs believe that:

- 1) Self-defence is proper.
- 2) Defending one’s family is proper.
- 3) Defending one’s spiritual brothers and sisters is proper.
- 4) Defending one’s neighbour who is being viciously attacked may be proper according to Luke 10:27 (“love your neighbour as yourself”).

Conclusion: Their position is contradictory. They believe in self-defence, but cannot draw a line Biblically between who is their neighbour and who isn’t.

Note: Melchizedek blessed Abraham after returning from slaughtering the kings who had captured Lot (Genesis 14; Hebrews 7:1). Here God approves of Abraham (and hence us today in the NT) fighting a just war to defend our own people. God doesn’t rebuke Abraham or Melchizedek here. This is an example of Watchtower stupidity. If Muslims conquered Australia they would slaughter every JW who didn’t convert to Islam.

Ask: Would you JWs fight an enemy on your doorstep? (Yes). Then you admit it is right to fight him as he approaches our country and that it is right to have a military and police force.

Ask: Does the WT want us to disband our police force? (No). There is no real difference between police and the military. If everyone took their view, our country and freedom would have been lost to the Muslims & dictators years ago. Freedom is won or lost on the battlefield. JWs want a free society to spread their heresies, but they don’t want to fight for it. Others can. Muslims would have captured all of Europe in 732 AD if Charles Martel’s army had not defeated them at the Battle of Tours.

The role of government is to: “be a terror to evil works” (Romans 13:3); “he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.” (Romans 13:4).

Ask: Do you want the freedom to spread you views? (Yes). Then why shouldn’t you help pay to preserve this freedom? User pays. If you use it, you pay for it.

28. WATCHTOWER BRAINWASHING and THOUGHT CONTROL

The WT calls itself a “society” (implying that each member has some say) to cover the truth that the real rulership is in the hands of a few men.

The WT convinces its followers that it is the only true religion by:

- i) Using half truths to explain their position.
- ii) Misquoting secular authorities to support their position.
- iii) Altering or covering up their own history of false prophecies or doctrinal reversals.

The WT society refers to itself as the “mother”.

“If we are to walk in the light of truth, we must recognize not only Jehovah God as our father but his organisation as our “mother””. (WT, May 1957, p.274).

George Orwell’s book “1984” describes a world power (like the WT) that juggles with truth and historical records in order to make themselves look as if they are always right. The WT does this by: a) Preventing the average JW from accessing their past false predictions; b) Passing off the past as irrelevant. Whatever they taught in the past is not to be believed any longer. To believe previous views would be apostasy. They must gain victories over their memory. For example:

- i) To know that the WT led people to believe that the end of the world would be in 1975, yet after its failure to happen, they denied their prediction was false. They believed this denial was truthful.
- ii) To forget that the WT predicted the end of the world in 1914 and later to change it to a prediction of Christ’s invisible return in 1914 to cover up their false prediction. The WT’s self-deception is making up one lie to cover another lie.

When JWs won’t give you a direct answer it is because:

- a) They cannot speak or think independently of the organisation.
- b) They fear being humiliated for independent thinking, disfellowshipped and separated from their family members and friends.

The governing WT body commands JWs to stop short at the threshold of any dangerous thought.

- a) If the JW questions the system, it leads to
- b) Undermining his mental programming as doubts creep in, which leads to
- c) the JW thinking for himself.

The JW, due to fear of being chastised or humiliated, learns to kill his speculations and not allow his mind to move ahead or think independently of the organisation. The Governing Body will now represent his mind on all important matters. It’s the only “safe” way. A JW automatically learns to put aside disturbing thoughts, such as he might be asked at a door.

Ask: “Why don’t we examine the record of the Watchtower over the past 100 years?”

The JW will make an unconscious refusal to follow through on a logical argument initiated by others. While on the defensive, JWs will often misunderstand or draw a blank on the simplest of arguments. This is Orwell’s “Crimestop” initiated by “Big Brother”, known as protective stupidity or complete control over one’s mental processes.

JWs believe that the WT is infallible. The WT defends its false predictions by:

- 1) Jehovah God was just testing you (WT, 15 Feb 1984, p.26).
 - 2) For a ship to get from A to B it must sometimes tack or zigzag (WT, 1 Dec 1981, p.27).
 - 3) “We are not false prophets, because we admit our mistakes.” (WT, 1 Nov. 1972, p.644).
- Yet, any false prophets who predict an end to the world are going to admit their mistake the next day. How else could they hold on to their followers?

It was good for them to be anxious for the end of the world, because it keeps them “on the watch”. Orwell’s “1984” says, “The secret of rulership is to combine a belief in one’s own infallibility with the power to learn from past mistakes.” (p.177).

The WT has taught millions of JW to:

- 1) Think the opposite of what is true.
- 2) Not to question the matter at all.

Conclusion: The ex-JW needs to discard the mental gymnastics the WT has taught him, and start reading and believing the Bible. A JW must see the Bible truths that:

- 1) Jesus said that everyone must be born again to enter the Kingdom of God. (John 3:3,7).
- 2) Cultivate a real relationship with Jesus Christ rather than the WT. John 17:3 “know thee”
- 3) Jesus said not to listen to those who claim that Christ has returned secretly or invisibly (as WT says happened in 1914). Jesus said that He would come as lightning (Matthew 24:23-27) and every eye would see Him. (Revelation 1:7).
- 4) Jesus said that He is returning to take believers home with Him. John 14:3; I Thess. 4:16,17
- 5) The writer of Hebrews says that Jesus is definitely not an angel (Hebrews 1:4,5,6,8,10,13).
- 6) John says that Jesus is the very substance and nature of God (John 1:1; 5:18, 23; 8:58; 20:28; 8:24; 10:30; I John 5:7,8,20). Jesus is the “express image of his person.” Hebrews 1:3.

29. THE DIVINE NAME (John 17:6,26 “I have declared unto them thy name.”) Jesus manifested or declared the Father’s name by making known His nature, character, law, will, attributes and his plan of mercy. “Declare” means to “unfold, to lead, to show the way”. Gradually, by Jesus’ words and works, He revealed to people the nature of God, as they were able to bear it (John 16:12). The Father’s name refers to His nature, as Jesus meant Saviour. The word “name” is often used to describe the person & his reputation. I Tim.6:1; Rom.2:24. JW’s say that we only get life through using “Jehovah’s” name. They quote verses such as:

- 1) “Everyone who calls on the name of Jehovah will get away safe.” (Joel 2:32, NWT).
- 2) “Our Father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.” (Matthew 6:9).
- 3) “I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me.” (John 17:6).
- 4) “I have declared unto them thy name, and wilt declare it.” (John 17:26).
- 5) “Father, glorify thy name. Then came a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.” (John 12:28).

Question 1: What is God’s name?

Answer: Exodus 3:13,14,15: “And Moses said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you; and they shall say to me, What is his name? what shall I say unto them? And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM, and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you.” (v.14) “this is my name for ever.” (v.15).

Hence, when Moses asks God what His name is, God tells Moses to tell Israel that His name is “I AM”, and that this is God’s name forever.

As a result, we should expect Jesus in the New Testament, when He stated that He manifested or declared God’s name to His disciples, that Jesus would have declared the name “I AM” to his disciples. (John 17:6,26). Nowhere does the NT record Jesus declaring the name “Jehovah” to anybody. He does declare God’s name “I AM” to people.

Question 2: Where did Jesus use God’s Name of “I AM” in His ministry?

Answer: Jesus made God’s sacred name, “I AM” meaningful to His disciples as follows:

- 1) “I am the bread of life.” (John 6:35,41,48,51).
- 2) “I am the light of the world.” (John 8:12; 9:5).
- 3) “I am from above.” (John 8:23).
- 4) “If ye believe not that I am, ye shall die in your sins.” (John 8:24).
- 5) “When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am.” (John 8:28).
- 6) “Before Abraham was, I am.” (John 8:58).
- 7) “I am the door of the sheep.” (John 10:7,9).
- 8) “I am the good shepherd.” (John 10:11,14).

- 9) "I am the resurrection and the life." (John 11:25).
- 10) "Where I am (ego eimi) there shall also my servant be." (John 12:26, and John 14:3).
- 11) "Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am (ego eimi)." (John 13:19). See Isaiah 41:23 where both Father and Son tell the future.
- 12) "I am (ego eimi) the way, the truth and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." (John 14:6).
- 13) "I am (ego eimi) the true vine." (John 15:1,5).
- 14) "As soon then as he had said unto them I am, they went backward, and fell to the ground." (John 18:6).
- 15) "Jesus answered, I have told you that I am (ego eimi)." (John 18:8).
- 16) "I am (ego eimi) the First and the last; I am he that liveth, and was dead." (Rev. 1:17,18).
- 17) "Then spake the Lord to Paul, . . . For I am (ego eimi) with thee . . ." (Acts 18:9,10).
- 18) Saul said: "Who art thou Lord? And the Lord said, I am (ego eimi) Jesus, whom thou art persecuting." (Acts 9:5 and 22:8).

We get eternal life through Jesus Christ's name:

- 1) "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing, ye might have life through his name," John 21:31.
- 2) "The name of Jesus Christ . . . neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved." (Acts 4:10,12)
- 3) "These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life." (I John 5:13).

We are called by Jesus Christ's Name, not by the name "Jehovah":

- 1) Colossians 3:17 "Whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus"
- 2) Revelation 2:13 Jesus said to the Pergamos Christians: "Thou holdest fast my name." The Pergamos Christians held fast Jesus Christ's name, not the name "Jehovah".
- 3) Revelation 3:8 Jesus said to the Philadelphia Christians: "Thou . . . hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name" (ie: Jesus' name). No mention of the name "Jehovah" here.
- 4) II Timothy 2:19 "Let everyone that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity."
- 5) Revelation 2:3 "For my name's sake hast laboured." No mention of the name "Jehovah".
- 6) Isaiah 65:15 "The Lord God shall slay thee, and call his servants by another name."

Question 3: What is that other name?

Answer: Christians. Acts 11:26 "The disciples were called Christians first in Antioch."

- 7) Revelation 22:3,4 "His name shall be in their foreheads."
- God & the Lamb have one name, as seen by "God & the Lamb" (3) with singular "his" name.

The meaning of God's Name "I AM" that Jesus Revealed

Jesus revealed the Father's Name by showing the disciples that:

- 1) Jesus was all they needed, as seen in the "I AM" statements Jesus claimed to Himself.
- 2) The Father sent Jesus. Jesus was equally God. Jesus' words and works came from the Father.
- 3) "I have manifested thy name" means "I have revealed the nature of God".

One of Jesus' ministries was to declare the Father's nature to mankind (John 1:18 "The only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him").

Conclusion:

JWs, by coming to grips with the basic teachings of God's Word (without WT publications) will be released from the Watchtower deception and be taught by the Holy Spirit (I John 2:27). Will you receive Christ as your Saviour and trust the Bible as God's Word, or will you trust the false prophet of the Watchtower? Leave the Watchtower today.

30. SEQUENCE OF VERSES TO DISCUSS and QUESTIONS TO ASK

Ask: May we make an appointment to ask some questions about the Bible?

Q1: Do you believe that Jesus is the “I AM” God of Exodus 3:14 and John 8:24? If not, then John 8:24 says that you’ll die in your sins. Do you want to die in your sins? (p.887).

Deity of Christ:

Q2: Do you honour the Son even as (KJV) or just as (NWT) you honour the Father? John 5:23p847

Q3: Why does NWT translate “eimi” as “am” 129 out of 130 NT times except where it proves Christ is God in John 8:58 where it translates it as “have been”? What Greek rule do they use? 856

Q4: Why does the Kingdom Interlinear Translation (KIT) correctly translate John 8:58 (ego eimi) as “I AM”, which contradicts the NWT reading of “I HAVE BEEN” (ego en)? 856

Q5: Since Jehovah is called “Mighty God” (in Isaiah 10:21; Psalm 50:1; Jeremiah 32:18) and Jesus is called “Mighty God” in Isaiah 9:6, what does this tell you about Jesus? (If JW says Jesus is a lesser god, ask “Is Jesus a true God or a false god?” If JW says “a true god”, ask “How many true Gods are there?” (One). Hence Jesus is part of the Jehovah Godhead (p867).

Q6: Why does the Watchtower quote John 1:1 as “the word was a God”, which contradicts (1) the KIT; (2) 12 early church writers; (3) all Greek experts in the world; (4) The Emphatic Diaglott “the logos was God”; and (5) Colwell’s Rule of Greek grammar which explains why “Theos” drops the article. Theos drops the article and is placed before the Greek verb (was) in order to identify the “word” (logos) with the article as the subject. (p.850-5).

Q7: In Acts 7:59, was Stephen praying (talking to) Jesus when he said, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit”? (p.899).

Q8: Why does the KIT tell us to pray to Jesus in John 14:14 “If ever anything you should ask me in the name of me this I shall do”? (p.899).

Q9: Why are 4 out of 17 doxologies to the Son? (p.900). 2 Peter 3:18; 1 Peter 4:11; 2 Tim 4:18

Q10: In Revelation 5:8-14, why do the redeemed (v.8-10), the angels (v.11,12) and all creatures (v.13,14) fall down and adore the Lamb? Isn’t this worshipping Christ? (p.901).

Q11: If God and the Lamb have the one throne, one face, one Name and they are the same Temple, the same light of New Jerusalem, and own the same servants, then doesn’t this make them the One True God Jehovah? (p.901, 896).

Q12: How many books that are FOR the Trinity have you read?

Q13: Why does the WT forbid you reading books on the other side? Don’t you think that its only fair and reasonable to read books against the WT, to get a balanced view of all the facts? Have they got something to hide that they are afraid of?

Q14: Why does the Watchtower insert [other] four times in Colossians 1:16,17, when “other” is not in any New Testament Greek manuscript? (p.840). Why does the NWT insert [other] in Philippians 2:9, when “other” is not in any New Testament manuscript? (p.841).

Q16: Why does WT add [Son] in Acts 20:28 when “Son” is not in any NT manuscript? p.843.

Q17: Why does the Watchtower change “Thy throne O God” to “God is thy Throne” in Hebrews 1:8 thus ignoring the Masoretic Hebrew text, the Septuagint, Psalm 45:6 parallelism and four early church writers who all quote it as “Thy Throne O God”? (p.844-5).

Q18: Why does the Watchtower translate “proskuneo” as “worship” when it applies to God, angels, devils, antichrist and images, but when “proskuneo” is used for worshipping Christ as God, they translate it 16 times as “do obeisance”? Why? (p.847).

Q19: If angels refused worship, why did Christ accept worship 16 times? (p.847).

Q20: What does it say about Jesus’ true identity if He accepts the same “proskuneo” worship as the Father? (p. 847).

Q21: Why does the Watchtower change “worship him” in the 1961 NWT edition of Hebrews 1:6 to “do obeisance” in the 1971 NWT? (p.847).

Q22: Why does the Watchtower break the Greek Granville-Sharp Rule in Titus 2:13 and II Peter 1:1 which prove Christ’s deity, but get it right everywhere else where Christ’s deity is not an issue? (p.847-8).

Q23: Why does the KIT contradict the NWT in John 17:3 where the NWT translates a verb (ginoskosi = know) as a noun (take in knowledge)? (p.878).

Question: Is it right to mistranslate a verb as a noun?

Q24: If you reject the Trinity because you can’t understand it, then how do you explain how a brown cow by eating green grass gives white milk? (Proverbs 26:5).

Q25: In Hebrews 9:27, why has the Watchtower added “for all time” which occurs in no New Testament manuscripts? (p.872).

Question: Where are the Greek words “for all time” in Hebrews 9:27? Show them to me.

Question: Is it right to add words to change a passage’s meaning, as the WT has done?

Q26: Why did the Watchtower not include quotes by early church writers to show that they DID believe in the Trinity and the Deity of Christ? (p.873).

Question: Why did the Watchtower not give the source of their false quotes of early church writers? (Lamson’s article of 1869 is not a true source. We need Volume and page numbers).

Q27: Doesn’t 2 Corinthians 3:17 “Jehovah is the Spirit” (NWT) prove that the Holy Spirit is Jehovah God and hence the Deity of the Holy Spirit? Do you agree that if a=b then b=a? 881

Q28: In I John 5:7,8 if the Johannine comma is not part of the text (as NWT thinks), why are there two masculine articles (“that” and “these”) before and after the passage omitted by NWT? These masculine articles arise because they must agree with masculine Father & Word in v.7. Neuter Spirit, water and blood in v.8 don’t produce masculine articles in v.7,8. (p.881).

Q29: In John 20:28, if Thomas was just expressing surprise, wouldn’t this be taking God’s name in vain? Wouldn’t Jesus have rebuked him for this? (p.890). What did Thomas believe here? (That Jesus was his Lord and his God). KIT calls Jesus “the God of me”. (p.890).

Q30: Doesn’t “HA-ADON” applied to Jesus in Romans 10:9 prove that Jesus is the “True Lord” of Isaiah 1:24? (NWT 1961 edition, p.1453). (p.890).

Q31: Why did the NWT mistranslate I Corinthians 15:47 as “the second man is from heaven” (omitting Jesus as “the Lord” from heaven), when no man hath ascended to heaven, and Jesus was not a man in heaven before His incarnation? (John 3:13). (p.891).

Q32: Why did the NWT omit “God” in I Timothy 3:16 and replace it with “He” when “He” is in no NT manuscript, and “God” is in 300 Greek manuscripts, 3 versions & 20 writers? 892.

Q33: Since Jesus and Jehovah are both “the first and the last” and “alpha and omega”, what does this tell you about who Jesus is? (p.894).

Q34: When did “HA ADON” (the True God) come to His temple, if not Jesus in John 2:13-17 and Matthew 21:12,13 as Malachi 3:1 and NWT 1961, p.1454 states? (p.895).

Q35: In Micah 5:2, Christ is “QEDMAH” meaning “eternal” and in Habakkuk 1:12 Jehovah is “QEDMAH”. Doesn’t this mean that Jesus is Jehovah, as only Jehovah is eternal? p.895.

Q36: Doesn’t Acts 16:31,34 prove Jesus is God by equating belief on Christ with belief in God? (p.907).

Q37: Have you looked up in the Bible all the 120 attributes of Christ which are also true of Jehovah God the Father on pages 896-898? Christ must be Jehovah with these 120 attributes.

Q38: Who appeared as Jehovah God to the nine Old Testament saints, if “no man hath seen the Father”? (John 6:46) (p.899). It was Jehovah God the Son!

Q39: Have all your sins been removed? (No). Then you can't enter God's kingdom.

Q40: In John 1:1, "The word (Christ) was God". Why does WT translate John 1:1 as "a god", when in John 1:6,12,13,18 where "theos" also has no definite Greek article, they translate it as "God" every time? Don't they want Christ to be God? Are they anti-Christ? Isaiah 44:8 says: "Is there a God beside me? yea, there is no God; I know not any." (p.850).

Q41: Why does the WT insist that Christ is first created, when the meaning of "firstborn" (Gk: "prototokos in Colossians 1:15) means "pre-eminent or ruler"? David (Psalm 89:27), Ephraim (Genesis 41:50-52 and Jeremiah 31:9), Jacob (Exodus 4:22), and Solomon (I Chronicles 3:1,2) were all called "firstborn", but none of them were born first. (p.860). Why? Because "firstborn" can mean "chief", as with Christ, and not first created (Grk: protoktisis).

Q42: In Isaiah 9:6, Jesus Christ is called the "everlasting Father" meaning "Father of Eternity". Only God is possessor, or Father of Eternity. Doesn't this prove Christ is God? 867

The Divine Name: (p.834,934).

Q43: Do you do everything (in word or deed) in the name of Jesus Christ as Colossians 3:17 (NWT) commands or do you do all in the name of Jehovah? (p.935).

Q44: Since Jesus never addressed the Father as "Jehovah" in the NT, why should we? (p834)

Q45: If Jesus, the Holy Spirit and Paul all address God as "Father" and never as "Jehovah", then shouldn't we also call God "Father", and not "Jehovah"? (p.834-5).

Q46: Which New Testament manuscripts have "Jehovah" in them? (Answer: None).

Q47: Why does the NT always lift up Jesus' Name and not Jehovah's Name? (p.835-6).

Q48: What is God's name according to Exodus 3:13-15? (p.934).

Q49: Which name of God did Jesus declare (John 17:26) while He was on earth? ("I AM").

Q50: In whose name do we receive eternal life according to John 21:31; Acts 4:10,12; I John 5:13, Jesus or Jehovah? (p.935).

Q51: Why does the NWT not translate "Lord" as "Jehovah" in the New Testament when the New Testament verse is quoting an Old Testament verse referring to Jehovah in the case of Hebrews 1:10; I Peter 3:15; (p.837-8)? This breaks the WT's own rule on p.11 KIT.

Q52: Does "Lord" in Romans 10:13 refer to Jesus Christ or to Jehovah? The Watchtower, 1 May 1978 p.12 says it refers to Jesus Christ. (p.906).

Christ's Resurrection body: (p.902).

Q53: Why does the Watchtower say Jesus did not resurrect bodily, when His resurrection body could eat, breathe, have feet, have hand wounds, touch people, and have flesh and bones? (p902). Was He tricking them? Why would believers get a resurrection body and not Christ?

Q54: Didn't Jesus state that His body had been literally raised from the dead in Luke 24:37,39? "They supposed that they had seen a spirit. Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones as ye see me have." (902).

Present Tense Salvation: (p.906).

Q55: Why does the Watchtower say we can't be sure of salvation ("Salvation to life involves time and is not completed when one becomes a Christian." "Make Sure of All Things", p.332), when 12 scriptures on p.906 say we "ARE SAVED" with a present tense salvation? (p.906). eg: 1 John 2:12 "your sins are forgiven"; 1 John 3:2 "Now are we the sons of God"; 1 Cor.1:18; "us which are saved", I John 2:25; "has promised us eternal life", Q56: In the light of present WT teachings, would you explain John 5:24? Ask: What is this everlasting life? How can you be sure of having it right now as this verse says? (To JW's, no one has eternal life until after Christ's 1000 year rule.) What does it mean "not come into judgment"? (To JW's judgment is physical death). What is this death that one passes out of? What life have they entered?

Q57: Do you have a mediator between you and God? (p.907) (No. WT,15 Aug.1989, p30,31).

The New Birth: (p.904).

Q58: To how many people is the new birth available, according to John 3:3 (anyone, NWT), I John 5:1 (everyone, NWT), I John 4:7 (everyone, NWT), II Corinthians 5:17 & I John 2:29?

Q59: Where does the Bible say that the number to be born again is limited to 144,000? It is unlimited to whosoever believes (p.905). I Peter 1:21,23.

Is Jesus Michael the Archangel?: (p.925).

Q60: If the Watchtower says Jesus is Michael the archangel, how can he also be “the man Christ Jesus”, now that He is in heaven? (I Timothy 2:5).

Q61: Why would God command all the angels to worship a fellow-created angel? (Heb 1:6). Isn't it wrong to worship a creature? (p.846,847,925,926).

Q62: If worshipping Jesus should be changed to “do obeisance” (as WT thinks), why didn't God use the Greek word “sebomai” which means “do obeisance”? (p.846).

Q63: In Jude 9, Michael did not have the authority to rebuke Satan (saying “Jehovah rebuke thee” NWT) but Jesus DID have this authority to rebuke Satan in Matthew 4:10 and Mark 8:33. What does this tell you about who Jesus is? (The Lord God Jehovah). (p.925-6).

Q64: To which of the angels did God ever say, “Thou art my Son”? (Hebrews 1:5). (p.925).

Q65: Watchtower False Prophecies: (p.908).

1) Do you agree that a true prophet of God gives prophecies coming true 100% of the time, while false prophets give prophecies which don't always come true. (Deut. 18:20-22)?

2) Has the Watchtower ever claimed to be God's prophet for today? (Get JW to read WT, 1 April 1972, p.197 on p.910).

Ask: Does the WT claim that Jehovah's Christian witnesses are God's prophet today?

3) Can we agree that the WT prophet has given prophecies about events and dates in the future? (Ask 9 questions on p.909-913).

4) Applying Moses' test to see if the WT is a true or false prophet, what was supposed to happen according to the WT in 1874, 1914, 1918, 1925 and 1975?

Question: With judgment day honesty, did any of these prophecies fail to come true?

Answer: All of them failed. They were all false prophecies.

Question: What verdict did Moses and Jesus tell us to pass on prophets such as the WT? (WT is a false prophet, is not God's organisation and does not speak in Jehovah's name.)

We must side with Moses and Jesus in rejecting the WT as a false prophet. Will you?

Q66: Why did the WT change its view on vaccination, organ transplants, Christmas, the Cross, on who Jesus and Michael are, worshipping Christ, military service, and deferring marriage? (p.915-6).

Q67: Why did the WT prediction of Armageddon in 1975 fail to happen? (15 Aug 1968) p912

Q68: Do you agree with the WT command that when one discovers a false prophet, then “people should no longer trust them as safe guides”? (WT, 15 May 1930, p.154) (p.919).

The 144,000: (p.919).

Q69: How do you know the 144,000 was completed in 1935? (p.920).

Q70: Why would 144,000 be literal, but 12,000 from each tribe be figurative? (12 x 12,000 figurative ≠ 144,000 literal). (p.921-2).

Q71: Why does the WT ignore 13 scriptures which say believers go to heaven? (p.921).

Q72: Doesn't “ONE FLOCK” (John 10:16 NWT) refute the WT idea of “two flocks”, one in heaven and the other on earth? (p.921).

Q73:In Revelation 19:1 (NWT), where is the great crowd? (in heaven. WT says “on earth”.p923)

Blood Transfusions: (p.927).

Q74: Why did the WT change its mind from forbidding vaccinations, organ transplants, blood plasma and bone marrow transplants, to allowing them? (p.927).

Q75: How did the parents of children who died from not being vaccinated, feel when the WT reversed its view in 1952? How many children died needlessly? (p.927).

Q76: Why does the WT forbid blood transfusion but allow eating of fat? They disobey Lev 3:17

The Cross: (p.928). Q77: Did one nail fasten Jesus's hands above his head or did two nails hold his hands on the opposite sides of a cross beam (Latin: cross-beam = patibulum)? p 928.

Q78: How many nails were in Jesus' hands according to John 20:25? (p.928).

Q79: If Jesus was crucified on an upright stake, why does Matthew 27:37 say that a sign was placed above Jesus' HEAD, instead of above Jesus' HANDS? (p.928).

Q80: Why did the WT change its mind on Jesus dying on a cross to Jesus dying on a stake in 1931? (p.928). Question: Does a true prophet of God change its mind on such issues?

Q81: Why does the WT say the Holy Spirit is not a person but an active force, when the Holy Spirit has 23 attributes of personality? (pp.929-30).

Q82: If Jehovah is the only Saviour, the only Judge, the only Creator, has Glory possessed only by himself, yet Christ also has these attributes, what does this say who Jesus is? p.896.

Heaven: (p.35,36,921).

Q83: Why does the WT ignore the following verses in saying that we don't go to heaven? Colossians 1:5; I Peter 1:4 "reserved in heaven for you"; Rev 6:9; 19:1; Matthew 6:20; John 12:26; John 14:3; Hebrews 3:1; 10:34 ;11:16; 12:1; II Cor 5:1,8; Phil. 1:23. (p.35,36).

31. THE TRINITY OF THE GODHEAD SEEN IN NATURE.

Question: How is the Trinity of the Godhead seen in nature as in Romans 1:20 "for the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse.

Answer: a) We see God's eternal power in earthquakes, volcanoes, wind, millions of stars, galaxies, waves, floods, lightning, sun, moon, nuclear bombs, etc.

b) We see the Trinity of the Godhead with so many things coming in "threes", reminding us of the Father, Son, Holy Spirit, all three members of the creator Godhead. Examples are:

1) The Physical Universe: Space, mass, time.

2) Space: 3 dimensions of space are: length, breadth, height. 18) Sun: heat, light, radiation

3) Mass: 3 phases of matter are: solid, liquid, gas. 19) Earth is land, sea, atmosphere.

4) Time: 3 tenses of time are: past, present, future. 20) Trees made of roots, trunk, leaves.

5) Light: 3 directions of light wave oscillation are: horizontal, vertical, back and forward.

6) Colours: 3 primary colours of light are: red, blue, yellow. 21) Blood: red, white, platelet

7) Kingdoms: 3 Kingdoms are: Animal, vegetable, mineral. 22) Sun: alpha, beta, gamma ray

8) Animal: 3 kinds of Animal: fish, bird, land animals. 23) Insects: head, thorax, abdomen

9) Minerals: 3 main kinds of Minerals are: igneous, sedimentary, metamorphic.

10) Man: 3 components of Man are: body, soul (personality), spirit. (I Thess. 5:23).

11) Divine institutions: 3 Divine institutions are: marriage, human government, church.

12) Musical notes: 3 notes make up a musical chord. 24) Sun's mass = 333,000 x earth.

13) Sub-atomic particles: 3 main sub-atomic particles are: proton, electron, neutron,.

14) Mankind: 3 divisions of the human race: Jew, Gentile, Church of God. (I Cor.10:32).

15) Earth: is the third planet from the Sun. 25) DNA code: phosphate, deoxyribose, bases.

16) Forces: nuclear, gravitational, electromagnetic. 26) Cell: nucleus, cytoplasm, membrane

17) Heavens: 3 heavens are: atmosphere, space, God's throne.

32. QUESTIONS TO ASK TO REFUTE JW OBJECTIONS

1. Psalm 110:1 “The Lord (Jehovah) said to my Lord (Adonai) sit thou . . .” (p.869).
Ask: Did you know that Adonai (Lord) used of Jesus in Psalm 110:1 is also used of the Father in Exodus 23:17, Deuteronomy 10:17, Joshua 3:11?
2. Proverbs 8:22,23 “I was set up from everlasting” (p.860).
Ask: Where is Jesus Christ mentioned in this passage? Was there a time when God had no wisdom? Is Christ a woman who cries in the streets? (Proverbs 8:1; 1:20,21).
3. Isaiah 9:6 Is Jesus a “Mighty God” or “Jehovah God”? (p.867).
Ask: Since Jehovah is called “mighty God” in Isaiah 10:21;and Jeremiah 32:18, just as Jesus is called “Mighty God” (Isaiah 9:6), doesn’t this mean that the Watchtower is wrong in saying that Jesus as Mighty God means He is a lesser deity?
Ask: If both Jesus and Jehovah are “Mighty God”, then what does this tell you about Jesus’ divine nature?
4. Mark 10:17,18 “Why callest thou me good? There is none good but one, that is, God.”872
Ask: Where in the text does Jesus explicitly say that He is not God? Jesus did claim to be good and hence God in John 10:14: “I am the good shepherd”.
5. Mark 13:32 “But of that day hour knoweth no man, no not the angels . . . neither the Son, but the Father.” (p.866).
Christ’s one person possessed the attributes of both divine and human natures. Christ sometimes operated as a man and sometimes operated as God, eg: Christ in His human nature knew hunger, weariness and sleepiness, but in His divine nature was omniscient, omnipresent and omnipotent.
Key: In Christ’s divine nature, He is just as omniscient as the Father, as the following verses state:
“Lord, thou knowest all things.” (John 21:17).
“Now are we sure that thou knowest all things.” (John 16:30).
“In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.” (Colossians 2:3).
Ask: Can anyone other than God be omniscient? (No).
Ask: Since Christ had both a human and a divine nature, and since He used His omniscience often, can you see that Jesus was speaking from His human nature when He said that He didn’t know the day or hour of His return?
6. John 3:16 “He gave His only begotten Son.” (p.862).
Ask: If “son of” (Greek: Huios, not Teknon), meant “sameness of nature and equality of being” among the ancients, as historical records clearly show, then what does this tell us about the meaning of the phrase “Son of God”?
Ask: What did Jesus mean when He said of Himself: “All things that the Father hath are mine”. (John 16:15)? (Answer: Jesus is alone all that God is).
7. John 4:23 “True worshippers shall worship the Father...” (p.871).
Do we worship the Father only?
Ask: Do you give worshipful honour to the Son just as you do to the Father? (John 5:23). If no, then your worship is in vain and you are not honouring the Father.
Ask: Why did the Watchtower (1880) say “to worship Christ in any form cannot be wrong”, while later Watchtower editions say we should not worship Christ?
Ask: What rule of Greek grammar does the Watchtower use to translate “proskuneo” as “worship” when it refers to the Father (21 times), devils (14 times), angels (2 times), but as “obeisance” when it refers to Christ (16 times)?
Ask: Why did Paul refuse worship (Acts 14:11), the angel refuse worship (Revelation 22:8,9) but Jesus never refused worship?

8. John 14:28 “The Father is greater (Greek: meizon) than I” (p.865).

Jesus did not say that “the Father is better (Greek: kreitton) than I”.

Greater refers to the Father’s greater position (in heaven), not to a greater nature.

Ask: Do you agree that a president is greater in position but not better in nature than his people?

Ask: In view of greater (meaning higher in position) and better (meaning higher in nature - see Hebrews 1:4), is it not clear that in John 14:28, Jesus is speaking of the Father’s temporary higher position and not higher nature than Jesus? (p.865).

9. John 17:3 “know thee the only true God” (p.868).

The Watchtower says that, because the Father is called “the only true God”, then Jesus cannot be the true God.

Ask: The context is Jesus as a man, praying the great high priestly prayer to the Father. As such it was proper for the man Christ Jesus to call the Father “the only true God”. Christ would not have said this if it was spoken from the viewpoint of His deity.

Ask: Since Jesus being called our only Lord (Jude 4 NWT) does not exclude the Father (Matthew 11:25) and the Holy Spirit from being called Lord, why must the Father being called “the only true God” exclude the Son and Holy Spirit from being called God?

Ask: According to John 17:3, how many true Gods are there? (One).

Do you agree that whatever is not true is false?

If there is only one true God, all other gods must be false gods.

In John 1:1, NWT says that Jesus is a god, right? Is Jesus a true God or a false god?

He cannot be a false god, can He, since that would mean John was guilty of falsely honouring Jesus as a god. Therefore Jesus must be a true God.

But Jehovah is the only true God. Therefore, Jesus must be Jehovah.

10. John 20:17 “I ascend to . . . My God and your God.” (p.864).

It is in Christ’s humanity that He acknowledged the Father as “my God”.

Ask: Since man’s proper duties are to worship God, pray to God and address God as “my Father” and “my God”, can you see that it was perfectly correct for Jesus (speaking as a man) to address God as “my Father” and “my God”? (p.864).

11. I Corinthians 8:6 “One God the Father . . . and one Lord Jesus Christ,” (p.864).

Ask: Do you know that the Father is called Lord of heaven and earth? (Matthew 11:25).

Ask: Can you see that, since Jesus as one Lord does not mean that the Father is not Lord, then by the same logic, the Father as “one God” does not mean that Jesus is not God?864

12. I Corinthians 11:3 “The head of Christ is God.” (p.858).

Ask: Are women inferior in nature to men because men exercise headship over women? If no, why does WT teach that the Father’s headship over Christ means that Christ is inferior in nature to the Father? (p.858).

13. I Corinthians 15:28 “Then shall the Son also be subject unto Him.” (p.863).

Jesus’ humanity will always be in subjection to the Father.

Ask: Do you submit to the police? (Yes). Are you of inferior nature to the police? (No). So why should Christ be of inferior nature to the Father, because He submits to Him?

Ask: “Of His (Christ’s) Kingdom there shall be no end.” (Luke 1:38). Can you see that Christ as man, will hand over the administration of the earthly kingdom to God the Father, so that then Christ as God, will reign forever with the Father and the Holy Spirit, as the Triune God and no longer reign through the man Christ Jesus? (p.863).

14. Colossians 1:15 “the firstborn (Greek: prototokos) of every creature.” (p.860).
Ask: Why didn't Paul use the term “first created” (Greek: protoktisis) here if he meant that Christ was the first one created by Jehovah? (p.860).
Ask: What does “firstborn” mean? (p.860).
Ask: What does Psalm 89:27 mean by calling David “firstborn”, when he was the last born son? (p.861).
15. Revelation 3:14 “The Beginning (Greek: Arche) of the Creation of God”. (p.859).
Ask: Since “Arche” used of God Almighty (in Rev.21:6 and 22:13) does not mean that God had a created beginning, why do you insist that, when “Arche” is used of Christ, it means that Christ had a created beginning? (eg: Archbishop, architect, beginner).

33. Places where KIT gives the right reading, contradicting NWT

The upper cutout is from the Kingdom Interlinear Translation (KIT), and the lower cutout is from The Emphatic Diaglott NT. Both are Watchtower approved and published.

1. John 1:1 ‘The word was God’

Why does KIT contradict NWT to give right reading: ‘The word was God’? (p 854)

1 Ἐν ἀρχῇ ἦν ὁ λόγος, καὶ ὁ λόγος ἦν πρὸς τὸν θεόν, καὶ θεὸς ἦν ὁ λόγος. In beginning was the Word, and the Word was toward the God, and god was the Word.	1 In [the] beginning the Word was, and the Word was with God, and the Word was a god.* 2 This

4. John 17:3

Why does the KIT give the right reading 'know you (verb)' contradicting the NWT 'taking in knowledge (noun)'? (p.868).

14. Did you know that Clement of Alexandria (153-217 AD), Tertullian (200-250 AD), Hippolytus (170 AD) & Origen (185-284 AD) believed in the Trinity and Deity of Christ? (p.875)

a) Clement: Volume 2, p.468, 173

I understand nothing else than the Holy Trinity to be meant; for the third is the Holy Spirit, and the Son is the second, by whom all things were made according to the will of the Father.³ This Word, then, the Christ, the cause of both our being at first (for He was in God) and of our well-being, this very Word has now appeared as man, He alone being both, both God and man—the Author of all blessings to us;

b) Tertullian: Volume 3, p.598,606,607

Still, in these few quotations the distinction of Persons in the Trinity is clearly set forth. For there is the Spirit Himself who speaks, and the Father to whom He speaks, and the Son of whom He speaks.¹³

Vol. 3,
p.606

when all the Scriptures attest the clear existence of, and distinction in, (the Persons of) the Trinity, and indeed furnish us with our Rule of faith,

Vol. 4,
p.99

For the very Church itself is, properly and principally, the Spirit Himself, in whom is the Trinity of the One Divinity — Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.¹³

Vol. 3,

while the mystery of the dispensation⁹ is still guarded, which distributes the Unity into a Trinity, placing in their order¹⁰ the three Persons—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost: three, however, not in condition,¹¹ but in degree;¹² not in substance, but in form; not in power, but in aspect;¹³ yet of one substance, and of one condition, and of one power, inasmuch as He is one God, from whom these degrees and forms and aspects are reckoned, under the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.¹⁴

Vol. 3,
p.607

Now if He too is God, according to John, (who says,) "The Word was God,"⁸ then you have two Beings—One that commands that the thing be made, and the Other that executes the order and creates.

Vol. 3,
p.598

Him we believe to have been sent by the Father into the Virgin, and to have been born of her—being both Man and God, the Son of Man and the Son of God, and to have been called by the name of Jesus Christ;

c) Hippolytus: Volume 5, p.228

“Go ye and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.”¹⁶ And by this He showed, that whosoever omitted any one of these, failed in glorifying God perfectly. For it is through this Trinity¹⁷ that the Father is glorified. For the Father willed, the Son did, the Spirit manifested. The whole Scriptures, then, proclaim this truth.

d) Origen: Volume 4, p.255,258.

This is most clearly pointed out by the Apostle Paul, when demonstrating that the power of the Trinity is one and the same, in the words, “There are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit; there are diversities of administrations, but the same Lord; and there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God who worketh all in all. But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.”² From which it most clearly follows that there is no difference in the Trinity, but that which is called the gift of the Spirit is made known through the Son, and operated by God the Father. “But all these worketh that one and the self-same Spirit, dividing to every one severally as He will.”³

8. Having made these declarations regarding the Unity of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit,

But some treat the Holy Trinity⁷ in an awful manner, when they confidently assert that there are not three persons, and introduce (the idea of) a person devoid of subsistence.⁸ Wherefore we clear ourselves of Sabellius, who says that the Father and the Son are the same. For he holds that the Father is He who speaks, and that the Son is the Word that abides in the Father, and becomes manifest at the time of the creation,⁹ and thereafter reverts to God on the fulfilling of all things. The same affirmation he makes also of the Spirit. We forswear this, because we believe that three persons — namely, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit — are declared to possess the one Godhead: for the one divinity showing itself forth according to nature in the Trinity¹⁰ establishes the oneness of the nature; and thus there is a (divinity that is the) property of the Father, according to the word, “There is one God the Father;”¹¹ and there is a divinity hereditary¹² in the Son, as it is written, “The Word was God;”¹³

We acknowledge that the Son and the Spirit are consubstantial with the Father, and that the substance of the Trinity is one, — that is, that there is one divinity according to nature, the Father remaining unbegotten, and the Son being begotten of the Father in a true generation, and not in a formation by will,³ and the Spirit being sent forth eternally from the substance of the Father through the Son, with power to sanctify the whole creation. And we further acknowledge that the Word was made flesh, and was manifested in the flesh-movement⁴ received of a virgin, and did not simply energize in a man. And those who have fellowship with men that reject the consubstantiality as a doctrine foreign to the Scriptures, and speak of any of the persons in the Trinity as created, and separate that person from the one natural divinity, we hold as aliens, and have fellowship with none such.⁵ There is one God the Father, and there is only one divinity. But the Son also is God, as being the true image of the one and only divinity, according to generation and the nature which He has from

118. 10 Proofs that Jesus Christ is the Messiah

It is well known that the Jewish religion and the nation of Israel have rejected Jesus Christ's claim to be their Messiah. It matters not what men think, but what God says in His Word.

What do the Old Testament Prophets, the Law and Psalms say about how we can identify Who is the true Messiah that Israel is looking for? Consider these 10 proofs that Jesus Christ is the Messiah:

1. Daniel 9:24-27 states that the Messiah will come and be killed BEFORE the city of Jerusalem and its Temple are destroyed in 70AD.

a) "After 62 weeks (33AD) b) shall Messiah be cut off (killed), but not for himself: and the people (Romans) of the prince that shall come (future European Antichrist) c) shall destroy the city (of Jerusalem in 70AD) and d) the sanctuary (the Temple in 70AD)." (Daniel 9:26). This teaches 4 things:

a) Messiah offers himself to Israel as their Prince on 29 March 33AD after 69 weeks (= 7 + 62) of years. This occurs at the end of the 62-week interval (ie: $69 \times 7 \times 360 = 173,880$ days).

4 March 444BC 0 week	7 weeks	29 March 33AD 69 weeks 173,880 days	70AD
◆	◆	◆
Artaxerxes' command to restore and build Jerusalem.	Street and wall rebuilt	a,b) Messiah comes. Messiah killed.	c,d) Jerusalem destroyed. Temple destroyed.

b) Messiah will be rejected by Israel (Sunday 29 March 33AD) and killed (Friday 3 April 33AD).

c) Romans will destroy Jerusalem.

d) Romans will destroy the Temple. This happened in 70AD.

Jesus Christ fulfils Daniel's prophecy that Messiah comes & is killed before Jerusalem & the Temple are destroyed in 70AD. $10pm\ 4\ March\ 444BC + (173,880/365.2422 = 476.06766\ days) = 3pm\ 29\ March\ 33$

2. Psalm 22:8-16 contains six prophecies fulfilled by Jesus Christ at His first coming:

The Jewish Chief Priests, scribes and elders would mock the Messiah, while on the cross.
1. Psalm 22:8 "He trusted on the LORD that He would deliver him: let him deliver him."	Matthew 27:43 "He trusted in God; let him deliver him now."
2. Psalm 22:14 "all my bones are out of joint."
3. Psalm 22:15 "my tongue cleaveth to my jaws."	John 19:28 "I thirst."
4. Psalm 22:15 "they pierced my hands and my feet."	Matthew 27:35 "they crucified him."
5. Psalm 22:18 "they part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture."	Matthew 27:35 " parted his garments, casting lots ."
6. Psalm 69:21 "they gave me also gall for my meat; and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink."	Matthew 27:34 "They gave me vinegar to drink mingled with gall ."

3. Zechariah 13:6. When Messiah returns to earth, someone will ask him about His hand wounds: "And one shall say unto him, What are these wounds in thine hands?"

Then shall he answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends."

The context of Zechariah chapters 13,14 refers to the Messiah returning to earth to rescue Israel.

Question: If the returning Messiah has hand wounds, doesn't this fit Jesus Christ as being the Messiah?

4. Micah 5:2. The Messiah would come from Bethlehem.

Once again, Jesus Christ qualifies as the Messiah by being born where the prophet Micah prophesied:

"But thou, Bethlehem Ephrathah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting." The Messiah would be:

a) Born in Bethlehem.

b) Become Israel's future ruler.

c) Have existed everlasting in the past. Only God is everlasting.

This shows that Jesus Christ is the Messiah, and is also God.

5. Zechariah 9:9. Messiah the King of Israel would enter Jerusalem in a humble manner, riding on an ass, and on the foal of an ass.

“Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold thy King cometh unto thee: he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.”

Jesus Christ again fits the description of being Israel’s Messiah, because He entered Jerusalem in 33AD on an ass and her foal, to offer Himself as King. This is described in Luke 19:28-44; Matthew 21:1-9; Mark 11:1-10; John 12:12-19. When Jesus Christ entered Jerusalem on a colt, the people addressed Him as, “Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord.” (Luke 19:38).

After the Pharisees rejected Jesus Christ as King, He then prophesied Jerusalem’s soon destruction. This happened in 70AD, because Israel failed to recognize that this was the day that Daniel prophesied Messiah’s coming (Daniel 9:26). This day was 173,880 days after 10pm 4 March 444BC (Neh 2:1-8).

6. Zechariah 11:12,13. God said that 30 pieces of silver would be:

a) The price that Israel would put on their God,

b) cast to the potter,

c) cast in the house of the LORD.

“Thus saith the LORD my God; . . . (v.4) If ye think good, give me my price; . . .so they weighed for my price 30 pieces of silver (v.12). . and the LORD (Jehovah) said unto me, Cast it unto the potter: a goodly price that I was priced at of them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORD.” (Zechariah 11:13).

Notice here that Jehovah God states that Israel priced Him at 30 pieces of silver.

Jesus Christ fulfilled each of these 3 prophecies, proving that He is Jehovah, the God of Israel:

Zechariah 11:12,13	Jesus Christ (Matthew 26:14-16; and 27:3-7)
a) God valued at 30 pieces of silver .	“they covenanted with him (Judas) for 30 pieces of silver .” (Matthew 26:14-16).
b) Money will be cast to a potter .	“Chief priests took the silver pieces and... bought with them the potter’s field .” (Matthew 27:6,7).
c) Money will be cast in the Temple .	“He (Judas) cast down the pieces of silver in the Temple .” (Matthew 27:3-5).

7. Isaiah 40:3. Messiah would be preceded by a messenger.

This messenger would warn people that Israel’s Messiah was about to come and they should prepare to welcome Him. The messenger’s message would be:

“The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness. Prepare ye the way of the LORD, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.” (Isaiah 40:3).

This was the message of John the Baptist: “Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.” (Matthew 3:3; Mark 1:3; Luke 3:3; John 1:23).

Because Israel’s leaders rejected John the Baptist’s message, the warning of Malachi 4:6 came true in the destruction of Jerusalem in 70AD: “Lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.”

Israel’s sad history over the past 1950 years is due to the curse that Malachi said would come on them for rejecting Jesus Christ as their Messiah.

8. God’s servant. Isaiah 52:13 to 53:12 describe the Messiah as God’s servant that would be exalted very high. Details of this passage match Jesus Christ as being the Messiah.

Question: If this does not refer to Jesus Christ, then to whom does it refer?

i) “his visage was so marred more than any man.” (v.14).

This fits the brutal disfigurement that Jesus Christ received from His persecutors.

ii) “He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows....we esteemed him not.” (53:3).

This fits how Israel’s leaders despised and rejected Jesus Christ.

iii) “the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.” (53:6).

- This fits how Jesus Christ was killed on the same night as the Passover lamb was slain.

- This fits the Old Testament animal blood sacrifices that pointed to the once for all sacrifice of Jesus Christ as the Saviour for all mankind’s sins. Friday 3 April 33AD was a full moon.

- iv) “he made his grave with the wicked.” (53:9)
This fits how Jesus Christ was crucified between two thieves (Luke 23:39-43).
- v) “he made his grave . . . with the rich in his death.” (53:9).
This fits how Jesus Christ was buried in a rich man’s tomb (Joseph of Arimathaea). Luke 23:50-53.
- vi) “he was cut off out of the land of the living.” (53:8).
This fits how Jesus Christ’s life was brutally cut off in his prime.
- vii) “he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.” (53:9).
This fits how Jesus Christ showed no violence or deceit. Nobody found any fault in Him. This “no fault” testimony was made by Pilate, Pilate’s wife, a Roman Centurion, a repentant thief, Judas.
- viii) “when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin.” (53:10).
This fits how Jesus Christ fulfilled, in his sacrificial death, the many kinds of offerings for sin that Moses commanded.
- ix) “he shall prolong his days.” (53:10).
This fits how Jesus Christ rose from the dead, was seen by hundreds of witnesses over 40 days, ascended to heaven from the Mount of Olives, will return to the Mount of Olives (Zechariah 14:4) and will have nail prints in his hands at his return.
- x) “he was numbered with the transgressors.” (53:12).
This fits how Jesus Christ was considered a sinner by many Jews, even to today.

9. Hosea 5:15 to 6:1,2

God addresses Israel in Hosea 5:15 as being displeased with an offence that Israel has committed.

God promises to return to His place until Israel acknowledges that offence.

a) “I will go and return to my place, till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me early.” (Hosea 5:15).

Question 1: What was the offence that Israel committed?

Answer: That of rejecting and crucifying their Messiah.

Question 2: What does God mean by “returning to my place”? Where is God’s place?

Answer: God’s place is heaven, to which Christ ascended 40 days after His resurrection.

Question 3: Why is the word “return” used?

Answer: Because Jesus Christ came from heaven to earth, then returned to heaven.

Question 4: What is the affliction that God says will cause Israel to repent and seek God’s face?

Answer: The trouble that is happening now in the Middle East will culminate in the Antichrist’s invasion of Israel and the suffering they will experience.

b) Hosea 6:1,2 are Israel speaking:

Verse 1 is a call by Israel to return to God to be healed and bound up.

Hosea 6:2 is an amazing verse that fits perfectly with the timing of Israel’s return to their homeland after about 2000 years of being scattered among the nations.

“After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.”

Notice that this appears to be saying that:

► After two days (or 2000 years in 2 Peter 3:8) God would revive Israel spiritually as a nation by their acknowledging their offence of crucifying Jesus Christ. When did Israel die spiritually? (33AD).

Luke 13:35. This would be followed by them receiving Jesus Christ as their Messiah (Zech 12:10), and

► In the third day (about 2033-3033AD) Israel will be raised up as the chief nation when Messiah returns. Q: If the third day is exactly 1000 years (Rev 20:1-7), then the first 2 days must be 2000 years.

10. Isaiah 9:6 states that the child that would be born would be “the Mighty God.”

“For unto us a child is born, . . .his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The Mighty God.”

Jehovah calls Himself “The Mighty God” in Psalm 50:1 (“The Mighty God, Jehovah hath spoken,..”);

Jeremiah 32:18 “the Mighty God, Jehovah of hosts, is his name.” Isaiah 10:21.

This proves Jesus Christ to be Israel’s Messiah and God.

Conclusion: Have you received Jesus Christ as your Saviour, Messiah and God?

Why not do so right now today?

119. JESUS CHRIST IS GREATER THAN MOHAMMED

To understand which religion is the true religion- Christianity or Islam. (p.1070). We should study:

i) Its founders (Christ & Mohammed). ii) Its book (the Bible & Quran). iii) Its God (Jehovah & Allah). Who has the better credentials, Jesus or Mohammed? You decide yourself. Compare these differences:

1. Jesus raised the dead, Mohammed couldn't. Jesus raised Lazarus after being dead for 4 days (John 11), Jairus' daughter (Luke 8:49-56) and the widow of Nain's son (Luke 7:11-17). This means that Jesus has power to raise all people from the dead, including you.
2. Jesus healed all sicknesses, Mohammed couldn't. Jesus healed 10 lepers (Luke 17:11-19), a man born blind (John 9), paralysed (Matt. 8:5-13), dumb, maimed, lame multitudes (Matt. 15:29-31), withered hand (Mark 3:1-5), hunchback (Luke 13:11), replaced a severed ear (Luke 22:50,51), healed from a distance (John 4:46-54), "as many as touched him were made whole." (Mark 6:56).
3. Jesus had power over nature, Mohammed didn't. Jesus stilled storms and waves (Mark 4:35-41). Jesus multiplied 5 loaves and 2 fishes to feed 5000 men (John 6:1-14). Jesus walked on the water (John 6:15-21; Matthew 14:22-36). Jesus cast demons out of an insane, demonised man (Mark 5:1-20).
4. Jesus had power to forgive sins, Mohammed didn't. 'Son of man has power on earth to forgive sins' 24 This proves Jesus is God. "who can forgive sins, but God alone?" (Luke 5:17-26).
5. Jesus rose from the dead, Mohammed didn't. (John 20:1-31; Luke 24:1-53). Jesus raised Himself from the dead: "Destroy this temple and in 3 days I will raise it up." John 2:19.
6. Jesus ascended visibly to heaven, Mohammed didn't. (cloud received him out of their sight. Ac1:9-11)
7. Jesus accepted worship as God, Mohammed didn't (John 9:38; Luke 24:52). Q: Would Jesus lie?
8. Jesus claimed equality with God, Mohammed didn't. John called Jesus: 'the Word was God' John 1:1 'Jews sought to kill him, because he said that God was his Father, making himself equal with God.' John 5:18 Jesus said He was God: "If ye believe not that I am, ye shall die in your sins." John 8:24. (Ex.3:14). "That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father." John 5:23. Thomas called Jesus "My Lord and my God." John 20:28. Jesus has 120 attributes of God. Ans811 Paul called Jesus: "God was manifest in the flesh." I Timothy 3:16. Isaiah called Jesus: "The Mighty God." Isaiah 9:6. "Father, Word, Holy Ghost: are one." I John 5:7.
9. The Prophets called Jesus the "Son of God" meaning that He was identical with God.
Question: How can God have a Son? Answer: As man is soul, body, spirit, so God is Father, Son, HS.
 - a) Daniel called Jesus the Son of God: "the form of the fourth is like the Son of God." Dan.3:25
 - b) David said that God has a Son: "Kiss the Son lest he be angry." Psalm 2:12.
 - c) Solomon said that God has a Son: "Who hath established the ends of the earth? (God) What is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell?" Proverbs 30:4,5.
 - d) Gabriel called Jesus the Son of God: 'He shall be great, & shall be called the Son of the Highest (v32), that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.' Luke 1:26-35
 - e) Jesus called Himself the Son of God on 4 occasions: John 5:25; 9:35; 10:36; 11:4.
 - f) God the Father called Jesus "my beloved Son" at His baptism. (Matthew 17:5).
 - g) 8 New Testament characters called Jesus the Son of God: John the Baptist (John 1:34), Nathanael (John 1:49); Peter (John 6:69); Martha (John 11:27); John (John 20:31); Centurion 'Truly this was the Son of God.' (Matt. 27:54); Paul (Rom.1:4); Ethiopian Eunuch (Acts 8:37)
10. Jesus was sinless, Mohammed was a sinner, a murderer. Those testifying that Jesus was sinless were: Pilate's wife (Mat.27:19), Pilate (Mat.27:24), thief on the cross (Luke 23:41); Judas (Mt27:4)
11. Jesus died for the sins of the world, Mohammed didn't. "While we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." (Romans 5:8). "The Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all." (Isaiah 53:6).
12. Jesus fulfilled many Old Testament prophecies, Mohammed didn't. See Table of 45 Prophecies.
13. Jesus prophesied the future, Mohammed didn't.
 - a) The Roman destruction of Jerusalem. (Luke 19:41-44).
 - b) The only escape from this Roman invasion was to flee to the mountains when you see Jerusalem surrounded with armies. (Luke 21:20-24).
 - c) False Christs, wars, famines, disease, earthquakes, gospel preached worldwide (Mat.24:1-14)
 - d) The Roman destruction of the Temple. (Matthew 24:2).
 - e) Jerusalem being under Gentile control until the end of the age. (Luke 21:24).

14. Jesus gave superior teachings. Mohammed's teachings are repetitive, hate filled, many threats of hell, fanciful (turning people to apes), violent, inciting to war, contradictory, fatalistic, anti-Christ and anti-Christian, fear of Allah's punishment, and discriminating against women (Quran 4:34).
 15. Jesus promised to return to earth to set up His kingdom, resurrect and judge all men, Mohammed didn't. "I will come again." (John 14:3). Angels promised it (Acts 1:10,11).
 16. Jesus cast out demons who called him "the Holy One of God" (Luke 4:31-37). Mohammed didn't, but accepted the help of demons/jinn to spread Islam. (72:1-).
 17. Jesus' place of birth (Bethlehem in Micah 5:2) and time of coming to offer Himself as King of Israel (3pm 29 March, 33AD in Daniel 9:24-26) were prophesied by the prophets Micah & Daniel.
 18. Jesus showed love, compassion and forgiveness to sinners (eg: Woman taken in adultery, harlots, sufferers) Mohammed didn't (100 lashes for adulterer (24:2), cut off a thief's hand (5:39)).
 19. Jesus sent the Holy Spirit as our Comforter, Mohammed didn't. "But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name.." (John 14:26,16-18; 16:7-14). Holy Spirit is the Comforter, not Mohammed because a) He shall be with you forever (John 14:16) b) The disciples knew Him "ye know him." (John 14:17). c) He shall be in you (John 14:17). d) Be called the Holy Ghost (John 14:26). e) Be called the Spirit of Truth (John 16:13);M abrogated f) Glorify Jesus (John 16:14). Mohammed did none of these. Islam hopes you won't read John 14:26
 20. Jesus' birth and death were witnessed by signs in heaven. The Bethlehem star guided wise men from the east (Matthew 2:1,2,7-10), and darkness covered the earth for 3 hours at His death (12-3pm; Matt 27:45; Mark 15:33). Mohammed had no heavenly signs witnessing his birth or death.
 21. Jesus gave us a high moral example to follow. Mohammed gave us a low moral example of war, murdering people to spread Islam, stealing, taking slave girls and other men's wives, lying, etc.
 22. Jesus won people by love, truth, miracles. Mohammed won people by sword, violence, threats, terror ('Make war' 8:39; 9:73 'Fight' 9:29; 'Fighting is obligatory for you' 2:216; 'cut' 8:12).
 23. Jesus preached peace ('Peace I leave with you' John 14:27) and love your enemies (Matt 5:44). Mohammed preached fighting ("Fighting is obligatory." Q2:216; "Make war on them." Q 8:39).
 24. Jesus commanded Christians to love one another. Mohammed commanded Muslims to fight Christians and Jews. "Fight against those to whom the Scriptures were given." (Q9:29). "Believers (Muslims), take neither Jews nor Christians for your friends." (Q5:51). "A new commandment I give unto you that ye love one another as I have loved you." John 13:34.
 25. Jesus guarantees Christians a home in heaven, Mohammed doesn't. . Mohammed was unsure of heaven (Q46:9; Buk.Vol 1,372). Jesus said to Christians "I go to prepare a place for you"John 14:2 "He that has the Son has life" I Jn5:12. "rejoice because your names are written in heaven."Luk10:20 Moh: "none is secure from the punishment of their Lord." Q70:28. 'nor do I know what will be done with me or with you' Q46:9. Q19:71 says all Muslims go through or over hell. 'There is not.'
 26. Jesus never took other men's wives for himself, Mohammed took Zayneb off his adopted son Zayd, and got Allah to approve it. ('Keep your wife to yourself... We gave her to you..' Q33:37).
 27. Jesus never killed or robbed anyone. Mohammed ordered his men to kill thousands of men (800 Bani Qurayza 33:26), steal their goods, take their wives, daughters as slave girls.'slaves you possess' Q4:3
 28. Jesus elevated, honoured and defended women. "why trouble ye the woman?" (Matthew 26:10). Mohammed taught men to beat their wives (4:34), to replace wives (4:20), to treat them like fields (2:223), to take women as slave girls (33:52; 4:3), called them enemies (64:14), and that men are superior to women (4:34; 2:228).
 29. Jesus forbid violence, but Mohammed commanded it. "Jesus said, Put up again thy sword into his place; for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword." Matthew 26:52. "Whoever fights for the cause of Allah, we shall richly reward him. (Q4:74). "True believers fight for the cause of Allah." (Q4:76).
 30. Jesus has a personal relationship with Christians, changing us to loving, kind, peaceful people. Mohammed has no relationship with Muslims. No Muslim knows Mohammed or Allah personally. Christians know God the Father & God the Son personally. "truly our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ." I John 1:3.
- Jesus died for your sins and rose again. Call on Jesus Christ to save you from your sins now. "Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." Romans 10:13. 952

120. MAIN QUOTES IN THE KORAN. The Koran is divided into 114 Chapters or Suras, named:

2. COW v.67-71 This Sura is “the Koran in summary” having all the main points mentioned elsewhere

2:1 This book is not to be doubted. It is a guide to the righteous who... trust what has been revealed to you. Note: The Koran testifies of itself which proves nothing. Jesus and the Bible are testified to by:

i) John the Baptist (John 5:33-35).

ii) Christ’s miracles (John 5:36).

iii) God the Father (John 5:37; Matthew 3:17 speaking at Christ’s baptism).

iv) Many Old Testament Scriptures prophesying of Christ (John 5:39).

v) Christ’s many prophesies: Jerusalem’s destruction; Jewish dispersion & regathering in the end days.

vi) Christ’s death for our sins and the resurrection from the dead. (Q 3:55).

vii) Christ’s message of love and peace compared to Mohammed’s message of hate and war on unbelievers and repetitive threats of punishment in hell, designed to scare readers into conversion.

2:25 Proclaim good tidings to those who have faith and do good works. They shall dwell in gardens ...fruit to eat. Wedded to chaste spouses, they shall abide therein forever.

Note: This Muslim concept of heaven is clearly man made because:

i) It only contains the best things imaginable to Arab males of 7th Century Arabia; gardens, fruit, wine and sex with many women.

ii) Allah is rarely mentioned in the Muslim heaven.

iii) Women are rarely if ever mentioned in the Muslim heaven.

iv) There are no mentally stimulating benefits in the Muslim heaven such as service to God, opportunity to serve others, ruling in a new universe, only the satisfaction of selfish sensual desires.

2:34 When we said to the angels: “Prostrate yourselves before Adam”, they all prostrated themselves except Satan who in his pride refused and became an unbeliever.

Note: This story is contrary to the Bible (Genesis 2:16,17). It is recorded about 7 times in the Koran.

This makes Satan look good and Allah look bad. (2:34; 7:11; 15:30-33; 17:61,62; 18:50; 20:115; 38:75)

2:41 Have faith in my revelations which confirm your scriptures.

Note: The Koran does not confirm the Bible, but contradicts it on almost every page and on every doctrine, such as Salvation, God, Christ being Son of God, dying, heaven, Israel. (2:87,89).

2:63-65 Two far-fetched, unbiblical fables are that:

i) Allah “raised the Mount (Sinai) above Israel when giving the covenant. (4:154; 2:63,93).

ii) You have heard of those of you that broke the Sabbath. We said to them: “You shall be changed into detested apes.” We made their fate an example to their own generation...

2:79 Woe to those that write the scriptures with their own hands and then declare: “This is from Allah.”

Note: This well describes the Koran as being man made. It differs everywhere from the Bible in that:

i) It Contains no prophesies that have come true.

ii) Has a totally different style and subject matter to every prophet and apostle in the Bible.

iii) It fails to glorify Christ. Christ is honoured in every book of the Bible.

2:97 Say: “Whoever is an enemy of Gabriel (who has by Allah’s grace revealed to you the Koran... confirming previous scriptures)...an enemy of Allah, His angels, His apostles, of Gabriel, or Michael, will surely find that Allah is the enemy of the unbelievers.”

Note: The Koran in order to build acceptance and credibility claims support from previous sources of the truth such as Allah, angels, prophets, apostles, Gabriel and Michael. When we study their words in the Bible their message is totally different from the Koran. How many Muslims have carefully studied the Bible?

Note: i) Michael the archangel stands for Israel (Daniel 12:1), but the Koran opposes Israel (98:6).

ii) Gabriel’s message in the Bible is opposite to the Koran’s message about Christ:

“in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God... to a virgin (v.26,27).

The angel said unto her “Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God. And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS. (v.30,31). He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest... of his kingdom there shall be no end. (v.32,33)... that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.” (v.35). Luke 2:26-35.

The Koran denies that God has a Son, yet the Bible, the apostles, and prophets Daniel (3:25), David (Psalm 2), Solomon (Proverbs 30:4), and Gabriel all say that God has a Son. Who do you believe?

2:106 If we abrogate a verse or cause it to be forgotten, we will replace it by a better one or one similar. Did you not know that Allah has power over all things?

Note: This verse is fatal to Islam and the Koran, because if Allah can change his mind about whether a verse is in scripture & replace it with a better verse, then Allah is not the all-knowing God of the Bible.

2:118 The ignorant ask: “Why does Allah not speak to us, or give us a sign?”

Note: These people are not ignorant, but they ask a very good question. The Bible prophets and apostles showed signs and miracles to prove they were truly from God, something that Mohammed could never do. (see Mark 16:20 “Confirming the word with signs following.”; 2 Cor.12:12 “Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.”) Isaiah 41:23 says, “Show the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that ye are gods.” Mohammed could never do miracles as Jesus did, nor could Mohammed prophesy the future as did Jesus, the Bible prophets and the Apostles.

2:127 Abraham and Ishmael built the house (The Kabah at Mecca) and dedicated it...Make of our descendants a nation that will submit to you.

Note: There is no Bible evidence or historical evidence that Abraham or Ishmael ever went to Mecca. This is only in the imagination of Mohammed in order to gain support from the Bible.

2:136 Say: “We believe in Allah and that which is revealed to us (Koran); in what was revealed to Abraham, Ishmael, Isaac, Jacob and the tribes; to Moses, Jesus and the other prophets by their Lord.

Note: Again the Koran appeals to these men to support the Muslim faith. If Muslims studied Bible writings they would see how opposite their teachings are to Mohammed and to the Koran.

2:154 Do not say that those slain in the cause of Allah are dead. They are alive, but you are not aware of them.

2:137 He has forbidden you carrion, blood, and the flesh of swine.

2:185 In the month of Ramadan the Koran was revealed.

2:216 Fighting is obligatory for you, much as you dislike it.

But you may hate a thing although it is good for you. Allah knows.

2:217 Whoever of you recants and dies an unbeliever,... shall be the tenants of the Fire, wherein they shall abide forever.

Note: This verse keeps Muslims trapped in Islam for fear of hell.

2:218 Those that have embraced the faith and those that have fled their land and fought for the cause of Allah, may hope for Allah’s mercy.

2:221 You shall not wed pagan women, unless they embrace the faith.

2:223 Women are your fields: go, then, into your fields whence you please.

Note: Women are here compared to an impersonal field of dirt to be used for a man’s own benefit.

The Bible gives much greater honour to wives in 1 Peter 3:7: “Husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life: that your prayers be not hindered.”

2:228 Men have a status above women.

2:230 If a man divorces his wife he cannot remarry her until she has wedded another man and been divorced by him; in which case it shall be no offence for either of them to return to the other.

Note: This clearly contradicts God’s law given to Moses in Deuteronomy 24:1-4 “Her former husband which sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife,... for that is abomination before the Lord. Thou shalt not cause the land to sin.”

2:244 Fight for the cause of Allah.

2:246 The Israelites demanded of one of their prophets: “Raise up for us a king and we will fight for the cause of Allah. He replied: “What if you refuse to fight when ordered to do so?” They said: “Why should we refuse to fight for the cause of Allah?” But when at last they were ordered to fight, they all refused except a few of them. Allah knows the evil-doers.”

Note: i) This comes from 1 Samuel 8:1-22 which says: “Make us king to judge us like all the nations.” (v.5)... “that our king may judge us, and go out before us, fight our battles.” (v.20).

The people gave no promise here to fight for the cause of Allah, nor did the Koran's alleged conversation take place.

ii) This passage in the Koran portrays Allah declaring as evil-doers those who refused to fight. This motivates Muslims to fight if they wish to please Allah.

2:249 When Saul marched out with his army, he said: "Allah will prove you at a certain river. He that drinks from it shall cease to be my soldier, but he that... contents himself with a taste of it in the hollow of his hand, shall fight by my side."

iii) Error in the Koran: The writer of the Koran here confused Saul (1100 BC) with Gideon. (1250 BC). It was Gideon who God told to take his troops to a river to reduce their numbers from 10,000 to 300 by this same drinking test, not Saul. (Judges 7:1-7).

2:253 We gave Jesus the son of Mary clear signs (proofs) (of Allah's sovereignty) and strengthened him with the Holy Spirit.

Note: i) Jesus was proven by HIS miraculous signs, but Mohammed gave no miracles. Hence Jesus, the prophets and apostles who worked miracles are superior to Mohammed, who worked no miracles.

ii) Allah the moon god of Arabia did not give Jesus clear signs, but it was Jesus' Heavenly Father, the Jehovah God of the Bible who gave these miracles to authenticate Jehovah God the Son as the Messiah and Saviour of the world. Muslims suffer a case of mistaken identity. Their Allah is not the God of the Bible, but the pagan moon god of Arabia. The God of the Bible warns: "I am Jehovah thy God,... Thou shalt have no other gods before me." (Exodus 20:3).

2:256 There shall be no compulsion in religion.

Note: i) This is contradicted by Sura 8:39 "Make war on them until idolatry shall cease and Allah's religion shall reign supreme."

ii) 2:256 is intended to convince non-Muslims that Islam is a peaceful religion. This is contradicted by "True Muslims fight for Allah." (4:76).

2:259 Allah killed a man, and after 100 years brought him back to life.

This was a Jewish fable of the time, that Mohammed put in the Koran.

2:260 Allah told Abraham to "Take 4 birds, draw them to you, and cut their bodies to pieces. Scatter them over the mountain tops, then call them back. They will come swiftly to you."

This was a well known fable in Mohammed's time.

2:271 To give alms (money) in private is better and will atone for some of your sins.

Note: This teaches the error that man can buy his way into heaven. Psalm 49:7 refutes this error.

Q: What about a poor man who has no money? Does he go to hell, while a rich man buys his way to heaven?

2:273 As for those needy men who, being wholly pre-occupied with fighting for the cause of Allah, cannot travel the land in quest of trading ventures... whatever alms you give are known to Allah.

Note: Here the Koran teaches that it is right to sponsor terrorism by paying those who fight for Allah.

2:275,276,278 Allah has permitted trading and made usury (charging and receiving interest) unlawful. Those that turn back shall be inmates of the Fire. Allah has laid his curse on usury. Waive what is still due to you from usury.

Note: Most Muslims, Muslim banks, and Muslim governments disobey the Koran here by charging interest and paying interest. This law against interest makes banks unviable. Hence, a pure Islamic state like the Taliban's Afganistan regime could have no banks. They use Pakistan's banks at their borders.

2:284 Allah will forgive whom he will and punish whom he pleases. Note: No certainty of salvation.

2:285 They all believe Allah, His angels, His Scriptures, and His apostles. We make no distinction (don't discriminate) against any of His messengers.

Note: False. Muslims do give Mohammed a greater distinction than Jesus and all other Bible prophets.

3. The IMRANS (v.32)

3:4 Those who disbelieve Allah's revelations shall be sternly punished.

3:11 Allah is severe in punishment.

3:12 Say to the unbelievers: "You shall be overthrown and driven into hell."

3:15 The righteous shall be rewarded with... spouses of perfect chastity and contentment before Allah.

3:16 Those of Allah's servants who say: "Allah we believe in you, forgive us our sins and keep us from the torment of the Fire."

Note: This shows that no Muslim is sure of escaping hell and going to heaven.

3:19 The only true faith in Allah's sight is Islam.

3:32 Say "Obey Allah and the Apostle (Muhammed)." If they give no heed, then Allah does not love the unbelievers.

Note: The God of the Bible loves the world of unbelievers (John 3:16 "God so loved the world...").

3:49 Allah said: "I bring you a sign from your Lord. From clay I will make for you the likeness of a bird. I shall breathe into it and, by Allah's leave it shall become a living bird."

Note: This fable was copied from Thomas' "Gospel of the Infancy of Christ" and placed in the Koran here. The Bible tells us that Jesus' first miracle was at Cana of Galilee, not as a child. (John 2:11).

3:49 Jesus said: "By Allah's leave I shall heal the blind man, and the leper, and raise the dead to life."

Note: These miracles of Christ prove that Christ is much greater than Mohammed who never did any miracles.

3:54 Allah is the supreme plotter (best of schemers).

Note: This permits Muslims to plot and scheme treachery because they are just following their god's example. The God of the Bible is honest and truthful.

3:57 Allah does not love the evil-doers.

3:62 This is the whole truth: "There is no god but Allah." Isaiah 44:6,8; 45:5,21 'no god but Jehovah.'

3:69 Some of the People of the Book (Jews and Christians), wish to mislead you.

3:70 People of the Book! Why do you disbelieve in the revelations of Allah...? See section "Why nobody should become a Muslim," page 993 for 20 reasons.

3:81 When Allah made his covenant with the prophets, he said: "Here are the scriptures and wisdom which I have given you. Afterward there will come unto you a messenger (or apostle) to confirm them. You shall believe in him and help him."

Note: This comes from Deuteronomy 18:18,19 where God says: "I will raise them (Israel) up a Prophet (Christ, not Mohammed) from among their brethren (Mohammed was not a Jew, but a Gentile Arabian), like unto thee (Moses), and will put my words in his mouth..."

Muslims claim that this prophecy refers to Mohammed, but the Prophet was Jesus Christ because:

i) Jesus was an Israelite, Mohammed was not.

ii) Jesus Christ prophesied the future, Mohammed did not.

iii) Jesus was like Moses in 61 ways (page 1087), Mohammed was not.

iv) Jesus spoke kind words of God, Mohammed spoke words of hate.

v) Jesus went about doing good(Act10:38). Mohammed went about raiding cities, massacring innocent.

3:85 He that chooses a religion other than Islam (surrender to Allah), it will not be accepted of him, and he will be a loser in the hereafter.

3:96,97 The first temple ever to be built for mankind was that at Bakkah (Mecca). In it there are clear signs and the spot where Abraham stood to pray... Pilgrimage to the House is a duty to Allah for all who can make the journey.

Note: i) There is no Biblical or historical evidence that Abraham ever visited Mecca.

ii) The Tabernacle, Solomon's temple or Herod's temple were earlier than the Kabah at Mecca.

3:125 If you have patience and guard yourselves against evil, Allah will send to your aid 5000 angels, if they suddenly attack you.

Note: This angelic help promised to Muslims gives them confidence to start wars against large armies.

3:151 Obey Allah and the Apostle that you may find mercy. We shall put terror in the hearts of the unbelievers, because they ascribe unto Allah partners.their habitation is the Fire.

Note: i) This permits Muslims to commit acts of terror.

ii) The Koran refers to Christians as hellbound because we believe Jesus is the Son of God.

3:157,158 If you should die or be slain in the cause of Allah, His forgiveness and mercy would be better than all the riches they amass. (If you should die or be slain) before Allah you will all be gathered. Note: This promises heaven to all Muslims who die fighting for the cause of Allah.

3:166 The misfortune which befell you when the two armies met was ordained by Allah.

3:169 Never think that those who were slain in the cause of Allah are dead. No, they are alive, and well provided for by their Lord. Allah will not deny the faithful their reward.

3:195 Those who fought and were slain (for my cause): I shall forgive their sins and admit them to gardens watered by running streams, as a reward from Allah.

WOMEN

4:3 If you fear that you cannot treat orphan girls with fairness, then you may marry other women who seem good to you. 2, 3, or 4 of them. But if you fear that you cannot maintain equality among them, marry one only or any slave girls you may own.

Note: This endorsement of the Koran that a man is allowed to marry as many slave girls as he wishes, inevitably leads to them being treated as second class citizens, and denies them the chance of having an husband of their own. It denies many men the chance to be married.

4:11 A male shall inherit twice as much as a female.

4:15 If any of your women commit fornication, call in 4 witnesses from among yourselves against them; if they testify to their guilt confine them to their houses till death overtakes them, or till Allah finds another way for them.

Q: What penalty exists for men committing fornication? None. He can fornicate by having a “temporary marriage” called Mutah, or a one-night stand.

4:20 If you wish to replace a wife with another, do not take from her the dowry you have given her...

4:34 Men have authority over women because God has made the one superior to the other, and because they spend their wealth to maintain them.

4:34 As for those from whom you fear disobedience, admonish them, and send them to their beds apart, and beat (scourge) them.

Note: Here the Koran encourages men to scourge (beat severely) their wives even on the suspicion of disobedience. The Bible never gives husbands permission for this, but commands “husbands to love your wives as Christ loved the church and gave himself for it”. (Ephesians 5:25).

What harsh power the Koran gives men over women.

4:56 Those that deny our revelations we will burn in the Fire. No sooner will their skins be consumed than we shall give them other skins, so that they may truly taste the scourge.

Note: What terror-inducing rubbish! Thankfully the love and permanent salvation of Jesus Christ saves us from such fear (John 10:28). “deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime” Heb2:15

4:57 As for those that have faith and do good works, we shall admit them to the gardens... where, wedded to chaste spouses, they shall abide forever.

4:66 Had we commanded them saying: “Lay down your lives...only a few would have complied. Yet had they done what they were admonished to do, it would have been better for them... We would have bestowed on them from ourself a rich reward.”

4:74 Let those who would exchange the life of this world for the hereafter, fight for the cause of Allah; whoever fights for the cause of Allah, whether he dies or triumphs, we shall richly reward him.

4:76 True believers fight for the cause of Allah.

4:77 When they were ordered to fight, some of them feared man as much as they feared Allah. They said: “Lord, why do you bid us fight? Could you not give us a brief respite?”

4:80 He that obeys the Apostle (Mohammed) obeys Allah.

Note: This was a clever trick by Mohammed to manipulate people into obeying him. God said no such thing. Jeremiah 23:16 “Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Hearken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you vain (1891= vain in expectation, to lead astray): they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the Lord.”

4:82 If it (Quran) had not come from Allah, they could have surely found in it many contradictions.

Note: People have found many contradictions in it such as, Pharaoh (1500BC), Haman (510BC), Tower of Babel (2250BC) all coexisting (28:38).

4:84 Therefore fight for the cause of Allah. Rouse the faithful: perchance Allah will overthrow the might of the unbelievers.

4:89 If they desert you, seize them and put them to death wherever you find them.

Note: Fear of death is why so few people leave Islam. This is a big reason not to become a Muslim.

4:91 If these do not keep their distance from you, nor offer you peace, nor cease their hostilities against you, lay hold of them, and kill them wherever you find them.

4:93 He that kills a believer by design shall burn in hell forever.

4:94 Believers, show discernment when you go to fight for the cause of Allah.

4:95 i) The believers who stay at home are not the equals of those who fight for the cause of Allah, with their goods and persons.

ii) Allah has given those that fight with their goods & persons a higher rank than those that stay at home

iii) Far richer is the reward of those who fight for Allah.

Note: Jesus said: “all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.” Matthew 26:52.

“if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight.” John 19:36.

4:100 He that leaves his dwelling to fight for Allah and his apostle, and is then overtaken by death, shall be rewarded by Allah.

Note: This reminds us of terrorists who go overseas to fight for Allah and who die as a result.

4:104 Seek out your enemies relentlessly.

Note: Jesus said: “Love your enemies.” Matthew 5:44.

4:107 Allah does not love the treacherous or the sinful.

Note: This proves that the Koran is not from the Holy God of the Bible, because all men are sinful compared to God. Man’s typical thinking is that he is good compared to others. If God wrote the Koran, it would teach that all men are sinful.

4:116 Allah will not forgive idolatry.

Note: Error in the Koran here. Jesus said: “All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.” (Matthew 12:31,32).

4:124 Believers who do good works, both men and women shall enter paradise.

Note: This contradicts over 50 New Testament references that good works don’t save us (Eph.2:8-10; Galatians 2:16). None of us are good compared to God.

4:141 Allah will not let the unbelievers triumph over the faithful.

Note: This is false as seen by Charles Martel of Europe who defeated the Muslim invaders at the Battle of Tours in 732 AD. This promise makes Muslims feel invincible in warfare.

4:157 They did not kill him (Jesus), nor did they crucify him, but they thought they did... They did not slay him for certain. Allah lifted him up to himself.

Note: This contradicts the prophets David (Psalm 22:16), Isaiah (53), Daniel (9:26), NT prophets, Jesus (Mark 9:31; 10:34 “shall kill him”), and Quran 19:33 “Blessed I shall be on the day of my death.”

4:163 We have revealed our will to you (Mohammed) as we revealed it to Noah, Abraham, Ishmael, Isaac, Jacob, Jesus, Job, Jonah, Aaron, Solomon and David.

Note: The true prophet David in Psalm 2:12 calls Jesus the “Son” in the phrase, “Kiss the Son,” contradicting the false prophet Mohammad.

4:171 People of the Book (Christians)... Believe in Allah and his apostles and do not say “THREE” ... God is but one God. God forbid that He should have a son.

Note: Yes Christians believe that God is one God, but that He has 3 parts (Father, Son, Holy Spirit) each of which is fully God. Jesus is fully God and fully man. As humans have a body, soul and spirit, so God has Father, Son and Holy Spirit, all fully and equally God. The OT and the NT teach this.

The TABLE (v.112)

5:16 Unbelievers are those who declare: “God is the Messiah, the son of Mary.” Say, “Who could prevent Allah, if he so willed, from destroying the Messiah, the son of Mary, his mother, and all the people of the earth?” Note: This is what Satan wants.

5:30,31 Raven taught Cain how to bury Abel. This was copied from the Targum of Jerusalem.

5:34 Those that make war against Allah and his apostle and spread disorder in the land shall be put to death or crucified, or have their hands and feet cut off on alternate sides, or be banished from the land.

5:35 Fight valiantly for His cause, so that you may triumph.

5:39 As for the man or woman who is guilty of theft, cut off their hands to punish them for their crimes

5:46,47 Jesus... We gave him the gospel. Note: The Koran never defines the gospel of Christ but the Bible does. (I Cor.15:1-4).

5:48 The Koran confirms the Scriptures which came before it. Note: False to those who know the Bible

5:51 Believers (Muslims), take neither the Jews nor the Christians for your friends ...wrongdoers.

5:56 Believers (Muslims), do not seek friendship of the infidels and those who were given the Book (Bible) before you, who have made your religion a jest.

5:60 Those whom God has cursed... transforming them into apes and swine. (7:166).

Note: This is unscientific. It never happens.

5:72 Unbelievers are those that say: "God is the Messiah, the son of Mary."

5:73 Unbelievers are those that say: "God is one of three." Mohammad never knew Greek or Trinity.

5:88 Allah does not love the transgressors. (7:55).

5:116 Allah will say: "Jesus, son of Mary, did you ever say to mankind: 'Worship me and my mother as gods beside God?'"

Note: The Koran's error in thinking that the Trinity is "God, Jesus and Mary".

CATTLE

6:39 Allah confounds whom He will, and guides to the right path whom He pleases.

This is the error of Fatalism.

6:51 They have no guardian or intercessor besides Allah. Note: Jesus is our intercessor. I Timothy2:5,6 6:88 We chose them.

6:87 We gave him Isaac, Jacob, Noah, David, Solomon, Job, Joseph, Moses, Aaron, Zacharias, John, Jesus, Elias (Elijah), Ishmael, Elisha, Jonah, Lot.

6:101 How should he have a son when he had no consort? Because Jesus is not a teknon son, but Huios

6:145 Who is more wicked than the man who in his ignorance invents a lie about Allah to mislead others? Note: This is exactly what Mohammed has done with the Koran. Bible was proven by miracles.

THE HEIGHTS

7:24 Allah who created the heaven and the earth in 6 days. Note: Q 41:9,10,12 says 8 days.

7:64 We saved him (Noah) & all who were with him in the ark. Note: Q 11:42,43 says 1 son drowned.

7:124 Pharaoh "Then I will crucify you all." Note: Wrong, as crucifixion was not invented in 1500 BC.

7:157 Those who shall follow the Prophet-- whom they shall find described in the Torah and the Gospel. Note: This is wrong, because Deuteronomy 18:15-18 describe Jesus Christ not Mohammed.

7:163 Each Sabbath the fish appeared before them floating on the water, but on week days they never came near them. Thus did we tempt them because they did wrong.

7:167 He would raise against them (Jews) others who would oppress them cruelly till the day of Resurrection.

7:179 We have predestined for hell numerous jinn and men.

THE SPOILS

8:12 Allah revealed his will to the angels saying: "...I shall cast terror into the hearts of the infidels, strike off their heads, strike off the very tips of their fingers...that was because they defied Allah and his apostle." Note: This is the cause of modern Muslim terrorism to gain world domination.

8:30 Allah is the best of plotters.

8:39 Make war on them until idolatry shall cease and Allah's religion shall reign supreme.

8:41 Know that one-fifth of your spoils shall belong to Allah, and the apostle.

8:59 Let not the unbelievers think that they will ever get away...Muster against them all the men and cavalry at your command, so that you may strike terror into the enemy of Allah, and your enemy and others beside them who are unknown to you but known to Allah.

8:65 Prophet, rouse the faithful to arms. O Prophet, exhort the believer to fight. If there are 20 steadfast among you, they shall vanquish 200; and if there are 100, they shall route 1000 unbelievers, for they are devoid of understanding." Note: Mohammad did not foresee smart missiles killing terrorists.

8:67 A prophet may not take captives until he has fought and triumphed (made slaughter) in the land.

8:69 Enjoy the good and lawful things you have gained in war.

8:74 Those that have fought for the cause of Allah, sheltered & helped them, they are the true believers

REPENTANCE (v.104)

Marks end of idolatry in Arabia. Christian Byzantine Empire had begun to move against the growing Muslim power. This Surah mentions a greater war to come, and instructions with regard to it. v.38-99. Arab tribes who failed to join Muslims in the Tabuk campaign are the “Hypocrites” or half-hearted supporters of Islam.

9:5 When the sacred months are over, slay the idolaters wherever you find them. Arrest them, besiege them and lie in ambush everywhere for them.

9:12 If, after coming to terms with you, they break their oaths, and revile your faith, make war on the leaders of unbelief.

9:14 Make war on them: Allah will chastise them at your hands and humble them. He will grant you victory over them.

9:18 None should visit the Mosques of Allah except those who believe in Allah and the last day...

9:19 Worthy is the man that believes in Allah and the last day and fight for Allah’s cause.

9:20 Those that have embraced the faith and left their homes and fought for Allah’s cause with their wealth and persons are held in higher regard by Allah. It is they who shall triumph. Their Lord has promised them joy and mercy, and gardens of eternal bliss where they shall dwell forever. Allah’s reward is great indeed.

9:25 Allah has given you victory on many battlefields.

9:27 Allah will show mercy to whom he will.

9:29 Fight against such of those to whom the Scriptures were given as believe neither in Allah nor the last Day, who do not forbid what Allah and his apostle have forbidden, and do not embrace the true faith, until they pay tribute out of hand and are utterly subdued.

9:30 The Jews say Ezra is the Son of God, while Christians say the Messiah is the Son of God. Such are their assertions, by which they imitate the infidels of old. Allah (Himself) fights against them. How perverse are they.

9:33 It is he who has sent forth his apostle with guidance and true faith to make it triumphant over all religions.

9:36 You may fight against idolaters in all those months since they fight against you in all of them.

9:39 If you do not go to war, He will punish you severely, and replace you by other men.

9:41 Whether unarmed or well-equipped, march on and fight for the cause of Allah, with your wealth and with your persons.

9:49 Some say “Give us leave to stay behind...” Hell shall engulf the unbelievers.

9:61 Those that wrong the apostle of Allah shall be sternly punished.

9:63 The man who defies Allah and His apostle shall abide forever in the fire of Hell.

9:73 Prophet, make war on the unbelievers and the hypocrites and deal harshly with them. Hell shall be their home: an evil fate.

9:81 They said to each other: “Do not go to war, the heat is fierce.” Say unto them “More fierce is the heat of Hell-fire.”... thus shall they be rewarded for their misdeeds.

9:93 The offenders are those that seek exemption although they are men of wealth...

9:95 Hell shall be their home, the punishment for their misdeeds.

9:103 Take alms from them, so that they may thereby be cleansed and purified.

Note: This teaches the error of earning salvation by giving money.

9:111 Allah has purchased from the faithful their lives and worldly goods and in return has promised them the Garden. They will fight for the cause of Allah, slay, and be slain. Such is the true promise which he has made them in the Torah, the Gospel, and the Koran. And who is more true to His people than Allah? Rejoice then in the bargain you have made. That is the supreme triumph.

9:122 It is not right that all the faithful should go to war at once.

9:123 Believers, make war on the infidels who dwell around you. Deal harshly with them. Know that Allah is with the righteous.

JONAH

10:3 Unbelievers say: “This man is a skilled enchanter.”

10:4 Allah created the heaven and earth in 6 days. (11:7).

10:38 This Koran...confirms what was revealed before it and fully explains the Scriptures. (Wrong).

10:69 They say: “Allah has begotten a son.” God forbid.

10:74 We saved Noah and those who were with him in the ark.

10:95 If you (Mohammed) doubt what we have revealed to you, then ask those who read the scriptures that were before you. Note: Any Bible informed Christian will deny the Koran.

10:101 None can have faith (believe) except by the will (permission) of Allah.

HUD (v.50 Prophet of Arabia)

11:34 If Allah’s will is to keep you astray.

11:42,43 Noah cried to his son who stood apart “Come ride with us, and be not with the unbelievers!” He replied: “I shall seek refuge in a mountain, which will protect me from the flood.” The wave rolled between them and Noah’s son was drowned. Note: There were no mountains before the Flood (Gen7:19)

11:114 Good deeds annul ill deeds. Note: This teaches the error of salvation by good works.

11:119 The word of your Lord shall be fulfilled: “I will fill Hell with jinn and mankind together.”

JOSEPH. Jacob is portrayed as a prophet who was not deceived by his sons’ story of Joseph’s death, but strangely enough is distressed through a suspension of his clairvoyance, that he cannot see what has become of Joseph.

12:111 It is no invented story but a confirmation of the existing scriptures...(Wrong).

12:96 He threw Joseph’s shirt over the old man’s face, & he regained his sight.(False, not in the Bible).

THUNDER (v.13 Reward and punishment result from obeying or rejecting Allah’s laws).

13:7,27 The unbelievers ask: “Why has no sign been given him by his Lord?”

Note: The Biblical apostles were given signs: “Confirming the word with signs following.” Mark 16:20 13:42 Allah is the master of all scheming (plotting).

Note: So is the Devil. If Allah can scheme, plot and deceive, then Muslims think they can do so as well.

ABRAHAM (v.35-41 Abraham’s prayer).

14:9 Their apostles came to them with clear signs (proofs).

Question: If Bible apostles had clear signs, why did Mohammed have no signs? Ans:He is not a prophet 14:16 Hell is before him, and he is made to drink a festering water (liquid pus), which he will sip, but can hardly swallow.

AL-HIJR (v.80-84 where the fate of those dwelling at AL-HIJR is described).

15:1 A glorious Koran

15:17,18 We have guarded the heavens from every cursed outcast devil. Eavesdroppers are pursued by fiery comets.

15:28-38 Allah said to the angels: “...fall down and prostrate yourselves unto Adam.” (1). Then all the angels prostrated themselves, except Satan. Allah asks Satan why he won’t bow down to Adam.

Satan said: “I will not bow to a mortal whom you created of dry clay...” (2,3).

Allah says: “Be gone, my curse shall be on you till Judgment day.” (4).

Satan asks Allah: “Reprieve me till the day of Resurrection.”

Allah agrees: “You are reprieved till the appointed day.” (5).

Satan says to Allah: “Since you have seduced me, I will tempt mankind on earth.” (6).

Allah replies: “You shall have no power over my servants, only the sinners who follow you. They are all destined for hell.” Notice 6 errors in this passage:

- 1) In the Bible, God never told angels to fall down to Adam.
- 2) By Satan refusing, Satan is shown to be doing right.
- 3) God’s curse on Satan seems unjust, thus attacking God’s justice.
- 4) Satan is seen manipulating God out of being cursed.
- 5) Satan’s excuse for tempting mankind, is because God seduced him.
- 6) God only gives Satan power over those destined for hell. God predestines nobody to hell.

THE BEE (v.68. Bees actions are typical of duty and usefulness).

16:43 Ask the People of the Book, if ye know not.

16:57 They assign unto Allah daughters.

16:101 When we change one verse for another (Allah knows best what he reveals), they say, “You (Mohammed) are an imposter.”

16:106 Those who deny Allah after professing Islam and open their bosoms to unbelief shall incur the wrath of Allah, grievous punishment awaits them.

Note: This means death to those who leave Islam.

16:115 He has forbidden you carrion, blood, and the flesh of swine; also any flesh consecrated other than in the name of Allah.

16:126 If you punish, let your punishment be commensurate with the wrong done to you. But it shall be best for you to endure your wrongs with patience.

16:127 Do not grieve for the unbelievers.

THE NIGHT JOURNEY/ THE CHILDREN OF ISRAEL

(v.1 relates Mohammed's vision, in which he was carried by night on a heavenly steed to the Temple at Jerusalem, from where he claims that he was caught up through 7 heavens to the presence of Allah).

Note: The Temple of Jerusalem had been destroyed by Rome in 70 AD and did not exist in Mohammed's day. This reference is why Muslims regard Jerusalem as holy and want control of it.

17:36 Do not follow what you do not know. (7 commandments in v.31-37.)

17:44 The 7 heavens, the earth, and all who dwell in them give glory to Him.

17:45 When you recite the Koran, we place between you and those who deny the life to come a hidden barrier.

17:47 The wrong-doers declare: "The man (Mohammed) you follow is surely bewitched."

17:78 Recite your prayers at sunset, at nightfall, and at dawn. Pray during the night as well.

17:101 To Moses we gave 9 clear signs. Note: False. He was given 10 signs. (Exodus 7:14-11:1).

17:104 We said to the Israelites: "Dwell in the land. When the promise of the hereafter comes to be fulfilled, we shall assemble you all together." (Out of various nations).

Note: This is a clear false prophecy, because Israelites have already been assembled in the land, and the promise of the hereafter (ie. Day of Judgement) has not yet happened. This is one reason why devout Muslims want Israelites destroyed and out of the land.

17:111 Cry unto Allah and say: "Praise be to Allah who has never begotten a son; who has no partner in His kingdom; who needs none to defend Him from humiliation."

Note: This denies Jesus Christ being the Son of God & God the Son. Thus Islam is antichrist (I John 2:22)

THE CAVE

This contains the myth of 7 youths who slept in a cave for a long time, and of Dhul Qarneyn (Alexander the Great) who travelled to the sunrise and sunset regions of the earth.

18:4.5 Admonish those who say that Allah has begotten a son.

A monstrous blasphemy is that which they utter. They preach nothing but falsehood.

18:84-91. See v.87: They will ask you about Dhul-Qarnayn (Alexander the Great). Say . . . "he followed a road until he reached the West and saw the sun setting (the setting place of the sun) in a pool of black mud. Hard by he found a certain people."

18:90,91 Then he followed a road till, when he reached the rising-place of the sun, he found it rising on a people for whom we had appointed no shelter therefrom.

Note: The sun does not set in a pool of black mud, nor does it have a fixed rising place. Mohammed in 620AD did not know how the earth moves around the sun. This is a clear scientific error in the Koran, showing that it cannot be from the true God.

MARY (v.16 ...)

19:16-23 The story of Mary . . . We sent to her Our Spirit in the semblance of a full grown man . . . who said I have come to give you a holy son. Mary said, "How shall I bear a child when I have neither been touched by any man nor ever been unchaste?" Thus did your Lord speak: "That is easy enough for me." When she felt the throes of childbirth, she lay down by the trunk of a palm tree.

Note: From this we learn the following:

- 1) Muslims agree that God has a Spirit. Christians call him the Holy Spirit.
- 2) Christ being virgin born is 'easy enough for God' so why should Muslims protest God having a Son?
- 3) This teaches the virgin birth of Christ.
- 4) This does not confirm the Bible, but contradicts it, because Mary gave birth to Jesus in a stable, not under a palm tree.

19:29- How can we speak with a babe in the cradle? Whereupon he (Jesus) spoke and said, “he has purged me of vanity and wickedness. Blessed was I on the day I was born, and blessed I shall be on the day of my death and on the day I shall be raised to life”. Such was Jesus, the Son of Mary, that is the whole truth. God forbid that He himself should beget a son.

Note: From this we learn that:

- 1) Jesus claimed to be sinless, making him greater than Mohammed.
- 2) Jesus states that He will die and be raised to life. This contradicts 4:157 which denies that He died.
- 3) Jesus rising from the dead, makes him greater than Mohammed who remains dead.
- 4) Jesus speaking from the cradle is clearly false and not in the Bible. It does not confirm the Bible.

19:71 There is not one among you who shall not pass through it (the fire of hell v.68): such is the absolute decree of your Lord. We will deliver those who fear us, and leave the wrongdoers there.

Note: This states that every Muslim will spend time in hell. What a shocking prospect to face. Islam thus offers nothing to solve man’s fear of death. This means that even Mohammed went to hell.

The Bible says, “He that has the Son has life”. Whoever wrote the Koran wants people to go to hell.

19:88 Those who say: “The Lord of mercy has begotten a son” preach a monstrous falsehood, at which the heavens might crack, the earth break asunder, and the mountains crumble to dust.

Note: The hatred of the Koran to God having a Son is to be compared with Satan’s hatred of Christ. (Revelation 12:4).

TAHA (v.1)

20:113 Thus we have revealed it as a lecture (Quran) in Arabic, and have displayed therein certain threats, that they may keep them from evil, or that it may cause them to take heed.

Note: Almost half the verses in the Koran are threats of punishment, torture or hell fire for those who don’t do what the Koran says. Fear is a major motive for Muslims in the Koran.

THE PROPHETS (the history of the former prophets).

21:33 The sun and the moon: They float each in an orbit. Note: This idea that the sun moves in an orbit is clearly false. It only seems that way as it appears to cross the sky.

Note: This is scientifically false. The sun does not move in an orbit. It only appeared this way to the 7th Century Arabians.

21:35 Every soul shall taste death. This is false, because Enoch (Genesis 5:24) and Elijah did not die. Christians living when Christ returns will be caught up to heaven without dying. (I Corinthians 15:51-53)

NOAH

21:76 We saved him (Noah) and all his kinsfolk from the great calamity.

Contradiction: This contradicts 11:42,43 which states that one of Noah’s sons was drowned.

PILGRIMAGE (v.26-38 Pilgrimage to Mecca).

22:19 Garments of fire have been prepared for the unbelievers. Scalding water shall be poured upon their heads, melting their skins and that which is in their bellies.

22:21 They shall be lashed with hooked rods of iron.

22:22 Whenever, in their anguish, they try to escape from hell, back they shall be dragged.

22:27 Exhort all men to make the pilgrimage. Let them spruce themselves, make their vows and circle the Ancient House. Such is Allah’s commandment. He that reveres the sacred rites shall fare better – in Allah’s sight.

22:47 A day with Allah is as 1000 years of what ye reckon.

22:65 Allah holds the sky from falling down upon the earth.

Note: False! Nonsense! because the sky is gas, empty space, not something that can fall down on us.

22:78 Fight for the cause of Allah with the devotion due to him. He hath named you “Muslims” (those who have surrendered).

THE BELIEVERS (v.1) (The Triumph of believers).

23:1-6 Blessed are the believers . . . who restrain their carnal desires (except with their wives and slave girls, for these are lawful to them).

23:91 Never has Allah begotten a son. Note: John 1:14,18; 3:16,18; Hebrew 1:5; I John 4:9 refute this. Mohammad did not know that Greek has 2 words for “son” (Huios=“same nature as” God, & Teknon “child”), nor that “only begotten” (“monogenes” in Greek) means “same in every detail” as God.

LIGHT (v.25-40 The Light of God should shine in believers' homes).

24:2 The adulterer and adulteress shall each be given 100 lashes.

24:4 Those who accuse (defame) honourable women and cannot produce 4 witnesses shall be given 80 lashes.

24:43 From heaven's mountains he sends down the hail. Note: False! Hail comes from clouds.

AL-FUROQAN (v.1 "The Criterion" of right and wrong).

Subject is: The folly of superstition and craving for miracles.

25:5 And they say: "Fables of the ancients he has written".

THE POETS (v.224 where the difference between poets (those who say what they don't mean) and prophets (he who always practises what he preaches) is pointed out.

THE ANT (v.18).

27:12 One of 9 signs to Pharaoh. Note: False. There were 10 miraculous plague signs (Exod 7:14-11:1). Water to blood, Frogs, Lice, Flies, Cattle disease, Boils, Hail/Fire, Locusts, Darkness, Firstborn died.

27:16 Solomon said: "We have been taught the language of birds."

27:17 Solomon's forces of jinn, man, birds were called to Solomon's presence & ranged in battle array

27:28 When they came to the Valley of the Ants, an ant said, "Go into your dwellings, ants, lest Solomon and his warriors should unwittingly crush you."

This is clearly a fable, that birds and ants talk with Solomon.

THE STORM (v.25) of Moses' struggles and triumph.

28:38 Pharaoh said: "Make me, Haman, bricks of clay and build for me a tower that I may climb to the God of Moses".

Note: The error is that the Koran has Pharaoh (1500 BC) living alongside Haman (510 BC) who built the Tower of Babel (2250 BC). This is a serious mistake in the Koran because 7th Century Arabs thought of time as in cycles, not as we think of it as linear. This is fatal to the Koran's claim of Divine inspiration.

28:77 Allah does not love the evildoers.

THE SPIDER (v.41 False beliefs are like a spider's web for frailty).

29:46 Be courteous when you argue with the People of the Book, except with those among them who do evil. Say: "We believe in that which is revealed to us, and which was revealed to you. Our God and your God is one."

Note: This is absolutely false. Allah and the God of the Bible (Jehovah) have very different natures and personalities. Allah is the moon god of 6th Century Arabia. In reality Muslims do not believe in the Bible. If they did, they would study it, obey it and worship Jesus Christ as Saviour and God. This is a trick to convert ignorant nominal Christians to Islam, saying we worship the same God. Exodus.20:2,3.

29:69 Those that fight for our cause we will surely guide to our own paths.

THE GREEKS (Dawood translation). THE ROMANS (Pickthall's translation of Koran). (v 2).

30:2 "The Greeks have been defeated." (Dawood).

"The Romans have been defeated." (Pickthall). 2 translations of the Koran contradict each other.

30:45 He does not love the unbelievers.

30:47 We sent before you apostles to their peoples, and they showed them veritable signs.

Question: Why did Jesus, Biblical apostles and prophets show signs, but Mohammed show no signs?

LUQMAN (v.12-34 mentions the wisdom of Luqman).

PROSTRATION (v.15).

32:5 All will ascend to him in a single day, a day whose space is 1000 years.

32:13 "I will surely fill Hell with jinn and humans all." Note: Allah (like Satan) wants people to go to hell, but the God of the Bible is not willing that any should perish in hell. (2 Peter 3:9).

THE CONFEDERATE TRIBES/THE CLANS

i) This Surah contains the siege of Mohammed's city Yathrib by the Qureysh and Ghatafan clans (Ibn Khaldan's narrative). V.26,27 refer to Mohammed's punishment of the Jewish tribe Bani Qureyzah who had broken their alliance with the Muslims and made common cause with the Qureysh. All their men were put to death, their women and children taken captive, and their property divided among the Muslims.

ii) 37- Mohammed ordered the divorce of his adopted son Zeyd from his wife Zeynab because Mohammed wanted to marry Zeynab. When people protested this, Mohammed claimed to have a command from Allah for Zeyd to divorce Zeynab and for Mohammed to marry Zeynab. Note: This screamingly contradicts the God of the Bible who punished the prophet David for taking Uriah's wife.

iii) Pickthall says, "With the exception of Aveshah, the daughter of his closest friend, Abu Baker, whom he married at her father's request when she was still a child, all his later marriages were with widows whose state was pitiable. . ." Koran (Pickthall) p. 428. Note: In the West this is paedophilia.

33:8 For the unbelievers He (Allah) has prepared a woeful punishment.

33:17 Say, "Who can protect you from Allah if it is His will to scourge you?"

33:30 Wives of the Prophet! Those of you who commit a proven sin (lewdness) will be doubly punished

33:37 You (Mohammed) said to the man (Zayd, Mohammed's adopted son) whom Allah and yourself have favoured: "Keep your wife and have fear of God". You sought to hide in your heart what Allah was to reveal (your intention to marry Zayd's wife). You were afraid of man . . . When Zayd divorced his wife, we gave her to you in marriage.

33:38 No blame shall be attached to the prophet for doing what is sanctioned for him by Allah.

Note: When David took another man's wife, God judged him.

33:50 Prophet, we have made lawful to you . . . the slave girls whom Allah has given you as booty; and any believing woman who gives herself to the Prophet and whom the Prophet wishes to take in marriage. This privilege is yours alone.

33:51 You may put off any of your wives you please, and take to your bed any of them you please.

33:52 It is unlawful for believers to take more wives....except where slave girls are concerned.

33:57 Those who speak ill of Allah and His Apostle shall be cursed by Allah in this life and in the life to come. He has prepared for them a shameful punishment.

33:59 Prophet, enjoin your wives, your daughters, and the wives of true believers to draw their veils close round them . . . so that they may be recognized and not molested.

33:64 Allah has cursed the unbelievers and prepared for them a blazing fire...on the day when their faces (heads) will roll about in the fire...Lord, mete out to them a double scourge, lay on them a mighty curse.

SHEBA (v.15 Sheba is in Yemen that was flooded).

34:5 Those who strive to refute our revelations shall suffer the torment of a harrowing scourge.

Note: Nobody is allowed to question the Koran.

34:43 Others say: "This (Koran) is nothing but an invented falsehood". Others declare: "This (Koran) is but plain sorcery".

34:51 If you could only see the unbelievers when they are seized with terror.

THE CREATOR or THE ANGELS (v.1).

35:43 Evil shall recoil on those that plot evil.

YASIN (v.1) This is regarded with reverence, and is recited in times of adversity, illness, fasting and approaching death.

36:8 We have bound their necks (unbelievers) with chains of iron reaching up to their chins, so that they cannot bow their heads.

36:39 The sun is not allowed to overtake the moon...Each in its own orbit runs. Note: Sun has no orbit

36:54 On that day the heirs of Paradise will be busy with their joys. Together with their spouses, they shall recline in shady groves upon soft couches. They shall have fruits and all that they desire.

THE RANKS (v.1,164-166 refer to Angels in ranks).

37:6 We have decked the lower heaven with constellations (Dawood), (Planets – Pickthall). They guard it against rebellious devils, so that they may not listen in to those on high. Meteors are hurled at them from every side . . . Eavesdroppers are pursued by fiery comets.

37:36 Are we to renounce our gods for the sake of a mad poet?

37:48,49 The true servants of Allah . . . shall sit with bashful, dark eyed virgins, as chaste as the sheltered eggs of ostriches.

37:62-68 We have made this (Zaqqum) tree a scourge for the unjust. It grows in the nethermost part of Hell, bearing fruit like devils heads: on it they shall feed, and with it they shall cram their bellies, together with draughts of scalding water. Then to hell they shall return.

37:147 Jonah . . . we sent him to a nation 100,000 strong or more.

(Jonah 4:11 states that Nineveh had 120,000 children under age about 7 who could not tell their left hand from their right hand. A total of 100,000 is way out.)

SAD (v.1 the first letter of this Surah).

38:25,26 David sought forgiveness of his Lord and fell down penitently on his knees. We forgave him his sin.

Question: How is it a sin for David to murder and take another man's wife (Bathsheba), and not a sin for Mohammed to murder and take another man's wife (Zeynab)? Allah has double standards between Mohammed and David. It appears that Mohammed is using Allah as a rubber stamp to endorse whatever he wants to do.

38:53 The righteous . . . reclining there with bashful virgins for companions, they will call for abundant fruit and drink.

38:56-58 The transgressors shall burn in hell, a dismal resting place. There let them taste their drink, scalding water, festering blood and other putrid things.

38:74-89 Satan cursed for not worshipping Adam.

THE THROGS or TROOPS (v.71,73).

39:16 Above them shall be sheets of fire and sheets of fire shall be beneath them. By this, Allah puts fear into his servants' hearts. (Note: Islam is a religion of fear and terror. With Christ love is the motive)

39:38 A Koran (lecture) in the Arabic tongue, free from any flaw, that they may guard themselves against evil. Note: The Koran has many flaws.

39:31 In throngs the unbelievers shall be led to hell. They will be told to enter the gates of hell and stay there forever.

THE BELIEVERS (v.28-45 describes a believer in Pharaoh's house trying to dissuade Egyptians from opposing Moses).

40:18 Warn them of the approaching day, when man's hearts will leap up to their throats & choke them

40:21 Allah scourged them for their sins . . . they had none to protect them.

40:36 Pharaoh said to Haman: "Build me a tower that I may reach the heavens and look upon the god of Moses."

Note: Pharaoh (1500 BC) and Haman (500 BC) never knew each other. Nor did they build a tower.

40:71 When with chains and shackles round their necks, they shall be dragged through scalding water and burnt in the fire of Hell.

REVELATIONS WELL EXPOUNDED (v.2).

41:9 Do you disbelieve in him who created the earth in 2 days? He set upon the earth mountains towering high above it. (FALSE). (Genesis 7:19 Mountains were raised up after the Flood, not before).

41:10 . . . in 4 days provided it with sustenance for all alike.

41:12 In 2 days He formed the sky into 7 heavens.

Note: Two mistakes in this are as follows:

i) According to Genesis 7:19,20 there were no towering high mountains before Noah's Flood. There were only high hills which the waters covered by 15 cubits (22 feet). Mountains formed after the Flood.

ii) According to Exodus 20:11, "In six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea and all that in them is," not 8 days.

41:16 . . . more shameful still will be the scourge of the life to come.

41:17 The thunderbolt of a humiliating scourge struck them for their misdeeds.

41:19 Forewarn them of the day when the enemies of Allah will be brought together & led into the Fire

41:26 Unbelievers say: "Give no heed to this Koran. Cut short its recital with booring and laughter. . . We will sternly punish the unbelievers . . . The Fire shall for ever be their home."

41:33 Who speaks better than he who calls men to serve Allah, does what is right and says "I am a Muslim?"

41:34 Requite evil with good, and he who is your enemy will become your dearest friend.

Note: This is contradicted by Q42:40 "Let evil be rewarded with like evil."

COUNSEL (v.38).

42:15 say “I believe in all the Scriptures that Allah has revealed.”

Note: This, they say includes the Bible, yet Muslims do not believe, study or obey the Bible.

42:26 Grievous punishment awaits the unbelievers.

42:30 If a misfortune befalls you, it is the fruit of your own labours (what your right hands have earned.)

Note: This is false from experience and from Bible characters who were persecuted for righteousness. Were Job’s, Jesus’, Joseph’s and Daniel’s suffering due to their own sins? No.

42:45 Wrongdoers shall surely suffer everlasting torment.

ORNAMENTS OF GOLD (v.35).

43:30 Now the truth has come to them, they say: “This is sorcery. We utterly reject it.”

43:36 He that does not heed the warning of the Merciful shall have a devil for his companion.

43:63 When Jesus came with evident signs, he said: “I have come to give you wisdom . . . Fear God and follow me.”

Note: Jesus gave evident signs/miracles, but Mohammed could not. Hence Jesus is greater than Mohammed. Jesus commands Muslims to “Follow me”. Do Muslims obey this?

43:70 Enter Paradise, you and your wives, in all delight. Abiding there forever, you shall find all that your souls desire and all that your eyes rejoice in.

43:74 Evildoers shall endure forever the torment of Hell. Their punishment will never be lightened, and they shall be speechless with despair.

43:81 Say to Christians: “If the Lord of Mercy had a son, I would be the first to worship him”.

Note: The prophets refute the Koran here by saying that God does have a Huios Son, not a Teknon Son: Solomon (Proverbs 30:4), Daniel (3:25), David (Psalm 2:7,12), even Gabriel (Luke 1:32,35).

SMOKE

44:14-16 They denied him (Mohammed) saying: “A madman taught by others”. On that day we will inflict on them the supreme punishment and avenge ourself.

44:43-48 The fruit of the Zaqqum tree shall be the sinners’ food. Like molten brass, like scalding water, it shall simmer in his belly. A voice will cry, “Seize him and drag him into the depths of hell. Then pour scalding water over his head.”

44:51 As for the righteous, they shall be lodged in peace together amidst gardens & fountains, arrayed in rich silks & fine brocade. We shall wed them to dark eyed houris. They shall call for every kind of fruit. Note: This shows clearly that the Koran comes from man and not from God, because these good things are the best that a 7th Century Arab male could imagine heaven to be. The True God would have things in heaven beyond our understanding.

Question: What about Muslim women? What will they have? Who will they wed? Dark eyed houris?

KNEELING

45:9 Those that deride our revelations when they know but little of them shall suffer degrading torment Hell is behind them.

45:11 Those that deny their Lord’s revelations shall suffer the anguish of a woeful scourge.

45:28 You will see every nation on its knees. (Question: Even today’s Muslim nations?)

Note: All this terror, horror, threats of hell, scourge, torment is not borne out by the love of God to man seen in the Bible, Christ’s preaching and in beautiful creation. “The goodness of God leads us to repentance.” (Romans 2:4) not threats.

45:33 The scourge at which they scoffed will encompass them.

45:34 The Fire shall be your home and none will help you.

THE SAND DUNES (v.20).

46:11 Unbelievers say: “This is an ancient lie.”

46:20 We shall say to unbelievers: “Your reward will be degrading torment”. (46:34).

MOHAMMED (v.2).

47:4-6 When you meet the unbelievers in the battlefield strike off their heads, and when you have laid them low, bind your captives firmly . . . thus shall you do. Had Allah willed, He could Himself have punished them; but He has ordained it thus that He might test you. As for those who are slain in the cause of Allah . . . He will admit them to the Paradise.

47:15 Therein (Paradise) shall flow rivers of water undefiled, and rivers of milk for ever fresh; rivers of wine . . . and rivers of clear honey. They shall eat therein of every fruit and receive forgiveness from their Lord. Those in Hell forever shall drink scalding water which will tear their bowels.

47:20 When war is mentioned . . . they faint away for fear of death. Should war be decided upon, it would be better for them to be true to Allah.

47:25,27 Those who turn back (from Islam)..angels shall gather them, smiting their faces&their backs

47:33 Believers, obey Allah and obey the Apostle.

47:35 Do not falter or sue for peace when you have gained the upper hand. Allah is on your side, and will not grudge you the reward of your labours.

VICTORY

48:6 Allah is angry with them (hypocrites, idolaters). He has laid on them his curse and prepared for them the fire of Hell.

48:13 As for those that disbelieve in Allah and His apostle, we have prepared a blazing fire for the unbelievers.

48:16 Say to the desert Arabs who stayed behind: “You shall be called upon to fight a mighty nation, unless they embrace Islam.”

Note: Here Muslims are told to fight to convert non Muslims.

48:28 It is He that has sent forth his apostle . . . so that He may exalt it above all religions.

48:29 Mohammed is Allah’s apostle. Those who follow him are ruthless (hard) against the unbelievers, but merciful to one another.

THE CHAMBERS (v.4).

49:15 The true believers are those that have faith in Allah and never doubt; and who fight with their wealth and their persons for the cause of Allah.

QAF

50:6 How we built the sky up, . . . leaving no crack in its expanse.

FALSE: 7th Century Arabs thought the sky was a solid dome without a crack. It is just gas and space.

50:7 We spread out the earth and set upon it immovable mountains.

FALSE: Mountains move during earthquakes.

52:11 contradicts this: “On that day.... the mountains move and pass away.” See Revelation 16:18-20.

56:5 “The mountains crumble away”.

50:24 A voice will cry: “Cast into Hell every hardened unbeliever”.

THE WINDS (v.1).

51:12,13 On the Day of Judgment they shall be scorched in the Fire.

51:47,48 We built the heaven . . . giving it a vast expanse, and stretched the earth beneath it.

Note: False. The earth was not stretched flat beneath heaven. It is a spherical planet.

THE MOUNTAIN

52:13 On that day they (unbelievers) shall be sternly thrown into the fire of hell . . . burn in its flames.

52:20 They (righteous) shall recline on couches ranged in rows. To dark-eyed houris we shall wed them. Question: What benefits do women have in heaven? No comment.

52:24 There shall wait on them young boys of their own, as fair as virgin pearls. (Is this pedophilia?)

THE STAR (v.1).

53:1,2,3 By the declining star, your compatriot (Mohammed) is not in error, nor is he deceived. He does not speak out of his own fancy.

53:19 Have you thought on AL-LAT and AL-UZZA, and on MANAT, the third other.

Note: These are names that early Meccans gave to Allah’s daughters.

53:32 To those who avoid the grossest sins and indecencies, and commit only small offences, your Lord will show abundant mercy.

Note: This allows Muslims to commit sins that they define as “only small offences”. This proves the Koran came from a sinful human mind, not from the Holy God of the Bible who sees all sin as sinful

THE MOON (v.1).

54:1 The hour of doom is drawing near,&the moon is cleft in two.(How can the moon be split in two?)

54:48 On the day when wrongdoers are dragged into the Fire upon their faces, we shall say to them: “Feel the touch of Hell”.

THE MERCIFUL

55:35 Flames of fire shall be lashed at you, and molten brass.

55:41 The wrongdoers . . . shall be seized by their forelocks and their feet.

55:44 They shall wander between fire and water fiercely seething.

55:56 There are bashful virgins whom neither man nor jinnee will have touched before.

Virgins as fair as corals and rubies.

55:72 In each (garden) there shall be virgins chaste and fair. Dark eyed virgins sheltered in tents, whom neither man nor jinnee will have touched,

55:76 They shall recline on green cushions and fine carpets.

THAT WHICH IS COMING (v.1).

56:22-24 Theirs shall be the dark-eyed houris, chaste as hidden pearls; a reward for their deeds.

56:35-38 We created the houris and made them virgins, loving companions for those on the right hand. Those on the left hand. . . . shall dwell among scorching winds and scalding water.

56:52-54 As for you sinners who deny the truth, you shall eat the fruit of the Zaqqum tree and fill your bellies with it. You shall drink scalding water.

56:92-95 If he is an erring disbeliever, his welcome will be scalding water, and he will burn in hell.

This is surely the indubitable truth.

IRON (v.25).

57:10 Those of you that gave of their wealth before the victory, and took part in the fighting, shall receive greater honour than others who gave and fought thereafter.

57:15 The fire shall be your home (unbelievers and hypocrites): you have justly earned it, a dismal end.

57:19 Those that disbelieve our revelations and deny them are the heirs of Hell.

57:22 Every misfortune that befalls the Earth, or your own persons, is ordained before we bring it into being. Note: This creates an attitude of fatalism, passivity, and lack of initiative because all is foreordained.

57:25 We have sent our apostles with veritable signs, and through them have brought down scriptures and the scales of justice, so men might conduct themselves with fairness.

Note: This fairness/justice are found in the Bible. Mohammed gave no miraculous signs & no fairness.

57:27 Jesus, the son of Mary. We gave him the Gospel and put compassion and mercy in the hearts of his followers.

Question: What is the Gospel that Jesus preached that can save sinners from sin and hell?

Answer: That Christ died for our sins, was buried and rose again the third day? (1 Corinthians 15:1-4).

SHE WHO PLEADED (v.1)

58:2 Those of you who divorce their wives by declaring them to be their mothers should know that they are not their mothers.

58:5 Those that oppose Allah and His apostle shall be brought low. Shameful punishment awaits the unbelievers

58:14 Do you not see those that have befriended a people with whom Allah is angry? Allah has prepared for them a grievous scourge. They are the inmates of the fire. There shall they abide forever.

EXILE (v.2-17 discuss the exile of a Jewish tribe, Bani Nadeir of Al-Madinah for treason against Mohammed. Hypocrites were lukewarm Muslims who sympathised with these Jews).

59:2 Allah's scourge fell on them (Jews) when they did not expect it, casting such terror into their hearts that their dwellings were destroyed by their own hands and by the faithful. In the world to come, the fire shall be their scourge because they have set themselves against Allah and his apostle.

59:7 The spoils taken from the town-dwellers and assigned by Allah to his apostle shall belong to Allah, to the apostle and his Kinsfolk, to orphans and to the destitute. Allah is stern in retribution.

SHE WHO IS TESTED (v.10).

60:1 If you came to fight for my cause, and out of a desire to please me, you left your city, how can you be friendly to them in secret? Note: This says that Muslims please Allah by fighting.

BATTLE ARRAY (v.4).

61:3 It is most hateful in Allah's sight that you should say one thing and do another.

Note: This contradicts 66:2 where Allah allowed Mohammed to say one thing and do another.

61:4 Allah loves those who fight for his cause in ranks as firm as a solid structure.

61:6 Jesus, the son of Mary, said to the Israelites, I am sent to you from Allah to confirm the Torah, and to give news of an apostle that will come after Me whose name is Ahmed (the praised one).

Note: Muslims claim that Mohammed was the fulfillment of Jesus' Prophecy in John 14:16-18; 16:7-14 of sending the Comforter. Jesus declared that this Comforter was the Holy Spirit, not Mohammed.

i) John 14:16 "Another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever."

Note: Mohammed died and did not abide with us forever.

The disciples never knew Mohammed, nor did Mohammed dwell with the disciples in 33AD.

ii) John 14:17 "ye shall know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you."

iii) John 14:26 "But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost"

iv) John 16:13 "When he, the Spirit of Truth, is come..."

v) John 16:14 "He shall glorify me (Jesus)..". Note: Mohammed did not glorify Jesus.

61:9 He sent his Apostle,... so that he may exalt it above all other religions.

61:10,11 Believers, shall I point out to you a profitable course that will save you from a woeful scourge? Have faith in Allah and his apostle, and fight for Allah's cause with your wealth and persons. That would be best for you, if you but knew it. He will forgive your sins and admit you to Gardens....

61:14 Believers, be Allah's helpers. When Jesus, the son of Mary, said to the disciples, "Who will come with me to the help of Allah?" The disciples replied, "We are Allah's helpers."

Note: Neither Jesus nor his disciples ever said this in New Testament. Allah is not mentioned in the NT FRIDAY or THE DAY OF CONGREGATION (v.9).

62:9 Believers, when you are summoned to Friday prayers hasten to the remembrance of Allah and cease your trading.

THE HYPOCRITES (v.1,8).

63:3,4 They believed and then renounced their faith... they are the enemy. Guard yourself against them. Allah confound them!

CHEATING (v.9 When good Muslims will cheat the damned of the places in paradise which would have been theirs had they been true believers.)

64:10 Those that disbelieve and deny our revelation shall be made the inmates of the Fire, and shall abide therein forever.

64:12,13 Obey Allah and obey the apostle. Allah! there is no god but him.

64:14 Believers you have an enemy in your wives and in your children: beware of them.

Note: What nonsense. The Bible says "Husbands love your wives as Christ loved the church." Eph 5:25

DIVORCE (v.1-7).

PROHIBITION (v.1 Mohammed was once found by his wife Hafsah with Maria, a beautiful Coptic slave girl, whom he had promised Hafsah he would separate from. To free Mohammed from his promise to Hafsah was the object of this chapter).

66:1,2 Prophet, why do you prohibit that which Allah has made lawful to you in seeking to please your wives? Allah has made lawful for you (Muslims) absolution from your oaths.

Note: Many Muslims, living like Mohammed, often think they can lie when it suits them.

66:9 Prophet, make war on the unbelievers and the hypocrites, and deal sternly with them. Hell shall be their home.

SOVEREIGNTY (v.1).

67:5 We have adorned the lowest heaven with lamps, missiles to pelt the devils with.

67:3 Turn up your eyes: Can you detect a single crack (in the sky)?

THE PEN (v.1).

68:15 When our revelations are recited to him he says: "They are but fables of the ancients." We shall brand him on the nose. Note: Unbelievers rightly said this because much in the Koran was copied from earlier writings such as 26 Arabian, Jewish and Christian sources into the Koran.

68:33 The punishment of the life to come is more terrible if they but knew it.

68:37,38,39 Have you a scripture that promises you whatever you choose?

...that you shall have what you yourselves ordain.

Note: No wonder Muslim terrorists kill people to go to such a place.

68:51 When they hear our revelations, unbelievers say "Surely he is possessed".

Note: When Mohammed gave a revelation, he would fall onto the ground in a trancelike fit. Witnesses thought him to be possessed.

THE CATASTROPHE (v.1). 69:16 The sky will be rent asunder on that day...

Note: Muslims thought the sky was solid that could crack or be split asunder, but it is gas.

69:30-36 We shall say “Bind him. Burn him in the fire of Hell, then fasten him with a chain 70 cubits long. For he did not believe in Allah. filth shall be his food...this is the utterance of a noble messenger.”

69:44-47 Allah says of Mohammed: “Had he invented lies concerning us, we would have seized him by the right hand and severed his heart vein:

Note: Mohammed sought to justify himself by this. It is foolish because, “Why does this not happen to others who tell lies about Islam?” Their heart vein is not severed when criticising the Allah of Islam.

THE LADDERS (v.3). 70:4 A day whose span is 50,000 years.

Note: This contradicts (32:5) where a day is 1000 years. Which is right?

70:15 The fire of Hell shall drag him down by the scalp.

70:22 Not so the worshipers, who... Dread the punishment of the Lord (for none is secure from the punishment of their Lord), who restrain their carnal desire (except with their wives and slave girls, for these are lawful to them).

Note: All Muslims fear Allah’s punishment, because none are secure from Allah’s punishment. Koran allows taking girls into sexual slavery. The God of the Bible is against slavery. God wills young women marry one man (I Cor.7:2-5; I Tim.1:10; 5:14). The Koran does not confirm earlier scriptures.

NOAH.

71:11 Noah said: “Seek forgiveness... He sends down abundant waters from the sky for you.”

Note: The Koran is wrong here because it claims Noah told his generation how God sends rain for their benefit. Yet Genesis 2:5,6 tells: “The Lord God had not caused it to rain upon the Earth... but there went up a mist from the Earth, and watered the whole face of the ground.” Nobody before the flood had ever seen rain, “By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet.” Hebrews 11:7.

71:15,16 Allah created the seven heavens one above the other, placing in them the moon for a light and the sun for a lantern? Question: What are these 7 heavens? Not defined. (5 planets, sun, moon). The Bible tells us of 3 heavens: the atmosphere, space, and where God’s throne is (II Cor. 12:2).

THE JINN. The Jinn are demon spirits lower than angels able to appear in human or animal form, and having supernatural power over man.

72:1 Say (Mohammed): “It is revealed to me that a band of jinn listened to Allah’s revelations and said: We have heard a wonderful Koran giving guidance to the right path. We believed in it and shall henceforth serve none besides Allah. He has taken no consort, nor has he begotten any children. The Blaspheming One among us has uttered a wanton falsehood against Allah. Some men have sought the help of the jinn, but they misled them into further error. We made our way to high heaven, and found it filled with mighty wardens and fiery comets. We sat eavesdropping, but eavesdroppers find flaming darts in wait for them. Some of us are Muslims and some are wrongdoers. Note:

- i) If demons endorse the Koran (saying that the Koran guides in the right path), then demons whose nature is evil and deception, tell us that the Koran is the wrong path for man. Do you trust demons?
- ii) Evil demons servicing Allah show that Allah is not the God of the Bible. Demons only serve Satan.
- iii) These demons deny that Jesus is God the Son. “Every Spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God, this is the spirit of the antichrist.” I John 4:3. See I John 2:2.
- iv) Muslims hate Christianity because they think we blaspheme by calling Jesus Christ “Son of God”.
- v) This passage teaches that demon Jinn lead men into error. Jinn have led the entire Muslim world into error. Paul rejected the support of demons (Acts 16:16-18). So should we.
- vi) v.8,9 claim that Allah sends fiery comets to hit jinn when they listen to conversations in heaven.
- vii) Verse 14 says that some jinn became Muslims by surrendering to Allah. If some demons are now Muslims and they help spread Islam, then Islam is a religion of demons.

“Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils, speaking lies in hypocrisy.” I Timothy 4:1,2.

72:23 Those that disobey Allah and His Apostle shall abide forever in the Fire of Hell.

Note: Mohammed, in order to terrify people into submission to his will, equated his will with Allah’s will, threatening them with going to hell fire if they disobeyed his/Allah’s commands.

THE MANTLED ONE

73:1 You that are wrapped up in your mantle, keep vigil all night, save for a few hours; half the night or less and recite the Koran.

Note: Psalm 127:2 “It is vain for you to rise up early, to sit up late, to eat the bread of sorrows: for so he giveth his beloved sleep.” The Devil wants to rob the Muslims of God’s gift of a full nights sleep.

73:8 Remember the name of Allah and dedicate yourself to him utterly... there is no god but him . Accept him as your protector.

73:12 We have in store for them (unbelievers) heavy fetters and a blazing fire, choking food and harrowing torments.... mountains shall crumble into heaps of shifting sand.

73:20 Your Lord knows that you (Mohammed) sometimes keep vigil nearly two thirds of the nightRecite from the Koran as many verses as you are able. He knows that others are fighting for the cause of Allah. What ever good you do, you shall be...richly rewarded by him.

THE CLOAKED ONE, 74:24 Unbelievers said: “This is but sorcery counterfeited, the speech of a mere mortal man”. I will surely cast him into the fire. It burns the skins of men.

THE RESURRECTION

75:6-9 When will be the day of resurrection? When Sun and the Moon are brought together.

Note: These bodies are 93 million miles apart but to Muslims of 600AD they looked close.

MAN, 76:4 For the unbelievers we have prepared chains and fetters and a blazing fire.

Note: The God of the Bible loves sinners, died for them, wants them to go to heaven, and is not willing that any should perish. He prepared everlasting fire for the Devil & his angels, not for man (Mat 25:44). Allah of the Koran delights in sending people to hell. He is very different from the God of the Bible.

THOSE THAT ARE SENT FORTH

77:29 Woe on the day to the unbelievers! Begone to that hell which you deny.

THE TIDINGS

78:21 Hell will lie in ambush, a home for the transgressors. There they shall abide long ages; there they shall taste neither refreshment or drink, save scalding water and decaying filth: a fitting recompense.

78:31 As for the righteous, they shall surely triumph. Theirs shall be the gardens and vineyards, and high-bosomed maidens for companions: a truly overflowing cup.

THE CESSATION 81:22 No, your compatriot (Mohammed) is not mad, He saw him (Gabriel) on the clear horizon.. nor is this the utterance of an accursed devil.

THE CATAclysm, 82:14 The wicked shall burn in hell upon the Judgment Day nor shall they escape from it

THE UNJUST 83:16 They shall burn in Hell.

THE RENDING 84:14 He shall call down destruction on himself and burn in the fire of hell.

THE MOST HIGH 87:12 He shall burn in the gigantic fire, where he shall neither die nor live.

THE OVERWHELMING EVENT.

88:1-7 On that day there shall be downcast faces, of men broken and worn out, burnt by a scorching fire, drinking from a scalding fountain. Their only food shall be bitter thorns.

THE CITY 90:4 We created man to try him with afflictions.

THE PROOF 98:4-6 The unbelievers among the People of the Book and all the pagans shall burn forever in the fire of hell. They are the vilest of all creatures (worst created beings).

Note: i) The Koran tells Muslims that Jews and Christians are the vilest and worst of all creatures. This partly explains why many Muslims hate Jews and Christians, particularly Israel and America.

ii) The Koran tell Muslims that Jews and Christians will burn forever in the fire of Hell.

God loves Israel (Jeremiah 31:3; Isaiah 43:4), Christians (John 13:34,35) and all the World (John 3:16).

AL-LAHAB (Mohammed’s grandfather’s first cousin who opposed him). 111:1-5 May the hands of Abu-lahab perish. May he himself perish. He shall be burned in a flaming fire, and his wife laden with firewood, shall have a rope of fibre round her neck.

UNITY 112:1-4 SayAllah is One, the Eternal god. He begot none, nor was he begotten. None is equal to him

THE SLANDERER 104:4 He shall be flung into the destroying flame.

THE ELEPHANT, 105:2 Did he not confound their stratagem and send against them flocks of birds which pelted them with clay stones, so that they became like withered stalks of plants.

Note: Birds dropping stones on an invading Ethiopian army that flattened and destroyed them is fiction.

121. Koran Arranged into Topics. These explain why many Muslims behave as they do.

1. TERROR commanded by the Koran (5 references).

3:151 Obey Allah and the Apostle that you may find mercy. We shall put terror in the hearts of the unbelievers, because they ascribe unto Allah partners...their habitation is the Fire.

Note: i) This permits Muslims to commit acts of terror.

ii) The Koran refers to Christians as hellbound because we believe that Jesus is the Son of God.

8:12 Allah revealed his will to the angels saying: “I shall cast terror into the hearts of the infidels, strike off their heads, strike off the very tips of their fingers...that was because they defied Allah and his apostle.”

8:59 Let not the unbelievers think that they will ever get away...Muster against them all the men and cavalry at your command, so that you may strike terror into the enemy of Allah, and your enemy and others beside them who are unknown to you but known to Allah.

34:51 If you could only see the unbelievers when they are seized with terror.

59:2 Allah's scourge fell on them (Jews) when they did not expect it, casting such terror into their hearts that their dwellings were destroyed by their own hands and by the faithful. In the world to come, the fire shall be their scourge because they have set themselves against Allah and his apostle.

2. FIGHTING commanded in the Koran (61 references).

2:216 Fighting is obligatory for you, much as you dislike it.

But you may hate a thing although it is good for you. Allah knows.

2:218 Those that have embraced the faith and those that have fled their land and fought for the cause of Allah, may hope for Allah's mercy.

2:244 Fight for the cause of Allah.

2:246 The Israelites demanded of one of their prophets: “Raise up for us a king and we will fight for the cause of Allah. He replied: “What if you refuse to fight when ordered to do so?” They said: “Why should we refuse to fight for the cause of Allah?” But when at last they were ordered to fight, they all refused except a few of them. Allah knows the evil-doers.”

Note: i) This comes from 1 Samuel 8:1-22 which says: “Make us king to judge us like all the nations” (v.5) .. “that our king may judge us, and go out before us, fight our battles.” (v.20).

The people gave no promise here to fight for the cause of Allah, nor did the Koran's alleged conversation take place.

ii) This passage in the Koran portrays Allah declaring as evil-doers those who refused to fight. This motivates Muslims to fight if they wish to please Allah.

2:273 As for those needy men who, being wholly pre-occupied with fighting for the cause of Allah, cannot travel the land in quest of trading ventures... whatever alms you give are known to Allah.

Note: Here the Koran teaches that it is right to sponsor terrorism by paying those who fight for Allah.

3:125 If you have patience and guard yourselves against evil, Allah will send to your aid 5000 angels, if they suddenly attack you.

Note: This angelic assistance promised to Muslims gives them confidence to provoke war.

3:157,158 If you should die or be slain in the cause of Allah, His forgiveness and mercy would be better than all the riches they amass. (If you should die or be slain) before Allah you shall all be gathered. Note: This promises heaven to all Muslims who die fighting for the cause of Allah.

3:169 Never think that those who were slain in the cause of Allah are dead. No, they are alive, and well provided for by their Lord. Allah will not deny the faithful their reward.

3:195 Those who fought and were slain (for my cause): I shall forgive their sins and admit them to gardens watered by running streams, as a reward from Allah.

4:66 Had we commanded them saying: “Lay down your lives”...only a few would have complied. Yet had they done what they were admonished to do, it would have been better for them... We would have bestowed on them from ourself a rich reward.

4:74 Let those who would exchange the life of this world for the hereafter, fight for the cause of Allah; whoever fighters for the cause of Allah, whether he dies or triumphs, we shall richly reward him.

4:76 True believers fight for the cause of Allah.

4:77 When they were ordered to fight, some of them feared man as much as they feared Allah. They said: "Lord, why do you bid us fight? Could you not give us a brief respite?"

4:84 Therefore fight for the cause of Allah. Rouse the faithful: perchance Allah will overthrow the might of the unbelievers.

4:91 If these do not keep their distance from you, nor offer you peace, nor cease their hostilities against you, lay hold of them, and kill them wherever you find them.

4:94 Believers, show discernment when you go to fight for the cause of Allah.

4:95 i) The believers who stay at home are not the equals of those who fight for the cause of Allah, with their goods and persons.

ii) Allah has given those that fight with their good & persons a higher rank than those that stay at home

iii) Far richer is the reward of those who fight for Allah.

Note: Jesus said: "all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword." Matthew 26:52.

"if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight." John 19:36.

4:100 He that leaves his dwelling to fight for Allah and his apostle, and is then overtaken by death, shall be rewarded by Allah.

Note: This reminds us of terrorists who go overseas to fight for Allah and who die as a result.

4:104 Seek out your enemies relentlessly.

Note: Jesus said: "Love your enemies." Matthew 5:44.

4:141 Allah will not let the unbelievers triumph over the faithful.

Note: This is false as seen by Charles Martel of Europe who defeated the Muslim invaders at the Battle of Tours in 732 AD. This promise makes Muslims feel invincible in warfare.

5:35 Fight valiantly for His cause, so that you may triumph.

7:167 He would raise against them (Jews) others who will oppress them cruelly till the day of Resurrection

8:39 Make war on them until idolatry shall cease and Allah's religion shall reign supreme.

8:65 Prophet, rouse the faithful to arms. O Prophet, exhort the believer to fight. If there are 20 steadfast among you, they shall vanquish 200; and if there are 100, they shall route 1000 unbelievers, for they are devoid of understanding.

8:67 A prophet may not take captives until he has fought and triumphed (made slaughter) in the land.

8:69 Enjoy the good and lawful things you have gained in war.

8:74 Those that have..fought for the cause of Allah, sheltered & helped them, they are the true believers

9:5 When the sacred months are over, slay the idolaters wherever you find them. Arrest them, besiege them and lie in ambush everywhere for them.

9:12 If, after coming to terms with you, they break their oaths, and revile your faith, make war on the leaders of unbelief.

9:14 Make war on them: Allah will chastise them at your hands and humble them. He will grant you victory over them.

9:19 Worthy is the man that believes in Allah and the last day and fighters for Allah's cause.

9:20 Those that have embraced the faith and left their homes and fought for Allah's cause with their wealth and persons are held in higher regard by Allah. It is they who shall triumph. Their Lord has promised them joy and mercy, and gardens of eternal bliss where they shall dwell forever. Allah's reward is great indeed.

9:25 Allah has given you victory on many battlefields.

9:29 Fight against such of those to whom the Scriptures were given as believe neither in Allah nor the last Day, who do not forbid what Allah and his apostle have forbidden, and do not embrace the true faith, until they pay tribute out of hand and are utterly subdued.

9:30 The Jews say Ezra is the Son of God, while Christians say the Messiah is the Son of God. Such are their assertions, by which they imitate the infidels of old. Allah (Himself) fighters against them. How perverse are they.

Note: Jesus warned about groups like Islam who think that God wants them to kill Christians:

"..the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service." John 16:2.

9:33 It is he who has sent forth his apostle with guidance and true faith to make it triumphant over all religions.

9:36 You may fight against idolaters in all those months since they fight against you in all of them.

9:39 If you do not go to war, He will punish you severely, and replace you by other men.

9:41 Whether unarmed or well-equipped, march on and fight for the cause of Allah, with your wealth and with your persons.

9:49 Some say “Give us leave to stay behind...” Hell shall engulf the unbelievers.

9:73 Prophet, make war on the unbelievers and the hypocrites and deal harshly with them. Hell shall be their home: an evil fate.

9:81 They said to each other: “Do not go to war, the heat is fierce.” Say unto them, “More fierce is the heat of Hell-fire.”...thus shall they be rewarded for their misdeeds.

9:93 The offenders are those that seek exemption although they are men of wealth...

9:95 Hell shall be their home, the punishment for their misdeeds.

9:111 Allah has purchased from the faithful their lives and worldly goods and in return has promised them the Garden. They will fight for the cause of Allah, slay, and be slain. Such is the true promise which he has made them in the Torah, the Gospel, and the Koran. And who is more true to His people than Allah? Rejoice then in the bargain you have made. That is the supreme triumph.

9:122 It is not right that all the faithful should go to war at once.

9:123 Believers, make war on the infidels who dwell around you. Deal harshly with them. Know that Allah is with the righteous.

22:78 Fight for the cause of Allah with the devotion due to him. He hath named you “Muslims” (those who have surrendered).

29:69 Those that fight for our cause we will surely guide to our own paths.

47:4-6 When you meet the unbelievers in the battlefield strike off their heads, and when you have laid them low, bind your captives firmly . . . thus shall you do. Had Allah willed, He could Himself have punished them; but He has ordained it thus that He might test you. As for those who are slain in the cause of Allah . . . He will admit them to the Paradise.

47:20 When war is mentioned . . . they faint away for fear of death. Should war be decided upon, it would be better for them to be true to Allah.

47:35 Do not falter or sue for peace when you have gained the upper hand. Allah is on your side, and will not grudge you the reward of your labours.

48:16 Say to the desert Arabs who stayed behind: “You shall be called upon to fight a mighty nation, unless they embrace Islam.”

Note: Here Muslims are told to fight to convert non Muslims.

48:29 Mohammed is Allah’s apostle. Those who follow him are ruthless (hard) against the unbelievers, but merciful to one another.

49:15 The true believers are those that have faith in Allah and never doubt; and who fight with their wealth and their persons for the cause of Allah.

57:10 Those of you that gave of their wealth before the victory, and took part in the fighting, shall receive greater honour than others who gave and fought thereafter.

Note: This motivates Muslims to start wars and conflicts, so as to get greater rewards from Allah.

60:1 If you came to fight for my cause, and out of a desire to please me, you left your city, how can you be friendly to them in secret?

Note: This says that Muslims please Allah by fighting.

61:4 Allah loves those who fight for his cause in ranks as firm as a solid structure.

61:10,11 Believers, shall I point out to you a profitable course that will save you from a woeful scourge? Have faith in Allah and his apostle, and fight for Allah’s cause with your wealth and persons. That would be best for you, if you but knew it. He will forgive your sins and admit you to Gardens....

66:9 Prophet, make war on the unbelievers and the hypocrites, and deal sternly with them. Hell shall be their home.

73:20 Your Lord knows that you (Mohammed) sometimes keep vigil nearly two thirds of the night.... Recite from the Koran as many verses as you are able. He knows that others are fighting for the cause of Allah. What ever good you do you shall be....richly rewarded by him.

3. WOMEN mistreated in the Koran. (20 References) 2:228 Men have a status above women.

2:221 You shall not wed pagan women, unless they embrace the faith.

2:223 Women are your fields: go, then, into your fields whence you please,

Note: Women are here compared to an impersonal field of dirt to be used for a man's own benefit.

The Bible gives much greater honour to wives in 1 Peter 3:7: "Husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife,.... as being heirs together of the grace of life."

4:3 If you fear that you cannot treat orphan girls with fairness, then you may marry other women who seem good to you. 2, 3, or 4 of them. But if you fear that you cannot maintain equality among them, marry one only or any slave girls you may own.

Note: This endorsement of the Koran that a man is allowed to marry as many slave girls as he wishes, inevitably leads to them being treated as second class citizens, and denies them the chance of having an husband who is exclusively their own. It denies many men the chance of ever getting married.

4:11 A male shall inherit twice as much as a female.

4:15 If any of your women commit fornication, call in 4 witnesses from among yourselves against them; if they testify to their guilt confine them to their houses till death overtakes them, or till Allah finds another way for them.

Question: What penalty exists for men committing fornication? None. He can fornicate by having a "temporary marriage" called Mutah, or a one-night stand.

4:20 If you wish to replace a wife with another, do not take from her the dowry you have given her...

4:34 Men have authority over women because God has made the one superior to the other, and because they spend their wealth to maintain them.

4:34 As for those from whom you fear disobedience, admonish them, send them to their beds apart, and beat (scourge) them. Note: The Arabic word "beat" is "edribu-hunna" means small or severe.

Note: Here the Koran encourages men to scourge (beat severely) their wives even on the suspicion of disobedience. (No limit on the beating's severity). The Bible never permits domestic violence, but commands "husbands love your wives as Christ loved the church and gave himself for it." (Eph. 5:25).

23:1-6 Blessed are the believers . . . who restrain their carnal desires (except with their wives and slave girls, for these are lawful to them). Note: The Koran here legitimises slavery of females.

33. THE CONFEDERATE TRIBES/THE CLANS

i) This Surah contains the seige of Mohammed's city Yathrib by the Qureysh and Ghatafan clans (Ibn Khaldun narrative). V.26,27 refer to Mohammed's punishment of the Jewish tribe Bani Qureyzah who had broken their alliance with the Muslims & made common cause with the Qureysh. All their men were put to death, their women and children taken captive & their property divided among the Muslims

ii) 37- Mohammed ordered the divorce of his adopted son Zeyd from his wife Zeynab because Mohammed wanted to marry Zeynab. When people protested this, Mohammed claimed to have a command from Allah for Zeyd to divorce Zeynab and for Mohammed to marry Zeynab.

iii) Pickthall says, "With the exception of Aveshah, the daughter of his closest friend, Abu Baker, whom he married at her father's request when she was still a child, all his later marriages were with widows whose state was pitiable. . ." Koran (Pickthall) p.428. In the West, this is Paedophilia.

33:30 Wives of the Prophet! Those of you who commit a proven sin/lewdness will be doubly punished

33:37 You (Mohammed) said to the man (Zayd, Mohammed's adopted son) whom God and yourself have favoured: "Keep your wife and have fear of God". You sought to hide in your heart what Allah was to reveal (your intention to marry Zayd's wife). You were afraid of man . . . When Zayd divorced his wife, we gave her to you in marriage.

33:38 No blame shall be attached to the prophet for doing what is sanctioned for him by Allah.

Note: When David took another man's wife, God judged him.

38:25,26 David sought forgiveness of his Lord and fell down penitently on his knees. We forgave him his sin.

Question: How is it a sin for David to murder and take another man's wife (Bathsheba), and not a sin for Mohammed to murder and take another man's wife (Zeynab)? Allah has double standards between Mohammed and David. It appears that Mohammed is using Allah as a rubber stamp to endorse whatever he wants to do.

33:50 Prophet, we have made lawful to you . . . the slave girls whom Allah has given you as booty; and any believing woman who gives herself to the Prophet and whom the Prophet wishes to take in marriage. This privilege is yours alone.

33:51 You may put off any of your wives you please, and take to your bed any of them you please.

33:52 It is unlawful for believers to take more wives...except where slave girls are concerned.

33:59 Prophet, enjoy your wives, your daughters, and the wives of true believers to draw their veils close round them . . . so that they may be recognized and not molested.

58:2 Those of you who divorce their wives by declaring them to be their mothers should know that they are not their mothers.

64:14 Believers you have an enemy in your wives and in your children: beware of them.

Note: What rubbish! The Bible says "Husbands love your wives as Christ loved the church." Eph. 5:25.

70:22 Not so the worshippers, who . . . Dread the punishment of the Lord (for none is secure from the punishment of their Lord), who restrain their carnal desire (except with their wives and slave girls, for these are lawful to them.). Note: All Muslims must live in fear of Allah's punishment. "None are secure from Allah's punishment". The Koran allows taking girls into sexual slavery but the God of the Bible is against slavery and wills that the younger women marry one man only (I Cor. 7:2-5; I Tim. 1:10; 5:14).

4. DEATH to those leaving Islam (5 References)

2:217 Whoever of you recants and dies an unbeliever, . . . shall be the tenants of the Fire, wherein they shall abide forever.

Note: This verse keeps Muslims trapped in Islam for fear of hell.

4:89 If they desert you, seize them and put them to death wherever you find them.

Note: Fear of death is why so few people leave Islam.

16:106 Those who deny Allah after professing Islam and open their bosoms to unbelief shall incur the wrath of Allah, grievous punishment awaits them.

Note: This means death to those who leave Islam.

47:25,27 Those who turn back (from Islam) angels shall gather them, smiting their faces & their backs

63:3,4 They believed and then renounced their faith. . . they are the enemy. Guard yourself against them. Allah confound them!

5. ONLY true faith is Islam (7 References)

3:19 The only true faith in Allah's sight is Islam.

3:62 This is the whole truth: "There is no god but Allah."

3:85 He that chooses a religion other than Islam (surrender to Allah), it will not be accepted of him, and he will be a loser in the hereafter.

9:33 It is he who has sent forth his apostle with guidance and true faith to make it triumph over all religions.

48:28 It is He that has sent forth his apostle . . . so that He may exalt it above all religions.

61:9 He sent his Apostle, . . . so that he may exalt it above all other religions.

43:30 Now the truth has come to them, they say: "This is sorcery. We utterly reject it'."

6. PUBLIC OPINION about Mohammed, Allah and the Koran (16 References)

10:3 Unbelievers say: "This man is a skilled enchanter."

13:7,27 The unbelievers ask: "Why has no sign been given him by his Lord?"

Note: The Biblical apostles were given signs: "Confirming the word with signs following." Mark 16:20

16:101 When we change one verse for another (Allah knows best what he reveals), they say, "You (Mohammed) are an imposter."

17:47 The wrong-doers declare: "The man (Mohammed) you follow is surely bewitched."

25:5 And they say: "Fables of the ancients he has written."

34:43 Others say: "This (Koran) is nothing but an invented falsehood." Others declare: "This (Koran) is but plain sorcery".

37:36 Are we to renounce our gods for the sake of a mad poet?

41:26 Unbelievers say: “Give no heed to this Koran. Cut short its recital with booing and laughter...” We will sternly punish the unbelievers . . . The Fire shall for ever be their home.

44:14-16 They denied him (Mohammed) saying: “A madman taught by others”. On that day we will inflict on them the supreme punishment and avenge ourself.

46:11 Unbelievers say: “This is an ancient lie.”

53:1,2,3 By the declining star, your compatriot (Mohammed) is not in error, nor is he deceived. He does not speak out of his own fancy.

53:19 Have you thought on AL-LAT and AL-UZZA, and on MANAT, the third other.

Note: These are names that early Meccans gave to Allah’s daughters.

68:15 When our revelations are recited to him he says: “They are but fables of the ancients.” We shall brand him on the nose. Note: Unbelievers rightly said this because much in the Koran was copied from earlier writings such as 26 Arabian, Jewish and Christian sources.

68:51 When they hear our revelations, unbelievers say “Surely he is possessed”.

Note: When Mohammed gave a revelation, he would fall onto the ground in a trancelike fit. Witnesses thought him to be possessed. No Bible prophet did this. This is a sign of demon possession (Mark 9:20)

81:22 No, your compatriot (Mohammed) is not mad. He saw him (Gabriel) on the clear horizon.. nor is this the utterance of an accursed devil.

7. HELL’S TORMENTS in the Koran to motivate Muslims to obey Mohammed (70 References)

2:217 Whoever of you recants and dies an unbeliever,... shall be the tenants of the Fire, wherein they shall abide forever.

Note: This verse keeps Muslims trapped in Islam for fear of hell.

3:4 Those who disbelieve Allah’s revelations shall be sternly punished.

3:11 Allah is severe in punishment.

3:12 Say to the unbelievers: “You shall be overthrown and driven into hell.”

4:56 Those that deny our revelations we will burn in the Fire. No sooner will their skins be consumed than we shall give them other skins, so that they may truly taste the scourge.

Note: What terror inducing rubbish! Thankfully the love & permanent salvation of Jesus Christ delivers us from such fear. (John 10:28). Jesus said, “I give unto them eternal life, and they shall never perish.”

11:119 The word of your Lord shall be fulfilled: “I will fill Hell with jinn and mankind together.”

14:16 Hell is before him, and he is made to drink a festering water (liquid pus), which he will sip, but can hardly swallow.

19:71 There is not one among you who shall not pass through it (the fire of hell v.68): such is the absolute decree of your Lord. We will deliver those who fear us, and leave the wrongdoers there.

Note: This states that every Muslim will spend time in hell. What a shocking prospect to face. Islam thus offers nothing to solve man’s fear of death. The Bible says, “He that has the Son has life”. This means that even Mohammed went to hell. Whoever wrote the Koran wants people to go to hell.

20:113 Thus we have revealed it as a lecture (Quran) in Arabic, and have displayed therein certain threats, that they may keep them from evil, or that it may cause them to take heed.

Note: Many of the verses in the Koran are threats of punishment, torture or hell fire for those who don’t do what the Koran says. Fear is a major motive for Muslims in the Koran. In Hebrews 2:15, Christ’s salvation, “delivers them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.”

22:19 Garments of fire have been prepared for the unbelievers. Scalding water shall be poured upon their heads, melting their skins and that which is in their bellies.

22:21 They shall be lashed with hooked rods of iron.

22:22 Whenever, in their anguish, they try to escape from hell, back they shall be dragged.

32:13 “I will surely fill Hell with jinn and humans all.”

33:8 For the unbelievers He (Allah) has prepared a woeful punishment.

33:17 Say, “Who can protect you from Allah if it is His will to scourge you?”

33:64 Allah has cursed the unbelievers and prepared for them a blazing fire on the day when their faces (heads) will roll about in the fire. Lord, mete out to them a double scourge, lay on them a mighty curse.

34:5 Those who strive to refute our revelations shall suffer the torment of a harrowing scourge.

Note: Nobody is allowed to question the Koran. 978

37:62-68 We have made this (Zaqqum) tree a scourge for the unjust. It grows in the nethermost part of Hell, bearing fruit like devils heads: on it they shall feed, and with it they shall cram their bellies, together with draughts of scalding water. Then to hell they shall return.

38:56-58 The transgressors shall burn in hell, a dismal resting place. There let them taste their drink, scalding water, festering blood and other putrid things.

39:16 Above them shall be sheets of fire and sheets of fire shall be beneath them. By this, Allah puts fear into his servants' hearts. Note: Islam appears as a religion of fear and terror.

39:31 In throngs the unbelievers shall be led to hell. They will be told to enter the gates of hell and stay there forever.

40:18 Warn them of the approaching day, when men's hearts will leap up to their throats & choke them

40:21 Allah scourged them for their sins . . . they had none to protect them.

40:71 When with chains and shackles round their necks, they shall be dragged through scalding water and burnt in the fire of Hell.

41:16 . . . more shameful still will be the scourge of the life to come.

41:17 The thunderbolt of a humiliating scourge struck them for their misdeeds.

41:19 Forewarn them of the day when the enemies of Allah will be brought together & led into the Fire

42:26 Grievous punishment awaits the unbelievers.

42:45 Wrongdoers shall surely suffer everlasting torment.

43:74 Evildoers shall endure forever the torment of Hell. Their punishment will never be lightened, and they shall be speechless with despair.

44:43-48 The fruit of the Zaqqum tree shall be the sinners food. Like molten brass, like scalding water, it shall simmer in his belly. A voice will cry, "Seize him and drag him into the depths of hell. Then pour scalding water over his head."

44:14-16 They denied him (Mohammed) saying: "A madman taught by others". On that day we will inflict on them the supreme punishment and avenge ourself.

45:9 Those that deride our revelations when they know but little of them shall suffer degrading torment

45:10 Hell is behind them.

45:11 Those that deny their Lord's revelations shall suffer the anguish of a woeful scourge.

45:33 The scourge at which they scoffed will encompass them.

45:34 The Fire shall be your home and none will help you.

46:20,34 We shall say to unbelievers: "Your reward will be degrading torment".

48:6 Allah is angry with them (hypocrites, idolaters). He has laid on them his curse and prepared for them the fire of Hell.

48:13 Those that disbelieve in Allah & his apostle, we have prepared a blazing fire for the unbelievers.

50:24 A voice will cry: "Cast into Hell every hardened unbeliever".

51:12,13 On the Day of Judgment they shall be scorched in the Fire.

52:13 On that day they (unbelievers) shall be sternly thrown into the fire of hell . . . burn in its flames.

54:48 On the day when wrongdoers are dragged into the Fire upon their faces, we shall say to them: "Feel the touch of Hell".

THE MERCIFUL(???)

55:35 Flames of fire shall be lashed at you, and molten brass.

55:41 The wrongdoers . . . shall be seized by their forelocks and their feet.

55:44 They shall wander between fire and water fiercely seething.

56:52-54 As for you sinners who deny the truth, you shall eat the fruit of the Zaqqum tree and fill your bellies with it. You shall drink scalding water.

56:92-95 If he is an erring disbeliever, his welcome will be scalding water, and he will burn in hell. This is surely the indubitable truth.

57:15 The fire shall be your home (unbelievers and hypocrites): you have justly earned it, a dismal end.

57:19 Those that disbelieve our revelations and deny them are the heirs of Hell.

58:14 Do you not see those that have befriended a people with whom Allah is angry? (98:6). Allah has prepared for them a grievous scourge. They are inmates of the fire, there shall they abide forever.

61:10,11 Believers, shall I point out to you a profitable course that will save you from a woeful scourge? Have faith in Allah and his apostle, and fight for Allah's cause with your wealth and persons. That would be best for you, if you but knew it. He will forgive your sins and admit you to Gardens....

64:10 Those that disbelieve and deny our revelation shall be made the inmates of the Fire, and shall abide therein forever.

68:33 The punishment of the life to come is more terrible if they but knew it.

69:30-36 We shall say "Bind him. Burn him in the fire of Hell, then fasten him with a chain 70 cubits long. For he did not believe in Allah. filth shall be his food...this is the utterance of a noble messenger"

70:15 The fire of Hell shall drag him down by the scalp.

72:23 Those that disobey Allah and His Apostle shall abide forever in the Fire of Hell.

Note: Mohammed, in order to terrify people into submission to his will, equated his will with Allah's will, threatening them with going to hell fire if they disobeyed his/Allah's will.

73:12 We have in store for them (unbelievers) heavy fetters and a blazing fire, choking food and harrowing torments..... mountains shall crumble into heaps of shifting sand.

74:24 Unbelievers said: "This is but sorcery counterfeited, the speech of a mere mortal man". I will surely cast him into the fire. It burns the skins of men.

76:4 For the unbelievers we have prepared chains and fetters and a blazing fire.

Note: The God of the Bible loves sinners, died for them, wants them to go to heaven and is not willing that any should perish. He prepared everlasting fire for the Devil & his angels, not for man (Mat 25:44).

Allah of the Koran delights in sending people to hell. He is very different to the God of the Bible 77:29 Woe on the day to the unbelievers! Begone to that hell which you deny.

78:21 Hell will lie in ambush, a home for the transgressors. There they shall abide long ages; there they shall taste neither refreshment or drink, save scalding water and decaying filth: a fitting recompense.

82:14 The wicked shall burn in hell upon the Judgment Day nor shall they escape from it.

83:16 They shall burn in Hell.

84:14 He shall call down destruction on himself and burn in the fire of hell.

87:12 He shall burn in the gigantic fire, where he shall neither die nor live.

88:1-7 On that day there shall be downcast faces, of men broken and worn out burnt by a scorching fire, drinking from a scalding fountain. Their only food shall be bitter thorns.

98:4-6 The unbelievers among the People of the Book and all the pagans shall burn forever in the fire of hell. They are the vilest of all creatures (worst created beings).

Note: i) The Koran tells Muslims that Jews and Christians are the vilest and worst of all creatures. This partly explains why many Muslims hate Jews and Christians, particularly Israel and America.

ii) The Koran tell Muslims that Jews and Christians will burn forever in the fire of Hell. The Bible says that God loves Israel (Jeremiah 31:3; Isaiah 43:4), Christians (John 13:34,35) and all the World (John 3:16). "He that has the Son has life." I John 5:13.

104:4 He shall be flung into the destroying flame.

111:1-5 May the hands of Abu-lahab perish. May he himself perish. He shall be burned in a flaming fire, and his wife laden with firewood, shall have a rope of fibre round her neck.

8. CHRIST greater than MOHAMMED in the Koran (9 References)

19:29 Christ raised to life.

19:29 Christ sinless.

2:253 Christ did miracles, Moh didn't. We gave Jesus clear signs.2:118 Allah does not give us a sign

3:49 Jesus healed the blind, leper, and the dead. Jesus said:

"By Allah's leave I shall heal the blind man, and the leper, and raise the dead to life."

Christ's miracles prove that He is much greater than Mohammed who never did miracles.

5:46,47 Jesus... We gave him the gospel. Note: The Koran never defines the gospel of Christ but the Bible does (I Corinthians 15:1-4). Mohammed never preached the New Testament gospel.

43:63 When Jesus came with evident signs, he said: "I have come to give you wisdom . . . Fear God and FOLLOW me."

Note: Jesus gave evident signs/miracles, but Mohammed could not. Hence Jesus is greater than Mohammed. Jesus commands Muslims to "Follow me". Do Muslims obey this? 980

57:25 We have sent our apostles with veritable signs, and through them have brought down scriptures and the scales of justice, so men might conduct themselves with fairness.

Note: This fairness and justice are found in the Bible, not in the Koran.

57:27 Jesus, the son of Mary. We gave him the Gospel and put compassion and mercy in the hearts of his followers.

Question: Why couldn't Allah put compassion and mercy in the hearts of Muslims? (He is different).

Question: What is the Gospel that Jesus preached that can save sinners from sin and hell.

Answer: That Christ died for our sins, was buried and rose again the third day? (1 Cor.15:1-4).

70:22 Not so the worshipers, who... Dread the punishment of the Lord (for none is secure from the punishment of their Lord), who restrain their carnal desire (except with their wives and slave girls, for these are lawful to them.)

Note: All Muslims live in fear of Allah's punishment, since none are secure from Allah's punishment.

9. ANTI-CHRIST and ANTI-CHRISTIAN (People of the Book) quotes in the Koran (29 Quotes)

3:69 Some of the People of the Book (Jews and Christians), wish to mislead you.

3:70 People of the Book! Why do you disbelieve in the revelations of Allah? See 22 reasons page 993.

4:157 They did not kill him (Jesus), nor did they crucify him, but they thought they did... They did not slay him for certain. Allah lifted him up to himself. Note: This contradicts the prophets David (Psalm 22:16), Isaiah (53), Daniel (9:26), NT prophets, as well as Quran 19:33: "Blessed I shall be on the day of my death." and Q 3:55 "Allah said "O Isa! I will make you sleep and raise you to myself."

4:171 People of the Book (Christians): Believe in Allah and his apostles and do not say "THREE". God is but one God. God forbid that He should have a son.

Note: Yes Christians believe that God is one God, but that He has 3 parts (Father, Son, Holy Spirit) each of which is fully God. Jesus is fully God and fully man. As humans have a body, soul, and spirit, so God is Father, Son and Holy Spirit, all fully and equally God. The OT and the NT teach this.

5:16 Unbelievers are those who declare: "God is the Messiah, the son of Mary." Say, "Who could prevent Allah, if he so willed, from destroying the Messiah, the son of Mary, his mother, and all the people of the earth?" Note: This is what Satan wants. ("devour the man child". Revelation 12:3-5).

5:51 Believers (Muslims), take neither the Jews nor the Christians for your friends ... wrongdoers.

5:56 Believers (Muslims), do not seek friendship of the infidels and those who were given the Book (Bible) before you, who have made your religion a jest.

5:72 Unbelievers are those that say; "God is the Messiah, the son of Mary."

5:73 Unbelievers are those that say: "God is one of three."

5:116 Allah will say: "Jesus, son of Mary, did you ever say to mankind: "Worship me and my mother as gods beside Allah?""

Note: The Koran's error in thinking that the Trinity is God, Jesus and Mary.

6:102 How should he have a son when he had no consort?

9:29 Fight against such of those to whom the Scriptures were given as believe neither in Allah nor the last Day, who do not forbid what Allah and his apostle have forbidden, and do not embrace the true faith, until they pay tribute out of hand and are utterly subdued. Note: See John 16:2 "Whosoever kills you..."

9:30 The Jews say Ezra is the Son of God, while Christians say the Messiah is the Son of God. Such are their assertions, by which they imitate the infidels of old. Allah (Himself) fights against them. How perverse are they.

10:38 This Koran ... confirms what was revealed before it and fully explains the Scriptures. (False).

10:69 They say: "Allah has begotten a son." God forbid.

10:95 If you (Mohammed) doubt what we have revealed to you, then ask those who read the scriptures that were before you.

16:43 Ask the People of the Book, if ye know not.

17:111 Cry unto Allah and say: "Praise be to Allah who has never begotten a son; who has no partner in His kingdom; who needs none to defend Him from humiliation."

Note: This denies Jesus Christ being the Son of God and God the Son.

18:4.5 Admonish those who say that God has begotten a son.

A monstrous blasphemy is that which they utter. They preach nothing but falsehood.

19:88 Those who say: “The Lord of mercy has begotten a son” preach a monstrous falsehood, at which the heavens might crack, the earth break assunder, and the mountains crumble to dust.

Note: The Koran’s hatred to God having a Son is comparable to Satan’s hatred of Christ (Revelation 12:4). Mohammad did not know that Greek has 2 different words for “son”, huios and teknon.

23:91 Never has Allah begotten a son.

29:46 Be courteous when you argue with the People of the Book, except with those among them who do evil. Say: “We believe in that which is revealed to us, and which was revealed to you. Our God and your God is one.

Note: This is 100% false. Allah and the God of the Bible have very different natures and personalities. Allah is the moon god of 6th Century Arabia. In reality Muslims do not believe in the Bible. If they did, they would study it, obey it and worship Jesus Christ as Saviour and God. See p.1026.

34:5 Those who strive to refute our revelations shall suffer the torment of a harrowing scourge.

Note: Nobody is allowed to question the Koran.

36:8 We have bound their necks (unbelievers) with chains of iron reaching up to their chins, so that they cannot bow their heads.

43:81 Say to Christians: “If the Lord of Mercy had a son, I would be the first to worship him”.

Note: The prophets refute the Koran here by saying that God does have a Son: Solomon (Proverbs 30:4), Daniel (3:25), David (Psalm 2:7,12), even Gabriel (Luke 1:32,35).

72:1 Say (Mohammed): “It is revealed to me that a band of jinn listened to Allah’s revelations and said: We have heard a wonderous Koran giving guidance to the right path. We believed in it and shall henceforth serve none besides Allah. He has taken no consort, nor has he begotten any children. The Blaspheming One among us has uttered a wanton falsehood against Allah. Some men have sought the help of the jinn, but they misled them into further error. We made our way to high heaven, and found it filled with mighty wardens and fiery comets. We sat eavesdropping, but eavesdroppers find flaming darts in wait for them. Some of us are Muslims and some are wrongdoers. Note:

i) If demons endorse the Koran (by saying that the Koran guides in the right path), then demons whose nature is evil and deception, tell us that the Koran is the wrong path for man.

ii) Evil demons servicing Allah show that Allah is not the God of the Bible.

iii) These demons deny that Jesus is God the Son. “Every Spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God, this is the spirit of the antichrist.” I John 4:3.

iv) Muslims hatred of Christianity is because they think we are preaching blasphemy by calling Jesus Christ the Son of God.

v) This passage teaches that demon Jinn lead men into error. Jinn have led the entire Muslim world into error. Paul rejected the support of demons (Acts 16:16-18). So should we.

vi) v.8,9 claim that Allah sends fiery comets to hit jinn when they listen to conversations in heaven.

vii) Verse 14 says some jinn became Muslims by surrendering to Allah. If some demons are now Muslims and they help spread Islam, then Islam is a religion of demons.

“Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils, speaking lies in hypocrisy.” I Timothy 4:1,2.

98:4.5 The People of the Book ...are ordered to serve Allah, to worship none but him, to attend to their prayers, and to render the alms levy.

98:6 The unbelievers among the People of the Book and all the pagans shall burn forever in the fire of hell. They are the vilest of all creatures (worst created beings).

Note: i) The Koran tells Muslims that Jews and Christians (who don’t believe in Allah) are the vilest and worst of all creatures. This partly explains why many Muslims hate Jews and Christians, particularly Israel and America.

ii) The Koran tells Muslims that Jews and Christians will burn forever in the fire of Hell. The Bible says that God loves Israel (Jer 31:3; Isaiah 43:4), Christians (John 13:34,35)& all the World (John 3:16

112:1-4 Say Allah is One, the Eternal god. He begot none, nor was he begotten. None is equal to him. (Jesus claimed equality with God in John 5:18 “making himself equal with God.”

10. CONTRADICTIONS between the Bible and the Koran (35 References)

God never commanded Satan and the angels to bow down to Adam:

2:34 When we said to the angels: “Prostrate yourselves before Adam”, they all prostrated themselves except Satan who in his pride refused and became an unbeliever.

Note: This story is contrary to the Bible. It is recorded about 7 times in the Koran for no purpose but to lengthen the book. (2:34; 7:11; 15:30-33; 17:61,62; 18:50; 20:115; 38:75).

15:28-38 Allah said to the angels: “...fall down and prostrate yourselves unto Adam.”

All angels prostrated themselves, except Satan. Allah asked Satan why he won't bow down to Adam. Satan said: “I will not bow to a mortal whom you created of dry clay...”

Allah says: “Be gone, my curse shall be on you till Judgment day.” Satan asks Allah: “Reprieve me till the day of Resurrection.” Allah agrees: “You are reprieved till the appointed day.”

Satan says to Allah: “Since you have seduced me, I will tempt mankind on earth.”

Allah replies: “You shall have no power over my servants, only the sinners who follow you. They are all destined for hell.” Notice 6 errors in this passage:

1) In the Bible, God never told angels to fall down to Adam.

2) By Satan refusing, Satan is shown to be doing right.

3) God's curse on Satan seems unjust, thus attacking God's justice. Satan wants God to seem unjust.

4) Satan is seen manipulating God out of being cursed.

5) Satan's excuse for tempting mankind, is because God seduced him. This legitimises seduction.

6) God only gives Satan power over those destined for hell. (God doesn't predestine anyone to hell.)

7) If Allah is all-knowing, why did he ask Satan to tell him why he did not bow down? He should know

The Koran does not confirm the Bible, but contradicts it:

2:41 Have faith in my revelations which confirm your scriptures.

Note: The Koran does not confirm the Bible, but contradicts it on almost every page and on every doctrine, such as Salvation, God, and heaven. This lie is repeated in 2:89,91; 3:81;10:38; 12:111; 46:12. 5:48 The Koran confirms the Scriptures which came before it.

12:111 It is no invented story but a confirmation of the existing scriptures...

Gabriel and the Apostles refute the Koran:

2:97 Say: “Whoever is an enemy of Gabriel (who has by Allah's grace revealed to you the Koran... confirming previous scriptures)...an enemy of Allah, His angels, His apostles, of Gabriel, or Michael, will surely find that Allah is the enemy of the unbelievers.”

Note: The Koran in order to build acceptance and credibility claims support from previous sources of the truth such as God, angels, prophets, apostles, Gabriel and Michael. Their words in the Bible are totally different from the Koran. How many Muslims have carefully studied and understood the Bible?

Note: i) Michael the archangel stands for Israel (Daniel 12:1), but the Koran opposes Israel (98:6).

ii) Gabriel's message is opposite to the Koran's about Christ, “in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God... to a virgin (v.26,27). The angel said unto her “Fear not, Mary, for thou hast found favour with God. And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS. (v.30,31) He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest... of his kingdom there shall be no end. (v.32,33) that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.” (v.35). Luke 2:26-35.

The Koran denies that God has a Son, yet the Bible, the apostles, and prophets Daniel (3:25), David (Psalm 2), Solomon (Proverbs 30:4), and Gabriel all say that God has a Son. Whom do you believe?

Bible prophets do not support the Koran, but refute it:

2:136 Say: “We believe in Allah and that which is revealed to us (Koran); in what was revealed to Abraham, Ishmael, Isaac, Jacob and the tribes; to Moses, Jesus and the other prophets by their Lord.

Note: Again the Koran appeals to these men to support the Muslim faith. If Muslims studied their writings they would see how opposite their teachings are to Mohammed and to the Koran.

Divorced persons who marry another, cannot remarry each other:

2:230 If a man divorces his wife he cannot remarry her until she has wedded another man and been divorced by him; in which case it shall be no offence for either of them to return to the other.

Note: This clearly contradicts God's law given to Moses in Deuteronomy 24:1-4 “Her former husband which sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife,... for that is abomination before the Lord.”

Israel demands a King, not a fight:

2:246 The Israelites demanded of one of their prophets: “Raise up for us a king and we will fight for the cause of Allah. He replied: “What if you refuse to fight when ordered to do so?” They said: “Why should we refuse to fight for the cause of Allah?” But when at last they were ordered to fight, they all refused except a few of them. Allah knows the evil-doers.”

Note: i) This is from 1 Samuel 8:1-22 which says: “Make us a king to judge us like all the nations” (v.5) “that our king may judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battles.” (v.20).

The people gave no promise here to fight for the cause of Allah, nor did the Koran’s alleged conversation take place.

ii) This passage in the Koran portrays Allah declaring as evil-doers those who refused to fight. This motivates Muslims to fight in order to please Allah. “Devil ..was a murderer.” John 8:44; I John 3:15.

Saul confused with Gideon:

2:249 When Saul marched out with his army, he said: “Allah will prove you at a certain river. He that drinks from it shall cease to be my soldier, but he that... contents himself with a taste of it in the hollow of his hand, shall fight by my side.”

iii) Error in the Koran: The writer of the Koran here confused Saul (1100 BC) with Gideon (1250 BC). It was Gideon who God told to take his troops to a river to reduce their numbers from 10,000 to 300 by this same drinking test. (Judges 7:1-7).

Salvation cannot be purchased with money.

2:271 To give alms (money) in private is better and will atone for some of your sins.

Note: This teaches the error that man can buy his way into heaven. Psalm 49:7, Acts 8:20 refutes this.

Q: What about a poor man of no money? Does he go to hell, while a rich man buys his way to heaven?

2:284 Allah will forgive whom he will and punish whom he pleases.

3:81 When Allah made his covenant with the prophets, he said: “Here are the scriptures and wisdom which I have given you. Afterward there will come unto you a messenger (or apostle) to confirm them. You shall believe in him and help him.”

Note: This comes from Deuteronomy 18:18,19 where God says: “I will raise them (Israel) up a Prophet (Christ, not Mohammed) from among their brethren (Mohammed was not a Jew, but a Gentile Arabian), like unto thee (Moses), and will put my words in his mouth...”

Muslims claim that this prophecy refers to Mohammed, but the Prophet was Jesus Christ because:

i) Jesus was an Israelite, Mohammed was not.

ii) Jesus Christ prophesied the future, Mohammed did not.

iii) Jesus was like Moses in 63 ways, Mohammed was not. See Answers p.1087.

iv) Jesus spoke kind words of God, Mohammed spoke words of hate.

v) Jesus “went about doing good,” (Acts10:38), Mohammed gave terrorism, Jihad, suicide bombers, hatred.

3:96, 97 The first temple ever to be built for mankind was that at Bakkah (Mecca). In it there are clear signs and the spot where Abraham stood to pray... Pilgrimage to the House is a duty to Allah for all who can make the journey.

Note: i) There is no Biblical or historical evidence that Abraham ever visited Mecca.

ii) The Tabernacle, Solomon’s temple or Herod’s temple were earlier than the Kabah at Mecca.

3:166 The misfortune which befell you when the two armies met was ordained by Allah.

4:116 Allah will not forgive idolatry.

Note: Error in the Koran here. Jesus said: “All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.” Matthew 12:31,32.

4:124 Believers who do good works, both men and women shall enter paradise.

Note: This contradicts over 50 New Testament references that good works don’t save us. None of us are good compared to God. “Not of works, lest any man should boast.” Ephes. 2:8-10; Titus 3:5. p.387.

4:157 They did not kill him (Jesus), nor did they crucify him, but they thought they did... They did not slay him for certain. Allah lifted him up to himself.”

Note: This contradicts the prophets David (Psalm 22:16), Isaiah (53), Daniel (9:26), NT prophets, as well as Quran 19:33: “Blessed I shall be on the day of my death.”

4:163 We have revealed our will to you (Mohammed) as we revealed it to Noah, Abraham, Ishmael, Isaac, Jacob, Jesus, Job, Jonah, Aaron, Solomon and David.

Note: The true prophet David in Psalm 2:12 calls Jesus the “Son.” (“Kiss the Son.”) contradicting the false prophet Mohammed.

5:116 Allah will say: “Jesus, son of Mary, did you ever say to mankind: Worship me and my mother as gods beside God?”

Note: The Koran’s error in thinking that the Trinity is God, Jesus and Mary. Jesus accepted worship.

6:51 They have no guardian or intercessor besides Allah. Note: Jesus is our intercessor (I Timothy 2:5)

6:101 How should he have a son when he had no consort?

Did Allah create the heaven and the earth in 6 or 8 days?

7:24 Allah who created the heaven and the earth in 6 days.

10:4 Allah created the heaven and earth in 6 days (11:7).

41:9 Do you disbelieve in him who created the earth in 2 days? He set upon the earth mountains towering high above it. (FALSE).

41:10 . . . in 4 days provided it with sustenance for all alike.

41:12 In 2 days He formed the sky into 7 heavens.

Note: Two mistakes in this are as follows:

i) According to Genesis 7:19,20 there were no towering high mountains before Noah’s Flood because there were only high hills then which the waters covered by 15 cubits or 22 feet.

ii) According to Exodus 20:11, “In six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea and all that in them is,” not 8 days.

Mohammed was not described in the Torah and Gospel, it was Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit.

7:157 Those who follow the Prophet- whom they shall find described in the Torah and the Gospel.

7:179 We have predestined for hell numerous jinn and men. (Islam offers no hope to many people.)

9:103 Take alms from them, so that they may thereby be cleansed and purified.

Note: This teaches the error of salvation by giving money.

10:101 None can have faith (believe) except by the will (permission) of Allah.

11:34 If Allah’s will is to keep you astray.

11:114 Good deeds annul ill deeds. Note: This teaches the error of salvation by good works.

17:101 To Moses we gave 9 clear signs. Note: False. He was given 10 signs. (Exodus 7:14-11:1).

27:12 One of 9 signs to Pharaoh.

17:104 We said to the Israelites: “Dwell in the land. When the promise of the hereafter comes to be fulfilled, we shall assemble you all together.” (Out of various nations).

Note: This is a clear false prophecy, because Israelites have already been assembled in the land, and the promise of the hereafter (ie. Day of Judgement) has not yet happened. This is one reason why devout Muslims want Israelites destroyed and out of the land.

37:147 Jonah . . . we sent him to a nation 100,000 strong or more.

40:36 Pharaoh said to Haman: “Build me a tower that I may reach the heavens and look upon the god of Moses.” Note: Pharaoh (1500 BC) and Haman (500 BC) never knew each other.

53:32 To those who avoid the grossest sins and indecencies, and commit only small offences, your Lord will show abundant mercy.

Note: This allows Muslims to commit any sins that they define as “only small offences”. This proves the Koran came from a sinful human mind, not from the Holy God of the Bible who sees all sin as sinful 57:22 Every misfortune befalling the Earth, or your own persons, is ordained before we bring it to pass.

61:6 Jesus, the son of Mary, said to the Israelites, I am sent from you to Allah to confirm the Torah , and to give news of an apostle that will come after Me whose name is Ahmed (the praised one).

Note: Muslims claim that Mohammed was the fulfillment of Jesus’ Prophecy in John 14:16-18; 16:7-14 of sending the Comforter. Key: Jesus declared that this Comforter is the Holy Spirit, not Mohammed.

i) John 14:16 “Another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever.”

Note: Mohammed died and did not abide with us forever.

The disciples never knew Mohammed, nor did Mohammed dwell with the disciples in 33AD.

ii) John 14:17 “ye shall know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.”

iii) John 14:26 “But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost.”

iv) John 16:13 “When he, the Spirit of Truth, is come...”

v) John 16:14 “He shall glorify me (Jesus).” Note: Mohammed did not glorify Jesus.

61:14 Believers, be Allah’s helpers. When Jesus, the son of Mary, said to the disciples, “Who will come with me to the help of Allah?” The disciples replied; “We are Allah’s helpers.”

Note: Neither Jesus nor his disciples ever said this in New Testament.

71:11 Noah said: “Seek forgiveness... He sends down abundant waters from the sky for you.”

Note: The Koran is wrong here because it claims Noah told his generation how God sends rain for their benefit. Yet Genesis 2:5,6 tells “The Lord God had not caused it to rain upon the Earth... but there went up a mist from the Earth, and watered the whole face of the ground.” Nobody before the flood had ever seen rain, “By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet.” Hebrews 11:7.

90:4 We created man to try him with afflictions.

11. OBEY Allah and OBEY Mohammed (13 References)

Note: The Bible warns us to test, identify and reject false apostles:

i) “thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not and hast found them liars.” Rev. 2:2.

ii) Question: How do we try, test and identify true and false apostles?

Answer: By them doing miraculous signs “Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.” 2 Cor.12:12. Since Mohammed did no miracles, he fails the test of an apostle. We rightly identify him as a false apostle. “For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ...whose end is...” 2 Cor.11:13.

3:32 Say “Obey Allah and the Apostle (Muhammed).” If they give no heed, then Allah does not love the unbelievers. Note: The God of the Bible loves the world of unbelievers (John 3:16,17).

3:132 Obey Allah and the Apostle that you may find mercy.

3:151 We shall put terror in the hearts of the unbelievers, because they ascribe unto Allah partners ...their habitation is the Fire. Note: i) This permits Muslims to commit acts of terror.

ii) The Koran refers to Christians as hellbound because we believe Jesus is the Son of God.

4:80 He that obeys the Apostle (Mohammed) obeys Allah.

Note: This was a clever trick by Mohammed to manipulate people into obeying him. God said no such thing. Jeremiah 23:16 “Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Hearken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you vain (1891= vain in expectation, to lead astray): they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the Lord.”

5:34 Those that make war against Allah and his apostle and spread disorder in the land shall be put to death or crucified, or have their hands and feet cut off on alternate sides, or be banished from the land.

9:61 Those that wrong the apostle of Allah shall be sternly punished.

9:63 The man who defies Allah and His apostle shall abide forever in the fire of Hell.

33:57 Those who speak ill of Allah and His Apostle shall be cursed by Allah in this life and in the life to come. He has prepared for them a shameful punishment.

47:33 Believers, obey Allah and obey the Apostle.

48:13 As for those that disbelieve in Allah and His apostle, we have prepared a blazing fire for the unbelievers.

58:5 Those that oppose Allah and His apostles shall be brought low. Shameful punishment awaits the unbelievers.

59:7 The spoils taken from the town-dwellers and assigned by Allah to his apostle shall belong to Allah, to the apostle and his Kinsfolk, to orphans and to the destitute. Allah is stern in retribution.

64:12,13 Obey Allah and obey the apostle. Allah! there is no god but him.

72:23 Those that disobey Allah and His Apostle shall abide forever in the Fire of Hell.

Note: Mohammed, in order to terrify people into submission to his will, equated his will with Allah’s will, threatening them with going to hell fire if they disobeyed his/Allah’s commands.

Did Jesus Christ Die (19:29) or Did He not Die (4:157)?

4:157 They did not kill him (Jesus), nor did they crucify him, but they thought they did... They did not slay him for certain. Allah lifted him up to himself.

Note: This contradicts the prophets David (Psalm 22:16), Isaiah (53), Daniel (9:26), NT prophets, Quran 19:33: “Blessed I shall be on the day of my death.”

3:55 Allah: “Jesus, I will make you sleep & raise you”

19:29- How can we speak with a babe in the cradle? Whereupon he (Jesus) spoke and said, “he has purged me of vanity and wickedness. Blessed was I on the day I was born, & blessed I shall be on the day of my death and on the day I shall be raised to life”. Such was Jesus, the Son of Mary, that is the whole truth. God forbid that He himself should beget a son. Note: From this we learn that:

- 1) Jesus claimed to be sinless, making him greater than Mohammed.
- 2) Jesus states that He will die and be raised to life. This contradicts 4:157 which denies that He died.
- 3) Jesus rising from the dead, makes him greater than Mohammed who remains dead.
- 4) Jesus speaking from the cradle is clearly false and not in the Bible. It does not confirm the Bible.

12. UNSCIENTIFIC Statements in the Koran (14 References)

18:84-91. See v.86: They will ask you about Dhul-Qarnayn (Alexander the Great).

Say “he followed a road until he reached the setting place of the sun and saw the sun setting in a spring (pool) of black muddy water. Hard by he found a certain people.”

18:90-91 Then he followed a road till, when he reached the rising-place of the sun, he found it rising on a people for whom we had appointed no shelter therefrom.

Note: The sun does not set in a pool of black mud, nor does it have a fixed rising place. Mohammed in 620AD did not know how the earth moves around the sun.

This is a clear unscientific error in the Koran, showing that it cannot be from the true God.

22:65 Allah holds the sky from falling down upon the earth.

Note: This is false nonsense because the sky is gas/empty space, not something that can fall down on us

24:43 From heaven’s mountains he sends down the hail.

28:38 Pharaoh said: “Make me, Haman, bricks of clay and build for me a tower that I may climb to the God of Moses”.

Note: The error is that the Koran has Pharaoh (1500 BC) living alongside Haman (510 BC) who built the Tower of Babel (2250 BC). This is a serious mistake in the Koran. 7th Century Arabs thought of time as in cycles, not as we think of it as linear. This is fatal to the Koran’s claim of Divine inspiration.

36:39 The sun is not allowed to overtake the moon . . . Each in its own orbit runs.

Note: False. If the Koran was from God it would have said that the earth & moon have orbits, not the Sun

50:6 How we built the sky up, . . . leaving no crack in its expanse.

FALSE: 7th Century Arabs thought the sky was a solid dome without a crack. It is just space.

50:7 We spread out the earth and set upon it immovable mountains.

FALSE: Mountains move during earthquakes. 56:5 “The mountains crumble away.”

52:11 contradicts this: “On that day... the mountains move and pass away”. See Revelation 16:18-20.

51:47,48 We built the heaven . . . giving it a vast expanse, and stretched the earth beneath it.

Note: FALSE: The earth was not stretched flat beneath heaven. It is a spherical planet.

54:1 The hour of doom is drawing near, and the moon is cleft in two.

Question: How can the moon be split in two?

67:3 Turn up your eyes: Can you detect a single crack (in the sky)?

69:16 The sky will be rent asunder on that day... .

Note: Muslims thought the sky was solid that could crack or be split asunder, but it is gas.

75:6-9 When will be the day of resurrection? When Sun and the Moon are brought together.

Note: These bodies are 93 million miles apart but to Muslims of 600AD they looked close.

21:33 The sun and the moon: They float each in an orbit.

Note: This idea that the sun moves in an orbit is clearly scientifically false. The sun does not move in an orbit. It only seemed to cross the sky to the 7th Century Arabians. Should read “The earth & Moon”

13. PARADISE / HOURIS fabricated in the Koran (18 References)

2:25 Proclaim good tidings to those who have faith and do good works. They shall dwell in gardens ... fruit to eat. Wedded to chaste spouses, they shall abide therein forever.

Note: This Muslim concept of heaven is clearly man made because:

i) It only contains the best things imaginable to males of 7th Century Arabia: gardens, fruit, wine and sex with many women.

ii) Allah is rarely mentioned in the Muslim heaven.

iii) Women are rarely if ever mentioned in the Muslim heaven.

iv) There are no mentally stimulating benefits in the Muslim heaven such as service to God, opportunity to serve others, ruling in a new universe, only the satisfaction of selfish sensual desires.

3:15 The righteous shall be rewarded with... spouses of perfect chastity and contentment before Allah.

4:57 As for those that have faith and do good works, we shall admit them to the gardens... where, wedded to chaste spouses, they shall abide forever.

36:54 On that day the heirs of Paradise will be busy with their joys. Together with their spouses, they shall recline in shady groves upon soft couches. They shall have fruits and all that they desire.

37:48,49 The true servants of Allah . . . shall sit with bashful, dark eyed virgins, as chaste as the sheltered eggs of ostriches.

38:53 The righteous . . . reclining there with bashful virgins for companions, they will call for abundant fruit and drink.

43:70 Enter Paradise, you and your wives, in all delight. Abiding there forever, you shall find all that your souls desire and all that your eyes rejoice in.

44:51 As for the righteous, they shall be lodged in peace together amidst gardens and fountains, arrayed in rich silks and fine brocade. We shall wed them to dark eyed houris. They shall call for every kind of fruit.

Note: This shows clearly that the Koran comes from man and not from God, because these good things are the best that a 7th Century Arab male could imagine heaven to be. The True God would have things in heaven beyond our understanding.

Question: What about Muslim women? What will they have and who will they be wed to? Houris?

47:15 Therein (Paradise) shall flow rivers of water undefiled, and rivers of milk for ever fresh; rivers of wine . . . and rivers of clear honey. They shall eat therein of every fruit and receive forgiveness from their Lord. Those in Hell forever shall drink scalding water which will tear their bowels.

52:20 They (the righteous) shall recline on couches ranged in rows. To dark-eyed houris we shall wed them.

Question: What benefits do women have in heaven? No comment.

52:24 There shall wait on them young boys of their own, as fair as virgin pearls.

55:56 There are bashful virgins whom neither man nor jinnee will have touched before. Virgins as fair as corals and rubies.

55:72 In each (garden) there shall be virgins chaste and fair. Dark eyed virgins sheltered in tents, whom neither man nor jinnee will have touched,

55:76 They shall recline on green cushions and fine carpets.

56:22-24 Theirs shall be the dark-eyed houris, chaste as hidden pearls; a reward for their deeds.

56:35-38 We created the houris and made them virgins, loving companions for those on the right hand. Those on the left hand...shall dwell among scorching winds and scalding water.

68:37,38,39 Have you a scripture that promises you whatever you choose?

....that you shall have what you yourselves ordain.

Note: No wonder Muslim terrorists kill people to go to such a place.

78:31 As for the righteous, they shall surely triumph. Theirs shall be the gardens and vineyards, and high-bosomed maidens for companions: a truly overflowing cup.

14. NONSENSE or FARFETCHED passages in the Koran (21 References)

2:63-65 Two far-fetched fables are that:

i) Allah “raised the Mount (Sinai) above Israel when giving the covenant.” 4:154; 2:63,93.

ii) You have heard of those of you that broke the Sabbath. We said to them: “You shall be changed into detested apes.” We made their fate an example to their own generation...

2:259 Allah killed a man, and after 100 years brought him back to life.

This was a Jewish fable of the time that Mohammed put in the Koran.

2:260 Allah told Abraham to “Take four birds, draw them to you, and cut their bodies to pieces. Scatter them over the mountain tops, then call them back. They will come swiftly to you.”

This was a well known fable in Mohammed’s time.

3:49 Allah said: “I bring you a sign from your Lord. From clay I will make for you the likeness of a bird. I shall breathe into it and, by Allah’s leave it shall become a living bird.”

Note: This fable was copied from Thomas’ “Gospel of the Infancy of Christ” and placed in the Koran here. The Bible tells us that Jesus’ first miracle was at Cana of Galilee, not as a child. (John 2:11).

5:30 Raven taught Cain how to bury Abel.

5:60 Those whom Allah has cursed... transforming them into apes and swine. (7:166).

Note: This is unscientific. It never happens.

7:163 Each Sabbath the fish appeared before them floating on the water, but on week days they never came near them. Thus did we tempt them because they did wrong.

12:96 He threw Joseph’s shirt over the old man’s face, and he regained his sight. (False, not in Bible).

15:17,18 We have guarded the heavens from every cursed outcast devil. Eavesdroppers are pursued by fiery comets. (72:8).

27:16 Solomon said: “We have been taught the language of birds.”

27:17 Solomon’s forces of jinn and man and birds were called to Solomon’s presence, and ranged in battle array.

27:28 When they came to the Valley of the Ants, an ant said, “Go into your dwellings, ants, lest Solomon and his warriors should unwittingly crush you.”

This is clearly a fable, that birds and ants talk with Solomon.

37:6 We have decked the lower heaven with constellations (Dawood), (Planets – Pickthall). They guard it against rebellious devils, so that they may not listen in to those on high. Meteors are hurled at them from every side . . . Eavesdroppers are pursued by fiery comets.

42:30 If a misfortune befalls you, it is the fruit of your own labours (what your right hands have earned)

Note: This is false from experience and from Bible characters who were persecuted for righteousness. Were Job’s, Jesus’, Joseph’s and Daniel’s suffering due to their own sins? No.

43:36 He that does not heed the warning of the Merciful shall have a devil for his companion.

47:15 Therein (Paradise) shall flow rivers of water undefiled, and rivers of milk for ever fresh; rivers of wine . . . and rivers of clear honey. They shall eat therein of every fruit and receive forgiveness from their Lord. Those in Hell forever shall drink scalding water which will tear their bowels.

57:22 Every misfortune that befalls the Earth, or your own persons, is ordained before we bring it into being.

64:14 Believers you have an enemy in your wives and in your children: beware of them.

Note: Total nonsense. The Bible says “Husbands love your wives as Christ loved the church.” Eph 5:25

67:5 We have adorned the lowest heaven with lamps, missiles to pelt the devils with.

69:44-47 Allah says of Mohammed: “Had he invented lies concerning us, we would have seized him by the right hand and severed his heart vein.”

Note: Mohammed sought to justify himself by this foolish verse. It is foolish because, “Why does this not happen to others who tell lies about Islam?” Their heart vein is not severed when criticising Allah.

105:2 Did he not confound their stratagem and send against them flocks of birds which pelted them with clay stones, so that they became like withered stalks of plants.

Note: Birds dropping stones on an invading Ethiopian army that flattened and destroyed them is fiction.

15. SELF-CONTRADICTIONS in the Koran (16 References)

1) 2:106 If we abrogate a verse or cause it to be forgotten, we will replace it by a better one or one similar. Did you not know that Allah has power over all things?

Note: This verse is fatal to Islam and the Koran, because if Allah can change his mind about whether a verse is in Quran and replace it with a better verse, then Allah is not the all-knowing God of the Bible.

2) 2:127 Abraham and Ishmael built the house (The Kabah at Mecca) and dedicated it... Make of our descendants a nation that will submit to you.

Note: There is no Bible evidence or historical evidence that Abraham or Ishmael ever went to Mecca. This is only in Mohammed's imagination in order to gain support from the Bible.

3) 2:256 There shall be no compulsion in religion.

Note: i) This is contradicted by Sura 8:39 "Make war on them until idolatry shall cease and Allah's religion shall reign supreme."

ii) 2:256 is intended to convince non-Muslims that Islam is a peaceful religion. This is contradicted by "True Muslims fight for Allah." (4:76).

4) 2:285 They all believe Allah, His angels, His Scriptures, and His apostles. We make no distinction (don't discriminate) against any of His messengers.

Note: Muslims do give Mohammed a greater distinction than Jesus and all other Bible prophets.

5) 4:82 If it (the Koran) had not come from Allah, they could have surely found in it many contradictions. Note: People have found many contradictions in it such as those listed in this section.

6) 4:157 They did not kill him (Jesus), nor did they crucify him, but they thought they did... They did not slay him for certain. Allah lifted him up to himself.

Note: This contradicts the prophets David (Psalm 22:16), Isaiah (53), Daniel (9:26), NT prophets, as well as Quran 19:33: "Blessed I shall be on the day of my death."

19:29- How can we speak with a babe in the cradle? Whereupon he (Jesus) spoke and said, "he has purged me of vanity and wickedness. Blessed was I on the day I was born, & blessed I shall be on the day of my death and on the day I shall be raised to life." Such was Jesus, the Son of Mary, that is the whole truth. God forbid that He himself should beget a son.

7) 7:64 We saved him (Noah) and all who were with him in the ark.

10:74 We saved Noah and those who were with him in the ark.

11:42,43 Noah cried to his son who stood apart, "Come ride with us, and be not with the unbelievers!" He replied: "I shall seek refuge in a mountain, which will protect me from the flood." The wave rolled between them and Noah's son was drowned.

21:76 We saved him (Noah) and all his kinsfolk from the great calamity.

Contradiction: This contradicts 11:42,43 which states that one of Noah's sons was drowned.

8) 7:124 Pharaoh said, "Then I will crucify you all." Crucifixion was not invented in 1500BC.

9) 41:34 Requite evil with good, and he who is your enemy will become your dearest friend.

Note: This is contradicted by 42:40 'Let evil be rewarded with like evil.'

10) 61:3 It is most hateful in Allah's sight that you should say one thing and do another.

Note: This contradicts 66:2 where Allah allowed Mohammed to say one thing and do another.

11) 70:4 A day whose span is 50,000 years. Which is right? 1000 years or 50,000 years?

This contradicts 32:5 All will ascend to him in a single day, a day whose space is 1000 years.

12) 71:15,16 Allah created the seven heavens one above the other, placing in them the moon for a light & the sun for a lantern? Question: What are these 7 heavens? A product of Mohammed's imagination?

The Bible tells us of 3 heavens: the atmosphere, space, and where God's throne is (II Corinthians 12:2).

13) 21:35 Every soul shall taste death. This is false, because Enoch and Elijah did not die. Christians living when Christ returns will be caught up to heaven without dying. (I Corinthians 15:51-53).

14) 17:36 Do not follow what you do not know. (7 commandments in v.31-37.)

15) 45:28 You will see every nation on its knees. (Question: Even today's Muslim nations?)

Note: This terror, horror, threats of hell, scourge, torment contradicts God's love to man in the Bible, Christ's preaching & in beautiful creation. 'The goodness of God leads us to repentance' not threats. Romans 2:4

16) 42:15 says "I believe in all the Scriptures that Allah has revealed".

Note: This, they say includes the Bible, yet Muslims do not believe, understand, study or obey the Bible

16. ALLAH'S NATURE (17 References)

3:16 Those of Allah's servants who say: "Allah we believe in you, forgive us our sins and keep us from the torment of the Fire."

Note: This shows that no Muslim is sure of escaping hell and going to heaven. Allah offers no salvation.

3:54 Allah is the supreme plotter (best of schemers).

Note: This permits Muslims to plot & scheme treachery because they are following Allah's example.

35:43 Evil shall recoil on those that plot evil. Note: The God of the Bible is honest and truthful.

3:57 Allah does not love the evil-doers.

4:107 Allah does not love the treacherous or the sinful.

Note: This proves that the Koran is not from the Holy God of the Bible, because all men are sinful compared to God. Man's typical thinking is that he is good compared to others. If God wrote the Koran, it would teach that all men are sinful.

5:88 Allah does not love the transgressors. (7:55). 'ye all have transgressed against me, says JHVH' Jer2:29

6:39 Allah confounds whom He will, and guides to the right path whom He pleases.

Note: This is the error of Fatalism. All is not predestined.

6:87 We gave him Isaac, Jacob, Noah, David, Solomon, Job, Joseph, Moses, Aaron, Zacharias, John, Jesus, Elias (Elijah), Ishmael, Elisha, Jonah, Lot. Note: Islam considers these as prophets.

8:30 Allah is the best of plotters. 9:27 Allah will show mercy to whom he will.

13:42 Allah is the master of all scheming (plotting).

Note: If Allah can scheme, plot and deceive, then Muslims think they can do so as well.

28:77 Allah does not love the evildoers.

30:45 He does not love the unbelievers.

40:21 Allah scourged them for their sins . . . they had none to protect them.

3:32 Say "Obey Allah and the Apostle." If they give no heed, then Allah does not love the unbelievers.

Note: The God of the Bible loves unbelievers.

- i) Jesus was proven by HIS miraculous signs, but Mohammed gave no miracles. Hence Jesus, the prophets and apostles who worked miracles are superior to Mohammed, who worked no miracles.
- ii) Allah the moon god of Arabia did not give Jesus clear signs, but it was Jesus' Heavenly Father, the Jehovah God of the Bible who gave these miracles to authenticate Jehovah God the Son as the Messiah and Saviour of the world. Muslims suffer a case of mistaken identity. Their Allah is not the God of the Bible, but the pagan moon god of Arabia.

2:275,276,278 Allah has permitted trading and made usury (charging & receiving interest) unlawful. Those that turn back shall be inmates of the Fire. Allah has laid his curse on usury. Waive what is still due to you from usury.

Note: Most Muslims, Muslim banks, and Muslim governments disobey the Koran here by charging interest and paying interest. This law against interest makes banks unviable. Hence, a pure Islamic state like the Taliban's Afghanistan could have no banks. They use Pakistan's banks on the border.

19:16-23 The story of Mary . . . We sent to her Our Spirit in the semblance of a full grown man . . . who said I have come to give you a holy son. Mary said, "How shall I bear a child when I have neither been touched by any man nor ever been unchaste?" Thus did your Lord speak: "That is easy enough for me. When she felt the throes of childbirth, she lay down by the trunk of a palm tree."

Note: From this we learn the following:

- i) Christ being virgin born is "easy enough for God" so why should Muslims protest God having a Son?
 - ii) This teaches the virgin birth of Christ.
 - iii) Muslims agree that God has a Spirit. Christians call him the Holy Spirit.
 - iv) This does not confirm the Bible, but contradicts it. Mary gave birth to Jesus in a stable, not under a palm tree
- 16:57 They assign unto Allah daughters. See Q53:19,20 "Al-Lat, Al-Uzza and Manat."

17. MUSLIM Practices (17 References)

5:39 As for the man or woman who is guilty of theft, cut off their hands to punish them for their crimes

16:115 He has forbidden you carrion, blood, and the flesh of swine; also any flesh consecrated other than in the name of Allah.

17:45 When you recite the Koran, we place between you and those who deny the life to come a hidden barrier.

17:78 Recite your prayers at sunset, at nightfall, and at dawn. Pray during the night as well.

22:27 Exhort all men to make the pilgrimage. Let them spruce themselves, make their vows and circle the Ancient House. Such is Allah's commandment. He that reveres the sacred rites shall fare better.

24:2 The adulterer and adulteress shall each be given 100 lashes.

24:4 Those who accuse/defame honourable women & cannot produce 4 witnesses shall be given 80 lashes.

29:46 Be courteous when you argue with the People of the Book, except with those among them who do evil. Say: "We believe in that which is revealed to us, and which was revealed to you. Our God and your God is one."

Note: This is absolutely false. Allah and the God of the Bible have very different natures and personalities. Allah is the moon god of 6th Century Arabia. In reality Muslims do not believe in the Bible. If they did, they would study it, obey it and worship Jesus Christ as Saviour and God.

33:59 Prophet, enjoin your wives, your daughters, and the wives of true believers to draw their veils close round them . . . so that they may be recognized and not molested.

39:38 A Koran (lecture) in the Arabic tongue, free from any flaw, that they may guard themselves against evil. Note: The Koran has many flaws. See Section 9,10,12,14,15.

41:33 Who speaks better than he who calls men to serve Allah, does what is right & says 'I am a Muslim'?

62:9 Believers, when you are summoned to Friday prayers hasten to the remembrance of Allah and cease your trading.

64:12,13 Obey Allah and obey the apostle. Allah! there is no god but him.

66. PROHIBITION (v.1 Mohammed was once found by his wife Hafsah with Maria, a beautiful Coptic slave girl, whom he had promised Hafsah he would separate from. To free Mohammed from his promise to Hafsah was the object of this chapter.)

66:1,2 Prophet, why do you prohibit that which Allah has made lawful for you in seeking to please your wives? Allah has made lawful for you (Muslims) absolution from your oaths.

Note: Many Muslims, living like Mohammed, often think they can lie when it suits them.

73:1 You that are wrapped up in your mantle, keep vigil all night, save for a few hours; half the night or less and recite the Koran.

Note: Psalm 127:2 "It is vain for you to rise up early, to sit up late, to eat the bread of sorrows: for so he giveth his beloved sleep." The Devil wants to rob the Muslims of God's gift of a full nights sleep.

73:8 Remember the name of Allah and dedicate yourself to him utterly... there is no god but him. Accept him as your protector.

73:20 Your Lord knows that you (Mohammed) sometimes keep vigil nearly two thirds of the night... Recite from the Koran as many verses as you are able. He knows that others are fighting for the cause of Allah. What ever good you do you shall be....richly rewarded by him.

17:1 THE NIGHT JOURNEY/ THE CHILDREN OF ISRAEL

(v.1 relates Mohammed's vision, in which he was carried by night on a heavenly steed to the Temple at Jerusalem, from where he claims that he was caught up through 7 heavens to the presence of Allah).

Note: The Temple of Jerusalem had been destroyed by Rome in 70 AD and did not exist in Mohammed's day. This is one reason why Muslims want control of Jerusalem.

(Quotations are from "The Koran", translated with notes by N.J.Dawood. Penguin. 1956)

122. Why Nobody Should Become a Muslim

The following things lacking from Islam, make it an unsatisfactory religion. Islam has:

- 1) No sacrifice for our sins. “without shedding of blood is no remission (of sins).” (Hebrews 9:22).
- 2) No sinless Founder. “in him is no sin”. (I John 3:5).
- 3) No Saviour from sin. “ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins.” (I John 3:5).
- 4) No resurrected Saviour. “he was seen of above 500 brethren at once.” (I Cor. 15:6).
- 5) No fulfilled prophecy in the Koran. “shew the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know” Is41:23
- 6) No certainty of a home in heaven. “that ye may know that ye have eternal life.” (I John 5:13; 2:25)
- 7) No equality of Muslims and Christians in law.
- 8) No equality of Muslim men and women in law (Q4:34..women ye fear rebellion...scourge them)
- 9) No consistent standard of sin, eg: Muslim heaven has free sex and wine, which is wrong on earth.
- 10) No genealogies and no dates in the Koran.
- 11) No freedom to leave Islam. Grievous punishment or death to those who leave Islam (Q16:106).
- 12) No mercy shown to a thief, or to those of other religions. (Q5:38).
- 13) Forced female circumcision as part of forced conversion to Islam in Maluku Islands of Indonesia.
- 14) No one raised from the dead by Mohammed. Jesus raised 4 people from the dead. (inc.Himself)
- 15) No one healed miraculously by Mohammed. “As many as touched him were made whole” Lk 6:56
- 16) No Old Testament prophecies telling us the time, place, or events to expect Mohammed. Micah5:2
- 17) No democracy in Muslim countries, but rule is by dictators.
- 18) No agreement with the Bible and with Old Testament prophets.
- 19) Allah is a very different personality from Jehovah of OT. Allah seduces 15:39, lies 74:39, enslaves 33:50.
- 20) Islam worships the wrong god. “And God spake all these words, saying, I am the LORD (JHVH) thy God...Thou shalt have no other gods before me.” (Exodus 20:1-3). Worship JHVH, not Allah.
- 21) Islam trusts the wrong line of God’s blessing. God promised the Messiah to come through Isaac (Genesis 17:19-21; 21:12) not through Ishmael. [The Bible teaches us to love our enemies.
- 22) Quran teaches terror against non Muslims (Q8:12,60,65,67,74; 9:39,41,111,123). (Matthew 5:44)
“Christina Sagat shakes with fear...as she tells her story of brutal circumcision in a forced conversion to Islam. Her physical wounds have healed but this 32-year-old is left with the deep pain of sorrow and humiliation. She is among hundreds of Christians, including children and pregnant women, forcibly circumcised as part of a campaign by extremists (terrorists) to spread Islam through the war-ravaged Maluku islands in Eastern Indonesia. In the biggest city in the (Maluku) Islands (of Indonesia), Ambon, church and other groups have gathered evidence that 3,928 villagers on at least six islands have been forced to convert to Islam under the threat of death, torture or destruction of their homes. They believe that local Muslim clerics, possibly under duress from extremists, circumcised almost all the converts. Kostantinus Idi, 22,... said one of the clerics urinated on his wound, saying it would stop infection.”

123. ISLAM -- a Case of Mistaken Identity

Allah is not the God of the Bible. Mohammed is not a prophet of God. Quran is not the Word of God. Islam is worship of Allah the Moon God of Arabia. Mohammed cannot save (Vol.1,372-375; Vol.5,266 "I am the LORD (JHVH) thy God...Thou shalt have no other gods before me." (Exodus 20:2,3). "Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD (JHVH)." (Psalm 33:12). (8 Issues to discuss, p.1070).

INTRODUCTION

Islam (1.1 billion) is the second largest religion in the world to nominal Christianity (1.9 billion). Due to liberal immigration policies, millions of Muslims have migrated to the West to seek a better life. In England, there are more Muslims than Methodists or evangelical Christians. They are buying abandoned Anglican churches and converting them to mosques, hoping to convert England to Islam. There are 2.6 million Muslims in the USA and 200,000 in Australia in 1990.

Under Islamic law, no criticism of Islam is allowed. In Muslim countries, any criticism of Muhammad or the Koran is punishable by death. Muslim countries have no freedom of religion.

If Muslims are happy to criticise Christianity, then why do they get upset if Christians criticise Islam?

To refute Islam, we must check the Koran, the Hadith, history and the Bible.

Islam is cultural imperialism, where 7th Century Arabian religion and culture have been raised to the status of divine law.

In the West, Church and State are separated, in order to avoid a repeat of religious persecution by the Roman Catholic inquisition of the dark ages.

This is exactly what happens in Muslim countries, where Muslim law and religion control the State and persecute other religions.

Whenever Islam dominates a country, it transforms the culture to that of 7th Century Arabia.

Arab racism claims that Arabs descended from Abraham through his son Ishmael.

The Quran transfers the historical setting of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob from Palestine to Mecca.

The Quran even has Abraham rebuilding the Kabah, yet archaeological evidence clearly proves that Abraham never lived in Mecca, but that he left Ur (in Iraq) and moved to Haran, then to Israel.

Question: Why is it that of the 21 Arab nations, not one of them is a democracy

Answer: Muhammad took the political laws governing 7th Century Arabian tribes, where the sheikh or chief had absolute authority, and made them the laws of Allah. They had no idea of civil rights. This is why modern Islamic countries are always ruled by "strong men" as dictators. Islamic law does not recognise freedom of speech, freedom of assembly, freedom of religion, or freedom of the press.

- i The Muslim is required to pray five times a day toward Mecca. This reminds him five times daily, that he must bow in obedience to Arabia.
- ii Muhammad adopted the pagan pilgrimage to Mecca to worship the Kabah, to appease the Meccan merchants who made a lot of money from these pilgrimages. Thus, for financial gain and cultural control, Islam adopted the pagan pilgrimage to Mecca.
- iii What Muhammad ate and did not eat is made to be a divine law for all people.
- iv What an illiterate, nomadic tribeswoman wore in the desert of 7th Century Arabia to protect her from the hot sun, is compulsory dress code for all Muslim women today.

Imprisonment without a fair trial, torture, cutting off a person's hands, feet, ears, tongue, gouging eyes out, and murdering your opponents, are all part of Islamic law today, just as they were in 7th Century Arabia. Allah told Mohammed to "ask forgiveness for your sins" (40:55; 48:1,2). No miracles(17:91-95

1. THE MEANING OF ISLAM

“Islam” is an Arabic word which originally referred to manliness or heroism or bravery in battle. It meant “defiance of death, heroism, to die in battle.”

M. Bravmann. “The Spiritual Background of Early Islam.” (Leiden 1972).

The word “Islam” only slowly developed to mean “submission to Allah’s will”. (Dr Jane Smith, University of Montana Press 1970). “Islam” today is the name for the religion of Muhammad .

A ‘Muslim’ is a follower of the Islam religion. Muslims follow the teachings of the book called the Koran or Quran.

The English translation of the Quran by A J Arberry comes closest to conveying the impression made on Muslims by the Arabic Quran.

Aim: To show that the Quran is not the word of God, by highlighting its mistakes.

To show that Mohammad is not a true prophet of the true God.

To show that Allah is not the God of the Bible, or of Bible prophets.

To lead Muslims to receive Jesus Christ as their Saviour and God.

To inform Westerners of facts showing Islam to be a false, violent and dangerous religion.

2. PRE-ISLAMIC ARABIAN ORIGIN OF THE Quran

Muslims are taught that the Quran and Muhammad’s revelations were given from heaven, and that they do not have earthly human origin.

This belief can be shown to be false if we can find Quranic stories that come from pre-Islamic Arabian culture, custom and religion.

Muslims have done very little research into pre-Islamic Arabian customs, because they are told it is blasphemous to suggest that the Quran and Muhammad’s teachings came from pre-Islamic Arabia rather than from heaven.

Archaeology and linguistics since 1890 have shown overwhelming evidence that Muhammad produced his religion and the Quran from pre-existing Arabian material, and that, with all its mistakes, could not have come from heaven.

Examples of pre-Islamic Arabian culture brought into the Quran and into Islam are:

- i) Raiding other tribes to obtain wealth, wives and slaves was a common practice before Muhammad.
- ii) Pre 600 AD Arabian tribes often punished stealing or crimes by cutting off people’s hands, feet, ears, tongues, heads and gouging out eyes.
- iii) Forcing people into slavery or kidnapping women from other tribes to rape them in your harem as your wives, concubines or slave girls, was considered acceptable behaviour. This happens today in Muslim atrocities against non-Muslims in Sudan.
- iv) To sneak up behind someone and cut his throat was sometimes seen as the right thing to do. This taking the law into their own hands can be seen today in Ayatollah Khomeini’s call for the death of Salman Rushdie.

The Koran commands violence against non-Muslims: “Fight and slay the pagans wherever you find them.” (Sura 9:5).

What must Muslims do to people who resist Islam? “Their punishment is ... execution, or crucifixion, or the cutting off of hands and feet from the opposite sides, or exile from the land.” (Sura 5:33).

In the West, cutting off someone’s hands or feet because he would not accept your religion, is criminal madness.

- i) Since Mecca was controlled by Muhammad’s Quraysh tribe, and because Mecca was on a major East-West trade route, we are not surprised to find stories in the Quran that came from Egypt, Persia, India, Greece and Babylon.
- ii) Magic, genies, superstition, curses, magic stones, fatalism, evil eye and jinn being part of pre-Islamic Arabia, all found their way into the Quran. (Q55,72).
- iii) Pre-Islamic Arabs believed in Animism, that spirits or jinn existed in trees, stones, rivers and mountains. Sacred magic stones were believed to protect the tribes. The Quraysh tribe adopted the black stone at Kabah as their magic stone.

- iv Pre-Islamic pagan Arabs taught that everyone should bow and pray toward Mecca at certain times of the day. This was brought into Islam as divine law.
- v They taught that everyone should make a pilgrimage to Mecca at least once in their life to worship at the Kabah. On arrival, they ran around the Kabah seven times, kissed the black stone, and then ran a mile to the Wadi Mina to throw stones at the devil. This has been carried over into Islam.
- vi They condemned usury or charging interest. (Q 2:275,276).
- vii They fasted during a certain month of the year, which was carried over to Ramadan in Islam.
- viii The main religion just before Muhammad's time was that of the Sabeans. They worshipped the moon as a male deity & the sun as a female deity. The Quran warns not to worship the sun or moon (41:37), yet Islam adopted the crescent moon as its symbol. The Sabeans began a month-long fast at the appearance of a crescent moon. This was later adopted as one of the five pillars of Islam.
- ix Many wealthy Jews in Arabia had spread stories from the Old Testament, the Talmud and Jewish apocryphal works such as the Testament of Abraham, which found their way into the Quran. Christianity was well-established in Arabia in Muhammad's time, even though the New Testament had not yet been translated into Arabic. This was done by 850AD. This explains how oral tradition brought corrupted stories of Jesus into the Quran.

These facts show that the Quran did not come from heaven, but from Arabian culture of the day. Hence Muhammad of 7th Century Arabia wrote the Quran, not Allah from heaven.

Guillaume wrote: "The customs of heathenism have left an indelible mark on Islam, notably in the rites of the pilgrimage". (Islam, Penguin books 1954, p.6).

Nazar-Ali, the Arab scholar wrote: "Islam retained many aspects of pagan religion."

(Islam a Christian Perspective, Westminster Press, 1983, p21).

Professor A H Strong stated: "Islam is heathenism in monotheistic form." Systematic Theology, p.186.

Key: If Muslims give up the belief in the Quran's heavenly origin, then Islam will fall.

Western scholars asked the question: "Why does the Quran never explain its ideas or rites as the Bible does? Why does it never define words such as Allah, Islam, Mecca, jinn, pilgrimage, Kabah, etc?"

Answer: Because Muhammad assumed that whoever read the Quran would already be familiar with these terms, stories and people from pre-Islamic sources, culture and religious life.

3. WHY IS THE CRESCENT MOON ISLAM'S SYMBOL?

The use of the crescent moon as Islam's symbol, which is placed on the Islamic nation's flags and on top of mosques and minarets, comes from pre-Islamic Arabia where Allah was worshipped as the moon god in Mecca.

The reason that Muhammad never had to explain who Allah was in the Quran is because his listeners had already heard about Allah from paganism.

The word "Allah" comes from abbreviating the Arabic word "AL-ILAH" meaning "the god". "Allah was known to the pre-Islamic Arabs as one of the Meccan deities" (Encyclopaedia of Islam, Gibb I:406)

"Allah is a pre-Islamic name...corresponding to the Babylonian Bel" (Encyclopaedia of Religion, I:117)

Allah was the personal name of the moon god, a male deity worshipped in pre-Islamic Arabia, who was married to the female sun goddess. Together they produced three goddesses called "the daughters of Allah". These were known as AL-LAT, AL-UZZA and MANAT (Q 53:19,20).

The Quraysh tribe of Muhammad was strongly devoted to Allah the moon god, and to Allah's three daughters, as intercessors between the people and Allah.

Mohammad's father's name was ABD-ALLAH. His uncle's name was OBIED-ALLAH, thus showing Muhammad's family's devotion to Allah the moon god.

Archaeologists have dug up many statues and inscriptions where a crescent moon was placed on a deity's head to symbolise worship of the moon god. The entire fertile crescent was involved in worship of the moon. Hence, Islam adopting the crescent moon as its symbol, helped to convert people throughout the Middle East.

4. IS ALLAH THE ONE TRUE GOD OF THE BIBLE?

“All the gods of the nations are idols, but the LORD (JHVH) made the heavens.” Psalm 96:5.

Islam claims that Allah is the same God as revealed in the Bible (Q29:46). This means that their attributes should be identical. If they are different, then Allah is a false god because the Quran endorses the Bible and its prophets.

Mohammad’s god is radically different from Jehovah or the Godhead of the New Testament.

It is just as pagan to worship the wrong god as it is to worship no god or to worship a multitude of gods. The key issue is the nature of God and how He relates to man.

Let us compare the attributes of the Biblical God (The Triune Jehovah) with Allah:

1. Knowable versus Unknowable.

Jesus Christ came that we might know God as a personal friend. (John 17:3; I John 1:3).

Allah of the Quran is so distant, so abstract, so unpredictable, so angry that no-one can know him.

2. Personal versus Non Personal.

The Biblical God created man in His own image, having personality of mind, emotions and will.

Allah is not to be understood as personal, as it would lower him to the level of man. Genesis 1:26,27

3. Spiritual versus Non-spiritual.

The Biblical “God is a Spirit” (John 4:24), but Islam thinks that it is demeaning to Allah to be a spirit or person. (See Q19:17 “We sent unto her Our spirit...”)

4. Trinitarian versus Unitarian.

The Biblical God is one God in three persons (Matthew 28:19,20): the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. The Quran denies the Trinity and confuses it as the Father, Jesus Christ and Mary. (Q5:116).

5. Limited versus Unlimited.

The Biblical God limits Himself to be bound by His own righteous moral attributes: “God cannot lie.” (Titus 1:2).

Allah is not limited by anything, not even his own nature. Allah has no morality; he can lie, cheat, deceive, do anything, any time, anywhere with no limitations.

6. Trustworthy versus Capricious.

The Biblical God limits Himself by His own righteous nature to be completely trustworthy, consistent, honest and always keeping His word.

Allah is totally capricious, untrustworthy, dishonest and unreliable. He is not bound by his nature or his word. (Q2:106 “If we abrogate a verse...”).

7. A Loving God versus an Unloving God.

The Biblical God loves mankind: by “God so loved the world.” (John 3:16).

Allah shows little love for mankind, but is detached. Islam believes that for God to have feelings of love for man would reduce him to being a mere man. All Muslims go to hell (Q19:71).

8. Active in History versus Passive in History.

Allah never personally enters human history, but deals with the world through his word, prophets and angels. The Biblical God enters human history through the second person of the Trinity, Jesus Christ becoming a man as well as God& paying for our sins as our Saviour to bring us back to God.

9. Grace or Works

The Biblical God graciously provides free salvation for man through the Saviour Jesus Christ, who is also man’s intercessor to God.

Allah has no sure method of salvation, no Saviour, no intercessor, no certain forgiveness of sins, and no certainty of heaven.

Just because Christians and Muslims worship one god, it doesn’t mean that the one god worshipped is the true God. The Canaanites could have taught that Baal was the one true god, but Baal is not Jehovah, just as Hitler is not the same identity as Elvis Presley.

“There is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.” (Acts 4:12).

This is the name of Jesus Christ, not Allah. Allah did not die for our sins and rise again.

- Allah's name is nowhere mentioned in the Bible, because up to 610 AD Allah was the name of a pagan moon deity in Arabia. Biblical writers would never have confused Allah with Jehovah. If some Bible translators translate the Biblical God as Allah, it would be due to either:
 - i) Their ignorance of the differences between Allah and Jehovah;
 - ii) Propaganda of Muslim evangelists who say that Allah is just another name for Jehovah, as an opportunity to convert Westerners to Islam.
 - iii) Political and religious pressure to put Allah in the Bible.

5. IMPORTANCE OF ISLAM

Militant Islamic fundamentalism is growing in power today. Islam is important because:

1. Islam's doctrine and leaders have vowed to destroy Israel. Islam believes that God gave the promised land to the Arabs rather than to the Jews (Gen.17:19-21)
2. Islam wishes to take over the world by conquering one nation at a time, then imposing Sharia Islamic law. History shows that they then persecute, torture and murder Christians, Jews and all who resist Islam. All people under Muslim law lose all personal freedoms.
3. Terrorism is their method to gain control, as seen by their 1972 Munich Olympics massacre, their hijacking of the Achille Lauro ship, their bombing of US marine barracks in Lebanon, their constant suicide bombings of civilians travelling in Israeli buses, & the September 11 WTC attacks.
4. Ayatollah Khomeini has ordered Muslim women to have 16 children each, so they can conquer the world by becoming the majority in all countries. They already have 1.1 billion Muslims worldwide.
5. Their influence will increase due to their control of most of the world's oil reserves.

6. THE GOAL OF ISLAM

The ultimate goal of Islam is to conquer the world and rule it by Islamic law.

They allow conversion to Islam by persuasion, by force, or by murdering opponents.

In the Hadith, Muhammad said, "Hear O Muslims the meaning of life ... The pillar is Rakatin prayer.

The topmost part is Jihad - holy war."

Jihad is being fought by Iran, Saddam Hussein of Iraq, President Assad of Syria, Colonel Quadafi of Libya, Al Qaeda and by Sudanese massacres of Christians.

The Quran in Sura 4:93 commands Muslims to kill non-Muslims as follows:

"Slay them wherever you find them".

Islam is now the second largest religion in Europe, and the third largest in the US.

France now has 1,600 mosques. England has 1,500 mosques.

7. THE LIFE OF MOHAMMED

The name Muhammed means "praised one". Muhammed's life can be known from the Quran, the Hadith and early Muslim traditions. These facts are not disputed.

Muhammed was born on 8 June 570 AD in Mecca to Abdullah (Abd-Allah) and Aminah of the Quraysh tribe. Both his parents died when he was young, so he was sent at the age of six to live with his grandparents, then to a rich uncle, then to a poor uncle.

In his childhood, he began to experience spirit visitations.

His mother, Aminah, often claimed that she was visited by spirits or jinn. This occult association was inherited by her son.

Early Muslim tradition records that, when Muhammed was about to receive a revelation from Allah, he would often fall on the ground, his body would jerk uncontrollably, his eyes would roll backward, and he would perspire profusely. After the trance, he would rise and tell the message given to him.

What caused this? These effects are very similar to an epileptic fit or to demon possession.

Never did a Bible prophet of God give a revelation in such a trancelike violent manner.

Most of Muhammed's early pagan religious upbringing was transferred into Islam and did not come from new revelations from Allah as Islam claims.

Muhammed is regarded as the perfect example for all Muslims to follow, so all Muslims should treat other humans following Mohammed's example, such as the way he treated his enemies, his wives, his manner of eating, drinking, prayer, etc. "He who obeys the apostle, obeys Allah." (4:80).

If Muhammed murdered his enemies, so can Muslims.

If Muhammed stole whatever he wanted, so can Muslims.

If Muhammed took as many wives/slave-girls as he wanted, so can Muslims.

Fundamental to Muslim belief is the idea that Islamic writings are historically accurate.

Most Muslims are not given any opposing evidence.

Islamic thinking is very different from Western thinking, such as lying is not a major sin; murdering non-Muslims in Jihad is heroic.

The traditional view is that Muhammed was a sinless prophet, yet he often asked Allah to forgive his sins. (Q 40:55 and 48:1,2).

Well-known prophets among Muslims in the Quran are: Adam, Enoch, Noah, Abraham, Lot, Ishmael, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph, Job, Jethro, Moses, Aaron, David, Solomon, Elijah, Elisha, Ezekiel, Jonah, Zechariah of Luke 1, John the Baptist, Jesus and Muhammed.

Muslims believe that all the prophets were without sin, because the Quran says that they were on a straight path. Muslims ignore that the Quran says that: Adam sinned (2:36; 7:22,23); Abraham sinned (26:82); Moses sinned (28:15,16); Jonah sinned (37:142); David sinned (38:15,16); Muhammad sinned (47:19; 48:1,2; 33:36-38).

The only sinless prophet mentioned in the Quran is Jesus Christ (19:19 and 31). “He has purged me of vanity and wickedness”. Main events in Mohammed’s early life are:

- He obtained employment with a wealthy woman, Khadijah, ran her business for three years (591-594 AD), and in 595 AD he married her when he was age 25 and she was age 40. She was his only wife for 26 years until she died in 621 AD, after which he took many wives.
- At age 40 in 612 AD, when Muhammed was meditating in the cave of Hira, he received his first revelation. He then claimed that Allah had called him to be a prophet and an apostle. There was no tradition of prophets or apostles in any Arabian religion. The term “prophet” was used in the hope that Jews would accept Muhammed as the next prophet, while the term “apostle” was used in the hope that Christians would accept him as the next apostle. He hence sought to attract Jews, Christians and pagans.
- The Quran gives us four conflicting accounts of Allah calling Muhammed to be a prophet:
 - i) In Sura 53:2-18 and 81:19-24 we are told that Allah personally appeared to Muhammed as a man, and that Muhammed saw and heard him.
 - ii) This is later abandoned and Sura 16:102 and 26:192-194 tell us that Muhammed’s call was given by the Holy Spirit.
 - iii) This is also abandoned and Sura 15:8 tells us that angels came down and announced to Muhammed that Allah had called him to be a prophet.
 - iv) This account is amended in Sura 2:97 so that it is only the angel Gabriel who calls Muhammed and gives him the Quran. This account is well known by Muslims. Islamic revelation is not the same as Biblical revelation, but means that there are no human authors of the Quran. It means “handed down” directly from Allah to Muhammed. The Quran denies any human or earthly sources for itself.
- After this revelation, Muhammed thought that he may be mad or demon possessed. This made him so depressed that he went to commit suicide, but on the way, he fell into another seizure, where he was told in a vision not to kill himself because he was called of God. Yet, he was still depressed and doubtful. When other people saw him in a trance, they also concluded that he was demon possessed. (Q 81:25). He then experienced three years of doubt and darkness. The Quran says that many jinn (demons) became Muslims and promised to spread Islam (Q72:14).
- Muhammed practically demands more respect than Allah. This is why, according to Islamic law, people are put to death whenever they say anything unfavourable about Muhammed. When he became ruler of Mecca, many were killed who criticised his brutality, including two young girls who sang a song critical of Muhammed.

Before the people of Mecca were forced to surrender to Islam, they accused Muhammed of being:

- i) “A madman taught by others” (44:13); “A mad poet” (37:35; 68:2; 81:22; 52:29);
- ii) “A skilled enchanter” (10:2) influencing people to follow him with lies;
- iii) Bewitched and controlled by evil spirits and demons, as a medium (17:50; 81:25);
- iv) Soothsayers divination (69:42) revealing secrets from jinn.

When he received a revelation, he heard a bell ring, he got off his horse or camel, covered his head, and “the angel presses so hard on me that I think I am going to die”.

1. The Meccans concluded that Muhammed was an impostor because he kept on changing his statements in the Quran. To defend Muhammed, Allah said that it is not Muhammed but Allah himself who keeps on changing his words because he knows best. “When we change one verse for another (Allah knows best what he reveals), they say: “You are an impostor”.” (Q 16:101).

2. As far as the Jews were concerned, Muhammed had no credentials.

A true prophet of God could prove his identity by forthtelling events that lay beyond his ability to know. When these prophecies were fulfilled, believers knew the speaker was a true prophet of God. (Deuteronomy 18:22; Isaiah 41:21-24).

In the Quran, Muhammed repeatedly mentioned that he brought no signs and performed no miracles; neither did he prophecy future events:

“The unbelievers ask: “Why has no sign been given him by his Lord?”” (7:203; 2:118).

“But you are only to give warning”. (Q13:7,31; 6:37,109).

Q 7:203 gives the Quran as the only proof available, yet the Quran contains no fulfilled prophecies to prove it is from God. ‘Say, “This book is a veritable proof from your Lord”.’

3. Muhammed’s friendship with demons was a big stumblingblock for the Jews (72:1-15; 46:29-31).

The law of Moses commanded Jews to keep away from all who contacted spirits or demons (jinn).

“Regard not them that have familiar spirits ... to be defiled by them.” (Leviticus 19:31).

Such people were to be put to death: “A man or woman that hath a familiar spirit, or that is a wizard, shall surely be put to death.” (Leviticus 20:27; Deuteronomy 18:10-12).

Allah ordered Muhammed that when anything is not clear to him, then he should go to the people of the Book (Jews and Christians) for clarification (Q 10:93,94):

“If you doubt what we have revealed to you, ask those who have read the Scriptures before you”.

The Quran refers to the Bible as: “God’s Book” (3:23).

When Muhammed could provide no signs of being a true prophet, the Jews rejected him, so

Muhammed bound them by a treaty and changed his attitude toward them by:

- i) Declaring the Kaba stone at Mecca as the direction of prayer (Qibla) instead of praying toward Jerusalem. This was idolatry by Muhammed because the Kaba at Mecca had 360 idols in it. Eight years later, these idols were removed “The foolish will ask, “What has made them turn away from their qiblah (direction of prayer)?” (21:142).
- ii) He changed the fast of Ashura to the fast of Ramadan.
- iii) He charged the Jews with distorting, concealing and misrepresenting their Scriptures (4:46).
- iv) He received a revelation from Allah, accusing the Jews of worshipping Ezra as the Son of God (Q 9:30), which they never did. It was an excuse to kill them two years later.

Muhammed’s first converts were his family. When his message first became public, the people of Mecca angrily laid siege to his part of Mecca. To appease these pagans, he said it was right to pray to and worship Allah’s three daughters, Al-Lat, Al-Uzza and Manat. This polytheism led to the Satanic Verses being included, whereby Muhammed, supposedly inspired by Satan, succumbed to the temptation to add this passage to appease the pagan mobs in Mecca. (53:19).

When his disciples at Medina heard of his lapse into polytheism, they rebuked him strongly.

Muhammed then reverted to monotheism and stated that Allah can abrogate (or cancel) a past revelation. He later claimed Gabriel came and rebuked him for this polytheism. After Muhammed’s death, the Satanic Verses were not included in the text of the Quran and were cancelled. This led the pagan Meccans to ridicule Muhammed’s Allah as being unable to make up his mind.

Hence, initially, Muhammed claimed that Allah said they could not worship Allah's three daughters. Then Allah said they could be worshipped. Finally, Allah said they could not be worshipped.

Can't Allah make up his mind?

Due to growing hostility and ridicule, Muhammed fled to Taif. Here he made no converts, so he returned to Mecca. On his way back to Mecca, Muhammed claimed to preach to and convert the jinn (genies) in Sura 46:29-35 and 72:1-28. The Quran then claims that the jinn agreed to preach Islam to the people (Shamanism). He soon realised that his family and tribe would not give up idolatry unless they were forced to by violence.

The First Battle: He sent six followers to attack and loot a caravan during the truce month. This was known as the Nakhla raid.

The Second Battle: Muhammed led the second battle, winning the battle of Badr.

This great success led to more followers who wanted to take part in the looting and fighting.

The Third Battle being against the Jews: Muhammed first tried to get the Jews to accept him as a prophet by preaching monotheism, keeping the Sabbath, praying toward Jerusalem, appealing to Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and praising their Scriptures. When it became clear that the Jews would not follow him, he began killing individual Jews then attacking Jewish settlements. This made him wealthy

The Fourth Battle: The Meccans approached Muhammed with a large army. He lost this battle, was struck in the mouth by a sword and almost died, even though he predicted victory.

The Fifth Battle: He then attacked Jewish settlements which were easier targets than the Meccans.

After one Jewish town surrendered, 800-1000 Jewish men were beheaded in one day, their women and children were enslaved, and their possessions looted.

The Sixth Battle: Having a larger army, he made a 10-year peace treaty with the Meccan authorities.

Yet within one year, he broke the treaty and, with a large army, forced Mecca to surrender and accept him as political and religious leader. He stopped idol worship by violence. He murdered a woman who ridiculed him for including some of her father's poems in the Quran. As leader of Mecca, Arab tribesmen began to flock to him from all sides.

8. MOHAMMED'S WIVES. Muhammed's greatest weakness was women.

Several problems here are:

- i) Because the Quran in Sura 4:3 forbids taking more than four wives, for Muhammed to have taken more wives would have been a sin against Allah's word. Being Allah's prophet, he considered himself above all such laws. The Muslim scholar Ali Dashti, states that Muhammed had 16 wives & 6 concubines.
- ii) In his 50's Muhammed wanted to marry his friend Abu-Bakar's six-year-old daughter, Aesha. When Abu-Baker resisted the idea, Muhammed claimed it was the will of Allah, so Muhammed got his way and married her while she was still playing with dolls, aged 6 years. Mohammed consummated the marriage when she was aged 9 years. (Mohammed's will and Allah's will were almost identical). In the West this behaviour is paedophilia and child abuse, one of the most despised crimes. "Khadija died three years before the prophet departed to Al-Madina. He stayed there for two years or so and then he wrote the marriage contract with Aishah when she was a girl of 6 years of age, & consummated that marriage when she was nine years old." (Sahih Al-Bukhari, Vol.5, 3896).
- iii) When Muhammed wanted to marry his adopted son's wife, Zainab, his son, being happily married, protested. Muhammed claimed it was Allah's will (Q33:35-37), so they had to divorce and allow Zainab to marry Muhammed. If Allah had been the true God of the Bible, he would have disciplined Muhammed like God did to David for stealing Uriah's wife.
- iv) Muhammed taught that a Muslim man can have up to four wives, but only if he can treat them justly. According to his desires, he got revelation to have more wives. He tried to treat his wives justly by allocating them certain time slots. When it was Hafsa's turn, Muhammed broke his oath and went off with a beautiful slave girl, Maria the Coptic.

As a result, his wives protested against Muhammed continually breaking his oaths and promises with them. Muhammed consulted Allah who, not surprisingly, supported the prophet, rebuking the wives, calling on them to repent, threatening them with divorce, and allowing Muhammed to marry other women instead. (Q 66:1-5). "Allah has allowed you to break your oaths." (Q 66:2).

Pickthall thinks that this privilege of breaking oaths is for all Muslims.

Hence Muslims can lie as much as they want. The God of the Bible says: “Let your yes be yes and your no be no, all else cometh of evil.” (Matthew 5:37; James 5:12).

v) Allah gave Mohammed full licence to marry or have sex with any woman (33:50-55).

“Prophet, we have made lawful to you the wives to whom you have granted dowries and the slavegirls whom Allah has given you as booty; and any believing woman who gives herself to the prophet and whom the prophet wishes to take in marriage. This privilege is yours alone, being granted to no other believer. You may put off (divorce) any of your wives.” (33:50,51).

vi) Temporary Marriage or Mutah. Today known as a one-night-stand.

Mohammed allowing Muslims to have a temporary wife was another attraction to follow him.

Temporary marriage was practised alongside permanent marriage by Muslims from the beginning of Mohammed’s migration to Medina (622 AD) until the second Caliph banned it in 640 AD.

Muslims do not like non-Muslims knowing about them being allowed to make a temporary marriage.

Why? A Muslim man may marry temporarily a Western woman in the West. This will enable him to bring his own wife or wives and children from overseas. Since Mohammed and Allah allow Muslims to lie to their wives, or in the case of Holy War, they can easily tell any woman that they are not married at all, even though they may have several wives overseas.

The Western woman marries the Muslim man, unaware of his wives overseas. The Muslim man then arranges with the Immigration Department to bring his wives and children into the Western country.

When they are here, he may divorce his Western wife or, better still for him, make her live separately so he can collect large weekly payments from social security for his Western wife, as well as family allowance for her children and his newly migrated children. If each of his four wives plus his temporary wife have four children (sometimes up to 12 children each), this is about $2,000 per week family allowance for a total of 20 children. The Muslim man can live comfortably on government handout without having to go to work. Also, he can assure himself of a place in paradise for contributing to Jihad (holy war) against the West and in spreading Islam.

Since Mohammed allowed and did not forbid temporary marriage, Muslims today consider it as legitimate marriage and not adultery. Their reasoning is: “Whatever is allowed by Muhammed is all right for Muslims”. Even the Quran allows it by calling spouses of temporary marriage as “wives” or “slave girls”: “Who restrain their carnal desire (save with their wives and slave girls, for these are lawful to them)”. (Q 23:5-7 and 70:25-31).

It may seem attractive to men to have four or more wives, but the downside is that often the wives have terrible fights with each other, and family life becomes a nightmare.

9. ALLAH, MOHAMMED and the QURAN GIVE MUSLIMS PERMISSION TO LIE WITHOUT GUILT

Samuel Zwemmer, one of the greatest experts on Islam, says: “According to orthodox Islamic tradition, a lie is justifiable in three cases:

1. To reconcile two parties;
2. To satisfy one’s wife;
3. In case of war.” (El Itidayah, Vol 4, p 81; The Moslem Doctrine of God, p 41).

Professor Abdul Natiq explains that “it is quite lawful to tell something which is not true at all, that may reconcile people”. He adds a tradition from Umal Kalsum (daughter of Mohammed) that “Mohammed only allowed people to lie, firstly, in the case of war to deceive the enemy; secondly, to reconcile two parties, and thirdly, when husband and wife talk together.”

He says that Allah and Muhammed are well pleased by this as it is for the betterment of Islam. (Islam Studies for Degree Class, p. 77-79).

Examples of Allah and Muhammed in the Quran permitting Muslims to tell lies:

1. If non-Muslim masters persecute Muslim slaves, the Muslim slaves may lie that they have renounced Islam to avoid trouble: “Whoso, after he has believed in Allah denies him, if he were forced to do it, and if his heart remains steadfast in the faith, shall be guiltless”. (Q16:106-110).

This applies to Muslims today who are in a difficult situation because of their faith, to lie saying that they are not Muslims, to save their skins.

2. When Mohammed wanted to kill the Jews for rejecting Islam, he had Allah saying that the Jews must be killed because they worshipped Ezra as the Son of God. This is a complete lie, but remember Allah can lie any time to get his own way, and so can Muslims. "Allah has given you absolution from such oaths". (Q 66:2). Allah in Quran 9:29 commanded Mohammad to fight against Jews and Christians. "Fight" (Qatlova) in Arabic means to "kill".

"Fight (Qatlova = kill) those to whom the Scriptures (Bible) were given ... who do not believe in Allah, ... and do not embrace the true faith (Islam), until they pay tribute and are utterly subdued. The Jews say Ezra is the Son of God, while Christians say the Messiah is the Son of God. Allah confound them! How perverse they are." (Q9:29,30).

Thus, Allah, Mohammed and Muslims can lie for the betterment of Islam. Muslims may take an oath, but in reality it means nothing, because Allah has stated that Muslims are free from their oaths (Q 66:2)

3. When Muhammed had promised to spend the night with one of his wives named Hafsa, he met beautiful Maria the Coptic and spent the night with her instead of Hafsa.

This broke his promise to his wives. Allah jumped to his defence with a threat to divorce all his wives if they kept protesting. (Q66:1-5).

4. When Allah put love (lust) in Mohammed's heart for his adopted son's wife Zainab, Mohammed wanted to marry her. He realised that there would be a public outcry for him stealing his son's wife. So Mohammed made up a revelation from Allah rebuking him for hiding his love for Zainab.

This gave Allah's sanction to Mohammed stealing his son's wife (33:36-38). Since Allah was always there to help Mohammed get any woman he wanted, he could always make rules to justify his deeds.

Question: Was Mohammed a true prophet of the true God?

Answer: It seems that Muhammed made up his own god who gave him a licence to sin.

The Quran tells us that all Mohammed's past and future sins were forgiven (48:1,2).

10. TWO SERMONS BY DEMONS in the Quran and THEIR PROMISE TO SPREAD MOHAMMED'S RELIGION ISLAM. (72:1-15 and 46:29-31).

When Mohammed could not stop idol worshippers and, with division in his ranks, his wife Khadijah and his uncle/protector died in 620 AD. He felt totally rejected and very depressed, so he went to Al Taif for help. Nobody helped him there except a Christian slave who gave him some food to eat. Here Mohammed cried to Allah for help and jinn (demons) came to help him. These demons accepted his religion and went out as missionaries for Islam.

If evil demons agree to spread Islam, then Islam must be evil and of the devil.

How can we believe a speech of demons whose very nature is to lie and to spread error?

Notice that the demons support the Muslim false understanding about Jesus Christ as follows:

"Our lord hath taken no spouse, neither hath he any offspring." (72:1-15).

Jinn (demons) said, "O our people, listen to the one who invites you to Allah, and believe in him: he will forgive you your sins and deliver you from a woeful scourge." (Q 46:29-31).

These demons readily agreed with Muhammed in his denial of Jesus Christ being the Son of God.

They point people away from Christ to Muhammed for forgiveness of sins.

This should convince any thinking person that, if evil demons recommend us to Muhammed, then we should reject Muhammed and Islam, and turn to Jesus Christ whom demons hate.

11. DEATH TO THOSE WHO LEAVE ISLAM

The Quran teaches that there is no compulsion in religion. (Mohammad made this statement early in his mission to get the cooperation of Jews and Christians in Medina). Yet this is proven to be another lie of Allah's, as seen from statements to the contrary in the Quran such as:

1. Allah says: "If they desert you, seize them and put them to death wherever you find them." Q4:89

2. Allah says: "If, after coming to terms with you, they break their oaths, and revile your faith, make war on the leaders of unbelief - for no oaths are binding on them. Make war on them: Allah will chastise them at your hands and humble them." (Q9:12-14). S Zwemmer in The Law of Apostasy in Islam says. "If anyone turns away from Islam he becomes "Kaffir". Whosoever is a Kaffir deserves death at the hands of Muslims." Mohammad's followers today fight those who leave Islam. 1003

12. THE HIJRA

On 20 June 622 AD, Mohammed accompanied by Abu-Bakar, arrived at Medina (from Mecca) where he lived till his death. This is called the Hijra (or flight) marking the beginning of the Muslim calendar. The Jews at Medina mocked him when he posed as a prophet. Medina was 60% Jewish, and was 450 km north-west of Mecca. The Quran often mentions the Hypocrites who did not accept Mohammed in their hearts, but put up with him because they were not powerful enough to fight him.

13. RAIDING (Mohammed's profession) - THE MEANS TO SPREAD ISLAM

When Muhammed moved to Medina, he had been preaching for 13 years and had gained only about 100 followers, most of whom were poor. Farming was difficult in the desert. The only short-cut to wealth was looting caravans and raiding weaker tribes. They stole women and children, selling them back to their husbands and fathers.

The Quran says: "True believers are those who fight for Allah." (49:15 and 4:76).

In Mohammed's 10 years at Medina, he planned 150 battles. Mohammed organised raiding parties because he loved women, wealth, fame and to spread his religion. The aim of raiding parties was to steal animals, women and children and to loot the caravans. He sold those he didn't like into slavery and kept the pretty women for himself. 20% of the loot had to go to Mohammed. When Muslims grew stronger, they looted stronger tribes, Arabia, other countries and finally hope to conquer the world. There was no change in people's spiritual or moral state after they became Muslims.

The only attraction was to be protected from Islamic raids and to loot non-protected people.

Although Muslims were commanded to brutally kill and loot non-Muslims, they were forbidden to deceive Mohammed and Allah. They were to honestly give them 20% of the loot captured.

Mohammed ordered his men to "kill those who disbelieve in Allah". (LOM, p 672).

After the battle of Badr, Muhammed became so powerful that nobody could criticize him.

A woman named Asma criticised Mohammed for killing so many of her tribe.

Mohammed had her killed and their fear of death was so strong that the whole tribe became Muslim.

The poet Kab ibn Al Ashraf wrote against Mohammed. So Mohammed sent some men to kill Kab.

They threw his head at Mohammed's feet, shouting "Allah is great."

► The Quran is full of verses where Mohammed incites people to war and bloodshed:

1. "Fight valiantly for Allah's cause, so that you may prosper." (5:35).
2. "Whoever fights for the cause of Allah ... we (Allah) shall richly reward him." (4:74).
3. "Fight for the cause of Allah." (2:244; 4:84).
4. "Lay hold of them and kill them wherever you find them." (4:91).
5. "Prophet, rouse the faithful to arms (Al-katal means killing). If there are 20 steadfast men among you, they shall vanquish 200." (8:65).
6. "Fight against those to whom the Scriptures were given (Christians and Jews)." (9:29).
7. "If you do not go to war, Allah will punish you sternly." (9:39).
8. "Whether unarmed or well equipped, march on and fight for the cause of Allah, with your wealth and persons." (9:41).
9. "Prophet, make war on the unbelievers and hypocrites." (9:73).
10. "When the sacred months are over, slay the idolaters wherever you find them. Arrest them, besiege them, and lie in ambush everywhere for them." (9:5).
11. "Make war on them: Allah will chastize them at your hands and humble them." (9:14).
12. "Believers, make war on the infidels who dwell around you. Deal firmly with them. Allah is with you." (9:123).
13. "Allah loves those who fight for his cause." (61:4).
14. "Allah has given those that fight ... a higher rank than those that stay at home." (4:95).
15. "The offenders are those that seek exemption (from war). They are content to be with those who stay behind ... Hell shall be their home, the punishment for their misdeeds." (9:93-95).

These Quran quotes show that if a Muslim did not join the looting and killing of non-Muslims, he was disobedient to Allah and would surely go to hell. What a motivation to murder! An example of Mohammed's butchery was in the seventh year of his stay at Medina where he attacked Khaibur, a Jewish settlement fort on the way to Syria. The Jews surrendered the fort on condition that they be free to leave the country, giving up all their wealth to the Muslims. The chief's 15-year-old wife was taken as Mohammed's wife and the chief was tortured to death. Mohammed then decreed that the men should be killed, the women and children be sold into slavery, and the spoils divided among the Islamic army. During the night, trenches were dug, and in the morning male captives were beheaded in groups of five and their bodies cast into the trench. This butchery lasted all day and into late at night. What a genocidal man of Allah was Mohammed. What a lie is "Allah the compassionate, the merciful." Jesus said, "Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning ... he is a liar, and the father of it." (John 8:44). Mohammed was inspired by Satan.

14. PREDESTINATION

Orthodox Muslims believe that "by the force of Allah's eternal decree, man is not free to do what he wants to do". One well-known Hadith on predestination says: "Allah said to Adam, I have created this family for paradise ... and I have created another family for hell."

A man said to Mohammed, "Of what use will good or bad deeds be?"

Allah said, "When Allah creates one person for the fire, his actions will be like those of the people of hell till he dies." It seems that Mohammed adopted predestination to cover all his evil deeds.

Predestination gave Mohammed the right to do anything he liked because it was the predestined will of Allah, such as marry a six-year-old, marry his son's wife and butcher people.

The Quran teaches that people should obey Allah and Mohammed.

15. MOHAMMED'S DEATH (See youtube.com Who Killed Mohammad? Acts17Apologetics)

Mohammed loved three things: women, scents and food. It was delicious mutton cooked by a beautiful woman that caused his death.

Mohammed went to dine with a beautiful Jewess belonging to a tributary Jewish tribe. She cooked for him a shoulder of lamb that she had poisoned. Mohammed tasted a mouthful, detected the poison and spat it out, but his companion died on the spot. Mohammed asked her why she had done this, and she replied because he had enslaved the Jews. She reckoned that if he died, the Jews would be restored to their former prosperity; but if Mohammed was really a prophet, he would recognize the poison beforehand, no harm would be done, and she herself would believe. (Islam and the West. p 103).

When Muhammed died, he was supposed to ascend to heaven after three days, but this didn't happen. So, after waiting 12 days, they had to bury the body because of the smell. Only Jesus Christ rose from the dead. Jesus Christ, being the true prophet, clearly predicted his death in Matthew 16:21.

16. MOHAMMED COMPARED WITH JESUS CHRIST

Since Islam claims that both Jesus and Mohammad were Muslim prophets sent by Allah, then both must agree in all points and never contradict each other. If they contradict, then:

1. Allah is contradicting himself and, thus, could not be the true God;

2. Mohammed is a false prophet, because true prophets never contradict.

Some Muslims try to avoid any comparison between Jesus and Mohammed by claiming that the Bible is corrupt. This is wrong for two reasons:

1. If the Bible is corrupt, when was it corrupted and who corrupted it? We have documents of the New Testament every decade as far back as 90 AD and the vast majority of these are identical to today's KJV New Testament. The Dead Sea Scrolls, dated 200-100 BC, contain every Old Testament book except Esther, and are identical to today's KJV Old Testament.

2. If the New Testament is corrupt, so is the Quran, because the Quran uses the New Testament gospels for its information on Jesus, such as His virgin birth, etc.

Which parts of the New Testament are supposed to be corrupt?

Let us compare the life of Jesus Christ from the Bible with the life of Muhammed from the Quran to see who had the credentials of being the true prophet of God.

1) Prophecy: Jesus Christ's birth, life, death and resurrection were clearly predicted in the Old Testament. Micah 5:2 predicts Bethlehem as Jesus' birthplace. Neither the Bible nor pagan soothsayers predicted anything about the coming of Mohammed. Examples of such prophecies include:

45 PROPHECIES of Jesus Christ	OT PROPHECY	NT FULFILMENT
1. Born of a virgin	Isaiah 7:14	Matthew 1:18,22-25
2. Tribe of Judah	Genesis 49:10	Luke 3:23,33
3. House of David	Jeremiah 23:5	Luke 3:31
4. Born at Bethlehem	Micah 5:1,2	Matthew 2:1
5. Visited by wise men with gifts.	Isaiah 60:3,6,9	Matthew 2:1-12
6. Given Gold and Incense .	Isaiah 60:6	Matthew 2:11
7. Would be in Egypt for a time.	Hosea 11:1	Matthew 2:13-15
8. Infants killed at His birthplace.	Jeremiah 31:15	Matthew 2:16-18
9. Preceded by messenger (John the Baptist)	Isaiah 40:3	Matthew 3:1-3
10. Ministry to begin in Galilee	Isaiah 9:1	Matthew 4:12-18
11. Suddenly come to His Temple	Malachi 3:1;Psalm 69:9	John 2:13-21
12. Perform Miracles	Isaiah 35:5,6	Matthew 9:35
13. Teacher of Parables	Psalm 78:2	Matthew 13:34,35
14. Heal many.	Isaiah 42:7,16	Matthew 8:16,17;15:30
15. His miracles not believed .	Isaiah 53:1	John 12:37
16. Enter Jerusalem's East Gate . Later shut.	Ezekiel 44:1,2.	Mark 11:1-11.
17. Enter Jerusalem on a donkey	Zechariah 9:9	Matthew 21:6-11
18. Betrayed by a friend	Psalm 41:9	Matthew 10:4; 26:48
19. Sold for 30 pieces of silver	Zechariah 11:12	Matthew 26:15
20. Money to be thrown on the Temple Floor	Zechariah 11:13	Matthew 27:5
21. Money used to buy a potter's field	Zechariah 11:13	Matthew 27:7
22. Forsaken by His disciples	Zechariah 13:7	Matthew 26:56
23. False witnesses accuse Him	Psalm 35:11	Matthew 26:59,60
24. Silent before His accusers	Isaiah 53:7	Matthew 27:12
25. Beaten , scourged and spat on.	Isaiah 50:6	Matthew 26:67
26. Crucified with thieves	Isaiah 53:12	Matthew 27:38
27. Mocked by onlookers.	Psalm 22:7,8; 109:25	Matthew 27:39-43.
28. Hands and feet pierced	Psalm 22:16	Luke 23:33
29. His side pierced	Zechariah 12:10	John 19:34
30. Prayed for His enemies.	Isaiah 53:12.	Luke 23:34.
31. Gall and vinegar offered Him to drink	Psalm 69:21	Matthew 27:34,48
32. Garments parted and lots cast	Psalm 22:18	John 19:23,24
33. No bones broken	Psalm 34:20	John 19:33
34. His forsaken cry	Psalm 22:1	Matthew 27:46
35. Darkness over land from midday	Amos 8:9	Matthew 27:45
36. Buried in rich man's tomb	Isaiah 53:9	Matthew 27:57-60
37. In grave 3 days and 3 nights .	Jonah 1:17	Matthew 12:38-40
38. Rise from the dead	Psalm 16:10	Matt 28:6; Acts 2:31
39. Ascend to Heaven	Psalm 68:18	Acts 1:9
40. Rejected by His own nation, Israel.	Isaiah 53:3	Mark 8:31; Luke 17:25
41. Gentile Nations to believe on Him	Isaiah 60:3	Acts 13:47,48
42. Messiah offer Himself as Prince to Israel 173,880 days after 10pm 4March, 444BC	Daniel 9:25	Luke 19:37-44
43. Messiah comes and is cut off (dies).	Daniel 9:26	John 19:33-35
44. Jerusalem, Temple destroyed after J death	Daniel 9:26	by Titus in 70 AD
45. Jews to lose power to pass death sentence 23 years before the trial of Christ.	Genesis 49:10	11 AD (Josephus, Antiquities, 17:13:1-5)

Some Muslims claim that Jesus' promise of the coming of the Comforter in John 14:16-16:15 was fulfilled in Mohammed. This is wrong because:

- a) The Comforter is said to be the Holy Spirit in John 14:26;
- b) The Comforter will stay with Christians forever (John 14:16) and shall be in you (John 14:17), yet Mohammed did not stay with Christians forever, as he died in 632 AD, nor could he be in Christians;
- c) The Holy Spirit Comforter came at Pentecost in Acts 2:1-4, not 500 years later.

2) Birth: Jesus Christ was conceived miraculously in the womb of the virgin Mary.

The Quran and orthodox Islam fully accept Jesus Christ's virgin birth.

On the other hand, Mohammed was conceived naturally of human parents.

This means Mohammed was born with a sin nature, but Jesus inherited no sin nature.

3) Sinlessness: The New Testament states that Jesus Christ lived a sinless, perfect life.

It says He "knew no sin." (II Corinthians 5:21). His enemies could find "no fault" in Him. (Luke 23:4).

Jesus was "in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin". (Hebrews 4:15).

But Mohammed was a sinner just like all humans.

He lied, he cheated, he sinned after women, he broke his promises, he murdered people, etc.

Mohammed was not sinless.

Ask: "Where in the Quran does it state that Mohammed was sinless?"

Nowhere, but in the following places the Quran states that Mohammed was a sinner:

- i Allah commands Mohammed in Sura 40:55 "Ask forgiveness for your sins."
- ii "We have given you (Mohammed) a glorious victory (taking of Mecca in 630 AD), so that Allah may forgive you your past and future sins .." (Sura 48:1,2).

Mohammed was just another sinner needing forgiveness and Jesus Christ's salvation.

4) Miracles: In Jesus' three-year ministry, He did many miracles such as healing the sick, raising the dead, casting out demons, multiplying loaves and fishes, stilling the wind and the waves, etc.

Mohammed never performed any miracles, as stated in Sura 17:91-95. In the Quran, when doubters asked Mohammed to perform a miracle, he either stayed quiet or referred to his Quran, which contain no prophecies. Every Biblical prophet either did miracles or correctly foretold future events, but Mohammed could do neither, thus making him inferior to every Biblical prophet. The Quran mentions Jesus' miracles: "I shall heal the blind man and leper, and raise the dead to life." (3:49).

5) The Love of God: Jesus lived and preached the love of God.

The New Testament shows that God loves sinners:

- i "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life." (John 3:16).
- ii. "He that loveth not, knoweth not God; for God is love." (I John 4:8).
- iii. "We love him, because he (God) first loved us." (I John 4:19).
- iv. "Then Jesus beholding him loved him (the rich young ruler)." (Mark 10:21).
- v. Jesus was called "a friend of publicans and sinners." (Matthew 11:19).
- vi. "Love one another, as I have loved you." (John 15:12).
- vii. "God commends his love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." Rom 5:8
- viii. "As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love." (John 15:9).
- ix. Jesus prayed for those who crucified him "Father forgive them for they know not what they do. Luke 23:34
- x. Jesus said: "Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you." Matt 5:44
- xi. "Nothing shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord" Rom 8:39
- xii. "Walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us." (Ephesians 5:2).
- xiii. "Husbands love your wives as Christ also loved the church and gave himself for it." (Ephesians 5:22). Don't beat them. (Q4:34).

In contrast, Mohammed never preached the love of God. The Quran never mentions Allah loving man, or man loving Allah. Instead, Allah delights in sending everyone to hell (Q 19:71). Allah lies (13:27), hates his enemies, demands that multitudes be killed (47:4) and sent to hell (11:119), etc.

- 6) Jesus is both God and Man: Mohammad was only a man. Bible calls Jesus God in these places:
- i “Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I AM.” John 8:58,59. Exodus 3:14 God is I AM
 - ii “Unto us a child is born ... his name shall be called The Mighty God.” (Isaiah 9:6).
 - iii Jesus allowed Thomas to call Him “My Lord and my God.” (John 20:28).
 - iv “Feed the church of God which He hath purchased with His own blood.” (Acts 20:28).
 - v “God was manifest in the flesh.” (I Timothy 3:16).
 - vi “Looking for that blessed hope and glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ.” (Titus 2:13). God and Jesus are one. (II Peter 1:1).
 - vii “Unto the Son he saith: “Thy throne, O God, is forever and ever.” (Hebrews 1:8).
 - viii “In the beginning was the Word, the Word was with God and the Word was God.” (John 1:1).
 - ix “There are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost; and these three are one.” (I John 5:7).

7) Killing and Robbing People: Jesus never killed or robbed anyone. If he had, it would have been brought up at His trial. On the other hand, Mohammed killed, robbed and enslaved tens of thousands of people. Robbing and looting caravans, tribes and cities was his chief source of income (20% to Moh).

8) Telling Disciples to Kill: Jesus never commanded or set an example for His disciples to kill, rob or fight enemies in His name. But Mohammed taught his disciples by command and example to kill, rob, lie and terrorize people to submit to Islam.

9) Physical Violence and Terrorism: Jesus forbade His disciples from using physical violence to force people to believe His message. When a Samaritan village rejected Jesus, His disciples asked: “Shall we command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?” Jesus rebuked them and said, “For the Son of man is not come to destroy men’s lives, but to save them”. (Luke 9:51-56). In Matthew 26:51-54 Jesus forbade Peter from using a sword. But Mohammed’s main method of gaining converts was by physical violence of the sword, terrorism and fear of death unless they accept Islam.

10) Taking Other Men’s Wives: Jesus never took another man’s wife to be his wife. But Mohammed often did. This is one of the most disgusting aspects of his life. Mohammed saw his adopted son’s wife without her veil, he lusted after her, asked Zaid to divorce his wife Zainab and, to quieten the public outcry, manufactured a convenient revelation from Allah allowing it, so they were married. “Allah’s commandment (to marry Zainab) must be performed. There is no fault in the prophet, touching what Allah had ordained for him.” (Sura 33:36-38). This Quranic passage has led many thinking Muslims to renounce Islam. When Mohammed conquered a town, he often killed all the men and married the prettiest women. For example, when he conquered Khaibar, a Jewish settlement, he tortured to death the chief Kinana, and married Safiyye his 15-year-old wife.

11) Child Brides: Jesus was never a child molester, nor a paedophile, nor was He sexually involved with young children. But when Mohammad was in his 50’s he married six-year-old Aesha when she was playing with dolls, consummating the marriage when she was age 9 (Hadith 3896 Bukhari).

12) Dying for the Sins of the World: Islam has no concept of a Saviour paying the penalty for our sins. When Jesus died, He died for the sins of all people to save us from hell: “That he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.” (Hebrews 2:9). But when Muhammad died, he was poisoned for murdering a tribe of people. He did not die for anyone else’s sins. There is no Saviour or Sin Bearer in Islam.

13) Jesus Rose from the Dead After Three Days: When Mohammed died, he stayed dead, as any man does. Muslims therefore have no victory over the grave and death.

14) Jesus Ascended Bodily to Heaven as witnessed by the disciples in Acts 1:8-11. But Mohammed stayed dead and buried. Why follow a dead man?

15) Jesus is now in Heaven as our Intercessor, Mediator and Saviour. But neither Mohammed nor the Quran ever regard Mohammed as a saviour or intercessor. The Quran states that man has no intercessor or saviour. You have to save yourself: “They have no guardian or intercessor besides Allah”. (6:51,70). “None has power to intercede for you.” (10:3).

16) Jesus was Often Worshipped as God. “Let all the angels of God worship Him”. (Hebrews 1:6). But the Quran never speaks of worshipping Mohammed. That would be blasphemy. The Quran contradicts itself here by saying that Allah commanded the angels to worship Adam (Q 2:34). This is blasphemy. Yet the Quran doesn’t ask us to worship Mohammed. Is Adam greater than Muhammed? Is Adam God? Jesus accepted worship in Matthew 2:11; 14:33; 28:9,17; Luke 24:52; John 9:38; etc..

17) Personal Relationship with Jesus Christ. When anybody receives Jesus Christ as their Saviour, they become sons of God, with God becoming their loving Heavenly Father. We love Jesus for saving us and giving us eternal life. Which Muslim ever has a personal, loving friendship with Mohammed? Nobody can have a friendship with Mohammed because he is dead.

18) Jesus Gives us a High Moral Example to Follow by living for others, dying for sinners, living a sinless life and always pleasing God the Father. Mohammed did not give us a high moral example. His many sinful, murderous actions explain why so many Muslims are keen to kill their enemies.

19) Jesus Christ’s Beauty of Speech. When you study Jesus Christ’s speeches such as the Sermon on the Mount, (Matthew 5,6,7); the Parables (Matthew 13,20,22,25); rebuking the Scribes and Pharisees (Matthew 15,16,23); the Olivet Discourse (Matthew 24); the New Birth (John 3); the woman at the well (John 4), Jesus’ credentials (John 5); Jesus the Bread of Life (John 6); Jesus the Light of the World (John 8); Jesus the Good Shepherd (John 10); Jesus raises Lazarus (John 11); Jesus sending the Comforter (John 14-16); Jesus the True Vine (John 15); Jesus’ High Priestly Prayer (John 17), etc, these show Him to be the greatest speaker that ever lived.

Compare Jesus’ speeches with Mohammed’s repetitive speeches with no logical train of thought, filled with hatred of non-Muslims, threats of hell torture and many commands to go to Jihad war, etc. with little style or substance, and you will realise that Jesus is infinitely superior to Mohammed.

20) Jesus will Return to Earth to Resurrect and Judge all Men. Orthodox Muslims admit this. The Quran never mentions Mohammed returning to earth, raising the dead or judging all men. Jesus is the coming King and Judge. Mohammed can’t do this because he is dead.

Years later in debates with Christians, embarrassed Muslims being faced with the obvious fact that Mohammed was inferior to Jesus Christ, invented myths about Mohammed being sinless, doing miracles, ascending to heaven, etc. These claims are not found in the Quran or in early Muslim traditions.

Later Muslim theologians borrowed events from the life of Jesus and attributed them to Mohammed. The Muslim myths of Mohammed’s miracles all date after heated debates between Christians and Muslims, and were invented in response to the challenge that Jesus Christ was obviously superior to Mohammed. On all the essential issues, Jesus is vastly superior to Mohammed.

17. IS THE QURAN THE PERFECT WORD OF GOD?

The Bible has much historical narrative - the Quran has very little.

The Bible explains unfamiliar terms - the Quran does not.

The Bible is ordered according to time and subject - the Quran has no logical order of thought.

a) Although Muhammed claimed to be a prophet of God, he did not foresee his own death by poisoning, so he made no preparations to gather his revelations into one document.

If he were a true prophet of God, he would have known the meal was poisoned and would not have eaten it. It was left to his followers to try to write down what he said.

The Concise Encyclopedia of Islam p 230 states:

“The Quran was collected from the chance surfaces on which it was written: from papyrus, flat stones, palm leaves, shoulder blades, ribs of animals, pieces of leather, wooden boards and the hearts of men”.

b) Sometimes animals ate the palm leaves or mats on which the only original Suras were written (Ali Dashti, 23 years, p28). Some men who were the only ones who remembered certain Suras, died in battle before they could write them down.

c) The Quran is arranged beginning with the longest Sura to the shortest Sura. This results in the confusion of no logical chronology.

d) Commands early in the Quran are contradicted by later commands.

e) The Quran repeats statements and stories many times

f) The Quran is incomplete. It has no beginning of the universe, nor does it conclude with the end of earth's history as does the Bible.

g) The Quran could not be a continuation of the Bible as it claims, because it does not fit the Bible's doctrines, literary style or structure. To go from the Bible to the Quran is to go from the superior to the inferior, from the greater to the lesser, from the real to a counterfeit, from the loving to the hateful.

1. Missing Verses. Professor Guillaume in his book Islam p 191 states that one of the Suras (Sura 33) originally had 200 verses in the days of Aesha, Mohammed's favourite wife, but by the time the third Caliph Uthman standardized the text of the Quran, it only had 73 verses. A total of 127 verses had been lost forever from that Sura. "The Shiite Muslims claim that Uthman left out 25% of the original verses of the Quran for political reasons." (McClintock and Strong, Vol 5, p 152).
2. Verses Changed. One of Mohammed's scribes, Abdollah Sarh, would make suggestions to Mohammed about rephrasing, adding or leaving out parts of the Quran's Suras. Mohammed often did as he suggested. Ali Dashti, 23 Years, p 98 explains: "Abdollah renounced Islam because the revelations, if from God, could not be changed at the prompting of a scribe as he. After he left Islam, he went to Mecca and joined the Qorayshites." When Mohammed conquered Mecca, one of the first people he killed was Abdollah, because he knew too much and opened his mouth too often.
3. Verses Abrogated (removed from the text). Verses which are contradictory to Islam have been removed from the text. Examples include the Satanic Verses where Mohammed approved the worship of Allah's three daughters as goddesses. (16:101 "When we change one verse from another." p977).
4. Verses Added. For example, Ubai had several Suras in his Quran which Uthman omitted from his standard text used today. Uthman did not approve of these so he omitted them.
5. No Original. When Mohammed died, there was no collected text of the Quran. Any original writings on palm leaves, tree bark, stones, leather, etc. have long been lost. If a Muslim claims that they have the original Quran, ask where this original manuscript is stored.
6. The Third Caliph, Uthman (650 AD) established the official text of the Quran and destroyed earlier conflicting texts. Ask:
 - a) Why did Uthman destroy other manuscripts if there were no other conflicting manuscripts?
 - b) Why did he use death threats to force people to accept his text, if everyone had the same text?
 - c) Why did many people reject his text in favour of their own texts?
 - d) Why did he have to standardize a common text if a perfect text already existed?Some of these older Quran texts have survived and clearly show that Uthman's text did not contain all the Quran. Encyclopedia Britannica under "Caliphate" states:
"Encouraged by the Caliph's weakness, and by preachers who denounced his errors and innovations, notably his issue of an official text of the Quran and his order to destroy all others, the troops in Kufia and Al Fustat rebelled. A party from Egypt, headed by the son of Abu-Bakr, marched to Medina, besieged Uthman in his house and killed him on June 17, 656 AD.
7. Mohammed's Fingerprints. Muslims claim that the Quran was handed down from heaven and Mohammed was not its human author. Then why does its dialect, vocabulary, style and content happen to be the same Arabic used by a member of the Quraysh tribe living in Mecca around 600 AD? Does heaven speak 7th Century Quraysh Arabic? No! Muslim claims of the Quran having a heavenly origin are fictitious. It is of human origin.

18. MISTAKES IN THE Quran

Many modern Muslims love to criticize the Bible as being corrupt and contradictory, but when anyone dares to criticize the Quran, they label this as rude, offensive and racist. Muslims claim the Quran to be true, but they cannot prove it. If Muslims are free to criticize the Bible, then others should be free to criticize the Quran. Muslims must agree that in the West, everybody is free to criticize the Bible, the Quran, the Hadith, the Book of Mormon or any “holy” book. Any religion which doesn’t allow people to examine its sacred book, using normal rules of research and logic, obviously has something to hide.

Since the Quran claims to have no errors as proof of its inspiration in Sura 85:21,22, the presence of just one error in the Quran shows it to be false and not from God.

“Surely this is a glorious Koran, inscribed on an imperishable tablet.” (Sura 85:21,22).

Throughout his early ministry, Mohammed constantly endorsed the truth of the Bible as the basis of his Quran. “Children of Israel, ... have faith in my revelations, which confirm your Scriptures.” (2:40).

“We gave Moses the Scriptures and knowledge of right and wrong, so that you might be rightly guided” (2:53).

“the Koran ... confirming previous scriptures.” (2:97,101).

Question: Why is the New Testament God’s Word?

Answer: Because it fulfils prophecies given in the Old Testament.

Question: Why is the Quran NOT God’s Word?

Answer: Because it confirms NO prophecies in the New or Old Testament. The Quran is not a continuation of the New Testament, because the Quran contradicts the New Testament:

- 1) The Quran claims itself to be a continuation of the Bible and that it will not contradict it. Say: “We believe in Allah and that which is revealed to us (Quran) in what was revealed to Abraham, Ishmael, Isaac, Jacob and the tribes; to Moses and Jesus and the other prophets by their Lord. We make no distinction among any of them.” (2:136).
- 2) Hence Muslims believe that the same God (Allah) revealed the Bible and the Quran.
- 3) Hence the Quran should never contradict the Bible, otherwise Allah would be contradicting himself.
- 4) If Allah contradicted himself, he is not perfect.
- 5) If Allah is not perfect, then he is not God.
- 6) Since the Bible was before the Quran, and the Quran appeals to the Bible for verification, then whenever there is a conflict between the two, the newer (Quran) must give way to the older (Bible).

Muslim statement: Muslims say that the Quran is always right because the Bible has been corrupted and is untrustworthy.

Christian reply: “Prove it has been corrupted. Who corrupted it. When did they corrupt it?”

There is no manuscript evidence supporting the Quran’s claim that Jesus was not crucified.

The Bible always taught that Jesus died on the cross.

Two choices face the Muslim, both of which disprove the Quran. Either,

1. If the Muslim rejects the Bible, he must also reject the Quran because it claims the Bible to be God’s Word, (Q 5:48 “Quran confirms the scriptures which came before it.”) or,
2. If he accepts the Bible, he still must reject the Quran because it contradicts the Bible.

Instead of giving up the Quran, some Muslims say that the Bible was corrupted after the Quran was written. This is false because we have Bible portions going back as far as 200 BC in the Dead Sea Scrolls of the Old Testament, and as far back as 90 AD with the New Testament. These are identical to the KJV Bible we have today. Hence the majority of Bible manuscripts have not been corrupted.

Logically, then, the Bible must be preferred above the Quran because:

1. The Bible was written before the Quran, and
2. The Quran appeals to the Bible as the already established higher authority.

19. MAJOR MISTAKES IN THE QURAN

- Six or Eight Days of Creation? How many days did it take God to create heaven and earth?
 - The Quran in Sura 41:9,10,12 says God took $2 + 4 + 2 =$ 8 days to create the earth and heavens: "Him who created the earth in 2 days ... in 4 days provided it with sustenance for all alike. In 2 days he formed the sky into seven heavens." (41:9-12).
 - The Bible in Genesis 1:31 and Exodus 20:11 says: "In 6 days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day."
Question: Is the Bible corrupt by saying 6 days?
If it is, then so is the Quran in 7:51 and 10:3 where it also says 6 days:
"Your Lord is God, who created the heavens and the earth in 6 days." (Q7:51).
Hence, if 6 days is right, the Quran is wrong in 41:9,10,12.
If 8 days is right, the Quran is wrong in 7:51 and 10:3.
- Scientific Mistakes. The Quran in 18:85,86 states that Alexander the Great (Dhul-Qarnayn) "journeyed on a road until he reached the setting place of the sun and saw it setting in a pool of black muddy water." The sun does not set in a pool of water, but earth orbits the sun in space.
- The Trinity. Mohammed never understood the doctrine of the Trinity. He wrongly thought that Christians worshipped three gods: "The Father, Mary and Jesus".
"Unbelievers say: "Allah is the Messiah, the son of Mary". (5:72).
Unbelievers say: "Allah is one of the three". There is but one God." (5:73).
"Then Allah will say: "Jesus, son of Mary, did you ever say to mankind: "Worship me and my mother as gods beside Allah"?" (5:116).
Christians believe in one God in three persons, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Matt 28:19 Christians do not believe that Mary is part of the Trinity. The Quran is so clearly wrong here.
- Usury (Charging Interest) Mohammed condemned usury in the Quran:
"Allah has permitted trading and made usury unlawful." (2:275).
"Allah has laid his curse on usury." (2:276).
"Believers, ... waive what is still due to you from usury." (2:278)
"We forbid the Jews good things ... because they practise usury." (4:161).
In 7th Century Arabia, charging interest on money loaned to people was condemned as usury. Modern Muslims openly disobey the Quran here.
Today Muslim banks, Muslim governments and Muslims all charge interest and pay interest on money loaned and borrowed. If Muslims strictly obeyed the Quran's teachings here, there would be no Muslim banks at all.
Muslims defend their practice of charging interest (usury) by saying that this was a 7th Century Arabian cultural practice and could be disregarded today. If this principle applied to all other cultural practices in Islam such as dress code, the five pillars, civil and dietary laws, then Islam would collapse immediately.
Either the Quran is cultural and can be disobeyed, or it is the word of Allah and must be obeyed.
- With Allah, is a Day Equal to 1 000 Years or 50 000 Years?
"All will ascend to Him in a single day, a day whose space is a thousand years by your reckoning".(32:5). "angels and the spirit will ascend to Him in one day: a day whose space is fifty thousand years." (70:4). Which is right? – 1,000 years or 50,000 years? Let us be consistent.
- Did Jesus Die and Rise (19:33) or Did He Not Die (4:157)?
"He spoke and said: He has ... ordained me a prophet. He has purged me of vanity and wickedness. Blessed was I on the day I was born, and blessed I shall be on the day of my death and on the day I shall be raised to life. Such was Jesus, the son of Mary.
That is the whole truth, which they still doubt." (19:33).
"They did not kill him, nor did they crucify him, but they thought they did. ... they did not slay him for certain. God lifted him up to Him." (4:157). 1012 Question: How can something stated in 19:33 be denied in 4:157? Which is correct?

Think: If Muslims and the Quran state that Jesus never died, but was taken up to heaven alive, then they must admit that:

- i) Jesus is still alive today in heaven, because people cannot die in heaven;
- ii) If Jesus has not died (and never will), then Mohammed cannot claim to be Jesus' successor.
- iii) If Jesus never died and Mohammed did die, then Jesus is superior to Mohammed.

7. Did All of Noah's Sons Survive (21:76) or Did One Son Drown (11:42,43)?

a) The Quran in 11:42 says that one of Noah's sons refused to enter the Ark and was drowned in the flood. "Noah cried out to his son, who stood apart "Embark with us, my child. Do not remain with the unbelievers!"

He replied: "I shall seek refuge in a mountain, which will protect me from the flood". ... the billows rolled between them, and Noah's son was drowned". (11:42,43).

b) The Quran contradicts itself in 21:76 by saying that all Noah's kinsfolk were saved: "Noah invoked us, and we answered his prayer. We saved him and all his kinsfolk from the great calamity." (21:76).

The Bible in Genesis 7:1,7,13 and 10:2,6,22 states that Noah's three sons Shem, Ham and Japheth, all entered the Ark and survived the flood.

Hence, the Bible and the Quran state that the Quran is wrong here in 11:42.

8. Historical Characters Out of Their Time

Mohammed and 7th Century Arabs did not think in terms of a historical time line as we do today. They viewed time as never ending cycles, with people of different periods living at the same time. This is why the Quran has Nimrod (2300 BC), Abraham (2000 BC), Moses (1500 BC), Haman (510 BC) and Mary (2 BC) all living and working together.

The Quran has the Flood (2418 BC), Tower of Babel (2250 BC) and Pharaoh (1500BC) all living at the same time. (28:38).

This is a very serious and obvious blunder that proves the Quran to be man-made and NOT the Word of God, because it violates Bible chronology and secular history. Examples include:

- i) "Pharaoh (1500 BC) said: Make me, Haman (510 BC), bricks of clay and build me a tower (2250 BC) that I may climb to the God of Moses." (28:38). Here the Quran has Pharaoh (1500 BC) telling Haman (510 BC) to build the Tower of Babel (2250 BC) with clay bricks to reach to heaven(40:36)
- ii) "When Saul marched out with his army, he said, Allah will put you to the proof at a certain river. He that drinks from it shall cease to be my soldier, but he that does not drink from it, or contents himself with a taste of it in the hollow of his hand, shall fight by my side." (Quran 2:249). Here the Quran confuses King Saul (1000 BC) with Gideon (1249 BC) eliminating his soldiers by the water drinking test.
- iii) "Pharaoh said, "... I will crucify you all". (7:124). Here the Quran has Pharaoh (1500 BC) threatening to crucify people, when crucifixion was not invented until over 1000 years later.
- iv) "We plagued them with floods and locusts, with lice and frogs and blood." (7:136). Noah's flood did not occur in Moses' day. Nor was a flood one of the 10 plagues on Egypt. The Quran is wrong in 17:101 "To Moses we gave nine clear signs." God sent 10 plagues on Egypt, not 9 (Exodus7-12)
- v) Mohammed confused Mary the mother of Jesus with Miriam (the daughter of Amran 3:34; 66:12) who was the sister of Moses and Aaron. "Carrying the child, she came to her people who said to her, Mary, this is indeed a strange thing! Sister of Aaron ..." (19:27,28,30). "In Mary, Imran's (Amram's) daughter, who preserved her chastity and into whose womb we breathed of our spirit". (66:12). Quran 66:12 proves the Quran wrong here because Mary, Jesus' mother, is stated as being the daughter of Imran (or Amram of Exodus 6:20) who was also the father of Moses and Aaron.

This mistake was made because Mary and Miriam are spelt the same in Arabic. Mohammed, not having a Bible, would have been unable to distinguish between the two. Mary did not give birth to Jesus under a palm tree (Q 19:22) but in a manger (eating-trough in a stable in Luke 2:1-20). Mohammed made up false speeches and miracles for Mary in 19:23-26.

9. “The Jews say Ezra is the Son of God.” (Quran 9:30).
The Quran is very wrong here because the Jews have never believed this. Why did Mohammed make up this false statement? Because he wanted an excuse to justify murdering the Jews.
10. “Unbelievers are Those That say: “Allah is the Messiah, the Son of Mary.”” (5:72).
Christians never said that Allah is the name of the Messiah, Jesus Christ as 5:72 claims. The Messiah is Jehovah the Son, Jesus Christ, fully God & fully man, not Allah. Mistaken identity!
11. A Carnal, Sinful Heaven.
The Quran offers a heaven full of wine and free sex. (2:25; 4:57; 11:23; 47:15).
If drunkenness and gross immorality are sinful on earth, how are they right in heaven?
The Quran’s picture of paradise is exactly what a carnal, pagan 7th Century Arab male would have loved. What benefits do women have in heaven? Women don’t count!
12. Mohammed Misunderstood What “Son of God” Meant.
In Mohammed’s mind, to say that God had a Son was to blaspheme God because he thought it meant that God had a male body that had sexual intercourse with Mary.
“God forbid that he himself should beget a son!” (Quran 19:35).
“How should He have a son when he had no consort?” (Quran 6:101).
Jesus Christ was the “Son of God” before He was born of Mary (Proverbs 30:4; Psalm 2:12; Daniel 3:25; 7:13). Neither was Jesus created sexually. “Son of God” is a title of Jesus Christ.
“Son of God” does not mean that He was produced by sex between God and Mary.
Adam was called a “son of God” (Luke 3:38), but Adam was not created by God having sex with a woman. Angels are called “sons of God” (Job 1:6; 2:1), but God did not create them by sexual means. Jesus is the Huios (same nature) as God, not the Teknon boy of God. The Quran is 100% wrong here.
13. Noah was age 600 years when the Flood came, not 950 years. (Q29:14). See Genesis 7:11.
“We sent Noah to his people. He stayed with them 950 years, so the Flood overtook them.” 29:14.

20. ARABIAN, JEWISH AND CHRISTIAN SOURCES OF THE QURAN

Remember that in Mohammed’s lifetime the Old Testament and New Testament had not been translated into Arabic. Mohammed had the Jewish “Targum” and “Apocryphal Gospels” which contained many fictitious stories which he made small changes to and put them into the Quran. This proves that Mohammed wrote the Quran from earthly sources available to him. Therefore the Quran is not of heavenly origin, nor should we believe it as God’s Word.

- 1. Arabian Sources The Quran repeats Arabian fables as if they were true. Examples include:
- i) The story of an entire village of people who were turned into apes for fishing on the Sabbath day, was a popular legend in Mohammed’s day.
“Each Sabbath the fish appeared before them floating on the water, but on the week days they never came near them. Thus did we tempt them because they had done wrong.” (7:163).
“We said to them, “Turn into detested apes”.” (7:166; 2:65).
- ii) The story of seven men and their animals who slept for 309 years in a cave and then woke up (Q 18:9-26): “We made them sleep in the cave for many years, and then awakened them (Q 18:12) after 309 years.” (18:26).
- iii) The fable of four dead cut-up birds getting up and flying was well known in Mohammed’s time: “Take four birds, cut their bodies to pieces, Scatter them over the mountain tops, then call them back. They will come swiftly to you.” (Quran 2:260).

2. Jewish Sources. The Quran takes stories from the Jewish Talmud, the Midrash and Apocrypha. Abraham Geiger in 1833 and Abraham Katsh in 1954 (New York University) documented this.

i) The birth of Mary and the story of Allah giving her food comes from the Protoevangelium of James the Lesser.

“Whenever Zacharias visited her in the Shrine he found that she had food with her.

“Mary”, he said, “where is this food from?” “It is from Allah” she answered”. (Q 3:35-37).

ii) The Quran 19:22-26 claims that Mary gave birth to Jesus under a palm tree which gave her fresh ripe dates. This came from the Protoevangelium of James the Lesser.

iii) Sura 27:17-44 comes from the Second Targum of Esther.

Solomon’s forces of jinn (demons), men and birds were called to Solomon. The lapwing was absent, so Solomon threatened to kill it. The lapwing on arrival told Solomon about the Queen of Sheba ruling a nation of idolators. One of Solomon’s jinn offered to bring her throne 600 miles in an instant. When the Queen came to Solomon, she submitted to Allah.

iv) In 2:259 we read the unrealistic tale about Allah causing a man and his ass to die for 100 years, then raising them up to see that his food and drink had not rotted.

This was a Jewish fable that Mohammad put in the Quran.

v) In the Targum of Jerusalem, the Targum of Jonathan ben Uziah, and in pirke Rabbi Eleazer, we find the legend of how, when Cain killed his brother Abel, a raven taught him how to bury the dead body. This story was included in the Quran in 5:30,31: “Then Allah sent down a raven which dug the earth to show him how to bury the naked corpse of his brother.”

vi) The story of two angels, Harut and Marut, who teach mankind magic and cause division between man and wife, was taken from the Midrash Yalkut Chapter 44 and included in Quran 2:102.

vii) The story in the Quran 7:171 of Allah lifting up Mount Sinai and holding it over the Jews’ heads as a threat to squash them if they rejected the law came from the Jewish book Abodah Sarah. “We suspended the mountain over them (they feared it was falling down on them) ...” 7:171.

viii) Mohammed taught that a scale will be used on judgment day to weigh a person’s good deeds and bad deeds, to determine whether one goes to heaven or hell. He learned this from the Testament of Abraham and put it in the Quran 101:6-9. “Then he whose scales are heavy shall dwell in bliss; but he whose scales are light, the Abyss shall be his home.” (101:6-9).

The problem with this is that, compared with God, we are all big sinners, none of us are righteous.

Mohammed is comparing sinners with sinners, but if the true Holy God was writing it, sinners would be compared to God.

ix) The idea of seven hells and seven heavens comes from the Jewish books Zohar and the Hagigah. “God created the seven heavens one above the other” (71:15; 67:3; 65:12). The Bible (2 Corinthians 12:2) says there are only three heavens: the atmosphere, space and where God’s throne is located.

x) The false story of Jesus as a baby speaking in the cradle, came from Egypt (150 AD). Mohammed wrote this in the Quran 19:29,30, copying it from the false First Gospel of the Infancy of Jesus Christ.

xi) The false story of Jesus as a child making clay birds and breathing life into them, was copied from Thomas’ Gospel of the Infancy of Christ and placed in the Quran (3:49).

The Bible tells us in John 2:11 that Jesus’ first miracle was at Cana of Galilee, not as a child.

xii) The Jewish idea, “whosoever kills a man, it shall be as if he had killed the whole of mankind”, was written in Mishna Sanhadrin (4:5) and found its way into the Quran (5:32).

xiii) The tale of Abraham being delivered from Nimrod’s fire (Q 37:97,98) came from the Midrash Rabbah, because the city of “Ur” sounded like fire “Or” in Aramaic.

3. Pagan Sources. Mohammad got some of his ideas from Hinduism and Zoroastrianism.

The following were previously known stories which were later attributed to Mohammad:

- i) The flying trip through the seven heavens.
- ii) The Houries of paradise.
- iii) Paradise with rivers of wine and women (Persian origin).
- iv) The Peacock story.
- v) Praying five times a day toward Mecca, came from the Serbians.
- vi) Imraul Qaais' daughter, on hearing Q 54:1,29,31,46, recognised them as her father's poem and demanded to know how her father's verses had become part of divine revelation, supposedly preserved on stone in heaven. (Dr A Shorroh p 193).
- vii) Worshipping at the Kabah stone.
- viii) Fasting for part of a day for one month.
- ix) Temporary marriage (Muta) was a well-known pagan Arabian custom.
- x) Cutting off a thief's hand (Q 5:38) came from the Code of Hammurabi, Law 253.

Conclusion: Although devout Muslims sincerely believe that Islam's doctrines came from heaven and not from earthly sources, historians have clearly proven them to come from pre-Islamic Arabian culture. Thus, Mohammad did not preach anything new.

Even the idea of the one true God was borrowed from Jews and Christians.

These facts prove Islam to be false, Allah is not God, Mohammed was not His prophet and the Quran is not the Word of God.

21. NONSENSE IN THE HADITH

Muslims believe that the Hadith is just as divinely inspired and as authoritative as the Quran.

The Hadith is a collection of early Muslim traditions which record Mohammed's words and deeds according to his wives, family, friends and Muslim leaders.

The Muslim scholar, Dr Muhammed Hamidullah, in Introduction to Islam states that, "The original teachings of Islam are found above all in the Quran and the Hadith" (p 250), and that these are "the basis of all Islamic law" (p 163), and "both the Quran and Hadith are based on divine inspiration". (p 23).

The Muslim writer, Abdalatati, in his book Islam in Focus says,

"All the articles of faith are based upon and derived from the Quran and the Traditions (Hadith) of Muhammed." (p 21).

Hence, orthodox Muslims consider the Hadith to be divinely inspired and authoritative.

We use the nine-volume translation of Al-Bukhari's Hadith by Dr Muhammad Muhsin Khan entitled The Translation of the Meaning of Sahih Al-Bukhari. (Kazi Publications, Lahore, Pakistan, 1979).

It is recommended and approved by all Muslim authorities.

The Introduction states: "Al-Bukhari only chose 7275 Hadiths, of which there is no doubt about their authenticity. Allah revealed to Muhammad the Glorious Quran and the Second Inspiration ie: his traditions".

"Al-Bukhari's work is the most authentic book after the Quran." (p 14).

Every Muslim must believe and obey the Hadith.

Key: Many Muslims, when confronted with some of Mohammed's absurd teachings in the Hadith, will deny the Hadith's authority and inspiration.

Mohammed's absurd statements in the Hadith prove clearly that it could not be God inspired.

Muslims, when faced with Mohammed's absurd statements in the Hadith, are forced to:

- i) defend the ridiculous and to bury their rational mind in an attempt to defend the indefensible; or
- ii) admit that Muhammed is not a true prophet of God, that Muhammed is wrong, and that they must hence leave Islam as error.

Any thinking, honest Westerner, when faced with Muhammed's foolish statements in the Hadith, would never consider Islam as a serious religion again.

The Hadith sets forth the rules and rituals Muslims must follow to earn their salvation and obtain Allah's forgiveness. One mistake can cancel all good works you have done so far.

Consider these "gems of wisdom" from Muhammed in the Hadith:

1. He did not like people asking him questions about his claims to prophethood or revelation. He said: "Allah has hated you..for asking too many questions". (Vol 2, No 555 and Vol 3, No 591).
2. When a Muslim man converted to Christianity, died and was buried, the earth would not accept his body but kept throwing it out of the grave. (Vol 4, No 814, 3617).
3. Shouting Food.
As Muhammed ate food, the food would shout out loud and glorify Allah (Vol 4, No 779, 3579).
4. Muhammed taught that the majority of people in hell were women.
The Prophet said, "I was shown the Hell-fire and the majority of its dwellers were women".
5. Women are deficient in intelligence. (Vol 1, No 28,301 and Vol 2, No 161).
Vol 2, No 541 tells us that most people in hell are women because,
"O women! I have not seen anyone more deficient in intelligence and religion than you."
This is why women are not given equal rights under Islamic law.
6. A woman's court testimony is worth only half that of a man. "The Prophet said: "Isn't the witness of a woman equal to half that of a man?" The woman said, "Yes". He said, "This is because of the deficiency of a woman's mind". (Vol 3, No 826).
7. Muhammad taught that people are tortured in hellfire because they soil themselves with urine. (Vol 2, No 443, 1378). "One of the major sins is not to protect oneself (one's clothes and body) from one's urine. Once the Prophet, while passing a graveyard, heard the voices of two persons being tortured in their graves. The Prophet then said: "Yes! (they are being tortured for a major sin). Indeed, one of them never saved himself from being soiled with his urine". (Vol.1, Ch 57,215)
What about when some people become old and incontinent? Do they become outcasts?
8. Muhammed ordered people to drink camel urine mixed with milk as medicine.
"So the Prophet ordered them to go to the herd of camels and to drink their milk and urine (as a medicine)". (Vol 1, No 234, 233).
9. Rules for urinating and defecating are:
 - i) You must not face Mecca when urinating or defecating. (Vol 1, No 144, 145, 148, 149).
 - ii) You must not use your right hand to hold or wipe yourself. (Vol 1, No 153, 154).
 - iii) Whoever cleans his private parts with stones should do it with an odd number of stones. (Vol 1, No 162). This was because he was superstitious about odd numbers.
 - iv) He feared that evil spirits might enter his body whenever he urinated or defecated. Thus he prayed for special protection. (Vol 1, No 144).
10. He was afraid of a strong wind: "Narrated Anas: Whenever a strong wind blew, anxiety appeared on the Prophet's face (fearing that the wind might be a sign of Allah's wrath)." (Vol 2, No 1034).
11. The Fly in the Cup: If a fly falls into your cup, do not worry about it because Muhammed said that while one wing has the disease, the other wing has the antidote. So drink up. (Vol 4, No 537).
12. 600 Wings: Muhammed tells us that the angel Gabriel has 600 wings. (Vol 6, No 380).
13. Satan stays in the upper part of the nose all night" (Vol 4, No 156) so said Muhammad.
This is why he would suck in water up his nose and then blow it out.

14. Satan urinates in your ears if you fall asleep during prayers. (Vol 2, No 1144).
15. Passing wind: Muhammed tells us that if you commit the sin of “hadath” (passing wind out the bowel) while you are praying, then Allah will not hear your prayers. (Vol 1, No 445; Vol 9, No 86)
16. Bad breath means that Allah will not hear your prayers. You may not eat garlic before prayers.
17. Yawning is from Satan according to Muhammed in Vol 4, No 509.
It was really Muhammed, not God, that was offended by yawning, bad breath and passing wind, so he banned them in Allah’s name. Illiterate people believed him or they’d be killed.
18. What do spirits eat? The jinn or spirits eat dung and bones, according to Muhammed. Vol 5, 200
19. Muhammed spat into the hands of his followers so they could smear his saliva on their faces.
“Whenever Allah’s Apostle spitted, the spittle would fall in the hand of one of them who would rub it on his face and skin”. (Vol 3, No 891; Vol.1, Chap.70, 241).
20. Adam was 90 feet tall states Muhammed in Vol 4, No 543.
“The Prophet said, “Allah created Adam, making him 60 cubits tall (90 feet)”.”
How tall was Eve, and their children? Why are we not that tall?
Which Muslim will defend this idea of a 90 ft tall Adam?
21. Stars as missiles. The stars were created by Allah as missiles to throw at devils, to keep them away from listening to God’s conversations, according to Muhammed in Vol 4,Ch3, p282. Q41:12
22. Muhammed had no assurance of salvation. “The Prophet said, “By Allah, though I am the Apostle of Allah, yet I do not know what Allah will do to me”.” (Vol 5, No 266). (Q 46:9).
23. Death to those leaving Islam. The Hadith makes the repeated claim that no-one ever leaves Islam: “Does anybody who embraces Islam become displeased and renounce Islam afterwards? I replied “No”.” (Vol 1, No 6 and 48).
Then it contradicts itself by saying that death is the punishment for those who leave:
“The Prophet said: “ If a Muslim discards his religion, kill him”.” (Vol 4, No 260). (Q 4:89).
It even records the execution of those who left Islam for another religion (Vol 5, No 630).
Hadith (Vol 9) warns those leaving Islam that they will be murdered. (p 10,11,26,45-50, 341,342).
Vol 9, No 64 says, “So wherever you find them kill them, for whoever kills them shall have reward on the Day of Resurrection”.
23. Gabriel opened Mohammed’s chest and washed his insides with Zam-Zam water.
He poured wisdom and faith into his chest and then closed it up. (Vol 1, No 345; Vol.2, 1636).
24. Muhammed cuts the moon in half. When the Meccans asked Muhammed to do a miracle to prove he was Allah’s prophet, he supposedly reached up with his sword and cut the moon in half. This is stated as fact in Vol 4, No 3636, 3637, 3638; Vol 5, No 208; Vol 6, No 387, 388, 389, 390.
How the two sides of the moon were put together and by whom, we are not told. That would have been an even greater miracle. Maybe Muhammed had a sword that was 250,000 miles long. The Arabs of 600 AD believed that the sun and moon were the actual size they appeared to the naked eye. Why did he have to conquer the Meccans by force? Would not such a miracle convert them?
25. A palm tree cried like a baby because Muhammed preached from a pulpit instead of standing beneath the tree to preach. So Muhammed left his pulpit and caressed its trunk until it stopped crying. (Vol 2, No 41; Vol 4, No 3583, 3584, 3585).
26. Muhammed referred to black people as raisin heads (Vol 1, No 662 and Vol 9, No 256).

27. Muhammed owned black slaves. When Al-Khattab came to Muhammed's house, he found "a black slave of Allah's apostle sitting on the first step". (Vol 6, No 435). Jesus Christ did not own slaves, but came to set men free. Luke 4:18.
28. Muhammed was a white man, not black as some claim. A man entered a mosque and asked "Who among you is Mohammed?" We replied, "This white man reclining on his arm". (Vol 1, No 63). Also Vol 2, No 122 refers to Muhammed as a white person.
29. Bad tempered. Since he claimed to be a prophet, a man asked Muhammed where to find his lost camel. "The Prophet got angry and his cheeks and face became red." (Vol 1, No 91).
30. Sins of Muhammed included torturing people by:
- i) cutting off their hands and feet;
 - ii) burning their eyes out with hot irons (Vol 1, No 234);
 - iii) leaving them to bleed to death after cutting off their limbs (Vol 8, No 794, 795);
 - iv) making people die of thirst.
- Jesus Christ was the only one not touched (corrupted) by Satan at birth (Vol 4, No 506). This means Muhammed was touched by sin. Jesus being sinless, is superior to Muhammed being a sinner. Therefore Jesus can save us, but Muhammed cannot.
31. People could turn into rats, monkeys, apes and pigs according to Muhammed who claimed that Jews were transformed into rats. (Vol 4, No 524, 569). (Q 5:60).

Conclusion: There are no recorded miracles of Muhammed in the Quran, as he readily admitted. But after his death, his disciples began to invent miracles for him in order to escape the embarrassment that he was inferior to the miracles of Moses, Jesus and pagan soothsayers. Many of his pretended miracles were originally performed by Jesus, Moses and pagan magicians, but now transferred to Muhammed.

22. JIHAD or HOLY WAR

The Hadith is filled with commands to make violent war on non-Muslims in order to force them to become Muslims. Muhammed wanted Islam to be spread mainly by the sword. Jihad was so important to Muhammed that he made it the second most important deed in Islam.

Allah's apostle was asked, "What is the best deed?" He replied, "To believe in Allah and his Apostle". The questioner asked, "What is the next (in goodness)?"

He replied, "To participate in Jihad (religious fighting) in Allah's cause." (Vol 1, No 25).

Muslims must force Jews, Christians & pagans to embrace Islam or pay the Jizya tax for non-Muslims. Jihad uses several methods:

1. Jihad of the Sword. People must either convert or by military violence be killed and enslaved. Muhammed warned the Byzantine king, "If you become a Muslim you will be safe". (Vol 1, No 6). If the king did not convert, he and his kingdom would be destroyed and enslaved. In Vol 3, No 495 we read, "Allah made the Prophet wealthy through conquests".
Key: When a Muslim murdered someone during a Jihad, he got to take the man's property. The prophet said, "Whoever has killed an enemy & has proof of that, will possess his spoils". Vol 4, 379 This is the driving force behind Muslim violence in Africa today. In Nigeria and Sudan, over 1 million Christians and pagans have been brutally slaughtered and enslaved by Jihad because they would not become Muslims. "Our Prophet has ordered us to fight you, till you worship Allah alone or give Jizya." (Vol 4, 386)
2. Jihad of Taxation. Those who refuse to become Muslims must pay a special tax called Al-Jizya (Vol 4, Chapter 21, p 251-2). This financial burden suppresses non-Muslims, making their life as hard as possible. (Q 9:29).

3. Jihad of Financial Reward. In Iraq a free university education has been offered to any Jew or Christian who will embrace Islam.
$1000 is offered to any South African black who will renounce Christianity and embrace Islam. They will be paid $500 for any other blacks they convert to Islam.
In Tanzania, a Muslim receives 25,000 shillings for winning a Christian to Islam, and 100,000 shillings ($150) for winning a priest or pastor to Islam.
No church is allowed to be built on Saudi soil, in order to suppress Christianity.
4. Jihad of Fear. The death penalty is applied to anyone who renounces Islam to follow another religion such as Christianity. In Egypt, many Christians are being tortured in prison, whose only “crime” was to convert to Christianity.
5. Jihad of Kidnapping and Slavery. The only place in the world today where black slavery occurs is in Muslim countries. Sudanese Muslims capture and sell black women and children of the Dinka Christian tribe for $15 each (London Economist, Jan 1990).
Non-Muslim women who go to Saudi Arabia to work as maids are often enslaved, beaten and raped by their Muslim employers. When they try to escape, the Saudi government will not let them leave the country, but returns them to their masters.
6. Jihad of the Courts. Non-Muslims are denied equal access to and equal protection before the law, because their testimony in court is not valid against a Muslim. (Vol 3, Chap 31, p 525, 526). This applies even to murder: “No Muslim should be killed for killing an infidel.” (Vol 4, 283; Vol 9, 50)
7. Jihad of Paradise. Any Muslim who is killed while fighting in a Jihad is told that he will go straight to the sexual pleasures of paradise. (Vol 1, No 35 and Vol 4, No 386). (Q 3:195)
8. Jihad of Breeding. Muslims are told to marry several wives and breed more Muslim children in order to overpopulate the world, migrate to the West, become a majority and take over politically.

23. ISLAM AND VIOLENCE

Why do Muslims commit such horrific acts of violence? They are simply being true to what their religion dictates. Allah in Q 9:19-22 states that Jihad attracts more rewards than other religious duties in Islam. “If victory is won in Jihad, Muslims receive the enormous booty of a country, which cannot be equalled to any other source of income. If there is defeat or death, there is everlasting paradise.” (Q 61:10-12).

Hence Jihad is NOT extremism, but normal in Islam.

A Christian once asked a Muslim man, “What would you do if your son becomes a Christian?” He replied, “I’d cut his throat”.

The greatest hindrance to a Muslim following Christ is FEAR of what other Muslims would do to him.

Where immediate invasion of a country is not possible, the policy has always been as follows:

“Migrate to Christian areas because they are tolerant. Pretend to be peaceful, friendly and hospitable; begin to clamour for religious, political and social rights and privileges that you will not allow Christians in an Islamic country; breed fast there and settle down; as you increase in a particular area, insist that there should be no Christian activities in your community. You may speak or write to discredit their religion, but they must not talk about Islam. Begin to expand your community. Christian activities should be restricted in all the places you expand to; the moment you have enough military might against the “disbelievers”, these trinitarian kaferis, go ahead and eliminate them or suppress them as much as you can, and be in control.” (Who is This Allah, G J O Moshay, p 18).

A typical Muslim, following the Quran, must be violent, especially if he wants to get any reward in heaven. “Whoso fights in the way of Allah, be he slain or be he victorious, on him we (Allah) shall bestow a vast reward.” (Q 4:74).

In the Hadith, Mishkat (p 721, 810) Muhammad said, “The last hour will not come before the Muslims fight the Jews and the Muslims kill them”. Read Ezekiel 37-39 to see what God will do to Iran, Libya, Sudan, Turkey and Russia when they invade Israel.

Many Westerners who are bothered by Islamic terrorism, are so engrossed with technology that they forget history. Islam originally meant “bravery, heroism, defiance of death, to die in battle.”

Ayatollah Khomeini said, “The purest joy in Islam is to kill and be killed for Allah”. (The Arabs, D Lamb p 287).

In 1984 he said, “In order to achieve the victory of Islam in the world, we need to provoke repeated crises, restore value to the idea of death and martyrdom. The important thing is to engulf the world in crises”. (Le Point Magazine No 599, 12 March 1984, p 89,91).

Serious Muslims are morbidly worried about the way Christianity is growing today. “Kuwait (a Muslim country) had just one Arab Christian family 50 years ago. Now they have over 35 evangelical churches in Kuwait”. In 2000, 5.3% of Kuwait claims to be Christian. Indonesia has over 6000 full-time Christian missionaries and 10% of its 200 million people claim to be Protestants.

Question: How can Islam spread without using violence?

What message of salvation have they to offer to a sinning, dying world, except to repeat “Allah is great” one million times? Muslims see Christianity as its greatest threat in any land.

What Muslims need is a complete overhaul of the heart, a spiritual heart transplant, an operation done by the Spirit of God on their hearts, and to be born again.

Until a Muslim is born again, he cannot be peaceful.

To imagine a real, peaceful, gentle Muslim is like imagining a round square or a holy devil.

Who is this Allah that is so offended by the Gospel of Christ? Can he be the God of the Bible who said, “This is my beloved Son, hear him”. (Luke 9:35).

Jesus said to Christians, “Whoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service. These things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me”. (John 16:2,3).

The Allah that Muslims claim is God, is not the true God.

Muslim Violence in Nigeria includes these examples:

1. In 1980 the Islamic uproar in Kano saw 4,177 people slaughtered.
2. On 30 October 1983, eight big church buildings were burnt in Kano.
3. In 1984, Muslims in Yola and Jimeta went berserk killing 700 people and rendering 6000 people homeless.
4. In March 1987, Muslim students went on a rampage in Kafanchan, spreading to Kaduna and Zaria. All 150 churches but one in Zaria were burnt down in three days of Jihad. Many Christians were killed. The cause of the riot was a female Muslim student who accused a preacher of misinterpreting the Quran.

The Muslim atrocities against Christians in Nigeria and Sudan are so unspeakable that decency forbids a discussion of them.

For Islam, peace is not achieved until Islam has swallowed the nations.

To Muslims, peace means total eradication of their enemies. Nobody should even think of giving peace a chance in a nation with a large number of Muslims. Peace to Islam does not mean happy co-existence, but it means destruction of their enemies.

For Muslims, it does not take two to fight; all they need to do is to take the Quran seriously. When the International Islamic Conference was held in Britain in 1976, Muslims determined & vowed “If we can win London for Islam, it won’t be hard to win the whole Western world”. (Battle Cry, Chick, Sept 1990)

Challenge: If Muslims want their god, Allah, to rule us in the free world, they should allow us to study their god thoroughly first:

1. Do we want to lose our freedom of religion, freedom of speech, freedom of the press, and lose our basic human rights?
2. Do women want to lose their right to vote? Do we want the god of Saudi Arabia where women cannot drive a car? Should a wife need an exit permit from her husband to leave the house? Muslims do not want to be offended, but they can go to any length to offend and assault Christianity. If we take the attitude of “live and let live” towards Islam, it will surely live; but it will live to destroy us and our freedoms.

Question: Why are you a Muslim?

Answer: Not because you sat down and compared different religions to see which one had the Divine supernatural credentials. You are a Muslim because centuries ago Muslims invaded your country, killed your ancestors and threatened everybody else with death unless they became Muslim.

Why be loyal to Islam when Muslims murdered your ancestors and would do the same to you today?

Ask: We must study who this Allah (the god of the Quran) really is, who has been inspiring Muslims to hate Christ and to murder Christians.

Could Allah be the devil disguising himself as God? Is Islam a case of mistaken identity?

If Muslims are convinced that a person is blaspheming Allah or Mohammed, why don't they let Allah or Muhammed punish the blasphemer? Is Allah so weak that he needs weak human beings to defend him? If Allah is so powerful, let Allah punish his Christian enemies.

The first war the Israelites fought was because of a direct assault from the Amalakites. Israel never started an unprovoked war.

When King David wanted to build a temple for God, God told him, “Thou shalt not build an house for my Name, because thou hast been a man of war, and hast shed blood.” (I Chronicles 28:2,3).

This is the God of the Bible - a peacelover.

We are sure He is completely different from the Allah god of the war-making Mohammed.

Allah promises great rewards in paradise to Muslims who shed blood.

The God of the Bible disapproves of murder and says that murderers shall not inherit the Kingdom of God:

“The works of the flesh are these ... murders ... they which do such things shall not inherit the Kingdom of God. The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, ...” (Galatians 5:21,22).

“Ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.” (I John 3:15).

“But ...murderers ...all liars shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death.” (Revelation 21:8).

Muslims who are murderers and Allah who is a liar, “deceiving who he will” (Q 74:31) will be thrown into the lake of fire.

The true religion will have Satan as an enemy who must be fought against with the strongest weapons available. With what weapons does Allah recommend to fight Satan? Stones and pebbles, because every Muslim pilgrim to Mecca must throw seven pebbles at a pillar regarded as the great Satan. Throwing pebbles cannot hurt a spirit. Satan must be laughing at such foolishness.

Muslims saw that Mohammed by using peaceful means could only convert 100 people in 13 years, but through raiding, looting and holy war, he could force or entice hundreds of thousands of people to embrace Islam in no time at all. “War is ordained for you.” (Q 2:216).

According to Islam, Muhammed is the perfect man, so all Muslims should treat their enemies, their wives and other people as Muhammed set the example.

New Muslim converts were gained by them seeing Allah fixing their economic problems by allowing them to raid and loot surrounding tribes all year round.

Muslim hunger was satisfied by the silly story that “when any dweller of paradise desires bird meat, the bird will automatically fly to him, well roasted and sliced into pieces. After eating their fill, the remaining birds will fly away.” (Hadith).

24. JESUS CHRIST STATED THAT HE WOULD SOON DIE ON THE CROSS

" he that believeth not shall be damned." Mark 16:16

I. 29 Direct Statements by Jesus Christ Himself of His Death at Jerusalem in 33AD.

Matthew 12:40 So shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

Matthew 16:21 From that time forth began Jesus to show unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders, and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day. (Mark 8:31; Luke 9:22)

Luke 9:30,31 There talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias: who appeared in glory, and spoke of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

Matthew 20:17-19 Jesus going up to Jerusalem took the 12 disciples apart on the way, and said unto them, Behold we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of Man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, & to scourge, and to crucify him: & the third day he shall rise again. Mk10:32-34; Lk 18:33

Matthew 20:28 The Son of Man came..to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many. Mark 10:45

Matthew 21:37,39 But last of all he sent unto them his Son... (Mark 12:78; Luke 20:15). And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard and slew him. He spake of them. (v.45).

Matthew 26:2 After two days...the Son of Man is betrayed to be crucified.

Matthew 26:12 In that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial. (John 12:7)

Matthew 27:35 And they crucified him.

Matthew 27:38 Then were there two thieves crucified with him.

Matthew 27:50 Jesus when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost. (Luke 23:46).

Matthew 27:53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection.

Matthew 27:57,58 Joseph...went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.

Matthew 27:63 That deceiver said, while he was yet alive, after three days I will rise again.

Matthew 28:5 The angel answered ... I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.

Matthew 28:6,7 Come, see the place where the Lord lay...tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead. (Luke 24:4-8). (Spoken by angels).

Mark 9:9 And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead.

Mark 9:31 He... said unto them, the Son of Man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.

Luke 23:43 Jesus said unto him... "Today shalt thou be with me in paradise."

Luke 24:46-48 Jesus...said unto them, "Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day ...And ye are witnesses of these things."

John 2:19-22 "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up...But he spake of the temple of his body. When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said."

John 3:14 "As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up: that whosoever believeth in him should not perish but have everlasting life."

John 8:28 Then said Jesus..., "When ye have lifted up the Son of Man, then shall ye know that I am..."

John 10:15-17 I lay down my life for the sheep (v.15)...Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I may take it again.

John 12:32,33 And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me. This he said, signifying what death he should die.

John 19:30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, it is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost.

John 19:34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water. (This is medical proof that Jesus was dead from a ruptured pericardium).

John 20:19,20 Came Jesus and stood in the midst...he shewed unto them his hands and his side.

John 20:27 Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless but believing.

II. Witnesses who saw Jesus Christ being crucified:

- i) Simon a Cyrenian who carried his cross. (Mark 15:21).
- ii) Roman soldiers who crucified him and parted his garments. (Mark 15:24-26).
- iii) Two thieves who were crucified next to him. (Mark 15:27).
- iv) Passers by who recognized him and mocked Him. (Mark 15:29,30).
- v) Chief priests who mocked him at the cross. (Mark 15:31,32).
- vi) Centurion who said that He was the Son of God. (Mark 15:39).
- vii) Mary Magdalene, Mary mother of James, Joses, and Salome. (Mark 15:40).
- viii) Many other women which came up with him to Jerusalem. (Mark 15:41).
- ix) Joseph of Arimathea who begged the body of Jesus. (Mark 15:43-44).
- x) Jesus Himself on cross who said "It is finished: he bowed his head, & gave up the ghost" John 19:30
- xi) Angel at the tomb said "Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth which was crucified. (Mark 16:6).
- xii) A great company of people (Luke 23:27). All the people beholding. (Luke 23:48).
- xiii) Cleopas and his friend on the road to Emmaus. (Luke 24:18-23).
- xiv) Roman soldier who speared Jesus' side. (John 19:31-37).

III. Old Testament Prophets who said that Jesus Christ Would Die

Daniel 9:25,26 After 62 weeks (483 years) shall Messiah be cut off but not for himself: and the people (Romans) of the prince that shall come (antichrist) shall DESTROY the CITY (Jerusalem in 70 AD) and the SANCTUARY (Temple in 70 AD).

Zechariah 12:10 They (the house of David) shall look upon me (Jehovah) whom they (the house of David) have pierced.

Zechariah 13:6 And one shall say unto him (Messiah at his second coming), what are these wounds in thine hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.

Psalms 22:1 My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? This prophecies Jesus' words on the cross.

Psalms 22:14 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint: my heart is like wax.

Psalms 22:15 My tongue cleaveth to my jaws; thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

Psalms 22:16 They pierced my hands and my feet.

Psalms 22:18 They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.

Psalms 16:10 Neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

Isaiah 53:8 He was cut off out of the land of the living.

Isaiah 53:9 He made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death.

IV. Jesus Christ's Sacrificial Death was Announced in Seven Ways

- 1) The Sacrificial Lamb. John the Baptist announced Jesus Christ to Israel at His baptism, "Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world". (John 1:29,36).
- 2) The Destroyed Temple. Jesus answered the Jews, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. (v.19)...But he spake of the temple of his body." (John 2:19,21).
- 3) The Uplifted Serpent. Jesus told Nicodemus, "As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up, That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." (John 3:14,15). Jesus compared himself to a serpent because on the cross, Jesus was made a curse for us and redeemed us from the curse of the law." (Galatians 3:13).
- 4) The Good Shepherd who willingly laid down his life for the sheep. "I lay down my life." John 10:17
- 5) The Corn of Wheat buried in the ground to bear much fruit. "The hour is come that the Son of man should be glorified...Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit." (John 12:23,24). Jesus' body was like a dead seed when placed in the tomb, but was raised on the third day. Since then, gospel preaching has brought much fruit.
- 6) Jesus' Baptism in, under & up out of the water pictured His death, burial, resurrection. Matt.3:13-15 God the Father spoke from heaven. God the Son entered the water. God the Holy Spirit came on Jesus.
- 7) Jonah's 3 days and 3 nights in the whale's belly. Jesus identified Himself with Jonah to picture His soon death, burial and resurrection after 3 days. (Matthew 12:38-40).

If you don't believe this, you are damned (Mark 16:16), the wrath of God abides on you (John 3:36).

25. SIX BASIC MUSLIM BELIEFS

1. Belief in Allah who claims to be the only God. He is described in the Quran as being unknowable, impersonal, distant, unloving, not holy, unpredictable, the author of both good and evil, not a moral being, but of absolute power.
2. Angels.
3. The Quran is God's message, and the Hadith are authoritative.
4. Main prophets are: Adam, Noah, Abraham, Moses, Jesus and Muhammad.
5. Predestination - Everything that happens, both good and evil is predestined by Allah's will. They see Allah as the author of evil.
6. Day of Judgment - Good deeds are weighed against bad deeds to determine entry into heaven. All first go to hell. Nobody, not even Muhammad, is sure of going to heaven. Vol.1, 372-5; Vol.5,266.

26. SIX RELIGIOUS DUTIES OF ISLAM

1. Reciting the creed of Islam: "There is no god but Allah, and Muhammad is his prophet".
2. Prescribed prayers five times a day.
3. Observing the month of fasting each day, called Ramadan.
4. Giving money to the poor. This has created a class of professional beggars and has discouraged the provision of care for the needy.
5. Pilgrimage to Mecca, Muhammad's birthplace.
6. Involvement in Holy War (Jihad) against other religions.

The Crusades came as a response to Muslims attempting to conquer Christian lands. Islam conquered all of North Africa, then crossed the Strait of Gibraltar and took Spain. During Islam's first 100 years, they destroyed about 3200 churches, and much of the population became Muslims by force. These nations fell from being civilized to being poor and backward.

Islam is one of the greatest enemies of Christianity. Muslims view Christians as blasphemers for proclaiming Jesus Christ as the Son of God.

27. WHY YOU SHOULD NOT BECOME A MUSLIM (See page 993).

1. If you later on choose to leave Islam, Muslims will kill you.
2. If you are accused of stealing, you may have your hand cut off.
3. You will lose your freedom of speech.
4. You will enslave your future generations to a religion of violence against other religions, from which they cannot escape.
5. You will end up in hell, because they insist you reject Jesus Christ as Saviour. (John 8:24).
6. You will be called to join a Jihad to kill non-Muslims when your Islamic dictator ruler tells you.
7. As a woman, you will be a second-class citizen with half the rights of a man.

28. WHAT IS ALLAH LIKE? IS HE THE GOD OF THE BIBLE? NO!

Allah is totally different to Jehovah the triune God of the Bible. What differences exist between them?

1. Allah is a distant god. No-one can have a close personal relationship with him, as we can with the Biblical God.
2. Allah lacks attributes of holiness, love for sinners, and grace (undeserved favour in offering free salvation to all sinners).
3. Allah has a different nature and character. Allah only loves those who do good, but he is not merciful to those who do bad. He does not love the sinner, as the Biblical God does (John 3:16).
4. Allah is the author of evil, just as the Biblical devil is. The Biblical God is infinitely holy and righteous, and is not the author of evil.
5. Allah is not a Trinity of one God, existing as three persons, Father, Son and Holy Spirit (Mat28:19)
6. Allah was a pagan god before Muhammad was born. (Psalm 96:5).

29. ALLAH is like the Biblical SATAN, but different from the Biblical GOD JEHOVAH as in:

ALLAH	SATAN	JHVH (God of the Bible)
1. Allah is a murderer . ‘Muslims should strike off the heads of unbelievers in the battlefield and massacre them.’ (Q47:4).	‘The devil was a murderer from the beginning’ John 8:44	‘No murderer has eternal life’ (I John 3:15). Mat 5:44 ‘Love your enemies.’
2. Allah is a liar . ‘Allah misleads whom he will.’ (13:27).	‘The devil is a liar and the father of lies’. (John 8:44).	‘God that cannot lie .’ (Titus 1:2). (Hebrews 6:18) ‘Impossible for God to lie .’
3. Allah is a deceiver /seducer. Satan said, ‘Allah, since you have misled me’ 15:39 ‘Allah is the best of plotters.’ (Q 3:54; 8:30; 13:42).	‘Satan which deceives the whole world’. (Rev. 12:9). Satan said, ‘I will seduce/ deceive men on earth’. 15:39	‘God of truth ’ (Deuteronomy 32:4).
4. Allah does not love unbelievers . (Q 30:45; 5:87).	‘Jesus healed all that were oppressed of the devil’. Acts 10:38	JHVH loves unbelievers. ‘God so loved world’ Jn 3:16
5. Allah hates Jews . ‘Idolaters and Jews are the worst enemies of Muslims.’ (Q 5:82; 98:6).	‘Your adversary the devil.’ (I Peter 5:8).	JHVH loves Jews ‘They are beloved’ (Romans 11:28).
6. Allah hates Christians . ‘True Muslims do not choose to be friends with Christians’. (Q 5:57).	‘Your adversary the devil’. (I Peter 5:8).	JHVH loves Christians ‘He loved us’ (I John 4:8-11).
7. Allah hates Jesus being Son of God. ‘Allah can destroy the Messiah’ Q 5:17 ‘Never has Allah begotten a Son.’ 23:91	‘The dragon stood before the woman to devour her child as soon as it was born. Rev 12:4	‘Father loveth the Son .’ (John 3:35; 5:20).
8. Allah enslaves/binds people . ‘ slave-girls whom Allah has given you as booty.’ (Q 33:50).	‘whom Satan hath bound , these 18 years.’ Luke 13:16. ‘ snare of the devil, who are taken captives by him. 2 Tim 2:26	JHVH gives freedom from sin: ‘To proclaim liberty to the captives.’ Isa 61:1; Luk 4:18; Gal 5:1,13
9. Allah wants people to go to Hell . (Q 11:119; 32:13; 7:179. p 978). ‘I will fill hell with mankind.’ (11:119).	‘The devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone..’ (Rev. 20:10).	JHVH doesn’t . ‘God is not willing that any perish’. (2 Peter 3:9).
10. Allah permits murderers to build mosques . Mohommad elevated murder and war to the status of divine law. (p 973,1032 Umar built mosque in 637)		JHVH doesn’t . God forbid David building the temple. (I Chronicles 28:2,3).
11. Allah allows wife beating . ‘Those wives you fear disobedience..beat them.’ 4:34		JHVH doesn’t . (Eph 5:25) ‘Husbands love your wives’
12. Allah approves Mohammad taking other men's wives (Moh. took his son's wife, Zainab in Q 33:37,38 page 1001).		JHVH disapproved of David taking Bathsheba. (II Samuel 12:9).

30. THE SONSHIP OF JESUS CHRIST

Jesus Christ, being the Son of God and the second person of the Trinity Godhead, has been a major offence to Muslims.

Question: Is Jesus Christ the Son of God? Can God have a Son? Bible says “Yes”. Quran says “No” Because Christians insist that Jesus Christ is the Son of the living God, the Quran says, “Allah’s curse be upon them”. (9:30). If a Muslim believes the Quran, he cannot believe that Jesus is the Son of God.

What evidence proves that Jesus Christ is both the Son of God and God the Son?

1. The Quran is full of statements saying that Jesus is not the Son of God. The Bible describes Jesus as the Son of God. Which is right? English has only one word for son, but the Greek of the New Test. has 2 words for “son”, “Teknon” meaning “boy” which is never used to describe Jesus as Son of God. The other word is “HUIOS” meaning Jesus is the “SAME NATURE AS” God. Eg: Son of peace (Luke 10:6); Barnabas “son of consolation” (Acts 4:36); “children of disobedience” Eph 2:2

2. The Allah of Muhammad hates Jesus being the “Son of God”, as seen here:
 - a) “They said Allah has a Son? NEVER! Say “He is Allah alone; God the eternal! He begetteth not, and he is not begotten (3). There is none like Him.” (112:4). This is the key Sura for all Muslims.
 - b) “God forbid that He Himself should beget a Son.” (Q 19:35).
 - c) “God is but one God. God forbid that He should have a Son!” (Q 4:171).
 - d) Because God having a Son cannot be imagined by men, does not make it impossible with God. “How should He have a Son when He had no consort?” (Q 6:101).

Notice that this is NOT Allah speaking (because it is written in the third person “He”). This disproves the Muslim claim that all the words spoken in the Quran are spoken by Allah. Key: Mohammad never knew Greek, so he never understood that Jesus is not the TEKNON (boy of God), but the HUIOS Son of God with the SAME NATURE as God. Eg: “son of peace” means one has the nature of peace. This is fatal to Islam, proving the Quran is man-made, not from God.
3. The Quran misunderstands the Trinity by saying, “Unbelievers say: “Allah is one of three”.”(5:73) Christians never believed this. Christians believe that God is One God, in three persons (Father, Son and Holy Spirit). (Matthew 28:19; I John 5:7; II Cor. 13:14; Isaiah 48:16).
4. The Quran misunderstands when Jesus became the Son, thinking that He became God’s Son when he was born of Mary: “How should He have a Son when he had no consort?” (Q 6:101). The Bible prophets (Daniel, David, Solomon, Isaiah) teach that Jesus, the Son of God, existed eternally in the past, well before He was born of Mary.
 - a) “Who hath established all the ends of the earth? What is his name, and what is his SON’S name” (Proverbs 30:4 in 1000 BC).
 - b) “Kiss the SON, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way.” (Psalm 2:12).
 - c) “The form of the fourth is like the SON of God.” (Daniel 3:25 in 550 BC).
 - d) “Unto us a SON is given ... his name shall be called the Mighty God.” (Isaiah 9:6 in 700 BC).
5. If Allah is indeed “All-wise, and All-knowing” as the Quran tells us, we would expect Allah to correctly understand the Bible’s doctrine of the Trinity (Father, Son and Holy Spirit) and not to think of the Trinity as Father, Son and Mary, as in 5:116. “Allah will say: “Jesus, Son of Mary, did you ever say to mankind: “Worship me, and my mother as gods, besides Allah?”” (5:116).
6. If Allah has three daughters “Al-Lat, Al-Uzza, Manat” (53:19,20), why can’t God have a Son? God said at Jesus’ baptism, ‘Thou art my beloved Son (huios), in whom I am well pleased’ Mrk1:11
7. In Hadith Kudsi Allah is quoted as saying, “The poor are members of my family (my sons).” Here Allah talks of “my family.” If Muslims have this statement in their Hadith, why do they object to the Christian God having a Son? Why do they presume that Jesus’ Sonship had a sexual origin? It is pride and arrogance for man to insist he must understand everything about something before accepting its reality. We believe it because God said it, whether or not we understand it. The Trinity doctrine is the belief that God is made up of three parts, and the HUIOS is one of them.
8. The belief by Muslims that Jesus was supernaturally born of a virgin, opens the door to other supernatural possibilities. Two are: a) The deity of Jesus Christ; b) Jesus being the Son of God. “I (Holy Spirit) have come to give you a holy son”. “How shall I (Mary) bear a child when I have neither been touched by any man nor ever been unchaste?” said Mary. “That is easy enough for Me ... Thereupon she conceived.” (Q 19:20-22). So, the Quran’s question in 6:101 “How should he have a son when he had no consort (wife)?”, let Allah answer: “That is easy enough for me.” (19:22).
9. If the nature of man is a mystery, how much greater a mystery is the nature of God? If man is a triune being (body, soul, spirit) (I Thessalonians 5:23), each part of which is 100% human, then why can’t God be a Trinity (Father, Son, Holy Spirit) (Matthew 28:19) each part of which is 100% God, especially since God created man in His own image and likeness? (Genesis 1:26,27). We would expect God and man to have a Triune similarity (Ans 462; Understanding p1266-1273)

10. (a) The New Testament says that God sent the angel Gabriel to announce Jesus' birth to the virgin Mary: "That holy thing that shall be born of thee shall be called the Son (huios) of God." Luke 1:35
 (b) 640 years later, Muhammed claimed that the same angel Gabriel came to him with a different message from Allah that Jesus was not the Son of God that the Bible and Gabriel earlier said he was, but that He was just a prophet. Do Gabriel & God change their minds? Was Gabriel confused?
Question: Which Gabriel came to Muhammed?
 Paul warns us of Satan's deceptive disguises in II Corinthians 11:14: "Such are false apostles (Muhammed), deceitful workers (Muhammed), transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel, for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light".
 It is an angel of the devil that will contradict what God has already said.
11. The only reason Muslims say the Bible is corrupted is because it states that Jesus is the Divine Son of God. They say they cannot bow down to the man of Galilee. They claim that Jesus was a created being just as Adam was. "Jesus is like Adam in the sight of Allah. He created him of dust."(Q3:59). The Quran says in eight places that, when Adam was created, Allah commanded all the angels to bow down and worship the man He had made. "We said to the angels, "Bow down yourselves to Adam", and all bowed themselves, except Satan, who in his pride refused and became an unbeliever". (Sura 2:34; 7:11; 15:29-335; 17:61-62; 18:50; 20:115-; 38:71).
 So the Quran tells us that what made Satan an unbeliever was his refusal to bow down to Adam, a created being. In Suras 15 and 38, Allah put curses on Satan for this arrogance.
Question: If Muslims would have bowed down to Adam (the lesser), but refuse to bow down to Jesus Christ (the greater than Adam), then you have joined the forces of rebellion and arrogance with Satan, and you are under the same curse released on Satan.
12. Some illustrations of Jesus (the Son of God) revealing God to man are:
 (a) As the fruit of a tree will reveal the kind of tree, so Jesus reveals the nature of God. This is what is meant by Jesus being the Son of God, revealing the hidden nature of God to man.
 (b) "Who (Jesus Christ) being the brightness of His glory." (Hebrews 1:3). As the sun and its rays are distinct, in another sense they are one. So God the Father and God the Son are distinct yet one. As the sun has fire, heat and light, as well as α,β,γ-rays, so God is Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
 (c) How would a tree that cannot see a man, yet convinced of his existence, describe man to other trees? A tree would describe man as a kind of super tree, because that is all it can understand. Similarly, man being of a lower order and nature than God, can only understand God in human terms. Even the Quran explains Allah in human terms as having a face, hands, fingers, feet, eyes. "Yet still abides the Face of thy Lord, majestic, splendid." (55:27).
 "Why do you not bow to him whom my own hands have made." (38:75).
13. Jesus as "Son of God" does not mean "offspring of God" as seen from different Greek words.
 a) "paidion" (3813) "young child" is not used to describe Jesus' pre-existence as Son of God.
 b) "teknon" (5043) meaning "a child" is not used to describe Jesus as "teknon Theou" a "child of God". The word teknon (child) comes from the verb "tikto" meaning "to give birth" which never applies to Jesus Christ in His eternity. God the Father never gave birth to God the Son. "Teknon" (child) means "derivation from" and "huios" (son) means "same nature as", going out from God.
 c) "huios" (5207) "Son" means "same nature as" describes Jesus as "the Son of God" because he has the same nature as God & proceeded from God. Jesus has twin nature, 100% man (from Mary) and 100% God the Huios (Son). (Luke 1:35). Adam was a son of God not by sexual generation (Luke 3:38). In Greek, "the Son of God" (ho huios tou Theou) means the fellowship of two equal, eternal, same nature personalities. Jesus claimed to have equality with God (John 5:18) & the prerogatives of God. See p.862.
14. Son + genitive = quality, character. Sons of the prophets (I Kings 20:35) means "of the order of the prophets", Son of consolation (Acts 4:36), sons of thunder (Mark 3:17), son of peace (Luke 10:6), son of disobedience (Eph.5:6), son of perdition (John 17:12), "children of light" (Luke 16:8), sons of Asaph (Neh.11:28), "children of disobedience" (Eph 2:2), "child of hell" (Mat 23:15)

31. Mohammed's Battles and Wars (Is Mohammed a man of Peace or a Butcher?)

1. Raiding Meccan Caravans

After 6 months in Medina, Mohammed sent out raiding parties to attack and capture Meccan caravans on their way to Syria. Unsuccessful at first, Mohammed's men finally captured a Meccan caravan by attacking it in the pagan sacred month. Mohammed took 20% of the booty for himself.

2. Battle of Badr (624)

Mohammed learned that a rich caravan was to pass nearby and decided to attack it at Badr. The Meccans learned of Mohammed's plans and so gathered a superior army (1000 men) to teach the Muslims (313 men) a lesson. The Muslims, inspired by Mohammed and Allah, won a resounding battle. 70 Meccans were killed and Mohammed ordered the execution of 2 prisoners.

3. Battle of Uhud (625)

3000 Meccans marched to Medina to avenge their defeat at Badr. They faced 700 Muslims. Meccans attacked the Muslims from the front and rear. Many Muslims were killed, Mohammed was seriously wounded, but the Meccans were not able to completely destroy the Muslims.

4. Seige of Bani Nazir (a Jewish tribe).

Mohammed went here to collect some blood money. They seated Mohammed under the shadow of a wall while they collected the money. Mohammed suspected the Jews might kill him, so Mohammed returned to Medina, and sent an order for the Jews to vacate the settlement. The Muslims besieged Bani Nazir for 21 days. The Jews then surrendered and migrated to Syria.

5. Battle of the Trench (627)

A 10,000 man Meccan army set out to conquer the Muslims in Medinah. The Muslims could not face such a large force in the open, so they dug a trench around the city. The siege lasted 30 days, with the Meccans being unable to cross the trench. When a storm came, the Meccans retreated.

6. Massacre of the Bani Qurayza (a Jewish tribe). (627, p.1030) Because Mohammed disliked the Bani Qurayza, he besieged them in Medina for 2 weeks, then decapitated their 800 men in groups of 5 or 6, threw their bodies into a large trench dug in the market place, confiscated all their possessions, and sold their women and children as slaves. Mohammed sat watching the butchery from morning, all day, into the night. Are Muslims proud of their leader for this? Do Muslims recommend this for today?

7. Conquest of Khyber.

After being expelled from Medina, the Jews of Bani Qainuqa and Bani Nazir had settled at Khyber. Mohammed thought they were planning revenge for his massacring the 800 Jewish males of Bani Quraiza. So Mohammed led a Muslim force who conquered the Jewish fortress after a 21 day siege. The Jews surrendered. To mark the end of hostilities, some Jews gave a feast in honour of Mohammed, but they poisoned the food, killing Mohammed's friend. After taking a few morsels, Mohammed fell sick of the poison and died later on 8th June 632 AD in Medina.

8. Conquest of Mecca (630).

Mohammed led a force of 10,000 to conquer Mecca. The Quraish of Mecca lost the will to defend, so surrendered and agreed to become Muslims.

9. Battles of Hunain and Taif (630).

Tribes surrounding Mecca rejected Islam, so Mohammed invaded the valley of Hunain with 13,000 soldiers. These tribes were routed and retreated to the impregnable fort of Taif. The Muslims besieged the fort for 2 months, without success, then returned to Mecca.

10. Battle at Tabuk (630) (halfway between Mecca and Damascus).

The Christian Arab prince of Aylah did not agree to forsake Christianity, but agreed to pay the annual jizya tax. Ukaidar, the chief of Daumatul Jandal refused to accept Islam or pay tax to the Muslims. The Muslim Khalid led an expedition who took Ukaidar prisoner, brought him to Mohammed, where he was released on agreeing to pay the annual jizya tax.

32. Mohammed's Murders, Assassinations, Tortures, Cruelty and Slavery.

Mohammed spoke "messages from heaven" to justify fighting battles, executing opponents, annexing territories, taking another man's wife Zainab, taking as many wives as he pleased, taking people into slavery, and restoring order to his harem.

Muslim's sources are full of references to Mohammed's strange fits when he received revelations:

"The process was attended by a fit of unconsciousness accompanied by the sound of bells in the ears or the belief that someone was present; by a sense of fright causing perspiration, by foaming at the mouth, by a sense of headache." (Why I am not a Muslim, Ibn Warraq, p.89).

These are Biblical symptoms of demon possession ("he foaming & gnashing his teeth." Mark 9:17-29. Mohammed hated the Jews for rejecting his claims of being a prophet.

1. The Battle of Badr. Mohammed's army killed 49 Meccans. When the severed head of his enemy was cast at Mohammed's feet he said: "It is more acceptable to me than the choicest camel in Arabia." Then began a series of assassinations as Mohammed moved against his enemies, settled old scores and ruthlessly established his power.

2. Mohammed ordered the execution of al-Nadar who scoffed at him at Mecca.

3. Muir describes the execution of Ocba: "Ocba was ordered out for execution. He asked: "Who shall take care of my little girl?" "Hell-fire!" said Mohammed. Ocba was then killed. Mohammed said "I give thanks unto the Lord that hath slain thee, and comforted mine eyes thereby." Assassinations are approved in 8:67,69. "It is not for any prophet to have captives until he has made slaughter in the land."

4. When the poetess Asma bint Marwan wrote against Mohammed, Mohammed said "Will no one rid me of this daughter of Marwan?" One zealous Muslim, Umayr ibn Adi, decided to execute Mohammed's wishes and that night crept into her house, removed the suckling baby from her breast and plunged his sword into the poetess. Next morning Mohammed praised Umayr in front of the Muslims at the Mosque.

5. Soon, Abu Afak (over 100 years old), who criticized Mohammed was murdered while he slept.

6. In 627 the Meccans attacked Medina in the Battle of the Trench. The last Jewish tribe in Medina, the Bani Qurayza, helped defend Medina, but remained neutral. Mohammed questioned their loyalty and after the 2 week siege, moved against them. Realising they had no chance of surviving, the Bani Qurayza agreed to surrender on condition that their fate be decided by their allies, the Bani Aws, who were inclined to show mercy. Mohammed nominated one of the Bani Aws (Sa'd ibn Muadh) to be the judge. He pronounced, "My judgment is that the men shall be put to death, the women and children sold into slavery, and the spoil divided among the army."

Mohammed adopted the verdict as his own: "Truly the judgment of Sa'd is the judgment of Allah pronounced on high from beyond the seventh heaven."

Muir ((1), p.307,308) writes: "During the night trenches sufficient to contain the dead bodies of the men were dug across the market place of the city. In the morning, Mohammed himself a spectator of the tragedy, commanded the male captives to be brought forth in companies of 5 or 6 at a time. Each company as it came up was made to sit down in a row on the brink of the trench destined for its grave, there beheaded, and the bodies cast therein. The butchery, begun in the morning, lasted all day, and drenched the market place with the blood of about 800 victims. Having given command for the earth to be smoothed over their remains, Mohammed returned from the horrid spectacle to solace himself with the charms of Rihana, whose husband and all her male relatives had just perished in the massacre."

The booty was divided, slave girls given as presents, women sold and property auctioned. Q 33:25-27 ("people of the Scriptures..Some ye slew..captive some") was given as a revelation justifying his cruelty, barbarity and inhumanity meted out to the Jews. It is difficult to accept Mohammed's innocence.

Mohammed taught that true nobility lay in forgiveness and that in Islam those who restrain their anger and pardon men shall receive Paradise (Q 3:128; 24:22 "those who possess dignity..Let them forgive"). Yet Mohammed failed to do this in treating the Bani Qurayza.

7. Mohammed ordered the murder of the chief of the Jews (Abi l Hugayq) of the banished Banu'l-Nadir. Mohammed's henchmen assassinated Hugayq in his bed.

8. Mohammed, realizing this assassination had not solved his problems, sent a delegation to Khaybar to persuade their new leader Usayr b. Zarim to come to Medina to discuss him being made ruler of Khaybar. Mohammed solemnly guaranteed his safety. Usayr set out unarmed with 30 of his men. On the way the Muslims killed all but one of their invited, unarmed guests. Mohammed gave thanks on learning of their fate saying, “Verily, the Lord hath delivered you from an unrighteous people”. Later, Mohammed gave his philosophy of war saying, “War is deception.”

9. Mohammed and his men attacked and destroyed the forts in the vale of Khaybar one by one, saying, “O you who have been given victory, kill! kill!”

10. All the forts fell, until the Muslims arrived at the fort of Khamus, where the chief of the Jews, Kinana b. al-Rabi was accused by Mohammed of concealing the treasure of Banu'l-Nadir. The Jews protested that they had nothing left. Ibn Hisham quotes “Mohammed gave Kinana over to al-Zubayr”, saying “Torture him until you extract it from him.” He burned his chest, then cut off his head.

Conclusion: Thus Mohammed organised assassinations and massacres, secured and divided plunder as a robber chief, encouraged the same passion in his followers, authorizing and justifying his crimes by fabricating revelations from his deity Allah. (See “Why I am Not a Muslim”, Ibn Warraq, p.93-99).

33. BATTLES STARTED BY MUSLIMS (“History of Islam”, Masudul Hasan, Vol.1, 1998, p96-).

116. Conquered islands of Majorca, Minorca, Ivica, Corsica, Sardinia, Crete, and Rhodes making the Mediterranean Sea a Muslim Lake. (742).

34. Islamic Conquests Atrocities, Massacres and Genocide. “Why I am not a Muslim”, Ibn Warraq, 1995

1. Patriarch Sophrionius of Jerusalem (634-638) saw the Muslim invaders as “godless barbarians” who burnt churches, destroyed monasteries, profaned crosses, horribly blasphemed Christ and His church.
 2. Abu Bakr invaded Syria (634), the entire region from Gaza to Caesarea was devastated. 4000 peasants were massacred. In the campaigns of Mesopotamia (635-642) monasteries were sacked, and monks killed. In Elam the population was put to the sword.
 3. The “Chronicle of John”, Bishop of Nikiu (693-700) describes the Muslim conquest of Egypt. Amr exterminated the inhabitants of Behnessa, Fayum and Aboit: “Whoever gave himself up to the Muslims was massacred. They spared neither the old, nor the women or children.” At Nikiu, the entire population was put to the sword.
 4. In Armenia, the entire population of Euchaita was wiped out. Muslims decimated the populations of Assvria, forcing some inhabitants to accept Islam. (7th Century Armenian Chronicles).
 5. Michael the Syrian tells how Mu’awiya sacked Cyprus, dominating it by a “great massacre”.
 6. Tripoli was pillaged in 643. Carthage was razed and most of its inhabitants were killed.
 7. The same happened in Anatolia, Mesopotamea, Syria, Iraq and Iran.
 8. North India was conquered by Hajjaj, governor of Iraq (712). He ordered his commander Qasim to “bring destruction on the unbelievers... whoever does not submit to Islam, treat him harshly and cause injury to him till he submits.” (Chachnamah, p.155).
At Port Debal, the Muslim army took 3 days to slaughter the inhabitants, then allowed some to practice their religion. Hajjaj disapproved of Qasim’s weakness and wrote to him: “The great God says in Koran (47:4): “O true believers, when you encounter the unbelievers, strike off their heads.” This command of the great God must be respected and followed. You should not be so fond of showing mercy. Henceforth grant pardon to no one of the enemy and spare none of them.” Qasim went to Brahminabad and ordered all men of military classes to be beheaded with swords. Between 6000 and 16000 men were massacred.
 9. Mahmud of Ghazni, head of a Turco-Afgan dynasty (1000AD) passed through India, destroying, massacring and plundering. He justified his actions by the Koran’s commands to kill idolaters. He invaded India 17 times, seeing it as a duty and pleasure to slay idolaters. He forcibly converted the inhabitants of Ghur to Islam. At the Battle of Somnath, he killed 50,000 Hindus.
 10. Firuz Shah (1351AD) ruled North India. He made “the laws of the prophet his guide”. He indulged in wholesale slave-raiding, having 180,000 slaves in his city, all of whom became Muslims.
 11. Aurangzeb (1618-1707) destroyed 123 Hindu temples at Udaipur, 63 at Chitor, and 66 at Jaipur.
 12. Throughout Persia, forced conversions from the 16th to 20th Centuries decimated the Christian and Jewish communities. (Bat Ye’Or (1), p.61).
 13. Muslims massacred over 6000 Jews in Morocco in 1033. Muslim rioters massacred the entire Jewish community of 4000 people in Granada, Spain in 1066.
 14. Walid I (704-705) gathered the nobles of Armenia in the church of St. Gregory in Naxcawan and burned them to death. The rest were crucified or decapitated. Their women & children were enslaved.
 15. The Sultan Baibars, had all the Christians of Damascus decapitated.
 16. Timur the Lame (Tamerlane) constantly referred to the Koran and tried to turn every battle to a holy war. In 1403 he destroyed 700 large villages and minor towns in Georgia, massacring the inhabitants, and destroying all the Christian churches of Tifflis. He killed out of Koranic piety. Tamerlane ordered the execution of 100,000 Hindu prisoners at Delhi in cold blood, on the pretext that they presented a grave risk to his army. Tamerlane buried 4000 alive at Sivas, 70,000 at Isfahan, 100,000 at Saray, and 90,000 at Baghdad.
 17. At the conquest of Istakr, Muslims slaughtered more than 40,000 Iranians.
 18. From 1894-1896 Muslims massacred over 250,000 Armenians in Sasun, Trapezunt, Edessa, Wan Biredjik, Kharput & Niksar. Many villages were burned down & hundreds of churches were plundered.
 19. A Muslim historian reports their destruction of 30,000 Greek churches in Egypt & Syria (Tritton, p.54)
- Conclusion: All these massacres resulted from a divinely sanctioned Koran policy toward non-Muslims. These were perpetrated to keep the conquered territories under Islamic control.

35. Modern Muslim Atrocities

1. Sudan had Sharia law imposed in 1983 with the Muslim north waging a pitiless war against Christians and Animists in the South. Since 1983 Muslims have killed about 2 million people, displacing many others & selling many into slavery. This was financed by Iran (Economist, 9 April 1994).
2. Indonesian Muslim youth and army massacred about 600,000 Chinese peasants in 1965. "They cut off women's breast In the morning young muslims would come in swaggering with necklaces of human ears." (Guardian Weekly, 23 Sep. 1990).
3. East Timor was invaded by Indonesia in 1975, resulting in over 200,000 civilians being killed.
4. Irani, Pakistani, Saudi Arabian Christians are often arrested, imprisoned, flogged and tortured for "crimes" of blasphemy, owning Bibles, crosses & pictures of Jesus (Amnesty International 62, July 1993)
5. Slavery is accepted by the Koran and recognises the superiority of master over slave (Q 16:77; 30:28). According to the French magazine L Vie (no. 2562, 6 Oct 1994) 45,000 black Africans are kidnapped and sold into slavery a year in the Gulf States and Middle East. Slaves have no legal rights under Islam.

Conclusions:

1. Mohammed consciously fabricated revelations to conveniently sort out his domestic problems. Battles were fought, executions ordered, territories annexed, the affair with Maria the Coptic sanctioned, and passions for his adopted son's wife were sanctioned by convenient revelations from his deity Allah. Mohammed's revelations fitted in with his desires and pandered to his selfish pleasures.
 2. Abraham, Isaac and Ishmael never went to Mecca, nor did they build the Kabbah because:
 - a) The Bible is silent about it.
 - b) No pre-Muslim sources mention it.
 - c) Early Muslims prayed toward Jerusalem, not Mecca, as seen by the alignment of early Mosques & Christian sources. This shows that Muslims fabricated Abraham, Isaac, Ishmael's visit to Mecca.
 - d) Mecca was only chosen as the Muslim sanctuary later in order to completely break from Judaism after the Jews rejected Mohammed's claim of being a prophet like Moses for the Jews.
 3. Islam assimilated many foreign influences of people they conquered, such as rabbinic Judaism, Christianity (Nestorian and Jacobite), Hellenism, Persian ideas, Byzantine art and architecture.
 4. There was a tendency for the information to grow the further away one went from the events described. For example, if one storyteller mentioned a raid, the next one would tell the exact date of the raid, and the third would tell us even more details. An example is, Waqidi (died 823) who wrote 30-50 years after Ibn Ishaq (died 768), will always give precise dates, locations, names and details where Ibn Ishaq has none. No wonder that Muslim scholars love Waqidi. Where else do they find such wonderfully precise information about everything they want to know? Waqidi's information is extremely doubtful, because all this was unknown to Ibn Ishaq.
 4. Muhammed would never have succeeded had he preached humility and submission. He converted people by force of the sword.
 5. Female circumcision in Islam results from the Muslim males' fears of female sexuality.
 6. Muslim association of sex with pollution is absurd and obsessive.
 7. Concubinage is permitted by the Koran (Q 4:3; 23:6; 33:50-52; 70:30).
 8. Military defeat at the hands of Christian Europe brought into doubt the truth of the Muslim revelation itself. (Kedourie, p.322 The World of Islam, 1976). Every failure and ill in the Muslim world is still blamed on the West, Israel, or some Zionist Conspiracy.
 9. Regarding Mohammed's concession to idolatry in the Satanic verses, Sura 53:19,20, we are told that Satan put words of reconciliation and compromise into Mohammed's mouth:

"These (Alat, Uzza, Manat) are exalted Females, whose intercession is verily to be sought after."

The Meccans were delighted with Mohammed's recognition of their deities, but Mohammed claimed that Gabriel visited and reprimanded him for making such a concession to idolatry.
- Question: Even if Satan really put these words into Mohammed's mouth, what faith can we put in a man so easily led astray by Satan? Why did Allah let it happen?
- Question: How do we know there are no other passages where Mohammed has not been led astray? Here Mohammed abandoned the unity of God to please the Meccans.

36. QUESTIONS TO ASK MUSLIMS

- Q1: What archaeological proof is there that Abraham rebuilt the Kabah in Mecca? (2:127) (p.994).
- Q2: Can you prove that the Quran is of heavenly origin? How, in light of its many earthly sources?
- Q3: How do you justify the Koran's commands to commit violence (fight and slay the pagans. 9:5).
- Q4: How do you explain the presence of stories in the Quran from Christianity, Judaism, Arabia? 1014.
- Q5: Why does Quran never explain its rites or define words like Allah, jinn, gospel, Kabah? (996).
- Q6. The fertile crescent worshipped the pagan moon god. Doesn't this show pagan influence in Islam?
- Q7. Why do you worship a god Allah when you should worship the God of Abram. JHVH? (Ps. 96:5).
- Q8. Doesn't the different nature of Jehovah from Allah, show that Muslims worship a wrong god? 997
- Q9. How do you explain Mohammed's fits when giving a revelation? No Bible prophet did this? 998.
- Q10. Doesn't Mohammed asking forgiveness of sins prove He is a sinner? (40:55; 48:1,2).
- Q11. How can you believe prophets are sinless when the Bible and Quran say they sinned (Adam (2:36), Moses (28:16), Jonah (37:142), David (38:15), Mohammed (47:19)?
- Q12. How do you explain Mohammed's 3 disqualifications of prophethood? (changing verses (16:101), no fulfilled prophecies (7:203), friendship with demons (Q 72:1-15; 46:29-31. . 19:31; 20:27). (p.1000)
- Q13. Why don't you obey the Quran by obeying the Bible? (10:93,94 Ask those who read scriptures before).
- Q14. Why did M command prayer to the Kabah which had 360 idols in it, not destroyed till 6 years later?
- Q15. How do you explain the Satanic Verses being abrogated (cancelled) from the Quran? (p.1000).
- Q16. At what age was Aesha when Mohammed married her and consummated the marriage? Isn't this the sin of paedophilia?

- Q18. Do you believe a temporary marriage (Mutah) is right?
- Q19. Do you believe slavery is right? Slave girls (70:22-31; 23:1-7).
- Q20. Where did Jews say Ezra was the Son of God? (9:30).
- Q21. Do you believe it is right for Muslims to fight and kill Jews and Christians? (9:29,30).
- Q22. Do you think that Mohammed made up his own god who gave him a license to sin? (p.1003).
- Q23. How can you believe a speech by evil, lying demons in the Koran? (72:1-15; 46:29-31).
- Q24. Do you believe it is right to kill those who leave Islam? (4:89). (p.1018). (p.12,13,1006).
- Q25. Doesn't the 45 Old Testament prophecies about Jesus show him to be greater than Mohammed?
- Q26. Doesn't Jesus' virgin birth and no sin nature, show Him to be greater than Mohammed's normal birth? (p.1007).
- Q27. Doesn't Jesus' sinlessness make Him greater than Mohammed? (40:55; 48:1,2).
- Q28. Doesn't Jesus' many miracles (3:49) make Him greater than Mohammed? (17:91-95).
- Q29. Do you look forward to going to hell as the Quran says all will go there? (19:71).
- Q30. If prophets say Jesus is God, why don't you believe them? (p.1008). (The Mighty God, Isaiah 9:6).
- Q31. Doesn't Jesus give a higher moral example for us to follow than Mohammed? Jesus never killed, lied, took men's wives. (Every murderer gives excuses why he killed someone).
- Q32. Don't you think that Jesus' beauty of speech is greater than Mohammed speeches of hell torture, hatred and killing non Muslims?
- Q33. How could Quran come from the true God, when it is an entirely different literary style to Bible?
- Q34. Why did Uthman have to standardize a common text of the Quran if a perfect text already existed? How did Uthman know which readings were correct? (in 650AD).
- Q35. What manuscript evidence exists to support Quran's claim that Jesus was not crucified? Who knows best that Jesus died & rose, hundreds of eyewitnesses in 33AD or Mohammed 600 yr later? Who knows best that Jesus died, prophets David, Isaiah, Daniel, Zechariah, or Mohammed 1600 yr later?
- Mistakes in Quran
- Q36. How did the Quran misunderstand the Trinity was Allah, Jesus and Mary? (5:116; 5:73).
- Q37. Will you reject the Quran because it mistakenly says that Pharaoh of Moses time (1500 BC), the Tower of Babel (2250 BC) and Haman (510BC) all existed at the same time? (28:38; p.1013)
- Q38. Quran mistakenly says that there were 9 signs (17:100) but the Bible says 10 signs (p.1013, Ex 7-12)

Q39. How can the sun set in a pool of black mud? (18:85,86) (p.1012).

Q40. Did all of Noah's sons survive (21:76) or did one son drown (11:42,43)? p.1013.

Q41. Noah was aged 600 when the flood came, not 950 years (Q29:14; Genesis 7:11). (p.1023).

Q42. How can the Quran be from God when it copied 26 stories from Arabian, Jewish, Christian and Pagan sources? (p.1014-1016).

Hadith

Q43. Do you believe people are tortured in hellfire because they soil themselves with their urine? (1017)

Q44. How can Allah be just if he predestines some men to hell? (7:179). Jehovah doesn't (2 Peter 3:9).

Q45. Do you believe Mohammed cut the moon in half? How did he put it back together? (p1018) Use?

Q46. How can you hold Mohammed as your role model when he burnt peoples eyes out? (p.1019)

Q47. Isn't Jihad morally wrong and against Moses' and Jesus' law for Muslims to force conversion to Islam or die? (p.1021).

Q48. Why do Muslims commit such horrific acts of violence? Are they all naturally violent, or are they doing what Islam dictates? (61:10-12, 4:74).

Q49. Why be loyal to Islam when Muslims murdered your ancestors and would do the same to you today? (p.1022).

Q50. Who is this Allah who has been inspiring Muslims to hate Christ and to murder Christians? Could Allah be the devil disguising himself as God? (p.1022).

Q51. If Allah is so powerful, why not let Allah punish his Christian enemies? (p.1022).

Q52. How can throwing 7 pebbles at a pillar at Mecca hurt Satan? (p.1022).

Q53. How can you believe in a religion that permits husbands to beat (edribu) their wives? (4:34).

Q54. How can you remain a Muslim when the Quran says Allah predestines many men to hell? (7:178).

Q55. How can you remain a Muslim when Allah commands Muslims to strike off the heads of unbelievers and massacre them? (47:15). (p.1024).

Q56. Have you compared the differences and attributes of Allah and Jehovah? (p.1025,1026).

(Allah is not holy, not a Trinity, distant, author of evil, different nature, hates Jews, Christians, Jesus Christ and unbelievers).

Q57. Who is right about Jesus being the Son of God, Mohammed denying it or 12 prophets teaching it?

Q58. Is all the Quran spoken by Allah? What about 6:101 "How should He have a son when He had no consort" written in the third person by some man?

Q59. If the nature of man is a mystery, how much greater a mystery is the nature of God? (p.1027).

Q60. Why does the Quran have Gabriel saying Jesus is not the Son of God, which contradicts Gabriel's message in Luke 1:35 that Jesus is the Son of God? (p.1028). Do Gabriel and God change their minds?

Q61. How can Mohammed be a man of peace when he started so many wars and inspired others to start wars? (p.1029). (Massacre of 800 Bani Qurayza Jews, Khyber, Mecca, Hunain, Tabuk).

Q62. Could Mohammed's revelations and visions have come from Satan? Could Mohammed have been demon possessed as evidenced by the symptoms of Mark 9:17,18?

Q63. Is it right to kill those who speak against you as Mohammed did in the case of al-Nadar, Ocba, Asma, Abu Afak, Huqayq, Usayr, and Kinara? (p.1030).

Q64. Do you agree with Mohammed's massacre of 800 innocent Jewish men and taking their wives and children into slavery from the Bani Qurayza tribe? (p.1030).

Q65. Do you approve of over 130 battles that Mohammed inspired his successive Caliphs to start from 632-742AD against innocent civilians? (p.1031).

Q66. Do you approve of Muslim invaders massacring the entire populations of Elam (634), Behessa, Fayum, Aboit, Nikiu, Euchaita, Cyprus, Carthage, Anatolia? (p.1033).

Q67. Do you approve of the Koran's command to enslave people? (16:77; 30:28).

Q68. Do you approve of Mohammed and Islam converting people by the sword?

Q69. Do you approve of and practice female circumcision? Why?

Q70. If Satan put the Satanic verses into Mohammed's mouth, could there have been other places in the Koran where this happened?

Q71. Do you approve of the Quran commanding fighting to spread Islam? (61 references, p.973)

Q72. Do you approve of terror to spread Islam as Quran commands in 3:151; 8:12; 8:59; 34:51; 59:2? p.973

Q73. Do you approve of the Quran's 20 occasions of mistreating women? (slave girls (4:3); enemies (64:14), beating wives (4:34), your fields (2:223), inherit twice (4:11), replace a wife (4:20). (p.976-977).

Q74. Why does the Quran permit a divorced couple to remarry after being divorced from the 2nd spouse, when the Bible forbids this? (Jeremiah 3:1).

Q75. Don't you suspect that the many threats of hell in the Quran were Mohammad's way of scaring people into submission? (p.978). This shows Allah is a different god to Jehovah the God of the Bible who loves all and wants all to be saved. (32:13 "I will surely fill hell with Jinn and humans all").

Q76. Why does the Quran vilify Jews and Christians as the "vilest of all creatures" or "worst of created beings" (98:4-6) when the Bible says God loves Jews and Christians? (John 13:34; Romans 11:28).

Q77. Do you notice the difference between the Bible saying God loves all mankind and wants all to be saved (John 3:16; 2 Peter 3:9) with the Quran saying Allah does not love unbelievers and delights in massacring them (8:12) and torturing them in hell? (70 references. p.978).

Q78. Do you obey Jesus' command in the Quran to "Follow me"? (43:63). Why could Mohammed not do miracles? (2:118).

Q79. How do you reconcile the contradiction where the Quran says Jesus did not die (4:157), with the Bible prophets saying Jesus did die, eg: David (Psalm 22:16), Isaiah (53:8,9,12), Daniel (9:26), Zechariah (13:6), ('day I die, and the day I shall be raised alive' Q19:33; 3:55), and all 7 NT writers?

Q80. Why does Quran command Muslims to fight against those to whom the Scriptures were given (9:29)? Don't you think the devil would want Muslims to kill those who believe in the prophets' message? Wouldn't this make the devil the author of the Quran? (John 16:2,3; Luke 9:51-56).

Q81. Do you ask the people of the Book if you don't know some spiritual truth? (10:95; 6:43).

Q82. How does the Quran confirm existing Scriptures when it denies Jesus' death, resurrection, sonship? (2:41; 5:48; 12:111). (p.983).

Q83. Why did the Quran confuse Saul with Gideon? (2:249).

Q84. Why did the Quran contradict the Bible on whether giving money atones for some sins. Acts 8:20; (To give alms will atone for some of your sins, 2:271. Take alms from them, so they may be cleansed, 9:103)

Q85. Why does the Quran contradict the Bible on works for salvation. (Good deeds annul ill deeds 11:114; 53:32), ("not of works, lest any man should boast" Ephesians 2:8,9,10).

Q86. Holy Spirit is the Comforter, not Mohammed because He shall :

a) Be with you forever. (John 14:16). b) The disciples knew Him "ye know him." (John 14:17).

c) Be in you. (John 14:17). d) The world could not receive Him because they could not see Him. v.17

e) Be called the Holy Ghost. (John 14:26).

f) Be called the Spirit of Truth. (John 16:13); Mohammed abrogated some verses.

g) Glorify Jesus. (John 16:14); Mohammed did not glorify Jesus as the Son of God. (p.985,6).

Q87. Quran is wrong in thinking it rained before Noah's flood. Pre Flood people never saw rain till the Flood came. (Genesis 2:5,6; Hebrews 11:7). (p.986).

Q88. How can the sky have a crack in it? Doesn't this show Mohammed's ignorance of the gaseous atmosphere? (50:6; 67:3).

Q89. How does the sun move in an orbit? (21:33). It only appeared to orbit earth to Mohammed.

Q90. Quran is man made because the best that men could think heaven to be was sex. (p.988). 18 refs.

Q91. If Allah can change his mind about a verse in the Quran, this proves he is not the all knowing God of the Bible. (2:106).

Q92. Doesn't Q 2:256 "no compulsion in religion" contradict Q8:39 "make war on them till idolatory shall cease..." (p.990).

Q93. Do you believe in all the Scriptures that God has revealed (42:15), such as the Bible?

Q94. How can every soul taste death (21:35) when I Corinthians 15:51-53 says "we shall not all sleep" due to the rapture (catching away) of living believers who will not experience death at Christ's return?

Q95. Doesn't Allah being a Plotter and Schemer (3:54; 8:30; 13:42) equate him with the devil who deceives the whole world (Revelation 12:9)?

Q96. Doesn't Allah not loving the sinful (4:107), evil doers (3:57), transgressors (5:88) and unbelievers (30:45) prove that Allah is a different god to Jehovah of the Bible Who loves all mankind? (John 3:16).

Q97. How can Mohammed be a true prophet when he broke 9 of the 10 commandments?

Mohammed broke the following of the 10 comandments:

10 Commandments - Exodus 20:1-17

1. No other gods than Jehovah	1. Allah is a different god to Jehovah. 'all the gods of the nations are idols, but Jehovah made the heavens.' (Psalm 96.5).
2. No graven images	2. Mohammed prayed to the Kabah with 360 idols before he removed them (21:142; 53:19).
3. Don't take the name of Jehovah thy God in vain	3.
4. Keep Sabbath day holy	4. Mohammed taught people to worship on Friday not Saturday
5. Honour thy Father and Mother	5. Mohammed massacred many Fathers and enslaved many Mothers, such as the Bani Qurayza tribe.
6. Thou shalt not kill	6. Mohammed killed many people and commanded others to kill people (8:12 strike off their heads) (9:29 fight/kill those to whom the Scriptures were given).
7. Thou shalt not commit adultery	7. Mohammed committed adultery by having sex with Maria the Coptic whom he was not married to (66:1-5).
8. Thou shalt not steal	8. Mohammed stole from caravans, from those he massacred (Bani Qurayza) and by the jizya tax on people he conquered.
9. Thou shalt not bear false witness	9. Mohammed lied by saying "war is deception" and "Allah has given you absolutions from your oaths". "Allah has allowed you to break your oaths." (66:2).
10. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, wife, manservant, maidservant, ox, ass nor anything that is his.	10. Mohammed coveted and took his neighbours houses in lands he conquered, his neighbour's wife, his son's wife Zainab (33:36-38), as well as slaves and 20% of the booty had to go to Mohammed.

56 - THE BOOK OF JIHAD (Fighting for Allāh's Cause) الجهاد والسير

(94) CHAPTER. Fighting against the Jews. يهود

2925. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin 'Umar رضي الله عنهما: Allāh's Messenger ﷺ said, "You (Muslims) will fight against the Jews till some of them will hide behind stones. The stones will (betray them) saying, 'O 'Abdullāh (i.e., slave of Allāh)! There is a Jew hiding behind me; so kill him.'"

124. PRINCIPLES OF BIBLE INTERPRETATION

Bible Reading: “Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman, that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth”. II Timothy 2:15.

Aim: To identify correct principles of Bible interpretation which must be followed if one is to be a right student and teacher of the Word of God. To know the Bible and know how to handle it correctly. What rules must be applied to a passage to discover it’s correct meaning?

Inspiration means:

- a) More than human genius, such as Shakespeare.
- b) More than illumination by the Holy Spirit.
- c) More than revelation.
- d) Not partial inspiration, but FULL inspiration.
- e) It is “God breathed” which means: The breath of God expressing itself through a human personality. “For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.” II Peter 1:21.

Proofs of Inspiration:

- a) Scripture itself - its pre-eminence in literature - its preservation
- its transforming power - its unity - its scientific accuracy
- b) Proof from archaeology: over 5,000 Biblical locations have been found by archaeologists.
- c) Proof of fulfilled prophecy. For example, Psalm 22 prophesies many details about Jesus Christ.

What is gained by studying the Bible:

- a) Profound knowledge. “For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning.” Romans 15:4.
- b) Personal faith. “So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God.” Romans 10:17.
- c) Purification of Life. “Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you” John 15:3.
- d) Preparation for service. “That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works.” II Timothy 3:17.
- e) Power in ministry.

What shall be done: a) Practice its truth. b) Proclaim its truth.

Principles for correctly interpreting the Bible are:

1. The DISPENSATION Principle (or Administration Principle).

A Dispensation is a period of time in which God deals with man in a certain way with respect to sin and man’s responsibility. The word “dispensation” is first found in Ephesians 1:10, “That in the dispensation of the fullness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ.” The 7 dispensations are:

- 1. Innocence (Genesis 1:26-2:23). Period from Creation of man to the Fall of man.
- 2. Conscience (Genesis 3-7) means “with knowledge,” from the Fall of man to the Flood: 1,656 years.
- 3. Human Government (Gen. 8:1-11:9). Period from the Flood to the Confusion of languages: 427yr.
- 4. Promise (Genesis 11:10-15:21). Period from the Call of Abraham to the Exodus: 430 years.
- 5. Law (Exodus 19:1-8). Period from the Exodus to the Cross: 1,491 years.
- 6. Church (Acts 2:47). Period from Pentecost to the Rapture.
- 7. Kingdom (Rev.19-20). Period from the Return of Christ to the Great White Throne Judgment:1,000yr

Rules:

1. Truth must be divided in the same dispensation only.
2. Don’t take the truth of a past dispensation and bring it to the present, for example:
 - Romanism Catholicism brings paganism and Judaism forward into Christianity.
 - Seventh Day Adventism brings Jewish law into this Church dispensation.
3. Don’t take truth from a future dispensation and apply it to the present, for example,
 - Jehovahs Witnesses bring the 144,000 Jewish witnesses in Revelation 7 back from the Tribulation into the Church Dispensation.
 - Church belongs to this dispensation. Abel, Noah and Abraham do not belong to the Church Age.
4. Don’t put this present dispensation into the future, eg: The Church is not going into the Tribulation.

- Each dispensation shows:
- a) Man's responsibility.
 - b) Man's failure.
 - c) Judgment because of failure.
 - d) Low moral condition at the end.
 - e) Divine mercy shown at the end.

2. The COVENANT Principle.

Definition: An agreement or contract between two parties, such as God and man.

Two types: a) Conditional: depends on man. "If ye will obey." Exodus 19:5.

b) Unconditional: depends on God. "I will." Genesis 9:11.

Only four Covenants have signs: - Noahic: Rainbow. Genesis 9:11-17.

- Mosaic: Sabbath. Exodus 31:13,16,17.

- Abrahamic: Circumcision (unconditional).

- Davidic: Son. Luke 2:11,12.

The Covenants are:

i) Edenic: Genesis 1:28-30; 2:15-17. How life was governed in Eden.

ii) Adamic: Genesis 3:14-19. This covenant was made after the fall and before the expulsion from Eden. It orders man's life outside Eden and up to the end of the Millennium. It consists of curses (3:14-18) and a promise (3:15).

iii) Noahic: Genesis 8:20-9:17. It is unconditional, and the rainbow is its sign.

The contents of this covenant are:

- God will not curse the ground again.
- God will not destroy all life by a flood again.
- Four seasons shall prevail each year.
- Man is commanded to be fruitful and to replenish the earth.
- Man has dominion over animals.
- Man's diet is changed to include bloodless meat.
- Law of capital punishment is established and has never be revoked.

iv) Abrahamic: Genesis 12:1-3. It was made with Abraham, the father of the Israelite nation. Its sign is male circumcision on the eighth day. The covenant was made in Genesis 15:8-15.

Five beasts and birds were laid on an altar. Each party was to walk between pieces of the animals.

Abraham slept and only God walked through, showing it to be an unconditional covenant.

Slain beasts typify the death of Christ.

Birds of prey typify evil powers trying to take away the efficacy of Christ's death.

This covenant promises: - I will make of thee a great nation.

- I will bless thee.
- I will make thy name great.
- Thou shalt be a blessing.
- I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curses thee.

v) Mosaic: Deuteronomy 28:1-68; Leviticus 26:3-39.

Conditions (IF): Promise of blessing if Israel obeyed the law.

Promise of punishment if Israel disobeyed the law.

The contents of the covenant are:

- Ten Commandments.
- Civil law, governing social life and camp life.
- Ceremonial law, priests made sacrifices for sins of people.
- Spiritual law, based on love to God and man.

Sign of the Mosaic Covenant is the Sabbath. It is only made between God and the Jews. Exod. 31:13.

vi) Davidic: 2 Samuel 7:8-19; Psalms 89. Made with David, through Nathan. This covenant promises:

- A Davidic political house of an earthly kingdom through His Son.

- The sign of the Davidic Covenant was Jesus Christ, the Son of David. Luke 2:11,12.

vii) Palestinian: Deuteronomy 30:1-10.

This covenant was established because of the disobedience of the Jews and their dispersion.

This covenant promises: - Return of Lord.

- Regathering of Jews.
- Conversion of Jews.
- Judgment on the nation of Israel.
- Great blessing and prosperity for Israel.
- Ends with the new heaven and the new earth.

viii) New Covenant: Jeremiah 31:31-34.

The blood of Christ is the blood of the New Covenant. Hebrews 7:27.

It promises personal sanctification and heart knowledge of God. Ezekiel 36:25-27.

3. The ETHNIC DIVISION Principle.

The Word of God is related to three classes of people: Jew, Gentile, Church.

“Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the Church of God.” I Cor. 10:32.

Questions to ask: a) Who said this? (e.g. Job’s friends).

b) To whom was it said?

c) Under what circumstances was it said?

4. The DISCRIMINATION Principle.

We must make a distinction or difference where God makes a difference.

Important distinctions (differences) to be identified are between:

1. Creatures (mankind) and the children of God. (1 Cor. 2:14-3:3, Gal. 6:10). Failure to identify this difference results in the error that all men are brothers in salvation and that God is the Father of all men. God is only the Father of believers-John 1:12. Men become children of God at salvation.
2. Being accepted (Ephesians 1:6) and acceptable (approved) (2 Corinthians 5:9; 2 Timothy 2:15). All believers are accepted by God because of Christ, but all believers are not acceptable to God (well pleasing in our daily walk).
It is possible to be saved, yet suffer loss (1 Corinthians 3:14,15).
It is possible to be saved, yet become a castaway (disapproved) (1 Corinthians 9:27).
It is possible to be saved, yet be chastened (Hebrews 12:5-17).
It is possible to be saved, yet reap evil consequences of sinful living. (Galatians 6:7,8).
3. Faith and works (Ephesians 2:8-10).
We are saved by faith and not by works. We must show good works after salvation as evidence of sonship. (Titus 2:14; 3:5).
4. Salvation and Rewards.
Salvation is freely available in Christ to sinners.
Rewards are earned to compensate believers for service and suffering.
Rewards may be forfeited through carelessness, sin, faithlessness and compromise (1 Cor. 3:12-15)
Rewards are to inspire and encourage believers in service, suffering and persecution.
Rewards are to wean believers from pursuing earthly riches and pleasures, and to keep us interested in the things of heaven.
5. Believers’ position and walk.
a) Our position in God’s sight is acceptance in Christ (Ephesians 1:6), with Christ’s righteousness imputed to us (2 Corinthians 5:21). God sees us in Christ. We see God in Christ.
b) Our walk is the result of our spiritual state. If we are controlled by the flesh, we will be carnal.
6. Possessor and Professor.
Many true believers lack assurance of salvation because they fail to distinguish scriptures on true believers and false believers.
Rule: Never let an unclear scripture contradict a clear scripture.

- a) Hebrews 6:4-8 was written to Jewish believers, who because of persecution, were returning to Judaistic temple worship, which amounted to crucifying Christ afresh. It says nothing about loss of salvation.
- b) Philippians 2:12 God works salvation in us, then we must work out the details of our salvation.
- c) If eternal life could be lost, then it would not be eternal.
- d) Don't judge the Word of God by human experience, but judge human experience by the Word of God. (A legal system).

7. Law and Grace.

Law is the Mosaic Covenant instituted by God at Mount Sinai. The Law was added that sin might become transgression.

Grace is God's unmerited favour (given without human merit). Grace means everything for nothing. It is the gift of God.

God's grace is rich grace (Ephesians 1:7,8), abounding grace (Romans 5:15), exceeding grace (2 Cor. 9:14), manifold grace (1 Peter 4:10), exceeding riches (Ephesians 2:7), unsearchable riches (Ephesians 3:8), and exceeding abundant (1 Timothy 1:14).

8. Kingdom of Heaven and Kingdom of God.

Kingdom of Heaven is from heaven on earth. God has one Kingdom, the Kingdom of God, but with different phases. (Kingdom of Israel (Acts 1:6), Kingdom of Heaven (Matthew 13:24), Kingdom of the Son (Colossians 1:13)).

Kingdom of Heaven	Kingdom of God
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Messiah is its King • Political • Promised to Israel in OT with a king ruling on a literal throne. • Natural • Limited to earth • Limited to 1000 yr Millennium 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Trinity is its Ruler • Spiritual • All saved in any period. The seed of Abraham. The church. All saved in the Millennium. Christ gives the earthly KOG to the Father, so the Trinity reigns forever. (1 Corinthians 15:24). • Universal • Unlimited over the whole universe. • Eternal, will never end.

5. The PREDICTIVE Principle

There is a difference between prophecy and prediction. Prophecy is speaking the Word of God.

Predictive prophecy is speaking the Word of God about the future. This proves the Bible is from God.

i. Criteria to test a prophecy:

- a) Remoteness of time, so the prophet cannot fulfil it himself.
- b) Minuteness of detail. The prophecy should have so many minute details that it couldn't be guesswork. For example, over 33 prophecies were fulfilled during Christ's crucifixion.
- c) Novelty. There must be something new, fresh, startling, original to prove divine intervention.
- d) Clearness of forecast. It should have no ambiguity or cloudiness of statement.

ii. Rules for the Interpretation of Prophecy:

- a) Let the prophet give his own interpretation.
E.g In Daniel 8:20,21 the Ram = Kings of Medo-Persia. The He Goat = King of Greece.
- b) Historical Facts may give the interpretation.
E.g. The Daniel 2 image is explained as world history unfolds. City of Tyre (Ezekiel 26).
- c) Other Scriptures may interpret the prophecy.
E.g. Psalm 41:9 is shown to be Judas by Acts 1:15-18.
Psalm 16:10 is shown to be Christ by Acts 3:14,15.
- d) Proper recognition of figures of speech. E.g. similes, metaphors, hyperbole.
- e) Proper identification of symbols and types in the test. Speculation is not interpretation. E.g. Revelation 17:18 (whore = Rome); Revelation 12:1,2 (Woman = Israel).

6. The APPLICATION Principle

An application of scripture may be made only after the correct interpretation has been learned. First seek the one correct interpretation. There may be many applications. The mystical and allegorical methods prevent correct interpretation.

(Mystical = only a priesthood can properly interpret scripture. (Roman Catholicism).

Allegorical = any symbolic or figurative representation of people or events.

Ecclesiastes is the book of the natural unsaved man depicting the emptiness of life apart from God.

“Vanity of vanities” occurs 28 times in Ecclesiastes.

7. The Human WILLINGNESS Principle

Knowledge of God’s truth is guaranteed to people willing to DO the truth.

“If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.” (John 7:17). We must:

i) Be willing to obey the Bible.

If we live up to the light we have, God will give us more light. If we refuse to obey given light, we will have no more light.

ii) Believe in the supreme authority of the Bible, without some human organisation (such as the Watchtower, or the Roman Catholic Church).

iii) Have Intellectual Honesty. Be ready to submit your opinion to the Bible as God’s Word. Unlearn unbiblical ideas from your past.

iv) Be Guided by the Holy Spirit.

Sin has darkened and veiled our understanding. Sin brings blindness and seals the Bible.

“None of the wicked shall understand.” Daniel 12:10.

8. The FIRST MENTION Principle

God indicates His mind on a subject where it is first mentioned. God indicates in the first mention of a subject, word or expression, the key to its subsequent meaning in Scripture. Examples include:

i) Satan is shown to be subtle and deceptive. (Genesis 3:1); 2 Corinthians 11:3; Matthew 4:1-10.

ii) Christ’s first words at age 12 characterised His work on earth. (Luke 2:49 “Wist ye not that I must be about my Father’s business”).

Christ’s first ministry words were: “It is written” (Matthew 4:4,6,10) showing that His entire ministry was according to the Word Of God.

iii) Faith is the way to be justified. Abraham and everyone finds righteousness with God by faith. Abraham “believed in the Lord; and he counted it to him for righteousness.” (Gen.15:6, Heb11:6)

iv) Babylon is always associated with rebellion against God, false religion and idolatry (Genesis 11, Revelation 17). Babylon means confusion.

v) Jerusalem is first mentioned in Judges 1:7,8 “The men of Judah smote it with the edge of the sword and set it on fire.” Jerusalem was besieged 27 times and burned 3 times in history.

vi) The Son of man will have all things put under His feet. (Psalm 8:4-6; I Corinthians 15:27).

vii) War is justified in some cases. (Genesis 14).

9. The PROGRESSIVE MENTION Principle

God makes the revelation of any given truth increasingly clear as the Bible proceeds to its end. Details are added to truth as scripture progresses.

1. The Saviour would be: i) Seed of the Woman (Genesis 3:15).

ii) Abraham’s seed (Genesis 12:3).

iii) Isaac, Jacob, Judah, and David’s descendant.

iv) Bethlehem (Micah 5:2) would be His place of birth.

v) Time of birth (Daniel 9:25)

vi) Ride into Jerusalem on a colt (Zechariah 9:9).

vii) John the Baptist would be His forerunner/messenger (Malachi 3:1, Isaiah 40:1-5).

viii) Sold for 30 pieces of silver (Zechariah 11:12).

ix) Crucified (Psalm 22:16,14,18).

x) No bones broken (Psalm 34:20).

xi) Resurrected (Psalm 16:10).

xii) All peoples’ sins would be laid on Him (Isaiah 53:6).

2. Prayer i) In OT, David, Daniel and others prayed 3 times daily toward Jerusalem.
 ii) In the Gospels, pray in our closet (Matthew 6:6).
 iii) In the Epistles, pray without ceasing (1 Thess. 5:17). Be in constant communion with the Father.
3. Trinity is seen:
 - i) In the OT, Elohim (plural Noun) and “us and our” (Plural pronouns). (Genesis 1:1,26).
 2 Samuel 23:2,3; “The Lord God and his Spirit has sent me.” Isaiah 48:12,13,16; Isaiah 63:7-10.
 - ii) In the NT, at Jesus’ baptism all 3 are present (Mark 1:9-11); Great Commission (Matt 28:19-20); Apostolic Benediction (2 Cor 13:14); 3 Heavenly Witnesses (1 John 5:7); Same throne, face, Name (Rev. 22:3,4).
4. Rewards i) In the OT, rewards are material. ii) In the NT, rewards are spiritual and eternal.
5. God’s Dwelling Places. i) Eden. ii) Tabernacle in the Wilderness. iii) Solomon’s Temple.
 iv) Christ’s Body on earth. v) Believer’s body (1 Cor. 3:16; 6:19). vi) Christ on earth in Millennium vii) New Jerusalem (Revelation 21,22).
6. Satan. i) Liar (Genesis 3:4). ii) Murderer of mankind. iii) Accuser (Job 1:11). iv) Hinderer, Resister (Zech. 3:1,2). v) Tempter (Genesis 3, Matthew 4). vi) Betrayer through Judas. vii) Seduces saints (Acts 5:1-5). viii) Lawlessness (2 Thess. 2:3,4). ix) Rebellion (Rev. 19).
7. Lamb progresses from:
 - i) Abel’s Lamb sacrifice accepted (Genesis 4).
 - ii) God will provide himself a lamb (Genesis 22:8).
 - iii) Passover lamb was slain and its blood must be applied (Exodus 12).
 - iv) Lamb is a person slain for the whole world (Isaiah 53).
 - v) Jesus is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world. (John 1:29).
 - vi) Philip tells Eunuch that the Lamb prophesied by Isaiah is Jesus who died on Calvary. Acts 8.
 - vii) Christ is the Lamb foreordained to be slain and resurrected. (1 Peter 1:18-21).
 - viii) Christ the Lamb is the Lion of Judah. (Revelation 5:5-14).
 - ix) Christ the Lamb equally owns God’s throne, has God’s face and has God’s Name (Rev. 22:3,4)
8. Atonement (covering of sin) (Heb. Kaphar).
 - i) Noah covered the Ark inside and outside with pitch.
 - ii) On the Day of Atonement, God covered the sins of Israel (like sweeping dirt under the carpet) (Psalm 32:1; 85:2), looking forward to Christ’s blood to be shed on Calvary which would cleanse and wash away our sins. (1 John 1:7).
- 10. The FULL MENTION Principle
 In a certain part of the Bible, God declares His mind on any subject vital to our spiritual life. Examples:
 - i) Resurrection (1 Corinthians 15).
 - ii) The Tongue (James 3). Words manifest sin and ungodliness.
 - iii) Spiritual Gifts (1 Corinthians 12,13,14).
 - iv) Faith (Hebrews 11).
 - v) God disciplining His Children (Hebrews 12).
 - vi) Church as God sees it (Ephesians 1-3), and the church as man sees it (Ephesians 4-6).
 - vii) Laws of Christ’s Millennial Kingdom (Matthew 5,6,7).
 - viii) Israel’s past election, present rejection, future restoration (Romans 9,10,11).
 - ix) Christ’s substitutionary sacrifice (Isaiah 53).
 - x) Christ’s Return (Revelation 1-22).
 - xi) Justification and righteousness by faith (Romans 3,4,5).
 - xii) Christ’s natures as Son of God (Hebrews 1) and the Son of Man (Hebrews 2).
 - xiii) Restoration of Israel: Romans 11.
 - xiv) Law. Exodus 20.
 - xv) Spiritual Armour. Ephesians 6
 - xvi) Last things. Matthew 24.
 - xvii) History of Gentile world empires. (Daniel 2).
 - xviii) The New Birth. (John 3).

11. The CONTEXT Principle

God gives light on a subject through near or remote passages bearing on the same theme.

Every verse must be studied in the light of its context. Examples are:

- i. Valley of Valley of Dry Bones prophecy of Israel (Ezekiel 37). Mormons think that the two sticks are the Bible and the Book of Mormon. The context tells us that it is Judah and Israel becoming one nation in the land (Ezekiel 37:15,16).
- ii. Matthew 24:13 does not teach possible loss of salvation because the context is the Tribulation period where Tribulation believers are called upon to endure troubles for 7 years, where they will be rescued by Christ returning. It does not teach loss of salvation.
- iii. Psalm 2:8,9 has nothing to do with missions, but concerns Christ's ruling earth at His return.
- iv. Near Context:- The Ram and He-goat (Daniel 8:3-22) are Medo-Persia and Greece.
 - Jesus explains the Parables of the Sower and the Wheat and Tares in Matthew 13:1-43.
 - "Afterward" in Joel 2:28 dates this after the northern army is removed.
 - "These" in John 21:15 refers to the other disciples (v.20).
- v. Remote Context- The woman with 12 stars (Rev.12:1,2) is Israel & the 12 tribes (Genesis 37:9,10)
 - The 42 months, or 1260 days of Revelation 11:1-3 and 12:6 is shown to be the last half of the Tribulation from Daniel 9:24-27.
 - Who tongues are intended for (1 Cor. 14:21,22) is seen to be Israel from Isaiah 28:11; Jer5:15
 - The purpose of God according to election in Romans 9:11,12 is seen to be the national election of Israel to service from Genesis 25:23.

12. The AGREEMENT Principle

God will not put any passage in the Bible which contradicts any other passage. Take the clear passage rather than the unclear passage. Study the unclear passage more thoroughly to find its correct meaning. There are no contradictions in Scripture. Some apparent contradictions and their resolution are:

- i) Paul says we are justified by faith (Romans 5:1; 4:2-4).
James says Abraham was justified by works (James 2:21-24).
Answer: Paul says sinners are justified by faith in God's eyes as a doctrine. Faith is the Godward condition of salvation. James says works are the manward evidence of salvation.
- ii) Matthew 27:9 "spoken by Jeremy the prophet." These words are not in the book of Jeremiah, but are in the book of Zechariah. Jeremiah spoke it, but Zechariah wrote what Jeremiah spoke.
- iii) Acts 7:14 states Jacob and his kindred were 75 souls going into Egypt. Genesis 46:26 states that all coming with Jacob to Egypt, which came out of his loins (except his son's wives) were 66.
Answer: Souls that came to Egypt except wives (66); plus Jacob (1); plus Joseph (1); plus Joseph's 2 sons (2); plus wives of Jacob's sons (5) = 75.
- iv) 1 Corinthians 10:8 "fell in one day 23,000."
Numbers 25:9 "Those that died in the plague were 24,000." Answer: 1,000 died the next day.
- v) 2 Samuel 24:24 says David paid 50 shekels of silver for Ornan's threshing floor (Heb:goren).
In I Chronicles 21:22-25 David paid 600 shekels of gold for the threshing place (Heb: Magom), the larger area where the temple and its courts were later built.
- vi) Proverbs 26:4 "Answer not a fool according to his folly." Don't lower yourself to the level of a fool as if he were wise. Proverbs 26:5 "Answer a fool according to his folly" so as to expose his folly, so that he will not feel wise and superior.
- vii) Galatians 6:2 "Bear ye one another's burdens."
Galatians 6:5 "Every man shall bear his own burden."
Answer: These are two different kinds of burdens.
We can help bear others' burdens of sorrow, grief and poverty (burdens of sympathy).
We cannot bear others' burdens of duty and responsibility, which are not transferable.
- viii) Acts 9:7 "Hearing a voice, but seeing no man."
Acts 22:9 "They heard not the voice of him that spake with me."
Answer: The men heard the voice as a sound, (Gk: phone), but did not hear the voice as articulating the words "Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me."
- ix) There are not 2 accounts of creation. Genesis 1 gives the overall account of creation.
Genesis 2 gives the detailed account of creation. 1045

13. The DIRECT STATEMENT Principle

God says what He means, and means what He says. Therefore, do not spiritualise the Bible away. Take it literally as the context states. This will make us premillennial, not amillennial.

Question: How do we interpret figures of speech in the Bible?

Rule: Words should be understood literally, unless the literal interpretation involves a contradiction or absurdity. For example, Hard heart, sins as scarlet (Isaiah 1:18), let the dead bury their dead (Matthew 8:22), destroy this temple (John 2:19).

Types of figures of speech:

1. Metaphor: One thing is said to be another thing which it resembles. It is figurative use of terms without indicating their figurative nature. (The word “is” in this context means “represents”).
“All flesh is is grass.” (Isaiah 40:6).
“We are...the sheep of his pasture.” (Psalm 100:3).
“The Lord is my rock, and my fortress.” (Psalm 18:2).
“This is my body...this is my blood.” (Matthew 26:26-28).
“I am the bread of life.” (John 6:35).
2. Simile: One thing is “like” or “as” another thing.
“All we like sheep.” (Isaiah 53:6).
“All flesh is as grass.” (1 Peter 1:24).
“The kingdom of heaven is like...” (Matthew 13:24,31,33,44,45,47).
“I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock.” (Matthew 7:24-27).
“As the rain cometh down, so shall my word be.” (Isaiah 55:10,11).
“Is not my word like as a fire, and like a hammer.” (Jeremiah 23:29).
3. Hyperbole: Overstatement or exaggeration used to emphasise or magnify an object beyond reality.
“Oh that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears.” (Jeremiah 9:1).
“Joseph gathered corn as the sand of the sea.” (Genesis 41:49).
“The cities are great and walled up to heaven.” (Deuteronomy 1:28).
“The Midianites and Amalekites...lay like grasshoppers.” (Judges 7:12).
“Saul and Jonathan...were swifter than eagles, they were stronger than lions.” (2 Samuel 1:23).
“But I am a worm.” (Psalm 22:6).
“If thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out...If thy right hand offend thee, cut it off.” (Matthew 5:29,30).
4. Personification: An inanimate object is given attributes of life.
“The earth opened her mouth.” (Numbers 16:32).
5. Parable: An earthly story with a heavenly meaning. (Matthew 13).

14. The TYPICAL Principle.

A type is a divinely appointed illustration of some Scriptural truth. A type must typify something future.

- A person: Adam, Abraham, Joseph, Moses, Jonah.
- An event: deliverance from bondage.
- A thing: brass serpent, veil of the tabernacle.
- Ritual types: tabernacle, priesthood, Passover.

15. The GAP Principle

God may leap over centuries without comment, leaving a gap of time. Examples include:

1. Luke 4:16-21 “To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.” (v.19).
Isaiah 61:1,2 adds “the day of vengeance of our God” which has not yet come.
There is a 2000 year gap between these 2 clauses describing Christ’s first and second comings.
2. 1 Peter 1:11 “testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow”.
The prophets did not see the 2000 year gap between Christ’s first and second comings.
3. Revelation 12:5,6 “Her child was caught up unto God (33AD). And the woman (Israel) fled into the wilderness where they should feed her there 1260 days.” Here is a gap from Christ’s ascension to Israel being persecuted by the Antichrist in the middle of the 7 year Tribulation.

4. Isaiah 9:6 “For unto us a child is born, unto us a Son is given (first coming): and the government shall be upon his shoulder (Jesus Christ’s second coming).”
5. Daniel 9:26,27 “After 62 weeks shall Messiah be cut off (33AD): and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary (70AD). And he (Antichrist) shall confirm the covenant with many for one week (Tribulation).” Here are 2 gaps. One of 37 years and another of about 2000 years.
6. Hosea 5:15-6:2 “I (Jesus Christ) will go and return to my place (heaven in 33AD), till they acknowledge their offence (Jews offence of crucifying Christ), and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me early (in the tribulation, over 2000 years later).”

16. The THREE-FOLD Principle. God sets forth many truths in a three-fold way.

1. Three immediate benefits of salvation: “Hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation, but is passed from death unto life.” (John 5:24).
2. “And now abideth faith, hope and charity...” (1 Corinthians 13:13). Three qualities to live by.
3. Prophecy, tongues and knowledge to cease in the first century. (1 Corinthians 13:8).
4. Israel’s past election, present rejection, and future restoration. (Romans 9,10,11).
5. “Your whole spirit, soul and body...” (1 Thessalonians 5:23).
6. “Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God” 1Cor10:32
7. “The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob.” (Exodus 3:16,15).
8. “Baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.” Matthew 28:19
9. “Jesus taketh Peter, James and John.” (Matthew 17:1). Three inner disciples.
10. Jesus raised 3 people from the dead. (Luke 7:12-15; 8:41,42; John 11:43,44)
11. Jesus’ title was written in 3 languages on the cross. (John 19:20).
12. Jesus the good shepherd (John 10:11), great shepherd (Heb 13:20), chief shepherd (1 Peter 5:4).
13. Satanic counterfeit of the trinity of Satan, AntiChrist, and False Prophet (Revelation 20:10).
14. Jesus’ 3 offices of a Prophet (Luke 24:19), Priest (Hebrews 2:17), and King (Matthew 2:2).
15. Baby Jesus given 3 gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh (Matthew 2:11).
16. 3 paths of temptation: “The lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life.” 1 John 2:16
17. 3 steps of destruction: lust, sin, death (James 1:15).
18. 3 degrees of prayer: ask, seek, knock (Matthew 7:7).
19. 3 tenses of time: “Jesus Christ, the same, yesterday, and today, and forever.” (Hebrews 13:8).
20. 3 musts: “Ye must be born again.” John 3:7), “Even so must the Son of Man be lifted up” (John 3:14), “He must increase” (John 3:30).
21. 3 degrees of fruit bearing: “Some hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty”. (Matthew 13:23).
22. 3 kinds of work rewarded: “gold, silver, precious stones” (suffering for Christ, wisdom gained, souls won). (1 Corinthians 3:12).
23. Holy Spirit convicts the world of sin, righteousness, and judgment (John 16:8-11).
24. 3 Heavenly witnesses, 3 earthly witnesses (1 John 5:7,8).
25. 3 spiritual conditions of men: the natural man...carnal man...spiritual. (1 Cor 2:14,15; 3:1-4).
26. 3 blessings from God: “Grace, mercy and peace from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.” (1 Timothy 1:2).
27. 3 Downward steps (Psalm 1:1).
28. 3 Benefits of waiting on God (“mount up,...run,...walk...” Isaiah 40:31).
29. 3 sons of Noah to populate post flood earth: Shem, Ham, Japheth (Genesis 6:10).
30. 3 main OT characters: Noah, Daniel, Job (Ezekiel 14:14,20).
31. 3 Heavens (2 Corinthians 12:2).
32. 3 Heavenly visitors who met Abraham (Genesis 18:2).
33. 3 False friends of Job (Job 2:11).
34. 3 Friends of Daniel (Daniel 3:23,26).
35. 3 Mighty Men of David (2 Samuel 23:16-23).
36. 3 groups of 3 fruits of the Spirit. (Galatians 5:22,23).
37. 3 kinds of judgments in Revelation: seals, trumpets, and bowls (Revelation 6,8,9,16).
38. 3 temptations of Jesus in the wilderness. (Matthew 4:1-11).

39. 3 keys to finding soul rest: Come unto me, take my yoke upon you, learn of me (Matt.11:28-30)
40. 3 descriptions of Jesus Christ's mission: teaching, preaching, healing (Matthew 4:23).
41. 3 groups of 3 beatitudes. (Matthew 5:1-12).
42. 3 angel messages came to Joseph in dreams (Matthew 1:20; 2:13,19).
43. 3 descriptions of God: God is Spirit (John 4:24), God is light (1 John 1:5), God is love (1John4:8,16)
44. 3 commands to walk; walk in the spirit (Galatians 5:16), walk as children of light (Ephesians 5:8), walk in love (Ephesians 5:2).
45. 3 lost things: Lost sheep, lost coin, lost Son. (Luke 15:1-32).
46. 3 faculties to love God with: Heart, Soul, Mind (Matthew 22:37).
47. 3 parables against negligence: Faithful and unfaithful servants (Matthew 24:45-51), 10 Virgins (Matthew 25:1-13), The Talents (Matthew 25:14-30).
48. 3 denials of Peter (Matthew 26:69-75).
49. 3 men entrusted with talents (Matthew 25:15).
50. 3 signs attesting Christ as Messiah on the cross: the rent veil (27:51), the earthquake (27:51), the resurrection of some Old Testament saints (Matthew 27:51).
51. 3 aspects of Christ's Great Commission: Make disciples, Baptize, Teach (Matthew 28:19,20).
52. 3 examples of apostasy (Jude 5-7): unbelieving Israelites, Fallen angels, Sodom and Gomorrah.
53. 3 examples of rebellion: (Jude 11): way of Cain, error of Balaam, gainsaying of Korah.
54. 3 last heralds of Christ's second coming: the Saviour- "I come quickly". (Revelation 22:20).
the Spirit- "the Spirit and the bride say Come". (22:17)
the Saint- "Even so, come, Lord Jesus". (22:20).
55. 3 stages of the First Resurrection: Firstfruits (1 Cor. 15:23); Harvest (1 Thessalonians 4:16-18); Gleanings (Revelation 20:4-6).
56. 3 keys to victory: Know, Reckon, Yield (Romans 6).
57. 3 elements of the gospel (1 Corinthians 15:1-4): Christ died, was buried, and rose again.
58. Jesus was 3 days and 3 nights in the heart of the earth (Matthew 12:40).
59. 3 ways to be blessed from Revelation: Read, Hear, Keep the words. (Revelation 1:3).
60. Jesus' 3 warnings against Hell (Mark 9:44,46,48).

17. The ELECTION Principle

God in working out His purposes sets aside all firsts and establishes all seconds.

For example, in Romans 9:10-12 God's purpose is that the elder shall serve the younger.

Question: Why does God do this? We were lost in our first condition. Believers are saved by Christ which becomes our second condition. Examples are:

Cain was set aside for Abel (Genesis 4:1-5).

Japheth was set aside for Shem. (Genesis 10:21).

Ishmael was set aside for Isaac (Genesis 17:19,21).

Esau was set aside for Jacob (Romans 9:10-13).

Reuben was set aside for Judah (Genesis 49:3-10).

Manasseh was set aside for Ephraim (Genesis 48:13-20).

Saul was set aside for David (I Samuel 15:28; 13:13,14).

Eliab (Jesse's firstborn) was set aside for David. (I Samuel 16:6,7).

Adam was set aside for Jesus Christ (I Corinthians 15:45-49).

Mosaic Covenant was set aside for the New Covenant of Christ. (Hebrews 7:6,7,13).

First heaven and earth will be set aside for the New Heaven and New Earth (Revelation 21:1,2).

First birth set aside for the New Birth (John 3:3-7; I Corinthians 15:50).

Our first corruptible body will be set aside for our immortal resurrection body (I Cor. 15:35).

The Ten Commandments of Moses are set aside for the NT Law of Christ (Hebrews 8:13-9:4).

The Sabbath (Mosaic day of worship) was set aside for Sunday (NT day of worship). I Cor. 16:2.

OT offerings were set aside for Christ's perfect offering on the cross. (Hebrews 10:14).

18. The CHRIST-CENTRED Principle

1. The Mind of Deity is centred on Christ. Christ is the visible image of the invisible God.
“Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus.” (Philippians 2:5).
“In him dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead bodily.” (Colossians 2:9).
“In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.” (Colossians 2:3).
“Who is the image of the invisible God.” (Colossians 1:15; 2 Cor 4:4; Hebrews 1:3).
2. All Angelic thought and ministry centre on Christ.
Seraphim worshipped Christ as Jehovah whom Isaiah saw (Isaiah 6:5 and John 12:41).
Angels announced Christ’s birth. (Luke 1:26-38; 2:8-20).
Angels ministered to Christ after Satan tempted Him 40 days in the wilderness. (Matthew 4:11).
Angels return with Christ to earth. (Matthew 25:31; 2 Thessalonians 1:7).
Angels are subject to Christ. (1 Peter 3:22).
All Angels of God worship Christ. (Hebrews 1:6).
3. All Satan’s hatred and attacks are centred on Christ.
Satan tried to corrupt mankind and Christ’s line before the flood (Genesis 6:1-5).
Satan used Pharaoh to try to destroy Israel and Christ’s line in Egyptian bondage (Exodus 1:7-22).
Satan used Athaliah to try to wipe out Christ’s line. One baby Joash survived. (2 Kings 11).
Satan used Haman to try to destroy Christ’s line. God used Esther to save Israel and Christ’s line. (Esther 4:1,13-16).
Satan used King Herod to kill all male babies under age 2 in order to kill Christ. (Matthew 2).
4. All Human Hopes are centred on Christ of:
Having eternal life. (1 John 5:12-13).
Freeing Creation from the corruption of sin (Romans 8:18-23).
Having a resurrection body like Christ’s (1 John 3:1-3).
5. All the material universe’s preservation centres on Christ.
“Upholding all things by the Word of His Power.” (Hebrews 1:3).
“By him were all things created, by him all things consist.” (Colossians 1:16,17).
6. All the Written Word of God centres on Christ. Christ is the perfect example of the perfect man. The life of the Bible is Christ, as its central theme and character. Christ is in every book of the Bible as seen by:

Christ In Every Book of the Bible

Bible Reading: Luke 24:13-35. Memory Verse: “Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?” Luke 24:27,32.

Aim: To get fire in our hearts (Luke 24:32) as Christ expounds in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself. (Luke 24:27). To understand Who Christ is in every book of the Bible.

Introduction: The two disciple’s response to Jesus expounding about Himself in the Bible was to say:

- a. Abide with us (v.29).
- b. They had a burning zeal in their heart for Christ (v.32).
- c. They preached Christ’s resurrection to others (v.34).
- d. He opened their understanding of the scriptures.

Question: How is Jesus Christ portrayed in each Book of the Bible?

Genesis: 1. Creator (1:1). Colossians 1:16,17. 2. Seed of the Woman (3:15). Matthew 1:18-25.

3. Shiloh (49:10)-our peace. “in me ye might have peace.” John 16:33.

4. Shepherd, the Stone of Israel (49:24). John 10:11.

Exodus: 1. Our Passover Lamb for sinners slain. (12:5), 1 Corinthians 5:7.

2. Manna (16:14-22). John 6:35. 3. Rock (17:1-7). 1 Corinthians 10:4.

4. Veil (26:31-35). Hebrews 10:19,20. 5. God of Israel (“I AM”). (3:14). John 8:58,24.

6. Law-Giver (24:9-18).

Leviticus: 1. Our Great High Priest (8). Hebrews 4:14. 2. The Scapegoat (16:7-10).

Numbers: 1. Star out of Jacob (24:17). Daystar arise in your hearts. 2 Peter 1:19; Rev. 22:16.

2. The Brazen Serpent (21:5-9). John 3:14,15.

3. The Sceptre (Ruler, King) (24:17). 1 Timothy 6:14-16.

Deuteronomy: Prophet like Moses. (18:15-19). Acts 3:22,23; 7:37.

Joshua: Captain of the Host of the Lord (5:13-15). Hebrews 2:10.

Judges: Deliverer of Israel (3:9); Judge of Judges; Messenger of Jehovah (6:12,22,23, 13:1-28).

Ruth: Our Kinsman-Redeemer (2:1).

1 Samuel: The Despised and Rejected King (16-19, 8:1-7). John 1:11.

2 Samuel: 1. The Seed of David (7:12). Romans 1:3,4. 2. David's Lord (7:4-17). Psalm 110:1.

1 Kings: 1. King of Kings and Lord of Lords. 2. Greater than Solomon (Matthew 12:42).

2 Kings: Greater miracle worker than Elisha (Life from the tomb. 13:20,21).

1,2 Chronicles: Historian of Chronicles. Chief Ruler of Israel (I Chron.5:2).

Ezra: Builder of the Temple of Ezra.

Nehemiah: Rebuilder of the Walls. (Proverbs 25:28).

Esther: 1. Our Mordecai (Esther 10:3). 2. The Deliverer of Israel. 3. Our Esther-our Advocate.

Job: 1. The friend that sticketh closer than a brother (Prov.18:24). 2. Our Hedge (Job 1:10; John 10:27-29)
3. Our Resurrected, Returning Redeemer (Job 19:25).

Psalms: 1. He is the Blessed Man (Psalm 1). 2. He is the Son of God (Psalm 2:12).

3. He is the Crucified One (Psalm 22:16,18). 4. He is My Shepherd (Psalm 23).

5. He is the coming King of Glory (Psalm 24:7-10). 6. He is the Millennial Ruler (Psalm 72).

7. He is the Head of the Corner (Psalm 118:22). 8.

Proverbs: The Wisdom of God (Prov. 4:7; I Cor. 1:24). He is mercy and truth (16:6). A Friend (18:24).

Ecclesiastes: 1. The Forgotten Poor Wise Man. (9:14-16; 2 Corinthians 8:9).

Conclusion: Don't jump to a conclusion about what a difficult verse might mean. Study it carefully using these rules to know its precise meaning so that it does not contradict other clear verses.

125. HOW TO PREPARE SERMONS and MESSAGES

This chapter of sermons is intended to be a starting point to encourage more men to become preachers by giving some examples of different kinds of sermons that may be a blessing to their people.

I. Different kinds of sermons may include:

1. Topical – where a special need is addressed as a special medicine on a shelf treats an illness.
2. Biographical – where we learn lessons about God and service from some Bible character's life.
3. Expository – where a Bible passage or chapter is preached drawing lessons from each verse, eg: Acts 20:17-38.
4. Textual – where a Bible verse or two are preached, eg: 'wolves' in Acts 20:29,30.
5. Comfort – where some passage is preached to comfort the hearers. (I Corinthians 14:3).
6. Praise – where some passage is preached to declare God's goodness, as in the Psalms.
7. Rebuke – where some passage is preached to rebuke personal sin or false doctrine, eg: Calvinism, New Evangelicalism, Modern Bible Versions, misapplied legalism.

II. Purpose of Preaching (at least 12 purposes).

"But he that prophesieth (preaches) speaketh unto men to edification, (build up, 3619) and exhortation (implore 3874) and comfort." (I Corinthians 14:3)

"For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope." (Romans 15:4).

"Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort, with all long-suffering and doctrine." (II Timothy 4:2).

"For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ." (Ephesians 4:12).

III. How to Prepare a Message

"For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the law of the Lord, and to do it, and to teach in Israel statutes and judgments." (Ezra 7:10).

"Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." (II Timothy 2:15).

A preacher must:

1. Prepare his heart to seek God's law/God's Word. This means to
 - pray for the message God would have you to preach to meet the people's needs;
 - study God's word as a lifelong commitment;
 - study in detail the message to be preached.
2. "To do it" means he must practice what he preaches.
3. "To teach" means to communicate Bible truth in an easy-to-understand way so his hearers obey it.
4. "Approved unto God" means he must preach to please God, not men.
5. "A workman" means he must preach so as to train workmen who are able to serve God, win souls, teach the Bible, refute error and work well with fellow believers.
6. "Rightly dividing the word of truth" means he must be able to interpret correctly the meaning of any Bible passage. He must rightly divide Scripture into time period (dispensation), racial division (ethnic division), context, and grammar.

These things are included in the following checklist:

1. Pray to God for the message He wants you to preach and which the people need. Pray something like: "Lord Jesus, please give me the message of Your choosing that will meet the needs of the people and will glorify You."
2. Choose a verse, passage or chapter as the Bible reading.
3. What is the heading or title of the message?
4. What is the aim of the message?
5. Read the Bible passage several times, looking for thoughts or outlines.
6. Write on a piece of scrap paper any ideas or outlines.
7. Look up key words in Strong's Concordance to find verses on the same subject.
8. Read some good commentaries to get extra ideas on these verses, passages or subjects.

9. Write your sermons in a hardcover exercise book, as a permanent record of your study. You may use some of these messages again. Number each book. Type them in a computer Word doc.
10. Write out your message in your exercise book according to the outline you have written on scrap paper, as follows:
 - i) Title of message. Answer a question or solve a problem.
 - ii) Bible reading. Memory verse.
 - iii) Aim = what action you want the people to implement.
 - iv) Introduction = State a problem that you propose to solve.
 - v) Development = the body of your message where you fill in the details of your outline.
 - Interpret the passage correctly showing its true meaning.
 - Historical background may shed light on its meaning.
 - Illustrate the truth by stories or illustrations from life. Get a book of sermon illustrations.
 - Application shows real life situations where people applied this truth.
 - Ask questions about the passage to reveal deeper truths, eg: who, why, when, where, what.
 - Cross references that shed further light on this passage.
 - What lessons do we learn from each word or verse?
 - vi) Conclusion.
 - vii) Invitation. This is where you invite or challenge the hearer to action.

IV. Questions to ask about a Passage

1. Is there an example to follow?
2. Is there a sin to avoid?
3. Is there a promise to claim?
4. Is there a lesson to learn?
5. Is there a command to obey?
6. Is there a verse to memorise?
7. Is there a prayer to pray?
8. Is there a condition to fulfil?
9. Is there a warning to heed or error to notice?
10. Is the passage figurative or literal?
11. What is the context of this verse, chapter and book?
12. Are there things emphasised, repeated, related, alike, unlike?
13. Who is speaking, and who is it spoken to?
14. In what Dispensation does this passage take place?

V. Categories of Sermons

1. Soul winning
2. Jesus Christ
3. Second Coming
4. Church Issues
5. Character/Biographical
6. Psalms
7. Parables
8. Proverbs
9. Christian Living
10. Doctrinal, eg: repentance, justification
11. Apologetics, eg: proofs of the Bible, resurrection, deity of Christ, etc.
12. Refuting False Doctrines.
13. Word study.
14. Comfort.

VI. Other Helpful Hints

1. Write a list of future sermon topics.
2. Read commentaries and sermon books for sermon ideas.
3. Look for key words or questions to preach on.

4. Train young men to preach by asking them to preach a 2-minute or 5-minute message. If they do well, give them more opportunities to preach.
5. Preach through books of the Bible such as Jonah, Timothy, Titus, Acts, Ephesians, Thessalonians, Peter, Jude.
6. Take notes for ideas in an exercise book when you hear others preach.
7. Train your people to take notes in an exercise book of sermons.

Here are 149 Sermons or Sermon Outlines that may help as examples of preaching:

126. Earth, Heaven and Hell.

Bible Reading: Luke 14:16-24 (Earth); 15:7,10 (Heaven); 16:19-31 (Hell).

Aim: To not love this world but to look to heaven and to live for heaven.

Introduction: How many believers have wrong views of and priorities of Earth, Heaven and Hell? The average unbeliever lives only for earth, without any thought of heaven or hell.

Let us put these in their right perspective:

I. Earth and its Madness. (Luke 14:16-24).

- i) The man who made the great supper is God.
- ii) The supper represents the marriage supper in heaven. (Revelation 19:7-10).
- iii) The invitation to mankind is “come, for all things are now ready”. (John 7:37-39; Revelation 22:17; Matthew 11:28-30).
- iv) The excuses represent earth and its madness.
(Definition of “mad” = disordered mind, insane, wildly foolish.)

Question: What are some mad things in this world?

1. Mad contentious man. (Proverbs 26:18-26).
2. Laughter and mirth = entertainment, movies, etc. (Ecclesiastes 2:2).
3. Oppression makes a wise man mad (Ecclesiastes 7:7).
4. Every man that maketh himself a prophet. (Jeremiah 29:26) eg: charismatic false prophecies.
5. Idol worshippers (Jeremiah 50:38) eg: lucky charms, Roman Catholic statues.
6. Babylon false religion making the world mad (Jeremiah 51:7; Revelation 17:4).
7. Those who persecute Christians eg: Saul in Acts 26:11, wolves in churches (Acts 20:29,30).
8. Gibberish speakers in charismatic churches (I Corinthians 14:23).

II. Heaven and its Gladness. (Luke 15:7,10).

Jesus describes the joy in heaven over one sinner repenting. The lost sheep after being found caused gladness in heaven. God, angels and departed believers in heaven have a great interest in people on earth getting saved. (Hebrews 12:1). Let us work with them to win souls to Christ and disciple them.

III. Hell and its Sadness. (Luke 16:19-31).

The sadness in hell consists of:

- i) Hell’s torments – mentioned 4 times in v.23,24,25,28. These include torments of flame, thirst, smell of sulphur, hearing weeping, wailing, gnashing of teeth, seeing what you missed of God’s best.
- ii) Hell’s memories. “Son remember . . .” v 25. Memories of earth’s luxuries lost and God’s blessings taken for granted. Memories of rejecting Christ and Gospel preachers.
- iii) Hell’s hopelessness. “A great gulf fixed.” v 26. No hope of escape ever. No lessening of suffering ever, no escape from selfish, evil people ever.
- iv) Hell’s dread for others. “I have five brethren” v 28. Those in hell have a greater concern for their living relatives on earth than most believers have to reach them. People in hell desire their relatives to be saved.

Conclusion and Challenge:

1. Are you concerned to win your lost relatives and friends to Christ?
2. Are you learning and studying to be a better soul winner?
3. Do you regularly and weekly go soul winning with others in your church?
4. Are you training others in soul winning?
5. Have you studied Answers Soul-winning chapters 17,18,19,21,22,23?
6. Are you praying for God to lead you to someone today?

127. Six Responses to the Spiritual War

Bible Reading: Judges 4:1-24 and 5:1-31.

Aim: To willingly and daringly offer ourselves to serve God in the spiritual war of soul-winning.

Introduction: Here we have God using a woman who was willing to serve God when men were unwilling. Deborah illustrates the virtuous woman of Proverbs 31:30.

“A woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised.” When Deborah invited different tribes of Israel to war against Sisera, she found six different responses that people made to this spiritual and military battle. Which of these six categories describes your response to God calling you to participate in the spiritual battle for souls?

I. Tell the background story. (Judges 4).

- i) Deborah a prophetess is raised up in a day of oppression (4:1-5).
- ii) Deborah calls Barak to deliver Israel (4:6,7).
- iii) Barak refuses unless Deborah goes with him. (4:8,9).
- iv) Deborah agrees, but says that the honour shall go to a woman (4:9).
- v) Barak fights against Sisera and defeats him (4:10-17).
- vi) Sisera takes refuge with Jael, the wife of Heber. Jael then kills Sisera. (4:18-24).

II. Deborah’s Song of Triumph. (Judges 5).

- i) Praise to God for victory (5:1-5).
- ii) The sad state of Israel, until Deborah arose and the people were delivered (5:6-8).
- iii) How various tribes responded to the call to arms (5:9-23):
 - a. The Governors offered themselves willingly. (5:9-15).
 - b. Reuben was divided, with great searchings of heart. They were uncertain about going to war, so they preferred to stay at home to keep their sheep and to make money. (5:15,16).
 - c. Gilead, Dan and Asher did not respond, but stayed in their own places, working on their ships. 5:17
 - d. Zebulun and Naphtali hazarded their lives on the battlefield. (5:18).
 - e. Meroz is curse bitterly for not coming to the help of the Lord. (5:23).
 - f. Jael is blessed for ridding Israel of the tyrant Sisera. (5:24).

III. Six Responses to the Spiritual War. (Application).

- i) The willing. The governors offered themselves willingly (v.9). Ephraim, Benjamin, Zebulun, Issachar are praised.

Question: Do you willingly offer yourself to serve God, help your pastor win the lost and teach God’s Word?

- ii) The uncertain: Reuben was divided,
 - they had great thought and searchings of heart.
 - they stayed behind to do their own thing and to make money. (5:15,16).

Question: Are you uncertain or double minded about serving God?

Are you more concerned with making money for yourself than in doing God’s will for your life?

Are you looking for excuses not to serve God? The devil will give you plenty of excuses.

- iii) The slackers: Gilead, Dan and Asher did not respond, but stayed at home. (5:17).

Question: Are you just a plain lazy Christian who won’t serve God because you can’t be bothered?

Do you think that by coming to church once on Sunday that is all that God has for you? What about going soul-winning at least once a week?

- iv) The daring: Zebulun and Naphtali hazarded their lives in the battlefield. (5:18).

Question: Do you get fully into the spiritual battle to win the lost, teach new converts & build churches?

- v) The curse: Meroz is curse bitterly for not coming to the help of the Lord. (5:23).

Question: Do you want to be in the same category as Meroz? This is what God thinks of those who do nothing to help the cause of Christ in today’s evil hour when spiritual enemies are pouring in.

- vi) The blessed: Jael is blessed for ridding Israel of the tyrant Sisera. (5:24).

Question: Will you have a blessed memory for doing things for God with what you have when needed?

Question: As Jael had a tent peg, what do you have that you can use for God’s work?

IV. Lessons from this Story

1. Israel's sin is punished by Jabin's oppression. God may discipline us by bringing suffering into our lives. Suffering is not always because of punishment.
2. When we cry unto the Lord, He delivers us. (Psalm 107:6,13,19,28).
3. Women can do a mighty work for God and be the instrument of mighty spiritual victories, as seen in Deborah and Jael.
4. Women may encourage their men for good or evil. Deborah inspired Barak to triumph. Eve led Adam to sin. Delilah led Samson to bondage and death. Jezebel stirred Ahab to evil.
5. Jael had courage to do what was needed at the time.
6. God uses songs to remind us of key lessons and victories. Song of Deborah, Song of Moses (Numbers 21:17; Exodus 15; Deuteronomy 31:19), Song of Solomon, Psalms.
7. Deborah allocates praise and blame in a day of need.

Conclusion: Life brings opportunities to serve God. The battle is real. What part do you play in the spiritual war for men's souls?

128. Errors Of The Charismatic Movement: T.R.A.S.H.

Bible Reading: I Corinthians 13:8-13 and 14:21-23. See Established in the Faith, chapter 40.

Aim: To see 5 main errors of the Charismatic movement summarised by the word "TRASH".

Introduction: The Charismatic movement that has arisen since 1900 and has been endorsed by Billy Graham and others is clearly unbiblical and dangerous to believers walking by faith in God's Word. Many untaught Christians will ask: "What's wrong with the Charismatic movement? Many people are saved through it. It can't be so bad." How do we reply?

Answer:

- 1) God never calls us to judge things by results, but by whether it lines up with Scripture.
- 2) Results alone do not mean that something is the will of God. In Number 20, Moses angrily struck the rock to fetch water for Israel. This act brought great success, but he disobeyed God's clear command to speak to the rock, and for this he was refused entry to Canaan.
- 3) We must measure a movement by all the results, such as:
 - a) Ecumenical Charismaticism obscures the line between truth and error.
 - b) Charismaticism turns people from determining truth by rightly interpreting Scripture to their experience being the authority.
 - c) It slows down multiplication of truth, and promotes multiplication of error.

Question: What are the 5 main errors of the Charismatic movement?

1. T = TONGUES. They think they are speaking in tongues, when in reality it is gibberish. I Corinthians 14:21,22,23 states that tongues are not for believers, but to warn unbelieving Israel to repent or God would judge them. This is what happened when the Romans destroyed Jerusalem in 70AD. Tongues then ceased as I Corinthians 13:8,11 predicted: "tongues, they shall cease." We must "prove all things" (I Thessalonians 5:18). Tongues cannot be proven as a genuine language.
2. R = NEW REVELATIONS. They think that prophecy and knowledge gifts are still for today, but I Cor. 8:8-13 show that they ceased when the "perfect" complete Word of God was completed in 96AD. The completed New Testament since 96AD does what prophecy and knowledge gifts achieved imperfectly up to 96AD. James 1:22-25 compares the perfect law of liberty to a mirror, stating it is God's word.
3. A = ANIMAL NOISES of the "Toronto blessing" where some Charismatics roll on the floor, making noises like donkeys, dogs, etc.,. This is demonic and without any Bible support.
4. S = SLAYING IN THE SPIRIT. This is the practice where hands are placed on a person's head and they fall backward unconscious to the ground. In Isaiah 28:13 this is associated with being broken, snared and taken as a judgment of God on people who "would not hear" God's word (Isaiah 28:12).
5. H = HEALING. They think they have the gifts of healing but ignore Scriptures stating that "they were healed everyone" (Acts 5:16), "they shall recover" (Mark 16:18), "others..came and were healed." (Acts 28:9). New Testament healing was 100%. No one today can heal as the apostles did.

Conclusion: "Prove all things" before you believe them. Check them first with all relevant Scriptures.

129. Four Calls For Personal Soul-Winning

Bible Reading: Luke 16:19-31.

Aim: To respond to these four calls for soul-winning by learning and doing soul-winning.

Introduction: Evangelistic churches are not as effective as they used to be because unsaved people don't come to church so much in Australia. What we need is more soul-winning churches that know how to go out into the community to win people to Christ, to disciple new converts, and bring them to church on Sunday. We find that there are 4 calls for personal soul-winning in the Bible:

1. From Within.

"For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard." Acts 4:20.

"For the love of Christ constraineth us." II Corinthians 5:14.

The Holy Spirit which indwells us leads us to speak to people about Christ.

"Then the Spirit said unto Philip, go near, and join thyself to this chariot." Acts 8:29.

To disobey this call is to grieve the indwelling Holy Spirit.

2. From Without.

"There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us" Act 16:9

"Lift up your eyes and look on the fields for they are white already to harvest." John 4:34-36.

There are people needing to hear the gospel. There are many people wanting someone to start a church near them. Will you volunteer to go and tell them? Can you see the opportunities to preach the gospel and to lead multitudes to Christ all over the world?

3. From Above.

"There is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth." Luke 15:10.

"Wherefore, seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight..." Hebrews 12:1.

4. From Below. Many people suffering in hell pray for someone to tell their family how to be saved.

"I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house; for I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment." Luke 16:27,28.

Conclusion: Will you heed these 4 calls to win the lost and go today? Make soul winning a priority.

130. Things The Lord Knows About Us

Bible Reading: Psalm 37:1-18.

Aim: To comfort us by the Lord's intimate knowledge of us and our needs.

Introduction: Often we may be tempted to think that the Lord doesn't know or care about us or about our problems. The following Scriptures show that he does know and care about us.

The Lord knows:

1. Our Way "He knoweth thy walking through this great wilderness." Deuteronomy 2:7.

"He knoweth the way that I take: when he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold." Job 23:10.

"The Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish." Psalm 1:6.

2. Our Secret Thoughts "He knoweth the secrets of the heart." Psalm 44:21.

3. Our Frame "The proud he knoweth afar off." Psalm 138:6.

"For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust." Psalm 103:13,14.

4. Them That Trust In Him "The Lord is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in him." Nahum 1:7.

5. Our Needs "Your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him." Matthew 6:8,32

6. Our Hearts "God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God." Luke 16:14,15.

7. Them That Are His "The Lord knoweth them that are his." II Timothy 2:19.

8. When I Sit Down And Stand Up "Thou knoweth my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off." Psalm 139:2.

9. How To Deliver The Godly "The Lord knoweth how to deliver to godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished." II Peter 2:9.

131. Things to do in Your Youth

Bible Reading: Ecclesiastes 11:9--12:2

Aim: To achieve God's appointed goals in your youth, so you'll have a big impact for Christ later.

Introduction: Many people wreck their life because they wreck their youth. Many of us have picked up wrong ideas in our youth that have caused problems for us later in life. We must find God's ways early in life, believe them and obey them always. The Bible is God's textbook on life. It tells us:

a) How to get to heaven.

b) How to avoid sin and the trouble sin brings in this life.

Question: What does the Bible say that we should achieve in our youth?

1. Avoid bad peers. 'My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.' Proverbs 1:10-19.

"Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly." (Psalm 1:1-3).

2. Take heed to God's Word (Ps 119:9,11). Delight and meditate in God's Word day and night. Ps.1:2,3

3. Seek wisdom, understanding and increase learning. (Proverbs 1:2-6).

"the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom." (Proverbs 9:10).

4. Listen to and obey your parents' instructions. (Proverbs 1:8,9).

5. Be wise unto salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. (II Timothy 3:15).

6. Learn the Holy Scriptures from childhood. (II Timothy 3:15).

7. Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth .(Ecclesiastes 12:1). "Remember" means to:

a) Receive Jesus Christ as your Saviour (John 1:12);

b) Surrender all areas of your life to Jesus Christ as Lord (Romans 12:1,2);

c) Study God's Word to prepare for God's plan for your life (II Timothy 2:15);

d) Seek His will for your life and fulfil it (Matthew 6:33);

e) Develop a close relationship with God (James 4:8; Psalm 73:28);

f) Realise God created you. All that we have comes from God. Reject evolution's lies.

8. Flee youthful lusts. (II Timothy 2:22; Proverbs 7:1-27).

9. Follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace with fellow believers. (II Timothy 2:22).

10. Let no man despise thy youth (I Timothy 4:12). Don't feel inferior because of your youth. If you know God's Word, you have more wisdom than ungodly teachers. (Psalm 119:99).

11. Be an example of what an ideal Christian should be in word, conversation, charity, spirit, faith and purity. (I Timothy 4:12).

12. Treat older men as fathers, younger men as brothers, elder women as mothers, young women as sisters with all purity. (Titus 2:4-8; I Corinthians 7:1,2; I Timothy 5:1,2).

13. Be strong in grace (II Timothy 2:1). Let the word of God abide (remain) in you by memorizing it.

Overcome the wicked one (by resisting temptation). (I John 2:14).

14. It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth (Lamentations 3:24-27). God wants us to learn to wait patiently and to learn the yoke of self-discipline in our youth. Young people need to learn to control their sex, drug and alcohol urges. They need self-discipline to reject wrong friends and self-discipline to study and memorise God's Word. Learning Christ and His ways is the yoke Christ wants us to take on ourselves. (Matthew 11:29,30). Christ's yoke is much easier to bear than a yoke of sin.

15. Rejoice with the wife of thy Youth. (Proverbs 5:18,19). God's will is for people to marry in their youth, not to live together in fornication. Marry a godly partner who can help you serve God better. (I Timothy 5:14).

16. Be about our Heavenly Father's business, as 12 year old Jesus was. (Luke 2:49).

17. Don't listen to foolish, ignorant or wicked advisors. "Cease, my son, to hear the instruction that causeth to err from the words of knowledge." (Prov. 19:27). Identify and reject bad advice. (Hebr 7:17).

18. Seek your Pastors advice and do it. "Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves"

Conclusion: Apply these truths in your life and you will please God and be a blessing to many people. If you reject these truths, then Ecclesiastes 11:9 will happen. If you "walk in the ways of thine heart, & in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment."

Question: Will you surrender today to live by God's ways all through your life?

132. When to Keep Your Mouth Shut

Bible Reading: James 3:1-18.

Aim: To let God's Holy Spirit fill us and control what we say, so that people are blessed and not cursed by our words.

Introduction: People find it easier to speak before thinking, than to think before speaking. Because of this, so much damage has been done by careless words.

Once hurtful words are spoken, they cannot be taken back.

Memory Verse: "Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath. For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God." James 1:19,20.

Question: At what times do we need to be especially careful to keep our mouth shut?

Don't open your mouth:

1. When you are tempted to tell lies. "A false witness that speaketh lies." (Proverbs 6:19; 13:5).
"For my mouth shall speak truth . . ." (Proverbs 8:7; Ephesians 4:25).
2. When you don't have all the facts. "Keep back thy servant from presumptuous sins." Psalm 19:13
"He that answereth a matter before he heareth it, it is a folly and shame unto him." Proverbs 18:13.
3. When you haven't verified the story by asking the accused:
"The simple believeth every word." (Proverbs 14:15).
"In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established." (II Corinthians 13:1).
4. When you are tempted to tell a person's sin to another without speaking to the accused first.
"Moreover if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone; if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother." (Matthew 18:15). "Debate thy cause with thy neighbour himself; and discover not a secret to another: lest he that heareth it put thee to shame, and thine infamy turn not away." (Proverbs 25:9,10).
5. When your words would damage a friendship. "A froward (obstinate, stubbornly contrary and disobedient) man soweth strife: and a whisperer separateth chief friends." (Proverbs 16:28).
6. When you are tempted to joke about sin. "Fools make a mock at sin." (Proverbs 14:9).
7. When you are tempted to make a vow to God that you can't keep. "Better is it that thou shouldest not vow, than that thou shouldest vow and not pay." (Ecclesiastes 5:2,4-6,5).
8. When you are tempted to interrupt a person speaking or to speak too long without hearing what he has to say. "Let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath." James 1:19.
9. When the issue is none of your business. "He that passeth by, and meddleth with strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a dog by the ears." Proverbs 26:17.
10. When you are tempted to deceive and say something you don't mean or give a wrong impression. "As a mad man who casteth firebrands, arrows and death, so is the man that deceiveth his neighbour, and saith, am not I in sport?" (Proverbs 26:18,19).
11. When you are tempted to flatter a wicked person. "He that saith unto the wicked, thou art righteous; him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him." (Proverbs 24:24).
"A flattering mouth worketh ruin." (Proverbs 26:28).
12. When you haven't thought carefully about the consequences of your words. "Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit of it." (Proverbs 18:21; 13:3)
"Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter anything before God: . . . therefore let thy words be few." (Ecclesiastes 5:2).
13. When your words will needlessly offend someone. "A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city: and their contentions are like the bars of a castle." (Proverb 18:19; I Corinthians 8:13)
14. When you feel like boasting. "Boast not thyself of tomorrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth. Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth: a stranger and not thine own lips." (Proverbs 27:1,2).
15. When you are tempted to scream and show anger. "A soft answer turneth away wrath: but grievous words stir up anger". (Proverbs 15:1). "He that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls." (Proverbs 25:28).

16. When you feel like threatening or insulting people.
 “Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again: when he suffered, he threatened not, but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously.” (I Peter 2:21-23).
 If your words will be a poor reflection on Christ, your family or your friends, don’t say it.
17. When you can’t speak courteously. “Be courteous: not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing.” (I Peter 3:8,9).
18. If you would be ashamed of your words later. “All the words of my mouth are in righteousness, there is nothing froward or perverse in them.” (Proverbs 8:8).
19. In the heat of anger. “He that is soon angry dealeth foolishly.” (Proverbs 14:17).
 “He that is slow to wrath is of great understanding.” (Proverbs 14:29).
20. When you are about to enter a contract and haven’t yet spoken to a multitude of counsellors.
 “Without counsel, purposes are disappointed: but in the multitude of counsellors they are established.” (Proverbs 24:6; 11:14; 16:22).
21. When you are tempted to tell others of things told to you confidentially.
 “A talebearer revealeth secrets: but he that is of a faithful spirit concealeth a matter.” (Prov.11:13).
22. When you are tempted to go guarantor for someone. “He that is surety for a stranger shall smart for it: and he that hateth suretiship is sure.” (Proverbs 11:15).
23. When you feel like damaging someone’s reputation. “An ungodly man diggeth up evil: and in his lips there is as a burning fire.” (Proverbs 16:27).
24. When you listen to slander with a view to pass it on to others. “A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips: and a liar giveth ear to a naughty tongue.” (Proverbs 17:4).
25. If you have already said it more than once: “The contentions of a wife are a continual dropping.” (Proverbs 19:13).
26. When you are supposed to be working. “In all labour there is profit: but the talk of the lips tendeth only to penury.” (Proverbs 14:23).
27. When it is time to listen: “A wise son heareth his father’s instruction: but a scorner heareth not rebuke.” (Proverbs 13:1).
28. When we are feeling critical. “Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.” (James 3:10).
29. When you are tempted to slander those who’ve helped you in the past. “Whoso returneth evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house.” (Proverbs 17:13).
30. When you are tempted to slander, or believe slander about a godly, soul-winning pastor.
 “Against an elder receive not an accusation, but before two or three witnesses.” (I Timothy 5:19).

Conclusion: Which of these are you guilty of? Confess them to God as sin and forsake them.
 Pray Psalm 19:14 “Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my strength, and my redeemer.”

133. Six Little Words

Bible Reading: I Corinthians 14:7-9.

Aim: To show the meaning and message in these often overlooked little words. Don't forget the little things in the Bible. Every word of God is important.

Illustration: Lectures to Young Preachers, George Henderson, pp 77-78. Preach simply and clearly.

a) "A simple preacher announced to his congregation the abilities of a visiting preacher by saying he was 'a man who knows the unknowable, who can solve the unsolvable, and unscrew the inscrutable.'" Be sure you understand the meaning of every word that you use.

b) When Martin Luther was asked why his preaching was so effective, he replied, "First, when I enter the pulpit I say, 'Remember thou art a messenger of the Highest.'" Second, because I hold firmly to the Bible only, and study it afresh every day. Third, I keep to the leading point of the discourse, other things I leave unsaid, though ever so many ideas occur to me. Fourth, I try to be simple, to be understood by the working classes and by children of twelve or thirteen."

c) Some speakers trying to impress may say: "Scintillate, Scintillate, globule vivific, Fain would I fathom thy nature specific, Loftily poised in the ether capacious, Strongly resembling a gem carbonaceous."

But that speaker would have been wiser to say: "Twinkle, twinkle, little star, How I wonder what you are, Up above the world so high, Like a diamond in the sky." Let us preach messages that will be easily understood.

d) Four Rules for preachers: 1) To be listened to, be interesting. 2) To be understood, be clear.

3) To be useful, be practical. 4) To be obeyed, speak as the oracles of God.

Introduction: There are 6 little words of only one syllable in the Bible, yet though seemingly unimportant, they convey some of the greatest truths in the universe.

These 6 little words are SO,LO,HO,NO,GO,WOE. Let us make these little words a big part of our life:

1. SO = to a SURPASSING DEGREE, "For God SO loved the world that he gave." (John 3:16).

"SO" describes the greatness of God's love to all mankind.

i) God's part: loving and giving.

ii) Man's part: believing and receiving eternal life. "Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us that we should be called the sons of God." I John 3:1.

"We love him because he first loved us." (I John 4:19). Even if we don't love God, He loves us.

2. LO = to DRAW ATTENTION TO. "Then said I, LO, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God." (Hebrews 10:7). These words "LO, I come", excite heaven, make demons tremble, and make believers rejoice because the Son of God has come.

If Christ had not come, there would be: no salvation, no hope, no forgiveness of sins, no justification, no peace, and no heaven, just sin, darkness, judgment and hell.

* "LO" gives hope to the sinner. We need to draw people's attention to the fact that Christ has come, died and rose again for the sins of the world, and eternal life is available.

* "LO" tells of Christ's voluntary coming to earth. Christ came to fulfil Old Testament prophecies, and to be the sacrifice for our sins. Let us draw people's attention to Christ's sacrifice for their sins.

3. HO = SURPRISE, TRIUMPH, INVITATION to salvation:

"HO, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money: come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price." (Isaiah 55:1).

HO = a word of invitation to salvation full and free, "without money and without price" (to us), yet "with a price" (to Christ). "For ye are bought with a price." (I Corinthians 6:20).

Jesus paid the full price for our salvation. If we know that price, we dare not "neglect so great salvation"

4. NO = ABSENCE OF. "There is therefore now NO CONDEMNATION to them which are in Christ Jesus." (Romans 8:1) . NO CONDEMNATION is great news to a convicted sinner.

a) Where is there no condemnation? In Christ Jesus.

b) To whom is there no condemnation? To them which are in Christ Jesus.

c) When is there no condemnation? NOW.

d) Why is there no condemnation? Because the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. Isaiah 53:6.

Romans 8 begins with "no condemnation" (8:1) and ends with "no separation" (8:35-39). John 5:24.

5. GO = MOVEMENT FROM A PLACE. “Go and preach the gospel to every creature.” Mark 16:15 “Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptising them.....” (Matthew 28:19-20).

This is a command from Christ to His disciples to go and tell.

Let us respond to Christ’s call by saying “Here am I, send me”. (Isaiah 6:8).

6. WOE = AFFLICTION, BITTER GRIEF, CALAMITY, CURSE ON.

“Yea, Woe is unto me if I preach not the gospel.” I Corinthians 9:26.

There are millions of people that are searching for the truth of God. They need someone to show them.

“If thou forbear (abstain from) to deliver them that are drawn unto death..” Proverbs 24:11,12.

If you are really saved, you’ll want to see others saved.

If you really know the Lord Jesus, you’ll want others to know Him, and live like Him.

If you really know something of heaven, you’ll want others to go there.

If you really know the power of the Gospel, you’ll say with Paul in Romans 1:14-16,

“I am a debtor, I am ready to preach the gospel, I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ.”

Conclusion: Review SO, LO, HO, NO, GO, WOE’s meaning.

Q: Is your life communicating the messages of these 6 simple words? Get saved now. Live for Christ.

134. Stages In Physical Creation Illustrating Stages In Salvation

Bible Reading: Genesis 1:1-31.

Aim: To show steps in a sinner coming to Christ.

Introduction: It is interesting to note that the stages in God creating life on earth correspond exactly with the stages God uses to bring a sinner to salvation and the growth that follows. This is greatly applicable to convince lost people of their need for Christ and to encourage and instruct Christians to grow as believers.

Question: What are the eleven stages in the salvation of a sinner to become a new creation?

1. Chaos = the unbeliever’s life without Christ (Genesis 1:2). He lives for self, is a servant of Satan, cares little about God and others, and is heading to an eternal hell.

“The way of transgressors is hard.” Proverbs 13:15.

“The earth was without form, and void (empty) & darkness was upon the face of the deep.” Genesis 1:2.

Empty, darkness, without form and without order pictures the chaos of sin and rebellion in an unbeliever’s life. He is described in Psalm 14:2,3 (filthy, none doing good); Isaiah 53:6; 57:20 (troubled, cannot rest, casting up mire and dirt); John 3:18-20 (men loved darkness); Romans 3:10-19 (unprofitable, deceitful, cursing, bitterness, destruction, misery, no peace, no fear of God, guilty).

2. Conviction = the Holy Spirit moves to convict a sinner of his sin and need for Christ. Genesis 1:2.

“the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.” Genesis 1:2.

When the Holy Spirit came at Pentecost, the people’s response was: “Men and brethren, what shall we do?” (Acts 2:37). Jesus promised that after He went to Heaven, He would send the Holy Spirit to be our Comforter and to convict the world of sin, righteousness and judgment. (John 16:7-11).

The Holy Spirit is our partner in soul winning.

3. Waters = the water of the word of God is applied by the Holy Spirit to bring Salvation.

“The Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.” Genesis 1:2.

“Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God.” John 3:5.

“That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word.” Ephesian 5:26.

4. Light = the newly saved sinner receives the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. “God said, let there be light: and there was light.” Genesis 1:3.

Light = Knowledge of Salvation, and “the light of the glorious gospel of Christ.” II Corinthians 4:4.

“The entrance of thy words giveth light.” Psalm 119:130.

“For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light.” Eph. 5:8.

“Jesus said, I am the light of the world: he that follows me shall not walk in darkness but shall have the light of life.” John 8:12. “him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.” I Peter 2:9

5. Division and Separation: “God divided the light from the darkness.” Genesis 1:4.

When people get saved, as children of light, we must separate from darkness, sin&things of the old life.

Question: What separations describe the believer?

1. Christ and the world.
2. Believers and unbelievers.
3. Truth and error.
4. Heaven and hell.
5. Holy living and sinful living.
6. Fundamental Christianity and Liberalism.
7. Way of Life and Way of Death.
8. Light and darkness.
9. Soul winner and non soul-winning.
10. Zealous spiritual Christian and lukewarm carnal Christian.

“There was a division among the people because of him.” John 7:43; 9:16; 10:19.

“Be not unequally yoked together with unbelievers.” II Corinthians 6:14-18.

“Be holy, for I am holy,.. Make a difference between the unclean and clean.” Leviticus 11:44-47.

6. Growth: “Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind.” Genesis 1:11.

When one is saved, he must grow by taking in God’s Word daily, as trees take in nourishment.

“As newborn babes desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby.” 1 Peter 2:1,2.

“But grow in grace, and the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To Him be glory both new and forever.” II Peter 3:18.

“Speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things ...” Ephesians 4:15.

“Your faith groweth exceedingly, and all the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth.” II Thessalonians 1:3.

7. Fruit-bearing: “grass, herbs, tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself.” Genesis 1:12.

After salvation, we must bear fruit of people won to Christ and the fruit of the Spirit.

“every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit (John 15:2)

he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit (John 15:5).

“Ye have your fruit unto holiness.” Romans 6:22; 1:13.

“I desire fruit that may abound to your account.” Philippians 4:17.

“the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name.” Hebrews 13:15.

“that bringeth forth his fruit in his season.” Psalm 1:1-3.

8. Dominion: “let them have dominion over the fish of the sea...” Genesis 1:26.

Believers must now let Christ have dominion and lordship over every aspect of our lives.

“thou hast put all things under his feet.” Psalms 8:3-8.

9. God’s Image: “So God created man in his own image.” Genesis 1:26,27.

As we study God’s Word we are changed into the image of God, as II Corinthians 3:18 states:

“But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass (the Bible) the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image...” (Colossians 3:10.

“Have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him.”

“Whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son.” Rom.8:29

10. Blessing: “God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it.” Genesis 1:28.

As we are conformed to Christ’s image, God blesses us and we become fruitful in winning souls to Christ, in multiplying disciples for Christ. They in turn win and train others for Christ.

“Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessing in heavenly places in Christ.” Ephesians 1:3; Psalm 32:1,2; II Timothy 2:2.

11. Rest in Genesis 2:2 pictures the Faith Rest Life.

“he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he made.”

Believers should aim to live a life of faith, resting in God’s promises in the Bible, so that when trouble comes to us, we do not panic and drop out. The wilderness generation failed to believe God’s promises, failed to live the faith-rest life, and therefore failed to enter Canaan. “Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.” Hebrews 4:1

Conclusion: Come to Christ, cast our cares on Him, and we shall find rest for our souls. Matt.11:28-30

135. What Is Your Life?

Bible Reading: Job 9:2-35.

Aim: To teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts to the wisdom of soul winning, to teaching others God's word and living like Christ.

Introduction: The Bible compares our life to many things. Why? So that we may realise how short our life is, and how important it is for us to number our days (ie: to plan our life) so that we have the maximum impact on the world for Christ.

In order to show us how short our life is, God compares our life to several things:

1. A Vapour. "Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away." James 4:14.

All our plans depend on our life continuing. But what a frail and uncertain thing our life is. Who can build any solid plans on the permanence of a vapour or a mist? A vapour is a mist that is dissipated by the rising sun.

"O remember that my life is wind. ...As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away: so is he that goeth down to the grave." Job 7:7,9.

"He remembered that they were but flesh, a wind that passeth away, and cometh not again." Ps.78:39.

Notice that: 1) As a vapour or wind passes away quickly, so does the life of man.

2) As we cannot stop a cloud or wind, so we cannot hinder the speedy motion of our days.

3) As a cloud comes to its height and then vanishes, so does our life and our full strength.

2. A Flower. "Man that is born of a woman is of few days and full of trouble. He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down." Job 14:1,2.

"For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away. But the Word of the Lord endureth forever." I Peter 1:24,25.

Man's life is compared to a fading flower. Many things describe a flower such as having sweet smell, beauty, variety of colour, and softness to touch. Job discusses none of these, but only of its cutting down. Note the following truths about it's cutting down:

a) A flower is often cut down in it's budding. Many people are cut off in the flower of life by

i) Natural death by sickness, or

ii) Accidental death by violence, murder, road accidents, etc.

b) A flower if not cut off, soon withers away and is gone. The "Queen of the Night" flower blooms in one night, gives a beautiful fragrance, and is dead and withered by morning.

c) As the owner of flowers knows best when to crop then, so God knows the best time when to crop off or take away by death any of his choice flowers.

3. A Swift Post. "Now my days are swifter than a post: they flee away, they see no good." Job 9:25.

a) As a postman rides swiftly, in a hurry, so man's life passes away swiftly.

b) A postman of years ago would - ride on the swiftest of horses,

- he would change horses at every stage to keep up the speed,

- he would take a morsel of food at each stop, then speed on,

- he would only go to bed at the end of his journey,

- all people would give way to the post rider.

4. A Swift Ship. "They are passed away as the swift ships." Job 9:25,26.

Watching a ship at sea, we notice how it passes very quickly, reminding us of our lives & opportunities.

5. An Eagle. "As the eagle that hasteth to the prey." Job 9:26.

An eagle is a very swiftly flying bird, but when it hastens to catch its prey, it makes the greatest speed. The life of man is compared to an eagle hurrying to catch her prey when hunger adds swiftness to her wings. So it is with swiftness that our days pass away. What have you done for Christ with your life?

6. A Weaver's Shuttle. "My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle." Job 7:6.

a) A weaver's shuttle is an instrument of very swift motion.

b) When the weaver has finished his web, he cuts off the thread. So it is that when a man has run the length of his days appointed by God, his life is cut off.

7. A Shadow. “He fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.” Job 14:2.

David said: “our days on the earth are as a shadow and there is none abiding.” I Chronicles 29:15.

Man’s life today is short compared to human lifespan before Noah’s flood.

Man’s life is very short compared to eternity. This is a great motive for us to redeem our time.

Conclusion: a) Our days on earth are few.

b) Our days on earth are uncertain.

c) The shortness of our life shows the folly of living only for material things as did the rich man in Luke 12:16-21 who said “Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink and be merry.” (Luke 12:19).

“The fool and the brutish person perish, and leave their wealth to others. Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue forever... This their way is their folly.” Psalm 49:10,11,13.

d) Our minds must be focused on eternity “knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and enduring substance.” Hebrews 10:34.

e) The shortness of life motivates us to use all our labours to get people to heaven, to teach the Bible, to plant churches, to train preachers, be at peace among ourselves, and live holy lives pleasing to God. Let us be “redeeming the time, because the days are evil.” Ephesians 5:16.

“Redeem the time” means “to buy it up, rescue it from loss, improve every opportunity.”

136. How Can We Glorify God?

Bible Reading: I Corinthians 10:31-33.

(I Corinthians 10:31)

Memory Verse: “Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.”

Aim: To see how we can glorify God.

Introduction:

The Bible commands us to “do all to the glory of God.” This introduces the question: “How can we glorify God?” The Bible gives 12 main ways that we can glorify God. If we focus our efforts in these 12 areas, our lives will truly bring much glory to God.

Question: How well are you bringing glory to God by practicing these 12 things? We glorify God:

1. By Preaching the Gospel. “the light of the glorious gospel of Christ.” (II Corinthians 4:4).

The gospel is glorious because it makes known our glorious God’s nature and His simple plan of salvation. The gospel leads ignorant, weak, sinful, degraded men to a world of light.

It is glorious and enlightening because of its splendour, beauty, certainty of heaven, forgiveness, fellowship and love that it gives to men, compared with the dark, despairing and hopeless systems of philosophy and heathenism that man thinks up.

2. By Offering Praise to God. “Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me.” (Psalm 50:23).

Praise involves giving God our love, thanksgiving, worship and talents to serve Him. When a sinner receives Christ as his Saviour and confesses with his mouth the Lord Jesus, he is glorifying God. Do you praise God daily? “He (the Holy Spirit) shall glorify me.” (John 16:14). Do you glorify Christ?

3. By Bearing much fruit. “herein is my Father glorified that ye bear much fruit.” (John 15:8).

4. By Finishing the work which God gives us to do. “I have glorified thee on earth: I have finished. Jn17:4

5. By Keeping ourselves from evil in the world. (John 17:10,15).

6. When sinners get saved and become preachers. For example, Paul. Galatians 1:23,24.

7. When we fulfil God’s will for our life (2 Thess. 1:11,12) the name of our Lord Jesus Christ is glorified (12). When we fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power.

8. When the Word of God has free course. (2 Thessalonians 3:1).

9. When we speak as the Oracles of God, and minister (serve) to the best of our ability that God gives us. (I Peter 4:11).

10. When we are reproached for the name of Christ, and respond cheerfully. (I Peter 4:14).

11. When God delivers us from evil. (Psalm 50:15).

12. When all nations come and worship Christ in the Millennium at Jerusalem. (Psalm 86:9).

We glorify God now by studying and teaching about Jesus Christ’s salvation and second coming.

Conclusion: Are you glorifying God now in all that you do.

137. Symbols of God's Word

Bible Reading: Psalm 19:7-14; Psalm 119:1-18.

Aim: To love and appreciate God's Word, so we will read, study, memorize and meditate on it daily.

Introduction: God likens His Word to many things, so that we can appreciate different aspects of how it can benefit us. Each symbol shows something different that it will accomplish in our lives.

God's Word, the Bible is likened to:

1) Fire: "Is not my word like a fire?" (Jeremiah 23:29).

God's Word burns, cleanses and purges all that is contrary to God's holy standard; False prophets, dreams, visions and prophecies were like chaff or straw.

"he will baptise you with the Holy Ghost and with fire: . . . he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire." (Matthew 3:11,12).

"His word was in mine heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay." (Jeremiah 20:9).

God's Word in a preacher's heart must be preached and can't be held in. It is said of Christ's omniscience: "His eyes were as a flame of fire." (Revelation 1:14).

2) Hammer: "and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces." (Jeremiah 23:29)

It smashes and destroys evil as Christ's return smashes the kingdoms of this world (Daniel 2:34, 35,44). False prophets promised peace in sin, but God's Word pronounces destruction on sinners.

3) Lamp: "thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path." (Psalm 119:105). God's Word lights up our pathway in a world of darkness so we can see truth from error. Jesus said, "I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life." (John 8:12).

4) Mirror: "If any man be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass." (James 1:23). God's Word reveals to us our true condition (James 1:23) and changes us to the same image of Christ. (II Corinthians 3:18).

5) Milk: "As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby" I Pet 2:2. "every one that uses milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness; for he is a babe." (Heb 5:13).

The basic and simple truths of God's Word nourish young Christians in their growth (I Cor. 3:2).

6) Seed: "Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the Word of God, which liveth and abideth forever." (I Peter 1:23). "The seed is the Word of God." (Luke 8:11). God's Word is like a seed which when planted in a person's heart produces new life in those who receive Christ as Saviour. Psalm 126:5,6 describes the soul winner bearing precious seed. Galatians 3:16 describes Christ as the seed of Abraham: "And to thy seed, which is Christ." (See II Timothy 2:8).

7) Sword: "Take . . . the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God." (Ephesians 6:17).

"The Word of God is quick and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow (flesh) . . . and is a discernor of the thoughts and intents of the heart." (Hebrews 4:12).

a) It separates things of the spirit and flesh;

b) It discerns the thoughts and intents of the heart;

c) It is the preached word (Greek: rhema) impacted into a person's heart.

This is a believer's only offensive weapon to defeat Satan's lies, as Christ did in Matthew 4:1-11.

d) Christ, at his return, kills the antichrist's armies with the sword coming out of his mouth. (Revelation 19:21).

8) Water: "That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word." (Eph. 5:26). "born of water (of the word)." (John 3:3).

As water is life-giving, refreshing and cleansing, so is God's Word all these things to believers.

"Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? By taking heed thereto according to thy word." (Psalm 119:9).

God's Word cleanses us of sin by bringing us to confess it to God, and by preventing it in our lives. (I John 1:9). The Bible will keep us from sin, or sin will keep us from the Bible.

Jesus offers the living water of eternal life, so we need never thirst. John 4:10,14; Rev 21:6; 22:17.

- 9) Gold: “The law of the Lord is . . . more to be desired than gold.” (Psalm 19:7,10).
 -God’s Word is like gold because of its priceless value in showing us how to get eternal life, warning us of danger, rewarding us in heaven and on earth for keeping it. (Psalm 19:11).
 -God’s Word is an endless goldmine to discover truths about God, wisdom, self, the world and eternity future.
 -Christ is described as having “His head is as the most fine gold.” (Song 5:11).
 This speaks of Christ being God and King of Israel.
- 10) Honey: “Sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.” (Psalm 19:10; Revelation 10:10). As honey is sweet to taste, so is God’s Word sweet to consider its precious promises (Proverbs 16:24) “How sweet are thy words unto my taste! Yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth.” Psalm 119:103. Christ is described as “His mouth is most sweet: yea, he is altogether lovely.” (Song 5:16).
- 11) Bread: “Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.” (Matthew 4:4; Deuteronomy 8:3).
 As bread nourishes and strengthens our bodies, so God’s Word nourishes and strengthens our spirits to serve God acceptably.
 Jesus describes himself: “I am the bread of life: he that comes to me shall never hunger” John 6:35
 Once someone is in a right relationship with Jesus Christ, he finds everlasting satisfaction.
 “Bread of life” means “bread which provides life.”
- 12) Pearls: “neither cast ye your pearls before swine.” (Matthew 7:6).
 Pearls denote anything precious, such as Bible precepts, promises or warnings. We should not offer them to violent and abusive men, who have shown themselves to growl and curse you, or who would not appreciate their value.
- 13) Anchor: “Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast.” (Hebrews 6:19). The promises in God’s Word anchor us safely to the security of eternal life, and give us hope and comfort to live now on earth.
- 14) Meat: “strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.” (Hebrews 5:14). It is wrong to remain a baby in spiritual matters (I Cor. 13:11). Strong meat Christians possess the maturity to make right moral choices, and have digested enough Scripture to discern good from evil.
- 15) Ox-Goad: “The words of the wise (preachers) are as goads and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies (preachers in churches), which are given from one shepherd (Jesus Christ).” Eccles12:11
 As an ox-goad prods oxen to fulfil their duty, so God’s Word prods believers into obeying God.

Conclusion: Some of these Bible symbols are also symbols of Christ, the living Word. (3,6,11).
 Are you living daily by studying God’s Word?
 Are you walking daily in sweet, close fellowship with Christ?
 Are you obeying each message contained in these symbols of God’s Word?
 Are you regularly sowing the seed of God’s Word in people’s lives?

138. What Sort of Mind Have You?

Bible Reading: Philippians 2:1-5.

Aim: To monitor our mental state, so that we have the right mind to:

a) Stay in fellowship with God and each other; and b) Serve God effectively.

Introduction: Everything we do in our Christian life depends on our minds. The mind is the battleground where Satan seeks to gain control of our decision-making process for evil. Don't let Satan hijack your mind. One of the saddest things to see is Christians who were once on fire for God, who have let some foolish or false idea into their mind, which resulted in them being separated from other believers, and shipwrecking their faith. Our mind is like a computer. Garbage IN = garbage OUT.

Question: Will you let some false idea control your mind, so you break fellowship with God & others?

Question: What kinds of wrong minds and right minds are there?

I. BAD MIND to avoid:

- 1) Mind hardened in pride. (Daniel 5:20). When Nebuchadnezzar's heart was lifted up by his honoured position, his mind was hardened in pride, he was deposed from his throne and lost his glory by becoming insane for 7 years.
Q: Are you proud of something you have achieved? (Proverbs 16:18). Beware of pride.
- 2) Neither be ye of doubtful mind. (Luke 12:29).
Many of us worry and doubt if God will provide our needs. Jesus tells us:
 - a) Your Father knows you need these things. (v.30).
 - b) Seek first the Kingdom of God, and all these things shall be added to you. (v.31).
 - c) Provide treasure in heaven that fails not. (v.33).
 - d) Your heart will be where your treasure is. (v.34).
- 3) Mind evil affected against the brethren. (Acts 14:1,2). One of Satan's most successful devices is gossip and slander, which makes some Christian's minds evil affected against other Christians. They imagine evil or magnify others faults, so that they respond with anger, and are unwilling to work with other believers. They then quit church, God's work suffers, and people go to hell.
- 4) God gave them over to a reprobate mind. (Romans 1:28). Reprobate (Gk: "adokimos" (96) means disapproved, rejected, worthless, castaway. It means undiscerning, void of judgment, not seeing good from evil. Some people are so filled with moral sins and hatred of God's ways, that they cannot tell right from wrong, or good from evil. Examples include sodomites.
- 5) To be carnally minded (4561) is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. Romans 8:6. Carnal mind = prone to sin, sinful appetites and desires. Many Christians backslide because they feed their carnal, sinful side by TV, gossip, slander, evil thinking, and not serving God. They do not feed their spiritual side by daily Bible study, filling of the Holy Spirit, & yielding to Christ. Carnal Christians often criticise spiritual Christians because they convict them of their sin.
- 6) Who mind earthly things. (Philippians 3:19).
Verses 18,19 describe enemies of the cross of Christ as people who mind earthly things. Why? Because they hinder the gospel outreach by their bad example of lukewarmness. They are attached to the things of earth instead of setting their affections on things above. (Colossians 3:2).
- 7) Soon shaken in mind. (II Thessalonians 2:2).
The Thessalonian Christians were soon shaken in mind by false teachers telling them that they had missed the rapture. This upset their spiritual balance and triggered their fears.
Key: We can be shaken in mind if we believe error without first checking it with Scripture.
- 8) Double-minded man is unstable in all his ways. (James 1:8; 4:8). He is a waverer, a two-minded, unstable person. Such a person suffers from divided loyalties. On one hand he wants to live as a Christian, and on the other hand he wants to live by the ways of the world and selfishness.
- 9) Becoming wearied (2577) and faint in your minds. (Hebrews 12:3).
To faint is to be exhausted or despondent. Two remedies are:
 - a) Consider him (Christ) who endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds. (Hebrews 12:3).
 - b) Promise of reaping in due season if we faint not. (Galatians 6:9).

II. GOOD MIND to aim for:

Question: How does God describe your mind? The following Scriptures describe how the Spirit-filled believer thinks. Which of these minds describe your thinking?

- 1) The people had a mind to work. (Nehemiah 4:6). Hence the wall of Jerusalem was rebuilt in spite of much opposition. If believers have a mind to work for God, the results will be unity, great accomplishments, many people saved, churches built and opposition overcome.

Question: Do you have a mind to study the Bible and to work for God?

- 2) A mind that is stayed on God. “Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee.” (Isaiah 26:3). If our mind is stayed on God and His promises through all of life’s trials, we will be kept in perfect peace.
- 3) The mind filled with hope. (Lamentations 3:21-23).
If we recall these things to mind we will have hope:
- a) The Lord’s mercies are new every morning (v.23), great is thy faithfulness (v.23) therefore we are not consumed;
 - b) His compassions fail not (v.22).
 - c) Great is thy faithfulness (v.23).
 - d) The Lord is my portion (inheritance 2506). (v.24).
 - e) It is good to hope, quietly wait for deliverance, and bear the yoke in our youth (v.25-27).
 - f) To subvert a man in his cause, the Lord approveth not (v.36).

- 4) Pure minds, stirred up minds. “I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance.” (2 Peter 3:1).

Question: How do we keep our mind pure?

Answer: a) By taking heed to God’s Word;

b) By keeping rubbish out of our minds, lest it be defiled with sin. Avoid bad movies, bad literature, bad friends and bad places.

Question: How do we stir up our minds to do God’s work?

Answer: Be active in a strong preaching, sin rebuking, soul-winning church. Do doorknocking.

- 5) Be all of one mind. (I Peter 3:8; II Corinthians 13:11; Philippians 1:27; 2:2).

It is good for everyone in a church to believe true Bible doctrine and be loyally committed to helping each other spread the Gospel. If believers constantly disagree with each other, they should repent, or leave the church, so the church can carry on God’s work in peace and unity.

- a) “That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God.” (Romans 15:6).
 - b) “Now I beseech you, brethren, . . . that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you, but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.” (I Corinthians 1:10).
 - c) “Stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the Gospel.” Phil.1:27
 - d) “Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.” (Philippians 2:2).
 - e) “Be of the same mind one toward another.” (Romans 12:16).
- 6) Lowly, humble mind.
- a) Paul’s ministry was “serving the Lord with all humility of mind.” (Acts 20:19).
 - b) Paul commands us to “in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.” (Philippians 2:3).

- 7) The mind of Christ described in Philippians 2:5-8 should be in us.

a) “Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus, who:

- made himself of no reputation,
- took upon himself the form of a servant,
- humbled himself,
- became obedient unto death.” (Philippians 2:5-8).

b) “We have the mind of Christ.” (I Corinthians 2:16).

- 8) A sound (4995) mind. (II Timothy 1:7).

“God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.”
“Sound mind” means orthodox, well founded, self disciplined, clear judgment of issues.

- 9) A ready mind. a) “Feed the flock of God...willingly,...but of a ready mind.’ (I Peter 5:2). “Ready” (4289) means prompt, with preparations completed, quick, willing, able to fulfil duties. b) “declaration of your ready (4288) mind.” (II Cor. 8:19). Ready (4288) means eager, cheerful.
- 10) A renewed mind. (Romans 12:2). “Be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.” We discover God’s will for our life as we resist being conformed to this world, but let God’s Word transform our thinking.
- 11) A fervent mind (2205). a) Titus told Paul that the Corinthians had a fervent mind toward Paul. “Your fervent mind toward me.” (II Corinthians 7:7). b) Apollos was fervent in the spirit as shown by his preaching “being fervent in the spirit”. Acts 18:25 “Fervent” (Greek: zelos [2205]) means “zealous, hot, intense, glowing, on fire for God, boiling hot.” Note: “Zelos” may degenerate into a jealousy which makes war on the good it sees in another, thus troubling that good and diminishing it. Hence “zelos” (2205) joined with “eris” (2054) is contention (Romans 13:13; II Corinthians 12:20; Galatians 5:20).
- 12) A subject mind (Titus 3:1) “Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work, to speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, showing meekness unto all men.” (Titus 3:1,2). “Subject” (Greek: hupotasso [5293]) means “to place in submission, under authority, in an orderly fashion.”

Question: Do you submit to government, employers, spouse, your preacher and parents?

Conclusion: If we fulfil these 12 conditions, as well as those in Philippians 4:5-7 of:

(1) gentleness to all men; (2) careful for nothing; (3) praying; (4) thanking God; and (5) requesting God for all our needs; then the peace of God shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. (“keep” in Greek means “keep as with a military guard.”) (5432)).

How is your mind? The heart (Greek 2588) is the seat and centre of desires, feelings, affections, passions, and impulses. The heart is the sphere of God’s influence in our life.

In our heart, faith springs up, dwells and works. Christ and the Holy Spirit live in our hearts.

“Mind” in Greek (3540) means our thoughts, understanding, devices and concepts.

Issues to Discuss with Muslims

(p.973,993,1004,1019-1022,1029-1034)

1. Terror, Jihad and war commanded in the Quran. (Q8:12,59,39,67; 9:29; I John 2:22,23; John 19:36).
2. Jesus is the Son of God, and God the Son. This is taught by: Daniel (Daniel 3:25), David (Psalm 2:12), Solomon (Prov. 30:5), Gabriel (Luke 1:26-35), Jesus (John 5:25; 9:35; 10:36; 11:4), God the Father (Matt. 17:5), Peter (John 6:69), John (John 20:31), Paul (Romans 1:4), John Baptist (J.1:34)1026
3. Jesus died on the Cross. OT and NT prophets teach this. David (Psalm 16:10), Daniel (Daniel 9:26), Isaiah (Isaiah 53:8-10), Zechariah 12:10). (p.1227).
4. Jesus Rose from the dead. Proofs are: Mass psychological change in the disciples, Over 500 people saw Him in 40 days after His resurrection (I Cor. 15:1-6), Jewish Christians changed meeting day from sabbath to Sunday (I Cor. 16:1,2), Church’s existence is due to resurrection, the ordered grave clothes left behind. (p.1228).
5. Mohammed is not a prophet of God, because of: No fulfilled prophecies (Q7:203), abrogating or changing verses (Q16:101), his friendship with demons (Q46,72; Leviticus 19:31; 20:27), marrying a 6 year old girl Aishah and consummating it when she was 9 years old (Hadith, Al-Bukhari 3896) (p.1038), massacring 800 Jewish men of Bani Qurayza tribe in 627 (Q33:25-27)(p.1030), different literary content and style to all other Bible prophets.
6. Allah is not the true God of the Bible (Exodus 20:1-3; Psalm 96:5). JHVH is knowable, personal, trinity, limited by morality, loving, trustworthy (p.997). Allah hates Jews (“Idolaters and Jews are the worst enemies of Muslims” Q5:82; 98:6). Allah hates Christians (“True Muslims do not choose to be friends with Christians” Q5:57) “unbelievers among the people of the book are the vilest of all creatures” Q98:6); Allah is a liar “Allah misleads whom he will” (74:39), Allah commands murder “Muslims should strike off the heads of unbelievers in the battlefield and massacre them.” (47:4), Allah enslaves people “the slave-girls whom Allah has given you as booty” (33:50). (p.1026).
7. Quran is not the Word of God because: i) it contains unscientific statements, ii) it contradicts OT and NT, iii) it contains Arabian, Jewish, Christian stories, iv) it has a different god. Allah is not JHVH.
8. Questions to ask Muslims: 4,12,21,48,49,57,64,72,76,82,86. (p.1035-1037).

139. What is LEGALISM?

Bible Reading: Acts 15:1-35.

Aim: To prove that liberty is found inside the walls of rules and standards, and that legalism has nothing to do with insisting on high standards.

Introduction: “I will walk at liberty: for I seek thy precepts.” (Psalm 119:45).

Question: What does “walk at liberty” have to do with “seeking thy precepts”?

Answer: Psalm 119:45 means those who keep the commandments are those who walk at liberty.

Question: What does “seek thy precepts” mean?

Answer: It means “keep thy commandments”.

Problem: Many think & say that “I will walk at liberty if I don’t have to keep God’s commandments”

In our fundamental churches we have some rules and standards. We are against smoking, rock music (Ephesians 5:19), immodest clothing, avoiding physical contact with the opposite sex till marriage (I Corinthians 7:1) and drinking alcohol (Proverbs 23:31). We are in favour of respect for authority, soul winning, and strong commitment to the local church.

When we proclaim these standards, immediately the accusation begins to roll in “LEGALISM, LEGALISM, LEGALISM.” People accuse us: “They have standards, that’s legalism. They have rules, that’s legalism, legalism.” Our critics are very foolish when they associate rules and standards with legalism. Such statements are made by New Evangelical people, or by people who once were real fundamentalists, but have become weary of the battle, and they long to return to the onions, leaks and garlics of acceptance with the “few standard crowd.” These people would have us forsake our standards of Godly behaviour, and cry “legalism, legalism, legalism” as the excuse for having few standards. These critics show their ignorance of Bible truth, and ignorance of dictionary definitions.

I. Question: Where is the word “legalism” mentioned in the Bible? It is NOT!

The Oxford Dictionary definition of “legalism” is “the doctrine of justification by works.”

The idea of legalism came from the Jews of the circumcision who said, “Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.” (Acts 15:1). They were adding a work to salvation by faith in Christ, something that no true fundamentalist would ever do.

- Legalism has nothing to do with believing and living right.
Legalism is ADDING SOMETHING ELSE to FAITH for salvation.
Legalism is SALVATION BY FAITH plus works, or SALVATION BY FAITH + Baptism, or SALVATION BY FAITH + Keeping The Law, or SALVATION BY FAITH + Sacraments, or SALVATION BY FAITH + Confirmation, or SALVATION BY FAITH + Confession To Priest.
The SDA doctrine of faith + Sabbath keeping for salvation is legalism.
The Mormon doctrine of faith + baptism for salvation is legalism.
The RC doctrine of faith + sacraments for salvation is legalism.
The JW doctrine of faith + service for salvation is legalism.
- Legalism is not the godly mother insisting that her daughter be home by 11pm and dress modestly.
- Legalism is not the pastor who insists his young people do not listen to rock music or go to discos.
- Legalism is not the dad who insists his son have a short haircut.
- Legalism is not the faithful preacher who preaches against sin.

Question 1: Was Paul a legalist when he told men not to have long hair in I Corinthians 11:14?

Question 2: Was Paul a legalist when he told ladies to dress modestly in I Timothy 2:9?

Question 3: Was Moses a legalist when he said Thou shalt not murder”?

Was Moses a legalist when he said “Thou shalt not steal”?

Was Moses a legalist when he said “Thou shalt not commit adultery”?

Question 4: Was Paul a legalist when he said in I Timothy 3 that deacons should not be double-tongued, and should be the husband of one wife, and should be honest and temperate?

Question 5: Was Paul a legalist when he said the pastor should be sober, the husband of one wife, not given to wine, not greedy of filthy lucre?

Question 6: Was Titus a legalist when he obeyed Paul (in Titus 2:2) in charging men to be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience?

Question 7: Was Titus a legalist when he charged aged women to be holy & not false accusers? Titus 2:3

Question 8: Was Titus a legalist when he charged young women to be sober, love their husbands, love their children, be discreet, chaste, keepers at home? (Titus 2:4,5).

Question 9: Was Titus a legalist when he charged young men to be sober & of sound speech? Titus 2:6-8
Notice that most of this Bible is about rules on how to live as Christians. You'll find standards in every book of the Bible.

Nehemiah wasn't scared of being charged with legalism in his fight for purity in the people of God. "Then I contended with the rulers, and said, Why is the house of God forsaken?" (Nehemiah 13:11). "And I contended with them, and cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair .." (Nehemiah 13:25). If you don't believe in living by standards, rules and convictions, you'll have to neglect most of the Bible.

Our critics quote II Corinthians 3:17 "Where the Spirit of the Lord is there is liberty".

Question: What does this verse mean? Liberty for whom?

Answer: This is NOT TALKING about where the Spirit of the Lord is there is liberty for the child of God to do anything he wants to do.

Key: This IS SAYING that where the Spirit of God is, there is liberty for the Holy Spirit to work among His people.

II. Question: Why do we need to have standards and rules?

Answer: We could paraphrase Psalm 119:45 "I will walk at liberty because I seek thy precepts" (keep thy commandments), to say: "I will walk at liberty within the walls of the city".

Let's imagine we are inside the walls of a city with the enemy lurking outside the wall.

Question: Are you at liberty inside the walls of a city, with the enemy lurking outside the walls? (Yes).

Question: Where is the freedom? Inside the walls or outside the walls?

Answer: Freedom is inside the walls.

Notice Proverbs 6:20-24: "For the commandment is a lamp; and the law is light; and reproofs of instruction are the way of life: To keep thee from the evil woman . . ." (v.23,24).

Key: The commandments of God keep us walking in a restricted area as outlined by the lamp and the light. Therefore the commandments of God are like WALLS built around us to give us a little area where we can walk in liberty and not be enslaved by the captor outside the walls.

This means that the enemy is outside the walls of God's commandments and he cannot reach you because of the walls.

You have a choice: Either:

- a) You can be FREE INSIDE the walls, or
- b) You can be ENSLAVED OUTSIDE the walls.

Illustration: Consider a tiny dog inside a fence trying to get outside the fence to get his freedom near a ferocious bulldog.

Question: Where was the little dog's freedom? Inside or outside the fence? Inside.

Where was the little dog's slavery? OUTSIDE the fence.

If the little dog got his freedom, he'd get his slavery.

Note: I'm sick of this idea that liberty is a licence to sin.

Liberty is INSIDE the laws of God, not outside the laws of God.

Every commandment, and every standard and rule of God is for one purpose, and that is to build walls around our people, so we can be free inside God's walls of protection from things like booze, illicit sex, pornography, drugs, rock music and evil people.

Teens can be free inside the rules of God's protection.

I'm sick of preachers preaching liberty to do what you want.

Key: Liberty means freedom FROM cigarettes, booze, bad movies, illicit sex, not freedom to do all these wrong things.

Note: If we are not careful, we are going to lose everything that is dear and precious to us.

Being a fundamentalist is believing more than salvation by grace through faith.

It is more than believing the virgin birth.

It is more than believing the verbal inspiration of the Bible.

It is more than believing the sinless life and vicarious death of Christ.

It also includes having some rules and standards to live by.

These rules are stones in a mighty wall that God has built, that we might have a place of freedom in this world of slavery.

Rules and standards don't enslave us, they liberate us.

Example: I've never smoked cigarettes or drunk beer due to God's rules, and as a result I'm liberated from alcohol and cigarette addiction.

Key: All that enslaves us has been placed outside the wall.

Cigarettes enslave, therefore we put cigarettes outside the wall.

Alcohol and marijuana enslave, therefore we put alcohol and marijuana outside the wall.

Question: Who is free? The alcoholic or the teetotaler?

How many people are slaves to drugs, booze or illicit sex?

Question: Why do we have freedom today?

Answer: Because in the past, walls have been built to protect people.

You don't find freedom in doing whatever you like.

You do find freedom when you find the will of God for your life and do it.

Love is not breaking down the walls. Love is building the walls.

Love is freedom from the captor.

Illustration: A fundamental Baptist preacher met Elvis Presley in an elevator and asked him, "Do you know if you died whether you'd go to heaven?"

Elvis said, "Yes I do!" The preacher asked, "Do you mean you're born again?"

Elvis replied, "Yes, years ago when I was a boy, I went to a revival meeting. I heard a preacher preach that Jesus Christ could save me and that He paid the penalty for my sin."

Elvis told the preacher the plan of salvation as clear as you would.

The preacher said, "Elvis, do you still go to that fundamentalist church?"

Elvis said, "No Sir, the rules were too strict. I wanted my freedom."

Lesson: Elvis got his freedom outside the walls of God's rules. Elvis thought he was free, but suddenly the captor of narcotics gripped him and killed him at age 42 of a drug overdose. He got outside the walls of God's rules, standards and regulations, only to discover the captivity of sin outside the wall.

Key: My precious young people, that youth leader who breaks down those rules LOVES YOU NOT.

He loves your LOVE. He does NOT love you. The preacher who loves you says that there is a wall we are building around you to protect you from many enemies. Don't go outside that wall. There are drugs, evil people, enslavement, liquor, indecency and illicit sex outside the wall. You stay inside the wall.

Illustration: In a 1944 prisoner of war camp, the sergeant said to a young soldier,

"You see that barbed wire fence over there? Beyond it are the meanest of the German POWs captured in World War II. You must not cross over into that barbed wire compound."

Question: Where was my freedom? On my side of the fence or on their side?

The younger soldier could have said, "No one's going to tell me what to do. I'm tired of these rules.

I want to be free. Nobody is going to tell me what to do – that legalism."

Note: They had a heap of legalism in the army.

My mother had a heap of legalism on me as a boy, and it did me a world of good.

"He that spareth his rod, hateth his son: but he that loveth him chasteneth him betimes." Proverbs 13:24

"Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child;but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him." 22:15

"Withhold not correction from the child: for if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die.

Thou shalt beat him with the rod, and shalt deliver his soul from hell." (Proverbs 23:13,14).

- A child's freedom to do right, is because of the fence you put around him. "I will walk at liberty because I seek thy precepts (or keep thy commandments)" not because I break them.
Key: God has built for me a wall where He can protect me, and I can be free from those enemies outside the wall that would enslave me.
Freedom is when we are captured by a higher CAPTOR.
Freedom is when we are rescued from a lower servitude to a higher servitude.
That's what Jesus meant when He said, "Come unto me all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest". (Matthew 11:28).
- True liberty is when we are free to do those things that God made us to do.
That's why the Bible speaks of the LAW OF LIBERTY in James 1:25.
God said through Jeremiah to Hananiah the false prophet, "Thou hast broken the yokes of wood; but thou shalt make for them yokes of iron." (Jeremiah 28:13).
- Some young people say, "I am tired of God's rules in this church. Let me be free."
He breaks free from God's easy yoke, and soon the yoke of drugs or alcohol has him.
Jesus said, "Take my yoke upon you and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden in light." (Matthew 11:29,30).
Let us free our young people from the iron yokes of drugs, alcohol, illicit sex, wrong friends, etc. by building rules and standards around them so they will be safe within the walls from the captors outside the walls.
Look up in your Bible Romans 8:2 – "For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me FREE from the law of sin and death."
One law makes me free from another law.
- Freedom is when a good law liberates you from a bad law.
Example 1: David said, "I'll be free to court Bathsheba." He went outside the walls that he thought enslaved him, and found that slavery was outside the wall, and that he had been free inside the wall.
Example 2: Samson said, "I want to be free to live in sin with Delilah. I can trust ungodly people to do right by me." What Samson did not understand was that he was free inside the walls.
He did not think that when he went outside the walls, they would put out his eyes and hook him up to a mill to grind corn in circles day and night for months and years. Do you hear Samson saying at the grinder, "I sure like this freedom. I'm blind, but I'm free." No Samson, you're not free. You are a slave to your enemy.
I thank God for old-fashioned wall-building preachers.
I thank God for old-fashioned wall-building churches.
I thank God for old-fashioned wall-building parents who build a little place of freedom with rules, so our young people cannot be captured by the enemy.

Conclusion: Choose if you will the bondage of compromise, destroying the walls that fundamentalists have built up for the freedom and safety of our people. Choose if you will. But for me, give me liberty INSIDE THOSE WALLS. Give me liberty inside the walls or GIVE ME DEATH. If we do not build walls of rules, standards and regulations around our people, they will know the captivity of sin OUTSIDE THE WALLS. And so we have one choice to make:
Either we give people LIBERTY inside the walls or we will give them DEATH outside the walls.

140. The Remembrance of the Lord Jesus

Bible Reading: Luke 22:19,20; I Corinthians 11:17-34.

Aim: To show what we remember the Lord Jesus for.

Introduction: Three reasons or purposes for having the Lord's Table are:

- To remember the Lord Jesus Christ. (I Corinthians 11:24).
- To show the Lord's death till He come. (I Corinthians 11:26).
This declares our belief in the promise of Christ's return.

- c) To promote self-examination before partaking. (I Corinthians 11:27-32).
At the Lord's Supper, we go primarily to meet Him, not just to hear about Him. We need personal encounters with the Lord as we pour out our heart's worship and affection to Him.

What Do We Need To Remember About Jesus Christ?

- 1) Remember His NAME: "Whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus." (Colossians 3:17). "Some trust in chariots and some in horses, but we will remember the NAME of the LORD our God." (Psalm 20:7).
One's name denotes one's character. "Thou shalt call his name Jesus, for he shall save his people from their sins." (Matthew 1:21). The name "Jesus" means "Jehovah the Saviour". See Isaiah 9:6; Philippians 2:9-11; John 20:31; Romans 10:13.
We have salvation only in Jesus Christ's Holy name. (Acts 4:10-12).
- 2) Remember His WORKS: "Remember his marvellous works that he hath done." I Chron 16:12
We should think of Christ's work in:
 - a) Creation: "For by him were all things created . . ." (Colossians 1:16; Hebrews 1:10).
 - b) Healing: "When John had heard in prison the works of Christ, the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached unto them." (Matthew 11:2,5).
 - c) Salvation: "He said, It is finished." (John 19:30).
 - d) Ministry: "I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do." (John 17:4).
"My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work." (John 4:34).
How thoroughly the Lord Jesus committed and devoted Himself to his Father's work.
- 3) Remember His LOVE: "We will remember thy love more than wine." (Song 1:4).
"To know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge." (Ephesians 3:19).
"Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?" (Romans 8:35).
"Love one another as I have loved you. Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends." (John 15:12,13). As we think of His love for us, we will be thankful and respond in worship, love and obedience. John 3:16; I John 3:16; I John 3:1; 2 Corinthians 5:14.
"Love so amazing, so divine, demands my soul, my life, my all."
It was Christ's love for us, not nails, that kept Him on the Cross.
- 4) Remember His AFFLICTION: "Remembering mine affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall." (Lamentations 3:19). See Matthew 27:34.
During the Lord's Supper we must remember Jesus Christ's suffering affliction for us such as:
 - i) "They pierced my hands and my feet." (Psalm 22:16).
 - ii) "All my bones are out of joint." (Psalm 22:14).
 - iii) "My tongue cleaveth to my jaws." (Psalm 22:15).
 - iv) "He was oppressed, and he was afflicted." (Isaiah 53:7).
 - v) "They platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head." (Mark 15:17).
 - vi) "They smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him." (Mark 15:19).
 - vii) "They mocked him." (v.20); "they crucified him." (v.25). (Isaiah 50:6).
- 5) Remember His RESURRECTION and EXALTATION:
"Remember that Jesus Christ . . . was raised from the dead." (II Timothy 2:8).
"That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection." (Philippians 3:10).
In the Lord's Supper we not only remember Jesus Christ who suffered, bled and died, but also Jesus Christ as the One who rose from the dead and now lives in the power of an endless life. He is our Great High Priest who ever lives to make intercession for us.
- 6) Remember His MERCIES: "I will sing of the mercies of the Lord forever." (Psalm 89:1).
"Remember (v.11) . . . ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ." (Ephesians 2:1-13). "It is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not . . ." (Lamentations 3:22,23).
Remember the black days of sin and of what we have been saved from.
Remember the kindness and love of Christ to us.

- 7) Remember His WORDS: “Remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.” (Acts 20:35).
We ought to be a giving people; giving of our time, prayers, love, money.
Let us memorize Christ’s words: “Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly.” (Colossians 3:16). “Thy words were found and I did eat them; and thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of my heart . . .” (Jeremiah 15:16).

Conclusion: As we come together to the Lord’s Table, let our memories recall Jesus Christ’s name, works, love, afflictions, resurrection, mercies and His words.

141. I Stir Up Your Pure Minds By Way Of Remembrance.

Bible Reading: II Peter 3:1-18.

Aim: To be reminded of the important things of serving God.

Introduction: There are some things that we must remember if we are to be approved workmen for Jesus Christ. It is easy to forget the major things and to get sidetracked to unimportant things.

Question: What does God want us to remember about serving Him?

- 1) Remember the PRICE that was paid for our redemption. “Ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things as silver and gold... but with the precious blood of Christ.” (I Peter 1:18,19). See Ephesians 1:7. Our salvation, though free to us, was expensive to God, the price being the blood of God the Son. (Acts 20:28).
- 2) Remember the PIT that He drew us out of. Do you remember your condition before you were saved? (Psalm 40:1-3). Our unsaved days are described as a horrible pit and as stuck in miry clay. Now that we are saved, we have a solid rock foundation of Jesus Christ and His Word to live by (Matthew 7:24,25). Also, He has established our direction in life.
- 3) Remember the PUBLIC that are watching you. “Ye shall be witnesses unto me.” (Acts 1:8). “Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in heaven.” (Matthew 5:16). Don’t disgrace God’s Name by the way you live.
- 4) Remember the PERSON that we’ll have to give account to. We’ll have to give account of our life and service to the Lord Jesus Christ at the Judgment Seat of Christ (II Corinthians 5:10). He will reward us for faithful service, or we’ll lose rewards (II John 7,8) and be ashamed before Him at His coming. (I John 2:28).
“So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.” (Romans 14:12).
- 5) Remember the PEOPLE all around us who are going to hell. “Broad is the way that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat.” (Matthew 7:13,14).
The rich man in hell said, “Cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.” (Luke 16:24).
Ask yourself the question, “Who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings?” (Isaiah 33:14).
Let us (a) become soul-winners; and (b) train others to be soul-winners.
- 6) Remember the PRESENT of salvation is for everyone.
“The gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.” (Romans 6:23).
“If thou knewest the gift of God and who it is that sayeth to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.” (John 4:10).
“By grace are ye saved through faith: and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God.” (Eph. 2:8).
“Thanks be unto God for His unspeakable gift.” (II Corinthians 9:25).
Let us go and tell people about God’s free gift to them of eternal life through Jesus Christ.
This free gift refutes the cults’ false gospel of salvation by works.
Romans 10:13 states that you are a candidate for salvation.

Conclusion: If you are not sure of heaven, receive Christ as your Saviour and you’ll know that “as far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.” (Psalm 103:12).
“I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and as a cloud, thy sins. . .” (Isaiah 44:22).
“The blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.” (I John 1:7).

Jesus Christ has cleansed many from their sin and He can do the same for you.

Will you receive Christ as your Saviour today? Will you tell others of His free gift of eternal life?

142. Love Not the World

Bible Reading: I John 2:15-17.

Aim: To not follow the temptations and traps of the world.

Memory Verse: “Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth forever.” I John 2:15-17.

Definition: “World” is “Kosmos” (Gk), meaning, a) The physical planet (2 Peter 2:5; 3:6), b) The world of mankind organised into nation states (John 16:21; Matthew 4:8-10), c) The fallen world of humanity who are indifferent to or in rebellion against God and destined for judgment (ethical meaning). It is the domain of Satan (I Jn 5:19; 4:1-5; Jn 12:31; 14:30; 2 Cor. 4:4). It is the object of judgment and saving mercy (John 3:16-19; 4:42; 6:33,51); Holy Spirit reproves the world (John 16:8-11); By faith believers can overcome the world (worldly thinking, opposition of worldly men & Satan). Devotion to things of the world produces a ‘worldly’ attitude of mind which has no concern for the things of God (John 1:10; I Cor.1:20,21;3:19). It is material and passing.

Introduction:

I. We are commanded to have certain attitudes about the world system. These are:

1. Love not the world (I John 2:15-17). The world is in a state of dire moral corruption.
2. Be not conformed to this world. (Romans 12:2).The world pressures believers to conform.
3. Do not have friendship with the world. (James 4:4). The world seeks to contaminate believers.
4. Keep yourself unspotted from the world. (James 1:27).
5. Overcome the world by our faith. (I John 5:4,5).
6. Share this world’s goods with needy believers. (I John 3:17).
7. Shine as lights in the world. (Philippians 2:15). We are to dispel worldly darkness.
8. Deny ungodliness and worldly lusts. (Titus 2:12).
9. The world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world. (Galatians 6:14). Be unresponsive to it.
10. Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. (Mark 16:15).
11. We are not citizens of this world. (John 17:14).

II. The Bible warns us about many bad things in the world to beware of and to avoid, some being:

- 1) Tribulation. “In the world ye shall have tribulation.” (John 16:33).
- 2) Conforming pressure of this world to follow evil. (Romans 12:1,2).
- 3) Spirit of this world: the philosophy and thinking of the world. (I Corinthians 2:12).
- 4) Wisdom of this world, that is, the vain, self-confident, false opinions on the subject of religion, eg: evolution, anti-God humanism. (I Corinthians 3:19; 1:20).
- 5) Spectacle of the world. We are like gladiators fighting many foes in an amphitheatre of great height being watched by thousands of spectators, with an immense host of men and angels, watching this conflict with great interest, keenly awaiting the outcome of our spiritual warfare. (I Corinthians 4:9).
- 6) Filth of the world. “We are made as the filth of the world.” (I Corinthians 4:13). This word “filth” is the strongest expression to show the contempt and scorn which the apostles were everywhere regarded. Filth means that which is collected by sweeping a house, such as any vile, worthless, contemptible object. Among the Greeks the word “filth” denoted men of ignoble, worthless, wicked character, who were kept to be offered to the gods in a time of pestilence, to appease their anger. They were regarded as the most vile and worthless men in the world. This is how the world views the apostles and God’s choicest saints.
- 7) Fornicators of the world (I Corinthians 5:10). Most unbelievers were of this description. Avoid pubs, discos, night clubs etc where such people are found.
- 8) Fashion of this world passes away. (I Corinthians 7:31). “Fashion” comes from the shifting scenes of a drama play, where each scene continues for a little time, then changes as we pass on to other unreal, illusive scenes. What an appropriate description of the changing, unstable, unreal play-acting of this world, which today is popular and tomorrow is gone, to be succeeded by new actors and new scenes. How little we should set our affections on this world, and how strongly we should be prepared for the real and unchanging scenes of the next world.

- 9) Voices in the world. (I Corinthians 14:10). As all languages in the world are for communicating ideas, and not for display, so it should be with those who speak in church. They should speak them only when and where they would be understood. This refutes tongues spoken in a church where nobody understands them.
- 10) Worship idols (Acts 19:27). This well describes unsaved men of this world who worship idols and the creature rather than the Creator. eg: sport, money, pleasure, self.
- 11) Corruption in the world through lust. (II Peter 1:4). The world is full of corrupting influences. God wants to rescue us from its dominion and to make us holy.
- 12) Pollutions of the world (II Peter 2:20). “Pollutions” mean “foulness, contamination, defiling and tainting” influence that the world seeks and has on those who mix with it.
- 13) Wickedness. “The whole world lieth in wickedness.” (I John 5:19). The whole world is under the control of wickedness or the government of Satan. The word “lieth” means to recline in a passive state under Satan’s dominion, making no resistance, not struggling to be free, showing no effort to throw off his reign. The dominion is complete, lying as a beast that is subdued, a body that is dead, or anything that is wholly passive, quiet and inert, body and soul, individuals and nations that are entirely subject to Satan’s will. There is no government against which sinners have so little inclination to rebel, as that of Satan. (II Timothy 2:26).
- 14) Many deceivers in the world (II John 7). These deny that Christ became incarnate. They deny that Christ took on human nature in permanent union with His Deity. (See I John 4:2,3 JWs). “Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.” (I John 4:1).
- 15) Cares of this world (Matthew 13:22; Mark 4:19) choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful. Three competing concerns are life’s worries, deception of wealth and desires for other things choke the word, making it unfruitful.
Q: Do you choke God’s Word by letting things of the world takeover your priorities?
- 16) Prince of this world (John 12:31; 14:30; 16:11) is Satan. Also called “the god of this world” (II Corinthians 4:4); “the prince of the power of the air” (Ephesians 2:2); “the rulers of darkness of this world” (Ephesians 6:12) because of his influence over men of this world.
- 17) Hates Christ. “The world cannot hate you (apostles); but me it hateth.” (John 7:7). Why? Because Christ preached that its works were evil and that men were sinners, so they hated Him. “All who live godly in Christ Jesus, shall suffer persecution.” 2 Timothy 3:12.
All who preach against man’s wickedness will be opposed.
- 18) Hates godly Christians but loves worldly Christians. (John 15:19; 17:14).
“The world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.” (John 17:14). “If ye were of the world, the world would love his own, but because ye are not of the world . . . therefore the world hateth you.” (John 15:19). See I John 3:13.
- 19) Disputers of this world (I Corinthians 1:20). What is our answer to worldly disputers who want to argue? It is that God has chosen the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe (v.21), because the gospel of Christ is the power of God unto salvation (Romans 1:16).
- 20) Sorrow of the world worketh death. (II Corinthians 7:10). This is sorrow arising from loss of property, friends or disappointment, as well as sorrow for sin when caught. It does not see itself as an offence against God. There is no looking to God for pardon and consolation. This sorrow produces distress, breaks the spirit, destroys the peace, and mars one’s happiness, causing people to suicide, fret, murmur and complain against God.
- 21) Lust of the flesh, lust of the eyes, pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world (I John 2:16). Lust of the flesh is indulging worldly appetites, as the purpose for living. Lust of the eyes is that which gratifies the sight, eg: jewels, clothing, houses, cars, as the chief purpose of life without seeking Christ or His Kingdom. The pride of life is whatever tends to promote pride and boasting.

Conclusion: Which world are you living for? Which world are you setting your affections on? (Colossians 3:1,2). Get eternal values today. Lay up treasures in heaven. Live for Christ, souls, His Word and His Kingdom, not the passing things of this life.

143. Debtor to the Past, Present and Future

Bible Reading: Romans 1:13-16 and 15:26,27.

Aim: To fulfil our responsibility to tell others the gospel.

Introduction: Paul said, "I am debtor both to the Greeks and the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise." (Romans 1:14). There are three "I am's" in Romans 1:14-16.

- a) I am a debtor (v.14). The fact.
- b) I am ready (v.15). Paul's character.
- c) I am not ashamed (v.16). His Payment.

Paul bases each statement on the previous one. He says, Because I am a debtor, I am ready to preach the gospel. Because I am ready to preach the gospel, I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ.

- a) The fact: I am a debtor.
- b) Paul's character: I am ready to preach the gospel.
- c) Paul's payment: I owe every man the debt of not being ashamed of this wonderful message of Christ.

Question 1: What do I owe?

- a) My love. "Owe no man anything, but to love one another." (Romans 13:8).
I owe every person in this world my love.
- b) To live in the Spirit. "We are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh." (Romans 8:12,13).
I owe it to people to live in the Spirit and not after the flesh.

Question 2: To whom do I owe this debt of love, this debt to be in the will of God all my life, this debt to serve God with all my heart?

(1) I Owe This Debt To The Past

- I owe God's people in the past a debt. That debt is:
 - to love people enough to give them the gospel;
 - not to be ashamed of the gospel of Christ (Romans 1:16);
 - to do God's will.
- I owe a debt to:
 - every Christian who has ever lived;
 - every preacher who has ever preached the gospel;
 - every church that has ever stood for the Word of God;
 - every soul-winner who ever pointed someone to Jesus Christ;
 - the early Christians to pass on the gospel torch that they carried in the past.
- I see their bodies scarred with the wounds of persecution and I say,
"I owe them a debt. I must give everything that I have to God."
- I see martyrs whose tombs are stained with their blood. They preserved this book for me.
 - The second man on a relay team owes the first man his best;
 - The third man on a relay team owes the first and second man his best;
 - The fourth man on a relay team owes the first, second and third man his best.

You and I owe a debt to every person who has preserved this message, that we likewise preserve this message for the generations to come. To those who handed us the baton of the gospel race, we owe it to them to run the race while we are here, so that when we hand the baton to others, we'll give them a good lead to run the race to win their generations to Christ.

- I see the martyrs eaten by lions in the Roman amphitheatre.
I see the 100,000 French Huguenot Christians martyred on and after St Bartholomew's day by the Roman Catholic Catherine de Medici.
People died so that you could be saved and be in this room today.
People died so that you could have the Bible to read.
- Australia is languishing today because of the mediocrity of Christian people. It's time the people of God in Australia stood up and said, "I owe a debt and I'll pay that debt. I owe God everything I have and I'll pay that debt."
- God has not called us to:
 - live like the world;
 - talk like the world;
 - dress like the world;

- fashion ourselves like the world.

It's time we were willing and happy to be different from the world for Jesus Christ.

- The Christians who lived before me, gave me this Bible. They suffered for my freedom, and I'll not squander it. I am a debtor to:
 - those who pastored me;
 - those who taught me in Sunday School;
 - my mother who prayed with me daily.
- You young people owe some debts as well. You owe a debt to:
 - God who saved you;
 - Your parents who raised you and paid for you;
 - Those who taught you the Bible to pass it on.Don't go to the liquor lifestyle. Don't go to the rock music lifestyle.
- It's time God's people lived like God's people, sang like God's people, acted like God's people. Why? Because we owe a debt.
- Some people say, "But, preacher, this is a Sunday morning worship service."
Answer: Some of you don't need to worship this morning; you need to get right with God, confess and forsake your sins.
- I'm a debtor to those dear saints of God who heard me preach in years gone by, loved me, and overlooked my faults while I developed as a preacher.
- I owe a debt to those young people who have surrendered to preach in this church.

Everyone who has ever influenced you for God, or taught you in Sunday school class, or preached to you, or loved you, or tried to help you get right with God, you owe them a debt to live for God. We are truly debtors to the past.

(2) I Owe This Debt To The Present

I am a debtor to you people today.

- a) I am a debtor to the young people to give them all I've got.
- b) I owe you a debt to teach you decency, conviction, morals, and to live right for God.
- c) I owe a debt to those people who pray for me to be all that God wants me to be.
- d) I owe a debt to you people who have tithed and given money and energy to build this church, so we can continue sending the gospel to Australia, Africa, India, Philippines and all over the world.
- e) I owe you and your children a debt to continue preaching and serving you, God, and those who will be saved.
- f) We owe a debt to those who led us to Christ to continue faithfully serving God. Paul hesitated to remind Philemon "how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides." (Philemon 19).
The Macedonian and Achaian Christians were debtors to the poor Jerusalem saints who gave them the gospel. (Romans 15:26,27).

(3) I Owe This Debt To The Future

I owe a debt to the coming generation.

I owe a debt to the young people, to the Sunday School children, to the children in the creche.

I owe a debt to cheer the discouraged, because people have encouraged me.

Everything good about us, somebody did it for us.

We are all in debt to God, to our parents, and to those who loved and taught us God's Word. As we have received the gospel and been entrusted with its soul-saving message, we owe to this generation and to the next generation the opportunity to hear its message.

Conclusion: We are debtors to:

- those who have gone before us;
- each other today;
- those who will grow up and be blessed by this church.

Question: Will you pay your debt to the past, present and future generations?

144. I am Ready

Bible Reading: Romans 1:1-17.

Aim: To be always ready to do what God wants us to do.

Introduction: One of the greatest hindrances to the cause of Christ is that most Christians are NOT READY or NOT PREPARED to do what God wants them to do. Most Christians know that God has a plan for their lives, but few are ready, trained and willing to fulfil it.

Question: What are many Christians ready to do?

I. MANY CHRISTIANS ARE READY TO:

- 1) make money, but not ready to give generously to God's work and ministry;
- 2) criticise those working hard for God, but not ready to help and support them;
- 3) find fault in others, but blind to their own faults;
- 4) get to work on time, but not ready to get to church on time;
- 5) go to sports and night clubs, but not ready to go soul winning or to Bible Study;
- 6) listen to rock music, but not ready to sing praises to God;
- 7) study a secular course, but not ready to study at Bible College;
- 8) ready to go on an overseas holiday, but not ready to go on an overseas mission trip;
- 9) memorise jokes, poetry and words of rock music, but not ready to memorise Scripture.

II. WHAT WE SHOULD BE READY TO DO

- 1) Ready to preach the Gospel. "As much as in me is, I am ready to preach the Gospel to you that are at Rome also." (Romans 1:15). This involves being trained in soul winning by going out with someone experienced who knows how to lead people to Christ, especially using the STOP tract, so you can use it to train other soul winners.

We must be ready to follow up new Christians. This is what builds great churches for God. Let us pray for labourers who are eager to say "I am ready to serve" in soul winning, visitation, teaching, etc. Learn to use the STOP tract by studying pages 93-97.

- 2) Ready to Hear. "Be more ready to hear, than to give the sacrifice of fools." (Ecclesiastes 5:1). "Let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath." James 1:19.

Some people are so full of their own opinions, that they have no time to listen to others.

Some people so dominate a conversation, that they won't let you speak.

Some people don't think that they may have some faults that they are blind to.

Some people are slow to learn, because they won't hear what God or others are saying to them.

"Today if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts." (Hebrews 4:7).

Q: Are you ready to hear what God is saying to you?

Q: Will you say, "Speak Lord, for thy servant heareth" as Eli asked Samuel, and be greatly used by God?

- 3) Ready to give an ANSWER to cults and sceptics. "But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear." (I Peter 3:15).

Question: Do you have a good Bible answer to every objection a person may ask you? Would you be able to find it quickly?

Question: How do you get answers?

Answer: a) By talking to people and understanding their questions, problems and needs;

b) By studying issues that you don't have an answer to;

c) By memorising the answer, or writing it some place you'll find it next time.

Question: Have you ever debated a JW, SDA, Muslim, etc. and not had an answer?

Answer: You should study the Bible and books like "Answers" so you will be a workman that needeth not to be ashamed.

- 4) Ready to Support Missions. "For as touching the ministering to the saints, . . . Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many." (II Corinthians 9:1,2).

Achaia was the part of Greece of which Corinth was the capital. "Achaia was ready" means that the churches in this area had prepared themselves for this collection for the poor saints in Jerusalem. Paul stated that the collection was already made and waiting.

Question: How ready are you to help needy Christians elsewhere, so they can spread the gospel in their area? This involves planning and giving to buy tracts, Bibles, Bible Colleges, support pastors

- 5) Ready to Distribute. (I Timothy 6:18). Ready to divide wealth with others, generously.

Question: Are you ready to tithe, and give to God's work, knowing that you are laying up treasures in heaven?

- 6) Ready to Pray. "Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak." (Mark 14:38). If we have a prayer list of people and things to pray for, this shows we are ready to pray daily.

- 7) Ready to every Good Work. "Put them in mind to be . . . ready to every good work." (Titus 3:1). A Christian should be prepared and prompt to do all that is good. He should not need to be urged, coaxed, or persuaded, but should be so ready to do good that he will count it a privilege to do it. "As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith." (Galatians 6:10). The opportunity to do good imposes on us the obligation to do it. We do good, not when it is convenient, but when we have opportunity. We should be thankful for the opportunity to do good. We should do good to all men, no matter how often the opportunity occurs, the more the better, no matter how much self-denial it may cost us and no matter how little fame we get by it. In our zeal for the world at large, we are not to forget or neglect our family and Christian friends.

- 8) Ready to Write. "My tongue is the pen of a ready writer." (Psalm 45:1). It is good to spread the gospel and Bible truths by writing pamphlets, newspaper articles, sermons, Bible outlines, as well as letters of encouragement to those in need. If God lays some matter on your heart to write, you should be ready to write it and publish it if necessary.

- 9) Ready to Die. "For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." (II Timothy 4:6,7). Paul's soon death is a reason why Timothy should work diligently and faithfully in serving God. The world was about to be deprived of Paul's work and experience. Paul wanted those who succeeded him to carry on God's work with all their zeal, energy and might. For us to be ready to die means that we must have finished God's plan for our life, trained up people to carry on the work of soul winning and Bible teaching, and equipped them to train other faithful men so the network keeps multiplying after our death through fundamental churches.

- 10) Ready for Jesus Christ's Second Coming. "Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh." (Matthew 24:44).

Being ready for Christ's return means living and serving God so that your life's work will be approved by Christ, and that you will not be ashamed before Him at His coming. (I John 2:28). If Christ came today, would you be ready to meet Him? Would He say to you, "Well done good and faithful servant" or would He say "Thou wicked and lazy servant"?

145. The Way of the Soul Winner

Bible Reading: Acts 3:1-11.

Aim: To see the need to become soul winners.

Introduction: A missionary is just a soul winner and a Bible teacher. If you don't win souls to Christ here, you won't win souls to Christ overseas. Let us see what contributes to success in soul winning.

- 1) The Praying Partners (Acts 3:1). Peter and John went to the temple at the 9th hour (3 pm) to pray. To be a soul winner, you must pray. To be a soul winner you must walk with God. You cannot walk with the world and walk like the world, if you want to win souls for Christ.
- 2) The Paralyzed Poor Beggar (Acts 3:2). Australia is like the poor paralyzed beggar whom Peter and John met. Sydney is probably the most wicked city in the world. Sin is everywhere. Sydney and Australia are poor spiritually and paralyzed by wickedness.
- 3) The Penniless Preacher (Acts 3:3-6). The beggar expected to get some money, but Peter said, "Silver and gold have I none." (In Greek that means "not a cracker", "broke", "nothing".) God uses penniless preachers. "Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom . . ." (James 2:5). There is something wonderful about having to trust God. God takes care of His preachers.
- 4) The Physical Provision (Acts 3:6,7). Peter "lifted him up and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength". (v 7). "In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk." Peter healed the man in the name of Jesus Christ, meaning by Jesus Christ's authority. This fulfilled Jesus Christ's promise in Mark 16:17,18 where He said, "These signs shall follow them that believe; in my name shall they cast out devils . . . they shall lay hands on the sick and they shall recover." The apostles never attempted to perform a miracle by their own power, but only in the name of Jesus Christ. It was important for the beggar and for Israel to know that he was healed by the authority of Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus was thus designated on the cross. He who had been crucified as an imposter had power to heal. Sometimes we may be required to provide food for hungry people or medicine for sick people, along with sharing the gospel with them.
- 5) The Powerful Portrayal (Acts 3:8). He walked, leaped and entered the temple praising God. New converts should come to church, praising God for their salvation.
- 6) The People were Pole-axed, perplexed and amazed (Acts 3:9-11). The people had passed by this beggar for many years. They knew him well as an incurable, paralyzed beggar. This man's healing sent a convincing message to the friends of Jesus and to the enemies of Jesus who had crucified Him, that this lame beggar was a type of lame people who will be healed when Christ returns and that Jesus Christ is God. "Your God will come with vengeance . . . then shall the lame man leap as an hart." (Isaiah 35:4-6).

Application: Reaching Australia for Christ happens one by one. If preachers do not go soul winning, few others will. Be very thorough in leading people to Christ. Use the STOP tract. Many preachers are Baptist by name, but Calvinist by practice. Many preachers used to go door-to-door soul winning, but now they are too busy. Are they too busy to have a bath?

Soul winning is the Spirit filled soul winner contacting God-conscious sinners whom God has touched.

Question: How do you know which sinner God has touched and prepared?

Answer: You don't. That is why you preach the gospel to every creature. The preachers and future preachers of Australia are here today. Take new converts soul winning. Soul-winning is both taught and caught. You can only reach people one by one. Our job is soul winning. Christ's job is to build His church. We need to do more follow-up. Four reasons for soul winning are:

- 1) The torments of hell.
- 2) The sacrifice of Jesus Christ for all.
- 3) The only hope for Australia is the salvation of sinners.
- 4) Our accountability at the Judgment Seat of Christ.

Challenge: I want you men and ladies to make a commitment to share the gospel thoroughly with one person every week. Will you make this commitment today?

146. Behold I have Graven Thee upon the Palms of my Hands

Bible Reading: Isaiah 49:13-16.

Aim: To show that in all situations of life, the Lord remembers us and loves us.

Introduction: A preacher was once driving along and he gave this fellow a lift. He shared the Gospel and the man received Christ as his Saviour. The man stayed for church next day, and decided that he wanted to live in the area and keep coming to that church. That week he came to the preacher with a bandage on his arm, with news that he had a surprise for his preacher. It turned out that he had tattooed the word "Jesus" on his arm, because he wanted to tell people what Jesus had done for him. The Bible says that we ought not to get tattooed (Leviticus 19:28), but God uses this to illustrate His love for us. That is what Jesus has done for us. The people of Jerusalem said to God in Isaiah 49:14 "my Lord hath forgotten me". The Lord replied, "Can a woman forget her sucking child?" (v.15). Then in v.16 God said, "Behold, I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy walls are continually before me."

Truth: God has engraved us on the palms of his hands. When some men tattoo the names of their girlfriends on their arms, it's their way of saying that they love them. The Lord Jesus is saying to us: "I love you so much. I always think of you."

- The Israelites said, "Lord, have you forgotten us?"

Have you ever felt that the Lord has forgotten you? You may think that the Lord could not know your problems. God says in verse 16, "Behold, I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands."

Note: When the Lord uses the word "Behold", it is a great sign word, and He is pointing to something special. This word points to a real treasure. God says, "You think I'm not conscious of your problems? You don't think I understand your burdens? Look, watch this, I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands."

- You may have a photo of your loved ones in your wallet or purse. God says, "Look at my hands. I have graven you on the palms of my hands. It's there forever. As long as my hands live, you are engraved there." God does know:
 - your burdens today; - your heartaches today;
 - where you live, and your street address; - your problems; - everything about you;
 - your sorrows; - your needs; - your perplexities; - your questions; - your distresses.

He said, "Look, I've got you on the palms of my hands." God reminds us that He knows all about us. God is saying, "O burdened soul, O wearied heart. Don't think I've forgotten you. If you are facing troubles, burdens and sorrows, and feel that the whole world is falling out from under you, look at my hands." Your name is engraved on the hands of God the Father.

Question: Do you know how many burdens we have here today?

Answer: The same number of burdens present as we have people.

The Bible says that God has our names in 3 places: 1) Our names are written on His heart;

2) Our names are written on His shoulders;

3) Our names are written on the palms of His hands.

(1) Our names are in the heart of God, so God never forgets to love us. Remember what the Jewish High Priest would wear? He wore the breastplate with the 12 Tribes of Israel engraved on the breastplate, each engraved on a precious stone. Read Exodus 28:15-21, 29.

(2) Our names are on God's shoulders, showing what? That God always gives us security and supports us. He is always holding us up. Read Exodus 28:6-12.

(3) Our names are on His hands to show God's care for us. God says to us:

"I've got you in my heart to let you know that I always love you."

"I've got you on my shoulders to let you know that you are always secure."

"I've got you in the palms of my hands to let you know that I'll always care for your every need."

Conclusion: You are engraved on the hands of God with the precious blood of His own Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. There are scars in His hands today. There are scars in His hands today where He shed His own precious blood to pay for your sins, so you could go to heaven, be saved forever and be a child of God. So with the precious blood of Jesus Christ, the engraving took place on the hands of God.

Zech13:6. Question: Is your name in God's hands? Have you received Jesus Christ as your Saviour? Do so today. Are you engraved in the palms of Christ?

147. God Brings Prosperity out of Adversity

Bible Reading: Genesis 28:10-22

Aim: To show that God often leads us through great trials in preparation for some greater service or blessings. Whenever bad things happen to a believer, God can bring good things out of them.

Introduction: Almost every person whom God used greatly, was first put through a wilderness experience in preparation and training for the best plans God had for them. God brings good out of evil for the person who loves God and seeks to do His will. John 12:23-26.

In our sorrows, there are joys;

In our crosses, there are crowns;

In our miseries, there are mercies;

In our losses, there are gains;

In our disappointments, there are God's appointments;

In our contradictions, there are compensations.

Question: What can we learn from Bible characters who went through wilderness trials and testings? Consider these Bible characters to see how good came out of trials so as to encourage us in difficulties:

1. JACOB. After Jacob had fled from his home and his murderous brother Esau, he slept on a stony pillow (Genesis 28:11). In Jacob's stony pillow he saw the Lord on top of a ladder leading to heaven. He received 5 promises from God. He called it the House of God, Bethel (v.17) and the Gate of Heaven. He made a 4-fold vow, promising to give 10% of all that God gave him to God.
2. JOSEPH. After spending about 10 years in jail, Joseph found that God was preparing him for the palace to do a mighty work of saving many people's lives. (Genesis 50:20; Psalm 105:17-22). He became second-in-charge of Egypt. Pharaoh changed his name to Zaphnath-Paaneah (Genesis 41:45) meaning "Revealer of secrets and Saviour of the world". Joseph's sufferings and exaltation became a wonderful prophetic picture of Jesus Christ's future suffering and exaltation.
3. MOSES in the wilderness in Exodus 3:1-4:13.
Moses spent 40 years learning to be great in Pharaoh's palace;
Moses spent 40 years learning to be a nobody in the wilderness;
Moses spent 40 years serving God doing a great work of delivering Israel from Egypt, receiving the 10 Commandments, writing Scripture, seeing God and learning God's Name "I AM". 3:14,15.
4. DAVID. David turned the taunts of Goliath into a great triumph.
Goliath humiliated the Israelite army for 40 days.
God used a little boy, David, to humiliate the Philistine army and win a great victory for God and Israel. (I Samuel 17:43-50). David experienced great suffering in being chased by Saul for many years through the wilderness. One day, God turned David's suffering to great joy when he was crowned King of Israel.

Question: What giants such as Goliath and Saul do we need to conquer by faith?

5. ELIJAH. Elijah fled into the wilderness after being threatened with death by Jezebel. God encouraged Elijah by sending an angel to encourage him, giving him a new ministry and a new friend in Elisha to carry on his work, as well as a chariot ride to heaven without seeing death.
6. PAUL. Paul's two wilderness experiences led to great blessing:
 - a) Paul spent three years in the Arabian desert, studying to get his doctrine clear (Galatians 1:17), which helped him in his preaching, his letters to the churches and his missionary journeys in the years to come.
Lesson: Years spent in studying God's Word and in learning to be a nobody are laying solid foundations for future service.
 - b) Paul spent many years sacrificing, suffering and being persecuted on his missionary journeys and in jail (2 Corinthians 11:21-30), which led to:
 - many churches being started;
 - writing much of the New Testament which has blessed millions of Christians;
 - becoming a great example who inspired much soul winning, missionary activity, and was a model for future missionaries.

7. JOHN. While banished to the isle of Patmos, John was given a glorious revelation of heaven, of the end of the age, and of eternity future. (Revelation 1:9). God sent him away from people, to give him the visions of Revelation. What seemed like a bad thing (his exile on Patmos), led to a very good thing of the book of Revelation being written. This book has given blessing and hope to millions of Christians' lives. It has greatly informed believers on Christ's return. It shows us the ultimate defeat of Satan and victory for believers at Christ's second coming.
8. JESUS. Jesus had two main wilderness experiences:
- In Luke 4:1 the Holy Spirit led Jesus into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil for 40 days. The result of His victory over Satan here was fame, power, glory and teaching God's Word with power. (Luke 4:14,15,31,32).
 - Jesus knew that the valley of suffering on the cross that He was to endure, would lead to the glory of His resurrection, ascension and final victory over sin and Satan.

Conclusion: Question: What wilderness experiences or valleys are you going through?

Answer: These can be the precursors to great blessings. (Romans 8:28). The way to cure despair is to give yourself to prayer, for prayer is the great cure of every ill. Sufferings and wilderness experiences for God's best servants are part of our training for a bigger work for God.

Question: Will you see wilderness experiences as being for your learning and future blessing?

148. Joseph: a Type of Christ

Notice the similarities between Joseph and Jesus Christ:

	Similarity	Joseph	Jesus
1	Beloved by their fathers	Genesis 37:3	Matthew 3:17
2	Regarded themselves as shepherds	Genesis 37:2	John 10:11-14

26	Provided bread to multitudes	Genesis 41:56	Matthew 14:13-21
27	Rule together with their bride	Genesis 41:45	Revelation 19:7-21

149. Christ, a Prophet Like Unto Moses.

Bible Reading: Deuteronomy 18:15-22; Acts 3:22-26; Luke 7:11-16; John 6:14 and 7:40.

Aim: To see how Moses so clearly prefigured Jesus Christ. To prove that Jesus Christ is the Messiah and prophet spoken of by Moses, & that “the prophet” is not Mohammad as Muslims claim, but Christ.

Introduction: We learn much about Christ by noticing His similarities to Moses. At first there seems little in common, yet a closer examination reveals many similarities. Let this message be an answer to the Greeks who asked, “Sirs, we would see Jesus.” Let us see Jesus in Moses’ life as follows:

	Similarity	Moses	Jesus
1	Attempts to kill them in infancy	Exodus 1:22	Matthew 2:13-16
2	Chosen to deliver God’s people	Exodus 3:10; Acts 7:35	Luke 4:18; II Cor. 1:10; I Thessalonians 1:10
3	Prophet	Deuteronomy 18:15	John 6:14,15; Luke 7:16
4	Priest	Psalm 99:6	Hebrews 7:23-27
5	King	Deuteronomy 18:15	John 6:14; John 1:49
6	Judge	Exodus 18:13	John 5:27; Acts 17:31
7	Shepherd	Exodus 3:1	John 10:11-14, 27
8	Mediator between God and man	Exodus 33:8,9	I Timothy 2:5
9	Intercessor	Numbers 21:7	Romans 8:34
10	Refused the glory of earthly kingdoms	Hebrews 11:24-27	Matthew 4:8-10
11	Rich yet became poor for sake of others	Hebrews 11:26	II Corinthians 8:9
12	Endured reproach because of future glory	Hebrews 11:26	Hebrews 12:2
13	Called out of Egypt	Hebrews 11:27	Matthew 2:15
14	Misunderstood, rejected by their brethren	Acts 7:25-28	John 1:10,11
15	Rejected by man, but exalted by God	Acts 7:35	Acts 2:36
16	Brought their people rest from burdens	Exodus 5:4,5	Matthew 11:28,29
17	Brought liberty to the captives	Exodus 12:31-33	Luke 4:18
18	Had their enemies bow the knee to them	Exodus 11:8	Philippians 2:9-11
19	Bring deliverance with a midnight cry	Exodus 14:21	Matthew 25:6
20	Exercised power over the sea	Exodus 14:21	Matthew 8:26,27
21	Gave water to the thirsty	Exodus 17:6	John 7:37; 4:14
22	Gave bread miraculously for their people to eat	Psalm 78:24,25 John 6:31,32	John 6:1-14, 33-35, 48-51, 57-58, 63, 68
23	Nearly stoned by their own people	Exodus 17:4	John 8:58,59
24	Advocates for their people	Numbers 27:5	Matthew 12:30
25	Demanded complete allegiance to God	Exodus 32:26	Matthew 12:30
26	Meek	Numbers 12:3	Matthew 11:29
27	Were envied	Psalm 106:16	Mark 15:10
28	Had glorious transfigured faces	Exodus 34:29,30	Matthew 17:1,2,3
29	People scoffed at their return	Exodus 32:1	II Peter 3:3,4
30	Sprinkled the people with covenant blood	Exodus 24:8	Luke 22:20; Heb.10:22
31	Suffered at the hand of God for others	Deuteronomy 1:37	Isaiah 53:4,5
32	Obtained pardon for others	Numbers 14:17-20	Ephesians 4:32
33	Pronounced a parting blessing	Deuteronomy 33:1	Luke 24:50,51
34	In rejection, turned to the Gentiles	Exodus 2:15	Acts 18:5,6
35	Receive a Gentile bride	Exodus 2:21	Ephesians 5:30-32
36	Delivered Israel with their Gentile bride	Exodus 4:19,20	Revelation 19:7-21
37	Brought up as sons of a virgin	Exodus 2:1-10 (v.5-10)	Matthew 1:22,23
38	Born when Israel was under Gentile rule	Exodus 1:8-10	Luke 2:1-3
39	Placed by their mothers in unusual beds	Ark in water: Ex. 2:3	Manger: Luke 2:7
40	Saved in infancy from a death decree by a ruling Gentile king	Exodus 1:22; 2:1-3	Matthew 2:13,16

41	Raised by daughters of a kingly line	Exodus 2:5-10	Luke 1:26,27-33
42	Fled their land of birth because of a king's wrath	Exodus 2:15	Matthew 2:13
43	Returned to birth land to do many miracles	Exodus 4:19-21	Matthew 2:19-20
44	Criticised by family members	Numbers 12:1-2	John 7:3-5; 12:37-44
45	Experienced a 40-day fast alone with God	Exodus 34:28; 24:18	Matthew 4:2
46	Spoken to audibly by God	Exodus 19:9-20; 34:5-6	John 12:23-28
47	Delivered people by shedding of blood	Exodus 12:3-23	Hebrews 9:11-15
48	Established memorial meals to help their people remember and give thanks for God's salvation	Passover: Exodus 12:3-14,25-27 Leviticus 23:5	Lord's Supper: Luke 22:19; I Corinthians 11:26
49	Spoke God's word with God's authority and in God's name	Exodus 4:12; 20:19	Matthew 7:28,29 Mark 1:21-22; Lk4:20,21
50	Willing to die instead of the people	Exodus 32:31-32	John 10:11, 17-18
51	Both reappeared after their death	Matthew 17:3	Luke 24:13-53; Acts 1:3-11
52	Accepted when they return to Israel	Exodus 4:29-31	Acts 15:14-17; Rom 11:26
53	Had an angel guarding their tomb	Matthew 28:2-6	Jude 9
54	Revealed God's Name to God's people	Exodus 3:13-14	John 17:6,11,12
55	Did many miracles, signs and wonders as nobody else has done	Deuteronomy 34:10-12	John 7:31; 11:47
56	Instituted a day of worship and remembrance	Sabbath: Exodus 16:23,26-30	Sunday: Acts 20:7 John 20:1, 19, 26
57	Sent 12 spies, and 12 disciples	Numbers 13	Mark 3:13-19
58	Sent 70 out to preach to the people	Ex 24:1,9; Num.11:25	Luke 10:1,17

63	Instituted a Law and a moral code	Exodus 20:1-17	Romans 8:2; 7:6; Gal.6:2

150. How to Get a Concern for Winning Lost People to Christ. John 1:35-51.

1. Realise that all people without Christ will go to hell forever. Mark 9:42-50; John 3:18,36; I Corinthians 5:11; Revelation 14:9-13. (Psalm 126:5,6.
 2. Joy that soul-winning brings to the soul-winner, convert, God, angels, and fellow believers.
 3. Realise the value of a person. Man is:
 - a) an immortal being,
 - b) made in God's image.
 - c) Cost of redemption is Christ's blood,
 - d) struggle between God and Satan for man's possession,
 - e) God calls believers "Jewels." Malachi 3:16-18.
 4. Realise our accountability to God. I Corinthians 5:16; II Corinthians 5:18,20; Ezekiel 33:1-11.
 5. Look at life from an eternal viewpoint. Think of the:
 - a) Rewards for us at the Judgment seat of Christ. II Corinthians 5:10
 - b) Pain of hell for unbelievers forever. Revelation 20:11-15
 - c) Joys of heaven for believers to enjoy. II Corinthians 1:10
 6. Realise the shortness of time and the length of eternity. Ephesians 2:7.
- Challenge: Getting people into heaven requires: a) a Decision: "Choose you this day" Joshua 24:16.
b) an Investment of time and energy: "Present your bodies a living sacrifice." Romans 12:1.
 "Son, go work today in my vineyard." Matthew 21:28.

151. Five Questionable Issues

1. Head coverings for women (I Corinthians 11:4-16).

Some churches insist on women having their heads covered during worship services, because of their understanding of I Corinthians 11:5,6,13. They ignore I Corinthians 11:15,

“But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering.”

Question: How should we correctly understand I Corinthians 11:5,6,13?

“But every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head.” (v.5);

“but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered (2619).” (v.6).

“Judge ye in yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?” (v.13).

Answer: The Greek word for “covering” (2619) is “kata kalupto” meaning “to be covered with a veil or something which hangs down”. The covering here involves either the hair of a woman hanging down, or if that is not possible, to cover with a veil. Remember that women of loose morals, especially the prostitute priestesses of the temple of Aphrodite at Corinth, kept their hair very short to advertise themselves as temple prostitutes. Shaven heads on Christian women was strictly forbidden, so that nobody would mistake them as temple prostitutes or as being immoral.

Question: What happened when one of these temple prostitutes at Corinth was saved?

Answer: Since she could not grow her hair immediately, she used a veil to cover her head to show that she was no longer a temple prostitute.

For other women who already had long hair, they did not need to wear a veil, because “her hair is given her for a covering”. (I Cor. 11:15) See New Testament Word Study, Spiros Zodhiates p.830 (word 2619). Hence today, women with long hair do not need to wear a veil to church.

2. Television in the Home

Question: What are the consequences when parents allow their children to watch television at home?

Answer: “I will walk within my house with a perfect heart. I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes: I hate the work of them that turn aside; it shall not cleave to me.” (Psalm 101:2,3).

When parents let their sons and daughters watch wrong, wicked and unbiblical things on television, the following evil consequences enter your children:

(i) It establishes the practice of tolerating evil to enjoy some good.

“A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.” (I Corinthians 5:6).

(ii) It lowers their resistance to evil, by getting them to laugh at sins like lying, stealing, cheating, and rebellng. “the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.” (Ecclesiastes 7:4).

(iii) It provides continued access to the world and its wrong values.

“Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world.” (I John 2:15).

(iv) It weakens and sears their consciences by exposing them to ever-increasing lows of immorality. “that thou by them might war a good warfare: holding faith and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck.” (I Timothy 1:18,19).

“Even their mind and conscience is defiled.” (Titus 1:15).

(v) It teaches them to look up to and relate to evil individuals whom you would never allow into your home. “A companion of fools shall be destroyed.” (Proverbs 13:20).

(vi) It wastes large amounts of time which could be spent in many other useful activities such as Bible study; soul winning; disciple-making; helping parents with housework, study or work.

“Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.” (Ephesians 5:16).

(vii) It weakens their creativity by drowning out the warnings of Scripture and their conscience.

“Quench not the Spirit.” (I Thessalonians 5:19).

(viii) It ultimately makes them the enemies of God.

“Whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.” (James 4:4).

3. “Christian” or Worldly Rock Music

Question: What are the consequences when parents allow their children to listen to rock music?

Answer: “It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools” Eccles 7:5
“Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord.” (Eph.5:19). “Sing unto the LORD; for he hath done excellent things.” (Isaiah 12:5). When parents let their children listen to rock music, these consequences will poison your children:

- (i) It will tune them in to the spirit of this world. “Now we have received not the spirit of the world (worldly music), but the spirit which is of God (Godly ways and music); that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.” (I Corinthians 2:12).
- (ii) It will dull the sensitivity of their conscience as it opposes this worldly music. “Quench not the spirit.” (I Thessalonians 5:19).
“For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.” (Galatians 5:17).
- (iii) They admire ungodly and wicked, fornicating heroes. The greatest form of admiration is imitation, as seen by teens wearing black T-shirts with their rock star heroes on them.
“But (God’s people) were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works (eg rock music). And served their idols (rock star idols): which were a snare unto them...” (Psalm 106:35-36).
- (iv) They have accepted the “do your own thing, satisfy yourself” philosophy of false religions.
“For many walk, of whom I have told you often, & now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ: whose end is destruction...who mind earthly things.” Phil 3:18-19.
- (v) They are now more vulnerable to worldly exploitation in other areas (eg: rock music is closely associated with drugs, fornication, rebellion, witchcraft, alcohol, immoral crowd, etc).
- (vi) They have made rock music more important than living for Christ, especially by causing Christians who have left the rock music scene to stumble.

4. Alcohol

Question: What are the consequences on children when parents allow alcohol in their home?

Answer: Every alcoholic started off as a social drinker.

- (i) It places your approval on a product that brings death, destruction and misery to millions of people. “Who hath woe? Who hath sorrow? Who hath contentions? Who hath babbling? Who hath wounds without cause? Who hath redness of eyes?
They that tarry long at the wine; they that go to seek mixed wine.” (Proverbs 23:29,30).
- (ii) It places people in addiction and bondage, so that many become alcoholics.
“When shall I awake? I will seek it yet again.” (Proverbs 23:25).
“I will not be brought under the power of any.” (I Corinthians 6:12).
- (iii) It disobeys God’s command not to look at wine. “Look not thou upon the wine when it is red ..At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder.” (Proverbs 23:31,32).
- (iv) It causes a weaker brother to stumble & sin. “It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.” Romans 14:21.
- (v) It is a bad example to your children that you (their role model) think it is OK to drink alcohol.
They follow your example, go to the pub and meet wicked people who destroy their lives.
- (vi) Alcohol lowers people’s inhibitions and moral standards. “Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall utter perverse things.” (Proverbs 23:33).
- (vii) Alcohol is the devil’s counterfeit substitute for the filling of the Holy Spirit. “And be not drunk with wine wherein is excess, but be filled with the Spirit.” (Ephesians 5:18).

5. Pornography and Sensual Literature

Question: What are the consequences when parents allow their children to watch pornography at home?

Answer:

- (i) It teaches the children that it is OK to disobey God’s warnings against looking at nakedness of women. “Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of a woman..it is wickedness.” Leviticus 18:17.
- (ii) It dulls our spiritual senses and grieves the Holy Spirit.
“The flesh lusteth against the Spirit .. these are contrary the one to the other.” (Galatians 5:17)
- (iii) It promotes humanism that man’s pleasure is the main goal in life.
“Lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God.” (II Timothy 3:4).
- (iv) It teaches others to fornicate by your example.

- (v) It increases crime and wickedness in society. “A whore ... a strange woman ... increaseth the transgressors among men.” (Proverbs 23:27,28).
- (vi) It is mental adultery and weakens (dilutes) your marriage. “Whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.” (Matthew 5:28).
- (vii) It sends you into an unreal world of fantasy by bringing you to see all women as sex objects rather than people with other needs. “Having eyes full of adultery.” (II Peter 2:14).
- (vii) Pornography is addictive. It enslaves men so they cannot break free from looking at it. “Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin.” (II Peter 2:14).
- (viii) Pornography produces a guilty conscience, “their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts the mean while accusing or else excusing.” (Romans 2:15).
- (ix) Pornography lowers moral standards in the home and in society.
- (x) Pornography tempts men to commit adultery and prostitution. “Whoso committeth adultery with a woman lacketh understanding; he that doeth it destroyeth his own soul.” Proverbs 6:32.
- (xi) It financially supports/encourages its producers to stay in business & destroy others lives.

152. Things God Has Given Us

Bible Reading: John 13:1-15.

Aim: To increase our love and service for Christ by remembering what Christ has given us.

1. Strength to resist temptation, finish your life’s work, overcome every trial, serve God, raise Godly children, and live one day at a time. Psalm 29:11 “The Lord will give strength unto his people.”
2. Help from trouble. Psalm 60:11. “Give us help from trouble: for vain is the help of man.”
3. Grace and glory. Psalm 84:11 “The Lord will give grace; James 4:6 “he giveth grace unto the humble”
4. That which is good. Psalm 85:12. What is good for us? Psalm 119:71; 133:1; 147:1;
Proverbs 15:23; 17:22; 18:22; 22:1; Lam 3:21; Micah 6:8; Luke 10:42; I Cor. 7:1; Galatians 4:18
5. Good doctrine. Proverbs 4:2 “I give you good doctrine”; I Timothy 4:13 “give attendance to...doctrine”
6. Beauty for ashes. Isaiah 61:3. God turning around an ashes situation of suffering into a beautiful situation of joy and praise.
7. Pastors according to God’s own heart. Jeremiah 3:15 “I will give you pastors according to mine heart.”
God’s people need to help pastors reach the world for Christ.
8. Rest in salvation from our labours and trials. Matthew 11:28 “Come unto me and I will give you rest”
9. A new commandment to love one another as Christ has loved us. (John 13:34). “A new comm...”
10. An example to serve each other. John 13:2-15.
11. Another Comforter. John 14:16. “I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter..”
12. My peace I give unto you. John 14:27. “Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you.”
13. Understanding in all things. 2 Timothy 2:7. “the Lord give thee understanding in all things.”
14. A crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day. 2 Timothy 4:8
15. Assurance of salvation and resurrection. Acts 17:31.
16. Spirit of power, love and sound mind. 2 Timothy 1:7. “God hath not given us a spirit of fear; but of.”
17. Wisdom. James 1:5. “If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally..”
18. Richly all things to enjoy. I Timothy 6:17. “the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy;”
19. All things that pertain to life and godliness. 2 Peter 1:3. “his divine power has given to us..”
20. Exceeding great and precious promises. 2 Peter 1:4. “Whereby are given to us exceeding great...”
21. Eternal life. I John 5:11. “This is the record that God hath given to us eternal life..”
22. The increase as we labour in God’s work. I Corinthians 3:7. “God that giveth the increase.”
23. The victory. I Corinthians 15:57. “But thanks be to God which giveth us the victory through our Lord.”
24. Power to the faint. Isaiah 40:29. “He giveth power to the faint; & to them that have no might he increases.”
25. Rain. Jeremiah 5:24. “Let us now fear the LORD our God, that giveth rain.”
26. His Holy Spirit. I Thessalonians 4:8. “God, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.”
27. Everlasting consolation. 2 Thessalonians 2:16 “our Father, hath loved us, & hath given us everlasting”
28. Sleep. Psalm 127:2. “It is vain for you to rise up early, to sit up late,..for so he giveth his beloved sleep.”
29. Christ’s body on the cross, given for you. Luke 22:19 “This is my body which is given for you

153. How a Person is like a Mule (or Ass)

Bible Reading: Mark 11:1-10.

Aim: To discover soul-winning truths from how people are like mules.

Introduction: In Job 11:12, “For vain man would be wise, though man be born like a wild asses colt.”

Question: How is a person like a mule? These truths are useful to know in soul winning. This shows that God can use the most unlikely people. “And they went their way, and found the colt tyed by the door without in a place where two ways met; and they loose him.” (Mark 11:4). The two disciples, sent by Jesus to fetch the colt, represent two soul-winners going out to seek sinners for Jesus Christ. Notice the following similarities between the ass and a man.

1. Man is TIED (Mark 11:4). As the colt was tied, so is an unbeliever tied to his sins. “His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and he shall be holden with the cords of his sins.” Proverb 5:22 “devil, who are taken captive by him” 2 Tim.2:26. Only Jesus Christ can break people’s cords of sin.

2. Man is BY THE DOOR (v.4). Jesus Christ said, “I am the door.” “If any man enter in, he shall be saved.” (John 10:9). Jesus Christ is near us: “though he be not far from every one of us.” (Acts 17:27). “Behold, I stand at the door and knock.” (Revelation 3:20).

Lesson: There are many people who are very close to salvation. All they need is someone to show them the gospel, and lead them through the door of salvation. Question: Will you be that person?

3. Man is WITHOUT (v. 4). The unsaved person is “without Christ and God.” (Ephesians 2:12). He is:

- without understanding (Romans 1:31).
- without strength (Romans 5:6). “For when we were yet without strength, Christ died for the ungodly”
- without light (John 8:12) “he that follows me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life”
- without life (John 14:6). “I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh to the Father but by me.”
- without peace (Isaiah 57:20,21). “There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.”
- without rest (Matthew 11:28) “Come unto me, all ye that labour & are heavy laden, & I will give you rest”
- without salvation (Acts 4:12). “there is none other name under heaven given among men whereby we...”
- without hope (Ephesians 2:12). “having no hope and without God in the world.”
- without heaven (John 14:1-6) “In my Father’s house are many mansions: I go to prepare a place for you.”

Lesson: When you lead a person to Christ, you become the tool of them receiving so many blessings that they never had before. Question: Will you be a blessing to them?

4. Man is AT THE CROSSROADS, “in a place where two ways meet.” People are between the broad way and the narrow way (Matthew 7:13,14). The unsaved person has to make a choice as to which way he will go. “I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing; therefore choose life” Joshua 24:15

Question: Will you help lost people make the right choice for Jesus Christ and eternal life?

Song: “I met Jesus at the crossroads, where the two ways meet.
Satan too was standing there and he said “Come this way.
Lots and lots of pleasures I can give to you today.”
But I said, “NO”, there’s Jesus here
Just see what He offers me.
Down here my sins forgiven,
Up there a home in heaven.
Praise God that’s the way for me.”

5. Man NEEDS TO BE LOOSED. “and they loose him.” (v.4).

Christ came to preach deliverance to the captives. (Luke 4:18).

Revelation 1:5 states that “Jesus loved us, and washed us from our sins in His own blood.”

6. Man is NEEDED BY THE LORD. “the Lord hath need of him.” (v.3).

Christ needs us who are saved to tell others of Christ’s saving Gospel.

Lesson: Let us see unsaved sinners as people that Christ needs for some important work to do for Him.

Question: Will you surrender yourself to serve Christ, and be a blessing to many people?

7. Man Can be USED TO TAKE CHRIST TO THE MULTITUDES. (v.7-9). (Matthew 9:36-38).

After a person is saved, Christ can use him as a witness “unto the uttermost part of the earth.” Acts 1:8;

Conclusion: Let’s go mule-losing and apply these truths in our soul winning.

154. Things to Learn

Bible Reading: Deuteronomy 31:1-13.

Aim: To learn what God says we should understand in life.

Introduction: We are told to learn certain things about Christ in Scripture. What are they?

Question: How well are you learning the lessons God has called us to learn?

1) The Sinner's Lesson: Salvation is not by self-righteous acts.

“But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.” (Matthew 9:13). God is saying, “I prefer mercy to sacrifice. I am more pleased with acts of kindness than with external religious ceremony.”

a) Mercy means acts of kindness towards others;

b) Sacrifice meant external worship in general.

Christ is saying, “You Pharisees are exceedingly committed to the external duties of religion, but God prefers mercy to those external duties”. It is proper that I should associate with sinners to do them good. The Pharisees always brought the proper sacrifices but they were totally lacking in compassion towards sinners.

c) “I am not come to call the righteous.” No humans are by nature righteous (Romans 1:18-32; 3:10-18). The Pharisees pretended to be righteous. Christ means here that it was not the purpose of his coming to call the self-righteous to repentance, knowing that they would reject his efforts and He'd be wasting His time. The Pharisees did not think they were sinners (sick), so they would never seek out the Lord (physician) for salvation.

d) He said that His proper business was to call to repentance people who knew they were sinners, and would be willing to repent, such as those present.

2) The Backslider's Lesson: Learn to do well. “Learn to do well: seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow.” (Isaiah 1:17).

The Lord offered complete forgiveness to the repentant, but promised judgment on rebels. Some people had the mistaken idea that they could live any way they pleased, so long as they made restitution in the sacrificial system. Many believers have forgotten to do well, and make no effort to relieve the oppressed, nor do they seek fairness, justice and judgment. No matter how religious they are, God considers them backsliders whom He will judge unless they repent. “Judgment must begin at the house of God.” (I Peter 4:17).

3) The Saints' Lesson: Learn of Christ. “Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me.” (Matthew 11:29). Jesus' yoke here pictures the commandments of living by the law of Christ. (Gal. 6:2;

Romans 8:2). Serving Jesus Christ is a much easier yoke than living under the bondage of:

a) Sinful lusts—drugs, cigarettes, pornography, gambling, violent crowd, alcoholism, divorce.

b) Popish requirements--priestly celibacy, fear of purgatory, confession to priests, 20 Hail Marys.

c) Heathen requirements, eg: Islamic hand-cutting, female circumcision, going to holy war.

d) Laws of fashion and sensuality that are imposed on people.

We who serve Jesus Christ are free. It is much easier to be a Christian than a sinner.

“If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.” (John 8:36).

Of all the yokes ever imposed on men, the yoke of Christ is the easiest and lightest. People should receive Christ because He is meek and not harsh, not overbearing, nor oppressive.

Christ's laws are reasonable, tender and easy to obey.

In receiving Christ, there is peace that passes understanding.

In believing in Christ, there is joy unspeakable.

In following Christ, there is a joy and comfort which the world cannot give.

In bearing trials and persecutions for Christ, there is the hope of glory.

In keeping Christ's commandments, there is great reward.

4) Woman's Lesson: Learn in silence. “Let your women keep silence in the churches.” I Cor. 14:34.

“Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.” (I Timothy 2:11).

God wants Christian ladies to learn in silence in church, listening attentively to God's Word, without attempting to teach men in public, and with due subjection to those who are in authority.

5) The Disciple's Lesson: Continue.

"But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned." (II Timothy 3:14). Because of so many errors and false teachers, Paul charges Timothy to hold fast to sound doctrines taught to him, no matter who may oppose him, or whatever might be the consequences. Disciples must learn to continue in God's Word. "Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on Him, If ye continue in my Word, then are ye my disciples indeed." (John 8:31).

6) The Children's Lesson: Show piety at home.

"But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to show piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God." (I Timothy 5:4). Piety (2151) means to worship God and to respect and support parents, providing for their wants in advanced age in a kind attitude. To requite parents means to repay them as far as possible for their kindness. The debt can never be wholly repaid, but a child should try to do as much as possible to repay it.

7) The Servant's Lesson: Maintain good works.

"And let ours also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be not unfruitful." (Titus 3:14). "Let ours" means "our friends", those who are Christians, maintain good works (ie: profess honest trades), so they may have money to give to him that needeth. (Ephesians 4:28). "Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth." Christians should learn honest trades, and be distinguished for good works, acts of charity, honest toil, and an upright life. "For necessary uses" means requirements of duties to their families.

8) Everybody's Lesson: Fear God.

"Gather the people together, men, women, children, and the stranger that is within thy gates, that they may hear, learn, and fear the Lord your God, and observe to do all the words of this law" Deut 31:12,13 Peter says, "Fear God." (I Peter 2:17). An angel says, "Fear God." (Revelation 14:7).

Paul says, "Perfecting holiness in the fear of God." (II Corinthians 7:1).

The fear of the Lord: - is to hate evil (Proverbs 8:13);

- prolongeth days (Proverbs 10:27);

- is strong confidence (Proverbs 14:26); - is a fountain of life (Proverbs 14:27);

- By the fear of the Lord men depart from evil.' (Proverbs 16:6).

Question: What does it mean to fear God?

Answer: Morally, it means to reverence and honour God, to stand in awe of God (I Peter 2:17), expressing worship and adoration of God (Luke 1:50; Acts 10:22,35). Those who feared God (Acts 13:16,26) in the case of proselytes, adored and revered God, while expressing religious devotion to God. This is "sebomai" (4576) in Greek meaning "reverence". Holy fear means respect for the majesty and holiness of God, a Godly reverence. (Genesis 20:11; Psalm 34:11; Acts 9:31). This fear enables man to respect God's authority, obey His Commandments, turn from evil (Psalm 2:11; Proverbs 8:13; 16:6) and to pursue holiness (II Corinthians 7:1; Philippians 2:12). Gentile converts to Judaism who believed in God were called God-fearers. (Acts 10:2,22; 13:26).

9) Other Things to Learn: i) Learn not the way of the heathen. (Jeremiah 10:2).

ii) Learn a parable of the fig tree (Matthew 24:32) means to learn the significance of Israel's return to their land as the major sign of Christ's return being near.

iii) Learn not to think of men above that which is written (I Corinthians 4:6).

iv) Learn not the ways of an angry man. "Make no friendship with an angry man; lest thou learn his ways, and get a snare to thy soul." (Proverbs 22:24,25).

v) Learn God's statutes through affliction (Psalm 119:71,73).

vi) Learn all the Bible because it was "written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope." (Romans 15:4).

vii) Learn in whatsoever state I am, to be content. (Philippians 4:11).

viii) Learn obedience through suffering. (Hebrews 5:8).

ix) Learn not to blaspheme. (I Timothy 1:20).

x) Learn the knowledge of the truth. (II Timothy 3:7).

Conclusion: Let us dedicate ourselves to learn God's ways so we can teach others also.

155. The Ways of an Angry Man

Bible Reading: Proverbs 22:24,25.

Aim: To identify angry men and avoid their presence.

Introduction: Many people, even some Christians, are angry men. God gives us many warnings about anger. One very important warning is found in Proverbs 22:24,25,

“Make no friendship with an angry man; and with a furious man thou shalt not go: lest thou learn his ways, and get a snare to thy soul.”

Question: Why does God warn us about angry men? So we don’t learn their ways.

Question: What are the ways of an angry man? How can we identify an angry man? Consider these ways of angry men. Do not allow them into your life. Repent of these if you are guilty of them.

- 1) Slander: False report maliciously uttered to injure a person.
“He that uttereth slander is a fool.” (Proverbs 10:18).
“He that privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off.” (Psalm 101:5).
- 2) Lying: Speaking falsely and deceptively. “A righteous man hateth lying.” (Proverbs 13:5).
“Lying lips are an abomination to the LORD.” (Proverbs 12:22).
“Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour.” (Ephesians 4:23).
- 3) Railing: Using abusive language against someone. “I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a . . . railer.” (I Corinthians 5:11). I Timothy 6:4; I Peter 3:9.
- 4) Self-Justification: “He said unto them, ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts.” (Luke 16:15).
- 5) False Accusers: II Timothy 3:3
- 6) Threatening: “forbearing threatening.” (Ephesians 6:9; Acts 4:29).
- 7) Overtalking: Some people talk so much that you rarely have a chance to say something. When you attempt to say something they rebuke you by saying, “Don’t interrupt me.”
“Let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath.” (James 1:19).
- 8) Faultfinding: “They send unto him certain of the Pharisees and of the Herodians, to catch him in his words.” (Mark 12:13).
- 9) Busybodies: A person who pries into and meddles in the affairs of others.
“But let none of you suffer as a . . . busybody in other men’s matters.” (I Peter 4:15) “There are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies.” (II Thess. 3:11).
“Not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.” I Tim5:13.
Illustration: An angry church attendee phoned the accountant of his preacher to look for some bad things he could slander his pastor with. The accountant told him to mind his own business.
- 10) Factious: “Speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.” (Acts 20:30).
“Every one of you saith, I am of Paul, I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ.” (I Cor.1:12).
Angry people are preoccupied with justifying themselves more than soul-winning, so they need to recruit people to their cause to gain credibility and support. Avoid getting involved in factions. Get on with soul-winning, rather than self-justification. Don’t let angry people recruit you to their side. “Every fool will be meddling.” (Proverbs 20:3; 17:14; 26:17).
- 11) Seeking Pre-eminence: “Diotrephes, who loveth to have the pre-eminence among them, receiveth us not.” (II John 9). Beware of older non-soul winning Christians who want to become an elder or pastor in a church, but won’t go soul-winning or follow up new Christians. Work is better than titles.
- 12) Looking for Evil Motives in Others, Constant Fault-finding in others:
“Charity . . . thinketh no evil.” (I Corinthians 13:5). Angry men think that others think like them.
- 13) Critical Spirit: “Speak not evil one of another brethren.” (James 4:11).
“Speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, showing all meekness unto all men.” Titus3:1
- 14) Sins of Presumption: “Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me.” (Psalm 19:13). Don’t jump to an evil conclusion about someone. Don’t presume evil of others. First check it out with the person, because you don’t want people believing evil false gossip about you. You would want them to check it with you first. (Matthew 18:15-18).

Conclusion: Don’t let these qualities be found in you. If they are, repent of them. Avoid angry men.

What other ways of an angry man can you think of? 1095

156. Philip and the Ethiopian Eunuch: Working with God to bring people to Jesus

Bible Reading: Acts 8:1-8; 26-40.

Aim: To see the method, joy and results of soul-winning, so we become better soul winners. To arise, go and preach the gospel as Philip did.

Introduction: Our all-powerful God has chosen to limit Himself to the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe. The key is that Christians must go and preach. If we don't preach the Gospel, nobody will get saved. For God's work to grow, we need labourers who are willing to lead people to Christ and follow them up. This is the main reason for the church's existence.

In Acts 8:1-8 we see: a) Saul persecuting the church of Jerusalem (8:1-3).

b) Christians being scattered, going everywhere preaching the word (v.4).

c) Philip preached Christ at Samaria (v.5).

The results were: a) People gave heed with one accord to the Gospel. (Acts 28:28) (v.6).

b) Demons were cast out (v.7).

c) Many paralyzed and lame people were healed (v.7).

d) There was great joy in that city (v.8). Revival broke out.

The first "Arise and go" came to Philip while he was experiencing great success in Samaria.

Lesson: God best uses those who are obeying Him where they are. Be a soul winner in your church before you go overseas as a missionary. The good of the Samaritan revival, followed the bad of Saul's persecution. The story of the Ethiopian eunuch getting saved shows us much about HOW to do soul winning. What 14 lessons does this teach us? Fourteen wonderful steps are seen as follows:

1. The Angel of the Lord told Philip, "ARISE AND GO." (v.26). Lessons are:

i) Angels cannot preach the Gospel to men, because God has chosen people to do it.

ii) Angels are on our side to help us in soul winning.

iii) The Angel told Philip where to go. He told him to go south to the Gaza desert.

When God calls us, He always tells us where to go. "Go toward the south . . . unto Gaza." (v.26).

iv) God's ways do not always make sense initially. It seemed strange for Philip to leave a successful revival in Samaria to go to the Gaza desert.

v) One man is important to God. Is one person important to you? Let's win them one by one.

vi) Many people are searching for salvation and for God. We must go and find them.

vii) The Angel said, "ARISE" because he wanted Philip to go now without delay. How often do you put off soul winning until sometime later, when you know you should go see someone now? When we hear "GO", we think we'll go tomorrow. But God wants us to go now, today. God says to us: "Son, go work today in my vineyard." (Matthew 21:28-32). The hardest part is arising and conquering procrastination. Don't put off going soul winning. "Arise" means stop what you are doing now and go soul winning.

viii) Sometimes you have to go to difficult places to find hungry people for Christ, such as the desert, slums, central Africa, places of starvation and persecution. It really is worth it.

2. Philip OBEYED. "He arose and went". (v.27). This means no waiting and no excuses.

Philip made no excuses, nor did he wait till he felt like it. Immediate obedience is important.

If Philip had waited for 1 day or 1 week, the man would have gone. By procrastinating, we can lose good contacts. By obeying, we see God do exciting things.

3. Philip MET a man. (v.27). "He arose and went: and, behold, a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem for to worship." (v.27).

God wants us to meet people in our daily life. Do we recognise good contacts?

Do we cultivate good contacts? This man was an interested, open, good contact.

Question: What do we learn about this man of Ethiopia?

Answer:

1) He was from Ethiopia (he represents God's love for people of all races).

2) A eunuch (means "any high officer" with no suggestion here of mutilation, 2135).

3) Of great authority (Ethiopian tradition calls him the founder of Christianity in Ethiopia).

- 4) Had the charge of all her treasure (he was responsible for her great wealth).
- 5) He came to Jerusalem to worship. He was a Jew or Jewish proselyte who had attended the Passover feast in Jerusalem. He was aware of his need of God.
- 6) He was disappointed in not finding salvation in Jerusalem. How many people are disappointed in not finding salvation in their religion? “He was returning.” (v.28).
- 7) He was a reader, educated, intelligent, searching for God, and aware of his need. He was “sitting in his chariot read Esaias the prophet.” (v.28).
- 8) He was close in his search for God. He was reading the clearest Old Testament passage about Christ’s sacrifice for our sins, yet he still could not see salvation clearly.

We miss many soul winning opportunities because we don’t BEHOLD. We don’t notice people as candidates for salvation. Behold means “see and understand the significance of.”

Philip saw a man in need of salvation. Let us LOOK for soul winning opportunities.

Question: How many days this week did you look for a chance to tell someone about Jesus Christ?

4. Philip HEARD the Holy Spirit speak to him. (v.29)

“Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.” (v.29).

Key: Let us listen to the Holy Spirit speak to us.

Question: Do you ever get hunches to ring or visit someone for the Gospel or to be followed up?

Do it, because it is often God’s voice. Thousands of times I phone or visit someone when they need a message of encouragement or salvation. How about you?

Eli told Samuel to say, “Speak, Lord; for thy servant heareth.” (I Samuel 3:9).

Question: Is God calling you to Bible College or to go soul winning today?

5. God’s message was: “GO NEAR.” (v.29). “Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.” (v.29)

To win people to Christ, we must get near to them. If you are an introvert, then ask God to help you to become extrovert enough to go soul winning. You rarely lead people to Christ from a distance. It helps after they are saved, if you become their friend. Be the kind of person people like to confide in. Talking to people is essential to success in soul winning. When you get close to people who have sin, they can hurt you. But you get greater blessings when they grow in Christ.

6. Philip RAN to him. (v.30). “Philip ran hither to him, and heard him read the prophet Esaias.” Let us be keen to go soul winning. Let us run to work for God. The Christian life is a race to run.

a) Philip ran. This shows Philip’s haste and desire to obey the Holy Spirit’s leading. One thousand excuses might have entered Philip’s mind if he had thought about it, such as, the Eunuch was a stranger, a man of rank, busy reading, but Philip obeyed without hesitation.

b) Strangers are often more willing to talk about eternal life than we may at first think, so test the water. If we approach them kindly, we’ll find most people willing to talk about salvation.

“Philip heard him read Esaias the prophet.” Do we listen to people to find out where they are at in their thinking about God? Listen to people. Ask questions. Ask: “Have you thought about God?”

7. Philip ASKED QUESTIONS. (v.30). “Understandest thou what thou readeſt?” (v.30).

Let’s ask people key questions to start a Gospel conversation, such as:

a) This (STOP tract) is for you.

b) This explains how to know God, go to heaven & have eternal life. Have you thought about God?

c) One question: “If you died tonight, do you know 100% for sure if you would go to heaven?”

d) Would you like to be 100% sure? (Yes). This tells you how. If you look on the inside, the first thing you need to know is that “All have sinned . . .”

Jesus in John 4:7 asked the woman at the well a question: “Give me to drink.”

8. The Eunuch’s NEED (v.31). “He said, How can I except some man should guide me?” (v.31).

The unsaved Ethiopian needed Philip to explain the Gospel to him. People need:

-- someone to lead or guide them to Christ.

-- someone to clearly explain the Gospel to them.

People are like the donkey’s colt standing by the door (Mark 11:4), unable to enter in the door of their own ability and be saved. (John 10:9).

9. Philip SAT with him (v.31). “He desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him.” Aim to sit down with someone to lead them to Christ. Sit next to him as a friend, rather than in front of him as a teacher. Sit with them and go through the Gospel using the STOP tract. The eunuch was reading the clearest Old Testament passage on Christ’s sacrificial death, yet he still could not understand it. Why? “Because the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.” I Cor. 2:14. “to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind” Luke 4:8.
- It is good to read the Bible on a journey, or listen to the Bible recording in a car.
 - The eunuch did not understand how to reconcile the Messiah being humiliated and condemned (v.33), yet be a Prince and a Conqueror.
 - He had just returned from Jerusalem where much public opinion was against the Sanhedrin putting Jesus to death. Christians surely would have used this passage (Isaiah 53) to prove that Jesus was the Messiah. Unbelieving Jews claimed that Isaiah 53 referred to Isaiah or Jeremiah, as they still do. The Ethiopian hence asks the question in v.34 “of whom speaketh the prophet this? Of himself, or of some other man?” (v.34). God then sends a messenger, (Job 33:23-30) to guide his thoughtful mind to salvation.
Question: Will you volunteer to be such a messenger?
 - “The meek will he guide in judgment: the meek will he teach his way.” (Psalm 25:9).
 - “In his humiliation his judgment was taken away.” (v.33).
Christ’s deep humiliation and friendless state was followed by an unjust and cruel condemnation where no-one would stand up to plead his cause.
 - “Who shall declare his generation? For his life is taken from the earth.” (v.33).
This is saying, “Who can describe the enormously wicked character of the generation that would kill the innocent Messiah, a deed so enormously wicked that it defies all attempts at description, the killing of heaven’s highest messenger. It is impossible to describe the wickedness of the generation that would do it. “Declare” means to meditate, to think of, then to speak of and announce. ie: Who can think of, who can conceive the enormity of the crimes of that generation in killing the Messiah so as to fully publish or declare them?”
10. Philip PREACHED unto him Jesus (v.32-35).
“Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same Scripture, and preached unto him Jesus.” Don’t let a person sidetrack you from presenting the Gospel. Tell people about Jesus Christ’s death, burial and resurrection as the payment for our sins. (I Corinthians 15:1-4). Paul “Straightaway preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God.” (Acts 9:20). “It pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.” (I Corinthians 1:21).
- Christ was led - he went to the Cross willingly.
 - Christ was like a sheep – innocent and harmless.
 - Christ was taken to the slaughter – a bloody and violent death.
 - Christ was as a lamb dumb – without protest, showing self control.
 - Christ was humiliated.
 - Christ was judged for us.
 - Christ died to pay for our sins.
- Philip had a clear passage to explain Christ’s atoning death.
11. The Eunuch was SAVED (v.36). The Eunuch received Jesus Christ as his Saviour, believing the Gospel, surrendering his heart, his will, his affections and his love to Jesus Christ who died, was buried and rose again to save him.
12. The Eunuch was BAPTISED (v.36-39).
He asked, “See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptised?” (v.36).
He replied, “I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.” (v.37).
- This disproves infant sprinkling and baptism of unbelievers, because it sets forth the condition of Bible baptism as belief that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.
A baby or unbeliever could not state this. Hence, only believers’ baptism is Biblical.
 - Verses 38,39 prove the second condition of Bible baptism is by immersion & not sprinkling: “They went down both into the water, Philip and the Eunuch; and he baptised him.

And when they were come up out of the water." (v 38,39).

Being baptised shows our intention to be dedicated to Christ and His service.

All saved people should be baptised.

Historical Note: At the time of John and for some time previously, Jews administered baptism or washing to those who were proselytes from pagan religions. This came from Numbers 19:7 "he shall bathe his flesh in water". This was done to signify that they renounced the errors and worship of the pagans. It signified their becoming pure by embracing the true religion, cleansing their sins, and purifying them for the service of Jehovah. John baptised, thus calling the Jews to a new dispensation, showing people's fitness for the new pure reign of the Messiah. John applied an old ordinance for a new purpose. It denoted a putting away of impurity and purposing to be pure in heart and life, eg: Naaman washing (2 Kings 8). See Luke 7:30 where "the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God.....being not baptised of him".

13. The Eunuch REJOICED. "He went on his way rejoicing." (v.39).

When people get saved they rejoice. When a sinner repents, there is great joy among:

- The Angels in heaven;
- The person himself;
- Other believers.

The reason for soul winning is so that people will rejoice and have the happiness of a home in heaven, their sins forgiven, and freedom from the guilt and slavery of sin.

The Eunuch had joy because:

- His mind was enlightened on understanding a perplexing Scripture;
- He was clear and convinced that Jesus Christ was the Messiah;
- He was now reconciled to God;
- He was joyful because he promptly did his duty of being baptised.

If we wish to be happy and joyful, if we want to avoid gloom and depression, we must do our duty at once. If we delay till tomorrow what we should do today, we may expect to be troubled with melancholy thoughts and we will lose our peace with God.

To have peace with God, we must do promptly exactly what God requires.

Question: Will you obey Christ's command (Matthew 28:19) and be baptised today?

14. Philip KEPT ON PREACHING (v.40). "Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Caesarea." (v.40).

When you lead someone to Christ, lead another and another. Don't stop. Seek to lead their friends to Christ, as a way of following up your disciples. Learn soul-winning.

It is the reason why God put us here. Philip was found at Azotus, the Greek name for Ashdod, 30 miles north of Gaza. Ashdod was where the Ark of God was taken by the Philistines and where Dagon fell down before it. It was a sea port. "He preached in all the cities....." These were Joppa, Lydda, Ashkelon, and Arimathea lying along the coast, until he came to Caesarea. We should start more fundamental churches all over Sydney, New South Wales, Australia and the world.

Question: Will you surrender to go to Bible College to train to start a church?

Conclusion: From this account we learn that:

- God prepares people's minds and hearts to receive the truth.
- God does this with rich and poor, noble and ordinary people.
- We should study the Bible to become a better soul winner as Philip did.
- We should be ready at all times to speak to sinners.
- We should not be afraid of speaking to the great, to rich, or to strangers. Their hearts may be open. We will only discover this if we offer them a tract and start a conversation.
- We should do our soul winning duty promptly, as Philip did, without delay, hesitation or excuses. Pray for someone to lead to Christ this week.

Challenge: a) If you are not saved, receive Christ as Saviour now.

b) If you are saved, get baptised.

c) If you are saved, become a soul winner.

d) If you are backslidden, confess your sins to God and get out serving God.

157. Fathers: – Train up Your Children

Bible Reading: Proverbs 22:6; Genesis 18:17-19.

Aim: For fathers to see that it is their God given responsibility to train up their children in God's ways and not to abdicate this important role.

Introduction: "Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old (or as he is growing old) he will not depart from it." (Proverbs 22:6).

God has appointed the father as the spiritual guardian of the home. Often where you see delinquent, rebellious children, the problem can often be traced to fathers who failed to:

- 1) Properly inspect their child's spiritual development, and
- 2) Failed to correct their children's wrong behaviour, and
- 3) Failed to train their children in right behaviour.

Excuses fathers sometimes give for not training their children in God's ways are:

- 1) I'm too busy making money at work.
- 2) I'll leave it up to my wife.
- 3) They are too old now for me to tell them what to do. WRONG: While they are alive and especially living in your house, you must give them guidance. They need it most as teens.
- 4) They won't listen to me. Answer: You should have trained them right when they were younger. This sounds like Lot's sons-in-law. Withhold privileges if they disobey you.
- 5) I can't rebuke them for sins I did as a teen. Answer: Now that you know what is right, you should teach them from your mistakes, so they don't make the same mistakes.

Fathers, we must be determined to train, and mould our children's character to be the best example of godliness possible. We are not only training them, but we are training them in a pattern of behaviour that will set the standard for generations to come. We must not abdicate our God-given responsibility. If we do, we'll fail to raise up a Godly heritage. We must train them to be servants of God.

I. FATHERS IN THE BIBLE

Let us see some mistakes and sins of fathers in the Bible so we can do what God wants.

Question: What do we learn from God's statements about fathers in the Bible?

- 1) ADAM.
 - a) Adam's first failure was to please his wife instead of pleasing God. By eating the fruit, he knew he was taking Eve's side and disobeying God.
 - b) Adam's second failure was that he was not involved in helping his sons resolve their spiritual dispute about the right sacrifice to please God. He failed to train his eldest son Cain in God's ways, so as a result he lost both of his sons: one in death, the other in exile to the land of Nod. Satan wants your eldest child because they set the example and are looked up to by younger children.

What the eldest child gets away with, the younger children think they can get away with.

Children constantly push the boundaries, wanting to know what is acceptable to you.

If you clearly set the boundaries and expect them to obey you, they feel secure and interpret this as love on your part, even when you think that you are being harsh.

- 2) ABRAHAM. Genesis 18:17-19. God said of Abraham:
 - i) Memory verse: "I know him, that he will command his children, and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the Lord..." (Genesis 18:19).

Question: Will you command your children to keep the way of the Lord, or will you let the world, flesh, devil and TV train your children in evil ways?

If you don't train them in God's ways, then wrong values will fill the vacuum.

No one can fulfil the role that a dad is supposed to. Preachers can't, schools can't, mothers can't. Children constantly look to their father as a role model as to how they should behave.

Question: What kind of role model are you for them?

Question: How are you preparing them to be godly parents and spouses in the future?

Question: What training goals have you written down and implemented with your children.

- ii) Abraham sought a godly wife for his son Isaac. (Genesis 24:1-4).

Question: Do you help your children to find a Godly spouse?

3) LOTH was one of the worst fathers in the Bible. He was a disaster. His demise probably started when he separated his family from the Godly influence of Abraham. He thought that he didn't need Abraham and that he could get on quite well without his Godly influence.

He ignored all the good things Abraham had done for him and allowed money to be the cause of a fight and a split. Lesson: Don't separate from sound, godly people. Notice what he did wrong:

i) He sided with his fighting workers against Godly Abraham, rather than living together peacefully. (Genesis 13:5-13). Note: The devil will try to get you to have a fight with the preacher in order to get you and your family out of a good church. Don't fall for it. It's a preacher's job to warn you when you are going wrong. Don't shoot the messenger, he's just doing what God wants him to do.

ii) He chose to put money ahead of loyalty to God and Abraham.

He thought he could make more money in Sodom than by staying with Abraham.

Question: Do you as a father put money ahead of God?

iii) He chose fellowship with wicked sinners in order to make this money. (v.13).

iv) He offered his 2 virgin daughters to be abused by depraved homosexuals. (v.7)

v) His daughters and sons-in-law despised him for pleading with them to flee Sodom. (19:14).

vi) He got drunk and committed incest with his daughters. (19:30-38).

vii) He lost his wife and 2 other daughters in the destruction of Sodom.

4) ISAAC – Genesis 26:34,35.

Isaac made the following failures in fatherhood.

i) He gave little or no guidance to his sons in choosing a wife. Esau married Judith and Bashemath (both Hittite women) which were a grief of mind to Isaac and Rebekah.

ii) Rebekah had to push Isaac to tell Jacob to find a Godly wife. Genesis 27:46 and 28:1,2.

Parents, you must constantly tell your children to only marry a godly partner.

Constantly pray with them about this. Take them to conferences where they are likely to meet godly young people.

iii) Isaac placed more importance on food (savoury meat) than on the family blessing being done properly (27:1-4). Question: Dads, do you love food more than your children's spiritual development?

iv) Isaac did not seek to reconcile his conflicting sons (27:41-43). Isaac abdicated, leaving Rebekah to fix the problem. She advised Jacob to leave home and flee to Haran. They never saw Jacob again.

5) JACOB failed to properly train his sons in God's ways.

i) His sons conspired to murder Joseph (37:18). Jacob didn't notice this, nor did he rebuke their envy and hatred of Joseph.

ii) They lied to Jacob that Joseph had been killed by a wild animal (37:20,30-32).

iii) Judah fornicated with Hirah and fathered 3 sons out of wedlock (Er, Onan and Shelah) (38:1-5).

Er was wicked, so God killed him. Onan displeased God, so God killed him also.

6) ELI failed to train his sons in God's ways.

i) His sons were gluttons. I Samuel 2:13,14.

ii) His sons were wicked unbelievers. I Samuel 2:12-17.

iii) His sons were fornicating with women who came to worship God at the Tabernacle. I Sam. 2:22-25
Eli failed to train them correctly or rebuke them. A man of God came and rebuked Eli for honouring his sons above God. (I Samuel 2:27-29,34).

Lesson: If we don't train and rebuke our children, we are honouring our sons above God.

7) SAMUEL failed to train his sons in God's ways.

i) His sons took bribes. I Samuel 8:1-6.

ii) His sons obtained money by unjust means.

iii) His sons perverted judgment and lost the trust of the people.

This led to Israel's elders asking Samuel for a king to rule them rather than Samuel's ungodly sons ruling them.

Lesson: Preachers must be especially careful to train their children in God's ways and not to neglect them for God's work. Do both. Many preachers have done well in the ministry, but lost their children to the devil.

8) DAVID – by sinning with Bathsheba and murdering Uriah, he taught his sons to rebel against him, just as he rebelled against God.

The following failures happened with David’s sons who followed their father’s example.

- i) Amnon committed incest with Tamar (2 Samuel 13:1,2,14,15,21,22).
- ii) Absalom killed Amnon (2 Samuel 13:23-29).
- iii) David failed to be reconciled to Absalom, leading to the rift growing worse. (2 Samuel 13:37-39; 14:21-24).
- iv) Absalom rebelled against David as David rebelled against God (2 Samuel 15:7-12).
- v) Joab killed Absalom. (2 Samuel 18:14).
- vi) Solomon ordered Benaiah to kill his half-brother Adonijah. (I Kings 2:24).

9) SOLOMON failed to train Rehoboam to be a wise and godly King.

Rehoboam caused a rebellion by harshly threatening the people with whippings and increased taxes.

Solomon’s sins of marrying many ungodly pagan wives introduced paganism and idolatry into Israel.

This destroyed the nation. (I King 11:1-9).

10) MOSES failed to circumcise his son, so, on the way to Egypt God met him and sought to kill him. (Exodus 4:22-26).

11) HEROD gave his stepdaughter Herodias anything she wanted, so she asked for and got John the Baptist’s head in a charger. (Matthew 14:1-11).

John the Baptist turned the hearts of the fathers to their children. (Malachi 4:5,6).

III. REQUIREMENTS OF A FATHER

Teach their children to have a close relationship with God.

Dads must have a close relationship with God themselves.

To guide their children in these areas:

- tell them when they are wrong and why
- tell them daily that you love them
- spend quality time with them
- pray with them daily
- pray for them daily
- read and explain the Bible to them
- warn them of dangers and sins of the world
- train them to marry a godly partner
- equip them to raise up the next godly generation
- teach them not to make ungodly friends
- teach them to memorise Scripture
- teach them not to look at alcohol
- teach them to stay pure sexually
- teach them to flee rock music
- Train them to seek out the most Godly friends
- Train them to shun evil companions
- Train them to be a soul-winner and a Bible teacher
- Train them to be courteous, well mannered and respectful
- Train them to study the Bible on their own
- Train them in Godly dating standards
- Train them not to look at bad TV programs
- Don’t abdicate and leave a child to his own devices
- Set clear boundaries
- Insist that they get home on time
- As teens become older, make them agree that they will only go to places that would be pleasing to Christ and yourselves (get this in writing. Ask them to sign it).
- Encourage your wife to Home school them using the A.C.E. curriculum.
- Send them to the most fundamental Bible College. eg: Hyles-Anderson College, Indiana.

158. Three Kinds of Christians (Gaius, Diotrophes, Demetrius)

Bible Reading: III John 1-14.

Aim: To preserve the unity and peace of God in a church by studying 3 kinds of believers.

Introduction: Today many churches are being destroyed from within by the sins of professing Christians. One person wants the pre-eminence, so he has to put others down. This results in loss of:

a) Love to Christ, b) Peace of God, c) Freedom to serve God, d) Joy in service, e) Soul Winning drive
Each Christian is a good or a bad witness. We are either helping or hindering the truth.

Ask ourselves: "Are we part of the problem or are we part of the solution?" III John was addressed to Gaius, a church leader. John discusses Diotrophes and Demetrius. Consider each man's ways:

1. GAIUS the Encourager. (v.1-8).

i) Gaius was well beloved (v.1) and beloved (v.5).

ii) Gaius was Spiritually Healthy (v.2).

John wished that Gaius would be as physically healthy as he was spiritually healthy.

Spiritual health results from:

a) Nourishing ourselves daily with God's Word.

b) Exercising yourself unto Godliness (I Timothy 4:6-7).

c) Keeping ourselves clean (II Corinthians 7:1) and avoiding contamination and pollution of the world.

d) Resting in the Lord and renewing our strength by close personal fellowship with Him. Mat.11:28-30

iii) Gaius was a good testimony (v.3-4). Why? Because God's truth was in him and he obeyed it. (v.3). We must digest God's Word and make it part of us in order to have a good testimony. (Jeremiah 15:16)

iv) Gaius was a soul-winner and a Disciple-maker.

John here gives the key to joy in the Christian life (v.4). It is soul winning and disciple making.

"I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth." (v.4).

It is a) Winning people for Christ, and

b) Teaching them to walk in God's truth. Nothing else gives greater joy.

Gaius may have been one of John's converts and disciples.

v) Gaius was a faithful man. (v.5). Gaius helped both the brethren and strangers.

Question: What motivates us to have a practical ministry to other believers?

a) Desire to honour God (v.6). "after a Godly sort" means "worthy of God, as it befits God."

Gaius showed hospitality to strangers who bore witness of Gaius' charity before the church.

Some of these strangers may have been travelling gospel preachers.

b) Desire to help win the lost. This is achieved as we help God's servants do this task. (v.7).

These travelling missionaries took no support from unsaved Gentiles, only from believers.

c) Desire to obey God. "We ought to receive such." (v.8). God wants us to help Gospel preachers who bring salvation to others. Let us open our hearts to those who teach God's truth.

2. DIOTROPHEs the Dictator. (v.9-11).

Many churches have members who insist on being boss. A pastor or minister means "servant". Christ's disciples argued over who would be greatest in the kingdom. (Matthew 18:1-6). Jesus reminded them that their model for ministry was not government officials, but Christ who became a humble servant.

What are we told about Diotrophes?

a) He loved to have the pre-eminence. (v.9). He wanted to be number one. His motive was pride.

b) He would not receive John (v.9). He could have learned so much from the Apostle John.

Why did he reject John? Because John challenged his right to be a dictator in the church. (v.10a).

Diotrophes was proud and sought self-glory. Diotrophes would not receive him. (v.10a).

c) He lied about John: "prating against us with malicious words," (v.10) means bringing false charges against us. Do not believe all you are told about people. Some people twist the truth.

d) Diotrophes rejected John's associates. "neither doth he himself receive the brethren." (v.10).

e) Diotrophes disciplined those that disagreed with him by casting them out of the church. He was destroying his own local church through his pride, fear and insensitivity. He knew nothing of love.

Lesson: "Follow not that which is evil, but that which is good." (v.11).

Follow good and you'll follow God. A test of "goodness" is: "Is this beneficial to all?"

3. DEMETRIUS the Good Example (v.12-14). Demetrius had a good report of:

- a) all men; b) the truth of the Bible; c) John himself.

Demetrius was “an example, a model, an ideal Christian worthy to be imitated.”

Question: Is it right to follow men? Yes, only as they follow Christ. “Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an example.” Philippians 3:17.

“Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.” I Corinthians 11:1.

By our good example, we will “consider one another to provoke unto love & to good works” Heb.10:24

Conclusion: John concludes that he would soon visit the church and speak face-to-face with the people. This thought of accountability is important.

John wishes them peace, something that is hard to enjoy when Diotrophes wanted to be a boss and expel people. In spite of trouble, we can still have the peace of God.

Greet the friends by name. John calls them friends. It’s good to be a friend-maker as well as a soul winner. Diotrophes was so dictatorial that he had fewer and fewer friends.

159. Good Things We Should Seek

Bible Reading: Nehemiah 2:1-20 (v.10).

Aim: To be like Nehemiah who came to seek after the welfare of God’s people and God’s work.

I. What should we seek in life?

1. Seek the LORD, His face and His strength continually. II Chronicles 7:14; Ezra 8:22.
2. Seek the welfare of God’s people. Nehemiah 2:10.
3. Ezra prepared his heart to seek the law of the Lord, to do it, and to teach in Israel. Ezra 7:10.
4. Peace “Depart from evil, do good, seek peace and pursue it.” Psalm 34:12-14.
5. Wisdom “They that seek me (wisdom) early shall find me.” Proverbs 8:17. (Isaiah 1:17)
6. Judgment = justice, helping less fortunate. “Learn to do well, seek judgment, relieve the oppressed.”
7. King James Bible (Received Text) Preserved, Inerrant Bibles. Amos 8:11,12. Amos prophesied that a time will come when people will not be able to find the Word of God in the North (Russia, Turkey) or East (Muslim countries). In the West and South it is available.
8. Righteousness, meekness. Zephaniah 2:3 “Seek ye the Lord,..seek righteousness, seek meekness.”
9. Truth. Jeremiah 5:1. “if there be any that seeketh the truth.”
10. Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness. Matthew 6:33.
11. “The Son of Man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.” Luke 19:10.
We should seek the salvation of lost sinners here and all over the world.
12. Honour from God. “How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only?” John 5:44.
13. Eternal glory, Honour, Immortality. Romans 2:6,7.
14. Others Welfare. “Let no man seek his own, but another’s wealth.” I Corinthians 10:24.
15. Edify the Church. “Seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.” I Corinthians 14:12.
16. New Jerusalem City. “For we have no continuing city, but we seek one to come.” Hebrews 13:14
17. Salvation of others “I please all men in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of many that they may be saved.” I Corinthians 10:33.
18. Worshippers of God. “the Father seeketh such to worship Him.” John 4:23.
19. Love. “He that covereth a transgression seeketh love.” Proverbs 17:9.
20. Fruit. “These three years I come seeking fruit on this tree.” Luke 13:7.
21. To Dwell in the House of the Lord and to behold the beauty of the Lord.” Psalm 27:4.

II. Wrong things we should NOT seek after

- 1) Wizards. Leviticus 19:31
- 2) A sign. Mark 8:12
- 3) To save his life. Luke 17:33
- 4) Not mine own glory. John 8:50
- 5) All seek their own. Phil. 2:21
- 6) Mixed wine. Proverbs 23:30,35
- 7) Food, drink, clothing. Matt. 6:32
- 8) “not my own will”. John 5:30
- 9) Do I seek to please man? Galatians 1:10
- 10) Charity seeketh not her own. I Corinthians 13:5
- 11) Rebellion. Prov.17:11
- 12) Your heart and eyes. (Num.15:39.)

Conclusion: What are you seeking after, the things of God and eternity, or the things of man and earth?

160. Stephen

Bible Reading: Acts 7:48-60.

Aim: To be filled with good things as Stephen was.

Introduction: What fills your mind? Things of God or things of the world? Stephen is a great example to each of us as to what we should be filled with.

Question: What are these things? He was a man:

- 1) Full of Faith (Acts 6:5,8). Faith binds us to God. Faith has three qualities:
 - a) It is the act of the will in receiving Christ as Saviour (John 1:12). Saving faith.
 - b) It is living in obedience to God. (Acts 5:29,32). Walking by faith.
 - c) It is the attitude of the heart in leaving things in God's hands (II Cor.4:13,14-18). Faith rest. To be full of faith means that there is no room for doubt, nor fear in the heart, just as there is no room for anything else in a full vessel.
- 2) Full of the Holy Spirit (Acts 6:5). How do we become filled with the Holy Spirit? (Eph.5:18).
 - a) Sing (5:19).
 - b) Give thanks (5:20).
 - c) Submit yourselves to one another (5:21)
 - d) Children, obey your parents (6:1)
 - e) Be strong in the Lord (6:10).
 - f) Put on the whole armour of God (6:11).
 - g) Pray always (6:18).
 - h) Fill yourself with Scripture.
- 3) Full of Power (Acts 6:8). Power is the ability to do things.

God never asks us to do things without giving us the power to do them.
With every command there is a promise. "Ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost" Acts 1:8
We need power to share the Gospel, to have compassion on the needy, to teach God's Word, to rebuke error, and to edify others. We are filled with God's power as we are filled with God's Word and God's Spirit. "Truly I am full of power by the Spirit of the Lord, and of judgment, and of might, to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin." Micah 3:8.
- 4) Full of Light (Acts 6:15). The light within caused Stephen's face to shine as an angel's face.

Sin makes us ugly, but being filled with Christ makes us beautiful.
Matthew 5:16 "Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works..."
II Corinthians 4:4 He had the light of the glorious gospel of Christ.
II Corinthians 4:6 He had the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in his life.
- 5) Full of Scripture (Acts 7:1-50). As we read Acts chapter 7, we realize that as Stephen related the history of Israel, he was filled with the knowledge of the Bible. If we fill our lives and minds with God's Word, we will be full of power and full of the Holy Spirit.

Question: Are you full of God's Word?
Question: Do you study, memorise and meditate on God's Word daily?
- 6) Full of Courage (Acts 7:51). The face of man and the fear of man did not affect Stephen. He did not hesitate to charge those who were opposing God's work with being "stiffnecked and uncircumcised," of resisting the Holy Ghost, with not keeping God's law, and with murdering Jesus Christ. (v.51-53). His courage and conviction resulted later in the conversion of Saul.

Question: Are you full of courage for Christ?
- 7) Full of Love (Acts 7:60). The stones that the persecutors hurled at Stephen broke his head, but they could not break his heart of love for Israel. His lips were bloodied with the blood of persecution, but they could not stop the pouring forth of love's intercession. When the love of God fills our hearts and minds, it will enable the servant of God to do greater things for Christ. "The love of Christ constrains us." (2 Corinthians 5:14).
- 8) Full of Wisdom (Acts 6:3,10). Stephen was full of wisdom because he spent time with God in the Bible, in prayer, in preaching the gospel, and in humbly serving God's people.

Conclusion: As Christ is sufficient to carry Stephen through martyrdom, so Christ is sufficient to carry us through every situation of life. Let us seek to be full of these 8 qualities.

161. Priscilla and Aquilla- Model Christian Workers

Bible Reading: Acts 18:1-28, (v.1,2,18,26).

Aim: To become model Christian workers as were Priscilla and Aquilla.

Introduction: Not much is said about Priscilla and Aquilla, but what is revealed teaches us many important truths about soul-winning, disciple-making and church planting.

What do we learn from their lives that will enable us to be better workers for Jesus Christ?

1. They were persecuted and driven from Rome. Acts 18:1.

Every Godly Christian will be persecuted at some time in their lives. They learned the truth of Hebrews 10:34. They “took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.”

2. They were hospitable to Paul. Acts 18:2,3.

Allowing people to stay at your home is a good way to show kindness to fellow believers. The widow built a prophet’s chamber and allowed Elijah to stay there when on the Lord’s work. A pastor should be given to hospitality. This is a way of showing love to fellow believers.

3. They paid Paul for the tent making work he did while he lodged there, as a means of supporting him. They allowed Paul to help them in tent making. Acts 18:3.

“Wrought” (2038) = to toil as an occupation = to labour for = to work for.

Paul knew what it was like to be a preacher who sometimes had to work at a job to support himself.

They didn’t allow money to cause a fight, but gave generously to help a worker for Christ.

4. They helped Paul in his work as fellow Christian workers. Romans 16:3,4.

Paul needed strong, loyal workers to support him in starting churches. Lesson: We should help those who go out to start churches. Church planters need loyal, committed fellow workers to get churches started. They were good “number 2” workers.

5. They laid down their own necks for his life. Romans 16:3,4. They hazarded their lives and exposed themselves to imminent danger to save the life of Paul. How? They took Paul into their own house to protect him from Jews who persecuted him. The phrase “Lay down the neck” means to lay the head on the block to be cut off with the axe, as by an executioner. Would you do this for your pastor?

6. Their support of Paul had helped Paul start many churches. Romans 16:4.

Many people were greatly blessed by their work. All the churches that Paul planted felt a debt of gratitude to Priscilla and Aquilla for saving the life of the one who led them to Christ.

7. They were church planters and Bible teachers because they allowed a church to meet in their house. Romans 16:5; I Corinthians 16:19. They knew what it was like to not have a church building of their own. They didn’t mind the loss of privacy to provide a place for the new church to meet in.

8. They supported missions by accompanying Paul on a missionary journey to Ephesus to help him start the Ephesian Church. Acts 18:19. It is good if our church members can travel to the mission field to help our workers start churches there. This will give you a greater burden, interest and love for souls.

9. They were responsible church leaders so Paul could leave them in Ephesus to help start and build up the Ephesian church. “He came to Ephesus and left them there.” (Acts 18:19).

Question: Would you be able to properly lead a church if you had to replace a church planter?

10. They recognised Apollos as having potential. Acts 18:24-28. They disciplined him to become a faithful man and a greatly eloquent preacher so that he mightily convinced many others to be saved and to believe that Jesus Christ was the Messiah. Let us see people not as they are, but as what they can become if taught well. Why not attend a good fundamental, soul-winning, Independent Baptist Bible College? We need more labourers. (Matthew 9:36-38).

Question: Who are you discipling and training to become a soul-winner and Bible teacher?

Conclusion: Will you be like Priscilla and Aquilla in these 10 ways? Will you help or hinder your pastor? Will you support or criticise your pastor. Let us all be a blessing to each other as were Priscilla and Aquilla, and God’s work will multiply abundantly worldwide to the glory of Jesus Christ.

162. Seven Bible Valleys

Bible reading: Psalm 23.

Aim: To show that Jesus Christ is with us in life's valleys. We can trust Him to bring us through them.

Introduction: All of us go through valley experiences and mountain top experiences.

We need to stay close to God during:

1) The good times, lest pride of thinking we don't need God causes us to stumble.

2) The rough times, lest we complain, become bitter and stop trusting God.

Of all the Bible texts that have comforted the hearts of troubled souls, strengthened the backs of weary travellers and encouraged the spirits of broken hearts, Psalm 23 has done the most.

A little girl once said: "The Lord is my shepherd, and that's all I want."

Here is our text this morning: Psalm 23:4, "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me:..." (v.4).

You young people look at us older people and say: "Boy, they're about to die."

Well, we get worried about you too. You go out in the car, and we think you are going to die.

You worry about us dying, we worry about you dying. The great reason for the sweetness of life with Jesus Christ is the fact that when we walk through the valleys, Jesus Christ is there.

There are 7 great valleys in the Bible. Let us look at these valleys. In each of these, God is with us.

"Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil." (Psalm 23:4).

1. The Valley of Siddim = The Valley of Sin. (Genesis 14:1-12,10).

This is the valley of the slime pits.

Question: Why is the valley of Siddim called the valley of the slimepits?

Answer: Because the Valley of Siddim is on the very spot where the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah were located. God saw the wickedness, sensuality, sodomy, adultery and drunkenness of these wicked, vile cities. God rained fire and brimstone on these evil cities.

This valley is a valley where sin abounded. This valley represents the valley of sin in our lives.

Question: Did you know that when you go to the wicked nightclubs, live it up and go to the depths of sin, that God is watching you?

Did you know that when you have hit bottom, when nobody else cares, and when you've spent all, and then you come to your senses and say: "I will rise and go to my Father", that God is always there?

God is there this morning. If you are not saved, He is there knocking on the door of your heart.

He wants to save you. He wants to forgive your every sin. He wants to come into your life.

He wants to take you to heaven when you die. He wants to make you a new creature.

He wants to send His Holy Spirit to indwell you. God gave His Son to die for sinners like you.

Jesus went to the cross for you. It doesn't matter how deep into sin you've gone. He is there. Are you in the Valley of Siddim? Are you in deep, awful sin? Have you gone to the bottom? Is life empty? Are you without anybody who seems to care? Then God says "I am here." This morning, He knocks on your door and says "I will forgive your sin, I will make you my child, I will write your name in heaven."

Oh dear unsaved friend living in the Valley of Siddim, come to Christ this morning. He is here.

2. The Valley of Eschol = The Valley of Decision. (Deuteronomy 1:21-26).

Eschol is located just inside the Promised Land. Remember the large bundles of grapes carried on the spies shoulders from Eschol? When the Israelites came to the Promised Land at Kadesh-Barnea, they appointed 12 spies to search out the Promised Land. They returned reporting that the land flowed with milk and honey, and that it was a land of giants. The grapes they brought back were so big that it took 2 men to carry one bunch on a pole. These grapes were picked from the Valley of Eschol.

Question: What is the Valley of Eschol?

Answer: It was where the Hebrews faced a decision in their lives. It was Eschol where they had to decide whether to obey God and move into Canaan or go back to wander in the wilderness for 40 years.

In Eschol they decided whether to be their fullest and best for God, or to be less than what God wanted. The Valley of Eschol is the valley of decision.

My friends, now you are in the valley of decision. God wants to help you make the right choices.

Surrender your whole life to God. Ask God to lead you to do His will in the Valley of Decision.

3. The Valley of Kidron = The Valley of Suffering. (Mark 14:32-38).

It is the valley on the east, outside the Golden Gate of Jerusalem. It is the valley between Jerusalem and the Mount of Olives. It is where Gethsemane is located, where Jesus prayed in anguish before His crucifixion. It is also called the Valley of Jehoshaphat. (Joel 3:12-16).

Question: What is the Valley of Kidron?

Answer: A cemetery is there. Samson is buried there. Samuel is buried there. James is buried there.

Absalom is buried there. A Muslim cemetery is there, thinking that will prevent Christ returning there.

This is the valley of suffering. Many of you are in this valley this morning. Our Lord Jesus Christ is in the valley of suffering with you. To some people, life is all a party, but it won't always be that way.

The day will come when you'll have problems, burdens, heartaches and valleys, many caused by you:

a) Mixing with the wrong crowd, b) Committing sins, c) Going your own way rather than God's way.

d) Marrying or living with an unbeliever. When the valleys come, the Lord Jesus Christ is with you.

Question: Are you in the valley of sin this morning? He is there.

Question: Are you in the valley of decision? He is there.

Question: Are you in the valley of suffering, heartache, tears and brokenness? He is there.

4. The Valley of Elah = The Valley of Battle. (I Samuel 17:1-4).

David met Goliath in the Valley of Elah.

Israel and David faced and fought Goliath and the Philistines in the Valley of Elah.

David slung a stone at Goliath, hit him in the forehead and killed him in the valley of Elah.

Israel gained a great victory over the Philistines in the valley of Elah.

This is the valley of battle. As well as God being in the valley of sin, decision, and suffering, He is also with you in the valley of life's battles.

Question: Are you facing some battle this morning? Is there some temptation you feel you cannot resist? God is there. "There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man:" I Cor.10:13.

Question: Do people make fun of you for being a Christian?

It can be a battle everyday. Lean on God. He is there in the valley of battle. Pray, read your Bible, be at church, continue in the battle for souls, keep trusting God to bring you through.

5. The Valley of Achor = The Valley of Discipline, Chastening for Unbelievers. (Joshua 7:24-26).

This is the valley where Achan was stoned to death for taking the accursed thing from Jericho.

God said to Israel; "Don't take anything in Jericho, it is accursed, it is dedicated to God."

Achan took gold, silver and coats. Sin came into the camp. The battle of Ai was lost because Israel tolerated sin in the camp unknowingly. God wants us to repent of our sinful habits.

Joshua called the people together, and cast lots to see who had sinned. The lot fell on Achan.

Israel stoned Achan to death as God commanded.

Application: When we sin, God must discipline us to keep us from deeper sin and trouble.

Even in the valley of discipline, God is with us. He disciplines us because He loves us. Hebrew 12:5-15

The Lord Jesus Christ is with us in the valley of Siddim (sin), Eschol (decision), Kidron (suffering), Elah (battle), and in the valley of Achor (Chastening).

6. The Valley of Gehenna = The Valley of Death, (Jeremiah 19:5,6).

Gehenna is the burning garbage dump at the south end of Jerusalem just outside the wall.

Fire burned the garbage continually. Jesus described hell as burning Gehenna forever.

For those of you who die without Christ, this is called the valley of death. Christ will not be there.

If you have rejected Christ all your life, you will have your way and you'll go to a Christless eternity in the lake of fire pictured by Gehenna's burning garbage.

If you have received Christ as your Saviour, you'll have no fear of death, because Jesus will be with you in death as He has been with you in life.

If you suffer, He is there. If you are tempted, He is there. If you are in battle, He is there.

If you are in a decision, He is there. If you are in death, He is there (if you are saved).

7. The Valley of Jezreel/ Megiddo = The Valley of Armageddon. (Zechariah 12:10,11).

The armies of the world will gather here for the great end time battle.

The Lord Jesus shall descend from heaven at this valley. Zechariah 14:1-5.

From the day of your salvation and throughout eternity, the Lord Jesus Christ will be with you.

163. The Lord Is My Shepherd. Psalm 23:1-6; John 10:1-18,26-30.

Aim: To see how Jesus Christ, the Good Shepherd, cares for us.

I. What is the relationship between a sheep and its Shepherd?

- a) Eastern shepherds give names to their sheep, so that each sheep recognises his own name and comes when called. (John 10:1-5).
- b) A sheep is the most helpless of animals. He needs someone to lead him. We cannot defend ourselves from Satan without the Good Shepherd, Jesus Christ.
- c) If a sheep continually runs away, the shepherd gently breaks its leg. The shepherd will then carry the sheep everywhere till its leg heals. After this the sheep always stays close to the shepherd. This is why God disciplines us.
- d) A sheep needs a fold (a local church) for shelter overnight in order to be safe from the attacks of wild beasts (Satan). (John 10:1,7). The shepherd sleeps across the only doorway of the fold to guard the sheep.

II. What Good Things Does Jesus Christ (our Good Shepherd) have for us?

1. Ownership: The Lord is my Shepherd. (v.1). Jesus Christ is our:

- a) Good Shepherd, who gives His life for the sheep. (John 10:11).
- b) Great Shepherd, who rose from the dead. (Hebrew 13:20).
- c) Chief Shepherd, who is coming again to reward faithful shepherds with “crowns of glory.” I Peter 5:4
A Shepherd watches his sheep at all times. We should watch and care for each other. Proverbs 27:23.

2. Provision: I shall not want. (v.1). God will supply things needful for us. Psalm 34:10; 84:11.
What needs do you have? Take them to God in prayer. (Psalm 37:4).

3. Rest: He maketh me to lie down in green pastures. (v.2). It’s great to have a worry-free rest.
“Lie down” = rest in a peaceful life with God, free from sin and violence.
“in green pastures” = pleasant nourishing places.

4. Refreshment: He leadeth me beside still waters. (v.2). A saved person’s life can be a life of peace, stillness, quietness and comfort if we obey God’s Word. (Psalm 107:29).

5. Restoration: He restoreth my soul. (v.3). When your mind, emotions and willpower weaken, God restores us to peace, strength and blessings.

6. Guidance: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name’s sake. (v.3).

7. Courage: I will fear no evil (v.4). Why? Because of:

a) Comfort: For thou art with me. (Psalm 139:5).

b) Protection: Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. (v.4). The rod was a heavy club shepherds carried to protect their sheep. If a wild animal approached, the shepherd hit the beast with the club.

c) Rescue from trouble: The staff was used to lift the sheep out of a hole or from bushes.

Question: What problems and fears do you have?

God can rescue you from trouble and protect you in trouble. This extends to the worst trouble possible: “though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil....”

8. Preparation and Providence: Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies.

(v.5). Table prepared = a feast of blessing and rejoicing, even though people around us may be against us. Other tables are: a) Lord’s table, b) Table in the wilderness (Psalm 78:19), c) Marriage supper of the Lamb in heaven. (Psalm 78:72; Psalm 81:13-16).

9. Honour: Thou anointest my head with oil. (v.5).

Olive oil was used to anoint prophets, priests and Kings for service.

We are a “royal priesthood.” (I Peter 2:9). David was anointed King three times.

10. Abundant Blessing: My cup runneth over. (v.5).

“What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits towards me?” (Psalm 116:12).

Most of our countries blessings are due to our Christian past.

11. Goodness and Mercy: Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life. (v.6).

Psalm 27:13,14; 31:19; 34:8. Goodness takes care of my steps. Mercy takes care of my stumbles.

12. Fellowship: I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever. (v.6). This tells us of the importance of church involvement. We will fellowship now and forever in heaven with God and believers.

164. What A Spiritual Man Does

Bible Reading: I Corinthians 3:1-8 ; Romans 8:1-9.

Aim: To become spiritual people, constantly controlled by the Holy Spirit in all we say, think and do.

Introduction: 3 kinds of people are natural (unsaved), spiritual (Godly Christian), and carnal (disobedient Christian) (I Cor.2:12-16). Which kind are you? What actions describe a spiritual man?

1. Compares spiritual things with spiritual things. I Corinthians 2:13.

He compares scripture in one part of the Bible with scriptures in other parts of the Bible to determine the context and the correct meaning of any passage. He does not take verses out of context as cults do

2. Discerns and judges all things. I Corinthians 2:14,15.

“He that is spiritual judgeth all things.” This verse teaches that we must judge all things as right or wrong. Tolerance of error is the doorway to all error. A common error today is that you can’t judge anything or anyone’s wrong behaviour. This comes from a misinterpretation of Matthew 7:1 which says: “Judge not that ye be not judged.” The correct understanding of this verse is that you can’t always correctly judge someone’s motives. Don’t judge based on human thinking, but on scripture.

“Do not ye judge them that are within (the church).” I Corinthians 5:12.

“Who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.” Hebrews 5:14.

3. Sows spiritual things. I Corinthians 9:11,12.

“If we have sown unto you spiritual things.” These spiritual things Paul sowed were preaching the gospel, Bible teaching, planting churches, making disciples, etc.

4. Acknowledges that Paul’s writings are the commandments of the Lord. I Corinthians 14:37.

We are under the New Covenant and the Laws of Christ, and not under the Old Mosaic Covenant.

5. Restores backsliders in a spirit of meekness. Galatians 6:1.

This is a hard thing for most Christians to do, due to fear of confrontation. A spiritual person bears one another’s burdens.

6. Sings Psalms and Hymns and spiritual songs. Ephesians 5:19.

A spiritual man will sing spiritual songs. A worldly, carnal or natural man will sing worldly songs.

7. Wrestles against spiritual wickedness in high places. Ephesians 6:10-18.

He does this as he puts on the whole armour of God. He also prays in the spirit and watches (v.18).

8. Seeks wisdom and spiritual understanding. Colossians 1:9.

A spiritual man seeks to understand all things of life from a spiritual, Biblical point of view. He asks, Why do things happen? He sees that things happen due to Bible truths being violated or obeyed.

9. Takes his place (as a brick) in a local church, pulling his weight as a brick supports a house wall.

(I Peter 2:5). This person works together with other believers, as a brick is locked in place with other bricks. He offers up spiritual sacrifices to God. Spiritual believers constantly sacrifice their time, effort, prayers and money to promote God’s work.

10. He a) Bridles his tongue.

b) Visits the fatherless and widows.

c) Keeps himself unspotted from the world. James 1:26,27.

The Spiritual man has these blessings in Romans 8:

i) no condemnation (v.1).

ii) free from the law of sin and death. (v.2).

iii) fulfils the righteousness of the law. (v.4).

iv) minds the things of the Spirit. (v.5).

v) lives a life of victory and peace. (v.6,13).

vi) calls God “Father.” (v.15).

vii) suffers with Christ now and will be glorified with Christ later. (v.17).

viii) reckons that this world’s sufferings are not worthy to be compared with heaven’s glory. (v.18).

ix) groans within himself at this world’s wickedness, waiting eagerly for heaven. (v.22,23).

x) knows that all things work together for good to them that love God. (v.28).

Conclusion. “To be spiritually minded is life and peace.” Romans 8:6. Are you spiritual, carnal or natural? Are you doing what a Spiritual man does?

165. "Son, Go Work Today In My Vineyard."

Bible reading: Matthew 21:28-32.

Aim: For every believer to go work TODAY in building up God's local churches.

Introduction: Jesus here spoke of a man who had two sons, both of whom he asked to go work today in my vineyard. One said, "Yes", and didn't go. The other said "No", and later changed his mind and decided to obey his dad.

The challenge for us today is "which group do you belong to?" Jesus Christ's first Century application was to the Pharisees who said, "Yes, I'll go, but didn't go", as the first group, and to the Publicans and harlots who said "No" but later obeyed as the second group.

Let's look at four parts to this message as it applies to us today:

Question: Which group are you in today?

1. WHO? "SON" (Matthew 21:28).

a) Question: Who was supposed to work in his vineyard?

Answer: Son. It doesn't say Experienced son, go work in my vineyard
It doesn't say Trained son, go work in my vineyard
It doesn't say Preacher son, go work in my vineyard
It doesn't say Deacon son, go work in my vineyard
It doesn't say Talented son, go work in my vineyard
It doesn't say Healthy son, go work in my vineyard
It doesn't say Young son, go work in my vineyard
It just says "Son".

Question: Do you think that God is trying to tell us that all of His children are supposed to work in God's vineyard? The fact that He did not differentiate and did not describe a particular type of son.

He didn't say Extrovert son, go work in my vineyard

He didn't say Missionary son, go work in my vineyard

He didn't say Gifted son, go work in my vineyard.

He said SON, meaning everyone in this building who is a son of God, if you have received Christ as Saviour and have been born into God's family and your name is written in heaven, you are His son and you are supposed to go work in God's vineyard.

b) God said, "Son." This means that he was already His son before he worked.

God didn't say, "If you'll work in my vineyard, you'll become my son."

He said, "Son, go work in my vineyard." This teaches that works do not make a person God's son.

In John 1:12 God says, Receive Christ as Saviour and you become God's son.

Ephesians 2:8,9 says, "for by grace are ye saved ... not of works..."

Working for God has nothing to do with whether you go to heaven or not. It may affect what street you live in when you get there, or what kind of house you live in there, and what rewards you get, but first you must become God's son.

Titus 3:5 says, "not by works of righteousness which we have done..."

You're not saved when you believe in what you do for salvation, but in what He (the Lord Jesus Christ) has already done for you on Calvary.

2) WHAT? "GO WORK" (Matthew 21:28).

a) This is not a very popular subject. God's command to us is, "Son, Go Work".

He did not say, "Son, go sit in my vineyard and hear the vine dresser speak three times a week."

He did not say, "Go relax in my lounge," He said, "Go Work."

He did not say, "Go dabble in my work," He said, "Go Work."

He did not say, "Go worship in my sanctuary," He said, "Go Work."

He did not say, "Go have wonderful feelings," He said, "Go Work."

He did not say, "Go serve on my committee," He said, "Go Work."

He did not say, "Go criticise my people," He said, "Go Work."

You are not a good Christian because you go to church, hear a fellow talk, and sing a few songs.

This local church is only a fueling station, where you get energy, strength and courage to go out and work for God all week long. "Son, Go Work today in my vineyard."

•Now, here is the secret:

The secret is not eloquence, its work.

The secret is not courage, its work.

The secret is not talent, its work. You'll fail and fall flat on your face unless you work.

•The less this country works, the more miserable this country will be. You ought to enjoy working. You should like it and want to do it.

•There's nothing so out of place in this world as a Christian who won't "go work" for God. Nothing. You know why? Because God made you to "GO and WORK".

Ephesians 2:10 "For we are his workmanship created in Christ Jesus unto GOOD WORKS which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them."

•If you are not going and working for God, you are not fulfilling the purpose of your creation.

You may as well be a fish that refuses to swim, or a bird that refuses to fly, or a soloist who won't sing, or a dog who won't bark, or a carpenter who won't work with wood.

Like a fire with no glow,

Like a winter with no snow,

Like a river with no flow,

Like a conviction without a "NO."

Like an oar without a row,

Like a wind without a blow,

Like a scale without a doe,

Like a pitcher without a throw,

Like a harvest without a sow,

Like a trip without a go,

Like a kneader without dough,

Like a Santa without a Ho,

Like excess without overflow,

Like a foot without a toe,

Like a gardener without a hoe,

Like a cock without a crow,

Like a con without a pro,

Like a high without a low,

Like a truth without a know,

Like a fast without a slow,

Like a buck without a doe,

Like an actor without a show,

Like above without below,

Like a to without a fro,

Like violins without a bow,

Is a Christian who will not go. God give us Christians who work!

The Lord Jesus Christ said, "Son, go work today in my vineyard."

Go work, what are you doing for God?

Some people will say: "Preacher, when are you going to quit preaching about work?"

Answer: "Oh, probably at the rapture."

Question: Do you know what's wrong with churches in Australia?

Answer: We are spectators instead of participants.

God has not given us one written excuse not to work. You are supposed to work, every man, every woman and every child, go work today in my vineyard.

b) Let's look at some verses on WORK:

John 4:34 Jesus said unto them "My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work."

John 5:17 "but Jesus answered them, "My Father worketh hitherto and I work."" (work."

John 9:4 "I must work the work of him that sent me, while it is day, the night cometh when no man can

John 17:6 "I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do." Will you be able to say this to God?

Acts 13:2 Holy Spirit said, “Separate me Barnabas & Saul for the work whereunto I have called them”

Acts 14:26 “they had been recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.”

Acts 15:38 Mark “departed from them from Pamphylia and went not with them to the work.”

I Corinthians 3:13 “Every man’s work should be made manifest...the fire shall try every man’s work of what sort it is. If any man’s work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

If any man’s work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss.” (I Cor 3:13-15).

1 Corinthians 9:1 “Are not ye my work in the Lord?”

1 Corinthians 15:58 “Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.”

1 Corinthians 16:10 “Timotheus worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.”

2 Corinthians 9:8 “ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work.”

Galatians 6:4 “let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone,”

Ephesians 4:12 “For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the...”

Philippians 2:30 “Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life...”

Colossians 1:10 “walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work.”

1 Thessalonians 1:3 “Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love.”

1 Timothy 3:1 “This is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work.”

1 Timothy 5:10 “Well reported of for good works; if she... have diligently followed every good work.”

2 Timothy 2:21 “If a man therefore purge himself he shall be prepared unto every good work.”

2 Timothy 4:5 “But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, ...”

Titus 3:1 “Put them in mind tobe ready to every good work.”

Hebrews 6:10 “For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love.”

Hebrews 13:21 “Make you perfect in every good work to do his will.”

James 1:25 “...a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.”

1 Peter 1:17 “Father,..judges according to every man’s work, pass the time of your sojourning in fear.”

Rev 22:12 “I come quickly;& my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be”

2 Cor 6:1 “We, as workers together with him, beseech you that ye receive not the grace of God in vain”

3) WHEN? TODAY.

But you say “I worked yesterday.” Good, but God says you are supposed to work again today.

“But I am training to work tomorrow,” God says, “You’re supposed to work today.”

Every Bible college student has to go Soul Winning every week and fill out a report on how many visits he made and how many souls God used him to received Christ as Saviour.

At our Bible college, every student must go Soul Winning every week, or they send him home.

God didn’t say, “Work tomorrow when you get your degree.” He said: “Go work today in my vineyard”.

God didn’t say, “Son, when you grow up, work in my vineyard.” He said, “Son”. That means any saved 6 year old, 10 year old, 13 year old, 30-130 year old is supposed to work for God.

I am sick and fed up with the philosophy that says that there is one kind of Christianity for adults and another kind for teenagers. Go work TODAY.

Not when you are grown up but today.

Not when you have graduated but today.

Not when you are trained but today.

Not when you are an adult but today.

Not when you are older but today.

Not when you are young but today.

The reason for this is that the work needs to be done TODAY.

What about those people who’ll die while you’re wondering. You only have today.

Question: Do you know why some people are sad?

It’s because they have quit working for God and are looking at yesterday or tomorrow.

They say things like: “I remember when...” or “If only I could...”

This is the only sermon I know I’ll ever preach. Today is alive. Live for today.

SON, GO WORK TODAY IN MY VINEYARD.

There are many people who think that because they are children, they don't have to work for God. There are many who think that because they are old, that they don't have to work for God. Work when you are 16, 60, 80, 90 or even 100. I love to see old preachers who are 85 years old, still pounding the pulpit and preaching.

Illustration:

John Newton was so sinful that he sold the shoes of his own baby, took the money and bought liquor to drink for himself. Later he got saved and began to preach. (He is the author of Amazing Grace). When Newton got older he was too feeble to get up the pulpit stairs. He was helped up the stairs to the pulpit. Someone said to the aging Newton, "Don't you think you should give up preaching?" Newton replied: "What! Shall this old African blasphemer ever give up praising the grace of God? As long as there is breath in my body, never, never!" He worked until he died.

You say; "I'm going to get a bus route as soon as I..." That is too late, go work today.

Question: What Are You Doing Now For God?

I would love to make every believer realize that you have to face God someday at the Judgment Seat and give an account to God for what you have done and haven't done.

Dear friend, I love you. You have to face God and give an account for your laziness, indifference and complacency. Yes, you do. What are you doing for God?

- disciple making seminars in your homes with your friends.
- scripture classes in schools.
- bus route and visitation.
- teen Bible study.
- Nursing Home visitations and Soul Winning.

4) WHERE? IN MY VINEYARD.

Son (that's me).

Go work (that's what).

Today (that's when).

In my vineyard (that's where).

Question: What is God's vineyard?

Answer: In a local Church, among God's people, bearing fruit and helping others bear fruit.

Get Involved In Building Up Local Churches. If we all keep busy working for God, and if we keep our hearts right with God, then the fruit-bearing will take care of itself.

Question: What does it mean, "Go work in my vineyard?"

Answer: It means that I am not to criticise any of God's fruit bearing trees.

This means I am not to do anything that would hurt the testimony of the vineyard.

Question: What are you doing for this Church?

Illustration:

Can you imagine an employer who has a worker come to him for his weekly paycheck.

He asks him; "How many hours did you work?" He says; "None, but I didn't smoke." or

"I didn't work any hours but I didn't take a drink 40 hours this week."

Will the boss say; "Well, I'll pay you $10 per hour for not drinking?"

Question: Did anybody here get paid for not drinking or not smoking?

Question: How many hours did you work this week?

"I didn't work any hours but I didn't beat my wife."

Answer: "OK, I'll pay you $400 for not beating your wife."

Question: Do you think God is going to pay you for not beating your wife?

You get paid for what you do for God.

Question: What are you doing for God? You'll never find anything as sweet or as rewarding in your life as working in God's vineyard. Get something to do for God this year and do it with your might.

166. THE FEAR OF GOD

Bible Reading: Psalm 34:11; Jonah 1:9,10.

Aim: To fear God so that we will always make those decisions that please God.

Introduction: When God describes unbelievers in Romans chapter 3, one thing He says of their life of sin is that “there is no fear of God before their eyes.” Romans 3:18.

Unbelievers don’t care about God or others, they mainly care about themselves. They have not yet discovered that God judges their sins in this life and will judge their sins in the next life. They don’t think that they’ll be cast into the lake of fire, nor do they appreciate the horrors of hell, nor the statement, “it is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.”

Question: Do you truly fear God?

Question: What does it mean to fear God?

Question: What will we do if we fear God?

Question: What benefits come to us by fearing God?

Question: Who are some Bible characters that feared God?

I. Kinds of Fear

Question: What does it mean to fear God? The Bible uses the word “Fear” in 7 ways:

1. Holy Fear = Love and respect for the majesty and holiness of God.

In Genesis 20:11, Abraham said, “because I thought, surely the fear of God is not in this place; and they will slay me for my wife’s sake.”

“Then had the churches rest throughout all Judea, Galilee and Samaria, and were edified and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost were multiplied.” Acts 9:31.

“Come ye children, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the Lord.” Psalm 34:11.

David speaks of this fear as clean and pure. (Psalm 19:9).

The Fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom. (Proverbs 1:7; Psalm 111:10).

The Fear of the Lord enables man to:

- a) respect God’s authority (Revelation 14:9),
- b) obey God’s commandments,
- c) turn from evil (Jonah 1:9), and
- d) pursue true holiness (2 Corinthians 7:1; Philippians 2:12).

The believer has this fear of God which is defined as “the proper reverence of a child of God for his Heavenly Father (2 Corinthians 6:17 – 7:1) so that we obey God because we:

- love Him for who He is,
- obey Him because He is good and His plans are best for us, and
- respect Him because of His power to correct and discipline us.”

2. Fear of Unforgiven Sin.

Caused by the work of the law written on unbelievers hearts. This is fear of the guilt of sin.

“which show the work of the law written on their hearts.” (Romans 2:15). Examples include:

- a) Adam’s fear of unforgiven sin when he sinned. (Genesis 3:10).
- b) Felix’s fear of unforgiven sin as he heard Paul preach. (Acts 24:25).
- c) Men who reject the preaching of the Gospel: “A certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation which shall devour the adversaries.” (Hebrews 10:27-31).

3. Fear of Judgment at Christ’s Second Coming.

The wicked will have a fear and terror of God’s judgment at Christ’s Second Coming.

“After three and a half days the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them.” Revelation 11:11.

“They shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth, for fear of the Lord, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.” Isaiah 2:19.

God places a fear of His people in their enemies to protect Israel:

- a) When God smote one million soldiers who attacked Israel during King Asa’s reign (951 BC), the fear of God came upon them. 2 Chronicles 14:14.

b) When a large army from Ammon, Moab and Mt Seir (Jordan) invaded Israel during King Jehoshaphat's reign (896BC), God smote the invaders, and "The fear of God was in all the kingdoms of those countries when they heard that the LORD fought against the enemies of Israel." 2 Chron 20:29

c) 'The land of Judah shall be a terror unto Egypt, every one that maketh mention thereof shall be afraid in himself.' (Isaiah 9:17). Fear is Egypt's response after losing 4 wars to Israel.

4. Fear of Man. Two kinds are:

a) Proper respect for those in authority.

i) Fear to whom fear is due. He beareth not the sword in vain. Romans 13:4,7.

ii) Servants (employees) be subject to your masters with all fear. 1 Peter 2:18.

b) Senseless dread of man.

Israel was told not to fear the Canaanites, but to go and conquer the land. Numbers 14:9.

5. Cowardice and Timidness.

"God has not given us a spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind." II Timothy 1:7.

"Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid." John 14:27.

"The fearful, and unbelieving.." Revelation 21:8. This is people afraid of receiving Christ as Saviour. Jesus said to the disciples in the storm on the Sea of Galilee: "Why are ye so fearful? How is it that ye have no faith?" Mark 4:40.

6. Fear of the Unknown.

"Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things that are coming on the earth."

Luke 21:26. Other examples are the fear of ghosts, or of scary things. (Job 4:14-16).

7. Fear for others and the danger in which they stand.

"I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling." 1 Corinthians 2:3.

"But I fear lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtlety, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ." 2 Corinthians 11:3.

II. People Who Feared The Lord

1) Godly women fear the Lord. Proverbs 31:30.

2) Jonah said to the sailors: "I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, which hath made the sea" Jonah 1:9

3) Joseph said to his brothers: "I fear God". Genesis 42:18.

4) Job was described by Satan to God as: "Doth Job fear God for naught?" Job 1:9.

5) Repentant thief on the Cross said to the other thief, "Dost not thou fear God?" Luke 23:40.

6) Obadiah said to Elijah: "I, thy servant fear the Lord from my youth." I Kings 18:3,12.

7) One of the priests taught the people of Bethel how they should fear the Lord. 2 King 17:28,41.

8) Abraham was told by the angel at Moriah: "Now I know that thou fearest God." Genesis 22:12.

III. What People Will Do Who Fear God

1) "Serve the Lord with fear." Psalm 2:11.

2) "Blessed is everyone that feareth the Lord; that walketh in his ways." Psalm 128:1.

3) "They that feared the Lord spake often one to another: and the Lord hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the Lord, and that thought upon his name." Malachi 3:16.

4) "Ye that fear the Lord give audience." Acts 13:16. FTL = listen to preaching of God's Word.

5) "Perfecting holiness in the fear of God." FTL= grow in holiness and love for God. 2 Cor.7:1.

6) Husband and wife will submit themselves one to another in the fear of God. Ephesians 5:21.

7) Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling (Philippian 2:12), because we'll have to give account of our service to God. This means to work out the details of how to live and serve God.

IV. Benefits and Blessings of Fearing God

1) Psalm 15:4 "He honours them that fear the Lord."

2) Psalm 25:12 "Him shall he teach in the way that he shall choose."

3) Psalm 25:14 "The secret of the Lord is with them that fear Him."

4) Psalm 31:19 "How great is thy goodness laid up for them that fear thee."

5) Psalm 33:18 "The eye of the Lord is on them that fear him."

6) Psalm 34:7 "The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear Him & delivers them."

7) Psalm 34:9 "There is no want to them that fear Him."

- 8) Psalm 34:11 “I will teach you the fear of the Lord.”
- 9) Psalm 85:9 “His salvation is near them that fear him.”
- 10) Psalm 103:11 “So great is His mercy toward them that fear Him.”
- 11) Psalm 111:10 “The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom.”
- 12) Psalm 112:1,2 “His seed shall be mighty upon earth.”
- 13) Psalm 115:13 “He will bless them that fear the Lord.”
- 14) Psalm 119:63 “I am a companion of all them that fear thee.”
- 15) Psalm 119:74 “They that fear thee will be glad when they see me.”
- 16) Psalm 147:11 “The Lord taketh pleasure in them that fear him.”
- 17) Proverbs 8:13 “The fear of the Lord to hate evil.”
- 18) Proverbs 10:27 “The fear of the Lord prolongeth days.”
- 19) Proverbs 14:2 “In the fear of the Lord is strong confidence.”
- 20) Proverbs 14:27 “The fear of the Lord is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.”
- 21) Proverbs 16:6 “By the fear of the Lord men depart from evil.”
- 22) Proverbs 19:23 “The fear of the Lord tendeth to life.”
- 23) Proverbs 22:4 “By humility and the fear of the Lord are riches, honour and life.”

Conclusion: “Be thou in the fear of the Lord all the day long.” Proverbs 23:17.

167. WE OUGHT TO

Bible Reading: Acts 10:1-6.

Aim: To see what God says we ought to do. To tell people what they ought to do.

Memory Verse: “He shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.” Acts 10:6.

Introduction: The angel who appeared to Cornelius told him that if he wanted further information as to the purpose of his call, he should send for Peter (v.5) who “shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.”

Definition: “OUGHT” = our duty, the rightness of something, the advisability of some action, our moral obligation.

a) The problem with many people today is that they overlook their duty and moral obligation to God. Instead, they do whatever they feel like doing.

b) Another problem is that many parents when they see their children going astray are too afraid to do what Peter did and “tell them what they ought to do.”

I. Notice Some Things about Peter telling Cornelius what he ought to do.

1) The angel could not tell Cornelius the gospel, so he directed Cornelius to a man who would clearly tell him what he ought to do.

Lesson: Angels know who the best soul winners are. They direct people to good soul winners.

2) Peter was willing to tell people what they needed to hear even if they didn’t like it. Peter was not afraid of what they thought about him. He was more concerned about what God thought of him.

“We ought to obey God rather than men.” Acts 5:29.

i) He told 3000 Jews on the Day of Pentecost what they ought to do in Acts 2:14-40.

ii) He told the crowd gathered at the Beautiful Gate of the Temple what they ought to do after the lame man was healed in Acts 3:12-26.

iii) He told Annas the High Priest and Caiaphas what they ought to do in Acts 4:5-12,19-20.

iv) He told Ananias and Sapphira what they ought to do in Acts 5:1-10.

v) He told the Sanhedrin what they ought to do in Acts 5:29-33.

Lesson: We need to get into the habit of telling people what they ought to do to please God. Don’t be afraid, but speak the truth in love, especially parents must tell their children what they ought to do.

II. What Other Things Ought We To Do?

1) Men ought always to pray and not to faint. (Luke 18:1).

We must always maintain a spirit of prayer. We must always be in a proper frame of mind to pray to God for things needful. Though our prayers go long unanswered, we should persevere and not grow weary in praying to God.

- 2) “We ought to obey God rather than men.” (Acts 5:29). We should not seek to please men but to please God. “If I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.” Galatians 1:10. The trouble is that this world is seeking to please the wrong crowd, such as the bad peer group, their own lustful pleasures, and their children, rather than pleasing God. Do you seek to please God or men?
- 3) “so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.” (Acts 20:35).
We should go to work to earn money so we can provide for the needs of sick, feeble and suffering Christians, who are unable to work for themselves, such as Christians in Africa.
Lesson: Many Christians work only to accumulate a lot of wealth for themselves, but we ought to work to bless and help others who cannot work (see Romans 15:1).
- 4) “Pray that I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.” (Ephesians 6:20).
Boldly = openly, plainly, and without fear. Paul felt that the gospel ought always to be spoken plainly, without fear of men. Learn to speak the gospel boldly because it is our duty to speak it.
Come doorknocking and open air soul winning.
- 5) “as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God.” (I Thessalonians 4:1).
Ye should abstain from fornication. (v.3).
Ye study to be quiet and do your own business and work with your own hands. (v.11).
Ye may walk honestly toward them that are without.”
Ephesians 4,5,6 show us how we ought to walk worthy of Christ, and how we should live.
Life is often represented as a journey. (Romans 6:4 “we should walk in newness of life”).
- 6) “For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us.” (2 Thessalonians 3:7). We should imitate the apostles example of love, self sacrifice, soul-winning, and hard work for Christ and for others.
- 7) “We ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip.” (Hebrews 2:1).
More earnest heed = more strict attention.
To the things we’ve heard = from the apostles, or from Godly Bible preaching.
Lest at any time we should let them slip = never forget them, never be indifferent to them. Cares of this world, dullness of mind or a cold heart may render us indifferent to them. These key Bible truths which we used to hold dearly can pass out of our minds without concern. Paul says that this ought never to be done. These truths should always be important to us.
- 8) “For when for the time ye ought to be teachers.” (Hebrews 5:12).
Believers ought to be able to teach others the gospel, basic Christian truths, Christ’s Second Coming and to refute false doctrines. We should be able to teach children, friends, new converts and disciples.
- 9) Ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that. (James 4:15).
- 10) We ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. (I John 3:16).
- 11) We ought to love one another. (I John 4:11).
- 12) We must know how we ought to behave ourselves in the house of God. (I Timothy 3:15).
This means that we should: a) Come to church on or before time. Don’t be late.
b) Listen carefully to the preaching. Take notes in a notebook so you can teach it to others.
c) Sing heartily to the Lord. (Ephesians 5:19).
d) Don’t disturb others by talking, but behave properly in God’s house.
e) Give your tithes and offerings to further God’s work.
f) Don’t rush away afterwards, but stay for a while to encourage others (Hebrews 10:24,25).
g) Notice and befriend newcomers. Sit next to them. Introduce them to others who might become good friends with them. Ask them if they are 100% sure of going to heaven and if not then lead them to Christ. Invite newcomers to lunch after church. Become their friend. Ask them if you can have a Bible study with them that week. Invite them to come soul-winning with you Sunday afternoon. Pray before the service that God will bless the meeting and teach you something needful in the message. Pray that God will build the church and that He will use you to bless others. Be thankful to God and others, and not critical. “Enter His gates with thanksgiving and into his courts with praise.” Psalm 100:4.
- 13) “Ye pay tithes...and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to have left the other undone.” (Matthew 23:23).

168. MAKING RIGHT CHOICES

Bible Reading: Luke 10:38-42.

Aim: To make the right choices that God wants us to make. To see what God wants us to choose.

Introduction: Tell the story of Mary and Martha in Luke 10:38-42.

Every day of our life, we are making choices. Some are small and some are major. Some have little consequences and some have big consequences. If we choose to go soul winning or not go soul winning will have big consequences for those who get saved. We must get into the habit early in life of making choices that God wants us to make. Some Christians never think about what choices God wants them to make. They only choose what they feel like doing.

Question: What choices should you make in life? Are you making these choices?

1. Choose Life. Deuteronomy 30:15,19.

The first choice all people must make is to choose Jesus Christ to be their Saviour and hence to choose the gift of eternal life. "He that has the Son has life." I John 5:12. God sets before each one of us the choice between life and good on one hand, and death, evil and hell on the other hand.

Question: Have you chosen life and good, or death and evil? Choosing Jesus Christ is laying the only true foundation for life.

2. Choose Today Whom You Will Serve. Joshua 24:15.

After salvation, comes service. We are saved to serve God and others.

"If any man serve me, him will my Father honour." John 12:26.

"Let ...he that is chief, (be) as he that doth serve." Luke 22:26.

"His servants shall serve Him." Revelation 22:3. Service here leads to service in heaven.

"Henceforth we should not serve sin." Romans 6:6.

Question: How should we serve? a) "We should serve in newness of spirit." Romans 7:6.

b) "Serve the Lord with gladness." Psalm 100:2.

c) "Serve him (God) with a perfect heart and willing mind." I Chronicles 28:9.

d) "By love serve one another." Galatians 5:13.

Question: Have you chosen to serve God daily and faithfully?

Choose to serve God TODAY, not TOMORROW, and not when you feel like it.

3. Choose to sit at Jesus' feet, and to hear His Word. Luke 10:38-42.

v.38 The certain village that Jesus entered was Bethany (John 11:1) on the eastern slope of the Mount of Olives. Martha received Jesus into her house with kindness and hospitality. Martha may have been a widow and her brother Lazarus and younger sister Mary lived with her. Martha may have owned the house. Having responsibility of the house shows why she was busy with household duties. (v.39).

Mary sat at Jesus' feet and heard His Word. "Sitting at Jesus' feet" was the ancient posture of disciples and learners. This meant that Mary was a disciple of Jesus, that she listened attentively to Him and was keen to learn His doctrines. "Sitting at the feet of Jesus" meant to sit in a humble place to learn and study His Word. (Paul sat at the feet of Gamaliel. Acts 22:3).

Question: Are you sitting at Jesus' feet, learning all you can in order to best serve Him & teach others?

v.40 "Martha was cumbered about much serving." Martha was distracted with the cares of the family and with entertaining Jesus. The only fault she was charged with was too earnest a desire to entertain Jesus when she might have sat at Jesus' feet learning His Word.

It was an insult to Jesus to value food preparation more than Jesus teaching. Martha wrongly reproved Jesus, as if He encouraged Mary to neglect her household duties.

Mary saw that she had higher duties at that time. Martha hinted to Jesus her need of Mary to assist, and requested Jesus to send Mary to help her.

v.41 "Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things."

Martha was disturbed and distracted with secondary household duties when she should have chosen to hear the God of Heaven teach His Word with heavenly wisdom. What a wonderful opportunity to hear Jesus preach and teach. Why miss it for a few dishes and biscuits?

v.42 "But one thing is needful and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her." Bible teaching and attention to Christ is our chief need. Other things are less important.

Understanding God's Word must be secured first, then all other things will follow.

Note: It is important to learn God's Word in our youth and how to use it to teach others.

"That good part" = interest in Christ's doctrine. Mary had chosen to give up her time and affections to Christ to learn His ways. From this we learn that:

- i) The cares of life are dangerous and may easily distract us from learning Christ's Word, even when those cares seem most lawful and commendable.
No worldly thing could have been more proper than to provide for Jesus and to supply His wants. Yet because it too greatly occupied her mind, the Lord Jesus gently reproved her. So a care for our families may be the means of neglecting our walk with Christ.
- ii) It is more important to learn Jesus' Word than to be engaged in the affairs of the world.
- iii) There are times when it is right to stop worldly employments and attend to the affairs of the soul.
Examples are church on Sundays, go to Bible College, the mission field, or to study God's Word.
- iv) If attention to Christ is omitted at the proper time, it will always be omitted at other times.
If Mary had neglected to hear Jesus then, she might never have heard Him.
She seized the opportunity to hear Jesus. Martha did not appreciate the opportunity.
- v) Godliness and learning God's Word, are the chief things. All earthly gain we must leave behind.
Only God's Word and souls will last forever. There is a Judgment Seat of Christ. There is Heaven. There is a Hell. We must prepare for them. All that is needed to prepare us to die and make us happy forever is to be saved and to learn and obey God's Word.
- vi) Godliness is the chief ornament of a female. It sweetens every other virtue.
It gives new loveliness to the mildness and grace of female character.
- Nothing is more lovely than a lady sitting at the feet of Jesus, like Mary.
- Nothing is more unlovely of a lady than her entire absorption in worldly affairs as Martha.

The most lovely female is she who is most like Jesus.

The least lovely female is she who neglects her soul, who is proud, thoughtless, envious, angry, worldly and unlike the meek and lowly Lord Jesus.

At Jesus' feet is peace, purity of life and joy. Everywhere else, an alluring and wicked world steals our affections and makes us worldly, self absorbed and uncommitted to Christ.

4. Choose a Good Name.

"A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches." Proverbs 22:1.

Many people today choose great riches instead of a good name.

Question: How do we choose a good name?

Answer: "Let not mercy and truth forsake thee..."

so shalt thou find favour and good understanding in the sight of God and man." Proverbs 3:3,4.

If we show mercy and truth always, we will find favour with God and man.

Having a good name (ie: an honourable reputation) because of good character, is to be valued far above having much wealth. Riches are bad if gaining them ruins one's character.

5. Choose the Fear of the Lord. "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom." Proverbs 1:7.

"They hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of the Lord." Proverbs 1:29.

Fear of the Lord = awe and respect for the majesty and holiness of God.

Fear of the Lord enables man to:

- a) Respect God's authority. Revelation 14:9.
- b) Obey God's Commandments.
- c) Turn from evil (Jonah 1:9).
- d) Pursue true holiness (2 Corinthians 7:1).

We fear and obey God because we:

- a) Love Him for Who He is, our Creator and our Saviour.
- b) Obey Him because He is good and His plans are best for us.
- c) Respect Him because of His power to correct and discipline us.

Question: Do you choose to fear God? If we fear God we will: 1) Read our Bible daily, 2) Pray daily, 3) Be committed to building our Church, 4) Go Soul Winning, 5) Train others.

6. Choose to Suffer Affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season. Hebrews 11:25. Moses saw that if he cast his lot with the Israelites, he must expect trials. Moses chose to sacrifice the comforts and honour of Pharaoh's court to help deliver the people of God. Question: Will you choose to support, help and bless God's people rather than seeking worldly honour?
- i) There is some pleasure in sin, but it is only for a season. Pleasure = excitement, amusement.
 - ii) The eternal wealth and glory of serving Christ are more to be chosen than the temporary, passing pleasures of sin and the world. Which will you choose?
7. Choose the Things that Pleased God, Isaiah 56:4.
8. Choose the Way of Truth. Psalm 119:30.
9. Choose God's Precepts. Psalm 119:173.
10. Choose the Good and Refuse the Evil. Isaiah 7:15,16.

169. THE TWO RESURRECTIONS are like the Jewish harvest.

1. i) The Firstfruits = Christ and some Old Testament Saints rose (33AD). (Matthew 27:50-53).
 - ii) The Harvest = The Rapture at Christ's return. (I Thess. 4:16,17; I Cor. 15:51-54).
 - iii) The Gleanings = Tribulation Saints resurrected at the end of the Tribulation. (Rev. 20:4,5,6).
2. The Tares = Unbelievers raised at the end of Millennium. Matthew 13:24-30, 36-43.
- Notice 3 groups in I Corinthians 15:22-25,
- i) Christ the firstfruits.
 - ii) They that are Christ's at His Coming.
 - iii) Then cometh the end (Revelation 20:11-13).

I. There are 2 classes of God's people at the rapture:

1. Corruptible = those who are dead and their bodies are in the grave.
2. Mortal = those who are living, but liable to death. I Corinthians 15:53. Paul quotes Isaiah 25:8 describing the glory of the Kingdom Age when "death is swallowed up in victory."

At the Rapture:

1. The mortal (living) will say to death: "Oh death, where is thy sting." I Corinthians 15:55.
2. The corruptible as they rise from the grave will shout: "O grave, where is thy victory?"

II. Question: With what body do they come? (I Corinthians 15:35).

Answer: Paul uses 3 illustrations to describe the nature of believers' resurrection body:

- i) From Botany – seedtime and harvest. (v.37,38). Our old body is like a seed that must first die, and then sprout in order to bear grain.
- ii) From Biology – 4 different kinds of flesh are men, beasts, fishes and birds (v.39). God has fitted each to its own environment. So our new resurrection body will be perfectly fitted to our new everlasting environment.
- iii) From Astronomy – there are different glories of earthly bodies (terrestrial, like our bodies now) and celestial bodies (heavenly bodies like the sun, moon, and stars) which will be like our resurrection bodies later in the resurrection. As one star differs from another star in glory, so will our future resurrection bodies differ in glory (v.40-44). Encouragement (Be steadfast, v.58)

III. Mid Tribulation Objection:

Question: Is the last trumpet of I Cor.15:52 the same as the seventh trumpet of Revelation 11:15?

Question: What is meant by the "last trumpet"? Amillennialists try to use this to refute Premillennialism. This idea is wrong for these reasons:

- i) The trumpets of Revelation are sounded by angels.
The trumpet at the Rapture is the trumpet of God the Son (I Thessalonians 4:16).
- ii) The trumpets of Revelation are all related to God's judgment on sin and unbelief.
The trumpet of I Thess. 4:16 and I Cor. 15:52 is a gracious call to the saved to rise.
- iii) The 7th trumpet of Revelation 11:15 is not the last trumpet of scripture.
In Matthew 24:31, the elect will be gathered at Christ's glorious return after Armageddon, "with a great sound of a trumpet" to establish His earthly Kingdom.
The last trump of God for the church will be the call to go to be with the Lord. (I Cor. 15:52).

170. THREE TREES ISRAEL IS LIKE

Aim: Lost opportunities and lost blessings come through wrong thinking & unbelief (Romans 11:1-36).

1. VINE represents Israel's Past (Romans 9: Before Christ) = Israel Elected.

"The vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the house of Israel." Isaiah 5:7.

- i) Psalm 80:8-16. "Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt: thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it. She sent out her boughs unto the sea (Mediterranean), and her branches to the river (Euphrates)." God transplanted Israel from Egypt to Canaan, giving them all the land from the river of Egypt (Wadi el-Arish) to the Euphrates River (Deut.11:24; Joshua 1:4). Israel didn't value this great start. As a result they lost these privileges and experienced judgment (v.12-16).
Key: We must appreciate our privileges or we may lose them.
- ii) Isaiah 5:1-7. God was greatly disappointed when He looked for Israel to bring forth grapes proportionate to her privileges, but found them to be wild grapes.
Lesson: God does all He can to help our Christian growth. Let us cooperate with God in getting a real hunger for Bible knowledge, Christian service and spiritual growth.
- iii) Jeremiah 2:21. Blessings may be lost. We may start our Christian life being noble (as Israel did). If we forsake the right way, we may become degenerate and become a castaway (1 Cor 9:27). God disciplined Israel for its sin by: a) taking away the hedge, b) breaking down the wall, c) laying it waste, d) hedging her way with thorns and briars, and e) withholding rain.
- iv) Ezekiel 15:1-8. Vision of the burning vine.
Israel has passed through the fires of persecution over the last 2600 years. As she is not bearing fruit, she is only fit for fuel. Only the stem is burnt. The root is still alive. The vine will spring up in the Millennium as Romans 11:1-5,25-29 and Hosea 3:4,5 state.
- v) Matthew 21:33-41. The Parable of the Vineyard reveals why the keepers of the vineyard (the Jewish nation), have been cast out of the vineyard (land of Israel). It was because they took the Heir (Jesus Christ) and crucified Him. They were cast out of the vineyard and it has been let to other husbandmen, the Church, to bring forth spiritual fruit.
Lesson: If you drop out, God may raise up someone else to enjoy your blessings and future successful ministry. When people get angry and leave a good church for no valid reason, God brings others in to take their place and do the work God had for them.

2. FIG TREE represents Israel Present (Romans 10: from Christ to the Present) = Israel Rejected.

- vi) Matthew 24:32-35. Fig trees which have retained their leaves throughout winter usually have some of last years figs. Jesus seeing leaves on the tree, expected to find some of last years fruit. When He found none, He cursed the tree for its deceptive character. Because of Israel's "leafy profession," Jesus expected to find spiritual fruit on the tree of their national life. When He found none, He cursed them for their hypocrisy (Matthew 23:1-33).
Lesson: Let us show the fruit of being a Christian.
- vii) Luke 13:6-9. Parable of the barren fig tree.
Jesus came to His vineyard and for 3 years of His ministry found no fruit. God the Father decided to cut down the tree, but Christ interceded for it and judgment was postponed for 40 years, until Titus, God's axeman in 70AD cut down the Fig tree of Israel, casting it out of the vineyard and into the field of the world. (Luke 3:7-9; Matthew 3:7-10). Before Christ's return, the Fig tree will spring from the root. It will bear leaves before it bears fruit, meaning that Israel will be revived nationally before she is converted to Christ. Joel 1:6,7 calls Israel "my fig tree".
- viii) In Matthew 24:3 Jesus' disciples asked Him two questions:
 - a) When shall these things be? (Destruction of the Temple). This was answered in Luke 21:20-24
 - b) What shall be the sign of thy coming? Jesus gave 4 main signs in Matthew 24:4-33, which are:
 - Widespread Deception. "Take heed that no man deceive you." (v.4,11,24).
 - The Abomination of Desolation standing in the holy place of Israel's rebuilt temple (v.15).
 - The "Sign of the Son of Man" which is a cloud (v.30),like the cloud at His ascension. Acts 1:9
 - The "Fig Tree sign" (v.32,33), Israel's regathering to their ancient homeland.(Ezek 6:24,25).
Lesson: God uses the ungodly as instruments of judgment. God has a future for Israel.

3. OLIVE TREE represents Israel Future (Romans 11) = Israel Restored.

ix) Jeremiah 11:16,17. Israel is called a green olive tree, fair and of goodly fruit. God warns that because of its idolatry, its branches shall be broken off. This was fulfilled by Nebuchadnezzar destroying Jerusalem in 606 BC and 586 BC.

x) Romans 11:17-27. Parable of the two olive trees.

a) The good olive tree represents Israel.

b) The wild olive tree represents saved Gentiles in the Church.

c) The root of the good olive tree represents Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, picturing God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. (The Trinity who established the nation of Israel).

d) The Olive tree represents the light of the testimony of God in the world, because olive oil was used for lighting lamps.

-- The Church holds the light of Gospel testimony today.

-- The 144,000 Jews will hold the light of Gospel testimony in the Tribulation.

-- The Jewish nation will hold it during the Millennium.

The olive tree symbolizes Israel's Bible-teaching privileges and divine testimony privileges.

While Israel and the Church are compared to trees, their oppressors, the Gentile nations are compared to wild beasts (Daniel 7:1-28).

Conclusion: Will you stay in or out of the place of blessing? Will you stay faithful to God and be blessed, or will you backslide and become a castaway (disapproved)? (I Corinthians 9:27). Israel is called "God's peculiar treasure" in Exodus 19:5; Psalm 135:4 and Deuteronomy 14:2. When Christ returns, His Kingdom will be manifested in the Millennium, and God's treasure Israel, buried in the field of the nations for 2000 years, will then be on display. (Matthew 13:44).

a) Treasure found = Israel at Christ's first coming.

b) Treasure purchased = Israel's sins paid for at Christ's death.

c) Treasure hidden again = Israel scattered in the world during the Church Age.

d) Treasure uncovered = Israel revealed as the chief nation at Christ's return.

We may summarize: a) Vine = Israel Divinely electd. Deuteronomy 7:6.

b) Fig Tree = Israel Divinely rejected. Romans 11:7.

c) Olive Tree = Israel Divinely restored. Romans 11:1.

171. PURITY. I Timothy 5:22; Jude 18,19.

I. Three enemies of purity: World (I John 2:15-17), Flesh (Jeremiah 17:9), Devil (I Peter 5:8). Satan seeks to wreck our lives by impurity.

II. Why Purity?

1. One must be pure to enter heaven. Matthew 5:8, Psalm 24:3,4; I Corinthians 6:9,10.

2. Purity enables us to avoid judgment. 2 Peter 2:6; Ecclesiastes 11:9.

3. Purity enables us to avoid defilement. I Corinthians 6:18.

4. Purity is the best way to enjoy life. Hebrews 13:4.

III. How to be pure? Yield yourselves to God. Watch your:

a) Thoughts: Genesis 6:5; Proverbs 23:7;

b) Eyes: Matthew 5:28;

c) Ears: Mark 4:24 "Take heed what you hear."

d) Tongue: Matthew 12:36,37; Psalm 34:13.

IV. Rewards of Purity. Philippians 4:8.

1. God's best blessings.

2. Trustworthy and dependable. Proverbs 31:10,11.

3. Clear conscience. Romans 14:22; Psalm 51.

4. Good understanding of people's character. Sin blinds and distorts values because people justify their sin. 2 Corinthians 4:4.

5. Provides more opportunity for leadership & service."A bishop must be blameless" I Timothy 3:2,3 6. Physical, mental and spiritual strength. Galatians 6:7,8.

Conclusion: Will you choose purity of mind, rather than corruption in the world by lust? 2 Peter 1:4

172. TAKE HEED or IGNORE? What are we are told to take heed to?

Introduction: One of our greatest faults is that we ignore many important things.

Aim: To alert us to key issues that we should be taking heed to. Are you taking heed to these?

- 1) My ways. “I will take heed to my ways that I sin not with my tongue.” Psalm 39:1.
- 2) Deception. “Take heed that no man deceive you.” Matthew 24:4.
- 3) False doctrine. “Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees ..doctrine.” Matthew 16:6-12.
- 4) Temptation. “Take ye heed, watch and pray...., lest ye enter into temptation.” Mark 18:33; 14:38.
- 5) Hear. “Take heed therefore how ye hear.” Luke 8:18.
- 6) Light. “Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness.” Luke 11:35.
- 7) Covetousness. “Take heed, and beware of covetousness....” Luke 12:15.
- 8) Cares of life. “Take heed to yourselves lest at anytime your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting (overfeeding), drunkenness and cares of this life...so that day come upon you unawares.” Luke 21:34.
- 9) Yourselves and to all the flock. “Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock to feed the church of God.” Acts 20:28.
- 10) Build. “But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.” I Corinthians 3:10.
- 11) Liberty. “But take heed lest by any means this liberty of your’s become a stumbling block to them that are weak.” I Corinthians 8:9.
- 12) Fall. “Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.” I Corinthians 10:12.
- 13) Consumed (destroyed, 355). “But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed (destroyed 355) one of another.” Galatians 5:15.
- 14) Ministry. “And say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it.” Colossians 4:17.
- 15) Doctrine. “Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine, continue in them.” I Timothy 4:16.
- 16) Unbelief. “Take heed brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.” Hebrews 3:12.
- 17) Bible. “We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed.” 2 Peter 1:19.

173. TAKE or NEGLECT? We are told to take each of these important things.

- 1) Cross “Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross, & follow me” Mark 8:34
- 2) No Thought for Your life. “Take no thought for your life... for the morrow.” Matthew 6:25,34.
- 3) Christ’s Yoke. “Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me.” Matthew 11:29.
- 4) Wrong. “Why do ye not rather take wrong.” I Corinthians 6:7.
- 5) Lord’s Supper Bread. “Take, eat; this is my body, which is broken for you.” I Corinthians 11:24.
- 6) Ministry to the saints. “Take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.” II Cor 8:4.
- 7) Pleasure in suffering for Christ. “I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distress for Christ’s sake; for when I am weak, then I am strong.” 2 Corinthian 12:10
- 8) Whole armour of God. “Take unto you the whole armour of God...” Ephesians 6:13.
- 9) Shield of faith. “Taking the shield of faith...” Ephesians 6:16.
- 10) Helmet of salvation. “Take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the spirit.” Ephesians 6:17.
- 11) Trainee preachers. “Take Mark, and bring him with thee.” 2 Timothy 4:11.
- 12) Prophets example. “Take my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.” James 5:10.
- 13) Suffering patiently. “When ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently.” I Peter 2:20.
- 14) Oversight. “Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof...” I Peter 5:2.
- 15) Water of life. “Whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.” Revelation 22:17.
- 16) Cup of salvation. “I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord” Psa 116:13

Conclusion: The act of taking these things is a deliberate choice that each of us needs to improve our useful service for Christ. We can only take these when we know what they are. Do you take these or neglect them? How well do you take these very important things?

174. THE TEN GATES OF JERUSALEM

Bible Reading: Nehemiah 3:1,3,6,13,14,15,26-32.

The gates in the wall of the old city of Jerusalem are a beautiful picture summary of the Christian life. Each gate needs to be open and functioning properly if we are to be all that God wants us to be. They are:

1. THE SHEEP GATE (3:1) speaks of the CROSS.

The Christian life starts with “Behold the lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the world.” John 1:29. There can be no spiritual life without taking Christ as our Saviour. Christ was the Lamb of God that was sacrificed to pay for everyone’s sin as our substitute. “I am the Good Shepherd that lays down his life for the sheep.” (John 10:11).

“He is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb.” (Isaiah 53:7).

2. THE FISH GATE (3:3) speaks of SOUL WINNING.

After we are saved, one of our first desires is to see others saved.

Jesus promises us, “Follow me and I will make you fishers of men.”

Two conditions of soul-winning are that we must:

i) Really want to do it. ii) Follow Christ continually.

Question: Are you concerned about becoming a soul-winner?

3. THE OLD GATE (3:6) speaks of our OLD NATURE. (Romans 6:1-23).

When we receive Jesus Christ as our Saviour, our old nature is crucified with Christ (Galatians 2:20). If you are saved, do not continue in sin.

“Shall we continue in sin that grace may abound? God forbid.” Romans 6:1.

“Knowing this, that our old man (old sin nature) is crucified with Christ, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.” Romans 6:6.

“Reckon yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God.” Romans 6:11.

“Don’t let sin reign in your mortal body.” Romans 6:12.

“Don’t yield your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin.

Yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and yield your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.” Romans 6:13.

“Wherefore laying aside all malice, all guile, hypocrisies, envies, all evil speakings.” 1 Peter 2:1,2.

Question: Now that you are saved, have you rejected your old lifestyle?

“What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed?

for the end of those things is death.” Romans 6:21.

4. THE VALLEY GATE (3:13) speaks of SUFFERING and TESTING. (2 Corinthians 1:3-5).

We learn most in the valleys of suffering.

“Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil.” Psalm 23:4.

Just after we are saved, we all come across suffering or testing to refine our life and to bring sins to the surface so that we can confess it and get right with God. “Wherefore, let them that suffer according to the will of God, commit the keeping of their souls unto him in well-doing, as unto a faithful creator.” 1 Peter 4:19.

5. THE DUNG GATE (3:14) speaks of the WORKS OF THE FLESH. (Galatians 5:19-21).

“But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ.” Phillipian 3:7,8.

We must count the sins we loved as unbelievers as dung, something detestable to be thrown away.

6. THE FOUNTAIN GATE (3:15) speaks of the HOLY SPIRIT continuing to flow through us in blessing to others. “Be filled with the Spirit.” (Ephesians 5:18).
 “He that believeth on me, ... , out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because Jesus was not yet glorified.)” (John 7:37-39).
 We must be continually filled with and led by the Holy Spirit if we are to enjoy the fruit of the Spirit of love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance. Gal. 5:22,23.
7. THE WATER GATE (3:26) speaks of the WORD OF GOD.
 “That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word.” (Ephesians 5:26).
Question: Are you daily allowing God’s Word to cleanse your mind of all sins and keep you close to Christ? We will never get victory over sin until we let God’s Word control our minds and lives.
Question: Do you read, study, memorize and meditate on God’s Word daily?
8. THE HORSE GATE (3:28) speaks of the believer’s SPIRITUAL WARFARE because horses were for war. Soon after salvation, we must realise that God has called us to be soldiers in a very intense spiritual battle for the souls of men. The prize is men’s souls for all eternity, the approval of Christ, and eternal rewards. This is worth fighting for. We are commanded in 2 Timothy 2:3,4 to, “Thou therefore endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life, that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.”
 “I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.” (Revelation 19:11).
9. THE EAST GATE (3:29) speaks of the RETURN OF CHRIST.
 “The gate that looketh toward the east: And the glory of the Lord came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east.” (Ezekiel 43:1,4). Christ returns to earth, conquers Antichrist’s armies, lands on the Mount of Olives, and then enters Jerusalem by the now bricked up East Gate. This gate looks toward the Mount of Olives where Christ will land. (Ezekiel 44:1-2).
Question: Are you looking for Jesus Christ’s return? See the shut East Gate below. Ezekiel 44:2.
10. THE MIPHKAD GATE (3:31), the JUDGMENT GATE speaks of the Judgment Seat of Christ for believers in heaven, and the judgment of the sheep and goat nations when Christ returns to earth. “So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.” (Romans 14:12).
Question: Are you living now, knowing that you will have to give account of your actions in this life to God? Let us live for Christ every day and live for eternity.

175. TEN NAMES AND THEIR MEANINGS

Bible Reading: Genesis 5:1-32.

Aim: To see the spiritual history of the earth from a prophetic point of view in the names of the ten pre-flood patriarchs.

Introduction:

All the names in the Bible have a spiritual and practical meaning for us today. All changes of names in the Bible also have lessons for us now. For example, Abram (high father) was changed to Abraham (father of many nations); Jacob (supplanter) was changed to Israel (prince with God); Saul (big) was changed to Paul (little). The 10 names of Genesis 5 set forth at least 7000 years of sacred history.

1. ADAM = RED EARTH

Adam, or red earth, reminds us of the natural man who is by nature away from God's righteousness and holiness. He is self-centred and does not make his decisions with reference to God but only on sight. Let us see as God sees, for "the Lord sees not as man sees, but the Lord looks upon the heart." (I Sam 16:7) "The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven." (I Corinthians 15:47). Let us not think like Adam, but like Christ. Adam made a wrong decision because he thought according to earthly wisdom of what he could see, rather than setting his affections on things above. Colossian 3:2 "The first man is of the earth, earthy: (47) ... as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly." (49). I Corinthians 15:47-49.

2. SETH = SUBSTITUTE

Cain murdered his brother Abel, and Seth was given instead of Abel.

Thus, Seth speaks of Christ as the substitute for fallen man. Christ is our substitute.

"The Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all." Isaiah 53:6.

"For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him." (II Corinthians 5:21).

We must receive Christ as our substitute or Saviour to be saved.

3. ENOS = FRAILITY, MORTALITY, DYING

Enos speaks of Christ dying for us. Seth speaks of the Substitute, and Enos speaks of the Substitute dying, the just for the unjust, the innocent for the guilty. Therefore, Christ our Substitute (Seth) died (Enos) that we might have life and have it more abundantly.

"But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." (Romans 5:8).

4. CAINAN = TO PURCHASE, BUY BACK, ACQUIRE

When Christ died (Enos), He purchased us out of the slave market of sin, and through his atoning blood He brought back all and more than Adam lost in the Garden of Eden.

"Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us." Galatians 3:13.

Christ also purchased the field, which is the world, and also the two treasures in the field:

a) Israel (Matthew 13:44 and Exodus 19:5), God's peculiar treasure.

b) Church (Matthew 13:45,46). The Pearl of Great Price.

Christ, therefore, became our Cainan, buying back that which Adam lost in the Fall.

5. MAHALALEEL = SPLENDOR OF GOD

Christ, after dying, was resurrected from the dead by the power of God, which showed the "splendour of God" in resurrection power, and thus Christ became our Mahalaleel.

"But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you." (Romans 8:11).

Christ's resurrection is proof of our future resurrection. It means Praise or Strength of God.

Praise - The cause for us to praise God is Christ's resurrection.

Strength - Christ's resurrection shows His and our victory over sin, the grave and death..

6. JARED = DESCEND, COME DOWN, POUR OUT

Christ, after His resurrection, ascended on high, received the promise of the Father, and poured out the gift of the Holy Spirit on the waiting disciples on the day of Pentecost. Thus Christ became our Jared. This brings us to the present Church age we are now in, which is the dispensation of the Holy Spirit indwelling believers. Before Jesus died, He promised to send the Comforter to His people and said that when the Comforter was come He would teach them all things. (John 14:26).

7. ENOCH = TEACH, INSTRUCT, TRAIN UP

We are now also living in the Enoch age. The Holy Spirit has been poured out to instruct, to teach and to lead us all into truth. Enoch was translated that he might not see death, and before his translation he walked with God, enjoyed the witness that he was righteous, and was raptured without passing through the valley of the shadow of death. (Genesis 5:22-24).

Seven is the number of perfection and Enoch is the seventh name mentioned. He was raptured that he might not see death. Enoch was a foreshadow type of all those who are alive and will remain unto the coming of the Lord.

Note the following about Enoch:

- a) The times in which he lived were full of evil.
- b) He walked with God: in Harmony, in Unity, and in Fellowship.
- c) He enjoyed the witness of the Holy Spirit.
"He had this testimony that he pleased God." (Hebrews 11:5).
- d) He was a living rebuke to sin. "He testified of judgment to come." (Jude 14).
- e) He was a preacher of righteousness. "Enoch prophesied saying..."
- f) He was translated. "God took him."

8. METHUSELAH = WHEN HE IS DEAD IT SHALL BE SENT

(or something will happen after a long extent of time).

Enoch walked with God and God revealed to him a secret. God told Enoch that He would judge the world for it's sin by a great flood. A son was born to Enoch and he was to be named Methuselah, meaning "When he is dead, it shall be sent." Methuselah lived to 969 years, and the very year that he died, the flood came on the earth. God lengthened his life to almost 1000 years because, at his death, mankind was to be destroyed. We see the marvellous long-suffering of God who is not willing that any should perish. After the Enoch's of this present age are resurrected and raptured, the Tribulation will burst upon the earth. The Old Testament flood was a foreshadow of the New Testament Tribulation.

9. LAMECH = CONQUEROR, KING

After the Tribulation, Christ will come to earth as it's conquering King and the millennial day of rest and peace will begin.

10. NOAH = REST, QUIET

The main quality of the millennium will be rest, peace and quiet, with Christ ruling on the earth in person. It will be like the Sabbath day for 1000 years. No wars, just peace, joy and prosperity.

Conclusion:

Christ our Substitute (Seth) died for us (Enos = mortality) and bought back all and more that was lost in the fall (Cainan). Christ rose again (Mahalaleel = splendour), ascended on high and poured out the Holy Ghost (Jared = poured out, descend) who has come to cleanse, fill and instruct us in the things of God during this dispensation (Enoch = teach). This dispensation will end with the Rapture. Then will begin the period called the Tribulation, ending with the Jesus Christ coming as the Conquering King of Kings and Lord of Lords (Lamech) and the starting of the millennial reign of Christ on earth (Noah = rest). Here are set forth in 10 names over 7000 years of sacred history.

Challenge:

Are you living from the viewpoint of eternity, and are you laying up treasures in heaven? Abraham "looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God." (Hebrews 11:10). Which world are you living for? Which world are you making your decisions for? Start living for Christ.

176. The Nature Of God: What is God Like?

Bible Reading: Psalm 139; Isaiah 40:1-31.

Aim: To understand and know God better, resulting in us loving and obeying God more.

Introduction: Man is born spiritually blind and out of fellowship with God.

How can man regain his spiritual sight and understanding of God?

By a) Being born again, and b) Understanding God's nature and character.

Question: What is God like?

I. NATURAL ATTRIBUTES OF GOD

1. Omniscience = infinite knowledge. God knows Himself and all other things whether actual or possible, past, present or future. He knows them perfectly and from eternity. He knows the best ways to attain His desired ends. "He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names. His understanding is infinite." (Psalm 147:4,5); "The very hairs of your head are all numbered" Matt.10:30.

Effect on us:

a) God knows completely and perfectly all our problems and needs before our birth.

b) We can be confident of God's love, ability and desire to meet our needs.

2. Omnipotence = infinite power. God is able to do whatever He wills that is in harmony with His nature. God cannot a) lie (Hebrews 6:18); b) commit sins (James 1:13); c) look on sin (Habakkuk 1:13); d) deny Himself (II Timothy 2:13). "There is nothing too hard for thee." (Jeremiah 32:17). Because God is Almighty, "With God all things are possible." (Matthew 19:26).

Three categories of God's will are His a) Perfect will, b) Permissive will, and c) Overruling will.

God limits Himself to some extent by the free will of man.

That is why -- God did not keep sin out of the universe. (God permitted man to choose to sin).

-- God does not save anyone by force.

Effect on us is that God "is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think according to the power that worketh in us." (Ephesians 3:20).

3. Omnipresence = infinite in space. God is everywhere present and active. He possesses full knowledge of all that transpires in every place. "Where shall I flee from thy presence?" Psalm139:7-12. "Even the Son of man which is in heaven?" John 3:13.

Effect on us: a) Comforts believers, b) warns, restrains and subdues unbelievers who can't escape God.

4. Eternal = infinite in time. Eternal is used:

a) figuratively = an existence which may have a beginning, but will have no end eg:angels, human soul.

b) literally = an existence which has no beginning or end. eg: God "Whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting." Micah 5:2. "From everlasting to everlasting thou art God." Psa 90:2; Rev 1:8.

Effect on us is to: a) Realise people will live forever in heaven or hell,

b) Understand the greatness of Jesus Christ. c) Use our time most efficiently to win people to Christ.

5. Unchangeable = God never changes His nature or character.

"Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and today, and forever." Hebrews 13:8.

"The Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning." James 1:17.

Effect on us: a) God is reliable and can be trusted to keep His word.

b) We should be changeless by keeping our word, and always be faithful to God.

6. Trinity = is composed of 3 united Persons without separate existence, so completely united as to form one God. The divine nature exists in 3 distinctions as Father, Son and Holy Spirit. While God is One, He exists as 3 equal persons, each having the same attributes, yet differing in certain properties. The Father sends the Son. The Son sends the Holy Spirit. (Doctrine of Procession). The Trinity is not one God manifesting Himself in 3 ways or modes of existence, nor are they 3 separate gods.2Sam23:23 The Trinity is seen in: a) The Baptismal formula. (Matthew 28:18-20), Isaiah 48:12,13,16; 63:7-10;

b) The Apostolic Benediction (2 Corinthians 13:14). c) The 3 Heavenly Witnesses (I John 5:7,8),

d) Each has the same Attributes of God (811), e) Each raises Jesus, creates the world, and saves man.

II. MORAL ATTRIBUTES OF GOD

7. Truth = God's knowledge and declarations always conform to reality. God's faithfulness leads Him to fulfil all His promises. We can trust God to keep His Word. He is the "Lord God of Truth." Psa.31:5

8. Holiness = God is absolutely pure and free from all defilement, evil and sin.

- i) Bible Proofs: “Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord of hosts.” Isaiah 6:3; Revelation 4:8;
“the high and lofty one that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is holy.” Isaiah 57:15.
“Holy Father.” John 17:11. “Be ye holy; for I am holy.” I Peter 1:15,16; Habakkuk 1:13.

ii) Manifestations of God’s holiness are:

- The Tabernacle’s Most Holy Place where the High Priest entered once a year.
 - The 10 Commandments and Mosaic laws of impurity (Leviticus 11-15).
 - The bounds set on Mt Sinai when God came down to give the 10 Commandments.
 - The Old Testament offerings required to approach God.
 - Israelites being isolated in their land, and commanded not to adopt pagan practices.
 - “Your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear.” Isaiah 59:2.
- The cross shows how much God loves holiness. Christ died not merely for our sins, but to provide us with righteousness and holiness of life, which God loves.

iii) Effect on us: a) We should approach God with “reverence and godly fear.” (Hebrews 12:28), not as the men of Bethshemesh (I Samuel 5,6);

b) We will have right views of sin, when we have right views of God’s Holiness. Eg: Isaiah, the holiest man in Israel, was cast down on seeing his sin, after seeing God’s Holiness (Isaiah 6:5-7);

c) The approach to the Holy God must be through the merits of Christ’s righteousness.

9. Righteousness and Justice = virtuous, upright.

“For the Lord our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth.” Daniel 9:14.

Righteous = God has instituted a moral government in the world, imposing just laws and penalties.

Justice = God executes His laws, rewards the righteous, and punishes the wicked. God is entirely correct and just in all His dealings with humanity. His justice acts in accordance with His law.

God’s righteousness and justice are seen in His:

- a) Punishing the wicked,
- b) Rewarding the righteous (Psalms 58:11),
- c) Forgiving sins of the repentant,
- d) Keeping His promises to Christians (Nehemiah 9:7,8),
- e) Rescuing His people from their enemies (Esther 9:24,25),
- f) Believers preaching righteousness (Psalm 40:9,10).

10. Goodness = all the qualities an ideal person would have, including love, benevolence, mercy, grace. “O taste and see that the Lord is good...” Psalm 34:8.

a) Love of God = fondness, a constant interest and warm affection towards the spiritual and physical welfare of His creatures, leading God to make sacrifices beyond human comprehension to reveal that love to mankind. God reveals His love by:

- Linking His name with love. “God is love.” I John 4:8,16. Heathen gods hate and are angry.
- Making an infinite sacrifice for the salvation of men. I John 4:9,10.
- Remembering us in all circumstances of life. Isaiah 63:9; 49:15,16.
- Giving us richly all things to enjoy. I Timothy 6:17; Psalm 145:9,15,16; Matthew 5:45.

b) Benevolence of God = the affection God feels and shows to mankind.

c) Mercy of God = God’s goodness shown to those in guilt, misery, distress. James 5:11; Eph. 2:4. God is merciful to Israel (Psalm 102:13), to the Gentiles (Romans 11:30-32), to all that fear Him (Luke 1:50), and to all that seek His salvation (Isaiah 55:7). He seeks our temporal & eternal needs.

d) Lovingkindness of God = God’s bestowment on His obedient children His continual and best blessings. “He that spared not...” Romans 8:32. The mercy and lovingkindness of God is seen in the father’s loving welcome to his prodigal (wasteful) son. Luke 15:11-32; Psalm 63:3.

e) Grace of God = God’s goodness to the ill deserving. God’s grace is shown in delaying punishment for sin, providing salvation, comfort of the Bible, Christian influence, the work of the Holy Spirit in our lives, saving and uplifting sinners from a sinful life, etc..

Conclusion: Let us love (Deut. 6:5), obey (I Sam.15:22), serve (John 12:26), know (Phil. 3:10), praise (Psalm 107:8), study (2 Tim.2:15) and worship (John 4:23) God according to His attributes.

177. The Lord's Prayer.

Bible Reading: Matthew 6:1-15. Matthew 6:1-15 is an outline of true prayer, with two aspects:

- a) God's Glory (v.9-10). Petitions on behalf of God's Name, kingdom and will.
- b) Man's Need (v.11-15). Petitions for daily bread, forgiveness, and protection from temptation.

Prayer should contain 9 elements: Adoration, praise, thanksgiving, awe at God's holiness, desire to obey God's commands, confession of sin, concern for others, humility, and perseverance.

1. God's Paternity -- "Our Father which art in heaven." (v.9).

Question: What does it mean to come to God as our Heavenly Father?

Answer: It settles the issues of fear, uncertainty of acceptance, loneliness, selfishness, lack of resources, and obedience. God is the Father of believers as our Creator, Saviour, Preserver, Teacher and Friend.

2. God's Priority -- "Hallowed be thy name" (v.9). God's Name represents His character, plan and will. Each Old Testament title of God shows a different aspect of His character and will. He is called:

- i) Elohim -- the Creator God. (Genesis 1;1,26).
- ii) El – Elyon -- the Possessor of heaven and earth.
- iii) Jehovah Jireh -- the Lord will provide, will see to it. (Genesis 22:14).
- iv) Jehovah Shalom -- the Lord our peace (Judges 6:24).
- v) Jehovah Tsidkenu -- the Lord our righteousness. (Jeremiah 23:6).
- vi) Jehovah Rohi -- The Lord is my shepherd (Psalm 23:1).
-- The Good Shepherd died giving his life for the sheep.
-- The Great Shepherd rose again.
-- The Chief Shepherd coming again.
- vii) Jehovah Tsebahoth -- the Lord of hosts. He guides, we follow. (I Samuel 1:3).
- viii) Jehovah Rapha -- the Lord that healeth thee (Exodus 15:26).
-- He heals our backslidings and forgives us.
- ix) Jehovah Shammah -- the Lord is there (Ezekiel 48:35).
-- He is with us to comfort, sustain, bless and keep us.
- x) Jehovah Nissi -- the Lord my banner. (Exodus 17:15). He never loses a battle.
- xi) Jehovah Mekaddeshem -- the Lord who sanctifies us. (Exodus 31:13).
- xii) Jehovah Helevon -- the Lord Most High. (Psalm 7:17).

Question: How do we hallow God's Name?

Answer: a) In our hearts by giving answers to those who question our faith. (I Peter 3:15).

- b) In our lives by acknowledging His presence (Proverb 3:5,6; Psalm 16:8; Hebrews 11:6).
- c) In our minds by learning His truth and knowing Him better.
- d) By living according to His will. (I Corinthians 10:31).
- e) By our commitment, service and words. (Matthew 5:16; Psalm 34:3).

3. God's Program -- "Thy Kingdom come." (v.10a); Luke 4:43. "Kingdom" here means "reign".

We should desire to see -- Christ ruling as King in His 1000 year Kingdom on earth.

- new souls being brought into His Kingdom by conversion. (Matthew 18:1-4).
- Christians becoming more committed, allowing Christ greater rule in their lives.

4. God's Plan -- "Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven." (v.10).

God's will is not inevitably done on earth. Sin and evil consequences on earth are not God's will, but:

- a) Show His patience in allowing men more opportunities to turn to Him for salvation.
- b) Teach Christians lessons about helping others and obeying God's ways.

The advancement of God's glory, kingdom, and will everywhere are more important than our wants.

5. God's Provision -- "Give us this day our daily bread." (v.11).

- i) The Substance -- Bread symbolises all our physical needs. (James 1:17).
- ii) The Source -- God gives us life, breath, health, possessions, talents, happiness and opportunities.

God provided for man's needs in the 5 days before man was created. (Deuteronomy 8:11-20).

iii) Supplication -- "Give" seeks my needs today and in the future, while thanking God for past provision.

iv) The Seekers -- Give US = believers only. God commits Himself to meet the basic needs of His own.

God's main way of provision is through WORK. God cares for those who cannot work through the generosity of those who can work. The main cause of famine is spiritual due to a nation's false religions, and not to overpopulation. For example, Hindu sacred cows eat 20% of the food, and sacred rats and mice eat 15% of the food supply. These are not permitted to be killed because Hindus think that they may be a god or someone's relative.

Biblical Christianity with its human rights, orphanages, care for the poor, hospitals, slave emancipation, public education and freedoms is a blessing to the West and to the world.

v) The Schedule -- Daily. This prayer commands daily father-led family prayer.

6. God's Pardon -- "forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors." (v.12). The Greek word for "debt" is "opheilema" (3738) = debt, an offence, a trespass which requires reparation, that which is owed. Only God can forgive sins, as a creditor can forgive a debtor. Debts can mean sins or offences against God. The measure by which God forgives us is that by which we forgive others. No man has a right to oppress when a debt cannot be repaid, or when it would greatly distress a wife and children, a widow or orphan, or when calamity has put it out of the power of an honest man to repay the debt. The spirit of Christianity requires that the debt should be forgiven. Notice these different Greek words for "sin" are:

i) Hamartia (264) = missing the mark of God's standard of righteousness is the most common word. (Romans 2:12; 3:23; 5:12).

ii) Paraptoma (3900) = not a heinous sin, not intentional disobedience, but a fault, lapse, wrongdoing, error, mistake, faults of weakness, the sin of slipping or falling due to carelessness. It is used in Paul's writings where pardon is discussed. (Galatians 6:1; James 5:16; Matt. 6:14,15; 18:35; Mark 11:25,26).

iii) Parabasis (3847) = wilful transgression of a known rule or law. It always involves guilt. (Romans 5:14,15; Hebrews 9:15; 2:2; James 2:9,11). It is a stronger word than the Greek word "paraptoma" (3900). It is a more conscious and intentional stepping across the line, a transgression.

iv) Anomos (459) = without law, lawlessness (I Timothy 1:9). Not having the law, not knowing the law, not acknowledging the law (I Corinthians 9:21), lawless in the sense of transgressing the law, a transgressor (Mark 15:28; Luke 22:37; Acts 2:23; 2 Thess. 2:8; 2 Peter 2:8; Ezekiel 33:8,12).

Open intentional, flagrant rebellion against God and His ways. In Romans 2:12 it refers to those who have sinned, not being subject to the Law of Moses. These will still be condemned, not by the Mosaic law, but by the Moral law. (Romans 2:14,15).

v) Opheilema (3783) = a debt which is owed and is strictly due (Romans 4:4). An offence, a trespass which requires reparation (Matt.6:12), an obligation (Matthew 18:30,32; Romans 1:14; 4:4; 8:12; 15:27)

vi) Parapipito (3895) = a deliberate act of falling away in apostasy, an abandonment. (Hebrews 6:6).

vii) Planao (4105) = to lead astray, to go astray, to wander. It is used of persons (Heb. 11:38; 2 Peter 2:15) or of flocks (Matthew 18:12,13; 1 Peter 2:25). It means to deceive, cause to err from a wrong judgment (Matthew 24:4,5,11,24; I John 1:8; 3:7; Rev 13:14), to be deceived or mislead (Matthew 22:29; Mark 12:24,27; Luke 21:8; John 7:47; I Cor. 6:9; 15:33; Gal.6:7; Hebrews 3:10; James 1:16). To seduce people into rebellion from the truth (John 7:12; Rev. 20:8,10; 2 Timothy 3:13; 1 John 2:26) or seduce to idolatry (Rev. 2:20; 12:9; 18:23; 19:20; 20:3).

viii) Agnoeo (50) = to be ignorant of, not to recognise, know or understand, to have no discernment (Romans 1:13; 10:3; 11:25; Ephesians 4:18). To commit faults due to a lack of knowledge, discernment or insight (Hebrews 5:2; 2 Peter 2:12). It is culpable ignorance.

ix) Enochos (1777) = guilty of sin, deserving of and subject to punishment or death (James 2:10; Matthew 26:66; 1 Corinthians 11:27).

x) Adikia (94) = unjust, unrighteous, falling short of the righteousness required by God's "paraptoma" laws (1 Peter 3:18; 1 Cor. 6:9) fraudulent, false, deceitful (Luke 16:10,11); unjust towards others (Luke 18:11; Romans 3:5; Hebrews 6:10). It is unrighteous conduct.

xi) Hypocrites (5273) or Hupokrisis (5272) = to pretend (Matthew 23:28, Galatians 2:13; I Timothy 4:2; I Peter 2:1) or evil deception. Saying the thing that pleased, and not the thing that was true. All false prophesy was hypocrisy. Question: What do we know about hypocrisy?

a) Isaiah, Malachi and Jesus strongly rebuked the religious hypocrisy of their day.

b) All false prophecy was hypocrisy – saying what pleased people rather than saying what was true.

c) The person most deceived was the hypocrite himself (Isaiah 33:14; Job 27:8; 15:34).

d) Christ equates it with lying and falsehood. (John 8:44).

- e) It corrupts the conscience and destroys holiness of life. (“destroyeth his neighbour.” Prov. 11:9).
- f) Christ presents it as a hidden evil that will be exposed. It is a sin which glories in misleading others by smooth flatteries (Matthew 22:16; Isaiah 30:10; Job 15:34).
- g) The religious hypocrites of Jesus’ day sought to be revered by public greetings and honourable titles. They cloaked greed with long prayers (Mark 12:38-40). (Luke 11:42).
- h) It substitutes religious rule, ceremonial & formal, for love, the personal & practical. Matthew 15:6
- i) It cannot receive the truth, because its eye is on impressing man, not on pleasing God. John 5:44.
- j) It makes enquiries not in order to hear the truth, but in order to refute it. (John 9:27,28).
- k) Direct rebuke is the only way to counter hypocrisy. (Luke 6:42; 13:15).
- l) Hypocrisy being an enemy of truth and not being able to live with truth, can only defend itself through persecuting those holding truth (John 8:37).
- m) It takes away the key of knowledge (Luke 11:52). It opposes faith, debasing the whole man.
- n) It sees splinters in it’s brother’s eye while ignoring beams in its own eye (Matthew 7:3-5).
- o) Hypocrites look like sheep, but inwardly they are ravening wolves (Matthew 7:15-20).
- p) The ultimate hypocrite in Scripture is the Antichrist, who stands in the place of Christ, coming in Christ’s Name saying “I am he” (Mark 13:6) and will deceive many.

Because man’s greatest problem is sin, his greatest need is forgiveness.

To confess sin means to agree with God that our sins are wicked, evil and defiling.

Unconfessed sins cannot be forgiven. We see God’s forgiveness as a means of spiritual growth, not as a license to sin. A Puritan once prayed: “Grant me never to lose sight of the exceeding sinfulness of sin, the exceeding righteousness of salvation, the exceeding glory of Christ, the exceeding beauty of holiness, and the exceeding wonder of grace.”

7. The Prerequisite of receiving forgiveness is as we forgive our debtors. (v.12).

Principle: If we forgive others, God forgives us.

If we don’t forgive others, God won’t forgive us.

Question: Why should we forgive others?

- i) Forgiveness is the character of righteousness and of a godly life.
- ii) Christians are blessed and receive mercy if they are merciful (Matthew 5:7).
- iii) Christians love and forgive our enemies because we have God’s loving nature within us. Matthew 5:44,45,48.
- iv) Forgiveness is the mark of a truly regenerate heart. We forgive others, because God has greatly forgiven us.
- v) Christians forgive others, because of Christ’s example. Ephesians 4:32.
- vi) Forgiving or passing over a transgression glorifies us. Proverbs 19:11.
- vii) Forgiving others frees the conscience of guilt. Unforgiveness is a barrier to God’s forgiveness. It interferes with our peace of mind, satisfaction, and proper bodily functions.
- viii) Forgiving others benefits all in a church. Unforgiveness and unresolved conflicts stops the power of a church. “If I regard iniquity in my heart” Psalm 66:18; Matthew 5:23,24.
- ix) Forgiving others delivers us from God’s discipline.
God chastens those with an unforgiving spirit.
- x) Forgiving others brings God’s forgiveness to us. (Matthew 6:12).
- xi) Forgiving others brings a free and joyful life.

In forgiveness, God deals with us as we deal with others. (“saying I repent: thou shalt forgive him.” Luke 17:4
“There is none so tender to others as they which have received mercy themselves, for they know how gently God has dealt with them.”

8. God’s Protection. “And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.” (v.13).

Temptation [Greek Peirasmos (3986)] = to tempt, to try, test, to prove in a good or bad sense.

Four kinds of temptation are:

i) Tempt in a good sense, to ascertain the character, views or feelings of someone. (Matthew 22:35; Rev 2:2; I King 10:1; Psalm 17:3). When God is the agent of temptation (or testing), it is for the purpose of proving someone, never for the purpose of causing him to fall. When God brings His people through trials, affliction, and adversity, it is to prove our faith and confidence in Him (Matt 6:13; 26:41)

ii) Tempt in a bad sense is to try one's virtue, to tempt, to solicit to sin, especially by Satan. The devil tempts us to cause us to fall. (Galatians 6:1; James 1:13,14; Mark 8:11; 10:2; 12:15; Luke 11:16; 20:23; John 8:6; Matthew 4:1-3; I Corinthians 7:5; I Thessalonians 3:5).

iii) Men tempt or prove God by doubting and distrusting God's power and help (Acts 5:9; 15:10; I Corinthians 10:9; Hebrews 3:9), by distrusting Him and complaining to Him. (Hebrews 3:8).

iv) God tempts, tests or proves men by adversity, to test our faith and confidence in Him (I Cor 10:13; Hebrews 2:18; 11:17-37; Rev. 3:10), to show what a person's strengths or weaknesses are to the person being tempted. A person who has been rescued from sin, so greatly despises and fears sin, that he wants to escape all prospects of falling into sin. He prefers to avoid, rather than have to defeat temptation. The Lord's Prayer here asks God to protect us from sin by controlling our eyes, ears, mouth, feet and hands. What men and Satan mean for evil, God will turn to our good. (Genesis 50:20). We are not certain that we will be completely submissive to God in our trials. This says: "Lord, don't lead us into a trial that will present such a temptation that we will not be able to resist it." It is laying claim to the promises of I Corinthians 10:13; Psalm 119:11; James 4:7; "Submit yourselves to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you."

9. God's Pre-eminence. (v.13). "For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, forever, Amen." This says to God: "Thine is the Kingdom", (Thou God has control, dominion, and reign over all these requests, and can order them so as to grant our petitions). "Thine is the power," (Thou has power to accomplish what we ask. We are weak. We cannot do it; but thou art Almighty, and all things are possible with thee). "Thine is the glory," (Thine is the honour and praise, not our honour, but thy glory and thy goodness will be displayed in providing our wants; thy power will be shown in defending us; and thy praise in spreading thy kingdom throughout the earth). God's glory is the first, main and final thing we must seek when we approach Him. This declares the greatness of God's eternal kingdom, power and glory. I Chronicles 20:11 (v.10-18). "Amen" is a Hebrew word meaning "strong agreement, certainly, so be it". Jews in a synagogue said "Amen" to show their agreement with the minister's prayer just uttered.

178. Daily Dozen. I Timothy 6:6.

Daily Dozen used to refer to physical exercises, but God has some spiritual exercises for us to do daily.

Question: Do we know what they are? Are we doing them?

1. Praise God daily. Psalm 72:15; 113:3.

2. Pray daily. Pray for labourers and fellow Christians. Psalm 86:3; 88:9; I Thessalonians 5:17.

3. Search the Scriptures daily. Acts 17:11; Psalm 1:2; Joshua 1:8.

4. Watch daily. Proverbs 8:34. Watch for: a) the Lord's return (Matthew 25:13); b) lest you enter into temptation (Matthew 26:41); c) Pastors watch for people's souls (Heb 18:17); d) Prayer (I Peter 4:7)

5. Fellowship daily with Christ and Christians (Acts 2:42,46,47). Have a family altar daily.

6. Win Souls to Christ daily. Acts 5:42. Is Soul Winning a daily thing for you? This speaks of: Daily evangelism (daily), church centred (in the temple), house to house (doorknocking to every house), they (every Christian), ceased not (continuously), teaching (to teach), preaching (and preach), Jesus Christ (Christ centred).

7. Reason daily. Acts 17:2,17; 18:4,19; 19:9; 24:25.

Do you reason with sinners to overcome their objections to salvation?

8. Exhort daily. Heb. 3:13. Barnabus = "Son of Consolation." Do you encourage those who are down?

9. Take up your cross daily. Luke 9:23. Do you die daily to self and your ways, letting Christ have his way in your life?

10. Die daily to self and live for God (I Corinthians 15:30,31; Romans 8:36,37; Galatians 2:20).

11. Care for the Churches daily. 2 Cor 11:28. Paul was concerned daily for all the churches. I Cor 12:25

12. Perform Vows daily. Psalm 61:8; 116:14.

Conclusion: Do you exercise yourself to godliness by doing these 12 key activities daily? I Timothy 4:7

179. The Precious Blood Of Christ

Bible Reading: Hebrews 9:6-28.

Aim: To show the value of the blood of Christ by what it does for us in the sight of God.

Introduction: Read I Peter 1:18. To Peter, the blood of Christ grew more precious as the years passed by. In the Bible, there are 290 references to the love of God, but 1300 references to the atoning blood.

Illustration 1: House of a Thousand Terrors.

In the market place of Rotterdam, Holland, stood for many years an old corner house known as “The House of a Thousand Terrors.” The story is as follows:

During the 16th Century, the Dutch people rose in revolt against the cruel King Philip II of Spain. Philip sent a great army under the Duke of Alva to suppress the rebellion. Rotterdam held out for a time but finally capitulated. From house to house the victors went, searching out citizens and then killing them in their houses. A group of men, women, and children were hiding in a corner house when they heard soldiers approaching. A thousand terrors gripped their hearts. Then a young man had an idea. He took a goat in the house, killed it, and with a broom swept the blood under the doorway out to the street.

The soldiers reached the house and began to batter down the door. Noticing the blood coming out from under the door, one soldier said: “Come away, the work is already done here. Look at the blood beneath the door.” And the people inside the house escaped.

Why is the blood of Christ precious?

1. It Redeems us from the devil and from the curse of the law. The law condemns me, but Christ has satisfied the claims of the law. (Ephesians 1:7; Colossians 1:14; Revelation 5:9).

We are now under a different law, the law of Christ (Galatians 6:2; I Cor 9:21; Romans 8:2).

Redemption means buying back. Christ has redeemed us, paying the full price for our sin, and has bought us back to God.

Illustration 2: A friend in Ireland once met a little Irish boy who had caught a sparrow. The poor little bird was trembling in his hand, and seemed very anxious to escape. The gentleman begged the boy to let it go, as the bird could not do him any good; but the boy said he would not, for he had chased it for three hours before he could catch it. He tried to reason it out with the boy, but in vain. At last he offered to buy the bird. The boy agreed to the price, and it was paid. Then the gentleman took the poor little thing, and held it out on his hand. The boy had been holding it tight. The boy was stronger than the bird, just as Satan is stronger than we. There it sat for a time scarcely able to realise the fact that it had got liberty; but in a little time it flew away chirping, as if to say to the gentleman: “Thank you! Thank you! You have redeemed me.” This is what redemption is – buying back and setting free. Christ came to break the fetters of sin, to open the prison doors and set the sinner free.

Conclusion: Have you applied the blood of Christ to yourself? Have you received Christ’s blood sacrifice as the full payment for your sins? Have you called on Christ to save you? Do so today.

2. It Blots Out Our Sin (Revelation 1:5; Isaiah 43:25; Acts 3:19).

Christ’s blood is precious because it blots out sin. A teacher asked a class: “Is there anything God cannot do?” A pupil replied: “Yes, He cannot see my sins through the blood of Christ.”

The blood of Christ blots out the sins of those who receive Christ. Just as a cloud disappears, and the chalk is erased from a blackboard forever, so Christ’s blood removes our sins.

3. It Brings Us Near (Ephesians 2:13).

The blood of Christ not only brings us near to God, but it brings us near to one another.

I can go to any Bible loving, Christ loving fundamental Baptist Church and get better acquainted with these people in 24 hours, than I could if I spoke about science and philosophy at a university in 24 years. We realise that we are blood relations.

4. It Makes Peace (Colossians 1:20). You will never find peace in this world until you come to the cross of Christ. When Christ died, He made out His will. You are mentioned in it:

- i) He willed His Spirit back to His Father.
- ii) He willed His Body to Joseph of Arimathea (temporarily).
- iii) He willed His Mother to John.
- iv) He willed His Peace to His Disciples. “My peace I give unto you.” (John 14:27).

Do you want peace? Are you tossed by trouble, sorrow, persecution? If so, call on Christ to save you.

Illustration 3: During the last days of the Civil War, when many men were deserting from the South, Secretary Stanton sent out a notice from the War Department that no more refugees be taken into the Union army. A Southern soldier hadn't seen that, and he came into the Union lines and they read the order to him. He didn't know what to do. If he went back into the Southern army he would be shot as a deserter, and the Northern army wouldn't have him. So he went into the woods between the armies and stayed there until he got starved out. He saw an officer going by, and he rushed out of the woods and told this officer that if he didn't help him he would have to take his life. The officer asked what was the trouble. He told him. The officer said: "Haven't you heard the news?" "No, what news?" "Why, the war is over. Lee has surrendered. Peace is declared. Go to the first town, and get all the food you want." The man waved his hat and went to the town as quickly as he could.

I want to say that peace is declared, and the war is over. Be ye, reconciled to God, and the whole thing will be settled. The blood is on the mercy seat. As long as it is there, the vilest sinner can enter and be saved for time and eternity.

5. It Justifies (Romans 5:9).

Illustration 4: The Devil and Martin Luther.

There is a legend of Martin Luther that during a serious illness, the Evil One entered his sick room and looking at him with a triumphant smile, unrolled a big scroll which he carried in his arms. As the fiend threw one end of it on the floor, it unwound by itself. Luther's eyes read the long fearful record of his own sins, one by one. That stout heart quailed before the ghastly roll. Suddenly it flashed into Luther's mind that there was one thing not written there. He cried aloud: "One thing you have forgotten. The rest is all true, but one thing you have forgotten: "The blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin." " And as he said this, the Accuser of the brethren and his heavy roll disappeared.

The blood of Christ is precious because it justifies you and me.

Justified means "There isn't a charge against you." It is better than a pardon. Your sins are completely wiped out. They are not to be remembered or mentioned. God puts them out of His memory.

"As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us." Psalm 103:12.

6. It Cleanses (I John 1:7).

The blood of Christ is precious because it cleanses us from all sin, not some sin, but ALL sin.

Believers ought to be the happiest people in the world.

Question: How can blood cleanse sin?

Illustration 5: A preacher was speaking from the text: "The blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin." Suddenly he was interrupted by an atheist who asked: "How can blood cleanse sin?" For a moment the preacher was silent, but then he replied, "How can water quench thirst?"

"I do not know," replied the infidel, "but I know that it does." "Neither do I know how the blood of Jesus Christ cleanses sin," answered the preacher, "but I know that it does."

7. It Gives Boldness (Hebrews 10:19).

Illustration 6: There is a story of a man who was going to be tried for his life, and if found guilty there was no hope for him unless the king would intercede. They went to the king, and he finally agreed to give him a pardon, but the king said: "Let it be secret, and if the man isn't condemned, do not say anything about it; if he is condemned, he can use the pardon." The man went to court with the pardon in his pocket, and he was quite cheerful about his trial. The verdict went against him. When the judge pronounced the sentence upon him, he took pains to say that he and the whole court were shocked to think that a man could be on trial for his life and be so unconcerned. When the judge got through, the man stepped up and laid the king's pardon on the judge's desk, and walked out bold as a lion.

Conclusion: You have a charge against me. What do I care? God has justified me. He comes and says, "Keith, you are a saved man." Yes, saved by grace, saved for time and for eternity.

The blood of Christ is precious because it gives me boldness in the day of judgment. Isn't that good? I pity people who live all their life under fear of death. Because I am freed from death by the blood of Christ, judgment is passed already. I will not be judged at the Great White Throne Judgment. Because Christ has been judged for my sins on the cross as my Saviour, I will have boldness in the day of judgment. Will you receive Christ as your Saviour, trusting His blood sacrifice to cleanse your sin?

180. Temptation

Bible Reading: I Corinthians 10:1-13.

1. Source of Temptations.

- i) The World (I John 2:15-17), ii) The Flesh (James 1:14), iii) The Devil (Matthew 4:1-11),
- iv) Evil Associates (Proverbs 1:10), v) Christian Friends (Matthew 16:22,23).

2. Methods of Temptation.

- i) Discouragement (Psalm 42:11). ii) Worldly glory (Matthew 4:8-10; Numbers 22:17).
- iii) Anger at other peoples actions eg: David & Nabal (I Sam 25:21-32). iv) Poverty (Proverbs 30:8,9)
- v) Satisfy our needs unrighteously (Matthew 4:3,4). vi) Prosperity (Proverbs 30:9).
- vii) Advice of others eg. Job's wife (Job 2:9 "Curse God and die, and friends bad advice).

3. Types of Temptation.

- i) To disbelieve God's Word. Satan asked Eve, "Yea, hath God said?" (Genesis 3:1).
- ii) To presumption – that God would rescue us.
In Matthew 4:6, Satan tempted Jesus to presume that the angels would rescue Him.
- iii) To worship the god of this world. (Matthew 4:9).
- iv) To pride. eg. Nebuchadnezzar (Daniel 4:30); Satan (Isaiah 14:12-16).
- v) To pleasure. eg. Moses (Hebrews 11:25).
- vi) To quit serving God. eg. Demas (II Timothy 4:10).
- vii) To power and popularity. Eg: Simon Magus (Acts 8:19).
- viii) To possessions. eg. Achan. (Joshua 7:1-24).
- ix) To money. eg. Judas (Matthew 26:14-16); Ananias and Sapphira (Acts 5:1-11).
- x) To sex. eg. David (II Samuel 11:2-4); Solomon (Nehemiah 13:26).

4. How to get victory over temptation.

- i) By hiding God's Word in our heart (Psalm 119:9). By using God's Word as a sword (Eph. 6:17).
- ii) By personal prayer of yourself (Matthew 26:41) and of others. (I Samuel 12:33).
- iii) By Christ's intercession for us (Luke 22:31,32) & the Holy Spirit's intercession for us. Rom.8:26,27
- iv) By God's faithfulness to us (I Cor. 10:13).
- v) By fleeing (II Timothy 2:22; I Cor. 6:18; I Timothy 6:11; Proverbs 4:14,15).
- vi) By resisting the devil (James 4:7).
- vii) By looking for and accepting the way of escape (I Cor. 10:13).
- viii) By getting busy serving God, rather than being idle (II Samuel 11:1).
- ix) By drawing near to God (James 4:8).
- x) By keeping our bodies in subjection (I Cor. 9:27).
- xi) By knowing, reckoning and yielding our members as instruments of righteousness. Romans 6:6-19.
- xii) By having close godly friends (Proverbs 27:17), as we attend all our church services. Heb.10:24,25

5. Load Limit of Temptations "God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able, but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it." I Cor 10:13

- i) God sets the time limit of our temptations.
- ii) God sets the time of arrival of the temptation to come when we are mature enough to handle it.
- iii) God guides the stress or pressure during the temptation.

6. Reasons for temptation. i) Test our faith. James 1:2,3. ii) Test our obedience. Genesis 22:1.
God tests us to know the depth of our love for Christ, and the sincerity of our obedience to God's Word.

7. Results of Temptation.

- i) If yielded to, temptation becomes sin. (I Timothy 6:9).
- ii) If resisted, the Lord is glorified, and we grow stronger to resist other temptations.
- iii) Patience, perfect and entire wanting nothing. (James 1:2-4).
- iv) We receive a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory in heaven if resisted. II Cor. 4:17.

8. Bible Characters who were tempted. Name a few. What do you learn from each?

Conclusion: Temptations are common to all men, so let us expect them. Beware of yielding to sin. To fall is easy, to get forgiveness from God by confession of sin is easy, but scars often remain. Know the importance of immediate restoration of fellowship with God by confession and repentance.

181. What Sin Does To Us. Psalm 51

Bible Reading: Psalm 51 and II Samuel 12:1-25.

Aim: To show the dangers of sin, the need to avoid sin, and the need to seek forgiveness of sins.

Introduction: Sin is very destructive. Its consequences are worse than first thought. We sin in our:

- a) Thoughts -- by what we allow to enter our mind through our eyes and ears.
- b) Words -- by what we say that we shouldn't say e.g. betraying confidences, slander, lies.
- c) Deeds -- as David committed adultery and murder.

Psalm 51 records David's confession, where we see the effects of sin on David and on ourselves.

Let these effects of sin in Psalm 51 warn us against tolerating sins in our lives. Sin:

1. Is Breaking God's Law. (v.1). "Blot out my Transgressions" = revolt against God's law.

Iniquity = perverseness in our nature. Sin = missing the mark, falling short. (Romans 3:23).

2. Makes us feel Guilty and Dirty. (v.2). "Wash me from my iniquity". He looked at himself and saw,

- a) a Diary – that contained a record of his deeds so foul that he pleaded with God to blot it out. "My sin is ever before me." (v.3). We can't undo the past, but God can blot out the damning record.
- b) a Dress – his dress had been trampled in the dirt and needed to be washed. No light soaking or rinsing would cleanse the ingrained dirt. "Wash me thoroughly..." (v.2).
- c) a Disease – he needed to be cleansed from. "Cleanse me" (v.2).

3. Dwells in our memory, (v.3) as a ghost that haunts us. He saw the hurt eyes of Bathsheba, the crying eyes of his sick baby, the cynical eyes of Joab, the dead eyes of Uriah, the disrespectful eyes of his sons. The way we hurt others, returns to accuse us and to occupy our minds. "my sin is ever before me."

4. Offends God (v.4), as well as Bathsheba, her parents, the baby. It places us under God's judgment.

5. Sin robs us of Truth and Wisdom (v.6) if not confessed. Why? Because through fear we tell lies to cover up our sins. We lose wisdom because we accuse sin in others, but we excuse sin in ourselves.

6. Sin takes our JOY and WISDOM (v.8,12). Anything that does this should be dealt with seriously.

7. Sin causes us to FEEL REJECTED. (v.9). "Hide thy face from my sins."

When sin accuses us we feel distant from God and from others.

8. Sin makes us FEEL DIRTY. (v.10). "Create in me a clean heart". We all hate feeling dirty.

9. Sin DEFILES our spirit. (v.10). "Renew a right spirit within me." Sin wounds and hurts us in our spiritual life. It stops us serving God. We then feel guilty before God & envious of victorious Christians

10. Sin makes God seem DISTANT (v.11). "Cast me not away from thy presence."

11. Sin stops us from soul winning, Bible Teaching and from disciplining others. (v.13).

Our mind is so occupied with our own sin, guilt and trying to fix the consequences of our sin, that we stop doing the really important things that we are meant to do, like preaching the gospel and teaching God's Word. Sin sidetracks us from doing God's will. We are then prone to accusing and attacking good Christians, to pull them down to our level, so we don't feel so guilty.

12. Sin stops us from SINGING, and PRAISING God (v.14,15), but confession of sin to God restores fellowship and brings singing and praise. "Lord open thou my lips; & my mouth shall shew forth thy praise."

Lessons David learned:

1. The sin question was to be dealt with on spiritual, not ceremonial grounds. (v.16,17).

After Nathan's parable, David flung himself in repentance and remorse at God's feet. Nathan looked at the sobbing King and said: "God hath put away thy sin." No ox, no lambs, no burnt offerings would suffice, just the Word of God. What God really wanted from the sinner was a broken and contrite heart. (v.17). That was the true sacrifice God required. This was a big advance on the theology of the day.

2. David looked forward to a restored, built up Millennial city of Jerusalem (v.18,19).

"build thou the walls of Jerusalem." (v.18). David leaps from his repentance to the repentance of Israel at the end of the age. Millennial sacrifices (v.19) will be memorial.

3. "Be sure your sin will find you out." (Numbers 32:23). God will discipline believers for sin. David's murder of Uriah reaped the results of 4 of his sons untimely death: the baby (II Sam.12), Amnon (II Sam.13), Absalom (II Sam.18) and Adonijah (I Kings 2:25). (Exodus 22:1; II Sam. 12:6; Luke 19:8).

Conclusion: What sins does God want you to repent of ? Turn from them today. Sin's consequences are too expensive for us and for those we love.

182. Satan: The Accuser Of The Brethren. The devil accuses us in 4 ways:

1) The Devil accuses US before God. Revelation 12:10; Job 1:6.

The Devil's lie was that Job served God only because God gave him health and wealth.

For many Christians, the devil can go to God, and not have to lie in accusing us.

This means that what the devil says is true. One little problem comes along, and many of us give up.

We need to understand what the devil is doing in our life. He is accusing us. Even if we are guilty, God knows it. Live well enough so that when the devil accuses us, he has to make up a lie to God.

2) The Devil will accuse GOD to us.

The Devil tells us that God is trying to stop us having fun. When the devil accuses God to us, does he get anywhere? The Christian leaders that you are blaming are trying to preserve your fun. The devil comes when we are tired, depressed, stressed or hurt and says, "I told you it would get hard." In the Bible, everything God did was good. I'm amazed that the devil can accuse a guilty sinner to a Holy God and get nowhere, and yet accuse a Holy God to a guilty sinner and get somewhere.

Question: Are you listening to the devil's lies about God? If the devil uses the words "if" (Matthew 4) or "Why?" to us, we are close to having a wrong conversation with him. Blame the devil, he started sin.

3) The Devil accuses US to EACH OTHER, then we begin to hate and criticize each other.

Is there some believer you avoid, who you won't greet, or who you have an unresolved grievance with? These sins cause splits in a church, as others feel compelled to take sides to try to fix the problem.

Question: Why are you accusing each other? I thought we were on the same team. Aren't we all fighting the same enemy? When Christians stop soul winning and stop fighting the devil, they then start fighting each other. It's time to build God's work, not to pull it down by fighting each other for petty reasons.

"A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips." Proverbs 17:4. God hates false witnesses. (Proverbs 6:16).

4) The Devil accuses US to OURSELVES.

Every time you sin, the devil will magnify it, and say something like: "God can't use you, look at your sin." When the devil brings up your past, you bring up his future (in the lake of fire). Us dwelling on our past sins that we have confessed, is like a little boy's cat that died. He buried it with its tail sticking out of the ground. Each day he kept pulling it out of the ground to see if it was still dead. Each day it looked a little worse, and smelled a little worse. You may have a bad past, but you have a bright future.

Question: God has given us eternal life. What are we doing for God to show our thanks to Him?

Conclusion: 1) Reinforce your love for each other. 2) Forget the past, and look to the future.

3) Reject the devil's accusations about you, God and others.

Jesus Christ was accused of 6 main things:

i) Breaking the Sabbath. The disciples gathered & ate grain on a Sabbath. Mat12:1-8. His defence was:

a) David entered the house of God and ate the showbread with his hungry soldiers (I Samuel 21:6).

b) Priests on the Sabbath day profane the Sabbath by working, and are blameless (Numbers 28:9-10,24)

c) Christ is greater than the Temple and He has authority over it. (Matthew 12:6).

d) God is seeking mercy and compassion from us above ritual sacrifice. (Matthew 12:7).

e) Christ has authority over the Sabbath itself. (Matthew 12:8).

ii) Healing on the Sabbath. His defence was that: a) It was right to heal on the Sabbath (Matthew 12:11)

b) Man is worth much more than a sheep or an ass that they would rescue on the Sabbath. Matth.12:12.

iii) Fellowshipping with publicans and sinners. A publican was a tax collector (Matthew 9:11; Luke 7:34). His defence was that he came not to call the righteous, but to bring sinners to repentance.

iv) Forbidding men to pay tribute to Caesar (Luke 23:2). This was false because Christ paid tribute. (Matt.17:24-27). He said it was right to pay to Caesar and to God what was due to each (Matt.22:17-21)

v) Claiming to be God by forgiving sins (Luke 5:20-24). This was true of Christ.

vi) Planning to destroy the temple and to rebuild it in 3 days (John 2:19-21).

He spoke of the Temple of His body which was to be raised from the dead after 3 days.

vii) Claiming to be Christ, the Son of God (Matthew 26:63,34). True.

Satan accuses the Christian daily before the throne of God (Job 1:6-12; 2:1-8; Rev.12:9-10), but we rejoice that Christ stands there as our Advocate to plead His shed blood and to defend us (I John 2:1-2). Christians are falsely accused, but ought not be rightly accused of evil (I Peter 3:17; 4:12-19; Mat 5:11-12)

183. What Pleases God

Bible Reading: John 8:19-32.

Aim: To please God in all that we say and do.

Introduction: One of the greatest secrets of the successful Christian life is to please God instead of pleasing ourselves or other people, such as the ungodly crowd. Jesus Christ's autobiography can be summarised by John 8:29 "I do always those things that please him."

I. Some other Biographies of Jesus Christ are:

- i) "The Son of Man is come to seek and to save that which was lost." Luke 19:10.
- ii) "The Word was made flesh and dwelt among us ... full of grace and truth." John 1:14.
- iii) In eternity past, the Son is saying to the Father, regarding His incarnation, life on earth, death for our sins and resurrection, "I delight to do thy will, O God." Psalm 40:8.
- iv) As a boy He said, "I must be about my Father's business." Luke 2:49.
- v) At Jesus' baptism, the Father said 'Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased' Mark 1:11
- vi) Peter at Cornelius' house said of Jesus that He "went about doing good." Acts 10:38.
- vii) Peter said of Jesus that He was a "man approved of God." Acts 2:22.
- viii) Jesus pleased His Father in life, "The pleasure of the Lord shall prosper in his hand" Isaiah 53:10
- ix) Jesus pleased God in death, "Yet it pleased the Lord to bruise him." Isaiah 53:10.
- x) "For even Christ pleased not himself." Romans 15:3.

The one consuming passion in Christ's life was to please the Father. Nothing else mattered.

Lesson: The most miserable and wretched life is one that constantly tries to please itself. Away with the selfish life. "Get all I can and can all I get" doesn't make anyone happy. If we want to please God, we must find out what pleases Him. If you, young man are courting a young lady, you find out what she likes and do it. Husbands, find out what your wife wants and do it. Give her what she likes.

II. The Bible tells us what pleases God. It pleases the Father when:

1) We exalt His Son. "He is the head of the body, the church:...that in all things he might have the preeminence. For it pleased the Father that in him should all fullness dwell." Colossians 1:18,19.

This means that we should exalt the Lord Jesus Christ who contains all the fullness of God.

It pleases the Father when we talk about Jesus Christ. Good songs to sing are:

"What a friend we have in Jesus", "All hail the power of Jesus' name", "No one ever cared for me like Jesus", "Let's talk about Jesus, the King of Kings is He, the Lord of Lords supreme, through all eternity. The great I am the way, the Truth, the Life, the Door. Let's talk about Jesus more and more."

2) We Do Good. Hebrews 13:15,16.

"But to do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased."

By doing good, we please God, such as when we help others, or buy things for those in need. Some people for $AU 1000 could buy a church building in Africa. Don't hoard your money all to yourself. Use it to help others, and get the gospel out, so you can still enjoy the effects of your money when you are 150 years old, 200, 1000, 1 million years old. It pleases God when we do something for others to help them know Jesus Christ. This is why we emphasise soul winning, missions and literature.

3) We Love One Another.

"We then that are strong ought... not to please ourselves. Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification. For even Christ pleased not himself..." Romans 15:1-3.

If you love others you'll exhort them to get busy serving God. Some day you'll have to face Jesus Christ and tell Him why you wasted so much time in laziness on earth. I want you to enjoy heaven more and not to be ashamed at Christ's coming. God wants us to love one another.

Question: Do you hate anybody today?

Question: Did you criticise anyone lately? That doesn't please the Father.

Question: Have you stood in the way of sinners, or sat in the seat of the scornful? or criticised some good Bible preacher? That doesn't please God. God is pleased when brethren dwell together in unity. (Psalm 133:1,2,3). To God, it smells like ointment. God says, "When my people love each other, it smells like sweet perfume. If they fight each other, it stinks."

4) We are Fruitful.

“That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God.” Colossians 1:10.

When you bear fruit by leading someone to Christ, there is much pleasure in heaven (Luke 15:7,10).

Question: Are you bearing fruit for Jesus Christ?

5) We Praise Him.

“I will praise the name of God, with a song and will magnify him with thanksgiving. This also shall please the Lord.” Psalm 69:30,31.

God would rather have heartfelt praise than temple sacrifices or good intentions. It pleases the Father:

- a) When you lead someone to Christ & they tell someone: ‘I have received Jesus Christ as my Saviour’.
- b) When someone gets baptised, and praises Christ for saving him.
- c) When we go soul-winning, and tell sinners how good God is.
- d) When we praise God in hard times.
- e) When we come to church and praise God in song.
- f) When we disciple people so they get back into fellowship with God & praise Him. That pleases God.

6) We pray for a wise and understanding heart to serve others, as Solomon prayed. I Kings 3:9,10.

Question: Do you study God’s Word to become wise to serve God and people better?

7) We preach the gospel to lost sinners. “It pleased God by the foolishness of preaching, to save them that believe.” I Corinth.1:21. Many Christians fear soul-winning because they may look foolish before men. God is pleased when we are prepared to look foolish for Him so sinners can get saved.

8) We seek to please God rather than men.

“If I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.” Galatians 1:10. It pleases God when we are prepared to take a stand against the ungodly crowd and the ways of the world.

9) We walk with God in sweet fellowship, as Enoch did. “Enoch walked with God: and he was not; for God took him.” Genesis 5:21-24; and “he had this testimony, that he pleased God.” Hebrews 11:5. Enoch pleased God by walking with God in the midst of an evil world. Do you walk daily with God?

10) We do things by Faith and Obedience. “But without faith it is impossible to please God.”

Hebrews 11:6. It pleases God when we obey and trust Him in hard situations.

11) When we give God’s Word out to people. “So shall my word be that goeth forth... it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please.” Isaiah 55:11.

12) When we choose the things that please God. “Choose the things that please me.” Isaiah 56:4,5. These include such things as giving Sunday and our lives wholly to serving God.

13) When we are filled with the Holy Spirit, and not led by the flesh.

“They that are in the flesh cannot please God.” Romans 8:8.

14) When we don’t entangle ourselves in the affairs of this life, but seek to please Christ who has chosen us to be a soldier. II Timothy 2:4. We are soldiers for Jesus Christ.

15) We bless Israel. “When Balaam saw that it pleased the Lord to bless Israel.” Numbers 24:1.

“I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee.” (Genesis 12:3).

16) When we abstain from fornication. “please God, that ye should abstain from fornication” (I Thess. 4:1-8). God avenges (v.6) those who fornicate and defraud (take advantage of) others.

III. Things That Displease God

1) When people kill and persecute Christians. I Thess. 2:15,16 “Who killed the Lord... they please not God”

2) When people commit adultery. David in 2 Samuel 11:27 “the thing David had done displeased the Lord”

3) When people rejoice when their enemy falls. Proverbs 24:17,18.

4) When people complain. Numb. 11:1; I Cor 10:5,9,10 “When the people complained, it displeased the Lord”

5) When people are proud of their achievements. I Chron 21:1-7,8 “Satan .provoked David to number Israel”

6) When justice & judgment on sin is not done. Isaiah 59:14,15 “it displeased him that there was no judgment”

7) When people turn children away from Jesus. Mark 10:13-16 “when Jesus saw it he was much displeased.”

Conclusion: Do you please God or displease God? Do you please yourself? Do you seek to please the ungodly crowd? What are you doing that is displeasing to God? Get right with God today.

184. “The Snare Of The Fowler”

Bible Reading: Psalm 124:1-8. v.7

“Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: the snare is broken.” Psalm 124:7a.

Aim: To recognise the devil’s snares and to avoid them.

Introduction: In Psalm 124, the bird represents people. The Fowler (one who would trap that bird) represents Satan. The snare represents the traps that Satan lays for us.

- a) II Timothy 2:25,26 reminds all Christians that the devil lays snares to trap us to be ineffective.
- b) I Timothy 3:7 warns preachers about the snares and traps the devil has for them.
- c) I Timothy 6:9 warns the rich about the snare of riches.

Satan is after your soul. If you are not saved, he will do all he can to stop you coming to Jesus Christ.

Consider this:

- 1) If the devil can’t get your soul, he wants your life
- 2) If the devil can’t get your life, he wants your testimony
- 3) If the devil can’t get your testimony, he wants your joy
- 4) If the devil can’t get your joy, he wants your fruitfulness
- 5) If the devil can’t get your fruitfulness, he wants your time
- 6) If the devil can’t get your time, he wants your talent
- 7) If the devil can’t get your talent, he wants your zeal
- 8) If the devil can’t get your zeal, he wants to rob you of your rewards.

The devil has set a trap for everyone of us. Somewhere in life, you are going to face that trap. He’s trying to trap you in a snare. The fowler doesn’t care about the age of the birds he traps.

I. Notice these things about the bird:

1) The bird is a sparrow. (Matthew 10:29,31 “ye are of more value than many sparrows.”)

A sparrow is a small bird, not very strong, not very attractive, not very intelligent. The little sparrow comes to the trap, not knowing that there’s something inside that will make him a slave or captive. He begins to nibble on the nice bait that smells and looks so good. That food is not for his good but for his capture and enslavement.

The only hope for the trapped sparrow is someone on the outside setting him free. There’s nothing that he or some bird can do to help him get free. He’s trapped.

Lesson: There’s nothing a man can do to save his own soul or deliver himself from his own sin.

It takes someone from the outside. “He shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler.” (Psalm 91:3).

Only God can deliver you from the snare of sin. An alcoholic can’t be delivered by AA. They are just a bunch of birds trying to help each other get out. If you’re bound by booze, the only answer is the gospel and power of Jesus Christ.

2) A sparrow is so insignificant. In Matthew 10:29,31 we find that 2 sparrows were sold for 1 farthing (¼ cent). This is ⅛ cent each. In Luke 12:6,7, “Are not five sparrows sold for 2 farthings” (½ cent). This means that one sparrow was thrown in for free. God didn’t make us feel very important when He compared us to a sparrow. You’d like to be a parrot or a budgie or an eagle.

Yet “one of them shall not fall to the ground without your Father.” (Matthew 10:29). This means that if you fall, your heavenly Father has permitted it. Our heavenly Father takes note of that little sparrow. God knows and cares today if your heart is broken, if you’re sad, lonely or broken.

3) The sparrow is an ignorant bird. When God wanted something to represent the soul of man he chose an ignorant bird. The sparrow thinks he knows what’s best, but he doesn’t. He looks at the food, is hungry and gets closer. He then enters the trap, is trapped and cannot escape.

Lesson: You’d think people who had seen so many alcohol and cigarette related deaths would not drink alcohol or smoke cigarettes, but they do and they still get caught. Teens are inexcusable to smoke.

Lesson: If you hang around a trap, you will get caught in the trap. Many of the “only one drink” crowd are now alcoholics. Many of the “only one-wrong-school” crowd are now atheists.

II. What Types Of Snares Exists?

A snare is a baited trap to catch birds, or animals. Some had loops of wire or rope to tighten around a victim’s neck. Some had 2 jaws which trapped an animal’s foot. The snare might be a camouflaged net over a pit into which the victim fell. They were triggered automatically or operated from a distance.

The elements of concealment, surprise or attractive bait that led to the animal's capture, well applies to traps people face that are set by the devil. Some traps include:

- 1) False gods which were snares to Israel ("their gods shall be a snare unto you." Judges 2:3).
- 2) The harlot was a snare to the one who follows her (Proverbs 7:23 'as a bird hasteth to the snare').
- 3) Riches are a snare to the man who seeks wealth ('they that will be rich fall into a snare.' I Tim 6:9).
- 4) Bad crowd. ("the way of the ungodly shall perish." Psalm 1:6).
- 5) Alcohol, cigarettes, drugs.
- 6) False religions eg: JW, Roman Catholicism, Mormonism, Islam.
- 7) Love of money (I Timothy 6:9-11).
- 8) Wrong education – "Cease, my son, to hear the instruction that causeth to err from the words of knowledge." Proverbs 19:27.
- 9) Wrong dating and wrong marriage.
- 10) Modern Bible versions.
- 11) Wrong Bible/Theological Colleges.
- 12) Para church organisations not under the authority of any church.
- 13) Bad movies, books or pornography. These are very addictive.
- 14) Rock music, clubs, discos.
- 15) New Evangelical churches that don't preach against sin.

Notice the following snares or dirty tricks that people may try to trap you with:

- 1) The Rich man's trap: A rich man in a church who claims to be a Christian, offers you (the pastor) some money to help you. You think, "What a wonderfully kind man." So you take it. Later on, he wants you to do something, such as give him a position in the church, or implement an idea of his. If you refuse to let him have his way, he often turns on you in anger, asks for the large sum of money back immediately and slanders you to others in the church. At this point he decides to leave the church. Because he is angry at the pastor, he decides to "punish" the pastor by recruiting some undiscerning, simple church members to his cause, slandering the pastor to them to get them to leave the church. If they are backslidden or non soul winners, or convicted by the pastor's preaching against some sin of theirs, or already resenting the pastor over some minor issue, they will readily listen to such lying slander and join the rebellion (like Korah, Dathan and Abiram- Numbers 16; Deut. 11:6) and leave the church in anger against the pastor. This is how God purges backsliders out of a sound church to keep a good church on the right path. These backsliders often go to a lukewarm church that rarely doorknocks or wins souls, but tells them what they want to hear and lets them stay lukewarm. This is an important time for all godly church members to remember all the good the pastor has done and have the courage to strongly and vocally support him 100% in his time of need. If he quits, you will suffer and no other pastor may want to take his place if this is how you treat pastors. This is how a church becomes ruled by non soul-winning deacons or by a committee. At these times, your love to the pastor is tested.
- 2) The Modern Bible Version translator's trap/trick: Because such translators need to make a profit, they need to persuade people to buy their "bibles". They do this by telling the unsuspecting Christian public that due to modern manuscript discoveries and greater modern scholarship that their new version is so much "easier to understand" than the KJV or previous modern versions. What they don't tell the public is that this new version (such as the NIV) has removed about 2% of the New Testament. This is because of its translation from the corrupt Codex Vaticanus. At $20 a copy as well as copyright royalties, they make a lot of money. Next year they bring out a newer version and tell the public how much better it is than last year's modern version. At another $20 a copy they make even more money.
- 3) The Fornicators trap/trick: A young man who has attended a humanistic "self authority" school becomes friendly with a nice young lady. He wants to have sex with her without being committed to her in marriage. He tells her lies such as:
 - a) I can't make up my mind to marry you, so let's live together to see if we are compatible, or
 - b) We can't afford to get married now, so let's live together until we can afford it.If the young lady foolishly agrees to live with him, it is likely that they won't marry, but split up around age 30. She then discovers that many eligible men that she might have married, have married someone else. She feels left on the shelf and has to start looking again for Mr. Right. What a disaster for her!

4) The Cheap Quote Builders trap/trick: If you need to contract with a builder to build a house or church, cross off the cheapest quote, especially if it is from a small builder. These small builders often desperately need to sign you up in order to use the money you pay them to pay their tradesmen from a previous job. During the course of the project, he will increase the price by submitting to you numerous claims for variations due to extra costs that were “not expected”. If you refuse to pay him, he may threaten to stop the job and do no further work until you pay him everything he wants. He then has you completely over a barrel. At the end of the job, you are paying the greatest amount of money in interest to your bank (maybe over $5000 per month interest). He may also sue you in the court for his money. Now you must hire a solicitor and barrister to defend yourself from possible loss and bankruptcy. In addition, no other builder is willing to take over the job in case you sue him for the first builder’s defects. Your fixed price contract means nothing, because you must be willing to spend 5 years in court to enforce it. Often he will have no money in his company, so even if you win the case, you still get no money out of him to recover your losses or costs. If you can’t pay your solicitor, he may sue you or threaten to not release the file and do no further work until you pay his fees. If you have no more money he will demand that you sign a mortgage over your home and/or the building project to give him the right to take his fees out of your home or the project. If you refuse, you lose the case against the builder who is suing you and you may go bankrupt.

5) The Dishonest Lawyer’s trap/trick: When the builder sues you, a lawyer must be hired to defend you. You ask a lawyer for his estimate of fees to finish the job. He deliberately underquotes to get the job. He might say $5000. After 3 weeks his fees pass $5000 and you begin to wonder how high they will climb. Three years later his fees exceed $250,000 and the builder gets wound up by another of his creditors, or you lose on a technicality, or you both have to agree to walk away and pay your own costs. The lawyer wins and you lose.

6) The Business Partner’s trap/trick: If you enter a business venture with a partner, he will expect an equal share in any profits. If you start making losses, most partners will decide to stop paying their share of the losses and walk away to leave you to pay all the losses yourself. If he is a Christian, you can’t sue him because of I Cor. 6:1-8. You end up losing everything and he may lose very little. Don’t enter into business with any partner, be they Christian or unbeliever.

7) The Para Church Organization Trap/Trick: a) This appears as Para Church Organizations (PCO) wanting to preach in your church about their ministry, so you will support them financially. They want your money, but have no intention of submitting to your authority if you want them to do things God’s way. They are under the authority of the PCO, not your church. They will all believe in the Universal Church, but they come to local churches for their support. They will not believe in separation or rebuking error (Romans 16:17), but will go to many churches who hold false doctrines to get money.

b) A variation of this is that a PCO may visit your church trying to recruit students for their theological college. They will try to persuade your most promising young people to go study at their college so they can turn them away from you and your church and recruit them to their PCO. Their idea is, You win them to Christ, train them to be fruitful soul winners, and the PCO “pinch” them to spread the many errors of the PCO (eg: Modern versions, Universal church, non separation, Calvinism, etc). It is better to tell the PCO person at the start where his PCO is wrong, tell him to leave it, or leave your church. Otherwise he’ll rob you of your best people who may have become great preachers.

Conclusion: The only person who ever set foot on this earth who is not a bird or in our sinful condition is the Lord Jesus Christ. He is the only one who can rescue you from sin.

Illustration: A lion got loose from the zoo and they couldn’t catch him. They put a lamb in a cage. The lion became hungry, entered the cage, ate the lamb, then found himself trapped. There’s another lion loose today (the devil - I Peter 5:8). He’s after you. I know how he can be caught. A lamb was placed in a cage. The lamb that taketh away the sin of the world. The Lord Jesus Christ went to the cross. The devil attacked Jesus. The Lamb of God died. Satan thought he had him, but when Satan tried to exit the cage, he found he was trapped. Your safety depends on you taking the Lamb of God as your Saviour.

- 1) The snare is concealed.
- 2) The snare is attractive.
- 3) The snare is counterfeit. Beware of the snare!!!!!!

185. Four Wise Little Preachers tell us four facts about salvation. Proverbs 30:24-28.

1. ANT teaches us WHEN to be saved. (v.25).

Question: What wise thing is the ant doing?

Answer: Storing food for winter, and preparing for his future. Ants tells us that we should get saved in the summer time of the youth of our life, not in the winter of old age.

2. CONY teaches us WHERE to be saved. (v.26).

When a fox chases a cony (like a rabbit), the cony cannot fight back, so the cony runs for protection to a big rock. Satan is chasing every sinner, but the wise person runs to Jesus Christ, the Rock of Ages for protection. Many people try to hide behind their good works or religion instead of Christ. Where is your faith and trust? In Christ or in something else?

3. LOCUST teaches us the JOY of being saved. (v.27).

Locusts have no visible King, yet something invisible holds them together. Christians have no visible King, yet the Holy Spirit draws us together around Christ as we joyfully go out together to serve God. Locusts sing in the night. Can you joyfully sing of God's salvation in the night of this wicked world?

4. SPIDER teaches us HOW to be saved. (v.28.)

The spider is in King's palaces, not one palace, but many palaces. Jesus told us about not one mansion, but many mansions. ("In my Father's house are many mansions." John 14:2).

What a place for a spider to be – in Kings palaces; but more amazing is we, redeemed sinners, will be in God's palaces (mansions) in heaven. A spider in a house tells us that bad people can get into good places by faith in Christ as their Saviour. A spider trusts herself to a thin thread and can go anywhere; just like FAITH in Christ (Eph. 2:8,9). We must trust all our weight on God's promises in His Word. We are not saved by the size of our faith, but by the direction of our faith (in Christ).

Question: Will you trust Jesus Christ as your Saviour, and receive the gift of eternal life?

God will then give you something to rejoice about here on earth and later in heaven.

186. Simple Things of the Christian Life

Bible Reading: Psalm 37:1-40.

Aim: To ensure that we continue in these basic simple things in our Christian lives.

Introduction: Believers fail in their Christian lives and drop out of serving God because they stop doing the basic things. If these basic things are practised in our lives, we will have a great impact for Jesus Christ in the lives of others.

Question: Are these simple basic things in your life?

1. David LOVED the Lord. His heart was right with God. (Psalm 18:1,2; 31:23; 37:4).

2. TRUST in the Lord's promises. Have faith in the Bible. (Psalm 31:19; 37:3).

3. WAIT upon the Lord. Be patient for God to bring His plans to pass. Serve God while waiting. (Isaiah 40:31; Psalm 37:34). Rest in the Lord. Don't worry. (Psalm 37:7).

4. WORK. "I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day." (John 9:4). Don't be idle.

5. SIT at the feet of Jesus, hearing His Word (Luke 10:38-42), studying God's Word and praying.

6. LOOKING for that blessed hope (Titus 2:13). Expect Christ's return. Be ready for it.

7. CONSIDER one another to provoke unto love and good works. (Hebrews 10:24,25).

Be committed to serving God in your local, soul-winning church.

8. SPEAK words of encouragement often one to another about the Lord. (Malachi 3:16,17).

9. GO and preach the gospel to every creature. (Mark 16:15). FIND people for Jesus.

"Andrew findeth Simon." (John 1:40,41) "Philip findeth Nathanael." (John 1:45).

Go soul winning weekly and this will help keep your heart right with God.

10. They CONTINUED STEADFASTLY in the apostles' doctrine, in fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers. (Acts 2:42). Don't just start well, but continue well, and finish well.

Faithfulness is needed, so that we can finish our race.

Conclusion: Are you focused on getting the simple things right? If you do, then you will have a big impact for God in the lives of others.

187. Are You a Comforter?

Bible Reading: 2 Corinthians 1:1-24.

Memory Verse: “Bear ye one another’s burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.” Galatians 6:2.

Aim: For us to be determined to comfort and edify each other, (rather than to pull others down).

Introduction: One of the greatest needs is people who are comforters. The world has so much:

- 1) wickedness and depressing things
- 2) harsh and critical people
- 3) difficult situations and
- 4) disappointments and discouragements, that life’s burden can be great and difficult to bear.

A wonderful thing about coming to God’s house is that we can be among people:

- who love God and love each other.
- who will build each other up,
- who will comfort each other so we can better carry on under the trials of life.
- who will lift us up and cheer us, who will give us hope and joy to carry on, people
- who are with us when we are down, people
- who we can trust will not treat us badly, people
- who will be a blessing to us and to our children.

The main lesson we want to consider today is how we can:

- a) be comforted ourselves, and
- b) be a comforter of others.

Example: One job of a pastor is to comfort those who need comforting. Anything that hinders his ability to comfort others, is an attack on those needing comforting. Let’s build an atmosphere of comfort, love and encouragement where we can all grow to our maximum spiritual potential.

Question: What Brings Comfort to us?

1. The Holy Spirit comforts us compared to the enemy who accuses us. John 14:16-18.

When Saul’s attacks on the churches ceased at his conversion, we see these events in Acts 9:31.

- a) the churches had rest – what a relief, what peace.
- b) the churches were edified – they had a chance to develop, grow and build.
- c) the people walked in the fear of God and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost.
- d) the churches multiplied.

The Holy Spirit seeks to comfort believers and churches.

As we are filled with and led by the Holy Spirit, showing the fruit of the Spirit, we are comforted.

2. The Scriptures give us patience, comfort and hope. Romans 15:4,5.

As we read the life stories of Bible characters, we see how:

- a) They endured trials and God brought them through;
 - b) They sacrificed and brought blessings to many peoples lives;
 - c) Good came out of bad situations. This gives us patience to endure trials, comfort that God is working out His plans, and hope that we will be kept safe. This is one reason why we read the Bible and why it is so popular. The Bible gives us patience, comfort and hope.
3. Preaching is a comfort to us. “But he that prophesieth (or preaches) speaketh unto men to edification (strengthen), and exhortation (encourage), and comfort.” I Corinthians 14:3.

Preaching is meant to edify (strengthen), exhort (encourage) and comfort (console) believers.

4. Return of a faithful Christian friend. Four men who comforted others are:

- a) Titus coming in II Corinthians 7:4-6. “God...comforted us by the coming of Titus.” (v.6). Paul tells how in Macedonia, he and his workers had no rest, but were troubled on every side. Outside were fightings. Inside were fears. Paul said in v.6 that comfort came from 2 sources.
 - i) God comforts those who are cast down, and
 - ii) God comforted us by the coming of Titus.

Titus coming to Paul was a great comfort because Titus was committed to helping build people up. He was a blessing and a joy to be with. Is your coming a comfort and a blessing to others, or a curse?

- b) Tychicus’ arrival comforted the Ephesian’s hearts. Ephesians 6:21,22.

c) Timothy comforted Paul by giving a good report of the Christians at Philippi. Philippians 2:19.

Timothy came to Thessalonica to comfort and establish them in the faith. I Thessalonians 3:2.

d) Justus, Paul's fellow worker, comforted Paul. Colossians 4:11.

5. The Return Of Christ comforts us. I Thess. 4:13-18. "Comfort one another with these words."

What words? i) Don't sorrow hopelessly at the death of our loved ones. v.13.

ii) The dead in Christ are with Christ in heaven. v.14.

iii) The dead in Christ will rise first. v.14-16.

iv) We will be caught up with them to meet the Lord in the air.

v) We will ever be with the Lord. v.17.

6. Other believers Faith and Commitment to God, their local church and the work of God is a great comfort to all believers who are watching.

"We were comforted ...in all our affliction and distress by your faith." I Thessalonians 3:7,8.

Your faith, faithfulness and commitment to God's work and to each other is a great comfort to other church members. On the other hand, disloyalty is a discomfort to others.

If we stand fast and hold the traditions we've been taught by the Apostles in the NT, we will comfort others and be established in every good word and work. II Thessalonians 2:15-17.

7. Thoughts of going to Heaven is a comfort. Luke 16:25.

"Now he is comforted and thou art tormented." No matter how bad things get, we have the comfort of looking forward to joy and happiness forever in Heaven. This is especially true for those who finish the work that God has given them to do. They can look forward to receiving a crown of righteousness for faithfully serving Christ to the end. I Timothy 4:6-8.

8. Speaking Good Words to people comforts them. Rehoboam should have done this. I Kings 12:1-7.

Conclusion:

i) Comfort the feeble minded (3642 = little spirited, fainthearted, fretful, worried). I Thess. 5:14.

ii) Comfort those in trouble, by the comfort that we are comforted of God. II Corinthians 1:3-4.

iii) Comfort yourselves and edify one another even as ye do. I Thessalonians 5:11.

iv) Be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace. II Corinthians 13:11.

If you do these 8 things, you will be a true comforter.

188. Behold My Hands. Luke 24:39; John 20:27.

Jesus said this twice after His resurrection:

a) To His disciples. Luke 24:39. b) To doubting Thomas. John 20:27.

The fact that Jesus said this twice indicates the importance of this to us, especially at the time of His crucifixion and resurrection.

I. We learn the following about Jesus' hands:

1. Crucified, wounded hands - prove His Messiahship to Israel at His return. Zechariah 13:6.

2. Welcoming hands, stretched out to save sinners. Romans 10:21; Isaiah 65:2.

3. Healing hands. Mark 6:2,5.

4. Creating hands. Hebrew 1:10.

5. Guiding hands. Hebrews 8:9; Psalm 78:72.

6. Judging hands. Hebrews 10:31.

Note: Wicked hands killed Jesus Christ. Acts 2:23.

II. What kind of hands do you have? Do you have:

1. Working hands for others. I Thess. 4:11; I Cor. 4:12; Ephesians 4:28.

2. Praying hands. I Timothy 2:8.

3. Blood-guilty, non soul winning hands. Ezekiel 3:18; 33:8; Acts 20:26.

4. Warring hands, in the spiritual warfare. Psalm 18:34; 144:1.

5. Clean/washed hands. Psalm 24:4; James 4:8.

6. Right hand of fellowship extended to believers and strangers. Galatians 2:9.

7. Weary hands lifted up. Hebrews 12:2.

8. Handling the word of God deceitfully. I Corinthians 4:2.

189. Ask Now the Beasts and They Shall Teach Thee. Job 12:7.

Bible Reading: Leviticus 11:1-31 and 44-47.

Aim: To show character qualities that we need to develop and to avoid from the animal kingdom.

Introduction: Why did God forbid the Israelites from eating some animals, and permit them to eat others? Maybe because God wants to teach us about the importance of holiness to God and separation from the evil of the world. The Bible teaches us much about how animals represent spiritual character traits that we should develop. Let us ask the beasts and see what spiritual values they teach us.

1. Lion. “The righteous are bold as a lion.” Proverbs 28:1. The lion represents:

- a) A righteous believer who is serving Christ and winning souls is like a bold, fearless lion.
- b) Christ returning to conquer the world is called the “Lion of the tribe of Judah.” Revelation 5:5.
- c) Satan seeking to tempt us to sin and destruction is like a roaring lion seeking whom he may devour. I Peter 5:8.

2. Sheep or Lamb represents:

- a) Believers who follow Christ are like sheep. John 10:27.
- b) Foolish sinners are like sheep who’ve gone astray. Isaiah 53:6.
- c) Christ is called the Lamb of God that takes away the sin of the world (John 1:29), because of His sacrifice on the cross. (I Peter 1:19). He is sinless as represented by a spotless lamb.

3. Pig or Swine. “Neither cast ye your pearls before swine.” Matthew 7:6.

A pig represents a person who does not value spiritual things, and who is willing to attack faithful Christians. As pigs seek to wallow in the mud, so do sinners who seek and enjoy sin.

Question: Are you like a lamb who hates sin, or like a pig who loves sin?

4. Goats. Matthew 25:31-33.

Jesus Christ at His Second Coming separates the sheep from the goats. Sheep represent truly saved people who help persecuted Jews in the Tribulation. Goats represent unsaved people who don’t help these persecuted Jews. Question: Are you like a sheep or a goat? Are you saved or lost? Do you help, hinder or attack God’s people?

5. Fox. “Go ye and tell that fox (Herod).” Luke 13:31,32.

As a fox is cruel, deceitful, callous, wily and murderous, so Jesus compared Herod to a fox, because he showed these qualities. Let us not be deceitful, or handle God’s word deceitfully.

6. Sloth. “The slothful shall be under tribute.” Proverbs 12:24.

As a sloth is very slow in its movements, so this animal well describes the lazy, disorganised, slow moving, procrastinating lifestyle of some people. Question: Are you lazy like a sloth?

7. Ant. “Go to the ant thou sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise: Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler, provideth her meat in the summer.” (Proverbs 6:6-11).

Ants having no overseer work diligently, cooperatively and willingly to provide food for the future.

Question: Do we work hard and efficiently to lay up treasures in heaven? Do we work with other believers in our church to win people to Christ and train them to serve God?

8. Wolves. “Grievous wolves shall enter in among you, not sparing the flock.” Acts 20:29,30.

Wolves are fierce killers that prey on weak, vulnerable lambs.

Wolves describe false teachers who spread false doctrines which deceive, hurt and scatter Christians.

9. Snakes represent the devil (Genesis 3:1; II Cor. 11:13; Rev. 12:9), and alcohol (Proverbs 23:32).

10. Birds represent demons who snatch away the Word sown in a person’s heart. Matt.13:4,19; Rev 18:2.

11. Eagles. As an eagle flies away towards heaven (Proverbs 23:5) so an eagle represents the believer who “sets his affection on things above, on heaven, on eternal things.” (Colossians 3:2).

It pictures those that wait upon God in trust. (Isaiah 40:31; Job 39:26-30).

12. Dear or Hart. “As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.” (Psalm 42:1). A dear represents believers who seek a closer relationship with God. Do you?

13. Ostrich. As an ostrich leaves her eggs and young ones in the earth, so it well describes parents who leave their young ones in the world or in Godless schools without close supervision. (Job 39:13-18).

Question: How can you supervise what your children pick up at a state school?

The ostrich represents Christians who don’t try to follow up new converts but leave them to the world.

14. Horse. As a horse is keen and strong to go to battle, so believers should be keen to enter the spiritual battle. (Job 39:19-25).

15. Fly. As flies in the ointment cause it to stink, so does a little foolishness damage one's good reputation. (Ecclesiastes 10:1).

16. Worm represents the loathsomeness and repulsiveness of sinful man in God's sight. (Job 25:6).

17. Sparrow. As God cares for sparrows, this shows God's care, love, watchfulness and protection over believers. (Matthew 10:29,31 and Luke 12:6,7).

18. Horseleach. "The horseleach hath two daughters, crying, give, give." (Proverbs 30:15).

The bloodsucking leach describes greedy people who try to get as much out of people as possible without showing mercy. This refutes much greed in today's business world.

19. Leopard cannot change its spots (Jeremiah 13:23). So a sinner cannot reform his sin nature or save himself from sin by his good works.

20. Dogs. "Beware of dogs, evil workers." Phil.3:2. "dog is turned to his own vomit again." (2 Pet2:22) Dogs represent unsaved false teachers who knew the truth and turned away from it.

Conclusion: When you see these animals, recall the lessons they teach. Which animals describe you?

190. God Is Able To ...

Bible Reading: Ephesians 6.

Aim: To encourage and comfort us in what God is able to do for us.

Introduction: What is God able to do for us? What is the Bible able to do for us? What does God expect that believers should be able to do if we apply God's resources? Are you doing these things?

I. God Is Able To

1. Save to the uttermost them that come unto God by him. Hebrews 7:25.
2. Keep us from falling. Jude 24.
3. Deliver us - from difficult and dangerous situations. Daniel 3:17.
4. Those that walk in pride He is able to abase. Daniel 4:37.
5. Fear him which is able to destroy body and soul in hell. Matthew 10:38.
6. To graft Israel in. This shows that God will restore Israel as a nation. Romans 11:23.
7. God is able to make him (another man's servant) stand. Romans 14:4.
8. To make all grace abound. 2 Corinthians 9:8.
9. To do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think. Ephesians 3:20.
10. To subdue all things unto himself. Philippians 3:21.
11. To keep that which I have committed unto him (my soul's salvation). 2 Timothy 1:12.
12. To succour (comfort) them that are tempted. Hebrews 2:18.
13. What he promised, he was able also to perform. Romans 4:21.

II. The Scriptures are able to:

1. Able to make thee wise unto salvation. 2 Timothy 3:15.
2. Able to build you up and give you an inheritance among them which are sanctified. Acts 20:32.

III. Believers should be:

1. Able to stand against the wiles of the devil, if we put on the whole armour of God. Eph. 6:11.
2. Able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Ephesians 6:13.
3. Able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked, by taking the shield of faith. Ephesians 6:16.
4. Able to teach others also. 2 Timothy 2:2.
5. Able by sound doctrine to exhort and convince the gainsayers. Titus 1:9.
6. Able to admonish one another. Romans 15:14 (Admonish = urge, warn, advise one another).
7. Able to remember Peter's writings after his decease. 2 Peter 1:5.

IV. What man is not able to do:

1. Who is able to stand before envy? Proverbs 27:4.
2. No man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. John 10:29.
3. Not able to bear a yoke of works for salvation. Acts 15:10,11.
4. Not able to save himself from sin by his good works. Ephesians 2:8,9; Titus 3:5.

191. How Will God Summarize Your Life?

Bible Reading: Colossians 4.

Aim: To contribute something of value to the cause of Christ so we will be remembered for good.

Introduction: When you die, what will people remember you for, good, evil or nothing of value? What one phrase summarizes your life? On Pastor Jack Hyles' tomb are the words "a soul winner," along with his life verse, Daniel 12:3. What is your life verse? What is your greatest achievement or contribution for the Kingdom of God? God makes a point in Scripture of briefly summarizing many peoples lives by some statement. In heaven we will be given a new name. Christ "will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knows saving he that receiveth it." Rev.2:17 What will your new name tell about your life's character & work? Consider what God said about these:

1. Moses – my servant. Deuteronomy 34:5,10.
2. Abraham – the friend of God. James 2:23.
3. Daniel – a man greatly beloved. Daniel 9:23.
4. David – a man after mine own heart. Acts 13:22.
5. Job – perfect and upright, feared God, and eschewed (avoided) evil. Job 1:1,8.
6. Centurion – I have not found so great faith. Matthew 8:10.
7. Cornelius – devout, feared God with all his house, gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God always (v.2). A just man, good report among the Jews. Acts 10:1,2,22.
8. Timothy – he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do. I Cor. 16:10.
9. Stephanus household – have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints. I Cor. 16:15.
10. Tychicus – a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord. Ephesians 6:22.
11. Onesimus – a faithful and beloved brother. Colossians 4:9.
12. Justus – a fellow worker and a comfort unto me. Colossians 4:11.
13. Epaphras – a servant of Christ, always labouring fervently for you in prayers.
– He has a great zeal for you. Colossians 4:12,13.
14. Mark – he is profitable to me for the ministry. II Timothy 4:11.
15. Luke – only Luke is with me. II Timothy 4:11.
16. Onesiphorus – he oft refreshed me, he was not ashamed of my chain, he sought me out very diligently (in Rome) and found me. II Timothy 1:16-18.
17. Paul – he is a chosen vessel. Acts 9:15.
18. Lord Jesus Christ – "I do always those things that please Him." John 8:29;
– "who went about doing good." Acts 10:38.
19. Enoch – walked with God. Genesis 5:24.
20. Esau – a fornicator, and a profane person. Hebrews 12:16,17.
21. Children of Ephraim –being armed and carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle. Psalm78:9
22. Demas – has forsaken me having loved this present world. II Timothy 4:10.
23. Archippus – fulfil your ministry. Colossians 4:17.
24. Thou wicked and slothful servant. Matthew 25:26.

Challenge: How will God summarise your life? How will God and man remember your life? Start doing something unselfish to help others so that you will be remembered for good in years to come.

192. People Christ Commended.

Aim: Will Christ commend you? Jesus Christ commended people for doing certain things. These were:

1. The unjust steward for planning and providing for the future. Luke 16:8.
2. The poor widow for generously giving to God's house. Luke 21:3.
3. The persistent widow for her continual pleading. Luke 18:3-7.
4. The Samaritan leper for his thankfulness for healing and salvation. Luke 17:18.
5. The Good Samaritan, for his unselfish kindness. Luke 10:36.
6. Mary of Bethany, for sitting at Jesus' feet, making learning God's Word a priority. Luke 10:42.
7. A Roman Centurion for his "so great faith" in believing Jesus' power to heal. Matthew 8:5-13.
8. The Syrophenician woman, for her great faith. Matthew 15:28.
9. Peter for his confession of faith as to who Jesus is. Who do you say that Jesus Christ is? Matt. 16:17.

193. Things That Deceive People

Bible Reading: Matthew 24:1-26 especially v. 4,11,24.

Aim: To avoid being deceived by things that easily deceive people.

Introduction: One of the main signs that Jesus gave in answer to when His return would be was “Take heed that no man deceive you.” Matthew 24:3-5.

The devil’s main work is to deceive people (Revelation 12:9,10; 13:14; 19:20; 20:10).

Knowledge of and obedience to God’s ways in the Bible are our best defence against Satan’s deception.

John warns us that many deceivers are entered into the world. II John 7.

Question: What tools does Satan use to deceive people?

- 1) Strong alcoholic drink deceives people. (Proverbs 20:1). It promises happiness but gives sorrow, fights, hangover and depression. (Proverbs 23:29-35).
- 2) Deceitfulness of riches choke the word and he becomes unfruitful. Riches deceive unbelievers into a false security that they don’t need God. Some rich Christians are deceived into thinking that they are too important to go soul winning. (Matthew 13:22).
- 3) Worldly philosophy, vain deceit, and traditions of men. Colossians 2:8. Examples are evolution, humanism, materialism, false religions etc.
- 4) The heart (feelings) is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? (Jeremiah 17:9). Don’t trust your feelings. Trust God’s Word instead.
- 5) False prophets who tell people what they want to hear. “Prophecy not unto us right things, speak unto us smooth things, prophecy deceits.” Isaiah 30:10. Eg: Charismatic “prophets” who prophesy smooth things, and Mormons claiming you’ll become a god, etc.
- 6) Sin promises much, but accomplishes nothing. Beware being “hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.” Hebrews 3:13.
- 7) Pride of thine heart and thy terribleness hath deceived thee (Jeremiah 49:16 and Obadiah 3). God judged Edom for her pride.
- 8) Thinking that you can sin and not reap the consequences. (“Be not deceived,..” Galatians 6:7).
- 9) Thinking that its okay to hear God’s Word and not do it. James 1:22.
- 10) Thinking that fornicators, idolaters, adulterers, homosexuals, thieves, covetous, drunkards, revilers or extortioners will go to heaven. I Corinthians 6:9,10.
- 11) Thinking or saying that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves. I John 1:8.
- 12) The Roman Catholic Church: “by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.” Revelation 18:23.
- 13) Men: ‘by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive’ Eph4:14
- 14) Lusts of the flesh, “put off the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts.” Ephesians 4:22.

194. Twelve Things A Pastor Must Do. Acts 20:17-38.

Paul reminds the Ephesian pastors of 12 things before He left them. These are to:

1. Serve God with all humility of mind. 20:19.
2. Teach profitable things publicly (in church) and house to house (individually). 20:20.
3. Preach the gospel of repentance from dead works (Hebrews 6:1) and faith towards our Lord Jesus Christ as Saviour. 20:21.
4. Expect opposition to God’s work. Be courageous. 20:22,23.
5. Seek to finish your course with joy. 20:24,25. (II Timothy 4:6-8).
6. Seek to be pure from the blood of all men, by telling them the gospel. 20:26. Ezekiel 33:1-9.
7. Teach all the Counsel of God (all the Bible). 20:27.
8. Take heed to yourselves and to the flock. 20:28. Beware of wolves and false teachers. 20:29,30.
9. Watch and remember to warn people night and day. 20:31.
10. Point people to God and the Bible to build them up. 20:32.
11. Don’t covet people’s money, but work to supply your needs and to help others. 20:33,34.
12. Support the weak and give to those in need. 20:35.

Conclusion: Do you practise these 12 qualities. Who are you discipling this year?

195. How We Should Treat God's Word. (Our Duty to God's Word).

Bible Reading: Psalm 119:1-18. Aim: To know how to treat God's Word for greatest benefit.

Introduction: Many Christians don't understand how to learn the Bible. If we apply these rules for digesting God's Word, we will understand it better, obey it more, and receive greater benefit from it.

1. We should tremble at it in respect and obedience. Isaiah 66:2.
2. Love it: "O how I love thy law." Psalm 119:97.
3. Meditate in it: "It is my meditation all the day." Psalm 119:97.
4. Delight in it: "His delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate" Psalm 1:2.
5. Take heed to it: "Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word." Psalm 119:9.
6. Hide it in your heart: "Thy word have I hid in mine heart that I might not sin against thee." Ps119:11
7. Declare it: "With my lips have I declared all the judgments of thy mouth." Psalm 119:13. (Prov30:5)
8. Without error: "Thy word is true from the beginning" Psalm 119:160. "Every word of God is pure"
9. Don't despise it. "Whoso despiseth the word shall be destroyed." Proverbs 13:13.
10. Joy and rejoicing. "Thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of my heart." Jeremiah 15:16.
11. Continue in it. "If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed." John 8:31.
12. Hear it and Keep it. "Blessed are they that hear the Word of God, and keep it." Luke 11:28.
13. Study it and rightly divide it. "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the Word of truth." 2 Timothy 2:15.
14. Preach it. "Preach the Word." 2 Tim. 4:2; "they went everywhere preaching the word." Acts 8:4.
15. Hold fast to it. "Holding fast the faithful word." Titus 1:9. (Hebrews 4:2.
16. Mix it with faith. "The word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it"
17. Become skilful in the word. "For every one that useth milk is unskilful in the word of.." Heb.5:13.
18. Teach it. "For when for the time ye ought to be teachers." Hebrews 5:12; Acts 18:11.
19. Receive it with meekness. "Be receive with meekness the engrafted word which is able to save your souls." James 1:21; 'let your ear receive the word of his mouth.' Jeremiah 9:20; Matt13:23; Acts17:11
20. Be doers of it. "Be ye doers of the word, & not hearers only, deceiving your own selves" James1:22
21. Desire it. "As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word that ye may grow thereby." I Peter 2:2. Desire to hear it. "Sergius Paulus ... desired to hear the word of God." Acts 13:7,44.
22. Don't add to it or subtract from it. Revelation 22:18,19.
23. Write out what you learn from the Bible in a note book, as Israelite kings had to do. Deut.17:18.
24. Publish it. The Lord gave the word: great was the company of those that published it. Psalm 68:11; Acts13:49
25. Remember it. "Then Peter remembered the word of Jesus," Matthew 26:75; John 15:20; Acts11:16
26. Sow it in people's minds: "The sower soweth the word." Mark 4:14.
27. Believe it. "they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said." John 2:22; 4:50.
28. Speak it boldly. "they spoke the word of God with boldness." Acts 4:31; 16:32; Philippians 1:14.
29. Multiply it. "But the word of God grew and multiplied." Acts 12:24.
30. Let it dwell in you richly. "Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom.." Col. 3:16. Let it abide in us. "young men....the word of God abideth in you." I John 2:14; John 15:7.
31. Labour in it. "Let the elders...double honour,...who labour in the word and doctrine." I Tim. 5:17.

196. Reasons For Reading God's Word

1. It increases our faith. Romans 10:17.
2. It produces the new birth. I Peter 1:23; James1:18.
3. It gives us truth. Acts 17:11; John 17:17 "Thy word is truth."
4. It gives us victory over sin. Psalm 119:9,11.
5. It gives us joy. Jeremiah 15:16.
6. It will build us up in spiritual growth. Acts 20:32; Luke 4:4; I Peter 2:2.
7. It gives us assurance of salvation. I John 5:13.
8. It cleanses us from sin. John 15:3 "Ye are clean through the word."
9. It gives us patience, comfort and hope. Romans 15:4; I Thess. 4:18.
10. It will make us disciples of Jesus Christ. "If ye continue in my word,..." John 8:31.

197. Satan's Priority For The Christian Is To Destroy Him

Bible Reading: Job 1.

Aim: To understand different areas of our lives that Satan may attack. To be prepared when it happens. Satan is trying to wreck churches, Christians and marriages. Don't let him wreck yours.

Question: What would it take to get you to quit on God? Satan attacked these six areas in Job's life:

1. His Finances were destroyed. Job 1:13. He lost his ability to make a living.

Financial pressure has broken many preachers and marriages.

2. His Family was destroyed. Job 1:18,19. "Thy sons and daughters are dead."

If you get serious about serving God, the devil will get serious about attacking you, especially if you write quality Christian literature. Job's wife told Job to "curse God and die." (Job 2:9).

Question: How many wives and husbands have gotten each other to quit on God?

3. His Flesh was destroyed. Job 2:4-6. The devil tried to destroy Job through his flesh.

Satan uses sickness to knock many Christians out from serving God.

4. His Friends were destroyed. Job 2:11. If all your friends turned against you, would you quit on God?

They sat and looked at him for 7 days. Their comfort soon turned to criticism. Satan tried to use his friends to turn Job away from God. Proverbs 18:24.

5. His Faith, the Devil tried to destroy. Job 13:15.

"Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him."

You've been telling others to have faith and trust God for 20 years and now you've got to practice it, prove it and pass it. Will you continue serving God in tough times, as you did when all was well?

6. His Future, the Devil tried to destroy. Job 42:10.

God turned the captivity of Job when he prayed for his critical friends.

Conclusion: Will you pass these six tests that Satan may throw at you?

Because Job passed these tests, God gave him twice as much as he had before.

Job saw 4 generations. Your children, grandchildren and great grandchildren (4 generations) are counting on you not to quit. His future was at stake. So is your future ministry. When the devil brings up my past, I bring up his future. A missionary wrote in his Bible "No retreats, no regrets."

Question: Will your grandchildren rise up and call you blessed?

198. 20 Objectives to Raise Godly Children

1. Show each child how to be saved & sure of their salvation. Romans 10:13; I John 5:11-13; John 1:12

2. Encourage each child to dedicate their life to do God's will. Ephesians 12:1,2.

3. Help each child to accept themselves as God made them. Ephesians 1:6.

4. Guide each child to get under the protection of God's authority. Ephesians 6:1-4.

5. Work with each child to gain a clear conscience. I Timothy 1:19.

6. Show each child how to have a forgiving spirit. Ephesians 4:32.

7. Show each child how to respond to irritations. I Peter 2:23; 3:16.

8. Show each child how to conquer moral impurity. Psalm 119:11.

9. Show each child how to meditate on God's Word. Psalm 1:2,3; Joshua 1:8.

10. Show each child how to share the gospel with their friends. Romans 3:23; 6:23; 5:8; 10:13.

11. Show each child how to have a daily Bible reading program. Acts 17:11.

12. Get each child to read challenging biographies of great Christians. Jeremiah 5:5.

13. Show each child how to have God's standard for dating. I Corinthians 7:1.

14. Show each child how to tithe and apply God's principles of finances. Malachi 3:8-12.

15. Show each child how to establish an effective prayer life. Matthew 6:5-15.

16. Show each child how to make right friends and avoid wrong friends. Psalm 1:1; Proverbs 1:10.

17. Show each child how to stand alone against evil. Daniel 1.

18. Show each child how to discover and develop their spiritual gifts. 2 Timothy 2:15.

19. Show each child how to become an active and loyal church member. Hebrews 10:24,25.

20. Show each child how to see their spiritual purpose in life. Esther 4:14.

Conclusion: Lead your children in Bible study on these 20 goals tonight.

199. 4 Things We Should Know About Hell

1. Hell is a place of conscious physical punishment. Matthew 10:28; 13:42; Luke 16:19-31;

- i) A furnace of fire,
- ii) weeping, wailing, gnashing of teeth.

2. Hell is a place where the past is never forgotten (Mark 9:42-48). 98% of suicides are caused by guilt.

3. Hell is a place where people are begging us to tell their loved ones of Christ. (Luke 16:19-31).

4. Hell is a place of NO HOPE. We sorrow not as others that have no hope. (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18).

In heaven we'll never be separated from our saved loved ones.

Who is the Judge at the Great White Throne Judgment? (Rev. 20:11-15). Jesus Christ is the Judge.

Since we will be with Him forever, we will be spectators at this judgment. (Revelation 21:1-4).

God will wipe away all tears from their eyes. Question: Whose eyes?

Answer: Believers eyes, because unbelievers have already been cast into the Lake of Fire.

200. What Kinds Of Hands Do You Have?

1. Warring hands, in the spiritual warfare for souls. Psalm 144:1. The Lord teacheth my hands to war.

2. Folded hands of laziness. Proverbs 6:10. "a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep"

3. Weak hands of fearfulness. Isaiah 35:3,4. "Strengthen ye the weak hands"

4. Bloody hands of not soul-winning. Ezekiel 3:17,18; Acts 20:26.

5. Working hands of diligence. I Thessalonians 4:11. work with your own hands,

6. Lifting up holy hands of prayerfulness. I Timothy 2:8 "men pray every where, lifting up holy hands"

7. Lift up the hands which hang down of faintheartedness. Hebrews 12:12.

8. Heavy hands of Moses labouring in prayer. Exodus 17:12.

9. Cleansed hands of restored fellowship. James 4:8. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners;

10. Right hand of brotherly love fellowship. Gal 2:9. they gave to me & Barnabas the right hands of fellowship

11. Slack hands. "Let not thy hands be slack." Zephaniah 3:16. Let not thine hands be slack.

12. Willing, working, women's hands. Prov 31:13. She seeks wool & works willingly with her hands

13. Skilful hands of God, guiding us through life. Psalm 78:72. guided them by the skilfulness of his hands

14. Wounded hands of Christ, securing & offering salvation. Zechariah 13:6. "What are these wounds"

15. Fearful thing to fall into the hands of the Living God, of judgment. Hebrews 10:31.

16. Blessed hands. "Bless thee in all the works of thy hands." Deuteronomy 24:19.

201. "Let Us" In Hebrews

Bible Reading: Hebrews 4:1-16.

Aim: To exhort each other to do 14 things.

1. Let us Fear lest a promise being left us of entering into his rest any of us come short of it. Heb 4:1.

2. Let us Labour to enter God's rest. 4:11.

3. Let us Hold fast our profession. 4:14.

4. Let us Come boldly to the throne of grace in prayer. 4:16.

5. Let us Go on unto perfection. 6:1.

6. Let us Draw near with a true heart. 10:22.

7. Let us Consider one another to provoke to love and good works. 10:24.

8. Let us Lay aside every weight and the sin which doth so easily beset us. 12:1.

9. Let us Run with Patience the race that is set before us. 12:1.

10. Let us Have Grace whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear. 12:28.

11. Let Brotherly Love continue. 13:1.

12. Let your conversation be without covetousness. 13:5.

13. Let us go forth unto him without the camp, bearing his reproach. 13:13.

14. Let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually. 13:15.

202. How To Become A Mature Person. James 1-5

Bible Reading: James 1-2; 3-5. What makes a mature man? James tells 10 things to become mature:

1. Suffering makes a mature man. (James 1:1-15 esp. v.2).

a) God's purpose is to purify us, strengthen us and make us better. (v.2-12).

b) Satan's purpose is to make us bitter by blaming God and giving in to lust. (v.13).

Our response to suffering is to praise God for it (v.2), pray while in it (v.5), persevere through it (v.12).

2. Scripture study makes a mature man. (James 1:16-25. v. 25).

a) Its Author – the Father. (1:17).

b) Its Accomplishments – gives eternal life. (1:18).

c) Its Admonitions – our talk and walk are to be pure. (1:19,22).

d) Its Analogy – a mirror to examine ourselves. (1:23,24).

e) Its Assurance-if we look into it, continue in it, not forget it, do it, we shall be blessed in our deeds.25

3. Sincerity (straight, genuine, not simulated) makes a mature man. (James 2:1-13).

a) Commands against partiality.

– earthly example (2:2-4) of favouring a rich man over a poor man.

– heavenly example (2:5) of God compensating the poor by making them rich in faith.

b) Consequences of partiality. (2:9-13) -- you are guilty as a transgressor of the law.

-- you shall be judged by the law of liberty (v.12).

4. Christian Service makes a mature man. (James 2:14-26). “Faith without works is dead.” (v.26).

a) The Problem – some imagine a contradiction between Paul (Ephesians 2:8,9) and James (2:14,24).

b) The Solution – Paul discusses vertical justification before God.

James discusses horizontal justification by works as seen by man, as proof of true faith in God.

c) The Pattern – 2 examples of head faith only: destitute (its no use to see someone lacking and not help them, 2:15,16), devils (devils believe the facts without responding to it, 2:19).

-- 2 examples of head and heart faith: Abraham (His works proved his faith was real by sacrificing Isaac in 2:21-23), Rahab (Her works proved her faith was real by siding with God's people. 2:25).

d) The Principle stated: “ faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone.” 2:17.

5. Sound Speech makes a mature man. 3:1-18; 1:26,27; “If any man offend not in word...perfect.” 3:2.

a) Importance of the tongue: leaders are judged by what they say. (3:1,2).

b) Illustration of the tongue.

- how it can control great things for good eg: bridle on a horse (3:3), rudder on a ship (3:4).

- how it can consume great things for evil eg: forest fire.(15)Careless, thoughtless words destroy much good.

c) Iniquity of the tongue.

- it can destroy our witness for God, showing our witness to be lies (1:26).

- it can defile our walk with God, ruining our work for God (3:5,6).

d) Incorrigibility of the tongue – all animals have been tamed, yet not the tongue's poison hurts (3:7,8).

e) Inconsistency of the tongue (3:9-12). We bless God and curse man. Three questions about a fountain, fig and vine (3:9,10). It is against the nature of the tongue to be controlled, except by God.

f) Instructions for the tongue:

- seek and speak God's wisdom, which is pure, (3:13,17,18). Peacemakers have the fruit of righteousness.

- refuse Satan's slander (3:14-16). A bad heart produces a bad tongue, which produces bitterness, envy, strife and lies, which results in confusion (not knowing what is truth) and every evil work.

6. Submission to God makes a mature man. (James 4:1-17, esp. v.7).

a) What we escape when we submit:

i) The flesh (4:1-3,11,12,16,17), ii) The world (4:4,5), iii) The Devil (4:7).

7 fold formula for defeating the world, the flesh, and the devil is to:

Submit to God, Resist the devil, Draw near to God, Cleanse, Purify, Humble, Stop speaking evil.

b) What we enjoy when we submit to God:

- God's grace (4:6),

- God's guarantee of His close Presence (4:8), and His Promotion (4:10).

- God's guidance in making decisions: i) Ask (v.15), ii) Consider the shortness of life (4:13-15).

7. Self-Sacrifice makes a mature man. (James 5:1-6).

a) The Consternation of the selfish rich (5:1).

b) The Corruption of the selfish rich (5:2,5): riches corrupted, garments moth-eaten, Gold cankered.

c) The Cruelty of the selfish rich (5:4,6): unpaid workers cries of misery.

d) The Condemnation of the selfish rich (5:3): “shall eat your flesh as fire” = many rich end up in hell.

8. Steadfastness makes a mature man (James 5:7-11). (Steadfastness = not giving up). (I Cor. 15:58).

a) A past example (5:10,11): The Prophets and Job suffered affliction patiently and are happy now.

b) A present example (5:7): A farmer patiently cultivates his crops. So also we must patiently work for God now, without much apparent reward, until Christ returns to reward us richly. Be like a farmer.

c) A future example (5:8,9): Christ would like to return today but must wait until the right time. Our attitude in view of Christ’s return: Be patient, stablish your hearts, don’t complain, we’ll face the Judge.

9. Supplication makes a mature man. (James 5:12-18, esp. 5:16).

a) Seasons of prayer. When should we pray?

- In times of trouble (5:13,14) eg: affliction or sickness.

- In times of triumph (5:13). “Is any merry, let him sing Psalms.”

b) Reasons for prayer: Why should we pray?

- Prayer can heal the sick. 5:14,15

- Prayer can restore the carnal. 5:16

- Prayer can accomplish the impossible. 5:17,18. Elijah’s prayer stopped rain and started rain.

10. Soul-Winning makes a mature man. (James 5:19,20).

a) Notice erring Christians and lost people. Go after them.

b) One convert him – seek to change their direction, from error and death.

c) He will save him from error, trouble and death.

d) Soul winning will hide a multitude of sins. How? You will stop his life from going into sin.

You will stop him from teaching others to sin. You will rescue his future generations from sin.

203. Are You Increasing?

Bible Reading: II Corinthians 9:1-15.

Aim: To increase in each of these areas.

Introduction: We either increase in our Christian life or decrease and backslide. Which are you doing?

Question: What does God say that we must increase in?

1. Learning. “A wise man will hear, and will increase learning.” Proverbs 1:5.

2. Generosity. “There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth...” Proverbs 11:24.

3. Lifespan “for by me (wisdom)... the years of thy life shall be increased.” Proverbs 9:10,11.

If we grow in wisdom, fear of the Lord and knowledge of the Lord, our lifespan will be increased.

4. Joy. “The meek also shall increase their joy in the Lord.” Isaiah 29:19.

5. Faith. “Lord, increase our faith.” Luke 17:5; Romans 10:17; II Cor 10:15. (I Thess 3:12.

6. Love. “The Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men”

7. Strength. “Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus.” Acts 9:22; Isaiah 40:29.

8. Knowledge. “Increasing in the knowledge of God.” Colossians 1:10.

9. Fruits of righteousness. “increase the fruits of your righteousness.” II Corinthians 9:10.

10. Christ. “He must increase, but I must decrease.” John 3:30.

Bad things that increase are: i) Harlots increase transgressors among men (Proverbs 23:28), and

ii) Profane and vain babblings increase unto more ungodliness. (2 Timothy 2:16).

204. 4 Great Mistakes In The Book Of Job

1. Satan’s – in thinking that Job served God for what he could get. Job 1:9,10.

2. Job’s wife – in thinking that with the loss of the visible and human, all was lost. Job 2:9,10.

3. Job’s friends – in thinking that Job’s sufferings were the result of sin. Job 22:5.

4. Job’s – in thinking that God was unkind. Job 27:2.

Lesson: Don’t make these mistakes in judging other’s situations.

205. Motives For Serving Christ

Bible Reading: II Corinthians 5:1-21.

1. We will go to heaven at death. v.1.
2. We will get a new resurrection body. v.2.
3. We have the Holy Spirit in us to comfort and lead us. v.5.
4. We labour to be accepted of Him. v.9.
5. We must all appear before the Judgment seat of Christ to give account of our service. v.10.
6. We know the terror of the Lord, so we persuade men. v.11.
7. Our consciences tell us to serve God. v.11.
8. The Love of Christ constrains us. v.14.
9. We should not henceforth live for ourselves but unto Christ. v.15.
10. We don't evaluate people on their externals, but as creatures of eternal value. v.16.
11. People at salvation become new creatures. v.17.
12. All things we have come from God. v.18.
13. God has given us the ministry of reconciliation. v.18.
14. We are ambassadors for Christ. v.20.
15. So people get Christ's righteousness. v.21.

Conclusion: Remember these motives for serving Christ when you feel tempted to slow down.

206. The Glory Of The Christian Life

Aim: To strive for eternal glory. To see the glory in being a Christian.

Introduction: Heaven is referred to as "glory" in Psalm 73:24; Hebrew 2:10; I Corinthians 15:43.

"Glory" = exalted renown, honourable fame, adoring praise, thanksgiving, beauty, resplendent majesty, magnificence, state of exaltation, things that bring renown.

Certain things are said to bring glory to us in heaven.

Question: What things are glorious on earth that will bring glory in heaven?

1. Suffering and our light affliction. Romans 8:18; 5:3; 2 Corinthians 4:17; I Peter 1:7.
2. Souls saved. "Ye are our glory and joy." I Thessalonians 2:20.
3. Messengers of the Churches, ie: Key workers. 2 Corinthians 8:23.
Preachers trained and sent out from churches. Titus was Paul's:
a) Partner, b) Fellow helper, c) Messenger of the Churches, and d) The Glory of Christ.
4. Churches started. 2 Thessalonians 1:4.
We ourselves glory in you (the Thessalonian Church) in the churches of God.
5. Faithful Pastors who will receive a crown of glory. I Peter 5:4.
6. Our infirmities and weaknesses. 2 Corinthians 12:9,5; 11:30.
7. Long hair on women. I Corinthians 11:15.
8. The Heavens declare the glory of God. Psalm 19:1.
9. One star differeth from another star in glory. I Corinthians 15:41,42.
So also is the resurrection of the dead. Daniel 12:3.

Conclusion: I Peter 2:24; Revelation 14:7; 16:9.

207. Things Jesus Christ Will Give to Overcoming Believers

1. Eat of the tree of life. Revelation 2:7.
2. A crown of life, if we are faithful to death. Rev. 2:10.
3. I will give to eat of the hidden manna. I will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, that only the recipient will know. Rev. 2:17.
4. I will give unto every one of you according to your works. Rev. 2:23.
5. I will give power over the nations. Rev 2:26.
6. I will give him the morning star. Rev. 2:28.
7. I will give reward to my servants the prophets, to the saints & to them that fear thy name. Rev 11:18
8. My reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. Rev. 22:12.

208. How To Encourage Yourself (I Samuel 30:6).

1. Past blessings (Psalm 119:76).
2. Heavenly rewards (Romans 8:18).
3. Present friends (Romans 16:1-17; II Corinthians 7:6) and people looking up to us.
4. Future people who will be saved and blessed if I continue serving God.
5. Go and fellowship with some people of God (Psalm 69:20; I Samuel 18:3).
6. Get a decent paying job (II Chronicles 31:4).
7. Encourage your Pastor so he can encourage you (Deuteronomy 1:38; 3:28).
8. Go soul-winning to forget your troubles (John 4:32).
9. Hearing God's Word preached gives comfort and hope (Romans 15:4; I Cor 14:3; Psalm 119:49-52).
10. Speak good and comfortable words (Zechariah 1:13; II Chronicles 10:7; II Cor. 1:4; 7:6).
11. Rapture and Christ's Second Coming (I Thessalonians 4:18).
12. Be filled with the Holy Spirit (John 14:16,26; Acts 9:31). He abides with us for ever.

209. Those Who Wrongly Separated Fellowship

1. Demas forsook Paul, having loved this present world. (II Timothy 4:10,11).
2. Disciples left Jesus, because they wouldn't understand Jesus' teaching. (John 6:63-69).
3. Ahithophel left David, due to disloyalty. (Psalm 55:12-14; 2 Samuel 15:31-34).
4. John Mark left Paul (Acts 13:5; 15:36-39).
5. All men forsook Paul, but the Lord stood with him. (II Timothy 4:16,17).
6. People left the church John was pastoring. (I John 2:19).
7. Children of Ephraim being armed fled from the battle. (Psalm 78:8-10).

What are we not to forsake?

1. The assembling of ourselves together. (Hebrews 10:24,25; Nehemiah 10:39).
2. Thy friend and thy father's friend forsake not. (Proverb 27:10).
3. Let not mercy and truth forsake thee. (Proverbs 3:3).
4. I forsake not thy precepts. (Psalm 119:87).

What should we forsake? i) "Cease from anger and forsake wrath." Psalm 37:8.

ii) "Forsake the foolish person and live." Proverbs 9:6.

210. 10 Visions Of Christ

1. Isaiah's vision. Result: "Here am I; send me." (Isaiah 6:1-9).
2. Ezekiel's vision. (Ezekiel 1; 10:8-22 v.20).
3. Moses' vision. Result: Delivering Israel from Egypt. (Exodus 3:1-15).
4. Joshua's vision. Result: Worshipping Jesus as Captain and victories in Canaan (Joshua 5:13-15).
5. Manoah's vision. Result: Samson born. Judges 13:1-25.
6. Daniel's vision. Result Daniel 10:4-6.
7. Stephen's vision. Result: Martyrdom, Saul saved, many churches started. Acts 7:54-60.
8. Paul's vision: Result: Saul saved. Acts 9:1-7; 26:12-18.
9. John's vision. Result: Book of Revelation given as Scripture. Revelation 1:4-18.
10. Job's vision. Result: Book of Job written, and double blessings. Job 42:1-17.

211. Where there is no vision, the people perish. Proverbs 29:18.

What kind of vision, should we have?

1. A vision of ourselves (Acts 26:15-19) as the key to winning large numbers of people to Christ and starting many churches.
2. A vision of lost souls praying for salvation. Acts 16:9; Matthew 9:36-39.
3. A vision of the Judgment Seat of Christ. II Corinthians 5:9,10; Romans 14:10,12.
4. A vision of the Horrors of Hell. Psalm 9:17; Prov.15:11; Luke 16:23-28; Matt 25:41; Mark 9:43-48
5. A vision of the importance of Church. Mark 16:15; Hebrews 10:24,25.
6. A vision of Jesus Christ Himself. Revelation 1:9-18.

212. Baptism (To be preached at a Baptism Service).

Bible Reading: Acts 8:26-40.

Aim: To show that those sprinkled as babies are not Biblically baptised.

1. Seven Bible accounts of Baptism

- i) 3000 Israelites saved and baptised at Pentecost. Acts 2:37-41.
- ii) Ethiopian eunuch was saved first and baptised later. Acts 8:35-39. v.37.
Believing that Jesus Christ is the Son of God and Saviour is a condition of Baptism.
- iii) Paul was saved on the Damascus Road and baptised by Ananias. Acts 9:17,18.
- iv) Cornelius was baptised after salvation. Acts 10:47,48.
- v) Lydia was saved first and baptised later. Acts 16:14,15.
- vi) Philippian jailer was saved & baptised later. Acts 16:30-34. “believing in God with all his house”
- vii) John the Baptist’s disciples believed on Christ and were baptised later. Acts 19:1-7.

2. Notice: i) In every instance those baptised were believers – of knowledgeable age.

ii) In no instance is there any indication that they were infants. They were all believers.

To believe differently is to read into the Scriptures what is not there.

Anglican and Presbyterians appeal to other areas.

iii) These believers were baptised to obey the command of Christ. Matthew 28:18-20.

iv) They followed Christ’s example of baptism in Matthew 3:13-17.

If Christ came up out of the water, so should we. Can I do anything less than Christ?

v) What does baptism publicly declare? - their faith in Christ’s death, burial and resurrection to save.
- their death to their old man/old lifestyle, burial of the old man and rising to walk in newness of life.

Romans 6:1-6.

vi) Four requirements of baptism:

a) Right method – immersion : Mark 1:9-11; Matthew 3:16 ; Acts 8:38,39. Baptise means to dip or immerse. Sprinkle (Greek: rantizo 4472) is never associated with baptism.

b) Right motive – obedience to Christ.

c) Right candidate – a saved person who has received Christ as their Saviour.

d) Right authority – local church.

Conclusion:

1. All believers were baptised immediately after they were saved.

2. If you were baptised before salvation, you just went in a dry sinner and came out a wet sinner.

3. If you have been saved and not yet baptised, you are not obedient to Christ.

213. Who Is Able To Stand Before Envy? Proverbs 27:4; Acts 7:9.

Definition of “Envy” = Resentful, admiring contemplation of a more fortunate person’s advantage.

Memory Verse: “Let not thine heart envy sinners.” Proverbs 23:17.

Aim: To be aware of and to resist the sin of envy.

Question: Who in the Bible committed the sin of envy?

1. Pharisees: “He knew that for envy they had delivered him.” Matthew 27:18.

2. Patriarchs moved with envy sold Joseph into Egypt, but God was with him. Acts 7:9; Genesis 37:11

3. Jews: When the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul. (Acts 17:3).

4. Philistines envied Abraham’s flocks, herds, servants. Genesis 26:14.

5. Rachel: When Rachel saw that she bore Jacob no children, Rachel envied her sister Leah. Gen. 30:1.

6. Wilderness generation envied Moses in the camp and Aaron the servant of God. Psalm 106:16.

7. One of Joshua’s servants envied Eldad and Medad prophesying in the camp. Numbers 1:28,29.

8. Saul envied David who had killed his ten thousands. I Samuel 18:7-12.

Conclusion: i) Most envy is against the spiritual success of others.

ii) Envy leads people to hatred, violence and murder .

iii) Envy is a sin that religious unbelievers or carnal believers are most likely to fall into.

Question: What else do you notice about envy?

214. Invitations Of Christ

1. Salvation “Come unto me, all ye that labour & are heavy laden & I will give you rest” Mat 11:28-30

7. Bible teaching by Levites was restored. (30:22).
8. People destroyed their idols (31:1).
9. Payment of full tithes and salaries to priests and Levites was restored. (31:4-10).

216. How To Destroy Your Life. (Proverbs 13:13-23; Matthew 7:24-29).

- I. How to prevent our lives and our children’s lives from being destroyed.
 1. Receive Christ as Saviour and Foundation of our life. (I Corinthians 3:11).
 2. Hear and obey Jesus Christ’s words. (Matthew 7:24-27).
 3. Avoid things that God says will destroy our lives. (Psalm 1:1).
- II. What sins will destroy our lives?
 1. Whoso despiseth the word (Proverbs 13:13).
 2. A companion of fools (Proverbs 13:20).
 3. Ignorance, want of judgment (Proverbs 13:23; 14:7).
 4. Refusing reproof (Proverbs 29:1).
 5. Pride (Proverbs 15:25).
 6. Adultery (Proverbs 6:32).
 7. Prosperity of fools (Proverbs 1:32).
 8. Bad pastors who do not teach God’s Word (Jeremiah 12:10).
 9. Tempting Christ (I Corinthians 10:9).
 10. Murmuring and complaining (I Corinthians 10:10).
 11. Rebels, transgressors (Psalm 37:38; Proverbs 11:3).
 12. Those defiling the Temple of God – alcohol, cigarettes, drugs (I Corinthians 3:16,17).
 13. Twisting Scripture (II Peter 3:16).
 14. Not purging ourselves (Romans 9:22; II Timothy 2:20,21).
 15. Lack of Bible knowledge (Hosea 4:6).
 16. Rejecting Christ and following unbelievers (Matthew 7:13).

217. Andrew – The Introducer.

Bible Reading: John 1:35-42; 6:1-11; 12:20-33

Aim: To bring people to Jesus Christ.

1. His conversion. John 1:35-40.
2. He brought his brother Peter to Jesus. John 1:41,42.
3. He brought a boy. John 6:1-11.
4. He brought Greeks. John 12:20-33.

Conclusion: Who are you bringing to Jesus?

218. What Are The Marks Of A Good Christian? He should:

1. Soul Winner (Matthew 4:19).
2. Follow up and Teach new Converts (II Timothy 2:2; Hebrews 5:11-14).
3. Trusts God, Live by Faith in God's word (Hebrews 11:6).
4. Bridle his tongue from slander (James 1:26).
5. Visit needy people (James 1:27).
6. Keep himself unspotted from the world (James 1:27).
7. Commit to help build local churches (Matthew 16:18; 28:18-20).
8. Has a burning desire to see the world won to Christ (Romans 10:1). Trains soul winners.
9. Rule his children and house well. (Genesis 18:19; I Timothy 3:4,5).
10. Filled with the Holy Spirit continually (Ephesians 5:18) and fruit of the Spirit (Gal. 5:22,23).
11. Patient under afflictions (I Peter 2:18-20).
12. Hunger and thirst after righteousness (Matthew 5:6).

219. Bible Characters Who Did Not Appreciate Their Privileges.

1. Adam and Eve - did not appreciate a sinless, beautiful environment.
 2. Noah's generation - did not appreciate their long lifespan.
 3. Wilderness generation - did not appreciate God's miracles in Egypt, Shekinah glory of God.
 4. 12 Judges generations - did not appreciate Canaan's privileges.
 5. David - when God established His Kingdom, defeated his enemies, and gave him wives, he committed adultery with Bathsheba and murdered Uriah (II Samuel 12:1-14).
 6. Solomon - after God gave him wisdom, wealth, power and majesty, he married pagan women who introduced idolatry to Israel (I Kings 3:3; 4:29,30; 9:1-9; 10:24; 11:1-14).
 7. Rehoboam inherited a great kingdom and power, but lost it by foolishness (I Kings 12:12-15)
 8. Samson (Judges 15-16) had great strength, but lost it by fornication and breaking his vows.
 9. Judas heard Jesus preaching for 3 years but betrayed Jesus for 30 pieces of silver.
 10. Demas journeyed with Paul but forsook him due to love of the world. (II Timothy 4:10).
- What will we do if we appreciate our privileges: Not complain; build on our parents' work for God; be faithful to Church; learn God's Word; grow in grace; serve Christ; resist the devil.

220. What Are You Looking At?

I. What God looks for: Job 33:27 (repentance); Isaiah 66:2 (contrite); Ezekiel 22:30 (a man).

II. What we should look at:

1. Our goings (Proverbs 14:15). Make right decisions.
2. Ways of a wife's household (Proverbs 31:27).
3. State of thy flocks (Proverbs 27:23). Look after your disciples.
4. Christ for salvation (Isaiah 45:22).
5. Jesus, as our role model. (Hebrews 12:2).
6. Return of the Saviour (Philippians 3:20; Titus 2:13).
7. Israel will look on Christ's nail-print hands. (Zechariah 12:10).
8. The fields that are white unto harvest. (John 4:35).
9. Men of honest report. (Acts 6:3).
10. New Heaven and New Earth (II Peter 3:13). New Jerusalem city (Hebrews 11:10).
11. Failing of the grace of God (Hebrews 12:15).
12. Perfect law of liberty (James 1:25).
13. Yourselves that we lose not the things we have wrought. (II John 8).
14. Things that are eternal. (II Corinthians 4:18).

III. What we should NOT look at:

1. Countenance, or judge superficially. (I Samuel 16:7).

3. Women lustfully (Matthew 5:28).
4. Things which are seen as the purpose for living (II Corinthians 4:18).
5. On his own things (Philippians 2:4).

221. What Shall Be The End Of These Things? (Daniel 12:8; Ecclesiastes 7:8).

Aim: To see that what we start can have a greater end than we think. How did these finish?

1. Those turning from the truth – their end is worse than their beginning. (II Peter 2:20).
2. Those keeping Christ's words to the end – get power over the nations (Revelations 2:26).
3. Immoral women – their end is bitter as wormwood (Proverbs 5:3-5).
4. Immoral men – hell (Proverbs 7:21-27).
5. You – going to Bible College, starting a church, training many preachers, winning millions.
6. John Wesley –brought revival to England and America. England became a great power.
7. John Wycliffe – inspired many others to translate and print Bibles.
8. John Huss – inspired Luther to preach against Roman Catholic errors.
9. Martin Luther – started the Reformation worldwide.
10. William Carey – inspired the Christian world to support and send missionaries.
11. Learners become wiser in their latter end (Proverbs 19:20).
12. Fighters, disputers. "Go not forth hastily to strive, lest thou know not what to do (Prov 25:8).

14. Writing a quality Christian book – blesses many.
15. Discipling by multiplication (II Timothy 2:2) – millions saved.

222. What Profit Is It That We Have Kept His Ordinance? (Malachi 3:14).

I. Profit in serving and obeying God is to:

1. Us (Psalm 19:11) – by enjoying the fruit of the Spirit; a like-minded spouse; freedom from trouble and evil; freedom from evil people avoided; fellowship with God and each other; fulness of joy (I John 3:3,4); wisdom to know right from wrong.
2. Our Children – blessings passed on to many generations; loving obedient children; good communication by praying together; children will call you blessed (Prov. 31:28).
3. Others – Saved and taught true doctrine through our obedience.
 - a) We make friends we otherwise never would have made. (Psalm 119:63).
 - b) Preachers trained.
 - c) Churches started.
 - d) Country blessed by righteousness.
 - e) Evil held back from taking over a country.
4. Treasures in Heaven:
 - a) A permanent record of our deeds (Malachi 3:16).
 - b) Shine as precious jewels to God forever (v 17) and Daniel 12:3.
 - c) You'll see the difference in heaven (v 18).

II. What Profitable Things may we do?

1. Seek the salvation of sinners (I Corinthians 10:33).
2. Preaching (Acts 20:20).
3. Mix God's word preached with faith (Hebrews 4:2).
4. Enduring chastening (Hebrews 12:10).
5. Good works helping others (James 2:14,16).
6. Godliness (I Timothy 4:8).
7. Giving yourself wholly to reading, exhortation, doctrine, meditation. (I Timothy 4:15).

223. Are You Warring A Good Warfare?

1. Scriptures teaching spiritual warfare are I Peter 2:1; I Timothy 1:18; II Corinthians 10:3,4; I Chron 12:32-33; Psalm 18:34; 144:1; Exodus 15:3; Prov. 20:18; Psalm 78:9; Rev 12:7,17.
2. Levels of Training: Win the lost, Train young Christians; Train Soul winners; Refute error; befriend new Christians; Equip Third World pastors in soul winning and Bible Teaching.
3. Hindrances: Christians unwilling to: Go soul winning; follow-up new Christians; study the Bible; come to two Sunday services and mid-week Bible Study; and give sacrificially.
4. Challenges in spiritual warfare: lazy Christians, False doctrines in Christendom (Calvinism, SDA, Charismatic, Ecumenism); Islam; Christians unskilled in soul winning/ disciplinemaking

224. The True Prophet Micaiah (I Kings 22:1-28; II Chronicles 18:1-27).

Question: What do we learn about Micaiah as an ideal man of God that applies to us?

1. He was hated by evil people, such as Ahab (I Kings 22:8).
2. He prophesied evil on evil people. He did not prophesy smooth things or men-pleasing words
3. He went against the crowd of popular false prophets. (I Kings 22:12).
4. He was pressured to conform to preach as the false prophets did (22:13).
5. He said he would only speak what God told him to speak (22:14).
6. He used sarcasm (22:15,16).
7. He revealed heavenly truths (22:19).
8. He revealed living prophets' involvement.

12. False Accusation (Luke 19:8; II Timothy 3:3). False Witness (Exodus 20:16; Proverbs 6:19).
False Report (Exodus 23:1). False Tongue (Psalm 120:3).
13. Lying Spirits (I Kings 22:21,22,23).

230. Truths For Labourers In God's Work.

God has created Christians to work for Him (Ephesians 2:8-10). Not working leads us to mischief.

1. 2 aspects of labouring are: build (trowel) and defend what has been built (sword)-(Neh 4:15-21)
2. Pray for Lord to send forth labourers (Matthew 9:35-39). This was Jesus' main prayer request.
3. Finish the work God has for you (John 4:34-38). Fields are white already to harvest (v.35).
Reapers receive wages and gather fruit (v.36). Sowing and reaping are necessary (v.36,37).
We build on other men's labours (v.38).
4. Support the weak. It is more blessed to give than to receive (Acts 20:35).
5. We will be rewarded according to our labours (I Corinthians 3:8).
We are labourers together with God (I Corinthians 3:9).
Our labour is not in vain in the Lord. (I Corinthians 15:58).
6. We labour to be accepted (approved, well-pleasing) of God. (II Corinthians 5:9).
7. We labour to give to the needy. (Ephesians 4:28).
8. We should appreciate and work with our companions in labour. (Philippians 2:25).
9. Labour consists of preaching, warning, teaching, striving, presenting. (Colossians 1:28,29).
10. Labour in prayers. (Colossians 4:12).
11. Labour of love, faith, hope. (I Thessalonians 1:3).
12. Labour and travail night and day. (I Thessalonians 2:9).
13. Pastors should labour in the Word and Doctrine. (I Thessalonians 5:12,13; I Timothy 5:17).
14. Be willing to suffer reproach. (I Timothy 4:10).
15. Christ knows and won't forget our labour of love. (Hebrews 6:10; Revelation 2:2).
16. Rest from our labours in heaven. (Revelation 14:13,15).

231. What Will Ye Do In The Day Of Visitation? (Isaiah 10:3; I Peter 2:12).

Definition: The act of God (or Satan permitted by God) visiting people for any purpose such as: Inspecting our conduct (Sodom); Inflicting punishment (Ezekiel 38:8), or conferring favours. Most NT visitations by God were to confer favours rather than to inflict punishment. It describes God coming to men to bless them, revive people's spiritual lives and pour His Holy Spirit upon them. We must recognise visitations from God as an opportunity for blessing, if we obey and take them, otherwise we may miss our life's purpose and blessing.

I. People Satan visited and the Purpose: Recognise how Satan visits us, when he visits us, and through whom he visits us, so we resist him successfully and overcome his purposes for us. Examples of people Satan visited are:

- 1) Jesus (Matthew 4:1-11).
- 2) Peter (Luke 22:31-34).
- 3) Judas (John 13:27) - to tempt with monetary gain.
- 4) Job (Job 1,2) - loss of wealth and health to prove Job loved God for personal gain.
- 5) David – through Bathsheba (II Samuel 11); to number Israel (I Chronicles 21).
- 6) Solomon (I Kings 11:1-14) in loving many strange women and introducing idolatry.
- 7) Paul (II Corinthians 12:7) lest he should be exalted above measure.

II. People God Visited

- 1) Zacharias at the birth of John the Baptist (Luke 1:68).
- 2) Israel when Christ raised the widow of Nain's son from the dead (Luke 7:11-18).
- 3) Israel visited by the Messiah for blessing, but knew it not. (Luke 19:44).
- 4) Russia and Muslim nations visited for judgment (Ezekiel 38:8).
- 5) Sarah visited, by God giving her a son, Isaac. (Genesis 21:1-4).
- 6) Israel visited by God to rescue them from Egypt (Exodus 3:8-18).
- 7) Joshua visited by God to instruct & encourage him before conquering Canaan. (Josh 5:13-15)
- 8) Job visited by God to preserve, instruct, encourage and bless him (Job 10:12; 38:1-42:6)
- 9) Israel visited by God in giving them bread (Ruth 1:6).

Lessons:

1. Recognise the times when Satan or God visit us. To react by resisting Satan and obeying God.
2. Pray to God for wisdom and strength to react correctly.
3. Realise that how we react to each visitation has far-reaching consequences for good or evil.

232. What Do You Lack? (II Peter 3:1-10)

1. Knowledge (Hosea 4:6). "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge."
2. Service (Philipp. 2:30). "For the work of Christ...to supply your lack of service toward me."
3. Opportunity (Philippians 4:10). Prepare yourselves to take opportunities.
4. Moisture (Luke 8:6)–nourishing spiritual environment of a good, soul winning, Bible teaching church
5. Wisdom (James 1:5). "If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God..."
6. Eight qualities (II Peter 1:1-10). "he that lacketh these things is blind and cannot see afar off"
7. Understanding (Proverbs 6:32-35; 7:7). "He that committeth adultery...lacks understanding.."
8. Missionaries support (2 Corinth. 11:9). "that which was lacking to me the brethren supplied"
9. Faith or Doctrine (I Thessalonians 3:10). "might perfect that which is lacking in your faith."
10. Nothing (I Thessalonians 4:12). "that ye may have lack of nothing."

233. Responses of Believers Towards Satan

1. Put on the whole armour of God (Ephesians 6:11-18).
2. Know Satan's devices (II Corinthians 2:11).
3. Resist the devil (James 4:7; I Peter 5:8,9).
4. Be sober, be vigilant lest he devour us (I Peter 5:8,9).
5. Give him no place (beach head). (Ephesians 4:7).
6. Quote Scripture to refute his lies (Matthew 4:1-11; I John 2:14).
7. Overcome him by the blood of Christ and a good testimony (Revelation 12:11).
8. Be filled with the Holy Spirit (Eph. 5:18) & yielded to the Holy Spirit (Romans 6:1-13; 3:13)

234. How To Treat Yourself - Our Duty to Ourselves. (I Corinthians 9:19-27).

Aim: To treat ourself so we will have a lasting impact on the world for Christ.

Introduction: One of people's biggest problems is that they don't know how to treat themselves so as to keep their minds, emotions, spirits and bodies functioning efficiently. We all have difficulties and disappointments. It is how we react to these that determines our well-being.

Question: How do you react to challenging situations?

In I Corinthians 9:24-27 Paul discusses how to treat our bodies in the Christian race. We must:

1. Run to obtain the prize. (v.24).
2. Strive to master the Bible and our laziness. (v.25).
3. Be temperate (controlled) in all things. (v.25).
4. Run and fight to achieve our life's goals. (v.26).
5. Keep our body under subjection. (v.27).
6. Fear becoming a castaway (disapproved). (v.27).

Q: How are we to treat ourselves & win the race God has given us, as seen by uses of "ourself"?

1. Encourage yourself in the Lord (I Samuel 30:6). When things get bad, go to the Lord to get encouragement by Bible reading, prayer, soul winning, good Christian Conferences, God's past blessings, good Christian friends, past victories of God.
2. Behave yourself wisely (I Samuel 18:5,14,15,30). When Saul twice attempted to kill David, David's response was to behave himself wisely, wisely in all his ways, very wisely, and more wisely. Seek to cultivate wisdom in all areas of our life. How? By walking with wise men, studying and applying Proverbs, and avoiding fools.
3. Commit yourself and your ways to God. (Psalm 10:4; 37:5). Hand your life to God's control.
4. Water yourself by watering others. (Proverbs 11:25).
Question: How do we water others? By helping them in time of need, giving them a good word (Proverbs 12:25), giving to the needy. (Proverbs 19:17).
5. Separate yourself (Proverbs 18:1) from false doctrines, bad friends, time wasting, useless activities, so you can study God's Word to achieve God's will for your life. (Romans 16:17).
6. Show yourself friendly (Proverbs 18:24). Make friends for Jesus, have a cheerful spirit, be loving, kind, caring and helpful.
7. Hide yourself from evil that is foreseeable. (Proverbs 22:3).
8. Deny yourself so as to spread the Gospel. (Matthew 16:24).
9. Humble yourself. (Matthew 23:12).
10. Prepare yourself to battle. (I Corinthians 14:8; Luke 12:47).
11. Love yourself by loving your wife. (Ephesians 5:28,33).
12. Purge yourself of past sins and wrong attitudes. (II Timothy 2:21; I John 3:3).
13. Behold yourself (James 1:24), Examine yourself (I Corinthians 11:28).
14. Keep yourself unspotted from the world. (James 1:27).
15. Debate thy cause with thy neighbour himself. (Proverbs 25:9).
16. Give account of yourself to God. (Romans 14:12). Remember your accountability to God.

235. Why Jesus Christ Came Into The World. He came to:

1. Save sinners (I Timothy 1:15); Call sinners to repentance. (Luke 5:32).
2. Minister to serve people and give His life a ransom for many. (Matthew 20:28). (Matt 3:15)
3. Get baptised and thus show us how to be baptised. (Mark 1:9). "To fulfil all righteousness."
4. Preach the Gospel of Peace (Mark 1:38,39), & give us access to the Father (Eph 2:17, 14-18)
5. Heal the broken hearted (Luke 4:18).
6. Inspect and evaluate people's condition: Israel's (Matthew 21:9); Disciples (Matthew 26:43); Church. (Matthew 24:42,44).
7. Do the will of Him that sent me, and to finish His work. (John 4:34; 6:38).
8. Bless us and turn us away from our iniquities. (Acts 3:26).
9. Destroy the works of the devil (I John 3:8)—all his wicked plans & control over men's hearts
10. Give eternal life, be the propitiation for our sins, the Saviour of the world. (I John 4:9,10,14).

236. Profitable Things (Acts 20:20).

2. Lying words (Jeremiah 7:8).
3. Riches in the day of wrath (Proverbs 11:4).
4. Astrologers, Stargazers, horoscopes (Isaiah 47:12-14).
5. Flesh – This means carnal views and desires, ungodly sinful lifestyles. (John 6:63).
6. Word preached that is not mixed with faith in the hearers (Hebrews 4:2).
7. Christ’s death on the cross will be of no value (no profit) to you if you trust your works to save you. (Galatians 5:1-4,2).

237. Sound Things. What must we be sound in?

Definition: “Sound” means: Healthy, well, wholesome, uncorrupt. (OT 8454; NT 5198).

1. Sound heart (Psalm 119:80; Proverbs 14:30).
2. Sound doctrine (I Timothy 1:10; II Timothy 4:3; Titus 1:9; 2:1).
3. Sound wisdom (Proverbs 2:7; 3:21; 8:14).
4. Sound mind (II Timothy 1:7).
5. Sound words (II Timothy 1:13; Titus 2:8), sound speech.
6. Sound in faith, charity, patience (Titus 2:2).
7. Sound in the faith (Titus 1:13).

238. What Treasures Are You Seeking?

1. Knowledge of God’s Word (Matthew 13:52).
2. Heavenly rewards (Matthew 19:21; Luke 12:33; 18:22).
3. Gospel (II Corinthians 4:7).
4. Wisdom, Understanding, Knowledge (Proverbs 2:4).
5. Jewels of people getting saved (Malachi 3:16-18).
6. Fear of the Lord (Isaiah 33:6).
7. Israel being saved (Exodus 19:5; Psalm 135:4; Matthew 13:44).
8. Good things in your heart (Matthew 12:35; Luke 6:45).
9. Beauty in creation and snow crystals (Job 38:22).
10. Christ (Colossians 2:3).
11. Earthly treasure for yourself (Luke 12:21).
12. Wrath on yourself by hardening your heart against God’s goodness. (Romans 2:5).

239. How Believers May Lose Their Sight (Revelation 3:14-22)

1. When we take our eyes off Jesus (Hebrews 12:1-2).
2. When we look back – to our unsaved habits, or to past blessings (Luke 9:57-62).
3. When we start looking around at others (John 21:15-19, II Corinthians 10:12).
Don’t worry about others business, but follow Jesus.
4. When we stop looking forward to the spiritual, eternal and heavenly (2 Corinthians 4:16-18)
5. When we stop looking outward for the souls (Matthew 9:36-38).

240. The Work of God in a Local Church is Great because: Nehemiah 6:3; I Chron29:1

1. It is the training ground of future preachers, pastors, missionaries and churches.
2. Our children's spiritual development depends on the inspiration & training they get in church.
3. It is the pillar and ground of all truth. (I Timothy 3:15). It establishes truth in a country and refutes error. Our Constitution, our Government, our Justice Systems, our Police, our Economic System are based on Bible truths as taught by Bible-based churches.
4. It prevents or holds back evil in our society. As we lead people to Christ, we cover a multitude of sins. (James 5:19,20). People's religion is their basis for all their decisions.
5. It belongs to Jesus Christ (Matthew 16:18 "I will build my church"; Colossians 3:23-25). Hence:
 - a) I will not quit, because I'll miss all future ministry blessings.
 - b) I will not let personal preferences hinder the progress of the church (Psalm 133:1). The work is greater than your petty differences, preferences, likes or dislikes. These are tiny compared to people's salvation, baptism, sending out missionaries and pastors. Don't mess with the Spirit of Unity of a New Testament Church. (You don't destroy a nice marriage over a petty issue).

241. How Should We Live?

1. "By every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." (Matthew 4:4).
2. "The just shall live by faith." (Romans 1:17; Galatians 3:11; Hebrews 10:38).
3. "As much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men." (Romans 12:18).
4. "All that will live godly in Christ Jesus, shall suffer persecution." (II Timothy 3:12).
5. "For now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord." (I Thessalonians 3:8).
6. "I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day." (Acts 23:1).
7. "Live in subjection to the Father of Spirits and live." (Hebrews 12:9).
8. "In all things willing to live honestly." (Hebrews 13:18).
9. "We being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness." (Romans 6:11).
10. "Live to do the will of God." (I Peter 4:2).
11. "Live not to ourselves." (II Corinthians 5:15).
12. "To me to live is Christ." (Philippians 1:21).
13. "Live soberly, righteously, godly in this present world." (Titus 2:12).

242. Fire In The Bible. "Our God is a consuming fire." (Hebrews 12:29; Deut. 4:24; 9:3).

1. Judging Fire (Exodus 9:22,23; Revelation 8:7).
2. Protecting Fire (Exodus 14:19-24; Zechariah 2:5).
3. Second Coming Fire to judge unbelievers. (II Thessalonians 1:7,8,9).
4. Judgment Seat of Christ Fire judging & testing the quality of believers' works (I Cor 3:13-15)
5. Israel's judgment on Edom/Esau/PLO. (Obadiah 15-18).
6. Adultery and Fornication Fire. (Proverbs 6:27-35).
7. Tongue Fire. (Proverbs 16:27; James 3:5,6).
8. Preaching Fire. (Jeremiah 5:14; 20:9).
9. Word of God as Fire, burning up sin. (Jeremiah 23:29).
10. Persecution Fire. (I Peter 1:7).
11. Omniscience of Christ's eyes of fire. (Revelation 1:14; 2:18; Daniel 10:6; Hebrews 12:29).
12. Lake of Fire. (Matthew 25:41; Revelation 20:14,15).

243. Six Rich Men (Luke 16:1-31).

Aim: To see the perils of riches, and to use riches for God's work.

Introduction: Question: What mistakes did they make? What lessons do we learn from each?

1. Rich Fool (Luke 12:16-34).
2. Rich Man with an unjust steward (Luke 16:1-13).
3. Rich Man and Lazarus (Luke 16:19-31).
4. Rich Young Ruler (Luke 18:18).
5. Rich Tax Collector – Zaccheus (Luke 19:1-10).
6. Rich Men and a poor widow (Luke 21:1-4).

244. What Do We Need To Be Taught?

1. "I will teach you the good and right way." (I Samuel 12:23; Psalm 25:4).
2. "I will teach you the fear of the Lord." (Psalm 34:11-16).
3. "Teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom." (Psalm 90:12).
4. "Teach me to do thy will; for thou art my God." (Psalm 143:10).
5. "They shall teach my people the difference between the holy and the profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean." (Ezekiel 44:23). Unclean = unchaste, impure. Profane = unholy, blasphemous, irreverent, polluted, outraging sacred things, things said that are in manifest or implied contempt for sacred things.
6. "Teach us to pray." (Luke 11:1).
7. "Ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God." (Hebrews 5:12; 6:1,2).
8. "He teacheth my hands to war." (Psalm 18:34; 144:1; II Samuel 22:35).
9. "Teaching us that denying ungodliness." (Titus 2:12; Psalm 1:1).
10. "Teaching those things concerning the Lord Jesus Christ." (Acts 28:31).

245. What Are God's Teachers?

Aim: To see different ways we can learn about God and His Ways.

1. Parents. "Thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children." (Deuteronomy 6:7; 11:19).
2. Previous generations, as learnt by reading good Christian books. (Job 8:8-10).
3. Beasts. How? See Chapter 189 (Job 12:7). "Ask now the beasts, and they shall teach thee."
4. Earth (Job 12:8,9). "Speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee." How does earth teach us?
 - a) Folding (of rock strata) = Flood evidence.
 - b) Coal and Oil = Death of plants and animals in Noah's Flood.
 - c) Fossils = Animals dying in the Flood.
 - d) Minerals = God's Provision for man's industrial needs.
 - f) Dinosaur and human footprints = Man and dinosaur lived together pre-flood.
 - g) Sowing seed leads to reaping an identical harvest = Sin leads to trouble.
5. Multitude of years should teach wisdom (Job 32:7). Examples: Bible, experienced people.
6. Soul winners (Psalm 51:13). When we go soul winning, we teach God's salvation.
7. Fingers (Proverbs 6:12-15) How? By writing good or bad books, eg: Bunyan, Darwin, Marx.
8. Jesus ("Thou art a teacher come from God." John 3:2).
9. Holy Spirit ("He shall teach you all things." John 14:26).
10. Nature (I Corinthians 11:14). Nature = the natural sense of fitness among men worldwide that the sexes should look different. Jews & Greeks regarded long hair on men as disgraceful.
11. Pastors ("apt to teach." I Timothy 3:2; II Timothy 2:24).
12. Disciple makers ("able to teach others also." II Timothy 2:2).
13. Older women should teach younger women (Titus 2:4).
14. The Heavens (Psalm 19:1-4). The Gospel in the Stars declares the glory of God.

246. Different People's Responses To Christ's First Coming (Christmas)

Aim: To have the right responses to Christ's first and second comings.

Question: What do we learn from seven characters' response to Christ's birth?

1. Elizabeth: Joy (Luke 1:42-45). John leaped for joy when he heard of Christ coming to see him.
2. Mary: Remember God's Works (Luke 1:46-56). Mary magnified the Lord because of God's works regarding Mary's low estate, etc.
3. Shepherds: Made Known Abroad (Luke 2:8-20).
4. Simeon: Hope Fulfilled (Luke 2:25-35).
5. Anna: Served, prayed, thanked, spake of Christ to all. (Luke 2:36-38).
6. Wise Men: Sought Christ, worshipped Christ, were joyful, gave gifts. (Matthew 2:1-12).
7. Herod: Troubled, angry, murdered children. (Matthew 2:16-18).

Conclusion: How do we respond to Christ's coming? Are we for or against Christ? Are we like Elizabeth who showed joy?

247. The Power of Example

Aim: To be best examples for Christ so others will be drawn to Christ by my example and words.

Introduction: People are watching you. Whatever you do, someone will follow your example.

- 1) If you set a wrong example, some will follow you to destruction and God will hold you accountable for stumbling them. (Romans 14:13,21).
- 2) If you set a good example, many will follow you to be blessed, and God will reward and honour you for many people getting saved and living right for God.

I. Who Can Influence Others by Example?

1. Whatever Parents allow, children will become, because they follow your example.
2. Whatever a Pastor permits and does, his people will become as they follow his example. A pastor determines what his church will be like.
3. Whatever a school peer group endorse, many students follow, such as speech, hair style, rock music, fashion, alcohol, cigarettes, drugs. Many young people decide by asking, "Is it cool?", when they should be asking, "Does it please God?"
4. Whatever a Bible College Principal or Lecturer teaches, many students believe and teach in their churches for the next 40 years.
5. Whatever a Judge hands down as a court case judgment, is a precedent for future cases.
6. Whatever laws Governments pass, soon become accepted behaviour in a community, eg: abortion, prostitution, pornography, sodomite "marriages", etc.

II. Bible Characters Showing the Power of Example

1. Peter said, "I go a fishing". Four other disciples said, "We also go with thee." John 21:1-3
2. Peter separated himself from Gentile Christians, fearing the circumcision, so that Barnabus followed his example. (Galatians 2:11-14). Paul rebuked Peter for this.
3. Angrv men: "Make no friendship with an angry man – lest thou learn his ways, and get a snare to thy soul." (Proverbs 22:24,25).
4. Peer Pressure: "Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do evil." (Exodus 23:2).
5. Israel was commanded not to follow Egypt's or Canaan's example. (Leviticus 18:3).
6. Scribes and Pharisees: "do not ye after their works: for they say, and do not." Mat 23:1,2
7. Sodom and Gomorrha: "giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire." (Jude 7).
8. Wilderness Generation Israelites: "Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted." (I Corinthians 10:6).
9. Christ suffered for us "leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps." I Pet 2:21
10. Paul: "Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ." (I Corinthians 11:1).
11. Wise men: "He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed." (Proverbs 13:20).
12. Ungodly, Sinners, Scornful: "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners." (Psalm 1:1-6; Ephesians 4:17).

248. How Are We to Grow?

1. Jesus grew (a) strong in spirit; (b) filled with wisdom (c) in the grace of God (Luke 2:40), (d) in wisdom and stature; (e) in favour with God and man. (Luke 2:52).
2. Christlikeness: "grow up into him in all things." (Ephesians 4:15).
3. Grace: "But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ." (2 Peter 3:18). This means to grow in graciousness and in Christlike character.
4. Knowledge of Jesus Christ (II Peter 3:18). Study Christ's work, person, life, character & deity.
5. Faith: "Your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity ..." (II Thessalonians 1:3).
6. As a Church: "maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love." Eph.4:15; 2:21,22
7. In all areas of our Christian life by studying God's Word. (I Peter 2:2).
8. Number & Quality of Churches: "they doubted of them whereunto this would grow" Acts 5:24 "The Word of God grew and multiplied." (Acts 12:24; 19:20).
9. Grow in spite of opposition from False Believers: "let both grow together until harvest" Matt.13:30.

249. God of the Second Chance: People Who Came Back from Failure.

Memory Verse: “A just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again.” (Proverbs 24:16).

Aim: Failure is not final. God is willing to give those who fail a second chance to serve Him.

Introduction: Many of God’s best servants experienced some failure in their lives. Those who came back to God were given another great work to do.

Question: Who came back from personal failure?

1. Moses (Exodus 2:11-15; 3:11) after killing an Egyptian beating an Israelite slave.
2. Job (Job 42:1-10) after losing his wealth, family, health and friends.
3. Samson (Judges 16:19-30) after losing his freedom, eyesight and reputation.
4. David:
 - a) Saul chasing David to kill him, so he fled to the Philistines. (I Samuel 27).
 - b) Amalekites’ destruction of Ziklag, not protecting and losing their families (I Samuel 30)
 - c) Adultery with Bathsheba and murdering Uriah. (II Samuel 11,12).
 - d) Absalom’s rebellion, war, takeover of Jerusalem. (II Samuel 15).
 - e) David’s sin of numbering the people. (II Samuel 24).
 - f) Adonijah’s plot to seize the kingdom in David’s old age. (I Kings 1).
5. Elijah (I Kings 19:1-4) after being threatened with death by Jezebel.
6. Manasseh (II Chronicles 33:1-16) after being the most evil, foolish, wicked man in the Bible
7. Peter (John 18:15-27) after denying Jesus.
8. Mark (Acts 15:36-41) after deserting Paul on a missionary journey.

250. Things We Must Prove (Deuteronomy 18:1-22; II Chronicles 9:1-31).

A major problem today is that people rarely prove things, but just presume or trust things to be true. What must we prove?

- Jesus proved or tested his disciples: “This he said to prove them.” (John 6:6).
- The Queen of Sheba proved Solomon with hard questions. (II Chronicles 9:1).

We should prove or test people with hard questions, such as:

1. To unbelievers: “If you died tonight, do you know 100% for sure if you would go to heaven?”
2. To modern version users: “Would you read Matthew 17:21 and 18:11 in the NIV please?”
3. To Calvinists: “Does God want all people to be saved or only some?” “Does the devil want all to be saved?” (No) “Do you?” (Yes) “Are you more merciful than God?”
4. To “loss of salvation” believers: “In John 10:28 what does “never perish” mean?”
5. To infant sprinklers: “Show me one baby in the Bible who was sprinkled?”
6. To SDAs: In Heb 9:1-4 are the 10 Comm in ordinances? (yes). In Eph 2:15 are they abolished?

Question: What must we prove?

1. Those claiming to be prophets of God (Deut. 18:18-22), eg: Mohammed by telling the future.
2. Those claiming to be apostles of God (Revelation 2:2) by asking them to do a miracle as first Century apostles could (II Corinthians 12:12).
3. God’s promises to give to us by us tithing. (Malachi 3:10; Luke 6:38).
4. What must we prove about the will of God in Romans 12:1,2? What 3 things must we do?
5. The sincerity of our love for missions by giving to missionaries. (II Corinthians 8:8).
6. Diligent and reliable in many things as Titus did. (II Corinthians 8:22).
7. Quality of our own work for Christ by people we win to Christ going on to win and train others. (Galatians 6:4).
8. Prove all things, don’t just trust people or presume they are right. Check the Bible. I Thess.5:21
9. Deacons must prove to be loyal and trustworthy to the pastor, to God and to the Bible (I Timothy 3:10).

251. What Do We Rejoice In The Lord About? Philippians 3

1. That we can be certain of salvation, not by our works, but by faith in Christ as our Saviour. v.1-9
2. That we know Christ personally. v. 10-12.
3. That we have a life goal of glorifying God and doing the Great Commission (v. 13,14).
4. That we have mental unity with believers of same goals, love, service. (v. 15,16). Psalm 133:1-3
5. That we have good examples to follow. (v. 17-19).
6. That we can look forward to Christ’s return when we get a new resurrection body. (v.20,21).

252. How the Christian Race is Like the Olympic Games. I Corinthians 9:24-27

The Olympic Games remind us of Christians striving for the eternal prize of Christ's approval and heavenly rewards at the Judgment Seat of Christ. "They do it to obtain a corruptible crown" I Cor. 9:25.

Question: What similarities exist between the spiritual race of life and the Olympic race for gold?

1. Much hard training is required (I Corinthians 9:24-27). We must train to:
 - a) Understand the Bible better.
 - b) Win more people to Christ.
 - c) Teach others the Bible better.
 - d) Plant more churches.
2. Much discipline is needed to reject temptations that hinder our performance. Be "temperate in all things" (I Corinthians 9:25). "Let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us." (Hebrews 12:1).
3. A great cloud of witnesses watches our race and cheers us on, (as in the olympic grandstands and telecast), of departed believers, angels, Jesus Christ and living believers. (Hebrews 12:1).
4. Athletes get a few days of glory if they win. We race for an eternal weight of glory. 2 Cor 4:17. "Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible (crown)." (I Cor 9:25).
5. We must keep focused on the prize to be won in heaven:
"Set your affection on things above, not on things of the earth." (Colossians 3:2).
6. People may slander athletes as a drug cheat even if they are innocent. People may slander believers falsely in order to dishearten us and sidetrack us: "Therefore we both labour and suffer reproach ... let no man despise thy youth." (I Timothy 4:10,12).
7. As athletes will be disqualified for breaking the rules, so believers will be disqualified for striving unlawfully: "If a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully." (II Timothy 2:5). "But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway (disapproved, loss of reward)." (I Corinthians 9:27). Don't use unlawful methods to do God's work.
8. The race has a start and a finish. Start = salvation. Finish = death. Prizegiving = Judgment Seat of Christ. "But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy." (Acts 20:24).
"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness ..." (II Timothy 4:7,8).
9. Many Christians stumble and fall down in the race:
"Ye did run well; who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth?" (Galatians 5:7).
"Them which stumble at the word, being disobedient." (I Peter 2:3).
10. As in the relay race, so we are in a relay where we are to run as hard as we can to pass the gospel baton and Bible teaching baton to the next generation. As there are 4 men in a relay, so there are 4 generations in spiritual multiplication of disciples: Paul, Timothy, Faithful men and Others. (II Timothy 2:2).
11. As in team sports, winning is a team effort. A church is like a team of athletes working together. Don't backslide and let the team down. Don't attack or discourage your captain or team members. Paul worked with a team of people. (Romans 16; II Timothy 4).
12. As in wrestling, you lose if your opponent pins you to the ground, so "we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places." (Ephesians 6:12). Evil forces seek to pin believers to the ground so that we have no resources or good name to do much for God.
13. As boxers seek to land a knockout punch and endure being hit, so Christians must seek to knockout the enemy: "So fight I, not as one that beateth the air" (I Corinthians 9:26), and endure being hit (buffeting): "Even to this present hour we....are buffeted" (I Cor. 4:11).
14. As talent scouts look for athletes of great ability and promise, so we should send our best young people to the best Bible Colleges to get the best training: "Commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also." (II Timothy 2:2).
15. Have a good coach. Be in a church with a pastor who can train you how to win souls, who does door-knocking, who can train you in sound doctrine. Do what he says.

16. As athletes use the right equipment, so we must use the best tools and equipment, such as King James Bibles, STOP tracts, Answers books, etc. to communicate God's Word.
17. As some athletes are great heros now, so will some Christians be great heros in the spiritual warfare and Christian race, such as Paul, and maybe you.
18. Some Christians are spectators, doing nothing for God, when they should be in the race.
19. Successful athletes receive the best training, from the youngest age. Children should be trained in the Bible from the earliest age with the best doctrine and mentors. Time in training is never time wasted.
20. As athletes have a rule book and training manual, so Christians must run by Bible rules.
21. As successful athletes receive much glory in winning a gold medal, so Christians will receive much glory in heaven for finishing their race lawfully. (Daniel 12:3).
22. Some are out of the race due to injury. Many get hurt, offended and quit. Mark 4:17; Rom 14:21
Conc: How are you running your race? Will you finish your course with joy? Are you dedicated?

253. Things To Do First.

Many people's priorities in life are wrong. What must we seek to do first?

1. "Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness ..." Matthew 6:33.
2. "First be reconciled to thy brother, then come and offer thy gift." Matthew 5:24.
3. "First cast the beam out of thine own eye ..." Matthew 7:5.
4. "Love the Lord thy God with all thine heart...the first and great commandment." Matthew 22:35-40
5. "Sit down first, and count the cost." Luke 14:28-33.
6. "Andrew first findeth his own brother Simon ..." John 1:41.
7. "First gave their own selves to the Lord." II Corinthians 8:5.
8. "If there be first a willing mind ..." II Corinthians 8:12.
9. "Children ... let them learn first to show piety at home." I Timothy 5:4.
10. "Wisdom that is from above is first pure ..." James 3:17.
11. "Learn the first principles of the oracles of God." Hebrews 5:12.
12. "Thou has left thy first love." We must keep our first love for Jesus Christ. Revelation 2:4.

254. Vain Things. (Ecclesiastes 7:1-29).

Aim: To avoid things that are vain and useless.

1. "I have not sat with vain persons." (Psalm 26:4; Proverbs 12:11; 28:19).
2. "I hate vain thoughts, but thy law do I love." (Psalm 119:113; Jeremiah 4:14).
3. "Give us help from trouble, for vain is the help of man." (Psalm 60:11).
4. "Favour is deceitful and beauty is vain, but a woman that feareth the Lord" (Proverbs 31:30)
5. "The customs of the people are vain." (Jeremiah 10:3). eg. idols, incense.
6. "When ye pray, use not vain repetitions." (Matthew 6:7). Eg: Saying 150 Hail Marys.
7. "In vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men." Matth.15:9
8. "Became vain in their imaginations" (Romans 1:21).Eg: movies, vain philosophies. Col.2:8.
9. "Bridleth not his tongue ... this man's religion is vain." (James 1:26).
10. "Vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers." (I Peter 5:18). Religious traditions
11. "Philosophy and vain deceit." (Colossians 2:8). eg: Many university courses.
12. "Walk in the vanity of their mind." (Ephesians 4:17; I Corinthians 3:20).

Conclusion: Forsake vain things. Commit your life to doing things that are of "first" importance.

255. How the Spiritual War is Like a Military War

Aim: To use our resources and tactics to win the spiritual war. (Ephesians 6:10-18).

Introduction: Ephesians 6:10-18 states that we are in a spiritual war with the forces of Satan over the souls of men. This is what life is all about. Warring a good warfare (I Timothy 1:18) is the purpose of life (II Corinthians 5:10). This results in eternal rewards and Christ's approval at the Judgment Seat of Christ. Many Christians don't even know that we are in a spiritual war. We will make so many better decisions if we see that we are in a spiritual war, fighting over the eternal souls of men. Our goals should be:

1. Learning to win souls to Christ.

2. Learning to follow them up and teach them right Bible doctrines.
3. Understanding the value of being loyal to building our soul winning church.
4. Understanding Satan's devices so we don't give him an advantage over us.
5. Seeing the value of using gospel tracts.
6. Encouraging fellow workers on the same side.
7. Training more preachers.
8. Studying the Bible to learn more about the spiritual war.
- I. How the Spiritual War is like a Military War (Our resources).
 - 1) Our Enemy = Satan, demons, false doctrines.
 - 2) Our Commander in Chief = Lord Jesus Christ.
 - 3) Fellow soldiers = Fellow believers and soul winners in church.
 - 4) Regiment = Local Church.
 - 5) Boot Camp = Training new converts and a good Bible College.
 - 6) Battlefield = World of opportunities to win souls to Christ.
 - 7) Sergeant = Pastor of a local church.
 - 8) Equipment = Bible, STOP tracts, Answers book.
 - 9) Communication = Prayer.
 - 10) Casualties = Backsliders, and those believing false doctrines.
 - 11) Deserters/AWOL = Quitters.
 - 12) Traitors = Wolves speaking perverse things (Acts 20:29,30).
 - 13) Intelligence = Skilled understanding of enemy's tactics and our tactics (2 Cor. 2:11).
 - 14) Armour =
 - a) Loins girt about with truth. (Ephesians 6:13-18).
 - b) Breastplate of righteousness. (v 14).
 - c) Feet shod with preparation of the gospel of peace. (v 15).
 - d) Shield of faith. (v 16).
 - e) Helmet of salvation. (v 17).
 - f) Sword of the Spirit.
 - g) Praying always. (v 18).
 - h) Watching for all saints. (v 18).

II. Our Tactics (II Timothy 2).

- 1) Be strong in grace that is in Christ Jesus. (v 1).
- 2) Multiply disciples by teaching faithful men. (v 2).
- 3) Endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. (v 3).
- 4) Don't get entangled with the affairs of this life. (v 4).
- 5) Strive lawfully. (v 5).
- 6) Pay the soul winning preacher first. (v 6).
- 7) Seek to understand all things in the spiritual war. (v 7).
- 8) Remember Jesus Christ's resurrection. (v 8).
- 9) Expect people to persecute you as an evil doer. (v 9).
- 10) Get God's Word out to the multitudes: 'The Word of God is not bound.' (v 9).
- 11) Endure all things so people will get saved. (v 10).
- 12) If we suffer with Christ, we shall reign with Christ. (v 12).
- 13) Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. (v 15).
- 14) Depart from iniquity, purge yourself from sins, flee youthful lusts. (v 19,21,22).
- 15) Be gentle to all men. (v 24).
- 16) Meekly instruct those that oppose themselves so they repent. (v 25).

In an army, there shall be one mind, one heart, one purpose – that of the commander. The whole army shall be as obedient to the commander as members of the human body are to the head. So believers are to be as subordinate to the will of Christ, as an army is to the will of its Commander. Our will must be absorbed (or lost) in the will of Jesus Christ, and our purpose is accomplished if we are approved by Christ. "Well done, good and faithful servant." (Matthew 25:23).

256. Our Heavenly Father As The Ideal Father

In what ways is God as our Heavenly Father the Ideal Father?

1. As a father begat his children, so God gave us spiritual life: “Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth.” (James 1:18). As there are two agents of physical birth (male and female), so God uses two agents of spiritual birth (Word of God and Spirit of God). John 3:5, “Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God.”
2. As a father provides for the nursing, nourishing and raising of His children, so God nourishes and raises His children by His Word: “As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby.” (I Peter 2:2).
3. As a father clothes his children, so God clothes us with:
 - i) The garments of salvation: “He hath clothed me with the garments of salvation” Isa. 61:10
 - ii) Robe of righteousness, “he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness.” (Isaiah 61:10)
 - iii) Humility: “Yea, all of you ... be clothed with humility.” (I Peter 5:5).
 - iv) Whole Armour of God: “Put on the whole armour of God.” (Ephesians 6:11-18).
 - v) Glorified, Resurrection body: “we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven.” (2 Corinthians 5:1,2).
 - vi) “Put on ... mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering, forbearing one another, forgiving one another ... put on charity.” (Colossians 3:10-14).
4. As a father greatly pities his children who are sick, suffering or in trouble, so God “like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him.” (Psalm 103:13).
5. As a father protects his children from harm, and defends their innocency against accusers, so God defends us from sin, Satan and spiritual wickedness in high places: “he suffered no man to do them wrong; yea, he reproveth kings for their sakes, saying, touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm.” (Psalm 105:13-15).
6. As a father provides food and physical needs for his children, so God provides food and other needs for us: “there is no want to them that fear him, I will abundantly bless her provision, I will satisfy her poor with bread.” (Psalm 132:15); “they that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing.” (Psalm 34:10).
7. As a father delights to hear his children learning to speak and expressing their minds, so God delights to hear His little children (his babes in Christ) learn to pray, and express their wants to Him: “the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.” (Romans 8:26).
8. As a father shows himself as an example of good to his children and urges them to imitate him, so Christ shows His Father as an example of holiness to believers:
 - i) “Be ye therefore perfect even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.” (Matt 5:48)
 - ii) “Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father is merciful.” (Luke 6:36).
 - iii) “Be ye holy; for I am holy.” (I Peter 1:16).
 - iv) “Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children.” (Ephesians 5:1).
 - v) “Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness?” (II Corinthians 6:14,15-18).
 - vi) “Be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is.” (Ephesians 5:10).
 - vii) “Be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.” James 1:22
 - viii) “Be ye also patient, stablish your hearts ...” (James 5:8).
 - ix) “Be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ’s sake hath forgiven you.” (Ephesians 4:32).
 - x) “Be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another ...” (I Peter 3:8).
 - xi) “Be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer ...” (I Peter 4:7).
9. As a father educates his children, teaching them good behaviour, so God teaches, trains, and instructs his children in right ways: “I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye” Ps.32:8. “The meek will he teach his way” Ps.25:9

10. As a father is ready to hear his children's requests, so the ears of the Lord are open to his children's requests:
 - i) "Ask and ye shall receive." (John 16:24).
 - ii) "Whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive." (Matthew 21:22).
11. As a father refuses his children's requests that would harm them, so God only refuses our requests that would harm us: "Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss." (James 4:3).
12. As a father takes away from his children those things that would wound or kill them, so God puts a hedge of thorns around us to keep us from evil: (Hosea 2:6.
 - i) "I will hedge up thy way with thorns, and make a wall, that she shall not find her paths"
 - ii) "I will take away the names of Baalim out of her mouth." (Hosea 2:17).
13. As a father forgives his children's sins and weaknesses, so God forgives our sins when we confess them to Him. (I John 1:9).
14. As a father is grieved if his children prove wicked and rebellious (eg: Eli), gently seeking their restoration, so God is grieved by rebellious Christians:
 - i) "I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me." (Isa. 1:2)
 - ii) How gently and patiently He calls them to repentance: "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, ... how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not." (Matthew 23:37). (Romans 10:21.
 - iii) "All day long have I stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient & gainsaying people"
15. If mild fatherly entreaties fail, a loving father chastises His continually wayward children (Proverbs 22:15; 23:13). So God chastens, disciplines or scourges His rebellious children (Hebrews 12:5-12) in love: "As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore and repent." (Revelation 3:19).
16. As a father feels pain in disciplining his children, so God feels pain when He disciplines us: "In all their affliction he was afflicted." (Isaiah 63:9).
17. As a father lays up for his children's future mainenance, so God not only gives His children good things now, but lays up treasures for us in heaven: "O how great is thy goodness which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee." (Psalm 31:19). "Henceforth is laid up for me a crown of righteousness." (II Timothy 4:8).
18. As a father has mercy on his children's weaknesses, struggles and learning process, so God shows mercy and comfort to us: "Blessed be God ... the father of mercies, and the God of comfort; who comforteth us in all our tribulation ... " (II Corinthians 1:3,4; Luke 6:36).
19. As a father spends time with his children doing things together, enjoying each other's company, talking & having fun together, so God the Father and God the Son have fellowship with us: "truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with His Son Jesus Christ." (I John 1:3).
20. As a father encourages, comforts and charges his children, so God exhorts, comforts and charges us to walk worthy of God: "Ye know how we exhorted, comforted & charged every one of you, as a father doth his children, that ye would walk worthy of God." I Thess 2:11,12
21. As fathers work and like to see their children work, so God the Father works and is pleased when we work for Him: "Jesus answered them, My father worketh hitherto & I work" John 5:17
22. As a father loves his children, so God loves us: "For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me." (John 16:27). "Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God." (I John 3:1).
23. As a father likes giving gifts to his children, so God enjoys giving gifts to us: "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh from the Father of lights." (James 1:17)
24. As a good father doesn't want his children to mix with bad company, so God doesn't want us to mix with evil unbelievers: "Be not unequally yoked together with unbelievers ... and I will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters." (II Corinthians 6:11-18). "Love not the world ... " (I John 2:14,15).

257. What Are You Full Of?

Christians are compared to vessels in 2 Timothy 2:20,21, the purpose of which is to be filled with good and useful things. The trouble is that we pick up many wrong ideas, attitudes, behaviour and thinking that need to be purged for the Master to use us for every good work.

Question: Are you prepared for every good work? What are you filled with? What does God say that we should be filled with to be a blessing to God and to others?

1. Righteousness: “Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness...for they shall be filled”. (Matthew 5:6). Lack of food and water are distressing, so we should have a strong desire for righteousness. Those seeing themselves as perishing lost sinners & strongly desiring to be holy, shall be filled. Christ’s Gospel satisfies all who desire to be holy.
2. Wisdom: “The child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom.” (Luke 2:40). Jesus grew in mind, intellect, understanding, strength and character. He showed extraordinary understanding and was wise to flee from every evil influence and temptation. He was wise, pure and a great example for all children, being subject to his parents, and increasing in favour with God and man.
3. Be full of a desire to fill God’s house. “Go out into the highways and hedges & compel them to come so that my house may be filled”. (Luke 14:23). Compel= Urge them to overcome their excuses. Do we strongly desire God’s house to be filled and do all we can to fill it?
4. Holy Ghost “Were all filled with the Holy Ghost” (Acts 2:4), means to be entirely under His sacred influence and power. See the command in Ephesians 5:18. Acts 3:10; 5:17; 13:45,52.
5. “Ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine” (Acts 5:28). This was an honourable tribute to the zeal and faithfulness of the apostles. Do this by door-to-door soul winning, follow-up & disciple making. If we are not full of true doctrine, we won’t fill others with true doctrine.
6. Joy: “Disciples were filled with joy.” Acts 13:52. (II Timothy 1:4).
7. Goodness and knowledge: “Full of goodness... filled with all knowledge”. (Romans 15:14)
8. Comfort: “Filled with comfort.” (II Corinthians 7:4).
9. “Filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ.” Philippians 1:11.
10. Praise: “Let my mouth be filled with thy praise”. (Psalm 71:8).

If we are not filled with these things, then bad things may fill us, such as:

1. His own ways: “The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways.” (Proverbs 14:14).
2. Wrath: Filled with wrath. (Luke 4:28).
3. Fear: Filled with fear. (Luke 5:26).
4. Madness: Filled with madness. (Luke 6:11).
5. Sorrow: “Sorrow hath filled your heart.” (John 16:6).
6. Satan: “Satan hath filled your heart to lie to the Holy Ghost.” (Acts 5:3).
7. Envy: Filled with envy. (Acts 13:45).
8. Unrighteousness: Filled with all unrighteousness. (Romans 1:29).

258. The Greatest Statement Ever Made: John 3:16

1. God – The Greatest Lover.
2. So loved – The Greatest Degree. I John 4:19-21; I Peter 1:8.
3. The world – The Greatest Company. I John 2:2; 4:14. See definition of "world" p.649.
4. That He gave – The Greatest Act. John 4:10; Romans 6:23; II Cor. 9:15.
5. His only begotten Son – The Greatest Gift. John 1:14,18; 3:16,18; I John 4:9.
6. That whosoever – The Greatest Opportunity. See p. 905, 654.
7. Believeth – The Greatest Simplicity. See p. 455.
8. In Him – The Greatest Attraction.
9. Should not perish – The Greatest Promise. John 10:28; II Peter 3:9.
10. But – The Greatest Difference.
11. Have – The Greatest Certainty. See p. 906.
12. Everlasting life – The Greatest Possession.

259. BENEFITS OF HOME SCHOOLING. Why do state school teens rebel?

Bible Reading: “Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child:...” Proverbs 22:15.; 1 Kings 12:1-20.

“Cease, my son, to hear the instruction that causeth to err from the words of knowledge.” Proverb 19:27

“Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.” Prov. 22:6.

“He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.” Prov 13:20

“Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.” Psalm 1:1.

Aim: To understand the dangers that government schools present to our children. To protect our children from the many evils of government schools by homeschooling them with a quality curriculum.

Introduction: One of our most valuable possessions is our children. The devil wants to destroy our children so they will be of no use to God’s kingdom. We must not let the devil educate our children by sending them to a school that teaches the devil’s philosophies. State schools do not train children in the way they should go. Many believe that state schools are the greatest cause of wickedness in society.

Jesus Christ was home schooled, as was Abraham Lincoln, Thomas Edison and Queen Elizabeth II.

There are many excellent resources available to help homeschoolers achieve a quality education, such as textbooks, good websites, and Accelerated Christian Education (ACE) curriculum.

Question: What errors and dangers exist in government schools?

Answer: Teen pregnancy, Immodest clothing, Profane language, Few moral values, Nicotine addiction, Alcohol addiction, Drug addiction, Promiscuous sex, Physical violence, Emotional and mental problems, Rock music addiction, Anti-God and anti-authority behaviour, False religions adopted from peers, Abortion’s effect of guilt and depression, Youth suicide, Low self-esteem from peer ridicule, bullying, Homosexuality, Aggressive behaviour, Evolution.

Question: How can we protect our children from these evils?

Answer: By withdrawing them from government schools and homeschooling them using a quality Christian curriculum.

Question: What are the benefits of homeschooling?

Answer: Let us consider them under two headings.

I. Positive Reasons for Home Schooling

1. One-on-one tutoring is the most effective method of teaching. A government school teacher cannot do as good a job with 25 students, as parents with a good homeschool curriculum can do with their own children.
2. Homeschoolers are not held back by slower students, nor dragged forward prematurely by brighter students.
 - a) He can learn a wider range of subjects that a government school would not offer if the class was too small.
 - b) If a government school teacher waits for the slower students, then better students are unchallenged and bored. If a government school teacher adapts the class for the brighter students, then the slower and average students often fall behind and give up. In Maths, if the child misses the basic foundational concepts, he finds it difficult or impossible to grasp later concepts. Hence the class teacher must teach at the average level, which bores the bright, and leaves the slow student behind.
3. Home Schooling allows Bible truths to be taught all through the curriculum. Those who write government school subjects and philosophies, generally strongly oppose Bible Christianity.

Examples:

 - a) History curriculum ignores the beneficial effects of Christianity and focuses only on negative events in church history. History should start with creation and Jesus Christ, not Napoleon.
 - b) State schools ignore the Christian influence behind the founding of USA, Britain and Australia.
 - c) Homosexuality is presented as an acceptable lifestyle, rather than as a sinful and destructive lifestyle from which one can be delivered.
 - d) Sex education is social engineering to spread promiscuity. Biblical sexual values are not taught, so students can make “their own decisions”. This produces a generation of children with no moral guidance. Parents of government school children must accept this harmful indoctrination, or spend much time deprogramming their children. This conflict between parents’ and school values produces confused children, with no moral compass to guide them. The Home Schooling curriculum is taught from a Bible World view, where Parents' Christian values are taught and reinforced, and no deprogramming is necessary.

4. Home Schooling is God's plan for our children. Nowhere in Scripture does God tell us to give our children's education to government teachers with false doctrines. Proverbs 19:27 forbids this.
5. Home Schooling strengthens the family and hence society. Sharing education draws the family closer together, than sending children away to be educated by strangers with unbiblical values.

II. Home Schooling Avoids Many Negatives

1. Government schooling is sin because it violates Psalm 1:1 "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful"
 - a) Government schools are not godly institutions, but are ungodly. If you send your children to be counselled by ungodly teachers & students, you are putting a curse on your children & yourself.
 - b) The design of government schools is to oppose the things of God. Under the guise of "religious freedom", government schools have been turned to be hostile to Christianity. School textbooks are hostile to Bible truths.
2. Avoiding government schools avoids physical danger. Children are assaulted and bullied daily in government schools. It is foolish to place your children in dangerous situations. As well as violent physical assaults, children are emotionally assaulted by cruelty from fellow students. Some children mercilessly taunt other children because they wear glasses, or wear unpopular clothing, or come from a poor family, or are in some way "different".
3. Socialization in government and Christian Schools is virtually all negative. "Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child" Proverbs 22:15. By having children as the main source of socialization for a child is to make him a "companion of fools". "A companion of fools shall be destroyed." Prov 13:20.
4. Christian schools are often very expensive, and are only slightly better than government schools, because their main source of socialization is still other children with many foolish ideas.
5. Don't endanger your children's spiritual health by exposing them to false, unbiblical views in science, health and history, that you will have to deprogramme later. Endangering them is irresponsible and sinful. Don't force them to hear teachers and students ridiculing, challenging and contradicting Bible truths such as creation in 6 days 6000 years ago, that you are teaching them.

Socialization

Definition: Educate to conform to society. To place under group or government control.

Question: Should we socialize our children in a government school?

Answer: Nowhere in Scripture are parents told to give control of their children to the government or to any other group. Separated from adult influence, children are more easily moulded into whatever thinking the government desires. When raised properly (away from bad influences), most children grow up fairly friendly, co-operative and sociable. School is an unnatural, artificial environment. When not raised properly (or under bad influences), most children become unfriendly, unco-operative, and unsociable. It is right to reverse this pattern.

Key: If a large number of children are together, children usually follow the bad examples rather than the good examples. Government schools spend much time trying to help students resist peer pressure. Peer pressure is the socialization of government schools.

Key: Constant exposure to the immaturities and abuses of other children, brings harmful conformity, not individuality. Children being pressured into using tobacco, alcohol, drugs, promiscuity, bad language, immodest clothing and piercing body parts, does not help family, church or country. Socialization must not be destructive to mind, body, spirit or property.

Question 1: What is 'Positive Socialization'?

Are the following values more likely to be instilled by a state school or by a home school?

- a) Learning how to get along well with people of diverse backgrounds in diverse situations. The artificial age-segregated state school classroom does not allow this, being confined to children of the same age. Home school children interact with people of all ages and backgrounds in all situations of life, under mature adult supervision. Home school wins.

b) Learning how to treat people with respect. Peer groups in a state school fail here. Peers call slower children “retarded”. Those with acne are viciously ridiculed, smart children are ridiculed for being smart, children from poor families are ridiculed for not wearing the popular clothes, some children are beaten up for no reason. State schools fail to teach children to treat others with respect. Key: When children are the main source of socialization, then childish values will be transmitted. Mature adults are necessary to teach children proper values.

Key: A State School teacher in a class of 25 children cannot overcome and counteract all the negative behaviour of the students. In home schooling, the parent can carefully reinforce the good in a child and correct the bad. This is not the case for a State School child.

c) Learning to conform to good standards of behaviour.

Question: What behaviour do children learn from other children: good or bad? Does the good child or badly-behaved child more greatly influence the crowd?

Answer: Crowds tend to follow the lowest examples. This is why so many churches see their youth rebel and leave church as they “progress” through their teens. The positive training received in the home and church during their formative years gets worn away by constant exposure to the negative behaviour of State School classmates. “Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child.” (Proverbs 22:15). So when a child gets his main interaction from other children, he grows up as a companion of fools. Sending a child to state school puts you in a tug of war for him with his peers.

Key: Those who get their main interaction from fools grow up to be fools. “A companion of fools shall be destroyed”. (Proverbs 13:20).

Question: Parents, by sending your child to a State School, if he becomes a companion of fools, he will be destroyed, and God will hold you accountable.

Question: How can a State School destroy your child? By:

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1) Teen pregnancy | 18) Evolution, no accountability. |
| 2) Immodest clothing | 19) Atheism. |
| 3) Profane language | 20) Socialism or Communism. |
| 4) Few or no moral values | 21) Pornography addiction. |
| 5) Nicotine addiction | 22) Reckless driving to impress mates. |
| 6) Alcohol addiction | 23) Satanism, Occult, Harry Potter. |
| 7) Drug addiction | 24) Sexually explicit English novels. |
| 8) Promiscuous sex. | 25) Tolerating all false opinions. |
| 9) Physical violence and Bullying. | 26) Ridiculing the Bible and Creation. |
| 10) Emotional and mental problems | 27) No Bible teaching. |
| 11) Rock music addiction | 28) No absolute right or wrong. |
| 12) Anti-God and anti-authority behaviour | 29) Wild parties, Discos. |
| 13) False religions adopted from peers | 30) Introduction to the Pub scene. |
| 14) Abortion’s effect of guilt and depression | |
| 15) Youth suicide | |
| 16) Low self-esteem from peer ridicule | |
| 17) Homosexuality | |

Question 2: What is “Negative Socialization”?

Are the following wrong values more likely to be instilled by a State School or by home school?

a) Developing Peer Dependence. We all naturally want the approval of those around us. Children in a State School look to other children around them for their main source of approval.

Key: In order to gain approval of the group, children need to conform to the behaviour and thinking of that group. Thus, State School children will grow up dependent on their peers for approval. Telling them to “resist peer pressure” is too late after they are already locked in to peer group dependence. Old habits are hard to change. In home education, the main source of approval is the family, where family values and behaviour are transmitted as dictated by the parents. Home education, thus, protects children from negative peer dependence.

b) Drug abuse, Alcohol abuse, Tobacco abuse, Profanity, Promiscuous sex, Anti-social behaviour.

The standards of the group become the standards of the individuals in the group, or they risk rejection and ridicule. If a child is constantly in a place exhibiting these behaviours, the child is likely to participate in them, or at least view them as acceptable.

If “nice children” hear bad language enough, they become accustomed to it, then they become accepting of it, and then they start using it. In a home where these behaviours are not accepted or exhibited, the children are much less likely to accept or exhibit them. Home school wins again.

- c) Cliques. There is nothing wrong with having a close group of friends, but it is wrong when the group attitude is, “If you are not one of us, you are a nobody.” State Schools are a fertile breeding ground for cliques that reject others. Home education is a far superior way of developing mature, respectful, responsible, law-abiding adults. Government schools provide almost no positive value to the socialization of children. What little it does provide, is more than outweighed by the negatives that come with it. What about some teens who go to a government school and come out as fine young adults? This is in spite of government school socialization, not because of it. It is often due to the powerful counteracting, deprogramming influence of a Christian home or a good church.

Objections to Home Schooling.

Objection 1: Your children will be sheltered.

Answer: Children are supposed to be sheltered from things like gang violence, drugs, bullies, ungodly philosophies and immoral sex education. This is the whole purpose behind parenting. Children are not ready to be exposed to these things and shouldn't be.

Example 1: We don't ridicule a florist for keeping a young tender plant in a greenhouse to protect it from things it cannot handle. Why should parents be ridiculed for sheltering young, tender children from things they can't handle?

Example 2: If a toddler tries to put his hand on a hot stove, we stop him. This is not “sheltering”. It is “protecting” your child. When children are protected from the negative influences in government schools, they will grow up more emotionally healthy, and more firmly established in their parent's values. If children are immersed in positive values, they will be more able to recognise negative values later. Many adults with mental disturbances are due to school rejection, ridicule and abuse.

Objection 2: Your children will not know how to deal with the real world.

Answer: Age segregation is not the real world. In the “real world”, people who can excel are not held back until the slower people catch up, which is how government schools operate.

Objection 3: Your children will become too dependent on you.

Answer: Too many children are disrespectful of parents and all authority. Close knit families, submission to authority and consideration for others are necessary for a strong, stable society. It's better for children to depend on their parents a bit more, than to rebel against their parents wishes.

Objection 4: Your child will not have any friends.

Answer: In homeschooling, it is the parents who choose and monitor their children's friends. Many homeschoolers make many friends at church, Christian camps, clubs and with local Christian children. In government schools, parents never know all the wrong friends that may be influencing their children for evil. It is better to have a few quality friends than to have many bad, ungodly or questionable friends.

Objection 5: Your children will be socially younger than their government school peers.

Answer: Homeschooled children will not be forced to act more mature or independent than they really are to protect themselves from being mocked. They should be allowed to enjoy their childhood by not exposing them to things that rob them of their youth & innocence. They will gain independence after they have developed the moral and emotional maturity to handle it. Home schoolers tend to be more respectful, more self confident, more mature & more capable than government school children. Homeschoolers tend to be more accepting of people of different backgrounds since they don't need to deal with peer pressure to conform to their peer group's beliefs.

Objection 6: Parents are not qualified to teach all subjects.

Answer: Those who wrote the homeschooling curriculum are highly qualified. It is self explanatory.

260. The GOSPEL in the STARS

Bible Reading: Psalm 19:1-6.

Aim: To show how God recorded the plan of salvation in the 12 signs of the Zodiac.

To show that reading horoscopes is an abuse of the true message of the Zodiac.

Introduction: There are strong reasons to believe that the star groups and their symbols were originally designed and used to convey God's plan of salvation to people of all places and at all times.

God states that one purpose of the heavenly bodies was to be "for signs and seasons". (Genesis 1:14).

In Psalm 19:1-6 we have the revelation of God written in the heavens.

In Psalm 19:7-14 we have the revelation of God written in His Word.

PROOF OF THE GOSPEL IN THE STARS

From 4000 BC to 1500 BC the world was without a written revelation from God.

Question 1: Did God leave Himself without a witness? No.

Question 2: How was God known? In Romans 10:18 Paul answers the sceptics objection that "Gentiles have not heard the gospel" by quoting Psalm 19:4 that Gentiles have heard the Gospel message in the Zodiac Signs in the stars. "But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world". So the Gentiles are without excuse (Romans 1:19,20).

Question 3: What is the Zodiac?

Definition: The Zodiac consists of 12 groups of stars called constellations or signs or hosts, each 30 degrees wide, which form the background for the motions of the sun, moon and planets (except pluto). The ancients knew that, if the stars could be seen in the daytime, the sun would appear to move through a series of constellations, entering a new sign or constellation each month. These constellations make up the Zodiac. The constellations inside the Zodiac do not now correspond to those named by the ancients, because precession of the earth's axis has tilted the earth in a different direction. As the Sun makes the annual circuit through the 12 houses of the heavens, so this journey depicts Christ's journey from being born of a virgin, redeeming mankind, and returning in glory to destroy Satan and to rule the earth.

Question 4: What is the content of the Zodiac message?

Answer: Book 1: The Redeemer = Christ's First Coming (Virgo, Libra, Scorpio, Sagittarius).

"The Sufferings of Christ".

Book 2: The Redeemed = Results of Christ's Sufferings (Capricorn, Aquarius, Pisces, Aries).

Book 3: The Redeemer = Christ's Second Coming. (Taurus, Gemini, Cancer, Leo).

"The glory that should follow." (1 Peter 1:11).

Question 5: What is the meaning of the Zodiac signs?

Their meaning: These pictures preserved and taught the great promise and prophecy of Genesis 3:15, that all hope for man and creation was in a coming Redeemer who would

- be born of a virgin;
- first suffer and later triumph;
- first be wounded by Satan, but later crush the head of Satan.

These ancient star pictures set forth "the sufferings of Christ & the glory that should follow." 1 Peter 1:11

There are 48 signs, made up of 12 signs of the Zodiac and 36 constellations. (Each of the 12 signs contain 3 constellations). These 12 signs are contained in 3 Books, each with 4 signs.

Question 6: Where does Mazzaroth (Zodiac) begin? (Job 38:32). "Canst thou bring forth Mazzaroth?"

Answer: It starts at Virgo because:

a) The Bible narrative shows VIRGO as the start and LEO as the end.

Genesis 3:15 starts with the woman bearing a Son who would crush the serpent's head. (This is Leo crushing Hydra, the crooked serpent, sign 12 as in Revelation 5:5).

b) "Bring forth Mazzaroth in his season" is identical to "guiding Arcturus". The star Arcturus is one of the brightest and is next to Virgo in one of her decans (constellations). Arcturus guides/leads the Signs.

c) The Sphinx is found on some ancient Zodiacs. The Sphinx shows the VIRGO woman's head as the start, and LEO (lion's body) as the end.

d) It fits the Biblical narrative of the redemption story starting with the Virgin bearing a son, and ending with the Son, the Lion of the tribe of Judah (Christ) destroying the great fleeing serpent Hydra.

e) The ancient Zodiacs of Egypt, India, Greece, Israel and China exhibit the same 12 major signs and 36 decan signs.

Note. God forbids astrology, the use of the Zodiac signs to predict one's future (Deuteronomy 4:19; Isaiah 47:11-14; 2 Kings 23:5; Acts 7:42,43; Zephaniah 1:5), because:

i) our future is determined by our moral decisions, not by stars.

ii) God judged ancient Israel for "worshipping the host of heaven" which was worshipping demons or fallen angels. (Isaiah 14:12-15; 2 Kings 21:3-6; Deuteronomy 32:16,17; Revelation 9:20).

Question 7: Where does the Bible teach that the Gospel in the Zodiac constellation signs is a valid revelation from God?

Answer: Romans 10:18; Psalm 19:1-6; Job 26:13; Genesis 1:14. The stars give information from God

I. Romans 10:18. Paul endorses the Gospel in the stars as a valid revelation from God in Romans 10:18 by quoting Psalm 19:4: "But I say, Have they not heard? Yes, verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the end of the world."

II. Psalm 19:1-6. "The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament showeth his handiwork" v.1. (These show God's power, greatness, glory, wisdom and intelligence).

"Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night showeth knowledge." (v.2).

Question 8: How does every night show knowledge?

Answer: By the message contained in the Zodiac signs about Christ's birth, work and return.

"There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard." (v.3).

Question 9: How can a voice convey its message without language, or to all languages?

Answer: By pictures depicting a message. These Zodiac signs are understandable in all languages.

"Their line (voice, sound) is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world."

In them (space) hath he set a tabernacle (house) for the sun." (v.4).

Hence: a) They show knowledge (v.2). b) It is understood by people of all languages (v.3).

c) It shows Christ as the heavenly bridegroom (v.5) and a strong man running a race to finish His plans. It shows Christ's work of redemption as a circuit (Zodiac) from one end of heaven to the other. (v.6).

Question 10: What is the tabernacle or house that the sun moves through?

Answer: It is the 12 houses or signs of the Zodiac that the sun spends one month in each sign or sector. The 12 signs of the Zodiac are the 12 houses the sun moves through each year.

"Which (the sun moving through the Tabernacle of 12 houses) is as a bridegroom (Christ is the heavenly bridegroom [Revelation 19:7] whose wife will be the Church) coming out of his chamber (heaven), and rejoices as a strong man (Christ is the all powerful God/man) to run a race (the race of redemption, from Virgo to Leo, to secure full and final salvation of mankind and creation)". (v 5).

"His (the sun's) going forth is from the end of heaven, (as the sun appears to move through the 12 Zodiac signs) and his circuit (yearly course around the 12 Zodiac signs, see Hebrew words 8622, 5362) unto the ends of it (heaven); and there is nothing hid from the heat of it". (Psalm 19:1-6).

III. Job 26:13. Job states that "God's Spirit garnished the heavens, and his hand hath formed the crooked serpent." (Job 26:13). Hydra, the largest constellation, stretches below Cancer, Leo and Virgo. As Hydra validly depicts Satan as the crooked serpent, so do the other constellations teach a valid message, as confirmed by the written Word of God.

IV. Genesis 1:14. "And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and for years."

These signs are the 12 signs of the zodiac telling us of the plan of redemption by Jesus Christ.

Ancient farmers planted & harvested their crops in season according to stars appearing at different times

V. Psalm 147:4; Isaiah 40:26. The Bible states that God has numbered and named the stars.

"He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names." Psalm 147:4.

"Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these things, that bringeth out their host by number: he calleth them all by names..." Isaiah 40:26.

The figures are arbitrary and there is nothing in the groups of stars to suggest the figures. These pictures were designed to preserve, teach and perpetuate the first great promise of God given to man in Genesis 3:15 that hope for all mankind of being delivered from sin and suffering was bound up in a coming Redeemer; One who would be born of a woman; One who would first suffer, and afterwards gloriously triumph, One who would first be wounded by Satan, who was the cause of all sin, sorrow and death, but who would finally crush the head of “that old Serpent the Devil”.

These ancient star pictures reveal this coming Redeemer.

They set forth “the sufferings of Christ and the glory that should follow”. (1 Peter 1:11).

The 12 signs of the Zodiac contain: a) 3 great books, each containing 4 chapters,

b) 48 constellations, 4 in each of the 12 signs of the Zodiac.

II. ZODIAC and CONSTELLATIONS IN THE BIBLE

1. Pleiades (known as the seven stars in Amos 5:8) are in Taurus.

“Canst thou bind the sweet influences of Pleiades?” (Job 38:31; 9:9).

2. Orion is in Taurus, “or loose the bands of Orion”. (Job 38:31; 9:9; Amos 5:8).

3. Arcturus is in Cancer in Ursa Major. “Canst thou guide Arcturus with his sons?” (Job 38:32; 9:9). Polaris (the Polestar) is in Ursa Minor. Arcturus’ sons are the stars in the tail of Ursa Major, being:

a) Alioth (meaning ‘she goat’);

b) Mizar (meaning ‘small’);

c) Al Cor (meaning ‘the lamb’);

d) Al Kaid (meaning ‘the assembled’).

4. Chambers of the South (Job 9:9) are opposite in the Zodiac to Taurus, which would be Scorpio.

5. Hydra in Leo is the “crooked serpent”. “By his Spirit he hath garnished the heavens; his hand hath formed the crooked serpent” Job 26:13. This shows the gospel message in the stars is ordained by God

6. Mazzaroth (Job 38:32) is the 12 signs of the Zodiac (Gesenius, Hebrew Lexicon, p 462, 4216).

“Mazzaloth” (Aramaic and later Hebrew) means “girdling stars”, the Zodiacal circle. “Canst thou bring forth Mazzaroth (4216) in his season?” (Job 28:32). “Season” means “separated, divided” as the spaces given to the 12 Zodiac signs mark the successive seasons in the year.

1) Thus the constellations were known in Job’s time, and well understood by believers of that age.

2) This grouping of the stars in pictures is shown to be the work of God by His Spirit: “By His Spirit He garnished (or decorated) the heavens; His hand hath formed the crooked serpent.” (Job 26:13).

God forming the crooked serpent (Hydra) is an example of that sacred garnishing, that we may know from a specific part what is true of the whole Zodiac. That work is ascribed to the Spirit of God.

Question 11: How else may we confirm the 12 Zodiac signs validly teach the Gospel in the Stars?

Answer:

1. The Ancient nations of China, Babylon and Egypt show that the 12 Zodiac signs have the same order and meanings. These date from before 2000 BC.

2. The 12 sons of Jacob were later identified with the 12 Zodiac signs (Genesis 37:8-10).

Joseph dreamed of the sun, moon and 11 stars bowing down to him, he himself being the 12th star. Details in the blessing of Jacob (Genesis 49) and in the blessing of Moses (Deuteronomy 33) witness to knowledge of the 12 signs’ existence in 1500 BC.

a) Deuteronomy 33:17 depicts Ephraim and Manasseh (Joseph’s 2 sons) as a BULL (Taurus).

b) Genesis 49:3,4 depict Reuben as unstable as water, just as a MAN pouring water (Aquarius).

c) Genesis 49:8-10 depict Judah as an old LION (Leo).

d) Genesis 49:17 depict Dan as a serpent or adder, reminding us of Scorpio’s sting.

3. The 12 Tribes of Israel each bore one sign on its standard. “Every man of the children of Israel shall pitch by his own standard, with the ensign of their father’s house.” (Numbers 2:2).

Ancient Jewish authorities declare that each tribe had one of the signs as its own. It is likely that 4 tribes carried its sign at the 4 sides of the camp. If the Lion was allocated to Judah, then the 4 standards would equally divide the Zodiac at its 4 points, and divide the camp at its 4 sides. According to “OT Bible History” Alfred Edersheim Book 2, p.151 and to Numbers 2:1-34, especially v.3,10,18,25, the camp of Israel was pitched as follows:

'Dan shall be a serpent
by the way, an adder....
(Genesis 49:17).

4. The 4 faces of CHERUBIM correspond to the 4 main Zodiac signs (the Lion, the Bull, the Man, the Eagle/Scorpion). "They four had the face of a man, and the face of a lion, on the right side; and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; and they four also had the face of an eagle." (Ezekiel 1:10; 10:14). Notice that the lion and ox had the same positions as in the camp of Israel. "And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calves, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a living eagle." (Revelation 4:7). The eagle, the scorpion's enemy, replaces the scorpion. One constellation of Capricorn is Aquilla, the eagle.
5. The 4 New Testament Gospels' descriptions of Christ correspond to the 4 main Zodiac signs:
 - a) Matthew shows Christ as King (the Lion). (Matthew 2:2; 21:5; 27:11,37).
 - b) Mark shows Christ as a Servant. (the Bull, Ox). (Mark 9:35; 10:44,45; 12:2).
 - c) Luke shows Christ as the perfect Man. (Aquarius, a man pouring water). Luke 19:10; 15:2; Jn 4:10-15.
 - d) John shows Christ as God. (The Eagle flying high in the heaven). (John 3:13).
6. Christ is introduced 4 times in the OT by the word "behold": Behold the King (Zechariah 9:9), Behold my servant (Isaiah 42:1), Behold the man (Zechariah 6:12), Behold your God (Isaiah 40:9)
What then is the true message of the Zodiac symbols?

1. The Gospel in the stars may be summarized as follows:

BOOK 1: The PERSON of the REDEEMER

1. VIRGO (The Virgin). From a young virgin will be born the Saviour of the World. Genesis 3:15. "Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel." Isaiah 7:14 and Matthew 1:23, Isaiah 9:6,7. That Virgo represents the coming of the Promised seed of the woman is seen by the names of stars and constellations in Virgo.

Coma constellation (The woman and child) = This coming Branch will be a child who will be the "Desire of all nations". "The desire of all nations shall come". Haggai 2:7.

Coma in Hebrew means "Desired or longed for".

2. LIBRA (The Scales) = Christ's Payment for our Sins.

The price of man's sins have been paid by Christ's sacrifice. Libra is a pair of scales with one end up and the other end down, in the act of weighing. Since man is a sinner and under judgment, an adequate price must be paid to redeem him and balance the scales of God's justice. By Christ paying for our sins on the cross, God's justice in requiring that our sin be punished, has now been satisfied.

That Libra represents Christ paying for our sins can be seen by the names of the main stars in Libra:

a) Zuben Al Genubi, means in Arabic. "The price which is deficient". This points to the price that man would attempt to pay for his own redemption by his works. All mankind are like Belshazzar, being weighed in the balances and found wanting. (Daniel 5:27).

b) Zuben Al Chemali, means "The Price which covers", which is the blood of Christ. The atoning sacrifice of Christ is sufficient to pay the penalty for man's sin and to purchase our redemption.

c) Zuben Akrabi, meaning in Arabic "The Price of the Conflict". The payment of the price of man's redemption at Calvary involved a conflict.

d) CruX (The Southern Cross). 4 bright stars form a cross. The southern cross was last visible in the latitude of Jerusalem about the time Christ died on the cross.

It's ancient name in Hebrew was "Adom", meaning "cut off". This word is used in Daniel 9:26 to describe the Messiah's death before Jerusalem's destruction in 70AD. "shall Messiah be cut off."

e) Corona (The crown bestowed). This pictures the crown of glory adorning Christ's head now that His sufferings for our sins are over. The cross is followed by the crown. "The son of man, having on his head a golden crown." (Revelation 14:14). This is at Christ's second coming.

3. SCORPIO (The Scorpion). Christ's Mortal Conflict.

The scorpion is seeking to wound Christ, but is itself trodden underfoot. The sign of Scorpio depicts a huge scorpion trying to sting the heel of a mighty man (Christ) Who is wrestling a great snake (Serpens). At the same time the scorpion is being crushed by the other foot of the mighty man.

The coming Redeemer would bruise the serpent's head while He Himself is bruised in the heel.

(Genesis 3:15). Virgo shows Christ as the promised seed of the Virgin. Libra shows the price Christ would pay to secure man's redemption. Scorpio shows the conflict Christ would have to endure.

Scorpio represents Christ's mortal conflict with Satan is seen by the names of some stars in Scorpio:

a) Serpens constellation (The serpent struggling with Christ for the crown).

b) Ophiuchus constellation (The mighty man defeating the serpent and treading him underfoot).

c) Unuk, the brightest star in Serpens means "encompassing". "Dogs have compassed me: the assembly of the wicked have enclosed me". Psalm 22:16.

d) Cheleb, in the head of the serpent, means "The Serpent Enfolding".

e) Ras El Hagus, in the head of the man, means "The head of him who holds".

f) Hercules constellation shows a mighty vanquisher kneeling on one knee, seeming to sink in the conflict, but holding aloft the tokens of victory, with his foot on the dragon's head.

4. SAGITTARIUS (The Archer). Christ's Victory over Satan.

The Archer is a Centaur having the body and legs of a horse, with the body, head and arms of a man. His bow is drawn to the full. The arrow, ready to fly, is aimed at the heart of Scorpio, the enemy, marked by the bright red star Antares.

This 2 natured Centaur depicts Christ as the God-man triumphing: "O most mighty... Thine arrows are sharp in the heart of the King's enemies". (Psalm 45:3-5). That Sagittarius depicts Christ's victory over Satan is witnessed by the names of some of the stars in Sagittarius.

a) Lyra constellation pictures a lyre or harp, an instrument of praise prepared for Christ the Conqueror. "Praise waiteth for thee, O God, in Zion." (Psalm 65:1; 33:2). When the wait is over, Christ will come forth, then the praise shall be given, as in Revelation 11:17 and 19:7.

"When thou shalt make ready thine arrows upon thy strings..Be thou exalted, LORD, in thine own strength: so will we sing and praise thy power." (Psalm 21:12,13). The harp follows the victorious horseman archer.

b) Vega is the bright star in Lyra meaning "He shall be exalted". (Revelation 5:9,13).

In Lyra, the harp shows the joy and gladness at the Archer's victory.

c) Ara constellation is an upside down altar, depicting the fires of judgment on the archer's enemies. (i.e. the Lake of Fire). The Greeks used Ara as a curse. Jesus will one day say to some, "depart from me ye cursed into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels". (Matthew 25:41).

The consuming fire of Ara follows the triumphant praise seen in Lyra. "Thou shalt make them as a fiery oven in the time of thine anger: The LORD shall swallow them up in his wrath, and the fire shall devour them". Psalm 21:9.

d) Draco constellation is the Dragon, the Old Serpent, the Devil cast down from Heaven (Rev. 12:9,10). Isaiah describes God destroying Satan: “in that day, the LORD with his sore, great and strong sword shall punish leviathan the piercing serpent, even leviathan that crooked serpent; and he shall slay the dragon that is in the sea.” (Isaiah 27:1). Stars in the head of Draco are Rastaban (the head of the subtle) and Ethanin (The Long Serpent).

Conclusion: Each of the 3 Books or Acts ends with similar theme:

Book one ends with Draco, the Dragon being cast out.

Book two ends with Cetus, the Sea monster being bound.

Book three ends with Hydra, the Old Serpent being destroyed.

BOOK 2: The RESULTS of Christ’s Redeeming Work.

5. CAPRICORN (The Sea Goat) = A goat with the tail of a fish. The goat is dying with a bowed head and folded leg, while the fish tail is living and vigorous. The Blessing of life from death.

Meaning: The goat was a sacrificial animal used in the sin offering (Leviticus 9:1-3) on the Day of Atonement (Leviticus 16:1-34).

Capricorn, the dying goat, speaks of Christ dying on the cross for sinful man. From the dying goat comes a living fish typifying the many redeemed who have been given life as a result of Christ’s sacrifice. (Matthew 4:19). The fish symbolizes that the believer in Christ is a new creation (2 Cor. 5:17) Hence Capricorn represents new life resulting from the sacrificial death of Christ.

6. AQUARIUS (The Water pourer) = Jesus Christ pours living water to his redeemed people.

“Whosoever shall drink of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst.” (John 4:46).

Jesus Christ pours out the water of life in blessing His people the Church (“If any man thirst, let him come unto Me and drink” John 7:37), and on Israel in the Millennium (“He shall pour the water out of His buckets.” Numbers 24:7). Moses struck the rock, water gushed out giving life, refreshment and blessing to Israel in the wilderness. So Aquarius teaches the blessing of salvation’s fullness.

7. PISCES (2 fish bound at the tails by a cord, attached in the middle to the neck of Cetus, the Sea Monster). The Delay of the promised blessing.

Meaning: Fish in the gospels represent people who are caught in the gospel net for the Kingdom of God. (“Follow me and I will make you fishers of men.” Matthew 4:19; 13:47). God’s people consist of 2 groups, saved Israelites and saved Gentiles (the Church), both of which are still bound to live in a sinful world until Christ returns, where the full blessings of salvation will be revealed and our bondage to sin will be broken (Romans 8:18-23). “We ourselves groan within ourselves...waiting for the redemption of our body.” (v.23). Pisces shows that the full blessings of salvation are delayed until Christ returns.

8. ARIES (The Lamb) represents Jesus Christ as the Lamb of God who by the sacrifice of Himself takes away the sin of the world, but now reigns as King of Kings. John the Baptist said of Jesus, “Behold the Lamb of God, which takes away the sin of the world” (John 1:29). This lamb is a sacrificial lamb who was bound, bruised and slain as witnessed by the names of some of the stars in Aries.

a) Elnath, the brightest star means “The wounded or slain”.

b) Sheretan means “The Bruised”.

c) Mesartim means “The Bound”.

When the Israelites in Egypt were ordered to slay a lamb and sprinkle its blood on the doorposts and lintels of their houses, the sun entered Aries on this very day, the fourteenth day of the Jewish month Nisan. At the time of Christ’s crucifixion, the fourteenth day of Nisan, the sun stood in the head of Aries near the stars Elnath (the wounded) and Sheretan (the bruised).

False astrology begins with Aries because its modern structure was developed in classical times when the sun was in Aries at the Spring equinox. This is a perversion of God’s intention of the signs, for they were to speak of Christ’s coming and work of salvation. The correct beginning is Virgo, not Aries.

In Isaiah 53, Christ is presented as the lamb led to the slaughter. In Isaiah 54:5-8, Christ is presented as Jehovah the Son, the husband of Israel, the restored wife of Jehovah. So in this sign, Aries the Lamb is followed by Cassiopeia, the bride. (Isaiah 54:5-8).

BOOK 3: REDEMPTION COMPLETE.

9. TAURUS (The Bull) represents Christ as the strong one, the Great Judge coming in power and glory to judge and rule the earth. Taurus is an enormous rushing bull of mighty energy and fierce wrath with long, sharp horns pointing forward and upward to push, pierce through and destroy his enemies. Balaam describes the power of God on behalf of Israel as “God brought them out of Egypt; he hath as it were the strength of an unicorn”. Numbers 23:22; 24:8.

When Moses blessed the tribes before his death, he said of the tribe of Joseph, “His glory is like the firstling of his bullock, and his horns are like the horns of unicorns: with them he shall push the people together to the ends of the earth”. (Deuteronomy 33:17). Job spoke of the unicorn, wild bull, or aurochs as having great strength, ferocious and untamable (Job 39:9-12), and of great speed (Psalm 29:6).

The unicorn or wild ox was much larger, stronger, faster and more ferocious than modern bulls. It was a prize hunted by Egyptian and Assyrian kings like Tiglath Pileser I (1115-1102 BC) in the Lebanon mountains. It became extinct in Europe around the 15th Century. That Taurus represents Christ coming to judge and rule the world is witnessed by the names of some of the stars in Taurus:

a) Aldebaran, the brightest star in the bull’s eye means “The Governor, Leader or Captain”.

b) Pleiades means “The Congregation of the Judge.”

c) Aelvone means “The Centre” showing that the central truth of all prophecy is that Christ is coming to rule the earth.

d) Betelgeuse, the brightest star in Orion, means “The Coming of the Branch”. See Jeremiah 23:5,6; 33:15,16; Zechariah 3:8; 6:12,13 which speak of Christ as the BRANCH coming to rule, judge and build the Millennial temple.

10. GEMINI (The Twins) represent Jesus Christ as the God/Man coming to rule the earth with His Bride the Church (Ephesians 5:25-33). We see the twin roles of Christ as follows.

a) His twofold work: suffering Saviour and Coming Prince of Glory.

b) His twofold nature: fully God and fully man.

c) His twofold comings: humiliation and future glory.

d) The heavenly Bridegroom with His Bride, the Church.

Gemini is represented by two human figures, a man and a woman walking united in fellowship, at rest and in peace after victory has been won. This clearly tells us how Christ and His bride the church will be united in peaceful fellowship during Christ’s 1000 year reign on earth. These twins are named after two bright stars, “Castor and Pollux” in Latin, and “Apollo and Hercules” in Greek.

(Paul was shipwrecked in a ship called “Castor and Pollux” in Acts 28:11).

a) Castor or Apollo means “Ruler or Judge”.

b) Pollux or Hercules means “He who comes to labour or suffer”.

Hence Gemini shows Christ coming in His twin roles of suffering Saviour and ruling King of Kings, as God and man, to rule with His Bride, the Church. “Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour..” (Acts 5:31).

11. CANCER (The Crab) means “Christ’s redeemed people held safe and secure”. Cancer comes from the Latin word “to hold or encircle”. As the crab holds tightly with its large claws, so this sign tells us of the time when Christ will return to gather, protect and shelter God’s people safely into “everlasting habitations.” (Luke 16:9). The Egyptian name for this sign (Klaria) means “Cattlefolds”. The Arab name (Alsartan) means “Who holds or binds”.

That Cancer represents Christ returning to “hold fast and secure His redeemed people” is witnessed by the names of some of the stars in Cancer:

a) Tegmine, the brightest star (in the tail), means “Holding”.

b) Acubine, in Hebrew, means “Sheltering or Hiding Place”.

c) Ma’alaph, in Arabic, means “Assembled thousands”.

d) Praesepe, the cluster in the middle, means “Multitude”.

Abraham looked for a heavenly city where the redeemed are held safely forever.

“He looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God”. (Hebrews 11:10).

e) The constellation Argo in the sign of Cancer, means “A company of travellers”. It pictures the safe arrival of God’s people back to the land of blessing, where the “redeemed of the Lord shall return and come with singing unto Zion". (Isaiah 35:10; 51:11). It is an immense star group. Argo was a legendary ship which carried Jason and his argonauts to search for the Golden Fleece, which they recovered from the great serpent who guarded it. Jason is the Greek equivalent of Joshua or Jesus.

f) Canopus, the leading star in Argo, means "The possession of Him who comes".

g) Soheil means "The desired", reminding us of Psalm 107:30 "So he bringeth them unto their desired haven". Isaiah 60:4,5,9 describe the return of Jews to their own land.

Hence, Cancer means "The redeemed held safe" and Argo means "Travellers safely home".

12. LEO (The Lion crushing the head of the serpent).

As the Lion is king of the beasts, so Jesus Christ as the "Lion of the tribe of Judah" (Revelation 5:5) will return as "King of Kings and Lord of Lords" (Rev. 19:16) to take over the earth and crush Satan's head by locking him in the pit for 1,000 years, then casting him into the Lake of Fire. As Cancer pictures the final rest and homecoming of the redeemed, so Leo shows the final end of the enemy.

Leo shows Christ coming as the exalted King to rule earth is witnessed by some stars names in Leo:

a) Regulus, the first magnitude star, means "Treading underfoot".

b) Denebola, the next brightest star, means "The Judge who comes".

c) Algiebha, (in the mane) means "The exaltation".

d) Zozma, in the hindquarter, means "Shining forth".

e) Minchar Al Asad (Arabic), the star in his head, means "The tearing of the Lion".

f) Aldafera (Arabic), means "The enemy put down".

All these names consistently bear witness of Christ who is the Lion of the Tribe of Judah, who is now exalted and will soon rise up for judgment.

Three constellations in the sign of Leo complete the gospel in the stars, which are:

a) Hydra, the old serpent destroyed (Rev. 12:9).

b) Crater, the cup of Divine wrath poured out upon him (Rev. 16).

c) Corvus, the bird of prey devouring him (Rev. 19:17-21). The Hebrew name for this sign is Arieh, which means "The lion hunting down his prey". The Lion's foot is over the head of Hydra the great serpent about to crush it. Jacob, on his death bed spoke of Judah as: "Judah is a lion's whelp: from the prey my son, thou art gone up..." (Genesis 49:8,9). Christ will destroy Satan, the old serpent, all his seed, and all his works. The Hydra constellation is immense and is beneath Cancer, Leo and Virgo.

Some stars in the Hydra constellation are:

a) Al Phard (Arabic) meaning "The separated, put away".

b) Al Drian, meaning "The abhorred".

c) Minchar al Sugia, meaning "The piercing of the deceiver".

The PERSON of the Redeemer.

1. Manhood Christ would assume. (Virgo = The virgin born Saviour).

2. The Price he would pay. (Libra = The Blood of Christ pays the penalty of our sin and balances the scales of God's justice).

3. The Battle He would fight. (Scorpio = The Scorpion seeking to wound, but itself crushed. Satan wounding Christ).

4. The Victory He would win. (Sagittarius (The Archer) = The victory of Christ over Satan). "Thine arrows are sharp in the heart of the King's enemies". (Psalm 45:5).

The conquering Archer goes on in his battle to completely overthrow Satan.

Notice the more complete picture given by the Decans (or constellations) in each of the 12 signs:

BOOK 1: Christ's First Coming: "The Sufferings of Christ".

1. Chapter 1: VIRGO: The Promised Seed of the Woman. (Genesis 3:15).

The Redeemer would be born of a virgin.

- i) Coma (The woman and child = the desired. Christ, the "Desire of all nations shall come." Haggai 2:7
- ii) Centaurus (The Centaur with two natures, spearing a victim) = the Despised Sufferer. Christ would suffer, "He is despised and rejected of men." (Isaiah 53:3).
- iii) Bootes (A man walking quickly with a spear in his right hand, and a sickle in his left) = The Coming One will judge the earth. "For he cometh to judge the earth". (Psalm 96:13).

2. Chapter 2: LIBRA (the Scales): Christ's Payment for our sins.

The price of mans' sins is paid by Christ's sacrifice.

- i) Crux (The Cross endured) = The Southern Cross. "It is finished." (John 19:30).
- ii) Victima (The Victim slain) = "Christ became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross" Phil 2:8
- iii) Corona (The Crown bestowed) = "Jesus..for the suffering of death crowned with glory and honour." (Hebrews 2:9).

3. Chapter 3: SCORPIO (The Scorpion): Christ's Conflict. (Psalm 91:13

The Scorpion seeking to wound Christ, but itself trodden underfoot. "Thou shalt tread upon the adder."

- i) Serpens (The serpent struggling with Christ for dominion).
- ii) Ophiuchus (The man grasping the serpent).
- iii) Hercules (The mighty vanquisher seeming to sink in the conflict, but holding aloft the tokens of victory, with his foot on the dragon's head). (Romans 16:20).

4. Chapter 4: SAGITTARIUS (The Archer): Christ's Triumph.

The two-natured conqueror triumphing.

"O most mighty ... thine arrows are sharp in the heart of the king's enemies." (Psalm 45:3-5).

- i) Lyra (The Harp) = Praise prepared for the Conqueror. "Praise waiteth for thee, O God, in Zion". (Psalm 65:1; 33:2).
- ii) Ara (The Altar) = Consuming fire prepared for His enemies. "Depart from me ye cursed into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels." (Matthew 25:41).
- iii) Draco (The Dragon) = The Old Serpent, the Devil cast down from heaven. (Revelation 12:7-10).

BOOK 2: The Redeemer's People: The Blessings of Salvation.

5. Chapter 1: CAPRICORN (The Fish-Goat, A dying Goat with a fish's tail). (Leviticus 10:16:17).

Christ's sacrificial death brings life to many.

- i) Sagitta (The Arrow of God's justice piercing the sin-bearer) "Thine arrows stick fast in me" Psa 38:2
- ii) Aquila (The pierced falling Eagle). Christ as a Dying Eagle. "I bare you on eagles" wings and brought you unto myself". (Exodus 19:4). "As an eagle...beareth them on her wings, so the LORD alone did lead them" (Deut.32:11,12). The faces of the cherubim were a man, lion, ox, eagle. Ezekiel:10.
- iii) Dolphinus (Dolphin springing out of the water). Christ rose from the dead. The dead Redeemer rising again, full of life, head up. In death Christ could say, "All thy waves and thy billows are gone over me". (Psalm 42:7). "He was raised again for our justification." (Romans 4:25).

6. Chapter 2: AQUARIUS (The water-pourer is Christ giving living water of eternal life and blessings of salvation to His redeemed people). Salvation's full blessings. "The water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life." (John 4:14).

- i) Piscis Australis (Open mouthed Fish that is drinking water from Aquarius, pictures His people receiving Christ's endless stream of blessings). "Whosoever shall drink of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst." (John 4:14).
- ii) Pegasus (The Winged Horse) is the bringer of Christ's salvation to a weary world (Zechariah 1:8-10) and Christ returning with power and great glory (Revelation 19:11-16). "Peg" means "chief", "sus" means "a swiftly coming horse". It means "the chief, coming again in great victory and blessing". "Surely I come quickly." (Revelation 22:20).
- iii) Cygnus (Flying Swan) teaches that Christ will return in beauty and glory. "They shall see the Son of Man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory". (Matthew 24:30). 'He shall come to be glorified in His saints and admired in all them that believe.' (2 Thess. 1:10). 1190

7. Chapter 3: PISCES (Two fish bound at the tails to the neck of the sea monster). Blessings delayed

- i) The Band. The groanings of Creation and God's people still bound in a sinful world until Christ returns. (Romans 8:18-23).
- ii) Andromeda (The Chained) is a woman with chains on her hands and feet, bound securely in misery and distress. This pictures Israel bound in suffering during the church age, along with the church persecuted and suffering in a sinful world.
- iii) Cepheus (The Deliverer coming to Rule). Cepheus is a king sitting on a throne near Cassiopea his wife. He is the Deliverer for whom the chained woman, Andromeda waits. He is the Coming King who shall unloose the chains that bind them freeing them to inherit all the blessings awaiting them.

8. Chapter 4: ARIES (The Lamb). Blessing fully realised. Christ is the Lamb of God, by whose sacrifice takes away sin, and will rule on earth as King of Kings. (John 1:29).

- i) Cassiopeia (The Enthroned Woman, freed and making herself ready for presentation to marry her Redeemer). Andromeda was chained and miserable. Cassiopeia is free and happy. They are a "before and after" presentation of the same person. The Church and Israel are now suffering, but later will be free and rejoicing. Christ will present it to Himself "a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing, but holy and without blemish". (Ephesians 5:27).
- ii) Cetus (The Sea Monster). Satan subdued and bound. Cetus is the Leviathan (Job 41:1-2; 9-10) and Dragon (Revelation 20:1-3). "In that day, the LORD with his sore and great and strong sword shall punish leviathan the piercing serpent, even leviathan that crooked serpent; and he shall slay the dragon that is in the sea." (Isaiah 27:1). The Lamb is above the head of Cetus.
- iii) Perseus (The Strong Soldier delivering the Redeemed). Perseus has a helmet on his head, a sword in his right hand, and the head of his enemy in his left hand. Christ releases His people from captivity. Perseus means "the Breaker". Micah prophesies that God's flock shall be gathered when "the breaker is come up before them". (Micah 2:12,13).

BOOK 3: Christ's Second Coming: The Reigning Redeemer Delivering us from the Presence of Sin.

9. TAURUS (The Bull). Christ the Great Judge Coming in power and glory. This ferocious, large, rushing bull with long, sharp horns is mentioned as the unicorn or rimu in Job 39:9,10; Numbers 23:22; Deuteronomy 33:17; Isaiah 34:2-8). Taurus represents the Coming Judge and Coming Judgment (II Thessalonians 1:7-9; Revelation 6:12-17).

- i) Orion (A Mighty Hunter with a club in his right hand, and a freshly killed lion skin in his left hand). The Prince of Glory. The Orion constellation is mentioned in Job 9:9; 38:31; Amos 5:8. The brightest stars in Orion are Betelgeuse (The Coming of the Branch) and Rigel (The Foot that Crushes). Orion means "He who was slain is coming as the Prince of Light and Glory to judge the world". "Arise, shine; for thy light is come ... Gentiles shall come to thy light ..." (Isaiah 60:1-3).
- ii) Eridanus (The River of Fire). The Wrath of God poured on His enemies. From the raised foot of Orion flows a river of fire toward Cetus the sea monster. It teaches that the wicked will be cast into the Lake of Fire. "A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him." (Daniel 7:10); "The LORD cometh from far, burning with his anger,...his tongue is as a devouring fire." (Malachi 3:2) "His fury is poured out like fire" (Nahum 1:6); "he is like a refiner's fire." (Malachi 3:2).
- iii) Auriga (The Shepherd). The Protection of the Redeemed in the Day of Wrath. Taurus shows the Power of His Coming. Orion shows the splendour of His Coming. Eridanus shows the fiery judgment of His Coming. Auriga promises protection for God's people. The Shepherd Auriga sits in calm grace above the rushing wild bull. Auriga holds a mother goat who has just given birth to a pair of kids in her lap, all being safe and protected in the arms of the shepherd. Auriga is Christ as the Chief Shepherd who will keep His people safe in the day of His coming in power and wrath (I Peter 5:4). "He shall feed His flock like a shepherd: he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young...and meted out the heaven with the span." (Isaiah 40:11,12)

10. GEMINI: (The Twins). Christ married to the Church. (Revelation 19:7-9).

i) Lepus (The Enemy). Christ treads Satan underfoot as a snake.

ii) Canis Major (The Dog) or Sirius (The Prince). Christ as the “Prince of Peace” (Isaiah 9:6).

Coming Prince of Glory. Sirius is the brightest star only 9 light years away. The feminine form of Sirius is Sarah meaning Princess.

iii) Canis Minor (His princely following). ”The armies of heaven follow Him on white horses” Rev19:14

11. CANCER: (Crab). Christ’s Possessions held secure. God’s people sheltered safely. IThes 4:16-18

i) Ursa Minor (The Sheepfold). The Stronghold of the Saved. (Little Dipper). Not a bear, but a collection of domestic animals. Polaris is here. Christ transfers His church to heaven, while yet unmanifested to the rest of the world (I Thessalonians 4:13-18).

ii) Ursa Major (The Assembled Flock). Christ will regather Israel to regain her land. “The house of Jacob shall possess their possessions.” (Obadiah 17-19). This Constellation is called Arcturus in Job 9:9; 38:32. “Canst thou guide Arcturus with his sons.” “He that scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd doth his flock.” (Jeremiah 31:10; Ezekiel 34:11-16).

iii) Argo (The Ship in Harbour). Travellers Safely Home. It prophesies the safe arrival of God’s people back to the land of blessing. “So be bringeth them unto their desired haven.” (Psalm 107:30). “The redeemed of the LORD shall return and come with singing unto Zion.” (Isaiah 51:11; 60:8,9).

12. LEO (The Conquering Lion of the Tribe of Judah). Triumphal Return of Christ. Leo is a strong lion killing and tearing his prey. Leo is treading underfoot the great serpent Hydra. Leo is the fourth symbol of Christ crushing the head of his enemy (Scorpio, Sagittarius, Taurus, Leo). Cancer shows the final rest and homecoming of the redeemed. Leo shows the final end of the enemy. The Old Hebrews called this sign “Arieh” meaning a lion hunting down its prey.” “The lion did tear in pieces” (Nahum 2:12; II Samuel 17:10). See Revelation 5:5; Genesis 49:8,9; Numbers 24:8,9; Isaiah 42:13. “The Lion of the Tribe of Judah ... hath prevailed.” (Revelation 5:5).

i) Hydra (The Serpent). The Old Serpent Destroyed. Hydra is the largest constellation in the sky, stretching 100 degrees across the sky below the constellations of Cancer, Leo and Virgo.

Hydra (The Abhorred) depicts Satan through whom evil entered the world and by whom sin multiplied. The Great Lion of Judah will cast out from heaven and earth that old serpent the devil to destroy him in the lake of fire. (Revelation 20:10).

ii) Crater (The Cup). God’s Wrath poured on the Serpent. This cup of God’s indignation (Rev. 14:10) lies below the hind feet of Leo and rests on Hydra the snake. This cup of God’s wrath will be poured on:

- unbelievers (II Thessalonians 1:7-9), - all the wicked of the earth (Psalm 75:8; 11:6),

- Antichrist’s armies (Zechariah 12:2,3), - Beast worshippers (Revelation 14:10),

- Mystery Babylon (Revelation 16:19; 17:4; 18:6),

- Devil and his angels (Matthew 25:41; Revelation 10:10).

iii) Corvus (The Raven). Devouring the Old Serpent. Ravens are powerful scavenger birds of prey who tear flesh from dead animals. The enemy of God and men is finally defeated, torn to pieces and devoured. Corvus is clutching the serpent Hydra with his claws and tearing his flesh with his beak. An angel will stand in the sun, calling to all the fowls and birds of prey to come and feast themselves on the flesh of the enemy (Revelation 19:17,18). Stars in Corvus are Algoreb (Raven), Minchar Algoreb means “the raven tearing to pieces”, and Minchar Alsugia means “the Deceiver torn to pieces.”

Conclusion: Here the prophetic story written in the sky so long ago comes to a close. The Redeemer has triumphed, the redeemed are safely home, and the enemy is destroyed. While the fuller, clearer and more explicit revelation of the written Word is available to all today, making the stellar revelation no longer necessary, we can praise God for Mazzaroth as a means of glorifying Christ. “The heavens declare the glory of God; ...night unto night showeth knowledge (v.2). There is no speech nor language where their voice is not heard (v.3). ..Which is as a bridegroom (Christ) coming out of His chamber (Heaven), and rejoiceth as a strong man (Christ) to run a race (of redeeming mankind).(v.5). His going forth is from the end of heaven, and his circuit (zodiac) unto the ends of it (v.6).” (Psalm 19:1-6).

261. RICHES FROM THE RENT

Bible Reading: Judges 14:1-9-20.

Aim: To show how God can bring great riches out of rent things.

Introduction: Judges 14:5-8 tells of Samson's exploits when he met a lion. The Holy Spirit came on him and he rent the lion as one would rend a kid (baby goat) (14:6). Later, on the way back, Samson found that bees had built a beehive in the rent lion's carcass with enough honey in the carcass to satisfy his hunger. He scooped out the honey and brought it to his parents for them to eat, but did not tell them that it came from a dead lion's body. This violated his Nazarite vow not to touch dead bodies. I want to preach on how God has brought great riches out of rent things.

"Out of the eater came forth meat, and out of the strong came forth sweetness." Judges 14:14.

Lesson: We have some great riches that have come from that which was rent (torn).

On six main occasions a rent brought forth something sweet and wonderful.

1. The High Priest's Garment was rent, and out of this came a New Advocate. Matthew 26:63-65-68.

"The High Priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy,..." v.65.

This act of the High Priest rending his clothes was highly illegal, and was highly offensive to God.

When Caiaphas rent his garments that day, he not only disqualified himself from being the High Priest, but this act resulted in God setting aside the entire levitical priesthood, and replacing it with the Melchisedec Priesthood of Jesus Christ.

"He that is the high priest among his brethren, upon whose head the anointing oil was poured, & that is consecrated to put on the garments, shall not uncover his head, nor rend his clothes." Levit. 21:10

"Thou shalt make the robe of the ephod all of blue. (v.32). And there shall be a hole in the top of it. In the midst thereof: it shall have a binding of woven work round about the hole of it, as it were the hole of an habergeon, that it be not rent." Exodus 28:32,31.

Pomegranates (v.33) = fruitfulness of God's High Priest;

Bells of gold = testimony of God's High Priest.

Habergeon = a coat of steel meshing to protect the neck and shoulders, but later reaching to the thighs and knees, to protect a soldier from being cut with a sword. Hence, the High Priest's garment had a binding of woven work around the neck and chest that made it difficult to tear (rend).

When Caiaphas rent this garment he must have ripped it very intensely, in great anger and rage.

The Levitical priesthood could not function without several elements. (The Temple, garments, brazen altar, lambs, bullocks, High Priest etc). When Caiaphas the High Priest rent his garments, he violated his priesthood, disqualified himself and was set aside by God.

Question: So what riches came out? Answer: Another High Priest who was not disqualified.

"Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top without. v.24.

They said therefore among themselves, Let US NOT REND IT, but cast lots for it." John 19:23,24.

Jesus had 5 garments: 1. Head-gear (Sudar) wound into a turban. 2. Sandals.

3. Girdle = long embroidered linen sash, wound around the middle of the body several times. Ex28:39

4. Undergarment = undertunic or long shirt of fine linen seamlessly woven with a pattern, sleeves and a tie around the neck. This was necessary for anyone publicly reading scriptures in the synagogue.

5. Outer garment (Tallith) = short, square, outer, sleeveless coat with fringes.

Some say that, "Had the soldiers ripped apart the Lord's seamless robe, this would have disqualified Him as our High Priest."

Hebrews 5:9,10 "And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him. Called of God an high priest after the order of Melchisedec."

Look at Jesus in Revelation 1:13, "And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle."

We see Jesus with a golden girdle (signifying His Kingship) around his chest, telling us that His work is complete. (The girdle was put around the waist to do a day's work. After the day's work was done he moved his girdle to around his paps (chest)). Jesus has finished His atoning work on the cross and is now our ADVOCATE with the Father (1 John 2:1,2). "If any man sin, we have an advocate..."

2. The Side and Body of Jesus was Rent (pierced) and out of this came forth a New Atonement.
 “One of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, & forthwith came there out blood and water.” John 19:34
Jesus’ SIDE was Rent. Blood came out first, to show that we are saved by the blood of Christ, not by water baptism. Five wounds of Jesus were: Head, hands, feet, back and side. Each of these were rent. What compassion, what love, that He would bleed and die for you and me.
 If Baptismal regeneration were true and water really did wash away sin, they’d need a sin filter in the baptism pool. In the Garden of Gethsemane, Jesus prayed and He sweat great drops of blood.
 In the Old Testament, sins were pushed back, just like being swept under the carpet.
The Atonement of Jesus is much better than the Atonement of the Old Testament.
 The theme of Hebrews is that God has given us better things. (Better than angels...). Hebrews 9:12.
 “Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.”
- Question: Have you applied Jesus Christ’s precious blood to cleanse you from your sins?
 “We also joy in God through our LJC by whom we have now received the atonement.” (Romans 5:11).
 “Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare His righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God.” (Romans 3:25).
3. The Veil in the Temple was Rent, and it brought forth a New Access. (Luke 23:45).
 “The sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was rent in the midst.” Luke 23:45.
- What was the purpose of the veil? (Exodus 26:31-33).
 - It served to stop anyone reaching the Ark of the Covenant.
 - It made a room for the Holy Place (Candlestick, Table of Shewbread, Altar of Incense).
Holy of Holies had Ark of Covenant, 10 Commandments, Aaron’s Rod, Manna Pot, Mercy Seat.
 - Why was the Veil Rent? To make a new way of access into God’s presence for all people.
 Three teams of oxen could not tear the veil. The priests must have tried to sew and mend the veil. This may explain why many of the priests believed on Jesus Christ (Acts 6:7).
 - There is no one today who can stop you having full access to God’s Throne. Hebrews 10:19,20.
 “Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh.”
 - Court of Gentiles: Gentiles, unclean people, money changers & market. could only go this far.
 - Court of women entered through the Beautiful Gate. Israelite ladies only went this far. Treasury
 - Upper Court was divided into two parts: Court of Israel (Jewish men) and Court of the Priests.
 - The Sanctuary was on a higher terrace than the Court of the Priests. (12 steps higher).
 Only Levites could go there. A two leaved gate opened to it, being divided into 2 parts,
 The Holy Place with the candlestick (South), Table of Shewbread (North), and Altar of Incense.
 A heavy double veil concealed the entrance to the Most Holy Place (or Holy of Holies).
 - Most Holy Place. Only the High Priest, on the Day of Atonement could go into Holy of Holies.
 When Jesus Christ died, He took away the guards, so all could enter the Most Holy Place. Heb 4:16
4. The Rocks were Rent, and brought forth a New Accommodation. (Matthew 27:51-53).
 Rocks were rent and graves were opened and many bodies of OT saints arose after Christ’s resurrection and walked the streets of Jerusalem. Jesus went down and opened the prison house of paradise where OT saints were and delivered them to the Father in Heaven. (Ephesians 4:8-11).
Q: What kind of accommodation do we now have? “We have a building of God.” 2 Cor. 5:1-8.
5. The Tomb was Rent and it brought forth a New Assurance. (Matthew 28:2-7). A new assurance in:
 a) Our preaching message of resurrection reality. 1 Cor. 15:14-20. “Now is Christ risen from the dead.”
 b) Our munds = mental confidence. “He was seen of above 500 brethren at once;” (1 Cor. 15:6).
 Firstfruit of barley harvest was given to God (v23). Every sermon in Acts included the Resurrection
6. The Eastern sky will be Rent and will bring forth a New Age of Christ’s Reign on earth. Mat 24:27
 Satan will be bound, the curse will be removed, Jesus Christ will reign in peace for 1000 years. Rev20
 Mt of Olives will be rent (Zech. 14:4); the East Gate will be opened (Ezekiel 44:1-2). A new river will flow to heal the Dead Sea (Ezekiel 47:1-12). Christ will reign as King of Kings. All will worship Him

262. Jewish Marriage Customs Show the Events of Christ's Return

Bible Reading: Psalm 45:1-17; Revelation 19:7-9.

Aim: To increase our, love, readiness and understanding of Christ's return.

Introduction: Bible marriage customs centre in the two events of betrothal and wedding. The relationship between husband and wife, pictures the relationship between God and His people, Israel (Hosea 1-3), and between Christ and His church (Ephesians 5:22-33).

The following stages in a Jewish marriage teach the main events surrounding our salvation by Jesus Christ as our heavenly bridegroom and His Second Coming.

1. The Negotiation Stage

A price had to be paid by the bridegroom and accepted by the bride. As Rebekah was asked about Isaac, "wilt thou go with this man?" and she said, "I will go", so every sinner must answer the question if he wants Jesus Christ to be His Saviour.

As Jesus Christ shed His precious blood to pay for our sins and redeem us, so we must accept that price He paid for our sins in order to be saved. "Ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your Spirit, which are God's." (1 Corinthians 6:19,20).

"Ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, such as silver and gold, ...but with the precious blood of Christ..." (1 Peter 1:18,19).

Q: Have you accepted the price of Christ's shed blood to pay for your sins to be your Saviour?

Some gifts the Groom's father has given us that Jewish brides were given are:

a) Servants: "They sent away Rebekah and her nurse and Abraham's servant." (Genesis 24:59).

God the Father gives us angels as "ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for those who shall be heirs of salvation." (Hebrews 1:14).

b) Clothes: "The servants brought forth...raiment, and gave them to Rebekah." (Genesis 24:53).

As Abraham's servant gave Rebekah clothing, so God the Father has given believers clothing of Christ's righteousness.

"His wife hath made herself ready. And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white. For the fine linen is the righteousness of the saints." (Revelation 19:7,8).

"He hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels." (Isaiah 61:10). Jewels represent people won to Christ. (Malachi 3:17).

The Bride wore embroidered garments (Psalm 45:13,14).

c) Spiritual gifts: "He gave some apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers." (Ephesians 4:11,12).

2. The Betrothal Stage

"Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together." (Matthew 1:18).

God's love and faithfulness to believers are pictured as a betrothal.

"I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness, in judgment, in lovingkindness, in mercies, and in faithfulness: and thou shalt know the Lord." (Hosea 2:19,20). See Ephesians 5:23,24,27,28,30,32.

The espoused bride would wear a veil that said to this world, "I'm not my own, I've been bought with a price." God wants us to wear the veil of separation so people know we belong to Christ, and not to the world. "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world." 1 John 2:15-17

3. The Preparation Stage

The groom would go home to prepare for the wedding and to make everything ready. He could not return for his bride until his father said, "go get your bride." So Jesus Christ is preparing a place in heaven for His Bride the church. "In my Father's house are many mansions...I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself: that where I am, there ye may be also." (John 14:2,3).

4. The Snatching away of the Bride.

When all things were ready, the groom would come in the night to the bride's place. Before he entered the room, he would call out "Behold, the bridegroom cometh." (Matthew 25:6). He could not take his bride unannounced. So it will be at Christ's return from heaven for His Bride the church. There will be "a shout, the voice of the archangel and the trumpet of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words.” (1 Thessalonians 4:16-18).

Q: Are you ready for Christ’s return? Would you be left behind to enter the 7 year tribulation? Would you be ashamed to face Christ because of some sins in your life? Get right with God today. Christ will come one day, catch away His bride from this wicked earth, and bring her into the wedding chamber of heaven. This was known as the wedding “procession” where the groom (Christ) and His friends (OT saints as in John 3:29) went with the bride (NT church) to the groom’s house, with singing, for the marriage supper.

“She shall be brought unto the King in raiment of needlework: the virgins her companions (OT Jews) that follow her shall be brought unto thee with gladness and rejoicing shall they be brought: they shall enter into the king’s palace (heaven).” (Psalm 45:14,15).

5. The Examination Stage (The Judgment Seat of Christ)

The groom would remove his bride’s veil to see if she really was the bride he had sacrificed for. (Jacob got the wrong wife Leah when he thought he had married Rachel). So, one day, Christ will remove the veil from each believer at the Judgment seat of Christ and “Every man’s work shall be made manifest: for the day (JSOC) shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man’s work of what sort it is. If any man’s work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. If any man’s work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.” (1 Corinthians 3:13-15). “For we must all appear before the Judgment Seat of Christ) that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done whether it be good or bad.” (2 Corinthians 5:10).

“They that turn many to righteousness shall shine as the stars for ever and ever.” (Daniel 12:3).

Q: How will you feel when your life’s work for Christ is examined & made manifest for all to see? Will you receive a reward, or will you suffer loss by all your useless activities being burned up.

6. The Consummation stage lasting 7 days. While earth is enduring the horrors of the 7 year Tribulation, Christ and His Bride the Church will be enjoying the greatest marriage of all time. Parents and friends would first bless the couple and wish them well (Genesis 24:60; Ruth 4:11). The father of the bride drew up a written marriage contract, called the “Ketuba” in the Mishnah. The bridechamber was prepared. The parents escorted the bride and groom to this room (Genesis 29:23). “Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber.” (Psalm 19:5).

Before coming together, prayer was offered by husband and wife.

7. The Marriage Feast (Revelation 19:7-9)

The Marriage Feast continued for 7 days as in Genesis 29:27:

“Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready (v.7). Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the lamb.” (Revelation 19:7-9). These celebrations were times of rejoicing and music (“gladness and rejoicing” Psalm 45:15). All believers will be present at this marriage feast.

Contrast this happy marriage feast of Christ with the unholy feast of antichrist’s armies being eaten by birds (Rev. 19:17-19), and the antichrist burning his whore and eating her flesh. (Rev. 17:16).

Q: Will you be at the happy marriage supper of the Lamb?

8. Setting up House Stage.

We will do this with Jesus when we return to earth with Him. “The LORD my God shall come, and all the saints with thee.” (Zechariah 14:5). The LORD shall be king over all the earth (Zech. 14:9). We shall return with Christ to earth which will be our home for 1000 years of peace and happiness, which we will set up for God’s glory. This 1000 year rule of Christ will be the greatest time of joy, peace and prosperity the world has ever known. To some, Jesus will say:

“because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.” (Luke 19:17).

“And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.” (Rev. 5:10).

Q: Are you proving yourself faithful to Christ now? Let us live for Christ now so He will say to us “Well done thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou unto the joy of thy Lord.” (Matthew 25:21).

263. Ecclesiastes: Solomon's Search for Meaning in Life.

Challenge: What are you living for? Yourself and pleasure, or for Christ and eternity.

Bible Reading: Ecclesiastes 2; 1 Kings 10:1-13.

Aim: All human endeavours apart from God lack ultimate value. Life should be lived in the fear of God, as a gift from His hand.

Introduction: Ecclesiastes means the Preacher, or one who calls an assembly. Ecclesiastes is a divine commentary on Christ's words: "whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again." (John 4:13).

Ecclesiastes is the autobiography of Solomon when he had backslidden away from God and tried various methods to find happiness and satisfaction. Three books written by Solomon were:

a) The Song of Solomon was written in the glory of Solomon's first love.

b) Proverbs was written at the height of Solomon's glory and wisdom.

c) Ecclesiastes was written later on in Solomon's life as testimony of his genuine repentance.

The key word "Vanity" occurs 37 times. The phrase "under the sun" (apart from God) occurs 29 times.

The theme of Ecclesiastes is announced at the beginning (1:2),

"Vanity of vanities, saith the preacher, all is vanity" (12:8). See also 1:14; 2:1,11,15,17,19,21,23,26;

3:19; 4:4,8,16; 5:10; 6:2,9,11; 7:6; 8:10,14; 9:9; 11:8,10; 12:8.

Without God, everything in life is vanity, meaningless and without real value. This includes toil (1:14; 2:11,17; 4:4,7,8), wisdom (2:15), wealth (5:10; 6:2), pleasure (2:1,2), youth (11:10), life (6:12; 7:15).

Question: Why did Solomon pass this verdict on man's toil?

Answer: Because we always risk losing the fruit of our labour by:

i) oppression or injustice (5:8,9),

ii) unpredictable misfortune (5:14),

iii) the judgment of God (5:6),

iv) death, leaving our wealth to others (2:18),

v) loss of health and the ability to enjoy it,

vi) a little sin (9:18),

vii) a little folly (10:1), viii) improper timing (10:11; 3:1-8), ix) lack of proper appreciation (9:15).

Ecclesiastes is a critique of modern secular humanism (devotion to human interests and ignoring divine interests). Though life is short, inequitable and difficult, we should not despair, but live life by completely trusting God. Solomon, the author, observed that no man seems satisfied, regardless of what he has seen, heard or achieved (1:8).

Question: Could a wise healthy man, by searching, find peace and purpose?

Answer: Solomon tried to find purpose by giving himself to:

1. Human Wisdom and Knowledge (1:16,17).

Solomon had more ability than any man (except Christ) to correctly apply knowledge, but he sadly concluded, "for in much wisdom is much grief: and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow." (1:18). Why? Because the more we know of mankind, the less likely we are to trust them or admire them.

The more man knows of science, the more man can apply knowledge to destruction and moral evils, such as nuclear bombs, weapons of mass destruction, using the lie of evolution to turn people away from God as our Creator, and many other evils.

2. Pleasure, Laughter, Alcohol (2:1-3).

Since knowledge has failed, Solomon turns to humour, entertainment, pleasure, and alcohol. Solomon concluded that these are futile and meaningless because they accomplish little or nothing.

But we know that leading people to Christ (Daniel 12:3), teaching God's Word, training preachers and planting churches lays up much treasure in heaven that can never be lost. "Whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall find it." Matthew 16:24-27,25.

3. Great Building Projects (2:4).

"I made me great works; I builded me houses." Solomon now attempts to plug that hole in his soul by a great public building program. He built palaces, aqueducts, pools, Solomon's temple, store cities, defenced cities, chariot cities (2 Chronicles 8:1-7), house of the forest of Lebanon (1 Kings 7:1-7), Pharaoh's daughter's house (1 Kings 7:8-12). The court comedians gave way to great architects. But all too soon the building campaign wears thin and is quietly dropped.

4. Beautifully Landscaped Gardens and Parks (2:4-6).

"I planted vineyards: I made me gardens and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kinds of fruits: I made me pools of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees." (2:4-6). How well qualified was Solomon to build gardens, orchards, and vineyards may be understood when we recall his knowledge of botany, and how he wrote about vegetables, plants and trees, from the cedar to the hyssop, of rare flowers, tropical plants and water gardens. "He spake of trees, from the cedar tree that is in Lebanon, even unto the hyssop that springeth out of the wall." (1 Kings 4:33). His interest extended to natural science. "He spake also of beasts, and of fowl, and of creeping things, and of fishes". (1 Kings 4:33). But before long he lost interest in landscaping and moved on to something else.

5. Personal Indulgences and Luxuries (2:7-11).

"I got me servants and maidens (2:7), whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them, I withheld not my heart from any joy." (2:10).

Solomon had servants to wait on his every wish. He had everything he saw or wanted that gave him pleasure. How many people today think that this is the secret to happiness? See 2 Chronicles 9:3,4. But none could serve up his wish for inward peace and purpose.

"All was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun". (2:11).

6. Cattle Breeding (2:7).

"I had great possession of great and small cattle above all that were in Jerusalem before me." (2:7). Have you ever wanted to be a farmer owning a big cattle property? Solomon had great herds of cattle, sheep, oxen, goats and other animals grazing on green pastures. But while the skins and meats of these animals clothed and fed the outer man, the inner man remained naked and starving.

7. Great Wealth (2:8).

"I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces." (2:8). Solomon received 666 talents of gold each year, as well as gold from the kings of Arabia. He made 200 targets of gold and 300 shields of gold. His throne of ivory was overlaid with pure gold. All his drinking vessels were of gold. (2 Chronicles 9:13-20). Every 3 years his ships brought gold, silver, ivory, apes and peacocks from beyond Tarshish (Spain), possibly from Africa or America. (v.21). "King Solomon passed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom." (9:22). He made silver in Jerusalem as stones (9:27). He had 1400 chariots and 12,000 horsemen (9:25). Yet Solomon found that money cannot buy happiness and inner peace.

8. Music (2:8).

"I gat me men singers and women singers, and the delights of the sons of men, as musical instruments, and that of all sorts." (2:8).

How many people today seek peace in rock music, opera, classical music, or rap music? But the missing chord of contentment was not to be found in music, however beautiful the song or talented the singers and musicians.

9. Literature (1 Kings 4:32).

"He spake 3000 proverbs: and his songs were a thousand and five."

Many people today seek refuge in books of fiction, mystery, or non fiction. Some people become movie addicts. Yet this is often an escape into an unreal world of fantasy that passes away with the daily workload. Writing books and reading books never fully satisfy the deepest needs of man.

10. Military Power (1 Kings 4:26).

"Solomon had 40,000 stalls of horses for his chariots, and 12,000 horsemen." (1 Kings 4:26).

"King Solomon made a navy of ships in Ezion-geber, beside Eloth, on the shore of the Red Sea and fetched from Ophir 420 talents of gold." (1 Kings 9:26).

"Solomon reigned over all kingdoms from the river (Euphrates) unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt." (1 Kings 4:21).

"He had peace on all sides around him. And Judah and Israel dwelt safely, every man under his vine and under his fig tree." (1 Kings 4:24,25).

Although Solomon's military brought national peace and security, it could not bring him internal peace.

11. International Reputation (1 Kings 10:1-13, v. 6,7).

Solomon had great international prestige, majesty and respect for his wisdom and wealth.

“All the earth sought to Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart” (1 Kings 10:24). We all like our peers to approve and admire us, but Solomon was greatly honoured by all people of his time. He satisfied the Queen of Sheba’s hard questions, yet Solomon still said, “I hated life; all is vanity and vexation of spirit”. (Ecclesiastes 2:17). Solomon knew that all his honour would leave him after his death. His foolish son Rehoboam destroyed Solomon’s life work and national reputation.

12. Sex (1 Kings 11:1-9).

“King Solomon loved many strange women (v.1). He had 700 wives, princesses and 300 concubines: and his wives turned away his heart after other gods (11:3,4)..the LORD was angry with Solomon.” (1 Kings 11:9). Not even 1000 women could satisfy Solomon’s inner spiritual needs in his backslidden state. These wives introduced idol worship into Israel which led to the destruction and captivity of the nation in 722 BC and 606 BC.

Conclusion: After Solomon returns home (4:1) from his study and search for meaning, he concludes that life apart from God is:

- a) utterly futile and vain (2:11),
- b) full of discontent and envying others (4:4),
- c) uncertain dangers, tragedies and death (9:11,12),
- d) without purpose except to eat, drink and be merry (8:15),
- e) full of unsolvable problems (1:15),
- f) injustice (7:15).

Even with God, life is a mystery, but apart from God, life becomes a horrible nightmare.

Therefore, it is best if man:

- a) Finds God early in life (12:1,2).
- b) Fears God and keeps His commandments throughout his life (12:13,14).

Old age is described as:

- i) The keepers of the house shall tremble = arms and hands grow weak and shaky (v.3).
 - ii) Strong men shall bow themselves = legs grow bent and feeble.
 - iii) Grinders cease because they are few = teeth become fewer.
 - iv) Those that look out the windows be darkened = eyesight beginning to fail (12:3).
 - v) Doors shall be shut in the streets = lips shutting due to loss of teeth (12:4).
 - vi) Sound of the grinding is low = little noise is now made in eating because teeth are lost.
 - vii) He shall rise up at the voice of a bird = old folk rise early because of their inability to sleep (12:4).
 - viii) All the daughters of music shall be brought low = he can no longer carry a tune anymore.
 - ix) When they shall be afraid of that which is high = being so feeble, they are afraid to ascend steps without help.
 - x) Fears shall be in the way = fear to walk outside lest they meet some danger they can’t escape.
 - xi) Almond tree shall flourish = hair turns grey and white as almond blossoms are white.
 - xii) Grasshopper shall be a burden = little things annoy him.
 - xiii) Desire shall fail = diminished appetites for food and sex.
 - xiv) Man goeth to his long home = the grave.
- After the external evidences of old age, we now see what occurs in the body to produce death (v.5).
- xv) Silver cord be loosed = the spinal cord and nervous system are loosed at death (v.6).
 - xvi) Golden bowl be broken = the brain in the skull stops functioning.
 - xvii) Pitcher be broken at the fountain = lungs stops breathing.
 - xviii) Wheel broken at the cistern = heart stops beating.
 - xix) Dust returns to the earth = body decays to dust.
 - xx) Spirit shall return unto God who gave it.

264. Jesus Christ's 7 Sayings On The Cross

Bible Reading: Luke 23:27-49.

Aim: To see Jesus Christ's great sacrifice and dying love for others.

Introduction: Jesus made 7 statements while on the cross. First, He thought of others: those who crucified Him (Luke 23:34), the repentant thief (Luke 23:39-43), and His mother (John 19:25-27).

The central (fourth) word concerned His relationship with His Father (Matt 27:45-49).

His last 3 statements focused on Himself: His body (John 19:28-29), His soul (John 19:30; Isa. 53:10) & His Spirit (Luke 23:46).

Question: What do we learn of the Father, Son, Holy Spirit and man from these 7 sayings?

1. "Father forgive them for they know not what they do." Luke 23:34.

Jesus Christ pleaded to stay the wrath of a righteous Father as He viewed His beloved Son being murdered by wicked and sinful men. Peter stated this later in Acts 3:14,15,17.

This fulfilled the prophecy "He made intercession for the transgressors" (Isaiah 53:12), being the Jews and Roman soldiers. The Romans were ignorant that Jesus was the Son of God and were just obeying their rulers' commands. The Jews knew Jesus was innocent and had evidence He was the Messiah, but did not know the effect their guilt would bring in judgment and calamities on their country. The Jews, not believing Jesus was their Messiah had no sense of His rank, majesty and dignity as the "Lord of glory". Paul said this, "had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory". I Cor.2:8. The Jews did not fully understand the greatness of their sin of crucifying their God and Creator.

Ignorance does not excuse a crime, but it diminishes a person's guilt. Jesus shows His compassion in imploring God to pardon His murderers. Christ urges their ignorance as a reason why they should be pardoned. God forgave Paul because He "did it ignorantly in unbelief" (I Timothy 1:13). God winked at (overlooked) the ignorance of Gentiles (Acts 17:30). Yet this is no excuse for those who reject Christ. Do we forgive others who wrong us? We learn from Christ's prayer that:

i) We should pray most for our enemies when they are trying to hurt us.

ii) We should pray that God would pardon them and give them better minds.

iii) This shows the power and excellence of Christian belief, in teaching men to pray for their enemies forgiveness. Worldly men seek revenge. Christians bear persecutions & insults with patience & prayer.

2. "Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise." Luke 23:42,43.

The repentant thief believed Jesus was the Messiah He claimed to be and wanted to enter His Kingdom. It is likely that Jesus, while on the cross, acquainted these two men with the nature of His kingdom.

One malefactor railed on Him, becoming more hardened in guilt, while the other was repentant.

Some may come to Christ on their deathbed. "Paradise" is a word of Persian origin, & means a garden of pleasure, filled with trees, shrubs, flowers and fountains. It was like a place of happiness attached to mansions and palaces of the rich. It was entered immediately after death. We learn from this that:

i) The soul after death exists separately from the body. The soul is in paradise. The body is in the grave.

ii) Immediately after death, righteous souls will be happy, secure and assured of a future resurrection.

iii) This promise was made to only 1 thief, showing that the state of the righteous differs from the unsaved.

iv) It is the chief glory of paradise & heaven to see Jesus and be with Him. "I desire to depart." Phil.1:23.

We learn 3 things about salvation here: i) Salvation is offered to anyone, anywhere, anytime.

ii) Salvation is by grace, through faith alone, and not by our works. It refutes the doctrines of

a) Sacramentalsim (eg: Lord's Supper and confirmation for salvation);

b) Baptismal Regeneration; c) Purgatory; d) Universalism because only one thief was saved.

iii) Salvation will be rejected by some in spite of all that God does.

a) We see 3 men here: - One was dying FOR sin (Christ).

- One was dying IN sin (unsaved thief).

- One was dying FROM sin (repentant thief).

b) All classes of humanity are represented at the cross:

- indifferent (people stood beholding. v.35).

- religious (rulers deride Him. v.35).

- materialistic (soldiers parted His garment and casts lots. v.34).

- earnest seekers (Lord remember me. v.42.)

Jesus was thinking about Paradise, the better place He was going to. Jesus was a soul winner, taking every opportunity even in His darkest hour, of getting others into heaven. Let us be soul winners. The thief on the cross had very little information, but showed great spiritual illumination. He knew:
1) Death was not the end (Heb. 9:27). 2) His own sinfulness and worthiness of God's judgment. (v.41a)
3) Christ's sinlessness ("He hath done nothing amiss" v.41). 4) Deity of Christ. (Lord, v.42).
5) He needed a Mediator ("remember me," v.42). 6) Kingship of Jesus (thy kingdom, v.42).
7) Christ's second coming ("when thou comest" v.42).

Question: Which friends of yours are not yet saved? Go see them and tell them of salvation in Christ.

3. "Woman, behold thy Son! Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy Mother." John 19:26,27.

Jesus, in His dying moments, filled with tender care for His mother, secured for her an adopted son in the apostle John, obtained for her a home, and consoled her grief by John's attention. What a model for all children in providing for our parents' needs who have done so much for us. "Behold thy mother".

Mary would be to John as a mother. Tradition says that Mary continued to live with John in Judea until her death 15 years later. Jesus would have us care for one another. "Honour thy father and thy mother." Ephesians 6:2; Eph. 4:32-5:2. "A new commandment I give.." John 13:34,35; "As we" Galatians 6:10.

4. "My God, My God, Why hast thou forsaken me?" Matthew 27:46,47.

"Eli, Eli" was Galilean Aramaic, Jesus' native tongue. Jesus quoted this from Psalm 22:1 "My Elohim", denoting His intense sufferings. Jesus was forsaken by the Jews, His disciples, the Father and the Holy Spirit. "He came unto His own, but His own received Him not." (John 1:11).

The people who will understand a glimpse of what Christ went through are those to whom it will be said, "Depart from me ye cursed into everlasting fire.." Matthew 25:41; Galatians 3:13.

Question 1: In what sense was Jesus forsaken by God? God approved His work. He was innocent. He had done nothing to forfeit the favour of God. The Father still loved Him.

i) This was when the Jews and Satan were permitted to do their worst. The devil departed from Jesus for a season (Luke 4:13) to return at the cross.

ii) Christ had to suffer all that human nature could endure in a short time. Clear views of God's justice and goodness may have been withheld from Jesus at this time.

iii) Isaiah 53:4,5 tells: "He hath borne our griefs and carried our sorrows. He was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon him, and with his stripes we are healed."

"He hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us." (Galatians 3:13).

"The Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all." (Isaiah 53:6). "He hath made him to be sin for us." (2 Cor.5:21). "Who his own self bare our sins in his body on the tree." (1 Peter 2:24).

Christ's intense sufferings were caused by our sins being laid on Him and the manifesting of God's intense hatred of sin to His soul. This had never happened before.

Question 2: Why did the Father turn His back on the Son?

Because he was bearing the sin of the world, and God cannot look on sin (Habakkuk 1:13).

Question 3: Why did the Son not know the reason?

Because of the depth of His sufferings, and because Christ voluntarily abstained from using some of His divine qualities as the perfect human while on earth (Philippians 2:5-8).

5. "I Thirst." John 19:28.

Jesus had refused the pain deadening wine that was offered to those about to be crucified (Matt 27:34).

In order to fulfil the Scriptures (Psalm 69:21 "In my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink") He said, "I thirst." He had just endured three hours of darkness when He felt the wrath of God and separation from God (Matthew 27:45-49). Jesus experienced darkness, thirst and isolation as well as spiritual sufferings "My soul thirsteth for God" (Psalm 42:1,2,3). A soldier moistened Jesus' lips with cheap vinegar on a sponge (John 19:29). Today, we can "give Jesus a drink" by sharing what we have with those in need. "I was thirsty and ye gave me drink" (Matthew 25:35).

Messianic themes in Psalm 69: i) Ps. 69:3 "my throat is dried".

ii) Ps. 69:4 "They hated me without a cause" = John 15:25.

iii) Ps. 69:8 "I am become a stranger to my brethren" = "Neither did his brethren believe in Him" Jn7:5

iv) Ps. 69:9 "The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up" = John 2:17.

v) Ps. 69:21 "they gave me gall for my meat: in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink" = John 19:28,29

This shows the deep suffering Jesus went through. This fulfilled Psalm 22:15, “My tongue cleaveth to my jaws.” Jesus had earlier said: “He that believeth on me shall never thirst.” John 6:35, and “If any man thirst, let him come into me and drink.” John 7:37.

Jesus who gave His life so man need never thirst spiritually, endured great physical thirst. John 4:13-15

6. “It Is Finished.” John 19:30.

In Greek, this is “Tetelestai”, meaning, “It is finished, and as a result it is forever done.”

Three applications of this are:

- a) An artist who finished a great masterpiece would stand back and say “Tetelestai, Tetelestai,” meaning that the painting is so perfect that nothing can be added to it. A writer finishing a manuscript said this.
- b) A servant reporting to his master would say “I have finished the work you assigned to me” John 17:4
- c) A merchant would say this when “The debt is paid in full”.
- d) A priest examining a perfect animal sacrifice would say this.
- e) Christ said it to describe His payment for our sins on the cross being such a full, complete and perfect payment that nothing could be added to it, especially no human good works of ours. Jesus fully met the righteous demands of a holy law. He paid our sin debt in full. The Lamb of God shed His blood to take away the sins of the world (John 1:29; Hebrews 9:24-28).
Hallelujah what a Saviour! The word “finished” occurs 3 times:
 - a) Genesis 2:1. At the completion of God’s physical creation,
 - b) John 19:30. When salvation was completed on the cross.
 - c) Revelation 16:17. “It is done” at the 7th vial judgment.

Question: Will you finish your life’s work that God has given you to do?

Paul said “I have finished my course.” II Timothy 4:6-8.

7. “Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit.” Luke 23:46.

Christ gave up His own life. Nobody took it from Him.

Question: Have you committed you life into God’s hands? Romans 12:1,2.

This fulfilled Psalm 31:5 “Into thine hand I commit my Spirit.”

Events following Christ’s death are:

- i) A watching Centurion said “Truly this was a righteous man.” Luke 23:47.
- ii) The temple veil was torn in two from top to bottom.
- iii) An earthquake opens some tombs, and many Old Testament saints arose and appear to many in Jerusalem after Christ’s resurrection. (Matthew 27:51-53).
- iv) A watching centurion cries out in fear and awe “Truly this was the Son of God.” Matthew 27:54.
- v) 3 hours of darkness finishes and light breaks forth again.

Compare Jesus Christ’s gracious words with the 7 last sayings of the crowd:

1. “Thou that destroyeth the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross.” Matthew 27:40.
2. “He saved others, himself he cannot save. If he be the king of Israel, let him now come down from the cross and we will believe him.” Matthew 27:42.
3. “He trusted in God, let him deliver him now.” Matthew 27:43.
4. “If thou be the Christ, save thyself.” Luke 23:39.
5. “Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.” Luke 23:42.
6. “This man calleth for Elijah....let us see whether Elijah will come to save him.” Matthew 27:46-49.
7. “Truly this man was the Son of God.” Mark 15:39.

Note: The veil in the temple that was rent from top to bottom was a type of Christ (Matthew 27:51; Mark 15:38; Luke 23:45). The torn veil had the following significance:

1. It opened the way of salvation for all to come unto God by Jesus Christ (Hebrews 10:19-22).
2. It teaches the priesthood of believers (I Peter 2:5,9). Anyone may enter God’s heaven through Christ.
3. It teaches that the separation between Jews and Gentiles was now abolished (Ephesians 2:13-18).

Conclusion: In view of Christ’s last words, let us have a greater love, loyalty and commitment to Jesus Christ as our Saviour and God. Let us make more sacrifices to serve Christ and others unselfishly as we follow His example. Let us seek to win more people to Christ by sharing the gospel more regularly.

265. SAMSON

Bible Reading: Judges 16:1-31.

Aim: To beware of wasting your life. If we let pride and passion displace God's rightful first place, we will miss God's best and experience much sorrow, suffering and loss.

Problem: Many Christians today have no concept of God using them in His service because they are so concerned about their own lives and doing what they feel like doing. "The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways." (Proverbs 14:14). Samson was like this. Let us not be like Samson. Samson's strength had great potential for God. Samson's failure was caused by his living for self.

Introduction: Samson had great potential and ability that could have been used for God's glory and other's benefit in a great way. Notice: a) He was born in answer to prayer (Judges 13:8,9).

b) He was a Nazarite (13:7). According to Numbers 6:1-6, the Nazarite was set apart for God and had three restrictions: i) Not to touch wine. ii) Not to cut his hair. iii) Not to touch a dead body.

Samson violated all three restrictions in Judges 14:8,9; 14:10; 16:19. Samson then had to learn the high cost of low living in 16:21. Samson represents the great potential for good of a believer yielded to God. The value of our life to the cause of Christ is what we do with God's Holy Spirit power resting on us.

I. Events of Samson's Life

The Philistines were oppressing Israel 40 years (13:1).

i) He was raised by Godly parents as a Nazarite (13:2-4).

ii) He killed a lion on the way to his wedding (14:1-7).

iii) He killed 30 Philistines to pay off a riddle that the Philistines deceitfully solved (14:19).

iv) Upon his wife being given to another man he burned the Philistines' fields (15:1-13).

v) He then killed 1000 attacking Philistine soldiers with the jawbone of an ass (15:14-20).

vi) He ripped the doors off an iron gate at Gaza City and carried them to the top of a hill (16:1-3).

vii) He was betrayed into the hands of the Philistines by a harlot called Delilah (16:4-20).

viii) He was shaved, blinded and enslaved (16:21,22).

ix) When his hair grew back, God empowered him to destroy many Philistines in their temple by toppling its two middle pillars (16:23-31). He was killed in the process. He judged Israel for 20 years.

II. Lessons from Samson's Life

1. God raises people to deliver others from bondage (13:5) & Christians to tell the lost how to be saved.

2. God wants parents to dedicate their children to Jesus Christ, and to bring them up in the fear of God to obey Him wholeheartedly (13:8-14).

3. It is wrong for Christians to commit fornication and to marry unbelievers (14:1-3).

4. God can turn bad situations to bring about His plans (14:4). We can entrust our difficulties to God.

5. Don't trust ungodly people to play fair (14:15). They have few moral boundaries & seared consciences

6. Samson failed to spend quality time with his wife, by leaving her and returning to his father's house. (14:19). In his absence her father gave her to Samson's friend (v.20). Communication is essential in marriage (14:20-15:2). He violated Ecclesiastes 9:9 "Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest..".

7. Control your anger. Samson burnt the Philistines' corn, vineyards & olive fields with 300 foxes 15:3-6

8. The Israelites were out of fellowship with God by delivering Samson to the Philistines. They should have supported him as their judge and deliverer (15:7-13). They did what was right in their own eyes.

9. The only time anything beneficial occurred in Samson's life was when the Spirit of the Lord came upon him (13:25; 14:6,19; 15:14). The same is true for us. We must be continually filled with the Holy Spirit and submit to His leading (Ephesians 5:18).

10. As God supplied Samson's need of water after killing 1000 enemy soldiers, so God will supply our needs as we serve Him (15:19).

11. Samson foolishly visited a harlot named Delilah. She destroyed one as strong as Samson (16:4-22). See Proverbs 6:26-35; 7:1-27; 9:13-18. "Many strong men have been slain by her." (Proverbs 7:26).

12. Some things need to be kept secret. "A fool uttereth all his mind: but a wise man keepeth it in till afterwards." (Proverbs 29:11). Samson should not have told her the secret of his strength.

13. If we continue in sin, we will lose God's power. Samson did not know that the Lord had departed from him and that he had lost God's power. The saddest verse in the Bible may be, "he wist not that the Lord was departed from him." (Judges 16:20).

14. Sin not confessed leads to God's discipline and to loss of privilege, as seen by Samson's loss of strength and eyesight (16:21).

15. God can still use us if we repent and get back into serving God, as Samson did (16:30).

16. Samson judged Israel 20 years (15:20). His death was premature. He should have served God 40 yr.

17. Samson started his life with the philosophy that God's ways were no fun, so he put himself first and cheated God. He wasn't aware that the cheater finally gets cheated of the best.

18. Manoah's prayer for unborn Samson should be the prayer of every parent for their children: "Teach us what we shall do unto the child that shall be born." (13:8). Do you pray this for your children?

Do you seek to train your children in God's ways? Samson's childhood is described in three ways.

a) The child grew. b) The Lord blessed him. c) The Spirit of the Lord began to move him.

A youth that is not moved by the Spirit of God is closed minded to God. A young person needs a vision of God's Holy Spirit using him to do great things for God. Parents, train your children to hear God's voice, & to follow the Holy Spirit's leading. Young people, are you obeying the Holy Spirit's leading?

19. Youth, as well as being a time of God consciousness, is also for young men a time of women consciousness. Young people must let God's Word choose a suitable marriage partner. He chose a wife based on physical appearance without considering her godliness (Prov. 31:30). Samson's wrong basis for choosing a mate was, "she pleaseth me well". (14:3). What about, "she pleaseth the Lord"? This never entered his mind. One reason for the success of the beauty industry is that men, in choosing a wife, use their eyes more than their brains. You marry a person's brain as well as their body. So it was with Samson ignoring his parents' advice to choose a Godly Jewish girl. Samson's will as a child had not been broken to submit to God and his parents' will. God spoke to Samson through his parents, but he refused to hear God's voice. He rejected God's perfect will for His life. He chose his own will. God permitted him to go astray in God's second best. Samson's parents failed to recognize God working His second best through Samson's disobedience (14:4). They lost sight of God still being in control.

20. Samson killing a young lion made him aware of his supernatural strength. This built his pride and ego, rather than the right response of humility and thanks to God. How do you handle success?

21. Samson failed to realize that women were his weak point. Your spouse's problems become your problems. What is your weak point in your spiritual life? What sin so easily besets you? Hebrews 12:1,2

22. The path of sin for Samson led downward from spiritual blindness to physical blindness to bondage and death. Similar consequences await those who choose to remain spiritually blind.

23. Samson only prayed when he was close to death (15:15-20; 16:27-31). "Pray without ceasing".

III. Samson's Life is Like Israel's History

1. As God's plan for Samson's life was revealed to his father Manoah before his birth, to be a Nazarite who would deliver Israel (13:1-14), so God promised Abraham before the birth of the nation Israel, that Israel would be separated to God, and through Israel would come the Deliverer. (Gen. 12:1-3; 17:1-22).

2. While Samson kept his Nazarite vow, he had miraculous power over his enemies. So Israel under Joshua was separated from sin, consecrated to God's work and had power over her enemies.

3. As Samson tempted God by his disobedience and sin, so Israel tempted God by their sin. Num. 14:22

4. As God's strength delivered Samson each time he was bound by his enemies, so God delivered Israel each time she was bound by her enemies. (Six times in Judges.)

5. As Samson exhausted God's patience by breaking his vows, God turned him over to judgment under the Philistines. So Israel exhausted God's patience and the nation was turned over to be judged by her enemies Assyria, Babylon, Rome, Islam and others.

6. When God departed from Samson, his enemies took him captive, blinded him, caused him to serve and mocked him (16:20,21). So God departed from Israel, allowing her to be led captive to other nations, blinded as to Jesus being the Messiah (Romans 11:25), being mocked as a proverb. Deut. 28:36

7. As Samson finally turns to God who hears his prayer and glorifies God; so Israel finally calls on Christ to save them (Zechariah 13:9), is saved as a nation (Romans 11:26,12), and is used to glorify God among the nations ("they shall declare my glory among the Gentiles." Isaiah 66:19).

Conclusion: Will you waste your God given talents like Samson in selfish pursuits, or will you be aware of God's calling on your life, the important job you need to do, and seek to obediently do God's work. Will you be a good example and a blessing to others or a disgrace and have regret at the end?

266. SEVEN NAMES OF GOD

Bible Reading: Genesis 1; Psalm 91:1,2.

Aim: To know God and to know ourselves.

Introduction: All teaching and preaching are to make us better know God and ourselves. For example, Peter did not know his own weakness when he boasted he'd never deny Christ.

Do we know and trust God as the Bible commands us? As Adam and Eve covered their nakedness with fig leaves, so modern man covers his disobedience with excuses.

Man has hard thoughts of God and high thoughts of himself. Pagan idols look unmoved at the destruction of man.

God has revealed Himself to man as 7 NAMES in Scripture:

1. ELOHIM (God)
2. JEHOVAH (LORD)
3. EL SHADDAI (Almighty)
4. EL ELYON (Most High)
5. ADONAI (Lord)
6. EL OLAM (Everlasting God)
7. JEHOVAH SABAOTH (LORD of Hosts)

Names 1 - 4 reveal what God is, the Rest, Refuge and Comfort of believers.

Psalms 91:1,2 reveals all 4 in one sentence: "He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High⁴ (EL ELYON) shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty³ (EL SHADDAI). I will say of the LORD² (JEHOVAH), He is my refuge and my fortress: my God¹ (ELOHIM): in him will I trust."

Note: No one name can fully express the fullness of God (Ephesians 3:19). Just as 4 gospels and 4 cherubim faces are needed to reveal Christ's various aspects and relations, so God cannot fully describe Himself under a single name or title.

Illustration:

- 1) To know David, we see him as a Shepherd, Warrior, King, Prophet, Poet and Musician.
- 2) To know God, we see His rich nature as: Creator, Judge, Saviour, Provider, Love, Power, Wisdom.
- 3) As white light consists of 7 colours, so God has 7 names. These are:

1. ELOHIM (God) = God in Covenant Love. This is a plural form of the Hebrew noun Eloah.

This is the only name God reveals to us in Genesis 1. This is God's name we must know before all others. Definition: God is a Spirit, infinite, eternal and unchangeable in his being, wisdom, power, holiness, justice, goodness and truth.

"God (Elohim) said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness." (Genesis 1:26).

Elohim, though a plural noun, when used of the one true God, it is constantly joined with singular verbs and adjectives (Genesis 1:1).

ELOHIM = I will be with them in covenant relationship. Examples include:

1. Noah: "Elohim said to Noah, the end of all flesh is come before me... but with thee will I establish my covenant." (Genesis 6:13,18; 9:9,17). "Elohim remembered Noah." (Genesis 8:1).
2. Abram: "I am the Almighty God; walk before me and be thou perfect: and I will make my covenant between me and thee...I will be their Elohim." (Gen. 17:1-8). I will be with them in covenant relationship. "When God destroyed the cities of the plain, God remembered Abraham." (Genesis 19:29).
3. Rachel: "Elohim remembered Rachel, and opened her womb." (Genesis 30:22). (Gen 26:2-4)
4. Isaac: "I am the Elohim of Abraham thy father: fear not for I am with thee and will bless thee."
5. Jacob: "I am the Lord God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac ... I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest.... I will not leave thee" (Genesis 28:13-15).
6. Joseph: "Elohim will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land." (Genesis 50:24).
7. Moses: "Elohim spake unto Moses, and said unto him, I am JHVH: I appeared,... I established my covenant...., I heard.... I have remembered my covenant. I will bring you out.... I will redeem you, I will be to you a God,... I will bring you unto the land,... I will give it you for an heritage." (Exodus 6:1-8)
8. David: "Why art thou cast down O my soul? ... hope thou in God." (Psalm 42:5,11). "The God of Israel said,... yet he hath made with me an everlasting covenant." (2 Samuel 23:1-3,5).

“Thou art my father, my God (v.26), my covenant shall stand fast with him (v.28), my covenant will I not break.” (v.34). (Psalm 89:26,28,34).

Key: Because God is “Elohim”, the “One who keepeth covenant” (1 Kings 8:23) this is the foundation of our hope in every extremity. “God is our refuge and strength. A very present help in trouble.” Psalm 46:1. “He hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.” (Hebrews 13:5).

Note: The law was needed to show man what God’s standard is, and to slay in man the fallen life of independence. (Galatians 3:15-18). Regarding the nation Israel who killed and rejected Christ: “God is able to graff them in again ... for this is my covenant with them, when I shall take away their sins.” (Romans 11:23-36). This is what Elohim means when he says he will be our God. “For this is the covenant that I will make with the House of Israel. I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts. I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people.” (Hebrews 8:10).

Key: Whenever “Elohim” appears in scripture, God reminds us of the riches of his unforsaking covenant love to us. Let us bless God who says, “I will be to you a God.” Let us live for God and say, “My Elohim, in Him will I trust.” (Psalm 91:2).

Conclusion: God remembers you. Do you remember God?

- 1) Psalm 105:5 Remember his marvellous works.
- 2) Eccles 12:1 Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth.
- 3) Song 1:4 We will remember thy love.
- 4) Luke 17:32 Remember Lot’s wife.
- 5) Acts 20:35 Remember the words of the Lord Jesus.
- 6) 1 Cor. 11:24 This do in remembrance of me.
- 7) Galatians 2:10 Remember the poor.
- 8) 2 Timothy 2:14 Of these things put them in remembrance.
- 9) 2 Timothy 3:8 Remember the Lord Jesus was raised from the dead.
- 10) Hebrews 13:3 Remember them that are in bonds.
- 11) Hebrews 13:7 Remember them that have the rule over you.
- 12) Revelation 2:5 Remember from whence thou art fallen.

2. JEHOVAH (LORD) = Jehovah is righteous. He must judge evil. This name includes:

i) Jehovah loves and requires righteousness and truth.

ii) Jehovah must judge evil, at whatever cost to the creature or creation.

iii) Jehovah is grieved and hurt by our sin.

iv) Jehovah’s righteousness is not complete if it only judges & condemns, for the devil also condemns. Jehovah’s righteousness seeks to make the sinner righteous.

Note: Elohim declares God is love. Jehovah presents God as truth and Righteousness. If a child rebels, or a friend deceives, or a spouse is unfaithful, this produces a breach of love, a separation and judging the evil. If you don’t separate from or judge evil, you condone the evil.

Definition: Jehovah is formed from two tenses of the Hebrew verb (Havah) “to be”, meaning “One who is what He is”, as God introduced Himself to Moses as “I AM THAT I AM”. (Exodus 3:13-15). Jehovah says, “Be holy, for I am holy” (Leviticus 11:44,45). Jehovah, being who he is, “Loves righteousness and hates iniquity” (Psalm 45:7), and finds all evil antagonistic to His nature, which because it is not true, must be opposed and judged.

Elohim (covenant love) is how God begins to reveal himself.

The Name “Jehovah” expresses God’s being as Just, Holy, True, Righteous and as Judging sin.

Key: a) Elohim is the general name of God concerned with the creation and preservation of the world. (Genesis 1 we see Elohim, not Jehovah).

As Jehovah, he is the God of Revelation to Israel.

b) Elohim is mentioned mostly in OT books of a universal audience, such as Daniel and Ecclesiastes. (Jehovah is mentioned in Daniel 9:2,4,10,13,14,20. Jehovah is not mentioned in Ecclesiastes, because it is a book of men living apart from God “under the sun”.)

Jehovah, on the other hand, is mostly mentioned in Israel’s strongly theocratic, historical books such as Joshua (170 x), Judges (134 x), Isaiah (366 x). Let us look at occurrences of God’s name Jehovah.

1. Jehovah first appears in Genesis 2:4-9, where the creation of man is seen.

Why? Because attributes of Jehovah were not manifested in creating the material world, but were only manifested when man was created. Man is at once put under a law to prove his love. God as Jehovah places man under moral obligations, under a law with a warning of punishment for disobedience.

“Thou shalt, and thou shalt not.” (Genesis 2:16-17).

“Jehovah God commanded the man saying, of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat; but of the tree of knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof, thou shalt surely die.” (Genesis 2:16,17).

Jehovah looks for righteousness by calling man’s attention to the difference of 2 trees in Eden, the tree of Life, and the tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil, which man was forbidden to eat from. This was a test of man’s love for God. Love is always tested by obedience to God’s laws.

2. The death penalty was imposed for blaspheming the name Jehovah: “he that blasphemeth the name of Jehovah, he shall surely be put to death.” (Leviticus 24:16).

3. In the whole sacrificial system, the object of approach is Jehovah, not Elohim. For example, a) In the sacrifices of Leviticus 1-7, Jehovah occurs 86 times, Elohim once.

b) In the Day of Atonement of Leviticus 16, Jehovah occurs 12 times, Elohim not at all.

4. In Genesis 3:1-5 when the Serpent and Eve discuss eating the forbidden fruit, neither mention the name Jehovah. They only refer to God as Elohim, the God of Covenant Love. Both omit Jehovah.

God as Jehovah pronounces judgment on Adam and Eve (Gen.3:8-24), sending them out of Eden (3:23).

5. God as Jehovah required a sacrifice from Cain and Abel (4:1-5).

God as Jehovah sought and judged Cain for killing Abel (4:6-16).

6. God as “Jehovah saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth (6:5).

Jehovah said, I will destroy man whom I have created.” (6:7).

7. God as Jehovah requires holiness in man. “I am Jehovah your God: Be ye holy, for I am holy: Neither shall ye defile yourselves (v.44). Make a difference between the unclean and the clean.” (v.47).

Question: Are you defiling yourself in some way?

(Leviticus 11:44,45.

Question: Do you make a difference between unclean and clean? Are you holy as God is holy?

8. God as Jehovah made a covenant of grace with Noah.

“But Noah found grace in the eyes of Jehovah.” (Genesis 6:8).

God as Elohim fellowshiped in covenant with Noah. “Noah walked with God (Elohim) (v.9). God said unto Noah (13). “Thus did Noah; according to all that God commanded him, so did he.” Gen 6:22.

9. God as Jehovah appears to Noah in the year of the Flood. “Jehovah said unto Noah, come ...” (7:1). “Jehovah shut him in.” (7:5).

God as Elohim remembered Noah during the flood, preserving him because of his covenant loving relationship. “God remembered Noah” (8:1). “God spake to Noah, saying, Go forth of the ark” 8:15,16.

10. God as Jehovah required Noah to build an altar to Jehovah (8:20). God as Jehovah smelt a sweet savour of Noah’s burnt offering on the altar (8:20-22). God as Elohim blessed Noah (9:1), established his covenant (9:8-11), remembered his covenant (9:15,16), and set a token of the covenant (9:13,17).

11. God as Jehovah came down to judge and scatter the disobedient people at Babel (11:1-9). “Jehovah came down to see...” (v.5).

12. God as Jehovah calls unsaved Abram out of Ur. (Genesis 12:1-5).

13. God as Jehovah plagues Pharaoh’s house for taking Abram’s wife Sarai (Genesis 12:17).

14. God as Jehovah appears to Abram aged 99, saying “walk before me and be thou perfect.” Gen 17:1.

God as Elohim spoke to Abram about his covenant. “God said, my covenant is with thee (v.3,4,9,15,19-27). I will be their God”. (v.8).

15. God as Jehovah appeared to Abram to discuss the judgment of Sodom & Gomorrah. 18:1,17,20-22,33

16. God as Jehovah appeared to Lot to rescue him from Sodom’s destruction (Genesis 19:13). “Jehovah hath sent us to destroy it.” (19:13). “Then Jehovah rained upon Sodom and Gomorrah brimstone and fire from Jehovah out of heaven.” (19:24).

God as Elohim remembered Abram and Lot after the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah. (Gen 19:29).

17. God as Jehovah had fast closed the wombs of Abimelech’s house (20:18).

God as Elohim healed Abimelech, his wife and his servants after Abraham prayed to Elohim (20:17).

18. God as Elohim commanded “two of every living thing were to be taken into the Ark” (Gen 6:19) to continue each species. God as Jehovah added the command, “Of every clean beast thou shalt take to thee by sevens.” (Genesis 7:2) because Jehovah the truth-requiring God looks for a blood sacrifice to cover sins. Hence, after the righteous judgment of the flood had purged the earth of its pollution, “of every clean beast, Noah offered burnt offerings to Jehovah.” (Genesis 8:20).

19. God as Jehovah loves righteousness, and requires his own likeness in his own people.

a) “Hear O Israel, Jehovah our Elohim is one Jehovah: and thou shalt love Jehovah thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.” (Deut 6:4,5). Jehovah wants us to love him as he loves us.

b) “The righteous Jehovah loveth righteousness; his countenance doth uphold the upright” (Psalm 11:7)

c) “Upon the wicked he (Jehovah) shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, & an horrible tempest.” Ps.11:6

d) “I, Jehovah thy God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generations of them that hate me, and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me and keep my commandments.” (Exodus 20:5).

20. God as Jehovah says, “I am Jehovah, I change not.” (Malachi 3:6). God as Jesus Christ says “Jesus Christ the same, yesterday and today and forever.” (Hebrews 13:8). Thus Jesus Christ is Jehovah.

21. It is never “Thus saith Elohim”, but “Thus saith Jehovah”.

Key: a) Because Jehovah is righteous, he must condemn evil.

b) After the law has done it’s work of condemnation, Jehovah says, “This is the covenant that I will make after those days, I will put my law into their mind and will write it in their hearts” Jeremiah 31:33

Conclusion: It is Jehovah who: 1) Pronounces judgment and metes out punishment

2) Expels man from Eden

3) Is of purer eyes than to behold evil (Habakkuk 1:13).

4) Pronounces destruction on the pre-flood world.

5) Rains fire and brimstone on Sodom and Gomorrah.

6) Is often angered by sinning Israel.

7) His soul was grieved for the misery of Israel (Judges 10:16).

8) In His holiness He must condemn. In love He seeks to redeem man back to fellowship with Himself.

9) Delivers Israel from Egyptian bondage – “I am Jehovah, I will bring you out.” (Exodus 6:6).

10) Is “a just God and a Saviour” (Isaiah 45:21).

11) Is Righteousness and Strength. (Isaiah 45:24).

3. EL SHADDAI (God Almighty) = the One who pours forth blessings to make us fruitful.

“El Shaddai” occurs 48 times in the Old Testament (31 times in Job, 6 in Genesis, 8 in Revelation).

Bible Reading: Genesis 17:1-27.

Aim: To be fruitful and blessed by El Shaddai by “walking before me and being perfect.” (Gen. 17:1).

Introduction: “Shaddai” means “Breasted”, as “Shad” (Hebrew) means “breast”, a “woman’s breast”. Nothing can quieten a crying, hungry, restless baby like it’s mother’s breast milk, by giving it nourishment and fresh life. So the Almighty God, by giving his self-sacrificing love to us can quieten, satisfy, supply, nourish and strengthen us as the breast does to a child. “El Shaddai” is the One mighty to nourish, satisfy, supply and pour out blessings to us. “El Shaddai” the “pouder forth” gives His life and His Spirit to His receptive creatures, saying, “Come unto me and drink” (John 7:37), and “Open thy mouth wide and I will fill it.” (Psalm 81:10). This makes us fruitful.

Paul prays “That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God.” (Colossians 1:10). God wants us to be fruitful for him. Are you bearing fruit? When “El Shaddai” is mentioned, fruitfulness is discussed, as seen below:

1. When Jehovah God first made himself known to Abram as “Almighty God” (El Shaddai) with the command “walk before me and be thou perfect”, He changed his name from fruitless Abram to fruitful Abraham, the “father of many nations” (Gen. 17:5). By adding the Hebrew letter “He” (ה), the chief letter of his own name, Jehovah or JHVH, the sound which can only be uttered by an out-breathing, thus giving his children something of his own nature. The same letter was added to change “Sarai” to “Sarah” (Gen. 17:15,16). Abraham yielded himself to God in circumcision and in sacrificing Isaac to

God. Thus, God gives Himself to us, as we give ourselves to Him. By God giving Himself and His life to us, this can make us like Himself, givers of ourselves and our lives to Him, then by Him to others.

First Mention: El Shaddai first appears in Genesis 17:1,2 to confirm the promise to Abram to make him a great nation, to multiply him exceedingly (17:20) and to make him exceedingly fruitful (17:6).

Genesis 17:1,2 “When Abram was 99 years old, Jehovah appeared to Abram, and said unto him, I am the Almighty God (El Shaddai): walk before me, and be thou perfect. And I will make my covenant between me and thee, and will multiply thee exceedingly.” (v.2). See v.3-8. God here changed Abram’s name to Abraham (father of many nations, 17:5), saying “I will make thee exceedingly fruitful” (v.10).

2. When Jacob flees to Padan-Aram to seek a wife, Isaac says: “God Almighty bless thee, and make thee fruitful, and multiply thee.” (Genesis 28:3, v.1-4). God wants to bless us and multiply us also.

3. To Jacob returning to Bethel, God Almighty (El Shaddai) says: “I am God Almighty; be fruitful and multiply ...” (Genesis 35:11-15).

4. Jacob by the Almighty blesses Joseph: “Joseph is a fruitful bough,...by the Almighty who shall bless thee with blessings of heaven above,...blessings of the breasts and of the womb.” (Genesis 49:22,25).

Note: “Almighty” is always linked with gain or loss of fruit or fruitfulness.

5. God compares Israel’s future blessings in the Millennium with blessings of the breast:

“Thou shalt also suck the milk of the nations, and shalt suck the breasts of Kings.” (Isaiah 60:16).

6. God’s Millennial blessings will be poured out through Christ ruling on earth with Israel:

“Rejoice ye with Jerusalem (v.10) ... all ye that love her:... that ye may suck, and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations; that ye may milk out (v.11). I will extend peace to her like a river, then shall ye suck (v.12). As one whom his mother comforteth; so will I comfort you.” (v.13). (Isaiah 66:10-13).

“Shad” is the Hebrew word for “breast” from which comes “Shaddai”, God’s name translated as Almighty.

7. When Balaam blessed Israel in the wilderness, he said: “Which saw the vision of the Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open (v.4)... His seed shall be in many waters, and his King shall be higher than Agag, and his kingdom shall be exalted.” (v.7). (Numbers 24:1-9).

Sometimes “El Shaddai” (Almighty God) is used in the context of judging, chastening, purging so one can bring forth more fruit. “Every branch that beareth fruit he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.” (John 15:2). Examples include:

8. Naomi twice speaks of her loss of husband, home and two sons as afflictions from the Almighty: “The Almighty hath dealt very bitterly with me”. “The Almighty hath afflicted me.” (Ruth 1:20,21).

9. In Job, “El Shaddai” is used 31 times to show how a “perfect and upright man”, by suffering is purged from imperfections to bear greater fruit (Job 42:10-17), is made an instrument to silence Satan, and to intercede for those who condemned him.

Job’s 3 comforters mention the “Almighty” as proof that Job’s troubles are judgment for his sins, because “Shaddai”, the “pouder forth” of blessings would surely bless the upright. Hence they thought Job must be an evil doer.

Neither Eliphaz (speaking of God’s power), Bildad (of God’s justice) or Zophar (of God’s wisdom) have any idea how God permits his saints to suffer to silence the accuser. Job needed to be emptied to be better filled. “God Almighty” having emptied Job, filled him with double blessings. Hence, let us “despise not the chastening of the Almighty” (Job 5:17).

10. After commanding believers to “come out from among them, be ye separate, ... touch not the unclean thing;” (2 Cor. 6:17) the Almighty promises, “I will receive you and will be a father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.” (2 Corinthians 6:18).

11. Introducing the New Jerusalem blessings, we read: “The Lord God Almighty, and the Lamb are the temple of it.” (Revelation 21:22).

Conclusion: The name “Almighty God” (El Shaddai) speaks to us of:

1) God’s sacrificial love pouring itself out for others to bless us and make us fruitful.

2) God’s strength and sufficiency is most manifest in our weakness and insufficiency, so that from us may flow rivers of living water to thirsty and needy mankind. Shall we not bless God for these and continually “abide under the shadow of the Almighty”. (Psalm 91:1,2).

4. JEHOVAH SABAOTH (LORD of Hosts)

Bible Reading: Psalm 84:1-12.

Aim: To see that the LORD of Hosts waits on us to comfort, guide, protect and minister to us.

This name of God is only known in the failures of Israel. It is never found in the books of Moses, Joshua, Judges, Job, Proverbs and Ecclesiastes. It occurs mostly in the Prophets who most keenly felt Israel's failure. It occurs in Jeremiah (80 times), Haggai (14 x), Zechariah (50 x) and Malachi (25 x).

Key: The "LORD of Hosts" uses His hosts for the correction and deliverance of His people, and to punish His adversaries. He punishes His people for their unfaithfulness, then punishes their adversaries to bring them full deliverance.

First Mention: It is when Israel has failed, (not in Egypt or the Wilderness) but in the Promised Land, that the name "Jehovah Sabaoth" (LORD of Hosts) is first seen. When Israel is divided, and in peril of being led captive out of the land, this is the name that the prophets turn to for comfort and deliverance, when there is no other helper. Let us see how this name is used:

1. Hannah, a suffering, barren woman first trusts in this name. (I Samuel 1:1-3,10,11).

The LORD of Hosts gives her a son, Samuel who later delivered Israel.

2. Israel's army uses this name hoping to avoid being smitten by the Philistines. (I Samuel 4:1-4).

3. Saul was commanded by the LORD of Hosts to smite Amalek who had attacked Israel when they journeyed through the wilderness (I Samuel 15:1-3a). Through Saul's failure, God raised up David to deliver Israel from the Philistines.

4. David came to Goliath in the name of the LORD of Hosts whom he had defied. (I Samuel 17:45). Jehovah Sabaoth used David to judge Goliath and deliver Israel from the Philistines.

Key: With the prophets, the "LORD of Hosts" is the "God of Heaven" and of the "hosts of heaven", through whom He can fulfil His will, though men on earth rebel and turn from Him.

These 2 titles are equivalent.

5. Elijah, living in the days of Ahab and Jezebel said, "As the LORD of Hosts liveth, before whom I stand" (I Kings 18:15) in a famine brought by Ahab's and Jezebel's wickedness. Elijah then defeated and killed the 850 false prophets of Baal. God then brought rain and deliverance to Israel.

Jezebel threatened to kill Elijah, so he ran into the wilderness, sat under a Juniper tree, and requested to die (I Kings 19:4). An angel of the LORD of Hosts ministered to the distraught Elijah, feeding him with cakes and water to strengthen him (I Kings 19:5-10).

6. Isaiah, living in the days of wicked King Ahaz "who walked after the abominations of the heathen", until Judah was smitten and led captive into Damascus (2 Chronicles 28:1-5), so that "the daughter of Zion was left as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, and as a besieged city" (Isaiah 1:7-9). Isaiah turns to the name of the LORD of Hosts for comfort, saying, "Except the Lord of Hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah". (Isaiah 1:9).

7. Isaiah, while mourning the death of godly king Uzziah, was comforted by a vision of the LORD of Hosts who was stronger than the earthly king who had just died, who was worshipped as "Holy, Holy, Holy, is the LORD of Hosts:.....mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of Hosts". (Isaiah 6:1-5).

8. Judah, when sieged by the confederated kings of Israel and Syria, "the heart of the people was moved as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind" (7:12). The Lord said, "Say not, a confederacy, neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid, but sanctify the LORD of Hosts himself, and let him be your fear...And he shall be for a sanctuary (Isaiah 8:11-14). The zeal of the LORD of Hosts will perform this" (Isaiah 9:7).

It is the "LORD of Hosts" who punishes His people for their unfaithfulness (Isa. 9:13,19), who later smites their adversary, bringing help and full deliverance. (Isaiah 10:12,24-27).

9. Jeremiah, in the destruction of Jerusalem uses "LORD of Hosts" 80 times. When God's people are captive and have no might to help themselves, "LORD of Hosts" is most often repeated by the prophets for their comfort. "Thus saith the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place". (Jeremiah 7:3).

10. Haggai constantly repeats the name of the "LORD of Hosts" to exhort the little remnant who have returned to Jerusalem from Babylon to build the house of the LORD. (Haggai 2:4-9,23).

11. Malachi complains at Israel's growing corruption (Malachi 3:13-15). But a little remnant shall "fear him, and think upon His name. They shall be mine, saith the LORD of Hosts, in the day when I make up my jewels, and I will spare them as a man spareth his own son that serveth him". (Malachi 3:16,17).

12. David, when tempted to number his army to count how strong he was, found 800,000 swordsmen of Israel and 500,000 men of Judah. (I Chronicles 21:1-16).

Question: Was not David stronger, unaided and alone, when he replied to the taunt of Goliath, by "the name of the LORD of Hosts", than he was later with 1,300,000 valiant swordsmen? The Lord's answer to David's sin of numbering Israel, is to show His host. "God sent an angel,... destroying throughout the coasts of Israel...70,000 men." (I Chronicles 21:14-16).

13. Micaiah the prophet, when Ahab and Jehoshaphat joined to attack Ramoth-gilead, saw another host "And Micaiah said, I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, and all the host of heaven standing by Him, on His right hand and on His left". (I Kings 22:19-22,34). Of this host "a spirit went forth", and in spite of all the hosts of Israel, by this spirit, Ahab is deceived and drawn to his destruction.

"A certain man drew a bow at a venture, and smote the King of Israel between the joints of his harness." (I Kings 22:19-22,34). A chance shot, as men speak, silently accomplishes God's judgment, but rather it was an angel of the LORD's host directing the arrow.

14. Elisha the prophet warned the King of Israel where the King of Syria was to attack (2 Kings 6:8-23,17). This led the Syrian King to send his army to capture Elisha at Dothan. Elisha's servant was greatly troubled when he saw the great Syrian host surrounding the city, so he asked "How shall we do?" (v.15). Elisha's famous reply is great comfort to all God's people ever since, "Fear not; for they that be with us are more than they that be with them (v.16). The LORD opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: behold the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha" (17). By the hosts of the LORD, the prophet is delivered. "The bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel". (6:23). The host of the LORD was revealed to comfort and deliver from the host of the enemy.

15. Hezekiah and Isaiah, when the King of Assyria sent Rabshakeh with a great host against Jerusalem in 710BC, prayed to the LORD for deliverance (2 Kings 19:14-19). The LORD of Hosts replied, promising deliverance (19:20-35), "I will put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back (v.28)...the zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this." (v.31). That night, the angel of the LORD went out, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians 185,000: and when they arose in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses". (v.35). One angel of the host of the LORD was greater than the 185,000 host of the Assyrians. God's host have always been serving God's people.

16. Jacob, when returning in fear to Esau, "the angels of God met him" (Genesis 32:1,2). He said "This is God's host". So it is when there is real need. "The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them." (Psalm 34:7).

17. New Testament interventions of the host of the LORD, constantly appear to supply needs or avert danger. The angel of the LORD appeared to Joseph (Matthew 1:20), Zechariah (Luke 1:13,19), Mary (Luke 1:26,30), Shepherds (Luke 2:9,10,13). These heavenly hosts wait on us continually. "Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister to them who shall be heirs of salvation?" (Hebrews 1:14). Their ceaseless ministry to Christ is the pattern of our ministry to Christ. This name, LORD of Hosts reveals that God's help is always near. Thanks to God that the LORD of Hosts is with us. There are angels of the churches, angels bound in the river Euphrates, angels ministered to Peter in prison, guiding Philip in the desert, keeping Paul safe in the storm, revealing scripture to John on Patmos. Cries of suffering saints enter into the ears of the LORD of Sabaoth (James 4:4). "The cries of them which have reaped are entered into the LORD of Sabaoth." (James 4:4). Their injustices shall be righted, if not by man, yet by the LORD of Hosts. All of us are called to know how near He is, and how near are His unseen Hosts to do His pleasure and minister to us.

5. ADONAI (Lord and Master). Our Encourager, Confidence, Helper and Strength.

Bible Reading: Genesis 15.

Elohim (His unchanging love), Jehovah (His Righteousness and truth), El Shaddai (giver and pourer out of himself to others), El Elyon (though Most High he is of kindred nature with us) reveal perfections of God's nature.

Adonai, El Olam, Jehovah Sabaoth reveal God's relationships to men, angels or dispensations through which He works His purposes.

"Adonai" is first found in Abram's address to God:

a) After giving tithes to Melchisedek, the word of Jehovah came unto Abram in a vision, saying, "Fear not, Abram: I am thy shield, and thy exceeding great reward. And Abram said, Lord GOD (Adonai Jehovah), what will thou give me, seeing I go childless?" (Genesis 15:1,2).

b) Jehovah said: "I am Jehovah that brought thee out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give thee this land to inherit it. And he said Lord GOD (Adonai Jehovah), whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it?" (Genesis 15:7,8).

c) Abram when interceding for Sodom uses this name to address God, "Oh let not the Lord be angry" (Genesis 18:30,32). "I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord." (Genesis 18:27,31).

d) All of God's servants use this name.

Question: What does this name, Adonai, reveal?

Answer: "Adonai" is the plural of "Adon" (in Hebrew) meaning "lord" or "master".

Note: When applied to men, it expresses the relationships of a master to his servant, (Genesis 24:9,10, 12,14,27,35; Judges 19:11), as well as that of a husband to his wife (Genesis 18:12; Judges 19:27; I Kings 1:17,18; Psalm 45:11; 1 Peter 3:16).

Key: The title "ADON" (Lord) meaning "master" or "husband" expressed a personal relationship, involving rights of lordship and possession.

ADONAI is plural possessive when referring to God and means "my Lords". This confirms God as a Trinity, as seen in Elohim being plural as well. Used of men, it is always in the singular form "ADON" (Hebrew). Only of God is it in the plural, as seen from Psalm 110:1 "Jehovah said unto my Lord (Adonai) sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool" (Psalm 110:1).

The Lord Jesus refers this passage to Himself in Matthew 22:41-45.

Peter refers this passage to the Lord Jesus in Acts 2:34,35.

Paul refers this passage to the Lord Jesus in Hebrews 1:13 and 10:12,13.

Key: David speaking of one member of the Trinity, uses not the plural "ADONAI", but the singular form "ADONI".

"Jehovah said unto my ADONI" refers to Christ the second person of the Trinity.

ADONAI (Lord) signifies ownership or mastership. God is the owner of each member of the human family, and He thus claims total obedience of all of us.

"Behold, the fear of the Lord (Adonai), that is wisdom". (Job 28:28).

The use of Adonai in the OT reveals what God expects of us as His servants. See how Adonai is used:

I. The slave and wife were not their own, but belonged to their Lord (voluntarily or involuntarily).

Slave and wife were subject to their Lord, where faithfulness received honour and reward, while unfaithfulness received just judgment.

Hence, the name "Adonai" (Lord) teaches that as servants submit to their lord, & wives submit to their husbands, so man submits to God, with dependence on God and faith in God's faithfulness as Lord to sustain, keep and help us. Mutual submission to God and each other is the key to a good marriage.

Jesus Christ claims this title of God for Himself, "If I then your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet." (John 13:14).

Note: Islam has little concept of God as a servant, but as a dictator. Hence most Muslim countries are ruled by dictators. Contrast this with many Christian countries being democracies where leaders serve.

The church is the church because it acknowledges a relationship with God (John 17:3).

The world is the world because it denies a relationship with God ("I never knew you" Matthew 7:23; Jeremiah 9:24; 24:7; 31:34), it denies knowing God, and acts in independence of God.

The world's way is to do as it likes, think as it likes, speak as it likes, without regard to God's will.

i) They do according to their own will (Daniel 8:4; 11:3,16,36).

ii) They live as if they are their own.

iii) They see obedience to God as degrading.

iv) They speak as if they are their own. "Our lips are our own: who is lord over us?" (Psalm 12:4).

God's saints own Christ as their Lord ("no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the H.Ghost" 1 Cor. 12:3)

i) All saints say: "Lord, what wilt thou have me to do?" (Acts 9:6).

ii) All saints say with Christ our Lord: "I come to do thy will, O God." (Hebrews 10:9).

II. Believers as servants, in trials, turn to their master to lift their burdens:

1) When Abram first met God as Adonai, he had two burdens. A seed and an inheritance had been promised him, and years had passed, yet he was still childless and without the promised land.

Because Adonai cannot fail, he says, "Lord (Adonai) God, what wilt thou give me?" (Genesis 15:2) and "Lord (Adonai) God, whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it?" (15:8).

God answers his prayer by a vision promising him land from the river of Egypt to the Euphrates (15:18) and seed as many as the stars of heaven (15:5).

Abram addressed Jehovah as Adonai Jehovah (Lord GOD) in Genesis 15:2, acknowledging God's complete possession and perfect right to all he was and had.

Lordship meant complete ownership and submission. The purchased slave belonged to the master's family, was permitted to eat the passover meal, but a hired servant could not (Ex. 12:43-45; Lev.22:10,11).

2) Moses, when called to deliver Israel, said:

"O my Lord (Adonai) I am not eloquent....

And the LORD (Jehovah) said unto him, who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? Have not I, the LORD? Now therefore go, and I will be with thy mouth, and will teach thee what thou shalt say." (Exodus 4:10-12).

3) Joshua, when appointed to lead Israel into Canaan, and they are smitten by the men of Ai, turns to Adonai, saying (7:8), "O Lord (Adonai), what shall I say, when Israel turneth their backs before their enemies?" God directs Joshua how to discover the hidden "accursed thing" that caused Israel's defeat.

4) Gideon, when called to deliver Israel from the Midianites, answers, "O my Lord (Adonai), why is all this befallen us?" (Judges 6:13), and "Oh my Lord (Adonai), wherewith shall I save Israel? Behold, my family is poor in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house." (Judges 6:15).

God strengthens him, saying, "Surely I will be with thee: go in this thy might: have not I sent thee?" (Judges 6:14). The servant's strength is in Adonai.

5) Manoah, when childless, entreated Jehovah and said: "O my Lord (Adonai) let the man of Godcome again unto us and teach us what we shall do unto the child that shall be born". Judges 13:8.

6) Samson, when blinded and bound, called unto Jehovah, and said, "O Lord GOD (Adonai Jehovah), remember me, I pray thee, and strengthen me, I pray thee." (Judges 16:28).

7) David's prayer, "Who am I, O Lord GOD (Adonai Jehovah)? And what is my house?" (2 Samuel 7:18,19,20,28,29). David, when so greatly tried, confesses the name "Adonai" as his encouragement and hope in every weakness. (Psalm 8:1; 25:23 (My God and my Lord); "make haste to help me O Lord" (38:9,15,22); "Lord, my hope is in thee" (39:7); "I am poor and needy; yet the Lord thinketh upon me" (Psalm 40:17); "O Lord, open thou my lips" (51:15).

8) Daniel's prayer for Jerusalem's restoration: "I set my face unto the Lord God (Adonai Elohim) to seek by prayer and supplication with fasting and sackcloth and ashes" (Dan. 9:3-14). Adonai granted Daniel the 70th week prophecy in answer to his prayer. "Hear the prayer of thy servant" (Daniel 9:17).

9) Jeremiah, lacking self confidence when God called him said:

"Ah, Lord God! (Adonai Jehovah), behold, I cannot speak: for I am a child (Jeremiah 1:6).

But Jehovah said unto me, say not I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee... be not afraid of their faces: for I am with thee to deliver thee. (v.8)

Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth." (v.9).

Key: All these men confessed Adonai as their encouragement and hope in every weakness.

10) Isaiah's vision of Adonai and how Seraphim worshipped him, moved him in his darkness following King Uzziah's death, to say in response to God's call "Here am I. Send me." (Isaiah 6:8). "In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord (Adonai) sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up" (Isaiah 6:1).

The Seraphim's coal placed on his mouth imparted new power and purged away his sin (6:6,7). With such a Lord and his help, along with angelic hosts to serve God's servants, Isaiah received confidence to speak the Lord's message, no matter what the cost.

11) Ezekiel, living in evil days, when Israel was a rebellious house, in Babylonian captivity, saw visions of God on a throne (1:26-28). Adonai called Ezekiel, "Thus saith the Lord GOD (Adonai Jehovah) (2:4), be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words (2:6).. thou shalt speak my words unto them". (Ezekiel 2:7).

12) God's messages to Israel (Ezekiel 2:4-8), Ammon (Ezekiel 25:1-3), Moab (25:8-11), Edom (25:12-14), Philistines (25:15-17), Tyre (26:1-3), Egypt (29:1-3), Mt. Seir (35:1-3) and Meshech and Tubal (38:1-3) are prefaced by His title "the Lord (Adonai) God" occurring over 200 times in Ezekiel.

13) When our Lord Jesus Christ became flesh, and "took the form of a servant" (Phil. 2:7) service was seen as honourable and blessed. Till then, so deeply had men fallen, that all service was counted as a disgrace and as a badge of inferiority.

God was serving all; feeding the birds, clothing lilies, opening His hand to satisfy the desire of every living thing (Psalm 145:16; Luke 12:24,27), yet man did not understand God as a servant.

So the Lord of all revealed Himself in the service of His father, saying,

"Behold my servant, whom I uphold... A bruised reed shall he not break" (Isaiah 42:1-4; Matt. 12:17-20). "Behold my servant, shall deal prudently. His visage was so marred more than any man." Is.52:13-53:12. Christ was among us as one that serveth (Luke 22:27) revealing the blessedness of subjection to our heavenly Lord, which gives man the master he needs to "uphold and put His Spirit on us", but shows selfish fallen man how to rule and govern, by serving others. None have spoken of service like our Lord Jesus Christ. "The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his Lord: it is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his Lord." (Matthew 10:24,25).

"Whosoever therefore will be great among you, let him be your minister, and whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant, even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many". (Matthew 20:26-28).

"Blessed are those servants, whom the Lord when he cometh shall find watching. Verily I say unto you, that He shall gird Himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them". (Luke 12:37).

Paul said, "His I am and Him I serve." (Acts 27:23).

Christ will approve our faithful service: "Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord." (Matthew 25:21,23).

Conclusion: The writer of Psalm 77:7-11 found help and comfort in the names of God:

1) "Will the Lord (Adonai, my Lord and Husband) cast off forever? Will he be favourable no more? (v.7) Is his mercy clean gone forever? Doth his promise fail forever more? (v.8).

2) Hath God (Elohim, who is in covenant love with me) forgotten to be gracious? Hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies? Selah. (v.9).

3) And I said, this is my infirmity: but I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most High (El Elvon, we are His offspring). (v.10).

4) I will remember the works of the LORD (Jehovah, the righteous One, who gives Himself to be our righteousness); surely I will remember thy wonders of old". (v.11). Psalm 77:7-11.

We only, truly know God as we obey Him. They who know God's Names will put their trust in Him, and shall never be confounded.

267. Tempting God Ten Times. “All those men...have tempted me now these ten times.” Numbers 14:22

Bible Reading: Numbers 14:22-25; 1-45.

Aim: To see 10 ways Israel tempted God in the wilderness, so that we do not tempt God.

Introduction: Ten is the number of completeness. Israel in the wilderness tempted God 10 times, setting forth their complete failure and weakness. Notice other occurrences of the number ten:

- 1) The woman losing 1 of 10 pieces of silver marred the completeness of her marriage (Luke 15:8).
- 2) 10 toes of Nebuchadnezzar’s statue show the completion of gentile world kingdoms. Daniel 2:40-45.
- 3) 10 plagues on Egypt show Jehovah’s complete victory over Egypt’s false gods. (Exodus 7-12).
- 4) 10 commandments show man’s complete failure to keep God’s law (Exodus 20; Galatians 3:24,25).
- 5) The 10 servants being entrusted with 10 pounds reveal man’s complete accountability to God. The faithful servants ruling 10 cities teach the complete joy resulting from faithfulness to God now. (Luke 19:11-26). God greatly rewards Christians who faithfully serve God through all of life’s trials.

Question: How do we react to trials? Do we tempt God as Israel did, or do we walk by faith, patience and the fruit of the Spirit?

Israel tempted God’s goodness 10 times, due to wrongly reacting to problems.

Consider the 10 times Israel tempted God in the wilderness and see what their sins and solutions were:

1st Temptation: At the Red Sea when Israel despaired of being delivered (Exodus 14:10-15).

- a) Their sin. They: i) Accused Moses of trying to kill them.
ii) Reminded Moses that they’d prefer to serve the Egyptians than to follow God into the wilderness when things got difficult.
- b) Their solution (v.13,14). i) Fear not.
ii) Stand still – don’t panic but trust God.
iii) See the salvation of the LORD - wait and see what God will do for you.
iv) The LORD shall fight for you.
v) Ye shall hold your peace – don’t complain.
- c) The Result (v.29-31). Israel: i) Saw the LORD work. ii) Feared the LORD. iii) Believed the LORD.

2nd Temptation: At Marah when Israel murmured because of bitter waters (Exodus 15:22-27).

Lesson: Don’t complain when bitter experiences come, but look to Christ for deliverance.

- a) Their sin (v.24). Murmuring = continual complaining.
- b) Their solution (v.25). i) The Lord showed them a tree (the cross).
ii) The branch (Christ) of the tree (the cross) when cast into our Marah’s (bitter experiences) brings victory. Lesson: Look to Christ during trials, reckon ourselves dead to sin and alive to God.
- c) Their result: i) God proved them (v.25). See trials as tests to prove us and make us better people.
ii) God promised if they obeyed God, he would “put none of these diseases upon thee”. (v.26).
iii) God’s personal name was revealed as Jehovah Rapha, “I am the LORD that healeth thee.” (v.26). God can heal bitterness, which is a cause of disease.
iv) God’s rest after a test, or blessing after trials (v.27). “They came to Elim, where were 12 wells of water and 70 palm trees.” (Exodus 15:27).

3rd Temptation: In the Wilderness of Sin when Israel murmured because of hunger (Exodus 16:1-5)

a) Their Sin: Hunger was the cause of their murmuring (16:2,3).

b) Their Solution (16:4).

- i) God’s provision, “I will rain bread from heaven for you.” (Exodus 16:4).
“I am the living bread which came down from heaven.” (John 6:47-51).
 - ii) God proved them whether they would walk in God’s law (v.4).
 - iii) God provided double on the day before the Sabbath so they would not lack due to honouring God.
- c) Their result:
- i) They disobeyed God in keeping manna till the next day when it bred worms (Exodus 16:19,20).
 - ii) God gave them the Sabbath day (16:23-26).
 - iii) Some disobediently gathered on the Sabbath (16:27,28).

4th Temptation: At Rephidim when Israel chided Moses because they had no water (Exodus 17:1-7).

a) Their Sin. Because they had no water they chided (scold, rebuke, find fault), murmured against Moses & were ready to stone him. Instead of humbly praying to God, they blamed Moses (17:1-14).

Question: When things go wrong, do we blame others or do we accept it from God for our betterment?

Note: Christ is Jehovah God because Israel tempting Jehovah (Exodus 17:2) is the same as tempting Christ (“Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted and were destroyed.” I Cor 10:9)

b) Their Solution: Jehovah stood on the rock in Horeb. Moses struck it. Water gushed out to quench their thirst (17:6). This pictures Christ being struck on the cross to pay for our sins (“We did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted”. Isaiah 53:4), so we could have the living water of salvation promised to the woman at the well (John 4:10-15). “Whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely” (Rev. 22:17). “If any man thirst, let him come unto me and drink” (John 7:37).

c) Their Result: Moses called the place Massah (testing, trial) and Meribah (quarrel, provocation, strife) because they chided and tempted the LORD saying, “Is the LORD among us or not?” (17:7). This was a foolish question because they had seen God work many wonders, but forgot them. Jews committed the same sin 1500 years later of doubting God’s presence by asking Jesus, “What sign showest thou then, that we may see and believe thee?” (John 6:30,31).

Lesson: Remember God’s past answers to prayers.

5th Temptation: At Sinai when Israel became impatient because of Moses’ delay (Exodus 32:1-35).

a) Their Sin. i) They gave in to impatience at Moses’ delay to come down from Mt Sinai with the Law.
ii) Aaron made a golden calf for the Israelites to worship (32:1-6).

b) Their Solution: i) God would have destroyed them except for Moses’ intercession that God had brought Israel out of Egypt, what would the Egyptians say if God killed them, and remember Your promises to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob to multiply Israel. (32:11-14).

ii) Moses burnt the calf and ground it to powder (32:15-20).

iii) Moses asked, “Who is on the LORD’s side?” (32:26). The Levites came forward and killed 3000 men (32:26-28). Contrast this with 3000 being saved at Pentecost in the Age of Grace (Acts 2:41).

iv) The Lord plagued the people because they made the calf. (32:35).

c) Their Result: i) JHVH sent His angel (messenger) before them (32:34).

ii) The LORD gave Moses a new copy of the 10 commandments that Moses broke (34:1-4), and a covenant (34:10).

Lesson: Rest in the Lord, wait patiently for him. fret not thyself in any wise to do evil.” (Psalm 37:7,8).

6th Temptation: Wilfulness of Nadab and Abihu in offering strange fire (Leviticus 10:1-10). (Part II)

a) Their sin. i) Nadab and Abihu, (Aaron’s sons) offered strange fire before the LORD which He commanded them not. (Leviticus 10:1).

ii) They may have been drunk at the time (Leviticus 10:8-10).

iii) They acted impulsively without awaiting the voice of God.

b) Their solution: i) JHVH sent fire to devour them (10:2).

ii) JHVH said, “I will be sanctified in them that come near me, & before all the people I will be glorified.” 10:3.

iii) Command Aaron “Do not drink wine nor strong drink, ..when ye go into the tabernacle.” (10:8,9).

iv) Put a difference between the holy and unholy, and between unclean and clean. (Leviticus 10:10).

7th Temptation: At Taberah, Israel complained loudly (Numbers 11:1-3).

a) Their Sin. Israel complained. This displeased the LORD who sent fire which consumed those in the uttermost part of the camp. (Numbers 11:1).

b) Their Solution: They cried to Moses. Moses prayed to JHVH and the fire was quenched (11:2).

c) Their Result: Moses called the place Taberah meaning “a burning” to remind Israel that their sin of complaining displeased God and brings judgment. (11:3).

8th Temptation: At Kibroth-Hattaavah (graves of lust), Israel lusted for flesh. Numbers 11:4-9,31-35

- a) Their Sin: i) The mixed multitude lusted for flesh to eat. “Who shall give us flesh to eat?” (11:4).
ii) Their hearts were back in Egypt. “We remember the fish, which we did eat in Egypt freely; the cucumbers, melons, leeks, onions and garlic.” (11:5). They remembered the good in Egypt, but not the bad taskmasters, whips and hard labour. They did not remember God’s wonders and provision.
iii) They were ungrateful for the manna God gave them (11:6).
- b) Their Solution: i) The LORD appointed 70 elders to share Moses’ workload (11:16-25).
ii) The LORD sent quails to eat for one month (11:20,31-32).
“he that gathered least gathered 10 homers” (860 gallons). (11:32).
- c) Their Result: i) The quails became rotten, the LORD smote the people with a very great plague, and they buried the people that lusted (11:33,34).
ii) God taught them thankfulness, and that lusting leads to death. “Having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.” (2 Peter 1:4; James 1:15).

9th Temptation: At Hazereth, Miriam and Aaron usurped Moses’ authority. (Numbers 11:35 12:16).

- a) Their Sin: i) Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses. (12:1).
ii) They usurped Moses’ authority claiming the LORD spake by them also. (12:2).
- b) Their Solution:
i) The LORD came and stood in the door of the tabernacle to defend Moses’ meekness. (12:3-8).
ii) The LORD being angry against Miriam and Aaron, smote Miriam with leprosy.
She was shut out of the camp for seven days after which she was received in again (12:9-16).
- c) Their Result: i) The sin of rebellion slows down God’s work.
ii) Israel learned that God hates rebellion against authority. “But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.” (I Timothy 2:12). See I Samuel 15:23.

10th Temptation: At Kadesh-Barnea, Israel disbelieved God could conquer Canaan. Numbers 13,14.

- a) Their sin: i) Their unbelief that the LORD could bring them into Canaan, sealed their doom (13:31).
ii) 10 of the 12 spies brought an evil report of the land. They had a grasshopper complex (13:32,33).
iii) They all murmured against Moses and Aaron.
iv) They all requested God to die in Egypt or in the wilderness (14:2).
v) They accused JHVH of endangering their wives and children by bringing them into the land (14:3)
iv) They rebelled saying, “Let us make a captain, and let us return into Egypt.” (14:4).
- b) Their solution:
i) Joshua and Caleb told them not to rebel because JHVH was with them & would bring them in (6-9)
ii) JHVH intended to destroy them all, but Moses successfully interceded to spare them (14:10-21).
iii) JHVH reminds them that this is the tenth time they tempted God and ignored His voice (14:22).
iv) JHVH forbids those over 20 years from entering the land. After wandering 40 years in the wilderness, their children under 20 years would enter the land under Joshua and Caleb. (14:23-35).
v) JHVH killed the 10 unbelieving spies in a plague.
vi) JHVH told the people to turn around tomorrow to wander 40 years in the wilderness (14:25,32-35).
They mourned greatly (14:39). They presumed to enter and conquer the land, but were defeated by the Amalekites and Canaanites (14:39-45).

Conclusion: Their tempting the LORD 10 times proved their complete failure.

Their excuse for disobeying the LORD was that they feared for their wives and children’s safety, yet those over age 20 perished, while their children under age 20 entered the promised land 40 years later.

Question: Which of their 10 temptings of the LORD are we guilty of? Are your sins blocking your usefulness for God and grieving His Holy Spirit?

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1) Are you despairing of deliverance? | 6) Wilful and failing to sanctify the LORD? |
| 2) Murmuring at bitter experiences? | 7) Complaining? |
| 3) Murmuring at hunger or lack of provision? | 8) Lusting, ungrateful, forgetting God’s blessings? |
| 4) Fault finding and blaming others? | 9) Rebelling and slandering authorities? |
| 5) Impatient at delays? | 10) Disbelieving in God to fulfil his promises? |

268. THE GOOD SAMARITAN - WHAT SIN DOES TO US

Bible Reading: Luke 10:25-37.

Aim: To show how greatly we need Jesus Christ (the Good Samaritan) to save us from our sins and as an example of showing mercy to those in need.

Introduction: Satan deceives people into thinking that sin has no consequences. When we see the terrible effects of sin, we really hate it and avoid it.

I. The Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-33).

This story Jesus told must be interpreted on two levels:

i) The plain teaching is that we should live like the good Samaritan by helping others in need, “Go thou and do likewise.” (v.37).

ii) The metaphorical teaching is seen in the context of the Jews rejecting Jesus.

As the Jewish leaders were of no help to the beaten, robbed man, neither could they help lost people.

As the outcast Samaritan was the only one willing to help the beaten man, so Jesus was the outcast One who was willing to seek and save lost sinners. “Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan?” (John 8:48).

Background: An expert in the law asked Jesus: “Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal Life?” (v.25). This question surfaced on several occasions such as with the rich young ruler (Matthew 19:16-22) and Nicodemus (John 3:1-15). This was not a sincere question because:

i) The lawyer tempted or tested Jesus (v.25).

ii) Luke said that the lawyer wanted to justify himself (v.29).

Answer: Jesus replied with 2 questions, driving him back to the Old Testament law, which is our schoolmaster to bring us to Christ. (Galatians 3:24).

The lawyer replied by correctly quoting “Thou shalt love the LORD thy God...” (Deuteronomy 6:5) and “Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself” (Leviticus 19:18). One must love God and our neighbour 100% always in order to keep the law properly. If the lawyer did this, he would live (v.28).

The lawyer’s response should have been to ask: “How can I keep the law perfectly always? I am not able. I need help”. Instead, he tried to justify himself and defend himself against the implications of Jesus’ words. Every sinner desires to justify himself by bringing the law down to his standard, rather than frame his life by it’s requirements. So he tried to move the focus off himself by asking:

“Who is my neighbour?” Jesus answered him by telling the story of the Good Samaritan.

Jesus compelled the lawyer to acknowledge that a Samaritan, a race hated by Jews, had shown neighbourly kindness, while a priest and Levite had denied kindness to their own countryman.

The road from Jerusalem to Jericho descends about 3000 feet north-east over 17 miles of rocky, mountainous terrain towards the Jordan Valley. When Herod the Great dismissed 40,000 temple constructions workers, many of them became highwaymen robbers (Josephus, Antiquities,15,7).

Hence it was a dangerous road to travel because many robbers hid along its steep, winding road.

The main characters are:

i) The Priest who avoided the wounded man, passing by on the other side (Luke 10:31).

12,000 priests and Levites lived at Jericho and worked at Jerusalem.

ii) A Levite, of the tribe of Levi (a temple assistant), came and looked on him more attentively, but did nothing to help him (Luke 10:32).

iii) A certain Samaritan (part Jew, part Gentile), who would not be expected to help a Jew, overcame all the usual hostility between Jews and Samaritans, saw the wounded man as a neighbour, one who needed help, and denied himself in order to show kindness to the wounded stranger.

The good Samaritan stopped, came where he was, pitied him, bound up his wounds, poured in oil and wine, set him on his own beast, conducted him to an inn, passed the night with him and paid the inn-keeper to take care of him. All this was done without expecting any reward (Luke 10:34,35).

If this kindness had been shown by a Jew it would have been admirable.

If it had been shown by a Gentile, it would have been a great kindness.

But, being done by a Samaritan, a man of a nation most hateful to the Jews, it strongly shows how we should treat friends and foes in distress.

(Luke 10:36.

Question: “Which of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?”

Answer: “He that showed mercy on him.” (v.37). “Go and do thou likewise”.

Show the same kindness to all, to friend and foe. Then you will have evidence that you keep the law.

Lessons: i) Knowledge of the law is needed to show us our sinfulness and need of a Saviour.

ii) The one who loves most proves it by denying himself to help others in times of need.

iii) All religions should require us to do good to all men (Galatians 6:10). Real love for our enemies will lead us to deny ourselves to do good to them and help them in times of distress.

iv) A true neighbour will help needy people with whom there has been a controversy or difference.

v) True religion teaches us to regard every man as our neighbour, and to do good to all men, irrespective of their national or religious differences.

vi) When men differ in religious opinion, as did the Jews and Samaritans, they should still treat each other kindly and help each other in necessity. Christian kindness must not be marred by differences in doctrine or forms of worship.

vii) The ultimate perfect neighbour is Jesus Christ, whose compassion contrasted with the Jewish religious leaders who had no compassion on those who were perishing. Jesus’ followers are to live like that true neighbour.

II. A Deeper Meaning In This Story

“A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.” (Luke 10:30).

Many aspects of this story remind us of the history of mankind from the fall to Jesus Christ’s return.

1. A certain man reminds us of the first Adam.

2. Jerusalem (city of peace) reminds us of the happy peace & rest man enjoyed before the fall in Eden.

3. Went down from Jerusalem to Jericho reminds us of man departing from God and falling down morally in obeying the serpent.

i) Jerusalem = city of peace (Shalom in Hebrew).

ii) Jericho = a city of curse & death, just as man is now living under the curse and death in this world.

Joshua (Hebrew for Jesus) pronounced a curse on this city after it was destroyed (Joshua 6:26) that whoever rebuilt it would experience the death of his first born and youngest sons at the beginning and end of the construction project. This was fulfilled 520 years later when Hiel the Bethelite rebuilt Jericho by seeing his sons Abiram and Segub die as Joshua prophesied (I Kings 16:34).

4. He fell among thieves. Satan and sin remind us of the thieves, who stripped man of his clothing (man’s first righteousness before the fall), and spiritually wounded him leaving him half dead.

(Though man was alive in his body, he was dead in his spirit. Ephesians 2:1).

“In the day that thou eatest thereof, thou shalt surely die.” (Genesis 2:17).

5. The Priest and Levite who had no compassion on the wounded man remind us of religion, the Law and the Levitical priesthood which set a high standard but cannot save us. The law cannot save us, nor can our attempts at holiness by religious rituals save us.

6. The Good Samaritan reminds us of Jesus Christ Who was sinless, compassionate on man’s plight and able to restore us to our right state by paying the penalty for our sins on the cross.

7. He poured in wine. This reminds us of the blood of Jesus Christ which saves us and cleanses us from all sin. The wine in the Lord’s supper is to remind us of Christ’s saving blood.

8. He poured in oil. This reminds us of the comforting, restoring, joyful work of the Holy Spirit received by those putting faith in Christ’s blood sacrifice. “Thy God hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness.” Ps45:7

9. He set him on his own beast (v.34) reminds us of the doctrine of Christ (Hebrews 6:1,2), Bible doctrine and the gospel of Christ. Why?

Because, as a donkey carries the body, so doctrine metaphorically carries the soul. Notice:

i) “Barnabus also was carried away with their dissimulation.” (Galatians 2:13).

ii) “Be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine.” (Eph. 4:4).

iii) “Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led” 1Cor12:2

iv) “Be not carried about with diverse and strange doctrines.” (Hebrews 13:9).

10. The Inn reminds us of a local church, since a church is a place of spiritual recuperation. True doctrine carries us to a true church.

11. The Host (v.35) in charge of the inn reminds us of a Pastor /Bible teacher who feeds people God's word and takes spiritual care and oversight of believers.
12. Two pence remind us of: i) Spiritual gifts given by Christ to a local church such as pastor/teacher, evangelist etc. to meet believers' needs in the church age, and ii) 2000 years from Christ's first coming to his second coming. As average wages were a penny a day (Matthew 20:2), so two pennies wages correspond to 2 days wages, reminding us of the time between Christ's departure in 33AD & second comings as implied in Hosea 6:2 "After two days will be revive us: in the third day he will raise us up." Is the third day exactly 1000 years? How long are the first 2?
13. Samaritan going away (v.35) remind us of Christ's ascension to heaven in 33AD. Christ has given believers talents to use to win the lost and train the saints. Whatever we spend now in God's service, when Jesus Christ returns, He will repay us and reward us at the Judgment Seat of Christ (2 Cor. 5:10).

III. What Do Sin and Satan Do To Us As Thieves?

1. They rob men of their:
- i) Time - by telling them they have plenty of time to get saved & by telling Christians not to serve God.
- ii) Fellowship with God, by getting men to sin, then loading them with guilt by telling them that God hates them.
- iii) Peace with God and a peaceful conscience.
- iv) Souls and eternal life by getting them to reject Christ.
- v) Crowns and rewards in eternity.
2. They bind men hand and foot, and take away their treasure. Paul said to Simon the Sorcerer, "Thou art in the bond of iniquity." (Acts 8:23). "He shall be holden with the cords of his sins." (Proverbs 5:22). Satan and sin bind men with cords or bonds of: i) Bond of ignorance. ii) Bond of unbelief. iii) Bond of a hard heart. iv) Bond of false religions. v) Bond of fear. vi) Bond of debt.
3. They promise much but achieve little. They tempt men to give up eternal treasures for earthly toys.
4. They make men believe strange things contrary to reason, such as by sowing evil, they'll reap good.

IV. Things Sin Is Compared To

1. A Debt (Matthew 18:21-35).
We as sinners are represented by the servant who owed his King 10,000 talents which he was unable to repay (18:24:25). Debt and sin expose a man to arrest, filling his mind with trouble & fear. I Tim 6:9,10 2. A Heavy Burden (Psalm 38:4).
"For my iniquities are gone over my head as a heavy burden, they are too heavy for me." (Psalm 38:4). Sin is a weight or burden that weighs heavy on lost people and restricts man's potential.
"Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." (Matthew 11:28).
"He bore our sins upon his own body on the tree." (Luke 22:44).
"Let us lay aside every weight, and the sin that doth so easily beset us." (Hebrews 12:1).
Sin hinders Christians in our spiritual race, as a weight hinders an athlete.
3. A Sting "The poison of asps is under their lips." (Romans 3:13).
i) "The sting of death is sin." (1 Cor. 15:56). Death is like a poisonous serpent, with a cruel and tormenting sting called sin. Sin torments people.
ii) Snake sting is very painful.
iii) As snake sting can kill our body, so sin can kill the body on earth and the soul in hell.
iv) As snake sting spreads quickly through our blood and body, so yielding to one sin can spread its sting all through our life and kill us.
v) As the sting of a snake must be pulled out before a person can be healed, so sin must be pulled out of our life by Christ at salvation.
4. A Wound. "My wounds stink and are corrupt" (Psalm 38:5). "A wounded spirit who can bear?" Pro18:14
Sin wounds the soul of a sinner, a church and a nation. Every part of a sinner's soul is wounded.
i) Their judgment is corrupt.
ii) Their understanding is darkened, vain, blind, unbelieving, hateful and unteachable (Ephesians 4:18).
ii) Their will opposes God, is proud and stubborn.
iv) Their affections are wounded. They love the creature more than God. They love their lusts.

v) Their memory is wounded, being forgetful of God's goodness, but remembering injuries and blaming them on God.

vi) Their conscience is wounded and misguided. Instead of accusing their own sin, they excuse it.

"Their minds and consciences are corrupt." (Titus 1:15).

Come to Jesus Christ the Great Physician Who can heal your wounded soul and spirit.

5. A Plague. "Every man shall know the plague of his own heart." (I Kings 8:38).

"In the skin of his flesh like the plague of leprosy." (Leviticus 13:2). "Command the children of Israel that they put out of the camp every leper." (Numbers 5:2). Leprosy represents the hateful nature of sin.

i) As leprosy spreads through all parts of the body, so sin spreads to all parts of the soul.

ii) As leprosy is stinking and hateful to men, so sin is detestable and hateful to God and true Christians.

iii) As leprosy is contagious and infectious to people, houses, clothing, walls and vessels, so is sin contagious to others. "A companion of fools shall be destroyed." (Proverbs 13:20).

"Learn not the way of the heathen." (Jeremiah 10:2). "Come out from among them, and be ye separate, said the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing: and I will receive you." (2 Corinthians 6:17).

iv) As leprosy separates the victim from society, so sin separates people from God, friends, families, believers and heaven. "Your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear....your lips have spoken lies, your tongue hath muttered perverseness." (Isaiah 59:23).

None but the High Priest (Jesus Christ) could pronounce a person clean from leprosy (Leviticus 13:2), so only Jesus Christ can cure our sin plague.

6. A Sickness.

"The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint. From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and purifying sores." (Isaiah 1:5).

"The whole need not a physician, but they that are sick." (Matthew 9:12). Spiritual sickness is twofold:

i) To be sick with sin. This is all mankind.

ii) To be sick of sin. This is necessary to be saved.

7. Vomit. "The dog is turned to his vomit again." (2 Peter 2:22).

A wicked man, or one who returns to his old evil ways is like a dog, and his sins are like vomit which a dog eats up. Sin is like vomit because:

i) Vomit is a very loathsome thing, but dogs' vomit is most detestable.

Sin is a very loathsome thing, but apostasy (returning to past sins) is the worst of sins.

ii) As some men vomit by eating something bad, so, many sinners, by hearing a soul-searching message, vomit up some sins in their life by repentance. BUT, after some time, they grow more sick of Christ's ways than they ever were of their sins, and so, as the dog, they lick up their own vomit again, by returning to their old sinful ways.

Lesson: It is very hateful to see someone who has turned his back on Christ, rolling in the vomit of his old sins. Do not be like this.

8. Uncleanness: "To work all uncleanness." (Ephesians 4:19).

Sin is an unclean thing. Those who see the face of sin in the mirror of the law (James 1:23), see it to be the most ugly and deformed object in the world. The Holy Spirit compares sin's uncleanness to:-

i) Menstrual blood and afterbirth of newborn babies. "But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousness are as filthy rags." (Isaiah 64:6).

ii) The stink of a rotten corpse in a grave. "but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness." (Matthew 23:27).

iii) The scum of a drain. "How much more abominable and filthy is man, which drinketh in iniquity like water?" (Job 15:16).

iv) Loathsome, stinking, putrefying sores (Isaiah 1:5).

Sin is so unclean that it defiles all it touches. All a sinner's faculties are unclean, including his will, understanding, memory, judgment, love, conscience, eyes, hands and feet.

Conclusion:

Do you see your sin as detestable? Repent of it today.

269. The 12 Sons of Jacob

Bible Reading: Genesis 29:31-30:24; 49:1-33.

Aim: To see how the meaning of the names of the 12 sons of Jacob teach us how to live for God.

Introduction: In Scripture, all names and name changes contain important lessons for us. For example:

i) Adam: Before the Fall, man and woman were both called Adam (Genesis 5:1,2), yet after the fall her name was changed to Eve (Genesis 3:20) meaning the mother of all living, or Life-Giver. Eternal life had just been lost in the Fall when death entered the world, so God spoke of when Jesus Christ the Life-Giver and seed of the woman (Gen.3:15) would come to be the Saviour of the world.

ii) Abram (High Father) had his name changed to Abraham (Father of many nations) in Genesis 17:5. He lost the “High” from his name. “God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble” James 4:6 “Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He shall lift you up.” (James 4:10).

iii) Sarai (Dominative = 8297) was changed to Sarah (princess, queen = 8283). (Genesis 17:15,16). She lost her dominating role and became a role model for godly women. “Even as Sarah obeyed Abraham calling him Lord (head), whose daughters ye are as long as ye do well...” (1 Peter 3:6).

iv) Jacob (Cheater = 3290) was changed to Israel (prince with God). Thus Jacob lost his cheating and became God’s prince (Genesis 32:28). After salvation we lose our sin bent and become God’s princes.

v) Saul of Tarsus (Big) was changed to Paul (little). “Saul (who is also called Paul), filled with the Holy Ghost...” (Acts 13:9). Saul’s name was changed to Paul when he first spoke on his first missionary journey. The first mention of Paul describes his future ministry as one filled with the Holy Ghost, rebuking sin, people believing on Jesus Christ and astonishing doctrine.

Hence, the BIG was knocked out of Paul, as the HIGH was knocked out of Abram, and as the CHEAT was knocked out of Jacob. Believers must be humble and trained for God to use them greatly.

From this we see that Bible names have important meanings.

Let us see how the names of Jacob’s 12 sons show truths about salvation and Christian living.

In Genesis 29:32 - 30:24 and 35:18 we see Jacob’s sons being born and named.

In Genesis 49:1-33, Jacob gathers his 12 sons around his bedside just before his death so “that I may tell you that which shall befall you in the last days.” (Genesis 49:1).

1. REUBEN = Behold a Son (7205). (Genesis 29:32).

His mother, Leah said this when he was born, as a sign of God’s blessing and Jacob’s love for her, when the favourite wife Rachel was barren. He was entitled to double honour, but Jacob passed him by because he had sex with Bilhah, Jacob’s concubine (35:22). This tribe settled east of the Jordan River which meant they were the first to encounter any invaders from the east such as Assyria and Babylon. They almost caused a civil war by erecting a monument which other tribes saw as an idol (Joshua 22).

Lesson: To be saved we must “Behold the Lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the world.” (John 1:29,36). “He that has the Son has life.” (1 John 5:12). “Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.” (Isaiah 45:22). “Behold, thy King cometh unto thee.” (Matthew 25:6). “Behold, the bridegroom cometh.” (Matthew 25:6). “Looking unto Jesus” (Hebrews 12:2) is the key to salvation and to living for God.

Question: Have you received Jesus Christ as your Saviour? (John 1:12). Do you look to Jesus Christ in all things? (Colossians 3:17).

2. SIMEON = to Hear, Understand and Obey (8095). (Genesis 29:33).

Leah was now satisfied that God had heard her cry for a son and understood her sorrow.

Lesson: i) After we are saved, the LORD hears our prayers and understands our every need.

ii) Every believer needs to hear God’s word and seek to understand it, so that we live obediently.

Note: Simeon and Levi were men of violence and injustice in killing the men of Shechem (34:25) for raping Dinah their sister. Jacob does not bless them (49:5-7). Their descendants would be scattered throughout Israel, without being given regular land holdings as were the other tribes. Levites dwelt in various cities. Simeonites shared Judah’s land.

3. LEVI = to Join, Attach, Unite (3867). (Genesis 29:34). When Levi was born, Leah was sure that her husband Jacob would favour her and be joined to her, as much as he loved Rachel.

Lesson: There are three Biblical joinings that apply to us:

i) Jesus said: “He that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.” (1 Corinthians 6:17). After salvation and while we listen to God’s voice in His word, we realise our oneness with God.

ii) Fellow believers: “That ye all speak the same thing, be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.” (1 Cor. 1:10). God wants believers in a local church to agree in doctrine and in judging what is right and wrong.

iii) Marriage partners: “For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.” (Ephesians 5:31). God wants spouses to be joined spiritually, mentally and physically, in agreement and without conflict.

4. JUDAH = Praise (3063). (Genesis 29:35; 49:8-12). After Judah’s birth, Leah praised God for joy.

Lesson: i) After salvation, we begin a life of praising God. This means that we should stop complaining, murmuring, back-biting and begin to praise God daily. “Seven times a day do I praise thee.” (Psalm 119:164).

ii) “Thy father’s children shall bow down before thee.” (Genesis 49:8). This will be fulfilled when Israel bows down to Jesus Christ the Lion of the Tribe of Judah, as King when He returns.

“At the name of Jesus every knee shall bow” (Philippians 2:10,11).

iii) Judah, through Jesus Christ, would destroy His enemies and be left undisturbed as a young lion. This applies to David and Christ destroying their enemies. (Genesis 49:8,9).

iv) “The sceptre shall not depart from Judah....until Shiloh (Jesus Christ) come.” (Gen 49:10). Page 12: 36

5. DAN = to Judge (1835). (Genesis 30:1-6; 49:16-18). Because Rachel was barren, she gave her handmaid Bilhah to Jacob, who bore Dan on her behalf. She called him Dan because Rachel said, “God hath judged me, and hath heard my voice, and hath given me a son.” (30:6). “Dan shall judge his people.” (49:16). An old tradition is that Antichrist will come from the tribe of Dan.

Lesson: What does God say that we should judge?

i) Ourselves (1 Cor. 11:31) or God will judge (or discipline) us.

ii) Those within our church (1 Cor. 5:12).

iii) The world and angels in the millennium. (1 Cor. 6:2,3).

iv) Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment. (John 7:24).

6. NAPHTALI = to Wrestle (5321). (Genesis 30:7,8; 49:21). When Bilhah bore Naphtali, Rachel said, “With great wrestlings have I wrestled with my sister, and I have prevailed.” (30:8).

Lesson: i) We are in a spiritual warfare. “We wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.” (Ephesians 6:12).

ii) Naphtali was noted for his mobility, swiftness in battle and eloquence with words.

“Naphtali is a hind let loose: he giveth goodly words.” (49:21). We will succeed in the spiritual warfare if we are swift in spiritual battles (rather than lazy), and if we speak goodly words. “Death and life are in the power of the tongue.” (Proverbs 18:21).

7. GAD = a Troop or Overcome (1408). (Genesis 30:10,11; 49:19). “Leah said, a troop cometh, and she called his name Gad.” (30:11). Gad was Leah’s maid Zilpah’s first son. He was born when a troop of soldiers passed by. “Gad, a troop shall overcome him: but he shall overcome at the last.” (49:19). Gad will be attacked by a troop of attackers, but he will attack and overcome them. Border raids were often experienced by tribes on the east of the Jordan River (1 Chronicles 5:18-19).

Lesson: i) God wants us to attack the devil’s strongholds (Jesus said “I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.” (Matthew 16:18)). We do this as we seek to win people to Christ, teach God’s word, and build sound churches.

ii) God wants us to be overcomers in the spiritual battle. As Satan attacks us, we must not quit, but “endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ”(2Tim:2:3). We have no excuse to be lazy or defeated.

Question: How do we overcome the devil?

Answer: i) “Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.” (Romans 12:21).

ii) “This is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.” (1 John 5:4).

iii) “They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto death.” (Revelation 12:11).

iv) By serving God in a local church. The letters to the 7 churches in Revelation 2,3 are to overcomers.

8. ASHER = to be Happy, Joyful (836). (Genesis 30:12,13; 49:20).

When Leah's maid Zilpah bore Jacob a second son, Leah said "Happy am I..she called his name Asher" (30:12,13). The tribe of Asher would have fertile land and produce much food. (Genesis 49:20).

Lesson: The Christian life is a happy life when we think of all the good things God does for us, and when we avoid ungodly people and behaviour. There is no room for sadness or depression if we live by the Bible. Learn to see the happy side of things. Question: How can we be happy?

Answer: i) If we have many children (Psalm 127:5).

ii) If we fear the Lord (Psalm 128:1-3).

iii) If our God is Jehovah (Psalm 144:15).

iv) If we find wisdom (Proverbs 3:13).

v) If we have mercy on the poor (Proverbs 14:21).

vi) If we trust in God (Proverbs 16:20).

vii) If we have a servant's heart (John 13:13-17).

viii) If we suffer for righteousness sake (1 Peter 3:14).

ix) If we condemn not ourselves in what we allow (Romans 14:22). x) If we endure (James 5:11).

9. ISSACHAR = He will bring a Reward, Hire, Servant (3485). (Genesis 30:14-18; 49:14,15).

"Leah said, God hath given me my hire, ... and she called his name Issachar." (30:18).

"Issachar... became a servant unto tribute." (49:15). Issachar was Leah's fifth child. She regarded this son as God rewarding her for giving Zilpah, her handmaid to Jacob.

Lesson: i) After salvation we must serve God. God doesn't want us to be lazy. Attempt things for God.

ii) All God's people are hired. Jesus said, "When I come again, I will repay thee." (Luke 10:35).

Jesus promises, "My reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be." Rev.22:12.

10. ZEBULUN = to Dwell (2074). (Genesis 30:19,20; 49:13).

Zebulun was Leah's sixth and last son. "Now will my husband dwell with me, because I have born him six sons; and she called his name Zebulun." (30:20). This convinced Leah that Jacob's favour would dwell with her. After we are saved (Reuben), while we listen to God (Simeon), and continue to praise God (Judah), we discover and enjoy God's blessings dwelling with us (Zebulun). Zebulun would dwell near the sea shore, "he shall be for an haven of ships; his border shall be into Zidon." (49:13).

Question: Where are we to dwell? i) "Thou Lord only makest me dwell in safety." (Psalm 4:8).

ii) "I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever." (Psalm 23:6).

(Psalm 91:1)

iii) "He that dwells in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty."

iv) "Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity." (Psalm 133:1).

If we don't dwell here, we will be as the "rebellious who dwell in a dry land." (Psalm 68:6).

11. JOSEPH = to Add, to Increase (3130). (Genesis 30:22-24; 49:22-26).

Joseph was Rachel's first son. He was to be a fruitful bough due to his faithfulness to God in Egypt.

Rachel called him Joseph and said: "The LORD shall add to me another son." (30:24).

Joseph's son Ephraim means fruitful. Jacob prophesied victory (49:23-24a) and prosperity (49:25) on Joseph's two tribes. Victory in battle was experienced by Ephraim's tribe under Joshua, Deborah and Samuel, as well as by Manasse's tribe under Gideon and Jephthah. In Genesis 49:24,25 are five titles of God, these being, the Mighty God of Jacob, the Shepherd, the Stone of Israel, the God (Elohim) of thy father, and the Almighty (El Shaddai). Jacob bestowed on Joseph the greater blessings.

Lesson: After salvation, God wants us to add to our faith, virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, godliness, brotherly kindness, and charity. "If these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ." (2 Peter 1:5-8).

12. BENJAMIN = Son of My Right Hand (1144). (Genesis 35:16-20; 49:27,28).

Rachel died here in childbirth. She named the child Ben-oni (son of my sorrow), but Jacob renamed him Benjamin (son of my right hand), thus turning a time of sorrow to triumph and victory. Benjamin was an answer to Rachel's prayer (30:24) for a second son after Joseph. These two names are a type of Christ. Ben-oni reminds us of Jesus Christ the suffering Saviour at His first coming, "a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief" (Isaiah 53:3). Benjamin, reminds us of Jesus Christ the head of the warrior tribe (49:27), firmly joined to Judah the Kingly tribe (49:8-12), defeating earth's armies at His coming. Jesus said to Caiaphas the high priest, "Hereafter shall ye see the Son of Man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven." (Matthew 26:64).

Jacob describes Benjamin's tribe as a violent, ravening, devouring wolf (49:27). See their civil war (Judges 20).

Lesson: i) After salvation we are "blessed with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ." Ephesians 1:3,4. ii) We are "predestined unto the adoption of children (son placing in heaven) by Jesus Christ." (Ephesians 1:3). The Old Testament Saul and NT Saul were both from Benjamin's tribe. Consider our great position as sons of God.

Conclusion: Will you apply these truths contained in the names of the 12 sons of Jacob?

270. The Resurrection of Jesus Christ

Bible Reading: Luke 24:1-53; Matthew 28:1-20.

Aim: To understand the evidence and importance of Jesus Christ's resurrection from the dead.

Memory Verse: "The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon." Luke 24:34.

Introduction: Jesus Christ's birth, death and resurrection are the central events of history. Belief in these are essential to be saved (Romans 10:9). Christ's resurrection proves Him to be God and Saviour of the world. Because Jesus Christ rose from the dead, this proves that all believers will be raised from the dead. Some proofs of Jesus Christ being the only way to God are His resurrection, His miracles, His prophecies and His fulfilment of Old Testament Messianic prophecies.

One of our first comments to Muslims should be that, "Jesus rose from the dead. Mohammed is dead. Why would anyone follow a dead man? What hope do you have of going to heaven?"

In 1 Corinthians 15:12-19, Paul shows that everything stands or falls with Christ's bodily resurrection.

If Christ did not rise then: i) The apostles' preaching is vain and useless (v.14).

ii) The Corinthians' faith is vain (v.14). iii) The apostles are false witnesses (v.15).

iv) The Corinthians are still in their sins (v.17). v) Those fallen asleep in Christ are perished (v.18).

vi) Christians are of all men most miserable (v.19). These negative things are true of all other religions who are without a resurrected Saviour. All through Acts, Peter and Paul preach and strongly emphasise Christ's resurrection. With Christ's resurrection being true, all Bible miracles are verified.

I. Illustrations of Resurrection

1. As a young man D L Moody was called upon suddenly to preach a funeral sermon. He hunted through all four gospels to find one of Christ's funeral sermons, but without success. He instead found that Christ broke up every funeral He ever attended. Death could not exist where Jesus was. When the dead heard His voice they sprang to life. Jesus said, "I am the resurrection and the life" (John 11:25).

2. A British explorer entered a pyramid and was permitted to open one of the mummies which was undisturbed for 3000 years. As soon as the air touched the mummy, the rose in it's hand crumbled to the finest dust except for the seed of the rose. This seed was brought back to England and planted in his garden where it sprouted and grew to produce beautiful flowers. There was nothing quite like it in their botany range. They named it after the Swedish botanist Dahl, and is to-day one of the Dahlia family.

3. A certain European countess who was strongly opposed to the resurrection of her body ordered that her grave be covered with a granite slab, surrounded by blocks of stone, with the corners fastened to each other and to the slab with heavy iron clamps. Upon the covering, this inscription was written: "This burial place, purchased to all eternity, must never be opened". All that human power could do to prevent any change in that grave was done. But a little birch tree seed sprouted, and the root found it's way between the granite slab and the stone blocks. The root grew until it tore away the iron clamps and raised the granite lid off the grave, which is now resting upon the large trunk of a flourishing birch tree.

II. Events of Christ's Resurrection

1. Jesus Christ rose early Sunday morning (Luke 24:2).

2. Mary Magdalene, Mary the Mother of Jesus and Salome coming to the tomb to prepare the body, find the stone rolled away and see a vision of angels (Matthew 28:1-8; Mark 16:1-7; Luke 24:1-8).

3. They separated at the tomb. Mary Magdalene going to tell Peter and John (John 20:1-2), and the other two going to tell the other disciples at Bethany (Luke 24:8-11).

4. Peter and John, notified by Mary Magdalene, ran to the grave ahead of Mary, look in and return without seeing the Lord (John 20:3-10).

5. Mary Magdalene returns to the tomb weeping, sees two angels, then meets Jesus whom she initially mistakes for the gardener. She then went to tell the disciples as Jesus commanded her (John 20:11-18).

6. Mary (Mother of James and Joses) meets the women with the spices, and returns with them to the tomb, and sees the two angels (Luke 24:4-5).

7. They go to seek the disciples and are met by Jesus (Matthew 28:8-10).

8. The guarding soldiers report the events to the chief priests (Matthew 28:11-15).

9. Jesus appears to Peter in the afternoon (Luke 24:3-4; 1 Corinthians 15:5).

10. Jesus appears to 2 disciples (one was Cleopas) on the road to Emmaus at evening (Luke 24:13-33)

11. These 2 disciples return to Jerusalem to tell the eleven that Jesus is risen (Luke 24:33-35).
12. Jesus appears to 10 disciples (except Thomas) on Resurrection Sunday. (John 20:19-25).
13. Jesus appears to the 11 disciples, 8 days later and rebukes Thomas' unbelief (John 20:26-31).
14. Jesus appears to 7 disciples who are fishing by the sea of Galilee and restores Peter (John 21:1-25).
15. Jesus appears on a mountain to the apostles & to 500 brethren at once (1 Cor. 15:6; Matthew 28:16).
16. Jesus appears to James at Jerusalem and Bethany (1 Corinthians 15:7).
17. Jesus appears to the 11 disciples (Matthew 28:16-20; Mark 16:14-20; Luke 24:33-53; Acts 1:3-12) and gives them the Great Commission.
18. Jesus ascends to Heaven in a cloud (Luke 24:50-53; Acts 1:3-12).
19. Jesus appears to Paul on the road to Damascus (Acts 9:3-6; 26:12-18; 1 Cor. 15:8).
20. Jesus appears to Paul in the Temple (Acts 22:17-21 and 23:11).
21. Jesus appears to Stephen at his stoning outside Jerusalem (Acts 7:55).
22. Jesus appears to John on Patmos to give him the Book of Revelation (Revelation 1:10-19).

III. Proof That Jesus Christ Died

1. The Centurion and soldiers declared Jesus Christ to be dead (Mark 15:44,45; John 19:33).
2. Three women came to the tomb to anoint Jesus' dead body (Mark 16:1).
3. Blood and water flowed from Christ's wounded side (John 19:34,35). This water flowed from the pericardium and the blood flowed from the heart. The pericardium is a closed sac encasing the heart. It normally contains 5ml of fluid. Mallory and Wright's "Pathological Technique" states that: "The normal amount (of pericardial fluid) is about a teaspoonful, but may be increased to 100ml (24 teaspoonfuls) where the death agony is prolonged".
4. He did not appear to His disciples on the 3rd day as half dead, but as the mighty conqueror of death.
5. Christ Himself declared that He died and rose again ("I am He that liveth and was dead". Rev. 1:18). Christ's death and resurrection are the central events in Christianity. All other religions base their claim to recognition on the teachings of their founders. Without Christ's death and resurrection, Christianity is reduced to the level of other religions. Why did Jews not show Jesus' dead body to destroy Christianity?

The correct view of Jesus Christ's death is the Substitution View. Christ in His death fully satisfied the demands of a righteous God for judgment upon sinners and, as our infinite sacrifice, provided grounds for our forgiveness, justification and sanctification. Christ's death solves the sin problem by paying the penalty for our sins that the law of God demanded. Christ's resurrection solves the death problem by proving that He will raise us from the dead. Christ's death was necessary because of:

- a) God's holiness (Leviticus 11:44), and b) Man's sinfulness (Romans 3:10-20).

IV. Jesus Christ's Descent into the Lower Parts of the Earth is based on:

"When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive.....(Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?)" (Ephesians 4:8,9).

"For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit. By which also he went and preached unto the spirits in prison; Which sometime were disobedient, when once the long-suffering of God waited in the days of Noah." (1 Peter 3:18-20).

Question: What did Jesus do when He descended into the lower parts of the earth?

- i) He led Old Testament believers from the paradise part of Hades up to the third heaven (Luke 16:19-31). The final sin debt of Old Testament believers was now paid. This allowed them to enter the third heaven, as believers do now (2 Corinthians 12:2).
- ii) He preached judgment on the fallen angels of Genesis 6:1-4 who tried to corrupt human flesh and thus prevent the promised birth and saving work of Jesus Christ. Christ's message to them was that their scheme had failed (2 Peter 2:4; Jude 6).

V. Christ's Resurrection was Predicted By Many Old Testament Writers

- i) David: "For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither will thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption." (Psalm 16:10).
- ii) Isaiah: "Thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days." (Isaiah 53:10). "Thy dead men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise. Awake and sing, ye that dwell in dust.....and the earth shall cast out her dead." (Isaiah 26:19).

iii) Jesus: “After I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee.” Mark 26:32; Luke 9:22; John 2:18-22

iv) Job: “For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth.

And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God.” (Job 19:25,26).

v) Daniel: “Many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.” (Daniel 12:2).

vi) Hosea: “I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death.” Hosea 13:14

VI. Proofs of Jesus Christ's Resurrection

1. The empty tomb and the ordered graveclothes, when the disciples examined the tomb. John 20:5-8. All other religious leaders have an occupied tomb. Not so Jesus Christ. Anyone stealing the body would have taken the body in the graveclothes. Yet the graveclothes were left in an orderly manner in the tomb

2. The mass psychological change in the disciples from being cowards at Christ's death, to become bold preachers after the resurrection. Their enemies said that they “turned the world upside down”.

How else can this mass psychological change be explained?

3. Over 500 people saw Christ over a 40 day period after He had risen from the dead. So convinced were they that they were willing to die as martyrs than to deny Christ's resurrection. Would you die for an event that you were not sure about? These witnesses have a high credibility having given the world it's highest moral code. Most of these 500 witnesses were still alive in 59AD to confirm it (1 Cor.15:6).

4. The change from Saturday to Sunday as the main day of worship (1 Corinthians 16:1,2; Acts 20:6). The Sabbath being so important to the early Jewish Christians would not have been dropped except for an extremely important event, the bodily resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

5. The Church's existence can only be explained by the miracle of Christ's resurrection. In 50 years after Christ's death, the Christian church had become a mighty power, causing the Roman government great concern over it's influence on the world.

6. The New Testament could not have been written because its central theme is eternal life through Jesus Christ's death and resurrection.

7. The silence from both the Romans and Pharisees. Not once did either of these groups ever attempt to deny Christ's resurrection. All they had to do was to produce Christ's body to silence the early Christians. They hated Christ's resurrection and tried to suppress it, but they could not refute it.

8. People recognised Him after His resurrection, even His nail prints. Jesus said to doubting Thomas, “reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side and be not faithless, but believing”. (John 20:27).

Jesus will still have His nail prints at His second coming (“What are these wounds..? Zechariah 13:6).

9. Jesus prophesied that He would rise bodily (John 2:19,20,21).

10. Two angels in Christ's tomb declared that He had risen from the dead as He said (Luke 24:4-8).

11. The resurrected Christ said that He had flesh and bones. He invited the terrified disciples to “Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Handle me and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones as ye see me have. When he had thus spoken he showed them his hands & his feet.” Luke 24:39,40

12. Jesus Christ appeared to women who held His feet (Matthew 28:9), to James (1 Cor. 15:7), to Paul on the road to Damascus (Acts 9:3-6), to welcome Stephen into heaven (Acts 7:55), to John on Patmos (Rev. 1:10-19), to Peter as the friend who never forsakes (Luke 24:34), to Thomas in rebuking his unbelief (John 20:26-29), to seven disciples when fishing (John 21:1-23), to the eleven disciples (Mark 16:14), to two disciples on the road to Emmaus (Luke 24:13-35), to 10 disciples in the upper room (Thomas absent) (John 20:26-29), to over 500 at once (1 Cor. 15:6).

13. Jesus Christ ate food with His disciples after His resurrection. “They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and of an honeycomb. And he took it, and did eat before them”. (Luke 24:42,43).

VII. The Significance of Christ's Resurrection

1. It proves we will rise from the dead also. “He that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by His Spirit that dwelleth in you.” (Romans 8:11; 1 Corinthians 15:51-57).

2. It proves Jesus Christ is God. “Declared to be the Son of God with power,...by the resurrection from the dead.” (Romans 1:4).

3. It proves Christ's death really did pay for our sins. “Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification” (Roman 4:25). It proves the acceptance of Christ's work on the cross.

Christ's resurrection makes our justification possible. We could not have the same confidence that God has accepted Christ's sacrifice, had he not risen from the dead.

4. It proves that Jesus Christ is the only way to God, as no other religious leader has risen from the dead.

5. It made Christ our interceding High Priest. Through His resurrection He became our intercessor and protector. "Who is he that condemmeth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us." (Romans 8:3,4).

He delivers us from sin and intercedes for us when we fail. "There is one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus." (1 Timothy 2:5,6).

6. It proves that Satan is a defeated foe. "For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil." (1 John 3:8).

7. It proves that all necessary power for life and service is available to us through Jesus Christ. If Christ can raise Himself from the dead, He can supply all our needs. "That I may know Him, and the power of His resurrection." (Philippians 3:10).

8. It proves that Christ will judge the world in righteousness. The day of judgment has been appointed and so has the Judge. This is proven by Christ's resurrection. "Because he hath appointed a day, in which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised Him from the dead." (Acts 17:31).

9. It prepared the way for Christ to sit on David's Throne in His millennial Kingdom. "God had sworn with an oath to Him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne." (Acts 2:30).

10. It enables each believer to bear fruit. "That ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God." (Romans 7:4).

11. It allows each believer to walk in newness of life. "Like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in the newness of life." (Romans 6:4).

12. It is the centre of the gospel and our preaching. "I declare unto you the gospel..." (1 Cor. 15:1-4).

VIII. What Will Our Resurrection Body Be Like?

1. It will have flesh and bones. "A spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have." (Luke 24:39).

2. It will be an immortal body. "This mortal must put on immortality." (1 Corinthians 15:53).

3. It will be a glorious body. "It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory." (1 Cor. 15:43). "Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto His glorious body." (Philippians 3:21; 1 John 3:2)

4. It will be a powerful body. "It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power." (1 Corinthians 15:43).

5. It will differ in glory from other believers' resurrection bodies. "They that turn many to righteousness, (will shine) as the stars forever and ever." (Daniel 12:3). "One star differeth from another star in glory. So also is the resurrection of the dead." (1 Corinthians 15:41,42).

6. It will be a spiritual body, that is, a spirit controlled body. "It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body." (1 Corinthians 15:44).

7. It will have the ability to pass through walls, as Jesus could do. (John 20:19).

8. It will be able to eat food, as Jesus did. (Luke 24:41-43; Revelation 19:9).

9. Our flesh shall be fresher than a child's, we shall return to the days of our youth. (Job 33:25).

10. We will use our new powerful, glorious resurrection body to serve God and glorify God through all eternity. "His servants shall serve Him." (Revelation 22:3).

IX. The Resurrection Song (1 Corinthians 15:54-57).

"Death is swallowed up in victory (v.54). O death where is thy sting? (This will be sung by living believers at the rapture who receive their resurrection body without dying).

O grave, where is thy victory? (This will be sung by dead believers who will be resurrected from the grave at Christ's return). (v.55). The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law (v.56).

Thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ." (v.57).

Conclusion:

1. Have you received Jesus Christ as your Saviour? Are you sure of eternal life?

2. Do you tell people the Gospel of how Jesus Christ died for their sins, was buried and rose again?

3. Can you explain the reasons why Jesus Christ rose from the dead?

4. Are you living the victorious Christian life and serving God in the power of Christ's resurrection?

271. The Secret to Real Happiness

Bible Reading: Matthew 16:24-28. (v.25). “Let no man seek his own, but every man another’s wealth.” 1 Cor 10:24 “For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.” (v.25).

Aim: Everyone in this room wants to be happy. No one wants a nervous breakdown. No one wants to be depressed. No one wants to be miserable. No one wants to live a wasted, unhappy life. There are many reasons in this life for us to be unhappy. There are many pressures, problems, disappointments, failures, struggles, trials, difficulties and losses to make us unhappy. BUT, as a Christian, we CAN be happy. “How?” you may ask.

What is the secret to real happiness? It is found in one word: OTHERS. Let me explain this in 4 statements:

1. You’ll never find happiness by looking for it. “Hell &...so the eyes of man are never satisfied.” Proverbs 27:20

When you look for happiness, you are being selfish. Selfishness never leads to real happiness.

Money won’t make you happy. Fame won’t make you happy. Worldly success won’t make you happy.

Possessions won’t make you happy. Prestige won’t make you happy. Power won’t make you happy.

Illustration: Solomon spent his life looking for happiness. He gained great wealth and power. He had more beautiful women than his heart could desire. He was the wisest man in the world. He was famous. He was well respected. But, did he find happiness by looking for it? “The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem. Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, vanity of vanities; all is vanity.” (Ecclesiastes 1:1-3).

A selfish person will never be a truly happy person. So, stop looking for happiness.

2. Forget your own need for happiness “For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ’s.” Phil 2:21

“Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.” Philippians 2:4.

We are selfish by nature. We always look out for number one. There was an ad years ago that said: “For the most important person in the world: YOU.” That’s our nature. But, we’ll never be truly happy unless we forget our own need for happiness. That’s why you fight. That’s why your marriage is in trouble. “But he doesn’t meet My needs”. That’s why you are unhappy. “She doesn’t meet My needs”. That’s why you are unhappy.

The happiest people are those who don’t rely on others for their own happiness. Eg: The only time “backslider” is used in the Bible is concerning selfishness. “The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways” Proverb 14:14.

It’s not enough to stop looking for our own happiness. We must FORGET our own need for happiness. How? By:

3. Living only to make others happy. “Master, which is the great commandment in the law? Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.” Matthew 22:36-40.

Romans 15:1-3 “We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification. For even Christ pleased not himself;”

Illustration: General William Booth, the founder of the Salvation Army, was at the end of his life. He lay sick in bed, and was unable to attend the annual Salvation Army workers’ conference. The workers were devastated that General Booth could not be there to encourage and inspire them. General Booth sent a telegram to be read at the opening of the conference. A hush came over the auditorium as a man stepped to the platform to read the telegram. The telegram read just one word: OTHERS. He had learned the secret to happiness is to live for others.

Question: What, you may ask, can I do for others? Answer: Tell someone dear that you love them. Write your parents or a friend a note of encouragement. Phone a friend to remind them that you are praying for them. Try to lead someone to Christ. Have a Bible study with a new Christian. Give your spouse or children a special treat.

Illustration: As I studied the lives of great preachers, I found them to be the most unselfish people. They lived for others. They prayed for others, gave to others, encouraged others, taught others, and helped others.

4. As you live for others, you will stumble upon happiness. “So labouring, ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.” Acts 20:35.

Matthew 16:25 “Whosoever will save his life shall lose it: & whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.” Everyone wants a happy marriage. You don’t get a happy marriage by finding someone to meet your needs. You get a happy marriage when you forget your needs and are consumed with meeting the needs of your spouse. “Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, & gave himself for it;” (Eph.5:25). If you give yourself to your spouse, you will have a happy marriage. “Let every one of you so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband”(5:33). “Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right”(Eph.6:1). You will be so busy serving others, that you will forget your own needs. You will find happiness on the path of unselfishness.

Conclusion: Jesus’ whole life was living for others. When He was dying on the cross, what did He think of? Self-pity? NO! He asked John to take care of His mother. He led the repentant thief to salvation. “To day shalt thou...”

2 Cor 8:9 “Jesus..though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.” Mark 10:45 “The Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, & to give his life a ransom for many”

The Secret to real happiness is: 1. You’ll never find happiness by looking for it. 2. Forget your own need for happiness. 3. Live to make others happy. 4. As you live for others, you’ll find happiness. Question: Are you living for others? Maybe God has spoken to you about an area in your life to work on? Marriage, church, home?

272. Evidence of Jesus Christ's Death, Resurrection and 3 Hours Darkness

I. Evidence of 3 Hours Darkness at Jesus Christ's Death

Aim: To disprove the claims of Mohammed and Islam that: 1. Mohammed is a true prophet of God.

2. The Quran is the true Word of God.

3. Jesus Christ did not die for our sins on the cross. (Q 4:157 "they killed him not, nor crucified him").

4. Jesus Christ is not God the Son not the Son of God. (Q 23:91 "No son did Allah beget").

These Islamic beliefs are proven false by 1) the written testimony of many eye-witnesses to Jesus Christ's death, resurrection and 3 hours of darkness from both Christian and secular sources. This is a unique witness from God Himself and nature that Jesus Christ truly did die on the cross for our sins. 2) Neither Mohammed nor anybody living in 7th Century Arabia were eyewitnesses of Jesus Christ's death in 33AD. Many first Century independent eyewitnesses of Jesus Christ's death & resurrection have far greater authority that non-eyewitnesses like Mohammed who lived 600 years later & 600 miles away in Arabia. (Muslims require 4 male eyewitnesses to prove a rape, but none to deny Christ's death). The agreed testimony of these early writers to Jesus Christ's death, resurrection and 3 hours darkness provide a great service to man by proving Islam a false religion to be rejected and the New Testament to be a truthful record of these events. Key truth: Bible facts are right. Mohammed's opinion is wrong. They prove that Islam, Mohammed and the Quran give false witness against Jesus Christ.

John calls Mohammed an antichrist in I John 2:2 "He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son."

Question: Why didn't Mohammed think to test the spirit that appeared to him claiming to be Gabriel? "Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist." I John 4:2,3.

This means that "The Son of God took on human nature in permanent union with the divine nature".

Three kinds of evidence proving Jesus Christ's death, resurrection and 3 hours darkness are:

1. New Testament Gospel Writers and Eyewitnesses to Jesus Christ's Crucifixion:

16 Witnesses who saw Jesus Christ being crucified are:

i) Simon a Cyrenian who carried his cross. (Mark 15:21)

ii) Roman soldiers who crucified him and parted his garments. (Mark 15:24-26)

iii) Two thieves who were crucified next to him. (Mark 15:27)

iv) Passers by who recognised him and mocked Him. (Mark 15:29,30)

v) Chief priests who mocked him at the cross. (Mark 15:31,32)

vi) Centurion who said He was the Son of God. (Mark 15:39)

vii) Mary, the mother of Jesus, recognised Jesus dying on the cross. Would a mother know her son?

viii) The apostle John who was present at the cross. (John 19:26,27)

ix) Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of James, Joses, and Salome. (Mark 15:40)

x) Joseph of Arimathea who begged the body of Jesus & buried Jesus in his own tomb (Mark 15:43-44)

xi) Jesus Himself on cross who said 'It is finished: he bowed his head, & gave up the ghost' John 19:30

xii) Many other women which came up with him to Jerusalem. (Mark 15:41) xiii) An angel at the tomb who said "Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth which was crucified." (Mark 16:6)

xiv) A great company of people (Luke 23:27). "All the people beholding". (Luke 23:48)

xv) Cleopas and his friend on the road to Emmaus. (Luke 24:18-23)

xvi) The Roman soldier who speared Jesus' side. (John 19:31-37)

13 Witnesses who saw Jesus Christ risen from the dead:

1. Mary Magdalene, Mary the Mother of Jesus and Salome coming to the tomb to prepare the body, find the stone rolled away and see a vision of angels (Matthew 28:1-8; Mark 16:1-7; Luke 24:1-8).

2. Peter and John, notified by Mary Magdalene, ran to the grave ahead of Mary, look in, seeing Jesus Christ's ordered grave clothes and return without seeing the Lord (John 20:3-10).

3. Mary Magdalene returns to the tomb weeping, sees two angels, then meets Jesus whom she initially mistakes for the gardener. She then went to tell the disciples as Jesus commanded her (John 20:11-18).

4. Mary (mother of James and Joses) met the women with the spices, & returns with them to the tomb.

5. They see two angels (Luke 24:4-5). They seek the disciples and Jesus meets them (Matthew 28:8-10)
6. The guarding soldiers report the events to the chief priests (Matthew 28:11-15).
7. Jesus appears to Peter in the afternoon (Luke 24:3-4; Corinthians 15:5).
8. Jesus appears to 2 disciples (one was Cleopas) on the road to Emmaus at evening (Luke 24:13-33).
9. Jesus appears to the 10 disciples (except Thomas). (John 20:19-25).
10. Jesus appears to the 11 disciples, 8 days later and rebukes Thomas' unbelief (John 20:26-31). Thomas initially doubts Christ's resurrection but is convinced at seeing Jesus' nail prints in his hands.
11. Jesus appears to 7 disciples who are fishing by the Sea of Galilee and restores Peter (John 21:1-25).
12. Jesus appears to 500 brethren at once on a mountain & to the apostles (1 Cor.15:6; Matthew 28:16).
13. Jesus appears to James at Jerusalem and at Bethany. (1 Corinthians 15:7).
14. Jesus appears to the 11 disciples (Matthew 28:16-20; Mark 16:14-20; Luke 24:33-53; Acts 1:3-12) and gives them the Great Commission.

2. Early Christian Writers recording Jesus Christ's death, resurrection and 3 hours of darkness prove that the New Testament has not been corrupted as Islam falsely claims. These writers give a consistent, agreed, unbroken witness to the accuracy and preservation of the New Testament from its first Century date of writing till today. The thousands of New Testament Scriptures they quote from in their Bibles are identical to our King James Bible today. These writers include:

- i) Clement of Rome (30-100 AD) wrote 2 letters. Vol. I, p.1-21
- ii) Ignatius (30-107 AD) wrote eleven letters. Vol. I, p.45-131.
- iii) Polycarp (65-155 AD). Vol. I, p.31
- iv) Papias (70-155 AD). Vol. I, p.59.
- v) Justin Martyr (100-165 AD). Vol. I, p.59
- vi) Irenaeus (120-202 AD) Vol. I, p.309.
- vii) Tatian (110-172 AD). Vol. II, p.61
- viii) Theophilus of Antioch (115-181 AD). Vol. II, p.87.
- ix) Athenogorus (177-250 AD).
- x) Clement of Alexandria (153-217 AD). Vol. II, p.165

3. Secular Writers testifying to Jesus Christ's Death, Resurrection and 3 hours darkness:

- i) Josephus (37-97 AD).
- ii) Tacitus (30-120 AD). Written 52-54 AD.
- iii) Thallus (52-120 AD). Written 52 AD.
- iv) Phlegon. Written 80 AD.
- v) Mara Bar-Serapion. Written 73 AD.
- vi) Pliny the Younger (61-112 AD). Written 112 AD.
- vii) Lucian of Samosata (120 AD).
- viii) Acts of Pilate referred to by Justin Martyr (150 AD).
- ix) Gospel of Peter referred to by Serapion of Antioch (180 AD).
- x) Eusebius (260-340 AD).
- xi) Tertullian (160-225). Testimony of the Public Archives in Rome to Emperor Tiberius.
- xii) Julius Africanus (160-240 AD).
- xiii) History of the World Vol. 3.5.50.
- xiv) Origen (185-254 AD).
- xv) Arnobius (4th Century).
- xvi) Philopon (520 AD).
- xvii) Cassiodorus (520 AD)
- xviii) Talmud by Rabbis Akiba (d 135 AD) and Meir.
- xix) Pontius Pilate (1 BC-37AD). Written 26-36

The historical reality of the 3 hours darkness at Jesus' crucifixion proves that: 1) Jesus died.

2) Jesus is God who alone has power to turn off the Sun.

3) Islam, Quran and Mohammad are wrong.

II. The Hours of Jesus' Crucifixion in Matthew, Mark and Luke's Gospels

Matthew 27:45-52 "Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour (45). Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost (v51). And, behold the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom;& the earth did quake,& the rocks rent." (52)

Mark 15:25-33 "And it was the third hour, and they crucified him (v 25).

When the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour." (v 33).

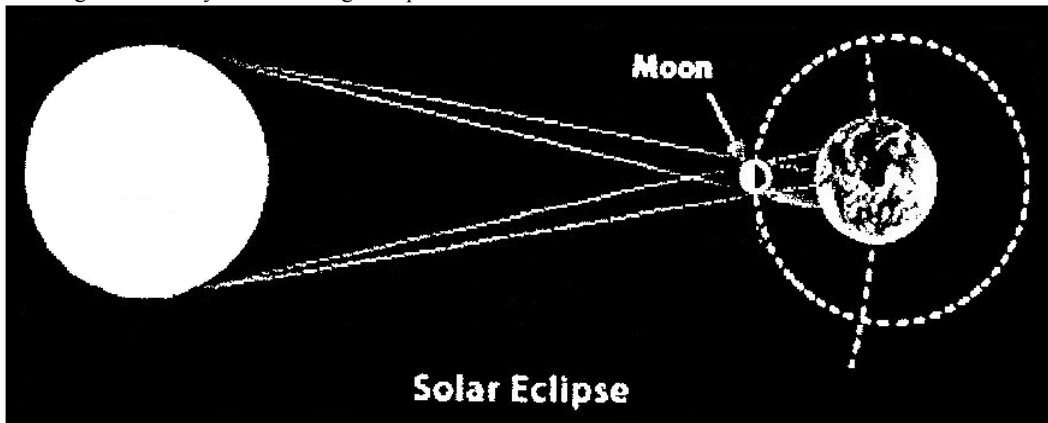

Luke 23:44-46 "And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour. And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was rent in the midst."

Amos 8:9 This darkness fulfilled the prophecy of Amos 8:9 in 787BC, "in that day, saith the Lord GOD, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day."

This 3 hours darkness could not have been a normal solar eclipse. A solar eclipse is impossible at a full moon, when the moon is on the other side of the earth from the sun, as it always is at Passover.

Astronomical records show that no solar eclipse occurred anywhere near Jerusalem from 30-33 AD. A solar eclipse can only occur when the moon passes between the earth and the sun, the moon thus blocking the sun's rays from shining on a part of the earth.

Because a solar eclipse was impossible at Passover with a full moon, the 3 hours darkness when Jesus was crucified is not explainable by natural causes. It can only be a supernatural protest against the crucifixion of the Creator on that crucifixion day in 33 AD when the sun was in the Hebrew sign of the Lamb (Taleh), our Aries. When the shadow of death passed over the Lamb of God, Jesus Christ, the literal shadow passed over the earth at exactly the same time that the Passover lambs were being sacrificed. In addition, an eclipse of the sun would only last a few minutes, not three hours as at Christ's crucifixion.

Secular Records of the 3 Hours Darkness in 33 AD

1. Thallus (written 52 AD).

Thallus was a Samaritan historian who experienced the 3 hours darkness in 33 AD. He wrote a history of the Middle East from the Trojan Wars (1300-1200 BC) to his day entitled Histories. His writings have been lost, but are quoted by Julius Africanus (221 AD) as follows:

“ON THE CIRCUMSTANCES CONNECTED WITH OUR SAVIOUR’S PASSION AND HIS LIFE-GIVING RESURRECTION. As to His works severally, and His cures effected upon body and soul, and the mysteries of His doctrine, and the resurrection from the dead, these have been most authoritatively set forth by His disciples and apostles before us. On the whole world there pressed a most fearful darkness; and the rocks were rent by an earthquake, and many places in Judea and other districts were thrown down. This darkness Thallus, in the book of his History, calls, as appears to me without reason, an eclipse of the sun. For the Hebrews celebrate the Passover on the 14th day according to the moon, and the passion of our Saviour falls on the day before the Passover, but an eclipse of the sun takes place only when the moon comes under the sun. And it cannot happen at any other time but in the interval between the first day of the new moon and the last of the old, that is, at their junction; how then should an eclipse be supposed to happen when the moon is almost diametrically opposite the sun? Let opinion pass, however, let it carry the majority with it, and let this portent be deemed an eclipse of the sun.”

Here Thallus mentions:

i) Jesus’ death and resurrection.

ii) Darkness and an earthquake occurring at Christ’s death.

iii) An eclipse could not explain the darkness at full moon.

iv) The phrase “let it carry the majority” indicates that a majority of historians considered it an eclipse, implying that many more such explanations were circulating. In other words, the strange darkness was real and topic of scholarly discussion.

v) The phrase “let this portent of the world be deemed an eclipse of the sun”, indicates that what is under discussion is NOT the factuality of the event which was universally accepted, but the explanation of it. The world at large explained the phenomenon away as an eclipse.

vi) It is important to note that Julius Africanus calls Thallus’ work a “historia” and not some other general term for literary works. This explains why Julius is taking Thallus seriously.

vii) Both Julius Africanus and Thallus believed that Jesus died, contrary to Mohammed’s denial.

viii) Julius purpose was to write a History/Chronology (not an Apologetic) to merge Biblical chronology with the chronologies of Greece and Rome. His concern was historical truth, not theology.

ix) Julius’ writings were used by all succeeding historians (such as Eusebius, Socrates), used his contemporaries (eg Hippolytus), and his work formed the foundation of medieval history.

x) Julius knows the difference between “certain” and “uncertain” history because he writes, “Up to the time of the Olympiads, there is no certain history among the Greeks, all things before that date being confused and in no way consistent with each other”. He knew the difference between “mythical” and “non mythical” narratives. He knew the difference between fact and opinion by using the words “I think” to indicate his opinion.

Conclusion: The historical stature and credibility of Thallus and Julius Africanus is powerful evidence for Jesus Christ’s death, 3 hours darkness (documented by Phlegon) and the reliability of the four New Testament Gospels. Just as a “most fearful darkness” followed Israel’s rejection of Jesus Christ as the Light of the World, so a “most fearful darkness” has fallen upon Islam for rejecting Jesus Christ’s deity, death, resurrection and the New Testament witnesses.

The 3 hours darkness accompanying Jesus Christ’s crucifixion reinforces the significance of the crucifixion as the sins of mankind were laid upon the sinless, eternal Son of God, to save us from hell and give us the certainty of a home in heaven if we call on Jesus Christ to be our Saviour.

2. Phlegon (written 80 AD)

Phlegon was a first Century Greek historian and astronomer who wrote two books entitled Chronicles and Olympiads. Phlegon's record of the 3 hours darkness at Jesus' death is quoted by:

i) Julius Africanus: "Phlegon records that, in the time of Tiberius Caesar, at full moon, there was a full eclipse of the sun from the sixth hour to the ninth manifestly that one of which we speak. But what has an eclipse in common with an earthquake, the rending rocks, and the resurrection of the dead, and so great a perturbation throughout the universe? Surely no such event as this is recorded for a long period. But it was darkness induced by God, because the Lord happened then to suffer." (The Extant Writings of Julius Africanus XVIII.I).

ii) Origen mentions Phlegon's testimony:

"And with regard to the eclipse in the time of Tiberius Caesar, in whose reign Jesus appears to have been crucified, and the great earthquakes which then took place, Phlegon too, I think has written in the thirteenth or fourteenth book of his Chronicles." (Origen, Against Celsus, 2.33).

"Phlegon relates that these events took place at the time when our Saviour suffered." (Origen, Against Celsus, 2.59).

"Now Phlegon, in the thirteenth or fourteenth book, I think of his Chronicles, not only ascribed to Jesus a knowledge of future events, but also testified that the result corresponded to his prediction." (Origen, Against Celsus, 2.14).

"Phlegon mentioned the eclipse which took place during the crucifixion of the Lord Jesus... and this is shown by the historical account of Tiberius Caesar". (De.opif.mund, II.21).

Phlegon states that:

- a) Jesus knew and correctly predicted the future.
- b) The sun was darkened during Christ's death
- c) Great earthquakes occurred during Christ's death
- d) These facts were recorded in the historical records of Tiberius Caesar.

iii) Eusebius (260-340 AD). Syncellus quotes Eusebius's Chronicle of Phlegon verbatim in the Greek: "Jesus Christ... underwent his passion in the 18th year of Tiberius (AD 32-33). Also at that time in another Greek compendium we find an event recorded in these words: "the sun was eclipsed, Bithynia was struck by an earthquake, and in the city of Nicaea many buildings fell." All these things happened to occur during the Lord's passion. In fact, Phlegon, too, a distinguished reckoner of Olympiads, wrote more on these events in his 13th book, saying this: "Now, in the fourth year of the 202nd Olympiad (AD 32-33), a great eclipse of the sun occurred at the sixth hour (noon) that excelled every other before it, turning the day into such darkness of the night that the stars could be seen in heaven, and the earth moved in Bithynia, toppling many buildings in the city of Nicaea."

iv) Philopon (520 AD) wrote "Phlegon mentioned the eclipse which took place during the crucifixion of the Lord Christ...this is shown by the historical account of Tiberius Caesar" (De Opif. Mund. II.21).

3. Cassiodorus, a Roman statesman (490-585 AD) confirmed the darkness: "Our Lord Jesus Christ suffered... and an eclipse of the sun occurred, such as never was before or since". (Cassiodorus Chronican, Patrologia Latina, V.69)

4. Acts of Pilate, quoted by Justin Martyr (110-165 AD) in I Apology 35, 48, mentioned this 3 hours darkness in his defense before the Roman Emperor who would have been able to check the Acts of Pilate himself. "At the time he was crucified, there was darkness over all the world, the sun being darkened at midday, and the stars appearing, and the moon, as it turned into blood, failed in her light...the fear of the earthquake remained from the sixth hour of the preparation until the ninth hour."

5. Gospel of Peter (Apocryphal) (120 AD). A large fragment of this apocryphal gospel was discovered at Akmin (Panopolis) in Egypt in 1886. This work is mentioned by Serapion of Antioch about 190 AD (Opud Eusebius History Eccles. VI. Xii. 2-6) and is datable to about 120AD. It is an early witness to the catastrophic events at Jesus' crucifixion:

"5. (The Crucifixion is in progress at this point in the narrative). And it was noon, and darkness came over all Judea: and they (the Jewish leaders) were troubled and distressed, lest the sun had set, whilst he (Jesus) was yet alive: (for) it is written for them that the sun set not on him that hath been put to death. And one of them said, Give him to drink gall with vinegar. And they mixed and gave him to drink, and fulfilled all things, and accomplished their sins against their own head. Many went about with lamps, supposing that it was night, and fell down. And the Lord cried out, saying, My power, my power, thou hast forsaken me. And when he had said he was taken up. And in that hour the veil of the temple of Jerusalem was rent in twain. 6. And then they drew out the nails from the hands of the Lord, and laid him upon the earth, and the whole earth quaked, and great fear arose. Then the sun shone, and it was found the ninth hour and the Jews rejoiced, and gave his body to Joseph that he might bury it, since he had seen what good things he had done. And he took the Lord, and washed him, and rolled him in a linen cloth, and brought him into his own tomb, which was called the Garden of Joseph."

6. Tertullian (160-225 AD) was a juriconsult (law authority) familiar with the Roman archives which influenced his acceptance of Divine truth. He would not have boldly appealed to the archive records before the Roman Emperor, his colleagues and the Senate, had he not known that the evidence was irrefutable. He writes as follows:

Tertullian (first half of the third century AD), Apol. XXI:

"The Jews were so exasperated by His teaching, by which their rulers and chiefs were convicted of the truth, chiefly because so many turned aside to Him, that at last they brought Him before Pontius Pilate, at that time, Roman governor of Syria; and, by the violence of their outcries against Him, extorted a sentence giving Him up to them to be crucified. He Himself had predicted this, which, however, would have signified little had not the prophets of old done it as well. And yet, nailed upon the cross, He exhibited many notable signs, by which His death was distinguished from all others. At His own free-will, He with a word dismissed from Him His spirit, anticipating the executioners work. In the same hour, too, the light of day was withdrawn, when the sun at the very time was in his meridian blaze. Those who were not aware that this had been predicted about Christ, no doubt thought it an eclipse. You yourselves have the account of the world portent still in your archives. (XXI.19:Et tamen suffixus multa mortis illius propria ascendit insignia.. nam spiritum cum verbo sponte dimisit, praevento carnificis officio. Eodem momento dies medium orbem signante sole subducta est. Deliquium utique putaverunt qui id quoque super Christo praedicatum no sierunt. Et tamen eum mundi casum relatum in arcanis vestries habetis.) Then, when His body was taken down from the cross and placed in a sepulcher, the Jews in their eager watchfulness surrounded it with a large military guard, lest, as He had predicted His resurrection from the dead on the third day, His disciples might remove by stealth His body, and deceive even the incredulous. But, lo, on the third day there was a sudden shock of earthquake, the stone which sealed the sepulcher was rolled away, and the guard fled off in terror: without a single disciple near, the grave was found empty of all but the clothes of the buried One. But nevertheless, the leaders of the Jews, whom it nearly concerned both to spread abroad a lie, and keep back a people tributary and submissive to them from the faith, gave it out that the body of Christ had been stolen by His followers. For the Lord, you see, did not go forth into the public gaze, lest the wicked should be delivered from their error; that faith also, destined to a great reward, might hold its ground in difficulty. But He spent forty days with some of His disciples down in Galilee, a region of Judea, instructing them in the doctrines they were to teach to others. Thereafter, having given them commission to preach the gospel through the world, He was encompassed with a cloud and taken up to heaven, a fact more certain far than the assertions of your Proculi concerning Romulus. All these things Pilate did to Christ; and now in fact a Christian in his own convictions, he sent word of Him to the reigning Caesar, who was at that time Tiberius." (Apologies, XXI, 19).

III. Evidence of Jesus Christ's Death and Early Belief in His Deity.

These early records disprove Islam and prove Jesus Christ's death, resurrection and His Deity:

1) Ignatius (30-107 AD) taught by John, believed in the Deity of Christ and Trinity: “Our Lord and God, Jesus Christ, the Son of the living God, first did and then taught, as Luke testifies (p 56) continue in intimate union with Jesus Christ our God (p. 68)... loving Polycarp even as I do you (p. 58),... For our God, Jesus Christ, now that He is with the Father (p. 74). Those things have been fulfilled in the Gospel, (our Lord saying), Go ye and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.” (Matthew 28:19) (Ante-Nicene Fathers VI, p.85).

2) Pliny the Younger (61-112 AD) was the Governor of Bithynia in 112 AD and a Roman Senator.

He wrote to the Emperor Trajan asking for the guidance on how he should treat the Christians in his province. He stated that Christians were “meeting on a certain fixed day before it was light, when they sang in alternate verse a hymn to Christ as to a god, and bound themselves to a solemn oath, not to do wicked deeds, never commit fraud, theft, adultery, not to lie, nor to deny a trust...” (Epistles X.96).

This reveals that early Christians:

- i) Worshipped Jesus Christ as God.
- ii) Met on a fixed day of the week.
- iii) Were committed to holy, truthful, honest behavior.

Pliny described the Christians as people who loved the truth at any cost, and were willing to die as martyrs rather than deny their faith in Jesus as the Son of God.

3) Cornelius Tacitus Governor of Asia Minor (Turkey) in 112 AD. Tacitus (55-120 AD) has been called the greatest historian of Ancient Rome, as well as being Governor of Asia Minor (Turkey) in 112 AD. He wrote two major works: Annals and Histories. Being a Roman Governor and historian, he had access to the Roman Government archives. He confirmed many historical details in the Gospels, Acts and Romans.

In his Annals, written after 64 AD, he referred to Emperor Nero's persecution of the Christians for allegedly burning the city of Rome, which Nero himself had done:

“Consequently, to get rid of the report, Nero fastened the guilt and inflicted the most exquisite tortures on a class hated for their abominations, called Christians by the populace. Christus, from whom the name had its origin, suffered the extreme penalty during the reign of the Tiberius at the hands of one of our procurators, Pontius Pilatus, and a most mischievous superstition, thus checked for the moment, again broke out only in Judea, the first source of the evil, but even in Rome, where all things hideous and shameful from every part of the world find their centre and become popular. Accordingly, an arrest was first made of all who pleaded guilty; then, upon their information, an immense multitude was convicted, not so much of the crime of firing the city, as of hatred against mankind. Mockery of every sort was added to their deaths. Covered with the skins of beasts, they were torn by dogs and perished, or were nailed to crosses, or were doomed to the flames and burnt, to serve as a mighty illumination, when daylight was expired” (Annals 15,44).

This reference shows that:

- i) Christ lived during the reign of Tiberius Caesar (AD 13-37).

- ii) Pontius Pilate put him to death.

- iii) The word “superstition” suggests a religion.

- iv) Christ had followers who were named Christians.

- v) The Christians suffered under the Roman emperor Nero and were hated by others.

4) Suetonius (125 AD) was the official Roman historian during the reign of Emperors Trajan and Hadrian. He wrote a book on the lives of the first twelve Caesars. In the section on the Emperor Claudius (ruled 41-54 Ad), Suetonius referred to Christians being banished from Rome:

“He banished the Jews from Rome, who were continually making disturbances, Chrestus being their leader.” (Life of Claudius, 25.4, written in 125 AD).

This confirms that there were many Christians living in Rome before 54 AD, and it confirms Luke's statement in Acts 18:2 about exiling Jews from Rome during Claudius' reign:

“Paul found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla: (because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome:) and came unto them.”

5) Lucian of Samosata in Syria. Lucian lived during the reign of the Emperor Hadrian (76-117-138 AD). In his book The Passing Peregrinus, he wrote the history of a well known Greek traveler named Proteus who fled his country after several crimes, and travelled the world under the name Peregrinus. He met some followers of Jesus in the early church, of whom Lucian wrote:

“At which the time he learned the wonderful doctrine of the Christians, by conversing with their priests and scribes near Palestine... they spoke of him (Jesus) as a god, and took him for a lawgiver, and honoured him with the title of master... they still worship that great man who was crucified in Palestine, because he introduced into the world this new religion... their first lawgiver has taught them, that they are all brethren, from the moment that they are converted, and renounced the gods of the Greeks, worship their crucified master, and live according to his laws.”

This independently confirms Jesus being worshipped as God and that He died by crucifixion.

6) Mara Bar-Serapion. A Syrian named Mara Bar-Serapion wrote a letter in 73 AD from prison to his son Serapion, to encourage him to follow the example of famous wise men. This letter is listed in the British Museum as Syriac Manuscript 14,658. His father wrote:

“What advantage did the Athenians gain from putting Socrates to death? Famine and plague came upon them as a judgment for their crime.

What advantage did the men of Samos gain from burning Pythagorus? In a moment their land was covered with sand.

What advantage did the Jews gain from executing their wise king? It was just after that their kingdom was abolished. God justly avenged these three wise men: the Athenians died of hunger; the Samians were overwhelmed by the sea; the Jews ruined and driven from their land live in complete dispersion. But Socrates did not die for good; he lived on in the Statue of Hera. Nor did the wise king die for good; he lived on in the teaching which he had given”.

This provides strong independent pagan confirmation that Jesus was considered to be the “King of the Jews” as Pilate wrote above Jesus on the cross, “And set up over his head his accusation written, This is Jesus the King of the Jews” (Matthew 27:37) and that he died by crucifixion.

7) The Jewish Talmud. The Talmud is the Mishnah (oral legal teachings) and the Jewish commentary on the Mishnah (the Gemara). It is the basis of Jewish religious life. The accepted version was compiled by Rabbis Akiba (died 136 AD) and Meir. It refers to Jesus Christ’s death:

“On the eve of the Passover, Yeshua (Jesus) was hanged... but since nothing was brought forward in his favour, he was hanged on the eve of the Passover.” (Babylonia Sanhedrin 43AD). From this we conclude that:

- i) Jesus was hanged (see Galatians 3:13) or crucified.
- ii) Jesus died on Passover eve or Friday afternoon.
- iii) No one defended Jesus.

8) Josephus (37-100 AD) was born into Jewish priestly family. He was a Pharisee and a historian for the Roman Empire. He wrote Antiquities of the Jews (94 AD) and The Wars of the Jews. He described Jesus Christ’s life, miracles, crucifixion, death and resurrection as follows:

“Now, there was about this time Jesus, a wise man, if it be lawful to call him a man. For he was a doer of surprising feats – a teacher of such men as received the truth with pleasure. He drew over to him both many of the Jews and many of the Gentiles. He was (the) Christ; and when Pilate, at the suggestion of the principal men amongst us, had condemned him to the cross, those that loved him at the first did not forsake him, for he appeared to them alive again the third day, as the divine prophets had foretold these and ten thousand other wonderful things concerning him; and the tribe of Christians, so named from him, are not extinct to this day.” (Antiquities of the Jews 18.3.3).

9) Polycarp (65-155 AD) and Ignatius were taught by John. Polycarp’s prayer before his martyrdom shows his strong belief in the trinity of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. “I glorify Thee, along with the everlasting and heavenly Jesus Christ, Thy beloved Son, with Whom, to Thee, and the Holy Ghost, be glory both now and to all coming ages. Amen.” (Ante-Nicene Fathers, Vol 1, p42, Eerdmans).

273. First Century Writers Quote Every NT Book (except III John).

1. Ignatius (30-107AD) a disciple of John, quotes every New Testament book except III John and Jude, giving the same readings as the King James Bible (Vol.1, p.45-131). This proves that:

a) The King James Bible is unchanged since the original autographs.

b) The Muslim claim is false that the Bible has been corrupted by adding references to show Jesus' Sonship, deity, death and resurrection. Islam denies these. Ignatius calls Jesus the Prophet of Deut.18:15

c) The Roman Catholic claim is false that the NT books were not immediately recognised as Scripture until the Catholic Council of Carthage determined it in 397AD.

If you check the footnotes in the early church writers, you will find that Ignatius quotes all these NT references (from 25 out of 27 NT books on 245 occasions), showing that the canon of Scripture was immediately recognised as authoritative Scripture.

Matthew 1:1,23; 3:9,15; 4:6,9,10,23; 5:4,19,45,48; 6:14; 7:15; 8:17; 9:35; 10:16,41; 12:33,40; 15:13; 16:26; 18:19; 19:12; 22:40; 23:35; 24:25; 27:52; 28:19. Mark 12:29.

II Peter 3:9. I John 2:22; 4:3. II John 7. Revelation 1:7.

2. Clement of Rome (30-100 AD) was a companion of Paul and Luke. He wrote to the Corinthians in 96 AD, quoting the New and Old Testament Scriptures as being equally authoritative. He was at Philippi with Paul in 57 AD. ("with Clement also" Philippians 4:3). He quotes Psalm 118:18 and Hebrews 12:6 as the Holy Word (First Epistle of Clement 56:3,4. ie: Vol.1, p.20) "For thus saith the holy Word: "The Lord hath severely chastened me, yet hath he not given me over to death" (Psalm 118:18). "For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth." (Hebrews 12:6). He says that Paul wrote I Corinthians with "true inspiration to you" (47:1-3).

He quotes from 15 out of 27 NT books as Scripture on 49 occasions (Vol.1, p.1-21) in 96 AD.

These are: Matthew 6:12-15; 7:2; 15:8; 24:35. Mark 7:6; 9:42. Luke 6:36-38; 8:5; 17:2. Acts 20:35.

3. Polycarp (65-155 AD) was a disciple of John. In writing to the Philippian church in 115 AD, he quotes 19 out of the 27 New Testament books as Scripture on 70 occasions. This shows that the NT canon was well established by 115 AD. He testified to be a disciple of John the Apostle. (Vol.1, p.31-44). In 115 AD he quotes Matthew 5:3,10,44; 6:12,13,14; 7:1,2; 20:28; 26:41; Mark 14:38; Luke 6:20,36,37,38; Acts 2:24; 5:41; 17:31; 21:14. Romans 8:11; 12:17; 14:10-12; I Cor. 6:2,9,10,14; II Cor. 4:14; 5:10; 8:31; Gal. 1:1; 2:2; 4:26; 6:7; Eph. 2:8,9; 4:26; 6:11,14; Phil. 1:5,27; 2:10,16; I Thess. 5:17,22; II Thess. 3:15; I Tim. 2:2; 3:8; 6:7,10; II Tim. 2:12; Titus 3:1; I Peter 1:8,13,21; 2:11,12,17,21,22,24; 3:9,22; 4:7,16; 5:5; II Peter 3:15; I John 4:3,9; Jude 3.

274. The Trinity Of The Godhead Seen In Nature

Question: How is the Trinity of the Godhead seen in nature as stated in Romans 1:20 “for the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse.”

Answer: a) We see God’s eternal power in earthquakes, volcanoes, wind, millions of stars, galaxies, waves, floods, lightning, sun, moon, nuclear bombs, etc.

b) We see the Trinity of the Godhead with so many things coming in “threes”, reminding us of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, all three members of the creator Godhead. Examples include:

1. The Physical Universe: Space, mass, time.

2. Space: 3 dimensions of space are: length, breadth, height.

3. Mass: 3 phases of matter are: solid, liquid, gas.

4. Time: 3 tenses of time are: past, present, future.

5. Light: 3 directions of light wave oscillation are: horizontal, vertical, backward and forward.

6. Colours: 3 primary colours of light for artists are: red, blue, yellow.

7. Kingdoms: 3 Kingdoms are: Animal, vegetable, mineral.

8. Animal: 3 kinds of Animal: fish, bird, land animals.

9. Minerals: 3 main kinds of Minerals are: igneous, sedimentary, metamorphic.

10. Heavens: 3 heavens are: atmosphere, space, God’s throne.

11. Man: 3 components of Man are: body, soul (personality), spirit. (I Thess. 5:23).

12. Divine institutions: 3 Divine institutions are: marriage, human government, church.

13. Musical notes: 3 notes make up a musical chord.

14. Sub-atomic particles: 3 main sub-atomic particles are: proton, electron, neutron.

15. Mankind: 3 divisions of the human race: Jew, Gentile, Church of God. (I Cor.10:32).

16. Seeds: consist of three main parts: (1) the seed coat, (2) the embryo, and (3) the food storage tissue.

17. Forces: nuclear, gravitational, electromagnetic.

18. DNA (the substance of genes) contains phosphate, deoxyribose and bases bonded into nucleotides.

19. Earth is the third planet from the Sun. 44. Structural Forces: Flexural, Axial, Sheer forces.

20. Trees made of roots, trunk, leaves.

45. Learning Methods: Hear, See, Do.

21. Blood cells: red, white, platelet.

46. Newton’s 3 Laws of Motion of physical objects.

22. Genius Traits: Intellect, Zeal, Work.

47. Kepler’s 3 Laws of Planetary Motion.

23. Sun: alpha, beta, gamma rays.

48. 3 Types of Average: Mean, Mode, Median.

24. Insects: head, thorax, abdomen.

49. 3 Accounting Variables: Assets= Liabilities+Equity

25. Humans: Head, Abdomen, Limbs.

50. Food Types: Protein, Carbohydrates, Fat.

26. Sun’s mass = 333,000 x earth mass.

51. Tooth components: Root, Dentine, Enamel.

27. Sun emits: heat, light, radiation.

52. Basic Sentence Structure: Subject, Verb, Object.

28. Cell: nucleus, cytoplasm, membrane.

53. Family: Father, Mother, Child.

29. 3 Joints in a human finger.

54. Levi: Jacob’s third son led the priestly tribe (Gen 29:34)

30. Earth’s Structure: Core, Mantle, Crust. 55. Blood transfer methods: Artery, Vein, Capillary.

31. Ear divisions: Outer ear, Middle ear, Inner ear. 56. Musical Instruments: Percussion, Brass, Wind.

32. Health Requirements: Rest, Exercise, Diet. 57. Basic Skills: Reading, Writing, Arithmetic.

33. Levels of Government: King, Lawgiver, Judge (Isaiah 33:22). 58. Coconut shell has 3 large spots

34. Earth is land, sea, atmosphere. 59. Requirements for fire: Fuel, Oxygen, Heat combustion source.

35. Types of Triangles: Obtuse, Acute, Right angled. (Pythagorus).

36. Heat Transfer methods: Conduction, Convection, Radiation.

37. Law of 3 Witnesses (Matthew 18:16; Deut. 19:15; I Timothy 5:19) .

38. Tessellation types: Translation, rotation, reflection.

39. Cone cells in the Eye come in 3 types, sensitive to different light wavelengths.

40. Human Brain components: Cerebrum, Cerebellum, Medulla.

41. Memory works on the concept of threes. The first time you observe something it’s unique.

The second time you observe the same thing it becomes understood like a pattern.

The third time you observe the same thing you have a pattern to reference and it becomes known.

42. Life is based on Carbon, atomic number 6, the sum & product of the first 3 integers ($6=1+2+3$; $6=1\times 2\times 3$).

43. Important Molecules contain 3 atoms: water (H₂O), carbon dioxide (CO₂), ozone (O₃).

275. Eleven Old Testament Prophets teach that Jesus Christ is Jehovah God in 16 Quotes.

- 1. Moses: The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob Who appeared to Moses at the burning bush revealed His Name as eternal “I AM” (Exodus 3:14,15). Jesus revealed that He was the true God by stating that “Before Abraham was, I AM”, and “If ye believe not that I am, ye shall die in your sins.” John 8:58,24.
- 2. David: God told David that David’s son would be David’s God. “The LORD (Jehovah) said unto my Lord (Adonai), Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool.” (Psalm 110:1). Jesus applied this to Himself in Matthew 22:41-45 as a question: “If David then call him Lord, how is he his son?” This shows that Jesus Christ would be both a man descended from David & David’s God.
- 3. Solomon: God has a son. “What is his name, and what is his son’s name?” (Proverbs 30:4).
- 4. Isaiah: a) The Mighty God would be both man and God the Son. “For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: ..And his name shall be called ...the Mighty God...” (Isaiah 9:6).
- b) God the Son who created the heavens and the earth, would be sent to earth by Jehovah the Father and by God the Holy Spirit to save man. (Isaiah 48:12,13,16).
- c) Isaiah saw the King, Jehovah of hosts on a throne in heaven, who asked Isaiah “who will go for us?” (Isaiah 6:1-8,5). (“us”=trinity). In John 12:37-41, John said of Jesus, “These things said Esaias when he saw his (Jesus) glory, and spake of him (Jesus).” Jesus was the King, Jehovah of hosts that Isaiah saw.
- 5. Jeremiah: “Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch (Jesus’ humanity), and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth. In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD (Jehovah) OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS (Jesus’ Deity).” (Jeremiah 23:5,6).
- 6. Ezekiel: Ezekiel prophesied that the east gate of Jerusalem will be shut, as it is today, “because the LORD (Jehovah), the God of Israel, has entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut.” (Ezekiel 44:1,2). Question: When did Jehovah, the God of Israel enter the east gate of Jerusalem? It was when Jesus Christ entered it on Palm Sunday before His crucifixion in Luke 19:28-48. He rode a donkey from the Mount of Olives through the east gate, then entered the temple. This proves that Jesus is Jehovah God.
- 7. Daniel: a) When King Nebuchadnezzar threw the 3 Hebrew men into the furnace, he saw a fourth person walking in the furnace and protecting them, who was identified as the Son of God (Daniel 3:25)
- b) The Son of man (Christ) came to the Ancient of days (God the Father) to receive the kingdom.7:9-14
- 8. Hosea: Jehovah will return to “my place” (heaven), till the Jews admit their offence of killing Jesus. “Hear the word of the LORD (Jehovah) (4:1).I will go and return to my place (heaven), till they (Jews) acknowledge their offence (of killing Jesus), and seek my face: in their affliction (7 year tribulation) they (Jews) will seek me early.” Jehovah the Son came from heaven to be born of Mary as a man. He was rejected and crucified by the Jews. The resurrected Lord Jesus returned to heaven. Jesus will only return when Israel acknowledge their offence of killing Jesus. This occurs after the 7 year tribulation.
- 9. Micah: Micah prophesied that the eternal second member of the trinity would be born as a human baby in Bethlehem in Micah 5:2, “But thou, Bethlehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he (Jesus Christ, God the Son) come forth unto me (God the Father) that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting”.
- 10. Zechariah: a) “Thus says the LORD (Jehovah) my God; (v.4). If ye think good, give me my price: So they weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver (v.12). I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORD” (Zech 11:4,12,13). Israel sold Jehovah for 30 silver coins. These three prophecies were fulfilled in Judas betraying Jesus Christ in Matthew 26:14-16 and 27:3-10.
- b) When Jesus Christ returns to earth, He is identified as Jehovah God whom Israel pierced on the cross. “I (Jehovah) will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem,...they (Israel) shall look upon me (Jehovah) whom they have pierced” (Zech. 12:9-10). Jesus fulfilled this in John 19:37.
- c) When Jesus Christ returns to earth on the Mount of Olives, He is identified as Jehovah God.Zech 14 “Then shall the LORD (Jehovah) go forth and fight against those nations,...And his feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives (v.3-4)...the LORD (Jehovah) my God shall come, and all the saints with thee (v.5)...the LORD (Jehovah) shall be king over all the earth ...” (Zechariah 14:3,4,5,9). When Jesus ascended to heaven from the Mount of Olives, two angels told those witnesses present that “this same Jesus shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.” (Acts 1:10-11).
- 11. Malachi: Malachi wrote of “the Lord (Adonai, God) whom you seek shall suddenly come to his temple (in Jerusalem).” (Malachi 3:1). Jesus fulfilled this in John 2:13-21 at the start of His ministry.

THE THREE ELEMENTS OF A MISSIONARY CALL

Jesus Christ, the Good Samaritan, came to bind up the sinners's wounds. (Luke 10:25-37). Jesus Christ tells believers to help new Christians grow. "Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee." (v.35). This book helps you do this.

THE WAY TO GOD and HEAVEN

1. We have sinned by breaking God's laws, the 10 commandments. We have been selfish, putting ourselves first, taking God's good gifts of creation without thanking Him as Provider. We have broken the chief commandment of not loving God with all our heart, soul, mind and strength. We have not loved others as we love ourselves. This is sin. We are all big sinners compared to God.
2. God's Law demands that we receive penalty for our sin in hell forever. This is bad news. God loves us and is offering everybody the free gift of eternal life which we get through from Jesus Christ.
3. Jesus Christ, who is God the Son, came to earth, lived a sinless life, and at the age of 33 died on the cross to take the full punishment due for everybody's past, present and future sins. Having received the full penalty of our sins, He died, was buried and rose from the dead three days later.
4. If you believe the Jesus Christ is:
 - a) God the Son.
 - b) Died for your sins in your place; and
 - c) Rose again bodily from the dead, ThenReceive or ask Jesus Christ to be your Saviour from sin,
Then God will forgive all your sins and give you eternal life immediately.

Question: Will you receive Jesus Christ as your Saviour? If yes, then tell this to God right now:

"Almighty God. I know that I have sinned against you. I believe that Jesus Christ died on the cross to pay the penalty for my sins to be my Saviour. I now receive you, Lord Jesus Christ, as my Saviour and my God. I now call on you, Lord Jesus, to save me from my sins, take me to heaven when I die, and give me the gift of eternal life right now. I now open the door of my heart and life for You, Lord Jesus, to come in to be my Saviour, my Friend and my God forever. In Jesus Christ's name, I pray. Amen."
